What can I upload to Wikimedia Commons?

You may upload works that you created entirely yourself

This includes photos and videos of:

- natural landscapes, animals, plants.
- public figures and people photographed in public places

Remember: By sharing your work on Wikimedia Commons, you grant anyone permission to use, copy, modify, and sell it without notifying you.

• useful or non-artistic objects

• original graphs, maps, diagrams and audio.

We can't accept works created or inspired by others

By default, you can't upload someone else's work.

This includes material such as

- logos
- CD / DVD covers
- promotional photos
- screenshots of TV shows, movies, DVDs, and software

• most pictures published on the internet

• drawings of characters from TV, comics, or movie's – even if you drew them

...with two main exceptions:

You can upload someone else's work if the author granted permission for anyone to use, copy, modify, and sell it.

You can upload your photographs of old art, statues, and buildings (usually over 150 years old).

In conclusion...

You can upload your original works.

We can't accept works from others without their explicit permission.

Thank you for your help; this is important.

Naga City was known as Nueva Caceres and was one of the major cities during the Spanish rule in the Philippines. Naga City is also home to the seat of the Archdiocese of Caceres, one of the oldest dioceses in the Philippines. Naga City is also the center of devotion to the Our Lady of Peñafrancia which is one of the largest Marian devotions in Asia. Naga City is the economic, commercial, trade, tourism, medical, technological, religious, cultural, industrial, educational, financial, and social center of the Bicol Region. It is also Camarines Sur's most populous city. It is also the regional center of trade, commerce, and industry, as it is home to large international companies, high-rise hotels, and condominiums. Ending quote

“When I write, I use Wikipedia 30-40 times a day, because it's so useful. When I write, I don't remember if some person was born in the 6th or the 7th century, or how many Ns are in the name Goldmann. Until a few years ago, things like that would cost you so much time!”
