POLICE TAKE MANY CHINESE IN RAID

Alleged Gaming House Results in $5,250 Bail Money Lodged With City

Accused, Eighty-Seven in Number, Face Trial

Following a raid by Chief Fry and a squad of police yesterday afternoon on premises known as the Fen Yen Club, on Fisgard Street, the city to-day holds $5,250 Chinese money, deposited as bail for a total of eighty-seven accused. The raid took the alleged gambling premises by surprise, police assert, and resulted in the largest capture made in some years by the city police.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Before Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court to-day Quong Jung and Sam Lung were jointly charged with being the keepers of the alleged gaming house. Duck Tim and eighty-four other Chinese were charged with being unlawfully inmates. W. H. Haldane appeared for all accused, who pleaded not guilty. The trial will take place on Monday next. Shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Chief Fry made a round of the police station and called the first five officers he sighted. Climbing into the patrol the posse raced down to the club premises. Later more officers joined in the raid, and all doors were assaulted at once. The conveyance of the accused to the police station, and the counting of bail money occupied far into the evening. The proceedings in court this morning were confined to a roll call of the accused, a work that occupied forty-five minutes before the formal remand was granted. All the accused are on bail for the sum total of the bail totaling $5,250, of which the alleged keepers contributed $500 each.

TAX ON IMPORTED OIL TO BE HALF A CENT A GALLON

Government Anxious Not to Hit Industry With Too Heavy Impost

Gasoline Tax to be Three Cents a Gallon; License Changes Expected

Fuel oil imported into British Columbia will be taxed at the rate of one-half a cent a gallon under present plans, it was understood at the Parliament Buildings to-day. Definite announcement of this tax, it was stated, will be made in the budget speech of Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, early this week.

The figure of half a cent has been reached after careful consideration, and in view of the protests of industrial leaders against a heavy fuel oil levy. It had been expected that the tax would be one cent a gallon, but Premier Oliver intimated to a delegation of businessmen last week that if their figures on the effect of such a tax were correct, he would be prepared to consider a lower figure. The figure of one-half a cent, it is believed, will be the most equitable that could be fixed.

IMPORTANT AGENDA FOR RAILWAY BOARD. Company Will Proceed With Bascule Span Application.

With the question of the opening and closing regulations for the railway span of the Johnson Street bridge, and the issue of the Express Traffic Association's application for higher rates, set down for hearing at the sitting of the Railway Board here on Thursday morning, it promises to be a more lively session than has been the case for a long period when the commissioners have sat in this city.

The Equimault & Nanaimo Railway Company has an application seeking to revise the order of the Board made September 1, 1910, which set the period for closing the old bridge, now dismantled. The three days to the present negotiation, the city, company and navigation interests, have failed to agree, but meanwhile a motion has been adopted by the city council and forwarded to Ottawa, which does not agree with the application of the company.

THE CITY'S RESOLUTION. The resolution of the City Council, which occasioned so much debate, is based on the exact language of the Johnson Street Bridge agreement incorporated as a schedule to the Act of 1920, known as the Johnson Street Bridge Agreement Validation Act of 1920. This agreement in Clause 12 says: "The city will join with the railway company in an application to the said Board of Railway Commissioners for an order providing that the bascule span of the said bridge shall not be opened within twenty minutes before the departure or arrival of a scheduled train of the railway company from or to the railway company's station on the east side of Victoria harbor."

THE APPLICATION. The application which the company is making sets out that "during a period of ten minutes before and twenty minutes after the scheduled time for the arrival of a train of the applicant company at its station on the east side of Victoria harbor, or during a period of twenty minutes before and ten minutes after the scheduled time of departure, the bridge bascule span shall be closed."

EXPRESSIONS OF OPINION. Leading authorities on express charges are coming to Victoria for the Express Traffic Association meeting on the Railway Board agenda stating that the express company of the Canadian National Railways is added for the purpose of the argument.

THE EXPRESSIONS OF OPINION. The express companies have suggested three alternative ways for deriving an increase in revenue of $627,549. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association is opposing all of them. They are as follows:

- 1. A horizontal increase of 5 per cent. on all traffic.
2. No change in first-class rates. Put second-class on 80 per cent. of first-class and increase commodities other than cream 22 per cent.
3. Make first-class rates per 100 pounds a multiple of 2 1/2 times the standard freight rates, average in 50-mile groups, preserving existing minimum rates; make second-class rates 80 per cent. of first-class and increase commodities other than cream 10 per cent.

PLEDGE TO AID HOSPITAL DRIVE.

Fifty Gyros volunteered to help canvass for the Jubilee Hospital drive at their regular luncheon today. Members of the hospital drive committee appeared before the club and appealed for support, stating that the reason the fund was not growing more rapidly was due to the lack of canvassers. When an appeal for help from President Holmes was made half a hundred young men rose to the feet and offered to interview at least five people.

MR. PEDEN ENTHUSIASTIC. "You won't regret turning out and helping to canvass," Alex. Peden, a member of the committee, told the Gyros. "Everyone is in sympathy with the work. I have canvassed in this city for years, and I know there is a work which had the whole-hearted support of the community here. People will receive you sympathetically."

Explains liquor methods. Why liquor is shipped from Victoria to cities in the interior of the Province is explained by Hon. A. M. SHEFFIELD CONTESTS AROUSE INTEREST.

London, Nov. 25.—(Canadian Press Cable.) The political position in Sheffield, as described by the non-partisan special correspondent of the Canadian Press, possesses features not to be found elsewhere in any city triangular contests virtually are certain in six out of the seven divisions. The three parties are resolved to exhaust the full possibilities of the election.

FAVORS CAPITAL LEVY.

Cecil Wilson, Labor M.P. for the Attercliffe Division, who is a capitalist prominently associated with a famous gold and silver refining house, is presumably as leader of the local Socialists, favors a capital levy.

LIVELY CAMPAIGN.

The Socialists promise Sheffield such a roaring campaign as they put up in the recent municipal election, when they created such disturbances at meetings that Sir William Clegg, chairman of the Sheffield Election Commission, one of the finest municipal workers in the country, was compelled to resort to the local press to make known his views on matters affecting the city.

DRUG CASE UP.

R. H. Pooley, Conservative Member for Equimault, will move in the House next Tuesday that the Government table all documents relating to the mounted Police drug investigation.

READY TO GOVERN ROADS FOR FERRY.

Provincial Government, However, Will Not Offer Wharves. Wharves in the Province have been taken over by the Dominion Government and the facilities sought for the proposed Mill Bay ferry should be taken up with Ottawa authorities, the Chamber of Commerce were advised to-day by the Provincial Government. The Chamber was told that the Provincial Government would construct road connections with the existing highways.

McGEER HITS BACK HARD AT BOWSER IN LIVELY CLASH.

Mr. McGeer explained that the item of $190 for living expenses for Hugh Dalton, of the Vancouver Board of Trade, had been inserted by a mistake in accounting, but had been voluntarily deleted. Mr. McGeer was struck out long before this newspaper controversy.

DEBT SETTLEMENT.

Premier Baldwin's debt settlement with the United States, which Lloyd George used against him in a speech last Saturday, is doing service to the Premier's opponents elsewhere. The Daily Express, one of Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers, which are attacking Mr. Baldwin, is notably because the tariff proposals do not go far enough, says that what unpopularly the Premier has achieved is almost entirely due to his financial assistance in Washington.

CONFERENCE AT OTTAWA.

Mr. McGeer told of conferring with the Hon. H. H. Stevens in Ottawa, who he said was a man he had had who he said was interested in trans-portion problems and a "man who had felt belittled in the C.P.R. had not been giving Western Canada a fair deal."

OBITUARY.

Service was held at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1825 Quadra Street, at two o'clock Saturday afternoon for Frank White, who passed away suddenly on Thursday morning at his family residence, 161 Bushby Street, Rev. F. H. Fatt conducted a very impressive service. The hymns sung were "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Our Redeemer, Ever He Breathed." There were many friends present, and a profusion of beautiful floral tributes covered the casket and hearse.

UNEMPLOYMENT IS CAUSE.

That the capital levy disciples have such a big following is largely due to the fact that the unemployed unemployment, while the housing conditions in Sheffield remain miserable to a degree. Many Sheffield people, however, remember that Sheffield's staple industry was born and developed under free trade, yet the flooding of Great Britain with continental surpluses of steel at low prices affords a basis of strong argument in favor of protection.

MISSIONARIES WERE DELAYED BY SIEGE OF CHINESE TOWN

Fredericton, N.B., Nov. 26.—Canadian missionaries who sailed from the British Columbia coast upward of two months ago for China arrived at Chung Hung to find the place besieged by 30,000 revolutionaries and were indefinitely delayed there, spending their time studying the Chinese language and customs before proceeding on their way to Honan to carry on work under the Methodist Mission Board of Canada, according to a letter which has been received from Miss Eunice Peters, of Nashwanakis, York County, who was one of the party. Miss Peters, writing of the trip, says that after being unable to land at Yokohama because of the earthquake, they arrived at Chung Hung just as a big shell exploded near where the steamship was to dock. The city was surrounded by 30,000 revolutionaries, she writes, but the Canadian missionaries, as well as those from the United States, landed and were soon placed in comfortable quarters, where they remained until conditions became somewhat more settled. Little Tommy, when quite a mite, blew up his nurse with dynamite. Mother said, "Oh! what a noise!" But father said, "Boys will be boys!"

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—One hundred crates, containing Canadian exhibits for the British Empire Exhibition, packed and awaiting shipment, were badly damaged by smoke and fire when a building occupied by the Canadian Exhibition Commission of the Department of Immigration and Colonization caught fire yesterday. An official of the department gave it as his opinion that the exhibits could be easily replaced as they consisted principally of minerals, woods and grain.

RT. HON. W. S. FIELDING, SEVENTY-FIVE, HONORED AT HALIFAX BANQUET

Halifax, Nov. 26.—His opening words drowned by wave after wave of cheering from the 250 guests in the dining room of the Halifax Hotel and a large number of others who crowded the corridors and the orchestra balcony, Right Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance and Acting Prime Minister of Canada, with deep emotion thanked the friends who on Saturday evening offered this tribute to him on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday and gave reminiscences to the gathering from his political life of forty-one years. It was five minutes before the ovation died away and the "Little Gray Man" could complete his first sentence. He said: "No words I can employ can fittingly express the thanks I owe. It would be strange, indeed, to receive these evidences of your friendship and confidence and not respond to them from the bottom of my heart. I give you my sincerest thanks."

RT. HON. W. S. FIELDING

PARTY GOVERNMENT

Mr. Fielding declared himself as unqualifiedly in favor of the party system of Government and pleaded for an earnest, intelligent study of political questions. "I would rather have my Conservative friends vote and defeat me than have them assume a miserable attitude of neglect and indifference toward public questions. We want more politics of the right kind in this country than the intelligent study of public affairs," he said. Speaking of his career, Mr. Fielding said his own personal relations with Conservatives had always been of the friendliest nature and, in debate, they had been invariably courteous, which proved that difference in politics in this country did not mean personal antagonism.

INDIAN ELECTIONS KEENLY FOUGHT

Members of Central Assembly and Provincial Councils Chosen

Nationalists Failed to Secure Majorities

Delhi, India, Nov. 26 (Canadian Press cable via Reuter's).—The election contests for the central Executive Assembly and the Provincial Councils throughout India were marked everywhere, except in Bengal, with great keenness. A feature of the campaign was the success by the Swaraj, or extreme Nationalist candidates, whose election manifesto bluntly declared that "should the British refuse to concede effective control of the machinery of government, our members will resort to a policy of uniform and continuous obstruction with a view to making government through the Executive Councils and the Councils impossible."

AWAIT RESULT OF BRITISH ELECTION

People of France Uncertain as to Influence of Contest, Says Correspondent

London, Nov. 26 (Canadian Press Cable).—The Paris correspondent of the Canadian Press wires that France is non-plussed over the British election, public opinion wavering between hatred of Lloyd George and fear of the Baldwin tariff. The dilemma is causing some of the newspapers to ease off in their criticism of the ex-premier and foretell instead the disadvantages to France of British protection. Government circles display a neutral attitude, alleging the outcome of the British campaign will not change the diplomatic situation.

UNIQUE OCCASION

Premier E. H. Armstrong, who presided at the dinner, thought that in the British Empire there was no record of the kind in which he found himself. On one side of him was the man who became Premier of Nova Scotia in 1884 and held the post for twelve years and on the other side of him was Hon. G. H. Murray, who had succeeded him and held the position for twenty-seven years, a record for the Empire. Mr. Fielding had led the Government of Nova Scotia in four provincial elections and had participated in seven Federal general elections.

SAYS SUPPORT OF LEAGUE GROWING

Dr. F. H. Martin Tells of Change of Sentiment in United States

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The majority of the people of the United States who do their own thinking believe we should have gone into the League of Nations, said Dr. Franklin H. Martin, Director-General of the American College of Surgeons, in an address here Saturday before the Canadian Club. Prominent statesmen in the United States, he said, among whom he mentioned Taft, Hughes, Root and Hoover were to-day ready and anxious to stand behind some programme of adherence to the League if they could only do so without too palpable a right-about-face. The dominating political party, however, backed by a powerful and wealthy press, had conducted a campaign of depreciation and ridicule of the League and it was now necessary to remove outstanding American statesmen, such as those he mentioned, to come out in downright support of the League, notwithstanding its previous anti-league attitude. Dr. Martin asserted that there was an influential group in the party which was growing restless and outspoken with regard to the League and he gave it as his opinion that a new pronouncement would be made in the near future.

GIRL IN ONTARIO WHO WAS SHOT DIED; ANOTHER WOUNDED

London, Ont., Nov. 26.—Miss Geraldine Durston, whom it is alleged Clarence Topping admitted shooting on Friday at the girl's home following her refusal to marry him, died in a hospital here Saturday night. Miss Violet McNaughton, also a victim of the shooting, was reported today as being brighter. She is now thought to have an even chance for recovery. She was a chum of Miss Durston, and was in the room when Topping fired. A police officer rushed in when he heard the shooting, and fired just as Miss McNaughton rushed out. It is not known whether she was hit by a bullet from Topping's revolver or that of the assassin's "bullet" passed through her chest.

ULSTERITES TAKE PART IN BRITISH ELECTION CAMPAIGN

London, Nov. 26 (Canadian Press Cable).—One hundred and fifty delegates from the Ulster National Council have arrived in Great Britain to explain the North of Ireland attitude toward the British election. They are concentrating on the necessity of relieving unemployment, which they declare is the outstanding danger and which five years of free trade since the Act of Union have failed to alleviate.

WAR MEMORIAL ON ISLE OF MAN

London, Nov. 26.—The Manx national war memorial has been erected near Tynwald Hill, the famous mound from which the Manx laws have been proclaimed for centuries. The memorial comprises a stone Celtic cross modelled after the ancient monuments still to be found on the island. Manxmen declare they furnished in proportion to population more men to fight on land and sea than any other British community.

FACTORY INSPECTION CHANGE IS URGED
T. Moore Suggests Canada Adopt International Labor Recommendations

Ottawa, Nov. 26 (Canadian Press).—Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, is back in Ottawa after attending the International Labor Congress at Geneva.

"Canada and the United States," said Mr. Moore, "are far in advance of Europe as regards factory inspection and safety first standards in industrial plants. But I feel it would be a good thing for Canada to adopt the recommendations of the congress on uniform factory inspection because of the moral effect it would have upon nations which have lagged behind in this important matter."

Mr. Moore referred to the possibility of Canada securing a branch office for the collection and distribution of information dealing with the work of the international labor organization.

"Bureaus of this kind are located in Washington and some of the larger cities of the continent," Mr. Moore explained, "and the governing body of the central organization is seriously considering the advisability of establishing a branch in Canada."

FEDERATION OF CHURCHES URGED
St. John, N.B., Nov. 26.—At a large attended meeting here last night Rev. George Duncan, of Montreal, and Mr. Justice O. S. Crockett, of Fredericton, spoke in the interests of the continuance of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Dr. Duncan, speaking as a former member of the church union committee, declared the people of the Presbyterian Church never had been given an opportunity to vote on the proposed legislation to effect union and that legislation he utterly condemned. He favored a form of federation of churches such as now existed in some other countries.

A PERSONAL INVESTMENT

It is now two weeks since the campaign in aid of the Jubilee Hospital Building Fund commenced. During that time the response has been generous in many quarters. But we are persuaded that the task of the committee in charge could be considerably shortened and made much less onerous if those who have not yet made their small or large contributions were to do so at once.

A GREAT CANADIAN

The heartfelt tribute paid to Mr. Fielding by his admirers in Halifax on Saturday night on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday expressed the sentiments of not only Canadians everywhere, regardless of political distinctions, but many people in the United Kingdom and the other Dominions where he is widely known and esteemed.

ITS ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE

A few days ago The Times printed a number of resolutions passed by unions of employees connected with the theatres of Vancouver supporting the request of the amusement interests of British Columbia for a reduction of the amusement tax from ten to five per cent.

NATIONALIST PLANS FOILED

Considerable resentment was occasioned in German Nationalist circles when President Ebert called upon Dr. Albert to form a new Cabinet. The reactionary elements were ready for any emergency likely to follow the downfall of the Stresemann regime.

fair credit, is not in the mood to destroy the republic; he does not propose to place the parliamentary head of the country in a Nationalist noose.

Of Dr. Albert we know something on this continent. He was an accomplice of Count von Bernstorff when the latter overstepped diplomatic prudence as German Ambassador to the United States. At that time he was tarred with the Prussian brush; he differed from no other German—whether Rhinelander, Bavarian, or Saxon—and such chastening as he may have undergone in the meantime does not guarantee a sufficient love of France as may be calculated to speed up a reparations settlement.

OUR TRAFFIC

Some time ago a well proportioned individual stood at the intersection of Fort and Government Streets and another of similarly robust build was wont to be seen on the "island" which commands Douglas and Yates. It was the duty of these two officers—for they were members of the Police Force—to assist in the quicker and safer movement of traffic of all kinds.

Note and Comment

The Jubilee Hospital should be regarded by every Victorian as an undertaking demanding personal support in practical form.

The Church of Ireland, a large Dublin Brewery, and the Southeastern Railroad, propose to subscribe to the new national loan in the Irish Free State. Thus does temporary adversity make strange bedfellows.

Whatever position Mr. Lloyd George may be able to carve for himself in the next Parliament, even his bitterest opponents will have to admit that his reception in Scotland last week end bore no traces of waning popularity.

Premier Baldwin's son is described as a Socialist of the pale pink color. He is writing a book by which he will attempt to show that Western civilization is doomed. Happily for the son the distinguished and successful father was more of an ironmaster than a dreamer.

Some time ago we asked whether Premier Baldwin really meant to say as much about his own views on tariff reform as he said at Plymouth. Mr. Wickham Steed now answers the query in this fashion: "After Baldwin turned the protection tap half on in his Plymouth speech he found he could not turn it off again and so was obliged to turn it full on." Can he stand the consequent flood?

Some Thoughts for To-day

Mercy stood in the cloud, with eye That wept essential love. Pollok. When all thy mercies, O my God, My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view I'm lost, In wonder, love and music. Addison. But I account the use that a man should seek the publishing of his own writings Before his death, to be but an untimely Anticipation of that which is proper to Follow a man, and not to go along with him. Bacon. Slow sail'd the weary mariners and saw, Betwixt the green brink and the running foam, Sweet faces, rounded arms, and bosoms prest To little harps of gold; and while they mused Whispering to each other half in fear, Shrill music reach'd them on the middle sea. THAT CHALLENGE

To the Editor:—I notice that General MacRae and Sir Charles Tupper are speaking in support of the platform of the Provincial Party of British Columbia at the Alexandra House on Thursday evening next at 8 o'clock.

What an opportunity that will be for Premier Oliver to make good the challenge which he made on April 18, of this year, at Salmon Arm, B.C., in which he said: "The speaker defies General MacRae to debate any charges of misdemeanor by the present Government, anywhere, and at any time." THOS. GOLBY, Cadboro Bay, B.C., Nov. 24, 1923.

THE LONGSHORE LOCKOUT

To the Editor:—It was stated at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held this week that the local longshoremen were not participating in the funds raised in Victoria by the central committee in Vancouver. This statement was duly reported to The Times and has received wide publicity. Will you therefore permit me to state that the longshoremen have quite disapproved the allegation and that in fact the local Union has received from the central fund more than has been contributed by the combined locals in Victoria.

Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, per E. S. WOODWARD, Secretary, Labor Hall, Nov. 24.

THOSE HOME FIRES

To the Editor—"Keep the home fires burning," says The Victoria Colonist in demanding that the Provincial Government impose a restrictive tax on the export of logs cut on crown lands—the only logs on which it can impose such a tax. But almost simultaneously it opposes the imposition of a tax on fuel oil imported from California, the production of which benefits California capital and California labor, notwithstanding the fact that fuel oil is a serious competitor of the Vancouver Island coal mines, which employ thousands of men and upon which almost every home and business in Ladysmith, Nanaimo, Cumberland and other up-island places directly or indirectly depends. What about keeping the home fires burning in these cases?

A LADYSMITH MINER

"SUICIDE" To the Editor:—Your correspondent "Humidity" in Saturday's issue strikes a chord that I believe will find a response in every human heart. Attempts at suicide have become so common that they pass by almost unnoticed. What a comment on our civilization?

When organized society has made it possible for every one of its members to find a reasonable amount of security and enjoyment in life it may find some excuse, if not justification for claiming the right to say whether the individual members have "sufficiently over their lives or not. Until then it has no excuse whatever. I do not know in what way "Humidity" thinks "concerted action" can be taken, but I for one would be willing to act with him if he can see any way.

The idea of the state as something superior to the individual which we must all bow down and worship has become such an obsession with most of us, and our actions are all bound by so many laws and regulations for the protection of it, that it is almost impossible for us to do anything "original" without it being classed as sedition.

To my mind the only justification for the existence of the state as an authority is that it preserves the "Liberty of the individual limited only by the like liberty of all others. Anything more than that is "tyranny"—and we have an awful lot of it.

Society has not, so far, preserved for all its members the liberty even of life. How then can it claim the right to punish a member for deciding to quit living?

Instead of bringing an unfortunate would-be suicide before a court of justice as a criminal it seems to me that we are the ones that ought to be on trial for allowing things to come to such a pass that death looks more attractive than life. It is up to society not to punish him for doing what to my mind he has a perfect right to do—and what it must take a tremendous lot of courage to do—but to try to make amends by finding him what he is certainly entitled to—the means to "carry on." W. E. PEIRCE, 526 Sayward Building, Nov. 25, 1923.

A MUNICIPAL GOLF LINKS

To the Editor:—Re the Victoria private bill to give municipal extra-ordinary power for a municipal golf links at Elk Lake.

It is a half-baked scheme, so hurriedly I believe that they could not comply with the required advertising period and will have to pay $300 for that default to get the bill before the House.

For brevity's sake only preamble and sections a, b and c are quoted below. Objects to: 1. A rush act; powers too vague and wide for any council to be given at its own request without the consent or approval of the ratepayers having been first obtained, after being placed in possession of a complete, well-digested scheme in all its details.

2. Its location is in another municipality, which will reap the benefit (if any) which follows its development.

3. On inquiry as to what financial shares Glasgow and Bristol were to have in its development, nothing so far has been learned; the land, minus the lake, about 250 acres, at $200 an acre, about $50,000. Are they to pay one-half of this?

4. The statement has been made that a majority of the Saanich committee of parks and beaches has appropriated $1,000 towards the scheme out of the funds at its disposal, but as to what further financial participation they are to have, this can be ascertained. Is the endorsement of the majority of the Saanich parks and beaches committee sufficiently representative of the council and ratepayers thereof? Perhaps the long-headed Saanich Council can see where they profit by the example set by Oak Bay and collect a toll of $5,000 before they let us play after they get us in. The way to avoid that is to keep out. 5. The intention to apply for these wide powers was only published in the paper, and the ratepayers are not sufficiently alive to what is going on. The least the Legislature can do for the protection of the ratepayers is to make it subject to the assent of said ratepayers. Why should one measure require it and another not?

6. It will be competitive with four existing links which pay taxes and capital charges, or lose them. Members of these will resign to get advantage of the lower fees on the municipal links due to exemption from charges referred to and make the other links unprofitable. A municipality untaxed has no right to enter into competition with its ratepayers.

7. It would be better to sell outright and apply the proceeds to reducing taxation than to turn this asset into a liability. Here is a fine opportunity for those gentle gentlemen who are always insisting that links are a paying proposition to get in and prove it by buying or leasing.

8. Most municipal links are made to make a showing of paying by confiscating 100 acres or so out of a public park and exemption from taxation, and, assuming that one per cent of the citizens play golf on municipal links, the other ninety-nine per cent must be excluded from the links and pay ninety-nine per cent of any tax. Section 23 and subsections a, b and c herewith.

9. Very largely due to extraordinary powers given the City Council in the Local Improvement Act without safeguarding the ratepayer, the assessed value of the city has dropped from $12,282,890 in 1913 to $1,911,000 in 1923, a reduction of $10,371,890 in ten years.

Give the council a little more power and the ratepayers will be extinct. JOHN DEAN, Pacific Club, Victoria, B.C., November 24, 1923.

PRESIDENT GRANT BRINGS EXCEPTIONAL CARGO HERE

Admiral Oriental Ship Discharged 1,500 Tons of Freight Here; Over 80,000 Boxes of Oranges Included in Victoria Cargo, Also Large Shipment of Mah Jong and Other Games; Large Mail Totals 3,200 Bags; Seaplane Makes Two Trips and Helps Ship to Clear

With the largest Oriental cargo that has been brought to this port for over a year the Admiral Oriental liner President Grant, Captain M. M. Jensen, docked at the Ogden Point docks at 8.20 o'clock yesterday morning from Yokohama. She was here until 4 o'clock this morning discharging 1,500 tons of Victoria cargo and 100 tons of Vancouver cargo. The shipment brought in by the Grant for discharge here was the largest local Christmas freight that has been brought from the Orient this season and comprised over 40,000 bundles of Japanese oranges, large shipments of walnuts, chestnuts and peanuts; hundreds of sets of mah jong, several hundreds of cases of playing cards and Chinese dominoes, numerous and large consignments of curios and silk goods, 600 cases of tea and over 1,000 cases of lily bulbs.

The passenger list was a fair one, while the mail was the biggest that has been brought to the Orient this season. Captain Jensen reported the usual winter weather but no serious storms. The Grant left Yokohama at 7 a.m. on November 5 and reached quarantine at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

Vancouver's 100 tons of cargo comprises chiefly Japanese oranges. HEAVY MAIL

It was an exceptionally large Christmas mail that the Grant brought from the Orient this trip. Altogether she carried 3,200 bags of mail. Of this consignment sixty bags were discharged at Victoria, while twenty-four bags of mail were sent to Seattle by the seaplane. This is the biggest shipment to be taken to the Sound city by seaplane from an Oriental liner. The "Blue Bird" had to make two trips and incidentally played a prominent part in the docking of the vessel during the morning. The President Grant was passed through quarantine, but when she arrived at the dock it was found that she had forgotten her pratique papers. The seaplane was immediately dispatched to William Head to pick up the papers, thus saving several hours' delay.

The ship carried a large freight for Seattle, including 60,000 bundles of Japanese oranges, 400 tons of copra cake and silk totaling 4,000 bales, valued at $5,000,000.

Third Officer of Ss. West Henshaw Brought Back in Grant's Hospital

Two days after he had been in Yokohama, Lawrence Gallagher, third officer of the United States Shipping Board steamship West Henshaw, which plys between Seattle and the Orient, became mentally unbalanced. He was brought back on the Ss. President Grant yesterday. First signs of mental trouble were noticed while he was aboard the West Henshaw. He was transferred to the hospital at the Orient. The patient was taken back to Seattle and was given special attention by the hospital staff. During the trip he became violent and threatened to throw himself overboard. When the vessel touched at quarantine the man became troublesome again. He was taken on to Seattle early this morning aboard the President Grant.

Violence was shown by union longshoremen picketed at the Outer Wharf this morning on the arrival of the Africa Maru from the Orient. According to B. He said that the street car was stopped at Dallas Road where the longshoremen were picketed. The first longshoreman to enter the car, it is alleged, struck one of the men in the face with his fist while another picked up the iron bar, used for switching the tracks, and inflicted a blow on another.

Crescents Make Their Opening Bow Against Maroons in Vancouver

Mickey MacKay Will Play Again; Saskatoon Has a Strong Team This Year

Vancouver, Nov. 26.—Reinforced by players from professional leagues from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the Saskatoon Crescents, led by the versatile "Newy" Lalonde, will tonight face the Vancouver Maroons, Pacific Coast champions, in the initial W.C.H.L.-P.C.H.A. fixture.

The argument will be the first big hockey feature of the season and from all accounts the "Flying Frenchman" has figured that he is strong enough to take two out of three of the games on his swing around the coast loop.

In front of him will be Harry Cameron, who starred last season with St. Pats. Cameron is referred to by hockey critics the Dominion over as a super-star on the defence.

The Crescents had their big workout on Saturday. In Hainwright, the ex-Chesnut star, they have a goalie who should go far in hockey.

Others on the roster include Scott, primarily a defence, and Roy MacKay, who has been playing in the Maroons.

The scores, with the Colwood players named first in each case, were as follows: Singles Frank Thomas, 2; N. Thornton, 1.

Others on the roster include Scott, primarily a defence, and Roy MacKay, who has been playing in the Maroons.

Football Games All Prove to Be Very One-sided

Victoria Wests Kept Their Record Clean by Defeating S.O.E. 5 to 1

Veterans Defeated Navy and Esquimaux Had Scoring Bee Against Wards

One-sided scores were recorded in all First Division soccer games on Saturday afternoon, as the Victoria Wests remain undefeated.

The threat of the Sons of England to lower the colors of the greenhairs for the material and captaincy to look as though the Wests will win for the third year in succession.

Once again the Victoria Wests demonstrated their right as league leaders when they added another victory to their credit by trouncing the Sons of England eleven 5-0 at the Royal Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon.

The Wests were again victorious in a game with the Sons of England, having only ten men on the field, their star full-back, Tuckwell, being absent.

In the first half the greenhairs suffered a severe setback when they failed to get the ball into the net after Jimmy Sherratt had sent in a beautiful corner kick.

Pat Mulcahy netted the third goal with a hard high shot. A few minutes later Young made it four when he sent a drive from close range.

Once again the North Wards were short-handed as they tried to make the most of the eleven from Esquimaux at the Canteen Grounds.

The Navy made a good effort to increase their string of wins, but they were unable to get the ball into the net and they had to bow to another defeat.

In the second half, however, the Veterans attacked the Veterans' goal and kept the play for the greater part of the time in the Navy's territory.

"The Bad Man" is Royal Film With Real Plot

Holbrook Blinn and Enid Bennett Carry Author's Work to Perfection.

Undoubtedly motion pictures are improving. "The Bad Man," an Edwin Carewe-First National picture which opened at the Royal Theatre to-day, is as fine an example of the forward strides that are being made in motion pictures as could be wished.

The principal reason for this is that "The Bad Man" is a photoplay with a plot. Most motion pictures are supposed to have a plot, but in "The Bad Man" it is presented so that all can see. Possibly this is because the screen version of Porter Emerson Browne's play is a literal translation, but regardless of the cause Director Carewe deserves great credit for maintaining the plot consistently throughout the production.

Holbrook Blinn, star of the original stage version, is the star also of the film play. Blinn is so accomplished an actor that comment on his performance would be out of place. Sufficient it is to say that there is no screen actor that can be called to mind at this moment who could give a finer interpretation of the role than Blinn. Charles A. Selton, in the role of "Uncle Henry," was also a member of the original stage cast and the same praise goes for him, too.

Enid Bennett, whose work with Douglas Fairbanks in "Robin Hood" will be remembered, plays the leading feminine role. She is delightfully dramatic at times, yet whimsical and she lends her entire self to a very difficult role. Jack Mulhall is an adequate hero and Walter McGrail makes a very finished villain and Wall Street broker all in one. The others in the cast whose work deserves special mention are Harry Myers, Teddy Sampson, Stanton Heck, Thomas Delmar, Frank Lanning and Peter Venzuela.

"The Bad Man" furnishes a fine evening's entertainment. The story is very obviously founded upon the operations of the late Fancher Villa along the border, but Porter Emerson Browne's facile pen has drawn in all the characters with delightful satire which turns all the most serious moments into the humorous.

Women in Business Theme of Showing Now at Dominion

Artists' Model's Struggle Against Environment Portrayed By Corinne Griffith.

How many girls are there among wage-earners who, being either homely of face and feature or, at best, merely "plain-looking," have not longed for facial beauty and physical charm? It is quite natural for them to assume that with such advantages their road to success in the business world would be much smoother than it otherwise is, and one cannot blame them if they regard other girls, with whom Nature has dealt more kindly in this respect, with a touch of envy.

But their path is not always a bed of roses. There are many astute captains of industry who will under no circumstances employ girls of striking beauty because they believe that they have a tendency to lessen the efficiency of their force.

Nobody can deny that feminine beauty and charm is distracting during working hours.

The picturization of R. W. Chambers' popular novel, "The Common Law," will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all this week, starting to-day. Corinne Griffith in the role of Valerio West is at first shocked and stunned when she learns what is expected of her, but after several months of studio life even she falls into their way of living. It is not long before we see her dancing on the table at a wild orgy—she, who until her advent to studio life, had been a girl of irreproachable culture and refinement. How, at the eleventh hour, she is finally rescued from a life of degradation, forms a stirring climax to the photoplay.

Bebe Daniels Stars in Train Novel at Capitol

Arthur Train's "His Children's Children" Has Excellent Cast.

The Sam Wood Paramount production, "His Children's Children," featuring Bebe Daniels, Dorothy Mackill, James Rennie and George Fawcett and a picturization of Arthur Train's novel of that name, which is at the Capitol this week, treats not of the commonplace story of the "rich man's son," but of the new problem in American life, the third generation—the generation that exemplifies the saying, "It is only three generations from shirt-sleeves to shirt-sleeves."

The picture shows how a great fortune of a pioneer railroad builder reacts through a smug second generation and in violent, sudden, complete dissension, shatters the whole family to pieces in the third generation—the jazz generation of the present day. It is not only one of the most sensational and melodramatic novels of recent times, but it is the truest indictment of society since the days of "The House of Mirth" by Theodore Dreiser.

The production is vested with a cast and general equipment in keeping with the story itself. One of the amazing features which go to make it intensely interesting, unique and appealing, include an allegorical shot of the banquet of Croesus, richest man of ancient history.

Playing in support of the principals is one of the best casts ever assembled for picture purposes. It includes Hale Hamilton, Mary Eaton, Mahlon Hamilton, Kathryn Lean, Warner Oland, John Davidson and a

Mystery and Tragedy Vie in Playhouse Film

The "Case of Lady Camber," Excellent Study From Pen of H. A. Vachell.

Much interest attaches to the coming of a film version of H. A. Vachell's "Case of Lady Camber." This powerful and well-known play has a distinctive setting—an eminent physician's nursing home and its strong climax is the death of an important patient, Lady Camber, and the suspicion that falls upon the nurse, Esther York. The physician Harley Napier, learns that the nurse has previous known Lord Camber, and his feelings of duty are not lightened by the realization that he and the nurse love each other.

A new and powerful narcotic plays an important part in the story, which should attract large audiences to the Playhouse where "The Case of Lady Camber" will commence exhibition to-day.

MUSIC LOVERS' NIGHT AT ROYAL VICTORIA

To-night at the Royal will be a fine programme of music which will be rendered in conjunction with the feature picture—Holbrook Blinn in "The Bad Man." The following are some of the numbers to be played during the evening: Overture—Suite Sigurd Jorsalfar —Greig

Famous Comedian Will be Feature of Pantages Bill

Internationally Known Artist Vaudeville Attraction This Week.

The Pantages Theatre bill this week will include A. Robbins, internationally known as the "walking music store" who will be the feature presentation at the show commencing to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. Droll and eccentric comedy will be staged along with musical novelties by this artist. Another big feature will be The Four Phillips in a series of dances which include head-balancing, juggling and acrobatics.

Marshall Montgomery, the well-known globe trotter, assisted by Lucille Devyven in appearing in his latest artistic success, entitled "An Evening at Home," Mr. Montgomery is well-known and his present offering promises something out of the ordinary.

Ross, Wyse and Wyser, a clever and versatile trio, will present a comedy programme of bits of patter, songs, dance and music interspersed with some extraordinary acrobatics. "Toney," billed as the wonder of wonders, will be introduced. This versatile little man promises many interesting and thrilling surprises. His diversified programme includes everything from a head spin to a violin solo.

Ward Baker is a gifted violinist billed as "The American Tone Master," and the Pantagescope will show a new Century comedy entitled "Lots of Nerve," and a scenic, "Motoring in Cloudland."

"Going to the Bow Wows" is the title of Rafayette's dogs, a clever canine production. This is a troupe of beautiful dogs highly trained, offering an unusual and exceedingly entertaining performance.

"Gypsy Passion,"
Film of French
Opera at Columbia

Jean Richepin's Famous Story
"Miarke," Revived For Silver Screen.

It may not be generally known that Jean Richepin's famous story, "Miarke," the child of the bear, which was produced by Louis Passion, under the title of "Gypsy Passion," and which will be shown at the Columbia Theatre to-day, is a popular opera in France. Jean Richepin, of course, wrote the lyrics, and Alexandre Georges the music.

M. Richepin, who is a member of the Academie Francaise, was born in Algeria in 1849, and wrote "Miarke" fifteen years ago. He has written a great many French novels and plays, including "La Ghu" and "Nana Sahib," in both of which he appeared with Sarah Bernhardt.

Ivor Novello, the talented young English composer, who also plays a leading part in "Gypsy Passion," composed a special "Chanson de Miarke," which he is seen playing in the film, and which is used as one of the accompaniments to the picture when shown.

One of the attractions of the film is the wonderful pictures of the Salntes "Maries," in the south of France, where the two Miarke are supposed to have landed with their homany servant, Sarah.

Alice Hitz and James B. Linhart in "The Cat and the Canary," which is appearing at the Royal Wednesday and Thursday.

John Willard's
Great Success is Coming to Royal

"The Cat and the Canary,"
Season's Great Mystery
Play.

"The Cat and the Canary," which comes to the Royal Wednesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings this week, would appear to be the last of the successful mystery plays. "The Cat" has about run its course, although there will be a number of companies appearing in that popular play this season. But "The Cat and the Canary" is the newest of the successful thrillers and this is the first view that playgoers will have of it.

Reports are enthusiastic about the entertainment. Curiously enough, the author, John Willard, is proving an exception to the rule: he has not announced either one or a series of new plays as do the majority of new authors who make a great success. Doubtless Mr. Willard is writing other plays, but he was for a long time a successful actor before he became a renowned author, and evidently he knows the pits into which new authors are apt to fall. Kilbourn Gordon Incorporated, are presenting "The Cat and the Canary" here and they promise a company which will give a delightful performance.

New Books at the Library

To most people books of adventure and travel make a strong appeal and what more exciting than a well written and illustrated work on either the Arctic or the Antarctic regions? The Victoria Public Library has a number of well chosen books on both subjects on its shelves, a list of some of which, dealing with the Antarctic Expeditions, I will now bring to the notice of readers who possibly may have overlooked them.

To begin with Ronald Amundsen and his book, "The South Pole." This work tells of an adventure that must always stand alone in the annals of discovery. It has a fulness and variety of interest, and is written in a bright and amusing style that distinguishes it among works of its kind. A really exhaustive and accurate account of a great feat; the narrative of a modest unassuming man, bearing on its face the stamp of absolute sincerity, he never magnifies his difficulties, nor minimizes them. It is a very memorable book.

C. G. D. Roberts in "Discoveries and Exploration in the Century," gives a resume of explorers of many countries up to the year 1897, and Seven Hedin's book, "From Pole to Pole," is available in Swedish, no copy of the translation being on hand. "Lands of Silence," by Sir Clements Markham, was unfinished at his death in 1916, but was completed and published by Dr. F. H. Guillemard. It is a book students of Polar explorations cannot afford to omit from their shelves, as it covers a remarkably wide field. Unfortunately Sir Clements' enthusiasm is mainly for English explorations, the discovery of the South Pole is despatched in a few words, while the story of Captain Scott occupies two full chapters, but notwithstanding this defect, it is a remarkable study of remarkable men and events.

In 1894 a Norwegian, H. J. Bull, organized an expedition to the Antarctic made possible by the generosity of Svend-Foyn, a well-known figure in Scandinavian Polar research. The account of this expedition is given in "The Cruise of the Antarctic," and tells the usual well-known tale of hardship and privation.

"Home of the Blizzard," by Sir Douglas Mawson, is the story of the expedition which was entirely an Australian undertaking. Its purpose was scientific investigation into the little known Antarctic region which faces Australia. This book is not only a treasure house of facts, but is the most wonderfully illustrated work on Polar expeditions ever published. It will hold the attention and interest, both of men of science and of every general reader who cares for adventure and exploration. It is a worthy monument of one of the epoch-making achievements in scientific discovery.

Sir Ernest H. Shackleton in his book "South," adds another to those priceless records of high human quality, and the story that it tells, aside from its scientific value, will have many readers who will find its pages enthralling and deeply interesting. It is written simply and clearly, and is the story of Shackleton's last expedition, taken to achieve the first crossing of the Antarctic continent, which failed, however, owing to the loss of one of its ships. "Heart of the Antarctic," by the same author, is the story of the British Antarctic Expedition of 1907-1909.

Jugh Robert Mill gives us "The Life of Sir E. H. Shackleton." This is the authorized biography of the great explorer, told by a friend who had full access to all available records.

Scott's Expedition has produced many books, the best of which are on the library shelves.

"Voyage of the Discovery," Captain Scott's own narrative of the Expedition of the Antarctic continent, is well illustrated by Dr. Wilson, is well worthy of the big subject it deals with. It was his first literary effort, but he had a natural gift, and there are few Polar stories to be compared with this book, either in literary merit or in scientific material.

"Scott's Last Expedition," edited by

Leonard Huxley, contains the reports which sum up the expedition's contributions to the world of science. This finest of modern tales of heroism has been produced in a manner worthy of the men concerned in it, and the deeds they performed. It reveals the very heart of a noble man, written in his dire extremity and defeat, yet shows him courageous, patriotic, unselfish and sincere.

"Worst Journey in the World," by A. G. H. Cherry-Gerrard, is a complete and skillfully-told story of the whole expedition. It makes clear the character of the men who were of the party, and is a true epic of exploration.

"Great White South," by Herbert G. Ponting, is the story of the expedition told by the official photographer. He writes lucidly and in chatty vein, and the 184 pictures in the book give a more vivid impression than mere words.

"Antarctic Penguins, a Study of Their Social Habits," by the zoologist of the party, G. Murray Levick. This book is a rare little treat, brightly written, and illustrated with many humorous photos. Any lover of natural history will put the book down, feeling that its brevity is a fault rather than a virtue.

Priestly, in "Antarctic Adventure," gives a full account of the life and work of Scott's Northern party. The interest of the volume lies in its being an account of how six men lived through an Antarctic Winter practically on what land and sea could produce.

Biologists, geologists and other scientists will find much information along lines usually ignored by Polar authors in Griffith Taylor's book, "With Scott, the Silver Lining." Over 200 illustrations add to the historical value of this delightful book.

Is the Time to Take WINCARNIS

"I feel that I owe you a debt of gratitude for what your wonderful Wincarnis has done for me and other members of my family. We first learned of Wincarnis when we resided in England. It gave us so much satisfaction that we all used it whenever we felt the need of a tonic, as when influenza was rampant or when every body was "catching a cold."

We have continued to use Wincarnis since our arrival in this country, and we have recommended it to a number of our friends here. All of these friends are now singing the praise of your excellent preparation.

It is really surprising how quickly one regains weight and strength and recovers from nervousness when Wincarnis is taken after an attack of influenza or a very severe cold."

The locale of the story is the Art Colony in New York's Greenwich Village and the theme revolves around the Bohemian lives of the villagers. There is probably no place in this country over which there hovers a more romantic atmosphere than the village and its people. Populated by artists, illustrators, sculptors, actors and writers, there is concentrated within its narrow confines much of the genius of America. And "The Common Law" treats interestingly and intelligently with the lives of these fascinating people.

DEPICTS "PROGRESS OF SOUL"—Dr. William Norman Guthrie, rector of St. Marks-in-the-Bowwerie, New York, whose remarkable sermon, "The Birth and Progress of the Human Soul" filled the church to overflowing. Barefoot dancers, works of the great sculptors, presented through the stereopticon, musical masterpieces, the subtle play of light on color, all helped to make the rector's experiment toward a rhythmic sculptural oratoria something unusual and strange. The presentation of the rector's theme through this medium was Dr. Guthrie's conception.

President Denies Attitude Should be Construed as Threat

While declining to offer comment on the future of the Chemalium mill, T. J. It would not become him as a resident of the State of Washington, though a frequent visitor in B.C., to criticize the acts of legislators who apparently knew the needs of the electorate better than he did, but it did seem to him to be another of those cases of "more business in government, and less government in business."
