Post-game Quotes

University of Hawai'i Head Coach Riley Wallace: "I think that those who paid to see the afternoon game got their money's worth, because it was a heck of a basketball game. Both teams went after each other, good defense and I thought both teams, playing afternoon games after disappointing loses, came to play. Both teams were intense and fought hard. We make a lucky shot and they make a lucky shot. There's what I thought was a bad call on Illinois and then that turns around and there's a bad call on us, so those things even out. It was a fair ballgame and they ended up on top."

"After one of the worst performance that I've seen since I've been here in Honolulu (the game against Rhode Island), to come out and play well against a nationally ranked, well coached team like Illinois and go to overtime, it's not a win, but I feel much better about my team."

"For us to play Illinois and have a chance to win it with our man-to-man defense, I have to be pleased, because we'll see a lot of teams this year that are not nearly as talented as they are. So if we can play hard, play together like we did tonight, we'll win a lot of ballgames."

Anthony Harris Hawai'i Guard: "We came out and gave it everything we had. They're a top 15 team and they showed it. I'm happy for us, because we finally fought today, as a team and that's what we're going to have to do for the rest of the year."

Illinois Head Coach Lou Henson: It was a game that we expected. I knew it was going to be a close game. I made the comment that if we play well, it's going to be a five point game and of course it was an overtime game. We knew that they could shoot the ball well, but not this well, almost 56 percent. I thought we played pretty good defense, but we just couldn't cover them. (Anthony) Harris is a ton. He's a great player. He had 32 the other night and came back for 30 against us, so I don't know what to do to stop him because if you double team him he passes it. He just does everything."

"I thought Hawai'i was well prepared. Riley always does a great job. With the talent he has, he probably as good as any coach in the country. So when you play this team (Hawai'i), you gotta be ready to play."

"I think it really helps your team when you win a game like this. I know we were down by 10 at one time and we came back to win it on their court. So that has to be good for a ball club. We hung together real well although there were times in the game that we didn't, but again their good play had a lot to do with that. So it helps to win a tight game because everyone needs to be doing things right, and we did that. I was really proud of the way the guy played together...that was the key."
