

BANK OF GLENDALE

NEW BRANCH TO BE OPENED MONDAY AT 340 BRAND BOULEVARD

After considerable delay the new branch of the Bank of Glendale will be opened at 340 Brand boulevard. Mr. F. H. Vesper, president of the bank, has been in San Francisco looking after details concerning the license and has been able materially to advance the date of that event.

The Bank of Glendale is one of the most stable institutions of Glendale. It is situated in a commanding position at the corner of Glendale avenue and Broadway. It will continue to hold the field there and to minister to the financial demands of a large clientele. With the development of that end of the city which is anticipated as a result of the extension of the Broadway street car line to the Childs' tract, the parent institution will probably find an increased business.

At present it is notable that one-fourth of the depositors of the bank reside west of Kenwood street. By establishing a branch of the main business on Brand boulevard the bank hopes to take care of an increasing business on that side of the town. There are constant changes in business in the Brand boulevard center and a consequent increase in new business. The branch of the Bank of Glendale will get a large share of that business.

It is to be noted that the new Brand boulevard establishment is a regular banking business. It is expected that it will do a general commercial business and savings bank business as well. The new plant will be a duplicate of the parent business and will grow along with the growth of the city. The officials of the original bank will divide their time between both establishments. This bank will be under the same careful and conservative management that has characterized it in the past eleven years of successful existence. The officers and directors are men of years of successful business experience:

F. H. Vesper, president, was for eighteen years in the service of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. Co., which position he left to accept the cashiership of the County Savings Bank of Algona, Iowa, at its organization in 1906. In 1906 he resigned this position to accept the presidency of the Bank of Glendale.

C. M. Walton, vice-president, was for eighteen years connected with one of the large sugar plantations of the Island of Hawaii and for eight years business manager of the Pahala plantation, the largest on the island.

D. H. Smith, vice-president, comes from Primghar, Iowa, where he was cashier of the Primghar Savings Bank for thirteen years and was connected with and owned other banking interests in Iowa.

Herman Nelson, cashier, came to this bank from the People's Bank of Titonka, Iowa, and was formerly with the Citizen's Bank of Britt, Iowa, having thus been in active banking service from boyhood.

(Miss) M. G. Smith, asst. cashier, has been with this bank for the past five years, coming here from Chicago, where she was in the service of the A. G. Spaulding Co.

A. W. Beach conducted a general merchandise business in Augusta, Montana, and has large banking interests in that state.

Frank Campbell comes from North Dakota, where he was connected with a line of grain elevators and still has large land interests in that state.

Thos. F. Cooke was connected with various banking institutions in Algona and Des Moines, Iowa, coming to Los Angeles to accept the position of cashier of the Traders Bank, until its consolidation with the California Savings and Commercial Bank, when he became manager of the loan department of the W. W. Mines Co. of Los Angeles.

WEEK-END TRIPS

H. H. FARIES SUGGESTS THAT THOSE WHO TAKE TRIPS REPORT THEM

H. H. Faries, proprietor of The Men's Shop, 1109 W. Broadway, suggests that the many parties that take automobile trips at the week end should report them to the "News" with such information as to roads and rest and picnic accommodations as would be of value to others. "There are many attractive spots within easy reach of Glendale," said Mr. Faries, "apart from the beaches, to which many people of Glendale would be glad to make trips if they knew about the roads and the camping and picnicking privileges."

A party consisting of H. H. Faries, Mrs. Faries and their two children, John and Elizabeth, took a trip last Sunday through the Monrovia canyon to the foothills. The party passed through Pasadena, on to Monrovia, out Canyon road and thence north to the foothills. Along with Mr. Faries and his family were Mr. and Mrs. C. Lane of Chestnut street, Mrs. George Fowler of Damasco court, Mr. W. Howarth of Los Angeles.

Striking the mountain trail, which is a single auto track, the party at last reached one of the public picnic cooking grounds, where permission is given the public to light fires and cook. Climbing the mountain about a mile they came to the mesa whence they had a magnificent view over a sweep of twenty-five miles of country down the valley and in the other direction over the wooded mountain land.

Wandering through the hills the party came upon a wonderful waterfall, throwing its silvery waters 60 feet down the mountain side. This, it appears, is a spot well worth visiting and one that is missed by many outing parties. There are many such interesting spots. San Gabriel canyon, for instance, is a place which would attract many, if they knew exactly how to get there. There are other fine trips in the Newhall direction and those who make these trips are invited to send descriptions of them to the Glendale Evening News, for the benefit of the week-end auto trip community.

TAYLOR-TARR WEDDING

At the home of Mrs. A. C. MacDonald, 338 Orange Grove avenue, Thursday evening, June 1, at 8:00 o'clock, occurred the wedding of Miss Ruth Tarr, a popular Glendale girl, to Mr. Harold Francis Taylor, of Los Angeles. The house was profusely decorated, a pretty electric lighting scheme adding to the beauty of the decorations. The bridal couple, supported by Miss Hazel Taylor and Mr. Merrill Berry, made a beautiful picture standing beneath a bower of fern and pink flowers. Rev. Cram of Los Angeles performed the impressive ceremony. The bride was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine and lace and carrying a bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses.

After the momentous words had been spoken, congratulations showered upon the happy pair and the wedding gifts admired, the bride cut the wedding cake, a handsome ornamental confection, the gift of Mr. Frank Taylor, the groom's father, who is an expert cake baker. This was served with pink and white ice cream.

While the guests were being entertained with music on the Victrola the bride and groom made their escape much to the disappointment of the younger guests, who had planned a rice pelting.

The young couple will be at home to their friends at 135 S. Workman street, Los Angeles, after June 10. The following were among the guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor and son, Miss Hazel Taylor, Mrs. Rodgers and daughter, Master Clyde Rodgers, Mrs. Berry and son Merrill, Eugene Gillies, Miss Killie Heffner, Rev. Cram and wife, Miss Minnie Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gillies, Mrs. Clyde Morrow and two children, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacDonald and baby Flora.

TWO GERMAN DREADNAUGHTS WERE SUNK

THREE BRITISH BATTLE CRUISERS BLEW UP FROM INTERIOR EXPLOSIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, June 3.—The following statement was issued by the British admiralty today: Among the German naval losses in the sea fight in the Skagerack were two dreadnaughts. The British losses were chiefly due to the fact that internal explosions destroyed three battle cruisers. Admiral Hood and his American wife went down in the Invincible. Admiral Sir John Jellicoe reports that Admiral Hood went into action with inspiring gallantry, surrounded by German submarines. The Marlborough got into a nest of submarines. She dodged three torpedoes, but was struck by a fourth. Despite this damage she made port. There was no evidence that the Germans had mounted 17-inch guns on their vessels.

One Zeppelin, No. 124, appeared during the fight but was damaged and retired. Most of the fighting was done at a distance of 5 or 6 miles. Admiral Beatty called for help and part of the British main fleet was sent. The number that went has not yet been ascertained. The main battle then ensued. The British battleships directly engaged the Germans, dreadnaught fighting with dreadnaught.

When Beatty tried to cut off the German retreat he discovered another fleet of German battleships on the left behind the sheet of fog that wrapped the scene. His battle cruisers were no match for these vessels so he made for the open sea.

GERMANS BATTER AWAY AT DOUAUMONT

TEUTONS MAKE DESPERATE ASSAULTS ON FORT VAUX AND OTHER FRENCH POSITIONS BUT ARE REPULSED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 3.—German forces massed in enormous numbers on the old Douaumont front made desperate assaults there today in an effort to break through. The way through Douaumont is three miles shorter to Verdun than the Cumieres and Mort Homme route. Artillery bombardments alternated with infantry assaults. Every assault was repulsed with enormous slaughter. The French continually threw back the advancing forces and also wrested several trenches from the Teutons south of Caurettes wood.

GERMAN-AMERICANS ATTACK ROOSEVELT

POLITICAL LEADERS DELUGED WITH TELEGRAMS TO PREVENT "THE COLONEL'S" NOMINATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, June 3.—Intense activity is being manifested by the German-American party in connection with the approaching convention of the Republican party here. Senator Boise Penrose of Pennsylvania, W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts and Barnes of New York are being bombarded by telegrams, from German-American societies all over the country, urging them to prevent the nomination of Roosevelt at all costs. The telegram campaign is as persistent and insistent as that organized by the same party in connection with President Wilson's ultimatum to Germany.

GERMANS REJOICE OVER SEA VICTORY

SCHOOLS IN BERLIN GET HOLIDAY AND KAISER IS GOING TO SEE FLEET

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, June 3.—All Berlin is in holiday attire over the reported sea victory in the Skagerack. At the first news the whole city and country have gone wild. News of late has been depressing and the country is greatly excited by the report that a victory has been won over a portion of the formidable British fleet. No account of the serious German losses in the naval encounter has yet been given out.

In the reichstag today President Kamps offered a formal vote of thanks to the navy for its victory. The enthusiasm in the capital never reached so great a pitch except at the time that the German troops were close to Paris. The German papers declare that the British claim to rule the sea has now been overturned. The kaiser is reported to be rushing to Wilhelmshaven to congratulate the fleet.

EIGHT GERMAN WARSHIPS ARE CORNERED

BRITISH FORCE TEUTON VESSELS INTO DUTCH WATERS WHERE THEY MUST INTERN OR COME OUT AT ONCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, June 3.—Eight German warships, as a result of the great battle in the North Sea, have been forced into Dutch waters by the British. They can only have refuge there for twenty-four hours and then must come out and fight or else intern. They are close to Wymuiden, Holland. It has been further ascertained today that the German cruiser Elbing was so damaged that her captain scuttled her. Eighteen of her crew were saved. The German naval losses are steadily mounting up.

CENTER OF CITY

J. F. LILLY ANSWERS MR. JONES ON STREET NUMBER QUESTION

EDITOR NEWS:

A portion of an article by Mr. O. H. Jones in last Saturday's News about renumbering the streets was probably intended to be serious. Much of it was obviously facetious.

Mr. Jones misses the issue entirely when he sets forth in glowing terms the beauty and desirability of his own section of the city (something we are all proud of) and compares it unfavorably to other sections. I think most fair-minded citizens will concede that each section of our city has advantages of its own; that there are no striking climatic differences within our borders; and that most any citizen of Glendale is to be congratulated on his choice of location, no matter where he lives.

I never go down certain portions of Cedar street, Adams street, Verdugo road or Ninth street on the east side that I do not feel proud of the foresight that has made these vistas so charming. I get the same inspiration from Riverdale Drive, from Orange street and portions of Central avenue on the west side.

There are certain east and west streets south of Broadway that are very handsome, and the North Glendale section, just beyond our limits, is entitled to high praise.

There ought to be no sectional feeling in any city, much less in our own where nature has favored us all so wonderfully. I therefore hope no one will try to inject any sectional feeling into a practical question like the one under discussion. After all is said and done, the fact remains that our present system of street numbering is wretched. It confuses all newcomers and visitors and is a thorn in the flesh of those who have been here for years.

Those responsible for the present system made a bad guess when they established the center at First and Adams streets. This point has never been approximated the center of population, and never will.

Glendale is thirty years old and in those thirty years just six houses have been built within a block of First and Adams. That is an average of one house every five years. There are similar areas in other parts of the city where a dozen or more houses have been built within a few months.

To the south of First and Adams there is a beautiful and well populated section, but this does not serve to help our so-called center because there is no population to the north to balance that on the south.

The actual center of population in Glendale at the present time is within a few feet of Broadway and a little west of Louise street. The home of the Chamber of Commerce is very close to the real center. An analysis of votes cast in our elections will show this to be true. There is little chance that this center will move far in the future. The westward movement of the center, caused by the rapid growth of the west side will be retarded if not stayed by the development which the new car line will bring to the east side when it is finally completed to Tropic.

The corner of Brand and Broadway is therefore not only near the present and future center of population in Glendale, but it is the junction of the two main business streets of Glendale. Brand is the only north and south street that runs without jog entirely through the city.

Brand and Broadway would be the logical starting point for a numbering system if we had no street railways. The street railways absolutely clinch the argument beyond all question.

Mr. Jones sets forth many dire results that a change of our numbering system would bring. These are imaginary ills.

It would cost a trifling sum to change the maps and records and get new numbers for our houses. The post office will easily adapt itself to the change. New city and telephone directories are gotten out periodically, anyhow, and these would easily conform to the new system.

The names of First, Second, Third and Fifth streets should be changed to make the new system perfect. This would be easy. Comparatively few people front on these streets, particularly east of Brand. From Brand to Adams there is not a single house fronting on First street. The houses all have an east or west frontage. Between the same limits only eleven houses front on Second street. During my brief residence here the names of Fourth, Sixth and Remington streets have been changed

JUNE WEDDING

MISS MABEL SCHULTZ BECOMES THE BRIDE OF JOHN HANSEN OF SELMA

This morning at the Lutheran parsonage, 340 S. Central avenue, one of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized by the Rev. R. W. Mottern, pastor of the First English Lutheran church. The beautiful ring service of the Lutheran church was used. The contracting parties were Mr. John Hansen of Fresno, a merchant of that city, and Miss Mabel Schultz, a teacher of physical culture in the grammar grades of Glendale for several years past. The service was performed at 8 o'clock in the presence of several of the closest relatives and friends.

While the guests were assembling Elizabeth Mottern played and sang very effectively, "The Perfect Day." And when the hour arrived for the ceremony she sang "O Promise Me," the echoes of which scarce died away when the piano pealed forth the wedding march from Lohengrin, when the bridal party appeared in the parlor preceded by the best man, Mr. Martin Jensen, and the maid of honor, Miss Snyder, attired in white embroidery mull.

Under the beautifully decorated archway amidst a profusion of Shasta daisies and bright yellow mustard, the bride and groom entered into that solemn compact which confirms the union of heart and hand. The bride was exquisitely attired in a blue chiffon tafeta suit, with crepe waist, picture hat, with a handsome bouquet of lilies of the valley and Cecil Bruner roses.

Immediately after the congratulations of the friends, the entire party left for Burbank, for the wedding breakfast at the home of Mrs. E. J. Snyder, a very intimate friend. Later in the forenoon the bride and groom left for Los Angeles, accompanied by the parents of the bride, who are en route to Colorado to attend the wedding of a grandson, and a few days later the wedding of another grandchild.

The bride and groom in the afternoon left for San Diego, where for a week or two they will spend their honeymoon visiting the fair and other points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen will be at home to their many friends in Selma, Cal., 1448 Pine street, after July 1.

Those present at the ceremony from Selma were, the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schultz, mother of the groom, Mrs. Thos. Hansen, Mr. Eli Hansen, brother of the groom, Miss Jane Poulsen, a niece, Mr. Julius Jensen, a nephew of the bride, and Mr. Martin Jensen. Those from Burbank were, Mrs. E. J. Snyder and daughter, Miss Lulu Snyder; from Berkeley, Mrs. Gilliam; from Glendale, Prof. and Mrs. R. D. White and the pastor, Rev. R. W. and Mrs. Mottern, daughter Elizabeth and Dorsey, their son.

The bride filled the position of physical instructor in the grammar schools of Glendale very acceptably and efficiently. Her many friends among the scholars and families are compelled to part with her with much regret, likewise the Lutheran church where she filled the office of teacher in the Bible school.

BIBLE CONFERENCE

The fulness and the richness of the Bible Conference at the Presbyterian church was brought out yesterday afternoon by the message of Dr. A. J. Frost. "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end."

Isaiah, the prophet, made this marvelous statement, more than five hundred (500) years before Jesus Christ was born, as though it were present, because it was present in the mind of God. It is a ladder with the lowest rung on earth and the highest reaching up to heaven.

"Unto us a child is born," the husband of the bride.

without any of the ugly results predicted by Mr. Jones. I was a little surprised that Mr. Jones, who I believe has been an attorney for forty or fifty years, should intimate that the changing of street numbers would have any effect on the validity of fire insurance policies. He probably intended this for a joke—and it is.

Let's waive a little temporary inconvenience and adopt a street numbering system that means something. We are past the village stage. We have reached the husky period of maturity and ought to begin to lay aside the garments of childhood.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1916

WHERE A CITIZEN'S DUTY LIES

What ex-President Roosevelt said recently in a notable address is a matter that concerns all American citizens: This country occupies a unique position in the world. Ever since it became a nation it has held its doors open to the citizens of all nations and offered them an asylum and an opportunity that they could not find in their native lands. Today many of those who have been glad to accept this hospitality have requited it in a manner that savors of ingratitude. The ex-president truly says that what this country cannot afford to tolerate is a divided allegiance. The citizens of this country must be Americans without any qualification whatever.

It is unquestionably true that the first duty of an American citizen is to America. He must not put his hand to the American plough and then look back to the fields and furrows of any country of Europe, whether that country be Britain, France, Italy or Germany. No man can serve two masters. Either he will love the one and hate the other; cleave to the one and despise the other.

In the heart of any true American, whether born in this country or adopted into its citizenship, there must never be any question of allegiance. In this consisted the wisdom of Washington, who warned against entangling alliances, which would inevitably have swamped this growing nation by taking its eyes away from its own development and involving it in the quarrels and disputes of other lands. The world has changed vastly since Washington's time; but the need for keeping the country's hands out of the slough of despond and destruction into which Europe might have plunged it is as strong now as ever.

Here the caution against a divided nationality shows the wisdom of keeping out of all the foreign mess in which this country might easily be involved and most easily involved by taking sides. This country is American and is for Americans.

Along with this necessary caution must come the inevitable readiness to deal with the foreign questions, that in these days of varied interests concern American trade and bank very nearly, in a manner at once fearless and characterized with the wisdom that aims at doing what is right and being prepared to back up what is right with a power that no one can question.

There are large international problems that come up for solution not only in every time of international crisis, but also at intervals in connection with matters that are now the daily concern of the nation. A large nation of the first class cannot afford to sit down to the consideration of such questions without having the consciousness of power behind it. There is no evading of international questions. There is no possibility of fobbing them off with vague phrases and generalities. Ultimately even a small prepared nation will call such a bluff as that.

In the international field a first-class nation cannot afford to be hampered by the consciousness of its opponents that it is not able to back up its words. What such a knowledge can breed has been seen of late days over and over again. A nation need never employ words of defiance; but it must always be ready for defense. The knowledge that it is so ready is one of the surest preventives of war.

Denver, Colo., has overthrown the commission form of government after three years' trial. The city is under the former mayor-alty scheme. The change was made at a special election held last month. Robert W. Speer was then elected mayor on a charter amendment which was the antithesis of commission government. Instead of five commissioners Mayor Speer is now the government. While the legislative power is vested in a councilmanic board of nine members, Speer appointed four of them. The other five were chosen in a manner novel for a city of Denver's size. The Denver Civic and Commercial association, the Trades assembly, the Real Estate Exchange, the Rotary club and the Manufacturers' association, each elected a councilman. This plan was followed to save the people the cost of an election. Future boards will be elected by popular vote. The new charter created an Industrial bureau to encourage industries and the employment of labor. A mayor's cabinet was created. Mayor Speer appointed the heads of departments. Division of responsibility caused the downfall of the commission; the people wanted centralized authority and responsibility.

GLENDALE DYE WORKS

C. W. TRUSTY TAKES OVER OLD ESTABLISHED BUSINESS FROM MRS. MERRILL

Glendale Dye Works, situated at 116 Elrose street, has changed hands. The proprietor of the establishment, Mrs. H. M. Merrill, has sold her business to C. W. Trusty, and is going east on a prolonged visit to her friends. The establishment will be thoroughly renovated and many additions will be made to the plant. There will be some improvements in the present steam equipment. New machinery will be added and the whole establishment put into a condition of up-to-date efficiency.

Work of all kinds will be done in this establishment. The plant will have two expert cleaners and dyers and will be fully equipped to do work at short notice. Specialties will be made in the way of cleaning fancy silks and curtains. The people of Glendale are thoroughly acquainted with the establishment, which was widely made known during the management of Mrs. Merrill, which extended over a period of 11 years.

C. W. Trusty, the new proprietor, has lived in Glendale about eleven years. He has been favorably known to the public and will doubtless secure his share of the increasing cleaning and dyeing work in this growing community.

The establishment at Elrose street is nicely situated for the carrying on of such a business. It is out of the way and yet close enough to the business center of the city to make it easy of access. The new proprietor will establish an auto service and will call for and deliver work to all parts of the city.

RESOLUTION OF THE REPUBLICAN CLUB OF THE 61ST ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

Whereas, it is well known that that portion of the County of Los Angeles in which is located the great San Fernando Valley has not furnished to the County a member of the Board of Supervisors for a great many years, despite the fact that this portion of the county has been and is the field of great development activity and increased population, and

Whereas, any fit member of the Board of Supervisors should be a competent, broad-gauge, square, substantial business man, and also, in the judgment of this club, a Republican, and

Whereas, there is a candidate for Supervisor for this district in the person of Stephen C. Packer of Glendale who meets the requirements above set forth, and who, we believe, is entitled to full support of all citizens of this supervisory district,

Now, be it resolved, that the Republican Club of the Sixty-first Assembly District hereby endorse the candidacy of Stephen C. Packer for Supervisor of this county, with a firm belief in his fitness for the position mentally, morally, geographically and politically.

Mr. T. C. Malone of Louise street returned Friday from a business trip to Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawson of Central avenue leave Glendale for Denver, Colo., Sunday. They intend to reside permanently there.

Miss Canarius, who has conducted a dry goods store in the Logan block, Casa Verdugo, for several months, has moved her stock of merchandise to Los Angeles.

Attorney A. D. Pearce, 1559 Milford street, who has his law office in Los Angeles, spent from Tuesday to Friday in Oakland, where he was engaged in important legal matters.

Mrs. Fanny Crouch, who was operated on yesterday at the Thornycroft hospital, is reported by the attending physicians, Drs. Young and Eckles, as getting along very nicely.

J. G. Adams, who has averaged 279 lectures per year for the past 23 years, will lecture on California Dry, Sunday, 3 p. m. Everybody is invited. You may expect anything but a dull time. Place of meeting, M. E. church, 3 p. m.

Miss Hazel Wheatley, sister of Mrs. Fred Fish, 228 S. Maryland, is at present paying a visit to her aunt, in Marquette, Mich. Her many friends in Glendale will be glad to learn that announcement of her engagement to Mr. Charles Begole of Marquette, Mich., has been made there. The wedding will take place early this fall.

The graduating girls of the domestic science class of the Glendale Intermediate school entertained the school trustees and ex-trustee Dr. Eckles and their teacher, Miss Woodridge, with an excellent dinner Friday evening. The culinary art that these young girls displayed shows great progress in the domestic science department of our schools.

FOR MUSIC LOVERS

On next Tuesday evening, June 6, at Butler hall, a program of unusual merit will be furnished by the Orpheus Four, male quartette. There are very few people in Glendale who do not know this famous quartette, but to the few who do not we can only say, come out and hear them.

The Orpheus Four have planned to visit Glendale quarterly, their idea being to furnish a high-class program, both entertaining and instructive to musical students with a low cost of admission. They desire the patronage of lovers of good singing and are making every effort to furnish a program that will not only obtain your favor at this time but also your confidence in their concerts that follow.

HER NINETIETH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. John Foster, mother of Mrs. Joseph Guidinger, 238 S. Maryland, attained her 90th year Thursday, and in honor of the occasion she and her daughter invited a small party of old friends, to talk over old times and enjoy a pleasant luncheon. Those present were Mrs. Joseph Strong, 233 S. Maryland; Mrs. Frances Graham, 235 E. Third street; Mrs. David J. Graham, 235 E. Third street; Mrs. Gasser and her daughter, Mrs. Wright, S. Louise street; Mrs. Rodway and Mrs. Sprague, 303 Howard street; Mrs. Weisenheimer and her daughter, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Fifth street. A pleasant social time was enjoyed. Mrs. Sprague gave recitations which were much appreciated. Lucille and Avis Thompson, daughters of Mrs. Fred Thompson, gave several violin and piano duets with great acceptance. In the course of the day Mr. J. H. Foster, son of Mrs. Foster, arrived unexpectedly from San Mateo and added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

DINNER TO SCHOOL TRUSTEES

The young ladies of the Domestic Science section of the Glendale High School, according to custom, entertained at dinner the Board of Trustees of the school, at dinner Thursday night. The guests were: Principal G. U. Moyse, Professor H. L. Howe, Dr. A. L. Bryant and Mrs. Bryant, C. W. Young and Mrs. Young, Daniel Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, C. O. Pulliam and Mrs. Pulliam, Irving Oliver and Mrs. Oliver. The following was the menu:

- Fruit Cocktail
- Fish Timbales Bechamel Sauce
- Sliced Cucumbers
- Bread and Butter Sandwiches
- Roast Chicken Baked Potatoes in the Half Shell
- Buttered Carrots and Peas
- Clover Leaf Rolls Butter Balls
- Jelly Pickles
- Water Lily Salad Cheese Balls
- Pineapple Ice Cakes
- Cafe Noir Mints

The table was decorated so as to appear like a lily pond. The lilies were cleverly manufactured out of kohlrabis and carrots; frogs and ferns helped to carry out the illusion. The place cards were decorated with water lilies, the nut baskets were water lily cups and the candle shades were inverted water lilies.

Each course was served by the particular young ladies who had prepared it. The young ladies of the Household class who cooked and served the supper were: Mary Hunt, Myrtle Tummel, Lila Todd, Martha Sinclair, Lola East, Grace Beach, Zelma Burton, Caroline Watling, Clara Armstrong and Edna Heacock.

GLENDALE FOGTHILLS

Mrs. J. E. Eckles, wife of Dr. J. E. Eckles, 1124 Viola street, left Thursday for Arborville, Nebraska, having been summoned to the bedside of her father, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Mrs. W. E. Hewitt, 728 N. Louise street, has gone for a visit to North Manchester, Ind. She will also visit Pittsburg, Pa., and Chicago, before returning home. Most of her time in the east will be spent with her family and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bierbower, 922 Fairview avenue, entertained at dinner, Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Goddard of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Faber of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brannaman of 1620 Milford street, Glendale. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and shasta daisies and a full-course dinner was served.

Wm. Safe, who gave up his position at the Logan store some time ago to accept a similar position in New York state, writes back that business is good in the east but there is no place like California.

LADIES DELIGHT TO HONOR VETERANS

At the regular monthly all-day meetings of N. P. Banks Post and Corps, the dinners are prepared and served by the ladies of the Corps. In a recent writeup of one of these meetings, in the "News," a plea was made for the continued support of these occasions by the ladies of the Corps, but through an error, it was made to read, "should be supported by every member of the Post." The ladies of the auxiliary organization are glad and proud to entertain the "boys" on these occasions.

PAGEANT OF PEACE

GREAT PRESENTATION AT PACIFIC AVENUE PLAYGROUND ASSUMING SHAPE

Under the direction of Mrs. Wayland Brown, the great Pageant of Peace, to be held Saturday, June 10, is rapidly assuming definite form. Those who have witnessed some of the rehearsals, marvel at the magnitude of the undertaking, but Mrs. Brown has had so much experience in directing productions of this character that under her deft fingers, things seem to move as if by magic.

It is appropriate to mention in this connection, that the services of Mrs. Brown as well as those of the cast are being given absolutely gratis. Many others whose assistance have been asked have generously responded, appearing delighted to assist so worthy an undertaking.

Among those who have aided in various ways are Mr. Maranville of the Gleggery Studio, who has made a number of pictures of principals and dancers for advertising purposes; the Keystone Film, through the courtesy of Mr. Mack Sennett, the Kalem Co., Mr. James Horne; L-Ko Film Co., Mr. Rittenhouse, have all very generously contributed lights, properties and settings; Mr. Frank Booth, the coffee man, very artistically lettered posters for window display; auto signs donated by Mr. Ellis, and Mr. Fink; one very striking poster was designed by Miss Olive Chandler; many fine prizes for ticket contest, furnished by Glendale merchants, a list of which has already been published; the Glendale Book Store offered the store as headquarters for sale of tickets. Last and best of all, the many courtesies extended by the Glendale Evening News.

It is not the custom of the Egan School to furnish talent without charge for any benefit production, but as the exception has been made in this case as a special favor to Mrs. Wayland Brown, and in consideration of the worthiness of the cause, the people of Glendale, who are vitally interested, should not fail to show appreciation in the most substantial way.

ANIMALS THAT SWIM

Nearly all animals are better swimmers than man, and take to the water naturally, whereas man must learn to keep afloat and to propel himself. Harper's Weekly tells of the feats of rhinoceros, elk and deer; but of all swimmers of all climes, the best, although not the swiftest, is the polar bear, who passes half his time in the water, swimming and diving.

His swimming power is wonderful, and it is to be remembered that the water in the regions he frequents is invariably cold, and that cold water is ordinarily very discouraging to a swimmer. There are bears that can swim 30 miles or more without special effort.

One of the swiftest of swimming animals is the squirrel. A sportsman on one occasion, having a young squirrel that had never seen water, wanted to see if it could swim, and took it with him in a rowboat to the center of the lake. When the squirrel was put into the water it turned toward the bank, head and paws above the water, back and tail underneath it, and began to swim so rapidly that the man had hard work to recover it when it reached the shallow water near the land. It is said that even non-aquatic birds will swim like ducks if anyone attempts to drown them.—Youths Companion.

manity of Christ coming down to us to help and to bless. "Unto us a son is given," as very God Jesus Christ had no beginning, he was given by the Father. "The government shall be upon his shoulder," all government both human and divine, he is to be not only "King of the Jews" but of the whole world. "His name shall be called Wonderful," wonderful in birth, unlike any other in all the world, born not of double blood as any other human being but of single blood, that of his virgin mother. Wonderful in his creative power, God the Father is the architect of all creation, Jesus Christ the creator and the Holy Spirit the beautifier.

"Counselor," when he veiled his deity in his flesh he became the advocate to sit beside the sinner, his client, he ever sits beside the Father to make intercession for him. "The mighty God," in him dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily. The might, authority, power, glory and perfection of God and in him.

"The everlasting Father," not the first person of the Godhead, but the father of the everlasting sons and eons. The disposition of all time is in his hands.

"The Prince of Peace," without him there is no peace. There can be no lasting peace until he comes. When he comes he will bring peace, take up his power and reign with peace on all the earth.

"Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end," neither in duration nor limitation. This earth, so comparatively small, is not the only planet intended by God to be inhabited by his creatures. All the others are yet to be peopled and governed by Jesus Christ. God in grace and glory shall reign in a universe without end. Oh, the heights, the depths and the breadths of God's mercy.

At the evening service Dr. Pratt brought his last message for this session of the "People's Class," founding it on that mighty rock of strength, that tower of safety, that sweet consolation to the people of God, the eighth chapter of Romans. "There is no condemnation to them which are in Christ." The law has no jurisdiction over them. They are dead to law of sin and death through the death of Jesus Christ. The believer's salvation depends upon his position in Jesus Christ, his walk and conversation are the evidence of it. Noah was saved by his position in the ark, not by his walk after he was in the ark; all who are in Christ are saved by their position.

The believer is free from the law of sin and death, by the new law of the Spirit (Holy Spirit) of life. He dwells in Christ for life. Christ's spirit dwells in him for liberty.

The flesh always remains the same old enemy of the new man, a constant warfare is on between the two, the Holy Spirit who has given him the power to will to do the right now comes with the power to do the right. This provision is made through the deity, the incarnation, and the atonement of Christ. The purpose of it is to make the believer righteous in Christ and the righteousness of Christ to be made manifest in the believer. The principle of it is that the believer walks in the Spirit, has life because he has Christ, his life is Christ imparted at regeneration by the Holy Spirit. Through the death of Christ the believer is delivered from the penalty of sin, by his resurrection from the power of sin, when he comes again from the presence of sin.

The witness of the Holy Spirit within enables him to know that he is in Christ for justification, and Christ in him for sanctification. The word of God confirms this witness within and he has two immutable witnesses, therefore he should walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit.

CITY STREET WORK

The city is at work on the assessment roll in connection with the opening of Adams street, Broadway and Seventh streets. This work is proceeding as fast as it is possible to get the work done.

Negotiations are also going on with the Salt Lake and the Glendale & Montrose railway for straightening up the situation on Glendale avenue, so as to pave a 20-foot strip from Verdugo road to First and Glendale. No title in favor of the railway was ever recorded, as far as the road of the railway at this point was concerned. The company went to court to have its title cleared and the court granted it a right of way at this point from tie end to tie end. The city hopes to make some agreement with the companies by which they will undertake the paving work contemplated.

The time for protest regarding the Pacific Avenue improvements expired last Monday, but it has been continued for a week to give the protestants an opportunity to strengthen their case if they can.

The city is also making a preliminary survey of the lands of the Thom estate, along the south bank of the Verdugo Wash, in order to prepare the description necessary to acquire land so as to plant a grove of eucalyptus trees, along a strip 2000 feet by 20. This strip would be a reinforcement for the bank of the wash and would form a second line of defense behind the work already done on the banks of the wash.
