Re Paris airtel 1-20-65.

On 1-20-65 CHARLES BALSAN of the Police Judiciaire (Criminal Police), Sûreté Nationale (PJSN), advised that information had been received that SUZANNE FUEGER had left the Hotel Bristol, Paris, France, on approximately January 17 or January 18, 1965, to return to her residence at 177 Promenade des Anglais, Nice, France. According to BALSAN, subject was still residing at the Hotel Bristol and was expected to remain there until 1-24-65.

On 1-23-65 BALSAN advised that further inquiry at the Hotel Bristol had revealed that subject had departed the hotel on 1-20-65 and that his destination and present whereabouts are unknown.

BALSAN stated that hotel authorities had previously agreed to advise the PJSN of subject's departure but apparently had neglected to do so. It should be noted that during the period in question German Chancellor ERHARD was reportedly residing at the same hotel, and BALSAN speculated that hotel authorities were so preoccupied with their distinguished visitor that they inadvertently neglected to advise the PJSN.
