Lady Kathleen Curzon-Herrick, who is the eldest daughter of the Earl and Countess of Huntingdon, and married Mr. Curzon-Herrick last August, was the clever authoress of the little playlet, "In the '45," which was so successful a feature of the matinée performance at His Majesty's Theatre in aid of the fund for prisoners of war in Germany. Lady Kathleen Curzon-Herrick played her own heroine, the wife of a jealous Hanoverian husband who has given shelter to a fugitive Scottish captain, a part played by Mr. Basil Gill
