VISITING UP STATE

J. B. SHERWOOD AND FAMILY
IN AUTO TRIP TO LAKE
TAHOE REGION

J. B. Sherwood, wife and five children, left Glendale July 18th in their seven-passenger touring car for a 600-mile trip to Northern California. They made several stops on the way and arrived at their destination, Loyalton, without a break or puncture of any kind. A few days' stop was made at Lake Tahoe, to enjoy the beauties of that region, which is now the center of a bitter contest between residents and hotel men on the one side and big interests that place business above fine scenery on the other. And a large number of tourists and lovers of the beautiful in nature, are lined up with the first group. It is sought to draw from the lake enough water to irrigate certain districts in Nevada, which can thus be reclaimed from the desert. It is contended that the carrying out of the project would lower the level of the lake several feet, necessitate a re-alignment of all the structures along the banks and impair many of the present beautiful features of lake and shore. The Sherwoods would not allow themselves to be drawn into the controversy but they feel that they would deplore any marring of the wonderfully beautiful aspect of the lake and its environments as they saw it.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood have a son in Loyalton who is employed in a bank there. Mr. Sherwood came back to Glendale on a hurried business trip and will return to Loyalton tomorrow. The family expect to be in their home, 357 West Broadway, in about ten days.

SAFE, SANE FLYING

LT. WALTER HAWKINS SAYS NO
DANGER WITH CAREFUL PILOT

Joe Hawkins, speaking of the lamentable death of the aviators, Locklear and Elliott, said his son, Lieut. Walter Hawkins, who has been engaged in flying almost constantly since the war ended and saw considerable service in the air as a volunteer, reiterates his oft-repeated statement that flying is much safer than driving an auto if the aviator is but reasonably careful. He has been importuned time and again by film producers to risk his life in dare devil stunts for people who like to see others risk their lives, but always refused, preferring to be safe and sane rather than sensational. Those who enjoyed flights over Glendale with Lieut. Walter as pilot some months ago, nearly all felt just as safe as in an old-fashioned buggy.

RETURN FROM YOSEMITE

Mrs. Florence Morton, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morton and daughter Ruth, of 412 North Isabel street, have returned from a trip by auto with camping outfit to the Yosemite Valley, Mariposa Grove of big trees and other points of interest. The mountain roads and heat of the valley en route made it a rather strenuous trip; but one is fully repaid by beholding the wonders and scenic beauty of the glorious waterfalls, the grandeur of the precipitous mountains and the centuries old pines, balsam, cedar and oak trees. It is truly one of God's favored spots and would have to be seen to be fully appreciated, says Mrs. Morton.

CHARTER ELECTION

FIFTEEN FREEHOLDERS TO BE CHOSEN AUGUST 25TH TO FRAME CHARTER

So little interest has been taken in the election of 15 freeholders to frame a charter for the city that there was not a candidate in sight yesterday morning, the last day for filing nomination papers. L. W. Chobe got busy, papers for 15 representative citizens, some of them ladies, were prepared and Mr. Chobe circulated them, obtaining sufficient signatures by 10 o'clock at night. The election is to be held on August 25th and it is one of great importance, which every voter should study and act upon according to his best judgment.

The names of the freeholders appearing on the petition are: George H. Bentley, R. M. McGee, Pearl C. Tower, John Robert White, Jr., Mabel L. Tight, Jessie A. Russell, C. E. Kimlin, H. H. Davenport, May E. Myton, W. H. Bullis, O. A. Lane, W. R. Phelon, Bert P. Woodard, E. H. Learned, Abbie P. Barker.

HOME OF S. E. WRIGHT RAN-SACKED, PROPERTY STOLEN

Expert burglars broke into the residence of S. E. Wright at 1000 South Glendale avenue yesterday afternoon between the hours of one and five o'clock, completely ransacking everything and getting away unnoticed with a diamond ring valued at $50, a pocket book containing a considerable sum of money, a war savings stamp and a bunch of keys.

There was nothing that was not turned topsy turvy, broken into and thrown about, showing very thorough work. The family were all away and the house being entered from the side door on Acacia avenue, the neighbors did not notice any disturbance. The key ring, containing several keys, also had both front door keys on it, which the burglars evidently considered valuable. Both up-stairs and down-stairs, dressers, suit-cases and trunks were broken open and searched. Cheap jewelry was not touched, showing their ability to judge values. Detectives are working on the case but there seems to be no apparent clue as yet.

ANNUAL CAMP

CIVIL WAR VETERANS MEET
AT HUNTINGTON BEACH

Rev. C. R. Norton writes the Evening News from Huntington Beach, where he is attending the annual encampment of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Posts of Southern California, that he must have his paper sent him there. He gives a list of Glendale members of N. P. Banks Post in attendance, as follows: Wm. Collins, C. H. Clark, H. B. Duwing, J. L. Denny, T. M. Barrett, U. H. Emick, Thos. Gillette, Geo. Grisso, S. W. Hammon, S. Houdyshell, B. F. Jones, O. H. Jones, A. D. Kendall, G. F. LeClare, R. S. Milligan, J. E. Kendall, W. B. Pratt, Robert Taylor, Geo. W. Sanders and others whose names he did not learn. More are going each day.

This 10 days' annual meet of the boys in blue is a great joy to the few remaining veterans of the Civil War. Every year those attending miss many familiar faces and learn that death has taken them.

BACK WITH POLICE

ERNEST A. LAURANCE, FORMER
CAPTAIN, NOW TEMPO-RARY OFFICER

Ernest A. Laurance, for seven years on the Glendale police force, a part of the time as captain, will go on as a patrolman next Monday to hold the position till next March. Mr. Laurance is an expert sheep shearer and has been engaged in that work the past season, starting in in Arizona and "following the weather" up into Washington. A master of the shearing art like Mr. Laurance is always in great demand by sheep owners and he was employed all the time during the season, which began during the winter months in Arizona but came later as one traveled north, hence shearers have regular circuits, which require months to cover.

Capt. Laurance, as he is still familiarly called, will be welcomed on the force, because of his long experience and efficient work.

GOATS SHIPPED TO CHICAGO

J. H. Thompson yesterday took a truck load of fine American Toggenberg does to Los Angeles to ship to Chicago to help relieve the shortage of milk for babies. They were bred and raised on Mr. Thompson's California Swiss Goat Ranch on North Pacific avenue and certainly appeared to be fine specimens of milch goats. Mr. Thompson expects to make other shipments in the near future. A large sign covering the side of the truck drew the attention of pedestrians and others as the truck slowly made its way down Brand boulevard.

FUNERAL OF DROWNED BOY

The funeral of Arthur Russell Meek, who was drowned in Duran's swimming pool yesterday, will be held tomorrow, 9 a. m., in Holy Family Catholic Church. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery, Los Angeles.

BRITISH EXPEDITION TO AID POLES

PLAN TO SEND HELP AS BOLSHEVIK ARMIES CLOSE IN ON CAPITAL; GERMAN-RUSSIAN TREATY RUMORED

(By Webb Miller, United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, August 5.—A new Bolsheviki victory after desperate fighting 65 miles from Warsaw was reported in a Moscow wireless received here today.

At the same time the Evening News announced that the British cabinet is planning to call for volunteers for a British expedition to aid Poland.

Premier Lyold-George in addressing Parliament today failed to make the promised full explanation of the Russian-Polish situation. He said he will do so Monday or before if the circumstances become extenuating.

Russian cavalry is reported to be invading the "corridor" thru East Prussia connecting Poland with the sea. The pincers movement on Warsaw is rapidly developing, one arm of the Red army nearing the Vistula river while the other has crossed the Bug. Polish armies under allied officers are said to be reorganizing for a desperate defense of Warsaw.

According to rumors here Russia and Germany had negotiated a secret treaty before the Russian offensive began, Russia to appropriate Polish rolling stock without interference from Germany. The report says Russia was to evacuate Poland after thoroughly subduing that country, and that Russia and Germany had agreed to wipe out the Polish "corridor."

AUSTRIA MAY ABANDON NEUTRALITY

HUNGARY AND RUMANIA PREPARING TO FIGHT RUSSIA
MAY COERCE AUSTRIA IT IS FEARED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, August 5.—French troops are massing on the Rhine in preparation for a movement to aid the Poles according to reports seeping through despite the stringent censoring in occupied territory.

The authorities fear that allied pressure will cause Austria to abandon her attitude of neutrality and permit troops to pass through Vienna.

Carl Renner, Austrian premier, informed the Allies that Austria will maintain her neutrality in event of hostilities. Hungary and Rumania are preparing to fight Russia and it is believed that they will coerce Austria.

Newspapers here are demanding that the entente unequivocally express its policy with regard to respecting German neutrality. This information is necessary to calm the working classes, the papers say.

Twenty-five thousand communists and Independent Socialists gathered recently at the Luftgarten protesting against the disarmament law. The speeches were strongly pro-Bolsheviki.

BOLSHEVIKI HOLD AMERICANS

FOUR REFUGEES REACHING FINLAND TELL OF THIRTY PRISONERS HELD IN MOSCOW

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, August 5.—Thirty Americans are held prisoner in Moscow by the Bolsheviki according to four refugees reaching Viborg, Finland.

The refugees are being aided by the Red Cross, the State Department is advised. They are Arthur Price, a corporal taken prisoner in March 1919 while a member of the American expeditionary force at Archangel; Frank King, a Columbus, Ohio, newspaper man; Harold Fay of New York, and Mrs. Emily Garman of New York.

$400,000,000 IN RAILWAY CERTIFICATES

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION AND RAILWAY EX-ECUTIVES CONFER ON ISSUANCE OF SECURITIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, August 5. The nation's railways will offer approximately $400,000,000 of securities at public sale within the next three or four months it was learned at the Bureau of Railway Executives today.

Interest rates on these securities will be at least 7 per cent it was said.

Railway officials and officers of the Interstate Commerce Commission were conferring today in regard to the proposed issue of securities.

DOUBLE MURDER AT MARION, ILL.

TWO BOYS BELIEVED KILLED TO PREVENT BANK ROB-BERY INFORMATION BECOMING KNOWN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MARION, Ill., August 5.—The bodies of Tony Hemphill, aged 17, and Amel Calcaterra, 14, were found today with their throats cut and their heads crushed, buried in a shallow grave near here. Santino Desantis is held in jail here suspected of the murder.

Authorities believe that the murders were committed to prevent divulgence of information in regard to a bank robbery. The boys had been missing since Monday.

BROWN-HAMILTON

JOHN R. BROWN AND MISS PAUL
HAMILTON WEDDED AT BRIDE'S HOME

Unusual beauty and originality were seen in the decorative appointments at the wedding of Miss Pauline Virginia Hamilton and John R. Brown, Wednesday afternoon at "four and a half," which took place at the home of the bride's parents, 327 West Garfield avenue. It was an out-door affair, the natural, artistic features of the grounds being utilized and further beautified to suit the occasion. At the side of the house a fine, green hedge leads to the pergola, which was used as a support for the ferns and asparagus plumosa which were banked up to form a dense background. Hanging baskets of asparagus were suspended from various points and amidst the greenery were seen birds further adding to the effect of nature.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Ernestine Lyon, the members of the bridal party slowly moved to their respective places before the fern bank. The groom, John R. Brown, accompanied by Roger Branigan as best man, and the officiating minister, Rev. B. D. Snudden, entered from the left; while the bride accompanied by Miss Pauline Hamilton (Continued on Page 4)

OFF ON VACATION

REV. C. A. COLE AND FAMILY
GO TO CAMP
BALDY

Rev. C. A. Cole and family and Miss Edith Learned expect to leave this afternoon for Camp Baldy to spend a week. Rev. Cole is taking his vacation in installments, in order that regular services can be kept up in the church without putting too great a burden on the officials to secure supply speakers. He has drafted two laymen to help out in this respect, Floyd Mercer, one of the elders, who is a graduate of Culver-Stockton College of the Bible, Canton, Mo., and who preached for a time during his school attendance and after his graduation; and Willard Learned, superintendent of the Sunday School, who is studying to be a medical missionary on the foreign field. He has occupied Rev. Cole's pulpit in similar emergencies before.

TWO GRASS FIRES

A grass fire on the west side of Brand and south of the S. P. tracks called out the fire department last evening. About an acre of ground was burned over before the flames could be checked, but no damage was done. A similar fire on a smaller scale at Brand and Lexington Drive this morning was easily subdued, with no damage.

"WATCH THE NEWS"

THUS SAYS STADLER TO IN-QUIRIES ABOUT FRUIT HANDLED

Mr. Stadler, whose unique little ads for the sale of pears have appeared frequently of late in the Evening News, says he has one invariable reply to people who ask him when he will have more fruit on hand and that is "Watch the News." He said he disposed of a ton of pears Tuesday and nearly every order came from a reader of the Evening News and he has already sold 3000 pounds from yesterday's ad.

He gets the pears at Little Rock, 10 miles east of Palmdale, in the foothills, and 83 miles from Glendale. He says there are 400 to 500 acres in pears there and they are engaged to wholesale buyers like him months ahead. In his trips up there for fruit he starts early in the morning, long before daylight, and gets back about 1 o'clock.

INFANT MORTALITY LAW IN UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, August 5. (United Press)—Babies who first see the light of day in Utah have an equal or better chance of life than those born in other states.

A report just made public by the national children's bureau shows the infant mortality rate in this state is much lower than in any other state. This is attributed largely to the efforts of clinic service to expectant mothers and the instructive and educational work of public health associations.

"COTTAGE HOME"

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS
PUSH THIS WORTHY PROJECT

Mrs. Winona Crawford, Patriotic Instructor of the Mary Jane Gillette Tent, Daughters of Veterans, who is also one of the Color Bearers in the Department of California and Nevada, attended a meeting at Patriotic Hall in Los Angeles, recently, of the Department officers, when matters of great importance were taken care of.

The "Cottage Home" at Sawtelle for wives and widows of veterans, to be erected and supported by the eighteen Tents of this department, was the chief subject discussed at this meeting.

The ladies of the G. A. R. have kindly donated to the D. of V.'s of the department the lots upon which the "Cottage Home" is to be built. Four large and commodious rooms and a modern "community kitchen" will probably be erected early this fall, to accommodate four persons at one time. Later, as the funds increase, and more accommodations are needed, other buildings of this nature will be erected. Members of the Thimble Clubs of the various Tents are enjoying the planning and making of useful articles with which to furnish this "Home." Mary Jane Gillette Tent will soon make a substantial donation to this worthy cause.

LAD TO REST

MRS. A. A. BURBANK'S FUNERAL
VERY LARGELY AT-TENDED

The funeral of Mrs. A. A. Burbank was held at the Little Church of the Flowers August 4th at 2 p. m. Her pastor, Rev. O. P. Rider, conducted the service and the Presbyterian choir sang. At the grave each of the ladies of the church laid a carnation on the casket, already covered with beautiful flowers in loving remembrance, and sang "Blest-Be the Tie That Binds."

Abbie Ann Andrews was born January 2, 1842, at Frysburg, Maine. She was the fifteenth child of a family of sixteen brothers and sisters, the youngest, Joseph A., of Hurley, S. Dak., alone surviving her. She was married to Ezekiel M. Burbank at Lovell, Me., March 24, 1867. To this union were born two children, Henry A., who died in 1915, and Mrs. Fannie Gills of Glendale. Mrs. Burbank lived in New England until 1898 when she moved to South Dakota and made her home at her brother's until 1909, when she came to Tropic, now Glendale, where she has since lived. She came of a family of Congregationalists, but since moving West has been a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Until the death of her son in 1915, he was her constant companion. After his death her daughter and family left their New England home to live with her. Though Mrs. Burbank had been frail for many years her last sickness began very suddenly June 15th. From the first she was very ill. Everything that her family physician and nurse could do was done. The end came early Monday morning, August 2d.

DOUBLE SURPRISE

BIRTHDAYS OF F. S. BLACK AND
A. M. KELLY CELEBRATED JOINTLY

Mrs. F. S. Black and Mrs. A. M. Kelly entertained at an eight o'clock dinner last evening at the Black home, 439 West Lexington Drive, the occasion being their husbands' birthdays. Neither one of the men knew what had been arranged and the surprise had been so cleverly planned that they were amazed when they reached the scene of the party and found their friends assembled to greet them.

The table was decorated in red and green. Miniature camels were used for place cards and the favors were red paper fezes, all of the guests being Shriners.

F. A. Barnes, the toastmaster, was introduced by M. Minchen. Those present were Messrs. R. C. Mitchell, Horace Bodine, H. H. Soest, F. A. Barnes, M. Minchin, D. Masters and Dan Rose of Los Angeles and Dr. H. V. Brown, A. M. Kelly and F. S. Black of Glendale.

J. E. Wilkins and family have moved into the property at 406 Salem street recently vacated by Geo. C. Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nichol from Nebraska are visiting Mrs. C. M. Robinson of 1528 Lorraine street.

Miss Laura E. Roberts of 406 W. Maple street is spending two weeks at Hermosa.

Mrs. Bobe of Los Angeles is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Hannah Laum, of 302 North Louise.

Mrs. Essie Overholser of Los Angeles was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Griffin Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin of 246 North Central have just returned from Coronado Beach where they had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Barr of Valley View Road have just returned from Santa Rosa where they enjoyed a six weeks' visit with his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell and four children of 1420 Lorraine St. are home again after spending a month at Huntington Beach.

John Mercer moved to Glendale from Lindsay and now occupies the home he bought at 118 North Cedar.

Mrs. A. E. Buchanan of 339 North Maryland and Miss Bohannon, a neighbor, were visiting friends in Long Beach the first of the week.

W. R. Hall, who recently came to Glendale from near Bakersfield, has taken possession of the home he bought at 616 North Columbus avenue.

Born on Saturday, July 31, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hawkins of 864 West Broadway, a boy, weight 8 pounds. This is the third child born to them.

Mrs. Harriet Iano, of Fresno, is visiting her sister, Lucile Johnson, at 203 East Laurel, also friends in Los Angeles. She expects to visit in San Diego before returning home.

Miss Clara Boss has sold her house at 321 Myrtle street to a Mr. Leach of Arkansas. Miss Boss and her mother will move to the house they recently purchased at 215 South Central.

Mrs. Harry Olmstead and baby of Phoenix, Arizona, are visiting Mrs. F. H. Olmstead of 1431 North Pacific avenue. Mrs. DuBois of Sacramento, who was also a guest for a week, returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kaufen of Lindsay spent a week with Mrs. A. B. Clement of 1321 N. Pacific avenue, returning Wednesday. Their grand-daughter, Ethel May Clement, accompanied them home.

Mrs. Ed La Fountain and daughter, Vera, who have been visiting Mrs. Wm. LaFountain, 203 West Acacia Ave., returned the first of the week to their home in Seattle, Wash.

The many friends of Mrs. D. W. Henke, daughter of Mrs. D. E. Dietrick of 451 West Patterson avenue, will be glad to know that she is doing nicely and able to sit up, after the operation of two weeks ago by Dr. Young.

The Story Hour at the Library Tuesday was devoted to the study of music—its origin and development, from crude drums and sticks to the highly perfected instruments of today. Pictures of noted musicians were displayed, also a varied assortment of music books.

Prof. Geo. U. Moyses and wife started Tuesday on an auto trip, to be gone two weeks. Their intention was to go just as far north as they could drive in one week without hurrying and they hoped to reach Mt. Shasta. The Misses Moyses remained at home to keep house.

Dr. and Mrs. Smedley of Denver, Colorado, who have many friends in Glendale, spent some time at the beaches while here and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crawford of 1319 N. Central Ave. The Crawfords and Smedleys enjoyed several trips together going up to Bear Valley and to Santa Monica. Dr. and Mrs. Smedley are now on their way to Denver by the way of San Francisco.

W. H. Loucks, who bought the residence at 308 East California avenue and the two-story business house and residence just east of it at 310, has moved in to the living rooms of the latter, with his wife and her mother, Mrs. M. A. Everett, and will start a little grocery store in the room below in a few days. He was in this a number of years in Portland, Oregon. Mr. Loucks adopted a good method of getting acquainted with his fellow citizens of Glendale by ordering the Evening News.

Miss Sadie Yarnell of 318 Myrtle street, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Perry Henry, at their country place near Santa Cruz, writes in humorous vein of the experiences incident to the "intensive course in farming" she is taking. The object of this course is not to win a diploma, but to be able to superintend the place while Mr. and Mrs. Henry take a short vacation. Having mastered several of the intricate processes of light farming, she will no doubt be able to act as overseer. She is enjoying her vacation very much.

DIVINE HEALING

CAMP JOHN DAVIS

MRS. JULINA HAYS WRITES OF EXPERIENCES, PLEASANT AND—

The following letter to the Evening News by Mrs. Julina Hays, tells of her experiences, pleasant and otherwise, at the Huntington Beach annual encampment of the Southern California Veterans' Association:

"Our party reached here about 11 a. m. Tuesday to find no tent reserved for headquarters or individuals. The reason, I am told on good authority, is that tents had been rented to campers whose time had not expired. It has caused much inconvenience and dissatisfaction to the veterans and some twenty-five who could not get accommodation left soon after they arrived. In course of time a Headquarters Tent was found which would accommodate our party of seven, but even now we have but few conveniences but hope in time to get tables and a chair for each.

"We made a festival of tent cleaning yesterday afternoon. It was not a short job by any means for it required much scrubbing with the brooms we appropriated and plenty of water until the floor was finally pronounced fit for our delegation to walk on.

"So far we have from N. P. Banks Corps: Mary Milligan, president; Priscilla Houdyshel, treasurer; Julina Hayes, press correspondent; Anna Patterson, patriotic instructor; Emma Hammon, Mary Burrington, Marguerite Fisher and Lillian Peckham.

"The welcome last night by the Mayor to which Commander Maryatt responded was very good and the entertainment furnished by Post, Corps and citizens was fine. Eight girls gave a butterfly dance and two little girls a song and dance, 'Comin' Through the Rye.' both numbers very pleasing, as children's numbers always are. A male quartette from Santa Ana was repeatedly encored. There were other numbers which I have not time to mention.

"As I am writing the procession is forming for the flag raising. In spite of discomforts the veterans and their friends seem to be enjoying themselves."

CHURCH, WORLD

THEY ARE MINGLING TOO CLOSELY, SAYS EVANGELIST C. S. PROUT

"It must be admitted," said Evangelist C. S. Prout, at the Gospel Tent, Tuesday evening, "that there has been a great departure from discipline, and a conformity to the world in its practice, among the professed churches of Christendom of today. What is the cause? The answer comes from Paul, the apostle, in 2 Tim. 3:1-5: 'This know also that in the last days perilous times shall come, for men shall be lovers of their own selves... lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof.'

The Scripture likens the church, when linked up with the world—especially under the union of church

H. N. McMullin and family of San Francisco have rented and moved into the L. A. Lawson property at 1501 Lorraine street, leasing it for six months.

Mrs. Ellen E. Codd, sister-in-law of Mrs. Florence Morton, who has been living in the Morton home on North Isabel, is making an extended visit in the old home in Western New York.

Richardson Jones of 376 West Lexington Drive was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism last Saturday and has been in great pain ever since. He was slightly improved this morning.

Mrs. Mary Ayres, her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Shanyfelt, and the latter's daughter, Certha, start this evening on their return to Okmulgee, Okla., their home. They have been spending several weeks with another daughter of Mrs. Ayres, Mrs. Wm. Theobald, 312 West Acacia avenue. Mrs. Shanyfelt likes Glendale so well she says she will endeavor to persuade her husband to sell their holdings in Oklahoma and come out here to live next year.

GARDEN PARTY

MRS. OCKER MEETS AND LISTENS TO MANY NOTED LITERATI

A very interesting affair in the form of a garden party, at which were many people noted in literature and art, was attended by Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Tuesday, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James W. Heustis of South Normandie, Los Angeles. The party was given in honor of the Pen-Women's League, of which Mrs. Heustis is president. Among the guests of note who attended were the Baroness De Rapp, Mrs. Helen Lukens Galt, Myre Nye, Alma Whitaker, and Mr. Kimball—father of Clara Kimball Young. Miss Price of London, who was there, gave an interesting talk on the matter of women serving on the Council and holding other government positions. Miss Loretta J. Lynch, who represented the Pen-Women's League of New York, related some experiences incident to the production of her writings on Alaska: Many other writers of note were there also.

It was a most interesting and enjoyable affair. The refreshments were served out on the lawn.

A SOUND PRINCIPLE

The chief of police of Cleveland, O., has been sentenced to 30 days in jail or $100 fine for refusing to open the records of his office to newspapers.

This may appear surprising at first, but the court acted upon a sound principle—a principle sound not only in law but in public policy and good morals. Records of public officials must be open to public inspection. Whatever affects the public should be a matter of public information. No branch of our government should be secret.

There are abuses of newspaper privileges, of course, but no such abuse could be as great as that of a public official who locks the records of his office and refuses to permit newspaper men to ascertain the facts as to what he is doing. Newspaper men know that whenever a public official refuses to make public facts in his possession as to the public business his purpose is for one or two reasons: To hide either corruption or inefficiency.

Anything that is all right will stand the light of publicity. Newspaper men know this, and citizens generally are beginning to recognize it, too. The Cleveland court which fined the police head for contempt evidently realized it, and acted upon it.

Having inherited 10 million dollars from the former Empress Eugenie, Prince Victor Bonaparte, pretender to the French throne, will probably conclude that sum is much preferable to a throne these days.

and state—to an unfaithful woman—a harlot. Rev. 17:1-4. Friendship with the world is declared to be enmity with God. Jas. 4:4. When the church walks circumspectly before God and is faithful to Him, she is likened to a chaste virgin, and the relation is compared to that of marriage. Religion united to the state constitutes spiritually an unlawful union with another husband. Both are injured, both become demoralized. Persecution, formalism, and spiritual death result; and false doctrines abound.

"During the fourth and fifth centuries just such a union was brought about. It was then that Pagan errors, ceremonies, and ritual and a host of evils were imbibed to such an extent that historians declare that it was well-nigh impossible to distinguish any change from paganism. While the Roman Empire professedly became Christian, its character remained unchanged. Under Imperial patronage and edicts Christianity became essentially 'Babylon the Great.'

Out of this union the church became the dominant power for many centuries, the state becoming a mere tool to do its bidding. It was no longer divine power that was relied upon; but the arm of civil power. The changes which came about during the reformation of the sixteenth century broke the alliance to some extent, but failed to maintain a total separation. The divisions then occurring, have in some cases, formed a state union, lapsing again into formalism and worldliness. There is a constant catering to the pleasure-loving tendencies of professing Christians which is fast transforming the church into a vast social concern. It does not require a renunciation of the world, the flesh, and the devil nowadays to become a church member. Church membership and not conversion is paramount. Competition between the church and the world in pleasures and entertainments is becoming keen. This fusion is styled in 'The Apocalypse,' as 'Babylon or Confusion.' Her fall is predicted spiritually, and her dismal end is foretold in no uncertain terms. Rev. 18:1, 2. It is fast approaching.

"The last call for God's people is 'to come out of her, my people.' Rev. 18:4. Such is the move indicated before Christ comes for His own."

ALASKA TO SUPPLY MEAT

That our northwestern possession is developing into a rich storehouse of all kinds of products is shown by announcement that the department of agriculture is sending an expedition into Alaska with a view to increasing reindeer production and thus to furnish the United States with an additional supply of meat.

It is reported that there is enough treeless land not adapted to agriculture in Alaska to provide grazing ground for 4,000,000 reindeer. A small herd imported from Siberia in 1893 has grown to 150,000. Reindeer meat would be a desirable addition to our food resources and as such would be welcomed.

It is daily becoming more evident that gold, which was the magnet that drew people to Alaska until recently, is likely to prove of less importance than some of the other resources of our northern possession. Paper manufacturers are turning their attention to Alaska's vast spruce forests, and much of our canned salmon has been coming from there for several years. Secretary Daniels of the navy department and Secretary Payne of the department of the interior, are now in the northern territory to determine if its coal fields can supply fuel for the Pacific fleet.

"Seward's folly" in purchasing Alaska of Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000 is daily being looked upon as less fallacious.

PRINCE RUNS "GAUNTLET"

Prussian intellectual processes have puzzled psychologists for years, but apparently even the Prussian mentality, given time enough, undergoes changes.

If you had read in your newspaper, five years ago: "Farm Laborers Attack Prince Henry; Kaiser's Brother Forced to Run 'Gauntlet,' is Clubbed by Workers." your first impulse would have been to order the paper stopped. Yet that happened the other day and a world of newspaper readers passed it up as commonplace, so rapid have been the changes beyond the Rhine.

From the proud, strutting Prussian prince at military parade to plain Henry Hohenzollern, beaten and kicked as he is forced to pass between two lines of uncouth field workers, is a long drop, but Prince Henry took it. There is nothing not to be expected in the incident, however, when one remembers how Germany and the Germans suffered at the hands of the Hohenzollerns. The wonder of it is that an enraged people did not long since claim the lives of the entire Hohenzollern tribe.

This incident would seem to indicate that there is not much basis for reports that sentiment of the German people favors restoration of the old dynasty. The German imperialists are no longer respected even by those who were once their subjects.

The height of wastefulness: Boozc is used by Guam natives as bait for fish.

accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Hobbs Smith as matron of honor and her father, W. W. Hamilton, came up the carpeted walk from the right. The bride, beautiful and stately in her charming robe of cream satin charmeuse, trimmed with princess lace, wearing veil and orange blossoms, carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. The beautiful ring service was used.

Miss Lyon wore a becoming dress of lavender silk while the matron of honor, Mrs. Wayne Smith, was gowned in orchid silk with hat to match.

After the ceremony refreshments were served in which the lavender scheme was further carried out in the ice cream bricks with lavender heart centers and the tiny cakes pierced by lavender heart-bedecked darts. The bride's cake was white with orange blossoms and lavender colored lilacs. Tiny silk moire boxes tied with lavender ribbon contained pieces of the groom's cake.

The gifts were many and beautiful; and as the bride and groom left on their honeymoon amid a shower of rice, Miss Mary Logan was the lucky one who caught the bride's bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will leave for Cedar Falls, Ia., August 14th where they will make their future home.

The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hough, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, Mr. and Mrs. John Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Wade, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Braniger, H. C. Rawlings, Alfred Grundy and George H. Glenn of Los Angeles; Louis R. Coole and Glen Craig of Exeter. Mesdames Frank M. Hucksins, Mary E. Leland, Jennie Dossie of Glendale; W. H. Calderbank, Nettie J. Dennison of Los Angeles. Misses Ernestine M. Lyon, Cecilia Lyon, Beatrice Dossie, Amy Miller, Mary Logan, Esther Schremp of Glendale; Eva Addie Glenn and Grace Glenn of Los Angeles. Messrs. Ralph Davis and Will Richardson of Glendale, and Gordon Glenn of Los Angeles.

THE PILGRIMS

The series of ceremonies to commemorate the third centenary of the landing of the Pilgrims began very appropriately with a pageant in Southampton, England depicting the sailing from that port of the devoted voyagers in the Mayflower.

It was a picturesque curtain-raiser, with all the actors in Puritan costume, for the various observances that will engage the attention of this country for some months to come, up to their culmination in the celebrations at Provincetown and Plymouth in December.

And is there in fact any event in the history of this republic to which Americans could more fittingly give thought at the present time?

The anniversary occurs at a peculiar moment for the study of the lives and characters of these resolute champions of intellectual liberty who left their homes and crossed the sea to an unknown land for conscience's sake. At a time when a true concept of the ideals of democracy is so important it will be inspiring to study their idealism. They charted the way, and it is still by the signposts they set up that their descendants must shape their course.

The celebration of the coming of the Pilgrims, apart from its historical feature, is an ordained occasion for reaffirming old principles of freedom and for taking stock of moral ideals. The land which they found a wilderness has accumulated with its complex civilization problems of reconstruction quite as difficult as any that confronted them.

A COLLEGE EDUCATION

A successful business man remarked the other day, "it doesn't take as long to get over a college education now as it used to do." The remark was intended as a compliment to modern educational methods, as truly it was.

Not so many years ago people looked upon a college education as an end rather than a means. Not until comparatively recent years has there been anything like general realization of the fact that more is expected of a college graduate than of others, that the man who obtained a college education has assumed a greater responsibility instead of being given a greater privilege.

The college graduate of today must serve instead of being served. The college graduate is looked upon as being fitted for greater efficiency than one who has not had his advantages of education, and better things are expected of him.

The world today is more harsh in its judgment of the man who wastes his talents than upon the man who has no talents to waste. More is expected of the man with good tools than of the man with poor tools. And, after all, education is nothing more than the tool for the work of life.

These thoughts are offered with respectful earnestness to young men and young women who are thinking of entering college this fall.

AMERICAN BOY SCOUTS ABROAD

Three hundred Boy Scouts of America have sailed for London to compete with the best of the British Isles can boast in manly boyhood. The youngsters are a picked lot, the cream of the Scout army of 400,000, chosen on the basis of all-around merit and good scoutsmanship.

America may well be proud of these lads. They will compare well with any they may meet.

In England they will encounter the pick of the parent organization, which Baden-Powell formed. Then will ensue another international contest that America will watch with interest. If any group of boys can match our representatives, boy for boy, then America will pay the tribute that is due. Until our youngsters are out-matched, however, we pin our faith to them.

Our American scouts will learn a great deal from their trip. It will be the event of a lifetime to many a lad. But they will also have something to teach those they meet.

"Do a good turn every day" is the international watchword of the Boy Scouts, but the technique of American scouting differs. Some of the typical American "stunts" will be eye-openers to the boys of other nations. Our lads have taken a page from the history of the American Indian.

An army of 400,000 Boy Scouts of America will be "pulling for" their deservedly fortunate representatives. So, too, will 100,000,000 other firm friends of the crusading scouts.

Although he has never said whether he would have joined that little party staged by the colonists in Boston, it will be observed that Sir Thomas Lipton has never refused to dump a little tea advertising into the ocean.

Governor Coolidge has been photographed wrapped in the American flag, driving a mowing machine and milking a cow. Patriotism, industry and politics.

As a gentle reminder that this is leap year, the Russian Soviet government has issued an order that all women between 18 and 45 must marry immediately.
