Interview:

On Nov. 22, 1963 Mrs. Shields was employed by Ed Wells fashions, which was located at 501 Elm St. 5th floor (corner of Elm and Houstons Sts.) At approx. 12 noon Mrs. Shields and several co workers came down stairs for lunch and to watch the Presidential motorcade. Prior to the arrival of the motorcade Mrs. Shields stated that she saw an auto driving around the Plaza with writing on the body, advertising "Honest Joe's Pawn Shop". The auto left before the arrival of the motorcade. When the motorcade arrived, the President was waving and had just passed when she heard what sounded like a fire cracker coming from the direction of the railroad crossing, the President's hand went up towards his head and the car made a little pause and then took off. We all ran to the railroad tressell and looked in the boxcars. There was a lot of people looking in the boxcars, also police were there. We returned to work and were told to go home.
