

Sixth day Evening

Dear Brother Richard

We received this very acceptable and interesting letter this morning, and were very sorry to hear of Cousin Lissies sickness, but hope she is better ere this.
The spoke of those pictures it was that one we sent in the letter for we found it would not weigh so much after cutting off the piece, where did you go last Sunday for a walk, was it to what is called Benwick Castle? I went there while I was in Gyrence, they wanted to know if we had killed all our hogs, no we have killed but one and that is not a very large one, I believe we have not killed one of thy chickens, Today we had a real Bug scrape Aunt Margaret was down but we did not get them done Mother & Aunty went up to the village this afternoon Aunt Mary Ann was quite poorly but Dads is state news I expect for Julia has told you all the news,

Fourth day morning, it is quite dreary this morn, snowing a very little at intervals. I wish it would snow hard or not at all. Mary & my self are weather of us very well, both having bad colds and sore throats, my throat is so sore I can hardly speak loud, Mary has just got up but does not feel much better hope she will soon though. She wrote to Wilson last ~~Fifth~~^{fourth} day. Francis Abbey started for California Fifth day two of her Cousins went as far as New York with her, she sails next second day in the Providence, Amos Kinney and his son was here yesterday to dinner, he has not got his Farm back yet, Aunt Mary Ann is much better now. Mother thought the Telegraphic dispatch did her a great deal of good she was setting up when Ma came away, Mother made some delight--full Taffy yesterday, I ~~think~~ I must close for the present. So Good bye from thy very Aff Sister Sallie

R P Hunt

P P

Received Dec 3rd

853 a very few lines from Sarah not at all satisfactory. but I will give both her and Mary a talking to if they do not write a longer letter next time. I am not in the best of humor for I have written three and they only

Wm Joseph 1853
From Sarah

Wm Joseph

Richard Hunt. care of Bourne's Philip Lyrause,
N.Y.

