

The annual visual celebration of Africa

2020

AFRICA ON THE MOVE!

ENTRIES ARE ACCEPTED BETWEEN 15TH FEBRUARY AND 31ST MARCH 2020

The Wiki Loves Africa annual photographic prize visually celebrates Africa's diversity, richness and complexity. Enter images or media that depict the theme of Africa on the Move, join in on an event and possibly win prizes.

We are looking for ... photographs ! audio ! videos ! that represent Africa on the Move! This theme encourages entries that visualise movement, migration or transportation, whether local or regional, by path, road, rail, water, or air, either self-propelled or animal, by natural or mechanical means. Entries could also capture the historical or contemporary structures that have been erected, engineered or built to facilitate movement or the transportation of people, goods, or animals.

International prizes include:

- 1st prize: US$1000
- 2nd prize: US$800
- 3rd prize: US$500

Additional categories:

- Prize for best quality video: US$500
- Culturally specific or traditional representations of transport methods or structures that facilitate transportation: US$500

Each winner will also receive a pack of goodies

You can enter from anywhere, but look out for special Wiki Loves Africa events happening in many countries across Africa.

ENTER NOW: bit.ly/EnterWLA2020

www.wikilovesafrica.net

@WikiLovesAfrica

WikiLovesAfrica

WikiLovesAfrica

photo credits: 1.Ninara from Helsinki, Finland (Flickr) CC-BY-SA 2.0; 2.Puente de las cataratas Victoria, Zambia-Zimbabwe by Diego Delso, delso.photo, License CC-BY-SA; 3. Mozambique - traditional sailboat by Steve Evans from Bangalore, India (Flickr) CC-BY-SA 2.0; 4.Horse fantasia Algeria by Mus52 CC-BY-SA 4.0; 5.Kenya_Railways by Babak Fakhamzadeh via Flickr CC-BY-SA 2.0