To telle hire / if hir child / wente oght forby
They seyde nay / but theu of his grace
HENGWRT (c-r. 186)

186 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRES'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

I seys that in a wardrobe they hym threwo
Where as those Iewys purgyt here entraylo
O cusede folk of herodes al nowe
What may youre euele entent þow a-wayle Mordre wete out cerceyn it wete nat fayle
And namely ther as thifour of god schal sprede
The bloo out gryeth on youre cusede dede

1765

1768

O martyr sowedd to virginitee
Now mayst tow syngyn folwyng eures in on The whyte lamb celestial quod sche
Of whiche the greete euangelist seynt Iolin
In pathmos wrot / which seyth that they that gon
By-form this lamb & syngo a song al nowe
That neuere fleschely woman they ne knewe

1772

1775

This poure widowe which that waytith al that nyght Aftyr hire lytyl chil[d] & he cam nougt for which as soone as it was dayis lygt
With face pale of drede & busy thought Sche hath at scole & elles were hym sougt Tyl finally sche gan so fer espie
That he last seyn was in the Iouerye

1779

1782

With modres pite in hire brest enclosed Sche goth as sche were half out of hire mynde
To euerplaces where as sche hath supposid
Be likihede / hire litil child to fynde
And eures on crystis modyr meke & kynde Sche cryede & at the laste thus sche wroughte
Among the cusede Iowys sche hym soughte

[leaf 221, back]

1786

1789

Sche askyth & sche fraynyth pitously
Of euery Iew that dwelte in thilke place
To telle hire of hir child wente out forch by They seydyn nay but theu of his grace
CAMBRIDGE (c-r. 186)

1793

¶ I say þat in a wardrobe þei him drewe /
Wher as þis Iewes purgen entraille
O' cursed folk of herowdes al newe /
What may þours euyl entent þou amyle /
Mordre wile out certein it wil nought fayle
And namely þere honour of god schold sprede þe blood out crieþ on þour cursed dede

1765
1768

¶ O martir sounded to virginite
Now maystow syngen folwyng euer in oon
The white lambe celestial quod he /
Of which þe grete euangelist seint Iohn
In Pathmos wrot which seiþ þei þat gon Byfom þis lambe and synge a song al newe þat neuer fleischly woman þei knewe

1772 1775

¶ þis þere wydewe wayteþ al þat nyght
After þis litel childe but hom cam he nougt for whom as some as it was dayes light Wiþ face pale for drede and busy þought
Sche haþ at scole and elles wher him sougt Til fynally sche gan so fer aspye þat he was seyn last in þe Iewery

(Text 215, back) 1779 1782

¶ With moodres pyte in hire brest enclosed Sche goþ as þought sche were half out of mynde /
To euery place where sche haþ supposed
By lyklyhede hire childe for to fynde
And euer on cristes moder meke and kynde Sche cryed and at þe laste þus sche wrought Amonge þe cursed Iewes sche him sougt

1786
1789

Sche freyneþ and sche preiþe pitouly
To euery Iewe þat dwelt in þilke place
To telle hire if hire child went hem by They sayden may þat ihesus of his grace
CORPUS (6-T. 186)

[1 MS. litic]

I say þat in a wardrobe þei hym drewe
Wher þat þis Iewe purgen entraille
O cursed folk of herowdes al newe
What may þours euyl entent þou amyle
Mordre wil out it wil not faille
And namely þer honur of god shuld sprede þe blood out crieþ of þours cursed dede

1765
1768

O Matir sounded to virginite
New maist þow syngen folowing euer in oon þe white lambe celestial quod he
Of which þe grete euangelist seynt Iohn
In Pathmos wrot which seyn þei þat gon
Byfom þis lambe and singe a songe al newe
That neuer fleschly woman þei knowe

1779
1775

This poor widowe wayteþ al þat nyght
After this litel childe. but home cam he nougt for whom as some as it is daies lit Wiþ face pale for drede and biay þout Sche haþ atte scole and ellis wh[er] him sougt Til fynally she gan so fer aspie þat he was sene last in þe Iwerye

1779 1782

Wiþ moders pyte in her brest enclosed
She goþ as þouþe she were half out of mynde
To euery place wher she haþ supposed
By liklyhede her childe to fynde
And euer on cristes modere meke and kynde
She cryed and at þe last þus she wrought
Amonge þe cursed Iwes she him sougt

1786
1789

Sche freyneþ and she preiþe pitouly
To euery Iewe þat dwelle in þilk place To telle her if her child went hem by þei seiden may þat ihesus of his grace
PETWORTH 174 (6-T. 186)

1793

¶ I say þat in a wardrobe þei him drewe
Where as þis Iewes purgen entraille
O cursed folk o herodes al newe
What may þours euyl tent þours auaille Mordre wil oute certein . it wil nought faille
And namely þere honur of god schold sprede
The blode oute crieþ on þours cursed dede

1765
1768

¶ O martire soundede to virginite Now maiste þou singe folowing euer in on
The white lambe Celestial quod he
Of which þe grete euangelist seint Iohn
In Pathmos wrot which seiþe þei þat gone Be-fome his lambe and singe a songe of new
That neuere flexy womanen þei knewe

1772 1775

This pouer welowe wayteþ al þat nyht
After þis litel Childe bot home cam he nouht for whom alsome as it was daies lit Wiþ face pale for drede and busy þout
Sche haþe at scole and elles wher him souht Til finally sche gan so fer aspye þat he was seynen last in þe Iewrye

(Text 186)
1779 1782

¶ Wiþ moders pyte in hir breste enclosede Sche goþe as sche were halue oute of mynde
To euery place where sche haþ supposed
Do liklyhed hire childe to finde
And euer on cristes moder meke and kinde
Sche cried and att þe last þus sche wrought Amonge þe cursed Iewes sche him souht

1786
1789

¶ Sche freyneþ and sche preiþe pitouly
To euery Iewe þat duelled in þilk place
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ]
Thei saiden naie bot ihesus of his grace
LANSDOWNE (6-T. 186)

1793

Yaf in hir thought<sup>is</sup> inwith a litel space
That in that place / after hir sone she cryde
Where he was custen / in a pit bisyde

1795

O grete god / that parfourest thy lawle
By mouth of Innocentz / lo here thy myght
This gemme of chastite / this Emeraude
And eek of martirdom / the Ruby bright
Ther he with throte ykoruen lay vpright
He Alma redemptoris / gan to syng
So loude / pat al the place gan to ryng

1800

1803

¶ The cristene folk / that thurgh the strete wente
In coomen / for to wondre vp on this thyng
And hastily / they for the Prouest sente
He cam anon / with outen taryng
And herieth Crist that is of houene kyng
And eek his mooder / honour of mankynde
And after that / the Iewes leet he bynde

1807

1810

¶ This child / with pitous lamentacion
Vp taken was / syngyng his song alway
And with honour / of greet procession
They carien hym / vn to the nexte Abbay
His mooder swownyng / by his beere lay Vnsethe / myghte the peple pat was there
This newe Rachel / bryngre fro his beere

[inf 154, 164]

1814

1817

¶ With torment and with shameful dooth echon
This Prouest dooth the Iewes for to sterue
That of this mordre wiste / and that anon
He nolde / no swich cursednesse obserue
Yuele shal he haue / pat yuele wol deserue
Therefore / with wilde hors / he dide hem drawe
And after that he heng hem by the lawe

1821

1824

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 187)

Yaf in hir thought<sup>is</sup> in with a litel space
That in that place / after hir sone she cryde
Wher he was custon / in a pit bisyde

1796

¶ O grete god / that parfourest thy laide
By mouth of Innocentz / lo here thy myght
This gemme of chastite / this Emeraude
And eek of martirdom / the Ruby bright
Ther he with throte ykoruen / lay vpright
He Alma redemptoris / gan to syng
So loude / that al the place gan to ryng

1800

1803

¶ The cristen folk that-thurgh the strete wente
In coomen / for to wondre vp on this thyng
And hastily / they for the Prouest sente
He cam anon / with outen taryng
And herieth Crist that is of houene kyng
And eek his moder / honour of mankynde
And after that the Iewes leet he bynde

1807

1810

¶ This child / with pitous lamentacion
Vp taken was / syngyng his song alway
And with honour / of greet procession
They carien hym / vn to the nexte Abbay
His moder swownyng / by his beere lay Vnsethe myghte / the peple that was there
This newe Rachel / bryngren fro his beere

1814

[Legh 304q, c. 109]

¶ With torment and with shameful dooth echon
This Prouest dooth this Iewes for to sterue
That of this mordre wiste / and that anon
He nolde / no swich cursednesse obserue
Yuel shal haue / that yuel wol deserue
Ther fore with wilde hors [ha di]de hem drawe
And after that he [ ]

1821

1824

HENGWRT (6-T. 187)

Yaf in hire thought with inne a lytel space
That in that place aftr hir sone she cryde
Where he was custen in a pit be-syde

1796

O grete god that performedist this laude
By mouth of innocents lo here thy myght
This gemme of chastite this emoraude
And eek of martyrdom the ruby bryzt
There he with throte I-korvyn lygh vp ryght
He alma redemptoris gan to syngo
So loude that al the place gan to ryngo

1800

1803

The cristene folk that thurgh the strete wente
In comyn for to wonderyn vp-on this thyng
And lastyliche they for the prouost sente
He cam a-non with-outyn taryng
And heroyth Crist that is of houene kyng
And his modyr honour of mankynde
And aftr that the Iewis leet he bynde

1807

1810

This child with pitous lamentacion
Vp takyn was syngyng his song alwey
And with honour of greet processyonis
They caryen hym vn-to the nexte abbey
His modyr swounyng by the beere lay
Vnsethe mygh[te] the peple that was there
This newe Rachel bryngyn from the beere

1814

1817

¶ With turnement & with schameful doth echon
This prouost doth these Iewis for to sterue
That of this mordre wiste & that a noon
He nolde non swich cursednesse obserue
Euele schal he hate that oule wole deserue
Therefore with wilde hors he dode hem drawe
And aftr that he hyng hem by the lawe

[inf 22-]

1821

1824

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 187)

þat in hire þougth wip-in a litel space þat in þat place after hire some soþe cryede þer he was caste in a putte besyde

1796

¶ O grette lord þat performed þin laude
By mouþ of Innocence to here þy myght
This gemme of chastite þis Emeraude
And eke of martirdome þe ruby bright þer he wip þrote y-corne lay vpright
he alma redemptoris gan to synge
So loude þat al þe place gan to ryng

1800

1803

¶ The cristen folk' þat þurgh þe strete went
In comen for to wondren on þis þing
And hastely þei for þe prouest went
He came anon wipouten eny taryng
And herich crist' þat is of heuen king'
And eek' his mooder honour of mankynde
And after þat þe Iewes let he bynde

1807

1810

This childe wip pitous lamentacion
vp taken synnyng' his song' alway
And with honour and gret procession /
They carien him to þe next abbay his moder awonyng' by þe bere lay vnesch mighte þe people þat was þere
This newe mechel bringe fro his bere

1814

1817

Wip torment' and with schameful deþ ilkon
This prouest' deþ þis Iewes for to sterne That of þis moerde wise and þat anon he nolde non such cursednesse obserue / Euel schal haue þat euel wol deserue þerfore with wilde hors he dede him drawe
And after þat he hyngs him by þe lawe

1821

1824

CORPUS (6-T. 187)

þau in her þougth inwip a litel space
That in þat place after her some she cried/Ther he was cast in a pitte beside

1796

¶ O grette god þat performed þi lawde
By manþe of Innocence lo here þi mygt'
This-Gemme of chastite þis emeraude
And eke of Martirdom þe ruby bright
Ther he wip þrote y-corne lay vpright
Ho-alma redemptoris gan to synge
So longe þat al þe place gan to ryng

(leaf 88, back)

1800

1803

The Cristen folk' þat þurgh þe strete went Inne comen forto wondren on þis þing
And hastely þei for þe prouest went
He come anon wip-out taryng
And herich crist' þat is of heuen kyng
And eke his modere honore of man kynde
And after þat þe Iwces let he bynde

1807

1810

This childe wip pitous lamentacion
Vp-taken synnyng' his songe alway
And wip honoure of grette procession þei Carien hym to þe next abbay
His moder' swonyng' by þe bere lay Vnesch myght' þe people þat was þere þis newe Racheil bringe fro his bere

1814

1817

Wip torment' and with schameful deþ ilkon
This prouest' deþ þis Iwes to sterne þat of þis moerde wise' and þat anon
He nolde none such cursednesse obserue Euel he schal haue þat euel wol deserue þerfore wip wilde hors he did hym drawe and after þat he henge him by þe lawe

1821

1824

PETWORTH 176 (6-T. 187)

þau in her þougth in wip a litel space þat in þat place after her some she cried Thare he was east in a putte be side

1796

¶ O grette god þat performed þin laude
Be mouþe of Innocence Lo here þi myht
This gemme of chastite þis emeraude
And eke of Martirdom þe ruby bright þere he wip þrote yecorne leie vprilt
He Alma redemptoris gan to synge
So longe þat al þe place gan to ringe

1800

1803

¶ The cristen folke þat þorou þe strete went In Camyne to wondrene of þis þinge
And hastely þei for þe prouest went
He came anon wip-outen any taryng
And herich crist þat is heuon kings
And eke his modor honoure of mankiude
And after þe Iewes lete he bindo

1807

1810

¶ This childe wip pitous lamentacion
Vp taken singeing his songe al weye
And wip honoure of grette procession
The Carien him to þe next Abbeye
His modere swoneyng þe þe bere laye Vnesch mychte þe people þat was þere
This newe rachel bringe fro his bere

1814

1817

¶ Wip torment' and wip schameful deþe ilkon
This prouest deþe þes Iewes for to sterue
That of þis moerde wise' and þat anone
He nolde none suche cursednesse obserue.
Euel schal haue þat yuel wil deserue
There-fore wip wilde hors he did him drawe
And after þat he henge him be þe lawe

(leaf 128, back)

1824

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 187)

188 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRESS'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

¶ Vp on this beere / ay lith this Innocent<sup>r</sup>
Biforn the chief Auler / whil the masse laste
And after that the Abbot with his Couent<sup>r</sup>
Han sped hem / for to burien hym ful faste
And when they / hooly water on hym caste
Yet spak this child / whan spraynd was hooly water
And song O Alma redemptoris mater. 1831

¶ This Abbot which þat was an hooly man
As Monkes been / or elles oughte be
This yonge child / to conuere he bigan
And seyde o deere child I halsen thee
In vertu / of the hooly Trinitee
Tel me / what is thy cause / for to syngre
Sith þat thy throte is kit to my semynge. 1835

¶ My throte is kit vn to my nekke boon
Seide this child / and as by wey of kynde
I sholde hane dyed / ye longe tyme agon
But Ihesu crist / as ye in bookes fynde
Wil þat his glorie / laste / and be in mynde
And for the worship / of his mooder deere
Yet may I syngre O Alma / loudre and cleere 1842

¶ This walle of mercy Cristes mooder swete
I loued alwey / as after my konnyngre
And when þat I my lyf / sholde forlete
To me she cam / and bad me for to syngre
This Anthephon / veruailly in my deynge
As ye han herd / and when þat I hadde songe
Me thoughte / she leyde a greyn vp on my tonge 1852

¶ Wherefore I syngre / and syngre I moot certeyn
In honour / of that blisful mayden free
Til fro my tonge / of taken is the greyn
Aithl afterward / thus seyde she to me 1856

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 188)

188 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRESS'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

¶ Vp on his beere / ay lyth this Innocent<sup>r</sup>
Biforn the chief Auler / whil the masse laste
And after that the Abbot with his Couent<sup>r</sup>
Han sped hem / for to burien hym ful faste
And when they / hooly water / on hym caste
Yet spak this child / whan spraynd was hooly water
And song O alma redemptoris mater 1831

¶ This Abbot which þat was an hooly man
As monkes ben / or ellis oughten be
This yonge child / to conuere he bigan
And seyde / o deere child I halsen thee
In vertu / of the hooly Trinitee
Tel me / what is thy cause for to syngre
Sith þat thy throte is kit to my semynge 1835

¶ My throte is kit vn to my nekke boon
Seide this child / and as by wey of kynde
I sholde hane dyed / ye longe tyme agon
But Ihesu crist / as ye in bookes fynde
Wil þat his glorie / laste / and be in mynde
And for the worship / of his mooder deere
Yet may I syngre O alma / loudre and cleere 1842

¶ This walle of mercy / Cristes mooder swete
I loued alwey / as after my konnyngre
And when þat I my lyf / sholde forlete
To me she cam / and bad me for to syngre
This Antheme / veruailly in my deynge
As ye han herd / and when þat I had songe
Me thoughte / she leyde a greyn vp on my tonge 1852

¶ Wherefore I syngre / and syngre moot certeyn
In honour / of that blisful mayden free
Til fro my tonge / of taken is the greyn
And after that thus seyde she to me 1856

HENGWRT (6-T. 188)

188 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRESS'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Vp-on this beere lyth ay this Innocent Byfore the fighe aloter whil the masse lasgo
And after that the abbot with his couent
Han sped hem for to burien hym ful faste
And when they hooly watre on hem caste 3it spak this child whan spront was hooly watyr
And song. O almah-redemptoris mater 1831

This Abbot which that was an hooly man
As monkes been or ellis oughten bee
This yonge child to conuere he began
And seyde o deere child I halse the
In vertu of the holy trynytes
Telle me what is thy cause for to syngre
Sithe that thy throte is kit to myn lokynge 1835

Myn throte is kit vn to myn nekke boon
Seide this child & as the woys of kynde
I schulde a deyd 3a longe tyme agon
But Ihesu Crist as 3e in bokys fynde
Wels that his glorie laste & be in mynde
And for the worshepe of his mooder deere 3it may I syng O Alma. loudre & cleere 1842

This walle of mercy cristis modyr swete
I louede alwey as after myn konnyngre
And when that I myn lyf schulde for-lete
To me she cam & bad me for to syngre
This anteme veruailly in myn deynge
As ye han herd & when that I hadde songe
Me thouhte she leyde a greyn vp-on myn tungo 1852

¶ Wherefore I syngre & syngre mot certeyn
In honour of that blisful maydyn fre
Tyl fro myn tungo I-takyn is the greyn
And after that thus seyde she to me 1856

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 188)

¶ Vpon his beere ay liþ his Innocent Biforn þe chief antur whiles masse last
And after þat þe abbot/ wiþ his couent hadde speelde him for to burye him aifs fast
And when þey halywater on him cast, 3it spak<sup>e</sup> þe child when apreynt was þe holy water
And sang<sup>e</sup> O alma redemptoris mater . . . . . 1831

¶ This abbot which þat was an holy man
As monkes ben or elles oughten to<sup>1</sup> be
This songe childe to conoure he began
And sayde O deere thilde I hailse þe
By vertu of þe holy trinite
Telle me what is þy cause for to synge
Sþenes þat þy prote is kutte at my setaynge . . . . . 1838

¶ My prote is cutte vnto my nekke bon Sayde þis childe and as by way of kynde
I schulde hauð deyed 30 longe tyme agon
But thesa crist as 30 in bookes fynde
Vol þat his glorie laste and be in mynde
And for þe worschipe of his moder deere 3et may I synge O alma lowde and cleere . . . . . 1842

¶ This welte of mercy cryetes mooder swete
I loued alway as after my conynge
And whan þat I my lyf schulde lete
To me sche cam and bad me for to synge
This anteme verrily in my mynde deynge
As 30 haue hnd and whan þat I hadde songe
Me þought schþ leyde a greyn vpon my tonge / . . . . . 1849

¶ Wherefore I synge and synge moot<sup>e</sup> certain In honour of þe blisful martir fre
Til of my tonge of taken is þe greyne
And after þat sayde sche þus to me
CORPUS (S-T. 188)

¶ Vpon þis bere ay lith þis Innocent Byform þe chief anture whiles masse last
And after þat þe Abbot wiþ his Couent
had speelde hem forto bury hym fast
And when þet holy water on hym cast 3it spake þe child when apreynt was þ<sup>e</sup> holy water
And songe O alma redemptoris mater . . . . . 1828

This Abbot which þat was an holy man
As monkes be or elles oughten to be þis songe childe to conoure þei bygan
And sayde good child I hailse þe
Be vertue of þe holy trinite
Telle me what is þi cause to synge
Sþen þat þi prote is kutte at my semynge . . . . . 1835

My prote is kittle vnto my nek<sup>e</sup> bone Saide þis child and as be way of [k]ynde
I shuld hauð deied longe tyme a gone
But thesa crist as 30 in bokes fynde
Vol þat his glorie last and be in mynde
And for þe worship of his moder dere 3it may I synge O Alma lowde and cleere . . . . . 1842

This welte of me[r]cy cryetes moder swete
I loued alway as after my conynge
And whan þan I my lifschulð lete
To me she cam and bad me for to synge þis Anteme verrily in my mynd deynge
As 30 han herd and whan þat I had songe
Me þougt she laide a greyn vpon my tonge . . . . . 1849

Wherefore I synge and synge mote certeyn
In honore of þe blisful martire fre
Til of my tonge of taken is þe greyn
And after þat þus seide she to me
PETWORTH 176 (S-T. 188)

¶ Vpon þis bere ay lyþ þis Innocent De-forne þe chief antur whiles Masse last
And after þat þe Abbot wiþ his Couent
Hadde speelde hom for to burye him fast
And whan þei haly water on him cast
And 3it spakke þe childe whan apreynt was þe holy water
And songe O alma redemptoris mater . . . . . 1828

¶ This Abbot which þat was an holy man
As monkes be or elles outhen to be þis songe childe to conoure he gan
And seide o deere childe . I. hailse þe
Be vertue of þe holy Trinite
Tel me what is þi cause for to synge
Sethen þi prote is kutte att myn semynge . . . . . 1835

¶ My prot is cutte vnto my nekke bone Saide þis childe and as be waio of kinde
. I. schoelde haue deyed longe tims agone
But thesa criste as 30 in bokes finde
Wil þat his glori last and beo in mynde
And for worschipe of his moder dere 3ette may . I. synge O Alma lowde and cle[re] . . . . . 1842

¶ This wel of Mercie tristies moder swete
. I. loued alweie as after my coninge
And whan þat . I. my lif scholde lete
To me sche camme and badd me for to synge þis Antime verrily in my mynde deynge
As 30 haue herd and whan þat . I. had songe
Me þouht sche laide a greyne vpon my tonge . . . . . 1849

¶ Where-for . I. saie and synge mote certeyne
In honour of cristes moder fre
Til of my tonge of taken is þe greyne
And after þat seide sche þus to me
LANDSDOWNE (S-T. 188)

189 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRESS'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

My lital child / now wol I feeche thee
Whan þat the greyn / is fro thy tonge ytake
Be nat agast I wol thee nat forsake 1859

¶ This hooly Monk this Abbot hym meene I
His tonge out caughte / and took a-wey the greyn
And he yaf vp the goost ful softly
And whan this Abbot hadde this wonder seyn 1863
Hise salte teeris / trickled down as reyn
And graf he fil / al flat vp on the grounde
And stille he lay / as he had leyn ybounde 1866

The Couent eek / lay on the pavement
Wepyng / and heryn cristes mooder deere
And after that / they ryse and forth boon went
And tooken away / this martir from his beere 1870
And in a temple / of Marbul stones cleere Enclosen they / his lital body swete
There he is now / god leus us alle for to meete 1873

¶ O yonge Hngk of Lyncoln slayn also With cursed Iewes / as it is notable for it is / but a lital while ago
Preye eek / for vs / we synful folk vnstable 1877
That of his mercy / god so merciable
On vs / his grete mercy multiplie for reuerence / of his mooder Marie Amen 1880

¶ Here is ended / the Prioresse's Tale 1880

189 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRESS'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

My lital child / now wil I feeche thee
Whan þat the greyn is [from t<sup>1</sup>]hy tonge ytake [CANTON] 1859
Be nat ag[. . . . .]

¶ This holy monk this Abbot hym mene I
His tonge out caughte / and took away the greyn
And he / yaf vp the goost ful softly
And whan this Abbot hadde this wonder seyn 1863
Hise salte teeris / trickled-down as reyn
And graf he fil / al flat vp on the grounde
And stille he lay / as he had leyn ybounde 1866

¶ The Couent eek / lay on the pavement
Wepyng / and heryn cristes moder deere
And after that they ryse / and forth been went
And toke away this martir / from his beere 1870
And in a tounbe / of Marbilstones cleere Enclosen they / this lital body swete
There he is now / god leus vs for to meete 1873

¶ O yonge Hugh of Lyncoln slayn also
With cursede Iewis / as it is notable
for it is / but a lital while ago
Preye eek for vs / we synful folk vnstable 1877
That of his mercy / god so merciable
On vs / his grete mercy multiplie
for reuerence / of his moder Marie. Amen. 1880

¶ Here endeth / the Prioresse tale.

189 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 6. PRIORRESS'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Myn lytyl child now wele I feche the Whan that the greyn is from thyng tunge take
Be nat agast I wele þe nat for-sake 1859

¶ This holy monk this abbot hym mene I
His tonge out caughte & tok away the greyn
And he 3af vp the goost ful softly
And whan this abbot hadde this wondyr seyn 1863
Hise salte teris trekelede down as reyn
And grof he fel al flat vn-to the grounde
And stille he lay / as he hadde leyn I-bounde 1866

The Couent ek lay on the pavement Wepyng & heryng Cristis modyr deere
And after that they ryse & forth been went
And toke away this martir from his beere 1870
And in a tounbe of marbilstonys cleere Enclosyn they this lytil body swete
There he is now god leue vs for to meete 1873

O yonge Hugh of Lyncoln slayn also
With cursede Iewis as it is notable for it is but a lytil while I-go Preye ek for vs we synful folk vnstable 1877
That of his mercy god so merciable
On vs his greete mercy multiplye for reuerence of his moder marye / Amen 1880

Here hath the Prioresse endid hire tale

My litel childe now wol I fecche þe Whan þat þy grein is fro þy tonge y-take
Be nought' a-gast' I wol þe nought' forsake

1859

¶ þis holy monk' þis abbot' him mene I his tunge out' caught' / and took' away þe greyn
And he þat' up þe gost' ful softly
And when þis abbot' / hadde þis wonder scyn his salte teeres stryked' down as reyn
And gruff' he fell al plat' vnto þe grounde
And stille he lay as he hadde ben y-bounde /

1863

1866

¶ þe couen't' eek' lay vpon þe pouyment' Wepyng' and heryng' cristes moder deere
And after þat' þei rise and' forþ' ben went'
And toke away þis martir fro his bere /
And in a tombe of marbil' stonys clere
Enclosen þei his litel body swete
Ther he is now god leue vs for to mete

1870

1873

¶ O ȝonge hewe of lincolle slayn also Wit' cursed Iwes as it is notable for it' nys but' a litel while ago
Preye eek' for vs we synful folk' vnable
That' of his mercy god so merciable
On vs his grete mercy multiplye for reuerence of his mooder marie. Amen ¶ Explicit //

1877

My litel childe now wol I fecche þe
Whan þat' þe-greyn is fro þi tunge ytake
Be not' agast' I wil þe not' forsake

1859

¶ This holy monke þis abbot' hym mene I
His tunge out' caught' and toke away þ' greyn / [Def 84, back]
And he ȝaue vp þe gost' ful softly
And when þe abbot' had þis wonder soyn
His salte teeres striked' down as reyn /
And gruf' he felle al plat' to þe ground'
And stille he lay as he had bene ybound'

1863

1866

The Couent' eke lay vpon þe payment'
Wepyng' and heryng' cristes moder dere
And after þat' þei rise and' forþ' bene went'
And toke away þis martir fro his bere
And in a tombe of Marble stonys clere
Enclosen þei his litel body swete
Ther he is now god leue vs for to mete

1870

1873

O ȝonge hugh of lyncoln' slayn also Wit' cursed Iwes as it is notable
for it' nys but' a litel while ago Prei eke for vs we synful folk' vnable þat' of his mercy god so merciable
On vs his grete mercy multiplye for reuerence of his moders marie.

1877

1880

¶ Here endep þe priores tale.

[The Man of Law's Prologue and Tale follow in the MS.]

My litel childe now wil .I. fecche þe Whan þat' þe greine. is fro þi tonge ytake
Be nouht' agast' .I. wil þe nouht' for-saeko

1859

¶ This Holy monke þis Abbot' him mene .I.
His tonge oute caught' and toke away þe greyn
And he þat' vp þe gost' ful softly
And when þe Abbote hadde þis wondere seyne
His salte teeres strikled' downe as reyne [Def 189]
And gruffe he fel al platte to þe grounde
And stil he laie as he had bene ybounde

1863

1866

The [Couent] Eke ley vpon þe pament' Wepeinge and heryng' Cristes moder dere
And after þei rise and' forþe been went
And toke aweie þis martir fro his bere
And in a tombe of Marble stonys clere
Enclosen þei his lytel body swete
There he is nowe god leue vs for to mete

1870

1873

O ȝonge hewe of Lincoln' slayne also Wit' cursed Iewes as it is notable for it' nys bot' a litel while a-ȝoȝ Preye eke for vs we synful folke vnable þat' of his Mercie god so merciable On vs his grete mercie multiplye for reuerence of his moder Marye

1877

1880

Explicit fabula priorisse.

¶ Bihold the myrie wordes of the Hoost<sup>t</sup> to Chaucer  [on leaf 126]

W Han seyð was al this myracle / every man
As sobre was / that wonder was to se
Til that oure hoost Iapyn to bigan
And thanne at erst he looked vp on me
And seyde thus / what man artow quod he?
Thou lookest as thou woldest fynde an hare for euere / vp on the ground / I se thee stare

1884

1887

Approche near / and looke vp myrily
Now war yow sires / and let this man haue place
He in the wast<sup>t</sup> is shape / as wel as I.
This were a pope<sup>t</sup> in an arm tenbrace
for any woman smal / and fair of face
He semeth elyssh / by his contenaunce for vn to no wight / dooth he daliaunce

[leaf 125, back]

J. HEANEY BULLY

1891

1894

Sey now somewhat syn oother folk han saye<sup>t</sup>
Telle vs a tale / of myrthe / and that anon Hoost quod I / ne both nat yuele apayd<sup>t</sup>
for oother tale / certes kan I noon
But of a rym / I lerned longe agoon
Ye that is good quod he / now shul ye heree
Som deyntee thyng<sup>t</sup> me thynketh by his cheere

1898

1901

¶ Explicit

¶ Bihold the myrie talkyng/ of the Hoost/, to

Chaucer

W Han seyð was al this myracle / every man
As sobre was / that wonder was to se
Til that oure hoost Iapyn he bigan
And thanne at erst he looked vp on me
And seyde thus / what man artow quod he Thou lookest as thou woldest fynde an hare
for euere vp on the ground / I se thee stare

1884

1887

¶ Approche near / and looke vp myrily
Now war yow sires / and let this man haue place
He in the wast<sup>t</sup> is shape as wel as I
This were a pope<sup>t</sup> in an arm tenbrace
for any woman / smal and fair of face
He semeth elyssh / by his contenaunce for vn to no wight dooth he no daliaunce

[leaf 113, back]

1891

1894

¶ Sey now som what syn oother folk han sayd
Telle vs a tale / of myrthe / and that anon Hoost quod I / ne both nat yuele apayd
for oother tale / certes kan I noon
But of a rym / I lerned longe agoon
Ye that is good quod he / now shul we heree
Som deyntee thyng<sup>t</sup> me thynketh by his cheere

1898

1901

Byhold the myrie talkyng<sup>e</sup> of the Hoost<sup>t</sup> to [leaf 225, back]

Chaucer

W Han seyð was al this myracle every man [leaf 225]
As sobere was that wondir was to see Til that oure hoost Iapyn tho<sup>1</sup> be-gan <sup>(1 Inter)</sup>
And thanneat erst heloked vp-on me <sup>J. CHAUCER</sup>
And seide thus what man art thou quod he Thow lokyst as thur woldyst fynde an hare for euere vp-on the ground I se the stazre

1887

Approchith near & loke vp myrrely
Now ware zow seris & let this man haue place
He in the wast is schape as wel as I
This were a pope<sup>t</sup> in an arm tenbrace for any weman smal & fayr of face He samyth elych by his contenaunce for vn-to no wygh doth he no daliaunce

1891

1894

Sey now sumwhat syn othere folk han seyð Telle vs a tale of myrthe & that a-non Hoost quod I ne both nat yuele apayed for othir tale certis can I non
But of a rym I lernede longe a-noon
Je that is good quod he now schul we here
Sum deyn<sup>t</sup>e thyng me thynkyth by hise cheere

1898

1901

[No breaks in the MS between the stanzas.]

And here bygygneþ

The prologe of Thoppas

¶ The prologe

Incipit prologus de Thopas. [on leaf 180]

Whan seyde was þis tale euery man
As sober was þat wonder was to see
Til þat our Ooste Tappe þo bygan
And þenne at erst he lokod vpon me ¶ Chaucer And sayde þus what man art þou quod he Thou lokest as þou woldest fynde an hare / for euer vpon þe ground I se þe stare

[leaf 185]
1887

Whan saide was þis tale euery man
As sober was þat wonder was to see
Til þat our oost Tappe byganne
And þan at erst he lokod vpon me .i. chaucers 1884
And saide þus what man art þou quod he
Thou lokest as þou woldest fynde an hare
for euer vpon þe grounde I se þe stare 1887

[on leaf 182]

Whan saide was þis tale euery man
As sober was þat wonder was to be Ti þat our Ooste Tappe beganne
And þan at erst he lokod vpon me. .ii. est. Chaucer And seide þus what man art þou quod he
Thou lokest as þou woldest fynde an hare
for euer vpon þe grounde .I. se þe stare 1887

Approche ner and loke meryly
Now ware þou sires and let þis man han place he in þe waste is schapen as wel as I
This were a popet in armes to embrace
for any woman smal and fair of face
he semeþ elyssh by his contynauce for vnto no wight doþ he daliaunce

1891
1894

¶ Approche nere and loke meryly
Now war þou sirs and let þis man han plas Ho in þe wastt is shap as wel as I
This were a popet in armes to embrace 1891
for any woman smal and faire of faice He semeþ Elyssh be his contenaunce
for vnto no wight doþ he daliaunce 1894

App[ro]che nere and loke meryly
Now ware þou sires and lett þis man haue place
He in þe waste is schapen as welo as .I.
This were a popet in armes to embrace 1891
for any woman smal and faire of face
He semeþ elyssh be his countenance
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] 1894

Say now somewhat seþens oþer folk han sayd Telle vs a tale of merþe and þat anon Ooste quod I ne be nought yuel a-payde for oþer tale certes can I non But of a Ryme I lered longe agon þe þat is good quod he schuln we here
Som deynat þing me þinkeþ by his cheere . 1901

1898
1901

Say nowe somewhat sijens oþere folk han saide
Telle vs a tale of merth and þat anoh Oost quod I ne be nab uel paide .
for oþer tale certes can I noon . 1898
But of a ryme I lered longo agon þe þat is good quod he schul we it here
Som deynat þing me semeþ by his chere . 1901

Say nowa sumwhat seþen oþere folke haþe saide
Tel vs a tale of merþe and þat anone Ooste quod .I. ne be nouht yuel apaide for oþer tale certes can .I. none 1898 Bot of a rime .I. lered longe agone þe þat is good quod he shal we here
Summe deynatþ þing me þenkeþ be his chiere 1901

[No break in the MS, and no spaces between the stanzas above and after.]

Explicit prologus.

191 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Ellesmere MS.

¶ Heere bigynneth Chaucers tale of Thopas. (See text 134, 135)

[The First Fyt.]

[Each third line is on the right of its couple, in the MS.]

Listeth lordes in good entent
And I wol telle verrayment
Of myrthe and of solas
Al of a knyght / was fair and gent<sup>r</sup>
In bataille / and in tourneyment<sup>r</sup>
His name was sire Thopas

1904

¶ Yborn he was / in fer contree
In flaudres / al byyonde the see
At Poperyng<sup>r</sup> in the place
His fader was / a man ful free
And lord he was / of that contree
As it was goddes grace

1910

1913

¶ Sire Thopas / wax a doghty swayn
Whit was his face as Payndemayn
Hise lippes rede as rose
Hise rode is lyk / scarlet in grayn
And I yow telle / in good certayn
He hadde / a semely nose

1916

1919

¶ His heer / his berd / was lyk saffron
That to his girdel raughte adoun
Hise shoos of Cordewane
Of Brugges / were his hosen broun
His Robe / was of Syklatoun
That coste many a lare

1922

1925

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 101)

191 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ Here bigynneth Chaucers tale of Thopas

[Fyt I.]

[Each third line is on the right of its couple, in the MS, and there are no breaks between the stanzas.]

Listeth lordes / in good entent
And I wil telle verrayment
Of myrthe / and of solas
Al of a knyght<sup>r</sup> was fair and gent<sup>r</sup>
In bataille / and in tornament<sup>r</sup>
His name / was sir Thopas

1904

1907

¶ Yborn he was / in fer contree
In flaudres / al byyonde the see
At Poperyng<sup>r</sup> in the place
His fader was / a man ful free
And lord he was / of that contree
As it was / goddes grace

1910

1913

¶ Sir Thopas wax / a doghty swayn
Whit was his face / as Payndemayn
Hise lippes rede as Rose
Hise rode is lyk / scarlet in grayn
As I yow telle / in good certayn
He hadde a semely nose

1916

1919

¶ His heer / his berd / was lyk saffron
That to his girdel / mughte adoun
Hise shoos / of Cordewane
Of Brugges / were his hosen broun
His Robe was / of syklatoun
That coste many a lare

1922

1925

HENGWRT (6-T. 101)

191 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Cambridge MS.

[No breaks in the MS between the stanzas: third lines set on the right.]

Heere begynneth Chaucers tale of sere Thopas

[Fyt I.]

Thestyth lordyngis in good entent The scribe has put T instead of L as directed.]
And I wele telle verrayment
Of myrthe & solas
And of a knyght was fayr & gent
In betayle & in turnement
His name was sere Thopas

1904

1907

I-born he was in fer contree
In flauderis al be-yonde n<sup>r</sup> see
At poperyng in the place
His fadir was a man ful fre
And lord he was of that cuntre
As it was godis grace

1910

1913

Syre Thopas wax a doghty sweyn
Whit was his face as payn demayn
Hise lippis rede as rose Hise rode is lyk skarlet engrayn
As I yow telle in good certayn
He hade a semely nose

1916

1919

His heer his berd was lik saferon
That to his gerdil raughte a-doun Hise schon of cordowayn
Of brugis were hire hoeyn broun
His robe was of siklatoun
That coste manye a lareyn

[leaf 214, verso]

1922

1925

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 101)

[No gaps between the stanzas in the MS.]

¶ Here bygyneth þe tale of Chancer of sire Thopas Ca<sup>o</sup> xix<sup>a</sup>

[Fytte I.]

L Esteneþ lordes in good entent<sup>þ</sup>
And I wol telle verrement<sup>þ</sup>
Of miracle and solace
1904 Al of a knyht<sup>þ</sup> was fayr and gent<sup>þ</sup>
In bataille and in tornament<sup>þ</sup> 1907 His name was sire Thopace

I-born he was in ferre cuntre
In flaudres al beyonde þe see 1910 Aþ poperyng<sup>þ</sup> in þe place his fader was a man ful fre
And lord he was of þat cuntre
1913 As it was goddes grace

Sire Thopas was a doughty swayn Whyt<sup>þ</sup> was his face as Payndemayn 1916 his lyppes reed as Rose his robe is like Scarlet<sup>þ</sup> on grayn
And I þow telle in good certayn
1919 he hadde a semely nose

his berd his hoor was lik<sup>þ</sup> saffroun That<sup>þ</sup> to his girdel straght<sup>þ</sup> a-down 1922 his schoon of Cordewayne /
Of Brugges were his hosen broun
his robe was of Ciclatoun 1925 That<sup>þ</sup> coste many a layne

CORPUS (G-T. 101)

¶ Here bygynneþ þe tale of chauceer by Sire Thopace.

¶ Capitulum xix<sup>m</sup> ¶ Sire Thopace.

[Fytte I.]

L Esteneþ lordes in good entent<sup>þ</sup>
And I wil telle verrement<sup>þ</sup> 1904 Of myrth<sup>þ</sup> and of solace
Of a knyht<sup>þ</sup> was faire and gent<sup>þ</sup>
In bataile and in tornament<sup>þ</sup> 1907 His name was sir thopace.

I-born he was in fer cuntree
In flaudres al beyonde þe see 1910 Aþ Poperinge in þe place
His fader was a man ful free
And lorde he was of þat cuntre
1913 As it was goddes grace

Sir<sup>þ</sup> Thopas was a doughty swayn
White was his face as payndemeyn 1916 His lippes reed as Roos.
His ruddy is like scarlet<sup>þ</sup> in grayn
And I þow telle in good certayn
1919 He had a semely nose

His hoor his boord was lik<sup>þ</sup> saffroun 1922 þat<sup>þ</sup> to his girdel knyht<sup>þ</sup> adoun
His schoon of Cordewayne/
Of Brugges were his hosen broun
His Roobe was of Ciclatoun
1925 That<sup>þ</sup> cost<sup>þ</sup> many a ruyþ

PETWORTH (G-T. 191)

Incipit fabula.

[No breaks in the MS between the stanzas.]

[Fytte I.]

L Esteneþe lordes in goo[d] entent<sup>þ</sup>
And .I. wil tel verrament<sup>þ</sup> 1904 Of Miracle and of solace .
Al of a knyht<sup>þ</sup> was faire and gent<sup>þ</sup>
In Bataille and in turnament
1907 His name was . sir Thopas

.I.-borne he was in fer contre
In flaudre al beyonde þe see 1910 Att Poperinge in þe place .
His fader was a man ful fre
And lord he was of þat cuntre
1913 As it was goddes grace

Sir Thopas was douhty swayne
White was his face as a peyndemayne 1916 His lippes reede as roose
His rode is liko scarlet in grayne
And .I. þowe tell in goede certeyne
1919 He hadde a semely nose .

His here his berde was lyke saffroun þat to his girdel rauh<sup>þ</sup> a doune 1922 His schoone of cordewayne
Of brugges was his hosen broune
His roob was of Ciclatoun 1925 þat cost<sup>þ</sup> mony a layne

LANSDOWNE (G-T. 191)

192 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Ellesmere MS.

¶ He koude hunte / at wilde deer
And ride an hankynge for Ryuer
With grey goshaun on honde
Ther-to he was / a good Archer
Of wrastlyng<sup>s</sup> was ther noon his peer Ther any Ram shal stonde

1928

1931

¶ ful many a mayde / bright in bour
They moorne for hym paramour
When hem were bet to slepe
But he was chaast<sup>s</sup> and no lechour
And sweete as is the Breambl flour
That bereth the rede hepe

1934

1937

And so bifol vp on a day for sothe / as I yow telle may Sire Thopas / wolde out ride
He worth / vpon his steede gray
And in his hand a launcegay
A long sword / by his side

1940

1943

¶ He priketh / thurgh a fair forest<sup>s</sup> Ther Inne / is many a wilde best<sup>s</sup>
Ye bothe bukke and hare
And as he priketh North and Est<sup>s</sup>
I telle it yow / hym hadde almost<sup>s</sup>
Bitydde / a sory care

1946

1946

1949

¶ Ther spryngen herbes / grete and smale
The lycorys and Ceteuale
And many a clove Gylofre
And notemuge / to putte in Ale
Whether it be moyste / or stale
Or for to leye in cofre

1952

1955

ELLESMERE (6-T. 192)

192 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ He koude hunte / at wilde deer
And ride an hawkynge for Ryuer
With grey goshaun on honde
Ther-to he was / a good Archer
Of wrastlyng<sup>s</sup> was ther noon his pier
Ther any Ram shal stonde

1928

1931

¶ ful many mayde / bright in bour
They moorne for hym / per<sup>s</sup>amour
When hem were bet to slep[e]
But he was chaast<sup>s</sup> and no lechour
And sweete / as is the brambel flour
That bereth the rede hepe

1934

1934

1937

¶ And so it fel / vp on a day for sothe / as I yow telle may Sir Thopas / wolde out ryde
He worth / vpon his steede gray
And in his hand / a launcegay
A long sword / by his syde

1940

1943

¶ He priketh thurgh / a fair forest<sup>s</sup>
Ther Inne / is many a wilde best<sup>s</sup>
Ye bothe / bukke and hare
And as he priketh / North & Est<sup>s</sup>
I telle it yow / hym hadde almost<sup>s</sup>
bitydde / a sory care

1946

1946

1949

¶ There spryngen herbes / grete & smale
The lycorys / and Ceteuale
And many a clove Gylofre
And notemuge / to putte in Ale
Whether it be moyste or stale
Or / for to leye in cofre

1952

1955

HENGWRT (6-T. 192)

192 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Cambridge MS.

He coude hunte at wilde deer
And ryde on hauking for ryuer
With grey goshaun & hunde Therto he was a good archier
Of wrastelyng was there non his pir
Therou any ram schal stonde

1928

1931 ful manye a maydyn brygh in bour

They moorne for hym paramour
when hem were bet to slepe
But he was chast and no lechour
And sweete as is the brymbil flour that beryth the rede hepe

1934

1937

And so it fil vp-on a day for-sothe as I zow telle may Sire Thopas wolde out ride
He worthith vp-on his steede bay
And in his hand a launcegay
A long sword by his syde

1940

1943

He prykyth thowr a fayr forest Therein is manye a wyilde best ye bothe bukkyss & hare
And as he prykyth north & est
I telle it zow hym hadde al-most Bytyd a sory care

1946

1949

There spryngyn erbis grete & smale
The lycorys & the Ceteuale
And manye a clove Telofore
And notemuge to putte in ale
Whether it be moyst or stale
Or for to leye in cofere

1952

1955

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 192)

GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 192</small> Corpus MS.	SIX-TEXT 192	GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 192</small> Petworth MS.	SIX-TEXT 192	GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 192</small> Lansdowne MS.	SIX-TEXT 192
he coupe hunte at wyldre deer And Ryde an haukyngs by þe ryuer Wiþ gray goshauk on honde Ther to he was a good archer Of wrastlyngs was þer non his peer Ther any man schulde stonde	1928     1931	He coupe hunte at wyldre dere And Ride on haukyngs for þe Ryuer Wiþ gray goshanke on honde Therto he was a good archere To wrastlyng was þer noon his peer Ther any man schulde stonde	1928     1931	He coupe hunt att wilde dere And ride on haukyngs for þe ryuer Wiþ gray goshanke on honde Therto he was a good archere To wastelyngs was þer none his pere þere any man schulde stonde	1928     1931
ful many a mayde bright in bour They moune for him paramour When þey were bet to slepe But he was chaste and no lechour And swete as is þe bremble flour þat bereþ þe rede hepe	1934     1937	ful mony a maide brigt in bour þei moun for him Paramoure When þei were bette to slepe. But he was chaste and no lechour And swete as is þe bremble flour That bereþ þe reede heppe	1934     1937	ful mony a maide brigt in bour þei moun for his paramoure whane þei were bette to slepe Bot he was chast and no lichoure As swete as is þe brambl flour þat bereþ þe rede hipe	1934     1937
¶ And so byfett vpon a day for soþe as I ȝoue telle may Sire Thopas wolde out ryde he worþe vpon his steede gray And in his hande a launcegay A longe sward by his syde	1940     1943	And so byfelle vpon a day for soþþe as I ȝouwe telle may Sire Thopas wolde out ride He worþ vp on his stede gray And in his honde a launce gay A longe sward be his side	(leaf 21v) 1940     1943	And so befel vpon a daie for soþe as .i. ȝouwe telle maie Sir Thopas wolde oute ride He worþe hup on his stede gray And his honde a launcegaie A longe sward be his side	1940     1943
he prikkeþ purgh a fair forest Ther Inne is many a wilde boest ȝe boþe bukke and hare And as he prikkeþ north and Est I telle ȝou him hadde almest Betȝyde a sory care	1946     1949	He prikkeþ þorowe a faire forest Ther-in is mony a wilde beest ȝa boþ bukke and hare And as he prikkeþ norþ and eest I telle ȝowe hym had almest By-tȝyde a sory care	1946     1949	He prikkeþ þorue a faire fore[st] Ther inn is mony a wilde best ȝe boþe bukke and hare . And as he prikkeþ Norþe and east I telle ȝowe him hadde almest Betȝyde a sori care .	1946     (leaf 19v) 1949
Ther springen herbes grete and smale The lycoris and þe Setuale And many a clowe Gyloffre And notemuges to put in ale Wheþer it be moys or stale Or for to laye in Coffre	1952     1955	Ther springen herbes grete and smale þe lykoric and þe Setuale And mony a clowe gyloffre And notemuges to put in ale Wheþere it be moys or stale Or for to lay in Coffre	1952     1955	Ther springen erbes grete and smale The lycoris and þe Setuale And mony clowe giloffe And Notmuges to puite in ale Wheþer it be moiste or stale Ore for to lay in Coffre	1952     1955

193 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Ellesmere MS.

¶ The briddes syng / it is no may
The sperhawk and the popeynay
That ioye it was to hereo
The thurstelock / made eek hir lay
The wodedowue / vp on a spray
She sang ful loude and cleere

1968

1961

¶ Sire Thopas fil in loue longynge
Al whan he herde / the thurstel syng
And pryked / as he were wood
His faire steede in his prykyng
So swatte / þat men myghte him wryng
His eydes / were al blood

1964

1967 ¶ Sire Thopas eek / so wery was for prykyng on the softe gras

So fiens was his corage
That doun he leyde him in that plas
To make his steede som solas
And yaf hym good forage

1970

1973

¶ O seinte Marie benedicite
What eyloth / this loue at me
To bynde me so soore
Me dremed / al this nyght pardes
An elf queene / shal my lemman be
And slepe vnder my goore

1976

1979

¶ An Elf queene / wol I loue wyis for in this world / no woman is Worthy to be my make?
In towne

1982

¶ Alle othere women I forsake
And to an Elf queene I me take
By dale and eek by downe

1986

ELLESMERE (0-T. 192)

193 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ The bryddes syng / it is no may
The Sperhawk and the Popynlay
That ioye / it was to here
The Thurstelock / made eek his lay
The wodedowue / vp on the spray
She sang ful loude & clere

1958

1961

¶ Sire Thopas fil in loue longynge
Al whan he herde / the thurstel syng
And pryked / as he were wood
His fayre Steede / in his prykyng
So swatte / þat men myghte hym wryng
His sydes / were al blood

1964

1967

¶ Sir Thopas eek / so wery was
for prykyng on the softe gras
So fiens / was his corage
That doun he leyde hym / in the plas
To make his Steede / som solas
And yaf hym / good forage

1970

1973

¶ O Seinte Marie / benedicite
What eyloth / this loue at me
To bynde me / so soore
Me dremed / al this nyght pardes
An Elf queene / shal my lemman be
And slepe / vnder my goore

1976

1979

¶ An Elf queene / wol I hauw wyis for in this world / no woman is Worthy to be my make //
in towne

1982

Alle othere women / I forsake
And to an Elf queene / I me take
by dale / and eek by downe

1986

HENGWRT (0-T. 199)

193 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Cambridge MS.

The bryddys syng it is non may
The sperhawk & the popynlay
That ioye it was to hereo
The thurstilock made ek his lay
The wodo douwe vp-on the spray sche song ful loude & cleere

1958

1961

Sire Thopas fil in loue longynge
Al whan he herde the thurstil syng
And prikede as he were wod
Hise fayre stede in hise prykyng
So swatte that men myste hym wryng Hise sydys were al blod

1964

1967

Sere topas ek so wery was
for prykyng on the softe gras
So fiens was hise corage
That doun he leyde hym in the plas
To makyn his stede sum solas
And þaf hym good forage

1970

1973

O seynte marye benedicite
What eylyth this loue at me
To bynde me so soore
Me dremede al this nyght pardes
An Elf queene schal myn leznan be
And slepe vndyr myn goore

1976

1979

An Elf queene wale I haue I-wis
for in this world no woman is Worthi to beu myn make
In toune

1982

Alle othere women I forsake
And to an elf queene I me be-take by dale & ek by doune

1986

CAMBRIDGE (0-T. 193)

GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS.	SIX-TEXT 193 Corpus MS.	GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Petworth MS.	SIX-TEXT 193	GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Lansdowne MS.	SIX-TEXT 193
The briddes syngen it is nouȝt naye The sperhawk and þe poppyngay That Ioye it was to heere / The prostilkok made eek' his lay The woodo dowte vpon þe spray Sche sang ful loude and cleere	[Dist 410] 1958    1961	þe birde syngen it is no way þe sperhauke and þe popeniay þat' Ioye it was to here The prostal'cok' made eke his lay The woodo douve vpon þe spray Sche songe ful loude and clere'	     1958    1961	The Birdes singen it is nouht naye The sparhawk and þe popeniayo þat ioye it was to here þe prostalkoke made eke his laye þe wode dowte vpon þe spraye Sche songe ful loude and clere	     1958    1961
Sire Thopas felt in loue longynge And whan he herde þe prustel syng' And priked as he were wood his faire stede in his prikyng So swette þat' men myght him wryng his sydes were al blood	  1964   1967	Sire Thopas felle in loue longynge And whan he hard' þe prustel synges. He prikkies as he were woode His faire stede in his prikkings So swette þat' men myȝt hym wringe His sides were al blood'	  1964   1967	Sire Thopas felt in louelongeinge An[d] whanne he herde þe prustel' singe And priked as he were woode His faire stede in his prikeinge So swette þat man myght him wringe His sides were al blode	  1964   1967
Syre Thopas eek' so wery was for prykyng' on þe softe gras So fers was his corage That doue he leyde him in þat' place To maken his stede som solace for he was so sauage	  1970   1973	Sire Thopas eke so wery was for prikkinge on þe soft' gras So fers was his corage' That' doune he laide hym in þat' plas To maken his stede som solas for he was so Sauage	  1970   1973	Sire Thopas eke so wery was for prekinge on þe soft gras So fers was his corage þat doune he laide him in þat place To maken his stede sum solace for he was so sauage	  1970   1973
O seyn' mary benedicite What' cyleþ þis loue at' me To bynde me so sore Me dremed al þis night' parde An elf' queen schal my lemman be And slepe vnder my gore	  1976   1979	O seint' Marie Benedicite What' alleþ þis loue at' mee To bynde me so sore Me dremed al þis nyȝt' parde An Elfe quene schal my lemman be And slepe vndero my gore	  1976   1979	A seyn' Mary benedicite What' cyleþ þis loue at' me To bynde me so sore Me dremed al þis nyht parde Ane Elfe quene schal my lemman be And slepe vnder my gore	  1976   1979
An Elf' queene wol I loue ywys for in þis worlde no man is Worþi to be my make in tounne Al oþer wommen I forsake And to an elf' queen I me bytake By dale and eek' by downe	  1982   1986	And elf' quene wil I loue ywis for in þis worlde no womman is Worþi to be my make in toun Al oþer wommen I forsake And to an elfe quene I me take By dale and eke by downe	  1982   1986	An Elfe queene wil I loue .y-wisse for in þis worlde no womman is Worþi to be my make in tounne Al oþer wommen I forsake And to an Elfe queen .y. me betake Be dale and eke be downe	  1982   1986
CORPUS (6-T. 193)		PETWORTH (6-T. 193)		LANSDOWNE (6-T. 193)

194 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Ellesmere MS.

¶ In to his sodel / he clamb anon
And priketh ouer stile and stoon
An Elf queene for tespye
Til he so longe / hadde riden and goon
That he found / in a pryue woon
The contree of fairye
So wilde
for in that contree was ther noon?
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Neither wyf ne childe

1989

1992

1996

194 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ In to his Sadel / he clamb anon
And priketh ouer / style and stoon
An Elf queene / for tespye
Til he so longe / hath riden & goon
That he found / in a pryue woon
The contree of fairye //
So wyilde?
for in that contree / was thier noon
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Neither wyf / ne childe

1999

2002

2006

2009

2012

2016

[leaf 214, back]

1996

194 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Cambridge MS.

In-to his sadyll he clomb a-non
And prykyth ouyr style & ton
An elf queen for tespye
Til he so longe hath rydyd & goon
That he fond in a pryue woon
The cuntrye of fayrye
So wilde
for in that cuntrye was there noon
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Neythir wif ne childe

1989

1992

1996

Til that there cam a greet geaunt
His name was sire olyfaunt
A perillous man of dede
He seyde child / by Termagaunt
But jif thou pryke out of myn haunt Anon I ale thyn steede
With Mace
Here is this queene / of fairye
With harpe & pype & Symphonye Dwellynge in this place

1999

2002

2006

The child seyde also mote I the
To morwe wels I meete the Whan I haue myn armoure
And jif I hope parfmafay
That thou schat with thyne launcegay Abyen it ful soure
Thy mawe
Thyn hauberk schal I persen if I may Er it be fully pryue of the day for heere schalt thou' been slawe

2009

2012

2016

GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 194</small> Corpus MS.		GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 194</small> Petworth MS.		GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 194</small> Lansdowne MS.
In to his sadel he cam anon And prikkeþ ouer stile and ston And elf queene for to aspie Til he so longe hap ryden and gon That he fonde in a priue woon The cuntre of fayrre ¶ So wyilde	1989	Into his sedel he came anone And prikkeþ ouere stile and ston An helf queene forto aspie Til he so longo hap riden and goon That he fonde in a priuee wood þe Cuntry of fary. ¶ so wild	1989	In-to his sadel he cam anone And prikkeþ ouere stile and ston Ane Elfe qweue for to aspye. Tyll he so longo hupo ryden and gone That he fonde in a priuee wone The Cuntre of faire. So wilde	1989
ffor in þat cuntre nas þer non [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]	<small>Deaf 194, back</small>	ffor in þat cuntre nas þer non [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]		ffor in þat Contre was þere none [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]	<small>Deaf 194, back</small>
Neyþer wijf ne childe /	1996	Neyþer wif ne child	1996	Neyþer wife ne childe	1996
Til him þer cam a Ioly geaunt his name was cleped sire Olyphaunt A perilous man of dede he seyde child by Termagaunt But if þou prike out of myn haunt Anon I alec þin steede ¶ Wijf mace	1999	Til him þer come a Ioly geaunt His name was clepede Sir Olyfaunte A perilous man of dede He saide childe by tirmagaunt But þif þou prik' out of myn haunt Anoon I sclee þi stede. ¶ wijf mace	1999	Til him þer came a Ioly geante His name was cleped sir Olyfaunte A perilous man of dede He saide childe be termagaunt Bot if þou wite prike oute of myne haunte Anone .I. slee þi steede wijf mace	1999
Here is þe queene of fayerye Wif harpe and pype and Synphonye dwellynge in þis place /	2002	Here is þe queene of fairie Wif harpe wijf pipe and Simphony Dwelling in þis place	2002	Here is þe queen of faire Wif harpe and pipe and simphene Dwellings in þis place.	2002
The childe seyde so mote I þe To morne wol I meeten þe When I haue myn armure And þit I hope par ma fay That þou schalt' wijf þis launcelay Abeyen it' ful sore ¶ purgh þine mawe /	2009	The Childe saide so mot I þee To morowe wil I meten þee Whan I haue myn Armure And þit I hope par ma faye þat þou shalt' wijf þis launcelay Abien it' ful sore ¶ Thorgh þi mawe	2009	The childe so most .I. þe To morne wil .I. mete þe When .I. haue myne armor And þit .I. hope par ma foie That þat þou schalt' wijf þis launce lele Abine it ful sore. Thorube þin mawe	2009
Schal I percee if I may Or it be fully pryne day ffor here þou schalt' be slawe /	2012	Shal I percee þif I may Er it be fully prime of day ffor here þow shalt' be slawe	2012	Schal .I. percee .if .I. maie Or it be fulls prime of daie ffor here þou schalt' be slawe	2012
<small>CORPUS (6-T. 194)</small>		<small>PETWORTH (6-T. 194)</small>		<small>LANSDOWNE (6-T. 194)</small>

195 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Ellesmere MS.

¶ Sire Thopas / drow abak ful faste
This geant<sup>h</sup> at hym stones caste
Out of a fel staf alyngo
2019
¶ But faire escapeth sire Thopas
And al it was thurgh goddes gras
And thurgh his fair beryngo
2022

Y et listeth / lordes / to my tale
Murier than the Nyghtyngale
I wol yow rowne
2025
How sir Thopas / with sydes smale
Prykyng<sup>e</sup> ouer hill and dale
Is comen agayn to towne
2028

¶ His murie men / comanded he
To make hym / bothe game and glee for nedes / into he fighte 2031
With a geant<sup>h</sup> with heuedes thre
for paramour and lolitee
Of oon / that schoon ful brighte 2034

¶ Do come he seyde / my Mynstrales
And gestours / for to tellen tales
Anon in myn Armyng
2037
Of Romanes / that been Roiales
Of Popes / and of Cardinales
And eek of louslykyng 2040

¶ They sette hym first swete wyn
And Mede eek in a Maselyn
And Roial spicerye
2043
And Gyngebreud / þat was ful fyn
And lychors / and eek Comyn 2046
With sugre þat is troye

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 195)

195 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ Sire Thopas / drow abak ful faste
This geant<sup>h</sup> at hym stones caste
Out of a fel staf alyngo
2019
¶ But faire escapeth / child Thopas
And al it was / thurgh goddes gras
And thurgh his fair beryngo
2022

¶ et lesteth lordes / to my tale
Murier than the nyghtyngale
I wol yow rowne
2025
How sire Thopas / with sydes smale
Prykyng<sup>e</sup> ouer hill and dale
Is come agayn to towne
2028 ¶ Hys murye men / comanded he

To make hym / bothe game and glee for nedes moete he fighte 2031
With a geant<sup>h</sup> with heuedes thre
for paramour / and lolitee
Of oon / that schoon ful brighte 2034

¶ Do come he seyde / my Mynstrales
And Gestours / for to tellen tales
Anon / in myn Armyng
2037
Of romances / that been reales
Of Popes / and of Cardinales
And eek / of lous likyng 2040

¶ They fette hym first swete wyn
And Mede eek in a Maselyn
And real Spicerye
2043
Of gyngebreud / that was ful fyn
And lychors / and eek Comyn 2046
With Sugre / that is troye

HENGWRT (6-T. 196)

195 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Cambridge MS.

Syre Thopas drow a-bok ful faste
This leaunt at hym stonyys caste
Out of a fel staf alyngo
2019
But fayre eschapith sire thopas
And al was thour godys gras
And thour his fayre beryngo 2022

Yit lestyth lordyngis to myn tale
Murere than the nyghtyngale
I wole yow rouno
2025
How sire Thopas with sydis smale Prykyng ouyr hill & dale
Is comys a-geyn to toune 2028

Hise merye men comandede hee
To make hym bothe gamys & glee for nedys muste he fyghte 2031 With a geaunt with hedis thre for paramour & lolyte
Of oon that schoon ful bryt 2034

Do come he seyde myne mynstralis
And Gestours for to tellyn talys
A-non in myn armyng
2037
Of romauncis that been royalis
Of popis & of Cardynales
And ek of lous-lykyng 2040

They fette hym fyrst swete wyn
And mede ek in a Maselyn
And royal spicerye
2043
Of gyngre breed that was ful fyn
And lychors & ek comyn 2046
With sugere that is troye

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 196)

GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 195</small> Corpus MS.		GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 195</small> Petworth MS.		GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. <small>SIX-TEXT 195</small> Lansdowne MS.
Sire Thopas drow a hale ful faste þis geaunt <sup>þ</sup> at him stones caste / Out <sup>þ</sup> of a felle staf slyngþ But faire askapeþ child Thopas And al it <sup>þ</sup> was þurgh goddes gras And þurgh his faire beryngþ	2019 2022	Sire Thopas drogþ a-hak ful fast <sup>þ</sup> This Geaunt <sup>þ</sup> at him stones cast <sup>þ</sup> Out of a felle staf slyngþ But faire askapeþ child thopas And al it <sup>þ</sup> was þurgh goddes grace And þurgh his faire beryngþ	2019 2022	Sir <sup>þ</sup> Thopas drowþe a hak ful fast This Geant <sup>þ</sup> at him stones cast Owte of a fell staf slyngþ Bot a faire ascopþ childþ Thopas And all it <sup>þ</sup> was þoruh goddes gras And þoruh his faire beryngþ	2019 2022
þit listeneþ lordes to my tale/ Murþer þen þe nightyngale for now I wote þou rowne / how sire Thopas with sydes smale Prykyng <sup>þ</sup> ouer downs and dale / Is come aþein to tounþe	2025 2028	þit listneþ lordes to my tale Murþer þan þe nytyngale for now I wil þou rowne Howe Sire Thopas wiþ sides smale Prickings ouer doune and dale Is come aþein to tounþe	2025 2028	þit listeneþ lordes to my tale Merþer þan þe nyhtyngegale for nowwe .I. wil þow rowne Howe sir Thopas wiþ sides smale Prekeings ouer downs and dale Is come aþeine to tounþe	2025 2028
his mery men comaunded he / To makeþ him boþe game and glee for nedes moste he fight <sup>þ</sup> Wip o geaunt <sup>þ</sup> with hedes þre for paramour and Iolyte Of on þat <sup>þ</sup> schon ful bright <sup>þ</sup>	2031 2034	His mery men comaunded he To make hym boþ game and glee for nedes most <sup>þ</sup> he fight <sup>þ</sup> Wip oon-geaunt <sup>þ</sup> wiþ hedes þre for paramoure and Iolite Of oon þat <sup>þ</sup> schon ful bright <sup>þ</sup>	2031 2034	His mery men comanded he To make him boþe game and gle for nedes most he fiht wip .o. Geant wiþ hedes þre for paramoure and Iolyte Of one þat schote ful briht	2031 2034
Do come he seyde myne menstrelles <sup>þ</sup> And geestours for to telle vs tales / Anon in myn armyng <sup>þ</sup> Of <sup>þ</sup> Romances þat <sup>þ</sup> ben reales / Of <sup>þ</sup> popes and of Cardynalles / And eke <sup>þ</sup> of loue lykynge <sup>þ</sup>	2037 2040	Do come he seide myn menstrelles And geestours for to telle vs tales Anon in myn armyngþ Of Romance þat <sup>þ</sup> bene reales Of popes and of cardynales And eke of loue lykynge	2037 2040	Done come he seide myne mynstrals An gestours for to tel vs tales Anone in myne armeinge Of Romans þat bene Roials Of Popes and of Cardinals And eke of loue longeingþe	2037 2040
They sette him first <sup>þ</sup> þe swete wyn [ . . . . . [ no gap in the MS. ] And lycourus and eke comyn Wip sugre þat <sup>þ</sup> is trye	2046	þei sette hym first <sup>þ</sup> þe swete wyne [ . . . . . [ no gap in the MS. ] And licouris and eke comyne Wip sugre þat <sup>þ</sup> is crie	2043 2046	They fet him first þe swete wyne [ . . . . . [ no gap in the MS. ] And lykhirþes and eke Comyne Wip sugre þat is trye	2043 2046

196 six-text
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS Ellesmere MS.

¶ He dede / next his white leere
Of clooth of lake / fyn and cleere
A breche / and eek a sherte
And next his sherte an Aketon
And ouer that an habergeon
for percyng of his herte

2049

2052

¶ And ouer that / a fyn haberk Wasel y wrought of Lewes werk ful strong it was of plate
And ouer that his cote armour
As whit as is / a flye flour
In which / he wol debate

2055

2058

¶ His sheeld was al / of gold so red
And ther inne was a byrte heed
A Charbokle by his syde
And there he swor / on Ale and Bred
How pat the geant shal be deed
Bytyle what heyt

2061

2064

¶ His lambour were of quyrboill
His swerde sheche of Yuory
His helm / of latour bright
His Sadel was / of Rawel bon
His byrdyl / as the some shon
Or as the moone light

2067

2070

¶ His spere it was / of fyn Cipres
That bothe were / and no thyng pes
The heed / ful sharpe yrounde
¶ His heed was / al dappyl gray
It goth an Amel in the way
ful softely and rounde

2073

2076 manuscript (p. 196)

196 six-text
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ He dede next his white leer
Of clooth of lake / fyn and cleere
A breche / and eek a Sherte
And next his Sherte / an Aketon
And ouer that an habergeon
for percyng of his herte

2049

2052

¶ And ouer that / a fyn haberk
Was al y wrought of Lewes werk
ful strong it was of plate
And ouer that / his cote armour
As whit as is / a flye flour
In which / he wol debate

2055

2058

¶ His sheeld was al / of gold so red
And ther inne was / a byrte heed
A Charbokle / by his syde
And there he swor / on Ale and Bred
How pat the geant / shal be deed
Bytyle / what heyt

2061

2064

¶ His lambour were / of quyrboill
His swerde sheche / of Yuory
His helm / of latour bright
His Sadel was / of Rawel bon
His byrdyl / as the some shon
Or as the moone light

2067

2070

¶ His spere was / of fyn Cipres
That bothe were / and no thyng pes
The heed / ful sharpe yrounde
His heed was / al dappyl gray
It goth an Amel / in the way
ful softely and rounde

2073

2076

manuscript (p. 196)

196 six-text
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS Cambridge MS.

He dede next his white leere
Of clooth of lake / fyn and cleere
A breche / and eek a sherte
And next his schirte an Aketon
And ouer that an habergeon
for percyng of his herte

2049

2052

And ouer that a fyn haberk
Was al y wrought of Lewes werk
ful stronge it was of plate
And ouer that his cote armour
As whit as is a flye flour
In which he wolde debate

2055

2058

Hese shild was al of gold so red
And there in was a byrte heed
A Charbokle by his syde
And there he swor on ale & bred
How that the geant shuld be deed
By-tyde what heyt

2061

2064

Hise lambour were of quyrboill
His swerde sheche of yuory
His helm of latoun bright
His sadil was of rawel bon
His byrdyl as the some shon
Or as the moone light

2067

2070

Hise spere was of fyn cipres
That bothe were and no thyng pes
The heed ful sharpe yrounde
Hise heede was of dappyl gray
It goth an amel in the way
ful softely and rounde

2073

2076

manuscript (p. 196)

[These lines were written in another hand over an erasure.]

He dede next his wiste leere
Of clop of lake fyn and elere
A breche and eke a scherte
And next his scherte an aketon
And ouer þat an habergoun for penyng of his herte

2049

2062

And ouer þat a fyn hauberk/
Was al y-brought of Iewes werk
ful strong it was of plate
And ouer þat his cote armure/
As whyt as is a lily flour
In which he wole debate

2055

2058 his schelde was al of gold so red

And þer Inne was þe boores head
A charbokel þat byde
And þer he swore on ale and brood
That þe graunt schelde be doof þe dide what þe dide

2061

2064 his lamber were of quibroly

his swerde schepe of yuory his helme of latoun bright his saule was of rust-þon his bridell as þe sonne schone
Or as þe mona so light

2067

2070 his spere was of fyn Cypros

That beþe were and no þing þes
The hood ful scharp y-grounde
his stede was al dappyl gray
It got an amble by þe way
ful softly and rounde

2073

2076 corpus (A. 1. 100)

He did next his white leer
Of clop of lake fyne and clere
A breche and eke a sherte
And next his shert an aketon
And ouer þat an haberiou for pereyng of an herte

2049

2052

And ouer þat a fyn hauberk
Was al y-brought of Iwes werk
ful stronge it was of plate
And ouer þat his cote armour
As white as is þe lily flour
In which he wil debate

2055

2058

His schelde was of gold so red
A þer-In was a bores hede
A charboile by his side
And þer he swore on ale and brode
Howe þat þe graunt shal be dode
Beside what þe dide

2061

2064

His lamber were of quirboile
His swerde schepe of yuory
His helme of latoun bright
His saddle was of Rowel bone
His bridell as þe sonne shone
Or as þe moon list

2067

2070

His spere was of fyn Cypros
That beþe were and no þing þes
The hood ful scharp y-grounde
His stede was al dappyl gray
It got an amble by þe way
ful softly and rounde

2073

2076

petworth (B. 1. 100)

He dide next his white linc
Of Clop of Maw-fyne and clinc
A breshp and eke a schert
And next is schert an Akton
And ouer þat an habertiqu for pereyng of his herte

2049

2052

And ouer þat a fine hauberk
Was al y-brought of Iewes werk
ful stronge it was of plate
And ouer þat is cote Armeur
As white as is a lily-floure
In which he wole debate

2055

2058

His schelde was al of gold so red
And þere in was a bores hede
A Charbokel þe side
And þere he swore on ale and brode
That þe Gyant schelde be dode
By-side what he-side

2061

2064

His lamber were of quibroly
His swerde schepe of Ivory
His helme of Latoun bright
His Sauleh was of Rust-þon
His Bridell as þe sonne schone
Or as þe mona so light

2067

2070

His spere was of fine Cypros þat beþe were and no þing þes
The hood ful scharp y-grounde
His sted was al dappyl gray Hite etamble by þe wey
ful softly and rounde

2073

2076

LANSDOWNE (B. 1. 100)

197 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Ellesmere MS.

In londe

¶ Lo lordes myne / heere is a fyf
If yu wol any moore of it
To telle it / wol I fonde

2080

[The Second Fyt]

¶ Now holde youre mouth per charitee
Bothe knyght and lady free
And herkeneth to my spells
¶ Of batailles / and of chivalry
And of ladyes / loue drury
¶ Anon I wol yow telle

2083

2086

¶ Men speken of Romances of pryis
Of Hornchild / and of Ypotys
Of Beves and of sir Gy
Of sightybeux and playn damour
But sir Thomas / his bereth the flour
Of royal chivalry

2089

2092

¶ His goode Steede / al he bystrood
And forth / vpon his weye he rood
As sparke / out of the bronde
¶ Vp on his Cresset He bar a tour
And ther Inne / stiked a lillie flour
God schilde his cors fro schonde

2095

2098

¶ And for he was / a knyght Amurous
He wolde slepen / in noon hous
But ligen in his hoodes
¶ His brighte helm / was his wonger
And by hym / baiteth his dexter
Of herbes fyne and goode

2101

2104

ELLESMEERE (e-r. 197)

197 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Hengwrt MS.

In londe

¶ Lo lordes myne / heere is a fyf
If yo wole / any moore of it
To telle it wol I fonde

2080

[Fyt II.]

¶ Now holde youre mouth per charitee
Bothe knyght and lady free
And herkeneth to my spells
¶ Of batailles / and of chivalry
¶ And of ladyes / loue drury
¶ Anon / I wol yow telle

2083

2086

¶ Men speken of Romances of pris
Of Hornchild / and of Ypotys
Of Beves and Sir Gy
Of Sighybeux / and playn damour
But sir Thomas / he bereth the flour
Of royal chivalry

2089

2092

¶ His goode Steede / al he bystrood
And forth vp on his weye he glood
As Sparke / out of the bronde
¶ Vp on his Cresset he bar a tour
And ther Inne stiked / a lillie-flour
God schilde / his cors fro schonde

2095

2098

¶ And for he was / a knyght amurous
He wolde slepen / in noon hous
But ligen in his hode
¶ His brighte helm / was his wonger
And by hym / baiteth his dexter
Of herbes / fyne and goode

2101

2104

HENGWRT (e-r. 197)

197 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOMAS. Cambridge MS.

In londe

Lo lordyngs' myne here is a fyf
If yo wole any moore of it
To telle it wole I fonde

(1. 21100)

2080

[Fyt II.]

¶ Now holdyth zours mouth for charyte bothe knyght & lady free
¶ And herkenyth to myn spells
Of batayle & of chynualry
¶ And of ladyes loue drewey
¶ A-noon I wole zow telle

2083

2086

¶ Men speken of romauncis of pryis
Of hornchild & of Ipotys
Of Beeris & sire Gy
Of sire lybeus & playndamour
But sire Thomas beryth the flour
Of royal chynualry

2089

2092

¶ His goode stede al he be-strod
And forth vp-on his weye he glod
¶ As sparke out of browde [Vp on his creste he bar a tour.
And ther ys stiked a lilye flour.
God schilde his cors fro schonde.]

2095

2098

¶ And for he was knyght Amurous.
He ne slepeth in noon hous.
¶ But liggeth in his hood.
¶ His brighte helme was his wonger
And bi hym baited his dexter.
¶ Of herbis fyn & good.

2101

2104

CAMBRIDGE (e-r. 197)

GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Corpus MS.	SIX-TEXT 197	GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Petworth MS.	SIX-TEXT 197	GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Lansdowne MS.	SIX-TEXT 197
In londe Lo lordes myne here<sup>1</sup> a fyfte If so wols any more of hitte To telle it wol I fonde	[197, put in by a later hand]	In londe Loo lordys myne here is a fyfte If so wil any more of it To telle it wil I fonde	2080	In londe Lo lordes myne here a fyfte If so wil any more of it To tell it wil I fonde	2080
[Fyfte II.]		[Fyfte II.]		[Fyfte II.]
Now halde youre mouþe par charite Boþe knyght and lady fre And herkneþ to my spelle Of bataill and of chivalry And of ladyes loue drery Anon I wil you telle	2083	Now holde youre mouthe for charite Boþ knyght and lady fre And herkneþ to my spelle Of Bataill and of Chivalrie And of ladies loue drurye Anoon I wil you telle	2083	Nowe haldeþ youre mouþe par Charite Boþe knyght and lady free And herkenoþ to my spelle. Of Bataill and of Chivalry And of ladyes loue drery Anoon .I. wil youre tell	2083
Men speke of Romance of pryce Of horn childe and of ypotys Of Beuys and sire Gy Of sire libens and pleyndamour But sire Thopas he bereþ þe flour Of real chivalry	2089	Men speken of romances of price Of horn childe and of ypotios Of Befes and of sire gie Of Sy le boyx and Pleyndamour But sire Thopas he bereþ þe flour Of roial chivalrie	2089	Men speke of Romans of price Of home Child and of Ipoos Of Beuys and sir Guy Of sir Libous and plendamour Bot sir Thopas he bereþ þe flour Of Roial Chivalry	2089
his goode steed al he bestrode And forþ vpon his way he glod As sparkes out of þe bronde vpon his creest he bar a tour And þer Iuno stiked a lily flour God schilde his corpe fro schonde	2095	His good stede he bystrode And forþ vpon his way glode As sparkes out of þe bronde Ypon his creest he bare a tour And þer Iuno stiked a lily flour God schilde his corpe fro shonde	2095	His goode steeðe al he be-strode And forþe vpon his waye he glode As sparkes oute of þe bronde Ypon his creste he bare a toure And þer in stiked a lily flour God schelde his corpe fro schonde	2095
And for he was a knyght anourous he nolde slegen in non hous But ligen in his hood his brighte helme was his wanger And by him baytþ his deistree Of herbes fyne and goode	2101	And for he was a knyght anourous He nolde slegen in non hous / But ligen in his hode His brait helme was his wongere And by hym baite his deistree Of herbes fyne and good .	2101	And for he was a knyght anourous He wolde slegen in none hous Bot lygen in his hode His brait helme was his wangere And by him baytþ his deistree Of herbes fyne and good	2101
CORPUS (6-T. 107)		PETWORTH (6-T. 107)		LANSDOWNE (6-T. 107)

198 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Ellesmere MS

¶ Hym self / drank water of the well
As did the knyght sire Percyuch
So worly vnder wede
¶ Til on a day

2108

198 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Hengwrt MS.

¶ Hym self / drank water of the well
As did the knyght Sire Percyuch
So worly vnder wede
¶ Til on a day

2108

198 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Cambridge MS.

¶ Hym self drank water of the wells. [Hert. MS 1758]
As did the knyght sir Percyulle.
So worthely vnder wede.
¶ Til it was on a daye.
¶ Here endeth Sir Thopas.]

2108

SIX-TEXT 198
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Corpus MS.

. . . . . [In a later hand, (Hys self drank water of þe welle in the margin, & as dede þe knyght sire Percyvalle no word) (in vnder wede)]
. . . . .
. . . . .
. . . . .
. . . . . no gap in the MS.] 2108

SIX-TEXT 198
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Petworth MS.

Hys self drank waters of þe welle
As did þe knyght sire Percyvalle
So worþely vnder wede
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]

2108

SIX-TEXT 198
GROUP B. § 8. SIR THOPAS. Lausdowne MS.

[ . . . . .
. . . . .
. . . . .
. . . . .
. . . . . no gap in the MS.] 2108

¶ Heore the Hoost<sup>t</sup> stynthe Chaucer / of his tale of Thopas ☉

Na moore of this / for goddes dignitee
Quod oure hoost<sup>t</sup> for thou makest me
So very / of thy verray lewedenesse
That also wisly / god my soule blesse
Min eres aken / of thy drasty speche
Now swich a Rym / the deuel I bitecho
This may wel / be Rym dogerel quod he ¶ Why so quod I / why wiltow lette me?
Moore of my tale / than another man
Syn that it is / the beste tale I kan
¶ By god quod he / for pleynly at a word<sup>t</sup> Thy drasty rymyng / is iift worth a toord<sup>t</sup>
Thou doost<sup>t</sup> night elles / but despendet tyme
Sire at a word / thou shalt no longer ryme
Lat so / wher thou kanst tellen aught in goeste
Or telle in prose / somewhat at the leeste
In which ther be som myrthe / or som doctrine
¶ Gladly quod I / by goddes swete pyne
I wol yow telle / a litel thyng in prose
That oghte liken yow / as I suppose
Or elles certes / ye been to daungerous
It is a moral tale vertuous
Al be it take somtyme / in sondry wyse
Of sondry folk / as I shal yow deuyse
¶ As thus / ye woot<sup>t</sup> pat euery Euaungelist<sup>t</sup>
That telleth vs / the peyne of Ihesu crist<sup>t</sup>
Ne seith nat alle thyng<sup>t</sup> / as his felawe dooth
But natheles / hir sentence is al sooth
And alle acorden / as in hir sentence
Al be ther / in hir tellyng<sup>t</sup> difference

ELLESMEER (6-T. 190)

¶ Here the hoost<sup>t</sup> stynthe Chaucer of his tale of Thopas / and biddeth hym / telle another tale.

Namooore of this / for goddes dignitee
Quod oure Hoost<sup>t</sup> for thou makest me
So very / of thy verray lewedenesse
That also wisly / god my soule blesse
Myne crys aken / of thy drasty speche
Now swich a rym / the deuel I bitecho
This may wel be / rym dogerel quod he ¶ Why so quod I / why wiltow lette me
Moore of my tale / than another man
Syn that it is / the beste rym I kan
¶ By god quod he / for pleynly at o word
Thy drasty rymyng<sup>t</sup> is nat worth a toord
Thou doost<sup>t</sup> night elles / but despendet tyme
Sire at o word / thou shalt no longer ryme
Lat so / wher thou kanst tellen aught in goeste
Or tel in Prose / som what at the leoste
In which ther be som myrthe / or som doctrine
¶ Gladly quod I / by goddes swete pyne
I wol yow telle / a litel thyng in prose
That oghte liken yow / as I suppose
Or elles certes / ye be to daungerous
It is a moral tale vertuous
Al be it toold som tyme in sondry wise
Of sondry folk / as I shal yow deuyse
¶ As thus / ye woot<sup>t</sup> pat euery Euaungelist<sup>t</sup>
That telleth vs / the peyne of Ihesu Crist<sup>t</sup>
Ne seith nat alle thyng<sup>t</sup> / as his felawe dooth
But natheles / hir sentence is al sooth
And alle acorden / as in hir sentence
Al be ther / in hir tellyng<sup>t</sup> difference

HENGWERT (6-T. 190)

The prolog of Mellibe

(MS Reg. 19 0 II, leaf 190, back.)

NO more of this for goddes dignitee Quod oure oost for þou makest me
So very of þin lewedenesse
That also wisly god me bles
Myn eres ake of thi drasty speche
Now such a ryme þe deuel I be-techo
This may be wel ryme dogerel quod he ¶ Why so quod I why wilt þou lette me
More of my tale than an other man Sethyns it is þe beste ryme I can
By god quod he pleynly I the say Thou shalt no longer rymen here to day
Thow dost night elles but dyspendet tyme
Sire oo word þou shalt no longer ryme
Let see wheþer þou canst telle ought in goeste
Or telle in prose somewhat at þe leste
In which þer be somme merthe & som doctrine
Gladly quod I by goddes swete pyne
I wil þou telle a litel thing in prose
That oughte lyk ȝou as I suppose
Other elles certes ȝe ben to daungerous Hit is a moral tale vertuous
Al be hit tolde somtyme in sundry wyse
Of sondry folk as I shal þou deuyse
As þus ȝe wote wel euery euaungeliste pat telleth vs of Ihesu Crist Ne smith not al þing as his felawe doth
But natheles her sentence is al soth
And alle accorden as in her sentence
Al be ther in her tellyng difference

MS REG. 19 0 II. (FOR CAMBRIDGE 6-T. 190)

N<sup>O</sup> more of þis for goddes dignite Quop oure hoste for þou makest<sup>t</sup> me
 So wery of þy lewednes
 That also wisly god me blis
 Myn eres aka of þin darsty speche
 Now such a rymene þe deual y beteche
 This may be wel rym dogereit quod he
 Why so quod I why wilt þou lette me
 More of my tale þan anoper man
 Soþas it is þe beste Rym I can By god quod he pleynly I þe say þou schalt<sup>w</sup> no langer ryman heere to day Thou dost<sup>t</sup> nouht<sup>t</sup> elles but<sup>t</sup> dispendes<sup>t</sup> tym
 Sire at<sup>t</sup> O word þou schalt<sup>w</sup> no lengere ryme
 Let<sup>t</sup> se wheþer þou canst<sup>t</sup> telle ought<sup>t</sup> in geste
 Or telle in prose somewhat<sup>t</sup> at<sup>t</sup> þe leste
 In which þer be som merþe and som doctrine
 Gladly quod I by goddes swete pyne
 I wol þou telle a litel þinge in prose þat<sup>t</sup> oughte like þou as I suppose / Or elles certeyn þe ben to daungerous
 It is a moral tale vertuous
 Al be it tolde somtyme in sondry wyse
 Of sondry folk<sup>t</sup> as I schal þou devise
 As þus þe wote every euangeliste
 That telleþ vs of ihesu cristo
 Ne seiþ nouht al þinge as his felawe doþ
 But<sup>t</sup> nathales her sentence is al soþ
 And all accorden as in here sentence
 Al be þer in here tellyng<sup>t</sup> difference

CORPUS (6-7. 199)

2112
(see on to line of 2117)
 N<sup>O</sup> more of þis for goddys dygnite Quod our hoste for þou makest<sup>t</sup> me
 So wery of þi verrey lewdenesse
 That also wisly god my soule blisso
 Myn eres akon of þi drasty speche
 Now such a ryme þe deual I byteche ¶ This may wel be cleped ryme dogrel quod he Whi so quod he whi wilt þou lette me .
 More of my tale þan an oper man
 Siþ þat<sup>t</sup> it is þe best<sup>t</sup> ryme þat<sup>t</sup> I can
 By god quod he for playnly at<sup>t</sup> a worde
 Thi drasty rymyng<sup>t</sup> nys nat<sup>t</sup> worþ a torde
 Thou dost<sup>t</sup> not<sup>t</sup> ellis but<sup>t</sup> spendest<sup>t</sup> tyme
 Sire atle oon worde þou shalt<sup>w</sup> no lenger ryme
 Let<sup>t</sup> see wher þou canst<sup>t</sup> tellen ouþ<sup>t</sup> in geste
 Or ellis in prose somewhat<sup>t</sup> at<sup>t</sup> þe leest<sup>t</sup>
 In which þer be somme merth or doctrine Gladly quod I by goddys swete pyne
 I wil þow telle a litel þinge in prose þat<sup>t</sup> auþ<sup>t</sup> like þou as I suppose Or ellis certes þe bene to daungerous
 It is a moral tale vertuous
 Al be it tolde somtyme in sondry wyse
 Of sondry folk<sup>t</sup> as I schal þou devise
 As þus þe wote þat<sup>t</sup> every euangelist<sup>t</sup>
 That tellen vs þe peyn of ihesu crist
 Ne seiþ al þing as his felawe doop
 But<sup>t</sup> naples her sentence is all soop .
 And all accorden as in her sentence
 Al be þer in her tellyng<sup>t</sup> difference

PETWORTH (6-T. 199)

¶ Incipit prologus
(see line of 191, lines)
 N<sup>O</sup> mor of þis for goddes dignite quod oure ost fouru þou makest<sup>t</sup> me So wery of þi lewdenes þat also wiselly god me blis
 Myn eres aka of þine darast<sup>t</sup> speche Nowe suche a rime þe deual y. beteche .
 This mai be welo ryme dogerel whie so quod .I. whie wilt þou lette me
 More of my tale þan a noþer man Soþen it is þe best<sup>t</sup> rime .I. can
 By god . quod he plainly .I. þe seie
 Thou schalt<sup>w</sup> no langer rime hereto daie
 Thou doste nouht elles bot<sup>t</sup> dispendes time
 Sire att o worde þou schalt<sup>w</sup> no longer rime
 Late see wheþer þou canste tell out in geste
 Or tell in prose sunwhat<sup>t</sup> att þe leest
 In which þer be some merþe & some doctrine Gladly quod .I. be goddes swete pyne
 .I. wil þowe tell a litel þinge in prose þat<sup>t</sup> scht lyke þowe as .I. suppose Or elles certes þe be to daungerous
 It is a morale tale vertuous (see 191)
 Al be it tolde sun tyme in sundre wise
 Of sundre folke as .I. schal þowe deuisse
 As þus þe wote every euangelist
 That telleþ vs of ihesu crist
 Ne seiþe nouht al þinge as his felawe doþe
 Bot<sup>t</sup> Naples her<sup>t</sup> sentence is al soþe
 And al accorden att here sentence
 Al be þere in her tellinge difference

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 199)

200 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOMAS'S END-LINK. Ellesmere MS.

for somme of hem seyn moore / and somme seyn lesse
 When they / his pitous passious expresse 2140
 I mene / of Mark Mathew / Luk and Iohn
 But douteless / hir sentence is all oon
 ¶ Therefore lordynges alle / I yow besече [leaf 157, back] 2144
 If þat yow thynke / I varie as in my speche
 As thus / though that I telle som what moore
 Of proverbes / than ye han herd bifore
 Comprhended / in this lital tretys heere 2148
 To enforce with / theeffect of my mateere
 And though I / nat the same wordes seye
 As ye han herd / yet to yow alle I preye
 Blameth me nat for as in my sentence
 Shul ye / nowher / fynden difference 2152
 firo the sentence / of this tretys lyte
 After the which / this myry tale I write
 And therfore / herkeneth / what þat I shal seye
 And lat me tellen / al my tale I preye 2156

¶ Explicit

200 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOMAS'S END-LINK. Hengwrt MS.

for somme of hem seyn moore / & somme seyn lesse
 When they / his pitous passion expresse 2140
 I mene / of Mark / Mathew / Luk and Iohn
 But douteless / hir sentence is all oon
 ¶ Therefore / lordynges alle / I yow besече
 If þat yo thynke / I varie / as in my speche 2144
 As thus / thogh þat I telle somewhat more
 Of proverbes / than ye han herd bifore
 Comprhended / in this lital tretys heere
 To enforce with / theeffect of my mateere 2148
 And thogh I nat the same wordes seye
 As ye han herd / yet to yow alle I preye
 Blameth me nat / for as in my sentence [leaf 157] 2152
 Shul ye / nowher / fynden difference
 firo the sentence / of this tretys lile
 After the which / this myry tale I write
 And therfore herkeneth / what þat I shal seye
 And lat me tellen / al my tale I preye 2156

200 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOMAS'S END-LINK. Cambridge MS.

for some of hem seyn more & somme seyn lesse when þey his pitous passion expresse 2140
 I mene of Mark Mathew Luko and Iohn
 But douteles her sentence is al on [leaf 157] 2144 þerefore lordynges alle [I] þou besече 3if þat þo þynke I varie in my speche 2144
 As þus 3if þat I telle somewhat more
 Of proverbes þen þe haue herd byfore
 Comprhendid in þis lital tretys here
 To enforce with þe effecte of my mateere 2148
 And þoughe I hadde þe same wordes saye
 As þe han herd 3it to alle þou I praye Blameth me not for as in myn sentence [leaf 157] 2152 þe schal not fynden moche difference firo þe sentence of þe tretys lyte
 After þe which þis myry tale I wryte
 And herkeneth what I schal seye
 And lete me telle my tale I preye 2156

Here endith the prolog //

SIX-TEXT 200
 GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOPAS'S END-LINK. Corpus MS.

for some of hem seyn more and some lesse
 When þey his pitous passioun expresse 2140
 I mene of mark mathew luke and Iohn
 But douteles here sentence is al on Therefore lordynges all I þou besече
 If þat þe þinke I varie in my speche 2144
 As þas if þat I telle somewhat more
 Of proverbis þen þe hauē herd byfore
 Comprehendit in þis litel tretis heere
 To enforce with peffecte of my matiere 2148
 And þough I naddē þe same wordes saye <sup>(ref 217, back)</sup>
 As þe han herd þit to alle þou I praye <sup>(not in a later hand)</sup> Blameþ me nought for as in my sentence þe schal nought fynde mochi difference / 2152 fro þe sentence of þe tretys lyyte <sup>(like in a later hand)</sup>
 After þe which þis mery tale I wryte
 And<sup>2</sup> herkenē what I schal seye <sup>(2 before added on margin</sup>
 And lett me telle my tale I þou preye / 2156 <sup>of MS in another hand)</sup>

SIX-TEXT 200
 GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOPAS'S END-LINK. Petworth MS.

for somme of hem seyn more and somme lesse (text 217, back)
 When þei his-pitous passioun expresse 2140
 I mene of mark mathewe luke and Iohn
 But douteles her sentence is al on Therefore lordynges al I þou bisече if þat þe þenk I vary as in my spech 2144
 As þas þouþe þat I telle somewhat more
 Of proverbes þat þe han herd byfore
 Comprehended in þis litell tretys here
 To enforsen wip þe affecte of my matiere 2148
 And þouþe I not þe same wordes say
 As þe han herde þit to 30th all I pray
 Blameþ me nat for in my sentence
 Shul þe nowhere fynde difference 2152 fro þe sentence of þis tretys lite
 After þe which þis mery tale I write
 And þerfor harkenē what I shal say
 And lett me telle al my tale I pray 2156

SIX-TEXT 200
 GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOPAS'S END-LINK. Lansdowne MS.

for somme of herme seyne more & somme souþe lesse
 When þei his pitous passion expresse, 2140
 .I. mene of Mark. Mathew. luke. & Iohn
 Bot doutles her sentence is al one
 There-for lordynges al .I. þowe be-seche
 If þat þe þinke .I. varye in my spoche 2144
 As þus. If þat .I. telle sum what more
 Of proverbes þan þe hauē herde to fore
 Comprehendit in þis litel tretis here
 To enforce wip þe effect of Mi Matiere 2148
 And þouþe .I. made þe same wordes saye
 As þe hauē herde þit to al þowe .I. proie Blameþ me nouht for as my sentence
 þe schol nouht finde muche differēce 2152 fro the sentens of þe tretys leuyt
 After þe which þis Mery tale .y. write
 And Herken whatt .I. schal seye
 And lett me tale .I. praye 2156

¶ Here endēþ þe tale of Sir Thopas

[No break in the MS.]

DRAWINGS OF THE 23 TELLERS OF THE 24 CANTERBURY TALES,

COPIED FROM THE ELLESMERE MS, AND CUT ON WOOD,

BY

Mr W. H. Hooper,

AND COLOURED AFTER THE ORIGINALS, UNDER HIS DIRECTION, FOR THE CHAUCER SOCIETY.

THE KNIGHT.

Wilmers MS, leaf 13.

The brand on the horse's hip—34, 7 for M/V— is in ink, and probably by a later hand.)

THE MILLER.

Wilmers MS, leaf 38, back.

THE REVE.

Wilmers MS, leaf 46.

THE COOK.
Elfenore MS, leaf 51.

THE MAN OF LAWE.
Elfenore MS, leaf 54, back.

SHIPMAN.
Elfenore MS, leaf 147, back.

PRIORRESSE.
Blutemere MS, leaf 125, back.

CHAUCER.
Blutemere MS, leaf 127, back.

MONK.
Eltenere MS, leaf 177.

NUN'S PRIEST.
Eltenere MS, leaf 181.

SIX-TEXT 200-
 GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOPAS'S END-LINK. Corpus MS.

ffor some of hem seyn more and some lesse Whan þey his pytous passioun expresse 2140
 I mene of mark' matheu luke and Iohn
 But' douteles here sentence is al on Therefore lordynges al I 3ou beseche
 If þat' 3e þinke I varie in my speche 2144
 As þus if þat' I telle somewhat' more
 Of prouerbis þen 3e haue herd byfore
 Comprehendit in þis lital tretis hereo
 To enforce with peffectes of my matere 2148
 And þough I naddel' þe same wordes sayo <sup>[leaf 217, back]</sup>
 As 3e han herd 3it' to allo 3ou I prayo <sup>[? lit in a later hand]</sup>
 Blameþ me nouht' for us in my sentence 3e schal nouht' fynde mochil difference / 2152
 ffor þe sentence of þe tretys lyyte<sup>2</sup> <sup>[? lit in a later hand]</sup>
 After þe which þis mery tale I wryte
 And<sup>3</sup> harkene what' I schal saye <sup>[? þe fere added on margin of MS in another hand]</sup>
 And let' me telle my tale I 3ou preyo / 2156

SIX-TEXT 200
 GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOPAS'S END-LINK. Petworth MS.

ffor somme of hem seyn more and somme lesse <sup>[leaf 217, back]</sup> Whan þei his pitous passioune expresse 2140
 I mene of mark' mathewe luke and Iohn
 But' douteles her sentence is al on Therefore lordynges al I 3ou biseche 3if þat' 3e þenke I vary as in my spech 2144
 As þus þen 3e þat' I telle somewhat' more Of prouerbes þat' 3e han herd byfore
 Comprehended in þis lital tretys here
 To enforce wiþ þe effectes of my matere 2148
 And þouþe I not' þe same wordes say
 As 3e han' herde 3it to 3o' ah I pray
 Blameþ me nat' for in my sentence
 Shul 3e nowhere fynde difference 2152
 ffor þe sentence of þis tretys lite
 After þe which þis mery tale I write
 And þerfor harkeneþ what' I shal say
 And let' me telle al my tale I pray 2156

SIX-TEXT 200
 GROUP B. § 9. SIR THOPAS'S END-LINK. Lansdowne MS.

ffor somme of hemme seine more & somme soine lesse Whan þei his pitous passion expresse 2140
 .I. mene of Mark . Mathea . luke . & Iohn
 Bot douteles her' sentence is al one Therefor lordynges al .I. 3owe be-seche
 If þat 3e þinke .I. varye in my speche 2144
 As þus . If þat .I. telle sum what more
 Of prouerbes þan 3e haue herde to fore
 Comprehydit in þis lital tretis here
 To enforce wiþ þe effect of Mi Matiere 2148
 And þouþe .I. nado þe same wordes sayo
 As 3e haue herde 3itt to al 3owe .I. preie
 Blameþ me nouht for as my sentence
 3e schol nouht finde muche difference 2152 ffor the sgentens of þe tretys lenyte
 After þe which þis Mery tale .y. write
 And Herken whatt .I. schal seye
 And lett me tale .I. preye 2156

¶ Here endeþ þe tale of Sir Thopas

[No break in the MS.]

[There are no line-numbers or breaks between the paragraphs in the MS. Tyrwhitt's breaks are kept here to present slight differences in the Six Texts throwing out many lines. ¶ stands for a triangular pause-mark in the MS.]

[Ellesmere MS, on leaf 187, back.]

¶ Heere bigynneth Chaucers tale of Melibee ¶

[Tyrwhitt's division of Chaucer as here used.]

A ¶ Yong man called Melibeus myghty and riche / bigat vp on his wyf that called was Prudence / a doughter which that called was Sophie /.

[2158] Vpon a day bifel þat he / for his desport / is went in to the feeldes hym to pleye / [2159] his wyf / and eek his doughter / hath he left inwith his hous / of which the dores / weren fast yshette [2160] ¶ thre of hire olde foes / han it espyed and setten ladders / to the walles of his hous / and by wyndowes ben entred / [2161] and beten his wyf / and wounded his doughter with fyne mortal woundes in fyne sondry places [2162] ¶ this is to seye / in hir feet / in hir handes / in hir erys / in hir nose / and in hire mouth and leften hire for deed / and wenten away

[2163] ¶ When Melibeus / retourned was in to his hous / and seigh al this meschief / he lyk a mad man rentyng his clothes / gan to wepe and crye

[2164] ¶ Prudence his wyf / as ferforth as she dorste /
bisoghte hym / of his wepyng for to styrte / [2165] but nat
for-þy / he gan to crye and wepen euer lenger the moore

[2166] ¶ This noble wyf Prudence / remembered hire / vpon the sentence of Ouyde / in his book / that cleped is the remedye of loue ¶ where as he seith / [2167] he is a fool that destourbeth the mooder to wepen in the deeth of hire child / til she haue wept hir fille / as for a certeyn tyme [2168] ¶ And thanne / shal man don his diligence with anyable wordes / hire to reconforte / and preyen hire of

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 201)

[There are no line-numbers or breaks between the paragraphs in the MS. Tyrwhitt's breaks are kept here to prevent slight differences in the Six Texts throwing out many lines. The side-notes of the MS.—Ovidius' 'Seneca', etc. are left out here, but will be found in the separate print of the MS. ¶ stands for a triangular pause-mark in the MS.]

[Hengwrt MS, on leaf 216.]

¶ Here bigynneth chaucers tale of Melibee ¶

A ¶ Yong man whilom / called Melibeus myghty and riche / bigat vp on his wyf / þat called was Prudence / a doughter / which þat called was Sophie ¶

[2158] vp on a day bifel þat he for his desport is went in to the feeldes / hym to pleye / [2159] his wif & eek his doughter / hath he laft inwith his hous / of which the dores weren fast yshette / [2160] thre of his olde foos / han it espied / & setten ladders / to the walles of his hous / and by wyndowes ben entred / [2161] & beten his wif / & wounded his doughter / with fyne mortal woundes in fyne sondry places / [2162] this is to seye / in hir feet / in hir handes / in hir erys / in hir nose / and in hir mouth / and leften hire for deed / &
wenten away

[2163] ¶ When Melibeus retourned was in to his hous / & seigh al this meschief / he lyk a mad man
rentyng his clothes / gan to wepe / and crye /

[2164] Prudence his wyf / as ferforth as she dorste /
bisoghte hym / of his wepyng for to styrte / [2165] but nat
for-þy / he gan to crye & wepen euer lenger the moore

[2166] ¶ This noble wyf Prudence remembered hire / vp-on the sentence of Ouyde / in his book / þat cleped is / the remedye of loue / wher as he seith / [2167] he is a fool that destourbeth the mooder / to wepe / in the deeth of hir
child / til she haue wept hir fille / as for a certeyn tyme / [2168] ¶ And thanne shal man don his diligence with anyable wordes / hire to reconforte / and preye hire / of

HENGWRT (6-T. 201)

[There are no line-numbers or breaks between the paragraphs in the MS. Tyrwhitt's breaks are kept here to prevent slight differences in the Six Texts throwing out many lines.]

[MS Reg. 18 C II, on leaf 197.]

[Here endith the prolog ¶ And begynneþ the tale of Melibe

A ¶ Yong man whilom called Melibe myghti and ryche bygat vpon his wyf þat called was prudence a doughter which þat cleped sapience.

[2158] vpon a day fel þat he for his desport is went in to þe feldes him to pleye / [2159] his wyf and eke his doughter hath he left with-ynne his hous of which þe dores were faste is-schet // [2160] þoure of his olde foos han hit aspyed. and setten ladders to þe walles of his hous and by þe wyndowes ben entred [2161] and betyn hys wyf and wounded his doughter with fyne mortal woundes in fyne sondry places [2162] This is to sayn in here feet in here hand and in here eres in hire nose and in here mouth & laften her for deed and wenten here way //

[2163] ¶ When Melibee retourned was aþeyn vntil his hous and sawh all þis meschief // And he 1-lyke a mad man ren-dyng his clothes gan to wpye and crye euerlenger þe moore //

[2164] Prudence his wyf as ferforth as sche durste by-soght him of his wepyng for to styrte [2165] but nought for-thi he gan to wpye & crye euer the lenger þe moore //

[2166] ¶ This noble wyf prudence remembered here þe sentence of Ovide in his book þat cleped is Ovidius þe remedye of loue / where he seith : [2167] he is a fool þat desturbeth þe mooder for to wpye in þe deeth of hire child til sche haue wepte her fille for a certeyn tyme : [2168] ¶ Then schal man don his diligence with anyable wordes hire to confort and to preye hire of

CAMBRIDGE [this page, MS Reg. 18 C ii] (6-T. 201)

[leaf 196, back]

[There are no line-numbers or breaks between the paragraphs in the MS. Tyrwhitt's breaks are kept here to present slight differences in the six texts throwing out many lines.]

[Corpus MS, on leaf 217, back.] ¶ C<sup>o</sup>. xx<sup>o</sup>.

Here bygynneþ Chauceres tale of Melibe and his wyf Prudence and his daughter Sapience

[2152]

A Jong man whilom called Melibe mighty & riche bigate vpon his wyf þat called was Prudence. a daughter which þat cleped was Sapience

[2153] ¶ vpon a day folde þat he for his disporte is went in to þe felde. him to playe [2159] his wyf and eek his daughter haþ he lette wippen his hous of which þe dores weren faste schette. [2160] þoure of his olde foos han it aspyed. and satten ladders to þe wallis of his hous and by þe wyndowes ben y-entred [2161] ¶ and beeten his wyf and wounded his daughter with fyue mortalle woundes in .v. sondry places. [2162] þis is to say in hire feet in hire hand. in hire eres in hire nose in hire mouþ ¶ and laften hire for dede and wenten here wyf

[2163] ¶ When Melibeus retorned was aȝein in-till his hous and sawe al þis meschief ¶ he y-like a mad man rentynge his cloþes gan to wepe and crye

[2164] ¶ Prudence his wyf as ferforþ as sche dorste bysought him of his weeping for to styntu [2165] ¶ but nought for-þy he gan to wepe and crye reuer longer þe more

[2166] ¶ This noble wyf prudence remembered hire on þe sentence of Ovide in his boke þat cleped is þe remedy of loue where he seiþ [2167] he is a fool þat distorbeþ þe mooder for to wepe in þe deþ of hire childre til sche haue wepte hire fille as for a certeyn tyme [2168] Then schal man don his diligence with anyable wordes hire to comforte and to praye hire of
CORPUS (6-R. 201)

[There are no line-numbers or breaks between the paragraphs in the MS. Tyrwhitt's breaks are kept here to present slight differences in the six texts throwing out many lines. Some of the omissions in the MS are supplied from the print of the French original in Le Méusurier de Paris, ed. 1847, i. 186, as that proves the omissions to be such.]

[Petworth MS, on leaf 227, back.]

And here bygynneþ þe tale of Melibeus & prudence.

[2157]

A Jong man called Melibeus myȝty and riche bygate vpon his wyf þat called was Prudence a daughter which þat called was Sophie.

[2158] Vpon a day byfelle þat he for his disporte is went into þe felde. him to playe [2159] his wyf and his daughter he haþ bylafte in-with his hous. of which þe doores weren fast schette. [2160] Ther of his olde fooren had espied. and satten ladders to þe wallis of his hous. and by þe wyndowes bene entred. [2161] and bete his wyf and wounded his donstere wif .v. mortal woundes in .v. sondry places. [2162] This is to sayn in her feete. in her hondes. in her eres. in her nose. and in her mouþe. and laften her for dede. and wenten here way.

[2163] When Melibeus retorned was into his hous and segit al þis meschief. He like a mad man reending his cloþes gan to wepe and crie.

[2164] ¶ Prudence his wyf as ferforþ as she durst. bysought hym of his weping for to stynt. [2165] but not forþi. he gan wepe and crye enere longer þe more.

[2166] This noble wif prudence remembered her vpon þe sentence of Ovide in his booke þat cleped is þe remedy of loue. 'De remedio Amoris. Where as he seiþ. [2167] He is a fool þat distorbeþ þe modere to wepe in þe deþ of her childre. til she haue wepte her fulle. as for a certeyn tyme. [2168] And þan schal man / doon his dylligence wif anyable chere hit' to recomforte and prei hyr'

PETWORTH (6-R. 201) [leaf 227]

[There are no line-numbers or breaks between the paragraphs in the MS. Tyrwhitt's breaks are kept here to present slight differences in the six texts throwing out many lines.]

[Lansdowne MS 851, on leaf 192.]

Hic incipit fabula de Mellybeo per Chaucer.

[2157]

A zonge man whilom called Mellibe. Mibte. & riche be-gate vpon his wyf. þat called was. Prudence. a douhter which was cleped Sapience //

[2158] vpon a daie fel þat he for his disporte is went in to þe foldes him to playe! [2159] His wif & eke his douhter haþe he lift wif-in his hous. of which þe dores were fast yschett. [2160] Foune of his olde foos haue it aspid. And setten ladders to þe wallis of his hous. & he þe wyndows entred [2161] & boten his wif & wounded his douhter with .v. mortalle woundes in .v. sundre places [2162] ¶ This is to seye. in here fete in hire hondes in hire eres & in hire nose & in hire mouþe. And laften hir for dede & wenten here wey.

[2163] ¶ Whan. Mellibeus retorned was aȝein in to his hous. & saueh al þis meschief ¶ He ylike a mad man rentynge his cloþes gan to wepe & crye.

[2164] Prudence his. ¶ Prudence his wif as ferforþ as sche dorst. be-sought him of his wepinge for to stainte [2165] ¶ Dotnot for-þi he gan to wepe & crie. etuer þe lenger þe more.

[2166] þis noble wif prudence remembreþ her' on þe sentence of Ouide. In his boko þat cleped is þe remedie of loue. where he seiþ. [2167] He is a. fool þat distorbeþ þe modere for to wepe in þe deþ of hir' childre. til sche haue wepped hire fil as for a certaine tyme. [2168] Then schal a man done his dylligence wif anyable wordes. hir' to recomford. & to preier her' of

LANSDOWNE (6-R. 201) [leaf 192, back] hir wepyng' for to stynts [2169] ¶ for which reson this noble wyf Prudence / suffred hir housbonde for to wepe and crye / as for a certeyn space / [2170] And when she saugh hir tyme / she seyde hym in this wise ¶ Allas / my lord quod she / why make ye yours self for to be lyke a fool / [2171] for sothe / it aperetheth nat to a wys man / to maken swiche a sorwe / [2172] youre doghter / with the grace of god shal wariahe and escape / [2173] And al were it so / that she right now were deed ? ye ne oughte nat as for hir death yours self to destroye [2174] ¶ Senek' seith / the wise man / shal nat take to greet disconfort for the deeth of his children / [2175] but certes / he sholde suffren it in pacience / as wel / as he / abideth the deeth / of his owene. propre persone

¶ Senec

¶ Melibeus

¶ Qualiter Iheron christus salut proprie mortis facit

¶ Prudence

¶ Apostolic Pro-lita ad Romanos

¶ Seneca

¶ These Syrak

ELLESMERE (6-T. 202) [leaf 196]

hir wepyng for to stynte / [2169] for which reson / this noble wyf Prudence / suffred hir housbonde / for to wepe & crye / as for a certeyn space / [2170] and when she say hir tyme / she seyde hym in this wise ¶ Allas my lord quod she / why make ye your self for to be lyk a fool / [2171] for sothe / it aperetheth nat to a wys man / to maken swich a sorwe / [2172] your doghter / with the grace of god / shal wariahe and escape [2173] And al were it so / þat she right now were deed / ye ne oghte nat as for hir deth / yours self destroye [2174] ¶ Senec' seith / the wise man shal nat take to greet disconfort for the deeth of his childern / [2175] but certes / he sholde suffren it in pacience / as wel / as he abideth the deeth / of his owene propre persone .

[2176] ¶ This Melibeus / answerde anon &amp; seyde

¶ What man quod he / sholde of his wepyng stynte / that hath so greet a cause for to wepe ? [2177] Ihesu crist' oure lord hym self wepte for the deeth / of lazarus his frend [2178] ¶ Prudence answerde ¶ Certes wel I woot / attempere wepyng / is no thyng defended to hym þat sorweful is / amonges folk in sorwe / but it is rather graunted hym to wepe [2179] ¶ The Apostle Paul / vn to the Romayns writeth ¶ Man shal reioyse with hem þat maken ioye / and wepen / with swich folk as wepen ¶ [2180] but thogh attempere wepyng be graunted / outrageous wopyng certis is defendid ¶ [2181] Mesure of wepyng sholde be considered / after the loore þat techeth vs Senek' [2182] ¶ When þat thy frend is deed quod he / lat nat thynne eyen / to moyste ben of terys / ne to muche drye / al thogh the terys come to thynne eyen / lat hem nat falle / [2183] And when thou hast forgoon thy frend / do diligencie to gete another frend / and this is moore wysdom / than for to wepe for thy frend / which þat thou hast lorn / for ther-inne is no boote / [2184] And therfore / if ye gouerne yow by sapience / put avey sorwe / out of youre herte / [2185] ¶ Remember yow / þat Ihesus Syrak seith

HENGWRT (6-T. 202) [leaf 116, back]

her wepyng' for to stynts: [2169] for whiche reson this noble prudence suffred her housbonde for to wepe and crye as for a certeyn space // [2170] And when she sawh her tyme she saide him in þis wyse / Alas my lord quod she whi make þe youre self for to be lyke a fool: [2171] forsothe it peretyeth nat to a wisman to maken such a sorwe / [2172] youre Doughter with þe grace of god shal be warished and asake / [2173] And all were it so þat sche right nowe were deed þe oughte nat as for hir deth: þe youre self dystroye // [2174] ¶ Senec seyth the wyse man shal nat take to greet disconfort for the deeth of hisse childern / [2175] but certis he schulde sufferyn it in pacience As wel as he a-bydyth the deeth of his propre persone /

[MS. Rep.
28 G. II, leaf 171.][1. leaf 157, Cantab. Libr., fol. 102
Sig. A. 2, capitula 107.]

[2176] ¶ This Melibeus answerde a-noon & seyde / What man quod he schulde of his wepyng stynte / that hath so greet a cause for to wepe / [2177] Ihesu crist' oure lord hym self wepte for the deeth of lazarus his frend [2178] ¶ Prudence answerde / certis wel I wot / attempere wepyng is no thyng defended to hym that sorweful is amongis folk in sorwe / but it is rather graunted hym to wepe [2179] ¶ The apostole pauls vn-to the romayns wyryth / Man schal reioyse with hem that makyn Ioye / And wepyn with swiche folk as wepyn / [2180] but thogh attempere wepyng be grauntid / outrageous wopyng certis is defendid / [2181] mesure of wepyng schulde been consideryd aftyr the loore that techith vs Senek' [2182] ¶ When that thyfn frend is deed quod he / let nat thynne eyen to moyste ben of terys / ne to meche drye / Al-thow thynne terys comyn to thynne eyen / lat hem nat fallun / [2183] And when thou hast forgoon thyfn frend [ . . . no gap in the MS. ] & this is moore wysdom / than for to wepe for thyfn frend / whiche that thou hast lorn / for thern-inne is no boote / [2184] And therfore / if þe gouerne þow be sapience / putte avey sorwe out of þoure hertis / [2185] Rememberth yow that Ihesus Syrak seith

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 202)

hire wepyng<sup>g</sup> for to stynte [2169] ¶ for which reson þis noble prudence suffrid hire husband for to wepe and crye as for a certeyn space [2170] ¶ And when sche saugh hire tyne sche seyde him in þis wyse ¶ Allas my lord quod sche why make 30 youre self for to be ylike a fool [2171] ¶ for soþe it is aperteyn<sup>g</sup> nouȝt to a wise man to maken such a sorwe [2172] ¶ your daughter wip þe grace of god schal be warisshed and askape [2173] ¶ And alle were it so þat sche right now were deed! 30 oughte nouȝt þe for hire deþ youre self to destruye [2174] ¶ Senek scip þe wiseman schal nouȝt take to grev<sup>g</sup> discomfort for þe deþ of his children [2175] but<sup>g</sup> certes he schulde suffre it in pacience as wel as he abydeþ þe deþ of his owen propre persone

[2176] ¶ This Melibeus answerde anon and sayde ¶ What man quod he schulde of his wepyng stynte þat haþ so grev<sup>g</sup> a cause for to wepe [2177] ¶ Ihesus crist oure lord himself wepte for þe deþ of lazarus his frend [2178] ¶ Prudence answerde ¶ certes wel I woot a-tempre wepyng<sup>g</sup> is nouȝt defendid vnto him þat sorrowful is among folk in sorwe ¶ But it is raper y-graunted him to wepe [2179] ¶ The apostol Paule. vnto þe Romayns writþ. Man schal reioyse wip hem þat maken ioye ¶ And weopen wip suche folk as wepen [2180] ¶ But þough a-tempre wepyng be y-graunted Outragous wepyng<sup>g</sup> certes is defended [2181] ¶ Mesurable wepyng schulde be considered after þe lore þat techþ vs Senek [2182] ¶ Whan þat þi frend is deed let nouȝt þi yen to moyete ben of teeres ne to dryue ¶ Al þough þe teeres comen of þi yen let hem nouȝt fallen [2183] ¶ And whan þou hast forȝon þi frende I rede þou do þi diligence to gete þe anoper. and þis is more wisen þan for to wepe for þyn frend þe which þat þou hast lore ¶ for þer-in is no boote [2184] ¶ And þerfore if þou lust gouerne þe by Sapience: putte away sorwe of youre herte. [2185] ¶ Rememberþ ȝou þat Ihesus Cyrak / scip

¶ Senek

¶ Ihesus
Cyrak

her wepyng forto stynt. [2169] for which reson þis noble wif Prudence suffrid her husbode forto wepe and crye as for a certeyn space. [2170] ¶ And when she segh her tyne she seide to him in þis wyse ¶ Allas my lord quod she whi maken 30 your self forto [sembler fol? [2171] ¶ Il n'appartient pas de sage homme de maken such a. sorowe. [2172] your daughter with þe grace of god schal warisshid and scape. [2173] And al were it so þat she riȝt now were dede. 30 ne scist not as for her deth your self destroie. [2174] ¶ Senec scip þe wise man schal not take to grev<sup>g</sup> discomfort for þe deþ of his children. [2175] but<sup>g</sup> certes he schuld suffre it in pacience / as wel as he abydeþ þe deþ of his owen propre persone.

[2176] ¶ This Melibeus answerd anon and sayde. What man quod he schulde of his wepyng stent. þat haþ so grev<sup>g</sup> a cause as I haue. [2177] Ihesu our lord him self wepte for þe deþ of lazarus his frende ¶ Qualiter Ihesus christus fleuit propter mortem Lazari. [2178] ¶ Prudence answerde. Certes wel I woot attempte wepyng is no þing defendid to him þat sorrowful is. amonges folk in sorowe. but it is rather graunted hym to wepe. [2179] ¶ The Apostol paul vnto þe Romayns. Apostolus a Romanos writþ. Man schal reioyse wip hem þat maken ioie. and wepe with suche folk as wepen: [2180] But þough attempte wepyng be graunted. certes outrage wepyng is defendid. [2181] ¶ Mesure of wepyng schulde be considered aftre þe lore þat techþ vs senec [2182] ¶ Whan þat þi frende is dede scip þe. lat not þi yen to moist<sup>g</sup> bene of teeres. comynȝ to þi yen. lat hem nat falle. [2183] And whan þow hast forȝon þi frende. Do diligence to geten anoper. and þis is more wisdomen þan forto wepe for þi frende which þat þow hast lorne. for þer-in nys no boote. [2184] And þer-fore if þe gouerne ȝou by sapience. putte away sorowe from ȝoure hertes. [2185] Rememberþ ȝou þat Ihesus Sirak scip.

here wepyng for to stinte [2169] ¶ For whiche reson þis noble prudence suffrid hir husband for to wepe & crye for a certeyn space. [2170] ¶ And when sche saugh hire time sche seide him in þis wyse // Alas my. lordes quod sche. whi maako ȝoure self for to be like a fol. [2171] ¶ For sothe it apertaigne not to a wiseman. To maak such a sorwe [2172] ¶ ȝours douȝter wip þe grace of god schal be warisshed & ascape [2173] And al were it so riȝt nowwe sche were dede. 30 ouht not as for hire deþe ȝoure self to destruye. [2174] ¶ Senec. ¶ Senec scipe. þe wiseman schal nouȝt tak to grev<sup>g</sup> discomfort for þe deþe of his childer. [2175] but certe he schulde suffere it in pacience. As wele as he abydeþ þe deþ of his owen propre person.

[2176] ¶ þis Millibeus answerde a-none & seide ¶ What man quod he schulde of his wepyng stinte þat haþ so grete a cause for to wepe: [2177] Ihesu crist oure lordes him self wepped for þe deþ of Lazarus his frende [2178] ¶ Prudence answerd: certes wele. I wote a-tempre wepyng is nouȝt defendid vnto him þat sorrowful is a-monges folk of sorwe. Bot it is raper graunted him to wepe [2179] ¶ þe Apostol paul vnto þe Romayns writþ. // Man schal reioyse wip hem þat hem þat maken ioye: & wepe wip suche folke as wepen. [2180] ¶ Bot þough a-tempre wepyng be graunted: Outragous wepyng certes is defendid. [2181] ¶ Mesurable wepyng schold be considered after þe lore þat techþ vs Senec [2182] ¶ Whan þat þi frende is ded lat nouȝt þi yen to moiste bien of teeres: ne to mucho drye ¶ Al þough þe tres comen of þi yen. lat hem nouȝt fallen [2183] ¶ And whan. þou hast for-ȝon þi frende. I. rede þou do þi diligence to gette þe a nother. And þis is more wysen þan to wepe for þi frende þe which þat þou hast lorne: For þer inne is no boote [2184] ¶ And þerfore if þe lust to gouerne þe by Sapience Putte awaie sorwe fro ȝoure hert. [2185] Rememberþ ȝowe þat. Ihesu Sirak. scipe:

¶ A man that is ioyous, and glad in herte / it hym conseneth florishyng in his age / But soothly / sorweful herte / maketh his bones drye [2186] ¶ He seith eek / thus / That sorwe in herte / sleeth ful many a man [2187] ¶ Salomon seith / That right as Mothens in the shepes flees / anyeth to the clothes / and the smale wormes to the tree / right so anyeth sorwe to the herte [2188] wherfore / vs oghte as wel in the deeth of our children / as in the losse of oþere goodes temporels haue pacience

[2189] ¶ Remembre yow vp on the pacient Iob / whan he hadde lost his children and his temporel substance / and in his body endured and receyued ful many a greuous tribulacion? yet seyde he thus [2190] ¶ Our lord / [Is ma' domé; nostre Seigneur] luth birafit ik me / right as our lord hath wold / right so it is don / blessed be the name of our lord [2191] ¶ To thisse forseide thynges / answerde Melibeus / vn to his wyf Prudence ¶ Alle thy wordes quod he been sothe / and therwith profitable / but trewely / myn herte is troubled with this sorwe so greuously / that I noot what to doone [2192] ¶ Lat calle quod Prudence thy trowe freendes alle / and thy lynage / whiche that been wise / telleth youre cas / and herketh what they seye in consaylyng / and yow gouerne after his sentence [2193] ¶ Salomon seith / werk alle thy thynges by conseil / and thou shalt neuer repente

[2194] ¶ Thanne by the conseil of his wyf Prudence / this Melibeus leet callen a greet congregacion of folk / [2195] as surgeons / Physicians olde folk and yonge / and somme of hise olde enemyes reconseiled / as by hir semblant to his loue / and in to his grace / [2196] and ther-withal / ther comen somme of hise neighbores / that didnen hym reuerence / moore for drede than for loue / as it happeth ofte [2197] ¶ Ther comen also / ful many subtille flaterers / and wise Aduocats lorned in the lawe /

[2198] And whan this folk / togidre assembled weren / this Melibeus in sorweful wyf / shewed hem his cas /

A man þat is ioyous and glad in herte / it hym conseneth florishyng in his age / but soothly / sorweful herte / maketh his bones drye || [2186] He seith eek thus / þat sorwe in herte / sleeth ful many a man || [2187] Salomon seith / that right as Mothens in the Shepes flees / anyeth to the clothes / and the smale wormes to the tree / right so anyeth sorwe to the herte / [2188] wherfore / vs oghte as wel in the deeth of our children / as in the losse of cure goodes temporels / haue pacience ||

[2189] Remembre yow / vp on the pacient Iob / whan he hadde lost his children / and his temporel substance / and in his body endured & receyued ful many a greuous tribulacion / yet seide he thus || [2190] Our lord / hath [seute it me / our lord hath] birafit ik me / right so as our lord hath wold / right so it is don / yblessede be / the name of our lord [2191] ¶ To thisse forseide thynges / answerde Melibeus / vn to his wif Prudence || Alle thy wordes quod he been sothe / & ther to profitable / but trewely / myn herte is troubled with this sorwe / so greuously þat I noot what to doon [2192] ¶ Lat calle quod Prudence / thy trowe freendes alle / & thy lynage / whiche þat been wise / telleth youre cas / & herketh what they seye in consaylyng / & yow gouerne / after his sentence [2193] ¶ Salomon seith / Werk alle thy thynges by conseil / & thou shalt neuer repente //

[2194] Thanne by the conseil of his wyf Prudence / this Melibeus leet callen a greet congregacion of folk / [2195] as Sirurgens / Physicians / olde folk and yonge / & somme of hise olde enemyes reconseiled / as by hir semblant to his loue / & in to his grace / [2196] And ther-withal / þer comen somme of hise neighbores / þat didnen hym reuerence / moore for drede than for loue / as it happeth ofte || [2197] ¶ Ther comen also / ful many subtille flaterers / and wise Aduocats lorned in the lawe /

[2198] And whan this folk / togidre assembled weren / this Melibeus in sorweful wyf / shewed hem his cas /

A man that is ioyous & glad in herte / it hym conseneth florishyng in his Age / & sothly sorweful herte maketh his bones drye [2186] he seith ek thus that sorwe in herte / sleth ful manye a man [2187] ¶ Salomon seyth / that ryght as mothis in the shepiss flesch anyeth to the clothis / & the smale wormys to the tree / rygh so anyeth sorwe to the herte. [2188] Wherfore vs oughte as wel in the deeth of our children / as in the loos of cure goodys temporelys haue pacience

[2189] ¶ Remenbrith yow vp-on the pacient Iob / Whan he hadde lost hise childeryn & his temporel substance / & in his body enduryng & receyuyd ful manye a greuous trybulacion / yet seyde he thus [2190] ¶ Our lord hath [seute it me / our lord hath] be-raft ik me / rygh so as our lord hath wold / rygh so it is don / I-blyssede be the name of our lord / [2191] ¶ To these forseide thyngis / Answeide Melybeus to his wyf prudence ¶ Alle thynne wordys quod he been sothe & therio profitable / but trewely myn herte is troubled / with this sorre so greuously / that I not what to don. [2192] ¶ Lat calle quod Prudence thy trowe frendys alle / and thy lynage / whiche that been wyse tellyth youre cas And herkenyth what they seye in consaylyng And yow gouerne aftyr here sentence [2193] ¶ Salomon seith werke alle thyn thyngis by consayl / & thou shalt neuere repente

[2194] ¶ Thanne by the consayl of his wyf Prudence / this Melibeus leet callyn / a greet congregacioun / of folk / [2195] as Surgeons Physicians olde folk And yunge & some of hise olde enemyis reconseiled As by her semblant / to his loue & in to his grace / [2196] & therewithal there come some of hise neighboris that dydyn hem reuerence / moore for drede than for loue as it happith ofte / [2197] There comyn also manye subtile flaterers / & wise aduocats / lerned in the lawe

[2198] ¶ And whan these folk togedre assembled were / this Melibeus in sorweful wyse / schewed hem his cas /

a man þat is Ioyous and glad in herte hit him conserueþ florishing' in his age ¶ But soþly sorowful herte makeþ his bones drye [2186] ¶ He seiþ eek þus ¶ Salomon ¶ þat sorwe in herte sleþ ful many a man [2187] Salomon. seiþ þat riht as moughtes in þe schepes flees annoyen to þe cloþes and þe smale wormes of þe trees ¶ Riht so annoyen sorowe to þe herte [2188] ¶ Wherefore we oust as wel in þe deþ of oure children as in þe losse of oure good haue pacience

¶ 125 [2189] ¶ Remembreþ 3ow vpon þe pacient Iob. when he hadde lost his children and his tempere substance / In his body endured and suffred many a greuous temptacion ¶ 3et seyde he þus [2190] ¶ Oure lord quod he haþ 3oue it me ¶ Oure lord haþ byrefit it me Riht so as oure lord haþ wolde riht so be it don. y-blessed be þe name of oure lord [2191] ¶ To þese afore þinges Melibous answerde to his wyf dame Prudence / Alle þine wordes quod he ben soþe and þerto profitable ¶ But trewly myn herte is troubled wip þis sorwe so greuously þat I not wat to done [2192] ¶ I lef calle quod Prudence þin trewe frendes alle and þin lynage whiche þat ben wise Telle hem þyn caas [caas] and herke what þay say in counseillynge and þou gouernest þer after here sentence [2193] Salomon seiþ werk alle þing' by counsell and þou schalt neuer repente þe

[2194] ¶ Thanne by þe counsell of his wyf dame Prudence; Melibous lef callen a gret congregacion of folk [2195] [ . . . . . no gap] olde and 3onge and some of his olde enemyes reconciled as by here semblant in to his loue and in to his grace [2196] ¶ And þer-wiþ-al þer come somme of his olde neyghbours and þat deden him reuerence more for drede þan for loue as it happed ofte [2197] ¶ Ther comþ also ful many subtil flaterers and wyse aduocatis lerned in þe lawe

[2198] And whan þis folk / togidre assembled were / This Melibous in sorowful wise showed hem þis caas.

A man þat is Iolous and glad in hert' it conserueþ hym florschyng' in his age But' sely sorowful hert' makeþ his bonys drie. [2186] He seiþ eke þus. þat sorowe in hert' sleþeþ ful mopy a man. [2187] Salomon seiþ: þat riht as mothes in þe shepes fleese annoyen to þe cloþes. and þe smale wormes to þe trees. Riht so annoyen sorowe to þ' herte [2188] 'Wherefore was ayt' as wel in þe deþ of oure children as in þe losse of our goodes temporeles haue pacience.

[2189] Remembreþ 3owe vpon pacient Iob. When he had lost his children and his temporell substance and in his body endured mony a greuous tribulacion 3it' saide he þus. [2190] Our lord' haþ [3]eue it me / our lord' haþ byrafit it me Riht' so as our lord' wolde riht' so is it done. yblessed be þe name of our lord' [2191] ¶ To þise foreseide þingges answered Melibius vnto his wif Prudence Ah þise wordes quod he bene trowe. and þerto profitable. But' trewly myn hert' is troubled soo. wip þis sorowe. so griaþ þat I note what' to doon. [2192] Let' calle quod prudence þi trewe frendes alle. and þine lynage which þat bene wise. telleþ 3our caas and herkeneþ what' þei say in counsailinge. And þou gouerna after þer sentence. [2193] Salomon seiþ wrik al þi þing' by counsil and þou schalt neuere repent'

[2194] ¶ Than by þe counsaile of [his wif Prudence] [Melibius appella moult de] folk'. [2195] as Sirgyuus. Phisiciens. olde folk and 3onge. and som of his olde enemyes reconciled as by her countenance to his loue and into his grace. [2196] And þerwipal þer comen somme of his neyghbours þat didden him reuerence. more for drede þan for loue as it happed oft' [2197] ¶ Ther comen also ful many subtil flaterers and wise aduocates lered in þe lawe.

[2198] And whan þise folk' to-gydere were assembled. this Melebius in sorowful wise showed hem his caas.

A man þat is ioyus & gladde in hert' it him conserueþ florischeing' in his Age. Bot' soþely Sorowful hert' Makeþ his bones drye [2186] ¶ He seiþ eke þus: þat sorwe in hert. sleþeþ mony a man. [2187] Salomon seiþ þat riht as moughtes in þe schepes flees annoyen to þe cloþes An þe smale wormes on þe tres vn to þe fruyte: Riht so annoyen sorowe vnto þe hert' // [2188] Wherefore we oust as wale in þe deþe of oure childerne: as in þe losse of oure godes tempere! ¶ Hauē pacience.

[2189] Remembre 3owe vpon þe pacient ¶ Iob. when he hadde lost his children & his temporell substance. And in his 'bodi endured & suffred many a greuous temptacion; 3it' seid he þus. [2190] ¶ Owro lord' quod he 3auē it me. oure lord' haþ be-rafit it me. Riht' so as oure lord' haþe wolde: riht' so be it done. y-blessed be þe name of oure lord' [2191] ¶ To þis afore þinges Melibius answered to his wif Dame prudence. Al þi wordes quod he bien soþe & þer-to profitable. Bot' trewely Min hert' is trobled wip þis sorwe so greuously þat I. note what to done. [2192] ¶ Late cal quod prudence þine trewe frendes al' & þin lignage whiche þat bien wise: telle hem þin caas & herken what þei seime in counsailing: And 3owe gouerne þere after here sentence // [2193] Salomon seiþ ¶ worche al þi þing' be counsel' & þou schal neuer repent.

[2194] Than be counsel of his wif dame Prudence. Melibous lete callen a grette congregacion of folke [2195] [ . . . . . no gap] olde & 3onge. And somme of his olde enemyes reconciled as be her semblant in to his loue & in to his grace. [2196] And þer-wiþ-al cam somme of his neyghbours þat diden him reuerence more for drede þan for loue as it happed oft' [2197] ¶ þere cometh also ful many a subtil flaterers and wise aduocates lerned in þe lawe.

[2198] And whan þis folk togidre assembled were This Melibius in sorowful wise scheweð hem þis caas.

[2199] and by the manere of his speche / it semed wel / that in herte / he bar a cruel Ire / redy to doon vengeance vp on his foes / and sodeynly desired / that the werre sholde bigynne / [2200] but natheles / yet axed he hire conseil vpon this matiere [2201] ¶ A Surgien by licence and assent of swiche as weren wise / vp roos / and to Melibens / seyde / as ye may here

[2202] ¶ Sire quod he / as to vs Surgiens aperteneth / that we do to euery wight the beste that we kan / where as we be withholden / and to oure pacient that we do no damage / [2203] wherfore it happeth many tyme and ofte / that whan they men / han euerych wounded oother / oon same surgien healeth hem bothe / [2204] wherfore / vn to oure Art it is nat pertinent to norice werre ne parties to supporte ¶. [2205] But certes / as to the warisshynge of youre doghter / al be it so / that she perilously be wounded / we shullen do so ententif bysnesse fro day to nyght that with the grace of god / she shal be hool and sound / as soone as is possible [2206] ¶ Almost / right in the same wise / the Phisiciens answerden / saue that they seyden / a fewe wordes moore / [2207] That right as maladies / been cured by hir contraries / right so / shul men wariaше were by vengeance [2208] ¶ Hise neighbors ful of enuye / hise feyned frendes that semeden reconciled / and hise flaterers / [2209] maden semblant of wepyng' and empoyred and aggredden muchel of this matiere in praisynge greetly Melibe / of myght / of power / of richesse / and of frendes despyynge / the power of hise Adversaries / [2210] and seiden outrelly that he anon sholde wroken hym on his foes and bigynne werre

[2211] ¶ Vp roos thanne an Aduoct that was wys / by leue and by conseil of othere that were wise / and seide ¶. [2212] Lordynges / the node for which we ben assembled / in this place / is ful heuy thyng' and an heigh matiere / [2213] by cause of the wrong' and of the wikkednesse that hath be doon / and eek by reson of the grete damages that

[2199] and by the manere of his speche / it semed þat in herte / he bar a cruel Ire / redy to doon vengeance vp on his foes / and sodeynly desired / þat the werre sholde bigynne / [2200] but natheles / yet axed he hir conseil vpon on this matiere ¶ [2201] A Sirurgien / by licence and assent of swiche as were wise / vp roos / & vn to Melibens / seyde as ye may here

[2202] ¶ Sire quod he / as to vs Sirurgiens aperteneth that we do to euery wight / the beste þat we kan / where as we be withholden / and to oure pacient / þat we do no damage / [2203] whar fore / it happeth many tyme & ofte / þat whan they men / han enerich wounded oother / o same Sirurgien healeth hem bothe / [2204] wherfore vn to oure Art it is nat pertinent to norice werre / ne parties to supporte / [2205] but certes / as to the warisshynge of youre doghter / al be it so / þat she perilously be wounded / we shullen do so ententif bysnesse fro day to nyght þat with the grace of god / she shal be hool & sound / as soone as is possible [2206] ¶ Almost / right in the same wise / the Phisiciens answerden / saue þat they seyden / a fewe werdes moore ¶ [2207] that right as maladies ben cured by hir contraries / right so shal man wariaше werre by vengeance [2208] ¶ Hise neghobors ful of enuye / Hise feyned frendis / þat semeden reconciled / hise flaterers [2209] maden semblant of wepyng' and empoyred / & aggredd muchel of this matere / in praisynge greetly Melibe / of myght / of power / of richesse / & of frendes / despyynge / the power of hise Adversaries / [2210] and seyden outrelly / þat he anon / sholde wroke hym on his foes / and bigynne werre

[2211] ¶ Vp roos thanne an Aduoct þat was wys / by leue & by conseil / of othere þat weren wise / and seyde ¶ [2212] Lordynges / the node for the which we ben assembled in this place / is ful heuy thyng' and an 'heigh matere / [2213] by cause of the wrong' & of the wikkednesse / that hath be doon / and eek by reson of the grete damages / þat

[2199] & by the manere of hise speche / it semyd that in herte he bar a cruel yre / redy to doon vengeance vp-on his foes / & sodeynly desired that the werre shulde bigynne / [2200] but neuere the las yit axede he here conseil / vp-on this matyere / [2201] A surgen by lyceunce / And assent of swече as were wys vp ros & vn-to Melybeus seyde as were here

[2202] ¶ Sire quod he / as to vs surgenys aperteneth that we do to euery wight the beste / that we can where as we been with holdyn / And to oure pacient that we don no damage / [2203] Wherfore it happith manye tyme / & ofte that whan they men / hath euerych woundyd othyr .O. same surgen helyth hem bothe / [2204] Wherfore vn-to oure art it is nat perteynent to noryche werre / no partyis to supporte [2205] ¶ But setys as to the waryschyng' of youre doghtir Al be it so sche be perlyously woundit we schul do so ententif bysnesse / fro day to nygh That with the grace of god sche schal beon hool & sound / as soone as is possible / [2206] Almost ry3t in the same wys the phisycionys answeredyn / Saue that they seydn a fewe wordys moore / [2207] that ryght as maladyis ben cured by here contraryis / rygh so schal men waryeche / werre! by vengeance [2208] ¶ Hise neghobors ful of enuye / Hise feyned frendis that semede reconcylid / and hise flaterers [2209] madyn semblant Of wepyng' / & empoyred & aggrede meche of this matyr. in preyrynge greetly Melibie / of mygh of power / of rycheesse & of frendys / despyynge the power of hise adonaryis [2210] & seydydn vtrly that thy schuldyn Anon wrokydn hym on his foes & bigynne werre /

[2211] vp ros i thanne an Aduoct / that was wys / by leue & dy conseil of othere / that were wyse & seyde [2212] ¶ Lordyngis the node which that we ben assembled in this place / is ful heuy thyng' / & an heigh matire [2213] by cause of the wrong' / & the wikkednesse that hath ben doon / & ek by resoun of the grete damages / that

[2199] ¶ And by þe manere of þis speche he bar in his herte a cruel yre redy to don vengeance vpon his foos And soodeynly desired þat þe werre schulde begynne [2200] ¶ But nauþeles ȝit asked he here counsell vpon þis matere [2201] A Surgien by licence and assent of suche as were wyse vp roe vnto Melibeus and sayde us so may here

[2202] Sir quod he as to vs surgienis aperteynþ to euery right þe beste þat we can were as we ben wipholde ¶ And to oure pacienes þat we do no damages [2203] þerfore it zappeth many tymes and ofte þat when tuo men haue euerych wounded oþer O same Surgien helep hem boþe [2204] ¶ Wherefore vnto oure art it nys nouȝt perteynþ to norische werre ne parties to supporte [2205] ¶ But certes as to þe warissing of your doughter be it so þat sche is perilously wounded: we schulde do so entently byaynes fro day to nyght þat wij þe grace of god sche schal be sound and hool as some as it is possible [2206] ¶ All men in þis same wyse answerden and þe Phisicians. saue þat þay sayden a fewe wordes more [2207] þat right as maladies ben heled by þe contraries Right so schal men warissche werre by vengeance [2208] His neyghbours full of enuye his feynede frendes þat semed reconciled his flaterers [2209] made semblant of wepyng empoyred and engregged moche of his matiere in preysyng gretly Melibeus of might of power of riches and of frendes despyryng þe power of his aduersaries [2210] and sayden outrely þat he anon schulde avreken him on his enemies and begynne werre

[2211] ¶ Vp roe þanne an aduoket þat was wyse and sayde by leue and by counsell of oþer þat were wyse ¶ And sayde [2212] lordynges the neede for þe which we ben assembled in þis place is a ful heuy þinge and an height matere [2213] by cause of þe wronge and of þe wilknedesse þat haþ ben don and eke by reson of þe grette damage /

[2199] And by þe manere of his speche it semed þat in his hert he bere a cruel yre. redy to do vengeance vpon his foos. And soodeynly þan desired þat þe werre shuld bygyne [2200] But nauþeles ȝit axed he her counsaile vpon þis matere. / [2201] ¶ A Sirurgien by licence and assent of such as were wyse vp aroos and vnto melebius saide as thus here

[2202] ¶ Sir quod he as to vs Syrrurgience appentep þat we doo to euery right þe best þat we can. wher as we bene wipholden. and to our pacienes þat we do no damage. [2203] Wherefore it happeth mony tyme and oft þat when þat twey men had euerych wounded oþere oon Sirurgien helep hem boþe. [2204] Wherefor vnto our art it is nouȝt appertent to norische werre ne parties to supporte / [2205] But certes as to þe warissing of youre doughter al be it so þat she perilously be wounded we schulldo do so entantif byaynes fro day to nyght That wij þe grace of god she schal be hool and sounde as some as is possible [2206] ¶ Almost riȝt in þe same wise þe Phisicien answeret saue þat þei seiden a fewe wordes moore. [2207] That riȝt as maladies bene heled by hire contraries saued Riȝt soo schal man warissche werre by vengeance. [2208] His neyghbours ful of envie his feyned frendes þat semeden reconciled his flaterors [2209] made semblant of wepyng and enpeinen and engreggen mochel of þis matere in preising gretly meleby of myȝt. of power. of Richesse and of frendes. Dispisinge þe power of his aduersaries / [2210] and seiden vtrely þat he anon schuld wreke hym. on his foes and bygyne werre.

[2211] ¶ Vp roos þan an aduocate þat was wise. by leue and by counsaile of oþer þat were wise. and saide. [2212] ¶ Lordynges þe neede for þe which we bene assembled in þis place is ful heuy þinge. and a grette matere [2213] by cause of þe wronge and of þe wilknedesse þat haþ bene doon. and eke by reson of a grette damage þat

[2199] And by þe manere of speche he bare in his herte a cruel yre rede to do vengeance vpon his foos: // And sodanly desired þat werre schuld / begynne [2200] ¶ Bot nauþeles ȝit axed he counselle vpon þis matere [2201] ¶ A Surgeane / be licence / & assent of suche as were wise vp rose vn to Melibeus & saide as so matie here.

[2202] Sir quod he as to vs surgians aperteynþ to euery wright þe best þat we can where as we be wip-holde & to oure pacience þat we do no damage. [2203] Therfor it happeth mony time & oft. þat when tuo men haue eueryche wounded oþere one same surgean helep hem boþe. [2204] Wherefor vnto oure arte it is nouȝt pertinent: to norische werre ne parties to supporte [2205] Bot certes as to þe warissching of youre doughter be it so þat sche is perilously wounded. we shold done so ententfully be signes fro daie to nyht þat wij þe grace of god sche schal be sounds & hole as some as it is possible [2206] ¶ Al men in þe same wise answerden & þe Phisicians. saue þei seiden a fewe wordes more [2207] ¶ That riȝt as Maladies bene heled be hire contraries // Riȝt so schal men warissche werre be vengeance [2208] his neyghbour ful of envyte: // His feyned frendes þat semed reconciled. his flaterers [2209] made semblant of wepyng empairod & engregged muche of his matiere in preysing gretly // Melibeus of myht of pouere of riches & of frende. Dispisinge þe powere of his aduersaries. [2210] & seiden outrely þat he anon scholde wreken him on his enemys & begynne werre

[2211] Vp rose þan an Advocate þat was wise & saide be leue & be counsaile of oþer þat were wise. & saide. [2212] Lordynges þe neede for which we bene assembled in þis place is a ful heuy þinge. & an hille matiere [2213] because of þe wronge & of þe wilknedesse þat haþe ben done. And eke be reson of þe grette. damage

in tyme comynge / been possible to fallen for this same cause / [2214] And ek by reson / of the grete rychesse & power of the parties bothe / [2215] for the whiche reasons / it were a ful greet peril to erren in this matiere [2216] ¶ wherfore / Melibeus this is oure sentence / we conseilte you abouen alle thyng<sup>s</sup>. that right anon / thou do thy diligence in kepynge<sup>s</sup> of thy propre persone / in swich a wise þat thou wante noon espie / ne vache / thy persone for to saue [2217] ¶ And after that we conseilte þat in thyn hous / thou sette sufficient garnison so that they may / as wel thy body as thyn hous defende [2218] ¶ But certes / for to moue werre / or sodeynly for to doon vengeance / we may nat demen / in so liel tyme / that it were profitable / [2219] Wherfore we axen leysur & espace / to haue deliberacioun / in this cas to deme / [2220] for the commune prouerbe seith thus ¶ He that soone demeth. soone shal repente [2221] And eek men seyn / that thilke Iuge is wys that soone vnderstondeth a matiere and Iuggeth by leysur [2222] ¶ for al be it so that alle taryng be anyful / algates / it is nat to repreue in yeuyng of Ingement<sup>s</sup> / ne in vengeance takyn<sup>g</sup>. when it is sufficient and resonable [2223] ¶ And that shewed oure lord Ihesu crist by ensample / for when that the woman / that was taken in Auourtrie was brought in his presence / to knowen / what sholde be doon with hire persone / al be it so that he wiste wel hym self / what that he wolde answere / yet he wolde he nat answere sodeynly / but he wolde haue deliberacioun / and in the ground<sup>s</sup> he vroot twis / [2224] and by this causes / we axen deliberacioun / and we shal thanne by the grace of god / conseilte thes thyng / that shal be profitable /

[2225] ¶ Vp stirten thanne / the yonge folk atones / and the mooste partie of that compaignye scorned the olde wise men and bigonnen to make noyse / & seyden / that [2226] right so / as whil that Iren is hoot<sup>s</sup> men sholden smyte / right so / men sholde wreken hir wronges / while in tyme comynge been possible to fallen / for the same cause / [2214] And ek by reson / of the grete rychesse & power of the parties bothe / [2215] for the whiche reasons / it were a ful greet peril to erren in this matiere [2216] ¶ wherfore Melibeus / this is oure sentence ¶ we conseilte you abouen alle thyng<sup>s</sup>. þat right anon thou do diligence in kepynge<sup>s</sup> of thy propre persone / in swich a wise / þat thou ne wante noon espie / ne vache / thy body for to saue [2217] ¶ And after þat we conseilte / þat in thyn hous / thou sette sufficient garnyson / so þat they may as wel / thy body / as thyn hous defende [2218] ¶ But certes / for to moue werre / ne sodeynly for to doon vengeance / we may nat deme in so liel tyme / þat it were profitable / [2219] Wherfore / we axen leysur & espace / to haue deliberacioun / in this cas to deme / [2220] for the commune prouerbe seith this / he þat soone demeth / soone shal repente [2221] ¶ And eek men seyn / þat thilke Iuge is wys / þat soone vnderstondeth a matiere / & Iuggeth by leysur / [2222] for al be it so þat al taryng<sup>g</sup> be anyful / algates it is nat to repreue / in yeuyng of Ingement<sup>s</sup> / ne in vengeance takyn<sup>g</sup>. when it is sufficient and resonable / [2223] and that shewed oure lord Ihesu crist by ensample / for when þat the woman þat was taken in auourtrie / was brought in his presence / to knowen / what sholde be doon with hire persone / al be it þat he wiste wel hym self / what þat he wolde answere / yet he wolde he nat answere sodeynly / but he wolde haue deliberacioun / and in the ground / he vroot twis / [2224] and by this causes / we axen deliberacioun / and we shul thanne / by the grace of god conseilte thes / thyng<sup>s</sup> that shal be profitable /

[2225] ¶ Vp stirten thanne / the yonge folk atones / and the mooste partie of that compaignye / han scorned / this olde wise men / and bigonnen to make noyse / & seyden / that [2226] right so / as whil þat Iren is hoot<sup>s</sup> men sholde smyte<sup>s</sup> / right so sholde men / wreken hir wronges / whil

in tyme comynge been possible to fallyn for the same / [2214] & ek by reson of the grete rychesse & power of the partyis bothe [2215] for the whiche reasons / it were a ful greet peril / to erryn in this matyer [2216] ¶ Wherfore Mellybeus this is oure sentens. we conseilte you a-boyns alle thyng<sup>s</sup> / that rygh a-non thou do thyng dyligence / in kepynge<sup>s</sup> of thyn propre persone in ewich a wyse / that thou ne wante noon espie / ne wache thy body for to saue [2217] ¶ And aftry that we conseilte That in thyn hous shal sette suffyciaunt-garnyson. so that they may as wel thyn body as thyn hous defende [2218] But certys for to mene werre / ne sodeynly for to doon vengeance we may nat deme in so Jyrlt tyme. that it were profitable / [2219] Wherfore we axe leysur & espace to haue delyberacioun / in this cas to doeme [2220] for the commune prouerbe seith this / He that soone demyth some schal repente: [2221] & ek men seyn that<sup>s</sup> thylke Iuge is wys that some vndyrstondyth a matiere And Iugith be leysur [2222] for al be it so that alle taryng be a-noyful algatis it is nat to be repreud in yeuyng of iugment / ne in vengeance takynge when it is sufficient & resonable / [2223] & that schewed oure lord Ihesu cryst by ensample / for when that woman was takyn in auourtrie was brought in his presence to knowyn what schulde been doon of hire persone / al be it that he wryte weel / hym self what that he wolde answere? yet he wolde he nat answere sodeynly but he wolde haue deliberacioun & in the ground he wrot / twyis / [2224] & by these causes / we axe deliberacioun & we schul thanne by the grace of god conseyle the thyng that schal been profitable //

[2225] vp skyrtyn thanne the yonge fok at onys & the mooste partye of that compaignye / han skorned this olde wise men And begonne to make noyse / & seydyn / that [2226] ryght so as whil that yryn is hoot / men schuldyn smytyn. rygh so schuldyn men wreke here wronges / whil

in tyme comynge bon possible to falle for þis same cause [2214] and eek by reson Of þe grete riches and power of þe parties boþe [2215] ¶ for þe which reasons it were a gret perile for to erren in þis matiere // [2216] wherefore melibeus þis is oure sentence we counsaile þou abouen alle þinges þat riht anon þou do þi diligence in kepynge of þi propre persone in suche a wyse þat þou ne wante none aspye ne wacche þi body for to saue [2217] ¶ And after þat we counsaile þat þou sette in þin hous sufficient garnyson ¶ So þat þei may as wel þy body and þin hous defende [2218] ¶ But certes for to meue werte ne sodainly for to do vengeance ¶ We may notif demer in so lital tyme þat it were profitable [2219] wherefore we axen leysir and space to haue deliberacion in þis cas to deme [2220] For þe comune prouerbe seip þus. he. þat some demer some schal repente [2221] ¶ And eek men say þus þat þilke Inge is wys þat some understandeþ a matiere and lugeþ by leysir [2222] ¶ for al be it so þat alle tarynge be noyful: algates it is nat to reproue in þouynge of Iuggement ne in vengeance takeynge whanno it is sufficient and resonable. [2223] and þat shewed oure lord ihesu crist by ensample ¶ for when þat þe woman was taken in adouctrye was brought in his presence to knowe what schal ben don with hire persone ¶ Al be it so þat he wiste wel him self what þat he wolde answer: ȝit he wolde he nouȝt answere sodainly but he wolde haue deliberacion and in þe grounde he wrot twyse [2224] ¶ And by þis cause we axen deliberacion And we schullen þanne by þe grace of god counsaile þe þe þinges þat schal be profitable

[2225] ¶ Vp sterte þenne þe ȝonge folk abouen: and þe moste partie of þat company haue scorned þis elde wise man and bygonne to make noyse and sayden [2226] riht so ¶ as whiles þat yren is hoot men schulden smyte ¶ Riht so men schulden wreken here wronges whiles

in tyme comynge is possible to fallen. for þe same. [2214] and eke by reson of þe grete riches and power of þe parties boþe. [2215] for þe which reasons it were a ful grete perile to erren in þis matere. [2216] Wherefore melibeus þis is our sentence. we counsaile þou abouen al þing. þat riht anon þou do diligence in þe keepings of þoure propre persone in such a wise þat þou ne wante none espie ne wacche. þoure body for to saue. [2217] And after þat we counsaile þat in þoure hous þe sette sufficient harmays. so þat þei mowe as wel þoure body as þour hous defende [2218] But certes for to meue werte. or sodainly to doo vengeance we mowe not demer in so lital tyme þat were profitable [2219] wherefore we axen leysir and space to haue deliberacion in þis cas to deme. [2220] for þe Comun prouerbe seip þus. Ho þat some demer some schal repent. [2221] And eke men say þat þilke Inge is wis þat some understandeþ a matier. and Iuggeþ by leysir. [2222] for al be it so þat tarynge be noyful. Vengeance takeynge whan it is so sufficient and resonable. [2223] & swed oure lord ihesu crist by ensample. for when þe woman þat was taken in avouctrie / was brought in his presence to knowen what shuld be doon of her persone. al be it þat he wiste wel him self what he wolde answer [soutenverbe al ne respondiþ pas] sodainly. but he wolde haue deliberacion. And in þe grounde he wrot threwe. [2224] and by þis cause we axe deliberacion. And we shul þan by grace of good counsaile doo þing that shal be profitable

[2225] ¶ Vp storten þen þe ȝonge folk at onys and þe moste partie of þat company han scorned þis wise elde man and bygonne to make noyse and seiden. [2226] Riht so þe while þat yren is hoot. men shulde smyle. Riht so shuld men wreken her harmes and wrogges.

in time comynge. bien possible to fal for þis same cause. [2214] & eke þe reson of þe grete riches & power of þe parties boþe. [2215] For which reasons it were a grete perile for to erren in þis matiere [2216] ¶ Wherefore Melibeus þis is our sentence: We counsel þoue a-boue al þinges þat riht anon þou do þi diligence in keepynge of þi propre persone in suche [a wise] þat þou ne wante none aspie. ne to wacche þine bodie for to saue. [2217] ¶ And after þat we counsaile þat þou setten in þine hous sufficient garnyson so þat þei mowe þi body also wole as þine hous defende. [2218] ¶ Botte certes for to meue werte no sodanly to done vengeance we maie nouht deme in so lital tyme þat it were profitable. [2219] wherefore we Axen leysir & space to haue deliberacion in þis cas to deme [2220] ¶ For þe comune prouerbe seip þus ¶ Ho þat some demer some schal repent [2221] ¶ And eke men same þus ¶ That ilke Inge is wise þat some understandeþ a matier: & Iugeþ b[ut] leysir [2222] ¶ For al-be-it so: þat a tarynge be a-noyful. Algates it is not to reproue in þoueyng of Iuggement ne in vengeance takeynge. whan it is sufficient & resonable [2223] ¶ And þat schwde oure lord ihesu cristis be ensample. For when þat woman was taken in adouctre & was browhte in his presence to knowe what schal be done wip hire persone ¶ Albeit so þat he wist wole him self what þat he wolde answer. ȝete ne wolde he answere sodainly bot he wold haue deliberacions. And in þe grounde he wrote twyce. [2224] And be þis cause we axen deliberacions. And we schal þan by þe grace of god counsaile þe þe þinges þat schullen be profitable

[2225] vp stert þan þe ȝonge folk at oncs And þe-most partie of þat compaignie huþe scorned þis elde wise man. & begonnen to maken noyce & seiden [2226] riht so ¶ Al þe while þat yren is hote men schold smyte. Riht so men scholde wreken here wronges whiles

þat they been freshe and newe / and with loud voyz / they criden werre / worre

[2227] ¶ Vp roos tho / oon of thise olde wise / and with his hand made contenance / that men sholde holden hem stille and yoven hym Audiance [2228] ¶ Lordynges quod he / ther is ful many a man / that crieth werre / worre / þat woot ful lital / what were amounteth [2229] ¶ Werre at his bigynnyng' hath so greet an entryng' and so large / that euery wight' may entre whan hym liketh / and lightly fynde werre / [2230] But certes / what ende / þat ther-of shal falle / it is nat light to knowe || [2231] ¶ For soothly / whan þat werre is ones bigonne / ther is ful many a child / vnborn of his moder / that shal sterue yong' by cause of that ilke werre / or elles lyue in sorwe / and dye in wretchednesse || [2232] And ther fore / er þat any werre bigonne / men mooste haue greet conseil and greet deliberacioun [2233] ¶ And whan thise olde man / wende / to enforen his tale by reasons / wel nygh alle atones / bigonne they to rise / for to breken his tale / and boden hym ful ofte / hisse wordes / for to abregge / [2234] ¶ For soothly / he that prebeth to hem / that listen nat heren hisse wordes / his sermon hem anoyeth [2235]

¶ For Ihesus Syrak seith / that Musik' in wepyng' is anoyous thyng. this is to seyn ¶ As meche auailleth to spoken bifore folk / to whiche his speche anoyeth / as it is to synge / bifore hym þat wepeth || [2236] And this wise man / saugh that hym wanted audiance / and al shamefast he sette hym down agayn [2237] ¶ For Salomon seith || ther as thou ne mayst haue noon Audiance / enforece thee nat to speke [2238] ¶ I see wel quod this wise man / þat the comune prouerbe is soth || That good conseil wanteth / whan it is moost nede

[2239] ¶ Yet hadde this Melibeus in his conseil / many folk / þat priuily in his eere counselled hym certeyn thyng. and counselled hym the contrarie in general Audiance

¶ Melibeus [2240] Whan Melibeus hadde herd / that the greeteste

þat they been / freshe & newe / and with loud voyz / they criden. Werre. werre ||

[2227] Vp roos tho. oon of thise olde wise / & with his hand made contenance / þat men sholde holden hem stille / and yoven hym audiance [2228] ¶ Lordynges quod he / ther is ful many a man þat crieth werre. werre. þat woot ful lital / what were amounteth || [2229] Werre at his bigynnyng' hath so greet an. entree & so large / þat euery wight' may entre whan hym liketh / & lightly fynde werre || [2230] But certes what ende / þat ther-of shal falle / it is noight light to knowe || [2231] ¶ Werre for soothly / whan þat werre is ones bigonne / ther is ful many a child / vnborn of his moder / þat shal sterue yong' by cause of thilke werre / or elles lyue in sorwe / & dye in wretchednesse / [2232] And ther fore / er þat any were be bigonne / men mooste haue gret conseil / & gret deliberacion [2233] ¶ And whan thise olde man / wende to enforen his tale by reasons / wel nygh alle atones / bigonne they to rise / for to breken his tale / and boden hym ful ofte / hisse wordes / for to abregge / [2234] ¶ For sothly / he þat prebeth to hem / þat listen nat heren hisse wordes / hys sermon / hem anoyeth || [2235] ¶ For Ihesus Syrak seith / . That Musik' in wepyng' / is anoyous thyng' This is to seyn / As meche auailleth / to spoken bifore folk / to whiche his speche anoyeth / as it is / to synge / bifore hym þat wepeth || [2236] And whan this wise man say þat hym wanted audiance / al shamefast he sette hym down agayn || [2237] ¶ For Salomon seith / ther as thou / ne mayst haue non audiance / enforece thee nat to speke [2238] ¶ I se wel quod this wise man / þat the comune prouerbe is soth || that. good conseil wanteth / whan it is moost nede //

[2239] Yet hadde this Melibeus / in his conseil many folk / þat priuily in his eere / counselled hym certeyn thyng. and counselled hym the contrurio / in general audiance

[2240] ¶ Whan Melibeus hadde herd / þat the greeteste

that they been frosho & newe & with loudo voya. [es occirent, "guerre! guerre! guerre!"]

[2227] Adonc so tena un des anciens. And with hise hand made contenance that men schuldyn hoklym hem stylye / and 3euyns hym audiance. [2228] And lordyngis quod he there is ful manye a man that cryeth werre werre: that wot ful lityl what werre amountyth / [2229] werre at hise begynnyng' hath so greet an entre and so large; that euery whicht' may entre whan hym lyketh / & lyghtly fynde werre / [2230] but certis what ende therof schal falle: it is nat leyght to knowe [2231] for sothly whan that werre is onys begonne: there is ful manye a child born of hise moder that schal sterue 3ong be cause of thilke werre / & elles lyue in sorwe & daye in wrochednesse / [2232] And therefore or that any werre begyne men mooste haue gret conseil / & gret deliberacyoun [2233] And whan thise olde man wende for to enforese his tale be resous wel nygh alleatones / byrgonne they to ryse / for to brekyns his tale & bodyn hym ful oftye hisse wordis to abregge [2234] for sothly he that prebith to hem / that leystly not to here hisse wordys: his' sermons hem anoyeth [2235] ¶ For Ihesus Syrak seyth. that Musik' in wepyng' is anoyous thyng this is to seyne / as meche auaylyth to spoke by-for folk / to whiche his speche anoyeth as doth to synge be-for hym that wepith [2236] ¶ And whan that þis wyse man wantede audiance: al schamefast he sette hym down / agayn [2237] ¶ For salomon seyth. There as thou maght haue noon audiance / enforece the not to speke / [2238] I see weel quod this wyse man that the comune prouerbe is soth that good conseil wantyth whan it is moost nede. [2239]

And þit hadde this Melibeus in his conseil manye folk that priuily in his eere conseilode hym / certeyn thyng. & conseilode hym the contrarye: in general audiance // [2240] Whanne Melibeus hadde herd that the grettere

þay ben freische and newe ¶ And with lowde voys þey cryden werre

[2227] vp ros þo on of þe olde wise and with his hande he made a contynance þat þey schulde holden hem stille and ȝouen hem audience [2228] ¶ lordynges quod he þer is ful many a man þat criep werre werre þat wot ful. litel what þat werre amounteþ [2229] ¶ Werre at his bygyngyngs haþ so gret an enteryng and so large ¶ That every wyght may entre when him likeþ and lightly fynde werre [2230] ¶ But certes to what ende þat schal þe-of bifalle it mys nouȝt lightly to knowe [2231] ¶ whan þat werre is ones bygonne þer is ful many a childe vnborne of his moder þat schal sterue ȝongþ by cause of pilke werre Oper elles lye in sorwe and deys in wretchednesse [2232] ¶ And þerefore er þat eny werre be bygonne men mosten þan gret counsel and good deliberacion [2233] ¶ And when þis olde man wende to enforce his tale by reson wel nellit alle at ones bygonne for to ryse for to breken his tale / and beden him fulsten of his wordes for to abrygge [2234] ¶ for soþly he þat prechþ to hem þat luste nouȝt his wordes no his sermon hem annoyeþ [2235]

¶ for Ihesus Citrak salþ þat musyke in wepyng is annoyng þing þus moche is to sayn as moche annoyeþ to speke before folk to wiche his speche annoyeþ as it is for to syngen byforn him þat wepeþ [2236] ¶ And when þis wise man saugh þat him wantede audience / al schamfast he sette him downe aȝein. [2237] for Salomon seiþ. þor as þou mayst haue non audience / enforce þe nat to speke [2238] ¶ I se wel quod þis wyse man þat þe comune prouerbe is soþ þat good counsel wanteþ. when it is most nede

[2239] ¶ ȝit hadde þis Melibeus in his counsaile many folk þat priuily in his oore counsailed him certein þing. and counsailed him þe contrary in general audience

[2240] ¶ When Melibeus hadde herd þat þe grettest CORPUS (6-T. 206) ¶ leaf 219, back þe while þei bene fresche and newe. And wiþ lowde voice þei cryden werre.

[2227]. Vp roos þoo oon of þise olde wise and wiþ his hondes made countenance þat men schulde holden hem stille and ȝouen hym audience. [2228] ¶ Lordinges quod he þer is ful many a man / þat crien werre werre þat woten ful litel what werre amounteþ. [2229] Werre at his bygyngyngs haþ so grete an entre and so large þat every wyght may entre when him likeþ and lightly fynde werre. [2230] But certes what ende schal falle it is nat list to knowe. [2231] for soþly whan þat werre is onys bygonne. þer is ful many a childe vnborn of his modere. þat steruen. ȝonge by cause of pilk werre or elles lye in swowe and dye in wretchednesse. [2232] And þerefore er þat eny werre be bygonne / men mosten han grete counsaile and grete deliberacion [2233] And whan þis olde man had wende to enforce his tale by reasons. wel nyght all at ofys bygonne to rise forto breken his tale. and beden hym ful of his wordes forto abrygge. [2234] for soþly he þat prechþ to hem þat list nat here his wordes his sermon auaileþ not. [2235] for Ihesus Sirak. seiþ. þat musike in wepyng is noyous þing. This is to sayn as mochi auaileþ to speke to-for folk to which his speche auaileþ not. as it is to speke byfore hym þat wepeþ. [2236] And when þis wise man segh þat hym wanted audience al schamefast he sette hym downe aȝeyn. [2237] for Salomon seiþ. Ther as þou ne maiest not haue audience. enforce þe nat to speke [2238] ¶ I se wel quod þis wise man þat þe comun prouerbe is. soþe. þat good counsaile when it is most nede auaileþ

[2239] ¶ ȝit had þis Melobius in his counsaile moche folk þat priuily in his oore counsailed hym moche þing and counsailed hym þe contrary in general audience

[2240] ¶ Whan Melibeus had herd þe grettest
PETWORTH (6-T. 206)

þat þei bene fresche & newe ¶ And wiþ loude voice þei cryden. werre. werre.

[2227] Vprose one of þe olde wise. & wiþ his honde he made a countenance þat þei schold holde hem stil / and ȝouen hem audience [2228] ¶ lordynges quod he þere is ful many a man þat criep werre. werre. þat wote ful lytel what þat werre amounteþ // [2229] Werre at his begynnyng haþ so grete an entree & so large / þat every wyght maie entre when him likeþ And lightly fynde werre. [2230] But certes to whatt ende þat schal þe-of be-fal / it is note lightly to knowe [2231] ¶ Whan þat werre is ones bygonne. þer is ful many a childe vnborne of his moder þat schal sterue ȝonge by cause of pilke werre. Operer elles lye in sorwe & deye in wretchednesse, [2232] ¶ And þere-fore or þat any werre be-ginne men most haue grete counseil & good deliberacion. [2233] ¶ And whan þis olde man wende to enforce his tale be reson. welnyhe al att ones bygonne for to rise to breken his tale. & biden him ful oft of his wordes to abrygge // [2234] For soþly he þat prechþ to hem þat list not his wordes ne his sermon hem be annoyeþ. [2235] For Ihesus Sirak seiþe. That Musike in wepyng is annoyng þing. Thus muche it is to seie As much annoyeþ to speke-to-for folk to wiche his speche annoyeþ as it is for to singen be-forne him þat wepeþ. [2236] ¶ And whan þis wiseman sawhe þat him wanted audience al schamfast he set him downe a-ȝeyn [2237] For Salomon seiþe þere as þu mai haue none audience enforce þe nouht to speke. [2238] I se wele quod þis wiseman þat þe comun prouerbe is soþe / þat good counsaile wanteþ when it is most nede.

[2239] ¶ ȝitte hadde þis Melibeus in his counsaile many folke þat [ . . . no gap ] counsailed him priue þing. An counsailed him þe contrary in general audience.

[2240] Whan melibeus hadde herde þe grettest
LANSDOWNE (6-T. 206) ¶ leaf 194

partis of his conseil / were accorded þat he sholde maken werre / anon / he consented to hir consailingyng and fully affirmed hire sentence / [2241] Thanne dame Prudence / whan þat she saugh / how that hir housbonde schoop hym for to wroke hym on hisse foies / and to bigynne werre / she in ful humble wise / whan she saugh hir tyme / seide to hym thusse wordes [2242] ¶ My lord quod she / I yow biseche as hertely as I dar and kan / ne haste yow nat to faste / and for alle gerdons / as yeneþ me Audience [2243] ¶ For Piers Alfonse seith ¶ who so that dooth to that oother good or harm / haste thee nat to quiten it. for in this wise thy frend wole abyde / and thyn enemy shal the lenger lyue in drede [2244] ¶ The prouerbe seith ¶ he hasteth wel that wisely kan abyde ¶ And in wikked haste / is no profit

¶ Melibeus [2245] This Melibeus answerde vn to his wyf Prudence ¶ I purpose nat quod he to werke by thy conseil / for many causes and resonis ¶ for certes / euery wight wolde holde me thanne a fool [2246] ¶ this is to seyn / If I.
for thy consailingyng wolde chaungen thynges that been ordneyed and affirmed by so many wyse [2247] ¶ Secoundly I seye / þat alle womanen been wikke / and noon
good of hem alle ¶ for of a thousand men seith Salomon /

¶ I found a good man / but certes of alle womanen / good woman found I neuere [2248] ¶ And also certes / if I gouerned me by thy conseil / it sholde seme that I hadde yeue to thee ouer me the maistrie / and goddes forbode / that it so were [2249] ¶ For Theseus Syrak seith / that if the wyf haue maistrie / she is contrarious to hir housbonde

¶ Salomon [2250] ¶ And Salomon seith ¶ Neuere in thy lyf / to thy wyf / ne to thy child / ne to thy frend / ne yeue ner ouer thy self ¶. for better it were / that thy children. aske of thy persone / thynges that hem nedeth / than thou be thy self in the handes of thy children / [2251] ¶ And if I wolde werke by thy consailingyng ¶ Certes / my consailingyng moste som tyme be secree / til it were tyme / þat it mooste be party of his conseil / were accorded / þat he sholde make werre / anon he consented / to hir consailingyng & fully affirmed hir sentence / [2241] ¶ Thanne dame Prudence / whan þat she say / how þat hyr housbonde / schoope hym / for to wroke hym on his foies / & to bigynne werre / she in ful humble wise / whan she say hir tyme / seyde hym thusse wordes [2242] ¶ My lord quod she / I you biseche / as hertely as I dar & kan / ne haste yow nat to faste / and for alle gerdons / as yif me audience ¶ [2243] for Piers Alfonse seith ¶. who so þat dooth to this / outher good / or harm / haste thee nat to quiten it / for in this wise / thi frend wol abyde / and thyn enemy / shal

the lenger lyue in drede ¶ [2244] The prouerbe seith / he hasteth wel / þat wysly kan abide / and in wikked haste /
is no profit

[2245] ¶ This Melibeus answerde vn to his wyf Prudence ¶
I purpose nat quod he / to werken by thy conseil / for many causes and resonis / for certes euery wight wolde
holde me thanne a fool / [2246] this is to seyn / If I for thy consailingyng wolde change / thynges þat been ordneyed / & affirmed / by so many wise [2247] ¶ Secoundly I seye / þat alle womanen been wikke / and noon
good of hem alle / for of a thousand men / seith Salomon / I found o good man / but certes of alle womanen / good woman found I neuere [2248] ¶ And also certes / if I gouerned me by thy conseil / it sholde seme / þat I hadde yeue to thee ouer me the maistrie / and goddes forbode / þat
it so were / [2249] for Theseus Syrak seith / that if the
wyf haue maistrie / she is contrarious / to hir housbonde [2250] ¶ And Salomon seith / Neuere in thy lyf / to thy wyf / ne to thy child / ne to thy frend / ne yif no power ouer thy self / for better it were / þat thy children. aske of thy persone thynges þat hem nedeth / than thou see thy self in the handes of thy children [2251] ¶ And also-if I wolde werke by thy consailingyng / certes my conseil /
moste som tyme be secree / til it were tyme / þat it mooste be partye of his conseil / were accorded that he shulde make werre / anon he consented to here consailingyng And fully affirmed hire sentence [2241] ¶ Thanne dame. prudence / whan that sche saw how that hire housbonde schoop hym for to wroke hym on hisse foies / & to begynne werre / Sche in ful humble wyse whan sche saugh hire tyme / seyde hym thusse wordes [2242] ¶ Myrn lord quod sche / I yow beseche al hertely / as I dar & can. no hastyþy 3ow to faste / And for alle gerdourmys as 3oyth me audyence [2243] ¶ For Piers Alfonse seith / who so that doth to the othir good or harm / haste the not to quite it / for in this wise / thi frend wole abyde / & thyn enemy schal

the lenger lyue in drede // [2244] The prouerbe seith / he hastyth weel that wisely kan abyde / And in wikke hast is no profyt

[2245] ¶ This Melibeus answerde vn-to his wyf prudence
I purpose [ . . . ] not to werken by thyn conseil / for many causis & resonys / for certes euery whit wole holyri me thanne a fool / [2246] this is to seyne / If I for thyn consailingyng wolde schauge thyngis that been ordneyed And afformede be so many wise [2247] ¶ Secoundly I seye. That alle women been wekke & noon good of hem alle. for of a thousand men seith Salomon / I fond on good man / but certis of alle women good woman fond I neuere [2248] ¶ And also certys 3if I gouernede me by thyn conseil / it schulde seme that I hadde 3oyth the maistrey / & goddys forbode that it so were / [2249] for Theseus Sirak seith / that 3if the wyf haue the maystery / sche is contrarious to hire housbonde [2250] ¶ And Salomon seith neuere in thy lyf to thy wyf / no thyn child / me to thyn frend ne 3eus power ouyr thyn self / for bettere it were That thynne childeryn askyn of thyn persone thyngis that hem nedeth / than show see thy self in the handys of thynne childeryn / [2251] And also 3if I weelde werke by thyn consailingyng / certis myn conseil muste been seere til it were tyme that it muste bon party of his counsell were accorded þat he schulde make werre: anon he consentede to here counselling ¶ and fully affirmed to here sentence [2241] ¶ Thanne dame Prudence whan þat she saugh how þat hire husbande schope him for to wreke him on his foes and to begynne werre ¶ Sche in ful humble wyse whan she saugh hire tyme / seyde him in þis wordes [2242] ¶ My lord quod sche I þou beseeche as hertly as I dar and can ¶ Ne haste þou nougt to faste ¶ And afore alle guerdouns þis me audience [2243] ¶ For Pieres Alphons. saip ¶ O who so doþ to þe good oþer harme haste þe nougt to quyen hit ¶ for in þis wise þi frend wole abyde and þin enemy schal þe lengere lyue in drede [2244] ¶ The prouerbe seiþ þat he hasteþ him wel þat wisly can atyde ¶ and in wikked haste is no profyte

[2245] ¶ This molybe answerde to his wiff ¶ Prudence I purposse nougt quod he to werke by þy counselle for many causes and reasons ¶ for certes euery wight wolde halde me þenne a fool [2246] ¶ This is for to saye ¶ If I for þy counselling wolde change þinges þat þou ordeynt and affirmed by so many wyse [2247] ¶ Secondly I say þat alle wommen ben þikke and none goode of hem alle for of a þousend men saip Salomon I fand a good man But certes of alle women found I neuer good woman [2248] ¶ And also certes if I gouerned me by þi counsell it schulde seme þat I hadde þoue to þe oter me þe maistrye ¶ and god forbode þat it so wero [2249] ¶ For Ihesus Crynck saip. þat if þin wiff haue maistrye: sche is contrarius to hire housebonde [2250] ¶ And Salomon saip ¶ Neuer in þy lif to þy wif ne to þy childre ne to þi frende ne þine no power oer þi self ¶ for bettere it wero þat þin children asken of þy persons þinges þat hem nedep ¶ þan þou [þe] þi self in þe handes of þin children [2251] ¶ And also if I wole werche by þi counselling: certes my counselle moste som tyme be secrete til it wero tyme þat it moste be partye of his counsaile were accorded þat he shuld make werre. Anon consented to here counselling and fully affirmed her sentence [2241] ¶ Than dame Prudence whan þat she soye how þat her husbande schope forto wreke hym on his foen and bygygne werre. she in ful vable wise whan she segh her tyme saide hym þise wordes [2242] ¶ My lord quod she I þow beseeche as hertly as I dare and can no hast þou nat to fast. and for all guerdons as þene me audience. [2243] for Pierus Alfons. seip þus. who so þat doþ þe good or harme. hast þe nat to quiten it. for in þis wise þi frende wil abide and þine enemye shal þe longer lyue in drede. / [2244] ¶ The prouerbe seiþ. He hasteþ wel þat wisely can alade. And in wikked haast nys no profit

[2245] ¶ This Meloby answerd to his wiff Prudence I purposse not quod he to wirken afor þi counsaile for many causes and reasons. for certes euery wight wolde holde me þan a fool [2246] ¶ This is to sayne If I for þi counsailling wold change þinges þat afor affirmed by so many wise men. [2247] ¶ Secondly I saye þat alle women bene wicke. and non good of hem all. for of a thousande men saip Salomon I found on good man. But certes of alle women good woman fonde I neuer one. [2248] And also certys þif I gouerned me by þi counsaile it shuld seme þat I had þoue þe euer þe maistrye as god forbode þat it so wero. [2249] for Syrak seiþ þat if þe wif haue þe maistrye she is contrarius [d eon mary]. ¶ [2250] And Salomon seiþ Neure in þi lif to þi wif ne to þi childre ne to þi frende ne þine no power oer þi self. for bettere it wero þat þi children asken of þi persons þinge þat hem nedep þan þou seþe þi self in þe handes of þi children [2251] ¶ And also þif I wolde wyrk by þi counselling. Certes my counsaile moste som tyme be secrete. til it wero tyme þat it moste be partie of his counsaile were accorded þat he schold make werre. A none he consentid to here counselling. And full affirmed to he[re] sentence [2241] ¶ Than dame Prudence saube how þat hire husband schope hims for to wreke him on his foos: & to begynne werre Sche in full humble wise whan she saube hire time Saide him in þis wordes [2242] ¶ Mi lordes quod sche. I þow beseeche as hertly as I dar & can / ne haste þow noult to fast And Afore al guerdouns þeuf me audience. [2243] For Pier Amphons saibe .O. who so doþ þe goode oþer harme haste þe nouht to quyten it. For in þis wise þi frende wil abide And þine enemye schal þe langere lous in drede: / [2244] The prouerbe seiþ þat he hasteþe him wale þatte wels can abide. And in wikked hast is no profite.

[2245] This Melibe answerd to his wyf prudences: I purposse nouht quod he to wirke be þi counsaile for many causes & reasons: For certes euery wight wold hold me þan a fool: [2246] ¶ This is for sooth. If y. for þin counselling wolde change þinges þat þou ordeined & affirmed be so many a wyse: [2247] Secondly I. saie þat al wemmen bien þikke & none goode of hem alle. for of a. þousand men as seip Salomon ¶ Salomon .I. fonde o good man bot certes of alle wemmen fonde .I. neuere good woman [2248] ¶ And also certes if .I. gouerned me be þi counsaile it schold seme þat I hadde .y. þif to þe oter me þe maistre. And god forbode þat it so wero [2249] ¶ For Ihesus Sirake. seiþe. If þe wif haþe þe maistre she is contrarius to hir husbande. [2250] ¶ And Salomon. seiþe. neuere in þi lif. to þi wif ne to þi childre ne to þi frende ne þine none powers oer þine selfe: For better it wero þat þine childern asken of þine persons þinges þat hem nedep. þan þou þi self in þe handes of þine childerne. [2251] And also if .I. wil worche be þi consailinge. Certes my conseil most som tyme be secrete til it wer tyme þat it must be knowe and this / ne may noght be [2252. Car il est escript: la jenglerie des femmes ne puet riens celer fors ce qu'elle ne seel. [2253] Après, le philosophe dit, en mauvais conseil les femmes vainquent les hommes: à par ces raisons je ne dois point user de ton conseil. MS Reg. 10 C. vii, in Tyrwhitt, iv, 335. (See Prudence on Reasons 4 § 5, further on.)]

¶ Prudence.

[2254] Whanne dame Prudence / ful debonairely / with greet pacience / hadde herd / al that hir husbonds liked for to seye / thanne axed she of hym lience for to speke / and seyde in this wise [2255] ¶ My lord quod she / as to youre firste reson / certes it may lightly ben answered ¶ for I seye / that it is no folie / to chaunge conseil ¶ whan the thyng is chaunged ¶ or elles / whan the thyng semeth / ootherweys / than it was biforn [2256] ¶ And mooreour I seye / that though ye han sworn & bihight to performe youre emprise ¶ And natheles / ye weyue to performe / thilke same emprise by iuste cause / men sholde nat seyn therfore / that ye were a liar / ne forsworn [2257] ¶ for the book seith / þat the wise man maketh no lesynge / whan he turneth his corage to the bettere [2258] ¶ And al be it so / þat youre emprise be established and ordeyned / by greet multitude of folk / yet that ye nat accomplie thilke ordinaunce / but you lyke [2259] ¶ for the trouthe of thynges / and the profit ben rather founden in fewe folk / that been wise / and ful of reson / than by greet multitude of folk / þer every man cryeth & clatereth / what that hym liketh ¶ Soothly / swich multitude is nat honeste [2260] ¶ As to the seconde reson / where as ye seyn / þat alle women ben wikke / Save youre grace / certes ye despise alle women in this wyse / [car it est escript, que tout despit, a tous desplain] [2261] ¶ Senec seith / that who so wole have experience / shal no man despise / but he shal gladly / tochen the science that he kan / with-outen presumption / or pride / [2262] And swiche thynges // as he nougth ne kan / he shal nat ben ashamed to lerne hem and enquire of lasse knowe / and this ne may nat be [2252. Car il est escript: la jenglerie des femmes ne puet riens celer fors ce qu'elle ne seel. [2253] Après, le philosophe dit: en mauvais conseil les femmes vainquent les hommes. Pour ces raisons je ne doiy point user de ton conseil. MS of the first half of the 15th century in 'Le Ménager de Paris', i, 193, ed. 1846.]

[2254] ¶ Whan dame Prudence ful debonairely / with greet pacience hadde herd / al that hir husbonds liked for to seye / thanne axed she of hym / lience for to speke / and seyde in this wise [2255] ¶ My lord quod she / as to youre firste reson / certes it may lightly ben answered / for I seye þat it is no folie to chaunge conseil / whan the thyng is chaunged / or ellis / whan the thyng semeth oother weys / than it was biforn [2256] ¶ And moore our I seye / þat though þat ye han sworn & bihight to performe youre emprise / & natheles ye weyue to performe thilke same emprise by iuste cause / men sholde nat seyn therfore þat ye were a lyere / ne forsworn [2257] for the book seith / þat the wise man / maketh no lesynge whan he turneth his corage to the bettere [2258] And al be it so / þat youre emprise be established & ordeyned / by greet multitude of folk / yet that ye nat accomplie thilke same ordinaunce / but you lyke // [2259] for the trouthe of thynges & the profit ben rather founde in fewe folk / þat ben wise & ful of reson / than by greet multitude of folk // þer every man cryeth & clatereth what þat hym liketh / soothly swich multitude / is nat honeste [2260] ¶ And to the seconde reson / where as ye seyn / þat alle women ben wikke / save youre grace / certes ye despise alle women in this wyse / and he þat al despiseth / al displeiseth / ne seith the book. [2261] Senec seith / that who so wole have Sapience / shal no man despise / but he shal gladly teche / the science þat he kan / withoute presumption / or pride / [2262] and swiche thynges / as he nougth ne kan / he shal nat ben ashamed to lerne hem & enquire of lasse

knowe & this it may nat bee [2252. For it is written, 'the Jangleterie of women can hide thyngis that they wot nougth.' [2253] Furthermore the philosopher saith, 'in wikke conseil women venquess men;' and for those reasons I ought not to make use of thy counsel. See lines 2274, 2280, p. 209, 210, below.] [2254]

¶ Han dame Prudence ful debonairely / with greet pacience hadde herd al that hir husbonds hadde seyde & that hym likede for to seyne / thanne axed she of hym lyence for to spekyng & seyde in this wyse [2255] ¶ Myn lord quod sche as to youre fyrste reson certis it may lightly ben answered for I seye that it is no folye for to chaunge conseil / whan the thyng is chaungit / or ellys whan the þyng semyth othir wyse than it was by form / [2256] And moore-our I seye / that though that 3e han sworn & by hight to performe youre emprise / & natheles ye weyue to performe thilke same emprise / by iuste cause / men schulde nat seyn therfore / that 3e were a lyere-ne-for-sworn [2257] for the bok seyth that the wyse man makyth no lesynge / whan he turnyth his corage to the bettere. [2258] And al be it so that youre emprise be establissid & ordeined / by greet multitude of folk / 3it that 3e not accomplisshes thilke same ordynan[n]ce but 3ow lyke // [2259] for the trouthe of thyngis & the profit ben rather foundyn in fewe folk that been wyse & ful of reson than by greet multitude of folk there every man cryeth & clatereth what that hym lyketh / sothly swich multitude is nat honest / [2260] And to the seconde reson where that 3e seyn that alle women been wikke . save youre graces / certis 3e dispise alle women in this wyse / & he that 3e dispiseth / alle dispiseth as seyth the book / [2261] & senek seyth / that who so wole have sapience . schal no man dispisye / but he schal gladly teche the cience that he can / with-outyn presumptuous or pride / [2262] And swiche thyngis as he nougth ne can / he schal nat ben ashamed to lerne hem / & enquire of lasse knows and þis ne may nouȝt be doo [2252. For it is written, 'þe Langelarie of women can huyde þinges þat þei wote nouȝt' [2253] Furthermore, the philosopher saith, 'in wicked counsell, women venquysshþ men;' and for these reasons I ought not to make use of thy counsel. (See Prudence's answers to Reasons 4 & 5, below.)

[2254] ¶ When dame Prudence ful debonarily and wiþ alle pacience hadde herde alle þat hire husbonds liked for to say: Then asked sche of him licence for to speke and seyde in þis wise [2255] ¶ My lord quod sche. as to youre ferste reson it may lightly be answered ¶ for I say þat it nys foly to chaunge counselle when þe þing is chaunged Oþer elles when þe þing semþ oþer weyes þenne it semþ aform [2256] ¶ And more ouer I say þei þat 3e haue sworn and behiglit to parfoume youre emprise [et tu la laissez a faire (Le Ménager de Paris, i. 193)] by iuste cause: men schulde nouȝt seyn þefore þat 3e were a lyere ne forswore [2257] ¶ for þe booke seiþ þe wiso man makeþ no leysing when he turneþ his corage / to þe better [2258] ¶ And if it be so þat youre emprise be establishid and ordeyned by gret multitude of folk ¶ þei þar þe nouȝt accomplyse þilke ordynance but 3ou like [2259] ¶ for þe troupe of þinges and þe profite bene raper founde. in fewe folk þat bene wise / and fulle of reson þen by gret multitude of folk þer euery man cryeþ and claterþ when him likeþ ¶ soþly such multitude nys nouȝt honeste [2260] and as to þe secunde reson wher as 3e seyn þat alle women ben wikke: Sane youre grace for certes 3e despyseþ alle women in þis wise. and he þat alle despyseþ all despyseþ as seiþ þe boke [2261] ¶ And Senek seiþ þat who so wold haue sapience schal no man despyse ¶ But he schal gladly teche þe science þat he can wiþouten presumption or pryde [2262] and suche þinges þat he nouȝt ne can he schal nouȝt be ashamed to lere him and to enquire of lasse knowe and þis ne may not be [2252. For it is written, 'þe Langelarie of women can hude þinges þat þei wote nouȝt' [2253] Furthermore, the philosopher saith, 'In wicked counsaille women venquish men;' and for these reasons I ought not to make use of thy counsel. (See l. 2274, 2280, p. 209, 210, below.)

[2254] ¶ Dame Prudence ful debonarily and wiþ grette pacience had herde all þat her husbonds liked to say. þan axed she of hym licence for to speke and saide in þis wise: [2255] ¶ My lord quod she as to youre furst reson certes it may lightly be answered. for I say þat it nys no foly to chaunge counsaille when þe þinge is chaunged. for ellis when þe þinge semþ oþer wise þan it was byforn [2256] Après, je dy encorer plus, car es tu auoies promis et juré de faire] youre emprise. And napoles 3e wayn to [per]foreme þilk same emprise. by iust cause. Maq shuld not seyn þat 3e were a lyer or forsworne. [2257] for þe booke seiþ The while man makeþ no leysing: when he turneþ his corage to þe better. [2258] And al be 4þ 800 þat youre emprise be establishid and ordeyned by gret multitude of folk. ȝit ther 3ou not accomplyse þilk same ordynance but 3ou like. [2259] for þe troupe of þinges and þe profite bene raper founden. in fewe folk þat bene wise and ful of reson þan by gret multitude of folk þer euery man cryeþ and claterþ what hym likeþ. Soþly such multitude nys not honeste [2260] And to þe secunde reson wher as 3e seyn þat women ben wikke. sane youre grace Certes 3e despiece all women in þis wise. and [he] þat all dispiseþ [all dispiseþeth]. as seiþ þe boke. [2261] And Seneca seiþ. Who-so wil haue sapience schal no man dispise. but he schal gladly teche þat he can. wiþ[out] presumption or pride. [2262] and suche þinge as he nouȝt ne can he schal not be ashamed to lerne hem / and enquire of lesse

knowe! And þis ne may nouȝt be do! [2252. For it is written, 'þe Langlerie of women can hude [only] þinges þat þei wote nouȝt' [2253], Furthermore, the philosopher saith, 'in wiked counsil, women venquysshþ men;' and for these reasons I ought not to make use of thy counsel. (See Prudence's answers to Reasons 4 & 5, below.)

[2254] ¶ Whan dame pruden ful debonarily & [with] al pacience hadde herd al þat hire husband lyked for to seye./ Than axe sche of him licence for to speke. And saide in þis wise. [2255] Mi lordo quod sche: as to youre first reson it may lyhtly be answered. for .I. seie. it ne is folye to chaunge counsail. when þe þinge is chaungede or elles when þe þinge semþ oþerwise þan it semed a-forme [2256] And more ouere .I. seie. þeiþe þat 3e haue sworne & behist to performe youre emprise. [and] natheles ye weyre to performe that same emprise] Be Iuste cause men schold nouȝt seine þefore þat 3e were a lyere ne for-sworne [2257] ¶ for þe booke seiþ þat þe wiso man makeþ no leysing when he turneþ his corage to þe better [2258] ¶ An if it so be þat 'yourre emprise be establishid & ordeined be grette multitude of folke ȝit þarre þe nouȝt accomplyse þilke ordinance bot 3owe likeþ' [2259] ¶ For þe troupe of þinges & þe profit bene rather y-founden in fewe folke þat bene wise and ful of resoun þan be grette multitude of folke þer euery man cryeþ & claterþ what hem likeþ: Suche multitude is nouȝt honest. [2260] And as to þe secound reson. Where as 3e seine þat al women bene wikke. sane youre grace: for certes 3e dispisen al women in þis wise. and he þat all despiþeþ. all þinge him despiþeþ as seiþ þe boke. // [2261] And Seneca. seiþe who þat wold haue sapience schalt no man despiþe. Bot he schal gladly teche þe science þat .I. kan. wiþ-oute presumption or pride. [2262] And suche þinges as nouȝt can he schal not be ashamed to leren hem: & to enqueren of lesse

folk / than hym self / [2263] And sire / that ther hath been many a good woman / may lightly be preued / [2264] ¶ for certes sire / oure lord Ihesu crist wolde neuere han descended to be born of a woman / if alle women / hadden bon wikke / [2265] And after that for the grete bountee that is in woman oure lord Ihesu crist / when he was risen fro deeth to lyf / appeared rather to a woman / than to hise Apostles [2266] ¶ And thought that salomon seith / that he ne found neuere woman good / it folweth nat therefore / that alle women ben wikke [2267] for though that he ne found no good woman / certes ful many another man / hath founden / many a woman ful good and trewe [2268] ¶ Or elles per auenture / the entente of salomon was this / that as in souereyn bounte he found no woman / [2269] this is to seyn / that ther is no right þat hath souereyn bountee / saue god allone / as he hym self recordeth in hys Euangeli- / [2270] for ther nyx no creature so good / that hym ne wanteth somwhat of the perfeccion of god / that is his maker [2271] ¶ Yourre thridde reson is this / ye seyn / if ye gouerne yow by my conseil / it sholde seme that ye hadde yow me the maistris / and the lordshipe ouer youre persone || [2272] sire saue youre grace / it is nat so || for if it were so that no man sholde be counselled / but only of hem that hadden lordshipe and maistris of his persone / men wolde nat be counselled so ofte || [2273] for soothly / thilke man that asketh conseil of a purpos / yet hath he fre choys / whether he wole werke by that conseil / or noon [2274] ¶ And as to youre forste reson / ther ye seyn þat the langlerie of women hath hyd thynges that they wiste noght. As who seith / that a woman kan nat hyde that she wot [2275] ¶ sire these wordes been vnderstonde of women þat been langleresses and wikked / [2276] of whiche women / men seyn that thre thynges / dryuen a man out of his hous / that is to seyn / Smoke / droppynge of reyn / and wikked wyues / [2277] and

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 208) [1 leaf 100]

folk than hym self [2263] ¶ And sire / þat ther hath be ful many a good woman / may lightly be proued / [2264] for certes sire / oure lord Ihesu crist wolde neuere han descended / to be born of a woman / if alle women hadde be wikke / [2265] And after that for the grete bountee þat is in woman / oure lord Ihesu crist / when he was risen fro deeth to lyf / appeared rather to a woman / than to hise apostles / [2266] And though þat Salomon seith / þat he ne found neuere woman good / it folweth nat therefore / þat alle women ben wikke / [2267] for though þat he ne found no good woman / certes many another man / hath founden many a woman ful good and trewe || [2268] Or elles per auenture / the entente of Salomon / was this / þat as in souereyn bountee / he found no woman / [2269] this is to seyn / þat ther is no right þat hath souereyn bountee / saue god allone / as he hym self recordeth / in his Euangeli- / [2270] for ther nyx no creature so good / þat hym ne wanteth som what of the perfeccion of god / þat is his makere [2271] ¶ Yourre thridde reson is this / ye seyn / þat if ye gouerne yow by my conseil / it sholde seme / þat ye hadde yow me the maistris and the lordshipe / ouer youre persone [2272] Sire sauf youre grace / it is nat so / for if so were / þat no man sholde be counselled / but only of hem / þat hadde lordshipe & maistris of his persone / men wolde nat be counselled so ofte / [2273] for soothly thilke man þat asketh conseil of a purpos / yet hath he fre choys / whether he wole werke by that conseil / or noon [2274] ¶ And as to youre forste reson / ther ye seyn þat the langlerie of women / kan hide thynges that they wot nat / as who seith / þat a woman kan nat hide that þat she wot. [2275] Sire these wordes been vnderstonde of women þat ben langleresses & wikked / [2276] of whiche women men seyn / þat thre thynges / dryuen a man out of his hous / that is to seyn / Smoke / droppynge of reyn / & wikked wyues / [2277] and

HENGWRT (6-T. 209)

folk than hym self [2263] And syre that there hath been ful manye a good woman: may lightly be prouyd / [2264] for certys / seue oure lord Ihesu crist / wolde neuere han descendit to been born of a woman: gif alle women hadde been wikke / [2265] And aþyr that for the grete bounte / that is in oure lord Ihesu crist / what he was risen fro deeth to lyue / appeared rather to a woman than to hise apostellis / [2266] And thogh that salomon seyth that he ne fond neuere woman good: it ne folwyth nat therefore that alle wemen been wikke / [2267] for thow that he ne fond no good woman: certys manye a noþhir man hat foundyn manye a woman ful good & trewe [2268] ¶ Or ellis the entent of Salomon perauenture was this / that as in souerein bounte he fond no woman / [2269] this is to seyne that there is no wyrt that hath souereyn bountee saue god a-lone / as he hym self recordeyth in hise Euangeli- / [2270] for there is no creature so good: that he ne wantith sumwhat of the perfeccion of god that is his makere [2271] ¶ Yourre thredde reson is this / ye seyn þat gif ye gouerne þow by myn conseil: it schulde seme that ye hadde þow me the maistrye & the lordshepe ouyr þowre persone / [2272] Sire saue þowre grace / it is nat so / for if it so were that no man schulde been consyled / but of hem that hadde lordshepe & maistrye of his persone: men wolde nat been consyled / so ofte / [2273] for sothly thilke man that axith conseil of a purpos / gif hath he fre choys whether he wole werke by that conseil / or noon [2274] ¶ And nas to youre forste reson / there ye seyn that the langlerie of women can hide thyngis that they wot nouht. As he sey that a woman can not hyde that she wot [2275] Sire these wordys been vnderstonde / of women that been langleressis / & wikke / [2276] of whiche wemen men seyn / that thre thyngis dryuyn a man out of his hous / that is to seyne smoke / droppynage of reyn & wikkede wyuys / [2277] And

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 209) [1 leaf 100, back]

folke þan of himself [2263] ¶ And sire þat þer hæþ þen ful many a good womman may lightly be proued [2264] ¶ Certes sire oure lord ihesu crist nolde neuer han descendet to be borne of a womman if alle women hadde be wikke [2265] ¶ And after þat for þe grete bounde þat is in wommen oure lord ihesus when he was risen fro deþ to lyfe appered rjper to womman þan to his apostels [2266] ¶ And þough þat Salomon seiþ þat he ne fond neuer womman good it folowþ nought þerfore þat alle women ben wikke [2267] ¶ For þough þat he ne fonde no good womman Certes many anþer man hæþ founden many a womman ful good and trewe [2268] Or elles þeraventure þo entent of Salomon was þus þat as in souereyn bounde he fande no womman [2269] This is to say þat þer nys no wight þat hæþ þerfyt bounde sans god allone as he himself recordeþ in his euangeliþ [2270] ¶ For þer nys no creature so good that him ne wanteþ som what of þe perfeccion of god þat is his maker [2271] ¶ The briddre reason is þis so seiþ þat if þo gouerneþ þu by my counsell hit schulle seme þat þo hadde þou me þe maistry And þe lordschip of þoure persone // [2272] Sire sans þoure grace hit nys nought so ¶ For if so were þat no man schulde be counsaillid but only of hem þat hadde lordschep and maistrye of his persone men nolde nought be counsaillid so oft. [2273] ¶ For soþly þilke man þat axeþ counsell of a purpos ¶ ȝit hæþ he free wille wheþer he wol do after þat counsell or no [2274] ¶ And as to þoure fourþe reson þer as þo seiþ þat þe Ianglerie of women can hynde þingges þat þer wolde nouȝt ¶ As who seiþ þat a womman can nought hynde what sche wot [2275] ¶ Sire þese wordes ben vnderstonde of women þat ben Iangleres and wikkid [2276] of whiche women men seiþ þat þre þingges drynþ a man out of his hous. That is to say Smoke droppynge of Rayn and wikkid wyfes [2277] And folke þan hym self. [2263] And þat þer hæþ bene ful many good women. [Pen le fait prouer ilygierment. [2264] Premièrement, car nostre Seigneur Ihesu-Crist ne es fait oncques datné descendre en femme] ȝif alle women had be wikke. [2265] but for þat grete bounde þat is in women: our lord ihesus crist when he was risen from deþ to lyf appered rjper to a womman þan to his apostels. [2266] And þough þat Salomon say. þat he ne fonde neuer no good womman: It folowþ not þerfore þat alle women bene wikke. [2267] for þough. þat he ne fonde noon good Certes mony an oþer man hæþ founde mony a womman ful good and trewe. [2268] Or ellis þeraventure þo entent of Salomon þis. as in souereyn bounde he saide no womman. [2269] This to sayn þat þer is no wight þat hæþ souereyne bounde sans god allone. as he hym self recordeþ in his euangely. [2270] for þer nys no creature so good þat him ne wanteþ somwhat of þe perfeccion of god þat is his [maker] [2271] ¶ Þoure iij. reson is þis. so seiþ þat if þo gouerned þou by counsaill of no it shulde seme þat þo had þoue me þe maistrye and þe lordship Ouer þoure person. [2272] sire sans þoure grace: it is not so. for ȝif it so were þat man shulde be counsaillid but only of hem þat had maistrye and lordship ouer his person. men wold nat be counsaillid so oft. [2273] ¶ for soþly þilke man þat axeþ counsaill of a purpos. ȝit hæþ he free chois wheþer he wil wrik' by þat counsaill or noon. [2274] ¶ And as to þoure ferþe reson þer as þo seiþ þat þe Ianglerie of women can hide þingges þat þer wolde nouȝt as who seiþ. þat a womman can not hide. [2275] Sire These wordes bene vnderstonde of women þat ben Iangleres and wikkid [2276] of whiche women men seiþ þat þre þingges drynen a man out of his hous. That is to seiþ Smoke, droppynge of Reyn, and wikkid wyfes [2277] ¶ And folke þan of him self! [2263] And sire þat þere hæþ þu many a goodo womman maie lightly be proued [2264] ¶ Certes sire oure lord ihesu crist nolde neuer haue descendet to be borne of womman if al women hadde be wikke. [2265] And after þat for þe grete bounde þat is in women oure lord ihesus when he was risen fro deþ to lyf: he appered rjper to women þan he dide to his aposteles [2266] And þough þat Salomon seiþ. he ne fonde neuer womman goods. It foloweth nought þerefore þat al women be wikke [2267] ¶ For þouke þat he no fonde no good womman. Certes mony a noþer man hæþ founden many a womman ful goode & trewe. [2268] Or elles þeraventure þo entente of Salomon was þus: That as in souereine bounde he fonde no womman [2269] ¶ þis is to seiþ þat þere is no wight þat hæþ þerfyt bounde sans god alone: as he him self recordeþ in his euangeliþ: [2270] for þere ne is no creature þat him ne wanteþ sumwhat of þe perfeccion of god þat is his maker [2271] ¶ The þrd reson is þis ¶ so seiþ þat if þo gouerned þu be my counsell: it scholde seme þat þo hadde þoue to me þe maistrye. & þe lordschipe of þoure persone: [2272] Sire: sans þoure grace it is nought so ¶ For if so were þat noman scholde be counsaillid but only of hem þat hadd lordschip & Maistrye of his person. Men nold nought be counsaillid so oft. [2273] ¶ For soþly þilke man þat axeþ counsel of a purpos: ȝit hæþ frewilt weþer he wil do after þat counsell or no: [2274] ¶ And as to þoure ferþe reson. þere as þo seiþ þat þe Ianglerie of women can hide þingges þat þei wote nought. As who seiþ: þat a womman kan nought hide þat sche wote: [2275] sire þes wordes buen vnderstonde of wemmen þat bien Ianglers & wikkid: [2276] of whiche wemmen Men seiþ þat þre þingges drynþ a man out of his house ¶ þat is to seiþ. Smoke. dropeinge of Reine? & wikkid wyfes. [2277] ¶ And

¶ Salomon swiche womoun seith Salomon / þat it were bettere dwelle in deserth than with a woman that is riotous [2278] ¶ And sire by youre leue / that am nat. I. / [2279] for ye han ful ofte assayed my grete silence / and my grete pacience. ¶ And eek how wel / that I kan hyde and hele thynges / that men oghte secretly to hyde [2280] ¶ And soothly / as to youre fifthe reson / where as ye seyn / that in wikked conseil / women venquisshe men ¶ god woot thilke reson stant here in no stede [2281] ¶ for vnderstound now / ye asken conseil to do wikkedness / [2282] and if ye wole werken wikkednesse / and youre wif restreyneth thilke wikked purpos / and ouercometh yow by reson and by good conseil / [2283] certes youre wyf oghte rather to be preised / than yblamed [2284] ¶ Thus sholdo ye vnderstode the Philosophie / þat seith / In wikked conseil women venquissen hir housbondes [2285] ¶ And ther as ye blamen alle women and hir resons / I shal shewe yow by manye ensamples / that many a woman / hath been ful good / and yet been / and hir conseilis ful hoosleom and profitable [2286] ¶ Eek/ som men han seyd that the consyellinge of women / is outhir to deere / or elles to litel of pris [2287] ¶ But al be it so / þat ful many a woman is badde / and hir conseil vile and noight worth / yet han men founde / ful many a good woman / and ful discrete and wise in consyellinge [2288] ¶ Lo Iacob / by good conseil of his moeder Rebekka wan the beyneyst of Ysaak / his fader / and the lordshipe ouer alle his bretheren [2289] ¶ Iudith by hire good conseil deliuered the Citte of Bethulye in which she dwelled / out of the handes of Olofernus / that hadde it bisged and wolde haue al destroyed [2290] ¶ Abygail deliuered Nabal hir housbonde fro Dauid the kyng / that wolde haue slayn hym / and apseyed the Ire of the kyng / by hir wit / and by hir good consyellinge [2291] ¶ Hester / enhanced grete by hir good conseil the peple of god / in the regne of Assurus the kyng [2292] ¶ and the same bountes in good consyellinge of

of swiche womoun seith Salomon / þat it were bettere dwelle in deserth than with a woman þat is riotous / [2278] and sire by youre leue / þat am nat. I. / [2279] for ye han ful ofte assayed / my grete silence & my grete pacience / and eek how wel þat I kan hiden & hele thynges / þat men oghten secretly to hyde [2280] ¶ And soothly / as to youre fifthe reson / wher as ye seyn / þat in wikked conseil / women venquisse men / god woot thilke reson / stant here in no stede || [2281] for vnderstond now / ye axen conseil / to do wikkedness / [2282] and if ye wole werken wikkednesse / and youre wyf restreyneth þilke wikked <sup>1</sup>purpos / & ouercometh yow by reson and by good conseil / [2283] certes youre wyf oghte rather be preyssed / than yblamed [2284] Thus sholdo ye vnderstode the Philosophie / þat seith / In wikked conseil / women venquissen hir housbondes [2285] ¶ And ther as ye blamen alle wommen / & hir resons / I shal shewe by manye ensamples / þat many a woman hath be ful good / and yet ben / & hir conseilis holsum & profitable [2286] ¶ Eke som men han seyd / þat the consyellinge of women / is outhir to deere / or ellis to litel of prys [2287] but al be it so / þat ful many a woman is badde / & hir conseil vile & noight worth / yet han men founde / ful many a good woman & ful discrete & wys in consyellinge [2288] ¶ Lo Iacob / by conseil of his moer Rebekka / wan the beyneyst of Ysaak his fader / and the lordshipe ouer alle his bretheren [2289] ¶ Iudith by hir good conseil / deliuered the Citte of Bethulye in which she dwelled / out of þe handes of Olofernus þat hadde it bisged / & wolde it al destroye [2290] ¶ Abigail / deliuered Nabal hir housbonde / fro Dauid the kyng þat wolde han slayn hym / & apseyed the Ire of the kyng / by hir wit / & by hir good consyellinge [2291] ¶ Hester by hir good conseil / enhanced gretey the peple of god in the regne of Assurus the kyng [2292] And the same bountes in good consyellinge of

of swiche wemen seyth salomon / that it were bettere to dwelle in deserth: than with a wekkedde woman that is riotous / [2278] And sire by youre leue that am not. I. [2279] for 3e han ful ofte assayed myn grete sylence & myn greete pacience / & ek how wel that I can hyde & helyn thyngis that men oughtyn secretly to hidyn [2280] ¶ And sothly as to youre fyfte reson where as 3e seyn that in wikkedde conseyl / wemen venquasse men / god wot thilkke reson stant here in no stede || [2281] for vnderstode now 3e axe conseyl to do wekkeddenesse / [2282. as to tu uolouites user de mauais conseil et de mal faire] & 3oure wif restreynyth thilke wekkede purpos / & ouyr-comyth 3ow be reson & be good conseyl / [2283] certys 3oure wyf: oughte rathere been preyssed / than I-blamyd / [2284] Thus schul 3e vnderstode the philysophere / that seyth In wekkedo conseyl women wenquysshyn here husbondys [2285] ¶ And theere as 3e blamynt alle wemen & here resonys / I schal schewe manye ensaumplys that manye a woman hath been ful good and 3it been / & here conseyls holsum & profitable [2286] ¶ Ek sum men han seyd that the consyellinge of wemen is outhir to dere or to lytyl of prys [2287] but al be it so that ful manie a woman is badde & here conseyl vile / & not worth / 3it han men foundyn ful manye a good woman / & ful descreet & wis in consyellinge / [2288] lo Iacob by conseyl of hise moodyr Rebekka / wan the beyneusont of ysaak his fadyr & the lordschepe ouyr alle hise brethern / [2289] Iudith by hire gode conseyl: deliuyerede the cete of Bethulye in which she dwellede out of the bondys of Olofernus / that hadde it be-segit & wolde it al distroye [2290] ¶ Abygail deliuerede Nabal hire husbonde <sup>1</sup>from Dauid the kyng þat wolde han slayn hym & a-psyed the ire of the kyng bi hire wit / & by hyre gode consyellinge [2291] Hester by hire gode conseyl / enhanced gretey the peple of god in the regne / of Assurus the kyng [2292] ¶ And the same bountes in good consyellinge of swiche womanen seiþ Salomon þat he were better to dwell in desert þan with a woman þat is ryeuous [2278] And aire by þours leus þat am nouht I [2279] ¶ For 3e haue ful ofte assayed my grete Cilenos and my grete pacience and eok' how wel þat he can hynde and hele þinges þat men oughten secretly to huyden [2280] ¶ and soþ as to þours fifte reson wher as 3e say þat in wikked counsaile womanen venquyshet men ¶ God wof þikke reson stant' heere in no stede [2281] ¶ For vnderstandoth now 3e axeth counsell for to do wikkednes [2282] and if 3e woken werke wikkednesse and þours wiþf restreyneþ þilke wikked purpos and ouercome þou by reson and by good counsaif [2283] certes þours wof' oughe raper to be preysed þen to be blamed [2284] ¶ This scholeþ 3e vnderstande þe philosophre þat seiþ In wikked counsaile wommen venquyshen here householdes [2285] ¶ and þere as 3e blamen alle womanen & here reasons I schal schewe þou by many ensamples þat many womanen han ben ful goode and 3et ben and her counsaile hoolsome and profitable [2286] ¶ Eke some men han seide þat þe counsaifng' of womanen is eyþer to deere or elles to lytel of pris [2287] ¶ But al be it so þat ful many womanen is badde and here counsaile vile & nouþt wof' 3et han men founden many a good woman and ful discret and wys in counsaifng' // [2288] lo Iacob purgh þe good counsaif of his moder Rebecka wan þe benyson of his fader and þe lordshipe ouer alle his breþeren .

[2289] Iudith purgh hire goode counsaile deliuered þe Cite of Buphalye in which sche dwelte out of þe lande of Olyferne þat hadde it al bysaged and wolde han al destruyet it [2290] ¶ Abegayle deliuered Nabal hir husbonde fro Dauid þe king' þat wolde han slayn him and appaysede þe yre of þe king' by hire witte and by hire goode counsaif-ng' [2291] ¶ Ester by hire counsaile enchauned gretly þe people of god in þe Regno of Assueres þe king' [2292] and þe same bounde. in good counsaifng' of CORPUS (6-T. 210) [1 leaf 131]

suchi woman seith Salomon . þat it were better a man were in desert by hym self' . þan wiþ a woman at home þat is riotours . [2278] And Sine by þours leus ' þat am nat' I .
[2279] for 3e haue ful oft' assaid my grete silence and my grete pacience. and eke how wel I can hiden and hele þinges þat men ouyten secretly to hyde [2280] ¶ And soþly as to þours .v. reson . wher as 3e sayn þat in wikked counsaile womanen venquishet men / god wofke jils is no reson in no stede . [2281] for vnderstandoth' nowe . 3e axen counsaile forto doo wikkednesse . [2282] and if 3e wiþ wirk wikkednesse and þours wiþf restreyne þilke wikkednesse & ouercommet þou by reson and by good counsaile / [2283] certes þours wifft ouy't raper to be preysed þan yblamed [2284] ¶ Thus shuld 3e vnderstande þe philosophre þat seiþ . In wikked counsaile wommen venquyshet hir husbondes [2285] And þer as 3e blamen alle womanen and her reasons I shal shewe þou by many ensamples þat many a womanen haþ bene ful good an 3if bene . and her counsaile hoolsome and profitable [2286] Eke somme men han seide þat þe counsaif of womanen is eyþer do dere or to litel of price [2287] But al be it so þat ful mony womanen is badde and her counsaile vile and not worþe / 3if han men founden ful mony a good womanen and ful discrete and wise in counsaifng' [2288] ¶ Lo Iacob by counsaile of his modere Rebecka wan þe benyson of Isak his faders and þe lordshipe of al his // [2289] Iudith by her good counsaile deliuered þe Cite of Bathulye in which sche dwelled out of þe handes of Olyferne þat had it biseched and wolde it destroye [2290] abigayle deliuered Nabell her husbonde fro dauid þe [roy qui le voloit occire, et appaisa] þe kinge by her witte and by þe good counsaif-ng' [2291] ¶ Hester By hurs good counsaile enhauned gretly þe puple of god in þe regne of Assuerus . The kinge [2292] and þe same bounde in good counsaifng' of PETWORTH (6-T. 210) [1 leaf 131] of sucho wemmen seiþo Salomon . þat him were better duelle in desert . þan wiþ a woman þat is ryeuous . [2278] And also be þours leus þat am nouht . I . [2279] For 3e haue ful oft' assaide my grete silence & my grete pacience . And eke howe wele þat . I . can hide . & hele þinges þat men ouhten sekerly to hiden : [2280] ¶ And forþe as to þours fifte resone : wher as 3e seie þat in wikked counsaile wemmen venquyþet men : Gode wote þilke 'resoun stoudeþ here in no stede : [2281] ¶ For vnder-standeþ nowe 3e ax counsell for to do wikkednesse . [2282] And if 3e wiþ wirk wikkednesse : & þours wifw restreyneþ þilke wikked purpos : And ouer-commet þowe be reson & be good counsaile . [2283] Certes þowe wif ouht raper to be preised þan to be blamed . [2284] This schold 3e vnderstande þe Philosofo þat seiþe . In wikked counsaile wemmen venquished her husbondes . [2285] And þere as 3e blame al wemmen & here reasons . I schal schewe þou be monye ensamples þat many wemmen han bene ful goode & þut buon . ¶ An here counsel holosome & profitable [2286] eke : Sommen haue seid þat counsailings of wemmen es eiper to dere or elles to lite of prise [2287] ¶ Bot al be it so þat ful mony a womanen is badde . & hire counsel vile & not worþe .

3if haþe men founden mony a goode woman . & ful discrete & wise in counsaifng' . [2288] ¶ Lo Iacob þorube þe good counsel of his moder Rebec // whan he hadde . þe benyson of his fader . & þe lordshipe ouere al his breþer .
[2289] ¶ Indipe þorube hire goode counsaile deliuered þe Cite of Buphylie in which sche dwelte oute of þe hande of Olyferne þat hit beseged : & wolde haue al destruyed it .
[2290] ¶ Abegayle deliuer Nabal hire husbonde fro dauid þe kinge þat wold haue sleyne him & apesed þe ire of þe kinge be hire witte & be hire good counsaif-ng' . [2291] ¶ Ester be hire counsaile enchauned gretlye þe peple of god in þe regne of Assur [2292] ¶ And þe same bounde in good consailings of LANSDOWNE (6-T. 210) [1 leaf 103]

many a good woman may men telle [2293] ¶ And moore ouer / whan our lord hadde creat Adam oure forme fader / he seyde in this wise / [2294] It is nat good / to be a man alloone / make we to hym an helpe semblable to hym self / [2295] ¶ Here may ye se / that if that women were nat gooode and hir conseilz gooode & profitable / [2296] oure lord god of heuene / wolde neuer han wrought hem / no called hem / help of man but rather confusion of man [2297] ¶ And ther seyde ones a clerk in <sup>two</sup> vers ¶ what is bettre / than gold ? I aspre ¶ What is bettre than Iaspre ? wisdom [2298] ¶ And what is bettre than wisdom ? woman ¶ And what is bettre than a good woman ? no thyng [2299] ¶ And sire by manye of othere reons / may ye seen / that manye women been gooode / and hir conseilz gooode and profitable ¶ [2300] And therefore sire / if ye wol truste to my conseil / I shal restore yow / youre doghter / hool and sound / [2301] And ek / I wol do to yow so muche / that ye shul haue honour in this cause /

¶ Melibeus

[2302] ¶ Whan Melibeus hadde herd the wordes of his wyf Prudence / he seyde thus [2303] ¶ I se wel that the word of Salomon is sooth ¶ he seith that wordes þat been spoken discretly by ordynance / been honycombes / for they yeven swetnesse to the soule / and holsumnesse to the body [2304] ¶ And wyf / by cause of thy swete wordes / and ek / for I haue assayed and preued thy grette sapience / and thy grette trouthe / I wol governe me by thy consel / in alle thyng /

¶ Prudence

[2305] Now sire quod dame Prudence / and syn ye vouche sauf / to been governed by my conseil / I wol enforme yow / how ye shul governe yow self / in chesynge of youre conseilours [2306] ¶ Ye shal first / in alle youre werkis / mekely / biseken to the heighe god / þat he wol be youre conseilour / [2307] And shapeth yow / to swich entente / that he yeue yow conseil and confort as taughte

¶ Thobias

Thobias his sone // [2308] ¶ At alle tymes / thou schalt blesse

ELLESMEERE (6-r. 211) ¶ leaf 104, back

many a good woman / may men telle [2293] ¶ And moore ouer / whan þat oure lord / hadde creat Adam oure forme fader / he seyde in this wise / [2294] It is nat good to be / a man allone / make we to hym an help / semblable to hym self / [2295] ¶ Heere may ye se / þat if þat women were nat gooode & hir conseil / good & profitable / [2296] oure lord god of heuene / wolde neither han wrought
hem / no called hem help of man / but rather / confusion of man ¶ [2297] ¶ And ther seyde ones a clerk in two vers ¶ What is bettre than gold / Iaspre / What is bettre than Iaspre / wisdom ¶ [2298] ¶ And what is bettre than wisdom / Woman / and what is bettre than god Woman / no thyng [2299] ¶ And sire / by manye of othere reons may ye seen / þat manye women been gooode / & hir conseil good & profitable : [2300] And ther fore sire / if ye wol truste to my conseil / I shal restore yow youre doghter / hool & sound / [2301] and ek / I wol doon to yow so muche / þat ye shul haue honour in this cause :

[2302] ¶ Whan Melibeus hadde herd the wordes / of his wyf Prudence / he seyde thus [2303] ¶ I se wel / þat the word of Salomon / is sooth ¶ he seith / þat wordes þat ben spoken discretly by ordynance / both honycombes / for they yeven swetnesse to the soule / & holsumnesse to the body ¶ [2304] And wyf / by cause of the swete wordes / and ek / for I haue assayed & preued / thy grette sapience / & thy grette trouthe / I wol governe me by thy consel / in alle thyng

[2305] ¶ Now sire / quod dame Prudence / and syn ye
vouche sauf / to been governed by my conseil / I wol enforme yow / how ye shal governe yow self / in chesynge
of youre conseilours [2306] ¶ Ye shal first / in alle youre
werkis / mekely biseken to the heighe god / þat he wol be youre conseilour / [2307] & shapeth yow / to swich entente / þat he yeue yow conseil / & confort as taughte Thobias his sone // [2308] ¶ At alle tymes / thou schalt blesse

HENGWRT (6-r. 211) ¶ leaf 222

¶ Note at bottom of leaf 219.—Arro quid mites / Iaspre quid lampis. ames.
Secus quid / Mulier quid Melibeus / utalil.

manye a good woman may men telle / [2293] & moore ouer / whan that oure lord hadde creat Adam / oure forme fadyr / he seyde in this wyse / [2294] It is not good to be a man a-loone / make we to hym an helpe / semblable to hym self // [2295] Heere may ye se / that if that women were nat gooode / no here conseil good & profitable : [2296] oure lord god of heuene wolde neythir han wrought hem / ne callede hem helpof man / but rather confusoun of man / [2297] ¶ And there seyde onys a clerk in two vers / What is betere than gold. Iaspre. What is betere than Iaspre / Wysdom / [2298] What is betere than wysdom / woman / & What is betere than good woman / no shynng. [2299] ¶ And sire by manye oþere reowsys may ye se þat manye women been gooode / & here conseil good & profitable / [2300] and therfore þif ye wol truste to myn conseil : I schal restore yow youre dougtryr hool & sound / [2301] and ek I wele do so mechil that ye schal haue honour in this cause [2302]

¶ Whan Melibeus hadde herd the wordes / of his wyf Prudence / he seyde thus [2303] ¶ I se wel that the word of Salomon is soth ¶ he seith that wordis / that been spokyn discretly by ordynance / been honycombis / for they yeven swetenesse / to the soule / & holsumnesse to the body [2304] ¶ And wyf / by cause / of the swete swete wordis / and ek / for I haue assayed & preuyd thy grette sapience / & thy grette trouthe / I wele governe me by thy conseyll in alle thyngs / . [2305]

¶ Now seere quod dame prudence / an syn ye vouche sauf to been governed by myn conseil / I wele enforme yow / how ye schal governe yow / self in chesynge of youre conseilour [2306] ¶ Ye schal first in alle youre werkys / meekoly besekyn to the hye god that he wele been youre conseilour / [2307] and schapith yow to swyche entente that he yeue yow conseil & confort as taughte Thobias his sone // [2308] ¶ At alle tymys thou schalt blesse

CAMBRIDGE (6-r. 211) ¶ leaf 221, back many a woman may men telle [2293] ¶ And forþemore when þat oure lord had created Adam oure forme fader:

 he sayde in þis wise / [2294] It wys nought god to be a man alone ¶ Make we an helper semblable to himself. [2295] ¶ Here may þe see þat if þat womanne were nouȝt good and hire counseil good and profitable: [2296] Oure lord god of heuene ne wolde neuer han y-wrouȝt hem ne called hem þe helper of man [ . . . . .
 no gap. ] [2297] ¶ And þer sayde ones a clerk in tuo vers / what is bettre þan a good laspre [ . . . . .
 . . . no gap. ] wisdom [2298] And what is bettre þan wisdom woman and what is bettre þan woman þat is a good woman no þing? [2299] ¶ And sire by many of oþer resonis may þe see þat many womanne ben goode and eke here counseil good and profitable [2300] ¶ And þerfore sire if þe wilt truste to my counseil: I schal restore þou youre daughter hool and sound [2301] ¶ And eke þat I wol to þou don so moche þat þe schuln haue honour in þis caas [2302] ¶ When melybe had herde þe wordes of his wif Prudence: he sayde þus [2303] þat þe wordes of Salomon is soþ ¶ For he seiþ þat wordes þat ben spoken discretly by ordynance ben hony combes for þei ȝeuen swetness to þe soule and holsumnes to þe body [2304] ¶ And wyf by cause of þi swete wordes and eke for I haue y-proued and sayd þi grete sapience and þi grete trouþe I wol gouerne me by þyn counseil in alle þing

[2305] ¶ Now sire quod dame Prudence and seþen þe fouche sauf to be gouerned by my counseil: I wil enforme þou how þat þe schuln gouerne þoure self in chesing of þoure counsellours [2306] ¶ þe schuln first forme alle þoure werkis mekely bysachon to þe hiȝe god þat he wol ben þour counsellour [2307] And schapeþ þou to such entent þat he ȝine þou counseil and confort as taughte Thoby'e to his some [2308] At alle tymes. thot schalt þe blisse mony a good woman may men telle / [2293] and more-ouer when our lord had create Adam our forme fadere he saide in þis wise [2294] ¶ It is nat good to be a man alone. make we to hym an helpe of[un]blable to him self [2295] ¶ Here may þe see þat if womanne were nat good and her counsaile good and profitable [2296] Oure lord god of heuen wolde neijer haue wrouȝt hem. ne called hem helpe of man. but raper confusion to man. [2297] And þat seide onys a clerk in tuo vers.

 What is bette þan gold. Isaper. And what is better þan Isapo. Wisdome. [2298] And what is better þan wisdom Woman. and what is better þan good woman no þing. [2299] And sire by many oþer resonis may þe see þat womanne bene good [et leur conseil bon] and profitable. [2300] And þerfore þif þe wilt truste to my counsaile I shal restore þou youre douȝtere hool and sound. [2301] And eke I wil do to þou so moche þat þe haue honour in þis caas [2302] ¶ When malybe harde þe wordes of his wif Prudence he saide þus. [2303] I see wel þat þe wordes of Salomon bene soþe. He seiþ þat wordes þat ben spoken discretely by ordinaunce. bene hony combes for þei ȝeuen swetness to þe soule and holsumnesse to þe body [2304] And wif by cause of þi swete wordes and eke for I haue assied and preued þi grete sapience and þi grete trouþe I wil gouerne me by þi counsaile in alle þing

[2305] ¶ Now sire quod dame prudence and siþen þe vouche sauf to be gouerned by my counsaile I wil enforme þowe howe þe shul gouerne þoure selfe in chesing of youre counsaile. [2306] þe shal first in al þoure werkis mekely bysachon to þe hiȝe god þat he wil be þoure counsellour [2307] and shapeþ as to such entent þat he ȝeue þou counsaile and comforte as taughte Theybe his some. [2308] At al tymes þow schalt blisse mony womanne mai men tell [2293] ¶ And forþere more when þat oure lord hadde created Adam oure forme fadere.

 he seide in þis wise [2294] it is nought god to be a man alone Make we an helper semblable to him self: [2295] Here maie þe see þat if þat womanne were nouȝt goode & here counsaile goode & profitable: [2296] oure lord god of heuen ne wolde neyþer haue wrouȝt hem ne called hem þe helper of man. [ . . . . .
 . . . ] [2297] ¶ And þere seide ones a clerk in tuo vers.
 What is better þan golde. Isaper: what is better þan Isaper. wisdom. [2298] And what is better þan wisdom Woman./ And what is bester þan woman. þat is a good woman. noþing. [2299] ¶ And sire be moynge of oþer resonis may þe see þat my womanne ben goode.
 & eke here counsaile goode & profitable also [2300] ¶ And þerfor sire if þe wilt trust vnto mi counsel .I. schal restore youre daughter hole & sounde. [2301] and eke þat .I. wil done to þowe so moche þat þe schal haue honour in þis caas [2302] ¶ whan Malibe hadde herde þe wordes of his wif Prudence. he seide þus: [2303] That þe wordes of salomon is soþe for he seiþe þat þe wordes þat been spoken discretelye be ordinance bien honye combes:

 For þei ȝeue swetness to þe soule & holsumness to þe bodye: [2304] And wif be cause of þi swete wordes & eke for .I. haue prouede & assaide þi grete sapience & þi grete treweþe .I. wil gouerne me be þi counsel in alle þing

[2305] ¶ Nowe. sire quod Dam Prudence & seþen þe vouche sauf to be gouerned be my counsel .I. wil enforme þowe how þat þe schal gouerne þoure selue In chesinge of youre counsellours. [2306] ¶ þe schol first forme al þoure werkis mekely. beseechinge to þe hiȝe gode þat he wolde be þoure. counsellour. [2307] And schapeþ þowe to suche entent þat he ȝeue þowe counsel & comforte as taughte Thobe to his soþ [2308] At all times þow schalt blisse god and praye hym / to dresse thy weyes / and looke / þot alle thy counsels ben in hym for enurmore [2309] ¶ Seint

 Iame eek seith || If any of yow hane ned of sapience / axe it of god [2310] ¶ And afterward / thanne schal þe take conseil of yours [sel] and examyne wel youre thoughtes / of swich thyng as yow thynketh þat is best for youre profit [2311] And thanne schal þe dryue fro youre herte / thre thynges that ben contrarious to good conseil / [2312]
 That is to seyn / Ire / coueityse / and hastynesse

[2313] ¶ fyrst he þat axeth conseil of hym self / certes / he moste ben with-outen Ire / for many causes [2314] the firste is this ¶ he þat hath greet Ire and wrathe in hym self / he weneþ alwey þat he may do thyng that he may nat do [2315] ¶ And secondly / he þat is Irouis and wrooth / he ne may nat wel deme / [2316] and he þat may nat wel deme / may nat wel counseil [2317] ¶ The thridde is this / that he þat is Irouis and wrooth as seith Senek / ne may nat speke / but he blame thynges / [2318] and with his vicious wordes / he stireth oother folk / to Anger and to Ire [2319] ¶ And eek sire / ye moste dryue coueityse out of youre herte / [2320] for the Apostle seith ¶ That coueityse is roote of alle harmes [2321] And trust wel / that a coueicious man ne kan nocht deme ne thynke / but only to fulfill the ende of his coueityse / [2322] and certes / that he may neuere ben accomplich / for euere /
 the moore habundance þat he hath of richesse / the moore
 he desireth [2323] ¶ And sire / ye moste also / dryue out of youre herte hastynesse / for certes / [2324] ye no may nat deme for the beste a sodryn thought / that falthe in youre herte / but ye moste auyse yow on it ful ofte / [2325] for as ye herde bifore / The comune prouerbe is this ¶ That he þat soone deemeth / soone repenteth.

[2326] ¶ Sire / ye ne be nat alwey in lyke disposicion [2327] for certes / som thyng þot somtyme semeth to yow / that it is good for to do / Another tyme it semeth to yow the contrary /

god & praye hym to dresse thy weyes / and looke þot
 alle thy counsels ben in hym for enurmore [2309] ¶ Seint
 Iame eek seith || If any of yow / hane ned of Sapience / axe
 it of god [2310] ¶ And afterward / thanne schal þe take conseil in your self / & examyne wel youre thoughtes / of swiche thynges as yow thynketh / þat is best for youre profit [2311] and thanne schal yo dryue fro youre herte / thre
 thynges / that ben contrarious to good conseil / [2312]
 that is to seyn / Ire / Coueityse / & hastynesse

[2313] ¶ fyrst he þat axeth conseil of hym self / certes
 he moste be with-outen Ire / for many causes [2314]
 ¶ The firste is this || he þat hath greet Ire & wrathe in hym self / he weneþ alwey þat he may do thyng þat he
 may nat do || [2315] ¶ And secondly / he þat is Irouis & wroþ / he ne may nat wel deme / [2316] and he
 þat may nat wel deme / may nat wel counseil || [2317] ¶ The thridde is this / that he þat is Irouis & wroþ as seith Senek / ne may nat speke / but blameful thynges / [2318]
 and with his vicious wordes / he stireth oother folk to anger / & to Ire || [2319] ¶ And eek sire / ye moste dryue
 coueityse / out of youre herte / [2320] for the Apostle seith / þat Coueityse / is the roote of alle harmes / [2321] and trust wel / þat a coueicious man ne kan nat deme / ne thenke / but only to fulfill the ende of his coueityse / [2322] &
 certes / that he may neuere ben accomplich / for euere
 the moore habundance þat he hath of richesse / the moore
 he desireth [2323] ¶ And sire / ye moste also / dryue out of youre herte / hastynesse / for certes [2324] ye may nat deme for þe beste / a sodryn thought / þat falthe in
 youre herte / but ye moste auyse yow on it ful ofte [2325] for as ye herde bifore / the comune prouerbe is this / that he / þat soone demeth / soone repenteth

[2326] Sire ye ne ben nat alwey / in lyke disposicion [2327] for certes / som thyng þot somtyme semeth to yow / þat it is good for to do / another tyme / it semeth
 to yow the contrary /

god / And preye hym to dresse thynne weyes / and loke þat alle thynne counseyls / been in hym for euere moore / [2309] seynt Iame / ok seyth / If any of yow hane ned of sapience / axe it of god / [2310] And afterward / thanne schal þe take conseil in youre self / & examyne wel youre thoughtis / of swiche thyngis / as yow thynketh / that is best for youre profyt [2311] and thanne schal þe dryue forth / from youre herte / the thyngis that ben contrarious to good conseil / [2312] that is to seyne / yre coueityse / & hastynesse /

[2313] fyrst he that axeth conseil of hymself / certis he muste ben with-outyn Ire / for many causes // [2314]
 The ferste is this / he that hat gret wrathe & yre in hym self he wenyth alwey that he may don thyng / that he may not doon / [2315] And secondly he that is yrouis & wraethful / he ne may not wel deme / [2316] And he that may nat wel deme / may nat wel counseyl [2317] ¶ Anothir is this / that he that is yrouis & wraethful as seyth Senek / ne may not spekn but blameful thyngis / [2318] and with his vicious wordis he stireth oother folk to angir / & to yre [2319] ¶ And ek sere þe muste dryue coueityse out of youre herte [2320] for the thapostle seyth / that coueityse / is rote of alle harmes / [2321] & truste wel / that a coueicious man ne can not deme ne thynke / but only to fulylle the ende of his coueityse / [2322] and certis that he may neuere / ben accomplich / for euere the moore habundance þat he hath of rychesse the moore he desyryth [2323] ¶ And the moste also dryuyth out of youre herte / hastynesse / for certis [2324] þe may not demyn for the beste of a sodryn thougt that falthe in youre herte but þe muste auyse þow on it ful ofte / [2325] for as þe herde here be-for / the comune prouerbe / is this / that he that soone demyth soone repentyth //

[2326] Sire þe be nat alwey I-lyk in disposicion / [2327] for certis sum thyng / that auntyme semyth to þow that it is good for to do / a nothir tyme it aunty to þow the contrary

¶ Senecus
Iambus¶ Of All thynges þat bene contrar-ious to Good counsil

¶ Senecus

¶ Aperticia

god and preyen him to dresse / pine weyes, and loke also þat pine counsailes ben in him for euermore [2309] ¶ Seint Iame seiþ ¶ If any of you haue neede of Sapience: aske it of god [2310] ¶ And afterward þenne schullen 3e take counsel in youre self and examyn wel youre owne pouztes of swiche pinges as you þenkeþ þat is best for youre profit [2311] ¶ And þenne schulle 3e dryue fro youre hertes pinges þat bene contrarious to good counsaile [2312] þat is to say, Ire, Coneytise, and hastynes.

[2313] first he þat askeþ counsaile of himself: certes he moste be wipouten Ire [ . . . . . ] [2314] . . . . . no gap in the MS.] and wraþpe in himself he weneþ alway þat he may do þing þat he may not do [2315] ¶ And secondly he þat is Irouis and wroþ he [ . . . . . ] [2316] no gap in the MS.] may nought wal counsaile [2317] ¶ The briddo is þis, þat he þat is Irouis and wroþ as seiþ Senek: he may nought speke but blameful pinges [2318] And with þilke vicious wordes he streþ oþer folk to anger and to Ire [2319] And eke sirs 3e moste drede coneytise out of youre hertes. [2320] for þe apostol seiþ þat coneytise is þe roote of alle harmes. [2321] And trusteþ riht wel þat a coneytouse man no can nought deme ne þenke but only to fulfill þe ende of his coneytise. [2322] and certes þat no may neuer be accomplished. for ever þe more habundance þat he haþ of riches: þe more he desireþ. [2323] ¶ And sirs 3e moste also driue out of youre hertes hastynes [2324] ¶ For certes 3e may nouþt deme for þe beste a soðeyn þouht þat falleþ in youre herte ¶ But 3e moste arise you on hit ful ofte [2325] ¶ for as 3e haue herd here bifore þis comune proverbe is þis That he þat seþe demþe some repenteþ //

[2326] Sire 3e be no nouþt alwey in ylike disposicion [2327] for certes some þing þat some tyme semeþ to you þat is good for to do. Anþer tyme it semeþ to you þe contrarie.

[A great bit is now omitted in Corpus.]

god and prey he to dresse þi weyes, and loke alle þi counsailes bene in hym for euermore [2309] ¶ Seint Iame eke seiþ. If any of you haue neede of Sapience, axe it of god. [2310] and afterward þan shal 3e take counsaile in youre self, and examyne wel youre pouztes of such pinges as you þenkeþ þat is best for youre profit. [2311] And þan shal 3e driue from youre hert þoo þat bene contrarious to good counsaile. [2312] þat is to sayn Ire, Conetise and hastinesse.

[2313] first he þat askeþ counsaile of hym self certys he moste bene wip-outen Ire, for many causes [2314] ¶ þe first is þis. He þat haþ grete Ire and wroþe in hym self he weneþ alway þat he may doo þat he may nat doo [2315] ¶ And secondly he þat is Irouis and wroth, he no may nat wel deme. [2316] [and he þat] may nat wel [deme may nat wel] counsaile [2317] ¶ The iij. is this þat he þat is Irouis and wroþe as seiþ Senec: he may nat speke but blameful pinges / [2318] and wiþ þilke vicious wordes he streþ oþer folk to anger and to Ire. [2319] And eke sirs 3e moste dryue Coneytise out of youre hert. [2320] for þe apostol seiþ þat Coneytise is roote of alle harmes. [2321] And trusteþ wel þat a coneytous man no can nat deme [no thinke] but only to fulfill þe ende of his coneytise [2322] and certes þat mai neuer be accomplished. for ever more þe habundance þat he haþ of Richesse þe more he desireþ. [2323] ¶ And sirs 3e moste also dryue away from youre hert hastynes [2324] for certes 3e may not deme for þe best a soðeyn þouht þat falleþ in youre hert. ¶ But 3e moste arise you on it ful oft. [2325] for as 3e haue herd here bifore þis comune proverbe. It is þis þat he þat seþe demþe, some repenteþ.

[2326] Sire 3e bene not alwey in like disposicion [2327] for certes some þing þat some tyme semeþ to you good to do. Anþer tyme it semeþ to you þe contrarie

god & prei him to dresson pine weies. And loke also þat þi counsaile ben in him for euermore. [2309] ¶ Seint Iame seiþe if any of 3owe haue neede of sapiens axte it of god [2310] ¶ And afterward þan scholne 3e take counsel in youre self And examine vele youre owen writtes of suche pinges as you þenkeþ þat is beste for youre profit [2311] ¶ And þan schal 3e driue fro youre hert pinges þat bene contrarious to good consell. [2312] þat is to seie. Ire . coneytise . & hastenesse.

[2313] ¶ First he þat askeþ counsel of him self certes he moste be wip-outen ire [ . . . . . ] [2314] . . . . . no gap in the MS.] & wraþe in him-self: He weneþ al wraþ þat he maie do þing þat he maie nouht do: [2315] ¶ And secondly he þat is yrouis & wroþe he may nouht wel [ . . . . . ] [2316] . . . . . no gap in the MS.] counsel [2317] ¶ þe þredde is þis: þat he þat is Irouis & wroþe as seiþ Senec ne maie noust speke bot blame-ful pinges. [2318] And wiþ þilke vicious wordes: he streþ oþere folke to angur. & to Ire. [2319] ¶ And eke sirs 3owe moste drede coneytise & put it oute of 3oure hert. [2320] ¶ For þe Apostol seiþ: þat Coneytise is þe rote of al harmes [2321] ¶ And trusteþ riht wel þat a coneytouse man can noust deme no þinke bot only to fulfil þe ende of his coneytise: [2322] And certes þat mai neuer be accomplished ¶ For ever þe mo abundance þat he haþe of riches þe more he desireþ. [2323] ¶ And sirs 3owe most also driue oute of 3oure herte hastifnesse [2324] For certes 3e maie not deme for 3e best A sodan þouht þat falleþ in 3oure herte Bot 3ow mot arise on it ful oft. [2325] For as 3e haue herd here be-forne: þe comune proverbe is þis. That he þat seþe some demþe some repenteþ.

[2326] ¶ Sire 3e be not alweie in like disposicion. [2327] For certes some þing þat some time semeþ to 3owe goods for to do: Anþer time it semeþ to 3owe þe contrarie

[A great bit is now omitted in Lansdowne.]

[2328] when ye han taken conseil of youre self / and han demed by good deliberacion swich thyng/ as you list best/ [2329] ¶ Thanne rede I yow / that ye kepe it/ 'secre' / [2330] biwrey nat youre conseil to no persone / but if so be that ye wenen sikerly / that thurgh youre biwreyng' youre condicio' / shal be to yow the moore profitable [2331] ¶ for Ihesus Syrak seith / Neither to thy foe ne to thy frend / discouere nat thy secree as thy folie / [2332] for they wol yow youre Audiance and lookyngs / to supportacion in thy presence / and scorne thee in thy absence [2333] ¶ Another clerk seith / That scarcely shal thou fynden any persone / that may kepe conseil sikerly [2334] ¶ The book seith / whil þat thou kepest thy conseil in thyh herte / thou kepest it in thy prison / [2335] And when thou biwreyest thy conseil to any wight / he holdeth thee in his snare [2336] ¶ And therefore yow is bettre to hyde youre conseil in youre herte / than praye hym / to whom ye han biwreyed youre conseil / that he wole kepen it clos and stille [2337] ¶ for Seneca seith ¶ If so be / þat thou ne mayst nat thyh owene conseil hyde / how darstou prayen any other wight / thy conseil sikerly to kepe [2338] ¶ But natheles / If thou wene sikerly / þat thy biwreyng' of thy conseil to a persone / wol make thy condicio' to stonden in the bettere plyt/ thanne shal thou telle hym thy conseil in this wise [2339] ¶ first thou shalt make no semblant/ whether the were leuere pes or werre / or this / or that . ne shewe hym nat thy wille and thyh entente / [2340] for trust wel / þat counseil these consailours ben flaterours / [2341] namely the consailours of grete lordes / [2342] for they enforcen hem alwey / rather to speke plesante wordes / enclenyng to the lordes lust / than wordes þat ben trewe / or profitable [2343] ¶ And therefore / men seyn / þat the riche man hath selde good conseil / but if he haue it of hym self [2344] ¶ And after that thou shalt considere thy freendes and thyne enemyes [2345] And as touchyng thy freendes thou shalt con-

¶ Thanne
Syrak /

¶ Seneca

¶ How a man shalt telle his conseil

[2328] when yow han taken conseil in your self / and han demed by good deliberacion/ swich thyng/ as yow semeth best [2329] ¶ Thanne rede I yow / þat ye kepe it secree / [2330] biwrey nat youre conseil / to no persone / but if so be þat ye wenen 'sikerly' / þat thurgh youre biwreyng' youre condicio' shal ben to yow moore profitable || [2331] for Ihesus Syrak seith || Neither to thy foe ne to thy frend / discouere nat thy secree / ne thy folie / [2332] for they wol yow youre audiance / & loking' & supportacio' in thy presence / & scorne thee in thy absence [2333] ¶ Another clerk seith / þat scarcely shal thou fynden any persone / þat may kepe conseil secretly [2334] ¶ The book seith / whil þat thou kepest thy conseil in thyh herte / thou kepest it in thy prison / [2335] And when thou biwreyest thy conseil to any wight / he holdeth thee in his snare / [2336] And therefore yow is bettre to hyde youre conseil in youre herte / than preyen hym / to whom ye haue biwreyed youre conseil / þat he wole kepen it clos & stille [2337] ¶ for Seneca seith / If so be / þat thou ne mayst nat thyh owene conseil hyde / how darstow preyen any other wight / thy conseil secretly to kepe || [2338] But natheles / if thou wene sikerly / þat thy biwreyng' of thy conseil to a persone / wol maken thy condicio' / to stonden in the bettere plyt/ thanne shal thou telle hym thy conseil / in this wise [2339] ¶ first thou shalt make no semblant/ whether the were leuere / pes or werre / or this / or that / ne shewe hym nat thy wyl & thyh entente / [2340] for trust wel þat counsely / these consailours ben flaterours / [2341] namely / the consailours of grete lordes / [2342] for they enforcen hem alwey / rather to speke plesante wordes / enclenyng to the lordes lust / than wordes þat ben trewe / or profitable / [2343] And therefore men seyn / þat the riche man hath selde good conseil / but if he haue it of hym self / [2344] And after that thou shalt considere thy freendes / & thyne enemyes / [2345] And as touchyng thy freendes / thou shalt con-

[2328] ¶ When þe han takyn conseil in þoure self / & han demyd by good deliberacion / swich thyng as þow semyth best / [2329] thanne rede I þow / that þe kepe it secree / [2330] biwreye not þoure conseil to no persone / but if so be that þe wenyen sikerly / that thour þoure biwreyng / þoure condycion schal ben to þow the moore profitable // [2331] for Ihesus Syrak seith / neither to thyn fo ne to thyn frend / discouere nat thyh secree ne thyh folye / [2332] for they wole þeow þow audyence & lokyngs & supportacion in þoure presence / & skorne þow in þoure absence // [2333] A nothir clerk seyth / that scarcely schalt thou fyndyn any persone / that may kepe conseil secretly / [2334] the bok seyth / whil that thou kepist thy conseil in thyh herte thou kepest it in thyh prison / [2335] And when thou biwreyist thyh conseil to any wight he holdyth the in his snare [2336] And therefore þow is betere / to hyde þoure conseil in þoure herte / than preyen hym to whom þe han biwreyed þoure conseil / that he wole kepe it clos & styll [2337] ¶ for Seneca seith If so be that thou ne mayst / not thyh owene conseil hyde / how mayst thou preyen any other wight thyh conseil secretly to kepyn / [2338] But natheles if thou wene sikerly that thyh biwreyng of thyh conseil to a persone wole make thyh condycion stondyn in the bettere plyt thanne schalt thou telle hym thyh conseil in this wyse [2339] fyrst thou schalt make no semblant whether the were leuere pes or werre / or this / or that / ne shew hym nat thyh wille ne thyh entent / [2340] for troste wel that comunly these / consaylours been flaterours [2341] namely the consaylours of greete lordis / [2342] for they enforse hem alwey rather to speke plesante wordis enclenyng to othere lordys lust / than othere that ben trewe / & profitable / [2343] And therefore men seyn / that ryche men / han selde good conseil / but if he haue it of hym self / [2344] and aftry that thou schalt considere thyne frendys / & thyne enemy . [2345] And as touchyng thyne frendys / thou schalt con-

[2328] [Whon ye han taken counsaile in your self And han demed bi good deliberacion siche ping as you semip best [2329] ¶ þanne rede I / you that ye kepe it sece / [2330] bewre not your counsaile to no persone. bot it so be. þat ye wene sikerli þat þurgh your bewring / your condicion shal be to you þe more profitable [2331] ¶ For Theseus Siraic saip ¶ Neiper to þi foo ne to þi frende. discouper not þi sece ne þi foli. [2332] for þai wil yow see audience and loking and supportacion in þi presence and scorne in þi absence. [2333] ¶ Another clerk saip þat scarsli shalt þou finde any persone þat mai kepe counsil secretly. [2334] ¶ The book saip while þou kepest þi counsil in þin hert þou kepist it in þi prison / [2335] and when þou bewrest þi counsaile to any wright / the holdþe þe in his snare / [2336] And þerfore you is better hide your counsaile. in your hert / þan praien him to whom ye have bewrest your counsil þat he wil kepe it cloe and stille. [2337] ¶ For Seneca saip if so be. þat þou ne maist not. þin owne counsaile hide. How dost þou praien any oþer wright / þi counsil secretly to kepe. [2338] ¶ Bot naþeles if þou wone siendli / þat þi bewryngs of þi counsaile to a persone wil make þi condicion to stonde in a better plite. Then shalt þou tellen him þi counsil in þis wise [2339] ¶ First þou shalt make no semblant / where þe were leuer verre or werr. or þis. or þat. no shew him not þi wille / and þin entent [2340] ¶ For trust wel þat comunli þise counsellours. ben flaterers And [2341] namely þe counsellours of grete lordes. [2342] for þei enforcen hem alwey raper to speke plesant wordes. enclynynge to þe lordes lust þan wordes þat ben trewe. and profitable. [2343] ¶ And þerfore men sai þat þe riche man hap seiden good counsaile / bot he hane it of himself [2344] ¶ And after þat þou shalt considere þi frendes and þi enemyes. / [2345] And as touching þi frendes. þou shalt con-
CORPUS (6-r. 218) [this page, Laud 800]

[Laud MS. 800, leaf 203]

noce

[Laud MS. 800, leaf 203]

[2328] ¶ Whan þe han taken counsaile in þoure self and so han demed bi good deliberacion such þingges as þou semest best / [2329] þan rede I þou þat þe kepe it sece [2330] Bywry nat þoure counsaile to no persone. but if so be þat þe wenen þat sikerli þat þurgh þoure bewryngs þoure condicion shal be þe more profitable. [2331] for Theseus Ciraic saip. neiper to þi foo ne to þi frende discouere not þi sece ne þi folye [2332] for þei wil þe see þe audience and lokinge and supportacion in þi presence and scorne þe in þine absence [2333] ¶ Another clerk saip þat scarsli shalt þow fynden any persone þat may kepe counsaile secretly. [2334] þe boke saip. Whilest þat þou kepest þi counsaile in þine herte þou kepest it in þi prison. [2335] And when þou bywrest þi counsaile to any wright he holdþe þe in his snare [2336] And þerfore it is better hide þi counsaile in þine hert. þan praien hym to whom þe han bywrest þoure counsaile þat he wil kepen it cloe and stille [2337] ¶ for Seneca saip. If so be þat þou ne may þine owne counsaile hide. how maist þou praien any oþer wright þi sece counsaile to kepe [2338] ¶ But naþeles gif þou wene sikerly þat þi bewryngs of þi counsaile to a persone wil make þi condicion stonden in a better plite. þan shalt þou telle him þi counsaile in þis wise [2339] ¶ first þou shalt make no semblant whedere þe were leuer þou or werr. or þis or þat. no schewe hym nat þi wille and þine entent. [2340] for trust wel þat comunly þise counsellours bene flaterers [2341] and namely þe counsellours of grete lordys. [2342] for þei enforcen hem alway raper to speke plesant wordys enclynynge to þe lordes lust þan wordes þat bene trewe and profitable [2343] ¶ And þerfore men sayne þat þe riche man hap seiden good counsaile. but gif he hane it of hym self [2344] And after þat þow shalt considere þi frendes and þine enemyes. [2345] and as touching þi frendes þou shalt con-
PETWORTH (6-r. 218)

[2328] [Whan ye han taken counsaile into youre self and han demed bi good deliberacion siche thyng as þow semyth best [2329] than rede I yow that ye kepe it sece [2330] bewry your counsaile to no persone. but if so be that ye wene sikerly that thurgh your bewryngs your condicion shalbe to youre more profitable [2331] for Theseus Syrac saith neyther to thy foo ne to thy friend discouere nat thy sece ne thy folye [2332] for they wil weve the audience and lokinge and supportacion in thy presence and scorn in thy absence [2333] Another clerk seith that scarsly thou shalt fynde any persone that may kepe thy counsaile secretly [2334] The booke seith while that thou kepest thy counsaile in thy hert thou kepest it in thy prison [2335] and when thou bywrest thy counsaile to any wright he holdith the in his snare [2336] And therfor you is better to hide your counsaile in your hert than pray hym to whom ye have bewrest your counsaile that he wil kepe it cloe and stille [2337] for Seneca seith if so be that thou ne mayst thyn owne counsaile hide / how darstow pray any other wright thy counsaile secretly to kepe / [2338] But naþeles if thou wene sikerly that thy bewryngs of thy counsaile to a persone wil make thy condicion to stonde in the better plite than shalt thou telle hym thy counsaile in this wise [2339] first thou shalt make no semblant whether the were leuer þe than werr or this or that ne shewe hym nat thy wil and thyn entent. [2340] for trust wele that comunly these counsellours ben flaterers [2341] namely the counsellours of grete lordes [2342] for they enforcen hem alwey rather to speke plesant wordis enclynynge to the lordis lust. than wordis that ben trewe or profitable [2343] and therfor men sayn that the riche man hath seiden good counsaile. but if he have it of hym self [2344] and after that thou shalt considere thy frendis and thyne enemyes [2345] And as towching thy frendis thou shalt con-
LANSDOWNE (6-r. 218) [this page, MS Reg.] (Lansd.)

[MS Reg. 17 D 27, leaf 206, bt]

sidere / wichc of hem / þat been moost feithful and moost wise / and eldest' & moost approued in conseillyng' / [2346] And of hem shalþ thou aske thy conseil / as the cases requyreth

[2347] ¶ I seye / þat first / ye shul clepe to youre conseil / youre freendes that been trewe [2348] ¶ For Salomon seith ¶ That right' as the herte of a man deliteth in sauour þat is soote / right so / the conseil of trewe freendes / yoweth swetness to the soule / [2349] Ho seith also ¶ Iher may no thyng be likned to the trewe freend // [2350] for certes gold ne siluer / both nat so muche worth as the goode wyl of a trewe freend [2351] ¶ And eek he seith / that a trewe frend / is a strong defense / who so þat hym fyndeth / certes / he fyndeth a greet tresour [2352] ¶ Thanne shul ye eek considere / if that youre trewe freendes / been discrete and wise / ¶ for the book seith / Axe alwey thy conseil / of hem þat been wise / [2353] And by this same reson / shul ye clepen to youre conseil of youre freendes that been of age / swiche as han seyn / & been expert' in manye thynges / and been approued in conseillynges [2354] ¶ for the book seith / that in the olde men is the Sapience / and in longe tyme the prudence [2355] ¶ And Tullius seith / that grette thynges / ne ben nat ay accomplished by strengthe / ne by deliuerness of body / but by good conseil / by Autoritee of persones / & by science / the whiche thre thynges / ne ben nat feible by age / but certes / they enforen and encreesen day by day [2356] And thanne / shul ye kepe this / for a general rule / ¶ first shul ye clepen to youre conseil / a fewe of youre freendes that been especiale [2357] for Salomon seith ¶ Manye freendes haue thou / but among a thousand chese thee on / to be thy conseilour / [2358] for al be it so / that thou first ne telle thy conseil / but to a fewe / thou mayst afterward telle it to mo folk if it be nedo / [2359] but looke alwey / that thy conseilours / haue thilke thre condicions / þat I haue seyd

sidero / whiche of hem þat been moost feithfulle / & moost wise / & eldest' & moost approued in conseillyng' [2346] and of hem / shaltow axe thy conseil / as the cases requyreth

[2347] ¶ I seye / þat first ye shul clepe to youre conseil / youre freendes / þat ben trewe // [2348] for Salomon seith / þat right' as the herte of a man / deliteth in sauour þat is soote: right so the conseil of trewe freendes / yoweth swetness to the soule / [2349] ¶ He seith also / that may no thyng be likned to the trewe freend / [2350] for certes / gold ne siluer / ben noght so muche worth / as the goode wyl / of a trewe freend // [2351] And eek he seith / þat a trewe frend / is a strong defense / who so þat it fyndeth / certes he fyndeth a greet tresour [2352] ¶ Thanne shul ye eek considere / if þat youre trewe freendes ben discrete & wise / for the book seith // Axe alwey thy conseil / of hem þat been wise / [2353] And by this same reson / shul ye clepen to youre conseil / of yowre freendes / þat ben of age / swiche as han seighen / & ben expert' in manye thynges / & ben approued in conseillynges / [2354] for the book seith / þat in olde men is the sapience / and in longe tyme the prudence [2355] ¶ And Tullius seith / þat grette thynges / ne ben nat ay accomplished by strengthe / ne by deliuerness of body / but by good conseil / by Autoritee of persones / & by Science / the whiche thre thynges / ne ben nat feible by age / but certes they enforen / and encreesen day by day [2356] And thanne shal ye kepe this / for a general rule // first shal ye clepe to youre conseil / a fewe of youre freendes / þat ben especiale // [2357] for Salomon seith / manye freendes / haue thou / but among a thousand / chese thee on / to be thy conseilour / [2358] for al be it so / þat thou first ne telle thy conseil / but to a fewe / thou mayst afterward telle it to mo folk if it be nedo / [2359] but looke alwey þat thy conseilours haue thilke thre condicions / þat I haue seyd

sideryn whiche are most feythful / & most wys & oldeste & most approued in coonsaylyngo / [2346] & of hem schalt thou axe thyne conseyle: as the cases requyryth /

[2347] I sayde that fyrst <sup>3e</sup> shul clepyrn to youre conseil / youre freendis that been trewe // [2348] for Salomon seyth that ryght as the herte of a man delythith in sauour that is soot / ryght so the conseil of trewe frendys / yowyth swetness to the soule / [2349] & he seyth also there may no thyng [be] to the trewe frend / [2350] for certis gold ne syluer ben not so meche worth: as the goode wyl of a trewe frend [2351] ¶ And ek he seyth that a trewe frend / is a strong defens / who so that it fyndyth: certis he fyndyth a greet tresor [2352] ¶ Thanne schul 3e ek considere if that youre trewe frendis: been discrete / & wise for the bok seyth / Axe alwey thyne conseil of hem that been wysse / [2353] And by this same reson / schul 3e clepyrn to youre conseil / of youre frendis / that been of age / Swiche as han seyn / & been expert in manye thyngis And been apreuyd in manye thyngis conseillynges / [2354] for the bok seyth that in olde men is the sapience / & in long tyme the prudence // [2355] And tullius seyth / that grette thyngis ne ben not ay accomplished / be strenthe ne be deliuerousness of body / But by conseil be autritee of persones / & by science / the whiche thre thyngis ben not feibill by age / but certys they enforsyn & encreeyn day be day // [2356] And thanne schul 3e kepe this for a general rule / fyrst schul 3e clepe to youre conseil / a fewe of youre frendys that been especial [2357] for Salomon seyth / Manye frendis haue thou / but among a thousand chese thee on / to be thyne conseilour [2358] for al be it so / that thou ne telle thyne conseil / but to a fewe / thou mayst afterward tellyn it to me yf it be nedo // [2359] but loke alwey that thyne conseilouris haue thilke thre condicions / that I haue seyd

[Laud MS 600] sidre whiche of hem beth most faipful and most wise and eldest and next approned in counsailing [2346] and of hem shalþ þou axe þi counsaile as þe case requireth

[2347] ¶ I / sai þat first ye shul clope to youre counsaile / youre frendes þat ben trewe. / [2348] For Salomon saip / for right as þe herf of a man delitþ in sauour. þat is soote / right so þe counsaile of your trewe frendes / yeneþ swetness to þe soule [2349] ¶ He saip also þat mai noþing be likned to þe trewe frende / [2350] ¶ For certes gold ne siluer he not so moche worþ. as þe good wille of a trewe frende / [2351] and eke he saip þat a trewe frende. is a stronge defence / who þat it findeþ. certis he findeþ a gret tresour [2352] ¶ þe þene shul ye eke considere / if þat your trewe frendes ben discret and wise / for þe boke saip. axe þi counsaile alwai of hem þat ben wise. [2353] And bi þis same reson. shul ye clepe to youre counsaile of youre frendes þat ben age. siche as haue sai sightes and han expert in many þinges. and ben approued in counselling. [2354] for þe boke saip þat in olde men is þe sapience. and in longo time þe prudence [2355] ¶ And tullius saip þat grete þinges ben not aye accomplished bi strengþe ne bi deluyrnesse of bodi. bot bi good counsaile. bi auctorite of persones and bi science. þe whiche þre þinges ben not feble bi age. / bot certes þei enforen to encreasen dai by dai. [2356] and þan shul ye kepe þis for a general rewle ¶ First shul ye clepe to youre counsaile a fewe of your frendes þat ben especial [2357] ¶ For Salomon saip many frendes haue þou. bot among a þousand chese þe on to be þi counsellour / [2358] For al be it so þat þou first ne telle þi counsell bot to a fewe. þou maist afterward telle it to moe folk / if it be ned. [2359] bot loko alway þat þi counsellours haue þi [i]k þe condicions. þat I / haue said

sidre ¶ which of hem bene most feipful. and most wyse and eldest and most approned in counsailinge / [2346] of hem shalþ þowe axe þi counsaile as þe case requireþ

[2347] I say nott first 3e shul clope to youre counsaile youre frendes þat bene trewe [2348] ¶ for Salomon seip. þat riht as þe herf of a man delitþ in Sauour þat is swete. riht so þe counsaile of trewe frendes 3oneþ swetness to þe soule. [2349] He seip also þat þer may no þing be likned to þe trewe frende. [2350] for. certes gold ne siluer bene not so moch worþ as þe good wille of a trewe frende. [2351] ¶ And eke he saip þat a trewe frende is a grete defence / who so þat it fyndeþ. certis he fyndeþ a grete tresoure. [2352] Than shul 3e eke considere if þat youre trewe frendes bene discret and wise. for þe boke seip Aake alway þi counsaile of hem þat bene wise. [2353] And by þis same reason shulde 3e clepen to youre counsaile of youre frendys þat bene of age such as han sayn moch and bene expert in many þingges and bene approued in counselling. [2354] for þe boke seip þat in olde men is þe sapience [et en moult de temps est prudence] [2355] ¶ And Tullius saip þat grete þinges ne ben not accomplished by strenght ne by deluyrnesse of body but by good counsaile By auctorite of persones and bi science þe which iij. þinges ne bene not feble by age but certes þei enforen and encreasen day by day. [2356] And þan shal 3e kepe þis for a general rewle ¶ first shal 3e kepe to youre counsaile a fewe of youre frendes þat especial bene [2357] for Salomon seip Many frendes haue þowe but among a thousand chese þe on to be þi counsellour. [2358] for al be it soo þat þowe first ne telle þi counsaile but to a fewe. þou maist afterward telle it to more folk. if it be ned. [2359] But loko alway þat þi counsellours haue þik three condicions þat I haue said

sidre whiche of hem bien most feythful and most wise and most eldest and most approued in counselling [2346] and of hem shalþ thow axe thi counsaile as the case requirith

[2347] I say that first ye shul clope to yourre counsell yourre friendis that bien triewe [2348] for Salomon saith for right as the herf of a man delitith in sauour that is swete riht so the counsaile of thy friendis yerith swetness to the soule [2349] he seyth also ther may nothyng be lykned to the true frende [2350] for certes gold ne siluer be nat so moche worth as the goodde wille of a triewe friend [2351] And he seyth that a triewe friend is a stronge defence who so that it fyndith certis he fyndith a grete tresour [2352] than shul ye eke considere if that yourre triewe friendis bien discret and wise for þe boke seyth aake alwey thy counsaile of hem that bien wise [2353] And be this same reason ye mow clepe to yourre counsaile of yourre friendis that bien of age [qui assez ont veu] and bien expert in many thynges and han ben approued in counselling [2354] for the booke seyth in old men is al the sapience and in long tyme the prudence [2355] As Tullius seyth that grete thynges ne be nat accomplished bi strength ne be deluyrnesse of body. but by goodde counsaile and bi auctorite of persones and bi science The whiche iij. thynges ne be nat feible bi age but certes they enforen and encreasen day bi day [2356] And than shul ye kepe this for a general rewle first ye shul clepe to your counsaile a fewe of your friendis that bien especial [2357] for Salomon saith many friendis haue thow. but among a M. chese the oon in especial to be thy counsellour [2358] for albe it so that thow first ne telle thy counsaile but to a fewe thow mayst after-ward tel it to mo folk if it be ned [2359] but loko alwey that thy counsellours haue thyrk iij. condicions that I haue seide bifore / that is to sayn / that they be trowe / wise / and of old experience [2360] ¶ And werke nat alwey in every nede / by con counsaillour alone ¶ for soumyne bihoueth it to be consailed by manye // [2361] for Salomon seith ¶ Saluacion of thynges / is / where as ther ben manye consailours

[2362] ¶ Now / aith I have toold yow / of which folk / ye sholde ben consailed / now wol I teche yow which consail / ye oghte to eschewe [2363] ¶ first ye shul eschue the consaillyng of fooles // for Salomon seith / tak~~o~~ no consail of a fool / for he ne kan nocht consaille / but after his owene lust and his affeccio[n] [2364] ¶ The book seith / that the properte of a fool is this ¶ he troweth lightly harm of every wight / and lightly troweth alle boundes in hym self [2365] ¶ Thou shalt eek eschue / the consaillyng of flaterers / swiche as enforcen hem / rather to praise yours persone by flaterye / than for to telle yow / the sooth-fastnesse of thynges

[2366] ¶ Wherefor Tullius seith ¶ Amonges alle the pestilences that been in frendshipe / the gretteste is flaterie / And therfore it is moore nede þat thou eschue and drede flatereres / than any oother peple // [2367] ¶ The book seith / thou shalt rather drede & fleo / fro the swete wordes / of flaterynge preisers / than for the egre
wordes of thy frend / that seith thee thy sothes // [2368]
Salomon seith / that the wordes of a flaterere / is a snare to chauche with Innocentez [2369] ¶ He seith also / that he þat speketh to his frend / wordes of swetnesse and of plesaunce / setteth a net biforn his feet to cacche hym [2370] ¶ And therfore seith Tullius / Enclayne nat thynne eres to flatereres / ne taketh no consail of the wordes of flaterie // [2371] And Caton seith ¶ Auyse thee wel / and eschue the wordes / of swetnesse and of plesuaunce [2372] ¶ And eek thou shalt eschue / the consaillyng of thyne olde enemyes / that ben reconciled [2373] ¶ The book seith / that no wight retourneth sauily / in-to the bifore / that is to saye / þat they be trowe / wise / and of old experience [2360] And work nat alwey in every nede / by o counsaillour alone / for sou tyme bihoueth

it to be consailed by manye / [2361] for Salomon seith / Saluacion of thynges / is wher as ther ben manye
consailours

[2362] ¶ Now siþ þat I haue told yow / of which folk ye sholde be consailed / now wol I teche yow / which consail ye oghte eschue [2363] ¶ first ye shul eschue / the consaillyng of foolis / for Salomon seith / take no consail of a fool / for he ne kan nat consaille / but after his owene lust and his affeccio[n] [2364] ¶ The book seith /
that the properte of a fool is this ¶ he troweth lightly harm of every wight & lightly troweth alle boundes in hym self // [2365] Tow shalt eek eschue / the consaillyng of alle flaterers / swiche as enforcen hem rather to praise
yours persone by flaterye / than for to-telle yow the sooth-
fastnesse of thynges

[2366] ¶ Wherefor Tullius seith / Among alle the pestilences þat been in frendshipe / the gretteste is flaterie / And therfore it is moore nede / þat thou eschue & drede flaterers / than any oother peple // [2367] The book seith / thou shalt rather drede & fleo from the swete wordes / of flaterynge preisers / than for the egre
wordes of thy frend / that seith thee thy sothes [2368] ¶ Salomon seith / that the wordes of a flaterere / is a snare to cacche Innocentez [2369] He seith also / þat he þat speketh to his frend / wordes of swetnesse / and of plesuaunce / setteth a Net biforn his feet to cacche hym // [2370] ¶ And therfore seith Tullius // Enclayne nat thynne eres to flatereres / ne tak no consail / of wordes of flaterie [2371] ¶ And Caton seith ¶ Auyse thee wel / & eschue wordes of swetnesse & of plesuaunce [2372] ¶ And eek thou shalt eschue / the consaillyng of thyne olde enemyes þat ben reconciled // [2373] The book seith / that no wight retourneth sauily / in-to the before / þat is to seye / that they been trowe wyse & of old experience [2360] And werke not in every thingis alwey be con couseylour alone / for sumtyme bihoueth it to be conseyled by manye / [2361] for salomon seyth / Saluacion of thyngis is / where as there ben manye conseylours

[2362] ¶ Now siþe that I haue told þow / of which folk þe schul ben conseylid . now wole I teche þow which conseyl þe oghte to eschewe [2363] ¶ first þe shul eschue / the con~~o~~seylyng of folys / for salomon seyth take no conseyl of a fool / for he ne can not conseyle but aftr his owene lust & his affeccio[n] [2364] The book seyth / that the properte of a fol is this he trowyth lightly harm, of every wight / & lightly trowyth alle bounde in hym self // [2365] Thow schalt eek eschue / the conseylyng of alle flaterisr whiche as enforcen hem rather to preysyn þowe persone by flaterye than to telle þow the soth-fastnesse of thyngis /

[2366] Wherefor Thullyus seith / among alle the pestelences that been / in frenchepe / the gretteste is flaterie / & therfore it is moore nede / that thou eschue & drede flatereris than any othir peple // [2367] The bok seyth thow schalt rather drede & fle from the swete wordis of flaterynge preysoris / than from the egre wordis of thyn frend that seyth the thynne sothis [2368] ¶ Salomon seith / that the wordis of a flaterere is a snare to cacchyn innocenteis / [2369] he seyth also / that he that spekyth to his frend / wordis of swetnesse & of plesuaunce / setteth a net be-forne his feet to cacchyn hym // [2370] & therfore seyth Tullius / Enclayne nat thynne eres to flaterisr / ne take no conseyl of wordis of flaterie // [2371] And Catoun seyth Auyse the weel & eschewe wordis of swetnesse & of plesuaunce [2372] ¶ And ek thow schalt eschewe the conseylyng of thyne olde enemyis that ben reconcyled // [2373] The bok seyth that no wight retourny sauly into the ¶ Salomon

¶ Salomon

¶ of consailours but a man oughte to eschue

¶ Tullius

¶ Caton

[Laud MS] before. þat is to sei þat þei be trewe and olde. and of wis experience. [2360] ¶ And wrike not alway in every nede / bi on counsellour allone. For somtyme behouep it be counsellid bi many. [2361] ¶ For Salomon seiþ. Salacion of þingis is. where as þer ben many counsellours.]

[Laud MS extract end]

[Corpus MS, on leaf 221, back]

[2362] Now hane I tolde þou of which folk 3e scholde be counsellid NOW wol I teche þou which counsell 3e owe to eschewe [2363] first 3e schuln eschewe þe counsellunge of foolis. Salomon seiþ take no counsell of a fool for he wol counsaile butt after his owne luste and his affections [2364] ¶ The boke/ seiþ þat þe proprete of a fool is þis ¶ he trowep lightly harme of every wight and lightly trowep a bounce in himself [2365] ¶ Thou schalt eke eschewe þe counsailinge of alle flateris whiche enforcen hem raper to preysen þoure persone by flaterye þan for to telle þou þe softfastnesse of þe þingis

[2366] ¶ Wherefore Tullius seiþ amonge alle þe pestilence þat ben in frendship þe grettest is flaterie ¶ And þerfore is it more nede þat þou eschewe and drede flaterers þan any oþer people / [2367] The boke seiþ þou schalt raper [drede and] fle fro þe swete wordes of flateringe & preysinge þen fro þe egre wordes of þy frend þat seiþ þe þi soþes. [2368] Salomon seiþ þat þe wordes of a flaterer is a snare to cacche innocens [2369] ¶ he seiþ also. he þat spokeþ to his frend wordes of swetnes and of plesance: setteþ a nette bifrom his feet to cacche him [2370] ¶ And þerfore Tullius seiþ Enclyne noust þin eres to flaterers. no take no counsell of wordes of flaterie / [2371] And Caton seiþ ¶ Avise þe wel and eschewe þe wordes of swetnes and of plesance [2372] ¶ And eke þou schalt eschewe þe counsailinge of þine olde enemyis þat be reconciled [2373] The boke seiþ þat no wight retourneþ snuffly in to þe

byfore. þat is to say þat þei bene trewe and wise and of olde experiences. [2360] and wrike not alway in every nede by on counsellour allon. for some it byhouep be counsaile by mony [2361] ¶ for Salomon seiþ [salvation] of þingges: is wher þer bene mony counsellours

[2362] ¶ Nowe seiþ what I hane tolde þou of which folk 3e schuld be counsellid. Now wil I telle þou which counsaile 3e nust eschewe [2363] ¶ first 3e schul eschewe þe counsaile of foolis. So seiþ Salomon. Take no counsaile of a foolo for he can no counsaile. butt afters his owne affection [2364] ¶ The boke seiþ. þat þe proprete of a fool is þis. He troweth lightly harme of every wist. and lightly trowep all bounce in hym self [2365] Thow eke shal eschewe þe Counsailinge of all flaterers suche as enforcen hem raper to preise þe persone by flaterye þan forte telle þou þe softfastnesse of þingges /

[2366] ¶ Therefore Tullius seiþ ¶ Amonge alle þe pestilences þat be in frendship þe grettest is flaterie. And þerfore is more nede. þat þou eschewe and drede and fle from þe swete wordes of flaterers þan of any oþer puple [2367] ¶ The booke seiþ. Thow shalt raper drede and fle from þe swete wordes of flaterers and preisers þan fro þe egre wordes of þi frende þat seiþ þe þi soþes. [2368] ¶ Salomon seiþ: That þe wordes of a flaterer is a snare to cacchen innocens wijþ. [2369] He seiþ also þat he þat spokeþ to his frende. wordes of swetnes and of plesance setteþ a netþ byfore his foote to cacchen him [2370] And þerfore seiþ Tullius ¶ Encline nat þin eres to flaterers. no take no counsaile to wordes of flaterie [2371] And Caton seiþ ¶ Avise þe wel and eschewe wordes of swetnesse and of plesance. [2372] And eke þou shalt eschewe þe counsaile of þine olde enemyis [qui sont reconciliés, [2373] car il est escryt: nul ne retourne seulement en la before. that is to sey that they be triewe wise and old experience [2360] and work nat alway in every nede be on counsellour alone for somtyme behovith it to be counsellid be many [2361] for Salomon seyth saluacion of thynges is where as there ben many counsellours]

[MS Reg. 17 D. 15, leaf 247]

[2362] ¶ Now hane I tolde þowe of whiche folke 3e scholde be counsellid Nowe wil I. teche þowe which counsell 3e owe to eschewe [2363] ¶ first 3e scholun eschewe þe counsailinge of foolis. Salomon seiþ: Takeþ no counsell of no foolo for he wil counsell þat after his owne lust and his affections: [2364] ¶ The booke seiþ þat þe proprete of a fool is þis. He trowep lightly harme of every whight: & lightly trowep a bounce in him self [2365] ¶ Thou schalt eke eschewe þe counsailinge of all flateris whiche enforcen hem raper to preysen þoure persone by flaterie þan for to tel þou þe softfastnesse of þe þingis.

[MS Reg. extract end]

[Lansdowne MS, on leaf 198, back]

[2366] Wherefore tullius. seiþ Amonge al þe pestelence þat ben in freuschip þe grettest is flaterie: And þerfore is it more nede þat þou eschewe & drede flateris þan any oþer peple. [2367] The boke seiþ þou schalt raper [drede and] fle fro þe swete wordes of flateringe & preisinge þat from þe egre wordes of þine frende þat seiþ þe þi soþes: [2368] Salomon. seiþ: The wordes of a flaterer is a snare to cacche innocens. [2369] ¶ He seiþ also: He þat spokeþ to his frendes wordes of swetness: & al plesance: setteþ a nette for his feet to cacche him: [2370] ¶ And þerfor tullius seiþ Enclyne noust þin eres to flateris: þe no take no counel of wordes of flaterie: [2371] And Caton. Avise þe wels & eschewe þe wordes of swetness & of plesance: [2372] ¶ And eke þou schalt eschewe þe counsailinge of þine olde emnyis þat be reconciled [2373] ¶ The boke seiþ þat no whitt retourneþ snuffly in to þe

grace of his olde enemy [2374] ¶ And Isopo seith / No trust nat to hem / to whicher thou hast had som tyme werre or enemyes / ne telle hem nat thy conseil [2375] ¶ And Seneca telleth the cause why ¶ It may nat be seith he / that where greet fyr / hath longe tyme endured / that ther ne dwelleth som vapour of warmesse [2376] ¶ And therfore seith Salomon ¶ In thyn olde fo trust neuere [2377] ¶ For sikarly / though thyn enemy / be reconciled & maketh thes chiere of humylitee / and lowteth to thee with his heed ne trust hym neuere [2378] ¶ For certes / he maketh thilke feynede humylitee / moore for his profit than for any loue of thy persone / by cause that he deareth / to haue victorie ouer thy persone / by swich feynede contenance / the which victorie / he myghte nat wynne / by strif or verre [2379] ¶ And Peter Alfonse seith / Make no felawshipe / with thynne olde enemyes ¶ for if thou do hem bounte / they wol perueren it / in wikkednesse [2380] ¶ And eek thou most eschue / the consellyng of hem / that been thy seruants and heren thes greet reuerence / for perauenture / they doon it moore / for drede than for loue [2381] ¶ And therfore / seith a Philosopher / in this wise ¶ Ther is no wight perfylyt trewe / to hym þat he to soore dredeth [2382] ¶ And Tullius seith ¶ Ther nys no myght so greet of any Emperour / that longe may endure / but if he haue / moore loʊs of the peple / than for drede [2383] ¶ Thou shalt also eschue / the consellyng of folk that been dronkelowe ¶ for they kan no conseil hyde [2384] ¶ For Salomon seith ¶ Ther is no priuete / ther us regeth dronkenesse [2385] ¶ Ye shal also / han in suspect the consellyng of swich folk / as conselle yow / a thyng priuily / & conselle yow / the contrarie openly [2386] ¶ For Cassiodore seith / that it is a manere sleighte to hynde / when he sheweth to doon a thyng openly / and werkeþ priuily the contrarie [2387] ¶ Thou shalt also / haue in suspect / the consellyng of wikked folk ¶ for the book seith / The consellyng of wikked folk / is alway ful

grace of his olde enemy ¶ [2374] And Ysopo seith / No trust nat to hem / to whicher / thou hast had som tyme werre / or enemyes / ne telle hem nat thy conseil ¶ [2375] And Seneca / telleth the cause why ¶ It may nat be seith he / that where as greet fyr / hath longe tyme endured / þat ther ne dwelleth som vapour of warmesse ¶ [2376] And ther fore seith Salomon ¶ In thyn olde fo / trust neuere / [2377] ¶ For sikarly / thogh thyn enemy be reconciled / & maketh thes / cheere of humylitee / & lowteth to thee with his heed / ne trust hym neuere / [2378] for certes / he maketh thilke feynede humylitee / moore for his profit than for any loue of thy persone / by cause þat he deareth / to haue victorie ouer thy persone / by swich feynede continance / the which victorie / he myghte nat haue / by strif or verre [2379] ¶ And Peter Alfonse seith ¶ Make no felawshipe / with thynne olde enemyes / for if thou do hem bounte / they wol perueren it in to wikkednesse [2380] ¶ And eek thou most eschue / the consellyng of hem þat ben thy seruants / & beren thes greet reuerence / for perauenture / they seyn it moore / for drede than for loue [2381] & therfore / seith a Philosopher / in this wise ¶ Ther is no wight perfylyt trewe / to hym / þat he to soore dredeth ¶ [2382] And Tullius seith / Ther nys no myght so greet / of any Emperour / þat longe may endure / but if he haue moore loue of the peple than drede [2383] ¶ Thou shalt also eschue the consellyng of folk þat ben dronkelowe ¶ for they ne kan no conseil hyde ¶ [2384] for Salomon seith / Ther is no priuete / ther as regeth dronkenesse [2385] ¶ Ye shal also han in suspect the consellyng of swich folk / as conselle yow a thyng priuily / & conselle yow / the contrarie openly ¶ [2386] for Cassiodore seith / That it is a manere sleighte to hynde / when he sheweth to doon a thyng openly / and werkeþ priuily the contrarie [2387] ¶ Thou shalt also haue in suspect the consellyng of wikked folk ¶ for the book seith / The consellyng of wikked folk / is alway ful

grace of hisse olde enemy [2374] ¶ And ysopo seyth / no truste nat to hem to whiche thou hast had sustynye werre or enemye ne telle hem nat thy conseil / [2375] And Seneca tellysh the cause why / It may not be seyth he / that where as greet for long tyme hath deured : that there ne dwellyth som vapour of warmesse [2376] And therfore Seyth Salomon / in thyn olde fo truste neuere / [2377] for sekirly / thow thyn enemy be reconcyld / & makyth the cheer of humylite / & loutyth to the with hisse heed / ne truste hym neuere / [2378] for sekirly he makyth thilke feynede humylitee more for his owene profyt than for loue of thyn persone / by cause that he demyth / to haue victorie ouyr thyn persone / by swich feynede contenance / the / whiche victorie / he mygte not haue be stryf or verre / [2379] & Petyr Alfonso seyth make no felawshewe with thynne olde enemyis / for þif thou do hem bounte : they wule peruertyn it in to wikkednesse ¶ [2380] And ek thow muste eschewe the wrekednesse of hem & the conseil that been thynne seruauantis & beryn the grote reuerence / for perauenture they seyn / it moore for drede than for loue. [2381] And therfore seyth a philisofere in this wyse / There is no whyt perfylyt trewe to hym that he to soore dredyth / [2382] And Tullius seyth / theree is no mygt so greet of any Emperour / that longe may endure / but þif he haue moore loue of the peple than drede [2383] ¶ Thow schalt also eschewe the consellyng of folk that been dronkelowe / for they ne can no conseil hyde / [2384] for Salomon seyth there is no priuete : ther as regneth dronkenesse // [2385] so schal also han in suspect / the consellyng of sweeche folk as conselle yow o thyng priuily / & conselle yiw the contrarie openly [2386] ¶ For Cassiodore seyth / that it is a manere slepyte to hynderyn when a man schewith to don on thyng priuily & werkyth the contrarie openly / [2387] Thow schalt also haue in suspect / the consellyng of wekede folk for the bok seyth the consellyng of wekede folk : is alway ful

grace of his olde enemy [2374] ¶ And Isope seiþ ¶ No truste nouȝt to hem to whichs som tyme þou hast had werre / or enemye ne telle hem nouȝt þi counsaile [2375] ¶ And Senec' telleþ þe cause why it may nouȝt be saith he þat where long' tyme fury' hap endured þat þer dwellþ some tyme vapour of hete [2376] ¶ And þerfore seiþ Salomon in þin olde fow truste þou neuere [2377] ffor sikerly þough þin enemye be reconcailid and makeþ þe chere of humilite and lowteþ to þe wiþ his heed ne truste him neuere [2378] ffor certes he makeþ þilke feyned humilite more for his profyt þan for any humilite or for any loue of þin persone by [ . . . . . no gap] such feyned contynance The which victory he myȝt haue by stryf or werre [2379] And Peter Alfons seiþ . make no felaschipe wiþ þine olde enemyes: ffor if þou do hem bounte þey wollen perueren hit to wickednesse [2380] ¶ And eke þou most eschewe þe counsailing of hem þat ben þin seruauntz and beren the gret reuerence ffor parauenture þei seyn it more for drede þan for loue [2381] ¶ And þerfore seiþ a Philosoþhre in þis wise ¶ Ther nys no wight þarfytly trewe to him þat he to sore dredeþ [2382] ¶ And Tullius seiþ ¶ Ther nys no wight so grete of any emperour þat longe may endure / but if he haue loue of þe peoplo and drede [2383] ¶ Thow schalt eschewe also þe counsailing of folk þat ben drunkelewe for þey ne can no counsaile hyde.
[2384] Salomon seiþ þer nys no pryute þer as regneþ drunkenes [2385] ¶ 3e schullen han also in suspecte to þe counsailing of such folk: as counsaile ȝow a þinge pryuly and counsaile þow a þing þat is contrarie openly [2386] ffor Cassiodore seiþ þat it is a maner sleichte to hynde his enemye when he scheweþ to don a þinge openly and wikeþ pryuly þe contrarie [2387] ¶ Thow schalt haue also in þin suspecte þe outsylunge of wikked folk [ . . .
. . . . . no gap] þat is alwey ful

grace de son ennemy. [2374] ¶ And Isope seiþ. No trust' not to hem to þe which þow hast hadde somtyme werre or enemye. ne telle not hem þi counsaile [2375] ¶ And senec' telleþ . þe cause whi . it may nat' be. He seiþ where þat' grete fuyre hap longe endured. þat þer dwellþ some vapour of warnesse [2376] ¶ And þerfore seiþ Salomon. In þine olde fow trust' neuere.
[2377] ffor sikerly þouge þine enemye be reconcailid
and makeþ þe chere of humilite. and lowteþ to þe his hede. ne trust' him neuere. [2378] ffor certes he makeþ þilke feyned humilite more for his profite þan for any loue. of þi persone. [afin qu'il puisse avoir victoire de toi] by swich feyned countenaunce. þe which victory he myȝt not' haue wiþ stryf or werre [2379] ¶ And Peter Alfons seiþ ¶ Make noon felaschipe wiþ þine olde enemyes. for ȝif þow doo hem bounte. þei wil perueren it into wykkednesse [2380] ¶ And eke þou most eschewe þe counsaile of ham þat' ben þi ser[ua]ntes. and beren þe grete reuerence. for parauenture þei sayn it more for drede þan for loue [2381] ¶ And þerfore seiþ a Philosoþhre in þis wise: Ther nys no wight þarfytly trewe to hym þat he to fore dredeþ [2382] ¶ And Tullius seiþ ¶ Ther is noo myȝt so grete of noon Emperour that longe may endure but ȝif he haue more loue of þe puple þan drede [2383] ¶ Thow shalt also eschewe þe counsailinge of folk þat' bene drunkelewe. for þei ne can no counsaile hyde [2384] ¶ ffor Salomon seiþ ¶ Ther is no counsaile þer as regneþ drunkenes [2385] ¶ 3e shul also haue in suspecte þe counsaile of such folk: as counsaile ȝowe pryvely. con. and þe contrarie openly [2386] ffor Cassiodore seiþ. / That it is a manere sleicht to hynde. when he swetheth to doon con þinge openly and wikeþ þe contrarie pryvely [2387] ¶ Thow shalt also haue in suspecte the counsailing wiþ wickeþ folko ffor þe boke seiþ The counsailinge of wikked folk is alwey ful grace of his olde enemye. [2374] And. Isope. seiþe. Ne trust nouht to hem to whichs some time þou hast hadd werre or enemye: ne tell hem nouht þine counsaile. [2375] ¶ And Senec' telleþ þe cause whi: If maie nouht be seiþ he þat where long' tyme fire hap endured þat þere dwellþ some tyme vapoure of hete: [2376] ¶ And þerfore seiþ Salomon. In þine olde fow truste þou neuere.

[2377] ffor sekerly þouge þine enemye be reconcailid & makeþ þe þere of humylyte & loutep to þe wiþ his hede ne trust him neuere. [2378] ffor certes he makeþ þilke feyned humylyte more for his profit þan for any humylyte. or for any loue of þin persone [ . .
. . . . . no gap] be suche feyned countenance. The whiche victorie. he myht haue be strif of werre. [2379] ¶ And Peter alfons seiþe Maake no felaschewe wiþ þine olde enemyes: ffor if þou done hem bounte þei wollen perueren it to wykkednesse!
[2380] ¶ And eke þou most eschewe þe counsailing of þine seruauntz þat beren þe grete reuerence: ffor
parauenture þei seyn it more for drede þan for loue [2381] And þerfore seiþe a philosoþhre in þis wise. Ther is no wight þarfytly trewe to him þat he to sore dredeþ: [2382] And Tullius seiþe There is no wight so grete of any emperoure; þat longe may endure but if he haue loue of þe peple & drede [2383] ¶ þou schalt eschewe also þe counsailinge of folke þat bien drunkelewe for þei ne can no counsaile hyde.
[2384] Salomon. seiþe. þere nys no pryute þere as regneþ drunkenesse [2385] ¶ 3e scholne haue also in suspecte to þe counsailinge of such folke as counsel ȝowe a þinge pryuly & counsel ȝowe a þinge þat is contrarye openly [2386] ¶ ffor Cassiodore. seiþe þat it is a maner sleichte to hidren his enemye when he scheweþ to done a þinge openly & wikeþ pryuly þe contrarie. [2387] ¶ þou schalt haue also in þi suspecte þe counsailinge of wikked folke [ . . .
. . . . . no gap] þat is alwey ful

¶ Dauid of fraude ¶ [2388] And David seith ¶ blisful is that man / pat hath nat folwed / the conseilnyng of sherevas [2389] ¶ ¶ Thou shalt also eschue / the conseilnyng of yong folk /
for hir conseil is nat ryte

[2390] ¶ Now sirs / sith I have shewed yow / of which folk ye shal take youre conseil / and of which folk ye shal folwe the conseil ¶ [2391] now wol I teche yow / how ye shal examyne youre conseil / after the doctrine of Tullius [2392] ¶ In the examynynge thanne of youre consellour ye shul considere many thynges [2393] ¶ Alderfirst thou shalt considere / pat in thilke thyng that thou purposost / and vpon what thyng thou wolst haue conseil / pat veray troutbe / be seyd & conserved / this is to seyn / telle trewely thy tale [2394] ¶ For he that seith fals / may nat wel be conselld / in that cas of which he listh [2395] ¶ ¶ And after this / thou shalt considere the thynges pat acorden to that thou purposost / for to do / by thy consellours if reson accordeth ther-to. [2396] And ask / if thy myght may atteine ther-to / And if the moore part and the betre part of thy consellours accord ther-to / or noon [2397] ¶ ¶ Thanne shaltou considere / what thyng schal folwe / after hir conseilnyng. as hate / pees / werra / grace / profit / or damage / and manye othere thynges [2398] ¶ Thanne / of alle thise thynges / thou shalt chese the beste / and weyue alle othere thynges [2399] ¶ Thanne shaltou considere / of what roote is engendered the matere
of thy conseil / and what fruyt it may conuey & engendre [2400] ¶ Thou shalt eek considere alle thise causes / fro whennes they ben sprongen [2401] ¶ And whan yo han examyned youre conseil / as I haue seyd / and which partie is the betre & moore profitable / and has approued it by manye wise folk & olde [2402] ¶ ¶ thanne shaltou considere / if thou mayst performe it / and maken of it a good ende [2403] ¶ For certes reson wol nat that any man / sholde bigynne a thyng. but if he myghte / performe it / as hym oghte [2404] ¶ No no wight sholde

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 217)

of fraude ¶ [2388] And David seith ¶ blisful is that man /
pat hath nat folwed the conseilnyng of sherevas [2389] ¶ ¶ Thou shalt also eschue / the conseilnyng of yong folk /
for hir conseil is nat ryte

[2390] ¶ Now sirs / sith I haue shewed yow / of which folk ye shal take youre conseil / and of which folk ye schal
folwe the conseil ¶ [2391] now wol I teche yow / how ye
shal examyne youre conseil / after the doctrine of Tullius [2392] ¶ In the examynynge thanne of youre consellour /
ye shul considere many thynges ¶ [2393] Alderfirst / thou shalt considere / pat in thilke thyng pat thou purposost / & vp on what thyng thou wolt haue conseil / pat veray
troutbe / be seyd & conserved / this is to seyn / telle trewely thy tale [2394] for he pat seith fals / may nat wel be conselld / in that cas / of which he lyeth [2395] ¶
¶ And after this / thou shalt considere / the thynges pat
acorden / to that thou purposost / for to do / by thy consellours / if reson accordeth ther to / [2396] and ask / if thy myght may atteyne ther to / and if the moore part & the betre part of thy consellours / accordeth ther to / or no // [2397] ¶ Thanne shaltou considere / what thyng schal
folwe / of that conseilnyng / as hate / pees / werra /
grace / profit / or damage / & manye othere thynges / [2398] And in alle thise thynges / thou shalt chese the beste / and weyue alle othere thynges [2399] ¶ Thanne
shaltou considere / of what roote is engendered the matere
of thy conseil / and what fruyt it may conuey &
engendre [2400] ¶ Thou shalt eek considere alle thise
causes / fro whennes they ben sprongen ¶ [2401] And whan yo haue examyned youre conseil / as I haue seyd / & which partie is the betre & moore profitable / & han approued it / by manye wise folk & olde [2402] ¶ ¶ thanne shaltou considere / if thou mayst performe it / & maken of it a good ende [2403] ¶ For reson wol nat pat any man sholde bigynne a thyng. but if he myghte
performe it / as hym oghte ¶ [2404] No no wight sholde

HENGWRT (6-T. 217) [1882]

of fraude / [2388] And David seith blisful is that man that hath not folwed the conseilnyng of schrewis / [2389] ¶ Thou shalt also eschue the conseilnyng of yonge folk for here conseil is not ryte [2390]

¶ Now sirs sith I haue schewyd to you of whiche folk ye schal take youre conseil / & of whiche folk ye schal folwe the conseil. [2391] now wole I teche you how ye schal examyne youre conseil after the doctrine of thullius [2392] ¶ In examynynge of youre conseilourys ye schal considere many thyngis / [2393] Alderfirst thou schal considere that in thilke thyng that thou purposost & vp-on what thyng thou wilt haue conseil / that veray troutbe be seyd & conseryd / This is to sayne / Telle trewely thyn tale [2394] for he that seyth fals may not wel been conselld / in that cas of which he lyeth / [2395]
¶ And after this thou schal considere the thyngis that acordyn to that / thou purposist to don by thy conselours if reson acordyn ther-to / [2396] & ek if thy myght may atteyne ther-to / & if the more part / & the betere part of thyne conseilouris acordyn ther-to / or no // [2397] Thanne schalt thou considere / What thyng schal
folwe of that conseilnyng. as. hate. pees. werra.
grace. profyt / or damage & manye othere thyngis / [2398] ¶ In toutes ces choses thou schalt chese the beste / & weyyn alle othere thyngis [2399] ¶ Thanne schalt thou considere / of what rote is engenderede the matere of this conseil / & what frant it may conteyne / & engenderyn [2400] ¶ Thanne schalt [thou] considere ek alle these causes / fro whens they ben sprongen [2401] And whanne ye han examynyd youre conseil as ye haue seyd / & whiche partye is the betere & moore profitable And han aproued it be manye wyse folk & olde. [2402] ¶ thanne schalt thou considere / if thou mayst performe it & makyn of it a good ende / [2403] For reson wole / that any man schulde begynne a thyng / but if he myghte performe it as hym oghte / [2404] No no wight schulde

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 217) [1882]

¶ *how a man shal examyne his consellours after the doctrine of
Tullius*

of fraude [2388] And David seiþ þat blisful is þe man þat hæþ nougth folowed þe counsailing of schrewes [2389] ¶ Thow schalt also eschewe þe counsailing of 3ong folke for here counsailynge nys nougth ryte as Salomon seiþ

[2390] ¶ Now sire siþenes I haue eschewed þou of which folk 3e schulin take counsel and of which folk 3e schulin folwe þe counsel / [2391] Now wol I teche þou how 3e schulin examyn 3oure counsel after the doctrine of Tullius [2392] in examynynge þenne of 3oure counsellour 3e schulin considere many þinges [2393] ¶ Alþer first þou schalt considere þilke þinge þat þou purposest and vpon what þinge þou wolst han counseil þat verrey troupe be sayde and conserved þis is to say telle trewly þin tale [2394] ¶ For he þat seiþ fals may not wel be counsailed in þat eas of which [he lyeth] [2395] ¶ And after þis þou schalt consideren þe þinges þat accorden to þat þou purposest for to be by þin counsellours if reson accordþ þerto [2396] ¶ And eke if þi myght may atteyne þerto ¶ And if þe more part and þe better part of 3oure counsellours accorden þerto or no. [2397] þen schalt þou considere what þinge schal folwe of here counsailinge. as hate pees werre grace profyt other damage and many oþer þinges [2398] And in alle þinges þou schalt chese þe beste and weyfe alle oþer þinges [2399] ¶ Thanne schalt þou considere of what roote it is engendrid þe matier of þin counseil and what fruyt it may conceyne and engendre [2400] þou schalt eke considere alle þese causes for þe whiche þei ben spronge [2401] ¶ And when 3e haue examyned 3oure counseil as I haue sayde and which parte is þe better and more profitable and hast approued it by many wise folk and olde [2402] þanne schalt þou considere if þou mayst performe hit and make of hit a good ende [2403] ¶ For certes reson wil nougt þat any man schal begynne a þinge but if he mighte performe hit as him owyþe [2404] ¶ Ne no wight schulde of fraude [2388] And david seiþ Blessed is þat man þat hæþ not folowed þe counsailing of wilkned men or schrewen [2389] ¶ Thow shalt also eschewe þe counsaile of 3onge folk. for her counsaile is not riþe

[2390] ¶ Now, Sire siþ I haue shewde þou of such folk 3e shuld take 3oure counsaile And of which folk 3e shul take 3oure counsaile, and of which folk 3e shul folowe þe counsaile [2391] ¶ Now shal I telle þou how 3e shal examyne 3oure counsaile, after þe doctrine of Tullius [2392] in examynynge. þan of 3oure counsellour. 3e shul considere many þingges [2393] ¶ Alþer first 3e shal considere þat in þilk þinge þat þou purposest, and vpon what þinge þou wolst haue counsaile þat verrey troupe be saide and considered. This is to sayn telle trewly þi tale. [2394] for he þat seiþ fals may not wel be counsailed in þat tale [in which he lyeth] [2395] And after This þou shalt considere þoo þingges þat accorden to þat þou purposest forto doo by þi counsaillours. gif reson. accorde þerto. [2396] & eke gif þi myght may atteyne þerto. And gif þe more party and þe better part of þi counsaillours acorde þerto anon. [2397] þan shalt þou considere þat þinge þat shal folowe of þat counsaillong, as. pees. werre. grace. profite or damage and many oþer þingges. [2398] [et en toutes ces choses] þou shalt chese þe best and wayne aft oþer. [2399] ¶ Than shalt þou considere of what roote is engendrid þi matere of þi counsaile and what fruyte may be conseuynd and engendred þer of [2400] ¶ Thow shalt also considere all þise causes from whannes þei bene sprongen [2401] And when 3e han examyned 3oure counsaile as I haue seide, which parte is þe better and more profitable and haue approued it by many wise folk and olde. [2402] Than shalt þou considere if þou mayst performe it and make of it a good ende. [2403] for reson wil not þat any man shuld bygyne a þinge but gif he myght performe it as hym leþ or auþ [2404] Ne no wight shuld of fraude; [2388] And David seiþe þat blisful is þe man þat hæþe noult foulowed þe counseil of schrewes. [2389] ¶ Tho schalt also eschewe þo counsailinge of 3onge folke; for here counsailinge is nouht riþe as Salomon seiþe

[2390] ¶ Nowiresiþenes. I. haue eschewde þoue of which folke 3e scholne take counseile & of which folke 3e schollen folowe þe counseil [2391] ¶ Now wil I. techeche howe 3e scholne examyne 3oure counsele after þe doctrine of tullius [2392] ¶ In þe examenyng þan of 3oure counselloure 3e scholne considere many þinges [2393] Alþere first þou schalt considere þilke þinge þat þou purposed; and vpon what þinge þou wolte haue counsil þat verrey trenþe be seide & consuerude. þis to seie; Tel trewly þin tale. [2394] For he þat seiþe fals maye wele be counsailed in þat caas; [ . . . ] [2395] ¶ And after þat þou schalt consideren þe þinges þat accorden to þat þou þurpuest for to be by þine counsellours if reson acordeþ þere to // [2396] And eke if þi myht maie atteigne þere to; ¶ And if þe more part & þe bettere parte of 3oure counsellours accorden þere to or no [2397] þene schal þou considere what þing schal folowe of hie counsailinge. As hate pees. werre. grace profit oþer Damage or many oþir þinges; [2398] And in al þinges þou schalt chescha þe best and. And i weife al oþere þinges [2399] ¶ Than schalt þou considere of what rote it is engendrid þe matier of þine counsil & what fruyte it maie conceiue & engendre. [2400] þou schalt eke considerer al þes causes for whiche þei lue spronge; [2401] ¶ And when 3e haue examyne 3oure counsil as I. haue seide and whiche partye is better & more profitable; & hast approued it be many wise folke & olde; [2402] þan schalt þou considere. if þou maist performe it & make a good ende. [2403] For certes reson wil nouht þat any man schalt beginne a þinge bot if he myht performe it as him outþ; [2404] Ne no wight schol take vp on hym so heuy charge / that he myghte nat bere

it [2405] ¶ For the proverbe seith ¶ he that to muche embraooth / distreyneth litel [2406] And Caton seith ¶ Assay to do swich thyng. as thou hast power to doon / lest that the charge oppresse thee / so soone / that thee bihoueth / to weye thyng that thou hast bigonne / [2407] And if so be / þat thou be in doute / whether thou mayst parfourne a thyng / or noon / chese rather / to suffre than bigonne [2408] ¶ And Piers Alphonse seith ¶ If thou hast myght to doon a thyng / of which thou most repente thee / it is bettre / may than ye [2409] ¶ This is to seyn / that thee is bettre / holde thy tonge stille / than for to speke [2410] ¶ Thanne may ye vnderstode / by stronger reons / that if thou hast po'wer / to parfourne a werk / of which thou shalt repente / thanne is it bettre that thou suffre than bigonne [2411] ¶ wel seyn they þat defenden euery wight / to assaye any thyng / of which he is in doute / whether he may parfourne it or noon ¶ [2412] And after / when ye han examyned youre conseil / as I haue seyd bifore / and knowen wel / that ye may parfourne youre emprise / conferme it thanne sadly til it be at an ende

[2413] NOW is it reson and tyme þat I shewe yow / whanne and wherfore / that ye may change youre conseil-lours / with-outen youre repreus [2414] ¶ Soothly / a man may chaungen his purpos and his conseil if the cause cesseth / or when a newe cas biydeith [2415] ¶ For the lawe seith that vp-on thynges þat newly biyden / bihoueth newe conseil [2416] ¶ And seneca seith ¶ If thy conseil is comen / to the eris of thyn enemy / change thy conseil [2417] ¶ Thou mayst also chaunge thy conseil / if so be / that thou mayst fynde / that by error / or by other cause / harm or damage / may biyde [2418] ¶ Also / if thy conseil be dishonest. or ellis cometh of dishoneste cause / change thy conseil ¶ [2419] for the lawes seyn / that alle bihestes that been dishoneste / ben of no value

ELLESMEERE (s-T. 218) ¶ leaf 109, back take vp on hym so heuy charge / þat he myghte nat bere it [2405] for the proverbe seith / he þat to muche embraooth / destrayneth litel [2406] And Caton seith / Assay to do swich thyng / as thou hast power to doon / lest þat the charge / oppresse thee so soore / þat thee bihoueth / to weye thyng þat thou hast bigonne ¶ [2407] And if so be / þat thou be in doute / whether thou

mayst parfourne a thyng / or noon / chese rather to suffre than bigonne / [2408] ¶ And Peter Alfonso seith ¶ If thou hast myght to doon a thyng / of which thou most repente / it is bettre / may / than ye / [2409] this is to seyn / þat thee is bettre / to holde thy tonge stille / than for to speke [2410] ¶ Thanne may ye vnderstode by stronger reons / þat if thou hast power / to 'parfoune
a werk / of which thou shalt repente / thanne is it bettre þat thou suffre / than bigonne [2411] ¶ wel seyn they / þat defenden euery wight / to assaye / a thyng / of which he is in doute / whether he may parfoune it or no [2412] ¶ And after / when ye haue examyned youre conseil / as I haue seyd bifore / and knowen wel þat ye may parfourne youre emprise / conferme it thanne sadly / til it be at
an ende

[2413] ¶ Now is it reson and tyme / þat I shewe yow / whanne & wherfore / þat ye may change youre conseil-lours / with oute youre repreus ¶ [2414] Soothly / man may chaungen his purpos and his conseil / if the cause
cesseth / or when a newe cas biydeith ¶ [2415] for the lawe seith / þat vp-on thynges / þat newly biydeith / bihoueth
newe conseil [2416] ¶ And Seneca seith ¶ If thy conseil is come / to the eris of thyn enemy / change thy conseil [2417] ¶ Thou mayst also chaunge thy conseil / if so be þat thou mayst fynde þat by error / or by other cause / harm / or damage / may biyde [2418] ¶ Also / if thy conseil be dishoneste / or ellis cometh of dishoneste cause / change thy conseil ¶ [2419] for the lawes seyn / that alle bihestes / þat been dishoneste / ben of no value /

HENGWRT (s-T. 218) ¶ leaf 109, back take vp-on hym / so heuy charge / that he myghte not bere

it / [2405] for the proverbe seith / he that to muche embraeth distreyneth litel / [2406] And catoun seith / Assay to don swich thyng as thou hast power to don / lest that the charge appresse the not so sore / that the be-houith to weye thyng that thou hast begonne [2407] & jif so be that that thou be endoute / wherþer thou mayst performe ik or non chese rather to suffer than begonne / [2408] And Petr Alfonso seith / jif thou hast mygt to doon a thyng / of which thou muste repente: it is betere // 3a // than nay / [2409] this is to seyne the is betere to helde thyn tunge stille: than for to spekyrn / [2410] Thanne may 3e vnderstode: þat stronger reons / that jif thou hast power / to performe a werk of which thou ault repente: thanne is it betere / that thou suffere / than begonne / [2411] weel seyn they that defondyn euery wigt to assay a thyng of which he is endoute / wherþer ho may performe it or no [2412] And aftr whan 3e han examynyd yourre conseil / as I haue seyd befor / and knowyn weel that 3e may parfourne yourre emprise conferme it thanne sadli til it be at
an ende— [2413]

NOW is it reson & tyme that I shewe 3ow whanne & wherfore / that 3e may change yourre counseyl/purys with-outyn repreve / [2414] Sothly a man may chaungyn his [conseil et son] purpos ¶ jif the cause cesseth or whanne a newe cas biydyth [2415] ¶ For the lawe seith that vp-on thyngis / that newly betydyrn / byhoweth newe conseil / [2416] & seneca seith / jif thyn conseil is come to the eris of thynne enemy / change thyn conseil.
[2417] Thou mayst also chaunge thyn conseil: jif so be that thou fynde that be error / or be other cause / harm or damage / may betyde / [2418] Also jif thyn conseil [est dishonneste, ou vient de cause dishonneste, [2419] car les lois dient que toutes promesses that] be dishonest. þen be of no value /
CAMBRIDGE (s-T. 216) ¶ leaf 104, back

¶ How a man may chaunge his conseilours with-outyn repreus

¶ Seneca

taken vpon him so heuy a charge þat he mighte [not] bere it [2405] ¶ For þe prouerbe seiþ he þat to mochel enbracep distrayneþ litel [2406] ¶ And Catoþ seiþ ¶ Assay such þingz as þou hast power to done leste þe charge oppresse þe to sore þat þe bihouep to weyue þingz þat þou hast bygonne [2407] ¶ And if so be þat þou be in doute. wher þou maist performe a þingz or non: chese raper for to suffre þan for to bygygne [2408] ¶ And Piere alphonus saith If þou hast might to don a þingz of which þou most repente it is bettre [. . . . .] [2409] . . . . . no gap halde þi tunge stille þan for to speke [2410] ¶ Then may I vnderstode by stronger reasons þat if þou hast power to performe a werkz of which þou schalt repente þe ¶ Themo is it bettre þat þou suffre þan bygygne [2411] wel seyn þei þat defenden euery wight to assaye a þingz of which he is in doute wher he may performe it or non [2412] ¶ And after when 3e haue examyned þoure conseilz as I haue seyd biforn and knowe wel þat 3e may performe þoure emprise: conforme it þanne sadly til it be at an ende take vpon him so heuy a charge þat he myst not bere it. [2405] sfor þe prouerbe seiþ. He þat to mocho embraisteth: destrayneth litel . [2406] And Catoþ seiþ ¶ Assais to doo such þingges as þow hast pouer to doo. lest þat þi charge oppresse þe so soor þat þe bihouep to weyue. þingz þat þou hast bygonne [2407] ¶ And gif so be ' þat þow be in doute whedere þou maist performe a þingz or noon. chese raper to suffre þan bygygne [2408] And Petrus Alfons / seiþ: If þou hast myght to done a þingz of which þe most repente. it is lettere may þan see. [2409] This is to sayn þat þe is betttere to holde þi tunge stille. þan forto speke. [2410] Than may 3e vnderstode by stronger reasons. þat gif þou hast powere to performe a werke of which þou schalt repont. þan is it better þat þow suffre þan bygygne [2411] ¶ Wel sayne þei þat defenden euery wight to assay a þingz of which he is in doute whedere he may performe it or noon. [2412] And after whan 3e haue examyned þoure counsaile as I haue seide biforn. and knowen wel 3e may performe þoure emprise. conforme it þan sadly til it be at an ende taken vpon him so heuy a charge þat he ne myht bere it. [2405] ¶ For þe prouerbe seiþ: He þat to mucho enbraest distreyneþ litul. [2406] And Catoþ seiþe Assaie suche þingz as þou hast pouere to done lest þe charge 'opresse þe to sore: þat þe be-houep to weyue þingz þat þou hast begonne [2407] ¶ And if so be þou be in doute wherþou maista performe a þingz or none: chese raper for to suffre þan for to beginne [2408] ¶ And Peter Alphon seiþe. If þou hast myght to done a þingz of which þou most repont. [ . . . . .] [2409] . . . . . no gap It is better to hold þine tonge still: þan for to speke [2410] ¶ Then may .I. vnder-stande be stronger reasons þat if þou hast power to performe a werke of which þou schalt repont þe. It is it better þat þou suffre þan begynne: [2411] welo seyne þei þat defenden euery whight to assaie a thingz of which he is in doute wher he mai performe it or none: [2412] And after whan 3e haue examyned þoure counsaile as .I. haue seide be-forno: And knoweþe wele þat 3e maie performe þoure emprise conforme it þan sadly til it be at an ende.

[2413] ¶ Now is it reson and tyme þat I schewe þou whenne and wherefore þat 3e may change þoure counsellours wipouten þoure reprofe [2414] ¶ Soþly man may change his purpos and his counseil if þe cause cesseth or whan a newe caus be tydeþ [2415] ¶ For þe lawe seiþ vpon þingz þat newly betyden bihouep newe conseilz [2416] ¶ And Senek seiþ ¶ If þin counseil come to þe ceres of þin enemyz: change þi counseil [2417] [Apre, l'en peut changer son conseil] ift so be þou fynde þat by error or by oþer any cause harme or damage may betyde [2418] ¶ Also of þin counseil be dishoneste oþer elles come of dishoneste cause: change þin counseil [2419] ¶ For þe lawe seiþ/ þat alle biheestes þat ben dishoneste ne ben of no value.

[2413] ¶ Nowe is it reson and tyme. þat I shewe then and wherefore þat 3e may change þoure counsaillours wip-out reproff [2414] ¶ Soþely a man may change his counsaile. and his purpos if þe cause cesseth. or whan a newe cause byndeþ. [2415] sfor þe lawe seiþ þat vpon þingges þat newly betiden byhouep newe counsaile. [2416] And Senec seiþ / gif þi counsaile be comen to þe ceres of myn enemye: change þi counsaile [2417] ¶ Thow maist also change þi counsaile. gif so be þat þou fynde þat by error or by oþer cause harme or damage may be-tide [2418] ¶ Also gif þi counsaile be dishonest. or ellie cometh of dishonest cause change þi counsaile [2419] sfor þe lawes sayn . þat al 'byheestes þat bene dishonest bene of no valew.

[2413] ¶ Nowe is it reson & time þat .I. schewe þowe whenne & where: for þat 3e maie change þoure counsellours wip-outen þoure reprove [2414] ¶ Soþely a man maie change his purpos & his counsel if þe cause cesseth: or whan a newe caus be-tideþ: [2415] sfor þe lawe seiþ vpon þingz þat newly be-tyden be-houep newe counsel: [2416] And senec seiþe. If þi counseil come to þe heres of þine enemyz change þi counsel. [2417] [ . . . . .] ift so be þat þou finde þat be error or be any oþere cause harme or damage may betide [2418] ¶ Also if þi counsel be dishoneste. or elles come of dishoneste cause change þine counsel. [2419] For þe lawe seiþe þat al beheestes þat bene dishonest ne biene of no valew:

[2420] ¶ And eek /if so be /pat it be impossible / or may nat goodly be performed / or kept

[2421] ¶ And take this / for a general rule / that every conseil /pat is affirmed so strongly / that it may nat be changed / for no condicioun / that may bityde ¶ I seye / pat thiike conseil is wilkeð . [2422]

¶ Melibee

This Melibeeus / whanne he hadde herd the doctrine of his wif Dame Prudence / answered in this wyse [2423] ¶ Dame quod he as yet in to this tyme / ye han wel and couenablely taught me as in general / how I shal governe me in the chesyngs / and in the witholdyng of my conseilours || [2424] but now wolde I fayn / that ye wolde condescende in especial / [2425] and telle me / how liketh yow / or what semeth yow / by our conseilours / that we han chosen in oure present nede

¶ Prudence

[2426] ¶ My lord quod she / I biseke yow in al humblesse / that ye wol nat wilfully replie agayn my resonis / ne distempere yow herte / thogh I speke thyng / that yow displeis || [2427] for god wot / þat as in myn entente I speke it / for youre beste / for youre honour / and for youre profit eke / [2428] And soothly I hope / that youre benygnytee / wol taken it in pacience [2429] ¶ Trusteth me wel quod she / that youre conseil / as in this cas / ne sholdte nat as to speke properly / be called a conseilynge / but a mocion / or a moeyng of folye / [2430] in which conseil / ye han erred in many a sondry wise

[2431] ¶ first / and forward / ye han erred in thassemblinge of youre conseilours || [2432] for ye sholdte first han clepid a fewe folk / to youre conseil / and after ye myghte han shewed it / to mo folk / if it hadde been nede [2433] ¶ But certes / ye han sodeynly clepid to youre conseil a greet multitude of peple ful chargeant / and ful anyous for to heere [2434] ¶ Also / ye han erred / for there as ye sholdte only han clepid to youre conseil / youre trowes frendes olde and wise / [2435] ye han yclepid straunge folk / and yong folk / false flaterers / and enemyes

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 219)

[2420] And eek if it so be / pat it be impossible / or may nat goodly be performed / or kept ||

[2421] And take this / for a general rule || That every conseil /pat is affirmed so strongly / pat it may nat be changed / for no condicioun / pat may bityde / I seye / that thiike conseil is wilkeð

[2422] ¶ This Melibeeus / whan he hadde herd / the doctrine of his wif / Dame Prudence / answered in this wise [2423] ¶ Dame quod he / as yet in to this tyme / ye han wel & couenablely taught me / as in general / how I shal governe me / in chesyngs / & in the witholdyng of my conseilours || [2424] But now wolde I fayn / pat ye wolde condescenden in especial / [2425] & telle me how liketh yow / or what semeth yow / by our conseilours / pat we han chosen in oure present nede

[2426] My lord quod she / I biseke yow / in al humblesse / pat ye wol nat wilfully / replie agayn my resonis / ne distempere youre herte / thogh I speke thyng / pat yow displeis / [2427] for god wot / þat as in myn entente / I speke it / for youre beste / for youre honour / & for youre profit eke / [2428] And soothly I hope / pat youre benygnytee / wol taken it in pacience [2429] ¶ Trusteth me wel quod she / pat youre conseil / as in this cas / ne sholdte nat as to speke properly / be called a conseilynge / but a mocion / or a moeyng of folie / [2430] in which conseil / ye han erred / in many a sondry wise

[2431] ¶ first & forward / ye han erred / in the assemblinge of youre conseilours / [2432] for ye sholdte first han clepid a fewe folk / to youre conseil / and after / ye myghte han shewed it / to mo folk / if it hadde be nede [2433] ¶ But certes / ye han sodeynly clepid to youre conseil / a greet multitude of peple / ful chargeant / & ful anyous for to heere [2434] ¶ Also / ye han erred / for ther as ye sholdte only / han clepid to youre conseil / youre trowes frendes / olde / & wise / [2435] ye han yclepid straunge folk / yong folk / false flaterers / & enemyes

HENGWART (6-T. 219) [f. leaf 212]

[2420] And ek if it so be / that it be impossible / or may not been goodly performed / or kept ||

[2421] And take this for a general rule / that every conseil /pat is affirmed so strongly / that it may not been choght / for no condicioun / that may bityde / I seye / that thiike conseil is wilkeð [2422]

This Melibeeus whan he hadde herd the doctrine / of his wif / Dame Prudence / answered in this wise [2423] Dame quod he as zit into this tyme / 30 han weel & conably taught me as in general / how I shal governe me in chesyngs & in witholdyng of myne conseilours [2424] ¶ But now wolde I fayn / that 30 woldyn condescenden in especial / [2425] & tellyn how 30 lykth or what semyth 30 by our conseilours / that we han chosyn in oure present nede / [2426]

Myn lord quod she I biseke 30w in alle humblesse / that 30 wote nat wilfully repleye // a 30w myne resonys / ne distempere 30we herte / thow I speke thyng / that 30w displeis / [2427] for god wot / that as in myn entent / I speke it / for 30we beste. for 30we honour / & for 30we profit ek / [2428] And sothly I hope / that 30we benygnetee wote takyn it in pacience / [2429] Trustith me wot / quod she / that 30we conseil / as in this cas / ne schulde nat as to speken properly / been callyd a conseilynge / But a mocion / or a moeyng of folye [2430] in which conseil / 30 han erred / [en multi de moult]

[2431] [Premièrement, tu as erré] in the assemblinge of 30we conseilours / [2432] for 30 schulde first a clepid a fewe folk / [et puis après plusieurs] if it hadde been nede / [2433] But certis / 30 han clepid sodeynly to 30we conseil / a greet multitude of peple ful chargeant / and ful anyous for to heere [2434] ¶ Also / 30 han erred / for there as 30 schulde only haue clepid to 30we conseil / 30we trowes frendis olds & wyse / [2435] 30 han / clepid straunge folk. 30ng folk. false flateris / & enemyis

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 219) [f. leaf 212]

[2420] and eek it so be þat it be impossible oþer may nouȝt gladly be performed oþer kepte

[2421] And take þis for a general reule / þat euery counsaill þat is enformed so strongly þat it may nouȝt be changed for no condicion þat may betyde: I say þat wilke counsell is wickid.

[2422] ¶ Melibius whan he hadde herd þe doctrine of his wiȝf dame prudence: he answerde in þis wyse.

[2423] Dame quod he as ȝet vnto þis tyme ȝe han wel taught me as in generalle how I schal gouerne me and in þe chesyng and in þe wipholdyng of my counsellours. [2424] But now wolde I fayn þat ȝe wolde condescende in special [2425] and telle me how þat likeȝ ȝou or how þat semþ ȝou by oure counsellours þat we haue chose in þis present neede

[2426] ¶ My lord quod sche I beseeche ȝou in al humbles þat ȝe wolde nouȝt wilfully reprouen aȝein myn resonis ne distemper ȝoure herte þough I speke þingȝ þat ȝou displese [2427] ¶ For god woet as in myn entent I speke it as for þe beste for ȝoure honour and for ȝour profyt eke [2428] ¶ And soþly I hope þat ȝoure benignite wol take it in pacience [2429] ¶ And trusteȝ to me wel þat ȝoure counsell in þis cas ne scholde nouȝt as to speke proprely be called a counsellinge but a mocion or a meuyng of folye [2430] In which counsell ȝe haue herde in many a sondry wise

[2431] ¶ first and forþward ȝe han herd in þe assemblingȝ of ȝoure counsellours [2432] ¶ for first ȝe schulde haue cleped a fewe folk to ȝoure counseile ¶ And after þat ȝe mightȝ haue schewed it to mo folk it it hadde be neede.

[2433] But certes soodely ȝe han cleped to ȝoure counsell a gret multitude of people fulle charygant and ful annoyous for to here [2434] ¶ And also ȝe haue herde further as ȝe schulde only haue cleped to ȝoure counseile ȝoure trewe frendes olde & wise [2435] ¶ ȝe han cleped also straunge folkȝ ȝongȝ folkȝ fals flaterers and enemyes [2420] And eke ȝif it so be þat it be impossible or may not goodly be performed or kept.

[2421] And take þis for a general rowle þat euery counsaill þat is affermed so strongly þat it may nat be changed for no condicion þat may be-tide I saye þat þilk counsaile is wikkid [2422] ¶ This Melobius whan he had herde þis doctrine of his wiȝf Dame Prudence. Answerde in þis wise.

[2423] ¶ Dame quod he as ȝif vnto þis tyme ȝe han wel and connably taught me, as in generall howe I schal gouerne as in chesinge and in wipholdyng of my counsaillours [2424] But nowe wolde I fayn þat ȝe wolden condescenden in especial. [2425] and tel me howe likeȝ. or what semþ ȝou by oure counsaillours þat we haue chosen in oure present neede

[2426] ¶ My lord quod she I beseeche ȝou in alle humbles þat ȝe wil not wilfully replie aȝeinȝ my resonis / and mystemper nat ȝour hertȝ þougȝ I saye or speke þingȝ þat ȝou displese. [2427] for god woote þat as þat as in myn entent I speke it for ȝoure best for ȝoure honore and ȝoure profite. [2428] and soþly. I hope þat ȝoure benignite wil taken in pacience. [2429] Trusteȝ me wel quod she þat ȝoure counsaile as in þis cas ne schuld nat as forto speke proprely. be called a counsaillinge. but a mocion or meuyng of foly. [2430] in which counsaile ȝe han erred [en moult de manieres]

[2431] [Premièrement, tu as erré] in þe assemblingȝ of ȝoure counsaillers. [2432] for ȝe shuld first haue cleped a fewe folk [et puis après plusieurs] ȝif it had bene neede. [2433] But certes ȝe han soodely cleped to ȝoure counsaile a gret multitude of puple. ful charygant and ful annoyous forto here [2434] Also ȝe han erred. for here as ȝe shuld oonly haue cleped to ȝoure counsaile ȝoure trewe frendes olde and wise [2435] ȝe haue ycleped straunge folkȝ. ȝonge folkȝ. fals flaterers and enemyes

[2420] ¶ And eke if it so be þat it be impossible or maie notȝt gladly be performed or kept [2421] ¶ And take þis for a general rowle. That ouery counsaill þat is enformed so strongly þat it maie not be chaunged for no condicion þat maie be tide: I. saie þat ilke counsil is wykkid:

[2422] ¶ Melibius whan he hadde herde þe doctrine of his wiȝf Dame Prudence. he answerd in þis wise.

[2423] Dame quod he as ȝif vnto þis tyme ȝe haue wele taucht me as in general howe .I. schal gouerne me. & in þe chesinge. & in wipholdeinge of my counsellours. [2424] ¶ Bot nowe wolde .I. faine þat ȝe wolde condescende in speciale: [2425] and telleȝ me howe þat likeȝ ȝou or howe þat semþ ȝou be oure counsellours þat we haue chose in þis present neede

[2426] ¶ Mi lord quod sche .I. beseeche ȝou in al humbles þat ȝe wolde nouȝt wilfully reprouen aȝeinȝ myn resonis ne distemper ȝoure herte þaibe .I. speke þingȝ þat ȝou displese [2427] ¶ for god wote as in myne entent .I. speke it as for þe best: for ȝoure honoure & for ȝoure profyt eke: [2428] And soþly .I. hope þat ȝoure benignite wil tak it in pacience // [2429] And trusteȝ to me wele þat ȝoure consel in þis ne schold nouȝt as to speke proprely be called a counsellinge; bot A mocion or ameuyng of folye. [2430] ¶ In which counsil ȝe haue herde in many a sondry wyse:

[2431] first & forwarde ȝe haue herde in þe assomblyng of ȝoure counsellours: [2432] for first ȝe schold haue cleped a fewe-folk to ȝoure counseil. ¶ And after þat ȝe myht haue schewed it to mo folke if it hadd be neede: //

[2433] Bot certes soðanly ȝe haue cleped to ȝoure counsell a grette multitude of pople ful charygant & ful annoyous for to here: [2434] ¶ And also ȝe haue herde forþer as ȝe scholde only haue cleped to ȝoure counseil ȝoure trewe frendes olde & wise: [2435] ¶ ȝe han cleped also strange folkȝonge folke fals flaterers & enemyes

reconciled / and folk / þat doon yow rēuerence withouten lone [2436] ¶ And eek also / yo hano erred / for yo han broght with yow to youre conseil / Ire / coueiteise / and hastifnesse / [2437] the whiche thre thynges ben contrarious to eury conseil / honeste and profitable / [2438] the whiche thre / yo han nat antientissed / or destroyed hem / neither in youre selfe ne in youre consailours / as yo oghte [2439] ¶ Yo han erred also / for ye han shewed to youre consailours / youre talent and youre affecciōn / to make werre anon / and for to do vengeance / [2440] they han espied by youre wordes to what thyng ye ben enclined || [2441] And therfore / han they rather consailled yow to youre talent than to yours profit [2442] ¶ Yo han erred also / for it semeth / þat it suffiseith / to han been consailled by these consailours only / and with lital auyz / [2443] where-as in so greet & so heigh a neede / it hadde been necessarie mo consailours / and moore deliberaciōn / to performe youre emprise [2444] ¶ Yo han erred also / for ye han nat examyned youre conseil / in the forseyd manere / ne in duo manere / as the cas requyret [2445] ¶ Yo han erred also / for ye han nat makid no divisioñ bitwixe youre consailours ¶ this is to seyn / bitwixen youre trewe freendes / and youre feyned consailours / [2446] ne ye han nat knowe the wyl / of youre trewe freendes / olde and wise / [2447] but ye han cest alle hire wordes in an hochepot and enclined youre herte to the moore partē / and to the greter nombre / and there been ye condescended [2448] ¶ And siþh yo woot wel þat men shal alway / fynde a greter nombre of foolis / than of wise men / [2449] and therfore / the consails that been at congregaciōns and multitudes of folk / there as men take moore reward to the nombre / than to the sapience of persones / [2450] ye se wel / that in swiche consaillynges / foolis han the maistrie [2451] ¶ Melibeus answerde agayn / and seyde / I graunte wel that I hano erred || [2452] but there as thou hast toold me her biforn / þat he nys nat to blame þat chaungeth his con-

reconciled / & folk / þat doon yow rēuerence withouten lone [2436] ¶ And eek also / yo han erred / for ye han broght with yow / to youre conseil / Ire / Coueiteise / & hastifnesse / [2437] the whiche thre thynges / ben contrarious / to eury conseil honeste / & profitable / [2438] the whiche thre thynges / yo han nat antientissed / or destroyed hem / neither in youre selfe ne in youre consailours / as yo oghte / || [2439] ¶ Yo han erred also / for ye han shewed to youre consailours / youre talent & youre affecciōn / to make werre anon / & for to do vengeance / [2440] they han espied by youre wordes / to what thyng ye ben enclined || [2441] And ther-for / han they consailled yow / rather / to youre talent than to youre profit [2442] ¶ Yo han erred also / for it semeth / þat yow suffiseith / to han ben consailled / by these consailours only / & with lital auyz / [2443] wher as in so greet & so heigh a neede / it hadde ben necessarie / mo consailours / & moore deliberaciōn / to performe youre emprise [2444] ¶ Yo han erred also / for ye han nat examyned youre counsell in the forseyd manere / ne in duo manere / as the cas requyret [2445] ¶ Ye han erred also / for ye han makid no divisioñ bitwixe youre consailours / this is to seyn / bytwixen youre trewe freendes / & youre feyned consailours / [2446] ne ye han nat knowe the wyl / of youre trewe freendes / olde / and wise / [2447] but ye han cest alle hir wordes / in an hochepot & enclined youre herte / to the moore partē / & to the greter nombre / & ther be ye condescended || [2448] And siþh yo woot wel / þat men shal alway fynde / a greter nombre of foolis / than of wise men / [2449] and therfore / the consails þat ben at congregaciōns / and multitudes of folk / ther as men take moore reward / to the nombre / than to the sapience of persones / [2450] yo se wel / þat in swyche consaillynges / foolis han the maistrie [2451] ¶ Melibeus answerde agayn / and seyde / I graunte wel þat I hano erred / [2452] but there as thou hast toold me her biforn / þat he ne is nat to blame / þat chaungeth his con-

reconcyled / & felk þat don ȝow reuerence with-outyn lone / [2436] And eek also ȝe han erred / for ȝe han broght with ȝow to ȝoure conseil! Ire. Couneytise. & Hastifnesse / [2437] the wheche thre thyngis ben contraryous / to eury conseil honeste & profitable / [2438] And the whiche thre / ȝe han not antientissed / or destroyed hem neythir in ȝoure selfe ne in ȝoure consailours / as ȝe oghte [2439] ¶ ȝe han erred also for ȝe han shewed to ȝoure consailours ȝoure talent & ȝoure affeccioun / to makyn werre anon & for to doon vengeance / [2440] they han espied be ȝoure wordis / to what thyng ȝe been enclined / [2441] & therfore han they consaild ȝow rather to ȝoure talent / than to ȝoure profit [2442] ¶ ȝe han erred also / for it semyth that ȝow suffiseith / to han been consaild by these consailours only / & with lital auyz [2443] where as in so-greut & in so high a neede / it hadde been necessarye / me consailours / & moore deliberacioun / to performe ȝoure emprise [2444] ¶ ȝe han erred also for ȝe han not examynyd / ȝoure conseil in the forseyd manere / ne due manere / as the cas requyryth [2445] ¶ ȝe han erred also / for ȝe han makid non deuyssioun / bytwixe ȝoure consailours / [ . . . . . no gap] [2446] ne ȝe han not knowe / the wyl of ȝoure trewe freendis olde & wyse / [2447] but ȝe han cest alle here wordys in an hochepot & enclined ȝoure herte to the moore part & to the gretere numbers // And there been ȝe condescendit / [2448] & siþh ȝe wote weel that men schal alway fynde a gretere nombre of folys than of wise men / [2449] & therfore in the consailis that been at congregaciounys & multitudis of folk there as men take moore reward to the nombre than to the sapience of personis / [2450] ȝe seen weel that in swiche consaillyngis foolis han the maistrie [2451] ¶ I have here-for / [2452] but there as thou hast toold / me here be-for / that he nys to blame that chaungith his con-

reconciled and folk<sup>s</sup> þat don þou reuerence wipouten lous / [2436] And ek<sup>t</sup> also 3e hau<sup>e</sup> herd for 3e han brought wip þou to youre counsell. Ire. Couseytise and hastines [2437] þe whiche þre pinges ben contrary to every good counsell and honest & profitable [2438] þe whiche þre pinges 3e han nouȝt anytesched oþer destruyed hem neȝer in youre self ne in youre / counsellours as 3e aughte [2439] ¶ 3e han herde also for 3e han schewed to youre counsellours youre talent<sup>s</sup> youre affection to make werre anon for to do vengeance [2440] And þei hau aspid by youre wordes to what<sup>s</sup> ping<sup>s</sup> 3e ben enclined [2441] ¶ And þerfore hau<sup>e</sup> þei raper counsellid you to youre talent<sup>s</sup> þan to youre profyt<sup>s</sup> [2442] 3e han herde also for semþ it / sufficē to han ben counselled by þis counsellours onely and wip litel auyse [2443] where as in so grete and in so heeth a neede it<sup>s</sup> had þe necessarye mo counsellours and mo deliberacions to performe youre empirie [2444] ¶ 3e han herd also for 3e han herd nouȝt youre counsel in þe forseide manere ne in dwe manere as þe cas requyret<sup>r</sup> [2445] ¶ 3e
 hau<sup>e</sup> herd also for 3e hau<sup>e</sup> maad no dyuysio<sup>n</sup> betwixe [ . . . . . no gap] youre trewe frendes and youre feyned councellours [2446] ¶ Ne 3e han nouȝt knowe þe wille of youre trewe frendes olde and wise.
 [2447] But 3e han cast alle here wordes in an hoche potte and enclined youre herte to þe more part and to þe gretter nombre [ . . . . . ] [2448] [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] of fooles þenne of wise men. [2449] ¶ And þerfor þe counsellours þat<sup>s</sup> ben at congregaciōns and multitudes of folk<sup>s</sup> þer as men take more reward to þe nombre þan to Sapience of persones [2450] ¶ 3e seen wel þat in suches counsellenges foolen hau<sup>e</sup> þe myserie [2451] ¶ Melybius answeret<sup>r</sup> ageyn I graunte wel þat
 I hau<sup>e</sup> herd [2452] ¶ But þer as þou hast<sup>s</sup> tolde me þer bifore þat þe nys nouȝt to blame þat chaungeþ his coun-reconciled and folk<sup>s</sup> þat don<sup>e</sup> þou reuerence wipouten loue [2436] ¶ Also 3e hau<sup>e</sup> erred. for 3e han brought wip þou to youre counsaile. Ire. Couselyse. and hastynes [2437] þe whiche þre pinges [sont contraires à conseil, cf] [2438] 3e han not anycesed or destroyed hem / neȝer in youre self ne in youre counsellours as 3e out<sup>r</sup> [2439] ¶ 3e han erred also for 3e han shewed to youre counsaillers youre talent<sup>s</sup> and youre affection to make werre anon and forto do vengeance. [2440] þei han aspid by youre wordes to what<sup>s</sup> ping<sup>s</sup> 3e bene enclined.

 [2441] & þerfore han þei counsaillid you raper to youre talent<sup>s</sup> þan to youre prophete [2442] ¶ 3e hau<sup>e</sup> erred also. for it semed þat<sup>s</sup> you sufficed to hau<sup>e</sup> bene counselled by þise counsaillours onely & wip litel avice / [2443] Where as in so grete and so highe a neede it<sup>s</sup> had ben necessarye mo counsaillours and more deliberacion to performe youre empirie [2444] ¶ 3e hau<sup>e</sup> erred also. for 3e hau<sup>e</sup> not examined youre counsaile in þe forseide manere ne in dwe manere. as þe cas requyret<sup>r</sup> [2445] ¶ 3e
 han erred also for 3e han makid no dyuysio<sup>n</sup> bytwix youre counsaillours. þis is to sayn bytwix youre frendes & youre feyned counsaillours [2446] ne 3e han not knowe þe wille of youre trewe frendes. olde and wise [2447] But 3e han cast all her wordes in an hoche potte and enclined youre herte to þe more parte and to þe gretter nombre and þer by 3e condescended. [2448] And siþ 3e wote wel þat<sup>s</sup> men shal fynde a gretter multitude of fooles þan of wise men. [2449] and þerfor þe counsaillours þat<sup>s</sup> ben at congregaciōns and multitudes of folk<sup>s</sup> þer as men take more reward to þe nombre þan to þe sapience of persones [2450] ¶ 3e se wel þat<sup>s</sup> in such counsaillengges foolen hau<sup>e</sup> þe maistrie [2451]
 .Melibius answeret<sup>r</sup> ageyn and seide ¶ I graunte wel þat
 I hau<sup>e</sup> erred. [2452] but þer as þou hast<sup>s</sup> tolde me here bifore þat<sup>s</sup> þe nys not to blame þat chaungeþ his coun-reconciled. And þis þat do<sup>e</sup> þou reuerence wip<sup>e</sup> outen loue [2436] And ek<sup>t</sup> also 3e hau<sup>e</sup> herd for 3e hau<sup>e</sup> brought wip þou to youre counsaile. Ire. Cousaile / & hastinesse / [2437] ¶ þat whiche þre pinges be contrary to every good counsaile & honest & profitable [2438]

 The whiche þre pinges 3e hau<sup>e</sup> nouȝt anteschid oþer des-truye hem neȝer in youre self ne in youre counsaillours as 3ou<sup>e</sup> aht [2439] ¶ 3e hau<sup>e</sup> herde also for 3e hau<sup>e</sup> schewed to youre consellours youre talent. your affection anon for to do vengeance [2440] And þei hau<sup>e</sup> aspid be youre wordes to what pinges 3e be enclined :
 [2441] And þer fore hau<sup>e</sup> þei nser counsellid 3ou<sup>e</sup>re talent<sup>s</sup> þan to youre profitte. // [2442] 3e hau<sup>e</sup> herd also for 3ou<sup>e</sup> semþ it / sufficē to hau<sup>e</sup> be coun-selid be þis counsellours onely & be litel avice : [2443] where as in so grete & in so hohe a neede it hadde þou<sup>e</sup> necessarye mo counsellours & mo delib<sup>r</sup>eraciones to performe youre empirie. [2444] ¶ Also 3e hau<sup>e</sup> nouȝt herde youre counsaile in þe forseid manere ne in dieu manere as þe cas requyret<sup>r</sup>. [2445] ¶ 3e hau<sup>e</sup> herde also for 3e hau<sup>e</sup> maade no diuision be twix [ . . . . . no gap] youre trewe frendes & youre feyned counsellours [2446] Ne 3e han nouȝt knowe þe witt of youre trew frendes olde & wise.
 [2447] Bot 3e hau<sup>e</sup> cast all here wordes in an hoche poche & enclined youre hert. to þe more part and to þe gretter nombre [and there be 3e condescended [2448] Et tu sces bien que les fols sont touzours en plus grant nombre que les sages.] of folen þan of wise men : [2449] And þer for þe consellings þat ben at congregaciōns & multitude of folk<sup>s</sup> þere as men tak more reward to þe nombre þan to þe Sapience. of persones. [2450] ¶ 3e se wela þat in suches consellings þe folen hau<sup>e</sup> þe maistre. [2451] ¶ Melibie answeret & seide agens .I. graunt wela þat
 .I. hau<sup>e</sup> herde [2452] Bot þere as þou hast tolde me here before. That he nys nouȝt to blame to change his con-seillours in certein cas / and for certeyne Iuste causes [2453] ¶ I am al redy to change my conseilours / right as thou wilt deuyse / [2454] ¶ The prouerbe seith / that for to do synne / is mannyssh / but certes / for to perseure longe in synne / is werk of the deuyl

[2455] ¶ To this sentence answereth anon dame Prudence and seyde [2456] ¶ Examyneth quod she youre conseil-and lat vs see / of the whiche of hem / han spoken moost resonably / and taught yow best conseil // [2457]
And for as muche as þat the examynacioun is necessario / lat vs bigynne at the surgens and at the phisiciens / that first spoken in this matiere [2458] ¶ I sey yow / that the surgens and phisiciens / han seyd yow in youre conseil discretly / as hem oughte [2459] ¶ And in hir speche seyd ful wysly / that to the office of hem aperteneþ to doon to every right honour and profit / and no right for to anye / [2460] and in hir craft / to doon greet diligence vnto the cure of hem / whiche þat they han in hir gouernance / [2461] And sire / right as they han answered wisly and discretly / [2462] right so rode I that they been heighly and souerelyngly gerdoned for hir noble speche / [2463] and cek for they sholde do / the moore ententif biysseness in the curacioun of youre doghter deere // [2464] for al be it so / þat they been youre freendes / therefore shal ye nat suffren / that they serue yow for nought / [2465] but yo oughte the rather gerdone hem and shewe hem youre largesse [2466] ¶ And as touchynge the proposicion which that the Phisiciens encreosceden in this cas / this is to seyn / [2467] that in maladics / that contrarie is warished by another contrarie / [2468] I wilde fayn knowe / hou ye vnderstende this text / and what is youre sentence [2469] ¶ Certes quod Melibeus / I vnderstende it in this wise [2470] ¶ That right as they han doon me a contrarie / right so / sholde I doon hem another // [2471] for right as they han venged hem on me / and doon me wronge / Right so / shal I venge me vpon hem /

seillours in certeyn cas / & for certeyne Iuste causes / [2453] I am al redy / to change my conseilours / right
as thou wilt deuyse // [2454] The prouerbe seith / that for to do synne / is mannyssh / but certes / for to persouera
longe in synne / is werk of the deuyl

[2455] ¶ To this sentence / answerde anon dame Prudence
/ & seyde // [2456] Examyneth quod she youre conseil-/ & lat vs so / of the whiche of hem / han spoken moost resonably / & taught yow best conseil // [2457]
And for as muche / as þat the examinacion is necessario / lat vs bigynne / at the Sirurgens / and at the Phisiciens / þat first spoken in this matere // [2458] I sey yow þat the Sirurgens / & Phisiciens / haan seyd yow in youre conseil / discretly / as hem oughte / [2459] And in hir speche / seyden ful wysly / that to the office of hem / aperteneþ to doon to every wight honour & profit. and no wight to anye / [2460] and after hir craft / to doon greet diligence vnto the cure of hem / whiche þat they han in hir gouernance [2461] ¶ And sire / right as they haan answered wysly & discretly / [2462] right so rode .I. / þat they been heighly & souerelyngly gerdoned / for hir noble speche / [2463] and cek for they shullen / do the moore ententif biysseness / in the curacioun of thy doghter deere // [2464] for al be it so / that they ben youre freendes / therefore shal ye nat suffren / þat they serue you for nought. [2465] but yo oughte / the rather gerdone hem / & shewen hem youre largesse // [2466] And as touchynge the proposicion / which þat the Phisiciens / encreosceden in this cas / this is to seyn / [2467] that in maladics / that a contrarie / is warished / by another contrarie [2468] I wilde fayn knowe / how ye vnderstende thilke text / &
what is youre sentence [2469] ¶ Certes quod Melibeus / I
vnderstende it in this wise // [2470] that right as they han
doon me a contrarie / right so / sholde I / doon hem another / [2471] for right as they han venged hem on me / & doon me wronge / right so / shal I venge me vp-on hem /

seyl in certeyn cas / & for certeyn Iuste causes [2453] I am al redy to schawge myn conseylours / ryzt as thou wilt deuyse / [2454] the prouerbe seyth that for to do synne / is mannyssh / but certes to perseure longe therinne / is werk of the deuyl [2455]

TO this sentence answerde anon Dame prudence / & seyde // [2456] Examynyth quod sche youre conseyl / & lat vs so the whiche of hem han spokyn moost resonably & taught 3ow best conseyl // [2457]
And for as meche as the examynacioun is necessurie / lat vs begynne at the Surgens / & at the phisicians / that fyrst spekyen in this matere / [2458] I seye 3ow that the surgens & phisiciens han seyd 3ow in youre conseyl descretly as hem ou3te / [2459] & in here space seydyn ful wysely / that to the offyse of hem aperteynyth to doon to every wyzt honour & profyt / & no wyzt to anyen [2460] & aftry here craft to doon greet diligence vnto the cure of hem whiche that they han in here gouernance / [2461] And sire ryzt as they han answerd wisly & discretly / [2462] ryzt so rode I that they been hoyle & souerelyngly gwerdounnyd for here noble speche / [2463] And ek for they schuldyn don the moore ententif bysness in the curacioun of thy doghter deere / [2464] for al be it so / that they been 3oure frendis / therefore sehal 3e nat sufferyn / that they serue 3ow for nought [2465] but 3e oughtyn rather gwerdounyn hem & schewyn hem 3oure largesse / [2466] And as touchynge the preposicion whiche the phisiciounys encreosced in this cas / this is to seyne / [2467] that in maladya / that on contrarye is warchid by a nothir contrarye / [2468] I wilde fayn knowen how 3e vnderstonde thilke text / & what is 3oure sentenche. [2469] ¶ Certis quod Melibeus I vndirstonde it in this wise / [2470] that ryzt as they han doon a contrarye ryzt so schulde I doon hem a-nothir / [2471] for ryzt as they han vengede hem on me / & don me wronge / ryzt so schal I wengyn me vp-on hem ceillours for certain caas and for certain and iuste cause [2453] I am al redy to change myne counceillours right as þou woldest deuise [2454] ¶ For þe prouerbe sailþ þat for to don synne is manysshil But certes for to perseueren longe in synne is werkes of þe deuel.

[2455] ¶ To þis sentence answered anon dame Prudence and sayde. [2456] examyneþ quod sche zoure counselle and let vs so þe which of hem haþ spoke more resonably and taught þou best counsaile. [2457] ¶ And for as moche as þat examinacon is necessary. let vs begynne at surgians and at phisiciens þat first spoken of þis matiere [2458] ¶ I say þat Phisiciens & surgians haue sayd þou in zoure conseil discretly as hem oughte [2459] & in here speche sethens ful wisely þat þe office of hem apperteyneth to don to euery wight honour and profyt and nouþ for to ennoye [2460] and after here craft to don greþ diligence vnto þe cure of hem which þat þey haue in here gouernance [2461] and sir right as þei han answered wisely and discretly. [2462] Right so rede I þat þei ben highly and souerynly guardourþ for her noble speche. [2463] and eke for þei schullen more do þe ententif bysynes in þe curacion of þin daughter deere [2464] ¶ for al be it so þat þei ben zoure freendes. þerfor schulþ 3e nouþ suffre þat þei serue þou for nouht [2465] ¶ But 3e oughte þer after guardon hem and payen hem here largesse [2466] ¶ And as touchynge þe proportion which þat þe phisiciens encreuden in þis caas. ¶ This is to sayn [2467] þat in maladyes is þat a contrary is waished by another contrarie [2468] ¶ I wolde fayn knowe how 3e vnderstode þilke text and what is zoure sentence [2469] ¶ Certes quod Melibeus I vnderstande it in þis wise. [2470] Right as þei haue done me a contrary: so schuld I don hem another [2471] ¶ for right as þei haue venged hem vpon me: and don me wronge: I schuld so wel I venge me vpon hem sailours in certeyn cases and for certeyn iust causes [2453] I am al redy to chaungo my counsaillours riht as þowe woldt deuise [2454] ¶ The prouerbo seiþ. þat forto do synne is manysshil But certes forto perseuere longe in synne is werke of þe deuil [2455] ¶ To þis sentence anon answered dame prudence and saide [2456] Examyneth quod þan aþe zoure counsaile. and lat vs see whiche of hem haþ spoken moost resonable & taught þou best counsaile. [2457] And for as moche as þat þe examynacion is necessario lat vs bygynne at Cirurgians and at þe phisiciences þat first spoken in þis matere. [2458] I say þou þat þe Cirurgians and þe phisiciens haue seiden þou in zoure counsaile discretly as hem auhte. [2459] and in her speche seiden ful wisely as to þe office þat hem apperteth to done to euery wight honoure and profite and no wryt to annoye [2460] and afters her craft to doon grete diligence vnto þe cure of hem which þat þei han in gouernance. [2461] And sir riht as þei han answered wisely and discretly [2462] riht so rede I þat þei bene highly and souerynly guardoun for her noble speche. [2463] and eke for þei shuld do þe more ententif bysynes in þe Curacion of zoure douzter / [2464] for al be it so þat þei bene zoure freendes þerfor shal 3e not suffre þat þei serue þou for nouht [2465] But 3e auht þe mþer to gardone hem and shewe hem zour largesse. [2466] And as tochinge þe proportion þe which þe phisiciens encreuden in þis caas. þis is to sayn [2467] þat in maladies. þat con contrarieþ is waished by another contrarie [2468] .I. wold fayn knowe how. þei vnderstode þilke text And what is her sentence [2469] ¶ Certes quod Melibeus vnderstonden it in þis wise. [2470] Riht as þei han [au(ont) fait un contraire, que je leur face un autre, [2471] et pour ce qu'ils (se) sont] venged hem on me and done me wronge Riht so shal I venge me vpon hem.

sailours for certain caas & for certeine & iust cause [2453] .I. am al redy to change my consellours riht as þou woldest deuise. // [2454] for þe prouerbe seiþe for to do synne is manysshil But certes for to perseuere longe here in is werkes of þe deuel.

[2455] ¶ To þis sentence answered anon dame Prudence & seide [2456] examyneþ quod sche zoure counsell. & lat vs see whiche of hem haþ spoken most resonablye: & tault þou best conseil. [2457] ¶ And for als mucho þat examinacons is necessario Lat vs begianno at surgiens & att phiciens þat first spoken of þis matiere [2458] ¶ .I. seiþ þat Phisiciens & sirurgians haue seide þowe in zoure counsel discretly as hem outþ [2459] in here speche & ful wisely: As to þe office of hem apparteneþ to done to euery whit honoure & profit & nouht for to annoye [2460] And after her craft to done grete diligence vn to þe cure of hem which þat haue in here gouernance [2461] ¶ And sir riht as þei haue answered wisely & discretly. [2462] riht so rede .I. þat þei ben highly & souerynly guardourþ for her noble speche. [2463] & eke for þei scholne more do þe ententif bisneses in þe curacions of fine douhter dere: [2464] for albe-it so þat þei be zoure freendes þer for schal 3e nouit suffre þat þei serue þoue for nouht: [2465] Bot 3e auht þere after guardon hem & payen hem here largesse [2466] ¶ And as toucheinge þe proportion which þat þe phleiciens encreuden in þis caas. ¶ This is to seiue [2467] þat in maladies is þat a contrarie is waressedch by another contrarie [2468] ¶ .I. woldo faine kn[ow]e howe 3e vnderstode þilke text & what is zoure sentence [2469] ¶ Certes quod Millibeus .I. vnderstode it in þis wise: [2470] Riht as þei haue done to me a contrarie. So scholde .I. do hem another: [2471] for riht as þei haue venged hem vpon me & done me wronge: Riht so wil .I. venge me vpon hem and doon hem wrong'. [2472] and thanne haue I cured on contrary by another

[2473] Lo. lo quod dame Prudence / how lightly is every man enclined to his owene desir / and to his owene plesance [2474] ¶ Certes quod she the wordes of the Phisiciens / ne sholde nat han been vnderstanden in thys wise ll. [2475] for certes / wickednesse / is nat contrarie to wickednesse / ne vengeance to vengeance / ne wrong to wrong' but they been semblable [2476] ¶ And therefore / o vengeance / is nat warished by another vengeance / ne o wrong' by another wrong'. [2477] but euerich of hem encreaseth and aggreggeth oother [2478] ¶ But certes / the wordes of the Phisiciens / sholde been vnderstanden in this wise [2479] for good & wickednesse / been two contraries and pees and werre / vengeance and suffraunce / discord and accord and many othere thynges ll. [2480] But certes / wickednesse / shal be warished by goodnesse / discord by accord / and herre by pees / and so forth of othere thynges [2481] And her to accordeth Saint Paul the Apostle / in many places [2482] ¶ He seith No yeldeth nat harm for harm / ne wikked speche / for wikked speche / [2483] But do wel / to hym þat dooth thee harm / and blesse hym þat seith to thee harm [2484] ¶ And in manye othere places he amonesteth pees and accord [2485] ¶ But now wol I speke to yow / of the conseil / which þat was yuen to yow / by the men of lawe / and the wise folk [2486] that seyden alle by oon accord / as yo han herd bifore [2487] ¶ That ouer alle thynges / yo sholde doon youre diligence to kepon youre persone / & to warnestore youre hous [2488] ¶ And seyden also that in this cas / yow oghten for to werken ful auyseyl and with greet deliberacion [2489] ¶ And sirs / as to the fyrste point / that toucheth to the kepynge of youre persone / [2490] yo shul vnderstande / that he þat hath werre shal etenmore / mekely and deuoutly / preyen bifore alle thynges / [2491] that thesre crist of his grete mercy wol

& doon hem wrong' [2472] & thanne haue I cured / a contrary by another

[2473] ¶ Lo / lo / quod dame Prudence / how lightly is every man enclynod / to his owene desir / and to his owene plesance ll. [2474] Certes quod she / the wordes of the Phisiciens / ne sholde nat han been vnderstanden / ir that wise ll. [2475] for certes wikkednesse / is nat contrarie to wikkednesse / ne vengeance / to vengeance / ne wrong' to wrong' but they been semblable ll. [2476] And therefore / o. vengeance is nat warished / by another vengeance / ne o. wrong' by another wrong' [2477] but euerich of hem encreaseth & aggreggeth oother [2478] ¶ But certes / the wordes of thise Phisiciens / sholde been vnderstode / in this wise ll. [2479] for good & wikkednesse / ben two contraries / and pees & werre / vengeance & suffraunce / discord & accord / and many othere thynges ll. [2480] But certes / wikkod / shal be warished by goodnesse / discord / by acord / werre / by pees / and so forth of othere thynges [2481] And her to / accordeth Seynt Paul the Apostle / in many places [2482] ¶ He seith / Ne yeldeth noht harm for harm / ne wikked speche / for wikked speche / [2483] but do wel / to hym þat dooth to thee harm / & blesse hym / þat seith to thee harm [2484] And in manye othere places / he amonesteth pees & accord [2485] ¶ But now wol I speke to yow / of the conseil / which þat was yuen to yow / by the men of lawe / & the wise folk [2486] þat seyden alle by oon accord / as yo han herd bifore ll. [2487] That ouer alle thynges / yo shal do youre diligence to kepe youre persone / & to warnestore youre hous / [2488] & seyden also / þat in this cas yo oghten for to werke / ful auyseyl / & with greet deliberacion [2489] ¶ And sirs / as to the fyrste point that toucheth / to the kepynge of youre persone / [2490] yo shul vnderstande / that he þat hath werre / shal eue more deuoutly & mekely / preyen / byforn alle thynges / [2491] þat thesre crist of his mercy / wol

& doon hem wrong // [2472] And thanne haue I cured on contrary by a-nothir [2473]

L O lo quod Dame Prudenens how lystely is every man enclyned to his owene desyr / & to his owene plesauce // [2474] Certis quod see the wordis of the phisiciens ne schuldyn not han been vnderstondyn in this wise // [2475] for certis wikkednesse is not contrary to wikkednesse / ne vengeance to vengeance / ne wrong to wrong / but [sont semblables] [2476] Et pour ce, vengeance par vengeance, ne injure par injure, n'est pas curé, [2477] mais euerich of hem encreaseth & morith othir // [2478] But certis the wordis of the phisiciens / schuldyn been vnderstondyn in this wise // [2479] for good & wikkednesse been two contrarys / & pees & werre / & vengeance & suffraunce / discord & accord / and manye othere thyngis // [2480] But certis wikkednesse may be waryschid by goodnesse discord / by acord / werre / by pees / & so forth of othere thyngis // [2481] And hecrete a-cordyth saynt Poule the apostelle in manye placis [2482] He seyth / Ne jildith noht harm for harm / ne wikkede speche for wikkede speche / [2483] but doth weel to hym that doth the harm / And blysse hym that seyth to the harm / [2484] & in manye othere placis he amonesteth pees & accord // [2485] But now weel I spokyn to yow of the conseil / that was zonyen to yow of the meen of lawe / and the wise folk [2486] that seydyn alle by on acord / as 3e han herd by-fore // [2487] That ouer alle thynges 3e schat den zoure diligence to kopyn zoure persone & to warnestore zoure hous // [2488] And seydyn also that in this cas 3e oghtyn for to weikyn ful a-uisely / & with greet delib[er]acion // [2489] And sere as to the fyrste point that touchith to the kepynge of youre persone / [2490] 3e schul vnderstonde that he that hath werre schal etenmore deuoutly & meekely preyen / before alle thynges [2491] that thesre cryst of his mercy / wele and don hem wronge [2472] and þenne haue I cured a contrary by anoþer

[2473] ¶ Lo lo quod dame prudence how lightly is every man enclined to his owne desir to his plessaunce [2474] ¶ Certes quod sche þo wordes of þe phisician ne schulde nouȝt þe vnderstande in þat wise [2475] ¶ for certis wikkednesse is nouȝt contrary to wikkednesse. ne vengeance is nouȝt contrary to vengeance ne wronge to wronge [mais sont semblables. [2476]

Et pour ce, vengeance par vengeance, ne injure par injure, n'est pas curé (Men. i. 206-7) [2477] But every of hem encreseþ and engregeþ oþer [2478] ¶ But certis þe wordes of þe phisician schullen ben vnderstande in þis wise [2479] ¶ for good and wikkednesse ben two contrarious ¶ And pees and warre vengeance and sufferaunce discord and accord and many oþer þinges [2480] ¶ But certis wikkednesse schal ben y-warisched by goodnesse. discord by accord. warre by pees and so forþ and oþer þinges [2481] ¶ And herto acordeþ seint Poule þe apostol and in many place [2482] He seiþ ¶ Ne ȝeldeþ nouȝt harme for harme ne wikked speche [pour maudri] [2483] But do wel to hem þat don þe harme and blesse hem þat seiþ to þe harme [2484] And many oþer places he amonesteþ pees and accord [2485] ¶ But now wol I speke of þe counsell which was y-gone vnto þou by men of lawe þe wise folk and olde folk [2486] þat sayden alle by on acorde as þe haue herde bifore [2487] ¶ That ouer alle þinges þe schullen don ȝoure diligence to kepe ȝoure persone and to warrestaure ȝoure hous [2488] ¶ And þat sayden also þat in þis cas þe ouȝten to wircchen ful avisiely and wiþ grete deliberacion [2489] ¶ And sir as to þe first point þat toucheþ vnto þe kepynge of ȝoure persone

[2490] þe schullen vnderstande þat he þat haþ werre schal enermore deuoutely and mekely preyen bifore alle þinges [2491] þat ihesu crist of his mercy wolle CORPUS (6-T. 222) (f. 12v, 22r, back) and done hem wronge [2472] and þan haue I cured con contrary by a noþer [2473] ¶ Lo lo quod dame Prudence. how lightly is every man enclined to his owne desire and to his awne plessaunce [2474] Certes quod sho. wordes of þe phisicians ne schold nauȝt haue bene vnderstanden in þis visio. [2475] for certis wikkednesse is nauȝt contrario to wikkednesse. ne vengeance to vengeance. ne wronge to wronge. but þei bene semblable [2476] and þerfor on vengeance is not warisched by anoþer vengeance. ne con wronge by a noþer wronge. [2477] but everych of hem encreseþ and augreþ and gregeþ oþer. [2478] But certis þe wordes of þe phisiciens schuld ben vnderstanden in þis wise. [2479] for goodnesse and wikkednesse ben two contraries and pees and werre and vengeance and suffraunce. discord and accorde and mony oþer þinges. [2480] But certis wikkednesse schal be warisched by goodnesse. discord by accord. warre by pees.

and so forþ of oþer þinges. [2481] And also to hem acordeþ [saint Pol] þe apostol in many places [2482] He seiþ. ne ȝeldeþ nouȝt harme for harme ne wikked speche for wikked speche. [2483] but doþ wel to hem þat don ȝou harme. and blesse hem þat sayn to þe harme [2484]

and in mony oþer places he amonesteþ pees and accorde. [2485] ¶ But now wil I speke to þou of þe counsaile which þat was ȝeuen to þou by þe men of lawe and þe wise folk [2486] þat seiden all by on acorde as þe han herde bifore. [2487] That ouer alle þinges þe schal do ȝoure diligence to kepe ȝoure persones and to warrestaure ȝoure hous [2488] and seiden also. þat in þis ȝe ouȝt forto wircchen ful wisely and hastily and wiþ grete deliberacion [2489] And sire as to þe first point þat toucheþ vn to þe kepynge of ȝour persone

[2490] þe schul vnderstande þat he þat haþ werre schal enermore deuoutely and mekely preien by-for alle þinges [2491] þat ihesu crist of his mercy. wolle
PETWORTH (6-T. 222) (f. 12v, 22r, back)

& done hem wronge! [2472] & þan haue .I. cured a contrary wiþ anoþer contrario

[2473] ¶ Lo lo quod dame Prudence. howe lightly is every man enclined to his owen desire & to his plessaunce. [2474] Certes quod sche þe wordes of þe phisiciens ne schold nauȝt þe vnderstande in þat wise. [2475] ¶ for certis wikkednesse is not contraria to wikkednesse. ne ve[n]g[er]aunce is nouȝt contrari to vengeance. ne wronge to wronge! [mais sont semblables] [2476]

Et pour ce, vengeance par vengeance, ne injure par injure n'est pas curé [2477] but every of hem encreseþ & gregeþ oþer [2478]

But certis þe wordes of phisiciens scholde be vnderstande in þis wise! [2479] for goodes & wikkednesse bene two contraries! & pees & werre. vengeance & suffraunce. discord & accord. & mony oþere þinges [2480] ¶ But certis wikkednesse schal be warisched to goodnesse. discord be accorde. warre. be pees. & so forþ & oþere þinges. [2481] ¶ And here to þe Apostel sein Poule in many place! [2482] He seiþe ne ȝeldeþ nouȝt harm for harme ne wikked speche. [pour maudri] [2483] Bot do welle to hem þat done þe harme. & blesse hem þat seiþ to þe harme. [2484]

¶ And in monye oþer places he amonesteþ pees & accorde [2485] ¶ Bot now wil .I. speke of þe counsell which was yȝeue to ȝowe be men of lawe þe wise folke & þe olde folke [2486] þat seiden al be one accorde as ȝe herde before. [2487] ¶ That ouer al þinges þe scholde do ȝoure diligence to kepe ȝoure persone & to warrestaue ȝoure hous [2488] ¶ And þei seiden also þat in þis cas ȝoure ouhten to wircchen ful avisielle & with grete deliberacione. [2489] ¶ And sir. as to þe first point þat toucheþ vn to þe kepynge of ȝoure persone [2490] ¶ þe schul vnderstande þat he þat haþe werre schal enermore deuoutely & mekely preyen before al þinges [2491] þat ihesu crist of his merci wil

lan hym in his proteccion / and been his souereyn helpyng
at his nede || [2492] flor certes / In this world ther is no wight that may be conselled no kept sufficiently with-outen the kopyng of our lord Ihesu crist [2493] ¶ To this sentence accordeth the prophete dauid / that seith || [2494]
¶ If god ne kepe the Citee / in ydel waketh he pat it kepeth [2495] ¶ Now sise / thanne shul ye committe / the kopyng of youre persone / to youre trewe freendes / that been approud and knowe / [2496] & of hem / shul ye axen helpe / youre persons for to kepe ¶ flor Caton seith ¶ If thou hast nede of helpe / axe it of thy freendes || [2497] flor ther nys
noon so good a Phisician / as thy trewe freend [2498]
¶ And after this / thanne shul ye kepe yow fro alle straunge folk / and fro lyeres / and haue alwey in suspect hire compaignye [2499] ¶ flor Piers Alfonso seith || No taak / no compaignye by the weye of a straunge man but if so be / þat thou haue knowe hym of a lenger tyme [2500]
¶ And if so be / that he be falle in-to thy compaignye / per-aunture withouten thyn assent / [2501] enquire thanne / as subtilly as thou mayst / of his conseruacion / & of his lyf
before / and feyne thy wey || seye that thou goost thider
as thou wolt nat go / [2502] and if he bereth a spere /
hoold thee on the right syde / and if he bere a swerd / hoold thee on his left syde . [2503] ¶ And after this / thanne / shul ye kepe yow wisely from alle swich manere peple as I haue seyd before / And hem and hir conseil eschewe [2504] ¶ And after this / thanne shul ye kepe yow in swich manere ¶ [2505] that for any presumption of youre strength / that ye no dispise nat no accounte nat the myght of youre Aduersarie / so litle / that ye lete / the kopyng of youre persone / for youre presumption / [2506] for euery wys man / dredeth his enemy [2507] ¶ And Salomon seith ¶ Woleful is he / that of alle hath drede || [2508] flor certes / he that thurgh the hardynesse of his herte / and thurgh the hardynesse of hym self / hath to gret presumption / hym shal yuel bytyle [2509] ¶ Thanne / ELLESMEERE (6-T. 223) (1 leaf 160)

han hym in his proteccion / & ben his souereyn helpyng
at his nede [2492] ¶ flor certes in this world / ther is no wight þat may be conselled no kept sufficiantly / with oute the kopyng of our lord Ihesu Crist [2493] ¶ To this sentence / accordeth the prophete Dauid / that seith / [2494]
¶ If god ne kepe Citee / in ydel / waketh he þat it kepeth [2495] ¶ Now syre / thanne shul ye / committe the kopyng of youre persone / to youre trewe freendes / þat been approud and yknowe / [2496] & of hem / shul ye axen help / youre persone for to kepe || flor Caton seith / If thou hast nede of helpe / axe it of thy freendes / [2497] for ther nys
noon so good a Phisician / as thy trewe freend [2498]
¶ And after this / thanne shul ye kepe yow / fro alle straunge folk / & fro lyeres / & haue alwey / in suspect hir compaignye [2499] ¶ flor Piers Alfonso seith / No taak no compaignye / by the wey / of a strange man / but if so be / þat thou haue knowe hym / of a lenger tyme / [2500] ¶ And if so be / þat he falle in-to thy compaignye / per-aunture / with-outen thyn assent . [2501] enquire abanue /
as subtilly as thou mayst / of his conseruacion / & of his lyf before / And feyne thy wey / Sey þat thou wolt go thider /
as thou wolt nat go / [2502] And if he bereth a spere /
hoold thee on the right syde / And if he bere a swerd / hoold thee on the left syde [2503] ¶ And after this / thanne shal ye kepe yow wisely / from all swich manere peple / as I haue seyd before / & hem & hir conseil eschewe [2504] ¶ And after this / thanne shal ye kepe yow
in swich manere ¶ [2505] that for any presumption of youre strength / þat ye no despise nat no attempte nat the myght of youre Aduersarie / so lile / þat ye lete / the
kopyng of youre persone / for youre presumption / [2506]
for euery wys man / dredeth his enemy [2507] And Salomon seith ¶ Woleful is he / þat of alle hath drede || [2508] flor certes he þat thurgh the hardynesse of his herte / & thurgh the hardynesse of hym self hath to gret presumption / hym shal yuel bytyle [2509] ¶ Thanne HENGWRT (6-T. 223) (1 leaf 214, back)

han hym in hisse proteccioun / & ben his souereyn helpyng at hisse needs / [2492] for certys in this world / there is no wyt that may been conseylid no kept sufficiantly / with-outen the keepyng of our lord Ihesu Crist / [2493]. To this contynence accordyth þ' prophete dauid / that seyth / [2494] ¶ If god ne kepe the cele . In idyl . waketh he that kepeth [2495] ¶ Now sere thanne schal 3e committe the keepyng of 3oure persone to 3oure trewe frendis that been approuyd & I-knowe / [2496] & of hem schul 3e axen helpe 3oure persone for to kepe ¶ flor catoun seyth / 3if thu hast nede of helpe: axe it of thyne frendis / [2497] flor there ne is noon so good a phisician as thyne trewe frend / [2498] ¶ And aftr this thanne schul 3e kepe 3ow from alle straunge folk and from lyeris / and haue alwey in suspekt / hire compaignye / [2499] flor pers Alfonso seyth Ne take no compaignye by the weye of a strāng man but 3if it be so that thou haue knowyn hym by a long tyme befor [2500] & 3if so be that he falle / in-to thyn compaignye per-aunture with-outyn thyn assent / [2501] enquire thanne as subtilly as thu mayst / of his conseruacion / & of his lyf be-fore / & feyne thyu weye / Sey that thou wolt go thedyr there that thou wilt not go / [2502] an 3if he beryth a spere / hold the on the ry3t syde / & 3if he bere a swerd / hold the on the left syde [2503] ¶ And aftr this thanne schal 3e kepe 3ow wisely from alle swèche manere peple / as I haue seyd be-fore / And hem & hire conseyl eschewe [2504] ¶ And aftr this thanne schal 3e kepyn 3ow in swich maner / [2505] that for any presumptioun of 3oure strunthe / that 3e no dispise / no attempte not the my3te of 3oure aduersarie / so lile that 3e lete the keepyng of 3oure persone / for 3oure presumptioun / [2506] for euery wise man dredyth his enemy / [2507] And salomon seyth / Waleful is he that of alle thynges hath drede || [2508] flor certys he that pour the hardynesse of his herto or thoru the hardynesse of hym-self / hath to gret presumptioun / hym schal euele bytyle / [2509] Thanne
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 223)

haue him in his protection and ben his souereyn helpynge at his neede [2492] ffor certes in þis world nys no wight þat may be counseled ne keppe sufficiently wjouten þe keepynge of oure lord ihesu crist [2493] To þis sentence accordþe þe prophete dauid þat seiþ. [2494] If god ne kepe þe cite in ydel wakeþ he þat it kepeþ [2495] ¶ Now sirs þenne schulle 3o quyte þe keepynge of 3oure persone to 3oure trewe frendes þat ben aproued and y-knowe [2496] and of hem schul 3o asken helpe 3oure persone for to kepe ¶ ffor Caton seiþ ¶ If þou hast neede of helpe: aske it of þin frendes [2497] For þer nys non so good a phisician as þin trewe friend [2498] and after þis þenne schulle 3o kepe 3ou from alle straunge folk and fro lycens And haue alway in suspects here compayne [2499] ¶ ffor pieres alphouns seiþ ¶ No take no compayne by þe waye of a straunge man. but 3if so be þat þow knowe him of a leuger tyme. [2500] And 3if so be þat he falle in to þin compayne peradventure wj-outen þin assent [2501] enquire þenne as subtilly as þou canst of his conuersacion and of his liff byfore and feyne þy wry soynge þou woldest go þider as þou woldest nougt go. [2502] and if he bereþ a spere holde þe on þe right syde of him. and if he bereþ a swerde holde þe on þe left syde of him. [2503] and þenne schal 3o kepe 3ou wialy fro alle such manere of people as I haue seyde þow here before and hem and here counsel eschewe. [2504] And after þis þenne schulle 3o kepe 3ou in such manere [2505] þat for any presumption of 3oure bodily strengþe þat 3o ne dispise nought ne accounte nougt þe might of 3oure aduersary so lyte þat 3o lete þe keepynge of 3oure persone for 3oure presumption. [2506] ffor every wysman dredeþ his enemy [2507] ¶ And Salomon seiþ wof ful is he þat of al hap drede [2508] ¶ ffor certes he þat þurgh hardynesse of his herte and þurgh þe hardynes of hym self hap so gret presumption him schal yuele betyde [2509] ¶ Themas haue hym in his protection and bene his souereyn helpynge at his neede. [2492] ffor cortos in þis world þer nys no wight þat may be counseiled or keppe sufficiently wjouten þe keepynge of oure lord ihesu crist. [2493] To þis sentence accordþe þe profete Dauid þat seiþ. [2494] 3if god ne kepe þe Cite in ydel wakeþ he þat it kepeþ. [2495] Now sirs þan shal 3o comitte [la garde] of 3oure persone to 3oure trewe frendes þat bene aproued and yknowe [2496] and of hom shal 3o asken helpe 3oure body for to kepe ffor caton seiþ ¶ 3if þou hast neede of helpe aske it of þi frendes [2497] ffor þer is non so good a phisician as þi trewe frende [2498] ¶ After þis þan shal 3o kepe 3ou from al straunge folk and fro lycens and haue alway in suspects here compayne. [2499] ¶ ffor Piers Alfons seiþ þus ne take no compayne by þe waye of a straunge man. but 3if so be þat þow knowe him of a leuger tyme. [2500] And 3if so be þat he falle to þi compayne peradventure wj-outen þine assent [2501] enquire þan as sotilly as ener þou maist of his conuersacion and of his liff byfore and feyne þi way. Say þow wolt goo þider as þou wilt not goo. [2502] and 3if he bere a spere holde þe on þe right side. And 3if he bere a swerde holde þe on þe left side [2503] and so after þis þan shal 3o kepe 3ou wisely from al such manere puple as I haue saide byfore and hem and her counselle eschewe. [2504] And þan after þis shal 3o kepe 3ou in such a manere [2505] þat for any presumption of 3oure strenght. þat 3o ne dispise nat þe myght of 3oure enemye and of 3our aduuarie. so lito þat 3o lete þe keepynge of 3oure persone for 3oure presumption. [2506] ffor enery wise man dredeþ his enemye. [2507] ¶ Salomon seiþ. wofeful is he þat of al hap drede. [2508] ffor certes he þat þorow hardynesse of his hert and þorow þe hardynesse of hym self hap to grete presumption him shal yuele betyde [2509] ¶ Than

haue him in protectione & bion his souereigne helpynge at his neede [2492] ffor certes in þis werld þere nys no wight þat mai be counseild ne keppe sufficiently wjouten þe keepynge of oure lord ihesu crist [2493] To þis sentence accordþe þe profet dauid þat seiþ. [2494] If god ne kepe þe Cite. in Idel wakeþ he þat it kepeþ [2495] ¶ Now sir þan schulle 3o quyte þe keepynge of 3oure persone to 3oure trewe frendes þat bene aproued & yknowe [2496] & of hem schol 3e axen helpe 3oure persone for to kepe ¶ For Caton seiþ if þou hast neede of helpe axe it of þi frendes. [2497] For þere is none so good a fescion as is þi trewe frende [2498] ¶ And after þis schal 3e kepe 3owe frome al strange folke & fro lycens And alweye haue in suspect here compayne [2499] ¶ For Piers Alphon seiþe Ne take no compayne þere were of a straunge man bot it so be þou haue knowe him of longer tyme [2500] And if it so be þat he fal into þi compaigne peradventure wj-outen þine assent [2501] enquire þan as sotilly as þou canste of his conuersacion & of his liff be-fore & feynynge þine weie seyng þou woldest go þeder as þou woldest not go [2502] If he bere a spere hold þe on þe right side of him. & if he bere a swerde holde on þe left side of him. [2503] & þan schal 3o kepe 3owe wislye fro al suche manere of puple as I haue seide þowe here be-fore. & hem & here counsel eschewe. [2504] And after þis þan schal 3e kepe 3owe in suche manere [2505] þat for any presumption of 3oure bodely strengþe þat 3e dispise nought ne accomptþe nougt þe might of 3oure aduersarie so lit þat 3e lete þe keepynge of 3oure persone for 3oure presumption. [2506] For every wiseman dredeþ his enemye [2507] ¶ And Salomon seiþe. wofull is he þat of al hap drede [2508] For certes he þat hap þorow hardynesse of his herte & þorow þe hardness of him self hap so grete presumption him schal yuel betyde [2509] ¶ And þan

shul ye enermooore countreywate emboussiementz & allo espialle [2510] ¶ for senec seith ¶ That the wise man / he dredeth harmes / [ . . . no guz] [2511] ne he no falleth in-to perils / that perils escheweth [2512] And al oe it so / pat it seme that thou art in siker place / yet shalwe alwey do thy diligenc in kepynge of thy persone [2513] ¶ this is to seyn Ne be nat negligent to kepe thy persone / nat only for thy gretteste enemys / but for thy leeste enemy [2514] [Cir seneca dit il appartient a homme bien enseigne qui [l] double son petit ennemy] [2515] ¶ Ouyde seith ¶ that the litel vesale / wol slee the grete boie / and the wilde hert [2516] ¶ And the book / seith ¶ A litel thorn / may prikke a gret kyng ful soore ¶ And an hound / wol holde the wilde boor [2517] ¶ But natheles / I sey nat thou shalt be coward / that thou doute / ther / wher as is no drede [2518] ¶ The book seith / that some folk. han gret lust to deceyue / but yet they dreden hem to be deceyued [2519] ¶ Yet shalwe drede / to be empoysoned /
 And kepe yow / from the compaignye of scormers [2520] ¶ for the book seith / with scormers make no compaignye /
 but fle hire wordes as venyn

[2521] ¶ Now as to the seconde point ¶ Where as youre wise counsellours conselled yow to warnestore youre hors with gret diligenc [2522] ¶ I. wolde fayn knowe / how that ye vnderstande / thilke wordes / and what is youre sentence [2523] Malibus answerde et seyde ¶ Cortes I vnderstande it in this wise ¶ That I shal warnestore myn hous / with toures / swiche as han Castelles / and othere manere edifices / & armure and Artelries / [2524] by whiche thynges / I may my persone and myn hous so kepen and defenden that myne enemys / shul been in drede / myn hous for to Approche

[2525] ¶ To this sentence / answerde anon Prudence ¶
 Warnestoryng quod she of heighe toures / & of gret edifices / [appartient aucunes fois à orgueil. [2526] Elm fait les tours et les grans edifices (Lo Mégnier, l. 209)] with gret shal ye enere in countreywate emboussementz & al espialle [2510] ¶ for Senek seith / pat the wise man pat dredeth harmes / escheweth harmes / [2511] ne he no falleth in-to perils / pat perils escheweth / [2512] And al be so / pat it some / pat thou art in siker place / yet

 shalwe alwey do thy diligenc in / kepynge of thy persone / [2513] this is to seyn / ne be nat negligent to kepe thy persone / nat only for thy gretteste enemys / but fro thy leeste enemy [2514] ¶ Senek seith ¶ A man pat is wel auyed / he dredeth his leste enemy ¶ [2515] Ouyde seith ¶ that the litel vesale / wol slee the grete Boie / &
 the wilde hert [2516] ¶ And the book seith / a litel thorn may prikke a kyng ful soore ¶ And an hound / wol
 holde the wilde boor ¶ [2517] But natheles / I sey nat thou shalt loe so coward / pat thou doute / ther / wher as is no drede ¶ [2518] The book seith / that som folk haue gret lust to deceyue / but yet they dreden hem / to be deceyued / [2519] yet shalwe drede / to be empoysoned /
 & kepe thes / from the compaignye of scormers / [2520]
 ¶ for the book seith / with Scormers / make no compaignye /
 but fle hire wordes / as venyn

[2521] ¶ Now as to the second point where as youre
 wise counsellours / conselled yow / to warnestore youre hors with gret diligenc / [2522] I wolde fayn knowe / how pat ye vnderstande thilke wordes / & what is youre sentence [2523] Malibus answerde et seyde ¶ Cortes I vnderstande it in this wise / that I shal warnestore myn hous /
 with toures / swiche as han Castelles / & othere manere edifices / & armure / & Artelries / [2524] by whiche thynges / I may my persone & myn hous / so kepen & defenden / pat myne enemys shul been in drede / myn
 hous for to approche

[2525] ¶ To this sentence / answerde anon Prudence ¶
 Warnestoryng quod she of heighe toures / & of gret edifices / [appartient aucune fois a orgueil [2526] Après len fait les tours et les edifices (MS Reg. 19 C xi, ff68, col. 2)] shal so enermooore counse wayte emboussementz / & espiall [2510] ¶ for Seneca seith / that the wise man that dredeth harmys / escheweth harmys / [2511] ne he ne fallth in-to perillys / that perills eschewyth / [2512] And al-be it so / that it seeme that thou art in sekry place / zit schalt thou alwey doon diligenc in kepynge of thyn persone / [2513] this is to seyn ne be nat negligent to kepen thy persone / not only for thyne gretteste enemys / but from thyne leste enemy / [2514] Seneca seith / a man / that is wel auyed / he dredyth his leste enemy ¶ [2515] Ouyde seith / that the litelle veselle / wels sle the grete boie & the wilde hert ¶ [2516] And the book seith that the tylth thorn may pryke a kyng wol sore / & an hound welle holde the wyld boon / [2517] But natheles I sey nat that thou schalt been so coward that thou doute there-as-is no drede / [2518] The book seith / that sum folk han gret lust / to dissyue / but zit they dredyn hem to be disseyuyd / [2519] zit schalt thou drede to be empoysonnyd / And kepe thes / from the compaignye of skormors / [2520] for the book seith / with skormers make no compaignye / but fle hire wordys as venyn

[2521] Now as to the secundo point / where-as youre wise counsellours / conseylede yow to warnestore / your hors with gret diligenc / [2522] I wolde knowe how that so vnderstande / thilke wordis / and what is youre sentence [2523]

Melibus answerde et seyde / cortis I vnderstande it in this wyse / That I schal warnestore myn hous / with toures / swiche as han castelz & othere manere edifices & armure and arteleries / [2524] by whiche thyngis I may myn persone & myn hous so kepyne & defendyn / that myne enemys schal been in drede myn hous for to aprouche [2525]

To this sentence answerde anon Prudence ¶ warnestoryng is quod sche of heyo toures / & of gret edifices / [appertaining aucune fois a orgueil [2526] apres on fait les tours et les grans edifices (MS Reg. 19 C vii, ff 183, bk)]

¶ Seneca

¶ Ouyde [2515 Reg. 19 C
vii. last 215.]

¶ Malibus

¶ Prudence

schuln þu euermore encountrewaite enbuschementz and alle espaylle. [2510] ffor as seiþ þu wise man [ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ] [2511] he no falleþ in no periles þat periles eschewep [2512] ¶ And al be it so þat þu seme þat þou be in secre place zet schalt þou alwey don diligence in the kepynge of þi persone [2513] þis is to say. No be nouyt negligēt to kepe þi persone nouht only fro þin grettest enemy. but only fro þin leste enemy [2514] Senek seiþ a man þat is wel auyshed ho dredeþ his leste enemy [2515] Ovide seiþ þat þe lytel wesel wol sle þe grete boke and þe wilde hert [2516] And þe prouerbe seiþ þat a luytel þorne may greuce a kinge ful sore ¶ And a litel hounde wol holde þe wilde bore [2517] ¶ But napoles I say nouht þou schalt be so cward þat þou doute wher as is no drede [2518] ¶ The boke seiþ that some men hane gret lust to deceyue but ȝif þey drede to be deceuyed [2519] [ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ]
 And kepe þe fro þe company of Scorners [2520] ¶ ffor þe boke seiþ þat scorners ne makeþ no companie but flec here word as venyua

[2521] ¶ Now as to þe secunde poynt wher as ȝoure wise counsellours counselled ȝou to warnstore ȝoure houses wip gret diligence [2522] ¶ I wolde fayn knowe how þat þe vnderstande þilke wordes and what is ȝoure sentence .
 [2523] Mellobus answerde and sayde Certes I vnderstande in þis wise þat I schal warnstore myn hous wip toures suche as hane castelles and oper maner of edifices & armure and archers [2524] between which þingz if I may my persone and myn hous so kepe and defende þat myn enemys schal be in drede myn
 hous for to approche .

[2525] To þis sentence answerde anon prudens warnyscheing quod sche of heilhe toures and of heilhe edifices apparteyneþ somtyme to pryde [2526] And oek men make heilhe toures [et les grans edifices a grant travail et a grans shal þe euermore countrewaite enbuschmentys and al espaylle. [2510] ffor Senek seiþ þat þe wise man þat dredeþ harmes eschewep harmes. [2511] ho no falleþ not into periles þat periles eschewep [2512] ¶ And al be it so þat it seme þat þou art in siker place ȝif shallowe alway doo þi diligence in kepynge of þi persone .

 [2513] þis is to sayn be nouyt negligēt to kepe þi persone not conly from þi grettest enemyes; but fro þi leest enemyes. [2514] Senek seiþ. A man þat is wel auyshed ho dredeþ his leest enemy [2515] Ovide. seiþ .
 þat þe litel wesel wil sle þe grete Owle and þe wilde hert [2516] And þe boke seiþ: A litel þorne may prik a kinge ful sore. And an hounde wil holde þe wilde bore. [2517] But napoles I say. ¶ not þou schalt be so mochi cward þat þou doute þer as it is no drede [2518] ¶ The boke seiþ / þat some folke han grete lust to deceyue. but ȝif þei drede hem to be deceuyed. [2519] ȝif schalt þou drede to be empoyssed and kepe þe from þe company of scorners [2520] ¶ ffor þe booke seiþ: Wip scorners make no companie .
 but flec hem and her wordes as venyua

[2521] Now as to þe secunde poynt wher as ȝoure wise counsellours counselled ȝou to warnstore ȝoure hous wip gret diligence. [2522] I wold fayn knowe how þat þe vnderstanden þilke wordes and what is ȝoure Sentence .
 [2523] Mellobus Answerd and saido. Certes I vnderstande it in þis wise þat I schal warnstore myn hous wip toures such as hane castels and oper manere edifices and armure and arcelries [2524] by such þingges as I may my persone and my hous kepe and defende. þat myn enemys schal be in drede myn hous to approche .

[2525] To þis sentence anon answerd Dame Prudens ¶ Warnstoringe quod she of hegh toures and grete edifices appartaineth somtyme to pryde [2526] Men make toures and great edifices [with grete schal þe euer more encounterwaite en-buschementez and al

 espaylle [2510] ¶ ffor as seiþ þu wiseman .
 [ . . . . . no gap. ] [2511] ho no falleþ in no perile þat perilousnes eschewep [2512] ¶ And al be it so þat þu seme þat þou be in secreto place ȝif schalt þou alweie doo þi diligence in þe kepynges of þi person: [2513] þis is to seio be nouht negligēt to kepe þi person Nouht conly fro þi grettest enemye bet only fro þi leste enemye. [2514] Senek. seiþo . A man þat is wele a-uyshed he dredeþ his leest enemye: [2515] Ovide .
 seiþ . þat þe litel wesel wil sle þe grete butt & þe wilde hert. [2516] And þe prouerbe seiþe a litel þorne mai greuce a kinge ful sore & a litel hunde wil holde þe wilde bore [2517] bot napolesse .I. seio nouht þou schal nouht be so grete a cward þat þou doute wher as is no drede [2518] ¶ The boke seiþe: þat somme men hane grete lust to deceyue: . Bot þei drede to be deceuyed: [2519] [Après, tu to dois garder de venir]
 And kepe þe fro þe company of scorners: [2520] þe boke seiþe þat scorners makeþ no companie .
 bot fle here word as venyua .

[2521] ¶ Nowe as to þe secunde point. þer as ȝoure counsellours counsel ȝou to warnstour ȝoure houses wip gret diligence. // [2522] I. wold feyn knowe how þat ȝe vnderstande þilke wordes & what is ȝoure sentence [2523] ¶ Mellobus answerde & seide: certes .I. vnderstande in þis wise þat .I. schal warnstore myne house wip toures suche as hape casteles & oper manere edifices & armour & archers [2524] bo welche þingz. If .I. maie my person & my hors so kepe . & defende þat myne enemys schal be in drede my hous to aproche

[2525] ¶ To þis sentence answerd a none damed Prudens warnyscheing quod scho of heilhe toures & of heilhe edifices appartained some time to pride: [2526] And eke men make hille toures. [et les edifices a grant travail et a grans coetages and with greet traunlle / and when that they been accomplished / yet be they nat worth a stree / but if they be defended by trowe freendes that been / olde and wise [2537]

¶ Note / of the strongeste garnyson that may be.

¶ And vnderstood wel / that the gretteste and strongeste garnyson / that a riche man may haue / as wel to kepen his persone as hise goodis: is / [2528] þat he be biloued / amonges hys subgetz and with hise neighbores [2529] ¶ For thus seith Tullius ¶ That ther is a manere garnyson / that no man may vanquysse ne discomfite / and that is / [2530] a lord to be biloued of hise Citeizens / and of his peple

[2531] ¶ Now sirs / as to the thridde point. where as youre olde / and wise consailours seyden ¶ That yow no oghte nat soodeynly / ne hastily / proceden in this node / [2532] but that yow oghte purueyen and apparailen yow in this cas with greet diligence and greet deliberacion [2533] ¶ trowely / I trowe that they seyden right wisely and right sooth [2534] ¶ for Tullius seith / In euery node / er thou bigynne it / Apparaille thee with greet diligence [2535] ¶ Thanne seye I / that in vengeance takynge / in werre / in bataille / and in warnestoryng [2536] er thou bigynne / I rede / þat thou apparaille thee ther-to / and do it with greet deliberacion: [2537] ¶ for

¶ Tullius

Tullius seith ¶ The longe apparailynge bifore the bataille / maketh short victorie ¶. [2538] And Cassidorus seith ¶ The garnyson is stronger / when it is longe tyme anoyd [2539] But now lat vs speken / of the conseil that was accorded by youre neighbores / swiche as doon yow renuerce withouten loue / [2540] youre olde enemyes reconciled / youre flaterers / [2541] that consaileden yow certeyn thynges pryncely / and openly / consaileden yow the contrarie [2542] ¶ The yonge folk also / that consaileden yow to venge yow / and make werre anon [2543] ¶ And certis sirs / as I haue seyd bifore / ye han greetly erred / to han clepid / swich manere folk to youre conseil / [2544] which consailours been ynogh / repayed by the resonis aforesayd / [2545] but natheles / lat vs now descende to

¶ Tullius

¶ Cassidorus

with grete coetages / & with gret traunlle / and when þat they been accomplished / yet be they nat worth a stree / but if they been defended / by trowe freendes / that been olde / and wise [2527] ¶ And vnderstonde wel / þat the gretteste / and the strongeste garnyson / þat ryche man may haue / as wel / to kepen his persone / as his goodis: is [2528] þat he be biloued with his subgetz and with his neighbores [2529] ¶ For thus seith Tullius / that ther is a manere garnyson / þat no man may vanquysse ne discomfite / and þat 'is / [2530] a lord / to be biloued / of his Citeizens / and of his peple

[2531] ¶ Now sirs / as to the .iiijth point wher as youre olde and wise consailours / seiden / þat yow no oghte nat soodeynly / ne hastily / proceden in this node / [2532] but þat yow oghte purueien and apparailen yow in this cas / with greet diligence and greet deliberacion: [2533] trowely / I trowe þat they seyden right wisely / and right sooth [2534] ¶ for Tullius seith ¶ In euery node / er thou bigynne it apparaille thee / with greet diligence ¶ [2535] thanne seye I / þat in vengeance takynge / in werre / in bataille / and in warnestoryng / [2536] er thou bigynne / I rede þat thou apparaille thee ther-to / and do it with greet deliberacion [2537] ¶ for

Tullius seith / that long apparailynge bifore the bataille / maketh short victorie ¶ [2538] And Cassidorus seith / the garneson is stronger / when it is longe tyme anoyd [2539] ¶ But now lat vs speke of the conseil þat was accorded by youre neighbores swiche as doon yow renuerce / with-outen loue / [2540] youre olde enemyes reconciled / youre flaterers / [2541] þat consaileden yow certeyn thynges pryncely / and openly consaileden yow the contrarie ¶ [2542] The yonge folk also / þat consaileden yow / to venge yow / and make werre anon: [2543] And certis sirs / as I haue seyd bifore / ye han greetly erred / to han clepid swich maner folk / to youre conseil / [2544] which consailours been ynogh / repayed by the resonis foresayd / [2545] but natheles / lat vs now descende to [2539] ¶ But now lat vs speke of the conseil þat was accorded by youre neighbores swiche as doon yow renuerce / with-outen loue / [2540] youre olde enemyes reconciled / youre flaterers / [2541] þat consaileden yow certeyn thynges pryncely / and openly consaileden yow the contrarie ¶ [2542] The yonge folk also / þat consaileden yow / to venge yow / and make werre anon: [2543] And certis sirs / as I haue seyd bifore / ye han greetly erred / to han clepid swich maner folk / to youre conseil / [2544] which consailours been ynogh / repayed by the resonis foresayd / [2545] but natheles / lat vs now descende to

with greete coetages / & with greete traunlle / And when that they been accomplished / þit be they not worth a stro but if they been defendid by trowe freндыs that been olde & wyse [2527] And vnderstonde weel that the gretteste & the strengeste garnyson that a ryche man may han / as weel to kepyn his persone 'as hese goodis / is [2528] þat he be belouyd with hys subiectis. And with hys neighbores / [2529] for thus seyth tullius that there is a manere garnyson / that no man may vanquyshe / Ne discomfite / & that is [2530] a lord to be belouyd / of hise citsayns & of his peple [2531]

NOW sece as to the thredde point wher-as / yourre olde & wise conseylouris / seyden that þow no ouytyn / not soodeynly ne not-to hastily procedyn in this neede / [2532] But that þow ouytyn purueyen / & apparailyn þow / in this cas / with greet diligencce / & greet delyberacion / [2533] trowely / I trowe that they seyden / ryzt wiscly & ryzt soth / [2534] for tullius seyth in euery neede / er thou bigynne it / apparaille the with greet diligencce / [2535] Thanne seye I that in vengeance takynge in werre / in batayle / & in warnestoryng / [2536] er thou bogynne I rede / that thou apparaille the not therto & do it with greet dyiligence & greet deliberacion // [2537] for Thullius seyth that longe apparailynge / by-for / þatayle / makyt schort victorye [2538] ¶ And Cassidorus seyth The garneson is stronger when it is longe tyme anoyd

BUT now lat vs spekyng of the conseil / that was accordit be yourre neighbores / Swiche as doon þow renuerce with-outyn loue / [2540] yourre olde enemyis reconcyled / yourre flatereris [2541] that consayledyn þow certeyn thyngis pryncely / & openly consayledyn þow / the contrarye / [2542] The yonge folk also that consaylede þow / to venge þow & make werre a-noon [2543] And certis sece as I haue seyd be-for: þe han greetly erred / to han clepid / swich manere folk to yourre conseil [2544] which consaylers / been I-nough reprouyd / be the resonys a-fore-seyd / [2545] but natheles lat vs now descende to

despens, et quant elles sont faites, elles ne valent riens se elles ne sont defendues par saiges et par bons amis loyaux, et à grans missions (La Mégère, i. 209) [2527]

¶ And vnderstande wel þat þe grettest and þe strengest garnyson þat riche man may haue / as wel to kepen his persone and his goodes is [2528] þat he [be] beloved wip his subiectes and wip his neihbours [2529] ¶ for þus seiþ Tullius That þer is a maner garnyson þat no man may venquyschen no discomfite and þat is [2530] a lord to be loued of his citeizens and of his people

[2531] ¶ Now sirs as to þe þridde poynt wher as youre olde and wise counsaillours seiden ¶ þat you ne oughte nouȝt sodainly ne hastily proceden in þis node [2532] But þat þe oughten purveyen and apparayle you in þis caas wip gret diligence and with gret deliberacion [2533] ¶ Trewely I trowe þat þe seiden riȝt wisly and riȝt soþ [2534] ¶ for Tullius seiþ In euery nece or þou begynne it apparayle þe wip gret diligence. [2535] þenne seiþ I þat in vengeance takynge in werre in <sup>2</sup> bataille and in warrestoringe [2536] or þou bygynne ¶ I rede þat þou apparayle þe þer to ¶ And do it wip gret deliberacion [2537] ¶ for Tullius seiþ. þat lange apparaylinge bifore þu bataile makeþ sehort victorie [2538] ¶ And Cassidorus seiþ þe garnyson is stronger when it is longe tyme advised

[2539] But now late vs speke of þe counsaill þat was accorded by oure neihbours suche as don you renuerce wipouten loue [2540] youre olde enemyes reconciled. youre flaterers [2541] þat counsailliden you certeyn þinges priuely and openly counsailliden you þe contrarie [2542] ¶ The þonge folk also þat counsailliden you to venge you and to maken werre anon. [2543] ¶ And certes sirs as I haue sayde byforþ: þe haue gretly y-erred to han y-cleped suche maner of folk to youre counsaill [2544] ¶ Which counsaillours / þen ynougþe reprinted by þe reasons aforne sayde [2545] ¶ But napeles late vs now descende to

costages and wip grete trauaille. and when þat þei be accomplid. ȝif bene þei nat' worþ a stree. but ȝif þei ben defendid by trowe frendes þat bene olde and wise. [2527]

¶ And vnderstande wel þat þe strengest and þe grettest garnison þat þe riche man may haue as wel to kepe his persone as his goodes. is [2528] þat he be beloved wip his subiectys. and wip his neihbours [2529] for þus seiþ Tullius That þer is a maner garnison þat no man may venquysch ne discomfite. And þat is [2530] a lord to be beloved wip his Citeizens and of his people

[2531] Now sirs as to þe ij. poynt wher as youre olde and wise counsaillours. seiden þat þowe ne aȝt' not' sodeynly ne hastily proceden in þis node. [2532] but þat þou aȝt' purvein and apparailen you in þis caas wip grete diligence and grete deliberacion. [2533] trewely I trowe þat þei seiden riȝt wisly and riȝt soþe. [2534] for Tullius seiþ ¶ In euery nece or þou bygynne it apparaille þe wip grete diligence [2535] Than seiþ I þat in vengeance takinge in werre in bataile and in warrestoringe. [2536] or þan þou bygynne. I rede þat þou apparaille þe þerte. and do it wip grete deliberacion. [2537] for Tullius seiþ: ¶ That longe apparaylinge to-forþ þu bataile makeþ shorte victorie. [2538] And so Cassidorus seiþ. ¶ The garnison is stronger when it is longe tyme advised.

[2539] But now late vs speke more of þe counsaill. þat was accorded by youre neihbours which as don you renuerce wip-outen loue [2540] youre olde enemyes reconciled. youre flaterers [2541] þat counsailliden you certeyn þinges priuely. and openly counsailliden you þe contrarie [2542] ¶ The þonge folk also þat counsailliden you to venge you / and make werre anon [2543] ¶ And certes sirs as I haue sayde byforþ þe haue gretly erred to han cleped such manere of folke to youre counsaill. [2544] which counsaillours bene now reprinted. by þe reasons to-forþe seide. [2545] But napeles late vs now descende to

despens / Et quant elles sont faites elles ne valent rien se elles ne sont defendues par saiges et par loyaux amis & grans missions (MS Reg. 19 C xi, leaf 68, col. 2) [2527]

¶ And vnderstand welo þat þe grettest & þe strangest garnison þat a riche man maie haue. <sup>1</sup>As welo to kopen his person & his goodes is [2528] þat he be beloved wip his subiectes & wip his neihbours // [2529] for þus seiþ Tullius: That þere is a maner Garnyson þat man maie venquyschen ne discomfite And þat is [2530] a lord to be loued of his Citeizenes And of his people

[2531] ¶ Nowe sirs as to þe þrd poynte: Wher as youre olde & wise counsaillours seiden: þat þow nought not sodenly ne hastily proceden in þis node: [2532] Bot þat þowe ouhten purveye & apparell þowe in þis caas: wip grete diligence & grete deliberacion: [2533] Trewely. I. trowe þat þei seiden riȝt wisly & riȝt soþe! [2534] ¶ for. Tullius: seiþ: In euery nece or þou be-ginne it: apparell þe wip grete diligence. [2535] Than seiþ I. þat in vengeance takinge in werre. in Bataile & in warrestoringe. [2536] or þou be-ginne. I. redeþ þat þou apparaille þe þere to! and do it wip gode deliberacion [2537] ¶ for Tullius seiþe: þe longe apparailinge beforen þe Bataile Makeþ sehort victorie. [2538] And Cassidorus seiþ: The garnyson is stronger when it is longe tyme advised.

[2539] ¶ But now late vs speke of þe counsaill þat was accorded by oure neihbours suche as done þowe renuerce wip-outen loue [2540] youre olde enemyes reconciled: ¶ Your flaterers [2541] þat counsailliden you certeyn þinges priuely! & openly counsailliden you þe contrarie! [2542] ¶ The þonge folke also þat counsailliden you to do vengeance and to make werre anon! [2543] ¶ And certe sirs as I. haue seide be-forne þe haue gretly erred. to haue cleped suche manere of folke to youre counsaill! [2544] wiche counsaillours huone ynouthe reprinted be þe reasons a-forne seide [2545] ¶ Bot napeles late vs now descende to

¶ Tullius

¶ Tullius.

¶ Tullius.

¶ Cassidorus

the special ¶ Ye shuln first procede / after the doctrine of Tullius [2546] ¶ Certes / the trouthe of this matiere / or of this conseil / nedeth nat diligently enquire / [2547] for it is wel wist whiche they been / that han doon to yow this trespas and vileynye / [2548] and how manye trespassours / and in what manere they han to yow doon / al this wrong / and all this vileynye [2549] ¶ And after this thanne / shul ye examyne the seconde condicion / which that the same Tullius / addeth in this matere [2550] ¶ For Tullius put a thyng / which that he clepeth consentynge / this is to seyn ¶ [2551] who been they and how manye / [2549] ¶ And certis / as to the firste poynt / It is wel knowen / whiche folk been they / that consentedn / to youre hastif wilfulnesse / to doon hastif vengeance [2552] ¶ And lat vs considere also who been they and how manye been they / and whiche been they / that consentedn to youre Adversaries [2553] ¶ And certis / as to the firste poynt / It is wel knowen / whiche folk been they / that consentedn / to youre hastif wilfulnesse / [2554] for trowely / alle tho that consentedn yow / to maken sodeyn werre / ne been nat youre frendes [2555] ¶ Lat vs now considere / whiche been they / that ye holde so greetly youre frendes as to youre persons ¶ [2556] For al be it so / that ye be myghty and ryche / certes / ye ne been nat but allone / [2557] for certes / ye ne han no child but a doghter / [2558] no ye ne han bretheren ne cosyns / germayns / no noon ooper neygh kynrede / [2559] wherefore that youe enemys / for drede sholde stynte / to ploed with yow / or to destroye youre persons [2560] ¶ Ye knowen also that youre richesces / moeten been dispendid / in diuerser parties / [2561] and when þat euery wight hath his part / they ne wollen take but litel reward / to venge thei deeth ¶ [2562] But thynne enemys / been iij / and they han manye children / bretheren / cosyns / and oother ny kynrede / [2563] And though so were / that how haddest slayn of hem .ij / or .iij / yet dwellen they ynowe / to wrecen hir deeth / and to sle thy persone ¶ [2564] And though so be that youre kynrede be moore siker and stedefast / than the special ¶ Ye shuln first proceden after the doctrine of Tullius ¶ [2546] Certes / the trouthe of this matere / or of this conseil / nedeth nat / diligently enquire / [2547] for it is wel wist whiche they been / that han doon to yow / this trespas and vileynye / [2548] and how manye trespassours / and in what manere they han to yow doon / al this wrong / and all this vileynye [2549] ¶ And after this / thanne shulle ye examyne the .ij / condicion / which þat the same Tullius addeth in this matere / [2550] for Tullius put a thyng / which þat he clepeth consentynge / this is to seyn / [2551] who been they and whiche been they / and how manye þat consenten to thy conseil in thy wilfulnesse / to do hastif vengeance / [2552] And lat vs considere also / who been they and how manye been they / and whiche been they / þat consenteden / to youre Adversaries [2553] ¶ And certis / as to the firste poynt / it is wel knowen whiche folk been they / þat consenteden / to youre hastif wilfulnesse / [2554] for trowely alle tho / þat consenteden yow / to maken sodeyn werre / ne been nat youre frendes ¶ [2555] Lat vs now considere whiche been they þat ye holde so greetly youre frendes / as to youre persons / [2556] For al be it so / þat ye be myghty and ryche / certes / ye ne been / but / allone / [2557] for certes / ye ne han no child but a doghter / [2558] no ye ne han bretheren / ne cosyns / germayns / no noon oother ny kynrede / [2559] wherefore / þat youre enemys / for drede sholden stynte / to ploed with yow / or destroye youre persons [2560] ¶ Ye knowe also / þat youre richesces / moten be dispendid in diuerser parties / [2561] and when þat euery wight hath his part / they ne wollen take but litel reward / to venge thy deeth ¶ [2562] But thynne enemys / been iij / and they han manye children / bretheren / cosyns / and oother ny kynrede / [2563] and though so were / / how haddest slayn of hem .ij / or .iij / yet dwellen they ynowe / to wrecen hir deeth / and to sle thy persone ¶ [2564] and though so be / þat youre kynrede be moore sykter and stedefast / than the special ¶ / so schul fyrst procedyn / aftyr the doctrine / of tullius / [2546] Certis the trouthe of this matire / or of this consail / nedith nat diligently enquire [2547] for it is weel wist whiche they been that han don to yow this trespas / and vilenye / [2548] and how manye trespassours / and in what manere they han doon to yow al this wrong & al this vilenye // [2549] And aftyr this 3o schulun examyne al the seconde condicions / which þat the same thullius addyth in this matere / [2550] for tullius put a thyng whiche that he clepith consentynge / This is to seyne / [2551] who been they / & whiche been they / and how manye been they / & whiche been thei that consentedyn to youre adversaries / [2552] [et considérons ceux qui sont ceulz, et quans, qui se consentent à des adversaires. (La Mén. i. 211.)] [2553] And certis as to the fyrste poynt / it is weel knowyn whiche folk been they / that consentedyn to youre hastif wilfulnesse / [2554] for trowely alle tho that consentede yow to makyn sodeyn werre / ne been not youre frendis ¶ [2555] lat vs now considere [qui tu es et] whiche been they that 3o holdyn youre frendis / as to youre persons [2556] For al be it so / that 3o been myghty & ryche / Certis 3o ne been but allone / [2557] for certis 3o ne han no child but a dooghter / [2558] no 3o ne han breteren ne cosyns / germayns / no noon oother nygh kenrede [2559] wherefore that youe enemys / for drede schulde stynte to ploed / with 3ow or distroye 3oure persons / [2560] 3o knowyn also that 3oure rychesse mote been dispendid in dyverse parties / [2561] and when that euery wigh hath his part / they ne wole take but litel reward to vengyn thyn deeth // [2562] But thynne enemys been thei and they han manye childoryn / brothern / cosyns & othere nygh kenrede / [2563] and thow so were / thow hadyest slayn of hem two or thre / yet dwellyn þere I-nowe to wrokyen here deeth / & to sle thyn persone / [2564] & thow so be that 3oure kynrede / be moore sykter & stedfast / than þe special 3e schulin først proceden after þe doctrine of Tullius [2546] ¶ Certes the troupe of þis matier eijþer of þis counsell nedep not diligently enqueren [2547] for it is wel wiste which þey ben þat donn 3ou þis trespas & vilanye [2548] and how many trespassours and in what manere þey han donn to 3ou al þis wronge ald alle þis vilanye [2549] ¶ And after þis jaans schullen 3e examine 3e secounde condicijon þe which þat Tullius addeth in þis matiere [2550] ¶ ffor Tullius putteth a jing' which þat he clepeth consentynge þis is to say [2551] who ben þay and which ben þay and how many þat consenten to þin counsell in þi wilfulnesse to donn hasty vengeance [2552] ¶ And let vs consider also who ben þay and how many ben þay [ . . . . . no gap] þat consenten to 3oure aduersaries [2553] And certes as to þe firste point ¶ hit is wel knownen which ben þay þat consenten to oure hasty wilfulnesse [2554] ¶ ffor trowely alle þo þat counselen 3ou to maken sodeyn werre ne ben nougt 3oure frendes [2555] ¶ let vs now which ben þay þat 3e holden

 * so gretly 3oure frendes as to 3oure persone [2556] ¶ ffor al be it so þat 3e ben mighty and rich: certes 3e ben but allone [2557] ¶ ffor certes 3e ne han no childre but a daughter [2558] ne 3e han no breþeren ne cosyns germainys ne non oþer neih kynrede [2559] ¶ Wherefore 3oure enemy scholden stinte to plede wiþ 3ou ne to destruye 3oure persone. [2560] 3e knowen also þat 3oure richesse moov ben dispendid in diuers parties [2561] & when þat euery wight hap his parte: þey woln take but litel rewarde to vengen þr deb [2562] ¶ But þin enemys ben þre and þey haue many children breþeren cosyns and oþer neih kynrede [2563] ¶ And þough so were þat þou haddest slayn of hem 4wo oþer. iij. 3ou dwellen þere ynowe to awreken here deb and to slen þin persone [2564] ¶ And þou so be þat 3oure kynrede be more siker and stedfast þan

þe speciall. ¶ 3e schullen først proceden after þe doctrine of Tullius [2546] ¶ Certes þo troupe of þis or þis counsaile nedep nat diligently enquere. [2547] for it is wel wist' which þei bene þat done to 3ou þis trespase and vilanye [2548] and how many trespassours. and in what manere þei han to 3ou dono. All þis wronge and al þis vylanye [2549] And alsoþe þis jan schal 3e examyne þe ij. condicions which þat þe same Tullius addeth in þis matere. [2550] ffor Tullius putt' to a jingo. þe which he clepeth consentynge. þis is to sayn [2551] ¶ Who ben þei and which bene þei. and how mony. þat consenten to þi counsaile in þi wilfulness to doo hastely ¶ vengeance. [2552] And lat vs consider also. Who bene þei and howe mony & which bene þei þat consenten to 3oure aduersaries. [2553] And certes as to þe 'first' point it is wel knownen which folk' bene þei þat consenten to 3oure hastif wilfulness. [2554] ffor trowly al þoo þat counsailden 3ou to make sodeyn werre ne bene nat 3oure frendes [2555] [Or vions donegas qui tu es et qui sont ceuz que tu tiens tant à ennemis] as to 3oure persone. [2556] ffor al be it so þat 3e bene myghty and riche. certes 3e bene but alloun. [2557] for certes 3e ne haue no childre but a daughter. [2558] ne 3e ne haue no breþeren ne Cosyns Germainys ne non oþer neih kynrede. / [2559] wherefore þat 3oure enemyes for drede shulden stent to plede with 3oue ne destruye 3oure persone [2560] ¶ 3e knowe also þat 3oure richesness mosten be delt in diuers parties. [2561] and when þat euery wight hap his parte þei ne wol not take but litel rewarde to venge þi detli. [2562] but þine enemyes bene þre. And þei han many children. breþeren Cosyns and oþer neih kynrede. [2563] And þough so were þow haddest slayn of hem two or þree. þit dwellen þer ynowe to wreke her detli. and to sle þi persone [2564] And þou so were þat 3oure kynrede were more siker and stedfast þan

þe speciale: ¶ 3e schollen first procede after þe doctrine of Tullius. [2546] Certes þe treupe of þis Matier eijþer of þis counsell nedep nougt diligently enquire. [2547] For it is wel wist' which þei bien: þat haue do 3ow þis trispas & velany: [2548] & howe many trespassours & in what manere þei haue done to 3oue al þis wronge & all þis velanye [2549] ¶ And after þis: þan schal 3e examyne þe secounde condicijon: þe which þat Tullius hadde in þis matiere. [2550] ¶ For tullius. putteth a jingo which att he clepeth consentynge: þis is to seie: [2551] ¶ Who ben þei & which ben þei & houm mony þat consenten to þi counsell in þi wilfulness to done hasti vengances: // [2552] And lat vs consider also who bien þei. & how mony bien þei [et queis (MS Reg. 19 C xi, ff 88, col. 4)] þat þat consenten to 3oure aduersaries [2553] ¶ And certes as to þe first pointe it is wel knownen which be þei þat consintne to 3oure hastif wilfulness: [2554] For trowly al þo þat counsel 3oue to maken sodein werre ne bien nougt 3oure frendes [2555] ¶ Lete se nowe which bien þei þat 3e holde so gretly 3oure frendes as to 3oure person. [2556] For al be it so þat 3e bene myhte & riche: certes 3e beut bot allone. [2557] ffor certes 3e haue no childre but a daughter: [2558] ne 3e haue no breþeren ne cosyns germainys ne none oþer nyhe kinred: [2559] where-for 3oure enemy scholden stint to pleto wiþ 3oue ne to destruyen 3oure person: [2560] ¶ 3e knowen also þat 3oure riches most be dispendid in diuers parties: [2561] And what þat euery wight hap his parte þei wolne tak litel rewarde to vengen þi deb [2562] ¶ Bot þine enemyys bien þre: & þei haue many childerne. breþern: cosyns: & oþere nyhe kinrede [2563] ¶ And þou so were þat þou haddest slaine of hem tuo or þre: þit dwellen þere ynowe to awreken here deb: & to sle þino persone [2564] & þei so be þat 3oure kinred be more sikere & stedfast þan

the kyn of youre aduersarie // [2565] yet natheles your kynrede / nya but a fer kynrede / they been / but litel syb to yow / [2566] and the kyn of youre onmys been ny syb to hem / And certes / as in that hir condicion / is bet than yours [2567] ¶ Thanne / lat vs considere also / if the consailinge of hem þat conselleden yow / to taken soedyn vengeance / whether it acorde to reson! [2568] And certes / ye knowes wrel nay // [2569] for as by right and reson / ther may no man taken vengeance on no wight / but the Iuge that hath the Iurisdiction of it [2570] when it is graunted hym / to take thilke vengeance hastily or attemptrely as the lawe requereth [2571] ¶ And yet more ouer / of thilke word / that Tullius clepeth consentynge / [2572] thou shalt considere / if thy myght and thy power may consente and suffice / to thy wilfulness / and to thy consailours [2573] And certes / thou mayest wel seyn /
 that nay [2574] ¶ For sikerly / as for to speke proprely /
 we may do no thyng / but ouly swich thyng / as we may doon rightfully : [2575] And certes rightfully no mowe ye take no vengeance / as of youre propre Autoritee [2576]
 thanne mowe ye seen / that youre power ne consenteth
 nat / ne accordeth nat with youre wilfulness [2577] ¶ Lat vs now examyne the thridde point that Tullius clepeth Consequent // [2578] ¶ Thou shalt vnderstande that the vengeance that thou purposeth for to take / is the consequent // [2579] And ther-of folweth another vengeance /
 perill / and werre / and othere damages with-oute nombre / of whiche / we be nat war / as at this tyme [2580] ¶ And as touchynge the fourthe point / that Tullius clepeth engendryng! [2581] thou shalt considere / that this wrong which that is doon to thes / is engendred / of the hate of thyne enemye / [2582] and of the vengeance takynge / vpon
 that wold engendre another vengeance / and muchel sorwe
 and wastynge of riches as I seyde

[2583] ¶ Now seir / as to the point that Tullius clepeth causes / which that is the laste point. [2584] thou the kyn of youre aduersarie // [2565] yet natheles / youre

 kynrede / nya but a fer kynrede / they been / but litel syb to yow / [2566] and the kyn of youre onmys / been ney syb
 to hem / and certes as in that hir condicion / is bet than yours [2567] ¶ Thanne / lat vs considere also / if the
 consailinge / of hem þat conselleden yow to taken soedyn
 vengeance / whether it acorde to reson! [2568] And certes / ye knowes wel nay! [2569] for as by right and reson / ther may no man take vengeance on no wight / but the Iuge þat hath the Iurisdiction of it [2570] when it is ygraunted hym to take thilke vengeance hastily / or attemptrely / as the lawe requereth [2571] ¶ And yet more
 ouer / of thilke word / that Tullius clepeth / consentynge / [2572] thou shalt considere / if thy myght and thy power
 may consente and suffice / to thy wilfulness and to thy consailours [2573] And certes / thou mayest wel seyn /
 that nay / [2574] for sikerly as for to speke proprely /
 we may do no thyng / but ouly swich thyng / as we may do rightfully / [2575] and certes / rightfully no mowe ye take no vengeance / as of youre propre autoritee / [2576]
 thanne mowe ye seen / that youre power ne consenteth
 nat / ne accordeth nat with youre wilfulness [2577] ¶ Lat vs now examyne the .iiij. point that Tullius clepeth Consequent // [2578] Thou shalt vnderstande / that the vengeance þat thou purposeth for to taken / is the consequent // [2579] and ther-of folweth another vengeance /
 perill / and werre / and othere damages with-oute nombre /
 of whiche / we be nat war / as at this tyme [2580] ¶ And as touchynge the .iiij. point that Tullius clepeth
 engendryng / [2581] thou shalt considere / that this wrong
 which that is doon to thes / is engendred / of the hate of
 thyne enemye / [2582] and of the vengeance takynge vpon
 that wold engendre another vengeance / and muchel sorwe
 and wastynge of riches / as I seyde

[2583] ¶ Now seir / as touchynge to the point that Tullius clepeth causes / which þat is the laste point. [2584] thou the konrede of youre aduersarye // [2565] þet natheles / youre kearede nys but a fer kynrede they been but litil sibbe to yow / [2566] and the kyn of youre onmys been nygh sibbe to hem / & certis as in þat heers condicioun is betere than is yours // [2567] Thanne lat vs considere also / if the consyngynge of hem that consyledyn / for to takyn soedyn vengeance / whether it accorded to reson or no / [2568] And certis so knowes wel nay / [2569] for as by ryght & reson / theree may no man takyn veniaunce on no wight but the Iuge that hath the Iuredixioun of it / [2570] whanne it is Igrauntid / to take thilke vengeance / hastily or attemptrely as the lawe requyrith / [2571] & þit more ouyr / of thilke word that Thallius clepith consentynge [2572] thou schalt considered þif thyn myght & thyn power / may consente & suffice / to thyn wilfulness / & to thynne consyloours [2573] and certis thou mayest wel seyn þat nay / [2574] for sekirly as for to spekyrn proprely .

 we may doon nothyng but only swich thyng as we may don it rihfully / [2575] & certis rihfully may so take no veniaunce / as of youre propre autorite [2576] thanne may so seen / that youre power ne consentith nat no acardith nat with youre wilfulness [2577] ¶ Lat vs now examyne the thredde point that / Thallius clepith consequent / [2578] Thou schalt vnderstonde / that the vengeance that thou purposeth for to take is the consequent // [2579] And therof folweth another vengeance / perill & werre & othere vengeance & damagis with-ouyr nombre / of whiche we be nat war as at this tyme // [2580] And as touchynge the / fourte point / That Thallius clepith engendryng / [2581] thou schalt considere that this wrong which that is doon to thes : is engendryd / of the hate of thyne enemyis / [2582] & of the vengeance takynge vpon that / wold engendere a-nothir / vengeance .
 And mecho sorwe / in wastynge of ryghossis as I seyde

[2583] ¶ Now seir as to the point that tullius
 clepeth causes / with that is the laste point / [2584] thou þe kyn of youre aduersary [2565] ¶ 3et neuer þe les youre kynrede is but after kynrede þey ben but liel sibbe to you [2566] ¶ And þe kyn of youre enemys ben neigl sibbe to hem ¶ And certes as in þat he condicion is better þen is yours [2567] ¶ þenne let vs consideren also of þe counsaillings of hem þat counselen you to taken sodeyn vengeance wherþe it accord to reson or non. [2568] and certes 3e knowen wel may. [2569] for as by right and reson þer may no man take vengeance of no wight ¶ But þe Iugge þat hæþ Iurisdiction of hit [2570] when it is granted him to take þilke vengeance hastily or attempelly as þe lawe requireþ [2571] ¶ And 3et more our of þilke wordes þat Tullius cleþþ consentynge [2572] þou schalt consente if þi mighte & þi power may consente and suffice to þi wilfulness and to þi counsellours [2573] ¶ And certes þou mayst wel say þat may [2574] ¶ for sikerly as for to spoken properly we may do no þing but onely such þing as we may don rightfully [2575] ¶ And certes rightfully no may 3e take no vengeance as of youre propre auctorite [2576] ¶ Then may 3e seen þat youre power ne consentþ nouȝt ne accordþ nouȝt with your wilfulness [2577] Now lete vs examyne þe þridde poynt þat Tullius cleþþ consequent [2578] Thou schalt vnderstanden þat þe vengeance þat þou purporet for to take is consequent [2579] And þerfore falleþ anoþer vengeance. Peril. and werre and oþre damages wítiquetes nombre of whiche we ben nouȝt warre as at þis tyme [2580] ¶ And as touching þe forþe poynt. þat Tullius cleþþ engendrynge [2581] ¶ þou schalt considere þat þis wrong which þat is don to þe is engendred of þe hate of þi enemys [2582] and of þe vengeance takynge ¶ And vpon þat wold engendre anoþer vengeance and moche sorwe and wastynge of richesse as I sayde er

[2583] ¶ Now sir as touching to þe poynt þat Tullius cleþþ causes which þat is þe laste poynt [2584] ¶ Thou

þe kyn of youre aduersaries. [2565] 3it napeles youre kynrede nys but liel kynrede. and liel sibbe to youre. [2566] And þe kynne of youre enemys ben nyghl sibbe to hem. And certes as to þat. Her condicione is bett þat 3owres. [2567] Than lat vs considere also. 3if þe counsaillings of hem þat counsaled you to take sodeyn vengeance wholere it accord to reson. [2568] Certys 3e knowe wel may. [2569] for as by right and reson þer may no man take vengeance on no wight but þe Iuge þat hæþ þe Iurisdiction of it [2570] when it is ygranted hym to take þilke vengeance hastily or attempelly as þe lawe requireþ. [2571] And 3it moreoure of þilke word. þat Tullius cleþþ consentynge. [2572] Thou shalt considere 3if þow myȝt and þi power myȝt consent and suffice to þi wilfulness and to þi counsaillours. [2573] ¶ And certes þou maist wel say may. [2574] for sikerly as forto speke properly. we may do no þinge. but onely þing as we may done rightfully. [2575] And certes rightfully ne maye 3e take no vengeance as of youre propre auctorite [2576] þat nowe 3e seme þat youre power consentþ maȝt ne accordþ not to youre wilfulness [2577] ¶ lat vs nowe examyne þe iij poynt þat Tullius cleþþ consequent [2578] [Tu dois demouer savoir que de vengeance que tu veulz faire, est consequent] [2579] And þerof folowþ a-noþer vengeance perile and werre. and oþer damages wít-out nombre of which we done liel warre as at þis tyme. / [2580] ¶ And as touchynge þe fourte poynt þat Tullius cleþþ engendringe [2581] þou schalt considere þis wronge which þat is done to þe is engendred of þe hate of þine enemys [2582] and of þe vengeance takinge vpon þat wold engendre anoþer vengeance And moche sorowe and waastinge of Richesse as I saide oost.

[2583] ¶ Now sire as þan touching to þe poynt. That Tullius causes which þat is þe laste poynt [2584] þou þe kinrede of youre aduersarie: [2565] 3it neuer þe les youre kinred is bot after kinrede þat bien bot liel sibbe to 3owe [2566] ¶ And þe kine of youre enemys bue nyhe sibbe to hem: And certes as in þat her condicione is better þat is yours [2567] ¶ Than lat vs consideron also of þe counselling of hem þat counselen 3ou to takeu sodein vengeance: wherþe it accordþ to reson or nono: [2568] And certes 3e knowen wels maye: [2569] ¶ For as be right & reson þers maie no man take vengeance on no wyht bot þe Iuge þat hæþe Iurisdiction of it [2570] when it is granted him to take þilke vengeance hastily or attempelly as þe lawe requireþ [2571] ¶ And 3it more ouere of þilke wordes þat Tullius cleþþ consentynge: [2572] þou schalt consent if þi myht & þi power maie consent: And sufficeþ to þi wilfulness & to þine counsellours: [2573] And certes þou maist wels seie þat maie: [2574] For sekerly as for to spoken propriuly we maie do no þinge bot onely suche þinge as we may done rightfully [2575] ¶ And certes rightfully ne maie 3e take no vengeance as of youre propre Auctorite: [2576] ¶ þan maie 3e seen þat 3oue power ne consentþ nouȝt ne accordþ nouȝt wít 3oure wilfulness. [2577] ¶ Nowe latte vs examyne þe þrede pointe þat tullius cleþþ þe consequent: [2578] ¶ þou schalt vnderstonde þat þe vengeance þat þou purporet for to take his consequent: [2579] And þer-for falleþ anoþer veageance. Perill. werre. & oþere damage wít-outen nombre of whiche be nouȝt war as at þis time: [2580] And as toucheinge þe forþe pointe: þat Tullius cleþþ engendringe [2581] ¶ Thou schalt consider þat þis wronge whiche þat is done to þe: is engenderd of þe hate of þine enmys: [2582] And of þe vengeance takinge: And vpon þat wold engender anoþer vengeance & muchel sorwe & wastinge of richesse as .I. seide ere shalt vnderstande / þat the wrong that thou hast receyued / hath certeyne causes / [2585] whiche þat clerkes clepen Oriens and Efficiens / and Causa longinqua / and Causa propinqua / this is to seyn / the fer cause and the ny cause / [2586] ¶ The fer cause / is almyghty god / that is cause of alle thynges [2587] ¶ The near cause / is thy thre enemyes [2588] ¶ The cause accidental / was hate [2589] ¶ The cause material / been the fyve woundes of thy doghter / [2590] ¶ The cause formal / is the manere of hir werkynge that brought laddres and cloumben in at thy wyndowes / [2591] The cause final / was for to sle thy doghter / It lettede nat in as muche as in hem was [2592] ¶ But for to spoken of the fer cause / as to what ende they shul come / or what shal finally biyde of hem in this cas / ne kan I nat deme ¶ but by coniectynge and by supposynge [2593] ¶ for we shul suppose / that they shul come to a wikked ende / [2594] by cause / that the booke of decrees seith ¶ seldom or with greet payne / been causes ybrought / to good ende / whanne they been baddely bigonne [2595] ¶ Now sire / If men wolde axe me / why that god suffred men to do yow this vileynye? Certes / I kan nat wel answer / as for no soothfastnesse [2596] ¶ for thatostale seith / that the sciences and the iugementes of our lord god almyghty been ful depe / [2597] ther may no man comprehende ne serchen hem sufficiently [2598] ¶ Natheles / by certeyne presumpcions and coniectynge / I holde and bileue [2599] that god / which that is ful of Iustice and of rightwisesse hath suffred this biyde by Iuste cause reasonable ¶

[2583] Now sir as touchinge þe pointe þat tullius cleþþ causes, whiche. þat is þe laste pointe. [2584] þou

[2600] Thy name is Melibe / this is to seyn / a man that drynketh hony [2601] ¶ Thou hast y-dronke so muchel hony / of swete temporel richesses / and delices and honours of this world / [2602] that thou art drunken / and hast forgotten / Thes crist thy creatour / [2603] thou ne hast nat doon to hym swich honour and reuerence as thee oughte / [2604] ne thou ne hast nat wel ytaken kepe / to

ELLESMEERE (6-7. 228)

shalt vnderstande / þat the wrong þat thou hast receyued / hath certeyne causes / [2585] whiche þat clerkes clepen Oriens and Efficiens / and Causa longinqua / and Causa propinqua / this is to seyn: the fer cause / and the ny cause / [2586] the fer cause / is almyghty god / that is cause of alle thynges / [2587] the near cause / is thy thre enemyes / [2588] the cause accidental / was hate / [2589] the cause material / been the .v. woundes of thy doghter / [2590] the cause formal / is the manere of hir werkynge / that brought laddres and cloumben in at thy wyndowes / [2591] the cause final / was for to sle thy doghter / it letted nat in as muche as was in hem // [2592] but for to speke of the fer cause: as to what ende they shul come /: or what shal finally biyde of hem in this cas: / ne kan I nat deme / but by coniectynge and by supposynge / [2593] for we shul suppose / what they shul come to a wikked ende / [2594] by cause / þat the booke of decrees seith ¶ Selden / or with greet payne been causes ybrought to good ende / when they been baddely bigonne [2595] ¶ Now sire / if men wolden axe me / why þat god suffred men to do yow this vileynye? certes I kan nat wel answer / as for no soothfastnesse ¶ [2596] for the Apostle seith / that the sciences and the iugementes of our lord god almyghty / been ful depe / [2597] ther may no man comprehende ne serchen hem sufficiently [2598] ¶ Natheles / by certeyne presumpcions and coniectynge / I holde & bileue / [2599] that god / which þat is ful of Iustice and of rightwisesse / hath suffred this biyde / by Iuste cause reasonable

[2600] ¶ Thy name is Melibe / this is to seyn / a man that drynketh hony / [2601] thou hast y-dronke so muchel hony / of swete temporel richesses and delioce and honours of this world / [2602] that thou art drunken / and hast forgotten Thes crist thy creatour / [2603] thou ne hast nat doon to hym swich honour and reuerence as thee oughte: [2604] ne thou ne hast nat wel taken kepe / to

HENGWRT (6-7. 228)

shalt vnderstande / that the wrong that thou hast receyuid hath certeyn causes / [2585] whiche that clerikis clepen Oriens / & efficiens / And Causa longinqua / & Causa Propinqua / this is to seyne the fer cause / & the nygh cause / [2586] the fer cause is almyghti god / that is cause of alle thyngis / [2587] the nygh cause is thyne thre enemyis / [2588] the cause accidental was hate / [2589] the cause material: been the fyve woundis of thyre doghtre [2590] The cause formal is the manere of here werkynge / that brought laddres & cloumbyn in at thyne wyndowis / [2591] the cause final was for to sle thyne doghtyr / It lettede nat in as meche as in hem was // [2592] But for to spekyng of the ferle cause as to what ende they schul come / or what schal finally betyde of hem in this cas / ne can I nat deme / but by coniectynge & by supposynge [2593] for we schul suppose / that they schul come to a wikkede ende / [2594] bi-cause that the bok of Decrees seyth / Seldor with greet payne been causis I-brougt to a good ende / When they were baldely begunne [2595] ¶ Now sere 3if meen wolde axyn me whi that god sufferede / men to doon yow this veleny certes I cannot wel answeryn as for no Sothfastnesse / [2596] for thatostale seyth that the sciencis & the iugementis of our lord god / almyghty: been ful deepe / [2597] there may no man comprehende / ne serchyn hem sufficiently [2598] ¶ Natheles / bi certeyn presumpciounis / & coneytyngis I holde & bileue / [2599] that god whiche that is ful of iustice / & of ryghtwisesse hath suffered this betyde by iuste cause / resonable

[2600] Thy name is Melibe this is to seyne a man / that drynketh hony / [2601] or he that hath I-dronkyn hony / so meche of swete temporel richesse & delicia of honouris of this world [2602] that thou art dronkyn / & hast forgetyn Thes crist thy creature / [2603] thou ne hast nat doon to hym swich honour & reuerence / as the oujte [2604] ne thou ne hast nat wel taken kepe to

CAMBRIDGE (6-7. 228) [148-152]

schalt vnderstande þat þe wronge þat þou hast receyued hæþ certain causes [2585] whiche þat clerkes clepen Oriens et Officiens and causa longinqua and causa propinqua ¶ This is to sayn þe ferre cause [et la pro-chaine; [2586] la loingtaine est Dieu qui est cause de toutes causes [2587] La proclaine est tes trois ennemis (La Mén. i. 213) [2588] accidental was late [2589] The cause material ben þe .v. woundes of þin dougter [2590] ¶ The cause formale is þe maner of here wercheinge þat brouhten laddres and clomben in at þine wyndowes / [2591] ¶ The cause final was for to sleþ þin dougter it latted nougth in as moche as in hem was [2592] ¶ But for to speken of þe ferre cause as to what ende þey schullen come Or what schal betyden of hem in þis caas ne can I nouþt deeme . but by coniectyng and by supposyng [2593] ¶ for we schullen suppose [que litz aradrons] to a wilked ende. [2594] by cause þe booke of decrees saith ¶ Salden or wip groþ peyne bene causes brougt to an ende when þey ben bakly bygonne

[2595] Now sir if men asked me why þat þe suffred men to doo þou þis wronge and vilenye. Certes I can not wel answere as for no softnesse [2596] ¶ for þe apostell saith þat þe sciences and þe Iugementes of our lord god ben myghty and deepe [2597] ¶ Ther may no man comprehende no serche him sufficiently [2598] ¶ Napeles by certein presumptious and coniectynges
 I holde and bileue [2599] þat god þat is ful of Justice and of rightwisnesse hæþ suffred þis bytyde by iuste cause reasonable

[2600] ¶ þin name is melibe þis is to say a man þat drinkeþ hony [2601] ¶ Thou hast y-drunko so moche hony of þe swete temperel richesse and delices & honours of þis worlde [2602] þat þou art drunken and hast forgeten our lord ihesu crist þin creatour [2603] ¶ Thou hast nouþt don to him such honour as þe oughte [2604] ¶ Ne þou hast nouþt wel take heed to shalt vnderstande þat þe wronge þat þou hast receyued hæþ certein causes. [2585] whiche þat clerkes clepen oriens. And officiens. And causa longinqua and causa propinqua. This is say þe fer cause and þe nyge cause. [2586] The for cause is almythy god þat is cause of al þingges. [2587] The nere cause is by þre enemyes [2588] ¶ The cause accidental was late.

 [2589] þe cause material beþ .v. woundes of þi dougtere [2590] The cause formal is þe maner of her werching þat brouhten ladders and clomben inne at þi wyndowes. [2591] The cause fynal was. for to sleþ þi dougtere. It latted nougth in as mochi as in hem was / [2592]
 Than to speke of þe ferre cause as to what ende þei shal come or what shal fynaly bytyde of hem in þis caas. ne can I not deeme but by countyng and by supposyng [2593] ¶ for we shul suppose. þat þei shal come to a wilked ende. [2594] by cause þat þe booke of Decrees seip ¶ Saldone or wip grota peyne bene causes.
 ybrougt to good ende when þei bene bodely begonne.

[2595] ¶ Now sire gif men wold aske me whi þat þe suffred men to doo þou þis wronge and vilenye. Certes I can nat wel answere as for no softnesse. [2596] ¶ for þe apostell saip. þat þe sciences and þe Iugementes of our lord god almythy. bene ful depe. [2597] þer may no man comprehende ne serche him sufficiently [2598]
 ¶ Napeles by certein presumptious and coniectynges
 I holde and bileue [2599] þat god which þat is ful of justice. and of rightwisnesse hæþ suffred þis bitide by iustise ¶ cause reasonable

[2600] ¶ This name is Meliboe ¶ This is to sayne a man þat drynkeþ hony. [2601] ¶ Thou hast y-drunko so moche hony of which swete temporel richesse / and delicious honours of þis worlde [2602] þat þou art drunken. and hast forgeten ihesu crist þin creatour [2603] ¶ Thou hast not don to hym such honours and reuerence as þe auyst [2604] ne þou hast nouþt wel taken kepe to schalt vnderstande þat þe wronge þat þu hast receyued

 hæþ certein causes [2585] whiche þat clerkes clepen .
 Oriens & officiens & causa longinqua & causa propinqua. þis to seine þe ferre cause [et la pro-chaine [2586] La loingtaine est dieu qui est
cause de toutes choses / [2587] La proclaine sont ces iij. ennemis [2588] La cause (Reg. 19 Cxi) Accidentale. was late.
 [2589] The causes Material bene þe .v. wondes of þine dougter! [2590] The cause formale is þe manere of here wercheinge þat brouht ladders And clomben in at þine wyndowes. [2591] þe cause finale was for to sleþ þi dochter. It lakked nouht in as muche as in hem was [2592] ¶ Dot for to speken of þe ferre cause as to what ende þei scholne come! or what schal be-tiden of hem in þis caas ne can .I. nouht deeme be coniectyng & be supposyng! [2593] ¶ For we scholne suppos[e] (que litz en remont] to a wilked ende! [2594] be cause þe booke of decrees seip ¶ Saldone or wip grota peine bene causes / broulde to an ende when þei bene badly begonne.

[2595] ¶ Nowe sir if men axed me! whi þat þe suffer men to done þowe þis velayne! certes .I. can not wel answere as for no softnesse [2596] ¶ For þe Apostole saip þat þe science & þe Iuggement of our lord god bene myhty & dopa! [2597] þere maie
 no man comprehende ne serche him sufficiently! [2598]
 Napeles be certein presumptuous & conisctynges
 .I. holde & heloue [2599] þat god þat is ful of Justice & rightwisnesse Hæþ suffred þis be-tide be Iust cause reasonable!

[2600] ¶ þi name is Melibe. þis is to seie a man þat drinkeþ honye! [2601] ¶ Thou hast y-drunkon so muche hony of þi swete temporal riches & delices & honours of þis worlde [2602] þat þu art drunken! & hast forgeten our lord ihesu criste þi creatour! [2603] þou hast not done to him sucho honour as þe ouhte!
 [2604] ne þou hast nouht wel take heed to

¶ Ouides the wordes of Ouide ¶ That seith || [2605] vnder the hony of the goodes of the body / is hyd the venym / that sleth the soule [2606] ¶ And salomon seith ¶ If thou hast founden hony / ete of it that suffieth / [2607] for if thou ete of it out of mesure / thou shalt spewe / and be nedy and poure / [2608] And perauenture / Crist hath thee in despit / and hath turned away fro thee his face and hise crys of Misericorde [2609] ¶ And also / he hath suffred / that thou hast been punysshed in the manere that thou hast ytrespased [2610] ¶ Thou hast doon synne / agayn oure lord crist. [2611] for certes. the .iij. enemyes of mankynde / that is to seyn / the flesh / the feend / and the world. [2612] thou hast suffred hem / entre in to thyh herte wilfully / by the wyndowes of thy body / [2613] and hast nat defendid thy self sufficiently agayn hire assautes / and hire temptacions / so / that they han wounded thy soule / in .v. places / [2614] this is to seyn / the doedly synnes that been entred in-to thyh herte / by thy .v. wittes || [2615] And in the same manere / oure lord crist hath wold and suffred / that thy .iij. enemyes been entred / in-to thyh hous by the wyndowes / [2616] and han ywounded thy doghter in the forseyde manere

¶ Melibee [2617] ¶ Certes quod Melibee / I se wel that ye enforce yow muchel by wordes / to overcome me / in swich manere that I shal nat / venge me of myne enemyes [2618] shewynge me the perils and the yueles / that myghten falle of this vengeance || [2619] But who so wolde considere in alle vengeanceis the perils and yueles þat myghte sewe of vengeance takynge / [2620] a man wolde neuere take vengeance / and that were harm / [2621] for by the vengeance takynge / been the wikked men disseured / fro the goode men / [2622] ¶ And thei that han wil to do wikkednesse / restreyn hir wikked purpos / when they seen the punysshynge and chastyng of the trespassours [2623]

[E]t a ce Respont dame prudence certes dist elle Et l'otroye que de vengeance vient molt de maulz Et de biens ;

ELLESMEERE (O-T. 229) (leaf 100, back)

the wordes of Ouyde || that seith / [2605] vnder the hony of the goodes of thy body : is hyd the venym / that sleth the soule [2606] ¶ And Salomon seith || If thou hast founden hony / ete of it that suffieth / [2607] for if thou ete of it out of mesure : thou shalt spewe / and be nedy and poure / [2608] and perauenture / Crist hath thee in despit and hath turned away fro thee his face / and his crys of misericorde / [2609] and also he hath suffred / þat thou hast been punysshed in the manere þat thou hast ytrespased : [2610] ¶ Thou hast doon synne agayn oure lord Crist || [2611] for certes / the .iij. enemyes of mankynde / that is to seyn / the flesh / the feend / and the world / [2612] thou hast suffred hem / entre in to thyh herte wilfully / by the wyndowes of thy body / [2613] and hast nat defendid thy self / sufficiently agayn hire assautes & hir temptacions / so þat they han wounded thy soule. in .v. places || [2614] this is to seyn / the doedly synnes / þat been entred in to thyh herte by thy .v. wittes || [2615] And in the same manere / oure lord Crist hath wold & suffred / þat thy .iij. enemyes been entred in to thyh hous by the wyndowes / [2616] and han ywounded thy doghter in the forseyde manere

[2617] ¶ Certes quod Melibee / I se wel / þat ye enforce yow muchel by wordes to overcome me in swich manere / þat I shal nat venge me of myne enemyes / [2618] shewynge me the perils & the yueles / þat myghten falle of this vengeance || [2619] But who so wolde considere in alle vengeanceis / the perils and yueles þat myghten sewe of vengeance takynge : [2620] a man wolde neuere take vengeance / and that were harm / [2621] for by the vengeance takynge / been the wikked men disseured / fro the goode men / [2622] and thei þat han wil to do wikkednesse / restreyn hir wikked purpos / when they seen the punysshynge & chastyng of trespassours ||

[2623] [A] ce respond dame Prudence : certes, dist-elle, ie vous octroye que de vengeance vient molt de biens ;

HENGWRT (O-T. 229) (leaf 123, back)

the wordis of Ouide that soyth [2605] vnder the hony of the goodis / of the body is hid the venym that sleth the soule / [2606] And salomon seyth gif thou hast foundyn hony / ete of it that suffieth / [2607] for gif thou ete of it out of mesour / thou schalt spewe / & been nedy / & poure / [2608] & perauenture / cryst hat the in despyt and hath turned away from the hye face & hise crys of mysericorde / [2609] And also he hath suffred / that thou hast been punysshid / in the manere that thou hast trespased / [2610] Thou hast doon synne / a-geyn oure lord Ihesu cryst / [2611] for certes the thre enemyis / of mankynde that is to seyne / the flesh the feend & the world / [2612] thou hast suffred hem to entre in-to thyh herte wifullly by the wyndowys / of thyh body / [2613] & hast not defendid thyh self sufficiently-a-geyn hire assautes / & here temptacions So that they han woundede thyh soule in fyue placis [2614] this is to seyne : the dedly synys that been entred in-to thyh herte / by thynne fyue wittis / [2615] And in the same manere / oure lord crist hath wold & suffred that thynne .iij. enemyis been entred in-to thyh hous by the wyndowys [2616] And han I-woundede thynne dougthyr / in the forseyde manere / [2617]

[K]ertes quod Melibee I se wel that 3e enforce yow mechel by wordis to oucrome me in swich manere: that I schal nat venge me of myne enemyis / [2618] Schewynge me the perilis & the yuelis that myghten fallyn of this vengeance // [2619] But who so wolde considere / in alle vengeanceis the perilis & the yuyllis that myghte sewe of vengeance takynge / [2620] a man wolde neuere Jake vengeance / & that were harm / [2621] for by the vengeance takynge : been the wikkede men disseured from the goode men / [2622] And thei that han wil to doon wikkednesse / restreyn here wikkede purpos / when they seen the punysshynge & the chastyng of the trespassours / [2623]

[A]d ce respond dame prudence Certes dist elle Je te octroye que de vengeance vient molt de biens

CAMBRIDGE (O-T. 229) (leaf 123, back)

þe wordes of Ovide þat seiþ [2605] vnder þe hony of þe goodes of þi body is hyd þe venym þat sleþ þe soule [2606] ¶ And Salomon seiþ ¶ If þou hast fouden hony ete of hit what sufficþ [2607] ¶ for if þou ete of hit out of mesure / þou schalt epwe and be nedý and pore. [2608] ¶ And peradventure crist hath þe in spite and haþ turned away fro þe his face and his eres of misericorde [2609] and also he haþ suffred þat þou hast þe punysshþ in þe maner þat þou hast y-trespast [2610] ¶ Thou hast don synne agens oure lord ihu crist [2611] ¶ for certes þe þre enemyes of mankynde þat is to say þe fleisch. þe fiend. and þe world [2612] ¶ þou hast suffred hem to entre in þin herte wilfully by þe wyndowes of þy body [2613] and hast nouþ defended þe sufficiently agens here defaultes and here temptacions So þat þay haue wounded þi soule in fyue place. [2614] ¶ this is to sayn þe dedly synnes þat ben entrede in to þin herte by þi .v. wyttes [2615] And in þe same manere oure lord ihesu crist haþ and wolde and haþ suffred þat þine þre enemyes ben entrede in to þin hous by þe wyndowes [2616] and han wounded þine doughtres in þe forseide manere

[2617] ¶ Certes quod Mellibe I se wel þat þe enforce þou mochel by wordes to ouercome me in such a manere þat I schal now vengen me of myne enemye [2618] Schewynge me þe perils and þe cuesles þat myghten falle of þis vengeance [2619] ¶ But who so wolde consider in alle vengeance þe perils and cuesles þat myghte seve of vengeance takynge [2620] a man wolde neuere take vengeance and þat were harme [2621] for by þe vengeance takynge ben þe wicked men disseuered fro þe gode men [2622] ¶ And þo þat han wille to don wickednesse restreyne here wicked purpos when þey seen þe punysshynge and þe chastysynge of trespassours

[2623] [And to this answered dame Prudence : ' Certes, said she, 'I grant you that from vengeance come many

þe wordes of O Ovide þat seiþ. [2605] Vnder þe hony of þe goodes of þi body. is hidde þe venyme þat sleþ þi soule [2606] ¶ And Salomon seiþ. 3if þou hast founð hony. ete of it þat sufficþ þe. [2607] for 3if þou ete of it out of mesure. þou shalt epwe and be nedý and pore. [2608] and peraventure cristo haue þe in despitte. and haþ turned away from þe his face and his eres of mysericordþ [2609] And also he haþ suffred þat þou hast þe punisþed in þe manere þat þou hast trespast. [2610] Thou hast don synne agens our lord crist [2611] for certes iij. enemyes of mankynde þat is to seyne þe flessch. þe secnde. and þe world [2612] thowe hast suffred hem entred into þine hous wilfully by þe wyndowes of þi body. [2613] And hast nauþ defended þi self sufficiently agens her assawtes and her temptacions so þat þei han wounded þi saule in .v. places. [2614] þis is to sayn þe dedly synnes þat bene entred into þine hertþ by þi .v. wyndowes [2615] and in þe same manere our lord crist haþ suffred and willed þat þine iij. enemyes bene entred into þi hous by þi wyndowes [2616] and haue ywounded þi doughtres in þe forseide manere

[2617] ¶ Certes quod Melibeus I se wel þat þe enforce þou moche by wordis to ouercome me in suche a manere þat I shal not venge me on myn enemyes. [2618] shewing me þe perils and þe cuesles þat myghten falle of þis vengeance [2619] But who so wolþ consider in all vengeance þe perils and cuesles þat myghten awe of vengeance takinge [2620] a man wolde neuere take vengeance and þat were harme [2621] for by þe vengeance takinge. bene þe wicked men disseuered from þe good men. [2622] And þei þat han wille to do wickednesse restreyne her wicked purpoos when they seen þe punysshynge and chastysynge of trespassours.

[2623] [And to this answered dame Prudence : ' Certes, said she, 'I grant you that from vengeance come many

þe wordes of Ovide þat seið: [2605] vnder þe hony of þe goodes of þi bodi: is hidde þe venym þat sloþ þi soule: [2606] And Salomon seiþ: If þou hast founð Hony: ete of it what sufficþ: [2607] For if þou ete of it oute of mesure: þou schalt epwe & be nedý & pouere: [2608] And peradventure cristo haþe in despitte & haþ tome awais fro þe his face: & his heres of Misericorde: [2609] And also he haþe suffred þat þou haue biene ypunyshed in þe maner þat þou hast trespast [2610] ¶ Thou hast done sinne agens oure lord ihesu criste: [2611] for certes þe þre enemyes of mankynde þat is to seiþ. þe flesche. þe fende. & þe werlde. [2612] Thou hast suffurde hem entre in to þine [soule] wilfully by þe wyndowes of þi bodye [2613] And hast nouht defended þe sufficiently agens here defaultes & temptacions: So þat þei haue wounded þi soule in .v. place: [2614] þis is to seiþe. ¶ þe dedely synnes þat biene entred in to þine hert þe þi .v. wyttes. [2615] And in þe same manere oure lord ihesu crist: haþe suffred þat þine þre enemyes be entred in to þine house be þe wyndowes: [2616] And han wounded þi doughter in þe same maner:

[2617] ¶ Certes quod Mellibe .I. see þat 3e enforce 3owe mechel þe wordes to ouercome me. In suche manere þat schal nouht auenge me of myne enemye [2618] schewynge me þe perils & þe cuesles þat myghten fal of þis vengeance [2619] ¶ Bot [who]so wolde consider in all vengeance þe perils & þe yuels þat myht seve of vengeance takinge [2620] a man wolde neuere take vengeance: And þat were harme: [2621] for be þe vengeance takinge buen þe wicked man dessuert fro þe good men: [2622] ¶ And þo þat han wille to done wickednesse: restroyne here wicked purpos: [When þei seen þe punysshynge and þe chastysynge of trespassours

[2623] [And to this answered dame Prudence : ' Certes, said she, 'I grant you that from vengeance come many

[2624] Mais vengeance n'appartient pas a un chascun fors seulement aux iuges Et a ceulz qui ont la iurisdiction sur les malfaiteurs. (MS Reg. 19 C. vii, leaf 136.)

[2625] ¶ And yett seye I moore / that right as a singular persone syneth / in takynge vengeance of another man /

[2626] right so / syneth the Iuge / if he do no vengeance of hem / that it han dissered ¶ [2627] for Senek seith thus ¶ That maister he seith is good / þat proueth shrewes

¶ Seneca

¶ Cassiodore

[2628] ¶ And as Cassidore seith ¶ A man dredeth to do outrages / when he woot & knoweth / that it displeth to the Iuges / and souereyns [2629] ¶ Another seith ¶ The Iuge þat dredeth to do right. maketh men shrewes ¶

¶ French Anecdotes and Epistles

[2630] And Saint Paule the Apostle / seith in his epistle / when he writeth vnto the Romayns / That the Iuges beren nat the spere / with-outen cause / [2631] but they beren it / to punyssh the shrewes & mysdoers / and to defende the goodde men [2632] ¶ If ye wol thanne take vengeance of youre enemys / ye shal retourne / or haue youre recours to the Iuge that hath the Iurisdiction vp-on hem / [2633] and he shal punyssh hem / as the lawe axeth & requirith

¶ Melibe

[2634] ¶ A quod Melibe / this vengeance / liketh me no thyng [2635] ¶ I bithenke me now and take heed / how fortune / hath norished me fro my childhede / and hath holpen me / to passe many a strong pass [2636] ¶ Now wol I assayen hire trowynge with goddes helpe / that she shal helpe me / to my shame for to venge

¶ Prudence

[2637] Certes quod Prudence ¶ If ye wol werke by my conseil / ye shal nat assaye fortune by no way / [2638] ne ye shal nat lene or bowe / vnto hire after the word of Senek [2639] ¶ for thynges / that been folly doon / and that been in hope of fortune / shullen neuere come to good ende ¶ [2640] And as the same Senek seith ¶ The moore cleer & the moore schynynge that fortune is / the moore brotil / and the sonner broken she is / [2641] trusteth nat in hire / for she nys nat stedfast ne stable [2642] for when thou trovest / to be moost seur and siker of hire

ELLESMEERE

(6-T. 230)

[2624] mais faire vengeance n'appartient pas a un chascun, fors seulement aux iuges et a ceulz qui ont la jurisdiction sur les malfaiteurs. (Le Ménagier de Paris, i. 214, ed. 1846.)

[2625] And yett seye I moore / that right as a singular persone syneth / in takynge vengeance of another man :

[2626] right so syneth the Iuge / if he do no vengeance of hem that it han dissered ¶ [2627] for Senek seith thus ¶ That maister he seith is good / þat proueth shrewes ¶

[2628] And as Cassidore seith ¶ A man dredeth to do outrages / when he woot & knoweth / þat it displeth / to the Iuges and the souereyns ¶ [2629] And another seith ¶ The Iuge þat dredeth to do right maketh men shrewes ¶

[2630] And Saint Poul thapostle seith in his epistle when he writeth vnto the Romayns / That the Iuges beren nat the spere / with-outen cause / [2631] but they beren it / to punyssh the shrewes & mysdoers / & for to defende the goodde men [2632] ¶ If ye wol thanne take vengeance of youre enemys / ye shal retourne / or haue youre recours to the Iuge þat hath the Iurisdiction vp-on hem / [2633] & he shal punyssh hem / as the lawe axeth & requirith

[2634] ¶ A quod Melibe / this vengeance liketh me no thyng [2635] I bithenke me now & take heed / how fortune hath norished me / fro my childhode / & hath holpen me / to passe many a strong pass : [2636] Now wol I assayen hire / trowynge with goddes helpe þat she shal helpe me / to my shame for to venge /

[2637] ¶ Certes quod Prudence / if ye wol werke by my conseil / ye shal nat assayen fortune / by no way / [2638] ne ye shal nat lene / or bowe vnto hire / after the word of Senek ¶ [2639] for thynges þat been folly doon / & þat been in hope of fortune / shullen neuere / come to good ende / [2640] And as the same Senek seith ¶ The moore cleer & the moore schynynge þat fortune is / the moore brotil & the sonner broke she is / [2641] trusteth nat in hire / for she nys nat stedfast ne stable / [2642] for when thou trovest / to be moost seur or sykter of hire

HENGWRT

(6-T. 230)

P leaf 127r

[2624] Mais faire vengeance n'appartient pas a un chascun fors aux iuges / Et a ceulz qui ont les iuridicions sur les malfaiteurs. (MS Reg. 19 C xi, leaf 59, back, col. 2.)

[2625] And gil seye I moore / that ryght as a senguler persone synyth in takynge vengeance / of a nothir man :

[2626] righ so synyth the Iuge zif he do no vengeance / of hem that it han deserryd / [2627] for Senek seith // that maystyr is good that prouyth schrewis / [2628]

And as Cassidore seyth / A man dredith to doon outrages / when he wot & knowith that it displeth to the Iugis / & to the souereyns / [2629] And a-nothir seyth / The Iuge that dredith to doon ryght / makyth men schrewis //

[2630] And seynt poule thapostelle seith in his epistelle / when he wyrthith vnto the romayns / that the Iuges berith nat the spere / with-outyn cause : [2631] but they beryn it / to ponysshe þe schrewis & mysdoers / & for to defendyn the Goodde men [2632] zif so wele thanne take vengeance of youre enemyis / so schul retourne or haue youre recours / to the Iuge that hath the Iurisdiction / vp-on hem / [2633] & he schal punyssh hem as the lawe axith & requirith [2634]

A quod Melibe this vengeance likyth me nothyng [2635] I bethynke me now & take heed how fortune hath norichid me / from myn chyldheede / & hath holpyn me to passyn manye a strong pass / [2636] now wole I assayen hire trowynge with godis helpe / that sche schal helpyn me myn schame for to venge [2637]

Certes quod Prudence / If so wele werke by myn conseil / so schul nat assaye fortune by no way / [2638] ne so schul nat lene / or bowe / on to here after the word of senek / [2639] for thyngis that been folly doon / & that been doon in hope of fortune / schul neuere been brouyt to good ende / [2640] And as the same Senek seyth / the moore cleer & the moore schynynge that fortune is : the moore brettill & the numero brokyn sche is / [2641] truste nat in here for sche nys nat stedfast ne stable / [2642] for when thou trovest to be moost sekur or sewir of hire

CAMBRIDGE

(6-T. 230)

P leaf 24r

benefits as well as many evils: [2624] yet vengeance belongeth not to "a singular persons," but only to the judges, and to those who have jurisdiction over evil-doers.] [2625] ¶ And jif say I more þat riht as a singular persone synneþ in takinge vengeance of anoþer man: [2626] Riht so synneþ þe Iugge if he take no vengeance of hem þat it han deserved // [2627] for Senek's seiþ þus þat mayster is good þat reproneþ schrewes [2628] ¶ And as Cassiodore seiþ. A man dredeþ to don outrages: whax he woot and knoweþ þat it displeseþ þe Iuge and þe soueraigne [2629] ¶ And anoþer seiþ þe Iugge þat dredeþ to don riht maket schrewes.
[2630] ¶ And seint Paul þe apostel seiþ in his epistle whan he writet vnto þe Romayns that þe Iuge beren nought þe spere wip-outen cause. [2631] but þei beren it to punysshen þe schrewes and þe mysdoers and for to defende þe goode men [2632] ¶ If þe wil þan take vengeance of youre enemyes: þe schuln retourne or haue youre recours to þe Iuge þat haþ þe Iurisdiction vpon him [2633] & he schal punysshie hem as þe lawe axet and requyret [2634] ¶ A quod Melibie his vengeance liker me noþing: [2635] ¶ I beþinke me now how fortune haþ norished me fro my childhode and haþ holpen me to passe many a strange pass [2636] ¶ Now wol I assaien here trowynge with goddes grace and helpe þat sche schal helpe me my schame for to venge [2637] ¶ Certes quod Prudence if þe woln worche by my counseill: þe schuln nouht assaye fortune by no way. [2638]
Ne þe schuln nouht lene or borwe vnto hire after þe word of Senek. [2639] for þinget þat bene folly don. and þat bene in hope of fortune schuln neuere come to a good ende [2640] ¶ And as þe same senek seiþ ¶ The more clere and þe more schynynge þat fortune is: þe more brutel and þe sonner y-broke sche is [2641] ¶ Tristret nouht iu hire for sche nis noþing stedefast ne stable [2642] for whan þou trowest to be most sikor or seure of hire advantages as well as many evils; [2624] yet vengeance belongeth not to a "singlere persons," but only to the judges,

and to those who have jurisdiction over evil-doers.] [2625] And jif say I more þat as riht as so singlere
persone synneþ in takinge vengeance of a noþer man [2626] Riht so synneþ þe Iuge jif he doo no vengeance on hem þat it han deserved [2627] ¶ for Senec seiþ þus ¶ þat maister he seiþ is good þat reproneþ schrewes [2628] ¶ And as Cassiodore seiþ. A man dredeþ to do outrage whan he woot and knoweþ þat it displeseþ to þe Iugge and þe soueroyyns. [2629] And anoþer seiþ ¶ The Iuge þat dredeþ to do riht. maket men schrewes [2630] ¶ And seint Paul þe apostel seiþ in his epistel whan he writet to þe Romayns þat þe Iuge berent not þe spere wip-outen cause. [2631] but þei beren it to punshe þe schrewes and mysdoers and forto defende þe good men. [2632] jif þe wil þan take vengeance of youre enemyes þe schul retourne or haue youre recours
to þe Iuge þat haþ þe Iurisdiction vpon him [2633] and he schal punshe hem as þe lawe asket and requyret [2634] ¶ A. quod Melobies his vengeance liker me no þinget [2635] I by-þenk me nowe and take hede.
howe fortune haþ norished me fro my childhode.
and haþ hulpen me to passe many a strange pass [2636] ¶ Now wil I assaien her trowynge wif goddes helpe þat he schal helpe me my schame forto venge [2637] ¶ Certes quod Prudence jif þe wil writk by my counsilþe þe schul not assaien fortune by no way [2638] ne þe schul not lene ne borwe vnto hire. after þe wordes of Senec. [2639] for þingget þat bene folly done. and þat bene in hope of fortune schuln neuere come to good eende. [2640] ¶ And as þe same senec seiþ. þe more clere and þe more schynynge þat fortune is. þe more brutel and þe sonner breket she. [2641] tristret nouht on her for she nis nat stedefast. [2642] for whan þowe wonest or trowest to be most sure or sikor of her

benefits as well as many evils; [2624] yet vengeance belongeth not to "a singular person," but only to the judges,
and to those who have jurisdiction over evil-doers."] [2625] ¶ An jite saie .I. more: þat riht as a singlere person sinneþ In takinge vengeance of anoþer manne.
[2626] Riht so sinneþ þe Iugge if he take no vengeance of hem þat hit han deserued: [2627] for Senec seiþe.
That maistere is good þat reproneþ schrewes! [2628]
And as Cassiodore seiþe A man dredeþ to done outrages whan he wote & knoeþ þat it displese þe Iuge & þe soueraynys: [2629] ¶ And anoþere. The Iuge þat dredeþ to done riht Makeþ schrewes.
[2630] And seinte Poul þe Appostle seiþe in his epistle
whan he writet vnto þe Romayns: That þe Iuge beren nought þe spere wip-outen cause [2631] bot þei beren it to punysshen þe schrewes & þe mysdoers & to defende þe goode men: [2632] If þe wil þan take vengeance of youre enemyes þe schol retourne or haue youre recours to þe Iuge þat haþ þe Iurisdiction vpon hem. [2633] & he schal punysshie hem as þe lawe axet & requyret:
[2634] ¶ A quod Melibie: his vengeance liker me no þinget: [2635] I beþinke me nowe howe fortune haþe norished me fro my childhode
And haþ holpen me to passe many a strange place! [2636]
Now .I. wil assayen here trowynge wif goddes grace & helpe þat he schal helpe me my schame for to venge [2637] ¶ Certes quod prudence if þe wolne wirche be my counseill: þe schol nouht assaye fortune be no weye [2638] ¶ Ne þe schol nouht lene or borwe vnto hire after þe worde of Senec. [2639] For þinget þat bene folyly done & þat bene in hope of fortune schal neuere come a good ende [2640] And as þe same Senec seiþe! The more clere & þe more and þe more schiynynge þat fortune is: þe more brutel & þe sonner ybroke sche is: [2641] Tristret nouht in hire for sche is neþere stedefast ne stable: [2642] ¶ For whan þou trowest to be most sekere or sure of hire

helpe she wol faille thee / and deceyne thee [2643] ¶ And where as ye seyn that fortune hath norised yow fro youre childhode / [2644] I seye / that <sup>1</sup>in so muchel / shul ye / of the lasse truste in hire and in hir wit ¶ [2645] for cence seith ¶ what man that is norised by fortune / she maketh hym a greet fool [2646] ¶ Now thanne / syn ye desire / and axe vengeance / & the vengeance / that is doon after the lawe / and bifore the Iuge / ne liketh yow nat [2647] And the vengeance that is doon in hope of fortune is perillous and vncertein [2648] Thanne haue ye noon oother remedie / but for to haue youre recours / vnto the souerayn Iuge that vengeth / alle vileynyes and wrongis / [2649] And he shal venge yow / after that hym self witnesseth / where as he seith ¶ [2650] leynth the vengeance to me / and I shal do it

[2651] Melibe answerde ¶. If I ne venge me nat. of the vileynye that men han doon to me [2652] I sompe or warne hem / that han doon to me that vileynye and alle othere / to do me another vileynye [2653] ¶ for it is written ¶ If thou take no vengeance of an old vileynye / thou sompest thyne Aduersaries to do thee a newe vileynye [2654] ¶ And also / for my suffraunce / men wolden do to me so muchel vileynye / that I myghte neither here it ne sustene / [2655] and so shoulde I been put & holden ouer lowe [2656] ¶ for men seyn / In muchel suffrynge / shul many thynges falle vn-to thee / whiche / thou shalt nat moue suffice

[2657] Certes quod Prudence I. graunte yow that ouer muchel suffraunce nys nat good / [2658] but yet ne folweth it nat ther-of / that euery persone / to whom men doon vileynys take of it vengeance / [2659] for that apertenth & longeth al oonly to the Iuges / for they shal venge the vileynyes & iniuries ¶ [2660] And therfore / to the two autorites / that ye han seyde aboue / been oonly vnderstonen in the Iuges / [2661] for when they suffren ouer muchel the wronges and the vileynyes to be doon

helpe / she wol faille thee & deceyne thee [2643] ¶ And where as ye seyn / that fortune hath norisshod yow fro youre childhode / [2644] I seye / þat in so muchil / shul ye the lasse truste in hire & in hir wit ¶ [2645] for Senek seith ¶ What man þat is norisshed by fortune: she maketh hym to greet a fool / [2646] ¶ Now thanne syn ye desire / & axe vengeance / & the vengeance / þat is doon after the lawe / & bifore the Iuge / ne liketh yow nat / [2647] & the vengeance / þat is doon in hope of fortune / is perillous & vncerteyn / [2648] thanne haue ye noon oother remedie / but for to haue youre recours / vn-to the souerayn Iuge / þat vengeþ / alle vileynys & wronges / [2649] and he shal venge yow / after that hym self witnesseth / where as he seith ¶ [2650] leneth the vengeance to me / and I shal do it

[2651] ¶ Melibe answerde ¶ If I ne venge me nat of the vileynye / þat men han doon to me / [2652] I some / or warne hem / þat han doon to me that vileynye / & alle othere / to do me another vileynye / [2653] for it is written / If thou take no vengeance of an old vileynye: thou sompest thyne Aduersaries / to do thee a newe vileynye ¶ [2654] And also / for my suffraunce / men wolden do me so muchil vileynye / þat I myghte neither here it ne sustene / [2655] and so shoulde I been put & holden ouer lowe ¶ [2656] for men seyn / I muchil suffrynge / shul many thynges falle vn-to thee / whiche yow shalt nat moue suffice

[2657] ¶ Certes quod Prudence / I graunte yow / þat ouer muchil suffraunce / is nat good / [2658] but yet ne folweth it nat ther of / þat euery persone / to whom men doon vileynye / take of it vengeance / [2659] for that apertenth & longeth al oonly to the Iuges / for they shal venge the vileynyes & iniuries / [2660] and therfore / to the two autorites / þat ye han seyde aboue / been oonly vnderstonen in the Iuges / [2661] for when they suffren ouer muchil / the wronges & vileynyes to be doon

helpe / sche wole fayle & disseyue the / [2643] And where as þe seyn that Fortune hath norichid youre childhode [2644] I seye that in so meche schul þe the lasse truste in here wit / [2645] For senek seyth / what man that is norichid by fortune: sche makyth hym a greet fool / [2646] Now thanne syn þe desyre & aske vengeance / & the vengeance that is doon after the lawe / & by-fore the Iuge / ne likyth yow nat / [2647] And the vengeance that is doon in hope of fortune is perillous & vncerteyn / [2648] thanne haue þe noon oother remedie / but for to haue youre recours / vn-to the souerayn Iuge that vength alle vilanyis / & wrongis / [2649] & he schal venge þow after / that hym self witnesseth where as he seyth / [2650] lenyth the vengeance ¶ to me & I schal do it [2651]

Melibe answerde / If I ne venge me not of the vilanye that men doon to me / [2652] I somoune or warne hem that han doon to me that vilanye & alle othere to doon to me a nothir vilanye / [2653] for it is wryten / þif thou take no vengeance of an oppyn vilanye / thou somounest thyne aduersaryis: to do the a newe velanye [2654] And also for myn suffraunce men woldyn do me so meche vilanye / that I ne myghte neythir bere it ne sustene / [2655] & so schulde I bee put & holdyn ouer lowe / [2656] for men seyn in meche suffrynge schal many thynges falle vn-to the whiche thou schalt nat moue suffice [2657]

Certes quod prudencie. I graunte now that our meche sufferance / is nat good [2658] But þit ne folweth it not therof / that euery persone to whom men doon vilanye: tak of it vengeance / [2659] for that apertenth & longith al only to the Iuges / for they schul venge / the vilanyis & the Injuries / [2660] And therfore to two autoriteis / that þe han seyde a-bouyn / been oonly vnderstondyn in the Iuges / [2661] For when they suffren ouermeche the wrongis & vilanyis to be doon helpe! sche wol faille þe and deceyve þe [2643] ¶ And wher as þe sayn þat fortune haþ norischid þou fro youre childhode [2644] I say þou þat in so mochel schuln þe þe lasse trusten in hire and in hire witte [2645] ¶ For Senek saþ þat what man is norischid by fortune! sche makeþ him to gret a fool [2646] ¶ Now þenne seþens þe desire and aske vengeance ¶ And þe vengeance þat is don after þe lawe and biforn þe Iuge no liker þou nouht [2647] and þe vengeance þat is don in hope of fortune is perilous and vncerteyn [2648] ¶ Thenne haue þe non oþer remedye but for to haue youre recours vnto þe souereyn Iuge þat vengþ alle vilanyes and wronges [2649] ¶ And he schal venge þou after þat þin self wittnesþ [ . . . . . ] [2650] leueþ þe vengeance to me and I schal don hit!

[2651] ¶ Mellibeus answered ¶ If I ne venge me nouht of þe wrong þat men han don to me [2652] I schal somme or warne hem þat han don þis vilany to me and alle oþre to don me anoþer vilany [2653] ¶ For it is writen ¶ If þou take no vengeance of an olde vilanye þou somment þin aduersarie to don þe a newe vilanye [2654] . [Et ainsi, par souffrir l'en me feroit tant de villenie de toutes pars] þat I mighte neyþer bere it ne sustene [2655] and so schalde I be owerette and halden ouer lowe [2656] ¶ For men sayn ¶ In mochlil suffrynges schullen many þingis falle vnto þe whiche þou schalt not moue suffre

[2657] ¶ Certes quod Prudence I graunte þat ouer mochlil suffraunce / is nought good [2658] ¶ But yet ne folweþ it nouht þer-of þat eury persone to whom men don vilanye take of it vengeance [2659] for þat apperteneþ & longþ al only to þe Iuges for þey schuln venge þe vilanyes and þe iniuries [2660] and þerfore þe two autoritees þat þe han seide aboue ben only vnderstanden in þe Iuges [2661] ¶ For whan þey suffren ouer mochlil þe wronges and vilanyes ben don

helpe. she wil faille þe. [2643] ¶ And þer as þe sayn þat fortune haþ norischid þou fro youre childhode. [2644] I say þat in so mochel schal þe þe lasse trust in her. and in her witt [2645] ¶ For Senek saþ. what man þat is norischid by fortune! she makeþ him to greta a fool. [2646] ¶ Now þan siþ þe desire and aske vengeance. and þe vengeance þat is done [selon l'ordre de droit et devant le juge ne le plaist, [2647] et la vengeance qui es fait] in hope of fortune is perilous and vncerteyn. [2648] þen haue noon oþer remedy. but forto haue youre cours vnto þe souereyn Iuge þan vengþ all vilanyes and wronges. [2649] and he schal venge þou. After hym self wittnesseþ: where as he saþ [2650] ¶ I leueþ þe vengeance to me / & I schal doo it!

[2651] ¶ Melibeus answered. 3if I ne venge me nouht of þe vilanye þat men han done to me. [2652] I schal somme or warne hem þat han don to me þou vilanyes and al oþer to doo me anoþer vilanye. [2653] ¶ For it is writen. 3if þou take no vengeance of an olde vilanye / þow somment þine aduersaries to doo an newe vilanye. [2654] And also for my suffraunce men wolden doo me so moche vilanye þat I myȝt neyþer bere it ne sustene it. [2655] And so þan I shulde be kepte ouer lawe [2656] ¶ For men sayn In mochel suffrynges shal many þingges vnto þe whiche þow schalt not moue suffre helpe! Sche wil faille þe & deceyve þe [2643] ¶ And where as þe seine þat fortune haþ norischid þou fro youre childhode [2644] I seie þou þat in so moche schal þe þe lasse trust in hire & in hire witte! [2645] ¶ For Senek seþe. þat what man is norischid þe fortune sche makeþ him a greta fool! [2646] ¶ Nowe seþen þe desire & axen vengeance! And þe vengeance þat is done after þe lawe & be-forn þe Iuge no liker þou nouht! [2647] And vengeance þat is done in hope of forton is perilous & vncertaine! [2648] Than haue þe none oþer remedye! bot for to haue youre recours vnto þe souereyne Iuge þat vengþ al velaynes & wronges [2649] And he schal venge þou after þat þi self wittnesseþ: [ . . . . . no gap] [2650] leueþ þe vengeance to me & I. schal done it!

[2657] ¶ Certes quod prudencia I graunte þou þat ouer mochel suffraunce is not good [2658] But ȝit ne folweþ it not þer-of. That eury persone to whome men doo vilanye take of it vengeance. [2659] for þat apperteneþ & longþ only to the Iuges. for þei schal venge vilanyes and iniuries. [2660] And herfore þou two autoritees þat þe han seide aboue ben only vnderstanden in þe Iuges [2661] ¶ For whan þei suffren ouer ¶ mykel þe wronges and vilanyes to be done

[2651] Mellibeus answered: I. ne venge me nouht of þe wronge þat men han done to me [2652]. I. schal somme or werne hem þat haue done þis velayny to me And al oþere to done me anoþere velayny [2653] ¶ For it is writen if þou take no vengeance of an olde velayny: þou somment þin aduersarie to done þe a newe velayny: [2654] [Et ainsi par mon serement en souffrant len me fera tant de villenie de toutes pars (Reg. 19 C xi, if 60, col. 2)] þat I. myht neyþer ber it ne sustaing: [2655] And. so schold I. be owersett And halden ouere lowe! [2656] For men seine in mochlil suffrynges schold mony þingis falle. vn-to þe whiche .I. schal nouht suffre

[2657] ¶ Certes quod prudencia .I. graunte þat ouer mchel suffraunce is nouht good! [2658] ¶ Bot ȝit ne folweþ it nouht þer-of! þat eury person to whom men doone velayns take of hit vengeance! [2659] For þat apperteneþ & longþ al only to þe Iuge. For þei schal venge þe vilayns & þe iniuries [2660] And þerfore þe two Autoritees þat þe haue seide aboue ben only vnderstanden in þe Iuges [2661] ¶ For whan þei suffren ouere mchel þe wronges & velayns be done

withouten punysshynge / [2662] they sompne nat a man al only / for to do newe wronges / but they comanden it [2663] ¶ Also a wys man seith / that the Iuge / þat cor-recteth nat the synnere comandeth and biddeth hym do synne [2664] ¶ And the Iuges and souereyns myghten in hir hand so muchel suffre of the shrewes & mysdoers / [2665] þat they sholden by swich suffrance by proces of tyme / wexen of swich power and myght / that they sholden putte out the Iuges and the souereyns / from hir places / [2666] and atte laste maken hem lesen hir lordshipes

[2667] ¶ But lat vs now putte / that ye haue leue to venge yow / [2668] I seye / ye been nat of myght and power / as now to venge yow / [2669] for if ye wol maken comparison / vn-to the myght of youre Aduersaries / ye shul fynde in manye thynges / that I haue shewed yow or this / that hire condicion / is bettre than youre [2670] ¶ And therefor seye I that it is good as now / that ye suffre and be pacient

[2671] ¶ Forthermoore / ye knowen wel / that after the comune sawe / it is a woodnesse / a man / to stryue with a stronger / or a moore myghty man / than he is hym self || [2672] And for to stryue with a man of enene strengthe /
that is to seyn / with as strong a man as he is / it is peril /
[2673] And for to stryue with a wayker man / it is folye [2674] ¶ And therefore / sholde a man his stryunge / as muchel as he myghte [2675] ¶ For Salomon seith || It is a greet worshepe to a man / to kepen hym fro noyse and stryf [2676] ¶ And if it so bifalle or happe / that a man of greetr myght and strengthe / than thou art. do thes grounace: [2677] studie / and bisye thee rather to stille
the / same grounace / than for to venge thee || [2678] For Senek seith / That he putteth hym in greet peril / that stryueth with a greetr man / than he is hym self [2679]
¶ And Caton seith / If a man of hys estat or degre / or moore myghty than thou / do thes anyo / or grounace /
suffre hym / [2680] for he that conys hath greued thee / with-outen punysshynge: [2662] they somne nat a man al

only / for to do newe wronges / but they comanden it [2663] ¶ Also / a wys man seith / That the Iuge / þat cor-recteth nat the Synnere: comandeth & biddeth hym do synne || [2664] And the Iuges & souereyns / myghten in hir hand so muchil suffre of the shrewes & mysdoers / [2665] þat they sholden by swich suffrance by proces of tyme / wexen of swich power & myght þat they sholden putte out the Iuges & the souereyns / from hir places / [2666] & at the laste / maken hem les hir lordshipes

[2667] ¶ But lat vs now putte / þat ye haue leue to venge yow / [2668] I seye / ye be nat of myght &
power / as now to venge yow / [2669] for if ye wol maken
comparison / vn-to the myght of youre Aduersaries: ye shul fynde in manye thynges þat I haue shewid yow or this / þat hir condicion / is bettre than youre / [2670] And therefor seye I / þat it is good as now / þat ye suffre &
be pacient

[2671] ¶ Forther-moore / ye knowen wel / that after the comune sawe: it is a woodnesse / a man to stryue with a stronger / or a moore myghty man / than he is hym self / [2672] & for to stryue / with a man / of enene strengthe /
that is to seyn / with as strong a man as he is: it is peril /
[2673] and for to stryue with a wayker man / it is folye || [2674] and therefore / sholde a man his stryunge / as muchel as he myghte || [2675] For Salomon seith || It is a greet worshepe to a man / to kepen hym fro noyse & stryf || [2676] And if it so bifalle / or happe / þat a man of greetr myght & strengthe / than thou art do thes grounace: [2677] Studie & bisye thou rather / to stille
the same grounace / than for to venge thee || [2678] For Senek seith / That he putteth hym in greet peril / þat
stryueth with a greetr man / than he is hym self || [2679]
And Caton seith || If a man / of hys estat or degre / or
moore myghty than thou / do thes anyo / or grounace /
suffre hym / [2680] for he that conys hath greued thee /

with-outyn punysshynge [2662] they somone nat a man al only for to doon newe wrongis / but they comaundyn it / [2663] also a wys man seyth / that the Iuge that cor-recteth nat the synnere comaundyth / & biddyth hym to do synne / [2664] & the Iugis & souereyns / mystyn in here hand so meche suffere of the schrewis & mysdoers / [2665] þat they schuldyn by swich suffrance / by processe of tyme / waxen of swich power & mygt / that they schuldyn puttye out / the Iugis & the souereyns from here placis [2666] & at the laste makyn hem to lesyn here lordshepe //

[2667] But lat vs now putte that ye han leue to vengon yow / [2668] I seye so been nat of mygt & power as now to venge yow / [2669] for if so wele make comparisoun vn-to þe myght of youre aduersarys / so schul fynde in manye thyngis that I haue schewid you or this / that hire condicioun is bettere than youre / [2670] & therefor seye I that it is good / as new / that so suffere & been pacient /

[2671] Forthermoore so knowe wel / that aftyr the comuune sawe. it is a woodnesse a man to stryue with a strongere / or a moore myghty man / than he is hym selfe [2672] & for to stryue with a man of enene strengthe / that is to seyne with as strong a man as he is hymselfe / it is peril / [2673] And for to stryue with a wayker man: it is folye / [2674] & therefore schulde a man his stryunge / as meche as he myghte // [2675] For Salomon seyth it is a greet worshepe / to a man to keppyn hym from noyse & stryf. [2676] & If it so befalle or happe / that a man be of greetre myght & stronthe / than thou art / do the grounace: [2677] studie & beye the rather to styll the same grounace: than to venge the / [2678] For senek seyth / that he puttith hym in greet peryl / that stryueth with a greetere man than he is hym self / [2679] ¶ And catoun seyth // If a man of beyere staat or degre or moore mygt than thou / do the ony noye or grounace / suffere hym / [2680] for he that conys hath greuyd the /

wipouten punyschinghe [2662] þay somþne nouzt a man only for to do neure wronges but þei commaunden it [2663] ¶ Also a wise man seiþ þat þe Iuge þat correcteþ nouzt þe synnere comaundeþ and biddeþ him to do synne [2664] ¶ And þe souerains and þe Iuges / mighten in here lande so moche suffren of þe schreyres and mysdoers [2665] þat þei schulden by such suiffraunce / by proces of tyme waxen of suche power and mighteþ þat þei schulde putte oute þe Iuges and þe soueraignes from here places [2666] and at þe laste maken hem leesen here lordschippes

[2667] ¶ But let vs now putte þat 30 han leue to vengen 3ou [2668] ¶ If 30 ben nouzt of mighte and power as now to vengen 3ou [2669] for if 30 wold maken comparisoun vnto þe mighte of 3oure aduersaries ¶ 30 schullen fynde in many þinges þat I haue shewed 3ou ben þis þat here condicioun is better þan 3oures [2670] ¶ And þerfore say I þat it is good as now þat 30 suffre and be pacient

[2671] ¶ Herþermore 30 knowen þat after þe comune save it is a wodenesse a man to stryue<sup>1</sup> ayeins a stronger or a more mighty man þan is himself [2672] ¶ And for to stryue wip a man of euens strengþe þat is to say<sup>2</sup> wip a strong man as he is it is peril [2673] ¶ And for to stryue wip a waykare man it is folye. [2674] And þerfore schulde a man flo stryunge/ as moche as he mighte [2675] ¶ As Salomon saith ¶ It is a grete worschipe to keepyn him fro noyse and stryf [2676] ¶ And if it so byfalle or happe þat a man of grettere might and strengþe þan þou art do þe graunce. [2677] study and busy þe raper to stille þe same graunce þan for to venge þe [2678] ¶ for Senec saip þat he putteþ him in grete perile þat stryueþ wip a gretter man þan he is himself [2679] ¶ And Catoun saip it a man of heyer astate or degre or more mighte þen þou do þe anyore or graunce Suffre him [2680] for he þat ones haþ greued þe

wip-out þonshinge. [2662] þei summeone nat a man al only forto doo neure wronges but þei commaunden it [2663] ¶ Also a wise man seiþ þat þe Iuge þat correcteþ not þe synner. Commaundeþ and biddeþ hym to synne [2664] and þe Iuges and souereynes myten in her londe so moche suffre of þe Shreyres and mysdoers [2665] þat þei schulden bye such suiffraunce by processe of tyme waxen of such power and myght. þat þei shuld putte oute þe Iuges and souereynes from her places. [2666] and at þe last do hem lese her lordshippes

[2667] ¶ I þat cas riht now 30 had leue to venge 3ou. [2668] I say þat 3e ben nouzt of myghte no power as now to venge 3ou. [2669] for if 3e wil make comparisoun vnto þe myght of 3our aduersaries. 30 shul fynde in many þingges þat I haue shewed 3ou<sup>er</sup> er þis þat her condicioun is better þan 3oures. [2670] And þerfore say I þat it is good as now þat 30 suffre and be pacient

[2671] ¶ Herþer more 30 knowen wal þat after þe comon save it is a wodenesse a man to stryue wip a stronger. or wip a more myghty man þan hym self. [2672] And forto stryue wip a man of euen strenght þat is to say wip as stronge a man as he is it is perile. [2673] And forto stryue wip a waykare man it is foly [2674] And þerfore schuld a man flees stryunge as moche as he myght [2675] ¶ for Salomon saip. It is a grete worship a man to kepe hym from noyse and stryf. [2676] And if it so byfalle or happe þat a man of gretter myght and strengþe þan þou art do þe graunce. [2677] study and byse þe raper to stille þe same graunce þan forto venge þe [2678] ¶ for Senec saip That he putteþ hym in grete perile. þat stryueþ wip a gretter man þan he is him self [2679] And Catoun saip. 3if a man of hier astate or of degre or more myght þan þou. do þe an oþer graunce suffre hym [2680] for he þat onys haþ greued þe

wil-owten punyschinghe! [2662] þei somþne not a man only for to do neure wronges / but þe commaunde it [2663] ¶ Also a wise man seiþ þat þe Iuge þat correcteþ nouht þe sinner: commandeþ & biddeþ him to do sinne [2664] ¶ And þe soueraignes & þe Iuges myhten in her londe so muche suffre of þe schreyres & þe mysdoers: [2665] þat þei schulden be suiffraunce þe processe of tyme waxen of suche powere & myht: þat þei schulde putte oute þe Iuges & þe souereignes from here places: [2666] & att þe last maken hem lesen here lordeschippes:

[2667] Bot lat vs nowu put þat 30 haue leue to vengen 3ouwe! [2668] If 30 be nouht of myht & powere as now to vengen 3ou: [2669] For if 30 willen make comparisoun vn-to þe myht of 3oure aduersaries: yf schohne finde in many þinges þat .I. haue shoude 3ouwe aforme þis: þat here condicion is better þan 3oures: [2670] ¶ And þerfore seie .I. þat it is good as now þat 30 suffre & be pacient

[2671] ¶ Forþere more 30 knowe. þat after þe comune save it is a wodenesse a man to stryue ayeins a stronger oþer a more myghty man þan him self [2672] ¶ And for stryue wip a man of euen stronght: þat is to seie wip a strange man as he is it is a perile. [2673] And for to stryue wip a waykare man it is foly: [2674] And þer-for schohde a man flye stryunge as muche as he might! [2675] ¶ for Salomon seiþ: It is a grete worschipe a man to kepe him fro noyse & strif [2676] ¶ And if it so be-falle or happe þat a man of gretter myht & strengþe þan þou art do þe graunce [2677] Study & besye þe rapere to stille þe same graunce þan for to venge þe [2678] ¶ for Senec seiþ. þat he putteþ him in grete perile þat stryueþ wip a gretter man þan he him self is [2679] ¶ And Catoun seiþ if a man of hier astate or degre or more myhte þan þou do þe anyore or graunce suffre hime. [2680] for he þat ones haþe greued þe

another tyme / may releue thee and helpe: [2681] ¶ Yet sette I cas / ye haue bothe myght and lience / for to venge yow / [2682] I seye that ther be ful many thynges / that shul restreyn yow / of vengeance takynge / [2683] and make yow / for to encline to suffre / and for to han pacience / in the thynges / that han been don to yow [2684] ¶ first and forward / if ye wole considere the defautes / that been in youre owene persone / [2685] for whiche defautes / god hath suffred yow / have this tribulaciō / as I haue seyd / yow heer biforn [2686] ¶ for the Poete seith That we oghte paciently taken the tribulacions that comen to vs / when we thynken and consider / that we han disserued to haue hem [2687] ¶ And Seint Gregorie seith || That whan a man considereth wel the nombre of his defautes / and of his synnes / [2688] the peynes and the tribulacions that he suffreth / semen / the lesse vn-to hym [2689] And in as muche / as hym thynketh / his synnes moore heuy and greuous / [2690] in so muche / semeth his peyne the lighter / and [the] esier vn-to hym [2691] ¶ Also / ye owen to encline and bowe youre herte / to take the pacience of oure lord Ihesu crist / As seith seint Peter in hisse Epistles [2692] ¶ Ihesu crist he seith / hath suffred for vs / and yowen ensample to euery man / to folwe and sewe hym / [2693] for he dide neuere synne / ne neuere cam ther a vileyns word / out of his mouȝ / [2694] whan men cursed hym / he cursed hem noght / And whan men betten hym / he manaced hem noght / [2695] ¶ Also / the grete pacience / which the seintes that been in Paradys / han had in tribulacions that they han y-suffred / with-outen hir desert or gilt / [2696] oghte muchel stiren yow to pacience [2697] ¶ Forthermoore / ye sholde enforce yow / to haue pacience / [2698] considerynge / that the tribulacions of this world / but lital while endure / and soone passed been and goone [2699] ¶ And the ioye that a man / seketh to haue by pacience in tribulacions / is perdurable / after that the

may another tyme / releue thee & helpe: [2681] ¶ Yet sette I cas / ye haue bothe myght & lience for to venge yow: [2682] I seye / þat ther be ful many thynges / þat shul restreyn yow / of vengeance takynge / [2683] & make yow / for to encline to suffre & for to han pacience / in the wronges / þat han been don to yow [2684] ¶ first & forward / if ye wol considere the defautes / þat been in youre owene persone: [2685] for whiche defautes / god hath suffred yow / have this tribulacion / as I haue seyd / yow / her biforn || [2686] for the Poete seith / That we oghten paciently taken / the tribulacions þat comen to vs / when þat we thynken & consideren / þat we han disserued to haue hem || [2687] And <sup>1</sup>Seint Gregorie seith / That whan a man / considereth wel / the nombre of his defautes and of his synnes: [2688] the peynes & the tribulacions þat he suffreth / semen the lesse vn-to hym / [2689] And in as muche as hym thynketh / his synnes / moore heuy & greuous: [2690] in so muche / semeth his peyne the lighter and the esier vn-to hym [2691] ¶ Also / ye owen to encline & bowe youre herte / to take the pacience / of oure lord Ihesu crist. as seith Seint Peter / in hisse Epistles || [2692] Thou crist he seith / hath suffred for vs / and yowen ensample to euery man / to folwe & sewe hym / [2693] for he dide neuere synne / ne neuere cam ther a vileynous word / out of his mouth / [2694] Whan men cursed hym / he cursed hem noght / And whan men betten hym / he manaced hem noght / [2695] ¶ Also / the grete pacience / which Seintes / þat been in Paradys / han had / in tribulacions þat they han y-suffred / with-outen hir desert or gilt / [2696] oghte muchel stire yow to pacience [2697] ¶ Forthermoore / ye sholde enforce yow to haue pacience / [2698] considerynge / þat the tribulacions of this world / but lital while endure / & soone passed been & goon / [2699] And the ioye þat a man seketh to haue by pacience in tribulacions: is perdurable / after that the mai a-nothir tyme releue thee & helpe // [2681] 3it sette I cas 3e han bothe a lycence / for to venge 3ow / [2682] I seye that there been ful manye thyngis / that schul restreyn 3ow of vengeance takynge / [2683] & make 3ow for to encline to sufferre & for to han pacience / in the wrongis that han been don to 3ow / [2684] flast & forward 3if 3e wole / considere the defautis / [ . . . . . ] [2685] . . . . . no gap] god hath suffred 3ow to haue this tribulacioun / as I haue seyd 3ow heere by-for / [2686] For the Poete seyth that we oustyn paciently / takyn the tribulaciounis that comyn to vs / whan that we thynkn & consideryn that we han deseruyd to han hem [2687] ¶ And seynt Gregorie seyth that whan a man considereth wel the numbere of hisse defautis & of hisse synnyis / [2688] the peynis & the tribulaciounis that he sufferyth semyn the lesse vnto hym / [2689] And in as meche as hym semyth his synne is moore heuy / & greuous [2690] in so meche semyth his peyne the lystere & the esiere vnto hym // [2691] Also 3e ouyn to encline / & bowe 3our herte / to take the pacienc<sup>e</sup> of oure lord Ihesu crist / as seyth seynt petryr / In hisse epistoles / [2692] Ihesu Crist he seith hath suffered for vs / & 3ouyn ensample to euery man / to folwe / & sewyn hym / [2693] for he dide neuere synne / ne neuere cam ther / a vileyns word out of his mouth [2694] whan men cursed hym: he outrede hem. not / [ . . . . . ] no gap in the MS.] [2695] Also the grete pacience / which seyntis that been in paradys han had in tribulaciounis / that they been I-sufferid with-outyn here desert or gilt / [2696] oghte meche stere 3ow to pacience / [2697] Forthermoore 3e schul enforce 3ow to haue pacience / [2698] considerynge that the tribulaciounis / of this world but lityl while endure / & soone passed been & goone / [2699] And the Ioye that a man seketh for to han bi pacienc<sup>e</sup> in trybulaciounis / is perdurable / aftry that the may anoþer tyme releue þe and helpe þe [2681] ¶ Iþ sette I cas 3e han hoþe mightv and licence to vengeu 3ou [2682] I say þat þer ben many þinges þat schuln restreyu 3ou of vengance takinge [2683] and make 3ou for to endine and for to suffice and for to haue pacience in þe wronges þat han be don to 3ou [2684] ¶ firste and forþward if 3e woln considere þe defautes þat ben in 3oure owne persons [2685] for whiche defautes god haþ suffred 3e to haue þis tribulaciō as I haue sayde 3ou here byfor. [2686] ¶ for þe Poete saiþ þat we ougten paciently taken þe tribulaciōs þat cometh / to vs when we þenken and consideren þat we han deserued to han hem [2687] ¶ And seint Gregor saiþ ¶ þat whan a man considereth wel þe nombre of his defautes and of his synnes [2688] þe peynes and þe tribulaciōs þat he suffreþ semen þe lasse vnto him [2689] ¶ And in als moche as him þenk- of his synnes þe more heuy and greuous. [2690] ¶ In so moche semeth þis peyne þe lighter and þe esyer vnto hym [2691] ¶ Also 3e owen to endine and to bowen 3oure herte to taken þe pacience of oure lord Ihesu crist as saiþ seint Petre in his Epistles [2692] ¶ Ihesu crist he seiþ haþ suffred for vs and 3ouen ensample vnto euery man to folwe and to serue him [2693] for he dede neuer synne no neure ne came a vileyns word out of his mouþ [2694] when men cursed him he cursed hem nouȝt ¶ And when men beten him he manessed hem nouȝt [2695] ¶ Also þe grette pacience whiche seintes þat ben in paradys. han had in tribulaciōs þat þey han suffred wipouten cry desert or gille [2696] sighte moche to stire 3ou to pacience [2697] [Après moult de doit incliner à patience] [2698] considerynge þat þe tribulaciōs of þis worldt but litel while endureþ and soon passed ben and goon [2699] ¶ And þe Ioye þat man seeþ to haue by pacience in tribulacion is perdurable / after þat þe may anoþer tyme releue þe. and helpe þe. [2681] iþ sette I cas 3e haue hoþ myȝt and licence forto vengeu 3ou. [2682] I saiþ þat þer bene ful many þinges þat shuld restreyu 3ou of vengance takinge [2683] and make 3ou forto onelyue to suffice and forto haue pacience in þe wronges þat bene done to 3ou. [2684] firste and forward if 3e wil considere þe defautes þat bene in 3oure persons. [2685] for whiche defautes god liþ suffred 3ou to haue tribulaciō as I haue said byfore [2686] ¶ for þe Poete saiþ. þat we ougten paciently þe tribulaciōs to take þat comen to vs whan þat we þenken and consideren þat we han deserued to haue hem [2687] ¶ And seint Gregor seiþ. That whan a man considereth wel þe nombre of his defautes and of his synnes [2688] þan peynes and þe tribulaciōs þat he suffreþ semen þe lasse vnto him [2689] And in as moche as him þenk- of his synnes more heuy and greuous [2690] in so moche his peyne is þe lister / and þe 'esier vnto hym [2691] ¶ Also 3e owen to enlyue and bowe 3oure herte to take þe pacience of our lord Ihesu crist. As seiþ seint Petre in his epistalt [2692] Ihesu crist he seiþ liþ suffred for vs and 3ouen ensample to euery man to folowe and to serue hym [2693] for he did neure ¶ synne ne neure cam a vileyns word out of his mouþ [2694] whan men cursed hym he cursed hem nouȝt [ . . . . . ] no gap [2695] Also þe grette pacience ¶ whiche þat seintes þat bene in paradis han had in tribulaciōs þat þei han suffred wip-outen her desert or gill. [2696] sighte moche stire 3ou to pacience [2697] ¶ Iþerpermore 3e shal conforte 3ou to haue pacience [2698] considerynge þat þe tribulaciōs of þis worldt. but litel ¶ while enduren. and soon bene ypassed and goon [2699] And þe Ioye þat a man seeþ to haue by pacience in tribulaciōs is perdurable. after þat þe maie a-noþere tyme releue þe & helpe þe [2681] ¶ Iþitt sett I. cas þat 3e haue hoþ myht & licence to vengeu 3oue [2682] I. seiþ þat þere beu many þinges þat schold retereyn 3ou. of vengance takinge [2683] And maake 3ou for to encline & for to suffice And for to haue paciens in þe wronges þat han be done to 3oue [2684] first & forwarde yf 3e wolne considere þe defautes þat bene in 3oure owne person [2685] for whiche defautes god haþ suffred 3ou to haue þis tribulaciōs as I. haue seiðe 3oue here before [2686] for þe poet seiþ: That we ougten paciently take þe tribulaciōs þat cometh to vs whan we þinken & consideren þat we haue deserued to haue hem. [2687] ¶ And seint Gregorie seiþ whan a man considereth wel þe nombre of his defautes & of his synnes [2688] þe peynes & þe tribulaciōs þat he suffreþ semen þe lasse vn-to him [2689] ¶ And alsenuche as him þink- of his sinnes þe more heuy & greuous. [2690] In so muche semeth þis paine. þe lister & þe esier vn-to him [2691] ¶ Also 3e owen to enlyue & to bowen 3oure herte to taken þe pacience of oure [lord] Ihesu crist. As seiþ seint Peter in his Epistles [2692] ¶ Ihesu crist he seiþ haþ suffred for vs & 3ouen ensample vn-to euery man for to folowe & to serue him [2693] for he dide neuer siane. ne neure ne came a vileyns words out of his mouþ [2694] ¶ Whan men cursed him he cursed hem nouht. And whan men betene him he manessed hem nouht [2695] ¶ Also þe grette paciens whiche þe seintez þat bien in paradise haue hadde in tribulaciōs þat þei haue suffred wip-outen her desert or gill [2696] ouht muche to stirs. 13oue to paciencis [2697] [Après moult de doit incliner a patience es (Reg. 19 C xi, ff 60 bk, col. 2)] [2698] considerynge þat þe tribulaciōs of þis worldt bot litel while outdureþ & some passed bien & gone [2699] And þe Ioye þat man seeþ to haue by pacience in tribulaciōs is perdurable After þat þe

¶ Apostolus in epistola

Apostle seith in his epistle [2700] ¶ The ioye of god / he seith is perdurable / that is to seyn enerdlastyng [2701] ¶ Also trowep and bileneith stedefastly / that he ays nat wel ynorissed ne wel ytaught / that kan nat haue pacience / or wol nat receyue pacience? [2702] ffor Salomon seith ¶ That the doctrine & the wit of a man / is known by pacience [2703] ¶ And in another place he seith ¶ That he that is pacient<sup>r</sup> gouerneth hym by greet prudence [2704] ¶ And the same Salomon seith The angry and wrathful man / maketh noyses / And the pacient man stempreth hem and stilleth [2705] ¶ He seith also / It is moore worth to be pacient than for to be right strong. [2706] And he that may haue the lordshipe of his owene herte / is moore to preyse / than he that by his force or strengthe taketh grete Citeous [2707] ¶ And therfore / seith Seint Iame in his Epistle ¶ That pacience / is a greet vertu of perfeccioñ

¶ Doctour in epistola

[2708] ¶ Certes quod Melibe / I graunte yow Dame Prudence / that pacience / is a greet vertu of perfeccioñ [2709] but every man may nat haue the perfeccioñ þat ye seken / [2710] ne I nam nat of the nombre / of right parfite men / [2711] for myn herte / may neuere been in pees / vn-to the tyme it be vengid / [2712] And al be it so that it was greet peril to myne enemys / to do me a vileyny / in takyng vengance vp-on me / [2713] yet tokon they noon hede of the peril / but fulfilleden / hir wikked wyl and hir corage [2714] ¶ And therfore / me thynketh men oghten nat repreue me / though I putte me in a lital peril / for to venge me / [2715] And though .I. do a greet excesse / that is to sayn / that I venge on outrage by another

¶ Prudence

[2716] A quod dame Prudence / ye seyn youre wyl / and as yow liketh / [2717] but in no cas of the world / a man sholde nat doon outrage ne excesse / for to vengon hym [2718] ¶ ffor Cassiodoro seith ¶ That as yuele dooth he that vengeth hym by outrage / as he that dooth the

ELLESMERE (6-T. 234) (leaf 107)

Apostle seith / in his Epistle / [2700] The ioye of god he seith / is perdurable / that is to seyn / ouere lastyng [2701] ¶ Also / troweth & bileneith stedefastly / þat he ays noght wel ynorissed ne wel ytaught / þat kan nat haue pacience / or wol nat receyue pacience ¶ [2702] ffor Salomon seith ¶ That the doctrine & the wit of a man / is known by pacience ¶ [2703] And in another place he seith / That he þat is pacient<sup>r</sup> gouerneth hym by greet prudence ¶ [2704] And the same Salomon seith ¶ The angry & wrathful man / unaketh noyses / And the pacient man / attempreth hem & stilleth ¶ [2705] he seith also ¶ It is moore worth to be pacient than for to be right strong? [2706] And he þat may haue the lordshipe of his owene herte? is moore to preyse / than he þat by his force / or strengthe / taketh grete Citeus ¶ [2707] And ther-fore / seith Seint Iame in his Epistle / That pacience / is a greet vertu of perfeccioñ

[2708] ¶ Certes quod Melibe / I graunte yow / Dame Prudence / þat Pacience / is a greet vertu of perfeccioñ [2709] but every man may nat haue the perfeccioñ / þat ye seken / [2710] ne I nam nat of the nombre / of right parfite men / [2711] for myn herte / may neuere be in pees / vn-to the tyme / it be vengid ¶ [2712] And al be it so / þat it was greet peril to myne enemys / to do me a vileyny / in takyng vengance vp-on me? [2713] yet tokon they noon hede of the peril / but fulfilleden / hir wikked wyl & hir corage ¶ [2714] And therfore me thynketh / men oghten nat repreue me / though I putte me in a lital peril / for to venge me / [2715] & though I do a greet excesse / that is to sayn / þat I venge / on outrage by another //

[2716] A. quod dame Prudence / ye seyn youre wil & as yow liketh ¶ [2717] But in no cas of the world / a man sholde nat doon outrage ne excesse / for to vengon hym ¶ [2718] ffor Cassidoro seith ¶ That as yuele / dooth he þat vengeth hym by outrage / as he / þat dooth the

HENGWRT (6-T. 234) (leaf 120, back)

thapostele seyth in his epistle [2700] ¶ The Ioye of God is perdurable that is to seyne ouere lastyng [2701] Also troweth & bileneith stedefastly / that he ays nat wel fnoyrschid / ne wel I-taught that can nothave pacience / or wels not receyue pacyance [2702] For salomon seyth / that the doctryne & the wit of a man is known by pacience / [2703] And in a-nothir place he seyth that he that is pacient gouernyth hym by greet prudence [2704] And the same Salomon seyth / That the angry & the wrathful man / makyth noyis / & the pacient man attempereth hym & stilleth / [2705] he seyth also it is moore worth to be pacient / than for to ben ryht strong / [2706] And he that may haue the lordshepe of hisse owene herte? he is moore to preyse / than he that by hisse force or strenthe? takyth greete ceteis [2707] And therefore seyth seynt Iame In his epistle / that Pacience is a greet vertu of perfeccioñ. [2708]

¶ Etris quod Melibe / I graunte þow dame Prudence / that Pacience is a greet vertu of perfeccioñ [2709] But every man may nat haue the perfeccioñ that þe seekyn / [2710] ne I am not of the nombre of ryht parfite men / [2711] For myn herte may neuere been in pees / vn-to the tyme it be ven'gite / [2712] And al be it so / that it was greet peril to myne enemys to doon me a vileyny / in takyng vengance vp-on me? [2713] þit iaka they noon hede at the peril / but fulfilleden here wekede wir / & here corage / [2714] & therfore me thynketh men oute nat repreue me though I putte me in a lityl peril / For to vengyn me / [2715] And thow I do a greet excesse / that is to seyne that I venge on outrage / by a-nothir. [2716]

A quod dame Prudence / þe seyn þoure wil & As þow likyth / [2717] but in noo cas of the world a man shulde nat doon outrage ne exces. ffor to vengon hym / [2718] For Cassiodoro seyth / that as ouelo doth he that vengeth hym by outrage / as he that doth the

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 234) (leaf 140)

apostel seiþ in þe epistle [2700] ¶ The ioye of god he seiþ is perdurable þat is to sayn 'euer lastyng [2701] ¶ Also trowþ & belieueþ steadfastly þat he is nouȝt wel ynorisht' no wel y-taught þat can nouȝt haue pacience [ . . . . . no gwp] [2702] ¶ ffor salomon seiþ þat þe doctrine of þe wite of man is knowen by pacience [2703] ¶ And in anoþer place he seiþ ¶ he þat is pacient' gouerneþ him by gret' prudenc [2704] ¶ And 3eþ Salomon seiþ þe angry and þe wupful man makeþ noyse ¶ And þe pacient' man attempterh him and stilleþ him. [2705] he seiþ also ¶ It is more worth to be pacient' þan to be right' strong' [2706] And he þat may haue þe lordschipe of his owne herte is more to prayse þan he þat by his force and strengþ takeþ grette cites [2707] ¶ And þerfore seiþ seint Iame in his Epistle þat' pacience is a gret' vertu of perfection

[2708] ¶ Certes quod Melibe I graunte þou dame Prudence and pacience is a gret' vertu of perfeccion [2709] ¶ But' every man may nat haue þe perfeccion þat 3e sechen [2710] no I am nouȝt of þe nombre of right' partyt' men [2711] ¶ ffor myn herte may neuer ben in pees vnto þe tyme it' be venged [2712] ¶ And al be it' so þat it' was gret' peril to myn enmys to done a vilany in takinge vengeance vpon me [2713] ¶ 3eþ token þei noon hede of þe perille ¶ But' fulfilledden here wikkede wille and here corage. [2714] and þerfore me þenkeþ þat men ouȝten not' to reproue me þouȝt I putte me in-to a lital peril for to auenge me [2715] ¶ And þouȝt I do a gret' excesse þat' is to say þouȝt I do a vengeance outrage by anoþer

[2716] ¶ A quod' dame prudenc 3e seyn þoure wille and as þou likeþ [2717] ¶ But' in no caas of þe world a man ne schold' nouȝt done outrage ne excesse for to vengen him [2718] ¶ ffor Cassidore seiþ þat' as eucl doþ he þat' auengeþ him by outrage as he þat' doþ þe

apostel seiþ. in his Epistle [2700] ¶ The Ioye of god he seiþ is perdurable. þat' is to saye eurlastyng. [2701] ¶ Also trowþ and belieueþ steadfastly þat' he nye nat' wel norshed ne wel ytaught' þat' cannot' haue pacience ne wil not' re-yeue pacience [2702] ¶ ffor Salomon seiþ. That' þe doctrine and þe wite of man is knowen by pacience. [2703] ¶ And in anoþere place he seiþ. þat' he þat' kepeþ hym by pacience ¶ gouerneþ him by gret' prudenc [2704] ¶ And þe Same Salomon seiþ The angry and þe wreful man makeþ noyses. and þe pacient' man attempterh and stilleþ him self [2705] ¶ he seiþ also it' is more worth to be pacient' þan for to be right' stronge. [2706] And he þat' may haue lordship of his owne hert' is more to preise þan he þat' by his fors takeþ grette Citees and townes [2707] Therefore seiþ seint Iame in his Epistle. þat' pacience in a gret' vertue of perfeccion.

[2708] [Certes, dicit Melibde, se non attroyer, dāmo Prudence, qua paciēcia est uno grant' vertū,] [2709] But' every man may nat haue þe perfeccion þat we seken. [2710] no I. am not' of þe nombre of right' perfitt' men. [2711] for myn hert' may neuer be in pees: vnto þe tyme it be venged [2712] ¶ And al be it' so þat it' was gret' perille to myne ¶ enenmyes to done me a vilany in takinge vengeance vpon me. [2713] 3it' token þei noon hede vpon þe perille. but' fulfilledden her wikked wille and her corage [2714] And þer-for me þenkeþ men ouȝt' not' reproue me þouȝe I putte me in a lital perille to venge me. [2715] and þouȝe I doo a grette excesse. þat' is to say þouȝe I venge oon outrage by a noþere

[2716] ¶ O quod' dame prudenc 3e sayn þoure wille. and as þou likeþ. [2717] But' in no caas of þe world a man shuld' not' doe outrage ne excesse furto venge hym [2718] ¶ ffor Cassidore seiþ þat' as eucl doþ he þat' auengeþ him by outrage. as he þat' doþ þe

Apostle seiþ in þis epistle [2700] ¶ The Ioye of god he seiþ is perdurable þat is to seiþe euer lastyng // [2701] ¶ Also trowþ & belieueþ steadfastly þat is nouȝt wel y-norished ne wela y-taucht þat can nouȝt haue pacience. [ . . . . . no gwp] [2702] ¶ For Salomon. seiþ; þat þe doctrine of þe wite of man it knowen be pacience? [2703] ¶ And in anoþere place he seiþ. He þat is pacient' gouerneþ him be grette prudenc? [2704] ¶ And 3ut Salomon seiþ. þe Angry & þe wupful man makeþ noys; and þe pacient' man attempterh him & stille him [2705] ¶ He seiþe also it is more worþe to be rilit' pacient' þat to be rilit' stronge? [2706] ¶ And he þat may haue þe lorchship of his owen hert' is more to preise; þan he þat be his force & strengþ takeþ grette Citees [2707] ¶ And þerfor seiþ seint Iame in his apistle þat' pacience is a grette vertue of perfeccion.

[2708] ¶ Certes quod Melibe .I. graunte þouwe dame prudenc. þat pacience is a grette vertue of Perfeccione. [2709] Dot every man maie nat haue þe perfeccion þat 3e sechen [2710] ¶ No .I. ne am not of þe nombre of rilt' perfite me[n]. [2711] ffor myne herts may neuer bus in pees vnto þe time it be venged. // [2712] ¶ And al be it so þat it was grette perille to myne enmys to done a velany in takinge vengeance vpon me. [2713] 3it token þei none hede of þe perille bot fulfilledden here wikked wil & here corage [2714] ¶ And þere-for me þenkeþ þat men oult not to reproue me þeihe .I. putte me in-to a lital perille for to auenge me? [2715] ¶ And þouhe .I. do a grette excesse: þat is to saie: þat .I. do a vengeance outrage be a-noþer?

[2716] ¶ A quod' Dame prudenc 3e seyne þoure wille & as þoue likeþ [2717] ¶ Bot in no caas of þe werlde a man schold' nouȝt done outrage no excesse for to avengen him [2718] ¶ For Cassidori seiþ: þat as yuel doþe he þat avengeþ him be outrage; As he þat doþe þe

outrage || [2719] And therfore / ye shul venge yow / after the ordre of right / that is to seyn by the lawe / and nat by excess / no by outrage [2720] ¶ And also / If yo wol venge yow of the outrage of youre Adversaries in oother maners than right comandelth / yo synnen: [2721] And therfore seith Senek || That a man shal neuere venge shrewdnesse / by shrewdnesse [2722] ¶ And if ye seys / that right axeth / a man to defenden violence / by violence / and fightyng / by fightyng: [2723] Certes / ye seye sooth when the defense is doon anon with-outen Interualle or with-outen taryyng or delay [2724] for to defenden hym / and nat for to venge hym: [2725] ¶ And it bihoueth / that a man putte swich attempence in his defence: [2726] that men haue no cause no matiere / to repreuen hym that defendeth hym of excess / and outrage / for ellis were it agayn reson [2727] ¶ Pardoe / yo knowen wel / that yo maken no defence as now / for to defende yow / but for to venge yow / [2728] and so sheweth it that yo han no wyl to do youre dede attempely: [2729] And therfore / me thynke that pacience is good || for Salomon seith ¶ That ho that is nat pacient shal haue greet harm

¶ Salomon

¶ Melibrus

[2730] Certes quod Melibrus / I graunte yow / that when a man is impacient / and wrooth / of that þat toucheth hym / nat and þat aperteneþ nat vn-to hym / though it harme hym / it is no wonder || [2731] for the lawe seith || That he is coupable that entremeteth or medleth / with swych thyng / as aperteneþ nat vn-to hym [2732] ¶ And Salomon seith || That he that entremeteth hym of the noyse or strif / of another man / is lyk / to hym / that taketh an hound by the eris || [2733] for right as he that taketh a straunge hound by the eris / is outherville / biten with the hound: [2734] Right in the same wise is it reson / that he haue harm / that by his impacience / medleth hym / of the noyse / of another man / where-as it aperteneþ nat vn-to hym [2735] ¶ But ye knowen wel / that this dede / that

ELLESMERE

(6-T. 236)

outrage || [2719] And therfore / yo shul venge yow / after the ordre of right / that is to seyn / by the lawe / and nat by excess / no by outrage || [2720] And also / if yo wol venge yow / of the outrage of youre Adversaries in oother maners than right comandelth / ye synnen || [2721] And therfore seith Senek || That a man shal neuere venge shrewdnesse / by shrewdnesse / [2722] And if ye seys / þat right axeth a man / to defende violence / by violence / and fightyng / by fightyng: [2723] Certes / ye seye sooth / when the defense / is doon anon / with-outen interualle / or with-outen taryyng / or delay / [2724] for to defenden hym / & nat for to venge hym || [2725] And it bihoueth / þat a man putte swich attempence in his defence / [2726] þat men / haue no cause / no matere / to repreuen hym þat defendeth hym / of excess / and outrage || [Our outragement ce arroit contra droit et contre Raizon. (Reg. 19 C 7)] [2727] Pardoe ye knowe wel / þat ye maken no defense as now / for to defende yow / but for to venge yow / [2728] and so seveþ if þat ye han no wyl / to do youre dede attempely / [2729] and therfore / me thynke / that pacience is good || for Salomon seith || That ho / þat is nat pacient / shal haue greet harm /

[2730] ¶ Certes quod Melibrus / I graunte yow / þat when a man / is impacient / and wrooth / of that þat toucheth hym / nat and þat aperteneþ nat vn-to hym / though it harme hym / it is no wonder || [2731] for the lawe seith / That he is coupable / þat entremeteth hym / or medleth / with swich thyng / as aperteneþ nat vn-to hym [2732] ¶ And Salomon seith || That he þat entremeteth of the noyse / or strif / of another man: is lyk to hym / þat taketh an hound by the eris / [2733] for right as he / that taketh a straunge hound by the eris / is outherville / biten with the hound: [2734] right in the same wise is it reson / for he haue harm þat by his impacience medleth hym / of the noyse / of another man / where / as it aperteneþ nat vn-to hym || [2735] But ye knowe wel þat this dede / that

HENGWRT

(6-T. 235)

outrage / [2719] And therefore 30 schul venge 30w: aflyr the ordere of ry3t / that is to seyne by the lawe / & nat by excess / no by outrage [2720] And also 3if 3o welo venge 3ow / of the outrage of 3oure aduersarys in oother manere than ry3t comaudnyth / 3o synnyng [2721] & therfore seyth Senek / that a man schal neuere venge schrowdnesse by schrowdnesse / [2722] & 3if 3o seyn that ry3t axeth a man to defende violence / [ . . . . . ] & fy3tyng. By fy3tyng [2723] certis 3o seyn soth / when the defence is doon a-nowe with-outyn interal or with-outyn taryyng or delay [2724] for to defende hym: & not for to venge hym / [2725] And it behouth that a man putte swich attempence in his defence / [2726] that men haue no cause / no matere to repreuyn hym: that defendyth hym from excess & outrage / for ellis were it agayn reson / [2727] ¶ Parde 3o knowyn wel that 3o makyn no defence / as now for to defende 3ow: but for to venge 3ow / [2728] And so sevirh it that 3o han no wil / to doon 3oure dede attempely / [2729] And therfore me thynkyth / that Pacience is good for Salomon seith / that he that is not pacient: schal haue greet harm [2730]

Certis quod Melibrus I graunte 3ow that when a man is impacient & wroth of that that touchith hym / not / & that apertenyth nat vn-to hym: thow it harme hym it is no wonder / [2731] for the lawe seith that he is coupable that entymeteth or medelith with swich thyng / as apertenyth nat vn-to hym [2732] ¶ And Salomon seith that he that entymeteth hym of the noyse of stryf / of a-nothir man / is lyk to hym that takith an hound bi the ceris / [2733] For ry3t as he that takith a strong hound bi the eris: is outherville betyn with the hound / [2734] Ry3t in the same wise is it rezons that he haue harm that by his impacience medelith hymself bi the noyse of a-nothir man where as it apertenyth not vn-to hym / [2735] But 3o knowyn wel that this dede that

CAMBRIDGE

(6-T. 236)

[16th cent. hand]

outrage [2719] and þerfore 3e schullen vengen 3ou after þe ordre of riht<sup>1</sup> þat<sup>1</sup> is to sayn by þe lawe and [nought] by excessse no by outrage [2720] ¶ Also if 3e wold vengen 3ou of þe outrage of youre aduersaries in oþer manere þenne riht comaundeþ<sup>1</sup> 3e synnen [2721] ¶ Therefore seiþ Sonak þat a man schal neuer vengen schrewdenesse [by schrewdenesse] // [2722] And if 3e say þat riht axeþ to defende violence by violence and fytynge by fytynge [2723] ¶ Certes 3e say soþ when þe defene is don riht anon wipouten interualle or wipouten tarynge or delay [2724] for to defenden him and nought<sup>1</sup> for to vengen him [2725] ¶ And it bihouep þat a man putte such attemperance in his defense [2726] þat men han no cause ne matier to reprochen him þat defendeþ him of excessse and of outrage [ . . . . . no gap. ] [2727] ¶ Par de 3e knowe wel þat 3e makea non defense / as now for to defende 3ou But for to venge 3ou [2728] and so seweþ it þat 3e haue no wille to do 3oure dede attemperly [2729] and þerfore me þenkeþ<sup>1</sup> þat pacience is good ¶ for Salomon seiþ þat he þat is nought pacient schal haue greþ harme

[2730] ¶ Certes quod Melibbe ¶ I graunte wel þat when a man is vnpacient and wroþ of þat þat toucheþ him nouþt and þat aperteyneþ nouht vnto him þough hit harme him it is no wondre [2731] ¶ for þe lawe seiþ þat he þat is coupable þat entermeteþ him or medeleþ him wip suche þinge as aperteyneþ nouht vnto him [2732] ¶ And Salomon seiþ þat he þat entermeteþ him of þe noyse or þe strif of anoþer man is ylike to him þat takeþ an hunde by þe eres [2733] ¶ for riht is as he þat takeþ a strange hunde by þe eres is oþerwhile 7-lyten wip þe hunde / [2734] Riht in þe same wyse is þe reson þat he haue harme þat by his impacience medleþ him of þe noyse of anoþer man wher as it aperteyneþ nouht vnto him [2735] ¶ But 3e knowen wel þat þis dede þat

outrage. [2719] And þer-for 3e schul venge 3ou after þe ordere of ryht þat is to sailn<sup>1</sup> by þe lawe and by noon excessse no noon outrage. [2720] And also if 3e wil venge 3ou of þe outrage of youre aduersarios in oþer manere þan riht comaundeþ 3e synnen [2721] ¶ And þerfore seiþ Senoc. þat a man schal neuere venge schrewdenesse by schrewdenesse / [2722] And if 3e say þat riht axeþ a man to defende violence by violence. and fytynge by fytynge. [2723] certes 3e say soth. when þe defence is done anon with-outen interualle or wip-out tarynge or delay. [2724] for to defenden hym and not forto vengen hym. [2725] And it bihouep þat a man þat such attemperance in his defence [2726] þat men haue no cause no matere to reprochen hym þat defendeþ hym of excessse and of outrage. [car autrement ce seroit contre droit et contre raison (La M<sup>e</sup>on).] [2727] ¶ Parde 3e knowen well þat 3e maken noon defense as nowre forto defende 3ou but forto venge 3ou [2728] And so seweþ it þat 3e han no wille to doo 3oure dede attemperly. [2729] and þerfore me þenkeþ þat pacience is goode ¶ for Salomon seiþ: þat he þat is nat pacient schal haue grete harme

[2730] ¶ Certes quod meloby I graunte 3ou þat when a man is impacient and wroþ of þat þat toucheþ him nat and of þat þat perteyneþ not to hym. þouse it harme him it is no wondre [2731] ¶ for þe lawe seiþ. þat he is coupable. þat entermeteþ hym or medleþ hym wip suche þinge as aperteyneþ nat to hym [2732] ¶ And Salomon seiþ. That he þat entermeteþ hym of þe noyse or of þe strif of an oþer man is like to hym. þat takeþ þe hunde by þe eres [2733] and [aussi comme celui qui grent le chien par les oreilles] is oþer while biten wip þe hunde. [2734] ¶ Riht in þe same wise is it reson þat he haue harme þat by his impacience medleþ him of þe noyse of an oþer man. wher þat it aperteneþ not to him [2735] ¶ But 3e knowe wel þat þis dede and outrage [2719] And þere-fore 3e schollen venge 3ow after þe order of riht: þat is to saine be þe lawe: nouht be excessse ne be outrage: [2720] Also if 3e wil venge 3ou of þe outrage of youre aduersaries in oþere manere þan riht comaundeþ 3e synnen: [2721] ¶ Therefore seiþe Senoc That a man schal neuere venge schrewnesse by schrewnesse: [2722] a[n]d if he seiþ þat riht axeþ to defende violence be violence: An feiltynge he feyhtynge: [2723] Certes 3e seiþ soþe when þe defence is done riht anone wip-outen interualle or with-outen tarynge or delays [2724] for to defenden him & nouht for to vengen him: [2725] And it bo-houep þat a man putte suche temperance in his defenuse [2726] þat men haue no cause ne Matire to reproche him þat defendeþ him of excessse & outrage. [Car autrement Ce seroit contre droit et contre raison (Reg. 19 C xi)] [2727] ¶ Parde 3e wote wela þat 3e makee no defenese as nowre for to defende 3owe. bot for to venge 3owe [2728] ¶ And so seweþ it þat 3e haue no wil to 3oure dede attemperly: [2729] And þere-for me þinkeþ þat pacience is goode ¶ For Salomon seiþ: he þat is nouht pa'cient schal haue grete harme

[2730] ¶ Certes quod Melibbe .I. graunt wela þat when a man is vnpacient & wroþe of þat þat toucheþ him nouht & þat at aperteyneþ nouht to him: þouht it harme him it is no wondre [2731] for þe lawe seiþ: he þat is coupable: þat entre-meteþ him or medeleþ him wip suche þinges as perteyneþ nouht to him: [2732] ¶ And Salomon seiþ. That he þat entermeteþ him of þe noyse & þe strif of a noþere man is like to hime þat takeþ an hunde be þe eres: [2733] for riht is as he þat take a strange hunde be þe eres is oþer while beten wip þe honde: [2734] riht in þe same wise it be reson þat he haue harme. þat by his impacience medleþ him of þe noyse of anoþere man: wher as it apperteyneþ nouht vnto him [2735] ¶ Bot 3e knowen wela þat þis dede: þat is to seyn / my grief and my desee / toucheth me right ny // [2736] And therfore / though I be wroth and impacient / it is no merueille // [2737] And sauynge youre grace / I kan nat see / that it myghte greetly harme me / though I toke vengeance / [2738] for I am richer / and moore myghty than myne enemyes been / [2739] And wel knowne ye / that by moneye & by haunyng grete possessions / been alle the thynges of this world gouerned [2740] ¶ And Salomon seith ¶ That alle thynges / obeyen to moneye /.

¶ Salomon

[2741] ¶ Whanne Prudence / hadde herd hir housbonde ananten hym of his richesse and of his moneye / dispreyngge the power of hisse Aduersaries / she spak & seyde in this wise [2742] ¶ Certes / deere sire I graunte you that ye been riche and myghty / [2743] and that the richesse been goodde / to hem / pat han hom wel ygeten hem / and wel kunne vsee hem // [2744] For / right as the body of a man / may nat lyue with-oute the soule / namoure may it lyue / with-outen tempored goodes / [2745] And for richesces / may a man gete hym grete frendes [2746] ¶ And therfore seith Pamphilles ¶ If a netherdes doghter seith ho / ho riche / she may chesen of a thousand men / [requel quelle crult pour mary (MS Reg. 19 C. vii, ff 140)] [2747] for

¶ Pamphilles

of a thousand men / oon wol nat forsaken hire no refuson hire [2748] ¶ And this Pamphilles seith also ¶ If thou be right happy / that is to seyn / If thou be right riche / thou shalt fynde a greet nombre of felawes & frendes // [2749] And if thy fortune change / that thou wexe poure / farewel / frendshipe & felaweshipe / [2750] for thou shalt be al alone / with-outen any compaignye / but if it be / the compaignye of poure folk [2751] ¶ And yet seith this Pamphilles moreover ¶ That they that been thralle and boude of lynage shullen been maad worthy and noble by the richesces [2752] ¶ And right so / as by richesces / ther comen manye goodes / right so by pouerte / come ther manye harmes and yuelis / [2753] For greet pouerte con-

ELLESMEERE (6-r. 236) [leaf 167, back]

is to seyn / my grief and my desee / toucheth me right ny // [2736] And therfore / though I be wroth / and impacient / it is by no meraille // [2737] and sauynge youre grace / I kan nat so / pat it myghte greetly harme me / though I toke vengeance / [2738] for I am richer & moore myghty / than myne enemyes been / [2739] and wel knowne ye / pat by moneye & by haunyng grete possessions / been alle the thynges of this world gouerned // [2740] And Salomon seith ¶ That alle thynges obeyen to moneye

[2741] ¶ Whanne Prudence / hadde herd hir housbonde ananten hym / of his richesse & of his moneye / dispreyngge / the power of hisse Aduersaries / she spak & seyde in this wise // [2742] Certes deere sire / I graunte you / pat ye been / riche & myghty / [2743] & pat the richesces been goodde / to hem / pat han wel ygeten hem / & pat wel kunne vsee hem // [2744] For right as the body of a man / may nat lyue with-oute the soule / namoure may it lyue / with-oute the temporel goodes / [2745] and by richesces / may a man gete hym grete frendes // [2746] ¶ And therfore / with Pamphilles ¶ If Anetherdes doghter / he seith / ho riche / she may chese / of a thousand men / which she wol take to hir housbonde // [2747] for

of a thousand men / oon wol nat forsaken hire / no refuson hire // [2748] And this Pamphilles seith also ¶ If thou be right happy / that is to seyn / If thou be right riche / thou shalt fynde / a greet nombre of felawes & frendes / [2749] and if thy fortune change / that thou wexe poure / farewel / frendshipe & felaweshipe / [2750] for thou shalt be / al alone / with-outen any compaignye / but if it be / the compaignye of poure folk [2751] ¶ And yet seith this Pamphilles moreover ¶ That they pat been / thralle & boude of lynage / shuln be maad / worthy and noble by the richesces / [2752] and right so as by richesces / ther comen manye goodes / right so by pouerte / come ther manye harmes & yuelis // [2753] For greet pouerte / con-

HANGWRT (6-r. 236) [leaf 159]

is to seyne / myn greef & myn deseece toucheth me ryzt pow / [2736] And therfore thou I be wroth & impacient / it is no meruayle // [2737] And sauynge youre grace / I can not seen that it myste greetly harme me / thou I tok vengeance [2738] sfor I am richere & moore myst than myne enemy is been // [2739] And weel knowe 3e that by monze & by haunyng / grete possessions been alle thyngis of this world / gouernyd [2740] ¶ And salomon seith That alle these thyngis obeyen to moneye .

[2741]

¶ Whanne Prudence hadde herd these wordis of hire housiande how he auanted hym of hese richesse / and of hise meane / diqueweyngge the power / of hise aduersaryis / scho spak & seyde in this wyse // [2742] Certis deere sere / I graunte 3ow that 3e been riche / & myghtly / [2743] & that the richesce been goodde to hem / that han weel Igetyn hem and that weel kunne vsee hem // [2744] For ryth as the body of a man may not leue with-outen the soule / no moore may it leue with-oute the temporel goodis / [2745] and by richesce may a man getyn hym best frendis / [2746] And therfore seyth Pamphilles ¶ If Auertthes doghter he seyth be ryche / Scho may chesen of a thousand men [ . . . . . ] [2747] . . . . .

no oop in the MS.] / oon wete not forsaken hire no refueryn hire / [2748] And this Pamphilles seith also / If thou be rytz happy / that is to seyno / If thou be rytz ryche / thou shalt fyndyn a greet nombre of felawys & frendis / [2749] And 3if thyn fortune chonge / Fare weel frendeshepe & felaweshepe / [2750] for thouw schat be alone / with-outyn any companye / But if it be the companye of poure folk [2751] ¶ And 3if seyth this Pamphilles moore ouer / That they that been / boude & thralle / of lynage schuln been made worthy & noble bi the richesces [2752] & rytz so as by richeschis there comyn manye goodyis / rytz so by pouerte / comyn there manye harmys / & euellis / [2753] For greet pouerte / con-

CAMBRIDGE (6-r. 236) [leaf 165]

is to sayn my grief and myn disece touchep me right neigh [2736] And þerfore þough I be wroþ and impacient it is no meruaylle [2737] ¶ And sauynge youre grace I can nouȝt so þat it mighte greȝly harme þough I toke vengeance [2738] ¶ For I am richer and more mighty þen myn enmys ben [2739] ¶ And wel knowe þe alle þe kynges of þis world gouernede [2740] ¶ And Salomon seiþ. alle þinges obeyen to moneye

[2741] ¶ Whan Prudonce hadde herd hire housbando ausunten him of his riches and of his moneye and disprey-nyng of power and his aduersaries ¶ She spake and seyde on þis wise [2742] ¶ Certis drete sirs I grunne ȝou þat ȝe ben riche and mighty [2743] ¶ And þat þe richesses ben goode to hem þat han wel y-geten hem and þat wel can veen hem [2744] ¶ For riȝt as þe body of man may nouȝt lyue withoute þe soule ¶ No more may it lyue withouten temperede goodes [2745] And by rich-esse may a man geten him grace [2746] ¶ And þerfore seiþ Pamphilles If eny goddes doughter he seiþ he riche. Sche may chese he seiþ of a þousand man [which she will for her husband [2747] and of the thousand] ¶ oon wil nouȝt forsaken hire no refusen hire [2748] ¶ And þis Pamphilles seiþ also ¶ If þou be riȝt happy ¶ þat is to say. If þou be riȝt riche þou schalt fynden a gret nombre of felawes and frendes [2749]
¶ And if þin fortune changeþ þat is if þou wexe pore. fare wel frendschipe and falschipe [2750] ¶ For þou schalt ben allone withouten any companye but if it be þe companye of good folk [2751] ¶ And ȝit seiþ þis Pamphilles more ouer / þat þey þat ben þralle & bonde of linyage schulin ben maad worȝy and noble by þe richesses. [2752] ¶ And riȝt so as by richesses þer comen many goodes ¶ Riȝt so by pouert comep many harmes and euels. [2753] for gret pouert con-þis gret and þis disece touchep me riȝt nyȝt. [2736] And þerfore þough I be wroþe and impacient it is no meruelle. [2737] and sauynge youre grace I can not see þat it myȝt greȝlic harme me.

þough I toke vengeance [2738] for I am richer and more myȝty þan myn enemies bene. [2739] And wel knowne ȝee þat by moneye and by hauynge grete posse-sions bene all þingges of þis world y-gouerned [2740] ¶ And Salomon seiþ. þat all þingges obeyen to monay.

[2741] [*Prudence, quant elle oy son mary vanter de sa richesse et de sa puissance, et soy esjouir, et disprey-nyng þe poor of his aduersaries. The she spak and seide in þis wise. [2742] Certes drete sirs I grunne ȝou þat ȝe bene riche and myȝty. [2743] and þat richesses ben good to hem þat han wel gotten hem. and þat wel can veen hem [2744] for riȝt as þe body of a man: may not lyue wiȝ-out þe soule. no more may it lyue wiȝ-out temporal goodes. [2745] And by rich-esse may a man gete hym grete worship [2746] ¶ And þerfore seiþ Pamphilles. if an meterde doughter he seiþ he riche she may chese of a thousand man [quel qu'elle veult pour son mary [2747] car (Le Ménagier, tome i) [. . . no gap in the MS.] oon wil not forsake her ne refuse her. [2748] And þis Pamphilles seiþ also ¶ if þou be riȝt happy þat is to say riȝt riche þou schalt fynde a grete nombre of felawes and frendes. [2749]
And if þi fortune that þou wexe poor. fare wel frendship and falschipe. [2750] for þou schalt bene allone wiȝ-oute any companye. but if it be þe
companye of good folk [2751] // And ȝit seiþ þis Pamphilles more ouer þat þei þat bene thral and bonde of linyage. schullen be maad worȝi and noble by richesses [2752] And riȝt so as by richesses þer commen many goodes. Riȝt so by pouert þer commen many harmes and euels. [2753] for grete pouerte con-* is to seio my greue & my disece touchep me riȝt nyȝt. [2736] ¶ And þer-for þeiȝ I. be wroþe & impacient:

it is no meruelle [2737] ¶ And sauynge youre grace. I. can nouȝt see þat it myȝt greȝly harme þouȝ. I. take vengeance [2738] for. I. am more Richer & myȝte þan myne enmys biene. [2739] ¶ And welle knowe þe þat be mony & he hauynge grete posse-sions bien al þingge of þis world gouernede [2740] ¶ And Salomon seiþ All þingges obeyne to moneye!

[2741] ¶ Whan prudonce had herd hir husbondo to auanten him of his riches & of his moneye! & disprey-nyng of þe pouer of his aduersaries! Sche spak & seiðe on þis wise [2742] [Certes treschier sires] I. grounne þat ȝe be riȝt riche & myȝtly! [2743] ¶ And þe riȝches biene goode to hem þat haue welle gotten hem. & þat welle can veen hem [2744] ¶ For riȝt as þe body of man maiȝt leue withouten soule: ne more may it leue wiȝ-outen temperale goodes [2745] ¶ And he rich-esse may a man geten him grace: [2746] ¶ And þer-for seiþ Pamphilles: If any goddes doughter he seiþ be riche! sche maiȝt chese he seiþ of a þousand man. [quel quelle veult pour mary [2747] Et de mit (MS Reg. 19 C xi, leaf 61, back, col. 1)] one wil not forsaken hur ne refusen hire. [2748] ¶ And þis Pamphilles seiþe al so if þou be riȝt happy: þat is to seio if þou be riȝt riche þou schalt finde a grete nombre of frendes & felawes [2749]
¶ And if þi fortun changeþ þat if þou wexe pore! fare welle frencschipp & þelouschipe! [2750] for þou schalt be alone wiȝ-outen any company. but if be þe compaigne of good folk [2751] ¶ And ȝitte seiþe þis Pamphilles more ouere: þat þei þat bien þralle & bonde of linyage scholene be maade worþe & noble be richesse! [2752] And riȝt so as be ryches þere comen mony godes: Riȝt so be pouert comep mony harmes & yuels: [2753] for grete pouerte con-streyneth a man / to do manye yueles / [2754] And therfore clopeth Cassidore / pouerte / the mooder of Ruyne / ¶ Cassidore [2755] that is to seyn / the mooder of ouerthrowynge / or ¶ Petrus Alfonsi fallynge down [2756] ¶ And therfore seith Piers Alfonse ||

 Oon of the gretteste Aduersitees of this world is / [2757]
 when a free man / by kynde / or of burthe is constrayned by pouerte / to eten / the almese of his enemy [2758] ¶ And ¶ Innocencius the same seith Innocent in oon of his bookes || he seith / that sorweful and myshappy / is the condicion of a poure beggere / [2759] for if he axe nat his mete / he dyeth for hunger / [2760] And if he axe / he dyeth for shame /
 And algates necessitee constrayneth hym to axe || [2761]
 ¶ Salomon And therfore seith Salomon || That bet it is to dye / than for to haue swich pouerte : [2762] ¶ And as the same Salomon seith ¶ Betre it is to dye of bitter deoth than for to lyuen / in swich wice [2763] ¶ By thise reasons / that I haue seyd vn-to yow / and by manye othere reasons that I koude seye / [2764] I graunte yow / that richesses been goode to hem / that geten hem wel / and to hem that wel vren the richesses [2765] ¶ And therfore wel I shewe
 yow / how ye shul haue yow / and how ye shul bere yow in gaderynge of richesses / and in what manere / ye shul
 vren hem

[2766] ¶ first ye shul geten hem with-outen greet desir / by good leiser sekyngh / and nat ouer hastily / [2767] for a man that is to desyrynge to gete richesses / abandoneth hym first to thefte / and to alle othere yueles [2768] ¶ And therfore seith Salomon ¶ He that hasteth hym to bisily / to wexe riche shal be noon Innocent [2769] ¶ He seith also / that the richesse that hastily cometh to a man / soone and lightly / gooth and passeth for a man [2770] ¶ but that richesse / that cometh lital and lital wexeth alwey and multiplieth [2771] ¶ And sire / ye shul gete richesses / by youre wit / and by youre traueille vn-to youre profit. [2772] and that with-outen wrong / or harm
 doynge / to any oother persone [2773] ¶ for the lewe

streyneth a man / to do manye yueles || [2754] And therfore clopeth Cassidore / pouerte / the moder of Ruyne / [2755] that is to seyn / the moder of ouerthrowynge / or fallynge down [2756] ¶ And therfore / seith Piers Alfonse ||
 Oon of the gretteste Aduersitees of this world / is / [2757]
 when a free man / by kynde / or of burthe / is constrayned
 by pouerte / to eten / the almese of his enemy [2758] And the same seith Innocent in oon of his bookes || he seith / That sorweful & myshappy / is the condicion of a poure beggere / [2759] for if he axe nat his mete: he dyeth for hungir / [2760] And if he axe / he dyeth for shame /
 and algates necessitee constrayneth hym to axe || [2761]
 And therfore seith Salomon || That betre it is to dye / than
 for to haue swich pouerte || [2762] And as the same Salomon seith / Betre it is / to dye of bitter deoth / than for to lyuen in swich wice [2763] ¶ By thise reasons / þat I haue seyd vn-to yow / and by manye othere reasons / þat I koude seye / [2764] I graunte yow / þat richesses been goode / to hem þat geten hem wel / and to hem / þat wel
 vren the richesses || [2765] And therfore wel I shewe
 yow / how ye shul haue yow / and how ye shul bere yow
 in gaderynge of richesses / and in what manere / ye shul
 vren hem

[2766] ¶ first ye shul geten hem with-outen greet
 desir / by good leiser sekyngh / and nat ouer hastily :
 [2767] for a man that is to desyrynge to gete richesses /
 abandoneth hym first to thefte / & to alle othere yueles ||
 [2768] And therfore seith Salomon || he þat hasteth
 hym to bisily to wexe riche / shal be noon Innocent || [2769]
 He seith also / that the richesse / þat hastily cometh to a man: soone & lightly gooth and passeth from a man || [2770] But that richesse þat cometh lital & lital / wexeth alwey & multiplieth || [2771] And sire / ye shullen gete richesses / by youre wit / & by youre traueille vn-to youre profit / [2772] and that with-outen wrong / or harm
 doynge / to any oother persone || [2773] For the lewe

streyneth a man to doon manye euellis / [2754] And th[er]efore clopeth Cassidore / pouerte / the mooder of ruine / [2755] that is to seyne the modyr of ouerthrowynge or of fallynge down / [2756] And therfore seith Piers Alfonse On of the gretteste aduersitees of this world is [2757] when a fre man by kynde / or of burthe is constrayned / bi pouerte / to ete to almese / of hise enemy / [2758] &
 the same seith Innocent in oon of hise bookis || he seith that sorweful & myshappi is the condicions of a poure beggere / [2759] for if he axe nat his meete / he dieth fore hungir / [2760] And gif he axe / he dieth for ¶ schame /
 And algates necessitee constrayneth hym to axe || [2761]
 And therfore seith Salomon / betere is to dye / than for to haue swich pouerte / [2762] And as the same Salomon seith Betere it is to deye of bitter deeth: than for to leuyn in swich wyse / [2763] By thise reasons / that I haue seyd vn-to yow / & by manye othere reasons / that I koude seye / [2764] I graunte yow that richess is been goode to hem that hem getyn wel / And to hem that wel vryn the rycheiss / [2765] and therfore wel I shewe iow how þe schul haue iow in {amassent} lre (La Ménagerie, i. 222) rycheiss & in what manere þe schul vren hem /

[2766] Fyrst 3o schul gete hem with-outyn greet desyr / bi good leyseer / sokynghly but nat ouer hastily / [2767] for a man that is to desyrynge / to gete rycheiss / abandonyth hym fyrst to thefte & to alle othere euyllis / [2768] And therfore seith Salomon he that hastyth hym to bisily to wexen ryche / he schal be noon innocet / [2769] he seyth also that the rycheess that hastily comth to a man: soone and lightly goth & passeth from a man / [2770] But that richesse that comyth lityl & lityl / wexeth alwey & multiptroth / [2771] And sere 3o schul gete richess by youre wit / & by youre traauyle / vn-to youre profyt [2772] & that with-outyn wrong or harm dolege to any othir persone / [2773] For the law

streynep<sup>e</sup> 'a man to don many euels. [2754] And þerefore clepeþ Cassidore Pouert'. þe mooder of ruyne [2755] þat is to say þe modor of ouerþrowynge or fallinge down [2756] ¶ And þerefore saith Pieres alphouns ¶ On of þe grettest aduersarys of þis world is [2757] when a free by kynde or of birþe is constrayned by pouert to eten þe almes of his enemy [2758] ¶ And þe same seiþ Innocent' in oon of his bookes. þat sorwfulle and mysþappy is þe condicion of a pouere begger [2759] ¶ flor ift he axe nought' his mete he deyep for hunger [2760] ¶ And if he axe he deyep for schame ¶ And algates necessite constrayneþ him to axe [2761] ¶ And þerefore seiþ Salomon þat bettre is to dyeþ þan to haue such pouert' [2762] ¶ ¶ 30<sup>e</sup> seiþ Salomon þat bettre is to dyeþ of bitter deþ þan for to lyue in suche wyse [2763] ¶ By þese resonis þat I haue sayde vnto þou and by many oþer resonis þat I koude say [2764] ¶ I graunte þou þat richesse ben good to hem þat geten hem wel and to hem þat wel ven þe richesses [2765] ¶ And þerefore wil I schowe þow how þe schuln haue þou [en acquiescent Richesses et en amassant telles (MS Reg. 19 C vii, leaf 140, back.)]

[2766] ¶ first' 30 schuln geten hem wijouten gret desire. by good leyair sokingly and nouht ouer hastily [2767] ¶ for a man þat is to desyringe to gete richesse' abandoneþ him first' to þeste and to alle oþer euels [2768] ¶ And þerefore seiþ Salomon ¶ he þat hasteþ him ouer busily to waxe ryche schal ben non Innocent' [2769] ¶ He seiþ also þat þe richesse þat hastily comþeþ to a man. some and lightly goþ and passeþ for a man [2770] ¶ But þat richesse þat comþeþ lytel and litel waxeþ alway and multiplieþ [2771] ¶ And sire 30 schal gete richesse ynough by þoure witte and by þoure traouaile vnto þoure profyt' [2772] and þat wijouten wrang' or harme doynge to any oþer persons [2773] ¶ flor þe lawe

streyneth a man to doo many euels [2754] ¶ And þerefore clepeþ Cassidore pouert'. þe modere ruyne. [2755] That is to say þe modere of ouerþrowynge or fallinge downe [2756] ¶ And þerefore Pers Alfons seiþ. Oon of þe grettest' aduersites of þis world is [2757] when a free [man] by kinde is constrayned by pouert' to eten þe almes of his enemy [2758] ¶ And þe Same Seiþ Innocent' in oon of his bookes. He seiþ þat sorful and vnsappy is þe condition of a poor begger. [2759] flor if he askeþ not' his mete he deyep for hungers. [2760] [et se ils demandent, ils meurent de honte;] Necessite constrayneþ hym to sake. [2761] ¶ And þerefore seiþ Salomon. That better is to dye þan forto haue suche pouerte [2762] ¶ And as þe Same Salomon seiþ Better is to dye a bitter deþ þan forto lyuen in swich wyse [2763] ¶ By þise resonis þat I haue seide vnto þowe and by' mony resonis þat I koude saie [2764] I graunte þat richesses bene good to hem' þat geten hem weil And vsen hem weil. [2765] ¶ And þerefore wil I shewe þow how þe schul haue þou. and howe þe schal here þou in gaderinge of richesses. and in what' manere þe schal vsen hem streynep a man to done many yuels [2754] ¶ And þerefore clepeþ Cassidore. pouert. þe modor of ruyen. [2755] þat is to seiþ þe modor of ouerþrowynge. or fallinge downe. [2756] And þerefor seiþ Pers Alphon. One of þe grettest aduersarys of þis world is: [2757] when a frē be kinde or of birþe is constrayned be pouert to eten þe almes of his enemye: [2758] ¶ And þe same seiþ. Innocent In one of his bokes seiþ þat þe sorwe'ful & þe mys happe is þe condicion of a pouer beggers. [2759] flor if He axeþ wouht his mete he deyep for hungere: [2760] And if he ax he deyep for schame: And algates necessite constrayneþ him to axe. [2761] ¶ And þerefor seiþ Salomon: þat better is to deiþ þan to haue suche pouert: [2762] 3ut seiþ Salomon: þat better is to deiþ of bitter deþe þan for to leue in suche wise: [2763] Be þise resonis þat .I. haue seide vnto þowe: and be many oþere resonis þat .I. koude sei: [2764] I graunt þow wels þat riches bene good to hem þat geten hem wels: & to hem þat wels vsen hem. [2765] ¶ And þerefore wil .I. schowe þowe howe þe schall haue þowe: [en amassant les richesses et en veant de celles (MS Reg. 19 C xi, if 61, back, col. 2.)]

[2766] first' 30 schal geten hem with-out grote desire. by good leisere sokingly. and not' ourchastely. [2767] flor a man þat is to desyringe to gete richesse. abandoneþ hym to þest' and to all oþer euels [2768] ¶ And þerefore seiþ Salomon ¶ he þat hasteþ hym to bysily to waxe riche: schal be noon Innocent' [2769] ¶ He seiþ also þat þe Richesse þat hastily comþeþ to a man. some and lightly goþ and passeþ from hym [2770] ¶ But þat richesse þat comþeþ alway litel and litel. waxeþ alway and multiplieþ [2771] ¶ And sire 30 schal gete richesse by þoure witte. and by þoure traouaile. vnto þoure profite [2772] and þat wij-outen wronge or harme doynge to any oþer persons. [2773] flor þe lawe

[2766] ¶ First 30 schol geten hem with-out grote desire be good leyre so-kingly & nouht ouer Hastely: [2767] flor a man þat is to desyringe to gete riches' abundoneneþ him first to þest': & to all oþere yuels: [2768] ¶ And þerefore seiþ Salomon. He þat hasteþ him ouer besily to wax riche schal be none Innocent: [2769] Ife seiþ also þat þe richesse þat hastily comþeþ to a man. Some & lyhtly goþe & passeþ for a man: [2770] ¶ But þat richesse þat comþeþ litel & lytol waxeþ alweic & multiplieþ: [2771] ¶ And sire 30 schal gete richesse ynough be þoure witte & be þoure traouaile vnto þoure profite [2772] ¶ And þat wij-outen wronge or harme: doynge to any oþere person: [2773] ¶ For þe lawe

seith / that ther maketh no man himseluen riche / if he do harm / to another wright || [2774] This is to seyn / that nature defendeth & forbodeth by right that no man make hym-self riche / vn-to the harm of another persone

¶ Tullius

[2775] ¶ And Tullius seith || þat no sorwe / ne no drede of deeth / ne no thyng that may falle vn-to a man / [2776] is so muchel agayns nature / as a man to exccessen his owene profit / to the harm of another man || [2777] And though the grete men & the myghty men geten richesess moore lightly than thou / [2778] yet shalton nat been ydel ne slow to do thy profit / for thou shalt in alle wise fle ydelnesse [2779] ¶ For Salomon seith / that ydelnesse / techeth a man to do manye yueles [2780] ¶ And the same Salomon seith || That he that trauailith and bisieþ hym to tilien his land / shal ete bread [2781] but he that is ydel / and casteth hym to no besynesse no occupaciō / shal falle in-to pouerte / and dye for hunger [2782] ¶ And he þat is ydel & slow / kan neuere fynde couenable tyme for to doon his profit. [2783] ¶ For ther is a versifour seith / that the ydel man excuseth hym in wynter / by cause of the grete coold / and in somer / by excuseth of the hete ||

¶ Salomon

¶ Vaude vrsator

¶ Cato

¶ Seneca Truculitas

[2784] ¶ For these causes seþ Cato || waketh and enclyneth yow nat ouer mychel / for to slepe / for ouer muchel resto noriseth and causeth manye vices || [2785] And therefore / seith Seint Jerome || Doth some goodes / that the deuil / which is oure enemy / ne fynde yow nat vnoccupied. [2786] ¶ For the deuil ne taketh nat lightly vn-to his werkynge swiche as he fyndeth occupied in goode werkis

[2787] ¶ Thanne thus / In getynge richesess / yo mosten fle ydelnesse || [2788] And afterward ye shal vse the richesess / which ye haue gotten / by youre wit and by youre trauaille / [2789] in swich a manere / that men holde nat yow / to scars ne to sparngye ne to fool large / that is to seyn / ouer large a spendere / [2790] for right as men blamen an Auaricious man / by cause / of his scarcitee and chynerie / [2791] In the same wise is he to blame

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 238) (leaf 18B)

seith || that ther maketh no man hym self riche / if he do harm / to another wright || [2774] this is to seyn / that nature defendeth & forbodeth by right þat no man make hym self riche / vn-to the harm of another persone [2775] ¶ And Tullius seith / that no sorwe / ne no drede of deeth / ne no thyng that may falle vn-to a man / [2776] is so muchel agayns nature / as a man / to exccessen his owene profit / to the harm of another man : [2777] And though the grete men and the myghty men geten richesess . moore lightly than thou : [2778] yet shalton nat. be ydel ne slow / to do thy profit for thou shalt in alle wise / fle ydelnesse || [2779] for Salomon seith || that ydelnesse techeth a man to do manye yueles || [2780] And the same Salomon seith / that he þat trauailith & bisieþ hym / to tilien his land : shal ete bread / [2781] but [he] þat is ydel and casteth hym to no besynesse no occupaciō / shal falle in-to pouerte and dye for hunger / [2782] And he þat is ydel & slow : kan neuere fynde couenable tyme / for to do his profit || [2783] for ther is a versifour seith || that the ydel man excuseth hym in wynter / by cause of the grete coold / and in somer / by excuseth of the hete ||

[2784] ¶ For these causes seith Cato || waketh / and enclyneth yow nat ouer mychel / for to slepe / for ouer mychel 'reste / noriseth and causeth manye vices || [2785] And therefore / seith Seint Jerome || Doth some goodes dedes / þat the deuil / which is oure enemy / ne fynde yow nat vnoccupied. [2786] for the deuil / ne taketh nat lightly vn-to his werkynge / swiche as he fyndeth occupied in goode werkis

[2787] ¶ Thanne thus / In getynge richesess / yo mosten fle ydelnesse / [2788] and afterward ye shal vse the richesess which ye haue gotten / by youre wit and by youre trauaille / [2789] in swich a manere / þat men holde yow nat / to scars / ne to sparngye / ne to fool large / that is to seyn / ouer large a spendere / [2790] for right as men blamen an Auarous man / by cause of his scarcitee & chynerie : [2791] in the same wise is he to blame /

HENGWIRT (6-T. 238) (leaf 25B)

seyth / that there makyth no man hym ryche / if he do harm to a-nothyr wright . [2774] this is to seyne / that nature defendyth / & forbodeth by ryght / that no man make hym self ryche / vn-to the harm of a-nothyr / persone. [2775] And tullius seyth / that no sorwe ne no drede / of deth ne nothing that may falle vn-to a man [2776] is so meeche agayns nature / as a man to oppress his owene profit / to the harm of a-nothir man / [2777] And thow the greete men / & the myghty men / getyn richesiss / moore lightly than thou / [2778] sit schalt thu nat been ydyll ne slow to don thyñ profit for thou schalt in alle wise / fleen ydelnesse / [2779] for Salomon seyth / that idilnesse techith a man to doon manye eyyllis / [2780] And the same Salomon seyth that he that trauailith / & besieþ hym to tilyn his lond schal etyn breed / [2781] But he that is idyl & enstyth hym to no besynesse / no occupacioun schal falle in-to pouerte / & deye for hungir / [2782] And he that is ydil & slow / kan neuere fyndyn couenable tyme for to doon his profyt [2783] for ther is a versifour seyth / that the ydele man excuseth hym in wynter bi cause of greet coold / & in somer / by cause of the greete hete / [2784] For these causes / seyth catoñs wakyth & enclynyth

þow nat ouyrmeeche for to slepe / for ouyrmeeche slep causeth & norichith manye vices [2785] And therefore seyth seynt Ierome / doth some goode dedes / that the deuil / which is oure enemy / ne fynde þow nat vn-occupied / [2786] For the deuil takyth nat lystely vn-to hisse werkynge swiche as he fyndyth occupied in goodo workis /

[2787] Thanne thus in getynge richesess the munto fleen idilnesse / [2788] & aftyrward 3e schul vse the rychesess / which 3e han getyn by 3oure wit And by 3oure trauayle / [2789] in swich manere that men holdyn þow nat to scars ne to sparngye / no fool large / that is to seyne ouyr large a spendere / [2790] For ryht as men blamyñ an auericious man / by cause of hisse scarcitee & chynchery : [2791] ryht so / in the same wise / is he to blame

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 238) (leaf 24B)

saip þat þer makeþ <sup>an</sup> man himself riche if he do harme to anoþer wight [2774] [Car la loy dit que nul ne se face riche au dommaige d'autruy (Le Ménagier de Paris, tome 1. page 223)] [2775] ¶ And Tullius saip ¶ þat no sorwe ne do drede of deþ ne no þing þat may falle vnto man [2776] is so mochlil azeins nature ¶ as a man to encrese his owne profyt to þe harme of anoþer man [2777] ¶ And þouþ þe grete men and þe riche men geten richesse more lightly þan þou [2778] 3ei schalt þou nouþt ben ydel no slowe to don þin profyt ¶ for þou schalt in alle wise fleo ydelnesse [2779] ¶ for Salomon saip þat ydelnesse techeþ man to don many euels [2780] ¶ And eak he saip þat he þat trauaileþ and busyeþ him to tylyen his lande schal eten breed [2781] but he þat is ydel and casteþ him nought to do busynesse ne occupacion schal falle in-to pouert and deye for hunger [2782] ¶ and he þat is ydel & slowh can neuer fynde counsaile tyme for to doon his profyte [2783] for þer is a versifour þat saip þat þe ydel man excuseth hym in wynter by cause of þe grete colde ¶ And in somer by cause of þe grete hete [2784] ¶ for þise causes saip Caton ¶ Wakeþ and enlyneþ þou nought ouer mochlil for to slepe ¶ for ouermoche rest norssheth and causeþ many vices [2785] ¶ And þerfore saip Seint Ierom ¶ Dop some goode dedes þat þe deuyl which is our enemy ne fynde þou vnoccupied [2786] ¶ for þe deuyl ne takeþ nouþt lightly vnto his worchinge suche as he fyndeþ y-occupied in goode werkes

[2787] ¶ Thanno þus ¶ In getyngne riches 3e mosten fleo ydelnesse [2788] ¶ and afterward 3e schuln vse þe richesþe þe which 3e han geten by þoure witte and by þoure trauaile [2789] in suche a manere þat men holden þou not to scarce ne to sparyngne ne to fool large þat is to say ouer large a spender [2790] ¶ for rihþ as men blamen an auarous man by cause of his skarst and þinkinge [2791] in þe same wyse is he to blame

saip ¶ That he ne makeþ nat hym self riche. 3if he do harme to a noþer wight [2774] ¶ This is to say þat nature defendeth and forbedeth by ryght. þat 'no man make him self riche wip þe harme of a noþere person. [2775] ¶ And Tullius saip. þat no sorowne no no drede of deth ne of þouþt þat may falle to a man [2776] is so mochel azeins nature as a man to encrese his owne profite to þe harme of anoþer man [2777] ¶ And þouþe þe grete men and þe riche men geten rychesse more listly þan þou. [2778] 3it schalt þou nat be ydel no aclewe to þi prophete. for þou schalt in al þinge and in al wise fle ydelnesse [2779] ¶ for Salomon saip That ydelnesse techeþ a man to do many euels [2780] ¶ And þe Same Salomon saip. þat he þat trauailleþ and bysieþ him to tille his londe schal ete þe brede. [2781] But he þat is ydel and casteþ him to doo no bynesse ne occupacion schal falle into pouert and dys for lungere. [2782] And he þat is ydel and slowe. can neuer fynde counaile tyme forte do his profite [2783]. ¶ for þer is a versifour þat saip. That þe ydel man excuseth hym in wynter. be cause of þe grete colde. And in somer by encheson of þe grute hete [2784] ¶ for þise causes saip Caton ¶ Wakeþ and enlyneþ þou not ouermoche forte slepe. for ouer moche rest norssheth and causeþ many vices [2785] ¶ And þerfore saip seint Ierom ¶ Dop some good dedys þat þe deuyl which is our enemy ne fynde þou nat vnoccupied. [2786] for þe deuyl ne takeþ not listly vnto his worchinge suche as he fyndeþ occupied in goode werkes

[2787] ¶ Than þus in getyng of Richeesse 3e moten fleo ydelnesse / [2788] ¶ and afterward 3e schul vse þe richesþe which 3e han geten by þoure witte and by þoure trauaile [2789] in suche a manere þat men holde þou nat to scarce. ne to sparyngne. ne to fool large. þat is to sayn ouer large a spendere [2790] ¶ for rihþ as men blamen an Auarous man by cause of his skarstet and chycherio [2791] In þe same manere is he blamed

saip þere makeþ no man him self riche if he do harme to anoþere wight [2774] [Car la loy dit que droit et nature defendent que nuls ne se face riche au dommaige d'autruy (MS Reg. 19 C xi, ff 62, col. 1)] [2775] ¶ And Tullius saip þat no sorwe ne no drede of deþe ne no þing þat maie fall to a man [2776] is so muche azeins nature: As a man to encrese his owen profite to þe harme of anoþere man [2777] ¶ And þouþe þe grete men & þe riche men geten richesse more lightly þan þou: [2778] 3it schalt þou nouht bien ydel ne slowe to done þi profit: for þou schalt in a man [2776] is so muche azeins nature: As a man to encrese his owen profite to þe harme of anoþere man [2777] ¶ And þouþe he saip þat he þat trauaileþ & bysieþ him to tillen his londe schal eten brede [2781] Bot þat is Idel & casteþ him nought to do no besines ne occupacion schal fall in-to pouert & deye for hunger: [2782] And he þat is ydel & slowhe ne can neuer finde counsaile tyme For to done his profite [2783] ¶ For þere is a versifour þat saip þe ydel man excuseth him in winter because of þe grete colde: and in somer be cause of þe grete hete: [2784] for þes causoz saip Caton: Wakeþ & enlyneþ þou nouht ouere mechel for to slepe For ouere muche rust causeth & norssheth many vices [2785] ¶ And þerfore saip seinte Ierome Dop some goode dedes þat þe deuyl which is our enemy ne fynde þou vn-occupied: [2786] ¶ For þe deuyl ne takeþ nouht lightly vn-to his worchinge suche as he fyndeþ yoccupied in good werkes:

[2787] ¶ Than þus in geteyngne riches 3e mot siþo ydelnesse: [2788] ¶ and afterward 3e scholne vse þe richesþe þe which 3e hane getten be þoure witte & be þoure trauaile [2789] In suche a maner þat men holden þou nouht scarce ne to sparyngne ne to foolle largf þat is to soie ouere large a spender: [2790] For rihþ as men blam an auarous man be cause of his skarstet & þinkinge [2791] in same wyse: he is to blame that spendeth ouer largely // [2792] And therefore seith Caton ¶ Vso he seith / thy richesses that thou hast gotten [2793] in swich a manere / that men haue / no matiere no cause / to calle thee / neiþer wreche no chynche / [2794] for it is a greet shame to a man / to haue a pouere herte and a riche purs [2795] ¶ He seith also / the goodes that thou hast yeten / vso hem by mesure / that is to seyn / spende hem mesurably / [2796] for they that folily / wasten and despenden / the goodes that they han s̄ [2797] when they han namore propre of hir owene / they shapen hem to take the goodes of another man // [2798] ¶ I seye thanne / that ye shal foor Auarice / [2799] veynge your richesses / in swich manere / that man seye nat þat youre richesses been yburied / [2800] but þat ye haue hem in youre myght and in youre weldyng [2801] ¶ for a wys man / repreueth the Auaricious man / and seith thus / in two vers [2802] ¶ Wherto and why / buryeth a man his goodes by his grette Auarice / and knoweth wel that nedes moste he dye / [2803] for death is the ende of every man / as in this present lyf [2804] ¶ And for what cause / or eschon ioyneþ he hym / or knytteth he hym / so faste vn-to his goodes / [2805] that alle hisse wittes mouen nat disseueren hym / or departen hym from hisse goodes / [2806] and knoweth wel / or eghte knowe / that when he is deed / he shal no thyng bere with hym out of this world [2807] ¶ And therefore seith seint Augustyn // That the Auaricious man is likned vn-to helle / [2808] that the moore it swelweth / the moore desir it hath to swolwe and denoure / [2809] And as wel / as ye wolde eschewe / to be called an Auaricious man / or chynche / [2810] as wel sholdo ye kepe yow and gouerne yow / in swich a wise / that men calle yow nat fool large [2811] ¶ Therefore seith Tullius // The goodes he seith of thyn hous / no sholdo nat been hyd / no kept so clos / but that they myghte been opened by pitee and debonairetee [2812] ¶ that is to seyn / to yowen part to hem that han greet neede / [2813]

þat spendeth ouer largely / [2792] and therefore seith Caton ¶ Vso he seith thy richesses / þat thou hast yeten / [2793] in swich a manere / þat men haue no matiere no cause / to calle thee / neiþer wreche ne chynche / [2794] for it is greet shame to a man / to haue a pouere herte and a riche purs // [2795] He seith also / the goodes þat
thou hast yeten / vso hem by mesure / that is to seyn / spende mesurably / [2796] for they / þat folily wasten and despenden / the goodes þat they han : [2797] when they han namore propre of hir owene: they shapen hem /
to take the goodes of another man // [2798] I seye thanne / that ye shal fo Auarice / [2799] veynge youre richesses in swich manere / þat men seye nat / þat youre richesses
been yburied / [2800] but þat ye haue hem in youre
myght and in youre weldyng // [2801] for a wys man /
repreueth the Auaricious man / and seith thus / in two vers // [2802] Wherto and why / buryeth a man his goodes by his grette Auarice / and knoweth wel / þat nedes
moste he dye : [2803] for death / is the ende of every man /
as in this present lyf / [2804] And for what cause / or
eschon ioyneþ he hym / or knytteth he hym / so faste vn-to his goodes / [2805] þat alle hisse wittes / mouen nat
disseueren hym / or departen hym from hisse goodes / [2806] and knoweth wel / or eghte knowe / þat when he is deed / he shal no thyng bere with hym out of this world // [2807] And therefore / seith Seint Austyn // That the Auaricious man / is likned vn-to helle / [2808] þat the moore it swolweth / the moore desir it hath to swolwe &
denoure / [2809] And as wel / as ye wolde eschewe / to be called an Auaricious man / or chynche: [2810] as wel sholdo ye kepe yow & gouerne yow in swich a wise / þat men calle yow nat fool large // [2811] Therfore seith Tullius // The goodes he seith of thyn hous / sholdo nat been hidde no kept so clos: but þat they myghte been opned by pitee & debonairetee / [2812] that is to seyn: to yowen hem part þat han greet neede / [2813]

that spendyth ouer largely / [2792] And therefore seith Caton vso he seith thynne richesses / that þe hast getyn [2793] in swich a maner / that men haue no matier ne cause to calle the nythir wreche no chynchere / [2794]
for it is greet shame to a man to haue a pouere herte & a ryche purs [2795] he seith also the goodis that thou hast getyn / vso hem by mesur / that is to seyn spende mesurably / [2796] for they that folily wastyn & despendyn the goodis that they han / [2797] when they han no moore propre of here owene / they schapyn hem to takyn the goodis of a-nothyr man [2798] ¶ I seye thanne þe schul fese auarice [2799] veynge youre richesses in swich manere / that men seye nat that youre richesses been l-buried / [2800] But that þe haue hem in youre mygt & in youre weldyng // [2801] for a wys man repreueth the auericious man / & seith thus / in two vers / [2802] Wherto & whi buryeth a man hisse goodis bi his grette auarice / & knowyth weel that nedis muste he deye / [2803] for deth is the ende of every man as in this present lyf / [2804] And for what cause & what eschonous / ioynyth he hym or knythyth he hym / so faste vn-to hisse goodis / [2805] that alle hisse wittes mouen nat disseueren hym ne departyn hym from hisse goodis / [2806] & knowyth weel or oughte to knowyn / that when he is deed he schal no thyng bere with hym / out of his world / [2807] And therefore seith seynt Augustyn / that the auaricious man is lykned vn-to helle / [2808] that the more it swolweth / the moode desyr it hath to swolwe & denoure / [2809] And as wel as þe wolde eschewe / to be called an auericious man / or chynche / [2810] as wel schulde þe keepe þow & gouerne þow in swich a wyse / that men ne calle þow nat fool large // [2811] Therefore seith Tullius / the goodis he seith of thyn hous schulde not been kept ne hid so clos / But that they myghtyn been openyl bi pite & debonairetee / [2812] that is to soyne to þeyn hem part / that han greet neede / [2813]

¶ Cato

¶ Vnde calet

¶ Argutinus

¶ Tullius

þæt spendeþ ouer largely [2792] ¶ And þerfore seiþ
Catoñ ¶ vsō þine riches þæt þow hast y-geten [2793] in such manere þæt men han no matiere ne cause to clepe þe wreche ne chynche. [2794]
¶ For it is greþ schame to a man to haue a pouere herte and a riche purse [2795] ¶ He seiþ also þe goodes þæt þou hasto y-geten vsō hem by mesure þæt is to sayn spende mesurably [2796] ¶ For þei þæt folly wāsten and dispenden þe goodes þæt þei han [2797] whan þei haue no more propre of here owne: þei schapen hem to take þe goodes of anoþer man [2798] ¶ I say þanne þæt he schal fleo auarice [2799] vsyngē youre richesse in suche a manere that men say not þæt youre richesse ben y-buried [2800] but þæt 3e han hem in youre myght and in youre waldinge [2801] for a wise man reproueþ þe auerous man, and seiþ þus in tuo vers [2802] ¶ Wherto and why buried þa man his goodes by his auarice and knoweþ wel þæt nedes moste he dȳe [2803] ¶ For deþ is þe ende of euery man as in þis present liþ [2804] ¶ And for what cause or cheneoð ioyneþ he him or knyteþ he him so fast vnto his goodes [2805] þæt alle his wittes mowen nouht disseueren him or departen him fro his goodes.
[2806] and knoweþ wel or oughte to knowe þæt whan he is dede he schal nouht here out of þe world wiþ him [2807] ¶ And þerfore seiþ seint Austyn þæt þe auerous man is likned vnto helle [2808] ¶ þæt þe more it cheweþ þe more desir it haþ to swelwe and denoure [2809] ¶ And as wel alle 3e wolde eschwe to ben y-cleped an auerous man or a chynche [2810] ¶ As wel scholde 3e gouerne 3ou and kepe 3ou in such a wyse þæt men clepe 3ou nouht to large [2811] ¶ þerfore Tullius seiþ ¶ The goodes he seiþ of þin hous scholde not ben hidde ne kepte in close but þæt þei myght ben opened wiþ pite and with debonairte [2812] þæt is to say to ȳuen hem parte þæt han greþ nedes [2813]

þæt spendeþ ouer largely. [2792] ¶ And þerfore seiþ
Catoñ. vsō he seiþ þe Ricchess þæt þou hast y-geten.
[2793] in such a manere. þæt þer be no matere no cause to calle þe riȳer wreche ne chynche. [2794] for it is greþe shame a man to haue a poor hert and a rich purse [2795] ¶ He seiþ also þe goodes þæt thow hast y-geten vsō hem by mesure þæt is to say.
spende mesurably [2796] for þei þæt folly wāsten and dispenden þe goodes þæt þei haue. [2797] whan þei han no more propre of her owne þei shape hem to take þe goodes of a noþer man. [2798] ¶ I say þan þæt 3e schal fleo Auarice / [2799] vsyngē youre richesse as in such manere þæt men say not þæt youre goodes bene yburied. [2800] but þæt 3e haue hem in youre myght and in youre waldinge [2801] for þe wiþ reproueþ þe Auerous man and seiþ in two versus. [2802] Wherto and whi hereþ a man his goodes by his Auarice and knoweþ wel þæt nedes
he most dȳe. [2803] for deþ is þe ende of euery man
as in þis present liþ [2804] and for what cause or cheneoð ioyneþ he him or knyteþ he him so fast vnto his goodes [2805] þæt all his wittes mowe not disseueren hym or departen hym fro his goodes.
[2806] and knoweþ wel or ought knowe þæt whan he is dede he schal no þinge here wiþ him out of þis world wiþ him [2807] ¶ And þerfore seiþ seynt Austyne. That þe Auerous man is likned into helle. [2808] þæt þe more it swoloweþ. þe more desir it haþ to swalowe and denoure [2809] And as wel as 3e wolde eschwe to be cleped an Auarous man or chynche [2810] as wel schul 3e kepe 3ou and gouerne 3ou in and in such a wise so þæt men ne cleped 3ou not fool large [2811] ¶ Therefore seiþ Tullius The goodes he seiþ of þine hous shuld not ben hidde ne kept so close but þæt þei myȳþ be opned by Pite and wiþ bonairte [2812] þæt is to sayn to ȳue hem parte þæt han grete nedes [2813] þæt spendeþ ouer largely. [2792] ¶ An þer-for seȳþe catōñ! vsō þe richesse þæt þou hast gotten [2793] in suche maner þæt men haue no matier ne

cause to clepe þe wreche ne chynche [2794]
For it is grete schame to a man to haue a pouer hert & a riche purse [2795] ¶ He seiþ also þe goodes þæt þou hasto gotten vsō hem be Mesure! þæt is to seiue spend mesurablye! [2796] for þei þæt folely wāsten & dispenden þe goodes þæt þei haue [2797] whan þei haue no more propre of hire owne: þei schapen hem to tak þe goodes of a-noþer man! [2798] ¶ I seiue þan þæt he schal flie auarice [2799] vsyngē ȳoure riches in suche manere þæt men seiue nouht þæt ȳoure richesse hæue yburied: [2800] Bot þæt 3e haue hem in ȳoure miht & in ȳoure waldinge [2801] ¶ For a wiseman
reproueþ þe auerous man! And seiþ þus in tuo vers: [2802] Wherto & Whi berijþ a man his goodes be his auarice And knoweþe wele þæt nedes most he dȳe! [2803] For deþ is þe ende offe euery man as in þis present liþ: [2804] and for þæt cause & cheneoune ioyneþ he him or knyteþ he him so fast vnto his goodes: [2805] þæt al his wittes mowe nouht deueura him or departe him fro his goodes: [2806] And knoweþe wele or out to knowe þæt whan he is dede he schal not bere it oute of þe werlde wiþ him! [2807] And þer-for seiþ seint Austino þæt þe Auerous man is likened vnto hē! [2808] þæt þe more it desirēþ: þe more it seiþ swaloweþ & deuoureþ: [2809] ¶ And also wele as 3e wolde eschwe to ben y-cleped an auerous man or a chynche [2810] As wele scholde 3e gouerne ȳowe & kepe ȳowe in suche a wise þæt men clepe ȳou nouht to large [2811] ¶ þer-for Tullius seiþ: The goodes he seiþ of þine hous scholde not be hidde ne kept in close bot þæt þei myht ben opende wiþ pite. & wiþ debonairte: [2812] ¶ þæt is to sei ȳef hem parte þæt haþ grete neede [2813] ne thy goodes / shullen nat been so opene / to been every names goodes [2814] ¶ Afterward / in getyng of youre

 riches / and in vayne hem / ye shul alwey / haue thre thynges in youre herte / [2815] that is to seyn / Oure lord god / Conscience / and good name [2816] ¶ first / ye shul
 haue god in youre herte / [2817] and for no riches / ye shullen do no thyng. which may in any manere displese god / that is youre creatour and makere [2818] ¶ then after the word of Salomon ¶ It is bettere to haue a lital good with the loue of god / [2819] than to haue / muchal good and tresour / and lese the loue of his lord god [2820]
 ¶ And the prophete seith || That bettre it is / to been a good man and haue lital good and tresour / [2821] than to been holden a shrowe / and haue grete riches [2822] ¶ And yet seye I furthermoore / that ye sholde alwey doon youre bisynesse to gete yow riches / [2823] so that ye gete hem with good conscience [2824] ¶ And thapostle
 seith || that ther nys thyng in this world / of which / we sholden haue so greet ioye / as whan our conscience bereth vs good witness [2825] ¶ And the wise man seith || The substance of a man is ful good / whan syme is nat in mannes conscience [2826] ¶ Afterward / in getyng of youre riches / and in vayne of hem / [2827] yow moete haue greet bisynesse and greet diligence / that your gode name / be alwey kept and conserued || [2828] for salomon seith || that bettre it is / and moore it availleth a man to haue a good name / than for to haue grete riches * [2829] And therefore / he seith in another place ¶ Doo greet diligence seith Salomon / in keepyng of thy frend / and of thy gode name / [2830] for it shal lenger abide with thee / than any tresour / be it neuer so precious [2831] ¶ And certes he sholde nat be called a gentil man / that after god and good conscience / alle thyngs leff / ne dooth his diligence and bisynesse / to kepen his good name [2832] ¶ And Cassidore seith ¶ That it is signe of gentil herte * whan a man loueth and desirith so han a good name

ELLESME (6-T. 240)

ne thy goodes sholden nat be so open / to be every names goodes [2814] ¶ Afterward / in getyng of youre
 riches / and in vayne hem / ye shul alwey / haue thre
 thynges in youre herte || [2815] that is to seyn / oure lord
 god / Conscience / and good name [2816] ¶ first / ye shul
 haue god in youre herte / [2817] and for no riches / ye
 shullen do no thyng which may in any manere displese god / that is youre Creatour & makere || [2818] for after the word of Salomon / It is bettere to haue a lital good / with the loue of god / [2819] than to haue mychel good & tresor / and lese the loue of his lord god || [2820]
 And the prophete seith : That bettre it is to been a good man / & haue a lital good and tresor / [2821] than to be holden a shrewe / & haue grete riches || [2822]
 And yet seye I further moore / that ye sholden alwey doon youre bisynesse / to gete yow riches / [2823] so pat
 ye gete hem / with good conscience || [2824] And thapostle
 seith / that ther nys thyng in this world / of which / we sholden haue so greet ioye / as whan oure conscience / bereth
 vs good witness || [2825] And the wise man seith || The substance of a man / is ful good / whan syme is nat in mannes conscience [2826] ¶ Afterward / in getyng of youre riches / & in vayne of hem / [2827] yow moete haue greet bisynesse & greet diligence / pat your gode
 name / be alwey kept & conserued || [2828] for Salomon seith || that bettre it is / & moore it availleth a man / to haue good name / than for to haue grete riches /
 [2829] And therefore / he seith in another place || doo greet
 diligence seith Salomon in keepyng of thy frend / and of thy gode name / [2830] for it shal lenger abyde with thee / than any tresor / be it neuer so precious || [2831]
 And certes / he sholde nat be called a gentil man / that after god & good conscience / alle thyngs leff / ne dooth
 his diligence & bisynesse / to kepen his good name || [2832] And Cassidore seith / that it is signe of a gentil
 herte / whan a man / loueth & desirith / to haue a good name ||

HENGWRT (6-T. 240)

Ne thyns goodis schulde not been so open / to been every manys goodis [2814] ¶ Afterward in getyng of youre riches & in vayne hem / ye schul alwey haue thre thyngis in youre herte / [2815] that is to seyne oure lord god Conscience / And good name // [2816] first 3e schul haue god in youre herte / [2817] And for no ryches 3e schul doon no thyng that schulde displese oure lord god / that is your creatoure & makere / [2818] for after the word of salomon / It is bettere to haue a lityl good with the loue of god [2819] than to haue meche good / & tresor And lese the loue of his lord god / [2820] And the prophete seith / that the moore profit & the bettere it is to been a good man / & haue lityl good & tresour / [2821] than to been holdyn a schrewe & haue greete ryches [2822]
 And 3it seye I further moore / that 3e schul alwey doon youre bynesse to gete 3ow rycheis [2823] so that 3e gete hem with good conscience // [2824] And thapostle seith / that there ne is thyng in this world of whiche 3e schulde haue so greet ioye / as whan oure conscience bereth vs witness / [2825] And the wise man seith . The substance of a man is ful good / whan syme is not in manys conscience / [2826] Afterward in getyng of youre riches / & in vayne of hem [2827] 3ow muste haue greet bynesse / And greet diligence / that 3our gode
 name be alwey kept & conserued / [2828] for Salomon seith that betere it is / & moore it a-vaillith a man to haue a good name than for to haue manys rych[es] / [2829] And therefore he seith in another place / Doo greet diligence seith salomon in keepyng of thy frend & of thy gode name / [2830] for it schal lenger a-bydyn / with the than any tresore be it neuer so precious // [2831] and certes he schulde nat been callid a gentil man that after god & good conscience / alle thyngs leff / ne dooth his diligence / & bynesse to kepen his good name // [2832] And Cassidore seith / That it is signe of a gentil
 herte / whan a man loueth & desirith to haue a good name /

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 240) P. 164. 183.

¶ Ne þi goodes schullen not ben so opene to ben every mannes gooder [2814] ¶ Afterward in getyng of your richesse ¶ And in vsayng hem 30 schuln alway haue þre þinges in ʒouyeherte [2815] [C'est assavoir, Dieu conscience, et bonne fame, et renommée., [2816] Tu dois donques avoir Dieu en ton cuer (LeM) magier, i. 224], [2817] ¶ And for no richesse ʒe schuln doot no þing þat may be displeasance to god þat is ʒoure creatour and ʒoure maker [2818] ¶ For after þe word of Salomon ¶ hit is better to haue a lytel good wiþ þe loue of god. [2819] þan to haue muchil good and tresour and lese þe loue of his lord god [2820] ¶ And þe prophete seiþ. þat better it is to be a good man and haue lytel good and tresour. [2821] þan to be holden a schrewe and to haue greþ richesse [2822] ¶ And ʒit seiþ I. forþermore þat ʒe schuln don ʒour busynesse to geten ʒou richesse [2823] So þat ʒe geten hem wiþ good consciencie [2824] ¶ And þe apostel seiþ þat þere is no þing in þis world of which we schuldun haue so greþ loye: as when oure consciencie bereþ vs god wittnesse [2825] ¶ And þe wise man seiþ ¶ The substance of a man is ful god when synne is nouht in mannes consciencie [2826] ¶ Afterward in getyng of ʒoure Richesses and in vsayng of hem: [2827] ʒow moste haue greþ bysynesse and greþ diligence that ʒoure goode name be alway kepte and conserued [2828] ¶ For Salomon seiþ ¶ þat better it is and more auayleþ a man to haue good name þan to haue grete richesse [2829] ¶ And þerfore he seiþ in anoper place ¶ Do greþ diligence seiþ Salomon in kepynge of þi frende and of þi goode name [2830] ¶ For it schal lenger abyde wiþ þe þan any tresour be it neuer so precious. [2831] ¶ And certes he schulde nougt be cleped a gentil man þat after god and good consciencie alle þinges left þat he ne doþ his bysnesse ne diligence to kепен his good name [2832] ¶ And Cassidorie seiþ þat it is signe of a good hert when a man loueþ and desyreþ to haue a good name

Ne þi goodes shuld not bene so open to be every manny goodes [2814] ¶ Afterward in getyng of your richesse & in vsayng of hem ʒe shul alway haue þre þinges in ʒoure hert. [2815] þat is to sayn. our lordo god. consciencie and good name [2816] ¶ first ʒe shul haue god in ʒoure hert [2817] and for no richesse ʒo shal doo no þinge which may in eny manere displese crist þat is youre creatour and ʒour maker [2818] ¶ For after þe worde of Salomon. it is better to haue a litel good wiþ þe loue of god [2819] þan to haue moche good and tresour and lese þe loue of his lordo god. [2820] ¶ And þe prophete seiþ. þat better it is to bene a good man. and haue a litel good and tresour. [2821] þan to be holden a schrewe and haue grete Richesses. [2822] And ʒit seiþ I forþermore þat ʒe schuldun alway doon ʒour bysynesse to gete ʒou richesse [2823] so þat ʒe gete hem wiþ good consciencie [2824] ¶ And þe Apostel seiþ. Ther nys no þinge in this world of which we shuld haue so grete loye as when our consciencie bereþ vs wittnesse of good [2825] ¶ And þe wise man seiþ. The substance of a man is ful god when synne nys nat in his consciencie [2826] ¶ Afterward in getyng of ʒoure richesse / and in vsayng of hem [2827] þe moste haue grete bysynesse and grete diligence þat ʒoure goode name be alway kept & conserued [2828] ¶ For Salomon seiþ That better it is and more auayleþ a man to haue good name þan to haue grete richesse [2829] ¶ And þerfore he seiþ in a noþer place Doo grete diligence seiþ Salomon in kepynge of þi frende and of þi good name. [2830] For it shal lenger abyde wiþ þe þan eny tresour be it neuere so precious. [2831] And certes he shuld not be cleped a gentil man. þat after god and good consciencie alle þinges left ne doþ his diligence and bysynesse to kепен his good name [2832] ¶ And Cassidore seiþ þat it is signe of a gentill hert when a man desyreþ and loueþ to haue a good name /

Ne þi goodes schal nougt be so open to ben every mannes goodes. [2814] Afterward in getyng of your richesse & in vsayng hem ʒo scholne alweie haue þrei þinges in ʒoure herte: [2815] [C'est assavoir dieu conscience et bonne fame [2816] Tu dois dunque avoir dieu en ton cuer (MS Reg. 19 C xi, ff 63, col. 1)] [2817] And for no richesse ʒo scholno do no þingu þat mais displeasance to god [ton creatour] [2818] ¶ For after þe worde of Salomon. It is better to haue a litel goode wiþ þe loue of god: [2819] þan to haue muche goode & tresor & lese þe loue of his lordo god: [2820] And þe prophit seiþ: þat better it is to be a good man & haue litel goode & tresour: [2821] þan to be holden a schrewe & to haue grete richesse [2822] ¶ ʒit seiþ .I. forþer more: þat ʒe scal done ʒour busines to geten ʒour richesse [2823] so þat ʒe geten hem wiþ good consciencie [2824] ¶ And þe Apostle seiþ þat þere is no þinge in þis werklo of which we scholne haue so grete loye as when oure concience bereþ vs god wittnesse: [2825] And þe wise man seiþ: The substance of a man is ful god when sinne is nouht in mannes consciencie: [2826] ¶ Afterward in getting of ʒoure richesse: And in vsing of hem [2827] ʒow must haue grete beinesse & grete diligence þat ʒoure good name be al weie kepped & conserued [2828] ¶ For Salomon seiþ: þat better it is & more auayleþ a man to haue goode name þan to haue grete richesse: ¶ [2829] And þerfore he seiþ in anopere place: Doþ grete diligence seiþ Salomon: in kepeing of þi frende & of þi goode name [2830] for it schal longer abyde wiþ þe [þan] any tresor be it neuere so precious: [2831] And certes he scholde not be cleped a gentil man þat after god & good consciencie alle þinges left þat ne doþe his besines ne diligence to kепен his goode name [2832] ¶ And Cassidorie seiþ þat it is signe of a goode hert when a man loueþ & desyreþ to haue a goode name :

¶ Augustine

[2833] ¶ And therefore seith Saint Augustyn ¶ That ther been two thynges / that arn necessaris and nedefulle / [2834] and that is good Conscience and good loos / [2835] þat is to seyn / good Conscience / to thyn owene persone inward / and good loos for thy neighbere outward / [2836] And he that trusteth hym so muchel in his good conscience / [2837] that he displeaseth / and setteth at nought his good name or loos / and rekkeþt nought though he kepe nat his good name / nys but a cruel cherl /

[2838] Sire / now hauo I shewed yow / how ye shul do in getynge richesses / and how / ye shullen vsen hem / [2839] And I so wel / that for the trust that ye han in youre richesses / ye wole moene werre and bataills [2840]

¶ I conseilse yow / that ye bigynne no werre / in trust of youre richesses / for they ne sufficien nought werres to mayntene / [2841] ¶ And therefore / seith a Philosophie / That man / that desirerth / and wole algates han werre / shal neuere hauo sufficiensse / [2842] for the richer that he is / the greater despensis moste he make / if he wole hauo worshippe and victorie [2843] ¶ And Salomon seith // That the greater richesses that a man hath / the mo dependouris he hath [2844] ¶ And deere sire / al be it so / that for youre richesses / ye moue hauo muchel folk [2845] yet bihoueth it nat.

¶ 174/1000

¶ Salomon

ne it is nat good / to bigynne werre / where as ye moue in oother manere / hauo pees vn-to youre worshippe and profit [2846] ¶ For the victories of batailles that been in this world / lyen nat in greet nombre or multitude of the peple / ne in the vertu of man / [2847] but it liþh in the wyl / and in the hand of oure lord god almyghty [2848] ¶ And therefore / Iudas Machabeus / which was goddes knyght. [2849] when he sholdte fighte agayn his aduersarie / þat hadde a greet nombre / and a greater multitude of folk / and stronger than was this peple of Machabeus / [2850] yet he reconforted his lital compaignys / and seyde right in this wise [2851] ¶ Als lightly quod he / may oure lord god almyghty yeue victorie to a fewe folk

ELLESMEERE (9-T. 241) (1 leaf 100)

[2833] And therefore seith seint Austyn // that ther been two thynges / þat arn necessaris & nedefulle / [2834] and that is good conscience / & good loos // [2835] that is to seyn / good conscience / to thyn owene persone inward / and good loos for thy neighbere outward // [2836] And he / þat trusteth hym so muchel in his good conscience / [2837] þat he displeaseth / and setteth at nought his good name or loos / and rukkeþt nought though he kepe nat hys good name: nys but a cruel cherl

[2838] ¶ Sire / now hauo I shewed yow / how ye shul do / in getynge richesses / & how / ye shullen vsen hem / [2839] And I so wel / þat for the trust þat ye hau in youre richesses / ye wole moene werre & bataille / [2840] I conseilse yow / þat ye bigynne no werre / in trust of youre richesses for they ne sufficien nought werres to mayntene / [2841] And therefore seith a Philosophie / That man þat desirerth / and wole algates han werre: shal neuere hauo sufficiensse / [2842] for the richer þat he is:

the greater despensis moste he make / if he wole hauo worshippe & victorie // [2843] And Salomon seith // That the greater richesses þat a man hath / the mo dependouris he hath // [2844] And deere sire / al be it so / þat for youre richesses / ye moue hauo muchel folk! [2845] yet bihoueth it nat

ne it is nat good / to bigynne werre / where as ye moue in oother manere / hauo pees vn-to youre worshippe & profit // [2846] ¶ For the victorie of batailles þat been in this world / lyth nat in greet nombre / or multitude of peple / ne in the vertu of man / [2847] but it lyth in the wyl / & in the hand / of oure lord god almyghty / [2848] and ther-fore Iudas Machabeus / which was goddes knyght [2849] when he sholdte fighte agayn his aduersarie / þat hadde a greet nombre & a greater multitude of folk / and stronger than was the peple of this Machabeus: [2850] yet he reconforted his lital compaignys / and seyde / right in this wise // [2851] Als lightly quod he / may oure lord god almyghty yeue victorie to a fewe folk

HENGWRT (9-T. 241) (1 leaf 101)

[2833] And therefore seyth seynt austyn / that there been two thyngis that been necessarye & nedeful [2834] & that is good Conscience & good loos / [2835] that is to seyne good conscience to thyn owene persons / In word and good loo / for thyn neyghbore owtward / [2836] And he that trustith hym so mechil in his good conscience / [2837] that he displeaseth & settith at noujt / his good name or los / & rekkihth nat thow he kepith nat his good name / nys but a cruel cherl /

[2838] Sire now hauo I schevid 3ow / how 3e schuldyn doon to getyn rycheiss / & how 3e schuldyn veyn hem / [2839] And I so wold that for the trust that 3e han in 3oure richess / 3e wole meue werre / & batayle [2840] ¶ I conseyle 3ow that 3e bigynne no werre in trust of 3oure rycheiss / for they ne suffyue not / werrye to mayntene / [2841] And therfore seyth a phylisophere That man that desyryth & wole algatis han werre / schal neuere han sufficienss / [2842] for the rychee that he is the gretters despensis wold he makyn / if he wole hauo wor-schepe & victorie [2843] And Salomon seyth / that the grettere rycheiss that a man hath: the mo dependouris / he hath [2844] ¶ And deere sere / al be it so that for 3oure rycheiss / 3e moue hauo meche folk / [2845] 3it behouyth it nat / ne it is nat good to bryngyn werre / where as 3e moue in othere manere / hauo pees / vn-to 3oure wor-schepe & profyt / [2846] ¶ For the victorie of bataylis / that been in this world / lyth not in grete nou[m]bre or multitude of peple / ne in the veru of man / [2847] but it lyth in the wil & in the vertu of oure lord god / almyghty / [2848] & therfore Iudas / Machabeus / whiche was goddis knygh / [2849] whanne he schulde fyghte agen hys aduersarys that a grettere nombre & a grettere mult-itude of puple of folk & was strongere / than was his puple of Machabye / [2850] 3it he reconfortyth his lital compaignye / & seyde ryzt in this wise / [2851] Also lightly quod he may oure lord god / almyghty 3oue victorie to a fewe folk

CAMBRIDGE (9-T. 241)

[2833] ¶ And þerfore seiþ seint austyn þat þer hen tuo þinges þat ben necessary and needfulle [2834] . ¶ And þat is good consciens [2835]
to þin owne persone inward and good loos þor þin neyhebour outward.
[2836] ¶ And he þat trusteþ him so mechel in his good consciens [2837] þat he displeiþ and setteþ it at nouȝt his good name or loos and rekkeþ nouȝt þat he kepeþ nouȝt his good name nys but a cruel cherle .

[2838] ¶ Sire now haue I schewed þow how þe schuld doon in getyng of riches and how þe schuld venen hem [2839] ¶ And I se wel þat þe for truste þat þe han in richesse 3e wollen mouen bataile and werre [2840] ¶ I counsele þou þat þe begynne no werre in truste of þoure richesse. ¶ For þei sufficien nouȝt werres to meyn-tene [2841] ¶ And þerfore seiþ a Philosophie ¶ That a man desirþ and wol algates han werre schal neuer haue sufficiens [2842] ¶ For þe richere þat he is þe gretter despence moot he make if he wols haue worschipe and victorie [2843] ¶ And Salomon saith þat þe grettere richesse þat a man haþ þe more despencours he haþ [2844] ¶ And dere sir al be it so þat for þoure richesse 3e may han moche folk [2845] ¶ ȝit byhouep it nouȝt ne it is nouȝt good to begynne werre wher as 3e may in oþer manere haue pees vnto þoure worschipe and profyt [2846] ¶ For þe victories of batailles þat ben in þis world liþ nouȝt in gret nombre of multitude of people ne in þe vertu of man. [2847] but it liþ in þe wille and in þe hand of our lord ihesu crist // [2848] ¶ And þerfore Iudas Makabeus which was goddys knyȝt [2849] when he schulde fighten agens his aduersaries þat hadde a gretter nombre & a gretter multitude of folk and stronger þen was þe people of Macha-bee [2850] ¶ ȝit he recomforte his lital companye and seyde right in þis wise [2851] ¶ As lightly quod he may our lord god almyȝt ȝoue victorie to fewe folk [2833] ¶ And þerfore seiþ seint Austyne. Ther bene tuo þinges þat are necessary and needful.

[2834] & þat is good consciens and good loos. [2835] that is to sayn good consciens to þine owne persone inward and good loos for þi neighbour outward.
[2836] ¶ And he þat trusteþ him so moche in his good consciens [2837] þat he displeie and setteþ at nouȝt his good name or loos. and rekkeþ not þowþe he kepe not his good name. he nys but a cruel cherle

[2838] ¶ Sire now haue I schewed þou how þe shuld doon in kepinge rychesse and howe þe shuld venen hem [2839] ¶ I see wel þat þe for truste þat þe haue in þoure richesse. 3e wil meuen werre and bataille [2840] I counsaile þat þe bygyne no werre. in truste of þoure Richesse. For þei no sufficien not werres to Mayn-tene [2841] ¶ And þerfore seiþ a Philosophie. That man þat desirþ and wil algates haue werre. shal neuer haue sufficiant. [2842] For þe Richer þat he is þe gretter dispence mote he make ȝif he wil haue worschip or victorie [2843] ¶ And Salomon seiþ þat þe gretter richesse þat a man hatli. þe gretter despencours he
haþ. [2844] ¶ And dere sir al be it so. þat for þoure richesse 3e moue haue mochel folk. [2845] ȝit byhouep it not. ne it is not good to bygyne werre. þer as 3e may in oþer manere haue pees vnto þoure worship and profite [2846] ¶ For þe victorie of batailles þat bene in þis world liþ not in grete nombre or multitude of puple. ne in vertue of man. [2847] but it liþ in þe wille and in þe hand of our lord god almyȝt [2848] ¶ And þerfore Iudas makabeus which was goddys knyȝt [2849] when he shuld fyt aginst his aduersary þat had a gretter nombre & a gretter multitude of folk and stronger þan was þe puple of Macha-bee. [2850] ȝit he recomforte his litel 'companye and saide riȝt in þis wise [2851] ¶ Also lityly quod he may our lord god almyȝt ȝoue victorie to fewe folk

[2833] An þerfore seiþ seiþ seint Austine þat þere bene tuo þinges þat bien necessary & needful.
[2834] . And þat is good consciens [2835] to þine owen person inward & good loos of þin neihebour outewarde [2836] ¶ And he þat trustuþ him so muchel in his good consciens [2837] þat he displeiþ his good name or loos and rekkeþ nouȝt to kepe his good name : nys bot a cruel cherle

[2838] ¶ Sire now haue I schewed þow howe þe schol doon in geteing of richesse & howe þe scholde venen hem [2839] ¶ And I se wels þat þe for trust þat ye haue in richesse 3e wol men Bataile & werre : [2840] ¶ I counsell þowe þat þe begynne no werre in trust of þoure richesse. For þei sufficien nouȝt werres to main-tene [2841] ¶ And þerfore seiþ a Philosophie That a man desirþ & wil algates haue werre : schal neuer haue sufficiens. [2842] For þe richer þat he is þe gretter dispence mote he make : If he wilt haue worschipe & victorie : [2843] ¶ And Salomon seiþ : þat þe gretter richesse þat a man haþe : þe more despencours he haþe : [2844] ¶ And dere sir al be it so : þat for þoure richesse 3e mai haue muche folke : [2845] ȝute behouep it nouȝt ne it is nouȝt goode to beginne werre : wher as 3e male in oþere manere haue pees vnto þoure worschipe & prophite : [2846] ¶ For þe victories of batailles þat ben in þis werlde liþe nouȝt in grete nombre of multitude of people in þe vertue of man. [2847] Bot it liþe in þe wilt & in þe hande of our lord ihesu crist : [2848] ¶ And þerfore Iudas Machabeus whicho was goddess knyȝt : [2849] When he schold feyten agens his aduersaries þat had a gretter nombre : & a gretter multitude of folke : & stronger þan was þe puple of Macha-bee : [2850] ȝit he comford his lital compaigne & side riht in þis wise : [2851] ¶ As lityly quod he may our lorde god almyȝt ȝoue victori to fewe folke :

as to many folk. [2852] for the victorie of a bataille comth nat by the grete nombre of peple [2853] but it come / fro our lord god of heuene [2854] ¶ And deere sire / for as muchel / as ther is no man certein / if he be worthy / that god yene hym victorie [ne plus que il est certain se il est digne de l'amour de Dieu (Le Ménagier, i. 226)] or naught. ¶ After that Salomoneith [2855] therefore / euery man sholde greetly drede werres to bigynne / [2856] ¶ And by cause / that in batailles / fallen manye perils / [2857] and happeth outhir while / that as soone is the grete man slayn as the litel man / [2858] ¶ And as it is writen / in the seconde book of kynges The dedes of batailles been auenturose / and no thyng certeyne / [2859] for as lightly is oon hurt with a spere as another ¶ [2860] And for ther is greet peril in werre / therefore / sholde a man flec and eschue werre / in as muchel as a man may goodly ¶ [2861] for Salomon seith / He that loueth peril shal falle in peril [2862] After that Dame Prudence / hadde spoken in this manere / Melibe answered and seyde [2863] ¶ I see wel dame Prudence that by youre faire wordes / and by youre resonis that ye han shewed me / that the werre liketh yow no thyng. [2864] but I haue nat yet herd youre conseil / how I shal do in this ned

¶ Salomon

¶ In 31st Boke Regum

¶ Salomon

¶ Melibe

¶ Prudence

¶ Scritures in booke of epistolis

¶ Divesius Appostolis sine

¶ Melibe

as to manye folk / [2852] for the victorie of a bataille comth nat by the grete nombre of peple / [2853] but it come / fro our lord god of heuene [2854] ¶ And deere aire / for as muchel as ther is no man certeyn / if it be worthy / þat god yene hym victorie [ne plus quil scet se il est digne de lamour de dieu (MS Reg. 19 C vii, ff 142, bk)] or naught after that Salomoneith [2855] therefore euery man / sholde greetly drete / werres to bigynne ¶ [2856] And by cause þat in batailles / fallen manye perils / [2857] & happeth outhir while / þat as soone is the grete man slayn / as the litel man / [2858] ¶ And as it is wryten / in the seconde book of kynges ¶ The dedes of batailles / been Auenturose / and no thyng certeyne / [2859] for as lightly / is oon hurt with a spere / as another [2860] ¶ And for ther is greet peril in werre / therefore sholde a man / fle & eschewe werre / in as muchel / as a man may goodly ¶ [2861] for Salomon seith / he þat loueth peril / shal falle in peril [2862] ¶ After þat dame Prudence / hadde spoken in this manere / Melibe answerde & seyde [2863] ¶ I see wel dame Prudence that by youre faire wordes / and by youre resonis / þat ye han shewed me / þat the werre / liketh yow no thyng. [2864] but I haue nat yet herd youre conseil / how I shal do in this ned

[2865] ¶ Certes quod she / I conselle yow / þat ye acorde with youre Aduersaries / & þat ye / haue pees with hem ¶ [2866] for Seint Iame seith / in hise epistolis / That by concord & pees / the smale richesses wexen grete / [2867] & by debaat & discord / the grete richesses fallen down [2868] ¶ And ye knowen wel / that oon of the gretteste & most souerayn thyng / þat is in this world / is vnytes & pees / [2869] And therefore seyde our lord Ihesu crist / to hise Apostles / in this wise [2870] Wel happy & blessed been they / þat louen / & purchaen pees / for they been called children of god [2871] ¶ A quod Melibe now se I wel / þat ye louen nat myn honour / ne my worships ¶ [2872] Ye knowen wel / þat myne

as to manye folk / [2852] for the victorie of batayle / comyth not by the grete nombre of peple [2853] but it comyth / fro our lord god / of heuene [2854] ¶ And deere sere for as meche as there is no man / certeyn if it be worthi that god yene hym victorie / [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] or night aftr that salomoneith / [2855] therefore euery man / sholde greetly drede werres / to begynne / [2856] ¶ And by cause that in bataylis fallen manye perillis / [2857] And happith outhir while / that as soone as the grette man slayn / as the lityl man / [2858] ¶ And as it is I-wretyn in the secunde book of kyngis ¶ The dedis of bataylis been auenturose / And no thyng certeyn / [2859] for as lytely is on hurt with a spere as a-nothir / [2860] And for ther is greet peril in werre / therfore schulde a man fle & eschewe werre in as meche as a man may goodly / [2861] for Salomon seyth / he that louthy peril / schal falle in peril / [2862]

¶ After that Dame Prudence hadde spokyn in this manere / Melibe answerede & seyde [2863] I see wel dame prudence that be youre fayre wordes and by youre resonys / that ye han shewed me / that the werre lyketh yow no thyng / [2864] but I haue not yet herd youre conseil / how I schal doon / in this neede [2865]

¶ Certis quod echo / I conselle yow that ye acorde with youre aduersarys / & that ye han pees with hem / [2866] for seynt Iame seyth / in hise epistolis that by concord & pees / the smale rycheiss waxen grete / [2867] & by debat & discord / the grete richess fallen down [2868] & ye knowyn wel that on of the gretteste & most souerayn thyng that is in this world / is vnytes & pees / [2869] and therfore seyde our lord Ihesu Crist to hise apostel in this wyse / [2870] Wel happi & byssede been they / that louyn & purchasyn pees / for they been callete childeryn of god [2871] ¶ A Quod Melibe / Now se I that ye louyn nat myn honour / ne myn worchepe / [2872] ye knowyn wel that myne

as to many folke [2852] ¶ for þe victorie of bataile comep nouȝt by greȝ nombre of people: [2853] but it comep fro our lord of heuene // [2854] ¶ And dere sire for as mochl as þer is no man certein if it be worþi þat god ȝoue him victorie [ . . . . .

no gap in the MS.] or nouȝt. after þat Salomon seiþ [2855] ¶ Therfor euery man schuld greȝly drede werres to bygynne [2856] ¶ And by cause þat in batailles schuln fallen many periles [2857] ¶ And happen oȝerwhile þat as some is þe grete man sleyne: as þe litel man [2858] ¶ And as it is writen in þe secunde boke of kynges ¶ The dedes of batailles ben aduenturous and vncertain [2859] for as lightly as is oon y-hurt wiþ a spere as a noȝer. [2860] and þerfore is greȝ perile in werre. Therfore schulden men fleo and eschewe werre in as mechel as a man may goodly [2861] ¶ for Salomon seiþ ¶ he þat loueþ perill schal falle in perille [2862] ¶ After þat dame Prudence hadde spoken in þis manere ¶ Melibie answerde and seyde [2863] ¶ I ȝe wele dame Prudence þat þoure faire wordes and by þoure resons þat [vous mettes avant, que] þo werre likeþ you noþing [2864] ¶ But I haue not ȝit herde þoure wyse counsel how I schal do in þis neede.

[2865] Certes quod sche I counseile ȝou þat þe acorde wiþ þoure aduersaries and þat þe haue pees wiþ hem [2866] ¶ For seint Iame seiþ in his Epistles þat by concord and pees þat smale richesses waxen grete [2867] ¶ And by debat and discord þe grete richesses fallen down [2868] ¶ And ȝo knowen þat oon of þe grettest and most souerayn þing þat is in þis world is vnite and pees [2869] ¶ And þerfore seyde our lord Ihesu crist to his apostles in þis wyse [2870] ¶ Wel happy and blessed ben þei þat louen and purchasen pees for þei ben cleped þe children of god [2871] ¶ A quod Melibie now I se wel þat þe louen nouȝt myn honour ne my worschipe [2872] ¶ ȝe knowen wel þat myn as to many folke [2852] for þe victorie of bataile comep nouȝt by þe grete nombre of puple [2853] but it comep fro our lord of heuene. [2854] And dere sire for as mochl as þer nys no man certeyn ȝif it be worþi þat god ȝoue hym victorie [ . . . . .

no gap in the MS.] or nouȝt. after þat Salomon seiþ. [2855] ¶ Therfor euery man schuld greȝly drede werres to bygynne [2856] ¶ And by cause þat [in] batailles [are] many periles [2857] & [it may] happen oȝer while þat as some is þe grete man sleyne: as þe litel man [2858] ¶ And as it is ywriten in þe secound boke of kynges The dedes of batailles bene aduenturous and no þing certeyn. [2859] for as lightly is oon hurt wiþ a spere as a noȝer [2860] And þerfore it is grete perile in werre. Therfore schuld a man fleo and eschewe werre in as mochel as a man may goodly. / [2861] ¶ for Salomon seiþ: He þat loueþ perille schal falle in perille [2862] After þat dame Prudence had spoken in þis manere Melibie answerd and seide. [2863] I see wel dame þat by þoure faire wordes and by þoure resons þat ye han schewed me. þat þe werre likeþ ȝou no þing. [2864] But I haue not ȝit herde þoure counsaile how I shal doo in þis neede.

[2865] Certes quod she I counseile ȝo þat þe acorde wiþ þoure aduersaries and þat þe haue pees wiþ hem [2866] ¶ for seint Iame seiþ in his Epistle ¶ That by concord and pees þo smale richesses waxen grete [2867] And by debate and discord þe grete richesses fallen down. [2868] And ȝo knowe wel þat oon of þe grettest and most souerayn þing þat is in þis world is vnite and pees [2869] ¶ And þerfore seiþ our lord Ihesu crist to his apostel in þis wise [2870] ¶ Wel happy and blessed bene þei þat louen and pur[ch]asen pees for þei bene called children of god [2871] ¶ A quod Meleby now se I wel þat þe louen nouȝt myn h[on]our and my worschip. [2872] ȝe knowen wel þat myne

as to many folke [2852] for þe victorie of Bataile comep nouȝt be grete nombre of people: [2853] Bot it comep fro our lord of heuen: [2854] ¶ And dere sire for als mochl as þere is noman certaine: if it be worþi þat god ȝif him victorie [neant plus se Il est certain se Il est digne de l'amour de dieu] or nouȝt: ¶ After þat Salomon seiþ [2855] Therfor euery man schold greȝly drede werres to be-gynne [2856] ¶ And be-cause þat in batailles scholne fallen mony periles: [2857] ¶ And happen oȝer while: þat as some is þe grete man sleyne: as þe lytel man: [2858] ¶ And as it [is] wreten in þe secunde boke of kinges: The dedes of Bataile been aduenterous & vncertain: [2859] for as lytly as one is hurte wiþ a spere: as a noȝer: [2860] ¶ And þere-fore it is grete perile in werre ¶ The noȝer scholde men fleo & eschewe werre in as muchel as a man maie goodly: [2861] ¶ For Salomon seiþ he þat loueþ perile: schal fal in perile

[2862] ¶ After þat dame Prudence had spoken in þis manere Melibie answerd & seide: [2863] ¶ I see wele dame Prudence þat þe ȝoure faire wordes & by þoure resons þat [vous mettes avant que] þo werre likeþ ȝou no þing: [2864] Bot .I. haue nouȝt ȝit herde þoure wise counsele how .I. schal do in þis neede!

[2865] ¶ Certes quod sche .I. counseile ȝou to accorde wiþ þoure aduersaries & þat þe haue pees wiþ hem: [2866] ¶ For seinte Iames seiþ [en ses epistres] þat be concord & pees þat smale Richesses waxen grete [2867] And be debate & discorde grete riches fallen doune: [2868] And ȝe knowen þat of þe grettest & most soueraine þing þat is in þis world is vnite & pees: [2869] ¶ And þerfore seide our lord ihesu crist to his Apostles in þis wise [2870] ¶ Wel happy & blissed be þei þat louen & purchasen pees: For þei ben cleped þe childerne of god: [2871] ¶ A quod Melibie: Nowe .I. se wele ȝo loue nouȝt my honour ne my worschipe. [2872] ȝe knowen wele þat myne

Aduersaries / han bigonnen this debat and brige / by hire outrage / [2873] and ye so wel that they ne requeren ne preyen me nat of pees / no they asken nat to be reconciled [2874] ¶ wol ye thanne / that I go and meke me and obeye me to hem and crye hem mercy? / [2875] for sothe / that were nat my worship [2876] for right as men seyn / that our greet homlynesse / engendroth despisinge / so fareth it by to greet humylitee or mekenesse

¶ Prudence [2877] Thanne bigan dame Prudence / to maken semblant of wrathe / and seyde [2878] ¶ Certes sire / sauf youre grace / I loue youre honour and youre profit as I do myn owene / and euere haue doon / [2879] ne ye ne noon oother / syen neuere the contrarie [2880] ¶ And yif if I hadde seyde / that ye sholde han purchaed the pees / and the reconciliacion / . I ne hadde nat muchel mistaken me / ne seyde amys / [2881] for the wise man seith ¶ The dissension / bigyneth by another man / and the reconcilinge by-gyneth by thy self [2882] ¶ And the prophete seith ¶ flie shrewdnesse and do goodnesse / [2883] seke pees and folwe it as muchel as in thee is [2884] ¶ Yet seye I nat that ye shul rather pursue to youre Aduersaries for pees than they shuln to you ¶ [2885] for I knowe wel / that ye been so hard-hered / that ye wol do no thyng for me [2886] ¶ And Salomon seith ¶ he that hath ouer hard an herte / atte laste / he shal myshappe and mystyde

¶ Salomon [2887] ¶ Whanne Melibeus hadde herd dame Prudence maken semblant of wrathe / he seyde in this wise [2888] ¶ Dame I prey you that ye be nat displeid / of thynges that I seye [2889] for ye knowe wel that I am angry and wroth / and that is no wonder / [2890] and they that been wrothe / witen nat wol / what they don ne what they seyn [2891] ¶ Therefore / the prophete seith ¶ That troubled eyen / han no clear sighte [2892] ¶ but seyeth and conseileth me / as yow liketh / for I am redy to do right as ye wol desire / [2893] and if ye reprene me of my folye / I am the moore holden / to loue you and preyse

¶ Melibeus [2894] ¶ Thanne bigan dame Prudence / to maken semblant of wrathe / and seyde in this wise [2895] ¶ Dame / I prey you / that ye be nat displeid / of thynges that I seye / [2896] for ye knowe wel / that I am angry & wroth / & that is no wonder / [2897] and they that been wrothe / witen nat wel what they don / ne what they seyn ¶ [2898] Therefore / the prophete seith / That troubled eyen / han no clear sighte / [2899] but seieth & conseileth me / as yow liketh / for I am redy / to do / right as ye wol desire / [2900] and if ye reprene me of my folye / I am the moore holden / to loue you / & to preyse

Aduersaries han bigonnen this debat and brige by hire outrage / [2873] & ye so wel / þat they ne requeren ne preyen me nat of pees / no they asken nat to be reconciled: [2874] wol ye thanne / þat I go meke me and obeye me to hem & crye hem mercy: [2875] for sothe / that were nat my worship [2876] for right as men seyn / þat our greet homlynesse / engendroth despisinge: so fareth it by to greet humylitee / or mekenesse /

[2877] ¶ Thanne bigan dame Prudence / to maken semblant of wrathe & seyde ¶ [2878] Certes sire / sauf youre grace / I loue youre honour & youre profit / as I do myn owene / & euere haue doon / [2879] no ye / ne noon oother / syen neuere the contrarie ¶ [2880] And yet if I hadde seyde / þat ye sholde han purchaed the pees & the reconciliacion: I ne hadde nat muchel mistake me / ne seyde amys ¶ [2881] for the wise man seith ¶ The dissension / bigyneth by another man / & the reconcilinge bigyneth by thy self ¶ [2882] And the prophete seith / flie shrewdnesse / & do goodnesse / [2883] seke pees & folwe it as muchel as in thee is ¶ [2884] yet seye I nat þat ye shul rather pursue to youre Aduersaries for pees / than they shuln to you: / [2885] for .I. knowe wel / þat ye been so hard hered / þat ye wol do no thyng for me ¶ [2886] And Salomon seith / That he þat hath ouer hard an herte / atte laste / he shal myshappe & mystyde

[2887] ¶ Whanne Melibe hadde herd dame Prudence / make semblant of wrathe / he seyde in this wise ¶ [2888] Dame / I prey you / that ye be nat displeid / of thynges that I seye / [2889] for ye knowe wel / þat I am angry & wroth / & that is no wonder / [2890] and they that been wrothe / witen nat wel what they don / ne what they seyn ¶ [2891] Therefore / the prophete seith / That troubled eyen / han no clear sighte / [2892] but seieth & conseileth me / as yow liketh / for I am redy / to do / right as ye wol desire / [2893] & if ye reprene me of my folye: I am the moore holden / to loue you / & to preyse

aduersarys han begunne this debat & brige / by here outrage [2873] & 3e seen weel that they ne requyryn ne preyen me nat of pees / ne they axyn nat to been reconcyld / [2874] wole 3e thanne that I goo and meeke / me & obeye me to hem / & crye hem mercy / [2875] for sothe that were nat myn worschape / [2876] for ryght as men seyn / that our grete homelnyesse / engenderyth dyspryngso / so faryth it / by too grete humilite or meaknesse [2877]

¶ Thanne bygan Daame Prudence / to makyn semblant of wrethe & seyde [2878] Certis sire as I do myn owene / I loue youre honour & youre profit as I do myn owene / & euere haue doo / [2879] ne 3e ne noon oother seyden neuere the contrarye / [2880] And 3if if I hadde seyde / that 3e schulde / han purchasid / by the pees & the reconcyliacyoun / I ne hadde nat moche mystake me / no sayd a-mys / [2881] for the wise man seith / The dissencion / begynnith by another man / & the reconcyling bygynnith by thy self / [2882] And the prophete seith / flie schrewednesse & do goodnesse / [2883] Seke pees & folwe it in-as-muche as 3e may / [2884] 3if seye I nat / that 3e schul rather / pursue to youre aduersarye / for pees / than they schul to 3ow / [2885] for I knowe weel that 3e been so hard herid / that 3e welle doo no thyng for me // [2886] And Salomon seith / that he that hath ouyr hard an herte / that he at the laste schal myshappe / or mystyde .

¶ Whanne Melibeus hadde herd dame Prudence makyn semblant / of wrethe / he seyde in this wise / [2888] Dame I prey you that 3e been nat displeid / of thyngis that I seye / [2889] for 3e knowe weel / that I am angry & wroth / & that is no wondyr / [2890] & they that been wrothe / wetyn nat wel what they doon / ne what they seyn / [2891] Therefore the prophete seith / that troublede eyen han no clear syght / [2892] but seith & conseyleth me / as 3ou lykith / for I am redy to do / ryght as 3e welle desire / [2893] and 3if 3e repurre me of myn folye / I am the moore holdyn for to loue 3ow & to preyse

aduersaries han bygonne þis debaht and briggē by here outrage [2873] ¶ And 3e seen wel þat þey nouer queren ne preyen me nouht of pees. Ne þey asken me nouht to be reconciled [2874] ¶ Wole 3e þanne þat I go meke me and obeye me to hem. and crye hem mercy? [2875] for soþe þat were not my worshippe [2876] ¶ for riht as men sayþ þat ouer greþ homlynesse<sup>1</sup> engendreþ despying. So fareþ it by to greþ humilite and mekenesse [corrected]

[2877] ¶ Then bygan dame prudence to make semblant of wroþþe and sayde [2878] ¶ Certes sire sauē your gruce ¶ I loue your honour and your profyt as I do myn owne and euer haue doon [2879] ne 3e ne noon oþer ne saugh neuer þe contrarye [2880] ¶ And zet if I hadde seyd 3e schulde haue purchaced þe pees and þe reconciliation: I nad nouht mochal mystaken me na y-sayde amys [2881] ¶ for þe wise man seith. þe disencion bygyneþ by anoþer man and þe reconcilyngē begyneþ by jnself [2882] ¶ And þo prophete seiþ ¶ filie schrewdenesse and do goodness [2883] ¶ Seche pees and folowe it as mechil as in þe is [2884] ¶ zet seiþ he nouht ¶ zet schuln 3e raper pursue to your aduersaries for pees þan þey schullen to you [2885] ¶ for I knowe wel þat 3e bea so hardy y-hered þat 3e wolen don no þing for me [2886] ¶ And Salomon seiþ ¶ þat he þat haþ euer an hard herte: atte laste he schal myshappe and mystrye

[2887] ¶ Whan Melibeu hadde herdē dame Prudence make semblant of wroþþe ¶ he sayde in þis wyse [2888] ¶ Dame I pray you þat 3e be not displeid of þinges þat I say you [2889] for 3e knowe wel þat I am angry and wroþ and þat is no wonder [2890] ¶ and þo þat been wroþ witen not wel what þey doon ne what þey sayn [2891] ¶ Wherefore þo prophete seiþ þat / troubled eyen han no cleer sight [2892] ¶ Dut sitteþ and counseleþ me riht as 3ow list. for I am redy to doon riht as 3e wold desire [2893] ¶ And if 3e repreuen me of my folye I am þe more holden to loue 3ow and to preyseu

aduersaries haue bygonnen þis debate and briggē by her outrage [2873] And 3e see wel þat þei ne requiren na preien me nat of pees ne þei asken not to be reconcailled. [2874] wil 3e þan þat I goo meke and obeye me to hem. and crye hem mercye. [2875] for soth þat were not my worship. [2876] for riht as men sayþ þat ouer grete humblesse engendreþ despisinge. so fareþ it by to grete humilite & mekenesse

[2877] ¶ Than bygan dame prudence to make semblant of wreth and seide. [2878] Certes sire sauē your gruce I loue your honour and your profite as I do myn owne and euer haue done [2879] ne 3e ne mowen not sayn þe contrario. [2880] And zit if I had seide þat 3e schulde haue purchaced þe pees and þe reconciliation I ne had not moche mystake me ne seide amys [2881] for þe Wise man seiþ. The disencion bygyneþ by a noþer man. and þo reconcilyngē by þi self. [2882] and þo prophete seiþ. filie schrewdenesse and deo goodness [2883] ¶ Sake pees and folowe it in as moche as in þe is. [2884] ¶ zit seiþ he not þat 3e schuld swe raper to your aduersaries for pees þan þei schullen to you. [2885] for I knowe wel þat 3e bene so hard herted. þat 3e wil do no þing for mee [2886] ¶ And Salomon seiþ: þat he þat haþ ouer harde an hert. at þe last schal myshappe and mystide

[2887] ¶ Whan Melibeu had seydē dame prudence make semblant of wretch he seide in þis wise [2888] ¶ Dame I pray you þat 3e be not displeid of þinges þat I saye. [2889] for 3e knowe wel þat I am angry and wroþ and þat is no wonder. [2890] and þei þat bene wroþ. weten not wel what þei doon ne what þei seiue: [2891] ¶ And þerfore the prophete seiþ. That troubled eyen haue no cleer sight. [2892] Dut seiþ on and counsaile me as 3e list. for I am redy to doo riht as 3e wil desire. [2893] and if 3e repreue me of my folye I am þe more holden to loue 3ow and to preyseu

aduersaries haue begon þis debate. [et la brigue par leur outrage] [2873] And 3e seen wele þat þei nouer queren ne preyne me nouht of pees: ne þei axe me nouht to be reconciled: [2874] Wil 3e þan þat .I. go meke me & obeye me to hem & crye hem Mercye: [2875] for soþe þat were not my worshippe: [2876] for riht as men soine þat ouer grete humblesse engunderþ despisinge. So fareþ it to be grete humilite & mekenesse

[2877] ¶ þan by-gan dame prudence to make semblante of wroþþe: & seide [2878] certes sire sauē your gruce: I loue your honour & your profite as I do myn owen. & euer haue done [2879] ne 3e ne none oþre saue neuer þe contrarye: [2880] ¶ And. zit if .I. hadde seide 3e scholde haue purchaced þe pees & þe reconciliation: I hadde nouht mechal mestaken me ne .I. seide amys: [2881] for þe wise man seiþe. The disencion be-ginneþ be anoþer man: & þe reconcilinge be-ginneþ be þi self [2882] ¶ An þe profet seiþe: filye schrewdenesse & do goodness: [2883] Seche pees & folowe it in al so muche as in þe is: [2884] zit seiþ he nouht 3e schollen þe raper pursue to your aduersarie þan þei schollen to you [2885] ¶ for .I. knowe wele 3e bene so hardy y-hered þat 3e wil do no þinge for me. [2886] ¶ And Salomon. seiþe: þat he þat haþe ouer harde an hert: atto þe last he schal myshapp & mystide:

[2887] Whan Melibe had herdē dame prudence makeo semblant of wroþþe he seide in þis wise. [2888] Dame .I. preie you þat 3e be nouht displeid of þinges þat .I. seiē you [2889] ¶ For 3e knowe wel þat .I. [am] angry & wroþe & þat is no wonder [2890] And þo þat been wroþe weten nouht welo what þei done: ne what þei seiue: [2891] Wherefore þe prophete seiþe: þat troubled eyen haue none cleer sight [2892] Bot sitteþe & counseleþ me riht as 3ow list: For! I am redy to done riht as 3e wold desire [2893] ¶ And if 3e repreue me of my folye .I. am more holden to loue 3ow & to preise

¶ Salomon yow [2894] ¶ for Salomon seith ¶. That he þat repreteth hym that dooth folye / [2895] he schal fynde greiter grace than he / that dooeyeth hym by swete wordes

[2896] ¶ Thanne seide dame Prudence ¶ I make no semblant of wraithe ne Anger / but for youre gret profit [2897] ¶ for Salomon seith ¶. He is moore worth that repreteth / or chideth a fool for his folye shewyng hym semblant of wraithe / [2898] than he that supporteth hym and p[ro]f[ite]th hym in his mysdoynge and laugheth at his folye. [2899] ¶ And this same Salomon / seith afterward ¶. That by the sorwful visage of a man / that is to seyn / by the sory and heuy contenance of a man / [2900] the fool correcteth and amendeth hym self

¶ Melibee [2901] Thanne seyde Melibee ¶ I schal nat konne answer to so manye faire resonis / as ye putten to me and asheren / [2902] seyeth shortly youre wyl and youre conseil / and I am al redy to fulfille and performe it

¶ Prudence [2903] Thanne dame Prudence / discovered al hir wyl to hym / and seyde [2904] ¶ I counseile you quod she abouen alle thynges / that ye make pees / bitwene god and yow / [2905] and both reconciled yow to hym and to his grace ¶ [2906] for as I have seyde yow heer bifore / god hath suffred you to have this tribulacion and disse / for youre synnes / [2907] And if ye do as I sey yow / god wol sende youre Aduersaries vn-to yow [2908] and maken hem fallen at youre feet redy to do youre wyl and youre commandementis [2909] ¶ for Salomon seith ¶. when the condicion of man is pleasant and lykynge to god / [2910] he changeth the heres of the mannes Aduersaries and constreyneth hem / to biseken hym / of pees and of grace / [2911] and I pray yow / lat me speke with youre Aduersaries in pryuee place / [2912] for they schal nat knowe / that it be of youre wyl / or youre assent. [2913] and thanne when I knowe / hir wyl and hire entente / I may counseile yow the moore seurely

¶ Salomon [2914] Dame quod Melibee / dooth youre wil and

yow ¶ [2894] for Salomon seith ¶ That he þat repreteth hym þat dooth folie / [2895] he schal fynde greiter grace / than he þat dooeyeth hym by swete wordes

[2896] ¶ Thanne seyde dame Prudence / I make no semblant of wraithe ne of anger / but for youre grette profit ¶ [2897] for Salomon seith ¶ he is moore worth / þat repreteth / or chideth a fool / for his folie / shewyng hym semblant of wraithe / [2898] than he þat supporteth hym & preiseth hym / in his mysdoynge / & laugheth at his folie ¶ [2899] And this same Salomon seith afterward ¶ That by the sorwful visage of a man / that is to seyn / by the sory & heuy contenance of a man / [2900] the fool correcteth & amendeth hym self

[2901] ¶ Thanne seyde Melibe / I schal nat konne answer to vn-to so manye resonis / as ye putten to me & shewen / [2902] seith shortly / youre wyl & youre conseil / & I am al redy / to fulfille & performe it

[2903] ¶ Thanne / dame Prudence / discovered al hir wyl vn-to hym / & seyde ¶ [2904] I counseile you quod she / abouen alle thynges / þat ye make pees bitwene god & yow / [2905] & both reconciled vn-to hym & to his grace / [2906] for as I have seyde yow heer bifore / god hath suffred yow / to have this tribulacion & disse / for youre synnes / [2907] and if ye do as I seye yow / god wol sende youre Aduersaries vn-to yow / [2908] & maken hem falle at youre feet redy to do youre wyl & youre commandementis ¶ [2909] for Salomon seith / when the condicion of man / is pleasant & lykynge to god / [2910] he changeth the heres of the mannes Aduersaries / & constreyneth hem / to biseken hym of pees & of grace / [2911] and I pray yow / lat me speken with youre Aduersaries in pryuee place / [2912] for they schal nat knowe / þat it be of youre wyl / or youre assent. [2913] and thanne / when I knowe hir wyl & hir entente / I may counseile yow / the moore seurely

[2914] ¶ Dame quod Melibe / dooth youre wyl / &

30w // [2894] for Salomon seyth / that he that repreteth hym that doth folye [2895] he schal fynde greitere grace / than he that disseyeth hym with swete wordys / [2896]

¶ Thanne seyde dame Prudence / I make no sembland of wraithe ne of anger / but for youre grette profyth / [2897] for Salomon seyth he is moore worth that repreteth or chydeth / a fool for his folyes / shewyng hym semblant of wrothe / [2898] than he that supporteth hym & preysith hym in his mysdoynge. 'and laugheth at his folye / [2899] and this same salomon seyth afterward / that by the sorwful visage of a man that is to seyne by the sorys & heuy contenance / of a man [2900] the fool correctyth & amendyth hymself / [2901]

¶ Thanne seyde Melibee / I schal nat cunne answer to so manye & fayr resonys as ye putten on to me / & schewyn / [2902] seyth shortly vn-to me youre wyl & youre conseil / & I am al redy to performe it & fulfille it /

¶ Thanne Dame Prudence discoverede al hire wif on to hym & seyde / [2904] I counseyle you quod sche abouyn alle thynges / that ye makyn pees by-twene god and 30w / [2905] & both reconcyled vn-to hym & to his grace / [2906] for as I have seyde 30w heer by-for / god hath suffred 30w to have this tribulacion & dissece / for youre synnyngs / [2907] and 3if ye do as I seyde 30w / god welle sende 30re aduersarijs vn-to 30w / [2908] & make hem to falle at 30ure feet / redy to doon 30ure wyl & 30ure commandement / [2909] for Salomon seyth / whanne the condicion of a man / is pleasant & lykynge to god / [2910] he changeth the heris of the manys aduersaries / & constreyneth hem to beseke hym of pees & of grace

[2911] & I preyse 30w lat me spekyyn with 30ure aduersarijs pryuyly / [2912] for they schal nat knowe that it be of 30ure wyl / or 30ure assent / [2913] and thanne whanne I knowe here wyl & here entent I may counseyle 30w the moore sewerly

30u [2894] ¶ for Salomon seiþ ¶ he þat reþrouþ him þat doþ folye: [2895] he schal fynden grettere grace þan he þat deceyueþ him by wordes

[2896] ¶ Then sayde dame Prudence ¶ I make no semblant of wraþþe/ no of anger but for youre owne profyt [2897] ¶ for Salomon seiþ ¶ he is more worþ þat ropreueþ or chideþ a fool for his folye schewing him semblant of wraþþe: [2898] þan he þat supporteþ him / [ . . . . no gap] in his mysdoynge & laueþ at his folye [2899] ¶ And þis same Salomon seiþ afterward þat by þe sorful visage of man þat is to sayn by sory and heuy contynance of a man [2900] þe folk correcteþ and amendeþ him self

[2901] ¶ Than sayde Mellibe ¶ I schal nouþt konne an-swere vnto so many resonis as 30 putteþ to me and scheweþ [2902] Sayeþ shortly youre wille and youre coun-sail and I am al redy to fulfillle and performe

[2903] ¶ Theñne dame Prudence discouered al hire wille vnto him and sayde [2904] ¶ I counsaile you quod he abouen alle þinge þat 30 maken pees betwixen god and you [2905] and beþ reconcaild vnto him and vnto his grace [2906] ¶ for as I haue sayde 30 here-byforn god haþ suffred you to haue þis tribulacion and disces for þoure synnes. [2907] And if 30 doon as I say 30 god wol sende 3oure aduersaries vnto 30 [2908] and maken 3oure aduersaries fallen at 3oure feet. redy to doon 3our wille and 3oure comaundement [2909] ¶ for Salomon seiþ when þe con-dicion of man is plesaunt and likinge vnto god // [2910] he chaungeþ þe hertes of mannes aduersaries and con-streyneth hem to besochen him of pees and of grace [2911] ¶ And I pray 30 let me speke wiþ 3our aduersaries in priue place [2912] ¶ for þey schuln nouþt knowe þat it be 3oure wille or 3oure assent [2913] and þenne when I knowe here wille and here assent ¶ I may counsaile you þe more surely

[2914] ¶ Dame quod Mellibe doþ 3oure wille and CORPUS (6-T. 244) ¶ leaf 222

30u [2894] ¶ for Salomon seiþ That he þat reþrouþ hym þat doþ foly. [2895] he schal finde gretter grace þat he þat deceyueþ hym wiþ swete wordes

[2896] Than said Dame prudence. I make no semblant of wraþþe no of anger but for youre grete profite [2897] ¶ for Salomon seiþ: he is more wroþþ þat ropreueþ or chideþ a foole for his folye schewing him semblant of wraþþe [2898] þan he þat supporteþ hym or preiseþ him in his mysdoynge at laueþ at his foly [2899] ¶ And þis same Salomon seiþ afterward þat by þe sorful vese of a man þat is to sayn by sory and heuy contynance of a man [2900] þe foole correcteþ and amendeþ him self

[2901] ¶ Than sayde Meleby I shal not conne an-swere to so many resonis as 30 putten to me and shewen / [2902] seiþ shortly youre wille. and 3oure counsaile and I am al redy to fulfillle and performe it [2903] ¶ Than Dame prudence diskenered al her wille vnto him and saide [2904] I counsaile you þat 30 abouen al þinge maken pees bytwene god and 3oure [2905] and beþ reconcaild vnto him and to his grace. [2906] for I haue seiþ 3ou here byfore ¶ God

haþ suffred you to haue þis tribulacion and disces for þoure synnes. [2907] And if 30 do as I say 3oues god wil sende 3oure aduersaries vnto 30 [2908] and make hem to falle at 3oure feet redy to 3oure wille and 3oure comaundement [2909] ¶ for Salomon seiþ: When þe con-dicion of man is plesaunt and likinge to god [2910] he chaungeþ þe hertes of þe mannes aduersaries and con-streyneth hem to bysochen him of pees and of grace [2911] ¶ And I prei 30 let me speke wiþ 3oure aduersaries in priue place. [2912] for þei schal not knowe it be 3oure wille ne 3oure assent. [2913] And þan when I knowe her wille and assent: I may counsaile 30
þe more surely

[2914] ¶ Dame quod Meleby doþ 3our wille and S S PETWORTH (6-T. 244) ¶ leaf 222, back

30u. [2894] For Salomon seiþ he þat reþrouþ him þat doþ folye [2895] he schal finde gretter grace þan he þat deceyueþ him be wordes.

[2896] Than seide dame Prudence .I. make no semblant of wraþþe no of anger bot for youre owen profit.
[2897] For Salomon seiþ ¶ He is more worþ þat re-preueþ or chideþ a foole for his foly scheweinge him
semblant of wraþþe [2898] þan he þat supporteþ him & & preiseþ him in his mys-doinge & laueþ at his folye [2899] ¶ And þis salomon seiþ afterwarde: þat by þe sorweful visage of man: þat is to seye: be þe sory & þe heuy countenance of a man [2900] þe foole correcteþ & amendeþ him self

[2901] ¶ Than seide Mellibe: ¶ I schal nouþt kon Answeren vnto so many resonis as 30 putteþ to me & scheweþ: [2902] seiþe shortly 3oure wille & 3oure counsaile And .I. am redy. to fulfillle & performe

[2903] ¶ Than Dame Prudence discouered al hire wille vnto him & seide: [2904] I counsel 3oure quod sche abouen alle þinge: þat 30 maken pees betwene god & 3oure: [2905] & beþe reconcailde vnto him & to his grace [2906] For as .I. haue seide 3oure here be-forne: God haþe suffred 3oue to haue þis tribulacione & disces. for þoure synnes: [2907] And if 30 doon as .I. seiþ 3oure god wil sende 3oure aduersaries vnto 3oure: [2908] & maaken hem to fallen at 3oure feete redy to done 3oure wille & youre comaundement [2909] ¶ For Salomon seiþ when þe con-dicion of man is plesant & likeande vnto god: [2910] He chaungeþ þe hertes of mannes aduersaries: & con-streyneth hem to besochen him of pees & of grace: [2911] & .I. praye 3oue lete me speke wiþ 3oure aduersaries in priue place: [2912] for þei schol not knowe þat it be 3oure wille or 3oure assent: [2913] And þan when .I. knowe her wille and here assent: .I. may counsaile 3oue more surely:

[2914] ¶ Dame quod Mellibe: doþa 3our wille &
LANSDOWNE (6-T. 244) ¶ leaf 224

your lykynge / [2915] for I putte me hoolly / in youre disposicion and ordinaunce

† Prudence

[2916] Thanne Dame Prudence / when she saugh the goods wyl of hir housbonde / delibered and took ays in hir self / [2917] thynkinge / how she myghte brynge this nede / vn-to a good conclusion / and to a good ende / [2918] And when she saugh hir tyme / she sente for thise
Adnersaries / to come vn-to hire in to a priuce place / [2919] and shewed wisely vn-to hem / the grete goodes that comen of pees / [2920] and the grete harmes and perils / that been in werre / [2921] and seyde to hem / in a goodly manere / how that hom oughten / haue greet repentance / [2922] of the Iniurie and wrong that they hadden don / to Melibee hir lord / and to hire / And to hire doghter

[2923] And when they harden the goodliche wordes of Dame Prudence / [2924] they weren so suppressed and rauyshed / and hadden so greet ioye of hire / that wonder was to telle [2925] ¶ A lady quod they / ye han shewed vn-to vs / the blyssynge of swetnesse / after the sawe of Dauid the prophete / [2926] for the reconcilynge / which we be not worthy to haue in no manere / [2927] but we oghte requeren it with greet contricion and humylytee / [2928] ye of youre grete goodness haue presented vn-to vs [2929] ¶ Now so we wel / that the science and the konnyng of Salomon is ful trewe [2930] ¶ For he seith ¶ That swete wordes / multipliyn and encreesen frendes / and maken shrewes / to be debonaire and meke [2931] ¶ Certes quod they / we putten oure dede and al oure matere and cause / al hoolly / in youre goods wyl / [2932] and been redy to obeye to the speche and comandement of my lord Melibee [2933] ¶ And therefore deere and benygne lady / we preyen yow sad beseke yow as mekely as we konne and mouen / [2934] that it lyke vn-to your grete goodness / to fulfillen in dede / youre good-liche wordes / [2935] for we consideren and knowelichen /

ELLESMEERE

(6-11246)

[leaf 17r]

your lykynge / [2915] for I putte me hoolly / in youre disposicion & ordinaunce

[2916] ¶ Thanne dame Prudence / when she saw the goods wyl of hir housbonde / she deluyerde / & took ays in hir self / [2917] thynkyng / how she myghte brynge this nede / vn-to a good conclusiō & to a good ende /
[2918] And when she saugh hir tyme / she sente for thise
Adnersaries to come vn-to hire / in to a priuce place / [2919] & shewed wysly vn-to hem / the grete goodes / pat comen of pees / [2920] & the grete harmes / & perils / pat been in werre / [2921] & seyde to hem / in a goodly manere / how pat hem oughten haue greet repentance / [2922] of the Iniurie & wrong pat they hadden don / to Melibee hir lord / & vn-to hire / & to hir doghter //

[2923] And when they harden / the goodliche wordes / of dame Prudence / [2924] they weren so suppressed & rauyshed / & hadden so 'greet ioye of hire / pat wonder was to telle // [2925] A lady quod they / ye han shewid vn-to us / the blyssynge of swetnesse / after the sawe of Dauid the prophete // [2926] for the reconcilynge / which
we be not worthy to haue in no manere / [2927] but we oghte requeren it with greet contricion & humylytes / [2928] yow of youre grete goodness / haue presentid vn-to vs // [2929] Now so we wel / pat the science / & the konnyng of Salomon / is ful trewe / [2930] for he seith / That swete wordes / multipliyn & encreesen frendes / & maken shrewes / to be debonaire & meke

[2931] Certes quod they / we putten oure dede & al oure matere / & cause / al hoolly / in youre goods wyl / [2932] & been redy to obeye vn-to the speche & comandement of my lord Melibee // [2933] And therefore deere & benygne lady / we preyen yow / & beseken yow / as mekely / as we konne & mouen / [2934] pat it like / vn-to your grete goodness / to fulfille in dede / youre good-liche wordes / [2935] for we consideren & knowelichen /

HENGWRT

(6-T. 246)

[leaf 17r, back]

your lykynge / [2915] for I putte me holly / in youre
disposicion and ordinaunce

[2916]

¶ Thanne dame Prudence whanne scho saw the grete wil of hire housbonde / delibered & took ays in hireself / [2917] thynkyng how scho myghte brynge this nede into a good conclusiō / & to a good ende [2918] And when scho saw hire tyme scho sente for hire adnersarys / to come vn-to hire into a priuce place / [2919] & schawede wisely vn-to hem / the grete goodis that comyn of pees [2920] & the grete harmys / & perils that comyn in werre / [2921] & seyde to hem in a goodely manere / how that hem oughte to han greet repentance / [2922] of the Initrie & the wrong that they hadden don to hire lord / and vn-to hire & to hire dougtyr

[2923]

¶ And whanne / they herdyn the goodelyche wordis off Dame Prudence / [2924] they weren so suppressed / & muyshit & haddyn so greet ioye of hire that wondyr was to seen / or telle // [2925] A lady quod they so han schewyd vn-to vs / the blyssynge of swetnesse / after the sawe of daryth the prophete / [2926] for the reconcilynge which we be not worthi for to haue / in no manere / [2927] but we ougten to requyryn it with vericontrycioun / & humilite that [2928] so of youre grete goodness / haue presentid vnto vs / [2929] Now so we weid / that the science & the can-nyng of Salomon is ful trewe / [2930] for he seyth that swete wordys / multipliyn & encreysyn frendis / & makyn schrewys to been debonaire & meke /

[2931] Certis quod they / we putte oure dedes & al oure matyere & cause al only in youre goede wyl / [2932] and been redy to obeye to the comandement of myn lord Melibee / [2933] And therefore deere & benygne lady / we preyo yow & beseko yow as mekely as we kunne / And mouen / [2934] that it like vn-to your grete goodness / to fulfille in dede / youre good-lyche wordis // [2935] for we consideryn & knowelichyn /

CAMBRIDGE

(6-T. 246)

[leaf 17r]

3oure lykynge [2915] ¶ For I putte me holly in 3oure disposicion and ordinace

[2916] ¶ Thenne dame Prudence when sche saugh þe goode wille of hire housbonde scho deluyered and took a-vys in hire self [2917] þenkinge howe sche myghte bringe þis neeðe. vnto a good conclusion and to a good ende [2918] ¶ And when scho saugh hire tyme sche sente for þe aduersaries to come vnto hire in-to a priue place [2919] and schewed wysely vnto hem þe grete goodnesse þat cometh of pees [2920] and þe grete harmes and periles þat ben in werre [2921] ¶ And sayde to hem in a goodly manere how þat hem ¶ aughte to haue grete repentance [2922] of þe iniury and wrong þat þey hadden done to Mellibe hire lord and vnto hire and vnto hire daughter

[2923] ¶ And when þey herden þe goode wordes of dame Prudence. [2924] þey weren so supprised and rauysschþ and hadden so gret ioye of hire þat wonder was to telle [2925] ¶ A lady quod þay 3o han schewed vnto vs þe blessing of swetnesse after þe sawe of dauid þe prophete [2926] ¶ for þe reconcilinge which we ne ben not worþi to haue in no manere [2927] ¶ But we oughten requeren hit wiþ gret contricion & humilite [2928] 3o of 3oure grete goodnesse han presented vnto vs [2929] ¶ Now se we wel þat þe science and þe conyng of Salomon is ful trewe. [2930] for he seiþ þat swete wordes multiplen and encreasen frendes and maken schrewes to be debonaire and meke

[2931] ¶ Certes quod þey we putten oure dede and all oure matiere and cause al holly in 3oure goode wille [2932] and ben redy to obeye to þe speche of þe commandement of my lord Mellibe [2933] ¶ And þerfore deere and benigne lady we prouen 3ou and besochen 3ou as mekely as we come and mowen [2934] þat þat hit like vnto 3oure grete goodnesse to fulfillen in dede 3oure goode wordes [2935] ¶ for we considren and knowlechen

3oure lykinge [2915] for I putte me fulli in 3oure disposicion and 3oure ordynance

[2916] ¶ Than dame prudence when [she] aghþ þe wille of her husbondo and sho deluyered hir and toke avice by hire self [2917] þenkinge by her self how she myghte bringe þis neede vnto a goode conclusion and a good ende [2918] ¶ And when she seeþ hir tyme she sent for þise aduersaries to come vnto her into a pryvy place [2919] and schewed wysely vnto hem þe gret goodnesse þat cometh of pees. [2920] and þe grete harmes and periles þat ben in werre. [2921] and saide to hem in a good[ly] manere howe þat hem ousten to haue grete repentance [2922] of þe iniury and wronge þat þei hadden ydone. to Meleby her lord and vnto her and vnto her douhter.

[2923] And when þei herden þe goodly wordes of dame Prudence [2924] þei weren so supprised and rauished and hadden so gret ioye of her þat wondere was to telle [2925] ¶ O lady quod þei 3o han schewed vnto vs þe blissing of swetnesse after þe sawe of dauid þe prophete. [2926] for þe reconcilinge which we ne ben not worþi to haue in no manere. [2927] but we oust to requeren it wiþ grete contricion and humilite [2928] 3o as 3oure grete goodnesse haþ presented vnto us [2929] ¶ Now se we wel þe science and þe conyng
of Salomon is ful trewe [2930] for he seiþ þat
swete wordes multiplen and encreasen frendes. and
maken schrewes to be debonaire and meke

[2931] Certes quod þei we putten oure dede and all our matere. and cause alhooly in 3oure good wille [2932] and bene redy to obeye to þe speche and þe commandement of my lord Melebye [2933] ¶ And þerfore our dere and benigne lady we prouen 3ou and bysochen 3ou as mekely as we come or mowen [2934] ¶ þat hit like vnto 3oure grete goodnesse to fulfillen in dede 3oure goodly wordes [2935] for we considren and knowen

3oure likeinge. [2915] For .I. putte me holy in 3oure disposicion & ordinance.

[2916] ¶ Than dame prudence when sche sawe þe good wil of of hire husbondo: Scho deluyerlye toke a-vise in her self [2917] þenkinge howe she myht bringe þis neeðe vnto a good conclusion & to a good ende: [2918] And when scho sawe hire time: sche sente for þe aduersaries to come to hire into A priue place: [2919] And schewed wysly vnto hem þe grete goodnesse þat cometh of Pees: [2920] And þe grete harmes & perils þat bene in werre: [2921] And seiden to hem in goodly manere howe þat hem austen to haue grete repentance [2922] of þe iniury & þe wronge þat þei hadden done to Mellibe here lord and vnto hire & vnto hire doughter:

[2923] And when þei herden þe good wordes of dame prudence: [2924] þei weren so supprised & rauysshed & hadden so gret ioye of hire þat wonder was to tell: [2925] ¶ A lady quod þei 3o bene schewed vnto vs þe blise of swetnesse after þe sawe of dauid þe profette: [2926] For þe reconcilinge which þat we ne be not worþi to haue in no manere: [2927] ¶ Bot we oulten to requite it wiþ grete contricion & humilite:
[2928] 3o of 3oure grete goodnesse haþ presented vnto vs: [2929] ¶ Nowe see we wel þat þe conscience & þe conyng
of Salomon is ful trewe. [2930] For he seiþ þat swette wordes multiplen & encreasen frendes: And maken schrewes to be debonaire & meke:

[2931] ¶ Certe quod þei we putte oure dede & al oure matier & cause & holi in-to 3oure good wille: [2932] & bene redy to obeye to þe speche of þe commandement of my lorde Mellibe: [2933] ¶ And þerfore dere & beuygne lady: we proune 3oue & besochen 3oue as we kon & mowen [2934] þat þat hit like vnto 3oure grete goodnesse to ful-fille in dede 3oure goode wordes [2935] ¶ For we considren & knowleche that we han offendid and gresed my lord Melibeo out of mesure / [2936] so ferforth / that we be nat of power / to maken hise amendes / [2937] and therefore / we oblige and bynden vs and oure freendes / to doon al his wyl and hise comandementz / [2938] ¶ but perauenture / he hath swich heynesse / and swich wrath to vs ward / by cause of oure offense / [2939] þat he wole enioyne vs swich a peyne / as we mowe nat here / ne sustene / [2940] and therefore noble lady / we besoken to youre womanly pitee / [2941] to taken swich ayusement / in this nede / that we / ne oure freendes / be nat debaritid ne destroyed / thurgh oure folye

¶ Prudence [2942] Certes quod Prudence / it is an hard thyng<sup>e</sup> and right perilous / [2943] that a man putte hym al outely / in the arbitraioñ & Iuggement / and in the myght and power of hise enemyz [2944] ¶ ffor Salomon seith / Leueth me / and yeueth credence / to that I shal seyn ¶ I seye quod he ¶ ye peple / folk<sup>e</sup> and gouernours of hooly chirche [2945] ¶ to thy sone / to thy wyf / to thy freend / ne to thy brother / [2946] ne ye / tho neuere myght ne maistrice of thy body / whil thou lyuost. [2947] ¶ Now sithen he defendeth / that man shal nat yeuen to his brother / ne to his freend / the myght of his body<sup>e</sup> [2948] by a stronger reson / he defendeth & forbedeth a man / to yeue hym self to his enemy [2949] ¶ And natheles I conseilte you / that ye / mystruste nat my lord / [2950] for I woot wel / and knowe veraily / that he is / debonaire and meke / large / curteis / [2951] and no thyng desirous / ne couetous of good / ne richesse [2952] ¶ for ther nys no thyng in this world that he desireth / save onoly / worshippe and honour [2953] ¶ fforther moore I knowe wel / and am right seur / that he shal no thyng doon in this nede / with-outen my conseil / [2954] And I shal so werken in this cause / that by grace of oure lord god / ye shul be reconciled vn-to vs

[2955] ¶ Thanne seyden they / with o. <sup>1</sup> voyz ¶ worshipful

þat we han offendid & gresed / my lord Melibeo / out of mesure / [2936] so ferforth / þat we been nat of power / to maken hise amendes ¶ [2937] & therfore / we oblige & bynde vs & oure freendes / for to do al his wyl & his comandementz ¶ [2938] but perauenture / he hath swich heynesse & swich wrath to vward / by cause of oure offense / [2939] þat he wole enioyne vs / swich peyne / as we mowe nat here / ne sustene ¶ [2940] And therefore noble lady / we besoken to youre womanly pitee / [2941] to taken swich ayusement in this nede / þat we ne oure freendes / be nat debaritid & destroyed / thurgh oure folie

[2942] ¶ Certes quod Prudence / it is an hard thyng<sup>e</sup> & right perilous / [2943] þat a man putte hym al outely in the arbitraioñ & Iuggement / and in the myght & power of hise enemyz ¶ [2944] ffor Salomon seith / leueth me / & yeueth credence / to that þat I shal seyn ¶ I seye quod he / ye peple / & gouernours / & gouernours of hooly chirche / [2945] ¶ to thy sone / to thy wyf / to thy freend / ne to thy brother / [2946] ne yeue tho neuere myght ne maistrice of thy body / whil you lyuost ¶ [2947] Now sithen he defendeth / þat man sholde nat yeue to his brother / ne to his freend / the myght of his body<sup>e</sup> [2948] by a stronger reson / he defendeth & forbedeth a man / to yeue hym self to his enemy / [2949] And natheles I conseilte nat my lord / [2950] for I woot wel & knowe veraily / þat he is debonaire & meke / large / curteis / [2951] & no thyng desirous / ne couetous / of good / ne richesse / [2952] for ther nys no thyng in this world þat he desireth / save onoly / worshippe & honour [2953] ¶ fforther moore I knowe wel & am right seur / þat he shal no thyng do in this nede / with-outen my conseil / [2954] And I shal so werken in this cause / þat by the grace of oure lord god / ye shul be reconciled vn-to vs

[2955] ¶ Thanne seyden they with o voyz ¶ Worshipful that we haue offendid & gresed myn lord Melibeo out of mesure [2936] so far forth / that we been nat of power / to maken hise amendis / [2937] And therefore we oblygn & byndyn vs & oure frendis for to doon his wil / & al his comaundementz / [2938] but perauenture he hath swich heynesse & swich wrath to vaward / by cause of oure offence [2939] that he wole enioynyn vs swich a peyne as we mowe nat bere ne sustene / [2940] And therefore noble lady we besekyn to thyyn womanly pite / [2941] to takyn swich ayusement / in this nede / that we ne oure frendis been nat disceitid ne destroyed / thowr oure folye [2942]

¶ Certis quod Prudence / it is an hard thyng [et perilleuse] [2943] that a man putte hym al vtreely in arbitracioyn & Iugement & in the myght & power of hyse enemyz / [2944] ffor Salomon seith / Leueyth me <sup>1</sup> & yeueth credence to that that I schal seyn / I seye quod he the peple / folk / & gouernouris of hooly cherche [2945] to thyn sone to thyyn wif / to thyn frend ne to thyn brothyrz [2946] ne seue tho neuere mygh ne maystrye / of thyn body whil thou leyest [2947] ¶ Now sithyn that he defendygh that a man schulde nat seueyn to hise brothir <sup>1</sup> to his frend the myst of hise body / [2948] by a stronger reson / he defendith & forbedyth a man / to seueyn hym self to his enemy / [2949] And natheles I conseilte þow that ye mystruste nat myn lord / [2950] for I wot weel & knowe veraily / that he is debonayre / and meoke large curteis / & nothyng desyrous / ne couetous of good / ne rychesse / [2952] for there ne is no thyng in this world / that he desiryth / save onoly worschepe & honour / [2953] fforthere moore I knowe & am ryzt sekry that he schal nothyng doon in this nede with-outyn myn conseil / [2954] And I schal so werkyn in this cause / that by the grace of oure lord god ye schul be reconcyled vn-to vs [2955] ¶ Thanne seydyn they with con vois / worschepeþat we han offended and y-groued my lord Mellibe out of reson and mesure [2936] so ferforþ þat we be nouȝt of power to maken him amendes [2937] ¶ And þerfore we oblige vs and oure frendes for to don alle his wille and his comaundement [2938] ¶ But þeraventure he hap such hevynesse and such wrapþe to vs warþ by cause of oure offense [2939] ¶ That wil enoygne vs such peyne þat we may not here ne sustene [2940] ¶ And þerfore noble lady we besoeche to youre wommanly pite [2941] to taken such avisement/ in þis nede þat we ne oure frendes ne ven nouȝt disheritid þurgh oure folye

[2942] ¶ Certes quod Prudence ¶ It is an hard þing and right perilous [2943] þat a man putte him al outrely in þe arbitracion and Iugement and in þe might & power of his enemyes [2944] ¶ For Salomon saþ ¶ Loueþ me and ȝeueþ credence to þat þat I schal sayn
 ¶ I say yeuere peple and gouernours of holy chirche [2945] to þin sone to þin wyf [à ton frèr] and to þin frende [2946] ¶ Je donne puissance sur toy en toute ta vie [2947] So il a donques defendu que ten ne donne . . . à frèr ne à ami (Le Ménagier, i. 230) þe right of his body [2948] ¶ By a strengre reson he defendeþ and forbedeþ a man to ȝite himself vnto his enemye [2949] ¶ And naples I counsaile ȝou þat ȝe mystrust noȝt my lord [2950] ¶ For I wot wel and knowe weþ þat he is debonaire and meke large & courtys [2951] and no þing desirous of good ne couytous to haue richesse [2952] ¶ For þer is no þing in þis world þat he desirþ sans worshippe and honour [2953] ¶ Forþermore
 I knowe wel and I am right seur þat he schal noþing do in þis nede wylouten my counsell [2954] ¶ And I schal so werken in þis cause by þe grace of oure lord god þat þe schuln be reconciled vnto vs

[2955] ¶ Þenne sayden þey wip oȝ voyce ¶ Worshopful
 CORPUS (6-T. 240)

þat we han offended and greued my lorde Melebio out of mesure [2936] so for forþ þat we bene nat a power to maken his a[men]lys. [2937] and þerfore we oblige and bynde vs and our frendes for to doo al his wille and his comaundement [2938] But þeraventure he hap such hevynesse and such wroth to vs warþ by cause of oure defence [2939] þat he wil enoygne vs such peyne as we may not here ne susteyne [2940] ¶ And þerfore noble lady we biseke to youre wommanly pite .
 [2941] takeþ such avisement in þis nede þat we ne our frendes ben not disheritid ne distroied þurgh oure foly

[2942] Certis quod Prudence it is an harde þing and riyþ perilous [2943] þat man put him al vterly in þe arbitracion and Iugement and in þe myght and power of his enemyes [2944] ¶ For Salomon seþ ¶ Loueþ me and ȝeueþ credence to þat I schal sayn ¶ I say quod he ȝif puple and gouernours of holy chirch [2945] to þi sone .
 to þi wif and þi frende . no to þi broþer .
 [2946] no ȝeue þu neuere myȝt ne maistrie of þi body while þou lyuest [2947] ¶ Nowe siþ þat he forfendep . þat man shuld not ȝeue to his broþer ne to his frende þe myȝt of his body [2948] Than by a strengre reson he forfendep and forbedep . a man to ȝeue hym self vnto his enemye [2949] ¶ And naples I counsaile ȝowe þat ȝe no mystrust notȝt my lord [2950] for I wote wel and knowe verely þat he is debonaire and meke . large and courtys . [2951] and no þing desirous of good ne richesse . [2952]
 For nys no þing in þis world þat he desirþ sans oonly worship and honour [2953] ¶ Forþermore I knowe wel and I am riyþ seur þat he wil no þing doo in þis nede wipout counsaile of me . [2954] And I schal so werche in þis cause þat by þe grace of our lorde god ȝe schul be reconcailid vnto vs .

[2955] Than seide þei wip oon vois. Worshopful
 PETWORTH (6-T. 240)

þat we haue offended & greued my lorde Mellibe oute of reson & mesure [2936] so fer forþe þat we be nouȝt of powere
 to maken him amendes: [2937] And þerfore we oblige vs & oure frendes for to done al his wille & comaundement [2938] Bot þeraventure he haþe suche hevynesse & sucho wrapþe to vs warde because of oure offense: [2939] þat [he] wil enoygne vs andeþ peyne as we maie nouȝt here ne susteine. [2940] ¶ And þerfore noble lady: we be-sochen youre wommanly pyte [2941] to take suche avisement in þis nede: þat we ne oure frendes be nouȝt disheritid [et perdis] þerwe oure folye

[2942] ¶ Certes quod Prudence it is it is an harde þing & riyþ perilous [2943] þat a man putte him in þe arbitracioe & Iugement al vterly: & in þe myht & pouere of his enemyes: [2944] For Salomon seþ: Loueþ me & ȝif credence to þat I. schal seine: I.
 sais [tout peuple et toutes gens et gouverners de gloire (Reg. 19 C xi)] [2945] No ȝeue neuere þi sone ne þi wif . þi frende no þi self [2946] vn-to þe hondes ne myht of þine enemye: [2947] ¶ And Naples .I. counsel ȝowe [So il a donques defendu que on ne donne puissance sur soy a frere ne a amy (MS Reg. 19 C xi, leaf 64, col. 2)] [2948] By a stronger resone he defendeþ & forbedeþ a man to ȝeue him selfe vn-to his enemye: [2949] ¶ And naples .I. counsel ȝowe þat ȝe mistrust nouȝt my lorde: [2950] for .I. wote welle & knowe welle þat he is debonaire & meke large & courtys [2951] & no þing desirous of good no Couytous to haue richesse: [2952] For þere is no þing in þis world þat he desirþ sans worshippe & honour: [2953] Forþermore .I. knowe welle & .I. am riyt seur þat He schal no þing doo in þis nede: wip-out myne counsell: [2954]
 And .I. schal so werken in þis cause by þe grace of oure lorde god þat ȝe scholne be reconciled vnto vs /:

[2955] Then seiden þei wip oȝ voyce: ¶
 Lansdowne (6-T. 240)

lady we patten vs and oure goodes al fully in youre wil and disposicion / [2956] and been redy / to comen / what day þat it like vn-to youre noblesse to lymyte vs or assigne vs [2957] for to maken oure obligaciō and boond as strong as it liketh vn-to youre goodnesse / [2958] that we moue fulfille the wille of yow / and of my lord Melibe

¶ Prudence [2959] Whan Dame Prudence / hadde herd the answeres of these men / she had hem / goon agayn priuily / [2960] and she retorned to hir lord Melibe / and tolde hym / how she found hise Aduersaries ful repentant [2961] knowelicheyng ful lowly hir synnes and trespas / and how they were redy to suffer all payne [2962] requiryng and preyng hym of mercy and pitee :

¶ Melibe [2963] Thanne seyde Melibe / he is wel worthy to haue pardon and foryiffnesse of his synne þat excuseth nat his synne / [2964] but knowelicheith it and repenteth hym / axinge Indulgence [2965] ¶ For Senec seith //

¶ Senec [2965] ¶ For Senec seith // there is the remission and foryiffnesse. where as confession is [2966] ¶ For Confessio is neighbours to Innocence [2967] [et dit autre part: celui est presque innocent qui a honte de son péché et le reconnoît. (Le Ménagier, i. 231.)]
And therefore I assente and conforme me to haue pees / [2968] but it is good þat we do it nat with-outen the assent
& wil of oure freendes

¶ Prudence [2969] Thanne was Prudence right glad and ioyful / and seyde [2970] ¶ Certes sire quod she ye han wel and goodly answered [2971] for right as by the conseil / assent and helpe of youre freendes / ye han been stired / to venge yow and maken wroth [2972] right so with-outen hire conseil / shul ye nat accorden yow / ne haue pees with youre Aduersaries [2973] ¶ For the lawe seith //
Ther nys no thyng so good by wey of kynde / as a thyng
to be vnbounde by hym þat it was ybounde

[2974] ¶ And thanne Dame Prudence with-outen delay or taryng / sente anon hire messages for hire kyn and for hire olde freendes / whiche þat were trowe and wysse / [2975]

lady / we patten vs & oure goodes al fully / in youre wyl & disposicion / [2956] & been redy to come / what day þat it like vn-to youre noblesse / to lymyte vs / or assigne vs / [2957] for to maken / oure obligacion & boond / as strong as it liketh vn-to youre goodnesse / [2958] þat we moue fulfille the wyl of yow / & of my lord Melibe

[2959] ¶ Whanne Dame Prudence / hadde herd the answeres of these men : she had hent go agayn priuily / [2960] & she retorned / to hir lord Melibe / & tolde hym / how she fand hise Aduersaries ful repentant [2961] knowelicheyng ful lowly / hir synnes & trespas / & how they weren redy / to suffer all payne [2962] requeryng & preyng hym / of mercy & pitee [2963] ¶ Thanne seyde Melibe // he is wel worthy / to haue pardon & foryiffnesse of his synne / þat excuseth nat his synne / [2964] but knowelicheith & repenteth hym / axinge Indulgence // [2965] for Senec seith // There is the remission & foryiffnesse / where as the confession is / [2966] for confessor / is neighbours to Innocence // [2967]

And he seith / in another place [a blank in the MS. . .]
that hath shame of his synne & knowelicheith it //
And ther-fore / I assente & conforme me to haue pees :
[2968] but it is good / þat we do it nat with-outen thassent
& wil of oure freendes

[2969] ¶ Thanne was Prudence / right glad & ioyful / & seyde // [2970] Certes sire quod she / ye han wel &
goodly answered / [2971] for right as by the conseil / assent / & help / of youre frendis / ye han ben stired / to venge yow / & make wroth : [2972] right so / with-outen hire conseil / shul ye nat accorde yow / ne haue
pees with youre Aduersaries // [2973] for the lawe seith //
Ther nys no thyng so good / by wey of kynde / as a thyng
to be vnbounde / by hym þat it was ybounde //

[2974] And thanne Dame Prudence / with-outen delay / or taryng / sente anon messages / for hir kyn / & for hire olde freendes / whiche þat were trowe & wise / [2975]

ful lady we putte vs & alle oure goodis // all fully in youre wil & disposicion [2956] and been redy to come / what day it lyke vn-to youre noblesse / to lymyte vs / or assigne vs / [2957] for to makyn oure obligacion / & boond as strong as it likith vn-to youre goodnesse / [2958] that we moue fulfille the wil of þow // and of myn lord Melibe [2959]

¶ Whanne Dame Prudence / hadde herd the answerys of these men / sche had hem goon a-gayn priuily / [2960] and sche retorned to hire lord Melibe / and tolde hym how sche found hise aduersarijs ful repentaunt / [2961] knowelicheyng ful lowly her synne & trespas and how they were redy / to suffer alle payne [2962] requiryng & preyng hym / of merci & pitee [2963]

¶ Thanne seyde Melibe / he is wel worthy to haue pardon & foryiffnesse of hiso synne / that excusith nat his synne / [2964] but knowelicheith & repentith hym axinge indulgence [2965] for Senec saith there is the remission & foryiffnesse of synne / where as the confession is / [2966] neighbours to innocence / is confession / [2967] [ . . . . . ]
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
And therefore I assente / & conforme me to haue pees / [2968] but it is good that we do not with-outyn the assent & wil of our frendis [2969]

¶ Thanne was prudence / ryght glad & ioyful and seyde / [2970] Certis sire quod sche / so han wel &
goodly answered / [2971] for right as by the conseil / assent & helpe of youre frendis / so han been stird to venge þow / & make wroth / [2972] ryght so with-outyn hire conseil / schul so nat accorlyn / þow / na haue pees with þow aduersarijs / [2973] for the lawe seith
There no is no thyng so good be wey of kynde as a thyng to be nonbounde / by hym that it was l-bou[un]de //

[2974] And thanne Dame Prudence / with-outyn delay or taryng / sente a-non hire messagis for hire kyn & for hire olde frendis / whiche that were trowe / & wysse [2975]

lady we putten vs and oure goodes al fully in youre wille and disposicion [2956] and [then] redy to come what [day] you like vnto youre noblesse to lymnyte vs or to assigne vs [2957] for to maken oure obligation and bond as stronge as it likeþ vnto youre goodnesse [2958] þat we may fulfill þe wille of you and of my lord Melibbe

[2959] ¶ Whan dame Prudence hadde herd þe answeres of þese men: sche bad hem gon ayeyn prively [2960] ¶ And sche retourneþ again to hire lord Melibbe and tolde him how sche fond his aduersaries ful repentaunt [2961] and knowlechinge ful reuerently and lowly her synnes and here trespasses and how þey weren redy to suffer alle paynes. [2962] requyryng and preyng him of mercy and pite

[2963] ¶ Thenne sayde Mellibe: he is wel worþy to haue pardoun and foryennesse [qui ne cecusse point son pechié, [2964] mais le recongnoit et s'en repent et demande indulgence; [2965] car Seneque dist là est remission (Le Ménagier, l. 231)] wher as confession is [2966] ¶ For confession is neighbour to Innocence [2967] ¶ And he saith in another place ¶ he þat haþ schame for his synne and knowleþeþ it [ . . . . . no gap] ¶ And þerfore I assente and confeme to haue pees [2968] ¶ But it is good þat we do it nouþt wipouten þe assente and wille of oure frendes

[2969] ¶ Then was Prudence right glad and Ioyful and sayde [2970] ¶ Certes sire quod sche 3e haue goodly and wel answered [2971] ¶ For right as by counsil assent and helpyng of youre frendes 3e han be styred to vengen you and make werre! [2972] Right so wipouten here counsil schulle 3e nouht accorde þough 3e ne haue pees wip youre aduersaries [2973] ¶ For þe lawe saith ¶ þer is no þing so good by way of kynde as þing to be wibounden by hym þat it was y-bounde

[2974] ¶ And þenne dame Prudence wipouten delay or taryng sent anon messengers for hire kyn and for hire olde frendes whiche þat were trewe and wyse [2975]

lady we putten vs and oure ¶ goodes al fully in youre wille and in youre disposicio[n] [2956] and bene redy forto come what day þat it likeþ vnto youre noblesse to lymnyte vs or assigne vs [2957] forto make oure obligation and be bounde as stronge as it likeþ vnto youre goodnesse [2958] þat we may fulfill þe will of you and of my lord Melibye.

[2959] And whan dame prudence had ¶ herde þe answeres of þise men she bad hem go ayeyn prively [2960] And she returned to her lord Meleby and told hym how she fand his aduersaries ful repentaunte [2961] knowlechyng ful lowly her synnes and trespasses / and howe þei weren redy to suffer al payne. [2962] requyryng and preyng hym of merecy and pite

[2963] ¶ þan said Meleby he is wel worþ to haue perdone and foryennesse of his synne. þat excuseþ nat his synne. [2964] but knowlecheþ and repenteþ hym asking Indulgence [2965] ¶ For Senec say. There is þe remission and foryennes; wher as þe confession is. [2966] For confession is neighbour to Innocence. [2967] ¶ And he say in an oþer place: þat þe þat haþ schame of his synne and knowlecheþ it: is worþi remission. And þerfor I assent and confeme me to haue pees. [2968] But it is good þat we doo it not wip-outen þe assent of oure frendes

[2969] That was prudene riht glad and Ioyful and saide þis [2970] ¶ Certes sire quod she ye han wel and goodly answerd. [2971] For riht as by the counsaile of assent and helpe of youre frendes 3e haue beil styred to venge you. and make werre. [2972] Riht so wipouten her counsaile shal 3e not accorde 3ou ne haue pees wip youre aduersaries [2973] ¶ For þe lawe saith: Ther nys no þing so good by way of kyng as þing to bene wibounde by hym þat it was ybounde

[2974] And þan dame prudene wip-outen delay or taryng sent anon Messengers for her kynne and for her olde frendes whiche þat were trewe and wise [2975]

lady we putten vs & oure good al fully in youre wille & disposicion [2956] & bene redy to comme what it likeþ vnto youre noblesse: to leteme vs or to assigne vs [2957] for maken oure obligation: & bynde vs as stronge as it lykþ vn-to youre goodnesse [2958] þat we maio fulfill þe wil of youre & of my lordo Melibye.

[2959] ¶ Whan dame Prudence had herde þe answeres of þes men 3e hadde hem gone ayeine prively: [2960] & sche retourneþ a-yeine to hire lordo Mellibe: And tolde him howe sche fande his aduersaries repentaunt [2961] And knowlecheinge ful reuerently & lowly her sinnes & trespasses: & howe þei were redy to suffer al paine: [2962] Requyryng him & prayyng him of Mercy & pytye

[2963] ¶ Then seide Mellibe he is welle worþi to haue pardone & for-gennesse [qui necesse point son pechie [2964] mais recongnit et s'en repent et demande indulgence [2965] Car senecus dist là est remission (MS Reg. 19 C xi, ff 84, bk)] wher as confession is: [2966] For confession in neyghbour to Innocence [2967] ¶ And þe wiseman seide in another place: he þat haþ schame of his sinne & knowleche it is worþi haue mercy /-/ And þerefore .I. assent & confeme to haue pees [2968] ¶ Dot it is good þat we do it nouht wip-outen þe wil & assent of oure frendes:

[2969] ¶ þan was Prudence riht gladde & ioyful & seide: [2970] Certes sir quod sche 3e haue goodly & welle answered [2971] ¶ For riht as by the counsaile of assent & helpyng of youre frendes 3e haue be styred to venge 3oue & make werre [2972] Riht so wipouten hire counsel schol 3e nouht accor: þowhe 3e ne haue pees wip youre aduersaries: [2973] for þe lawe seipþ: Ther is no þing so good be wile of kinde As þing to be wibounden by him þat it was y-boundende!

[2974] And þan dame Prudence wip-outen delays or taryng sent anone Messageres for here kinne & for hire olde frendes þat were trewe & wise [2975]

and tolde hem by ordre / in the presence of Melibee / al this matere as it is abouen expressed and declared / [2976] and preyde þat they wolde yeven hire auyx and conseil / what best were to doon in this node [2977] ¶ And whan Melibees freendes hadde taken hire auyx and deliberacion of the forsaide matere / [2978] and hadden examyned it by greet bysnesse and greet diligence / [2979] they gave ful conseil for to haue pees and reste / [2980] and þat Melibee / sholde receyue with good herte hise aduersaries / to foryfesnesse and mercy

[2981] And whan dame Prudence hadde herd the assent of hir lord Melibee / and the conseil of his freendes [2982] accorde with hire wille and hire entencion / [2983] she was wonderly glad in hire herte / and seyde [2984]

¶ Prudence

¶ Ther is an old prouerbe quod she seith ¶. That the goodnesse þat thou mayst do this day / do it [2985] and abide nat no delaye it nat til to morwe [2986] ¶ And therfore / I counsaile þat ye sende youre messages swiche as been discrete and wise / [2987] vn-to youre Aduersaries / tellynge hem on youre behalf / [2988] þat if they wole trete of pees and of accord / [2989] that they shap hem / with-outen delay or taryng to comen vn-to vs / [2990] which thyng parfourned was in dede [2991] ¶ And whanne thise trespassours and repentyng folk of hire folies / that is to seyn / the Aduersaries of Melibee / [2992] hadden herd / what thise Messagers seyden vn-to hem / [2993] they weren right glad and ioyful / and answereden ful mekely & benygne / [2994] yeldyng graces and thankynges / to hire lord Melibee and to al his compaignye / [2995] and shopen hem with-outen delay to go with the Messagers and obeye to the comandement of hir lord Melibee

[2996] ¶ And right anon / they taken hire way to the Court of Melibee / [2997] and taken with hem / somme of hire trewe freendes / to maken feith for hem and for to been hire borwes / [2998] and when they were comen / [2999]

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 248) [leaf 171]

and tolde hem by ordre / in the presence of Melibe / al this matere / as it is abouen expressed & declared / [2976] & preyde hem / þat they wolde yeven hire auyx & conseil / what best were to do / in this node ¶ [2977] And whan Melibees freendes / hadde taken hire auyx & deliberacion of the forsoyde matere / [2978] & hadden examyned it by greet bysnesse & greet diligence / [2979] they gave ful conseil / for to haue pees & reste / [2980] & þat Melibe / sholde receyue with good herte / hise Aduersaries / to foryfesnesse & mercy ¶

[2981] And whanne Dame Prudence / hadde herd the assent of hir lord Melibe / & the conseil of his freendes / [2982] accorde with hire wyl and hire entencion / [2983] she was wonderly glad in herte / & seyde ¶ [2984]

¶ Ther is an old prouerbe quod she / seith ¶ that the goodnesse þat thou maist do this day / do it [2985] & abide nat no delaye it nat til tomorwe / [2986] And therfore I counsaile / þat ye sende youre messages / swiche as been discrete & wise [2987] vn-to youre Aduersaries / tellynge hem on youre behalf / [2988] þat if they wole trete of pees & of accord / [2989] þat they shap hem / with-outen delay or taryng to come vn-to vs / [2990] which thyng parfourned was in dede / [2991] and whanne thise trespassours & repentyng folk of hir folies / that is to seyn / the Aduersaries of Melibe / [2992] hadden herd / what thise messagers seyden vn-to hem / [2993] they weren right glad & ioyful / & answereden ful mekely & benygne / [2994] yeldyng graces & thankynges / to hire lord Melibe & to al his compaignye / [2995] & shopen hem with-oute delay to go with the messagers / & obeye to the comandement of hire lord Melibe /

[2996] And right anon they taken hire way / to the court of Melibe / [2997] & toke with hem somme of hir trewe freendes / to make feith for hem / & for to been hire borwes ¶ [2998] And when they were come / to

HENGWERT (6-T. 248) [leaf 166, back]

& tolde hem bi ordre in the presence of Melibee / al this matiere as it is a-boue expressed / & declared / [2976] And preyde hem that they wolde geue hire a-vix & conseil / what best were to don in this node // [2977] And whanne Melibees frendis haddyn takyn hire auyx / & deliberacion of the forsoyde matiere [2978] & hadde examynede it by greet auysement & besynesse & greet diligence / [2979] they gave ful conseil / for to haue pees & reste / [2980] And that-melibee schulde resseyue with good herte hise aduersarys / to foryfesnesse & mercy

[2981] ¶ And whanne dame Prudence / hadde herd thassent of hire lord / Melibee & the conseil of hise frendis / [2982] accord / with hire wil / & hyre entencion / [2983] sche was wonderly glad / in hire herte / & seyde / [2984]

¶ Ther is an old prouerbe / quod sche / that seyth / that the goodnesse that thou mayst don this day do it / [2985] & abyde not no delaye it not til tomorwe / [2986] & therfore I counsaile that 3e sende 3oure massagis / swiche as been discrete / & wyse . [2987] vn-to 3oure aduersarys / tellynge hem on 3oure behalf / [2988] þat if they wole treste of pees / & of accord / [2989] that they schape hem with-outyn delay or taryng to comyn vn-to vs / [2990] which thyng performede was / in dede [2991] & whanne thise trespassours / & repentyng folk of here folyn / that is to seyne the aduersarys of Melibee / [2992] haddyn herd what thise messageris seydyn vn-to hem / [2993] they wereo right glad & ioyful / & answeredyn ful mekely & benygne / [2994] zeldyng gracia / & thankyngs to here lord Melibee & to alle his compaignye / [2995] & schopyn hem with-outyn delay to gon with the massangeris / & obeye to the comandement of here lord Melibee //

[2996] & ry3t a-noon they toke here waye to the court / of Melibee / [2997] & tokyrn with hem somme of here trewe frendis to make feith for hem / & for to been here borwys / [2998] And whanne they were come to

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 248) [leaf 166, back]

¶ And tolde hem by ordre in þe presence of Mellybe al þe matiere as it is abouen expressed and declared [2976] ¶ And prayden hem þat þei wolde yeven hire a wise counsaile ¶ what best were to doon in þis matiere [2977] ¶ And when melibeus counsil hadde taken here avys and good deliberacion of þe forsaide matiere [2978] and hadden examyned it by greet bysnesse and greet diligence [2979] þei ȝeuen ful counsil for to haue pees and reste [2980] And þat Melibeus schuld receyue hit with good herite of his aduersaries to forȝuenece and mercy

[2981] ¶ And whan dame Prudence hadde herd þe assent of hire lord Melibe and þe counsel of hire frendes [2982] accorded wiþ hire wille and entencion [2983] scho was wonderly glad in herte and sayde [2984] ¶ Ther is an olde proverbe quod sche seiþ þat þe goodnesse þat þu maist do þis day do it [2985] and abyde it nought ne delaye it nought til to morwe [2986] ¶ And þerfore I counsaile þat þe sende youre messagers whiche þat ben discrete and wise [2987] vnto youre aduersaries / tellynge hem in youre bihale [2988] if þei wolen trete of pees and accorde [2989] þat þei schapen hem wiþoute delay or taryyng comyng to vs [2990] ¶ which þinge performed was in dede [2991] and whan þese trespassours and repentyng folke of here folyes þat is to say þe aduersaries of melibe [2992] hadden herd what þese messengers sayden vnto hem; [2993] þei weren ful glad and ioyfulle and answered ful mekely and benygne [2994] ȝeldyng graces and þonkes to her lord Melibe and to alle his compaigne [2995] ¶ and schopen hem wiþoute delay to go wiþ þe messengers and obeye to þe comandement of here lord Melibe

[2996] ¶ And riȝt anon þei taken here way to Melibe [2997] ¶ And toke þe somme of here trewe wordes and frendes to maken feiþ for hem and for to ben here borwes [2998] ¶ And whanne þei comen to and tolde hem by order in þe presence of Me[le]be al þis matere as it is abouen expressed and declared. [2976] And prayden hem þat þei wolde ȝeuen hir avico and counsaile what best were to doo in þis matere [2977] ¶ And whan Melibeus frendes had taken her avise and deliberacion of þis forsaide matere [2978] and hadden examyned it by greet bysnesse. and greet diligence. [2979] þei ȝaf ful counsaile forto haue pees and rest. [2980] And þat Melibeus shuld receyuen wiþ good herit his aduersaries to forȝuenece and Mercy.

[2981] ¶ And whan dame prudence had herd þe assent of her lord Melebius and þe counsaile of his frendes [2982] accorded wiþ her wille and her entencion [2983] she was wonderly glad in hert and side [2984] Ther is an olde proverbe quod she seiþ: þat þe good[di]nesse þat thou maist doo þis day do it [2985] and abyde nat til [to seiþ we] to morowe. [2986] ¶ And þerfor I counsaile you þat you sende your messagers whiche þat ben discrete and wise. [2987] vnto youre aduersaries Telling hem in your bihale [2988] þat if þei wil trete of pees and accorde. [2989] þat þei schapen hem wiþoute delay or taryng to come vnto vs. [2990] Which þinge was performed in dede. [2991] And whan þise trespassours and repentyng folk of here folies þat is to say þe aduersaries of melebye [2992] hadden herd what þe messagers saiden vnto hem. [2993] þei were riȝt glad and ioyful and answered ful mekely and benygne [2994] ȝeldyng graces and thankynges to her lorde Melebe and to al his compaigne [2995] and schopen hem wiþoute lay to goo wiþ þe messagers and obey to þe Comandement of her lorde Melebius

[2996] ¶ And riȝt anon þei taken her way to þe courte of Meleby [2997] and token to hem some of her trewe frendys to make feiþ for hem and forto ben here borowes [2998] ¶ And whan þei were comen to

And tolde hem be order in þe presence of Melebe al þe Matier as it was abouen expressed & declared: [2976] And prayden hem þat þei wolde ȝeuen hire a wise counsaile what best were to done in þis matiere: [2977] ¶ And whan Melibeus counsel hadd taken hire-avise & goode deliberacion of þe forsaide matier: [2978] And haddo examyned it be grete besines & grete diligence: [2979] þei ȝaueun ful counsaile for to haue pees & rest. [2980] And þat Melibe schold receyue it with goode herte of his aduersaries to for-ȝuenece & mercy:

[2981] ¶ And whan dame Prudence hadd herd þe assent of hire lord Melibe. And þe counsel of here frendes [2982] accorded wiþ her wil & entencion [2983] scho was wonderly glad in hert & side. [2984] ¶ There is an olde proverbe quod sche seiþ: þat þe goodnesse þat þou maist do þis daie do it [2985] & abyde it nought ne delaye it nought til to morwe [2986] ¶ And þerfore I counsel þat þe sende youre messagers whiche þat ben discrete & wyse [2987] vnto youre aduersaries tellynge hem on youre be-hale [2988] if þei wil trete of pes & of accorde: [2989] þat þei schapen hem wiþoute de-lais or taryng to come to vs. / [2990] whiche þinge performed was indede [2991] ¶ And whan þese trespassours & repentyng folke of here folyes: þat is to seiþ þe aduersaries of Melibe. [2992] had herd what þese messagers saiden vnto hem [2993] þei were ful gladd. & ioyful & answered ful mekely & benyngly! [2994] ȝeldyng graces & þonkes to her lord Melibe. & to al his compaigne: [2995] And schopen wiþ-outen delay to gone wiþ þe messagers: & obey to þe comandement of here lord Melibe

[2996] ¶ And riȝt anone þe token her weie to Melibe [2997] & toke þe somme of here trewe wordes & frendes to maken feiþ for hem: and for to bien her borwes [2998] ¶ And whan þei comen to the presence of Melibee / he seyde hem these wordes [2999] It standeth thus quod Melibee / and sooth it is / that ye [3000] causeles and with-outen skille and reson [3001] han doon grete Injuries and wronges / to me and to my wyf Prudence / and to my doghter also / [3002] for ye han entred in-to myn hous by violence [3003] and have doon swich outrage / pat alle men knowen wel / pat ye han deserred the deeth / [3004] and therefore wol I knowe and wite of yow / [3005] whether ye wol putte the punysshynge and the chastisyng / and the vengeance of this outrage / in the wil of me / and of my wyf Prudence / or ye wol nat

[3006] ¶ Thanne / the wisseste of hem thre answerde for hem alle and seyde [3007] ¶ Sire quod he / we knowen wel / pat we been vnworthy / to comen vn-to the Court of so greet a lord & so worthy as ye been / [3008] for we han so greteyly mystaken vs / and han offendid and agilt in swich a wise / agayn youre heigh lordshipe / [3009] that trewely / we han deserred the deeth / [3010] but yet for the grete goodness and debonairete / pat al the world / witnesseth in youre persone / [3011] we submytten vs / to the excellence and benignitee of youre gracious lordshipe / [3012] and been redy to obeis to alle youre comandementz / [3013] bisekyng yow / that of youre merciable pitee / ye wol considereoure grete repentance and lowg submission [3014] and graunte / vs forgyvenesse of oure outrageous trespas and offense / [3015] for wel we knowe / pat youre liberal grace and mercy / strechen hem farther / in-to goodness / than don oure outrageous giltes and trespas in-to wickednesse / [3016] al be it pat cursedly and dampnably / we han agilt agayn youre heigh lordshipe

[3017] ¶ Thanne Melibee / took hem vp from the ground ful benignely [3018] and receyved hir obligacions and hir bondes by hir othes vp-on hir plegges and borwes / [3019] and assigned hem a certeyn day / to retourne vn-to his Court. [3020] for-to accepte and receyve the sentence and the presence of Melibe: he seyde hem these wordes [2999] ¶ It standeth thus quod Melibe & sooth it is / pat ye [3000] causeles & with-outen skille & reson / [3001] han doon grete Injuries & wronges to me / & to my wyf Prudence / & to my doghter also / [3002] for ye han entred in-to myn hous by violence / [3003] and have doon swich outrage / pat alle men knowen wel / pat ye han deserred the deeth || [3004] And therefore wol I knowe & wite of yow / [3005] whether ye wol putte the punysshynge & chastisyng / & the vengeance of this outrage / in the wil of me / & of my wyf or ye wol nat

[3006] ¶ Thanne the wisseste of hem thre / answerde for hem alle / & seyde || [3007] Sire quod he / we knowen wel / pat we been vnworthy / to comen vn-to the court of so greet a lord & so worthy / as ye been / [3008] for we han so greteyly mystaken vs / & han offendid & gilt in swich a wise / agayn youre heigh lordshipe / [3009] pat trewely / we han deserred the deeth / [3010] but yet for the grete goodness & debonairete / pat al the world / witnesseth of youre persone / [3011] we submytten vs / to the excellence & benygnyete of youre gracious lordshipe / [3012] and ben redy to obeye / to alle youre comandementz / [3013] bisekyng yow / pat of youre merciable pitee / ye wol considereoure grete repentance & lowe submission / [3014] and graunte / vs forgyvenesse / of oure outrageous trespas & offense / [3015] for wel we knowen / pat youre liberal grace & mercy / strechen farther / in-to goodness / than don oure outrageous giltes & trespas in-to wickednesse / [3016] al be it pat cursedly & dampnably / we han agilt agayn youre heigh lordshipe

[3017] ¶ Thanne Melibe / took hem vp from the ground ful benignely / [3018] and receyved hir obligacions & hir bondes by hir othes / vp-on hir plegges & borwes / [3019] & assigned hem a certeyn day / to retourne vn-to his court [3020] for to accepte & receyve / the sentence &

the presence / of Melibee / he seyde hem these wordys / [2999] It standith thus quod Melibee / & sooth it is that [3000] causeles & with-outyn skille / & resous 3e [3001] han doon grete Injuries & wrongis / to me & to myn wyf Prudence And to myn doghtyr also / [3002] for 3e han entred in-to myn hous by violence / [3003] & have doon swich outrage that alle men knowen wel / that 3e han desoruld the deith / [3004] And therefore wol I knowe & wite of 3ow [3005] whethir 3e wete putte the ponysshynge and the chastisyng in-to vengeance / of this outrage in the wil of me / & of myn wyf : or 3e wete nat [3006]

¶ Thanne the wisseste of hem thre / answerde for hem alle & seyde / [3007] Sire we knowe wel that we been unworthy to come to the court of so greet a lord & so worthy as 3e been [3008] for we han so greteyly mystaken vs / & han offendid & agilt in swich a wise agayn 3oure heigh lordshipe / [3009] that trewely we han desoruld the deith / [3010] But yet for the grete goodness & debonairete / that al the world witnessith of 3oure persone / [3011] we submytten vs to the excellence & the benygnetee of 3oure graciouslye lordshipe [3012] And been redy to obeye to alle 3oure comandementis / [3013] bisekyng 3ow that of 3oure Merciable pitee / 3e wolde considereoure grete repentance & lowe submission [3014] and graunte vs forgyvenesse of oure outrageous trespas and offence [3015] for weel we knowyn / that 3oure liberal grace / & meey / strechyn hem farther / in-to goodness / than don oure outrageous giltes & trespas in-to wickednesse [3016] Albe-it that cursedly & dampnably we han gilt agayn 3oure heigh lordshipe. <sup>1</sup> [3017]

¶ Thanne Melibee tok hem vp from the ground ful benignely / [3018] & resseynde here oblygacyonys & here bondis / by hirs othis upon here plegges / & borewis / [3019] and assignede hem a certeyn day to retourne vn-to this court [3020] forto resceyve & accepte the sentence /

þe presence of Mellibe ¶ he seide hem þese wordes [2999] ¶ It stant þus quod Mellibe and soþ it is þat þe [3000] causeles and wipouten akile and reson [3001] han don grete Iniuries and wronges to me and to my wif Dame Prudence and to myn daughter also [3002] ¶ For þe han entred into myn hous by violence [3003] and han don suche outrage þat alle men knowen wel þat þe han disserued þe deþ [3004] ¶ And þerefor wil I knowen and wyten of þou [3005] wheþer þat þe wollen putte þe þunyschement and chastyngs and þe vengeance of þis outrage in þe wille of me and my wif Dame Prudence or þe wola nouht

[3006] ¶ Thanne þe wisest of hem þre answard for hem alle and sayde [3007] sir quod he we knowen wel þat we ben vnworþi to come to youre court of so gret a lord and of so worþy as þe ben [3008] for we han so grete mistaken vs and han offended and agylt in such a wise aȝeins þour heighe lordships. [3009] þat trewly we han deserued þe deth [3010] ¶ But ȝif for þe grete goodnesse and debonaite þat alle þe world witenesseþ of þoure persone [3011] ¶ We submyten vs to þe excellence and benigite of þoure gracious lordships [3012] and ben redy to obeye to alle þour comaundementz [3013] beseehyng þou þat of þoure mercyful pite. þe wola considere oure grete repentaunce and lowe submissiõ [3014] and to graunte vs forȝeuesse of oure outrageous trespas and offense [3015] ¶ For wel we knowe þat þoure liberall grace & mercy streechþ ferþer in-to goodnesse þan don oure outrageous giltes and trespases in-to wickednesse. [3016] al be it þat cursedly and dampnably we han gylt aȝeins þoure heighe lordships

[3017] ¶ Thanne Mellibe took him vp fro þe grounds ful benygely [3018] and receyued here obligacions and here handes by hire opes vpon here plegges and here borwes [3019] and assigned hem a certeyn day to retourne vnto his courtes [3020] ¶ For to accepte and receyve þe sentence and

þe presence of melebius he seide hem þise wordes [2999] It stondeþ þus quod Melebius and soþ it is þat þe [3000] causeles and wip-out skille and reson [3001] hane done grete iniuries and wronges to me and to my wif Prudence And to my ¶ douȝters also. [3002] for þe han entred into myn hous by violence [3003] and hane done such outrage þat alle men knowe wel þat þe han deserued þe deþ [3004] And þerefor wil I knowe and witt of þou [3005] wheþere þe putte þe þunselment and þe chastisement and þe vengeance of þis outrage in þe witt of me and of my wif Dame Prudence or þe wil not

[3006] Than þe wisest of hem þre answered for hem alle and seide [3007] ¶ Sir quod he we knowe wel þat we bene vnworþi to come vnto þe Suerte vnto so grete [a lord] and so worþi as þe bene. [3008] for we han so grete mistaken vs and hane offended and gylted in such a wise. aȝeins þoure hegi lordship. [3009] þat trewly we haff deserued þe deþ. [3010] But ȝif for þe grete goodnesse and debonaite þat all men don witenesse of þoure persone / [3011] We submyten vs to þour excellence and benygite of þoure gracious lordship. [3012] for we bene redy to obey to all þoure comaundementes [3013] hyseking þou þat of þoure merciable pite þe wil considere our grete repentaunce and lowe submyssiõ [3014] And graunt vs forȝeuesse of oure outrageous trespas and offense. [3015] for wel we knowen þat þoure liberall grace and mercie streechþ ferþere into goodnesse þan doþ our outrageous trespas into wikkednesse. [3016] al be it þat cursedly and dampnably we han ygilte aȝeinst þoure lordship

[3017] ¶ Than Melebye toke hem vp fro þe grounds ful benygely [3018] and receyued her oblacions and her londes by her opes vpon her plegges and borwes. [3019] And assigned hem a certeyn day to retourne vnto his courtes [3020] forto' accepte and to receyve þe sentence and

þe presence of Mellibe he seide hem þes wordes! [2999] It standþ þus quod Mellibe: & soþe it is þat þe [3000] causeles and wip-oute skil & reson [3001] hane done grete Iniuries & wronges to me & to my wif Dame Prudence! & to my donlter also! [3002] ¶ For þe hane entred in-to myne housse by violence [3003] & hane done suche outrage! þat all men knowe welle þat þe hane deserued þe deþe [3004] ¶ And þere-for wil I. knowen & witen of þou [3005] weþer þat þe wil putte þe þunyschement & þe chasteyngs & þe vengeance of þis outrage in þe wil of me & of my wif dame Prudence or þe wil nouht!

[3006] Than þe wysest of hem þre answard for hem al. & seide. [3007] ¶ Sir quod he we knowen welle þat we 'ben vnworþi to come to þoure courtes of so grete a lorde & so worþe as þe bien! [3008] And for we hane so grete mys-taken vs & hane offended & aglite in suche a wise aȝeins þoure hille lord-schippe [3009] þat trewly we hane deseruede þe deþ! [3010] But ȝif for þe grete goodnesse & debonaite þat al þe werlde witenesseþ of þoure person [3011] We submytte vs vn-to þe hille excellance & benigite of þoure gracious lorsehip [3012] and bien rede to obeye vn-to al þoure comaundementes [3013] Beseechinge þou þat of þoure merciable pite to wyne consider oure grete repentaunce & lowe submissiõ: [3014] And to graunte vs for-ȝefnesse of oure outrageous trespas & offense! [3015] For wel we knowe þat þoure liberall grace & mercye streechen ferþer in-to goodnesse þan done oure outrageous giltes & trespases in-to wikkednesse! [3016] abeit þat cursedly & dampnably we hane gylte aȝeins þoure hille lordschippe!

[3017] Than Mellibe toke him vpe fro þe grounds ful benygely [3018] & receyued here obligacions & here landes by hire opes vpon here plegges & her borwes [3019] & assigned hem a certeyn daie to retorne vn-to his courtes! [3020] for to accepte & receyve þe sentence &

Jugement þat Melibee wolde comande to be doon on hem by the causes aforesayd / [3021] whiche thynges ordeyned / euery man retourned to his hous /

[3022] And whan þat dame Prudence saugh hir tyme / she freyned and axed hir lord Melibee / [3023] what vengeance / he thoughte / to taken of hise Aduersaries

[3024] To which Melibee answered and seyde ¶ Certes quod he I thinke and purpose me fully / [3025] to deserite hem / of al þat euere they han / and for to putte ham / in exil for euere

[3026] Certes quod dame Prudence / this were a cruel sentence and muchel agayn reson / [3027] for ye been riche ynough and han no nede of oother mennes good / [3028] and ye myghte lightly in this wise gete yow a couisitous name / [3029] which is a vicious thyng and oghte been eschewid of euery good man [3030] flor after the sawe of the word of the Apostle /. Couisite is roote of alle harmes /

[3031] And therefore it were bettere for yow / to lese so muchel good of youre owene / than for to taken of hir good in this manere / [3032] for bettere it is to lesen with worshippe / than it is to wyne with vileynye and shame / [3033] And euery man oghte to doon his diligence and his bysnyesse / to geten hym a good name / [3034] And yet shal he nat oonly hise hyme in kepynge of his good name / [3035] but he shal also enforen hym alwey / to do som thyng by which he may renouelle his good name / [3036] for it is wryten / þat the olde good loos and good name of a man / is soone goon and passed / whan it is nat newed no renouelled [3037] ¶ And as touchynge / þat ye seyn / ye wole exile youre Aduersaries / [3038] that thynketh me / muchel agayn reson / and out of mesure / [3039] considered the power / þat they han yeue yow vp-on hem self / [3040] And it is wryten þat he is worthy / to lesen his priuilege / þat mysueth / the myght and the power / þat is yeuen hym [3041] ¶ And I sette cas / ye myghte enioyne hem / þat peyne by right / and by lawe / [3042] whiche I

Jugement þat Melibee wolde comande / to be doon on hem / by the causes aforesayd // [3021] whiche thynges ordeyned / euery man retourned to his hous //

[3022] And whanne þat dame Prudence saugh hir tyme / she freyned / & axed hir lord Melibee / [3023] what vengeance he thoughte to take of hise Aduersaries :

[3024] ¶ To which / Melibee answered & seyde // Certes quod he I. thinke & purpose me fully / [3025] to deserite hem / of al þat euere they han / and for to putte ham in exil / for euere

[3026] ¶ Certes quod Dame Prudence / this were a cruel sentence / & muchel ageyn reson / [3027] for ye been riche ynow & han no nede of oother mennes good / [3028] & ye myghten lightly in this wise / geten yow a couisitous name / [3029] which is a vicious thyng & oghte been eschewid of euery man / [3030] for after the sawe of the word of thapostle // Couisite is / roote of alle harmes /

[3031] And therefore / it were bettere for yow / to lese so muchel good of youre owene / than for to take of hire good / in this manere / [3032] for bettere it is / to lese good with worshippe / than it is / to wyne good with vileynye & shame / [3033] And euery man / oghte do his diligence & his bysnyesse / to geten hym a good name / [3034] and yet shal he nat oonly hisen hym in kepynge his goode name / [3035] but he shal also / enforen hym alwey / to do som thyng by which he may renouelle his goode name // [3036] for it is wryten / That the olde goode loos / or good name of a man / is soone goon & passed / whanne it is nat newed / no renouelled // [3037] & as touchynge þat ye seyn / ye wole exile youre Aduersaries : [3038] that thynketh me / muchel agayn reson / & out of mesure / [3039] considered the power / þat they han yeuen yow vp-on hem self // [3040] And it is wryten / that he is worthy to lesen his priuilege / þat mysueth / the myght / & the power / þat is yeuen him / [3041] And I sette cas / ye myghte enioyne hem / that peyne / by right / & by lawe / [3042] whiche I

& Jugement that Melibee wolde comande to be don on hem / by the cause aforesaid. [3021] whiche thyngis ordeynyd / euery man retourned to his hous //

[3022] And whanne that dame Prudence saw hire tyme sche freynede and axede hire lord Melibee [3023] what vengeance he thouste to takyn of hise aduersaries [3024]

¶ TO whiche Melibee answered & seyde certis quod he I thinke & purpose me fully [3025] to deserite hem of al that they han / & for to putte hem in exil for euere. [3026]

¶ Certis quod dame prudence this were a cruel sentence / & mechil agayn reson / [3027] for ye been riche I-now / & han non nede of othere mennes / [3028] & ye myghtyn lightly in this wyse / getyn zow a couisitous name [3029] whiche is a vicious thyng & oughte to been eschewid of euery good man / [3030] flor aftyr the sawe of the word of thapostele / Couesityse is roote of alle harmys / [3031] & therefore it were bettere / for zow to lese so meche good / of zoure owene : than for to takyn of hire good / in this manere [3032] flor bettere it is to less good / with worchepe : thanne it is to wyne good with vilanye / & schame / [3033] And euery man oughte to doon his diligence / & his bysnyesse / to getyn hym a good name / [3034] & zit schal he nat only / beseye hym in kepynge his good name : [3035] but he schal also enforeyn hym alwey to doon sumthyng by whiche he may renouelle / hise goode name [3036] flor it is wryten / that the olde goode loos / or goode name / of a man is soone goon & passid / whanne it nys nat newid no renouellyd / [3037] And as touchynge that ye seyn ye wole exile zoure aduersaryis / [3038] that thynkyth me mekyl agayn reson And out of mesure / [3039] considerede the power that they han zeuyen zow vp-on hem-self / [3040] And it is wryten that he is worthy to lesse hiso priuylege that mysueth & the poweer / that is zeuyen hym / [3041] & I sette cas / ye myzte enioyne hom / that peyne by ryzt / & by lawe / [3042] whiche I

þe Iuggementes þat Melibie wolde comande to ben don on hem þe þe causes a-forþ sayde / [3021] whiche þinges ordeyned /
euery man returnede to his hous

[3022] ¶ And when þat dame Prudence saugh hire tyme sche fr[re]yned and axede hire lord melibie [3023] what vengeance he þougt to take of his aduersaries

[3024] To which melibie answered and sayde ¶ Certes quod he I þenke and purposse fully [3025] to disherite hem of al þat þei han ¶ And for to putten hem in exile for euere

[3026] ¶ Certes quod Dame Prudence þis were a cruel sentence and mochel aȝeinste reson. [3027] For þe ben riche yough and han no nede of oþer mennes good [3028]
and ȝe mighte lightly geten ȝou a couetyous name [3029] which is a vicious þinge and oughte [be] eschewed of euery man [3030] ¶ ffor after þe sawe of þe apostol Couetise is roote of alle harmes [3031] ¶ And þerefore it were bettre to lese so mochel good of ȝoure owne þan for to take of here good in þis manere [3032] ¶ ffor better it is to lese good wiþ worshippe þenne it is good to wyne worshippe wiþ vilanye and schame [3033] ¶ And euery man oughte to don his bysnyesse and to geten him a good name [3034] ¶ And ȝet schal he nouht only kepen him in kepynge of his good name [3035] But he schal also enforcen him alwey to don som þinge by which he may renouelle his good name [3036] ¶ ffor if it is write þat þe olde goods loos or good name of a man is some gone and passed when it is nouht newed and renouelled [3037] ¶ And as touchinge þat ȝe sayn þat ȝe wold exile ȝoure aduersaries [3038] þat þenkþe me moch aȝeinste reson. and out of mesure [3039] ¶ Considered þe power þat þe han ȝouen ȝou vpon hemself [3040] And it is writen. þat he is worþe to lesen his priuellege þat mysseþ it ¶ The might and þe power þat is ȝouen him. [3041] And I sette cas þat ȝe mighte annoye hem þat payne by rihte and by lawe [3042] swiȝht I

Iuggement of þat Melebye wil comande to be done to hem by þise causes to-forþ seide. [3021] whiche þingges ordeyned / euery man : returnede home to his hous

[3022] ¶ And when þat Dame Prudence segh her tyme. she fr[re]yned and asked her lordo [3023] what vengeaunce he þougt to take of his aduersarius

[3024] To which Melibius answered and seide. Certys quod I I thank and purposse me fully [3025] to disherite hem and al þat þei haue and forto putte hem in exile for euere mo

[3026] ¶ Certis quod dame Prudence þis were a cruel sentence and mochel aȝeinste reson. [3027] ffor ȝe bene riche ynouȝe and haue no nede of oþer mennys good / [3028] and ȝe mysten lightly goto ȝou a couetyous name [3029] Which is a vicious þinge and oughte to bene eschewed of euery man [3030] ¶ ffor after þe sawe of þe wond of þe apostol Couetise is roote of alle harmes [3031] ¶ And þerefore it were better to ȝou to lese so mochel good of ȝoure owne þan forto take of her good in þis manere. [3032] ffor bettere it is to lese good with Worship þan it is to wyne good wiþ vilanye and shamo. / [3033] ¶ And euery man ouȝt to doo his diligence of his bysnyesse to geten hym a good name. [3034] ¶ And ȝit schal he not only bysren him in kepynge his good name [3035] But he schal also enforcen him alwey to doon somme þinge by which he may renouelle his good name [3036] ¶ ffor if it is writen ¶ The olde good lose or good name of a man is some done or gone or passed when it is not newed ne renouelled [3037] ¶ And as touchinge þat ȝe sayn ȝe wil exile ȝoure aduersaries [3038] þat þenkþe me
moch aȝeinste reson. and out of mesure [3039] ¶ Considered. þe power þat þei han ȝouen ȝou vpon hem self [3040] ¶ And it is writen ¶ that he is worþe to lesen his priuellege þat mysseþ þe myht and þe power þat is ȝouen hym [3041] ¶ And I sette cas ȝe myht erioyne hem þat þeyne by riht and lawe [3042] whiche I

Iuggement þat Melibie wold comande to be done on hem be þe causes aforthe seide: [3021] whiche þinge ordeineth
euery man returnede to his hous /

[3022] And when þat Dam prudence sawhe her time sche fr[re]yned & axed her lord Melibie: [3023] Whatte vengeance he þouht to take on his aduersaris

[3024] ¶ To whiche Melibie answered & seide: ¶ Certes quod [he]: I þenke & purposse fully [3025] to disherit hem of al þat þei haue: & for to putten hem in exile for euere more

[3026] Certes quod Dame Prudence þis were a cruel sentence & mochel aȝeinste reson: [3027] For ȝe be riche ynouȝe & haueþ no nede of oþer mennes good: [3028]
and ȝe myht lyhtly geten ȝou a couetous name. [3029] whiche is a vicious þinge & ouhte
be eschewed of euery man: [3030] ffor after þe sawe
of þe Apostol Couetise is rote of al harmes: [3031] ¶ And þerefore it were better to lese so muchel goods of ȝoure owne þan for to tak of here goods in þis manere. [3032] ¶ For better it is to lese good wiþ worshippe þan it is good to wyne worshippe wiþ velanye and schame [3033] ¶ And euery man ouhte to done his bysness to geten him a good name: [3034] And ȝitte schal he nouht only keppen him in kepynge of his good name: [3035] But he schal also enforcen him alwey to done some þinge be whiche he may renouelle his good name [3036] For it is y-writen: þat þe olde good lose or gode name of a man is some gone & passed: when it is nouht newed ne renouelled / [3037] ¶ And as touchinge þat ȝe sayne þat ȝe
wold exile ȝoure aduersaries: [3038] þat þenkþe me moch aȝeinste reson & out of mesure: [3039] Consider þe power þat þei haue ȝouen ȝowe vpon hem self:
[3040] And it is writen þat he is worþe to lesen his priuellege þat mysseþ þe myht & þe pouere þat is ȝouen him: [3041] ¶ And I sette cas þat ȝe myht annoye hem þat payne be riht & lawe. [3042] whiche I.

trove / ye mowe nat do / [3043] I seye ye myghte nat putten it to execucio<sup>n</sup> per-aventure / [3044] and thanne were it likly to retourne to the werre as it was biforn / [3045] And therfore / if ye wole þat men do yow obeisance / ye moste deemen moore curteisly / [3046] this is to seyn / ye moste yow moore ey sentences and Iuggements [3047] ¶ flor it is writen / þat he / þat moost curteisly comandeth / to hym men moost obeyen / [3048] And therfore I pray yow þat in this necessite / and in this nede /

¶ Senec

ye caste yow to overcome youre herte [3049] ¶ flor Senec seith / That he þat ouercometh his herte / ouercometh twice [3050] ¶ And Tullius seith ¶ Ther is no thyng so commendable in a greet lord / [3051] as when he is debonaire and meke / and appeeth lightly / [3052] And I pray yow þat ye wole forbere now to do vengeance [3053] in swich a manere / þat youre goode name may be kept and conserued / [3054] and þat men mowe haue cause and matere / to preyse-yow of pitee and of mercy [3055] and þat ye haue no cause to repente yow of thyng þat ye doon [3056] ¶ flor Senec seith ¶ He ouercometh in an yuel manere þat repenteth hym of his victorie / [3057] Wherfore I pray yow / lat mercy been in youre mynde and in youre herte / [3058] to theffect and entente þat god almyghty haue mercy on yow in his laste Iugement<sup>t</sup> [3059]

¶ Seneca

¶ flor seint Iame seith in his Epistle ¶ Iugement withoute mercy shal be doon to hym / þat hath no mercy of another wight

¶ Trebuch in epistola

¶ Melibee [3060] Whanne Melibee hadde herd the grete skiles and reasons of Dame Prudence / and hire visio informacionis and techynges / [3061] his herte gan enlyne to the wyl of his wif consideringe hir trewe entente / [3062] and conformed hym anon and assented fully to werken after hir conseil / [3063] and thanked god / of whom procedeth al vertu and alle goodness / þat hym sente a wif / of so greet discrecion [3064] And when the day cam þat hire Aduersaries sholde appieren in his presence / [3065] he spak vn-

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 261)

trove yow mowe nat do / [3043] I seye / ye myghte nat putte it to execucio<sup>n</sup> per aventure / [3044] & thanne were it likly / to retorne to the werre / as it was biforn / [3045] And therfore / if ye wole / þat men do yow obeisance / yow moste deme moore curteisly / [3046] this is to seyn / ye moste yow / moore ey sentences & Iugementis ¶ [3047] flor it is writen / that he / þat moost curteisly comandeth / to hym / men moost obeyen / [3048] & therfore .I. pray yow / þat in this necessite / & in this nede / ye caste yow to overcome youre herte ¶ [3049] flor Senek seith ¶ that he þat ouercometh his herte / ouercometh twice ¶ [3050] And Tullius seith ¶ ther is no thyng so commendable in a greet lord / [3051] as when he is debonaire & meke / & apeiseth hym lightly ¶ [3052] And I pray yow / þat ye wol forbere now to do vengeance [3053] in swich a manere / þat your goode name / may be kept & conserued / [3054] & þat men mowe / haue cause & matere / to preiso yow / of pitee & of mercy / [3055] & þat ye haue no cause / to repente yow of thyng þat ye doon ¶ [3056] flor Senek seith ¶ He ouercometh / in an yuel manere þat repenteth hym / of his victorie ¶ [3057] Wherfore / I pray yow / lat mercy be in youre herte / [3058] to theffect & entente / þat god almyghty haue mercit on yow in his laste Iugement ¶ [3059] flor Saint Iame seith / in his epistle ¶ Iugement withoute mercy / shal be doon to hym / þat hath no mercy / of another wight

¶ [3060] ¶ Whanne Melibee hadde herd / the grete skiles & reasons of dame Prudence / & of hir visio informacionis & techynges / [3061] his herte gan enlyne to the wyl of his wif / consideringe hir trewe entente / [3062] conformed hym anon & assented fully / to werken after hir conseil / [3063] & thanked god / of whom procedeth al vertu / & al goodness / þat hym sente a wif / of so greet discrecion ¶ [3064] And whanne the day cam / þat hire Aduersaries / sholde appieren / in his presence / [3065] he spak vn-

HENGWRT (6-T. 261) f. 124, b. 2, c. 2

trove so he may not do / [3043] I seye so myght nat putte it to execucio<sup>n</sup> paraurenture [3044] & thanne were it likly to retorne to the werre as it was by-forn [3045] & therfore if so wole that men doon 3ow obeysaunce / so muste deeme moore curteisly [3046] this is to seye so muste yow moore ey sentence & Ingementis / [3047] flor it is wrete / that he that most curteisly comandeth / to / to hym / men muste obeye / [3048] & therfore I praye 3ow / that in this necessite / & this nede

3e caste 3ow to overcome 3oure herte // [3049] flor senek seith that he that [ones] ouyrcomyth<sup>1</sup> [his/herte ouercome] twice / [3050] And Tullius / seith . per is / no þing / so commendable in a grev lord. [3051] as when he is / debonaire & meke . & appeeth hym mekoll . [3052] And I praye you . þat ye wolt / forbere now to do vengeance [3053] in suche a maner þat your goode name maie be kept & conserued . [3054] & þat men maie haue cause & matar / to preise you in pite & mercy . [3055] & þat ye haue no cause to repent you of þing / þat ye done . [3056] flor Senek seith . he ouercomeþ in euyl / in a maner þat repentiþ hym of his / victorie ¶ [3057] Wherfore I prarie you lat / mercy ben in your herte [3058] to þe effecte & þe entente þat god almythi haue mercy vp-on you in his / last Iugement ¶ [3059] ¶ flor seynt / Iame seith in his / epistle / Iugement<sup>2</sup> with oute mercy schall / be do to . hym . þat hat no mercy of anoþer wight .

¶ [3060] When Me'libe had herd þe grete skiles / & reasons / of dame Prudence & of / her / visio informacionis / & techynges / . [3061] his herte gan enlyne to þe wille of his wif . considering / to her trewe entente / [3062] conformed hym anon & assented fulli to wirchen after / his / counceile . [3063] & þankid god of / whom procediþ all / goodaice / þat hym sente a wif / of so greet discrecion . [3064] And when þe dacie come þat his / aduersaries / schulden appere in his presence . [3065] he spak / vn-

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 261) [this page, Harl. 1786]

trowe 3e may nouȝt do [3043] I say ne no mighte nouȝt putte it to execucion perauenture [3044] and þenne were it likly to returns to þe werte as it was byfore [3045] ¶ And þerfore if 3e wola þat men do 3ou obediaunce: 3e moste deme more curteisly [3046] þis is to sayn 3e moste ȝiue more say sentences and Iuggementz [3047] ¶ for it is writen þat he þat most curteisly comandeth: to him men most obeyen [3048] ¶ And þerfore I pray 3ou þat in þis necessite and in þis neede:
 3e casten þerfore to ouercome 3oure herte [3049] ¶ for Senek seiþ ¶ he þat oones ouercomeþ his herte: ouercomeþ twyes [3050] ¶ And Tullius seiþ ¶ Ther is no þing so comendable in a gret lord [3051] as when he is debon-aire and meeke and appeeþ him meekely [3052] ¶ And I pray 3ou þat 3e wola forþore now to do vengeance [3053] in such a manere. þat 3oure goode name may be kepte and conserued [3054] and þat man may haue 1 cause and matere to preyse 3ou of pite and of mercy [3055] and þat 3e han no cause to repente 3ou of þing þat 3e doon [3056] ¶ for Senek seiþ: he ouercomeþ in eucl manere þat repenteþ him of his victorie [3057] ¶ Wherefore I pray 3ou let mercy be in 3oure herte [3058] to þe effecte and entent þat god almyghty haue mercy vpon 3ou in his last Iuggement [3059] [Cor saint Jacques dit en son epiestre: iugement] ¶ wif-outent mercy schal be to him þat haþ no mercy of anoþer wight
[1 leaf 214, b. 131]

[3060] ¶ When Melibie had herd þe grete skilles and resons of Dame Prudence and of hire wise informacion and techinges: [3061] his herte gan encline to þe wille of his wif consydering þat þe trows entent [3062] conformed him anon ¶ And assented fully to wochen after hire counsel. [3063] and þankþ god of whom procedeth all godnesse þat him sente a wif of so gret discrecion [3064] ¶ And when þe day came þat his aduer-saries schulde appere in his presence: [3065] he speke trowe 3e mowe not doo [3043] I say 3e myȝt not put it to execucion perauenture / [3044] and þan

 were it likly to returns to þe werte as it was byfore [3045] And þerfore ȝif 3e þan wol þat men don 1 3ou obediaunce 3e moste deme more curteisly [3046] This is to sayn 3e moste ȝeue more say sentences and Iuggementys.
 [3047] for it is writen þat he þat most curteisly comandeth to hym men most obeyen [3048] ¶ And þerfore I pray 3ou þat in þis necessite and in þis neede 3e cast 3ou to ouercome 3oure hert. [3049] for Senec seiþ. He þat ouercomeþ his hert ouercomeþ twis. / [3050] ¶ And Tullius seiþ. Ther nys no þing so comendable in a grete lord [3051] as when he is debon-aire and apaiseth hym self lightly. [3052] And I pray 3ou þat 3e wil forþore now to do vengeance [3053] in such a maner þat 3our good name may be kept and conserued [3054] and þat men may han a cause and matere to preyse 3ou of pite and of mercy [3055] and þat 3e han no cause to repenþ 3ou of þing þat 3e doon [3056] ¶ for Senec seiþ. He ouercomeþ in an eucl manere þat repenteþ hym of his victorie. [3057] Wherefore I pray 3ou let mercy be in 3oure hert [3058] to þe effecte and entent þat god almyghty haue mercy on 3ou in his last Iuggement [3059] ¶ for seint Iame seiþ in his Epistel ¶ Iuggement wif-outent mercy schal be do to hym þat haþ no mercy on another wight

[3060] ¶ When Melibius had herd þe grete skilles and resons of dame Prudence and hire wise enformacion and techinge. [3061] His hert gan encline to þe wille of his wif. consyderinge her trows entent. [3062] Conformed. hym anon and contented fully to wochen after her counselle [3063] and þonked god of whome procedeth all godnesse þat hym sente a ¶ wif of so grete
 discrecion [3064] ¶ And when þe day came þat his aduer-saries shuld appere in his presence [3065] he speke trowe 3e may not do: [3043] I. seye ne myght not put it to execution: parauenture [3044] & þan were it likly to returns to þe werte as it was be-fore: f [3045] ¶ And þer-fore if 3e wif þat men do 3owe obseruance & obeysaunce: 3e moste deme more curteisly: [3046] þis is to seyne 3e moste ȝeue mor sei sentence & Iuggementz [3047] for it is writen þat he þat most curteisly

 comandeth: to him. men most obeyen [3048] ¶ And þerfore. I. praye 3owe þat in þis necessite: & in þis neede 3e casten þer-fore to ouer-come 3oure hert: [3049] ¶ For Senec seiþ he þat ones ouer-comeþ his hert ouer-comeþ twyes: [3050] ¶ And Tullius seiþ: þer is noþinge so commendable in a grete lorde: [3051] as when he is debon-aire & meke & appeeþ him mekely: [3052] ¶ And. I. preie 3owe þat 3e wil for-berre now to do vengeance [3053] in suche maner þat 3oure goode name may be keppeþ & conserued: [3054] and þat men maie haue cause & matiere to preyse 3owe of pite & of mercy: [3055] And þat 3e han no cause to repente 3owe of þing þat 3e done: [3056] ¶ For Senec seiþ: he repenteþ him in yuel manere þat repenteþ him of his victorie [3057] wherefore. I. preis 3owe: lete. Mercy be in 3oure herte: [3058] to þe effecte & þentente þat god al myghty haue Mercy vpon 3owe in his last Iugement: [3059] [Cor saint Iaque dit en lepiestre Iugement (19 C. 14.)] wif outent mercy schal be to him þat haþe no mercye of anoþere wyht!

[3060] ¶ When Melibie hadde herd þe grete skils & resons of dame Prudence: and of hire wise informacions & techinges [3061] his hert gan encline to þe wif of his wif consydering to þe trows entent [3062] conformed him a name: & assented fully to wochen after hire counsel: [3063] & þonked god of whome procedeth all godnesse þat him sent a wif of so [grete] discrecion: [3064] ¶ And when þe daie cam þat his aduer-saries schold appere in his presence. [3065] He speke to hem ful goodly / and seyde in this wyse [3066] ¶ Al be it so / þat of youre pride / and presumption: ohi' folie! / and of youre negligence and vnkonnyng / [3067] ye þane mysborn yow and trespassed vn-to me. [3068] ye for as much / as I see and biholde youre grete humylytee / [3069] and þat ye been sory and repentant of your giltes / [3070] it constreyneth me / to doon yow grace and mercy [3071] ¶ Therefore / I receyue yow / to my grace [3072] and foryeue yow outrely alle the offenses / Iniuries and wronges þat ye haue doon agayn me and myne / [3073] to this effect and to this ende / that god of his endeles mercy [3074] wole at the tyme of oure dyngge foryeuen vs oure giltes that we han trespassed to hym in this wretched world / [3075] for douteles / if we be sory and repentant of the synnes and giltes whiche we han trespassed in the sighte of oure lord god / [3076] he is so free and so merci-able / [3077] that he wole foryeuen vs oure giltes [3078]

and bryngen vs to his blisse / that neuere hath ende. Amen

¶ Here is ended Chaucers tale of Melibee / and of Dame Prudence ☉

to hem ful goodly / & seyde in this wise || [3066] Al be it so / þat of youre pride & by presumption & folie / & of youre negligence & vnkonnyng / [3067] ye haue mysborn yow / & trespassed vn-to me! [3068] yet for as muchel / as I se & biholde youre grete humylytee / [3069] & þat ye been sory & repentant of youre giltes / [3070] it constreyneth me / to do yow grace & mercy /
[3071] Wherefore I receyue yow to my grace / [3072] & foryeue yow outrely alle the offenses / Iniuries & wronges / þat ye haue doon / agayns me & myn / [3073] to this effect & to this ende / þat god / of his endeles mercy / [3074] wole atte tyme of oure dyngge / foryeuen vs oure giltes þat we han trespassed to hym / in this wretched world / [3075] for douteles / if we be sory & repentant of the synnes & giltes / whiche we han trespassed / in the sighte of oure lord god / [3076] he is so free & so merci-able [3077] þat he wole foryeuen vs oure giltes / [3078] & bryngen vs to the blisse / that neuere hath ende .

¶ Here is endid / Chaucers tale / of Melibe ☉ to hem full/goodli & seide to hem in þis/wise. [3066] ¶ Alþ/be it/ so þat of your pride & his presumption & folie & of your negligence & vnkonnyng. [3067] Ye haue mys/ born you & tresped to me. [3068] Yet for as/meche as/ I se & beholde your grete humylyte [3069] & þat ye ben sorie & repentaunt of your giltes/

[3070] it/ constreyneth me to do yow grace & mercy /
[3071] wherefore I receyue you to my grace. [3072] & foryeuen/ you intierli alle þ' offences/ iniuries/ & wrongis/þat ye han done aganst/ me & myn: [3073] to þis/effecte & to þis/ ende þat god of his/ endeles/ mercy .
[3074] wili/ at þe tyme of dyngg/ foryeuen/ our/giltes/ þat we haue trespeded vn-to hym in þis/ wretched world. [3075] for doutles/ if/ we be sorie & repentaunt/of þ' synnes/ & giltes/ in þ' whiche we han trespeded in þ' sight/ of our/ lord god. [3076] he is/ so free & so merciful/ [3077] þat he wili/ foryeuen/ vs/ our/ giltes/. [3078] & bryngen vs/ to þis/ blis/ þat neuer hath ende .
To whiche blis/ he vs/ bryng/ þat blood on crois/ for vs/did spryng. Qui cum deo patre. & cetera. //

Here/endith Chaucers/tale/of Melibe/ And Prudence/11 [<sup>1</sup> Harl. MS 1793 extract ends] to hem ful goodly and sayde to hem in his wise [3066] ¶ Al be it so þat of youre proude and by presumption and folye ¶ and of youre negligence and vnkunynge [3067] 3e han mysborn 3ou and trespassed to me // [3068] 3eþ for as meche as I se and byholde youre grete humilite [3069] and þat 3e ben sory and repentaunt of youre gultes

[3070] it constreyneth me to do 3ou grace and mercy [3071] ¶ Wherefore I receyue 3ou vnto my grace [3072] and for3eue 3ou outrely alle þe offenses Injuries and wronges þat 3e han doon a3eins me and myne [3073] to þis effeete and to þis ende / þat god of his endelese mercy [3074] wil at þe tyme of oure deyinge for3euen oure gultes þat we han trespast vnto him in þis wrecche world // [3075] ¶ For douteles if we ben sory and repentaunt of þe synnes and gultes þe which we han trespassed in þe sight of oure lord god [3076] he is so fre and so mercy-ful [3077] þat he wil for3euen vs oure gultes [3078]
and bryngen vs to þilke blisse þat neuer haf ende .
To which blisse he vs bringe That blood on crosse for vs gan springe Qui cum patre / to hem ful goodly And anide in þis wise. [3066] Al be it so þat of youre pride and hegh presumption and foly .

and of youre negligence and vnkunynge [3067] 3e han mysborn 3ou. and trespassed vnto me [3068] 3it for as meche as I See and byholde youre grete humilite [3069] and þat 3e bene sory and repentaunte of youre gultes
[3070] It constreyneth me to do 3ou grace. / and mercy [3071] and wherefore I receyue 3ou to my grace. [3072] And for3eue 3ou vnterly al þe offenses Injuries and wronges þat 3e han done a3einst me and myne [3073] to þis effeete and to þis ende þat god of his endelese mercye [3074] wil at þe tyme of our deyinge for3eue vs our gultes þat we han trespassed vnto hym in þis wrecched world. [3075] for douteles if we bene sory and repentaunte of þe synnes and gultes in þe which we han trespassed in þe sight of oure lord god. [3076] he is so fre and so merci-able. [3077] þat he wil for3eue vs oure gultes [3078]
and brynge vs to þe blisse þat neuere haf ende .Ame.N.

¶ Here endeth chaucers tale of meloibe to hem ful goodly And seke to hem in þis wise [3066] Al be it so þat of youre pride & be presumiciou & foly .

& of youre negligence & vnkunynge [3067] 3e haue misborne 3owe & trespassed to me [3068] 3itt for al so muche as I. see & beholde youre grete humilite [3069] & þat 3e bene sori & repentant of youre gultes [3070] it constreyneth me to do 3owe grace & mercye [3071] wherefore I. receyue 3owe to my grace [3072] & for3eue 3owe vnterly al þe offenses Injuries & wronges þat 3e haue done a3eins me & myne [3073] to þis affecte & to þis ende þat god of his endelese mercy [3074] wole ait þe time of oure deyinge for3euen oure gultes þat we haue trespassed vnto him in þis wrecched world [3075] ¶ For doutelesse if we bian sory & repentant of þe synnes & gultes þe which we haue trespassed in þe sight of oure lord gode [3076] He is so fre & so merciful [3077] þat he wil for3euen vs ouer gultes [3078] & bringe vs vnto þilke blisse þat neuere haf ende
To which blisse he vs bringe þat blod on crosse for vs spraynde. Qui cum patre &c.

Explicit Fabula Galfridi Chaucer/ de Melibeo. Milite

¶ The murye wordes of the Hoost/ to the Monk/ <sup>(on lxxv)</sup>

Whan ended / was my tale / of Melibee 3079
 And of Prudence / and hire benygnytee
 Oure hoost seyde / as I am feithful man
 And by that precious corpus Madrian
 I hadde leuere / than a barel ale

That good lief my wyf / hadde herd this tale 3084
 She nys no thyng / of swich pacience
 As was this Melibee wyf Prudence

By goddes bones / whan I bete my knaues
 She bryngeth me forth / the grete clobbed staves 3088

And crieth / sloo the dogges euerichoon
 And brek / hem / bothe bak and euery bon

¶ And if that any neighbere of myne
 Wol nat in chirche / to my wyf enelyne 3092
 Or be so hardy / to hire to trespae

When she comth [home] / she rampeth in my face
 And crieth / false coward / wrek thy wyf

By corpus bones / I wol haue thy knyf /
 And thou shalt haue my distaf / and go spyinne 3096

fro day to nyght / right thus she wol bigynne
 Alas she seith / that enere þat I was shape

To wedden a Milksoppe / or a coward ape
 That wol been ouerlad with euery wight 3100

Thou darst nat stonden / by thy wyues right
 ¶ This is my lif but if that I wol fighte

And out at dore / anon I moot me dighte
 Or elles I am but lost but if that I 3104

Be lyk a wilde leon fool-hardy
 I woot wel / she wol do me alee som day

Som neighbere / and thanne go my way
 for I am perilous / with knyf in honde 3108

Al be it that I dar hire nat withstonde
 ALLESMERE (6-T. 253)

¶ Here bigynneth The Prologo of the Monkes ta[le].
 [Middle of fol. 184.]

Whan ended / was my tale / of Melibee <sup>(next 68)</sup> 3080
 And of Prudence / and hire benygnytee
 Oure hoost seyde / as I am feithful man
 And by / that precious corpus Madrian
 I hadde leuere / than a barel Ale

That goode lief my wyf / hadde herd this tale 3084
 She nys no thyng of swich pacience
 As was / this Melibee wyf Prudence

By goddes bones / whan I bete my knaues
 She bryngeth me / the grete clobbed staves 3088

And crieth / sloo the dogges euerichoon
 And breke hem / bothe bak and euery bon

¶ And if þat / any neighbere / of myne
 Wol nat in chirche / to my wyf enelyne 3092
 Or be so hardy / to hire to trespae

When she cometh / she rampeth in my face
 And crieth / false coward wrek thy wyf

By corpus bones / I wol haue thy knyf
 And thou shalt haue my distaf / and go spyinne 3096

fro day to nyght / right thus she wol bigynne
 Alas she seith / þat enere þat I was shape

To wedden a Milksoppe / or a coward ape
 That wol been ouerlad / of euery wight 3100

Thou darst nat stonden / by thy wyues right
 This is my lif but if þat I wol fighte

And out at dore / anon I moot me dighte
 Or elles I am but lost but if þat I 3104

Be lyk a wilde leon / fool hardy
 I woot wel / she wol do me alee som day

Som neighbere / and thanne go my way
 for I am perilous / with knyf in honde 3108

Al be it that I dar nat hire withstonde
 HENGWRT 197 (6-T. 253)

[Here be-gynneth þe Prologo of þe Monke. (Blount MS 184, on fol. 201, 14.)

Whan endid was þis tale of Melybe
 And of / Prudence and of hir / benygnyte 3080
 Oure hoste sayd as I am a · feyth·ful man
 And by þe precious corpus madrian
 I hade leuere þan a Barelle of ale þat godeleue my wyf hade hard þis tale 3084 for she nys no þenge of suche pacience

 As was þis Melibens wyfes prudence

Be godes bones whan I bete my knaues.
 Sche bryngeth me þe grete clubbed staves. 3088

And cryeth also þe dogges euereychoon
 And breke bothe backe and bone

¶ And þif þat ony neghebour of myne
 Wolle not in chirche to my wyf enelyne 3092
 Or be so hardy to her / to trespae

When she cometh home she ranneth in my face
 And cryeth false coward wrek þi wyfe

By corpus bones I wyll haue þi knyfe 3096
 And þou shalt haue my distafe and go spyinne fro day to nyght right þus she wolle begynne Alas she seith þat enere I was shape

To wedde a melke soppe or so grete an ape þat wolle bene enere lade with euery wyg 3100

þou darste not stonde by þi wyf a rygt Thys ys my lyfe but þif I wolde fygt

¶ And oute at þe dore a none I mote me dyst 3104
 Or elles I am lost but þif þat I

Be lyke a wyde lyon fowle hardy
 I wote welle she wyll do me alee som day <sup>(next 292)</sup> 3107

Some neygeboure and þan go my way
 For I am perilous with knyf in honde <sup>[Blount MS 184, on fol. 201, 14.]</sup> 3108

Al be it that I dar nat hire withstonde
 CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 253) [this page, Sloane MS]

¶ Prologus Monachi
[on leaf 224, verso]

Whan ended was þe tale of Mellibe
 And of Prudence and hire benignite 3080
 Oure hoost' sayde as I am feiþful man
 And þy þe precious corps Matryan
 I hadde leser þan a barrel ale
 That' goode leet' my wyf' had herd þis tale 3084 for sche nys no þing' of such pacience
 As was þis Mellibeus wyf' Prudence
 By goddes bones when I bete my knaues [leaf 224]
 Sche bringeþ me þe grete clobbered stanes 3088
 And cryeþ ale þe dogges eurychon
 And breke boþe bak' and bon
 And if þat' any neyghebour of myne
 Wol nouþt in chireche to my wif' enclyne 3092
 Or be so hardy to hire to trespace
 When sche comeþ home sche rumpeth me þe face and cryeþ fals coward wreke þin wyf'
 By corpus bones I wol haue þy knyf' 3096
 And þou schalt haue my distaf' and go spyne fro day to night' riht' þus sche wol begynne Alias sche seiþ þat' euer I was y-schape 3100
 To wedde a melksope or a coward ape /
 That' wil ben ouerled wip eury wight'
 Thou darst' nouþt stonde by þy wyf' aught'
 This is my lyf' bot' if þat' I wolde fight'
 And out' at þe dore anon I mot' me dight'
 Or elles .I. am lost' bot' if þat' I 3104
 Be like a wilde leon' fool hardy
 I wot' wel sche wol do me sles som day Som neihoure and þanne I go my way for I am perilous wip knyf' on honde /
 Al be it' þat' I dar hire nouþt' wipstonde /
 CORPUS . (9-T. 253)

And here bygygneþ þe prologe of þe Monke /' [on leaf 241, verso]

Whan ended was my tale of Meloby
 And of Prudence and her benygnyte 3080
 Our hoost' saide as I am feiþful man
 And by þe corps precious Matrian
 I had leser þan a barrel of ale.
 That' good lous my wif' had herd þis tale 3084 for she nys no þinge of such pacience
 As was þis Malobies Dame Prudence
 By goddes bones when I bete my knaues
 She bringeþ me forþ þe grete clubbed stanes 3088
 And crieth Sleu þoo dogges eurychon
 And breke of hem boþ' bak' and boon
 And if þat' eny neighbour of myne
 Wil nat' to my wif in church enclyne 3092
 Or be so hardy to hire da trespas
 When she comeþ hom she rumpeth in my face
 And crieth fals coward kepe and wreke þi wif'
 By goddes bones I wil haue þi knyff 3096
 And þow schalt haue my distaff' and go spyne from day to nyght' þus she wil bygygne Alias she seiþ þat' euer I was yshape 3100
 To wedde a Milksop or a coward ape
 That' wil be ouercome wip eury wip' Thou darst' not' stonde by þi wyues riht' þis is my lif' bot' if þat' I wil fight'
 Out' at þe dore anon I mot' me dight'
 Or elles I am lest' but' if þat' I 3104
 Be like a wilde lyon' fool hardy .
 I wote wels she wil do me sles som day Somme neihoure of myne and þennes ronne away 3108 for I am perilous wip knyf' in honde Al be it' I dar nat' her withstonde

Incipit Prologus de Monacho. [on leaf 204]

Whan endede was þe tale of Mellibe
 And of Prudence & of hire benygnaite 3080
 Oure Oale seide as I. am feiþful man
 And be þe precious corps madrian
 I had leser þan a barrel ale
 That good let' my wif' hadde herde þis tale 3084
 For sche nys no þinge of such pacience
 As was þis Mellibes wif' Prudence
 Be goddes bones when I. bete my knaues.
 Sche bringeþ me þe grete clobbered stanes 3088
 And crieth sles' þe dogges eurychone [or sles]
 And if þat' any neighebour of myne [leaf 206, back]
 Wil nout' in chereche to my wif' encline 3092
 Or be so hardy to hire to trespas
 When sche comeþ home sche rumpeth in my face
 And crieth false cowarde wreke þine wife
 By corpus bones! I. wil haue þi knyff 3096
 And þou schalt haue myn distaf' & go spyne Fro day to nyht' riht' þus wil sche be-ginne Alias sche seiþe þat' euer y was schape 3100
 To wedde a mylkesoppe or a coward ape þat' wil be ouere ladde wip eury wight' þou darst' nouþt stonde be þi wif' arlit' þis is my lyf' bot' þat' I. wold fight'
 And oute att' þe dore anon .I. mot' me dilt'
 Or elles .I. am lost' bot' if þat' .I.
 Bue like a wilde lion' fools hardye
 .I. wote wels sche wil do me ale sam daie
 Some neihbour' & þan go my wais 3108
 For .I. am perilous wip knyf' on honde
 Albeit þat' .I. dar hir nouþt' wip-stonde
 LANSDOWNE (9-T. 253)

254 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 11. MELIBEUS'S END-LINK. Ellesmere MS.

for she is / byg in Armee by my feith
That shal he fynde / pat hire mysdooth or seith 3112
But lat vs passe away / fro this matere
¶ My lord the Monk quod he / be myrie of cheere for ye shul telle a tale trewely Loe Ronchestre / stant heer faste by 3116
Ryde forth myn owene lord / brak nat oure game
But by my trouthe / I knowe nat youre name
Wher shal I calle yow / my lord dann Iohn
Or dann Thomas / or elles dann Albon 3120
Of what hous be ye / by youre fader kyn
I voue to god / thou hast a ful fair skyn
It is a gentil pasture / ther thou goost<sup>Def 178, back</sup> Thou art nat lyk' a penant' or a goost'
Vpon my feith / thou art som Officere
Som worthy sexteyn / or som Colerere
ffor by my fader soule / as to my doom
Thou art a maister / when thou art at hoorn
No poure cloyster / ne no Novys
But a gouernour / wily and wys
And therwithal / of brawnes and of bones
A wel farynge persone / for the nones 3124
I pray to god / yene hym confusoun
That first thee broghte / vn-to Religoun
Thou woldest han been / a trefefowl ariht
Haddestow / as greet a leue / as thou hast myght' 3126
To parfoume al thy lust / in engendrure
Thou haddest bigeten / ful many a creature
Allas / why werestow / so wyd a Cope
God yene me sorwe / but and I were a pope 3140
Nat only thou / but euery myghty man
Though he were shorn / ful hys vpon his pan
Sholde haue a wyf / for al the world is lorn
Religoun / hath take vp al the corn 3144
Of tredyng' and we borel men been shrympes
Of fible trees / ther comen wrecched ympes

ELLESMEERE (6.-7. 264)

254 SIX-TEXT
198 GROUP B. § 11. MELIBEUS'S END-LINK. Hengwrt MS.

ffor she is big in armes / by my feith
That shal he fynde / pat hire mysdooth / or seith 3112
But lat vs passe away / fro this matere
¶ My lord the Monk quod he / be myrie of cheere for / ye shul telle a tale trewely <sup>Def 178, back</sup> Lo / Ronchestre / stant heer faste by 3116
Ride forth myn owene lord / brak nat oure game
But by my trouthe / I knowe nat youre name
Wher shal I calle yow / my lord Dann Iohn
Or dann Thomas / or ellis Dann Albon 3120
Of what hous be ye / by youre fader kyn
I vow to god / thou hast a ful fair skyn
It is a gentil pasture / ther thou goost'
Thow art nat lyk' a penant' or a goost'
Vp-on my feith / thou art som Officere
Som worthy Sexteyn / or som Colerere
ffor by my fader soule / as to my doom
Thow art a maister / when thou art at hoorn 3128
No poure Cloister / ne no novys,
But a gouernour / wily and wys
And ther with al / of brawnes & of bones
A wel farynge persone / for the nones 3132
I prey god / yene hym confusion
That first thee broghte / vn-to Religion
Thow woldest han been a trefefowl ariht'
Haddestow / as greet a leue as thou hast myght'
To parfoume / al thy lust in engendrure
Thow haddest bigeten / ful many a creature
Allas / why werestow so wyd a cope
God yene me sorwe / but and I were a Pope 3140
Nat only thou / but euery myghty man
Thogh he were shorn / ful hys vp on his pan
Sholde haue a wyf for al the world is lorn
Religion / hath take vp al the corn 3144
Of tredyng' and we borel men been shrympes
Of fible trees / ther comen wrecched ympes

HENGWERT 198 (6.-7. 264)

254 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 11. MELIBEUS'S END-LINK. Cambridge MS.

For acho is big in armys by myn feyth
That schal he fynde that hire mys doth or seyth 3112
But lat vs passe a-way from this matiere
Myn lord the Monk be merye of cheere
For ye schul telle a tale trewely
Lo ronchestre stant here faste by 3116
Ryde forth myn owene lord / brak nat oure game
But by myn trouthe I knowe nat your name
Wher schal I calle yow myn lord daund Iohn
Or dann Thomas or ellis dann Albon 3120
Of what hous be ye by youre fadyr kyn
I voue to god thou hast a ful fayr skyn
It is a gentyl pasture there thou gost
Thow art nat lyk a penant or a gost 3124
Vp-on myn feyth thow art sum offyseer Sum worthi Sexteyn or sum Colereer for by myn fadyr soule as to myn doom Thow art a mayster when thou art at hoorn 3128
No poure Cloysterer ne non nouys
But a gouernour worthy & wis
And therwithal of braun & of bouys
A weel farynge persone for the nonys 3132
I preyre to god yene hem confusoun
That first thee broghte vn-to religeoun
Thow woldyst a been a trefefowl ariht
Haddyt thou as greet a leue as thou hast myght 3136
To perfoerne al this lust in engenderge
Thow haddyt begetyn manye a creature
Allas why weyrs thou so syd a copo
God zene me sorwe but & I were a pope 3140
Nat only thou but euery myghty man
Thow he were schore hys vp on his pan
Schulde has a wif for al the world is lorn Religous hath takyn vp al the corn 3144
Of tylyng / & we borel meen been schrympis <sup>Def 181, back</sup>
Of fible treis there comyn feble ympis

CAMBRIDGE (6.-7. 264)

SIX-TEXT 254
GROUP B. § 11. MELIBREUS'S END-LINK. Corpus MS.

for scho is bigge in armes by my feiþ
 That schal he fynde þat hire mysdoþ or seiþ
 But lat vs passe away fro þis matiere /
 My lord sirc monk he seiþ be mery of cheere / for þe schul telle a tale trowely Lo Rouchester stant here faste by Ryd forþ myn owne lord brek' nouþ' our game
 But by my troupe I knowe nouþ' zoure name /
 Wheþer I schal calle þou my lord daun Iohn
 Or daun Thomas or elles daun Albou
 Of what hous he 3e by your fader kyn
 I vowe to god þou hast a ful fayr skyn
 It is a gentil pasture þer þou gost
 Thou art' nouþ' like a panant' or a gost
 Vpon my feiþ þou art' som officier Som worþi Sexteyn or som Celerer for by my fader soule as to my dome Thou art' a maister when þou art at home
 No pouer cloysterer ne no pouer novys
 But gouernour wyly and wys
 And þer-wiþ-al of braunes and of bones
 A wel faryng' persong for þe nones
 I pray to god giue him confusion
 That first þe brought in to religion
 Thou woldest haue bene a trefesoul arisht
 Haddest þou as grete leue as þou hast myht
 To performe al þy lust in engendure /
 Thou haddest bygaten many a creature
 Allas why verest þou so wyd a Cope
 God gif me sorwe and I were a Pope Nouþ' onely þou but every myghty man Though he were schore heyhe vpon his pan schulde haue a wyf for al þis worlde is lorn
 Religion hap take vp al þe corn
 Of treading' and ve boreld men ben schrimpes
 Of feible trees þer comen wroched ympes
 CORPUS (8-T. 254)

SIX-TEXT 254
GROUP B. § 11. MELIBREUS'S END-LINK. Petworth MS.

for she is bigge in armes be my fault þat schal he fynde þat hir mysdoþ or seiþ
 But lat vs passe away fro þis matere
 My lordis þe Monke quod he be mery of chiere for 3e schul telle a tale trowely Leo Rouchester' stant here fast' by Ride forþ myn owne lord breke not' zoure game
 But by my troupe I knowe nouþ' zoure name
 Whedere schal I calle þou my lord' dan Iohn
 Or danne Thomas or daun Albou
 Of what hous be 3e by zoure fader' kyn
 It is a gentile pasture þat 3e goon in Thou art' not' like a panannte or a gost
 Thus to þe Monke seide oure oste
 Vpon my feiþ þou art' some officier Som worþi Sexteyn or som celerere for by my fadere saule as to my dome Thou art' a maistere when þou art at home
 No poor cloistere ne no povise
 But gouernour þoþ wily and wise
 And þer-wiþ-al of braune and of bonys
 A wel faryng' persone for þe nonys
 I pray god geue hym confusion That þe first' brouyt to Religioñ for þou woldest haue bene a trefesof' arisht Haddest thou as grete leue as þou hast myht
 To performe al þi lust in engendrure
 Thou haddest ygete mony a creature
 Allas whi verest þow so wide a cope
 God geue sorowe to me and I were pope
 Not' onely þou but every mysty man .
 Thouge he were schore brode vpon þe pan .
 Shuld haue a wif for al þe worlde is lorn
 Religion hap take vp al þe corn
 Of treading' and ve burle men ben þ' shrympes .
 Of feble trees þer comen symple ympes .
 PETWORTH (8-T. 254)

SIX-TEXT 254
GROUP B. § 11. MELIBREUS'S END-LINK. Lansdowne MS.

For scho is bigge in armes be my feiþ þat schal he fynde þat hire misdoþ or seiþ
 But lat vs passe a-wein fro þis matiere
 My lordis sir monke he seiþ þeþe morye of chere
 For 3e schal tel a tale trowly Lo Rouchester stant here fast by Ride forþe myno owen lorde breke nouht cure game
 But he my troupe .I. knowe nouþ' zoure name Wheþer .I. schal cal zowe my lorde Doune Iohn
 Or dan Thomas or dan Albou Ofere of what house be 3e be zoure fader kinne
 .I. vowe to good þou hast a ful faire skynne
 It is a gentil pasture þere þou goste þou ert nouht like a panent or a goste Vpon my feiþ þou ert sum officiere
 Somme worþe sexteyne eyere sum celerere Fo[r] be my fader soule as to my dome þou ert a maister when þou ert att home
 No pouer cloister ne no pouer novise
 But a gouernoure a wilye & wise
 And þere-wiþ-al of braunes & of bones
 A wele faryng' persone for þe nones
 .I. preie to god gif him confusione þat firste þe brouyt in-to religione þou woldest haue be a trefesoule arisht
 Haddest þou as grete leue as þou hast myht
 To performe al þi luste in gendure þou hadest be-geten mony a creature
 Alas whi veres þou so wide a cope
 God geue þe sorwe and .I. were a pope Nouht onely þou bot every myhty man
 Theibe he were schore lihe vpon his panne Schol haue a wif for al þis werlde is lorne Religion hap tak vp al þe corne
 Of treadinge & ve bural men bene schrimpes
 Of foble tres þere comme foble impes
 LANSDOWNE (8-T. 254)

[ . . . . .
. . . . . no gap in the MS. ]
This maketh / that oure wyues wole assaye
Religious folk/ for ye mowe bettre paye
Of Venus paiementz / than mowe we God woot' no lussheburgh payen ye
But be nat wrooth / my lord for þat I pleye ful ofte in game / a sooth I haue herd seye
¶ This worthy Monk / took al in pacience
And seyde I wol doom al my diligence
As fer as sovneth / in-to honestee
To telle yow a tale / or two / or thre
And if yow list / to hearken hyderward
I wol [yow] seyn the lyf / of saint Edward
Or ellis / first Tragedies wol I telle
Of whiche / I haue an hundred in my Cello
¶ Tragedie is to seyn / a certeyn storie
As olde bookes / maken vs memorie
Of hym / that stood / in greet prosperitee
And is yfallen / out of heigh degree
In-to myserie / and endeth wrecchedly
And they ben versified comunly
Of vj. feet. which men clepen Exametron
In prose eek / been endited many con
And eek in metre / in many a sondry wyse
Lo / this declaryng' eghte ynogh suffise
Now herkneþ / if yow liketh for to heere
But first / I yow biseke / in this matere
Though I by ordre / telle nat thise thynges
Be it of Popes / Emperours / or kynges
After hir ages / as men writen fynde
But telle hem / som bifore / and som bihynde
As it now cometh / vn-to my remembrance
Haue me excused of myn ignorance
¶ Explicit

This maketh / þat oure heires both so sklendre
And feble / þat they may nat wel engendre
This maketh / þat oure wyues wole assaye
Religious folk / for ye mowe bettre paye
Of Venus paiementz / than may we
God woot' no lussheburgh payen ye
But be nat wrooth my Lord / though þat I pleye
ful ofte in game / a sooth I haue herd seye
¶ This worthy Monk / took al in pacience
And seyde / I wol doom al my diligence
As fer / as sovneth in to honestee
To telle yow a tale / or two / or thre
And if yow list / to hearken hideward
I wol yow seyn / the lyf of Saint Edward
Or ellis first tragedies wol I telle
Of whiche / I haue an hundred in my Cello
Tragedie is to seyn / a certeyn storie
As olde bokes / maken vs memorie
Of hym / þat stood in greet prosperitee
And is yfallen / out of heigh degree
In-to myserie / and endeth wrecchedly
And they been / versified comunly
Of .vj. feet. whiche men clepen Exametron
In prose eek' been endited many con
And eek in metre / in many a sondry wise
Lo this declaryng' eghte ynogh suffise
¶ Now herkneþ / if yow liketh for to heere
But first / I yow biseke / in this matere
Though I by ordre / telle nat thise thynges
Be it of Popes / Emperours / or Kynges
After hir ages / as men writen fynde
But telle hem / som bifore / and som bihynde
As it now cometh / vn-to my remembrance
Haueþ me excused / of myn ignoranee

This makyth that oure eyris been so sklendre
And feble that they may not wel engendre
This makyth that oure wyues wole assaye
Ralygous folk for 30 mowe the betere paye Of Venus paymentis that mowe we God wot no lusshebrus paye 30
But be nat wroth myn lord, thou that I pleye
Ful ofte in game a sothe I haue herd seye ¶ This worthy Monk tok al in pacience
And seyde I wole don al myn diligence
As fer as sovneth in-to honeste
To telle 3ow a tale or two or thre
And 3if thou leste to herkyn bedryward
I wole 3ow seyn the lyf of seyn Edward Or ellis fyrst tragedie wole I telle
Of whiche I haue an hundred in myn cello
Tragedie is to seyne a certeyn storge
As olde bokys makyn vs memorie
Of hym that stod in greet prosperitee & is I-fallye out of hygh degre
In-to myserye & endyth wrochedely
And they been versified comunly
Of sexe feet whiche men callyn exametroun In prose ek endytid been many on And ek in metre in many a sundery wyse
Lo this declarynge oughte I-nough suffyse
Now herkyth 3if 3ow lyke for to heere
But fyrst I 3ow be-seke in this matiere
Thow I be ordere telle nat these thyngis
Be it of popis emperourya or kyngis
Aftyr here agis as men rede & fynde
But telle hem some by-fore & some bo-hynde
As it comyth to myn remembrance
Haue me excusede of myn ugnoumance

GROUP B. § 11. MELIBRUS'S END-LINK. <small>SIX-TEXT 255</small> Corpus MS.	<small>SIX-TEXT 255</small>	GROUP B. § 11. MELIBRUS'S END-LINK. <small>SIX-TEXT 255</small> Petworth MS.	<small>SIX-TEXT 255</small>	GROUP B. § 11. MELIBRUS'S END-LINK. <small>SIX-TEXT 255</small> Lansdowne MS.	<small>SIX-TEXT 255</small>
This maketh þat our heires ben so sclendre		This maketh þat our heires bene so sclendore		þis maketh þat our heires bene so sklender
And feble þat þey may not wel engendre	3148	And feble þat þei may not wel engendore	3148	And febel þat þei maie nouht wale engender	3148
This maketh þat our wyfus wol assay		This maketh þat our wyfus wil assay		This maketh þat our wifes wil assaie
Religious folk for þey may bettere pay		Religious folk for þei may bettere paye		Religious folke for þei maie bettere paie
Of venus payment þen mowen we		Of Venus payment þan may we		Of venus Payment þan may we
God woot no lussibourthes paye 3e	3152	God woot no lussibourthes paye 3e <small>[leaf 217, back]</small>	3152	God woot no lussibourthes paie 3e.	3152
But þeþ nouht wroþ þe lord pouh þat I play		Be nat wroþe my lord pouge I play		Bot be nouht wroþe my lord pouho þat .I. pleie
ful ofte in game a soþ I hauē herd say		for ofte in game a soþe I hauē herd say		Fol in game a soþe .I. hauē herd saie
This wroþi monke took al in paciēce		This wroþi monke toke all in paciēce		This wroþi monke toke al paciēce
And sayde I wil do al my diligeñce	3156	And saide I wil doom al my diligeñce	3156	And seid .I. wil do al my diligeñce	3156
As for as sowneþ in to honeste		As for as sowneth unto honeste		As for as sowneþ wale honeste
To telle þou a tale or tuo or þre		To telle þou a tale or two or þre		To telle þoue a tale or tuo or þre
And if þou liste herkene hiderward	<small>[leaf 250]</small>	And if þe list to herken hiderwarde		And if þoue list herken hiderwarde
I wol þou seyn þe lyf of seint Edward	3160	I wil þou say þe lif of seint Edward	3160	.I. wil þoue seie þe lif of seint Edward	3160
Or elles tregedys first wol I telle		Or elles first tregedies wil I þou telle		Or elles Tregedias first. wil .I. tell
Of which I hauē an hundred in my selle		Of which I hauē an hundred in my Sells		Of which .I. hauē an hundreþ in my sell
Tregedye is for to telle a certain storie		Tregedie is for to seyn a corteyn storie		Tregedie is for to tel a certaine storie
As olde bookes maken memorie	3164	As olde bookes make vs memorie	3164	As olde bokes maeken memorie	3164
Of hem þat stood in gret prosperite		Of hem þat stood in grette prosperite		Of hem þat stode in greta prosperite
And is y-falle out of high degre		And is falle out of his degre		And is yfall oute of hihe degre
In-to miserie and endep wretchedly		Into Miserye and endep wrochedly		In-to myserie & endep wriedhedlye
And þey ben vercofyed comenly	3168	And þei bene versefed comonly	3168	And þei bien verafied comunly	3168
Of sixe fete which þat men clepen examytron		Of sex fete of which men callen exametron		Of sex fete wich þat men clep exametron
In proce eke þan endited many oon		In proce eke bene endited mony oon		In prose eke bien endited mony one
And eke in metre in many a sondry wyse		In metre eke and in sondry wise		And eke in metric in mony a sondre wise
Lo þis aughte þou ynough suffise	3172	loo þis claringe aught ynouw suffise	3172	Lo þis ouht þoue .L. nouhe suffise	3172
Now herkeneþ if þou liste for to heere		Now herkeneth if þou liste for to here		Nowe herkeneth if þou liste for to here
But first I þou beseche in þis manere /		But first I þou biseche in þis manere		Bot first .I. þoue beseche in þis matiere.
pouh I by ordre telle nouht þese þinges		þouge I be ordred tel not þise þinges		þouhe .I. be order tel nouht þes þinges <small>[leaf 257, back]</small>
Be it of Popes Emperours or Kynges	3176	Be it of Popes Emperours or kynges	3176	Be it of popes Emperours or kynges	3176
And after here ages as men writen fynde		After her Age as men may writen fynde		And after her age as me wreten finde
But telle hem some before some behinde		But telle hem som byfore and some behynde		Bot tel hem some be-fore some be-hinde
As it cometh now to my remembrance		As it cometh now in my remembrance		And it cometh now to my remembrance
Haueth me excused of myn ignorance		Hauē me excused of myn ignorauce	3180	Have me excused of myne ignorauce.	3180
	¶ Explicit prologus monachi	¶ Here bygynneþ þe prologe of þe monke		Explicit Prologus.

¶ Here bigynneth / the Monkes tale / de casibus virozum Illustrium. [on leaf 179]

Iwol biwaille / in manere of Tragedie [Painting of the Monk and two dogs]
The harm of hem / that stode in heigh degree
And fillen so / that ther nas no remedie
To brynge hem / out of hir' aduersitee 3184 for certein / whan þat fortune list to fleo
Ther may no man / the cours of hire withholden
Lat no man truste / on blynd prosperitee
Be war of thise ensamples / trowe and elde 3188

[Lucifer.]

AT lucifer / though / he an Angel were And nat a man / at hym wol I bigynne for though fortune / may noon Angel dere from heigh degree / yet fel he for his synne 3192 Down in to helle / where he yet is inne
O Lucifer / brightest' of Angels alle
Now artow sathanas / þat mayst nat twynne
Out of miserie / in which þat thou art falle 3196

[Adam.]

Loo Adam / in the feild of Damysene With goddes owene fyngyr / wrought was he
And nat bigeten / of mannes sperme vncleue
And welte all Paradys / sauynge o tree 3200
Hadde neuere worldly man so heigh degree
As Adam / til he for mysgouernance
Was dryuen / out of hys hye prosperitee
To labour and to helle / and to meschance 3204

ELLESMEERE (E-T. 256)

¶ Here bigynneth the Monkes tale.

Iwol biwaille / in manere of Tragedie
The harm of hem / that stode in heigh degree
And fillen so / that ther nas no remedie
To brynge hem / out of hire Aduersitee 3184 for certeyn / whan þat fortune list to fleo
Ther may no man / the cours of hire withholden
Lat no man triste / on blynd prosperitee
Both war / by thise ensamples trowe and elde 3188

[Lucifer.]

AT lucifer / thogh he an Angel were [on leaf 180, back]
And nat a man / at hym I wol bigynne for thogh fortune / may noon Angel dere from heigh degree / yet fil he for his synne 3192 Down in to helle / where as he yet is inne
O Lucifer / brightest of Angells alle
Now artow Sathanas / that mayst nat twynne
Out of Miserie / in which þat thou art fallo 3196

[Adam.]

Loo Adam in the feild of Damysene [The scene is in the garden in a later 15th-century hand] With godes owne fyngyr wrought was he . .
And nat bigeten / of mannes sperme vncleue . .
And welte al paradys sayng o tree . . 3200
Had neuer worldly man so heigh degre . .
As Adam til he for mysgouernance . .
Was dryue out of his hye prosperitee . .
To labour and to helle and to meschance 3204

HENGWRT 200 (E-T. 256)

[Painting of the Monk on horseback.]
Here begynneth the Monk his tale

Iwole be-waile in manere of Tragedie [This initial I is carried down to the next line, in MS.]
The harm of hem that stood in hey degree
And fellyn so that there nas no remedie
To brynge hem out of here aduercitee 3184
For certeyn whan that fortune leste to fleo
There may no man the cours of hire withholden
Lat not man truste on blynd prosperitee
By-war by these exsaumply trowe & elde 3188

[Lucifer.]

At lucifer thow he an angel weore
And not a man at hym I wele begynne
For thow fortune may noon angel dereo
From heigh degre jit fol he for his synne 3192
Down in-to helle where as he jit is inne
O lucifer brygsteo / of angelleis alle
Now art thow satenas that mayst not twynne
Out of myserie / in which that thou art fallo 3196

[Adam.]

Loe Adam in the feild of damassene With goddys owene fyngyr mad was helen
And not begeten of manys sperme clenleo
And welte al paradys sauynge on tree 3200
Hadde neuere worldly man so heigh degree
As adam tyl he for mysgouernance
Was draue out of his hye prosperitee
To labour & to helle & to myschance 3204

CAMBRIDGE (E-T. 256)

¶ Here telleþ þe monk // Do casibus virorum illustrium ¶ (C<sup>m</sup> xxj)<sup>n</sup>

[No breaks between the stanzas in the MS.]

I Wol bewaile in maner of Tragedye
The harme of hem þat standeþ<sup>3</sup> in heih degre<sup>[1 etatem, later, in the margin]</sup>
And fallen soþ þat þer nas no remedye
To bringen hem out of here aduersite 3184
ffor certein when þat fortune lust to fle
Then may no man of hire þe cours wipholde / [<sup>2</sup>At nous truste on biyn[d] prosperite<sup>2</sup>] [<sup>2-3</sup> later, in margin]
Beþ war by þis ensamples zong<sup>3</sup> and olde 3188

[Lucifer.]

At lucifer poughe he an angel were ¶ Primo de lucifero
And nought a man at him I wol begynne for þeiþ fortune may noon angel dere 3192 ffrom heih degre 3et felle he for his synne Doun in-to helle wher as he 3et is inne
O lucifer brightest of angeles alle
Now art þou Sathanas þat maist not twynne [<sup>1</sup>leaf 256, back]
Out of miserie which þou art y-falle 3196

De Adamo [in margin.]

[Lo Adam in þe felde of Damascene. [<sup>1</sup>leaf 256, leaf 156] With goddis owne fyngre wrought was/ he.
And not bi getyng/ of mannes sperme vncleue.
And welte all Paradyse sauynge/ oo tre. 3200
Had nouy/ worldly man so hye degre.
As/ Adam had tilte he for his gouernaunce,
Was dryuen out of/ his/ hye prosperite.
To labour/ an to helle & to myschaunce.] [<sup>1</sup>leaf, extract ends]
CORPUS (6-T. 256)

[No breaks between the stanzas in the MS, except for the red headings.]

And here bygynneþ þe monkes tale [<sup>1</sup>on leaf 247, back]

I wol by-waile in man[er]þe of tregedie ¶ þe tale þe harme of hem þat stonden in his degre
And fallen so þat þer nys no remedye
To bringe hem out of her aduersite 3184
ffor certeynly when fortune list to floo þer may no man of hir þe cours wipholde
Lat þe no man trest on bynde prosperite
Beþ ware of þise ensamples trewe and olde [<sup>1</sup>leaf 247]

¶ Primo de Lucifero :

At lucifero þouge he an angel were
And nat a man . but at hym I wil bygynne
for þeiþ fortune may noon angel dere 3192
ffrom high degre þer felle he for hys synne Doun into helle wwere he 3it is inne
O lucifer brightest of angeles alle
Now art þou Sathanas þat maist not twynne
Out of myserie in which þat þou art falle 3196

¶ De Adam . /

[Lo Adam in þe feelde of Damysseuo Wiþ goddes owne fyngers wrought was he
And nouyþ bygeten of mannes sperme vncleue
And wolt al Paradyse sauynge/ oon tre 3200
Had neuere worldly man so his degre
As Adam vnto he wyþ nyce gouernaunce
Was dryue out of his high prosperite
To labour and to helle and to meschaunce 3204
* x PETWORTH (6-T. 256)

Incipit fabula de Casibus virorum . [<sup>1</sup>on leaf 247, back]

Y<sup>1</sup> wil be-welle in maner of tregedrie
þe maner of him þat standeþ in hise degre
And felle so þat þer was no remedye
To bringe hem out of her aduersite 3184
For certeyne when þat fortune luste to fye þere maie no man of hire þe course wipholde
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Beþ war By þis ensample zonge & olde 3188

Primo de Lucifero

At Lucifer pouhe he an angelo were
And nought a man att him . I wil beginno
For þeiþe fortun maie none angel dere
Frome hise degre 3it felle he fro his sinne 3192
Doun in-to heit where as he 3itte is inne
O lucifer brilest of angeles att
Nowe ert þou Sathanas þat maist not twynne Owte of misery in wichþe þou ert fait 3196

De Adame . primo homine .

[Lo Adam in þe felde of Damascene Wiþ goddes owne fyngere wrought was he
And nouht begeten of mannes sperme vncleue
And weldde al Paradise sauynge o tre 3200
Hadd neuer worldly man so hise degre
As Adam til he for his gouernaunce
Was drouen out of his hihne prosperite
To laboure & to heit & to muschaunce . 3204
LANSDOWNE (6-T. 256)

[Sampson.]
Loo Sampson / which that was Annunciat ¶ Sampson
 By Angel / longe or his Nativiteit
 And was / to god almyghty consecrat
 And stood in noblesse / whil he myghte see 3208
 Was newere swich another / as was he
 To speke of strengthe / and ther-with hardynesse
 But to his wyues / tolde he his secree 3211
 Thaurh which / he slow hym self / for wrecchodnesse

Sampson / this noble almyghty Champion [Def 178, back]
 With-uten wepene / saue his handes tweyne
 He slow / and al to-rente the leon
 Toward his weddyng / walkynge by the weye 3216
 His false wyf / koude hym so plesse and preye
 Til she his conseil knew / and she vntrewe
 Vn-to his foes / his conseil gan biwrewe
 And hym forsook / and took another newe 3220

Thre hundred foxes / took Sampson for Ire
 And alle hir tayles / he togydre bond
 And sette the foxes tayles / alle on fire 3224
 For he / on euery tayl / had knyft a brond
 And they brende / alle the cornes in that lond
 And alle hire Olyueris / and vynes oke
 A thousand men / he slow oek with his hond
 And hadde no wepene / but an Asses cheke 3228

When they were slayn / so thursted hym / that he Was wel ny lorn / for which he gan to preye
 That god wolde / on his peyne han som pitee
 And sende hym drynke / or ellis moste he deye 3232
 And of this Asses cheke / that was drewe
 Out of a wange tooth / sprang anon a wellle
 Of which he drank anon / shortly to seye
 Thus heelp he hym god / as Iudicam kan telle 3236
 ELLESMERE (6-T. 267)

[Sampson.]
Loo Sampson / which that was annuciat Sampson.
 By the Aungel / longe or his nativiteit
 And was / to god almyghty consecrat
 And stood in noblesse / whil that he myghte see 3208
 Was newere swich another / as was he
 To speke of strengthe / and ther-with hardynesse
 But to his wyues / tolde he his secree
 Thaurh which / he slow hym self for wrecchodnesse 3212

¶ Sampson / this noble almyghty champion
 With-uten wepne / saue hise bondes tweye
 He slow / and al to-rente the leon
 Toward his weddyng / walkynge by the weye 3216
 His false wyf / koude hym so plesse and preye
 Til she his conseil knew / and she vntrewe
 Vn-to his foes / his conseil gan biwrewe
 And hym forsook / and took another newe 3220

¶ Thre hundred foxes / took Sampson for Ire
 And alle hir tayles / he togydre bond
 And sette the foxes tayles / alle on fire 3224
 For he on euery tayl / hadde knyft a brond
 And they brende / alle the cornes in that Lond
 And alle hire Olyueris / and Vynes oke
 A thousand men / he slow with his hond
 And hadde no wepne / but an Asses cheke 3228

¶ When they were slayn / so thursted hym / but he
 Was wel ny lorn / for which he gan to preye
 That god / wolde on his peyne / hane som pitee
 And sende hym drynke / or ellis moste he deye 3232
 And of this Asses cheke / that was drewe
 Out of a wange tooth / sprang anon a wellle
 Of which he drank ynogh / shortly to seye
 Thus heelp hym god / as Iudicam kan telle 3236
 HENGWRT 201 (6-T. 257)

[Sampson.]
Loo Sampson that was annuciat [Def 182, back] Sampson
 By engel longe or his nativiteit
 And was to god almyghty consecrat
 And stood in noblesse whil he mygte see 3208
 Was newere swich a-nothir as was hee
 To speke of strenth & theryth hardynesse
 But to his wyuis tolde he his secree
 Thorw whiche he slow hym self for wrecchedonosse 3212

Sampson this noble almyghty champion
 With-utyn wepene saue hise handis tweye
 He slow & al to-rente the lyoun
 Toward his weddyng walkynge by the weye 3216
 His false wif coude hym so plesse & preye
 Til she his conseil knew & she vntrewe
 Vn-to hise fois his conseil gan be-wrewe
 And hym forsook & tok a-nothir newe 3220

Thre hundred foxis tok Sampson for yre
 And alle here taylys he to-gedere bond
 And sette the foxis taylys alle on feere 3224
 For he on euery tayl hadde knyft a brond
 And they brende alle the corn in that lond On alle hire Ollivis' & vynys ok [It is corrected]
 A thousand men ek slow he with his hond
 And hadde non-wrepene but an assis cheeke 3228

When they were slayn so trustede hym that he Was wol nygh lorn for which he gan to preye
 That god wolde on his peyne han sum pete
 And sende hym drynk / or ellis muste he deye 3232
 And of this Assis cheke that was drewe
 Out of a wange tooth / sprang a-moon a wellle
 Of whiche he drank I-nough schortly to seye
 Thus helpede hym god as Iudicam kan telle 3236
 CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 257)

[Sampson.]

¶ Le Sampson which was annunciate Dy þangel longi er his nativite /
 And was to god almyghty consecrate
 And stood in nobles whiles he myghte se
 Was neuer such anoþer as was he
 To speke of stronge and þerto hardynesse
 But to his wyves tolde he his secre
 Thurgh which he slough himself þurgh wrecchednesse 3212

¶ Sampson þis noble and mighty champion Wijouten wepen sauf his handes tweye
 He slough and al to-rente þe louun Toward his weddyng walking by þe weye his false wyf couþe him se plesse and preyre / Til sche his counseil knewe and scho vntrew Vnto his foos his counseil gan be-wreye
 And him forsoke and took anoþer newe 3220

¶ An hundred foxes tok Sampson for Ire
 And alle here tayles he togyder bond
 And sette þe foxes tayles alle on fyre for he in euery tail haþ putt a bronde
 And þei brent alle þe cornes in þat lond
 And eek here Olyues and here vynes eke
 A þousand men eek he slough wiþ his honde
 And hadde no wepen but an asse cheke 3228

¶ When þei were slayn so þurstid him þat he
 Was wel neith lorn for which he gan to preyre
 That god wolde of his peyne haue som pite
 And sende him drinke or elles most he deye /
 And of þis asse cheke þat was so dryue
 Out of a wange toþ sprang anon a welle
 Of which he drank ynowh shortly to seye
 Thus hilpe him god as Iudicum can telle 3236

CORPUS (6-T. 267)

¶ De Sampson

Lo sampson þat was annunciate
 Dy þe Angel longe or his nativite
 And was to god almyghty consecrate
 And stode in noblesse while þat he myht see
 Was neuer such a noþer as was he
 To speke of strength, and þerto hardynesse
 But to his wyves tolde he his secre
 Thourgh which he slouge hym self for wrecchednesse 3212

¶ Sampson þis noble and myghty champion
 Wij-oute wepen sauf his handes tweye
 He slough and also to-rent þe lyon
 Toward his weddyng walking by þe way
 His fals wif coude hym so wel plesse and pray
 Til she his counsaile knewe and she vntrew
 To his foos his counsaile gan to wrye
 And hym forsoke and toke anoþer newe 3220

Three hundred foxes toke Sampson for Ire
 And alle her tayles he to-gyder bonde .
 And Sette þe foxes tayles a fire for he in euery taile had knytte a bronde
 And þei brent al þe cornes of þat lond
 And al her oliuerus an vynes eke
 A thousand he slough eke wiþ his honde
 And had no wepen but an assos cheke 3228

¶ When þei were slayn so prestid hym þat he Was wel nyne lorn wherfor he gan to preyre þat god wolde of his peyne haue som pite
 And sende hym drynke or elles most he deye
 And out of his asses cheke þat was so dryue
 Out of a wonge toþ spronge anon a welle Of whiche he dronk ynowh shortly to [ . . .
 . . . . . no gap in the MS.] telle 3236

PETWORTH (6-T. 267)

De Sampson

Lo Sampson which was annunciate
 Le þe Angel longe or his nativite
 And was god almyghty consecrate
 And stode in noblesse whiles he myht see
 Was neuer such anoþer as was he
 To speake of strengh & þe-to hardinesse Bot to his wif told he his secre .
 þorue which he slouhe him self þorue wrecchednesse 3212
 De eodem .

¶ Sampson þis noble & myghty champion
 Wij-outen wepe saue his handes tweye
 He slowhe and al to-rent þe lyon
 To-ward his weddyng walking be þe waie
 He false wif couþe him plesse & preie
 Til sche his counsaile knewe & sche vntrew
 Vn-to his foos his counsel gan be-wreye
 And him for-soke & toke a noþer newe 3220

De Eodem .

¶ An .C. foxes to Sampson for ire
 And al her tayles he to-geder bonde
 And sette þe fox tayles al on fire
 For he in euery taile hadde putt a bronde
 And þei brente al þe cornes in þat lande
 And al here Olyues & here vynes eke
 A þousand men eke he slouhe wiþ his honde
 And hadde ne wepen bot an asse cheke 3228

De Eodem

¶ When þei were slayn so þurstid him þat he Was nyne lorne for whiche he gan to preyre þat god wolde of his peine sum pite
 And send him drinke or elles most he dye
 And of þis asse cheke þat was so drye oute of a wange toþe sprong anon a welle
 Of whiche he dranks . ynouthe shortly to seie
 Thus help him god as Iudicum can telle 3236

LAUNDOWNE (6-T. 267)

258 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

By verray force / at Gazan / on a nyght<sup>1</sup>
Maugree Philistiens of that Citee
The gates of the toum / he hath vp plyght<sup>2</sup>
And on his bak, yeared hem hath heo 3240 Hye on an hill / þat men myghte hem see
O noble almyghty Sampson / lief and deere
Had thou nat toold / to women thy secree
In all this world / ne hadde been thy peere 3244

This Sampson / neuere Ciser drank no wyn
Ne on his heed / cam rasour noon ne sheere
By precept of the Messager deiyn for alle hise strengthes / in hise heeres weore 3248
And fully twenty wynter yeer by yere
He / hadde of Israel the gouernance
But soone / shal he wepe many a teere for women / shal hym bryngen to meschance 3252

Vn-to his lemman Dalida he tolde
That in hise heeris / al his strengthe lay
And falsly to hise fomen / she hym solde
¶ And slepyng in his barn / vp-on a day 3256
She made to clippe / or shere / hise hees away
And made hise fomen / al this craft espyn
And when þat they / hym found in this array
They bounde hym faste / and putten out hise eyen 3260

But er his heer / were-clipped or yshauē
There was no bond / with which men myghte him bynde
But now is he / in prison in a Causē
Where as they made hym / at the Queerne grynde 3264
O noble Sampson / strengest of mankynde
O whilom / Iuge in glorie and in richesse
Now maystow wepen / with thynne eyen blynde
Sith thou fro welle / art falle in wretchednesse 3268
ELLESMERE (6-T. 258)

258 SIX-TEXT
202 GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

¶ By verray force / at Gazan / on a nyght<sup>1</sup>
Maugree Philistiens / of that Citee
The gates of this toum / he hath vp plight
And on his bak yeared hem hath he 3240
Hye on an hill / where as men myght hem se
O noble almyghty Sampson / leef and deere
Had thou nat toold / to women thy secree
In all this world / ne hadde been thy peere 3244

¶ This Sampson / neuere Ciser drank ne wyn Ne on his heed / cam Rasour noon ne shere
By precept of the Messager deiyn for alle his strengthes / in his herys weore 3248
And fully .xx. wynter / yeer by yere
He hadde of Israel / the gouernance
But soone / shal he wepe many a teere for women / shal hym bryngen to meschaunce 3252

¶ Vn-to his lemman Dalida / he tolde
That in his herys / al his strengthe lay
And falsly / to his fomen she hym solde
And slepyng in hir barn / vp on a day 3256
She made to clippe / or shere / hise heer away
And made his fomen / al this craft espien
And when þat they / hym found in this array
They bounde hym faste / and putten out his eyen 3260

¶ But / er his heer / was clipped or yshauē
There was no bond / with which / men myghte hym bynde
But now is he / in prisons in a Causē
Where as they made hym / at the querne grynde 3264
O noble Sampson / strengest of mankynde
O whilom / Iuge in glorie / and in richesse
Now / maystow wepen / with thynne eyen blynde
Sith thou fro welle / art falle in wretchednesse 3268
HENGWRT 202 (6-T. 258)

258 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

By verray force at a Gazan on a nyght
Maugree philistiens of that Citee
The gates of the toum he hath vp plygt 3240
And on his bak I-kyarde hem hath heo
Hye on an hill where as men myzte hym se
O noble almyghty Sampson leue & deere Haddist thou nat told to women thy secree
In all this world ne hadde be thyn peere 3244

This Sampson noythir Sythir drank ne wyn
Nor on his heed cam rasor non ne schere
By precept of the massangoer deiyn /
For alle hise strenthis in hise herys weore 3248
And fully twenty wyntyr yeer he seere
He hadde of Israel the gouernance
But soene schal he wepe ful manye a teere
For women schal hym brynge to myschaunce 3252

Vn-to this leman Dalida he tolde
That in hise heris al hise strengthe lay
And falsly to hise fomen sche hym solde
And slepyng vp in hire barn vp-on a day 3256
Scho maade to clippe or shere his heer a-way
And made his fomen his craft espyn
And when that they hym found in this array
They boundyn hym faste & putyn out hise eyen 3260

But er his heed / was clyppid or I-schauē
There was no bond / with which men<sup>2</sup> mygh hym bynde
But now is he / in prison in a Causē
Where as they made / hym at the querne to grynde 3264
O noble Sampson / strongeste of man kynde
O whilom Iuge / in glorie & in richesse
Now mayst thou wepen / with thynne eyen blynde Sythe thou from welle / art fallyn in wretchednesse 3268
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 258)

¶ By verray force att Gasan on a nyght Maugre philistiens of pat Cite
 The gates of þe toune he hap vp plight And on his bakke y-karyed hem hap he heighe on an hille where as men miht se
 O noble almyghty Sampson leef and deere
 That strong and noble hap be /
 In alle þis world ne hadde þer ben þe pere

3240

¶ This Sampson neuer cyder drank ne wyn
 Ne on his head came Rasour non ne scheere
 By precepte of þe messanger deuyn for alle his strengþe was in his here And fully twenty ȝeer by ȝere
 he hadde of Israel þe gouernaunce
 But after soone schal he wepe many a teere for women schul bringe him to meschaunce

3248

3252

¶ Vnto his lemman Dalida he tolde
 That in his heeres alle his strengþe lay
 And falsly to his fomen sche him solde
 And slepyng vpon hire barne vpon a day
 Sche made to clippe or schere his here away
 And made his foomen alle his craft aspyen
 And when þat þei þay him fond in such arvy
 They bonde him faste and putte out his eyen

3256

3260

¶ But er his heer was y-clipped or y-schaue
 Ther was no bond þat myht him bynde
 But now is he in prison putte in a Cane
 Where as þei made him at þe querne grynde
 O noble Sampson strengest of mankynde
 O whilom Iuge in glorie and in richesse
 Now maystow wepe with þin eyen blynde Seþenes þou art fro wele falle in to wrecchidnesse

[Def 208, line 3]

3268

By verray force att Algason vpon a nyght Maugre the philistiens of pat Cite þe gatys of þat toune he hap vp plight
 And on his bak caried hem hap he His vpon an hille þat mon myȝt see
 O noble almyty sampson leef and dere
 Maddest þou nat to wommen tuld þi seere
 In al þis world ne had ben þi pere 3340

3344

This Sampson neiþer Sithor dronk ne wyne
 Ne on his hede come neiþere rasour ne Shere
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
 for al þe strengþ in his heres were
 And fully xx<sup>n</sup> wynter ȝeer by ȝere
 He had of Israel þe gouernaunce.
 But he shal wepe many a teere for women men bryngen to meschaunce

3348

3352

To his lemman his Dalyaunce he tolt
 That in his heres al his strengþe lay
 And falsly to his foomen she hym solt
 And slepyng in her barne vpon a day
 She made to clippe or schere his heer away
 And made his foomen aft his craft to aspyen
 And when þat þei foonde hym in þis arvy þei bonde hym fast and put out his yen

3356

3360

But er his heer was yclipped or shaue
 Ther was no boonde wyȝ which znen myȝt hym bynde
 But now he is in prison put in a cane
 Where as þei made hym at þe querne grynde
 O noble Sampson strengest of mankynde
 O whilom Iuge in glorie & richesse
 Now maist þow wepe wiȝ þine eyen blynde
 Siþens þow art fro wele falle into wrecchidnesse

3368

De Eodem .

¶ Be verrai force att Gasan in a nybte Maugre þe felistions of þat Cite
 The gates of þe toune he hape vp plit
 And on this bakke : y-karid hem hap he Hiþe on hulle wher as men miht se O noble almyhty sampson leue & dere þat stronge & noble hap fue
 In al þis werlde ne was þere nouer þi pere
 De Eodem

3240

3244

¶ This Samsoun neuer aȝer dranke ne wyne
 Ne on hi[er] hede cam rasure none ne schere
 Be precepte of þe Messagier diuine
 For al his strenkeþ was in his here
 And fully twenty ȝere be ȝere
 He hadde of Israel þe gouernaunce
 But after soone schal he wepe mony a teere
 For woman schal bringe him to meschaunce

3248

3252

¶ Vnto his lemman Dalida he tolde þat in his heres al his strenkeþ laye
 And falsly to his fomen sche him solde
 And slepeinge vpon hir berme vpon a daie Sche maade to clippe or schere his here a-wraie
 And maade his fomen al his craft to spyen
 And when þei him fonde in stuche arrie þei bonde him fast & put oute his eyen
 De eodem .

3256

3260

Bot er his here was clepped or y-schaue þere was no bonde þat myht him bynde Bot now is he in prison put in a cane
 Where as þei maaden him att þe queren grinde
 O noble Sampson stronkest of mankynde
 O whilom Iuge in glorie & richesse
 Now maist þou wepe wiȝ þine yne blinde
 Seþen þou ert fro welþe fal in to wrecchidnesse

3268

The ende of this caytyf was as I shal seye
Hise foomen / made a feste vp-on a day
And made hym as a fool / bifore hem pleye
And this was / in a temple of greet array
But atte laste / he made a foul affray for he / the pilers shook / and made hem fall
And down fil temple and al / and ther it lay
And slow hym self / and eek his foomen alle

3272

3276

This is to seyn the Prynces euerichoon
And eek / thre thousand bodyes were ther slayn
With fallynge / of the grette Temple of stoon .
Of Sampson / now wol I na moore sayn
Beth war / by this ensample cold and playn
That no men / telle hir conseil til hir wyues
Of swich thyng as they wolde han secree fayn
If pat it touche / hir lymes or hir lyues [Hercules.]

3280

3284

Of Hercules / the souereyn Conquerour
Synge hie werkes / laude and heigh renoun
for in his tyme / of strengthe he was the flour
He slow / and rafte the skyn of the leoun
He of Centauros / leyde the boost adoun
He Arpis slow / the cruel bryddes felle
He golden Apples / rafte of the dragoun
He drew out Cerberus / the hound of helle

¶ Hercules

3288

3292

He slow the cruel tyrant Busirus
And made his hors / to fete hym flesh and boon
He slow / the firy serpent venymus
Of Achelois hornes two / he brak' oon
And he slow Cacus / in a Cane of stoon
He slow the geant Antheus the stronge
He slow the grisly boor / and that anon
And bar the heuene / on his nekke longe

[leaf 116, back]

3300

ELLESMEERE (e-r. 269)

¶ The ende of this caytyf was as I shal seye
His fomen / made a feste vp-on a day
And made hym as hire fool / bifore hem pleye
And this was / in a temple of greet array
But atte laste / he made a foul affray for he two pilers shook / and made hem falle
And down fil temple and al / and there it lay
And slow hym self / and eek his fomen alle

3272

3276

¶ This is to seyn / the Prynces euerichon
And eek thre thousand bodies / were ther slayn
With fallynge / of the grette temple of stoon
Of Sampson / now wol I namoore sayn
Beth war by this ensample / old and playn
That no men / telle hir conseil / til hir wyues
Of swich thyng as they wolde han secree fayn
If pat it touche / hir lymes / or hir lyues
[Hercules.]

[leaf 60, back]

3280

3284

Of hercules / the souereyn conquerour
Synge hie werkes / laude and heigh renoun
for in his tyme / of strengthe he was the flour
He slow / and rafte the skyn fro the leoun
He of Centauros / leyde the boost adoun
He Arpis slow / the cruel briddes felle
The golden Apples / rafte of the dragoun
He drew out Cerberus / the hound of helle

¶ Hercules .

3288

3292

¶ He slow the cruel tyrant Busirus
And made his hors / to fete hym flesh and bon
He slow the firy serpent venymus
Of Achilois two hornes / he brak' oon
And he slow Cacus / in a Cane of stoon
He slow the geant Antheus the stronge
He slow the grisly boor / and that anon
And bar the heuene / on his nekke longe

3296

3300

HENGWRT 203 (e-r. 259)

The ende of this caytyf was as I shal seye
Hise fomen made / a feste vp-on a day
And made hym as a fool / by-fore hem pleye
And this was in a temple / of greet array
But at the laste he made a foul affray
For he two pillers shok / & made hem falle
And doun fil temple & al there it lay
And slow hym self & ek hise fo-men alle

3272

[leaf 102, back]

3276

This is to seyne the pryncis euerichon
And ek thre hunderede bodyes were there slayn
With fallynge of the grette temple of stoon
Of Sampsons wale I na moore seyn
Beth war bi this <sup>1</sup>exaunple olde & pleyn<sup>1</sup>
That no man telle here conseil to here wyues
Of swich thyng as they wale haue secree fayn
If that it touche / hire / lymys or hire lyues [Hercules.]

3280

[← 1 later]

3284

Of Hercules the souereyn conquerour
Synge hie laude his werkis & his renouus
For in his tyme of <sup>2</sup>strenthe he was the flour
He slow & rafte the skyn from the lyoun
He of Centauros leyde the beste a-doun
He arpis slow the crewel briddys felle
He goldene apyllis / rafte of the dragoun
He drew out Cerberus out of helle

¶ Hercules

3288

[of corrected]

3292

He slow the crewel tyrant Busirus
And made his hors to fete hym flesh & boon
He slow the fery serpent venymous
Of Achilois hornys <sup>3</sup>too / he brak on <sup>4</sup>
And he slow Cacus in a Cane of stoon.
He slow the geant Antheus the stronge
He slow the grisly boor & that a-noon
And bar the heed vp-on his spero longe

[← 3 corrected] 3296

3300

CAMBRIDGE (e-r. 259)

¶ The ende of þis Caytiffs was as I schal seye
His foomen made a feste vp-on a day
And made him as here fool biforn hem pleye
And þis was [in] a temple of gret aray
But at þe laste he made a foul affray for he tuo postes schook<sup>t</sup> and made hem falle /
And doune fall temple and al þer it lay
And slough himself and eek<sup>t</sup> his foomen alle

3272

3276

¶ This is to say þe princes euerichon
And eek a þousand bodyes ware þey slayn
Wif falling<sup>t</sup> of þe grete temple of ston
Of Sampson ne wil I no more sayn
Beþ war of þis ensample olde and playn
That notan telle here counsell to here wyues
Of such þing<sup>t</sup> as þey wolde haue secre fayn
If þat it touche here lymes or here lyues

3280

3284

[Hercules.]

¶ Of Ercole þe souerain conquerour Syngen his werkes lowde and heih renom for in his tyme of strengþe he bar þe flour he slough and rafte þe skyn fro þe leoun he of sent arwes leyde þe boost a doun he arpyes slough þe cruel briddes felle he golden apples rafte þe dragoun he drough out Serberois þe hound of helle

3288

3292

¶ He slough þe cruel tyrant Buserus
And made his hors to fete him fleisli and boon
He slough þe verray serpent venymous
Of Achilles tuo hornes brark he oon
And he slough Cacus in a Cave of ston
He slough þe geaunte Anteus þe stronge /
He slough þe grisly boor and þat anon
And bar þe heed vpon his nekke longe

3296

3300

CORPUS (8-T. 259)

The ende of þise catyfs was as I schal say
His foomen made a feest<sup>t</sup> vpon a day
And made hym as her fool to-fora hom play
And þis was [in] a temple of a grete aray
But at þe last<sup>t</sup> he made a foule affray for he tuo postes shok and made hom falle
And doune sitt temple and al þer it laio
And sclough hym self and eke his foomen alle

3272

3276

This is to say þe princes euerichon
And eke a thousand bodyes ware þere sclayn
Wif falling<sup>t</sup> of þe grete temple of ston
Of Sampson ne wil I no more sayn
Be ware of þise ensamples olde and playn þat no man telle her counselle to her wyues Of suche þings as þei wolde haue secre fayn þit þat it touche her lymmes or hir lyues.

3280

3284

¶ De Ercole ./

¶ Of Ercole this souereyn conquerour
Syngen his werkes lowde and heih renom for in his tyme of strength he bare þe flour
He slowe and rafte þe skyn fro þe lyoun
He of Centaurus laide þe boost a doun
He Arpies slowe þe cruel briddes felle
He golden apples byrafte þe dragoun
He droue out Serbyrois þe hound of helle

3288

3292

He slowe þe cruel tymunt Buserus
And made his hors to fete hym flesch and boi
He slough þe verrey serpent venymous
Of Achilles tuo hornes breke he oon
An he slowe Cacus in a kave of ston
He slowe þe geaunte Anteus þe stronge
He slowe þe grisly boore and þat anon
And bare þe heed vpon his neke longe

3296

3300

PETWORTH (8-T. 259)

De eodem .

¶ The ende of þis catiffs was as .I. schal seie
His fomen made a feste vpon a daie
And made him as her fole to-forþo him pleie
And þis was [in] a temple of a grete arate
Bot at þe last he made a foul affraie
For he tuo-postes schoke & made hem fall
And doune fell þe temple & al þer it laio
And slowe him selfe & ek<sup>t</sup> his fomen all
De Eodem .

3272

3276

¶ This is to seie þe princes enerychon
And eke a þousand bodis was þere alyne
Wif falling<sup>t</sup> of þe grete temple of ston
Of Sampson ne wil .I. no more seyne Be ware of þis ensample olde & pleyne þat no man tel her counsell til he[r] wyues
Of suche þings as þe wolde haue secre feyne
If þat it touche her lymmes or her lyues
De Ercole .

3280

3284

¶ Of Ercole þe souereine conquerour
Syngen his werkes lowde & heih remonon
For in his time of strengþe he bare þe flour
He slowe & rafte þe scyne fro þe lyone .
He of Centaurus laide þe boost a dounne
He arpies slowe þe cruel brirdes fait
He golden apelles rafte þe dragounne
He droue out Serberous þe hounde of heit
De eodem .

3288

3292

¶ He slowe þe cruel tyrant Buserus
And made his hors to fete him flesche & bone
He slough þe verrey serpent venymous
Of Achilles tuo hornes brak he one
And he slowe Cacus in a kave of stone
He slowe þe Gyant Anteus þe stronge
He slowe þe Grisly bore & þat anon
And bare þe heed vpon his neke longe

3296

3300

LANSDOWNE (8-T. 259)

[329/300. If respect ¶ his slowe & rafte þe scyne fro þe lyone.]

260 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

Was neuere wight<sup>h</sup> sith that this world bigan
That slow so manye Monastres / as dide he Thurgh-out this wyde world / his name ran
What for his strengthe / and for his heigh boundes 3304
And enery Rewarme / wente he for to see
He was so strong<sup>r</sup> pat no man myghte hym lette
At bothe the worldes endes / seith Trophoe / <sup>Ulla vates Caledo-</sup>
In stede of boundes / he a pilor sette <sup>urns Trophoes.</sup> 3308

A lemman hadde / this noble Champioun
That highte Dianim / fresch as May
And as thise clerkes / maken mention
She hath hym sent. a sherte fresli and gay 3312
Allas this sherte / allas and weylaway
Enenyemyd was / so subtilly with alle
That er pat he / had wered it half a day
It made his flesh / al from hise bones falle 3316

But natheles / somme clerkes hire excusen
By oon pat highte Nessus that it makid
Be as be may / I wol hire night accusen
But on his bak this sherte he wered al naked 3320
Til pat his flesh / was for the venym blakid
And whan he saugh / noon oother remedye
In hooce coles / he hath hym seluen raked for with no venym deigned hym to dye 3324

Thus starf / this worthy / myghty Hercules
Lo / who may truste / on fortune any throwe
for hym pat folweth / al this world of prees
Er he be war / is ofte yloyd ful lowe 3328 ful wys is he / that kan hym seluen knowe Beth war / for whan that fortune list to glose Thanne wayteth she / her man to ouerthrowe
By swich a wey / as he wolde leest suppose 3332
ELLESMERE (6-r. 280)

260 SIX-TEXT
204 GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

¶ Was neuere wight<sup>h</sup> sith pat this world bigan
That slow so manye monastres / as dide he Thurgh-out this wide world / his name ran
What for his strengthe / and for his heigh boundes 3304
And enery Rewarme / wente he for to se
He was so strong<sup>r</sup> pat no man myghte hym lette
At bothe the worldes endes / seith Trophoe / <sup>Ulla vates Caledo-</sup>
In stede of boundes / he a pilor sette <sup>urns Trophoes.</sup> 3308

¶ A lemman hadde this noble champioun
That highte Dian[i]ra / fresch as May
And as thise clerkes / maken mencon
She hath hym sent a sherte / fresch and gay 3312
Allas this sherte / allas and weylaway
Enenyemyd was / so subtilly with alle
That er pat he / hadde wered it half a day
It made his flesh / al from hise bones falle 3316

¶ But natheles / somme clerkes hire excusen <sup>Def 11</sup>
By oon pat highte Nessus / pat it makid
Be as be may / I wol hire night accusen
But on his bak<sup>t</sup> the sherte he wered al naked 3320
Til pat his flesh / was for the venym blakid
And whan he say / noon oother remedie
In hooce coles / he hath hym seluen raked
for with no venym / deigned hym to dye 3324

¶ Thus starf / this worthy myghty Hercules
Lo who may truste on fortune / any throwe
for hym pat folweth / al this world of prees
Er he be war / is ofte yloyd ful lowe 3328
ful wys is he / pat kan hym seluen knowe
Beth war / for whan pat fortune list to glose Thanne waiteth she / hir man to ouerthrowe
By swich a wey / as he wolde leest suppose 3332
HENGWRT 204 (6-r. 280)

260 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Was neuere wight swich sith that this world be gan That slow so manye monstres as dede he Thourw-out this wide world his name ran
What for his strenthe & for his hie bounde 3304
And enery reume wente he for to se
He was so strong that no man myghte hym lette
At boothe the wordys endis seyth trophoe <sup>Def 114</sup>
In-stede of boundis / he a piller sette 3308

A lemman hadde this noble Champioun
That highte dianira / froesch as may
And as these clerkis makyn meneyoun Sche hath hym sent a scherte froesch & gay 3312
Allas this scherte allas & weylaway Enenyemyd was so subtyly with alle
That er that he hadde wered it half a day
It made his flesh al from hise bonys falle 3316

But natheles somme clerkis hire excusyn <sup>Def 11</sup>
By-on that-hyghte Nessus that it unakid
Be as be may I wele hire not excusyn
But on his bak this scherte he werode al nakid 3320
Til that the scherte was for the venym blakid
And whan he saw noon other remedye
In hooce colys he hath hym self I-rakyd
For with no venym deynde hym to deyo 3324

Thus starf this myghti Hercules Lo ho may truste on fortune ony throwe for hym that folwith al this world of prees Er he be war is ofte I-loyd ful lowe 3328 ful wis is he that can hym seluyn knowe
Beth war for whanne that fortune leste to glose Thanne waythith sche hire man to ouerthrowe <sup>r 114 corrected</sup>
By swich a weye as he wolde leest suppose 3332
CAMBRIDGE (6-r. 280)

¶ Was neuer wright' sijen þe world bygan þat' slough so many monstres as dede he Thurgh out þis wilde world his name ran
 What' for his strengþe and for his bounte
 And every Roome went he for to see
 He was so strong' þat' no man might' him lette
 And boþ þe worldes ende seith trophe /
 In stede of boundes he a piler sette

[Def 256]

3304

3308

¶ A lemman hadde þis noble Champiön That' highte Dianyre freisch as may
 And as þe clerkes maden mencioñ
 Sche haþ hym sent a scherte freisch and gay Alias þis scherte and weylaway
 Envenymed was subtilly wijþ alle
 That' or þat' he had wered it half a day
 It' made his boones fro his fleisch to falle /

3312

3316

¶ But' najeles some clerkes hire excusen
 By on þat' highte Nessus þat' it' maked
 Be as þe may I wol hire nougtht' accusen
 But' on his bakke þe scherte he weres al naked
 Tille þat' his fleisch was for þe venym blaked
 And whan he saugh non oþer remedye In hote coles he haþ himself' y-raked ffor wijþ no venym dayned ho to dye

3320

3324

¶ Thus starf þis worþy mighty hercules
 Lo who may truste on fortune any þrowe
 For him þat' folowep' alle þis world' of þres Er he be war is ofte y-leyd ful lowe ful wys is he þat' himself' can knowe Beþ was for whan þat' fortune lest' to glose /
 Than wayteþ sche hire man down to þrowe
 By such a way as he wolde lest' suppose //

CORPUS (6-T. 200)

Was neuer wright' sijen þe world' bygan þat' selowe so many monstres as did he Þorgh-out þis wide world' his name ran
 What' for his strength and for his bounte
 And every Roome went' he for to see
 He was so stronge no man mygt' hym lette
 And boþ þe worldes ende seiþ trophe
 In stede of boundes he a piler sette

3304

3308

A lemman had þis noble Champiön
 That' hight' Dianyre fresch as may
 And as þe clerkes maken mencioñ
 Sche haþ hym sent a shert' fresch and gay Alias þis shert' and welayway
 Envenymed was subtilly wijþ all
 That' ere þat' he had wered it' half a day
 It' made his bones from his fleische falle

3312

3316

But' najeles some clerkes her excusen
 By on þat' hight' Nessus þat' it' maked.
 Be as be may I wil her not accusen
 But' on his bakke þe shert' he weres al naked .
 Tille þat' his fleisch was for þe venym blaked
 And whan he segh noon oþer remedye In hote coles he haþ hym-self raked ffor wijþ no venym dayned he to dye

3320

3324

Thus starf þis worþi myghty hercules Lo who may trust' on fortune any þrowe ffor hym þat' folowep' al þis world' of þres Er he be war is oft' yleide ful lowe ful wise is he þat' hym self can knowe Beþ wars for whan þat' fortune lest' to glose þan wayteþ she her man down to throwe
 By suche a way as he wolde leas' suppose

3332

PETWORTH (6-T. 200)

De Eodem
 Was neuer whitte sen þe werlde bogan That' slouhe so many monstres as did he þorho-oute þis wide worldis his name ranne
 What' for his streynkeþ & his bounte
 And enerye . Realme went he for to see
 He was so stronge þat' noman miht' him lette
 A-boue þerwerldes ende seiþ trophe
 In stede of boundes he a piler sette .

3304

3308

De Eodem
 ¶ A lemman hadd þis noble champiön þat' hiht' Dianier frische as maie
 And as þe clerkes maade mencione
 Sche haþ him sent a schert' frische & gaie Alias þis scherte & walawaie
 envenymed was subtilly wijþ all
 Or þat' he had werde it' hafe a daie
 It' maad his fleische fro þe bone fatt

3312

3316

De Eodem
 ¶ Bo najelesome some clerkes hir excusen
 Be one þat' hiht' nescius þat' it' Maked
 Be as be maye .i. wil hir' mouht' accusen
 Bon on his bakke þis schert' he weres al naked Tille þat' his fleische was for þe venym blakede
 And whan he saube none oþer' remedye
 In hote coles he haþ him self' rakede
 For wijþ no venym dayned he to deye

3320

3324

¶ Thus starf þis worþe myhte hercules
 Lo who maie trust' on fortune any þrowe
 For him þat' folowep' al þis werlde of þres
 Er he bewarre is oft' y-laide ful lowe
 Ful wys es he þat' him self' knowe
 Be war for whan þat' fortune lest' to glose
 Than weyteþ sche hir man downe to þrowe Bu suche a weie as he wolde lest' suppose

3332

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 260)

The myghty trone / the precious tresor ¶ Nabu-
The glorious ceptre / and Roial magesteo donosor
That hadde the kyng Nabugodonosor
With tonge / vnanthe may discryuede bee 3336
He twyses / wan Ierusalem the Citee
The vessel of the temple / he with hym ladde
At Babiloigne / was his souereyn see
In which his glorie / and his delit he hadde 3340

The faireste children / of the blood Roial (Def 173)
Of Israel / he leet do gelde anon
And maket ech of hem / to been his thral
Amonges othere / Daniel was con 3344
That was the wiseste child of euerichon
for he / the dremes / of the kyng expowned
Where as in Chaldeye / clerk ne was ther noon
That wiste / to what fyn / hise dremes sowned 3348

This proude kyng leet maken a statue of gold Sixty cubites long and sesene in brede
The which ymage / he bothe yonge and old
Comanded to loue / and haue in drede 3352
Or in a flourneys / ful of flambes rede
He shal be brent that wolde night obeys
But neuere wolde assente / to that dede
Daniel / no hise yonge felawes tweye 3356

This kyng of kynges / proud was and elat
He wende / þat god that sit in magesteo
No myghte hym nat biureu of his estat
But sodeynly / he loste his dignytee 3360
And lyk a beest / hym semed for to bee
And eet hey as an Ox / and lay ther oute
In reyn / with wilde beestes walked hee
Til certein tyme / was yooma aboute 3364
ELLESMERE (6-T. 261)

The myghty trone / the precious tresor / Nabugodonosor
The glorious ceptre / and roial maiesteo
That hadde / the kyng Nabugodonosor
With tonge / vnanthe / may discryuede be 3336
He twises / wan Ierusalem the Citee
The vessel of the temple / he with hym ladde
At Babiloigne / was his souereyn see
In which / his glorie / and his delit he hadde 3340

¶ The faireste children / of the blood roial
Of Israel / he leet do gelde anon
And maket ech of hem / to been his thral
Amonges othere / Danyel was con 3344
That was / the wiseste child of euerichon
for he the dremes / of the kyng expowned
Ther as in Chaldeye / clerk / ne was ther noon
That wiste / to what fyn his dremes sowned 3348

¶ This proude kyng leet make a Statue of gold Sixty cubites long and Seuene in brede
To which ymage / the bothe yong and old
Comanded to loue / and haue in drede 3352
Or in a fourneys / ful of flambes rede
He shal be brent / that wolde night obeys
But neuere / wolde assente to that dede
Danyel / ne hise yonge felawes tweye 3356

¶ This kyng of kynges / proud was and elat (Def 174, back)
He wende / that god / þat sit in magesteo
No myghte hym nat biureu / of his estat
But sodeynly / he loste his dignytee 3360
And lyk a beest / hym semed for to be
And eet hey as an Ox / and lay ther oute
In reyn / with wilde beestes walked he Til certeyn tyme / was yooma aboute 3364
HENGWRT 205 (6-T. 261)

The myzty trone the precious tresor ¶ Nabugodonosor
The glorious Ceptre & royal mageste
That hadde the kyng Nabugodonosor
With tynge onthe may discryuede be 3336
He twyses wan Ierusalem Ceto
The vessel of the temple he with hym ladde
At babiloins was his souereyn see
In whiche his glorye & his delyt he ladde 3340

The fayreste childeryn of the blod royal (Def 174, back)
Of Israel he leet do gilde a-noon
And makede echs of hem to been his thral
A-mongis othere Danyel was con 3344
That was the wiseste child of euerichon
For he the dromys of the child expownede
Where-as in chaldeye clerk was there noon
That wiste to what fyn hise dremys sounede 3348

The proude kyng leet make a statute of gold
Syxti Cubitis longe & seuene in brede
To whiche ymage he bothe yonge & olde Comauended to loue & haue in drede 3352
Or in a furneyis ful of flambis reede
He schal been brent that wolde not obeye
But neuere wolde assente to that dede
Danyel no hise yonge felawis tweye 3356

This kyng of kyngis proud was & elayt
He wende that god that sit in Mageste
Ne myghte hym not byureu of his estat
And sodeynly he-loste his-dygneteo 3360
And lik a beste hym semede for to bee
And eet hey as an oxe & lay there oute In reyn with wilde bestis walkede he Tyl carteyn tyme was I-comyn a-boute 3364
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 261)

[Nebuchadnezar.]

¶ The mighty tronþ þe precious tresor
The glorious septir and realle mageste
That hadde þe king Nabugodonosor Wip tunge vnnopþ may descrybed be he twyes nam Iherusalem þe cite /
The vessel of þe temple he wip him ladde
¶ At Babiloyne was his souerain see / In which his glorie and his deliþ he hadde /

¶ De Rege Nabu-godonosore

3336

[Def 228, back]

3340

The fayrest children of þe blood royalle
Of Ierusalem he dede do gyldre anon
And maket eche of hem to ben his pralle
Among alle oþer Daniel was oon
That was þe wisest child of euerychon for he þe dremes of þe king expownd Wher as in Caldey clerk was þer non That wiste to what fyn his dremes sownd

3344

3348

¶ This proude king leet make a statuo of golde
Sixty cubites longe and seuen in brede
To whiche ymage boþ yonge and olde
Comaunded he to loute and haue in drede
Or in a forneys ful of flawmes rede
He schal be brent þat wolde nouȝt obeye
But neuere wolde assente to þat dede Danyel ne his yonge felawes tweye

3352

3356

¶ This king of kynges proude and elat he wende god þat sitte in mageste
Ne myȝt him nouȝt byrene of his estate
But sodenly he lost his diguite
And like a beste him seemed for to be
And ete hay as an oxe and lay þer oute In reyn wip wilde bestes walked he Til a certein tyme was come aboute

3360

3364

CORPUS (6-T. 261)

¶ De rege Nabugodonosor. /

The myȝt tronþ þe precious tresour
The glorious sceptre and real magesto þat had þe kyng Nabugodonosor Wip tunge vnnop may / desciribed be he twyes nam Ierusalem þe Cite
The Vessel of þe temple he wip hym lad
At Babiloyne was his souerayn See
In which his gloris and his deliþ he had.

3336

[Def 228]

3340

The fairest children of þe blood Royal
Of Ierusalem he dede do gilde monon
And maket eche of hem to bene his cherle Amon[ge] all oþer Danyel was oon þat was þe wysest child of euerychon for he þe dremes of þe kyng expownd Wher as in Caldey clerk was þer noon þat wist to what fyn his dremes sownd

3344

3348

This proude kyng lete make a staturo of gold
Sixty cubites longe and seuen in brede
To whiche ymage boþ yonge and olde
Comaunded he to loute and haue in drede
Or in a forneys ful of flawmes rede.
He schal be brent þat wolde nat obeye
But neuere wolde assent vnto þat dede
Danyel ne his yonge felawes tweye

3352

3356

This kyng of kynges proude was and elate
He wende god þat sitte in maicste
Ne myȝt hym nat byrene of his estate
But sodenly he lost his dignyte
And like a best hym seemed for to be
And ete hay as an oxe and lay þer out
In reyne wip wilde bestes walked he
Til a certein tyme was come aboute

3360

3364

PETWORTH (6-T. 261)

De Rege Nabugodonosor

¶ The myȝt tronþ þe precious tresoure þe glorious septre & Roial Maicste þat hadde þe kyng Nabugodonosore Wip tunge vnnop maie desciribed be he twyes name Iherusalem þe Cite
The vessel of þe temple he wip him ladde
Att Babiloyne was his souerayn see
In which his glorie & his delyte he had 3336

[Def 228]

3340

De Eodem

¶ þe fairest childern of þe blod Roial
Of Iherusalem he dide do gelde anone
And maude eche of hem to be his clerke Amonge al oþere Danyel was one þat was þe wisest child of euerychone
For he þe dremes of þe keunge expownd Where as in Caldeie clerk was þere none
þat wist to what fyn his dremes sownd

3344

3348

De Eodem

¶ This proude kyng lete make a staturo of golde Sixty Cubetes longe & .vij. in brede
To whiche ymage boþ yonge & olde Commanded he to loute & haue in drede
Or in a forneys ful of flawmes rede
He schoide be brent þat wold not obeie
Bot neuere wolde assent to þat dede
Danyel ne his yonge felawes tweye

3352

3356

De eodem

¶ This kyng of kynges proude & elate
He wende god þat sitteþ in Mageste
Ne myȝt him nouȝt be-rene of þat estate
Bot sodanly he lost his diguite
And like a beste him seemed for to be
And ete haye as an oxe & leye þere oute.
In reyne wip wilde bestes walked he Til certein tyme was come aboute

3360

[Def 228]

3364

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 261)

And lik / an Egles fetheres / wax his heres Hise nayles / lyk a bridde claws were
 Til god releesed hym / a certeyn yeris
 And yaf hym wit / and thanne with many a teere 3368
 He thanked god / and euer his lyf in feere
 Was he / to doon amys / or moore trespace
 And til that tyme / he leyd was on his beere
 He knew / that god was / ful of myght and grace 3372

[Belshazzar.]

His sone / which that highte Balthasar ¶ Balthasar
 That heeld the regne / after his fader day
 He by his fader / koude nocht be war
 for proud he was / of herte and of array 3376
 And eek / an ydolastro / he was ay
 Hise hys estat assured hym in pryde
 But fortune caste hym down / and ther he lay
 And sodehynly / his regne gan diuide 3380

A feste he made / vn-to hise lordes alle
 Vp-on a tyme / and bad hem bliþe be
 And thanne / hise Officers gan he calle
 Gooth bryngeth forth / the vessels quod he [not 175, 180-83] 3385
 Whiche that my fader / in his prosperite
 Out of the temple / of Ierusalem binafte
 And to oure hys goddes / thanke we
 Of honour / that cure eldres with us lafte 3388

Hys wyf hise lordes / and hise concubynes
 Ay dronken / whil hise Appetites laste
 Out of this noble vessels / sondry wyres
 And on a wal / this kyng hise eyen caste 3392
 And saugh an hand Armless / þat wroot ful fast for feere of which / he nook and siked soore
 This hand / þat Balthasar so soore agaste
 Wroot Mane tochel phares / and na moore 3396

ELLESMEERE (E-T. 202)

¶ And lyk an Egles fetheres / wax hise heris Hise nayles / lyk a bridde claws were
 Til god releesed hym / a certeyn yeris
 And yaf hym wit and thanne with many a teere 3368
 He thanked god / and euer his lyf in feere
 Was he to doon amys / or moore trespace
 And til that tyme / he leyd was on his beere
 He knew / that god / was ful of myght & grace 3372

[Belshazzar.]

¶ His sone / which that highte Balthasar / Balthasar
 That heeld the regne / after his fader day
 He by his fader / koude nocht be war
 for proud he was / of herte and of array 3376
 And eek an ydolastro / was he ay
 Hise hys estat / assured hym in pryde
 But fortune caste hym down / and ther he lay
 And sodehynly / his regne gan dyuide 3380

¶ A feste he made / vn-to hise lordes alle
 Vp-on a tyme / and made hem bliþe be
 And thanne hise Officers / gan he calle
 Gooth bryngeth forth / the vessels quod he 3384
 Whiche that my fader / in his prosperite
 Out of the temple of Ierusalem / binafte
 And to oure hys goddes / thanke we
 Of honour / that cure eldres / with vs lafte 3388

¶ His wyf / hise lordes / and hise concubynes
 Ay dronken / whil hise appetites laste
 Out of this noble vessels / sondry wyres
 And on a wal / this kyng hise eyen caste 3392
 And saw an hand armless / that wroot ful fast
 for feere of which / he nook / and siked soore
 This hand / þat Balthasar so soore agaste
 Wroot Mane tochel phares / and namoore 3396

HENGWRT 206 (E-T. 202)

And lyk an egellis federis weyras his crys Hise nayles lyk a briddis clawis were Til god releesed hym a certeyn ȝeris
 And yaf hym wit & thanne with manye a teere 3368
 He thanked god & euer his lyf in feere
 Was he to doon a-mys or moore trespace
 And tyl that tyme / he leyd was on his beere
 He knew that god was ful of myst & grance 3372

[Belshazzar.]

His sone which that hyste Balthasar Balthasar
 That held the regne after hire fadyris day
 He by his fader coude not be war for proud he was of herte & of aray [not 205] 3376
 And ek an ydolastro was he ay
 Hise hys estat assured hym in pryde
 But fortune caste hym down & there he lay
 And sodehynly his regne he gan deuyde 3380

A feste he made vnto hise lordis alle Vp-on a day & bad hem blythe be
 And thanne hise offeris gan he calle Goth bryngith forth the vessel quod he 3384
 Which that myn fadyr in his prosperite
 Out of the temple of Ierusalem<sup>1</sup> binafte [→ corrected] 3388
 And to oure hys goddis thanke we
 Of honour that cure eldres with vs lafte

His wif hise lordis & hise concubyns
 Ay dronkyn whil here appetis laste
 Out of these noble vessellis sundry wyres
 And on a wal this Kyng his eyen caste 3392
 And saw an hand armles that wrot ful faste for feere<sup>1</sup> of whiche he quok & sykede soore
 This hand that balthasar so soore agaste
 Wroot Mane tochel<sup>1</sup> phares & na moore 3396

CAMBRIDGE (E-T. 202)

¶ And ylike an Egles fetheres were his heres And nayles like briddes clawes were / God releued him at certeyn yerres
 And þat him writte and þanne wij many a tere 3365
 He þanked god and euer his lyf in fere
 Was he to don amys or more trespas
 And or þat y-loyd was on his beere he knew wel þat god was ful of myght and grace 3372 [Balthazar.]

¶ His sone which þat highte Baltyzar ¶ De Baltazar dieti þat heold þe regne after his fader day Regis Nabugodohe by his fader couþe nouþt be war nosor filio sfor proud he was of herte and of aray (part 250)
 And eek an ydolatre was he ay 3376 his heilhe astate assured him in pryde
 But fortune caste him down and þer he lay
 And sodainly his regne gan deuyde / 3380

¶ A feste he made vnto his lordes all vpon a tyme he made hem bliþe be /
 And þan his officers gan he calle
 Goode bringeth forth þe vesselles quod he 3384
 Which þat my fader in his prosperite
 Out of þe temple of Ierusalem byraft
 And to oure heilhe goddes þanke we
 Of honour þat oure eldres wij vs lafte 3388

¶ His wyf his lordes and his concubynes Ay drunken whiles here appetye laste /
 Out of þis noble vesselles sondry wyne /
 And on a wal þis king's his eyen caste 3392
 And saugh an hande armes þat wrot ful fast sfor fer of which he quoket and sikked sore
 This hande þat Baltazar made so soor agast
 Wrot mane techel phares and no more 3396

And like an Egles fetheres was his heeres His nailles like briddes clawes were [Til] God releued hym a certeyn yerres
 And þat hym writte and þan wij mony a tere 3368
 He þonked god and ouero his lyf in fere was he to doon amys in more trespas
 And or þat tyme ylaide was on his beere
 He knewe wel þat god was ful of mygt and grace 3372
 De Baltazar dieti Regis Nabugodonosor filio.

His sone which þat hight Baltazar
 That heolde þe regne after his faders day (part 250, back)
 He by his faders couþe not be war sfor proude he was of hert and of aray 3376
 And eke an ydolater was he ay
 His high astate assured hym in pride
 But fortune cast hym doune and þer he lay
 And sodeynly his regne gan deuide 3380

A feest he made vnto his lordes alle Yppon a tyme and made hem bliþe be /
 And þan his officers gan he calle
 Goþ luynges forþ þe vesselles quod he 3384
 Which þat my fader in his prosperite
 Out of þe temple of Ierusalem byraft
 And to oure heghe goddes þanke we
 Of honour þat our eldres wij vs laft 3388

His wif his lordes and his concubynes
 Ay drunken þe whiles her appetite laste
 Out of þis noble vesselles sondry wyne
 And on a wal þis kyng's his oyeen cast 3392
 And sawe an hande armesles þat wrot ful fast sfor fore of which he quoket and sighted sore
 This hande þat baltazar made so soor agast
 Wrote mane techel phares and no more 3396

De eodem
 And ylike an egles fethers was his heres
 His nayles like birdes clowes were God releued him a certain yerres
 And þat him writte & þan wij mony a tere 3368
 He þonked god & euer his lif in fere
 Was he to done amys or more trespas
 And or þat time leide was on his beere
 He knewe wele þat god was ful of myht & grace 3372
 De Baltazar dieti Regis Nabugodonosor filio.

His sone which þat hight Baltazar
 That helde þe regne after his fader daie
 He be his fader couþe nouþt be war
 For proude he was of herte & of aray 3376
 And eke an ydolatre was he ay
 His hihe astate assured him in pride
 But fortune kest adoune & þere he laye
 And sodanly his regne gan deuide 3380

De eodem
 A feste he made vnto his lordes al vpon a tyme he maad hem bliþe be /
 And þan his officers gan he call Goþe bringes forþ þe vesselles quod he 3384
 Which þat my fader in his prosperite
 Owte of þe temple of iherusalem be-raft
 And to oure hihe goddes þanke we
 Of honour þat oure halders wij vs lafte 3388

De eodem .
 His wif his lordes & his concubines
 Ay drunken whiles þeire appetite laste
 Out of þis noble vesselles soudre wyne
 And on a wal þis kings his yye kaste 3392
 And saugh an hand armesles þat wrot ful fast
 For fore of which he quoket & sikked sore
 This hand þat baltazar maade so soor agast Wrote Mane techel phares & no more 3396

In al that land / Magicien was noon
That koude expoude / what this letre mente
But Daniel / expoued it anon
And seyde kyng god to thy fader sente 3400
Glorie and honour / regns / tresour / rente
And he was proud / and no-thing' god ne dradde
And therfore / god greet wroche vp-on hym sente
And hym hiraft / the regne þat he hadde 3404

He was out cast of mannes compaignye
With asses / was his habitacioun
And eet hey as a beest in weest and drye 3408
Til that he knew / by grace and by resoun
That god of heuene / hath domynacioun
Ouer euery regne / and euery creature
And thanne / hadde god of hym compassioun
And hym restored / his regne and his figure 3412

Eek / thou that art his sene / art proud also
And knowest alle thise thynges veraily
And art rebel to god / and art his foe 3416
Thou drank eek / of his vessels boldly
Thy wyf eek / and thy wenches synfully
Dronke of the same vessels / sondry wynys
And heryst' false goddess cursedly
Therefore to thee / ysahpen ful greet pyne ys 3420

This hand was sent from god / that on the wal
Wroot Mane techel phares / truste me
Thy regne is doon / thou weyest' night at al
Dyuyded is thy regne / and it schal be 3424
To Medes and to Perses / yeuon quod he
And thilke same nyght' this kyng' was slawe
And Darius / occupieth his degre 3428
Though he ther to / hadde neither right ne lawe

¶ In al that land / Magicien was noon <sup>Deaf 20</sup>
That koude expoude / what that letre mente
But Danyel / expoued it anon
And seyde / Kyng' god to thy fader lente 3400
Glorie / and honour / regns / tresor / rente
And he was proud / and no thyng god ne dradde
And therfore / god greet wroche vp-on hym sente
And hym hiraft / the regne þat he hadde 3404

¶ He was out cast of mannes compaignye
With Asses / was his habitacioun
And eet hey as a Beest' in weest and drye 3408
Til þat he knew / by grace / and by resoun
That god of heuene / han domynacioun
Ouer euery regne / and euery creature
And thanne / hadde god of hym compassioun
And hym restored / his regne and his figure 3412

¶ Eek / thou that art his sene / art proud also
And knowest' alle thise thynges veraily
And art rebel to god / and art his foe 3416
Thow drank eek / of his vessel boldly
Thy wyf eek / and thy wenches synfully
Dronke of the same vessels / sondry wynys
And hericst' false goddess cursedly
Therefore to thee / ysahpen ful greet pyne is 3420

¶ This hand was sent fro god / that on the wal
Wroot Mane techel phares / truste me
Thy regne is doon / thou weyest' night at al
Dyuyded is thy regne / and it schal be 3424
To Medes and to Perses / yeuon quod he
And thilke same nyght' this kyng was slawe
And Darius / occupieth this degre
Though he ther to / hadde neither right ne lawe 3428

In al that land magicien was non
That coude expoune what these lettery mente
But danyel expoungued it a-noon
And seyde kyng god to thyn fadyr sente 3400
Glorie & honour / regne tresor rente
And he was proud / & no thyng god ne dradde *
And therfore god greet' wroche' on hym sente <sup>(1-1 corrected)</sup>
And hym berafte / the regne that he hadde 3404

He was out cast of many compaignye
With assis was his habytacioun
And eet' hay as a beste' in weest & drye 3408
Tyl that he knew by grace & by resoun
That god of heuene hath domynacioun <sup>[Deaf 205, back]</sup>
Of euery regne / & euery creature
And thanne hadde god of hym compassioun
And hym restorede his regne & his figure 3412

Eek show that art his sone art proud also
And knowist alle these syngys veraily
And art rebel to god & art his foe 3416
Thow drank ek of his wellys boldly Thyn wyf ek & thynne wenchis synfully
Dronke of the same vessel sundery wynys
And heryst' false goddess cursedly
Therefore to the Ischapyen ful greet pyne is 3420

This hand was sent from god that on the wal
Wroot mane techel phares trust to me
Thyn regne is doon thou weyest' night at al
Deuidit is thyn regne / & it schal bee 3424
To Medes & to perses zeuyn quod he And tilke same nyght' this kyng was slawe
And Daryus occupied his degre
Thow he thereto hadde neyther ryght ne lawe 3428

¶ In al þat lond magicien was þer non That couþe expoune what þis lettre meant
But Daniel expoune it anon
And sayde king god to þi fader sent Glory and honour Regne tresour and rent
And he was prowde and no þing god ne dradde /
And þerfore god gret wroche vpon him sent
And him byrafte þe regne þat he hadde

¶ He was out cast of mannes companye
Wip asses was his habitacion
And ete heȝ as a beste in wete and drye
Til þat he knew by grace and by resoun
That god of heuen haþ domynacion
Ouer enery regne and enery creature
And þenne hadde god of him compassiōn
And him restored his regne and his figure

¶ Eke þou þat art his sone art proud also
And knowest alle þis þinges pryuely
And art rebell to god and art his foe
Thou drank eke of his vessels boldly
Thi wyf eke and þi wenches synfully
Drank of þe same vessels sondry wyne
And heried false goddes cursedly Ther fore to þe schapen greþ pyne is /

¶ This hand was sent fro god þat on þe wal Wrot mane techel phares truste me
Thi regne is don þou weyest not at all Deuyded is þi regne and it schal be
To Medes and to Perses zeuen quod he
And þilke same nyȝt þe king was slawe
And Daryus occupieth his degre
They he þerto nad neȝer right ne lawe

CORPUS (6-T. 283)

3400

3404

3408

[leaf 27v, back]

3412

3416

3420

3424

3428

In al þat londe Magyten was þer non þat couþe expoune what þis lettre ment
But Danyel expoune it anon
And seide king god þi fader sent Glorie and honour Regne tresour and rent
And he was proude and god no þing dradde
And þerfore god grete wroth vpon hym Sent
And hym by-raft þe regne þat he hadde

He was out cast of manny's companye
Wip asses was his habitacion
And ete hay as a best in wete and drye
Til þat he knewe by grace and by resoun
That god of heuen haþ domynaciōn
Ouer enery regne and enery creature
And þan had god of hym compassiōn
And hym restored his regne and his figure

Eke þou þat art his sone art proude also
And knowest all þis þingges pryuely
And art rebel to god and art his foe
Thou drank eke of his vessels boldly
Thi wif eke and þi wenches synfully
Drank of þe same vessels sondry wyne
And heried fals godlys cursedly þerfore to þe schapen grete peyn is

This hand was sent fro god þat on þe wal wrote mane techel phares truste me Thy regne is done þou waigest not at all Deuyded is þi regne and it schal be
To Medes and to perses zeuen quod he
And þilke same nyȝt þe kyng was slawe
And Darius occupieth his degre
They he þerto nad neȝer riȝt ne lawe

PETWORTH (6-T. 288)

De eodem
In al þat londe Magocien was þere none þat couþe expoune what þis lettre meant Bot Daniel expoune it anone
And seide kyng god to þi fader sent Glory & Honour Regne tresoure & rent
And he was proude & no þing god ne dradde
And þere-fore god grete wroche vpon him sent
And him be-raft þe Regne þat he hadde.

De Eodem .
He was oute cast of Mannes compaignys
With asses was his habitacione
And ete heȝ as a beste in wete & druye
Til þat he knowe be grace & be resone
That god of heuen haþ domynacion
Ouer enery Regne & enery creature
And þan hadd god of him compassiōn
And him restored his Regne & his figure

De eodem
Eke þou þat art his son is proude also
And knowest al þis þingges pryuely
And art Rebel to god & art his foe
Thouwe dranke eke of his vessels boldly þi wif eke & þi wenches synfully Dranke of þe same vessels sondre wyne
And heried fals goddes cursely Therfore to þe schapen grete peine is

De eodem
This honde was sent fro god þat on the wall þat wrote Mane techel phares trust me Thyne Reygne is done þou weyest nouȝt at all Druyded is þi regne and it schal be To medes & to perses zeuen quod he And þilke same nyȝt þe kings was slawe
And Darius occupieth his degre þeyhe he þere-to na hadde neiþere riȝt ne lawe

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 285)

3400

3404

3408

[leaf 27v, back]

3412

3416

3420

3424

3428

Lordynges / ensample / heer-by may ye take
How that in lordshipe / is no sikernesse
for when fortune wole a man forsake
She bereth away / his regne and his richesse 3432
And eek hisse freendes / bothe moore and lesse for what man / þat hath freendes / thurgh fortune
Mishape / wol maken hem enymys as I gesse
This prouerbe / is ful sooth and ful commune 3436

[Zenobia.]
CEnobia / of Palmyrie Queene
As writen Perseus / of hir noblesse
So worthy was in Armes / and so keene
That no wight<sup>þ</sup> passed hire in hardynesse 3440
Ne in lynage / nor in oother gentillesse
Of kynges blood of Perce / is she descended
I seyn nat<sup>þ</sup> that she hadde moost fairnesse
But of hire shape / she myghte nat been amended 3444

from hire childhede / I fynde that she fledde
Office of women / and to wode she wente
And many a wilde hertes blood she shedde
With arwes brode / that she to hem sente 3448
She was so swif<sup>þ</sup> / þat she anon hem hente
And whan þat she was elder / she wolde kille
Leons / leopards / and Beres al to-rente
And in hir Armes / wreilde hem at hir wille 3452

She dorste / wilde beestes dennes seke
And rennen in the montaignes / al the nyght<sup>þ</sup>
And slopen vnder the bussli / and she koude eke
Wrestlen / by verray force / and verray myght<sup>þ</sup> 3456
With any yong man / were he neuer so wight<sup>þ</sup>
Ther myghte no thyng in hir Armes stonde
She kepte hir maydenho<sup>þ</sup> / from euery wight<sup>þ</sup>
To no man / deigned hire for to be bonde 3460

¶ Lordynges / ensample heer-by may ye take
How that in lordshipe / is no sikernesse for when fortune / wol a man forsake
She bereth away / his regne and his richesse 3432
And eke hisse freendes / bothe moore and lesse
for what man / þat hath freendes thurgh fortune
Mishape / wol make hem enymys I gesse
This prouerbe / is ful sooth / and ful commune 3436

[Zenobia.]
CEnobia / of Palmyrie queene
As writen Perseus / of hir noblesse
So worthy was in Armes / and so keene
That no wight<sup>þ</sup> passed hire in hardynesse 3440
Ne in lynage / ne oother gentillesse
Of kynges blood of Perce / is she descended
I sey nat<sup>þ</sup> þat she hadde moost fairnesse
But of hir shape / she myghte nat been amended 3444

¶ from hire childhede / I fynde þat she fledde
Office of women / and to wode she wente
And many / a wilde hertes blood she shedde
With Arwes brode / that she to hem sente 3448
She was so swif<sup>þ</sup> / þat she anon hem hente
And whan þat she was elder / she wolde kille
Leons / Leopards / and Beres al torente
And in hir Armes / wreilde hem at hir wille 3452

¶ Sche dorste / wilde beestes dennes seke
And rennen in the montaignes / al the nyght<sup>þ</sup>
And slopen vnder the bussli / and she koude eke
Wrestlen / by verray force / and verray myght<sup>þ</sup> 3456
With any yong man / were he neuer so wight<sup>þ</sup>
Ther myghte no thyng in hir armes stonde
She kepte hir maydenhede / from euery wight<sup>þ</sup>.
To no man / deigned hire to be bonde 3460

Lordyngis ensample herby may ye take .
How that in lordshepe is no sikernesse .
For when fortune wole a man forsake .
Sche beryth a-wey his regne & hys rychesse . 3432
And ek hisse freendis bothe moore & lasee .
For what that hath frendis thour; fortune .
Mishap wole make hem enymys I gesse .
This prouerbe is ful soth & ful comune . 3436

[Zenobia.]
¶ Cenobia of palmyrie queene ¶ Cenobia
As wrytyn peryens of hire noblesse
So worthi was in armys & so keene
That no whit passede hire in hardynesse 3440
Ne in lynage nor othir gentillesse
Of kyngis blod of perse is sche descendedid
I seyn that sche hadde not mooste fayrenesse 3444
But of hire shep scho myste nat been a-mendid . 3444

From hire childhod / I fynde that sche fledde
Office of wemen & to wode sche wente
And manye a wyilde hertis blood sche schedde
With arwis broode that sche to hym sente 3448
Sche was so swifit that sche anon ham hente
And whan that sche was eldersche wolde kille Leons lebardis & beris al to-rente
And in hire armys wilde hem at hire wille 3452

Sche durste wilde beestis denys secko
And rennyis in the mountaign[e]s al be nyght
And sleppyn vnder the busch / & sche koude ek Wrestelun by verray forse & verray myght 3456
With any yong man were he neuere so wight
There myghte no thyng in hire armys stonde Sche kepte hire maydenhede from euery wyght
To to man degneid hire for to be bonde 3460

¶ Lordynges her-by ensample may 3e take How þat in lordshipe is no sikernesse for whan fortune wole a man forsake
He bereþ a-way his regne and his richesse / 3432
And eek his freendes bope more and lesse
And what man haþ freendes þurgh fortune
Mishap wole make hem enemyes I gesse
This proverbe is ful soþ and ful comune 3436
[Zenobia.]

¶ Cenobya of Palmyre þe queene ¶ De Cenobia Palmy-
As writen Persiens of hire noblesse merie regina
So worþy was in armes and so keene
That no wight passed hire in hardynesse / 3440
Ne in lynage ne in oþer gentilnesse /
Of kynges blood of Peros sche descended
I saye þat sche nad nouþt most fairnesse
But of hire schap sche might nought ben amended 3444

¶ Fro hire childhode I fynde þat sche fledde Office of womanen and to woode sche wente
And many a wilde hertes blodde sche schodde [Def 246]
With arrows brode þat sche to hem sente / 3448
Sche was so swyfte þat sche anon hem hente
And whan þat sche was elder sche wold kille Leouns inperdes and beres alto-rent
And in hire armes welde hem at hire wille 3452

¶ Sche dorste wilde bestes dennes seeke
And rennen in þe mounteinz al þe night
And slepe vnder a busche and sche couþe eke Wrastelen by verrey force and verrey might 3456
Wiþ any zong' man were he nouer so wight
Ther myght no þinge in hir armes stonde
Sche kepte hir maydenhed fro euery wight
To no man deynd hire to be bonde / 3460

Lordynges her-by ensamples mowe 3e take How þat in lordship is no sikernesse for whan fortune wil a man forsake
He bereþ away his regne and his richesse 3432
And eke his frendes boþ more and lesse
And what man haþ frendus þerow fortune
Mishappe wil make hem enemyes I gesse
This proverbe is ful soþ and ful comune 3436

¶ De Cenobia: /
Cenobia of Palmyre þe queene
As writen Persiens of her noblesse
So worþy was in Armes and so keene
þat no wight passed hire in hardynesse 3440
Ne in lynage ne in oþer gentilnesse
Of þe kynges blood of percy is she descended.
I say þat she nad not most fairnesse
But of hire Shap she mygt not be amended 3444

Fro childhode I fynde þat she fledde Office of womanen and into woode she went
And Mony a wilde hertes blodde she shedde
Wiþ arrows brode þat she to hym sent 3448
She was so swift þat she anon hem hent [Def 241, back]
And whan þat she was elder she wold kille
Lyons . lybardes and beres alto-rent
And in hire armes wealde hem at her wille 3452

Sche durst wilde beestes dennes seeke
And renne in þe mountayn al þe night
And slepe vnder a busch she coude eke
Wrastelen by verrey force and myght 3456
Wiþ eny zong' man were he nouer so wight
Ther myght no þinge in her Armes stonde
She kepte her maidenhede fro euery wight
To no man deynd hire to be bonde 3460

De Eodem .
Lordynges here-by ensamples maie 3e take Howe þat in lordschippe is no sikernesse
For whan fortune wil a man forsake
He bereþ awaye his regne & his Rochesse 3432
And eke his frende boþ more & lesse
And when a man haþ frende þerow fortune
Mishappe wil make hem enemyes . I. gesse
This proverbe is ful soþe & ful comune 3436

¶ De Cenobia Palmere Regina . [Def 211]
Cenobia of Palmyre þe queene
As writen Persiens of hire noblesse
So worþy was in armes & so keene
That no wight passed hire in hardynesse 3440
Ne in lignage ne in oþere gentilnesse
Of þe kynges blodde of percy is sche descended
I seiþ þat sche mad nouht most fairnesse
Bot of hire schappe sche myht be amended 3444

De eadem
Fro hire childhede . I. finde þat sche fledde
Office of wemmen & to woode sche wente
And mony a wilde hertes blodde sche schedde
Wiþ arrows brode þat sche to hem sente 3448
Sche was so sweft þat sche anon hem hente
And whan sche was elder sche wold kille
Lyons libredes and beres alto-rent
And in hire armes wilde hem at hire wille 3452

De Eodem
Sche dorst wilde bestes dennes seeke
And renne in þe mountain al þe nilht
And slepe vnder a busche & sche couþe eke Wrastelen by verrey force & verrey myht 3456
Wiþ any zongo man were he nouere so whight
Ther myht no þinge in hir armes stonde
Sche kepte hire Maidenhede fro euery whight
To no man deynd hire to be bonde 3460

But atte laste / hir freendes han hire married
To Onedake / a Prynce of that contree
Al were it so / that she hem longe taryed
And ye schal vnderstonde / how that he<sup>9</sup> 3464
Hadde swiche fantasies / as hadde she
But natheles / when they were knyght in feere
They luyed / in ioye / and-in felicitee
ffor ech of hem / hadde oother lief and deere 3468

Sane o thyng<sup>1</sup> that she wolde neuere assente [leaf 176, back]
By no wey / that he sholde by hire lye
But ones / for it was hir pleyn entente
To haue a child<sup>2</sup> / the world to multiplye 3472
And also soone / as þat she myghte espye
That she was nat with childe / with that dode
Thanne wolde she suffre hym doon his fantasye
Eft soone / and nat but comes out of drede 3476

And if she were with childe / at thilke cast
Na moore / sholde he pleyen thilke game
Til fully / forty dayes / weren past
Thanne wolde she ones / suffre hym do the same 3480
Al were this Onedake / wilde or tame
He gat na moore of hire / for thus she seyde
It was to wyues / lecherie and shame
In oother cas / if þat men with hem pleyde 3484

Two sonys / by Onedake hadde she
The whiche she kepte / in vertu and lettrure
But now / vn-to oure tale / turne we
I seye / so worshipful a creature 3488
And wys ther-with / and large with mesure
So peynful in the werre / and curteis eke
Ne moore labour / myghte in werre endure
Was noon / though al this world men wolde seke 3492

¶ But atte laste / hir freendes han hire maryed
To Onedake / a prynce of that contree
Al were it so / that she hem longe taryed
And ye shal vnderstonde / how þat he 3464
Hadde swiche fantasies / as hadde she
But natheles / when they were knyght in feere
They luyed / in ioye / and-in felicitee
ffor ech of hem / hadde oother lief and deere 3468

¶ Sane o thyng<sup>1</sup> that she wolde neuere assente
By no wey / that he sholde by hire lye
But ones / for it was hir pleyn entente
To haue a child / the world to multiplye 3472
And also soone / as that she myghte espye
That she was nat with childe / with that dode
Thanne wolde she suffren hym doon his fantasye
Eft soone / and nocht but ones / out of drede 3476

¶ And if she were with childe / at thilke cast [leaf 202]
Namore / sholde he pleyen thilke game
Til fully / .xl. dayes weren past
Thanne wolde she ones / suffre hym do the same 3480
Al were this Onedake / wilde / or tame
He gat namoore of hire / for thus she seyde
It was to wyues / lecherie and shame
In oother cas / if þat men with hem pleyde 3484

¶ Two sonys / by this Onedake hadde she
The whiche she kepte / in vertu and lettrure
But now / vn-to oure tale turne we
I seye / so worshipful a creature 3488
And wys ther-with / and large with mesure
So peynful in the werre / and curteis eke
Ne moore labour / myghte in werre endure
Was noon / though al this world men sholde seke 3492

But at the laste hire frendys haddyn hire maryed
To onedake a prynce of that cuntree
Al were it so that sche hem longe taryed
And þe schal vnderstonde how that he<sup>1</sup> [p. he corrected] 3464
Hadde swiche fantasyis / as hadde sche
But natheles when they were knyght in feere
They luyed in ioye & in felycite
For echo of hem hadde othir leef & deere 3468

Sane on thyng that sche wolde neuere assente
By no wey, that he schulde by hire lye
But ones: for it was hire pleyn entente
To haue a child the world to multiplye 3472
And also some as sche myghe espye
That sche was nat with childe with that dede Thanne wolde sche suffere hym don his fantasye
Eft sonys & not but onys out of drede 3476

And If sche were with childe<sup>2</sup> at tylke cast [leaf 206, back] Namore<sup>2</sup> schulde he pleyen tylke game [p. childe, more, corrected]
Tyl fynally forty dayis weere past Thanne wolde sche onys suffere hym the same 3480
Al were this Onedake wilde or tame
He gat na moore of hire for thus sche sayde
It was to wyuyes lecherie & shame
In othir cas þif men with hem playede 3484

Two sonys bi this Onedake hadde sche
The whiche sche kepte / in vertu & letytrure
But now vn-to oure tale turne we
I seye so worsehepful a criature 3488
And wis therewith & large with mesure
So peynful in the werre & curteis ek
Ne moore labour myghte in werre endure
Was noon thow al this world men schulde seeke 3492

¶ But ette laste hir frendes han hire maryed
To Odenake a Prince of þat Cite
Al were it/ so þat sche hem longe taryed
And 3e schuln vnderstonde how þat he Hadde suche fantasies as hadde sche
But napoles whan þei were knytt in fere
They lyueden in toye and in felicite for sche of hem hadde oþer leef and deere /

[Same oo thyng/ that/ sche wolde nouyt/ assente.] <sup>(MS. B. 176, v. 125)</sup>
By no wey þat he schulde by hire lye
But ones for it/ was hire ployne entent
To haue a childe þe world to multiplie
And al so sone as sche miht aspye
That sche nas nouyt wip childe wip þat dede Thanne wolde sche suffre him don his fantasye Eftsoone and nouyt/ but ones out of drede /

¶ And if sche were wip childe at þilke caste
No more schulde he playe þilke game
Til fully forty dayes were paste
Thanne wolde sche ones do suffre him þe same Al were þis Odenak wilde or tame
He gat nomore of hire for þus sche sayde
It was to wyfes lechery and schame /
In oþer casis if þat men with hem playde <sup>(MS. B. back)</sup>

¶ Two sones by þis Odenak hadde sche
The whiche sche kepte in vertu and lettrure
But now vnto oure tale turne we /
I saye þat worshipful creature
And wise þerwith and large wip mesure
So penyble in þe werre and curteyas eke
No more labour mighte in werre endure
Was non þeihe all þis world men schulde seke
CORPUS (6-T. 265)

3464

3468

3472

3476

3480

3488

3492

But at þe last her frendes han hire maryed
To Odenak a prince of þat Cite Al were it so þat she hem longe taryed
And so shal vnderstonde how þat hu Had suche fantasies as had she
But napoles whan þei were knytt in fere þei lyueden in loie and in felicite for sche of hem had oþer leef and deere

Sauf con þinge that 3e nolde neuere assent
By no way þat he schulde by hire lye
But onys for it was her ployne entent
To haue a childe þe world to multiplie
And also sone as she myst aspie
That she was nouyt wip child wip þat dede þan wil she suffre hym don his fantasie Eftsoone and not but onys out of drede

¶ And gif she were wip childe at þilke cast
No more schulde he playe þilke game
Til hit daies were past
Than wolde she onys suffre hym do þe same Al were this Odenake wilde or tame
He gat no more of hire. for þus she sayde
It was to wyues lechery and schame
In oþer casis if þat men wip hem pleide

Two sones by þis odynak had she
The whiche she kepte in vertu and in lettrure
But now vnto oure tale turne we
I say þat worshipful creature
And wise þerwith and large wip mesure
So penyble in þe werre and curteyas eke
No more labour mighte in werre endure was non þeihe in al þis world men schuld seke
PETWORTH (6-T. 265)

3464

3468

3472

3476

3480

(MS. B.) 3488

3492

De eadem
¶ Do att þe last here frendes haue hire maryed
To Odenake a prince of þat Cite
Al were it so þat sche hem longe taryed
And 3e scholne vnderstande how þat he Hadde suche fantasies as hadd sche
Bot napoles whan þei were knytte in fere Thet leueden in loie & in felicite
For vche of hem had oþere leef & dere
De eadem

¶ Save on þinge þat sche nolde neuere assent
By no weye þat by hire scholde he lye
Bot ones for it was hire ployne entent
To haue a childe þe werlde to multieplye
And also sone as sche miht a-spye
That sche was not wip childe wip þat dede
Than wolde sche suffre him done his fantasie Eft sone and nouht but ones oute of drede <sup>(MS. B. back)</sup>

[No breaks hereforth between the stanzas of each fragment.]

¶ And if sche were wip childe at þilke cast
No more scholde he pleie þilke game
Til fully fou[r]ty dayes were past
Than wolde sche ones do suffre him þe same Al were þis Odenake wilde ore tame
He gat no more of hire for þus sche sayde
It was to wifes lechery & schame
In oþere casis if þat men wip hom pleide

¶ Two sone be þis Edenok hadde sche
The whiche sche kopped in vertwe & in lettrure Bot nowe vnto oure tale turne we
.I. say þat worshipful creature
And wise þerwip & large wip mesure
So penyble in þe werre & korteyse eke
No more labour miht in werre endure
Was none þeihe al þis werlde men schold seche
LANSDOWNE (6-T. 265)

3464

3468

3472

3476

3480

3488

3492

266 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

Hir riche array / ne myghte nat be told
As wel in vessel / as in hire clothyng
She was al clad / in perree and in gold
And eek / she lafte noght / for noon huntynge
To haue of sondry tonges / ful knowynge
Whan þat she leyser hadde / and for to entende
To lerne bookes / was al hir likynge
How she in vertu / myghte hir lyf dyspende

And shortly / of this proces for to trete
So doghty was hir housbonde and eek she
That they conquered / manye regnes grete
In the Orient with many a faire Citee
Apertenant vn-to the mageste
Of Rome / and with strong hond held hem ful faste
Ne neuere myghte / hir foo men doon hem fleo
Ay / whil that Onedakes dayes laste

Hir batailles / who so list hem for to rede
Agayn Sapur the kyng and othere mo
And how al this proces / fil in dede
Why she conquered / and what title therto [Dest 177]
And after / of hire meschief and hire wo
How þat she was / biseged and ytake
Let hym / vn-to my maister Petrak go
That writ ynough of this .I vndertake

Whan Onedake was deed / she myghtily
The regnes heeld / and with hire propre hond
Agayn hir foes / she faght so cruelly
That ther nas kyng ne prynce in al that lond
That he nas glad / if he that grace fond
That she ne wolde / vp-on his lond werreye
With hire / they made alliance by bond
To been in pees / and lete hire ryde and pleye

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 209)

266 SIX-TEXT
210 GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

Hir riche array / ne myghte nat be toold
As wel in vessel / as in hire clothyng
She was al clad / in perree and in gold
And eek she lafte noght / for noon huntynge
To haue / of sondry tonges ful knowynge
Whan þat she leyser hadde / and for to entenda
To lerne bookes / was al hir likynge
How she in vertu / myghte hir lyf dyspende

¶ And shortly / of this storie for to trete So doghty was hire housbonde / and eek she
That they conquered / manye regnes grete
In the orient with many a fair Citee
Apertenant vn-to the mageste
Of Rome / and with strong hond / heeld hem ful faste
Ne neuere myghte / hir fomen / doon hem fleo
Ay / whil that Onedakes dayes laste

¶ Hir batailles / who so list hem for to rede
Agayn Sapur the kyng and othere mo
And how / þat al this proces / fil in dede Why she conquered / and what title ther to
And after / of hire meschief and hire wo
How that she was / biseged and ytake
Let hym / vn-to my maister Petrak go
That writ ynow of this / I vndertake

¶ Whan Onedake was deed / she myghtily [Dest 24, back]
The regnes heeld / and with hire-propre hond
Agayns hir foes / she faght so cruelly
That ther nas kyng ne Prince in al that lond That he nas glad / if he þat grace fond
That she ne wolde / vp-on his land werreye
With hire / they made alliance by bond
To been in pees / and lete hire ryde and pleye

HENGWRT 210 (6-T. 269)

266 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Hyro ryche aray myghte not be told
As wel in vessel as in hyre clothyng
Sche was al clad in porre & in golde
And ek sche lafte not for noon huntynge
To haue of sundery tungis ful knowynge Whas that sche leyser hadde / & for to entende
To lerne bokys was hire-lykyng
How sche myghte in wertu hire lyf dyspende

¶ And shortly of this story for to trete
So doghty was hire husbonde & ek sche
That they conquerede manye regnys greete
In the oryent with manye a fayr cete
Apertenant vn-to the mageste
Of rome & with strong hand held hem faste
Ne neuere myghte hire fomen don hem fle
Ay whil that Onadakys dayis laste [later correction]

Hyre bataylis who so lyste hom for to reede
A-gayn soper the kyng & othere moo
And how that al this proces fyl in deede
Why sche conquerede & what tytle therto
And after of hire myschif & hire wo How that sche was be-segit & I-take Let hym vn-to myn maystr Petrak go
That writ I-nough of this I vndyrtake

Whan Onedake was deed sche myghtily
The regnys heeld & with hire propre hond
A-gayns hire fois sche faght so crewelly
That there nas kyng nor prynce in al that lond
That he nas glad if he that grace fond
That sche ne wolde vp-on his lond werreye
With hire they made allyaunce by bond
To been in pees & leete hire ryde & pleye

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 266)

¶ Hire riche amy mighte nought<sup>þ</sup> be told
As wel in vessel as in hir cloþinge
Sche was al cladde in perrye and in gold
And eek<sup>þ</sup> sche lefte nought<sup>þ</sup> for non huntynge
To huse of sondry tonges folk knowynge Whan þat<sup>þ</sup> sche leyser hadde and for to entende
To lerne bookes was al hire likynge
How sche in vertu might<sup>þ</sup> hir lyf<sup>þ</sup> dispende

3496

3500

[And shortly of this/ storie for to entrete.] (Med. MS 379, 1647, 150, 1504)
¶ So doughtly was hire housebande as sche
That þey conquered many regnes grette
In þe orient wip many a fair Cite Appertenaunt vnto þe mageste
Of Rome and with strong hand helde hem faste
No neuer might<sup>þ</sup> here fomen don hem fle
Ay whiles þat<sup>þ</sup> Odenak<sup>þ</sup> dayes laste

3504

3508

¶ Here batayles who so luste hem for to rido Agayn Sapore þe king and oþer mo
And how þat<sup>þ</sup> al þis processe felle in dede
Why sche conquered and what title had þerto
And after of hire meschief and hire woo how þat<sup>þ</sup> sche was beseged and y-take let<sup>þ</sup> him vnto my maister Petrarko go That writ<sup>þ</sup> of þis ynough I vndertake

3512

3516

¶ When Odenak was dede sche myhtly
The regnes huld and wip hir propre hand
Agayn hire foos sche fough<sup>þ</sup> trowly
This þer nas king ne Prince in al þat land
That he nas gladd<sup>þ</sup> if þat<sup>þ</sup> he grace fand
That sche ne wolde vpon his lande werrey
With hire þey made alleyance by band
To ben in pees and lete hir ryde and pley 3520

(Def 241)

3524

CORPUS (6-T. 266)

Hire Riche amy myght<sup>þ</sup> not be tolde
As wel in vessel as in cloþinge
She was al clad in perry and in gold
And eke she laft<sup>þ</sup> not<sup>þ</sup> for noon huntynge
To huse of sondry tungges folk knowynge whan þat<sup>þ</sup> she leiser had and forto entende
To lerne bookes was al hire likynge
How she in vertue myght<sup>þ</sup> her lyf<sup>þ</sup> dispende

3496

3500

And shortly of þis storie forto entrete
So doughtly was her husborne as she
That þei conquered many regnes grette
In þe Orient wip many a faire Cite
Appertenaunt vnto þe mageste
Of Rome and wip stronge hond helde hem fast<sup>þ</sup>
No neuer myght<sup>þ</sup> her fomen don hem fle
Ay whiles þat<sup>þ</sup> Odenake dayes last<sup>þ</sup>

3504

3508

Her batayles who so lust hem forto rido
Agayn sapore þe kyng and oþer moo
And how þat<sup>þ</sup> all þis processe felle in dede whi she conquered and what title had þerto.
And after of her mescheef and of her woo
How þat<sup>þ</sup> she was byseged and itake Lat<sup>þ</sup> hym vnto my maister Petrarko go.
þat<sup>þ</sup> writte Inowe of þis I vndertake.

3512

3516

When Odenak was dede she myhtly þe Regnes heelde and wip her propre honde Agaynst her foos she fough<sup>þ</sup> trowly þat<sup>þ</sup> þer nas kyng no prince in al þat lande þat<sup>þ</sup> he nas glad<sup>þ</sup> if þe þat<sup>þ</sup> grace fonde þat<sup>þ</sup> she ne wolde vpon his lande werrey wip hire þei made alliance by bonde
To ben in pees and lat<sup>þ</sup> hire ryde and pleye /

3520

3524

PETWORTH (6-T. 266)

¶ Hire riche assaye miht noubt be tolde
As wete in vessel as in cloþinge
Scho was al cladde in perry & in gold
And eke scho laft for none huntynge
To huse of sundre tonges folk knowynge Whan þat<sup>þ</sup> scho leyser hadde to entende
To lereu bokes was al hire lykynge
Howe scho in vertue myht<sup>þ</sup> hire lif<sup>þ</sup> dispende

3496

3500

¶ And shortly of þis storie for to entrete
So douhte was hir husbode as scho
þat<sup>þ</sup> þei conquered many regnes grette
In þe Orient wip many a faire Cite Apertenaunte vnto þe Maieste
Of Rome & wip stronge honde helde hem fast
No neuere myht<sup>þ</sup> hire fomen done hem flye Aye wile þat<sup>þ</sup> Odenake dayes last 3504

3508

¶ Her batayles who so lust hem for to rede Agayne Sapore þe kinge & oþere moo
And how þat<sup>þ</sup> al þis processe fel in dede
And whi scho conquere & what title hadd þer too
And after of hire meschief & hire woo Ho þat<sup>þ</sup> sche was be-seged & y-take Late him vnto mi maister Petrak go þat<sup>þ</sup> writeth ynouthe of þis I. vndertake

3512

3516

¶ When Odenak was dede scho myhtly
The regnes heldo & wip hire propre hande Agayne hir foos sche fough<sup>þ</sup> trowly þat<sup>þ</sup> þere nas kinge ne prince in al þat lande
That he nas gladd<sup>þ</sup> if he þat<sup>þ</sup> grace fande
That sche ne wolde vpon his lande werrey
Wip hire þei mand alliance be hande
To biene in pees & latt<sup>þ</sup> hir ride & pleie

(Def 241)

3520

3524

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 266)

267 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

The Emperour of Rome Claudius
Ne hym bifore / the Romayn Galien
Ne dorste neuere / been so corageus
Ne noon Ermyrn / ne noon Egipcien
Ne Surrien / ne noon Arabeyn
With-Inne the feldes / that dorste with hire fighte Lest that she wolde / hem with hir handes slen
Or with hir meignes / putten hem to flighte

3532

In kynges habit / wente hir sones two
As heires / of hir fadres regnes alle
And hermanno / and Thymalso
Hir names were / as Persiens hem calle
But ay fortune / hath in hire hony galle
This myghty queene / may no while endure fortune / out of hir regne made hire falle
To wretchednesse / and to mysauenture

3540

Aurelian / whan that the gouernaunce
Of Rome / cam in-to hisse handes tweye
He schoop / vp-on this queene to doon vengeance
And with hisse legions / he took his weye
Toward Cenobie / and shortly for to seye
He made hire fleo / and atte laste hire hente
And fettered hire / and eek hire children tweye
And wan the land / and boom to Rome he wente

3548

Amonges othere thynges / that he wan
Hir Chaar / pat was with gold wrought and perreo
This grete Romayn / this Aurelian
Hath with hym lad / for that men sholde it see Bifrom his triumphe / walkoth shee
With gilte cheynes / on hire nekke hangynge
Coroned was she / after hir degree
And ful of perreo / charged hire clothyng

[leaf 17r, back]

3556

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 267)

267 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 211

¶ The Emperour of Rome / Claudius
Ne hym biforn / the Romayn Galien
Ne dorsten neuere / been so corageus
Ne noon Ermyrn / ne noon Egipcien
Ne Surrien / ne noon Arabien
With-Inne the feldes / pat dorste with hire fighte Lest pat she wolde / hem with hir handes slen
Or with hire meynes / putten hem to flighte

3528

3528

3532

¶ In kynges habit wenten hire sones two
As heires / of hir fadres regnes alle
And Hermanno / and Thymalso
Hir names were / as Persiens hem calle
But ay fortune / hath in hire hony galle
This myghty queene / may no while endure
fortuns / out of hir regne made hire falle
To wretchednesse / and to mysauenture

3540 ¶ Aurelian / whan pat the gouernaunce

Of Rome / cam in-to hisse handes tweye
He schoop / vp-on this queene / to doon vengeance
And with his legions / he took his weye
Toward Cenobie / and shortly for to seye
He made hire fleo / and atte laste hire hente
And fettered hire / and eek hire children tweye
And wan the land / and boom to Rome he wente

3544

3548

¶ Amonges othere thynges / that he wan
His Chaar / pat was with gold wrought & perreo
This grete Romayn / this Aurelian
Hath with hym lad / for pat men sholde it see Bifrom his triumphe / walkoth she
With gilte cheynes / on hire nekke hangynge
Corownded was she / as after hir degree
And ful of perreo / charged hir clothyng

3552

3556

HENGWRT 211 (6-T. 267)

267 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

The Emperour of rome Claudius
Ne hym be-forn the 'Romen Galyeen
Ne dunste neuere been so corageous Ne noon Ermyrn ne non Egipcien
Ne Surreyn ne non Arabieon
With-inne the feeldys that darste with hire fryt
Lest that sche wolde hem wit hire handis slen
Or with hire moyne putiyn hem to flight

[P R corrected]

3528

3528

3532

In kyngis habite wente hire sones two
As heyris of hire faderys regnes alle
And hermanno / & thimalso
Hire names were as persiens . hem calle<sup>1</sup>
But ay fortune hath in hire hony galle
This myghty queen may no while endure
Fortune out of hire regne / made hire falle
To wretchednesse & to mysauenture

[A-vol called] 3536

3540

Aureyan whan that the gouernaunce
Of Rome cam in-to hire handis tweye
He schop vp-on his queen to doon vengeance
And with hisse legiounys he tok his weye Toward Senobie & shortly for to seye
He made hire fle / & at the laste hire hente
And fettered hire & ek hire chyldere tweye
And wan the lond & bom to rome he wente

Aurelian

3544

[leaf 50r, back]

3548

A-mongis othere thyngis that he wan
Hire chaar that was with gold wrought & perreo
This greete roman this-aurelian Hath with hym lad for that men schulde it see
By-forn his triumphe walkyth sche
With gilte cheynys <sup>1</sup>vp-on here nekke hangynge<sup>1</sup> Corowmede was sche as <sup>2</sup>after hyre degree<sup>2-1</sup> <sup>1</sup>later corrections<sup>1</sup>
And ful of perreo charged hire clothyng

3556

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 267)

GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 267
Corpus MS.

¶ The Emperour of Rome Claudius
 Ne him byforþ þo Romain Galien
 Ne dorste neuer be so coragius
 Ne non Ermyne ne non Egipcien
 Ne Surrien ne non arabien
 With-in þe feeld þat dorste with hire fight
 .Lest þat sche wolde hem wip hir handes sleen
 Or with hire meyne putten hem to fight

3528

[IN kynges/ abite wente hir/ sones/ two .] As Eyres of here regnes alle
 And hermanno and Thymalao
 Here names were as Perciens hem calle
 But ay fortune haþ ay in hir hony galle
 This mighty queene may no while en-dure
 Fortune out of hir regno made hire falle
 To wrecchednes and to mysauenture

3536

3540

¶ Aurelion whan þat þo gouernance
 Of Rome cam in-to his handes tweye he schoop vpon þis queen to do vengeance
 And wip his legions he took his weye Toward Cenoby and schortly for to seye
 He made hir flec and at þo last hir hent
 And fetterd hire and eek hir children tweye
 And wan þe lond and home to Rome þey went 3544

3548

¶ Among þese oþer þinges þat he wan hire char þat was wip gold wrought and perre
 This grete Romayn þis aurelian
 Haþ wip him ladde for þat men schulde se Byforþ his tryumphe walkþe sche
 Wip gilt cheynes on-hire necke hangyng
 Corouned sche was as after hire degre
 And ful of perre charged hire cloþinge

3552

3556

CORPUS (6-r. 267)

GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 267
Petworth MS.

The Emperour of Rome Claudius
 Ne hym byforþ þo Romsayn galien
 Ne durst neuer be so coragius
 Ne non ermyne ne non Egipcien
 Ne Surryene ne noon Arabien
 With-in þe feelde þat durst wip hire fyt
 .Lest þat she wolde wip hure handes hym sleen
 Or wip her mayne putten hem to flit

[leaf 12r, back]

3528

3536

3540

In kynges habite went her sonye two
 As heires of her regnes alle
 And hermanno and Tymalao
 Her names were as percions hem calle
 But ay fortune haþ in her hony galle
 This myghty queene may not longe endure fortune out of her regno made her falle
 To wrecchednes and to mysauenture

Aurelion whan þat þo gouernance
 Of Rome come into his handes tweye
 He schope vpon þis queene to do vengeance
 And wip his legions he toke his weye Toward Cenoby and shortly for to seye
 He made hur flec and at þo last her hent
 And fetterd hure and eke her children tweye
 And wan þe londre and home to Rome is went 3544

3548

Amonge þise oþer þingges þat he wan her chare þat was wip gold and perre
 This grete Romayn þis Aurelian haþ wip hym lad for þat men shuld see Byforþ hya tryumphe walkþe she Wip gilt cheynes in her nek hongyng
 Corouned she was as after her degre
 And ful of Perry charged her cloþinge

3552

3556

PETWORTH (6-r. 267)

GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 267
Lansdowne MS.

¶ The Emperour of Rome Claudius
 Ne him be-forne þo Romeyne Galien
 Ne dorste neuere be so Coragius
 Ne none Ermyne ne none egipete[ne]
 Ne Surrien: ne none arabien
 With-in þe felde þat doct wip hir flit
 .Lest þat sche wolde hom wip her handes aloyne
 Or wip hire meyne to putten hem to flit

3528

3536

3540

In Kinges abite went here sones two As eyres of here Regnes all
 And ermanno: and Thimalao
 Here name were as percions hem call Botte fortune hape ay in here hony gall
 This myghty queene mai no while endure
 Fortune oute of her Regne maado hire fall
 To wretchednesse & to mysauenture

¶ Aurelyon whan þat þe gouernance
 Of Rome camme in-to his handes tweye
 He schope vpon þis queene to do vengeance
 And wip his legions he toke his weie Toward Cenoby & schortly for to seie
 He maado hire flec & att þe last hire hent
 And fetterd hire & eke her children tweye
 And wann þe londre & home to Rome þei went 3544

3548

¶ Amange þis oþer þinge þat he wanne Here Chare þat was wip gold wrouht & perre þis grete Romaine þis Aurelian Haþ wip him ladde for þat men schulde see
 Be-forne his tryumphe walkþe sche
 With gilt cheynes on hire nek hangeinge
 Corounde scho was as after her degre
 And ful of perre charged hir cloþinge

3552

3556

LANSDOWNE (6-r. 267)

268 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

Allas fortune / she that whilom was Dredful / to kynges and to Emperours
Now gaurth al the peple / on hire allas
And she / that helmed was in starke shouris 3560
And wan by force / townes stronge and toours
Shal on hire heed / now were a vitremyte
And she that bar / the ceptre ful of flouris
Shal here a distaf / hire costes for to quyto 3564
[Peter the Cruel, of Spain.]

O noble / o. worthy Petro / glorie of Spayne De Do Petro Whom fortune heeld / so hye in magesteo Rege Is-Wel oughten men / thy pilous deoth compleyne pannie
Out of thy land / thy brother made thee fle [on leaf 181] 3568
And after / at a seage by subtiltee
Thow were bitrayned / and lad vn-to his tente
Where as he / with his owene hand slow thee
Succedyng / in thy regne and in thy rente 3572

The feild of snow / with thegle of blak ther-Inne [Interced de Caught with the lymrod / coloured as the glede Quencia.]
He brew this cusednesse / and al this synne
The wikked nest was werker of this nede 3576
Noght Charles Olyuver / that took ay hede
Of trouthe and honour / but of Armorike
Genyllon Olyuer / corrupt for meede
Broughte this worthy kyng / in swich a brike 3580
[Officer de Messuy
of Britanay.]

O worthy Petro / kyng of Cipro also
That Alisandre wan / by heigh maistrie
ful many an hethen / wroughtestow ful wo
Of which / thyns owene liges hadde envie
And for no thyng / but for thy Chivalrie .
They in thy bed / han slayn thee by the morwe
Thus kan fortune / hir wheel gouerne and gye
And out of Ioye / bryngs men to sorwe 3588
[Peter of Cyprus.]

ELLESMEERE (6-r. 208)

268 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 212, 221

¶ Allas fortune / she that whilom was [leaf 94]
Dredful / to kynges / and to Emperours
Now gaurth al the peple / on hire allas
And she that helmed was / in starke stoures * 3560
And wan by force / townes stronge and toours
Shal on hire heed / now were a vitremyte
And she jat bar / the Ceptre ful of flouris
Shal here a distaf hire costes for to quyto 3564
[Peter the Cruel, of Spain.]

O noble / o worthy Petro / glorie of Spayne De Do Petro
Whom fortune heeld / so heighe in magesteo Isparnie Wel oughten men / thy pilous deoth compleyne [on leaf 97, back]
Out of thy land / thy brother made thee fle 3568
And after at a sege / by subtiltee
Thow were bitrayned / and lad vn-to his tente
Where as he / with his owene hand slow thee
Succedyng / in thy regne and in thy rente 3572

¶ The feild of snow / with thegle of blak ther-Inne [leaf 95] Caught with the lymrod / coloured as the glede [Interced de
He brew this cusednesse / and al this synne Quencia.]
The wikked nest was werker of this nede 3576
Noght Charles Olyuer / jat took ay hede
Of trouthe and honour / but of Armorike
Genyllon Olyuer / corrupt for meede
Broughte this worthy kyng / in swich a brike 3580
[Officer de Messuy
of Britanay.]

O worthy Petro / kyng of Cipro also
That Alisandre wan / by heigh maistrie
ful many an hethen / wroughtestow ful wo
Of which / thyns owene liges hadde envie
And for no thyng / but for thy chivalrie
They in thy bed / han slayn thee by the morwe
Thus kan fortune / hire wheel gouerne and gye
And out of Ioye / bryngs men to sorwe 3588
[Peter of Cyprus.]

HENGWRT 212, 221 (6-r. 208)

268 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Allas fortune she that whilom was Dredful to kyngis & to emperourys
Now gaurth al the peple on hire allas
And she that helmede was in starke stourys 3560
And wan by force townys stronge & tourys
Schal on hire heed now were a vitremyte
And she that bar the Ceptre ful of flouris
Schal here a distaf hire costes forto quyte 3564
[Peter the Cruel, of Spain.]

.O. noble .O. worthy Petro glorie of Spayne [on f 208] Petro Whom fortune heeld<sup>1</sup> so highe in magesto [f 208]
Wel oughtyn men thyns petous deoth to compleyne
Out of thyn land thyn brothir made the fle 3568
And after at a seage by subytleteo
Thow were betrayned & lad vn-to his tente Whereas as he with his owene hand slow the Succedyng in thy regne & in thyn rente 3572

The feild<sup>2</sup> of snow / with the egel<sup>3</sup> of blak<sup>2</sup> therin [f 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000]
Caught with the lymrod coloured al with glede [Interced de
He brew this cusednesse & al this synne Quencia.]
The wikked nest was werker of this nede 3576
Noght Charles / Olyuer that tok ay hede
Of trouthe & honour but of armoryke
Genyllon Olyuer corrupt for meede
Broughte this worldi kyng to swich a bryke 3580
[Officer de Messuy
of Britanay.]

O worthy Petro Kyng of Cipre also [leaf 202, back] Petro That Alisaundero wan by high maystrye ful manye an hethene wroughtist how ful wo
Of which tweyne oune lyges hadde envie
And for no thyng but for thy chivalrie
They in thyn bed han slayn thee by the morwe
Thus can fortune / hire wheel gouerne & gye
And out of Ioye bryngs men to sorwe 3588
[Peter of Cyprus.]

CAMBRIDGE (6-r. 208)

¶ Allas fortune sche þat whilom was Dreadful to kynges and to emperoures ·
Now gauereþ alle þe peple on hire allas ·
And sche þat helmed was in starke stoures ·
And wan by force townes stronge and toures ·
Schal on hire heede were a vytromyte
And sche þat bar þe sceptre ful of floures
Schal bere a distaff hir costes for to quyte

[Peter the Cruel, of Spain.]

¶ O noble o worþy petre glorie of Spayne Whom fortune heilde so heyh in mageste
Wel oughte men þin pitous dep compleyne
Thy bastard broþer made þe to fle
And after at a sege by subtilite þow were betrayed and lad to his tent
Wher as he wiþ his owne hand slough þe Succedyng in þy regne and in þin rent

¶ De Petro
Spayne
¶ Rego
(I recently marked it in manuscript, by a later scribe, as follows:
(De into Rego).
3560
3572

¶ The feeld of snow wiþ þe egle blak þer-Inne Caught wiþ þe lynarodde coloures as þe glede he brew þis cursednes and al þe synne
The wicked neste was werker of þis nede Nought Charles Olyuer þat ay took godheede
Of troupe and honour but of armorekke
Genyoun Olyuer corrupte for mede Broughtest þis worþi king in such a brekke

¶ Bertheun Claykn
¶ Olyuer Mawny
[Bertrand du Guesclin, le plus vaillant des Chevaliers de France, p. 271.] 3578 3580

[Peter of Cyprus.]

¶ Worþy Petro king of Cypro also þat Alisaunde wan by heigh maystrie ful many an heþen wroughtest þou ful wo
Of which þin owne leges had enye
And for no þing but for þin Chivalrie
They in þin bedde haan slayn þe by þe morwe
Thus gan fortune gouerne and gye
And out of Ioye bringe men in-to sorwe

¶ De petro regis ¶ Cyri 3584
3588

Allas fortune she þat whilom was Dreadful to kynges and to emperoures ·
Now gauereþ alle þe peple on hir allas
And she þat helmed was in stronge stoures
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Shal on her heede bere a Vitromyte
And she þat bar þe sceptre ful of floures Shal bye a dystaf her costes forto quite

[Peter the Cruel, of Spain.]

O noble o worþi petre glory of Spayn
Whom fortune heilde so hiþe in maiste
Wel oujt men þi pitous deþ compleyn
Thi bastard broþer made þe to fle
And after at a siege by subtilite
Thowe were hytraid and lad to his tent
Wher as he wiþ his owne honde seloght þe Succedyng in þi regne and in þi rent

3560
3568 3572

The feilde of snow wiþ þe Egle blak þer-Inne
Caught wiþ þe lynce rodde colours as þe glede
He brew þis cursednesse and al þe synne þe wicked neste was werker of þis nede ·
Nought Charles Olyfere þat ay toke good hede
Of troupe of honoure but Armorekke
Genuilof Olyuer corrupte for nede Broustest þis worþi king in such a brekke

[Bertrand du Guesclin.]
3576 [Offer de Mawny of Mawny.] 3580

[Peter of Cyprus.]

¶ worþi Petro kyngs of Cypro also · That Alisaunde wan by heigh maistris ful mony a heþen wroughtest þou for wo
Of which þine owne leges had enye
And for no þing but for þi chivalrie
They in þi bed han slayn þe by þe morwe
Thus gan fortune gouerne and gie
And out of Ioye bringe into sorwe

¶ Alas fortune sche þat whilom was Dreadful to kynges & to emperoures.
Now gauereþ al þe peple on hire alace ·
And sche þat elmed was in stark stoures ·
And wanne be fors townes stronge & toures Schal on hore nows were a fitermyte
And sche þat bar þe Sceptre ful of floures
Schal bere a distaf here cost for to qwyte

De Petro Hispanyo Rege .

¶ O noble o worþi Petro of spayne Whome fortune heilde so hiþe in maiste
Wole ouhte men þi pitous dep compleine
Thi bastard broþer maude þe to fle
And after att a sege be subtilite
Thowe were betraide & ladde to his tent
Where as he wiþ his owne hand slouþe þe Succedings in þi Regne & in þi Rent
Betelmewe Claykeynne<sup>1</sup>. Oliuer Mawnye

3560
3568 3572

¶ The feilde of snow wiþ þe egle blak þer-Inne
Cauht wiþ þe lime Rodde colours as þe glede
He brew þis cursednesse and al þe sinne
The wykked nest was wirkir of þis nede Nouht Charles & Olyuer þat ay toke good hede
Of troupe & honour bot of Armorekke
Genyoun Olyuer corrupt for mede Brouhtest þis worþi kinge in such a brekke.

[Bertrand du Guesclin.] 3576 3580

De Petro Rege Cipri

¶ Worþe Petro kinge of Cypre also That Alisaunde wanne be hiþe maistryo ful mony an eyen wrouhtest þou ful wo
Of whiche þine owne leges hadde enye
And for no þing bot for þi chivalrie
Thei in þi bedde han slayne þe be þe morwe
Thus gan fortune gouerne & gye
And out of Ioye bringe men in to sorwe

[Bernabo Visconti, of Milan.]
Of Melan / grete Barnabo Viscounte ¶ De Barnabo
God of deliþ / and scourge of Lumbardy de Lumbardya
Why sholde I nat' thyn Infortune accounte Sith in estat / thou cloume were so hye (leaf 181, back) Thy brother sone / that was thy double allye
for he thy Newew was / and sone in lawe
With-inne his prison / made thee to dye
But why ne how / noot I þat thou were slave 3596

[Ugolino, Count of Pisa.]
Of the Erl Hugelyn of Pyzo / the langour ¶ De Hugelyn
Ther may no tonge / telle for pitee lino Comite
But litel out of Pize / stant a tour de Pize
In which toun / in prison put was he 3600
And with hym / been hise litel children thre
The eldeste / scarcely / fyf year was of Age
Allas fortune / it was greet crueltee
Swiche briddes / for to putte / in swiche a Cage 3604

Dampned was he / to dyen in that prison
for Roger / which þat Bishope was of Pize
Hadde on hym maad / a fals suggestion
Thurgh which / the peple / gan vpon hym rise 3608
And putten hym to prison / in swich wise
As ye han herd / and mete / and drynke he hadde
So smal / that vnnethe it may suffice
And therewithal / it was ful poure and badde 3612

And on a day / bifil / þat in that hour
Whan þat his mete / went was to be brought
The Gayler shette the doores of the tour
He herde it wel / but he spak right noght
And in his herte / anon ther fil a thought
That they for hunger / wolde doon hym dyen
Allas quod he / allas that I was wroght
Ther-with / the teeris fillen from hise eyen 3620

[Bernabo Visconti, of Milan.]
Of Melan / grete Barnabo Viscounte / De Barnabo /
God of deliþ / and scourge of Lumbardy
Why sholde I noght thyn Infortune accounte Sith in estat / thou cloume were so hye 3592
Thy brother sone / that was thy double allye
for he thy Newew was / and sone in lawe
With-Inne his prison / made thee to dye
But why ne how / noot .i. that thou were slave 3596

[Ugolino, Count of Pisa.]
Of the Erl Hugelyn of Pize / the langour / De hugelyn
Ther may no tonge / tallen for pitee Comite de Pize
But litel out of Pize / stant a tour
In which[is] tour / in-prison put was he 3600
And with hym been / hise litel children thre
The eldeste scarcely / fyue year was of age
Allas fortune / it was greet crueltee
Swiche briddes / for to putte in swich a cage 3604

¶ Dampned was he / to dyen in that prison
for Roger / which þat bishope was of Pize
Hadde on hym maad / a fals suggestion
Thurgh which the peple / gan vp on hym rise 3608
And putten hym to prison / in swich wise
As ye han herd / and mete and drynke he hadde
So smal / that wek vnnethe it may suffice
And ther with al / it was ful poure and badde 3612

[¶] And on a day bifil / þat in that hour (leaf 180, back) Whan þat his mete / went was to be brought
The Gayler / shette the doores of the tour
He herde it wel / but he spak / right noght
And in his herte / anon ther fil a thought
That they for hunger / wolde doon hym dyen
Allas quod he / allas þat I was wroght
Ther with / the teeris fillen from hise eyen 3620

[Bernabo Visconti, of Milan.]
¶ Of Melan grete <sup>1</sup>Barnabo Viscounte (f. 181)
God of delys / & schourge of lumbardy
Whi shulde I nougth thyu Infortune accounte Syn in estat thou clombyn veere so hye 3592 Thyn brotherys sone that was thyn double allye for he thyn newew was & sone in lawe
With-inne his prysoun made the to deye
But why he how not I that thou were slave 3596

[Ugolino, Count of Pisa.]
¶ Of the Erl hugelyn of Pyre the langour
There may no tunge telle for pite
But lytyl out of Pize stant a tour
In which tour in prysoun put was he 3600
And with hym been hise lyte childere thre
The oldeste skarsly fyue year was of age
Allas fortune it was greet crewelle
Swiche bryddis to putte in swich a cage 3604

Dampned was he to deye in that prysoun
For Roger which that bishop was of Pyze Hadde on hym mad a fals suggestioun
Thour the peple gan vp-on hym ryse 3608
And puttyu hym in prysoun in swich wyse
As so han herd & mete & drynk he hadde
So smal that wel aneth it may suffise
And there wilth it was ful poure & badde 3612

And on a day by-fel that in that hour Whan that his meete / went was to been brought [The Isylour shet þe doores of þe toure (lines MS 1635, on leaf 180)]
As in hye herte a none þere felle a þougt þat þei for hungre wolde dome hem dye Alas . quod he Alas þat I was wroght þere-with þe teeres felle fro þe eye 3620

[Barnabo Visconti, of Milan.]

¶ Of Melane greth barnabo viscounte ¶ De Barnabo
God of delite and scourge of lombardie viscounte
Why schuldre noust I þi fortune accounts ¶ Mediolano / Seppen in estaat þou clombe were so hille 3592 Thin broþer some þat was þin double allye for he þin neow was and some in lawe [¶ 4143]
Wipinne his prison made þe to deye
But why ne how wot I þat þou were slawe // 3596

[Ugolino, Count of Pisa.]

¶ Of þe erl hugelyne of Pyse þe langour ¶ De hugelyno Ther may no tunge telle for pite Comite Pisano.
But lytel out of pyse stant a toure
In which toure in prison putte was he 3600
And wip him ben his litel children þre
The eldest scarcely .v. 3er was of age allas fortune it was grete cruelte Suche briddes for to putte in such a kage 3604

¶ Dampned he was to deyen in þat prison for Roger which þat bischop was of pyse Hudde on him maede a fals suggestion
Thorgh which þe pople gan on him aryse 3608
And putten him to prysoun in swich wyse
As 3e han herd and mete and drynk he hadde
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ]
And þer-wip-ai it was ful pore and badde 3612

¶ And on a day bifelle þat in þat oure Whan þat his mete was wont to be brought
The Gailler schutte þe dores of þe toure
He herde it wel but he saugh it nouht 3616
And in his herte anon þer felle a pouht þat þei for hunger wolde don him deyen Alas quod he alas þat I was wrouht
þer-wip þe teeres felle fro his eyen 3620

[Barnabo Visconti, of Milan.]

Of Melane grete Barnabo Viscounte
¶ God of delite and scourge of lombardie Whi schuld' not I þi fortune accounts
Sij in estaat þou clomben were so hie 3592 Thy broþer some þat was þi double allye for he þi Neow was and some in lawe Wip-in his prison made þe to die
But whi ne howe wote I þat þou were slawe 3596

[Ugolino, Count of Pisa.]

Of the Erl Hugelyne of piso þe langour
Ther may no tunge telle for pite
But litel out of Pisa stant a tour
In whiche toure in prison put was he 3600
And wip hym bene his litel children þre þe eldest scarcely .v. 3ere was of age [¶ 4143, back] Alas fortune it was grete crueltie
Suche briddes forto putte into a cage 3604

¶ Dampned he was to dye in þat prison for Roger which þat bischop was of piso Had on him made a fals suggestion
Thorgh which þe puple gan on hym arise 3608
And putten him in prison in such a wise
As 3e han herd and mete and drinke he had.
So smal þat vmeþes it may suffice
And þerwipal it was ful poor and bad 3612

In a day byfelle þat in þat houre Whan þat his [mete] was wonte to be wrouht þe Gailour schette þe doores of þe toure
He herde it wel but he saugh it nouht 3616
And in his hert' anon þer felle a pouht þat þei for hunder' wolde done hym dyen
Alas quod he alas þat I was wrouht
þer-wip þe teeres felle fro his eyen. 3620

De Barnabo vicecomite Mediolano.

¶ Of Milane grete Barnabo viscounte
¶ God of delice & scourge of Lombardie Whi scholde noust .I. þine fortune a-counte Sothen in estate þou clome were so hille . 3592
Thine Broþer some þat was þine double allie
For he þi neow was & some in lawe
Wip-in his prison made þe to deye
Bot whie ne howe woote .I. þat þou wer slawe 3596

¶ De Hugilinc Comyte Pisano. [¶ 4143]

Of þe Erl Hugelyne of Pisa þe Langoure
Therz maie no tunge tel for pite
Bot litel out of Pisa stant a toure
In wiche toure in prison put was he 3600
And wip him ben his litel children þre þe eldest scarcely .v. 3ere was of age
Alas fortune it was grete cruelte
Suche burdes to putte in such a cage 3604

¶ Dampned he was to deye in þat prison
For Roger þat bischop was of Pise
Hadde on him maede a fals suggestioun
Thorwþe þe pople gan on him a-rise 3608
And putten him to prison in suche wise
As 3e hane herde & mete & drinke he hadde
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ]
And þer-wip-ait it was ful pore & badde . 3612

¶ And one a daie be-fell þat inne þat oure Whan þat his mete was wonte to be brought
The gayler schette þe dores of þe toure
He herde it wele bot he sawe it nouht 3616
And in his hert' anon þere fell a pouht þat þei for hunger wolde done him deyen
Alas quod he alas þat .I. was wrouht þer-wipe þe teeres ful fro hyzon 3620

270 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

His yonge sone / that thre yere was of age
 Vn-to hym seyde / fader / fader // why do ye wepe
 Whanne wol the Gayler / bryngen oure potage
 Is ther no marsel broed / that ye do kepe 3624
 I am so hungry / that I may nat slepe
 Now wolde god / that I myghte slepen euere Thanne sholdt nat hunger / in my wombe crepe
 Ther is no thyng<sup>o</sup> but broed / that me were leuere 3628

Thus day by day / this child bigan to crye
 Til in his fadres barn / adoun it lay
 And seyde / fare wol fader / I moot dye
 And kiste his fader / and dyde the same day 3632
 And when the woful fader / deed it say
 for wo / hise Armes two / he gan to byte
 And seyde / Allas fortune and weylaway [leaf 182r]
 Thy false wheel / my wo al may I wryte 3636

Hise children wende / that it for hunger was
 That he hise Armes gnou / and nat for wo
 And seyde fader / do nat so Allas
 But rather ete the flessch vp-on vs two 3640
 Oure flessch thou yat / take oure flessch vs fro
 And ete ynogh / right thus they to hym seyde
 And after that with-Inne a day or two
 They leyde hem / in his lappe adoun and deyde 3644

Hym-self despeired / oek for hunger starf
 Thus ended is / this myghty Erl of Pize
 from heigh esta<sup>t</sup> fortune away hym carf
 Of this Tragedie / it oughte ynough suffise 3648
 Who so wol here it in a lenger wise
 Redeth / the grete Poete of ytaille
 That highte Dant<sup>o</sup>, for he kan al deuyse
 fro point to point<sup>o</sup>, nat o word wol he faille 3652
 [The Monk's End-link follows in the MS. See p. 281.]

ELLESMEERE (6-r. 270)

270 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 223, 224

¶ His yonge sone / þat thre yere was of age
 Vn-to hym seyde / fader / fader / why do ye wepe
 Whanne wol the Gayler / bryngen oure potage
 Is ther no marsel broed / þat ye do kepe 3624
 I am so hungry / that I may nat slepe
 Now wolde god / þat I myghte slepen euere Thanne sholdt nocht hunger / in my wombe crepe
 Ther is no thyng but broed / þat me were leuere 3628

¶ Thus day by day / this child bigan to crye
 Til in his fadres barn / adoun it lay
 And seyde / farewell fader / I moot dye
 And kiste his fader / and deyde the same day 3632
 And when the woful fader / deed it say
 for wo / hise armes two / he gan to byte
 And seyde / allas fortune and weylaway
 Thy false wheels / my wo al may I wryte 3636

¶ Hise children wende / that it for honger was
 That he hise armes gnou / and nat for wo
 And seyden fader / do nat so allas
 But rather / ete the flessch vp-on vs two 3640
 Oure flessch thou yat<sup>o</sup> tak oure flessch vs fro
 And ete ynou<sup>o</sup> / right thus they to hym seyde
 And after that with-Inne a day / or two
 They leyde hem / in his lapp<sup>o</sup> adoun / and deyde 3644

¶ Hym self despeired / eek / for hunger starf
 Thus ended is / this myghty Erl of Pize
 from heigh esta<sup>t</sup>. fortune away hym carf
 Of this tragedie / it oughte ynough suffise 3648
 Who so wole it here it in a lenger wise
 Redeth / the grete Poete of Ytaille
 That highte Dant<sup>o</sup>, for he kan al deuyse
 fro point to point<sup>o</sup> nat o word wol he faille 3652
 [The Monk's End-link follows in the MS. See p. 281.]

HENGWERT 223, 224 (6-r. 270)

270 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

His yonge sonne þre yere was of age [Sloane MS 1082]
 Vnto hym said fader why do þe wepe
 When wille þe Gaylour bryng our potage
 Is þere no morselle brode þat þe do kepe 3624
 I am so hongerye þat I may not slepe
 Nowe wolde god þat I mygte slepen euere [Than schulde non hungre in my wombe crepe. [leaf 178r, 182r]
 Ther / is / nothyng<sup>o</sup> saue broed that me were leuyt / 3628

Thys kny by day þe childre gan to crye [Sloane MS 1082, on l/200]
 Tyllt in hys faders barn a doune hit lay
 And said fadir / fare wole I moot deye
 And kyste hys fader and deyde þe same daye 3632
 And when hys woofulle fader did hym saye for . wou hys armes too he gan to byte And sayde fortune Alas and weylaway
 þi. false wyles my woo I may wryte 3636

His children þat fortune hungry was þat he hys armes gnewe and not for wo
 And said fader do not so Alas.
 But rathere ete þe flessche vpon vs twooo 3640
 Oure flessch þou yareste vs take oure flessche vs fro .
 And ete n-oupe right þus to hym þei saide [leaf 209, 210r, 362r]
 And after þat with-In a day or two þei leyde hem doune in his lappe & dyed 3644

Hym selfe despeired eke for honger starf Thus ended ys þe myyti Erl of pyse fro hys estate fortune fro hym carf
 Of þis Tregedye hit ouyt ynouye suffise 3648 ho . so wylle here hit / in a lenger wyse Redeth þe grete poete of Itayle þat / hys / Daunte for he kan hit deuyse 3652 fro poynte to poynte not oo worde wille he fayle [Sloane cr. tract endle]

CAMBRIDGE (6-r. 270) [this page, Sloane 1082]

GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. CORPUS MS. SIX-TEXT 270

¶ his zonge some þat þro ȝere was of age vnto him sayde fader why do ȝe wepe
When wil þe Gaylers bringen oure potage
Is þer no morsel bred þat ȝe do kepe 3624
I am so hungry þat I may nouȝt slepe
Now wolde god þat I might slepen euer Thanne schulde non hunger in my wombe crepe þer nys no þing sauþ þred þat me were leuer 3628

¶ Thus day by day þis childre gan to crye Til in his fadres barne a doun it lay
And sayde fare wel fader I mott daye [Def 214, back] 3632
And kissed his fader and deyde þe same day
And when þe woful fader ded him say for wo his armes tuo he gan to byte /
And sayde allas fortune and welaway
Thyn fals wheel my wo I may al wryte 3636

¶ His children wende þat it for hunger was þat he his armes gnoue and nouȝt for wo
And sayde fader do nouȝt so allas
Butt raper ete þe fleisch vpon oure tuo 3640
Oure fleisch þou ȝaf vs take oure fleisch vs fro
And ete youȝht riȝt þus to him þay sayde /
And after þat wipþinne a day or tuo
They leyde hem doun riȝt in his lappe and deyde / 3644

Himself dispeyred oek for hunger starf
Thus ended is þe mighty erle of Pyse fro heil estate fortune fro him karf
Of þis tregedrye it ouȝt youȝht suffise / 3648
Who so wil here it in a lenger wise
Redeþ þe grete poete of ytalle /
That highte daunte for he can it deuys fro poynþ to poynþ nouȝt o word wol he fayle 3652

CORPUS (6-T. 270)

GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. POTWORTH MS. SIX-TEXT 270

His zonge some þro þer were of age vnto hym seide fadere whi do ȝe wepe when wil þe Gallours bringe our potage
Is þer no morsel brode þat [ye] doo kepe 3624
I am so hungry þat I may nat slepe Nowe wolde god þat I myȝt slepen euer þan shuld noon hungre in myn herte crepe þer nys no þing sauþ brode þat me were leuere 3628

Thus day by day þis childre gan to crie
Til in his faders barne adoune it lay
And seide fare wel fadere I mote dye
And kissed his fadere and dyed þe same day 3632
And when þe woful fadere did hym say for woo his armes tuo he gan to bite
And seide allas fortune and welaway
Thy fals whele my wo I may al wite 3636

His childer [wende] þat hit for hunger was
þat he his armes gnoue and nouȝt for wo.
þei seiden fadere do nouȝt so allas
Butt raper ete þe fleisch vpon vs tuo. [Def 214] 3640
Oure flesche þou ȝaf vs take our fleisch vs fro
And ete youȝte riȝt þus to hym þei seide
And after þat wipþinne a day or tuo þei leide hem doun in his lappe and deyde 3644

Hym self dispeyred eke and for hu[n]ger starf Thus ended is þe myȝty erle of pise for highte estate fortune fro hym carf
Of his tregedrie it ouȝt youȝht suffise 3648
Who so wil here it in a lenger wise
Redeþ þe grete poete of ytalle þat highte Daunte, for he can it deuise ffrom poynþ to poynþe no þing wil he faille. 3652

POTWORTH (6-T. 270)

GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. LANSDOWNE MS. SIX-TEXT 270

¶ His zonge son þat þrou ȝere was of age vnto him seide fader whi do ȝe wepe
When wil þe Gaylours bringen oure potage
Is þere no morsel brede þat ȝe do kepe 3624
I am so hungry þat .I. maie nouȝt [slepe]
Now wolde god þat .I. myȝt slepe euet þan scholde none hunger in my wombe crepe þar nys noþinge saue brede þat me were leuere 3628

¶ þus daie be daye þis childre gan to crie
Til in his fader berne adoune it leye
And seide fader fare wel .I. mote deye
And kissed his fader & deyed þe same daye 3632
And when þe woful fader dode him sey
For woo his arme tuo he gan to bite
And seid alas fortune! & walawaye þine fals whele my wo .I. al wite 3636

¶ His childern wende þat it for hungere was þat he his arme gnouwe & nouȝt for wo
And seid fader do nouȝt so alas [Def 214, back] 3640
Dot raper ete þe flesche vpon vs tuo
Oure flesche þou ȝaf vs tak oure flesche vs fro
And ete youȝte riȝt þus to him þei seide
And after þat wipþinne a daie or tuo þei leide hem doun in his lappe & deyed 3644

¶ Him self dispeired eke for hunger starf þus endede is þe mihte Erle of Pise Fro hihe a state fortune fro him carf
Of þis tregedrie it ouȝt .L. nouȝte suffise 3648
Who so wile here it in a longer wise Reede þe grete Poete of Italle
That hiht Daunte for he can it deuise Fro poynþe to poynþe nouȝt o worde wil he faille 3652

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 270)

[Nero.]

A I though / that Nero were vicious (on 1267/17, 24) ¶ Nero
As any feend that lith in helle adoun
Yet he / as telleth vs Swetonius
This wyde world / hadde in subieccioun 3656
Bothe Est and West North / and Septemtrious
Of Rubics / saphires / and of perles white
Were alle hise clothes / brouded vp and doun
ffor he in gemmes / greetly gan delite 3660

Moore delicat<sup>r</sup> moore pompos of array
Moore proud / was neuere Emperour than he
That ilke clooth / þat he hadde wored o day
After that tyme / he nolde it neuere see 3654
Nettes of gold threed / hadde he greet plentie
To fische in Tybro / whan hym liste pleye Hise lustes were al lawe / in his decree
ffor fortune / as his frend / hym wolde obeye 3668

He Rome brende / for his delicacie
The Senatours / he slow vp-on a day
To heere / how men wolde wepe and crye
And slow his brother / and by his suster lay 3672
His mooder made he / in pitous array ffor he / hire wombe alitte / to biholde
Where he conceyued was so weylaway
That he so litel / of his mooder tolde 3676

No teere out of hise eyen / fgr that sighte
No cam / but seyde / a fair woman was she Greet wonder is / how þat he koude / or myghte
Be domesman / of hire dede beaute 3680
The wyn to bryngen hym comanded he
And drank / anon / noon oother wo he made
Whan myght is ioyned vn-to crueltee
Allas to depe / wol the venym wade 3684

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 271)

[Nero.]

A I though / that Nero were vicious (on 1267/17) / De Nerone
As any feend / that lyth ful lowe adoun
Yet he / as telleth vs Swetonius
This wide world / hadde in subieccioun 3656
Bothe Est and West North / and Septemtrious
Of Rubics / Saphires / and of perles white
Were alle hise clothes / brouded vp and doun
ffor he in gemmes / greetly gan delite 3660

¶ Moore delicat<sup>r</sup> moore pompos of array
Moore proud / was neuere Emperour than he
That ilke clooth / that he hadde wored o day
After that tyme / he nolde it neuere see 3654
Nettes of gold threed / hadde he greet plentie
To fischen in Tybro / whan hym liste pleye
Hise lustes were al lawe / in his decree
ffor fortune / as his frend / hym wolde obeye 3668

¶ He Rome brende / for his delicacie
The Senatours / he slow vp-on a day
To heere / how þat men wolde wepe & crye
And slow his brother / and by his suster lay 3672
His moder he made / in pitous array ffor he hire wombe alytte / to biholde
Where he conceyued was / so weylaway
That he so litel / of his moder tolde 3676

¶ No teere out of hise eyen / for that sighte
No cam / but seyde / a fair woman was she
Greet wonder is / how þat he koude / or myghte
Be domesman / of hire dede beaute 3680
The wyn to bryngen hym / comanded he
And drank anon / noon oother wo he made
Whan myght is ioyned / vn-to crueltee
Allas to depe / wol the venym wade 3684

HENGWRT 212, 213 (6-T. 271)

[Nero.]

Al-though that Nero were vicious (on 1267/17, 24) Nero
As any feend that lyth ful lowe a-doun
3it as tellyth vs Switonius
This wide world hadde in subieccioun 3656
Bothe est & west / North & Septemtrious
Of Rubees Safferys / & of perlys whyte
Weere alle hise clothis broudedo vp & doue
For he in gemmys gretly gan delyte 3660

More delicat / more pompos of array
Moore proud was neuere emperour than hee
That ilke cloth that he hadde wored a day
Aftyr that tyme he wolde it neuere so 3654
Nettis of gold thred hadde he greet plente
To fysche in tybro whan hym lysto to pleye
His lustis were alle lawe in his decree (last 296)
For fortune as his frend / hym wolde obeye 3668

He Rome brende for his delicacie
The Senatouris he slow vp-on a day
To heere how that men schulde weeps & crye
And slow his brothir & by his sistyr lay 3672
His modyr made he in pytous array ffor he hyre wombe alytte to byholde Wheree he conseyuod was so weyle-away
That he so lytyl of his modyr tolde 3676

No teer out of hise eyen for that syght
No cam but seyde a fayr woman was shee Greet wonder is how that he coude or myghte
Be domyeman of hire dede beaute 3680
The wyn to bryngyn hym comaundode he
And drank a-noon / non othyr wo he made Whan myght is ioyned on to crueltee
Allas to deepe wil the venym wade 3684

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 271)

[Nero.]

1 ¶ Al þough þat Nero was as vicious
 As eny fend þat liþ ful lowe adoun 3æt he as telleþ vs Swetheneus
 This wilde world hap in Subieccioun Boþe Est and west and Septemtrioun
 Of Rubies Saphires and of perlis white Were all his cloþes brouded vp and doun for he in gemmes grete gan delite

De nero

[I strongly suspect A. to be a later correction, to parallelize Nero of Spain.]

3656

3660

¶ More delicate more pompos of araye
 More proude was neuer Emperour þan he þat ilke cloþ þat he had wored a day After þat tyme he nolde it neuer see
 Nettes of golde þred hadde he gret plente
 To fische in Tybre when him leste to pleye
 His lusted were as lawe in his degre for fortune as his freende wolde him obeye

3664

[Deut 214]

3668

¶ He Rome brent for his delicacye
 The senatours he slough vpon a day
 To heere how þat men wolde wepe and crye
 And slough his broþer and by his suster lay His mooder made he in pitous arye for he hire wombe alitte to byholde Where he conceyued was so welaway þat he so litel of his moder tolde

3672

3676

¶ No teere out of his eyhen for þat sight
 Ne came but sayde a fair woman was sche Gret wonder is þat he couþe or might Be domesman of hire ded bewte
 The wyne to byryge þe comanded he And dranke anon. non oþer wo he made /
 Whan might is loyned vnto cruelte
 Alas to deepe wole þe venym wade

3680

3684

CORPUS (6-T. 271)

¶ De nerone Imperatore.

A þough þat Nero was as vicious
 As eny fend þat lioth ful lowe adoun 3it he as telleþ vs swetheneus
 This wide world had in subieccion
 Both east and west and Septemtriou
 Of Rubies Saphires and pearles white Were al his [cloþes] þrowd[ed] vp and doune
 for he [in] gemmes grete gan delite

3656

3660

More delicate more pompos of araye
 More proude was neuer Emperour þan he þat ilke cloþe þat he had wored a day
 After þat tyme he nolde it neuer see
 Nettes of gold threde had he grete plente
 To fisshen in Tybre whan hym list to pleye His lusted [ware] as lawe in his degre for fortune as his frende wold hym obeye

3664

3668

¶ He Rome brent for his delicacye
 The Senatours he selough vpon a day
 To heere how þat men wolde wepe and crye
 And selough his broþer and by his suster [lay] His moder made he in pitous arye for he her wombe selitte to byholde wher he conceyued was so welaway
 That he so litel of his moder tolde

3672

3676

No teer out of his eyen for þat sight
 Ne came but saide a faire woman was also Grete wonders is þat he coude or myȝt
 Be Domes man of her dede bewte.
 The wyne to byryge comanded he
 And dranke anon none oþer woo he made Whan myȝt is loyned vnto cruelte
 Alas to depe wil þe venym wade

[Deut 214, back]

3680

3684

PETWORTH (6-T. 271)

De Nero Imperatore.

¶ Alþough þat Nero was as vicious
 As fend þat liþe ful lowe adounne 3it he as telleþ vs ewytheneus þis wide worlde hadde in subieccioun Boþe est & west & septemtrion
 Of Rebes safars & of Perles white
 Were al his cloþes brouded vp & doune
 For he in Gemmis grete gan delite

3656

3660

¶ More delicate more Pompos of arais More proude was neuere Emperoure þan he þat ilke cloþe þat he hadde wored a daie
 After þat tyme he nold it neuere see Nettes of gold þrede hadde he grette plente
 To fyshen in tybre whan him luste to pleie
 His lusted were as lawe in his degre
 For fortune as his frende wolde him obeye

3664

3668

¶ He Rome brent for his delicacye
 The Senatours he slough vpon a day
 To howe þat men wolde wepe & crye
 And slough his broþer & by his suster laye
 His moder Maude he in pytous arnie
 For he hir wombe alitte to be-holde
 Where he conceyued was so walaway
 þat he so litel of his moder tolde

3672

3676

¶ No teere oute of his eyen for þat silt Ne came Bot seide a faire woman was sche
 Grete wonder is þat he couþe or miht
 Be domeseman of hire dede bewte
 The wyne to bringe commande he And dranke anone none oþer woo he maade
 Whan might is loyned vnto cruelte
 Alas to depe wil þe venym wade

[Deut 214]

3680

3684

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 271)

272 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

In yowthe / a maister hadde this Emperour [Def 179]
To teche hym leturure / and curteisye
ffor of moralitee / he was the flour
As in his tyme / but if bookee lye 3688
And whil this maister / hadde of hym maistrye
He maketh hym / so konnyng and so souple
That longe tyme it was / or tyrannye
Or any vice / dorste on hym vncouple 3692

This Seneca / of which that I deuyse
By cause Nero / hadde of hym swich drede ffor he fro vices / wolde hym chastise
Discretly / as by word / and nat by dede 3696
Sire wolde he seyn / an Emperour moot nedde
Be vertuous / and hate tyrannye
ffor which / he in a bath / made hym to blede
On bothe hisse armes / til he mooste dye 3700

This Nero / hadde eek / of acoustumance
In yowthe / agayns his maister for to ryse
Which afterward / hym thoughte a greet greunance
Therefore / he made hym dyen in this wise 3704
But natheles / this Seneca the wise
Chees in a bath to dye / in this manere
Rather than han / any oother tormentise
And thus hath Nero / slayn his maister deere 3708

Now fil it so / that fortune liste no lenger
The hye pryde of Nero to cherice
ffor thogh þat he was strong yet was she stronger
She thoughte thus / by god I am to nyce 3712
To sette a man / that is fulfilld of vice
In heigh degre / and Emperour hym calle
By god / out of his sete / I wol hym trice
Whan he leest weneth / sonnest shal he falle 3716

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 272)

272 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 213, 214

[¶] In yowthe / a maister hadde this Emperour [Def 179, back]
To teche hym leturure / and curteisye
ffor of moralitee / he was the flour
As in his tyme / but if bookee lye 3688
And whil this maister / hadde of hym maistrye
He maketh hym / so louyng and so souple
That longe tyme it was / or tyrannye
Or any vice / dorste in hym vncouple 3692

¶ This Seneca / of which þat I deuyse
By cause Nero / hadde of hym swich drede
ffor he fro vices / wolde hym ay chastise
Discretly / as by word / and nat by dede 3696
Sire wolde he seyn / an Emperour moot nedde
Be vertuous / and hate tyrannye
ffor which he in a bath / made hym to blede
On bothe hisse armes / til he mooste dye 3700

¶ This Nero / hadde eek / of acoustumance
In yowthe / agayns his maister for to rise
Which afterward / hym thoughte a greet greunance
Therefore / he made hym dyen in this wise 3704
But natheles / this Seneca the wise
Chees / in a bath / to dye in this maners
Rather than han / another tormentrise
And thus hath Nero / slayn his maister deere 3708

¶ Now fil it so / that fortune liste no lenger
The hye pride of Nero / to cherice
ffor thogh þat he was strong yet was she stronger
She thoughte thus / by god I am to nyce 3712
To sette a man / that is fulfilld of vice
In heigh degre / and Emperour hym calle
By god / out of his sete I wol hym trice
Whan he leest weneth / sonnest shal he falle 3716

HENGWRT 213, 214 (6-T. 272)

272 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

In yowthe a maystyr hadde this Emperour
To teche hym leturure & curteisye
For of moralite he was the flour
As in his tyme but jif bokis lye 3688
And whil this Maystyr hadde of hym maystrye
He maketh hym so cunning<sup>1</sup> & so souple [1 sig corrected]
That long tyme it was er tyranye
Or any vice durste on hym encouple 3692

This Seneca / of which that I deuyse
By cause that Nero hadde of hym swich drede
For he from vices wolde hym ay chastyse
Discretly by word & not by dede 3696
Syre wolde he seyn an emprouer mot nedde
Been veryuous & hatyn tyranne
For which he in a bath made hym to bleede
On bothe hisse armys tyl he muste deye 3700

This Nero hadde ek of a custumance [Def 205, back]
In yowthe a-goyn his maystyr for to ryse
Which aftyrward hym thoughte a greet greunance
Therefore he made hym deye in this wyse 3704
But natheles this Seneca the wise
Ches in a bath to deye in this<sup>2</sup> manere<sup>3</sup> [2-3 corrected]
Rathere than han a-nothir<sup>4</sup> turmentrise<sup>5</sup> [2-3 var, line corrected]
And thus hath Nero slayn his maystyr deere 3708

Now fil it so that fortune leste no longere
The hyghe pryde of nero to cheryce
For thow that he were strong jif was sche strengere Sche thoughte thus bi god I am to nyce 3712
To sette a man that is fullyld of vice
In high degre & emprouer hym calle
By god out of his seete I wele hym tryce Whan he leest wenyth / sonest schal he falle 3716

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 272)

¶ In zoupe a mayster hadde þis emperour
 To teche him letrure and curteyse
 For of moralite he was þe flour
 As in his tyme but if bookes lye 3688
 And whiles his mayster hadde of him maystrye
 He made him so konnyng and so souple /
 That longe tyme it was or tyrannye
 Or any vice dorste in him vncouple 3692

¶ This Seneka of which I deuyse
 By cause nero hadde of him such drede
 For he for vices wolde him chastise
 Discretly as by word and nougt by drede 3696
 Sine wolde he sayn an Emperour mot made
 Be vertuous and hate tyrannye
 For which he him in bathe made to blede
 In bope his armes til he moste dye 3700

¶ This nero hadde eek of a costumance
 In zoupe ayeins his mayster for to rise
 Which aftirward him pouht a grev greouance [Def 244, back]
 Therefore he made him deye in þis wise 3704
 But nafeles þis Seneka þe wise /
 Chees in a bathe to deye in þis manere /
 Raþer þan hau anoper tormentrye
 And þus haþ Nero slayn his mayster deere 3708

¶ Now felle it so þat fortune lust no lurger þe heilhe pryde of nero to cherische for poug he were strong; yet was sche stronger Sche pougte þus by god I am to nyse 3712
 To setten a man þat is fulfilled of vice
 In heigh degre and emperour him calle
 By god out of his sete I wol him tryce
 When he lest weneþ sonnest schal he falle 3716

In 3outhe a maister had þis emperour
 To teche hym letrure and curteyse
 For of moralite he was þe flour
 As in his tyme but gif bookes lye 3688
 And whiles his maister had of hym maistrye
 He made hym so conyng and so souple
 That longe tyme it was or tyrannye
 Or any vice in hym durst vncouple 3692

This Seneca of which [that] I devise By cause Nero had of hym such drede
 For he for vices wold hym chastise
 Discretly as by worde and nat by dede 3696
 Sine wolde he sayne an Emperour mot made
 Be vertuous and hate tyrannye
 For which he hym in bathe made to blede
 On boþ his armes til he moste dye 3700

This Nero had eke of a custumance
 In zoupe ayeins his maister for to rise
 Which aftirward hym pouht a grete greouance
 Therefore he made hym dye in þis wise 3704
 But natheles þis Seneca þe wise
 Chees in a bathe to dye in þis manere
 Raþer þan hau a noþer tormentri[s]e
 And þus haþ Nero selayn his maister dere 3708

Now felle it so þat fortune lust no lurger þe highte Pryde of Nero to cherice for poug he were stronge; yet was sche stronger
 Sche pougte þus by god I am to nyse 3712
 To sette a man þat is fulfilled in vice
 In heigh degre and Emperour hym calle
 By god out of his sete I wil him trice. [Def 244]
 when he lest weneþ sonnest schal he falle. 3716

¶ In zoupe a maister hadde þis Emperour,<sup>1</sup>
 To techo him letrure and curf[is]eys
 For of Moralite he was þe flour
 As in his tyme bott if bookes lye 3688
 And whiles his maister hadde of him þe mayster He made him so konnyng & so souple þat longe time was or tirannye
 Or any vice dunt in him vncouple 3692

¶ This Seneka of which I devise Be-cause Nero had of him suche drede
 For he for vices wold him chastise
 Discretly as þe worde & nouht be drede 3696
 Sine wolde he saie an Emperour mot nece
 Be vertuose & hate tyrannye
 For which he him in baþe maad to blede
 On boþe his armes til he most deye 3700

¶ This Nero hadde eke of a continuance
 In zoupe ayeins his maister for to rise
 Which aftirward him pouht a grete greuance
 There-fore he made him deye in þis wyse 3704
 Bot nafeles þis Seneca þe wise
 Chees in a baþpe to deye in þis manere Raþere þan haue a noþer tormentrie
 And þus haþe Nero aleyne his maister dere 3708

¶ Now fel it so þat fortune lust no longere
 The highte pryde of Nero to cherische, for poug he were stronge; yete were sche stronger Sche pouht þus be god .I. am to nyse 3712
 To sette a man þat is fulfilled of vice
 In lihe degre & Emperour him call
 Be god oute of his sete .I. wil him trise
 When he leste weneþ sonest schal he ffit 3716

273 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

The peple roos vp-on hym on a nyght for his defaute / and whan he it espied
Out of his dorez / anon he hath hym dight¶
Allone / and ther he wende han ben allied 3720
He knokked faste / and ay the moore he cried
The fasters shette they / the dorez alle for drede of this / hym thoughte þat he dyed
And wente his wey / no lenger dorste he calle 3724

The peple cryde / and rombled vp and down
That with his crys / herde he / how they seyde Where is this false tiraunt¶ this Neroun for fore / almost¶ out of his wit he broyde [conf 178, head]
And to hise goddes / pitously he preyde for socour / but it myghte nat bityde for drede of this / hym thoughte þat he deyde
And ran in-to a gardyn hym to hyde 3732

And in this gardyn / found he cherles tweye
That seten by a fyr / greet and reed
And to thise cherles two / he gan to preye
To sloen hym / and to girden of his heed¶ 3736
That to his body / whan þat he wens deed¶
Were no despit ydoon / for his defame
Hym self he slow / he koude no bettre reed
Of which / fortune lough / and hadde a game 3740

[Holofernes.]

Was neuere Capitayn / vnder a kyng / ¶ De Oloferno
That regnes mo / putte in subieccioun
Ne stronger was in feild / of alle thyng¶ 3744
As in his tyme / ne gretter of renoun
Ne moore pompos / in heigh presumpcioun
Than Oloferne / which fortune ay kiste
So likerously / and ladde hym vp and down
Til þat his heed was of / er þat he wiste 3748

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 273)

273 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 214, 215

¶ The peple roos / vp on hym / on a nyght¶
for his defaute / and whan he it espied
Out of his dorez / anon he hath hym dight¶
Allone / and there he wende han ben allyed 3720
He knokked faste / and ay the moore he cryed
The faster shette they / the dorez alle
for drede of this / hym thoughte þat he dyed
And wente his wey / no lenger dorste he calle 3724

¶ The peple cryde / and rombled vp and down [conf 186]
That with hise crys / herde he / how they seyde
Where is this false tiraunt¶ this Neroun
for fore almost¶ out of his wit he broyde 3728
And to hise goddes / pitously he preyde for socour / but it myghte noight bityde
for drede of this / hym thoughte þat he deyde
And ran in to a gardyn / hym to hyde 3732

¶ And in this gardyn / found he cherles tweye
That seton by a fyr / greet and reed
And to thise cherlis two / he gan to preye
To sloen hym / and to girden of his heed 3736
That to his body / whan þat he wens deed¶
Were no despit ydoon / for his defame
Hym self he slow / he koude no bettre reed
Of which / fortune lough / and hadde a game 3740

[Holofernes.]

¶ Was neuere Capitayn / vnder a kyng¶ / De Oloferno
That regnes mo / putte in subieccioun
Ne stronger was in feild / of alle thyng¶ 3744
As in his tyme / ne gretter of renoun
Ne moore pompos / in heigh presumpcioun
Than Oloferne / which fortune ay kiste
So likerously / and ladde hym vp and down
Til þat his heed was of / er that he wiste 3748

HENGWRT 214, 215 (6-T. 273)

273 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

The peple ros vp on hym on a nyght[¶]
For his defaute & whan he it espyed-
Out of his doris he hath a-non hym dygh[¶]
A-loone & there he wende a been alyed 3720
He knokkede faste & ay the more he cryede
The fastere schetyyn they the dorys alle
Tho wiste ho weel he hadde hym self mys gryede
And wente his wey no lengere durste he calle 3724

The peple cryede / & rumblede vp & down
That with hise cris herde he how they seyde
Where is this false tyrant¶ this neroun
For fer almost out of his wit he broyde 3728
And to hise goddis pitously he preyde
For socour but it myghte not be-tyde
For dreed of this hym thoughte he deyede
And ran in-to a gardyn hym to hyde 3732

And in this gardyn fond he cherlys tweye
That setyn by a fyr / greet & reed
And to thise cherlys two he gan to preye [conf 209]
To sloen hym & to gyrdyn of his heed 3736
That to his body whan that he was deed
Weere no dyspyt doon / for his defame
Hym selue ho slow he coude no betore red
Of whiche fortune lough & hadde game 3740

[Holofernes.]

¶ Was neuere a capitayn vnder a kyng
That regyns mo puts in subieccioun
Ne strongere was in feild¶ of alle thyng¶ [c 4 2000] 3744
As in his tyme ne grettere of renoun
Ne moore pompos in high presumpcioun
Than oloferne whiche fortune ay kyste
So licerously & ladde hym vp & down
Til that his hed was of or that he wryste 3748

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 273)

¶ The peple ros vpon him on a nyght for his defeaute and when he it aspyed
 Out of his doores anon he hap him dyght Alone and þer he wende han ben allyed he knocked faste and ay þe more he cryed þe faster schotten þey þe doores alle
 Tho wiste he wel he hadde himself begyled
 And went his way no lenger dorste he calle /

3720

3724

¶ The peple cryed and rombled vp and doun þat wip his ceeres herde he how þey sayde Where is þis false tyrant þis Neroun for fere almost out of his witte a brayde
 And to his goddes pitously he sayde for socour but it mighte nought betyde for drede of þis him þought þat he deyde and ran in to a gardyn him to huyde

3728

3732

¶ And in þis gardyn fonde he cherles tweye
 And eaten by a fuyre ful grete and rede
 And to þe cherles twey he gan to preye
 To slen him and to girden of his hede
 That to his body when þat he wate dede
 Were no despite y-dene for his defame /
 Himself he slough he coupe no better rede
 Of which fortune lough and hadde a game

[Text 245]

3740

[Holofernes.]

¶ Was neuer Capitayn vnder a kinge þat regnes no putte in subieccioun
 Ne stronger was in feild of alle þing
 As in his tyme no gretter of Renoun
 No more pompos in heigh presumpcioun
 Than Olyferne which fortune ay keste /
 So likerously and ladde him vp and doun Til þat he hed was er þat he wiste /

CORPUS (6-T. 273)

The puple roos vp on hym on a nyght
 for his defeaute and when he it aspyed.
 Out of his doores anon he hap hym dyght Allone and þer he wende haue bene allied.
 He knocked fast and ay þe more he cried Tho faster schotten þei þe doores alle þo wist he wel he had hym self myrgied.
 And went his way no lenger dorst he calle

3720

3724

The puple cried and rombled vp and doun
 That wip his ceeres herde ho what þei seide Where is þis fals traitour þis Neroun for fere almost out of his witte he bruide
 And to his goddes pitously he seide for socoure but it myght nat be-tyde for drede of þis him þougt þat he dyde
 And ranne into a gardeyne hym to hyde

3728

3732

And in þis gardyne fonde he cherles tweye
 That siten by a fuyre ful gret and rede
 And to þe cherles twey he gan to preie
 To sleen hym and to girden of his hede
 That to his body when þat he wate dede
 Were no despite ydon for his diffame
 Hym self he selowge he coude no better rede
 Of which fortune lough and made a game

3740

[Holofernes.]

¶ Was neuere Captayne vnder a kinge þat regneþ more putte in subieccioun
 Ne stronger was in feilde of al þin e
 As in his tyme no gretter of renoun
 Ne more pompos in heigh presumpcioun
 Than olyferne which that fortune ay kest
 So lyeronally and lad hym vp and doun
 Til þat his hede was of er þat he wist

PETWORTH (6-T. 273)

¶ þe Peple rose vpon him vpon a nyht
 For his defeaute & when he hadd it aspiede Oute of his doore anone he haþe him dyht Alone & þere he wende haue bue alyede
 He knocked fast & ay þe more ho cryed
 The faster schotten þei þe doores all
 Tho wist he wele he had him self be-glode
 And wente his woie no longere durst he callt

3720

[Text 214, book 1]

3724

¶ The peple cried & Rombled vpe & doun
 That wip his ceeres herde ho how þei seide
 Where is fals tenant þis Neroun
 For fere al-moste out of his witte bruide
 And to his goddes pitously he seide
 For socoure for it myht nount be-tyde
 For drede of þis him þougt þat he deide
 And ranne in-to a gardeyne him to hide

3728

3732

¶ And in þis cardyne fonde ho cherles tueye
 And fasten be a fire ful grete & rede
 And to þe cherles tuey he gan to preye
 To slene him & to girde of his hede þat to his body when þat he wate dede
 Were no despote ydo for his defane
 Him selfe he slouhe he coupe no better rede
 Of which fortune louho & had a game

3740

De Olyferno principe.

¶ Was Neuere capitaigne vnder a Kinge
 That Regnes no putte in subieccioun
 Ne strengur was in feilde of al þing
 As in his time none gretter in renoun
 Ne more Pompose in hiehe presunsioun
 Than Olyferne whiche fortune ay kyste
 So lykerously & ledde him vp & doun Til þat he heded was er þat he wiste

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 273)

Nat onoly / that <sup>his</sup> weid / hadde hym in awe for losynge / of richesse / or libertee
 But made every man / reneyen his lawe
 Nabugodonosor / was god seyde hie 3752
 Noon oother god / [ne] schulde adoured bee
 Agayn his heste / no wight dorste trespace
 Saus in Bethulia / a strong citee
 Where Eliachim / a prest was of that place
 But tak kepe of the deeth of Oloferne
 Amydde his hoste he dronke lay a nyght
 With inne his tente / large as is a berne
 And yet for al his pompe / and al his myght 3760
 Iudith a woman / as he lay vp-right
 Slepynge / his heed of smoot / and from his tente
 ful pryvely she stal / from euery wight
 And with his heed / vn-to hir toue she wente 3764

[Antiochus.]

What nedeth it of kyng Antiochus De Rege Ant.
 To telle / his hye Roial mageste thocho illustri
 His hye pryd / hise werkes venymus
 for swich another / was ther noon as he 3768
 Rede which put he was / in Machabee
 And rede / the proude wordes that he seyde
 And why he fil / fro heigh prosperitee
 And in an hill / how wrecchedly he deyde 3772

Fortune / hym hadde enhaunced so in pryd
 That verrally / he wende he myghte attayne
 Vn-to the sterres / vp-on euery syde
 And in balance / weyen ech mountayne 3776
 And alle the floodes / of the see restrayne
 And goddes peple / hadde he moost in hate
 Hem wolde he sleen / in torment and in payne
 Wenyng / that god no myghte his pryd abate 3780
 ELLESMERE (6.T. 274)

Nat onoly / that this world hadde hym in awe
 for losynge / of richesse / or libertee
 But made euery man / reneyen his lawe Nabugodonosor / was god seyde he 3752
 Noon oother god / sholde adoured be Agayn this heste / no wight dorste trespace
 Saus in Bethulia / a strong Citee
 Whre Eliachym / a prest was of that place
 But tak kepe / of the deeth of Oloferne
 Amydde his oost he dronke lay a nyght
 With inne his tente / large as is a berne
 And yet for al his pompe / and al his myght 3760
 Iudith a woman / as he lay vp-right
 Slepynge / his heed of smoot / and from his tente
 ful pryvely she stal / from euery wight
 And with his heed / vn-to hir toue she wente 3764

[Antiochus.]

What nedeth it of kyng Antiochus
 To telle / his hye Roial mageste
 His hye pryd / hise werkes venymus
 for swich another / was ther noon as he 3768
 Reed which that he was / in Machabee
 And red / the proude wordes / that he seyde
 And why he fil / fro heigh prosperitee
 And in an Hills / how wrecchedly he deyde 3772

Fortune / hym hadde enhaunced so in pryd
 That verrally / he wende he myghte attayne
 Vn-to the sterres / vp on euery syde
 And in balance / weyen ech mountayne 3776
 And alle the floodes / of the see restrayne
 And goddes peple / hadde he moost in hate
 Hem wolde he sleen / in torment and in payne
 Wenyng / that god no myghte / his pryd abate 3780
 HENGWRT 216, 216 (6.T. 274)

Nat only that this world hadde hym in awe
 For losynge of rycheesse or libertee
 But made euery man reneye his lawe
 Nabugodonosor was god seyde hie 3752
 Noon othir god schulde allowred bee
 Agayn this heste no whigh dar trespace
 Saus in Bethulia a strong cote
 Where Eliachym a prest was of that place 3756
 But tak keep of the deeth of Oloferne
 A-mydde his oet he dronke lay a nyght
 With-inne his tente / as large as is a berne
 And jit for al his pompe & al his myght 3760
 Iudith a woman as he lay vp-right
 Slepynge his heed of smot & from his tente
 Ful pryvely she stal from euery wight
 And with his heed / vn-to hira towr sche wente 3764

[Antiochus.]

What nedyth it of kyng antiochus
 To telle his hyghe royal mageste
 His hyghe pryd hise werkes venymous
 For swich a nothyr was there non as he 3768
 Reeds which that he was in machabee
 And reede the proude wordis that he seyde
 And whi he fyl from high prosperitee
 And in an hill how wretchedly he deyde 3772

Fortune hadde hym<sup>1</sup> enchaunted so in pryd
 That verrally he wende he myghte attayne
 On-to the steris vp-on euery syde
 And in a balunace weyn ech mountayne 3776
 And alle the flodydys of the see restrayne
 And goddis peple hadde he most in hate Hem wolde he slen in turment & in peyne
 Wenyng that god no myghte his pryd a-bate 3780
 CAMBRIDGE (6.T. 274)

¶ Nought<sup>o</sup> onely þat þis world had of him awe / for leaying of Richesse and liberte
 But he made every man reneye his lawe /
 Nabugodonosor was lord sayde Noon oþer god schulde honoured be Against his heste no wight dar trespase /
 Sane in Bethulya a strang<sup>e</sup> Cite Where Elyschim a prest was of þat place

¶ But take kepe of þe deþ of Olyferne
 Amydde his heste he drunke lay a nyght
 Wijinne his tente large as is a berne /
 And git for alle his pompe and alle his might Iudith a woman as he lay vpright
 Slepyng his heed of smot and fro his tent ful pryuyly sche stal fro every wight
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]

[Antiochus.]

¶ What nedep it of kyng<sup>e</sup> antiochus
 To telle his heie and real mageste his heighe pryude his werkes venymous for such an oþer nas neuer non as he Redeþ which þat he was in Machabe
 And redeþ þe proude wordes þat he sayde
 And why he falle for his prosperite
 And in an hulle how wretchedly he deide

¶ fortune him hadde enhaunsed so in pryde þat verayly he wende he mighte atteyne vnto þe sterres vpon every syde
 And in a balance to weye vche mounteyne /
 And alle þe floodes of þe see restrayne
 And goddes peopple hadde he most in hate Hem wolde he sle in torment and peyne /
 Wenynge þat god ne might þis pryde abate

CONFUS (6-T. 274)

3752

3756

3760

3764

3768

3772

3775

3780

Not onely þat this world hap of hym awe for losinge of Richesse and liberte
 But he made every man reneye his lawe
 Nabugodonosor was lord saide hu.
 Noon oþer god schulde honourd be
 Against his heste no wight dar trespase
 Sane in Bethulia a stronge Cite
 Wher Eliachym a prest was of þat place

But take kepe of þe deþ of Olyferne
 Amydde þe hooste he dronke lay al nyght
 Wijinne his tente large as is a berne
 And git for al his pompe and al his myght
 Iudith a woman as he lay vpright
 Sclapyng his hede of smote and fro his tent
 ful pryuyly sche stal fro every wight
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]

3752 [Deaf 225, back]

3756

3760

3764

[Antiochus.]

¶ What nedep it of kyng<sup>e</sup> Antiochus
 To telle his high and Ryal maieste His heighe pryde his werke venymous for suche an oþer was neuer non as he Redeþ which þat he was in machabe
 And redeþ þe proude wordes þat he seide
 And whi he falle for his prosperite
 And in an hulle how wretchedly he deide

¶ Fortune hym had enhaunsed so in pryde That verayly he wende he myght atteyne vnto þe sterres vpon every side
 And in a balance to wey þe mounteyns
 And alle þe floodes of the See Restreyns
 And goddes peple had he most in hate Hem wolde he scles in torment and [in] peyn wenynge þat god ne myght þis pryde abate

PETWORTH (6-T. 274)

3768

3772

3776

3780

¶ Nought onely þat þis world hadde of him awe
 For leaying of Richesse & lyberte
 But he made every man renye his lawe Nabugodonosor was lord he seide None oþer god scholde honourd be Against his hest no wight dar trespas
 Sane in Bethulia a stronge Cite
 Where Elyschim a preste was of þat place

¶ Bot take kepe of þe deþe of Olyferne Amydde his ostre drunke laye a nyht Wijinne his tent large as is a berne
 And git for al his pompe & al his myhte Iudith a woman as he laie vp riht slopyng his hede of smote & fro his tent Ful Priuily sche stalle fro every wright
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]

3762

3766

3760

3764 [Deaf 225]

De Antiochio illustri.

¶ What nedep it of kyng<sup>e</sup> Antiochus
 To tel his hie and Roial Maieste
 His hie pride his werke venymous For suche an oþere was neuere none as he Redeþ which þat he was in Macabe
 And redeþ þe proude wordes þat he seide
 And whi he fel fro his prosperite
 And in an hulle howe wrychedly he deide

¶ Fortune had him enhaunsed so in pride þat verayly he wende he myghte atteyne
 vnto þe sterres vpon every side
 And in a balance to weye iche mounteyne
 And al þe floodes of þe see restrayne
 And goddes peple hadde he moste in hate Hem wolde he sle in torment & peyne Wenynge þat god myght noubt his pride abate

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 274)

3768

3772

3776

3780

275 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B § 12. MONK'S TALE. ELLESMERE MS.

And for that Nychanore / and Thymothee
Of Iowes / weren venquysshed myghtily
Vn-to the Iewes / swich an hate hadde he
That he bad / greithen his Chaar ful hastily
And swoor / and seyde ful despitously
Vn-to Ierusalem / he wolde eft soone
To wroken his Ire / on it ful cruelly
But of his purpos / he was let ful soone

3784

3788

God for his manace / hym so soore smoot
With invisible wounde / ay incurable
That in hise guttes / carf it so and boot
That hise peynes / weren importable .
And certainly / the wreche was reasonable
ffor many a mannes guttes / dide he peyne
But from his purpos / cursed and dampnable ffor all his smert<sup>e</sup> he wolde hym nat restreyne

3792

3796

But bad anon / apparailen his hoost
And sodehynly / er he was of it war
God daunted / al his prido and all his boost<sup>e</sup>
ffor he so soore / fl out of his Char
That it hise lymes / and his skyn to-tar
So that he neythir / myghte go ne ryde
But in a chayer / men / aboute hym bar
Al forbrused / bothe bak and eyde

3800

3804

The wreche of god / hym smoot so cruelly
That thurgh his body / wikked wormes crepte
And ther-with-al / he stank horribly
That noon of al his meynce / pat hym kepte
Whether so he wook / or ellis slepte
Ne myghte nocht<sup>e</sup> / for stynt<sup>e</sup> of hym endure
In this meschief / he wayled and eek wepte
,And knew god / lord of euery creature

ELLESMERE (6-T. 276)

275 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. HENGWRT MS. 216. 317

¶ And for that Nychanore / and Thymothe<sup>e</sup>
Of Iowes / weren venquysshed myghtily
Vn-to the Iewes / swich an hate hadde he
That he bad greithe his Chaar ful hastily
And swoor / and seyde ful despitously
Vn-to Ierusalem / he wolde eft soone
To wroken his Ire / on it ful cruelly
But of his purpos / he was let ful soone

¶ God for his manace / hym so soore smoot
With invisible wounde / ay incurable
That in hise guttes / carf it so and boot
That hise peynes / weren importable
And certainly / the wreche was reasonable
ffor many a mannes guttes / dide he peyne
But from his purpos / cursed and dampnable ffor al his smert<sup>e</sup> he wolde hym nat restroyne

¶ But bad anon / apparailen his hoost
And sodehynly / er he was of it war
God daunted / al his prido / and al his boost<sup>e</sup>
ffor he / so soore fl / out of his char
That it hise lymes / and his skyn to-tar
So pat / he neither myghte go ne ryde
But in a chayer / men aboute hym bar
Al forbrused / bothe bak and eyde

¶ The wreche of god / hym smoot so cruelly
That thurgh his body / wikked wormes crepte
And ther with al / he stank so horribly
That noon / of al his meynce pat hym kepte
Whether so he wook / or ellis slepte
Ne myghte nocht<sup>e</sup> / for stynt<sup>e</sup> of hym endure
In this meschief / he wayled and eek wepte
And knew god / lord of euery creature

HENGWRT 216, 217 (6-T. 276)

275 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

And for that nychanore & thymothee
With Iewis were venquischid myghtily Vn-to the Iewis swich an hate hadde he
That he bad ordeyne his char ful hastily
And swoor & seyde ful despitously
Vn-to Ierusalem he wolde eft soone
To wreake his yre on it ful cruelly
But of his purpos he was let ful soone

God for his manace hym so soore smot
With inuisible wounde ay incurable
That in hise guttis carueit so & bot
That hise peynys were Importable
And certaynly the wreche was reasonable
For manye a manyis guttis dede he peyne
But from his p̄rpos cursede & dampnable
For al his smert he wolde hym nat restrayne

But bad a-noon aparaylyn his host
And sodehynly er he was of it war
God daunted al his pryde & al his host
For he so sore fl out of his Chaar
That <sup>1</sup>it hese<sup>4</sup> lymys & his skyn to-tar
So that he neythir myghte go ne ryde
But in a char men a-bonte hym bar
Al forbrosed bothe bak & eyde

The wreche of god hym smoot so crewelly
That thurgh his body wikkede wermyz crepte
And therwithal he stank so horbyly
That noon of al his meynce that hym kepte
Whether so he a-wok or ellis slepte
Ne myghte not the stynt<sup>e</sup> of hym endure
In this myschaf he waylode & ek wepte
And knew god lord of euery creature

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 276)

SIX-TEXT 275		SIX-TEXT 275		SIX-TEXT 275
GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Corpus MS.		GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Petworth MS.		GROUP B. § 12. MONK'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.
¶ And for þat Nichamour and Thymothee Wip Iwes were venquyscht mightily Vnto þe Iwes swich an hate hadde he That he hadde greythed his char ful hastily And swor and sayde ful dispitously vnto Ierusalem he wolde eft sone / To wreke his Ire on hit ful cruelly But of his purpos he was lette ful sone /	3784 3788	And for þat Nichamour and thymothee wip Iwes were venquysched mystely Vnto þe Iwes such an hate hadde he That he had graped his char ful hastily And swore and aside ful dispitously Vnto Ierusalem he wolde eft sone To wreke his Ire on it ful cruelly But of his purpos he was lette ful sone	3784 3788	¶ And for þat Nichamoure &amp; Timothee Wip Iwes were venquiste mihtile vnto þe Iwes suche an hatte hadde he That he hadde greythed his char ful hastelye An sworo &amp; aside ful dispitously Vnto Ierusalem wolde he eft sone To wreke hire on it ful cruellye Dot of his purposo he was lette ful sone	3784 3788
¶ God for his manace him so sore smot/ Wip inuisible wounde ay vncurable/ That in his guttes karf so and bote That his peynes were importable And certeynly þe wrecho was resonable for many mannes guttes dede he peyne But fro his pourpos cursed and dampnable for alle his smerte he molde him nought restreyns	3792 3796	God of his manace hym so sore smote Wip vnysaible wounde ay vncurable That in his guttes carf soo and bote That his peynes were importable <small>[Def 295]</small> And certeynly þe wrech was resonable for many manny's guttes did he peyne But fro his purposo cursed and dampnable for al his smerte he nolde hym restroyns	3792 3796	¶ God for his manasse him so sore smoto Wip inne-visible wounde aye vncurable þat in his guttes karf so &amp; bote þat his peynes were importable And certeynly þe wreche was resonable For mony mannes guttes dede he paine Bot fro his purposo cursed &amp; dampnable For al his smert he nold him noulit restrains	3792 3796
¶ But bad anon apparyzen his Oste And sodenly er he was of hit ware God daunted alle his pryde and alle his boste for he so sore felle out of his chare That hurt his lymes and his skyn to-tare So þat he no myghte go no ryde But in a Chayer men aboute him bare Al for-brused boþe bak and syde	3800 3804	But bad anon apparail his Ooste And sodenly er he was of it ware God daunted al his pride and al his boste for he so sore felle out of his chare That hurte his lymmes and his skyn to-tare So þat he ne myghte goe ne ride But in a chaier men about hym bare Al for-brused boþ bak and side	3800 3804	¶ Bot Badde anone apparen his Oste And sodenly or he was of it warre God daunted al his pride &amp; al his boste For he so sore ful oute of his chare þat hurte his limes &amp; his seynne to-tare So þat he no myght go ne Ride Bot in a chayure men aboute him bare Al for-brused boþe bakke &amp; side	3800 3804
¶ The wreche of god him smot so cruelly That in his body wikede wormes crepte And þer-wip-al he stank so orribly That non of alle his meigne þat him kepte / Wherþo so þat he wook or elles slepte / No myghte nought / þo stynk of him endure In þis meschief he weyled and eek wepte / And knewe god lord of every creature <small>[Def 294]</small>	3808 3812	The wretch of god hym smote so cruelly That in his body wikked wormes crepte And þer wip al he stooke so horrybly That non of alle his mayne þat hym kepte wheders þat he woko or ellis slepte No myght not þe stynk of hym endure In þis meschief he wailed and eke wepte. And knewe god lord of every creature	3808 3812	¶ The wreche of god him smoto so crudelye <small>[Def 216, back]</small> þat in his lode wyked wormes creped And þer-wip-all he stanks so orribly þat none of al his meyne þat him kepte Wherþers so þat he woko or elles sleped No myht noulit þe stink of him endure In þis Meschief he wailed &amp; eke wepped And knowe god lord of every creature.	3808 3812
CORPUS (6-R. 275)		PETWORTH (6-T. 275)		LANSDOWNE (6-X. 275)

To all his hoost and to hym self also ful wlatom was / the stynk' of his carayne
No man / ne myghte hym bere / to ne fro
And in this stynk' and this horrible peyne 3816
He starf ful wreechedly / in a Monteyne
Thus hath this Robbour / and this homycide
That many a man / made to wepe and pleyne
Swich gerdon / as bilongeth vn-to pryde 3820

[Alexander the Great.]

The storie of Alisaundro / is so commune ¶ De Alex-That euery wight that hath discrecioun andro
Hath herd somewhat or al / of his fortune 3824
This wyde world / as in conclusion
He wan by strengthe / or for his hys renoun
They were glad / for pees vn-to hym sende
The pride / of man and best / he leyde adoun
Wher so he cam / vn-to the worldis ende 3828

Comparioun / myghte neuere yet ben makid
Bitwixen hym / and another Conquerour
for al this world / for drede of hym hath quaked
He [was] of knyghthod / and of freedom flour 3832
fortune hym made / the heir of hire honour
Sawe wyn and women / no man mighte aswage
His hys entente in Armes and labour
So was he ful / of leonyn corage 3836

What pris were it to hym / though I yow tolde
Of Darius / and an hundred thousand mo
Of kynges / princes / Erlas / dukes / bolde 3840
Whiche he conquered / and broghte hem in-to wo
I seye / as fer as man may ryde or go
The world was his / what sholde I moore deuyse
for though I write / or tolde yow euere mo
Of his knyghthode / it myghte nat suffice 3844

ELLESMEERE (c-r. 276)

¶ To al his hoost and to hym self also ful wlatom / was the stynk' of his carayne
No man / ne myght hym bere to ne fro
And in this stynk' and this horrible peyne 3816
He starf ful wreechedly / in a monteyne
Thus hath this Robbour / and this homycide
That many a man / made to wepe and fleyse
Swich gerdon / as bilongeth vn-to pryde. 3820

[Alexander the Great.]

The Storie of Alisaundro / is so commune / De Alexandro That euery wight pat hath discrecion
Hath herd som-what or al / of his fortune 3824
This wide world / as in conclusion
He wan by strengthe / or for hys hys renou
They were glad / for pees vn-to hym sende
The pryde / of man-and best / he leyde adoun
Where so he cam / vn-to the worldis ende 3828

¶ Comparioun / myghte neuere yet ben makid
Bitwixen hym / and another Conquerour
for al this world / for drede of hym hath quaked
He of knyghthod / and of freedom flour 3832
fortune hym made / the heir of hire honour
Sawe wyn and women / no thyng myghte aswage
His hys entente / in armes and labour
So was he ful / of leonyn corage 3836

¶ What prys were it to hym / though I yow tolde
Of Darius / and an hundred thousand mo
Of kynges / Prynces / Dukés / Erlas bolde 3840
Whiche he conquered / and broghte hem in-to wo
I seye / as fer / as man may ride or go
The world was his / what sholde I moore deuyse
for though I write / or tolde yow euere mo
Of his knyghthode / it myghte nat suffice 3844

HENGWRT 217, 218 (c-r. 276)

To al his host & to hym self also Fel wlatom was the stynk of his carayne
No man myghte hym beryn to ne fro
And in this stynk & in this horrible peyne 3816
He starf ful wreechedly in a mounteyne
Thus hath this robbour & this homycyde
That manye a man made to weepe & pleyne Swich gwerdoun as bylongith on-to pryde 3820

[Alexander the Great.]

¶ The storie of alysaundir is so comune Alisaundyr
That euery wight that hath discrecioun
Hath hard al or somewhat of his fortune 3824
This wyde world as in conclusion
He wan by strenthe / & for his highe renoun
They were glad for pees vn-to hym sende
The pride of man & best he leyde a-doun
Where so he cam vn-to the worldis ende 3828

Comparioun myghte neuere sit been makyd
By-twixen hym & a-nothir conquerour
For al this world for drede of hym hath quakyd
He of knyghthod & of freedom flour 3832
Fortune hym made the heyre of hire honour
Sawe wyn & wemen no thyng myste aswage
His hys entente in armyz & labour
So ful he was of leonyn corage 3836

What preys were it for hym show that I tolde (leaf 216, back)
Of daryus & an hundrede thousand mo
Of Kyngis Dukis. Erlis. pryncis bolde 3840
Whiche he conquerode & broghte in-to woo
I seye as fer as man may ryde or go
The world was his what sholde I moore deuyse
For thew I wryte or tolde zow euere mo
Of his knyghthod it myghte nat suffyze 3844

CAMBRIDGE (c-r. 276)

¶ To alle his host and to himself also ful wlatson was þe stynte of þis Careyne
No man ne mighte him bere to no fro
And in his stynte and in his horrible peyne
He starf ful wrechedly in a mownteyne
Thus haþ þis robbour and þis homicide
That many a man made to weope and pleyne
Such guerdon as bilongep vnto pryde /

[Alexander the Great.]

¶ The story of alisaundre is so commune
That euery wight þat haþ discrecion haþ herd somwhat or al of his fortune
This wilde world as in conclusion
He was by strength or for his heigt renown
They weren glad for pees vnto him sende
The pryde of man and beste he leyde a down
Wher so he cam vnto þe worldes ende

¶ Compariſon might neuer þit be makid Betwix him and anoþer conquerour for alle þis worldis for drede of him haþ quaked he was of knyghthede and of fredom flour
fortune him made þe heit of hure honour
Saus wyne and women no þing might aswage /
His heite entente in armes and labour
So was he fulle of louynge corage

¶ What pite were it to him þey I ȝou tolde
Of darius and an .C. þoussand mo
Of kynges princes dukes earles bolde
Which he conquered and brouȝt hem in-to woo
I sey as fer as man may ryde or goo þe worldis was his what schulde I more deuise for þough I write or tolde ȝou euermo
Of his knyghthode he mighte nouȝt suffice

CORPUS (6-T. 276)

To alle his hooste and to hym self also ful wlatson was þe stinke of his careyne
No man myȝt hym bere to no froo.
And in his stynte and in his horrible peyne
He starf ful wrechedly in a mownteyne
Thus haþ þis robbour and homycide
That mony a man made to wrope and pleyne
Such guerdon as by-longep vnto pride

[Alexander the Great.]

The Storie of Alisaundre is so comune.
That euery wight þat haþ discrecion
Haþ herd somwhat or all of his fortune
This wilde world as in conclusion
He ȝanne by strength or for his hite renown
They weren glad for pees vnto hym sende þe pride of man and best he laid adoun Wher so he come vnto þe worldis ende

¶ Compariſon myȝt neuers be makid.
Bytwix hym and anoþer conquerour for al þis world for drede of hym Haþ quaked.
He was of knyghthede and of fredom flour
fortune him made þe heit of hure honour
Saus wyne and women no þing myȝt a-swage
His heit entente in armes and labour
So was he ful of louynge corage

¶ What pite were it to hym þouȝe I ȝou tolde
Of Darius and a hundred thousand moo.
Of kynges Princees dukes earles bolde
Which he conquered and brouȝt into woo
I sey as fer as man may ride and goo.
The worldis was his what shuld I more deuise for þouȝe I write and told ȝou ener moo.
Of his knyghthode he myȝt not suffice

4 C PETWORTH (6-T. 276)

¶ To al his oste & to him self also Ful wlatosome was þe stinke of þis caren
No man myȝt him bere to no fro
And in his stinke & in his orrible peyne
He starf ful wrechedly in a mownteyne
Thus haþ þis Robbour & þis homicide
That mony a man made to wepe & pleyne
Suche guerdons as belongep vnto prida

De Alexandro Magno Philippi Regis Macedoniae filio

The storie of Alexander is so comune
For al þis world þat haþe discrecions Haþe herd sum-what or al of his fortune þis wilde world as in conclusion
He wān be strankeþ or for his hite renoune Thei weren gladdis for le vnto him sende
The pride of man & beste he laide adoune
Wher-so he came vn-to þe worldis ende

¶ Compariſon myȝt þite neuers be makede
Be-twix him & anoþer conquerours
For al þis world for drede of him haþe quaked
He was of knyȝthede and of fredoms floure
Fortune him made þe hoire of oure honour
Saus wyne & wemmen no þinge might aswage
His hite stente in armes & labour
So was he of loueinge corage

¶ What pite were it to him þouȝe .I. ȝowe tolde
Of Darius & an .C. M. mo
Of Princes kynges Erles bolde
Whiche he conquered & brouȝt hem in-to woo
As fer .I. saie as man mai ride or goo þe worldis was his Whatt schold .I. more deuise
For þouȝe .I. write or tolde ȝowe euermo
Of his knyghthode he miȝt not suffice

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 276)

Twelf year he regned / as seith Machabeo Philippes sone of Macidoyne he was
That first was kyng in Greco the contree
O worthy gentil Alisandre allas 3848
That euere sholde fallen swich a cas
Empoysoned / of thyn owene folk thow weere
Thy sys / fortune / hath turned in-to Aas
And [yet] for thes / no weepe she neuer a teure 3852

Who shal me youen teeris to compleyne
The deeth of gentillesse / and of franchise
That al the world / weelded in his demeyne
And yet hym thoughte / it myghte nat suffice [not 180] 3856
So ful was his corage / of heigh emprise
Allas / who shal me helpe to endite
fals fortune / and poyson to despise
The whiche two / of al this wo I wyte 3860

[Julius Caesar.]

By wisdom / manhede / and by labour from humble bed / to roial magestee
Vp roos he Iulius the Conquerour
That wan al thorient<sup>r</sup> by land and See
By strengthe of hand / or elles by tretow
And vn-to Rome / made hem tributarie
And sithe of Rome / the Emperour was he Til that fortune / weex his Aduersarie 3868

O myghty Cesar / that in Thessalie
Agayn Pompeus / fader thyn in lawe
That of the Orient hadde all the Chiuabrie
As fer / as pat the day bigynnoth dawe 3872
Thou thurgh thy knyghthod / hast hem take and slawe Sane fewe folk / that with Pompeus fledde
Thurgh which thou puttest al thorient in Awe
Thanks fortune / that so wel thee speede 3876

ELLESMEERE (d-r. 277)

[T]welf year he regned / as seith Machabeo [not 84, back] Philippes sone of Macidoyne / he was
That first was kyng in Greco the contree
O worthy / gentil Alisandre allas 3848
That euere / sholde fallen swich a cas
Empoysoned / of thyn owene folk thow weere
Thyn sys / fortune hath turned in-to Aas
And for thes / no weep she neuer a teure 3852

¶ Who shal me youe teeris / to compleyne
The deeth / of gentillesse / and of franchise
That al this world / weeldid in his demeyne
And yet hym thoughte / it myghte nat suffice 3856
So ful was his corage / of heigh emprise
Allas / who shal me helpe to endite
fals fortune / and poyson to despise
The whiche two / of al this wo I wyte 3860

[Julius Caesar.]

By wisdom / manhede / and by greet labour / De Iulio from humble bed / to Roial magestee / Cesare
Vp roos / he Iulius the Conquerour
That wan al the Occident<sup>r</sup> by land and see 3864
By strengthe of hond / or ellis by tretow
And vn-to Rome / made hem tributarie
And sith of Rome / the Emperour was he
Til that fortune / weex his Aduersarie 3868

¶ O myghty Cesar / that in Thessalie
Agayn Pompeus / fader thyn in lawe
That of thorient<sup>r</sup> hadde all the chiuabrie
As fer / as pat the day bigynnoth dawe 3872
Thow / thurgh thy knyghthod / hast hem take & slawe Sane fewe folk / pat with Pompeus fledde
Thurgh which / thou puttest al Thorient in Awe
Thanks fortune / that so wel thee speede 3876

HENGWRT 218, 219 (d-r. 277)

Twelve year he regned / as seyth Machabeo Phlippis sone of Macidoyno he was That fyrst was kyng of grece the cuntre
O worthi gentile Alisandre allas 3848
That euere schulde fallyn swich a cas
Empoisoned of thyne owne folk thow weere
Thyn sys fortune hath turnede in-to aas
And for the ne wepe scho neuere a teure 3852

Who schal me 38uyv teeris to compleyne
The deeth of gentillesse & of franchise
That al this world weidede in his demeygne
And 3it hym thoughte it myghte nat suffyse 3856
So ful was his corage / of high emprise Allas ho schal me helpe to endyte fals fortune & poyson to dispise
The whiche two of al this wo I wryte 3860

[Julius Caesar.]

¶ By wisdom manhod & by greet labour Iulius
From homble bed to roial mageste
Vp roo he Iulius the conquerour
That wan al th<sup>o</sup>ccydent bothe lond & see [corrected] 3864
By strenthe of hand or ellys by tretow
And vn-to Roome made hem trybutarye And sithe the Emperour of rome was he ¶yl that fortune wax his Aduersarye 3868

¶ O myghty Cesar that in Thessalye Cesar
A-geyns Pompeynys fadyr thyn in lawe
That of thorient hadde all the Chiuabrys [not 212]
As fer as that the day begynnyth dawe 3872
Thow thow thyn kynghod hast hem take & slawe Sane fewe folk that with Pompeious fledde Thow which thow puttist al the orient in awe
Thanks fortune that so wel thee speede 3876

CAMBRIDGE (d-r. 277)

¶ Twelft þeer he regned as seiþ Machabe Phillipus some of Macedo he was /
 That first was kinge of Grece þe Contre / O worþi gentill alisaundre alias Deut 243, 243d 3848
 þat' euer schuld falle such a caas Empossoned of þin folk' þou were þyn . 8 fortune hap' torned in-to an aas
 And ȝit for þe no wepp' scho neuer a tere 3852

¶ Who schal men ȝene teeres to compleyne
 The ȝep of gentillesse and of franchise þat' alle þe world weoldid in his demeygne /
 And ȝet him þoughte it might' not suffice /
 So ful was his corage of height emprise Alias who schal me helpe to endite
 fals fortune and poyson to despise þe whiche tuo of al þis wo I write 3860

[Julius Cesar.]

¶ By wisdom manhede and by labour fro humblehede and fro Roial mageste vp ros he Iulius þe Conquerour
 That alle þe Occident by londe and fee
 By strengte of hand or elles by trete
 And vnto Rome made hem tributarie
 And seynes of Rome þemperour was he Til þat' fortune wax his aduersarie 3868

¶ O mighty Cesar þat' in Thessalye
 Aȝens Pompeus fader þin in lawe
 That' of þe Orient' hadde al þe cheualrye as fere as þat' þe day begynneþ dawne 3872 þou þorgh þin knyghthode þou hast' hem take and slawe / Sans fewe folk' þat' wiþ Pompeus fledde / þurgh which þou puttest' al þe Orient' in awe
 Thanks fortune þat' so wel þe spedde 3876

CORPUS (6-T. 277)

Twelue ȝere he regned as seiþ Machabe Phillipus some of Macedoynne he was That' first' was kinge of Grece þe cuntree
 O worþi gentille Alisaundre' alas 3848
 That' euer shuld [thee] falle Such a caas Empossoned of þi folk' þou were Thine . eise . fortune hap' turned into an aas
 And ȝit for þe no wepp' sho neuere a tere 3852

Who shal ȝene teeres men to compleyne
 The deþ of gentillesse and of franchise
 That' al þe worlde weolded in his demeyne
 And ȝit him þousþ' hit' mygt' not suffice 3856
 So ful was his corage of high emprise
 Alias who shal me helpe to endite
 fals fortune and poyson to despise
 The whiche twee of al this wo I write 3860

[Julius Cesar.]

¶ By wisdom manhede and by labour fro humblehede and fro Roial Maigeste
 Vp roos he Iulius þe Conquerour
 That' all þe Occident' by londe and See
 By strengte of honde or ellis by trete
 And vnto Rome made hem tributarie
 And Sitkens of Rome þe Emperour was he / Til þat' fortune waxe his aduersarie Deut 251 3868

A Mighty Cesar þat' in Thessalye .
 Aȝeinst' Pompeius fader þine in lawe
 That' of þe Orient' had al þe cheualrie
 As fere as þat' þe day bygyneþ dawne 3872
 Though þou þorgh þi knyghthode hap' hem take and slawe Sauf fewe folk' þat' wiþ Pompeus fledde
 Thourgh which þou puttest' al þe orient' in awe
 Thanks fortune þat' so wel þe spedde 3876

PETWORTH (6-T. 277)

¶ Twelue ȝere he regned as seiþ Machabe
 Phillipus þe sonne of Macedo he was Deut 243
 That first was kyng of grece þe Contre O worþi gentill Alisander Alas 3848
 þat euer schold falle suche a cas Empossoned of þi folk' þou were þin sustour fortune hap' torne in-to an aas
 And ȝit for þe no wopped scho neuer a tere 3852

¶ How schal men ȝene teeres to compleyne
 The deþe of gentillesse & of franchise þat al þe worlde weldede in his demeygne
 And ȝit him þouht it myht nouht suffice 3856
 So ful was his corage of hie emprise
 Alaco who schal me helpe to endite
 Fals fortune & poyson to despise
 The whiche tuo of al þes wo . I write 3860

De Iulio Cesar

¶ By wisdom manhede & þe labour
 Fro humblehede & fro Roial Maigeste
 Vp roos he Iulius þe conquerour
 That al þe Occident þe lande & see
 By strenkeþe of hande or elles bo trete
 And vnto Rome made hem tributarye And seþþen of Rome þan Emperour was he Til þat' fortune wax his aduersario 3868

¶ O myht Cesar' þat in Thessalye
 Aȝeines Pompeus fader þin in lawe
 Of þat þe orient hadde al þe cheualrie
 As fere as þe daie beginneþ to dawne 3872
 Thetme þorthe þi knyghthode hast hem take & slawe Sans fewe folke þat wiþ pompeus fledde þerwe which þou puttest al þe orient in awe þonke fortune þat so wel þe spedde 3876

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 277)

¶ But now a litel while / I wol biwaille ¶ Nota de Pompeyo
This Pompeus / this noble gouernour
Of Rome / which that feicht at this bataille
I seye / oon of his men / a fals traitour
His heed of smoot to wyman hym fauour
Of Iulius / and hym the heed he broghte
Allas Pompeye / of Thorient Conquerour
That fortune / vn-to swich a fyn thee broghte

3880

3884

¶ To Rome agayn / repaireth Iulius
With his triumphe / lauriat ful hie
But on a tyme / Brutus Cassius
That euer hadde / of his hie estat enuy ful pryncely / hath maad conspiracye
Agayns this Iulius / in subtil wise
And caste the place / in which he sholde dye
With Boydekyns / as I shal yow deuyse

3888

3892

This Iulius / to the Capitolie wente
Vpon a day / as he was wont to goon
And in the Capitolie / anon hym hente
This false Brutus / and hise othere foon
And stiked hym / with boydekyns anon
With many a wounde / and thus they lete hym lye
But neuere gronte he / at no strook' but oon
Or elles at two / but if his storie lye

3896

3900

So manly / was this Iulius of herte
And so wel louede / estaatly honestee
That though hise deadly woundes soore smerte His Mantel / ouer hise hypes caste he for no man / sholde seen his priuetees
And as he lay / of dying' in a traunce
And wiste verraily / that deed was hee
Of honestee / yet hadde he remembraunce

3904

3908

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 278)

¶ But now a litel while / I wol biwaille
This Pompeus / this noble gouernour
Of Rome / which pat feicht at this bataille
I seye / oon of hise men / a fals traitour
His heed of smoot' to wyman hym fauour
Of Iulius / and hym the heed he broghte
Allas Pompeis / of Thorient conquerour
That fortune / vn-to swich a fyn thee broghte

¶ To Rome agayn / repaireth Iulius
With his triumphe / lauriat ful hie
But on a tyme / Brutus Cassius
That euer hadde / of his heighe estat enuy ful pryncely / hath maad conspiracie
Agayns this Iulius / in subtil wise
And caste the place / in which he sholde dye
With Boydekyns / as I shal yow deuyse

¶ This Iulius / to the Capitolie wente
Vp-on a day / as he was wont to goon
And in the Capitolie / anon hym hente
This false Brutus / and hise othere foon
And stiked hym / with Boydekyns anon
With many a wounde / and thus they lete hym lye
But neuere gronte he / at no strook' but oon
Or ellis at two / but if his storie lye

¶ So manly / was this Iulius of herte
And so wel / louede estaatly honestee
And thogh hise deadly woundes / so soore smerte His mantel ouer his hipes / caste he for no man / sholde seen his pryutee
And as he lay / of dying' in a traunce
And wiste verraily / that deed was he
Of honestee / yet hadde he remembraunce

HENGWRT 219, 220 (6-T. 278)

But now a lytyl while / I wele bewaile /
This Pompeyons this noble gouernour
Of Rome whiche that feicht at this batayle
I seye on of his men a fals traytour
His hed of smot to wyman hym fauour
Of Iulius & hym the hed he broghte
Allas Pompeye of thorient Conquerour
That fortune vn-to swich a fyn the broghte

To Rome a-gayn reparyth Iulius
With his tryumphe lauryat ful hie
But on a tyme Brutus Cassius
That euer hadde of his estat enuy ful pryryly hath maad conspiracye
A-gayns this Iulius in subtil wise
And caste the place in whiche he schulde deye
With boydekynys as I schal yow deuyse

This Iulius to the capitolye wente
Vp-on a day as he was wont to goon
And in the Capitolye anon hym hente
This false Brutus & these othere foon' [uncorrected]
And stiked hym with Boydekyns a-noon
With many a wounde & thus they leste hym lye
But neuere gront he at no strok but oon
Or ellis at two / but if his storie lye

So manly was this Iulius at herte
And so weel louyd estaatly honeste
That thow hise dodly woundis soore smerte His mantel ouer his hipes castyth he
For nou man schulde seen his priuete
And as he lay on dayning in a traunce
And wiste verraily that deed he muste be Of honeste yit hadde he remembraunce

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 278)

¶ But now a litel while I wol bewayte / þis Pompeus þis noble gouernour
 Of Rome which þat fleigh at þis batayle
 I saye on of his men a fals traytour
 His heed of smoot to wyne him fauour
 Of Iulius and him þe heed brougte
 Allas Pompeye of þe Orient conquerour
 That fortune vnto such a finye brougte

3880

[leaf 240] 3884

¶ To Rome aȝein repaireþ Iulius
 Wiþ his triumphe laureate ful heȝe
 But on a tyme Brutus Cassius
 That euer had of his heigh estate enuy ful priuily had maad conspiracie Aȝains þis Iulius in subtil wise
 And caste þe place in which he schulde deye Wiþ boydekynnes as I schal þou deuise

3888

3892

¶ þis Iulius to þe Capithole went
 vpon a day as he was wont to goon
 And in þe Capitoile anon him hente
 This fals brutus on his foule foot
 And stiked him wiþ boydekynnes anon Wiþ many a wounde and þus þey lete / him lye
 But neuer gronte he at no stroke but oon
 Or elles at tuo but if his story lye

3896

3900

¶ So manly was þis Iulius of herte
 And so wel loued estately honeste
 That þough his dedly woundes so sore smerte
 His mantel ouer his hepes caste he for nonan schulde seen his priuete
 And as he lay as deyngs in a trance And wiste verily þat dede was he
 Of honeste yett hadde he remembrance

3904

3908

CORPUS (6-T. 276)

But now a litel while I wil lywaite
 This Pompeus þis noble gouernour
 Of Rome which þat fleigh at this bataille
 I saye oon of his men a fals traitour
 His hode of smote to wyne hym fauour
 Of Iulius and hym þe heold brougt
 Allas Pompey of the Orient conquerour
 That fortune vnto such a fund brougt

3880

3884

To Rome aȝein repaireþ Iulius.
 Wiþ triumphe laureat ful hiȝ
 But on a tyme Brutus Cassius þat euer had of his astate Envie ful priuily had made Conspiracie Aȝainsþ þis Iulius in subtille wise /
 And cast þe place in which he shuld dye
 With boydekyns as I shal þou devise 3888

3892

This Iulius to þe Capithole went Vpon a day as he was wonte to goon
 And in þe Capitoile anon hym hente
 This fals Brutus and his foule foot
 And stiked hym wiþ boydekyns anon
 Wiþ mony a wounde and þus þey lete hym lye
 But neuer grunte he at no stroke but oon
 Or elles at twee but þif his storie lye

3896

3900

So manly was þis Iulius of herte
 And so wel loued estately honeste
 That þough his dedly woundes so sore smerte
 His mantel ouer his hippes cast he for no man schuld se his priuete
 And as he lay on dyngs in a trance
 And wist verely þat dede was he
 Of honeste yett hadde he remembrance

3904

3908

PETWORTH (6-T. 276)

¶ Bot nowe a litel while .I. wil bewelle
 þis Pompeus þis noble gouernour
 Of Rome which þat fleigh at þis Batayle
 .I. saye one of his men a fals traiture
 His hedde of smote to wyne him fauour
 Of Iulius & him þe hode brouht
 Alas Pompey of þe Orient conqueroure
 That fortune vnto suche a doȝe brouht

3880

3884

To Rome aȝein Repaireþ Iulius
 Wiþ his tryumphe laureate ful hiȝ Bot on a time Brutus Cassius þat euere hadde of his hiȝ estate envie Ful priuily had maad conspiracye
 Aȝains þis Iulius in subtilite wise
 And kest þe place in which he scholde deye Wiþ Bodekynnes as .I. schal þowe devise

[leaf 216, back] 3888

3892

¶ This Iulius to þe Capitoile went vpon a daie as he was wont to goone
 And in þe Capitoile anone him hente
 This fals Brutus on of his foule fons
 And stiked him wiþ Bodekynnes anone Wiþ mony a wound & þus þe lete him lye
 Bot neuer gronte he att no stroke bott one Or elles att tuo bot if his story lye

3896

3900

¶ So manly was þis Iulius of bert
 And so wel loued estately honeste
 þat þouth his dedely woundes so sors smert His Mantel oure his hippes cast he
 For no man schol se his priuete
 And as he lay in deyngs in a trance
 And wist verily þat dede was he
 Of honeste yett hadde he Remembrance

3904

3908

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 276)

Lucan / to thee / this storie I recomende
And to Sweton / and to Valerius also
That of this storie / writen word and ende How þat / to this grete Conquerours two fortune was first freend / and siththe foo
No man ne traste / vp-on hire fauour longe
But haue hire / in awayt for enere moo
Witness / on alle thise Conquerours stronge

[Cressus.]

This riche Cressus / whilom kyng of Lyde
Of which Cressus / Cirus soore hym draddo
Yet was he caught / amyddes al his pryde
And to be brent / men to the fyr hym laddo
But swich a reyn / down fro the welkne shaddo
That slow the fyr / and made hym to escape
But to be war / no grace yet he hadde
Til fortune / on the galwas / made hym gape

Whanne he escapod was / he kan nat stente
for to bigynne / a newe were agayn
He wende wel / for þat fortune hym sente
Swich hape / that he escapod thurgh the rayn
That of his foes / he myghte nat be slayn
And ek a swene / vp-on a nyght he mette
Of which / he was so proud / and ek so fayn
That in vengeance / he al his herte sette

Vp-on a tree / he was / as that hym thoughte
Ther Iuppiter hym weashe / bothe bak and syde
And Phebus ek / a fair towaille hym brougte
To drye hym with / and therefore wax his pryde
And to his doghter / that stood hym byside
Which þat he knew / in heigh science habounde
He bad hire telle hym / what it signyfyde
And she his drem / higan right thus expounde

ELLESMEERE (6-r. 279)

¶ Lucan. / to thee this storie I recomende
And to Sweton / and to Valerius also
That of this storie / writen word & ende How that / to this grete Conquerours two fortune / was first freend / and siththe a foo
No man ne traste / vp-on hire fauour longe
But haue hire / in awayt for enere mo
Witness / on alle thise Conquerours stronge

[Cressus.]

This riche Cressus / whilom kyng of Lyde
Of which Cressus / Cirus soore hym draddo
Yet was he caught / amyddes al his pryde
And to be brent / men to the fyr hym laddo
But swich a reyn / down fro the welkne shaddo
That slow the fyr / and made hym to escape
But to be war / no grace yet he hadde
Til fortune / on the galwas made hym gape

[¶] Whanne he escapod was / he kan nat stente
for to bigynne / a newe were agayn
He wende wel / for þat fortune hym sente
Swich hape / that he escapod thurgh the rayn
That of his foes / he myghte nat be slayn
And ek a swene / vp-on a nyght he mette
Of which / he was so proud / and ek so fayn
That in vengeance / he al his herte sette

¶ Vp on a tree he was / as þat hym thoughte Ther Iuppiter hym weasht / bothe bak and syde
And Phebus ek / a fair towaille hym brougte
To drye hym with / and therefore wax his pryde
And to his doghter / that stood hym byside
Which that he knew / in heigh sentence habounde
And had hire telle hym / what it signyfyde
And she his drem / higan right thus expounde

HENGWURT 220, 221 (6-r. 279)

Lucan to thise storie I recomende
And to Sweton & to Valerius also
That of the storie writyn word & ende
How that these grete Conquerours two Fortune was fyrst freend & eithe a foe
No man ne trusts vp-on hire fauour longe
But haue hire in a-wayte for enere mo
Witness on alle these conquerours stronge

[Cressus.]

This ryche cryanus whilom kyng of lyde
Of whiche Cressus / Cirus soore hym draddo
Jit was he caught a-mydde al his pryde
And to be brent men to the fuyr hym laddo
Bat swich a reyn down from the walkyn shaddo
That slow the fuyr & makd hym to escape
But to be war no grace jit he hadd
Til fortune on the galwis made hym gape

Whan he escapid was he kan nat stente
For to begynne a newe were agayn
He wende weel for that fortune hym sente
Swich hap that he escapid thow the rayn
That of hise fois he myghte nat been slayn
And ek a swene vp-on a nyght he mette
Of which he was so proud & ek so fayn
That in vengeance he al his herte sette

Vp-on a tre he was as that hym thoughte
Where Iuliter hym weasch bothe bak & syde
And phebus ek a fayr towaille hym brougte
To dreye hym with & therefore wax his pryde
And to his doghter which that stod hym boseyde
Which that he knew in high science habounde
He bad hire telle hym what it signefye
And sohe his drem bygan ryght thus expoungne

CAMBRIDGE (6-r. 279)

¶ Lucane to þis story I recomende
 And to Sweton and to Valerius also
 That of þis story writteþ word and ende how þat þese grete conquerours tuo fortune was first freond and siþen a foo
 No man ne trust vpon his fauour longe
 But haue hire in awaite for suerene Witnessse on alle þise conquerours stronge

[Cressus.]

¶ This riche Cressus whilom kyng of Iyde
 Of whiche Cressus Cygnus sore him dradde þet was he caught amyddes alle his pryde
 And to be brent men to þe fyre hym ladde
 But such a Reyne down fro þe walken schadde þat slough þe fyre and made him to escape
 But to be war þet no grace he hadde
 Til fortune on þe galwes made him gape

¶ When he askaped was he can not stinte for to begynne a newe reyne aȝein he wende wel for þat fortune him sente
 Such happe þat he escaped þurgh þe reyn
 That of his foos he mighte not be slayn
 And swich a swete vppan a nyght he mette
 Of which he was so proud and eek so fayn
 That in vengeance he alle his herte sette

¶ Vpon a tree he was as þat him þoughte
 There Iubiter him wisse boþe halas and syde
 And Phebus eek a fair towaile him brouhte
 To drye him wiþ and þerfore wax his pryde
 And to his daughter þat stood him besyde
 Which þat he knew in heigh sentence abounde
 He bad hire telle him what it signefyed
 And sche his dreemes bygan riht þus expounde

CORPUS (6-r. 279)

3912

3916

Cressus.

3919

[Cressus.]

3924

3928

3932

3936

3940

¶ Lucane to þis storie I recomende
 And to Sweton and Valerius also.
 That of His storie writteþ word and ende How þat þise grete conquerours tuo fortune was first frende and siþen a foo/
 No man ne trust vpon his fauour longe
 But haue hure in a-waite etermoo
 Witnes on alle þise conquerours stronge

[Cressus.]

This riche Cressus whilom kyng of Iyde
 O whilk Cressus Cygnus sore hym dradde þit was he caught amonges al his pride
 And to be brent men to þe fyre hym ladde
 But suche a Reyne doune fro þe walken shade þat slouge þe fyre and made hym to escape
 But to be war þit no grace he hadde
 Til fortune on þe galous made hym gape

When he askaped was he can not stent for to begynne a newe reyne aȝaine
 He wende wale for þat fortune hym sente Suche happe þat he askaped þorþe þe reyne þat of his foos he myght not be slayn
 And Suche a sweten vpon a nyght he mette
 Of which he was so proude and so fayn
 That in vengeance he al his hert sette

Vpon a tree he was as hym þought
 Ther Iubiter hym wassh boþ hale and Side
 And Phebus eke a faire towale hym brougt
 To drye hym wiþ and þerfore wax his pride
 And to his dougtere þat stood hym beside Which þat he knowe in his sentence habounde
 He bad hure telle hym what it signefied
 And sche his dreames byganne riht þus expounde

FETWORTH (6-T. 279)

3912

3916

De Creso Rege.

¶ This Riche Cressus whilom kinge of Lyde
 Of whiche Cressus Cignus sore him dradde þette was he caught amydes al his pride
 And to be brent men to þe fyre him ladde Bot suche a Raine doune fro þe walkyn shade þat slouhe þe fyre & made him to escape
 Bot to be warre jitte no grace he hadde
 Til fortune on þe galouas made him gape

¶ When he ascaped was he can nouht stinte
 For to be-ginne a newe Reyne aȝaine
 He wende wete þat fortune him sente Suche happe þat he asceped þorþe þe Reine þat of his foos he myht nouht be aȝein
 And suche a sweten vpon a nyht he mette
 Of whiche he was proude & eke foine þat in vengeance he al his hert sette

¶ Vpon a tre he was as þat him þoughte
 There Iubiter him wessche boþe hale & side
 And phebus eke a faire towel him brount
 To drye him wiþ & þerto wax his pride
 And to his dougter þat stode him be-side
 Which þat he knowe in hie science abounde
 He badd him tel hir what it signified
 And sche his dreame began riht þus expounde

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 279)

3912

3916

3920

3924

3928

3932

3936

3940

The tree quod she / the galves is to meene
And Iuppiter / bitokneth snow and reyn
And Phebus / with his towaille so cleene
The been / the sonne beemes for to seyn 3944
Thou shalt anhangd be / fader certeyn
Reyn shal thee wasche / and sonne shal thee drye
Thus warnd hym / ful plat and ful pleyn
His doghter / which that called was Phanye 3948

An-hanged was Cresus / the proude kyng
His roial Trone / myghte hym nat assaille
Tragedies / noon oother maner thyng /
Ne kan in syngyng' crye ne biwaille 3952
But that fortune / alwey wole assaille
With vnwar strook' / the Regnes pat been proude
ffor whan men trusteth hire / thanne wol she faille
And couere hire brighte face / with a clowde (as 1047/182) 3956

[In the MS follow Petro / glorie of Spaigne; Petro / kyng of Cypre; off Melan / grete Barnabo Viscounte; and the Erl Angelyn of Pyze, already printed on p. 268-270 above.]

¶ Explicite Tragedie [as 1047/182]

¶ Heere stynteth the Knyght the Monk' of his tale. ☉

¶ The tree quod she / the galves is to mene
And Iuppiter / bitokneth snow and reyn
And Phebus / with his towaille so cleene
The been / the sonnes stremes for to seyn 3944
Thow shalt an hangd be / fader certeyn
Reyn shal thee wasche / and sonne shal thee drye
Thus warnd hym / ful plat and ful pleyn
His doghter / which pat called was Phanye 3948

¶ An hangd was Cresus / the proude kyng
His Roial trone / myghte hym nat assaille
Tragedies noon oother manere thyng
Ne kan in syngyng' crye ne biwaille 3952
But pat fortune / alwey wole assaille
With vnwar strook' / the regnes pat been proude
ffor whan men trusteth hire / thanne wol she faille
And couere hire brighte face / with a clowde 3956

[Here follow in the MS, De Petro Ispannie, De Petro de Cypre, De Barnabo, and De hugelyn Comite de Pize, already printed on p. 268-270 above.]

Here is ended the Monkes tale

The tre quod sche the galvis is to meene .
And Iubiter bitokenyth snow & reyn .
And Phebus with his towayle so cleene .
The been the sunnys stremys for to seyn . 3944
Thow schat an hangede been fadyr certayn .
Reyn schal the wasche & soume schal the dreyo .
Thus warnede hym ful plat & ful pleyn .
His doghtyr which that callede was Phanye . 3948

An hangede was Cresus the proude kyng
His royal trone myghte hym not a-wayle
Tragedy is noon othir manere thyng
Ne can in syngyng crye ne bewayle 3952
But for that fortune al day wele assayle
With vn-war strok the regnyz that been proude
For whan men trustyth hire thanne wele sche fayle
And couere hire brighte face with a cloude 3956

[Here follow in the MS, Petro glorie of Spayne, Petro Kyng of Cypre, Of Melan grete Barnabo Viscounte (incomplete), already printed on p. 268-270 above.]

¶ The tre<sup>e</sup> quod<sup>o</sup> sche þe galwes is to mene
And Iubiter bitokneþ snow and rayn
And Phebus wip his towayle so clene
Tho be þe somme stremes for to sayn 3944
Thou schalt an honged be fader certayn Reyn schal þe wassche and somme schal þe drye þus warned him ful platte and ful playn
His daughter þat<sup>o</sup> called was Phanye / 3948

¶ An honged was Cresus þe proude king<sup>o</sup>
His roial trone might him nouht anayle Tegodie is non oþer maner þing<sup>o</sup>
Ne can synnyng<sup>o</sup> crye ne by-wayle 3952
Bot þat<sup>o</sup> fortune alway wol assaile / Wip vnwar strok<sup>o</sup> þe regnes that<sup>o</sup> ben proude for whan men trusteþ hire þan wol sche faille
And couere hire brighte face wip a clowde 3956
¶ Explicit/

The tree quod she þe galous is to mene
And Iubiter bitokeneþ snowe and reyne
And Phebus wip his towale so clene .
Thoo bene the some stremes forte sayn (not 22) 3944
Thou shalt an honged be fader certayn
Rayn schal þe wassch and somme schal þe drye
Thus warned she hym ful plat and ful playn
His douyter [which] þat called was Phanye 3948

An honged was Cresus þe proude king<sup>o</sup>
His Roial trone myht<sup>o</sup> hym not<sup>o</sup> availle Tregodie is noon oþer maner þing<sup>o</sup>
Ne can in synnyng<sup>o</sup> crye ne bywaile 3952 Bot þat<sup>o</sup> fortune alway wil assaile wip vnwar stroke þe regnes þat<sup>o</sup> bene proude for whan men trusten hir þan wil she faille
And couere hir brist<sup>o</sup> face wip a clowde 3956

¶ Thus endeþ þe monke his tale

¶ The tre quod sche þe galouse is to mene
And Iubiter be-tokeneþ snowe & reyne
And Phebus wip his towale so clene
Is þe some stremes for to seyne 3944
Thou schalt an honged be fader certayne
Reyne schal þe wassche & somme schal þe drye
Thus warned sche him ful platte & plaine
His douhter þat called was Phanye 3948

¶ An honged was Cresus þe proude kyng<sup>o</sup>
His Roial throne myht him nouht availle Tregedrye in none oþer maner þing<sup>o</sup>
Ne can in synyng<sup>o</sup> crye ne bo-weyle 3952
Bot þat<sup>o</sup> fortune al wei wil assaile Wip vnwar strok<sup>o</sup> þe Reignes þat<sup>o</sup> bien proude
For whan men trusteþ hir þan wil sche faille
And couere hire bricht face wip a clowde 3956

Explicit fabula .

¶ The prologue of the Nonnes preestes tale <sup>[leaf 185]</sup> ¶

Hoo quod the knyght / good sire namoure this That ye han seyð / is right ynough ywis
And muchel moore / for lital heynesse
Is right ynough / to muche folk I gesso 3960
I seye for me / it is a greet disese
Where as men han been / in greet welthe and ese
To heeren / of hire sodeyn ful alias
And the contrarie / is ioye and greet solas 3964
As yhan a man / hath ben in poure estaat
And clymbeth vp / and wexeth fortunat
And there abideth / in prosperitee
Swich thyng is gladsum / as it thynketh me 3968 Ye quod our hoost by saint Poules belle Ye seye right sooth this Monk / he clappeth lowde
He spak how fortune / couered with a clowde 3972
¶ I not neuere what / and also of a Tragedie <sup>[leaf 185, back]</sup>
Right now ye herde / and pardee no remedie
It is / for to biwaille / ne compleyne
That þat is doon / and als it is a payne 3976
As ye han seyð / to here of heynesse ¶ Sire monk, namoure of this / so god yow blesse Yours tale / anoyeth all this compaignys Swich talkyng is nat worth a buterflye 3980 for ther-Inne is ther / no desport no game ¶ Wherefore sirs Monk / daun Piers by youre name I pray yow hertely / telle vs somewhat elles for sikerly nere clynkyng / of youre belles 3984

ELLESMEERE (d-r. 281)

¶ This is the Prologe / of the Nonne Prees [tes] <sup>[leaf 97]</sup> <sub>[tale. 97 back]</sub> ¶

HO quod the knyght / good sire namoure of this That ye han seyð / is right ynow ywis
And muchel moore / for lital heynesse
Is right ynow / to muche folk I gesso <sup>[see page 14 Hengwrt]</sup> 3960
[I seye for me hit is a grete disese <sup>[MS Reg. 18 C ii, leaf 228]</sup> where as men han ben in grete welpe & ese To heren of her sodeyn ful alias
And þe contrarie is ioye and grete solace 3964
As whan a man haj be in pore estate
And clymbeth vp and wexeth fortunat
[And ther / a-bideth in prosperite. <sup>[Hart. 1786, f 19r, 22]</sup> Suche þing is gladsum as hit þinketh me 3968
And þough suche þing were goodly forto telle þe quod our Oste by seynt poules bello þe seie right soth þis monk / he clappeth loude
He spak how fortune couered in a cloude 3972
I not neuere what & also of a treadie
Right now þe herde and parde no remedie
It is for to be-wayle ne compleyne
That that is doon and also hit is a payne 3976
As þe han saide to here of heuyresse Sire monk nomore of þis so god þou blesse þoure tale annoyeth all þis compaigny Suche talkyng nys not worth a buterflye] <sup>[MS Reg. 47-front endle]</sup> 3980
Yours tales / doon vs no desport no game
Wherefore sirs Monk / o. daun Piers by youre name
I pray yow hertely / telle vs som what elles
for sikerly / nere clynkyng of youre belles 3984

HENGWRT 225 (d-r. 281)

[Sloane MS 1685, on leaf 213, back.]

[Here begynneth þe Prologe of þe Nunne Preests
Hoo quod / þe knygt gode sir / no more of thys þat þe han sayde ys rist ynoweþ y-wys.
And mochel more for lital heynesse ys ryzt ynouys to mechel folk as I gesso 3960
I sey for me hit ys a grete disese
Where as men han ben in grete hertli & esse <sup>[leaf 97]</sup>
To herene of her / sodeyn ful alias
And þe Contrarye is . grete Ioy & solace 3964
And whan a man hath ben in pore estate
And clymbith vp and wexeth fortunat
And þere abydetli in prosperitee
Suche thynges ys gladsum as hit thynketh me 3968
And þouys suche thynges were goodly forto telle // Ye. quod / our hoost by Seynt Poules belle Ye say rist sothe þis Monke clappeth loude he . spake howe fortune couered with a cloude 3972
I note neuere what & also of a treadie Ryzt / now ye herð & parde no remedie hit ys forto be-wayle & compleyne .
þat þat ys done and als hit ys a payne 3976
As ye haue sayd / to here of / heynesse
Syr / Monke no more of þis so god yow blesse
Yours / tale annoyeth all þis compaigny
Suche talkyng ys not worth a buter-flyeþ 3980
And þere-in ys. no sporte nor / no game
Wherefore Syr / Monke daun Piers by your name
I pray you hertely telle vs som what elles for sikerly nere clynkyng of / your belles 3984

CAMBRIDGE (d-r. 281) (this page, Sloane 1685)

¶ Here begynneth þe prologe of þe nonne prestes tale
[on leaf 217]

HO quod þe knyght good sire nomore of þis þat þe han sayde is right ynoughl ywis
And meche more for lital heuynesse
Is right ynoughl to meche folk<sup>as I gesso</sup> / [MS Reg. 17 D. xxv, ff 273, 24] 3960
[I sey for me, it is a grette disease
Where as men han bien . in grette welth and ease
To here of theyr sodayn falle alas
And the contrarye is Ioy . and grette solas
And whan a man hath bien in power estate
And clymbith vp . and wexith fortunat
And ther abydyth . in prosperite
Swiche thyng' is gladsom . as it thynkoth me
And of swiche thynges . were goodly for to telle Ye quod ourse hoest . be seynt poules belle Ye say right soth . this monk' be clappid lowde
He spak how fortune . was couereð with a cloud
I not neuer what . and als of a tregedye
Right now ye herd . and parde no remedye
Is it for to be-wailen . and compleyn
That . that is don . and als it is a peyn
As ye have sayd . to here of heuynesse
Sir monke nomore of this . so god yow blisse Yowre tale anyethl . al this company
Swiche thyng' is nat worth a boterflye 3oure tales don vs no desport no game
Wherefore sir monk' Doun Piers by your name
I pray you hartely telle vs som what' elles for siker nere clynyng' of 3oure belles
CORPUS (6-T. 281)

And here bygynneth þe nonpreest' his prologe
¶ The prologe'
[on leaf 216]

HO quod þe knyght no more good of þis
That þe han said is right ynowe ywis
And mochel more for lital heuynesse
Is right ynoughl to mochel folk' I gesso
[I sey for me / hit is a grot disease
Wher as men haue ben / in gret welth and ese
To here of her sodeynn falle alas
And the contrarye / is Ioye and gret solas
And whan a man hath bo / in poor estat
And clymbeth vp / and waxoth fortunat
And ther abydyth / in prosperite
Sucht thyng is gladsom / as thynkoth me
And of such thyng / were goodly for to telle Ye quod our hoest / bi seynt poules belle Ye sey soth / this monk hath clappid lowd
He spak how fortune / couereð was with a cloud
I nat nere what / and also tregedie
Right now ye herde / and parde no remedie [I]t is for to be wailing and compleyne for that that is don / and also it is a peyno
As ye han seid to heer' of heuynesse
Sir monk nomore of this / so god you blesse [Yow]' tale anyeth / alle this company
Such thyng / is nat worth / a botterflye 3oure tales done vs no sporte no game
Wherefore sir' monke or daun piers by your name
I pray you hartely telle vs somewhat' ellys for sikerly ne were þe clynyng' of your' bellis
PETWORTH (6-T. 281)

Incipit' prologus [on leaf 217]

Hoo quod þe knyht good sir no more of þis þat þe hane saide it is y-nowhe y-wis
And muchel more for lital heuynesse
Is riht ynouthe to mucho folke as .I. gest
.I. seio for me it is a grette disease
Where as men haþ buen in gre welþe & ese
To heren of here sodan fal alas
And þe contrarie is Ioye & grette solaco
As whan haþe buo in pouere estate
And climbeþ vp & waxeþ fortunat
And þere abideþ in prosperite Suche þinge is glad-some as it þunkeþ me .
And þouhe suche were goodly for to telle þe quod ourse Ost be swint poules belle þe seio riht soþe þis monke he clappeþ londe
He spake howe fortune couereð was wiþ a cloud
I note neuer what & also of a tregedye
Riht nowe þe herle & parde no Remedye
It is to be-weile ne to compleyne
That þat is done and als it is a peino
As þe haue seide to hire of heuynesse
Sir monke no more of þis so god 3ow blisse 3oure tale anyeþ al þis Compaignye Suche talkeinge is nouht worþe a botter flye
For þere-iane is no sporte ne game
Where-for sir' Monke Dan Piers be 3oure name
I priaie hartely tel vs sunnwhat' elles
For siker ner clynyngs of 3oure belles
LANSDOWNE (6-T. 281)

That on youre bridal hange / on euery syde
 By heneus kyng: that for vs alle dyde
 I sholde er this / han fallen down for sleepe Althogh the slough / had neuer been so deepe 3988
 Thanne hadde youre tale / al be toold in veyn
 for certeynly / as that thise clerkes seyn
 Where as a man / may haue noon Audiance
 Nought helpeth it to tellen his sentence 3992
 And wel I woot<sup>t</sup> the substance is in me
 If any thyng<sup>s</sup> shal wel reported be Sir / sey somewhat of huntynge I yow preye
 ¶ Nay quod this Monk / I haue no lust to pleye 3996
 Now lat another telle / as I haue toold<sup>d</sup>
 Thanne spak oure hoost<sup>t</sup> with rude speche and boold<sup>d</sup>
 And seyde / vn-to the Nonnes preest anon
 Com neer thou preest. com hyder thow sir Iohn 4000
 Telle vs swich thyng<sup>s</sup> as may oure hertes glade
 Be bliithe / though thou ryde vp-on a Iade
 What thogh thyu hors / be bothe foule and lene
 If he wol serue thee / rekke nat a bene 4004
 Looke / that thyu herte / be murie euere mo
 ¶ Yis sir quod he / yis hoost so moot I go
 But I be myrle / ywis I wol be blamed
 And right anon / his tale he hath attamed 4008
 And thus he seyde / vn-to vs euerichon
 This swete preest. this goodly man sir Iohn

¶ Explicit

[8 lines blank in the MS.]

That on youre bridal hange / on euery syde
 By heneus kyng: pat for vs alle dyde
 I sholde er this / haue fallen down for sleepe
 Al thogh the slow / hadde neuere ben so deepe 3988
 Thanne hadde youre tale / al be toold in veyn
 for certeynly / as pat thise clerkes seyn
 Where as a man / may haue noon audiance
 Naught helpeth it to tellen his sentence 3992
 And wel I woot<sup>t</sup> the substance is in me
 If any thyng<sup>s</sup> shal wel reported be Sire / sey som what of huntynge I yow preye.
 ¶ Nay quod this Monk / I haue no lust to pleye 3996
 Now lat another telle / as I haue toold ¶ Thanne spak oure hoost<sup>t</sup> with rude speche & boold
 And seyde / vn-to the Nonnes preest anon
 Com neer thow preest com hider thow sir Iohn 4000
 Telle vs swich thyng<sup>s</sup> as may oure hertes glade
 Be blythe / though thow ryde vp-on a Iade
 What<sup>t</sup> thogh thyu hors / be bothe foul and lene
 If he wol serue thee / rekke nat a bene 4004
 Looke / that thyu herte / be murie euere mo
 ¶ Yis sire quod he / yis hoost so mote I go
 But I be murie / ywis I wol be blamed
 And right anon / his tale he hath attamed 4008
 And thus he seyde / vn-to vs euerichon
 This swete preest this goodly man sir Iohn

Explicit ¶

pat in your' brideth hongeth on euery syde [Stoane MS 1065]
 By heneus kyng: pat for vs alle dyede
 I shalle for þis falle down for slope Al þouge þe slowe; hade neuere be so depe 3988
 þan halþi youre tale ben tolde in wayne for certeynly as þese clerkes sayne Where as a man may han none audiance
 Nought helpeth to tellen hys sentence 3992
 And wele I woot þe substance is in me yf ony thyng shal wele reportid be Sir / says some what of huntynge I you praye Nay quod / þe Monke I haue no luste to pleye 3996 Nowe let a noþer telle as I haue tolde þan spake our Oste with rude speche and bolde [our 114, 5003]
 And sayd vnto þe Nonnes Preest a-none
 Come nere Sir Preest comme nere sir Iohn 4000
 Telle vs suche thynges as may our hertes glade Be mery þouge þou ryde vpon A Iade.
 þat / þei þine hors . be foul or lene Yf / he wille serue þe rekke þe nougt / a bene 4004
 looke þat þine hert / be mery euere mo þis . hoost [quod he so mote I ryde or go
 But / I be mery y-wys I wille be blamed
 And righ / a-mene he hath hys tale y-tamed 4008
 And þus he seyde to vs euereichon Thys swete preest / þis gode man Sir Iohn Here endeth þe Prologge

jæt on þoure bridel hangep on enery syde /
 By heuene kinge jæt for vs alle dyde
 I schal for þis falle down for slepe / Al pough þe slouȝht hadde neuer ben so depe 3988
 þan hadde þoure tale be told in veyn for certeynly as þese clerkes sayn
 Wher as a man may haue non audience
 Nought helpeþ it to tellen his sentence 3992
 And wel I woot þe substance is in me /
 If any þinge schal wel reported be Sir say somewhat of huntynge! I þou pray
 Nay quod þe monke I haue no lust to play 3996
 Now lete anoþer telle as I haue tolde þanne spak oure Ost wip ruyde speche and bolde
 And sayde vnto þe nonnes prest anon
 Come nere sirs prest com hider sirs Iohn 4000
 Telle vs such þinge as may oure hertes glade
 Be mery pough þou ryde vpon a Iade /
 What pough þin hors be haggad foul or lene
 If he wil serue þe rekke þe nought a bene 4004
 Loke jæt þin herte be mery euermo þis Ost quod he so mote I ryde or go
 But I be mery I-wys I wil be blamed
 And right anon he hap his tale tamed 4008
 And þus he seyde to vs euerychon
 This swete prest þis goode man sirs Iohn

¶ Explicit prologus.

That on þoure bridel honge on enery side
 By heuene kynges jæt for vs alle deyde
 I schuld er þis haue falle down for slepe
 Al pough [þe] sclouþe had neuer be so depe 3988
 Than hap þoure tale ben told in veyn for certeynly as al þise clerkes seyn
 wher as a [man] may haue non audience
 Nought helpeþ it to telle his sentence 3992
 And wel I wroote þe substance is in me þif any þinge schal wel reported be Sir say somwhat of huntynge! I þou preie
 Nay quod þis monke I haue no that to pleie 3996 Now lat anoþer telle as I haue tolde þan spak our host with rude spech and bold
 And saide vnto þe nonnes prest anon
 Come nere sirs prest! Come hider! Sirs Iohn 4000
 Telle vs such þingges as may our hertis glade
 Be bliþ þouge þou ride vpon a Iade
 What þouge þine hors be boþ foule and lene þif he wil serue þe rek! nat a lene 4004
 Loke jæt þi hert be mery euermo þis sirs quod he þis host so mote I go
 But I be mery I-wis I wil be blamed
 And right anon his tale he hap atamed 4008
 And þus seide to vs euerychon
 My tale I wil bygygne anon 4008
 (overleaf)

¶ Thus endep þe prologe of þe nonnes preste þat on þoure bridel hangep on euery side

 Be heuen kinge jæt for vs al deide
 I schal for þis fal downe for slepe 3988
 Al-pouhe þe slouhe haddo neuere be so depe
 Than hadde þoure tale be tolde in veyne
 For certeynly as þes clerkes seyne
 Where as a man may haue none audience
 Nowht helþþeþ to tellen his sentence 3992
 And wels I woot þe substance is in me
 If any þinge schal wel reported be Sire say sum what of huntynge. I. þoure preie Naye quod þe monke. I. haue no luste to pleie 3996 Nowe latte a noþere tel as. I. haue tolde
 Than spak oure Oste wip rude speche & bolde
 And seide vnto þe Nonne preste anone
 Com nere sirs prest come hider sirs Iohn 4000
 Tel vs suche þinge as may oure hertes glade Be merye þouhe þou ride vpon a Iade þat þouhe þine hors be foule or lene
 If he wil serue þe rekke þe nouht a bene 4004
 Looke þat þine herte be mery euermo þis oste quod he so mot. I. ride or go Bot. I. be mery. I-wisse. I. wil be blamed
 And right anone he hap his tale tamed 4008
 And þus he seide to vs euerychon
 This swete preste þis Goodman sirs Iohn ¶ Heere bigynneth / the Nonnes Preestes tale of the Cok' and Hen Chauntecleer and Pertelote

A poure wydwe / somdel stape in age
Was whilom dwellyngt in a narwe cotage 4012
Beside a groue / stondyngs in a dale
This wydwe / of which I telle you my tale Syn thilke day / that she was last a wyf/ [Painting of the Nun's Priest's Tale]
In pacience / ladde a ful symple lyf/ 4016
ffor litel / was hir catel and hire rente
By housbondrie / of swich as god hire sente
She found hir self / and eek hire doghtren two Three large sowes / hadde she and namo 4020
Three koon / and eek s' sheep pat highte Malle ful sooty / was hir bour/ and eek hire halle
In which she eet' ful many a sklandre meel
Of poynaunt sawce / hir neded neuer a deel 4024
No deyntee morsel / passed thurgh hir throte
Hir diete / was accordant' to hir Cote
Replecioun / ne made hire neuere sik /
Attemprete diete / was al hir physik / 4028
And exercise / and hertes suffisaunce
The goute / lette hire no thyng' for to dannee Nappoplexie / shente nat hir heed'
No wyn ne drank / she / neither whit ne reed' 4032
Hir bord was serued moost' with whit and blak'
Milk' and broun breed / in which she found no lak'
Seynd Bacon / and somtyme an Ey / or tweye
ffor she was / as it were / a maner deye 4036
¶ A yeerd she hadde / enclosed al aboute
With stikkes / and a drye dyche with-oute
In which / she hadde a Cok' hec' Chauntecleer
In al the land' / of crowyng nas his peer 4040
ELLESMEERE (6-T. 283)

¶ Here bigynneth the Nonnes preestes tale of the Cok' and Hen / Chauntecleer & Pertelote / [leaf 99, back]

A poure widwe / som del stape in age
Was whilom dwellyngs / in a narwe cotage 4012
Beside a groue / stondyng in a dale
This widwe / of which I telle you my tale Syn thilke day / pat she was last a wyf
In pacience / ladde a ful symple lyf 4016
ffor / litel was hire catel and hire rente
By housbondrye / of swich as god hire sente
She found hire self / and eek hire doghtren two Three large sowes / hadde she and namo 4020
Three kyn / and eek a sheepe / pat highte Malle ful sooty was hire bour / and eek hire halle
In which she eet' ful many a sklandre meel
Of poynant sawce / hir neded neuer a deel 4024
No deyntee morsel / passed thurgh hir throte
Hir diete / was accordant' to hir cote
Replecioun / ne made hire neuere eyk'
Attempre diete / was al hire physik / 4028
And exercise / and hertes suffisaunce
The gowte / lette hire no thyng for to dannee Nappoplexie / shente nat hire heed
No wyn ne drank she / neither whit ne reed 4032
Hire bord was serued / moost with whit and blak'
Milk and broun breed / in which she found no lak Seynd baco' / and som tyme an Ey / or tweye
ffor she was / as it were / a maner deye 4036
A yeerd she hadde / enclosed al aboute
With stikkes / and a drye dych with-oute
In which / she hadde a cok' / hec' Chauntecleer
In al the land / of crowyng nas his peer 4040
HENGWRT 227 (6-T. 283)

[Sloane MS 1685, on leaf 214, back.]

& begynneth pe tale

A poure wydowe some dale stape in age
Was whilom dwellyngs in a narrow cotage 4012
Be-eydes a grove stondyngs in a dale Thys wydow of which I telle you my tale Syrens þike day pat she was laste a wyfo
In pacience ladde a fulle symple lyf 4016 ffor lytel was hir/ catelle & hir rent
By husbondry of sucho pat god hir/ sent Scho fonde hir/ self / & eke hir dougtrn two Three large sowes hade sho & no moo 4020
Thre kyn & eke a shepe pat hit/ maal ful sofy was hir/ hours and eke hir / haht
In whiche she ete many a selonder mele
Of/ poynaunte sawce hir nodetti neuere a dele 4024
No deynte Morsel passed hir/ throote hir diete was accordaunt to hir coote
Replecion ne made her neuere seke
A-tempre dyete was alle hir/ physiko 4028
And exercise & hert suffisaunce þe gowte let hir no thyng to dannee
No poplexie no shente nougt hir/ heede
Ne vyne dronke she neispe' whyte nor reede 4032
Her bord was serued moost with white & blake (leaf 113)
Mylike and browne brede in whiche she fonde no lake Seynde bako' and some tyme an eye or twice ffor she was as hit were a manere of a deie 4036
A gardeyne she hade enclosed alle aboute
With stykes and a drye dyche with-oute
In whiche she hade a Cok/ pat hyzt Chaunteleero
In alle þe londe of Crawyngs was hye peer 4040
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 283) [this page, Sloane 1685]

Ca<sup>m</sup> xxij<sup>m</sup> ¶ Here begynneth þe nonne prestes tale of þe kokke & his vij. hannes

A Pouere wydowe sundel stoupe in age Def 417, 418
Was whilom dwelling in a narwe cotage 4012
Besydes a groue standyng in a dale
This wydowe of which I telle you my tale
Seyne þilke day þat sche was last / a wyf
In pacience hadde a ful simple lyf 4016 for litel was hire castelle and hire rent
By housbondrye of such as god hire sent Sche fand hire self and eek hire doughtren tuo þre large sowes hadde sche and nonne Ther kyn and eek a scheep þat highte malle ful sooty was hire bour and eek hire hallo
In which sche eot ful many a skelender mele
Of poynant sauce hire neded neuer a del 4024
No deynte morsell passed hire þrote
Hire dyete was acordant to hire cote Replecion ne made hire neuer seke
A-tempre diete was alle hire þhiske
And exercisio and hertes sufficiance
The goute letted hire no þing to daunce
Ne Poplexie ne schente not hire heed
No wyn ne drank sche neyþer whit ne reed
Hire bord was serued most wijþ white and blak
Milk and broun bred in which sche fond no lak
Seynd Bacon and somtyme an ey or tweye for sche was as it were a manere of a deye 4036
A gardyn sche hadde enclosed alle aboute
Wijþ stikkis and a drye dicke wijþ oute
In which sche hadde a cokk þat highte Chaunteclere
In alle þe land of crowyng nas his peere 4040

CORPUS (6-T. 283)

And here byggyneth þe nonne prest' his tale [see Def 417, 418]

A poor wydowe sundel stoupe in age was whilom dwelling in a narowe cotage 4012 Besides a groue standing in a dale
This widowe of which I telle you my tale Seyne þilk day þat she was last a wif
In pacians had a ful sympl liff 4016 for litel was hur' Castel and hur' rent
By Husbandry of such as god her sent
She fonde hure self and eke her doughtred tuo Thre large sowes had she and no moo.
Thre kyen and eke a shepe þat hight malle ful soty was hur' bour and eke her hallo
In which she eot many a skelender mele
Of poynant sauce hir' neded neuer a dele 4024
Hir' diete was acordant to her cote Replecio ne made her neuer seke Attemper diete was all her' þhisike
And exercisio and hert' sufficiance
The goute letted hur no þing to daunce
Ne poplexie shent not her hede
Noo wyne dronke she neyþer white ne reed 4032
Her boord was serued most wijþ white and blake
Milk and broune brede in which she fond no lakke Seyned Bacon and somtyme an ey or tweye for she was as it were a manere of a deye [see Def 417]
A gardyne she had enclosed al aboute 4037
Wijþ stikkis and a drie dicke wijþ oute
In which she had a cok' þat hight chaunteclere
In alle þe londe of crowyng was his peere 4040

PETWORTH (6-T. 283)

þ' Preste [head-in-]

A Pover widowe sundel stoupe in age Def 417
Was whilom dwelling in a narwe cotage 4012
Besydes a groue standyng in a dale þis wedow whiche .I. tolde you of my tale Sopþen þilke daie sche was last a wif
In pacience hadde a ful simple lif 4016
For litel was hire catel & hire rent
De husbandrye suche as god hire sent Sche fant her self & eke her doughtren tuo þre large sowes hadde sche & no mo þre kyne & eke a schepe þat hight mal ful soty was hir bour & eke hire hal
In which sche eot mony a skelender mele
Of poynant sauce her neded neuer a dele 4024
No deynte morsel passed hire þrote
Hire Dyunt was acordant to hire cote Replecioun maad hir neuer seke Atmpre diete was all hire þhisike
And exercisio and hertes sufficiance
The goute letted hire no þing to daunce
þe Poplexie ne shent mouht hire hode
No wyne dronke sche neyþere white ne reed 4032
Hire borde was serued most wijþ white & blakke Melke & broune brede in which sche fonde no lakke Seyned bakon & somtyme a neye or tweye
For sche was as it were a manere deye 4036
A gardeyns sche hadde closed al aboute
Wijþ stikkis & a drye dicke wijþ oute
In which sche hadde a kok þat hight chauntecler
In al þe land of crowings was his peere 4040

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 283)

His voys was murier/ than the murie orgon
On Messedayes / that in the chirche gon
Wel sikere/ was his crowyng in his logge
Than is a Clokke / or an abbey Orlogge 4044
By nature / he crew eche Ascencion
Of the equynoxial in thilke toon for whan degrees fiftene weren ascended Thanne crew he / that it myghte nat been amended 4048
His Coomb was redder / than the fyn coral
And batayled / as it were a Castel wal
His hyle was blak/ and as the Iest it schoon
Lyk Asure / were hise legges and his toon 4052
Hise nayles / whiter than the lylie flour
And lyk the burned gold / was his colour
This gentil Cok/ hadde in his gouernaunce
Senene hennes / for to doon al his pleasaunce 4056
Whiche were / hise sustres and his paramours
And wonder lyk to hym / as of colours
Of whiche / the faireste hewed / on hir throte
Was cleped / faire damoysele Pertelote 4060
Curteys she was / discreet and debonaire
And compaignable / and bar hyr self so faire
Syn thilke day / pat she was seuen nyght ook
That trewely / she hath the herte in hood 4064
Of Chauntecler / lokyn in euery lith
He loued hire so / pat vrel was hym therwith
But swiche a Ioye was it to here hem syng Whan pat / the brighte sunne / bigan to spryng 4068
In swete accord / My list is faren in londe for thilke tyme / as I haue vnderstonde
Beestes and briddes / koude speke and syng
And so bifel / that in the dawenyng 4072
As Chauntecler / among hise wyues alle
Sat on his perche / that was in the halle
And next hym / sat this faire Pertelote
This Chauntecler / gan gromen in his throte 4076
ELLESMERE (cf. 284)

His voys was murier / than the myrie orgon
On massedayes / pat in the chirche gon
Wel sikere / was his crowyng in his logge
Than is a Clokke / or any Abbey Orlogge 4044
By nature / he knew ech ascencion Of equinoxial / in thilke toon for whan degrees .xv. / were ascended Thanne knew he / pat it myghte nat ben amended 4048
His komb / was redder / than the fyn coral
And batayled / as it were a Castel wal
His hyle was blak/ and as the Iest it schoon
Lyk Asure / ware hise legges and his toon 4052
Hise nayles whitter / than the lylie flour
And lyk the burned gold / was his colour
This gentil cok/ hadde in his gouernaunce
Seuene hennes / for to doon al his pleasaunce 4056
Whiche were hise sustres / and his paramours
And wonder lyke to hym / as of colours
Of whiche / the faireste hewed on hire throte
Was clepid / faire damoysele Pertelote 4060
Curteys she was / discreet/ and debonaire
And compaignable / and bar hir self so faire
Syn thilke day / pat she was seuen nyght oold
That trewely / she hath the herte in hood 4064
Of Chauntecler / lokyn in euery lyth
He loued hire so / pat wal was hym ther with But swich a Ioye was it to here hem syng Whan pat / the brighte sunne gan to spryng 4068
In swete accord / my leet/ is faren in londe
for thilke tyme / as I haue vnderstonde Beestes / and briddes / kouden speke and syng
And so bifel / pat in a dawenyng 4072
As Chauntecler / among hise wyues alle
Sat on his perche / that was in the halle
And next hym sat this faire Pertelote
This Chauntecler / gan gromen in his throte 4076
HENGWRT 228 (-G-T. 284)

lys voice was muryer / þan þe murye orgon (Ellesmere MS 1022)
On masse dayes / þat in þe Chirche goon
Welo sykere / was þe crowyng in hys logge
Then ys a Clok / or an Abbey orlogge 4044
Be nature he knewe eche ascencion Of equynoxial of pilke tonne for whan degrees xv were disceded þan knowe he þat it mygt not be amendid 4048
His colour was reddere than the fyne coral
And batayled as it were a castel wal
His byl was blak / and as the Iest it schoon
Like asure were hise leggis & hise toon 4052
Hise naylis whittere / than the lylie flour
And lik the burnede gold was his colour
This gentil kok hadde in his gouernaunce
Seuene honnys for to doon al his pleasaunce 4056
Whiche were hise sustres & hise paramouris
And wondyr lyk to hym of colours
Of whiche the fayreste hewyd on hire throte
Was clepid fyre damaselle Pertelote 4060
Curteys she was / discreet & debonayre
And compaynable & bar hire self so fayre
Syn thilke day that she was seus þer old
That trewely she hath the herte in hold 4064
Of Chauntecler lokyn in euery lith
He louede hym so that weel was hym therwith
But swich a Ioye it was to heere hem syng Whan that the brighte sunne be-gan to spryng 4068
With swete a-cord myn lef is faryn on londe
for thilke tyme as I haue vnderstonde
Bestis & bryddis coude speke & syng
And so be-fel that in a dawenyng 4072
As Chauntecler a-mong hise wyues alle
Sat on his perche that was in an halle
And next hym sat Dame Pertelote
This Chauntecler gan gromyn in his throte 4076
CAMBRIDGE (G-T. 284)

his voys was merier þan þe mery Orgon
 On masse dayes þat in þe churche gon
 Wel sikerer was þe crowyng in his logge þan is a clokke or any abbay orlogge
 By nature he knowe eche assencion
 Of equinoxial of þilke toun for whan degrees .xv. were descended þenne knewe he þat it might nought ben amended His cambre was redder þen þe fyn coralle
 And batallid as it were a castel walle
 Ylike asure were his legges and his toon
 His hyle was blak and as þe let it schon
 His nayles whitter þen þe lily flour
 And ylike burnyschit gold was his colour
 This gentil cokke hadde in his gournance /
 .vij. hennes for to doon his plesance
 Whiche weren his sesters and his paramours
 And wonderlylike to him as of coloures
 Of which þe fairest hewed on þe þrote
 Was cleped faire damisel pertolote
 Curteis sche was discret and debonaire
 And companable / and bar hire self so faire Sijens þilke day þat sche was sevenyght olde þat trowly sche haþ þe herte in holde
 Of chaunteclere loken in every lip
 He loued hire so þat wel was him þerwith
 But such a ioye as it was to heere hem syng
 In swete acorde my leef is fare in londe / for þilke tyme as I haue vnderstode
 Beestes and briddes couþe speke and syng
 And so byfelle þat in þe dawnyng /
 As Chaunteclere among his wyfes alle
 Satte on his perche þat was in þe halle
 And next him sat þis faire Pertolote þis Chaunteclere gan gromen in his þrote

CORPUS (6-T. 284)

His mouþ was myrier þan þe mery orgon
 On masse daies þat in þe churche gon
 Wel sikerer was þe crowyng in his logge þan is a clokke or an abbay orlogge
 By nature he crewe eche assencion
 Of Equinoxial of þilke toun
 for whan degrees .xv. were descended þat knewe he þat it mygt not ben amended His Combe was redder þan þe fyne Curah
 And batelid as it were a castel war
 Ilike asure were his legges and his toone
 His bille was blake and as þe gote it shon
 His nailles whitter þan þe lily flour
 And ylike burnysshed gold was his colour
 This gentile Cok had in his gournance
 Vij. hennys forto doon his plesance
 Whiche weren his susters and his paramours
 And wonder like to hym as of coloures
 Of þe which þe fairest hewed vnder þrote
 Was clepe fair Damysel Pertolote
 Curteis sche was discret and debonaire
 And Companable and bore her self so faire Sijens þilke day þat sche was vij. nygt olde
 That trowly she haþ þe hert in hold
 Of Chaunteclere loukyn in every lith
 He loued hire so þat wel was hym þer with But such a ioye as it was to here hem syng Whan þat þe bryt sonne gan to spryng
 In swete acorde my leef is fare a londe
 for þilke tyme as I haue vnderstode
 Beestes and briddes coude speke and syng
 And so byfelle þat in þe dawnyng
 As Chaunteclere among his wyues alle
 Sat on his perch þat was in þe halle
 And next hym sat þis faire Pertolote
 This Chaunteclere gan gromen in his þrote

4 E PETWORTH (6-T. 284)

His voico was merier þan þe mery organe
 On mesdaies þat in þe churche gone
 Wel sikere was his crowyng in his logge
 Than is a kloke or any abbete orlege
 Be nature he knowe iche assencion
 Of þe equinoxiale of þilk toun For whanne degrees .xv. were descended þen knewe he þat it myht not ben amended His kombe was redder þan þe fine coralle Enbatelid as it were a castel walf
 Ilyke asure was his legges & his tone
 His bille was blakke & as þe gote it schon
 His nailles whitter þan þe lily flour
 And ylike burnessed gold was his colour
 This gentil kok hadd in his gournance
 .Vij. hennes to done him plesance
 Whiche weren his susters & his paramours
 And wonderen ylike to him as of Coloures
 Of wiche þe faire hewo on hire þrote
 Was cleped faire damysel pertolote
 Corteis sche was discret & debonaire
 And companable & bare his self so faire
 Sijens þilke daie sche was sevenyght olde
 That trowly sche haþe þe hert in holde
 Of chaunteclere loken in every lyþe
 He loued hire so þat welo was him þere wip
 But such a ioye it was to here hem syng
 Whan þat þe bryht sonne be-gan to spryng
 In swete accorde. My lone is fare in londe
 For þilke tyme as .I. haue vnderstode
 Beestes & birdes kouþe speke & syng
 And so befel at in a dawnyng
 As Chaunteclere among his wyfes all Sat on his perche þat was in þe hight
 And next him sat þis fair pertolote
 This chaunteclere gan gromen in his þrote

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 284)

285 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

As man þat in his dream / is dreched soore
 ¶ And whan that Pertelote / thus herde hym roore
 She was agast and seyde o herte deere
 What eyeloh yow / to groone in this manere
 Ye been a verrey sleper / fy for shame
 ¶ And he answerde / and seyde thus / madame
 I pray yow / þat ye take it nat agrief
 By god me thoughte / I was in swich meschief
 Right now / þat yet myn herte is soore afright
 Now god quod he / my sweuene reche aright
 And kepe my body / out of foul prisoun
 Me mette / how that I romed vp and down
 With-inne our yereð / where as I saugh a beesþ
 Was lyk an hound / and wolde han maad areest Vpon my body / and han had me deed
 His colour / was bitwixe yelow and reed
 And tipped was his tayl / and bothe hise eris
 With blak / vnlyk the remenaunt of hise heeris
 His snowte smal / with glowyng eyen tweye
 Yet of his look / for feere almost I deye
 This caused me / my gronyng doutelees
 ¶ Avoy quod she / fy on yow hertelees
 Allas quod she / for by that god abone
 Now han ye lost myn herte and al my loue
 I kan nat loue a Coward / by my feith
 for certes / what so any woman seith
 We alle desiren / if it myghte beo
 To han housbondes / hardy wise and free
 And seere / and no Nygard / no no fool
 Ne hym / þat is agast of euery tool
 Ne noon sauantour / by that god abone
 How durste ye seyn for shame / vn-to youre loue
 That any thyng myghte make yow aferd
 Hane ye no mannes herte / and han a berd
 ¶ Allas and konne ye been agast of sweueny
 No thyng god woot / but vanitee in sweuene is

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 285)

285 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Hongwrt MS. 229

As man / þat in his dream / is dreched soore
 ¶ And whan þat Pertelote / thus herde hym roore
 She was agast / and seyde herte deere
 What eyeloh yow / to groone in this manere
 Ye been a verrey sleper / fy for shame
 ¶ And he answerde / and seyde thus / madam
 I prey yow / þat ye take it nat agrief
 By god me mette / I was in swich meschief
 Right now / þat yet myn herte is soore afright
 Now god quod he / my sweuene reche aright
 I [A]nd kepe my body / out of foul prisoun
 Me mette / how that I romed vp and down
 With-inne our yereð / where as I say a beesþ
 Was lyk an hound / and wolde han maad arest
 Vp-on my body / and han had me deid
 His colour / was bitwixe yelow and red
 And tipped was his tayl / and bothe hise erys
 With blak vnlyk the remenaunt of hise herys
 His snowte smal / with glowyng eyen tweye
 Yet of his look / for feere almost I deye
 This caused me / my gronyng doutelees
 ¶ Avoy quod she / fy on yow hertelees
 Allas quod she / for by that god abone
 Now han ye lost myn herte and al my loue
 I kan nat loue a Coward / by my feith
 for certes / what so any woman seith
 We alle desiren / if it myghte be
 To han housbondes / hardy / wise and fre
 And seere / and no nygard / no no fool
 Ne hym / þat is agast of euery tool
 Ne noon sauantour / by that god aboue
 How durste ye seyn / for shame / vn-to youre loue
 That any thyng myghte make yow aferd
 Hane ye no mannes herte / and han a berd
 Allas / and konne ye ben agast of sweueny
 No thyng god woot / but vanitee in sweuene is

HONGWRT 229 (6-T. 286)

285 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

As man that in his dream is drechid soore
 And whan that pertelote thus herde hym roore
 Sche was a-gast & seyde herte deere What eyelih þow to groone in this manere þe been a verrey sleper fy for schame
 And he answerde thus / & seide Madame
 I preyre þow that þe take it nat at graf
 By god me mette I was in swich myschief
 Rygh now that þit myn herte is soore afrit
 Now god quod he myn sweuene reche a-rygh[1]
 And kepe myn body out of foul prisoun
 Me mette how that I romede vp & down
 With-inne cure þard where that I saw a beste
 Was lyk an hound & wolde han mad a-reste
 Vp-on myn body & anhad me deed
 His colour was be-twixe yelw & reed
 And typpid was his tayl & bothe hise eris
 With blak onlyk the remenaunt of hise þeris His snoute smal with glowyng eyen tweye þit for his lok for fer almost I deye Thiȝ causede me myn gronyng douteles
 Avoy quod sche fy on þow herteles
 Allas quod sche for by that god a-boue
 Now han þe lost myn herte & al myn loue
 I can nat loue a coward by myn feyth for certys what so any woman seyth
 We alle desyrn þit it myghte be
 To han husbondis hardy wys & fre
 And seere / & no nygard / no no fool
 Ne hym that is agast of euery tool
 Ne noon sauantour by that god a-boue
 How durste þe seyn for schame on to þowre loue
 That any thyng myghte make þow a-feryd
 Han þe no manys herte & han a berd
 Allas & konne þe been agast of sweueny
 No thyng god wot but vanite in sweuene is

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 286)

As a man þat<sup>s</sup> is in his dreame dreeched sore
 And when þat Pertolote þus herde him rose Sche was agast/ and sayde herte deere
 What<sup>s</sup> eyleþ þou to grons in þis manere 30 þen a verray sleper fy for schame /
 And he answered and sayde þus ma dame /
 I pray þou þat þe take it not to greet<sup>s</sup>
 By god me mette þat<sup>s</sup> I was in such mischeof<sup>s</sup> 4084 Right<sup>s</sup> now þat<sup>s</sup> þet myn herte is sore afright<sup>s</sup> Now quod he my swevene red aright<sup>s</sup>
 And kepe my body out of foul prisoun
 Me mette þat<sup>s</sup> I romed vp and doun
 4088 Wijpinn ourse yerde wher as I saught a beeste Was likt an hound and wolde han made areste / vpon my body and wolde han had me deed
 His colour was betwixe whit<sup>s</sup> and red 4092 And tipped was his tail and boþe his eeres Wijþ blak<sup>s</sup> vnlik<sup>s</sup> þe remenant<sup>s</sup> of his beeres
 his snowite smal with glowyng<sup>s</sup> eyen tweye 30þ of his look<sup>s</sup> for fere almost I deye 4096 This caused me my gromyng<sup>s</sup> douteles
 Avoy quod sche // fy on þou herteles
 Allas quod sche ffor by þat<sup>s</sup> god aboute 4100 Now hane þe lost myn<sup>s</sup> herte and al my lous
 I can nought<sup>s</sup> loue a coward by my feip<sup>s</sup> ffor certes what<sup>s</sup> so eny woman seiþ
 We wolle alle desyren if it mighte be 4104 To hane husbondes hardy wise and fro
 And acre ne no nyggard ne no fool
 Ne him þat<sup>s</sup> is agast<sup>s</sup> of enery toot Ne non auantour by þat<sup>s</sup> god aboute 4108 How doret<sup>s</sup> þe say for schame vnto þoure loue /
 That<sup>s</sup> eny þing<sup>s</sup> might<sup>s</sup> make þou aferd. [¶ and in Reg. 28 C. 5. v. 128]
 Han þe no mannes herte and han a berd
 Allas and konne þe be agast<sup>s</sup> of sweneons [Nothyng<sup>s</sup> god wote. but vanite in sweneis is.] [Reg. 17 D. xx. line 250]

As a man þat<sup>s</sup> is in his dreame dreeched sore
 And when þat Pertolote þus herd hym rose
 She was a-gast<sup>s</sup> and seide hert<sup>s</sup> dere 4080 What<sup>s</sup> eyleþ þou to grons in þis manere þe be a verray ecleper fy for schame
 And he answerd and seide þus madame
 I prey þou þat<sup>s</sup> þe take it not a greet<sup>s</sup>
 4084 By god me mette þat<sup>s</sup> I was in such mischeof<sup>s</sup>
 Right<sup>s</sup> now þat<sup>s</sup> þit myn hert<sup>s</sup> is sore afright<sup>s</sup>
 Nowe god [quod] he my swouen rede aright<sup>s</sup>
 And kepe my body out of foule prisoun
 4088 Me mette þat<sup>s</sup> I romed vp and doun
 Wit<sup>s</sup>-in our yerde wher as I seght a beest<sup>s</sup>
 Was likt an hounde and wold<sup>s</sup> hane made arest<sup>s</sup>
 Vpon my body and wold hane had me dede 4092 His colour was bytwix white and red
 And tipped was his taille and boþ his eeres Wijþ blak<sup>s</sup> vnlike þe remenant<sup>s</sup> of his beeres
 His snowite smal with glowyng<sup>s</sup> eyen tweye 4096 þit for his loko almost for fere I deye
 This caused me my gromyng<sup>s</sup> douteles
 A voy quod she fle on þou herteles
 Allas quod she for by þat<sup>s</sup> god aboute 4100 Now han þe lost myn<sup>s</sup> hert<sup>s</sup> and my lous I can not loue a coward by my feip<sup>s</sup> ffor certes what<sup>s</sup> so eny woman seiþe
 We alle desiren þit it mygt<sup>s</sup> be 4104 To han husbondes hardy wise and free
 And acre ne no nyggard ne ne fool
 To hym þat<sup>s</sup> is a-gast<sup>s</sup> of enery toot Ne non avoutour by þat<sup>s</sup> god aboute 4108 How durt<sup>s</sup> þe seyn for schame vnto þour loue
 That<sup>s</sup> eny þing<sup>s</sup> mygt<sup>s</sup> make þou a-ferde Hane þe no manny<sup>s</sup> hert<sup>s</sup> and han a berde Allas and conne þe be a-gast<sup>s</sup> of sweneons 4112 No þing<sup>s</sup> god wote but vanite in sweneis is [¶ and 260]

As a man þat<sup>s</sup> in his dreame is dreeched sore
 And when þat Pertolote þus herde him Rose
 Sche was agast & seide lght<sup>s</sup> dere 4080 What eyleþ þowe to grons in þis manere þe be a verray sleper fy for schame
 And he answerd & seide þus madame
 I pray þow þat þe take it to no greuu 4084 Be god me mette þat .I. was in such mischeou Riht<sup>s</sup> now þat þit myne hert is sore sfiht Nowe quod he My swouen rede writht
 And kepe my body oute of foule prisone 4088 Me mette þat .I. Romed vp & doune Wijþ-inne ourse þerð where as .I. sawe a beste
 Was like an hunde & wolde hane maad areste Vpon My body & wolde hane hadde me dede 4092 His colour was be-twixe white & Rede
 And tipped was his tail & boþ his eres
 Wijþ blak vnlyke þe remenant of his heres .
 His snowite smal wijþ glowyngs eyen tweye 4096 þit of his loko almoste for fere .I. deye þis caused me my gromelng<sup>s</sup> doutales Avoye quod sche fy on þowe hertales
 Allas quod sche for þe þat god aboute 4100 Now hane þe lost myn hert & my lous
 .I. kan nouht loue a coward be my feip
 For certes what so any woman seiþe Wil al desiren if it myht be 4104 To hane husbundes harde wise & fro
 And acre ne no nygard ne none fol
 Ne him þat is agast of enery tole
 Ne none avantour be þat god aboute 4108 How doret þe seye for schame vnto þoure loue þat any þinge myht make þowe aferde Hane þe some mannes herte & han berde 4112 Allas & kan þe be agast of sweneis is [¶ and 259. v. 128. 28]
 [No thyng god woot/ but vanite/ in sweneis is.] [¶ and 259. v. 128. 28]

Swouenys / engenderen of replecciōns
 And ofte of fume / and of complecciōns Whan humours / been so habundaunt in a wight<sup>h</sup>
 ¶ Certes this drem / which ye han met to nyght<sup>h</sup> 4116
 Cometh / of greet superfluytes
 Of youre redde Colera parde
 Which causeth folk / to dreden in hir dremes
 Of Arwes / and of fyre with rede lemes 4120
 Of grete bestes / that they wol hem byte
 Of contekes and of whelpes / grete and lyte
 Right as the humour / of Malencolie
 Causeth ful many a man / in aleope to erie for feere of blake beres / or boles blake
 Or ellis / blake deuylis wole hem take
 ¶ Of othere humours / koude I telle also
 That werken many a man / in sleep ful wo 4128
 But I wol passe / as lightly as I kan
 Lo Catoñ which þat was so wys a man
 Seyde he nat thus / ne do no foris of dremes ¶ Now sire quod she / whan ye fleo fro the bemes 4132 for goddes loue / as taak som laxatyf<sup>h</sup> Vp peril of my soule / and of my lyf<sup>h</sup>
 I conseilte yow the beste / I wol nat lye
 That bothe of Colere / and of Malencolye 4136
 Ye purge yow / and for ye shal nat tarye
 Though / in this town / is noon Apothecarie
 I shal my self / to herbes techen yow
 That shul been / for youre hele / and for youre prow 4140
 And in oure yerd / the herbes shal I fynde
 The whiche han / of hire properteie by kynde
 To purge yow / byneth and eek aboue
 foryet nat this / for goddes owene loue
 Ye ben ful coleryk / of complecciōn
 Ware the sonne / in his ascencion
 Ne fynde yow nat replet / of humours hoote .
 And if it do / I dar wel lye a groto 4148

Swouenys / engenderen of replexiōns
 And ofte / of fume / and of complexiōns Whan humours / ben so habundaunt in a wight<sup>h</sup>
 Certes this drem / which ye han met to nyght<sup>h</sup> 4116
 Comth / of the grete superfluytes
 Of youre redde Colera parde
 Which causeth folk / to dreden in hir dremes
 Of Arwes / and of fyr with rede lemes 4120
 Of redde bestes / that they wol hem byte .
 Of contek and of whelpis grete and lyte
 Right as the humour / of Malencolie
 Causeth ful many a man / in aleope to erie for feer of blake beres / or boles blake
 Or ellis / blake deuylis wole hem take
 Of othere humours / koude I telle also
 That werken many a man / in sleep ful wo 4128
 But I wol passe / as lightly as I kan
 Lo Catoñ which þat was so wys a man
 Seyde he nat thus / ne do no foris of dremes ¶ Now sire quod she / whan we fleo fro this bemes 4132 for goddes loue / as taak som laxatif<sup>h</sup> Vp peril of my soule / and of my lif
 I conseilte yow the beste / I wol nat lye
 That bothe of Colere / and of Malencolye 4136
 Ye purge yow / and for ye shal nat tarye
 Though / in this town / is noon Apothecarye
 I shal my self / to herbes techen yow
 That shul ben / for youre heele and for youre prow 4140
 And in oure yerd / the herbes shal I fynde
 The whiche han / of hire properteie by kynde
 To purge yow / byneth and eek aboue
 foryet nat this / for goddes owene loue
 Ye ben ful colerik / of complexion
 Ware the sonne / in his Ascencion
 Ne fynde yow nat replet / of humours hoote
 And if it do / I dar wel lye a groto 4148

Swouenys engenderyn / of repleciounys
 And ofte of fume & of complexiounys Whanne humours / been to habundaunt in a wight Certis this drem whiche þe han met to nyght 4116
 Comyth of the greete superfluyte
 Of youre redde colera parde
 ¶ Whiche causeth folk to dredyn in here dremys
 Of arwis & of fyr with rede lemys 4120
 Of redde bestis that they wale hyge byte
 Of contek & of whelpis greete & lite
 Right as the humour of malencolie Causith-ful manye a man in slep to crye 4124 for feer of blake beris / or of bolys blake
 Or ellis blake deuylis wole hem take
 Of othere humours koude I telle also
 That werkyn manye a man in sleep ful wo 4128
 But I wele passe as lyghtly as I can
 To Catoñ which that was so wis a man
 Seyde he nat thus ne do no foris of dremys ¶ Now sire quod she whan we fleo from the bemes 4132 for godis loue tak sum laxatyf Vp peril of myn soule & of myn lyf
 I conseyle þow the beste I wele nat lye That bothe of colere & of malencolye 4136 þe purge þow & for þe schal nat tarye Thow in this town is non apotecarye
 I schal myn self to erbis techen þow
 That schul been for þoure hele & for þoure prow 4140
 And in oure yerd two erbis schal I fynde
 The whiche han of hire properteie by kynd
 To purge þow be-neth & ek a-boue for-ȝet nat this for godis owene loue 4144 þe been ful colerik of complexioun Ware the sunne in his ascencion Ne fynde þow nat replet / of humours hoote for yef he do / I dar lye a groto 4148

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Corpus MS. SIX-TEXT 286

Swevenes engendren of replexions
 [And of/ of synne, and of complexionis/] [1 not to be read. 10 C 12] (MS Reg. 17 D 23)
 When humours ben to habundaunt in a wight Cartes pis dreme which 3e han herd to nyght 4116
 Cometh of þe grete superfluite
 Of ȝoure reede colre sira parde
 Which causeþ folk to drumen here dremes
 Of arwes and of fyure with ȝeeds leemes 4120
 Of Rede bestes þat wold þom bite (MS 286)
 Of Contelle and of whelpes grete an lyte
 Right as he humour malencolie
 Causeþ many a man in slepe to crye 4124
 For feere of beres and of boles blake Or elles blake deueles wold hem take
 Of oþer humourous coupe I telle also þat werken many a man in sleep ful woo 4128
 But I wol passe as lightly as I can Loo Caton which þat was so wys a man
 Seid he nouȝt þus ne do no foree of dremes
 Now sira quod sche whan we fleo fro þe beemes 4132 for goddes loue as takeþ som laxatif Vp perile of my soule and of my lyf
 I counsaile ȝou þe beste I wol not lye 4136 þat þoþe of colre and of Malencolie 3e purge ȝou and for 3e schuln nouȝt tary pouȝ þat in þis toune is non Apotecary
 I schal my self to herbes techen ȝou
 That schal ben ȝoure hele and ȝoure prow
 And in þe gardyn þo herbes schal I fynde 4140
 The whiche han of here proprete by kynde
 To purgen ȝou by-neþe and eke abone forȝeteþ nouȝt þis for goddes owne loue 4144 3e ben ful Colerik of Complexioun Were þe sonne in his ascension Ne fynde ȝou replete and ȝoure humors hote and if it doo I dar wel lay a groote 4148

CORPUS (6-T. 286)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Petworth MS. SIX-TEXT 286

Swevenes engendren of replexions
 And of/ of fume and of complexionis
 When humours bene to habundaunt in a wight Cartes pis dreme which 3e han had to nyȝt 4116
 Commeþ of þe grete superfluite
 Of ȝoure reede Colere parde
 Which causeþ folk to dreme her dremes
 Of Arwes and fires wip rede lomes 4120
 Of Rede beestes þat willen hem bite
 Of contak and of whelpes grete and lite
 Riȝt as þe humour of Malencolie Causeþ [ful] mony a man in slepe to crye 4124 for feere of beeres and boles blake Or elles blake denels wil hem take
 Of oþer humourous coupe I telle also þat werken mony a man in slepe ful woo. 4128
 But I wil passe as listy as I can Loo Caton which þat was so wise a man
 Seid he not þus ne do no foree of dromes
 Now sira quod she whan we fleo fro the beemes. 4132 for goddis loue as takeþ som laxatif Vp perile of my saule and of my liff
 I counsaile ȝou þe best I wil not lye
 That þoþ of colour and of Malencolie 4136 3e purge ȝou and for 3e schul not tario pouȝ þat in þis toune is now Apotecarie
 I schal my self to herbes techen ȝou which schal be ȝoure here and ȝour prove 4140
 And In þe Gardyne two herbes schal I fynde þe whiche han of her proprete by kynde
 To purgen ȝou by-neþe and eke abone forȝeteþ not þis for goddes awne loue 4144 3e bene ful Coleriko of complexion
 Where þe sonne in his ascension
 Ne fynde ȝou replete of ȝour humours hote
 And if it doo I dar wel lay a grote 4148

PETWORTH (6-T. 286)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Lansdowne MS. SIX-TEXT 286

Swevenes engendur of replexions
 [And of/ of fame & of complexionis/] (MS Reg. 1794, 23)
 When humours bien to abundant in a whight
 Cartes pis dreme which 3e haue herd to nyht 4116
 Cometh of þe grete superfluite
 Of ȝoure reda coloure parde
 Whiche causeþ folk to dreme hire dremes
 Of Arwes and of fire wip rede lemes 4120
 Of Rede bestes þat willen hem bite
 Of contak & of whelpes grete & lite
 Riht as þe humore malencolie
 Causeþ many a man in slepe to crye 4124
 For feere of beres & boles blake
 Or elles blake deneles wi him tak Of oþere humourous coup .I. tel also þat werken mony a man in slepe ful wo 4128
 Bot .I. wil passe as listly as .I. kan
 Loo Caton whiche þat was so wise a man
 Seide he not þus ne do no foree of dromes
 Now sira quod sche whan we flye fro þe beemes 4132
 For goddes loue as take sun laxatif Vpon perile of my saule & of my lyf
 .I. counsel ȝowe þe best .I. wil nouȝt lye þat þoþe of coloure & of Malencolie 4136 3e pure ȝowe! & for ȝe scholne nouȝt tary pouȝ þat in þis toune is no potecarye
 .I. schal my self to erbes techen ȝowe (MS 286, 286K) þat schal biene ȝoure hele & ȝoure prove 4140
 And in þe gardyne þo erbes schal .I. fynde þe whiche haus of here prop[er]te be kinde
 To purgen ȝowe be-neþe & eke abone
 For-ȝetteþ nouȝt þis for goddes owen loue 4144 3e bien ful colerik of complexionne
 Were þe sonne in his ascensionne
 Ne fynde ȝou replete of ȝoure humers hote
 And if it doo! I. dare wel leie a grote 4148

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 286)

That ye shul haue / a feureu terciane
Or an Agw / that may be youre hane
A day or two / ye shul haue digestyues [Def 184, back]
Of wormes / er ye take youre laxatyues 4162
Of lawriol / Centaure / and fumetere
Or elles of Ellebor / that groweth there
Of Katapuce / or of Gaitrys berys
Of herbe yue growyng in oure yerd that mery is 4166
Pakke hem vp right<sup>s</sup> / as they growe and ete hem yn
Be myrie housonde / for youre fader kyn
Dredeth no dreem / I kan sey yow namoore
Madame quod he / grant<sup>t</sup> merycy of youre loore 4160
But natheles / as touchyng<sup>t</sup> Daun Catoun
That hath of wysdom / swich a greet renoun
Thogh þat he bad / no dremes for to drede 4164
By god / men may / in olde bookes rede
Of many a man / moore of auctorite
Than euere Caton was / so moot I thee
That al the reuers seyn / of this sentence
And han wel founden by experiance 4168
That dremes / been signyfificaciōs
As wel of Ioye / as of tribulaciōs
That folk enduren / in this lif present<sup>t</sup>
Ther nedeth / make of this noon Argument<sup>t</sup> 4172
The verray preue / sheweth it in dede
¶ On / of the gretteste Auctour / þat men rede ¶ [Nota do Sampyelo]
Seiþ thus / þat whilom two felawes wente
On pilgrymage / in a ful good entente 4176
And happed so / they coomen in a town
Wher as ther was / swich congregacioun
Of peple / and eek so streit<sup>t</sup> of herbergage
That they ne founde / as muche as o cotage 4180
In which they bothe / myghte logged be Wherfore / they mosten of necessitee
As for that nyght departen compaignye
And ech of hem / gooth to his hostelrye 4184
ELLESMERE (6-T. 287)

That ye shul haue / a feureu terciane
Or an Agew / þat may be youre hane
A day / or two / ye shul haue degestuyes
Of wormes / er ye take youre laxatyues 4162
Of Lawriol / Centaure and fumetere
Or ellis of Ellebor / that groweth there
Of Katapuce / or of Gaytrys berys
Of herbe yue growyng in oure yerd / they merye is 4166 Pakke hem vp right as ther growe / and ete hem In
Be myrie housonde / for youre fader kyn
Dredeth no dreem / I kan sey yow namoore
¶ Madame quod he / grant merycy of youre loore 4160
But natheles / as touchyng<sup>t</sup> daun Catoun
That hath of wisdom / swich a grēt renoun
Thogh þat he bad / no dremes for to drede
By god men may / in olde bokes rede 4164
Of many a man / moore of auctorities Than euere Caton was / so mote I thee
¶ [T]hat al the reuers seyn / of his sentence [P. Barts. leaf 161, b2]
And han wel founden / by experiance 4168
That dremes / been signyfificaciōs
As wel / of ioye / as tribulaciōs
That folk enduren / in this lyf present<sup>t</sup>
Ther nedeth / make of this noon argument<sup>t</sup> 4172
The verray preue / sheweth it in dede
¶ On / of the gretteste Auctour / þat men rede
Seiþ thus / þat whilom two felawes wente
On pilgrymage / in a ful good entente 4176
And happed so / they coomen in a town
Wher as ther was / swich congregacioun
Of peple / and eek so strait of herbergage
That they ne founde / as muche as o cotage 4180
In which they bothe / myghte ylogged be Wherfore / they mosten of necessitee
As for that nyght departe compaignye
And ech of hem / gooth to his hostelrye 4184
HENGWRT 231 (6-T. 287)

That 3e schul han a feureu terciane
Or an agn that may beun yourre hane
A day or two 3e schul haue digestiuis
Of wormys er 3e take yourre laxatyues 4162
Of lauriols centaurye / & fumetere
Or ellis of Elebre that groweth there
Of Katapuce / or of Gaitris berys Or Erbe Iuo that groweth in oure yerd there merye is Fikke hem vp righ as they growe & ete hem in 4167
Be merye husonde for yourre fadyr kyn Dredyth no dreem I can seye 3ow no moore
Madame quod he grauntt merycy of yourre loore 4160
But natheles as touchith Daun Catoun
That hath of wisdom swich a greet renoun Thow that he bad no dremys for to dreede [Def 207, back]
By god men may in olde bokis rede 4164
Of manye a man moore of auctorie Thas euere catoun was so mote I the
That al the reuers seyn of his sentence
And han weel foundyn by experiance 4168
That dremys been signyfificaciounys
As wel of ioye as of tribulaciounys
That folk enduren in this lyf present
Therere nedyth of this makyn non argument 4172
The verray preue echewith it in dede
¶ Some of the gretteste auctourys as men rede [Neville] Seiþ thus that to felawys wente
On pilgrymage with a ful good entente[nt] 4176
And happede so they coomyn in a town
Wher as therre was swich a congregacioun
Of peple & ek so streit of herbigage
That they ne founde as meche as a cotage 4180
In which they myghe bothe I-loggede be Wherfore they musten of necessite
As for that nyght departyn compaignye
And echo of hem goth to his ostellerye 4184
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 287)

That þo schuln haue a fewer terciane
 Or an agw þat may ben þoure hane
 A day or tuo þo schuln haue digestyues
 Of wormes or 3o take þoure laxatyues 4152
 Of laureole Centaure and of fynytere
 Or ellis of Ellibore þat groweþ þere
 Of Catapuce or of gatyres buryes
 Of herbe ywe growyng' in oure yarde þer mery is 4156
 Þek hem vp rih't as þey growe and et' hem In (leaf 210, back)
 Be mery husbonds for þoure sadres kyn Dredeþ no dreem I can say þou no more
 Ma dame quod he gramercy of þoure lore 4160
 But napeles as touchyng' dann Catoun
 That' haþ of wisdom such a gret' renoun
 By god men may in olde bookes reþde
 Oon of þe grettest' auctour out' of drede 4164
 Of many a man more of auctorite þene euer Catou was so mote I þe
 That' alle þe reuers sein of his sentence
 And han wel founden by experience 4168
 That' dreemes ben significacioun
 As wel of ioye as of tribulacioun
 That' folk enduren in þis lif' present
 Ther nedep nouþ' to make of þis non argument' 4172
 The verrey preef' scheweþ it in dede
 Oon of þe grettest' auctour þat men rede Saiþ þus þat' whilom tuo felawes went
 On pyllgrimage in a ful good entent' 4176
 And happed so þey camen in-to a toun
 Wher as þer was such congregacioun
 Of peple and eek' of streight' herburgyge
 That' þey ne fand as moche as a cotage / 4180
 In which þey boþe myght' y-logged be Wherefor þey mosten of necessite
 As for þat' nyght' departen of companye
 And vche of hem goþ vnto his ostelrye 4184 þat þo schul haue a fewer terciane.

 Or an agwe þat may be þour hane (leaf 210, back)
 A day or tuo þo schul haue digestyues
 Of wormes or 3o take þoure laxatyues 4152
 Of laureal Centaure and of fynytere
 Or ellis of Ellibore þat' groweþ þere
 Of Catapuce and of gatyres-buries
 Of Erbe Iwe growyng' in oure yerd' þer mery es 4156
 Þek hem vp rih't as þei growe and ete hem Inne
 Be mery husbonds for þour' sader kynne Dredeþ no dreeme I can say þou no more
 Madame quod he gramercy of þoure lore 4160
 But napeles as touchyng' Dame Catoun
 That' haþ of wisdoms such grette renoun
 By god men may in olde boikes rede
 Oon of þe grettest' auctour out' of drede 4164
 Of mony a man more of auctorite Than euer catoun was so mot' I the
 That' al the reuers seyn of þis sentence
 Han han wel founden by experience 4168
 That' dreemes bene significacioun
 As wel of loie as tribulacioun
 That' folk enduren in þis lif' present
 If nedep nat' to make of þis non argument' 4172
 The verrey preef' sheweþ it in dede
 Oon of þe grettest' auctour out' of drede
 Saiþ þus þat' whilom tuo felawes went' 4176
 On Pilgrimage in ful good entent
 And happed so þei comen into a tounne
 Wher as þere was such congregacioun Of puple and eke of streite herbygge þat' þei fande not' as moche as a cotage 4180
 In which þei boþe myght' ylogged be Wherefor þei mosten of necessite
 As for þat' nyght' departen of companye
 And eche of hem goþ to his hostelrye 4184 þat þo schal haue a fewere terciane

 Or an Agwe þat maie be þoure han
 A daye or tuo þo schal haue digestiues
 Of wormes ar 3o take þoure laxatiues 4152
 Of Laureole: Centaure & of fynyter
 Or elles of elobore þat groweþ þere
 Of Catapuce or of gaitres buryes
 Of herbe ywe groing' in owre gardine þat mery is 4156
 Þeke hem vp rint as þei growe & ete hem inne
 Be mery husbonds for þoure sadres kinne Dredeþ no dreeme .I. can sei þowe no more
 Madame quod he gramercy of þoure lore 4160
 Bot napeles as toucheing' dan Catoun
 That' haþ of wisdom such grette renounne
 Be god men maie in olde bokes reede
 One of þe grettest' Auctor oute of drede 4164
 And mony a man more of auctorite
 Than euer Caten was so mot' .I. þe
 That' al þe [re]ueres seine of here sentence
 And haue wels founden be experience 4168
 That' dreemes be significacions
 As wels of Ioye as of tribulacions þat folke enduren in þis lif' present
 The nedep' nought to make of þis none argument' 4172
 þe verrei prou scheweþ it in dede
 One of þe grettest' auctor þat men rede seiþ þus þat' whilom tuo felawes gede 4176
 On pilgrenage in a ful grette nede
 And happed so þei cam in to a touzue
 Where as þere was such congregacioun Of peple and eke of streite herbigge þat þei [no] fande as moche as a cotage. 4180
 In which þei boþe myht' y-logged be (leaf 220,) Wherefor þei myhten of necessite
 As for þat' nyht' departen of compaignye
 And iche of hem goþe vntil his ostelrye 4184

And took his loggyng as it wolde falle
 That con of hem / was logged in a stalle fier in a yerd / with Oxen of the plough
 That other man / was logged wel ynough
 As was his Auenture / or his fortune
 That vs gouerneth alle / as in commune
 ¶ And go bifel / þat longe er it were day
 This man mette in his bed ther as he lay
 How þat his felawe / gan vp-on hym calle
 And seyde Allas / for in an Oxes stalle
 This nyght I schal be mordred / ther I lye
 Now helpe me deere brother / or I dye
 In alle haste / com to me he sayde
 ¶ This man out of his sleepe / for feere abrayde
 But whan that he was wakened / of his sleepe
 He turned hym / and took of it no keepe
 Hym thoughte / his dreem nas but a vanitee
 Thus twis / in his slepyng dremed hee
 And atte thridde tyme / yet his felawe
 Cam as hym thoughte / and seyde I am now slawe
 Bihoold my bloody woundes depe and wyde
 Arys vp erly / in the morwe tyde
 And at the West gate / of the town quod he
 A Carte / ful of donge / ther shallow se
 In Which / my body is hid / ful pryncly
 Do thilke Carte / arresten boldly
 My gold caused my mordre / sooth to sayn
 And tolde hym euery point / how he was slayn
 With a ful pitous face / pale of hewe
 And truste wel / his dreem he found ful trewe
 for on the morwe / as soone as it was day
 To his felawes In / he took the way
 And whan þat he cam / to this Oxes stalle
 After his felawe / he bigan to calle
 ¶ The hostiler / answerde hym anon
 And seyde sire / your felawe is agon

And took his loggyng as it wolde falle
 That con of hem / was logged in a stalle
 fier in a yerd / with oxen of the plow
 That other man / was logged wel ynough
 As was his auenture / or his fortune
 That vs gouerneth alle / as in commune
 And so bifel / þat longe / er it were day
 This man mette in his bed / ther as he lay
 How þat his felawe / gan vp-on hym calle
 And seyde allas / for in an Oxes stalle
 This nyght I schal be mordred ther I lye
 Now help me deere brother / or I dye
 In alle haste / com to me / he sayde
 ¶ This man / out of his sleepe / for feere abrayde
 But whan þat he was wakned / of his sleepe
 He turned hym / and took of this no keepe Hym thoughte / his dreem nas but a vanytee Thus twis / in his slepyng dremed he
 And atte thridde tyme / yet his felawe
 Cam as hym thoughte / and seyde I am now slawe
 Bihoold my bloddy woundes / depe and wyde
 Arys vp erly / in the morwe tyde
 And atte Westgate of the town quod he
 A Carte ful of donge / ther shallow se
 In which / my body is hid ful pryncly
 Do thilke Cart arresten boldly
 My gold caused my mordre / sooth to seyn
 And tolde hym euery point / how he was slayn
 With a ful pitous face / pale of hewe
 And truste wel / his dreem he found ful trewe
 for on the morwe / as soone as it was day
 To his felawes In / he took the way
 And whan þat he cam / to this Oxes stalle
 After his felawe / he bigan to call
 ¶ The hostiler / answerde hym anon
 And seyde / sire / your felawe is agon

And tok his loggyng as it wolde falle
 That con of hem was logit in a stalle fier in a yerd with oxin of the plough
 That other man was logid weel ynough
 As was his auenture / or his fortune
 That vs gouerneth alle as in comune
 And so be-fel that longe er it was day
 This man mette in his bed there as he lay
 How that his felawe gan vp-on hym calle
 And seyde allas for in an oxis stalle
 This nyght I schal be mordred there I lye
 Now help-me deere brotyr er I dye
 In alle haste come to me he seyde
 This man out of his slep for abreide
 And whan that he was wakenede of his slep
 He turnede hym & tok of this no keep Hym thoughte his dreem nas but a vanyte Thus twis in his slepyng dremede he
 And at the thredde tyme / ȝit his felawe
 Cam as hym thoughte / & seyde I am now slawe Byhold myne bloddy woundis deepe & wyde
 Aris vp erly in the morwe tyde
 And at the west gate / of the town quod he
 A cartful of donge / there thu schalt se
 In wich myn body is hid ful pryncly
 Do thilke carte a-reste boldly
 Myn gold causede myn mordre certeyn
 And tolde hym euery point how he was slayn
 With a wol pitous face pale of hewe
 And truste weel this dreem he found ful trewe
 for on the morwe as soone as it was day
 To his felawe he tok to nexte way
 And whan that he cam to his oxis stalle
 Aftyr his felawe he be-gan to calle ¶ The hosteler answerede hym a-non
 And seyde sere your felawe is a-noon

SIX-TEXT 288
 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Corpus MS.

And took his loggyng as it wolde falle
 That oon of hem was logged in a stalle fere in a jerde wip oxen of þe plough þat oþer man was logged wel ynough
 As was his aduenture or his fortune
 þat vs gouernep alle as in comune And so bifelle it lange er it was day þis man mettþ in his hedde þer as he lay how þat his felaw gan on him to calle
 And sayde allas for in an oxe stalle
 This nyght schal I be mourded þer I lye
 Now helpe me deere broþer er I dye
 In alle haste come to me he sayde
 This man out of his sleep for fere abwyde
 But whan þat he was wakened out of his slepe he turned him and tok of þis no kepe / Him þought his drem was nought / but vanyte þus twyes in his slepings dremed he
 And at þe þridde tyme 300 his felawe Came as him þought I am now y-slawe Byholde my bloody woundes deepe and wyde /
 Arise vp early in þe morne tyde /
 And at þe west gate of þe town quod he
 A carte fulle of dunge þere schalt þou see /
 In which my body is hidde ful pruryly
 To þilke carte aristen boldely
 My golde caused my murdre soþ to sayn
 And tolde him every poynt how he was slayn Wip a ful pitous face pale of hewe
 And truste wel his drem he fand ful trewe for on þe morne as soon as it was day
 To his felawes In he tok þe way
 And whan he com vnto þis Oxe stalle after his felawe he began to calle
 The Osteler answered him anon
 And sayde aþre þoure felawe is y-goon

CORPUS (e-T. 288)

SIX-TEXT 288
 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Petworth MS.

And toke his loggyng as it wolde falle
 That oon of hem was logged in a stalle
 fere in a jerde wip oxen of þe plouys
 That oþer man was logged wel ynough
 As was his aduenture or his fortune
 þat vs gouernep all as in comune
 And so by-falle longe er it were day
 This man mette in his bed þer as he lay
 How þat his felawe gan on hym calle
 And saide Allas for in an oxes stalle
 This nyght schal I be murþered þer I lie
 Now helpe me deere broþer er I dye /
 In al hast come to me he seide
 This man out of his slepe for fere abraide
 But whan þat he was wakened out of his slepe
 He turnep hym and toke of þis no kepe
 Hym þoutþ his dreame was noþþ but a vanyte Thus twies in his slepings dremed he
 And at þe .iiij. tyme 310 his felawe Came as he þoutþ I am nowde Isclawe Biholde my bloddy woundes depe and wide Arise vp early in þe morowe tide
 And at the west gate of þe town quod he
 A cart ful of dunge þer shalt þou see
 In which my body is hidde ful pruryly
 To þilke carte aristen boldely
 My golde caused my murder soþ to sayn
 And tolde hym every poynt how he was slayn Wip a ful pitous face pale of hwe
 And trust wel his dreame he fonde ful trewe for on þe morowe as soon as it was day
 To his felawes Inne he toke þe way
 And whan he come to þis oxes stalle
 Afters his felawe he-bygan to calle
 The osteler answered hym anon
 And saide Sir þoure felawe is goon

PETWORTH (e-T. 288)

SIX-TEXT 288
 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.

And toke his logeinge as it wolde fal þat one of hem was loged in a stal Fere in a jerde wip oxen of þe plouhe þe toþere man was loged wels y-nowhe
 As was his aduentur or his fortune
 That vs gouernep all as in comune
 And so be-fal longe ar it were daie þis man mett in his bedde þere he loye Howe þat his felawe gan on him calle
 And seid alas for in an oxe stalle
 This nyght .I. schal be morled þere .I. lye Nowe helpe me deere broþer ar .I. deye!
 In al haste come to me he seide .
 This man oute of his slepe for fere abraide .
 Dot whan þat he wakened out of his slepe
 He turned him & toke of þis no kepe
 Him þoutþ his drem was nought bot a vanite Thus twyes in his slepe dremed he
 And at þe þredde time 310 his felawe
 Cam as him þoutþ .I. am nowe .I.-slawe
 Be-holde my blode wounde dops & wide
 Arise vp early in þe morne tyde
 And at þe west gate of þe town quod he
 A cart ful of dunge þere schalt þou see
 In whiche my body is hidde ful pruryly
 Do þilke cart aristen boldely
 My golde caused my murder soþe to seyne
 And tolde hym every poynte howe was slayn Wip a ful pytous face pale of hewe
 And trust wels his drem he fonde ful trewe
 For on þe morne as soon as it was daie
 To his felawes inne he toke þe riht waie
 And whan he cam to þis oxe stail Afters his felawe he began to call
 The Osteler answered him anone
 And saide sir þoure felawe is gone

LANSDOWNE (e-T. 288)

As soone as day / he wente out of the town
 ¶ This man / gan fallen in suspicioun
 Remembrynge / on hisse dremes / þat he mette
 And forth he goth / no longer wolde he lette
 Vn-to the westgate of the town / and fond
 A dong Carte / as it were to donge lond
 That was arrayed / in that same wyse
 As ye han herd / the dede man deuyse
 And with an hardy herte / he gan to crye
 Vengeance and Iustice / of this felonye
 My felawe / mordred is / this same nyght
 And in this Carte / heere he lith gapyng vpright I crye out on the Ministres quod he That sholden kepe / and reulen this Citee Harrow allas / heere lith my felawe slayn
 What sholde I moore / vn-to this tale sayn
 The peple out sterte / and caste the Cart to grounde
 And in the myddel of the donge they founde
 The dede man / that mordred was al newe
 O blisful god / that art so Iust & trewe
 Lo / howe þat thou biwreyest mordre alway
 Mordre wol out / that so we day by day
 Mordre / is so wlatson / and abhomynable
 To god / that is so Iust & reasonable
 That he / no wol nat / suffre it heled be
 Though it abyde / a year / or two / or thre
 Mordre wol out this my conclusion
 And right anon / Ministres of that town
 Han hent the Carter / and so soore hym pnyed
 And eek the hostiler / so soore engnyed
 That they biknewe / hire wikkednesse anon
 And were an-hanged / by the nekke bon ¶ Heere may men seen / þat dremes been to drede
 ¶ And certis / in the same book / I rede
 Ryght in the nexte Chapitre after this
 I gabbe nat. so haue I ioye or blis

As soone as day / he wente out of the town
 ¶ This man / gan fallen in suspicioun
 Remembrynge / on hisse dremes þat he mette
 And forth he goth / no longer wolde he lette
 Vn-to the westgate of the town / and fond
 A dong Carte / went as it were to donge lond
 That was arrayed / in that same wyse
 As ye han herd / the dede man deuyse
 And with an hardy herte / he gan to crye
 Vengeance / and Iustice / of this felonye
 My felawe / mordred is / this same nyght
 And in this Cart heere / he lyth gapyng vp-right I crye / on the Mynystres / quod he
 That sholde kepe / and reulen this Citee
 Harrow / allas / heere lyth my felawe slayn
 What sholde I moore / vn-to this tale sayn
 The peple vp sterte / and caste the Cart to grounde
 And in the myddel of the donge they founde
 The dede man / þat mordred was al newe
 ¶ O blisful god / þat art so Iust & trewe
 Lo / how þat thou biwreyest mordre alway
 Mordre wol out that so we day by day
 Mordre / is so wlatson / and abhomynable
 To god / that is so Iust and reasonable That he ne wod nat suffre it helyd be
 Though it abyde / a year / or two / or thre
 Mordre wol out this my conclusion
 And right anon / Ministres of that town
 Han hent the Carters / and so soore hym pnyed
 And eek the hostiler / so soore engnyed
 That they biknewe / hire wikkednesse anon
 And were an-hanged / by the nekke bon
 Heere may men sen / þat dremes ben to drede
 ¶ And certis / in the same book I rede
 Ryght in the nexte Chapitre / after this
 I gabbe nat so haue I ioye or blis

As soone as day he wente out of the town
 This man gan fallyn in suspicioun
 Remembrynge hym on the dremys that he mette
 And forth he goth no lengere wolde he lette Vn-to the Westgate of the town & fond A donge carte wente as it were to dunge lond
 That was a-rayed in that same wyse
 As ye han herd the dede man deuyse
 And with an hardy herte he gan to crye
 Vengeance & Iustice of this felonye
 Myn felawe morderede is this same nyght
 And in this carte heere he lyth gapyng vp-right
 I crye out on the mynystres quod he
 That schulde kepe & reule this cete
 Harrowe allas here lyth myn felawe slayn
 What schulde I moore vnto this tale sayn
 The peple out sterte & caste the carte to grounde
 And in the myddyl of the donge they founde
 The dede man that morderede was al newe
 O blisful god that art so Iusto & trewe
 Lo how that thou biwreyis mordere alway
 Mordere wale out that so we day be day
 Mordere is so wlatson & abhomynable
 To god that is so Iust & reasonable
 That he ne wale not suffere that it hold be Thow it abyde a year or two or thre
 Mordere wale out this myn conclusion
 And ryght a-noon mynyste of that town
 Han hent the cartere & so soore hym pnyed
 And ek the hosteler so soore engnyed That they be-knewe here wikkednesse a-non
 And were an hangede by the nekke boon
 Here may men seen that dremys been to drede
 ¶ And certis in the same bok I reede Rygh in the-nexte chapitre after this I gabbe not so haue I ioye or blis

As some as day he wente out of þe toun
 This man gan falle in grev<sup>t</sup> suspencion Remembryng<sup>t</sup> on his dreemes þat he mette
 And forþ he goþ no lenger wolde he lette 4224
 Vnto þe west gate of þe toun and fonde
 A dung<sup>t</sup> cart<sup>t</sup> as he wente to dunge þe londe / þat was arrayed in þe same wyse
 As þe han herde þe dede man deuise 4225
 And wip an hardy horte he gan to crye (leaf 216, back) Vengeance and Justice of þis felonye
 My felawe murdred is þis same night
 And in þis cart<sup>t</sup> he lyþ gapping<sup>t</sup> vpright 4232 [I Crie oute on þe mynistris quod he þat shulde kepe and rewle þis citee Harrow allas here lith my felaw slayn]
 What shuld I more vnto this tale sayn] 4232 þe peple out sterte / and caste þe carte to grounde
 And in the medil of the dunge þei founde] (Hans. extract aside)
 The dede man þat murdred was al newe
 O blisful god þat art so iuste and trewe / 4240
 Lo how þat þou bywreiest<sup>t</sup> murdre alway Murdre wole out þat so we day by day
 Murdre is so watson and abhominable
 To god þat is so iuste and resonable 4244
 That he wol not suffre it<sup>t</sup> killed be They it abide a þeer or tuo or þre Murdre wole out þis is my conclusion
 And riht anon ministres of þe toun
 And hente þe cartere and sore him pyned
 And eke þe osteller so ferre engyned
 That þei beknewe here wikkednesse anon
 And weren hangid by þe nekke bono
 Heer may men see þat dreemes ben to drede
 And certes in þe same boke I rede
 Riht in þe neste chapitre I rede of þis
 I gabbe nought/ so hane I ioye & blis 4256

As some as day he went out of þe toun
 This man gan falle in grete suspencion
 Remembryng<sup>t</sup> hym on his dremes þat he mette
 And forþ he goþ no lenger wolde he lette 4224
 Vnto þe west gate of þe toun and fonde
 A dunge cart<sup>t</sup> as he went to dunge þe londe (leaf 216, back)
 That was arrayed in þe same wyse
 As þe han herde þe dede man deuise 4228
 And wip an hardy hert<sup>t</sup> he gan to crie
 Vengeance and justice on þis vilanye
 My felawe murdred is þis same nyght
 And in þis carte he lith gapping<sup>t</sup> vp riht 4232
 [I crye out / on the mynystres quod he
 That sholde the lawe keep in this Cite Harrow allas / here lith my felawe slayn
 What sholde I more / vnto this tale sayn 4232
 The peple out sterte / and caste the carte to grounde
 And in the myddis of the dunge thei founde] (Addit MS extract aside)
 The dede man þat murdred was all newe
 O blisful god þat art so iust<sup>t</sup> and trewe 4240
 Lo how þat þou bywreiest<sup>t</sup> mordere alway Morder wil out þat see we day by day
 Morder is so watson and so abhomyneable 4244
 To god þat is so iust<sup>t</sup> and resonable þat he ne wil not suffre it killed be Theigh it abide a þeer or tuo or þre Morder wil out þis is my conclusion
 And riht anon ministres of þe toun 4248
 Hap hent þe Carter and [ful] sore hym pyned
 And eke þe Ostellere so fer engyned
 That þei biknewe her wikkednesse anon
 And weren honged by þe nek<sup>t</sup> bono 4252
 Here may men see þat dreemes bene to drede
 And certes in the same boke I rede
 Riht in þe next<sup>t</sup> chapitre I rede of þis
 I gabbe not so hane I ioie or blis 4256

As some as dei he went oute of toun
 This man gan fal in grete suspencion
 Remembreinge on his dremes þat he mette
 And forþe he goþe no longere wolde he let (leaf 216, back) 4224
 Vnto þe west gate of þe toun & fonde
 A dunge cart<sup>t</sup> as he went to dunge þe londe þat was araid in þe same wyse
 As þe hane herde þe dede man deuise 4228
 And wip an hardy hert<sup>t</sup> he gan to crie
 Vengeance & Justice of þis felonye Myne felawe murdre is þe same nyght
 And in þis carte he lihþ gapeinge vpright 4232
 [I cry out on the mynystres quod he (MS Reg 17 D vv. 11/ 277, 284; not in MS Reg. 14 C ii (not in v. 1, 1115, 2114); not in Harl. 1563.)
 That shulden kepe . and rule this citee
 Harrow allas . hire lith my felaw slayne (leaf 216)
 What shuld I more . vnto this tale sayne
 The peple vp stert . and cast the cart<sup>t</sup> to ground<sup>t</sup>
 And in the myddil of the dung<sup>t</sup>. ther they found<sup>t</sup>] (MS Reg. extract aside)
 The def[de] man þat murded was al newe
 O blisful god þat art so iust & trewe 4240
 Lo how þou be-wreyst<sup>t</sup> morder al weis Mordre wil oute þat se we dais be daie
 Mordre is so watson & abomyneable 4244
 To god þat is so iuste & resonable þat he ne wil nought suffre it heled be þei it abide a þere or two or þre Mordre wil oute þis es myne conclusiourne
 And riht anone Ministres of þe same toun 4248
 And hente þe carter & sore him pynede
 And eke the hostellere so ferre engynede þat þei be-knowe here wykkednesse anone
 And weren hangid by þe nekke bono 4252
 Here maie memo see þat dreemes bi to drede
 And certes in [the] same boke . I. rede
 Riht in þe next chapotre . I. rede of þis
 I. gabbe nought so hane . I. ioye & blis 4256

290 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALK. Ellesmere MS.

Two men / that wolde han passed ouer see for cerceyn cause / in to a fer contree
If that the wynd / ne hadde been contrarie
That made hem / in a Citee for to tarie
That stood ful myrie / vpon an hausen eyde
But on a day / agayn the euen tyde
The wynd gan change / and blew right as hem leste Iolif and glad / they wenten vn-to hir reste
And casten hem / ful erly for to saille
¶ But herkneþ / to that o man / fill a greet meruaille
¶ That oon of hem / in slepyng as he lay
Hym mette a wonder dream / agayn the day
Him thoughte / a man stood by his beddes eyde
And hym comanded / þat he sholde abyde
And seyde hym thus / if thou tomorwe wende
Thow shalt be dreynþ my tale is at an ende
¶ He wook / and tolde his felawe what he mette
And prejde hym / his viage to lette
As for that day / he prejde hym to hyde
¶ His felawe / that lay / by his beddes eyde
Gan for to laughe / and scorned him ful faste
No dream quod he / may so myn herte agaste
That I wol lette / for to do my thynges
I sette nat a straw / by thy dreamynges for aweneas / been but vanytees and Iapes Men dreme al day / of Owles / or of Apes
And of many a maze / ther-with-al
Men dreme of thyng þat neuere was ne shal
But sith I see / that thou wolt here abyde
And thus forslowen / wilfully thy tyde
God woot it reweth me / and haue good day
And thus / he took his leue / and wente his way
But er þat he hadde / half his cours ysyled
Noot I nat why / ne what myschaunce it cyled
But casuilly / the schippes botme rente
And shipe and man / vnder the water wente

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 290)

290 SIX-TEXT
234 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALK. Hengwrt MS.

Two men / þat wolde han passed ouer see
for cerceyn cause / in-to a fer contree
If þat the wynd / ne hadde ben contrarie
That made hem / in a Citee for to tarie
That stood ful myrie / vp on an hausen eyde
But on a day / agayn the euen tyde
The wynd gan change / and blew right as hem leste Iolif and glad / they wenten vn-to reste
And casten hem / ful erly for to sayle
But herkneþ / to that o man / fill a gret meruaille
¶ That oon of hem / in slepyng as he lay
Hym mette a wonder dream / agayn the day
Hym thoughte / a man stood / by his beddes eyde
And hym comanded / þat he sholde abyde
And seyde hym thus / if thow tomorwe wende
Thow shalt be dreynþ my tale is at an ende
¶ He wook / and tolde his felawe what he mette
And prejde hym / his viage to lette
As for that day / he prejde hym to hyde
¶ His felawe / þat lay / by his beddes eyde Gan for to laughe / and scorned hym ful faste
No dream quod he / may so myn herte agaste
That I wol lette / for to do my thynges
I sette nat a straw / by thy dreamynges for aweneas ben / but vanytees and Iapes
Men dreme al day / of Owles / or of Apes
And of many a maze / ther with al
Men dreme of thyng þat neuere was ne shal
But with I see / þat thou wolt here abyde
And thus forslowen / wilfully thy tyde
God woot it reweth me / and haue good day
And thus / he took his leue / and wente his way
But er þat he / hadde half his cours ysyled
Noot I nat why / ne what meschaunce it cyled
But casuilly / the schippes botme rente
And shipe and man / vnder the water wente

HENGWRT 234 (6-T. 290)

290 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALK. Cambridge MS.

Two men that wolde a passed ouyr the see for cerceyn cause in-to a fer cuntree
If that the wynd ne hadde been contrarye
That made hem in a cete for to tarye
That stod ful merye vp-on an haueus eyde
But on a day ageyn the euetide
The wynd gar change & blew rygh as hem leste Iolyf & glad they wente to here reste
And castyn hem ful only for to sayle
But herkenyth to that on man fyl a gret meruayle
That on of hem in slepyng as he lay Hym mette a wondyr drem ageyn the day
Hym thought[te] a man stod bi his bedys side
And hym comanded that he schulde a-byde
And seyde hym thus gif thow to morwe wende Thow schat ben dreynk / myn tale is at an emlo
He wok & tolde / his felawe what he mette
And prejde hym his viage for to lette
As for that day he prejde hym for to a-bide
His felawe that lay bi his bedys eyde
Gan for to laube & skorneid hym ful faste
No drem quod he may so myn herte agaste
That I wele lette for to do myne thyngis
I sette not a straw / by thyne dreamyngis for dremys been but unayteis & Iapis Men drems al day of oullis & of spis
And of manye a mase there withal
Men drems of thyng that neuere was ne schal
But sith I se that thou wilt here a-byde
And thus for slouthen / wilfully thys tyde
God wot it reweth me / & haue good day
And thus he tok his leue & wente his way
But er that he hadde half his cours I-soyled
Not I nat why / ne what myschaunce it cyled
But casewilly / the schipis botems it rents
And schip & man vndyr the watyr wente

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 290)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 290
Corpus MS.

Two men þat wolde han passed þe see for certein cause into a ferre cuntre If þat þe wynde nad y-be contrary þat made hem in a Cite for to tary
That stood ful mery vpon an hauen side
But on a day agens þe euen tyde
The wynd gan chaunge and blowe as him leste Lofif and glad þey wenten vnto roste
And casten hem ful erly for to seyle
But herke þat oo man felle in gret peryle
That oon of hem in slopyng as he lay Him mette a wonder dreme aȝains þe day
Him þought a man stood by his beddes syde
And him comanded, þat he schulde abyde
And soȝde him þus if þou to morwe wende Thou schalt be dreynt my tale is at an ende he awook and tolde his felawe what he mette and prayed him his viage for to lette
As for þat day he prayde him to abyde his felawe þat lay by his beddes syde
Gan for to laughe and scorned him ful faste
No dreme quod he may myn herte agaste þat I wol lette for to do my pinges I este nouȝt a straw by þy dremynges for aweuenes ben but vanytes and Iapes Men dreme alway of owles and of apes
And of many a masse þer-wip-ah
Men dremen of ping þat neuer was ne schal
But siþens I se þat þou wolt here abyde
And þus for-slowþen wilfully þe tyde
God wot if rewep me and haue good day
And thus he toke his leue and went his way
And er þat he hadde half his cours y-sayled
Not I nouȝt why ne what meschaunce it ayled
But casuilly þe schippes botme rent
And schip and man vnder þe water went 4260

4264 4268 4272
4276
4280
4284
4288
4292

[leaf 221]
[leaf 221]
[leaf 221]

CORPUS (8-T. 290)

SIX-TEXT 290
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Petworth MS.

Two men þat wolden haue passed þe See for certoyn cause into a fer contre
If þat þe wynde ne had be contrarie
That made hem in a Cite forto tarye
That stood ful merye vpon an hauen side
But on a daye aȝains þe euentide
The wynde gan chaunge and blowe as hym lust Iolif and glad þei wenten vnto rust
And Casten hem ful erly forto saile
But herken how oo man felle in greta perile
That oon of hem in slepyng as he lay
Hym mette a wonder dreme aȝains þe day
Hym þouȝt a man stood be his beddis side
And hym commaunded þat he shuld abide.
And saide hym þus if þou to morn wende
Thowe shalt be dreynt my tale is at an ende
He woke and tolde his felawe what he mett
And preide him his viage forto lette
As for þat day he preide hym to abide His felawe þat lay by his beddis side
Gan forto laugh and scorned ful fast
No drem quod he may myne hart agast
That I wil lette forto do my pinges
I este not a strawe by dremynges for aweuenes bene but vanytoes and Iapes
Men dreme alway of owles and of apes
And of mony a masse þer-wip-ah
Men dremen of ping þat neuere [shal]
But siþen I see þou wilt here abide
And þus for-slowþen wilfully þi tyde
God wote if rewep me and haue good day
And þus he toke his leue and went his way
And er that he had half his cours assailed
I not why ne what meschaunce it ayled
But casuilly þe schippes botme rent
And ship and man vnder þe water went 4260

4264 4268 4272
4276
4280
4284
4288
4292

[leaf 222]
[leaf 222]

PETWORTH (8-T. 290)

SIX-TEXT 290
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.

[Two men that wold. han passed the see] [MS Reg. 17 B. 2v. 273]
For certoyne cause into a fer Contre
If þat þe wynde ne hadde be contrarie þat made hem in a Cite for to tarye þat stode ful merie vpon an hauen side Bot on a daie aȝains þe euen tide
The wynde gan chaunge & blew as him lust
Iolif & gladdo þei wenten vnto rest
And kesten hem ful erly vnto saile
Bot herken þat o man fel in greta perelle
The tone of hem in slepyng as he leye
Him mett a wonder dreme aȝains þe daye
Him þouȝt a man stode be his side
And him comanded þat he schold abide And seid him þus if þou to morne wende þou schalt be dreynat my tale is at an ende
He awook & told his felawes what he mette.
And praide him his viage for to lete
As for þat daie he praide him to abide His felawe þat laye be his beddes side
Gan for to lauh & scorned him ful fast
No dreme quod he maie myne herte agaste þat .I. wil lette for to do my pinges
I .estt nouȝt a strawe be dremynges
For aueuens bien but vanytees & Iapes
Moune dreme alwele of owles & of apes
And of mony a masse þere wip ah
Men dremen of ping þat neuer was ne schalt Bot seþen .I. see þat þou wilt here abide And þus for-slowþen wilfully þe tide
God wote it rewep me & haue good daie
And þus he toke his leue & went his waie
And er þat he hadde half his cours yeailed
I .note whis ne whatt meschaunce it eyled
Bot Casuilly þe schip bothome to-rente
And schip & man vnder þe water wente

4260
4264 4268 4272
4276
4280
4284
4288
4292

[leaf 221]

LANSDOWNE (8-T. 290)

In sighte of others shippes / it biwyde
That with hem seyled / at the same tyde
And therfore / faire Pertelote so deere <sup>[not 198]</sup>
By swiche ensamples olde / yet maystow leere 4296
That no man / sholde been to recheles
Of dremes / for I seye thee douteles
That many a drem / ful soore is for to drede
LO / in the lyf of seint kenelm / I rede <sup>Do exemplis aeneti kenelm</sup>
That was kenulphus sone / the noble kyng
Of Mertenrike / how kenelm mette a thyng
A lite er he was mordred / on a day
His mordre / in his Anyssiou he say 4304
His Norice / hym expownde every deel His swouene / and had hym for to kepe hym wel ffor traicou / but he nas but .vij. yer oold
And therfore / litel tale hath he toold 4308
Of any drem / so hooly is his herte
By god / I hadde leuere than myn sherte
That ye hadde rad his legende / as haue I
Dame Pertelote / I seye yow trewely 4312
Macrobus / that writ the Anyssiou
In Affrike / of the worthy Cipion
Affermeth dremes / and seith þat they been Warnyng of thynges / þat men after seen 4316
¶ And farther-moore I pray yow looketh wol ¶ In the olde testamēt of Daniel ¶ If he heeld dremes any vanitee ¶ Redd eek of Ioseph / and ther shul ye see 4320
¶ Wher dremes be somtyme / I sey nat alle
¶ Warnyng of thynges / þat shul after falle
¶ Looke of Egipite / the kyng daun Phrauo
His Baker / and his Butiller also 4324
¶ Wher they ne felte noon effect in dremes
¶ Who so wol seke actis of sondry Remes
¶ May rede of dremes / many a wonder thyng
¶ Lo Cressus / which þat was of Lyde kyng 4328
ELLESMEERE (6-T. 291)

In sighte of others shippes / it biwyde
That with hem seyled / at the same tyde
And therfore / faire Pertelote so deere
By swiche ensamples olde / maystow leere 4296
That no man / sholde ben to recheles
Of dremes / for I sey thee douteles
That many a drem / ful soore is for to drede
¶ Lo / in the lyf of Saint Kenelm I rede 4300
That was Kenulphus sone / the noble Kyng
Of Mertenrike / how Kenelm mette a thyng
A lite / er he was mordred / on a day
His mordre / in his anyssiou he say 4304
His norice / hym expownde every del
His swouene / and bad hym for to kepe hym wel ffor trayson / but he nas but .vij. yer old 4308
And therfore / litel tale hath he told
Of any drem / so hoily was his herte
By god / I hadde leuere than myn sherte
That ye hadde rad his legende / as haue I
Dame Pertelote / I sey yow trewely 4312
Macrobus / that writ the Anyssiou
In Affrike / of the worthy Cipion
Affermeth dremes / and seith þat they ben Warnyng of thynges / þat men after sen 4316
¶ And farther moore / I pray yow looketh wel
¶ In the olde testamēt of Danyel
¶ If he heeld dremes / any vanyte ¶ Rede eek of Ioseph / and there shul ye see 4320
¶ Wher dremes be som tyme / I sey nat alle
¶ Warnyng of thynges / þat shul after falle
¶ Looke of Egipite / the Kyng Daun Phrauo
His bakere / and his butiller also 4324
¶ Wher they ne felte / noon effect in dremes
¶ Who so wol seke / Actes of sondry Remes ¶ [M]ay rede of dremes / many a wonder thyng <sup>[1. Redd. 117MS, 6K]</sup>
¶ Lo Cressus / which þat was of Lyde kyng 4328
HENGWRT 235 (6-T. 291)

In sight of others schepis besyde
That with hem eyled at the morwe tyde
And therfore fayre pertelote so deens
By sweche ensaumplis olde mayst thow leere 4296
That no man schulde been so recheles
Of dremys for I seye the douteles
That manye a drem / ful soore is for to drede
Lo in the lyf of seynt kenelm I redeo 4300
That was kenulphus sone / the noble kyng
Of Merturyke how kenelm mette a thyng
A lite er he was mordered on a day
His morder in his anyssioun he say 4304
His noryce hym expownguede emerydel
His sweuens / & bad hym / for to keppn hym weel ffrom tresoun but he was but senene yer old
And therfore lytil taale hath he told 4308
Of any drem so holy was his herte
By god I hadde leuere than myn scherte
That þe hadde rad his legende as haue I Dame pertelote I seye þow trewely 4312
Macrobus that wret thanysiciou
In Affryk of the worthi Cipion
Affermyth dremys & seyth that they been <sup>[not 206, book?]</sup>
Warnyng of thyngis that men aftryr seen 4316
And fethere moore I pray þow lokyth weel
In the olde testamēt of danyel
if he helde dremys ony vanyte Redyth ok of Iosep & there þo schul se 4320
Where dremys ben sumtyme I seye nat alle
Warnyng of thyngis that schul aftryr falle Loke of Egip the kyng dauw phrauo
His bakere & his boteler also 4324
Wheree they ne feltyr non effect in dremys
Who so wels seke actis of sundery remys
May rede of dremys manye a sundery thyng
Lo Cressus that was of lide kyng 4328
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 291)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 291
CORPUS MS.

In sight of oþer schippes him besyde þat wip him seyled att þe same tyde
 And þerfore he seyde Pertelote so deere By suche ensamples olde maist þou leere þat no man schulde be to recheles
 Of dremes for I say þo dowteles
 That many a dreem fol sore is for to drede Lo in þe lyf of seint kenelme I rede þat was kenulphus some þe noble king
 Of Mertenrike how kenelme met a þing
 A litel er was murdered on a day
 His murdre in his avisioun he say
 His norice him expouned eury del
 His sweuen and bad him for to kepe him wel for treason but he was souen þere old And þerfore litel tale hap he told
 Of any dreem so holly was his herte
 By god I hadde leuer þan my scherte þat 3e hadde herde his legende as haue I Dame pertelote I say þou trewely
 Macrobus þat writ þe avisioun
 In affrike of þe worþy Cyprion Affermeþ dremes and seiþ þat þay ben
 Warnyng of þinges þat men after seen
 And furþermore I pray þou lokeþ wel þe olde testament of Daniel
 If he heold dremes of any varyte Rede eke of Ioseph and þer schuln 3e see Wheþer dremes ben som tyme I say not alle Warnyng of þinges þat schuln after falle Loke of Egypt þe king Dann Pharno His baker and his botiler also Wher þei ne felten noon effecte in dremes
 Who so wol seche þe acte of sondry Remes
 May rede of dremes many a wonder þing
 Lo Cresus which þat was of lyde king

CORPUS (6-T. 291)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 291
PETWORTH MS.

In sijþ of oþer schippes hym beside That wip hym sailled att þe same tyde
 And þerfore he seide Pertelote so dere
 By suche ensamples olde maist þou lere
 That no man shulde be to recheles
 Of Dremes for I say þe douteles
 That in mony a dreem ful sore is for to drede
 Lo in þe lif of seint kenelme I rede
 That was kenulphus some þe noble kyng
 Of Mertenrike how kenelyne mette a þing
 A litel er [he] was murde[re]d on a day
 His murdre in his Avysion he say
 His norice him expouned eury delþ His sweuen and bad hym for to kepe hym well for treason but he was seven þere olde
 And þerfore litel tale hap he tolde
 Of any dreem so holly was his herte
 Be god I had leuer þan my sherte
 That 3e had herd his legende as haue I
 Dame Pertelote I say þou trewely
 Macrobus þat writ þe avisioun
 In affrike of þe worþi Ciprion
 Affermeþ dremes and seiþ þat þer bene
 Warnyng of þinges þat men after seen
 And furþermore I pray þou lokeþ welt
 The olde testament of Danyel 3if he healde dremes of any varyte Rede eke of Ioseph and ye shal see Wheder dremes be somtyme I say not alle Warnyng of þinges þat shul after falle
 Loke eke of Egipte þe kinge danne Pharno His bakere and his botelere also Wher þei ne felt noon effecte in dremes
 Who so wil seche of sundry rewmes
 May reden of dremes mony a wonder þing Loo Cresus which þat was of lyde þe kyng

PETWORTH (6-T. 291)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 291
LANSDOWNE MS.

In silt of oþere schippes hem beside þat wip him sailled att þe same tide
 And þerfore he seide pertelote so dere
 Du suche ensamples olde maist þou lere þat noman schold be to recheles Of dromes for .I. saie þe douteles þat mony a dreem ful sore is for to drede ¶ Lo in þe lif of seint kenelme .I. rede þat was kenulphus son þe noble kinge
 Of Mercenrike howe Kenelme mette a þing
 A litel ar he was murdered on a daie
 His murdre in his avisione he seyþe
 His norice him expounded eury dele
 His sweuen & bad him for to kep him wele
 For traision bot he was .vij. þere olde
 And þere-fore litel tale hape he tolde
 Of any dreem so holly was myn herte Be god .I. hadde leuer þan my scherte þat 3e hadde his legende as haue .I.
 Dame pertelote .I. saie þow trewely
 Macrobus þat write þe avisioun
 In Aff[r]ike of þe worþe Cyprion
 Affermeþ dremes & seiþ þat þere bene Warnyngs of þinges þat men after seen
 And furþermore .I. prais þow lokeþ wel
 The olde testament of Danyele
 If he helde dremes of any varyte Rede eke of Ioseph & þan schal 3e see Wheþer dremes bien sumtyme .I. seye nouht aft Warnyngs of þinges þat schal after fail ¶ Loke of Egipte þe kinge dan Pharno His Bakor & his Boteler also Where þei ne felte none effect in dremes
 Who so wolle se[r]che þe actes of sundre Realmes Mais rede of dromes mony a wonder þing Loo cresus whiche þat was of Lidde kinge

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 291)

292 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

Mette he nat<sup>h</sup> that he sat vp-on a tree
Which signified / he sholde anhangid leo ¶ Lo heere Andromacha / Ectores wyf
That day / that Ector / sholde lese his lyf
She dremed / on the same nyght biforn
How þat the lyf of Ector / sholde be lorn
If thilke day / he wente in-to bataille
She warned hym / but<sup>h</sup> it myghte nat auaille
He wente / for to fighte natheles
But he was slayn anon of Achilles
But thilke tale is al to longe for to telle
And eek it is ny day / I may nat dwello
Shortly I seye / as for conclusion
That I shal han / of this Avisioun
Aduersitee / and I seye forther-moor
That I ne telle / of laxatyues no stoor ffor they been venymes / I woot it weel
I hem diffye / I loue hem neuer a deel
¶ Now let vs speke of myrthe / and stynte al this Madame Pertelote / so haue I biys
Of o thyng<sup>h</sup> god hath sent me large grace
ffor whan I se / the beante of youre face Ye been so scarlet reed / aboute youre eyen
It maketh / al my drede for to dyen
ffor al so siker / as In principio
Mulier est hominis confusio
¶ Madame / the sentence / of this latyn is Womman is mannes Ioye / and al his biys
ffor whan I fele a nyght<sup>h</sup> youre softe syde Al be it þat I may nat on yow ryde
ffor þat oure perche / is maad so narwe allas
¶ I am so ful of ioye / and of solas
That I diffye / bothe sweneue and drem
And with that word / he fley down fro the boorn
ffor it was day / and eke hise hennes alle
And with a chuk<sup>h</sup> he gan hem for to calle

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 292)

292 SIX-TEXT
236 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

Mette he nat<sup>h</sup> þat he sat vp-on a tree Which signyfyde / he sholde an hangid be ¶ Lo here Andromacha / Ectores wyf
That day that Ector / sholde lese his lyf
She dremed / on the same nyght biforn
How þat the lyf of Ector sholde be lorn
If thilke day / he wente in-to bataille
She warned hym / but it myghte nat auaille
He wente for to fighte / natheles
And he was slayn anon / of Achilles
But thilke tale / is al to long to telle
And eek / it is ney day / I may nat dwello
Shortly I seye / as for conclusion
That I shal han / of this auisioun
Aduersitee / and I seye forther moor
That I ne telle / of laxatyuee no stoor ffor they ben venymes / I woot it wel
I hem diffye / I loue hem neuer a del
¶ Now let vs speke of myrthe and stynte al this Madame Pertelote / so haue I biys
Of o thyng<sup>h</sup> god hath sent me large grace
ffor whan I se / the beante / of youre face Ye ben so scarlet reed / aboute youre eyen
It maketh / al my drede for to deyen
ffor also siker / as In principio
Mulier / est hominis confusio
Madame / the sentence / of this latyn is Womman / is mannes ioye and al his biys
ffor whan I fele a nyght<sup>h</sup> youre softe syde
Al be it þat I may nat on yow ryde
ffor þat oure perche / is maad so narwe allas
I am so ful / of Ioye and of solas
That I diffye / bothe sweneue and drem
And with that word / he fley down fro the boem
ffor it was day / and eke hise hennes alle
¶ And with a chuk<sup>h</sup> he gan hem for to calle

HENGWRT 236 (6-T. 292)

292 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Mette he nat how that he sat vp-on a tree Whiche signefyed anhangid schuld be Lo heere Andromatha ectoris wif
That day that Ector schulde lese his lyf Sche dremede on the same nyght by-fores
How that the lyf of Ector schulde been lorn if thilke day he wente in-to batayle Sche warned hym but it myghte nat auayle
He wente for to fyghte netheles
But he was slayn a-noon of Achilles
But he tylke tale is al to long to telle
And ek it is nygh day I may nat dwello
Carteynly I seye as for conclusioun
That I schal han of this auisioun Aduersitee / & I seye fetherre-moore
That I ne telle of laxatyues no storo ffor they been venimes I wot it weel
I hem diffye I loue hem neuer a deel
Now let vs speke of myrthe & stynte al this
Madame pertelote so haue I biys
Of on thyng god hath sent me large grace ffor whanne I se the beute in youre face ye been so skarlet red aboute youre eyen It makyth al myn dred / for to deyen ffor al so sekryr as In principio
Mulier est homin[is] confusio
Madame the sentence of this latyn is Woman is manys Ioye & al his biys ffor whan I fele a nyght youre softe syde Al be it that I may nat on sow ryde ffor that oure percho is maad so narw allas
I am so ful of ioye & of solas
That I deffe bothe sweneue & drem
And with th[is] word he fley doum from the boem ffor it was day & ek hise hennys alþ
And with a chuk he gan hem for to calle

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 292)

SIX-TEXT 202
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALK. Corpus MS.

Mette he nouȝt þat he sat on a tree Which signified he schulde anhanged be Lo here adromacha Ectores wif
That day þat Ector schulde lese his lif 4332
Sche dreamed on þe same night byforn
How þat þe lyff of Ector schulde be lorn
If þilke day he went in-to Batayle
Sche warned him but it might nouȝt auayle 4336
He wente for to feyhten neuer þe les
But he was slayn of oon Achilles
But þilke tale is al to longe to telle
And eke it is neigh day I may nouȝt dwelle 4340 Schortly I say as for conclusioun þat I schal haue of þis auisioun
Of aduertiens and I say forþermore
That I nel telle of laxatiis no store 4344 for þei bene venymous I wot right wel
I hem diffie I loue hem neuer a del-
Now list vs speke of myrþe and styrte al þis
Madame pertelote so haue I blis 4348
Of o þing god me hap sent large grace for when I so þe beaute of your face þe ben so scarlet reed aboute your eyen
It maketh alle my drede for to deyen 4352 for al so sikur as In principio
Mulier est hominis confusio
Ma dame þe sentence of þis latyn is Woman is mannes ioye and al his blys 4356 for when I fele a night your softe syde Al be it þat I may nouȝt on you ryde for þat our perche is maad so narwe alas
I am so fulle of ioye and solas 4360
þat I diffie boþ sweten and dreem And wiþ þat word he sleigh down for þe beem for it was day and eke his hennes alle
And wiþ a chukke he gan hem for to calle 4364

CORPUS (6-T. 202)

SIX-TEXT 202
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALK. Petworth MS.

Mette he nouȝt þat he sette vpon a tre Which signified he schuld anhanged be
Lo here Adromacha Ectores wif
That day þat Ector should lete his lif 4332
She dreamed on þe same nyȝt byforn
How þat þe lif of Ector should be lorn ȝif þilke day he went into batale
She warned hym but it myȝt not auaille 4336
He went forto fytten napelees
But he was slayn of Achilles
But thilk tale is alto longe to telle
And eke it is nyȝt day I may not dwelle 4340
Shortly I say as for conclusioun
That I shal haue of þis auisioun
Of aduertiens and I say forþermore
That I ne wil telle of laxatiis no store 4344 for þei bene venymous I wote right welt
I hem diffie I loue hem neuere a dele
NO list vs speke of merþe and stent al þis 4348
Madame pertilote so haue I blisse
Of oo þing god hap sent me large grace for when I so þe bewte of youre face þe bene so scarlet reed aboute þe eyen
It maketh al my drede for to dyen 4352
for also sikur as in principio
Mulier est hominis confusio
Madame þe sentence of þis latyn is Woman is mannis ioy and his blisse 4356 for when I fele on nyȝt your softe side Al be it þat I may not on you ride for þat our perche is made so narwe alas
I am so ful of Ioye and solas 4360
þat I diffie boþ sweten and dreme And wiþ þat word I sleigh downe for þe beem
for it was day and eke his hennes alle
And wiþ a chukke he gan hem forto calle 4364

PETWORTH (6-T. 202)

SIX-TEXT 202
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALK. Lansdowne MS.

Met he nouȝt þat he sat vpon a tre
Whiche signified he scholde an hanged bue
Lo here Adromacha Ectores wif
That daie þat Ector schold lese his lif 4332
Sche dreamed on þe same nyht be-forne
Howe þat þe lif of Ector schold be lorne
If þilke days he wente in-to Bataile
Sche warned him bot it myht not auaille 4336
He went for to feyhten neuere þe lesse
Bot he was eleyne of Achilles
Bot þilke tale is al to longe to tell .
And eke it is nyhe daie .I. may . dueth 4340 Schortly .I. seie as for conclusioun þat .I. schal ha of þis auisioun Of aduertiens & .I. saie forþere more þat .I. wil tell of laxatiis no store 4344
For þei biens venymous .I. wote richt wele
.I. hem defy .I. loue hem neuere a dele
Now list vs speke of merþe & stiate al þis
Madame Pertelot so haue .I. blisse 4348
Of o þinge god hape me sent large grace
For when .I. so þe beaute of your face
þe bien so scarlete reed aboute your eyen
It maakeþ al my drede for to deyen 4352
For as so seker as in principio
Mulier est hominis confusio
Madame þe sentence of þis latine is Woman is mannes Ioye & al his blisse 4356
For when .I. fele a nyht your soft side
Al be it þat [I] maie nouȝt on your side 1047 202
For þat our perche is maade so narwe alas
I am so ful of Ioye & solas 4360
þat .I. defy boþe sweten & drems
And wiþ þat word he sleigh downe for þe beem
For it was daie & eke his hennes all
And wiþ a chokke he gan hem for to call 4364

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 202)

for he hadde founde a corn / lay in the yerd
 Real he was / he was namore aferd
 And fethered Pertelote / twenty tyme
 And trad as ofte / er it was pryne 4368
 He looketh / as it were / a grym leoun
 And on hise toos / he rometh vp and down
 Hym deigned nat to sette his foot to grounde
 He chukketh / whan he hath a corn yfounde 4372
 And to hym rennen thanne / hise wyues alle
 Thus roial / as a prince is in an halle
 Lene I this Chauntecleer / in his pasture
 And after / wol I telle / his aventure 4376
Whan pat the Monthe / in which the world bigan
 That highte March / whan god first makid man
 Was compleet & passed were also Syn March bigan / thirity dayes and two 4380
 Bifel / that Chauntecleer / in al his pryde Hise seene wyues / walkynge by his syde
 Caste vp hise eyen / to the brighte sunne
 That in the signe of Taurus / hadde yroune 4384
 Twenty degrees and oon / and som-what moore
 And knew by kynde / and by noon oother loore
 That it was Pryme / and crew with blisful steuene
 The sonne he seyde / is clomben vp on heuene 4388
 .fourt degrees and oon / and moore ywis
 Madame Pertelote / my wordis blis
 Herkneith thise blisful briddes / how they syngre [leaf 197]
 And se / the fresche floures / how they sprynge 4392
 ful is myn herte / of reuel and solas
 But sodeynly / hym fil a sorweful cas
 For enere / the latter ende of ioye is wo
 God woot pat worldly ioye / is soone ago 4396
 And if a Rethor / koude faire endite
 He in a Cronycle saunly myghte it write
 As for a souereyn notabilite ¶ Petrus Comestor
 Now euery wys man / lat him herkne me 4400
 ELLESMEERE (e-r. 293)

for he hadde founde a corn / lay in the yerd
 Real he was / he was namore aferd
 He fethered Pertelote / twenty tyme [leaf 194]
 And trad as ofte / er it was pryne 4368
 He looketh / as it were a grym leoun
 And on hise toos / he rometh vp and down
 Hym deyned nat / to sette his foot to grounde
 And chukketh / whan he hath a corn yfounde 4372
 And to hym rennen thanne / hise wyues alle
 Thus real / as a Prince is in his halle
 Lene I this Chauntecleer / in his pasture
 And after / wol I telle his aventure 4376
 ¶ Whan that the Monthe / in which the world bigan
 That highte March / whan god first makid man
 Was compleet & passed were also Syn March bigan / 30. dayes and two 4380
 Bifel / pat Chauntecleer / in al his pryde Hise seene wyues / walkyng him biwyde
 Caste vp hise eyen / to the brighte sunne
 That in the signe of Taurus / hadde yroune 4384
 xx. degrees and oon / and som what moore
 And knew by kynde / and by noon oother loore
 That it was pryme / and knew with blisful steuene
 The sonne he seyde / is clomben vp on heuene 4388
 40. degrees and oon / and moore ywis
 Madame Pertelote / my wordis blys
 Herkneith thise blisful bryddes / how they syngre
 And so the fresche floures / how they sprynge 4392
 ful is myn herte / of reuel and solas
 But sodeynly / hym fil a sorweful cas
 For enere the latter ende of ioye / is wo
 God woot pat worldly ioye / is soone ago 4396
 And if a Rethor / koude faire endite
 He in a Cronycle / saunly myghte it write
 As for a souereyn notabilite ¶ Petrus Comestor
 Now euery wys man / lat hym herkne me 4400
 HENGWRT 237 (e-r. 293)

for he hadde foundyn a corn lay in the berd Royal he was he nas no moore afaryd
 He feterede Pertelote twenty tyme
 And trad as ofte er it was pryme 4368
 He lokyth as it weere a grym lyoun
 And on hise tois he romyth vp & down
 Hym deynth nat to sette hise feet to grounde
 He chukkith whan he hath a corn I-founde 4372
 And to hym rennyth thanne hise wyuys alle
 Thus roial as a prynce is in an halle
 Lene I this chauntecleer in his pasture
 And afyr wole I telle his aventure 4376
 ¶ Whan that the monythe / in which that the world bigan
 That high[e] March / whan god ferst makode man Was compleet & passede wereo also Syn March bygan .30. dayis & two 4380
 By-fel that chauntecleer in al his pryde
 His seene wyuys walkynge hym by-eyde
 Caste vp-hire eyen to the brighte sunne
 That in the signe of taurus hadde I-roune 4384
 Twenty degreis & on & sunwlat moore
 And knew by kynde & by noon othir lere
 That it was pryme & knew with b[ri]lyst steuene
 The sunne on heye is clombyn vp on heuene 4388
 .30. degreis & on & moore I-wis
 Madame pertelote myn wordis blyis
 Herkenyth these blisful brydis how they syngre [leaf 197, back]
 And se the fresche floures how they sprynge 4392
 ful is myn herte of reuel & solas
 But sodeynly hym fel a sorweful cas
 For enere the lattere ende of ioye is wo
 God wot that worldly ioye / is soone ago 4396
 And gif a retor coude fayre endyte
 He in a cronicle saunly myghte it wryte
 As for a souereyn notabilite
 Now euery wise man now herkene me 4400
 CAMBRIDGE (e-r. 293)

for he had founde a corn lay in þe ȝerde
 Real he was nomore aferde
 He feperde pertelote twenty tyrne
 And tradde as ofte er it were prime 4368
 He lokeþ as it were a grym lyoun
 And on his toes he romed vp and down
 Him deyned nouȝt to sette his feet on grounde
 Ay chokked he when he hadde a corn y-founde 4372
 And to him þanne ranne his wyfes alle þus real as a prince in his halle leue I þis Chaunteclere in his pasture
 And after wol I telle of his aduenture 4376
 When þe monþe in which þe world bigan þat highte march when god first made man
 Was complete and passed were also <sup>[leaf 252, back]</sup> 4380
 Seþens marche bygan pritty dayes and tuo
 Biſelle þat Chaunteclere in alle his pryde
 His seven wyues walkyng him bysyde
 Caste vp his eyen to þe bryghte sonne
 That in þe signe of Taurus was y-ronnef 4384
 Twenty degrees. and on and somewhat more
 He knew by kynde and by non oþer lore
 That it was pryme and crow wip blisful steneue 4388
 The some he saide is clumben vp on heuene
 xl. degrees and on and more y-wys Madame pertelote my worldis blys Herken how þese blisful briddes syng and see þe freshe flouris how þei springe 4392 ful is myn hert of Renel and solas But sodelym him fel a sorwful case for euer þe latter ende of Ioye is some ago 4396
 And comunly often tyme it falleþ so
 And if a Rethor coupe faire endite
 He in a Cronicle myghte sauely write
 As for a souereyn notabilite /
 Nowe enery wise man herken to me 4400

for he had founden a corn lay in þe ȝerde Real he was no more afferd
 He feþered Pertelot xx<sup>ii</sup> tyrne
 And drad as oft er it were prime 4368
 He lokeþ as it were a grym lyoun
 And on his toes he romed vp and down
 Hym deyned nouȝt to sette his fete on grounde
 Ay chokked he when he had a corne founde 4372
 And to hym þan ranne his wyues all Thus Roial as a prince in his hall
 Leue I þis chaunteclere in his pasture
 And afters wil I telle of his auenture 4376
 When þe month þe which þe world byganne
 That highte marche when god first made man Was Complete and passed were also Seþens Marche bygan .xxx<sup>ii</sup> daies and tuo. 4380
 Byſelle þat chaunteclere in his pride
 His seven wyues welken hym byside
 Cast vp his eyen to þe bryht sonne
 That in þe signe of Taurus was ronne <sup>[leaf 252, back]</sup> 4384
 Twenty degrees and on and somewhat more
 He knew by kynde and by noon oþer lore
 That it was prime he cweu wip blisful stenen
 The some he saide is clumben vp to heuen 4388
 xl. degrees and on and more ywis
 Madame Pertelote my worldis blisse Herken how þise blisful briddes singe
 And se þe freshe flouris how þei springe 4392 ful is myn hert of Renel and of solas But sodelym hym felle a sorful case for euer þe latter end of Ioye is some ygo 4396
 And comunly ofte tyme it falleþ so
 And if arthur coude faire tndite
 He in a cronicle myghte sanely write
 As for a souereyn notabilite
 Nowe enery wise man herken me 4400

For he had fonden a corne laie in þe ȝerde
 Royal he was no more aferde
 He feþerde pertelode tuente time
 And trade hire as oft ar it wore prime 4368
 He lokeþ as it were a grime lyone
 And on his toes he Romed vp & doune
 Him deynede next to sett his feet on grounde Aie chokked he when he hadde a corne yfounde 4372
 And to him þan ran his wyfes all
 Thus Roial as a prince in his halle
 Leue I. þis chaunteclere in his pasture
 And after. wil I. tal of his aduenture 4376
 ¶ When þe moneth in whiche þe weride be-ganne þat hilt Marche when god first maad manne Was complete & passed where also Seþon Marche be-gan .xxx. daies & tuo 4380
 Be-fel þat Chaunteclere in his pride
 His .vij. wyves walkinge be his side Kest vp his higen to þe bryht sone þat in þe signe of taurus was yronne þrette degrees & ons & sumwhat more He knewe be kinde & be none oþere lore þat it was prime & krewen wip blisful steuen þe sonne he seide is clomben vp on heuen 4388
 .xl. degres & I. & more y-wisse
 Madame pertelote Mi worldis blisse Herken howe þes blisful birdes sing
 And see þe frische flouris how þei springe 4392
 Ful is myne herte of rouel & solas
 Bot sodanly him fel a sorwful cas
 For euer þe later ende of Ioye is some ago 4396
 And comunly oft time it falleþ so
 And if a Rethor coupe faire endite
 He in a cronikle myht sauely write
 As for a souereyne notabilite .
 Nowe etwery wiseman herkon me <sup>[leaf 252, back]</sup> 4400

This storie / is al so trewe I vndertake
 As is the book / of launcelot de lake
 That women holde / in ful greet reverence
 Now wol I / come / agayn to my sentence
 Colfox / ful of sly Iniquitee
 That in the groue / hadde wounded yeres thre
 By heigh ymaginacion / forncast
 The same nyght / thurgh-out the hegges brast
 In-to the yerd / ther Chauntecleer the faire
 Was wont and eek his wyues to repaire
 And in a bed of wortes / stille he lay
 Til it was passed / vndren of the day
 Waitynge his tyme / on Chauntecleer to falle
 As gladly / doon thise homycides alle
 That in await liggyn / to mordre men
 O false mordreour / lurkyng in thy den
 O newe Scariot<sup>1</sup> newe Genylon false dissynlour / o greek synon
 That broughst Troye / al outdry to sorwe
 O Chauntecleer / scursed be that morwe
 That thou in-to that yerd / slaugh fro the bemys
 Thou were / ful wel ywarned by thy dremys
 That thilke day / was perulous to thee
 But what þat god forwoot moot nedes beo
 After the opynion / of certeyn clerkis Witnesso on hym / that any perlit clerk is
 That in scole / is greet altercacion
 In this matere / and greet disputioun
 And hath been / of an hundred thousand men
 But I ne kan nat bulle it to the bren
 As kan the holy doctour Augustyn
 Or Boece / or the Bischope Bradwardyn
 Whether / þat goddes / worthy forwytynge Streyneth me / nedely to doon a thyng
 Nedely clepe I / symple necessitee
 Or elles / if fre choys be graunted me

This storie / is also trewe I vndertake
 As is the book / of Launcelot de Lake
 That woman holde / in ful greet reverence
 Now wol I / tomo agayn to my sentence
 ¶ A Colfox / ful of sley Iniquitee
 That in the groue / hadde woned yeres thre
 [By] heigh ymaginacion / forncast
 The same nyght thurgh-out the hegges brast
 In-to the yerd / ther Chauntecleer the faire
 Was wont and eek his wyues to repaire
 And in a bed of wortes / stille he lay
 Til it was passed / vndren of the day
 Waitynge his tyme / on Chauntecleer to falle
 As gladly doon / thise homycides alle
 That in await liggyn / to mordre men
 O false mordreour / lurkyng in thy den
 O newe Scariot<sup>1</sup> newe Genylon false dissimilour / o greek Synon
 That broughst Troye / al outdry to sorwe
 O Chauntecleer / scursed be that morwe
 That thou in-to the yerd / slaugh fro the bemys
 Thou were / ful wel ywarned by thy dremys
 That thilke day / was perulous to thee
 But what þat god forwoot moot nedes be
 After the opynion of certeyn clerkis Witnesso on hym / þat any perlit clerk is
 That in scole / is greet altercacion
 In this matere / and greet disputioun
 And hath been / of an hundred thousand men
 But I ne kan / nat bulle it to the bren
 As kan / the holy doctour Augustyn
 Or Boece / or the Bischope Bradwardyn
 Whether / þat goddes worthy forewytynge
 Streyneth me nedely / for to doon a thyng
 Nedely clepe I / symple necessitee
 Or elles / if fre choys / be graunted me

This storie is also trewe I vndertake
 As is the bok of launcelot de lake
 That woman heelde in ful greet reverence
 Now welle I turne a-gayn to myn sentence
 A col fox ful of sly Iniquitee
 That in the groue hadde dwelled yeres thre
 By hygh Imaginacion forncast
 The same nyght thour-out the hegis brast
 In-to the yerd there chauntecleer þis faire
 Was wont & ek his wyues to repaire
 And In a bed of wortis styll he lay Til it was passed endren of the day
 Waytynge his tyme on Chauntecleer to falle
 As gladly doon these homycidis alle
 That in a-wayt liggyn to mordre men
 O false mordreour lurkyng in thy den
 O newe Scariot / newe Genyoun false dissynlour / O Grek Synoun
 That broughist Troye al vitryly to sorwe
 O Chauntecleer a-cursed be that morwe
 That thou in-to that yerd / slaw fro the bemys
 Thou were ful wel I-warnede be thyme dremys That thilke day was perulous to the
 But what that god forwoot moot nedis be
 After the opynion of certeyn clerkis Witnesso on hym that any perlyt clerk is
 That in scole is greet altercacion
 In this matere & greet disputacion
 And han been of an hundred thousand men
 But I can nat bulle it to the bren
 As can the holy doctour Augustyn
 Or Boece or the bishop Bradwardyn
 Whether that goddis worthi forewytynge
 Streyneth me nedely for to do that thyng
 Nedely clepe I symple necessitee
 Or ellis fre choys be graunted me

This story is also trewe I vndertake
 As is þe booke of launcelot þe lake þat women holde in ful gret reuerence
 Now wol I turne agoin to my sentence
 A kolle fox ful of sleighte and iniquite
 That in þe groue had woned þereþe þre
 By heih ymaginacioun aforne caste þe same nyght þurghout þe hegges brast
 In-to þe yerde þer Chaunteclere þe faire
 Was wout and eokt his wyfes to repayre
 And in a bedde of worstes stille he lay
 Till it was passed vndern of þe day
 Wayting his tyme on chaunteclere to falle
 As gladly don þese homicydes alle
 That in a wayte ligge to murþre men
 O fals murdroun rowkyng in þi den O newe scariot and newe Genyloun
 fals dissimylour O greke Symon
 That broughtest Troye outly to sorowe O Chaunteclere acused he þat morwe þat þou in þe ȝerde sleyst fro þe beemes
 Thou were ful wol y-warned by þi dremes
 That þilke day was perilous to þe
 But þat at god afore wot moost needes be After þe opynyon of certein clerkes Witnessse on him þat any clerik is That in scole gret altercacioun
 In þis matier and gret disputacioun
 And hapþe ben of an hundred þousand men
 But I ne can nouȝt bulke it to þe bren
 As can þe holy doctour augustyn
 Or Boece or þe Bischoppe Bradwardyn
 Whether þat goddes wille afore wetyng
 Streynþe me nedely for to don a þing
 Nedely clepe I simple necessite
 Or elles if þe free choys be granted me /

This story is as trewe I vndertake
 As is þe booke of launcelote de lake
 That women holde in ful gret reuerence
 Now wil I turne agoin to my sentence
 A Col foxe [ful] of sleight and iniquite
 That in þe groue had woned þereþe þre
 By high ymaginacioun to-foro cast þe same nyght þorgh-out þe hegges brast Into þe ȝerd þer chaunteclere þe faire was wout and eke his wywes to repaire
 And in a bedde of wortes stille he lay
 Till it was passed vndern of þe day
 Waityng his tyme on chauntecler to falle
 As gladly done þise homicydes alle
 That in a-wayte ligge to murdre men
 O fals murdere rowkyng in þi den
 O newe Scariot o . newe Genylon
 fals dissimylour o greke Symon þat broughtest troye al vterly to sorowe O chaunteclere accused he þat morowe þat þou into [þi] ȝerd sleigh from þe beemes
 Thou were ful wol ywarned by þi dremes
 That ilke day was perilous to þe
 But þat . þat god a-foro wote moost needes be After þe opynyon of certeyn clerkes Witnessse of hym þat any clerik es
 That in scole [is] gret altercacioun
 In þis matier and gret disputacioun
 And hapþe bene of an C. thousand men /
 But I ne can[not] bulk it to þe brenne
 As can þe holy doctour augustyns
 Or boys or þe Bischoppe Bradwardyne
 Whether þat goddis wille a-foro wetyng
 Streynþe me nedely forto don a þing
 Nedely clepe I simple necessite
 Or elles if þe free choys be granted me

This storie is as trewe .I. vnder-take
 As is þe booke of lancelote þe lake
 That women holde in ful gret Reuerence
 Nowe wil .I. turne againe to my sentence
 A kole fox ful of sleighte & iniquite þat in þe groue had woned ȝeres þre
 Be hihe ymaginacion aforne y-kast
 The same niht þerwher-oute þe hegges brast
 In-to þe ȝerde þer chaunteclere þe faire
 Was woute & eke his wif to repaire
 And in a bedde of wortes still he laye
 Till it was passed vndern of þe daye
 Wayteinge his time on chaunteclere to fall
 As gladly done þes homicides all þat in awaite ligges to murdre men
 O fals Mordroun foukunge in þi den
 O newe Scariot & newe Genyloun
 Fals dissimylour o greke Symoun
 That broughtest troye al vterly to sorow O chaunteclere accused he þat morwe þat þou in þe ȝerde sleigh from þe beemes þou were wela y-warned be þi dremes þat þilke daie was perilous to þe Bot þat at god a-foro wote it mote needes be After opynioun of certeine clerkes Witnessse on him þat any clerke es þat in scole gret altercacioun
 In þis matier & gret disputacioun
 And hapþe þue of an hundreþ þousand men
 But .I. ne can built it to þe braune
 As can þe holy doctour Austine
 Or Boice or þe Bischoppe Bradwardine
 Whether þat goddes wille afore weteinge Streynþe me nedely for to done a þinge
 Nedely clepe .I. Simple necessite
 Of elles if þe fre choyses be granted me

(Cont 293)

(Cont 294)

4404

4408

4412

4416

4420

4424

4428

4432

4436

To do that same thyng<sup>r</sup> or do it nocht<sup>r</sup>
 Though god forwoot it<sup>r</sup> or þat it was wrought<sup>r</sup>
 Or if his wityng<sup>r</sup> streyneth neuer a deel
 But by necessitee condicioned
 I wil nat han to do / of swich matere
 My tale is of a Cok<sup>r</sup>. as ye may heere
 That took his conseil / of his wyf with sorwe
 To walken in the yerd / vpon that morwe
 That he hadde met that drem / þat I of told Wommannes conseil / been ful ofte colde
 Wommannes conseil / broghte vs first to wo
 And made Adam / out of Paradys to go
 Ther as he was ful myrie / and wel at ese
 But for I noot to whom it myght displese
 If I / conseil of women wolde blame
 Passo ouer / for I seye it in my game
 Rede Auctours / where they tete / of swich matere
 And what they seyn of women / ʒe may heere
 Thise ben the Cokkes wordes / and nat myne
 I kan noon harm / of no woman diuene
Faire in the soon<sup>r</sup> / to bathe hire myrily Lith Portelote / and alle hire sustres by Agayn the somme / and Chauntecleer so free Song myrie / than the Mermayde in the see for Phisiologus / seith sikerly
 How þat they syngen / wel and myrily
 ¶ And so bifel / that as he cast his eye
 Among the wortes / on a Boterflye
 He was war of this fox / þat lay ful lowe
 No thyng<sup>r</sup> ne liste hym thanne for to crowe
 But cride anon cok / cok / and vp he sterte
 As man / that was affrayd in his herte
 for naturelly / a best<sup>r</sup> desirthe fleo fro his contrarie / if he may it see
 Though he neuer erst hadde sey it with his eye
 ¶ This Chauntecleer / when he gan hym espye

To do that same thyng<sup>r</sup> or do it nocht<sup>r</sup>
 Though god forwoot it<sup>r</sup> or þat I was wrought<sup>r</sup>
 Or if his wityng<sup>r</sup> streyneth neuer a del
 But<sup>r</sup> by necessitee / condicionel
 I wol nat han to do / of swich matere
 My tale is of a Cok<sup>r</sup> as ye may heere
 That took his conseil / of his wyf / with sorwe
 To walken in the yerd / vpon that morwe
 That he hadde met the drem / þat I yow tolde Wommannes conseil / be ful ofte colde
 Wommannes conseil / broghte vs first to wo
 And made Adam / fro Paradys to go
 Ther as he was / ful myrie and wel at ese
 But for I noot to whom it myght displese
 If I conseil of women / wolde blame
 Passo ouer / for I seye it in my game
 Rede Auctours / where they tete / of swich matere
 And what they seyn of women heere
 Thise ben the Cokkes wordes and nat myne
 I kan noon harm / on no woman deuene ¶ faire in the Sond / to bathe hire myrily Lyth Portelote / and alle hire sustres by Agayn the somme / and Chauntecleer so free
 Song myrie / than the Mermayde in the see
 for Phisiologus / seith sikerly
 How þat they syngen / wel and myrily
 ¶ And so bifel / that as he caste his eye
 Among the wortes / on a Boterflye
 He was war of this fox / þat lay ful lowe
 No thyng<sup>r</sup> ne liste hym thanne for to crowe
 But cryde anon / cok cok and vp he sterte
 As man / þat was affrayd in his herte
 for naturelly / a best<sup>r</sup> desirthe fleo
 fro his contrarie / if he may it see
 Though he neuer erst hadde sey it with his eye
 This Chauntecleer / when he gan hym espye

To do that same thyng or do it not Thow god fore-wot it or that I was wrought
 Or ʒif his wotyng<sup>r</sup> streynyth neuere a deel
 But by necessitee condicionnel
 I wle not han to done of swich matere
 My<sup>r</sup> tale is of a cok as ʒe may heere
 That tok his conseil / of his wif with sorwe
 To walkyn in the yerd vp-on that morwe
 That he hadde met the drem that I ʒow tolde Womenys conseil is been ful oftyr colde
 Womenys conseil is broghte vs first to woo
 And made Adam from paradys to go
 There as he was ful merye & wel at ese
 But for I not to whom I myghte displese ʒif I conseil of women wolde blame Passo ouyr / for I seye it in myn game
 Rede autours where they tete of swiche matiere
 And what they sey / of women / ʒe may heere
 These ben the cokkis wordis & nat myne
 I can noon harm on no woman deuene fays in the send to bathe hire meryly Lyth Portelote & alle hire susteyn by Agayn the sume & Chauntecleer so free Song meryere than the mermeydyn in the see for phisiologus seyth sekyry
 How that they syngyn weel & meryly
 And so be-fel that as he caste his yen
 A-mong the wortis on a boteryfy
 He was war of this fox that lay ful lowe
 No thyng ne hyste hym thanne for to crowe
 But criede a-moon kok kok & vp he styzte
 As man that was affrayd in his herte for naturelly / a beste desirthe flo from his contrarʒe / ʒif he myghte it see Thow he neuere erst hadde sey it with his Iye
 ¶ This chauntecleer whax he gan hym espye

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Corpus MS. SIX-TEXT 295

To do þat same þing<sup>o</sup> or to do it nouȝt þouȝ god forwot<sup>o</sup> it<sup>o</sup> er it<sup>o</sup> was y-wrouȝt<sup>o</sup>
 Or of his wetyng<sup>o</sup> streyneȝ neuer a del
 But by necessite condicional

I wil not haue to doome of such matiere
 My tale is of a cokke as ȝe schulin after heere
 That took his counseil of his wiif wif sorwe
 To walke in-to þe ȝerd vpon þe morwe

That he had mette þe dreme as I ȝou tolde Wommens counseiles ben ful ofte colde Wommans counseil brought<sup>o</sup> vs first to wo
 And made adam fro paradys to go

ȝer as he was ful mery and wol at<sup>o</sup> ease /
 But for I not<sup>o</sup> whom it might displese
 If I counseil of wommen wolde blame
 Passe ouer I seyde it in my game

Rede auctours wher þey trete of such matiere
 And what þey seyn of wommen ȝe may heere
 These ben þe cokkes wordes and nouȝt myne
 I can no harme of no wommen deuyne

ȝayre in þe sande to baþe hire merily lip pertelote and alle hire sesters by Aȝein þe sonne and chaunteclere so fre Sange merere þan þe mero-mayde in þe see for Phyalogus saip witterly

 How þat þey sungen wel and merily
 And so byfalle as he cast<sup>o</sup> his ye amonges þe wortes vpon a butterfye

He was war of þis fox þat lay ful lowe
 ¶ No þing<sup>o</sup> ne luste him þanne for to crowe
 But cryed anon kok<sup>o</sup> kok<sup>o</sup> and vp he sterte
 As a man þat was affrayd in his herte

for naturally a beste desireȝ to fle fro his contrarye if he may it see þouȝ he neuer hadde seyde it erst wif his ye This chaunteclere when he gan him espye

CORPUS (e-T. 295)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Petworth MS. SIX-TEXT 295

To do þat same þing<sup>o</sup> or do it<sup>o</sup> nouȝt<sup>o</sup>
 Thous god forwote it<sup>o</sup> er it<sup>o</sup> was wrouȝt<sup>o</sup> Er of his wetyng<sup>o</sup> streyneȝ neuer a dele

But by necessite condicional

I wil not haue to done of such matere
 My tale is of a cokke as ȝe shullen here
 That take his counsaile of his wiif wif sorwe
 To walken in þe ȝerde vpon þe morowe

That he had mette þe dreme þat I ȝou tolde
 Wom[an]es counsaile is ful ofte colde
 Wom[an]es counsaile brouȝt<sup>o</sup> vs first to woo
 And made Adam from paradys to goo .

That he was ful mery and wol at<sup>o</sup> ese
 But for I note whom I myȝt displese
 If I counsaile of wommen wold blame
 Passe onere for I seide it in my game

Rede arters wher þei trete of surli matere
 And what þei seyne of wommen here
 Thise beþe þe cokkes wordes and not myne
 I can no harme of no wommen deuyne

ȝaire in þe sande to baþi hur merily lidi pertelote and al hure sesters bye Aȝein<sup>o</sup> þe sonne and chaunteclere so fre Sange meryer þan þe meermaid in þe See for phisialogus saip witterly How þat þei sungen wel and merely

 And so byfalle as he cast<sup>o</sup> his ye Amonges þe wortes vpon a botterflic

He was war of this fox þat lay ful lowe
 No þing<sup>o</sup> ne lust hym þan for to crowe
 But cries anon cok<sup>o</sup> kok<sup>o</sup> and vp he sterte
 As a man þat was affraid in his herte for naturally a best<sup>o</sup> desirȝ to fle fro his contrario if he may it see þouȝ he neuer had eyde it erst wif his ye This chaunteclere when he hym gan espie

PETWORTH (e-T. 295)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Lansdowne MS. SIX-TEXT 295

To do þat same þing<sup>o</sup> or to do it<sup>o</sup> nouȝt<sup>o</sup> þouȝ god for-wote it<sup>o</sup> ar it<sup>o</sup> was wrouȝt<sup>o</sup>
 Or of his weteinge streyneȝ neuerre a delo

Bot be necessite condicional

I wil nouȝt haue to done of suche Matier<sup>o</sup>
 Mi tale is of a koke as ȝe maie here

That took his counsel of his wif wif sorwe
 To walken in þe ȝerde vpon þe morwe þat he hadde mette þe dreme as .I. ȝowe tolde Wemmen counsel bien ful often colde

 Wemmen counsel brouȝt<sup>o</sup> vs first to woo
 And made Adam fro paradise to go ȝere as he was ful mery & wole at<sup>o</sup> ese Bot for .I. note whome .I. miht . it displese

 If .I. counsel of wemmen wolde blame
 Passe onere for .I. said it in my game

Rede Auctours wher þei trete of suche matier<sup>o</sup>
 And what þei seine of wemmen hier þese biene þe kokkes wordes & nouȝt myne
 .I. kan no harme of no wommen deuine

Faire in þe sande so baþe hire merily
 Lyȝe pertelote & hire susters bye
 Aȝeine þe sunne & chaunteclere so fre Sange merier-þat-þe meri mero-maide in þe see

For Phisialogus seipe witterly How þat þei sungen wole & merely
 And so be-fel as he kest his yȝe
 Amonges þe wortes vpon a butterfye

He was ware of þis fox þat lay ful lowe
 Noþing<sup>o</sup> lust him þan to crowe
 Bot cride anone kok kok & vp he sterte
 As a man was affraide in his herte

For naturally a beste desireȝ to fle
 Fro his contrarie when he maie it see þeihe he neuere hadde seen it erst wif his ye
 The chaunteclere when he gan him a-spye

LANSDOWNE (e-T. 295)

(Dist 223)

(Ibid 204, back)

He wolde han fled / but that the fox anon
 Seyde gentil sire / allas wher wol ye gon
 Be ye afraied of me / that am youre frend
 Now certes / I were worse than a feend
 If I to you / wolde harm / or vileynye
 I am nat come / your conseil for tespys
 But trewely / the cause of my comynge
 Was only / for to herkne how that ye syng for trewely / ye han as myrie a steuene
 As any Angul / that is in heuene
 Ther-with ye han id Musyk moore feelynge
 Than hadde Boece / or any pat kan syng
 My lord youre fader / god his soule blesse
 And eek youre moder / of hire gentillesse
 Han in myn hous ybeen / to my greet ese
 And certes sire / ful fayn wolde I yow plesse
 ¶ But for men speke of syngynge I wol yow seye
 So moote I brouke wel / myne eyen tweye Saus yow / herde I neuere man yet syng
 As dide youre fader / in the morwenynge
 Certes / it was of herte / al that he song
 And for to make / his voys / the moore strong
 He wolde so peyne hym / that with bothe hise eyen
 He moste wynke / so loude he wolde cryen
 And stonden on his typton / ther-with al
 And strecche forth his nekke / long & smal
 And eek he was / of swich discrecion
 That ther nas / no man in no Regioun
 That hym / in song / or wisdom myghte passe
 I haue wel rad / in daun Bernelle the Ass
 Among hise vers / how that ther was a Cok for that a prestes sone / yaf hym a knok
 Vp-on his leg whil he was yong and nyce
 He made hym / for to lesse his benefice
 But certeyn / ther nys no comparison
 Bitwix / the wisdom / and discrecion

He wolde han fled / but pat the fox anon
 Seyde gentil sire / allas wher wol ye gon
 Be ye afraied / of me pat am youre frend
 Now certes / I were worse than a feouȝ
 If I to you / wolde harm / or vileynyo
 I am nat come / youre conseil for tespys
 But trewely / the cause of my comynge
 Was only<sup>r</sup> / for to herkne how pat ye syng
 for trewely / ye han as myrie a steuene
 As any Angel hath / pat is in heuene
 Ther with / ye han in Musyk moore feelynge
 Than hadde Boece / or any pat kan syng
 My Lord youre fader / god his soule blesse
 And eek youre moder / of hire gentillesse
 [Han] in myn hous yben / to my gret ese P. B. 110, 1102
 And certes sire / ful fayn wolde I yow plesse
 ¶ But for men speke of syngynge / I wol seye
 So mote I brouke wel / myne eyen tweye Saus yo / herde I neuere man so syng
 As dide youre fader / in the morwenynge
 Certes / it was of herte / al that he song
 And for to make his voys / the moore strong
 He wolde so peyne hym / pat with bothe hise eyen
 He moste wynke / so loude he wolde cryen
 And stonden on his typton / ther with al
 And strecche forth his nekke / long and smal
 And eek / he was of swich discrecion
 That ther nas no man / in no Regioun
 That hym in song / or wisdom myghte passe
 I haue wel rad / in daun Bernelle the Ass
 Among hise vers / how pat ther was a cok for a prestes sone / yaf hym a knok
 Vp-on his leg whil he was yong and nyce
 He made hym / for to lesse his benefice
 But certeyn / ther nys no comparison
 Bitwix the wisdom / and discrecion.

He wolde a fed but that the fox a-noon
 Seyde gentil sire / allas whidyr wol 3e goon
 Be 3e afraied of me that am youre frend Now certys I were worse than a feend yf I to 3ow harm or velenye
 I am nat come 3oure conseil for tespia
 But trewely the cause of myn comynge Was only for to herkene how that 3e syng for trewely 3e han so merie a steuene Af ony angul hath that is in heuene
 Therewith 3e han in musik moore feylng
 Than hadde, boece, or any that can syng
 Myn lord 3oure fadyr god his soule blys
 And ek 3oure modyr of hire gentilles
 Han in myn hous I-been to myn greele ese
 But certys syre ful fayn wolde I 3ow plesse ¶ But for men speke of syngynge I wil seye
 So mote I broukys weel myn eyen tweye Saus 3ow I herde neuere man so syng
 As dede 3oure fadyr in the morwenynge
 Certis it was of herte al that he song
 And for to make his voys the moore strong
 He wolde peyne hym that with bothe hise eyen
 He muste wynke so loude he muste cryen
 And standyn on his typton therewithal
 And strecche forth his nekke long & smal
 And ek he was of swich discrecyoun
 That there was no man in no regioun
 That hym in song or wisdom myghte passe
 I haue weal red in daun burnel the Ass
 A-mong hise vers how that ther was a kok for a prestis sone gaf hym a knok Vp-on his leg whil he was 3ond & nyce
 He made hym for to lesse his benefice
 But certeyn there n' is no comparison
 By-twix the wisdom & discrecioun

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 296
Corpus MS.

he wolde han fledde but þat þe fox anon
 Sayde gentil sire allas what wol 3e doon
 Best 3e affrayed of me þat am your frende Certes sire þen þe 3e vnhende
 If I to you wolde harme or vilanyo
 I am nought come youre counsel to asprie
 But trewely þe cause of my comynge
 Was only to herkne how þat 3e syngs / for trewely 3e han as mery a steuene
 As any angel hat þat is in heuene Ther-with 3e han in Physike more folyngre þat hadde boys or eny þat can syngre
 My lord youre fader god his soule blisse
 And eek youre mooder of hire gentillesse han in myn hous I-ben ful wel at esse and certes sire ful fayn wolde I 3ou plesse
 But for men speken of syngyngre I wolde beye
 So mote I brokke myn eyen tweye
 Sauē 3ou I ne herde neuer man so syngre
 As dide youre fader in þe mornynge
 Certes it was of hert al þat he sange
 And for to make his vois þe more strange
 He wolde so peyne him þat wip þe his eyen
 He moste wynke so lowde he dide cryen
 And stonden on his typtoes þer-wip-al
 And strecche forþ his nakke long and smal
 And eek he was of such discrecion
 That þer was no man in no region
 That him in songe or wisdom mighte passe
 I haue wel red daun burnelle the asso Among his vers þer was a kolk for a prestes sone þat him a knok Vpon his legges whil he was yong and nyce
 He made him for to lesse his benefice
 But certein þer is no comparisoun
 Betwixe þe wisdom and discrecion

CORPUS (9-T. 296)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 296
Petworth MS.

He wold haue fledde but þat þe fox anon
 Said gentil sire allas what hast þou doo Best 3e affraid of me þat am your frende Certes sir þan þen 3e vnhende
 If I to 3ou wil harme or vilanyo
 I am not come your counsaile to asprie
 But trewely þe cause of my comynge
 Was only to herken how þat 3e singe for trewely 3e han as mery a steuen
 As angel hat þat is in houen Ther-with 3e han in musike more folynge þan had boys or eny þat can syngre
 My lordes your faders god his soule blisse
 And eke youre modere and hur gentillesse
 Han in myn hous bene to 3ou grete ese
 And Certes sir right fain wold I 3ou plesse
 But for men speken of syngyngre I wil seye
 So mot I brokke myn eien tweye
 Sauē 3e I ne herd neuer man so syngre
 As dide your fader in þe mornynge
 Certes it was of hert al þat he songe
 And forto make his vois þe more stronge
 He wold so peyn hym þat wip both his yen
 He moste wynke so lowde he dide crien
 And stonden on his typtoes þer-wip-al
 And strecche forþ his nek longe and small
 And eke he was of such discrecion
 That þer was no man in no region
 That him in songe or wisdom myghte passe
 I haue wel red daun Burnel þer as Amonge his vers þer was a kolk
 [That] for a prestes sone þauē hym a knok Vpon his legges whiles he was yonge and nyce
 He made hym forto lese his benefice
 But certein þer nys noon comparisoun Bytwix þe wisdom and discrecion

4 H. PETWORTH (9-T. 290)

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 296
Lausdowne MS.

He walde haue fledde Bot þat þe fox anon
 Sayde gentil sire alas what witt 3e done
 Best 3e affraide of me þat am your frende Certes sire þat bien 3e vnhende
 If I. to 3owe wolde harme or velanyo
 I am neught comme your conseil to aspya
 Bot trewely þe cause of my comynge
 Was only to herken howe þat I. singe
 For trewely 3e haue as mery a steuene
 As an Angel hat þat is in heuene þer-wip 3e haue in fysik more feylyngre þan hadde Boys or any þat kan singe
 Min lordes your fader god his soule blisse
 And eke your modere of hire gentillesse
 Haue in myne house bien to your grete ese
 And certes sir ful feine wold I 3owe plesse Bot for men speke of singeingre [I wold scie. (Edm. 225, back; 67185)]
 So mote I broke myn yen tweie.
 Sauē y I ne herd/ neuy/ man so syng.]
 As dide your fader in þe morninge
 Certes it was of hert al þat he sange
 And for to make his voice þe more strange
 He wolde so peyne him þat wip þe his yen
 He moste wynke so lowde he dide criene
 And stond on his typtoes þer wip al
 And strecche forþ his nakke longe & smal
 And eke he was of suche discrecion þat þer was no man in no region þat him in sange or wisdom myht passe
 I. haue wels redde Dan Burnel þe asso
 Amonge his vers þere was a kolk
 For a prestes sone þauē him a knoke
 Vpon his legges whan he was yonge & nyce
 He maade him for to lese his benefice
 Bot certein þere is no comparisoun
 Be-tuix þe wisdom & discrecion

LANSDOWNE (9-T. 296)

297 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

Of youre fader / and of his subtiltee
 Now syngeth sire / for seinte charitee
 Lat so / konne ye youre fader countrefete
 ¶ This Chauntecleer / hise wynges gan to bete 4512
 As man / þat koude his trayson nat espie
 So was he rauysched with his flaterie
Allas ye lordes / many a fals flatour
 Is in youre Courtes / and many a losengeour 4516
 That plesen yow / wel moore by my feith
 Than he / that soothfastnesse / vn-to yow seith
 Redeth Ecclesiaste / of flaterye
 Beth war ye lordes / of hir trecherye 4520
 ¶ This Chauntecleer / stood hye vp on his toes
 Strecchyng his nekke / and heeld hise eyen cloos
 And gan to crowe / loude for the nones
 And daun Russel the fox / stirte vp stones 4524
 And by the gargat hente Chauntecleer
 And on his bak / toward the wode hym beer for yet ne was ther no man / þat hym sewed ¶ O destinee / that mayst nat ben eschewid 4528 Allas þat Chauntecleer / fleigh fro the bemes Allas / his wyf / ne roghte nat of dremes
 And on a friday / fil at this meschaunce
 ¶ O Venus / that art goddesse of plesaunce 4532
 Syn that thy seruaunt. was this Chauntecleer <sup>[Dist 128, b, c]</sup>
 And in thy seruyce / dide al his power
 Moore for delit than world to multiplie
 Why woldestow suffre hym / on thy day to dye 4536
 ¶ O Gaufred deere Maister souerayn
 That whan thy worthy kyng Richard was slayn
 With shot. compleynedest his deeth so soore
 Why ne hadde I now / thy sentence / and thy loore 4540
 The friday for to chide / as diden ye for on a friday / soothly slayn was he Thanne wolde I shewe yow / how þat I koude plyne for Chaunteclerys drede / and for his peyne 4544

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 297)

297 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 241

Of youre fader / and of his subtiltee
 Now syngeth sire / for seyne charitee
 Lat so / konne ye youre fader countrefete
 ¶ This Chauntecleer / hise wynges gan to bete 4512
 As man þat koude / his trayson nat espie
 So was he rauysched / with his flaterie
 ¶ Allas ye lordes / many a fals flatour
 Is in youre court and many a losengeour 4516
 That plesen yow wel moore / by my feyth
 Than he / þat soothfastnesse vn-to yow seith
 Redeth Ecclesiaste / of flaterye
 Beth war ye lordes / of hir trecherye 4520
 ¶ This Chauntecleer / stood hye vp on his toes
 Strecchyng his nekke / and heeld hise eyen cloos
 And gan to crowe / lowde for the nones
 And daun Russelle the fox / stirte vp atones 4524
 And by the gargat hente Chauntecleer
 And on his bak / toward the wode hym beer for yet ne was ther no man / þat hym sewed <sup>[Dist 128]</sup> ¶ O destinee / þat mayst nat ben eschewid 4528
 Allas þat Chauntecleer / fly fro the bemes
 Allas / his wif / ne roghte nat of dremes
 And on a friday / fil at this meschance
 ¶ O Venus / þat art goddesse of plesaunce 4532 Syn þat thy seruaunt was this Chauntecleer
 And in thy seruyce / dide al his power
 Moore for delit than world to multiplie
 Why woldestow suffre hym / on thy day to dye 4536
 ¶ O Gaufred / deere maister souerayn
 That whan / thy worthy kyng Richard was slayn
 With shot compleynedest his deeth so soore
 Why ne hadde I now / thy sentence and thy loore 4540
 The friday for to chide / as diden ye
 for on a friday / soothly slayn was he Thanne wolde I shewe yow / how þat I koude plyne
 for Chaunteclerys drede / and for his peyne 4544

HENGWRT 241 (6-T. 297)

297 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Of youre fader / and of his subtiltee
 Now syngeth sere for seyne charite
 Lat se kunne 3e youre-fader countrefete
 This chauntecleer hise wyngis gan to beete 4512
 As man that coude his tresour nat aspye
 So was he rauyschid with his flaterye ¶ Allas 3e lordis manye a flaterour
 Is in youre court & manye a losengeour 4516
 That plesen 3ow weel more be my3e fayth
 Than he that sothfastnesse vn to 3ow seyth
 Redyth ecclesiaste of flaterye
 Beth war 3e lordis of hire trecherye 4520
 This Chauntecleer stood hye vp-on hise tois Strecchyng his neke & held his eyen cloos
 And gan to crowe loude for the nonys
 And daun Russel the fox styrtte vp at at anys 4524
 And by the gargat hente Chauntecleer
 And on his bak to the wode hym beer for 3it theere ne was no-man that hym sewid <sup>[Dist 128]</sup>
 O destene that mayst nat ben eschewid 4528
 Allas that Chauntecleer flei from the bemys Allas his wyf ne roghte nat of dremys
 And on a fryday fil al this myschaunce
 O venus that art goddesse of plesaunce 4532
 Syn that thy seruaunt was this chaun[te]cleer
 And in thy3e seruyce dede al his power
 Moore for delyt than world to multiplie
 Why woldeste3e suffere hym on thy3e day to deye 4536
 O ganfyrd deere maystyre souereyn
 That whan thy worthy kyng Richard was slayn
 With shot compleynedist his deeth so soore
 Whi ne haide I-nough thy3e sentence & thy3e loore 4540
 The fryday for to chide as dedyn 3e for on a fryday sothly slayn was he Thanne wolde I eschewyn how that I coude plyne <sup>[Dist 128, b, c]</sup> for Chauntecleeres drede & for his peyne 4544

CAMBRIDGE (6-P. 297)

SIX-TEXT 297
 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Corpus MS.

Of youre fader and of his subtilte
 Now syngeþ sire for sainte Charite Lett ses come þe youre fador countrefete þis Chaunteclere his wynges gan to bete 4512
 As man þat couþe his treson not aspye
 So was he rauysshel' wip his flaterie
 ¶ Atlas 30 lordes many a fals flatur Is in youre court and many a losengour þat plesen 30u more by my feip
 Then he þat sofastness' vnto 30u seiþ
 Redeþ eccliasiatre of flaterie
 Beþ war 30 lordes of here trecherie 4520
 This Chaunteclere stood heye vpon his toos Strecching his nekke and huld his eyen clos
 And gan to crowe loudre for þe nones
 And daun Russel stert vp al at ones
 And by þe gorgege hente Chaunteclere
 And on his bak toward the woode him bere for 30þ was þere noman þat him seved
 O destyne þat mayst not' ben eschewed
 Alias þat Chaunteclere fel fro þe bemes
 Alias his wyf ne roughte nought of dremes
 And on a friday felle al þis meschaunce
 O venus þat art goddesso of plesaunce
 Seþines þat þi seruaut was þis Chaunteclere
 And in þin seruise dede al his powere
 More for delite þan þe world to multiplie
 Why woldestow suffre him / on þin day to dye
 O Gaultrede deere maister sonerayn
 That when þy worþy Kinge Richard was slayn Wip schotte complayndest' his deþ so sore
 Why ne hadde I now þin sentence and þin lore 4540
 The friday for to chyde as deden 30 / for on a friday shortly slayn was he þanne wolde I schewe 30u how þat I couþe pleyne for Chaunteclere and for his peyne 4544

CORPUS (6-T. 297)

SIX-TEXT 297
 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Petworth MS.

Of youre fadere and of his subtilite
 Now syngeþ sir' for seint' charite
 Lett see come þe youre fadere countrefete
 This Chaunteclere his wenges gan to bete 4512
 As man þat coude nat' his treson asprie
 So was he rauysshel' wip his flaterie
 Alias 30 lordes mony a fals flatur
 Is in your court and mony a losengour'
 That plesen 30u more by my feip
 That he þat sofastness vnto 30' seiþ .
 Redeþ Eccliasiatre of flaterie
 Beþ ware 30 lordes of her trecherye 4520
 This Chaunteclere stood high vpon his toos Strecching his nek and held his eyen clos
 And gan to crowe loudre for þe nones
 And daun Russel stert vp al at ones
 And by þe Gargaige hent' Chaunteclere
 And on his bak toward the wood hym bere for 30þ was ther no man hym swed
 O Destany þat maist' not' ben eschewed
 Alias þat chaunteclere fel fro þe bemes
 Alias his wif ne rouyt' not' of dremes
 And on a friday felle all þis meschaunce
 O Venus þat art goddess of plesaunce
 Sijens þat þi seruauant was þis chaunteclere
 And in þi seruise did al his powere
 More for delit þan þe world to multiplie .
 Why woldest þou suffre on þi day to dye
 O Gaultrede deere maistere soneroyñ þat when þe worþi kinge Richard was slayn Wip shot complayndest' his deþ so sore
 Why ne had I nowe þi sentence and þi lore 4540 þe friday forto chide as did 30 for on a friday shortly sclayne was he þan wolde I shewe howe þat I coude pleyne
 for chaunteclere and for his peyne 4544

PETWORTH (6-T. 297)

SIX-TEXT 297
 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.

Of youre fader & his subtilite
 Nowe syngeþ sire for seint charite
 Lete se con 30 youre fader countrefet
 This Chaunteclere his wynges gan to bete 4512
 As man þat couþe his treson nouht asprie
 So was he rauysshed wip his flaterie
 Alias 30 lordes mony a fals flaterer
 Is in youre court & mony a losengier þat plesen 30we more be my feip þan he þat sofastness vnto 30we seiþ Redeþ Eccliasiatre of flatre
 Be war 30 lordes of here trecherie 4520
 This Chaunteclere stode hihe vpon his toos Strechinge his nekke & held his yen clos
 And gan to crowe loudre for þe nones
 And Daun Russel stert vp al at ones
 And by þe gorge hente chaunteclere
 And on his bak to-warde þe woode him bere
 For 30t was þere noman him seved
 O destanye þat maiste not bu encheved
 Alias þat chaunteclere fel fro þe beme
 Alias his wif ne rouht nouht of dremes
 And on a fridays fel al þis meschaunce
 O venus þat is goddess of plesaunce
 Seþes þat þi seruaut was þus chaunteclere
 And in þi seruise dide al his powere
 More for delite þan þe werlde to multiplie
 Why woldest þou suffir on þi days to deye
 O gaultrede deere maister sonereigne
 Than when þi worþi kinge Richard was slayne Wip schotte complaymed his deþ so sore
 Why ne hadd I. nowe þi sentence & þi lore 4540 þe fryday for to chide as deden 30 For on a fryday shortly slayne was he þan wolde I. schewe 30we howe þat I. couþe pleyne
 For chaunteclere & for his peyne 4544

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 297)

¶ Note here

[leaf 254, back]

[leaf 255, back]

[leaf 254. B regards And on his bak to-ward þe
 woode him bere]

298 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

¶ Certes / swich cry / ne lamentacioun
Was neuere / of ladies maad / whan Ylbon
Was womne / and Pirrus with his streite swerd
Whan he hadde hent kyng Priam / by the berd
And slayn hym / as seith vs Eneydos
As mäden / alle the hennes in the clos
Whan they had seyn / of Chauntecleer the sighte
But sodeynly / dame Pertelote shrighite ful louder / than dide Hasdrubales wyf
Whan þat hir housbonde / hadde lost his lyf
And þat the Romayns / hadde brennd Cartage
She was / so ful of torment and of rage
That wilfully / in-to the fyr she starte
And brende hir seluen / with a stedefast herte
¶ O woful hennes / right so cryden ye
As whan that Nero / brende the Citee Of Rome / cryden senatours wyues for þat hir husbondes losten alle hir lyues
With-outen gilt this Nero hath hem slayn
Now turne I wole / to my tale agayn
This sely wydwe / and eek hir doghtres two Herdn thise hennes crye / and maken wo
And out at dores / stirten they anon
And seyn the fox / toward the groue gon
And bar vp-on his bak / the cok away
And cryden out harrow / and weylaway
Ha. ha. the fox / and after hym they ran
And eek with stoues / many another man
Ran Colle our dogge / and Talbot and Gerlande
And Malkyn / with a distaf / in hire hand
Ran Cow and calf and the verray hogges
So fered / for berkyng of the dogges
And shoutyng of the men and women eek
They ronne so / hem thoughte hir herte brek
They yelleden / as fendes doon in helle
The dokes cryden / as men wolde hem quille

ELLESMEERE (9-T. 298)

298 SIX-TEXT
242 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

¶ Certes / swich cry / ne lamentacioun
Was neuere of ladies maad / whan yllon
Was womne / and Pirrus / with his streite swerd
Whanne he hadde hent kyng Priam by the berd
And slayn hym / as seith vs Eneydos
As mäden / alle the hennes in the clos
Whan they hadde seyn / of Chauntecleer the sighte
But soneynly / dame Pertelote shrighite
ful louder / than dide Hasdrubales wyf
Whan þat hire housbonde / hadde ylost his lyf
And þat the Romayns / hadden brennd Cartage
She was / so ful of torment and of rage
That wilfully / vn-to the fyr she starte
And brende hir seluen / with a stedefast herte
¶ O woful hennes / right so cryden ye
As / whan þat Nero / brende the Citee Of Rome / cryden the senatours wyues for þat hir housbondes / losten alle hire lyues
With-outen gilt this Nero hath hem slayn
Now wol I turne / to my tale agayn
¶ The sely widwe / and eek hire doghtres two Herdn thise hennes crye / and maken wo
1[And] out at dores / stirten they anon <sup>[1 Bets. leaf 106, 106c]</sup>
1[And] seyn the fox / toward the groue gon
And bar vp-on his bak / the cok / away
And cryden / out harrow and weillaway
Ha / ha. the fox / and after hym they ran
And eek with stoues / many another man
Ran Colle our dogge / and Talbot and Gerlande
And Malkyn / with a distaf in hire hand
Ran Cow and calf / and eek the verray hogges
So fered / for berkyng of the dogges
And shoutyng of the men / and women eek
They ronne so / hem thoughte hire herte brek
They yelleden / as fendes doon in helle
The dokes cryden / as men wolde hem quille

HENGWRT 242 (6-T. 298)

298 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

¶ Certis swich cry ne lamentacioun
Was neuere of ladis maad whan ylloun
Was womne & Pirrus with his sreytwe swerd Whan that he hadde hent kyng priame bi the berd
And slayn hym as seith vs Enidos
As mäden alle the hemys in the clos Whas they hadde of Chauntecler the eight But soueraynly dame Pertelote shryght ful loudere than dede Hasdrubalis wyf Whan that hire husbonde hadde y-lost his lyf
And that the Romayns haddyn brennt Cartago Sche was so ful of turnement & of rage
That wilfully in-to the feer sche starte
And brende hire seluyn with a stedefaste herte
O woful hennys ryght so cryedyn 3e
As whan that nero brende the Cete Of Rome cryedyn / Senatouris wyuys for that here husbondys lostyn alle here lyuys
With-outyn gilt this Nero hath hem slayn
Now wole I turne to myn tale agayn
¶ The sely wedewe & ek here doghter two Herdyn these hennys crye & makyn wo
And out at the dorys stirte they a-non
And seyen the fox toward the groue gon
And bar vp-on his bek the Cok away
And cryedyn out harow & weylawey
.Ha. ha. the fox & aftyr hym they ran
And ek with stonys many a-nothir man Ran Colle.oure degg & talbot & Garland
And Malkyn with a distaf in hire hand
Ran cow & Calf & ek the verray hoggis for-fered for berkyng of the doggis
And shoutyng of the men & women ek
They ronne so they thoute here herte brek
They yelledyn as fendis doon in helle
The dokes cryedyn as men wolde hem quille

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 298)

[Leaf 298 of the Cotton MS 92
ent. 6c.]

Certes such crye ne lamentacion
 Was of ladyes maade when yleost
 Was womne and Purris wij his streighte sword Whenne he hente king' Pryam by þe berd
 And slayn him as seyde Ennydos
 As madden alle þe hennes in þe cloos
 When þey hadde seye of chaunteclere þe sight
 But soueraynly dame Pertelote schricht ful lowder þen dode hasdrubaldes wyf
 When þat hire housbonde hadde lost his lyff
 And þat þe Romayns had berud Cartage Sche was so full of torment and of Rage þat wilfully in to þe fuyr sche sterte
 And brend hir selus wij a stedefast herte
 O wofulle hennes right' so cryede 3e
 As whan þat Nero brende þe Cite Of Rome cryden þe Senabours wyfes for þat here housbondes schulde lese here lyues Wijouten gulte Nero haþ hem slayn ¶ Now wole I turne vnto my tale agayn
 This seely widewe and hire dousters tuo Herden þe hennes crien and make woo /
 And out at þe dore sterten þey anon
 And sawe þe fox toward þe grouse goon
 And bar vpon his bak þe kok away
 And criden out harrow and weloway
 A ha þe fox and after him þey ran
 And eek with staves many anoþer man Ran eolle onre dogge Talbot and Garlond
 And Malkyn wij hire distaf in hire Lond Ran cow and calf and eke þe verrey hogges Sore aferd for berkyng of þe dogges
 And schotwytng of men and of women eke þey ronne so her hert þey þouglt to breke
 They yelleden as feendes don in helle
 The dokes cryden as men wolde hem quelle

Certes such crye ne lamentacion
 Was of ladies maade whan þat Ilyon
 Was womne . and pirrus wij his streit' swerd 4548 When he hent king' Priam by þe beerd
 And slayn hym as seide Ennisidos
 As madden all þe hennes in þe cloos
 Whan þei had seie of chaunteclere þe sijt
 But soueryn dame pertelote schricht wel lodder þan did Hasdrubaldes wif whan þat her husbonde had lost his lif
 And þat þe romaynes had brent Cartage
 4552 She was so ful of torment and of Rage
 That wilfully into þe fire she stert
 And brent her self wij a stedfast hert
 O woful hennys riht so criden 3e
 As whan þat Nero brent þe Cite 4560 Of Rome criden þe Censtours wyres for þat her husbondes schulden lese her lyues wij-outen Gilt' [jis] Nero haþ hem slayn
 Now wil I turne to my tale agein 4564 This seely widowe and here dousters two Herden þe hennys crien and make woo
 And out atte dore sterten þei anon
 And sawe þe fox toward þe grouse goon
 4568 And bare on his bak þe Kok away
 They criden out and harawe and weloway
 A ha þe fox and after hym þei ran 4572 And eke wij staves meny an oþer man Ran-Coll our dogge . talbot and Garlonde
 And Malkyn wij her distaf in here honde 4576 Ran cove and calf and eke the verrey hogges Sore aferd for berkyng of dogges
 And shting of men and women eke þei ronne so þeire hertes þei þouglt to breke þei yelden as feendes don in helle 4580 The dogges criden as men woldt hem quelle

Certes suche crie ne lamentacione
 Was of ladies maade whan þat Elyone
 Was womne & pirrus wij his streit swerde 4548 When he hente kinge Priam þe þe berde
 And slayne him as seide Eneydos
 As madden all þe hennes in þe cloos
 Whan þei hadd seie of Chaunteclere þe siht Botte souerignly dame Pertelot schricht 4552 Ful ludde þan dide Estrubaldes wif Whan þat hir husbonde hadde lost hir lif
 And þat þe Romeynes hadde bernt Cartage 4556 Sche was so ful of tourment & of rage þat wilfully in-to þe fire sche stert
 And burnede her self wij a stedfast hert
 O . woful hennes riht so cride 3e
 As whan þat nero burned þe Cite 4560 Of Rome Criden þe Senatours wifes
 For þat her husbondes scholde lese here lyves Wij-outen gulte Nero haþe hem slayne
 Now wil .I. turne to my tale ageino 4564 This cely wedowe & here dowhters tuo Herden þe hennes crie & madden wo
 And oute att þe dore stert þei a none
 And sawe þe fox to-ward þe grouse gone 4568 And bare vpon his bakke þe koke awaie
 And Criden oute harrowe & walaweie
 A ha þe fox & After hem þei Ranne 4572 And ek wij staves mony anoþer manne Ranne Colle our dogge talbot & Garland
 And Malkin wij here distaf in hire hand 4576 Rann þe cove & þe calf & eke þe verrey hogges Sore aferd for berkeinge of þe dogges
 And schotweinge of men & of wemmen eke þei rann so her hert þei þouglt to breke
 The Dokes criden as men wold hem quelle 4580 þei yelden as fendes done in helle

The gees for feere / flown ouer the trees
Out of the hyve / cam the swarm of bees
So hydous was the noyse / a benedicitee
Certes / he lakke Straw / and his meynee
Ne made neuere / shoutes / half so shrille
When þat they wolden / any flemyng kille
As thilke day / was maad vp-on the fox
Of bras / they brougten bemes and of box
Of horn / of boon / in whiche they blew and powped
And ther-with-al / they skried / and they howped
It semed / as that heuene sholde falle
Now goodes men / I pray yow herkeneth alle
Lo / how fortune / turneth sodeynly
L The hope / and pryde / of hir enemy
This Cok / that lay vpon the foxes bak
In al his drede / vn-to the fox he spak
And seyde sire / if that I were as ye Yet wolde I seyn / as wys god helpe me
Turneth agayn / ye proude cherles alle
A verray pestilence / vp-on yow falle
Now am I come / vn-to the wodes eyde Maugree youre heed / the Cox shal heere abyde
I wol hym ete in feith / and that anon
¶ The fox answerde / in feith it shal be don
And as he spak that word / al sodeynly
This Cok / brak from his mouth dolyerly
And heighe vp-on a tree / he fley anon
¶ And when the fox saugh / þat he was gon ¶ Alias quod he / o Chauntecleer / alias
I haue to yow quod he / ydon trespas
In as muche / as I madek yow aferd
When I yow hente / and broughe in-to this yerd
But sire I dide it / of no wikke entente
Com donn / and I shal telle yow what I mente
I shal seye sooth to yow / god help me so ¶ Nay thanne quod he / I shrewe vs bothe two

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 299)

The gees for feere / flown ouer the trees
Out of the hyve / cam the swarm of bees
So hydous was the noyse / a benedicitee
Certes / he lakke Straw / and his meynee
Ne made menere shoutes / half so shrille
When þat they wolden / any flemyng kille
As thilke day / was maad vp-on the fox
Of bras / they brougten bemys / and of box
Of horn / of boon / in whiche they blew and powped
And ther with al / they skryked and they howped
It semed / as þat heuene sholde falle
Now goodes men / I prey yow herkeneth alle
Lo / how fortune / turneth sodeynly
The hope / and pryde eek of hire enemy
This cok / þat lay vp-on the foxes bak
In al his drede / vn-to the fox he spak
And seyde sire / if þat I were as ye Yit sholde I seyn / as wys god helpe me
Turneth ayein ye proude cherles alle
A verray pestilence / vp-on yow falle
Now I am come / vn-to this wodes syde Maugree youre heed / the cok shal here abyde
I wol hym ete in feith / and that anon
¶ The fox answerde / in feith it shal be don
And [us] he spak that word / al sodeynly
This cok / brak from his mouth dolyerly
And hye vp on a tree / he fley anon
¶ And when the fox sey / þat he was gon
¶ Alias quod he / o Chauntecleer / alias
I haue to yow quod he / ydon trespas
In as muche / as I madek yow aferd
When I yow hente / and broughe in-to this yerd
But sire / I dide it in no wikke entente
Com donn / and I shal telle yow what I mente
I shal seye sooth to yow / god help me so ¶ Nay thanne quod he / I shrewe vs bothe two

HENGWERT 243 (6-T. 299)

[Out of the hyues / come the swarme of bees]. (Harrl. 1756, 69 / 129)
The gees / for feer / flown ouer / the trees /
So hidous / was / the nois / a benedicitee.
Certis / he lak / strawe / and his / meynee .
Ne made neuery / schoutis / half so schrille .
When that they wolde anye flemyng kille .
As / that / like daie was / made vp-on the flox .
Of / bras / thei brougth bemes / & of box .
Of horn & boon in whiche thei poupid .
And ther with al / thei schriedid & schoutid .
Iv semyd as / that / heuyn schulde falle .
Now good men I prais yow herkenyth alle .
Lo how fortune turneth sodeynly .
The hope & eke pride of her / enuoy .
This / Cok / that laie vp on the flox bak .
In a<sup>h</sup> his / drede vn-to the flox spak /
And seide sir / if / I were as / ye .
Yet schulde I see as / wis / god helpe me .
Turne a-yein ye proude cherles / alle .
A verray pestilence vp-on you falle .
Now am I come vn-to this / Wode side .
Maugree your / heed the Cok schal / here a-bide .
I wol / hym etc in feyth / & that a-non .
The flox answerid in feith it schal he don .
And he spak / that word al / sodeynly .
This Cok brak / fro his / mouthe dolyerly .
And hye vp on a tre he fleye a non .
¶ And when the flox sawe that / he was / gon .
¶ Alias quod he o chauntecleer / alias /
I haue quod he don to you trespas /
In as / meche as / I made yow a-ferde .
When I yow hent & brougth out / of / the yerde .
But sir / I dide it / nocht in no wicked entent / Cometh downe & I schal / telle yow what I ment .
I schal / seie soth so god helpe me so .
Nai than quod he I schrewe vs / bothe two .

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 299) [this page, Harl. 1756]

Out of þe hyuues come þe swarm of bees þe gees for feero flouen ouer þe trees
 So hidous was þe noyse a benedicite
 Certes he lakke strawe and his maynee
 Ne maden neuere schoutes half so shrille
 When þat þay wolden eny flemmyng' kille
 As þat ilke day was made vpon þe flox
 Of bras þey broughte beemes and of Dox
 Of horn and boon in whiche þey pouped
 And þer-wiþal þey schrieded and þey schouted
 It semed as þat heuen schulde falle
 Now goodes men I pray þou herkenest alle
 Lo how fortune turneþ sodeynly
 The hope and eek' þe pryde of her envye
 This Cok' þat lay vpon þis foxes bak'
 In al his drede vnto þe fox he spak'
 And saide sire if I were as þe
 3it' schuld I say as wis god helpe me
 Turneþ aȝein þe proude cherles alle
 A verrey pestilence vpon þou falle
 Now am I come vnto þis woodes eyde Maugre þour heed þe cok' schal here abyde
 I wol him ete in feip and þat anon
 The fox answerde in feip it schal be don
 And [as] he spak' þat word al sodeynly
 This Cok' brak' fro his mouþ delyuerly
 An heigh vpon a tree he seigh anon
 And when þe fox saugh þat he was goon
 Alas quod he O Chaunteclere alas
 I haue quod he done to þou a trespas
 In als moche as I made þou afferd
 When I þou hente and brought' out' of þe ȝerd
 But' sire I dede it nought in no wicked entent'
 Come down and I schal telle þou what I ment'
 I schal þou seye soþ god helpe me so /
 Nay þanne quod he I schrewe vs boþe tuo /

Out' of the hyuues come þe swarme of loecs
 The gees for fere flouen in þe trees
 So hidous was the noise O benedicite Certes he lak' strawe and his mayne Ne made neuer shouwes half so shrille when þat þei wolde eny flemmyng' kille
 As þat ilk' day was made vpon þe fox
 Of bras þei brougt' beemes and of box
 Of horn and boon in which þei pouped
 And þerwiþal þei schrieded and showted
 It semed as þat heuens shulde falle
 Now good I prey þou herkenest alle
 Lo how fortune turneþ sodeynly
 The hope and eke pride of her envyo
 This cok' þat lay vpon the fox bak'
 In al his drede vnto þe fox spak'
 And saide Sire if I were as þe
 3it' shuld I say as wis god helpe me Turne aȝeine þe proude cherles alle
 A verrey pestilence vpon þou falle
 Nowe am I come vnto þis wodys side Maugre þoure hede þe cok' schal here abide
 I wol hym ete in feip and þat anon
 The fox answerde in feip it schal be don
 And [as] he spak' þat word al sodeynly
 This Cok' brak from his mouþ delyuerly
 And high vpon a tree he segh anon
 And when þe fox segh þat he was goñ
 Alas quod he O chaunteclere alas
 I haue quod he done to þou trespas
 In as moch as I made þou afferd
 When I þou henteþ and brougt' out' of þe ȝorde
 But' sire I did it not in no wicked entent'
 Comeþ done and I shal telle þou what I ment'
 I shal seie soþ god helpe me soo Nay þan quod he I schrewe vs boþ' twee

Oute of þe hyves cam þe swrame of bees
 The gees for fere flouo ouer þe trees
 So hidous was þe noyse a benedicite
 Sortes he Iac strawe & his Meyneþe
 Ne maade neuere schowte half so schiff
 When þat þei wolde any flemmyng' kilt
 As þat ilke daie was made on þe fox
 Of brasse þei brouht' bomes & of box
 Of horn & bone in whiche þei poped þere-wiþal þei schrieded & schowted
 It semed howe þat heuen schold fal Nowe good men .I. preio þowe herkenest al
 Lo how fortune torneþ sodanly
 The hope & eke þe pride of her envyo
 This kok' þat lei vpon þis fox bak
 In al his drede vnto þe fox spak
 And seide sire .If .I. were as þe 3it' schold .I. saie as wis god help me
 Turneþ aȝeine þe proude clerkes aht
 A verrey pestilence vpon þou fait Nowe am .I. come vnto þis wode's side Maugre þoure hede þe koke schal her abide
 .I. wil him ete in feip & þat anone
 The fox anseward in feipe it schal be done
 And [as] he spak þat word al sodanly þis koke brak fro his mouþe delyuerly
 And hihe vpon a tree he siȝe anone
 And þe fox sawe þat he was goone
 Alas quod he o chaunteclere alas
 .I. haue quod he done þowe a trespas
 In als moche as .I. maade þowe asferd
 Whene .I. þow hente & brouht' oute of þe ȝerd Bot sire .I. did it nought in no wikked entente Comeþ done & .I. schal tel þowe whatt .I. mente
 .I. schal seie soþ god helpe me so Naye þan quod he .I. schrewe vs boþe tuo

300 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

And first I shrewe my self / bothe blood and bones
If thou bigyle me / any after than ones
Thou shalt na more / thurgh thy flaterye
Do me to synge / and wynke with myn eye 4620 for he þat wynketh / whan he sholde see Al wilfully / god lat him neuere thee
¶ Nay quod the fox / but god yene hym meschaunce 4624
That is so / vnderiect of gouernaunce
That Iangleth / whan he sholde holde his pees
¶ Lo swich it is / for to be recheles
And negligēt and truste on flaterye
¶ But ye / that holden / this tale a folye 4628
As of a fox / or of a Cok and Hen (leaf 189, back) Taket h the moralite / goode men for seint Paul seith / þat al that writen is
To oure doctrine / it is ywrite ywis 4632
Taket h the fruyt and lat the chaf be stille
Now goode god / if that it be thy wille
As seith my lord / so make vs alle goode men ¶ ¶ collect dem-itius Archiepis-cepis Cantuarie
eпис
And bryng vs / to his heighe blisse Amen

¶ Here is ended / the Nonnes preestes tale ♀

[The prologe of the seconde Nonnes tale follows in the MS.]

300 SIX-TEXT
244 GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

And first I shrewe my self / bothe blood and bones
If thou bigyle me / any after than ones
Thou shalt namore / thurgh thy flaterye
Do me to synge / and wynken with myn eye 4620
for he þat wynketh / whan he sholde see Al wilfully / god lat hym neuere thee
¶ Nay quod the fox / but god yene hym meschaunce 4624
That is / so vnderiect of gouernaunce
That Iangleth / whan he sholde holde his pees
¶ Lo swich it is / for to be recheles
And negligēt and truste on flaterye
But ye / þat holden this tale a folye 4628
As of a fox / or of a cok and hen
Taket h the moralite / goode men
for seint Paul seith / þat al that writen is
To oure doctryne / it is ywrite ywis 4632
Taket h the fruyt and lat the chaf be stille
Now goode god / if þat it be thy wille
As seith my lord / so make vs alle goode men Danius Archiepiscopus Cantuarie
And bryng vs / to his hwe blisse Amen

¶ Here is ended / the Nonnes Preestes tale ♀

[The Manciple's Prologue follows in the MS.]

300 SIX-TEXT
GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

And first / I schrewe my self bothe blood & bones / (Harl. 1758.)
If thou be-gyle me after / than ones .
Thou shalt / no more with thi flaterie .
Do me synge / & vrynke with myn ye . 4620 for he that wynketh when he schulde se .
As / wisly god lete hym neuery / the .
Nay quod the fox god yene hym myschaunce .
That is / so vnderiecte of gouernaunce . 4624
That Iangleth when he schulde haue pees / .
Lo such is / for to be recheles / .
And negligēt / & trusteth on flaterie .
But ye that / holdyn this / folie . 4628
As / of a fox of a Cok / & of an hen .
Taket h the moralite good men .
for seynt Pauls seith all that writen is / .
To our / doctryne it is / writen y-wis / . 4632 Taket h the fruyt & letith the chaf be stille / .
Now good god if it be thi wille . (leaf 190)
As / seith my lorde so make vs / alle good men .
And bryng / vs / alle to his / hwe blis / amen . 4636

Here endith the / tale / of the Nonnes / Preest / 1 (Harl. 1758 correct ends.)

[The Second Nun's Tale follows in the Cambridge MS ; the Manciple's Prologue follows in Harl. 1758, after a space of 28 lines in the middle of page 200.]

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 300
Corpus MS.

And first I schrewe my self bope blood and bones
 If þou begile me oþer þan ones /
 Thou schalt nomore wij þin flaterio Do me to syngde and wynke wij myn ye for he þat wynkeþ when he schulde se
 As wisly god let him neuer þe
 Nay quod þe fox god zine him meschaunce
 That is so vndiscrete of gouernaunce þat iangleþ when he schulde haue pees Lo suche it is for to be rēcheles / and negligēt and trusteþ on flaterio
 But ȝe þat holden þis tale a folye
 As of a fox and of a cok and an hen Takeþ þe moralite goodo men for seint poule seiþ / alle þat writen is To oure doctrine / it is y-written y-wis
 Takeþ þe fruit / and leteþ þe chaf be stille
 Now goodo god if þat it be þin wille /
 As seiþ my lord so make vs alle goodo men
 And bringe vs alle to his heihe blisse amēN .

Here endeþ þe Nonne prestes tale

[The Manciple's Head-Link, II, § 1, follows in the MS.]

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 300
Petworth MS.

And first I schrewe my self boþ blood and bones ȝif þou bigile me oþer þan ones
 Thou shalt no more wij þi flaterie Do me swynk and wink wij myn ye for he þat wynkeþ when he shuld see As wisly god lat hym neuer þe
 Nay quod þe fox god ȝene hym meschaunce
 That is so vndiscrete of gouernaunce
 That iangleþ when he shuld haue pees
 Loo such is furto be rēcheles
 And negligēt and trusteþ on flaterio
 But ȝe þat holden þis foly
 As of a Cok of a fox and of an henne
 Takeþ þe Moralite goodo men for seint poule seiþ al þat writen is To oure doctrine it is writen ywis /
 Takeþ þe fruyte and lat þe chaf be stille Nowe good god if it be þi wille
 As seiþ my lorde so make vs all good men
 And bringe vs al to his hiishe Amen .

Thus endeþ þe preestes tale

[The Manciple's Tale follows in the MS, on leaf 266, back.]

GROUP B. § 14. NUN'S PRIEST'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 300
Lansdowne MS.

And first .I. schrewe my self bope blod & bones
 If þou be-gile me oþer þan ones
 Thou schalt no more wij þi flaterio
 Do me to singe & wynke wij myno eyre
 For he þat winkeþ when he schold see
 As wyaly god let him neuer þe Nay quod þe fox god ȝene him meschaunce þat is so vndiscrete of gouernaunce þat iangleþ when he schold haue pees
 Lo suche it is to bus rēcheles
 And negligēt and trusteþ on flaterio
 Dot ȝe þat halde þis tale a folye
 As of a fox .&. & a kok . & of an hen
 Takeþ þe moralite goodo men
 For seinte Poule seiþ all þat wretou is To oure doctrine it is wreten y-wys Takeþ þe fruyte & leteþ þe chaf be still Now good god if þat it be þine witt
 As seiþ my lorde so make vs al good men
 And bringe vs al to his hihe blisse Amen .

Explicit fabula Capellani .

[The Manciple's Head-Link or Prologue (Group H, § 1), follows in the MS.]

[Addit. MS 5140, Brit. Mus., leaf 282, back (paper).]

[Camb. Univ. MS Dd. 4. 24, on leaf 195.]

[Incipit prologus fabule secunde monialis

[MS Reg. 17 D xv., leaf 284 (paper, 11460).]

[Sire Nonnes Preest / oure hoost seide a noon
I-blissed be thy breche / & euery ston
This was a mery tale / of Chauntecleer
But by my trouthe / if þou were seculer 4640 Thow woldest ben a trefoull / a right ffor if þou haue corage / as þou hast myght
The were nede of hannes / as I wene
3a / moe than seuen tymes / seuentene 4644
Se which brawnes / hath this gentil Preest [leaf 195, back]
So gret a necke / & swich a large breest
He loketh as a sparhawk / with hise eyen
Him nedeth nat / his colour for to dyghen 4648
With brasile / ne with greyn of Portyngale
Now sire / faire falle þow / for þoure tale
And after that / he with ful merie chere 4651 Seide vnto a nother / as 3a shula here] [Camb. Dd. 4. 24 extract slope]

[Group G (Second Nun and Canon's Yeoman) imperfect, follows in the MS.]

S Ir Nvnys preest / our' host seide anon
I-blissid be thi breche / and every ston
This was a mery tale / of Chauntecleer'
But bi my trouth / yif thou were seculer' 4640 Thou woldest ben / a trefoull a riht ffor yif thou comage / as thou hast myht
The were neede / of hennys as I wene
ya . mo than vij tymes / seventene 4644
See sucho brawne / hath this gentil preest
So grette a neck / and such a large breest
He lookith as a sparhawk / with his eyen
Hym nedeth nat / his colour for to dyen 4648
With brasil ne with greyn / oʒ portyngal
Now sire fair falle you / for your' tale
And aftir that / he with ful mery cheer' 4651
Seid vnto the Nunne / as yo may heer' [Addit. MS extract slope]

[Group H (the Manciple) follows in the MS.]

[S ir Nonnes priest . our host sayde anon
I-blissid be thy breche . and euery stoon
This was a mery tale of Chaunteclier
But be my trouth if thou were a seculer 4640
Thow woldest bien . a trefoull aright
For if thou haue corage . as thou hast myght
The were neede . of hennys as I wene
Ya mo than . vij . tymes . seventene 4644
Se whiche brawnes . hath this gentil priest
So grette a necke . and so large a brest
He lokith as a sparhawk . with his ten Hym nedeth nat . his colours for to dyen 4648
With brasil ne with grayne of portyngale
Now sir faire fal you . for your mery tale
And after that he . with ful myrry chiere Sayde vnto another as ye chul here
[MS Reg. 17 D xv extract slope]

[“the prolog” of the Manciple” follows in MS Reg. 17 D xv.]

[I cannot find or hear of any other copies of this End-Link. If any others turn-up, they will be issued on a separate leaf, to face this.]

A SIX-TEXT PRINT OF
Chaucer's Canterbury Tales

IN PARALLEL COLUMNS

FROM THE FOLLOWING MSS:

- |  |                                     |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1 The Ellesmere.                       | 4 The Corpus Christi Coll., Oxford. |
| 2 The Broughton 154.                   | 5 The Hethworth.                    |
| 3 The Cambridge Univ. Libr. Eg. 4. 27. | 6 The Lansdowne 851.                |

---

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

THE DOCTOR'S TALE.      THE PARDONER'S TALE.

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

§ 1. THE DOCTOR'S TALE

ELLESMERE MS.

¶ Heere folweth / the Phisiciens tale

[see leaf 137]

Ther was / as telleth Titus Linius
 A knyght that was called Virginius
 fulfild / of honour / and of worthynesse
 And strong of freendes / and of greet richesse 4
 ¶ This knyght a doghter hadde by his wyf /
 No children hadde he mo in al his lyf
 ffair was this mayde / in excellent beautee Abouen every wight that man may see ffior Nature / hath with souereyn diligence
 Yformed hire / in so greet excellenc
 As though she wolde seyn / lo I Nature
 Thus kan I forme / and peynte a creature 12
 When that me list who kan me countrefete
 Pignalon nocht / though he ay forge and bete
 Or graue / or peynte / for I dar wel seyn
 Apelles Zanzis / sholde worche in veyn
 Outher to graue / or peynte / or forge / or beto
 If they presumed / me to countrefete
 ffior he that is / the formere principal
 Hath maked me / his vicarie general 20
 To forme and peynten ethely creatureis
 Right as me list and ech thyng in my cure is Vnder the Moone / þat may wane and waxe
 And for my werk right no thyng wol I axe 24

ELLESMERE (6-T. 303)

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

§ 1. THE DOCTOR'S TALE

HENGWRT MS.

¶ Here bigynneth / the Phisiciens tale

[see 137, back]

THer was / as telleth Titus Linius
 A knyght that called was Virginius
 fulfild of honour / and of worthynesse
 And strong of freendes / and of greet richesse 4
 ¶ This knyght a doghter hadde by his wyf
 Ne children hadde he mo / in al his lif ffair was this mayde / in excellent beautee Abouen every wight þat man may see
 ffior Nature hath / with souereyn diligence
 Yformed hire / in so greet excellenc
 As thogh she wolde seyn / lo I nature
 Thus kan I forme / and peynte a creature 12
 When þat me list who kan me countrefete
 Pignalon nocht thogh he ay forge and bete
 Or graue / or peynte / for I dar wel seyn
 Apelles Zanzis / sholde worche in veyn
 Outher to graue / or peynte / or forge / or beto
 If they presumed / me to countrefete
 ffior he that is / the formere principal
 Hath maked me / his vicarie general 20
 To forme and peynten ethely creatureis
 Right as me list and ech thyng in my cure is Vnder the Moone / that may wane and waxe
 And for my werk right no thyng wol I axe 24

HENGWRT (6-T. 303)

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

§ 1. THE DOCTOR'S TALE

CAMBRIDGE MS.

[and begynneth þe tale

[Sloane MS 1495, on leaf 170]

There was as tollidit mo Titus Iyueus .
 A knyght / þat clepid was Virgineus Fulfylid of honoures and of worpynesse
 And stronge of frondes and of grete rychesse 4
 A doghtyr / he hade by hys wyf
 And neuere hade he mo in alle hys lyf ffayre was þis mayde in excellent beute A-bouen every wyght þat man may see ffior nature hape with souereyn diligence ffourmyd hir / in so grete excellenc
 As þouge she wolde say loo I nature
 Thus kan I forme and peynt / a creature 12
 When þat / me lyst / who can me counterfet /
 Pignalyon nougt þouge he alwey forge and bete
 Or graue or peynte for y dare welo sayne
 Apollus zepherus shulde worche in vayne 16
 To graue or peynte or forge or beto 3if / þei presumyd me forto conterfete ffior he þat ys þe formour principal Hath maked me his Viker / general 20
 To forme and peynte eche ethly creature
 Ryght as me lyst for alle thyngs ys in my cure Vnder / þe mone þat may wane or waxe
 And for my werke no þenge wille I axe 24

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 303) [this page, Sloane 1495]

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

§ 1. THE DOCTOR'S TALE

CORPUS MS.

¶ The doctour of phisik<sup>1</sup>

[on leaf 106, back.]

Ther was as telleþ vs Titus lyncus
 A knyght þat cleped was virgineus
 Fulfilled of honoures and worþinesse
 And strong<sup>2</sup> of frendes and of grete richesse 4
 A daughter he hadde by his wyf
 And neuere hadde he mo in alle his lif fair was þis mayde in excellent<sup>3</sup> beaute Abouen esury wight þat man may see for nature haþ with souereyn diligence formed hire in so grete excellence
 As þough sche wolde say lo I nature
 Thus can I forme and peinte a creature 12
 When þat me list<sup>4</sup> who can me countrefete
 Pigmalyon nouht þough he alwey forge and bete
 Or graue or peinte for I dar wel sayn
 Apollus zepherus schulde worche in veyn
 To graue or peinte or forge or bete 3if þei prestmede me for to countrefete for he þat is þe formour principal haþ maad me his vikere general 20
 To forme and peinte ech erþely creature
 Riht as me list<sup>5</sup> for al þinge is in my cure
 vnder þe moone þat may wane and waxe
 And for my werke no þinge wil I axe 24

CORPUS (6-T. 308)

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

§ 1. THE DOCTOR'S TALE

PETWORTH MS.

¶ And here bygygneþ þe tale.

Ther was as telleþ vs tytus lyncus
 A knyght þat cleped was virgineus
 Fulfilled of honoures and worþinesse
 And stronge of frendes and of richesse 4
 A daughter he hadde by his wyf
 And neuere had hee moo in al his lif faire was þis maide in excellent<sup>3</sup> bewte Abouen esury wight þat man may see for nature haþ wip souereyn [diligenc<sup>4</sup>] formed hir in to grete excellence
 As þouge she wold say loo I nature.
 Thus can I forme and peinte a creature 12
 When þat me list<sup>5</sup> who can me countrefete
 Pigmalyon nouht þouge he alway forge and bete
 Or graue or peinte for I dar wel sayn
 Apollus Zepherus schulde worche in veyn
 To graue . peynte . or forge or bete
 If þei presumed me to countrefete for he þat is þe fourmer principal Haþe maade me his vikere general 20
 To forme and peinte ech erþely creature
 Riht as me list<sup>6</sup> for al þinge is in my cure .
 vnder þe moone þat may wane and waxe
 And for my werke . no þinge wil I axe 24

PETWORTH (6-T. 305)

GROUP C. FRAGMENT IV.

§ 1. THE DOCTOR'S TALE.

LANSDOWNE MS.

¶ Incipit fabu[li]a.

[on leaf 105, back.]

¶ The tale .j

[on leaf 211]

[leaf 211, back.]

Ther was as telleþ vs titus lyncus
 A knyht þat cleped was virgineus Fulfilled of honoure & worþinesse
 And stronge of frendes and of richesse 4
 A daughter he hadd be his wyf
 And neuer hadde he mo in al his lif
 Faire was þis maide in excellent<sup>3</sup> beanteie Abouen esury whight þat man see 8
 For Nature haþe wip souereigne diligence Formed hir in so grete excellence
 As þouge sche wolde seie loo .I. Nature
 Thus can .I. forme and peinte a creature 12
 When þat me leste who can me countrefete
 Pigmalyon nouht þouge he alweie forge or bete
 Or graue or peinte for .I. dar wel seie Apollus zepherus schold werche in veine 16
 To graue or peinte or forge or bete
 If þei presumed me for to countrefete
 For he þat is þe formour principal
 Haþe maade me his visor general 20
 To forme and peinte ech erþely creature
 Riht as me lest for al þinge is in my cure vnder þe moone þat maie wane and wax
 And for my werke no þinge wil .I. ax 24

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 308)

304 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

My lord and I / been ful of oon acord
I made hire / to the worshippe of my lord
So do I / alle myne othere creatures
What colour that they han / or what figures 28
Thes semeth me / that Nature wolde seye [leaf 17r, back] ¶ This mayde of Ago .xij. year was and tweye
In which þat Nature / hadde swich delit for right as she kan paynte a lillie whit
And reed a Rose / right with swich peynture 32
She peynted hath this noble creature
Er she were born / vp-on hir lymes fro
Where as by right / swicho colours sholde be 36
And Phobus dyed hath / hire tresses grete Lyk to the stromes / of his burned heete
And if þat excellent<sup>v</sup> was hire beautee
A thousand folk<sup>z</sup> / moore vertuous was she 40
In hire / no lacked no condicion
That is to preysse / as by discrecion
As wel in goost<sup>s</sup> as body / chast was she for which / she flourid in virginitee 44
With alle humylitee / and abstinence
With alle attemperance and pacience
With mesure eek / of beryng<sup>v</sup> and array 48
Discreet she was / in answering alway
Though she were wise Pallas dar I seyn
Hir fauourid eek / ful womanly a playn
No countrefeted termes / hadde she
To seme wys / but after hir degre 52
She spak<sup>f</sup> and alle hire wordes moore and losse
Sownynge in vertu / and in gentillesse
Shamefast she was / [in] maydens shamefastnesse
Constant in herte / and euere in biyennesse 56
To dryue hire / out of ydel alowardy Daens hadde of hire mouth / right no maistris for wyne and youthe / dooth Venus oncesse
As man in fyr / wol wasten oille or greese 60

ELLESMEERE (8-T. 304)

304 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

My lord and I / been ful of oon acord
I made hire / to the worshippe of my lord
So do I / alle myne othere creatures
What colour þat they han / or what figures 28
Thus semeth me / that nature wolde se-ye
This mayde of age / .xij. year was and tweye
In which þat nature / hadde swich delit for / right<sup>s</sup> as she kan paynte a lilye whit
And reed a Rose / right with swich peynture 32
She peynted hath / this noble creature
Er she were born / vp-on hir lymes fro
Whe<sup>r</sup> as by right swiche colours sholden be 36
And Phobus / dyed hath hir tresses grete [leaf 17r]
Lyk to the stremys / of his burned hete
And if þat excellent<sup>v</sup> was hir beautee
A thousand fold / moore vertuous was she 40
In hire / no lacked no condicion
That is to preysse / as by discrecion
As wel in goost<sup>s</sup> as body / chaa<sup>s</sup>t was she
for which / she flourid in virginitee 44
With all humilitee / and abstinence
With all attemperance / and pacience
With mesure eek / of beryng<sup>v</sup> and array
Discreet she was / in answering alway 48
Though she were wise Pallas / dar I seyn
Hir fauourid eek / ful womanly and playn
No countrefeted termes / hadde she
To seme wys / but after hir degre 52
She spak<sup>f</sup> and alle hir wordes / moore and lesse
Sownynge in vertu / and in gentillesse
Shamefast she was / in maydens shamefastnesse
Constant in herte / and euere in biyennesse 56
To dryue hire out of ydel alowardy Daens hadde of hir mouth / right no maistris
for wyne and youthe / dooth Venus oncesse
As men in fyr / wil casten oille / or greese 60

HENGWRT (8-T. 304)

304 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

My lord/ and I ben fully at accorde [Sloane MS 1636]
I made hire/ to þe worshippe of my lord
So do I alle myne oþere creatures
Of what colour þei be or what figures 28
þus smethe me þat nature wolde say
This mayde was of/ age twelue goore & twey
In which þat nature hath sucho delyte
For righ/ as she kan paynte as lily white 32
And rudy as roose rjt with sucho peynture
She paynteth hath þis noble creature
Or she was borne vpon hir/ lymes fro
Were also bryst/ as sucho colouris shuld be 36
And Phobus dyed hade hir/ tressys grete [leaf 17r] Lyko to þe stromes of his burnyd heete
And gif þat excellent was hir/ beaute
A þousand sitho more Vertuous was she 40
In her/ no lacked no condicion
That/ ys to pryse as by discrecion As wele in body as goste Chast was she for which she flourid in Virgynite 44
With alle humilitee and abstynence
With alle temperance & pacience
With mesure eke and beryng of array
Discrete she was in answering alway 48
Though she were wys as Pallas dar I sayne hir/ fauourid eke ful womanly & pleyne None countrefeted termes hade she
To seme wys but / aftyr/ hir/ degre 52
Sche spake alle hir/ wordes more and losse Sounynge in vertu and in gentillesse
Constant in bert / and euere in beaynesse 56
Schamefaste she was in maydens shamefastnesse
To dryue hir/ oute of hir/ alowardy Daens hade of/ hir/ mouthe no Maistrye for wyll and poujt done Venus oncesse
As men in fyre wille casten oyle or grece 60

CAMBRIDGE (8-T. 304) [this page, Sloane 1636]

My lord and I ben fully at acord
I made hire to þe worschip of my lord
So do I alle myn oþre creatures
Of what colour þei be or what figures
Thus semþ me þat nature wolde say
This mayde was of age .xij. ȝer and tway
In which þat nature haþ such delyt for riht as sche can paynte as lily whit
And rolyt as rose riht, wiþ such peynture Sche peynted haþ þis noble creature /
Er sche was born vpon hire lymes fre Were also bright as such colouris scholde be /
And Phebus dyed haþ his tresses grete like to þe stremes of his boornyd hete
And if þat excellent was hire beaute
A þousend fold more vertuouus was sche
In hire ne lakkeþ no condicioñ
þat is to praiser as by discrecion
As wel in body as gost chaste was sche for which sche flourid in virginite Wiþ alle humilite and abstinence
Wiþ alle attemperance and pacience
Wiþ mesure eik and beryng of array Discret sche was in answering alway jough sche were wy as Pallas dar I seyn hire faucond eik ful womanly and pleyñ None counterfetted termes hadde sche
To seme wys but after hire degre Sche spak and alle hire wordes more and lesse Sownyng in vertue and in gentillesse
Shamefast sche was in maydens shamefastnesse
Constant in hert and euer in bysynesse
To dryue hire oute of hire slogardiye Bachus hadde of hir mouþ no mayetrie for will and þought deon venus encrece
As men in fyr wol casten oyle or grece /

My lord and I bene fully att acorde
I made hir to þe worship of my lord
So doo I alle myne oþer creatures
Of what colouris þei be or what figures
Thus semþ me þat nature wolde say
This maid was of age .xij. ȝere and tway In whiche þat nature haþ such delite for riht as she can peynt as lily white
And rooly as rose riht wiþ such peynture
She peynted haþ þis noble creature
Er she was born vpon her lymes fre Were also bright as such colouris myght be .
And phebus died had her tresses grete
Like to þe stremes of his boornyd hete
And gif þat excellent was her bewte
A thousand fulde more vertuouus was she In hur ne lakkeþ no condicioñ
þat is to praiser as by discrecion .
As wel in body as goost chaste was she for which she flourid in virginite
Wiþ al humilite and abstinence
Wiþ alle attemperance and pacience
Wiþ mesure eke in beringe of arraye .
Discrete she was in answering alway
And she was wis as pallas dar I seyn
Hir facon eke ful womanly and pleyñ
Noon counterfetted termes had shee ¶ To seme wise but after her degre .
She spak and alle her wordes more and lesse Sownyng in vertue and in gentelnesse
Shamefast she was in maidens shamefastnesse
Constant in hert and euer in bysynesse
Td drive hur out of her sloggardrie Bachus had of her mouþ no maistrie for will and þought done Venus encrece
As men in fire wil casten oyle or grece

My lord and I bene fully att acorde
.I. made hire to þe worschip of my lord
So do .I. al myn oþer creatures
Of [what] colour þei be or what figures
Thus semþ me þat Nature would see
This maid was of age tweho ȝere and tweye
In whiche þat Nature haþe suche delite
For riht as sche kan painte as lyle white
An[d] Rode as rose riht wiþ suche peinture Sche painted haþe þis noble creature
Ar sche was borne vpon hire limmes fre Were als bright as suche colouris scholde be
And phebus hadd dyed his tresses grete
Lyke to þe stremes of his boornyd hete
And if þat excellent was hire beute
A þousand fulde mor vertuouus was sche
In hire ne lakkeþ no condicione þat is to praiser as be discrecion
As wele in body . as goste chaste was schee
For whiche sche flourid in virginite
Wiþ al humilite and abstinence
And wiþ al attemperance and pacience
Wiþ mesure eke and beringe of arate Discrete sche was in answering alweie þouche sche were wise as pallas dar .I. seino Hire faukonde eke ful womanly and pleyne
None conterfotet termes hadde sche
To seme wise bot after hire degre
Sche spakk and al hir wordes more and lesse Souneing in vertue and in gentillesse
Shamefast sche was in maidens schamfastnesse Constant in hert and euer in his bynesse
To dryue hire oute of hire slogardie Bachus hadde of hire mouþe no maistre
For wil and þought to done venus encrece
As men in fire wil kasten oyle or grece

305 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

And of hir owene vertu / vnconstreyned
 She hath ful ofte tyme syk hire foyned for that she wolde fleen the compaignye
 Where likly was / to treten of folye
 As is at festes / reuels / and at daunces
 That been / occasions of daliauoues Swich thyng / maken children for to be
 To some tyme and boold / as men may se
 Which is ful perillous / and hath been youre for al to some / may they lerne loore
 Of boldnesse / whan she woxen is a wyf
 ¶ And ye maistresses / in youre olde lyf
 That lordes doghtres / han in gouernaunce
 Ne taketh of my wordes no displeaunce
 Thinketh / that ye been set in gouernynge
 Of lordes doghtres / oonly for two thynges
 Outher / for ye han kept youre honeste
 Or elles / for ye han falle in feleete
 And knowen wel ynough the olde daunce
 And han forsaken / fully swich mechaunce
 for euere mo / therefore for Cristes sake
 To teche hem vertu / looke þat ye ne slake
 ¶ A theef of venyson / that hath forlaft
 His likerounesse / and al his olde craft
 Kan kepe a forest best of any man
 Now kepeth wel / for if ye wolde ye kan
 Looke wel / þat ye / vn-to no vice assente
 Lest ye be dampned / for youre wikke entente
 for who so dooth / a traytour is certeyn
 And taketh kepe / of that þat I shal seyn
 Of alle tresons / souerayn pestilence
 Is / whan a wight bitrayseth Innocence ¶ Ye fadres and ye moodres / eek also Though ye han children / be it oon or two Yourre is the charge / of al hir suruaunce
 Whil þat they been / vnder yourre gouernaunce

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 305)

305 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

And of hir owene vertu / vnconstreyned
 She hath ful ofte tyme / syk hir foyned for þat she wolde / fleen the compaignye
 64 Where likly was / to treten of folye
 As is at festes / reuels / and at daunces
 That been occasions / of daliauoues Swich thyng maken childron for to be 68 To some tyme / and boold / as men may se
 Which is ful perillous / and hath be youre
 for al to some / may they lerne loore
 Of boldnesse / whan she woxe is a wyf
 72 ¶ And ye Maistresses / in youre olde lyf
 That lordes doghtres / han in gouernaunce
 Ne taketh of my wordes / no displeaunce
 Thinketh / þat ye been set in gouernynge
 76 Of lordes doghtres / oonly for two thynges
 ¶ Outher / for ye han kept youre honeste
 (text 120) Or elles / for ye han falle in feleete
 And knowen wel ynouw / the olde daunce
 And han forsaken fully / swich mechaunce
 for euere mo / therefore / for Cristes sake
 To teche hem vertu / looke þat ye ne slake
 ¶ A theef of venyson / that hath forlaft
 84 His likerounesse / and al his olde craft
 Kan kepe a forest best of any man
 Now kepeth wel / for if ye wole ye kan
 Looke wel þat ye / vn-to no vice assente
 88 Lest ye be dampned / for youre wikke entente
 for who so dooth / a traytour is certeyn
 And taketh kepe / of that þat I shal seyn
 Nofa Of alle treson / souerayn pestilence
 92 Is / whan a wight bitrayseth Innocence ¶ Ye fadres / and ye modres eek also Though ye han children / be it oon or tuo
 Yourre is the charge / of al hir suruaunce
 96 Whil þat they been / vnder yourre gouernaunce

HENGWRT (6-T. 305)

305 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

And of hir / owen vertu vnconstreyned (Sloane MS 1685)
 She hathe fulls ofte tyme hir / seekes foyned for þat she wolde fle þe companye 64 Where likly was to treten of foly
 As ys at festes Reuels and at daunces þat / bene occasions of dalyuances Sucho thyng maken · Children for to be 68 To some tyme and holds as men may see Whyche ys fulls peryllous and hath bene yore for alle to some may she lerne lore
 Of boldnesse whan she ys a wyf 72 And 3e maystresses in yourre olde lyf þat / lordes dousters han in gouernaunce
 Ne taketh of / my worde no displeaunce
 Thynges þat ben sette in gouernynge 76 Of lordes dousters only for two thynges (text 120, back) ¶ Oufur for 3e han kepte yourre honeste Orere elles 3e han fallen in felete
 And knowen wele ynou3e þe olde daunce 80 And conne for-sake fully mychaunce for euere mo / therefore for cristes sake kepith wele þo · þat 3e Vndirtake
 A theefe of veneson þat hath for-laft 84 his lycournesse and alle his þefes craft
 kan kepe a forest best / of any man Nowe kepeth han wel for and 3e wele kan lokeþe wele þat to no vice 3e assent 88 Leest / 3e be dampned for yourre euel entent for who so dothe a traytour ys certayn
 And taketh of þat þat I shal sayn
 ¶ Of alle tresoun suffreyn pestilence
 92 Ys whan a wyf be-trayth Innocence 3e fadres and 3e modres eke also Though 3e haue Childre by it oone or two þoure ys þe charge of alle her / sufferaunce 96 Whiles þei bene vnder / gouernaunce
 CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 306) [this page, Sloane 1685]

And of hire owne vertue constrained Sche hap ful ofte tyme hire seek feyned for þat sche wolde fleo þe companye /
Wher likly was to treten of folye
As is at festes. Reuales. and at Daunces
That ben occasioun of dalaynaunces Suche jingis maken children for to be
To some ripe and bolde as men may see
Which is ful perilous and hap ben ȝore for al to some may sche lerne lore /
Of boldnesse whan sche is a wif
And ȝe maystresses in ȝoure olde lyf þat lordes doughtres han in governaunce Ne takeþ of my word no displeasaunce jingis þat ben sette in governynges
Of lordes doughtres only for tuo jingis
Oyper for ȝe han kept ȝour honeste /
Oyper ȝe han falle in frelete
And known wel ynough þe olde daunce
And konne forsake fully meschaunce for euermo þer-fore for cristes sake / kepeþ wel þo þat ȝe vndertake
A þeeþ of venyson þat haf forlaft his likerounesse and alle his peues craft
Kan kepe a forest best of any man
Now kepeþ hem wel for and ȝe wil ȝe can lokeþ wel to no vice þat ȝe assente lest ȝe be dampned for ȝoure yuel entente for who so doþ a traitour is certayn
And takeþ heed of þat þat I schal seyn
Of alle tresoun suffreyn pestilence
Is whan a wifþe betrayeþ Innocence ȝe faders and ȝe modres eke also þough ȝe haue children be it on er mo ȝoure is þe charge of alle here sufferance Whil þey ben vnder ȝoure governaunce

And of her owne vertue unconstrained.
She haþe ful oft tyme hur seke feyned.
for þat she wolde fleo þe companye
where likly was to treten of folye
As is at festys. Reuels. and daunces Whiche bene occasioun of dalaynaunces Suche jingges maken children forto be.
To some ripe and bolde as men may see
Which is ful perilous and hap bene ȝore for al to some may she lerne lore.
Of boldnesse whan she is a wif
And ȝe Maistresses in ȝoure olde liffe þat lordes dougters han in governaunce
Ne takeþ of my wordes no displeasaunce Thingges þat bene sette in governynges
Of lordys dougters only for tuo jingges
Oyper for ȝe han kepte ȝoure honeste
Oyper elles ȝe han falle in frelete
And knowe wel ynough þe olde daunce
And konne forsake fully [such] meschaunce. for euermo þerfor for cristes sake kepeþ wel þoo þat ȝe vndertake
A theef for venyson þat hath forlaft
His likerounesse and al his peues craft
Can kepe a forest best of any man.
Now kepeþ hem wel for and ȝe wil ȝe can.
lokeþ wel to no vice þat ȝe assente.
Lest ȝe be dampned for ȝoure euel entente.
for who so doþ a traitour is certayn.
And takeþ [kepe] of þat þat I schal seyn.
Of al tresoun suffreyn pestilence.
Is whan a wifþe betrayeþ Innocence.
ȝe faders and ȝe moders eke also.
þough ȝe han childere be it on er two.
ȝoure is þe charge of al her suffraunce.
Whiles þei bene vnder governaunce

And of hir owne vertue unconstrained
Sche haþe ful oft tyme hire seke feyned
For þat sche wolde fley þe companye
Where likly was to treten of folye
As es at festes reules and at daunces þat bene occasioun of dalaynaunces Suche jingis maken children for to bee
To some Ripe and bolde as men maie see Which is ful perilous and haþe be ȝore
For al to some maie sche leren lore
Of boldnesse whan sche is a wyf
And ȝe maistresses in ȝoure olde life þat lordes dougters haue in governaunce
Ne takeþ of mi worde no displeasaunce Thingges þat bien set in governynges
Of lordes dougters only for tuo jingis
Eyper for ȝe han kepted ȝoure honeste
Or elles ȝe haue fall in frelete
And knowe wels ynough þe olde daunce
And konne forsake fully meschaunce
For euer mo þerfore for crist saak
Kepeþ wel þo þat ȝe vndertake
A þef of venison þat haf forlaft
His likerounesse and al his peves craft
Kan kepe a forest best [of] any man
Now kepeþ hem wels for ȝe wels can Lokþ wels to no vice þat ȝe assent
Lest [ȝe] be dampned for ȝoure yuel entent
For who so doþe a traitour is certaine
And takeþ of þat þat I. schal seine
Of al tresoun suffrauns pestelence Is whan a whight be-trayeþ Innocence
ȝe faders and ȝe moders eke also
þough ȝe haue children be it on er mo
ȝoure is þe charge of al her suffraunce
Whiles þei bene vnder governaunce

64

68

72

76

80

Def 112

88 92

96

64

68

72

76

80

Def 115, 104-6

84

88 92

96

Def 170, 104-6

64

68

72

76

80

84

88 92

96

Beth war / if by ensample / of youre luyunge
 Or by youre negligence / in chastiayinge
 That they perisse / for I dar wol seye
 If þat they doon / ye shul it deere abeye
 Vnder a shepherde / softe and negligēt
 The wolf / hath many a sheepe and lamb to-rent
 [ . . . . .
 . . . . . no gap in the MS.]

This mayde / of which I wol this tale expresse

So kepte hir self hir neded no maistresse
 for in hir luyyng' maydens myghten rede
 As in a book' euery good word or dede
 That longesth to a mayden vertuous
 She was so prudent' and so bounteous
 for which / the fame / out sprong on euery syde
 Bothe of hir beautee and hir bountee wyde
 That thurgh that land / they praised hire echone
 That loued vertu / sans Enuye allone
 That sory is / of oother mennes wale ¶ Augustinus
 And glad is / of his sorwe / and his vnhele
 The doctour / maketh this descripcioun
 This mayde vp-on a day / wente in the toun
 Toward a temple / with hire mooder deere
 As is / of yonge maydens the manere
 ¶ Now was ther thanne / a Iustice in that toun
 That gouernour was / of that Regioun
 And so bifel / this Iuge / hise eyen caste
 Vp-on this mayde / auyeyng' hym ful faste
 As she cam forby / ther as this Iuge stood Anon / his herte chaunged and his mood
 So was he caught' with beautee of this mayde [not 124, 124-2]
 And to hym self / ful pryudly he sayde
 This mayde / shal be myn / for any man
 ¶ Anon the feend / in-to his herte ran
 And taughte hym sodeynly / þat he by slyghte
 The mayden / to his purpos wyne myghte

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 806)

Beth war / if by ensample of youre luyunge
 Or by youre negligence / in chastiayinge
 That they perisse / for I dar wol seye
 If þat they doon / ye shul it deere abeye
 Vnder a Shepherde / softe and negligēt
 The wolfe hath many a sheepe / and lomb to-rent Suffieth on ensample / now as here for I moōt' turne agaya to my matere

¶ This mayde of which / I wol this tale expresse

So kepte hir self hir neded no maistresse
 for in hir luyyng' maydens myghten rede
 As in a book' euery good word / or dede
 That longesth / to a mayden vertuous
 She was so prudent' and so bounteous
 for which the fame out sprong on euery syde
 Bothe of hir-beautee / and hir bountee / wyde
 That-thurgh that land / they praised hire echone
 That loued vertu / sans enuye allone
 That sory is / of oother monnes wale ¶ Augustinus .
 And glad is / of his sorwe / and his vnhele
 The doctour / maketh this descripcioun [not 122]
 This mayde / vp-on a day / wente in the toun
 Toward a temple / with hir moder deere
 As is / of yonge maydens the manere
 ¶ Now was ther thanne / a Iustice in that toun
 That gouernour was / of that Regioun
 And so bifel / this Iuge hise eyen caste
 Vp-on this mayde / auyeyng' hym ful faste
 As she cam forby / ther as this Iuge stood
 Anoon his herte chaunged / and his mood
 So was he caught' with beautee of this mayde
 And to hym self / ful pryudly he sayde
 This mayde shal be myn / for any man
 Anon the feend / in-to his herte ran
 And taughte hym sodeynly / þat the by slyghte
 This mayden / to his purpos wyne myghte

HENGWRT (6-T. 806)

Be ware þat be ensample of youre luyunge (Slone 168 1042)
 Outher by negligence of Chastiayinge
 That þei ne perysch for I daro wale say 3if þat/ þei done 3e shulle fulle sore obeye 100
 Vnder a sheperēt softe and negligēte
 The wolfe hath many an sheepe & lambe to-reute Suffieth on : ensample nowe as here for I mote turne a-eyen to my matere 104

Thys mayde of which I telle my tale expresse

Sche kepte hir selfe hir/ nedeth no maystresse for in hir luyyng' maydens myst' rede
 As in a booke euery gode worde & dede 108
 That longeste to a mayde vertuous Sche was so prudent and so bounteous for which oute sprong on euery syde Bothe of hir/ beaute end of hir/ bounte wyde [not 124] 112 þat/ þoroug þe fonde þei prysed hir eccheone That/ louyft vertu safe Ennie allone þat/ sorwe ys of oþere mennes wale
 And glad ys of hys sorowe and vnhele 116
 The docture maketh þis descripcioun
 Thys mayde wente on a day into þe toun Toward þe temple with hir/ moder/ dere
 As ys of yonge maydens þe manere 120 // Now was þere a Iustice in þe toun þat/ gouernour was of þat regioun
 And so by-falle-thys Iuge hys eyzen caste Vpon þis mayde auyeyng' hir/ fulle faste 124
 As she come forth by þere þe Iuge stode
 A-none his hert' chaunged' and hys mode
 So was he caught' with beaute of þis mayde
 And to hym / self/ fulle pryudly he saide 128
 Thys mayde shalle be myne for any man
 A-moon þe feende-in-to hys hert/ ranne
 And taughte hym sodeynly by/ what sleight/
 This mayde / to his purpos wyne he myst/132

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 806) [this page, Slone 168c]

Beþ war þatʒ by ensample of þoure luyunge Oþer by negligence in chastyunge þatʒ þei ne perisheþ I dar wel seye
 If þatʒ þei don ʒe schulle ful sore aþeye 100 vnder a shepperde softe and negligēt þe wolf haþ many a sheep and lamb tereñt Sufieth on ensample now as hereo flor I moovʒ torme eȝen to my mastere / 104 This mayde of which I telle my tale expresse / Sche keppe hir self hir needeð no maistresse for in hire luyngʒ maydens mighte rede / 108 As in a booke euery good word and dede þatʒ longeþ to a mayde vertuous Sche was so prudentʒ and so bountuous for which out sprongʒ þe fame on euery syde 112 Boþe of hire beaute and of hire bouñte wyde þatʒ þurgh þe lond þei preised hire echeñe Thatʒ louede vertu saue envye alone
 þatʒ sory is of oþer mennes wele
 116 And glad is of his sorwe and vñhele
 The doctour makeþ þis descripciōn þis mayde wente on a day in-to þe toun Toward þe temple wiþ hir mooder dere
 120 As is of ȝonge maydens þe manere
 Now was þer a Iustice in þe tounne
 [Def 116, beak] þatʒ gouernour was of þatʒ regiōn
 And so bifelle þis Iuge his zhen easte 124 vpon þis mayde hire ful faste
 As sche cam forthby þer þe Iuge stood Anon his herte chaungeþ and his mood
 So was he caughtʒ wiþ beaute of þis mayde
 128 And to him self ful priuely he seide
 This mayde schal be mynʒ for any man Anon þe feende in-to his herte ran
 And taughtʒ him soðerly by whatʒ sleighte 132 þe mayde to his purpos wyñne he mighte
 CORPUS (6-T. 306)

Be ware þatʒ by ensample of þourʒ luyunge Eþer by negligence in chaastisinge þatʒ þei ne perishe for I dar wel seye 100 ȝif þatʒ þe done ʒe schul ful sore aþeye vnder a sheperde .softe and negligēt þe wolf haþ mony a shepe and lomb to-reñt Sufieth on ensample nowe as here
 104 flor I motʒ turne aȝein to my mastere ¶ This maide of which I telle my tale expresse .
 She kepþ her self her needeð no maistresse .
 for in her luyngʒ maidens myȝtʒ rede
 108 As in a booke euery good word and dede þatʒ longeþ to a maide vertuous
 She was so prudentʒ and so bountuous .
 for which [þe fame] out spronge on euery side .
 112 Both of her beute and of her bouñte wide .
 þatʒ þerowe þe londe þei preised hire echeñe .
 þatʒ loued vertue sauf envye alone .
 þatʒ sory is of oþer mennes wele
 116 ¶ And glad is of his sorow and vñhele
 The doctoure makeþ þis descripcioun
 This maide wentʒ on a day into þe toun
 120 Toward þe temple wiþ her moodere dere [Def 116] As is of yonge maidens þe manere
 Now was þer a Iustice in þe tounne þatʒ gouernere was of þatʒ Regioun
 And so bifelle þis Iuge his eyen castʒ 124 Vpon þis mayde avisinge hir ful fastʒ
 As sche came forþ by þere þe Iuge stood .
 Anon his hertʒ chaungeþ and his mood .
 So was he caughtʒ wiþ þe beute of þis maide
 128 And to him self ful priuely he seide
 This maide schal be mynʒ for any man .
 Anon þe foende into his hertʒ ran
 And taughtʒ him soðerly by whatʒ sleightʒ 132 The maide to his purpos wyñne he myȝtʒ
 PETWORTH (6-T. 306)

Beþe ware þatʒ be ensample of þoure leueingē Eyþer be negligēce in chaastisingē þatʒ þei ne perishe for .I. dare wel seie 100 ȝif þatʒ þei done ʒe schol ful sore aþye vnder a sheperd soft and negligēt þe wolf haþ mony a shepe and lamme to-reñt Sufiēt one ensample nowe as here
 104 For .I. most torme aȝein to mastiere
 This maide of whichē .ȝ. tel my tale expresse Sche keppeð hir self sche needeð no maistresse
 For in hire leueyngʒ maydens-myht rede 108 As in a boke euery good worde and dede þatʒ longeþ to a mayden vertuous Sche was so prudent and so bountuous
 For whichē oute spronge on euery side 112 Boþe of hir beute and hire bouñte wide þatʒ þurhe þe londe þei presede hire zehon þatʒ loued vertuous saue envye alone
 þatʒ sory is of oþer mennes wele
 116 And gladde is of his sorwe and vñhele [Def 111] 116
 The doctour makeþ þis descripcioun
 This maide went on a daie in-to þe tounne 120 To-warde þe temple wiþ hir moder dere
 As sche cam forþ by þere þe Iuge stode 124 Anone his hertʒ chaungeþ and his mood
 So was he caughtʒ wiþ þe beaute of þis maide
 128 And to him self ful priuely he seide
 This maiden schal be myne for any man Anone þe fende in to his hertʒ ran
 And taughtʒ him soðerly be whatʒ sleight 132 The maiden to his purpos wyñne he myht
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 306)

307 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALK. Ellesmere MS.

ffor certes by no force / ne by no meede
 Hym thoughte / he was nat' able for to speede
 ffor she was stronge of frendes / and eek she Confermed was / in swich souerayn bountee
 That wel he wiste / he myghte hire neuere wyne
 As for to maken hire / with hir body synne ffor which / by greet deliberacioun
 He sente after a cherl / was in the town
 Which þat he knew / for subtil and for bold
 This Iuge / vn-to this cherl / his tale hath toold
 In secre wise / and made hym to ensure
 He sholde telle it to no creature
 And if he dide / he sholde lese his heed
 When þat assented was / this cursed reed
 Glad was this Iuge / and makid him greet chere
 And yaf hym yiftes / precious and deere ¶ When shapen was / al hire conspiracie ffor point to point' how þat his lecherie
 Performed sholde been ful subtilly
 As ye / shul heere it after openly
 Hom goth the cherl / þat highte Claudius
 This false Iuge / that highte Apus
 So was his name / for this is no fable
 But knowne / for historial thyng notable
 The sentence of it' sooth is out of doute
 This false Iuge / gooth now faste aboute
 To hasten his deliþ al that he may
 And so bifel / soone after on a day
 This false Iuge / as telleth vs the storie
 As he was won't sat in his Consistorie
 And yaf his domes / vp-on sondry cas
 This false cherl / cam forth / a ful greet pas
 And seyde lord / if þat it be youre wille
 As dooth me right' vp-on this pitous bille
 In which I pleyne / vp-on Virginus
 And if þat he wel seyn / it is nat thus

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 307)

307 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALK. Hengwrt MS.

ffor certes / by no force / ne by no meede
 Hym thoughte / he was nat able for to speede
 ffor she was stronge of frendes / and eek she
 Confermed was / in swich souerayn bountee
 That wel he wiste / he myghte hir neuere wyne
 As for to make hire / with hir body synne
 ffor which / by greet deliberacioun
 He sente after a cherl / was in the town
 Which þat he knew / for subtil and for bold
 This Iuge vn-to this cherl / his tale hath toold
 In secre wise / and made hym to ensure
 He sholde telle it to no creature
 And if he dide / he sholde lese his heed
 When þat assented was / this cursed reed
 Glad was this Iuge / and makid hym greet choro
 And yaf hym yiftes / precious and deere ¶ When shapen was / al hir conspiracie
 ffor point to point' how þat his lecherie
 Performed sholde been / ful subtilly
 As ye shul heere it after openly
 ¶ Hom goth the cherl / that highte Claudius
 This false Iuge / that highte Apus
 So was his name / for this is no fable
 But knowne / for historial thyng notable
 The sentence of it' sooth is out of doute
 This false Iuge / gooth now faste aboute
 To hasten his deliþ al that he may
 And so bifel / soone after on a day
 This false Iuge / as telleth vs the storie
 As he was won't sat in his Consistorie
 And yaf his domes / vp-on sondry cas
 ¶ This false cherl cam forth / a ful greet pas
 And seyde / lord if þat it be youre wille
 As dooth me right' vp-on this pitous bille
 In which / I pleyne vp-on Virginus
 And if þat he wel seyn / it is nat thus

HENGWRT (6-T. 507)

307 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALK. Cambridge MS.

ffor certes by no force ne by no meede hym þouȝt he was not able for to speede ffor he was stronge of frendes and eke she Confermyd was in suche souerayne beaute þat wel he wiste he myȝt hit neure wyne
 As for to make hit with hit body synne ffor whiche with grete deliberacioun he sent / aftyr / a Clerk / in-to þe town
 The whiche he knewe for stouelle and for bolde Thys Iuge vnto þis Clerk his tale hathe told I secre wyse and made him to assure he shuld telle it to no creature
 And if he did he shuld lese his hode
 When acented was þis cursid reede
 Glad was þe Iuge and made glad chere
 And yaf hym yiftes precious & deere ¶ When shapen was alle þis conspiracie ffrom paynt to paynt how þat his lecherie Performed shulde be fulle stouelle
 As þe shulle here and afterward opunly þe gothe þis Clerk þat highte Claudius Thys false Iuge þat highte Apus
 So was his name for it ys no fable
 But / knowne for an historiall penge notable
 The sentence of hit' sothe ys oute of doute Thys false Iuge gothe now faste aboute
 To hasten his delyte al þat he may
 And so by-felle some aftyr on a day
 Thys false Iuge as telleth vs þe storie
 As he was wonte sat in his consistorie
 And ȝaue his domes vpon sundry cas
 This false clerke come forthe a wele gode pass
 And said lord if it be youre wille þis dothe me right' vpon þis pitous bille
 In which I pleyne vp-on virginus
 And if he welle seyn it is not thus

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 302) [this page, Sloane 1685]

(Sloane MS 1685)

(Sloane MS 1685)
 (Cambr. Univ. Lib. MS
 Sig. 4. 27, leaf 202)

for certes by no force ne by no meede him bought/ he was not able for to speede / for he was strong-of freendes and eek scho Confermed was in such souereyn beaute þat wel he wiste he myght hire neuer wynde
 As for to make hire wip hire body synne for which wip grete deliberacion he sente after a clerk in-to þe toun
 The which he knew for subtil and for bold
 This Iuge vnto þis clerk' his tale hap told
 In secre wise and made him to assure / he scholde telle it to no creature
 And if he dide he scholde lese his heed
 Whan assented was þis cursed reed
 Glad was þe Iuge and made glad chere /
 And gaf him giftes precious and dere /
 Whan schapen was al þis conspircie from poynt to poynt how þat his lecherie Performed schulde be ful subtilly As 3e schal here afterward openly hom goþ þis clerk' þat highte Claudius þis fals Iuge þat highte Apus
 So was his name for it is no fable /
 But known for an historial þing notable
 The sentence of it soþ is out of doute þis fals Iuge goþ now faste aboute
 To hasten his delyt al þat he may
 And so bifells some after on a day
 þis fals Iuge as telleþ vs þe story
 As he was woned sat in his consistorie
 And gaf his domes vpon sondry cas
 This fals clerk' cam forþ a wel good pass
 And seyde lord if þat it be your wille /
 As doþ me right vpon þis pitous bille
 In which I pleyn vpon virginus
 And if þat he wol seyn it is not þus for certis by no force ne by no meede Him þoug' he was not able forto speede .

 for he was stronge of freendes and eke sho Confermed was in such souereyn bewte þat wel he wiste he mygt her newere wynde As forto make hire wip hur' body synne for whiche wij grete deliberacion
 He sent after a clerk into þe tounne þe whiche he knewe for subtil or for bold
 This Iuge vnto þis clerk' his tale hap told
 In secre wise and made him to assure
 He schulde telle it to no creature.
 And if he did he schulde lese his hede whan assented was þis cursed rede
 Glad was þe Iuge and made glad chere
 And gaf hym giftes precious and dere whan shapen was all þis conspircie from poynt to poynt how þat þis lecherie Performed schulde be ful sotelly
 And 3e shul here afterward oponly Home goþ this clerk' þat higt' Claudius
 This fals Iuge þat higt' apius
 So was his name for it is no fable
 But known for an historial þing notable.
 The sentence of hit' soþ is out of dowte
 This fals Iuge goþ now fast' aboute
 To hasten his delyt and þat he may
 And so bifells some after on a day .
 This fals Iuge as telleþ vs þe story
 As he was woned in his consistorie
 And gaf his doomes vpon sondrie cas
 This fals Clerk came forþ a wel good pass .
 And seide lord-if þat it be your wille
 As doþ me right vpon þis pitous bille
 In whiche I pleyn vpon Virginus .
 And if þat he wol seyn it is nat þus

For certes be no force ne be no meede
 Him pouht he was not able for to speede
 For he was stronge of freendes and eke scho
 Confermed was in such souereigne beute
 That wete he wist he myht hire neuer wynde
 As for to maake hire wip hire bodi synne
 For whiche wij grete deliberacion
 He sent after a clerk in to þe tounne
 The whiche he knewe ful sotel and ful bolde
 This Iuge hape vn-to þis clerike his tale ytolde
 In secre wise and maade him to assure
 He schold tel it to no creature
 And if he dide he scholde lese his hede
 And whan assented was þis cursed rede
 Gladde was þe Iuge and maade goode chiere
 And gaf him giftes precious and dere
 Whan schapen was al þis conspircie
 From pointe to pointe howe þat his licherye Performed schold be ful sotellye
 As 3e schal here afterward openlye
 Home goþe þis clerk þat higt' Claudius
 This fals Iuge þat higt' Apus
 So was his name it is no fable Bot known for an historial þing notable
 The sentence of it soþ is oute of doute
 This fals Iuge goþ now faste aboute
 To hasten his delite al þat he maie
 And so be-fel some after on a daie þis fals Iuge as telleþ vs þe storie
 As he was wonte sat in his Consistorie
 And gaf his domes vpon sundre cas
 This fals clerke cam forþe a wel good pass
 And seide lorde if þat it be your wiff
 As doþe me ziht vpon þis pitous bill
 In whiche .I. pleine vpon virginus
 And if þat he wil seine it is noug[ht] þus

§08 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

I wol it preue / and fynde good witnesse
That sooth is / that my bille wol expresse
¶ The Iuge answerde / of this in his absence
I may nat yeue / diffynyt[er] sentence
Let do hym calle / and I wol gladly here
Thou shalt haue al right / and no wrong here
¶ Virginius / cam to wite the Iuges wille
And right anon / was rad this cursed bille
The sentence of it / was as ye shul here
¶ To yow my lord / sire Apius so deere
Sheweth youre poure seruant Claudius
How that a knyght / called Virginius
Agayns the lawe / agayn al equite
Holdeth expres / agayn the wyl of me
My seruaut. which pat is my thral by right
Which for myn hous / was stole vp-on a nyght
Whil pat she was ful yong this wol I preue
By witness lord / so pat it nat yow greue
She nys his doghter nat what so he seye Wherefor / to yow / my lord the Iuge I preye
yeld me my thral / if pat it be youre wille
Lo / this was / al the sentence of his bille
¶ Virginius / gan vp-on the cherl biholde
But hastily / or he his tale tolde
And wolde haue preued it as sholde a knyght
And eek by witnessynge / of many a wight
That it was fals / that seyde his Adversarie
This cursed Iuge / wolde no thyng tari
Ne here a word moore of Virginius
But yaf his Iugement / and seyde thus
¶ I deme anon / this cherl his seruant haue
Thou shalt no lenger / in thyn hous hir sawe
Go bryng hire forth / and put hire in oure ward
The cherl shal haue his thral / this I awarde
¶ And when this worthy knyght Virginius
Thurgh sentence / of this Iustice Apius

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 308)

308 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

I wol it preue / and fynde good witnesse
That sooth is / that my bille wol expresse
¶ This Iuge answerde / of this in his absence 172 I may nat yeue / diffynyt sentence
Let do hym calle / and I wol gladly here
Thou shalt haue al right / and no wrong here
¶ Virginius cam to wite / the Iuges wille
And right anon / was rad this cursed bille
The sentence of it / was as ye shul here
¶ To yow my lord / sire Apius so deere
Sheweth / youre poure seruant Claudius
How pat a knyght called Virginius
Agayns the lawe / agayn al equite
Holdeth expres / agayn the wyl of me
My seruaut which pat is my thral by right
Which for myn hous / was stole vp-on a nyght
Whil that she was ful yong this wol I preue
By witness lord / so pat it nat yow greue
She nys his doghter nat what so he seye
Where to yow / my lord the Iuge I preye
Yeld me my thral / if pat it be youre wille
Lo / this was al the sentence / of his bille
¶ Virginius / gan vp-on the cherl biholde
But hastily / or he his tale tolde
And wolde haue preued it as sholde a knyght
And eek by witnessynge / of many a wight
That it was fals / that seyde his Adversarie
This cursed Iuge / wolde no thyng tari
Ne here a word / moore of Virginius
But yaf his Iugement / and seyde thus /
¶ I deme anon / this cherl / his seruant haue
Thou shalt no lenger / in thyn hous hir sawe
Go bryng hir forth / and put hire in oure ward
The cherl shal han his thral / this I awarde
¶ And when / this worthy knyght Virginius
Thurgh sentence / of this Iustice Apius

HENGWRT (6-T. 308)

308 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

I wele it preue / & fynde it good witnesse
That soth is that myn bille wol expresse
The Iuge answerde / of this in his absence
I may nat yeue diffynytine sentence
Let do hym calle & I wele gladli here
Thow schalt haue alle ryzt & no wrong here
Virgynus cam to wete the Iuges wille
And ryzt a-non was rad this cursede bylle
The sentence of it was as 3e schul here
To 3ow myn lord sire apius so deere Schewith 3oure poure seruaut claudius
How that a knygh[t] / callyd virgynus
A-geyns the lawe a-geyn alle equyte Holdyth expres a-geyn the wil of me
Myn seruant which that 'is myn' thral be ryzt
Which for myn hous was stole vp-on a ryzt Whil that sche was ful 3yng this wele I preue
By witness lord so that it nat 3ow greue
Sche nys his doughty[r] / nat what so he seye
Wherefore to 3ow myn lord 3e Iuge I preye 3ilde me my thral / 3if pat it be 3oure wille
Lo this was at the sentens of his bille
Virginius gan ~~wp~~-on the cherl be-holde
But hastily er he his tale tolde
And wolde a preued it as schulde a knygt
And ek by witness of manye a wight
That it was fals that seyde his aduersarye
This cursede Iuge wolde no thyng tarye
Ne here a word moore of virginius
But 3af his Iugement & seyde thus
¶ I deme a-non / this cherl his seruant haue
Thow schalt no lengere / in thyn hous<sup>2</sup> here sawe<sup>2</sup>
Go brynge hire forth / & putte hire in ouere ward
This cherl schal han / his thral this I awarde
And when this-worthi / knygt virgynus Thour sentens / of this Iustys Apius

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 308)

I wol proue it and fynde good witnesse
That soþ is þat my bille wol expresse þe Iuge answerde of þis in his absence
I may not þine diffinitif sentence
172 let don him calle and I wol gladly here Thou schalt haue right and no wrong here
Virginus cam to wite þe Iuges wille
And riht anon was rad þis cursed bille /
176 The sentence of it was us þe schul here
To þou my lord sire Apinus so deere Schoweþ þoure pouer seruaunt Claudius
how þat a knyght called virginus Aþens þe laue aþeins alle equite
holdeþ expresse aþeins þe wil of me
My seruaunt which þat is my þral by riht
Which from myn hous was stolen on a nyght
184 Whiles sche was ful þonge I wol it preue
By witnesse lord so þat þe þou not greue
Sche is nouht his daughter what so he say Wherefor my lord þe Iuge to þou I pray 188 zelde me my þralle if þat it be þoure wille lo þis was al þe sentence of þe bille
Virginus gan vpon þe clerk biholde
But hastily er he his tale tolde /
192 he wolde haue defended it as scholde a knyght [Dist 107, head]

CORPUS (8-T. 308)

I will proue it and fynde good witnesse þat soþe is þat my bille wil expresse
þe Iuge answerde of þis in his absence
I may not þine diffinitif sentence
172 Let don hym calle and I will gladly here þou shalt haue riht and no wronge here Virginus came to wite þe Iuges wille
And riht anon was rad þis cursed bille
¶ The sentence of hit was as þe schul here
To þowe my lord sir Apinus so dere
Sheweþ þour poor seruaunte Claudius
180 How þat a knyght called Virginus
Aþeinst þe laue aþeinst al equite Holdeþ expresse aþeinst þe wille of me.
My seruaunt which þat is þral be riht
184 Which from myn hous was stolen on a nyght þe whiles she was ful þenge I wil it proue
By witnesse lord so þat þe þou nat greue
She is nat his dougters what so he saye 188 wherefor my lord þe Iuge to þou I praye zeelde me my þraht if þat it be þoure wille loo þis was alle þe sentence of þe bille
Virginus gan vpon þe clerk biholde
¶ But hastily er he his tale tolde
192 he wolde haue defended it as shuld a knyght

PETWORTH (8-T. 308)

.I. wille proue it and fynde good witnessene þat soþe is þat my bil wil expresse
þe Iuge Answerde of þis in his absence
.I. mai not þif diffinitif sentence
172 Lett done him call . & .I. wil gladly here Thou schalt haue riht and no wronge here
Virginus came to wite þe Iuges wilth
And riht a-none was radde þis cursed bill þe sentence of hit was as þe schal here
To þowe my lorde sir Apinus so dere
Schoweþ þoure pouer seruaunt Claudius
180 Howe þat a knyht called virginus Aþeins þe laue aþeins al equite
Holdeþ expresse aþeins þe wil of me
Mi seruaunt whiche þat is þral be riht 184 Wyche from myne hous was stolne one a nyht Whiles sche was ful þonge .I. wil . it proue
Be witnesse lorde so þat þe þoue nouht greue
Sche his nouht his douhter what so he seie 188 Where-for my lorde þe Iuge to þowe .I. preie zeelde me my þral if it be þoure wil
Lo þis was þe sentence of þe bil
Virginus began vpon þe clerke be-holde 192 Bote hastily ar he his tale tolde
He wolde haue defended it as scholde a knyht
And be witnesse of mony a trowe wyht
That al was fals þat seide his aduersarie 196 This Cursed Iuge wolde no longer tarie Ne here a word more of Virginus
Bot þaf his Iugement and seide þus
I. deme anon þis clerk his seruaunte haue 200 Thou schalt no longer in þine hous hir saue
Geo bringe hir forþe and þutþ hur in our ward 200 This Clerk shal haue his þralle þus I awarde
And when þis worþi knyght Virginus 204 Thourh þe assent of þe Iuge Apinus

LANSDOWNE (8-T. 308)

Moste by force / his deere doghter yeuen
 Vn-to the Iuge / in lecherie to lyuen
 He gooth hym boom / and sette hym in his halle
 And leet anon / his deere doghter calle
 208 And with a face deed / as ashen colde
 Vpon hir humble face / he gan biholde
 With fadres pite / stikynge thurgh his herte
 Al wolde he / from his purpos nat conuerte
 212 Doghter quod he / Virginia / by thy name
 Ther beon two weyes / outher deeth or shame
 That thou most / sufre / allas þat I was bore for neuere / thou deseruedest wherfore 216 To dyen / with a sword / or with a knyf
 O deere doghter / endere of my lyf
 Which I haue fostred vp / with swich plesance
 That thou were neuere / out of my remembrance
 220 O doghter / which þat art my laste wo
 And in my lyf my laste ioie also O gemme o Chastitee in pacience (Dist 170, back) 224 Take thou thy deeth / for this is my sentence for loue and not for hate / thou most be deed
 My pitous hand / moot smyten of thyh heed
 Allas / that euere Apus the say
 228 Thus hath he falsly / Iugged thee to day
 And tolde hire al the cas / as ye bifore
 Han herd / nat nedeth for to telle it moore
 ¶ O mercy deere fader / quod this mayde
 232 And with that word / she both hir armes layde
 Aboute his necke / as she was wont to do
 The teeris / bruste out of hir eyen two
 And seyde / goods fader shal I dye
 236 Is ther no grace / is ther no remedye
 ¶ No certes / deere doghter myn quod he ¶ Thanne yif me leysur / fader myn quod she My deeth for to compleyne / a litel space for pardoe lepte yaf his doghter grace ¶ (Indicium exp. 236, 240)

Moste by force / his deere doghter yeuen
 Vn-to the Iuge / in lecherie to lyuen
 He goth hym boom / and sette hym in his halle
 And leet anon / his deere doghter calle
 208 And with a face deed / as ashen colde
 Vp-on hir humble face / he gan biholde
 With fadres pite / stikynge thurgh his herte
 Al wolde he / from his purpos nat conuerte
 212 Doghter quod he / Virginia / by thy name
 Ther beon two weyes / outher deeth / or shame
 That thou were neuere / out of my remembrance
 220 O doghter / which that art my laste wo
 And in my lyf my laste ioie also O gemme of chastitee / in pacience (Dist 170, back) 224 Tak thou thy deeth / for this is my sentence for loue / and nat for hate / thou most be deed
 My pitous hand / moot smyten of thyh heed
 Allas / þat euere Apus thes say
 228 Thus hath he falsly / Iugged thee to day
 And tolde hire al the cas / as ye-bifore
 Han herd / nat nedeth for to telle it moore
 ¶ O mercy deere fader / quod this mayde
 232 And with that word / she bothe hir armes layde
 Aboute his necke / as she was wont to do
 The teeris borste / out of hir eyen two
 And seyde / goods fader / shal I dye
 236 Is ther no grace / is ther no remedye
 ¶ No certes / deere doghter myn quod he (Dist 170, back) ¶ Thanne yif me leysur / fader myn quod she 239 My deeth for to compleyne / a litel space
 for pardoe lepte / yaf his doghter grace ¶ (Indicium exp. 236, 240)

Muste be force his dere doustyr zeuyns (Dist 170, back) Vn-to the Iuge in lecherie to lyuyn
 He goth hym boom & settyth hym in his halle 208 And leet a-non his deere doustyr calle
 And with a face ded as aschy colde
 Vp-on hire humble face he gan by-holde
 With faders pite styngynge thur his herte
 212 Al wolde he not from his purpos conuerte
Doustyr quod he virginia bi thyh name Ther beon two weyis othir ded or schame
 That þou muste suffere allas that I was bore 216 for neuere thou deseruedist wherfore
 To dyen with a sword or wit a knyf
 O deere doustyr endere of myn lyf
 Which I haue fostred vp with swich plesauce 220 That thou were neuere out of myn remembrance
 O doustyr which that art myn laste wo (Dist 170, back) And in myn lyf myn laste ioie also O gemme of chastite in pacience 224 Take thou thyh doth for this is myn sentence for loue & not for hate þou muste be deed Myn pitous hand moot smyten of thyh heed
 Allas that euere apus the say
 228 Thus hath he falsly Iuged thee to day And tolde hire al the case as ye be-fore (Dist 170, back) Han herd / nought nedyth for to telle it more.
 O mercy dere fadyr quod this mayde.
 231 And with that word sche bothe hire armes layde Aboute his necke as sche was wont to do.
 The teris broste out of his eyen two
 And seyde goode fadyr schal I deye 236 Is there no grace is there no remedye No-certis dere doustyr myn quod he Thanne zeu me leuc fadyr myn quod sche 239 Myn deth for to compleyne a lytyl space Parde lepte zaf his doustyr grace
 (Dist 170, back)

Moste by force his deere daughter zeuen vnto þe Iuge in lecherie to lyuen
 He goþ him hom and sette him in his halte
 And lete anon his deere dougter callē /
 And with a face deed as ayssches colde vpon hire humble face he gan biholde
 Wij faders pite stikynge þorgh his herte
 Al wolde he not from his purpos conuerte
 Doughter quod he virginia be þi name þer ben tuo weyes oþer ſchame That þou most suffre allas þat I was bore for neuer þou deseruest wherfore
 To dyen with a swerd or wij a knyf
 O deere doughter endere of my lif
 Which I haue fostred vp wij such plesaunce
 þat þou ne were out of my remembrance /
 O doughter which þat art my laste wo /
 And in my lif my laste ioye also
 O gemme of chastite in pacieuce
 Tak þou þi deþ for þis is my sentence / for loue and nat for hate þou most be dede
 My pitous hond moot smyten of þin heed
 Allas þat euer Apius þe say
 Thus haþ he falsly Iugged þe to day
 And tolde hire al þe cas as 3e bifore han herd it nedþ not to telle it more Mercy deere fader quod þis maide
 And wij þat word sche boþe hire armes laide Aboute his necke as sche was womed to do þe teeres barsten out of hire eyen tuo
 And sayde goode fader schal I dye
 Is þer no grace is þer no remedye No certes deere dougter myn quod he þanne gif me leue fader myn quod sche My deþ to compleigne a litel space for parde Ieffa þat his dougter grace

Most by force his dere dougter zeuen Vnto the Iuge in lechery to lyuen .
 He goþ hym home and sette hym in his halte
 And lete anon his deere dougter calle
 And with a face dede as asshen colde
 Vpon her humble face he can biholde
 Wij faders pite stikynge þorgh his herte
 Al wold he nat from his purpos conuerte Doughtere quod he Virginia be þi name þer bene tuo weies. oþer deþ oþer shame þat thou most suffre allas þat I was bore
 for neuer þou deseruest wherfore
 To dyen wij a swerd or wij a knyf
 O dere dougter ender of my lif
 Which I haue fostred vp wij such plesaunce
 þat þou ne were out of my remembrance
 O doughtere which þat art my last wo .
 And in lif my last ioye also
 O gemme of chastite in pacieuce
 Take þou þi deþ for þis is my sentence
 for loue and nat for hate þou most be dede
 My pitous honde mote smyten of þine hede
 Allas þat euer Apius þe say
 Thus haþ he falsly Iugged þe to day
 And tolde hur' al þe cas as 3e bifore Hauē herd it nedþ telle it no more Mercy dere fadere quod þis maide
 And wij þat word sche boþ hurē armes laide .
 Aboute his nek as she was womed to doo þe teeres brosten out of her eyen tuo
 A[n]d schal I dye
 Is þere no grace is þer no remedye
 No certes dere dougter myn quod he .
 Than zeue me leue fader myn quod she .
 My deþ [for] to compleyn a litel space for parde Ieffa þane his dougtere grace

Most be force his dere doughter zeuen
 Vnto þe Iuge in lechere to leuen
 Ho goþe him home and sett him in his halft
 And lete anone his dere doughter callē
 And wij a face dede as asshen colde
 Vpon hire hum[ble] face he gan biholde
 Wij faders pite stikynge þorgh his hert
 Al wolds he nouht from his purpos comuert
 Doughter quod he virginia be þi name
 There bien tuo weys cyþer oþer schame þat þou must soffre alas þat I was bore
 For neuer þou deseruest wher fore
 To dyen wij a swerde or wij a knyf
 O der doughter ender of my lif Whiche .I. haue fostred vp wij suche plesaunce þat þou ne were oute my remembrance
 O doughter whiche þat art my last wo
 And in lif my last ioye also
 O gemme of chastite in pacieuce
 Take þou þi deþ for þis is my sentence
 For loue and nouht for hate þou must be dede
 My pitous honds most smyte of þin hede
 Alas þat euer Apius þe saye
 Thus haþe he falsly Iugged þe to day And tolde hire al þe cas as 3e be fore Hauē herd it nedþ nouht to tel it no more Merce dere fadere quod þis maide
 And wij þat word sche boþe hire armes leide Aboute his necke as sche was went to do
 The teeres barsten out of hire yen tuo
 And seide goode fader schal .I. daye
 Is þere no grace is þere no remedie
 No certes dere doughter myne quod he Than zeue me leue fader myn quod sche
 My deþ to compleyn a litel space
 For parde Ieffa þane his doughter grace

310 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

ffor to compleyne / er he hir slow allas
And god it woot no thyng was hir trespas
But for she ran / hir fader for to see
To welcome hym / with greet solemnitie
And with that word / she fl asworne anon
And after / when hir swownyng is agon
She riseth vp / and to hir fader sayde
Blissed be god / that I shal dye a mayde Yif me my deeth / er that I haue a shame
Dooth with youre child / youre wyl a goddes name
¶ And with that word / she preyed hym ful ofte
That with his swerd / he wold smyte softe
And with that word / asworne down she fl
Hir fader / with ful sorweful herte and wil
Hir heed of smoot / and by the tope it hente
And to the Iuge / he gan it to presente
As he sat yet in doom in Consistorie
And when the Iuge it saugh / as seith the storie
He had to take hym / and anhange hym faste
But right anon / a thousand<sup>o</sup> peple in thraste
To saue the knyght<sup>o</sup> for routhe and for pitee ffor knowen was / the false Iniquitee
The peple anon / hath suspect of this thyng
By manere / of the cherles chalangyng
That it was / by the assent of Apius
They wisten wel / that he was lecherus ffor which / vn-to this Apius they gon
And caste hym in a prison right anon
Ther as he slow hym self / and Claudius
That seruant was / vn-to this Apius
And demed / for to hange vpon a tree
But that Virginius / of his pitee
So prayde for hym / that he was exiled
And elles certes / he had been bigyled
The remenant were anhangd moore and lesse
That were consentant of this cursednesse

ELLESMEERE (6-T. 310)

310 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

ffor to compleyne / er he hir slowe allas
And god it woot no thyng was hir trespas
But for she ran / hir fader for to se
To welcome hym / with greet solemnytie
And with that word / she fl asworne anon
And after / when hir swownyng is agon
She riseth vp / and to hir fader sayde
Blissed be god / þat I shal dye a mayde Yif me my deeth / er þat I haue a shame
Dooth with youre child / youre wyl a goddes name
¶ And with that word / she preyed hym ful ofte
That with his swerd / he wold smyte softe
And with that word / asworne down she fl
¶ Hir fader / with ful sorweful herte and wil
Hir heed of smoot / and by the tope it hente
And to the Iuge / he gan it to presente
As he sat yet in doom / in Consistorie
¶ And when the Iuge it saw / as seith the storie
He had to take hym / and anhange hym faste
But right anon / a thousand peple in thraste
To saue the knyght for routhe and for pitee
ffor knowen was / the false Iniquitee
¶ The peple anon / hadde suspect in this thyng
By manere / of the cherles chalangyng
That it was / by the assent of Apius
They wisten wel / þat he was lecherus
ffor which / vn-to this Apius they gon
And caste hym in a prison / right anon
Ther as he slow hym self / and claudius
That seruant was / vn-to this Apius
Was demed / for to hange vp on a tree
But that Virginius / of his pitee
So prayde for hym / that he was exiled
And elles certes / he hadde been bigyled
The remenant were anhangd / moore and lesse
That were consentant of this cursednesse

HENGWRT (6-T. 310)

310 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

ffor to compleyne er he hire slow allas
And god it wot no thyng was hire trespas [But þat she ranne hir/ fadir/ fyrst/ lo see
To welcome hym with grete solemnitie
And with þat worde she felle on sworne a-noone
And after/ when hir/ swonyng was gone
She risethe vp and-to hir/ fadir/ sayde
Blessyd be god þat I shalle deye a mayde 3if/ me my dethe or þat/ I haue a shame
Dothe with youre childre youre wille of goddes name
And with þat worde she praythe fulle ofte þat with his swerde he shulde smyte hir/ softe
And with þat/ worde on sworne doune she felle Hir fadir/ with fulle sorowfelle hert/ and fel Hir/ heede of/ smote and by þe top it hent/
And to þe Iuge he yare it/ to present
As he sat in hys dome in consistorie
What þe Iuge it sawe as saithe þe storie
He hade take hym and honge hym also faste
But right/ a-noon alle þe peple in þraste
To saue þe knyght/ for routhe and for pite ffor knowen was þe folys Iniquyte
The peple a-none hade suspecte in þis thyng
By manere of thys Clerkes chalengyng
That it was by þe assent/ of Apius
They wyste vele þat he was lecherous ffor whiche vn-to þis Apius þei gone
And kysten hym in prison right anon Where as he slowe hym self/ and claudius þat seruaunt was vn-to þis apius.
Was demed for [to] hange vpon a tro
But Virgineus of/ his grete pite
Prayde for hym þat he was exiled
And elles certes he hade be begyled
The remenaunt were honged moore & lesse þat consentid weren to his cursidnesse

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 310) [this page, Sloane 1685]

ffor to compleyne ar he hir slough alias
 And god it wot noþing was hire trespas
 But þat sche ran hire fader first to see
 To welcome him wiþ greet solemnpnite
 And wiþ þat word sche felle on swoun anon
 And after than hir swouynge was agon Sche riseþ vp and to hire fader sayde /
 Blessed be god þat I schal deye a mayde 3if me my deþe er þat I haue a schame
 Doþ wiþ þour child þour wil a goddes name
 And wiþ þat word sche prayeþ him ful ofte þat wiþ his swerde be schulde hir amyte softe And wiþ þat word on swoune doune sche fel hir fader wiþ ful sorweful herte and fel hire heed of smoot and by þe top it hente
 And to þe Iuge he þat it to presentie
 As he sat in his doom in consistory
 When þe Iuge it say as seiþ þe storie
 He had take him and honge him also faste
 But riht anon al þe peple in þraste
 To saue þe knight for rouþe and for pite ffor knownen was þe foolis Iniquite
 The peple anon hadde suspects in þis þinge
 By maner of þis clerkes chalanginge
 That it was by assent of Apius
 (leaf 174, back)
 They wisten wel þat he was lecherous ffor which vnto þis Apius þey gon
 And casten him in prison riht anon 268 Wher as he slough himself and Claudius þat seruant was vnto þis Apius
 Was demed ffor to honge vpon a tre
 But virgineus of his grete pite
 272
 Prayde for him þat he was exiled
 And elles certes he hadde be bygyled
 The remenant were honged more & lesse þat consented were to his cursednesse 276 fforto compleyn er he her selouge alias.

 And god it woot no þing was his trespas
 But þan she ranne her fader first to see 244
 To welcome him wiþ grete solemnpnite
 And wiþ þat word she felle a swoun anon
 And after than her swouynge was agon
 She riseþ vp and to her federe saide 248
 Blessed be god þat I schal die a maide 3eue me my deþe er þat I haue a schame
 Doþ wiþ þoure childre þour wille a goddis name
 And wiþ þat word she prayeþ [him] ful oft 252
 That wiþ his swerde he schuld amyte her soft
 And wiþ þat woordt in swoune doune she felle
 Hur fadere wiþ ful sorweful hert and felle Hire hede of smote and by þe top it hent 256
 And to the Iuge he saue it to present
 As he satte in his doomes in consistorie .
 And when þe Iuge it seie as seiþ þe storie
 He had take him and honge hym also fast 260
 But riht anon al þe peple in þraste
 To saue þe knyght for rouþe and for pite
 ffor knownen was þe foolis iniquite
 The peple anon had suspects in þis þinge 264
 By manere of þis clerkes chalanginge þat it was by assent of Apius .
 þei wist wel þat he was lecherus ffor which vnto þis Apius þei gon 268
 And casten hym in prison riht anon Wher as he selough hym self and Claudius þat seruaunte was vnto þis Apius
 Was demed ffor to honge vpon a tree
 (leaf 175)
 272
 But virginius of his grete pite
 Prayde for hym þat he was exiled .
 And elles certes he had be begyled
 The remenant were honged more and lesse 276 þat consented were to þis cursednesse /

For to compleine ar he hir slowhe alias
 And god it wote no þinge was hire trespas
 (leaf 174, back)
 Bot þat sche rann hir fader first to see 244
 To welcom him wiþ grete solemnpnite
 And wiþ þat worde sche fel in swoune anone
 And after than hir swouynge was agone
 She riseþ vpe and to hire fader seide 248
 Blessed be god þat .I. schal deye a meide 3if me my deþe ar þat .I. haue a schame Doþe wiþ þoure Childre þoure wil a goddes name
 And wiþ þat word sche prayeþ ful oft 252 þat with his swerde he scholde smite hir softe
 And wiþ þat word in swoune doune sche felle Hir fader wiþ ful sorweful hert and felle Hire heued of smote and be toppes it hent 256
 And to þe Iuge he saue it to present
 As he sat in his dome in consistorie
 When þe Iuge it saue as seiþ þe storie
 He hadde take him and honge him also fast 260
 Bot riht anone al þe peple in þrast
 To saue þe knyht for rouþe and for pite ffor knownen was þe folis iniquite þe peple anone hadd suspects in þis þinge 264
 Be maner of þis clerkes chalanginge þat it was be þe assent of Apius That wist wile þat he was lycherous
 ffor whiche vn-to þis Apius þei gone 268
 And kosten him in prison riht a-none
 Whereas he slowhe him selfe and Claudius
 That seruant was vn-to þis Apius
 Was demed ffor to honge vpon a tre
 (leaf 175)
 272
 Bot virgineus of his grete Pite
 Prayde for him þat he was exiled
 And elles certes he hadde be by-giled
 The rumentant were honged more and lesse 276
 That consented were to þis cursednesse

Here men may seen / how synne hath his merite
Beth war / for no man woot whom god wol smyte
In no degree / ne in which manere wyse
The worm of conscience / may agryse 280
Of wikked lyf though it so pryue be
That no man / woot ther-of but god and he ffor be he lewed man / or ellis lered
He not how soone / þat he shal been afered 284 Therefore I rede yow / this conseil take fforsaketh synne / or synne yow forsake

¶ Here endeth / the Phisiciens tale 𐝀

¶ Here may men seen / how synne hath his merite <sup>[leaf 183]</sup>
Beth war / for no man woot whom god wol smyte
In no degree / ne in which manere wise
The worm of conscience / may agrise 280
Of wikked lyf / though it so pryue be
That no man woot ther of / but god and he
ffor be he lewed man / or ellis lered
He not how soone / that he shal been afered 284 Ther-fore I rede yow / this conseil take
fforsaketh synne / or synne yow forsake

¶ Here endeth the Phisiciens tale 𐝀

here may men see how synne hath his merite <sup>[Sloane MS 1685]</sup>
Be ware for no man wote howe god wille smyte
In no degre ne in whiche manere wyse
The worme of conscience wyll aryse 280 Of wycked lyf / þous it / so proue be þat / no man wote of hit but god and he.
Where he be lewed man or leryd he note howe sone þat he may ben a-feryd 284 Therefore I rede you þis counselle take ffor-sakeþe synne or synne you forsake

Here endeth þe tale of þe Mayster of phisyk /

SIX-TEXT 311
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Corpus MS.

Here may men se how synne haþ his meryt /
 Be war for noman wot how god wol smyt *
 In no degre ne in which maner wise
 The worm of conscience wol arise Of wicked lyf þough it so prouy be þat noman woot of it but god and he Wheþer he be lewed man or lered he not how soone þat he may be afered þerfore I rede þou þis counsel take forsakeþ synne er synne þou forsake

280

284

SIX-TEXT 311
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Petworth MS.

Here may men see howe synne haþ his merite
 Be ware for no man wote how god wil smyte.
 In no degree ne in which manere wise
 þe worme of conscience wil arise.
 Of wicked lif þough it so prive be þat no man wote of it. but god and hee
 Where he be lewde man or lered
 He note howe soone he may be afered.
 Therefore I rede þou this counsel take forsakeþ synne er synne þou forsake

280

284

SIX-TEXT 311
GROUP C. § 1. DOCTOR'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.

Here maye men see how sinne haþe his merite
 Be war for no man wote howe god wil smyte In no degre ne in wyche maner wise þe werme of conscience wil arise Of wikked lif þouche it so prive be þat no man woot of it bot god and he Wheþer he be lewde man or lerede
 He note howe soone . he maye bee aferde Therfore rede .I. þowe þis counsel take For-sakeþ sinne er sinne þoue for-sake

280

284

(Corpus)

Explicit fabula Magistri Phisicorum

¶ The wordes of the Hoost to the Phisicien and the Pardoner

Our Hoost gan to swere / as he wære wood
Harrow quod he / by nayles and by blood
This was a fals chert and a fals Iustise
As shameful deeth / as herte may deuyse
Come to thise false Iuges / and hire Aduocatz Algate / this sely mayde / is slayn allas
Alas / to deere boughte she beautee Wherfore I seye / al day / as men may see
That yiftes of fortune and of Nature
Been cause of deeth / to many a creature
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Of bothe yiftes / that I speke of now
Men han ful ofte / moore for harm than prov
¶ But trowely / myn owene maister deere
This is / a pitous tale for to heere
But natheles / passe ouer / is no fors
I pray to god / so saue thy gentil cors
And eek thyne vrynales / and thy Iurdones
Thyn ypocons / and eek thy Galiones
And every boyste / ful of thy letuarie
God blesse hem / and our lady Saint Marie
So moot I then / thou art a propre man
And lyk a prelat / by Saint Ronyan
 Seyde I nat wel / I kan nat speke in terme
But wel I wood / thou doest myn herte to erme
That I almost / haue caught a Cardynacle
By corps bones / but I haue triacle
Or elles a draughte / of moyste and corny Ale
Or but I heere anon / a myrie tale

¶ The myrry talkyng of the Hoost to the Phisicien and the Pardoner

Our Hoost gan to swere / as he wære wood
Harrow quod he / by nayles and by blood
This was a fals chert / and a fals Iustise
As shameful deeth / as herte may deuyse
Come to thise Iuges / and hir Aduocatz Algate this sely made / is slayn allas
Alas / to deere boughte she beautee
Wherfore I seye alday / þat men may see
That yiftes of fortune / and of nature
Been cause of deeth / to many a creature
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
Of bothe yiftes / þat I speke of now
Men han ful ofte / moore for harm than prov
¶ But trowely / myn owene maister deere
This is a pitous tale / for to heere
But natheles passe ouer / is no fors
I pray to god / so saue thy gentil cors
And eek thyne vrynales / and thy Iurdones
Thyn Ypocons / and eek thy galiones
And every boyste / ful of thy letuarie
God blesse hem / and our lady Sainte Marie
So mote I then / thou art a propre man
And lyk a prelat / by Saint Ronyan
 Seyde I nat wel / I kan nat speke in terme
But wel I wood / thou doest myn herte to erme
That I almost / haue caught a Cardynacle
By corps bones / but if I haue triacle
Or ellis a draughte / of moyste and corny ale
Or but I heere anon / a myrie tale

[Sloane MS 1685, on leaf 182.]

[Here begynneth þe prologge of þe Pardoner

Our oste gan swere as he wære woode
Harrow quod he by nayles and by blood
Thys was a false Clerk / and a false Iustice
As shamesfulle deeth as tonge can deuyse
Come to þe Iustice and hir / aduocaso Algate þis sely woman ys slayne Alas.
Alas [to] dere a-bouste she Bewte Wherfore I say al day þat men may see þat þif / of fortune or of nature
Ben cause of / dethe of many a creature
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
As bothe yiftes as I speke of now
Men han fulle ofte more harme þen prow
But / truly myn owen Maystre dere
Thys ys a pitous tale forto here
But natheles passe ouero ys no forco
I pray to god so saue þi gentel corso
And þine vrynales / and þyne Ioudanes Thyns ypocons and eek þi galians
And esury Boxe fulle of þi letuary
God blesse hem and our lady seynt / maryn
So mot I the þou act / a propre man
And I-lyke a prelate be seynt Ronyan
Sawe þat / I kon not / speke welle in terme
But / welle I yooote þou doest / myn hert / erme þat / I haue almoste caught a Cardiache
By corps bones but / yf / I haue trenche
Or . elles a draught / of moost / or corny ale
Or but / I here a none a myrie tale

[on leaf 194, back]

Owre cost<sup>er</sup> gan for to swere as he were wood Prologus
 Harrow quod he by nayles and by blood 288
 This was a cursed ~~peof~~ a fals Iustise
 As schamful dep as herte can denyse
 So falle vpon his body and his bones [*]
 þe deuyll I bekenne him al at ones [*] 292
 Allas to deere boughte sche hire beaute
 Wherefore I say þat alle men may se
 That giftes of fortune or of nature
 Beþ cause of dep of many a creature 296 hire beaute was hire dep I dar wel sayn
 Allas so pitously as sche was slayn
 But her of wil I not procede as now [spurious]
 Men han ful often more harm þan prove 300
 But trewly myn owne mayster dere [leaf 192]
 This is a pitous tale for to heere
 But najeles passe ouer is no fors
 I pray to god so saue þi gentil cors 304
 And þin vrynales and þin Iordanes
 Tayn ypoocas and þin Galianes
 And euery box ful of þi letuarie
 God blesse hem and oure lady seinto marie 308
 So mote I þe þou art a propre man
 And ylike a prelat<sup>e</sup> by seint Runyan Sayde I nouht<sup>e</sup> wel can I nouht<sup>e</sup> speke in terme
 But wel I woot þou doost myn herte to erme 312
 That I almost haue caught a Cardyacle /
 By Corpus bones but if I haue triacle
 Oþer elles a draught<sup>e</sup> of moyste and corny ale /
 Or but I heere anon a merye tale / 316

CORPUS (6-T. 312)

[on leaf 194, back]

Our hoost gan swere as he were wood ¶ The prologe of Harowe quod he by nayles and by blood þe Pardoner. 288
 This was a cursed peof a fals Iustise
 As shameful deep as herte can deuise .
 Come to þe Iustise and her aduocas .
 Alȝates þis acly woman is sclayn alas . 292
 Allas dere aboute she bowtes .
 Wherefore I sey alday þat man may se .
 That gifte of fortune or of nature
 Beþ cause of dep of mony a creature 296 [Hir beaute was hir deth I dar wel sayn . (Heal. 1728, on leaf 180, back)]
 Allas so pitously as sche was slayn .]
 As þoþ giftes as I spoke of nows
 Men han ful oft more harme þan prove 300
 But trewly myne owne maister dere
 This is a pitous tale for to here
 But najeles passe ouer is no fors
 I pray to god to saue þi gentile cors / 304
 And þine vrynales and þi Iordans þine ypoocas and eke þi Galyans
 And euery box ful of þi letwarye
 God blesse hem and our lady seint<sup>e</sup> Marye 308
 So mote I the þou art a propre man .
 And like a prelate by seynt Runyan .
 Sans þat I can not speke wel in terme [leaf 216, back]
 But wel I woot þou doost myn hert<sup>e</sup> erme 312
 That I haue almost<sup>e</sup> knight<sup>e</sup> a Cardyacle
 By corps bones but I haue triacle
 Or ellis a draught<sup>e</sup> of moist<sup>e</sup> or corny ale
 Or but I here anon a mery tale 316

PETWORTH (6-T. 312)

Incipit prologus questoris

[on leaf 173]

Owre Oste gan swere as he were wode
 Harrowe quod he be Nayles and be blode 288
 This was a cussed þef a fals Iustice
 A schandful deþe as hert can douise
 So ful vpon his body and his bones [*] þe deuel I be-ken him al att ones [*] 292
 Alas to dere bouht sche hir beute Wherefore I. seie þat al men maiþe see þat giftes of fortune or of Nature
 Beþe cause of deþe of mony a creature 296 Hire beute was hir deþe . I. dare vele seime Alas how pitously as sche was seime
 Bot here of wil I. nought procede as nowre [spurious]
 Men haue ful often more harme þan prove 300
 Bot trewly myne owne maister dere
 This is a pitous tale for to here
 Bot najeles pas ouer is no force
 I. praise to god to saue þi gentil corps 304
 And þine vrynales and þi Iordanes þine ypoocas and þine Galionnes
 And euery box ful of þi letuarie
 God blesse hem and oure lady seint Mary 308
 So mot . I. þe þou art a propre man
 And ylike a prelate . be seinte Runyan Sayd . I. nought wel can . I. nought speke in terme Bot vele . I. wote þou doste myne herte to erme 312 þat I. almost haue cauth a cardiacle Be corpus bones bot gite . I. haue triacle
 Or elles a draught of moiste and corne ale
 Or bott . I. here a-none a mery tale 316

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 312)

313 SIX-TEXT

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. Ellesmere MS.

Myn herte is lost<sup>t</sup> for pitee<sup>t</sup> of this mayde
 Thou beel amy / thou Pardoner he sayde
 Telle vs som myrthe / or Iapes right anon
 ¶ It shal be doon quod he / by Seint Ronyon
 But first quod he / heere at this Ale stake
 I wol bothe drynke / and eten of a Cake
 ¶ And right anon / the gentils gonme to crye Nay / lat hym telle vs of no ribaudye
 Telle vs som moral thyng<sup>t</sup> þat we may leere
 Som wit<sup>t</sup> and thanne wol we gladly heree
 ¶ I graunte ywis quod he / but I moot thynke
 Vpon som honeste thyng<sup>t</sup> while þat I drynke

313 SIX-TEXT

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. Hengwrt MS.

Myn herte is lost<sup>t</sup> for pitee of this mayde
 ¶ Thou beel amy / thou Pardoner he sayde
 Tel vs som myrthe / or Iapes right anon
 ¶ It shal be doon quod he / by Seint Ronyon
 But first quod he / heere at this ale stake
 I wol bothe drynke / and eten of a Cake
 ¶ And right anon / thise gentils gonme to crye Nay lat hym telle vs / of þo ribawdye
 Tel vs som moral thyng<sup>t</sup> / þat we may leere
 Som wit / and thanne wol we gladly heree
 ¶ I graunte ywis quod he / but I moot thynke
 Vpon som honeste thyng<sup>t</sup> whil þat I drynke

313 SIX-TEXT

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. Cambridge MS.

My hert/ ys loste for pite of þis mayde [Sloane MS 1685]
 Than belamy Iohn pardoner/ he sayd Telle vs some myrthe or some Iapes here anone hit shal be done quod he by seynt/ runyon 320
 But first/ quod/ he at þe next/ ale stake
 I wol bothe dryng and ete of a-kake
 But/ rijt/ anone þise gentelys gan to crye
 Nay let/ hym telle vs of/ no rebaudrye 324
 Tel vs some moral thenge þat/ we may here
 Some writte and þan willø we gladly here
 I graunte y-wys quod he but/ I mot/ thynke Vpon some honest/ thynghe whyle þat I drynke [Sloane MS 1685] 328

[Here] endeth þe Prologue

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. SIX-TEXT 313
Corpus MS.

Myn herte is lost for pite of þis mayde þou belamy Iohn Pardonere he sayde as right anon eint Runyon
     re at þis ale stake nke and eten of a Cake þise gentils bygonne to crye lle vs of no rybaudye ortal þing þat we may leere þenne wol we gladly heere wys quod he but I moot þynke honest þing whil þat I drinke

320

324

328

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. SIX-TEXT 313
Petworth MS.

My hert is lost for pite of þis maide þow belamy Iohn pardonere he saide Telle vs some merþe or Iapes riȝt anon he shal be done quod he be seynt Runyon
 But first quod he here at þe next ale stake
 I wil þou drink and ete of a cake
 But riȝt anon þise gentiles gon to crye Nay þat hym telle vs of no Rybaudrye.
 Telle vs some moral þing þat we may leere Somme witte and þan wil we gladly here
 I graunt Iwis quod he but I mote þinke Ypon som honest þinge whiles þat I drinke /

¶ Thus endeth þe prologe of þe pardonere.

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. SIX-TEXT 313
Lansdowne MS.

Myne hert is loste for pite of þis maide
 Thowe belamy Iohn Pardonere he saide
 Tel vs sum Merthes or Iapes riht anone
 It schal be do quod he be seinte Ninione Bot first quod he here at þis ale stake
 .I. wil þou drinke and ette of a kake
 Bot riht anone þes gentiles begon to crie
 Nay let him tel vs of no Rebaudio
 Tel vs sume Moral þinge þat we moure leere
 Some wytt and þan wih we gladly here
 .I. graun[t] y-wysse quod he . bot .I. must þenke Yppon . sum honest þinge whiles þat .I. drinke

320

324

328

320

324

328

Explicit Prologus questoris

[Part of the MS is cut away here]

¶ Here folweth the Prologe of the Pardoners tale <sup>[on leaf 145, bap<sup>2</sup>]</sup>

¶ Radix omnium malorum / est Cupiditas // Ad Thimotheum . 6<sup>r</sup> ☉

[Sloane MS 1685, on leaf 183.]

¶ Radix malorum est Cupiditas Ad Thimotheum .6<sup>r</sup>

¶ Here bigynneth the Prologe of the Pardoners tale ☉

and begynneth þe tale

LOrdynge quod he / in chirches / when I preche
 I peyne me / to han an hauteyn speche
 And ryng it out as round as gooth a belle for I kan / al by rote that I telle 332
 My theme is alwey oon / and euere was
 Radix malorum est Cupiditas

LOrdynge quod he / in chirches when I preche
 I peyne me / to han an hauteyn speche
 And ryng it out as round as gooth a belle
 for I kan / al by rote that I telle 332
 My theme is alwey oon / and euere was
 Radix malorum / est cupiditas

Lordynge quod/ he in Chirche when I preche
 [I] peyne me to haue an hautyn speche [And] ryng it/ oute as rounde as goth a belle for I can alle by rote þat I telle 332 [My teme] ys alle-way on and euere was Radix omnium malorum est cupiditas

First I pronouces / whennes þat I come
 And thanne my bulles / shewe I alle and some 336
 Oure lige lordes seel / on my patente
 That shewe I first my body to warente
 That no man be so boold / ne prest ne clerik<sup>t</sup>
 Me to destourbe / of Cristes holy werk<sup>t</sup> 340
 And after that thanne telle I forth my tales Bulles of popes<sup>1</sup> and of Cardynales <sup>[—] weerly wrot<sup>t</sup> out of the MS<sup>2</sup>]</sup>

First I pronouces / whennes þat I come
 And thanne my bulles / shewe I alle & some 336
 Oure lige lordes seel / on my patente
 That shewe I first my body to warente
 That no man be so boold / ne prest ne clerik<sup>t</sup>
 Me to destourbe / of Cristes holy werk<sup>t</sup> 340
 And after that thanne telle I forth my tales
 Bulles of Popes / and of Cardynales

First/ I pronouces whennes þat I come
 And þan my bulles shewen alle and some<sup>o</sup> 336 Oure lige lordes seel on my patent<sup>t</sup> þat/ shewe I fyrst/ my body to warrant/
 That no man be so bolde prest nor Clerik<sup>t</sup>
 Me to disturbe of/ crystes holy werk<sup>e</sup> 340
 And after þat telle I forthe my tales
 Bulles of Popes and of/ Cardynales

Of Patriarkes / and bishoppes I shewe
 And in latyn / I speke a wordes fewe 344
 To suffron with my predicacion
 And for to stire hem / to deuocion
 Thanne shewe I forth / my longe cristal stones
 Ycrammed ful of cloutes and of bones 348
 Relikes been they / as weneu they echon
 Thanne haue [I] in laton / a shulder bon Which that was / of an holy Iewes sheepe
 Goode men I seye / tak<sup>t</sup> of my wordes kepe 352

Of Patriarkes / and Bishoppes I shewe <sup>[leaf 155]</sup>
 And in latyn / I speke a wordes fewe 344
 To suffron with / my predicacion
 And for to stire hem / to deuocion
 ¶ Thanne shewe I forth / my longe cristal stones
 Ycrammed ful / of cloutes and of bones 348
 Relikes been they / as weneu they echon
 Thanne haue I in a laton / a shulder bon Which þat was / of an holy Iewes sheepe
 Goode men I seye / tak / of my wordes kepe 352

Of Patryarkes and Bysshopes I shewe
 And in laten I speke wordes fewe 344
 To saure with my predicacion And forto styres men to deuocion þan shewe I forth my longe Cristal stones
 I-crommed fulle of/ cloutys and of bones 348 Relikes þei bene as wene þei ychone þan haue I in laton a shulder bone Whiche þat was an holy Iewes shepe
 Goode men say I take at my wordes kepe 352

If that this boon / he washe in any welle <sup>[leaf 145]</sup>
 If Cow / or Calf or Sheepe / or Oxe swelle
 That any worm hath etc / or worm ystonge
 Taak water of that welle / and washe his tonge 356

If þat this boon be washe / in any welle
 If cow / or calf or sheepe / or Oxe swelle
 That any worm hath etc / or worm ystonge
 Taak water of that welle / and washe his tonge 356

if þat þis boe be wasshen in a welle if/ cow-or Calf/ shepe or Ox swelle þat any worme hath etc or stonge
 A-boute þe/ wete or elles þe longe 356

<sup>1</sup>bygyraneþ þe Pardoneres tale folwynge

LOrdynge<sup>C<sup>o</sup> xvij<sup>o</sup></sup> quod he in chirche¶ when I preche
I peyne me to haue an hautyn speche
I ryng¶ it out as round as goþ a belle for I can al by rote þat I telle 332
My teeme is alway oon and euer was <sup>1</sup>malorum est Cupiditas <sup>¶ Part of the MS is not same here</sup> <sup>1</sup>whennes þat I come

A þenne my bulles schewe I alle and some <sup>[Def 305, lines]</sup> Ouro liege lordes seal is my patent þat schewe I first my body to warant
That no man be so bolde ne prest ne clerk me to destourbe of cristes holy werk 340
And after þat telle I forþ my tales
Bulles of Popes and of Cardinales
Of Patriarkes and bischoppes I schewe
And in latyn I speke wordes a fewe 344
To saffian wip my predicacioun
And for to stere men to denocioun þanne schewe I forþ my lange cristal stones
I-crammed ful of cloutes and of bones 348 Relikes þey ben as wenen þey echone þan haue I in latoun a schuldere bone Which þat was of an holy iewes sheep
Goode men say I takeþ of my wordes kepe 352
If þat þis bon be wasche in any welle
If kow or calf sheep or oxe swelle
That any worme haf y-bite or stonge Touche he þis bon anon he schal be soude 356

And here bygyraneþ the tale.

<sup>[on leaf 211, back]</sup>

Lokinges quod he in church when I preche ¶ The I peyn me to haue an hautyn speche tale
I ryng¶ it out as rounde as goþ a bello
for I can al by rote þat I telle 332
My teeme is alway oon and enere was.
Radix omnium malorum est cupiditas,
first I pronouns whennys þat I come 336 And þan my bulles schewe all and some / Our liege lordes seal on my patent þat shewe I first my body to warant
That no man be so bolde prest ne clerk
Me to distourbe of cristes holy werk 340
And after þat telle I forþ my tales
Bulles of popes and of Cardinales.
Of Patriarkes and bischoppes I shewe.
And in latyn I speke a wordys fewe 344
To sauer wip my predicacioun
And for to stire men to denocioun
Than shewe I forþ my longe cristal stones <sup>[Def 310]</sup>
Yerommed ful of cloutes and of bones. 348 Relikes þei bene as wene men echot þan haue I in latoun a sholdere bone
Which þat was an holy Iwes shepe Good men say I take of my wordes kepe 352 þif þat þis boon be waschen in a welle þif kow or calf shepe or oxe swelle þat any worme hath ete or stonge
About þe herþ or ellis þe longe 356

Incipit fabula questoris.

LOrdynge quod he in cherches when .I. preche
.I. peyne me to haue an haunteine specha
Hereynge oute as rounde as goþs a bell
For .I. kan be rote þat .I. teil 332
My teeme is alweo one and euer was Radix omnium malorum est cupiditas first .I. pronounce wense þat .I. come 336
An[d] þan my billes schewe .I. al and somme Ouro liege lorde seal is my patent
þat schewe .I. first my body to warant
þat no man be so bolde preste ne clerke
Me to destorbe of cristes holy werke 340
And after þat tel .I. forþe my tales
Bulles of popes and of Cardinales
Of Patriarkes and of Bischopes .I. schewe
And in latine .I. speke wordes a fewe 344
To sauen wip my predicacioun
And for to stere men to denocioun þan schewe .I. forþe my longe cristal stones
Y-crammed ful of cloutes and of bones 348
Relikes þei buen as wene þei euerychon
Than haue .I. in latoun a scholdere bone
Which þat was an holy Iewes shepe Goodmen saie .I. takeþe of my wordes kepe 352
If þat þis bone be wasche in any welle
Of cowe or calfe shepe or oxe swelle þat worme haþe y-bite or y-stonge [Take watir of that welle and washe his <sup>r 214d 7535. l' 150
(not in Addit. 26, 719)</sup> toung] 356

And it is hool anon / and forthermore
 Of pokkes / and of scabbe / and euery soor
 Shal euery sheepe be hool / þat of this welle
 Drynkeþ a draughte / tak kepe eek what I telle
 ¶ If þat the goode man / that the bestes ovetþ Wol euery wyke / er that the Cok hym croueth fastyngs drinke / of this welle a draughte
 As thiñke hooly Iew / oure eldres taughte
 His bestes and his stoor shal multiplie
 ¶ And sire / also / it healeth Ialousie for thought a man / be falle in Ialous rage
 Lat maken / with this water his potage
 And neuere shal he moore / his wyf mystriste
 Though he the sooth / of hir defaute wiste Al had she / taken prestes / two or three ¶ Heere is a Miteyn eek / that ye may se
 He þat his hand wol putte in this Mitayn
 He shal haue / multiplinge of his grayn
 When he hath sowne / be it whete or Otes
 So þat he offre / pens / or elles grotas
 ¶ Goode men and women / o thyng warne I yow
 If any wight / be in this chirche now
 That hath doon synne horrible þat he Dar nat for shame / of it yshryuen be
 Or any woman / be she yong or old
 That hath ymaked / hir housbond Cokewold
 Swich folk shal haue no power ne no grace
 To offren / to my relikes in this place
 And who so fyndeth hym / out of swich blame
 They wol come vp / and offre on goddes name
 And I assolie hem / by the Auctoritee
 Which þat by bulle / ygraunted was to me
 ¶ By this gaude / haue I womne / yeer by yeer
 An hundred mark sith I was Pardoner
 I stonde lyk a clerk / in my pulpet
 And when the lewed peple / is down yset

And it is hool anon / and forthermore
 Of pokkes / and of Scabbe / and euery soor
 Shal euery sheepe be hool / þat of this welle
 Drynkeþ a draughte / tak kepe eek what I telle
 ¶ If þat the goode man / þat the bestes ovetþ Wol euery wyke / er þat the cok hym croueth fastyngs / drynken of this welle a draughte
 As thiñke holy Iew / oure eldres taghte
 His bestes and his stoor / shal multiplie
 And sire also / it healeth Ialousie for though a man / be falle in Ialous rage
 Lat maken with this water / his potage
 And neuere shal he moore / his wyf mystriste
 Thogh he the sooth / of hir defaute wiste
 Al hadde she / taken prestes / two or three ¶ Heere is a Miteyn eek / þat ye may se
 He þat his hand / wol putte / in this Mitayn
 He shal haue / multiplinge of his grayn
 When he hath sowne / be it whete or Otes
 So þat / he / offre pens / or elles grotas
 ¶ Goode men and women / o thyng warne I yow
 If any wight be in this chirche now
 That hath doon synne horrible / that he Dar nat for shame / of it yshryuen be
 Or any woman / be she yong or old
 That hath ymaked / hir housbond Cokewold
 Swich folk shal haue no power / ne no grace
 To offren to my Relikes / in this place
 And who so fyndeth hym / out of swich blame
 He wol come vp / and offre a goddes name
 And I assolie hym / by the auctoritee
 Which þat by bulle / ygraunted was to me
 ¶ By this gaude / haue I womne / yeer by yeer
 An hundred mark sith I was Pardoner
 I stonde lyk a Clerk / in my pulpet
 And when that lewed peple / is down yset

And it is hole a-none and ferthermore
 Of pokkes and of scabbe and of euery sore
 Shal euery shepe be hote þat of þis welle Drenkyth a draught / take hede what I telle 3if þat þe godeman þat þe bestes onte Wolle euery woole or þat / þe Cok / hym croueth / fastyngs drynke of þis welle a drauht /
 As þilke holy Iewe oure eldres taucht /
 His beestes and hys store shal multiplie
 And sires also it heleth Ielousey And þouye a man be fallen in a Telouae rage let maken with þis water / hys potage
 And neuere shal he hys wyf mystruste
 Thoug he be sothe of his defaute wyzte
 Al hadde she taken prestes two or three
 He ys a myteyne eke þat ye may se he þat hys honde wylle putte in his myteyne he shalle haue multipliyenge in his greyne
 When he hath sowne be it whete or Otes
 So þat / he bryngs me gode pans or elles grotas
 And men and women o þenge I warne you 3if / any wight / be in þis Chirche now þat / hath done synne horrible þat / he Dars not / for shame of it / shryuen be Or any woman be she yonge or olde þat / hath made hir / husbond Cokewolde Suche folke shal haue no power ne no grace
 To offere to my relikes in þis place
 And who fyndeth hym oute of suche blame
 They wol come vp and offre in goddes name
 And I assolie hym be the autorite
 Which þat by bulle is grauntid on-to me
 By this gaude haue I womne 3eer be 3eer
 An hundreded mark sythe I was pardounceer
 I stonde lyk a clerk in myn pulpet
 And when that the lewede peple is down I-set

[Ellesmere MS 1082]

360

[leaf 183, back]

364

368

372

376

380

384

[Ellesmere extract ends] [Cambridge MS 1082, leaf 201
ff. 4, 27, leaf 201]

388

392

And þiſ also I ſoꝛe forþermore
 Of pokkes of ſcabbes and of euery ſore Schal euery ſcheep be hool þat of þis welles Drinkþ a draught and take keep what I telle Wole euery wight er þat þe cok him crowep
 And do þing þat him oweþ
 Faſtynge drinke of þis welles a draught
 As þilke holy iweours oure eldres oure taught his beſtes and his ſtore ſchal multiplye
 And ſires also it heleþ Ielouſie
 And þei a man be falle in gelouſie rage
 Let make wiþ þis water his potage
 And neuer ſchal he more his wiþ myſtreſte þei he in ſoþe a defaulte by hire wiſte Al had ſche taken preſtes tuo or þre hee is a myteyn eek as þe may ſee (Deaf 106) he þat his hond wul putte in þat myteyn he ſchal haue multiplyyng of his greyn
 When he haþ ſowen be it whete or otes
 So þat of pens oþer elles of grotes
 And men and wommen o þing warne I þou
 If any wight be in þis church now That haþ don synne orrible þat he Dar nought for ſchame ſchreuen be
 Or any woman be ſche zong or olde þat haþ y-maad hire houſbonde cokewold
 Such folk ſchuln haue no power ne grace
 To offre to my relikes in þis place
 And who ſo findþ him out of ſuche blame
 þei wole come vp and offre in goddes name
 And I aſſoille him by þe auctorite
 Which þat by bulle was y-graunted me
 By þis gande haue I wounne euery zere
 An hundred mark ſepenes I was pardonere
 I ſtonde lik a clerk in many a pulpitte
 And ſchewe lewde people and down þei sette

It is hool anon and forþermore
 Of pokkes and of ſcabbe and of euery ſore Schal euery ſhepe be hool þat of þis welles Drynkeþ a draught take hede what I telle 360 þiſ þat þe good man þat þe beest oweþ Wil euery weke er þat þe Cok hym crowep
 faſtynge drinke of þis welles a draught
 364 As þilke holy Iweours oure eldres tauhte
 His beestees and his ſtoor ſhal multiplye
 And ſirs also it heleþ Ialouſie
 And þouþe a man be fallen in a Ialouſie rage
 Let maken wiþ þis water his potage 368 And neuer ſchal he [more] his wiſ myſtrust þouþe he þe ſoþ of hire defaulte wost Al had ſche taken preſtes twoyn or þre
 Here is a myten eek þat þe may ſee
 He þat his honde wil putte in þis myteyn
 He ſhal haue multiplyyng of his greyn
 When he haþ ſowen be it whete or otyſ 376 So þat he bringe me good þans or ellis grotys.
 And men and wommen o þing warne þouwe þiſ any wight be in þis church now þat haþ don euery horrible [so] þat he 380 Dar not for ſchame of it ſhryuen be
 Or any woman be ſche zong or olde
 That haþ made hir houſbonde Cokwold
 Suche folk ſhal haue no power ne no grace
 384 To offre to my relikes in þis place.
 And who ſo findþ hym out of ſuche blame
 Thei wil come vp and offre in goddis name
 And I aſſoille hym by þe auctorite 388 Suche as by bulle was graunted to me
 By þis gande haue I wounne euery zere
 An .C. Mark ſepens I was pardonere.
 I ſtonde like a clerk in my pulpitte 392 And ſchewe lewde puples synne yette

Touche þe þis bone anon he ſchal be ſounde
 And þiſ also forþermore: of pokkes & ſcabbes & of euery ſore.
 Schal euery ſchep be hool þat of þis wel
 360 Drenkeþ a draught of takeþ kepe what .I. telle 360 Wil euery wight er þat þe cok him crowep
 And doþe þinge þat him oweþ
 faſtynge drinke of þis welles a draught
 364 And þilke holy Ieweours oure helders oure tauht
 His beſtes and his ſtore ſchal multepiis
 And ſires also it heleþ Ielouſye (Deaf 174)
 And þouþe a man be fal in Ielouſie rage
 Let make wiþ þis water his potage
 368 And neuer ſchal he more his wiſ meſtruste þouþe he þe ſoþe a defaulte by hire wiſte Al hadde ſche taken preſtes tueryne or þre 372 Here is a Metaine eek þe maye ſee 372 He þat his honde wil put in þat Metaine
 He ſchalt haue multiþlyng of his greine
 When he haþe ſowen be it whete or otes 376 So þat of pens oþer of grotes
 And men and wommen o þing warn .I. þouwe 376 If any wight be in þis cherche now þat haþ done sinne orrible þat he 380 Dare nought for] ſchame ſchreuen be Or any woman be ſche zonge or olde þat haþ ymaad hir houſbonde cokwolde Suche folke ſchal haue no powers ne grace 384 To offer to my relikes in þis place
 And who ſo findþ him out of ſuche blame
 þei wil come vp and offer in goddes name
 And .I. aſſoille him be þe auctorite 388 Suche as be bul was graunted me
 Be þis Gande haue .I. wounne euery zere
 An .C. mark ſepens .I. was pardonere
 .I. ſtonde like a clerk in mony a pulpitte 392 And ſchewe þe lewde people and downe þei ſitt

316 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 3. PARDONER'S PREAMBLE. Ellesmere MS.

I preche so / as ye han herd bifore
 And telle / an hundred false Iapes moore
 Thanne payne I me / to steeche forth the nekke
 And Est and West vp-on the peple I bekke
 As dooth a dowus / sittinge / on a berne
 Myne handes and my tonge goon so yerne
 That it is ioye / to so my biaynesse
 Of Auarice / and of swich cursednesse
 Is al my prechyng<sup>g</sup> for to make hem free
 To yeven hir pens / and namely vn-to me
 ffor myn entente / is nat but for to wynne
 And no thyng<sup>g</sup> for correcciō of synne
 I rekke neuere / whan they been beryed
 Though þat hir soules / goon a blakeberyed
 ffor certes / many a predicaciō
 Comth ofte tyme / of yuel entencion
 Som for plesance of folk / and flattery
 To been auanced / by ypocryse
 And som for veyne glorie / and som for hate
 ffor whan I dar noon oother wayes debate
 Thanne wol I styng hym / with my tonge smerte
 In prechyng / so that he schal nat asterie
 To been defamed falsly / if that he <sup>9</sup> Hath trespased / to my bretheren / or to me
 ffor though I telle nougt / his propre name
 Men schal wol knowe / that it is the same
 By signes / and by othere circumstaunces
 Thus quyte I folk<sup>g</sup> that doon vs displeaunces
 Thus spite I out myn venym / vnder hewe
 Of holynesse / to seemn holy and trewe
 ¶ But shortly myn entente I wol deuyse
 I preche of no thyng<sup>g</sup> but for couetyse Therefore / my theme is yet<sup>9</sup> and euere was Radix malorum est Cupiditas
 Thus kan I preche / agayn that same vice
 Which þat I vse / and that is Auarice

ELLESMERE (9-T. 316)

316 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 3. PARDONER'S PREAMBLE. Hengwrt MS.

I preche so / as ye han herd bifore
 And telle / an hundred false Iapes moore
 Thanne payne I me / to steeche forth the nekke
 And Est and west vp-on the peple I bekke
 As dooth a dowus / sittinge on a berne
 Myne handes / and my tonge goon so yerne
 That it is ioye / to so my biaynesse
 Of Auarice / and of swich cursednesse
 Is al my prechyng<sup>g</sup> for to make hem free
 To yeven hir pens / and namely vn-to me
 ffor myn entente is nat but for to wynne
 And no thyng<sup>g</sup> for correcciō of synne
 I rekke neuere / whan þat they been beryed
 Though þat hir soules / goon a blakeberyed
 ffor certes / many a predicaciō
 Comth ofte tyme / of yuel entencion
 ¶ Som for plesance of folk<sup>g</sup> and flattery
 To been auanced / by ypocrysie
 And som for veyne glorie / and som for hate
 ffor whan I dar / noon oother wayes debate
 Thanne wol I styng hym / with my tonge smerte
 In prechyng<sup>g</sup> so þat he schal nat asterie To been difamed falsly / if þat he Hath trespased / to my bretheren / or to me
 ffor though I telle nougt his propre name
 Men schal wol knowe / that it is the same
 By signes / and by othere circumstaunces
 Thus quyte I folk<sup>g</sup> that doon vs displeaunces
 Thus spete I out myn venym vnder hewe
 Of holynesse / to seemn holy and trewe
 But shortly / myn entente I wol deuyse
 I preche of no thyng<sup>g</sup> but for couetyse Therfore my theme is yet<sup>9</sup> and euere was Radix malorum / est Cupiditas
 ¶ Thus kan I preche / agayn that same vice
 Which þat I vse / and that is Auarice

HENGWRT (6-T. 316)

316 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 3. PARDONER'S PREAMBLE. Cambridge MS.

I preche so as þe han herd by-fore
 And telle an hundredo false Iapis moore
 Thanne payne I me to steeche forth myn nekke
 And est & west vp-on the peple I bakke
 As doth a dounes syttinge on a berne
 Myne handys & myn tunge goon so yerne
 That it is loye to se myn bynesness
 Of auarice & of swich cursedness
 Is al myn prechyng for to makyn hem fre
 To zeuyn here penyis & nameli on-to me ffor myn entent is not but for to wynne
 And no thyng for correcciō of synne
 I rekke neuere whanne that they been beryed Thow this<sup>9</sup> here soules goon a blakeberyed ffor certis manye a predicaciō Comyth ofte of euile entencion
 Some for plesance of folk & flattery
 To been a-uauced be ypocrysie
 And some for veynglorie & some for hate
 And whanne I dar non othere woyis debate
 Thanne wile I styng me with myn tunge smerte
 In prechyngs so that I schal nat a-sterie
 To been defamyd falsly that he Hath trespased to myne brothir or to me ffor thow I telle nat his proper name Men schal wol knowe þat it is the same
 By sygnys & be othere circumstauncis
 Thus quyte I folk that don vs displeauncis
 Thus spite I out myn venym vndyr hewe
 Of holynesse to seemyn holy & trewe
 But shortly myn entent I wol deuyse
 I preche of no thyng but of couetyse Therefore myn teme is jit & euere was
 Radix malorum est cupiditas
 Thus can I preche a-gein the same vice Which that I vse & that is auarice

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 316)

I preche so as þe haue herd byfore
 And telle an hundred Iapes more / þenne payne I me to streche forþ my nekke
 And Est' and west' vpon þe people I bekke
 As dop a dowse sitting' vpon a berne myn hondes and my tonge gon so þenne þat it is ioye to se my bysnesse
 Of auarice and such oþer cursednes
 Is al my prechinge to make hem fre
 To geue here pans and namely vnto me for myn entent' is nouȝt' but' for to wynne
 And noȝing' for correccion of synne
 I rekke neuer whan þat' þei bene buried þougȝ þat' here soules gon a blake beryed for certes many a predicaciō Sowneþ ofte tyme of yuel intencion (leaf 196, back) Somme for plesance of folk' and for flaterie
 To ben aunsed by ypocresye And somme for veynȝlorie and somme for hate / for whan I dar nouȝt' oþerwise debate þanne wil I styngne hem with my tonge smerte
 In prechings so þat' þei schal nouȝt' asterte
 To be defamed falsly if þat he hap trespassed to my breþeren oþer to me for þougȝ I telle nouȝt' his propre name Men schal yuel knowe þat' it is þe same By symony and by oþer circumstaunces þus quyte I folk' þat' dop vs displeaunces þus spitte I out my venym vnder hewe
 Of holynesse to seme holy and trewe
 But' shortly myn entent' I wil deuyse
 I preche of no þing' but' of couetyse þerfore my teeme is ȝit' and euer was
 Radix malorum est cupiditas /
 Thus gan I preche aȝains þe same vice Such þat' I see and þat' is auarice

I preche so as I haue lered by-fore
 And telle an hundred Iapes more .
 Than peyne I me to streche forþ þe necke
 And est' and west' vpon þe puple I bekke
 As dop a dowse sitting' vpon a berne Myne hondes and my tunge gou ful þerne þat' it is ioye to see my bysnesse
 Of auarice and suche cursednesse .
 Is al my prechinge for to make hem free To geue her pans and namely vnto me for myn entent' is nat' but' forto wynne
 And noȝing' for correccion of synne
 I rekke neuere whan þat' þei bene buried þougȝ þat' her saules goo a blakburied .
 for certes mony a predicaciō Commeþ ofte tyme of euil entencion
 Somme of plesance of folk' and of flaterye
 To bene aunsed by ypocresie And somme for veynȝlorie and for hate for whan I dar nat' oþer waies debate
 Than wil I styngne hem wiþ my tunge smerte
 In prechings so that' he shal not' sterte To bene defamed falsly so þat' he hap trespassed to my breþeren or to me for þougȝ I telle nat' his propre name Men shal wel knowe þat' it is þe same
 By somme sigus and oþer circumstaunces
 Thus smyte I folk' þat' don vs displeaunces .
 Thus spitte I out my venyme vnder hwe
 Of holynesse to semen holy and trewe
 But' shortly myne entent' I wil devise . /
 I preche of no þing' but' of Couetyse . /
 þerfore my teeme is ȝit' and euer was Radix omniaum malorum est cupiditas Thus can I preche aȝains þe same vice Whichi þat' I see and þat' is Auarice

.I. prechs so as þe haue herde be-fore
 And tel an hundreþ Iapes more Than peyne .I. me to streche forþe my nekke
 And est and west upon þe peple .I. bekke
 As doþe a doue sittinge vpon a berne
 For myne entent is nouht bot for to wyne
 And no þinge for correccion of sinne
 .I. roke neuer whan þat þei be buried þougȝ þat here soules gone a blakburied
 For certes mony a predigicōne
 Souneþ oft time of yuel entencion [Somme for plesance of folk' and for flaterie (AASH. 23.718, col. 1754)
 To ben aunsed for ypocresye
 And somme for veynȝlorie and somme for hate (leaf 51, back) for whan I dar nouht oother weys de-bate Thenne wolly styngne him with my tunge smert
 I preching and that he shal nouht astert To ben defamed falsly if that he Hath trespassed to myn britheren other to me for though I telle nought his propre name Men shal wel knowe that hit is the same Bothe by seignes and oother circumstaunces
 Thus . rule I folk' that doth vs displeaunces
 Thus spitte I myn venym vnder hewe
 Of holynesse to seme holy and trewe
 But shortly myn entent wot I deuyse
 I' preche of no thing' but' of Couetyse (? 7 MS 40) Ther-fore my temo is ȝet and euer was
 Radix malorum est cupiditas
 Thus kan I preche aȝains that same vice] (AASH. MS. correctatops)
 Suche þat .I. see and þat is of auarice (leaf 176, back)

But though my self/ be gilti in that synne
 Yet kan I maken / oother folk to twynne from Auarice / and soore to repente
 But that is nat/ my principal entente
 I preche no thyng/ but for coueitise
 Of this matere / it oghte ynogh suffise
 ¶ Thanne telle I hem / ensamples many oon
 Of olde stories / longe tyme agoon
 for lewed peple / louen tales olde Swiche thynges / kan they wel reporte and holde
 What trowe ye / the whiles I may preche
 And wyne / gold and siluer / for I teche
 That I wol lye in pouerte wilfully
 Nay nay / I thoughte it neuere trowely
 for I wol preche / and begge in sondry landes
 I wol nat do no labour / with myne handes
 No make baskettes / and lye thereby
 By cause / I wol nat beggen ydelly
 I wole none / of the Apostiles countrefete
 I wol haue monie / wolle chese and whete
 Al were it yeuen / of the pouereste page
 Or of the pouereste wydwe / in a village
 Al sholde hir children sterue / for famyne
 Nay / I wol drynke / licour of the vyne
 And haue a ioly wenche / in enery toun
 But herkneth lordynges in conclusioun
 ¶ Your lykynge is / that I shal telle a tale
 Now / haue I dronke a draughte of corny ale
 By god / I hope / I shal yow telle a thyng
 That shal by reson / been at youre lykynge
 for though my self be a ful vicious man
 A moral tale / yet I yow telle kan
 Which I am wont to preche / for to wyne
 Now holde youre pees / my tale I wol bigynne

But though my self be gilti in that synne
 Yet kan I make / oother folk to twynne
 from Auarice / and soore to repente
 432 But that is nat my principal entente
 I preche no thyng/ but for coueitise
 Of this matere / it oghte ynow suffise
 ¶ Thanne telle I hem / ensamples many oon
 436 Of olde stories / longe tyme agoon
 for lewed peple / louen tales olde Swiche thynges / kan they wel reporte & holde
 What trowe ye / þat whiles I may preche
 440 And wyne / gold and siluer / for I teche
 That I wol lye in pouerte / wilfully
 Nay nay / I thoughte it neuere trowely
 for I wol preche / and begge / in sondry landes
 444 I wol nat do no labour / with myne handes
 No make baskettes / and lye ther by
 By cause / I wol nat beggen ydelly
 I wole none of the Apostiles countrefete
 448 I wol haue monye / wolle / chese / and whete Al were it yeuen / of the pouerest page
 Or of the pouereste widwe / in a Village
 Al sholde hir children / sterue for famyne
 452 Nay I wol drynke / licour of the vyne
 And haue a ioly wenche / in enery toun
 But herkneth lordynges / in conclusioun
 Your lykynge is / þat I shal telle a tale
 456 Now haue I dronke / a draughte of corny Ale
 By god I hope / I shal yow telle a thyng
 That shal by reson / been at youre lykynge
 for though my self be / a ful vicious man
 460 A moral tale / yet I yow telle kan
 Which I am wont to preche / for to wyne
 Now holde youre pees / my tale I wol bigynne

But thou myn self be gilti in that synne þit kan I make oother folk to twynne from auerice & soore to repente 432 But that is nat myn principl entente
 I preche no thyng but for coueytise
 Of this matire it ouste I-nogh suffise Thanne telle I hem ensamples many on 436 Of olde storyis long tyme a goon for lewede peple louyn talys olde Sweche thyngis can they wel reporte & holde
 What trowe 3e that whilis thit I may preche 440 And wyne gold & syluwr for I teche
 That I wole lye in pouerte wilfully Nay nay I thouste it neuere trowely for I wole preche & begge in sundry landis 444 I wole don no labour with mynne handys
 No make basketys & lye therby
 By cause I wole nat beggan ydely
 I wole none of the apostolys countryfete 448 I wole haue monye / wolle / chese / & wheete
 Al were it 3oun of the poureste page
 Or of the poureste wedow in a village
 Al schilde hire chylderyn sterue for famyne 452 Nay I wole drynke licour of the 3 vyne
 And haue a ioly wenche in enery toun
 But herkenyth lordynges in conclusioun 3ours lykynge is that I schal telle a tale 456 Now haue I dronke a draught of corny ale
 By god I hope I schal 3owe telle a thyng That schal be reson been at 3oure lykynge for thouw myn self be a ful vicious man 460 A moral tale þit I 3ow telle can Which I am wonst to preche for to wyne
 Now holde 3oure pes myn tale I wole begynne

That pough I my self be guilty in þat synne 3it kan I make oþer folk' for to wyinne * from auarice and sore to repente
 But þat nys nought my principal entente
 I preche no þing' but' for counseiles Of þis matiero I ought ynough suffise þenne telle I of ensamples many on
 Of olde stories longo tyme ago for lewde people louen tales olde Whiche þinges can þey wel reporte and holde
 What trowe 3e whiles þat I may preche
 And wyne gold and siluer for I teche
 That I wol lyue in pouert' wilfully Nay nay I þought' it neuer trewely
 for I wol preche and begge in sondry landes for I wole do no labour wif myn handes (near 171)
 And make basketes and lyue þerby
 By cause I wol not' beggen ydelly
 I wole none of þe apostelas countrefete
 I wole haue money chese and whete
 Al were it 3even of þe poorest' page
 Oþer of þe poorest' wydewe in a village
 Al scholde here children sturue for famyne
 Nay I wil drynke þe likour of þe wyne
 And haue a Ioly wenche in euery toun
 But herkenef lordynges in conclusion
 3oure liking' is þat I schal telle a tale
 Now I haue drunke a draught' of corny ale
 By god I hope I schal telle 3ou a þing' þat schal by reson ben at 3our liking' for þough my selue be a vicious man
 A more-ille tale 3it I 3ou telle can Which I am won't to preche for to wyinne
 Now holde 3oure pees my tale I wol begynne

But þouge my self be giltif in þat synne .
 3it can I make oþer folk' to wyinne from auarice and soor hem repent
 But þat nys not' my principal entent' 432
 I preche nat' but' for counseiles
 Of þis matere it' onyþ' ynowe suffise
 Than telle I hem ensamples mony oof
 Of olde stories longo tyme ago for lewde puple louen tales olde whiche þingges þei come report and hold'
 What trow 3e þe whiles I may preche
 And wyne gold and siluere forto teche 440 þat I wil lyue in pouert' wilfully Nay nay I þougt' it' neuero trewely .
 for I wil preche and begge in sondry landys for I wole do no labour wif myn handes .
 Ne make basketes for to lyue þer-by Because I wil not' lyuen ydelly
 I wil none of þe apostelas countrefete
 I wil haue money . mal't chese and whole 448
 Al were it 3even of þe poorest' page
 Eyþer of þe poorest' wydowe in a vilago
 Al schulde her children sturue or famyne
 And I wil drink þe licourest' of þe wyne 452
 And haue a ioly wenche in ouery tounne
 But herkenef lordes in conclusion
 3oure liking' is þat I schal telle a tale
 Now haue I drenken . a drauþt' of corny ale 456
 By god I hope I schal tel 3ou a þing' þat schal of reson be at 3oure liking' for þouge my self be a vicious man
 I morale tale 3it I 3ou telle can . 460
 Whiche James went to preche forto wyinne . (near 171, back)
 Now holdeþ 3oure pees my tale I wil bygyne .

Bot þeihe .I. me self be gille in þat synne 3it kanne .I. maake oþer folke to wyinne Fromme auarice and sore to repeat Bot þat nes nought myn principal entent 432
 .I. precha.no þingge bot for Counseie Of þis matiere it ouyþe ynowe suffise þan tel .I. of ensamples many one Of Olde stories longe time agone 436
 For lewde peple louen tales olde Whiche þinges can þei wole reporte and holde
 What trowe 3e whiles þat .I. maie preche
 And wyne gold and siluer for .I. teche 440 þat .I. wil leue in pouert' wilfully Nay . may .I. þonht it neuer treulye for .I. preche and begge in eundro landes
 .I. wil nouht do no labour wif myn handes 444
 An[d] make basketes and leue þere-bye
 Be-cause .I. wil nouht bigge ydelye
 .I. wil none of þe aposteles countrefete
 .I. wil haue mony chese and whete 448
 Al were it 3even of þe poorest' page
 Eyþer of þe pourest' wedowe in a village
 Al schold hir childrene sturue for famyne
 Nay .I. wil drynke þe lycouere of þe vine 452
 And haue a Ioly wenche in euerych tounne
 Bot herkenef lordynges in conclusion
 3oure lykings is þat .I. schal tel a tale Nowe .I. haue dro[n]ke a draughte of Corne ale 456 Be god .I. hope .I. schal tel 3oue a þingge þat schal be reson biene at 3oure lykings for þouhe my self be a ful vicious man
 A more-ill tale 3it .I. 3ouwe telle can 460
 Whiche .I. am won't to preche for to wyinne
 Now holde 3oure pees my tale .I. wil beginne .

[no break in the MS.]

¶ Here bigynneth the Pardoner's tale <sup>(D)</sup>
(on leaf 140)

IN flaudres whilom was a compaignye
Of yonge folk that haunted folye 464
As Riot hasard / stywes / and Tauernes
Where / as / with harpes / lutes and Gyternes
They daunce / and playen at dees / bothe day and nyght
And eten also / and drynken ouer hir myght / 468
Thurgh which / they doon the deul sacrifice
With-Inne that deueles temple in cursed wyse
By superfluytes abhomyuable
Hir othes / been so grete and so dampnable 472
That it is grisly / for to here hem swere
Oure blissed lordes body / they to-tere
Hem thoughte / þat lewes / rente hym noght ynough
And ech of hem / at others synne lough 476
And right anon / thanne comen Tombesteres
fitys and emale / and yonge frutesteres
Syngeres with harpes / Baudes / wafceres
Whiche been / the verray deueles Officeres 480
To kyndle and blowe / the fyr of lecherye
That is annexed vn-to glotonye
The hooly writ take I to my witnesse
That luxurie / is in wyn and dronkenesse 484
Lo how þat drunken Looth vnkyndely ¶ ¶ Nolle habetart vnde in quo est hacten
Lay by hiee doghters two vnwityngly
So dronke he was / he nyste what he wroghte
¶ Herodes / who so / wel the stories soglite 488

[H]ere bigynneth / the Pardoner's tale <sup>(D)</sup>

IN flaudres / whilom was a compaignye (leaf 140, back)
Of yonge folk that haunted folye 464
As Riot hasard / Stewes / and Tauernes
Where as with harpes / lutes / and gyternes
They daunce / and playen at dees / bothe day & nyght
And ete also and drynke / ouer hir myght 468
Thurgh which / they doon the deul sacrifice
With-Inne that deueles temple / in cursed wyse
By superfluyte / abhomyuable
Hir othes been so grete / and so dampnable 472
That it is grisly / for to here hem swere
Oure blissed lordes body / they to-tere
Hem thoughte / that lewes / rente hym noght ynough
And ech of hem / at others synne lough 476
And right anon / thanne comen Tombesteres
fitys and emale / and yonge frutesteres
Syngaris with harpes / Baudes / waufereres
Whiche been / the verray deueles Officeres 480
To kyndle and blowe / the fyr of lecherye
That is annexed vn-to glotonye
The holy writ take I / to my witnesse
That luxurie / is in wyn / and dronkenesse
¶ Lo how þat drunken loth / vnkyndely Lay by his doghters two / vnwityngly
So dronke he was / he nyste what he wroghte
Herodes / who so wel the stories soghte 488

(Painting of the Pardoner.)

(leaf 100)

Here begynneth the Pardowner his tale

(¶ The 1. rune the length of the page)

IN flaudres whilom dwellete a compaignye
Of yonge folk that hauntedyn folye 464
As ryot hasard stewys & tsuernes
Where as with harpys lutes & geternys
They daunce & playe at deis bothe day & nyght
And ete & drynke also ouyr here myst 468
Thoure whiche they don the deuyll sacrifice
With-inne that deuyll temple in<sup>2</sup> cursede wyse (C-→ correct)
By superfluyte / abominable
Here othis been so greet & so dampnable 472
That it is greesly for to here hem swere
Oure blyssede lordis body they to-tere
Hem thouzht that Iewis rente hym not I-nough
And eche of hem at others synne lough 476
And thanne ryzt anon / comyn Tumbesteris fityse & smale & yngre frutesteris Syngaris with harpis / Baudis wafceris 479
Whiche been / the werray deuill offiserys<sup>3</sup>
To kyndle & blowe the fyr of lecherye (leaf 100, back)
That is annexed on-to Glotonye
The hooly writ take I to witnesse
That luxurie is in wyn & dronkenesse 484
Lo how that dronkyn looth vnkyndely
Lay by his doghters two on-wityngely
So dronke he was he nyste what he wrouyte
Herodes who so wel the storyis souzte 488

IN flaudres whilom was a companye /
 Of yonge folk<sup>1</sup> þat<sup>2</sup> hausteden folye
 As Ryot<sup>3</sup> hasard stewes and tauerne <sup>1</sup>Where as whyþ harpes lutes and gyternes<sup>4</sup> [<sup>1-2</sup> in a different hand.]
 They daunce and pleye at dysse boþe day and nyght<sup>5</sup>
 And eten also and drunken ouer al here might<sup>6</sup> þorgh which þoy doon þe deuels sacrifise Wijþinne þe deuels temple in cursed wyse þe Superflues abhominable here oþes ben so grete and dampna[bl]e / þat it is grisly for to here hem swere Oure blessed lordes body they to-tere hem þoughte Iowes rent/ him nouglt ynoughi
 And like of hem at oþer synnes lowh
 And right anon þenne come tomblesters ffetys and smal yonge fruytsters Syngers with harpes hawdes wafures
 Suche ben verray þe deuels officers [<sup>157</sup> back] 460
 To kyndle and blowe þe fyr of lecherie /
 That is annexed to glotonye /
 The holy writ take I to witnessse / ¶ Uolite iudicari p̄t̄o iu
 That lecherie is in wyne and drunkenesse ¶ quo est iudicari Lo how þat drunken loth vnkindely 465 lay by his doughtes tuo vnwetyngly
 So drunke he was he nyste what he wrought<sup>7</sup>
 And þerfore sore repente him ouhte [<sup>158</sup> verso] 487b herodes who so wole þe stories seche 488 þer may ȝe leme and by ensample teche [<sup>159</sup> verso] 488b
 CORPUS (6-T. 318)

IN flaudres whilom was a companye [<sup>157</sup> back] 464
 Of yonge folk þat<sup>2</sup> hausted folye 464
 As hasard Riou<sup>3</sup> / stewes. and tauerne .
 Harpes. Rubibes . lutes and giterne .
 þei dauncon and pleyen at þe dys nyg<sup>4</sup> and day and Eten also ouer þat her myg<sup>5</sup> may 468 Thorgh whiche þei do þe deuul sacrificise Wij-in þe deuels temple in sondry wise
 By Superfluite abhominable
 Her oþes bene so grete and dampnable 472
 þat it is grisly forto here hem swere
 Oure blessed lordys body þei to-tere
 Hem þoug<sup>6</sup> þe Iwes mnt hym nat ynouwe
 And ilk of hem at oþer synne lowe 476
 And right anon comen Inne þan tomblesters ffetys and smale and yonge fruters Syngers wij<sup>7</sup> harpes . hawdes and waiters Suche bene verray þe deuels officers. 480
 To kyndel and blowe þe fyre of lecherie
 That is annexed [vn]to glotonye
 The holy writ take I to witnessse þat lecherie is in wyne and dronkness 484 ¶ Lo howe þat drunken loth vnkindely ¶ Uolite iudicari vno in quo est iudicari
 Lay by his doughtes tuo vnwityngly
 So dronken he was he nyste what he wrought<sup>8</sup>
 Herodes who so hap þe stories soug<sup>9</sup> 488
 [ . . . . . ]
 . . . . . no spurious lines in this MS.]
 PETWORTH (6-T. 318)

[<sup>1</sup> Addit. 25,718 reads "And suche oother diuers mischaunce", in/755]

IN flaudres whilom was a compaignie
 Of yonge folke þat hawten folye 464
 As Riott . Hasard . stewes . and tauerne [Where as with harpes lutes and gyternes] [<sup>157</sup> verso, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000] þei daunce and pleie and dise boþe daie and nyght 468
 And eten and drenke al-so ouer al here myht Thorthwe whiche þei done þe deuul sacrificise
 Wijþ-inne þe deuels temple in cursed wyse
 The superflues abhomyable [<sup>157</sup> verso] 472
 Here oþes bene so grete and dampnable 472
 þat it is grisly for to here hem swere
 Oure blissed lordes body þei to-tere
 Hem þouht . Iowes rent him nouht ynough
 And yche of hem att oþer sinnes lowhe 476
 And riht anon þan came tomblesters ffetis and smal and yonge fruytsters Singers wij<sup>7</sup> harpes bawdes wafures
 Suche bien þe deuul officers 480
 To kende and blowe þe fire of lychery
 That is annexed to glotonye þe holy writte take I. to witnessse þat lycherie is in wyne and dronkenesse 484
 Lo howe þat drunken lothe vnkindely
 Lay by his doughtes tuo vnwetynglye
 So dronke he was he nest what he wrouht
 And þerfore sore repent him ouhte [<sup>158</sup> verso] 487b Herodes who so wil þe story seche 488 þere maie ȝe leren and be ensample teche [<sup>159</sup> verso] 488b
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 318)

Whan he of wyn / was replest at his feste 489
 Right at his owene table / he yaf his beste
 To slen the Baptist Iohn / ful gilteles
 ¶ Senec seith a good word doutlees ¶ Smery 492
 He seith / he kan no difference fynde [leaf 16r, b6r]
 Bitwix a man / that is out of his mynde
 And a man / which that is dronkelewe
 But that wodnesse / fallen in a shrew Perseuereth longer / than dooth dronkenesse
 O glotonye / ful of cursednesse
 O cause first of oure confusion
 O original / of oure dampnacion 500
 Til Crist hadde boght vs / with his blood agayn
 Lo / how deere / shortly for to sayn
 Aboght was / thilke cursed vileynye
 Corrupt was al this world for glotonye 504 ¶ Adam oure fader / and his wyf also firo Paradys / to labour and to wo
 Were dryuen for that vice / it is no drede 507
 ffor whil þat Adam fasted / as I rede
 He was in Paradys / and whan þat he Eet of the fruyt / defended on the tree
 Anon he was out cast to wo and peyne
 O glotonye / on thes wel oghte vs pleyne 512
 O wiste a man / how manye maladyes
 flouen of excessse / and of glotonyes
 He wolde been / the moore mesurable
 Of his diete / sittinge at his table 516
 Alias the shorte throte / the tendre mouth
 Maketh þat Est and West and North and South
 In Erthe / in Air / in water / man to swynke
 To gete a gloton / deyntee mete and drynke 520
 Of this matere / o Paul wel kanstow trete
 Mete vn-to wombe / and wombe eek vn-to mete ¶ Eten ventri Shal god destroyen bothe / as Paulus seith. [et ventri & hiepi Alias / a foul thyng is it / by my feith 524 & hiepi destruet]

Whan he of wyn was replet at his feste 489
 Right at his owene table / he yaf his beste
 To slen the Baptist Iohn / ful gilteles
 Senec seith a good word doutlees 492
 ¶ He seith / he kan no difference fynde ¶ Noie
 Bitwix a man / that is out of his mynde
 And a man / which þat is dronkelewe
 But that wodnesse / yfallen in a shrew
 Perseuereth longer / than dooth dronkenesse 496
 O glotonye / ful of cursednesse
 O cause first of oure confusion
 O original / of oure dampnacion 500
 Til Crist hadde boght vs / with his blood agayn
 Lo how deere / shortly for to sayn
 Aboght was / thilke cursed vileynye [leaf 16r]
 Corrupt was al this world for glotonye 504
 Adam oure fader / and his wyf also
 firo Paradys / to labour and to wo
 Were dryuen for that vice / it is no drede 508
 ffor whil þat Adam fasted / as I rede
 He was in Paradys / and whan þat he Eet of the frut / defended on the tree
 Anon he was out cast to wo and peyne
 O glotonye / on thes wel oghte vs pleyne 512
 ¶ O wiste a man / how manye maladies
 flouen of excessse / and of glotonyes
 He wolde been / the moore mesurable
 Of his diete / sittinge at his table 516
 Alias the shorte throte / the tendre mouth
 Maketh / þat Est and West and North and South
 In erthe / in Air / in Water / men to swynke
 To gete a gloton / deyntee mete and drynke 520
 Of this matere / o Paul / wel kanstow trete
 Mete vn-to wombe / and wombe eek vn-to mete Shal god destroyen bothe / as Paulus seith Alias a foul thyng is it / by my feith 524

Whan he of wyn was replet at his feste 489
 Ryght at his owene table he yaf his beste
 To slen the Baptist Iohn ful gilteles
 Senec seith a good word doutlees Seneca. 492
 He seith he can no difference fynde
 By-twix the man that is out of his mynde
 And a man which that is dronkelewe
 But that wodnesse I-fallen in a shrew
 Perseuereth longer than dooth dronkenesse
 O glotonye ful of cursednesse
 O cause first of oure confusion
 O original of oure dampnacion 500
 Til Crist hadde bouyt vs with his blod a-geyn Lo how deere shortly for to seyn
 Aboghte was thilke curseda vilanye
 Corrupt was althis world for glotonye 504
 Adam oure fadyr & his wif also ffrom paradys to labour & to wo Were dreuyn for that vice it is no drede 508 ffor whil that adam fasted as I rede
 He was in paradys / & thil that he Eet of the frut defogit of the tre
 A-nou he was out cast to wo & pyne
 O glotonye on the / wel oghte vs pleyne 512
 O wiste a man how manye maladyis flouewyn of exces & of glotenyis [f. a. d. 1000]
 He wolde been the moore mesurable
 Of his dyete syttyng at his table 516
 Alias the schorte throte the tendere mouth
 Makyth that est & west & north & South
 In erthe in Air / in watyr men to swynke [leaf 16r]
 To gete a gloton / deinte mete & drynks
 Of this matere / O paul wel canst thou trete
 Mete on-to wombe / & wombe eek vn-to mpte Schal god destroyen / bothe as paul seyth
 Alias a foul thyng is it / be myn feith 524

Whan he of wyn was repleat at his feste;
 Right at his owen table þat his heste
 To slean þe Baptist<sup>1</sup> Iohan ful gileteles Senek<sup>2</sup> saip eke gode wordes douteles
 he seip he can no differenc<sup>3</sup> fynde Bitwix a man þat is out of his mynde
 And a man þat is drunkelewe
 But þat wodnesse is fallen in a schrewe
 Perseuerer<sup>4</sup> langer þan doþ drunkenesse
 O gloteny ful of cursednesse
 O cause first of oure confusion
 O original of oure dampnacion
 Til crist hadde brought<sup>5</sup> out wij his blood agayn to how dere and schortly was to sayn
 Aboute was þe cursed vilanyo /
 Corrupte was al þis world jurgi glotenyo
 Adam oure fader and his wyf also fro paradys to labour and to wo Were dryuen for þat vice it nya no drede for whiles þat adam fasted as I rede
 He was in paradys and whan þat hee /
 Ete of þe fruyte defended on a tre
 Anon he was out east to woo and playne
 O gloteny on þe wel ougte our pleigne
 O wiste a man how many maladyes folweþ of excessse and of glotenyas he schulde be þe more mesurable
 Of his diete sitting<sup>6</sup> at þe table
 Alas þe schortte prote þe tendre mouþe Makeþ þat Est and West north and souþ
 In erþe in aier in water men to swynke /
 To gete a gloton mete and drynke
 Of þis matiere o poule wel canst þou entrete
 Mete vnto wombe and wombe eke vnto meto
 Schal god districte boþ as poule saip Alas a foul þing is it by myn saip /

whan he of wyne was replete at his feast Right at his owne table þat his heest
 To slean þe baptist<sup>1</sup> Iohn ful gileteles Senec<sup>2</sup> saip a good word douteles.
 He seip he can no differenc<sup>3</sup> fynde
 Betwix a man þat is out of his mynde
 And a man þat is drunkelewe
 But þat wodenesse is fallen in a schrewe
 Perseuerer<sup>4</sup> langer þan doþ drunkenesse
 O gloteny ful of Cursednesse.
 O cause first of our confusion
 Original of our dampnacion
 Til crist had bougt<sup>5</sup> vs wij his blood agayn Lo how dere shortly forto sayne
 Aboute was þe Cursed vilanyo
 Corrupte was as þis world þergh glotenyo Adam oure fadere and his wif also from paradys to labour and to woo Were driven for þat vice it is no drede
 for whiles þat adam fasted as I rede
 He was in paradys and whan þat hee
 Ete of þe fruyte defended on þe tree
 Anon he was out east to woo & peyne
 O gloteny on þe wel out to playne
 O wist a man how many maladyes
 folweþ of excessse and of glotenyas
 He wolde bene þe more mesurable
 Of his diete sitting<sup>6</sup> at his table
 Alas þe short prote þe tender mouþe Makeþ þat Est and West norþe & souþe
 In erthe in aier in watere men to synk
 To geten a gloton deynthe mete and drink
 Of þis matiere o poule wel canst þou trette
 Mete vnto wombe and wombe eke vnto meto
 Schal god districte boþ as Fowle seip Alas a foule þing is it be my feiþ.

Whan he of wine was replete att his feste Riht att his owen table þat þis heste
 To slean þe Baptist Iohn ful gileteles Senec<sup>2</sup> seipe eke good wordes douteles
 He seipe he kan no difference finde
 He-twix a man þat is oute of his mynde
 And a man þat is drongelewe
 Bot wodenesse is falne in a schrewe
 Perseuerer<sup>4</sup> longer þan doþ drunkenesse
 O glotony ful of cursednesse
 O cause firste of oure confusion
 O originale of oure dampnacion
 To crist hadde bouht owte wij his blode aine Lo howe dere and schortly was to seine
 A-boute was þe cursed velanye
 Corrupte was al þis weuld þourthe glotonye
 Adam oure fadere and his wif also Ero paradys to labour and to woo
 Were dreue for þat vice it is no drede
 For whiles þat adam fasted as I. rede
 He was in paradys & whan þat hee
 Ete of þe fruyte defended on a tree
 Anone he was out east to woo and pyne
 O glotonye on þe wele ouht vs to plaine
 O wist a man howe many maladies
 Folowep of excessse and of glotonies
 He schold be þe more mesurable
 Of his Diet sitting<sup>6</sup> att þe table
 Alas þe schort prote þe tender mouþe
 Makeþ þat est and west Norþe and souþe
 In erþe in eyrs in water men to swynke
 To gette a gloton Mete and drinkge
 Of þis matiere o poule welde cans þou entrete
 Mete vn-to wombe and wombe eke vn-to meto
 Schal god discrien boþe as poule seipe
 Alas a foule þing it is be my feiþe

To seye this word / and fouler is the dede
 Whan man so drynkyth / of the white and reede
 That of his throte / he maketh his pryuce
 Thurgh thilke cursed superfluite 528
 ¶ The Apostol wepyng¶ seith ful pitously
 Ther walken manye / of whiche yow toold haue I
 I seye it now wepyng¶ with pitous voya
 Ther been enemyes of Cristes croys 532
 Of whiche the ende is deeth / wombe is hir god
 O wombe / o bely / o stynkyng Cod
 fulfilled of donge / and of corrupcioun
 At either ende of thes / foul is the soun 536
 How greet labour / and cost¶ is thee to fynde
 These Cookes / how they stampe / and streyne and grynde
 And turnen substance in-to Accident¶
 To fulfillen / al thy likerous talent¶ 540
 Out of the harde bones knocke they
 The mary / for they caste nought away
 That may go thurgh the golet¶ softe and swoote
 Of spicorie / of leif / and bark¶ and roots 544
 Schal been his sauce ymaked by delit
 To make hym yet¶ a newer appetit¶
 But certes / he that hauntheth swiche delices
 Is deed / whil¶ þat he lyueth in the vices 548
 ¶ A lecherous thyng¶ is wyne and dronkenesse
 Is ful of stryving¶ and of wrechednesse
 O dronke man / disfigured is thy face
 Sour is thy breeth / foul artow to embrace 552
 And thurgh thy dronke nose / semeth the soun
 As though þou seydest ay Sampsoun Sampsoun
 And yet god woof¶ Sampsoun drank nereuere no wyne
 Thou fallest¶ as it were a styked swyne 556
 Thy tonge is lost¶ and al thyn honeste cure for dronkenesse / is verrey sepulture
 Of mannes wit¶ and his discrecioun
 In whom þat drynke hath dominacioun 560

To seye this word / and fouler is the dede 525
 Whan man so drynkyth / of the white & reede
 That of his throte / he maketh his pryuce
 Thurgh / thilke cursed superfluite 528
 ¶ The Apostol wepyng¶ seith ful pitously
 Ther walken manye / of whiche yow toold haue I
 I seye it now wepyng¶ with pitous voya
 Ther been enemyes / of Cristes croys 532
 Of whiche the ende is deeth / wombe is hir god
 O wombe / o bely / o stynkyng cod
 fulfilled of donge and of corrupcioun
 At either ende of thes / foul is the soun 536
 How greet labour / and cost¶ is thee to fynde
 These Cokes / how they stampe / & streyne & grynde
 And turnen substance / in-to accident¶
 To fulfillen al / the likerous talent¶ 540
 Out of the harde bones / knocke they
 The mary / for they caste nat away
 That may go thurgh the golet¶ softe and swoote
 Of spicorie / of leif / and bark¶ and roots 544
 Schal been his Sauc¶ / ymaked by delit
 To make hym yet¶ a newere appetit¶
 But certes / he that hauntheth swiche delices
 Is deed / whil¶ þat he lyueth in the vices 548
 ¶ A lecherous thyng¶ is wyne // and dronkenesse
 Is ful of stryving¶ and of wrechednesse
 O dronke man / disfigured is thy face
 Sour is thy breeth / foul artow to embrace 552
 And thurgh thy dronke nose / semeth the soun
 As thogh thou seydest ay / Sampsoun Sampsoun
 And yet god woof¶ Sampsoun drank nereuere no wyne
 Thou fallest¶ as it were a styked swyne 556
 Thy tonge is lost¶ and al thyn honeste cure
 for dronkenesse / is verrey sepulture
 Of mannes wit¶ and his discrecioun
 In whom þat drynke / hath domynacioun 560

To seye this word / & foulere is the dede
 Whan man so drynkyth / of the white & reede
 That of his throte / he maketh his pryuce
 Thurgh thilke cursed / superfluite 528
 The apostole wepyng¶ / seyth ful pitously
 Th[ese] walkyn manye / of whiche yow toold haue I
 I seye it now / wepyng¶ with pitous voya
 There been enemyis / of cristis croys 532
 Of whiche the ende is deeth / wombe is here god
 O wombe / O bely / O stynkyng Cod fulfilled of dunge & of corrupcioun
 At eyther ende of the foul is the soun 536
 How greet labour & cost¶ is the to fynde
 These cookis¶ how they stampe & streyne & grynde
 And turnyn substans in-to accident¶
 To fulfillen al the lykorous talent¶ 540 Out of the harde bonys knocke they
 The mary for thei caste nat a-wey
 That may goon thurgh the golet¶ softe & soote
 Of spicorie / of leif / of bark / of roote 544
 Schal been his saus / makyd bi delyt
 To make hym ȝit / a newere speit¶
 But certis he that / hauntyth swyche delicias
 Is deed whil¶ he / lyuyth in swyche vices 548
 A lecherous thyng¶ / is wyne and dronkenesse
 Is ful of stryving¶ & of wrechednesse
 O dronke man / disfigured is thyne face
 Sour is thyne breth / foul art þou to embrace 552
 And thour¶ thys dronke nose / semyth the soun
 As thogh þou seydest euer / sampsoun Sampsoun
 And ȝit god woof¶ Sampsoun drunk nereuere no wyne Thow fallest¶ / as it were a stekyd swyne 556 Thyne tunge is lost¶ & al thyne honeste cure
 for dronkenesse is verrey sepulture
 Oof manys wit¶ and his discrecioun
 In whom that drynk hath dominacioun 560

To say his word and foulre is þe dede
 When men so drynke of þe white and þe rede /
 þat of his prote he makeþ his pryue þurgh þilke cursed superfluite 528
 The apostel wepyng' seiþ ful pitously Ther walken many of which ȝou told haue I
 I say it now wepyng' wiþ pitous voys
 Ther ben enemyes of cristes croys 532
 Of which þe ende is deþ þe wombe is here god
 O wombe o holy o styunkyng cod fulfilde of dunge and of corrupcion
 At eyer ende of þe foule is þe sonn 536
 How grete cost and labour is to fynde þise cookes how þey scape and streyne and grynde /
 And turnen substances in-to accident
 To fulfille al þy likerous talent' 540
 Out of þe harde bones knokkon þey þe mary for þei cast nat away þat may go þurgh þe golet' softe and swoete
 Of spicarie of leues bark' and roote 544
 Schal ben his sause y-made by delyte
 To make him ȝit a newer appetite
 But certes he þat haunteþ suche delices
 Is dede whiles þat he lyueþ in þe vices 548
 A lecherous þing' is wyne and drunkenes /
 Is ful of stryngyng' and of wrechednesse
 O dronken man disfigured is þi face floul is þi bryþ foul art þou to embrace 552
 And þurgh þi drunken nose semeþ þi soune
 As þouþ þou seydest' ay Sampson Sampson
 And ȝit god woot Sampson drank' neuer no wyne þew faltest' as it were a stiked swyne 556 Thyng tunge is lost' and alle þi honeste cures for drunkenes is verrey sepulture
 Of mannes wit' and his discrecion
 In whom þat drynke haþ dominacion 560
 CORPUS (6-T. 320)

To saie his wordes and foulere is þe dede Whan men so drinken of þe white and rede
 þat of his prote he makeþ his pryue
 Though þilke' cursed Superfluite 528 þe Apostel wepyng' seiþ ful pitously þer walken many of which tolde haue I I saie it' now wepyng' wiþ pitous vois þer ben enemyes of cristes croys 532
 Of which þe ceude is deþ. Wombe is her god
 O wombe o haly. o styunkyng' cod.
 fulfilled of dunge. and of corrupcion
 At eijer ende of þe foule is þe sunn 536
 Howe grete cost' and labour is to fynde
 These Cokes howe þei stampe streyne and grynde
 And turnen substales into accident' 540
 To fulfille alle þe likerous talent'
 Out of þe hard bones knokke þei
 þe mary for þei cast nat away
 þat may go þurgh þe golet' sauf' and soote 544
 Of spicary of leues berk' and rote
 Schal ben his sause ymade be delite
 To maken hym ȝit a newe appetite
 But certes he þat haunteþ suche delices
 Is dede whiles þat he lyueþ in þoo vices 548
 A lecherous þing' is wyne and dronknesse
 It is ful of strivngs and of wrechednesse
 O dronken man disfigured is þi face flouls is þi bryþ foule art þou to embrace 552
 And þurgh þi drunken nose souneþ þ' soune
 As þouþ þou seydest' ay Sampson Sampson
 And ȝit god woot sampson dronk' neuer no wyne þow faltest' as it were a dronken swyne 556 þi tunge is lost' and alle þine honest' Cure
 for drunkenes is verrey sepulture
 Of manny witte and his discrecion
 In whom þat drink' haþ dominacion 560
 PETWORTH (6-T. 320)

To saie his wordes and foulre is þe dede
 When men so drenken of þe white and of þe rede þat of his prote he made þi pryuece þourhe þilke cursed superfluite 528 þe Appostell wepyng' seiþ ful pitously þere walken many of whiche ȝou tolde haue .I.
 .I. saie it' now wepyng' wiþ pitous voics
 There ben enemyes of cristes croys 532
 Of which þe ende is deþe þe wombe is hire god
 O wombe o holy o stinkinge cod
 Fulfilled of dunge and of corrupcion
 At eye[r] ende of þe foule is þe soune 536 Howe grete cost and labour is to finde þes cokes howe þaie stame and strine and grinde
 And turnen substances in-to accident 540
 To fulfil al þi lykorous talent' Oute of þe harde bones knokke þei þe mery for þei cast noutt awie þat maie go þurh þe golet' soft and swote 544
 Of spicere of leues bark' and rote
 Schal be his sauce be made be delite
 To maak him ȝit a newere appetite
 Bot certes he þat haunteþ suche delices
 Is dede whiles þat he leueþ in þe vices 548
 A lycherous þing' is wyne and dronkenesse
 Is ful of stryueyng' and of wrechednesse
 O dronken man disfigured is þi face.
 Foule is þi bryþ. foule ert þou to embrace 552
 And þourhe þi drongen nose semeþ þi soune
 As þouþ þou ay said Samson samsonne
 And ȝit goode wotte Sampson dranke neuer wyne þou falest' as a dronkon swyne 556 þi tonge is loste and alle þine honest cures
 For dronkenes is verrey sepulture
 Of mannes witte and his discrecion
 In whom þat drinks haþ dominacion 560
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 320)

321 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE, Ellesmere MS.

He kan no conseil kepe / it is no drede
Now kepe yow / fro the white and fro the rede
And namely / fro the white wyn of lepe
That is to selle / in fysshstrete / or in Chepe
This wyn of Spaigne / crepeth subtilly
In othere wynes / growynge faste by
Of which ther ryseth swich fumositee
That when a man hath dronken draughtes thre
And weneth / that he be at hoem in Chepe
He is in Spaigne / right at the toun of lepe
Nat at the Rochel / ne at Burdeux toun
And thanne wol he seyn / Sampson Sampson
¶ But herketh lordes / o word I yow preyre
That alle the souereyn Actes dar I seye
Of victories / in the olde testament
Thurgh verray god / þat is omnipotent
Were doon in Abstinence / and in preyre
Looketh the Bible / and ther ye may it leere
¶ Looko Atilla the grete Conquerour
Deyde in his slepe / with shame and dishonour
Bledynge ay at his nose in dronkenesse
A Capitayn / sholde lyeu in sobrenesse
And ouer al this / anyseth yow right wel
What was commaunded / vn to Lamwel ¶ Not vniuers dare 584
Nat Samuel / but Lamwel seye I
Redeth the Bible / and fynde it expresly
Of wyn yeuynge / to hem þat han Iustise
Namoure of this / for it may wel suffice
[leaf 194, back] ¶
A Now I haue spoken of Glotony
Now wol I yow / defenden hasardrye ¶ Of hasardrye Hasard / is verray mooder of lesynges ¶ Pollecrated (Iacobi Sacro-
And of deceite / and cursed fowserynges ¶ torium) 1199. c. / Mendicantium & periclitatum mater Blasphemynge of Crist' manlaughtre and wast' also
Of catel and of tyme / and forthermo
It is reprocus / and contrarie of honour flor to ben holden / a commune hasardour 596

ELLESMERE (6-T. 321)

321 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE, Hengwrt MS.

He kan no conseil kepe / it is no drede
Now kepe yow / fro the white and fro the rede
And namely / fro the white wyn of lepe
That is to selle / in fysshstrete / or in Chepe
This wyn of Spaigne / crepeth subtilly
In othere wynes / growynge faste by
Of which / ther riseth swich fumositee
That when a man / hath dronken draughtes thre
And weneth þat he be / at hoem in Chepe
He is in Spaigne / right at the toun of lepe
Nat at the Rochel / ne at Burdeux toun
And thanne wol he seyn / Sampson Sampson
¶ But herketh lordyngis / o word I yow preyre
That alle the souereyn actes / dar I seye
Of victories / in the olde testament
Thurgh verray god / that is omnipotent
Were doon in abstinence / and in prayre
Looketh the Bible / and ther ye may it leere
¶ Looko Atilla / the grete conquerour
Deyde in his slepe / with shame and dishonour
Bledyng at his nose / in dronkenesse
A Capitayn / sholde lyeu in sobrenesse
¶ And ouer al this / anyseth yow right wel [leaf 192]
What was commaunded / vn-to Lamwel ¶ Not vniuers dare. 584
Nat Samuel / but Lamwel seye I
Redeth the Bible / and fynd it expresly
Of wyn yeuynge / to hem þat han Iustise
Namoure of this / for it may wel suffice
¶ And now / that I haue spoken of glotony
Now wol I / yow defende hasardrye Hasard / is verray moder of lesynges
And of deceite / and cursed fowserynges Blaspheme of Crist' manlaughtre / and wast' also
Of catel / and of tyme / and forthermo
It is reprocus / and contrarie of honour
flor to ben holden / a commune hasardour 596

HENGWRT (6-T. 321)

321 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE, Cambridge MS.

He can no conseil kepe it is no drede
Now kepe yow from the white & from the rede
And namely from the white wyn of lepe
That is to selle in fische streete or in Chepe
This wyn of spayne crepeth subtilly In othere wynys growynge faste by
Of which there ryseth swich fumosite
That whan a man haue dronkyn drauytis thre
And weneth that he be at hoem in chepe
He is in spayne ryzt at the toun of lepe
Nat at rochel / ne at burdoux toun
And thanne wole he seye sampson sampson
But herkenyth lordyngis o word I yow preyre
That alle the souereyn actis dar I seye
Of victoris in the olde testament
Thurgh verray god that is omnipotent
Were don in abstinence & in preyre Lokyth the bible & there ge may it leere
Loke attilla the greete conquerour
Deydede in his slep / with shame & dishonour
Bledyng at his nose in dronkenesse
A Capitayn schulde lene in sobrenesse
And ouer al this / aviseyth yow right wel
What was commaundit to Lamuel
Nat Samuel but Lamuel seye I
Redyth the byble / & fynde it expresly
Of wyn yeuynge to her that han iustise
Namore of this for it may I-nough suffyce
And now that I haue spokyn of gloteny
Now wole I yow defenda hasardrye
Hasard is verray modyr of lesyngis
And of disseyd & cursede fowseryngis Blaspheme of Crist manlaucht & wast also
Of catel of tyme / & ferthermo ¶ It is reprof & contrarye to honour [leaf 191] flor to ben holdyn a counoun hasardour 596

CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 321)

He can no counsaill kepe it is no drede
 Now kepe you fro þe white and fro þe rede Namly fro þe white wyn of lepe þat is to sellen in fishestret<sup>er</sup> or in Chepo /
 This wyn of Spayne crepeþ subtilly
 In oþer wynes growyng faste by
 Of which þer ryseþ such fumosoie þat whan a man hap drunken draughtes þre /
 And weneþ þat he be at home in chepe
 he is in spayne riht at þe tounne of lepe Nought at þe Rochel ne at Burdeaux toun.
 And þenne wolen þey sayn Sampseoun Sampseoun
 But herkenþ lordinges o word I you prey
 That all þe souereyn actes dar I say
 Of victories in þe olde testament
 þat þurgh verrey god þat is omnipotent<sup>t</sup> Ware don in abstinence and in prayere loken þe bible and þere 30 may it leere loken attyla þe grete conquerour
 Deyd in his slepe wip shame and dishonour
 Bledyng ay at his nose in drunkenesse
 A Capytayne schulde lyue in sobrenesse /
 And ouer al þis awise you riht wel
 What was comanded vnto Iamel
 Nought Samuel but Iamel say I /
 Redeþ þe bible and fyndeþ it expressly
 Of wyn 30yngs to hem þat han iustice
 Nomore of þis for it may wel suffice
 Nd now þat I haue spoke of gloteny Now wole I defende you hasardye
 hasard is verrey mooder of lesynges
 And of disceipt cursed forswerynges Blaspheme of crist<sup>t</sup> and mansleynges also
 Of batayle of tyme and of oþer mo
 It is repress<sup>t</sup> and contrarie to honour
 flou to be holde a comune hasardour

He can no counsaill kepe it is no drede
 Nowe kepe you fro þe white and fro þe rede Namely fro þe white wyne of lepe þat is to sellen in fishestrete and in chepe This wyne of spayn crepeþ subtilly
 In oþer wynes growyng faste by
 Of woche riseth suche fumosoie þat whan a man hap dronke a drauyt<sup>t</sup> or þre
 And weneþ þat he be at home in chepe þan is he in spayn riht at þe tounne of lepe Nought at the rocheil ne at burdeaux toun
 And þan wil þei say . Sampson sampson
 But harkeneþ lordinges oo þing I you pray þat alle þe souereyn actes dar I say Of victories in olde testament
 þat þurgh verrey god þat is omnipotent<sup>t</sup> Ware don in abstinence and in preiore
 Loken þe bible and þer 30may it leere
 Loken Attyla þe grete conquerour
 Deyd in his slepe wip shame and dishonour
 Bleding at his nose in drunkenesse
 A Capytayn shuld live in sobrenesse
 And ouer al þis awise you riht wel
 What was comanded vnto Iamel
 Not Samuel but Iamel say .I.
 Redeþ þe bible and fyndeþ it expressly
 Of wyne 30yngs of hem þat aren iustice
 No more of þis for it may suffice
 And now þat I haue spoken of gloteny Nowe wil I defende you hasardye
 hasard is verrey mooder of lesynges
 And of disceite cursed forswerynges Blaspheme of crist manslaughter and wansw<sup>t</sup> also Of batalle and of tyme and of þurpermo
 It is repress<sup>t</sup> and contrarie to honoure flou to be holden a comun hasardour

He can no counsell kepe it is no drede
 Now kepe you fro þe white and fro þe rede
 Namely fro þe white wyne of lepe þat is to sel in fische strete or in chep þis wyne of Spayne crepeþ sotelly In oþer wynes groweing fast by
 Of whiche þere riseth suche fumosoie þat whan a man hap dronke draughtes þre
 And weneþ þat he be at home in chepe
 He is in spayne riht atte þe tounne of lepe Nought att þe Rochel ne att Bordeaux tounne
 And þan wille þei seyn Sampsoe Sampsoe Bot herken lordynges o wordo .I. 30w preie þat al þe souereigne actes dar .I. seio
 Of victories in þe olde testament
 þat þurhe verrey god þat is omnipotent<sup>t</sup> Ware done in abstinence and in preiore Loke þe bible and þere 30 maie it leere .
 Loke Aththelþe þe grete conquerours
 Deyd in his slope wip shame and dishonour Bledyng aye att is nose in drunkenesse
 A Capeteigne schold leue in sobrenesse
 And ouer al þis a-wise you riht wole
 What was comand vn-to Iamel Nought Samuel bot Iamel saie .I.
 Redeþ þe bible and fyndeþ it expressly
 Of wyne 30yngs to hem þat han iustice
 No mor of þis for it mai wole suffice
 A now þat .I. haue spoke of gloteny Nowe wil .I. defend 30we hasardye hasard is vorreye mooder of lesynges
 And of deceyte Cursed forswerynges
 Blaspheme of crist<sup>t</sup> and mansleynges also
 Of batalle oft time and of oþer mo
 It is repreue and contrarie to honoure
 flou to be holde a comune hasardour

¶ Pallatius (Ep.
 Bartholomaeus) li.
 1. c. 1. mactherius
 & permarinus mater
 ad 102

[Dist 112]

¶ Noli videri daco

¶ Pallatius (Ep.
 Bartholomaeus) li.
 1. c. 1. mactherius
 & permarinus mater
 ad 102

[Dist 112, base 2]

And euer the hyer / he is of estaat<sup>1</sup>
 The moore / is he holden desolaat<sup>1</sup>
 If that a Prynce / vseth hasardrye
 In alle gouernaunce and polycye
 He is / as by comune opiniou
 I holde the lesse / in reputaciou
 ¶ Stilbon / that was a wys embassadour
 Was sent to Corynthe / in ful greet honour fro Lacedomye / to maken hire Alliaunce
 And when he cam / hym happed[e] par chance
 That alle the gretteste / that were of that lond Playynge atte hasard / he hem fond for which / as soone / as it myghte be
 He stal hym hoom agayn / to his contree
 And seyde / ther wol I nat less my name
 No I wol nat take on me so greet defame
 Yow for to allie / vn-to none hasardours
 Sendeth / othere wise Embassadours
 for by my trouthe / me were leuere dye
 Than I yow sholde / to hasardours alye
 for ye that been / so glorious in honours Shal nat allyen yow / with hasardours
 As by my wyl / ne as by my trette
 This wise Philosphere / thus seyde hee ¶ Looke eek that the kyng Demetrius
 The kyng of Parthes as the bok seith vs
 Sente him / a paire of dees of gold in scorn for he hadde vsed / hasard ther-biforn
 for which / he heald his glorie / or his renoun
 At no value / or reputacioun
 Lordes may fynden / oother maner play
 Honeste ynough / to dryue the day away
 ¶ Now wol I speke / of othes false and grette
 A word or two / as olde bookes trete
 Gret sweryng<sup>2</sup> is a thyng<sup>3</sup> abhominable
 And fals sweryng<sup>2</sup> is yet moore reparable

And euer the hyer / he is of estaat<sup>1</sup>
 The moore is he holden desolaat<sup>1</sup>
 If just a Prynce / vseth hasardrye
 In alle gouernaunce / and polycye
 He is / as by comune opynyon
 Iholde / the lesse in reputaciou
 ¶ Stilbon / that was a wys Embassadour
 Was sent to Corynthe / in ful greet honour fro lacedomye / to make hire alliaunce
 And when he cam / hym happed par chance
 That alle the gretteste / jut were of that lond Playynge at the hasard / he hem fond for which as soone / as it myghte be
 He stal hym hom agayn / to his contree
 And seyde / ther wol I nat less my name
 Ny wol nat take on me / so greet defame
 Yow for to allie / vn-to none hasardours
 Sendeth / othere wise Embassadours
 for by my trouthe / me were leuere dye
 Than I yow sholde / to hasardours alye
 for ye that been / so glorious in honours
 Shal nat allye yow / with hasardours
 As by my wyl / ne as by my trette
 This wise Philosphere / thus seyde he ¶ Looke eek / that to the kyng Demetrius
 The kyng of Parthes / as the bok seith vs
 Sente hym a paire of dees / of gold in scorn
 for he hadde vsed / hasard ther biforn
 for which / he heald his glorie / or his renoun
 At no value / or reputacioun
 Lordes may fynden / oother maner play
 Honeste ynow / to dryue the day away
 ¶ Now wol I speke / of othes false and grette
 A word or two / as olde bokes trete ¶ Gret sweryng<sup>2</sup> is a thyng abhomynable
 And fals sweryng<sup>2</sup> is yet moore reparable

And euer the heyere he is of <sup>1</sup>estat<sup>1</sup> [<sup>1</sup>→ corrected]
 The moore is he holdyn desolat jif that a prynce vseth hasardrye
 In alle gouernaunce & polycie
 He is as be commre opinioun
 I holde the lesse in reputacioun
 Stilbon jut was a wys Embassadour Was sent to Corenthe in ful greet honour from latidomye to makyn hire allyaunce
 And when he cam hym happede par chance
 That alle the gretteste that were of that lond Playyng at the hasard he hem fond for which as soone as it myghte be
 He stal hym hoom a-geyn in-to his centre
 ¶ And seyde there wel I nat leese myn name Nay wil nat take on me so greet difame
 Jow for to a-lye vn-to none hasardourys Sendyth othere wysse embassadourys for be myn trouthe me were leuere dye Than I jow schulde to hasardourys alye for so that been so gloryous in honourys Schal not a-lye jow to haerdourys
 By myn wil ne as bi myn trette
 This wysse philosphere thus seyde he Loke ek that to the kyng demetryus
 The kyng of Parthes as the bok sayth vs Sente hym a-paire of dois of gold in scorn for he hadde vsed hasard there by-forn for which he held his glorye or his renoun
 At no valu or reputacioun ¶ Lordis may fynde oother maner play Honeste I now to dryue the day a-way
 Now wete I speke of othes false & grette
 A word or two as olde bokys trete
 Greet swerynge is a thyng abhominable
 And fals swerynge<sup>2</sup> is yet<sup>3</sup> more reparable [<sup>2</sup>→ corrected] 632

And euer þe hyer he is of estate þe more he is y-halden desolate
If þat a prince vsæ hasardrye In alle gouernaunce and alle polseye he is as by comen oppyniõ
y-halde þe lasse in reputaciõ [Stilbon that was holde, a wise ambassetur Was sent in-to Corynth. y. with ful grete honour] <sup>[Reg. 179 vv. 209/222]</sup> fro Calidonye to makæn him alleaunce And when he cam him happede þis chaunce
þat alle þe grettest þat were of þis lande Pleyng' at þe heard he hem fande for which as some as þat myghte be he stal him home agein to his cuntre
And sayde þer I wol nought lese my name
I ne wol nought' take on me so grete diffaue þou to alleye to none hasardours Sendeþ oþerwise embasseturours for by my troupe me were leuer deye / þan I to þou schulde hasardours alleye / for þe þat ben so glorious in honoures Schal nougt' alleye þou wiþ hasardours
As by my wille ne as by my trete þis wise philosophe sayde to me loke þou vsæ no pley of dees in þin hous þike eke þat to þe king' Demetrius Sente him a payre of dees of gold in scorn for he hadde vsæd hasardrye þer byforne for which he halde his glorie and his renou Aþ no value of reputacioun lordes myghten fynden oþer maner pley honeste ynough to dryue þe day away
Now wol I speke of oþes fals and grete
A word or tuo as oþer bookes entrete
Gret' sweryng' is a þing' abhominable
And fals sweryng' is more reprobable

And euer þe hier he is of estate
The more he is holden dowlate
Ȝif þat a prince vsæ hasardie
In al gouernaunce and polseye
He is as by comen opiniõ
Holde þe lasse in reputaciõ ¶ Stilbon þat was holde a wise ambassetur Was sent into Corinth with grete honour.
fro Calidoyne to make hem alliaunce
And when he came happed þis chaunce
And al þe grettest þat were of þat lond' Pleyng' at þe hasard he hem fond' for which as some as þat mygt be He stala hym home agein to his cuntre
And seide þere I wold not' lese my name
I wold nat' take on me so grete' diffaue.
for to allys þou to noon hasardours / Sendeþ oþer wiser embasseturours / for by my troupe me were leuere dye þan I shuld. þow to hasardours allie
But þe þat bene so glorious in honoures.
Shal not allie þou wiþ hasardours
As by my wille ne as by my trete
This wis philosophe þus seide hee
Loke eke þat to þe kinge Demetrius
The kyng' of partes as þe booke seiþ þus Sant' hym a paire of golden dys in scorn for he had vsæd hasardrie þer byforne for which he heelde his glorie and his renou for no value of reputacioun lordes myght' fynde oþer manere plays Honest ynoue to dryue þe day away
Now wil I speke of oþes fals and grete
A word or tuo as oþer bookes entrete .
Gret' swerige is a þing' abhominable
And fals swerige is moche more reprobable

And euer þe hihere he his of state þe more yhaliden he is dissolate
If þat a prince vsæ hasardie
In al gouernaunce and al policie
He is as be commune opiniõ
.I. halde þe lasse in reptaciõ [Stilbon that was thalde a wise Embasseturour Was sent into Corynthe with ful gret honour] fro Calidonye to maken hem allouaunce
And when he cam him happed þis chaunce
That al þe grettest þat were of þis lande Pleyng' att þe Hasard he hem fande
For which as some as þat miht be
He stala him home agein to his cuntre
And seide þere .I. wold nought less my name
.I. wil nought take on me so grete defaue þowe for to alleye to none hasardours Sendeþ oþerw ise embassadours
For be my troupe me were leuer deye þan .I. to þowe hasardours scholde alleye for þat bien so glorious in honoures Schal nougt alleye þowe wiþ asardours
As be my witt ne as be my trete
This wise philosophe þus seide to me
Looke þou vsæ no pleye of dees in þin house
Looke eke þat þe kinge demetrius Sent him a paire of dees of golde in scoren
For he hadid vsæd hasardrye þer be-forne
For which he held his glorie and renoume
And no valwee of reputacioun
Lordes myhten finde oþere manere pleie
Honest ynouthe to driue þe daie a-weie
Now wole .I. speke of oþes fals and grete
A words or tuo as oþers bookes trete
Gret' swereryng' is a þinge abhominable
And fals swereryng' is more reprobable

The heighe god / forbad sweryng<sup>1</sup> at al ¶ Nothe contains fourze Witnesse on Mathew / but in special
 Of sweryng<sup>2</sup> seith the holy Ieremye ¶ ¶ Nothe contains foure Mathew
 Thou shalt seye sooth thyne othes and nat Iye 636
 And swere in doom / and eek in rightwinesse [leaf 14r]
 But ydel sweryng<sup>3</sup> is a cursedesnesse
 Bihold and so / that in the firste table
 Of heighe goddes heestes honorable 640
 Hon / that the seconde heeste / of hym / is this Take nat my name / in ydel or amys
 Lo rather he forbedeth swich sweryng<sup>4</sup>
 Than homycide / or any cursed thyng<sup>5</sup> 644
 I seye / that as by ordre / thus it standeth
 This knowen / that his heestes understandeth
 How pat / the seconde heeste of god / is that<sup>6</sup>
 And forther ouer / I wol thee telle al plat<sup>7</sup> 648
 That vengeance / shal nat parten from his hous
 That of hise othes / is to outrageous
 By goddes precious herte / and by his nayles
 And by the blood of Crist<sup>8</sup> that is in hayles 652
 Seune is my chance / and thyn is cynk<sup>9</sup> and treye
 By goddes Armes / if thou falsly pleye
 This daggere / shal thurgh-out thyh herte go
 This frut cometh / of the bihoched bones two fforsweryng<sup>10</sup> Ire / falsnesse / Homycide
 Now for the loue of Crist<sup>11</sup> pat for vs dyde
 Lete youre othes / bothe grete and smale
 But sires / now wol I telle forth my tale 660
THise Riotours thre / of whiche I telle Longe erst er prime rong<sup>12</sup> of any belle Were set hem / in a Tauerne to drynke
 And as they sat<sup>13</sup> they herde a belle clynke 664
 Bifom a cors / was caried / to his graue
 That oon of hem / gan callen to his knaue
 Go bet quod he / and axe redily
 What cors is this / pat passeth heer forby 668

The heighe god / forbad sweryng at al
 Witnesse on Mathew / but in special ¶ ¶ Nothe contains foure Mathew
 Of sweryng<sup>2</sup> seith the holy Ieremye ¶ ¶ Nothe contains foure Mathew
 Thou shalt swere sooth thyne othes / & nat Iye 636
 And swere in doom / and eek in rightwinesse
 But ydel sweryng<sup>3</sup> is a cursedesnesse
 ¶ Bihold and so / pat in the firste table
 Of heighe goddes heestes honorable 640
 How pat the seconde heste of hym / is this
 Take nat my name / in ydel or amys
 Lo rather he forbedeth swich sweryng<sup>4</sup>
 Than homycide / or many a cursed thyng<sup>5</sup> 644
 I seye / pat as by ordre / thus it standeth
 This knoweth / that his heestes understandeth
 How that the seconde heste of god / is that<sup>6</sup>
 And forther ouer / I wol thee telle al plat<sup>7</sup> 648
 That vengeance / shal nat parten from his hous
 That of hise othes / is to outrageous
 By goddes precious herte / and by his nayles
 And by the blood of Crist<sup>8</sup> that is in hayles 652
 Seune is my chance / and thyn is cynk<sup>9</sup> & treyo
 By goddes armes / if thou falsly pleye
 This dagger / shal thurgh out thyh herte go
 This frut cometh / of the bihoched bones two
 fforsweryng<sup>10</sup> Ire / falsnesse / homycide
 Now for the loue of Crist<sup>11</sup> that for vs dyde
 Lete youre othes / bothe grete and smale
 But sires / now wol I / telle fouth my tale 660
THise Riotours thre / of whiche I telle Longe erst er Prymo rong<sup>12</sup> of any belle Were set hem / in a Tauerne to drynke [leaf 15r]
 And as they sat<sup>13</sup> they herde a belle clynke 664
 Bifom a cors / was caried / to his graue
 That oon of hem / gan callen to his knaue
 Go bet quod he / and axe redily
 What cors is this / that passeth heer forby 668

The hye god<sup>1</sup> forbad sweryng at al [¶ first good] [leaf 20r, back] Witnesse of Mathew but in special
 Of sweryng<sup>2</sup> seith the holy Ieremy 636
 Thou shalt seyre sooth thyne othis & not Iye
 And swere in dom & ek in rightwinesse
 But ydele sweryng<sup>3</sup> is a cursedesnesse Bi hold & se that in the firste table
 Of heye goddys hestis honorable 640
 How that the secunde heste of hym<sup>4</sup> is this Take nat myn name in idil or a-mys
 Lo rather he forbedyth swiche sweryng<sup>5</sup>
 Than homyside or manye a cursede thyng 644
 I seye that as by ordere thus it standith
 This knowith that his bokys vnderstonde
 How that the secunde heste of god is that
 And ferther ouer / I wol thee telle al plat 648
 That vengeance schal nat passse from his hous
 That of hise othis is to outrageous
 By godys precyus herte & by hise naylys
 And by the blod of crist that is in haylys 652
 Seune is myn chance / & thyn is synk & treye
 By godys arma 3if thou falsly pleye
 This daggar schal thurgh out thyh herte go *
 This frut comyth of þe bihoche bonys two fforsweryng<sup>10</sup> Ire falsnesse homysyde
 Now for the loue of crist pat for vs dayede Loveth youre sweryng<sup>11</sup> bothe greete & smale
 But serys now welle I telle forth myn tale 660
THese riotours thre of whiche I telle Longe erst er pryme rong the bolle
 Were set hem in a tauerne to drynke 663
 And as the[re] sat / they herde a bello clynke<sup>2</sup> [~1 first]
 By-fom a cots was caried to his graue
 That oon of hem gan callyn to his knaue
 Go bet quod he and axe redly
 What cors is this that caried is forby 668

þe hihe god forbad sweryng<sup>1</sup> at al Witness at Matthew but in special
 Of sweryng<sup>1</sup> saiþ þe holy Ieremie þou schalt swere soþ þin oþes and nought lye /
 And swere in doome and eek in rightwinesse
 But ydel sweryng is a cursednesse
 Bihold and see þat in þe firste table / Of heya goddes hestes honorable / how þat þe secounde þeste of him is þis / Take nought my name in ydelnesse amys / lo mþer he forbedeþ such sweryng<sup>1</sup>
 Or Omycyde or eny oþer cursed þing<sup>1</sup>
 I say as by ordre þus it standeþ
 This knoweþ þat his hestes vnderstandeþ how þat þe secounde hoost of god is þat And forþermore I wol þe telle al þat þat vengeaunte schal nouȝt parte fro his hous þat of his othis is so outrageous
 By goddes precious herte and his mayles
 And by his blood þat is in hayles
 Seuen is myn chaunce and þin is fyue and þre /
 By goddes armes if þou falsly pleye me þis dagger schal þurgh þin herte go þis fruyt cometh of þe bleched bones tuo forsweryng<sup>1</sup> Ire falnesse homicyde
 Now for þe loue of crist þat for vs dyde leueþ þoure oþes boþe grete and smale for cristes sake and herke to my tale þise ryetoures þre of which I telle longe er prime ronge eny belle Were seth hem in a taneure for to drynke /
 And as þei sate þei herde a belle clynke / Byforn a corps was carryed to his graue
 þat on of hem gan calle to his knaue /
 Go bet quoth he and axe redely
 What corps is þis þat passeþ faste by /

The hihe god forbere sweryng<sup>1</sup> at alle Witness of mathewe but in special
 Of sweryng<sup>1</sup> [soþ] þe holy Ieremie .
 636 Thow shalt swere soþe þine oþes and not lye
 And swere in doome and eke in rightwinesse
 But ydel sweryng is a cursednesse
 Biholdes and see þat in þe first table .
 640 Of his goddes hestes honorable How þat twou hestes of hym is þis
 Take not my tale in ydelnesse amys
 Lo mþer he forbedeþ such sweryng<sup>1</sup>
 644 Than homicide or eny oþer þing .
 I saie as þus by order it stondeþ
 This knowen þat hestes vnderstandeþ
 How þat þe Secounde hoest of god is þat 648 And forþer ouer I wil þe telle al þat þat vengeaunce schal not part from his hous
 þat of his oþes is so outrageous .
 By goddys precious hert and his nailles
 652 And by his blood þat is in hayles
 Seuen is myn chaunce and his .v. and thre
 By goddys armes if þou falsly pleie me
 This daggard schal þurgh þine hert goo .
 656 This fruite cometh of þe blaked bones tuo .
 for-sweryng<sup>1</sup> Ire falsnesse homyside
 Now for þe loue of crist þat for vs dyde leueþ þoure oþes bothe grete and smale 660 for I shal telle þou a mervalous tale /
 These Riotours of which I telle .
 Longe erste er prime . ronge eny belle 664 Were seth in a taneure for to drynke
 And as þei sate þei herd a belle chynke
 Byforn a corps was carryed to his graue
 þat on of hem can calle to his knaue /
 Goo bette quod he and aske redely 668 What coors is þat þat passeþ forþ by

The hihe god for-bad swereinge att al Wittenesse of Mathewe bot in special
 Of swereinge scipe holy Ieremye
 Thowe shalt swere soþe þine oþes and nouht lye 636 And swere in dome and eke in rihtwinesse Bot Idel swaeringe is a cursednesse
 Be-holde and see þat in þe first table 640 Of hihe goddes hestes honorable How þat þe secunde hert of him is þis
 Take nouht my name in Idalnesse amys
 Lo mþer he for-bodes sucho swereinge 644 Or Omyaide or eny oþer Cursed þing
 I. seie as be order þus it standeþ
 [This knoweth ye that his hestes vnderstandeth]
 How þat þe secunde hoest of god is þat 648 And forþermore .I. wil þe tel al þat þat vengeaunce schal nouht parte fro his hous
 þat of his oþes is so outrageous
 Be goddes precious hert and his mayles
 652 And be his blode þat is in hayles Seuen is myn chaunce and þine is fyue and þre
 Be goddes armes if þou falsly pleie me
 This dagger schal þoruhe þine hert go 656 This fruyte cometh of þe beched bones tuo Fowsweryng<sup>1</sup> . Ire . falsnesse . Omycyde Now for þe loue of criste þat for vs deide
 leueþ þoure oþes boþe grete and smale 660 And wiþe good entent herkenep my tale Thea ryetoures þre of whiche .I. telle Longe at prime ronge any belle Were seth hem in a taneure to drynke 664 And as þei sat þei herde a belle klynke Be-forne a cors was carryed to his graue
 þan one of hem gan cal vnto his knaue Go bette quod he and axe redely
 668 What corps it is þat passeþ faste bye

And looke / þat thou reporte his name wel
 ¶ Sire quod this boy / it nedeth nomenreuel
 It was me toold / er yo cam heer two houres
 Ho was pardes / an old felawe of youre
 And soleylny / he was yselyn to-nyght
 sfor-dronke / as he sat on his bench vpright
 Ther cam a priuce theef / men clepeth deeth
 That in this contree / al the peple sleeth
 And with his spere / he smoot his herte atwo
 And wente his wey / with-outen wordes mo
 He hath / a thousand slayn this pestilence
 And maister / er yo come in his presence
 Me thynketh / that it were necessarie
 sfor to be war / of swich an Aduersario
 Beth redy / for to meete hym eueremoore
 Thus taughte me my dame / I sey namoore
 By seinte Marie seyde this Taurner
 The child seith sooth / for he hath slayn this yer
 Henne ouer a Myle / with-Inne a greet village
 Bothe man and woman / child and hyne / and page
 I trowe / his habitaciõn be there
 To been auyed / greet wysdom it were Er that he dide a man / a dishonour
 ¶ Yo goddes Armes / quod this Riotour
 Is it swich peril / with hym for to meete?
 I shal hym seke / by wey and eek by stretre
 I make arow / to goddes digne bones
 Herketh felawes / we thre been al ones
 Let ech of vs / holde vp his hand til oother
 And ech of vs / bicomen ootheres brother
 And we wol sleen / this false traytour deeth
 He shal be slayn / which þat so manye sleeth
 By goddes dignitee / er it be nyght/
 ¶ Togidres han thise thre / hir trouthes plyght
 To lyus and dyen / ech of hem for oother
 As though he were / his owene ybore brother

And looke / þat thou reporte his name wel
 ¶ Sire quod this boy / it nedeth neuer a del
 It was me toold / er yo cam heer two houres
 He was pardes / an old felawe of youre
 And soleylny / he was yselyn to nyght
 sfordronke / as he sat on his bench vp right
 Ther cam a priuce theef / men clepeth deeth
 That in this contree / al the peple sleeth
 And with his spere / he smoot his herte atwo
 And wente his wey / with-outen wordes mo
 He hath / a thousand slayn this pestilence
 And maister / er yo come in his presence
 Me thynketh / that it were necessarie
 sfor to be war / of swich an Aduersario
 Beth redy / for to meete hym euere moore
 Thus taughte me my dame / I sey namoore
 ¶ By Sainte Marie / seyde this Taurner
 The child seith sooth / for he hath slayn this yer
 Henne ouer a myle / with-Inne a greet village
 Bothe man and woman / child and hyne & page
 I trowe / his habitaciõn be there
 To been auyed / greet wisdom it were
 Er that he dide / a man a dishonour
 ¶ Yo goddes armes / quod this Riotour
 Is it swich peril / with hym for to meete
 I shal hym seke / by wey / and eek by stretre
 I make arow / to goddes digne bones
 Herketh felawes / we thre been al ones
 Let ech of vs / holde vp his hand to oother
 And ech of vs / bicome ootheres brother
 And we wol sleen / this false traytour deeth
 He shal be slayn / he þat so manye sleeth
 By goddes dignytee / er it be nyght
 ¶ Togidres han thise thre / hir trouthes plyght
 To lyus and dyen / ech of hem with oother
 As thogh he were / his owene ybore brother

And loko that thou reporte his name wel
 Soro quod this boy it nedyth neuere a deel
 It was me told er ȝe cam here thre ouris
 He was pardis an old felawe of ouris
 And soleylny he was Iselyn to nyght sfor-dronke as he sat on his bench vp ryȝt
 There cam a prius thef men clepyen deth
 That in this cuntre al the peple sleth
 And with his spere he smot his herte atwo
 And wente his weie with-outyn wordis mo
 He hath a thoucent slayn this pestilence Mothynketh that it were necessarye sfor to ben war of swich an aduersario Beth rely for to mete hym euere more Thus thaute me myn dame I seye nomore
 Be seynte maris seyde this taurnere
 The child seyth soth for he hath slayn this ȝere Hene ouyr a myle with-inne a greet village
 Bothe man & woman child & hewe & page
 I trowe his habitacioun be there
 To been a-vised greet wisdom it woere
 Er that he deyede a man a dishonour ¶ Yo goddis armys quod this riotour
 Is it swich peril with hym for to mete
 I schal hym secke by woye & ek bi stretre
 I make a wov to goddis digne bonys
 Herkenyth felawis we thre been a-loyns
 Let ych of vs holdyn vp his hand to othir
 And echo of vs bi-comyn oothery brothir
 And we wels sleen this false traytour deth
 He schal been slayn he that so manye sleth
 By godis dygmete er it be nygh
 To-gederys han these thre here treuthes plyght
 To lyuyñ & deyen eche of hem with othyr
 As though he were his owe bore brothir

And loke þat þou reporte his name wel
 Sire quod þis boye it nedep neuer a del
 It was me told er 30 came here to ouris
 He was parde an old felawe of zours Al sodefynly was he slayn to night / ffor-dronke as he sate vp his benche vpright Ther came a pryue þeef men cleped þeþ þat in his cuntre al þe poeple sleþ
 And with his spere he smot his herte a tuo
 And went his way wipouten wordes mo
 And maister er 30 come in his presence / he haþ a þousend slain þis pestilence /
 Me þinkeþ it were necessarie /
 ffor to be war of such an aduersarie / Beþ redy for to mete him euermore / þus taughte me my dame I say no more /
 By seinte mary seyde þis tauerne þe child seiþ soþ for he haþ slayn to 3ere Hens ouer a myle wipinne a gret village
 Boþe man and womman child and page
 I trewe his habitacion be þere /
 To ben auysed gret wisdom it were / Er þat he dede a man dishonour
 3e goddes armes quod þis ryetour
 Is it / such perill wip him for to mete
 I schal him seeke by vrey and eek by strete
 I make avow to goddes digns bones
 Herken þe felawes we þre ben alle ones
 Let eche of vs holde vp his hand to oþer
 And eche of vs bycome oþers broþer
 And we wold sle þis fals traytour deþ
 He schal be slayn he þat so many sleþ
 By goddes dignite er it be night
 To-gidre haue þese þre her hertes hight
 To lyue and deye ilk of hem to oþer
 As þough he were his owen sworne broþer

And loke þat þou report his name weif
 Sire quod þis [knaue] it nedep neuer a del
 It was me tollre eer 30 came heer two houres
 He was parde an olde felawe of zours
 Al sodefynly was he slayn to-nyht ffor-dronken as he sate vpon his bench vpright Ther come a pryue þeef men clepen deþe þat in his contray al þe puple seleþ
 And wip his spere he smote his hert atwou'
 And went his way wip-oute wordes moo
 He haþ a thousand slayn þis Pestilence
 And maistere er 30 come in his presence Me þinkeþ þat it were necessarie
 ffor to be war of such an aduersarie
 Beþ redy forto mete hym euermore
 Thus tauht me my dame I saye no more ¶ By seint' marye saide þis tauerne þe Childe seiþ soþ for he haþ slayn to 3ere hens ouer a myle wip-lune a gret vilage
 Both man and womman child and page.
 I trewe his habitacion be þere
 To bene auysed gretre wisdom it were Er þat he did a man dishonour 3e goddes armes quod þis Riatours
 Is it such perille wip hym forto mete
 I schal hym sechen by stie and by strete
 I. make a vowe by goddys digns bones.
 Herkenep felawes we þre bene al ones.
 Let eche of vs holde vp his honde to oþer
 And eche of vs bycome oþers broþer
 And we wil sle þis fals traitour deþe
 He schal be slayne he þat so monye sleþe
 By goddys dignite er it be nyht
 To-gidre han þise þre her hertes plight.
 To lif and to dye ilk of hem wip oþer
 As þouþe he were his owne born broþer

And loke þat þou reporte his name wele
 Sire quod þis boye it nedep neuer a dele
 It was me tolde ar 30 cam here tuo owres
 He was parde an olde felawe of zours
 Al sodenly was he sleino to nyht
 For-dronke as he satt vp his benche vpright
 Ther cam a pryue þeþ þat man clepen deþe
 That in his contral al þe peple sleþe
 And wip his spere he smot his hert a tuo
 And went is waie wip-uten wordes mo
 And Maister ar 30 com in his presence
 He haþe a þousande sleino þis pestelence
 Me þinkeþ it were necessarie
 For to bue war of suche an aduersario
 Beþ rede for to mete him euermore
 Thus tauht me my dame .I. seie no more
 Be seinte Marie seyde þis tauerne
 This child seiþ soþe for he haþ sleino to 3ere Hennes ouere a Mile wip-inne a gret vilage
 Boþe man and womman child and page
 I trewe his habitacion be þere
 To ben auysede grete wisdom it were Ere þat he dide a man dishonours 3e goddes armes quod þis Rietours
 Is it sucha perille wip him for to mete
 .I. schal him seeke be waie and eke be strete
 .I. make . avowe be goddas dayns bones
 Herkenep felawes we þre been al ones
 Let iche of vs holde vp his honde to oþer
 And iche of vs be-come oþers broþere
 And we wil sle þis fals traitur deþe
 He schal be slayne he þat so mony sleþe
 Be goddes dignite ar it be nihte
 To-geder haue þes þre her hertes hikte
 To leue and doie ilke of hem wip oþer
 As þouþe he were his owen sworne broþer

And vp they sterte / and drunken in this rage
 And forth they goon / towards that village
 Of which the Tauermer / hadde spoke bifore
 And many a grisly ooth / thanne han they sworn 708
 And Cristes blessed body / they to-rente
 Deeth shal be deed / if that they may hym hente ¶ When they han goon / nat fully half a Mile Right as they wolde / han treden ouer a stile
 An old man and a poure / with hem mette
 This olde man / ful mekely hem grette
 And seyde thus / now lordes / god yow see
 ¶ The proudeste / of thise Riotours thre
 Answerde agayn / what carl with sory grace
 Why artow / al forwrapped saue thy face?
 Why lyusstow so longe / in so greet age?
 ¶ This olde man / gan looke in his visage
 And seyde thus / for I ne kan nat fynde
 A man / though þat I walked in to ynde Neithir in Citee / nor in no Village
 That wolde change / his youthe for myn Age
 And therfore / moot I han myn Age stille
 As longe tyme / as it is goddes wille
 ¶ Ne deeth allas / ne wol nat han my lyf
 Thus walke I / lyk a resteles knyht
 And on the ground / which is my moodres gate
 I knokke with my staf / bothe erly and late
 And seye / leue mooder / lest me In Lo how I varysche / flessch and blood & skyn
 Allas / whan shal / my bones been at reite
 Mooder / with yow / wolde I change my chesto
 That in myn chambre / longe tyme hath be Ye for an heyre clowt / to wrappe me
 But yet to me / she wol nat do that grace
 ffor which ful pale / and weiked is myn face
 ¶ But sires to yow / it is no curteisye
 To spoken / to an old man vileynyng 740

And vp they sterte / al drunken / in this rage
 And forth they goon / towards that village
 Of which the Tauermer / hadde spoke bifore
 And many a grisly ooth / thanne han they sworn 708
 And Cristes blessed body / they to-rente
 Deeth shal be deed / if they may hym hente
 ¶ When they han goon / nat fully a myle
 Right as they wolde / han treden ouer a stylo
 An old man and a poure / with hem mette
 This olde man / ful mekely hem grette
 And seyde thus / now lordes god yow se
 ¶ The proudeste / of thise Riotours thre
 Answerde agayn / what carl with sory grace
 Why artow al forwrapped / saue thy face
 Why lyusstow so longe / in so greet age
 ¶ This olde man / gan looke in his visage
 And seyde thus / for I ne kan nat fynde
 A man / thogh þat I walked in-to Inde Neithir in Citee / ne in no village
 That wolde change / his youthe for myn age
 And therfore moot I han / myn age stille
 As longe tyme / as it is goddes wille
 ¶ Ne deeth allas / ne wol nat have my lyf
 Thus walke I / lyk a resteles cnyht
 And on the ground / which is my moodres gate
 I knokke with my staf / bothe erly and late
 And seye / leue moder / lest me In Lo how I varysche / flessch & blood & skyn
 Allas / whan shal my bones / been at reite
 Moder / with yow / wolde I change my chesto
 That in myn chambre / longe tyme hath be
 Ye for an heyre clowt / to wrappe me
 But yet to me / she wol nat do that grace
 ffor which ful pale / and weiked is myn face
 But sires / to yow / it is no curteisye
 To spoken / to an old man vileynyng 740

And vp they stertyn & dronkyn in this rage
 And forth they gon towards that village
 Of which the tauermer hadde spoke by-forn
 And manye a greesly oth thanne han they sworn 708
 And crystis byssede body they to-rente (last 903, back) Deth schal ben ded yif they may hym hente Whan they han gon nat fully half a myle
 Ryght as they woldyn / a frodyn ouyr a stylo 712
 An old man & a poure 'with hem' mette (l. 1 corrected)
 This olde man ful mekely ham grette
 And seydyn thus now lordie god þow see
 The proudeste of these ryalours thre 716
 Answerde a-gayn what cherd with sory grace
 Why art thou for-wrappid saue thyn face
 Why lyggist thou so longe in so greet age
 This olde man gan lokyn in his visage 720
 And seyde thus for I ne can nat fynde
 A man thow I walkede in-to ynde
 Noythir in cete ne in noz village
 That wolde change his gouthe for myn age 724
 And therfore mote I holde myn age stylo
 As long tyme as it is godys wille
 Ne deeth allas wele nat han myn lyf
 Thus walke I lych a recheles cnyht
 And on the ground which is myn moderys gate
 I knokke with myn staf bothe erly & late
 And seye leue modyr lete me in Lo how I varyche bothe flesch & blood & skyn 732
 Allas whanne schal myne bonys been at reite Modyr with þow wolde I schauge myn chesto That in myn chambre long tyme hath be 3a for an heyre clout to wrappe me 736 But jif to me 3a wele nat do that grace ffor which ful pale & weiked is myn face
 But syrys to þow it is no curteyye
 To spekyrn to an old man vilanye 740

And vp þey sterte al drunken in þis rage
 And forþ þey gon toward þat vilage
 Of which þe tawernere hæp spoke byforn
 And many a grisly oþ þenne hæne þey sworn And cristes blessed body þey torent
 Deth schal be deed if þat we may him hent/
 When þay han gon nouht fully a myle /
 Right as þey wolde hæne troden ouer a style
 And olde and a pore man with hem mette þis olde man ful mekely hem grette And seyde þus now lordes god þou se þe proudest of þes ryetkours þre Answered agayn what carle wip harde grace
 Why art þou al forwrapped saue þi face /
 Why lyuest þou so longe in so gret age / þis olde man gan loken in his visage /
 And seyde þus for I can nouht fynde /
 A man þough þat I walked in-to ynde /
 Neyþer in Cite ne in vilage
 That wol change his þouþe for myn age
 And þerfore moot I haue myn age stille
 As lange tyme as it is goddes wille / Ne deþ allas nel nouht haue my lif þus walke I lyk a resteles knytr
 And on þe ground which is my moodres gate /
 I knokke wip my staff erly and late
 And seye þese moder lete me inne
 Lo how I wans fleisch and blood and skyn Allas when schullen my bones ben at reste Moder with þou wold I change my chest That in my chambre lange tyme hæne be þe for an here clout / to wrappe me But ȝif to me sche wole nouȝt de þat grace for which ful hale and welked is my face
 But aires to þou it nys no curtesye
 To speken vntil an olde man vilanye

And vp þei sterten and drunken in þis rage.
 And forþ þei gon towards þat vilage
 Of which þe tawernere hæp spoke byforn
 And mony a grisly oþþe han þei sworno
 And cristes blessed body þei to-rent þat death schal be dede if we may hym hent
 When þei han gon nat fully a myle
 Riȝt as þei wold hæne troden ouer a stile
 An olde and a poor man wip hem mette
 This olde man ful mekely hem grette
 And seide þus nowe lordes god þou see þe proudest of þise Rintours thro Answerde again what charle wip harde grace
 Why art þou al forwrapped sauf þi face Whi lyuest þou so longe in so grette age
 This olde man gan loken in his visage
 And seide þus for I can nat fynde
 A man þouȝe I walked into Ynde Neyþer in Cite ne in noon vilage þat wil chaungen his þouþe for myn age
 And þerfore mote I haue myn age stille
 As longe tyme as it is goddys wille /
 Ne deth allis nyl not haue my lif
 Thus walk I like a resteles catif
 And on þe grounde which is my moder gate
 I knokke wip my staf erly and late
 And seie leus moder lat me inne
 Loo howe I vanysh flesch blood and skynne Allas when schul my bones bene at reste Modere with þou wold I change my chest That in my chambre longe tyme hæp be.
 þe for an heeten cloute to wrappe me
 But ȝif to me she wil nat do þat grace .
 for which ful walked is my face
 And aires to þou it is no curtesie
 To speken vntil an olde man vilanye

And vpe þei stert al drunken in þis rage
 And forþe þei gone to-wards þat vilage
 Of whiche þe tawernere hæp spoken be-forne
 And mony a grisely oþþe þen hæne þei sworno
 And cristes blessed bodie þei to-rent
 Deþ schal be dede if þat we maie him hent
 When þei hæue gone nouht fully a myle
 Riȝt as þe[is] wolde hæue troden ouer a style
 An olde and a pouer man wip hem he mette
 This olde man ful mekely hem grette
 And seide þus nowe lordes god þou see þe proudeste of þes ryetours þre Anseward againe what carle wip hard grace
 Why art þou al for-wrapped saue þi face
 Whi leuest þou so longe in so grette age
 This olde man gan loken in his visage
 And seid þus for I. can nouȝt finde
 A man þouȝe þat I. walked into ynde
 Neyþer in Cite ne in vilage .
 That wil change his þouþe for myne age
 And þerfore moot I. haue my age stille
 As longe time as it is goddes wille Ne deþe alas ne wil nouht haue my lyue þus walke .I. lyke a risteles chaitif
 And on þe grounde whyche is my moders gate
 .I. knok wip my staf erly and late
 And seie leus moder lete me inne
 Lo howe .I. wane þeþe flesche blode and scynne Alas when schol my lones bien att rest
 Moder wip þou wold .I. change my chest Thatt in my chambre longe time hæp be þe for an here cloute to wrappe me
 Bot ȝut to me sche wil nouȝt do þat grace
 For whiche ful pale and welked is my face
 Bot aires to þou it is no curtesie
 To speken vnto an hold man vilanye

326 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

But he trespasse / in word / or elles in dede
In holy writ ye may your self wel rede
Agayns an old man / hoor vpon his heed
Ye shulde arise / wherefore I yeue you red¶
Ne dooth vn-to an old man / noon harm now
Namours than þat ye wolde / men dide to you
In age / if that ye so longe abyde
And god be wyth you / where ye go or ryde
I moot go thider / as I haue to go
¶ Nay olde cherl / by god thou shalt nat so
Seyde this oother hasardour anon
Thou partest nat so lightly / by Seint Iohn
Thou spak¶ right / now / of thilke traytour deeth
That in this contree / alle oure freendes sleeth
Hauē heer my trouthe / as thou art his epye Telle where he is / or thou shalt it abyde
By god / and by the holy sacrament¶
for soothly / thou art oon of his assent¶
To sleen vs yonge folk / thou false theef¶ ¶ Now sires quod he / if þat ye be so leef¶
To fynde deeth / turne vp this croked wey
for in that groue / I lafte hym by my fey
Vnder a tree / and ther he wolde abyde
Nicht for youre boost he wole him no thynge hyde Se ye that ook right there ye shal hym fynde
God saue you þat boghte agayn mankynde
And you amende / thus seyde this olde man
And euerich / of these Riotours ran
Til he cam to that tree / and ther they founde
Of florenys fyne of gold / yeoyned rounde
Wel ny an .vij. busshels / as hem thoughte
No lenger thanne / after deeth they soughte
But ech of hem / so glad was of that sighte for þat the florenys / been so faire and bright
That down they sette hem / by this precious hood¶
The worste of hem / he spak the firste word
ELLESMERE (6-T. 326)

326 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

But he trespase in word / or ellis in dede
In holy writ ye may your self wel rede
¶ Agayns an old man / hoor vp-on his heed
Ye shal arise / wherfore I yeue you red
Ne dooth vn-to an old man / noon harm now
Namours than þat ye wolde / men dide to you
In age // if þat ye so longe abyde
And god be with you / wher ye go or ryde
I moot go thider / as I haue to go
¶ Nay olde cherl / by god thou shalt nat so
Seyde / this oother hasardour anon
Thou partest nat so lightly / by Seint Iohn
Thou speke right now / of thilke traytour deeth
That in this contree / alle oure freendes sleeth
Hauē here my trouthe / as thou art his epye
Tel wher he is / or thou shalt it abyde
By god / and by the holy sacrament
for soothly / thou art oon of his assent¶
To sleen vs yonge folk / thou false theef¶ ¶ Now sires quod he / if þat you be so leef¶
To fynde deeth / turne vp this croked wey
for in that groue / I lafte hym by my fey
Vnder a tree / and ther he wolde abyde
Nat for youre boost he wol hym no thynge hyde
Se ye that ook right there ye schal hym fynde
God saue you / that boghte agayn mankynde
And you amende / thus seyde this olde man
¶ And euerich / of these Riotours ran
Til he cam to that tree / and ther they founde
Of florenys fyne / of gold / yeoyned rounde
Wel ny an .vij. busshels / as hem thoughte
No lenger thanne / after deeth they soughte
But ech of hem / so glad was of the sighte for þat the florenys / been so faire and brighte
That down they sette hem / by this precious hood¶
The worste of hem / he spak the firste word
HENGWRT (6-T. 326)

326 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

But he trespase in word or ellis in dede
In holy writ ye may youre selwyn weel reede
[A-geyns an olde man / hoor vp-on his heed 3e shulde arise / wherefore I geue you red] Ne doth vn-to an old man noon harm now
Na more than 3e wolde men dede to you
In age 3if that 3e so longe a-byde
And god be wyth 3ow where 3e go or ryde
I mot-go thodyr there I haue to go ¶ Nay olde cherl by god thou schalt nat so ¶ Seyde this othir hasardour a-non Thow partist nat so lytely by seynt Iohn
Thow speke ry3t now of thilke traytour deeth
That in oure cuntre alle oure frendys sleeth
Hauē here myn trethe as thow art his espie Telle where he is / or / thow schalt it a-bye
By god & by holys sacrament for sothly thow art of his assent
To sleen vs yonge folk thow falses theef
Now senis quod he sijn that ye be so leef
To fynde deeth turne vp this croked wey for in that groue I lafte hym by myn fey Vndyr a tre & there he wolde a-byde
Nat for oure boost he wole hym nat hyde
Se ye that ook ry3t there ye schal hym fynde
God saue you that boghte a-3en man-kynde
And 3ow a-mende thus seyde this olde man ¶ And eueryche of these rytourys ran Til they come to that tre & there they founde
Of florenyns fyne of gold I-oyneed rounde Wel ny3h an .vij. buschellis as hem thoughte
No lengere thanne aflyr 3eth they soughte
But eche of hem so glad was of the syght for that florenyns been so fayre & bryjt
That down they sette hem by this precious hood
The worste of hem spak the firste word
CAMBRIDGE (6-T. 326)

(Cambr. Univ. MS.
D. 4. 24, leaf 147)

(Dief 101)

(Dief 119)

(Dief 119)

(Dief 119)

(Dief 119)

(Dief 119)

(Dief 119)

(Dief 119)

But he trespase in word oþer elles . in dede
In holy writ<sup>3</sup> 30 may youre self wel rede /
Azeins an olde man hoor vpon his hede /
30 schallen arise wherefore I gine 30w rede
Ne doþ nouȝt<sup>4</sup> to an olde man non harme now
No more þat men dede to 30w
In age if þat 30 so longe abyde
And god be wiþ 30w wheþer 30 go or ryde
I mot go þider þer as I haue to go Nay olde cherl by god þou schalt nouȝt<sup>5</sup> so Sayde þis olde hasardour anon þou þartest nouȝt<sup>6</sup> so lightly by seint<sup>7</sup> Ioh þou spake right now of þilke traitour doþ þat in þis countre alle oure frendes slep haue heer my troupe as þou art his aspye / Telle wher he is or þou schalt abyde
By god and by þe holy sacrament/for soþly þou art on of his assent<sup>8</sup>
To slene vs zonge folk<sup>9</sup> þou fals þef
Now sires if þat it be to 3ou so lef
To fynde doþ turne vp þis croked way for in þat groue I lafte him by my fey vnder a tre and þere he wole abyde
Ne for youre boest<sup>10</sup> he nyl him no þinge hyde Se 30 þat oke right<sup>11</sup> þere 30 schulin him fynde
God saue 3ou þat bouȝt<sup>12</sup> aȝein mankynde
And 3ou amende þus sayde þis olde man
And euery of þise ryetoures ran Til þey came to þe tre and þer þey founde
Of florens fyne of gold y-coyned rounde Wel neth a seten buschels as hem pouȝt<sup>13</sup>
No langer þenne after doþ þey souȝt<sup>14</sup>
But eche of hem so glad was of þe sight<sup>15</sup> for þat þe florens so faire ben and bright<sup>16</sup>
That<sup>17</sup> doune þey sette hem by þe precious horde
The worst of hem he spak<sup>18</sup> þe firste worde

But he trespase in word or ellis in dede
In holy writte 30 may youre self wel rede ¶ Azeint an olde man hoor vpon his hede 30 schuld arise þerfor I 3ouo 3ou rede
Ne doþ vnto and olde man harme as nowe
No more þan 3e wolde a man did 3owe
In age if þat 3e so longe abide
And god be wiþ 3ow wheder 3e goo or ride
I mote goo þidere as I haue to goo
We may olde cherle by god þou shalt nat<sup>19</sup> eoo .
Seyde þise oþer hasardours anone
Thow partest nat<sup>20</sup> so lightly be seynt<sup>21</sup> Iohn Thow spak<sup>22</sup> right now of þilke traitour deþe þat in þis countre alle oure frendes slepe Haue here my troupe as þou art<sup>23</sup> his aspie Telle wher ho is or ellis þou shalt dyo
By god and by þe holy sacrament<sup>24</sup> for soþly þou art<sup>25</sup> [on] of his assent<sup>26</sup>
To slenen vs zenge folk<sup>27</sup> þou fals þef Nowe sires if it be to 3ou so lef
To fynde doþ turne vp þis croked way for in þat groue I left<sup>28</sup> hym be my fay Vnder a tre and þere ho wil abide Ne for youre boost<sup>29</sup> he nyl hym no þinge hide
See 30 þat ooke right<sup>30</sup> þere 30 schul him fynde
God saue 3ou þat bouȝt<sup>31</sup> aȝein mankynde
And 3ou amende þus saide þis olde man
And euery of þise Riatores ranne Til þei come to þe tre and þer þei founde florens of gold fyne . ykoyned rounde
Wel nyghe a seten busschells as hem pouȝt<sup>32</sup>
No langer than aftre doþ þei souȝt<sup>33</sup>
But eche of hem so glad was of þat syȝt<sup>34</sup> for þat þe florenes so faire be and bryȝt<sup>35</sup>
That<sup>36</sup> doune þei sette hem by þe precious hoord
The worst of hem he spak<sup>37</sup> þe first worde

¶ Corrus carate capite courage.

744

748

752

756

760

764

768

772

776

Bot he trespas in worde oþer in dede
In holy writte 30 maie youre self welo rede Azeins an old man hoor vpon his hede 3e scholden arise wher-for .I. ȝif 3owe rede
Ne doþe nouȝt to an olde man none harme nowo
Ne more þan 3e wolde mon dide to 3ow
In age if þat . 30 so longe abide And god be wiþe 3owe wheþer 30 go or ride
.I. mote go þoder þer as .I. haue to go Nay olde cherle be god þou schalt nouȝt so Saide þis oþer hasardour anone
Thou parties nouȝt so lyghtly be seint Iohn Thou spakkest riȝt nowe of þilke traitour deþe
That in þis Countre al oure frendes slepe
Haue here my troupe as þou ert his aspye
Tel wher he his or þou schalt abyde
Be god and be þe holi sacrament
For soþly þou ert on of his assent
To slene vs zonge folke þou fals þef
Nowe sires if þat it be to 3owe so lef
To fynde deþe torne vp þis croked weie
For in þat . groue .I. last him be my feye Vnder a tre and þere he wil abide Ne for youre booste he wil him no þinge hide
See 30 þat ooke riȝt þere 30 schuline him fynde
God saue 3owe þat bouȝt ȝeine mankynde
And 3owe amend þus seide þis olde manne
And euery of þes ryetoures ranne
Til þei came to þe tre and þere þei founde
Of florens fyne of gold y-koyned rounde
Wel nyhe a .vij. busschells as hem pouȝt
No longere þan after deþe þei souȝt
Bot iche of hem was so gladdie of þe siȝt For þat þe florenys so faire bien and bryht þat doune þei sett hem be þe precious horde
The worst of hem þe spak þe first worde

¶ Bretheren quod he / taak kepe what I seyn
 My wit is greet though þat I bourde and pleye
 This tresor / hath fortune vn-to vs zeuen
 In myrthe and Iolitee / oure lyf to lyuen
 And lightly as it cometh / so wol we spende 780
 Ey goddes precious dignitee / who wende [Dist 145, back]
 To-day / that we sholde haue so fair a grace
 But myghte this gold / be caried fro this place 784 Hoom to myn hous / or elles vn-to youre for wel ye woot þat al this gold is oures Thanne were we / in heigh felicitee
 But trewely / by daye it may nat beo 788
 Men wolde seyn / þat we were thesse stronge
 And for oure owene tresor / doon vs honge
 This tresor / moete yearied be by nyghte
 As wisely / and as alyly / as it myghte 792
 Wherefore I rede / þat Cut among vs alle
 Be drawe / and lat so / wher the Cut wol falle
 And he þat hath the Cut / with herte blithe
 Schal renne to towne / and that ful swithe 796
 And brynge vs breed and wyu / ful prively
 And two of vs / shal kepen subtilly
 This tresor wel / and if he wol nat tarye 800
 When it is nyght we wol this tresor carye
 By con assent / where as vs thynketh best
 That on of hem / the Cut broghte in his fest
 And bad hym drawe / and looke where it wol falle
 And it fel / on the yongeste of hem alle 804
 And forth toward the town / he wente anon
 And al so soone / as that he was gon
 That con spak thus / vn-to that oother
 Thow knowest wel / thou art my sworn brother 808
 Thy profyt wol I telle thee anon
 Thow woot wel / that oure felawe is gon
 And here is gold / and that ful greet plessee
 That schal departed beo / among vs thre 812

¶ Bretheren quod he / taak kepe / what þat I seyn
 My wit is greet though þat I bourde and pleye
 This tresor hath fortune / vn-to vs zeuen
 In myrthe and Iolitee / oure lyf to lyuen 780
 And lightly as it cometh / so wol we spende
 Ey goddes precious dignytee / who wende
 To day / that we sholde haue / so fair a grace [Dist 294, back]
 But myghte this gold / be caried fro this place 784 Hoom to myn hous / or ellis vn-to youre for wel ye woot that al this gold is oures
 Thanne were we / in heigh felicitee
 But trewely / by daye it may nat be 788
 Men wolde seyn / þat we were thesse stronge
 And for oure owene tresor / doon vs honge
 This tresor / moete yearied be by nyghte 792
 As wisely / and as alyly / as it myghte
 Therefore I rede / that cut amonges vs alle
 Be drawe / and lat so / wher the cut wol falle
 And he þat hath the cut / with herte blithe 796
 Schal renne to towne / and that ful swithe
 And brynge vs / breed / and wyu / ful prively
 And two of vs / shal kepen subtilly
 This tresor wel / and if he wol nat tarye 800
 When it is nyght we wol this tresor carye
 By con assent wher as vs thynketh best
 That on of hem / the cut broghte in his fest
 And bad hem drawe / and looke wher it wol falle
 And it fel / on the yongeste of hem alle 804
 And forth toward the town / he wente anon
 And also soone / as þat he was gon
 That con of hem / spak thus vn-to that oother
 Thow knowest wel / thou art my sworn brother 808
 Thy profyt wol I telle thee anon
 Thow woot wel / þat oure felawe is gon
 And here is gold / and that ful greet plessee
 That schal departed beo / among vs thre 812

Brotheryn quod he thynge what I seye
 Myn wit is greet thow that I borde & pleye
 This tresore hath fortune vn-to vs zeuyn
 In myrthe & Iolyte vure lyf to leuyn 780
 And lyghtly as it comyth so wele we spende
 Ey godys p'ecyous dignete ho wende
 To-day that we schuldyn han so fayr grace
 But myghte this gold been caryed from this place 784 Horn to myn hous or ellys vn-to 300fys for weel ye wot that al this gold is ourys Thanne werq we in high felicitee [Dist 313, back]
 But treweli by day it may nat be 788
 Men woldyn seyn that we were thevis stronge
 And for oure owene tresore doon vs honge
 This tresore muste Icariede becom by nyght
 As wysely & as alyly as men myght 792 Therefore I rede that cut among vs alle
 Be drawe & lat se where the cut wole falle
 And he that hat the cut with herte blythe
 Schal renne to towne & that ful swythe 796
 And brynge vs breed & wyu pruyly
 And two of vs schal kepen subtilly
 This tresor wel / if he wole nat tarye 800
 When it is nyght we wole this tresore carye
 By on assent / where as vs thynketh best
 That on of hem the Cut brougte in his fest
 And bad hem drawe & loka where it wolde falle
 And it fel on the yongest of hem alle 804
 And forth toward the town he wente a-non
 And al so soone as þat he was gon
 That con of hem spak on-to that othyr Thow knowest weel thou art myn swore brothir 808 Thyyn profyt wele I telle thee a-non Thow wist weel that oure felawe is gon
 And herep is gold & that ful greet plessee
 That schal departid beo among vs thre 812

Breþeren quod he take kepe what I say My witte is greþ þough þat I bourde and play þis tresour haþ fortune to vs ziften
 In merþe and Iolyte oure lif to liven
 And lightly as it comþeþ so wil we spende
 By goddes precious dignite who wende
 To day þat we schulde haue so fair a grace
 But mighte þis golde be caried for þis place home to myn hous oþer elles vnto zours þanne mighte we seye þat it wore al oures / þanne were we in heil felicitie but trewely by day it may nouht be / Men wolde say þat we were þenes stronge
 And for oure oughne tresour don vs honge þis tresour mooste y-karide be by nyght
 As wyaly and as sleightly as hit might Wherefore I rede let loke among vs alle
 Be drawe and lett see where þe cutte wol falle he þat haþ þe cutte wij herte bliþe Schal renne to tounne and þat ful swyþe
 To bryng vs breed and wyn ful pryuyly
 And tuo of ous schulu kepe ful subtelly þis tresour wel and if he wol nouht tarien
 When þat it is nyght we woln by tresour carien
 By on assent wher as vs luste best þat oon of hem brougte in his feste
 And bad hem drawe and loke on whon it wol falle
 And it fell on þe zongeste of hem alle
 And forþ toward þe toun he wente anon
 And also soone as he was y-gon þat oon of hem spak þus vnto þat oþer þou wost wel þat þou art myn owne sworne broþer Thyn prophete wol I telle þe anon þou wost wel þat our felawe is gon
 And here is gold and þat ful greþ plente
 That it schal departed be amonges vs þre

Breþeren quod he take hede what I say
 My witte is grete þough I bourde and play
 This tresour haþ fortune to vs zeuen
 In myrþe and iolyte our lyf to lyuen
 And lightly so as it comþeþ so wil we spende
 Ey precious goddys herf who wende
 To-day þat we schulde haue so faire a gruce
 But myrþ þis gold be caried for þis place Home into myne hous or ellis to zours for wel I woote þat all þis gold is oures /
 Than were we in high felicitie.
 But trewely by day it may nat be Men wold say þat we were þenes stronge
 And for oure owne tresour done vs honge
 As wisely and as scliply as it myrþ
 This tresour moost yearide be be nyrþ
 Wherefore I rede let loke among vs alle
 To drawe and lett see where þe Cutt wil falle he þat haþ þe cutte wij herte bliþi Schal renne to tounne and þat ful swiþi
 To bringe vs brede and drink ful priuely
 And tuo of vs schal kepen sotilly
 This tresour wel and if he wil not tarie
 When it is nyrþ we wil þis tresour carie
 By con assent where as vs likoþ best
 That oon of hem brogrt gras in his fest
 And bad hem drawe and loke wher it wolde falle
 And it felle on the zongest of hem alle
 And forþ toward þe tounne he went anon
 And also soone as that he was goone
 That oon of hem spak vnto þat oþer
 Thou wost wel þou art myn owne sworn broþer
 With prophete wil I telle þe anon
 Thou wost wel þat our felawe is gon
 And here is gold and þat grete plente þat schal departed be amonges vs þre

Breþeren quod he takop kepe whatt .I. seie
 My witte is þrete þouhe þat .I. bourde and pleie
 This tresour hape fortun to vs zeuen
 In merþe and Iolyte oure lif to leuen
 And lightly as it comþeþ so wil we spende
 Ey goddes precious dignite who wende
 To daie þat we scholde haue so faire a grace
 Bot myht þis golde be caried for þis place Home to my hous oþer elles vnto zours þan nyht we seie þat it were al oures þan were we in lihe felicitie Bot trewely be daie it mais nouht be Men wold seie þat we were þenes stronge
 And for oure owen treasure done vs honge
 This tresoure most .ykaride be by nyht
 As wisely and as slely as it miht
 Where-for .I. rede lette loke among vs al
 Be drawe and latte see where þe cutt wil fall
 And he þat hape þe cutte wij hert bliþe
 Schal renne to þe tounne and þat ful swyþe
 To bringe vs brede and wyne ful priuely
 And tuo of vs schal kope ful subtelly þis tresours welle and if he wil nouht tarien Whanne þat it is nyht we wollen þis tresour karien
 Be one assent where as vs lust beste
 An kuttos one of hem broucht in his fiste
 And badde hem drawe and loke on whome it wolde fall
 And it fell on þe zongest of hem all
 And forþe towards þe tounne he went anone
 And also soone as he was gone
 The tone of hem spake þus vnto þe toþere
 Thou wost welle þat þou art myn owen sworne broþer Thin profite wil .I. tel þe anone
 Thou woste welle þat our felawe is gone
 And here is golde and þat ful grete plente þat it schal departed be amonges vs þre

But natheles / if I kan shape it so
 That it departed were / among vs two
 Hadde I nat doon / a freendes torn to thee?
 ¶ That oother answerde / I noot how that may be 816
 He woov þat the gold is with vs tweye
 What schal we doon / what schal we to hym seye?
 ¶ Schal it be conseil / seyde the firste shrewe?
 And I schal tellen / in a wordes fewe 820
 What we schal doon / and byrynge it wel aboute
 ¶ I graunte quod that oother / out of doute
 That by my trouthe / I schal thes nat biweye
 ¶ Now quod the firste / thou woost wel we be tweye 824
 And two of vs / schal strengere be than oon
 Looke whan þat he is set that right moon
 Arys / as though thou woldest with hym pleye
 And I schal / ryue hym / thurgh the sydes tweye 828
 Whil that thou strogelost with hym / as in game
 And with thy daggere / looke thou do the same
 And thanne / schal at this gold / departed be
 My deere freend / bitwixen me and thee 832
 Thanne may we / bothe oure lustes all fulfille
 And pleye at does / right at oure owene wille
 And thus / accorded been thise shrewes tweye
 To sleen the thrilde / as ye han herd me seye ¶ This yongeste / which þat wente va-to the toun ful ofte in herte / he rolleth vp and don
 The beautee of thise floryns / newe & brighte
 O lord quod he / if so were þat I myghte 840
 Haue al this tresor / to my self allone
 Ther is no man / þat lyueth vnder the trone
 Of god / that sholde lyue so myre as I
 And atte laste / the fend oure enemy 844
 Putte in his thought þat he sholde poyson beye
 With which / he myghte / sleen hise felawes tweye for why / the fend found hym in swich luyunge
 That he hadde leue / hem to sorwe byrynge 848

But natheles / if I kan shape it so
 That it departed were / among vs two
 Hadde I nat doon / a freendes torn to thee
 ¶ That oother answerde / I noot how that may be 816
 He woov þat the gold / is with vs tweye
 What schal we doon / what schal we to hym seye
 ¶ Schal it be conseil / seyde the firste shrewe
 And I schal telle / in a wordes fewe 820
 What we schal doon / and byrynge it wel aboute
 ¶ I graunte quod that oother / out of doute
 That by my trouthe / I wol thes nat biweye
 ¶ Now quod the firste / thou woost wel we be tweye 824
 And two of vs / schal strengere be than oon
 Looke whan þat he is set that right moon
 Arys / as though thou woldest with hym pleye
 And I schal ryue hym / thurgh the sydes tweye 828
 Whil that thou strogelost with hym / as in game
 And with thy daggere / looke thou do the same
 And thanne schal / at this gold departed be
 My deere freend / bitwixe thea, and me 832
 Thanne may we bothe / oure lustes all fulfille
 And pleye at does / right at oure owene wille
 And thus accorded been / thise shrewes tweye
 To sleen the thrilde / as ye han herd me seye 836
 ¶ This yongeste / which that wente to the toun
 ful ofte in herte / he rolleth vp and don
 The beautee of thise floryns / newe & brighte
 O lord quod he / if so were þat I myghte 840
 Haue al this tresor / to my self allone
 Ther is no man / þat lyueth vnder the trone
 Of god / that sholde lyue / so myrie as I
 And at the laste / the fend oure enemy 844
 Putte in his thought þat he sholde poyson beye
 With which he myghte sleen / his felawes tweye
 for why / the fend found hym / in swich luyunge
 That he hadde leue / hym to sorwe byrynge 848

But natheles If I kan speke it so That it departyd were a-mong vs two Hadde I nat doon a frendys turn to thee
 That othir answerde I not how that may bee 816
 He wot that the gold is with vs tweye
 What schal we do what schal we to hym seye Schal it be conseil seyde the ferste schrewe
 And I schal tellyn in a wordys fewe 820
 What we schal doon & byrynge it weel a-boute
 I graunte quod that othir out of doute
 That by myn trouthe I wele the nat by-wrye Now quod he thow most wel we be ben tweye 824
 And two of vs schal strengere ben than oon Loke whan he is set that rytz a-moon
 Arys as thow woldys with hym pleye 828
 And I schal ryue hym thour the sydys tweye Whil that thou strogelyst with hym as in game
 And with thyn daggere loke thou do the same And thanne schal al this gold departid be Myn deere frend he-twixe me & the 832
 Thanne may we bothe oure lustis all fulfille
 And pleye at the deis rytz at oure owene wille
 And thus accorded been these schrewys tweye
 To sleen the thredde as ye han herd me seye 836 ¶ This yongeste wyght that wente to the toun ful ofte in hese<sup>1</sup> herte he rollede vp & don
 The beute of the floryns newe & brighte
 O lord quod he if so were that I myste 840 Haue al the tresor to myn self a-lone
 There is no man that lyueth vnder the trone
 Of good that schulde liue so myre as I
 And at the laste the fend oure enemy 844
 Put in his herte / that he schulde poysonne<sup>2</sup> beye<sup>2</sup> [p. r. corr.]
 With which he myghte sleen hise felawis tweye for why the fend fond hym in swich luyunge
 That he hadde leue hem to sorwe byrynge 848

But napeles if I can schape it/ so pat it departed were amongst vs tuo had I nought don a frendes turne to þe þat oper answerde I not how þat mighte be I woot wel þat þe gold is ours tuo
 What schulde we seye what schulde we do Schal it be counsell sayde þe firste schrowe /
 And I schal telle in wordes fewe
 What vs schuln doon and bringe it wel aboute
 I graunte quod þat oper out of doute þat by my trowpe I wol þe nouȝt bewreye
 Now quod þe firste þou wost wel we be tweye
 And tweyne of vs schuln strengre þen þan oon loke whenne he is sette and þanne anon
 Arise as þou woldest wiȝ him pleye
 And I schal renne him purgh þe sydes tweye Whiles þat þou stroggelist wiȝ him in game
 And wiȝ þi dagger loke þou do þe same
 And þanne schal al þis gold departed be My dere frende bitwixe þe and me
 þenne may we boȝe ours lutes fulfille
 And pleye atte dys right at our owen wille
 And þus accorded þen þese schrowes tweye
 To sleen þe priddes as ȝe herde me seye þis jongest which þat wente to þe toun ful oft in his herte he rollep vp and doun þe beute of þese floreyens newe and bright O lord quod he if so were þat I might Al þis tresour wynde to my self alone þer nys no man þat luyep vnder þe throne /
 Of god þat scholde luye as mery as I
 And at þe laste þe feend our enemy
 Putte in his þouȝt þat he schulde poysen beye
 With which he mighte sleen his felawes tweye for why þe feend fand him in such luyng
 That hadde leus him to sorwe bringe

But napeles if I can schape it soo þat it departed were amonges vs twoo Had I not done a frendes turne to þe þat oper Answerde I not howe þat myȝt be I wold wel þat þe gold were oures twoo .
 What schuld we doo þat it myȝt be soo .
 Schal it be counsaile said þe first schrowe
 And I schal telle [þe] in wordes fewe
 What vs schul doon and bringe it aboute
 I graunt quod þat oper out of doute
 That by my troupe I nyl þe nat bywreien
 Now quod the first þou wote wel we be tweyen
 And twoo of vs schul stronger be þan oon loke when he is sette and þat anon Arise as þouȝt þou woldest wiȝ hym play
 And I schal ryuan hym þorgh þe sides twey Whiles þat þow stroggelist with hym as is game
 And wiȝ þi daggere loke þou doo þe same
 And þan schal al þis golde departed be
 My dere frende bitwixe þe and me
 Than may we boȝt our lutes fulfille
 And play at þe dice at our owne wille
 And þus accorded bene þise schrowes tway
 To sleen þe þred as ȝe han herd me say ¶ This jongest which þat went to þe tounne ful oft in his hert rollep vp and dounne þe beute of þise floreyens faire and bryȝt
 O lord quod he if it so were I myȝt
 Haue al þis tresour to myself alone
 Ther nys no man þat luyep vnder throne
 Of golde þat schuld luye so mery as I
 And at þe last þe feende our enemye Put in his þouȝt þat he schuld poysen bey wiȝ which he myȝt sleen his felawes twey for whi þe feende fonde him in such luyng
 That he had leus hym to sorwe bringe

Bot napeles if .I. can schape it so þat it departed weree a-monge vs tuo Hadd .I. nouȝt done a frendes turne to þe That opere answerde .I. note howe þat myȝt be
 .I. wote þat þe golde is ourre tuo
 What schol we seie what schold we do Schaft it be counsaile seide þe first schrowe
 And .I. schal tel in wordes fewe
 That we schal done and bringe it wele aboute
 .I. grant quod þat opere oute of doute þat be my troupe .I. witt þe nouht be-wreye
 Now quod þe first þou wote wels we be tweye
 And tweyne of vs schal stronger bien þan one Looke when he is sett and þat anone
 Arise as þou woldest wiȝ him pleye
 And .I. schal renne him þoruche þe sides tweye Whiles þat þou stroggest wiȝ him in game
 And wiȝ þi dagger loke þou do þe same
 And þanne schal al þis golde departed be My dere frende be-twee me and þe
 Than maie we boȝe our lutes fulfille
 And pleye att dees riht att our owen wiȝt
 And þus accorded bien þe schrowes tweye
 To sle þe priddes as ȝe herd me seie þis jongest whiche þat went to þe tounne Ful oft in hert he rollep vpe and dounne þe beute of þes floreyens newe and bryht
 O lord quod he if so were þat .I. myȝt Al þis tresore wynde to my self alone þere is no man þat luyep vnder þe throne
 Of god þat schold leue as mery as .I.
 And att þe last þe fende our enemye
 Put in his þouȝt þat he scholde poysen bye
 With whiche he miht alyne his felawes tweye
 For whi þe fond fonde him in suche leuyng
 That hadde leue him to sorwe bringe for this was outrelly / his fulle entente

To sleen hem bothe / and neuere to repente
And forth he gooth / no longer wolde he tarie
Into the toum / vn-to Apothecarie
And preyde hym / þat he hym wolde selle
Som poyson / þat he myghte hise rattis quelle
And eek ther was / a polcaut in his hawe
That as he seyde / hise capouns hadde yalowe
And fayn he wolde / wreke hym / if he myghte
On vermyn / þat destroyed hym by nyghte
¶ The Pothecarie answerde / and thou shalt haue
A thyng<sup>1</sup> that al so god my soule saue
In al this world / ther is no creature
That eten or dronken hath / of this confiture Noght / but the montaunce of a corn of whete
That he ne shal / his lif anon forlete
Ye sterue he shal / and that in lasse while
Than thou wolt goon a pass / nat but A Mile
This poyson / is so strong and violent<sup>2</sup>
¶ This cursed man / hath in his hond yhent<sup>3</sup>
This poyson in a box / and sith he ran
In-to the nexte strete / vn-to a man
And borwed hym / large botels thre
And in the two / his poyson poured he
The thridde he keppe clene / for his owene drynke for al the nyght<sup>4</sup> he shooppe hym for to swynke
In carynge of the gold / out of that place
And when this Riotour / with sory grace
Hadde filled with wyne / hise grette botels thre <sup>[leaf 146, b.2-3]</sup>
To hise felawes / agayn repairreth he ¶ What nedeth it to sarmonne of it moore for right so / as they hadde cast his deeth bifore Right so they han hym slayn / and that anon
And whan þat this was doon / thus spak that oon
Now lat vs sitte and drynke / and make vs merie
And afterward / we wol his body berie

for this was outrelly / his ful entente
To sleen hem bothe / and neuere to repente
¶ And forth he goth / no longer wolde he tarie 852 In to the toum / vn-to Apothecarye
And preyed hym / þat he hym wolde selle
Som poyson / that he myghte his rattis quelle
And eek ther was / a polcaut in his hawe
856 That as he seyde / his capouns hadde yalowe
And fayn he wolde / wreke hym if he myghte
On vermyn / that destroyed hym by nyghte
¶ The Pothecarie answerde / and thou shalt haue
860 A thyng<sup>1</sup> that also god / my soule saue
In al this world / ther is no creature
That ete / or dronke / hath of this confiture
Nat but the montaunce / of a corn of whete <sup>[leaf 146, b.2-3]</sup> 864 That he ne shal his lyf / anon forlete
Ye sterue he shal / and that in lasse while
Than thou wolt goon a pass / nat but a myle
The poyson / is so strong and violent<sup>2</sup> 868 This cursed man / hath in his hand yhent<sup>3</sup>
This poyson in a box / and sith he ran
In-to the nexte strete / vn-to a man
And borwed hym / large Botels thre 872 And in the two / his poison poured he
The thridde / he keppe clene for his drynke
for al the nyght<sup>4</sup> he shooppe hym for to swynke
In carynge of the gold / out of that place
876 And when this Riotour / with sory grace
Hadde filled with wyne / hise grette Botels thre
To hise felawes / agayn repairreth he
¶ What nedeth it to sarmonne of it moore
880 for right as they / hadde cast his deeth bifore
Right so / they han hym slayn / and that anon
And when this was doon / thus spak that oon
Now lat vs sitte and drynke / and make vs merie
884 And afterward / we wol his body berie

This was wityrly his entente
To sleen hem bothe & neuere to repente
And forth he goth no lengers wolde he tarie 852 In-to the toum vn-to a potecarye
And preyede hym that he hym wolde selle
Sum poyson that he myghte hise rattis quelle
And eek ther was a polkat in his hawe 856 That as he seyde his capounys hadde he slave
And fayn he wolde wreke hym gif he myghte
On vermyn that destroyede hym be nyghte
¶ The potecarye answerde & thow schalt haue 860 A thyng that also god myn soule saue
In al this world ther is no creature
That etyn or drynk of this confiture<sup>1</sup> <sup>[1 y corrected]</sup>
Nat but the amoutenance of a corn of wheete <sup>[leaf 141, b.2-3]</sup> 864 That he schal his lyf a-moon for-lete Ya sterue he schal and that in lasse while That thou wyll gon a pas nat but a myle
The poyson is so strong & violent 868 ¶ This cursede man hath in his hond I-hent ¶ This poyson in a box & sythe he ran
In-to the nexte strete vn-to a man
And borwede hym large botellys tre 872 And in the two his pousoun pourede he
The thredde he keppe clene for his drynk for al the nyght<sup>4</sup> he schop hym for to swynk
In carynge of that gold out of that place 876 And when this ryotour with sory grace Hadde fylled wyth wyne hise grette botellis thre
To hise felles a-geyn reparyreth hee ¶ What needs of it to sarmonne moore 880 for ryht as they hadde cast his deeth byfore Rygh<sup>4</sup> so they han hym slayn & that a-moon
And when this was doon thus spak that oon
Now lat vs sitte & drynke & make vs merie 884 And afyr that we welo his body berie

for þis was viterly his entent
 To alen hem hope and neuer to repent
 And forþ he goþ no longer nolde he tarye
 In-to þe town vnto a potycarie /
 And preyde him þat he him wolde selle
 Som poyson þat he myght his rattes kulle
 And oþer þer was a polkat in his hawe þat as he sayde his Capons had y-slawe /
 And sayde he wolde wreken him if he myght
 Of vermyn þat destroyed him by nyght þe apotycaries answorde þou schalt haue
 A þing þat als god my soule saue
 In al þis worlde þer nys no creature
 þat eten or drunken hap of þis confecture Nought but þe mountance of a corn of whete
 þat he ne schal his lif anon forlete 3e sterue he schal and þat in lasse while / þanne þou wolt gon a pace nought but a myle þis poyson is so strong and so violent þis cursed man hap in his hand y-hent þis poyson in a box and seþenes he ran
 In-to þe nexte strete vnto a man
 And borwed hym large botelles þre
 And in þe tweyne þis poyson poured he þe þridde he keped clene for his drynke for al þe nyght he schop him to swynke
 In karying of þe gold out of þat place
 And when þis rytour wip sory grace had felled wip him his grete botelles þre To his felawes aȝain reparyeþ he What nedep it to sermone þer of more for right as þey hadde cast his deþ afore Right so þey haue him slayn and þat anon
 And wheane þat þis was don þen spak þat oon
 Now let vs drynke and sytte and make vs mery
 And afterward we wolen his body berey

for þis was viterly his entent
 To seloun hem hope and neuer to repent
 And-forþ he goþ no longer wolde he tarye
 Into þe towne vnto apotecarye
 And preide hym þat he flym wolde selle
 Somme poyson þat he mygt his rattes kulle
 And eke þer was a polkat in his hawe þat as he seide his capons had esclawe
 And seide he wolk wreke hym gif he mygt
 On vermyn þat destroyen hem by nygt
 The apotecarie answerd þou shalt haue
 A þing þat as god my soule saue
 In al þis worlde þer nys no creature
 þat ete or drink of þis confecture
 Nought but þe mountance of a corn of whete
 þat he ne schal his lif anon forlete 3e sterue he schal and þat in lasse while þan þou wilt gon a pace nat but a myle
 This poyson þat is so hard and violent
 This cursed man hap in his hande it hent
 This poyson in a box and siþens he ranne
 Into þe nexte strete vnto a man
 And borowed hym large botelles þre
 And to his felawes aȝein repaireþ he
 The ij. he kepte clene for his drinke for alle þe nygt he shope hym forto swynk
 In carying of þat gold out of þat place
 And when þis rytour wip sory grace
 Had filled wip him his grete botels þre To his felawes aȝain repaireþ he / What nedep it to sermon þerof more for right as þei had cast his deþ byfore Right so þei han hym sclayn and þat anon
 And when þat þis was don þan spake þat of Now let vs sitte and drink and make vs mery
 And afterward we wil his body berey

For þis was vterly his entent
 To slene hem hope and neuer to repent
 And forþe he goþe No longer wold he tarye
 In-to þe toune vn-to a potecarie
 And preide him þat he wold him sell sum poyson þat he myht his rattes quell And eke þere was a pulkat in his hawe þat as he seide his capons hadd y-slawe
 And seide he wold wreken him if he myht
 Of vermyn þat destroyed him be nyht
 The potecary anseward þou schalt haue
 A þinge þat als god my soule saue
 In al þis werlde þer nys no creature þat eten or drunke hap of þis confecture Not bot þe mountance of a corne of whete þat he ne schal anone his lif for-lete 3e sterue he schal and þat in lesse while þan þou wolle gone bot a pace not but a myle
 This poyson is so stronge and so violent This cursed man hap in his hande yhente þis poyson in a box and seþen he ranne
 In-to þe next strete vnto a man
 And borwed him large botels þre
 And in þe tweyne þis poyson poured he þe þredde he keped clen for his drinke
 For al þe nyht he schop him to swynke
 In caryng of þe gold out [of] þat place
 And when þis rytoure wip sory grace
 Hadd filled wip him his grete botelus þre
 To his felawes aȝeine repaireþ he
 What nedep it to sermon þer of more
 For rit as þei had kast his deþe to-fure
 Rit so þei haue him slayne and þat anone
 And when þat þis was done þan spak þe tone Nowe lat vs drynke and sitte and make vs merye
 And afterward we wolen his body berey

And with that word / it happed hym per cas
To take the botel / ther the poysoun was
And drank / and yaf his felawo drynke also for which anon / they stormen bothe two
¶ But certes I suppose / that Auycen
Wroot neuere in no Canon / ne in no fen
Mo wonder signes / of empoisonyng
Than hadde thise wrecches two / er hir endyng 802 Thus ended been / thise hōmycides two
And eek the false empoisonere also
¶ O cursed synne / of alle cursednesse
O traytours homicide .o. wikkednesse
896 O glotonye / luxurie / and hasardrye Thou blasphemour of Crist with vileynye
And othes grete / of vsage / and of pryde
Allas mankynde / how may it bitide
That to thy creatour / which þat the wroughte
And with his precious herte-blood the boghte
Thou art so fals / and so vnkynde allas
¶ Now goodo men / god forgyue yow youre trespas
804 And ware yow / fro the synne of Auarice
Myn holy pardon / may yow alle warise
So þat ye offre / nobles / or starlynges 808 Or elles siluer broches / spoones / rynges
Boweth youre heed / vnder this holy bulle
Com vp ye wyues / offreth of youre wolle
Your name / I entre heer / in my rolle anon
In-to the blisse of heuene / shul ye gon
912 I yow assaille / by myn heigh power
Yow þat wol offre / as clene and eek as cleer.
As ye were born / and lo sires thus I preche
816 And Iheru crist that is oure soules leche
So graunte yow / his pardon to receyue
for that is best I wol yow nat deceyue
But sires / o word / forgat I in my tale
920 I haue Relikes / and pardon in myn male

And with that word / it happed hym per cas
To take the Botel / ther the poysoun was
And drank / and yaf his felawe drynke also 888 for which anon / they stormen bothe two
¶ But certes I suppose / that Auycen
Wroot neuere in no Canon / ne in no fen
Mo wonder signes / of empoisonyng
802 Than hadde thise wrecches two / er hir endyng
Thus ended been / thise homicides two
And eek / the false empoisonere also
¶ O cursed synne / of alle cursednesse
896 O traytours homicide / o wikkednesse
O glotonye / luxure / and hasardrye
Thou blasphemour of Crist with vileynye
And othes grete / of vsage / and of pryde
900 Allas mankynde / how may it bityde
That to thy Creatour / which þat the wroughte
And with his precious herte blood / the boghte
Thow art so fals / and so vnkynde allas
¶ Now goodo men / god forgyue yow youre trespas
904 And ware yow / fro the synne of Auarice
Myn holy pardon / may yow alle warise
So that ye offre nobles / or starlynges 908 Or ellis siluer broches / spoones / rynges
Boweth youre heed / vnder this holy bulle
Cometh vp ye wyues / offreth of youre wolle
Your name I entre / here in my rolle anon
912 In-to the blisse of heuene / shul ye gon
I yow assaille / by myn heigh power
Ye þat wol offre / as clene and eek as cleer
As ye were born / and lo sires thus I preche
916 And Iheru crist that is oure soules leche
So graunte yow / his pardon to receyue
for that is best I wol yow nat deceyue
¶ But sires / o word / forgat I in my tale
920 I haue Relikes and pardon in myn male

And with that word it happede hym percas
To take the botel there the poyson was
And drank & gaf his felawe d[ri]ynke also 888 for whiche a-noon they storme bothe two ¶ But certys I suppose that Auycen
Wrot neuere in no canon ne in no fen
Mo wonder signys of empoysounyng 892 Than hadde these wrecchis two / er hire endyng Thus endede been these homycidis two And ek the fals empoisonere also
¶ O cursed synne of alle cursednesse
896 O traytours homycyde / o wikkednesse
O glotonye / luxurye / & hasarderye
Thow blasphemere of cryst with vilounye
And othis grette of vsage & of pryde 900 Allas mankynde how may it betyde
That to thyn creatour which that the wrought 892 And with hise precious blood the bough Thow art so fals & so vnkynde allas
904 Now goodo men god forgyue yow youre trespas
And ware yow from the synne of auarice
Myn holy pardon may yow alle waryce
So that ye offere / noblis or starlyngis 908 Or ellys syluer spoonys brochis ryngis Bowith youre heed vnder this holy bulle
Comyth vp ye wyues offereth of youre wolle 3oure name I entere here in myn rolle a-non 912 In-to the blysse of heuene schul ye gon
I yow assoyle by myn heye power
Yow that welo offere as clene & eek as cleer
As ye weryn born & lo sires thus I preche 916 And Iheru crist that is oure soulys leche
So graunte yow his pardon to receyue for that is best I welo yow nat disseyue
But seris on word forgat I in myn tale 920 I haue reliks & pardoun in myn male

GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 330 CORPUS MS.		GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 330* PETWORTH MS.		GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 330 LANSDOWNE MS
And afterward it <sup>h</sup> happed hem per cas To take þe botel þer-in þe poyson was And drank and þat his felawe drynke also for which anon þoy stouran boþe tuo But <sup>t</sup> certes I suppose þat <sup>t</sup> Auyeenne Wrot <sup>t</sup> neuer in no Canon ne in no fenne Mo wonder sorwes of empoysonyng <sup>e</sup> Thus hadde þise wrecches tuo here endyng <sup>e</sup> Thus ended ben þis Omyceiles tuo And eek <sup>e</sup> þe false empoysonere also O cursod synne ful of cursednes O traytours Omycyderes o wikkednes O gloteny o luxurie O hasardye þou blasphemour of crist wip vileny And oþes grette of vsage and of pryde Alas mankynde how may it betyde þerto þin creatour / which þat <sup>t</sup> þe wrought <sup>t</sup> And wip his precious blood þe bought <sup>t</sup> þou art <sup>t</sup> so fals and so vnkynde alas Now good men god forȝete þoure trespas And ware þou fro þe synne of auarice / Myn holy pardon may þou alle warische So þat þe offer nobles or sterlinges Oþer elles seluer spones broches and rynges / Bowþ <sup>t</sup> þoure hed vnder þis holy bulles Commeþ vp þe wyues offreþ þoure wulles þoure name .I. entre here in my rolle anon <sup>t</sup> In-to þe blisse of heuen schul þe gon <small>(leaf 250, back)</small> I þou asselle by myn heih powere þe þat <sup>t</sup> woln offre as clene and eek <sup>e</sup> as cleere As þe were born and sires lo þus I preche And thesu crist þat is oure soules leche So grante þu his pardon to receyue for þat <sup>t</sup> is best I wil þou nouȝt deceyue But <sup>t</sup> sires o word forȝat <sup>t</sup> I in my tale I haue reliques and pardon in my male	688	And after þat <sup>t</sup> hit <sup>t</sup> happed hem percas To taken a botell wher-in the poyson was And drank and þane his felawe drink <sup>e</sup> alsoþe þorgh <sup>e</sup> whiche anon þei stearun botle But <sup>t</sup> certes I suppose þat <sup>t</sup> Auicen Wrote neuer in no canon ne in no fou Moo wonder <sup>e</sup> sorowes of empoysonyng <sup>e</sup> Thus had þise wrecches two her ending <sup>e</sup> Thus cended be þise homyeydes twoo And eke þis false empoysoner alsoo O. cursod synne ful of al cursednesse O. traterous homyeydes .o. Wickednesse O. gloteny luxurye and hasardrye Thow blasphemour of crist wip vileny And oþes grette of vsage and of pride Alas mankynde howe may it betide That <sup>t</sup> to þi erentour which þat <sup>t</sup> þe wrought <sup>t</sup> And wip his precious blood þe bouȝt <sup>t</sup> Thowe art <sup>t</sup> so fals and so vnkynde allas Now good men god forȝou <sup>e</sup> þou þour trespas And kepe þou from þe synne of auarice Myne holy pardon may þou ait warische So that <sup>t</sup> þe offer nobles or sterlinggeas Oþer ellis siluere . spones. broches. or rynges Bowþ <sup>t</sup> þoure hede vnder þis bulle Commeþ vp þe Wyues offreþ þour wille þoure name .I. entre here in my rolle anof In to þe blisse of heuene schul þe al goon I þou asselle be my hiegh powere þe þat <sup>t</sup> wollen offre as clene and eke as cleere As þe were born and loo sires þus I preche And thesu crist þat is oure saules leche . So grante þu his pardon to receyue . / for þat <sup>t</sup> is best I wil þou nouȝt deceyue ¶ But <sup>t</sup> sires on word forȝate I in my tale I haue reliques and pardon in my male	888	And afteward it happed him percas To take þe botel þer-in þe poyson was And drange and þate his felawe drinke also For whiche anon þei stouran boþe tuo Bot <sup>t</sup> certes .I. suppose þat Auyeenne Wrote neuer in no canon ne in no fenne No wonder sorwes of empoysonyng <sup>e</sup> Thus hadde þes wriches tuo here endeinge <small>(leaf 180)</small> Thus ended buon þes homicides tuo . And eke þe false empoysonere also O cursede sinne ful of cursednesse O traitours homicideres o wikkednesse O . glotony . o luxurie o hasardye þou blasphemer of crist wip velany And oþes grette of vsage and of pride Alas mankynde howe may it betide Thereto þine Creatour whiche þat þe wrought <sup>t</sup> And wip his precious blode þe bouhte Thowe art <sup>t</sup> so fals and so vnkynde alas Nowe good men god for-ȝete þoure þoure trespas And war þowe fro þe synne of Auarice Myne holy pardon may þow al warische So þat þe offer nobles oþer sterlinges Oþere elles siluer spones broches or ringes Bowþ <sup>t</sup> þoure heued vnder þis holy bulles Commeþ vpe þe wifes and offer þoure wolle þoure name .I. entre here in my rolle anome In-to þe blisse of heuen schole þe gone .I. þowe asselle be myne hihe pouere þe þat wollen offere as clene and eke as clere As þe weer borne and sires lo þus .I. precho And thesu crist þat is oure soules leche So grant þowe his pardon to receyve For þat <sup>t</sup> is best .I. wil þowe nouȝt deceyve Bot sires o words for-ȝat .I. in my tale .I. haue Reliques and pardon in my male	892	892	900	904	908	912	916	920

As faire / as any man in Engolond Whiches were me yeuen / by the popes' hond<sup>¶ Anol' seruatit not of the MS.</sup>
 If any of yow / wole of deuocion
 Offren / and han myn Absolucion 924
 Com forth anon / and kneleth here adoun
 And mekely / receyueh myn pardoun
 Or elles / taketh pardon / as ye wende
 Al newe and fresch / at euery Miles ende 928
 So þat ye offren / alwey newe and newe
 Nobles / or pens / whiche þat be goode and trewe
 It is an Honour / to euerich that is heer
 That ye moue haue / a sufficient Pardoneer 932 Tassoile yow / in contree as ye ryde
 for auentures / whiche þat may bytyde Paraurenture / ther may fallen / oon or two Doun of his hors / and breke his nekke atwo 936
 Looke which a seuretee / is it to yow alle
 That I am / in youre felawshipe yfalle
 That may assoille yow / bothe moore and lasse
 When þat the soule / shal fro the body passe 940
 I rede / þatoure hoost here shal bigynne for he is / moost enveloped in synne
 Com forth eyn hoost / and offre first anon
 And thou shalt kisse / my Relikes euerychon 944
 Ye for a grote / vnbokele anon thy pur
 Nay may quod he / thanne haue I Cristes curs
 Lat be quod he / it shal nat be so thesch
 Thou woldst make me / kisse thyn olde brech 948
 And swere / it were a relyk' of a seint
 Though it were / with thy fundement depeynt
 But by the croys / which þat seint Elyene fond<sup>¶ Anol' seruatit
 not of the MS.</sup> 952
 I wolde / I hadde / thy coyllons in myn hond
 In stide of Relikes / or of seintuarie
 Lat kutte hem of / I wol with theem cario
 They shul be shrymd / in an hogges toord
 ¶ This Pardoner / answerde nat a word 956

As faire / as any man in Engolond
 Whiches were me yeuen / by the Popes hond
 If any of yow / wol of deuocion
 Offren / and han myn absolucion . 924
 Com forth anon / and kneleth here adoun
 And mekely / receyueh myn pardoun
 Or ellis / taketh pardon as ye wende
 Al newe and fresch / at euery myles ende 928
 So þat ye offraun alwey / newe and newe
 Nobles / or pens / whiche þat been good & trewe
 It is an honour / to euerich that is heer
 That ye moue haue / a sufficient pardoner 932
 Tassoile yow / in contree as ye ryde
 for auentures / whiche þat may bytyde Paraurenture / ther may falle oon or two
 Doun of his hors / and breke his nekke atwo 936
 Looke swich a seuretee is it to yow alle
 That I am / in youre felawshipe y-falle
 That may assoille yow / bothe moore & lasse
 When þat the soule / shal fro the body passe 940
 I rede / that our hoost þal bigynne
 for he is moost enveloped in synne
 Com forth sire hoost / and offre first anon
 And thou shalt kisse / the Relikes euerychon 944
 Ye for a grote / vnbokele anon thy pur
 ¶ Nay may quod he / thanne haue I Cristes curs
 Lat be quod he / it shal nat be so thesch
 Thou woldst make me kisse thyn olde brech 948
 And swere it were / a relyk of a Seint
 Though it were / with thy fondement depeynt
 But by the croys / which þat Seint Elyene found
 I wold I hadde / thy coyllons in myn hond 952
 In stide of Relikes / or of Seintuarie
 Lat cutte hem of / I wol thes hem cario
 They shul be shrymd / in an hogges toord
 ¶ This pardoner / answerde nat a word 956

As faire as any man in yngolond
 Whiches were me youyns by the popis hand 3yt any of yow wole of deuocyon
 Offeryn & han myn absolucion 924
 Comyth forth anon & knelyth here a-doun
 And mekely reseyuyth myn pardoun
 Or ellis takyth pardoun as 3e wende
 Al newe & frosh at euery mylys ende 928
 So that 3e offere alwey newe & newe
 Nobelis & penyis whiche that been goode & trewe
 It is an honour to euerich that is here
 That ye mouen haue a suffycient pardoner 932
 To a-soyle 3ow in cuntre as 3e ryde for aentzures whiche that may be-tyde Paraenture there may falle on or two Doun of his hors & breke his nekke a two 936
 Loke which a seuretee it is to 3ow alle
 That I am in 3oure felawschipe I-falle
 That may assoyle 3ow lothe moore & lasse ¶ Anol' seruatit
 not of the MS.
 When that the soule schal fro the body passe 940
 I rede that oure ost here schal begynne for he is most enoupid in synne Come forth sere ost & offere here a-non
 And thou schat kyse myne relykis euerychon 944
 Ye for a groote vnbokele a-noon thyn pur
 Nay may quod<sup>1</sup> he / thanne haue I crystis curs ¶ Anol' seruatit
 not of the MS.
 Lat be quod he it schal nat be so thesch
 Thou woldst make me to kyse thyne olde brech 948
 And swere it were a relyke of a seynt
 They it were with tyn fundement depeynt
 But by the crok that seynt elyne fond
 I wolde I hadde thyne colyounys in myn hond 952
 In stode of relykis or of seyntuarie
 Let kutte hem of I wole from the hem carie
 They schal been schrynyd in an hoggis toord
 This pardourer answerde nat a word 956

As faire as any man in Engeland
 Whicho were mo y-roue by þe popes hond
 If any of þou wol of deuocioun
 Offren and haue myn absolucon
 Comeþ forþ anon and kneleþ doum heere
 And 3e schuln haue my pardon þat is deere Oþer elles takeþ pardon as 3e wende
 Al newe and freische at euery tounes ende
 So þat 3e offren alway newe and newe /
 Nobles and pens which þat þen good and trewe
 It is an honour to euerych þat is heere
 þat 3e may haue a suffisaunt pardonere
 To assolie þou in cuntre as I ryde for auentures which þat may betyde for peraduenture þer may falle on or tuo Doun of his hors and breke his necke a tuo loke which a swerte it is to þou alle þat I am in þour felaschipe y-falle þat may assolie þou boþe more and lasse
 When þat þe soule schal fro þe body passe /
 I rede þat oure hooste schal begynne for he is most enuolupt in synne Comeþ forþ sere Oost and offre first anon
 And þou schalt kisse þe relikes euerychon
 3e for a groot vnbokel anon þi purs
 Nay nay quod he þenne haue I cristes curs Let þe quod he it / schal nouþt be so þeche þou woldest make me kisse þin olde broche
 And swere it were a relyk of a seint
 þougħ it were wip þyn fundament depeynt
 But by þe Crosse which þat seint Elyne fande
 I wold I hadde þine coyllons in myn hand
 In stede of relikes oþer of seyntuarie Ist cutte hem of I wol þe helpe hem carry þy schuln be schrynd in an hogges tord þis pardonere answerde nouþt a word

As faire as any man in engelond
 Whicho were þene me by þe popes hond
 If any of þow wol of deuocioun
 Offre and han myn absolucon Comeþ forþ anon and kneleþ here adoun þat 3e may haue part of my pardon
 Or ellis takeþ pardon as 3e wende
 Al newe and fresli at euery tounes ende
 So þat 3e offre alway newe and newe
 Nobles and pens which þat bene good and trewe
 It is an honour to euery þat bene here
 þat 3e may haue a suffisaunt pardonere
 To assolie þou in contree as 3e ride for auentures which þat may be-tide for parauenture þer may falle oon or twoo Doun of her hors and breke her nek stouo Looke swichte a swerte it is to þou alle
 That I am in þours felaschipe y-falle þat may assolie þou boþ more and lasse
 When þat þe soule schal fro þe body pass
 I rede þat hour [hooste] schal bygyne for he is most enuolupte of synne Come forþ sere hoost and offre first anon
 And þou shalt kysse þe relikes euerychon
 3e for a groot vnbokel anon þi purs
 Nay nay quod he þan haue I cristes curs lat þe quod he it schal nat þe so theche þow woldest make me kissen þine olde broche And swere it were þe relike of a seynt þougħ it were wip þi fundament depeynt
 But by þe crosse which seint Elyne fonde
 I wold I had þi culyons in myne honde
 In stede of relikes of seint-wary
 I wold kisse hem of and I wil helpe hem carry
 They schulde be schrynd in an hogges toord
 This Pardonere answered nat a word

As faire as any man of yngelonde
 Whicho were mo yroue by þe popes honde
 If any of þow wil of deuocioun
 Offere and haue myne absolucon
 Comeþ for anone and kneleþ aduorne here
 And 3e schal haue my pardon þat is here
 Or elles takeþ pardon as 3e wende
 All newe and freshe att euery tounes ende
 So þat 3e offren alwai newe and newe
 Nobles and pens which þat bien good and trewe
 It is an honor to eueryche þat is dere þat 3e maye haue a suffisaunt pardonere
 To assolie þow in contre as I. ride
 For auentures which þat mat be-tide
 For peraduenture þere mais fal on or tuo
 Doun of his hors and breko his necke a twō Looke whiche a surte it is to þowe al þat .I. am in þoure felischipe yfal þat maie assolie þowe boþe more and lasse
 When þat þe soule fro þe body passe
 I. rede þat oure oste schal beginne
 For he is most enuolupte in sinne
 Comeþ forþe sere oste and offre first anone
 And þou schalt kisse re relikes euerychone 3e for a grote vnbokel anone þi purce
 Nay nay. haue .I. þan quod he cristes curce Lat be quod he it schal not be so þeiche þou woldests make me kisse þine olde breche And swere it were a relike of a seint þougħ it were wip þi fundament depoint Bot be cros þat seint Elyne fonde
 .I. wold .I. had þi coyllons in myne honde
 In stede of relikes oþer of seyntuarie
 Let cutt hem of .I. wil þe helpe hem carie Thei scholt be schrynd in an lugges tord
 This pardonere answerd nouht a worde

332 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

So wrooth he was / no word ne wolde he seye
¶ Now quodoure hoost I wol no lenger pleye
With thee / ne with noon oother angry man
But right anon / the worthy knyght bigan
Whan þat he saugh / þat al the peple lough
Namore of this / for it is right ynough
Sire Pardoner / be glad and myrie of cheere
And ye sir hoost þat been to me so deer
I prey yow / þat ye kisse the Pardoner And Pardoner / I prey thes / drawe thes near
And as we diden / lat vs laughte and pleye
Anon they kiste / and ryden forth hir weye

¶ Here is ended the Pardoner's tale 𐀀

[The Shipman's Tale follows in the MS.]

333 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

So wrooth he was / no word ne wolde he seye
¶ Now quodoure hoost I wol no lenger pleye
With thee / ne with noon oother angry man
960 ¶ But right anon / the worthy knyght bigan
Whan þat he saugh / þat al the peple lough
Namore of this / for it is right ynough
Sire Pardoner be glad / and myrie of cheere
964 And sire hoost that been to me so deer
I pray yow / þat ye kisse the Pardoner And Pardoner / I pray thes / drawe thes near
And as we diden / lat vs lawe and pleye 968 Anon they kiste / and ryden forþ hir weye

¶ Here is ended the Pardoner's tale 𐀀

[The Shipman's Tale follows in the MS.]

332 SIX-TEXT
GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

So wroth he was he wolde no word seye
Now quodoure ost I wele no lenger pleye
With the ne with noon othyr angry man 960 But rygh a-noon the worthy knygh bo-gan 960 Whan that he saw that al the peple lough Na moore of this for it is ryght I-nough
Sire pardoner be merie & glad of cheere 964 And sere ost that been to me so deere 964
I praye yow that ye kisse the pardounner
And pardounner I praye the drawe the near
And as we dede lat vs laughte & pleye 968 Anon they kyste & rede forth here weye 968

Here endith the pardonneris' tale [? second c]

[The Shipman's Tale follows in the MS.]

GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 332
 Corpus MS.

So wroþ he was he nolde no word say
 Now quod oure Oost I wil no longer play
 Wiþ þe no with non oþer angry man
 But riht anon þe worþy knight bygan 960
 When þat he saugh þat al þe poeple [ough]
 Nomore of þis for it is riht ynough
 Sire pardonere be mery and glad of cheere
 And 3e sire Oost þat ben to me so deere 964
 I pray 3ou þat 3e kisse þe pardonere
 And pardonere I pray þe þat þou drawe þe nere
 And as we dide let vs laughe and pleye 967
 Anon þei kisse and ryden forþ here weye ¶ Explicit fabula Pardonerii

[The Shipman's Tale follows in the MS.]

GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 332
 Petworth MS.

So wroþ he was he wolde no word say Nowe quod our oost I nyl no longer play
 Wiþ þe no wiþ noon oþer angry man
 But riht anon þe worþi knyht bygan 960
 When þat he seegh þat alle þe puple louþe
 No more of þis for it is riht ynough
 Sir Pardonere be mery and glad of chere
 And 3ee sir Hoost þat bene to me so dere 964
 I prai 3ou þat 3e kisse þe Pardonere
 And pardonere I prai 3ou drawe 3e nere
 And as we did let vs laueþ and play 967
 And anon þei kissed and riden forþ her way 968

¶ Thus endep þe pardoners tale.

[The prologe of Thoppas' follows in the MS, on leaf 234.]

GROUP C. § 4. PARDONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 332
 Lansdowne MS

So wroþe he was he nold no worde acie
 Nowe quod oure oost .I. wil no longer pleie Wiþ þe no wiþ none oþer angre man
 Bot riht anone þe worþi knyht be-gan 960
 When þat he sawhe þat al þe peple louho
 No more of þis for it is riht y-nouthe
 Sire pardonere be meri and glad of chere
 And 3e sire oost þat bene to me so dere 964
 I pray 3owe þat 3e kisse þe pardonere
 And pardonere .I. praiþ þe þat þou drau þe nere
 And as we dide now late vs laueþ and pleie Anone þei kisse and reden forþe þeire weye 968

Explicit fabula questoris.

[The Shipman's Tale follows in the MS.]

V.

SPECIMENS OF THE VARIOUS READINGS

DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK

(OR PARDONER'S PROLOGUE, GROUP C, § 2)

AND IN THE HEAD LINES OF THE

PARDONER'S TALE

(GROUP C, § 2).

Some early lines in the Doctor-Pardoner Link (generally called the Pardoner's Prologue) differ so much in the MSS, that I think it worth while to print here these lines from all the MSS now easily gettable, other than our Six.

Passing over the variations of 'fals cheri' for 'curaid theof' in l. 289 of Group C, § 2, of 'shameful' for 'schewful', and 'tonge' for 'herthe', in l. 290, we find for lines 291-2, the two readings—

So falle upon his body and his boones	aducias	Coms to this luges and his
The deuel I bykenne him alle at once	Algate this seky mayde is slayn alle.

while for lines 297—300, we find there are three couplets a b c, of which some MSS have all three in their right (7) order a b c, one (Harl. 7335) in the order a c b, others have a b only<sup>1</sup>, and the most (like Ellesmere, Hongwrt, and Petworth) a c only<sup>2</sup>. Here are the three couplets:—

<sup>1</sup> Harl. 1768; MS Reg. 18 C 2; Laud 735; Camb. Univ. B. 3. 29.

<sup>2</sup> Harl. 7234; Reg. 17 D 15; Harl. 7285, 7325.

Sloane 1686; Barlow 20; Arch. Secl. B. 4; Havl. Post. 149; Heston 168; Bodley 414; Camb. Univ. Dd. 4. 24; Camb. Univ. Man. 2. 6; Trin. Coll. Camb. 2. 3.

(Wherefore I say that alday men may se)

- a. That yiftes of fortune or of nature
Ben cause of deeth of many a creature
- b. Hir beaute was hir deeth, I dar well sayn
Alas so pitously as she was slayn
- c. Of bothe yiftes þat I speke of now
Men haue ful ofte more harm þan prow

No doubt some scribes rejected a as an unneeded repetition of a; but I see no reason to doubt a's genuineness.

The two additional lines in the Pardoner's Tale, before and after l. 488 of Group C, I have no hesitation in rejecting as spurious, notwithstanding the oddness of the construction 'who so well the story sought' in l. 488, which some MSS read better, 'who so hath the story sought' This well, need, no doubt gave rise to the alteration of l. 488 into three lines, by the insertion of two spurious ones, as follows:—

(1. the genuine lines)

(So drunken he was he nyste what he wrought	487)
Herodes—whoso wel [or hath] the story sought	488

(2. the spurious alteration)

(So drunken he was he nyste what he wrought	487)
And therefore sore repente him ought	487b
Herodes—whoso will the stories seche	488
There may he lerne and by examples teche—	488b

Besides 487b being a link of only 4 measures, it is foolish;—how could Lot<sup>4</sup> in the grave 'repente him'—and both lines 487b, 488b, interrupt the flow of the story, and weaken the instances brought forward. In this place, they are, to me, evident manufactures, by some later hand than Chaucer's. Line 488b may be Chaucer's writing elsewhere.

None of our best MSS have these spurious lines. They are confined, so far as MSS have been yet examined, to the Corpus and Lansdowne (both of one type) in the Six-Text, and to Ehrley's Harl. 7333, Camb. Univ. H. 3. 26, Sloane 1686, and Trin. Coll. Camb. B. 3. 15, all poorish MSS.

Harl. 1758, leaf 150, back (vellum, 1ab. 1440).

(a b c.)

This was a cursid theof a fals Justice .	289A
As schameful deoth as herthe can deuyse . .
So falle vp-on his body & his bonys .	292
The deuyH I be-take hym alle at onys .
Alas to dere bought/ seche hir/ beaute .	294
Wherefore I saye that alle men may se .
That yeftis off fortune or of nature .	296
Beth cause of deeth of many a creature .
Hir/ beaute was hir/ deeth I dar/ wellt sayn .	298
Alas so pitously as sche was slayn .	[leaf 151]
As bothe yeftis as I speke of now .	300
Men haue full ofte more harme than prow .

GROUP C. § 3. Harl. 1758, leaf 153.

¶ (So drunken he was he nyst/ what he wrought .	487)
Herodes who so hath the stories sought .	488

GROUP C. § 2.

MS Reg. 18 C 2, leaf 177, back (vellum, 11440).

(a b c.)

This was a cursid theof a fals Justice
As shameful deeth as herthe can deuyse
So falle upon his body and his bones
The deuel I be-kenne him all atones
Alas to dere boughte she hire beaute Wherefore I say that al men may see
That yiftes of fortune or of nature
Beth cause of deeth of many a creature
Hire beaute was hire deeth I dar well sayn
Alas so pitously as she was slayn
As bothe yiftes as I speke of now
Men haue ful ofte more harm þan prow

GROUP C. § 3. MS Reg. 18 C 2, leaf 180.

¶ (So drunken he was he nyst/ what he wrought .	487)
Herodes who so hath þe stories sought	488

Laud MS 739, leaf 216, back.

(a b c.)

This was a cursid thef, a fals Iustico
As shameful deth as herte can devise.
So falle vpon his body and his bonys
The deuil. I be-take hym . all at ones
Alas to dere . bought she hir beaute .
Wherefor I say that all men may see .
That giftes of fortune or of nature .
Beth cause of deth of many a creature .
Hir beaute was hir deith I dar wels sayn .
Alas so pitously as she was slayn .
As both giftes as I speke of now .
Men han . ful ofte more harme than prove

GROUP C. § 3. Laud MS 739.

(So dronken . he was he nyst what he wrought Herodes who so hath ye stories sought

GROUP C. § 2. Camb. Univ. MS H. 3. 26.

(a b c.)

This was a false cursid Iustico
A shameful deth as hert can devise
So falle it on his body and on his bones
The deuyH I be-take hym all atones
Alas to dere bought she hir beaute
Wherefor I say all day men may se
That yiftes of fortune or of nature
Beth cause of deth of many a creature
Hir beaute was hir deith I dar wels sayne
Alas so pitously as she was slayne
But here of wil I . not procede as now Men haue fult often more harme than prove

GROUP C. § 3. Camb. Univ. MS H. 3. 26 (epurious lines).

(So dronke he was he nyste what he wrought
And therefore he repente hym ough Herodes who so wil his storie seehe
There may ye see and by Example teche

xx * d

Harl. 7334, f 185 (vellum, 1400-20).

(a b.)

289 This was a cursid þeþ a fals Iustico
As schendful deþ as herte can deuise
So falle vpon his body and his boones 292 The deuil I bykeune him al at ones /
Alas to deers boughie sche hir beaute Wherefor I say þat all men may se (leaf 185, back)
That giftes of fortune or of nature /
296 Ben cause of deth of many a creature / hir beaute was hir deþ I dar wels sayn (leaf 187) 298 Alas so pitously as he was slayn
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
300

GROUP C. § 3. Harl. MS 7334, leaf 187, back, at foot.

487 (So dronk he was he nyste what he wrought

488 Herodes who so wel þe story sought

GROUP C. § 2. Reg. 17 D xx, f 217, bk (paper, tab. 1440-60).

(a b.)

289 This was a cursid thief . a fals Iustico
As shameful deth . as hert can devise
So falle vpon his body . and his bones
292 The deuil . I be-kenne hym all atones
Alas to dere bought she hir beaute
Wherefor I say . that alday men may se
That yiftes of fortune . or of nature
Beth cause of deth . of many a creature
296 Hir beaute was . hir deth . I dar wels sayne
298 Alas so pitously . as she was slayne
As both yiftes . as I speke of nowth 300 Men haue ful oft . more harm than prew
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
302

GROUP C. § 3. Reg. 17 D xx, leaf 220, back.

487 (So dronk he was . he nyst nat what he wrought

488 Herodes who that hath the story sought

Harl. 7333 (Shirley's MS), leaf 94, col. 2.

(a b.)

289 jis was a fals thef Aurrid Iustico /
As schameful deth as hert can devise 292 So falle on his body & his bonis þe deuil I be-ken him al at onys (leaf 94, back) Wherefor I say that al men may se þat yiftis of fortune or of nature 296 Beth cause of the deth of many A creature Hir beute was hir deith I dare wel sayne 298 Alas so pitously as sche was slayne
[ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
300

GROUP C. § 3. Harl. 7333, leaf 95, col. 2 (epurious lines).

487 (So dronke he was he wist not what he wroute

487 And þere-for saþ<sup>1</sup> repent him oust

488 Herodes who so wolle þe storis seehe

488 þere may ye lerne &amp; by ensample teche

GROUP C. § 2. Harl. 7335, f 156 (paper &amp; vellum, ab. 1450).

(a c b.)

289 This was a fals chert and a fals Iustico
As shameful deth as herte can deuise
Come to this Ingus and hir aduocis 292 Alwey this sely mayde is slayn alas
Alas to deer aboghte she beante Wherefor y seye alday that man may see
That yiftes of fortune or of nature
296 Ben cause of deth to many a creature
Of both yiftes that y speke of now 298 Men han ful often gettore harm than prow 300 Hir beaute was hir deth y dar wel sayn
296 Alas so pitously as she was slayn
300 [Here is the predicacion of the pardonor: "Lordynges," &c., f.]
302 [first he reprouyth the vice of glotonye: "In flandros," &c.,]

GROUP C. § 3. Harl. 7335, leaf 161.

487 (So dronke he was he nyste what he wrought

488 Herodes, he so wol the story sought

<sup>1</sup> MS str.<sup>2</sup> leaf 158, back.<sup>3</sup> leaf 160, back.

GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. 64 Addit. MS 25,718, Brit. Mus., leaf 62, back. (a c.) This was a fals cherif and a fals Iustice A shamful deth his tunge gan deuoyse Come to the Iuges and her aduocatesse Algates this sely maiden is shalain alasse ful dere aboute she beaute Wherfore I n day that no man may se That yifte of fortune other of nature Ben causes of deth of many a creature [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] As ben giftes that I speke of now Men han ful often more harm than prow GROUP C. § 3. Addit. 25,718, leaf 55, back. (So drunke he was he mist what he wrought Herodes who so wel the story soughte	289 292 296 298 300 487 488	GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. 65 Stoans 1686, leaf 221 (paper, 11460-70). (a c.) This was a fals cherif / a fals Iustice A. shamful deth / his tunge gan deuoyse Come to this Iuges / and hir aduocasse Algates this sely maiden / slayne was allas Allas dere aboute she hir beaute Wherfor I saye aldaye / that men maye see. That yifte of fortune / or of nature Ben cause of deth / of many a creature [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] As bothe yiftes / that I speke of nowe Men have full often / more harme than prove. GROUP C. § 3. Stoans 1686, leaf 224, back (spurious lines). (So drunke he was he mist what he wrought And therefore sore repente. hym ouste. Herodes. whose wille / the stories seeke. There may ye lerne / and by ensample teche	289 292 296 298 300 487 487b 488 488b	GROUP C. § 2. DOCTOR-PARDONER LINK. 66 Arch. Sold. B. 14, leaf 240. (a c.) this was a fals Clerk / &amp; a fals Iustice as shameful deth / as heroy may devise come to these Iuges / &amp; these aduocates allas this sely maide / slayne was algates al to dere boughte she / hir beaute wherfore I seyo / alday men may se that yiftes of fortune / or of nature ben cause of deth / to many a creature [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] of which yiftes / that I speke of nowe men haue ful ofte more harme / than prove GROUP C. § 3. Arch. Sold. B. 14. (so drunke he was / he nyet what he wrought Herodes who so hath / the stories sought	289 292 296 298 300 487 488
GROUP C. § 2. Addit. 5140 (pap. &amp; vell., 11450-60), 1/204, bk. (a c.) This was a fals cherif and a fals Iustyse As shameful deth / as her may deuoyse Come to thee Iuges / and her aduocas Algates this sely mayden / is slayn allas Allas to decee / bouht she hir beaute Wherfore y sey / that alday men may se That yftis of fortune / and of nature Be cause of deth / to many a creature [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] Of both yiftes / that y speke of nowe Men han wol oft / lothe for harm and proue GROUP C. § 3. Addit. 5140, leaf 208, back. (So dronke he was / he nyet what he wrought Herowdis / whoo so weel the storyes sought	289 [leaf 209] 292 296 298 300 487 488	GROUP C. § 2. Barlow MS 20, leaf 184, back. (a c.) This was a false cherle and a fals Iustice A. shameful. deth as tong can devise Come to these Iustices &amp; her ad-uocasse Algate þis sely maiden is slayn alas Alas to dere a-boughte she beaute Wherfore I say alday þat men may se þat gift of fortune or of nature Be cause of deth of mony a creature [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] As both giftes þat I speke of now Men han ful oft more harm þan prow GROUP C. § 3. Barlow 20. (So dronken he was he nyet what he wrought herodes who so hath þe stories sought	289 292 296 298 300 487 488	GROUP C. § 2. Ravel. Poet. MS 149, leaf 94. (a c.) this was a false clerke and a false Iustice As shameful deth as tong can devise Come to the Iustices and to her aduocas Algates this sely maidon is slayn allas Allas dere bought she beaute Wherfore I say alday men may see That yift of fortune or of nature Be cause of deth of many a creature [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.] As beth yiftes as I speke of now Men haue ful oft more harme than prow GROUP C. § 3. Ravel. Poet. MS 149. (So dronken he was he mist what he wrought herodes whose hath the stories sought	289 292 296 298 300 487 488

Hutton MS 1, leaf 166, back.

(a c.)

This was a fals cherle and a fals Justice 289
 A shamefull deoth / as herre kan devise
 Come to the Iuge and his aduocasse
 Algate þis seli mayden is slayn allas 292
 Allas / to dere a-bought she hire beaute
 Wherefore I seye alday / that men moun so
 That giftes of fortune / and of nature
 Ben cause of deoth / to many a creature 296
 As bette giftes that I speke of now
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ] 298
 Men han ful oþe / more harme þan prow 300
 Men han ful oþe / more harme þan prow

Group C. § 3. Bodl. MS 174.

(So dronke he was / he nyste what he wrougt
 Herodes who so hath þe stories sought 488

Group C. § 2. Bodl. MS 474, verso 161.

(a c.)

This was a fals cherle and a fals Justice 289
 Als shamefull deoth as towe kann devise
 Come to the Justice and his aduocasse
 Algate þis seli woman is slayn allas 292
 Allas der a-boughte she hire beaute Wherefore I seye al day that men may be þat giftes of Fortune / and of nature
 Ben cause of deoth / to many a creature 296
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ] 298
 As doth yiftes as I speke of now
 Men han ful oþe / more harme than prow 300

Group C. § 3. Bodl. MS 444.

(So was he dronke he nyste what he wrougt Herodes who so hath the Stories sought 488

xx * d.

Cambr. Univ. MS Dd. 4. 24.

(a c.)

This was a fals cherle / a fals Justice
 As shamefull deoth / as herre kan devise Come to thes Iuges / and herre aduocates
 Algate this seli mayde / is slayn / allas
 Allas / to dere a-bought she hire beaute
 Wherefore I seye alday / that men moun so
 That giftes of fortune / and of nature
 Ben cause of deoth / to many a creature 296
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ] 298
 Of bothe yiftes / that I speke of now
 Men han ful oþe / more harme than prow 300

Group C. § 3. Cambr. Univ. MS Dd. 4. 24.

(So dronke he was / he nyste what he wrougt
 Herodes / who so wel / the stories sought 488

Group C. § 2. Cambr. Univ. MS Mn. 2. 5.

(a c.)

This was a fals cherle and a fals Justice 289
 Als shamefull deoth as towe kann devise
 Come to the Justice and her aduocasse
 Algate þis seli woman is slayn allas 292
 Allas der a-boughte she hire beaute
 Where I seye of al daye þat men may se
 That gifte of fortune or of nature
 Ben cause of deoth to many a creature 296
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS. ] 298
 As bette giftes as I speke of now
 Men þat ful oþe more harme þan prow 300

Group C. § 3. Cambr. Univ. MS Mn. 2. 5.

(So dronke he was he / he wryste what he wrougt 487)
 Herodes who so hath the stories sought 488

MS Trinity College Cambridge R. 3. 3.

(a c.)

This was a fals cherle and a fals Justice 289
 As shamefull deoth as tonge can devise
 Come to the Iuge and his aduocasse
 Algate this seli mayden is slayn allas 292
 Allas / dere aboute the beaute
 Wherefore I sey al day that men may se
 That yiftes of fortune or of nature
 Ben cause of deoth of many a creature 296
 As of yiftes that I speke of now
 Men han ful oþe / more harme than prow 298
 [Link not in MS R. 3. 15, where the Pardoner's Prologue begins after the Clerk's Tale, with Longynges quod he in churches when I preche]

Group C. § 3. Bodl. MS 686, leaf 155.

(No link. Pral. begins: Longynges quod he.) 487 Herodes who so wel þe stories sought 488

Rawl. MS Misc. 1133, leaf 168.

(So dronke he was he nyste what he wrougt 487)
 Herodes who so hath þe stories sought 488

Laud MS 600, leaf 210.

(So dronke he was he nyste what he wrougt 487)
 Herodes who go hat þe stories sought 488
 (Rawl. 1266, MS 144 does not contain the Pardoner's Tale.)

Stoan 1685, leaf 185 (Link in Cambr. MS, Soc. Text, p. 311).
 (So dronken he was he nyste what he wrougt 487)
 Herodes who so hath þe stories sought 488

MS Trin. Coll. Camb. R. 3. 3 (which I think well of—W. ALDIS WRIGHT).

Herodes who so hath the story sought 488
 (When he of wryþ was replet at his feste 489)

MS Trin. Coll. R. 3. 15 (spurious lines).

And therfore more repent kyni ought 487b
 Of Herodes who so wolle the stories seche 488
 There may he lerne & by usamples teche 489b

A SIX-TEXT PRINT OF
Chaucer's Canterbury Tales

IN PARALLEL COLUMNS

FROM THE FOLLOWING MSS:

- |  |                                     |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1 The Elzmer.                          | 4 The Corpus Christi Coll., Oxford. |
| 2 The Penzance 164.                    | 5 The Ashmole.                      |
| 3 The Cambridge Univ. Libr. Ms. A. 27. | 6 The Sainsbury 851.                |

---

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

THE WIFE OF BATH'S TALE. THE FRIAR'S TALE. THE SUMMONER'S TALE.

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

§ 1. WIFE OF BATH'S PREAMBLE.

ELLESMERE MS.

¶ The Prologe / of the Wyues tale of Batho <sup>[See leaf 67]</sup> <sub>(D)</sub>

Experience / though noon Auctorites
Were in this world / were right ynogh to me
To speke of wo / that is in mariage ffor lordynges / sith I .xij. year was of Age Ythonked be god / that is eterne on lyue Housbondes at chirche dore I haue had fyue ffor I so ofte / haue ywedded bee
And alle / were worthy men in hir degree
But me was toold certeyn / nat longe agoon is That sith that Crist'ns wente neuere but onys
To weddyng in the Cane of Galilee
By the same / ensample / thoughte me
That I ne sholdo / wedded be but onys
Herke oek / which a sharpe word for the nones Beside a welle / Ihesus god and man
Spak / in repreue of the Samaritan
Thou hast yhad / fyue housbondes quod he
And that man / the which pat hath now thee
Is noght thyn housbonde / thus seyde he certeyn
What that he mente ther by / I kan nat seyn
But pat I axe / why that the fifthe man
Was noon housbonde to the samaritan

¶ Non est vocatus maritus dilectus!
How manye / myghte she haue in mariage
Yet herde I neuere tellen in myn age

ELLESMERE 107 (A-T. 334)

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

§ 1. WIFE OF BATH'S PREAMBLE.

HENGWET MS.

¶ Here bigynneith the prologe of the tale of the Wyf of Batho. <sup>[See 185]</sup>

Experience / thogh noon Auctorites
Were in this world / is right ynogh for me
To speke of wo / that is in mariage ffor lordynges / sith pat I twelf yeer was of age Thonked be god / that is eterne on lyue.
Housbondes atte chirche dore / I haue had fyue
If I so ofte / myghte han wedded be
And alle were worthy men / in hir degree
But me was toold certeyn / noght longe agon is That sith pat Crist' ne wente neuere but onys
To weddyng in the Cane of Galilee
That by the same ensample / taughte he me
That I ne sholdo / wedded be but onys
¶ Herke oek / lo / which a sharpe word for the nones Besyde a welle / Ihesus / god and man
Spak / in repreue of the Samaritan
¶ Thou hast yhad / fyue housbondes quod he
And that ilke man / which that now hath thee
Is nat thyn housbonde / thus he seyde certeyn .
What that he mente ther-by / I kan nat seyn
But pat I axe / why pat the fifthe man
Was noon housebonde / to the Samaritan
How manye / myghte she han in mariage
Yet herde I neuere / tellen in myn age

HENGWET 129 (A-T. 334)

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

§ 1. WIFE OF BATH'S PREAMBLE.

CAMBRIDGE MS.

[Sloane MS 1685, leaf 103.]

¶ The Prologe ¶ Of þe Wyf of Batho <sup>[headline]</sup>

Experyment/ þough none auctoryte
Were in þis worlde / is rijt/ ynouye for me To speke of woo þat ys in mariage ffor lordynges siþen I twelfe yere was of age Thanked by god þat ys eterne on lyue Housbondes atte Chirche dore haue I hade fyue Yf I so ofte mygt haue wedded be But alle were worpi men in her degre
But me was tolde certayne nat longe a-gone ys þat siþen cryste ne went neuere but onys To woddynge in þe Cane of Galile þat be þilke ensample taugt he me þat I ne shulde wedded be but onys Herke with a sharpe worde with þe nonys
By eyde a welle Ihesu god & man
Spake in represe of þe Samaritan Thou haste y-had .v. husbondes quod he And þat ilke man þat nowe hathe the Ys nat þine husbonde þus sayde he certayne
What he mente þerby I can not sayne
Wolt þat I axe why þe fyfte man
Was none housbonde to þe Samaritan And herde telle in myne age þat howe many mygt she haue in mariage

CAMBRIDGE 107 (A-T. 334) [this page, Sloane 1685]

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

§ 1. WIFE OF BATH'S PREAMBLE

CORPUS MS.

Prologus vxoris de Batho. [headline] [Def 109]

Experiment' pough non auctorite
 Were in þis world is riȝt ynough for me
 To speke of woo þat is in mariage for lordynges syn I twelue þeer was of age / 4 Thanked be god þat is eterne alyue
 housbondes atte chirche dore I haue had fyue/
 If I so often myȝt haue wedded be But alle were worþi men in here degre 8
 But me was tolde certein nouȝt longe agones [that cristie ne wente / neuere but onys] [MS Arch. Bala. B. 14.] To weddyng in þe Cane of Galile /
 That by þilke ensample taught he me 12
 That I ne schulde wedded be but onys heke' eke' lo which a sharpe worde for þe nones
 Beside a welle Ihesu god and man
 Spak in repreef of þe Samaritan 16
 Thou hast y-hadde .v. housbondes quod he .
 And þat ilke man þat now haþ þe
 Is not þis housbonde þus sayde he certayne
 What he mente þer-by I can nouȝt saye 20
 Welo But þat I axe why þe fyfte man Was non housbonde to þe Samaritan how many myȝt seche han in mariage 23
 1 þit hardie I neuere telle in al myn age [This line is by another hand, over an erasure.]

CORPUS (6-T. 334)

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

§ 1. WIFE OF BATH'S PREAMBLE

PETWORTH MS.

And here bygyneþ þe prologe of þe wif of Batho [Def 112]

Experience thouȝe noon auctorite were in þis world riȝt ynough for me
 To speke of woo þat is in mariage
 Thonked be god þat is eterne alyus Husbondes atte church door haue I had fyue ȝif I so often myȝt han wedded be But alle were worþi men in her degre 8
 But me was tolde certeyn not longe agoñ is That siþen cristie ne went neuere but onys
 To wedden in þe cane of galile þat by þilke ensample taught he me 1
 That I ne schuld wedded be but onys Herk eek .loo such a sharpe worde for þe nones
 Beside a welle Ihesu god and man
 Spake in repreef of þe Samaritan 16
 Thou hast yhad .v. husbondes quod he
 And þat ilke man þat nouȝt haþ þe
 Is not thynne husbond þus seide he certeyn
 What he ment þer-by I can not seyn 20
 Wale: But þat I aske whi the fift man
 Was non husbond to þe Samaritan
 How mony myȝt she han in mariage ȝit herd I neuere telle in myn age 24

PETWORTH (6-T. 334)

GROUP D. FRAGMENT V.

§ 1. WIFE OF BATH'S PREAMBLE

LANSDOWNE MS.

Incipit prologus vxoris/ de Batho. [on leaf 107]

THan schortly answarde þe wif of Batho 1*
 And swore a wonder grete hope 2*
 Be goddes bones .I. wil tel next } spurious link
 .I. wil nouȝt glose bot saye þe text 3*
 Experiment þouhe none auctorite 4*
 Where in þis werlde is riȝt y-nouhe for me 1
 To speke of woo þat is in mariage
 For lordynges san .I. twelue þeer was of Age 4 þonked be god þat eterne alyue Husbondes att þe cherche dor .I. haue hadde fyue
 If .I. so oft myȝt haue wedded be Bot al were worþi men in here degre. 8
 Bot me was tolde certein nouȝt longe agon es [Def 107, back] þat seþen cristie ne went neuere bot ones
 To weddeinge in þe Cane of Galile
 That be þilke ensample taugt he me 12
 That I ne scholde wedded be but ones
 Herke eke loo such a sharpe worde for þe nones
 Be side a welle Ihesu god and man Spak in repreuf of þe Samaritan 16 þou hast bi-hadde fyue husbondes quod he
 And þat ilke man þat noue haþ þe
 Is nouȝt þin husbonde þus seide he certeyn
 What he ment þer-by .I. kan nouȝt seime 20
 Well . Bot þat .I. axe whi þe fift mane
 Was none husbonde to þe Samaritan
 How many myȝt seche han in mariage ȝit herd .I. neuer tell in myne age 24

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 334)

335 SIX-TEXT
168 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Ellesmere MS.

quis arundinum Fuchsen / Gd
habent vrayes vic plut tongueum nian lobetate ¶ Crestie & multiplicandi

Vpon this nombre diffinicion
Men may deuyne / and glooen vp and doun
But wel I woot¶ expre with-oute lye
God had vs / for to weze and multiplye
That gentil text¶ kan I [wel] vnderstonde Eek wel I woot¶ he seyde myn housbonde Sholde lete fuder and mooder / and take me
But of no nombre / mencion¶ made he
Of bigamyne / or of Octogamyne
Why sholde men / speke of it vileynye
¶ Lo here / the wise kyng¶ dann salomon
I trowe / he hadde vywys / mo than on
As wolde god / it were leuful vn-to me
To be refresshed / half so ofte as he
Which yifte of God / hadde he / for alle hisse wywys
No man hath ewich / þat in this world alyne is God woot / this noble kyng¶ as to my wit
The firste nyght¶ had many a myrie fit
With ech of hem / so wel was hym on lyeue
Yblesed be god / that I haue wedded fyue Wolde me the sixte / whan that euere he shal for sothe / I wol nat kepe me chasst in al Whan myn housbonde / is fro the world gone
Som cristen man / shal wedde me anon for thanne / thapostle seith / I am free
To wedde a goddes half where ¶ it liketh¶ me (1-100 22 22 22 22 22)

¶ Si actus non consensu solvitur

¶ Quod si derelinquit vir sua illorata est vel nulli subat in Donum

¶ Si accepit vrayes done pocessit / et si inuyertit virgo non pocessit / est bij cot dominio et votatus 110
Item de ¶ Metus est interdum quom viri ¶ Lamech qui primus inuauit bigamyne / et auocouit et derelicta est. et ¶ Abraham fignatus ¶ Jacob quatuor-vixit

ELLESMERE 168 (6-T. 335)

335 SIX-TEXT
130 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Hengwrt MS.

Vp-on this nombre / diffynicion
Men may dyuyns / and gloosen vp & doun
But wel I woot expre / with-oute lye
God had vs / for to weze and multiplye
That gentil text¶ kan I wél vnderstonde ¶ Eek wel I woot he seyde þat myn housbonde Sholde lete / fuder and moder / and take to me
But of no nombre / mencion¶ made he
Of Bigamyne / or of Octogamyne
Why sholde men thanne / speke of it vileynye
¶ Lo here / the wise kyng¶ Dann Salomon
I trowe / he hadde vywys many on
As wolde god / it leufel were to me
To be refresshed / half so ofte as he
Which yifte of god hadde he / for alle hisse wywys
No man hath ewich / that in this world alyne is God woot this noble kyng¶ as do my wit
The firste nyght¶ hadde many a myrie fit
With ech of hem / so wel was hym on lyeue
Blessed be god / that I haue wedded fyue Wel come the sixte / whan þat euere he shal for sith I wol nat kepe me / chasst in al Whan myn housbonde / is fro the world agon
Som cristen man / shal wedde me anon for thanne thapostle seith / þat I am free
To wedde a goddes half / where it liketh¶ me
He seith / that to be wedded is no synne
Bet is / to be wedded / than to byrnye
What rekethet me / theigh folk / seye vileynye
Of shrewed lamech / and of bigamyne
I woot wel / Abraham / was an holy man
And iacob eek¶ / as for as I kan
And ech of hem / hadde wywes mo than two
And many another / hely man also ¶ Where kan ye seye / in any maner age
That heighe god / defended mariage

28

32

(leaf 67, back)

36

40

44

48

52

56

60

36

(leaf 29, back)

40

44

48

52

56

60

HENGWRT 130 (6-T. 335)

335 SIX-TEXT
168, GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Cambridge MS.

Vpon þis nombre of diffinicion
Men may deuyne and glose vp and doun
But welle I wote expresse with-out lye God bad vs waxe and multiplis þat gentille text/ can I welle vnderstonde Eke welle I wote he sayd myn husونده
Schulde let fladir and modir and take to me
But of none nombre mencion made he
Of Bygamyne or of Octogamyne
Whi schulde men of hit haue vilonye [Loke better] þe wyse man kyng Salamon
I trowe he hadde wywes mo þan oñ
Now, wold god hit leffulle were to me
To be refresshid half so ofte as ho
Whiche yifte of god hade he for alle his wywes
No man þat hathe such þat in þis world ys
God wote þis noble kyng as to my writte
The fyrst nygt/ hade many a mery fyfte
With lche of hem so welle was he a lye Blessed be god. I haue weddid fyue Welle come þe sixte whan þat euere he shalle for siche I wille nouyt kepe chaste in alle
What myne husonde ys fro þe worlde gone
Some crysten man shalle wedde me a-none for þan þe Apodest seithe þat I am fre To wedde a goddes half where hit likes me he seyth þat to be weddid ys no synne Bettere ys to be weddid þan to brenne
What rekethet me þe wyse say vilonye
Of shrewed lameche and his bigamyne
I wote welle Abraham was an holy man
And iacob eke as for as I euere can And eche of [hem] hade wywes mo þan two
And many an other man also Where can ye say in eny manere age þat vs god defendid mariage

(Sloane MS 108)

28

32

¶ Quomodo non quit homo porem & matrem et derelinquit suam carnem suam

36

(leaf 130, back)

40

44

48 ¶ Metus est pro

quom viri

52

56

60

CAMBRIDGE 168 (6-T. 335) [this page, Sloane 1086]

SIX-TEXT 335
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Corpus MS.

Vpon þis nombre diffinicion
Men may deuynne and glosen vp and doun
But wel I woot expresse wijouten lye
God had vs for to weze and multiplye 28
That gentil text can I wel vnderstonð
Eke wel I woot he seide myn housebonde
Schulde lets fader & mooder and take to me But of noon nombre mencion made he /
Of Bigamy or of Octogamy 33
Why schulde men þenne haue it in vilanye / loke here þe wise man king Salomon
I trowe he hadde wyues moo þan on Now wolde god it leful were to me /
To be refreshed half so ofte as he Which gifte of god hadde he for alle his wyues
No man hap such þat in þis world a lyue is God wot þis noble kinge as to my writte
The firste night hadde mony a mery fitte
Wip iche of hem so wel was hym alyue
Blissed be god þat I haue wedded fyue Welcome þe sixte whan þat' ener he schal for sijþe I wille nough kepe chaste in al Whan myn housebonde is fro þe world y-gon Som crysteu man schal wedde me anon for þan þe apostle seiþ þat I am free To wedde a goddes half wher it likeþ me he seiþ þat to be wedded is no senns Betre is it to be wedded þan to breuue 52
What rekkeþ me pouh folk' sey vylanye
O schrewed lameth and his Bygamyne /
I woot wel Abraham was an holy man
And Iacob eke as far as ener I can
And ech of hem hadde wyues mo þan tuo
And many anoper holy man also
Where can þe say in any maner age
That vs god defended marriage 60

CORPUS (6-T. 335)

SIX-TEXT 335
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

vpon þis nombre diffinicion
Men may devise and glosen vp and doun
But wel I wote expresse wij-outen lye
God had us forto weze and multiple 28
That go[n]til text can I wel vnderstonð
Eke wel I wote he seide myn husbond Shuld lets fadere and modere and take to me But of no nombre mencion made he
Of bygamy or of octogamy 32
Whi shuld men þan of it han vilanye loke here the wise man . kyng Salomon
I trowe he had wyues moo þan eon
Now wold god it leful were to me
To be refreshed half so oft' as he
Which gift of god had he for all his wyues
No man hap such þat in þis world alyue es / God wote þis noble kinge us to my writte þe first' nyht had mony a mery fitte
Wip iche of hem so wel was hym alyue
Blessed be god . þat I haue wedded fyue Welcome þe .vi. whan þat' ener he schal for sijþ I wil not kepe me chasht' in all Whan myn husbond is fro þe world ygon Somme cristen man schal wedde me anon for þan the apostel seiþ þat I am fre
To wedde a goddes half wher it likeþ me
He seiþ þat to be wedded is no synne
Better is to be wedded þan to breuue 52
What rekkeþ me þoo folk sey vylanye
Of shrewed lameth and his Bygamyne
I woot wel Abraham was an holy man
And Iacob eke as far as ener I can
And eche of hem had wyues moo þan tuo
And many anoper holy man also
Where can þe say in any maner age
That vs god defended marriage 60

PETWORTH (6-T. 335)

SIX-TEXT 335
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

vpon þis nombre diffinicion
Men maie deuine and glosen vp and dounne
Bot wale .I. wote expresse wij-oute lye God had vs wax and multiplye 28 þat gentil tixt can .I. wale vnder-stande Eke wale .I. he seide myn husbonde
Scholde lets fader and moder and tak to me Bot of no nombre mencions maade he
Of bygamy or of octagamy
Whi scholde y þan of it haue velanye Loke here þe wisman kinge Salomon
.I. trowe he had wyues mo þan one Now wolde god it leufuh were to me
To be refreshed half so oft as he Whiche gift of god had he for al his wyues
No man hap suche þat in þis world on lyue is God wote þis noble kinge as to my writt þe first nyht he hadde mony a mery fitt Wip iche of hem so wele was him on liue
Blissed be god þat .I. haue wedded fyue
Welcome be þe sext whan þat' ener he schall
For soþe .I. wil nouþ kepe chaste in all Whan myn husbonds is from þe weide gone Son cresten man schal wedde me a-non For þan þe Apostle seiþ þat .I. am fre
To wedde on goddes halne wher it likeþ me
He seiþ to be wedded is no sienne Better is to be wedded þan to berne
What rekkeþ me þouhe folke seie velanye
Of shrewed lameth and his Bigamyne
.I. wote wale Abraham was an holy man
And Iacob eke as far as euer y þan
And eche of hem had wyues mo þan tuo
And many anoper holy man also Where can þe seie in any maner age þat vs god defended marriage 60

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 335)

336 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Ellesmere MS. 169

By expres word / I pray you telleth me
Or where / comanded he virginitee
I woot as wel as ye / it is no drede
Whan thapostel / speketh of maydenhede
He sayde / that precept ther-of hadde he noon
Men may conselle / a woman to be on
But consylling<sup>s</sup> is nat comandement<sup>t</sup>
He putte it in oure owene Iuggement<sup>t</sup>
ffor hadde god / comanded maydenhede
Thanne hadde he dampned weddyng<sup>s</sup> with the dede
And certein / if ther were / no seed y-sowe Virginitee / wher-of thanne sholde it growe
Poul / no dorste nat / comanden atte leeste
A thyng<sup>s</sup> of which his maister yaf noon heeste
The dert is set vp / of virginitee
Cacche who so may / who renneth best lat see ¶ But this word / is nat taken of euery wight
But ther / as god hat<sup>t</sup> gyue it of his myght<sup>t</sup>
I woot wel / that the Apostel was a mayde
But natless<sup>s</sup> / thogh / that he wroot and sayde He wolde / put euery wight / were swich as he Al nyx / but conseil to virginitee
And for to be a wyf / he yaf me leue
Of Indulgence / so it is no reppure
To wedde me / if my make dye
With-oute / excepcion of Bigamye
Al were it good / no woman for to touche
He mente / as in his bed / or in his couche
ffor peril is / bothe fyr and tow tassamble
Ye knowe / what this ensample may resemble
This is al and som / that virginitee Moore profiteth / than weddyng / in freletee ffreletee clepe I / but if that he and she Wolde lede / al hir lyf in chastitee
¶ I graunte it wel / I haue noon envie
Thogh maydenhede preferre Bigamye

ELLESMEERE 169 (6-T. 336)

336 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Hengwrt MS. 131

By expres word / I pray you telleth me
Or where comanded he virginytee
I woot as wel as ye / it is no drede
Thapostel / whan he speketh of maydenhede
He sayde / that precept ther-of / hadde he noon
Men may conselle a woman / to be on
But consylling<sup>s</sup> nys no comandement<sup>t</sup>
He put it in oure owene Iuggement<sup>t</sup>
ffor hadde god / comanded maydenhede
Thanne hadde he dampned weddyng<sup>s</sup> with the dede
And certes / if ther were no seed ysowe
Virginytee thanne / wher-of sholde it growe
Poul dorste nat comanden / at the leeste
A thyng<sup>s</sup> of which / his mayster yaf noon heeste
The dert / is set vp for virginytee
Cacche who so may / who renneth best lat see
But this word / is night take of euery wight<sup>t</sup>
But ther as god / list yeue it of his myght<sup>t</sup>
I woot wel / that thapostel was a mayde
But natless<sup>s</sup> / thogh<sup>t</sup> he wroot<sup>t</sup> or sayde He wolde / that euery wight<sup>s</sup> were swich as he Al nyx but conseil / to virginytee
And for to be a wyf / he yaf me leue
Of Indulgence / so nys it no reppure
To wedde me / if that my make dye
With-oute excepcion of bigamye
Al were it good / no woman for to touche
He mente / as in his bed / or in his couche
ffor peril is / bothe fyr and tow tassamble
Ye knowe / what this ensample may resemble
This al and som / he heeld virginytee Moore parth<sup>s</sup> than weddyng in freletee ffreletee clepe I / but if pat he and she Wolde leden / al hir lyf in chastitee
I graunte it wel / I haue noon envy
Thogh maydenhede / preferre bigamye

HENGWRT 131 (6-T. 336)

336 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Cambridge MS. 169

By expresse worde I prey you telle me
Or where comandauid he virginytee
I wote as wela as ye hit ys no drede
The Apostil whan pat he speketh of Maydenhede
He sayd precept per-of hade he none
Men May consayle a woman to ben one
But consaylynge ys none comaundement
He putte hit in oure owene Iugement ffor hade god commaunded Maydenhede pan hade he dampned weddyng<sup>s</sup> with pe dele And certis yf here were no sode y-sowe Virgynitee pan where-of shuld hit growe Poule durste not comaunden atte leste
A thyng<sup>s</sup> of which his Mayster yaf hym none heste pe dert ys set vpe for Virgynitee Chase who so may who renneth best let see
But his word is not take of euery wyght
But here as god lust geue it of hisse mygt
I wot wel pat thapostele was a mayde
But natheles thogh pat he wrot & sayde
He wolde pat euery were swych as he Al nyx but cunseyl to virginite
And for to be a wyf he gaf me leue
Of indulgence so is it no reppure
To wedde me gif myn make deye
With-oute excepcion of bygamye
Al were it good no woman for to touche
He mente as in his bed as in hyse couche ffor peril is fer & tow tassamble ye knowe what his exsample may recemle
This is al & som pat virginyte Moore profitith pan weddyng in frelete ffrelete clepe I gif pat he & she Wolde leede al here lyf in chastite
I graunte it wel I haue non envy
Thow maydynhd profere bigamye

CAMBRIDGE 169 (6-T. 336)

¶ Prædij de virginibus / preceptum non habent / scilicet sicut de doctore ¶ Insistit ad seruicium facti in nunt virginitatis hæcque vel potest capere /
capit & cetera

¶ Vale uerum omnes homines esse sicut me ipsum

¶ Tunc est
Pauis / muliere non tangere

[336a MS 169]

[6a/10]

[336b MS 169]

[6a/6]

[MS 6p. 4. 27, line 211]

By expresse word I pray yow telleþ me
Or wher commaunded he virginite
I wot as wel as ye it is no drede þe apostel whan he spekeþ of maydenhede he seide þer-of precepte hadde he none Men may counseile a womman to be one But counsellinge is no comandement he putte it in oure owne Iuggement ffor hadde god commaunded maydenhede þanne hadde he dampned weddyngs with þe dede And certes if þer were no seed y-sowe virginite þanne wher-of scholeð it growe Pouls dorste nought comanden at þe leste
A þing of which his mayster þaf him non heste
The darte is sette vpp fro virginite Chase who so may who so rennej best lat see
But þis word is nought take of euery wight
But þere as god wolde yens of his myght
I wot wel þat þe apostel was a mayde /
But napeles þough þat he wrot or sayde he wolde þat euery wight were such as he / Al nys nat but counseile to virginite
And for to be a wiþþ he þaf me leue
Of Indulgence so is it no repreue
To wedde me if þat my make deye /
Wipoute exception of Bygamy
Al were it good no womman for to touche he mente as his body or in his couche ffor peril is þope to touche and for to assemble þe knowe what þis ensample may resemble þis al and some he helde virginite More perfyþ þan wedded in freelte freelte clepe I not but þat he and scho
Wolde lede here lif al in chastite
I graunte it wel I hane non envye
Though maydenhede preferre Bygamy

By expresse word I prei þou telleþ me
Or wher commaunded he virginite
I wote as wel as þe it is no drede
þe Apostel whan he spekeþ of maydenhede
He seide þerof precept had he non Men may counseile a womman to be on But counsellinge nys non comandement
He putte it in oure owne Iuggement ffor had god commaunded maidenhede þan had he dampned weddyngs wip þe dede
And certes if þer were no seds ysowe Virginite þan wherof schulð it growe.
Paule durst not commaunde at þe leest
A þing of which his maister þaf hym non heest þe darte is sette vp for virginyte
Chase who so may who so rennej best lat se
But þis word is not take of euery wight
But þer as god wold ȝens of his myght
I wote wel þat þe apostel was a mayde
But napeles þough þat he wrote or seide
He wold þat euery wight were such as he
All nys but counseile to virginite
And for to be a wif he þaf me leue
Of Indulgence so is it no repreue
To wedde me if þat my make dye
Wid-oute exception of Bygamy
Al were it good no womman for to touche
He ment as his body or in his couche ffor perle is þof þe and towe to assemble
þe knowe what þis ensample may resemble þis is al and some he helde virginite More parit þan wedded in freelte freelte clepe I not but þat he and she Wolde lede her lif al in chasteite
I graunte it wel I hane non envye þou Maidenhede preferre bygamy

De expresse words .I. praiþ þow telleþ me
Or wher commaunded he virginite
.I. wote as wete as þe it is no drede
The Apostle whan he spekeþ of Maidenhede
He seide þere-of precept had .I. none Men mai counsel a womman to bene one Bot counsellings is no comandement
He put it in owre owen Iugement For had god commaunded maidenhede þan hadde he dampned weddyngs wip þe dede And certes if þere were no seds .I.-sowe virginite þan wher-of schold it growe Pouls dorst nought comanden at þe lest
A þing of whiche his maistre þaf him none heste
The darte is sett vp for virginite Chase who so maye. who so rennej best lat see Bot þis worde is nought take of euery whait Bot þere as god wolde gif it of his myht
.I. wote wete þat þe Apostle was a maide
Bot Napeles þouhe þat he wrote or saide
He wolde þat euery wight were such as he
AH ne is bot counseil to virginite
And for to be a wif he þau me leus
Of Indulgence so is it of no repreue
To wedde me if þat my . make dye
Wip-oute exceptions of bigamy
Al were it goode no womman for to touche
He ment as in his body or his couche For peril is þope to touche and for to assemble þe knowe what þis ensample maie resemble þis all and somme he helde virginite Mor perite þan wedded in freelte .
freelte clepe .I. nought bot þat he and scho
.I. graunte it wete .I. hane none envye þouhe maidenhed prefer bygamy

Hem liketh to be cleue / body and goost
Of myn esta<sup>u</sup> / nyl nat make no boost for wel ye knowe / a lord in his houshold
He hath nat euery vessel / al of gold
Some been of tree / and doon hir lord seruyse
God clepeh folk to hym / in sondry wyse

¶ Vnconuene prouen ket doone as doo alle gylde del alle enten del ¶ Qui constant sugestur Actum
xliij<sup>o</sup> Milia

And euerich hath of god a propre yifte
Som this som that as hym liketh shifte
¶ Virginitie / is greet perfeccion
And continence eek<sup>u</sup> with deuocion
But Crist / that of perfeccion is welles
Bad nat euery wight / sholdo go selle
All that he hadde / and gyue it to the poore
And in swich wise / folwe hym and his flour
He spak to hem / that wolde lyue perlytly
And lordynges by youre leus / that am nat I
I wol bistowe / the flour of myn age
In the Actes and in fruyt of mariage
¶ Telle me also / to what conclusioun
Were membris maad / of generacioun
And for what profyt was a wight ywrought
Trusteth right wel / they were nat maad for nocht
Glose who so wole / and seye bothe vp and down
That they were maad / for purgacioun
Of vryne both / and thynges smale
And eek to knowe / a femelle from a male
And for noon oother cause / sey ye no ?
The experience / woot wel it is nocht so
So that the clerkes / be nat with me wrothe
I sey yis / that they both makod for bothe
This is to seyn / for office and for ese
Of engendrure / ther we nat god displese
¶ Why schulde men ellis / in hir bookes sette
That a man shal yelde / to his wyf hire dette
Now wherwith / sholdo he make his paiement
If he ne vsed / his sely Instrument

ELLESMEERE 170 (p-r. 337)

It liketh hem to be cleue / in body and goost
Of myn estat no wol I make no boost
for wel ye knowe / a lord in his houshold
Ne hath nat euery vessel / al of gold
Some been of tree / and doon hir lord seruyse
God clepeh folk to hym / in sondry wyse
And euerich / hath of god a propre yifte

Som this / som that as hym liketh shifte
Virgynite / is greet perfeccion
And continence eek<sup>u</sup> with deuocion
But Crist / that of perfeccion is welles
Bad nat euery wight / he sholdo go selle
Al that he hadde / and yene it to the poore
And in swich wise / folwe hym and his flour
He spak to hem / that wol lyue perlytly
And lordynges / by youre leus / that am nat I
I wol bistowe / the flour of al myn age
In thactes / and in fruyt of mariage
¶ Telle me also / to what conclusioun
Were membris maad / of generacioun
And of so perlyt wys a wight ywrought /
Trusteth right wel / they were nat maad for nocht
Glose who so wole / and seye bothe vp and down
That they were maad / for purgacioun
Of vryne / and cure bothe thynges smale
Was eek to knowe / a femelle / from a male
And for noon oother cause / sey ye / no ?
Therperience / woot wel it is nocht so
So that the Clerkes / be nat with me wrothe
I sey this / that they makod been for bothe
That is to seyn / for office and for ese
Of engendrure / ther we nat god displese
¶ Why sholdo men ellis / in hir bokes sette
That man shal yelde / to his wyf hir dette
Now wherwith / sholdo he make his paiement
If he ne vsed / his sely Instrument

HENGWRT 132 (p-r. 337)

Hem lykith to be cleue body & gost
Of myn estat I nyl nat make no boost for wel ye wete a lord in hyse houshold
He hath nat euery vessel al of gold
Some ben of tre & don here lord seruyse
God, clepeh folk to hym in sundry wyse
And eueryche hath of god a propre yifte

Summe þis some þat as hym lelyth schyfto Virginitie is greet perfeccioun
And continens ek with resou
But crist þat of perfeccioun is welles Bad nat euery wyjt schulde selle
Al þat he hadde & ȝeue it to þe pore
And in swich wise folwe hym and here flour
He spak to hem þat wolde leue perlytly
And lordyngys by youre leus þat am nat I I wole bestowe þe flour of al myn age
In the artys & in þe freut of mariage Telle me also to what conelusioun
Were membris made of genealogye
And for what profyt was a wyf Lowroujt Trustyth ryjt wel þey were nat maad for nojt Glose he so wole I seye boþe & donn
That þey were makyd for purgacyoun
Of vryne boþe & thyngis smale
And eek to knowe a femal from a male
And for non oþer cause sey ye no
The experience wit wel it is nat so
So þat þo clerkis ben nat with me wrothys
I seye þis þat þey ben makod for boþe
That is to seye for offyse & for ese
Of engendrure þere we nat god displese
Whi schuldun men ellis in hir bokis sette
That a man schal gyde to his wyf hire dette
Now wherwith schulde he make hyse payment
If he ne vsed his instrument

CAMBRIDGE 170 (p-r. 337)

If likē hem to be clene in body and gost
 Of myn estate I wole make no boost
 For wel so knowe a lord in his household
 Hath not euery vessel of golde / 100
 Some ben of tree / and donn here lord seruise
 God clepē folk to him in sondry wise
 And euerich haþ of god a propre gifte / Somē þis some þatwe him likeþ schifte 104 virginite is gret perfection
 And obsecience eke with deuocion
 But crist þat of perfection is welte
 Bad nouht euery wright his schulde selle . 108
 Al þat he hadde god sime it to þe pore
 And in swicll wise folwe him and his lore he spak to hem þat wolden lyue parfitly
 And lordynges by þoure leu þat man not I
 I wole bystowe þe flour of alle myn age 113
 In charite and frityt of maryage
 Telle me also to what conclusiō
 Were membes maade of generacion 116
 And of so parfit wise and why y-wrouht
 Treteþ right wel þei were not made for nouht
 Close who so wil and seiþe boþe vp and down
 That þei were made for purgacion 120
 Of vyne and oure boþe þinges smale
 Were eke to knowe a female from a male
 And for non oþer cause what seiþe so no
 The experiance woot it is nouht so 124
 So þat þe clerkes be not wip me wrouþe
 I seiþe þis þat þei makod be for boþe
 This is to seiþe for offic and for esse
 Of engendryngē þere we not god displese 128
 Why scholden men elles in hire bokes sette
 That man schal gelde to his wif his dette
 Now wherwip scholde he paye his payment
 If þat he ne used his sely instrument 132

If likē hem to be clene in body and gost
 Of myn estate I wil make no boost
 For wel so knowe a lord in his household
 Hath not euery vessel of golde / 100
 Some ben of tree and don her lord seruise
 God clepē folk to him in sondry wise
 And euery haþ of god a propre gifte Somme þis somme þat as hym likēþ abity Virginite ys grete perfeccion
 And continence eke wip deuocion
 But crist þat of perfection is welte
 Bad not euery wright his shulde selle 108
 Al þat he had and zeue it to þe pore
 And in such wise folowe hym and his lore
 He spak to hem þat wold lyue parfitly
 And lordynges by þoure leu þat man not I
 I wil bystowe þe flour of al myn age
 In charite and fruite of maryage
 Telle me also to what conclusion
 Were membes maade of generacion 116
 And of so parfit wise and whi ywrouþ
 Treteþ right wel þei were not made for nouht
 Close who so wil I say boþe vp and down þat þei were made for purgacion 120
 Of vyne and oure boþe þinges smale
 were eke to knowe a female from a male
 And for non oþer cause what seiþe so no
 þe experiance woot þat it is so 124
 So þat þe clerkes be not wip me wrouþ
 I seiþe þis þat þei makod be fore both
 This is to seiþe for offic and for esse
 Of engendryngē ther we not god displese 128 whi schuld men elles in her bokes sette þat man schal gelde to his wif his dette
 Now wherwip schuld he paye his payment
 If þat he ne used his sely instrument 132

If likē hem to be clene in body and gost
 Of myne estate I. wil make no boost
 For wel so knowe a lord in his household
 Hape nouht euery vessel of golde / 100
 Some bene of tree and done lordes seruise
 God clepē folk to him in sunder wise
 And eueryche haþ of god a proper gift
 Sum þis. som þat. as him likēþ to schift 104
 Virginite is grete perfeccion
 And conscience eke wip deuocione
 Bot crist þat of perfection is well
 Bad nouht euery whicht he schold sell 108
 Al þat he hadde and sime it to þe pore
 And in such wise folowe him and his lore
 He spak to hem þat wolden leue parfitly
 And lordynges be þoure leu þat am nouht I. 112
 I. wil be-stowe þe flour of al myne age
 In charite and fruite of Maryng
 Tel me also to what conclusion
 Were membes maade of generacion 116
 And of so perfit wise and why y-wrouht Treteþ riht wete þei were nouht maad for nouht Close who so witt and sei boþe vp and down þat þei were maad for purgacion 120
 Of vyne. And oure boþe þinges smale
 Were eke to knowe a female from a male
 And for non oþere cause what seiþe so no þe experiance wroote it is nouht so
 So þat þe clerkes be not wip me wrouþe
 I. sei þis þat þei makod buo for boþe þis is to seiþe for Office and for esse
 Of engenderyngē þere we nouht god displese 128 Whi scholden men elles in hire bokes sette þat man schal gelde to his wif þis dette
 Now wherwip scholde he paye his payment
 If þat he ne used his sely instrument 132

Thanne were they maad / vp-on a creature
To purge vryne / and for engendrure
¶ But I seye noght¶ þat euery wight is holde
That hath swich harmey<sup>s</sup> / as I of tolde
To goon and vsen hem in engendrure
They schul nat take / of chastitee no cure
Crist was a mayde / and shapen as a man
And many a seynt sith the world bigan
Yet lyued they enere / in parfyt chastitee
I nyl nat enuye / no virginitee
Lat hem be bred / of pured whote seed
And lat vs wyues / hotoen barly brood
And yet¶ with bady brood / Mark telle kan Oure lord / refreshed many a man
In swich estat¶ as god hath cleped vs
I wol perseure / I nam nat precins
In wyfhoode I wol vse myn Instrument /
As frely / as my makere hath it sent¶
If I be dangerous / god yeue me sorwe
Myn housbonde shal it hane / bothe eue and morwe
When þat hym list com forth and paye his dette
An housbonde I wol haue / I nyl nat lette
Which shal be / bothe my dettour / and my thral
And hane / his tribulacion / with al
Vp-on his flesch / whil that I am his wyf /
I haue the power / duryng al my lyf
Vp-on his propre body / and noght he Right thus / the Apostel / tolde it vn-to me
And bad oure housbondys / for to loue vs wel
Al this sentence / me liketh euery deel
¶ Vp stirte the Pardoner / and that anon
Now dame quod he / by god and by seint Iohn
Ye been a noble prechour in this cas
I was aboute / to wedde a wyf allas
What shoulde I bye it on my flesch so deere Yet hadde I leuere / wedde no wyf to yere

ELLESMEERE 171 (6-T. 338)

Thanne were they maad / vp-on a creature
To purge vryne / and eek for engendrure
¶ But I seye noght¶ þat euery wight is holde
That hath swich harmey<sup>s</sup> / as I to yow tolde.
To goon / and vsen hem in engendrure
Thanne sholde men take / of Chastitee no cure
Crist was a mayde / and shapen as a man
And many a Seynt¶ sith that the world bigan
yet lyued they enere / in parfyt Chastitee
I nyl enuie / no virginytee
Lat hem be bred / of pured whote seed
And lat us wyues / hoto Barlybrood
And yet¶ with Barlybrood / Mark telle kan Oure lord Iheru / refreshed many a man
In swich estat¶ as god hath clepyd vs
I wol perseure / I nam nat precins
In wyfhoode / wol I vse myn Instrument
As frely / as my makere hath it sent¶
If I be dangerous / god yeue me sorwe
Myn housbonde / shal it han / bothe eue and morwe
When that hym list cem ferth and paye his dette
And housbonde / wol I haue / I wol nat lette
Which shal be / bothe / my dettour and my thral
And hane / his tribulacion / with-al
Vp-on his flesch / whil that I am his wyf
I haue the power / duryng al my lyf
Vp-on his propre body / and nat he Right thus / thapostle / tolde it vn-to me
And bad oure housbondes / for to loue vs wel
Al this sentence / me liketh euery del
¶ Vp stirte the Pardoner / and that anon
Now dame quod he / by god and by Seint Iohn
Ye been a noble Prechour / in this cas
I was aboute / to wedde a wyf allas
What¶ shoulde I bye it / on my flesch so deere
Yet hadde I leuere / wedde no wyf to yere

HENGWRT 133 (6-T. 338)

Thanne were þey made vp-on a creature
To purge vryne & for engendure
But I sey not þat euery wight is holde
That hath swich harmey<sup>s</sup> as I of tolde
To gon & vse hem in engendure
They schul nat take of chastite no cure
Crist was a maydyn & schapyn as a man And manye a seynt sith þe world began þit leuede þey oure in parfyt chastite
I nyl not enuye swych virginite
Let hem be bred of pure whete seed
And lat vs wyuys hoto barli bread
And þit with barli bred mark telle kan
That oure lord refrechid manye a man
In swich estat as god clepyth vs
I wele perseure I am nat precins
In wyf-hod I wele vse mys instrument As frely as mys makere hath it sent þif I be dangerous god gif me sorwe Myn housbonde schal it hane on eue & morwe Whan þat hym lyst cem forth & paye hie dette
An housbonde wele I hane I nyl nat lette
Whiche schal be boþe mys detour & myn thral
And hane hise trybulacion with-al
Vp-on hise flesh whil I am his wyf
I haue þe power duryng al myn lyf Vp-on kyas proper body & noght he Ryght þus thapostle tolde it me
And bad oure housbondys forto loue vs wel
Al þis sentence me likyth euerydel Vp sterte þe pardoner & þat a non Now dame quod he bi god & by seyn Iohn þe ben a noble prechour in þis cas
I was a-bute to wedde a wyf allas What schulde I it beye on myn flesch so deere þit hadde I leuere wedde no wyf to yere

CAMBRIDGE 171 (6-T. 338)

¶ Qui vocem habet de sollicit dicitur. 2. esse lo proprio & seruo toris & qui soluam seruo
rum est obligat

¶ Et hanc seruam vocem in / noli propter hoc habere tribulacione ¶ Item dicitur per ruores non possunt tribula cionem habere quia habebunt bolumodi & curam

¶ Item vtr corpora sui non habent potestatem sui vtr

(6-T. 133)

(6-T. 171)

(6-T. 171)

(6-T. 171)

Than were þey maade vpon a creature
 To purgē vryne and eke for engendure
 But I seye nought þat every wight is holde
 That haþ such harnays as I to yow of tolde
 To gon and vsen hem in engendure
 Thanne scholde men take of chastite no cure
 Crist was a mayden end schapen as a man
 And many a seynt syn þat þe world bygan
 Yet lyued þey euer in parþi chastite
 I nel envye with no virginite
 Lete hem ete brede of pured whete seed
 And late vs wyues ete barly broed
 And yet with barly broed Mark's telle can Oure lord<sup>1</sup> [Ihesu refresshet / many a man in suchē estate as god hath cleped vs / I wol perciver / I am nought precious in wifhede wol I vse myn instrument as frely as my maker / hath hit sent yif I be dangerous / god yeve me sorowe myn husbonde schal it have both eue and morowe when that him list / com forth and paye his dette as husbonde wol I haue / I wol not lette which schal be / both my detour and my thralle and han his tribulacion with-alle vpon his flesch / while that I am his wif I haue the power<sup>2</sup> / drynge al my lif vpon his propre body / and not he right thus the Appostel / tolde vn-to me and had oure husbondes / for to love vs walle alle this sentence / me liketh everydeil U ppe sterte the pardonere / and that anon now dame quod he / hi god and hi seint Iohn ye ben a noble prechoure / in this caus I was aborte to wedde a wif allas what shulde I bye it / on my flesche so dere yit had I lever wedde noon to yere

136

140

144

148

152

156

160

164

168

<sup>1</sup> [entebard / a leaf out.]
<sup>2</sup> [aboz emprouer]
 MS Arch. Seid. B. 14, and 74, both

<sup>1</sup> Ad Corinthios vij. vij ad corinthios non habet potestatem set molier de

Than were þei made vpon a creature
 To purge vryne and eke for engendure
 But I seye not þat every wight is holde þat haþ such harnays as I to gon haue tolde
 To gon and vsen hem in engendure
 þan shuld men take of chastite no cure Crist was a mayde and schapen as a man And mony a seint siþ þat þe world bygan ȝit lyued þei euer in parþi chaaistite
 I nyl envie wiþ no virginite
 Let hem ete brede of pured whete sode
 And lat vs wyues ete Barle brede.
 And ȝit wiþ barle brode Mark's telle can Oure lord Ihesu refresshet mony a man
 In suchē astate as god haþ cleped vs /
 I wil perseure I me am not precious
 In wifhede wil I vse myn Instrument
 As frely as my maker haþ it sent
 If I be dangerous god ȝeue me sorowe
 Myn husbonde schal it haue boþ eue and morowe
 When þat him list come forþ and paye his dette
 An husbond I wil han I nyl not lette
 Which schal be boþ my detour and my þral
 And han his tribulacion wiþ-ah
 Vpon his flesch while þat I am his wif
 I haue the power during al my lif
 vpon his propre body and not he Riht þus þe apostel told [it] vnto me
 And had oure husbondes forto lone hym weft
 Al þis sentenc me likeþ every dell
 V p start the pardonere and þat anon
 Now dame quod he by god and by seynt Iohn ȝe bene a noble prechour in þis caus
 I was aboute to wedde a wif alas
 What shuld I by it on my flesch so dere ȝit had I lever wedde non to yere

136

140

144

148

152

156

160

164

168

[leaf 114, back]

<sup>1</sup> Ad corinthios vij.
 vij et corinthios potes-tatem non habet. ad
 molier.

Than were þei maade vpon a creature
 To purge vryne and eke for engendure
 Bot .I. sei nought þat every wight is holde þat haþe suche harnays as .I. to ȝow of tolde
 To gone and vsen hem in engendure
 Than scholde men take of chastite no cure
 Cristo was a mayden and schapen as a man And mony a seinte soþþ þat þis werlde bygan ȝit leued þei euer in perfitte charite
 .I. nyl envye wiþ no virginite
 Lete hem ete brede of pured whete sed
 And late vs wyues ete barly brode
 And ȝit wiþ barly brede Mark's telle can Oure lordes ihesu refresshet mony a man
 In suchē astate þat god haþ cleped vs
 .I. wil perseure .I. am nouht precious In wifhede wil .I. vse myne Instrument
 As frely as my maker haþ it sent
 If .I. be daungerous god gif me sorwe
 Myne husbond schal it haue boþe one and morowe
 When þat him luste com forþ and paie his dette
 An husbond .I. wil haue .I. wil not lette Whichē schal be boþe my detour and my þral
 And haue his tribulacion wiþ ah
 Vpon his flesche while þat .I. am his wif
 .I. haue þe powere duringe al my lif
 Vpon his propre body and not he Riht þus þe Apostle tolde to me
 And had oure husbondes for to loue vs wels
 Al þis sentens me likeþ every dale
 V p start þe pardonere and þat anon Nowre dame quod he be god and be seinte Iohn ȝe bene a noble prechoure in þis cas
 .I. was aboute to wed a wif alas
 What schold .I. by it on my flesche so dere ȝit had .I. leuere none wedde to ȝere

[leaf 109]

136

140

144

148

152

156

160

164

168

<sup>1</sup> Ad Corinthios vij.
 vij et corinthios potes-tatem non habet set molier.

¶ Interdiligite
¶ Interdiligite

¶ Abyde quod she / my tale is nat bigonne
Nay / thou shalt drynken of another tonne
Er that I go / shal sauoure wost than Ale
And whan þat I / haue toold forth my tale
Of tribulaciō / that is in mariage
Of which I am expert in al myn age
This to seyn / my self haue been the whippe
Than maystow chese / whether thou wolt sippe
Of that tonne / that I shal abroche Be war of it / er thou to ny approche for I shal tell ensamples / mo than ten Who so / þat wol nat be war / by othere men
By hym / shal othere men corrected be
The same wordes / writeth Protholome Rede it in his Almageste / and take it there ¶ Dame I wolde praye / if youre wyl it were seyde this Pardoner / as ye bigan
Telle forth youre tale / spareth for no man
And telle vs yonge men / of youre praktike ¶ Gladly sires / sih it may you like But yet I praye / to al this compaignye
If that I speke / after my fantasye
As taketh nat gref / that I seye for myn entente / is but for to pleye

¶ Interdiligite
¶ Interdiligite

Now sire / now wol I telle forth my tale
As enere / moot I drynken wyn or Ale
I shal seye sooth / of the housbondes þat I hadde
As thre of hem were goods / and two were badde
The thre men / were goods / and riche / and olde Ynnethe / myghte they / the statut holde
In which / that they were / bounden vn-to me
Ye woot wel / what I mene of this parde
As help me god / I laughe whan I thynke
How pitously / anygh I made hem swynke
And by my sey / I tolde of it no stoor
They had me feuen hir gold / and hir tresoor

¶ Abyd quod she / my tale is nat bigonne
Nay / thou shalt drynken / of another tonne
Er þat I go / shal sauoure wost than Ale 172 And whan that I / haue toold thee forth my tale
Of tribulacion / in mariage
Of which I am expert in al myn age
This is to seye / my self hath been the whippe 176 Thanne maystow / chese / whether þat thou wolt sippe (leaf 92) Of thilke tonne / that I shal afroche 177 Be war of it / er thou to neigh approche for I shal telle ensamples / mo than ten 180 Who so þat nyle / be war / by othere men
By hym / shal othere men corrected be
This same wordes / writeth Protholome Rede in his Almageste / and take it there 184 ¶ Dame I wolde praye / if youre wyl it were
seyde this Pardoner / as ye bigan
Telle forth youre tale / spareth for no man
And telleth vs yonge men / of youre praktiko 188 ¶ Gladly quod she / syn it may you lyke
But that I praye / to al this compaignye
If that I speke / after my fantasye
As taketh nat gref / of that I seye for myn entente / mys but for to pleye 192 Now sire / thanne wol I telle you forth my tale
As enere / moot I drynke / wyn or Ale
I shal seye sooth / of the housbondes þat I hadde
196 As thre of hem were goods / and two were badde
The thre men / were goods / and ryche / and olde (leaf 93, back)
Ynnethe myghte they / the Statut holde
In which / that they were bounden vn-to me
200 Ye woot wel / what I mene of this parde
As help me god / I laughe whan I thynke
How pitously / a night I made hem swynke
And by my sey / I tolde of it no stoor
204 They hadde me feuen / hir hand and hir tresoor

A-byde quod she myn tale is nat be-gonne
Nay þou schalt drynken of a-noþer tunne
Or þan I go schal sauouge woste þan ale
And whan þat I haue told forth myn tale
Of trybulacioun þat is in mariage
Of which I am expert in al myn age
This is to seyn myn self hath ben þe wippe Thanne maysþ þou chese wþer þou wolt skyype 176 Of þat tunne þat I schal a-broche 177 Be war of it er þou to nygh a-proche for I schal telle ensample mo þan ten 180 Who so þat wole nat be war by oþere men
By hym schal oþere men correctid be
The same wordys wrythþ protholome
Rede it in fise almageste & take it þere 184 Dame I wolde praye gif þoue wil it were seyde þis pardouner as þe be-gan Tellyth forth þoure tale sparyth man
And telleth vs þyge me of þoure practik 188 Gladly sires siþe it may þow lyk
But gif I praye to al þis compaignye
If þat I speke afyter myn fantasye
As takyth nat a gres þat I seye (leaf 115, back) for myn entant is but for to pleye 192 Now seer now wyl I telle forth myn tale
As enere mote I drynkyne wyn or ale
I schal sey soth of housbondis þat I hadde 196 As thre of hem were goode & thre were badde
The thre men were goode & rych & olde Oneþe myst þe þe statut holde
In which þat þey were boundyn on to me 200 3e wete wel what I mene of þis parde
As helpe me god I laughe whan I thynke
How pytously on nyȝt I made hem to swynke
But be myn sey I tolde of it no stior 204 They hadden me ȝeuy hire lond & hire tresoor

SIX-TEXT 339
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. CORPUS MS

alȝde quod she / my tale is not bigonne may thou shalt drynken / of another tonne or that I go / shal sauour wers than ale and when I haue tolde forth my tale of tribulacions / that is in mariage of which I am expert / in myn age this is to seie / my-self hadt ben the whippe than maistow chese / whether thou wilt sippe of thilke tonne / that I shal abroche be war of hit / or thow fe aygh approche
 for I shal telle ensamples / mo than ten who so that wil not / be war bi other men by him shulle other men corrected be these same wordis / writeth Protholome rode in his Almageste / and take it there dame I wol pray yow / if yowre wille were seide this Pardoner / as ye bigan telle forth youre tale / spare for no man and teche vs yongemen / of youre practike gladly quod she / siith it may yow like but that I pray / to al this companye if that I speke / after my fantasie as taketh nought agreff / of that I seye for myn entente / is not / but for to pleye.
 Now sires than shal I telle yow my tale as enere mot y drynke wyn, or ale I shal say noth / tho housbondes that I hadde as thre of hem were goede / and two were badde the thre were goede men / riche and olde vneth myghton thei / the statute holde in which thei were bounden vn-to me ye wot wel what I mene of this parde as god me helpe / I laugh when I thynke how pitously a nyght / I made hem swynke but bi my fay / I tolde of hit no storo thei hadde me yere here-lande / and hem tresore

SIX-TEXT 339
[MS Arch. 662, r. 141]

[MS 85]

176

180

Protholome

184

188

192

196

200

204

CORPUS (6-7. 339) [this page, Arch. Schl. B. 14]

SIX-TEXT 339
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

Hyde quod she my tale is not bigonne
 Nay þou shalt drinken a noȝer tonne
 Er þat I goo shal sauour wers þan ale
 And when þat I haue told forþ my tale
 Of tribulacion in mariage
 Of whiche I am expert in myn age þis is to seye my self had þene þe whippe þan maist þowe chese whider þou wilt scippe jilly tonne þat I shal abroche Be war of it or þou to nyȝe aproche for I shal telle ensamples moo þan ten who that wil not be war by oþer men /
 By hym shul oþer men corrected be These same wordes writeth protholome
 Rode in his almagest and takest þere Dame I wold pray þou if þowr wille were Seide þis pardoner as þe bygan
 Telle forþ þoure tale spare forno man
 And teche vs þonge men of þoure practike
 Gladly quod she siþ it may þou like
 But þat I pray to al þis companye
 If þat I speke after my fantasie
 As takeþ nat a greet of þat I seye
 For myn entent is not but for to pleye ¶ Now sires þan shal I telle þou my tale
 As enere mote I drinke wyne or ale
 I shal seie soþ þoo housbondes þat I hadde
 As iij. of hem were good and two were badde þe iij. were good men riche and olde Vnneþ mysten þei þe statute holde
 In which þei were bounden vn-to me
 þe wote wels what I mene of þis parde
 As god me helpe I laugh when I þynke
 How pitously a nyȝt I made hem swynke
 But by my fays I tolde of it no storo þei had me þoue her londre and her tresore

SIX-TEXT 339

173

176

180

[MS 113]

184

188

192

196

200

204

PETWORTH (6-7. 339)

SIX-TEXT 339
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

Abide quod she Mi tale is nouȝt þe-gonne
 Nay þou schalt drinken of a noȝere tonne
 Are þat I. go schal sauour wers þan ale
 And when þat I. haue tolde forþ my tale
 Of tribulacions in mariage
 Of whiche I. am experte in myne age
 This is to seye Mi-self haþ be þe whippe þan maist þou chese weder þou wilt scippe þis same wordes writeth tholome Ride in his almagist and take it þere Dame I. praye þowe if þou wil wero Snil þis pardoner as þe began
 Tel forþ þowre tale spare for no man
 And teche vs þonge men of þoure practike
 Gladly quod she if it maie þow like Bot þat I. prie to al þis compaignye
 If þat I. speke after my fantasie
 As takeþ nat a greue of þat I. saie
 For myne entent is nouȝt bot for to pleye ¶ Now sires þan schal I. tel þowe my tale
 As enere most I. drink wyne or ale
 I. schal seie soþe þo housbondes þat I. had
 As þre of hem were iijht good and tuo were badde
 The þre were godemen and riche and olde Vnneþ myht þei þe statute holde
 In which þei were bounden vn-to me
 þe wote wels what I. mene of þis parde
 As god me help I. lauhe when I. þynke
 Howe pitously a nyȝt I. maade hem swynke Bot be me feis I. told of hit no storo þei hadde me þous hit londre and here tresore

SIX-TEXT 339

172

176

[MS 89, back]

180

184

188

192

196

200

204

LANSDOWNE (6-7. 339)

Me neded nat / do lenger diligence
 To wyne hir loue / or doon hem reuerence
 They loued me so wel / by god aboue
 That I ne tolde / no deyntee of hir loue
 A wys woman / wol sette hire euere in oon
 To gete hire loue / ther as she hath noon
 But siþh I hadde hem / hoolly in myn hond
 And siþh / they hadde / me yeneu all hir lond
 What shoelde I taken heede / hem for to plesse
 But it were / for my profit and myn esse
 I sette hem so a werk / by my fey
 That many a nyght they songen weylaway
 The bacon / was nat fet for hem I trowe
 That som men han / in Essex at Dunmowe
 I governed hem / so wel after my lawe
 That ooh of hem / was ful blisful and fawe
 To brynge me / gaye thynges / fro the floyre
 They were ful glad / when I spak to hem faire for god it wrot / I chidde hem spitoously ¶ Now herkeneth / hou I bar me proprely ¶ Ye wise wyues / that kan vnderstonde ¶ Thus shal ye speke / and beren hem on honde for half so boldely / kan ther no man
 Swere and lye / as kan a woman
 I sey nat this / by wyues þat been wyze
 But if it be / when they hem mysseyse
 A wys wyf / if that she kan hir good
 Shal bere hym on hond / the Cow is wood
 And take witness / of hir owene mayde
 Of hir assent / but herkeneth how I sayde
 ¶ Sire olde kaynard / is this thyn array
 Why is / my neighebores wyf so gay
 She is honoured / ouer al ther she gooth
 I sitte at hoem / I haue no thyrffy clooth
 What dostow / at my neighebores hous
 Is she so fair / atow so amorous

Me neded nat do lenger diligence
 To wyne hir loue / or doon hem reuerence
 They loued me so wel / by god aboue
 That I ne tolde / no deyntee of hir loue
 A wys woman / wol bryge hire / euere in oon
 To gete hir loue / ye ther as she hath noon
 But siþh I hadde hem / hoolly in myn hond
 And siþh that they / hadde yeneu me al hir lond
 What shoelde I take kepe / hem for to plesse
 But it were / for my profit and myn esse
 I sette hem awerk / by my fey
 That many a nyght they songen weylaway
 The bacon / was nat fet for hem I trowe
 That som men han / in Essex at Dunmowe
 I governed hem / so wel after my lawe
 That ooh of hem / ful blisful was and fawe
 To brynge me / gaye thynges fro the floyre
 They were ful glad / when I spak to hem foyre
 for god it wrot / I chidde hem spitoously ¶ Now herkeneth / how I bar me proprely ¶ Ye wise wyues / that konne vnderstonde Thus shoelde ye speke / and bere hem wrong on honde
 for half so boldely / kan ther no man
 Swere and lye / as a woman kan
 I sey nat this / by wyues þat been wyze
 But if it be / when they hem mysseyse
 A wys wyf / if that she kan hir good
 Shal bere hym an hond / the Cow is wood
 And take witness / of hir owene mayde
 Of hire assent / but herkeneth how I sayde
 ¶ Sire olde kaynard / is this thyn array
 Why is / my Neighebores wyf so gay
 She is honouerd / ouer al ther she gooth
 I sitte at hoem / I haue no thyrffy clooth
 What dostow / at my neighebores hous
 Is she so fair / atow so amorous

Me nedede not do lengere diligence
 To wyne hire loue & don hir reuerence
 They louede me so wel by god a-boue
 That I ne told no deynthe of here loue As wys woman wete sette hire euere in on To gete hire loue þere as sche hath non But aȝhe I haue hem holy in myn hond
 And aȝhe þey han me geyn al here lond
 What schulde I take hod hem for to plesse
 But ȝif it were for myn profyt & myn esse
 I sette hem so a-werke be myn fey
 That manye a nyȝt þey sunge weyleaway
 The bakon was nat fet for hem I trowe
 That some men han in exces at dunmowe
 I gouernede hem so wel aȝter my lawe
 That ooh of hem was blysful & ful fawe
 To brynge me gay þyng from þe foyre
 They were ful glad when I spak tyl hem fayre for god it wrot I schid hem spitoously Now herkenyth how I bar me proprely so wise wyues þat kenne vnder-stande Thus schal þe speke & bere hem wrong on honde for half so boldely can þere no man Swere & lye as can a woman
 I seye it nat be wyues þat been wyse
 But ȝif it be when þey hym mysseyse
 A wis wif ȝif þat sche can hire good Schal bere hym on hande þe cou is wod
 And take witness of hire owene mayde
 Of hire assent but herkenyth how I seyde
 Sire olde caynard is þis þyn aray
 Whi is myn neyhebores wif so gay
 Sche is honourede euere al þere sche goth
 I sitte at hoem & haue no thyrffy clooth
 What dost þou at myn neyhebouris hous
 Is sche so fayr & þow so amorous me nedede nougt / do lenger diligence to wyne here love / and do hem renourence they loued me so wel / bi god above that I ne tolde no deynte / of here love a wise woman wol besy hir / euere in oon to gete hir love / ye there as she hadli noon but sith I hadde hem / holly in myn honde and that thei hadde / yeve me al here londe what schulde I take kepe hem for to please but if it were my profyto / and myn case I sette hem so a werke / bi my fay that many a night / thei songen welaway

the Bacon was not fetre for hem I trowe
That some men haue in Essex at Dunmowe
I gouerned hem so wel after my lawe
That sche of hem ful blisful was and fawe /
To bringe me gay pinges fro þe feyre
They were ful glad when I spak to hem fure for god it woot I chidee hem spytously Now herkenþ how I bar me proprely ye wyse wyues þat can vnderstande Thus schulde ye speke and bere hem wrong on honde for half so boldly þer can no man
Swere and lye as a woman can
I saye not þis by wyues þat' hem wise /
But it' be when þat þey hem mysauyise /
A wise wif schal it' þat' sche can hire good Bere him on honde þat' þe kow is wood
And take witness of hire owne mayde
Of hire assent' but herkeþ how I sayde /
Sire olde keynard is þis pin aray
Why is my neyhebores wif so gay
Sche is honoured ouer al wher sche goþ
I sitte at home I haue no prifty cloþ
What dostow at my neighbours hous
Is sche so fair art' þou so amerous

Me neded not do lenger diligence
To wyne her loue and do hem renourence þei loued me so wel by god above þat I ne tolde no deynte of her loue
A wise woman wil bysyr here euere in of
To gete her loue so þer as she haþ neft
But sipe I had hem holy in myn honde
And sip þat þei hadde þoue me at her londe what' schuld I take kepe hem forto pleso
But þif it were my profite & myn case
But sette hem so a werke by my faye þat mony a nytt þei songen welaway
The bacon was not fetre for hem I trowe þat somme men haue in Essex at dunmowe
I gouerned hem so wel after my lawe
þat sche of hem ful blisful was and fawe To bringe me gay pinges fro þe feire knyves and rynges & purses wel faire
for god it woot I chidee hem spytously
Now herkenþ how I berþame proprely þe wise wyues þat can vnderstande þus schuld ye speke and bere hem wrong on honde
for half so boldly þer can no man
Swere and lye as a woman can
I say not þis by wyues þat' bene wise
But it' be when þat þei hem mysauyise
A wise wif schal if þat' she can her goode Bere him an honde þat' þe kowe is wode
And take witness of hire owne mayde
Of here assent' but herkenþ how I seide ¶ Sire olde keynard is þis pin aray whi is my neighbours wif so gay
She is honoured ouer al wher she goþe
I sitte at home I haue no prifty cloþe what' dostowe at my neighbours hous
Is she so faire art' þou so amerous

Me neded nougt do longer diligence
To wyne her loue and done hem renourence Thei loued me so wel be god above þat .I. ne tolde no deynte of here loue
A wise woman wil bisie hire ouer in one
To gete hire loue so þare as sche haþe none
Bot seþþe .I. hadde hem holy in myne honde
And sipþe þat þei hadde þif me al hir londe
What schold .I. take hem for to pleso
Bot if it were my profit and myne ese Bot .I. set hem so auerke by my faye þat mony a nytt þei songen walawaye
The bacon was nougt fetre for hem .I. trowe
That sum men haue in Essex at Dommowoe
I gouerne hem so wale after my lawe
That sche of hem ful blisful was and fawe
To bringe me gay pinges fro þe fayre Knyves rings and purses wel fayre
For god it wote .I. chidee hem spytously Nowe herkenþe howe .I. bare me propu[r]ly
þe wise wyues þat can vnderstande
Thus scholde so speke and bere hem wronge on honde
For haloe so boldly þer can no man
Swere and lye as a woman can
I seio nougt þis be wifes þat' bute wise
Bot it' be when þat þei hem mis-ouise
A wise wif schal if þat' sche can hire gode Bere him on honde þat' þe cove is wode
And take wittones of hire owen maide
Of hir assent' Bot herkenþe how .I. saide Sire olde keynard þis is pin arnie
Whi is my neighbors wif so gaie
She is honoured ouer al wher sche goþe
.I. sette att home .I. haue no prifty cloþe
What dedest þou att myn neighbors house
Is sche so feire art' þou so amerouse

What rowne ye with our mayde benedicite
 Sire olde lechour / lat thy lapes be
 And if I haue / a gossib or a frend
 With-outen gilt thou chidest as a fend
 If that I walke / or playe vn-to his hous
 Thou comest hoom / as dronken as a Mous
 And prechest on thy bench / with yuel preet
 Thou seist to me / it is a greet meschief
 To wedde a poure woman for costage
 And if she be riche / and of heigh parage Thanne seistow / it is a tormentrie
 To soffren hire pride / and hire malencolie
 And if that she be fair / thou verray knaue
 Thou seyst that every holour wol hire haue
 She may no while / in chastitee abyde
 That is assailed / vp-on ech a syde
 ¶ Thou seyst that som folk / desiren vs / for richesse Somme for oure shape / somme for oure fairnesse
 And some / for she kan syngs and danche
 And som for gentillesse / and som for daliaunce Som for hir handes / and hir armes smale
 Thus goth al to the deuyl / by thy tale
 Thou seyst men may nat kepe a Castel wal
 It may so longe / assailed been ouer al
 ¶ And if that she be foul / thou seist that she Coueiteth every man / that she may se
 for as a Spaynel / she wol on hym lepe
 Til pat she fynde / som man hire to chepe
 Ne noon so grey goos / goth ther in the lake
 As seistow / wol been with-oute make
 And seyst it is an hard thyng / for to welde
 A thyng / pat no man wele his thankes holde
 Thus seistow lorel / when thou goost to bedde
 And pat no wys man / nedeth for to wedde
 Ne no man / that entendeth vn-to heuene
 With wilde thonder dynst and fry leuene

What rowne ye with our mayde / benedicite
 Sire olde lechour / lat thy lapes be
 And if I haue / a gossib / or A frend
 With-outen gilt ye chiden as a fend
 If that I walke / or playe vn-to his hous
 Thou comest hoom / as dronken as a mous
 And prechest on thy bench / with yuel preef
 Thou seyst to me / it is a greet mescheef
 To wedde a poure woman / for costage
 And if that she be ryche / of heigh parage Thanne seistow / that it is a tormentrye
 To suffre / hir pryde / and hir malencolye
 And if pat she be fair / thou verray knaue
 Thou seist that every holour wol hire haue
 She may no while / in chastitee abyde
 That is assailed / vp-on ech a syde
 ¶ Thou seyst som folk / desiren vs / for richesse Somme for oure shape / and somme for oure fairnesse
 And some / for she kan outhir syngs / or danche
 And somme / for gentillesse / and daliaunce Somme for hir handes / and hir armes smale
 Thus goth al to the deuyl / by thy tale
 Thou seyst men may nat kepe a Castel wal
 It may so longe / assailed been ouer al
 And if that she be foul / thou seyst pat she Coueiteth every man / that she may se,
 for as a Spaynel / she wol on hym lepe
 Til that she fynde / som man hir to chepe
 Ne noon so grey goos / goth ther in the lake
 As seistow / wol be with-oute make
 And seyst it is an hard thyng / for to welde
 A thyng / that no man wol his thankes holde
 Thus seistow lorel / when thou goost to bedde
 And that no wys man / nedeth for to wedde
 Ne no man / that entendeth vn-to heuene
 With wilde thonder dynst and fry leuene

What rowne ye with our maydons benedicite Sire olde lechour lat þoure iapis be
 And gif I haue a gossib or a frend
 With-outyn gilt þou chidist as a fend If þat I walke or playe vn-tyl hisse hous þou comyst hom as dronkyn as a mous
 And prechist on þyn-bench with euels pref þou seyst to me it is a gret myschef
 To wedde a poure woman for costage
 And gif sche be ryche & of heigh parage þanne seyst þou-it is a turmenterye
 To suffere hire pryde & malencolye And gif þat sche be fayr þou veray knaue þou seyst þat every holour wele hire haue Sche may no while in chastite on byde
 That is a-sayled on eche a-syde ¶ þou seyst þat some folk desyryn vs for rychesse Summe for outre schap some for oure fayrenesse
 And some for sche cau syngs & danche
 And some for gentillesse & some for daliaunce Somme for hire handis & for hire armys smale
 Thus goth al to þe deuyl by þyn tale
 Thou seyst men may nat kepe a castel wal
 It may so longe assaylede ben ouerall
 And gif þat sche be foul þou seyst þat sche Coueytith every man þat sche may se for as a spaynel sche wil on hym lepe Til þat sche fynde sum man hire tuchepe
 Ne non so grey gos þat goth in þe lake
 As þou seyst wele be with-oute a make
 And seyst it is an hard þyng for to-welde,
 A thyng þat no man wele hisse thankis holde
 Thou seyst horel when þou gost to bedde
 How þat no wys man nedith for to wedde
 Ne no man þat bendith on-to heuene
 With wyld thundyrt dynst an fery leuene

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. SEX-TEXT 341
 Corpus MS.

What roune 3e wijf oure mayde benedicite Sire olde lechoure lat þy lapes be /
 And if I haue a gossibb or a freende
 Wijfoute gilte 3e chide as a fende 244 If þat I walke or pleye vnto his hous
 þou comest home as drunken as a mous
 And prechest on þi benche wijf euel proof þou seist to me it is a gret meschief
 248 To wedde a pouer woman for costage
 And if þat sche be riche of gret parage þanne seistow þat it is a tormentrie /
 To suffre hire pryde and hire malencolie / 252 And if þat sche be fair þou verray knawe Thow seist þat euery holoure wol hir haue / [Dist. 107, back] Sche may no while in chaastite abyde
 That is assayed vpon eche syde
 256 Thow seist some folk desire vs for richesse
 Thow seist some folk desire vs for richesse
 Some for our schapp and some for our fayrnesse
 And some for sche can eijer singe or daunce 260 þus seistow wernard god 3ou þe meschance
 Somme for here hondes and here armes smale Thus goþ al to þe deuel by þy tale / þou seist men may not kepe a castel walle 264 It may so longe assailed ben ouer alle /
 And if þat sche be foule þou seist þat sche Coueteth euery man þat sche may see for as a spanyel sche wil on him lepe 268 Til þat sche fynde som man þat wil hir chepe Ne noon so grey goos goþ þer in þe lake
 As seist þou þat wil be wijf-ouren make
 And seist it is an hard þinge for to weelde
 272 A wight þat noman wille his þonkes helde
 Thus seistow lorel whan þou goost to bedde
 And þat no wise man nedef for to weelde
 And noman þat entendep to þe heuene
 276 Wijf yilde þunder dent and fyre leuene /
 CORPUS (8-T. 341)

SEX-TEXT 341
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Fetworth MS.

what roune 3e wijf our mayde benedicite Sire olde lechoure lat þi lapes be
 And if I haue a gossipe or a frende
 244 * wijf-oute gilte 3e chide as a fende
 If þat I walk or play vnto his hous
 þou comest home as drunken as a mous
 An prechest on þi benche wijf euel proof þou seist to me it is a grete meschief 248 To wedde a poor woman for costage
 And if þat she be riche of grete parage þan seist þou þat it is a turmentrie 252 To suffre her pryde and her malencolie.
 And if þat she be faire þowe verrey knawe 256 þowe seist þat euery holoure wol hire haue She may no while in chaastite abide
 That is assaid vpon eche side 260 Thowe seist somme folk desire vs for richesse Somme for our shap and some for our fayrnesse
 And somme for she can eijer singe or daunce 260 Thus seistowe wernard god 3ou þe meschance Somme for here hondes and her armes smale
 Thus goþ al to þe deuel by þi tale Thow seyst men may not kepe a castel walle
 264 It may so longe assailed be ouerall
 And if þat she be foule þou seist þat she Coueteth euery man þat she may see for as a spanyel she wil on hys lepe 268 Til þat she fynde somme man þat wil hire chepe Ne none so grey goos goþer in the lake
 As seist þou þat wil be wijf-ouren make
 And seist it is an hard þinge forto weelde
 272 A wight þat no man wil his þonkes helde
 Thus seist þou lorel whan þou goost to bedde
 And þat no wise man nedef forto weelde
 And no man þat entendep to þe heuene
 276 wijf wilde þonder drent and fyre leuene 4 T FETWORTH (8-T. 341)

SEX-TEXT 341
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

What roune 3e wijf oure maide benedicite
 Sire olde lichour lat þi lapes bus
 And if .I. haue a gossib or a frende
 244 Wijf-oute gilte 3e chide as a fende
 If þat .I. walk or pleie in-to his house
 Thow comest home as drunken as a mouse
 An prechest on þi bynche wijf yuel proue 248 Tho seid to me it is a grete Meschief
 To wedde a pouer woman for costage
 And if þat sche be riche of grete parage þan seist þat it is a tormentrie 252 To suffir hire pryde and malencolie
 And if þat sche be faire þou verre knawe 256 Thow seiste þat euery hullur wil hir haue Sche maie no while in chaastite abide
 That is assaide vpon eche side 260 Thowe seiste som folke desire us for our richesse Som for our schappe and some for oure fayrnesse
 And sum for sche kan eyþer singe oþer daunce 260 þus seyse þou wernard god 3ou þe meschance Somme for her hondes and her armes smale [Dist. 70, back] þus goþe al to þe deuel be þi tale þou seist men maie nougt kepe a castel wail
 264 It may so longe assailed be ouer all
 And .if. þat sche be foule þou seist þat sche coueteth euery man þat sche maie see
 For as a spanyel sche wil on him lepe
 268 Til þat sche fynde sum man þat wil hir chepe Ne none so gret goos goþe þere in þe lake
 As seiste þou þat wil bue wijf-ouren make
 And seist it is an hard þinge for to weelde
 272 A wight þat no man wil his þonkes helde
 Thus seiste þou lorel whan þou goost to bedde
 And þat no wise man nedef for to weelde
 And no man þat entendep to þe heuene
 276 Wijf wilde þonder dint and fyre leuene
 LANSDOWNE (8-T. 341)

Moote / thy welked nekke be to-broke ¶ Thou seyst that droppynge houses / and eek smoke
 And chidyng wyues / maken men to flec
 Out of hir owene houses / a benedicitee 280
 What eyleth / swich an old man for to chide
 ¶ Thou seyst þat we wyues / wol oure vices hilde
 Til we be fast and thanne we wol hem shewe
 Wel may that be / a prouerbe of a shrewe 284
 ¶ Thou seist þat Oxen / Asses / hors / and houndes
 They been assayd / at diuerser stoundes
 Bacyns / laucours / er that men hem bye
 Spoones and stooles / and al swich housbondrye 288
 And so been / pottes clothes / and array
 But folk of wyues / maken noon assay
 Til they be wedded / olde dotard shrewe
 Thanne seistow / we wol oure vices shewe 292
 ¶ Thou seist also / that it displesthe me
 But if that thou / wolt pryse my beautee
 And but thou poure alwey / vp-on my face
 And clepe me faire dame in euery place 296
 And but thou make a feste / on thilke day
 That I was born / and make me fresch and gay
 And but thou do / to my norice honour
 And to my chambere / with-inne my bour
 And to my fadres folk / and hise allyes
 Thus seistow / olde barel ful of lyes
 ¶ And yet of oure Apprentice / Iankyn 300 for his cripe heer / abyngne as gold so fyn
 And for he squyereth me / bothe vp and down
 Yet hastow caught a fals suspicioun
 I wol hym night / thogh thou were deed to morwe ¶ But tel me / why hidestow with sorwe 304
 The keyes of my chestre / away fro me
 It is my good / as wel as thyn pardee
 What venestow / to make an ydiot of oure dame
 Now by that lord / that called is seint Iame 312

Moote thy welked nekke / be to-broke (read 61, back)
 Thou seyst that droppynge houses / and eek smoke
 And chidyng wyues / maken men to flec
 Out of hir owene houses / a benedicitee 280
 What eyleth / swich an old man for to chide
 Thou seyst we wyues / wil oure vices hyde
 Til we be fast / and thanne we wol hem shewe
 Wel may that be / a prouerbe of a shrewe 284
 Thou seist þat Oxen / Asses / hors / and houndes
 They been assayd / at dyuerser stoundes
 Bacyns / laucours / er that men hem bye
 Spoones / stooles / and al swich housbondrye 288
 And so be pottes / clothes / and array
 But folk of wyues / maken noon assay
 Til they be wedded / olde dotard shrewe
 And thanne seistow / we wil oure vices shewe 292
 Thou seist also / that it displesthe me
 But if that thou / wolt preise my beautee
 And but thou poure / alwey vp-on my face
 And clepe me faire dame / in gery place 296
 And but thou make a feste / on thilke day
 That I was born / and make me fresch and gay .
 And but thou do / to my norice honour
 And to my chambere / with-inne my bour
 300
 And to my fadres folk / and his allyes
 Thus seistow / olde barel ful of lyes
 And yet of oure Apprentice / Iankyn for his cripe heer / abyngne<sup>1</sup> as gold so fyn 304
 And for he squyereth me / bothe vp and down
 Yet hastow caught fals suspicioun
 I wil hym nat thogh thou were deed to morwe
 ¶ But tel me this / why hidestow with sorwe 308
 The keyes of thy Chestre / away fro me
 It is my good / as wel as thyn pardee
 What venestow / make an ydiote of oure dame
 Now by that lord / that called is seint Iame 312

Mote þyn wekede neke be to-broke þou seyst þat droppynge houses & ek smoke
 And chydynge wyf makyth man to fle
 Out of here owene hous a benedicite 280
 What eylyth swich an old man to chide þou seyst þat we wyuis wele oure vices hyde Til we ben fast & þanne we wole hem schewe Wel may þat þen a prouerbe of a schrewe 284 þou seyst þat oxryn Assis hors & houndrys þey ben a-sayed at dyuerser stounlys Basenys lanourys er þan men hem-beye sponys & stolis & alle swich husbondrye 288
 And also clopis pottys & a-ray
 But folk of wyuys makyn non a-say Til þey hen weddit olde dotard schrewe Thanne seyst þou wele oure vicia schowe 292
 Thou seyst also þat it displeseþ me
 But þit þat þou wilt pryse myn beute
 And but þou poure wylt pryse myn face
 And clepe me fayre dame in euery place 296
 And but þou make a feste on þat day þat I was born & make me frosch & gay
 And but þou do to myn norice honour
 And to myn chambere with-inne myn bour 300
 And to mynne faders folkys & mynne alyes
 Thus seyst þou olde barel ful of lysis
 And þit of oure apprentys Iankyn for his scrip here schyngne as gold fyn 304
 And for he squyereth me vp & doun þit hast þou caught fals suspicioun (read 115)
 I ny! hym not þow [þou] were ded to morwe 308
 But telle me why hidistow with sorwe
 The keyes of myn chestre al day from me
 It is myn good as wel as þyn parde
 What venestow þou mak an ydiot of oure dame
 Now by þat lord þat callede is seynt Iame 312

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. CORPUS MS.

Mote þy wicked necke be to-broke þou seist þat droppynge houses and ceek smoke
 And chydynge wyues maken men to fle
 Out of here owne houses a benedicite 260
 What eyleþ swich an olde man for to chide
 Thou seist we wyues will oure vices hyde
 Til we be faste and panne we wille hem schewe
 Wel may þis be a prouerbe of a schrewe 284
 Thou seist þat Oxen assen hors and houndes
 They ben assayed at diuerse stoundes
 Bacyns laucours or þat men hem lye
 Spounes stooles and swich husbandrye 288
 And so ben cloþes pottes and oþer arrayes
 But of womanen aren makod non assayes [leaf 108, rect]
 Til þei ben wedded olde dotard schrewe
 And seist how panne we wil oure vices schewe 292
 Thou seist also þat it displeas me
 But if þou wille preysse my beaute
 And bot þou poure alwey vpon my face
 And clepe me faire dame in euery place 296
 And but þou make a feste on þat ilke day
 That I was born and make me freische and gay
 And but þou do to my norys honour
 And to my chambere wifinne my bour 300
 And to my fadres folk and his allyes
 Thus seist þou olde barrel ful of lyes
 And þit of oure apprentys Iankyng for his crise heer schyngynge so gold fyn 304
 And for he swyeres me boþe vp and down yet hastow þought and fals suspesion
 I wil him nouht þough þou were dede to-morowe
 But telle me þis why hystest þou with sorwe 308
 Thy keyes of þi chestes away fro me /
 It is my good as wel as þin parde
 What wenesþow make an ydyot of oure dame /
 Now by þat lord þat called is seint Jame 312
 CORPUS (G.T. 342)

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. PETWORTH MS.

Mote þi welked necke be to-broke þou seist þat droppynge houses and eke smoke
 And chidynge wyues maken men to fle
 Out of hir owne housse. A benedicite 280
 What eyleþ such an old man forto chide
 þou seist we wyues wil oure vices hide
 Til we be fast and þan we wil hem schewe
 Wele may þis be a prouerbe of a schrewe 284 þou seist þat Oxen. assen. hors. and houndes þei ben assaide at dyuours stoundes
 Bacyns laucours or þat men hem lye
 Spounes. stooles. and such husbandrye 288
 And so bene pottes cloþes and oþer arais
 But of womanen are makod none assaies [leaf 128, back] Til þei ben wedded old dotard schrewe
 And seist how þan we wil our vices shewe 292
 Thow seist also þat it displeasþ me
 But if þou wilt preise my beaute
 And bot þou poure alwey vpon my face
 And clepe me faire dame in euery place 296
 And but þou make a feste on þat ilke day þat I was born and make freische and gay
 And but þou do to myn norys honour
 And to my chambere wifinne my bour 300
 And to my faders folke and his allyes
 Thus seist þou olde barrel ful of lyes
 And þit of oure apprentise Iankyng for his crise here schyngynge so gold fyn 304
 And for he swyeres me boþe vp and down
 þit hast þou þougt a fals suspesion
 I wil hym not þei þou were dede to-morowe
 But telle me þis whi hilstest þou wip sorwe 308 þi keyes of þi chest away fro me
 It is my good as wel as þine parde what wenesþ þou make an ydyote of oure dame
 Now by þat lord þat called is seint Jame 312
 PETWORTH (G.T. 342)

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. LANSDOWNE MS.

Mot þi welked necke be to-broke Thow seist þat droppynge houses and eke smoke
 And chidynge wyues maken men to fle
 Owte of hir owen housse a benedicite 280
 What eyleþe such an holde man for to chide
 þou seist we wyues wil oure vices hide
 Til we be fast and þan we wil hem schewe
 Wele may þis be a prouerbe of a schrewe 284
 Thou seist þat oxen assen hors and houndes
 þei buen assaide att diners stoundes
 Bacyns laucours or þat men hem lye
 Spounes stoles and suche husbandrye 288
 And so buen cloþes pottes and oþere arais
 Dot aren of womanen makod none assaies
 Til þei be wedded olde dotard schrewe
 And seystow we wil þan oure vices schewe 292
 Thou seiste also þat it displeasþ me
 Bot if þou wilt preis my beaute
 And bot þou poure alwey vpon my face
 And clepe me faire dame in euery place 296
 Bot þou make a feste on þilke daie þat I. was borne and make me frische and gais
 And bot þou do to my Norise honour
 And to my chambere wif-inne my bour 300
 An to my faders folke and his allyes
 Thus seist þou olde barrel full of lyes
 And þit of oure prentise Iankyng [leaf 91]
 For his crise here schyngynge so gold fine 304
 And for he swyeres me boþe vp and down
 .I. wil him nouht þouhe þowe were dede to-morow
 Bot tel me þis whi hides þou wip sorwe 308
 The keyes of þi kist awaic fro me
 .It. is my good as vele as þine parde
 What wenes þou make an Ideot of oure dame Nowe be þat lord þat calle is saint Jame 312
 LANSDOWNE (G.T. 342)

Thou shalt nat bothe / thogh thou were wood
 Be maister / of my body / and of my good That'oon thou shalt forgo / maugree thyne eyen
 What nedeth thee / of me / to enquire or spyen
 I trowe / thou woldest' loke me in thy chiste
 Thou sholdst seye / wyf go wher thee liste Taak youre disport' I wol leue no talys

I knowe yow / for a trewe wyf dame Alys
 We loue no man / that taketh kepe / or charge

¶ Of alle men / blessed moot he be The wise Astrologien / Daun Protholome

That seith this prouerbe / in his Almageste
 Of alle men / his wysdom is the hyste

¶ ¶ In fine omnia alior est illi / qui non curat in curis uicis at in uicibus

That rekkeht neuere / who hath the world in honde
 By this prouerbe / thou shalt vnderstonde Hauē thou ynogh / what thar thee recche or care

How myrily / that other folkes fare for certeyn / olde dotard / by youre leue

¶ Ye shal haue queynte / right ynogh at eue
 He is to greet a rygard / that wolde werne

A man / to lighte his candle at his lantern
 He shal haue / neuer the lasse light pardee

¶ Hauē thou ynogh / thee thar nat pleyne thee ¶ Thou seyst also / þat if we make vs gay

With clothyng and with precious array
 That it is perill of oure chastitee

¶ And yett with sorwe / thou most enforce thee
 And seye thisse wordes / in the Apostles name

¶ In habit maad / with chastitee and shame Ye women / shul apparille yow quod he

¶ And nocht in tressed heer / and gay parree
 As perles / ne with gold / no clothes riche

¶ After thy text ne after thy Rubriche
 I wol nat wirche / sa muchal as a gnat

¶ Thou seydest this / that I was lyk' a Cat

Thow shalt nocht bothe / thogh þat thow were wood
 Be maister / of my body / and my good

¶ That oon thow shalt forgo / mangree thyne eyen ¶ What helpeþ it of me to enquire and spyen

¶ I trowe / thow woldest' lok me in thy chiste ¶ Thow sholdest seye / wyf / go wher thee liste

¶ Taak youre disport' I nyl leue no talis
 ¶ I knowe yow / for a trewe wyf / Dame Alis

¶ We loue no man / that taketh kepe / or charge
 ¶ Wher þat we goon / we wol been at oure large

¶ Of alle men / yblessed moot he be ¶ The wise Astrologen / Daun Protholome

¶ That seith this prouerbe / in his Almageste
 ¶ Of alle men / his wisdom is the hyste

¶ That rekkeht nat' who hath the world in hond
 ¶ By this prouerbe / thow shalt vnderstonde

¶ Hauē thow ynogh / what thar thee rekke / or care
 ¶ How myrily / that other folkes fare

¶ for certes / olde dotard / by youre leue
 ¶ Ye shal han queynte / right ynogh at eue

¶ He is to greet a nygard / that wil werne
 ¶ A man to lighte a candle / at his lantern

¶ He shal han / neuer the lasse light pardee ¶ Hauē thow ynogh / thee thar nat pleyne thee

¶ ¶ Thow seist also / that if we make vs gay
 ¶ With clothyng and with precious array

¶ That it is perill / of oure chastitee
 ¶ And yett with sorwe / thow most enforce thee

¶ And seye thisse wordes / in thapostles name
 ¶ In habit maad with chastitee and shame

¶ Ye women / shal apparille yow quod he ¶ And nat in tressed heer / and gay parree

¶ As perlys / ne with gold / no clothes ryche ¶ After thy text ne after thy rubryche

¶ I wol nat werke / sa muche / as is a gnat ¶ Thow seydest this / þat I was lyk' a Cat

Thow schat no hope þow þow were wood
 Be maystyr of myn body & ek of myn good

¶ That on þou schat for-gon mangery þyn Iyen ¶ What-helpeþ it of me to enquire or spyen

¶ I trowe þou woldist louke me in þyn cheste
 ¶ Thow schuldist sey wyf go where þe leste

¶ Take youre dispart I nyl leue no talys
 ¶ I knowe þow for a trewe wif dame alis

¶ We loue no man þat take kep or charge ¶ Where þat we gan we wole ben at oure large

¶ Of alle men blyssede mote he be ¶ The wyse Astrologes daun Protholome

¶ That say þis prouerbe in his almageste
 ¶ Of alle men his wisdom is þe heyeste

¶ That rekkyt neuere ho hath þe world in honde
 ¶ By þis prouerbe þou schat vnderstonde

¶ Hauē þou I-now what thar þe reche or care ¶ How meryly þat oþer folkys fare

¶ for serten olde dotard / by youre leue ¶ þe schal haue queynte ryte I-now at eue

¶ He is a gret nygard þat wolde werne
 ¶ A man to lyte a candle at his lantern

¶ He schal haue neuere þe lesse lyst parde ¶ Hauē þou I-now þe thar not pleyne þe

¶ þou seyst also þat if we make vs gay ¶ With cloþyng & with precious array

¶ That it is peryl of oure chastyte
 ¶ And þit with sorwe þou muste enforþe þe

¶ And seye þese wordis in þe apostyls name ¶ In abile mad with chastite & schame

¶ þe wemen schul aparayle þow quod he ¶ And not in trusede hier & gay parre

¶ As perles ne with gold ne with cloþis ryche ¶ Aftyr þyn tix ne aftyr rubryche

¶ I wol not werke as meche as a gnat ¶ þou seydist þis þat I was lyk' a cat jou schalt' not' hope poughe jou were wood

 Be maister of my body and my good
 That on jou schalt' forgo maugre pin eyzen
 What helpep it' on me enquire and'ppen
 I trowe poughe jou woldest' loko me in pi chiste Jou scholdest' seie wyf' go where þe leste Take youre disporthe I wol not' leue no talis
 I knowe þow for a good wyf' dame Alis
 We loue no man þat' takeþ kepe or charge
 Where þat' we go we wil be at oure large Of alle men blessed mote he be
 The wise astrologien dann ptholome
 That' seip þis prouerbe in his almageste
 Of alle men his wisdam is hyste
 That' rekkeþ not' who hap þe world in hande
 By þis prouerbe þou schalt' wel vnderstande
 Hane þou ynough what þar þe rekkeþ or kare
 How meryly þat' oþer folkes fare
 For certes olde dotard by youre leue
 Ye schulle hane queynite right' ynough at' ene
 He is to grete a nygard þat' wol warne
 A man to light' a candel at' his lantern
 He schal hane neuer þe lesse light' parde Hane þou ynough þe þar not' pleyne þe þou seist' also þat' if' þou make vs gay Wijf' cloþinge or with precious artay
 That' it' is peril of oure chastite
 And' þit' with wordes þou most' enforce me /
 And' seie þise wordes in þe apostels name
 In habyt' made with chastite and' schame þe women schulle apparalle you quod he /
 And' nat' in tressed hoer and' gay þerre
 As perle ne wijf' goide ne cloþes riche
 After þi texte ne after þi rubriche
 I wol not' werke as mochil as a gnat' / þou saydest' als þat' I was like a catt'

CORPUS (6-r. 343)

þou shalt' not' hope þouþe þou were woode
 Be maister of my body and my good þat' on þou shalt' forgoen maugre þine eyen what helpeþ it' of me to quere and' spien I trowe þou þou woldest' lokke me in þi chest' þou schuldest' seie wif' go where þe leas'
 Take þoure disporþ' I wil leue no talis
 I knowe þou for a good wif' dame Alys
 We loue no man þat' takeþ kepe or charge where þat' we go we wil be at our large Of alle men blessed mot' he be þe wise astrologen daun ptholome
 That' seip þis prouerbe in his almagest'
 Of alle men his wisdom is hiest' þat' rekkeþ not' who hap þe world in hond'
 By þis prouerbe þou shalt' wel vnderstond'
 Hane þou ynowe what ther þe rakkeþ or kare
 Howe meryly þat' oþers folk' fare
 For certes olde dotardo be þoure leue þe schul hane queynit' right' ynowe at' ene
 He is to grete a nygard þat' wil warne
 A man to ligh' a candel at' his lantern
 He schal hane neuere þe lesse ligh' parlo Hane þou ynowe þe ther not' pleyne þe Thou seist' also þat' if' þou make vs gay with cloþinge or wijf' precious aray
 That' it' is perille of our chaastite
 And' þit' wijf' wordes þou mote enforce me
 And' say þise wordes in þe apostels name In abite made wijf' chaastite and' shame þe women schuld' apparalle you quod he
 And' not' in tressed here and' gay þerre
 As perle ne wijf' gold' and' cloþes riche
 After þi text' ne after þi rubriche
 I nyl not' worche as mochel as a gnatte
 Thow seidest' als þat' I was like a catt'

PETWORTH (6-r. 343)

Thow schalt' nouht' hope þouhe þat' þou were woode Be maistre of Mi body and my goode þat on þou schalt' for-go maugre þine eyzen
 What helpeþ it on me enquire and spien
 .I. trowe þou þou woldest' loko me in þi chist' þou schold' seie wif' go where as þow liste Take þowre disporthe .I. wil not' leue no talis
 .I. knowe þow for a good wif' Dame Ales
 We loue no man þat' take kepe or charge
 Where þat' we go we will be at oure large Of al men blissod mot' he be
 The wise Astrologen Dan Ptholome
 That' seip þis prouerbe in his Almagest
 Of al men his wisdoms is hiest þat' rekkeþ nouht' who hap þe worlde in honde
 Be þis prouerbe þou schalt' vele vnde-stande Hane þow .I.-nowhe what þare þe rakke or kare
 Howe meryly þat' oþer[r] folke fare
 For certes olde dottard be þoure leue þe schal hane queynite rihit' .ynowhe at' ene
 He is to grete a nygard þat' wil warne
 A man to lyht' a candel at' his lantern
 He schal hane neuere þe lesse ligh' parde Hane þou .I.-nowhe þe þar not' pleine þe
 Thou seiste also þat' if' þou make vs gaie Wijf' Cloþinge or wijf' precious anye þat' it' is peril of oure chaastite
 And' þit' wijf' wordes þou moste enforce me
 And' seie þise wordes in þe Apostels name
 In Abite maad wijf' chaastite and' schame þe venmen schold' apparal' you quod he
 And' nouht' in tressede here and' gay þerre
 As perel ne wijf' gold' ne cloþes riche
 After þi sixte ne after þi rubriche
 .I. wil nouht' werke as muche as a gnatte Thon seide als þat' .I. was like a catt'

LANSDOWNE (6-r. 343)

for who so wolde / senge a Cattes skyn Thanne wolde the Cat' wel dwellen in his In
 And if the Cattes skyn / be alyk and gay
 She wol nat dwelle in house / half a day
 But forth she wole / er any day be dawed
 To aheve hir skyn / and goon a Caterwawed
 This is to seye / if I be gay sire shrowe
 I wol renne out / my borel for to aheve
 ¶ Sire olde fool / what eylith thee to spyen Thogh thou preyre Argus / with hisse hundred eyen
 To be my wardceors / as he kan best/
 In feith / he shal nat kepe me but lest'
 Yet koudc I make his berd / so moot I thee

¶ Thou seydest eek / that ther been thynges thro
 The whiche thynges / troublen al this erthe
 And þat no wight / may endure the ferthe
 O Iesus sire shrowe / These / shorte thy lyf /
 Yet prechestow / and seyst and hateful wyf
 Yrkenede is / for oon of thise myschaunces
 Been ther none othere resemblaunces
 That ye may likne / youre parables to
 But if / a sely wyf / be oon of tho

¶ Thou liknest wommenes loue to helle
 To barneys lond / ther water may nat dwelle
 ¶ Thou liknest it also / to wilde fyr

The moore it brennth / the moore it hath desyr
 To consuemen enery thyng' þat brent wole be Thou seyst / right as wormes shendeth a tre
 Right so a wyf / destroyeth hire housbonde
 This knowe they / that been to wyues bonde

¶ Ordynge / right thus / as ye haue vnderstonde
 Bar I stify / myne olde housbondes on honde
 That thus they seyden / in hir dronkenesse
 And al was fals / but that I took witnesse
 On Iankyn / and on my Nece also
 O lord / the peyne I dide hem / and the wo

for who so wolde senge / a Cattes skyn
 Thanne wolde the Cat' wel dwellen in his In
 And if the Cattes skyn / be alyk' and gay
 She wol nat dwelle in house / half a day
 But forth she wole / er any day be dawed
 To aheve hir skyn / and goon a Caterwawed
 This is to seye / if I be gay sire shrowe
 I wol renne out / my borel for to aheve
 Sire olde fool / what helpeth thee tespyen
 Thogh thou preyre Argus / with his hundred eyen
 To be my wardcorps / as he kan best
 In feith / he shal nat kepe me / but me lest'
 Yet koudc I make his berd / as mote I thee

¶ Thou seydest eek / þat ther ben thynges thre
 The whiche thynges / troublen al this erthe
 And that no wight / may endure the furthe
 O Iesus sire shrowe / These / shorte thy lyf
 Yet prechestow / and seist an hateful wyf
 Yrkenede is / for oon of thise myschaunces
 Been ther / none othere resemblaunces
 That ye may likne / youre parables to
 But if a sely wyf be oon of tho

¶ Thou liknest eek / wommanes loue to helle
 To barneys lond / ther water may nat dwelle
 Thou liknest it also / to wilde fyr
 The moore it brennth / the moore it hath desyr
 To consuemen enery thyng' þat brent wol be Thou seist right as wormes shande a tre

Right so a wyf / destroyeth hir housbonde
 This knowen they / that been to wyues bonde ¶ Lordynge / right thus / as ye haue vnderstonde
 Bar I stify / myne olde housbondes on honde
 That thus they seyden / in hir dronkenesse
 And al was fals / but that I took witnesse
 On Iankyn / and on my Nece also
 O lord / the peyne I dide hem / and the wo for who so wolde senge a cattis skyn Thanne wolde þe cat dwelle in his In And jif þe cattis skyn / be alyk & gay

 Sche wil not dwelle in house half a day
 But forth sche wole er any day be dawyd
 To schewe hire skyn & gon a catirawid
 This is to seye jif I be gay sere schrowe
 I wale reune a-boute myn borel to schewe
 Sire olde fol what eylith þe to asprien
 Thow þou preyre argus with hisse C eyn
 To be myn warde cors as he can best In feith he schal nat kepe me but me lest jif I coude make his berd so mote I the þou seydist ek þat þere ben thyngis thre Theche thyngis trobelyn al þis erþe

And þat no whit may endure þe furþe
 O Iesus sire schrowe These schorte þyn lyf jif prechist þou & seyst þat an hateful wyf
 I-erkenede is for on of þese myschauncis
 Ben þere non oþere þere resemblauncis That ȝe may likene youre parable to But jif a sely wif be on of þe þou likkonyst womans loue to helle To barneys lond þere no watyr may dwelle þou likenyst it also to wildefe

The more it brennth þe more it hath desyr
 To consuensus enery þynk þat brent wole be Thow seyst ryȝt as wermys consume a tre
 Ryȝt so a wif destroyeth hire housbonde
 That knowyn þey þat ben to wyuus bonde
 Lordynys ryȝt þus as ȝe han vnderstonde

Bar I stify myn olde housbonde on honde
 That þus þey seyden in here dronkenes
 And al was fals but þat I tok witnesse On Iankyn & on myn nece also O lord þe peyne I dede hem & þe wo

Dat who so wolde senge a cattles skyn þanne wolde þe catw vel dwellen in his In
 And if þe cattles skyn be skylke and gay
 Sche nel not dwellen in hous half a day
 But forþe sche wille or any day be dawed
 To schewe hire skyn and go a caterwawed þis is to say if I be gay sir schrewe
 I will runne out my borel for to schewe
 Sire olde fool what helpeþ þe to spien
 They þou prey argus with his þousand yhen
 To be my warde corps as he can best
 In feip he schal not kepe me but if me lost yet coupe I make his beard so mote I þes þou seiast eke þat þer ben þinges þree þe whiche þinges troublen al þis erþe
 And þat no wright may endure þe ferþe
 O leue sire schrewe thesu schorte þi lifþ yet precheast þou and seiast an hateful wifþ y-rekned is for oon of þis meschances Ben þere non oþer maner resemblaunce þat þe may likne þoure parables to
 But if a sely wifþ be on of þo
 And liknest wommannes loue to helle
 To baryne lond þer water may not dwelle þou liknest it also to wilde fyre
 The more it burneth þe more it haþ desire To consume eny þing þat brende wolde be Thou seiast þat right as wormes schende a tree
 Right so a wifþ destroyeþ hir husbondes
 This knowen þey þat ben to wyrus bonde lordynges right þus þe han vnderstande
 Be I stilly myn olde husbondes on hande
 þat þus þey seiden in here drunkenesse
 And eke þat he hadde suspencion and Ialousnesse On Iankyn and on my nefþ also
 O lord þe peyne I dede hem and þe wroo

But who so wolde senge a cattie skyn þan wolþ þe catte vel dwellen in his Inn
 And if þe cattles skyn be scylke and gay
 She nyf not dwel in hous half a day
 But forþe she wil or eny day be dawed
 To shewe her skyn and go a caterwawed / þis to seiþ if I be gay sir schrewe
 I wil runne out my borel for to shewe Sir olde foole what helpeþ þe to spien þei þowe prey argus wifþ his Mt. eyen
 To be my warde corps as he can best
 In feip he schal not kepe me but if me lost 3it coupe I make his beerde so mote I þes þou seiast eke þat þer bene þinges þro þe whioþ þingges troublen al þis erþe
 And þat no wifþ ne may endure þe ferþe
 O leue sir schrewe thesu short þi lifþ 3it prechostowe and seiast an hatful wifþ Yreckned is for oon of þise meschances
 Ben þere non oþer maner resemblaunce
 þat þe may likne þoure parables too But gif a cely wif be oon of þoo
 þow. liknest wommannys loue to helle
 To baryn londe þer water may not dwelle Thou liknest it also to wilde fyre þe more it burneþ þe more it haþ desire To consume eny þing þat brent wold be Thou seiast þat right as wormes schende a tre Right so a wifþ distroyeþ her husbondes þis knowe þei þat bene to wyrus bonde ¶ Lordynges right þus as 3e han hunderstanþ
 Be I stilly myn olde husbondes on hande
 þat þus þei seiden in her drunkenesse
 And eke þat þei had suspencion and Ialousnesse On Iankyn and on myn nefþ also O lord þe peyn I did hem and þe wroo /

Bot who so wolde seigne a cattie scynne þat wolde þe cat wole dwelle in his Inne
 And if þe catt skynne be skylke and gaye
 Sche nil nouht dwell in hous halme a daie
 Bot forþe sche wifþ or any daie be dawede
 To shewe hir scynn and go a Caterwawede
 This is to sei. If .I. be gaye sir sch'ewe
 I. wil rinne out My borell for to schewe
 Sire olde foole whatto helpeþ þe to spyren Theiþe þou prey Argus wifþ his hundred eyren
 To be my wardcors as he can best
 In feiþe he schal nouyt kepe me bot if me list 3ite coupe .I. maake his borde so mut .I. þe Thou seiast eke þat þere be þinges þro
 The whiche þinges troublen al þis erþe
 And þat no whitte ne maye endure þe ferþe O leue sir schrewe thesu schort þi lifþ þat precheat þou and seiast an hateful wifþ
 .I. reknyd is for on of þis meschances Bene here none oþer maner resemblaunce þat þe maye likken þoure parables to Bot gif a sely wif be on of þo
 Thou likenest wommannes loue to helle
 To Baryne londe þer water maie not dwelle Thou likenest it also to wilde fyre þe more it berneþ þe more it haþe desire To consume eny þinge þat brent wolde bee þou seiast riht as wormes schendep a tree Riht so a wif distroyeþ hir husbonde
 This knowe þei þat bue to wyrus bonde ¶ Lordynges riht þus as 3e han vnderstande Be .I. stilly myne olde hu[s]bandes on hande
 þat þus þei seiden in her drunkenesse
 And þat he had suspencion and Ielousenes
 On Iankyn and on my nefþ also O lorde þe peine .I. dede hem and þe wroo

[¶ d. letter Ass here written and after the to this word.]Argus hundred O eyren

[¶ Def 134, back.]

[¶ Def 120, A-184.]

Argus hundred middle section.

345 SIX-TEXT

178 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PROEMBLE. Ellesmere MS.

ful gilless / by goddes sweete pyne
 ffor as an hors / I koude byte and whyne
 I koude playne / thogh I were in the gilt Or ellis / often tyme / hadde I been spilt
 Who so comth first to Mille / first grynt
 I playned first / so was oure werre stynt
 They were ful glad / to excusen hem blyue
 Of thyng / of which they neuere agille hir lyue
 ¶ Of wenches / wolde I beren hym on honde
 When that for sylk vnnetthes myghte he stonde Yet tikled it his herte / for that he Wende / þat I hadde of hym so greet chiertee
 I swoor / þat al my walkyng out by nyghte
 Was / for to spyne wenches þat he dighte Vnder that colour / hadde I many a myrthe ffor al swich thyngs was yeuen vs in oure byrthe Decoite / wepyng spyynyngs god hath yene
 To women kyndely / whil that they may lyue
 And thus / of o thyngs I ansaunte me
 Atte ende / I hadde the betere in ech degre
 By sleighte / or force / or by som maner thyng
 As by continual murmur or groochyng
 Namely / abedde / hadden they meschaunce
 Ther wolde I chide / and do hem no plessaunce
 I wolde / no longer in the bed abyde
 If that I felte his Arm ouer my syde
 Til he hadde maad / his rauoon vn-to me
 Thanne wolde I suffre hym / do his nycoete
 And ther-for / euery man / this tale I telle
 Wynne who so may / for al is for to selle
 With empty hand / men may none haukes lare ffor wynnyng wolde I al his lust endure
 And make me / a feyned appetit /
 And yet in bacon / hadde I neuere delit
 That made me / that enere I wolde hem chide ffor thogh the pope / hadde seten hem biside
 ELLESMERE 178 (6-T. 846)

345 SIX-TEXT

140 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PROEMBLE. Hengwrt MS.

ful gilless / by goddes sweete pyne
 ffor as an hors / I koude byte and whyne
 I koude playne / and I was in the gilt
 Or ellis / often tyme / I hadde been spilt
 Who so that first to Mille comth / first grynt
 I playned first / so was oure werre stynt
 They were ful glad / to excusen hem ful blyue
 Of thyngs / of which they neuere agille hir lyue
 ¶ Of wenches / wolde I bern hem on honde
 When that for sylk they myghte vnnethe stonde Yet tikled I his herte / for that he Wende that I hadde had of hym / so greet chiertee
 I swoor / that my walkyng out by nyghte
 Was for to espye / wenches that he dighte Vnder that colour / hadde I many a myrthe ffor al swich wif is yeuen vs in oure birthe
 Decoite / wepyng spyynyngs god hath yene
 To women kyndely / whil that they may lyue
 And thus / of o thyngs I ansaunte me
 Atte ende / I hadde the bet in ech degre
 By sleighte / or force / or by som maner thyng
 As by continual murmur / or groochyng
 Namely abedde / hadden they meschaunce
 Ther wolde I chide / and do hem no plessaunce
 I wolde no longer / in the bed abyde
 If that I felte his arm / ouer my syde
 Til he hadde maad / his rauoon vn-to me
 Thanne wolde I suffre hym / do his nycoete
 And ther-for / euery man / this tale I telle
 Wynne who so may / for al is for to selle
 With empty hond / men may none hauky lare
 ffor wynnyng wolde I al his lust endure
 And make me / a feyned appetit
 And yet in bacon / hadde I neuere delit
 That made me / that enere I wolde hem chide
 For thogh the Pope / hadde seten hem biside
 HENGWRT 140 (6-T. 346)

346 SIX-TEXT

178 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PROEMBLE. Cambridge MS.

ful gilteles by godys sweete pyne ffor as an hors coude bite & whine
 I coude playne & jit was in þe gilt
 Or ellis I hadde ofte tymys þen spilt
 Who so come fyrst to melle fyrst grynt
 I playned fyrst so was oure werre stent
 They were ful glad to excuse hem blyue
 Of thyng þey neuere a-gilt in al here lyue
 ¶ Of wenchis wolde I bers hem on honde
 When þat for sek oneþe myste stonde Jit takelede I his herte for þat he Wende þat I hadde had of hym gret chirte
 I sey þat al myn walkyng out be nyte
 Is for to espian wenchis þat he dycite Vndyr þat colour hadde I manye a murthe ffor al swych wit is ȝouys vs in oure burthe Desert wepynd spyynyngs god hath ȝene
 To wemen kyndely when þat þey may lyue
 And þus of on thyng I a-waunte me
 At þe ende I hadde þe betere in ech degre
 Be sleighte or forse or sum manere thyng
 As by continual murmur & groochyng
 Nameli on bedde hadde þey myschaunce
 There wolde I chide & don hem non plessaunce
 I wolde no lngere in þe bed a-byde
 Jif þat I felte his arm ouyr myn syde
 Til he hadde mad his rauoon on to me
 Thanne wolde I suffere hym to don his nycoete
 And þerfore euery man hise tale telle
 Wyn ho so may for al is for to selle With emty hond men may none hauky lare ffor wynnyng wolde I al hise lust endure
 And make me a feynede appetit And jit in bacon hadde I neuere delit þat made me enere þat I wolde hym chide ffor þow þe pope hadde sete by þyse syde
 CAMBRIDGE 178 (6-T. 346)

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE.

SIX-TEXT 345
CORPUS MS.

ful gilteles by goddes swete pyne for as an hors I couþe boþe byte and whyne
I couþe playne and I was in þe gilte
Or elles ofte tyme I hadde ben spilitte
Who so þat first to mylle comþ first grynte
I played first so was ours werre stante þey were ful glade to excusen hom ful blyue /
Of þing which þei agilte neuer here lyue
Of wenches wolþ I beren hem on honde
Whan þat for sake þey might vnnep stonde yet tykeled I his herte for þat he Wende I hadde of him so gret chiertee
I swore þat al my walkyng be night Was for to aspye wenches þat he dighte vnder þat colour hadde I many a myrþe for alle such wite is þine vs in oure birþe Desceypte wepyng spyrynyng god haþ þine
To woman kindly whil þat þei may lyue
And þus of o þing I auante me
At þe ende I hadde þe beste in eche degre
By sleighte or force or by som maner þing
As by continual murmur and gruching Namely a bedde hadde þey meschaunce
Ther wolde I chide and do hem no plesaunce
I wolde no longer in þe bedde abyde
If þat I felte his arme ouer my syde
Til he hadde made his ransoun vnto me
Than wolde I suffre him do his nyete
And þerfore euery man þis tale I telle
Wyne who so may al ar for to selle
With empty hande men may non haukes lure for wyrynyng wolde I al his lust endure
And make me a feyned appetyt
And þit in bacon hadde I neuer delit/That maket me þat euer I wolde him chide for þough þe pope hadde este him besyde
CORPUS (G-T. 345)

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

SIX-TEXT 345

ful gilteles by goddis swete pyne for as an hors I couþe boþe bite and whyne
I couþe playn and I was in þe gilt
Or elles often tyme I had be spilt
Who so þat first to mylle cometh first grynt
I played first so was ours werre stant ¶ þei were ful glad to excusen hem ful blyue
Of þinge of which þei agilt neuer her lyue
Of wenches wolþ I beren hem on honde
Whan þat for seke þei mygt vnnep stonde þit tyeled I his hert for þat he wende I had of hym so grote chiertee
I swore þat al my walkyng by nyght Was forto aspie wenches þat he dight vnder þat colour had I mony a myrþe for al such wite is þeun vs in our birþe Desceypte. wepyng. spyrynyng god haþ þeun
To woman kindly whil þat þei lyue
And þus of on þing I auante me
At þe ende I had þe best in eche degre
By sleight or force. or by somme maner þing
As by continual murmur or gruchinge Namely abed had þei meschaunce þer wolþ I chide and do hem no plesaunce
I wolde no longer in þe bedde abyde
þif þat I felte his arme ouer my syde Til he had made his ransoun vnto me
þan wolde I suffre hym doo his nyete
And þerfore euery man þis tale I telle
Wyne who so may al ar for to selle
With empty hand mon may non hauke lure for wyrynyng wolþ I al his lust endure
And make me a feyned appette
And þit in bacon had I neuere delite That maket me þat ouer I wolþ hym chide for þough þe pope had sitte hym besyde
4 U PETWORTH (G-T. 345)

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. LANSDOWNE MS.

SIX-TEXT 345

Ful giltelesse be goddes swete pine
For as an hors .I. couþe boþe bite and whyne
.I. couþe playne . and .I. was in þe gilte
Or elles oft time .I. had bus spilitte
Who-so þat first to mill cometh first grindeþ
.I. played first so .I. oure werre stantþ Thei were ful gladdte to excusen hom ful bliue
Of þinge which þei gilt neuer her lyue
Of wenches wolde .I. beren hem on honde Whann þat for seke vnnep þei myht stonde þis tykeled .I. his hert for þat he Wend .I. hadde of him so grote cherte
.I. swore þat al my walkyng be nyht
Was to aspye wenches þat he dight
vnder þat colour had .I. mony a myrþe
For al suche wite is þeun vs in oure birþe Desceite wepyngte spyrynyngte . god haþe þeun
To woman kindly whil þat þei male lene
And þus of o þing .I. auant me
At þe ende .I. had þe beste in yche degre
Be sleight or force or be sum maner þing
As by continual murmur or gruchinge
Namely abede had þei meschaunce
Ther wolde .I. chide and do hem no plesaunce
.I. wolde no longer in þe bedde abyde
If þat .I. felte his arme ouer my side
Til he had made his ransoun vnto me
Than wolde .I. suffre him do his nyete
¶ And þer-for euery man þis tale .I. telle Wyne who so maie al her for to sell Withþe empty hande men may nono haukes lure For wyrynyngte wold .I. al his lust endure
And make me a feyned appette
And þit in bacon had .I. neuere delyte
That maket me þat euer y wolde him chide
For þough þe pope had este him be side
LANSDOWNE (G-T. 345)

Dial. 201

388

392

396

Dial. 185

400

¶ Miller. See. see statist does to Miller

404

408

412

416

420

420

I wolde nat spare hem / at hir owene bord flor by my trouthe / I quitte hem word for word
 As helps me / verray god omnipotent
 Though I right now / sholde make my testament
 I owe hem nat a word / þat it nys quit
 I broghte it so aboute by my wit/
 That they moste yene it vp / as for the beste
 Or elles / hadde we neuere been in rest flor thogh he looked / as a wood leon
 Yet sholde he falle / of his conclusioun
 ¶ Thanne wolde I seye / goode lief taak keepe
 How mekely / looketh Wilkyn oure sleepe
 Com neer my spouse / lat me ba thy cheke
 Ye sholde been / al pacient and meke
 And han / a swete spyced conscience
 Sith ye so preche / of lobes paciencie
 Suffreth alwey / syn ye so wel kan precho
 And but ye do / certeyn we shal yow techo
 That it is fair / to haue a wyf in pees
 Oon of vs two / moste bowen douteles
 And sith a man / is moore resonable
 Than womman is / ye moste been suffrable
 What eyleth yow / to grucehe thus and grone
 Is it for ye wolde haue my queynte allone
 Wy taak it al / lo haue it eury deel
 Peter I shrewe yow / but ye loue it wel flor if I wolde / selle my bele chose
 I koude walke / as fresch as is a rose
 But I wol kepe / it for youre owene tooth
 Ye be to blame / by god / I sey yow sooth
 ¶ Swiche manere wordes hadde we on honde
 Now wol I speken / of my fourthe housbonde
 My fourthe housbonde / was a reulour
 This is to seyn / he hadde a paramour
 And I was yong and ful of ragerye
 Stibourne and strong and ioly as a pye

I wolde night spare hem / at hir owene bord
 flor by my trouthe / I quitte hem / word for word
 As help me / verray god omnipotent
 Togh I right now / sholde make my testament
 I owe hem nat a word / that it nys quy't
 I broghte it so aboute / by my wit
 That they moste yene it vp / as for the beste
 Or ellis / hadde we neuere been in rest
 flor thogh he looked / as a wood leon
 yet sholde he falle / of his conclusioun
 ¶ Thanne wolde I seye / good lief taak keepe
 How mekely / looketh Wilkyn oure scheepe
 Com neer my spouse / lat me ba thy cheke
 Ye sholden be / al pacient and meke
 And han / a swete spyced conscience
 Sith ye so preche / of lobes paciencie
 Suffreth alwey / syn ye so wel kan p'che
 And but ye do / certeyn we shal yow techo
 That it is fair / to han a wyf in pees
 Oon of vs two / moste bowen douteles
 And sith a man / is moore resonable
 Than womman is / ye mosten been suffrable
 What eyleth yow / to grucehe thus and grone
 Is it for ye wolde haue / my queynte allone
 Wy taak it al / lo haue it eury del
 Peter I shrewe yow / but ye loue it wel
 flor if I wolde selle / my bele chose
 I koude walke / as fresh as is a rose
 But I wol kepe it for youre owene tooth
 Ye be to blame / by god I sey yow sooth
 Swiche manere wordes hadde we on honde
 Now wol I speke / of my ferthe housbonde
 My ferthe housbonde / was a reulour
 This is to seyn he hadde a paramour
 And I was yong and ful of ragerye
 Stibourne and strong and ioly as a pye

I nolde hym spare at his owene boord flor by myn trouthe I quitte hym word for word
 As help me veray god onmypotent
 Thow I schulde make now myn testament
 I owe hem nat a word þat it nys quit
 I broughte it so a-boute by myn wit
 That þow moste 3oute it vp as for þe beste
 Or ellis hadde we neuere been in rest flor þow he lokode as a wood lyoun ȝit he schulde fayle of his conclusioun Thanne walde I seye goode loue take kep
 How mekely lokyth wilkyn oure schep Come neer myn spouse lat me ba þyn scheke ȝe schul be al pacient & meke
 And hane a swete spyced conscience
 Sithin ȝe preche so of lobes paciencie
 Suffreth alwey sith ȝe so wel can preche
 And but ȝe don certeyn we schul ȝow techo
 That it is fair to haue a wyf in pes
 On of vs to muste boue douteles
 And seyth a man is moore resonable þan woman is ȝe muste be sufferable
 What eyleth ȝow thus to gruche & grone
 Is it for ȝe wolde han myn queynte allone
 Whi take it al lo haue it eurydel Petyr I schrewe ȝow but ȝe loue it wel flor ȝif I wolde selle myn belechose
 I coude walke as frosh as any rose
 But I welo kepe it for ȝoure owene toth ȝe ben to blame by god I seye ȝow soth Swече manere of wordis hadde we on honde
 Now welo I speke of myn fourthe housbonde Myn fourthe housbonde was a reulour
 This is to seyne he hadde a paramour
 And I was yong & ful of ragerye
 Styborne & strong and ioly as a pye

I wolde nouȝt spare him at his onghne lord for by my troupe I quite him word for word
 As helpe me verrey god omnipotent
 Jough I riȝt now schulde make my testament
 I no owe him a word þat it nys quite
 I brought it so aboute by my witte
 That he muste geue it vp as for þe best / Or elles hadde we neuere ben in resto for jough he loked as a leon 30<sup>r</sup> scholde he faille at his conclusiō Thenne wolde I seye now goodȝ leef take kepe / how mekely lokeþ wilkyn oure scheepe
 Com ner my spouse lat me ba þi cheque 30 schulle be al pacient and meeke
 And han a swete spiced conscience /
 Syn 30 so preche of Lobis pacience
 Suffreþ alwey syn 30 so wel can preche
 And but 30 do certein we schul 3ou teche
 That it is fair to haue a wyf in pees
 On of vs moost bowen douteles
 And sijþe a man is more resonable
 Than woman is sire 30 mooste be suffraible
 What eyloþ 3ou to gruceche þus and grone
 Is it for 30 wolde haue my queynte alone
 Whi take it al / lo haue it eury del
 Petr I schrewe 3ou but 30 loue me wel for if I wolde selle my bele chose
 I coupe walke as fraische as a rose
 But I wil kepe it for 3our owne toþ 30 be to blame by god I seye 3ou soþ Suche maner wordes hadde we on honde
 Now wil I speke of my ferþe husbonde /
 ¶ My ferþe husbond was a reulour
 This is to seye he hadde a paramour
 And I was yonge and ful of Ragerie
 Styborne and stronge and ioly as a pye

I wolde not spare hym at his owne bonȝ for be my troupe I quite him word for word
 As helpe me verrey god omnipotent
 þow I riȝt now schulde make my testament
 I to owe hym a word þat it nys quite
 I brought it so aboute by my witte þat he must geue it vp as for þe best Or elles had we neuere be in resto for jough he loked as a lyof 3it schulde he faille of his conclusiō Than wolde I seie now goode leef take kepe
 Howe mekely lokeþ wilkin our shepe./
 Come nere my spouse lat me ba þi cheke 30 schul be al pacient and meke
 And han a swete spiced conscience
 Sijþ 30 so prech of Lobes pacience
 Suffreþ alwey sijþ 30 so wel can preche
 And but 30 doo certsyn we schul 3ou teche þat it is faire to haue a wif in pees
 On of vs mote bowen douteles And sijþ a man is more resonable þan woman is . sire 30 mooste be suffraible what elioth 3ou to gruceche þus and grone
 Is it for 30 wolde han my queynt alone
 Wy take it alle lo haue it eury deit Peter I schrewe 3ou but 30 loue me weil
 for if I wolde selle my bele chose
 I coupe walk as fresch as any rose
 But I wil kepe it for 3our owne toth 30 be to blame be god I seie 3ou soth
 Such manere wordes had we on honȝ
 Now wil I speke of my ferþe husbonde ¶ Mi ferþe husbonde was a reulour þis is to seie he had a paramour
 And I was yonge and ful of ragerye
 Stiborn and stronge and ioly as a pie

I wold nouȝt spare him att his owne borde
 For be my troupe .I. white him word for wordo
 As halpe me varmi gode omnipotent þouh .I. scholde riht now make my testament
 .I. no haue him a word þat it nes quite
 .I. brouht it so aboute by my witte þat ho must geue it vp as for þe best Or elles had we neuer be in resto
 For þouh he loked as a lyoun 3it scholde he faille of his conclusiōne þan wolde .I. sei goode leaw take kepe Howe Mekely lokeþ wilkin oure schepe
 Com nere my spouse lat me lo þi cheke 30 scholle be al pacient and meke
 And hane a swete spiced consciōce
 Sen 30 so preche of lobis pacience
 Suffreþ al-weio synne 30 so wel can preche
 And bot 30 do certaine we schol 3ouw teche þat it is faire to haue a wif in pes
 One of vs mote bowen douteles
 And sijþe a man is more resonable
 Than woman is sire 3ouw must be more suffraible
 What eyloþ 3ouwe to gruceche þus and grone
 Is it for 30 wolde haue myn queynte alone
 Whi take it al lo haue it eury dele
 Petero .I. schrewe 3ouwe bot 30 loue me wile
 For .if .I. wolde selle my bele chose
 .I. coupe walke as fresch as a rose Bot .I. wil kepe it for 3our owne toþe 30 be to blame be god .I. saie 3ouw soþe
 Suche maner wordes had we on honde
 ¶ Now wil .I. speke of my ferþe husbonde
 My ferþe husbonde was a reulour
 This is to sey he had a paramour
 And .I. was yonge and ful of ragerie
 Stiborne and stronge and ioly as a pye

347 SIX-TEXT
180 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Ellesmere MS.

Wel koude I daunce / to an harpe smale
And syngs ywis / as any nyghtyngale
When I had dronke / a draughte of swete wyn
Metellius / the foule cherl the swyn
That with a staf / biraife his wyf hire lyf for she drank wyn / thogh I hadde been his wyf /
He sholde nat han daunted me fro drynke
And after wyn / on Venus moste I thynke
for al so siker / as cold engendreth hayl
A likerous mouth / moste han a likerous tayl
In woman vinolent / is no defence
This knowen lechours by experience
¶ But lord crist / when that it remembreth me
Vp-on my yowthe / and on my Lolitee
It tiketh me / aboute myn herte roote
Vn-to this day / it dooth myn herte boote
That I haue had my world / as in my tyme
But age allas / that al wole enuemyne
Hath me biraift / my beautes / and my pith
Lat go farwel / the deuel go therwith
The flour is goon / ther is namoure to telle
The bren as I best kan / now moste I selle
But yet to be right myrie / wol I fonde
Now wol I tellen / of my fourthe housbonde
¶ I seye / I hadde in herte gret despit
That he / of any oother had delit
But he was quy<sup>t</sup> by god / and by seint Iocce
I made hym / of the same wode a croce
Nat of my body / in no foul manere
But certein / I made folk swich chere
That in his owene grece / I made hym frye
for Angre / and for verray Ialousye
By god / in erthe I was his purgatorie for which I hope / his soule be in glorie for god it woot he sat ful ofte and song /
When þat his schoo / ful bitterly hym wrong

ELLESMEERE 180 (6-T. 347)

347 SIX-TEXT
142 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Hengwrt MS.

How koude I daunce / to an harpe smale
And syngs ywis / as any nyghtyngale
When I hadde dronke / a draughte of swete wyn
Metellius / the foule cherl the swyn
That with a staf / biraife his wyf hir lyf for she drank wyn / though I hadde been his wyf Ne sholde nat han daunted me fro drynke
And after wyn / on Venus moste I thynke
for also siker / as cold engendreth hayl
A likerous mouth / moste han a likerous tayl
In woman vynolent / is no defence
This knowen lechours / by experience
But lord crist / when þat it remembreth me
Vp-on my yowthe / and on my iolytee
It tiketh me / aboute myn herte roote
Vn-to this day / it dooth myn herte boote
That I haue had my world / as in my tyme
But age allas / that al wole enuemyne
Hath me biraift my beautes / and my pith
Lat go farwal / the deuel go ther-with
The flour is goon / ther is namoure to telle
The bren as I best kan / now moste I selle
But yet to be right myrie / wol I fonde
Now wol I tellen / of my ferthe housbonde
¶ I seye / I hadde in herte gret despit
That he / of any oother had delit
But he was quy<sup>t</sup> by god and by Seint Iocce
I made hym / of the same wode a croce
Nat of my body / in no foul manere
But certeinly / I made folk swich chere
That in his owene grece / I made hym frye
for angre / and for verray Ialousye
By god / in erthe / I was his purgatorie
for which I hope / his soule be in glorie for god it woot he sat ful ofte and song<sup>g</sup>
When þat his schoo / ful bitterly hym wrong

HENGWRT 142 (6-T. 347)

347 SIX-TEXT
180 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Cambridge MS.

Wel coude I daunce to an harpe smale
And syngs I-wis as any nyghtyngale
When I hadde dronke a draught-of swete wyn Metellius þo foule clerk þe swyn
That with a staf be-raife his wif hire lyf for sche drank wyn & I hadde been his wif
He schulde nat a daunted me from drynk
And after wyn on venus moste I thynk for al so sykkr as cold engenderyth hayl
A lycerous mouth muste han a licerous tayl
In woman vinolent is no defence
This knowyn lechourys þe experyence
But lord cryst when that it remembreth me
Vp-on myn thout & on myn iolyte
It tyketh me a-boute myn herte rote Vnto þis day it doth myn herte bote
That I haue had myn world as in myn tyme
But age allas þat al wole vndymrno
Ihath me be-reft myn beute & myn pith
Let go farwel þe deuyll go þerwith
The flour is gon þere is no more to telle
The bren as I best kan now muste I selle
But þit to ben myrie wole I enere fonde
Now wole I telle of myn fourte husbonde
I seye I hadde in herte gret dispit
That he of ony oþer hadde delit
But he was quit by god & be seynt Iocce
I made hym of þe same wode a croce
Nat of myn body in no foul maner
But serwainly I made folk swich cher That in hisse owene grece I made hym frye for pur angre & for Ielouye Bi god in erþe he was in purgatorie
for which I hope his soule be in glorie for god it wot he sat ful ofte & song
When þat his schoo ful bittryly him wrong

CAMBRIDGE 180 (6-T. 847)

¶ Valerie, Ilbro. de capitulo 3<sup>o</sup> § Metellius vinorum nam / eo quod vinum bibimus fines potestatem interest

(6-T. 17)

460

461

460

464

(6-T. 17)

468

472

476

480

484

488

492

460

464

468

472

476

480

484

488

492

468

472

476

480

484

488

492 lord how coupe I daunce to an harpe smale /

And syng ywis as eny nyghtyngale /
Whan I hadde dronke a draughte of swete wyn
Metelinge þe foule cheerle þe swyn
That with a staf byraft<sup>h</sup> his wif hir lyf<sup>h</sup> for sche drank wyn þough I hadde ben his wif Ne schilde he nouht<sup>h</sup> han daunted me fro drynke
And after wyn on venus most I pinke for also sykter as colde engendreþ hayl
A likerous mouþ moeste han a likerous tail
In woman violent<sup>h</sup> is no defence
This knowne leechoures by experience
But lord crist<sup>h</sup> whan þat it<sup>h</sup> remembreþ me /
vpon my souþe and my Iolyte
It tikelēþ me about myn herte rote vnto þis day it doþ myn herte boote þat I haue had my world as in my tyme
But age alas þat al wil enuyneme hap me byraft<sup>h</sup> my beaute and my piþ lat go far wel þe denel go þer-wij
The flour is gon þer is nonoure to telle
The bren as I best<sup>h</sup> can now moot I selle
But þat to be riht mery wil I fonde /
Now forþ to telle of my ferþe houboude
I seþe I hatte in herte gret despyt<sup>h</sup>
That he of eny oþer hadde delyt<sup>h</sup>
But he was quyte by god and by sent Iose
I made him of þe same woode a croce
Not of my body in no foul manere
But certeinly I made folk such cheere
That in his owne grece I made him fry for angery and for verrey Ialousie /
By god in erþe I was his purgatorie
for which I hope his soule be in glorie /
for god it wote he satte ful ofte and songe
Whan þat his scho ful bitterly him wronge

CORPUS (G-T. 347)

lord I coupe daunce to an harpe smale And syng ywis as eny nytyngale
whan I hadde dronke a draughte of swete wyn Metelyns þe foule cheerle þe swyt þat wif a staf byraft<sup>h</sup> his wif hor lif<sup>h</sup> for she dronk wyne þough I had ben his wif Ne shuld he not<sup>h</sup> han daunted me fro drinke
And aftere wyne on venus most I þenke for as siker as colde engendreþ hailo
A likerous mouþ most han a lykerous tale
In woman violent<sup>h</sup> is no defence
þis knowe leechours by experience
But lord crist<sup>h</sup> whan þat it<sup>h</sup> remembreþ me
Vpon my souþe and [on] my Iolite
It tikelēþ me aboute myn herte rote Vnto þis day it doþ myn herte bote
þat I haue had my world as in my tyme
But age alas þat al wil enuyneme
Hap me byraft<sup>h</sup> my beute and my piith Lat it go fare wel þe denel goo þerwith
The flour is gon þer nys no more to telle þe bren as I best<sup>h</sup> can now mote I selle
But þat to be riht mery wil I foonde
Now forþe to telle of my ferþe husboude I seie I had in hert<sup>h</sup> gret despite þat he of eny oþer had delite
But he was quytte by god and by seynt Iose
I made hym of þe same woode a croce
Nat of my body in no foul manere
But certeinly I made folk such chere þat in his owne grece I made hym frye for Anger and for verrey Ialousie
By god in erþe I was his purgatorie
for which I hope his soule be in glorie for god it wote he satte ful oft and songe whan þat his shogh<sup>h</sup> ful bitterly hym wronge

PETWORTH (G-T. 347)

Lords hows coupe .I. daunce to an harpe smale
And singe .I. wis as eny nyhten-gale
Whan .I. hadde dronke a draught of swote wyne Metelinge þe foule cheerle þe swyne
That wif a staf barst<sup>h</sup> his wif here lyf<sup>h</sup>
For sche dranke wyne . I. had buo his wif
No scholde he nouht<sup>h</sup> haue daunted me fro drinke
And after wyne of venus must .I. pinke
For also eaker as colde engendereþ hailo
A likerous mouþe most haue a likerous taile In woman vi[n]olent<sup>h</sup> is no defence þis knowne lichours huo experience
Bot lordes criste whan þat it remembreþ me
Vpon my souþe. and my Iolyte
It tikelēþ me aboute myne herte Rote
Vnto þis daie it doþ myne hert bote
That .I. haue had my world as in my tyme
Bot age alas þat all wil enuyneme
Hape me be-raft<sup>h</sup> my beaute and my piþþe
Lat go fare wels þe denel go þere wiþþe
The flour is gone þere is no more to telle þe bran as .I. best can nowme mot .I. selle Bot þit to be riht merye wolde .I. fonde
Now forþe to tell of my ferþe husboude
.I. sei .I. had in herte grote dispite þat he of any oþer had delite Bot he was qwytteþe god and be seinte Iose
.I. made him of þe same woode a croce
Not of my body in no foule manere Bot certeinly .I. maade folke suche chiere þat in his owne gres .I. maade him frie
For angers and for verreie Ielousye
Be god in erþe .I. was his purgatorie
For whiche .I. hope his soule be in glorie
For god it wote he satte ful ofte and songe
Whan þat his scho ful bitterly him wronge.

LANSDOWNE (G-T. 347)

There was no wight/ saue god and he þat wiste
 In many wise / how soore I hym twiste
 He deyde / when I cam fro Ierusalem
 And lith ygrane / vnder the roode beem
 Al is his tombe / noight so curys
 As was the sepulcre / of hym Daryus

Which that Appelles / wroughte subtilly
 It mys þat wast to burye hym preciously
 Lat hym fare wel / god yeno his soule reste
 He is now / in his grane / and in his cheste

Now / of my fifthe housbonde wol I telle
 God lete his soule / neuere come in helle
 And yet was he to me / the mooste shrowe
 That fele I / on my ribbes al by rewe
 And euere shal / vn-to myn endyng day
 But in oure bed / he was / ful fresh and gay
 And ther-with-al / so wel koude he me glose

When that he wolde han my bele chose
 That thogh / he hadde me bet on euery bon
 He koude wyne / agayn my loue anon
 I trowe I loued hym best for that he
 Was of his loue / daungerous to me

We women han / if that I shal nat lye
 In this matere / a queynte fantasye
 Wayte what thyng / we may nat lightly haue
 Ther after / wol we crye / al day and crawe Forbode vs thyng / and that desiren we

Proesse on vs faste / and thanne wol we fle
 With daunger / oute we al oure chaffare
 Greet pree at Market / maketh deere ware
 And to greet cheepe / is holde at litel pryse
 This knoweth / euery woman that is wys

¶ My fifthe housbonde / god his soule blisse
 Which þat I took for loue / and no rycheesse
 He som tyme / was a clerk of Oxenford
 And hadde left scole / and wente at hom to bord

ELLESMEERE 181 (6-r. 348)

There was no wight/ saue god and he / þat wiste
 In many wise / how soore I hym twiste
 He deyde / when I cam fro Ierusalem
 And lith ygrane / vnder the roode beem
 Al is his tombe / noight so curys
 As was the sepulcre / of hym Daryus

Which that Appellus / wroughte subtilly
 It mys þat wast to burye hym preciously
 Lat hym fare wel / god gyne his soule reste
 He is now / in his grane / and in his cheste

Now / of my fifthe housbonde / wol I telle
 God lat his soule / neuere come in helle
 And yet was he to me / the mooste shrowe
 That fele I / on my rybbes al by rewe
 And euere shal / vn-to myn endyng day
 But in oure bed / he was so fresch and gay
 And ther with al / so wel koude he me glose

When that he wolde / han my bele chose
 That thogh he hadde me bet on euery bon
 He koude wyne agayn / my loue anon
 I trowe I loued hym best for that he
 Was of his loue / daungerous to me

We women han / if that I shal nat lye
 In this matere / a queynte fantasye
 Wayte what thyng / we may nat lightly haue
 Ther after / wol we crye al day / and crawe Forbode vs thyng / and that desiren we

Proesse on vs faste / and thanne wol we fle
 With daunger / oute we / al oure chaffare
 Greet pree at Market / maketh deere ware
 And to greet cheepe / is holden at litel pryse
 This knoweth euery woman / that is wys

¶ My fifthe housbonde / god his soule blisse
 Which þat I took for loue / and no rycheasse
 He som tyme / was a clerk of Oxenford
 And hadde left scole / and wente at hom to bord

HENGWERT 143 (6-r. 348)

There was no wryjt but god & he þat wiste
 In manye wise how sore I hym twyste
 He deyede when I cam from Ieruzalem
 And lith I-graue vndir þe ruden beem
 Al is his tombe not so curyous
 As was þe sepulchre of hym daryus

Whiche þat Appelles wroughte so subtilly
 It is but wast to burye hem so preciously
 Lat hym fare wel god zeus his soule reste
 He is now in his grane & in his cheste
 Now of myn fifte husbonde, wolo I telle

God lete his soule neuere come in hulle
 And zit was he to me þe moeste schrowe
 That fele I on mynne rebis alle be-wrewe
 And euere schal vn-to myn endyng day
 But in oure bed he was so fresch & gay
 And þerwithal wol coude he me glose
 When þat he wolde haue myn belechese

That þow he hadde me betyn on euery bon
 He coude wyne myn loue agayn anon
 I trowe I louede hym beste for þat he Was of his loue dangerous to me
 We women haue þif I schal nat lye

In þis matyre a queynte fantasye
 That what þyng we may nat lystely haue þerafter wolo most crye & crawe Forbode vs thyng þat desyre we

Proesse on vs faste & þanne wolo we fle
 With daunger oute wolo oure chaffare
 Gret pree in market makyth deere ware
 And to god chep is holde of lityl pryse
 This knowyth euery woman þat is wys

¶ Myn fyfte husbonde god his soule blisse Whiche þat I tok for loue & no rycheasse
 He sunnytyme was a clerk of oxenne forde
 And hadde left skole & wente at hom to borde

CAMBRIDGE 181 (6-r. 348)

¶ Appelles / deth mirabile opus in tumbulo Iord / uide in Alizeendro, libro. 6r

¶ Of the fifth husbonde of this wyf / and how she hat hit agayn hym

[See 217, back]

496

496

500

504

508

512

[See 217, back]

516

520

524

528

496

500

504

508

512

[See 64, back]

516

520

524

528

[See 217, back]

496

500

504

508

512

516

520

524

528

SIX-TEXT 348
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. CORPUS MS.

for þer was non sauf god and he þat wiste
In many wise where I him twiste
He deyed when I cam fro Ierusalem
And lþ y-graue vnder þe Roodo beem
496 All nys his tombe not so curious
As was þe sepulchre of him Darius
Which þat appellas wroughten subtilly
If nys þat wastt to burye him preciously 500 Lat him far wel god þine his soule resto
He is now in his graue and in his chesto ¶ Now of my fyfþe housbonde-wil I telle God late neuer his soule come in helle /
504 And þis was he to me þe moost schrewe /
That fele I on my ribbes al by rewe
(leaf 111, for 109)
And euer schal vnto myn endinge day
508 But in a bod he was so freisch and goy
And þer-wij-al so wel coupe he me glose /
When þat he wolde han my bele chose / þat poughe he hadde me bete on euery boon he coupe wyne agayn my loue anon 512 I trowe I loued him þe bet for he Was of his loue dangerous to me
We wymmen han if þat I schal not lye
516 In þis manere a queynte fantasie
Wayte what þinge we may nougt lightly haue Ther-after wole we crye alday and craue flurbede vs þinge and þat desyren we 520 Pres on vs fast and þan wil we fleo /
Wip dangier outen we alle oure chaffare
Gret pres attē Market makeþ dere ware /
And to greþ chep is holde / at lital pris 524 This knoweþ euery woman þat is wys
¶ My fift husbonde god his soule blisse
Which þat I toke for loue and no richesse /
he son tyme was a clerk of Oxenfordo
And hadde left scole and wente at hom to bordē

CORPUS (6-T. 348)

SIX-TEXT 348
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. PETWORTH MS.

for þer nas noon sauf god and he þat wist
In mony wise where I hym twist
He deyed when I come fro Ierusalem
And lþe in a graue vnder þe rode-beem
496 All nys his tombe not so curious
As was þe sepulchre of hym darius which þat appellas wrougt subtilly
If nys þat wastt to burye hym preciously 500 Lat hym fare wel god þene his soule rest
He is nowe in his graue and in his chest
¶ Nowe of my .v. husband wil I telle
God lat neuere his soule come in helle 504 And þis was he to me þe moost shrewe þat fele I on my ribbes al by rewe
And euer schal unto myn endinge daye
508 Bet in oure bed he was so fressch and gaye
And þer wij- al so wel coupe he me glose
when þat he wolde han my bele chose þat poughe he had me bete on euery boñ 512 He coupe wyne ageyn my loue anon
I trowe I loued him þe bette for he
Was of his loue dangerous to me
We women han if þat I shal not lye
516 In þis manere a queynte fantasie wayte what þinge we may not lightly haue Ther-after wil we erie al day and craue
flurbede vs þinge and þat desyren we 520 Pres on vs fast and þan wil we fle with dangier outen we al oure chaffare
Gret pres attē Market makeþ dere ware
And to greþ chep is yholde attē lital pris 524 This knoweþ euery woman þat is wise
¶ My fift husbonde god his soule blisse
which þat I toke for loue and no richesse
he some tyme was a clerk of oxenford 528 And had left scole and went at home to boordē

PETWORTH (6-T. 348)

SIX-TEXT 348
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. LANSLOWNE MS.

For þere was none saue gode and he þat wiste
In mony wise where .I. him twiste
He dyed whan .I. cam fro Ierusalemo
And lþeþ in a graue vnder þe rode beeme 496 All nys is tombe not so curious
As was þe sepulchre of him Darius
Whiche þat Appelles wroukten subtilly
If nys bot wast to beri him preciouslye 500 Lat him fare wale god þene his soule rest
He is nowe in his graue and in his chest
Nowe of my fift husband wil .I. tell God lat neuer his soule come in helle 504 And þete was he to me þe most schrewe þat fele .I. on my ribbes al be rewe
And euer schal vn-to myne enderenge daie 508 Bot in oure bedde he was so fressche and gaye
And þer-wij also wale coupe he me glose When þat he wolde haue my bele chose þat pouhe he hadde me bette on euery bone 512 He coupe wyne a-geyne my loue a-none
.I. trow .I. louede him bette for he
(leaf 65, back)
Was of his loue dangerous to me
We wemmen haue if þat .I. schal nougt lye
516 In þis manere a queynte fantasie
Wayhte what þinke we may nougt lyhtly haue þere-after wil we erie al daie and craue 520 For-bede us þinge and þat desyren we Pres on vs fast and þan wil we fle
Wipe dangier outen we al oure chafre Gret pres attē þe Market makeþ dere ware
And to greþ chep is holde attē lital pris 524 þis knoweþ euery woman þat is wys
My venus husbonde god his soule blisse
Whiche þat .I. toke for loue and for no richesse
He sumtyme was a clerke of Oxenforde 528 And had left scole and went at home to bordē

LANSLOWNE (6-T. 348)

With my gossib / dwellynge in oure toun
 God haue hir soule / hir name was Alison
 She knew myn herte / and eek my pryuetee
 Bet than oure parisshe prest' as moot I thes
 To hire / biwreyed I / my conseil al
 for haddo myn housbonde / pissed on a wal
 Or doon a thyng' þat sholdo han cost his lyf /
 To hire / and to another worthy wyf /
 And to my Nece / which þat I loued weel
 I wolde han toold / his conseil euery deel
 And so I dide / ful often god it woot'
 That made his face / ful often reed and hoot' for verray shame / and blamed hym self for ho'
 Had toold to me / so greet a pryuetee
 ¶ And so bifel / that ones in a lente
 So often tymes / I to my gossyb wente
 for euere yet I loued to be gay And for to walke / in March / Aueryll and May ffor hous to hous / to heere sondry talys
 That Iankyn Clerk' and my gossyb dame Alye
 And I my self / in-to the feeldes wente
 Myn housbonde / was at London al the lente
 I hadde / the bettre leysor for to pleye
 And for to se / and eek for to be seye
 Of lusty folk' what wiste I / wher my grace
 Was shapen for to be / or in what place
 Therfore / I made my visitacions
 To vigilies / and to processions
 To prechyng' eek and to thise pilgrimages
 To pleyes of myracles / and to mariages
 And wored vp on / my gaye scarlet gytes
 These wormes / þe thise Mothtes / ne thise myttes Vpon my peril / frote hem neuer a deel
 And wostow why? for they were vseed weel

Now wol I tellen forth / what happed me
 I seye / that in the feeldes walked we

With my gossyb / dwellyng in oure toun
 God haue hir soule / hir name was Alison
 She knew myn herte / and eek my pryuetee
 Bet than oure parisshe prest' as mote I thes
 To hire biwreyed I / my conseil al
 for haddo myn housbonde / pissed on a wal
 Or doon a thyng' / that sholdo haue cost his lyf
 To hire / and to another worthy wyf
 And to my Nece / which þat I loued weel
 I wolde han toold / his conseil euery del
 And so I dide / ful often / god it woot'
 That made his face / often reed and hoot' for verray shame / and blamed hym self for he Hadde toold to me / so greet a pryuetee
 ¶ And so bifel / that ones in a lente
 So often tymes / I to my gossyb wente
 for euere yet I louede to be gay And for to walke / in March / Auerylle / and May ffor hous to hous / to here sondry tales
 That Iankyn Clerk' and my gossyb dame Alye
 And I my self / in to the feeldes wente
 Myn housbonde was at london / al that lente
 I hadde / the bettre leysor for to pleye
 And for to se / and eek for to be seye
 Of lusty folk' what wiste I wher my grace
 Was shapen for to be / or in what place
 Therfore / I made my visitacions
 To Vigilies / and to processions
 To prechyng' eek / and to thise pilgrimages
 To pleyes of myracles / and to mariages
 And wored vp on / my gaye scarlet gytes
 These wormes / ne thise mothtes / ne thise Myttes Vp-on my peril / frote hem neuer a del
 And wostow / why / for they were vseed weel
 ¶ Now wol I tellen forth / what happed me
 I seye / that in the feeldes walked we

With myn gossib dwellyng in oure toun
 God haue hire soule hire name was alison
 Sche knew myn herte & ek myn pryuite Bet-þas oure paryshe prest so mote I the To hire be-wreyed I myn conseil al for haddo myn husbonde pissido on a wal Or don any thyng þat schulte a cost his lyf
 To hire & to anoþer worthi wyf
 And to myn nece þat I louede weel
 I wolde haue told hise conseil euerydel
 And so I dede ful ofte god it woot'
 That made hise face ofte red & hot for verray schame & blamede hym self þat he Hadde told me so greet a pryuyte
 And so be-fel þat ones in a lente
 So ofte tyme I to myn gossib wente for euere þat I louede to be gay And for to walke in marsch auerylle & may ffrom hous to hous to heryn sundry talis
 That Iankyn clerk' & myn gossib dame Alis
 And I myn self vp to þe feldis wente
 Myn housbonde was at london al þat lente
 And I hadde þe betere leysor for to pleye
 And for to se & ek for to be seye
 Of lusty folk' what wiste I wher myn grace
 Was schape for to be or in what place
 Therfore I made mynne visitacioþunys
 To vigilis & to processioþunys
 To prechyngis ek & to pylgrymagis
 To pleyes of myracles & of marraigis
 And wored vp-on myne scarlet gites
 These wormes these mothis & these mytis
 Vp-on myn peryl frote hem neuer a del
 And wost þou why for they were vseed weel Nowe wole I telle forth what happede me
 I seye þat in the feldys walkede we

SIX-TEXT 340
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Corpus MS.

Wif my gossybb dwellyng' in oure toum
 God haue hire soule hir name was alison Sche knew myn herte and al my priuyte /
 Better þan oure parisische prest' so mote I þee / 532
 To hire bywryed I my counseil al for hadde myn housbonde pyssed on a wal
 Or don a jinge þat schulde haue cost' his lyf
 To hire and to anoþer worþy wyf / 536
 And to my neece which I loue wel
 I wolde han told his counseil euerydell
 And so I dede ful ofte god it' woot
 That made his face often reed and hoot for verrey schame and blamed himself for he hadde told to me so gret a pryuyte (Def 111, b, c, d)
 And so it felle þat ones in a lente
 So ofte tyme vnto my gossib wente / for ener jif I loned to be gay
 And for to walke in marche aueril and may from hous to hous to herke sondry tales
 That Iaukin clerk' and my gossib dame alys 548
 And I my self' in to þe feeldes wente
 myn housbond was at londen al þat lente
 I hadde þe better leysir for to pleye
 And for to see and eke for to be soye 552
 Of lusty folk what' wist I wher my grace
 Was schapen for to be or in what place þerfore made I my visitacions
 To vigilies and to processions 556
 To prechyng' eke and to þis pilgrimages
 To pleyes of miracles and of maringes
 And wered vpon my gaye skurlet gytes
 This wormes no þise moþes no þise mytes 560 vpon my perle fete hem neuer a del
 And wostow why for þey were vned wel
 ¶ Now wil I tellen forþ what' happed me
 I seye þat in þe feeldes walked we 564

CORPUS (6-T. 310)

SIX-TEXT 340
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

wif my gossip dwelling in our toum
 God haue her soule her name was alison
 She knewe myn hert and al my priuyte
 Better þan oure parisich prest' so mote I the 532
 To here bywried I my counseil all for had myn husbonde piassed on a walle
 Or doon a jinge þat shuld' haue cost' his liff'
 To here and to anoþer worþi wiff / 536
 And to my nece which I loue well
 I wold han tolde his counseile eueridell
 And so I did ful often god it' wote þat' made his face often rede and hote. 540 for verrey shame and blamed hym self for he had tolde to me so grette a pryuyte
 And so byfelle þat' ones in a lente
 So ofte tyme I to my gossybe wente 544 for enere jif I loned to be gay /
 And forto walke in marche aueril and may from hous to hous to harken sonday tales/þat' Iaukin clerk' and my gossip dame alys 548
 And I my self into þe feeldes wente
 Myn husbonde was at londen al þat' lente
 I had þe better leisere forto pley
 And forto see and eke forto be soye 552
 Of lusty folk what' wist I wher' my grace
 Was shapen forto be or in what place
 Therefore made I my visitacions
 To vigilies and to processions 556
 To preching' eke and to þise pilgrimages
 To pleyes of miracles and of maringes
 And wered vpon my gay scarlet gites Thisse wormes no þise mothes no þise mytes 560 vpon my perle fete hem neuer a dele
 And wostow whi for þei were vsed wele
 Now wil I tellen forþ what' happed me
 I seie þat in þe feeldes walked we 564

4 X PETWORTH (6-T. 340)

SIX-TEXT 340
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

Wifpe my gossibbe dwelinge in oure toume
 God haue hire soule hire name was Alison Sche knewe myne hert and al my priuyte better þan oure parisiche prest' so mot .I. þe 532
 To hire be-wryed .I. my counsil all
 For hadde my husband piassed on a wait
 Or done a jinge þat schold haue cost his lif
 To hir and to anoþer worþi wif 536
 And to my nece which .I. loue welo
 .I. wolde haue tolde his counsil ouery dele
 And so .I. dide ful often god it wote þat maade his face often rede and hote 540 For verrey schame and blamed him-selfe for he Had tolde to me so grette a priuete
 And so it be-fell þat ones in a lente
 So oft time .I. to my gossip wente 544
 For ener jif .I. loued to be gay
 And for walke in marche aprile and Maie Fro hous to hous to herken sondaye tales þat Iaukin clerke and my gossib dam Alice 548
 And .I. my selfe in-to þe felde wente
 Myns husband was at Londen al þat lente
 .I. hadde þe better leysir for to pleie
 And for to see and eke for to be seie 552
 Of lusty folk what wist .I. wher my grace
 Was schapen for to be or in what place
 There-for maade .I. my visitacions (Def 211)
 To vigiles and to pprocessions 556
 To precheinge eke and to þis pilgrimages
 To pleyis of Miracles and of Marriages
 And wered vpon my gaye scarlet Gytes
 This wormes no þes mouhtes no þis mytes 560 vpon my perel fete hem neuer a dele
 And wost þou whie for þei were vsed wele Nowe wil .I. telle forþe what happed me
 .I. saie þat in þe felde walked we 564

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 340)

Till trowely / we hadde swich daliance
 This clerk and I / that of my purveiance
 I spak to hym / and seyde hym / how þat he °
 If I were wydwe / sholde wedde me for certainly / I sey for no bobance
 Yet was I neuere / with-uten purveiance
 Of mariage / nor othere thynges eek
 I holde a Mousus herte / nat worth a leek/
 That hath but con hole / for to sterte to
 And if þat faille / thanne is al ydo
 ¶ I bar hym on honde / he hadde enchanted me
 My dame taughte me that sotillete
 And eek I seyde / I mette of hym al nyght
 He wolde han slayn me / as I lay vp right
 And al my bed / was ful of verna blood
 But yet I hope / that he schal do me good for blood / hitokeneth gold / as me was taught
 And al was fals / I dremed of it right nauht
 But I folwed ay / my damnes loore
 As wel of this / as of othere thynges moore ¶ But now sire / lat me se / what I shal sayn
 A / ha / by god / I haue my tale ageyn
 ¶ When þat my fourthe housbonde / was on beere
 I weep algate / and made sory cheere
 As wytes motoun / for it is vsage
 And with my couerchief / covered my visage
 But for þat I / was purveyed of a make
 I wepte but smal / and that I vndertake
 ¶ To chirche / was myn housbonde / born a morwe
 With neighebores / that for hym maden sorwe
 And Iankyn our Clerk / was oon of the
 As help me god / whan þat I saugh hym go
 After the beere / me thoughte he hadde a paire °
 Of legges / and of feet / so clene and faire
 That al myn herte / I gaf vn-to his hold
 He was I trowe / a twenty wynter oold

ELLESMERE 183 (E-T. 860)

Till trowely / we hadde swich daliance
 This clerk / and I / that of my purveiance
 I spak to hym / and seyde hym / how that he
 If I were wydwe / sholde wedde me for certeynly / I sey for no bobance
 Yet was I neuere / with-uten purveiance
 Of mariage / nor othere thynges eek /
 I holde a mousus herte / noht worth a leek
 That hath but con hole / for to sterte to
 And if that faille / thanne is al y-do [I bar him on honde / he had enchanted me
 My Dame taught me / that sotillete
 And eek I seyde / I mette of him al nyght
 He wolde han slayn me / as I lay vp right
 And al my bed / was ful of verna blood
 But yet I hope / that ȝe shuld do me good for blod hitokeneth gold / as me was taught
 And al was fals / I dremed of it right nauht
 But as I folwed ay / my damnes loore
 As wel of that / as of othere thynges moore.]
 But now sire / lat me se / what shal I seyn
 A .ha. by god / I haue my tale ageyn
 ¶ Whan that my fourthe housbonde / was a beere
 I weep algate / and made sory cheere
 As wytes motoun / for it is vsage
 And with my couerchief / covered my visage
 But for that I / was purveyed of a make
 I wepte but smal / and that I vndertake
 ¶ To chirche / was myn housbonde / born a morwe
 With neighebores / that for hym maden sorwe
 And Iankyn our clerk / was oon of the
 As help me god / whan that I saw hym go
 After the beere / me thoughte he hadde a payre
 Of legges and of feet so clene and faire
 That al myn herte / I gaf vn-to his hold
 He was I trowe / twenty wynter oold

HENGWRT 145 (E-T. 860)

Tyl trowely we haddyn swich a daliance
 This clerk & I þat of myn purveiance I spak to hym & seyde how þat he if I were wedewe he schulde wedde me for serleynly I seye for no bobau. co þit was I neuere with-oute purveiance
 Of mariage & more thyngis eek
 I holde a mousys herte not worth a leek That hath but on hole to sterte to
 And that fayle thanne is al I-do
 I bere hym on honde he enchantede me
 Myn dame taughte me þat sotylete
 And ek I seyde I mette of hym al nyȝt
 He wolde a slaya me as I lay vp ryȝt
 And al myn bed was ful of verna blood But ȝit I hope þat he schal do me good for blood be-tokeneth gold as me was taunt
 And al was fals I dremed of it ryȝt nauȝt
 But I solwede ay myn damys lore
 As wel of this as of oþere thyngis moore
 But new ȝre lat se what schal I seyn
 A-ha by god I haue myn tale a-geyn
 What that myn husbonde was on beere
 I weep & made a sory cheere
 As wyutus motyn for it is vsage
 And with myn couerchef coverede myn visage
 But for þat I was purveyed of a make
 I wepte but smal & þat I vndyr-take
 To cherche was myn husband o born on morwe
 With neighebores þat for hym madyn sorwe
 And Iankyn our-klere was oon of tho
 As help me god whan that I saw hym goo
 Aftryr þe beere me thoughte he hadde a payre
 Of leggis & feet so clene & fayre
 That al myn herte I gaf vnto his hold
 He was I trowe twenty wyntyr old

CAMBRIDGE 183 (E-T. 860)

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE	SIX-TEXT 350 Corpus MS.	GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE	Petworth MS.	SIX-TEXT 350	GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE	Lansdowne MS.	SIX-TEXT 350
Til trewely we hadde such dalyance þis clerk' and I þat' of my purveiance I spak to him and seyde how þat' he If I were wydom schulde wedde me for certeynly I seye for no bobance þat' was I neuer jif' wipoute purveiance Of marriage ne of oþer þinges eke I holde a mouses witte nat' worþ a leke þat' hæþ but' oon hole for to stirten to And if þat' faille þat' is al y-do [I bar him on honde / he had enchaunted me my dame taughte me / that subtilte and eke I seide / I mette of him al nyght he wolde hane shamed me / as I lay vpright and al my bed was ful / of very blood but yit I hope / that ye shul do me good for blood bitokeneth gold / as me was taughte and al was fals / for I dremed right naughte but as I folwed ay / my dames lore als wel of that / as of oþer thingis more] <small>[MS Arch. Sel. B. 14. No other Oxford MS has these lines—G. Parker.]</small>	568	Til trewely we hadde such dalyance þis clerk' and I þat' of my purveiance I spake to hym and seide how þat' he þif I were widows shuld wedde me for certeynly I seye for no bobance þat' I was neuer jif' wriþoute purveiance Of marriage ne of oþer þinges eke I holde a monngs witte nat' worþ a leke þat' hæþ but' oon hool forto stirten too And þif þat' faille þan is al ydoo / [I bare hym on honde he hadde enchaunted me My dame taughte me þat subtylto And eke I sayde I Mette of hym all nyghte He wolde hane slayne Me As I laye vprighte And all my bedde was fulle of verrey blode Butte yette I hope þat ye schult do me gode for' blode bitokeneþe golde As me was taughte And sht was falshe I dremede of hitt' righte noughte Butte as I folowrede Ay My dames lore Aswelle of that as of oþer þyngs more] <small>[MS Reg. 17. Dux on leaf 129, back.]</small>	572	577	Til trewely we had suche dalyance þis clerke and .I. þat of my purveiance .I. spak to him and seide how þat he If .I. were wedowe scholde wedde me For certeynly .I. saie for no bobance þat was .I. neuer jif wipoute purveiance Of marriage ne of oþer þinges eke .I. holde a mames witte nouht worþe a leke þat hæþ bott one hole to sterte vnto And if þat faille þan is þat al y-do [I bare hym on honde he hadde enchaunted me My dame taught me that subtilte And I seide I mette of hym all nyght He wolde hane shamed me as I lay vp-right And my bedde was verrey blode But yite I hope that ye shuld do me good for good blode be-tokenyth gold as I was taught And sht was fals I dremed of hyme right noght But as I folowed my Dames lore [a line misst in the MS.] <small>[MS B. 3. 24 extract stops]</small>	568	572	577
When þat my ferþe housbonde was on bere I wepe algate and made sory chore As wyues mooten for it is vange / And with my keurcheeþ couered my visage But' for þat' I was purveide of a make / I weep but' smale and þat' I vndertake To chirche was myn housbond y-born on morwe With neghebours þat for him made sorwe And Iankyn our clerk' was on of þo As helpe me god when þat' I seih him go After þe bere me þouht' he hadde a peire Of legges and of feet' so cleane and faire That al myn herte I yaf' vnto his holde he was I trowe twenty wynter olde CORPUS (9-T. 360)	588	when þat' my ferþ' husbond' was on bere I wepe algates and made sory chere As wyues meten for it is þe vange And with my keurcheeþ konored my visage But' for þat' I was purveide of a make I wepte but' smale and þat' I vndertake To church' was myn husbond yborn on morowe wif' neighbours þat for hym made sorowe And Iankyn our clerk' was on of þoo As helpe me god when þat' I segt' hym goo After þe bere me þouht' he had a peire Of legges and of fete so cleane and faire þat' al my hert' I gaue vnto his holde He was I trowe xxii' wynter olde PETWORTH (9-T. 360)	592	597	When þat myn faire husbone laid on bere .I. wepe al gate . and maad sory chiere As wivus moten for it is vange And with my kerelaf konoured my visage Bot for þat .I. was purveide of a make' .I. wepe bot smale and þat .I. vnder take To chirche was my husbone borne on morwo Wif neyhors þat for him maad sorwe And Iankin our clerke was on of þo As helpe me god when þat .I. sihe him go After þe bere me þouht' he hadd a peire Of leges of feet so clene and faire þat al my herte .I. gaf vnto his holde He was .I. trowe tuþw[n]ly winter olde LANSDOWNE (9-T. 360)	588	592	597	600

And I was fourty / if I schal seye sooth
 But yet I hadde alway / a coltes bothe
 Gat tohid I was / and that biten me weel
 I hadde the prente / of seynt Venus seel
 As help me god / I was a lusty oon
 And siro and-ryche / and yong and wel bigon
 And trevely / of myne housholdes tolden
 I hadde the beste quoniam / myghte be
 for certes / I am al Venerien
 In feolyng / and myn herte is Marcien
 Venus me yaf my lust / my likerounesse
 And Mars yaf me / my sturdy hardynesse
 Myn Ascendent was Taur / and Mars ther-Inne
 Allas / allas / that euere loue was ayne
 I folwed ay / myn Inclinacion
 By vertu / of my constellacion
 That made me / I koude noght withdrawe
 Myn chambere of Venus / from a good felawe
 Yet haue I / Martes Mark vp-on myn face
 And also / in another priue place for god so wys / be my sauacion
 I ne loued neuere / by no discrecion
 But euere / folwed myn appetit
 Al were he / short or long or blak / or whyt
 I toke no kepe / so that he liked me
 How poore he was / no eke / of what degree
 ¶ What sholde I seye / but at the Monthes ende
 This ioly clerk / Iankyñ that was so hende
 Hath wedded me / with greet solemnytees
 And to hym yaf I / al the lond and fee
 That euere / was me youen ther-bifore
 But afterward / repented me ful soore
 He nolde suffre / nothyng of my lyst
 By god / he smoot me ones / on the lyst for þat I rente / out of his book a leef /
 That of the strook / myn ere weex al deaf /

And I was fourty / if I schal seye sooth
 But yet I hadde alway / a coltes bothe
 Gat tohid I was / and that biten me weel
 I hadde the prente / of seynt Venus seel
 As help me god / I was a lusty oon
 And fays / and eygho / and yong and wel bigoun
 And trevely / as myne housholdes tolden me
 I hadde the beste quoniam / myghte be
 for certes I am / al Venerien
 In feolyng / and myn hert is Marcien
 Venus me gaf my lust / my likerounesse
 And Mars gaf me / my sturdy hardynesse
 Myn Ascendent was Taur / and Mars ther-Inne
 Allas / allas / that euere loue was ayne
 I folwed ay / myn Inclinacion
 By vertu / of my constellacion
 That made me / I koude noght withdrawe
 Myn chambere of Venus / from a good felawe
 Yet haue I / Martes merk / vp-on myn face
 And also / in a nother priue place for god so wysely / be my sauacion
 I loued neuere / by no discrecion
 But euere folwed / myn appetit
 Al were he / short / long blak or whist
 I toke no kepe / so that he liked me
 How poore he was / no eke of what degree
 ¶ What sholde I seye / but at the Monthes ende
 This ioly clerk / Iankyñ that was so hende
 Hath wedded me / with greet solemnytees
 And to hym yaf I / al the lond and fee
 That euere was me youen / ther bifore
 But afterward / repented me ful soore
 He nolde suffre / no thyng of my lyst
 By god / he smoot me ones / on the lyst for that I rente / out of his book a leef
 That of the strook / myn ere weex al deaf

And I was fourty gif I schal sey sooth
 And yet I hadde alway a coltes both Gat-tohid I was & that be-am me wel
 I hadde the prente of seynt poterys sel As help me god I was a lusty on fays & ryche & frosh & wel bigon
 And trewely as myn husbondys toldyn me I hadde the beste quoniam that myste be for sortis I am al venerion
 In feolyng & myn herte is marcien
 Venus me gaf myn lust myn likerounesse
 And mars gaf me myn hardy-nesse
 Myn ascendent was taur & mars ther inne
 Allas allas that euere loue was ayne
 I folwede ay myn Inclynacyoun
 By vertu of myn constolacioun
 That made me that I coude nat withdrawe
 Myn chambere of venus from a good felawe yet I haue I Martes merk vp-on myn face And also in a-nothyr priue place for god so wys be myn sauacyoun
 I ne lovede neuere by non discrecyoun
 But euere folwede myn appetit
 Al were he eshort or long or blak or whist
 I tok no kep so þat he lykede mee
 How pore ne ek o what degree
 ¶ What schal I sey but at þe monethis ende
 This Ioly clerk Iankyñ that was so kynde Hath wedded me with greet solemnpotee
 And to hym gaf I al that lond & fee
 That euere was me 3ouyn þere by-foure
 But aftyrward me ropented some therfore
 He nolde suffere no thyng of myn lyst
 But onys he smot me with hyse fyat for I rente onys out of hyse bok a leaf
 That for the strok myn ere weex al def

¶ MARRIAGE
 Amphoriceus 119.
 ¶ Cuius in accensio fuerit indicat terren cotam in sole pactarum
 In mutacione mulierum cum fuerit accensio signa de duplitate
 Venere / Muta volucras in eis / videtur quod
 nulli impudici
 Non erit al habitus quatuordecim in accensio & Melfi Hermas in libro Sibule An-ziochet 101

[Not in Ashm. 510,
 516, 518, or 519,
 523, 528] or Sibule 100, 111; MS. Bp. in G. H. 1712, 16; Sibule 100, 111;
 or Cantuar. MS. A.
 1.

[Not in Ashm. 510, 516, or Harl. 353, 519; or Sibule 100, 111; MS. Bp.
 in G. H. 1712, 16; Sibule 100, 111; or Cantuar. MS.
 A. 1.]

[MS. B. 4. 44 et tract stops]

[C. 119]

612

616

620

624

624

624

628

628

632

632

636

636

SIX-TEXT 351
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Corpus MS.

And I was forty if I schal seye soþ
 But þit I hadde alwey a colles toþ
 Gat toþed I was and þat bycam roe wel
 I hadde þe printe of seint' venus sel
 As help me god I was a lusty oon
 And fair and rich and song and wel bygon
 And trewly as myn housbond tolde me
 I hadde þe besto queynte þat / mighte be [for coris I am al fully Venetian (MS Arch. Salt. B. M. Only this MS has Venetian.
Barlow 10 omits it. 605-6 Corpus-G. P.)] in feling / and myn herte is Marcian Venus me yaff my lust / my likerousnesse and Mars yaff me / my sturdy hardynes]
 Myn ascendent was Taur and Mars þerinne
 Allas allas þat euer loue was synne /
 I folwed ay myn inclinacioun
 By vertue of my constellacioun
 That made me I coupe not wipdrawe
 My chambere of venus from a good felawe [yt haue I Mars is marke / vppon my face and also in another preyre place for god so wis be / my susacioun
 I loued neuere / bi no discrecioun but euere folwed / myn appetite al were he long / aborto / blak or whyt
 I toke no keppe / so that he liked me
 how pore he was / ne eke of what degre]
 What schuld I seie but at þe monpes ende
 This Ioly clerk Iaukyñ þat was so hendy / hap wedded me with grete solempnite
 And to him þat I al þe lond and fee /
 That euere was me zemen þere byfore
 But afterward repented me ful sore he nolde suffre no þinge of my lest
 By god he smote me onys on þe lest for þat I rente out of his booke a leef
 That of þat strook my eeren woxen deef
(MS Arch. Salt. B. M. Only 14. Lines 600 and has these lines, 610
=229, but no other Oxford MS has them.—G. P.)

CORPUS (O-T. 351)

SIX-TEXT 351
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

And I was xlii þit I þhal soþe soþe
 But þit I hadde alwey a Colliak toþe Gat toþed I was and þat bycam me schif
 I had þe printe of seynt' venus schif As helpe me god I was a lusty on fflise and rich. songe and wellygon
 And trewly as myn husbond foldde me
 I had þe best quoniam þat myn he [for series I am all venetian
 In flenges And my herte is Merkyon
 Venus me yafe My luste mix lykrounesse
 And Mars yafe me my sturdye hardynesse].
 Myn ascendent was taur and mars þer-inne
 Allas alas þat euet loue was synne
 I folowed aye myn Inclinacioun
 By vertue of my constellacioun
 That made me I coupe not wipdrawe
 My chambere of venus from a good felawe
 [Vette haue I Mars is Marke vppon my face And also in Anopere preyre place for god so wyss be My saluacioun
 I louede neuere by no discrecioun
 I follovede euer Myne Appetyte
 Alþ were he longe schorte blake or whyte
 I toke no kepe so þat he lykede me
 How pore he was And eke of whate degre]
 What schuld I sei but at þe monpes ende
 This Ioly clerk Iaukyñ þat was so hende
 Hap wedded me wip grete solempnite
 And to hym þane [I] al þe lond and fee þat euere was me zemen þerbyfore
 But afters[ward] repented me ful sore
 He nolde suffre no þinge of my lest
 by god he smote me onys on þe lest for þat I rent out of his boke a leef
 That of þat stroke myne eeren wexen deef (MS Rec. 17 D. 27
on leaf 133)

PETWORTH (O-T. 351)

SIX-TEXT 351
GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

And I. whi forty if þat. I. schal seie soþe
 But þit. I. hadde alwaike. colles toþe Gat toþede. I. was and þat. be come me welle
 I. hadde þe printe of seint venus scale
 As helpe me god. I. was a lusti one
 And fair and rich and songe and wel by gon
 And trewly as myn husbond tolde me
 I. hadde þe best quoniam þat myn he [for curis / I am all fully venetian. (MS Rec. 1786, 1786, in margin)
 In feling / & myn herte is marcian.
 Venus / me yaff my lust / my likyng / & theortousnes /
 And Mars / gaff me my sturdy hardynes /]
 Myn ascendent was taur and mars þere inne
 Alas alas þat euer loue was synne
 I. folowed ay myne Inclinacioun Be vertue of myne constellacioun þat made me. I. coupe notst wip drawe
 My chambere of venus frome a good felawe [ye / haue I a marke of Mars vpon my face. (MS 1786, 1786, in margin)
 And also in another / preyre place.
 for god so wisse be my saluacioun
 I. louyd neuere / bi no discrecioun.
 But eny / folowed myn appetite.
 Alþ were he schort / long / blak / or white.
 I toke no keppe so that / he liked me
 How pore he was / ne eke of what / degre. ]
 What scold. I. seie bot at þe monopes ende
 This Ioly clerk Iaukyñ þat was so hende
 Hape wedde me wip grete solempnite
 And to him þat. I. al þe lond and fee þat euere was me zemen þere before Bot afterward repented me ful sore
 He wolde suffer no þinge of my lest Be god he smote me ones on þe luste for þat. I. rent out of his booke a leef þat of þat stroke myne eeren woxen def (MS Rec. 1786 extract slope)

LANSDOWNE (O-T. 351)

Stibourne I was / as is a Loonesse
 And of my tonge / a verray Iangleresse
 And walke I wolde / as I had don biforn from hous to hous / al-though he had it sworn for which / he often tymes wolde preche
 And me / of olde Romayn geestes teche ¶ Valerius. libro de male. 119.

How he synplicitus Gallus / lafte his wyf
 And hire forsook / for terme of al his lyf Nogh<sup>t</sup> but for open-headed / he hir say Lokyng out at his dore / vpon a day

¶ Another Romayn / tolde he me by name
 That for his wyf / was at a someres game

With-uten his wityng<sup>g</sup> / he forsook hire eke
 And thanne wolde he / vp-on his Bible seke

That ilke prouerbe / of Ecclesiaste
 Where he comandeth / and forbedeth faste

Man shal nat suffre his wyf go roule aboute
 Thanne wolde he seye right / thus / with-uten doute

¶ Who so / that buyldeth his hous / al of salves
 And priketh his bynde hors / ouer the falwes

¶ X<sup>o</sup> dea vultus nequam vultus
 p<sup>r</sup>edemil vultus. 207
 [verse 25-6]

¶ And suffreth his wyf / to go sekun halwes
 Is worthy / to ben hanged / on the galwes

But al for nogh<sup>t</sup> I sette nogh<sup>t</sup> an haw
 Of his prouerbes / of his olde sawe

Ne I wolde nat of hym corrected be
 I hate hym / that my vices telleth me

And so doe me / god woot of vs / than I
 This made hym / with me wood al outrely

I nolde nogh<sup>t</sup> / forbero hym in no cas
 ¶ Now wol I seye yow sooth / by seint Thomas

Why pat I rente / out of his book a leef for which / he smoot me so / pat I was deaf

¶ He hadde a bok / pat gladly nyght and day
 for his disport he wolde rede alway

He cleped it Valerie / and Theofraste
 At which bok / he lough alwey ful faste

ELLESMEERE 185 (9-T. 352)

Stibourne I was / as is a loonesse
 And of my tonge / a verray Iangleresse
 And walke I wolde / as I hadde doen biforn from hous to hous / al-though he hadde it sworn
 for which / he often tymes / wolde preche
 And me / of olde Romayn gastes teche

How he Synplicitus Gallus / lafte his wyf

And hire forsook<sup>t</sup> for terme of al his lif
 Nogh<sup>t</sup> but for open headed he hir say
 Lokyng out at his dore / vp-on a day

¶ Another Romayn / tolde he me by name
 That for his wyf / was at a Someres game

With-uten his wityng<sup>g</sup> / he forsook hire eke
 And thanne wolde he / vp-on his Bible seke

That ilke prouerbe / of Ecclesiaste
 Where he comandeth / and forbedeth faste

Man shal nat suffre his wyf / go roule aboute
 Thanne wold he seye right thus / with-uten doute

¶ Who so pat buyldeth his hous / al of salves
 And priketh his bynde hors / oner the falwes

[leaf 71]

¶ And suffreth his wyf / to go sekun halwes
 Is worthy / to ben hanged on the galwes

But al for nogh<sup>t</sup> I sette nogh<sup>t</sup> an hawe

[leaf 60]

Of his prouerbes / of his olde sawe
 Ny wolde nat of hym corrected be

I hate hym / pat my vices telleth me
 And so doon me / god woot of vs than I

This made hym / with me wood al outrely
 I nolde nogh<sup>t</sup> forbers hym in no cas

¶ Now wol I seye yow sooth / by seint Thomas
 Why pat I rente / out of his book a leef

for which / he smoot me so / pat I was deaf
 He hadde a bok / pat gladly nyght and day
 for his disport he wolde rede alway

He clepyd it Valerie and Theofraste
 At which bok / he lough alwey ful faste

HENGWRT 147 (9-T. 352)

Styborne I was as a leonesse
 And of myn tunge a verry Iangleress And walke I wolde as [I] hadde don by-form from hous to hous al-thow he hadde it sworn for whiche ofte tymys he wolde preche
 And me olde romayn gastyng teche

How he synplicitous Gallus lafte his wyf

And hire for sok for terme of al his lyf
 Not but for o poynt he hyre say Lokyng out of hyse dore vp-on a day

¶ Another Romayn tolde he by name

[leaf 210, back]

That for hisie wif was at a somer game

With-utyn hyse welyng<sup>g</sup> he for-sok hire eke
 And thanne wolde he vp-on his bible seke

That ilke prouerbe of ecclesiaste
 Where he comandyth & forbedyth faste

Men schal not suffere here wyvis to roule a-houte Thanne wolde he seye thus with-utyn doute

¶ Who-so hlydyth hisse hous al of salvys
 And prykyth hyse bynde onere þo falowis

¶ And suffreth his wyf to go sekyn halvys
 Is worthi to ben hangyn on the galwis

But al for nougt I sette nat an hawe
 Of hisse prouerbis me of hisse olde sawe

¶ Ne I nulde of hym corcete be I hate hym that mynne vices tellyn me

And so don me god wot than I
 This made hym holde me wood al outrely

I nolde forbero hym in no manere cas
 ¶ Now wote I seye yow sooth by seynt Thomays

Whi that I rente out of hisse bok a lef for whyche he smot me that I was def

¶ He hadde a bok that gladly nygt & day
 for his disport he wolde rede alway

He clepede it valerye & theofraсте
 At which bok he low ful faste

672

CAMBRIDGE 185 (9-T. 352)

SIX-TEXT 352
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Corpus MS.

¶ Stiborne I was es is a leonesse /
 And of my tonge a verray langleresse / And walke I wolde as I hadde don biforn from hous to hous al poughe he hadde it sworn for wijf ful often tyme he wolde preche And me olde romance gestes teche how he simplicius Gallus lafte his' wijf
 And hire forsook' for terme of his lijf
 Not but for openhede he hire say
 Lokyng out at his dore on a day
 Anoper Romayn tolde he me by name
 That for his wijf was at a Somer game /
 Wijoute his wrytyng' he forsook' hire eke
 And þanne wolde he vpon his bible seeke
 That ilke prouerbe of ecclesiaste
 Wher he commaundeþ and forbedeþ faste Man schal not suffre his wijf to roule aboute þan wolde he seie riht þus wijouten doute
 Who so þat biddeþ his hous al of salwes
 And prikeþ his biynde hors ouer þe falwes
 And sufferþ his wijf go for to seeken halwes
 Is worþy for to be hangod on þe galwes
 But al for nougt I sette not an lawe
 Of his prouerbes me of his olde lawe
 Ne I wolde not of him corrected be /
 I hate hym þat my vice telleþ me
 And so ȝif me god wote of vs þan I
 This made him with me wood al outerly
 I nolde not forbere him in no taas
 Now wil I seie you soþ by seint Thomas Why þat I rent out of his boke a leef for which he smote me þat I was deaf he hadde a boke þat gladly nyght and day for his disporte he wolde rede alway he clopede valery and Theofraste
 At which boke he lowh alwey ful faste
 CORPUS (6-T. 352)

SIX-TEXT 352
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

Stiborn I was as is a leonesse
 And of my tunge a verrey langleresse And walk' I wold' as I had don to-for'n from hous to hous al pouge he had it sworn forwip' ful often tyme he wolde preche
 And me [of] olde Romaynes geastes teche
 How he ' symplcius gallus laft' his wif
 And hire for-roke for terme of his lif
 Not but for open hede he hire say
 Lokinge out at his door on a day Anoper romaya tolde he me by name þat for his wif was at a somers game
 Wij-oute his witting' he forsoke her' eke
 And þan wolde he vpon his bible seeke þat ilk prouerbe of Ecclesiast
 Where he commaundeþ and forbedeþ fast
 Man schal not suffre his wif to rone aboute
 Than wolde he seie riht þus wij-outen doute
 Who-so þat beeldeþ his hous all of salous
 And prickeþ his biynde hors ouer þe falous
 And sufferþ his wif forto seken halowes
 Is worþi forto be hangod on þe galowes /
 ¶ But al for nougt I sette not an lawe
 Of his prouerbes me of his olde lawe
 Ne I wold not of hym corrected be
 I hate hym þat my vice telleþ me
 And so doþ moo god wote of vs þan I þis made him wip me wode al vterly
 I nolþ forbere hym in no cas
 Now wil I seie you soþ by seint Thomas Why þat I rent out of his booke a leef
 for which he smote me þat I was deaf
 He had a boke þat gladly nyght and daye
 for his disport he wolde rede alway
 He clopede Valerye and theofraste
 Atte whiche boke he lowght alway ful fast
 PETWORTH (6-T. 352)

SIX-TEXT 352
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

Styborne .I. was as is a lyonesse
 And of my tonge a verrey langleres
 And walke .I. walde as .I. had do be-forne Frome house to house al pouhe he had it sworn For wijf often time he wolde preche
 And me olde romans gestes teche
 Howe he simplicius gallus laft his wif
 And hire for-roke for terme of his lif
 Not bot for hopen hede he hire seie
 Lokeynge oute att his dore on a daie Anoper Romeyne tolde he me be name
 That for his wif was att a somer game
 Wij-owte his weteinge he for-roke here eke
 And þan wolde he vpon his bible seeke
 þat ilke prouerbe of ecclesiast
 Where he commaundeþ and for-bodeþ fast
 Man schal not suffir his wif go roule a-boute Than wolde he saie riht þus wij-outen doute ¶ Who so þat biddeþ his house al of salowes
 And prikeþ his biinde hors ouere þ[is] falowes
 And sufferþ his wif for seken halowes
 Is worþi to be honged on þe galowes
 Bot al for not .I. set not an hawe
 Of his prouerbes me of his olde lawe .
 Ne .I. wolde nouht of him correct be
 .I. hate him þat my vice telleþ me
 And so do me god wote of vs þan .I.
 þis maede him wip me woods al vterly
 .I. nolde nouht for-bere him in no cas Nowo wil .I. seie youe soþe be seint thomas Why þat .I. rent oute of his boke a leuf
 For whiche he smote me þat .I. was defe
 He had a booke þat glindly nyht and daie
 For his disporte he wolde rede al weie
 He clopede valerye and theofraste
 Att whiche boke he lauhe al-weye ful fast
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 352)

note bene

¶ Note bene

[leaf 69]

[leaf 120, back]

353 SIX-TEXT
186 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Ellesmere MS.

¶ And eek/ ther was som tyme / a clerk at Rome
A Cardinal / that highte Saint Ierome
That made a book<sup>3</sup> agayn Iouinian
In which book<sup>3</sup> eek/ ther was Tertulan
Crisippus / Trotila / and Helowys
That was Abbese / nat for fro Parys
And eek the Parables of Salomon Ouides Art and bookes many on
And alle thise / were bounden / in o volume
And every nyght and day / was his custume
Whan he hadde leysor / and vacacion from oother / worldly occupacion
To reden on this book / of wikked wyues
He knew of hem / mo legendes and lyues
Than been / of goode wyues in the Bible.
for trusteth wel / it is an impossible
That any clerk wol speke good of wyues
But if it be / of holy seintes lyues
Ne noon oother woman / neuer the mo
Who paynted the leon / tel mo who?
By god / if women / hadde writen stories
As clerkes han / with-Inne hire oratories
They wolde han writon / of men moore wikkedness
Than all the mark / of Adam may redrese
The children / of Mercurio and Venus
Been in hir wiking<sup>4</sup> ful contrarius
Mercurio / lounth wysdam and sciens
And Venus / lounth ryot<sup>5</sup> and dispence
And for hire diuerso disposicion
Ech falleth / in oother exaltacion
And thus god woo<sup>6</sup> Mercurio is desolat<sup>7</sup>
In Pices / wher Venus is exaltat<sup>8</sup>
And Venus falleth / ther Mercurio is reysed
Therefore no woman / of no clerk is preyed
The clerk whan he is old / and may night do
Of Venus werkes / worth his olde aho

ELLESHERE 186 (9-T. 352)

353 SIX-TEXT
148 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Hengwrt MS.

And eek ther was / som tyme a clerk at Rome
A Cardynal / that highte Saint Ierome
That made a book<sup>3</sup> agayn Iovinian
In which book<sup>3</sup> eek ther was Tertulan
Crisippus / Trotila / and Helowys
That was Abbese / nat for fro Parys
And eek the parables / of Salomon Ouydes art and bokke many on
And alle thise were bounden / in o volume
And every nyght and day / was his custume
Whan he hadde leysor / and vacacion from oother / worldly ocupacion
To reden in this book<sup>3</sup> of wikked wyues
He knew of hem / mo legendes and lyues
Than been of goode wyues in the Bible
for trusteth wel / it is an impossible
That any clerk wol speke good of wyues
But if it be / of holy seintes lyues
Ne noon oother woman / neuer the mo
Who paynted the leon / tel mo who
By god / if women / hadden writen stories
As clerkes han / with-Inne hir oratories
They wolde han writen of men / moore wikkedness
Than all the mark of Adam may redrese
The children / of Mercurio and Venus
Been in hir wiking<sup>4</sup> ful contrarius
Mercurio lounth / wysdam and science
And Venus lounth / Riot and dispence
And for hir diuerso / disposicion
Ech failleth / in oother exaltacion
And thus god woo<sup>6</sup> Mercurio is desolat
In pices / wher venus is exaltat<sup>8</sup>
And venus failleth / ther Mercurio is reysed
Therefore no woman / of no clerk is preyed
The clerk whan he is old / and may night do
Of venus werkes / worth his olde aho

HENGWRT 148 (9-T. 353)

353 SIX-TEXT
186 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Cambridge MS.

And ek he seyde that sumtyme there was a clerk at rome
A cardenale that hys<sup>1</sup> Ierome
That made a bok agayn Iouynian
In whiche bok pere was ek Tertulan
Crisippus Tortula & Helowys
That was abbese not fer from Parys
And ek the parabelo of Salamon Ouydis art & bokys many on
And alle these were boundyn In on volume
And euery day & ny<sup>2</sup>t was hyse custome Whan he hadde leysa[r] & vacacyoun from oþere worldly occupacyoun
To redyn on hise bok of wikkede wyues
He knew of hew mo legendys & lyuus Than ben of goode wyuus in the byble for trostyth wel it is an Impossible That any clerk schulde spoke good of wyuys
But zif it be of holye seyntis lyuus
Ne of non othere woman neuere þe mo Who payntede þe lyoun tel mo who Bi god zif women hadden wryten storyis
As clerkis han with inne here oratoryis
They wolde a wrete of men more wikkedness
Than al þe Mark of adam may redrese
The chyldeyn of mercurye & of venus
Ben in hyre werkye wol contraryous Mercurye lounth wysdom & science
And venus lounth riot & dispence
And for hire dyuerso dispoicoun
Eche fallith in oþeris exsaltyoun
And þus wot god Mercurye is desolat
In Pices where Mercurye is exaltat
And venus fallith where Mercurye is reysed
Therefore no woman of no clerk is preyed
The clerk whan he is old & may not do
Of venus werkye worthi hyse olde scho

CAMBRIDGE 186 (9-T. 355)

¶ Que plus loca

¶ Virgine multo vobis exaltat

¶ In libro Cassan primi d Vincencius
Sextus. 4. i Exaltat in suo ore dicitur in quo motto

¶ In Virgine
[not 74, back]

[not 60, back]

[not 22]

SIX-TEXT 333
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PRÉAMBLE. CORPUS MS.

And eek<sup>er</sup> þer was som tyme a clerk<sup>i</sup> in Rome /
 A Cardinal þat highȝ seinȝ Ierome
 That<sup>er</sup> made a booke aȝein Ionynian
 In which booke<sup>s</sup> eek<sup>e</sup> þer was Torculan
 Crisippus Trocula and helowys
 That<sup>er</sup> was abbesse nat<sup>er</sup> fer fro Paris
 And eek<sup>er</sup> þe parables of Salomeon Ovides art<sup>er</sup> and bokes many oow
 And alle þise were bounde in oo volume
 And euery night<sup>er</sup> and day was his custome
 When he hadde leyse<sup>r</sup> and vacacioun<sup>er</sup> from oþer worldly occupacioun To reden in þis booke of wikked wyues he knewe of hem mo legendes and luyes Than ben of goode wyues in þe bible / for trusteþ wel it is an impossible
 That<sup>er</sup> any clerk<sup>i</sup> wold speken good of wyues
 But if it is be of holy seintes luyes
 Ne of non oþer woman neuer þe mo
 Who paynted þe lyon telle me who
 By god if women hadden writen stories
 As clerkes han wipinne here oratories
 They wold haue writen of men more wickednesse
 Than alle þe marke of adam may redresse
 The children of mercurie and venus
 Ben in here werkynge contrarious Mercurie loueþ wisdom and science /
 And venus loueþ ryot and dispence /
 And for here diuerser disposicion
 Echo falleþ in oþres exaltacioun
 As þus god wot mercurie is desolat
 In piscis. where venus is exaltat<sup>er</sup>
 And venus falleþ þer mercurie is reised
 Ther-fore no womman of no man is preised
 The clerk<sup>i</sup> when he is olde and may not<sup>er</sup> do
 To Venus werk<sup>er</sup> nought<sup>er</sup> worþ his olde scho

[text 113, back]

SIX-TEXT 353
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PRÉAMBLE. Petworth MS.

And eke þer was somtyme a clerk<sup>i</sup> in Rome
 A Cardynal þat highȝ seinȝ Ierome þat made a boke aȝein Iouean
 In which boke eke þer was Torculan
 Crisippus. Trocula. and helowys
 That<sup>er</sup> was Abbas not<sup>er</sup> fer fro Paris/
 And eke þe parables of Salomon Ovydes art<sup>er</sup> and bokes mony oþ
 And alle þise were bounden in oo volom
 And euery nyȝt<sup>er</sup> and day was his custom When he had leisere and vacacioun from oþere worldly occupacioun
 To reden in þis boke of wikked wyues
 He knewe of hem mo legendys þan luyes þan bene of good wyues in þe bible
 for trusteþ wel it is an impossible
 þat any clerk<sup>i</sup> wil speken good of wyues
 But if it is be of holy seyntes luyes Ne of non oþere woman neuere þe moo / who pointed þe lyon telle me who /
 By god gif women had ywriten stories
 As clerkes han wip-In her oratories
 They wold han writen of men more wickednesse
 Than ar þe Mark<sup>er</sup> of Adam may redresse
 The Children of mercury and Venus
 Ben in ðer workinge contrarious /
 Mercury loueþ wisdom and science
 And Venus loueþ riote and dispence
 And for her dyuerser disposicion
 Ech falleþ in oþer exaltacioun
 As þus god wote mercuris is disolte
 In piscis wher Venus is exaltate And Venus falleþ þer mercurie is reysed * þerfor no womman of no man is preised.
 The clerk<sup>i</sup> when he is olde and may not<sup>er</sup> do.
 Of Venus werk<sup>er</sup> worþ his olde schoo<sup>er</sup> *

[text 119]

SIX-TEXT 353
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PRÉAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

Ande eke þere was sum tyme a clerke in rome
 A Cardinale þat hiht seinȝ Ierome þat maad a boke aȝeine Ionyniane
 In which booke eke þer was torculano Crisippus Trecula and helowys
 That was Abbas nouȝt fer fro parische
 And eke þe paraboles of Salomon Orydes arte and bokes many one
 And al þis were boundene in o velome
 And euery nyht and day was his custome
 When he had leysere and vacacione frome oþer weidly occupacione
 To reden on þis boke of wikked wyues
 He knewe of hem mo legentez and liues
 Than bue of goode wyues in þe bible For trusteþ wele it is an impossible þat any clerke wil speken good of wywes Bot if it bue of holy seintes luyes
 Ne of none oþer woman neuere þe mo
 Who paynted þe lyon telle me who
 Be god if women had wreten stories
 As clerkes haue wip-inne hire oratories
 They wold haue wreten of men more wickednesse þan al þe mark of Adam maie redresse
 The children of Mercurie and Venus
 Bene in hire werkynge contrarius
 Mercurie loþe wisdom and sciens
 And venus loueþ riote and dispens
 And for hir diuerser disposicion Sche falleþ in oþer exaltacioun.
 And þus godde wote Mercurie is desolote
 In-piscis where venus is exaltate And venus falleþ þere Mercurie is reised þere-for no womman of no man is preised þe clerke when he is olde and maie nouȝt do
 Of venus werk<sup>er</sup> worþe his olde scho

[text 05, back]

patitur ab alio contraction & caetera / Velut Mecurialis in virgine que est causa venenit B.
Abster. moidert.
Mecurialis significat seculitatis & phlogosium B.
Alter vero causat & absteratit & quorundam est
supplicium corpore

Thanne sit he douw / and writ in his dotage

That women / kan nat kepe hir mariage

But now to purpos / why I tolde thee

That I was beten / for a book pardee

Vp-on a nyght Iankyn þat was oure sire

Redde on his bok / as he sat by the fyre

Of Eua first / þat for hir wikkednesse

Was al mankynde / brought to wrecchednesse

for which crist hym self / was slayn

That boghte vs / with his herte blood agayn

Lo here expras / of woman may yo fynde

That woman / was the los / of al mankynde

¶ The redde he me / how Sampson loste his heres

Slepyng / his lemman / kittle it with hir sherys

Thugh which treson / loste he bothe hise eyen

¶ The redde he me / if that I shal nat lyen

Of Heracles / and of his Dianyre

That caused hym / to sette hymself afyre

¶ No thyng forgot he / the sorwe and wo

That Socrates / hadde with hise wyues two

How Xantippa / caste pisse vp-on his heed

This sely man / sat stille as he were deed

He wiped his heed / namoure dorste he seyn

Dat'er þat thonder stynte / comth a reyn

¶ Of Phasipha / that was the queene of Crete

for shrewednesse / hym thoughte the tala awete

ffy speke namoure / it is a grisly thyng

Of hire / horrible lust' and hir likyng

¶ Of Clitemystra / for hire lecherye

That falsly / made hire housbonde for to deye

He redde it / with ful good deuocioun

¶ He tolde me ek / for what occasion

Amphiomx / at Thebes loste his lyf

Myn housbonde / hadde a legende of his wyf /

¶ Eriphilion / that for an Oucbe of gold

Hath prively / vn-to the grekes told

Thanne sit he douw / and writ in his dotage

That women / kan nat kepe hir mariage

¶ But now to purpos / why I tolde thee

That I was beten / for a book pardee

Vp-on a nyght Iankyn þat was oure sire

Redde on his bok / as he sat by the fyre

Of Eua first / þat for hir wikkednesse

Was al mankynde / brought to wrecchednesse

for which that ihesu crist / him self was slayn

That boghte vs / with his hert blod a-gayn

Lo here expras / of woman / may 3e fynde

That woman / was the losse / of al mankynde

¶ The redde he me / how Sampson loste his herys

Slepyng / his lemman / kittle it with hir sherys

Thugh which treson / loste he bothe hise eyen

¶ The redde he me / if that I shal nat lyen

Of hercules / and of his Dianyre

That caused hym / to sette hym self a fyre

¶ No thyng forgot he / the sorwe and wo

That Socrates / hadde with his wyues two

How Xantippa / caste pisse vp-on his heed

This sely man / sat stille / as he were deed

He wipde his heed / namoure dorste he seyn

Dat'er þat thonder stynte / comth a reyn

¶ Of Phasipha / that was the queene of Crete

for shrewednesse / hym thoughte the tala awete

ffy speke namoure / it is a grisly thyng

Of hire / horrible lust' and hir likyng

¶ Of Clitemystra / for hire lecherye

That falsly / made hire housbonde for to deye

He redde it / with ful good deuocioun

¶ He tolde me ek / for what occasion

Amphiomx / at Thebes loste his lyf

Myn housbonde / hadde a legende of his wyf

¶ Eriphilion / that for an Oucbe of gold

Hath prively / vn-to the grekes told

Thanne sit he douw / and wryt in hise dotage

That women kurne nat kepe here maryage

But now to purpos why I tolde thee

That I was betyn for a bok parloes

Vp-on a nygt Iankyn that was oure fyro

Radde on his bok as he sat by the fyro

Of Eua fyrst that for hyre wikkednesse

Was al mankynde brought to wrechodenesse

¶ For which þat ihesu Crist hym selfe was slayno

That boghte vs with his herte blode agayno

Lo here expresse of women Maye yo fynde

That women was the losse of All Mankynde

¶ The radde he me how sampson leste hise heris

Slepyng his leman kittle hem with hire scherys

Thorgh which tresoun leste he bothe hyse cygn

¶ The radde he me if I shal nat lyon

Of auelis & of hyse dyanyro

That caused hym to sette hym selfe a fyro

No thyng for-gat he the care & the wo

That sonates hadde with hyse wyues two

How Exantippa caste pi-vp-on his hed

This sely man sat styll as he were deed

He wypede his hed no more durste he seyn

But er thundy stynte þere comyth a reyn

¶ Of phasipha that was the queene of Crete

for shrewednesse hym thoughte the tala awete

ffy spek na more it is a greesly thyng

Of hire horrible lust & hire lykkyng

¶ Of clitemytra for hire lecherye

That falsly made hire housbonde for to deye

He radde it with ful good deuocioun

¶ He tolde me ek for what occasyoun

Amphiomx at thebes leste his lyf

Myn husbonde hadde a legende of his wyf

¶ Eryphilion þat for an Oucbe of gold

Hath prively on to þe grekes told

Than sitte he down and writ in his dotage /
That wommen can not keepe here mariage
But now to purpos why I tolde þe
That I was beten for a booke pardee 712
Vpon a nyght Iankyn þat was our sires
Redde on his boke as he satte by þe fyre
Of Eua first þat for hire wickednesse
Was al mankynde brought to wretchednesse 716
[for which Ihesu crist / him self was slayne that bought vs with his herte blood agayne
lo here expresse of recorde / may yo fynde
that woman was the loce / of al mankynde]
The redde he me how Sampson lost his heris Slepynge his lemman kyt it wip hir scheris Thurgh which tresson lost he bope his eyen
The redde he me if þat I schal not lyen 724
Of Hercules and of his deyanire /
That caused him to sette himself a fyre
No jinge forgate he þe penance and woo
That Socrates hadde with his wyues tuo 728
How þat ancipa cast pisse on his heed
This seely man sat stille as he were deed he wyppd his heed no more durst he seyn
But er þat þunder stynke compe a royn 732
Of Phasipha þat was þe queen of Greto / for schrewednesse him þought þe tale swete fly speke ðomore it is a grisly jinge
Of hire horrible lust and hire lykynge
Of Clitemistra for hire lecherie
That falsly made hir husonde for to dye
He redde it wip wel good deuocion he tolde me for what occasion 740
Amphiorax at Thebes lost his lif
Myn husonde had a legend of his wif Eriphilem þat for an ouche of golde hap pruyly vnto þe Grekes tolde 744
CORPUS (6-r. 864)

þan sitte he down and write in his dotage þat wommen can not keepe her mariage
But now to purpos whi I told þe þat I was beten for a boke parde . 712
Vpon a nyght Iankyn þat was our sire
Redde on his boke as he satte by þe fyre
Of Eua first þat for hir wickednesse
Was al mankynde brount to wretchednesse 716 [for which þat Ihesu Crist hym self was slayne that boughte vs with his herte blode agayne Lo here expresse of womeñs] Maye yo fynde
That womeñ was the lesse of al Mankynde 720
The redde he me howe sampson lost his heres Slepynge his lemman kitt it wip her sheres þourgh which tresson lost he boþ his eyen /
The redde he me if I schal not lyen . 724
Of Hercules and of his dyanyre þat caused hym to sette hym self a fyre
No jinge forgate he þe penance and woo 728
þat Socrates had wip his wyues tuo Howe þat Ancipa cast pisse on his hede þe seely man satte stille as he were dede
He wipd his hede no more durst he seyn 732
But er þat thondor stint compe a royn
Of þe passipa þat was þe queene of greto for schrewednesse hym þought þe tale swete flye speke no more it is a grisly jynge 736
Of hire horrible lust and [hure] lykynge
Of Clitemistra for her lecherie þat falsly made her husonðs forto dye
He redde it wip ful good deuocion 740
He tolde me for what occasion
Amphiorax at thebes lost his lif
Myn husonde had a legende of his wif
Eriphilem . þat for an ouche of golde hap prively vnto þe grekes tolde 744
PETWORTH (6-r. 864)

Than sitte he doune and write in his dotage
That wemmen kan nouht kepe here Mariage Not now to purpos why .I. tolde þe þat .I. was beten for a booke parde 712
Vpon a nyght Iankyn þat was our sire
Radd on his boke as he satte þe þe fyre
Of Eua first þat for hire wyckednesse
Was al man kinde first brount to wretchednesse 716
[for which Ihesu crist / him self was slayne
that bought vs with his herte blood agayne
lo here expresse of recorde / may yo fynde
that woman was the loce / of al mankynde] þe redde he me howe sampson lost his heris Slepynge his lemman kut it wipþe hire scheris Thorwhe which tresson leste he bope his eyzen þe redde he me if þat .I. schal nouht lyen 724
Of Hercules & of Dyanmyre þat caused him to seth him self a fire Noþinge forgate he þe penance and woo 728 þat Socrates had wipþe his wyues tuo Howe þat ancipa keet pisse on his hede þis seely man satte still as he were dede
He wypp his hede no more dorst he scine 732
Bot er þat þonder stinte compe a raine
Of Phasipha þat was queene of Crete
For schrewednesse him þouht þe tale swete
Ey speke no more it [is] a grisly þynge 736
Of hire orrible lust and hir lykynge
Of Clitemistra for hir lycherie þat falsly maad hir husband for to deye
He red it wip ful good deuocion 740
He tolde me for what occasion
Amphiorax att Thebes lost his lif
Myne husband hadd a legend of his wif
Eriphilem þat for a nouche of golde
Hape prively vnto þe Grekes tolde 744
LANSDOWNE (6-r. 864)

Wher that hir housbonde / hidde hym in a place for which / he hadde at Thebes sory grace

¶ Of Lyyna tolde he me / and of Lucey

They bothe / made hir housbondes for to dye

That on for loue / that oother was for hate

Lyyna hir housbonde / vp-on an euen late

Empoysoned hath / for þat she was his fo

Lucia likerous / loued hire housbonde so

That for he sholde / alwey vp-on hire thynke

She yaf hym / swich a manere loue drynke

That he was dedd / er it were by the morwe

And thus algates / housbondes han sorwe

¶ Thanne tolde he me / how þat oon Latumyus

Compleyned / vn-to his felawe Arrius

That in his gardyn / growed swich a tree

On which he seyde / and that hise wyues thre

Hanged hem self / for herte despitus

¶ O leue brother / quod this Arrius

Yif me a plante / of thilke blissed tree

And in my gardyn / planted it shal be

¶ Of latter date of wyues / hath he red

That somme / han slayn hir housbondes in hir bed

And lete hir lechour / dighte hire al the nyght

When that the corps / lay in the floor vp ryght

¶ And somme / han dryue nayles / in hir brayn

Whil þat they slepte / and thus they han hem slayn

¶ Somme han hem yene poysoun / in hir drynke

He spak moore harm / than herte may biþynke

And ther-withal / he knew of mo prouerbes

Than in this world / ther growen gras or herbes

Be is quod he / thyn habitacioun

Be with a leoue / or a foul dragoun

Than with a woman / veynge for to chyde

Be is quod he / hye in the roof abyde

Than with an angry wyf / down in the hous

They been so wilked and contrarious

ELLESMERE 188 (6-r. 355)

Wher þat hir housbonde / hidde hym in a place
for which / he hadde at Thebes sory grace

¶ Of Lyyna tolde he me / and of Lucey

They bothe / made hir housbondes for to dye

That oon for loue / that oother was for hate

Lyyna hir housbonde / on an euen late

Empoysoned hath / for þat she was his fo

Lucya likerous / loued hir housbonde so

That for he sholde alwey / vp-on hir thynke

She yaf hym / swich a manere loue drynke

That he was dedd / er it were by the morwe

And thus algates / housbondes han sorwe

¶ Thanne tolde he me / how þat oon latumyus

Compleyned / vn-to his felawe Arrius

That in his gardyn / growed swich a tree

On which he seyde / how þat hise wyues thre

Hanged hem self / for hertes despitus

¶ O leue brother / quod this Arrius

Yif me a plante / of thilke blessed tree

And in my gardyn / planted shal it be

¶ Of latter date of wyues / hath he red

That somme han slayn / hir housbondes in hir bed

And lete hir lechour / dighte hire al the nyght

When þat the corps / lay in the floor vp ryght

¶ And somme / han dryuen nayles / in hir brayn

Whil þat they slepte / and thus they han hem slayn

¶ Somme han hem yene poysoun / in hir drynke

He spak moore harm / than herte may biþynke

And ther with al / he knew of mo prouerbes

Than in this world / ther growen gras or herbes

Be is quod he / thyn habitacioun

Be with a leou / or a foul dragoun

Than with a woman / veyng for to chyde

Be is quod he / hye in the roof abyde

Thaa with an angry wyf / down in the hous

They been so wilked / and contrarious

HENGWRT 150 (6-r. 356)

Where þat hire husbonde hidde hym in a place
for which he hadde at thebes sory grace

Of Lyyna tolde he me & of Lucey

Th[er] bothe made here husbondis for to dye

That on-for loue that oþer for hate

Lyyna hire housbonde on an eyue late

Empoysonede hath for þat sche was his fo

Lucya lykrouse louede hire husbonde so

That he schulde alwey on hire thynke

Sche gaf hym swich a manere loue drynke

That he was ded er it was by þe morwe

And þus algatys housbondis haddyn sorwe

Thanne tolde he me how on latymus

Compleynede to his felawe Arrius

That in hyse gardyn growede swych a tre

On which he seyde þat his wyues thre

Hangede hem self for herte despitous

O leue brothir quod this Arrius

Gif me a plante of thilke blisseed tre

And in myn gardyn schal it plantuede be

¶ Of latter date of wyues þanne he radde

That some han slayn here housbondis in here bedde

And leet hire lectour dyste hire al þe nyjt

Whil þat þe cors lay in þe floor vp-ryjt

And some han dryue a nayl in here brayn

Whil þat þey slepte & þus þey han hem slayn

Some han seue hem poysoun in here drynk

He spak more harm than herte may be-thyng

And þer-with-al he knew mo prouerbis

Than in this world þere growe gras or erbis

Be is quod he þat thyn habitacioun

Be with a lyous or a foul dragoun

Than with a waman veynge for to chyde

Be is quod he hye in þe roof a-byde

Thaa with a wekede woman down in an hous

They been so wekkes & so contrarious

CAMBRIDGE 188 (6-r. 355)

748

752

(6-r. 18)

756

760

764

768

772

776

780

748

752

756

760

764

768

772

776

780

748

752

756

760

764

768

772

776

780

SIX-TEXT 355
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Corpus MS.

Wher þat hir husbond hid him in a place for which he hadde at Thobes sory grace
 Of lyma tolde he me and of luyce
 They bope made her husbondes for to dye
 That on for loue þat oþer was for hate lyma hire housbonde on euen late Empoysoned hadde for sche was his foo
 Lucia likerous loued hir husbond so
 That for he seholve vpon hir alwey þinke
 Sche yat him such a loue maner drynke
 That he was dede er it was by þe morwe
 And þus algates housbondes han sorwe
 Than tolde he me how on latunus
 Compleyned to his felaw arius
 That in his gardyn growed such a tree On which he seyde þat his wyues þre hanged hemselue for hertes dispitous
 O leue broþer quod þis arius
 gif me a plante of þat blisful tree
 And in my gardyn planted schal it be/
 Of later date of wyues hap he reldo
 That han slayne here housbondes in þe bedde
 And leet hir lechoure dight hir al þe night
 When þat þe corps lay in þe floore vpright
 And some han dreuen nayles in here brayn
 While þat þei slepe and þus þei han hem slayn
 Some han zinen poysen in here drynke
 He spak more harme þan herte may beþynke
 And þer-wiþ al he knewe of moe prouerbes
 þan in þis worlde þer growen grasse or herbes Bet is quod he þin habitacion
 Be with a leoun or a foul dragon
 Than with a woman vsing for to chyde
 Bet is quod he heith in þe roof abyde
 Than wiþ an angry wif down in an hous
 They ben so wicked and contrarious

CORPUS (S-T. 356)

SIX-TEXT 356
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Petworth MS.

wher þat her husbond hidde hym in a place for which he had at Thobes sory grace
 Of lyma tolde he me and of luyce
 þei boþ made her husbondes for to dye
 That on for loue þat oþer was for hate lyma her husbonde on euen late Empoysoned had for þat she was his foo Lucia lykerous loued her husbond soo / þat for he shuld vpen her alwey þinke
 She zane hym such a loue maner drinko
 That he was dede or it was by þe morwe
 And þus algates husbondes han sorwe ¶ Than tolde he me howe on latunus
 Compleyned to his felawe arius
 That in his gardyne growed such a tre
 On which he seide þat his wyues þre
 Hangged hem selue for hertes despitous
 O leue broþer quod þis arius
 zeeu me a plant of þat blisful tre
 And in my gardyne planted schal it be Of latter date of wyues hap he reldo þat han slayn her husbondes in þe bedde
 But lat hire lechoure dight hur al þe nyjt
 When þat þe corps lay in þe floore vpright
 And some han dreuen nayles in her brays
 While þat þei slepe and þus þei han hem slayn
 Somme han zenen poysen in her drinko
 He spak more harme þan hert may þenk
 And þer-wiþ al he knewe of moe prouerbes
 þan in þis worlde þer growen grasse or herbes /
 Bet is quod he þine habitacion Be wiþ a leon or a foule dragon þan wiþ a woman vsing for to chyde Bet is quod he high in þe roof abyde þan wiþ an angry wif down in an hous þei bene so wicked and contrarious /

PETWORTH (S-T. 355)

SIX-TEXT 355
 GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Lansdowne MS.

Wher þat hir husbond hid him in a place
 For which he hadd at Thobes sori grace Off lyma tolde he me . & of luyce þei bope maade her husbondes for to deye That oone for loue þe toþer was for hate lyma hir housbonde on euen late Empoysond had for þat sche was his foo Lucia likerous loued hire husbond soo þat for he schold vpon hire alweis þinke Sche zane him such a loue maner drinko þat he was dede or it was be þe morwe
 And þus algates husbondes haue sorwe þan tolde he me howe one latunus
 Compleyned to his felawe Arius
 That in his gardyne groued such a tre
 On which he seide þat his wyues þre
 Honged hem self for hertes dispitous
 O leue broþer quod þis Arius
 gif me a plante of þat blisful tre
 And in my gardyne plantid it schal be ¶ Of latter date of wyues hap he ralde þat han slayne here husbonde in þer bedde
 And lete hire lychoure dight hire al þe nyjt
 When þat þe cors laie in floore vpright
 And eueu haue dreuen nayles in here brayne
 While þat þei slepe and þus þei haue hem slayne
 Some haue zenen poysen in my drynke
 He spake more harme þan hert maie be þynke
 And þer-wiþ al he knewe of moe prouerbes
 þan in þis worlde þer growen grasse or herbes
 Bet is quod he þin habitacione Be wiþ a leoun or a foule dragono þan wiþ a woman vsinge for to chyde Better is quod he hithe in þe roof abyde þan wiþ an angre wif down in an hous þei bene so wikked and contrarious

LANSDOWNE (S-T. 356)

They haten / that hir housbondes / Ioueth ay
 He seyde / a womman oust hir shame away
 When she cast of hir smok and farther mo
 A fair woman / but she be chaast also
 Is lyk a gold ryng¶ in a sowes nose
 Who wolde leues / or who wolde suppose
 The wo / that in myn herte was and pyne
 ¶ And when I saugh / he wolde neuere fyne
 To reden on this cursed bok al nyght
 Al sodeynly / thre leues haue I plyght
 Out of his bok right as he radde / and eke
 I with my fest¶ so tok hym on the cheke
 That in oure fyr / he fil bakward adoun
 And he vp sturte / as flooth a wood leoun
 And with his fest¶ he smoot me on the heed
 That in the floor / I lay / as I were deed
 And when he saugh / how stille pat I lay
 He was agast and wolde han fled his way
 Til atte laste / out of my swogh I breyde
 O hastow slayn me / false theef I seyde
 And for my land / thus hastow mordred me
 Er I be deed / yet wol I kisse thee
 ¶ And neer he cam / and kneled faire adoun
 And seyde / deere suster Alison
 As help me god / I shal thee neuere smyte
 That I haue don / it is thy self to wryte
 fforyene it me / and that I thee biseke
 And yet eft soones / I hitte hym on the cheke
 And seyde theof / thus muchel am I wreke
 Now wol I dye / I may no lenger speke
 But atte laste / with muchel care and wo
 We fille accorded / by vs selnen two
 He yaf me / at the bridel in myn hond
 To han the guernance / of hous and lond
 And of his toung / and his hond also
 And made hym brenne his bok anon right tho

They haten / that hir housbondes loueth ay
 He seyde / a womman / cast hir shame away
 When she cast of hir smok¶ and farther mo
 A fair woman / but she be chaast also
 Is lyk a gold ryng¶ in a sowes nose
 Who wolde wene / or who wolde suppose
 The wo / that in myn herte was and pyne
 ¶ And when I say / he wolde neuere fyne
 To reden / on this cursed bok al nyght
 Al sodeynly / thre leues / haue I plyght
 Out of his bok right as he radde / and eke
 I with my fist¶ so tok [him] on the cheke
 That in oure fyr / he fil bakward adown
 And he vp sturte / as dooth a wood leoun
 And with his fest¶ / he smoot me on the heed
 That in the floor / I lay as I were deed
 And when he say / how stille pat I lay
 He was agast and wolde haus fled his way
 Til atte laste / out of my swogh I breyde
 O hastow slayn me / false theef I seyde
 And for my land / thus hastow mordred me
 Er I be deed / yet wol I kisse thee
 ¶ And neer he cam / and kneled faire adoun
 And seyde / deere suster Alison
 As help me god / I shal thee neuere smyte
 That I haue don / it is thy self to wryte
 fforyene it me / and that I thee biseke
 And yet eft soones / I hitte hym on the cheke
 And seyde theof / thus muchel am I wreke
 Now wol I dye / I may no lenger speke
 ¶ But at the laste / with muchel care and wo
 We fille accorded / by vs selnen two
 He yaf me / at the brydel in myn hond
 To han the guernance / of hous and lond
 And of his toung / and his hond also
 And made hym brenne his bok anon right tho

They hatyn that here housbondys Iouyn ay
 He seyde a woman caste hire schame a-way
 When sche caste of hire smok¶ & farther mo ¶ A fayr woman but sche be chaast also Is lik a golde ryng in a sowis nose
 Ho wolde wene or ho wolde suppose
 The wo that in myn herte was & pyne
 And I saw pat he wolde neuere fyne
 But redyn on hise cursede bok al nygt
 Al sodelyn thre louys haue I plygt
 Out of his bok as he sat ful meke
 And with myn fist so tok I hym on þe cheke
 That in oure fyre he fyl bakward a-doun
 And he vp sturte as doth a wood Iouyn
 And with his fist he smot me on the heed
 That in the floor I lay as I were ded
 And when he saw how styll I lay
 He was a-gast & fleilde a-way
 Til at þe laste out of myr swow I breyde
 O hast þu slayn me thet I seyde
 And þus for myn lond wif þu mordere me Er I be ded þit wole I kyss the
 And nee he cam & knelede fyre a-doun
 And seyde myn dere sistyr alyoun
 Als helpe me god I schal þu neuere smyte
 That I haue don It is thygn self to wryte ffor þene it me & þat I þe be-soke
 And þit eft-sonys I hitte hym on the cleke
 And seyde thet þu moche I may me wreke
 Now wole I deys I may no lenger speke
 But at þe laste wif þu meche care & wo
 We fille a-cordit by oure seluyn two
 He gaf me al þe brydyl in myn hond
 To haue guernance of hous & lond
 And of his tynge & of his hond also
 And made hym to brenne his bok ryȝt þe þey hateþ þat her housbondes loueþ ay, he seyde a woman cast hir schame away

 When sche cast of hir smok and forþerno
 A fair woman but sche be chaste also [leaf 114, back] 784
 Is lyk a goldryng on a sowes nose Who wolde wene or wolde suppose þe woc þat in myn herte was and pyne
 And when I saugh he wolde neuer fyne
 To reden on þis cursed book at night
 Al sodenly þre leues haue I plight
 Out of his book right as he red and eke
 I with my fist so toke him on þe cheke þat inoure fire he fille bakward adoun
 And he vpsterte as doþ a wood leoun
 And with his fist he smot me on þe heed þat in þe floor I lay as I were dead And when he saugh how stille þat I lay he was agast and wolde han fledde away
 Til atte laste out of my swows I brayde
 O hast þou slayn me false þeeþ I sayde
 And for my loud þus hastow moordred me /
 Or I be dede þit wol I kisse þe
 And nere he come and knoled faire adoun
 And seyde deere suster alison
 As helpe me god I schal þe neuer smyte þat I haue douon it is þi self to wyte forþeue it me and þat I þe beseke /
 And þit eftsones I hitte him on þe cheke /
 And seyde þeeþ þus mochel am I wreke
 Nowe wil I dye I may no longer speke
 But at þe laste / wip mochel care and woo
 We falle accorded by vs saluen tuo he þaf me at þe brydel in myn hond
 To haue þe gouernance of hous and lond
 And of his tunge and of his hand also/
 And made him breane his book anon right þo
 CORPUS (6-T. 356)

þei haten þat her housbondes louen ay
 He seide a woman cast her shame away when she cast of her smoke and ferþerno
 A faire woman but she be chaste also / [leaf 114] 784 Is licht a gold ryng on a sowes nose who wold wene or wold suppose
 The woc þat in myn herte was and pyne
 And when I segh he wolde neuere fyne
 To reden on þis cursed boke al nyght
 Al soðeonly þre leues haue I plitþ
 Out of his boke right as he redde and eke
 I wip my fist so toke him on þe cheke
 That in our fire he fille bakward adoun
 And he vp stert as doþ a wood lyoun
 And wip his fist he smote me on þe hede þat in þe flore I laie as I were dede
 And when he seegh how stille þat I lay
 He was agast and wold han fledde away
 Til at þe laste out of my swows I breide
 O hastowe sclayne me fals þeeþ I seide
 And for my loud þus hastowe moordred me
 Or I be dede þit wil I kisse þe
 And nere he come and knoled faire adoun
 And seide dere suster Alison
 As helpe me god I schal þe neuere smyte
 That I haue done it is þi self to wite
 forþeue it me and þat I þe beseke
 And þit eftsones I hit kym on þe cheke
 And seide þeeþ þus moche am I wreke
 Nowe wil I dye I may no longer speke
 But at þe last wip mochel care and woo
 We fille accorded by vs saluen tuo
 He þaue me at þe brydel in myn honde.
 To haue þe gouernance of hous and lond
 And of his tunge and his hand also
 And made him brene his boke anon right þo
 PETWORTH (6-T. 356)

þei hateþ þat her husbunde loueþ aye
 He seid a woman kest hir schame awaye
 When sche cast of hire smok and forþerno
 A faire woman bot sche be chaste also 784
 Is like a gold ringe on a sowes nose Who walde wene or wold suppose þe woc þat in myne hert was and pine And when I sawe he wolde neuer fyne
 To reden on þis cursed booke al nyht
 Al sodanly . þre leues had . I. plyht .
 Out of his boke riht as he redde and eke [leaf 85, back] 792
 .I. wip my fist so toke him on þe cheke
 þat in cure fire he fol bakward a-doune
 And he vp stert as doþe a woode lyone
 And wip his fist he smote me on þe hede þat in þe flore .I. laie as .I. ware dede
 And when he sawhe howe stille þat .I. laie
 He was a-gast and wolde haue fledde a-waie
 Til atte þast owte of myne swoche .I. braide
 O hastowe alyene me false þeþ .I. seide
 And for my lande þus hast þou morþerd me
 Or .I. be dede þit wil .I. kisse þe
 And nere he come and knoled faire a-doune
 And seide dere suster Alison
 As helpe me god .I. schal þe neuer smyte þat .I. haue douon it is þi self to wite
 For-þeue it me and þat .I. þe be-seke
 And þit eft-sones .I. hitte him on þe cheke
 And seide þeþ þus wil .I. me awreke
 Nowe wil .I. dye .I. maie no longer speke
 Bot at þe last wip muelch care and woo
 We fell accorded he cure saluen tuo
 He þaue me al þe bryde in myn honde
 To haue þe gouernance of owse and lond
 And of his tunge and of his honde also
 And made him bime his boke anon riht þo
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 356)

And whan that I / hadde gotten vn-to me
 By maistris / al the soneraynetee
 And that he seide / myn owene trowe wyf
 Do as thes lust to terme of al thy lyf Keepe thyn honour / and keepe eek myn estaat/
 After that day / we hadden neuer debat
 God helpe me so / I was to hym as kynde
 As any wyf from Denmark vn-to Ynde
 And also trewe / and so was he to me
 I pray to god / that sit in magestee
 So blesse his soule / for his mercy deere
 Now wol I seye my tale / if ye wol heere

820

824

828

And whan that I hadde / gotten vn-to me
 By maistrye / al the soneraynetee
 And pat he seide / myn owene trowe wyf
 Do as thes lust the terme of al thy lyf Keepe thyn honour / and keepe eek rayn estaat
 After that day / we hadde neuere debat/
 God help me so / I was to hym as kynde
 As any wyf / from Denmark vn-to Inde
 And also trewe / and so was he to me
 I pray to god / that sit in magestee
 So blysse his soule / for his mercy deere
 Now wol I seye my tale / if ye wol heere

820

[text 824]

828

And whanne I hadde I-geteyn on to me
 By maystere al þe souerayntee
 Thanne he seide myn owene trowe wyf
 Do as þe leste for terme of al þoure lyf Keepe thyn honour & thyn estat
 Aftr þat day we ne hadden neuere debat
 God help me so I was to hym as kynde
 As any wif from denmark vn-to Inde
 And as trewe & so was he to me
 I preye to god þat sit in mageste
 So blysse his soule for his mercy deere
 Now wile I seye myn tale þif þe wile heere

820

824

828

¶ Biholde the wordes bitwene the Somonour / and the frere ☉

The frere lough / whan he hadde herd al this Now dame quod he / so haue I ioye or blis
 This is / a long preamble of a tale

And whan the Somonour / herde the frere gale ¶ Lo quod the Somonour / goddes Armes two A frere / wol entremette him euere-mo
 Lo goode men / a fye and eek a frere
 Wol falle / in euery dysch and matere
 What spekestow / of preambulacioun
 What amble / or trotte / or pes / or go sit doun
 Thou lettest oure disport / in this manere ¶ Ye woltow so / sire Somonour quod the frere
 Now by my feith / I shal er that I go Telle of a Somonour / swich a tale or two That alle the folk / shal laughen in this place ¶ Now elles frere / I bishrewe thy face Quod this Somonour and I bishrewe mo
 But if I telle tales / two or thre
 Of freres / er I come to Sidyngborne
 That I shal make / thyn herte for to morne

822

826

840

844

848

[The Wrangle between the Summoner and Friar.]

The frere lough / whan he hadde herd al this Now dame quod he / so haue I ioye / or blys
 This is a long preamble / of a tale

And whan the Somnour / herde the frere gale ¶ Lo quod the Somnour / goddes armes two
 A frere / wol entremette hym euere mo
 Lo goode men / a fye / and eek a frere
 Wol falle in euery dysch and matere
 What spekestow / of preambulacioun
 What amble / or trotte / or pes / or go sit doun
 Thou lettest oure disport / in this manere

822

826

840

844

848

[The Wrangle between the Summoner and Friar.]

The frere low whan he hadde herd al this Now dame quod he also haue I ioye or blis
 This is a long preamble of a tale

And whan þe sommour herde þe frere gale
 Lo quod the sommour hi goddes armies too
 A frere wile entremette hym euere mo
 Lo goode men a fye & ek a frere Wile falle in euery dish & matere
 What spekest þou of preambulacioun
 What amble or trotte or pes or go sit doun þou leyst oure desport in þis matere

822

826

840

[text 844]

848

And whan þat I hadde gotten vnto me
By maistrie al þe souerainte * þan he seyde myn owne trewe wyf

Do as þou list þe terme of alle þy lif /

[leaf 114, back, at bottom of the page]
[leaf 114, for 113]

kepe þin honour and keep eek myn estate /

After þat day we hadde neuer delate /
God help me so I was to him as kynde

As any wyf from Denmark in to ynde

And al so trewe and so was he to me /

I pray to god þat siþe in mageste

So blisse his soule for his mercy dere

Now wol I telle my tale if þe wol hereo

¶ Here endep þe prologe of þe gode wiþ of Baþe

[The Wrangle between the Sumner and Friar.]

The frere lowt when he haþ herd al þis
Now dame quod he so haue I ioye or bliis

This is a long<sup>1</sup> preamble of a tale

And whan þis somnour herde þe freere gale /

Lo quod þe somnour goddes armes tuo

A freere wille entremete him euermoo

To gode men a fye and eek a freere

Wille falle in euery disseche and eek matiere /

What spekest þou of preambulacion

What amble or trotte or pees or goo sitte down

Thou lettest oure disport in þis manere /

To wolow so þou somnour quod þe frere /

Now by my fay I schal er þat I go,

Telle of a Somnour such a tale or tuo

That alle þe folk schulle laughen in þis place

Now elles frere I beschrewe þy face

Quod þis somnour and I byschrewe me /

But if I telle þe tales tuo or þre

Of freres or I come to Sydyngborne þat I schal make þin herte for to morne

CORPUS (6-T. 357)

And whan þat I had gotten vnto me
By maistery al þe souerainte .

þan he seide myn owne trewe wif
Do as þou leest þe terme of al þoure lif

[leaf 114, back]

kepe þoure honoure and kepe eke myn astate

After þat day we had neuere debate .

God helpe me so I was to him as kinde

As any wif from denmarke into Ynde

And also trewe / and so was he to me

I pray to god þat siþe in mageste

So blisse his soule for his mercy dere

Now wil I seie my tale if þe wil here

¶ Thus endep þe prologe of þe wif of bath

And here bygyneþ þe Tale.<sup>1</sup>

[leaf 6, The Wrangle between the Sumner and the Friar.]

The frere lowe whan he had herd al þis
Now dame quod he so haue I ioye or bliis

þis is a longe preamble of a tale

And whan þis somnour herd þe frere gale

Lo quod þe somnour goddis armes tuo

A frere wil entremete hys euermoo

Lee good men a fie and eke a frere wolken falle in euery disseit and eke matere

what spekest þou of preambulacion

what amble or trotte or pees or goo sitte down

Thou lettest oure disport in þis manere

þe wille þou so somnour quod þe frere /

Now by my fay I shal er þat I goo

Telle a somnour such a tale or tuo

That alle þe folk shul laughen in þis place

Now elles frere I bishrewe þi face

Quod þis somnour and I bishrewe me

But if I telle þe tales tuo or þre

Of freres er I come to sidyngborne

þat I shal make þine hert for to morne

4 z PETWORTH (6-T. 357)

And whan þat I. had gotten vn-to me
Do maistro al þe souerainte þan he seide myne owen trewe wif

Do as þu lyst þe terme of al my lyf

Kepe þine honour and kepe eke myn astate

After þat daie we had neuere debate

God helpe me so .I. was to him als kinde

As any wryf fro danmark in-to hinde

And also trewe and so was he to me

.I. pmiss to god þat siþe in maicste

So blisse his sowle for his mercy dere

Nowe wil .I. seie my tale . if þe wil here

¶ The tale.

[The Wrangle between the Sumner and Friar.]

The frere lowe whan he had herd al þis Nowe dame quod he so haue .I. ioye or bliis

þis is a longe preamble of a tale

And whan þe Somenour herde þe frere gale

Lo quod þe Somenour be goddes armes tuo

A frere wil entremete him euer mo

To godmen a fye and eke a frere wil fid in euery disseche and eke matere

What spekest þow of preambulacione

What amble or trote or kees or goo sitte adoune

Thou lettest owre disporte in þis manere þe wil-tow so Somenour quod þe frere

Nowe be fay .I. schal er þat .I. go

Tell of a somenour . such a tale or tuo

þat al þe folke schal lawhen in þis place

Nowe elles frere .I. beschrewe þi face

Quod þis Somenour . and .I. be-schrewe me

Bot .I. teil þe tales tuo or þre

Of freres ar .I. come to sideingborne þat .I. schal make þine herte for to morne

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 357)

[leaf 9r. It repeats
And whan þe somnour our herd þe frere gale]

820

824

828

824

828

830

824

828

832

834

840

844

848

832

836

840

844

848

820

824

828

832

836

840

844

848

858 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Ellesmere MS. 191

ffor wel I woot thy pacience is gon

¶ Oure hoost cryde pees / and that anon

And seyde / lat the womman telle hire tale

Ye fare as folk / that dronken were of Ale

852

Do dame / telle forth youre tale / and that is best

¶ Al redy sire quod she / right as yow lest

If I haue licence / of this worthy frere

¶ Yis dame quod he / tel forth / and I wol heere

856

¶ Heere endeth the Wyf of Bathe hir Prologe /

358 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Hengwrt. MS. 153

ffor wel I woot thy pacience is gon

¶ Oure hoost cryde pees / and that anon

And seyde / lat the womman / telle hir tale

Ye fare as folk / that dronken ben of Ale

852

Do dame / tel forth youre tale / and that is best

¶ Al reddy sire quod she / right as yow lest

If I haue licence / of this worthy frere

¶ Yis dame quod he / tel forth / and I wol heere

856

¶ Here endeth the prologe of the Wyf of Bathe

358 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. Cambridge MS. 191

ffor wel I wot þyn pacience is goon

Oure ost cryede pees &amp; þat anon

And seyde lat þe woman telle hire tale

þe fare as folk dronke were of ale

852

Doth dame tellyth forth youre tale &amp; þat is best

Al redy sire quod sche ryght at youre lest þif I haue lycens of þis worþi frere þis dame telle forth &amp; I schal here

856

Here endith þe prologe of the wyues tale of Bathe.

[Gap of one line in the MS.]

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. SIX-TEXT 358
Corpus MS.

for wel I wotþ þy pacience is gon
 Our hoete cryde pees and þatʳ anon
 And seyde latʳ þe womman telle hir tale /
 Ye faren as folkʳ þatʳ dronken ben of ale 852
 Do dame telle forþ youre tale and þatʳ is beste
 Al redy sirs quod sche rihtʳ as þow leste [¹If I haue lience of þis worþi frere (¹MS end 2292. 17116, 14)] [¹Yis dame telle] forþ þi tale I wol here 856

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. SIX-TEXT 358
Petworth MS.

for wel I wote þi pacience is goff
 Our hoostʳ cried pees and þatʳ anon
 And seide latʳ þe womman telle her tale þe faren as folkʳ þatʳ dronken ben of ale / 852
 Do dame telle forþ þour tale þatʳ is þe bestʳ (pet 14)
 Al redy sirs quod she rihtʳ as þou lestʳ
 If I haue lience of þis worþi frere þis dame quod he telle forþ þoure tale we wil here 856

[No break in the MS.]

GROUP D. § 1. WIFE'S PREAMBLE. SIX-TEXT 358
Lansdowne MS.

For wele .I. wote þi pacien is gone
 Owre cote cried pees and þat a-none
 And seide lat þe womman tel hir tale þe faren as folken bien of ale 852
 Do dame tel forþe þowe tale and þat is best Al redi sirs quod sche riht as þow lest þif .I. haue lience of þis worþi frere þis dame quod he tell forþe þi tale .I. wil here 856

And bigynnoth hir tale

[on leaf 78]

IN tholde dayes / of Kyng Arthour
 Of which that Britons / spoken greet honour
 All was this land / fulfild of fairye
 The Elf queene / with hir ioly compaignye 860
 Daunced ful ofte / in many a grene mede
 This was the olde opinion as I rede
 I speke / of manye hundred yeres ago
 But now kan no man / so none Elues no 864
 fior now the grette charitee / and prayers
 Of lymytours / and others hooly frees
 That serchen / euery lond / and euery stream
 As thikke / as motes / in the sonne beem 868
 Blessyng halles / chambres / kichenes / bouris
 Citees / Burghes / Castels / hye Touris
 Thropes / Bernes / Shipnes / dayeryes
 This maketh / that ther been no fairyes 872 fior ther as wont<sup>2</sup> to walken was an Elf
 Ther walketh now / the lymytour hym self
 In vndermeles / and in morwenynges
 And seyth his matyns / and his hooly thynges 876
 As he gooth / in his lymytacioun
 Wommen / may go sauely vp and down
 In euery bussh / or vnder euery tree
 Ther is / noon oother Incubus / but he 880
 And he / ne wol doon hem / but dishonour
 ¶ And so bifel / that this kyng<sup>1</sup> Arthour Hadde in hous / a lusty Bachelor
 That on a day / cam rydyng fro Ryner 884
 ELLESMERE 192 (6-T. 869)

¶ Here bigynnoth the tale / of the Wyf of Bathe <sup>(a)</sup>

[leaf 85, back]

IN tholde dayes / of the kyng Arthour
 Of which that Britons / spoken greet honour
 Al was this land / fulfild of fairye
 The Elf queene / with hir ioly compaignye 860
 Daunced ful ofte / in many a grene mede
 This was / the olde opynyon / as I rede
 I speke / of many hundred yerys ago
 But now kan no man / so none Elues no 864
 fior now the grette charitee / and prayers
 Of lymytours / and others hooly frees
 That serchen / euery lond and euery stream
 As thikke / as motes in the sonne beom 868
 Blessyng halles / chambres / kichenes bouris
 Citees / Burghes / Castels / hye Touris
 Thropes / Bernes / Shipnes / dayeryes
 This maketh / þat ther been no fairyes 872
 fior ther as wont<sup>2</sup> to walken was an Elf
 Ther walketh now / the lymytour hym self
 In vndermeles / and in morwenynges
 And seith his matyns / and his hooly thynges 876
 As he gooth / in his lymytacioun
 Wommen / may go sauely vp and down
 In euery bussh / or vnder euery tree
 Ther is noon oother Incubus / but he 880
 And he ne wol doon hem / but dishonour
 ¶ And so bifel / that this kyng<sup>1</sup> Arthour Hadde in his hous / a lusty Bachelor
 That on a day / cam rydyng fro Ryner 884
 HENGWRT 154 (6-T. 850)

Here begynneth the wyf of bathe hire tale [leaf 82, back]

[Painting of the Wife]

IN olde dayis of kyng Arthour
 Of whiche þat brytons spekyn greet honour
 Al was this lond ful fylde of fayrye
 The elf queene wyth hire companye 860
 Damedes ful ofte in many a grene mede
 This was the olde opynyon as I rede
 I speke of manye hunderede yeres ago
 But now can no man so eluys no 864 fior now the charitee & þe prayris
 Of lymytours & of oþere hooly freys
 That serchen euery lond & euery stream
 As thikke as motys in þe some beem 868
 Blessen halles chaumbory[s] kichenys bourys Ceteis borwys castels hyghe tourys Thropes bernys / Schipnes dayryis That makyth that þere ben no fayryis 872 fior þere as wont<sup>2</sup> for to walke an elf There walkyth now þe lymytour hym self
 In vndermeles & in morwenyngis
 And seyth hye matynys & hye hoolye thyngis 876
 As he goth in hye lymytacioun
 Wemen moue go sauely vp & downs
 In euery bussh & vnder euery tree
 There is nower non Incubus but he 880
 And he wale doo hym non dishonour
 And so be-fel þat this kyng Arthour Hadde in his hous a ryche bachelor
 That on a day cam rydyng fro reuer 884
 CAMBRIDGE 192 (6-T. 869)

[Here bigynneth] þe goode wyues tale of bathes (ms. l. 101, 102) [MS. not shown.]

[THE WIFE OF BATH'S TALE]

Incipit fabula vxoris de Bathonia.

In olde dayes of þe king' arthur [O]f which þat bretons spoken gret' honour
[A]ll was þis land fulfild of fayrie
[T]he elfe queen with hire ioly compaignie 860
[D]aunced wipouten in manye greene medes
[T]his was þe olde opynion as I rede
[I] speke of many' hundred þere ago
[B]ut now can no man see non elues moo 864
[F]or þe grette charite and þe preyeres
[O]f lymytours and oþre powere freeres
[T]hat serchen euery land and euery steem
[A]s pikke as motes in þe sonne beem Blissynge halles chambres boures
[C]itees burghes castels hille toures
[T]hopes barnes schipones dayeries
This makeþ þat þer ben no fayries 872
for þer as wonte to walke as an elf
Ther walkeþ now þe lymytour himself
In vndermeles and in morwenynges
And seiþ his matyns and his holy pinges 876
As he goþ in his lymytacioun
Wommen may go now sauþy vp and doun
In euery bushi or vnder euery tre
þer is non oþer Incubus but he 880
And he wol do hem but dishonour
And so falle it / þat þis king' arthur hadde in his hous a lusty bachelere þat on a day cam rydyng' fro ryuere 884

CORPUS (G-T. 359)

In þe olde dayes of þe king' arthur [O]f which þat bretons spoken grette honour
All was þis land fulfilled of fayry þe Elfe queene wip her Ioly compaigne 860 Daunced wip out' in mony a grene mede þis was þe olde opynion as I rede
I speke of mony an .C. þere ago
But now can no man see noon elues moo 864 for nowe þe grette charite and preiers
Of lymytours and oþer poor freeres
That serchen euery londe and euery steeme
As pikke as motes in þe sonne beeme 868
Blissinge halles chamberts and boures
Citees burghes castels hille toures
Thropes . barnes . shippes . dayries
This makeþ þat þer ben no fayries 872
for þer as wonte to walke as an elf
Ther walkeþ nowe þe lymytour hym self
In vnder meles and in morningges
And seiþ his matyns and his holy pinges 876
As he goþ in his lymytacioun
Wommen may go nowe sauþy vp and doun
In euery bushi or vnder euery tre
þer is non oþer Incubus but he 880
And he wil do hem but dishonour
And so falle it þat þis king' Arthour
Had in his hous a lusty bachelere
That on a day came rydyng' fro ryuere 884

PETWORTH (G-T. 359)

In þe olde daies of þe kinge Arthoure
Of which þat bretons spoken grette honoure .
All was þis land fulfilled of faire
The Elphe queene wip hir Ioly compaignie 860 Daunced withe-oute in mony a grene mede þis was þe olde opinion þat .L. rede
.I. speke of mony a .C. þere ago
But now can no man see none elues moo 864
For þe grette charite and þe preiers Of lymytours and of oþer powere freers þat serchen euery lande and euery steeme
As pikke as motes in þe sonne beame 868
Blissinge halles chambres boures
Citees burghes Castels hille toures Thropes barnes schippes dayeries þis makeþ þat þere be no fairies 872 For þere as was wonte to walke an elfe þer walkeþ nowe þe lymitor him self (ms. vt. back)
In vndermeles and in morwenynges
And seiþe his Matines and his holy pinges 876
As he goþ in his visitacioun
Wommen maie go nowe sauely vpe and dounne
In euery bossche or vnder euere-y tre
There is none oþer Incubus bot he 880
And he wil do hem bot dishonour
And so fel it þat þis kinge Arþoure Had in his house a lusty bachelier þat on a daie cam rideinge fro þe rouere 884

LANSDOWNE (G-T. 359)

And happed that alone / as he was born
 He saugh a mayde / walkynge hym biforn
 Of which mayde / anon maugree hir heed (leaf 76, back)
 By verray force / hirafte hire maydenhed 888 ffor which oppression / was swich clamour
 And swich pursute / vn-to the kyng Arthour
 That dampned was this knyght for to be deed
 By cours of lawe / and sholde han lost his heed 892
 Paraventure / swich was the statut tho
 But that the queene / and other ladyes mo
 So longe preydun / the kyng of grace
 Til he / his lyf / hym graunted in the place 896
 And yaf hym to the queene / al at hir wille
 To chese / whether / she wolde hym saue or spille
 ¶ The queene / thanketh the kyng with al hir myght
 And after this / thus spak she to the knyght 900
 When pat she saugh hir tyme vp-on a day
 Thou standest yet quod she / in swich array
 That of thy lyf / yet hastow no surtee 904
 I graunte thee lyf / if thou kanst tellen me
 What thyng is it that wommen moost desiren
 Be war / and keepe thy necke boon from Iren
 And if thou / kanst nat tellen it anon 908
 Yet shal I yene thee leue / for to gon
 A twelfmoneth and a day / to seche and lere
 An answee suffisant in this matere
 And seurete wol I han / er pat thou pace
 Thy body / for to yelden in this place 912
WO was this knyght / and sorowfully he siketh
 But he may nat do / al as hym liketh
 And at the laste / he chees hym for to wende
 And come agayn / right at the yere ende 916
 With swich answee / as god wolde hym purweye
 And taketh his leue / and wendeth forth his weye
 ¶ He seketh / every hous / and every place
 Where as he hopeth / for to fynde grace 920

And happed that alone / as he was born
 He say a mayde / walkynge hym biforn
 Of which mayde / anon mangree hir hed
 By verray force / he rafte hir maydenhed 888 ffor which oppressioun / was swich clamour
 And swich pursuute / vn-to the kyng Arthour
 That dampned was this knyght for to be deed
 By cours of lawe / and sholde han lost his heed (leaf 69)
 Par aventure / swich was the statut tho
 But that the queene / and other ladyes mo
 So longe preydun / the kyng of grace
 Til he his lyf / hym graunted in the place 896
 And yaf hym to the queene / al at hir wille
 To chese / whether she wolde / hym saue or spille
 The queen thanked the kyng with al hir myght
 And after this / thus spak she to the knyght 900
 When that she saw / hir tyme vp-on a day
 Thou standest yet quod she / in swich array
 That of thy lyf / yet hastow no surtee 904
 I graunte thee lyf / if thou kanst tellen me
 What thyng is it that wommen moost desiren
 Be war / and keepe thy necke boon from Iren
 And if thou kanst nat / tellen me anon 908
 Yet wol I yene thee leue / for to gon
 A twelf monthe and a day / to seche and lere
 An answee suffisant in this matere
 And seurete wol I han / er that thou pace
 Thy body / for to yelden / in this place 912
¶ Wo was this knyght / and sorowfully he siketh
 But what he may nat doon / al as hym liketh
 And atte laste / he chees hym for to wende
 And come agayn / right at the yere ende 916
 With swich answee / as god wolde hym purweye
 And taketh his leue / and wendeth forth his weye
 He seketh every hous / and every place
 Where as he hopeth / for to fynde grace 920

And happede a-ione as sche was born
 He saw a mayde cam rydyngge hym by-forn
 Of which maydyn anon maugry hire hed
 By verray force by-rafte he hire maydynhod 888 ffor which appreciuous was swych clamour
 And swych pursut to kyng arthour
 That dampned was the knygt for to be deed
 By cours of lawe & schulde a lost hye hood (leaf 104)
 Paraventure swich was the statate þe
 But that þe queen & oþere ladyis moo " 892
 So longe preyedys the kyng of grace
 Tyl he his lyf grauntede at þat place 896
 And gaf hym to the queen at hir wille
 To chese wheþer sche wolde hym saue or spille
 The queen thankede þe kyng with al hyre mygt
 And afyr this þus spak sche to þe knygt 900
 When sche saw hyre tyme vp-on a day
 Thou stondist þit quod sche in swich aray
 That of thyyn lyf [thou] hast no surtee 904
 I graunte þe lyf þit þou kanst telle me
 What thyng is that wumen moost desyryn
 Be-war & kep thy neke bon from yryn
 And þit þou canst not telle me anon 908 þit wele I ȝane þe leue for to goon
 A twelvemonth & a day to lere
 An answee sufficiant in this matire
 And surete wale I hane er þat þou pace
 Thyyn body for to ȝyldyn in þis place 912
Wo was this knygt & sorowfully he sikode
 But þit may he nat don as hym lykede
 And at þe laste he chees hym for to weende
 And come a-ȝen ryȝt at þe ȝerȝe ende 916
 With swich answee as god wolde hym purweye
 And takyth his leue & wendyth forth hye weye
 And seketh every hous & eury place
 Where as he hopith to fynde grace 920

And happed alone as sche was born he saugh a maiden walkyng<sup>h</sup> him bifore<sup>m</sup>
 Of which mayde maugre hire hed
 By verray force he refte hir maydenhed
 ffor which oppression was such clamour
 And swich pursute vnto þe king<sup>h</sup> arthour
 That dampned was þis knyght for to be dede
 By cours of lawe and scholde haue lost<sup>h</sup> his heed Perauenture such was þe statute þo
 But þat þe queene and oþer ladyes mo
 So longe preyede þe king<sup>h</sup> of grace /
 Til he his liff him graunted in þe place
 And yaf him to þe queen al at hire wille
 To chese wheþer sche wolde him sau<sup>o</sup> or spille
 The queen þoukeþ þe king<sup>h</sup> with alle hire might<sup>h</sup>
 And after þis þus spak<sup>h</sup> sche to þe knyght Whan þat sche seigh hir tyme on a day þou stondest<sup>h</sup> yet quod<sup>h</sup> sche in such aray
 þat of þi liff<sup>h</sup> ȝif hast<sup>h</sup> þou no surte
 I graunte þe þif<sup>h</sup> if þou canst<sup>h</sup> telle me
 What þing is it<sup>h</sup> þat wommen most<sup>h</sup> desiren
 Be war and kepe þi nekke bon from yren
 And if þou canst<sup>h</sup> nouht<sup>h</sup> telle it<sup>h</sup> me anon ȝif wol I ȝiue þe leue for to gon
 A twelf monþe and a day to seeke and lere
 An answer sufficient<sup>h</sup> in þis matiere
 And seinte wil I han er þat þou pace Thy body for to yelden in þis place
 Wo was þis knyght<sup>h</sup> and sorowfully he sikeþ
 But what<sup>h</sup> he may not<sup>h</sup> do al as him likeþ
 And at þe laste he chese him for to wende /
 And come again<sup>h</sup> riȝt<sup>h</sup> at þe ȝeres ende /
 With swich answer as god wold<sup>h</sup> him purweye /
 And takeþ his leue and wendeþ forþ his weye
 he sekeþ every hous and euery place /
 Where as he hopeþ for to fynde grace
 CORPUS (G.T. 360)

And happed alone as she was born
 He seegh a maiden walkyng<sup>h</sup> hym byforn
 Of which mayde Maugre her hede
 By verray force he rafte hire maydenhede
 ffor which oppression was such clamour
 And such pursute vnto þe king<sup>h</sup> arthour
 That dampned was þis knyght<sup>h</sup> for to be dede
 De cours of lawe and shuld haue lost<sup>h</sup> his hede Perauenture such was þe statute þoo /
 But þat þe queene and oþer ladiis moo
 So longe preide þe king<sup>h</sup> of grace
 Til he his liff him graunted in þat place
 And ȝaue hym to þe queene al at her wille
 To chese whedere she wold<sup>h</sup> hym sau<sup>o</sup> or spille
 The queene þoukeþ þe kinge wiþ al her myght<sup>h</sup>
 And after þis þus spake she to þe knyght<sup>h</sup>
 Whan þat she seegh her tyme on a day
 Thou stondest<sup>h</sup> ȝif quod<sup>h</sup> she in such aray
 That of þi liff<sup>h</sup> ȝif hast<sup>h</sup> no surte
 I graunte þe lif if þou canst<sup>h</sup> telle me
 ¶ What þing is it<sup>h</sup> þat wommen most<sup>h</sup> desiren
 Be ware and kepe þi nekbone fro yren
 And if þou canst<sup>h</sup> not<sup>h</sup> telle it<sup>h</sup> me anon ȝif wil I ȝeue þe leue for to gon
 A xij. monþe and a daye. to seke and lere
 An answer sufficient<sup>h</sup> in þis matere
 And surte wil I han er þat þou pass þi body for to ȝelde in þis place woo was þis knyght<sup>h</sup> and sorowfully he sikeþ
 But what<sup>h</sup>? he may not<sup>h</sup> do al as hym likeþ
 And at þe last<sup>h</sup> he chese hym for to wende
 And to come again<sup>h</sup> riȝt<sup>h</sup> at þe ȝeres ende
 With suche answer as god wold<sup>h</sup> hym purweye
 And takeþ his leue and wendeþ forþ his weye
 He sekeþ every hous and euery place
 Where as he hopeþ for to fynde grace
 PETWORTH (G.T. 360)

And happed a-lone as sche was borne
 He sawhe a maiden walkyng<sup>h</sup> him be-forne
 Of which maiden maugre hire hede be verrey force he rafte hir hir maidenhede
 For wiche oppression was suche clamour
 And suche pursuyt vnto kinge Arthoure
 That dampned was þis knyht for to be dede
 De cours of lawe and sholde haue lost<sup>h</sup> his hede Parauenture suche was þe statute þo
 Bot þat þe queene and oþer ladies mo
 So longe preide þe kinge of grace
 Til he his him graunted in þe place
 And ȝaue to þe qweens al at hir wiht
 To chese weþer sche wolde him sau<sup>o</sup> or spiht
 The queen þouked þe kinge wiþ al here myht
 And after þis þus spak<sup>h</sup> scho to þe knyht Whan þat sche seih<sup>h</sup> her time vpon a daye Thou stondest<sup>h</sup> ȝif quod<sup>h</sup> sche in suche araye þat of þi lyf<sup>h</sup> ȝif hast<sup>h</sup> þou no surte
 .I. graunte þe lif: if þu canst<sup>h</sup> tel me
 What þing is þat wemen moste desiren
 Be war and kepe þi nekke bone from yren
 And if þou can noust<sup>h</sup> tel it me anone ȝif wil .I. ȝeue þe leue for to gone
 A twelmop and a daie to seke and lere
 An answer sufficient<sup>h</sup> in þis matier
 And surte wil .I. haue er þat þou pace
 Thi body for to ȝelden in þis place
 Woo was þis knyht<sup>h</sup> and sorrowful he sikeþ Bot whate he may nouht do al as him likeþ
 And att þe last he chese him for to wende
 An com ayne riht<sup>h</sup> att þe ȝeres ende
 With suche answer as god wold<sup>h</sup> him purweye
 And takeþ his leue and wendeþ forþ his weye
 He sekeþ every house and euery place Where as hopeþ for to finde grace
 LANSDOWNE (G.T. 360)

To lerne / what thyng women louen moost
But he ne koude / arryuen in no coost
Where as he myghte fynde / in this matere
Two creatures / accordyng in feere
¶ Somme seyde / women / louen best richesse
Somme seyde honour / somme seyde Iolyfnesse
Somme riche array / somme seyden lust abedde
And ofte tyme / to be wydwe and wedde ¶ Somme seyde / þat oure hertes / been moost cesed
Whan that we been / yflatered and yplesed
¶ He gooth ful ny the sothe / I wol nat lye
A man / shal wyne vs best / with flaterye
And with attendaunce / and with bysnyesse
Been we ylymed / bothe moore and lesse
¶ And somme seyn / that we louen best ffor to be free / and do right as vs lest
And that no man / repreue vs of oure vice
But seye þat we be wise / and no thyng nyce ffor trewely / ther is noon of vs alle
If any wight / wol clawe vs on the galle
That we nol like / for he seith vs sooth Assay / and he shal fynde it þat so dooth ffor be we / neuer so vicious with-Inne
We wol been holden wise / and clene of synne ¶ And somme seyn / shat greet delit han we ffor to been holden stable / and eke secree
And in o purpos / stedfastly to dwelle
And nat biwreye thyng / that men vs telle
But that tale / is nat worth a rake stele
Pardee / we wommen / konne no thyng hele
Witnessse on Myda / wol ye heere the tale ¶ Ouyde / amonges othere thynges smale
Seyde / Myda hadde vnder his longe herys
Growyng vp-on his heed / two Asses erys
The which vice he hydde / as he best myghte ful subtilly / from euery mannes sighte

To lerne / what thyng women loue moost
But he ne koude / arryuen in no coost
Where as he myghte fynde / in this matere
Two creatures / accordyng in feere
¶ Somme seyden / wemen louen best richesse
Somme seyde honour / somme seyde Iolyfnesse
Somme riche array / somme lust abedde
And ofte tyme / to be widwe and wedde ¶ Somme seyde / that oure herte / is moost cesed
Whan that we been / yflatered and yplesed
¶ He gooth ful ny the sothe / I wol nat lye
A man shal wyne vs best / with flaterye
And with attendaunce / and with bysnyesse
Been we ylymed / bothe moore and lesse
¶ And somme seyn / þat we louen best ffor to be free / and do as vs lest
And that no man / repreue vs of oure vice
But seye þat we be wise / and no-thing nyce
ffor trewely / ther is noon of vs alle
If any wight / wolde clawe vs on the galle
That we nyl like / for he seith vs sooth Assay / and he shal fynde it / that so dooth
ffor be we / neuer so vicious / with-Inne
We wol be holden wise / and clene of synne ¶ And somme seyn / that greet delit han we ffor to be holden / stable and eek secree
And in o purpos / stedfastly to dwelle
And nat biwreye thyng / that men vs telle
But that tale / is nat worth a Rake stele
Pardee / we wommen / konne no thyng hele
Witnessse on Mida / wol ye heere the tale
¶ Ouyde / amonges othere thynges smale
Seyde / Mida / hadde vnder his longe herys
Growyng vp on his heed / two Asses erys
The which vice he hidde / as he best myghte ful sotilly / from euery mannes sighte

To lernyn what thyng wemen louyn moost
But he ne coude arryuen In no coost
Where as he myghte fynde in this matyre
Two wightis a-cordyn in fyre
¶ Some men seydyng women louyn best rycheesse Some men seyde honour some <sup>1</sup> Iolyfnesse<sup>1</sup> [1 writes ever in capitals.]
Some-men seyde ryche aray some lust in bodde
And ofte tyme be wedewe & ofte I-wedde
¶ Some men seyde oure herte is moost I-cesed Whan þat we been I-flatered & I-pleesed
¶ He goth ful nygh þe sothe I nyl not lye
A man schal wyne vs best with flaterye
And with attendaunce & bysnyesse
Be we I-lymyd hope more & lesse
And some men seyn þat we louyn best ffor to be fre & do ryght as vs lest
And þat no man repreue vs of oure vice But seye þat we be wys & no thyng nyse ffor trewely þere is non of vs alle ȝif ony wryt welde clawe vs on the galle
That we nolde kyke for he seith vs soth Assay he schal fynde it þat so doth ffor be we neuere so vicious with-inne
We wold be holde wis & clene of synne And some seyn that gret lous haue we ffor to ben holde wyse & eke
And in on purpos stedfastly to dwelle
And not be wreye thyng þat men vs telle
But þat tale nye not worth a rake stele
Parde we wemen can nothing hele
Witnessse of Mida wil ge here þe tale ¶ Ouyde a-mongis oþere thyngis smale Seyde Mida hadde vndyr hyse longe herys
Growyng on his hed two assis erys
The which vice he hyde as he best myghte ful subtilly from euery manys sighte

To lerne what ping' women louen most
 But he now coupe arryuen in no coost Wher'as he mighte fynde in his matere /
 Two creatures acordyng in feere 924
 Some seyden women loue best richesse
 Some seyde honour some seyden Iolynesse / [leaf 107, back]
 Some riche array some seyden lust a bedde /
 And oft tyme to be wydowe and wedde /
 Some seyden þat we be most yeed Whan þat we ben y-flatered and y-pledged
 He goþ ful ny þe soþe I wol nat lye
 A man schal wyne vs best wip flaterie 932
 And wip attendaunce and wip besynesse
 Ben we y-lymede boþe more and lesse /
 And some men sein how þat we louen best ffor to be fre and do right as vs lest 936
 And þat non man reprete vs of oure vice But seye þat we be wyse and noþing nyce ffor trewly þer mys non-of vs alle /
 If any right wil clawe vs on þe galle 940
 þat we nyl loko or he seiþ vs soþ Assay and he schal fynde it þat he doþ ffor þe we neuer so vicious wip-inne 944
 We wil be holden wise and clone of synne
 And some seyn þat gret delit haue we ffor to be holden stable and ek seere
 And in o purpos stedfastly to dwelle
 And not bewreye ping' þat men vs telle 948
 But þat tale is not worþ a rake stole
 Parde we women konnen noþing' hele Witnesse on Myda wil ge heere þe tale /
 Ovide amonges oþer pinges smale 952
 Sethe myda hadde vnder his longe heris Growyng vpon his heed two assis erus þe whiche vice he hidde as he best might ful sotilly from every mannes sight 956

To lere what ping' women louen most But he now koude arryuen in no coost wher'as he myghte fynde in his matere
 Two creatures acordyng in fere 924
 Somme seiden women louen best richesse
 Somme seyde honour' schme seiden Iolynesse Somme riche aray, some seiden lust a bedde
 And oft tyme to be wydowe and wedde 928
 Somme seiden þat we bene most yeed Whan þat we bene yflatered and ypledod.
 He goþ ful ny þe soþ I wil nat lye
 A man schal wyne vs best wip flaterie 932
 And wip attendaunce and wip besynesse bene we alymed boþ more and lesse And somme men seyn howe þat we louen best
 ffor to be fre and do right as vs lest 936
 And þat no man reprete vs of our vice But say þat we bene wise and no pinges nice ffor trewly þer mys noon of vs alle
 If any right wil clawe vs on þe galle 940
 þat we nyl loko or he seiþ vs soþ Assaie and he elul fynde it þat he doþ.
 ffor þe we neuer' so vicious wip-Imo 944
 We wil be holden wise and clone of synne
 And somme seyn þat gret delit haue we ffor to be holden stable and eke seere
 And in o purpos stedfastly to dwelle
 And not bewreye ping' þat men vs telle 948
 But þat tale is not worþ a rake stole
 Parde we women konnen no ping' hele
 Witnesse on myda wil ge here þe tale 952
 Ovide amonges oþer pingges smale
 Seiþ Mida had vnder his longe heres Growyng vpon his hede two asses erus
 The whiche vice he hidde as he best myght ful sotilly from every mannyes sight 956

To lere whatt pinges wemmen louen most Bot he nowe coupe riden in no coost
 Where as he myght finde in his matier
 Two creatures acordyng in fere 924
 Some seide wemmen louen best riches
 Some seide honour some seid Iolynes
 Some seide Riche array and lust abedde
 And oft tin to be wydowe and wedde 928
 Some seide þat we be most esede
 Whan þat we bene flatered and ypledode
 He goþ ful nyke þe soþe .I. wil nought lye
 A man schal wyne vs best wip flaterie 932
 And wip attendaunce and wip besines Beue we y-lymede boþ more and les
 And som men sein howe þat we louen best
 For to be fre and do right as vs lest 936
 And þat no man reprete vs of oure vice Bot sei þat we bue wise and noþing nice
 For trewly þere is none of vs al
 If any right wil clove vs on þe gal þat we nyl loko or he seiþ þe soþe Assaie and he schal finde it þat he doþe
 For þe we neuere so vicious wip-inne 944
 We wil be holden wise and clone of sinne
 And summen seide þat gret delite haue we
 For to be holden stable and eke seere
 And in o purpos stedfastly to dwelf
 And nought be-wrye pinges þat men vs tell Bot þat tale is nougt worþ a rake etale 948
 Parde we wemmen kan no pinges hele Wittenesse of myda wil ge here þe tale
 Ouide a-monges oþer pinges smale 952
 Seiþ Mida had vndre his longe heres
 Growyng vpon his tuo asse erus
 The whiche vice he hidde as he best myht
 Ful sotilly from eueriche mannes sight 956

That saue his wyf / ther wiste of it namo
 He loued hire moost and triste hire also
 He preyed hire / that to no creature
 She sholde telle / of his diffygure 960
 ¶ She swor him may / for al this world to wynne
 She nolde do / that vileynye / or synne
 To make hir housbonde / han so foul a name
 She nolde nat telle it / for hir owene shame 964
 But natheless / hir thoughte þat she dyde
 That she so longe / sholde a conseil hyde
 Hir thoughte / it swal so soore / aboute hir herte
 That nedely / som word hire moste asterte 968
 And sith she dorste / telle it to no man
 Doun to a Marys / faste by she ran
 Til she cam there / her herte was a fyre
 And as a Bitore / bombleth in the Myre 973
 She leyde hir mouth / vn-to the water doun
 Bivreye me nat / thou water with thy soun
 Quod she / to thee I telle it and name
 Myn housbonde / hath longe Asses erys two 976
 Now is myn herte all hool / now it is oute
 I myghte no lenger / kepe it out of doute
 Here may ye see / thogh we a tyme abyde
 Yet out it moote / we kan no conseil hyde 980
 The remenant of the tale / if ye wol heere
 Redeth Ouyde / and ther ye may it leere
 ¶ This knyght / of which / my tale is specially (Def 77, back)
 When that he saugh / he myghte nat come therby
 This is to seye / what women louen moost 985
 With-Inne his brest / ful sorweful was the goost
 But hom he gooth / he myghte nat seiourne
 The day was come / þat homward moste he tourne 988
 And in his wey / it happed hym to ryde
 In al this care / vnder a forest syde
 Wher as he saugh / vp-on a daunce go
 Of ladyes / foure and twenty / and yet no 992

That saue his wyf / ther wiste of it na mo
 He loued hire moost and trusted hire also
 He preyed hire / that to no creature
 She sholde telle / of his diffygure 960
 ¶ She swor hym may / for al this world to wynne
 She nolde do / that vileynye / or syn
 To make hir housbonde / han so foul a name
 She nolde nat telle it / for hir owene shame 964
 But natheless / hir thoughte þat she dyde
 That she so longe / sholde a conseil hyde
 Hir thoughte / it swal so soore aboute hir herte
 That nedely / som word / hir moste asterte 968
 And sith / she dorste nat telle it to no man
 Doun to a Marys / faste by she ran
 Til she cam there / hir herte was a fyre
 And as a Bitore / bombleth in the Myre 973
 She leyde hir mouth / vn-to the water doun
 Bivreye me nat / thou water with thy soun
 Quod she / to thee I telle it and name
 Myn housbonde / hath longe Asses erys two 976
 Now is myn herte all hool / now it is oute
 I myghte no lenger / kepe it out of doute
 Here may ye see / thogh we a tyme abyde
 Yet out it moote / we kan no conseil hyde 980
 The remenant of the tale / if ye wol heere
 Redeth Ouyde / and ther ye may it leere
 ¶ This knyght / of which my tale is specially When that he say / he myghte nat come ther by 984
 This is to seye / what women louen moost
 With-Inne his brest / ful sorweful was the goost
 But hom he gooth / he myghte nat seiourne
 The day was come / that homward moste he tourne 988
 And in his wey / it happed hym to ryde
 In al this care / vnder a forest syde
 Wher as he say / vp on a daunce go
 Of ladyes .xxiiij. and yet no 992

That saue his wyf þere wiste of it no mo
 He louede hym most & trostid to hyre also He preyede hire þat to no cryature
 Sche schulde telle of his diffygure 960
 Sche swor hym may for al this world to wynne Sche nolde not do þat vilany or synne
 Go make hyre husbonde to haue so foul a name
 Sche nele it telle for hyre owene schame 964
 But neuere þe-les hire thouzht þat sche dyde
 That sche so longe a conseil hyde Hire thouzht it swal so soore a-boute hyre herte
 That nedely sum word muste a-starte 968
 And sythe sche darste telle it to no man Doun to a marceys faste by sche ran Tyl sche cam þere hire herte was a fyre (Def 221)
 And as a bitore bumbith in þe myre 973
 Sche leyde hyre mouth to þe watry adoun
 Be-wreye me not þou watry with thy soun
 Quod sche to þe I telle it & no mo
 Myn husbonde hath longe erys too 976
 Now is al myn herte hol now is it oute
 I myghe no lenger kepe it out of doute Here may þe se þow we no tyme abyde þit out it moote it we can no conseil hyde 980
 The remenant of þe tale þif þe wels here
 Rede ouyde & þere mowe þe it leere
 This knyzt of which myn tale is specially
 When he saw he myzte not come þerby 984
 This is to seye what wemen louyn most With-inne his brest full sorwefully was þe goost
 But hom he goth he myzte not seiourne
 The day was come that homward muste he tourne 988
 And In hyse wey as happede hym to ryde
 In al hisse care vndyr a forest syde
 Where as he saw vp-on a daunce ge Of ladyis foure & twenty & þit mo 992

þat saf his wiȝt þer wiȝt of it no mo he loued hire most and trusted to hire also he preide hir most þat vnto no creature
 Sche scholde not tellen of his disgraceure Sche swor him nay for al þis world to wyne /
 Sche wolde do þat vrylany or þat synne
 To make hire housbonde him so foul a name for reprovyng of him and foule schame
 But naþeles hir þought þat sche dyde
 That sche so longe scholde a counseil hyde hir þought it sat so sore aboute hir herte
 That needly som word hir most asterte
 And siþþe sche dorste tellen it no man Doun to a mareys faste sche ran Til sche cam þer hir herte was a fyre
 And as a bytore bumblþ in þe myre
 Sche layde hire mouþ vnto þe water doun
 Bewroye me nouȝt þou water with þy soun
 Quod sche to þe I telle it and nemo
 Myñ housbonde haþ longe asses eres tuo
 Now is myne herte al hool now it is oute
 I myȝt no longer kepe it out of doute here may 3e see þough we a tyme abyde
 Yet out it moot we mowe no counseil hyde
 The remenant of þe tale if ye wol heore
 Redeþ Oryde and 3e may it leere
 This knyȝt of which my tale is specially
 When þat he saugh he mighte nouȝt come þerby þis is to seye what woman louen most Wipþino his herte sorful was þe gost
 But home he goþ he mighte nouȝt soiorne
 þe day was come þat homward most he tourne
 And in his way it happed him to ryde
 In alle his care vnder a forest syde
 Where he saugh on one damoe go
 Of ladyes xxliij. and ȝit mo þat sawe his wiȝf þer wiȝt it no mo

 He loued her most and trested to her also
 He preide hir most þat vnto no creature
 She schuld not tellen of his disgraceure
 She swore hym nay for al þis world to wyne
 She wolde do þat vilany or þat synne
 To make her husbond him so foule a name for reprovyng of hym and foule schame But naþeles her þout þat she dyde þat also so longe shuld a counseil hyde Her þout it satte so sore about her herte þat nedely som word her mote a-sterre
 And siþþe she durst [nat] tellen it no man Doun to a marise fast she ranne
 Til she came þere her herte was a fire
 And as a bitor bumblþ in þe myre
 She laide her mouþ vnto þe water doun
 Bewroye me not þou water wip þi soun
 Quod she to þe I telle it and no mo
 Myñ husbond haþ longe asses eres tuo
 Now is my herte al hool now is it oute
 I myȝt no longer kepe it out of doute
 Here may 3e so þou 3e we a tyme abyde ȝete oute it moot we mowe no counseil hyde
 The remenant of þe tale if 3e wil here
 Redeþ ovide and 3e mowe it leere
 ¶ This knyȝt of which my tale is specially
 When þat he seegh he myȝt not come þerby
 This is to seyn. what woman louen most Wip-in his herte sorful was þe gost
 But home he goþe he myȝt not soiorne
 þe day was come þat homward most he tourne
 And in his way it happed hym to ryde
 In al his care vnder a forest syde
 Where he segh in oon daunce goo /
 Of ladyes foure and twenty and ȝit mo

That sawe his wiȝf þer wiȝt þere-of no mo
 He loued hir most and trist to hir also
 He preide-hir most þat vnto no creature
 sche schold must tel of his disgraceure Sche swore him nay for al þis world to wyne
 Sche wolde do þat vrylany or þat synne
 To make hir husbonde him so foule a name
 For reprovyng of him and fowle schame Bot Naþeles hir þout þat sche deide þat sche so longe scholde a counseil hyde Hir þout it sat so sore aboute hir hart þat nedely sum worde hir mot a-stert
 And seþ sche dorste tel it to no man
 Doun to a marise fast sche ranne
 Til she came þer hire herte was a fire
 And as betoure bebleþ in þe myre
 Sche laide hir mouþ in-to þe water doun
 Be-wroye me nouȝt þou water wip þi soune
 Quod sche. to þe .I. tel it and no mo
 Myne husbond haþe longe asses eres tuo Nowe is myne hert al hool now it is oute
 .I. myht no longer kep it oute of doute Here mai 3e see þouþe we a tyme abyde ȝit oute it mot we mowe no counseil hyde þe remenant of þe tale if 3e wil here Redeþ ovide and 3e male it leere
 This knyȝt of wiche mi tale is speciali
 When þat he sauh he miht nouȝt com þere bye
 This is to seie what woman louen most Wip-inne his hert sorful was þe goste
 But home he goþe he miht nouȝt soiorne
 The daie was come þat homward most he toorne
 And in his wei it happed him to ryde
 In aft his care vnder a forest side
 Where he sawhe on o damoe go
 Of ladyes foure and twenty and ȝit mo

Toward the which danuce / he drow ful yerne
 In hope / that som wysdom / sholdo he lerne
 But certeynly / er he came fully there Vanysshed was this danuce / he nyste where No creature saugh he / that bar lyf
 Saue on the grene / he saugh sittynge a wyf
 A fouler wight<sup>r</sup> ther may no man deuysen
 Agayn the knyght<sup>r</sup> this olde wyf gan ryse
 And seyde sire knyght<sup>r</sup> / heer forth ne lith no way
 Tel me / what that ye seken / by youre fey Parauenture / it may the bettre be Thise olde folk<sup>r</sup> kan muchel thyng<sup>r</sup> quod she ¶ My leue mooder / quod this knyght<sup>r</sup> certeyn
 I nam but deed / but if that I kan seyn
 What thyng it is / that women moost desire Koude ye me wisse / I wolde wel quyte youre hire ¶ Plight me thy trouthe / heere in myn hand quod she
 The nexte thyng<sup>r</sup> that I requere thes Thou shalt it do / if it lye in thy myght<sup>r</sup>
 And I wol telle it yow / er it be nyght<sup>r</sup>
 ¶ Hane here myn trouthe / quod the knyght<sup>r</sup> I graunte ¶ Thanne quod she / I dar me wel auante
 Thy lyf is sauf / for I wol stonde therby
 Vp-on myn lyf the queene wol seye as I
 Lat se / which is the proudeste of hem alle
 That wreth on / a conerchief / or a calle
 That dar seye nay / of that I shal thee teche
 Lat vs go forth / with-outen lenger speche
 The rouned she / a pistel in his ere
 And bad hym to be glad / and hane no fere
 ¶ When they be comen to the court / this knyght<sup>r</sup>
 Seyde / he had holde his day / as he hadde light<sup>r</sup>
 And redy was his answe<sup>r</sup> / as he sayde
 ful many a noble wyf / and many a mayde
 And many a wyde / for þat they ben wise
 The queene hire self sittynge as Iustise

Toward the whiche danuce / he drow ful yerne
 In hope / that som wisdom sholdo he lerne
 But certeynly / or he cam fully there Vanysshed was this danuce / he nyste where No creature say he / that bar lyf
 Saue on the grene / he say sittynge a wyf
 A fouler wight<sup>r</sup> ther may no man deuysen
 Agayn the knyght<sup>r</sup> this olde wyf gan ryse
 And seyde sire knyght<sup>r</sup> heer forth ne lyth no wey
 Tel me / what þat ye seken by youre fey
 Par auenture / it may the bettre be Thise olde folk<sup>r</sup> konne muchel thyng quod she ¶ My leue moder / quod this knyght<sup>r</sup> certeyn
 I nam but deed / but if that I kan seyn
 What thyng it is / that women moost desire
 Koude ye me wisse / I wolde wel quyte youre hyre ¶ Plight me thy trouthe / here in myn hand quod she
 The nexte thyng<sup>r</sup> that I requere thes
 Thou shalt it do / if it lye in thy myght<sup>r</sup>
 And I wol telle it yow / er it be nyght<sup>r</sup>
 ¶ Hane here myn trouthe / quod the knyght<sup>r</sup> I graunte. [ra, w] ¶ Thanne quod she / I dar me wel auante Thy lyf is sauf / for I wole stonde ther by Vp-on myn lyf the queene wol seye as I
 Lat see / which is the proudeste of hem alle
 That wreth on / a conerchief / or a calle
 That dar seye nay / of that I shal thee teche
 Lat vs go forth / with-outen lenger speche
 The rouned she / a pistel in his ere
 And bad hym to be glad / and hane no fere
 ¶ When they be comen to the Court this knyght<sup>r</sup>
 Seyde / he hadde holde his day / as he had light<sup>r</sup>
 And redy was his answe<sup>r</sup> / as he sayde
 ful many a noble wyf / and many a mayde
 And many a widwe / for þat they ben wise
 The queene hir self / sittynge as Iustise

Toward þis danuc he drow ful serne
 In hope þat sum-wisdom schuldo he lerne
 But serteyn fully er he cam ther
 Vanyschid was the danuce he nyste wher
 No creature saw he þat bar lyf
 Saue on þe grene he saw sytynge a wyf
 A foulere wryt þer may no man deuysen
 A-gens þis knygt this olde whijt gan ryse
 And seyde syre knygt here forth lyth no wey Telle 3e me what 3e seke be 3oure feye Persuature þe botere may 3e be These olde folk can moche thyng quod sche Myn leue modyr quod this knyght serteyn
 I ne am but deed but 3if þat I can seyn
 What thyng ist þat women moost doeyre
 Koude 3e me wische I wolde qeyte 3oure hyre Plyghte me þyn troth in myn hond quod sche
 The nexte thyng that I require thes Thow shalt it do 3if it be in 3y myght
 And I wole telle it 3ow er it be nyght
 Hane her myn trouthe quod the knyght I graunte Thanne quod sche I dar me wel auante Thyne lyf is saf I wole stonde þerby Vp-on myn lyf þe queene wole seye as I
 Lat se which is þe proudest of hem alle
 That wreth on a conerchief or a calle
 That wreth dar sey nay of þat I schal thee teche Lat vs go forth with oute lengere speche
 The rounede sche a pistyl in hyse ere
 And bad hym to be glad & hane no fere
 Whas þey been comyn to þe court þis knygt Seyde þat he hadde holde his day þat he hygt
 And redy was his answe<sup>r</sup> as he sayde ful manye a noble wyf & manye a mayde
 And manye a wedowe for þat þey ben wyse
 The queen hire self artyng as a iustye

Toward þe danco he drowe him yorne
 In hope þat som wisdom schulde he lerne.
 But certeinly or he cam fully þere /
 Vanyashed was þe danco he nyete not where / 906
 No creature saugh he þat bar lyf
 Sauo in þe grene he saugh sittynge a wif (leaf 102, back)
 A foulere wight þer may non denyse
 Agyen þe knyght þe olde wif gan arise 1000
 And seide sire knyght here forþe ne liþ no way
 Telle me what þat þe seken by þoure foy Peraventure it may þe beitre be /
 This olde folk konne moche þing quod scho / 1004
 My leue mooder quod þis knyght certeyn
 I am but dede but if þat I can seyn
 What þing it is þat women most desire
 Cowde þe me wisse I woldo wel quyte youre hire 1008
 Pliht me þi troupe here in myn hand quod scho
 The nexte þing þat I require þe
 Thou schalt it do if it lye in þy might
 And I wil telle it þou or it be night 1012
 Hane here my troupe quod þe knyght I graunte
 Than quod scho I may me wel auante Thy lyf is sauf for I wil stonde þer by Vpon my lif þe queene wole seye as I 1016
 Lat se which is þe proddest of hem alle
 That weseþ on a kerchef as a calle þat dar sey may of þat I schal þou teche lat vs go forþe wipoute langer speche 1020 Tho rowned scho a pistol in his ere
 And bad him to be glad and hate no fere
 What þe be comen to þe court þis knyght
 Seide he hadde holde his day as he hadde hight 1024
 And redy was his answer as he seide ful many a noble wif and many a mayde
 And many a wydowe for þat þey ben wywe /
 The queen his selten sittynge as Iustise 1028
CORPUS (6-r. 363)

Toward þe danco he drowe hym some In hope þat somme wisdom schuld he lerne
 But certeinly er he cam fully þere
 Vanyashed was þe danco he nyete not where 996
 No creature seye he þat baro lif (leaf 145)
 Sauo in þe grene he sey sittynge a wif
 A foulere wif þer may no man devise Agyen þe knyght þe old wif gan arise 1000
 And seide sir knyght here forþe ne liþ no way
 Telle me what þat þe seken be þoure fay Peraventure it may þe better be Thise olde folk konne moche þing quod she 1004
 My leue modere quod þis knyght certayn
 I am but dede but if þat I can seyn
 What þing it is þat women most desire
 Cowde þe me wisse I coude wel quyte þour hire 1008 Plite me þi troupe here in my hand quod she
 The nexte þing þat I require þe
 Thou shalt it doo if it lye in þi myght
 And I wille telle it þou er it be nyght 1012
 Hane here my troupe quod þe knyght I graunte
 Than quod she I may me wel auante þi lif is sauf for I wil stonde þer-by Vpon my lif þe queene wil say as I 1016
 Lat se which is þe proddest of hem alle
 þat wareth on a kerchif or a calle þat dar seie may of þat I schal þou teche lat vs goo forþe wip-oute langer speche 1020 Tho rowned she a pistol in his ere
 And bad hym to be glad and han no fere
 What þe be comen to þe court þis knyght
 Seide he had holde his day as he had hight 1024
 And redy was his answer as he seide ful many a noble wif and many a maide
 And many a wydowe for þat þei be wise þe queene her self sittynge as a Iustise 1028
PETWORTH (6-r. 363)

Towards þe danco he drowe him þerne
 In hope þat som wisdom scholde he lerne
 Bot certeinly ar he cam fully þere
 Vanyashed was þe danco he wist nouht where . 396
 No creature sawe he þat bare lif
 Sauo in þe grene he sawe sittynge a wif
 A foulere wight þer may no man devise (leaf 99)
 A-gein þe knyght þe olde wif gan arise 1000
 And seid sir knyght here forþe liþo no weye Tet me what þat þe seken be þoure foye Peraventure it maie þe better be<sup>1</sup> (1 base, with a corrected one)
 This olde folke can mucho þinge quod scho 1004
 My leue quod þis knyght certaine
 .I am bot dede bot if þat .I. can seine
 What þinge it is þat wemmen most desire Coupe þe me wisse .I. wold wele white þoure hire 1008
 Plyht me þi troupe here in my honde quod scho
 The next þing þat .I. require þe
 Thowe schalt it do if it lye in þi myht
 And .I. wil tel it þou ar it be nyht 1012 Hane here my troupe quod knyht .I. graunt þat quod scho .I. maye me wels auant Thi lif is saue for .I. wil stonde þer bye Vpon my lif þe queene wil saie as .I.
 Lat se which is þe proddest of hem al
 That weseþ on a kercheue or a cal þat dar sey may of þat .I. schal þow teche Lat vs go forþe wip-oute longer speche 1020
 Tho rowned she a pistol in his ere
 And bad him to be gladde and hane no fere Whann þe be comen to þe court þis knyht
 Seid he had holde his daie as he had hilt 1024
 And redy was his answer as he seide
 Full<sup>2</sup> mony a noble wif and mony a maide (? Ms Fo or Fv)
 And mony a wedow for þat þei bu wise
 The queens hire seluen sitt luge as Iustise 1028
LANSDOWNE (6-r. 363)

364 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. ELLESMERE MS. 197

Assembled been / his answers for to here
And afterward / this knyght was hode appear ¶ To every wight / commanded was silence
And that the knyght / sholde telle in Audience
What thyng that worldly women louen best
This knyght<sup>is</sup> ne stood nat stille / as doth a best
But to his question / anon answerde
With manly voys / that al the court it herde
¶ My lige lady / generally / quod he Wommen desiren haue souereynete
As yrel / ouer hir husband<sup>is</sup> as hir loue
And for to been / in maistris hym aboute
This is youre mooste desir / thogh yo me kille Dooth as yow list<sup>is</sup> I am at youre wille
¶ In al the court<sup>is</sup> ne was ther wyf ne mayde
Ne wydwe / that contraried that he sayde
But seyden / he was worthy han his lyf
¶ And with that word / vp sterte the olde wyf
Which that the knyght<sup>is</sup> / saugh sittinge in the grene
Mery quod she / my souereyn lady queene
Er that youre court departe / do me right<sup>is</sup>
I taughte this answer / vn-to the knyght<sup>is</sup>
for which / he plighte me his trowth there
The firste thyng<sup>is</sup> I wolde hym requere
He wolde it do / if it lay in his myght Bifore the court / thanne preye I thee s<sup>ir</sup> knyght<sup>is</sup>
Quod she / that thou me take vn-to thy wyf
for wel thou woost that I haue kept thy lyf
If I say fals / sey nay vp-on thy fey
¶ This knyght answerde / allas and weylaway
I woot right wel / that swich was my biheste
for goddes loue / as chees a newe requeste
Taak al my good / and lat my body go ¶ Nay thanne quod she / I shrewe vs bothe two for thogh that I be foul / cold and poore
I nolde for al the metal / ne for oore

ELLESMERE 197 (6-T. 364)

364 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. HENGWRT MS. 159

Assembled been / this answer for to here
And afterward / this knyght was hode appero
To every wight<sup>is</sup> commanded was silence
And that the knyght sholde telle in audience
What thyng that worldly women louen best
This knyght<sup>is</sup> ne stood nat stille as dooth a best<sup>is</sup>
But so his question / anon answerde
With manly voys / that al the court it herde
¶ My lige lady / generally quod he Wommen desire / to haue souereynete
As wel / ouer hir husbande / as hir loue
And for to been in maistris / hym aboute
This is youre mooste desir / thogh yo ne kille Dooth as yow list<sup>is</sup> I am here at youre wille
¶ In al the Court<sup>is</sup> ne was ther wyf ne mayde
Ne wydwe / that contraried that he sayde
But seyden / he was worthy han his lyf
¶ And with that word / vp sterte that olde wyf
Which that the knyght<sup>is</sup> say sittinge on the grene
Mery quod she / my souereyn lady queene
Er that youre Court departe / do me right<sup>is</sup>
I taughte this answer / vn-to the knyght<sup>is</sup>
for which / he plighte me his trowth there
The firste thyng<sup>is</sup> I wolde hym requere
He wolde it do / if it laye in his myght<sup>is</sup> Bifore the court<sup>is</sup> thanne preye I thee s<sup>ir</sup> knyght<sup>is</sup>
Quod she / that thou me take vn-to thy wyf
for wel thou woost that I haue kept thy lyf
If I saye fals / sey nay vp-on thy fey
¶ This knyght answerde / allas and weylaway
I woot right wel / that swich was my biheste
for goddes loue / as chees a newe requeste
Taak al my good / and lat my body go ¶ Nay thanne quod she / I shrewe vs bothe two for thogh pat I be foul / old / and poore
I nolde for al the metal / ne for oore

HENGWRT 159 (6-T. 364)

364 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. CAMBRIDGE MS. 197

Assemblede been his answerys for to here
And afterward his knygt was hode to pere
To every wyjt was commanded silence
And pat he knygt schulde telle in audience
What thyng pat wordly women louyn best
The knygt stod not stille as a best
But to his question anon answerde
With manly voys pat al þe court it herde Myn lige lady generally quod he Wemen desyryn to han souereynete
As wel ouyr hire husbande as oer hire hove
And for to been in maystrye hem a-boue
This is þe mooste desyr thow ze me kyll
Doth as þow leste I am al at þoure wille
In al þe court ne was þere wif ne mayde
Ne wedewe contraryde þat he sayde
But seydyn þat he was worthi to han his lyf
And with that word vp sterte þe olde wyf Whiche þat þe knygt saw sittinge on þe grene Mery quod sche myn souereyn lady queene
Er þat þoure court departe doth me ryght
I taughte this answare to þe knyht for which he plyzte me his trowth þere
The fyrste thyng þat I wolde hym requere
He wolde it do þif it lay in his myht
By-fore þe court þanne preyo I þe s<sup>ir</sup> knygt Quod sche þat þou me take on to þyn wyf for veel þou wist þat I haue kept þy lyf þif I saye fals nay nay vp-on þy fey
This knyht answerde allas & weylaway
I wot ryt wel þat swich was myn beheste for goddys lone as chee a newe requeste Tak al myn good & lat myn body goo Nay þanne quod sche I be schrewe vs boþe too for þow I be foul old & pore
I nolde for al þe metal ne for oro

CAMBRIDGE 197 (6-T. 364)

GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. Corpus MS.	SIX-TEXT 364	GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. Petworth MS.	SIX-TEXT 364	GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.	SIX-TEXT 364
Assembled ben his answer for to heere And afterward his knight <sup>h</sup> was bode apere And þat þe knight <sup>h</sup> schal telle in audience To euery wight <sup>h</sup> commanded was sciencen	1032	Assembled ben þis answe <sup>r</sup> forto here And afters þis kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> was bode apore And þat þe kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> shuld telle in audience To euery wight <sup>h</sup> comma <sup>n</sup> ded was silencen	1032	Assemblede ben his answe <sup>r</sup> for to here And afterwardo þis kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> was bode a-piere And þat þe kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> schold tel in audience To euery wight <sup>h</sup> comma <sup>n</sup> ded was silencen	1033
What þing þat <sup>h</sup> worldly women louen meest <sup>h</sup> This knight <sup>h</sup> ne stode nat <sup>h</sup> stille as doþ a beest <sup>h</sup> <small>(Def 144, 147-148)</small> But to his questi <sup>o</sup> n anon <sup>h</sup> answerde / With manly vois þat al þe court <sup>h</sup> it herde	1036	what þing þat <sup>h</sup> worldly woman <sup>h</sup> louen meest <sup>h</sup> This kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> ne stode not <sup>h</sup> stille as doþ a beest <sup>h</sup> <small>(Def 144, 146-47)</small> But to his questi <sup>o</sup> n anon <sup>h</sup> answerd <sup>h</sup> wif manly vois þat al þe court <sup>h</sup> it herde	1036	What þing <sup>h</sup> þat <sup>h</sup> worldly woman <sup>h</sup> louen meest <sup>h</sup> This kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> ne stode nou <sup>g</sup> t still as doþe a beest <sup>h</sup> Bo to þis questi <sup>o</sup> ne a-none he answerde Wif manly voyce þat al þe court <sup>h</sup> it herde	1036
My liege lady generally quod he / Wommen desiret to haue soueraynte As wel ouer hir housbonde and hire loue And for to be in maystrie him aboue	1040	My liege lady generally quod he wommen desiren to han soueraynte As wel ouer hir husband and her loue And forto be in maistrie hym aboue	1040	My liege lady lady general quod he . Wommen desir <sup>e</sup> t to haue soueraynte Wommen desir <sup>e</sup> t to haue soueraynte As wel ouer hir husbonds as hir loue And for to be in maistre him a-boue	1040
þis is youre most desyr þough 30 me kille Doþ as you list I am heer at your wille In al þe court <sup>h</sup> ne was þer wif ne mayde Ne wydowe þat contraried þat he seyde	1044	This is youre most desir þou <sup>g</sup> h 30 me kille Doþ as you list I am here at <sup>h</sup> youre wille In al þe court <sup>h</sup> ne was þer wif ne mayde Ne wydowe þat contraried what he seide	1044	This 3owre most desire þou <sup>g</sup> h 30 me kill <small>(Def 09, back)</small> Doþe as 3owre list .I. am here at <sup>h</sup> 3owre wif In al þe court <sup>h</sup> ne was þer wif ne maide Ne wedowe þat contraried þat he seide	1044
But seyden he was worþy han his lif And wif þat word vp starte þat olde wif Which þat þe knight <sup>h</sup> saugh sitting on þe grene Mercy quod sche my souerayn lady queene/ Or þat youre court <sup>h</sup> departe do me right	1048	But seiden he was worþi han his lif And wif þat word vp start <sup>h</sup> þat olde wif which þat þe kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> sey sitting on þe grene Mercy quod she my souerayn lady queene Er þat youre court <sup>h</sup> departe do me right	1048	Bot seyden he was worþi to haue his lif And wif þat worde vpstert þis olde wif Whiche þat þe kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> sawe sitting on þe grene Merce quod sche Mi souerain lady queene Ar þat 3owre Court depart do me right	1048
I taughte þis answer vnto þis knight <sup>h</sup> for which he pligte me his troupe þere The first þing I wolde of him requere He wolde it do if it lay in his might	1052	I taughte þis answer vnto þis kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> for which he pligte me his troupe þere þe first þing <sup>h</sup> I wolde of him requere He wold it doo if it lay in his my <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup>	1052	.I. taucht þis answer vnto þis kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> For whiche he plit <sup>h</sup> me his troupe þere The first þing <sup>h</sup> .I. wolde of him require He wold it do if it lei in his myhte	1052
Byfore þe court <sup>h</sup> þan preye I þe sive knight <sup>h</sup> Quod sche þat þou me take vnto þi wif for wel þou woost þat I haue kepþ by lif If I seye fals seye nay vpon þy fey	1056	Byfore þe court <sup>h</sup> þan prey <sup>e</sup> I þe sir kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> Quod she þat þou me take vnto þi wif for wel þou woost þat I. haue kep <sup>t</sup> o þi lif If I sey fals seye nay vpon þi feye	1056	Be-for þe Court þan prais <sup>e</sup> .I. þe sir kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> Quod sche þat þu me tak vnto þi wif For wale þu vroste þat .I. haue kopped þi lif If .I. saye fals seye soþe vpon þi fey	1056
This knight <sup>h</sup> answerde allas and weylowey I wot right wel þat such was my bihest for goddes loue chese a newe requeste/ Tak al my good and lat my body go	1060	I woot sif <sup>h</sup> wel þat such was my bihest <sup>h</sup> for goddis loue chese a newe request <sup>h</sup> Take al my good and lat my body goo Nay þan quod she I schrowe vs boþe twoo	1060	This kny <sup>g</sup> ht <sup>h</sup> answerd alas and welaaway .I. wote right wale þat such was my beheste For goddes loue chese a newe requeste Tak al my good and lat my body go	1060
Nay þan quod sche I schrewe vs boþe tuo for þough þat I be foule and olde and pour I nolde for al þe metal ne for our	1064	I woot sif <sup>h</sup> wel þat such was my bihest <sup>h</sup> for goddis loue chese a newe request <sup>h</sup> Take al my good and lat my body goo Nay þan quod she I schrowe and olde and poor I nolde for al þe metal ne for ore	1064	Nay þan quod sche .I. schrowe vs boþe tuo For þat .I. be foule olde and poner .I. nolde for al þe metal ne for Oer	1064

That vnder erthe is graue / or lith about
 But if thy wyf I were / and eek thy loue
 ¶ My loue quod he ? nay my dampnacioun
 Alias / that any of my nacioun 1068
 Sholde euere so foule / disparaged be
 But al for noght thende is this / that he Constrayned was / he nedes moste hire wedde
 And taketh his olde wyf / and gooth to bedde 1072
 ¶ Now wolden som men / seye paraventure
 That for my negligence / I do no cure
 To tellen yow / the ioye / and al tharray
 That at the feeste was / that like day 1076
 To which thyng<sup>s</sup> shortly answero I shal
 I seye / ther nas no ioye / ne feeste at al Ther nas but heynnesse / and muche sorwe (Def 74, back) for priuily / he wedded hire on a morwe 1080
 And al day after / hidde hym as an Owle
 So wo was hym / his wyf looked so foule
 ¶ Greet was the wo / the knyght hadde in his thought
 When he was with his wyf abedde ybrought / 1084
 He walweth / and he turneth to and fro
 His olde wyf / lay smylyngs euere mo
 And seyde / o deere houshoude benediciteo flareth euery knyght / thus with his wyf / as ye ? 1088
 Is this the lawe / of kyng Arthures hous ?
 Is euery knyght of his so dangerous ?
 I am youre owene loue / and youre wyf /
 I am she / which pat saued hath youre lyf / 1092
 And certes / yet no dide I yow neuere vrright /
 Why fare ye thus with me / this firste nyght ?
 Ye faren lyk a man / had lost his wit
 What is my gilt ? for goddes loue tel it 1096
 And it shal ben amended / if I may ¶ Amended quod this knyght ? alias / nay / nay /
 It wol nat ben amended neuere mo
 Thow art so loothly / and so cold also 1100

That vnder erthe is graue / or lith about
 But if thy wyf I were / and eek thy loue
 ¶ My lous quod he / nay my dampnacioun
 Alias / that any of my nacioun 1068
 Sholde euere / so foule disparaged be
 But al for noght thende is this / that he Constrayned was / he nedes moste hire wedde
 And taketh his olde wyf / and goth to bedde 1072
 ¶ Now wolden som men / seye paraventure
 That for my negligence / I do no cure
 To tellen yow / the ioye / and al tharray
 That at the feste / was that like day 1076
 To which thyng<sup>s</sup> shortly / answero I shal
 I seye / ther nas no ioye / ne feste at al Ther nas but heynnesse / and muche sorwe
 for priuily / he wedded hire on a morwe
 And al day after / hidde hym as an Owle
 So wo was hym / his wyf looked so foule
 ¶ Greet was the wo / the knyght hadde in his thought
 When he was with his wyf / a bedde ybrought 1084
 He walweth / and he turneth to and fro
 His olde wyf / lay smylyng euere mo
 And seyde / o deere houshoude benediciteo flareth euery knyght thus with his wyf / as yo 1088
 Is this the lawe / of kyng Arthures hous
 Is euery knyght of his / thus dangerous ?
 I am youre owene loue / and youre wyf
 I am she / which that saued hath youre lyf 1092
 And certes / yet no dide I yow neuere vrright<sup>s</sup> (Def 71, back)
 Why fare ye thus with me / this firste nyght
 Ye faren lyk a man / hadde lost his wit
 What is my gilt ? for goddes loue tel it 1096
 And it shal ben amended / if I may
 ¶ Amended quod this knyght ? alias nay / nay
 It wol nat ben amended neuere mo
 Thow art so loothly / and so old also 1100

That vndyr þe erþe is graue or lyth a-bou
 But þis þyn wyf I wore & ek þyn loue
 Myn loue quod he nay myn dampnacyoun
 Alias þat any of myn nacouryn / 1068
 Schulde euere so foule disparigat /
 But al for nouȝt þanne & þis quod sche Constraynedo was he nedys he muste hyre weddo
 And takyth his olde wif & goth to bedde 1072
 Now wil some men seye paraventure
 That for myn neeligens I do no cure
 To telle þow þe ioye & also þarray
 That at þat like feste was þat day 1076
 To whiche thyng sothely I answero schal
 And seye þere was no Loye ne feste at al
 There was but heynnesse & mecho sorwe for priuily he wedde hire in þe morwe
 And al day aftyr bydde hym as an houls
 So þwo was<sup>s</sup> hym his wyf lokede so foule [→ later]
 Gret was þe wo þe knyȝt hadde in his thouȝt
 When he was wyth his wyf in bedde l-brouȝt 1084
 He walwith & he turnth to & fro
 This olde wif lay smylyngs euere mo
 This olde o dere husbende benediciteo flaryth euery knyȝt with his wyf as þe 1088
 Is þis þe lawe of kyng arthures hous
 Is euery knyȝt of his þis dangerous
 I am þoure owene loue & þoure wyf
 I am sche þat saued hath þoure lyf 1092
 And soȝtis I deede þow neuere vryȝt Whi fare þe þus with me þe ferste nyȝt þe fare lyk a man þat hadde lost his wit
 What is myn gilt for godis loue telle me it 1096
 And it schal been a-mendit þif þat I may Amendit quod this knyȝt alias nay nay
 It wels not been a-mendit neuere mo
 Thow art so loothly old & so pore also 1100

GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALK. Corpus MS.		SIX-TEXT 365
pat vnder erpe is graue or lip above But if pat I by wyf were and pi loue My loue quod he nay my dampnacion . Allas pat eny of my naciou Schold eure so foule y-disparaged be But al for nougt <sup>1084</sup> pe ende is pis pat he Constryned was he nedes moste hire wedde And takeþ pis olde wif and goþ to bedde Now wolden some men seyn parauntere That for my negligencie I do no cure To telle you þe Ioye and þe array That at þe feste was pat liko day To which þing <sup>1072</sup> schortly answeze I schal I seye þer was no ioye ne feste at all þer nas but houynesse and mochil sorwe for priuely he wedded hire on a morwe And al day aftre hidde him as an owle / So we was him his wif lokod so foule Gret was þe sorwe þe knyght hadde in his þougth <sup>1084</sup> Whan he was with his wyf a bedde brought he walowþ and tornþ to and fro his olde wif lay smyllyng eueremo And seide O dero housbonde o benedicite fareþ euery knyght þus with his wif as þo Is þis þe lawe of king arthurus hous Is euery knyght of his loue þus daungerous I am þoure owne loue and eek þoure wif I am scho which þat sauod hap þoure lif And certes þit dede I þou neuere vnriht Why fare þo þus wip me þe ferste night þe faren liko a man þat hadde lost his wit fy what is my gilt for goddes loue tel þit And þit schal ben amended if I may Amended quod þis knyght may nay That wil nat ben amended neuere mo þou art so loþly and so olde also	1088	[leaf 104, back]	1072	1076	1080	1084	1088	1092	1096	1100

CORPUS (6-T. 365)

GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALK. Petworth MS.		SIX-TEXT 365
pat vnder erpe is graue or lif above But þif pat I þi wif were and pi loue My loue quod he nay my dampnacion Allas þat eny of my naciou Shuld eure so foule ydisparaged be But al for nougt <sup>1084</sup> þe ende is þis pat he Constryned was he nedes most her wedde And takeþ þis olde wif and goþ to bedde Noue wolden somme men seyn parauntere þat for my negligencie I do no cure To telle you þe Ioye and þe array þat at þe feste was þat ilk day To which þinge shortly answeze I schal I seie þer nas no Ioye ne feste at all þer nas but houynesse and mochel sorowe for priuely he wedded hire on a morwe And alday aftre hidd hym as an owle So woo was him his wif lokod so foule Grete was þe sorowe þe knyght had in his þougth <sup>1084</sup> Whan he was wip his wif a bedde brought He walowþ and ttimeþ as and fro His olde wif laye smyllyng eueremo And seide o dero husbonde o benedicite fareþ euery knyght þus wip his wif as þo Is þis þe lawe of king Arthures hous Is euery knyght of his loue þus daungerous I am þoure owne loue and eke þoure wif I am she which þat sauod hap þoure lif And certes þit did I þou neuere vnriht whi fare þo þus wip me þe firste nyght þe faren liko a man had lost his witte fy what is my gilt for goddes loue telle þit And þit schal ben amended if I may Amended quod þis knyght may nay That wil not bene amended neuere moo þou art so loþly and so old also	1088	[leaf 114]	1072	1076	1080	1084	1088	1092	1096	1100

6 B PETWORTH (6-T. 365)

GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALK. Lansdowne MS.		SIX-TEXT 365
pat vnder erpe is graue or lip above Bot if þat .I. þi wif were and pi loue Mi loue quod he nay my . dampnacione Allas þat any of my nacioue Schold eure so foule disparaged bus Bot al for nougt <sup>1084</sup> þe ende is þis þat he Constrynged was he nedes most he hir wedde And takeþ þis olde wif and goþ to bedde Now wold sum men seine parauntere þat for my negligencie .I. do no cure To tel þouwe þe Ioye and þe arraye þat att þe feste was þilko daye To which þinge schortly answeze .I. schal . .I. seie þer was no ioye ne fest att all þer nas bot houynesse and muche sorwe For priuely he wede hire on morwe And al daie aftre hidde him as an owle So woo was him his wif lokod so foule . Grete was þe sorwe þe knyght had in his þougth <sup>1084</sup> Whan he was wip his wyf ybedde brought He walowþ and torneþ to and fro His olde [wyf] laye smyllyng eueremo And seide Dero husbonde o benedicite Fareþ euery knyght þus wip his wif as þo Is þis þe lawe of kinge Arþours house Is euery knyght of his þus daungerous .I. am þoure loue and eke þoure wif .I. am scho which sauod hap þoure lif And sertis þit dede .I. þouwe neuer vnriht Whi fare þo þus wip me þe first nit þe faren liko a man þat had lost his witte Fy what is my gylte for goddes loue tell itte And it schal bus amended if .I. maye Amend quod þis knyght may naye That wil nougt bus amendeede neuere mo þou ert so loþely and so olde also	1088	[leaf 110]	1072	1076	1080	1084	1088	1092	1096	1100

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 365)

And ther-to comen / of so lough a kynde
 That litel wonder is / though I walwe and wynde
 So wolde god / myn herte wolde breste
 ¶ Is this quod she / the cause of youre vnreste? 1104 ¶ Ye certainly quod he / no wonder is ¶ Now sire quod she / I koude amende al this
 If that me liste / or it were dayes thre
 So wel ye myghte / bere yow vn-to me 1108
But for ye spoken / of swich gentillesse
 ¶ As is descended / out of old richesse
 That therefore / sholden ye be gentil men
 Swich arrogance / is nat worth an hen 1112
 Looke / who that is / moost vertuous alway
 Pryuee and aper<sup>t</sup> and moost entendeth ay
 To do / the gentil dedes that he kan
 Taak hym / for the grettest gentil man<sup>1</sup> 1116
 Crist wole / we clayme of hym oure gentillesse Nat of oure eldres / for hire old richesse for thogh they yene vs / al hir heritage for which we clayme / to been of heigh parage 1120
 Yet may they nat biquetha / for no thyng
 To noon of vs / hir vertuous luyyng
 That made hem / gentil men ycalled be
 And bad vs / folwen hem in swich degre 1124
 ¶ Wel kan / the wise Poete of florence
 That highte Dant<sup>2</sup> spoken in this sentence ¶ Lo / in swich manere rym / is Dantes tale ful selde vp riseth / by his branches smale 1128 Proweesse of man / for god of his goodnesse
 Wole / that of hym / we clayme oure gentillesse
 for of oure eldres / may we no thyng clayme
 But temporel thyng<sup>3</sup> / pat man may hurte and mayme 1132 ¶ Eek euery wight<sup>4</sup> woot this as wel as I
 If gentillesse / were plantid naturrely
 Vn-to a certeyn lynage / doun the lyne
 Pryuee nor aper<sup>t</sup> thanne wolde they neuere fyne 1136
 ELLESMERE 199 (6-T. 366)

And ther-to comen / of so lowe a kynde
 That litel wonder is / though I walwe and wynde
 So wolde god / myn herte wolde breste
 ¶ Is this quod she / the cause of youre vnreste 1104 ¶ Ye certeynly quod he / no wonder is ¶ Now sire quod she / I koude amende al this
 If that me liste / or it were dayes thre
 So wel ye myghte / bere yow vn-to me
 ¶ But for ye spoken of swich gentillesse
 ¶ As is descended / out of old richesse
 That therefore / sholden ye be gentil men
 Swich errogance / is nat worth an hen 1112
 Looke who / pat is / moost vertuous alway
 Pryuee and aper<sup>t</sup> and moost entendeth ay
 To do / the gentil dedes / pat he kan
 Taak hym / for the gentileste man 1116
 Crist wol we clayms of hym oure gentillesse Nat of oure eldres / for hir old richesse
 for thogh they yene vs / al hir heritage for which we clayme / to been of hir parage 1120
 Yet may they nat biquetha / for no thyng
 To noon of vs / hir vertuous luyyng
 That made hem / gentil men ycalled be
 And bad vs / folwen hem in swich degre 1124
 ¶ Wel kan / the wise poete of florence
 That highte Dant<sup>2</sup> spoken in this sentence
 Lo / in swich manere rym / is Dantes tale ful selde vp riseth / by his bratches smale 1128
 Proweesse of man / for god of his proweesse
 Wole / that of hym / we clayme oure gentillesse
 for of oure eldres / may we no thyng clayme
 Dat temporel thyng<sup>3</sup> / that man may hurte and mayme 1132
 Eek euery wight<sup>4</sup> woot this as wel I
 If gentillesse / were plantid naturrely
 Vn-to a certeyn lynage / doun the lyne
 Pryuee nor aper<sup>t</sup> thanne wolde they neuere fyne 1136
 HENGWRT 161 (6-T. 366)

And þerto comyn of so low a kynde
 That lytyl wondir ist þow I walwe & wynde
 So wolde god myn herte wolde breste
 Is þis quod sche þe cause of þoure onreste 1104 þa sorteynly quod he no wondir is Now sire quod sche I coude a-mende al þis if þat me lyste or it were dayis thre
 So wel myȝte þe here þow to me
 But for þe speke of swich gentillesse
 As is descendit out of olde richesse
 That þerfore schul þe ben hghdlyn gentil men Swich arrogauce is not worth an hen 1108
 Loke ho þat is most vertuous alwey
 Pryue & apert & most entendyth ay
 To do þe genytl dedys þat he kan
 Take hym for þe gretteste gentil man 1116
 Cryst wels we cleyme of hym oure gentylesse Noght of oure elderys for oure olde rychesse for þow þey ȝoue vs al here crytage for which we cleymyn to been of high parage 1120
 it may þey not þe-queste for no thyng
 To noon of vs here vertuous luyyng
 That made hem genytlmen l-callede be
 And bad vs foldyn hem in swich degre
 Weel can þe wise poete of florence
 That hyst dar declare þis centence Lo in swych a manere rym is dantes tale ful selde vp ryȝth by hyse braunchis smale 1128
 Proweesse of man for god of his proweesse
 Wole þat we cleyme of hym oure gentillesse for of oure eldres we may no thyng cleyme
 But temporel thyng þat man may hurte & mayme 1132 Ek euery vryȝt wot þis as wel as I
 if gentillesse were plantid naturrely
 Vp to a certeyn lemgod doun þe lyne Preue nor apert þanne wolde þy neuere fyne 1136
 CAMBRIDGE 199 (6-T. 366)

And þer-to comen of so lowe a kynde
That litel wonder is þough I walwe & wynde
So wolde god myn herte wolde breste
Is þis quod sche þe cause of þoure vnrreste: 1104 þo · certainly quod he no wonder is Now sire quod sche I couþe amendo al þis (leaf 105, r<sup>o</sup> 110)
If þat me liste or it were dayes þre
So wel 3o mighte bere þou vnto me 1108
¶ But for 3o spoken of such gentillesse ¶ Nota bene de nobilitate
As is descended out of alle richesse /
þat þerfore schulden 3o be gentil men Such erregance nys nat wopþ an hen 1112
Lo who þat most is vertuous alway
Þrey and aperte and most endep ay
To do þe gentil dedes þat he can
And take him for þe grettest gentil man 1116
Crist wote we clayne of him oure gentillesse Nat of oure eldres for here olde richesse for þough þey 3ene vs alle here heritage for which we clayne to be of high þarage 1120 3it may þei not bequeþe for no þing
To non of vs here vertuous luyng
That made hem gentil men y-called be
And had vs folwen hem in such degre 1124
Wel can þe wise poete of florence
þat hight dante speke in þis sentence Lo in swich maner ryme is dantes tale 1128 ful seelde vp riseþ by his branches smale
Þrovesse of man for god of his þrovesse
Wil þat of him we clayne oure gentillesse for of oure eldres may we noþing clayne 1132
But temperel þing þat we may herte and mayne Eke every wight wot þis as wel as I
If gentillesse were plantad naturally Vnto a certein linage down þe lyne
Þryne and aperte þanne wolde þey neuer fyne 1136

And þer-to comen of so lowe a kinde þat no wonder is þouþo I walwe & wynde
So wolde god my herte wolde bres
Is þis quod she þe cause of þoure vnrest 1104 þe certainly quod he no wonder is (leaf 111, back)
Now sire quod she I couþe amendo al þis
If þat me list er þi were daies þre
So wel 3o mygt bere þou vnto me . 1108
¶ But for 3o spoken of such gentillesse ¶ Nota bene de nobilitate
As is descended out of alle richesse
þat þerfore shulden 3e be gentile men Such errogance nys not wopþ an hen 1112
Loke who so is most vertuous alway
Þriuey and aperte and best endep ay
To do þe beste dedis þat he can
And take him for þe grettest gentil man 1116
Of criste cleyme we our gentillesse
Not of oure elders for our old richesse for þouþe þei 3ene vs al our heritage for which we clayne to be of his þarage 1120 3it may þei not byqueþe for no þing
To non of vs here vertuous luyng þat made hem gentile men y-called be
And had vs folowen in such degre 1124
wel can þe wise poete of florence
þat hight dant speke in þis sentence Lo in such manere Ryme is dantes tale 1128 ful seelde vþriseþ by his branches smale Þrovesse of man for god of his þrovesse wil þat of hym we clayne our gentillesse
for of oure eldres may we no þing clayne 1132
But temporal þing þat man may hirt and mayne Eke every wight wote þis as wel as I þe gentellesse were plantad naturally Vnto a certeyn lynage down þe lyne
Þriue and apert þan wold he neuer fyne 1136

And þer-to comen of so lowe a kinde þat litel wonder is þouþe .I. walow and winde
So wolde god myne herte wolde to breste
Is þis quod sche þe cause of þoure vnrreste 1104 þe certainly quod he no wonder is Nowe sir quod sche .I. couþe amendo al þis
If þat me list ar it were daies þre
So well 3e myghte bere þowe vn-to me 1108
Bot for 3o spoken of such gentillesse
As is descended oute of al richesse þat þere-for scholden 3e be gentil men Suche errogance is nouht worþe an hen 1112
Lo who þat most is vertuous alweis
Þreue and a-pert and most endep hie
To do gentil dedes þat he can
And take him for þe grettest gentil man 1116
Crist wif we cleime of him oure gentillesse
Not of oure eldres for here olde riches
For þouþe þei 3ene vs al her Heritage
For which we cleime to be of hie þarage 1120
3it may þei nouht be-queþe for no þing
To none of vs here vertuous leuenge That maad hem gentil men y-called be
And had vs folowen hem in suche degre . 1124 Wle can þe wise Poet of florens (leaf 100, back) þat hilt Danto spokþ in þis sentens
Lo in Suche maner rim is dantes tale 1128
Ful seide vp riseþ be his branches smale Þroves of man for god of his þrovesse
Wil þat we of cleime oure gentillesse
For of oure heldres maie we no þing cleime 1132
Bot temperal þing þat man maie hirt and maheime Eke every white wote þis as wele as .I.
If gentillesse were plantad naturaly
Into a certeine lignage downe þe line
Þreue and aperte þan wold þey neuer fyne 1136

To doon of gentilnesse / the faire office
They myghte do / no vileynye or vice ¶ Tak fyr / and ber it in the dekeste hous
Bitwix this / and the mount of Kaukasous
And lat men / shette the dorre and go thenne
Yet wole the fyr / as faire lye and brenne
As twenty thousand men / myghte it biholde
His office naturel / ay wol it holde
Vp peril of my lyf / til that it dye
¶ Heere may ye se wel / how þat gentrye
Is nat annexed to possession
Sith folk / ne doon hir operacion
Alwey as dooth the fyr / lo in his kynde
for god it woot men may wel often fynde
A lordes sone / do shame and vileynye
And he þat wole / han pris of his gentrye for he was born / of a gentil hous
And hadde hisse elders / noble and vertuous
And nel hym seluen / do no gentil dedis Ne folwen his gentil Auncestre þat deed is He nys nat gentil / be he due or Erl for vileyns synful dedes / make a cherl for gentilnesse / nys but renomee
Of thyne auncestres / for hire heigh bouste
Which is a strange thyng / to thy persone
Thy gentilnesse / cometh fro god alone
Thanne comth / oure verray gentilnesse of grace
It was no thyng / biguete the vs / with oure place ¶ Thanketh hou noble / as seith Valerius
Was thilke / Tullius Hostilius
That out of pouerte / roos to heigh noblesse
Redeth senek / and redeth eek Boece
Ther schul ye seen expres / þat no drede is
That he is gentil / that dooth gentil dedis
And therfore leue housbonde / I thus conclude
Al were it / that myne Auncestres weren rude

To doon / of gentilnesse / the faire office
They myghte do / no vileynye or vice ¶ Tak fyr / and bere it in the dekeste hous
Bitwix this / and the mount of kaukasous
And lat men shette the dorre / and go thenne
Yet wol the fyr / as faire lye and brenne
As twenty thousand men / myghte it biholde
His office naturel / ay wol it holde
Vp peril of my lyf til that it dye
Here may ye se wel / how þat gentrye
Is nat annexed / to possession¶
Sith folk ne doon hir operacion
Alwey / as dooth the fyr lo in his kynde
for god it woot men may wel often fynde
A lordes sone / do shame and vileynye
And he þat wol han prys / of his gentrye
for he was born / of a gentil hous
And hadde hisse elders / noble and vertuous
And nyl hym seluen / do no gentil dedis Ne folwen his gentil Auncestre / that deed is He nys nat gentil / be he due of Erl for vileyns synful dedes / maken a cherl
for gentilnesse / nys but renomee
Of thyne Auncestres / for hir hie bouste
Which is strange thyng / for thy persone
Thy gentilnesse / cometh fro god alone
Thanne comth / oure verray gentilnesse of grace
It was no thyng / biguete the vs / with oure place
Thanketh how noble / as seith Valerius
Was thilke / Tullius hostilius
That out of pouerte / roos to heigh noblesse
Redeth Senek / and redeth eek Boece
Ther schul ye seen expres / þat no drede is
That he is gentil / that dooth gentil dedis
And therfore / leue housbonde / I thus conclude
Al were it / that myne Auncestres weren rude

To don of gentilnesse þe offys
They myste don no vilenye nor vice Tak fyr & bere in þe derkeste hous
Be-tryxe this & þe mount of Çankeraus
And let men schette þe dore & go þenne þit wil þe fyr lye as fyr & bronne
As twenty thousand men myste it by-holde
His office naturel ay wel it holde
Vp peril of myn lyf tyl þat it deye
Here may se wol sen how þat gentrye
Is nat annexed to possession
Sithe folk ne don here operacion Alwey as doth the fyr in hisu kynde for I wot men may ful ofte fynde
A lordis sone do schame & vilanye
And he þat wels haue prys of his gentrye for he was bore of a gentil hous
And hadde hisse elders noble & vertuous
And nylle hym self don non gentyle dedis
He folwe his gentyle auncestre þat deed is He nys not gentil be he duk or el for violens synful dedys make eke a cherl for gentilnesse nys but renomes
Of thyme auncestris for here hygh bouste
Whiche is a strong thyng to thyn persone
The gentilnesse comyth from god a-lone Thanne comyth oure verray gentilnesse of grace
It was no thyng be-guete the vs with oure place Thynkith how noble as seyth valerius
Jvas that ilke tullius hostilius
That out of pouert ros to gret noblesse
Redyth senec & redith eek boege Ther schul se se expres þat no dred is That he is gentyl that doth gentyl dedis
And þerfore leue husbunde I thus conclude Al were it þat myne auncestres were rude

To don of gentileste þe faire office þey myghten do no vrynyng no vice Take fyre and bere it in þe derkest hous
Ditwix þis and þe mount of Caucasus 1140
And let man schette þe dore and go þonne set wol þe fyr as faire lye and brenne
As þough a þousand men myght it beholde
His office naturel ay wol it holde / vp peril of lif til þat it dye /
here may 3e se wel how þat gentrye /
Is not annexed to possession Sippe folk do nat here operacion 1148 alwey as doþ þe fir lo in his kinde for god it wote men may ful often fynde
A lordes sone do schame and vilanye
And he þat wil haue pris of his gentric for he was boren of a gentil hous
And hadde his eldres noble and vertuous
And nyl himseluen do no gentil dedes
No folwe his gentil aneestre þat dede is he nys nat gentil be he duk or erle for vyleyns synful dedes make a cheerle for gentilesse nys but reneute
Of þin ancestres for here bouste 1160
Which is a strong þing for þi persone
The gentilesse comþ fro god alone
Thanne comþ oure verrey gentilesse of grace
It was noþing by queþe vs with oure place / þinkþ how noble as seiþ valerius
Was þilke Tullius hostilius
þat out of powerte ros to heigh noblesse Redeþ Senec and redeþ eke Boesse / þer schulþ 3e seen expresse þat it no drede is þat he is gentil þat doþ gentil dedes
And þerfore deern husbonds I þus conclud 1172
Al were it þat myn ancestres were rude

To don of gentileste þe fair office þe mysten do no vileny or vice
Take fyre and bere it in þe derkest hous
By-twix þis and the mount of Caucasus. 1140
And let man shette þe dore and go þonne 3it wol þe fire as faire lye and brenne
A[þ] thousand men mygt it biholde
His office naturel ay wil it holde 1144
Vp perile of lif til þat it die
Here may 3e se wel how þat gentrye
Is nat annexed to possession
Sip folk do not her operacion 1148
Al weis as doþ þe fire lo in his kinde
for god it wote men may ful often fynde
A lordes sone doo shame and vilenye
And he þat wil haue price of his gentric for he was boren of a gentile hous
And hadde his eldres noble and vertuous
And nyl him-seluen do no gentile dedys
No folow his gentile Ancestre þat dede is He nys nat gentile be he þuke or erle
for vyleyns synful dedes make a cheerle for gentilesse nys but reneut renome
Of þino ancestres for hir bowte bouste 1160
Which is a strong þing for þi persone
The gentilesse comþ fro god alone
Than cometh our verrey gentilesse of grace
It was no þing by queþe vs with our place 1164 þenkeþ how noble as seiþ valerius
Was þilke Tullius Hostilius
þat out of powerte ros to his noblesse
Redeþ Senec and redeþ eke Boesse 1168 þer schulþ 3e sene expresse þat it no drede is þat he is gentile þat doþ gentile dedys
And þerfore dere husbonds I þus conclud 1172
Al were it þat myn ancestres were rude

To done of gentileste þe faire office
Thei myhten do no velany nor vice Tak fyre and bere it in þe derkest hous
Be-twix þis and þe mount of Caucasus 1140
And let men schette þe dore and go þonne 3it wil þe fire ly as fair and brenne
As þough a .M. men myht it be-holde
His office naturel ay wil it holde 1144
Vp peril of lif til þat it deis
Here maie 3e se wels howe þat gentrye
Is nouht anexed to possession
Soþ folke doþ nouht her operacion 1148
Alweie as doþ þe fire lo in his kinde
For god it wote men maie ful often findo
A lordes sone do schame and vlenye
And he þat wil haue prise of his gentrye
For he was borne of a gentil hous
And hadde his heldres noble and vertuous
And nyl him-seluen do no gentil dedes
Ne folows his gentil aneestre þat dedes 1156
He is nouht gentil be he due or Erie
For velayns synful dede mak a cherle
For gentilesse no is bot reuente
Of þino Ancestres for hire bente 1160
Which is a stronge þing for þi persone
The gentilles comþ fro god alone
Than comþ oure verraie gentilles of grace
He was noþing be-queþe vs with oure place 1164 þenkeþ howe noble as seiþ valerius
Was þilke tullius hostilius .
That oute of pouert ros to hiehe noblesse Redeþ Senec and rede eke Boesse
There scholdþ 3e seen expresse þat it no drede is That is gentil þat doþ gentil dedes
And þer-fore dere husbonds I þus conclud 1172
Al were þat myne Ancestres were so rude

Yet may the hye god / and so hope .I.
 Grante me grace / to lyuen vertuously
 Thanne am I gentil / whan that I bigynne
 To lyuen vertuously / and weyus synne

(leaf 70, back) 1176

¶ De paupertate

Ander ther as ye / of pouerte me repreue
 The hye god / on whom þat we bilence
 In wilful pouerte / ches to lyue his lyf

And certes / every man / mayden or wyf
 May vnderstonde / that Ihesus heuene kyng<sup>1</sup>

Ne wolde nat chesen vicious luyung<sup>1</sup>
 Glad pouerte / is an honeste thyng certeyn

This wole Senec<sup>1</sup> and othere clerkes seyn
 Who so þat halt hym payd of his pouerte

I holde hym riche / al hadde he nat a sherte
 He þat coueith / is a pouere wright<sup>1</sup>

for he wolde han / that is nat in his myght<sup>1</sup>
 But he þat nocht hath / ne coueith hau

Is riche / al-thogh ye holde hym but a knaue ¶ Verry pouerte / it syngeth properly

Iuenal / seizh of pouerte myrily
 The þoure man / whan he goth by the weye

Bifore the theues / he may synge and pleye
 Pouerte is hateful good / and as I gesse

A ful greet bryngere / out of bisnesse
 A greet amendero eek of sapience

To hym / that taketh it in pacience
 Pouerte is this / al-though it seme alenge

Possession / that no wight wol chalenge
 Pouerte ful ofte / whan a man is lowe

Maketh his god / and eek hym self to knowe
 Pouerte / a spectacle is / as thyngketh me

Thurgh which he may / hiso verry freondes see
 And therfore sire / syn þat I nocht yow greue

Of my pouerte / namore ye me repreue
 ¶ Now sire / of elde ye repreue me

N And certes sire / thogh noon auctoritee

ELLESMEERE 201 (6-T. 366)

Yet may the hye god / and so hope I /
 Grante me grace / to lyuen vertuously
 Thanne am I gentil / whan þat I bigynne
 To lyuen vertuously / and weyus synne

(leaf 75, back)

1176

¶ And ther as ye / of pouerte me repreue
 The hye god / on whom þat we bilence
 In wilful pouerte / ches to lyue his lyf

And certes every man / mayden / or wyf
 May vnderstonde / þat Ihesus heuene kyng<sup>1</sup>

Ne wolde nat chese / a vicious luyung<sup>1</sup>
 Glad pouerte / is an honeste thyng certeyn

This wol Senec<sup>1</sup> and othere clerkes seyn
 Who so þat halt hym payd / of his pouerte

I holde hym riche / al hadde he nat a sherte
 Ho that coueith / is a poure wright<sup>1</sup>

for he wolde han / that is nat in his myght<sup>1</sup>
 But he þat nocht hath / no coueith hau

Is riche / al thogh he holde hym but a knaue Verry pouerte / is synne properly

Iuenal seith / of pouerte myrily
 ¶ The poure man / whan he goth by the weye

Bifore the theues / he may synge and pleye
 Pouerte is hateful good / and as I gesse

A ful greet bryngere / out of bisnesse
 A greet amendero eek of sapience

To hym / that taketh it in pacience
 Pouerte is thyng<sup>1</sup> al thogh it seme elenge

Possession / that no wight wol chalenge
 Pouerte ful ofte / whan a man is lowe

Maketh hym self / and eek his god to knowe
 Pouerte / a spectacle is / as thyngketh me

Thurgh which he may / his verry freendes see
 And therfore sire / syn þat I nocht yow greue

Of my pouerte / namore ye me repreue
 ¶ Now sire / of elde ye repreue me

And certes sire / thogh noon auctoritee

HENGWRT 163 (6-T. 368)

þit may þe hye god & so hope I Grante me grace to leue vertuously
 Thanne am I gentil whan þat I be-gynne
 To louyn vertuously & louyn synne

1176

And here as þe of pouert me repreue
 The hye god of whom þe me repreue
 In wilful pouert ches to lede his lyf

And certys euery man mayde or wyf
 May vnderstondyn Ihesus<sup>1</sup> heuene kyng

[ MS Bc ]

Ne wolde not chese an vicious luyung
 Glad pouert is an oneste thyng certeyn

This wole Senek & oþere clerkyn seyn
 Ho so hym halt payed of his pouerte

I holde hym ryche hadde he but a sherte Ho þat coueytyth is a poure wight for he wolde han þat is not in his mygt

 But he þat nocht hath no coueythit to hane

Is<sup>2</sup> riche al-thow men holde hym but a knaue

[ a later ]

Verry pouert it syngyth properly
 Iuenal seyth of pouerte merly

The poure man whan he goth by the weye
 By-fore þe thewis he may synge & pleye

Pouerte is hateful good as I gesse
 A ful greet bryngere out of bisnesse

A greet amendero ek of sapience
 To hem þat takyth it in pacience

Pouerte is this al-thow it seme alenge Possessious þat no man wole chalenge

[leaf 227]

1200

Pouerte ful ofte whan a man is lowe
 Makyth his god & hym self to knowe

Pouerte a spectacle is as thyngketh me
 Thorw which he may his verry frend I-see

And therfore syre syn þat I þow not greue
 Of myn pouerte no more þe me repreue

Now syre of elde þe repreue me
 And certis syde thogh non auctoritee

CAMBRIDGE 201 (6-T. 368)

SIX-TEXT 368
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALK. Corpus MS.

3et may þat heye god and so hope I
Grantø me grace to lyue vertuouly
Thanø am I gentil whan þat I begynne
To lyuen vertuouly and weyuen synne 1176 And þer as 3e of pouertø me repreue
The hie god on whom þat we bileue (leaf 106, A<sup>r</sup> 116a)
In wilful pouertø chese to leese his lijt
¶ Nota de paupertate
1180 And certes euery man and mayde and wijf
May vnderstonde thesu heuen king
Ne wolde not chese a vicious lyuyng
Glad pouertø is an honest þing certeyn 1184 þis wille Senec/ and oþer clerkes sein
Who so þat holþ him payed of his pouertø
I holde him riche al hadde he nougt cert he þat cousetþ is a pouere wright 1188 for he wolde han þat nys nat in his might But he þat nougt haþ no cousetþ to haue
Is riche al þougþ men holde him but a knaue Verrey pouerte is synne proprely 1192 Inuenal seiþ of pouertø myrily
The pore man whan he goþ by þe way
Bifore þe þenes he may synge and play
Pouertø is hatel good and as I gesse /
1196 A ful gretø bringer out of bysynesse
A gretø amender eke of Sapience
To him þat lackeþ it in pacience
Pouertø is þis al þougþ it seme alonge
1200 * Possession þat no wright wil chalenge
Pouertø ful often whan a man is lowe
Makeþ his god and eke himself to knowe
Pouertø a spectacle is as þenkeþ me 1204 þurgh which he may his verrey frendes see
And þerfor syn þat I you nought greue
Of my pouerte nomere me repreue
Now sirs of elde 3e repreue me
1208 And certes sirs þorowe nougt auctorite

CORPUS (6-T. 869)

SIX-TEXT 368
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALK. Petworth MS.

3it may þat hie god an so hope I
Grantø me grace to lyue vertuouly
Than am I gentile whan þat I bygyne
To lyuen vertuouly and leuen synne
1176 And þer as 3e of pouertø me repreue
(leaf 105, B<sup>r</sup> 116b)
The hie god on whom þat we byleue
¶ Nota de paupertate
1180 In wilful pouerte . chas to lede his lif
And certes euery man boþ maide & wilf 1184 I holde him riche al had he nougt serte
He þat cousetþ is a poor wif 1188 for he wolde han þat is not in his myzt
But he þat nougt haþ ne kensetþ to haue
Is riche al þougþ men hold him but a knaue Verrey pouerte is signe proprely 1192 Inuenal [saiþ] of pouertø merily
The pore man whan he goþ by þe way
Biforn þe þenes he may synge and play
Pouerte is hatel good and as y gesse 1196 A ful grete bringer out of bysynesse
A grete amender eke of sapience
To him þat lackeþ it in pacience
Pouerte is þis al þougþ it seme alonge
1200 Possession þat no wright wil chalenge
Pouerte ful often whan a man is lowe
Makeþ his god and eke him self to knowe
Pouerte in spectacle is as þenkeþ me 1204 þorowe which he may his verrey frendes see
And þerfor siþ þat I you not groue
Of any pouerte no more me repreue
Now sirs of elde 3e repreue me
1208 And certes sirs þorowe nougt auctorite

PETWORTH (6-T. 368)

SIX-TEXT 368
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALK. Lansdowne MS.

3it maie þat hie god and so hope .I.
Grantø me grace to leue vertuouly
Than am .I. gentil whan þat .I. begian
To leuen vertuouly and weuen sinne 1176 ¶ And þere as 3e of pouertø me repreue
(leaf 105, B<sup>r</sup> 116b)
The hie god on whom þat we beleue
¶ Nota de paupertate
1180 In wilful pouertø ches to leue his lif
And certes euery man and maide and wif 1184 Maie vnder-stonde thesu heuen kinge
Ne wold nougt chese a vicious leuelinge
Glad pouertø is an honest þingø certeyne 1184 This wil senece an[ð] oþere clerkes seine Who so þat holde him paide of his pouertø
I holde him riche al heil he nougt serte
He þat cousetþ is a pouer wright
1188 For he wold haue þat is nougt in his myht Bot þat nougt haþe no cousetþ to haue
Is riche al-pouthe men holde him bot a knaue Verrey pouertø is siance proprely 1192 Inuenal seiþe of pouertø merely The pore man whan he goþ by þe waye
Be-for þe þenes he maie synge and pleye
Pouertø is hatel good and as .I. gesse
1196 A ful grete bringer oute of bynesse
A gre amender eke of Sapience
To him þat lackeþ it in pacience
Pouertø is þis al þouthe it seme Alinge 1200 Possessionø þat no wryht wil chalenge
Pouertø ful oft whan a ma[n] is lowe
Makeþ his and eke him self to knowe
Pouertø in spectacle is as þenkeþ me 1204 þourthe whiche he maie his verrey fronde see
And þere sen þat .I. 3oune nougt groue
Of my pouertø no more me repreue ¶ Nota de Senectate
1208 And certes sirs þorouhe noue auctorite

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 868)

Were in no bok / ye gentils of honour
 Seyn / þat men schold / an odd wight doon fauour
 And clepe hym fader / for youre gentillesse
 And Auntours / schal I fynden as I gress . 1212
Now that ye seye / þat I am foul and old / Deu. 24. 15 Than drede you night / to ben a Cokewold for filth and elde / also moot I thece
 Den grete wardayns / vp-on chastite . 1216
 But natheles / sya I knowe youre delit
 I schal fulfille / youre worldly appetit
 ¶ Chese now quod she / oon of thise thynges tweye
 To haue me foul and old / til that I dye . 1220
 And be to you / a trowe humble wyf
 And neuere you displese / in al my lyf
 Or ellis / ye wol haue me / yong and fair
 And take youre aventure / of the repair . 1224
 That schal be to youre hous / by cause of me
 Or in som oother place / may wel be
 Now chese youz seluyn / whether þat you liketh
 ¶ This knyght awroth hym / and sore siketh
 But atte laste / he seide in this manere
 My lady and my loue / and byles deere
 I putte me / in youre wise gouernaunce
 Cheseþ youre self / which may be moost plesance . 1228
 And moost honour / to you and me also
 I do no fors / of the wheithery of the tye
 for as you liketh / it eniseth me . 1232
 ¶ Thanne hald I gale of you / maistry quod she Syn I may chese / and gouerne as me list ¶ Certes wyf quod he / I holde it best ¶ Kys me quod she / we be no longer wroth
 for by my trouthe / I wil be to you bothe . 1236
 This is to seyn / ye be the fair and good
 I pray to god / þat I moote seruen wood
 But I to you / þeal to good and trewe
 As euere was wyf / syn þat the world was newe . 1240

Were in no bok / ye gentils of honour
 Seyn / þat men an old wight shold doon fauour
 And clepe hym fader / for youre gentillesse
 And Auntours / schal I fynden / as I gress . 1212
 ¶ Now that ye seye / that I am foul and bid Thanne drede you night / to ben a Cokewold for filth and elde / þe so mote I thece
 Den grete wardayns / vp-on chastite . 1216
 But natheles / sya I knowe youre delit
 I schal fulfille / youre worldly appetit
 ¶ Chese now quod she / oon of thise thynges tweye
 To haue me foul and old / til that I dye . 1220
 And be to you / a trowe humble wyf
 And neuere you displese / in al my lyf
 Or ellis / ye wol haue me / yong and fair
 And take youre aventure / of the repair . 1224
 That schal be to youre hous / by cause of me
 Or in som oother place / may wel be
 Now chese youz seluyn / whether þat you liketh
 ¶ This knyght awroth hym / and sore siketh
 But atte laste / he seide in this manere
 My lady and my loue / and wyf so deere
 I putte me / in youre wise gouernaunce
 Cheseþ youre self / which þat may be moost plesance . 1228
 And moost honour / to you / and me also
 I do no fors / of the wheithery of the tye
 for as you liketh / it eniseth me . 1232
 ¶ Thanne hald I gale / of you maistry / quod she Syn I may chese / and gouerne as me list
 ¶ Ye certes wyf quod he / I holde it best ¶ Kys me quod she / we be no longer wroth
 for by my trouthe / I wil be to you bothe . 1236
 This is to seyn / ye be the fair and good
 I pray to god / that I moote seruen wood
 But I do you / be al so good and trewe
 As euere was wyf / syn þat the world was newe . 1240

Were in no bok the gentylys of honour
 Seyn þat men schuld an old wyf doon fauour
 And clepys hym fader of youre gentillesse
 And auntours schal I fyndyn as I gress . 1212
 Now þere þe seyn I am foul & old Thanne drede you not to ben a cokewold fythly & elde slaumote I the Den gret wardayns vp-on chastite . 1216
 But natheles sythe I knowe youre delyt
 I schal fulfille youre worldly apetyt
 Chese now quod sche on of þese thyngis tweye
 To haue me foul & old tyl þat I dye
 And be to you a trowe vnable wyf
 And neuere you displese in al my lyf
 Or ellis þe wole haue me yng & fayr
 And take þe aventure of the repayr . 1224
 That schal be to youre hous be cause of me
 Or in sum oþer place may wel be Now cheseþ youþ seluyn whether þat you lykith
 This knyght awroth hym & sore sykith
 But at þe laste he seide in þis manere Myn lady & myn loue & myn wyf so deere
 I putte me in youre wise gouernaunce
 Cheseþ þoure self which may be moost plesance . 1228
 And moost honoure to you & me also I do no fors whether of the too for as you lykith it suffyseth me Thanne hald I gale þe maistry quod sche
 Syn I may chese & gouerne as me list ¶ Certes wyf quod he I holde it for þe best ¶ Kys me quod sche we be no lengere wroth for by myn trouthe I wole be to you bothe . 1236 That is to seyne bothe fayr & good
 I praye to god I mete sidewe stod
 But I to you be al so good & trewe
 As oþere was wyf syn þat þe world was newe . 1240

Were in no boke / 3e gentil of honour
 Seyn þat men schulde an old wif do fauour
 And clepe him fader for your gentillesse /
 And courteous schal I fynden as I gesse / 1212
 Now þer 3e seyn þat I am foul and olde Than drede 3ou nought to ben a cokewold for filþe and helþel' also mote I þe
 Ben grete wardens vnpon chastite -1216
 But napeles syn I knowe youre delyt
 I schal fulfillte your worldly appetyt Chees now, quod sche on of þese þinges tweye /
 To han me foule and olde til þat I dye
 And be to 3ow a trewe humble wif
 And neuere 3ou displese in alle my lif
 Or elles 3e wol haue me songe and fair
 And take 3ou aventure of þe repair 1224
 That schal come to 3oure hous by cause of me
 Or in some oþer place wel may be Now chees 3ou seluen whether þat 3ou likeþ þis knyght aysed him and sore sikkeþ 1228
 But att laste he soide in þis manere
 My lady and my lone and wif so dere
 I putte me in 3oure wise gouernance
 Cheesþ 3ou self which may be most plesance 1232
 And most honour to 3ou and me also
 I do no fyre þe whether of þe twe for as 3ou likeþ it sufficeth me þanne haue I gotte of 3ou maystrie quod sche 1236 Syn I may chees and gouerne as me list
 3e certes wif quod he I holde it for þe best Kisse me quod she we be no longer wroþe
 for by my trouþe I will be to 3ow þe 1240 þis is to sein / to be þe þe fair and good
 I pray to god þat I mote steruen woode
 But I to 3ou be as sadde and trewe /
 As euer was wif syn þat þe world was newe 1244
 corpus (6-T. 390)

Where in no boke 3e gentile in honour
 Seyn þat men schulde an olde wif do fauour
 And clepe hur moder for youre gentillesse
 And courteous schal I fynden as I gesse 1212
 Now þere 3e seyn þat I am foule and olde Than drede 3ou nought to bene cokewold for filþe and helde' also mote I thes
 Ben grete wardens vnpon chastite 1216
 But napeles sif I knowe youre delite
 I schal fulfillte youre worldly appetite
 Chees now quod she on of þise þinges tweye
 To han me foule and olde til þat I dye 1220
 And be to 3ou a trewe humble wif
 And neuere 3ou displese in al my lif
 Or elles 3e wil haue me songe and fair
 And take 3oure aventure of þe repair 1224
 That schal come to 3oure hous by cause of me
 Or in some oþer place wel may be Now chees 3ou seluen whether 3ou likeþ this knyght aysed him and sore sikkeþ 1228
 But att he last he soide in þis manere
 My lady and my lone and wif so dere
 I putte me in 3oure wise gouernance
 Cheesþ 3ou self which may be most plesance 1232
 And most honour to 3ou and me also
 I do no fyre þe whether of þe twe
 for as 3ou likeþ it sufficeth me 1236
 Than haue I gotte of 3ou þe maystrie quod sche
 Sif I may chees and gouerne as me list
 3e certes wif quod he I holde it for þe best Kisse me quod she we be no longer wroþe
 for by my trouþe I will be to 3ow þe 1240 þis is to sein þe þe fair and good
 I pray to god þat I mote steruen woode
 But I to 3ou be as sadde and trewe /
 As euer was wif syn þat þe world was newe 1244
 PETWORTH (6-T. 369)

Wher in no boke 3e gentil of honoure.
 Soins þat men schulde an elde wif do fauour
 And clepe her moder for her gentillesse
 And courteous schal I fynde as I gesse 1212 Now þere 3e seins þat I am foule and olde þan drede 3ou nought to be no cokewold.
 For filþe and helþe as 3ou I þe þen grete verdauns vnpon chastite 1216
 Bot napeles sen I knowe 3oure delite
 I schal I fulfill 3oure worldly appetite
 Chees now quod sche one of þis þinges tweye
 To han me foule and olde til þat I dye 1220
 And be to 3ou a trewe humble wif
 And neuer 3ou displese in al my lif
 Or elles 3e wil haue me songe and fair
 And take 3oure aventure of þe repair 1224
 That schal com to 3oure hous by cause of me
 Or in some oþer place wel may be Nowe chees 3ou seluen whether þat 3ou likeþ
 This knyht aysed him and sore he sikkeþ 1228
 Bot att to last he seide in þis manere
 My lady and my lone and wif so dere
 I putte me in 3oure wise gouernance
 Cheesþ 3ou self which may be most plesance 1232
 And most honour to 3ou and me also
 I do no foros whether of þe twe
 For as 3ou likeþ it sufficeth me 1236
 Than haue I gotte of 3ou þe maystrie quod sche
 Sen I may chees and gouerne as me list
 3e certes wif quod he I holde it for þe best
 Kisse me quod she we be no longer wroþe
 For by my trouþe I will be to 3ou þe 1240 þis is to sein þe þe þe fair and good
 I praye to god þat I mote steruen woode
 Bot I. to 3ou be also sadde and trewe /
 As euer was wif syn þat þe world was newe 1244
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 369)

And but I be tomorn / as fair to seene
 As any lady / Emperice or queene
 That is bitwixe the Est<sup>e</sup> and oke the West Dooth with my lyf / and deth / right as yow lest 1248 Cast vp the curtya / looks how that it is ¶ And whan the knyght saugh verrailly al this
 That she so fair was / and so yong ther-to for ioye / he hente hire / in hise armes two 1252
 His herte bathed / in a bath of blisse
 A thousand tyme srew / he gan hire kisse
 And she obeyed hym in euery thyng
 That myghte doon hym plesance or likyng'
 ¶ And thus they lyue / vn-to hir lyues ende
 In parfit ioye / and Ihesu crist vs sende
 Housbondes meeke / yonge / fresch a bedde
 And grace / touerbyde hem þat we wedde 1250
 And eek / I pray Ihesu shorte hir lyues
 That nat wol be gouerned by hir wyues
 And olde and angry nygardes of dispence
 God sende hem soone / verray pestilence 1264

¶ Here endeth / the Wyues tale of Bathie ☞

And but I be to morn / as fair to seene
 Ay any lady / Emperice / or Queene
 That is bitwix the Est<sup>e</sup> and eek the West
 Do with my lyf / and deth / right as yow lest 1248 Cast vp the Curtyn / looke how þat it is
 And whan the knyght saw verrailly al this
 That she so fair was / and so yong ther-to for ioye he hente hire / in his armes two 1252
 His herte bathed / in a bath of blisse
 A thousand tyme a rewe / he gan hir kisse
 And she obeyed hym / in euery thyng
 That myghte do hym plesance / or likyng'
 And thus they lyue / vn-to hir lyues ende
 In parfit ioye / and Ihesu crist vs sende
 Housbondes meke / yonge / and fresch a bedde
 And grace / touerbyde hem that we wedde 1260
 And eek / I praye Ihesu shorte hir lyues
 That night wol be gouerned / by hir wyues
 And olde / and angry nygardes of dispence
 God sende hem soone / verray pestilence 1264

¶ Here endeth the Wyues tale of Batho

And but I be to morwe as fayr to seene
 As any lady Emperesse or queene
 That ouere was betwixse þe Est & þ<sup>e</sup> west Doth with myn lyf & doth ryȝt as þow lest 1248 Cast vp þe curtyn & loke how þat it is
 And whan þat þe knyght saw verrailly al þis That sche so fayr was & so yung þer to for ioye he hente hyre in hise armys too 1252
 His herte bathit in a bath of blys
 A thousnt aythe a rowe he gan hire kys
 And sche obeyede hym in euery thyng
 That myȝte do hym plesauce or lykynȝ
 And þus þey lyue vn-to here lyuys ende
 In paryt ioye & Ihesu crist vs synde Husbondis meke þinge & frosche in bedde
 And grace to ouer byde hem þat we wedde 1260
 And ek I praye Ihesu shorte here lyuys
 That wels not been gouernyd by here wyuys
 And olde & angry nygardys of dispence
 God sende hem soone verray pestelence 1264

Here endith the Wif of Batho hyre tale

[Gap of one line in the MS.]

SIX-TEXT 370
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. Corpus MS.

And but I be to morwe as fair to seene
As any lady emperice or queene /
pat is bitwen þe est and oek þe weste /
Do wij my lif and deþ right as þou lest 1248
[bottom of leaf 100] Cast vp þe curteyne loke how it is / [leaf 115 A]
And whanne þat þe knyght sawh al þis
That sche so fair was and so yonge þerto for joye he hente hir in his armes tuo 1252 his herte baped in a þap of blisse
A þousand tyme a rowe he gan hire kisse
And seþa obeyed him in euery þinge
That mighte doon him plesaunce or likyng 1256
And þus þei lyued vnto here lyues ende
In perlyþ ioye and ihesu crist vs sende housbondes meke þonge and freische abedde 1260
And grace to ouerlede hem þat we wedde
And eke I pray to ihesu schort here lyues
That wil not be gþuened by here wyues 1263
And olde and angry nyggardes of dispence
God send hem some a verray pestilence ¶ Explicit

SIX-TEXT 370
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. Petworth MS.

And but I be to morow as fair to seene
As any lady Emperesse or queene pat is by-twene þe Est and eke þ' west doþ wij my lif and deþo riht as þou lest 1248
[leaf 140, back]
Cast vp þe Curtyne loke how it is And whan þe knyght sawe al þis pat she so faire was and so yonge þerto for ioie he hent her in his armes twoo 1252
His herte bathed in a bath of blisse
A thousand<sup>1</sup> tyme a rowe hire gan he kisse
[? MS 201]
And she obeyed him in euery þinge
That myght done hym plesaunce or likinge 1256
And þus þei lyued vnto her lyues ende
In parfitt Ioye and ihesu crist vs sende Husbonde. yonge. make and fressht abedde 1260
And grace to ouerlede hem þat we wedde
And eke I prei to ihesu short her lyues
That wil not be governed by her wyues 1264
And olde and angry nygard and dispence
God sende hem some a verpay pestilence

¶ Thus endep þe tale of þe wif of bath /

SIX-TEXT 370
GROUP D. § 2. WIFE'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.

And bot .I. be to morwe also faire to seene
As any lady Emperes or queene pat is be-twene þe est and eke þe west
Do wij my lif and deþo riht as þou lest 1248 Kast vp þe kurteyne and loke how it is
And whan þe knyht sawh al þis pat sche so faire was and so yonge þerto
[leaf 100]
For joye he hent hir in his armes tuo 1252
His hert baped in a þapþe of blisse
A . M. tyme a rowe he gan hir kisse
And sche obeide him in euery þinge pat myht done him plesans or likeinge 1256
And þus þei leued vnto her lyues hende
In parfite Ioye and ihesu crist vs sende Hosbonde meke þonge and freshe y bedde 1260
And grace to ouer-lede lame þat we wedde
And eke .I. prai to ihesu schort her lyues pat wil nought be gouerned be hir wyues
And olde and Angry Nigard in dispence
God send hem some a verrei Pestelence 1264

Explicit fabula Matrone vxoris de Bathonia .

¶ The prologe of the fretes tale

[Dist 69, back]

THis worthy lymytour / this noble frere
He made alwey / a maner louryng chere
Vpon the Somnour / but for honestee
No vileyns word / as yet to hym spak he
But atte laste / he seyde vn-to the wyf
Dame quod he / god yene yow right good lyf
Ye han heer touched / al so moot I thee
In scole mestere / greet difficultee
Ye han seyð muche thyngs right wel I seye
But dame / heere as we ryde by the weye
Vs nedeth nat. to speken but of game
And lete / auctoritees / on goddes name
To prechyngs and to scole of clergie
And if it lyke / to this compaignye
I wol yow / of a somnour telle a game
Pardee / ye may wel knowe by the name
That of a Somnour / may no good be sayd
I praye / þat noon of you / be yuele apayd
A Somnour / is a reanere vp and down
With mandementis / for fornicacioun
And is y-bet at every townes ende
¶ Oure hoost tho spak / a sire / ye sholde be hende
And curteys / as a man of youre estat
In compaignye / we wol haue no debaat Telleth youre tale / and lat the Somnour be ¶ Nay quod the Somnour / lat hym seye to me
What so hym list when it comth to my lot
By god / I shal hym quiten euery grot
I shal hym tellen / which a greet honour
Is it / to be a flaterynge lymytour
And of many another manere cryme
Which nedeth nat rehersen for this tyme
And his office / I shal hym telle ywis
¶ Oure hoost answerd / pees namoure of this
And after this / he seyde vn-to the frere
Tel forth youre tale / leue maister deere

ELLESMEERE 204 (6-T. 371)

¶ The prologe of the ffretes tale

[on leaf 73, back]

This worthy lymytour / this noble frere
He made al wey / a manere louryng chere
Vp on the Somnour / but for honestee
No vileyns word / as yet to hym spak he
But atte laste / he seyde vn-to the wyf
Dame quod he / god yene yow right good lyf
Ye han heer touched / al so mote I thee
In scole mestere / greet difficultee
Ye han seyð muche thyngs right wel I seye
But dame / here as we ryden by the weye
Vs nedeth nat to speken / but of game
And lete auctoritees / on goddes name
To prechyngs and to scole of clergie
But if it like / to this compaignye
I wol yow / of a Somnour telle a game
Pardee / ye may wel knowe by the name
That of a Somnour / may no good be sayd
I praye / þat noon of you / be spayd
A somnour / is a reanere vp and down
With mandementis / for fornicacioun
And is ybet at every townes ende
¶ Oure hoost tho spak / a sire / ye sholde be hende
And curteys / as a man of youre estat
In compaignye / we wol no debaat
Telleth youre tale / and lat the Somnour be ¶ Nay quod the Somnour / lat hym seye to me
What so hym list when it comth to my lot
By god / I shal hym quiten euery grot
I shal hym telle / which a greet honour
It is / to be a flaterynge lymytour
And of many another manere cryme
Which nedeth nat rehersen / for this tyme
And his office / I shal hym telle ywis
¶ Oure hoost answerd / pees namoure of this
And after this / he seyde vn-to the frere
Tel forth youre tale / leue maister deere
Here endeth the prologe of the ffrete

HENGWRT 166 (6-T. 871)

Here begynnyth the prologe of the ffretys tale.

[Dist 69, back]

This worthi lymytour / this noble frere.
He made alweie a maner louryng chero.
vp-on the Somnour but yet for honeste.
No vilenous words as yet spak / he.
But at the laste he seide vn-to the wif.
Dame gods god yene yow right good lif.
Ye han touched here also mote I the.
In scole mestere / greet / difficulte.
Ye han seide mocheit thyng right weil I seio.
But dame here as we riden bi the weie.
Vs nedith not to speken but of game.
And late auctorites go<sup>2</sup> a goddis name.
To prechyng / & to scole eke of clergie.
But if it like vn-to this compaignye.
I witt you of a somnour telle a game.
Parde ye may well knowe be the name.
That of no somnour may no gods be seide.
I praye that non of you be eyth a-paide.
A Somnour is a reanere vp & down.
With mandementis / of fornyacioun.
And is bete at every townes ende.
Our / hoost tho spak a sire / ye schuldo ben hende.
And curteis as man of your / estate.
In compaignye we woff no debate.
Telleth your / tale & laste the Somnour be.
Nay quod the Somnour late hym saie<sup>3</sup> to me
What so hym list when it cometh to my lot.
Bi god I schall hym quyte euery grot.
I schall hym telle which a gret honour /
It is to be a flaterynge lymytour /
And eek / of fruit manye another / cryme.
Whiche nedith not rehersen at this tyme.
And his office I schall hym telle y-wis.
Our / hoost answerd pees no more of this.
And afterwards he seide vn-to the frere.
Tell forth your / tale my loue maister / dere.
Here endith the prolog.

CAMBRIDGE 204 (6-T. 371) [this page, Harl. 1766]

¶ Here bygyrnes þe prologe of þe frere /

This worþy lymytour þis noble frere he made alway lowryng cheere vpon þe somnour but for honeste No vyleynas word as þit spak he / But atte laste he seide vnto þe wif Dame goode god gif þou right good lijf þe han touched heer al so mote I þe In scole matier gret difficulte þe han seid mochel þing right wel I seye But dame heere as we ryden by þe weye Vs nedep nat to speken but of game And late auctoritees a goddes name To preching and to scole eke of clergie / But if it like vnto þis companie I wil þou of a somnour telle a game Perde þe may wel knowe by þe name That of no somnour may no good be sayd I pray þat non of þou be yuele payd A somnour is a romere vp and doun Wif amendement of fornicacioun And is y-bete at every townes ende Oure host þu spak a sive þe scholde ben heonde And curteis as a man of þour astat In companie we wille no debat / Telleþ þoure tale and lateþ þe somnour be Nay quod þe somnour lat him seye to me What so him list when it comþ to my lot By god I schal him quiten every grov I schal him telle such a gret honour It is to be a flaterynge lymytour And eke of ful many an oþer crime Which nedep nat rehersen att þis tyme And his office I schal him telle y-wys Oure host answerde pees nomore of þis And afterward he seide vnto þe frere / Telle forþ þoure tale my leue mayster deere	¶ Incipit pro- logus fratris 1268 1272 1276 1280 1284 1288 1292 1296 1300
---	---

And here bygyrnes þe prologe of þe frere

This worþi lymytour þis noble frere He made alway lowring chere Vpon þe somnour. but for honeste No vyleynas word as þit speke he But at þe last he seide vnto þe wif Dame good god þou ȝou right good lyf þe han touched here also mote I the In scole matere grete difficulte þe han seide mochel þing rist wel I seie But dame here as we riden by þe weie Vs nedep not to spoken but of game And late auctoritees a goddes name To prechen and to scole eke of clergie But gif it like vnto þis companie I wil þou of a somnour telle a game Perde I may wel knowe by þi name That of no somnour may no good be seid I pray þat non of þou be euel speid A somnour is a romere vp and doun Wif a mendement of fornicacioun And is libete at every townes ende Our host þu spak a. sive þe shuld loñ hende And Curteis as man of þour astat In companie we wil no debate Telleþ þoure tale and lat þe somnour be Nay quod þe somnour lat him say to me What so him list. when it comþ to my lot Be god I schal hym quyte every grott I schal him telle swich a grette honour It is to be a flaterynge lymytour And eke of ful many an oþer crime Which nedep not rehersen att þis tyme And his office I schal hym telle ywis Our hoste answerde pees no more of þis And afterward he seide vnto þe frere Telle forþ þoure tale my owen maister deere ¶ Thus endep þe prologe of þe frere.	¶ þe prologe 1268 1272 1276 1280 1284 1288 1292 1296 1300
--	---

Incipit prologus fratris
[See text 1268]

This worþi lymytour þis noble frere He made alweie lowryng chera Vpon þe somnour bot fur honeste No vuleynas wordes as þit spake he Bot att þe last he seide vnto þe wife þe have touchede here as mot .I. þe In scole Matier gret difficulte þe haue seide muchel þinge riht welo .I. seie Bot dame here as we riden be þe weie Vs nedep nouht to spoken bot of game And lete Auctorites in goddes name And to preching and to schole eke of clergie Bot if it like vnto þis compaignie .I. wil þou of a Somnour tel a game Perde .I. maie welle knowe be þi name þat of no somnour mai no good be seide .I. prae þat none of þou be yuel apaid A Somnour is a romer vp and doun Wif a mendement of fornicacioun And is .I. bette att every townes ende Ours þan spake a sive þe scholde be hende And curteis as man of þoure estate In compaignie we wil no debate Telleþ þoure tale and lateþ þe somenour be Nais quod Somnour late him sei to me What so him liste when it comþ to my lois Be god .I. schal him qwite every grette I schal him telli whiche a grette honour It is to be [a] flateringe lymitor And of ful many an oþer crime Whiche nedep nouht rehersen att þis time And his office .I. schal him telli .I.-wis Ours oste answard pees no more of þis And afterward he seide vnto þe frere Tel forþe þoure tale my leue mayster deere . Explicit prologus.	1268 1272 1276 1280 1284 1288 1292 1296 1300
---	---

¶ Heere bigynneth the fireres tale 𐀀

W Hilom ther was dwellynge / in my contree
An Erchedekene / a man of heigh degree
That boldely / dide execucioun
In punysshynge / of fornicacioun
Of wichecraft and eek of bawdrye
Of diffamacoun / and Auowtrye
Of chirche Reues / and of testaments
Of contractes / and eek of lakke of sacraments
Of vsure / and of Symonye also
But certes / lechours dide he grettest wo
They sholde syngen / if þat they were hent
And smale tytheres / weren foule yschent
If any persone / wolde vp-on hem pleyne Ther myghte asteris hym / no pecunyal peyne for smale tithes / and smal offryng
He made the peple / pitously to syng for er the bishope / caughte hym with his hook
They weren in the Erchedeknes book
And thanne / hadde he / thurgh his Iurisdiccioñ
Power / to doon on hem correccioñ
He hadde a Somnour / redy to his hond
A slyer boye / was noon in Engeland for subtilly / he hadde his espiaille
That taughte hym / wher hym myghte auaille
He koude spare / of lechours / oon or two
To techen hym / to foure and twenty mo for though this somnour / wood was as an hare
To telle his harlotrye / I wol nat spare
ELLESMEERE 205 (6-T. 372)

and bigyanoeth his tale

W Hilom / ther was dwellynge in my contree
An Erchedekne / a man of hy degree
That boldely / dide execucion
In punysshynge of fornicacion
Of wichecraft and eek of Bawdrye
Of diffamacioñ / and auntrye
Of chirche Reues / and of testaments
Of contractes / and eek of lakke of sacraments
Of vsure / and of Symonye also
But certes / lechours / dide he grettest wo
They sholde syng<sup>en</sup> if that they were hent
And smale tyth<sup>eres</sup> were foule yschent
If any person / wolde vp-on hem pleyne Ther myghte<sup>3</sup> asteris hym no pecunial peyne for smale<sup>2</sup> tithes & for smal offryng He made the<sup>3</sup> peple ful pitously to syng for er the<sup>3</sup> byschop caught hem with hys hooç
They were<sup>3</sup> in the erchedeknes book
And thanne<sup>2</sup> had he thurgh hys Iuridiccioñ
Power / to<sup>3</sup> do on hem correccioñ
He hadde a Somnour / redy to his hond
A slyer boy / was noon in Engeland
for subtilly / he hadde his espiaille
That taughte hym / wher hym myghte auaille
He koude spare / of lechours / oon or two
To techen hym / to foure and twenty mo for though this Somnour / wood were as an hare
To telle his harlotrye / I wol nat spare
HENGWRT 167 (6-T. 372)

and begynneth the tale:: (Hart MS 1748, on leaf 102, back)

W Hilom ther / was dwellyng / in my contre An Erchedekene a man of hys degree .
That boldely dide execucioun .
In punysshynge of fornyccioun .
Of wichecraft & eek / of bawdrye .
Of diffamacioñ & avoutrie .
Of chirche reues & of testaments .
Of contractis & of lak / of sacramentis .
Of vsure & Symonye also .
But certis lechours dide he most wo .
Thei schulden syngen if they were hent .
And smale tithers weren foule schent .
Yf any persone wolde vp-on hem pleyne .
Ther / myght a-steris hym no pecuniall peyne .
for smale tithes & eek / smale offerynge .
he made the peple apitously to syng .
for or the Bischop caughte hem with his hooke .
Thei weren in the Erchedekene booke .
And then had he thorow his Iuridiccioñ .
Power / to doon on hem correccioñ .
he had a Somnour redy to his honde .
A slier / boie was non in Engelande .
for subtilly he hadde hys expynye .
That taughte hym where hym myzte a-vayle
He coude spare of lechours on or two To techen hym to foure & twenty mo for þow þis somenour wood were as an hare To telle his harloterye I wele not spare
CAMBRIDGE 205 (6-T. 372)

And

here begynneþ þe fireres tale.

Incipit fabula.

¶ Here byggenneth þe ¶ fireres tale

Whilom þer was dwelling in Couentre
An ercheoke ne a man of heih degre
That boldely dide execution
In punysshing<sup>g</sup> of fornicacion
Of wichcraft and eek of Bawderie
Of diffamacion and auoutrie
Of chirche reues and of testaments
Of contractes and of lak of sacramentes
Of vsure and Symonye also
But certes lechours dede he grettest<sup>o</sup> woo
They scholden syngen if þey were hent
And smale tyþes weren foule y-schent
If eny person wolde vpon hem pleyne
Ther might astirte him no pecunial peyne for smale tyþes and eek for smal offryng he made þe people spytouly to synge for or þe bischop caught hem wip his hok
They weren in þe Ercheokes boke
And þanne hadde he purgh his Iurisdiction Power to don on hem correccion
he hadde a somnour redy to his hande A sleyere boy was non in engelonde for sotilly he hadde his especiale
That taughte him where þat him mighte auayle
He coude spare of lechours on or tuo
To techen him to foure and twenty mo for þough þis somnour wood were as an hare
To telle his harlotrie I wil not spare

CORPUS (6-R. 372)

¶ The tale./

Whilom þer was dwelling in my coutre
An Archeoken a man of his degre
That boldely did execution
In punysshing<sup>g</sup> of fornicacion
Of which craft and eke of bawdry
Of diffamacion and auoutrye
Of chirche reues and of testaments
Of contractes and of lak of sacramentes
Of vsure and symonye also
But certes lechours did he grettest<sup>o</sup> woo þei schulden syngen if þei were hent
And smale Tythers weren foule schent
If eny person wolde vpon hem pleyne þer myght astert<sup>o</sup> him no pecunyal peyne for smale tyþes and eke smale offryng
He made þe puple spytouly to synge for or the bischop caught hem wip his hoke þei weren in þe Archeokes boke
And þan had he porowe his Iurisdiction
Power to don on hem correccion
he had a somnour redy to his hande A sleyer boye was non in engelond for sotilly he had his especiale
That taughte hym where þat hym myghte auaille
He coude spare of lechours on or tuo
To techen hym to four and twenty<sup>1</sup> moo for þough this somnour wode were as an hare To telle his harlotry I wil not spare

PETWORTH (6-T. 372)

Whilom þere was dwelling in myne contre
An Arche-oken a man of his degre
That boldely dide execution
In poneschinge of fornicacion
Of whiche craft and eke of bawdrye
Of diffamacion and auoutrie
Of cherche reues and of testaments
Of contractes and of lak of sacramentes
Of vsury and of Simony also Bot certes Lychours dede he grettest woo Thei scholden synge if þei wer hent
And smale tyþes weren foule schente
If any person wolde vpon hem pleine
There myht a-stert him no pecuniale peyne
For smale tyþes and eke smale offryng
He maade þe peple spytouly to synge
For or þe bischop caught ham wip his hoke Thei were in þe Archo-decanes boke
And þan hadde he poruþe his Iurisdictione Power to done on hem Correccion
He had a somnoure redy to his hand
A slyhere boye was none in yngelands
For Sotely he had his especiale
That taughte him where he myght auaille
He coude spare of lychours one or tuo
To techen him to foure and twenty mo for þough þis somnour woode were as an hare To tel his harlotry .I. wil neuyt spare

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 372)

for we been / out of his correccioun
 They han of vs no Iurisdiction
 Ne neuere schullen / terme of hir lyues
 ¶ Peter / so been / women of the styves Quod the Somonour / yput out of my cure
 ¶ Pees with myschaunce / and with mysaventure
 Thus seyde oura hoost / and lat hym telle his tale
 Now tellethe forth / thogh þat the somonour gale
 Ne spareth nat / myn owene maister deare ¶ This false theef this Somonour quod the frere Hadde alway / hawdes redy to his hond
 As any hank to lure in Engeland
 That tolde hym / al the secree þat they knewe
 for hire aqweyntance / was nat come of newe
 They weren / hise approuours pryvely
 He took hym self / a greet profit therby
 His maister knew nat / alway / what he wan
 With-outen mandement / a lewed man
 He koude somme / on peyne of Cristes curs
 And they were glade / for to fille his purs
 And make hym / grete festes atte male
 And right as Indas / hadde purses smale
 And was a theef right swich a theef was he
 His maister hadde / but half his dutee
 He was / if I shal yeven hym his laude
 A theef / and eek / a Somnour / and a baude
 He hadde eek venches / at his retenue
 That whether / þat sir Robert or sir Hauw
 Or Iakke / or Rauf / or who so þat it were
 That lay by hem / they tolde it in his ere ¶ Thus was the wenche and he / of oon assent
 And he wolde fecche / a feyned mandement
 And someþ hem to the Chapitre bothe two
 And pile the man / and lete the wenche go ¶ Thanne wolde he seye / frend I shal for thy sake Do striken hire / out ofoure letreus blake

for we been / out of his correccioun
 They han of vs / no Iurisdiction
 Ne neuere schullen / terme of hir lyues
 ¶ Peter / so been the woman of the styves Quod this Somnour / yput out of my cure
 ¶ Pees with myschaunce / and with mysaventure
 Thus seyde oura hoost / and lat hym telle his tale
 Now tellethe forth / thogh þat the Somnour gale Ne spareth nat myn owene mayster deere ¶ This false theef this Somnour / quod the frere Hadde alway / haudes redy to his hond
 As any hank to lure in Engeland
 That tolde hym / al the secree þat they knewe
 for hire aqweyntance / was nat come of newe
 They weren / hise Approuours pryvely
 He took hym self / a greet profit ther by
 His maister knew nat alway / what he wan
 With-outen mandement / a lewed man
 He koude somme / on peyne of cristes curs
 And they were glade / for to fille his purs
 And make hym / grete festes attanale
 And right as Indas / hadde purses smale
 And was a theef / right swich a theef was he
 His maister / hadde but half his dutee
 He was / if I shal yeven hym his laude
 A theef / and eek a somnour / and a baude
 He hadde eek venches / at his retenue
 That whether þat sir Robert / or sire hewo
 Or Iakke / or Rauf / or who so þat it were
 That lay by hem / they tolde it in his ere
 Thus was the wenche and he / of oon assent
 And he wolde fecche / a feyned mandement
 And some hem to Chapitre / bothe two
 And pile the man / and lete the wenche go
 ¶ Thanne wolde he seye / frend I shal for thy sake Do stryke hire / out ofoure letreus blake

for we been out of his correccioun
 They han of vs no Iuridiccioun
 Ne neuere ne schulln of alle here lyues
 Petyr so been wemen at þe styvys
 Quod þe somonour I put out of oure cure
 Pees with myschaunce & with mysaventure
 Thus seyde oura ost & lat hym telle his tale
 Now tellich forth þow þat þe somonour gale
 Ne sparyth not myn owene maystyr dare
 This fals the þis somonour quod þe frere
 Hadde alwey haudys redy to his hond
 As ony hank to lure in ingeland That tolde hym al þe secree þat þey knewe for hire aqweyntauns was nat conryn of newe
 They were hise apprououris pryvely
 He tok hym self a greet profyt therby
 His maystyr knew not alwey what he wan
 With-outyn maundement a lewede man
 He coude somoune þy peyne of crydis curs
 And þey were ful glad to fille his purs
 And made hym noble festis at þe male
 And ryȝt as Indas hadde purses smale
 And was a thef ryȝt swich a thof was he His mayster hadde but half his dutee
 He was sif I schal yeven hym hise laude
 A thef & ek a somenour & a baude
 He hadde ek wenchis at his retenew
 That whether syre Robert oþer syre H-wu Or Iakke or Raf or who so þat it were That lay by hem þey folden it in hise ere Thus was þe wenche & he at oon assent
 And he wolde fecche a feynede mandement
 And somoune hem to chapitres hope two
 And pile þe man & lete þe wenche go Thanne wolde he seyn frend I schal for thyyn sake Don stryke þe out of oure letreus blake for we ben oute of here correccion

 They han of vs no Iurisdiction
 We neuer schullen terme of alle hire lyues Petur so ben þe women of þe Styues Quod þis Somnour yputt out of our cure
 Pees with meschaunce and with maysauenture
 Thus eyde our host and let him telle his tale
 Now telleþ forþ and late þe somnour gale
 Ne spareþ nouȝt myn ouȝtne maister dere
 This false peef þis somnour quod þe frere / hadde alwey hawdes redy to his hond
 As eny hauke to lure in Engelond That telle him al þe secre þat þei knewe for here aqeuintance was nat come of newe þei weren his approuers priuely he toke himself a gret profyt þerby his maister knew nat alwey what he wan
 Wip-uten maundement of a lewed man
 He coude somme on peyne of cristes curs
 And þei were ynly gladd to fills his purs
 And made him grete festes atte nale
 And right as Tudas hadde purses smale And was a peef right swich a peef was he his maister hadde but half his dewete he was if I schal giuen him his laude
 A theef and ook a somnour and a hawde he hadde eke weneches of his reteneu
 That whedere þat sir Robert of sir hewe
 Or Iohā or Rauf or who þat it were
 That lay by hem þat tolde it in his ere Thus was þe wenche and he of oon assent
 And he wolde feche a feyned maundement
 And somme hem to þe Chapitre boþe tuo
 And pil þe man and late þe wenche go þanne wolde he seye I schal frend for þu sake Do strike þe out of oure lettres blake for we bene out of her correccion þei han of vs no Iurisdiction

 Ne nouere schullen terme of al her lyues
 Peter so bene þe women of þe stewes
 Quod this somnour yputt out of our cure
 Pees wip meschaunce and wip misauenture
 Thus seide our host and lat hym telle his tale
 Now telleþ forþ and lat þe somnour gale
 Ne spareth nouȝt myn owne Maister dere
 This fals peef þis somnour quod þe frere
 Had alway hawdes redy to his honde
 As eny hauke to lure in Engelonde That telle him al þe secre þat thei knewe for here a-queyntance was nat come of newe þei weren his aprouers priuely
 He toke hym self a grete prophete þerby
 His maistere knewe not al wry what he wan
 wip-uten maundement of a lewed man
 He coude somon vpeyn of cristes curs
 And þei were hly glad to fills his purs
 And made hym grete festes atte nale
 And riȝt as Tudas had purses smale
 And was a peef riȝt such a peef was he His maister had but half his dwete
 He was gif I schal geuene hym his laude
 A theef and eke a somnour and a hawde
 He had eke weneches of his reteneu
 That whedere þat sir Roberte or sir hwe
 Or Iohā or rauf or who þat it were þat lay by hem þei tolde it in his ere Thus was þe wenche and he of on assent
 And he wolde feche a feyned maundement
 And somme hem to þe chapitre boþe tuo
 And pil þe man and late þe wenche goo
 Than wold he sei frend I schal for þi sake
 To strike þe out of oure lettres blake

For we bue oute of her correcciōne
 Thei haue of vs no Iurisdictione
 Ne neuer scholle terme of al her lyues
 Peter so bue þe wimmen of þe styues
 Quod þis Somnour yputt houte of al oure cure
 Pes wip meschaunce and wip misauenture
 Thus said oure oste and late him tel his tale
 Now telleþ forþe and lete þe Somnour gale
 Ne spareþ nouȝt myne owen meister dere
 This fals pef þis somenour quod þe frere
 Hadde alweie hawdes redye to his honde
 As any hauke to lure in Ingelonde þat tellen him al þe secre þat þei knewe
 Of hire acqeuyntance was nat come of newe
 þei weren his approuers priuely
 He toke him self a grete profyt þer by His maister knewe nat alweie what he wan
 Wip-uten maundement of a lewed man
 He couþe Some of pain cristes curs
 And þei weero glad to fill his purs
 And made him grete festis atte nale
 Riht as Tudas had purse smale
 And was a peef riht suche a peef was he His maister had bot half his Dewte
 He was . if I schal geuen him his laude
 An peef and eke a somnour and a baude
 He had eke weneches of his reteneu
 That wherþe sir Robert or sir hewe Or Iohā or Raufe or who þat it wer þat lei by hem þei tolde it in his ere þus was þe wenche and he of on assent
 And he wolde feche a feyned maundement
 And somme hem to chapter boþe tuo
 And pil þe man and late þe wenche go
 Than wolde he seie frend . I. sal for þi sake Do strike þe out of oure letter blake

Thee that namore / as in this cas trouaille
 I am thy frend / ther I thee may auaille
 Certeyn / he knew of brybryes mo
 Than possible is / to telle in yeris two flor in this world / nys dogge for the bowe
 That kan an hurt deer / from an hool knowe
 Bet / than this Somnour / knew a sly leechour
 Or an Auoutier / or a paramour
 And for that was / the fryt of al his rente
 Therefore on it he sette al his entente
 ¶ And so bifel / that ones on a day
 This Somnour / enere waityng / on his pray flor to somne an old wydwe a Ribibe
 fleynynge a cause / for he wolde brybe
 Happed / that he saugh bifore hym ryde
 A gay yeman / vnder a forest syde
 A bowe he bar / and Arwes brighte & kene
 He hadde vp-on / a courtiepy of grene
 An hat vp-on his heed / with frengeis blake
 ¶ Sire quod this Somnour / hayl / and wel atake
 Wel come quod he / and esury good felawe
 Wher rydestow / vnder this grene wode shawe ?
 Seyde this yeman / wiltow fer to day ?
 ¶ This Somnour hym answerde / and seyde nay
 Here faste by quod he / is myn entente
 To ryden / for to reysen vp a rente
 That length / to my lordes duetes ¶ Artow thanne a baillly ? Ye quod he /
 He dorste nat for verray filthe and shame
 Seye pat he was a somonour / for the name ¶ Depardieux quod this yeman / deere brotler
 Thou art a baillly / and I am another
 I am vnknown / as in this contree
 Of thyn aqueyntance / I wolde praye thee
 And eek of bretherhede / if pat yow leste
 I hane gold / and siluer in my chestre

Thee that namore / as in this cas trouaille
 I am thy frend / ther I thee may auaille
 Certeyn / he knew of brybryes mo
 Than possible is / to telle in yeris two
 flor in this world / nys dogge for the bowe
 That kan an hurt deer / from an hool knowe
 Bet than this Somnour / knewe a sly leechour
 Or an Auoutier / or a paramour
 And for that was / the fryt of al his rente
 Therefore on it he sette al his entente
 ¶ And so bifel / that ones on a day
 This Somnour / enere waityng on his pray
 flor to somne an old wydwe / a Ribibe
 fleynynge a cause / for he wolde brybe
 Happed / that he say / bifore hym ryde
 A gay yeman / vnder a forest syde
 A bowe he bar / and arwes brighte & kene
 He hadde vp-on / a courtiepy of grene
 An hat vp-on his heed / with frengeis blake
 ¶ Sire quod this Somnour / hayl / and wel atake
 ¶ Wel come quod he / and esury good felawe
 Whers ridestow / vnder this grene shawe
 Seyde this yeman / wiltow fer to day
 ¶ This Somnour hym answerde / and seyde nay
 Here faste by quod he / is myn entente
 To ryden / for to reysen vp a rente
 That length / to my lordes duetes
 ¶ Artow thanne a Baillly ? / ye quod he
 He dorste nat for verray filthe and shame
 Seye pat he was a Somnour / for the name
 ¶ Depardieux quod this yeman / deere brotler
 Thou art a baillly / and I am another
 I am vnknown / as in this contree
 Of thyn aqueyntance / I wolde praye thee
 And eek of bretherhede / if pat yow leste
 I hane gold / and siluer in my chestre

Thee that no more as in this cas trouaille
 I am thy frend here I þe may a-wayle
 Certeyn he knew of brybryes mo
 Than possible is to telle in yeris two flor-in þis world nys dogge for þe bowe
 That kan an hurt dor from an hool knowe Bet þan þe somenour knew a ely leechour
 Or snoutir or a paramour
 And for þat was þe freut of al his rente
 Therefore he sette on it al his entente
 And so be-fel þat onys on a day
 This somenour enere waytyngo on hisse pray Went for to somounne a wedewe an old rybibe
 fleynynge a cause for he wolde brybe
 And happede he saw by-fore hym ryde
 A gay yeman vnder a forest syde
 A bowe he bar & arwis bryte & kene
 He hadde vp-on a courtiepy of grene
 An hat vp-on his hed with frengeis blake Sire quod þe somenour wel a-take Wolcome quod he & esury good felawe
 Where rydistow vnder þis grene wode schawe Seyde þis yeman wilt þou fer to day
 This somenour answerde & seyde nay
 Here faste by is myn entente
 To ryden & to reysyn vp a rente
 That length on to myn lordis duete Art þou þanne a baylyf / ye quod he
 He durste not for veray filthe & schame
 Seye he was a somenour for þe name
 De-pardeus quod þis yeman leue broþer
 Thou art a baylyf & I am a-noþer
 I am oknowyn as in þis cuntre
 Of thyn aqueyntauns I wolde praye þe
 And ek of brotherhede if þat þow leste
 I hane gold & siluyr in myn chestre

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAN'S TALE. Corpus MS. SIX-TEXT 374

þe þar nomore as in þis cas trouayle
 I am þi frend þer I þe may auayle Certain he knew of briberies mo þan possible is to telle þou vnto for in þis world is dogge for no bowe
 That know an hurt deer from an old bite kowe
 Than þat þis somnour knew a sleight leechour
 Or avouter or elles a paramour
 And for þat was þe frayt of alle þe rent
 Therefore on it he sette al his entent
 And so byfalle þat ones on a day
 This somnour euer waytyng on his pray
 Rode for to somme an old wif a ribibe fleynyng a cause for he wolde bribe And happede þat he seigh byfore hym ryde /
 A gay yoman vnder a forest syde
 A bowe he bar and arwes bright and keene
 he hadde vpon a courtiepy of grene /
 An hatte vpon his heed wif frengeþe blake
 Sine quod þis Somnour hail and wel atake /
 Welcome quod he and enery good felawe
 Whider ridestow vnder þis grene schawe Seyde þis zeman wilt þou fer to day
 This somnour him answerde and seyde may here faste by quod he is myn entente
 To riden for to reysen vp a rente /
 It longeþ to my lordes dewte Art þou þanne a baillif 3e quod he he dorste nougt for verrey filþe and schame Seie þat he was a somnour for þe name Depardieux quod þis zoman dore broþer
 þou art a baillif and I am anoþer
 I am vnknown as in þis cuntre
 Of þin aquaintance I wil preyse þe
 And eke of breperhede if þat þou leste
 I haue golde and siluer in my chesto

CORPUS (6-T. 874)

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAN'S TALE. Petworth MS. SIX-TEXT 374

þe ther no more as in þis cas troualle
 I am þi frende þer I þe may auale Certeyn he knewe of bribers moo þan possible is to telle þou vnto tof ffor in þis world is no dogge for no bowe þat knoweþ and heret deer, from an olde bite kowe þan þat þis somnour knewe a sly leechour
 Or auouter or ellis a paramour
 And for þat was þe fruyte of al þe rent
 Therefore on hit he sette al his entent
 And so byfalle þat ones on a day
 This somnour euer waytyng on his pray
 Rode forto somme an old wif a ribibe fleynyng a cause for he wolde haue a bribe
 And happed þat he saue to-fore hym ride
 A gay zeman vnder a forest side
 A bowe he bare and arrows bryjt and kene
 He had vpon a courtiepy of grene
 An hatte vpon his hede wif stringges blake Sine quod þis somnour . hail and wel ytake
 welcome quod he and enery good felawe whider ridest þowe vnder þis grene wood schawe Seide þis zeman wilt thou fer to-day
 This somnour hym answerd and seide may Here fast by quod he is myne entent
 To riden for to reysen vp a rent
 It longeþ to my lordes dewte
 Art þou þan a baillif . 3e quod he
 He durste not for verrey filþe and schame Say þat he was a somnour for þe name Depardieux quod þis zeman dore broþer
 þou art a baillif and I am anoþer
 I am vnknown as in þis cuntre
 Of þine aqueyntance I wil prey þe
 And eke of breperhede if þat þou lest
 I haue gold and siluer in my chest

PETWORTH (6-T. 374)

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAN'S TALE. Lansdowne MS. SIX-TEXT 374

þe þar no more as in þis cas troualle
 .I. am þi frende þere .I. þe maie auale Seriein he knewe of briburs mo þan possible is to tell þou to For in þis werlde is no dogge for þe bowe þat knows an hurt dere from an holde bet cowe þan þis Somnour knewe a licour
 Or a vouter or elles a paramour
 And for þat was þe fruyte of al þe rente
 Ther-for ou it he set al his entente
 And so be-fal þat ones on a daie þis Somnour euere wayteinge one his pryse Rode for to somme a holde wif a ribibo Feyzein a cause for he wald bribe
 And happed þat he saue to-for him ride
 A gais zoman vnder a forest side
 A bowe he bare and arwes bryht and kene
 He had vpon a courtiepy of grene
 An hatte vpon his hede wif fenges blake Sine quod þis Somnour heile and welo a take Welkom quod he and enery good felawe
 Weder hida þou vnder þis grene wod schawe Saide þis zoman wilt þou fer to daie þe Somnour him answerd and seide maye Here fast by quod he is-myn entent
 To riden for to reysene vp a rent
 It longeþ to my lordes dewte
 Art þou þan a baillif 3e quod he
 He dorst nougt fo verro felþe and schame
 Sei þat he was somnour for þe name
 De par dieux quod þis zoman dore broþer
 þou art a baillif . and .I. am anoþer
 .I. vnknown as in þis cuntre
 Of þin aqueyntance .I. wil praie þe
 And eke of breperhede if þat þou lista
 .I. haue golde and siluer in my chiste

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 874)

1368

1372

1376

1380

1384

1388

1392

1396

1400

1368

1372

1376

1380

1384

1388

1392

1396

1400

1368

1372

1376

1380

1384

1388

1392

1396

1400

[leaf 101, back]

[leaf 148, back]

If that thee hadde / to comen in oure shire
 Al schal be thyn / right as thou wolt desire
 ¶ Grant mercy quod this Somonour / by my feith Euerich in ootheres hand / his trouthe leith flor to be sworn bretheren / til they deye
 In daliaunce / they ryden forth hir weye
 ¶ This Somonour / that was as ful of langtes
 As ful of venym been thise waryngles
 And euere enqueryng' vp-on euery thyng
 Brother quod he / where is now youre dwellyng'
 Another day / if þat I sholde yow seche
 This yeman hym answered / in softe speche
 ¶ Brother quod he / fer in the North contree
 Where as I hope / som tyme I shal thee see
 Et we departe / I shal thee so wel wisse
 That of myn hous / ne shal'tow neuere mysse
 ¶ Now brother quod this Somonour / I yow preyo
 Toche me / whil þat we ryden by the weye
 Syn þat þe been / a baillif as am I
 Som subtiltee / and tel me feithfully
 In myn office / how I may moost wyane
 And spareth nat' for conscience ne synne
 But as my brother / tel me / how do ye ¶ Now by my trouthe / brother deors seyde he
 As I shal tellen thee / a feithful tale
 My wagus / been ful streite and ful smale
 My lord is hard to me / and daungerous
 And myn office / is ful laborous
 And therfore / by extorcions I lyue for sothe / I take all that men wol me yeue Algate / by sleighte / or by violence
 fro yere to yere / I wyne al my dispence
 I kan no bettre telle / feithfully
 ¶ Now certes quod this Somonour / so fare I
 I spare nat to taken / god it woot'
 But if it be / to heuy or to hoot'

If that thee hadde to come in oure shire
 Al schal be thyn / right as thou wolt desire
 ¶ Grant mercy quod this Somonour / by my feith
 Euerich in ootheres hand / his trouthe leith
 flor to be sworn bretheren / til they deye
 In daliaunce / they ryden forth and pleye ¶ This Somonour / which þat was / as ful of langtes
 As ful of venym / been thise waryngles
 And euere enqueryng' vp-on euery thyng
 Brother quod he / where is now youre dwellyng'
 Another day / if þat I sholde yow seche
 This yeman hym answered / in softe speche
 ¶ Brother quod he / fer in the North contree
 Where as I hope / som tyme I shal thee see
 Et we departe / I shal thee so wel wisse
 That of myn hous / ne shal'tow neuere myssso
 ¶ Now brother quod this Somonour / I yow preyo
 Toche me / whil þat we ryden by the weye
 Syn þat þe been a Baillif / as am I
 Som subtiltee / and tel me feithfully
 In myn office / how I may moost wyne
 And spareth nat' for conscience ne synne
 But as my brother / tel me how do ye
 ¶ Now by my trouthe / brother deors / seyde he
 As I shal tellen thee / a feithful tale
 My wagus been / ful streyte / and ful smale
 My lord is hard to me / and daungerous
 And myn office / is ful laborous
 And therfore / by extorcions I lyue for sothe / I take / al that men wol me yeue Algate / by sleighte / or by violence
 fro yere to yere / I wyne al my dispence
 I kan no bettre tellen / feithfully
 ¶ Now certes quod this Somonour / so fare I
 I spare nat to taken / god it woot'
 But it be to heuy / or to hoot' þif þat þe happy to comyn in oure schyre

 Al schal be ryzt as þe wole desyre
 Grant mercy quod þis somenour be myn fey[th] Eueriche in oþeres hand his trouthe loyth .
 flor to ben swore breþeren tyl þey deye
 In daliaunce þey ryde forth & pleye
 This somenour þat was so ful of langwyls
 As ful of venym ben þese varynglys
 And euere enquyringe vp-on euery thyng Brothir quod he where is youre dwellyng'
 A-noþer day þif þat I schuld þow seche
 This zeman hym answered þi in softe speche Broþer quod he fer in þe north cantre
 Where as I hope anystyme I schal þe se Et we departe I schal þe so wel wische
 That of myn hous ne schalt þou neuere mysse
 Now broþer quod þe somenour I þow preyo Toche me whils þat þe ryde by þe weye Syn þat þe be a balyf as am I Sum subtilite & telle me feythfully
 In myn offys how I may moost wyne
 And sparyth not for concience ne for synne
 But as myn broþer' telle me how do þe Now by myn trouthe broþer deors seyde he
 As I schal telle þe a feythful tale
 Myne wagus been ful streyte & ful smale
 Myn lord is hard to me & daungerous
 And myn offys is ful laborous
 And þerfore by extorciousmys I leue for sothe I take al þat men wole me zue Algate by sleyste or by violence from þer to þer I wyne al myn dispence
 I can no bettre telle feythfully
 Now certes quod þis somenour so fare I
 I spare not to take god it wot
 But þif it be to heuy or to hoot

If þat þe happed come in-to oure schire
 Al schal be þine riht as þou wolt desire
 Grount mercy quod þis somnour by my feiþ Euerich in oþeres hond his troupe leiþ flo to be swore broþer til þei deye
 And wiþ þat word þei ryden forþ here weye
 This somnour wiþ þat was so f
 As ful of venym þen þis waryngles
 And enere enquiryng vpon euery þing
 Broþer quod he wher is þoure dwellyng
 Anoþer day if I scholde þou seche
 This zoman him answerde in softe speche Broþer quod he fer in þe Norþ cuntre Wher as I hope som tyme I schal þe se
 Or we departe I schal þe so wel wisse
 That of myn hous schalt þou neuer misse /
 Now broþer quod þis somnour I þou pray Teche me while we ryden by þe way /
 Syn þat þe ben a baillif as am I Som subtilite telle me feiþfully
 In myn office how þat I may most wyne
 And spare not for conscience ne synne
 But as my broþer tell me how do þe Now by my trowþe broþer dere seide he
 As I schal tellen þe a feiþful tale /
 My wages ben ful streyte and smale /
 My lord is hard to me and dangerous
 And my office ful laborous
 And þerfore by extorcious I lyne for soþe I [take] al þat men wil me zine Algate be aleight or violence from þeer to þeer I wyne al my dispence /
 I can no better tellen feiþfully
 Now certes quod þis somnour so fare I
 I spare not to take god it wot
 But if it be to heuy or to hoþ zif þat þe happed come into our shire

 Al schal be þine riht as þou wolt desire
 Graunte mercy quod þis somnour by my feiþe Euerich in oþeres hond his troupe leiþe flo to be swore breþeren to þei deye
 And wiþ þat word þei ride forþ her weye
 This somnour wiþ þat was as ful of Iangles
 As ful of venym þen þis waryngles
 And enere enquiryng vpon euery þing
 Broþer quod he wher is þour dwellinge Anoþer day if I schuld þou seche þis zeman him answerde in softe spech Broþer quod he ferre in þe north cuntre Wher as I hope somtyme I shal þe see Or we departe I shal þe so wel wisse þat of myn hous schalt þou neuer mysse
 Now broþere quod þis somnour I þou pray
 Teche me while we riden by þe waye Siþ þat þe bene a baillif as am I Somme subtilite telle me feiþfully
 In myn office howe þat I may most wyne
 And spare not for conscience ne synne
 But as my broþere telle the howe doo þe Nowe by my trowþe broþere dere seide he
 As I shal tellen þe a feiþful tale
 My wages be ful streit and smale
 My lord is hard to me and dangerous
 And myn office ful laborous
 And þerfore by extorcious y lyne for soþ I [take] al þat men wil me zone Algate by seleyght or violence
 from þeer to þeer I wyne al my dispence
 I can no better tellen feiþfully
 Now certes quod þis somnour so fare I
 I spare not to take god it wote
 But zif it be to heuy or to hote

If þat þe happed to cum in to oure schire
 It schal be þine riht as þou wilt desire Gremere quod þis Somnour be my feiþe
 Eueriche in oþers hond her troupe leiþe
 For to be swore broþer to þei deye
 And wiþ þat worde þei ride forþ þer weie þis somnour wiþ þat was as ful of Iangles
 As fol of venym be þis wereangles
 And enere enquireinge vpon euery þing Broþer quod he wher is þoure dwalyng Anoþer daie if .I. schal þou seche þis zoman him answerde in soft speche Broþe[r] quod he fer in þe norþe cuntre
 Wher as .I. hope some time .I. schal þe se Ar we departe .I. schal þe so wel wisse þat of myne hous schalt þou neuer mysse
 Now broþer quod þis Somnour .I. þou prouie Teche me while we riden be þe weie .
 Sen þat þe be a baillif as am .I.
 Som subtilite tel me feiþfully
 In myne office how þat .I. maie most winne
 And spare nouth for conscience ne sinne
 Bot as my broþer tel me howe do þe Nowe be my trowþe broþer dere seide he
 As .I. schal tellen þe a feiþful tale
 My wage ben ful stroie and smale
 My lord is harde to me and dangerous
 And myne Office ful laborous
 And þere-fore be extorcious .I. lene
 For soþe .I. al þat men wil me zene Algate be aleit or violence
 Frome þere to zere .I. winne al my dispence
 .I. kan no better tellen feiþfully Nowertes quod Somnour so fare .I.
 .I. spare nouth to taken god it wote
 Bot if it be to heuy or to hote

What I may gete / in conseil priuely
 No maner conscience / of that haue I Nere myn extorcious / I myghte nat lyuen
 Nor of swiche lapes / wol I nat be shryuen 1440
 Stomak / ne conscience / ne knowe I noon
 I shrewe thise shifte-fadres enerychon
 Wel be we met' by god / and by seint Iame
 But leue brother / tel me thanne thy name 1444
 Quod this somonour / in this mene while
 This yeman / gan a litel for to smyle
 ¶ Brother quod he / wiltow / þat I thee telle
 I am a feend / my dwellyng' is in helle 1448
 And here I ryde / aboute my purchasyng'
 To wite / wher men wolde yeue any thyng'
 My purchas / is theffet of al my rente
 Looke / how thou rydest' for the same entente 1452
 To wyne good / thou rekkest neuere how Right so fare I / for ryde I woldo right now
 Vn-to the worlde ende / for a preye
 ¶ A quod this Somonour / benedicite what sey ye? 1456
 I wende / yo were a yeman trevely
 Ye han a mannes shape / as wel as I Han ye figure thanne determinat'
 In helle / ther ye been in youre estat? 1460
 ¶ Nay certeinly quod he / ther hane we noon
 But whan vs liketh / we kan take vs oon
 Or elles make yow seme / we been shape
 Som tyme / lyk a man or lyk an Ape 1464
 Or lyk an Aungel / kan I ryde or go
 It is no wonder thyng' though it be so
 A lousy Iogelour / kan deceyue thee
 And pardee / yet kan I moore craft than he 1468
 ¶ Why quod the Somonour / ryde ye thanne or gon
 In sondry shape / and nat alway in oon?
 ¶ For we quod he / wol vs swiche formes make
 As moost able is / ours preyes for to take 1472

What I may gete / in conseil priuely
 No manere conscience / of that haue I Nere myn extorcioſ / I myghte nat lyuen
 No of swiche lapes / wol I nat be shryuen 1440
 Stomak' ne Conscience / ne knowe I noon
 I shrewe / thise Shryftes-fadres enerychon Wel be we met' by god / and by Saint Iame
 But leue brother / tel me thanne thy name 1444
 Quod this Somonour / in this mene whylo
 This yeman / gan a litel for to smyle
 ¶ Brother quod he / woltow þat I thee telle
 I am a feend / my dwellyng' is in helle 1448
 And here I ryde / aboute my purchasyng'
 To wite / wher men wol yeue me any thyng'
 My purchas / is theffet of al my rente
 Looke how thou rydest' for the same entente 1452
 To wyne good / thou rekkest neuere how Right so fare I / for ryde wold I now
 Vn-to the worlde ende / for a preye
 ¶ A quod this Somonour / benedicite what sey ye 1456
 I wende / ye were a yeman trevely
 Ye han a mannes shape / as wel as I Han ye a figure thanne / determinat'
 In helle ther ye been / in youre estat 1460
 ¶ Nay certeinly quod he / ther hane we noon
 But whan vs liketh / we kan take vs oon
 Or ellis make yow seme / we ben shape
 Som tyme / lyk a man / or lyk an Ape 1464
 Or lyk an Aungel / kan I ryde or go
 It is no wonder thyng' theigh it be so
 A lousy Iogelour / kan deceyue thee
 And pardee yet kan I / moore craft than he 1468
 ¶ Whi quod this Somonour / ryde ye thanne or gon
 In sondry shape / and nat alway in oon
 ¶ For we quod he / wol vs swiche formes make
 As moost able is / ours preyes for to take 1472

What I may gete in conseil priuely
 No manere conscience haue I Nere myn extorcious I myghte not lyue
 Ne of swiche lappis I wold not be schroue 1440 Stomak ne concience knowe I non
 I schrewe þese schryft faderys euerychon
 Wel be we met by god & by seynt Iame
 But leue broþer telle me þanne þyn name 1444 Quod this somonour & in þis mene while
 This yeman gan a lytyl for to smyle Broþer quod he wilt þou þat I þe telle
 I am a fend mys dwellyng is in hulle 1448
 And here I ryde a-boute myn purchasyng
 To wete whers men wolde geue me any thyng Myn purchas is þe effect of al myn rente
 Loke how þou rydist for þe same entente 1452
 To wyne good þou rekist neuere how Ryght so fare I for ryde wolde I now
 Vnto þe worldis ende for a preye
 ¶ A quod þe somonour benedicite what seye 1456 I wende þe were a yeman trewely þe haue a manys schap as wel as I H[a]ue þe a figure þanne determinat
 In helle þere þe ben in þoure estat 1460 Nay seieyn quod he þere haue we non But whan vs lykith þanne can we takyn on Or ell make þow seme þat we been schape
 Sumtyme lyk a man or lyk an ape 1464
 Or lyk an aungel can I ryde or go
 It is no wondyr thyng though it be so
 A lousy Iogelour can deceyue þe
 And parde þit can I more craft þan he 1468
 Whi quod þe somonour ride þe þanne or gon In sundery schap & not alway in on for we quod he wold vs swich formys make As moost able is oure prey for to take 1472

What I may gete in counsell priuely
 No maner consciens of þat haue I
 Ner myn extorcion I myght not lyeuen
 Of suchis Iapes wil I nat be schriuen Stomake ne fro' consciens knowe I noon
 I schrews þese schriftedadros ouerichon
 Wel be we mette by god and by seint Iame
 But leue broþer telle me þanne þy name
 Quod þis somnour in þis mene while
 This zeman gan a litel for to smyle
 Broþer quod he wiltow þat I þe telle
 I am a stene my dwellinge is in helle
 And heer I ryde aboute my purchasyng To wite wher men wil gif me eny þing my purchace is to fette of alle my rente luke how þou rydest for þe same entente To wyne good þou rokkest neuer how Righ# so fare I for ryde wolde I now
 vnto þe worldes ende for a preye
 A quod þis somnour benedicite what# 30 seyo
 I wende 30 were a zoman trowly 30 han a mannes schappe as wol as I han 30 a figure þanne determinat
 In helle þer 30 bene in 3oure estat
 Nay certeinly quod he þer han we noon
 But whan vs likeþ we can take vs oon
 Or elles make 3ou wene we ben schape
 Som tyme [like] a man or like an ape /
 Or like an angel can I ryde or go
 It is no wonder þing# þough it be so
 A lousy Iogelour can deceyue þe
 And par de 3if# can I more craft þan he / Why quod þis somnour ryde 30 þanne or gon
 In sondry schappe and nat alway in oon for we quod he wille vs swich forme make
 As most# able is our prayes for to take
 CORPUS (6-T. 376)

What I may gete in counseile priuely
 No maner# consciens of þat haue I
 Ner myn extorcion I myght not lyeuen
 Of suchis Iapes ny I not be schryuen Stomake . ne for consciens no knowe I non I schrews þise shrif# faders ouerchoñ
 Wel ben we mette by god and by seint Iame
 But leue broþer telle me þan þi name Quop þis somnour in þis mene while þis zeman gan a litel forto smyle
 Broþer quod he wiltow þat I þe telle
 I am a fende my dwellinge is in helle
 And here I ride aboute my purchasing
 To wite wher men wollen zeue me eny þing#
 My purchace is to fette of all my rent#
 Loke how þou ridest for þe same entent#
 To wyne good þou rekcest not howe Righ# so fare I for ride wold I nowe
 vnto þe worldes ende for a preye
 A quod þis somnour benedicite what# 30 seio
 I wende 30 were a zeman trowly 30 han a mannes schappe as wel as I Han 30 a figure þan determinate
 In helle þer 30 bene in 3our estate
 Nay certeinly quop he þere haue we noon
 But whan vs likeþ we can take vs oon
 Or elles make 3ou seme we bene shape
 Somtyme a man or like an ape
 Or like an angel can I ride or goo
 It is no wonder þing# þough it be so
 A lousy Iogelour can deceyue þe
 And perde 3if# can I more craft þan he Why quop þis somnour ride 30 þan or gon#
 In sondry schappe and not alway in oon for we quod he wil vs in such forme make
 As most# able is our prayes for to take
 PETWORTH (6-T. 376)

What .I. maye gette in Counseilh priuely
 No manere consciens of þat haue .I.
 Ner mye extorcion .I. myght not leuen
 Of suchis Iapes wil .I. nouht bu schrouen For stomak ne for consciens knowe .I. none
 .I. schrews þis schrift faders ouerichone Welo be we mette be god and be seint Iame Bot leue broþer tel me þan þi name
 Quod þis Somnour in þis mene while
 This zoman gan a litel for to smyle Broþer quod ho wil tows þat .I. þe tell
 .I. am a stene my dwellinge is in hell
 And here .I. ride aboute my purchasinge
 To wite if men wil zeue me any þinge
 Mi purchache is to fett al my rent
 Looke howe þou ridest for þe same entent
 To winne good þou rokkest neuer howe
 Riht so fare .I. for ride wolde .I. nowe
 In to þe worldes ende for a preio
 A quod þis somnour Benedicite what 30 seie
 .I. wende 30 were a zoman trowly
 30 haue a mannes schappe as wel as .I.
 Haue 30 þan a figure determinate
 In hel þer 30 bene in 3oure astate .
 Nai certeinly quod he þere haue we none
 Bot whan vs likeþe we can tak vs one Or elles make 3ou seme we bene schape
 Som tim a man or lyke an hape
 Or lyke an angel can .I. ride or goo
 It is no wonder þinge þough it be so
 A lousy Iogelour can deceyue þe
 And perde 3if# can .I. mor craft þan he Whi quod þis Somnour Ride 30 þan or gone
 In Sondre schappe and nouht alwaie one For we quod he wil vs suchs forme make As most able is our preis to take
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 376)

¶ What maketh yow / to han al this labour ¶ ful many a cause / leoue ains Somonour seyde this feend / but alle thyng hath tymo
The day is short and it is passed pryne
And yet<sup>e</sup> ne wan I no thyng in this day
I wol entonde / to wynnen if I may And nat entende / hir wittes to declare for brother myn / thy wit is al to bare
To vnderstonde / al-thogh I tolde hem thee
But for thou axest why labourer we
for som tyme / we been goddes Instruments
And meenes / to doon hie comandementz
Whan that hym list vp-on his creatures
In diuers art and in diuers figures
With-outen hym / we haue no myght certeyn Isthat hym list to stonde ther agayn
And som tymes / at oure prayere / han we leuo
Only the body / and nat the soule greuo
Wittesse of Iob / whom that we didnen wo
And som tyme / han we myght of bothe two
This is to seyn / of soule and body eke
And somtyme / be we suffred for to seke
Vp-on a man / and don his soule vnreste
And nat his soule / and al is for the beste
Whan he withstandeth oure temptacioun
It is / cause / of his sauacioun
Al be it that it was nat oure entente
He scholde be sauf but pat we wolde hym hente
And som tyme / be we seruant vn-to man
As to the Bischope / Saint Dunstan
And to the Apostles / seruant eek was I.
¶ Yet tel me / quod the Somonour feithfully
Make ye yow newe bodies / thus alway
Of Elementz / the feend answerde nay /
Som tymes we feyne / and som tymes we aryse
With dede bodies / in ful sondry wyse

¶ What maketh yow / to han al this labour ¶ ful many a cause / leou ains Somonour
seyde this feend / but alle thyng hath tymo
The day is short and it is passed pryne
And yet<sup>e</sup> ne wan I no thyng in this day
I wol entende / to wynnyn / if I may And nat entende / oure wittes to declare
for brother myn / thy wit is al to bare
To vnderstonde / al-thogh I tolde hem thee
But for thou axest why labourer we
for som tyme / we been goddes Instruments
And meenes / to doon his comandementz
Whan that hym list vp on his creatures
In diuers art and in diuers figures
With-outen hym / we han no myght certeyn
If that hym list to stonde ther agayn
And som tymes / at oure prayere / han we leuo
Only the body / and nat the soule greuo
Wittesse of Iob / whom pat we didnen wo
And som tymes / han we myght of bothe two
This is to seyn / of soule and body eke
And som tymes / be we suffred for to seke Vp-on a man / and do his soule vnreste
And nat his body / and al is for the beste
Whan he withstandeth oure temptacioun
It is / cause / of his sauacioun
Al be it that it was / nat oure entente
He scholde be sauf but pat we wolde hym hente
And som tymes / be we seruant vn-to man
As to the Erchebischope / Saint Dunstan
And to the Apostles / seruant eek was I
¶ Yet tel me / quod the Somonour feithfully
Make ye yow newe bodies / thus alway
Of Elementz / the feend answerde nay
Som tymes we feyne / and som tymes we aryse
With dede bodies / in ful sondry wyse

¶ What makyth zow to haue al þis labour ¶ ful manye a cause leue ains Somonour seyde þis feend but alle thyng hath tymo
The day is schort / & it is passede pryne
And yet ne wan I no thyng on this day
I welo entonde to wynnyn gif I may And night entende upre wordis to declare for broþer myn thyn wit is al to bare To vnderstonde of þow I tolde hem the But for þou axyst why labourer we for sumtyme we ben goddys instrumentis
And meene[n] for to don hise comauendementis Whan þat hym lyste vp-on hys creaturs
In dyuers art & in dyuers figures With-outyn hym we haue no mygt certeyn þif þat him liste stande þere agayn
And sumtyme at oure preyere han we leuo
Only þe body but not þe soule to greuo [Wittesse on Iob whom þat we did woe
And some tyme haue we mygt of bothe two]
This is to seyne of soule & body ek
And sumtyme be we suffere for to sek
Vp-on a man & don his soule oneste Nought his body & al is for þe beste
Whan he withstandeth oure temptacioun
It is be cause of his sauacioun
Al be it þat it was not oure entente
He schulde be sauf but þat we wolde hym hente
And sumtyme be we seruantys vn-to man
As to þe Erchebischop seynt Dunstan And to þe apostol ek seruauant was I þis tel me quod þe somnour feithfully
Make 30 nowre bodyis þus alwey
Of elementis / þe fend answerde nay
Sumtyme we feyne & sumtyme we aryse
With dede bodyis in ful sundry wyse

What makeþ you to han al þis labour ful many a cause leoue sire sommour Soye þis feend but al þing haþ tyme
 The day is schort end it is passed primo
 And 30<sup>e</sup> no wann I no þing in þis day
 I wil entende to wrynnyng if I may
 And nat<sup>e</sup> entende oure writtes to declara
 for broþer myne þi writte is al to baro
 To vnderstonde pouge I tolde hem þe
 But for þou axest w<sup>h</sup>t labouren we for somtyme ben we goddes instrumentz
 And menes to do his comandementz
 When þat him list vpon his creaturē
 In diuers acce and in diuers figures
 Wipouten him we han no myght cōteyn
 If þat him liste to stonden þer agayn
 And som tyme at oure praye han we leus
 Only þe body and not þe soule greue
 Wittness on Iob whom þat we dyden wo
 And som tyme han we myght of boþe tuo
 þis is to seyn of soule and body eke
 And somtyme we ben suffred for to seeke
 vpon a man and do his soule vneset
 Nat his body and al is for þe beste
 When he wipstondeþ oure temptaciōt
 It is a cause of his saluacion
 Al be it þat it was not oure entente
 he schulde be sauf but þat we wolde him hent
 And som tyme be we seruantz vnto man
 As þe archibisshope seint Dunstan
 And to þe apostels seruantz was I
 30<sup>e</sup> telleþ me quod þe sommour feiffully
 Make 30 þou newe bodies þus alwey
 Of elementz þe feend answerd may
 Somme tyme we feyne and somtyme we arise
 Wip dede bodies in ful sondry wise
 corpus (6-r. 377)

1476

-1480

1484

1488

1492

1496

1500

Part. 1063

1504

1508

What makeþ you to han al þis labour
 ful many a cause leoue sir sommour Seide þis feend but al þing haþ tyme
 The day is short and it is passed primo
 And 30<sup>e</sup> no wann I no þing in þis day
 I wil entende to wrynnyng 3if I may
 And nat<sup>e</sup> entende oure writtes to declara
 for broþer myne þi writte is al to baro
 To vnderstonde pouge I tolde hem þe
 But for þou axest w<sup>h</sup>t labouren we for somtyme be we goddes instrumentz
 And menes to do his comandementz
 When þat him list vpon his creaturē
 In diuers acce and in diuers figures
 Wipouten hym we han no myght cōteyn
 3if þat him liste to stonden þer agayn
 And some tyme þe our praye han we leus
 Only þe body and nat þe soule greue
 Wittness on Iob whom þat we diden wo
 And somtyme han we myght of boþe tuo
 þis is to seyn of soule and body eke
 And somtyme we bene suffred for to seeke
 vpon a man and do his soule vneset
 And nat his body and al is for þe beste
 When he wipstondeþ oure temptaciōt
 It is a cause of [his] saluacion
 Al be it þat it was not oure entente
 He schulde be sauf but þat we wolde hym hent
 And somtyme be we seruantz vnto man
 As þe archibisshope seint Dunstan
 And to þe apostels seruantz was I 3if telleþ me quod þe sommour feiffully
 Make 30 þou newe bodies þus alwey
 Of elementz þe feende answerd may
 Somme tyme we feyne and somtyme we arise
 Wip dede bodies in ful sondry wise
 & x PETWORTH (6-r. 377)

1476

1480

1484

1488

1492

1496

1500

1504

1508

What makeþ you to haue al þis labour
 Ful many a cause leus sir Sommour Seid þis feend bot al þing haþe time þe daie is schort and it is passed primo
 And 30<sup>e</sup> no wann .I. no þinge in þis daie
 .I. wil entend to wrynnyng if .I. maie
 And nouth entende oure writtes to declara
 For broþer myne þi writte is al to baro
 To vnderstonde pouche .I. tolde hem þe Bot for þou axest whi labour we
 For sum time we bus goddes instrumentz
 And menses to done his comandementz
 Whan þat him vpon his creaturēs
 In diuise lites and in diuers figures
 Wipouten him we haue no myht certaine
 If þat him laste stonde þat agayn
 And sum tym at oure pleie haue we leus
 Only þe body and nouth þe soule greue Wittness on Iob whom þat we deden wo
 And sumtyme haue we myht of boþe tuo
 This to seine of soule and body eke
 And som tyme we been suffred for to done seke
 vpon a man and do his soule vneset
 Nouth his body and al is for þe best
 What he wipstondeþ oure temptaciōt
 It is a cause of saluacion
 Al be it þat it was nouth oure entente
 He schulde be sauf bot þat we wolde him hent
 And some tim be we seruantz vnto a man
 As þe Erchebyssshope seipþe Dunstan
 And to þe Aposteles seruantz was .I.
 3if tell me quod Sommour feiffully Maake 30 þou newe bodies þus al wey
 Of Elementes þe feende said maye
 Som time we feine and sum tyme we rise
 Wip dede bodies in ful sundre wise
 LANSDOWNE (6-r. 377)

1476

1480

1484

1488

1492

1496

1500

1504

1508

And speke as renable / and faire and wol
As to the Phitonissa / dide Samuel
And yet wol som men seye / it was nat he
I do no fors / of youre dyunytee 1512
But o thyng warne I thes / I wol nat lape
Thou wolt algates / wite-how we been shape
Thou shalt hemafterwares / my brother deore
Come there / thes nedeth nat of me to leere 1516
for thou shalt by thyn owene experience
Konne in a chayer / rede of this sentence
Bet than Virgile / while he was on lyue
Or Dant also / now lat vs ryde blyue 1520 for I wole / holde compaignys with thee
Til it be so / that thou forsake me
¶ Nay quod this Somnour / that shal nat bityde
I am a yeman / knowen is ful wyde 1524
My trouthe wol I holde / as in this cas for though thou were / the deuel Sathanas My trouthe wol I holde / to my brother
As I am sworn / and ech of vs til oother 1528
for to be trewe brother / in this cas
And bothe we goon / abouten oure purchas
Taak thou thy part what þat men wol thee yene
And I shal myn / thus may we bothe lyue 1532
And if þat any of vs / haue moore than oother
Lat hym be trewe / and parte it with his brother
¶ I graunte quod the deuel / by my fey
And with that word / they ryden forth hir wey 1536
And right at the entryng of the townes ende
To which this Somnour / shoop hym for to wende
They saugh a Cart that charged was with hey
Which þat a Carters / droof forth in his wey 1540 Deepe was the wey / for which the Carte stood
The Carters smoot and cryde / as he were wood
Hayt Brok / hayt Scot what spare ye for the stones
The feend quod he / yow feche body and bones 1544

ELLESMEERE 211 (6-7. 278)

And speke as renable / and faire and wol
As to the Phitonissa / dide Samuel
And yet wol som men seye / it was nat he
I do no fors / of youre dyunytee 1512
But o thyng warne I thes / I wol nat lape
Thou wolt algates wite / how we be shape
Thou shalt her afterwares / my brother deore
Come there / thes nedeth nat of me to leere 1516
for thou shalt by thyn owene experience
Konne in a chayer / rede of this sentence
Bet than Virgile / whil he was on lyue
Or Dant also / now lat vs ryde blyue 1520 for I wol holde / compaignys with thee
Til it be so / that thou forsake me
¶ Nay quod this Somnour / that shal nat bityde
I am a yeman / knowen is ful wyde 1524
My trouthe wol I holde / as in this cas for theigh thou were / the deuel Sathanas My trouthe wol I holde / to thes my brother
As I am sworn / and ech of vs til oother 1528
for to be trewe brother / in this cas
And bothe we goon / abouten oure purchas
Taak thou thy part what þat men wol thee yene
And I shal myn / thus may we bothe lyue 1532
And if that any of vs / haue moore than oother
Lat hym be trewe / and parte it with his brother
¶ I graunte quod the deuel / by my fey
And with that word / they ryden forth hir wey 1536
And right at the entryng of the townes ende
To which this Somnour / shoop hym for to wende
They seye a Cart that charged was with hey
Which that a Carters / droof forth in his wey 1540 Deep was the wey / for which the Carte stood
This Carters smoot and cryde as he were wood
Hayt Brok / hayt Scot what spare ye for the stones
The feend quod he / yow feche body and bones 1544

HENGWRT 173 (6-7. 378)

And speke as renable & fayre & wel
As to þe Phitonysse dede Samuel
And þit wole some men seyn it was nat
I do no fors of youre dyunytee 1512
But o thyng warne I þe I wole nat lape
Thow wolt algatis wite how we ben schape
Thow schalt here aftward myn broþer deore (Def 211, b.64) Come / where þe nedyth nat of me to leere 1516 for þou schat by thyn owene experyence Cunne in a chayer þanne rede þis sentence
Bet þan virgille whilis he w[as] on lyue
Or daunt also while he was on lyue 1520 for I wole holde compaigny with þe
Til it be so þat þou for-sake me
Nay quod þe somenour þat schal neuere be-lyde
I am a yeman knowyn is ful wyde 1524 Myn trouthe wole I holde [to þe as in þis cas (Ellesmere MS 211<sup>278</sup> Def 211, b.64)]
for þou þe þat were þe Deuill Sathanas Myn troupe wolle I holde] myn lene broþer
As I am sworn and ech of vs tyl oþer 1528 for to be trewe broþer in þis cas
And boþe we gon a-boute oure purchas
Take þou þyn part of þat men wole þe yene
And I schal myn þus may we boþe leue 1532
And gif þat any of vs haue more þan oþer
Let hym be trewe & parte it with his broþer
I graunte quod þe deuyl be myn fey
And with þat word þey ryde forth here way 1536
And right at þe enteryng at þe townys ende
To which þis somenour schop hym for to wende
The[re] saw a carte þat chargede was with hey
Which þat a Carters drof ferth in þe wey 1540
Dep was þe wey for which þis carto stod
The carters smot and cryde as he were wood Hayt sket hayt lyard hat brok atonye
The foud quod he þow feche body & bonys 1544

CAMBRIDGE 211 (6-7. 278)

And speke as renabely and faire and wel
 As to þe phitonessa dede Samuël /
 And jif wol some men say it was nat he
 I do no force aft zoure diuinite 1519 But e þinge warme I þe I wil nat lape Thou wilt algates wite how we be schape / þou schalt hur afterward my broþer dere Come wher þe needeþ nat of me to leere 1516 for þou schalt be þine owne experience
 Come in to þe chayer rede þis sentence
 Bet þan virgile whil he was a lyue 1520 Or dante also now lat vs ryde blyue for I wil holde company wiþ þe
 Til it he so þat þou forsake me
 Nay quod þis sonnour þat schal nat betyde 1524 I am a zeman knowe is ful wyde my troupe wil I holde to þe as in þis cas for þey þou were þe deuyl Sathanas
 My troupe wil I holde to my broþer 1528 As I am swome and eche of vs to oþer
 for to be trewe broþer in þis cas
 And broþer we gon to oure purchas
 Take þou þy part what men þe wole yius 1532 And I schal myn þus may we boþe lyue
 And if þat any of vs haue more þan oþer lat him be trewe and parte it wiþ his broþer
 I grante quod þe deuyl by my fay
 1536 And wiþ þat word þey ryden forþ here way
 And riht at þentryng of þe tonnes ende (Died 1197) To which þe sonnour schop him for to wende
 They say a carte þat charged was with hey 1540 Which þat a carter drof forþ on his way
 Depe was þe way for which þe carte stode
 This cartere smot and strued as he were wood 1544 hait brok hait scotte what spare we for þ' stony
 The feend quod he zow feche þoþe body and bones / 1544

And speke as resonably and faire well
 As to þe Phitonessa . did samueh
 And jif wil somme men say it was not he 1519 I doo no fore of zoure dyvynite
 But oon þinge warme I þe I wil not lape 1516 Thou wilt algates wite howe we be shapo þou shalt here afterward my broþer dere Come þer þe needeþ nat of me to lere 1516 for þou shalt be þine owne experience
 Come into þe Chaiere rede þis sentence
 1520 Bette þan virgil while he was a lyue
 Or Dante also now lat vs ride blyue 1520 for I wil hold company wiþ þe
 Til it he so þat þou forsake me
 1524 Nay quod þis sonnour þat shal not be tide
 I am a zeman knowe is ful wide 1524 Mi troupe wil I holde to þe as in þis cas for þei þou were þe deuyl Sathanas
 1528 My troupe wil I holde to my broþer
 As I am swom and eche of vs to oþer
 for to be trewe broþer in þis cas
 1528 And broþer we gon to our purchas
 Take þou þi parte what men wil þe zeue 1532 And I schal myne þus may we boþe lyue
 And jif þat any of vs haue more þan oþer (Died 1197, base) Lat him be trewe and part it wiþ his broþer
 I grante quod þe deuyl be my fay
 1536 And wiþ þat word þei ryden forth her way
 And riht at þe enteringe of þe tonnes ende
 To which þe sonnour shope hym for to wende 1540 þei sey a cart þat charged was wiþ hay
 Which þat a carter droof forþ on his way
 1540 Depe was þe way for which þe carte stode
 1544 This Carter smote and stroof as he were woode Haite broke haitte scotte what spare we for þ' stony 1544 þe feende quod he zow feche þoþ body and bcnyis

And speke as renably faire and welo
 As to þe phitonessa did Samuile
 And jif wil sum men say it was nouht he 1519 .I. do no fore of zoure diuinite 1519 Dot o þinge warme .I. þe .I. wil nouht lape Thou wilt algates wite howe we be schape 1516 Thou schalt her-after-ward my broþer dere Come where þe needeþ not of me to lero 1516 For þou schalt be þin owen experience
 Com in to þe chaier to rede þis sentence
 1520 Better þan virgile while he was on lyue
 Or dante also nowe lat vs ride helyue
 1520 For .I. wil holde company wiþ þe
 Til it be so þat þou forsake me
 1524 Naie quod Sonnour þat schal not be-tide
 .I. am a zoman knowe is ful wide
 1524 Mi troupe wil .I. holde to þe as in þis cas
 For þeiþ þou were þe deuyl Sathanas 1528 My troupe wiþ .I. holde to my broþer
 As .I. am swome and icho of vs to oþere
 1528 For to be trewe broþer in þis cas
 And broþer wee gon to owre purchas
 Take þu þi part what men wil þe zeue 1532 And .I. schal myne þus maye we boþe leuen
 And if þat any of vs haue more þan oþer lat him be trewe and part it wiþ his broþer
 .I. grant quod þe deuyl be my feye 1536 And wiþ þat worde þei reden forþe þeire-weio
 And riht at þe entringe of þe tonnes ende
 To which þe sonnour schep him for to wenda 1540 He sawhe a cart þat charged was wiþ haye
 Which þat a carter droue forþ on his waye 1540 Dep was þe way for whyche þe cart stode 1544 þis cartere smote and strued as he war woode Heyt brok heyt scotte what spare we fore þe stones 1544 The feunde quod he zowe fetto hope bodi and bones

As ferforthly / as enere were ye foled [leafs, back]
 So muche wo / as I haue with yow tholed
 The deuil haue al / bothe hors and Cart and hey
 ¶ This Somnour seyde / heere shal we haue a ploy 1548 And neer the feend he drogh / as noight ne were ful pryuely / and rowned in his ere Herkne my brother / herkne by thy feith
 Herestow nat how pat the Carters seith 1553
 Hent it anon / for he hath yene it thee
 Bothe hey and Cart and eek hise caples thro ¶ Nay quod the deuil / god woot neuer a deal
 It is nat his entente / trust thou me woe 1556
 Axe hym thy self / if thou nat trovest me
 Or elles stynt a while / and thou shalt see ¶ This Carters / taketh his hors on the croupe
 And they bigonne drawn and to stoupe 1560
 Heyt now quod he / ther Ihesu crist yow blesse
 And al his handwerk' bothe moore and lesse
 That was wel twyght' myn owene lyard boy
 I pray to god saue thee / and saint loy 1564
 Now is my Cart out of the slow parde
 ¶ Lo brother quod the feend / what tolde I thee
 Heere may ye se / myn owene deere brother
 The Carl spak on / but he thoughte another 1568
 Lat vs go forth / abouten oure viage
 Heere / wyne I no thynge vp-on cariage
 ¶ When that they comen / som-what out of towne
 This Somnour / to his brother gan to rowne 1572
 Brother quod he / heere woneth an old rebekke
 That hadde almost' as leef to lese hire nekke
 As for to yene / a peny of hir good
 I wole han .xij. pens / though pat she be wood 1576
 Or I wol sompe hire / vn-to oure office
 And yet god woot of hire knowe I no vice
 But for thou kanst nat' us in this contree
 Wynne thy cost' tak' heer ensample of me 1580

As ferforthly / as enere were ye foled
 So muchel wo / as I haue with yow tholed
 The deuil haue al / bothe hors / and Cart and hey
 ¶ This Somnour seyde / heer schul we han a ploy 1548 And neer the feend he drogh / as noight we were ful pryuely / and rowned in his ere
 Herkne my brother / herkne by thy feith
 Herestow nat how pat the Carters seith 1552
 Hent it anon / for he hath yene it thee
 Bothe hey / and Cart and eek his caples thre ¶ Nay quod the deuil / god woot' neuer a del
 It is nat his entente / trust thou me wel 1556
 Axe hym thy self / if thou nat trovest me
 Or ellys stynt a while / and thou shalt se ¶ This Carters / taketh his hors vp-on the croupe
 And they bigonne / drinen and to stoupe 1560
 Heyt now quod he / ther Ihesu crist yow blesse [leafs, back]
 And al his handes werk' bothe moore and lesse
 That was wel twyght' myn owene lyard boy
 I pray god saue thee / and Saint loy 1564
 Now is my Cart out of the slow' parde
 ¶ Lo brother quod the feend / what tolde I thee
 Heere may ye se / myn owene deere brother
 The Carl spak o thynge / but he thoughte another 1568
 Lat vs go forth / abouten oure viage
 Heere wyne I no thynge vp-on cariage
 ¶ When that they comen / som-what-out of towne
 This Somnour / to his brother gan to rowne 1572
 Brother quod he / here woneth an old rebekke
 That hadde al-most' as leef to lese hir nekke
 As for to yene a peny / of hir good
 I wol han .xij. pens / thogh that she be wood 1576
 Or I wol some hire / vn-to oure office
 And yet god woot of hire knowe I no vice
 But for thou canst nat' us in this contree
 Wynne thy cost' tak' heer ensample of me 1580

As ferforth woe as I haue with yow tholyd
 The deuyl haue al bope hors & carto & hey
 The somenour seyde here schul we haue a ply 1548 And ner þe frere he drow as nougt ne were ful pryuly & rowneid in his ere Herke myn broþer herke be thyñ feith
 Heryat þou nougt how þe cartere seyth 1552
 Hende it a-non for he hath ȝouen it þe
 Boþe hey & carto & ok his capillis thro
 Nay quod þe deyl neuer a dæl [leafs]
 It is not his entente troste wel 1556
 Axe hym thyñ self if þou not troostite me
 Or ellis stynte a-while & þou schalt se
 This cartere thakkyth hise hors vp-on þe croupe
 And þey be-ȝonne to drawe & to stoupe 1560
 Hayt now quod he now Ihesu cryst ȝow blyse
 And al hise hondwerk boþe more & lesse
 That was wel twyrt myn owene lyard boy
 I pryge god saue þe body & saynt loy 1564
 Now is myn carte out of thþ slow parde Lo broþer quod þe feend what tolde I the Heere may ȝe seen myn owene deere broþer
 The cherl spak on thyng & mente a-noþer 1568
 Lat vs go forth a-boutyn oure viage
 Heere wyne I no good vp-on caryage
 When þat þey comyn sumwhat out of townne
 This somenour to his broþer gan to rounne 1572
 Broþer quod he here wonyth an old rebekke
 That hadde almost as lef to lese his nekke
 As for to ȝene a peny of hire good Or I wole somounes hyre to oure offys 1576
 And jit god wot can I no vya
 But for þou canst not as in þis cuntre
 Wynne thyñ cost take here ensample at me 1580

As ferforþly as euer were 3e foled
 So moche wroo as I haue for þou foled þe deul haue al boþ hors and cart and hey þoughte þis somnour he schulle we haue a pley And nere þe found he drougþ as nougþt ne wro ful prinsly and rouned in his cere herken my broþer herken by þy feip herestow nat how þe cartere seip heute it anone for he haþ giuen þe
 Boþe hey and carte and eke his caples þre /
 Nay quod þe deuy god not neuer a del
 It is not his entente truste me wel
 Aske him þiself if þou nat trowest mo
 Or elles styrte a while and þou schalt se
 This carter þakked his hors on þe croupe /
 And þey bygonne to drawe and to stoupe / hayt now quod he þat These crist þou blisse And alle his hondwerk hope more and lesse / þat was wel twigþt myn owne lyard boy
 I prey god sau þe and seinte Loy.
 Now is my carte out of þe slougþ par de lo broþer quod þe found what tolde I þe / here may ye see myn ougþo deere broþer
 The carle spak o þinge but he þougþt anoþer late vs go forþ abouten oure viage here wryne I noþing vpon cariage Whan þat þey comen somewhat out of þe town þis somnour to his broþer gan to roun Broþer quod he here wounþ an old rebekke
 That hadde almost as leef to lesse hire necke
 As for to geue a peny of hire good
 I wil haue twelue pens þougþ þat sche be wood Or I wille somþae hire to oure office
 And þit god wote of hire knowe I no vice
 But for þou canst nat as in þis contree
 Wynne þi coste tak here ensample of me

As ferforþly as euer were 3e foled/
 So moche wroo as I haue for þou tholed þe deul haue all boþ hors and carte and hay þougþ this somnour here schul we haue a pley And nere þe fende he drouge as nauþt no wero
 ful prinsly and rouned in his cere
 Harken my broþer herken be þi feip Herestow nat howe þe carter seip
 Hent it anou for he haþ geuen þe
 Boþ hey and carte and eke his caples þre
 Nay quod þe deul god wote neuer a dele
 It is not his entent trust me welo
 Aske hym þi self if þou not trestest me
 Or elles stint a while and þou shalt se
 This Carter thakked his hors on þe croupe
 And þei bygonne to drowe and to stoupe
 Hailt now quod he þat These crist þou blisse
 And al his hond weik boþ more and lesse
 That was wel twio myn owne lyarde boy
 I prey god sau þe and seint loye
 Now is my carte out of þe slougþ parde lo broþer quod þe found . and what told I þe Here may 3e se myne owne dere broþere þe Carle spak o þinge but he þougþt anoþer lat vs go forþ abouten oure viage
 Here wryne I no þinge vpon cariage
 Whan þat þei comen somewhat out of þ town
 This somnour to his broþer gan to roun Broþer quod he here wounþ an olde rebekke þat had almost as leef to lesse her necke
 As for to geue a peny of hire good .
 I wil haue xij. pens þougþ þat she be wode
 Or I wil somme hure to our office
 And þit god wote of hure knowe I no vice
 But for þou canst nat as in þis contree
 Wynne þi cost take here ensample of me

As ferforþly as euer were 3e folde
 So moche wroo as .I. haue for þowe foled
 The deul haue al boþ hors and carte and haye Thought þis Somnour here schal we haue a plice And nere þe fende he drouge as nouhten were An ful prinsly rouned in his ere Herken my broþer herken be þi feipe
 Hores þou nouht howe þe carter seipe
 Hent it a-none for he haþ geuen it þe
 Boþe hey and carte and eke his caples þre
 Nay quod þe deul god wote neuer a dele
 It is nouht his entent trust me welo Ax him þi self if þou trowest not me
 Or elles stinte a while and þou schalt see
 This Carter þakkes his hors on þe croupe
 And þei be-gonne to drawe and to stoupe Heyte now quod he þat these crist þou blisse
 And al his hondwerke boþe more and lesse þat was my faire lyarde boye
 And .I. pray god sau þe and seinte loye
 Nove is my carte oute of þe slouhe parde
 Lo broþer quod þe fende what tolde .I. þe
 He[re] mate 3e se myne owne dere broþer þe carle spak o þinge bot he þougþt anoþer Lat vs go forþe abouten oure viage .
 Here wryne .I. no þinge vpon cariage
 Whan þei com somewhat oute of þe town
 This Somnour to his broþer gan roun Broþer quod he here wounþ an olde rebek þat hadde al-moste as leue to lesse here necke
 As for to geue a peny of hire good
 .I. wil haue twelue pens þouhe þat sche be wode Or .I. wil somme hire to oure Office
 And þit god wote of hire know .I. no vice Bot for þou canst nouht as in þis contree
 Wynne þi coste take here ensample of me

¶ This Somnour / clappeth at the wydres gate
Com out quod he / thou olde virytrate
I browe thou hast som frere / or preest with thee
¶ Who clappeth seyde this wyf / benedicitee
God saue you sire / what is youre swete wille?
¶ I haue quod he / of somonce a billa
Vp-on payne of curayng! looke þat thou be Tomorn / bifore the Erchedeknes knee
Tanswere to the court of certoyn thynges
¶ Now lord quod she / crist Ihesu kyng of kynges
So wisly helpe me / as I ne may
I haue been syk / and that ful many a day
I may nat go so fer quod she ne ryde
But I be deed / so priketh it in my syde
May I nat axe a libel / sire Somnour
And answer there / by my procurour
To swich thyng as men wole opposen me?
¶ Yis quod this Somnour / pay anon lat se Twelf pens to me / and I wol thee acquite
I shal no profit han ther-by / but lite
My maister hath the profit and nat I
Com of / and let me ryden hastily
Yif me .xij. pens / I may no lenger tarye
¶ Twelf pens quod she / now lady Seinte Marie
So wisly help me god / out of care and synne
This wyde world / though þat I sholde wyne
Ne haue I nat .xij. pens with-inne myn hood
Ye knowen wel / that I am poure and oold
Kythe youre almesse / on me poure wrecche
¶ Nay thanne quod he / the foule feend me fecche
If I thexcuse / though thou shul be spilt
¶ Allas quod she / god woot I haue no gilt ¶ Pay me quod he / or by the swete seinte Anne
As I / wol bere away thy newe panne for dette / which that thou owest me of old Whan þat thou madest thyn housbonde cokewold

This Somnour / clappeth at the wydres gate
Com out quod he / thou olde virytrate
I browe thou hast som frere / or preest with thee
¶ Who clappeth seyde this wyf / benedicitee
God saue you sire / what is youre swete wille
¶ I haue quod he / of somonce a billa
Vp peyne of curayng! looke that thou be
To morn / bifore the Erchedeknes knee
Tanswere to the court of certoyn thynges
¶ Now lord quod she / crist Ihesu kyng of kynges
So wisly helpe me / as I ne may
I haue been syk and that ful many a day
I may nat go so fer quod she / ne ryde
But I be deed / so priketh it in my syde
May I nat axe a libel / sire Somnour
And answer there / by my procurour
To swiche thyng as men wole opposen me ¶ Yis quod this Somnour / pay anon lat see Twelf pens to me / and I wol thee acquyte
I shal no profit han ther by / but lyte
My Maister hath the profit and nat I
Com of / and let me ryden hastily
Yif me .xij. pens / I may no lenger tarye
¶ Twelf pens quod she / now lady Seinte Marie
So wisly help me god / out of care and synne
This wyde world / though that I sholde wyne
Ne haue I nat .xij. pens / with-inne myn hood
Ye knowen wel / that I am poure and oold
Kythe youre almesse / on me poure wrecche
¶ Nay thanne quod he / the foule feend me fecche
If I thexcuse / though thou shul be spilt
¶ Allas quod she / god woot I haue no gilt
¶ Pay me quod he / or by the swete Seinte Anne
As I wol bere away / thy newe panne for dette / which thou owest me of oold
Whan þat thou madest / thyn housbonde cokewold

This somenour clepith at þe wedeswis gate
Com out quod he þou olde vryre emte
I browe þou hast sum frere or preest with the Ho clepith þere seyde þis wiewe benedicite
God saue þow syre what is þoure swete wille
I haue quod he of somounys a billa Vp peyne of curseyng loka þat þou be
To morwe by-fore þe Erchedekenys kne
To answer to þe court of serteyn thyngis
Now lord quod sche Ihesu kyng of kyngis
So wysely helpe me as I ne may I haue be sek & þat ful manye a day
I may nat goon quod sche so for no ryde
But I be ded so prykyth it in myn syde
May I not axe a libel syre somenour
And answer þere by myn procurour To swich thyng as men wole oposen me þis quod this somenour pay a-non lat se Twelve penyis lat as & I wole þe agyte
I schal no profit haue þerby but lyte Myn mayster hath the profit & not I Come of & let me rydyn hastily þou me twelve penyis I may no lengere lette Twelve penyis quod sche now lady saynte marye
So wysely helpe me out of care & synne
This wyde world þow þat I schulde wyne Ne haue I not twelve penyis with-inne myn hold þe knowe wel þat I am pore & old Kythe þoure almesse on me pore wrecche Nay þanne quod he þe fend me fecche yif I þe excense though þow schuldist be epyllt Allas quod scho god wot I haue no gilt Pay me quod he or be swete saynt anne
As I wole bore a-wey þyn newe panne for dette which þou owist me of old Whan þat þou haddist þyn husbonde cokewold

This somnour clappeth at þe wyrdous gate
 Com out þe seide þou olde veritate
 I troue þou hast sum frere or prest wif þe
 Who clappeth syde þis wif benedicite
 God saus þou sith what is þour swete wille
 I haue quod he a somnour of þe here a bille Vp peyne of cursyngs loke þat þu be
 To morwe biforn our erchedekens kne
 To answer to þe court of certein þinges
 Now lord quod she crist ihesu hauen kinges
 So wialy helpe me as I ne may,
 I haue ben syk and þat ful many a day
 I may nat gon so far quod sche ne ryde
 But I be deed so priketh it in my syde /
 May I nat axe a libel sive somnour
 And answer þere by my procurator
 To swich a þing as men wolde appose me / þis quod þis somnour pay anon lat se Twelue pens to me and I wil þe aquite
 I schal no profyt haue þer-by but lite
 My maister haþ þe profyt and nat I Come of and late me ryden hastily þeus me tweluis [pens] I may no longer tarye twelue quod sche lady seinte marie So wialy help me out of care and synne þis wyde world þough þat I scholde it wyne Ne haue I not xij. pens wijne myn holde þe knowen wel þat I am pouer and olde kyþe þoure almese on me pouere wrecche
 Nay þanne quod he þe foule feend me fecche
 If I þe excuse þough þou scholde be spilt Alias quod sche god wot I haue no gilt Pay me quod he or by þe swete seint anne
 As I wil bere away þi newe panne / for dette which þou owest me of old Whan þat þou madest þin husbond kukkewold

This somnour knokket at þe wyrdous gate
 Come out þe seide þou olde veritate
 I troue þou hast sum frere or prest wif þe
 Who clappeth þer seide þis wif benedicite
 God saus þou sith what is þoure swete wille
 I haue quod he a somme þe here a bille
 Vp peyne of cursyngs loke þat þu be
 To-morowe by-forn our Archedeken kne
 To answer to þe courte of certeyn þingges
 Now lord quod she crist ihesu king of kinges
 So wialy helpe me as I ne may
 I haue be sik and þat ful mony a day
 I may not goo so fere quod she ne ride
 But I be dede so priketh it in my side
 May I not axe a libel sive somnour
 And answer þere by my procurator
 To swiche a þing as men wolden apposen me þis quod þis somnour pay anon late seo xij pens to me and I wil þe aquite
 I schal no profyt han þerby but lite
 My maister haþ þe prophete and nat I Come and lat me riden hastily þeus me .xij pens I may no longer tarye
 xij. quod she lady seinte Marye
 So wialy helpe [me] out of care and synne þis wide world þough I shuld it wyne Ne haue I not xij pens wij-in my holde þe knowe wel þat I am poor and olde Kyþe þoure almese on me poor wrecche nay þan quod he þe foule fende me fecche if I þe excuse þough þou shulde be spilt Alias quod she god wote I haue no gilt Pay me quod he or by the swete Anne
 As I wil bere away þi newe panne for dette which þou owest me of olde Whan þat þou made þine husbond kukkewold

This Somnour clepeþ att þe wyrdous gate
 Come oute he seide þou olde veritate
 I. troue þou hast sum frere or preste wif þe
 Who clepeþ aside þis wif benedicite
 God saus þoure sith what is þoure swete wil
 I. haue quod he a somons of þe here a bil Vp peine of cursyngs loke þat þu be
 To morwe to-for oure Archidiacane kne
 To anseward to þe Courte of certeine þingges
 Now quod sche lorde ihesu criste kinge of kinges
 So wissely helpe me as .I. ne maie
 .I. haue þue seke and þat ful mony a daie
 .I. maye nouht so fere quod sche no ride
 Bot .I. be dede so priketh it in my side
 May .I. noust ax a libel sive Somonour
 And anseware þe by my proceator To swiche a þinge as men wolden apposen me þis quod þis Somonour pais anone lat se Twelue pens to me . and .I. wil þe acquite
 I schal no profitt haue þer-by bot lite
 Mi maister haþ þe prophot and not .I.
 Com of and late me riden hastli þeus me twelue pens .I. maie no longer tarie Twelue quod sche lady seint Marie So wissely helpe out of care and sinne þis wide worlde þough þat .I. schold it wyne Ne haue .I. not þwelve pens wij-in myne holde þe knowen wels þat .I. am pouer and olde Kyþe þoure Almos on me pouere wrecche
 Nay þan quod he foule fende me fecche
 If .I. þe excuse if þou scholdest be spilt Alias quod sche god wote .I. haue no gille Pay me quod he or be þe swete Anne
 As .I. wil bere awate þi newe panne
 For dett which þu owest me of olde Whan þou madest þin hosbonde kokewolde

I payde at hoom / for thy correccioun ¶ Thou list quod she / by my sauacioun
 Ne was I neuere er now / wydwe ne wyf
 Somoned vn-to youre court<sup>v</sup> in al my lyf<sup>f</sup>
 Ne neuere I nas / but of my body trewe
 Vn-to þe deul / blak and rough of hewe Yene I thy body / and my panne also
 ¶ And when the deul / herde hire cursen so
 Vp-on hir knees / he seyde in this manere
 Now Mabely / myn owene moder deere
 Is this youre wyl / in earnest þat ye seye?
 ¶ The deul quod she / so fecche hym er he deye
 And panne and al / bat he wol hym repente
 ¶ Nay olde sto<sup>t</sup> that is nat myn entente Quod this Somnour / for to repente me
 for any thyng that I haue had of thee
 I wolde I hadde thy smok and enery clooth
 ¶ Now brother quod the deul / be nat wrooth
 Thy body and this panne / been myne by right
 Thou shalt with me to helle / yet to-nyght<sup>t</sup>
 Where / thou shalt knowen / of oure priuete
 Moore / than a maister of dyuynyte
 And with that word / this foule feend hym hente
 Body and soule / he with the deul wente
 Where as that Somnours / han hir heritage
 And god / þat made / after his ymage Mankynde / saue and gyde vs alle and some
 And leue this Somnours / goode men bi come 1644
Lordynges / I koude han told yow quod this frere
 Hadde I had leysur / for this Somnour here
 After the text of Crist / Poul / and Iohn
 And of oure othere doctours many oon
 Swiche peynes / that youre hertes myghte agryse
 Al be it so / no tonge may it deuyse
 Thogh þat I myghte / a thousand wynter telle
 The peynes / of thilke cursed hous of helle 1652

I payde at hom / for thy correccion ¶ Thou lyxt quod she / by my sauacioun
 Ne was I neuere er now / wydwe ne wyf
 Somoned vn-to youre court<sup>v</sup> in al my lyf /
 Ne neuere I nas / but of my body trewe
 Vn-to the deul / blak and rowl of hewe
 Yene I thy body / and my panne also
 ¶ And when the deul / herde hire cursen so
 Vp-on hir knees / he seyde in this manere
 Now Mabely / myn owene moder deere
 Is this youre wyl in earnest / þat ye seye
 ¶ The deul quod she / so fecche hym er he deye
 And panne and al / but he wol hym repente
 ¶ Nay olde sto<sup>t</sup> that is nat myn entente
 Quod this Somnour / for to repente me
 for any thyng that I haue had of thee
 I wolde I hadde thy smok / and enery clooth
 ¶ Now brother quod the deul / be night wrooth
 Thy body and this panne / been myne by right
 Thou shalt with me to helle / yet to nyght<sup>t</sup>
 Where thou shalt knowen / of oure priuete
 Moore / than a maister of dyuynyte
 And with that word / this foule feend hym hente
 Body and soule / he with the deul wente
 Where as that Somnours / han hir heritage
 And god / that made after his ymage
 Mankynde / saue / and gyde vs alle and some
 And leue this Somnours / goode men to bi come ¶ Lordynges I koude han told yow / quod the frere
 Hadde I had leysur / for this Somnour here
 After the text / of crist Poul and Iohn
 And of oure othere doctours / many oon
 Swich peynes / that youre hertes myghte-agryse
 Al be it so / no tonge may it deuyse
 Thogh that I myghte / a thousand wynter telle
 The peynes / of thilke cursed hous of helle 1652

I payede at hom for þyn correccioun
 Thou lyxt quod sche be myn sauacioun
 Ne was I neuere er no wedewe no wyf Somoned on to youre court in al myn lyf<sup>f</sup>
 Ne neuere I nas but of myn body trewe Vn-to þe deul blak & row of hewe þoue I thyu body & myn panne also
 And whan þe deul herde hire curse so Vp-on hire kneis sche seyde on þis manere
 Now mabelyn myn owene modir dere
 Is þis þoure wille in earnest þat þou seye
 The deul quod sche so fecche hym er he deye
 And panne & al but he welle hym repente
 Nay olde stot þat is nat myn entente [Quod þe Somnour for to repent me for any þenge þat I haue hade of þe
 I wolde I hade þi smok / & enery clothe Nowe Broþer / quod þe Deuyl be not wrothe Thy body and þis panne vs myne by rist Thou shalt with me to helle / þit to nygt / þere þou shalt knowe of oure pryete
 More þan a Maystre of Diuinite
 And with þat worde þe foule fende hym hent
 Body and soule wille þe fonde wente
 Where þat Somnours haue hir herytage
 And god þat made aftyr / hys Image Man-kynde saue and gyde vs alle and somme
 And leue þis Somnour / gode man by- come / Lordynges I coude a tolde you quod þe frere Hade I hade leysur / of this Somnour here Aftyr þe Tryxt / Cryst poule & Iohn
 And of other / doctours many on Suche peynes þat youre hertes may a-gryse
 Also by hyt þat no þenge may deuyse
 Thou þat I mygt / a þousand wynter / telle
 The peyne of þilke Cursed hous of helle 1652

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALK. Corpus MS.	SIX-TEXT 381	GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALK. Petworth MS.	SIX-TEXT 381	GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALK. Lansdowne MS.	SIX-TEXT 381
I prayde at home for þy correction Thow list' quod scho by my sauacion Ne was I neuer or now wydowe ne wiff Somoned vnto þour court in al my liff Ne neuer I nas but of my body trewe / vnto þe deul blake and rowe of hwe yeue I þy body and my panne	1620	I paide at home for þi correction þou list' quod scho be my sauacion Ne was I neuer or now widowe ne wiff Somned vnto þoure courte in al my liff Ne neuer I nas but of my body trewe Vnto þe deul blake & rowe of hwe þone I þi body and my panne also	1620	.I. paied att home for þi correccion Thou list' quod scho be my sauacion Ne was .I. neuer or now wedowe ne wif Somned in-to þoure court in al my liff Ne neuer .I. was bot of my body trewe To þe deul blake and rowe of hwe þi .I. þi body. and my panne also	1620
And whan þe deuyll herde hir curse so vpon hir knees he seyde in þis manere Now mabely myn owne mooder deere It is þour wille in earnest þat þe seye þe deuyll quod scho fette him or he doye / And panne and al but he wil him repente Nay olde stott þat is not myn entente Quod þis somnour for to repente me	1624	And whan þe deul herd hir curse so / Vpon her knees he seide in þis manere Now mabely myn owne modere deere Is þis þou[r] wiff in earnest þat þe seye þe deul quod scho fette hym or he doye And pan and al but he wil hym repent Nay olde stott þat is not myn entent Quod þis somnour for to repente me	1624	And whan þe deul herd hir curs so Vpon hir knes he seil in þis maner Now Mable myne owen moder deere es þis þourre wil in earnest þat þe seio The deul quod scho fetto him ar he deie. And panne and al but he wil him repent	1624
Nay olde stott þat is not myn entente Quod þis somnour for to repente me for any þing þat I haue had of þe I wolde I hadde þy smok and euery cloþ Now broþer quod þe deuyll be nat wroþ þy body and þis panne is myn þy right þou schalt wip me to helle yet to night Wher þou schalt knowen of oure priuete More þan a mayster of diuinite	1632	for any þing þat I haue had of þe I wold I had þi smelke and euery cloþe Nowe broþer quod þe deul be not wroth þi body and þis panne is myn þy right þou schalt wip me to helle git to-nyht Where þou schalt knowe of oure priuete More þan a maister of diuinite	1632	For any þing þat .I. haue hadde of þee .I. wolde .I. hadde þi smokke and euery cloþe Nowe broþer quod þe deul be nouht wroþe þis body and þis panne is my be riht Thou schalt wip me to helt git to-nyht Where þou schalt know of oure priuete More þan a maistre of diuinite.	1632
And wip þat word þis foule feend him hent Body and soule he wip þe deuyll went Where þat somnours han her heritago And god þat made after his ymage Mankynde sau and gyde vs alle and some And lete þis somnour good man to bycome Lordinges I couþe han told þou quod þis frere hadde I had leysir for þis somnour here	1640	And wip þat word þis foule fendo hym hent Body and soule he wip þe deul went Where þat somnours han her heritago And god þat made after his ymage Man-kinde sau and gyde vs al and some And leno þis somnour good man to bycome Lordinges I couþe han told þou quod þis frere Had I had leisere for þis somnour here	1640	And wip þat worde þis foule fendo him hent Body and soule he wip þe deual went Where þat Somnours han her heritago And god þat maad after his ymage Mankinde sau and gide vs al and sume An loue þis Somnour good man to be-come Lordinges .I. couþe haue tolde þou quod þis frere Hadde .I. had leiser for þis Somnour here	1640
After þe tixte of crist poule and Iohñ And of oure oþer doctours many oon Suche peynes þat þoure hortos might agrise Al be it so no tunge may deuysen / þough þat I might a þousand wynter telle þe peyne of þilke cursed hous of helle	1644	Aþere þe text. crist. poule and Iohn And of oure oþer doctours mony on Which peynes þat þour hertes myzt agrise Al be it so no tunge may deuise þouþ þat I myzt a .Ml. wynter telle þe peynes of þilke cursed hous of helle	1644	Aþer þe tixt Crist Poule and Iohñ And of oure oþer doctours mony on Suche peines þat þoure hert myht a-grise Albot so no tunge maie devise þouht þat .I. myht a þousand wynter tell þe peyne of þilke cursed hous of helt	1644
CORPUS (6-T. 381)		PETWORTH (6-T. 381)		LANSDOWNE (6-T. 381)

382 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALE. Ellesmere MS. 215

But for to kepe vs / fro that cursed place
 Waketh / and prayeth Ihesu for his grace
 So kepe vs / fro the temptour Sathanas
 Herketh this word / beth war / as in this cas 1656
 The leous sit' in his awyrt alway
 To sle the Innocent / if that he may
 Disposeth ay / youre hertes to withstonde
 The feend / þat yow wolde make / thral and bonde 1660
 He may nat temple yow / ouer youre myght
 for crist wol be / youre champion and knyght
 And prayeth / þat this Somnours hem repente
 Of hir mysdedes / er þat the feend hem hente 1664

¶ Here endeth the freres tale 𐀚

382 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 177

But for to kepe vs / fro that cursed place
 Waketh / and greyeth Ihesu for his grace
 So kepe vs / fro the temptour Sathanas
 Herketh this word / beth war as in this cas 1656
 The leous sit' in his awyrt alway
 To sle the Innocent if that he may
 Disposeth ay youre hertes / to withstonde
 The feend / that yow wolde maken thral and bonde 1660
 He may nat temple yow / ouer youre myght
 for crist wol be youre champion and knyght
 And prayeth / that this Somnours hem repente
 Of hir mysdedes / er that the feend hem hente 1664

¶ Here endeth / the freres tale

382 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALE. Cambridge MS. 215

But for to kepe vs fro þat cursed place (Sloane 1682)
 Wakoth and preithe Ihesu for his grace To kepe vs. fro þe Temptour / Sathanas herken þis words be ware in þis cas 1656
 The lyonn sit in his wayrt alway
 To sle þe Innocent yf þat he may Disposethe ay youre hertes to withstonde þe fende þat yow wolde make þral and bonde 1660 he may not tempton you ouere your myst
 And Cryst wolt be youre Champion and your knyzt
 And praythe þat þis Sompnour / hym repent
 Of / hys mysdede or þe fende hym hent 1664

Here endeth þe freres tale

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALE. Corpus MS. SIX-TEXT 382

But for to kepe vs fro þat cursed place
 Wakeþ and prayeþ ihesu for his gruce
 So kepe vs fro þe temptour Sathanas
 herkeneþ þis word be war as in þis cas 1656
 þe leoun sitte in his awayte alway
 To sle þe Innocent if þat he may Disposeþ ay þour heries to wiþstande þe feend þat þou wolde make þralle and bonde 1660 he may nat tempten þow ouer your might for crist wille be þour champion and knyght
 And prayeþ þat þis somnour him repente 1663
 Of his mysdede or þat þe feend him hente ¶ Explicit

¶ Her endeþ þe frere his tale /

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALE. Petworth MS. SIX-TEXT 382

But for to kepe vs from þat cursed place
 Wakeþ and preieth ihesu for his gruce
 So kepe vs fro þe temptour sathanas Herkeneþ þis word beþ ware as in þis cas 1656
 þe lyon sitte in his awaite alway
 To scles þe Innocent if þat he may .
 Disposeþ ay þoure heries to wiþstande þe fende þat þou wolde make þral and bonde 1660
 He may not tempten þou ouer þour myght for crist wil be þoure champion and knyght
 And preieþ þat þis somnour hym repent
 Of his mysdede or þat þe fende hym hent 1664

¶ Thus endeþ þe frere his tale .

GROUP D. § 4. FRIAR'S TALE. Lansdowne MS. SIX-TEXT 382

But for to kepe us fro þat cursed place
 Wakeþ and prayeþ ihesu for his gruce
 [ . . . . . no gap in the MS.]
 Herkeneþ þis word be war as in þis cas 1656
 The lion sitte in his awaite alweie
 To sle þe Innocent if þat he maie Disposeþ ayo þoure heries to wiþstande
 The fende þat þowe wold make þral and bonde 1660
 He maie nouht tempten þowe over þowre myht
 For crist wil be þoure champion and knyght
 And preieþ þat þis somnour him repent
 Of his mesdede ar þat þe fende hem hent 1664

Explicit fabula :

¶ The prologe / of the Somonours tale (see leaf 64, back)

This Somonour / in his Styropes hye stood Vp-on this frere / his herte was so wood
 That lyk an Aspen leef / he quook for Ire ¶ Lordynges quod he / but o thyng I desire
 I yow biseke / that of youre curteisye
 Syn yo han herd / this false frere Iye
 As suffereth me / I may my tale telle
 This frere bosteth / that he knoweth helle
 And god it woot / that it is lital wonder freres and feendes / been but lyte a-sonder
 ffor pardee / yo han ofte tyme herd telle
 How that a frere / vanysched was to helle
 In spirit ones / by a visounn
 And as an Angel / ladde hym vp and down
 To shewen hym / the peynes þat ther were
 In al the place / saugh he nat a frere
 Of oother/ folk/ he saugh ynowe in wo
 Vn-to this Angel / spak the frere tho
 ¶ Now sire quod he / han freres swich a grace
 That noon of hem / shal come to this place?
 ¶ Yis quod this Angel / many a Millioun
 And vn-to Sathanas / he ladde hym donn
 And now hath Sathanas / seith he a tayl
 Brodder / than of a Carryk/ is the sayl
 Hold vp thy tayl / thou Sathanas quod he Shewe forth thyn ors / and let the frere so
 Where is the nest of freres / in this place
 And er/ þat half a furlong wey of space
 ELLESMEERE 216 (6-7. 383)

¶ The Prologe / of the Somnours tale (see 1/78, 64)

This Somonour in his Styropes / hye he stood Vp-on this frere / his herte was so wood
 That lyk an Aspen lief / he quook for Ire
 ¶ Lordynges quod he / but o thyng I desire
 I yow biseke / that of youre curteisye
 Syn yo han herd / this false frere Iye
 As suffreth me / I may my tale telle
 This frere bosteth / that he knoweth helle
 And god it woot / that it is lital wonder
 freres and feendes / been but lyte a sonder
 ffor pardee / yo han ofte tyme herd telle
 How that a frere / ranyshed was to helle
 In Spirit ones / by a visounn
 And as an Angel / ladde hym vp and down
 To shewen hym / the peynes þat ther were
 In al the place / sey he nat a frere
 Of oother folk/ he say ynowe in wo
 Vn-to this Angel / spak the frere tho
 ¶ Now Sire quod he / han freres swich a grace
 That noon of hem / shal come to this place
 ¶ Yis quod this Angel / many a Millioun
 And vn-to Sathanas / he ladde hym donn
 And now hath Sathanas / seith he a tayl
 Brodder / than of a Carryk/ is the sayl
 Hold vp thy tayl / thou Sathanas quod he
 Shewe forth thyn ors / and let the frere so
 Where is the nest of freres / in this place
 And er / þat half a furlong wey of space
 HENGWRT 178 (6-7. 383)

[Harl. MS 1758, leaf 106, back.]

[Here begynneth the Prolog/ of the Somnour/.

This Somnour/ in his stirop hye stood .
 Vp-on this frere his herte was so wood .
 That like an Aspen leef he quoke for yre .
 ¶ Lordyngis quod he but so thyng I desire . 1668
 I yow beseke that of your/ curtesie .
 Sethys yo han herd this fals frere Iye .
 As suffereth me I maye a tale telle . (leaf 107)
 This frere bosteth that he knoweth helle . 1673
 And god woot that it is lital wondir/freres & fendes ben but lital a sondir/ffor parde ye han ofte tyme herd telle .
 how that a frere ranyshed was in helle . (to be in margin)
 In spirit onys by a visounn .
 And as an angeH had hym vp & down .
 To shewyn hym the peynes that ther/ were .
 In all the place sawe he nat a frere . 1680
 Of other/ folk he sawe y-now in wo .
 Vn-to this angeH spake the frere tho .
 Now sir/ quod he han freres suche grace .
 That non of hem schal come to this place .
 Yis quod this angeH manye a mylioun .
 And vn-to Sathanas he lad hym a-doun .
 And now hath Sathanas saith he a taille .
 Brodder/ then of the Carik is the saille . 1688 Holde vp thyn taille Sathanas quod he .
 Shewe forth thyn ors & lete the frere so .
 Where is the neste of freres in this place .
 And er/ that half a furlong/ wey of space . 1692
 CAMBRIDGE 216 (6-7. 383) [this page, Harl. 1758]

This Somnour in his styrop heyho stode Vpon his frere his herte was so wode That likt an aspen leef he quokt for Ire lordynges quod he but o ping<sup>e</sup> I desire / 1668
 I 3ou besecho þat of 3our curtesye
 Siþ 3o han herde þis fals frere Iye
 As enffreþ me I may a tale telle
 This frere hosteþ þat he knoweþ helle/And god wot þat it is litel wonder freres and feendes ben bot litel asonder for parte 3o han . ofte tyme hard telle/
 how þat a frere rauyshed was in helle
 In spirit<sup>e</sup> ones by a visio<sup>n</sup>
 And as an aungel ladde him vp and down
 To schewen him þe peynes þat þer were In alle þe place saugh he nat a frere [Dist 121] 1680
 Of oþer folk<sup>e</sup> he saugh ynowe in woo Vnto þis aungel spak þe frere þoo
 Nowe sire quod he han freres such a grace /
 That non of hem schal come to þis place / 1684 þis quod þis aungel many a mylioun
 And vnto Sathanas he hadde him down
 And now haþ Sathanas seiþ he a tailo Bradder þan of þe Caryk is þe sailo hold vp þi tayl þu Sathanas quod he / Schew forþ þin ers and let þe frere so /
 Wher is þe neste of freres in þis place
 And er þat half a forlonge way of space
 CORPUS (a-r. 383)

¶ And here bygyaney þe prologe of þe somnour [on ff 121]
This somnour in his styrop hiþe stode Vpon þis frere his herte was so wode þat like an aspen leef he quoko for Ire Lordynges quod he but oo ping<sup>e</sup> I desire
 I 3ou bisecho þat of 3our curtesie
 Siþens 3o han herde this fals frere Iye
 As suffre me I may a tale telle þis frere boosteth þat he knoweþ helle And god woot it is litel wonder freres and feendes bene but litte asonre for parte 3o han oft tyme hard telle
 How þat a frere rauyshed was in helle
 In spirit<sup>e</sup> ones by A visio<sup>n</sup>
 And as an aungel lad him vp & down
 To shewen him the peynes þat þer were In all þe place segh he not a frere
 Of oþer folk<sup>e</sup> he segh ynow in woo Vnto þis aungel speke þe frere þoo
 Nowe sire quod he han freres such a grace þat noon of hem schal come to þis place þis quod þis aungel mony a mylioun
 And vnto Sathanas he lad hym down
 And now haþ sathanas seiþ he a tale Bradder þan of þe Carike is a sailo hold vp þi tailo þu sathanas quod he Showe forþ þine ers and let þe frere see Wher is þe nest of freres in þis place
 And er þan half a forlonge way of space
 PETWORTH (a-r. 383)

Incipit prologus apertiter [on leaf 106, back]

This Somnour in his styrop hiþe stode Vpon þis frere his hert was so wode þat like an haspen lef he quoko for ire Lordynges quod he bot o ping<sup>e</sup> .I. desire 1668
 .I. 3ouwe be-secho þat of 3oure curtesie
 Seþ 3o haue herd þis fals frere Iye
 As suffreþ me .I. maie a tale tell [Dist 197] 1672
 This frere hosteþ þat he knoweþ heit
 As god wote þat is litel wonder Freres and fendes ben bot litel in sunder
 For parte 3o haue oft tyme herd tell How þat a frere rauyshed was in hell
 In spirit<sup>e</sup> ones be a visio<sup>n</sup>
 And as Angol led him vp and downe
 To schowen him þe peynes þat þere were In al þe place sawe he nouyt a frere
 Of oþer folk<sup>e</sup> he sawe y-nowe in woo
 Vnto þis Angel spak þe frere þoo Nowe sir quod he haue freres sucho grace þat none of hem schal com in-to þis place þis quod þis Aungel mony a melioun
 And vn-to Sathanas he had him adoun
 And now haþ Sathanas seiþ he tailo
 Bradder þan of þ[e] Carrik is þe seile 1688 Holdo vp þi tailo þu Sathanas quod he Schowe forþe þin ers and let þe frere se
 Where is þe nest of freres in þis place
 And er þat half a forlonge waie of space
 LANSDOWNE (a-r. 383)

384 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 5. FRIAR-SUMMONER LINK. Ellesmere MS. 217

Right so as bees / out swarmen from an hyue
Out of the deuales ers / ther gonne dryue
Twenty thousand freres / in a route
And thugh-out helle / swarmedon aboute 1696
And comen agayn / as faste as they may gon
And in his ers / they crepten euerychon
He elapte his tayl agayn / and lay ful stille
This frere / whan he hadde looke al his fille 1700
Vpon the tormentz / of this sory place
His spirit' god restored of his grace
Vn-to his body agayn / and he awook'
But natheles / for fere yet he quook'
So was the deuales ers / ay in his mynde
That is his heritage / of verray kynde
God saue yow alle / saue this cursed frere
My prologe / wol I ende / in this manere 1708

384 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 5. FRIAR-SUMMONER LINK. Hengwrt MS. 179

Right so as bees / out swarmen from an hyue
Out of the deuales ers / ther gonne dryue
Twenty thousand freres / on a route
And thugh-out helle / swarmedon aboute 1696
And comen again / as faste as they may gon
And in his ers / they crepten euerychon
He clapte his tayl agayn / and lay ful stille
This frere / whan he looked hadde his fille 1700
Vp-on the tormentz / of this sory place
His spirit' god restored of his grace
Vn-to his body agayn / and he awook'
But natheles / for fere yet he quook'
So was the deuales ers / ay in his mynde
That is his heritage / of verray kynde
God saue yow alle / saue this cursed frere
My prologe / wol I ende / in this manere 1708

¶ Here endeth the prologe of the Somnours tale ¶

384 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 5. FRIAR-SUMMONER LINK. Cambridge MS. 217

Right so as Bees swermen out of an hyue. (H.M. 179)
Out/ of the deuylles ers thei gon dryue.
.xx<sup>ii</sup> thousande freris on a route.
And thorow-out helle swarmed all a-boute. 1696
And camen a-yen as fast/ as thei may gonne.
And in his ers thei crepodyn euerychon.
He clapt/ his tale a-yen & laye still.
This frere when he lokid had his fill. 1700
Vp-on this tormentis of this sory place.
his spirit god restorid of his grace.
Vn-to his bodye a-yen & he a-woke.
But natheles for fere yet he quoke. 1704
So was the deuales ars ay in his mynde.
That is his heritage of verray kynde.
God saue yow alle saue this curaid frere.
Mi Prolog wof I ende in this manere. 1708

Here endith the Prolog/

Right so as bees swermen out of an hyue
 Out of þe deuels ers þey gon to dryue
 Twenty þousand freres on a route
 And þoughte helle swarme al aboute 1696 And comen aȝein as faste as þey mighte gon
 And in his ers þey crepeden euerichon he clapto his tayl aȝein and lay stille 1700 This frere whan he loked hadde his fille ypon þis tormentes of þis sory place /
 his spirit god restored of his grace /
 Vnto his body aȝein and he awoke
 1704 But napeles for feere ȝit he quok
 So was þe deuels ers ay in his mynde þat is his heritage of verrey kinde 1708 God saue þow alle sone þis cursed frere /
 My prologo wil I ende in þis manere /

Ryȝt as been swermen out of an hyue
 Out of þe deuels ers þei gon drive xxth. thousand freres on a route 1696 And þought' helle swarme al aboute
 And comen aȝein as fast' as þei moure gon
 And in his ers þei crepten euerichoñ
 He clapto his taille aȝein and lay stille 1700 This frere whan he loked had his fille Vpon þise turmentz of þis sory place
 His spirit god restored of his grace
 Vnto his body aȝein and he awoke
 1704 But napeles for feere ȝit he quok
 So was þe deuels ers ay in þis mynde which is his heritage of verrey kinde 1708 God saue þou alle sone þis cursed frere
 My prologo wil I ende in þis manere

¶ Thus endeþ þe prologe of þe somnour

Riht so as bees swarme oute of an hive Owte of þe deuels ers þei gon drive twenty þousand freres on a rowte 1696 And þouht leff swarme al aboute
 An comen aȝeine als fast as þei male gone
 And in his hars þei crepen euerychone
 He clapped his taille a-ȝeine and leye stiff 1700 This frere whan he loked had his fill Ypon þis tormantez vpon þis sor place
 His spirit god restored of his grace
 Vnto his body aȝeine and he awoke 1704 Bot napeles for feere ȝit he quok
 So was deuales ars aie in his mynde þat is his heritage of verrai kinde 1708 God saue þow al sone þis curse frere
 My prologe wil .i. ende in þis Manere .

Explicit/ prologus.

¶ Heere bigynneth the Somonour his tale <sup>(leaf 106<sup>v</sup>/85)</sup>

LOrdynge / ther is in yorkshire / as I gesse
 A messch contree / called Holderneshe <sup>[Folowing of the</sup>
 In which / ther wente a lymytour aboute <sup>summoner]</sup>
 To preche / and eek to begge / it is no doute 1712
 And so bifel / that on a day / this frere
 Hadde preched at a chirche in his manere
 And specially / abouen every thyng/
 Excited he the peple / in his prechyng 1716
 To trentals / and to yene for goddis sake
 Wher-with / men myghte hooly houses make Ther as diuine seruyce is honoured
 Nat ther as it is wasted and deuoured 1720
 Ne ther it nedeth nat/ for to be yene
 As to possessioners / that mowen lyue
 Thanked be god / in wele and habundaunce <sup>(leaf 106, back)</sup>
 Trentals seyde he / deliuereth fro penaunce 1724
 Hir freendes soules / as wol olde as yonge Yo / whan bot they been hastily ysonge
 Nat for to holde a preest Ioly and gay
 He syngoth nat/ but o masse in a day 1728
 Deliuereth out quod he / anon the soules
 ful hard it is / with flesschhook/ or with oules
 To been yelawed / or to brenne or bake
 Now spede yow hastily / for cristes sake 1732
 And whan this frere / had seyde al his entente
 With / qui cum patro / forth bis way he wente ¶ Whan folk in chirche / had yene him / what hem lest
 He went his way / no lenger wolde he reste 1736

¶ Here bygyneth the Somnours tale <sup>(leaf 106, back)</sup>

LOrdynge / ther is in Yorkshire / as I gesse
 A Messch contree / called Holderneshe
 In which / ther wente a lymytour aboute
 To preche / and eek to begge / it is no doute 1712
 And so bifel / that on a day this frere
 Hadde preched at a chirche / in his manere
 And specially / abouen every thyng/
 Excited he the peple / in his prechyng 1716
 To trentals / and to yene for goddis sake
 Wher-with men myghte / holy houses make Ther as dyuine seruice / is honoured
 Nat ther / as it is wasted and deuoured 1720
 Ne ther / it nedeth nat/ to be yene
 As to possessioners / that mowen lyue
 Thanked be god / in wele and habundaunce
 Trentals seyde he / deliuereth fro penaunce 1724
 Hir freendes soules / as wel olde as yonge Yo / whan that they / been hastily ysonge
 Nat for to holde a preest Ioly and gay
 He syngoth nat/ but o masse in a day 1728
 Deliuereth out quod he / anon the soules
 ful hard it is / with flessch-hook/ or with oules
 To been yelawed / or to brenne / or bake
 Now spede yow hastily / for cristes sake 1732
 And whan this frere / hadde seyde al his entente
 With qui cum patro / forth his way he wente Whan folk in chirche / hadde yene hym / what hem lest
 He wente his way / no lenger wolde he reste 1736

[Harl. MS 1766, on leaf 106, back] and begynneth the Tale.

LOrdynge ther/ is in york schire as I gesse .
 A merschy contré called holderneshe .
 In whiche ther/ wente a lymytour/ a-boute .
 To preche & eek/ to begge it is no doute . 1712
 And so bifell that on a day this frere .
 had preched at chirche in this manere .
 And specially a-bouyn every thyng . 1716
 Excited he the peple in his prechyng .
 To trentals & to yene for goddis sake . <sup>(leaf 106, back)</sup> Wher-with men myghte holi housis/ make .
 Ther/ as deuyne seruyce is honourid .
 Nought ther/ as it is wasted & deuoured . 1720
 Ne there it nedith nat for to be yene .
 As to possessioners that may ellis lyue .
 Thankid be god in wele & habundaunce .
 Trentales seide he deliuerith fro penaunce . 1724
 Here frundes soules as weil olde as yung .
 Yef that thei ben hastily song .
 Nought for to holde a preest ioly & gay .
 He syngoth not but oo messe in a day . 1728 Deliuereth out/ a man quod he the soules .
 fulfil hard it is with flessch-boke or with oulis .
 Now spede you hastily for cristes sake . 1732
 To kepe you fro peynes of fendis blake . 1731
 And whan the frere had seide alle his entente .
 With Qui cum patre forth he wente .
 When folke in chirche had yene hym what hem lest .
 he wente his way no lenger/ wolde he rest . 1736

¶ Here begynneth þe Somnours tale

And here bygyaneth þe somnour tale

Incipit fabula apatoris [on leaf 180r]

L Ordynges þer is in yorke schire / as I gesso
 A merschy cuntrye called Holdernesse
 In which þer wente a lymytour aboute
 To preche and eek to begge it is no doute 1712
 And so bifelle þat on a day þis frere
 Hadde preched atte chereche in þis manere
 And specially abouen every þing<sup>[leaf 121, back]</sup>
 Excited he þe people in his preachinge 1716
 To trentales and for goddes sake
 Ther-with men mighten holy houses make / Thor as divin seruuice is honoured
 Nought þer as it is wasted and deuoured 1720
 Ne þer it nedep not for to be þene
 As to possessioners þat may elles lyue þanked be god in wele and habundance Trentales seyde he deliuereth fro penance 1724
 Here fendes soules as wel olde as yonge
 If þat þei ben hastily y-songe
 Nought for to holde a prest ioly and gay
 he syngeþ not but o messe in a day 1728 Delyuereþ out quod he anon þe soules ful hard it is wiþ flesshoke oþer with oules Now speed þou hastily for cristes sake 1732 to kepe þou fro peynes of fendes blake 1731
 And when þe frere hadde seyde al his entente
 Wiþ Qui cum patre forþ he wente
 When folk in chirche hadde þine him what hem leste
 he wente his way no lenger wolde he reste 1736
 CORPUS (6-T. 385)

L Orlyngges þer/ is in yorke-shire as I gesso<sup>[leaf 180]</sup>
 A merschy cuntrye called holdernesse
 In which þere went a lymytour aboute
 To preche and eke to begges it is no doute 1712
 And so byfelle þat on a day þis frere
 Had preched atte chirech in þis manere
 And specially abouen every þinge
 Excited he þe puple in his preachinge 1716
 To trentales and [to þoue] for goddis sake Therwiþ men myzte holy howses make Ther as dyuyn seruuice is honoured
 Nought þere as it is wasted and deuoured 1720
 Ne þere it nedep not fortoþe þene
 As to possessioners þat may elles lyue
 Thanked be god in wele and habundance
 Trentales seide he deliuereth fro penance 1724
 Her-fendes soules as wel olde as yonge
 If þat þei bene hastily ysonge
 Nought forto holde a prest ioly and gay
 He syngeþ not but oon messe on a day 1728
 Delyuereþ out quod he anon þe soules
 ful hard it is wiþ flesshoke eþer with oules
 Now speede þou hastily for cristes sake 1732
 To kepe þou from-peynes of fendes blake 1731
 And when þe frere had seide al his entente
 With qui cum patre forþ he wente
 When folk in chirche had þeue hym what hem lest
 He went his way no lenger wold he rest 1736
 PETWORTH (6-T. 386)

L Orlyngges þere is in yorke-shire as I gesso
 A merschy cuntrye called holdernesse
 In which þere went a limitour a-boute .
 To preche and eke to bigges it is no doute [leaf 180, back] 1712
 And so be-fell þat on a daie þis frere 1713
 Hadde preched att þe chereche in þis manere
 And specially aboue every þinge
 He excited þe peple in his preachinge 1716
 To trentales and for goddes sake þere-wiþe men mighte holy houses maake þere as deuynes seruice is honoured 1720
 Nought þere as is wasted and deuoured
 Ne þere it nedep noulth for to be þene
 As to possessioners þat maie elles lyue þanked be god in wele and abundance 1724
 Trentales seide he deliuereth fro penance
 Here fendes soules as wele olde and yonge
 If þat þei bien hastily songe
 Noulth for to holde a preste iolif and gale
 He syngeþ not bot o messe on a daie 1728
 Deliuereth out amonge þe soules
 Ful harde it is wiþ fleschehokes or with oules Nowe speede þowe hastily for cristes sake 1732
 To kepe þowe fro þe peines of þe fendes blake 1731
 And when þe frere hadde seide al his entente
 Wiþ qui cum patre forþe he wente
 When folke in churche had þeue him what hem leste
 He went his waie no longer wolde he rest 1736
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 386)

With scrippe and tipped staf/ yuhkkoð hye
 In euery hous / ho gan to poure and pryø
 And beggeth mele / and chese / or ellis corn
 His felawe hadde a staf / tipped with horn
 A peyre of tables / al of yuory
 And a poyntel / polished fetisly
 And wroote the names / alwey as he stood
 Of alle folk / that yaf hym any good
 Asaunces / that he wolde for hem prey
 Yif hym a bussell whete / Malþ or Roye
 A goddes kechyl / or a trype of chese
 Or ellis what yow lyst we may nat chesse
 A goddes halpenny / or a masse peny
 Or yif vs of youre brawn / if yo haue cny
 A dagou of youre blanket leene dame
 Ouro suster deere / lo heree I write youre name
 Bacon / or beef / or swich thyng as yo fynde
 ¶ A sturdy harlot / wende ay hem bihynde
 That was hir hostes man / and bar a sak
 And what men yaf hem / leyde it on his bak
 And whan þat he / was out at ðore anon
 He plained awey / the names euerichon
 That he bifon / had writen in his tables
 He serued hem / with nyfles and with fables
 ¶ Nay ther thou list thou Somonour quod the frere ¶ Pees quod oure Hoost for cristes mooder deere Tul forth thy tale / and spare it nat at al
 ¶ So thyrus I quod this Somonour / so I shal ¶ So longe he wente hous by hous / til he Cam til an hous / ther he was wont to be Refreshed moore / than in an hundred placis
 Syk lay the goodde man / whos the place is Bedrede vp-on a couche love he lay
 Deus hic / quod he / o Thomas frend good day
 Seyde this frere / curteisly and softe
 Thomas quod he / god yelde yow / ful ofte

With scripppe and typped staf / y-tukkoð hye
 In euery hous / he gan to poure and pryø
 And beggeth Mele / and chese / or ellis corn
 His felawe hadde a staf / typped with horn
 A peyre of tables / al of yuory
 And a poyntel / polished fetisly
 And wroot the names / alwey as he stood
 Of alle folk / that yaf hem any good
 Asaunces / that he wolde for hem prey
 Yif vs a bussell whete / Malþ or Roye
 A goddes kechyl / or a trype of chese
 Or ellis what yow lyst we may nat chese
 A goddes half peny / or a masse peny
 Or yif vs of youre brawn / if yo haue eny
 A dagou of youre Blanket leene dame
 Ouro suster deere / lo heree I write youre name
 Bacon / or beef / or swich thyng as yo fynde
 A sturdy harlot / wende ay hem bihynde
 That was hir hostes man / and baar a sak
 And what men yaf hem / leyde it on his bak
 And whan that he was out at ðore anon
 He plained awey / the names euerichon
 That he bifon / hadde writen in his tables
 He serued hem / with nyfles and with fables
 ¶ Nay ther thou list thou Somonour quod the frere
 ¶ Pees quod oure hoost for cristes mooder deere Tul forth thy tale / and spare it nat at al
 ¶ So thyrus I quod this Somonour / so I shat
 So longe he wente / hous by hous / til he
 Cam til an hous / ther he was wont to be
 Refreshed moore / than in an hundred placis
 Syk lay the goodde man / whos the place is Bedrede vp-on a couche / love he lay
 Deus hic quod he / O Thomas frend good day
 Seyde this frere / curteisly and softe
 Thomas quod he / god yelde yow ful ofte

With scripppe & tipped staf trucked full hye. (Ibid. 1785)
 In euery hous he gan to pore & pryø.
 And beggeth mele or chese or ellis corn.
 his felawe had a staf tipped with horn. 1740
 A peire of' tablis of yuory.
 And a poyntel poliched fetisly.
 And wrot / alweye the names ther he stood.
 Of alle folke that yaf hym any good. 1744
 As-caunce as he wolde for hem proie. (Ibid. 1785)
 Yewe vs a buschell whete malt / or roue. ] (Ibid. extract ends)
 A godis kechil or a trip of chese (MS Cg. 4. 27, leaf 23a)
 Or ellis what yow lyst we may not chese 1748
 A godis halpenny or a masse peny
 Or yewe vs of youre brawn zif þo han any
 A dagoue of youre blanket leue dame
 Ouro sistry dere lo here I wryte youre name 1753
 Bacon or bef or swich þyng as þo fynde
 A sturdy harlot wende hem ay by-lynde
 That was here ostys man & bar a sak
 And what men yow hem leyde it on his bak 1756
 And whan he was out at þe ðore anon
 He plained a-way þe namys euerichon
 That he be-fore hadde wrytyn in hyse tablis
 He seruede hem with nyfles & wyth fablys 1760
 Nay þere þou list þou somonour quod þe frere Pees quod oure ost for cristis moodyr dere
 Telle forth youre tale & spare it not at al
 So thyrus I quod this somonour so I schal 1764 So longe he wente hous by hous tyl he Cam to an hous þere he was wont to be Refreshed moore þan in an hundred-le placis
 Sek lay þe goodde man whos þe place is 1768
 Bedrede vp-on a couche love he lay
 Deus hic quod he O tomays frend good day
 Seyle þis frere curteyly & softe
 Thomas quod he god zelde þow ful ofte 1772

Wij scrippe and tipped staf tukked ful hye
 In every hous he gan to pore and pryse
 And beggþ mele or chese or ellis corn his felaw had a staf typped with horn
 A payre of tabyles of yuorie
 And a poyntel polished fotounly
 And wrot þe names alwey as he stode
 Of any folk þat 3af hem eny good 1744 Ascaunce þat he wolde for hem preye 3ine vs a bussel whete malt or reye
 A goddes kechil or a trippe of chese
 Oþer elles what þow list we may nat chese 1748 A goddes halpeny oþer a masse peny
 Oþer 3ine vs of þour brañ if 3o haue eny
 A dagoun of þour blanket leue dame
 1752 Oure suster deore here I write þour name Bacon or beef or such þingz as 3o fynde
 A sturdy harlot wente hem ay behynde
 That was her hostes man and bar a sakke 1756 And what men 3aue hym leyde it on his bakke And whan he was out at þe dore anon he played away þe names euerychoon
 That he bifore hadde writen in his tables
 1760 He serued [hem] wiþ nyfels and wiþ fables Nay þer þou list þou somnour quod þe frere /
 Pees quod oure host for cristes moder deore Telle forþ þi tale spare it not at al 1764 So þryue I quod þis somnour so I schal So longe he wente hous by hous quod he Til he come to an hous þer he was wont to be Refreshed more þan in an .C. places 1768 Seke lay þe bonde man whos þe place is
 And vpon a couche lowe he laye
 Deus hic quod he / O Thomas frund god day Seyde þis frere curteyle and softe 1772 Thomas sayde he god yelde 3ow ful ofte
 CORPUS (6-T. 386)

Wij scrippe and tipped staf tukked ful his
 In every hous he gan to pore and prie
 And beggþ mele or chese or ellis corn 1740 His felawe had a staf typped wiþ horn
 A paire of tables of yuorie
 And a poyntel polished fotaily
 And w[ri]tete alwey þe names þer he stode 1744 And alle folk þat 3aue hym eny goode Ascaunce as he wolde for hem preye 3if vs a bussel whete . malt or reye
 A goddys kechil or a trippe of chese 1748 A bossel malt or ellis of peese
 A goddys half peny or a masse peny
 Or 3oue vs of þoure [bran] 3if yo haue eny
 A dagoun of þour blanket leue dame
 1752 Our suster deor loo here I write þour name Bacon or beef or such þingz as 3o finde
 A sturdy harlot went alwey behinde þat was her hostes man and bere a sak 1756 And what men 3aue hym leyde it on his bak
 And whan he was out of þe door anon
 He played away [þe] names euerschoñ þat he biforn had writen in his tables
 1760 He serued [hem] wiþ nyfels and wiþ fables
 Nay þer-In þu list somnour quod þe frere
 Pees quod oure host for cristes moder dere Telle forþ þi tale and spare it not at all 1764 for hym ne for noon oþere what so fall So longe he went hous by hous til he Come to an hous þer he was wont to be Refreshed more þan in an .C. places
 1768 Seke lay þe good man þat of the place is Beired vpon a couche lowe he laye
 Deus hic quod he . o thomas frunde good day
 Seide þis frere curteily and soft 1772 Thomas god yelk 3ou wel oft
 PETWORTH (6-T. 386)

Wij scrippe and tipped staf tokked ful hifo
 In every . hous he gan to poure and prid
 And beggþ mele or ellisore or ellis corn 1740 His felowe had a staf typped wiþ horn
 A paire of tables of yuorie
 And a pointel polished fotuly
 And wrote þe names alweie as he stode 1744 Of every folke þat 3aue hem any goode Askaunce þat he wolde for hem preie 3oue vs a boschel wete malto or rio
 A goddes kechil or a trep of chese 1748 Or elles what 3owe last we maie nouhte chese
 A goddes halpenye or a mespeny Or 3oue vs of þoure branne if 3o haue any A dagoun of þoure blanket leue dame 1752 Lo suster deore lo hero .I. writio þoure name Bacon or befe or suche þingz as 3o finde 1756 A stordy harlote went hem aie to-hindle þat was the osteman and bare a sakke
 And what men 3aue hem laide of his bakke
 And wher he was out at þe dore anon
 He played awaie þe names euerychoñ þat he be-fore had wreten in his tables
 1760 He serued hem wiþ nyfels and wiþ fables
 Nay þere þou list þou Somnour quod þe frere Pees quod oure host for criste/ moder dere
 Tel forþ þi tale Spare it nouht at al 1764 So þryue .I. quod þe Somnour so .I. schal So longe he went hous by hous quod he Til he come to an hous þer he was wonte to be Refreshed more þat in an hundreþ place 1768 Seke laye bonde man was þe place
 And vpon a couche lowe he laye
 Deus hic quod he O Thomas frunde good daie
 Seide þis frere curteily and soft 1772 Thomas seide he god yelde 3owe ful oft
 LANSLOWNE (6-T. 386)

Haus I / vp-on this bench / faren ful wol
 Heere haue I eten / many a myrie meel
 And fro the bench / he droof away the cat
 And leyde adoun / his potente and his hat
 And eek his scrippe / and sette hym softe adoun
 His felawe / was go walked in-to town
 forth with his knawe / in-to that hostelrye
 Where as he shoop hym / thilke nyght to lye
 ¶ O deere maister / quod this sikke man
 How han ye fare / with þat March bigan
 I saugh yow nouht / this fourtyght or moore
 God woot quod he / laboured I haue ful score
 And specially / for thy sauacion
 Hase I seyd / many a precious orison
 And for cure othere freendes / god hem blesse
 I haue to day / been at youre chirche at messo /
 And seyd a sermon / after my symple wit
 Nat al after / the text of holy writ for it is hard to yow / as I suppose
 And therefore / wol I teche yow al the glose Glosyng / is a glorious thyng certeyn for letre sleeth / so as thise clerkes seyn There haue I taught hem to be charitable
 And spende hir good / ther it is reasonable
 And there I saugh oure dame / a where is she?
 ¶ Yond in the yerd / I trowe þat she be Seyde this man / and she wol come anon
 ¶ Ey maister / wel come be ye / by seint Iohā
 Seyde this wyf / how fare ye hertely?
 ¶ The frewe ariseth vp / ful curteisly
 And hire embrasoeth in his Armes narwe
 And kiste hire swete / and chirtheeth as a sparwe
 With his lippes / . dame quod he right wel
 As he / that is youre seruant euery deel
 Thanked be god / þat yow yaf soule and lyf
 Yet saugh I nat this day / so fair a wyf

Hase I vp-on this bench / faren ful wol
 Heere haue I eten / many a myrie meel
 And fro the bench / he droof away the cat
 And leyde adoun / his potente and his hat
 And eek his scrippe / and sette hym softe adoun
 His felawe / was go walked in-to town
 forth with his knawe / in-to that hostelrye
 Where as he shoop hym / thilke nyght to lye
 ¶ O deere maister / quod this syke man
 How han ye fare / with þat March bigan
 I say yow nouht this fourtyght or moore
 ¶ God woot quod he / laboured I haue ful score
 And specially / for thy sauacion
 Hase I seyd / many a precious orison
 And for oure othere freendes / god hem blesse
 I haue to day / been at youre chirche at messo
 And seyd a sermon / after my symple wit
 Nat al / after the text of holy writ
 for it is hard to yow / as I suppose
 And therefore / wol I teche yow al the glose
 Glosyng / is a glorious thyng certeyn for letre sleeth / so as we clerkes seyn Ther haue I taught hem / to be charitable
 And spende hir good / ther it is reasonable
 And there I say oure dame / a where is she ¶ Yond in the yerd / I trowe þat she be
 Seyde this man / and she wol come anon
 ¶ Ey maister / wel come be ye / by seint Iohā
 Seyde this wyf / how fare ye hertely?
 ¶ The frewe ariseth vp / ful curteisly
 And hire embrasoeth / in his armes narwe
 And kiste hir swete / and chirtheeth as a sparwe
 With his lippes / Dame quod he / right wel
 As he / that is youre seruant euery del
 Thanked be god / that yow yaf soule and lyf
 Yet say I nat this day / so fair a wyf

Hase I vp-on þis benche fare ful wel
 Here haue I ete ful manye a myrie meel
 And fro þe bench he droof away þe cat
 And leyde adoun his potente & his hat
 And ek his scrippyn & sette hym softe adoun His felawe was go walkede in þe town forth with his knawe vn-to þat ceterlye Where as he schop hym þe like nyght to lye
 O dere maystir quod þis syke man
 How haue þe fare sythe þat March began
 I saw þow not þis fourtenyt or more
 God wot quod he laboured haue I ful score
 And sp[eci]ally for thyn sauacion
 Hase I seyd manye a precious orison
 And for oure oþere frendis god hem blyse
 I haue to day been at þoure chirche at messo
 And seyd a sermoun after myn symple wit Nat al after þe text of holy wret for it is hard to þow as I suppose And þerfore vele I telle þow al þe glose Glosyng is a gloriousi thyng certeyn for lettere sleeth as we clerkis seyn
 There haue I taught hem to be charytable
 And spende here good þere it is reasonable
 And þere I saw oure dame a where is sche Jond in þe yerd / I trowe þat sche be Seyde þis man & sche vele come anon
 Ey maystir wolcome be þe by seynt Iohā Seyde þis wif how fare þe hertely
 This frewe arysith vp ful curteisly
 And hire embrageth in hire armyng narwe
 And kyssith hire swete / & chirkeeth as a sparwe
 With his lippis dame quod he right wel
 As he þat is þoure seruant euery del
 Thankede be god þat þow yaf soule & lyf Jit saw I not þis day so fayr a wyf hane I vpon þis benché faren wel heere hane I eten many a mery meel

And fro þe benché he drof away þe cat
And leyde dōan his potent and his hat 1776
And eek his gryppe and sette him softe a doun His felawe was go-walked in þe town forþ with his knaue in-to þat hostlerie
What as he schop him þilke nyght to lye
O dere maister quod þis seke man how han 3e fardȝepnes þat marche bigan
I say 3ow nouȝt þis fourtenight and more
God woot quod he laboured hane I ful sore 1784
And specially for þi saluacion hane I seyde many a precious orison
And for oure oþer frendes god hem blesse
I hane to day don at ȝoure chirche a messe
A sayd a sermon after my simple writ nouȝt alle after þe text of holy writ for it is hard to ȝou as I suppose perfore wel I teche to ȝou al þe glose Glosinge is a glorious þing certein for letre slep so as clerkes sein þer hane I taught hem to be charitable And spende here good þer it is resonable 1796
There I sawh oure dame a wher is sche ȝoude in þe ȝerde I trowe þat sche be / Seyd þis man and sche wil come anon
Ey maister welcome be ȝe by seintȝ Iohā Seyd þis wiȝf how fare ȝe hartely þe frere ariseȝ vp ful curteuly
And hir embraseȝ in his armes narwe
And kisseȝ hir swete and chirkeȝ as a sparwe 1804
Wip his lippes dame quod he riht wel
As he þat is your seruant eury del
I-þonked be god þat ȝou ȝaf soule and lif ȝit sawh I nouȝt to day so fair a wiȝf

Hane I vpon þis benché faren ful welo
Here hane I eten many a mery mele
And from þe benché he droof away þe cat
And leide a doun his potent and his hat
And eke his scrips and sette hym soft adoun His felawe was go-walked in to þe town forþ wip his knaue into þat hostlerie Wher as he shope hym þilke nyght to lye
O dere Maister quod þis sike man
How hane ȝe farn sif þat march bygan
I seȝt ȝou nouȝt þis fourtenight and more
God wote quod he laboured hane I ful sore 1784
And specially for þi saluacion
Hane I seide many a precious orison
And for our oþer frendes god hem blesse
I hane þis day þon at ȝour chirch at messe
And seide a sermon after my simple writte
Not al after þe text of holy writte
for it is hard to ȝou as I suppose
And perfore I wil teche ȝou al þe glose Glosinge is glorious þing certeyn for lettre slep so as clerkes seȝe There hane I taught hem to be charitable And spende her good þer it is resonable 1796 And þer I seȝe our dame a wher is she ȝoude in þe ȝoude I trowe she be Seide þis man and she wil come anon
Ey maister welcome be ȝe be seintȝ Iohā Seide þis wiȝf how fare ȝe hartely
This frere riseȝ vp wel curteisly
And hure embraseȝ in his armes narwe
And kisseȝ hure sweteȝ and chirkeȝ as a sparwe 1804
Wip his lippes. dame quod he riht wel
As he þat is ȝour seruante eury del Thonked be god þat ȝou ȝaf soule and lif ȝit sey I nouȝt þis day so faire a wiȝf

Hawe .I. vpon þis benché fare welo
Here hane .I. eto many a mery mele
And fro þe benché he drove a-waio þe cat
And laide adoun his potent and his hat 1776
And eke his scripe and sett him soft adoune
His felowe was go walked in þe town
Forþe wip his knaue in-to þat hostlerie
Wher as he schope him þilke nyght to lye
O dere maister quod þis seke man
Howe hane ȝe fare . soȝ marche be-gan
.I. saue ȝou nouȝt þis fourtenight and more
God wote quod he laboured hane .I. ful sore 1784
And special for þin saluacion
Hane .I. seide many a precious orisone
And for oure oþer frendes god hem blesse
.I. hane to-daie done at ȝoure cherche a messe
And seide a sermon after my simple writte
Nouȝt al after þe text of holy writte
For it is harde to ȝowe as .I. suppose Ther-fore. wil .I. teȝh al þe glose Glosinge is a glorious þing certeyn
For letter slep so as clerkes sein Ther hane .I. taucht hem to be charitable.
And spende here goode þere it resonable þere .I. saue cure dame a wher is sche ȝoude in þe ȝerde .I. trowe sche be Seide þis man and sche wil come anone
Ey Maister welcome be ȝe be seint Iohā Seide þis wiȝf howe fare ȝe hertly þe frere riseȝ vp ful curteisly
And her embraseȝ in his armes narwe
And kisseȝ hir swete and chirkeȝ as a sparwe 1804
Wip his lippes: dam quod he riht welo
As he þat is ȝoure seruant eurydale
I-þonkede be god þat ȝow ȝaf soule and lif ȝit sawe .I. nouȝt-to-daie so faire a wiȝf 1808

388 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. ELLESMERE MS. 221

In al the chirohe / god so saue me ¶ Ye / god amande defautes / sire quod she Algates / wel come be ye / by my fay
 Graunt mercy dame / this haue I founde alwey 1812
 But of youre grete goodnesse / by youre leue
 I wolde pray yow / þat ye nat yow greu
 I wole with Thomas speke a litel throwe
 These curatz / been ful negligenc and slowe 1816
 To grope tendrely a conscienc
 In shrift in prechyng is my diligence
 And studie / in Petres wordes / and in Poules <sup>(Def 98, back)</sup>
 I walke / and fasshe cristen mennes soules 1820
 To yelden Ihesu crist / his propre rente
 To sprede his word / is set al myn entente
 ¶ Now by youre leue / o deere sire quod she Chideth him wel / for sainte Trinitee 1824
 He is as angry / as a pissemyre
 Though þat he haue / al that he kan desire Though I him wrye a nyght/ and make hym warm
 And on hym leye my leg/ outhur myn arm 1828
 He groweth lyk our boor / lith in our sly Oother disport/ ryght noon of hym haue I
 I may nat plesse hym / in no maner cas
 ¶ O Thomas / Ie vous dy / Thomas / Thomas 1832
 This maketh the feend / this moste ben amended
 Ire is a thyng that hye god defendid
 And ther-of / wol I speke a word or two ¶ Now maister quod the wyf / or þat I go 1836
 What wol ye dyne / I wol go ther-about
 ¶ Now dame quod he / Ie vous dy sanz doute
 Haue I nat of a capou / but the lyuere
 And of youre softe breed / nat but a shyuere
 And after that a rosted pigges heed .
 But þat I nolde / no best for me were deed
 Thanne hadde I with yow homely suffisaunce
 I am a man / of litel sustenaunce 1844

ELLESMERE 221 (6-T. 388)

388 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. HENGWRT MS. 183

In al the chirohe / god so saue me
 ¶ Ye god amande defautes / sire quod she Algates / wel come be ye / by my fay
 ¶ Graunt mercy dame / this haue I founde alwey 1812
 But of youre grete goodnesse / by youre leue
 I wolde pray yow / that ye nat yow greu
 I wol with Thomas / spoke a litel throwe
 These Curatz / been ful negligenc and slowe 1816
 To grope tendrely / a conscienc
 In shrift in prechyng is my diligence
 And studie / in Petres wordes / and in Poules
 I walke / and fasshe / cristen mennes soules 1820
 To yelden Ihesu crist . his propre rente
 To sprede his word / is set al myn entente
 ¶ Now by youre leue / o deere sire quod she Chideth hym wel / for Sainte Trinitee 1824
 He is as angry / as a Pissemyre <sup>(Def 93)</sup> Though that he haue / al that he kan desire Though I hym wrye a nyght/ and make hym warm
 And on hym leye / my leg/ outhur myn arm 1828
 He groweth lyk our boor / lyth in our sty Oother disport/ right noon of hym haue I
 I may nat please hym / in no maner cas
 ¶ O Thomas Ie vous dy / Thomas / Thomas 1832
 This maketh the feend / this moste been amended
 Ire is a thyng that hye god defendid
 And ther-of / wol I speke / a word / or two
 ¶ Now maister quod the wyf / or þat I go 1836
 What wol ye dyne / I wol go ther about ¶ Now dame quod he / now Ie vous dy sanz doute
 Haue I nat of a Capou / but the lyuere
 And of youre softe breed / nat but a shyuere
 And after that a rosted pigges heed
 But þat I nolde / no best for me were deed
 Thanne hadde I with yow homely suffisaunce
 I am a man / of litel sustenaunce 1844

HENGWRT 183 (6-T. 388)

388 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. CAMBRIDGE MS. 221

In al þe cherche god so saue me 3a god amande þe fautes sere quod she Algatia welcome þe by myn fay
 Grant merci dame þis haue I founde alwey 1812
 Dat of youre grete goodnesse by your leue
 I wolde preyre þow þat þe nat þow greue
 I wole with Thomas speke a lytel throwe
 These curatis been ful negligenc & slowe 1816
 To grope tendrely a conscienc
 In schrifte in prechyng is myn diligence
 And stodie in peters wordis & in Poulis
 I walke to fyche cristen menys soules 1820
 To gylde Ihesu crist / hiso propre rente
 To sprede his word is set al myn entent
 Now by youre leue o deere maystyr quod she <sup>(Def 220)</sup>
 Schidith hym wel for seynto trynyte 1824
 He is as angry as a pissemyre
 Thow that he haue al þat he kan desyre
 Thow I hym wrye a nygt & make hym warm
 And ouer hym leye myn leg oþer myn arm 1828
 He growyth lik our bor lyth in our sty Oþer disport ryzt non of hym haue I
 I may not plesse hym in no manere cas
 O Thomas Ie vous dy Thomas Thomas 1832
 This makyth þe feend þis muste ben a mendit. <sup>(D. 220)</sup>
 Ire is a thyng þat highe god defendit
 And þerof wole I speke a word or two Now maystyr quod þe wyf er þan I go 1836
 What wole þe dyne I wole go þere aboute
 Now dame quod he Ie vous dy sanz doute
 Haue I nat of a capoun but þe lyuere
 And of youre softe bred but a schouere 1840
 And after þat a rosted pigis hed
 But þat I nolde no beste for me were ded
 Thanne hadde I with þow homely suffisaunce
 I am a man of lytel sustenaunce 1844

CAMBRIDGE 221 (6-T. 388)

		SIX-TEXT 386
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE.		Corpus MS.
In al þe chirche god so saue me
3e god amende defautes sir quod scho
Algates welcome be 3e by my fey
Gnawey dame þis haue I founde alwey
But of þour grete goodnes by þour leue
I wolde pray 3ou þat 3e nought 3ou greuo
I wole with Thomas spekan a litel þrouw þeþe curates ben ful neeligent/ and slowe
To grope tendrely a consciene
In schrifte and in preching is my diligence
And stadye in petres wordes and in poules
I walke and fishe mennes soules
To 3elde ihesu crist/ his propre rento
To sprede his wordes is sette al myn entencio ¶ Now by þour leue o dere sire quod scho Chydeþ him wel for god in trinite he is as angry as a pissemire þey þat he haue al þat he can desire þey I him vrye a night and make him warm And ouer him leye my legges or arm he greyneþ like oure boor gronyng in sty Oþer disport of him right non haue I
I may not pleson him in no maner cas ¶ Ieo vous dy trescher & bien amy O Thomas
This makop þe fende þis mot ben amended Ire is a þing þat lyege god defended
And þer-of wil I speke a word or tuo
Now maister quod þe wif or þat I go
What wil 3e dyne I wole go þer aboute
Now dame quod he Ieo vous dye sanz doute haue I not of a Capon but þe lyuere
And of your softe brede but a schyner
And after þat a rosted pigges heed
But þat I wolde for me no beeste were dede þanne hadde I wif 3ou holly suffisañce
I am a man of litel sustenance /
		CORPUS (6-T. 388)

		SIX-TEXT 388
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE.		Potworth MS.
In al þe chirche god so saue me
3e god amende al fautes sir quod she Algates welcome be 3e by my fay
Gnawt mercy dame þis haue I finde alwey	1812
But of youre grete goodnesse be þour leue
I wold pray 3ou þat 3e nold not greue
I wil wif thomas speke a litel throuw
Thise Curatours bene ful neeligent/ and so-lowe	1816
To grope tenderly a consciene
In shrift in preching is my diligence
And stody in peter wordes and poules
I walke and fishe cristen mennys soules	1820
To 3elde Ihesu his propre rent
To speke his wordes is al myn entencio
¶ Now by youre feiþ dere maister quod she	[leaf 152]
Chideþ him wel for seinte trinite	1824
He is as angry as a pisse myre þouþe þat he haue al þat he can desire þouþe I wrie hym on nyght and make hym warme
And on hym lay my legges or myn arme	1828
He groneþ lich oure boor þat lieþ in þe stie Oþer disport of him non haue I
I may not ples him in no manere cas
O Thomas Ieo vous dyo . thomas thomas	1832
This makop þe fende this wil be amended .
Ire is a þing þat his god haþ defended
And þerof wil I speke a word or tuo
Now maister quod þe wif or þat I goo	1836
What wil 3e dyne I wil goo þeraboute
Now dame quod he Ieo vous dye sanz doute haue I of a Capon nouþt but þe lyuere
And of youre softe brede but a schyner	1840
And after þat a rosted pigges hede
But þat I nolds for me no beest were dede þan had I wif 3ou homely suffisañce
I am a man of litel sustynance	1844
		POTWORTH (6-T. 388)

		SIX-TEXT 388
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE.		Lansdowne MS.
In al þe cherche so god : saue me
3e god amend defautes sira quod scho
Algates welcom be 3e by my fay
Gnawt Mercd dame þis haue .I. founde al weie	1812
Bot of youre grete goodnesse be þour leu
.I. wolde prae 3oue þat 3e not þour greue
.I. wil : wif thomas speke a litel þrouw
þis Curates buen ful neeligent/ and slowe	1816
To gropen tenderly a consciens
In schrif and in precheinge is my diligence
And stody in petere wordes and in poules
.I. walke and fishe mun soules	1820
To 3elden ihesu cristhe his propre rent
To spreke his wordes .I. sett al myno entencio
Now be þoure leue o dere sir quod see
Chideþ him wele for god in trinite	1824
He is as Angry as-a piemyre þeþe þat he haue al þat he can desire þeþe .I. him vrye a nyght and make him warme
And ouere him laye my legges or myno Arme	1828
He groneþ like oure boor groneinge in his sty Oþer disport of him riht non haue .I.
.I. maie nouht plesen him in no maner cas
.Ieo vous die treschier & bien amy o thomas	1832
This makop þe fende it most bu amended Ire is a þing þat hihe god defended
And þere-of wil .I. speke a worde or tuo
Nowe Maister quod þe wif ar þat .I. go	1836
What wil 3e dyne .I. wil go þere aboute
Nowe dame quod he Ie vous dy sanz doute
Haue . note of a capon bot þe liuere	[leaf 150]
And of youre soft brede bot a schienu	1840
And after þat a rosted pigges hede
Bot þat .I. wold for me no beste were dede þan hadde .I. wif þour holly suffience
.I. am a man of litel sustinance	1844
		LANSDOWNE (6-T. 388)

389 SIX-TEXT
222 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

My spirit<sup>h</sup> hath his fostyrng<sup>e</sup> in the Bible
The body is ay / so redy and penyble
To wake / that my stomak is destroyed
I prey yow dame / ye be nat annoyed
Though I so frendly / yow my conseil shew
By god / I wolde nat telle it but a fewe
¶ Now sire quod she / but o word er I go
My child is deed / with-Inne thise wykes two Soone after / þat ye wente out of this town
¶ His deoth / saugh I by rouelacioun
Seith this frere / at hom in oure dortour
I dar wel seyn / that er þat half an hour
After his deoth / I saugh hym born to blisse
In myn Avisioun / so god me wise
So dide oure Sexteyn / and oure fermorer
That han been trewe freres / fifty yer
They may now / god be thanked of his loone
Maken hir Iubilee / and walke allone
And vp I roos / and al oure Conent eke
With many a teare / trilkylng on my cheke
Withouten noyse / or clateryng of belles
To demn was oure song and no thyng elles
Saw / that to crist I seyde an orison
Thankyng hym / of his rouelacioun for sire and dame / trustoth me right weel
Oure orisons / ben wel moore effectuel
And moore we seen / of cristes secre thynges
Than burell folk al though they weren kynges
We lyue in pouerte / and in abstinence
And burell folk / in richesse and despence
Of mete and drynke / and in hir foul delit
We han this worldis lust al in despit
Lazar and diues / lyneden diuersly
And diuerser gerdoun / hadden they ther-by
Who so wol preyre / he moot faste and be clene
And fatte his soule / and make his body lene

ELLESMEERE 222 (6-T. 389)

Melliss est salmum saccharum quatuor copias

389 SIX-TEXT
184 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

My Spirit<sup>h</sup> hath his fostyrng<sup>e</sup> in the bible
The body is ay / so redy and penyble
To wake / that my stomak<sup>e</sup> is destroyed
I pray yow dame / ye be nat annoyed
Thogh I so frendly / yow my conseil shew
By god / I wolde nat telle it but a fewe
¶ Now sire quod she / but o word / er I go
My child is deed / with-Inne thise wykes two Soone after that ye wente / out of this town ¶ His deeth say I / by rouelacioun
Seith this frere / at hom in oure dortour
I dar wel seyn / that er þat half an hour
After his deeth / I say hym born to blisse
In myn avisioun / so god me wise
So dide oure Sexteyn / and oure fermorer
That han been trewe freres fifty yer
They may now / god be thanked / of his loone
Maken hir Iubilee / and walke allone
And vp I roos / and al oure Conent eke
With many a teere / trilkylng on my cheke
With-outen noyse / or clateryng of belles
To Demn was oure song and no thyng elles
Saw that to crist / I seyde an orison
Thankyng hym / of his rouelacioun for sire and dame / trustoth mo right weel
Oure orisons / ben wel moore effectuel
And moore we seen / of cristes secre thynges
Than burell folk al thogh þat they were kynges
We lyue in pouerte / and in abstinence
And burell folk / in richesse and despence
Of mete and drynke / and in hir foul delit
We han this worldis lust al in despit
Lazar and Diues / lyneden diuersly
And diuerser gerdoun / hadde they ther-by
Who so wol preyre / he moot faste and be clene
And fatte his soule / and make his body lene

HENGWRT 184 (6-T. 386)

389 SIX-TEXT
222 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

Myn spirit hath his fosterynge in þe bible
The bodi is ay so rody & penible
To wake þat myn stomak<sup>e</sup> is destroyed
I prey yow dame so be nat annoyed
Thow I so frendly þow myn conseil<sup>e</sup> schewe
By god I wolde nat telle it but a fewe
Now syre quod sche but on word er I go Myn child is deed with-inne thise woukis two Sone after þat þe wentyn out of þis town
His deth saw I be rouelacioun
Seid þis frere at hom in oure dortour
I dar wel seyn þat er þat half an our Aftyr his deth I saw hym bore to blyssc
In myn anysioun god so me wise
So dede oure sexteyn & oure fermorer
That han ben trewe freres fifty yer
They may now god be thanked of his loone
Makyn here Iubyle & walkyn a-lone
And vp I ros & al oure couent eke
With manye a tere trynkelyng on myn cheke
With-outyn noyse or clateryng of bellis
Te deam was oure song & no thyng ellis
Saw þat to cryst I seyde an oryson Thankyng hym of myn rouelacioun for sere & dame trostith to me wel Oure orisonys ben more effectuel
And more we sen of secre thyngis
Than burell folk al þow þey were kyngis
We lyue in pouert & in abstinence
And burell folk in rychosse & despence
In mete & drynk & in here foule delyt
We han þis wordelis lust al in despit Lazar & dyuers leuedyn dyuers lyf
And dyuers gerdoun hadden þey þerby
Ho so wels preyre / hym muste faste & be clene
And fattyn his soule & make his body lene

CAMBRIDGE 222 (6-T. 388)

[leaf 81, back]

[leaf 226, back]

My spirit is fosterd in þe bible þe body is ay so redy and penyble
 To wake þat my stomak is destroyed
 I þrou þou dante þat 3e be nouȝt aneyod þey I so frendly my counsail to þou schewe
 By god I wolde not telle it but a fewe Now sire quod sche but oo word or I go my child is deed wipinne þise wekes tuo Sippen þat 3e wente out of þis town his dep saugh I By reuelacion Seip þis frere at home in oure dortour
 I dar wel seyn þat/ er þat half an hour after his dep I sawh him born to blisse
 In myn avision so god me wise
 So dede our sextein and oure fermorer
 That han ben trewe freres. fyfty 3eer
 They may now god by þanke of his lone maken her Iubile and walken alone
 And vp I ros and alle oure couent eke
 With many a tere trilling on my cheeke
 Wipouten noyes or clatering of bellis
 To deun was oure song and no þing elles Saue þat to crist I seyde an orison Thankyng him of his reuelacion for sire and dame trestep me riȝt wel Oure orisons ben more spiritual
 And more we se of cristes seere þinges
 Than burel folk [though they were kynges (leaf 176v, leaf 190)]
 We lyue in pouerte & in abstynence
 And borell folk in richesse and wyngnynges<sup>1</sup>
 Of mete and drynk and in here foul delit/
 We han þis worldis lust al in despit
 Lazar and Dines liueden dyuersly
 And dyuers guerdon hadde þey þerby
 Who-so wol preyre he moot faste and be clene
 And fatte his soule and make his cheekes lene

CORPUS (6-T. 389)

My spirit hap [his] fostering in þe bible þe body is ay so rely and so penyble
 To wake þat my stomak is destroyed
 I prei þou dante be 3e nouȝt aneyod þouȝe I frendly to þou my counsail shewe
 By god I nolde not telle it but a fewe
 Nowe sire quod she but oo word er 3e goo
 My child is dede with-in þise wekes tuo Sone after þat 3e wenten out of þis town
 His dep I segh by reuelacion
 Seide þis frere at home in our dortour
 I dar wel seyn er þat half an hour
 Afere his dep I segh hym born to blisse
 In myn avision god me so wis
 So dyd our Sexten and our formerere þat han bene trewe freres. l. 3ere þei may now god byþonke of his lone Maken hir Iubile and walken alone
 And vp I aros and aft our couent eke
 Wip many a tere trilling vpon our cheke
 Wip-oute noys of clatering of bollys
 To deun. was our songs and no þing ellys Saue þat to crist I seide an orison Thankinge hym of my reuelacion for sir and dame trestep me riȝt wel
 Our orisons bene mor effectouk
 And more we seen of cristes seere þingys þan burel folk er þouȝe þei were kynges
 We lyue in pouerte and in abstynence
 And burel folk in richesse and in dispance
 In mete and drink and her foule delie
 We han þis worldly lust al in disperte ¶ Lazarus and Dines .liueden dyuersly
 And dyuers guerdon had þei þerby
 Who so wil pray most fast and be clene
 And fatte þis soule and make his body lene

5 H

PETWORTH (6-T. 389)

My spirito is fosterd in þe bible þe body is aie so redy and penyble
 To wake þat my stomak is destroyed
 .I. prei þowe dante þat 3e be nouht anoyced þouhe .I. so frendly my counsel schewe
 Be god .I. wolde nouht tell it bot a fewe Nowe sire quod sche bot a worde ar .I. goo
 My child is dede wip-in þes wekes tuo
 Sene þat 3e went oute of þis town
 His dep sawe .I. be reuelacione Seipe þis frere att home in oure dortour
 .I. dar wele sein ere þan halus an hour
 After his dep .I. sawhe borne to blisse
 In myne avision so god me wise
 So dede oure sexteins and oure fermourere þat hane bene trewe freres .l. 3ere þei maie nowe god be þanked of his lone Maken her Iubile and walken alone .
 And vp he ros and al oure couent eke
 Wip mony a tere trillinge on my cheke
 Wip-owten noyes or claterings of bellis
 To deun was oure sange and no þinge elles Saue þat to crist .I. saide an orison Thankinge him of his reuelacione
 For sir. and dame trestep me riht welo
 Oure orisons bene mor espirituale
 And more we see of cristes seere þingys
 Than burel folke [þouȝe þei were kynges
 To lyue in pouert and in abstynauce
 And borelle folke] in riches and wyngnynges<sup>1</sup>
 In mete and drinke and in hire foule delite
 We haue þis worldis lust al in desperte
 Lamt and dines liueden diuersly
 And diuers guerdone had þei þere-bye
 Who so wil praiue he mot fast and be clene
 And fatte his soule and make his bodi lene

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 389)

[leaf 122, back]

[1 in dispance -
leaf 193]

[leaf 190]

[Stans MS 1288, leaf 120, back][Stans 1289, 1 dispance]

390 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS. 223

We fare as seith thapostle / clooth and foodes
Suffisen vs / though they be nat ful goode
The clennesses and the fastyngs of vs freres
Maketh / þat crist accepteth oure prayeres ¶ Lo Moyyses / foury dayes / and fourty nyght fasted / er þat the heighe god of myght Spak with hym / in the mount of Synay
With empty wombe / fastyngs many a day
Receyued he the lawe / that was writen
With goddes fyngur / and Elye wel ye witen
In mount Oreb / er he hadde any speche
With hye god / that is oure lyues leche
He fasted longe / and was in contemplanee
¶ Aaron / that hadde the temple in gouernaunce
And oek / that othere prestes euerichon
In-to the temple / whan they sholde gon
To praye for the peple / and do seruyse
They nolden drynken / in no maner wyse
No drynke / which þat myghte hem dronke make
But there / in abstinence praye & wake
Lest that they deyden / tak hede what I seye
But they be sobre / that for the peple praye
Ware that / I seye namore / for it suffiseth
Oure lord Ihesu / as hooly writ deuyseth
Yaf vs ensample / of fastyngs and prayeres
Therefor / we mendynantz / we sely freres
Been wedded / to pouerte and continence
To charite / humblesse & abstinence
To persecucion / for rightwisenesse
To wepyng / Misericorde and clennesses
And therefore may ye se / þat oure prayeres
I speke of vs / we mendynantz we freres
Been to the hye god / more acceptable
Than yours / with youre festes at the table
fro Parady first / if I shal nat lye
Was man out chased / for his glotonye

ELLESMEERE 223 (6-T. 390)

390 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 185

We fare as seith thapostle / clooth and foodes
Suffiseth vs / though they be nat ful goode
The clennesses / and the fastyngs of vs freres
Maketh / that crist accepteth oure prayeres ¶ Lo Moyyses / fourty dayes / and fourty nyght fasted / er that the heighe god of myght Spak with hym / in the mountayne of Synay
With empty wombe / fastyngs many a day
Receyued he the lawe / that was writen
With goddes fyngur / and Elye wel ye witen
In Mount Oreb / er he hadde any speche
With hye god / that is oure lyues leche
He fasted longe / and was in contemplanee
Aaron / that hadde the temple in gouernaunce
And oek / that othere prestes euerichon
In-to the temple / whan they sholde gon
To praye for the peple / and do seruyse
They nolden drynken / in no maner wyse
No drynke / which that myghte hem dronke make
But there in abstinence / praye and wake
Lest that they deyden / tak hede what I seye
But they be sobre / that for the peple praye
Ware that I seye namore / for it suffiseth
Oure lord Ihesu / as holy writ deuyseth
Yaf vs ensample / of fastyng / and prayeres
Therefor / we mendynantz / we sely freres
Been wedded / to pouerte and continence
To charites / humblesse and abstinence
To persecucion / for rightwisenesse
To wepyng / misericorde and clennesses
And ther-for may ye se / that oure prayeres
I speke of vs / we mendynantz / we freres
Be to the hye god / more acceptable
Than yours / with youre festes at the table
fro Parady first / if I shal nat lye
Was man out chased / for his glotonye

HENGWRT 185 (6-T. 390).

390 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS. 223

We faryn as seyth þe apostelle cleth & fode Suffiseth vs / þow þey be nat ful goode
The clennesses & þe fastyngs of vs frerys Makyth þat cryst / acceptyth oure prayerys Lo moyyses forty dayis & forty nyjt fastid er þat þe hyghe god of myjt Spak with hym in þe mount of synay
With emty wombe / fastyngs manye a day
Resseyuede he þe lawe þat was wrytyn
With godis fyngir & elye wolde wretyn
In Mount oreb er he hadde any speche
With lye god þat is oure lyuis leche
He fastede longe & was in contemplanee
Aaron þat hadde þe temple in gouernaunce
And ek þe opere postellis euerichon
In-to þe temple whan þey schulde gon
To praye for þe peple & do seruyse
The[y] nolde drynke in no manere wyse
No drynk whiche þat myste hem drunke make But þey in abstinence praye & wake Lest þat þey dey'dyn tak hede what I seye
But þey ben sobore þat for þe peple praye
Ware þat I seye no more for it suffiseth Oure lord Ihesu as holy wryt deuyseth þaf vs ensample of fastyngs & preyerys
There-for we mendynantis vs frerys [Ben weddid to pouert & contynence. (Dist. MS 1798, leaf 100, back)]
To charite humblesse & pacience.
To persecucion for rightwisnesse.
To wepyng / misericord & clennesses.
And therefore maye ye se that our / prayeres.
I speke of vs we mendynantis we freres.] (Dist. extract slips)
Been to þe hye god more acceptable Than youre is / with youre festis at þe table from parady fyrst þi I schal nat lye
Was man out chased for his glotonye

CAMBRIDGE 223 (6-T. 800)

¶ Victim & restituce / with contrititance & oratio

¶ De ore prophetice & letitiane

(Dist. 27)

(F. 2, verso)

(Dist. 82)

(Dist. 87, back)

We fare as seiþ þe postil cloþ and foodo
 Sufficeþ vs þey3 þey ben not gode
 The clennes and þe fastyng<sup>e</sup> of ous freres makeþ þat crist accepteþ oure prayeres lo moyses .xl. dayes and .xl. nyght<sup>e</sup> fasted or þat þe liþis god of might Spak wiþ him in þe mount of Synay
 With empty wombe fastyng<sup>e</sup> many a day Receyued he þe lawe þat was writen
 Wiþ goddes fyngre and helthe wel 3e writen
 In þe mont or elles er he hadde eny speche
 With haybe god þat is oure lyues leche
 He fasted longe and was in contemplanche
 And aaron þat hadde þe temple of god in gouernaunce
 And eke þat oper prestes euerichon
 In-to þe temple whan þey scholden gon
 To praye for þe people and do seruise
 They nolden drynken in no maner wise/
 No drynk þe which hem mighte drunke makeo
 But enere in abstinence to praye and wake lest þat þey deyede tak<sup>e</sup> heede what I seye
 But þey ben soþre þat for þe people praye
 Ware þat I say no more for it suffiseþ
 Oure lord ihesu / as holy god deuyseþ 3ueþ ous ensample of fastyng<sup>e</sup> and prayeres Therefore we mendenauntz we pouere freres
 Ben wedded to pouert<sup>e</sup> and to continence
 To charite humblesse and also pacience
 To persecucion for rihtwisnesse /
 To wepyng<sup>e</sup> misericorde and clenness
 And þerfore may 3e see þat oure prayeres
 I speke of vs we mendenaunte freres
 Ben to þe hihe god more acceptable
 Than 3oures wiþ 3oure feste at þe table ffor paradys first if I schal nougth iye
 Was man out chased for his glotonye

We faren as seiþ þe apostel . cloþe and foodo Sufficeþ vs þou3e þei be not ful goodo
 The clennes and þe fasting<sup>e</sup> of vs freres Makeþ þat crist accepteþ our preiers Loo Moyses forty daies and forty nyght<sup>e</sup> fast<sup>e</sup> or þe his god of myght Spak wiþ him in þe Mount synay
 Wiþ empty wombe of fasting<sup>e</sup> mony a day Resceyued he þe law þat was writen/wiþ goddys fyngere and hely wil 3e writen
 In mount Oreb er he had eny speche Wiþ his god þat is our saules leche he fast longe and was in contemplanche Aaron þat had þe temple in gouernaunce
 And eke þe oper preestes euerichon
 Into þe temple whan þei shuld goþ
 To prey for þe puple and to do seruise þei nold drinke in no manere wise
 No drink which þat hem dronks myght makeo
 But þer in abstinence prey and wake lest þat þei diden take heede what I seye But þei be soþre þat for þe puple praye war þat I seie no more for it suffiseþ /
 Our lord ihesu as holy writte deuyseþ 3at vs ensample of fastings and priers
 Therefore we mendenauntz we seely freres
 Be wedde to pouerte and continence
 To charite humblesse and abstinence
 To persecucion for rihtwisnesse
 To wepyng<sup>e</sup> misericord and clenness
 And þerfore may 3e see þat our priers
 I speke of vs we mendenauntz we freres Bene to þe hihe god more acceptable þan 3oures with þe fest at þe table ffor paradys first if I shal not lye
 was man outchased for his glotonye

We fare as seiþe þe postle cloþe and foodo Sufficeþ vs þouhe þei be nouht gode
 The clennes and þe fasteing<sup>e</sup> of vs freres Makeþ þat crist accepteþ oure priers
 Lo Moyses .xl. daies and .xl. nyht Fasted or þat lihs god of miht
 Spak wiþ him in þe mounto of Synay
 Wiþ empty wombe fastinge mony a day
 Receyued he þe laue þat was wreten
 Wiþ goddes finger and helthe wel 3e weten
 In þe mount or er he any speche
 Wiþe þe lihs god þat is oure lines leche
 He fasted longe and was in contemplanche
 And aaron þat had þe temple of god in Gouernaunce
 And eke þat oþre priestes euery-chose
 In-to þe temple whan þei schold gone
 To prier for þe peple and do seruice þei wold nouȝ dringen in no manere wise
 No drinke which þat miht hem drunke make Bot ener in abstinence to preie and wak lest þat þei deide take hode what .I. seiþe Bot þei be soþre þat for þe peple preie
 Ware þat I seiþe no more for it suiþit
 Oure lord ihesu<sup>s</sup> as holy god dousit 3ueþ vs ensample of fastings and of priers þerfor we amende fautes we pouere freres Bene wedded to pouert<sup>e</sup> and to contenance
 To charite humblesse and also pacience
 Persecucione for rihtwisnesse
 To wepeinge misericord and clenness
 And þerfor may 3e so þat our preyers
 .I. speke of vs me vendinant freres
 Ben to þe hihe god more acceptable
 þan 3oures wiþ 3oure fest att þe table
 For paradise first if .I. schal nouht iye
 Was man out chased for his glotonye

And chaast was man / in Paradys coteyn
 ¶ But herke Thomas / what I shal seyn
 I ne haue no text of it / as I suppose
 But I shal fynde it / in a maner glose . . . 1920
 That specially / oure swete lord Ihesus
 Spak this by freeres / whan he seyde thus ¶ Blessed be they / that pouere in spirit been
 And so forth / al the gospel / may yo seen . . . 1924
 Wher it be likker / oure professiours
 Or-hirs / that swymmen in possessioun fly on hire pompe / and hire gletouys
 And for hir lewednesse / I hem diffye . . . 1928
 ¶ Me thynketh / they been lyk Iouynyan, flat as a whale / and walkyng as a swan
 Al vinolent as Botel in the spence . . .
 Hir preyere / is of ful greet reuerence . . . 1932
 Whan they for soules / seye the psalm of Dauid /
 Lo / but they seye / cor memm erotauiit /
 Who folweth / cristes gospel / and his foere ?
 But we þat humble been / and chaast and poore . . . 1936
 Werkeris of goddes word / not Auditors
 Therfore / right as an hauk / vp at a soure
 Vp springeth in-to their / right so prayeres
 Of charitable / and chaste bisy freeres . . . 1940 Maken hir soure / to goddes eres two Thomas Thomas / so moote I ryde or go
 And by that lord / þat clepid is seint Iue
 Nere thou oure brother / sholdestow nat thryue . . . 1944
 In our Chapitre / praye we day and nyght
 To crist / þat he thee sende / heale and nyght
 Thy body / for to welden hastily
 ¶ God woot quod he / no thyng ther-of feele I . . . 1948
 As help me crist as in a fewe yeris
 I han spent / vp-on diuerso manere freeres ful many a pound / yet fare I neuer the let Certeyn my god / I haue almost biset . . . 1952

And chaast was man / in Paradys coteyn
 ¶ But herke Thomas / what I shal seyn
 I ne haue no text of it / as I suppose
 But I shal fynde it / in a maner glose . . . 1920
 That specially / oure swete lord Ihesus
 Spak this by freeres / whan he seyde thus Blessed be they / that pouere in Spirit been
 And so forth / in the gospel / may ye seen Wher it be likker / oure passaign Or hire / that swymmen in-pessessioun fly on hir pompe / and hir gletouys
 And for hir lewednesse / I hem diffye . . . 1928
 Me thynketh / they been lyk Iouynyan
 flat as a whale / and walkyng as a swan
 Al vinolent as Botel in the Spence
 Hir preyere is / of ful greet reuerence . . . 1932
 Whan they for soules / seye the psalm of Dauid
 Lo but they seye / cor memm erotauiit
 Who folweth cristes gospel / and his foere
 But we that humble been / and chaast / and poore . . . 1936
 Werkeris of goddes word / nat Auditors
 Ther fore / right as an hauk / vp at a soure
 Vp spryngeth in-to theyr / right so prayeres
 Of charitable / and chaste bisy frees . . . 1940 Makon hir soure / to goddes erys two
 Thomas / Thomas / so mote I ryde or go
 And by that lord / that clepid is seint Iue
 Nere thou oure brother / sholdestow nat thryue . . . 1944
 [In] oure chapitre / praye we day and nyght
 To crist that he thee sende / heale and nyght
 Thy body / for to welden hastily
 ¶ God woot quod he / no thyng ther-of feole I . . . 1948
 As help me crist as I in fewe yeris Hane spendid / vp-on diuerso manere freeres ful many a pound / yet fare I neuere the het Certeyn / my god haue I almost biset . . . 1952

And chaast was man in paradys werteyn
 But herke now thomas what I schal seyn
 I ne haue of it no text as I suppose
 But I schal fynde it in a-~~no~~ glose . . . 1920
 That specially,oure swete lord Ihesus
 Spak þis be freeris whan he seyde þus Blyssed ben þey þat poure in spirit been
 And so forth al þe gospel may þe sen . . . 1924
 Wherþe it be lykere oure professioun Or hire þat swymen in possessioun fly on hire pompe & on here gletouys
 And for here lewednesse I hem diffye . . . 1928
 Me thynkyth þey been lyk to Iouynyan flat as a whal & walkyng as a swan Al vinolent as botel in þe spence
 Hir preyere is of ful greet reuerence . . . 1932
 Whan þey for soulis seyn þe salme of dauidh
 Lo þuf þey seye / cor memm erotauiyth
 He folwyth cristis gospel & his foere
 But we þat vmlbe ben & chaste & poore . . . 1936
 Werkeris of godis ward nat audytourys
 Therfore ry3t as an hauk ry3t at a sourys
 Vp spryngith in þe eyre ry3t so preyerys
 Of charytable & chaste besy freys . . . 1940
 Makyn here soure to goddis erys two
 Thomas Thomas so mote I ryde or go
 And by þe lord þat clepid is seynt Iuo Nere þou oure broþer schudist þou not thryue . . . 1944
 In oure chapitre preye we day & ny3t
 To cryst þat he þe sende hele & my3t Thyñ body for to wendyn hastily
 God wot þerof nothyng þerof fele I . . . 1948
 So helpe me crist as in a fewe 3erys
 I haue spendit vp-on dyuerso maner freys ful manye a pound 3it fare I neuero þe let Certeyn myn god haue I almost be-~~set~~ . . . 1952

And chas<sup>t</sup> was man in paradys certayn
 But herken þere what I schal þu sayn
 I haue no text of þat as I suppose
 But I schal fynde it in a maner close
 That specially our swete lord Ihesus Spak þus by w<sup>er</sup>ð when he seyde þus Blessed ben þe þat þou in spirit/ ben
 And so forþ al þe gospel may so seen
 What it þe like oure profession Or hou þat swymmen in possession fly on here pompe and on here glotonye
 And for here lewednesse I hem diffye.
 Me þenkeþ þe ben like Iouynan
 fatte as a whale and walkinge as a swan
 As vynolent as betel in þe spence here prayer is ful of grev<sup>e</sup> reuerence
 When þe for soules sein þe psalme of davið
 Lo buff þe sein cor meum exultauit
 Who folowep cristes gospel and his leze
 But we þat humble be and chaste and pore Workes of goddis word and eke auditoures / þerfore right as an hawke rype at a sours vp springep into þe ayre right so prayeres
 OF charitable and chaste besy freres maken here sours to goddes eeren and who Thomas þerfor so mote I ride or go
 And by þat god þat cleped is seint yue Nere þou oure broþer schuldest þou not þryue
 In oure chapitre praye we day and nyght
 To crist þat he sende þe hele and might
 Thy body for to welden hastily
 God wot quod he no þing þer-of wot I
 As halpe me crist as in fewe yerres Hauē I spended vpon diuers maner freres sit many a pound þit fare I neuer þe betw Certain my good haue I almost biset

And chas<sup>t</sup> man was in paradys certeyn
 Dat herken nowe Thomas wha[st] I wil seyn
 I haue no tixte þerof as I suppose
 But I schal fynde it in a maner close
 That specially our lord swote Ihesus Spake þus by freres when he seyde þus Blessed be þei þat þou in sprite he
 And so forþ al þe gospel may so se
 What it þe like our profession
 Or her þat swymmen in possession flye on her pompe and on her gloteny
 And on her leydenesse I ham defye
 Me þenkeþ þei ben like Louynyan
 fatte as a whale and walkinge as a swan
 Al vynolent as þe betel in þe spence
 Her preier is of ful grete reuerence
 When þei for soules seyn þe psalme of davið
 Lo þei þei seyn Cor meum exultauit
 Who folowep cristes gospel and his leze
 But we þat humble be and chaste and pore Worches of goddis word [not] auditoures þerfore riyt as an hawke vp at a sours Vp springep into þe aire. so preiers
 And charitable chastie of bys freres Makinge her sours to goddes eeren too
 Thomas riyt so as mote I ride or goo
 And by þat lord þat cleped was seynt yue
 Ner þowe our broþer þou schuldest not thryue
 In oure Chapitre prey we day and nyght
 To crist þat he þe sende hele and myght
 Thi body forto welden hastily
 God wote quop he no þing þerof fde I
 As halpe crist as I haue in fewe yerres Spended vpon many dyuers freres
 Wel mony a pounde þit fare I ne þe bette Certeyn my good is almost be-sette

And chas<sup>t</sup> was man in paradys certeyn Dot herken þere what .I. schal seine
 .I. haue no text of þat as .I. suppose
 But .I. schal fynde it in a maner glasse þat speciall our swotg lordē ihesus Spak þus be verse when he said þus Blised be þei þat þou in spirit buen .
 And so forþ al þe gospel maie so seen
 Where it be like oure professiōne
 Or her þat ayommen in possessiōne
 Flye on here pompe and on her glotonye
 And for here lewednes .I. hem defye
 Me þenkeþ þei ben like Louynyan
 Fatē as a whal and walkinge and as a swan,
 As vynolent as a botel in þe spence
 Her preier is ful of grete reuerence
 When þei for soules seint þe psalme of Davit Lo þuf þei sein Cor meum exultauit
 Who folowep cristes gospel and his leze
 Dot we þat humble be chaste and pouer
 Workes of goddis wordē and eke auditoures
 There-fore riyt as an hawke rype at a sours
 Vp springep in-to þe eyre riyt preier
 Of charitable and chaste besy freres
 Makene here sours to goddes eeren and hoo
 Thomas þer-for so must .I. ride or goo
 And be þat god þat cleped is seint Iue Nore þou oure broþer scholdest þou not þryue
 In oure chapitre prei we daie and nyht
 To crist þat he sende þe hele and myht
 Thi body for to welden hastily
 God wote quod he no þing þer-of wote .I.
 As halpe me cristē as in fewe yerres
 Hauē .I. spended of diuers maner freres
 Full mony a pounde þit fare .I. neuer þe bette Certain my good almost haue .I. be-gette

392 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS. 225

farwel my gold / for it is al ago
 ¶ The frere answerde / o Thomas dostow so?
 What nedeth yow / diuersa freres seche
 What nedeth hym / þat hath a parfit leche
 To sechen / othere leches in the toun?
 Yourc inconstance / is youre confusioun
 Holde ye thanne me / or elles oure Couent
 To praye for yow / been insufficient?
 Thomas that Iape / nys nat worth a myte
 Yourc maladye / is for we han to lyte
 A yif that Couent / half a quarter otes
 A yif that Couent / .xxiiij. grotas
 A yif that frere a peny / and lat hym go
 Nay nay Thomas / it may no thyng be so
 What is a forthyng worth / parted in twelue
 Lo ech thyng / that is oned / in it selue
 Is moore strong / than when it is to-scatered
 Thomas / of me / thou shalt nat been yflatered
 Thou woldest han oure labour / al for nougt
 The hye god / that al this world hath wrought
 Seith that the workman / worthy is his hire
 Thomas / nougt / of youre tresor I desire
 As for my self / but that al oure Couent
 To praye for yow / is ay so diligent
 And for to buyden / cristes owene chirche
 Thomas / if ye wol lernen for to wirche
 Of buyldyng vp of chirches / may ye fynde
 If it be good / in Thomas lyf of Inde
 Ye iye heere / ful of Anger and Ire
 With which / the deuel set youre herte aflye
 And chiden heere / the sely Innocent
 Yourc wyf / that is so meke and pacient
 And therefore Thomas / trowe me if thes leste
 Ne strye nat with thy wyf / as for thy beste
 And bere this word asey / now by thy feith Touchyngs this thyng / to what the wise seith

ELLESMEERE 225 (6-T. 392)

392 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 187

farwel my gold / for it is al ago
 ¶ The frere answerde / o Thomas dostow so
 What nedeth yow / diuersa freres seche
 What nedeth hym / that hath a parfit leche
 To sechen / othere leches in the toun
 Yourc inconstance / is youre confusioun
 Holde ye thanne me / or ellis oure Couent
 To praye for yow / been insufficient
 Thomas / that Iape / nys nat worth a myte
 Yourc maladye / is for we han to lyte
 A yif that Couent / half a quarter otes
 A yif that Couent / .xxiiij. grotas
 A yif that frere a peny / and lat hym go
 Nay nay Thomas / it may no thyng be so
 What is a forthyng worth / parted in twelue
 Lo / ech thyng / that is oned in hym selue
 Is moore strong / than when it is to-scatered
 Thomas / of me / thou shalt nat been yflatered
 Thou woldest han oure labour / al for nougt
 The hye god / that al this world hath wrought
 Seith / that the workman / worthy is his hire
 Thomas / nougt / of youre tresor I desire
 As for my self / but that al oure Couent
 To praye for yow / is ay so diligent
 And for to buyden / cristes owene chirche
 Thomas / if ye wol lernen for to wirche
 Of buyldyng vp of chirches / may ye fynde
 If it be good / in Thomas lyf of Inde
 Ye iye heere ful of Anger and of Ire
 With which / the deuel set youre herte aflye
 And chiden heere / the sely Innocent
 Yourc wyf / that is so meke and pacient
 And therefore Thomas / trowe me if thes leste
 Ne strye nat with thy wyf / as for thy beste
 And bere this word asey / now by thy feith
 Touchyngs ewich thyng / lo what the wise man seith

HENGWRT 187 (6-T. 392)

392 SIX-TEXT

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS. 225

farwel myn god for it is al a go
 The frere answerde O thomas dost þou so What nedeth þow dyuersa freres seche
 What nedeth hym þat hath a parfit lecho
 To sechyn oþere lechis in þo toun þoure inconstaunce is þoure confusioun Holdo þo þanne me or ellis oure couent
 To preyre for þow ben ensufficient Thomas þat Iape nys nat worth a myte þoure malady is for þo han to lyte
 A þif þat couent half a quarter otyas
 And þif þat couent foure & twenty grotis
 And þif þat frere a peny & lat hym go Nay nay Thomas It<sup>1</sup> may no thyng be so What is a forthy[n]g worth partid on twelue
 Lo eche thyng þat is onyd in hym selue
 Is more strong þan when it is to-skateryd
 Thomas of me þou schalt not<sup>2</sup> ben I-flateryd Thou woldst han oure labour al for noust
 The hig god þat al þis world hath wrought
 Seyth þat þo werke man worthy is his hire
 Thomas nougt of þoure tresore I desyre
 As for myn self but þat al oure couent
 To preyre for þow is ay so diligent
 And for to bilydn cristis owene chirche
 Thomas þif þe wele lerne fur to wirche
 Of bilydng vp of chereche may þe fynde þif it be good in Thomas lyf of ynde þe iye heere ful of anguysch & of yre
 With wych þe deuy! set þoure herte a-flyre
 And chidyn here þis sely innocent þoure wif þat is so mecke & pacient
 And þerfore Thomas trowe me if þ<sup>3</sup> lest Ne strye nat with þyn wif as for þo best
 And bere þis word a-way now be þyn feyth Touchyngs ewich thyng lo as þe wyse sayth

CAMBRIDGE 225 (6-T. 392)

flar wel my golds for it is al a-go
 The frere answerde o Thomas why dost' þou so
 What needeþ þou diuere freres to seehe
 What needeþ hym þat haþ a parfit lecho
 To sechen oþer leches in þe toun þour inconstance & þour confusioun holde 3e þen me or elles oure couant
 To preyre for þou ben insufficient
 Thomas þat Iape is not worþ a myte þoure maladye is for 3e han 3iuen vs so lite
 A 3if þat couent half a quarter otyr
 A 3iue herē one or tuo grotes
 A 3iue þe frere a peny and let' him go
 Nay nay Thomas it' may no þing' be so
 What is a ferþing' worþ parted in twelue lo eche þing' þat is omed by himselfe
 Is more straunge þen when it' is skatered Thomas of me þou schalt' nat be flatered þou woldest' oure labour haue for nougt'
 The hihe god þat' al þis world' hap wrought'
 Seip þat' þe werkman is worþi his hire
 Thomas nougt' of þour tresore I desire
 As for my self' but' þat' alle oure couent
 To pray for 3ou is ay so diligent
 And for to bulden cristes oughe chirche
 Thomas if 3e wil lerne for to wirche
 Of buldyng' vp of chirches may 3e fynde
 If it' be good in Thomas lif' of Inde 3e ligge heer ful of anger and of Ire
 With þe which þe deuyll sette þoure ers a fyre
 And chydren heere þis sely Innocent' þour wif' þat' is so mecke and pacient'
 And þerfore Thomas trowe me if 3ou list'
 Ne stryue not' wif' þy wif' al for þe besto
 And here þis word' awaye now by þy feith Touchinge such þing' lo what' þe wise man seiþ flare welle my good for it is almost' agoog þe frere answerde o Thomas dost' þou so What' needeþ þou diuere freres seche

 What' needeþ hym þat' haþ a parfit' lecho
 To sechen oþer leches in þe toun
 þour inconstance is þour confusioun
 Holde 3e me þan or elles our couent'
 To prey for þou ben insufficient'
 Thomas þat' Iape is not' worþ a myte þoure Maladie is for we haue to lite
 A 3oue þat' Couent' half a quarter otyr
 A 3oue þat' Couent' four and twent'<sup>ty</sup> grotyr (1 MS 25-110<sup>ty</sup>)
 A 3oue þat' frere a peny and lat' hym goo
 Nay nay thomas it' may no þing' be so
 What' is a ferþing' parted in twelue
 Lo eche þing' is counted in hym selue
 Is more stronge when it' is so skatered.
 Thomas of me þou schalt' not' be flatered / þou woldest' haue our labour al for nougt' þe hihe god þat' al þis world' hap wrought'
 Seip þat' þe werkman is worþi his hire
 Thomas nougt' for þour tresour I desire
 As for my self' but' þat' al our Couent
 To prey for 3ou is al our diligent'
 And forto beelden cristes oure chirche
 Thomas if 3e wil lerne forto wirche
 Of bealdyng' vp of churches may 3e fynde
 If it' be good in Thomas lif' of ynde 3e ligge here ful of anger and of yre wif' which þe douel sette þour' hent' on fire And chiden here þis holy Innocent'
 þour wif' þat' is so meke and pacient'
 And þerfore trow me 3if 3ou list'
 Ne stryue not' wif' þi wif' as for þe best'
 And here þis word' awaye now by þi feith
 Touchinge such þing' lo what' þe wise man seiþ

Fare welle my golds for it is al a-goog þe frere answerde o thomas whi dostowre soo
 What' needeþ þou diuere freres to seehe
 What' needeþ hem þat' haþ a parfit' lecho
 To seche oþer leches in þe toun
 þour inconstance is þour confusioun
 Holde 3e me þan or elles oure couente
 To praie for þoue ben insufficiente Thomas þat' Iape is nouht' worþe a myte þoure maladie is for 3e haue genes vs so lite
 A 3if þat' couent half a quarter otyr
 A 3if. on or tuo grotes
 A 3if þe frere a peny and late him goo
 Nay nay Thomas it' male no þing' be so
 What' is a ferþing' worthe parted in twelue
 Lo iche a þing' þat' is houbed be him selue
 Is more strange þan when it' is sentered
 Thomas of me þou schalt' nouht' bene flatered
 The woldest' oure labour haue for nouht' þe hihe god þat' al þis walde hap wrought'
 Seip þat' þe werkman is worþi his hire
 Thomas nouht' of þour tresoure I desire
 As for my self' bott for al oure couent
 To praie for þoue is aye so diligent
 And for to biliden cristes ouen chirche
 Thomas if 3e wil leren for to wirche
 Of hildseyng' vp of cherches mai 3e fynde
 If it' be goode In thomas lif' of hinde
 3e ligge here ful of Anger and of yre
 Wif' which þe douel sette þourre ers of fire An chiden hire þis sely innocent
 þour wif' þat' is so meke and pacient
 And þer-fore Thomas trowe me if 3oue list'
 Ne stryue wif' þi wif' al for þe best'
 And here þis worde awaie bo þi falþe Touchinge suche þing' lo what' þe wise man seiþ

¶ With-Inne thyn hous ne be thou no leon<sup>¶ Neel esse cleat flo in domo tua / ceterose domestica / 1109 1110 primum subiecto
line</sup>
To thy subgitz / do noon oppressioun
Ne make thyne aqweyntances / nat for to flece
And Thomas / yet eft-soones I charge thee
Be war from hire / þat in thy bosom slepeth
Be war / fro the serpent / that so alily crepeth
Vnder the gras / and styngeth subtilly
Be war my sone / and herkne patiently
That twenty thousand men / han lost hir lyues
for stryuyng with hir lemman and hir wyues
Now sith ye han / so hooly make a wyf
What nedeth yow Thomas / to maken stryft
Ther nys wyvis / no serpent so cruel
What man tret on his tayl / no half so fel
As woman is / when she hath caught an Iro
Vengeance is thanne / al that they desire
Ire is a synne / oon of the grete of seene
Abhomynable / vn-to the god of heuene
And to hym self / it is destruccioun
This euery lewed vikar / or persoun
Kan seye / how Ire engendreth homicide
Ire is in sooth / executour of pryde
I koude of Ire seye / so muche sorwe
My tale / sholde laste / til tomorwe
And therfore / praye I god / bothe day and nyght
An Irous man / god sende hym litel myght
It is greet harm / and eek greet pitee
To sette an Irous man / in heigh degree ¶ de quocumq; peccato satis licentia

¶ As seith Senek that duryng his estaat
Vp-on a day / out ryden knyghtes fro
And as fortune / wolde that it were so
That oon of hem cam hoom / that oother noight
Anon the knyght / before the Iuge is brougt
That seyde thus / thou hast thy felawe slayn
for which / I deme thee to the deeth certayn

¶ With-Inne thyn hous / ne be thou ne leon
To thy subgitz / do noon oppressioun
Ne make thyne aqweyntances / nat for to flece
And Thomas / yet eft-soones I charge thee
Be war from hire / that in thy bosom slepeth
War fro the serpent / that so sleightly crepeth
Vnder the gras / and styngeth subtilly
Be war my sone / and herkne patiently
That twenty thousand men / han lost hir lyues
for stryuyng with hir lemman and hir wyues
Now sith ye han / so hooly make a wyf
What nedeth yow Thomas / to maken stryft
Ther nys wyvis / no serpent so cruel
Whan man tret on his tayl / no half so fel
As woman is / whan she hath caught an Iro
Vengeance is thanne / al that they desire
Ire is a synne / oon of the grete of seene
Abhomynable / vn-to the god of heuene
And to hym self / it is destruccioun
This euery lewed vikar / or persoun
Kan seye / how Ire engendreth homicide
Ire is in sooth / executour of pryde
I koude of Ire / seye so muche sorwe
My tale / sholde laste til to morwe
And ther-fore praye I god / bothe day and nyght
An Irous man / god sende hym litel myght
It is greet harm / and certes greet pitee
To sette an Irous man in heigh degree ¶ Whylom / ther was an Irous potestat
As seith Senek / that duryng his estaat
Vp-on a day / out ryden knyghtes two
And as fortune wolde / that it were so
That oon of hem-cam hoom / that oother noight
Anon the knyght / before the Iuge is brougt
That seyde thus / thou hast thy felawe slayn
for which / I deme thee to the deeth certayn

With-inne þyn hous ne be þou no lyoun
To þynne subiecta do noon oppressioun
Ne make þynne aqweyntauncis nat to fle
And Thomas þit eft sonys I charge þe
By-war from hire þat in þyn bosom slepith
By-war fro serpent þat so slyly crouwith
Vndyr þe gras & styngith subtyly
By-war myn sone & herke patiently That twenty thousand men han lost here lyuus for struyng with here lemanys & here wyuius
Now sith 3e han so holly make a wyf
What nedyth 3ow Thomas to makyn stryf
There is I wis no serpent so crewel
Whas man tret on his tayl ne half so fel
As woman is whan scho hath caugt an yro
Venisaunce is þanne al þat þey desyre
Ire is a synne on of þe gretteste of synnyng Abomynable vnto þe god of heuene
And to hym self it is destruccioun
This euery lewede vikar or persoun Kan seen how yre engenderyth homynnyde
Ire is in soth executour of pryde
I coude of Ire sey so meche sorwe
Myn tale schalde laste tyl to morwe
And perfore praye I god boþe day & nygt
An yrous man god sende hym lityl mygt
It is greet harm & ek greet pite
To sette an yrous man in heigh degre ¶ Whylom þere was an Irous potestat
As seyth Senek þat duryng his estaat
Vp-on a day out rydyn knyghtis too
And as fortune wolde þat it were so
That on of hem cam hom þat oper nougt
A-non þe knygt by-fore þe Iuge is brougt That seyde þus þou hast þyn felawe slayn for which I deme þe to þe deeth certayn

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 393
CORPUS MS.

Wijane þin hous ne be þou no leound
To þy subiectis do non oppressioun
Ne make þin acquaintance not for to fle
And Thomas' þiſ etſi sones say I þe
Be war for hire þat in þy bosom slepeþ
Be war of þe serpent þat so slyly crepeþ vnder þe graspe þat stynggeþ subtilly
Be war my sone and herkeno patiently
That xx<sup>ii</sup> þousand men han lost here lyues / ffor þat þei haſt ben spitous to here wyues
Now siþ þe han so holy and so meeke a wiþf
What needeþ þou Thomas to make strif þer is y-vrys no serpent so cruel Whan men-trede on his tail ne half so fei
As womman is when sche haþ caught an Ire
Vengeance is þanne al þat þei desyre
Ire is a synne on of þe grete of seuce
Abhominable vnto þe god of heuene
And to himself it is destruction þis euery lewed vicar or parson
Can say þow Ire engendreþ homicide Ire in soþ is executor of pryde
I coupe of Ire seye so mochel sorwe
My tale schold laste til to morwe
And þerfore I praye god boþe day and night An Irous man sende him litel might
It is greþ harm and certes greþ pite
To sette an Irous man in heik degre ¶ Whilom þer was an Irous potestate
As seiþ Senec duryng his ostat
Vpon a day oute riden knyghtes tuo
And as fortune wold it were so
That oon of hem cam home þat oþer nouht
Anon þe knyght bifore þe luge is brouht
And seyde þus þou hast þy felaw slayn ffor which I deme þe to deþ certain

CORPUS (8-T. 393)

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 393
Petworth MS.

Wij-Inne þi hous ne be þou no lyou
To þi sogettes do þou noon oppressioun
Ne make þou nat þin aqeyntance forto fle
And þiſ Thomas eþsones charge I þe Be ware of yre þat in þi bosom slepeþ ware þe for the serpent þat so scilly crepeþ vnder þe gras and stynggeþ sotilly
Be war my sone and harken patiently
That xx<sup>ii</sup> þousand men han lost her lyues ffor stryving with her lemmanes and her wyues
Now siþ þe han so holy meke a wif
What needeþ þou thomas to make strif
Ther nys iwis no serpent so cruel
Whan men treden on his tale ne half so fei
As a womman is whan she haþ kaupþ an Ire
Vengeance is þan al þat þei desire
Ire is an synne oon þe grete of seuce
Abhominable vnto god in heuene
And to hym self it is destruction
Thus euery lewed vicar or parson
Can seiþ how Ire engendres homicide Ire is in soþ executor of pride
I coupe of Ire seiþ so mochel sorowe
My tale shuld last vnto to-morowe
And þerfore I prei god boþ day and nyght An yrous man god sent hym litel might
It is grete harme and eke greþ pite
To sette an yrous man in his degre ¶ Whilom þer was an yrous potestate
As seiþ senek þat duryng his estate
Vpon a day oute riden knyghtes tuo
And as fortune wold it shuld be so þat oon of hem come home þat oþer nouht Anon þe knyght byfore þe luge was brouht þat seiþ þus þou hast þi felawe slaya ffor which I deme þe to deþ certayn

SI PETWORTH (8-T. 393)

GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. SIX-TEXT 393
Lansdowne MS.

Wij-inne þin hous no be þou no lyone
To þi subgettes done none oppressioun
Ne maake þine acquaintance not for to fle
And Thomas þiſ oft-sonnes saie .I. þe
Be war for hire þat in þi bosom slepeþ
Be war of þe serpent þat so slyly crepeþ
Vnder þe gras þat stingeþ sotily Be war my sone and herken patiently þat .xx.M. men hauo lost her liues
For þat þei haue bu spitous to her wiues
Now seiþ þe þus haue so holy and so meeke a wif
What needeþ þow thomas to maken strif
Ther is .I.-wis no serpent so cruel
Whan men trede on his tail nouert half so fei
As womman is whan sche haþ caukt an yre
Vengeance is þan al þat þei desire
Ire is a synne on of þe grettest of seuce Abhominable vnto god of heuen/
And to him self it is a destruction
This euery lewed vicarie or parson
Can sey howe ire engendereþ homicide Ire in soþe is executor of pride
.I. coupe of ire seiþ so meche sorwe
Mi tale schold last to tomorwe
And þer-for .I. preiþ god daie and nyht An yrus man send him litel might
It is grete harme and certes grete pryte
To sett an Irus man in hihe degre Whilom þer was an Irouus potestate
As seiþ Senec during his astate
Vpon a daie oute riden knyhtes tuo
And as fortune wold it were so
That one of hem cam home þat oþer nouht
Anone þe knyht to-for þe luge is brouht
And seiþ þus þou hast þi felaw slaine
For whiche .I. deme þe to deþ certaine

LANSDOWNE (8-T. 393)

394 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS. 227

And to another knyght<sup>h</sup> comanded he Go lede hym to the deeth / I charge thee
And happed / as they wente by the weye
Toward the place / ther he sholde deye 2028
The knyght cam / which men wenden had be deed
Thanne thoughten they / it was the beste reed
To lede hem bothe / to the Tuge agayn
They seiden lord / the knyght ne hath nat slayn 2032
His felawe / heere he standeth hool alyue
Ye shul be deed quod he / so moot I thryue
That is to seyn / bothe oon / and two / and thre
And to the firste knyght<sup>h</sup> right thus spak he 2036
I dampned thee / thou most algate be deed
And thou also / most nedes lese thyñ heed
for thou art cause / why thy felawe deyth
And to the thridde knyght<sup>h</sup> right thus he seith 2040
Thou hast nat doon / that I comanded thee
And thus / he hided doon sleen hem alle thre
Irous Cambyses / was eek dronkelewe
And ay delited hym / to been a shrewe 2044
And so bifal / a lord of his meyne
That loued vertuous moralitee Seide on a day / bitwene hem two right thus
¶ A lord is lost / if he be vicious 2048
And dronkenesse / is eek / a foul record
Of any man / and namely in a lord
Ther is ful many an eye and many an ere Awaityng on a lord / he noot nat where 2052
for goddes loue / drynk moore attemptrely
Wyn maketh man / to lesen wretchedly
His mynde / and his lymes euerychon
¶ The reuers shalwe so / quod he anon 2056
And preue it by thyn owene experyence
That wyn / ne dooth to folk / no swich offence
Ther is no wyn / birueth me my myght<sup>h</sup> (text 20)
Of hand ne foot / ne of myne eyen sight<sup>h</sup> 2060

ELLESMEER 227 (6-T. 394)

394 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 189

[¶An]d to another knyght<sup>h</sup> comanded he (text 20) (1) Hengwrt Go leed hym to the deeth / I charge thee
And happed / as they wente by the weye
Toward the place / ther he sholde deye 2028
The knyght cam / which men wenden had be deed
Thanne thoughten they / it were the beste reed
To lede hem bothe / to the Tuge agayn
They seyden / lord / the knyght ne hath nat slayn 2032
His felawe / heere he stant-hool alyue
¶ Ye shul be deed quod he / so moot I thryue
This is to seyn / bothe oon and two and thre
And to the firste knyght<sup>h</sup> right thus spak / he 2036
¶ I dampned thee / thou most algate be deed
And thou also / most nedes lese thyñ heed
for thou art cause / why thy felawe deyth
And to the thridde knyght<sup>h</sup> right thus he seith 2040
Thow hast nat doon / that I comanded thee
And thus he hided / do sleen hem alle thre
¶ Irous Cambyses / was eek dronkelewe
And ay delited hym / to been a shrewe 2044
And so bifal / a lord of his meyne
That louede / vertuous moralitee
Seide on a day / bitwix hem two right thus 2047
¶ A lord is lost if he be vicious<sup>h</sup> (text 20) (to a later hand)
And dronkenesse / is eek a foul record
Of any man / and namely in a lord
Ther is ful many an eigne / and many an ere Awaityng on a lord / he noot nat where 2052
for goddes loue / drynk moore attemptrely
Wyn maketh man / to lesen wretchedly
His mynde / and eek his lymes euerychon
¶ The reuers shalwe se / quod he anon 2056
And preue it by thyn owene experyence
That wyn ne dooth to folk / no swich offence
Ther is no wyn / birueth me my myght<sup>h</sup> (text 20)
Of hond ne foot / ne of myne eyen sight<sup>h</sup> 2060

HENGWRT 189 (6-T. 394)

394 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS. 227

And to a-noþer knygt comandede he Go lede hym to þe deeth I charge þe
And happid as þey wente by þe weye Toward þe place þere he schulde deye 2028
The knygt cam which men wende he hadde be deþ Thanne thougt þey it was þe beste red
To leede hem boþe to þe Tuge a-gyyn
They seyde lord þe knyght ne hath not slayn 2032 His felawe here he stonlyth hol a-loune þe schul ben ded a-noun so mote I gyne
That is to seyne boþe on & toþ & thre
And to þe ferste knygt þus spak he 2036
I dampned þe þu muste algatis be ded
And þou also muste nedys lese þyn heed for þou art cause whi thyñ felawe deyth
And to þe thredde knygt ryst þu he seyeli 2040
Thow hast not don þat I comaundede þe
And þus he dede hem slean alle thre
Irous Cambyses was eek dronkelewe
And ay delitede hym to ben a schrowe 2044
And so be-fel a lord of his meyne
That louede vertuous moralite
Seide on a day be-twixe hem ryst þus
A lord is lost if he be vicious 2048
And dronkenes is ek a foul record
In any man & namely in a lord
Ther is ful manye an eye & manye an ere A-waytyng on a lord & lie not where 2052 for godys loue drynk moore a-temporely Wyn makyth man to lesyn wretchedly
His mynde & lyses lynys euerychon
The reuers schal þou sen & þat a-non 2056
And preue it by thyn owene experyence (text 20)
That wyn ne doth to folk no swich offence
There is no wyn be-reuyth me myn mygt
Of hond ne foot ne of myn eye sight 2060

CAMBRIDGE 227 (6-T. 394)

And to anoþer knight comaunded he Go lede him to þe deþ I charge þe
And happed as þei wente by þe weye Toward þe place þer as he schalde deye
The knight eþm which þei wende hadde be deed
Thenne þouȝten*þei it were þe beste rood To lede hem hoþe to þe luge aȝein þei seyden lord þe knight ne haþ not slayn his felawe here he stant on lyue þe schulle be dēd quod he so mot I þriue þis is to say hoþe con and tuo and þre
And to þe firste knight riȝt þus spak he I dampned þe þou most algate be deed
And þou also most nedes lese þin heed for þou art cause why þi felaw deþ
And to þe þridde knight riȝt þus he seiþ
Thou hast not don þat I comaunded þe
And þus he dede do slec hem alle þre Irouis Cambises was eek drunkenlewe
And ay delited him to ben a schrewe
And so byfelle a lord of his meigne
That loued vertuous moralite
Seide on a day vnto himself riȝt þus
A lord is lost if he be vicious
And drunkenesse is eek a foul record
Of any man and namly in a lord
Ther is ful many an ey and many an eere Awaytyng on a lord and he not where for goddes loue drynkeþ more attempereþ Wyn makeþ a man to lese wrecchedly
his mynde and eek his lymes euerychon
The reuers schalt þou see quod he anon
And prou it by þin owne experiance
That wyn doþ to folk no such offence Ther is no wyn byreueþ me my might
Of hande ne foot ne of myn eyen sight

And to an oþer knyȝt comaunded he Go lede him to deþe I charge þe
And happed as þei went by þe wy Toward þe place þer he shuld day þe knyȝt come which men wende had ben dede þan þouȝt þei it was þe best rede To lede hem boþ to þe luge aȝayn þei seiden lord þe knyȝt nys not slayn
His felawe here he stant hool a lyue Ho shal be dede quod he so mot I thryue þat is to seyn boþ on two and þre
And þou to þe first knyȝt riȝt þus spoko he I dampne þe þe most algate be dede
And þou also most nedes lese þine hede for þou art cause of þi felawes deþe
And to þe thridde knyȝte þus he seiþ
Thou hast not done þat I comaunded þe
And þus he did hem sleen al þre ¶ Irouis Cambises was eke drunkenlewe
And ay delited him to bene a slueuo
And so byfelle a lorde and his mayno
That loued vertuous moralite
Seide vpon a day bitwix ham two riȝt þus
A lorde is lost if he be vicious
And drunkenesse eke is a foule record
Of any man and namly in a lord þer is wel mony an yre and mony an ere In waytyng and he note where
for goddes [loue] drynkeþ more attempereþ Wyne makeþ a man to lesen wrecchedly his mynde and his lymes euerecho þe reuers schalt þou see quod he anon
And prou it by þine [owne] experiance That wyne ne doþ to folk not such offence þer nys no wyne byreueþ me my myȝt of honde ne of foote ne of myn eyen sight

And to anoþer knyht comaunded he
Go lede him to þe deþ .I. charge þe
And happo as þei went be þe weie
Towardes þe place þere as he scholde deie
The knyht cam whiche þei wende had bu dede Then pouhten þei it were þe beste r-rode To lede hem hoþe to þe luge aȝeine þei seiden lorde þe knyht ne haþ nouht sleine His felaw here standeþ on lyue þe schollen be deie quod he so must .I. þriuo þis to sei hoþe cono tuo and þre
And to þe first knyht riht þus spak he
.I. dampned þe þou most algate be dede
And þou also mot nedes lose þine hede for þou art cause whi þi felawe deyeþ
And to þe þrud knyht riht þus he seiþe þou hast nouht done þat .I. comaunde þe
And þus he dide sie hem al þre
Irouis Cambises was eke dronkenlewe
And aye delite him to bene a schrewe
And so be-fel a lorde of his meigne Tha[t] loued vertuus moralite
Seide on a daie vnto him self riht þus
A lorde is lost if þat he be vicious
A dronkenesse eke is a foule recorde
Of any man and namly in a lorde
There is ful mony eye and mony an ere Awaytyng on a lorde and he note where For goddes loue dringeþ more attempereþ
Wyne makeþ man to lese wrecchedly
His mynde and eke his limes euerychon
The reuerse schal þou see quod he anon
And prou it be þine owne experiance þat wyne doþ to folke none suche offence þere is no wyne be-reueþ me my myht
Of hande ne foote ne of myn eyen sliht

And for despit/ he drank ful muchel moore
 An hundred part/ than he hadde bifore
 And right anon / this Iroun cursed wrecche
 Leet/ this knyghtes sone / bifore hym fecche
 Comaundyng hym / he sholde bifore hym stonde
 And sodeynly / he took his bowe in honde
 And vp the streng<sup>e</sup> he pulled to his ere
 And with an arwe / he slow the child right there
 Now / whether haue I / a siker hand or noon
 Quod he / is al my myght<sup>e</sup> and mynde agon Hath wys biroft<sup>e</sup> me myne eyen sight<sup>e</sup>
 ¶ What sholde I telle / thanswere of the knyght<sup>e</sup>
 His sone was slayn / ther is namoure to seye
 Beth war therefore / with lordes how ye pleye
 Syngeth Placebo / and I shal if I kan
 But if it be / vn-to a poure man
 To a poure man / men sholde hise vices telle
 But nat to a lord / thogh he sholde go to helle
 ¶ O Iroun Cyrus / thilke Percien
Low he destroyed / the ryuer of Gysen for that an hors of his was dreynt ther-tinne
 When pat-he wente / Babiloigne to wyinne
 He made / that the Ryuer / was so smal
 That women / myghte wade it ouer al
 Lo what seyde he / that so wel teche kan
 Ne be no flawe to an Iroun man
 Ne with no wood man / walke by the weye
 Leet thee repente / ther is namoure to seye ¶ Ow Thomas leue brother / lef thyn Ire
 Thou shalt me fynde / as Iust/ as is a squyre
 Hold nat the deuels knyff / ay at thyn herte
 Thyn angre dooth thee / al to soore smerte
 But shewe to me / al thy confession
 ¶ Nay quod the sike man / by Seint Symon
 I haue be shryuen this day / at my curat<sup>e</sup>
 I haue hym toold hoolly al myn estat<sup>e</sup>

And for despit/ he drank ful muchel moore
 An hundred part/ than he hadde deon bifore
 And right anon / this Iroun cursed wrecche bifore hym Leet this knyghtes sone / fecche
 Comaundyng hym / he sholde bifore hym stonde
 And sodeynly / he took his bowe in honde
 And vp the streng<sup>e</sup> he pulled to his ere
 And with an arwe / he slow the child right there
 Now / whether haue I / a siker hand or noon
 Quod he / is al my myght and mynde agoon Hath wys byroued me / myn eye sight
 ¶ What sholde I telle / thanswere of the knyght<sup>e</sup>
 His sone was slayn / ther is namoure to seye
 Beth war ther fore / with lordes how ye pleye
 Syngeth Placebo / and I shal if I kan
 But if it be / vn-to a poure man
 To a poure man / men sholde his vices telle
 But nat to a lord / thogh he sholde go to helle ¶ Lo Iroun Syrus / thilke Percien
 How he destroyed / the ryuer of Gysen
 for that an hors of his / was dreynt ther-tinne
 When that he wente / Babiloigne to wyinne
 He made / that the Ryuer was so smal
 That women / myghte wade it ouer al
 Lo what seyde he / that so wel teche kan
 Ne be no flawe / to an Iroun man
 Ne with no wood man / walke by the weye
 Leet thee repente / I wol no farther seye ¶ Now Thomas leue brother / lef thyn Ire
 Thou shalt me fynde / as Iust/ as is a Squyre
 Hold nat the deuels knyff / ay at thyn herte
 Thyn angre dooth thee / al to soore smerte
 But shewe to me / al thy confession
 ¶ Nay quod the sike man / by Seint Symon
 I haue be shryuen this day / at my curat<sup>e</sup>
 I haue hym toold / hoolly al myn estat<sup>e</sup>

And for despit he drank mekyl þe more
 An hundred part than he hadde don by-fore
 And ryst a-non þis yroun cursed wrecche
 Leet þis knygt sone by-fore hym fecche Comaundyng hym he schulde by-fure hym stonde
 And sodeynly he tok his bowe on honde
 And vp þe stryng he pullede to hys ere
 And with an arwe he slow þe child ryst þer Now whesþer haue I sekyr hand or non Quod he is al myn mygt & mynde a-geon
 Hath wryn be-reuyd me myn eyen syth
 ¶ What schulde I telle þe answer of þe knygt
 His sone was slayn þere is no more to se-ye Beth war þerfore with lordys how so pleye Syng placebo & I schal gif I can
 But gif it be vnto a pore man
 To a pore man men schulde his vices telle
 But not to a lord þow he schulde go to helle ¶ Lo yroun Cyrus thilke peryen How he destroyed þe Ryuer of Gysen for þat an hors of his was dreynt þer-tinne
 When þat he wente babiloigne to wyinne
 He made þat þe ryuer was so smal
 That wemen myghte wade it ouer al
 Lo what seyde ho þat so wel teche can Ne be no flawe to an yroun man
 Ne wyth no wood man walke by þe weye Leet þe repente I wole no ferþere seye
 Now thomas leue broþer lef thyn ire
 ¶ Thou shalt me fynde as Iust as is a squyre
 Hold not þe deuyll knyff ay at þyn herte Thyn angry doth þe al to soore smerte
 But schewe to me al thyn confesioun ¶ Nay quod þe syke man by seynt symoun
 I haue be schryuen this day at myn curat
 I haue hym told al holly myn estat

866 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS. 229

Nedeth namore / to speken of it seith he
 But if me list<sup>o</sup> of myn humylitee
 ¶ Yif me thanne of thy gold / to make oure cloystre
 Quod he / for many a Muscle / and many an oystre 2100
 Whan othere men / han ben ful wel at eyse Hath been oure foods / our cloystre for to reyse
 And yet god woot vmethe the fundament
 Parfourmed is / ne of our pauement 2104
 Nys nat a tyl yet / with-Inne oure wones
 By god / we owen fourty pound for stones ¶ Now help Thomas / for hym that harwed helle <sup>[part 88, 1048]</sup> for elles / mooste we oure bookes selle 2108
 And if yo lakke / oure predicacion Thanne goth the world / al to destruccioñ for who so wolde / vs fro this world bireue
 So god me saue / Thomas by youre leue 2112
 He wolde bireue / out of this world the sonne for who kan teche / and werchen as we konne
 And that is nat<sup>o</sup> of lital tyme quod he
 But sijn Eanok was / or Elise 2116
 Han freres been / that fynde I of record
 In charitee / ythanked be oure lord
 Now Thomas / help for seinte charitee
 And down anon / he sette hym on his knee 2120
This sike man / wax wel my wood for Ire
 He wolde / þat the frere / had been on fire
 With his false dissymulacion
 Swich thyng<sup>o</sup> as is in my possession 2124
 Quod he / that may I yeuen / and noon oother
 Ye say me thus / that I am youre brother
 ¶ Ye certes quod the frere / trusteth wel
 I took oure dame / oure lettre and oure seel 2128
 ¶ Now wel quod he / and som what shal I yeue
 Vs-to youre hooly Couent<sup>o</sup> whil I lyue
 And in thyn hand / thou shalt it haue anon
 On this condicioñ / and oother noon 2132

396 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 191

Nedeth namore to speke of it seith he
 But if me list<sup>o</sup> of myn humylitee
 ¶ Yif me thanne of thy gold / to make oure cloystre
 Quod he / for many a Muscle / and many an Oystre 2100
 Whan othere men / sha ben ful wel at eyse Hath been oure foods / oure Cloystre for to reyse
 And yet god woot vmethe the fundament/
 Parfourmed is / ne of oure pauement 2104 [N]ys nat a tyle / yet with-Inne oure wones <sup>[1. Rest. leaf 88, 104]</sup>
 By god / we owen fourty pound for stones
 Now help Thomas / for hym þat harwed helle
 Or elles mote we / oure bookes selle 2108
 And if yow lakke / oure predicacion Thanne gooth the world / al to destruccioñ for who so / fro this world / wolde vs bireue
 So god me saue / Thomas by youre leue 2112
 He wolde bireue / out of the world the sonne
 for who kan teche / and werchen as we konne
 And that is nat<sup>o</sup> of lital tyme quod he
 But sith Elie was / or Elize 2116
 Han freres been / that fynde I of record
 In charitee / thanked be oure lord
 Now Thomas / help for Seinte charites
 And down anon / he set hym on his knee 2120
This sike man / weex wel neigh wood for Ire
 He wolde / that the frere / hadde been afre
 With his false dissimulacion
 Swich thyng<sup>o</sup> as is in my possession 2124
 Quod he / that may I yeue and noon oother
 Ye say me thus / how that I am youre brother
 ¶ Ye certes quod the frere / trusteth wel
 I took oure dame / oure lettre with oure seel 2128
 ¶ Now wel quod he / and som what shal I yeue
 Vs-to youre holy Couent<sup>o</sup> whil I lyue
 And in thyn hand / thou shalt it han anon
 On this condicioñ / and oother noon 2132

396 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS. 229

Nedith it no more to speke of it seyth he But þif me lyste of myn humylitee þif me of þore gold to make oure cloystere Quod he for manye a muskele & manye an oystere 2100 Whan oþere men han ben ful wel at eyse
 Hath ben oure fode oure Cloystere for t. reyse
 And þit god wrot onþe þe fundament
 Parformed is ne of oure pauement 2104
 Kis not a tyl þit with-inne oure wonys
 By god we owyn fourty pound for stonye
 Now help tomays for hym þat harwed helle
 Or ellis muste we oure bokys selle 2108
 And þif þow lakke oure predicacion Thanne goth þe world al to destruccioñ for ho so from þis world wolde vs be-reue
 So god me saue thomas be youre leue 2112
 He wolde be-reue out of þis world þe sunne for who can teche & werke as we kunne
 And þat is not of lytyme quod he
 But sith þe þat elye was or elyse 2116
 Han frerye ben þat fynde I of record
 In charyte thanked be oure lord
 Now Thomas help for seynre charyte
 And doun a-non he sette hym on his knee 2120
This syke man weex my wood for yre
 He wolde þat þe frere hadde bee a-fyre
 With his false dissymulacion
 Swych thyng as is in myn possession 2124 Quod he may I zeuyn & non oþer þe say me þis how þat I am youre broþer þa certis quod þe frere trustyth wel
 I tok oure dame oure lettere with oure sel 2128
 Now wel quod he & sumwhat schal I zeue
 On to youre holy couent whil I leue
 And in þyn hand þou schalt it hald a-non
 On þis condicioñ & oþere non 2132

It nedep<sup>h</sup> nomors speke of it sayde he
 But if me luste of myn humilite 3tue me penne of þy gold to make oure cloyste Quod he for many a muskel and many an oystre hap ben our gode oure cloyste for to reyse
 When oþer men han ben ful wel at eyse
 And sit god wot vaneþes þe fundament Performed is ne of oure payment
 Nis nouht<sup>h</sup> a tile jit vrinne oure wones
 By god we owen forty pound for stonnes /
 Now helpe thomas for him þat harwed helle
 Or elles moote we oure bokes selle
 And if we lakke oure prediccion þanne goþ þe world al to destruccioñ ffor whos wolde for þis world vs byreue
 So god me saue Thomas by þoure leue
 he wolde byreue out of þe world þe somme / ffor who can teche and worchen as we konne
 And þat is nouht of litel tyme quod he
 But seþyns Elye was or Elyze han freres ben þat fynde I of record
 In charite I þanked he oure lord
 Now Thomas help for seinte charite
 A-doun anon he sette him on his kne
 This sik man wex wel neig<sup>h</sup> wood for Ire
 He wolde þat þe frere hadde ben a fyre
 With his fals dissimilacion
 Such þing<sup>h</sup> as is her in my possession Quod he þat I may zue and non oþer þe sein me þus / þat I am zour broþer þe certes quod þe frere trusteþ me wel
 I took oure dame oure lettres wijf oure seel ¶ Now wel quod he and somewhat schal I zive vnto zour holy Couent whil I lyue And in þin hand þou schalt it han anon vp þis condicion and oþer non

It nedep<sup>h</sup> no more to speke of it seid he
 But if me list of myne humilite
 3eue me þan of zoure gold to make our cloister Quod he for mony a muskel and mony an oyster 2109 When oþer men han bene ful wel at ese Haþ bene our fode our cloister<sup>h</sup> forto rese
 And god wote vaneþ þe fundament 2104 Perfourmed is and of our payment Is nouht a tyle wijf-Inne our wonys
 By god we owen xl poundo for stonye
 Now helpe Thomas for hym þat harowed helle 2108 ffor ellis mote we our bokes selle
 And if þou lakke our prediccion Than goþ þis world al to destruccioñ ffor who so wold from þis world vs byreue
 2112 So god me saue thomas by þoure leue
 He wolde byreue out of þe world þe somme ffor who can techen and worchen as we konne
 And þat is nouht of litel tyme quod he 2116 But sij Elie was or Elise Han freres he þat fynde I of record
 In charite þou-kidde be our lord
 Now thomas [helpe vs] for seint charite
 2120 Hau done anon he sette hym on his kne
 This sik man wex nye woode for Ire
 He wolde þat þe frere had had a fire
 Wijf his fals dissimilacion
 2124 Such þing<sup>h</sup> as is in my possession Quod he þat may I zeue and non oþer þe sein me thus hou þat I am zour broþer þe certes quod þis frere trusteþ wel 2128 I toke our dame þe letter of our seel Nowe quod he wel and somewhat shal I zeue vnto zoure holy Couent whil I lyue
 And in þine honde þou shalt it haue anon
 2132 Vp þis condicion and oþer non

It nedep<sup>h</sup> no more spek of hit seide he Bot if me lust of myne humilitee
 3if me þan of þi gold to make oure cloyster Quod he for mony a muskel and many an oyster 2100 Haþe buen oure fode oure cloister for to reise
 When oþer men haþe be ful wel att eyse
 And sit god wote vneþ þe fundament 2104 Performed is ne of oure Paiment Nis nouht a tile jit wijf-inne owre wones
 Be godde we owen fourti pounde for stonnes
 Now helpe thomas for him þat herowel helle 2108 Or we moost oure bokes sette
 And if we lakko our prediacione
 Than goþ þe worlde al to destruccione
 For who wolde fro þis worlde vs be-reue 2112 So god me saue Thomas be þoure leue
 He wolde be-reue oute of þe worlde þe somme
 For who can teche and worchis as we conne
 And þat is nouht of litel tyme quod he 2116 Bot seþyns Elye was or Elyze Haþe freres þou þat finde .I. of reworde .
 In Charita y-þanked be oure lordes
 Now thomas helpe for seint charitee
 2120 Adounne a-noun he sett him on his kne
 ¶ This seeke man wex nybe woode for ire
 He wolde þat þe frere had bue on fire
 Wijf his fals dissimilacione 2124 Suche þinge as is here in my possessione Quod he þat male .I. zeue and nono oþere þe sein me þus þat .I. am zoure broþer þe series quod þe frere trusteþ me welle 2128 .I. toke oure dame oure lettres wijf owre seale ¶ Nowe welle quod he and sumwhat wil .I. zeue vnto zoure holy Couent whiles .I. leue
 And in þin hand þou schal it haue anon 2132 Vpon þis condicione and oþere none

398 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS. 231

Til atte laste / he seyde / god yow see
 ¶ This lord bigan to looke / and seide benedicite
 What frere Iohn / what maner world is this?
 I trovo / som maner thyng<sup>r</sup> ther is anys
 Ye looken / as the wode / were ful of theuys Sit down anon / and tel me what your grief is
 And it shal been amended / if that I may ¶ I have quod he / had a despit this Day
 God yelde yow / adown in youre village
 That in this world / is noon so poure a page
 That he nolde haue abhomyncious
 Of that I have receyued in youre toum
 And yet greseth me / no thyng so soore
 As that this olde cherl / with lokkes hoore
 Blasphemed hath / oure holy Couent eke
 ¶ Now maister quod this lord / I yow biseke
 ¶ No maister quod he / but seruitour Thogh I haue had in scole swich honour
 God liketh nat<sup>r</sup> that Raby men vs calle
 Neither in Market<sup>r</sup> ne in youre large halle ¶ No fors quod he / but tel me al youre grief ¶ Sire quod he / an odious meschief
 This day biyd is / to myn ordre and me
 And so per consequens / in ech degre
 Of holy chirche / god amende it some ¶ Sire quod the lord / ye woot what is to doone Distempre yow noght / ye be my Confessour Ye been the salt of the erthe / and the savour
 ffor goddes loue / youre pacience ye holde
 Tel me youre grief / and he anon hym tolde
 As ye han herd biforn / ye woot wel what
 ¶ The lady of the hous / al stille sat
 Til she had herd / what the frere seyde
 Ey godis mooder quod she / blisful mayde
 Is ther ight elles / telle me feithfully ¶ Madame quod he / how thynke ye her-by?
 ELLESMEERE 231 (6-T. 398)

398 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS. 193

Til atte laste / he seyde / god yow see
 ¶ This lord gan looke / and seyde benedicite
 What frere Iohn / what maner world is this
 I so wel / that som thyng<sup>r</sup> ther is anys
 Ye looken / as the wode were ful of sheuys
 Sit down anon / and tel me what your grief is
 And it shal been amended / if I may ¶ I have quod he / had a despit to day
 God yelde yow / adown in youre village
 ¶ That in this world / ther nys so poure a page
 That he nolde haue / abhomyncious
 Of that I have receyued in youre toum
 And yet / no greseth me / no thyng so soore
 As that this olde cherl / with lokkes hoore
 Blasphemed hath / oure holy Couent eke
 ¶ Now maister quod this lord / I yow biseke
 No maister sire quod he / but seruytour
 Thogh I haue had in scole / that honour
 God liketh nat<sup>r</sup> that Raby men vs calle
 Neither in Market<sup>r</sup> nyn youre large halle ¶ No force quod he / but tel me al youre grief ¶ Sire quod this frere / an odious meschief
 This day biyd is / to myn ordre and me
 And so par consequens / to ech degre
 Of holy chirche / god amende it soone
 ¶ Sire quod the lord / ye woot what is to doone
 Distempre yow noghte ye be my confessour Ye been the salt of therthe / and the sauour
 ffor goddes loue / youre pacience ye holde
 Tel me youre grief / and he anon hym tolde
 As ye han herd biforn / ye woot wel what
 The lady of the hous / ay stille sat
 Til she hadde herd / what the frere seyde ¶ Ey goddes mooder quod she / blisful mayde
 Is ther aught ellis / tel me feithfully ¶ Ma dame quod he / how thynketh yow ther by
 HENGWRT 193 (6-T. 398)

398 SIX-TEXT
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS. 231

Tyl at þe laste he seyde god þow se
 This lord gan to loken & seyde benedicite
 What frere Iohn what maner world is þis
 I se wel þat samthyng þere is a-mys þe loken as thow þe wode were ful of thewys Sit down a-non & telle me what þoure greþis
 And it schal ben a-mendyt If I may
 I have quod he had a despit to day
 God gilde þow a-down in þoure village
 That in þis world wys non so poure a page
 That he nulde haue abomynacioun
 Of þat I hare resseyuyd in þoure toum
 And þit me growyth me no þyng so sore
 As þat þis olde cherl with lokys hoore Blasfemyd hath oure holy couent ek
 Now maystyr quod þe lord I þow bisek
 No maystyr quod he sire but seruytour
 Thow I haue had in scole þat honour
 God lyketh not þat rabi men vs calle Neyþer in market nyn in þoure large halle
 No fem quod he but telle me al þoure greþ Syre quod þis frere an odious mys-hof þis day is betid to myn ordere & me
 And so par consequens to ech degre
 Of holy cherche god a-mende it some Syre quod þe lord þe wote what is to done Distemperyth þow not þe ben myn confessour þe ben þe salt of þe cherche & þe sauour ffor godys loue þoure pacience þe holde Telle me þoure greþ & he anon hym tolde
 As þe han herd before þe wote wel what
 To lady of þe hous ay stille sat
 Til she hadde herd what þe frere seyde
 Ey godis modyr quod she blisful mayde
 Is þere not elle telle me feithfully Madame quod he how lyketh þow herþy
 CAMBRIDGE 231 (6-T. 398)

[leaf 90, back]

[leaf 110, back]

[leaf 98, back]

2204

Til atte laste he seyde god ȝou se þis lord gan loke and seyde benedicite Quod he frere Iohn what maier world is þis
 I see wel þat sump þing is amys ȝe loken as þe woode were ful of þeenes Sit don<sup>er</sup> anon and telle me what ȝour greef is
 And if schal ben amended if þat I may I haue quod he had a despit to day God yelde ȝou a-down in ȝoure village þat in þis world is non so pore a page þat he nolde han abhominacioun
 Of þat I haue receyved in þis toum
 And ȝit me greueþ no þing so sore
 As þat þis olde cherl wip lokkes hore Blasphemed hap our holy couent eek
 Now maister quod þis lord I ȝou beseeke
 No maister quod he but a seruitour þey I haue had in scole þat honour God likeþ nouȝt þat men vs laby calle neȝer in market ne in ȝour halle No force quod he but telle me of ȝour greef sice quod þis frere an ydious mescheef
 This day betidde is to myn ordre and to me
 And so þar consequens to eche degre
 Of holy chirche god amende if some Sire quod þe lord ȝe wot what is to doone Distempre ȝou nouȝt ȝe be my confessor ȝe ben þo salt/ of þerpe and þo sauour sfor goddes loue ȝoure pacience ȝe holde Telleþ me ȝour greef and he anon him tolde
 As ȝe han hard before ȝe wot wel what
 The lady of þe hous ay stille sat
 Til sche hadde herd what þe frere seyde
 Ey goddes moder quod sche blisful mayde
 Is þer nouȝt elles telleþ me feiþfully ¶ madame quod he how þenke ȝou þerly
 CORPUS (6-T. 398)

Til at last / he seid god ȝou see
 This lorde gan look / and sayd benedicite
 What frere Iohn / what maier worlde is this I see weel / that som thing is a-mys
 Ye looke / as the woode wer ful of therys
 Sit down a-noon / and telle me what ȝour grevis
 And it shall ben amendid / yf I may I haue quod he / had a foul despyt this day
 God yelde it you / a-down in your village
 That in this worlde / ther nys so pore a pape
 That he nolde haue / abhomynciouus
 Of that y haue / receyved / in the toum
 And yit ne grevith it me also sore
 As that the olde chirle / with lokkis hoore Blasfemed hath / our holy covent eek
 Nowe maister quod this lorde / y you beseeche
 No maister quod he / but a seruitour
 Thow y haue had in scole / that honour
 God lyketh nat / that raby men vs calle Notbir in Market / ne in your large halle
 No force quod he / but telle me all your greef
 Sir quod this frere / an odious myscheif
 This day betid is / myn ordre and me
 And so þar consequens / in eche degre
 Of holy chirch / god amende it some Sire quod the lorde / ye wot what is to done Distempir you nat / ye be my confessor Ye be salt of the erth / and the sauour sfor goddis love / your patient now holde
 Tell me your greef / and a-nou he him tolde
 As ye haue herd before / ye wot well what
 The lady of the hous / ay still sat
 Tyl she hadde herd / all what the frere said
 By goddis modir quod she / the blisful mayd
 Is ther aught ellis / telle me feiþfully
 Madame quod he / how thinke ye herby POTWORTH (6-T. 398) [this page, Addit. MS 5140.]

Til att þe last he seide god ȝow se þis lorde gan loke and seide benedicite quod he frere Iohn what maier worlde is þis
 .I. see wele þat sump þing is amys ȝe loken as þe wode were ful of þeues Sitteþ anone and tel me whate ȝou greuous
 And it schal bene amended if þat .I. maye
 .I. haue quod he a dispite to daye God yelde ȝow a downe in ȝowe vilage þat in þis werlde þere is none so pouer a page þat he nolde haue abhomyncioune
 Of þat .I. haue receyvede in ȝowre toune
 And ȝit me greueþ no þing so sore
 As þat þis olde cherle wip lokkes hore Blasphemed hap our holy Couent eke
 Now mayster quod þis lorde .I. ȝowe beseeke
 No maystere quod he bot seruitoure þeiþ .I. haue had in scole þat honour God lyketh nouȝt þat men vs laby call Neyþer in Market ne in ȝoure hall
 No force quod he bot tel me of ȝoure greue
 Sir quod þe frere an ydious mescheus
 This daie be-tidde is to myne order and to me
 And so þar consequance to iche degre
 Of holy cherche god amend it some Sire quod þe lorde ȝe wote what is to done Distemper ȝowe nouȝt ȝe be my confessor ȝe be þo salt of þe erpe and þo sauoure
 For goddes loue ȝoure pacions ȝe holde
 Telleþ me ȝoure greu and he anene him tolde Als ȝe haue herd be-for ȝe wote wele what
 The lady of þe hous ay still sat
 Til sche herde what þe frere seide
 Ey goddes moder quod sche blisful meide
 Es þere nouht elles telleþ me feiþfully Ma dame quod he howe þinke ȝowe þer by
 LANSDOWNE (6-T. 398)

¶ How that me thynketh quod she? so god me speede
 I seye / a cherl hath don / a cherles dede
 What sholdt I seye / god lat hym neuere thee
 His sike heed / is ful of vanytee
 I holde hym / in a manere frenesye
 ¶ Madame quod he / by god I shal nat lye
 But I on hym / oother weyas be wreke
 I shal disclaunde hym / ouer al ther I speke
 This false blasphemour / that charged me
 To parte / that wol nat departed be
 To enery man yliche / with meschaunce
 ¶ The lord sat stille / as he were in a trauunce
 And in his herte / he rolled vp and down
 How hadde the cherl / this ymaginacioun
 To shewe swich a probleme / to the frere
 Neuere erst or now / herd I of swich matere
 I trowe / the deuel / putte it in his mynde
 In Ars Metrik shal ther no man fynde Bifom this day / of swich a questoun Certes / it was a shrewed confusioun
 That enery man / sholde hane yliche his part
 As of the soue / or sauour / of a fart
 O vile proude cherl / I shrewe his face
 Lo sires quod the lord / with harde grace
 Who herd euere of swich a thyng? or now
 To enery man ylike / tel me how?
 It is an impossible / it may nat be Ey nyce cherl / god lete the neuere thee
 The rumblyng of a fart / and enery soue
 Nys but of Eyre / reuerberacioun
 And euere it wasteth / litel and litel awaye Ther is no man / kan demen by my fey
 If that it were departed equally
 What lo my cherl / lo yett how shrewedly
 Yn-to my confessor / to day he spak
 I holde hym certeyn / a demonyak

¶ How pat me thynketh quod she / so god me speede
 I seye / a cherl / hath don a cherles dede
 What sholdt I seye / god lat hym neuere thee
 His sike heed / is ful of vanytee
 I holde hym / in a manere frenesye
 ¶ Madame quod he / by god I shal nat lye
 But I on oother wise / may be wreke
 I shal diffame hym / ouer al wher I speke
 The false blasphemour / that charged me
 To parte / that wol nat departed be
 To enery man yliche / with meschaunce
 ¶ The lord sat stille / as he were in a trauunce
 And in his herte / he rolled vp and down
 How hadde this cherl / ymaginacioun
 To shewe swich a probleme / to the frere
 Neuere erst or now / herd I swich matere
 I trowe the deuel / putte it in his mynde
 In Arismetrik shal ther no man fynde
 Bifore this day / of swich a questoun
 Who sholdt / make a demonstracioun
 That enery man sholde han / ylike his part /
 As of a soue / or sauour / of a fart
 O nyce proude cherl / I shrewe his face
 ¶ Lo sires quod the lord / with harde grace
 Who euere herde / of swich a thyng? or now
 To enery man ylike / tel me how
 It is an impossible / it may nat be Ey nyce cherl / god lat hym neuere thee
 The rumblyng of a fart and enery soue
 Nys but of Eyre / reuerberacioun
 And there it wasteth / litel and litel awaye
 Ther nys no man / kan demen by my fey
 If that it were / departed equally
 What lo my cherl / lo yett how shrewedly
 Yn-to my confessor / to day he spak
 I holde hym certeynly / demonyak

How pat me thynkyth quod sche so god me speede
 I seye a cherl haþ don a cherlis dede What schuldte I seye god lete hym neuere the His syke hed is ful of vanyte
 I holde hym in a manere of frenesye
 Madame by god I schal not lye
 But I on oþer whise may þen wreke
 I schal de-fame hym ouyrt þere I speke
 This false blasphemour þat charged me
 To departe þat wole not departede be What enery man I-lyche meche wilþ myschaunce
 The lord sat styll as he were in a trance
 And in his herte he rollede vp & donn
 How hadde þis cherl þis ymaginacioun
 To schewe þis probleme to a frere
 Neuere erst or now herdu I of swyche matere
 I trowe þe denyþ put it in his mynde
 In arsmatryk coude þere no man fynde
 By-forn þis day swich a questoun
 Who schulde mak a demonstracioun
 That enery man schul hane I-lyche hiso part
 As of þe soue or souour of a fart
 O nyse proude cherl I-schrewe his face
 Lo serys quod þe lord with harde grace
 Ho herde euere of swich a thyng or now
 To enery man I-like telle me howe
 It is an impossible it may not be Ey nyce cherl god lete hym neuere thee
 The rumblyng of a fart & enery soue
 Nys bot of eyr reuerberacioun
 And euere it wastith lyte & lyte awaye þere is no man can demen be myn fey ȝif þat it were departid equally
 What lo myn cherl lo how schrewedly Yp to myn confessor to day he spak
 I holde hym certaynly demonyak how þat me þenkeþ quod scho so god me spede I say a cherl haþ don a cheris deede what schulde I say god let him neuer þe his seeke hede is ful of vanite

 I holde him in a maner frenesye Madame quod he by god I schal not lye but I on oþer wise may ben awroke
 I schal scauldre him ouerl wher I speke
 The fals blasphemour þat charged me
 To parte þat myght nouȝt departed be
 To euery man y-liche wiþ mechaunce þe lord saþ stille as he lay in a traunce
 And in his herte he rolled vp and down
 how hadde þis cherl ymaginacioun
 To schewe such a probleme to þe frere
 Neuer erst er now herde I of such matere
 I trowe þe deuyl putte it in his mynde
 In ars metrike schal þer no man fynde
 Biforn þis day of such a questoun Who schulde make a demonstracioun þat euery man schulde haue y-like þis part Of a soun or of a sauour of a fart
 O nyce proude cherle I schrewe his face lo sirs quod þe lord wiþ harde grace Who herde ouer of such a þing er now /
 To euery man y-like tel me howe
 If it is impossible it may not be O nyce cherle god let him neuer þe þe rublyng of a fart and euery soun Nys but of eyre reuellacioun
 And þer-wiþ wasteth litel and litel away þer is no man can deme by my fey
 If þat it were departed equaly
 What to my cherle lo ȝit how schrewedlye vnto my confessor to day he spak
 I holde him certein a demoniak

CORPUS (6-T. 399)

How that me thenkyth quod scho / so god me spede
 I say a cherl / hath don a cheris dede What sholde y sey / god lat him nevir the His sike hed / is ful of vanyte
 I holde him / in a maner frenesie
 Madame quod he / bi god y shall not lye
 But yf y / be any wyse may be wroke
 I shaþ diffame him / ovinth wher y speke
 The fals blasphemour / that chargid me
 To depart / that wol not departed be To euerych man / alych wiþ myschaunce
 The lord sat styh / as he wore in a traunce
 And in his hert / he rolleth vp and down
 How that this cherle / had ymaginacioun
 To shewe such a probleme / to the frere
 Nevir e[r]st er nowe / her y of such matere
 I trow the devill / put it in his mynde
 In ars / shaft no man / metryk fynde Dyfor þis day / of such a questoun
 Who sholde make / a demonstracioun
 That euery man / schulde haue lyk his part
 As of soun / or of savour / of a fart
 O nyce proude chyrh / y shrew his face
 Lo sirs quod the lord / what harde grace
 To euery man lyk / telle me howe Sompnour
 That a fart / sholde be departed nowe
 It is an impossible / it may nat be Ey nyce cherl / god lat him nevir the
 The romblyng / of a fart / and euery soun
 Nys but of hoyr / reuerberacioun
 And ther it wasteth / lytel and lytel a-wey
 Ther is no man / can deme bi my fey
 Yf that it were / departed equaly
 What to my cherle / lo howe shrewedlye
 Vnto my confessor / to day he spak
 I holde him certayn / a demonyak

PETWORTH (6-T. 399) [this page, Addit. MS 5140.]

Howe þat me þenkeþ quod scho so god me spede
 .I. seie a cherle hþe done a cheris dede
 What sholde .I. sei god lat him neuere þe
 His seeke hede is ful of vanite
 .I. holde him in a maner fransye
 Ma dame quod he be god .I. schal nouȝt lye Bot .I. on oþere wyse mai bene awroke
 .I. schal sclandre him ouer al where .I. speke þe fals blasphemour þa[is] charged me
 To parte þat myht nouȝt departed be
 To euery man y-liche wiþ mechaunce
 The lord satte stille as he lay in a traunce
 And in his hert he rolle vp vdowne
 Howe had þis cherle ymaginacioun
 To schew suche a probleme to þe frere Neuer erst or nowe herde .I. of suche matiere
 .I. trowe þe deuyl put it in his mynde
 In ars metrike schal þere no man finde
 Be-for þis daie of suche a questione Who schold make a demonstracioun þat euery man schold haue .I.-like his parte
 Of a sounne or of a sauoure of a farte
 O nyce proude cherle .I. schrewe his face
 Lo sirs quod þis lorde wiþ harde grace
 Who euer herde of suche a þing or nowe
 To euery man y-lyke tel me howe
 It is an impossible it mai nouȝt be A nyce cherle god lat him neuer þe
 The rumblinge of a farte and euery sounne
 Ne es bot bot of eyre reuelaciounne
 And þere-wiþ wasteth lytel and lyte a-waie
 Ther is no man can deme be my faie
 If þat it were departed equali
 What lo my cherle lo ȝit howe schrewedlye Vn-to my confessor-to-daie he spak
 .I. holde him certaine a demonyak

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 399)

Now ete youre mete / and lat the cherl go pleye
Lat hym go bouge hymself a deul weye

¶ The wordes of the lordes Squier and his kernere / for departyng of the fart<sup>r</sup> on twelue 6

Now stood the lordes Squier at the boord
That karf his mete / and herde word by word 2244
Of alle thynges / whiche that I haue sayd
My lord quod he / beth nat yuele apayd

¶ I koude telle for a gowne clooth [leaf 61]
To yow sere frere / so ye be nat wrooth 2248
How that this fart<sup>r</sup> euene delit shal be Among youre Couent<sup>r</sup> if it lyked me

¶ Tel quod the lord / and thow shalt haue anon 2252
A gowne clooth / by god / and by Seint Iohn
¶ My lord quod he / whan þat the weder is fair
With-uten wynd / or perturbyng of Air

Lat brynge a Cartwheel in-to this halle 2256
But looke / that it haue his spokes alle
Twelue spokes / hath a Cartwheel comunly
And bryng me thanne .xij. freres woot ye why?

For twelue is a Couent / as I gesse
Your noble Confessor / for his worthynesse 2260
Shal parfourne vp / the nombre of his Couent<sup>r</sup>
Thanne shal they knele down / by con assent<sup>r</sup>
And to euery spokes ende / in this manere

ful sadly / leye his nose shal a frere 2264
Your noble Confessor / there god hym saue
Shal holde his nose / vpright / vnder the Nawe
Thanne shal this cherl / with bely stiff and toght

As any Tabour / been hyder ybroght 2268
And sette hym on the wheel / right of this Cart<sup>r</sup>
Vpon the Nawe / and make hym lete a fart<sup>r</sup>
And ye shal seen / vp peril of my lyf /

By piteus / which that is demonstratif 2272

Now ete youre mete / and lat the cherl go pleye
Lat hym go hange hym self / a deul weye

[The Solution of the " Probleme " by the Lord's Squire-
and-Carver. No break in the MS.]

¶ Now stood / the lordes Squyer at the boord 2244
That carf his mete / and herde word by word
Of alle thyng<sup>r</sup> of which I haue yow sayd ¶ My lord quod he / be ye nat yuele apayd

I koude telle / for a gowne clooth [leaf 62]
To yow sere frere / so ye be nat wrooth 2248
How that this fart<sup>r</sup> sholde euene delit be Among youre Couent<sup>r</sup> if it liked me

¶ Tel quod the lord / and thow shalt haue anon 2252
A gowne clooth / by god and by Seint Iohn
¶ My lord quod he / whan that the weder is fair
With-uten wynd / or perturbyng of Air

Lat brynge a Cartwheel / heere in-to this halle 2256
But looke / that it haue / his spokes alle
Twelf spokes / hath a Cartwheel comunly
And brynge me thanne twelf freres / woot ye why

For thritene / is a Couent<sup>r</sup> / as I gesse
Your noble Confessor / for his worthynesse 2260
Shal parfourne vp / the nombre of this Couent<sup>r</sup>
Thanne shal they knele adown / by con assent<sup>r</sup>
And to euery spokes ende / in this manere

ful sadly / leye his nose / shal a frere 2264
Your noble Confessor / ther god hym saue
Shal holde his nose / vp right vnder the Nawe
Thanne shal this cherl / with bely / stiff and toght

As any tabour / hider been ybroght 2268
And sette-hym on the wheel / right of this Cart<sup>r</sup>
Vp on the Nawe / and make hym lete a fart<sup>r</sup>
And ye shal seen / on peril of my lyf /

By proue / which that is demonstratif 2272

Now ete youre mete & lete þe cherl go pleye
Let hym gon hangyu him seluo a deulo wcy

[The Solution of the " Probleme " by the Lord's Squire-
and-Carver. No break in the MS.]

Now stod þe lordys squyor at þe bord 2244
That karf his mete & herle word be word
Of alle thyngs whiche I haue þow sayd Myn lord quod he be þe not euole a-payd .

I coude telle for a gounes cloth [leaf 61, back]
To þow sere frere þe so þe ben not wroth 2248
How þat þis fart schulde euene delid be A-mong þoure couent ȝif it lyke me

Telle quod þe lord & þou schalt haue a-non 2252
A gounes cloth by god & be seynt Iohn
Myn lord quod he whan þat þe wedir is fair
With-oute wynd or parturbyng of eyr

Lat brynge a carte whel here / in to þis halle 2256
But loke þat it haue hyse spokys alle Twelue spokys hath a carte whel trowe I
And brynge me þanne twelue freres wet ȝe why fior trettene is a couent as I gesse 2260

The confessor here for his worthynesse
Schal parfourme vp þe nombre of his couent Thanne schul þey knele don be on ascent
And to euery spokys ende in his manere ful sadly leye his nose schal a frere 2264 þoure noble confessor þere god hym saue Schal holde his nose vpryght vnder þe nawe Thanne schal þis cherl with bely sterte & stout

As any tabour ben ledyr brought out 1
And sette hym on þe whil ryst off þis carte 2268
Vp-on þe nawe & make hym lete a farte
And ȝe schulin seen vp peryl of myn lyf

By þref which þat is demof[n]stratif 2272

SIX-TEXT 400
 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Corpus MS.
 Now eteþ þoure mete and letþ him go ploye lete him go hange himself a deuclweye

*[The Solution of the "Problems" by the Lord's Squire.
 No break in the MS.]*

Now stood þe lordes squier at þe bord þat karf here mete and herde word for word
 Of alle þingz of which I haue þou seyð
 My lord quod he þeþ not yuale payd
 I couþe telle for a gowne cloþ
 To þou sir frere so þe ben nat wroþ how þat þis fart scholde euene delad be Among þour couent / if it like me
 Telle on quod þe lord and þou schalt haue anon
 A gowne cloþ by god and by seint Iohn
 My lord quod he when þat þu weder is faire Wipouten wynd or pertourbyng of ayre let bringe a cart wheel heer in-to þis hall But loke þat he haue his spokis alle
 xij. spokis haþ a carte wheel comunly And bringe me þanne .xij. freres wite þe why for .xij. is a couent as I gesse þoure confessor hede for his worthynesse Schal performe vp þe nombre of his couent þanne schull þey knelen down by on assent
 And to euery spokis ende in þis manere ful sadly leye his nose schal þe frere þoure noble confessor þere god him saue Schal holde his nose vpright vnto þe naue þanne schal þis chere wij þely styf and touzt
 As any tabur hider ben y-brought And sette him on þe wheel right on þis carto vpon þe naue and make him lete a farte
 And þe schuln se vp peril of my lif
 By proof which þat is demonstratif

CORPUS (6-T. 400)

SIX-TEXT 400
 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Petworth MS.
 Now ete your mete / and lat the chirle go play
 Let him go hang him self / a deuylway

*[The Solution of the "Problems" by the Lord's Squire.
 No break in the MS.]*

Now stode the lordis Squyer / atte boorde
 That karf his mete / and herd words bi woorte
 Of all thing / whiches y haue said
 My lordes quod he / be ye nat evill a-payde
 I coude telle / for a gowne cloth
 To you sir frere / so ye be nat wroth
 How that a fart / shaft ovne delt be A-mong your couent / yif it lyke the Tell quod the lordes / and thou shalt haue a-noun
 A gowne cloth / hi god and bi seint Iohn
 My lord quod he / when that the wredit is fair Ryht her before you / sitting in a chayr
 Lat bringe a cart wheel / her in-to this hall
 But loke that it haue / his spokis hollis all
 xij. spokys / hath a cart wheel comunly And byng me xij. freres / wyte ye why for xijth is a couent as y gesse /
 Your confessor heer / for his worthynesse Shall parfome vp the noubre of his couent Thanne shal ye knele adoun / bi on assent
 And to euery spokis ende / in this manere full sadly ley in his nose / shaft a frere your noble confessor / god him saue Shall holde his nose vpright / vnder the naue Thanne shal this chirle / with bely styf and toulit
 As any tabur / hidir be brouht
 And set him on the wheel / ryht of this carto vpon the naue / and make him let a fart
 And ye shall seyn / vp peril of my lif
 By proof / whichis is demonstratif

PETWORTH (6-T. 400) [this page, Addit. MS 5140.]

SIX-TEXT 400
 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.
 Nowe eteþ þoure mete and let him go pleie
 Latt him go hungu him self a deucl weie

*[The Solution of the "Problems" by the Lord's Squire.
 No break in the MS.]*

Nowe stode þe lordes swyer at þe borde þat kerue here mete and herde worde for worde
 Of alle þingz of whiches .I. haue þowe seyde
 My lordes quod he be nouht heuel apaide
 .I. couþe telle for a gone cloþe
 To þow sir frere so þe be nouht wroþe How þat þis scholde euene ydelt be Among þoure Couent if it lykþ me
 Tel on quod þe lordes and þou schalt haue anon
 A gone cloþe þe god and be seint Iohn
 Mi lordes quod he when þis weder is faire Wip-owten wynde or pertubereing of eyre
 Lat bringe a carte wheel here in-to þis hall
 Bot loke he haue his spokis all Twelue spokis haþ a cart wheel comunly
 And bringe me þan .xij. freres wite þe why For twelue is a Couent as .I. gress þoure noble Confessor hede for his worthynesse
 Schal performe vp þe nombre of his Couent
 Than schal þi knele a-doune by on assent
 And to euery spokis ende in þis manere ful saddely scholden lay here nose iche a frere þoure noble Confessoure þere god him saue Schal holde his vpright in-to þe naue Than schal þis chere wij þely styf and toulit
 As any tabur hider been brouht
 And sett him on þe whele riht on þis carto vpon þe naue and late him maake a farte
 And þe schol see vp peril of my lif
 Be preue which þat is demonstratif

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 400)

401 SIX-TEXT
234 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Ellesmere MS.

That equally / the soun of it wol wende
And eke the styrnk vn-to the spokes ende
Sane þat this worthy man youre Confessour
By cause /he is a man of greet honour
Shal haue the firste fruyt / as reson is As yet the noble vsage / of freres is
The worthy men of hem / shul first be serued
And certainly / he hath it wel deserued
He hath to day taught vs so mucho good
With prechyng in the pulpit ther he stood
That I may vouche sauf / I sey for me
He hadde the firste smel / of fartes three
And so wolde / al the Couent hardily
He bereth hym / so faire and hoolily
¶ The lord / the lady / and alle men saue the frere Seyde / þat Iankyn spak in this matere
As wel as Enclude / or Protholomee
Touchyng the cherl / they seyde subtilitee
And heigh wit made hym speke / as he spak
He nys no fool / ne no demonyak
And Iankyn / hath ywonne a newe gowne
My tale is doon / we been almost at towne

¶ Here endeth the Somnours tale

401 SIX-TEXT
196 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Hengwrt MS.

That equally / the soun of it wol wende
And eek the styrnk vn-to the spokes ende
Sane / that this worthy man / youre Confessour
By cause / he is a man of greet honour
Shal han the firste fruyt as reson is The noble vsage of freres / yet is this
The worthy men of hem / shul first be serued
And certeynly / he hath it wel deserued
He hath to day / taught vs so muchel good
With prechyng in the pulpit ther he stood
That I may vouche sauf / I sey for me
He hadde the firste smel / of fartes thre
And so wolde / al his Couent hardily
He bereth hym / so faire and hoolily
¶ The lord / the lady / ech man / saue the frere.
Seyden / that Iankyn spak in this matere
As wel / as Encluye / or Protholomee
Touchyng the cherl / they seyde subtilitee
And hy wit made hym speke / as he spak
He nys no fool / ne no demonyak
And Iankyn hath y-wonne / a newe gowne
My tale is doon / we been almost at towne

¶ Here endeth the Somnours tale

[A blank leaf follows in the MS, and then "the prologo of the Monkes ta[le]"]

401 SIX-TEXT
234 GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Cambridge MS.

That equally þe soun of it wale wende
And ek þe styrnk vn-to þe spokys ende
Sane þat þis worthy man þis confessour
By cause he is a man of gret honour
Schal hae þe firste frount as worthy is
And as þe nobele vange þit of freres is The worthy men of hem schul first be seruid
And certeynly he hath it wel deseruyd
He hath to day taugt vs so meche good
With prechyng in þe pulpit þere he stod
That I may vouche eaf I sey for me
He hadde þe firste smel of fartys thro
[And so wolde ah/ his/ couent/ hardeli. (Ed. 1788, sig<sup>o</sup> 113, back)
He berith hym so faire & hollili.
The Lorde the Ladie & every man saff the frere.
Seyden that Iankyn spak/ well in this/ matere.
As/ well/ as/ Ouyde or Pitholome.
Touchyng/ the cherle thei seide that/ subtilite.
And hye wittle made hym spoke as/ he spak.
He is/ no fool/ ne no demonyak/
And Iankyn hath wonne a newe gowne.
Mi tale is/ done we ben almost at/ towne.
Here/ endith the/ Sompnours/ tale./] (Ed. 1788 extract end)

SIX-TEXT 401
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Corpus MS.

þat equaly þe soun of hit wole wende
And eke þe stynk vnto þe spokys ende
Sane þat þis worþi man þis confessor
By cause he is a man of gret honour Schal haue þe firste fruytes as reson is þe noble vsage of freres ȝit is þis þe worþi men of hem schulen first be serued
And certainly he haþ it wel deserued
He haþ to day taught vs so mochiþ good Wiþ preaching in þe pulpit þer he stood þat I may vouche sauf I say for me he hadde þe firste smelle of fartes þre
And so wolde alþe his couent hardily he bereþ him so faire and holyly þe lord þe lady & eche man sane þe frere Sayden þat Iankyn spek in þis matiere
As wel as euclide or protholome
Touchinge þe cheste þey seyden subtilite
And by heh witte make him speke as he spake
he is no fool ne no demonyak
And Iankyn haþ y-wonne a newe gowne
My tale is donþ we ben almost at towne

2292 (leaf 129, back)

¶ Here endeth þe Sommoner's tale

SIX-TEXT 401
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Petworth MS.

That equaly / the soun of it wol wende
And eek the stynk<sup>1</sup> / vnto the spokys ende Sauf that this worthi man your confessor
Because he is a man / of gret honour Shal haue the first frute / as reson is The noble vsage of freres / it is this:
The worthiest man of hem al / schal first be serued<sup>2</sup> [? a wyrtman over it] 2280
He hath to day taught vs / so moech good Wyth preaching in the pulpit / ther he stood
That y may vouchesauf / y say for me
He hadde the first smel / of fartis thre
And so wolþ all thys couent hardely
He berith him so fair / and so hoonly
The lord / the lady / and eek man sauf the frere Seid that Iaynkyn / spake in his matere
As well as Euclido / or Partholome Touchyng the Chertis / thei seiden / subtilite
And hi writt / made him speke as he spake
He is no fool / nor no demynyak
And Iaynkyn / hath wonne a new gowne
My tale is donþ / we be almost at towne

[ADD. MS 6140]

[? altered from 6140b]

2276

2280

2284

2288

[over 129]

2292

Explicit fabula Apparitoria [ADD. MS 6160
60 verso slope]

SIX-TEXT 401
GROUP D. § 6. SUMMONER'S TALE. Lansdowne MS.

þat equaly þe soun of it wil wende
And eke þe stynk to þe spokys ende
Sane þat þis worþi man þis confessor
Because he is a man of grette honour Schal haue þe first frute as reson is The noble vsage of freres ȝit is þis
The worþi men of hem scholen first be serued
And Serteynly he haþ it wele deserued
He haþ to-day taught vs so manche goods Wiþ precheinge in þe pulpit þer he stode þat I. maie vouche saue .I. saie for me
He hadde þe first smel of fartes þre
And so wolde al his couent hardely
He bereþ him so faire and so holyly .
The lorde þe lady and eche mon saue þe frere Saiden þat Iankyn spak in þis matiere
As wel as Euclide or pholome<sup>1</sup> [? the same] Touchinge þe cherte subtilite
And by hite make him speke as he spak
He is no ful ne none demoniak
And Iankyn haþ wonne a newe gowne Mi tale is done we been almost att towne

2276

2280

2284

2288

2292

Explicit fabula Aparitoris:

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring transparency and accountability, particularly in the context of public sector organizations. The text notes that such records are essential for identifying trends, detecting anomalies, and providing a clear audit trail.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It mentions the use of both manual and automated systems, highlighting the benefits of automation in terms of efficiency and accuracy. The text also discusses the importance of data security and the need to implement robust measures to protect sensitive information.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of data in decision-making. It explains how data analysis can provide valuable insights into organizational performance and help identify areas for improvement. The text stresses that data-driven decisions are more likely to be effective and sustainable in the long run.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the challenges associated with data management. It identifies common issues such as data silos, inconsistent data quality, and limited access to information. The text suggests several strategies to overcome these challenges, including the implementation of data integration tools and the establishment of clear data governance policies.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the future of data management. It highlights the growing importance of big data and artificial intelligence in the field. The text predicts that these technologies will continue to revolutionize the way data is collected, analyzed, and used, leading to more advanced and personalized insights.

6. The sixth part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed. It reiterates the importance of data accuracy, security, and effective analysis. The text concludes by emphasizing that data is a valuable asset and that organizations must invest in the necessary infrastructure and expertise to maximize its potential.

• THE FRIAR.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 96, back.

THE SOMONOUR.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 88, back.

THE CLERK OF OKENFORD.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 97.

THE MERCHANT.
Eltenore MS, leaf 106, back.

THE SQUIRE.
Eltenore MS, leaf 115, back.

THE FRANKLIN.
Eltenore MS, leaf 117, back.

THE DOCTOR.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 137.

THE PARDONER.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 118.

THE WYF OF BATH.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 12.

THE SECOND NUN.

Illustration MS, leaf 101.

THE CANON'S YOMAN.

Illustration MS, leaf 101.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It highlights the need for a systematic approach to data collection and the importance of using reliable sources of information.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the analysis and interpretation of the collected data. It discusses the various statistical and analytical tools that can be used to identify trends, patterns, and relationships within the data.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of communicating the results of the analysis to the relevant stakeholders. It emphasizes the need for clear and concise reporting that provides a comprehensive overview of the findings and their implications.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the various challenges and limitations associated with data collection and analysis. It highlights the need for a thorough understanding of the data and the importance of using appropriate methods and techniques to overcome these challenges.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the various applications and uses of the collected data. It highlights the importance of using the data to inform decision-making and to identify areas for improvement and optimization.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the various ethical considerations and privacy concerns associated with data collection and analysis. It emphasizes the need for a strong ethical framework and the importance of protecting the privacy and confidentiality of the data.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the various legal and regulatory requirements that apply to data collection and analysis. It highlights the importance of staying up-to-date on the latest regulations and the need for a strong legal and compliance framework.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the various best practices and guidelines for data collection and analysis. It highlights the importance of following a systematic and consistent approach to data collection and analysis and the need for a strong quality control framework.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the various future trends and developments in data collection and analysis. It highlights the importance of staying up-to-date on the latest technologies and the need for a strong focus on innovation and research in this field.

THE MANCIPLE.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 297.

[These coloured figures in the Ellesmere MS have evidently been drawn by two different persons. The little pieces of ground on which the later hand places his figures, mark those done by him.

His drawing is not so good as the first hand's; and his colours are badly ground, and of poor quality.—W. H. HOOPER.]

THE PARSON.

Ellesmere MS, leaf 216, back.

00046957

