

March 22, 1920.

Mr. A.F. Willmarth,
Fairplay, Colo.

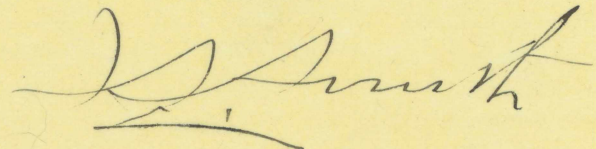

Dear Mr. Willmarth:-

Referring to your phone talk of a few weeks ago, my understanding is that Mrs. Wilkin and her family are willing that I have the sundry briefs and office copies of pleadings, etc. left by Judge Wilkin in his office. I have not written Mrs. Wilkin with reference to this to thank her for giving me the benefit of these papers, because I do not know just what the real facts were. If you have information from her that that is her wish, please so advise me that I may write her on the subject. Assuming that these briefs and papers are to be turned over to me and that they are now in the old brewery building for safe keeping until I take them, as you reported to me in your telephone talk, I wish to say that upon my coming to Fairplay at the May Term of your District Court, I shall then arrange to have these papers boxed and forwarded to Greeley. I know they are bulky matters. I will be personally very much obliged to you and stand willing to pay you for your trouble if you will arrange with your merchant in Fairplay and get from him suitable boxes in which these papers may be placed when I reach Fairplay. The boxes should be strong and suitable for the purpose and I do not wish to risk coming to Fairplay and then not being able to get such boxes.

Please let me hear from you on this subject.

With very kind regards to you and your wife,

Respectfully yours,

ISS:BB