ENGINEER KILLED. Freight Train Wrecked Near Macleod—Victim Crushed to Death. (Associated Press) Macleod, Alta., Sept. 25.—A bad wreck occurred at the junction east of this town last night. Conductor Harvey pulled out with a heavy train, with Engineer Fairley at the controls, and a Pullman car. Approaching the junction, where freight trains pull up, Front Brakeman George Henderson stepped on to the gangway of the tender, remarking to the engineer that the switch was not far ahead. There was a heavy down grade at that particular point, and the engine had gained considerable headway during the two and a half miles run from the old station. Instead of reducing speed and coming to an entire stop the engine dashed ahead and into an open switch. The brakeman held on until he felt the engine overturning when he jumped and got clear of a mass of coal which followed him from the overturned tender. The trainman also jumped and escaped, but the engineer was caught beneath his engine and instantly killed. It is thought that escaping steam from the engine obscured the vision of the engineer, who failed to see the signal lights ahead, but this will never be known. Six cars loaded with coal were badly wrecked.

STOCK PARADE AT THE EXHIBITION

A SPLENDID DISPLAY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Many Admiring Comments by Spectators -- Opening Rounds of Bronco Busting Competition.

An unfortunate shower of rain which occurred just about the time the people should have been crowding through the gates, interfered to some extent with the attendance at the Victoria exhibition yesterday afternoon. But despite the handicap it is probable that the receipts when tallied will make as creditable a showing as upon the second days of previous fairs. At any rate when the stock parade took place at 2 o'clock, followed by the bronco-busting competition an hour later, there were a good many hundreds in the grand stand and scattered about the grounds watching the sport.

"I could watch those for hours," remarked L. W. Paisley, the well-known Chillywack authority on stock, pointing at a line of ten or twelve huge but symmetrically proportioned Clydesdale horses as they paraded past the judge's stand. "Really," he went on, "I have never seen anything west of Toronto to compare with the horses here. There has never been such a collection gathered together before in British Columbia." Mr. Paisley's comment was but the general opinion expressed in different ways by the majority of spectators. It must not be supposed, however, that it took an expert to discern the superiority of the quality of the stock. To anyone with a natural, though perhaps uncultivated, love of animal life, it was a grand sight. They came out in the order outlined in these columns yesterday. There were the heavy horses referred to almost all gaily adorned with ribbons and rosettes. Then followed their less weighty brethren, the standard bred, and next the cattle. For a novice to attempt to give an adequate description of the scene would be to do so in vain.

WHEN YOUR BACK HURTS.

Of course it's hard work. Stopping over hurts, lifting is tedious, and you wonder what to do. Ever try Nervine? Nothing like it for weak or lame back. It penetrates the core of the pain, eases from the first application; brings cure that defies a relapse. No moment is so obnoxious as aching, so certain to kill muscular, rheumatic or sciatic pains. Your dealer sells. Polson's Nervine in large 25c bottles. Why not try it?

Your Liver

You cannot possibly enjoy good health when the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. You must keep the liver active. You must have daily action of the bowels. Ask your doctor if this is not true. Ask him at the same time if he knows a better laxative than Ayer's Pills. Ask for vegetable, sugar-coated. Dose, only one pill, at bedtime.

BRIGHT FUTURE FOR THE PROVINCE

EARL GREY VOICES OPTIMISTIC VIEWS

His Excellency Delivers an Interesting Address at Inauguration of Vancouver's Canadian Club.

The address of the Governor-General, Earl Grey, at the inauguration of the Canadian Club in Vancouver on Tuesday afternoon proved a very interesting one, and showed that His Excellency has become very much attached to this province, seeing in it a great future. There was a very delightful gathering with Fred Wade, K. C., in the chair. The latter in proposing a toast to Earl Grey at the conclusion of the luncheon referred at length to the history of the house of which the present Governor-General is a worthy representative.

Earl Grey rose to respond amid cheers, and the gathering soon afterwards again. "Mr. Chairman, guests and gentlemen," he said, "I thank you, Dr. Wade, for the way in which you proposed the toast, and you, gentlemen, for the extremely hearty cordiality with which you received it. I am grateful to you for the more than grateful way in which you referred to the connection between my family and Canada. If I take you into my confidence I'll admit I feel occasionally slightly embarrassed when these allusions are made to my ancestry. Real ancestors are not only an asset but a liability. Laughed at like a man who makes his own ancestry. Any man who makes claim to any regard or esteem by virtue of possessing illustrious ancestors, is a man I never want to make my friend, no more do you; Dr. Wade—the president of the club touched the speaker's arm and whispered, "The chairman reminds me," Earl Grey remarked, "I'm no more than all of us doesn't like being doctored." (Laughter.) "Mr. Wade," he went on, and a smile fluttered over the many faces at the slight emphasis he put on the "Mr." "I might grasp the Olympian laurels which you hold, with my search by answering what you have set before me."

"Mr. Wade has asked what is the history of Canada, and has pointed out that Canada felt her position of irresponsibility to be inconsistent with the dignity and genius of a British people. Well, I do not come here with a scheme of imperial federation, but to continue along the line to which the chairman has given expression, I might say the Dominion has only to ask England to admit her into the councils of her parliament, and if she is prepared to assume

Her Share of Obligations in relation to the Empire, I venture to say, not speaking officiously but personally, that she will receive the warmest response. (Cheers.) I have often had a dream that while former schemes of federation have been the result of the pressure of necessity, the imperial federation of the British Empire may yet be founded on a basis of self-respect and that the self-respect to which your chairman has given expression may be the impelling motive toward the realization of the dream. (Hear, hear.)

"My first visit to this portion of the Pacific coast was about 25 years ago. At that time a few dollars would have purchased the site of your entire city. The baptismal ceremony which bestowed upon your city the historic and distinguished name of Vancouver has not yet taken place. When I was last in this part of the world your now famous Vancouver was known to comparatively few as Gastown, thus irreverently named after that inspired booster, Gassy Jack, to whom the future greatness of Vancouver appears to have been revealed. (Laughter.)

"It requires no inspired prophet to foretell the greatness of Vancouver now. Vancouver is now the recognized gateway between the East and the West, the gateway through which the double streams of commerce between the Occident and the Orient, and between Britain and the self-governing nations of New Zealand and Australia will flow in ever-increasing volume, until Vancouver shall become, perhaps, the first and most important port of all the world. (Loud applause.) "Gentlemen, have you ever reflected on the position of Hongkong and Shanghai, and on the lesson which these two flourishing seaports offer to Vancouver? These seaports, as you know, are the channels through which China exports Her Surplus Produce, and imports the foreign merchandise for which that surplus produce is exchanged. You will be able to realize what is the value of being a national port, through which the export and import streams of merchandise flow when I remind you that over one thousand million dollars of British capital are invested in trade, financial and industrial centres in the modern settlement of Shanghai, and that Hongkong, which sixty years ago was a barren rock, can make the proud boast that its business now requires a larger tonnage of ocean shipping than any other port in the world, not excepting London.

"When you look at the map and realize that Vancouver is the nearest white man's port to the ports of the Orient, you will know what thoughts are in my mind without my expressing them. Now, if Hongkong and Shanghai do this enormous business when China is asleep, what may we not expect when China awakes? The signs are daily increasing that China is at last awakening. That great giant is now digging his huge fists into his eyes; if you listen you can almost hear the sounds which herald the approach of that great awakening, which, when it comes, will burst the bonds that have compressed the feet and cramped and dwarfed the development of that nation for centuries.

"Now, what does all this mean to you? To our country, not even Canada, possesses Greater Natural Resources than that vast empire of China, or a greater potential field for commercial enterprise. Who I ask is the natural heir to the increased foreign trade which we can see coming in future years from China and Japan? Who is going to benefit? But the answer to that question is obvious. That nation is going to benefit which has the markets on which China and Japan depend for the interchange of their surplus produce, and which owns and commands the trade routes which connect those markets with the ports of the Orient. Now, then, comes in your great good fortune. Through the enterprise of the C. P. R. it has already been shown that Canada can secure the route between Europe and Asia for herself, and unless she allows unwise legislation to prevent her from realizing her opportunities, she will have not only the trade route but the market as well.

Nature, the C. P. R. and the British fleet have together given and secured to Canada the shortest and the best trade route between Europe and Asia. You thus enjoy the immeasurable Advantage of a geographical preference, which no one can take from you. Trade, like water, will always seek its outlet through the easiest channel, consequently every improvement which makes it easier for the Canadian transcontinental trade should be a matter of public rejoicing. When I read in the press that the C. P. R. has effected an improvement in its grade over a section west of Winnipeg, which enables a locomotive to haul 1,000 instead of 500 tons, or more than triple its efficiency, I rejoice over the additional force which has been provided for securing to Canada the trade route between Europe and the Orient. When I read that the C. P. R. and the Allan line have together shortened the bridge from Liverpool to Quebec and Montreal, when I read that the C. P. R. has reduced the time of transit across this continent to 90 hours, and have also quickened the passage between Vancouver and Yokohama and Hongkong, I rejoice again and again. For what is the meaning to the Canadian nation and the British Empire of Canada becoming

The Recognized Trade Route between Europe and the Orient, and between England and Australia, too? No one can measure the incomparable value to you of that great achievement. "The chairman reminds me," Earl Grey remarked, "I'm no more than all of us doesn't like being doctored." (Laughter.) "Mr. Wade," he went on, and a smile fluttered over the many faces at the slight emphasis he put on the "Mr." "I might grasp the Olympian laurels which you hold, with my search by answering what you have set before me."

"Mr. Wade has asked what is the history of Canada, and has pointed out that Canada felt her position of irresponsibility to be inconsistent with the dignity and genius of a British people. Prairie Provinces. Nothing is more difficult than to change the habits of a people, particularly with regard to their food, and we must not be too impatient if the rate of transition from rice to bread appears to be slow to us. The fact that the Japanese Government has established bread for rice in the diet of its army and navy is a fact of the first importance. The Japanese Government having given this proof of preference of bread over rice, it would seem that the people of the East and those who are interested in creating new markets for Canadian produce to educate the Japanese people to appreciate bread, and how to make bread out of Canadian flour by means of Canadian stoves, the example set by the Government might be followed by the people. Rice requires time and trouble to prepare, and also needs a relish. Well, it would be as easy for Canada to supply Japan with cheese, butter and jam as with bread.

"British Columbia is an ideal dairy and fruit country, and it seems to me that it will be your own fault if you are not able, when you have cleared sufficient ground, to Export to Japan all the Jam, butter and cheese which she may require. Until this year Japan levied a higher duty on Canadian than United States imports. This year, owing to the advantage which Canada enjoys in being a portion of the British Empire, Canadian imports have been given by Japan the advantage of the 'most favored' treatment. (Applause.)

"If there is any part of the world which should be able to take profitable advantage of the increasing foreign trade of China and Japan, that part would appear to be British Columbia, both from the quality of its climate and its land, and from its comparative proximity to Japan. The foreign trade of the Orient would then appear to be a natural asset of British Columbia, always available, like a balance at the bank, whenever your people may desire to realize it. Further, reflect that in proportion as your railways can secure the remunerative volume of through traffic between Europe and Asia, it will be able to reduce local rates to the advantage of everyone. It would be easy to show that every citizen of Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is Directly Interested.

In Canada becoming the trade route between the East and the West, but it is too large a subject on which to enter. I understand that this luncheon celebrates the inauguration of your Canadian Club. With the various Canadian Clubs that exist in the more prosperous cities of the Dominion, I am in heartfelt sympathy. I may say so because it is the special feature of Canadian clubs that they are not associated with any particular sect or party, but are representative of all who have a right to be members of the Dominion. A club such as this which exists for the purpose of obtaining addresses from men, no matter to what party they may belong, who are conspicuous for their disinterested zeal in the public service, secures two results. One result is that your horizon is widened; that your touch with the great world is increased, and your life is removed out of the narrow and muddy rut of selfish provincialism which is the chief cause and weakness of nearly every portion of the British Empire. (Applause.) Situated as you are on the tides that flow round the world, your thoughts and talk will naturally take a wide and comprehensive range. It has even been the case that towns situated as the commanding point of the great trade-routes of the world, as Venice was before the Cape of Good Hope route to India was discovered, enjoyed a civic life ennobled by a rich and varied culture, by

A High Idealism and by a splendid spirit. And so it may be with you. Use your club as a window through which the best and purest light of the United States, of the Old World and of the new, can shine in upon the life of your town, and by the earnestness and brightness of their rays contribute to the enlightenment of your city. (Loud cheers.)

"Another result that will follow in the wake of a well-managed Canadian club is that it will provide you with a security against those evils which fasten upon every self-governing city whenever democracy goes to sleep. It allows the foundation of a greatness, which if you allow it to remain, energy and above all character, may secure to you one of the most honored places in the past, present or future history of mankind. (Applause, loud and continued.)

"I shall have failed in my object if I have not communicated to you my own profound belief in the many potential advantages you can enjoy because of your great natural resources and of your unique geographical position. I have said that the people of Canada will have only themselves to blame if they accepted trade routes between Europe and the Orient, and between England and Australia, too, does not traverse Canadian territory. May I venture to say that it seems to me it will be your fault if you do not also supply every year an increasing market for the foreign trade of China and Japan. Up to now British Columbia has done little towards the building up of

A Great Oriental Trade notwithstanding the fact that her resources in fisheries, lumber, minerals, fruit and dairy cultivation are greater than those of Washington or Oregon. That you have not been able to do much as yet is only natural, for you are just arriving at the stage of manhood. In Japan, owing to the construction of railways and industrial development, the demand for lumber is increasing. The home supplies have been reduced to such an extent that it has been necessary for the Japanese Government to place restrictions on the cutting of timber. The demand for imported timber is, consequently, increasing in Japan and Manchuria, which are treeless countries, as well as in China. British Columbia is the natural source of supply for the timber requirements of all these countries. It is well known that the sleepers required for the Siberian Railway which were imported at Vladivostok, came from British Columbia. Then the fact that Japan is slowly, but, I believe surely, substituting bread for rice as food

W.G. CAMERON, 55 JOHNSON STREET

I say that when the other evening I dined quietly past your archipelago of lovely islands, and gazed upon the unruffled surface of your narrow waters, which reflected the surrounding mountains in their depths, I felt, and your Lieutenant-Governor agreed with me, in the quiet and dreamy atmosphere of that wonderful scenery, only broken by the plunge of the salmon and by the strings of duck necklacing the lovely bosoms of your bays, that Princess Louise had erred in not having located your province even nearer to Heaven than she did. (Loud applause.) "Well, what is to be the future of this wonderful country? Its advantages would appear to be unique. All it requires is population. I understand there is abundant capital ready for investment in British Columbia as soon as there is an available supply of labor. If you desire to realize the destiny which I have ventured to conceive for you, you will have to find some way which all fair-minded and reasonable men can accept to solve your labor problem. (Hear, hear.) At present it would appear that what of labor is the only difficulty which prevents your province from becoming not only one of the

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

There will be an important meeting of No. 2 company, Fifth Regiment, this evening. All members are particularly requested to attend.

On Tuesday evening at last, with the death occurred of Thomas Greaves, Jr., son of Thomas Greaves, as the result of an accident several months ago. Deceased was only eighteen years of age and was well known in Victoria.

In the police court this morning a solitary drunk appeared and was fined. A young woman who has been held in the cells for two days awaiting the appearance of a man who laid an information against her of taking money from his pockets was set at liberty this morning. Her accuser failed for two days to be present at the court to give testimony against her.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Holmes and Miss Daniels, the daughter of Mr. J. Daniels, of Cedar Hill district, was solemnized at St. Luke's church, Cedar Hill, yesterday. There was a large attendance at the wedding, the church being crowded. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Connell, incumbent of the church. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Birch, of the Royal Oak. Mr. Robert Jamieson presided at the groom. After the ceremony in the church the bridal party proceeded to the hospitable home of the bride's father, where a reception was held. The house was very artistically decorated for the occasion and many friends of the bride attended to wish her well. The honeymoon will be spent among the famous cities and at Vancouver, after which Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will take up residence at the corner of Niagara and Clarence streets.

Manager Jamieson, of the New Grand, has provided for this week a programme that has never before been surpassed at the popular vaudeville house. There is a little play "Lesch's Violin" that gives Morrison and Rama a chance to display their talent at its best. Miss Roma's playing is very much above the average and Mr. Morrison's interpretation of the character of an old pawnbroker is well worth seeing. Herbert Brooks is a wizard with cards and he carries out the well known trick mystery with great neatness. Mr. and Mrs. MRS. Vargo do a splendid bag punching turn, and Tuscano brothers give a fine exposition of juggling with ball-tosses. Courtwright and Lee have a good comedy turn; and John W. Byrne proves himself a capable monologist. An hilarious song by Fredrick Roberts and an overture by Nagel's orchestra complete a first-class programme.

The exhibit from Paris of Dr. H. B. F. Crislian, the famous court doctor of Europe of beauty culture, is something that no lady should overlook. Amongst his preparations is the grey hair elixir—positively returns grey hair to its natural color. Auda Oil, removing wrinkles and smallpox pits, is another of his excellent preparations to be appreciated. Valuable information and booklet given away free at exposition, Victoria.

A meeting of all those interested in taking advantage of the proposed night school which the male teachers of the city are intending to open this winter will be held in the High school building on Friday evening. At that meeting it will be decided whether the classes are to be carried on.

All the dancing public of Victoria and vicinity are invited to attend the dance to be held at the Assembly hall, Fort Street, tomorrow evening, under the auspices of the hospital aid trustees, and in aid of the addition of a sun-room veranda at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. Good music and refreshments will be provided, and the tickets, fixed at a very reasonable price, may be obtained of Messrs. Hibben, Challoner & Mitchell, Victoria Book & Stationery Co., Huxtable Bros., Tourist Association, the Diarrhoe Hotel, Madam Kosche, J. A. Virtue (Oak Bay hotel), Stewart Williams, and members of the hospital and dance committee. All members and friends of the hospital aid and others are asked to contribute either cake, sandwiches, bread and butter, or fruit towards the refreshments for the dance, and to send them to the Assembly hall as early as convenient to-morrow. As the entertainment has been promoted hurriedly cards soliciting refreshments have not been generally issued, and the dance committee depend upon this notice, which all members will understand.

—Mrs. Jas. Crane, of No. 10 Milne street, died this morning. She was 48 years of age and a native of Ontario. The funeral is arranged to take place on Saturday, from the parlors of W. J. Hanna.

The B. C. Anchor Fence Company donated and constructed the fence surrounding the bronco busting corral at the exhibition. It is successfully standing a severe test, large numbers of people sitting and standing on it during the competition.

The funeral of Henry Goward took place this morning from the family residence, "Rockwood," at 11 o'clock and half an hour later from Christ Church, where the services were conducted by Rev. Canon Beauland, assisted by Rt. Rev. Bishop Perrin. There was a large attendance, also many beautiful floral offerings. The hymns rendered by the choir were "O God, our help in ages past," and "Peace, perfect peace." The following acted as pallbearers: S. J. Pitts, W. Skewcroft, J. W. Church, E. H. Hildreth, C. E. Redfern, and P. T. Johnston.

A joint meeting of owners of property abutting on the waterfront, the board of trade and the municipal council, together with the leading property owners and mercantile interests of the city, has been arranged for 4 p.m. tomorrow afternoon in the committee room at the city hall, to confer with the Hon. W. Templeman, M.P. for the city of Victoria, and G. A. Keefer, on the improvements of the harbor of Victoria, most urgently needed. It is most important that the meeting should be as representative as possible, and a full attendance of all interested is asked.

The Westminster Abbey choir concert party is on its way to Victoria from whence it will sail for China on November 5th. Manager Denham, of the opera house, has received a communication asking him to arrange for a sacred concert on Sunday, November 4th. He is considering the advisability of securing the engagement. If this arrangement does not materialize here a concert will be given in Vancouver. Those who heard this choir on its previous visit to the province remember with pleasure the admirable rendering given of oratorio selections and old-time glees and cavatinas.

THOROUGHBREDS

BY W.S. FRASER.

CHAPTER XXIX. (Continued.) "But how could he get at her?" queried the Trainer. "The stable's been locked; an Finn and Carter were sleeping in the saddle room."

"That devil could get where a sparrer could. How did he get in to cut the bridle rein-rough a manure, without no bigger'n your hat. He done that, as I know."

"Well, if the mare's got it we're in the soup. Have you seen Miss Porter about Mike?" "I did a minute ago. I'll pass the word ye want to see her—here she comes now. I'll slip down and get her."

"What villains there are in the world the girl thought. For a man to lay them odds against their horse, knowing that she had been poisoned, was a hundred times worse than stealing the money from their pockets."

"I don't suppose we'll ever be able to prove it," declared Dixon, regretfully. "But that doesn't matter so much as the mare being done for. We've out of it now good and strong. If we'd known it two days ago we might a-aved the money, but we've burned up a thousand."

"We'll have to start Lauzanne," said Allis, taking a brave pull at herself, and speaking with decision. "We might a-ved him to the post, but that's all the good it'll do us. I'm fazed."

"I've seen him do a great gallop," contended Allis. "He did it for you, but he won't do it for nobody else. There ain't no boy ridin' can make him go fast enough for a funeral. But we'll start him, an' I'll speak to Redpath about takin' the mount."

Allis was thinking very fast; her we'll settle that when you come back." CHAPTER XXX. Allis's visit to Ringwood was a trying one. Filled devotion to her father had been one motive, but not the only one. Her brother Alan's wardrobe received a visitation from her hands too well acquainted with the intricacies of its make-up.

John Porter was undoubtedly brightened by the daughter's visit. Lucretia's defeat in the Handicap had increased his despondency. To prepare him gradually for reverses Allis intimated, rather than asserted, that Lucretia might possibly have a slight cold—Dixon wasn't sure; but they were going to run Lauzanne also. Like the Trainer, her father had a very poor opinion of the Chinaman's powers in any other hands but in that of the girl's.

"Who'll ride him?" he asked, petulantly. "It seems you can't trust any of the boy's now-a-days. If they're not pin-headed, they're crooked as a corker." "Jane tells me that Redpath didn't ride Lucretia's out in the Handicap, and whether he rode the mare or Lauzanne it seems all the same—we'll get-beat anyway."

"Another boy will have the mount on Lauzanne," Allis answered. "What difference will that make? You can't trust him." "You can't trust this boy, father, as you might trust your own son, Alan." "I don't know about that. Alan in the bank is all right, but Alan as a jockey, would be a different thing."

"Father, you would trust me, wouldn't you?" "I guess I would, in the tightest corner ever chased out." "Well, you can trust the jockey that's going to ride Lauzanne just as much as I know him, and he's all right. He's been riding Lauzanne some, and the horse likes him."

"It's all Lauzanne," objected Porter, the discussion having thrown him into a petulant mood. "This Lucretia that bad—is she sick?" "She galloped to-day," answered the girl, evasively. "But if anything happens here we're going to win with the horse. Just think of that, father, and cheer up. Dixon has backed the stable to win a lot of money, enough to—well, to wipe out all these little things that are blotted against you, dad."

"What difference will that make? You can't trust him." "You can't trust this boy, father, as you might trust your own son, Alan." "I don't know about that. Alan in the bank is all right, but Alan as a jockey, would be a different thing."

TO READERS OF THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL:

Did you read the article published by The Ladies' Home Journal in May 1904, attacking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? Have you seen the statement more recently made by Mr. Bok, the Editor of that magazine that his company "has not paid a single penny to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern * * * in settlement of any suit"? We wish you to know the truth. The facts are these:

Four days after the article in May 1904, appeared, Dr. Pierce's company sued The Ladies' Home Journal publishers for libel. The trial was had in April last. Dr. Pierce proved that the attack made by The Ladies' Home Journal was false. He proved that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does not, and never did contain either alcohol or any of the injurious drugs which The Ladies' Home Journal falsely stated it did contain. This was so conclusively shown that the attorneys for The Ladies' Home Journal were forced to admit it. The jury rendered a verdict against The Ladies' Home Journal in favor of Dr. Pierce's company for $16,000.00. This was a complete vindication of Doctor Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription." It judicially established that the libel was wholly false, and without any justification.

Dr. Pierce, however, believed that his company is justly entitled to its verdict for a much larger sum. Through his attorneys he has, therefore, applied to the court for a new trial of the case. For this reason, and for this reason alone, has The Ladies' Home Journal not yet paid a single penny to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern." Dr. Pierce has simply chosen not to collect the judgment until the motion for a new trial has been decided.

In the light of these facts does not this boastful statement that it "has not paid a single penny to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern" look like a cheap and common bluff, a half truth intended to mislead you? During the trial of the libel suit against the above mentioned publishers, Dr. Lee H. Smith, Vice-President of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, stated under oath that the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription were wholly extracted from the following native roots: Golden Seal, Blue Cohosh, Lady's Slipper, Black Cohosh and Unicorn, by means of pure glycerine of proper strength. He was asked how he knew as a physician and experienced medical man that the "Favorite Prescription" was a cure for the diseases peculiar to women, such as "female weakness, white leucorrhoea, catarrhal drainage, leucopis, retroversion, irregular and painful periods, and other diseases of the womanly organs" and he stated that he knew such was the fact because of his professional experience and the many thousands of women whose ills, to his personal knowledge, had been cured by this "Prescription."

This experience of Dr. Smith was corroborated by the standard Medical Authorities of the several schools of practice, endorsing the various ingredients in the strongest terms. Such being the case, the standard works, such as the United States Dispensary, The American Dispensary, Organic Medicines, by George C. M. B. Materia Medica, by Professor Finley Ellingwood of the Bennett Medical College, Chicago; "New Remedies," by Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Chicago; Text-Book of Therapeutics, by Dr. Hobar, A. Hare, Prof. in Univ. of Penna.; "Laurance Johnson, M. D., Prof. in University of New York; Prof. John King, Author of "Woman and Her Diseases"; Professor John M. Scudder, M. D., Author of a treatise on "The Diseases of Women"; Horatio C. Wood, M. D., Author of "Therapeutics"; Roberts Bartholow, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica, Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia; these recognized and standard authorities praise, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient which enters into the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

In fact the "Favorite Prescription" stands alone as being the only medicine for woman's special ailments which has any such professional endorsement of its several ingredients, which fact is generally recognized as entitled to much more weight than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials. The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone as the only non-secret medicine for woman's ailments. Its manufacturers are not afraid to publish its ingredients, as they do, broadcast—thus inviting the fullest scrutiny. The "Favorite Prescription" has been on trial in court and came out fully vindicated as containing no harmful or habit-forming drugs. What other medicine for women could stand such a test? No invalid women can afford to accept a secret nostrum of unknown composition for this tried and proven remedy of known composition. Leading physicians often prescribe it because they know exactly what it is made of and that the ingredients of which it is composed are the very best known to medical science for the cure of woman's ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not advertised as a "Cure All" but admirably fulfills a singular purpose, being a superior and most positive remedy for one class of diseases only; those easily recognized weaknesses, derangements, irregularities and painful disorders peculiar to women. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating, tonic and strengthening nerve. For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, whether it be from too frequent bearing of children or from much worry, care, or over exertion of any kind, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most efficient in building up the strength, regulating all the womanly functions, banishing pain and bringing about a regular and healthful vigorous condition of the whole female system.

THE ROD. FISHING AT COWICHAN. Excellent sport is being enjoyed on the Cowichan river by fishermen at the present time. Among those staying at the Lakelse hotel is the well known angler, Bradley-Dyne and Dr. A. H. Hutton. The former landed one spring salmon weighing 4 1/2 pounds. L. T. Fox, of Victoria, who stayed several days at the Riverside Inn, also had some success. At the Siwash Rips, and using a No. 3 fly, he landed seven fish, weighing from one and a half to three and a half pounds. Col. Andrew Haggard and Mrs. Haggard are having splendid sport at the same resort. One evening Mrs. Haggard hooked a six-pound salmon. It was taken after dark, and great difficulty was experienced in landing it. The largest salmon caught in the river was a 12-pound fish, captured by Col. Haggard on a comparatively light rod.

CRICKET. KENT THE CHAMPIONS. "The cricket campaign has closed in sensational style," says the Joy. All sportsmen Kent has won the championship, and thus broken the power of the north. To the joy of all sportsmen Hirst has scored 2,000 runs and captured 200 wickets—a feat without a parallel in all cricket. To the joy of all sportsmen Tom Hayward has passed Abel's record aggregate for an English season, and has equalled Charles Fry's roll of centuries for one summer—thirteen. Hayward, with 13 hundreds has an aggregate of 3,390, and an average of 68.5. Hirst has made 2,164 runs (average 56.2) and captured 200 wickets (average 13.26). These are the mighty men of the year. No Australian team could have approached the interest these Agamemnon have done."—The Athletic News.

BANQUET TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

ANOTHER IMPORTANT SPEECH BY EARL GREY Market for Canadian Produce in China and Japan—Takes Sanguine View of Future.

(Special to the Times.) Vancouver, Sept. 27.—At the banquet tendered to Earl Grey by the Forestry Association and the Canadian Manufacturers last night, fully four hundred guests sat down. Earl Grey in an excellent speech, which he declared was quite impromptu, threw off his robes of office and addressed the gathering not as governor-general but as a man. He spoke of the great future of this province as the gateway to Oriental trade and declared we must cultivate the appetite of China and Japan for Canadian produce. He would have liked to have seen more Americans present. They would have been satisfied that a brighter and nobler future awaits Canada inside than outside the empire. The more who came the better. We impartially to rich and poor. A constituent was enjoyed which allowed expression through representatives in parliament. Every freedom was given which was enjoyed on the other side of the line. He also realized that in Canada, in spite of British connection, was enlarged the freedom of development of her own nationality without interference from any outside source.

Hon. M. Templeman, Hon. R. McBride, Mr. Stewart, president of the association, Mr. Price, the American representative, and John Hendry also spoke. To the right of the principal guests were Lt.-Governor Dalrymple of Alberta; J. R. Kennedy, M. P.; Hon. R. McBride, Hon. F. Carter-Cotton, H. Cochran, W. A. C. Mackenzie, Mayor Bugcombe, R. P. McLennan, A. C. Plummer, and F. J. Sweeney. To his left were Mr. Hendry, chairman; His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia; Hon. W. Templeman; Mr. Duncan Ross; M. P.; Hon. R. F. Green; E. Stewart; Prince W. K. George; R. H. Alexander; W. K. McNaughton and H. M. Price. At the heads of the tables were W. Murray, H. Depenier, R. H. H. Alexander, John Boyd, R. Marpole, J. G. Woods, Campbell Sweeney, Dr. Bell, Irving, Wm. McNeill, F. R. McD. Bussell, M. H. Leggett, and A. B. Erskine.

EN ROUTE SOUTH. Steamer Princess Beatrice left Skagway last night with 102 passengers. This is one of the largest crowds to come out from the northern interior this season and shows that the people of Dawson and other Yukon points have been anxious to reach the coast before the close of navigation. Princess Beatrice has been one of the luckiest of the northern fleet in meeting outbound crowds and her passenger business for the season has been probably the largest of any steamer in the service.

EXCURSIONISTS ARRIVING. Excursionists from the provincial mainland and Sound are beginning to arrive in good number. The Vancouverites, for instance, had 143 from Port Angeles yesterday afternoon and it is stated that this number might easily have been three or four hundred if the Victoria exposition had been judiciously advertised in that place. The excursionists complain that they received very short notices. From Vancouver the big crowds are still to come but from Seattle the Princess Victoria had a considerable number this morning.

Steamer Umatilla arrived from San Francisco at 11 o'clock this morning. Steamer Albatross sailed for Yokohama on Saturday and is due October 9th.

SEEKING MEANS TO PRESERVE FORESTS

DISCUSSION AT THE FORESTRY CONVENTION

H. W. Jones Reviews Conditions in the Interior—Inadequate Fire and License Laws.

(Special to the Times.) Vancouver, Sept. 27.—After a five hour session the forestry convention yesterday afternoon emerged from a forest of words upon a mountain of two ideas. These from a provincial view were: Better forest fire laws, the hope that Douglas fir may yet be a paper-making wood, the need of a law for keeping squatters out of timbered areas and an amendment to the provincial regulations providing for such tenure and terms in timber licenses that the lumbermen will be able to pay some attention to the principles of forestry in carrying on their operations.

The afternoon session had several features. The commissioner of lands and works gave valuable statistics on the extent, revenue and legislation of the timber of British Columbia. Another feature was a solar plexus administered to the provincial government by President F. W. Jones, of the Mountain Lumber Manufacturers' Association of British Columbia, who ably reviewed the conditions in the interior, as R. H. Alexander had those on the coast. Inadequate provisional forest, fire and timber license laws might have been the title of Mr. Jones' able paper.

The fourth feature was a lively debate on the first and only resolution thus far proposed or discussed by the convention, which follows: "Shall the law against the export of logs cut on government lands now on the statute book of Ontario and British Columbia be extended to include timber lands controlled by companies and private individuals, so compelling all timber to be manufactured within the Dominion?" This resolution was defeated, only seven persons voting in favor of it.

The convention practically concluded at noon to-day with the reading of able exhaustive papers by Dr. Judson Clark of Ontario, on "Forest Reserves and Conservation," and by the Inspector of Dominion forest reserves, R. D. Craig of Ottawa, also on reserves, followed by a lively discussion on the whole nine papers read at the convention.

To-day's papers emphasized the appeals of yesterday for the preservation, preservation and economical operation of the Canadian lumber industry. In the discussion President Price, of the Quebec Pulp Co., raised the question whether the British Columbia government claimed ownership to the beds of non-navigable streams as Quebec was doing now, making millmen and owners of the dams on such stream pay for the bed.

Surveyor I. E. McKay said they did, and the question was in dispute. W. R. White, of Pembroke, said if the riparian holder owned the land on both sides of the stream the government could not interfere with the creation of a dam or charge for the bed.

Mr. McKay added that the government made logging companies pay for the improvement of non-navigable streams. The right of the Dominion to claim the beds of navigable streams was not questioned, but the delegates shook their heads ominously at the province grabbing the beds of smaller streams.

Charles F. Lindmark, of the Revelstoke Lumber Company, advocated a school of forestry in his native land, loggers to start logging at the top instead of the bottom of their limit as a precaution against fire, which seldom crept down, but always ran up.

W. H. Higgins said it would work well in theory but not in practice. All the papers and speeches aimed at the agency of the forest, are Overton, Price, of Washington, United States forest service, was asked for experience in the States. He said the prevention methods were yet in their experimental stage. The report of the committee on resolutions will be presented this afternoon. Short addresses will close the convention. The present officers will likely be re-elected.
