SPECIMENS OF THE TWO CHIEF
MOVEABLE PROLOGUES IN THE CANTERBURY TALES

WHEN THEY ARE MOVED FROM THEIR RIGHT PLACES,

AND OF SOME OF THE SUBSTITUTES FOR THEM.

---

- I. Specimens of the Man of Law's End-Link, the real Shipman's Prologue, when moved from its right place.
- II. Specimens of the Spurious Prologue to the Shipman's Tale.
- III. Specimens of the Squire's End-Link (which should head the Franklin's Tale), when the Franklin's Tale is moved from its right place, and the Squire's End-Link is used as the Merchant's Prologue.
- IV. Specimens of the Falset Prologues to the Franklin's Tale when it is moved from its right place after the Squire's Tale.

SPECIMENS OF THE ## MAN OF LAW'S END-LINK,

THE REAL

SHIPMAN'S PROLOGUE,

which should come between the Tales of the Man of Law and the Shipman, though only one MS (the Arch. Sdd. B. 14, in the Bodleian Library) makes it do so. This Link (or Prologue) is left out of the Ellesmere and other edited MSS. In all the other MSS that I have examined, and in which this Link occurs (except Hatton 1, wherein it follows the Cook's Tale), it keeps its right place as a book at the end of the Man of Law's Tale, and (mistakenly) looks on the Squire's Tale to it (being used for the Squire's Prologue<sup>1</sup>), except in the Harl. 7334—and, I suppose, the MSS of its type, if any—where it looks into nothing, but the Wife of Bath's Prologue is joined up to it. This Link is (to the best of my belief) in no other MS except those that follow, in the British Museum, at Cambridge, or at Oxford, but I have not examined the Christchurch MS.

The reader will notice (with Mr Bradshaw), that for L. 14 of most of the MSS, 'for we shal haue a predicacion, the four MSS, Hatton 1, Harl. Poet. 141, 149, Royal 17 D xv, substitute what we must take as an alternative line 13, 'Though ye stonde on his grene here adoun'; for the copyist of Harl. 7334 has left this line 13 blank, as if he had been in doubt as to which of the alternative lines above he should write. But, taking adoun to be part of the verb, and not of the adverb here, I hold that 'stunde adoun' in the substituted line, is not Chaucer's phrase. 'Stop down' will do for 'light down.'<sup>2</sup> 'Sturte down,' sprang or jumped down, occurs in the Knights Tale, A. 954, but would not suit the leisurely dismounting at a green to hear a tale. Harl. 7334 omits the last 5 lines of the Link.

The extracts from the British Museum MSS have been read with the originals by Mr E. Brock; from the Bodleian by Mr G. Parker; the Cambridge University by Mr H. Bradshaw; the Trin. Coll. Camb. by Mr W. Aldis Wright; the Liebfeld by the Rev. J. G. Lonsdale.

His righte a-dounce of isard: And hidde hym in his hande.

And in the wyf he wende. His wouendes to beholde.

And 'pe moche hitid' quod adoun. —Lancel of Colchester, l. 121.

Arch. Sdd. B. 14.

OUR hoste in his stiroppis stondith anon
 And seide good men herkeneth euerychon
 This was a thyrly tale for the nones
 Sir parish prist quod he for goddis bonys
 Tel vs a tale as was thy forward yore
 I se welle that lerned man in lore
 Con moche good be goddis dignite
 The person hym answerd benedicite
 What cileth the man so synfully to swere
 Our hoste answerd I ankyn be yo there I smelle a loller in the wynde quod he Nowe good men quod oure host herkeneth me Abideth for goddis digno passion
 For we shalle haue nowa a predicacioun
 This loller wolle preche vs here somwhat Nay be my fadir soule that shalbe not
 He shalle no gospel glase here ne teche
 We leue alle in the grete god quod he
 He wold sowe som difficulte
 Or spryngz cokille in oure clene corne
 And therefore hoost I warne the beforem
 My ioly body shalle a tale telle
 And I shaulle clynke you so mery abelle
 That hit shalle waken alle this company
 But hit shalle not be of philosophy
 Ne of physik ne termes queynt of lawe
 There is but litil latyn in my mawe.

Here begynneth the Squyers tale.

<sup>1</sup> I think the vowel in nat is an a, but am not quite certain.—

SQUIRE'S END-LINK

(WHICH SHOULD HEAD THE FRANKLIN'S PROLOGUE, AND CON-NECT THE SQUIRE'S AND FRANKLIN'S TALKS), WHEN IT IS USED
(I) RIGHTLY BEFORE THE FRANKLIN'S TALE, AS IN THE HAISTWELL MS, AND LAUD MS 600; AND (II) WHOLLY AS THE PROLOGUE TO THE MERCHANT'S TALE, AS IN THE OTHER TEN MSS QUOTED FROM.

Laud 600 amalgamates this Link with the true Prologue to the Franklin's Tale: see No. 33. Seven of the MSS omit lines 7 and 8 of this Link. Though the genuineness of these lines may be questioned, I number them for the present, in order to call attention better to their omission. The Haist-well extract is from my copy made last year, and has not been re-rod with the MS. Mr D. Hall has read the Camb. Univ.
MSS with their extracts here. For the rest, see Specimens I.

TO THE

FRANKLIN'S TALE,

WHEN IT IS MOVED FROM ITS RIGHT PLACE AFTER THE SQUIRE'S TALE.

These false Prologues depend mainly on the Tale which the Franklin's Tale follows, and consist—a. of the whole of the Merchant's End-Link, and the 8 lines of the Squire's short Prologue (as in the Hengwrt and Petworth MSS, and the Camb. Univ. MSS Mm. 2. 5, and Ll. 3. 26). β. of part of the Merchant's End-Link (6 lines turned into a 7-line stanza<sup>2</sup>) with the Squire's short Prologue, 6 of its 8 lines being turned into a 7-line stanza, and the other 2 being left out (as in Sloane 1685, and the Lichfield MS). γ. of the Clerk's 7-line Link (or 'interjectional stanza', p. 28 of Temporary Preface, note 1) either alone, as in MS Trin. Coll. Camb. R. 3. 15 (though there it has lost its first line), or prefixed to the two 7-line stanzas of β (as in Harl. 1753, Barlow 20, Royal 18 C. ii.). When the false Prologue is given, the true Prologue is generally amalgamated with the Tale. The true Prologue is seen independent, in the last two extracts, Harl. 7833 (where it follows the Clerk's Link) and Arch. Seld. B. 14. For the Readers of the MSS, &c., see Specimens I, but substitute Mr D. Hall for Mr Bradshaw. The Petworth extract is from my old copy, and I can't guarantee its correctness.

<sup>1</sup> I call these False Prologues merely for convenience's sake, as of course the Merchant's End-Link is in its true place after the Merchant's Tale, and the Clerk's End-Link is in its true place after the Clerk's Tale.

<sup>2</sup> It is possible that the 7-line stanza was the original form of the line, and that it was altered to suit the present first 8 lines of the Merchant's Link.

TRIAL-TABLES

(NOW SUPERSEDED)

OF THE

GROUPS OF TALES, AND THEIR ORDER, IN CHAUCER'S "CANTERBURY TALES," ACCORDING TO THE EDITED MANUSCRIPTS AND TYRWHITT.

THESE TABLES were drawn up by me last summer to try and find out from the MSS. into what Groups the Tales fell, how those Groups were occasionally broken up, and in what order the Groups succeeded one another. Through not paying proper attention to the geography of the Tales, I was led into the mistake of taking the order of the most careful MS. and editor of the Tales—the Ellesmere and Tyrwhitt—as the right order, and I also wrongly put the Manciple's and Parson's Tales into one Group, whereas they must form two (see my Temporary Preface, pp. 36-7). Nevertheless, these Tables give the order of the Tales in thirty-six MSS. and five old printed editions, and show how the Groups of Tales change their places, and are sometimes broken up. For these purposes the Tables still hold good, and are useful; and they are therefore issued now, though I believe their Order of the Groups is wrong, and that on pp. 42-3 of my Temporary Preface right. The differences of the two orders lie in the lifting up of the Shipman's and the Doctor's Groups, inverted, and the division of the Manciple's and Parson's; the old VII. being moved up to XII., and the old VI. to IV., while the old IX. is made IX. and X. The two Orders are printed side by side in the second column.

"The Lichfield Cathedral MS. has the Tales in the following order," says the Rev. J. G. Lonsdale, "working by the old numbering:—I, II., V. 1, IV. 2, III., IV. 1, V. 2, VIII., VI., VII. (omitting 4, Melibe), IX."

Of other MSS. of the Tales, I have heard only of those of the Duke of Devonshire,—which he has kindly promised to leave at the British Museum for me to see this spring,—Lord Ashburnham's three MSS.; Sir Thomas Phillipps's two—which formerly belonged to John P. Kemble, Esq. (Todd's Illustrations, p. 127)—at Middle-bill; one in the Hunterian Museum at Glasgow; one in a private owner's hands in Devonshire; one at Paris; one (or a fragment) at Naples; Tyrwhitt's Askew 1,—the Haistwell MS., bought at Mr. Haistwell's sale by Mr. Perkins, of Chipstead Place, Kent, left by him as an heirloom to his son, and now (with the house) on lease to Sir Morton Peto,—and the Helmingham MS., belonging to Mr. J. Tollemache of Helmingham Hall, Suffolk. The order of Tales in the Haistwell MS. is the same as in the Ellesmere. The Doctor's, Shipman's, and Second Nun's Tales have no Prologues, and the Parson's Tale ends imperfectly at "and theyges of worldly vanitees" in Chaucer's Prayer at the close of the Tales. Gmelyn, copied from MS. Laud K. 60, by a later hand, on eight leaves, has been inserted in the middle of the Cook's Tale, after p. 100, making the next page 123.

Tyrwhitt notices two other MSS., one belonging to Charles Cholmondeley, Esq., of Yale Royal in Cheshire, and the other to Mr. Norton of Southwick in Hampshire. Of these, or any other MSS. not in the Tables, I shall be glad to get tidings. The Additional MS. 5140 in the British Museum is Tyrwhitt's Askew 2.

 Of his array telle I no lenger tale
 A frankleyn was in his compaignye
 Whit was his berd as is the dalesye
 Of his complexion he was sangvyns
 Wel louede he by the morewe a soppe in wyne
 To lyuen in delite euer was his wone for he was Epiourne owne sone
 That helde oppynon þat pleyn delite
 Was verrey felicite parfite
 An houshaldere and that a gret was he Seint Iulyan he was in his contre His bred his ale was alloweys after on A bettir envyned man / was nowher noon /
 With oute bakemete was neuer his hous
 Of fische and fleishe and þat so plentuous
 He newede in his hous of mete and drynke
 Of alle deynthes that men couthe thinko
 Afur the sondry seasons of the yere
 So changed he his mete and his soper ful many a fat partrich hadde he in Mewe

PETWORTH 10

Justice he was ful often in assise
 Be Patent and be pleine commissioun for his science and in his hie renoun
 Of fees and robes had he manyone
 So grette a purchasour was nowhere none
 Al was fe symple to him in effecte
 His purchasyng myht nouht be infecte
 No-wher so besy a man as he þere nas
 And jitte he semed bisier þan he was In termes had he cas and doomes aft þat fro þe time of Kyng William were fall
 There-to he coude endite and make a jinge
 There couþe no whight pinche at his writinge
 And every statut couþe he pleine be rote
 He rode Rode bot homely in Medle cote Gerte wip a seinþ of silke withe with barres smale
 Of his aray tel I no longer tale
 A frankleyn was in his companye
 White was his berde as is þe dayse
 Of his complexion he was sangvryne
 Welle loued he be þe morewe a soppe in wyne
 To leuen in delit euer was his wonne for he was Opiourne owne sone
 That helde opinioe þat pleine delite
 Was verrey felicite perite Au howse-halder and þat a grete was he

LANSDOWNE 11

That on his shyne / a normal hadde he ffor blankmanger / that made he with the beste A Shipman was ther / wonyng for by weste for aught I woot / he was of Dartemouthe
 He rood vp on a Rouncey / as he kouthe
 In a gowne of faldyng to the knee
 A daggere / hangyng on a laas hadde he Aboute his nekke / vnder his Arm adoun
 The boote somer / hadde maad his hewe al brown
 And certeinly / he was a good felawe fful many a draughte of wyn / had he [y-]drawe ffor Burdeauxward / whil that the Chapman sleepe
 Of nyce consciens / took he no keepe
 If þat he fought and hadde the hyer lond
 By water he sente hem hoom to every lond
 But of his craft / to rekené wel his tydes
 His stremes / and his daungers hym bisyde
 His herberwe / and his moone / his lodmenage

 But fyrst I pray yow of youre curteisye
 That ye narette not myn velanye
 Thow that I pleynly speke in þis matere
 To telle yow here wordys & here cher Ne thow I speke here wordis properly for this ye knowyn als so wel as i?<sup>1</sup>
 Who so schal tells a tale aftyr a man
 He mote reherse as nyh as euer he can Eueriche a word zif it be in his charge
 Al speke he neuer so rowedly & large Or elle he mote telle his tale ontrowe
 Or feyne þyng or fyndyn wordis newe
 He may not spare al-hey he wer<sup>1</sup> his broþer
 He mote as wel seyn on word as a noþer
 Crist spak hym self ful brode in holy writ
 And wel ye wote no relany is it
 Eek plato seyth ho so can hym rede
 The wordys<sup>1</sup> mote be chose to the dede
 Also I preyre yow to foryeue it me Al haue I not set folk in hire degre
 Here in this tale al as þey schelde stonde

CAMBRIDGE 21

But alþer best he song an offerotory for wel he wiste whan þat song was songe
 He moste preche and wel affile his tonge
 To wyne siluer as he [right] wel cowde
 There fore he song so mereli and lowde /
 Now haue I told þow soþly in a clausse
 The estat. the array þe nombre and eke þe causse Whi þat assembled was þis companie
 In Suthwerk at þis gentil hosterie / That highte þe Tabbard faste by þe belle

 And þer vpon þe wyne was fet anon
 We drunken and to reste wente echon
 Wij oute eny lenger taryyng
 On morowe when þe day [bigan] to spryng
 Vp roos oure hooste and was oure alder Cok
 And gadered vs to gideren in a flok.
 And forþ we riden a litel more þan paas Vnto þe wateryng of Seynt Thomas
 And þer our hooste gan his hors areste
 And seide lordes harkenef if yow leste 3e wote þoure forward and I it þou recorde
 If eny songe and morwesonge acorde
 Lat see nows who, shal telle þe firste tale
 As euer mote I drinke wyne or ale
 Who so be rebell to my Iuggement Schal paie for al þat by þe way is spent
 Now draweþ Cut or þat we ferþer twynne
 Whiche þat haþ þe schortest shal bygyne
 ¶ Sir knyght quod he my maister and my lord
 Now draweþ Cutte for þat is myn accorde Cometh nere quod he my lady prioresse
 And 3e sir Clerk lat be þour schamfastnesse
 Ne stodieth nouht lay honde to euery man
 Anon to drawe every wight bygan
 And shortly forto tellen as it was
 Were it be aventure or sort or cas
 The soþe is þis þe Cut fills to þe knyght
 Of which full glad and bliþe was euery wight
 And tellen he most his tale as it was reson
 By forward and by composition
 As 3e han herde what nedet wordes moo
 And when þis good man seugh þat it was soo

1. Boccaccio calls These 'duca di Atene' (L. 13), and says that his father These was 're d'Atene' (L. 6).
2. '— in giubba iscaia' (an eschabille). III. 6.
3. 'Co' i'ondi crui av'velli alla sua festa.' III. 10.
4. The whole debate in prison is an imitation of the longer debate (in the Teuclij) when they meet in the grove.
5. 'Love cannot be given us as thou demest; and he loves but little, who ceases loving in order to keep a promise.' V. 61.
6. Comp. Trilogia and Crestida, IV. 12, 13:
— For some men sein, that God sooth all beforen,
These saute is falser, though men his is sworn,
That perveresunce hath some beforen to be—
Valei storie per fatto digno.
- 7.
8. 'El grand froch' vido tra costoro. VII. 62.
'Richards' is Porter in the Teuclia. VII. 64: the Roman de la Rose is followed here.
9. See Et. of Fama, 108; and Alberto Philospho in Stavens's doctores Alphographia, 1702, vol. II. p. 203.

12. 'Ja Marta armata vido e lo stupore.' VII. 25.
13. 'Le parti bellarini.' VII. 27. Neither Boccaccio, nor yet his prototype Statius, speaks of any ships at sea; but were it as troules.
14. The points marked VII. 21, 22, are taken from the description of 'Agamemone'.
15. The points here are from the descriptions of 'Ippodamo' (VI. 29), of 'Polo' (VI. 17, 18, and of 'Furto' (VI. 41).
16. Compare also stanza 62, 'non vittine gloriose.'
17. 'In il dilito, e tu p' abbia' I. omv.' VII. 27.
18. Arctis in Boccaccio comes from the quarter of 'Buro' (VII. 114): Palemon comes 'dall' altra parte' (VII. 118). No mention is made by Boccaccio of their banners being red and white, as in the Teuclia.
19. Bocc. makes many of them slain: 'Arctilio' 'Corisio' (VIII. 15), 'Elio' 'Ariano' (38), 'Narciso' (50), and others, and describes their funerals (X. 4-8).
20. Boccaccio makes only a general mention of the care and comfort bestowed on the wounded (X. 18).
21. 'Isk of the wounded' Arctis alone could not be cured: so much was he shattered inwardly by his fall' (X. 11).
22. Polo from Boccaccio, differently turned (X. 13).
23. Points from Boccaccio, differently turned (X. 13, 14).
24. 'I wail the last lines from thee, oh dear spouse' (X. 69).
25. '... call e gentile' (X. 63).
26. 'Mun' p'lon' recontarol Teuce, says Boccaccio (XI. 9), and teuclio 'Egeo,' but he immediately goes on to speak of the old man's attempt to console 'Palemon' and the rest,—without the slightest success (XI. 11)—See also XI. 32.
27. Non men dolente, Emilia pur piangosa.
i circonanti più piangosa' Arctis (XI. 31).
28. Right and left of Palemon (XI. 46).
29. In the hands of the noblest of the Greeks (XI. 37.)

þat alle þe pupel of Grece shuld speke
 How Creon was of Theousus yserved
 As he þat had his dep ful wel deserued
 And right anon withouten more abode His baner he displaied and forþ rode To Thebes ward and al his hostes beside No ner Athenes wold he goo no ride
 Ne take his case fulli half a day
 But onward on his way þat nyght he lay
 And sent-anoon ypolitā the queene
 And Emelye hir' yonge suster Shene

 Sche gadereþ floures partie white and redo
 To make a sotil garland for hire heude
 And as an Angel heuenysaly sche songe
 ¶ The grete toure þat was þe pikke and stronge
 Which of þe Castel was þe chief dongeon
 There as þe knyghtes weren in prison
 Of which .I. tolde you and telle schall
 Was euen Ioymant to þe Gardine wait
 There as þis Emely had hir playng
 Briste was þat sonne and clere in þat Morneynge
 And Palamon þis woful prisoner
 As was his wone þe lene of his gaylere
 Was risen and romed in a chambre an hithe
 In which he sitt þe nobel cite eþe

 Of every seruant which þat serueti here
 Wel koude he / heuen wode / and water bere for he was yong / and myghtly for the nones
 And ther to / he was strong and byg of bones

Arrayed was þis god as he tok kep
 As he was whan that Argus tok hese slep
 And seyde hym thus to Athenys seint þou wynde
 There is the schapyn of thi wo an ende
 And with that word Arcyte wok & styrte
 Now trewely how sore that me smerte
 Quod he tathynys / rygh now wole I fare
 Ne for the dred of doeth shal I nat spere
 To se myn lady that I lone & serue
 In here presence I rekke not to sterue
 And with that word he cawte a gret myroure
 And saw that schawged was al hese colour
 And saw hese visage al in another kynde
 And ryte a-non It ran hym in hese mynde
 That sith hese fece was so disfiguryd
 Of maledye which he hadde endured
 He myte wel jif that he bar hym lowe
 Leye in athenys eoure more onknowe
 And sen hese lady wel ny day be day
 And ryte a-non he chawgede hese aray
 And cladde hym as a poure labourer
 And al alone same only a squyer
 That knew hese pryeteis & al hese cas Which was disguised pourely as he was Tathenys is he gon þe nexte way
 And to the court he wente vp-on a day
 And at the gate he profreth hese seruyse
 To drogge & drawe what so man wolde deuyse
 And shortly of this mater for to seyn
 He fil in offys with a chaunbyrleyn
 The whiche that dwellinge was with emalye for he was wys & coude sone espye
 Of every seruant whiche that seruyth here Wel coude he heuyn wode & watyr bere for he was yong & mystry for the nones
 And þerto he was long & big of bones

Armyed was þis god as he took kepe
 As he was when þat argus took his slepe
 And seide him þus to Athenes schalt þou wende
 Ther is þe schapen of þi wo an ende 1392
 And with þat word ariste wook and sterte

 Ne for þe drede of deþ schal I nought spare 1396
 To see my lady þat I loue and serue /
 In hire presence I ne recche nought to sterue /
 And with þat word he caughte a gret mirour
 And saugh þat chaunged was al his colour 1400
 And saugh his visage al in anoper kinde
 And right anon it ran him in his mynde [leaf 20, verso]
 Than sijen his face was so disfigured
 Of malady þe which he hadde endured 1404
 He myghte wel if þat he bare him lowe
 Lyue in Athenes euermore vnknowe /
 And seen his lady wel neigh day by day
 And right anon he changed his array 1408
 And claddo him as a poure laborer
 And al lone saif onely a squier
 That knew his priuete and al þe cas 1412
 Which was disguised pouterly as he was To Athenes is he gon þe nexte way
 And to þe courte he wente vpon a day
 And atte gate he profred his seruise
 To drage and drawe what so men wil deuise 1416
 And shortly of þis matier for to sein
 He felle in office with a chamburleyn /
 The which þat was dwelling with Emelye for he was wys and some coupe aspye 1420
 Of every seruante which þat serueþ here Wel coupe he hewen wode and water bere for he was yong and myghty for þe nonys and perto he was strong and bigge of bones 1424

 The seluir dropes hangyng in þe leues

CORPUS 43

Therfor I passe as lightly as I may ¶ It felle þat in þe vij. ȝere of May The iij. nyght as olde bokes seyn þat al þis story telleþ more playn
 Were it by aventure or destynye
 As when a þing is shape it schal be
 That some after the mydnyght Palamon
 By helþinge of a frende brak prison
 And fleþ þe cite faste as he may goo /
 For he had ȝeue his gaillere drink so
 Of a Clerrey made of a certeyn wyne Wif nerotike and opy of Thebes fyne þat al þat nyght þough þat men wolde hym shake þe Gailler slepte and myste not awake ¶ And þus he fleþ as fast as euer he may þe nyght was schort and faste by þe day þat nedes cost he most him self hiden
 And til a groue faste ther besiden Wif dredful foote þan stalkeþ Palamon for shortly þis was his opynion
 That in þat groue he wolde hym hilde alday
 And in þe nyght þan wolde he take his way
 To Thebes ward his frendes for to prey
 On thessez to helpe hym to worryn
 And schortly eijer he wold less his lif
 Or wyman Emely to his louely wif
 This is pefeste and his entente playn ¶ Nowe wil I turne vnto arcite agayn
 That lital wist howe neith þat was his care
 Til þat fortune had caught hym in his snare
 The bry lark messager of day
 Salueth in her song þe morowe gray
 And fryr Phibus riseþ vp so bright þat al þe Orient laugheth of his sight
 And wif his streames drieth in þe greues /
 The siluer dropes hongyng in þe leues

PETWORTH 43

There-fore .I. passe al so lightly as .I. maye ¶ It fel þat in þe seuent ȝere of maie
 The þridde nyght as holde bokes soine

 Were it be aventure or destany
 As when a þinge is schape it schal bye þat some after þe mydnyght Palamon
 Be helþinge of a frende brake prison
 And fleeth þe cite fast as he mað goo for he had gif his Gailler drinke soo
 Of a clare maade of a certeyn wyne
 Wif nerotike and opie of Thebes fyne
 That al þat nyght þough þat men wold him schake
 The Gaillere slope he myht nouht awake .
 And þus he fleþ as fast as euer he maie
 The nyght was schort and fast be þe daie
 That nedes coste he most him self hiden

 And in þe nyght þan wolde he take his waie
 To Thebes-ward his frendes for to praye
 On Thebes to helpe him to worreie
 Or schortly he wolde less his lif
 Ore wyman Emely to his louely wif
 This is pefeste and his entente pleine
 ¶ Now whiles turne we to Arcite againe
 That lital wiste how niþe þat was his care
 Til þat fortune hadde caught him in his snare
 The best lark messenger of daie Salueth in hir songs þe morwe greie
 And fryr phibus riseþ vp so bright
 þat al þe orient lawþeth of þe sight
 And wif his streame drieth in þe greues

 Out of the Court were it a myle / or tweye
 And to the groue / of which þat I yow tolde
 By auenture / his way / he gan to holde
 To maken hym / a garland / of the greues
 Were it of wodebynde / or hawethorn leues
 And loude he song<sup>t</sup> aeyn the sounne schene
 May / with alle thy flouris and thy grene Wel come be thou / faire freshe May In hope / þat I som grene gete may
 And from his courser / with a lusty herte
 In to a groue / ful hastily he sterte
 And in a path / he rometh vp and doun
 Ther as by auenture / this Palamou Was in a bussil / that no man myghte hym so for score aford of his doeth / thanne was he No thyng he knew he / that it was Arcite
 God woot he wolde hane trowed it ful lite
 Dat sooth is seyd / go sithen many yeres
 That feold hath eyen / and the wode hath erys
 It is ful fair / a man to bere hym euene for al day / meeteth men at vnset steuene ful litel woot Arcite of his felawe
 That was so ny / to herkenen at his sawe for in the bussil / he sitteth now ful stille ¶ Whan þat Arcite / hadde romed al his fill
 And songen al the roundel lustly
 In to a studie / he fil al soodeynly

And arcite that is in þe court royal
 With Theseus is squyer pryncypal
 Is reyn & lokyth on the myrie day
 And for to don hese obseruance to may Remembrynge on the poynt of hese desyr
 He on a courser stertelyng as the fyr
 Is redyn in to þe foldis hym to playe
 Out of the court were it a myle or tweys
 And to þe grene of wheche þat I ȝow tolde
 By auenture his weye he gan to holde
 To make hym a garland of the greuys
 Were it of wode-bynde or hawethora leuys
 And loude he song a-ȝen the sunne schene
 May with alle thyne flourys & thyne grene Welcome be þou fayre fresche may In hope þat I sume grene getyn may
 And from hese courser with a lusty herte
 In-to the grene! ful hastyleche he sterte
 And in a path he romede vp & doun
 There as be auenture this palamoun Was in a bosch that no man myghte hym so for some ofered of hese death was he No þyng he kewe he that it was aruit for al day metij men at vnset! steuene ful litly-wot anyte of hese felawe That was so nyght to heryn of hese tale for in the bosch he sittyth now ful styll ¶ Whan þat Arcite hadde romed al hese fylle

 And sungyn al the roundole lustly
 In-to a stodye he fel soodeynly
 As don þese lonerys in here queynte geres
 Now in the crope now doun in the brerys

And Arcite in þe court roial Wip Theseus his squier principal
 Is risen and lokþ on þe mery day
 And for to doon his obseruance to may Remembyng on þeþ poynt of his desir
 He on his coursere stertyng as þe fir
 Is riden in to þe feeldes him to pleye
 Out of þe court were it a myle or twaye
 And to þe groue of which þat I 3ou tolde
 By aventure his weye he gan to holde /
 To maken him a garland of þe greues
 Were it of woodebynde or hawethorne leues
 And loude he songt aȝein þe sonne scheene /
 May with all þi floures whit and grene Welcome be þou faire freische may I hope þat I som grene gete may
 And from his coursere with a lusty herte
 In to þe groue ful hastily he sterte
 And in a path he rometh vp and down
 Ther as by aventure of þis Palamon
 Was in a busse þat no man might him see Ful sore aȝerd of his deth was he No jinge ne knewe he þat it was arcite
 God wot he wolde haue trowed it ful lite
 But soþ is seide go sippen many ȝeres
 That feeld hap yhen and þe woode hap eeres
 It is ful faire a man to bere him euens / for alday meteþ men at vnsetþ steuene
 ful litel woot arcite of his felawe
 That was so neigh to herken of his sawe for in þe busche he sitteþ now ful stille Whan þat arcite hadde romed all his fillle
 And songen al þe Roundel lustily
 In to a stodie he fel sodeynly

Of al the remenant of myn oother care
 Ne sette I nat the montance of a tare
 So þat I koude / doon aught to youre plesour
 And with that word / he fil down in a trauce
 A longe tyme / and after he vp sterte
 ¶ This Palamon / þat thoughte þat thurgh his herte
 He felte a coold sward / sodeynliche glyde
 for Ire he quook / no lenger wolde he byde
 And when þat he / had herd Arcites tale
 As he were wood / with face / deed and pale
 He sterte hym vp / out of the buskes thikke
 And seide Arcite / false traytour wikke Now artow hent that louest my lady so for whom þat I haue / al this peyne and wo
 And art my blood / and to my conseil sworn
 As I ful ofte / haue seyd thee heer bifore
 And hast bysapid here / duc Theseus
 And falsly / chaunged hast / thy name thus
 I wol be deed / or elles thou shalt dye
 Thou shalt nat / loue my lady Emelye
 But I wol loue hire onely / and nano for I am Palamon / thy mortal foe
 And though þat I no wepene haue in this place
 But out of prison / am asert by grace
 I drede night / þat outhur thou shalt dyo
 Or thou ne shalt nat lousen Emelye Chees which thou wolt / or thou shalt nat asterte
 ¶ This Arcite / with ful despitous herte
 When he hym knew / and hadde his tale herd
 As fiers as leon / pulled out his swerd
 And seyde thus / by god þat sit aboue Nere it / þat thou art sik and wood for loue
 And ek þat thou no wepene hast in this place
 Thou sholdest neuere / out of this groue pace
 That thou ne sholdest dyen of myn hond for I de fyre / the secrete and the bond

Of al the remenant of myn oother care
 Ne sette I nocht, the mountaunce of a tare
 So þat I koude doon aught, to youre plesour
 And with that word / he fil down in a trauce
 A longe tyme / and afterward he vp sterte
 ¶ This Palamon / that thoughte / þat thurgh his herte He felte a coold sward / sodeynly glyde
 for Ire he quook, / no lenger wolde he byde

 And falsly / chaunged hast thy name thus
 I wol be deed / or ellis thou shalt dye
 Thou shalt nocht / loue my lady Emelye
 But I wol loue hire onely / and nano
 for I am Palamon / thy mortal foe
 And though þat I / no wepene haue in this place
 But out of prison / am asert by grace
 I drede night / þat outhur thou shalt dyo
 Or thou ne shalt nocht lousen Emelye Chees which thou wolt / or thou shalt nocht asterte
 ¶ This Arcite / with ful despitous herte
 As fiers as leon / pulled out his swerd
 And seyde thus / by god þat sitteth aboue Nere it þat thou art syk and wood for loue
 And ek þat thou / no wepene hast in this place
 That thou ne sholdest dyen of myn hond
 for I difyre / the secrete and the bond

Of al the remenant of myn oother care
 Ne sette I not the mountaunans of a tare
 So þat I coude don ouyt to youre plesour
 And with þat word he fyl down in a trauce
 A longe tyme & afterward he vp sterte
 This palamon þat thoute þat thow hese herte
 He felte a coold sward sodeynliche glyde
 for yre he quok / no lenger wolde he byde
 And when þat he hadde herd Arcytes tale
 As hewere wod with face ded and pale
 He sterte hym vp out of the boschis þikke
 And seyde arcite false traytour wikke Now art þou hent þat louyst myn lady so for whom þat I haue al þis peyne and wo
 And art myn blod & to myn conseil sworn As I ful ofyn haue seyd þe here be-for
 And hast beispid here deuk Theseus
 And falsely chaunged þyn name thus I wole ben ded or allys þou schat deye þou schat not loue myn lady Emalye
 But I wole lous here only & no mo for I am palamon þyn mortal fo
 And þow þat I no wepene haue in þis place
 But out of prison am stert by grace
 I drede not þat outhur þou schat deyo
 Or þou ne schat not louny emalye
 Ches which þou wyt / or þou schat not asterte
 This Arcyte with ful despitous herte
 When he hym knew & hadde hese tale herd
 As fers as lyoun pullede out a swerd
 And seyde þus bi god that set a-boue Nere it þat þou art sek & wod for lous
 And ek for þou no wepen haue in þis place
 Thow schuldist neuere out of þis grene pace
 That þou ne schuldist deyen of myn hond for I defie the surete & the bond

 And as þow art a ritful lord and Iuge
 Ne zeue vs neyþer mercy ne refuge
 But sele me first for seinte Iarite
 But slec my felawe eke as wel as me
 Or slec hym [first] for pough þo[u] knowest lite
 This is þi mortal ffo þis is arcite
 That fro þi londe is banashed on his heed for whiche he haþ deserved to be dede for þis is he þat come vnto þi gate
 And seide þat he highte Philostrate Thus haþ he laped þe ful mony a zere
 And þou hast made him þi chief squiere
 And þis is he þat loueþ Emelye for siþ þat day is comen þat I schal dye
 I make pleynly my confession
 That I am þilk[e] woful Palamon
 That haþ þi prison broken wikkedly
 I am þi mortal fo and it am I
 That loueþ so hote Emelye þe brist
 That I wil dye present in her siþ
 Wherefore I axe deþ and my Iwes
 But sele my felawe in þe same wise for boþe we han deserved for to be slayn
 This worþi duke answerd anon agayn
 And seide þis is a short conclusion your owne mouþ be your confession Haþ dampned þer þou and I wil it recorde
 Hit needeþ not to pyne þou wip acorde
 He schal be dede by mysty mars þe rede

PETWORTH 50

As it were in a litel list roiallie
 ¶ This Palamon answerd hastelye
 And seide sirs what needeþ wordes mo
 We haue þe deþ deserved boþe tuo
 Two wofult wrecches be we tuo Caytyues
 That bene encumberde of owre owen liues
 And as þou art a rihtful lord and Iuge
 No þif vs neyþer murey ne refuge
 Bot slec me first for seinte Charite
 And slec my felaw eke as welo as me Or slec him for poules thou knowest it lite þis is þi mortal fo þis is Arcite That fro þi londe is banyashed on his heul for whiche he haþe deserved to be dede for þis is he whiche come vn to þi gate
 And seide þat he hilt Philostrate .
 Thus haþe he laped þe ful mony a zere
 And þou hast made him þi chief awyere
 And þis is he þat loueþ Emelye
 for seþ þat daie is come þat .I. schal dije
 .I. make pleynly my confessoion þat .I. am þilke woful palamone þat haþe þi prisone broken wikkolly .
 .I. am þi mortale fo and it am .I.
 þat loueþ so hote Emelye þe brihte
 That wil dije present in hire sihte
 Wherefore .I. axe deþe and my Iuise Bot slec my felawe in þe same wise for boþe we haue deserved to be sleine ¶ This worþi Duc answerd anon aþeine And seide this is a schort conclusioun yourre owrai mouþe be yourre confessoion Haþe dampne þow and it wil recorde

And gij it were a game to here it all
 Til him þat menep wele it ner no charge 2288 Bot it is good a man be at his large Her bright here vn-kempt vtressed al
 A coron of a grene oke serial vpon hire hed sett ful feire and mete 2292 Two fyres on þe auter gan sche bete
 And dide hir pinges as men mai be-holde
 In Stace of Thebes as þes bokes olde When kindeled was þe fire wip pitous chere vnto Diane sche spak as ʒo maye here ¶ O chaste goddess of þe woodes grene
 To whom boþe heuen and erþe and see is seeme Quene of þe regne of Pluto darke and lawe Goddess of maydenes þat myn hert haste knowe 2300 ful many a yere and wost what I. desire
 As kepe me fro þi sreniance and þine ire
 That Attheen aboute cruelly 2304 Chaste goddess wel wost þou þat I.
 Desire to be a maiden al my lif
 No neuer wil I. be no loue ne wi
 I. am þou wost gij of þi compaignie
 A maiden and loue huntynge and venerye 2308 And for to walken in þe woodes wilde
 And nought to bene a wif and be wip childe
 Note wil I. knowe compaignie of man 2312 Now helpe me lady seþþe ʒo maie and can for þre formes þat þu haste in þe
 And palamon þat hap suche a loue to me
 And eke Arcite þat louep me so sore 2316 þis grace I. praye . ʒow wip-owten more
 And sende loue and pees be-twene hem tuo
 And fro me tome awate her hertes soo
 That al her hote loue and desire

 Whil Emelye / was thus in hir prayere
 But sodeynly / she saugh a sighte queynte
 For right anon / oon of the fyres queynte
 And quyked agayn / and after that anon
 That oother fyr was queynt¶ and al agon
 And as it queynte / it made a whistlynge
 As doon thise wete bronides in hir brennyng
 And at the bronides ende / out ran anon
 As it were / bloody dropes many oon for which / so soore agast was Emelye That she was wet nygh mad & gan to crye for she ne wiste / what it signyfyed
 But only for the feere / thus hath she cryed
 And wepe / that it was pitee for to heere
 And ther with al / Dyane gan appeere
 With bowe in honde / right as an hunteresse
 And seyde doghter / stynt thyn heuynesse¶
 Among the goddes hye / it is affermed

(Cant. 11)

And here agayns / no creature on lyue
Of no degree / unallleth for to stryue ¶ Thanne is it wysdom / as it thyngketh me
To maken verta of necessitee
¶ And take þe weel / that we may nat eschue
And nameli / that to vs alle is due
And who so gruceth ought / he dooth folye
And rebel is / to hym þat al may gye
And certeinly / a man hath moost honour
To dyen / in his excellence and flour
When he is siker / of his goode name
Thanne hath he' doun / his freend ne hym no shame
And gladder / oghte his freend been of his deoth
When with honour / vp yolden is his breeth
Than when his name / apalled is for age for al forgeten / is his vasselage Thanne is it best / as for a worthy fame
To dyen / when þat he is best of name
¶ The contrarie of al this / is wilfulnesse
Why grucen we / why haue we heynnesse
That goode Arcite / of Chivalrie flour
Departed is / with dustee and honour
Out of this foule prison / of this lyf
Why grucen here / his cosyng and his wyf
Of his wel fare / that touched no weel
Can he hem thank? nay god woot neuer a deel
That bothe his soule / and eek hem self offende
And yet they moue / hir lustes nat amende ¶ What may I concluden / of this longe serye Bat after so / I rede vs to be merye
And thanken Iuppiter / of al his grace
And er that we / departen from this place
I rede [that] we make / of sorwes two
O parfit ioye / lastyng eueremo
And lookeþ now / wher moost sorwe is her inne
Ther wol we first amenden and bigynne

And heer agayns / no creature on lyue

And er we / departen from this place
I rede we make / of sorwes two
O parfit ioye / lastyng eueremo
And iaketh now / wher moost sorwe is her inne
Ther wol I first amenden and bigynne

And here ageyn no cryatorw on . lyue
Of no degre a wayllth for to stryue Thanne is it wisdom as it þynkyt me
To makyn verta of necessite
And take it wol that we may not eschewe
And nameli that to vs alle is dewe
And ho so grechit out he dooth folye
And rebel is to hym þat al may gye
And scerteynly a man hath most honour
To deyen in hese excellence & flour
When he is sekyr of hese goode nama
Thanne hath he don hese frend no hym no schame
And gladdere with hese frend to ben of deeth
When with honour is yoldyn vp hese breth Than when his name apelyed is for age for al forgetyn is his wasseyllage Thanne is it best as for a worthi fame
A man to deye when he is best of name
¶ The contrarie of al this is wilfulnes
Why grooe we why haue we hounyng
That goode arcite of chynairyre flour
Departid is with deyte & honour
Out of þis foule prysoun of þis lyf
Why gynen here his cosyng & his wif
Of þis welfare that toucheth hem so wel
Can he hem thank nay god woot neuere adel
That boþe hese soule & ek hym self offende
And þit þey moue here luste nat amende
¶ What may I conclude of þis longe serye Bat aftr we I rede vs to be merye
And thankyn Iuppiter of al hese grace
And er þat we departe from þis place
I rede we make of sorrys too
¶ On parfit ioye lastyng eueremo
And iaketh new wher most sorwe is her inne
There wil I first bigynne

 Of no degre auailþ for to stryue

 And rebelt is to him þat all may gye
 And certeinly a man haþ most honour
 To dyen in his excellence and flour
 Than he is siker of his goode name þan haþ he don his frendes ne him no schame
 And gladder oughte his frendes ben of his dep
 Than wiþ honour y-yolden is vp þe broþ
 for al forgotten is his vessallage
 Than is þe beste as for a worþi fame
 To dyen when he is best of name
 The contrarie of alle þis is wilfulness
 Why gruechen we why haue we heynesse
 That goode Arcite of Chivalarie þe flour Departed is wiþ dewte and with honour
 Out of þe foule prison of þis lyf
 Why gruecheþ here his coyn and his wyf
 Of his welfare þat loueþ him so wel
 Kan he hem þank! may god woot neuer a deil
 That þen þe soule and eke him offende /
 And yet þei mowe her lustes nougt amende
 What may conclude of þis longe serie
 But after wo I rede vs to be merie
 And þenke Iubifer of all his grace
 And or we departen from þis place
 I rede we make of sorowes tuo
 O partyt ioye lastyng our mo
 And lokeþ now where most sorwe is inne
 Ther wil I first amenden and bygyne

 That ye shal of youre [grace] vpon him rowe
 And taken for husband and for lord
 Lene me yourr hond for this is oure acord Lete see now if youre womanly pitee
 He is a kyngis brother some pardo
 And thow he be a poure bachelor Sithen he hath serued you so many a yere
 And had for you so greet aduersite
 It moete be considered dounth mo sfor genyly mercy owth to passyn ryght
 Than seyde he þus to palamoun ful ryght
 I trowe þere nedeth lytil sermonyng
 To make you assente to the thyng
 Come ner & tak youre lady by the hond
 By-twixen hem was maad anon the bond
 That highte matrimonye or mariage
 By al the entre & the barounage
 And þus with all blyss & melody
 Hath Palamoun I-wedded emely
 And god þat al þis wyde world hath wrought Synde hym his loue þat hath it dere aboght for now is Palamoun in alle wale lyrnyng in blyss in richesse & in hele
 And Emelye hym lenth so tenderly
 And he here seruyth so genylyly
 That neuere was þere no word hem be-twe-
 Of Ialousye or any ooper tene
 Thus endyth Palamoun & Emelye
 And god saue al this flayr compaynye

And thus / this swete clerk his tyme spente
 After his freendes fyndyng and his rente
 ¶ This Carpenter / hadde wedded newe a wyf Which that he louede / more than his lyf /
 Of .xviij. year / she was of Age Ialous he was / and heold hire narwe in cage for she was yong and wyde / and he was old
 And demed hym self beam lyk / a Cokowold
 He knew nat Calous / for his wit was rude
 That had / man sholde wedde his symilitude Men sholde wedden after hire estaat for youthe and elde / is often at debate
 But sith that he / was fallen in the snare
 He mooste endure / as oother folk his care ¶ fair was this yonge wyf / and ther with al
 As any wesele / hir body / gent and smal
 A ceynt she wored / ybarred al of silk
 A barnclooth [eek] / as whit as mome Milk
 Vp on hir lendes / ful of many a goore
 Whit was hir smok / and broyden al bifore
 And eek bihynde / on hir coler aboute
 Of colbak silk / with-linne and eek w/it-oute
 The tapes / of hir white voluper

 3296 þat but þe waito wole and by priue I woote right wel I no am but dede quod she þe mote be ful derne as in þis cas
 Nay þerof care þou not quod Nicholas
 A Clerk has liferly bysette his while 3300 But if he coupe a carpenter begile
 And þus þei acorded and sworne
 To awaite a tyme as I haue scide biforn
 When Nicholas had don þis eury dele 3304 And thanked her aboute þe lendes welle
 He kisseþ her swete and takeþ his sautrie
 And playeþ fast and makeþ melodey þan fille it þus þat to þe parissch chirche 3308 Cristes werkes for to wirche
 This good wif went vpon an halyday
 Hir forhed schon as bright as any day
 So was it wasshe whan she lefþ her werk 3312 Now was þere of þe chirch a parissch clerk þe which was cleped absalot Crulle was his heer and as þe golde shone 3316 And strutted as [a] fanne large and brode ful streite and euene laie his Ioly shode
 His rulle was rode his oren grey as goos
 Wij Powles wyndowes coruen in his schoos
 In hoesen rode he wente fetialy 3320 I-clad he was ful smal and propriy Al in a kirtel of light waget ful faire and pikke ben þe poyntes sette
 And þer-vpon he had [a] gay surpise 3324 As white as is þe blossom on [the] rise
 A mery child he was so god me saue
 Wel coude he late blood [and] clippe and shawe

 Sche loueþ soo þis heende Nicholas
 That absolon maie blowe þe bokkes horn
 He ne hap for his labour bot a scorene
 And þus sche Makeþ Absolon hire Ape
 And al his earnest<sup>t</sup> torney<sup>t</sup> till a Lape
 For soþe is þis prouerbe it is no lye
 Men sein right þus Alweie þe neigh<sup>t</sup> Sley<sup>t</sup>
 Makeþ þe fer leue to be loþe
 For þouge þat Absolon be wode or wroþe
 Be cause þat he fer was from hir<sup>t</sup> siht
 This nyhe Nicholas stode in his lilt ¶ Nowe bere þowe wete heende Nicholas for Absolon may waille and synge allas

And so bifel it on a Saturday

And so bifel it on a saturday
 This carpenter was gon to Osenay
 And hende nicholas & Alisour
 Accordede ben to this conclusioun
 That Nicholas schal shapen hym a wile
 This sely Ialous housbonde to begyle
 And if so be this game wente aright Sche schulde slepe in hese arms al nyght for this was here desyr & hese also
 And rygh a-non with-outyn wordis mo
 This nicholas no lengere wolde tarye
 But doth ful softe vnto hese chambere carye Bothe mete & drynk for a day or tweye
 And to here housbonde bad here for to seye if that he axede aftyr Nicholas Sche schulde seye he nyste neuer wher he was
 Of al þe day sche sey hym not with ye Sche trowyth þat he was in malady for no cry here mayde coude calle
 He nolde answers for no thyng that myghte falle
 This passeth forth al þat saturday
 That Nicholas stille in hese chambere lay
 And et & slep & dede what hym lyste
 Thil soneday þat the somme goth to reste
 This sely carpenter hath so greet merueyle
 Of Nicholas or what thyng myghte hym eyle
 And seyde I am adred be seynt thomays
 It stondyth not a-rygh with nicholas
 God schyld þat he deyde sodeynly
 This world is now ful tekyly eikerly
 I saw to-day a coes boorn to scherche
 That now on moneday last I saugh hym werche Go vp quod he vn to hese knaue a-non Clepe at hese dore or knokke with a ston Loke how it is & telle me boldly
 This knaue goth hym vp ful sturdily

And so bifell it on a Saturday
 This Carpenter was gon to Oseney
 And heende Nicholas and Alison Accorded he to his Conclusion
 That Nicholas schal schapen hem a wile
 This seely Ialous husbonde to by-gyle
 And if so be he game wente aright Sche scholde slepen in his arm al nyght for jis was his desyr and hire also
 And right anon wijouten wordes mo
 This Nicholas no longer wolde tarie
 But doþ ful softe vnto his chambre carie Boþe mete and drynke for a day or tweye
 And to hire husbonde bad hir for to seye
 If þat he axed after Nicholas Sche scholde sey sche nyete wher he was
 Of al þat day sche seigh him nought wij eye Sche trowed þat he was in maladye for no cry hir mayde coupe him calle he nolde answer for noþing þat mighte fülle
 This passeþ forþ al þilke Saturday
 That Nicholas stille in his Chambr lay
 And eet or slep or dede what him liste
 Til sonday þat þe somme goþ to roste
 This seely carpunter haþ greþ meruayle
 Of Nicholas or what þing might þe him ayle
 And sayde I am adrad by seynt Thomas
 It stoneth not aright with Nicholas
 God schilde þat he deide sodenly
 This world is now ful tykeþ sikerly
 I seigh to day a coers y-born to cherche
 That now a monday last I saugh him werche
 Go vp quod he vnto his knaue anon
 Clepe at his dore or knoocke with a stoþn loke how it is and telle me holdely
 This knaue goþ him vp ful sturdily

And so by-felle it on a Saterday
 This Carpentier was gone to Oseney
 And hende Nicholas and Alison Accorded were to his conclusiõ þat Nicholas schal schapen hym a wile
 This seely Ialous husbonde to begyle
 And if so be þe game went a rizeþ
 She schulde slepe in his arme al þat nyzt For þis [was] his desire and hers also
 And rizeþ anon wij-oute wordes moo/
 This Nicholas no longer wold tarie
 But doþ ful softe into his chamber carie
 Both mete and drinke for a days or tweye
 And to hire husbonde bad hire for to seie
 If þat he asked after Nicholas
 She schulde seie she nyzt not wher he was
 Of al þat day she see hym not wij eye
 She trowed þat he was in maladye for no crye her maide can calle
 He nolde answer for nouzt that may bifulle
 This passeþ forþ al þe Saturday
 That Nicholas stille in his bed lay
 And ete and slepte and [dede] what hym lest Til sonday þat þe somme goþ to rest
 This seely Carpenter haþ grete martelle
 Of Nicholas or what þing myzt hym aile
 And seide I am a-drad by seynt Thomas
 It stoneth not a-rizeþ wij Nicholas
 God shilde þat he deyed sodenly
 This world is now ful tilkil sikerly
 I segh to-day a coers born to chirche
 That now on monday I segh fast wiche
 Go vp quod he to his knaue anon
 Clepe at his dore or knoocke wij a stoþn Loke howe it is and telle me holdely þis knaue went him vp ful sturdily

And so be-fell it on a saterdaye
 This Carpentier was gone to Oseneye
 And hende Nicholas and Alison
 Accorded hie to his conclusions That Nicholas schapen hem a wile þese seely Ielouse husbonde to be-gylye
 And if so be þe game went arhit Sche scholde slepen in his arme al nyht for þis was his desire and hire also
 And rihht anon wij-oute wordes moo
 This Nicholas no langere wolde tarre
 Bot doþe soft vn to his chambre Carye
 Boþe mete and drinke for a daie or tweye
 And to hire husbonde bad hire for to seie
 If þat he axede after Nicholas Sche scholde seie sche nyzt wher he was
 Of al þat daie sche seithe him nouzt with Eye Sche trowed þat he was in sum Maladye for no crye hire maide coupe him calle
 He wolde answer for noþing þat myht falle
 This passeþ forþe al þilke Saturdaie þat Nicholas still in his chambr leye
 And ete or slopede or didde what him liste
 Til þe sonday þat þe sonday goþ to riete
 This seely Carpentier haþe grete Merveile
 Of Nicholas or what þinge miht him alle
 And seide i. am adrede be seint Thomas
 It stondeþ nouht a-riht wij Nicholas
 God schelde þat he deyede sodenly
 This werlde is nows ful tekel sikurly
 I. sihe to daie a corpe borne to cherche
 That nowe on Monoudais last .i. sawhe him werche
 Go vp quod he vn to [his] knaue anon
 Clepe at his dore or knoocke wij a stone Looke howe it is and tel me holdely .
 This knaue goþ him vp ful studey

And at the chambre dore / whil that he stood
 He cryde and knocked / as that he were wood 3436
 What how / what do ye maister Nicholas
 How may ye slegen / al the longe day ¶ But al for nocht he herde nat a word
 An hole he found / ful love vp on a bord 3440

 Men myhten here routeynge half a furlonge
 The wenche routeþe eke þar compaigne
 Alayne þe clerke þat herde þis melodye 4168

He poked Iohn / and seyde slepestow
 Herdow euere alyk / a sang er now
 Lo wylk a cowplyng / is ymel hem alle
 A wilde fyr / vp on thair bodyes falle
 Who herked euere / slyk a ferly thyng
 Ye they sal haue / the flour of il endyng
 This lauge nyght / ther tydes me na reste
 But yet na force / al sal be for the beste
 ffor Iohn seyde he / als euere moot I thryue
 If jat I may / yon wenche wil I swyue Som esement / has laue yshapen vs ffor Iohn / ther is a laue / that says thus That gif a man / in a point / be ygreued
 That in another / he sal be releued
 Oure corn is steln / shortly is no may
 And we han had / an il fit al this day
 And syn I sal haue neen amendement
 Agayn my los / I wil haue esement
 By God sale / it sal neen other be
 ¶ This Iohn answerde / Alayn auyse thee
 The Millere / is a perilous man he seyde
 And gif that he / out of his slepe abreyde
 He myghte doon vs / bathe a vileynye ¶ Alayn answerde / I counte hym nat a flye
 And vp he rist / and by the wenche he crepte
 This wenche lay vprighte / and faste slepte
 Til he so nygh was / er she myghte aspie
 That it had been / to late for to crie
 And shortly for to syn / they were aton
 Now play Alayn / for I wol speke of Iohn
 ¶ This Iohn lith stille / a furlong wey or two
 And to hym self / he maketh routhe and wo
 Alas quod he / this is a wikked lape
 Now may I seyn / that I is but an Ape
 Yet has my felawe / som what for his harm
 He has / the Milleris doghter / in his Arm

He poked Iohn / and seyde slepestow
 Herd thow euere / slyk a sang er now
 Lo swilk a cowplyng / is ymel hem alle
 A wilde fyr / on thair bodyes falle
 Who herked euere / swilk a ferly thyng
 Ye they sal haue / the flour of il endyng
 This laug nyght / ther tydes me na reste
 But yet na force / al sal be for the beste
 ffor Iohn seyde he / als euere moot I thryue
 If jat I may / yon wenche wol I swyue Som esement / has laue shapen vs ffor Iohn / ther is a laue / jat says thus That gif a man / in a point be sgreued
 That in another / he sal be releued
 Oure corn is steln / soothly it is na may
 And we han had / an illo fit to day
 And syn I sal / haue naan amendement
 Agayn my los / I wil haue esement
 By goddes saule / it sal naan other be
 ¶ This Iohn answerde / Alayn auyse thee
 And gif jat he / out of his sleep abrayde
 He mighte doon vs / bathe / a vileynye ¶ Alayn answerde / I counte hym nocht a flye
 And vp he rist / and by the wenche he crepte
 This wenche lay vp righte / and faste slepte
 Til he so neigh was / er she myghte aspie
 That it hadde been / to late for to crie
 And shortly for to syn / they were at oon
 Now play Alayn / for I wol speke of Iohn
 ¶ This Iohn lith stille / a furlang wey or two
 And to hym self / he maketh routhe and wo
 Alas quod he / this is a wikked lape
 Now may I seyn / jat I is but an ape
 Yet has my felawe / som what for his harm
 He has the Milleris doghter / in his arm

He poked ion & seyde slepist þou
 Hardist þou euere swich a song er now
 Lo swich a copil is a-mong hem alle
 A wilde fyr mote on here bodyis falle
 Ho herkenyth euere swich a ferly thyng
 Ja þey schal haue þe flour of ille endyng
 This longe nyxt þere tydis me no reste
 But jit no fors al schal ben for the beste ffor Iohn seyde he as euere mote I thryue 3if jat I may þe wenche wele I schryue Sum esement has laue I-schapyu vs ffor Iohn þere is a laue þat says þus
 That gif a man in a poynt be a-greuyd
 That in a noþer he schal ben releuyd Oure corn is steln schortly it is non may
 And we han had an ille fit al þis day
 And syn I schal han non a-mendement
 A-gayn my los I wels haue esement
 By godys sale it schal non oþer be ¶ This Iohn answerde Alay a-vise þe
 The mellere is a perlyous man he seyde
 And gif þat he out of hese slep a-breyde
 He myste vs don bothe a velayne
 Alayn answerde I counte hym not a flye
 And vp he sterte & by þe wenche he crepte
 This wenche lay vp ryght & faste slepte
 Tyt he so nygh was er she myghte aspye
 That it hadde be to late for to crye
 And schortly for to asyn þey were at on Now play alayn for I wels speke of ion
 This Iokur lyth stalle a furlang wey or too
 And to hym self he makyth routhe & woo
 Alas quod he þis is a wokede iape
 Now may I seyn þat I is but an ape
 3if hath myn felawe sumwhat for hese harm
 He has þe melleris doujtyr in hese arm he pokede Iohn and seyde slepist' þou herdest euer slikt' a sang' at þow to swilke a couplyng' is bitwixe hem alle A wilde fyr on þair bodies falle he herkened euer slikt' a ferly þing'

Ye þai saht haue þe flour of yff endyng'
This lango night' þe r tydes mo na reste/
But' jif na force al schal be for þe beste for Iohn seide als euer mote I þrue
If þat I may yon weneche wol I swyzo Som esement hap lawe schapen vs for Iohn þer is a lawe þat seith þus
That if a man in a poynt' be agreoned
That in anoþer he schal be releued Oure corn is stolen soþly it is no may
And we han had an ylle fitte to day
And syn I schal haue noon amedement
Agayn my losse I wol haue esement
By goddes saule it sal nan oþir be
This Iohn answerde Alayn so mot I þe
The meller is a perilous man he seyde
And if þat he out of his slepe abraide he myghte don vs boþe a vilanye Alayn answerde I counte him nought' a flye
And vp he rist and by þe weneche he crepte
This weneche lay vpright' and faste slepte
Til he so neigh was or sche myghte sye
That it hadde been to late for to crye
And shortly for to seyn þei were at oon
Now play alayn for I wol speke of Iohn
This Iohn liþ stille a forlong' wey or mo
And to himself he makeþ rouþe and wo
Alas quod he þis is a wikked Iape
Now may I seyn þat I is but an ape þet hap my felaw somewhat for his harme he has þe myllers doughter in his arm'

He pouked on Iohn and seide slepestowe
Herde þou euer sliktie a sang' or nowe
Lo sliktie a conplinge is ytwix hem alle
A wilde fire on her bodies falle Who herkened euero sliktie a ferly þinge þe þei schal haue þe flour of eucl endinge
This lango nyzt' þer tydes men no reste
But' jif na fors al schal be for þe beste for Iohn seide he as euere mote I þrue
If þat I may 3on weneche þan wil I swyzo
Some esement hap lawe schapen vs
for Iohn þer is a lawe þat seith þus
That if a man in oon poynt' be agreued

Agayn my losse I wil haue esement' By goddes saule it sal na noþer be þis Iohn answerde Alayn avise þe
The Mellere is a perilous man he seide
And if þat he out of his slepe abreide
He myghte don vs boþ a vylanye
Alayn answerd I counte hym not' a flye
And vp he rist and by þe weneche he crepte
This weneche lay vpright' and faste slepte
Til he so nygth was or she myghte spie þat it hadde been to late for to crye
And shortly for to sei þei were at oon Nowe plays Alayn for I wil speke of Iohn
This Iohn lith stille a forlonge way or two
And to hym self he makeþ wamenting' and wo
Alas quod he þis is a wikked Iape
Now may I seie þat I is but an ape jif hap my felawe somewhat for his harme
He hap þe millers doughter in his arme

He poukede Iohn and seide al-peest þou Herdest þou euer slyktie a sang' or nowe
Lo swilke a conplinge es bitwene hem alle.
A wilde fire on þaire bodies falle Who herle euere slyktie a ferly þinge þe þei schal haue þe flour of il endyng'

HENGWRT 122

But er þou go on thyng I welle þe telle
 When þat þou wendest' homward be þe melle Ryzt at þe entree of þe dore be-hynde <sup>[leaf 101]</sup> þou schalt a cake of half a bussel fynde 4244 þat was I-makyd ryzt of þyn owene mele
 Which þat I halp myn fadir for to etele
 And good leman god þe saue & kepe
 And with þat word schone gan almost to wepe 4248
 Aleyn vp ryzt & thoughte er þan it dawo
 I welle gon crepe in by myn felawe
 And fond þe cradyll with hese hand a-non
 By god þouzt he al wrong I haue mys gon 4252 Myn heed is toty of myn swynk to nyzt þat makyth me þat I go not' aryt
 I wot wel by þe cradyll I haue anys gon
 Here lyth þe wellere & hese wyf also 4256
 And forth he goth a twenty deulaway
 Vn to þe bed þere þat þe wellere lay
 He wende a crepid bi hese felawe Ion
 An by þe wellere in he crepede a-non 4260
 And caughte hym by þe nekke softe he spak
 He seyde þou Iohn þou swucnyst a-wak for cristis soule & here a noble game sfor by þat lord þat called is seynt Iame 4264
 As I haue thries in þe schorte nyzt Swyuyd þe milleris douztyr bolt vp ryzt Whil þou hast as a coward been a-gast þa false harlot' quod þe wellere hast 4268
 A false traytour false clerk' quod he Thou schalt ben ded be godis dynete
 Ho durste ben so bold to disparage
 Myn douztyr þat is comyn of swych lounge 4272
 And by the throte bolle he caughte aleyn
 And he hente hym despitously a-gayn
 And on þe nose he smot' hym with hese feet Down ran þe blod stream vp on hys brest' 4276

Dut' er pou go oo pinge! I wol þe telle
 Whan þat þou wendest homward by þe melle
 Right at þe entre of þe dore behynde
 Thou shalt a cake of half a busshel fynde
 That was y-maked of þin oughe mele
 Which þat I hilpe my sire for to stole
 And good lemmen god þe saue and kepe/
 And with þat word almost sche gan to weepe (not ce) 4248
 Alayn vprist and þought' or þat it' dawe/
 I wol go crepen in by my felawe/
 And fond þe cradel wip his hond anon
 By god þought' he al wrang! I haue mygeon
 Myn hede is toty of my swynk' to nyght
 That makeþ me þat I go nought' ariht'
 I wot wel by þe cradel I haue mygo here lith þe meller and his wif' also
 And forþ he goþ on twenty deulway vnto þe bed þer as þe meller lay he wende haue copen by his felawe Iohā
 And by þe meller in he crep anon
 And caught' him by þe necke and softe he spak' he seyde þou Iohā þou swynshede awak' for cristes sawle and heer a noble game/for by þat lord þat called is saint' Iame
 As I haue pries in þis schorte nyght
 Swyued þe mellers daughter bolt' vprigh[t] Whil þou hast as a coward ben agast þe false hadot' quod þe meller hast
 A fals traitour fals clerk' quod he þou shalt be dede by goddes dignite
 Who durste be so bolde to disparage
 My daughter þat is comen of such lynage
 And by þe prote bolle he caught' alayn
 And he hent' him dispitouly agayn
 And on þe nose he smot' him with his fiste/
 Down ran þe bloody streem vpon his briste

Dut' er þott' goo. on pingo I wil þe telle
 Whhan þat þow wendest' homward by þ' melle
 Right at þe entre of þe dore be-hinde
 Thou shalt a Cake of half a busshel fynde
 That' was ymakod of þine owne mele Which þat I helpe my Sire forto stole
 And good lemmen god þe saue and kepe
 And wip þat word almost' she gan to wepe
 Aleyn vprist and þouþt' er þat it' dawe
 I wol go copen in by my felawe
 And fonde þe cradel wip his honde anon
 By god þought' he alwron / I haue mygeon
 Myn hede is toty of my swynk' to nyght
 þat' makeþ me þat I go not' ariht'
 I wote welo by þe cradel I haue mygo
 Here lith þe meller' and his wif' also
 And forþ he goþ on twenty delway vnto þe bedde þer as þe meller' lay
 He wende haue copen by his felawe Iohā
 And by þe Meller' in he crept' anon
 And kaupt' him by þe nek and soft he spake
 And seide þou Iohā þou swynshede awake
 Of Cristes saule and here a noble game
 for by þat lord' þat called is saint' Iame
 As I haue pries in þis shorte nygt'
 Swyued þe Mellers donst'er bolt' vprist Whilet' þow hast as a Coward' ben agast'
 To fals hadot' quod þe Mellers hast'
 A fals traitour. fals clerk' quod he þow shalt be dede by goddes dignyte
 Who durste be so bolde to disparage
 My donst'er þat is come of swich lynage
 And by þe prote bolle he kaupt' aleyn
 And he him hent' dispitouly agayn
 And on þe nose he smote hym with his fist' Downe ranne þe blod'y streem vpon his brist'

Bot' er pou go oo pinge .I. wil þe telle
 Whan þat þou wendest' homwarde þe melle
 Riht at þe entre of þe dore be-hinde
 Thou shalt a cake of halfe a buschett' finde
 That was ymakod of þin owne mele Whiche þat .I. helpe my sire for to stole
 And good lemmen and god þe saue and kepe
 And wip þat word almost' she gan to wepe
 Aleine vprist and þouht' or þat-it' dawe
 .I. wil go crepen inne be my felawe
 And fonde þe cradel wip his honde anon
 Be god þouht' [he] al wrango .I. haue mys' gone Myns hede is toty of my swynke to nyhte þat makeþ me þat .I. go nouht' arihte
 .I. wote welo be þe cradel .I. haue mys' go Here liþe þe meller' and his wif' al so
 And forþe he goþe a twenty deuel weye vnto þe bedde þere as þe Meller' lye
 He wende haue copen be his felawe Iohā
 And by þe Meller' in he crepe a-none
 And kaupt' him be þe necke and soft he spakko
 He seide þou Iohā þou swineshede awake for cristes soule and here a noble game for [þy] þat lord' þat called is sainto Iame
 As .I. haue pries in þis schorte nyhte
 Swyuede þe meller' doughter bolt' vpriht While þou hast as a coward' bene agaste þe false hadot' quod Meller' haste
 A false traytur fals' traitur quod he Thou schal be dede be goddes dignite
 Who dorste be so bolde to disparage
 My doulter þat is comen of such' lignage
 ¶ And be prote bolle he caught' Aleyn
 And he hente him dispitouly a-geine
 And on þe nose he smote him wip his fiste Downe ran þe blode streem vpon his briste

And in the flour / with nose and mouth to-broke
 They walwe / as donn two pigges in a poke
 And vp they goon / and down agayn anon
 Til that the Millere / sporned at a stoon
 And down he fil / bakward vp on his wyf
 That wiste no thyng / of this nyce stryf / for she was falle asleepe a lite wight
 With Iohn the clerk / that waked hadde al nyght
 And with the fal / out of hir sleepe she bryde
 Help booly crye of Bromholm / she seyde
 In manus tuas / lord to thee I calle
 Awake Symond / the feund is on vs falle
 Myn herte is broken / help I nam but ded
 Ther lyth oon / vp on my wombe / and on myn heed
 Help Symkyn / for the false clerkes fighte
 ¶ This Iohn styrte vp / as wone as ener he myghte
 And graspih by the walles to and fro
 To fynde a staf / and she styrte vp also
 And knewe the Estrea / bet than dide this Iohn
 And by the wal / a staf she found anon
 And saugh / a litel shymeryng of a light flor at an hole / in schoon the moone bright And by that light she saugh hem bothe two But sickerly / she nyste / who was who
 But as she saugh / a whit thyng in hir eye

 As is the hyve / ful of hony swete
 Wel was the wenche / with hym myghte meete
 At every bridale / wolde he syng and hoppe
 He loved bet the Tauerne than the shoppe
 ¶ For / when ther / any ridyng was in Chepe
 Out of the shoppe / thider wolde he lepe
 Til that he hadde / al the sighte yseyn
 And daunced wel / he wolde nat come ageyn
 And gadred hym / a meynce of his sort
 To hoppe and syng / and maken swich disport
 And ther / they setten steuene for to meete
 To pleyen / at the dys in awich a strette flor in the town / nas ther no prentys
 That fairer koude caste / a paire of dys
 Than Perkyn koude / and ther-to he was free

The þe knyghtes herden aȝke þat he lay
 Had þei no rust nother nyght no day
 Til þei come to him þer he lay stille
 On his deſt bed to a-bide goddes wille
 Then seide þe good knyght sike þere he lay Lordes I þow warne for soth with-oute nay
 I may no langer lyuen here in this etoude for thorough guddes wille deſt drawes me to grounde Ther nas none of hem alle þat herd hem a right
 That thei hadden reuthe of þat ilke knyght
 And seiden sир for goddes loue ne dismay þow nougt
 God may done bote of hale þat is now I-wrought
 Than spake þe gode knyght sike þere he lay Bote of hale god may sende I wot it is no nay
 But I byseke þow knyghtes for the loue of me
 Goth and dresseth my londes among my sones thre
 And for the loue of god deliſh not hem amys
 And forȝetþ not Gamelyn my þong some þat is Takip hede to that one as wel as to that other Seid þe seen any heire helpen his brother
 The leten þei the knyght lyen þat was not in hede
 And wenten in to counsell his londis for to dele sfor to delem hem alle to oon that was her þoght
 And for Gamelyn was þongest he shuld haue nougt Alle þe lond þat þer was þei dalten it in two
 And leten Gamelyn þe þong with-outen lond go
 And eche of hem seide to oþer ful lowde
 His breþrin might ȝene him lond when he good cowde
 When thei hadde delid the lond at her wille Thei comen to þe knyght þer he lay stille
 And told him a-non how thei had wroght
 And the knyght ther he lay likid it right nougt
 Than seide the knyght by seynt martyn

 And I biseeche you good men þat larve come of londe
 For Gamelynes loue: þat my quest stoude
 Thus dalte þe knyȝt. his londe by his day
 Riht on his deþ bod sik þer he lay
 And sone afterward he lay stoon stille
 And deide when tyme come: as it was cristes wille
 Anon as he was dede and vnder gras graue
 Sone þ<sup>r</sup> elder broþer giled þe yonge knaue
 He toke into his honde his londe and his lode
 And Gamelyne him seluen to cloþe and to fede
 He cloþed him and fedde him/ emelt and eke wrothe
 And lete his londes forfare: and his houses boþe
 His Parkes and his woodes: and did no þing welle
 And eȝen he it aboute on his owne felle
 So longe was Gamelyn in his broþers hallo for þe strengeste of good wil þei douten hym alle þer was noon þer-inne neiþer zonge no olde þat wolde wrothe Gamelyn. were he neuer so bolde Gamelyne stood on a day: in his broþers zerde
 And byganne with his hond/ to handlen his berde
 He pouȝt on his landes þat lay vnsowe
 And his fare okes þat downe were ydrawe
 His Parkes were broken/ and his deer vrued
 Of alle his good stedes/ non was hym byleued
 His hous were vnhillid/ and ful euell dight
 The pouȝt Gamelyne it went not arȝt ¶ Afterward come his broþer walkyng þere
 And seide to Gamelyn. is oure mete zere
 The wrahted him Gamelyn/ and swore by goddys boke þow shalt go bake þi self/ I wil not be þi coke

Iohā myne eldest son schal haue plowes fyue þat was my faders heritage while he was on lyue
 And my Meddelste soñ fyue plowhos of londe
 That .I. helpe for to geten wiþ my riht londe
 And al myn oþere purchas of londes and lodes
 That .I. be-questhe Gamelyne and al my goode stedes
 And .I. be-seeke þow good men þat larve come of londe for Gamelyn lous þat my quest stoude ¶ Thus dalte þe knyht his londe be his daye Riht on his deþe bod seke þere he laye
 And sone afterward he laye ston stoff
 And deide when time came as it was cristes wille Anone as he was dede and vnder gras graue
 Sone þe alder broþer giled þe yonge knaue
 And teke in-to his honde his londe and his lode
 And Gamelin him selve to cle and to fede
 He cloþed him and fedde yuel. and eke wroþe
 And lete his for fare and his housȝ bothe
 His Parkes and his wodes and dide no þinge wel
 And toppen he it aboute on his faire fel
 So longe was Gamelin in his broþers half for þe strongest of good wil þei douten him all Ne was þere none þer-inne zonge ne olde
 That wold wroþþe waro he neuer so bolde ¶ Gamelyn stode vp on a daie in his broþere zerde
 And be-gan wiþ his honde to handel his berde
 He pouhte on his londes þat layen vnsawe
 And his faire Okes þat downe were drawe
 His parkes were broken and his dere reuode
 Of all his goode stedes was none him be-louede
 His houses weren vnhalde and ful euell dȝiht
 The pouht Gamelyn it wente nouht a-riht
 Afterward cam his broþer walkyng þere
 And seide to Gamelin is oure mete zere þo him wraþþed Gamelyn and suore be goddes boke Thou schalt go bake þi selfe .I. wil nouȝt be þi coke

xxxi*

Now broþer Gamelyn how answerest þow now
 Thou spakkest neuer such a word as þow dost now
 By my feith seide Gamelyn now me thinkith nedo
 Of alle þe harmes þat I haue I toke neuer yet hede
 My parkes ben broken and my dere by-reved
 Of myn armes and my stedes night is me byloued
 Al þat my fadir me bi-quath al goth to schame
 And þer-for haue þou goddis curs brother by thyn name
 Than spake his brother þat ropo was of rees Stand stille gadlyng and hold þi pees þou shalt be fayn to haue þi mete and þi wede
 What spekest þou gadlyng of lond or of lede þan seide Gamelyn þe child þat yng
 Cristes curs mote he haue þat clepeth me gadlyng
 I am no worse gadlyng no no worse wight
 But borne of a lady and geten of a knyght
 Ne dost he not to Gamelyn neuer a fote go
 But clepid to him his men and seide to hem tho Goth and betith this boy and reueth him his witte
 And lete him lerne an other to answero me bette
 Then seide þe child yong Gamelyn
 Cristes curs mote þou haue brother art þou myn
 And gif I shal algate be beten a-noon
 Cristes curs mote þou haue but þou be that oon
 And anoth his brother in þat grote hete
 Made his men to fette staffes Gamelyn to bete
 When euery of hem had a staff i-nomen
 Gamelyn was war þo he seigh hem comen
 The Gamelyn sigh hem comen he lokid ouer aft
 And was warre of a pestel stood vnder þe wall
 Gamelyn was light and pider con he lepe
 And droff alle his brothers men right some on hepe
 And lokid as a wild lion. and layde on gode wone
 Tho his brother sei þat he by-gan to gone
 He flep vp in to a loft and shete þe dore faste
 This Gamelyn with his pestel mad hem al a-gast

Now brother Gamelyn how vnswarest thou now.
 Thou spakkest neuer such a word as thou dost now.
 Be my feith seide Gamelyn now me thyzketh nedo.
 Of alle the harmes that I haue I toke neuer yet hede.
 My parkis/ ben broken and my deer bi-reuyd.
 Of myn armes and my stedis night is me bileyud.
 Alf that my fadir me bi-quath alf goth to schame.
 And therfore haue thou goddis curs brother be thyn name./
 Than spake his brother that rape was of rees.
 Stonde stille gadlyng and holde thi pees.
 Thou shalt be fayn to haue thi mete and thi wede.
 What spekest thou gadlyng of lond or of lede.
 Than seide Gamelyn the child that was yng.
 Cristes curs mote he haue that clepeth me gadlyng.
 I am no worse gadlyng/ no no worse wight.
 But borne of a lady and geten of a knyght.
 Ne dost he not to Gamelyn neuer a foot go.
 But clepid to hym his men and seide to hem tho.
 Goth and betith this boy and reueth hym his witte.
 And lete hym lerne a nother tyme to vnsware me bette.
 Then seide the child yong Gamelyn.
 Cristis curs mote thou haue brother art thou myn:
 And if I schall algate be betyn a-noon.
 Cristes curs mote thou haue but thou be that oon.
 And a-non his brother in that grote hete.
 Made his men to fette staffes Gamelyn to bete.
 When euery of hem had a staff nomen.
 Gamelyn was war the he seigh hem comen.
 The Gamelyn sigh hem comen he lokid ouer aft.
 And was war of a pestell stood vnder the wall./
 Gamelyn was light and thiler gon to lepe.
 And droff alle his brothers men right some on an hepe
 And lokid as a wilde lion and layde on good wone.
 Tho his brother sigh that he began to gone.
 He fleigh vp in to a loft and schette the dore faste.
 Thus Gamelyn with his pestell made hem alle a-gaste.

Now broþer Gamelyn hou vnswarest þou now
 Thou spakkest neuer such a word as þou dost now
 By my feythe seide Gamelyn now me þyazkith nedo
 Of alle þe armes þat I haue I toke neuer yet hede
 My parkes ben broken and my dere by-reved
 Of myn armes and my stedes night is me byloued
 Al þat my fadir me quath al goth to schame
 And þer-for haue goddis curs brother by þyn name
 Than spak his brother þat rape was of rees
 Stand stille gadlyng and hold þy pees
 Thou shalt fayne to haue þy mete and þy wede
 What spekest þou gadlyng of lond or of lede
 Than seide Gamelyn þe child þat was yng
 Cristes curs mote he haue þat clepeth me gadlyng
 I am no worse gadlyng no no worse wight
 But borne of a lady and geten of a knyght
 Ne dirst he not to Gamelyn neuer a fote go
 But clepid to him his men and seide to hem þo Goth and betheth þis boy and reueth him his witte
 And lete hym lerne an oþer tyme to vnsware me bette
 Then seide þe child yong Gamelyn
 Cristes curs mote þou haue brother art þou myn
 And gif y shal algate be beten a-noon
 Cristes curs mote þou haue but þou be þat oon
 An-noon his brother in þat grote hete
 Made his men to fette staffes Gamelyn to bete
 When euery of hem had a staffe nomen Gamelyn war-ware tho he seigh hem comen
 Tho Gamelyn seigh hem comen he lokid ouer aft
 And was war of a pestel stood vnder þe wall Gamelyn was light and pider he can lepe
 And droff alle his brothers men right some on hepe
 And lokid as a wild lyon and layde on gode wone
 Tho his brother sei þat he by-gan to gone
 He flep vp in to a loft and shete þe dore fast Thus Gamelyn with his pestel made hem alle a-gast broper Gamelyn / how answerest þou now

 Thou spekest neuer such a word as þou dost now
 By feiþe seide Gamelyn now me þinkeþ nede
 Of al þe harmes þat I haue I toke neuer git hede 96
 My parkes bene broken and my dere breued
 Of myn armes no my stodes: nouȝt is be-leued
 Al þat my fader me be-quathe al goþ to schame
 And þerfor haue þou goddes curs broþer by þy name 100 þanne bispak' his broþer þat rape was of rees Stond stille gadelynge and hold riht þi pees/
 Thou schalt be fayn for to haue þi mete and þi wede
 What spekest þou Gamelyn of lond oþer of lede 104
 Than seyde Gamelyn þe child þat was ying' Cristes curs mote he haue þat clepeþ me gadelynge
 I am no worse gadelynge! ne no worse wight
 But born of a lady and geten of a knyght 108
 Ne durste he nouȝt to Gamelyn neer a foote go
 But cleped to him his men and seyde to hem þo
 Gop and beteþ þis boyo and reueþ him his writ/
 And lat' him lere anoþer tyme to answer me bet 112
 Than seyde þe Child yonge Gamelyn
 Cristes curs mote þou haue: broþer art þou myn
 And if I schal algate be beten anon 116
 Cristes curs mote þou haue but þou be þat on
 And anon his broþer in þe grete hete
 Made his men to feste staues Gamelyn to bete
 Whan þat euerych of hem hadde a staf I-nomen
 Gamelyn was war þo he seigh hem comen 120
 Tho Gamelyn seigh hem comen he lokod ouer aft
 And was war of a pestel stood vnder a wall
 Gamelyn was liht and pider gan he lepe
 And drof alle his broþeres men riht some on an heepe he lokod as a leon layde on good won 125
 Tho his broþer seigh þat' he bigan to gon
 He fleigh vp in til a loft and schette þe dore fast'
 Thus Gamelyn wip his pestelle made hem agast' 128

What broþer Gamelyne howe answerst þou nowe þou spekest' neuere such a word as þou dost nowe
 By feiþe seide Gamelyn: now me þinkeþ nede
 Of al þe harmes þat I haue: I toke neuere git' hede. 96
 My parkes bene broken: and my dere reued
 Of myn armes no my stodes: nouȝt is byleued Alþ þat' my fader me byquathe: al goþ to shame
 And þerfor haue þou goddes curs: broþere be þi name 100 þan spake his broþer þat rape was and rees Stond stille Gadelynge and holds þi pees
 Thou shalt be fayn to haue: þi mete and þi wede
 What spekest' þow gadeling'. of londe or of lede 104
 Than seide Gamelyn: þe child so ying'
 Cristes curs mote he haue: þat' me clepeth Gadelinge
 I am no wors Gadeling': ne no wors wight
 But' born of a lady and gete of a knyght 108
 Ne dorst' he nouȝt to Gamelyn neuere a foot' goo
 But' cleped to hym his men: and seide to hem þoo/
 Gop and beteþ þis boyo and reueþ hym his writte
 And lat' him lerne anoþer tyme: to answer' me bette 112
 Than seide þe Child yonge Gamelyn
 Cristes curs mote þou haue: broþer art þou myn
 And if I shal algates be beten an: n 116
 Cristes curs mote þou haue: but þou be þat on
 And anon his broþer in þat' grete hete
 Made his-men to feste staues Gamelyn to bete
 Whan euery of hem had a staf y-nommen
 Gamelyn was warre. whan he segh hem commen 120
 Whan Gamelyne segh' hem commen. he lokod ouer aft
 And was ware of a pestel: stode vnder þe wall
 Gamelyn was liht and pider gan he lepe
 And droof alle his broþeres men riht some on an hepe 124
 And lokod as a wilde lyon. and leide on good wone
 And whan his broþer segh þat': he byganne to gon
 He flei vp into a loft: and schette þe dore fast' þus Gamelyn wip his pestel. made hem al a-gast' 128

Howe broþer Gamelyn howe answeres þou nowe
 Thou spak' neuer suche a worde as þou dost nowe
 Be my feiþe seide Gamelin now me þinkeþ nede
 Of al þe harmes that .I. haue .I. toke netter are hede 96
 My parkes bene broken and myn dere be reuede
 Of myne armoure and my stedes nouht is me be-leued
 Al þat my fader me be-quathe al goþ to schame
 And þer-for haue þou goddes curs broþer be þi name 100 ¶ Than be-spakke his broþer þat rape was of rees Stond stiff gadelinge and hold riht þi pes
 Thou schalt be faine for to haue þi mete and þi wede
 What spekest þou gamelin of londe or of lede 104
 Than seide Gameline þe childe þat was yinge Cristes curs mot he haue þat clepeþ m[e] godelinge
 .I. am no wers gadelyn ne no wers whyght
 Bot borne of lady and gotten of a knyht 108
 Ne dorste he nouht to Gamelyn neere a foto go Bot cleped to him his men and seide to hem þo Gope and bete þis boyo and reueþ him his writte
 And lat him lere an-þer tyme to answer me bitte 112
 Than seide þe childe yonge Gamelyn Cristes curs most þou haue broþer art þou myne .
 And if schal algate be beten a-none
 Cristes curs must þou haue bot þou be þat one 116
 And anon his broþer in þat grete hete
 Made his men to fit staues Gamelin for to bete Whan euery of hem had a staf ynome
 Gamely was war þo he sey hem comen 120
 Tho Gamelyn seye hem com he lokod ouere aft
 And was ware of a pestel stondeinge vnder a wall Gamelyn was liht and þedor gan he lepe
 And droue al his broþes men riht on an hepe 124
 He lokod as wilde lyon and leide on good wone
 Tho his broþer sawhe þat þei be-gan to gone
 He flayhe vpe in-til a loft and schotte þe dore fast
 Thus Gamelyn with his pestel made hem al a-gast 128

Some for gamelyns loue and some for eye
 Alle thei drowen hem to halues þou he gan to pleie
 What now seide Gamelyn euil mote þu thre
 Wit þu bi-gynne contik and so some flew 132
 Gamelyn sought his broþer whider he was flow
 And saugh where he lokid oute at a wyndowe
 Broþer said Gamelyn come a litel nere
 And I will teche the a play at the bokelere 136
 His brother hym answerid and seide by seint Richere
 While þat pestel is in thi hond I wil come no nere Broþer I will make thi pees I swere by cristes owe Cast a-way þe pestel and wrathe the nonore 140
 I moste nedo seide Gamelyn wrath me at ones for þou wold make þi men to breke my bones Ne hadde I hadde mayn and might in myn armes
 To haue hem fro me that wold haue do me harmes 144 Gamelyn seide his brother be þou not wrothe for to seon the haue harme me were right loth
 I ne did it noght broþer but for a fondyng for to loken or þou art strong and art so 3yng 148
 Come a-loune then to me and graunt me my bone
 Of a thing I wil the axe and we schul saught some Down þan come his brother that fykel was and felle
 And was swich sore a-ferd of þe pestell 152
 He seide brother Gamelyn axe me þi bone
 And loko þou me blame but I it graunt some Than seide Gamelyn brother I was
 And we schull be at one þou most graunte me this 156
 Alle þat my fadir me by-quat while þat he was on lyue Thou muste do me it haue gif we schul not stryve þat schalt þou haue Gamelyn I swere by cristes ore
 All þat þi fader þe bi-quat þough þou woldest haue more Thi lond that liþh leye wel it schal be sowe
 And thyn houses reised vp þat ben leide ful lowe
 Thus seide the knyght to Gamelyn with mouth
 And þought on falsenes as he wel couthe 164

 Alle thei drowen hem to halues the he gan to pleie .
 What now seide Gamelyn euyl mote ye the .
 Wit y þe begynne contek and so some fle . 132
 Gamelyn sought his brother whither he was flowe .
 And saugh where he lokid oute at a wyndowe .
 Broþer seide Gamelyn come a litell nere .
 And I will teche the to pleie at the bokelere . 136
 His brother hym answerde and seide be seynt Richere .
 While that pestell is in thi hond I wil come no nere .
 Broþer I will make thi pees I swere bi cristes ore
 Cast a-weie the pestell and wrath the no more . 140
 I most nedo seide Gamelyn wrath me at ones .
 for thou wolde make thi men to breke my bones .
 Ne had I had mayn and myght in myn armes .
 To haue putte hem fro me that wolde haue do me harmes . 144 ¶ Gamelyn seide his brother be thou not wroth . 145 for to seon the haue harme me it were right loth .
 I ne dide it noght brother but for a fondyng .
 for to loken if thou art strong and art so yeng . 148
 Come a-doune then to me and graunt me my bone .
 Of oo thyng I wil the axe and we schull saught some .
 Downe than come his brother that fekkil was and felle .
 And was swithe sore a-ferd of the pestello . 152
 He seide brothir Gamelyn axe me thi bone .
 And loko thou me blame but I it graunt some ./
 Than seide Gamelyn brother y-wis . (near 47, back)
 ¶ And we schull be at one thou muste graunte me this . 156
 All that my fadir me by-quat while that he was on lyue .
 Thou muste do me it haue yf we schull not stryue . 158
 That schalt thou haue Gamelyn I swere be cristes ore .
 All that thi fadir the by-quat though thou woldest haue Thi lond that lieth leye well it schall be sowe . (more)
 And thyn housis reised vp that ben leide full lowe .
 Thus seide the knyght to Gamelyn with mouth .
 And thought on falsenes as he well couthe . 164

Some for Gamelyns loue and some for eye
 Alle þat drowen hem to halues þou he gan to fleo
 What now seide Gamelyn euil mote þu þe
 Wille þu bi-gynne contyk and so some fleo Gamelyn sougt his brother whider he was flow
 And saugh where he lokid oute at a wyndow Broþer sayde Gamelyn come a litel nere
 And I wille teche the a play at the bokeler
 His brother him vnswardid and seide by seynt Richere
 While þat pestel is in thi hond I wole come no nere Broþer I will make thi pees I swere by cristles ore
 Cast a-way þe pestel and wrath the no more 140
 I moste nedo seide Gamelyn wrath me at ones for þou wold make þy men to breke my bones Ne hadde I hadde mayn and myght in myn armes
 To haue hem fro me that wold haue do de harmes 144 Gamelyn seide his brother be þou not wrotth for to seon the haue harme-me were right dekkil I ne dede it nougt brother but for a fondyng
 for to loken or þou art strong and art so 3yng 148
 Come a doune þen to me and graunt me my bone
 Of o þyng I wil þe axe and we schul saught some Downe þan come his brother þat fekkil was and felle
 And was swich sore a-ferd of the pestell 152
 He seide brother Gamelyn axe me þi bone
 And loko þou blame bat I it graunt some
 Than seide Gamelyn brother I was
 And we schull be at one þou most graunt me þis 156
 Alle þat my fader me by-quat while þat he was on lyue
 Thou muste do me it haue gif we schul not stryue
 That shalt þou haue Gamelyn I swere by cristes ore Alle þat fader þe be-quat þough þou woldest haue more 160
 Thi lond þat lieth leye . wel it schal be sowe
 And þyn houses reised vp þat ben leide ful lowe
 Thus seide þe-knyght to Gamelyn with mouth
 And þougt on falsenes as he wel couthe 164

Somme for gamelynes lone and some for his eye
 All þei drouen by haltes þe biȝn to playe
 What now seide Gamelyn yuel mot þou þee
 Wil þe bygynne contok and so soone fleo
 Gamelyn souȝt his broþer whider he was flowe
 And saugh wher he lokod out at a wyndowe
 Broþer seide Gamelyn come a litel neer
 And I wil teche þe a play atte Bokeler his broþer him ansverde and sayde be seint Richere Whil þe pestel is in þin hond I wol come no neer Broþer I wel make þy pees I swere by cristes oore/
 Cast a-way þe pestel and wraþþe þe nomore
 I moot needs sayde Gamelyn wraþþe me at oones for þou wolde make þi men to breke my boones Ne hadde I had mayn and might in myn armes
 To haue hem driven fro me þei wolde haue do me harmes Gamelyn sayd his broþer be þou nouȝt wroþ for to see þe haue harm were me right loþ I dide it nouȝt broþer but for a foundyng for for to loken or þou were strong and art so ying
 Com a doune þan to me and graunte me my boone
 Of þing I wol þe asken and we schal saughte soone
 Doune þan cam his broþer þat fikel was and felle
 And was swiȝe sore agast of þe pestelle
 He seide broþer Gamelyn aske me þy boone
 And loke þou me blame but I it graunte-soone
 Thanne seide Gamelyn broþer y-wys
 And we schulle bon at on þou most me graunte þis
 Al þat my fader me biȝnath whil he was on lyne
 Thou most do me it hane if we schulle nouȝt stryue
 That schalt þou hane Gamelyn I swere by cristes oore Al þat þi fader þe byȝnath þough þou woldest haue more Thy lond þat lieth laye wel it schal be awe
 And þine houses reised vp þat þen y-kyd so lowe
 Thus sayde þe knyȝt to Gamelyn by mouȝe
 And þoughte of falsnesse as he wel couȝe

Somme for Gamelyns lous, and some for eye Alle þei droughen hem to haltes when he gan to playe ¶ What now seide Gamelyn? euel mote þe this Wil þe bygynne contacte: and so some fleo
 Gamelyn souȝt his broþer whider he was flowe
 And seȝhe wher he lokod out a wyndowe
 Broþer seide Gamelyn, come a litel nere
 And I wil teche þe a play at þe bokelore His broþer him ansverde, and seide by seint Richere þe white þat pestel is in þine honde. I wil come no neer Broþer I wil make þi pees: I swer by cristes oore
 Cast away þe pestel, and wraþþe þe no more
 I moot needs seide Gamelyn wraþþe me at onys for þou wolde make þi men, to breke my bonys Ne had I hadde mayn and myȝt in myn armes
 To han hem fro me. þei wolde haue doȝn me harmes Gamelyn seide his broþer be þou not wroth
 For to see þe han harme, me were riȝt loth
 I ne did it not broþer but for a foundinge for to loken wher þou art stronge and art so yenge
 Come a doune þan to me and graunt me my bone
 Of oon þing I wil þe axe and we schal sauȝt some Doune þan cam his broþer þat fikel was and felle
 And was swiȝe sore a-foerd of þe pestelle
 He seide broþer Gamelyn axe me þi bone
 And loke þou me blame but I it graunte soone
 þan seide Gamelyn broþer I-wys
 And we shal be at ou, þou most graunte me this Al þat my fader me by-ȝnath, whil þe was alyne þou most do me it hane, if we shal not strive þat schalt þou hane Gamelyn I swere bi cristes oore.
 Al þat þi fadere þe by-ȝnath, þough þou woldest haue more Thy londe þat lieth ley, wel it shal be saue
 And þine houses reised vp þat þen leide ful lawe
 Thus seide þe knyȝt, to gamelyn wiȝ mouȝe
 And þouȝt on falsnes as he wel couȝe

Som for for Gamelyns lone and somme for his eye
 Al þei droue be haltes when he begyn to playe
 What now seide Gamelyn yuel mot þe þe
 Wil þe bygynne contok and so soone flye Gamelyn souȝt his broþers whider he was flowe
 And sawh wher þat he lokod oute at a windowe
 Broþer seide Gamelyn come a litel neer
 And I wil teche a pleie at þe bokelore
 His broþer him answard and swore be seint Richere Whil þe pestel is in þi honde .y. come þe no neer Broþer I wil make þi pees .I. swere be goddes ore
 Cast awaie þi Pestal and wraþþe þe nomore
 I moot needs seide Gamelyne wraþþe me at ones for þou wolde make þi men breke my bones
 Ne had .I. had maine and miȝt in boþe myn armes
 To fende hem from me þei wolde hane done me armes Gamelin seide his broþers be þou nouȝt wroþ for to see þe haue harme me were riȝt loþe
 I. ne dide it nouȝt broþer but for a foundinge for to loken if þou were stronge and art so yenge
 Come a-doune þan to me and graunt me my bone
 Of þing .I. will þe axen and we schal saubte soone ¶ Doune þan cam his broþer þat fikel was and fel
 And was tilt sore agast of þe pestal
 He seide broþer Gameline ax me þi bone
 And loke þou me blame bot .I. it graunt þe soone
 Than seide Gamelyn broþer ywis
 And we schol bene at one þou most me graunt þis Al þat my fader me be-ȝnath þough þou woldest hane more Thy londe þat lieth ley wete it schal be sove
 And þin house reised vpe þat þen leide so lowe
 Thus seide þe knyȝt to Gameline be mouȝe

 And þerto I-dronken wel of þe red wyne 428
 Adam seide Gamelyn what is now þi rede
 Or I go to my brother and gird of his hede Gamelyn seide Adam it shal not be so
 I con teche þe a rede þat is worth þe two 432
 I wote wel for sothe þat is no nay
 We shul haue a mangerie right on sonday Abbotes and priours many here shal be
 And oþer men of holy chirche as I telle [þo] 436 þou shalt stond vp by the post as þou were bound fast
 And I schal leue hem vn-loke þat away þou may hem cast
 When þat þei haue eten and waschen her hondes þow shalt beseke hem alle to bring þe out of bondis 440
 And þif þei wil borow the þat were gode game þan were þu out of prison and I oute of blame
 And yf eche of hem say to vs nay And if eche
 I shal do an other I swere bi þis day 444
 Thou shalt haue a gode staf and I will haue a nother
 And cristes curs haue þat con þat failþ þat oþer

 When þei were serued of mete icho mese after oþe
 Than seid Gamelin howe serue zo me þat am zoure broþe
 It is nougt wel serued be god þat al maade þat .I. schal sitt fasting and oþer men make glade þe false knyht his broþer þer þat he stode Told to all his gastes þat Gamelyne was woods
 And Gamelin stode still and answerd nouht
 Bot Adames wordes he held in his þought Tho Gamelin gan speke doolfully wip all
 To þe grete lordes þat saten in þe hall Lordes he seyde for cristes passioñ helpe to bringe Gamelin oute of prison ¶ Than seyde Abbote sorwe on his cheke

¶ This noble marchant / gently anon
 Answerde / and seyde o coeyn myn daun Iohn 1472
 Now sikerly / this is a smal requeste (Def 150, back)
 My gold is yours / when þat it yow leste
 And nat only my gold / but my chaffare
 Take what yow list god shilde þat ye spare 1476
 ¶ But o thing is / ye knowe it wel ynogh
 Of Chapman / that hir monie is hir plogh
 We may encrease / whil we haue a name
 But goldles for to be / it is no game 1480
 Paye it agayn / when it lith in youre esse
 After my nyght / ful fayn wold I yow please ¶ These hundred frankes / he fette hym forth anon
 And princely / he took hem to daun Iohn 1484
 No wight in al this world / wiste of this lone Sauynge this Marchant / and daun Iohn allone
 They drynke / and speke / androme a while and pleye
 Til þat daun Iohn / rideth to his Abbeye 1488
 ¶ The morwe cam / and forth this Marchant rideth
 To flandres ward / his prentys wel hym gydeth
 Til he cam / in to Brugges murly
 Now goth this Marchant faste and bisuly 1492
 Aboute his nede / and byeth and cresauneth
 He neither / pleyeth at dees ne daunceth
 But as a Marchant shortly for to telle
 He let his lyf / and there I lete hym dwelle 1496
 ¶ The sonday next / this Marchant was agon
 To seint Denys / ycomen is daun Iohn
 With croune and berde all fresch and newe yschaue
 In al the hous / ther nas so litel a knawe 1500
 Ne no wight ellis / þat he nas ful fayn ¶ That my lord daun Iohn / was come agayn
 And shortly / right to the point for to gon
 This faire wyf accorded with daun Iohn 1504
 ¶ That for these hundred frankes / he sholde al nyght Hauē hie in his armes / bolt upright

This noble Marchant gently a-non Answerede & seyde o coeyn myn daun Iohn 1472
 Now sekryly this is a smal requeste
 Myn gold is yours when that it yow leste
 And not only myn gold but myn chafare
 Take what yow lyst god schilde that ye spare 1476
 But o thyng is ye knowe it wel I know
 Of Chapman that hir monye is hir plough
 We may encrease whil we han a name
 But goldes for to been it is a schame 1480
 Payeth it a-geyn when it lyth in spure esse
 After myn myth ful fayn I wolde yow please
 These hundred frankys he fette forth a-moon
 And pryvely he tok hem to daun Iohn 1484
 No whyt of al this world wyste of this lone Sauynge this marchant & daun Iohn a-lone
 They drynke & speke & romce a whyle & pleye (Def 151)
 Tyl that daun Iohn rydeth to his abbeey 1488
 The morwe cam & forth this marchant ridith
 To flanderis ward his prentys weel hym gydith
 Tyl he cam in-to Bruggis myrly
 Now goth this Marchant faste & busily 1492
 Aboute his needs & byeth & cresauneth
 He neythir pleyeth at deis ne daunceth
 But as a marchant shortly for to telle
 He let his lyf & there I lete hym dwello 1496
 ¶ The soneday next the marchant was a-goon
 To seynt Denys is come daun Iohn
 With croune & berd al frosh & newe schawo
 In al the hous ne was so lyte a knawe 1500
 Ne no whit ellis that he nas ful fayn
 ¶ That myn lord daun Iohn was come a-gayn
 And shortly to the poynt right for to goon
 This fayre wyf a-cordyt with daun Iohn 1504
 ¶ That for hise hundreded frankys he schulde al nyght Hauē hie in his armes bolt vp stytt

 Answerde and seide O Cosyn daun Iohn
 Now sikerly þis is a smal requeste
 My gold is yours when þat<sup>er</sup> ever þou leste
 And nouht<sup>er</sup> oonly my gold but my chaffare
 Tak what þou leste god schilde þat þe spare
 But o þinge is þe knowe it wel ynough
 • Of chapmen þat here monce is here plough
 We may creance whiles we haue a name /
 But goldles for to be it is no game
 Paye it<sup>er</sup> aȝein when it liþ in þour ese After my myght<sup>er</sup> ful fayn wolde I þou plesse þise hundred frankes he fette forþ anon
 And pryuyly he toke hit to daun Iohn
 No wight<sup>er</sup> in al þis world wist of þis lone
 þey drunken and romed out to pleye Til þat daun Iohn rydeþ to his abbey þe morn came and forþ þis marchant<sup>is</sup> rydeþ
 To flaudres ward his prentys wel him gydeþ
 Til he cam in to Bruges meryly
 Now goþ þis marchant<sup>is</sup> faste and bysytly Aboute his needs and byeþ and creanceþ
 He neyþer pleyeþ at þe dys ne dancep
 But as a marchant<sup>is</sup> shortly for to telle he leet<sup>er</sup> þis wyf and þer I lete him dwelle þe sonday next<sup>er</sup> þe marchant<sup>is</sup> was agon
 To saint Denys I-comen is Daun Iohn
 Wiþ crowne and berde freisch and newe schauē
 In al þe hous þer nas so lite a knaue
 Ne no wight<sup>er</sup> elles þat he nas fayn for þat my lord daun Iohn was come agayn And shortly to hert<sup>er</sup> poynt<sup>er</sup> for to gon þis fayre wyf<sup>er</sup> acordeþ to daun Iohn
 And for þis hundred frankes he schulde al night

This noble Marchant<sup>is</sup> gently anon Answers and seide . O cosyn daun Iohn Nowe sikerly þis is a smal request
 My gold is yours when þat<sup>er</sup> þou leest
 And not oonly my gold but my chaffare
 Take what þou leest god schilde þat þe spare

 Paye it<sup>er</sup> aȝein whar it liþ in þoure ese Afore þoure myght<sup>er</sup> fayn wolde I þou plesse Thise hundred frankes he fette forþ anon
 And pryvely he toke it to daun Iohn
 þei drunken and romen and gon to pleye Til þat daun Iohn rideþ to his abbey þe morn come and forþ þis marchant<sup>is</sup> rideþ
 To flaudres ward his prentis wel him gydeþ Til he came into brugges merely Now goþ þis marchant<sup>is</sup> fast and bisily Aboute his needs and biþ and creanceþ
 He neyþer pleyeþ at þe dys ne dancep
 But as a marchant<sup>is</sup> shortly for to telle
 he lad his lif and þer I lete hym dwelle
 ¶ The sonday next<sup>er</sup> þe marchant<sup>is</sup> was a-gon
 To seynt Denys y-commen is daun Iohn Wiþ crowne and berde fresch and newe yschaue
 In al þe hous þer nas so lite a knaue
 Ne no wight<sup>er</sup> ellis þat he nas fayn

Shipman and to the lady Prioresse. [on leaf 181]

Wel seyð by corpus dominus quod our Hoost
Now longe / mooto thou saille by the coost
Sire gentil maister / gentil Maryneer
God yene this Monk / a thousand last quoad year 1638
A ha felawes / beth ware of swiche a Iape
The Monk putte / in the mannes hood an Ape
And in his wyues eek by Seint Austyn Draweth no Monkes / moore vn to youre In 1632
¶ But now passe ouer / and lat vs seke aboute
Who shal now / telle first of al this route
Another tale / and with that word he sayde
As curteisly / as it had ben a mayde 1636
My lady Prioresse / by youre leue
So that I wiste / I sholde yow nat greue
I wolde demen / that ye tellen sholde
A tale next if so were that ye wolde 1640

LANSDOWNE (6-T. 186)

Thus bath his wydwe / hir litel songe / laught Oure blisful lady / Criste moder deere To worshipe ay / and he forgate it / naught for gely child / wol alday songe leere Bystay / when I remember of this matere
 .Saint Nicholas / stant euer in my presence for he so yonge to Criste child reuerence

This litel child / his litel booke lernynge
 As he sat in the scole / at his primere
 He / Alma redemptoris / herde syng
 As children / lerned hire Antiphoner
 And as he dorste / he drogh hym nere and nere
 And herked ay / the wordes and the note
 Til he the firste vers / kende al by rote

Noght wiste he / what this latyn was to seye for he so yonge and tendre was of age
 But on a day / his felawes gan he preye
 To expounden hym this songe in his langage
 Or telle hym / why this songe was in vsage
 This prayde he hym / for to construe and declare fulle ofte tymes / upon thise knowes bare

His felawe / which that elder was than he Answerde hym thus / this songe I haue herd seye
 Was makid / of oure blisful lady free
 Hir to salve / and eke hire for to preye
 To been oure helpe / and socour when we dye
 I kan na more / expounde in this matere
 I lerne songe I kan but smal grammeere

¶ And in this songe makid in reuerence
 Of Criste moder / seyde this Innocent
 Now certes / I wol do my diligenc
