MAY ATTEMPT TO FORCE DARDANELLES

ITALY LIKELY TO TAKE ACTION SOON

Russia Will Insist on the Neutrality of Strait Being Observed

Constantinople, Nov. 25.—Neutral commerce is seriously threatened by the proposed blockade of the Dardanelles by Italy and Turkey's consequent defensive measures. The ambassadors of foreign powers here are conferring on the subject and it is believed that Italy's action will not be delayed much longer.

It is thought Italy may even try to force the Dardanelles and dictate her terms of peace with Constantinople.

Russia's Attitude.

Paris, Nov. 25.—Russia informed France and the other powers to-day that she insists on the neutrality of the Dardanelles as provided in the treaty of London in 1871. This notification follows the report that Italy is furthering the war against Turkey by intention to blockade the Dardanelles.

Turks Attack Daily

Paris, Nov. 25.—The Turkish troops have now re-occupied a greater part of the oasis of Tripoli and by daily attacks are preventing the Italians from extending their front, according to a dispatch to the Temps to-day from its correspondents with the Ottoman forces near Zouher.

Charges Against Turks

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—The Italian foreign office in a report received to-day by the Italian embassy, makes counter charges of Turkish mutilations of Italian soldiers. It alleges that in a reconnaissance made November 7 by the Italians beyond the entrenchments at Tripoli the bodies of five Italian soldiers were found, that one of these bodies was naked, that all the uniforms had been taken, and that three of the soldiers had been beheaded after death.

FIGHTING OUTSIDE WALLS OF NANKING

FORT WHICH COMMANDS CITY TAKEN BY REBELS

It is Believed Premier Will Try to Crush Rebellion by Force

Nanking, Nov. 25.—(Wireless to Shanghai).—The rebel forces to-day captured Tiger Hill fort, outside the walls of the city, which commands the city and river. Several big guns were taken.

A number of Imperialists have joined the rebels.

Imperialists Repulsed

Peking, Nov. 25.—Premier Yuan Shi Kai's position is becoming more intolerable daily. Neither the Manchus nor the Chinese trust him, and the Manchus are becoming more suspicious.

The moderates do not hesitate to say that if Yuan had remained at Chang Te Fu the court would now be at Jehol and the rebellion ended.

Many believe that while Yuan is re-assuring them with a view of obtaining a loan and placating the merchants with pretended peace measures, he is in reality intent on crushing the rebellion by force.

The continued fighting at Hankow and near Nanking is taken as lending color to this belief.

The Imperialists after an attack on Hankow, that lasted 36 hours, were repulsed last Thursday, and driven back across the Han river with great loss.

Populace Aroused

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 25.—Efforts on the part of Premier Yuan Shi Kai to prevent numerous provinces from declaring their independence has aroused the populace of those provinces, and the people are clamoring to see the officials who have done the premier's bidding imprisoned, according to a Hongkong dispatch received to-day by the Chinese Free Press.

The premier telegraphed to the new authorities urging them to use every effort to prevent the people from declaring against the Manchu government.

McNAMARA TRIAL

Work of Selecting Jury Delayed by Death of Brother of a Juror.

Los Angeles, Nov. 25.—Death which has hovered over the progress of the McNamara murder trial, struck to-day. Charles Sexton, brother of Juror J. B. Sexton, died after an extended illness at 7 o'clock, and Judge Bordwell adjourned court until Monday morning. It was stipulated that Sexton could go home at any time he wished with permission of the court.

To Juror F. D. Freen the same privilege was granted. Green's wife is seriously ill.

Attorney-Davis hastened after court to the home of his law partner, Jud Rush. He was stricken with apoplexy in the course of a retrial of a case in which the first trial was halted by the critical illness of a juror.

Thus far in the progress of the trial two sworn jurors have been excused for physical illness and one other was allowed to go because of illness of his mother. J. H. Cole, now in the box, is not well and may be unable to remain.

BUSY SIX DAYS AROUND CITY HALL

SOOKE LAKE CONTRACT AROUSES INTEREST

End of Six Years' Controversy Appears in Sight—The Library Situation

The most notable event of the week in civic circles has been the approval of the specifications of the Sooke Lake water scheme, and the call for tenders for one of the largest contracts let in recent years by the municipal fathers.

Mayor Morley's election address on the eve of the poll in 1906, when he was first elected to the mayoralty, drew attention to the necessity for a better water supply, and whatever may be the issue at the polls in January, he will be able after six years to appeal to the electors on the inauguration of a definite scheme.

The contract has awakened great interest among contractors, and there have been many in the city looking into the specifications during the last few days, but whether they have been drawn so stringently that the contractors may not carry their confidence to the extent of a tender on December 15 remains to be seen.

The defeat of the by-law last week, which would have given a fitting appropriation for the Carnegie library, brought the condition of that unfortunate institution to a crisis, and with the dark shadow of debt hanging like a pall over the building, its future is in the lap of the gods. Some attempt may be made to secure a rearrangement, but no action has yet been taken to secure that desirable result. It is to be hoped Miss Helen Stewart will be prevailed upon to reconsider her decision to resign as assistant librarian, as she has done splendid work since her appointment.

The reorganization of the city engineering department has also advanced, with the mutual heart burnings and dissatisfaction which any reconstruction involves, and Mr. Stutchbury has already attempted to introduce into Mr. Smith's office by establishing hours when the chief may be seen, and regulating the day's work, seeking to evolve system out of chaos. The change has involved the retirement of H. P. Orton, the accountant, but it is by no means assured that the department will lose the services of the veteran official.

The surface of the streets is one which affects every citizen, and the inevitable result of a big paving contract covering every part of the city is to be seen in the appalling condition of the public thoroughfares, some started and then left off, and excavations for all the services which an urban community demands from its civic and private sources of supply, light, telephone, street car and drainage. Part of the progress payments of the Canadian Mineral Rubber Company have been held back owing to delays which entitle the city to a forfeit, but here the city officials are not at one, for the engineer, the official whose duty it is to pass on the work, is satisfied that due expedition has been used, while the mayor wants further information.

The beginning of what may develop into a long controversy with the B. C. E. R. over the reduction of lighting rates, now that power has been developed from the Jordan river, and is in use in the city, has been commenced this week in the determination to apply to the company for the advantages set out in the agreement, and which the company has indicated its intention to resist from various reasons.

Next week attention is to be given to the plans of the Victoria Harbor Railway, which, though there may have to be modification in some details, have to be considered in the light that the scheme is essential to the growth of the port. There has been too general a sentiment prevailing that Victoria is a residential city, and unfitted for industrial purposes, but if the port is to be developed there must be communication between the terminals and the harbor.

WILL OPEN REPUBLIC TO FOREIGN TRADE

Dr. Sun Yat Sen Says New Government Will Remove Limitations in China

Paris, Nov. 25.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen outlined the future regime in China to Le Courriere European during his stay in Paris. According to this journal, he said that altogether it would be a federal republic and essentially modern, care would be taken not to touch the ancient traditions of old China, such as the public census and ancient language of the Mandarins, the etiological writings of which, alone would be simplified.

"The revolutionists wish," added Dr. Sen, "to prove by abstention from violence, their sympathies with peace."

"The Chinese republic will be thrown open to foreign commerce and the first act of the new government will be to suppress all limitations on commercial relations with the outside world. In return, the republic intends in consideration of fresh facilities granted for international commerce to reserve for itself the right to regulate the customs interests of its own growing industries, and to be open to outsiders."

Dr. Sen concluded by saying that the republic would respect all encroachments of the Chinese empire, even those with Russia and Japan.

HAD VENISON IN THEIR POSSESSION

Six Restaurant Keepers of Vancouver Must Pay Fines

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—Six restaurant keepers were before Magistrate Shaw yesterday morning charged with having in their possession for sale, venison out of season.

Bryan Williams, provincial game warden, stated that the close season for deer commenced on November 15, and they had given restaurant keepers five days beyond that to dispose of any venison they had on hand. They had gone around, however, on November 21, and found cuts of venison and haunches still in the cupboards.

Defences of various kinds were offered, one being that the meat was bought in season, but the demand for it at the tables had been less than the restaurants anticipated. Fines of $5 and costs were imposed.

SEEKS TO CHECK PIRACY OF LOGS

Bill Will Be Submitted at Ottawa to Amend Criminal Code

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—H. H. Stevens, M. P., has given notice that he will introduce a bill to amend the criminal code. The object of the bill is to make it possible to deal summarily with the piracy of logs, which is such a serious matter on the Pacific coast. Owing to a technical omission in the criminal code, all efforts to protect the sufferers from this practice have failed because the markings under the British Columbia Act are not included in the criminal code. Then the code does not cover the harbors and coast waters, but deals only with the fresh waters of the province.

Mr. Stevens proposes to correct this by having inserted in the criminal code the words "harbors or coast waters." His bill will also provide for the recognition of the British Columbia markings. Mr. Stevens, before deciding to introduce the bill, consulted the minister of justice and got his approval so that there is no doubt that the proposed amendments to the criminal code will be agreed to by the House. When the bill becomes law, the provincial government will be in a position to punish the log pirates and put a stop to the practice.

Mr. Stevens went to Toronto last night and on Monday he will be in Montreal, where he goes on the invitation of the Montreal harbor commissioners to look over the harbor improvements at that port.

Mr. Meligen, member from Portage la Prairie, yesterday reintroduced a bill of last session, whereby he proposed to give railways a share of the responsibility of cattle killings. The bill, if passed, will require railways to show no contributory negligence on their part.

REBELS BUY AEROPLANE

Cleveland, O., Nov. 25.—A Cleveland-built aeroplane was sold to-day by its builder, Edward Stewart, to Aoye Puey, an emissary of the Chinese revolutionaries. The machine is to be shipped at once to San Francisco and thence to China for military purposes.

CRUSHED BY ELEVATOR

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—Walter J. Nichols, of 915 Richards street, who is employed at the C. P. R. stores, at the corner of Drake and Homer streets, was seriously injured by the elevator yesterday. He was engaged in unloading the elevator when it dropped some distance below the floor, and then raised again. His shoulder was caught under the floor and his neck and the side of his head were lacerated. The police ambulance was called and he was removed to the General hospital.

LIGHT ON TORY NATIONALIST PACT

SIGNIFICANT SPEECH BY MEMBER FOR ZAMASKA

H. Bourassa Looks to Premier Borden for Relief for French-Canadians

Ottawa, Ont. Nov. 25.—The opposition has sought strenuously throughout the debate on the speech from the throne for an explanation of the Conservative-Nationalist alliance, and has been pointed out that there is nothing to explain. But if A. A. Mondou, member for Zamaska and avowed champion of Henri Bourassa, has been authorized to speak for the new government, then certain statements which he made yesterday afternoon at the resumption of the debate, might be considered as having some significance in connection with the problem.

The leader of the Liberal party said the speaker, had disappointed the French people in Quebec on the Remedial Bill and in the north-west by depriving the French of their language. Mr. Bourassa had lost confidence in him.

"But," said Mr. Mondou significantly, "Mr. Bourassa now looks toward Mr. Borden and his party to solve these questions to the satisfaction of the minority." Whether the member for Zamaska spoke adversely or not can only be conjectured. Few of the leaders of either party were in their seats when the statement was made and it was received with dead silence. Mr. Mondou's speech was throughout a championing of the Nationalist leader.

With the exception of a strong reference to the Times Dispatch by J. H. Burnham, West Peterboro, little new matter was broached in the debate yesterday and the benches were sparsely occupied. The member for West Peterboro characterized the decree as a type of all attempts of the church upon the laws of the land, and denounced it as something which ought not to be tolerated. "The Dominion government," declared the speaker, "had power to deal with and legislate upon the decree under the B. N. A. Act. It had been in issue in Ontario and was one of the causes of the late government's defeat."

Alphonse Verville, who swept Mallesonne in the recent election on the labor ticket declared that the recent Conservative victory was the success of trusts over the masses and indicated that the present government was partially at least in the debate yesterday, had controlled the outbreak to the extent named above, so immense was the heat that the windows in the buildings facing the Station street front of the Cowichan Merchants' block, were broken with the force of heat. However, the fire was brought under control effectively, and the losers were able in the dull November daybreak to ascertain the extent of the conflagration which is likely to remain memorable in the annals of Duncan.

The extent of the damage done has not yet been finally estimated, but the Cowichan Merchants lost a block which cost $29,000 last year, and upon which $5,000 has been expended on interior fittings, and stock valued at $50,000. They carried $10,000 insurance on the block, and $5,000 on the stock by way of insurance. No estimate is available of the amount of insurance on the Odd Fellows' block and the livery barn, but the total loss will be well over $100,000.

The Cowichan Merchants have lost no time in opening up business again, in spite of their great loss, as they have rented their old quarters across the street from Mrs. Harry Smith, and will reopen on Monday, Mr. Peterson being in the city to-day to arrange for an emergency stock to carry them on till other arrangements can be made. As they employ a staff of 27 men, the action is very timely, and although some men will be laid off only a few will lose their employment at a time of year when other work is difficult to secure. The Cowichan Merchants will rebuild their block at as early a date as possible.

A dispatch from the Times correspondent at Duncan says: A fire was discovered this morning

IMMIGRATION SCHEME

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—Arthur Hawkes, special Dominion commissioner of immigration, is on his way from Ottawa to Victoria for the purpose of securing the co-operation of the provincial government in a project for securing immigrants for British Columbia.

DUNCAN IS THE SCENE OF DISASTROUS FIRE

It Destroyed Fine New Department Store and Spread to Adjoining Structure—Loss Was Heavy and Insurance Light

Fire destroyed the three-story brick block of the Cowichan Merchants at Duncan this morning, and also burnt out their neighbors, the Odd Fellows block, with two stores beneath, and jumping across the street destroyed the livery stable of Keast & Blackstock.

Rain was falling at the time or else the conflagration would have been disastrous to the town, and most of the business premises in Station and Craig street would have also gone. However, the brigade under Chief Rutledge worked splendidly from the moment they received the call at six o'clock this morning, and at four had the blaze under control.

The cause of the fire, which is a mystery, had its origin in the handsome brick building of the Cowichan Merchants, general merchants, the finest building of the character on the island outside of this city. It was occupied about twelve months ago by the company, of which A. Peterson is managing director, upon leaving their old premises on the opposite side of Station street.

The premises were left safely at ten o'clock last evening, and no caretaker resides on the property, therefore it is impossible to know the incipient stages of the outbreak. The fine building was a mass of flames when the brigade arrived, and working with a 50-lb. pressure with 1000 feet of hose, and helped by a plentiful supply of water from the town mains, they spared no efforts to check the conflagration, which was of a serious character. The flames jumped an alleyway between the Cowichan Merchants' property and the Odd Fellows block, a frame structure built more than a dozen years ago, and remodelled three years since, which houses on the street level the baker's store, and contained the lodge rooms of the Duncan lodge of the I. O. O. F. above. This property was soon a little before 2 in the premises of the Cowichan Merchants, Ltd., destroying the building completely. It spread to Keast & Blackstock's livery stable which was burnt to the ground and also the Oddfellows building, which had two stores in it, one owned by W. Dwyer, gentlemen's furnishing, and the other by A. Pass, baker and confectioner. Nothing was saved from the Cowichan Merchants store. The fire seems to have started in the basement and by the time the local fire boys got on the scene the only thing to be done was to save the outside property. All worked hard and the force of water was good and three hydrants being used—two—two—two—was under control having been kept to the above mentioned buildings. C. Bazzett's store was partly damaged by heat and water and all the buildings on the opposite side of the main street had their windows cracked and broken and the paint scorched. Luckily there was a very heavy rain and it is a wonder that the whole place was not wiped out. All the horses, harness and carriages were saved from Keast & Blackstock's stable. This building was to have been torn down shortly and this loss should not be so very heavy.

The Cowichan Merchants' building was a new brick three-story structure, the best one in the town. They carried an enormous stock. Nothing was saved and they only hold a small insurance. W. P. Jaynes is president; T. Pitt, vice-president and Andrew Peterson, managing director.

Fire Chief J. Rutledge says everything worked splendidly and everything was done that was possible. He attributes the cause of fire to the furnace. All the business men were called up over the phone and arrived in Duncan in all sorts of costumes, ready to help and to look after their own places.

Had this fire started in dry weather or had there been a wind the gutter, and everything in the lodge furnishings lost. The bakery suffered severely, but Mr. Dwyer's premises were not so badly damaged.

Meanwhile the consuming element had leaped across Craig street, and set fire to the livery barn of Keast & Blackstock, a frame building several years old. The horses and vehicles were removed before the fire had obtained a foothold. Although fortunately the presence of rain, and the absence of wind, and the heroic efforts of the brigade, had controlled the outbreak to the extent named above, so immense was the heat that the windows in the buildings facing the Station street front of the Cowichan Merchants' block, were broken with the force of heat. However, the fire was brought under control effectively, and the losers were able in the dull November daybreak to ascertain the extent of the conflagration which is likely to remain memorable in the annals of Duncan.

These vessels, it is declared, fired on the Martha Washington, several of the shells falling near the ship. The captain signalled the warships, demanding free passage. A cruiser steamed around her, examining the Martha Washington closely. Then the squadron, the nationality of which it was impossible to ascertain, disappeared in the darkness.

A. N. Simms, the third defendant, was acquitted.

Sentence on the two men was deferred to permit attorneys to argue a motion for a new trial.

Earlier in the day sentences of one year each in the county court jail were passed on Everett G. Clark, Jay Fitzwater, Watson Seranton, and Edward Ricord.

In addition to the sentence the court ruled that the men must pay the costs of the prosecution.

ICELANDERS ARE NATION OF POETS

SV. SVEINBJORNSSON TELLS OF ITS MUSIC

Pen is Mightier Than Hatpin—Equal Suffrage and No Intoxicants Next Year

"We are Icelanders, not Icemen, in fact we are the very reverse, we are a nation of poets, and there is no country in the world so hospitable. The name 'Iceland' is a misnomer as is 'Greenland.' We are equal suffrage, our women can become members of parliament and members of the municipal councils, and from the first of next year it will be an offence to import, manufacture or brew intoxicants in Iceland. We are a nation little known and little understood here and our overpowering ambition as a nation is broad education and honesty of our children."

Professor Sv. Sveinbjornsson, R.D., spoke patriotically of his country yesterday afternoon. Holding the highest degree of Iceland's musical world, which is signified by the title of professor and ranks with the English degree of music, the composer of the music to Hall Caine's "Prodigal Son" and of the cantata sung before the royal-house of Denmark in the presence of Queen Alexandra of England and the Czarina of Russia, spoke of his country and its history like a true patriot desirous of giving information about a little known land.

The languages of Iceland, Denmark, Germany, England and Sweden come naturally to him and he is more or less fluent in French and Italian. He speaks as among the most advanced people of the world, advanced in the sense of clean living and honesty, of devotion to country, and particularly as a nation of poets.

Icelanders are, he said, the descendants of the nobility of Norway. During the rule of Harald Hairfared the of the beautiful hair in the year 874, a portion of the nobility of Norway tired of him and migrated to Iceland. A gentleman, or noble, named Ingolfur was their leader. The country was first a republic and then came under the rule of the Norwegian kings. When Norway came under Denmark, Iceland joined with Denmark, but when Norway joined with Sweden, Iceland remained under Danish rule. Iceland has always had its own parliament since the dissatisfied ones left the tyrannous rule of him of the beautiful hair. Parliament in the early days sat in the open air at Thingvellir, but now in modern days, it sits at Leykjavik (the Smoky Bay) which has a population of 11,000 and takes its name from a hot spring near the town.

There are a greater number of highly gifted poets in Iceland than in any country of Europe. There is no country where so many have poetical gifts, but in music they are not yet so highly cultivated, the professor said, and then proceeded to pronounce the names of the following poets of Iceland whose works are standard ones in Europe: Matthias Jockumsson, Steingrinnur Thorsteinsson, Grimur Thomsen, Halmas Hafstein, Jonas Hallgrimsson and Blarni Thorarson.

Professor Sveinbjornsson is, perhaps, Iceland's greatest musician. The country's music, he says, is more intense than the German, and is more characteristic of its country than is the German, or even the Italian. It is more intense in its strength, its sentiment and its mournfulness, and the true feeling of its poetry cannot be felt except in the language. It like the poetry of France and Italy, loses much in translation, yet there are many works of the Icelandic poets translated which even in foreign languages retain much of their beauty and strength, but to the Icelandic who is also a linguist they are weakened and lack the fervor of the original.

It is less than four years since Icelandic women won their suffrage, but there were no riots in the streets as in England. "The pen is mightier than the hatpin," and through their gifts of speech and writing they now have the right to vote and to be elected, and with pride the professor remarked that Icelandic boasts of one of the greatest historians of the middle ages. His name was Snorre Sturlasson. "The Prodigal Son," for which he wrote the music, was produced at Drury Lane theatre about six years ago and later at Chicago and New York. There are many other compositions which bear his name, and his largest production was the cantata sung before royalty by 200 voices with an orchestra of 24 pieces. That occurred three years ago. He also set the Iceland National Anthem to music. It was composed by Maitthiasson, whose son last night played two numbers on the programme of the recital given here. The music of Iceland has not yet reached the plane of opera, the professor being, he thinks, too small for development in that direction. Icelanders, like other nations, have been immigrants to the United States, and there are many now in Manitoba, Dakota, Minnesota, Washington and some in Victoria. In Tacoma at the present time resides an Icelandic, the greatest linguist in the world, says Professor Sveinbjornsson. His name is Gunnarsson, and he has been a teacher of royal families. The title of R.D., which has been bestowed on the professor, is the Icelandic equivalent of the English G.C.M.G.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR NEW THEATRE

PROJECT ADVANCED BY THE PROMOTERS

Arrangements Made for Placing Stock—Financial Assistance to Be Obtained

The prospect of a new theatre in Victoria of the most modern character, worthy of the city, and providing comfortable quarters for the patrons and proper accommodation for the companies, has been advanced materially by the meeting of the promoters of the new company which was held yesterday afternoon.

There was a thoroughly representative gathering at the meeting and the members of the syndicate present evinced the greatest enthusiasm for the object sought, so that the theatre is assured of construction on the admirable site at the corner of Blanchard and Broughton streets, and the only thing remaining is to sell the necessary stock among the public institutions and business men of the city, and a thorough canvass will at once be undertaken. The stock is placed at $250,000, divided into 50,000 shares of $5 each, over fifty cash to be paid in advance, and the balance in four payments at intervals of two months each.

It has been decided to ask Simon Leise to take an active part in the company, and also to approach the railway companies to give that financial assistance which was promised the old company. In view of the business the theatre will undoubtedly give Victoria.

The solicitors for the company, Crease & Crease, will continue to act for the company, as they did for the old promoters. Various schemes assure the syndicate that the money will be forthcoming from stock already sold, to be subscribed and by raising a mortgage on the property.

The revenue for the theatre is to be raised through the renting of an apartment house of twenty-seven suites, some of which have already tenants promised, six stores, a grill and other accessories to the modern theatre of a revenue-producing character. This means that the company can pay ten per cent as an investment, the figures received the approval of F. H. Pemberton, R. S. Day and Green & Burdick.

The architect, W. O. H. Rochford, was authorized to prepare a full set of working plans which will be exhibited in some public place, and the accommodation is to provide for nearly 1,500 persons, an advance of over 400 on the present accommodation at the Victoria theatre, and also more room is to be given patrons than the Victoria allows. There will be ladies rooms and a smoking room for the men; the orchestra stalls and the pit seats to be upholstered in Russian leather type to be installed for cooling the theatre in summer, and heating it in winter, and special attention is to be given to ventilation.

In view of the fact that the theatre is assured by next fall, D. Spencer & Co. have signified their intention not to occupy the Victoria theatre premises till May next, thus giving the promoters time to get their structure in motion by the opening of the season of 1912-13. This will save the contracts with Frohman, Klum and Erlanger, and the Northwest Theatrical Association.

The Stewart Land Company will act as agents to the company, their offices being in the Pemberton Block, Clifford Denham, of the Victoria theatre, will be the lessee of the new theatre.

OUR LETTER BOX

TRADE SYSTEMS AND POVERTY.

To the Editor:—After your severe criticism of my last letter I kindly ask you to publish the following in justice to principles involved. My statements were not made on hearsay from Barnard or Banerman, nor did I consider the speech quoted from by the editor as his criticism. All figures presented in my last letter pertaining to England are from a report given to the press by Keir Hardie, after the settlement of the railway strike in England, in which he states that thirteen million people are living in conditions as formerly described. I have heretofore noted Keir Hardie's reports more correct than the average parliamentarian's. I have as yet seen no logical attempt to disprove this last report referred to. I do not hold that free trade is in any way the cause of poverty in England. Our neighbor, the United States, have in their public, the United States, have in their tariff reached the same misery that England is in. Tariff implies robbery, and there is no worse injustice than tariff practised on any people, except that of land monopoly, which is the foundation for tariff systems. Absolute free trade must be established before any country can permanently maintain a normal progress. The root of present crises for tariff in England and Canada in the last analysis will be found in land monopoly, with land in control of individuals and corporations for exploiting the public; the people will be robbed under free trade or tariff, only tenfold more by tariff, hold that all sincere thinkers must by their own investigation come to the conclusion that free land with uniform taxation and absolute free trade is imperative to any country for permanent progress, national peace and individual freedom. JORDAN RIVER POWER.

To the Editor:—The explanation of A. T. Goward, the esteemed manager of the popular B. C. Electric Railway & Lighting Company, as it appears in yesterday's Colonist, is truly a unique production.

Mr. Goward declares that, under present conditions, his company is not under any obligation to furnish this benighted city with cheap light and power.

In the attempt to make that position tenable he first quotes the agreement entered into between his company and the city, in respect to the Jordan river power development, and then places a meaning on the quotation to suit his own purpose.

The second clause of the agreement provides that: "From and after the time when the new plant is in operation the rates to be charged for electric light and power for the city of Victoria shall not exceed the scheduled rates now charged by the company for electric light and power in the city of Vancouver," so on. "So," says Mr. Goward, "you will see that it is explicitly provided that this agreement is not operative until the company has completed and placed in operation a plant for 1000 horse-power."

This, in the polite language of Mr. Goward, is not true. The agreement is operative when "the new plant is in operation," which it is now, though not in full operation, and the city has the right now to demand cheap power as agreed upon. Truly, the B. C. electric needs regulating in many directions in the public interest.

WEATHER DELAYS OPENING.

E. & N. Extension in Operation About Middle of December.

One of the results of the recent severe weather has been to set back the date for the opening of the extension of the E. & N. to Alberni, originally set for December 1. The heavy snowfall delayed the construction gangs on a couple of bridges, and these will not be ready for traffic to pass over them for some days yet. In some places around Alberni the snow lay four feet deep. The unusually heavy rains which followed were equally as effective in delaying work. Superintendent H. E. Beasley expects the through train service to be inaugurated about the middle of December.

FIXING BOUNDARIES.

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—Following the conference yesterday between the representatives of Ontario and Manitoba in the federal cabinet, it is a practical certainty that Ontario will have a port on Hudson Bay.

By the proposed extension of Manitoba on the lines of territorial delimitation fixed by the late government, Ontario would be left with no port on the Hudson Bay proper. If James Bay harbor possibilities should prove unfavorable this would leave Ontario without a deep-water terminus for its provincial railway. It is proposed now to alter the new easterly boundary of Manitoba so that the Nelson river for a distance of ten miles from its mouth becomes the inter-provincial boundary, and Port Nelson belongs jointly to the two provinces.

The loss of territory to Manitoba under this altered division is comparatively small, the new boundary running east from the present northeast corner of Manitoba to the 52nd degree of longitude north to the 52nd parallel and northwest to Nelson river. The new arrangement must be confirmed by the two provincial governments.

The dangerous practice of smoking in bed has cost the life of an aged lady. Betsy Smallwood, who lived alone at 1700 St. James Street, died at her home on Monday morning after a few days she had been ill. She was found lying on the bed, and the cause of her death was asphyxiation. Her nephew, who was visiting her, had been hanging part of the night, and on entering the house he discovered his aunt dead.

LARGE EXPENDITURE BY CANADIAN NORTHERN

Cheques Exceeding $500,000 Will Be Paid to Contractors in B. C. This Month

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—The large amount of railway construction in progress in British Columbia is apparently a big factor in the prevailing prosperity. T. G. Holt, executive agent of the C. N. R., is authority for the statement that his company will issue cheques exceeding $500,000 to contractors for work done on Vancouver Island and the mainland during the month of November. As the work will occupy at least two years more in the completion of this average alone the company will have spent $12,000,000. This, however, by no means represents all the expenditure of the company as hundreds of thousands of dollars will be devoted to acquiring right of way, terminals etc.

PUBLIC PARKS OF PRAIRIE CAPITAL

Work Done by Parks Board in Winnipeg Affords Useful Example

The proposed public parks board which it is hoped to see established here at an early date serves to make the report of the Winnipeg public parks board, which reaches the Times through the courtesy of Alderman R. C. McDonald, of special interest. Every one who knows the prairie capital will be struck by the remarkable progress that has been made in the last few years in creating lungs for the rapidly growing metropolis of the middle west. The report also covers the Brookside cemetery, which is under the control of the board, and is a good example of the application of landscape gardening under civic control to the God's acre.

During 1910 the board, which held twenty-five meetings, and was composed of eight members, two also belonging to the city council, exercised authority over thirty-two parks, squares and street triangles, in addition to administering the cemetery and boulevards, and expenditures for improvement and maintenance of parks amounted to $75,793; and for street planting, boulevard maintenance and public buildings, $149,975, making a total expenditure of $124,868. The report shows that in the large park, the Assiniboine, games were available and a sand-heap provided for the children, and in several of the smaller parks tennis courts were laid out and nets provided. A new detour was made in the case of the Weston park (one of the eastern suburbs), where as a result of a deputation from the Weston Cottage Gardening Association the park was turned over to the association and fenced, ploughed and put in condition for the use of the children. The results were most satisfactory.

The Selkirk park is to contain the first public bath house. The construction and maintenance of boulevards and street tree planting presented new and complex problems from year to year. Boulevards, having an area of 81,058 square feet, with a property frontage of 49,776 feet, were constructed by day labor, and in each case grass seed was used in preference to sod; the seeding having passed beyond the experimental stage. The boulevards maintained had an area of approximately 5,862,700 square feet, with a property frontage aggregating 482,800 feet (91 1/2 miles). The dry weather and the extension of the business section of the city, rendered some of the boulevards more difficult to maintain than formerly. The average cost was slightly higher than the previous year. Trees to the number of 3,275 were planted on boulevards and the property benefited by this improvement has a frontage of 86,161 feet, or over 15 miles. The native-grown elms proved much better than the imported nursery-grown stock, and were much cheaper.

"The care and protection of trees is a matter," says the report, "requiring more vigilance in future than has been customary in the past. There are about 20,000 trees planted on the streets of the city up to the present, a matter of civic pride when compared with the barrenness prevailing 15 years ago."

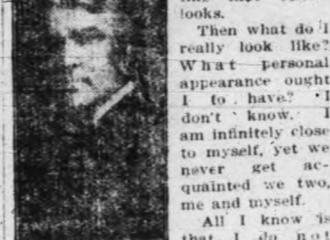

Referring to boulevarding in a large way the report says: "Negotiations are almost complete for the construction of a driveway, one hundred and twenty feet wide, along the north and west boundaries of the city, and connecting Assiniboine park, Brookside cemetery and Kildonan park. The property has been secured at no cost to the city at an opportune time. Naturally the development and improvement of the driveway will take considerable time, but that it will be greatly appreciated by the present and future generations of Winnipeg there can be no doubt."

In 1910 Brookside cemetery cost $6,527 to maintain, the receipts being $6,577, while 117 persons were buried free, and 180 paid, or 597 in all, against over 400 in Ross Bay cemetery here in the same period. In 1901 the receipts for the Brookside cemetery were only half those of the expenditure, or $1,879 as against $3,718; now they are 85 per cent. of the annual outlay on the property.

IDEAS OF A PLAIN MAN

BY DR. FRANK CRANE

I cannot get over the feeling that the looking-glass is a liar. That face I see in there is not mine. I cannot recognize it. I will not admit it. I never can get used to my own looks. Anyhow, I know I don't feel like that fellow

Then what do I really look like? What personal appearance ought I to have? I don't know. I am infinitely close to myself, yet never get acquainted with myself. All I know is that I do not fancy the looks of that fellow in the mirror. There's always something strange, uncanny, spooky, and a bit disagreeable in the sight of my own face. For this reason I loathe photographs. I never get in front of an dragged. I never see that fellow that brass cylinder, with its awful eye staring at me, and a plate somewhere in its inside, ready to fix my counterfeit-praiseworthy forever, but I am uneasy.

I don't think I ever want to see myself. In fact, the human soul is like its Father, God. No man hath seen God at any time. And no man hath seen himself at any time. Always when I think of myself there is a blur of light where the face ought to be.

Real beings, like God and Me, are essentially invisible. Pictures of God give me the creeps. And I don't like portraits of Jesus; for Jesus has come to mean to us an ideal, a something like one's own soul, too real to photograph. Leave it to the photographers and Christ and the Soul; we know one another best in the dark.

CURRENT NEWS OF THE LOCAL LODGES

A.O.F.

Court Northern Light, A.O.F., held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, when candidates were initiated and applications for membership received. Amongst the business transacted was that of appointing a committee to act with the other city courts to hold a concert for the benefit of Bro. Wadman, a member of the Juvenile Court, who recently lost his arm.

The subject of holding a Christmas tree reunion will be discussed at next meeting. The court has taken the initiative in inducing the other city courts to consider the proposition of purchasing a suitable site for the erection of a Foresters' hall. During the evening's business speeches were made by visiting brethren from such distant places as New Zealand, England and other distant parts where the A.O.F. is in a flourishing condition.

The printed report of the recent meeting of Columbia district is now on hand showing that Victoria has the largest membership per capita of any city in the Dominion, and ranks third in finances. At the next meeting of Court Maple Leaf the officers and members of Northern Light will be present, the occasion of an official visit.

Court Cosmos, No. 9233, A.O.F. This court was instituted on the 27th of October, 1909, with sixteen members, and has since that time succeeded in getting a good number up for initiation at the first regular meeting which was held on November 6, and since that time the court has grown steadily until to-day it has a membership of 345 in good standing. The average attendance at meetings being from 80 to 90, shows that the members are taking a keen interest in the court, and no doubt it will not be very long before it is at the head of the A.O.F. in this city.

A concert and dance were given on November 7 in honor of the second anniversary of the court. It was the best function of its kind ever held in the city, and was presided over by Bro. J. J. Randolph, D.S.C.R., of New Westminster. Another concert and dance will be held during the first week in January, for which invitations will be sent out.

Modern Woodmen of America. Officers of the local lodge of the Modern Woodmen of America report a satisfactory growth in membership and general condition. This order is a fraternal insurance organization of tremendous influence and strength. Its membership on September 30 was 1,182,225, and it pays annually $10,000,000 in benefits. The deaths for the month of September were 545 and claims amounting to $922,000 were paid in that time. The officers of the local lodge are: Ven. consul, A. Manson; adviser, J. B. Fitzpatrick; banker, G. H. Tibbitts; clerk, F. R. Carlow; escort, W. Elliott; watchman, J. D. Worth; sentry, H. E. Wille; physician, Dr. A. E. McMicking.

Victoria Lodge, K. of P. A large number of members attended the regular meeting of Victoria Lodge, No. 17, K. of P., on Thursday night last. The "Initiatory Team" had a practical preparatory to the work they have to put on next Thursday evening. The committee having in hand a Xmas tree-entertainment reported great progress. They have procured the A.O. U.W. hall for the occasion, as it is not thought the K. of P. hall is large enough. The nomination of officers for the ensuing term took place at the last meeting, and the election will be held on Thursday next. There is great rivalry for all the offices and an interesting and exciting election will be the result as all candidates will muster their respective supporters. Members of Victoria Lodge, No. 17, K. of P., should not miss this meeting.

Far West, I. O. F. Companion Court, Far West, No. 72, I. O. F., were the hosts at a birthday party held on Monday evening last in the K. of P. hall. A large attendance was present and spent a pleasant evening with songs, music and dancing; refreshments were served by the DUELIST WOUNDED.

Paris, Nov. 25.—Another sword duel connected with the Curie-Langevin case took place yesterday between Gustave Tey and M. Morier, a writer on the Gil Blas. M. Morier was wounded, once in the arm and once more seriously in the wrist. The encounter was stopped.

The writer of the article, who alleged that Mme. Curie had eloped with Prof. Langevin, has publicly apologized, admitting that his statement was untrue. Suit will commence before the court on December 3 for libel.

FEDERATION OF NATIONS.

It is probable that all great movements having in view the unification of the human race—and in so far as it is conditioned upon unification, the progress of the race as a whole—must first be dreamed and the dream afterward transmuted into the practical and the actual. Perhaps it was because the ancient prophets were dreamers first that their contemporaries became statesmen, generals and immortals. Some of their dreams came true and some did not, but the latter consummation was only because they were at times false prophets. These are our reflections after the careful perusal of a Constitution for World-wide Federation, of which interesting brochure Mr. Robert W. Mason is the author and which "constitution" is being circulated among the representative press for review.

The author's theory in issuing the constitution is that it will be a great boon to the Peace Movement among the nations, and Mr. Mason is evidently sincere in the effort which has brought forth this promissory of his genius. He thinks "the time is ripe for a federation of the world and such a federation of the world has got to come, and speedily, or the whole world will soon become one stupendous military camp, groaning for and plunging into war." The objects immediately and comprehensively sought are set forth in the preamble to the constitution of the "United Nations," which states them in the following terms:

"We, our people, acting in the capacity of free, independent and sovereign nations of the world, in order that we may establish an International Government which shall be fully empowered to regulate and administer our international affairs, promote our international welfare, establish international justice, secure the blessings of international peace, do herewith ordain and establish this constitution for the international government of these henceforth United Nations of the World."

The constitution provides for a parliament of the united nations composed of elective representatives from the component parts of the union, the number of these to be determined according to the rank of the nation and the representation revised every ten years. In the plan as outlined, the Grand Parliament of Nations would be constituted of members representing fifty nations in Europe, Asia, North and South America, Africa and Australia. Terms of four and eight years are assigned to these to keep the membership representative. While it is suggested to maintain in the United Nations the complete autonomy of each after the pattern of the autonomy of the several states in the American Union—the parliament proposed is to have supreme jurisdiction in all matters that concern the integrity of the whole. It is worth while to set forth the boundaries of authority in the realm over which the parliament is to have this jurisdiction by the consent of the uniting nations. The author designates them as follows:

1. To levy and collect uniform taxes, duties, imposts and excises for revenue, necessary to support the International Government and to pay all its just claims of indebtedness.

2. To borrow money, and to grant special security indemnified loans for cultural, or other special purposes.
3. To establish, maintain and control an international currency; fix the values thereof and of all other coins; punish counterfeiting.
4. To establish and maintain a uniform rule for banking, bankruptcy, weights, measures, marriage, divorce, and for any other affair of international concern, advantageous to the general welfare of the people throughout the United Nations.
5. To establish, maintain and control an international postal service, and other public facilities and utilities.
6. To regulate commerce between the nations and all nations.
7. To issue patents for inventions and copyright for literary productions, and trade marks.
8. To constitute tribunals inferior to the Supreme Court and to establish departments, bureau, commissions, etc.

9. To control, through the House of Senators, all treaties, appointments of the chief political, judicial and executive officers of the United Nations.
10. To acquire territory, to admit other nations to the union, to govern the territories and other property of the union, to propose amendments to the constitution.
11. To prescribe the mode by which proof concerning the acts, records and public proceedings of one nation, shall be made in the courts of another nation, and what shall be the effect thereof.
12. To exercise the exclusive jurisdiction over the district in which may be the seat of government of the union, and over all public lands or buildings owned by the union within the confines of an individual nation.
13. To fix the penalty for treason, to punish piracy and felony on the high seas, and other offences against the law of nations.
14. To provide for the defence, protection and maintenance of the international honor, integrity and existence, and for the preservation of peace throughout the United Nations. For this purpose parliament shall establish a peace-guard bureau, which shall be composed of seven persons (two of the same nation) who shall be commissioned to take charge of the peace-guard forces of the United Nations, and satisfactory and unique arrangements shall be made with the several nations to use such part or parts of their several military forces as shall be necessary for the defence and protection of these several nations, and for special use when called out. Establish a tariff bureau, which shall have broad powers for the investigation of the whole subject of revenues throughout the United Nations and the initiation for making tariff adjustments between the nations; and
15. To make all other laws which shall be necessary for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers, vested in the international government of the United Nations, or in any department, or officer thereof.

The pamphlet deals at length with the functions of the president, the judiciary and other executive officials, the details of which are an elaboration of the "Mother constitution of all constitutions, namely, that of the United States of America." The author states that "it is wonderful how closely a score or more of the great and small nations of the world, in remodelling their own governmental systems, have copied from it." From this it is deduced that "it is very easy to frame a supreme constitution to be supreme over all."

Desirable as it may seem that such a consummation could be achieved, we are of the opinion that it is just at this point that the author of this "supreme constitution" will encounter his most serious difficulty. We must judge the constitution of the United States by what it has accomplished in the life of the American people, the national type which it has created, the commercial system which it has evolved, and above all these, the system of jurisprudence which it has brought forth. We think that in none of these results does it present anything attractive to the Anglo-Saxon who has been born and fostered under British constitutional systems. The late Chief Justice Harlan found very serious fault with the constitution of his country. Given the measure of democracy which obtains under British institutions and constitutional government, and we regard the type of democracy exemplified in the United States as being not only unattractive but, in many of its features, distinctly repugnant to those who have lived under British jurisprudence. While the constitution proposed by Mr. Mason makes the judiciary independent of political influences, we are afraid of such rule as is based upon what has already worked out so disastrously to British ideas of constitutional justice. The student of history will understand what we mean and we will leave him to do his own thinking.

We may as well say, since the author invites criticism, that we do not concede the advisability—entirely ignoring the practicability—of such a world-federation. National types and racial constitution differentiate the peoples of the earth. Geography, climate and the topography of countries seem to justify, if not to imply, race distinctions. It does not appear to us that unification of the commercial ideals or regulation of the national aspirations of the various peoples is desirable even if it were practicable. We do not believe the progress of the race will be abetted by placing the seething mass of humanity in a crucible—commercial, political or otherwise—and reducing it all to a common consistency. It appears to us that the emulation of the races is far more desirable than a common understanding in the matters which most vitally affect national life and inspire national ambitions.

We say all these things, not because we believe war to be necessary or even unavoidable. We do not believe in war; we do not accept it as a mixed or necessary evil; in our opinion it is wholly evil. But we think that if peace is to be reached by reducing the multitudinous interests of the nations of the earth to a common denominator so as to obviate the temptation to make war, the basic sentiment upon which peace can only be founded will be destroyed and the race will be worse instead of better when adjudged by the highest moral standards.

The comity of nations, is the highway to universal peace, and that can be reached only when nations—conscious of their power—enter into rapprochements confirming the abolition of war rather than by removing the temptation to go to war. The nations will never live at peace by any parliamentary regulation of their affairs; they must come to prize peace for itself, not because it is cheaper or less cruel than war, but because it is the Divine Ideal of human relationships. And we think the nations of the earth—at least the Great Powers—are nearer to a realization of this ideal to-day than ever in the history of the world.

These are stirring words. They are from a local Tory contemporary. They are also very funny. They are humiliating. We reprint them, though they are not instructive. They read: "We have no fear that Mr. Borden will not determine upon a programme that will measure up to the share of Canada's responsibility in the naval defence of the Empire. What we aim to do, if we can, is to stimulate Canadian self-respect so that the people will rally to the support of such a programme." This sounds edifying after the late government had launched upon a naval programme with which the Imperial conference was in "complete agreement," and after tenders for ten ships had been called for, received and all but awarded when the new government came into power. It is no wonder that our humiliated contemporary suggests "That we ought to be ready for very shame's sake—if for no other motive to play our part in the defence of our own country and of the Empire to which we belong." Might we ask our sanctified contemporary—which never says anything that could make it blush—whose "shame" will it be if Canada has no navy?

New Branches of Royal Bank.—The attention of the Times has been called to the fact that it is the Royal Bank of Canada and not the Bank of Montreal, as has been stated, which has opened branches in San Domingo city and San Pedro-de-Macoris. The opening of these branches direct banking relations between Canada and Cuba, Porto Rico, Jamaica, Trinidad, Barbados and the Bahamas, and will incidentally give Canada a chance in competing for the trade which now goes to the United States, France and Germany. The Royal Bank of Canada has now fifteen branches in Cuba, three in Porto Rico, one in Nassau, one in Bahamas, one in Barbados, one in Jamaica, two in Trinidad, and two in San Domingo.

Commissioner Rees, of Salvation Army, in Conference With B. C. Officers

Commissioner Rees of the Salvation Army, accompanied by Colonel Mapp, army field secretary, and Lieut. Colonel Pugmire, men's social secretary, who is shortly to become field secretary for Canada in connection with the extensive changes now taking place in the personnel of the army in the west, arrived in Vancouver on Thursday on his way to Victoria, and among the officers invited to meet them were Ensign and Mrs. Macdonald, the newly-appointed local officers.

The object of the gathering was to discuss with Major Morris, divisional officer, before he leaves for London, Ontario, the situation of the army in British Columbia. Under the schedule of changes he will be succeeded in the Terminal City by Major Green of Hamilton, and the commissioner wished to place himself in touch with British Columbia conditions while it was possible to take advantage of the "flexible" judgment of Major Morris. The whole situation was discussed at the officers' council on Thursday evening, among the subjects coming up being the Citadel in Victoria, where structural arrangements may be carried out, but nothing was decided till Commissioner Rees and Lieut. Colonel Pugmire visit the city. This will not be before the middle of the week after next, and although no positive date was set, it is likely the commissioner will be here on December 6.

Meanwhile they leave to inspect the corps in the interior, and expect to be ready to return to the coast about the end of next week. Colonel Mapp will not visit the island on this occasion, but the other two officers will make the journey. Ensign and Mrs. Macdonald returned from Vancouver yesterday in time to take the usual Friday evening service at the Citadel.

Centennial Sale of Work.—The board of management of the Centennial Methodist Sunday school have decided to hold their annual sale of work in aid of missions on Wednesday evening, December 6. All departments are working hard to make the affair the greatest in the church's history, and it is hoped that the adherents and friends of the church and school will bear the above date in mind and endeavor to be present. There will be articles of all kinds for sale, besides candy and other goods things, and a first class programme is being prepared.

Road Superintendents.—A convention of provincial road superintendents will be held in Victoria in January at a date to be announced later. The idea of such a gathering originated with W. W. Foster, deputy minister of works, and has received the approval of his chief, Hon. Thomas Taylor. The convention will give the officials an opportunity of getting acquainted and discussing road improvements. The programme will include addresses on technical subjects by well known civil engineers interested in providing British Columbia with better highways.

Nurses Inquire.—The mail bag of the Vancouver Island Development League contains many strange inquiries, but it is not usual to have requests from fully trained nurses, three of whom desire to make the journey from the northern Transvaal to settle in British Columbia. An experienced salmon fisher, who has superintended two fisheries in county Antrim, Ireland, should have no difficulty in finding employment out here. Another interesting inquiry comes from an architect and surveyor who has wide experience, and thinks of settling in some western city. The other inquiries are for farming and poultry land.

Teachers' Institute.—At the meeting of the Teachers' Institute yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Maclean, the president, occupied the chair. The feature of the afternoon was an address by the Rev. Mr. Spence, the secretary of the Institute, read the minutes, which were accepted. The appointment of a vice-president was left in the hands of a committee of 25 who were appointed for the purpose, and the sum of $25 was voted annually to the Y. M. C. A. for the use of the hall. Entertainment was provided by Mr. Longfield, who gave a violin solo, and by Miss Eugenie Fox, who gave a reading: "Catherine's Plea to Henry" and the recitation "Lochnivar," who, anticipating the greatness of VIII, Canada, pointed out to the teachers what a great part they could play in the making of the nation through their influence with the children who came to their schools for instruction in the various branches of knowledge. NEWS OF SPORT

A VOICE FROM THE STRENUOUS PAST

BILL CLARKE ON OLD-TIME LACROSSE

He Tells of the Days When the Victoria Team Was Supreme

Recalling memories of old-time sportsmen in Victoria brings to mind "Bill" Clarke as one who took a prominent place in local athletics in the eighties and nineties. He is now foreman in the provincial government press room. Although his days in active sport are over he still follows it closely from the side-lines and is always willing to further its interests in any way possible.

His favorite branch of sport and the one in which he shone most brilliantly is lacrosse. He became a member of the Victoria team in the second year of its existence and in '87, '89, '93 and '94 he helped capture the championship of British Columbia. That New Westminster, but nevertheless it is a fact that Victoria won the title in that year, although Westminster claimed it.

The year 1894 is worthy of consideration for more reasons than one. In the first place it was the year in which Clarke retired from lacrosse; and in the second place it was the year which marked the end of real championship lacrosse in Victoria. There may be some who will connect these two reasons, but that is not exactly the intention. Mr. Clarke tells the circumstances of the case very eloquently and, in doing so, gives his honest opinion and that of most old-time sportsmen in the city as to why Victoria fell from her high place in the lacrosse world. "It happened in this wise," said Bill.

"At the close of the season, Victoria was tied with New Westminster for the championship. It was agreed to play off the deciding game at the Recreation park in Vancouver. Westminster was short two men on the day of the game and for that reason delayed the match until there was not time enough to complete the full two-hours' play. In those days the rules allowed a win to the team scoring four goals first or to the team which was ahead of the two-hours' play. When it was found necessary to call the game Victoria was in the lead 3-2. The Victoria players thought the referee would give them the game and in fact he had stated that such was his intention. But, instead, he referred the decision to the league executive which decided that the game be played over. So disgusted were the locals over this unfair treatment that they did not appear on the field in Vancouver on the day of the second game and the Salmon Bellies, going on, shot four goals and claimed the championship.

"The players were not the only ones disgruntled by the action of the executive. Victoria fans got so hot under the collar that they began to lose interest in the game and never afterwards supported their team in the same enthusiasm and liberal manner they had previously. It was also directly responsible for the retirement of several of the local players, including myself."

Bill Clarke originally hailed from Montreal, where he played with the Athletics for four years. He then came west and joined the Winnipeg team, remaining with that club from 1883 until 1886. And in 1887 he was attracted to Victoria and, as mentioned, got a place with the Victoria team.

His description of the game, as it was played in those days, is very interesting and furnishes a lesson, which those who think lacrosse a routine game nowadays, would do well to take to heart.

As it is played now the men go on the field with thick pads on the shoulders, heavy gloves on the hands and sometimes with protectors on the shins. Mr. Clarke remembers when he played with bare arms and with the thinnest of shirts covering his shoulders. He even went so far as to play two whole hours in Vancouver on one occasion with nothing on his feet. And Bill was no quitter either. His never flinching, always working style was perhaps his chief quality.

In the opinion of Mr. Clarke lacrosse was a harder and more strenuous game then than it is now. The passes were longer and, in consequence, there was more running to do. Also there was a great difference in the sticks. They were smaller and the gut was stiff, no bag being allowed at all. This required the player to be very expert to hold the ball when it struck his stick.

In other ways the game differed from present day lacrosse. There were no quarters and unless four, or as it was in the early eighties, three goals, were scored by one team, the players had to keep up a continuous round of toil for two hours.

The most exciting moment in the history of his career in lacrosse, Mr. Clarke thinks, occurred in a match against Westminster for the championship of the province at the Old Caledonia grounds. The grandstand was packed with spectators and, with the score three all and everything depending upon which team secured the fourth, the excitement became intense. Clarke and Archie McNaughton were playing inside and outside home, respectively, for Victoria and when, after an exciting scrimmage in front of the Westminster goal, McNaughton beat the goalkeeper with a terrific shot, pandemonium broke loose. The fans poured on the field, shrieks and yells rent the air, and when they managed to tear themselves away from their devoted admirers the players felt more fatigued than if they had engaged in a dozen lacrosse games.

Mr. Clarke maintains that the team which represented Victoria in '93 and '94 was never surpassed and he is not alone in that opinion. On it were such men as Billy Cullin, Charlie Cullin, Art Belfry, Archie McNaughton, Dan Tudhope, Geo. Tudhope, Frank Williams, Rube Williams, Harry Morton, Pete Blight, Frank Cullin, Ross Eckhardt, Billy Ditchburn and himself.

Clarke places Billy Cullin, the present King's printer, head and shoulders above any goal-tender he ever saw play.

Lacrosse was not Mr. Clarke's only game. He played Rugby football with Victoria in '89 and '90 when it had an aggregation, perhaps, stronger than any that the city has produced since. Speaking of husky men reminded the old-timer of the time when W. Ward, who was a member of the team at the same time as he picked him up and stood him on his head very gently. From the impact with the ground Mr. Clarke suffered concussion of the brain.

The rush of recollections kept him busy for some time talking about the old days when there was no fence around the scene of Victoria's Athletic combats and no admission was charged. It may be noted that Mr. Clarke believes professionalism began creeping into sport long ago as fences and admission became the order.

HYLAND AND GARDNER ON WAY FROM EAST

Two Former Montreal Wanderers Leave for Coast Today—Dickering for More

All reports from the east to the contrary notwithstanding Hyland and Gardner are coming to play in the B. C. Ice Hockey League. Their transportation money has been sent them by the Patrick Bros. and they leave for the coast to-day.

They were both with the Montreal Wanderers last season Hyland's position being on the right wing and Gardner's on the left. They are slated to play with New Westminster.

Lester and Frank Patrick have their eyes on two or three eastern players who they want to get to make up the requisite for the three teams but they won't say anything until they have come to a definite agreement.

DRAFT PRICES ARE RAISED BY MINORS

Northwestern Clubs Will Receive $1,000 for Players Drafted by Majors

Along with the advancing of what the Pacific Coast League magnates are pleased to term the "three big minors," the Pacific Coast, Eastern and American Association, to Class AA at the meeting of baseball moguls at San Antonio last week, a revision of the minor leagues agreement went into effect. Draft prices right down the line to Class D leagues were raised, which will prove a big boost to owners in the Northwestern Leagues, who have lost players every year through draft and have only received a few hundred dollars from the big leagues. Under the new agreement the major leagues will pay Class B leagues, the present rating of the Northwestern, $1,100 for each player drafted, while the Class AA clubs will pay $750 for players drafted from Class B, $500 from Class C and $400 from Class D.

The working agreement that has existed between the two major leagues and the Association of Minor League clubs expires this year, and a new agreement will be entered into to last for another period of ten years. Changes of vast importance to the betterment and promotion of minor league clubs are looked for, and the delegates to the meeting are satisfied that the two big leagues will be willing to give many concessions to the little organizations, which are of such necessity to the big leagues.

With the minors increasing their draft price and limiting the number of players to each club, it is understood that the major leagues will follow suit. The Class AA league voluntarily agreed to pay $1,000 for drafted players of Class A leagues, which is the present draft price of major leagues from Class A; $750 from Class B; $500 from Class C and $400 from Class D. It is almost assured that the "majors" will make it $1,200 from Class B and a sliding scale down the line in accordance with the prices set by Class AA leagues.

The minors adopted a good rule in limiting players. Class AA clubs are allowed to carry 30 players for 30 days after the season opens, and from then until the 25th August 20 players, Class A, 28 players until 30 days after the season opens, and then 18 players until August 25. Class B, 26 players, to be reduced to 16 twenty days after the season opens. Class C, 24 players, to be reduced to 14; and Class D, 24 players, to be reduced to 14.

This limited number is exclusive of suspended or blacklisted players, but no club is allowed to carry more than five suspended players.

SPORT NOTES

Elated by their success in defeating the Winnipeg Club for the championship of Western Canada, the supporters of the Calgary Tigers are anxious for the champions to make the trip to Toronto and play off for the championship of the Dominion with the winner of to-day's game between the Argos and the Varsity.

Hugh McIntosh is hot after Matty Baldwin and wants the latter to buy his outfit to Australia, where he has a number of boys awaiting him. Matty has cabled his terms to Mac, and if they are accepted will immediately set sail for Kangaroo land.

Richard Croker led the list of winning owners on the Irish turf this season, although his horses only won seven races. His total winnings aggregated £3,456. J. J. Parkinson was second on the list with £3,258.

King George V. has re-engaged Herbert Jones as first jockey for 1912. Jones has been in the Royal service for a long period. He won the Derby on Diamond Jubilee and on Minerva for the late King. His Majesty has also made three entries for the Irish Derby of 1912, which closed last week. One of them, the Desmond-Laudamia colt, is a half-brother to Mr. Seagram's Persistence.

They blame Jack Johnson for the present difficulties of boxing in the old country, but the circus methods of Mr. Hugh D. McIntosh are really responsible. Most promoters are apt to overdo their game, and this does not apply alone to affairs of sport.

Yussuff Hassan, the Turkish heavy-weight wrestler, won a match with Frank Pietre at Battle Creek, Mich., last night. He secured two straight falls in 53 minutes.

Harry S. Wolverson, manager of the Oakland club, of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, is in New York to-day to confer with Frank Farrell, president of the New York Americans in the management of the Highlanders. Wolverson is said to be slated to succeed Hal Chase, who recently resigned.

Because of generally defective scholastic work and numerous absences from classes two star players of the champion University of Washington team, left halfback Walter Wand and right end Walter Sutton, have been forbidden to play in the Thanksgiving Day game with Pullman State College. The faculty has resisted all the pleadings of the students.

WESTMINSTER BUYS HOCKEY FRANCHISE

Patrick Bros. Dispose of Royal City Club—Has Now Organized

In order to get as far away as possible from the suggestion of syndicate hockey this winter, and to maintain that independence in the sporting world for which it has always been noted, the people of New Westminster have purchased a franchise in the Pacific Coast Hockey League from the Patrick Brothers, and the Royal City goes into the winter sport on an independent basis.

At the permanent organization meeting, held two weeks ago, the following officers were elected to guide the destinies of the club:

President—W. Norman Bole, K. C.
Vice-President—W. J. Kerr.
Secretary-Treasurer—P. W. Luce.
Executive Committee—Messrs. Bole, Kerr, Luce, George Kennedy, L. B. Lusby and Dr. C. E. Doherty.

A playing manager is to be elected later, and will organize with a very strong team, the players already signed for the New Westminster team being turned over with the franchise.

WANDERERS MAY COME

This is from the Ottawa Journal: "They are paying the salaries to the men who go west, and this may account for the steady westward flow of hockey players. Ernie Johnston is pulling down $2,000 as well as getting his fare paid both ways and other little incidentals. 'Bud' Glass, Hylard and Jimmy Gardner of the Wanderers, are all taking the Vancouver train, according to Dick Boone, the Wanderer manager, and will leave on the first of December for the coast. Dicky Boone is considering a trip to the coast, not to enlist in Frank Patrick's ranks, but to show his Wanderer team to the Western public. 'Just think what a game a game between Ottawa and the Wanderers would draw in Vancouver,' he remarked. And at that he is just about right. The fame of the two teams is just as great out on the Pacific slope as it is here, and they would have to remove the roof to put up more seats if the teams decided to take a jaunt to British Columbia."

NOVEMBER ROD AND GUN.

For the big game hunting month Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont., still keeps big game stories well to the front in the November issue. Hunters on their annual vacation hunt, those in camp and those returning, after fine experiences and with many pleasant recollections of recent and former outings, will all welcome the wealth of good stories contained in the latest issue. Bonnycastle Dale opens the number with one of his British Columbia studies, which he makes so fascinating to all lovers of the outdoors. More is heard about the wolves and still more about the moose, a large head having been secured by Mr. Rankin. A variety from the big game stories is introduced by a duck shooting expedition in Saskatchewan and a combined fishing and hunting trip in Nova Scotia. Angling readers should not miss the symposium by past masters in the art on some interesting fishing queries. The articles on the Wild Passenger Pigeon and the surveying of a new Alpine district by A. O. Wheeler should by no means be overlooked. As usual there is so much good material running through the whole of the pages that it is impossible to mention more than a few of the most conspicuous good things in store for all readers.

BASKETBALL IN Y. M. C. A.

High School and Vancouver McGill Will Play This Evening—Bob Whyte Referee

Owing to the efforts of Ed. Steele, the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium has been secured for the basketball game this evening between High school and the Vancouver McGill students. The game will commence at 8:30 o'clock, with Bob White as the probable referee. The local team follows: Forwards, Newell and Clark; centre, Ed. Steele; guards, Cameron and Westwood.

ERNIE JOHNSTON IN TOWN.

Ernie Johnston, who will play with New Westminster in the B. C. Ice Hockey League, is in town, having arrived yesterday afternoon. Johnston is a Montreal Wanderer man, and his position is at cover point. He is rated as the best man in the game in his position.

The class of homes in Richmond Park is sufficient in themselves to enhance values quickly. The above home is rapidly nearing completion and is a typical Richmond Park home.

Prices cannot remain as low as they are in Richmond Park. Improvements already done have been sufficient to warrant an increase in values.

That is why Richmond Park lots are among the very best investments to be had in the city. Any person buying now gets in on the ground floor and buys on a rising market.

Just think of it! Beautifully situated lots inside the city limits and having in many cases sewers, water, graded streets, etc., at prices as low as outside property with no improvements.

And improvements in Richmond Park are still coming. More homes are to be built soon under the building restriction of from $2,000 to $4,000, and other improvements already started are to be completed, all of which irrespective of the fine position of Richmond Park is bound to keep values steadily increasing.

In view of all these improvements and advantages it is evident that Richmond Park is a most desirable place in which to build a home or invest in lots. In one case you get a desirable residential location and all modern improvements, either here or coming. In the other case you reap the benefit of the rapid increase in values which will come from these improvements.

Finally, if you mean to take advantage of the rise in values which is bound to come in Richmond Park, you had better go out and see Richmond Park at once. It is your only chance to get these lots at ground floor prices. Take the Oak Bay car and get off at Richmond avenue, walk south to Quamichan avenue, and you will then see your opportunity—Richmond Park.

Go before they are all gone. After you have looked over Richmond Park from a general standpoint come to our office or phone 1494 for an appointment, when we will be pleased to help you in your choice of a lot.

SCOTTISH CONCERT A DECIDED SUCCESS

Large Audience Heard Mr. Morrison and Assisting Talent Last Evening

From the rising of the curtain to the final number of the programme at Robt. Morrison's second annual Scottish concert in the Victoria Theatre last night it was one prolonged scene of enthusiasm. Nearly every number was encored. There was a large audience, the building being well filled testifying to the popularity of Mr. Morrison and the merit of the artists assisting.

The programme opened with a bagpipe solo by Piper Norman McDonald, which acted like a release valve on the enthusiasm of the audience and allowed it to escape as the last strains of the solo on the national instrument died away. Mr. J. Graham, tenor vocalist from New Westminster followed with the ever popular "McDuff's Gathering" being vigorously encored and responding with "The Lear" title. Mr. Graham has a good voice; a suggestion of hardness at times in the upper registers but splendid quality in the middle but hardly enough control in the lower. His encore was well rendered as was his second song, "Flora McDonald's Lament." Mr. D. Heughan in his violin selection "Scottish Airs" received a well-merited encore, responding with a delightfully executed minuet. Later in the evening he again appeared being equally well received. More should be heard of Mr. Heughan in musical circles in Victoria.

Miss Munn, New Westminster, sang "The Auld Scotch Songs" in such an acceptable manner as to receive a tremendous encore, responding with "I'm O'er Youk an' Marry Yet" which almost brought the audience to its feet. Miss Munn contented herself with bowing her acknowledgement. Miss Munn has a sympathetic soprano voice combined with a dainty personality and stage presence which makes her a fit favorite with her audiences at once. Her second appearance brought her an equally good encore. Miss Underhill, whose very appearance delights Victoria audiences was at home with her three selections, especially in "Mither Sangs a Sang tae the Bairns." Her efforts throughout were punctuated by generous applause as was the case in her second selection and also her encore number. The appearance of Mr. Morrison was the signal for a splendid burst of applause and at the conclusion of his song "The Land o' Bonnie Scotland" the words of which were written less than a year ago by Peter Gordon of this city and the music composed by Mrs. Lewis Hall, the accompanist of the evening, his finely modulated voice being heard to perfection in every part of the theatre. He responded by singing "Willie's Gane to Mettville Castle," being again compelled to respond to an encore. His other appearances during the evening were equally successful especially his rendition of that glorious love song of Burns "Ayon Water" than which no finer singing has been heard in Victoria.

Nothing pleases so much the Scottish people as highland dancing and the performance of little Misses Christie and Hastings in the sword dance

POLICEMAN TAKES GUESTS TO HOTEL

Forty Conveyed by Dominion Bus to Major Mutter's Hillside Avenue Palace

The sight of the long-covered bus from the Dominion hotel being drawn full of men and women up Government street yesterday afternoon by four horses and with a policeman on the back step, caused more than one head to turn and wonder what new advertising plan the proprietor of the hotel was introducing, or if the policeman was sending a ride.

The bus was covered with guests, in fact it was filled to the guard, the guard being on the rear step. There were forty people within, ten women and thirty men, all hotel guests.

The Dominion hotel, however, is not the only hotel in Victoria where forty guests can go, even if the Dominion bus is the only vehicle that can take that number all at once. Instead of turning up Yates street to the Dominion hotel the four horses kept on northward until eventually they reached Hillside avenue, and there turned east to the handsome and palatial steam-heated Hotel Mutter.

Major Mutter went to the mainland that night to conduct back forty guests to his house, towards whom his directions were to give every care and attention. The difficulty of conveying them all together from the C. P. R. dock to their destination, beat the transportation companies in Victoria, but the Victoria Transfer Company eventually sized up the Dominion hotel bus as the only vehicle in town that would carry the forty prisoners. Consequently its use was secured.

Guests coming to Victoria will know the bus is always going to the Dominion except when there is a policeman on the step, and then it is going to the Hotel Mutter, which is exclusive, run on high rates, and to enter which certain forms that the tourist wouldn't have time to go through, must be followed precisely. Fullest particulars regarding shower baths and recreation can be had on the premises, or at any police station.

The overcrowded state of the jail at Westminster is the cause of forty prisoners being sent here. They will serve the balance of their sentences at Hillside avenue, and then be turned loose with a suit of old clothes, a ticket to the mainland and about a dollar in cash.

"BOY SCOUTS PLAY"
The Cruise of the Bilge Bucket in Preparation.

The Victoria Boy Scouts will give a play on December 7 and 8 in the A. O. U. W. hall, Yates street, entitled "The Cruise of the Bilge Bucket." It is a nautical extravaganza and has been written by the association who are now busy rehearsing the play to get it into a state of perfection. The cast is as follows:

- Capt. Martingale Mudhook, a sea-dog of the old school... H. G. Jarvis
- Burton Braashound, first mate, a gentleman rope-hauler... M. Frampton
- Squeeze Shiver-timbers, second mate, a nautical person... A. O. Hughes
- Bill Heavyweather, Bo-sun, an old shellback... Nemo
- Den Buntline, Bo-sun's mate, a genial loafer... C. Leary
- Reginald de Vere Marmaduke Longchamp, a first voyage apprentice... W. E. H. Godson
- Jans Fedan, sailmaker... called "Fedanzoomvonschaketedoddodan"
- for short... P. Salmon
- Tom Topmast, ship's carpenter... J. Davy
- Mrs. Sarah Southring, with an eye on the captain... Nemo
- mother... Nemo
- Mr. Tightwad Moneybags, owner of the Bilge Bucket... H. R. Seife
- Miss Arabella Moneybags, his daughter... A. A. Godson
- George Flerly, Arabella's lover... J. Anthony
- Dr. Turtle Maybones, ship's surgeon... J. E. Andrews
- Deckhand... G. Sanford
- Shipping Clerk... W. Geldard
- Chantyman, Quartermaster, Steward, Cook, Cabin Boy, Wireless Man, Pirate Captain, Dock Policeman, Chauffeur, Monkey, Grew, Prating, Longshoremen, Crowl, Rats, Cockroaches, Etc.

As most of the principal parts are being taken by adults and most of them are good actors the outlook is very bright. Critics have pronounced the play to be excellent and it only gives now for the general public to remain in the opinion. The object of the give now for the Scouts for the play is a good thing, as the proceeds are to be devoted to the London Children's Christmas Dinner Fund. Tickets for this unique entertainment are on sale at Robinson & Andrews, Forrester and Hicks & Lovick who have a plan of the seats, also any scout or officer of the association. Many business firms have kindly allowed to place our posters in their windows. Look for the "Bosun."

TO QUICKLY GAIN A NEW COMPLEXION

(American Family Journal.)
The quickest way to get rid of a bad complexion is by the use of ordinary mercurized wax, procurable at any drug store. Just spread the wax over your face at night in the same manner you would use cold cream, and the beautifying work begins at once. Next morning when you wash this off, tiny particles of the old, worn-out skin are taken off with it. The following day more of the dead surface skin comes off, and so on until soon you have entirely discarded the faded, sallow, blotchy or muddy complexion.

The fresh, bright, healthy-hued skin underneath furnishes your new complexion. No process has yet been discovered that will give a woman such a rarely beautiful and youthful skin. Marks of age, whether, worry and disease, which mar the skin, of course disappear with the skin itself.

Canada Maru Leaves for the Orient—Shipping Men See Busy Week Ahead

Bringing to a close one of the busiest shipping weeks in the history of this port, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Canada Maru, Capt. Hori, sailed from the outer docks this afternoon for Yokohama and other Oriental ports. She cleared with every inch of her mammoth holds crammed full of cargo, including principally wheat, flour, machinery and cotton, which was loaded at Tacoma and Seattle. A number of stowage passengers joined the steamship here, bringing the total aboard up to about one hundred and fifty. While the coming week will not be quite as busy as the past one, a large number of ocean steamships are scheduled to arrive and sail from the outer docks. According to advices received by Dodwell & Co. the Blue Funnel liner Antiochus will arrive here either late tomorrow night or early Monday morning from Liverpool via the Orient. As is customary with the Holt steamships, the Antiochus is coming here with a full cargo of freight, which, is made up of machinery, whisky, ales, and general merchandise.

On Wednesday two liners will sail, the Canadian-Australian steamship Marama, Capt. Morrisby, for the Antipodes, and the Holt liner Cyclops, Capt. Clarke, for the United Kingdom. The following day it is expected, that the Tacoma Maru, Capt. Yamamoto, of the Osaka fleet, will dock here from the Far East. Towards the end of the week the Canadian-Mexican steamship Strathdene will clear for Salina Cruz and the Nippon Yusen liner Kamakura Maru, Capt. Kon, leaves for Yokohama on Saturday.

CLEAR NORTHBOUND WITH LARGE CARGO

Princess Mary Takes Many Passengers North—Prince Rupert on Time

Taking a full cargo of general freight for her different ports of call and a few passengers, the C. P. R. steamer Princess Mary, Capt. Locke, left last night for northern British Columbia and Queen Charlotte Islands. Included in her cargo were a large amount of stores and supplies consigned to the merchants at coast towns who are getting in their Christmas stock. Among the passengers from this port were the Misses Read bound for China Hat and H. Harris going through to Prince Rupert.

Wireless messages received last night by the Triangle station from the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Barney Johnson, state that the vessel will arrive in port on time tomorrow morning. She will dock about 6:30 o'clock and after her local passengers have disembarked will proceed to Seattle at 10 o'clock. The local agents have been advised that the steamer is bringing many passengers south and also report that they have booked quite a number for the north-bound trip on Monday.

About Wednesday of next week the C. P. R. steamer Princess May, Capt. McLeod, will arrive at the Inner Dock from Skagway and Prince Rupert. The vessel is making but two large cargo runs a month and as a result brings large crowds of passengers south each passage. The May will sail on Friday night for Skagway.

Capt. A. C. Anderson, who has been in the employ of the Terminal Steam Navigation Company for the past year, has resigned to take up his new position as a Vancouver pilot. In passing Capt. Anderson for these duties the Pilot Board is believed to have secured the services of one of the most experienced navigators in these waters.

LITTLE HOPE NOW FOR GULF STREAM

Shipping Men Believe She Has Foundered—Regret Expressed

As day after day goes by without any word being received from the British barque Gulf Stream, the feeling that disaster has overtaken her becomes stronger. The ship is out 210 days to-day from Glasgow with a general cargo for Evans, Coleman & Evans, and the fact that she has not been spoken since May last, gives rise to the opinion that she has foundered in the heavy gales which have swept the north and south Pacific during the past few months.

It is with deep regret that shipping men, both in Victoria and other cities on the coast, are accepting this theory. The old sea-faring men of this port feel to recall so long a passage from the United Kingdom, supporting the belief advanced in marine circles is the fact that the French barque General Faidherbe, which left England 47 days after the missing ship, has arrived in Vancouver after a passage of 157 days.

The Gulf Stream was to have called here to discharge several hundred tons of general freight and then proceeded to Vancouver. After the vessel had been out 180 days shipping men began to express some anxiety for the barque, and now they give up as lost. Unless a number of the grain ship from the Sound and Columbia river, the Gulf Stream was a similar vessel to the Arctic Stream, which loaded lumber at the Canadian-Puget Sound Lumber Co. last July.

The Gulf Stream has a charter to load grain on the Sound for the United Kingdom if she turns up.

WHALING OPERATIONS SUSPENDED IN NORTH

William Grant Arrives From Naden Harbor—Other Vessels Now on Way South

Owing to the heavy weather which is now prevalent in northern waters whaling operations at Naden Harbor and Rose Harbor have had to be suspended for the season. One of the whalers, the William Grant, returned to port yesterday and paid off her crew and the other four are now on their way south.

The officers of the Grant state that the weather at the Queen Charlotte Islands is so severe that it is impossible for the vessels to engage in the pursuit of the mammoths of the sea. The winter storms have set in and the Canadian North Pacific Fisheries Company has decided to withdraw its fleet of whalers in the north. The little steamers continued their work up to within a short time ago and succeeded in capturing a record number of mammals during the season.

With the arrival of the four whalers now on their way south the whole of the fleet of ten vessels will be in port. The two stations at Sechart and Kyuquot closed down some time ago as the heavy weather of the west coast prevented the little vessels from approaching within range of the whales.

The whaling season this year has been a record one and nearly twice the number of whales were secured as in any past year. Five new steamers, which arrived from Norway last spring, engaged in the work and the season has been the most profitable in the history of the company.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

MORE SUFFRAGETTES SENT TO PRISON

Lady Constance Lytton and Lady Sybil Smith Given Two Weeks in Jail

London, Nov. 25.—Lady Constance Lytton and Lady Sybil Smith, both leaders in the suffragette movement, were sentenced, at Bow Street police court, to a fortnight in jail for smashing windows during the demonstrations last Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Leigh, who has been described by the police as the most troublesome of the suffragettes, was sentenced to two months in jail and if she were again convicted, she would be sentenced to hard labor. The remaining 13 cases were put over to next Monday.

In the police court on Thursday Mrs. Kathleen Robwell, who had broken a big plate glass window on the Strand, managed to make a brief speech in spite of the protests of the magistrate. "It is out of my great love for humanity and particularly to my devotion to women and children that I do this," she said. "Sex disqualification is the root of social evils and I am prepared to do anything—the militant effort to gain votes for women."

Mrs. Robwell was committed for trial. She refused bail and will remain in jail until the trial. Miss Marmar paid under protest a fine and costs of repairing the windows of a government building which she had smashed. Miss Harmer explained that her father was seriously ill and on that account she would pay rather than go to jail.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By Ruth Cameron

Do you like surprises? I am so fond of them myself that I feel sure you do. Remember some times when you were little, how father, mother or big brother would put a stick of candy, many colored pencil or some other childish treasure under your plate; and remember how delighted you were when you came to the table, saw that inverted plate and how the treasure beneath it became twice as delightful by reason of being a "prize"?

Remember, too, that time when big brother came home and said right out of a clear sky, "How would you like to go to the circus this afternoon?" Of course, you said yes, and you can remember as well as if it were yesterday how you jumped up and down and cried "Goody" or "Bully," according to your sex. Surely the reason that whole excursion stands out so vivid in your mind is that it was lifted out of the ordinary by being a "prize."

Well, then, since we've decided that you like surprises, as well as I do, I'm sure you'll want to hear of a new kind of surprise that Molly, the little stenographer lady, told us of the other afternoon.

"The author man was glum. No, it wasn't because the magazine market was as bad as the stock market. No, it wasn't anything else we could suggest. Very well, then, if we must know, it was simply because he was sick to death of himself and his vile temper. Just the other day he had made-up his mind to resign, but he would control it ever so long, that he would control it ever so long."

"That's the way it always is," he concluded, "over and over again I make up my mind that I will do better next time, and even while I'm making that promise I know that the very next time I get angry, I'll say every bitter, unreasonable thing that comes into my head. I'm almost ready to chuck the whole thing."

We were all silent for a minute. We knew that the author man had considerable provocation for temper, but we couldn't very well say that.

Molly spoke finally. "Did you ever try giving yourself surprises, David?" said she.

"Don't know what you mean, Molly," said the author with the lifelessness of complete discouragement. "Well, you know," explained Molly, "it's this way. I used to have just the same feeling about getting up in the morning—that is, I'd promise myself every night that I would get up when called in the morning, and even while I was promising, I'd know I wouldn't. Well, one morning when I was lying there thinking I ought to get up, but wouldn't, it popped into my head, 'Why not give yourself a surprise by getting up this minute?' And so I did. I jumped right out of bed and it really was a pleasant surprise to myself. And a nice one, too, for I had time enough to dress in comfort, go out in the garden and pick a bunch of pansies for my desk. And I've done it a lot since—given myself surprises about different things, I mean. You don't know how much putting it that way helps. When I come home tired, throw myself on the couch, and don't feel a bit like helping mother get supper, I'll think, 'This is a grand chance to give myself a surprise by hopping up quick and setting the table.' I do it and when I sit down to supper, I can tell you, I feel better than if I hadn't."

"Indeed, I'm not," said the author man. "On the contrary, I'm going to surprise myself very next time I get a chance."

"Truly," cried Molly rapturously. She thinks the author man very wonderful and regards his approval as a sort of accolade.

"Molly," broke in the wants-to-be-cynic, who had been listening with unwonted attention, "I say, Molly, five times you've promised me you'd take that tramp to Bear's Hill and then put it off. Now I want to go this afternoon and I hope you are going to surprise yourself by putting on your duds and coming."

"I guess he's got you this time," said the author man. "But why don't you, Molly? I feel just like a tramp and I'll come, too, if I may."

"Oh, well, you, David," cried Molly with delight. "I'll go this minute." But whisper while I tell you a queer secret. I don't think the wants-to-be-cynic was the least bit pleased.

ENTERTAINMENT BY PROF. SVEINBJORNSSON

And Assistants Last Evening—
Interesting and Instructive Recitals.

One of the most interesting lectures and musical recitals which have been heard in the city for many months was that given last evening by Professor Sveinbjornsson, the new "Grieg" of Scandinavia, who last night lectured to a large audience of the "northern nations," who gathered to hear him in the new Lutheran church at the corner of Blanchard and Queen's avenue. The largest proportion of those present were Scandinavians who live in and around the city, and one had only to look at the expression on the faces to see what stirring memories the folk songs aroused, and how the nature of the music appealed to the temperament of these countrymen of his. The professor was introduced—although that was not necessary in a literal sense—to the audience by the chairman, who gave a glowing tribute to the character of the man who was about to address them, saying that he had endeared himself to not only the humble and lowly of his country, but had won recognition from the crowned heads of many nations, and quite apart from his musical gift to his people was honored and beloved. The programme was divided into two parts, the first being a delightful descriptive talk on the folk songs of the four northern nations, the vocal illustrations being rendered in the respective languages. The second part of the programme consisted of pianoforte solos by the professor and four songs by Mr. G. Mathiasson, whom we were told was the son of Iceland's poet-laureate. Throughout the audience evidenced the keenest enthusiasm, and applauded heartily at the close of each performance.

The professor illustrated in fine expressive baritone the part of his lecture on Scandinavian folksongs. Perhaps the most distinctive feature of his singing was the fire and spirit which he poured into his work, his whole attitude and the expression of his face speaking volumes in themselves. The illustrations were given under several headings, being grouped into "Love Songs," "Songs of the Tournament," "Patriotic Songs," "Convivial Songs" and "Cradle Songs." The patriotic songs were divided into two sub-classes, those which told of war, and those in which patriotism without war was extolled. Denmark, it is interesting to note, possesses more of the former than Sweden. The students of Copenhagen, Stockholm, Reykjavik, and Christiania, he pointed out, had been responsible for the dissemination of most of the folksongs and had, been the principal instruments in the creation of the group of 'Convivial Songs,' most of these latter, composed by Liehmann, expressing the Bohemianity of the students. A description was given of one of the Norwegian dances in which the performer commences in a crouching position, gradually rising to a strong upright position when the spirit had been aroused to a state of fiery animation, but the crouch being gradually resumed as the dancer weaved.

In the second part of the programme the professor opened with a pianoforte solo, Grieg's "Norwegian Wedding March," in which he showed great skill as a pianist, bringing out all the characteristic lights and shades of the great Scandinavian work, "Whither," the Schubert-Liszt composition, and the "March From Tannhauser," were also played by the professor. Perhaps he played to the best advantage in this section of the performance in his rendering of "Valgissa"—a composition of his own—the naturally fine elements of the song being intensified by the spirited manner in which it was sung. The "Valgissa," which is a great mountain torrent, is described in a poem written by the composer of Iceland, and the words and music are full of rich romanticism, and singularly well suited to each other.

The tenor, J. Eriksson, was ill and unable to fulfil his engagement, but G. Mathiasson, a baritone, who comes from Seattle, gave excellent renderings of the songs which fell to his share. Particularly fine were the "War Song" and "The Challenge of Thor," both compositions of Professor Sveinbjornsson, both of which were beautifully sung by Mr. Mathiasson, the professor accompanying. Encores were called for in both cases.

The professor will be in Vancouver to-night, where he will give a recital, and another on the 27th inst at Blaine, which should be attended by all lovers of music.

HOW TO REMOVE A BAD COMPLEXION

(From London Fashions.)
A poor complexion really helps a poor complexion; often they are positively harmful. The sensible, rational way is to actually remove the thin veil of stinging, half-dead scarf skin from the face and give the fresh, vigorous and beautiful young skin underneath a chance to show itself and to breathe.

This is best done in a very simple way, by merely applying mercerized wax at night, like cold cream, and washing it off in the morning. Good mercerized wax can be obtained from any well-stocked druggist. It absorbs the disgusting cuticle gradually and harmlessly, leaving a brilliant natural complexion. Of course this also takes with it all such facial blemishes as red blotches, tan, moth patches, sallowness, liver spots, pimples, etc. As a freckle remover—and general complexion beautifier this old-fashioned remedy is unequalled.

THE PSALM OF THE SUFFRAGETTE

Show me not with scornful numbers
You've too many voters now!
Woman, wakened from her slumbers,
Wants the ballot anyhow.

Bill or life with Ernest
To more our destined goal,
You art, to man thou turnest,
But we, too, demand the poll.

Not enjoyment, nought but sorrow,
Is the legislator's way;
For we'll get to him to-morrow
If he should escape to-day.

Art's expensive, styles are fleeting;
Let our lace-edged banners wave,
Thus inscribed o'er every meeting,
"Give us suffrage or the grave."

Heroes, prepare for battle!
Lend your efforts to the strife!
Drive all husbands forth like cattle,
Be a woman, not a wife.

Trust no man, however pleasant,
He'll agree to all you say,
Send you candy as a present,
Go and vote the other way.

Wives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And preceding—leave behind us
All the rest at dinner-time.

Let us then be up and doing,
Don the trouzings and the coat;
For our candidate pursuing
The elusive, nimble vote.

Victoria was favored by three capital performances this week—two presentations of "A Spring Maid" and one of "Alias Jimmy Valentine." The first, a tuneful operetta, drew crowded houses, and although there was nothing noteworthy in the way of singing in the performance the music was delightful and the acting above the ordinary. For the time being the "Spring Maid" had become a cult and everybody had to belong to it. Nowadays, however, it is difficult to get together the combination which characterized the old "Bostonians" and the numerous other comic opera companies which comprised first-class singers and ac-will be heard at Victoria theatre on Friday, December 1, and the occasion will be one of moment for music lovers of this city. Heretofore concert patrons have been able to look forward to other concerts in the future given by Kubelik. This season will be the "farewell" of one of the most distinguished musicians of his time. There have been quite a number of great violinists who have played for the United States and Canadian public, but very few who might be designated as supremely great. Kubelik is given a thought to any form of violin work than the actual playing. And he has never taken time to consider comtors and gave fine performances. The ecology of brilliant Saxons, Lehar, Strauss and Reinhardt are doing their best to raise the plane, but they might as well give it up if their beautiful melodies are butchered by rancorous, voiced individuals who should be selling fish at Billingsgate. "The Divine Sarah" is about to marry a young man, younger than her grandson. The engagement of Madame Bernhardt to a 26-year-old gentleman was announced in press dispatches from Paris a few days ago. The great transcendence is nearly seventy. She has run the whole gamut of human emotions on the stage and is reaching her limit. It was cruel of her to swoop down upon that poor innocent young fellow whose only crime, doubtless, was that he had been enthralled by her golden voice and fascinated by her eagle eye.

position he is interpreting for the sake of a showy display. A marvelous personality that commands and interests, a brilliant style and sincere endeavor to give of his best are the qualities that have endeared Kubelik to his audiences. There never was a violinist like him; there never will be again. He is unique; his distinct and his withdrawal from this country at the close of the coming musical season means a great loss.

KUBELIK'S BELOVED "STRAD" Which he will play here on Dec. 1

"The Commuters"
Henry B. Harris will present for the first time at the Victoria theatre Monday, November 27, "The Commuters," a farcical comedy by James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady" and "The Travelling Salesman." The story of "The Commuters" centres about Larry and Hetty. Hetty, a devoted young couple, residents of Auburn Manor, a suburb of New York. Larry's particular chum, Sammy Fletcher, is a New York bachelor. Known only by name and reputation to Hetty, he is the object of her dislike, as she holds him responsible for her husband's occasional innocent diversions from the narrow path. Larry invites Sammy to spend a day in Auburn Manor in order that he may revel in the real joys of a commuter. His unexpected advent in the Bruce household causes a temporary breach between the people. Sammy, in his attempt to repair the damage, only succeeds in bringing down upon his head the wrath of husband and wife. The cast to be seen here is the same seen in the New York and Boston runs, and includes Harry Davenport, Florence Malone, Amy Lesser, John Robertson, Lillian Thurgate, Pauline Duffield, Karra Kenwyn and others.

to recover them. There was abundant opportunity to escape, but at the end of ten days every man came back and brought the horses to the farm again. Some of these men were desperate characters. Murder was charged against some, and many were burglars. Yet they have proved true to their trust and made good the boast of the penal reformers that a sense of honor can be instilled even into hardened men if properly treated.

San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 25.—Concluding one of the swiftest criminal trials on record in this county, Dr. Arthur McDavit was yesterday convicted of an offence in connection with the confinement of Miss Jessie McDonald in a room next to his office for sixteen months. McDavit smilingly announced he would appeal when he is called for sentence Monday. The maximum penalty is a year in jail.

"The Fortune Hunter"
As delightful in its humor and as native American as anything by Irving, Lowell or Holmes, is "The Fortune Hunter," by Winchell Smith, which comes to Victoria theatre Monday, December 4. Not only did it outlast all other of the season's productions in Chicago and New York, but it made new records for the play without music. In its long run the Winchell Smith comedy had many special events, notable among which was the matinee for ministers, and bankers' night, when the most noted men of finance attended in a body. One of the biggest events of the year was the "druggist's night," when the entire theatre was taken by druggists and others associated with that trade.

Fred Niblo as Nat Duncan, the fortune hunter, is ably supported by a perfect company, including Miss Josephine Cohan, sister of the "Fanny Doodle" comedian, "Geo. M." Mr. Niblo has won great personal success in the title role of the play. Frank Bacon, as the delightful old druggist; Frank Bouman, the rural sheriff; Neil Burton, the banker whose fortune is the attraction; Daniel Hamilton, the young broker whose scheming is the basis of the play, are the principal men in the supporting cast. Josephine Cohan, the druggist's daughter, whose love transforms the fortune hunter; Lento Fulwell, the banker's daughter; and Virginia Berry, the country girl, have the principal women's parts.

The play and production is under the direction of Henry Cohan and Harris, guaranteeing in itself that the performance will be in every way worthy.

Mark Hambourg.
The pleasure and profit of an evening with Mark Hambourg, the Russian pianist of world renown, whose modulation capabilities of touch permit him to produce the most powerful accents in just as happy a manner as the more dainty fragrant passages. He delves with his entire soul into the spirit of each composition, and holds his auditors spellbound by his earnest, fiery temperament, and his vigorous manhood.

This tried and proved master of the piano is the son of Prof. Michael Hambourg, now resident in Toronto, who is a musician and teacher of the first rank, and to whom Mark was indebted for his early training, but the reward for this parental love was not long in coming, for after three years with Leschetzky in Vienna, during which period he won the Liszt scholarship, Mark Hambourg made his debut as a full-grown pianist in 1894 at a Philharmonic concert in Vienna under the conductorship of Dr. Richter, and year after year since has been climbing the ladder of fame, and is now on the top rung, being recognized by the world's press as the successor of Rubenstein. A varied and interesting programme has been arranged for his recital December 6 at Victoria theatre, and we would urge those who desire to partake of a rare musical treat not to miss this opportunity.

The Empress Theatre
Vilmos Westony, the noted European pianist who has devoted his life to a study of Wagnerian music and who has the notable honor of having studied under the famous German composer, Wagner, will make his return to the Empress theatre next week. Because of his splendid reception last year he has decided to make a second tour over the Sullivan & Considine circuit. Mr. Westony is an artist. His repertoire includes a dozen symphonies from a single piano, and a specialty he introduces is the playing of four national airs simultaneously. He has been favoring since his arrival on the continent to master the English language. His quaint announcement "I now will play zoe rags-time" will be remembered by those who heard his enjoyable performance on his last visit here.

Sullivan & Pasquena will stage an excellent farce in which the burlesque of stage life is the feature. They give a performance during the twenty minutes they are on the boards that is full of wit and song. Miss Pasquena is a very clever comedienne, and she introduces several capital songs in the specialty.

"The Merry Musical Mimedian," as Art Adair is billed on the Empress programme, comes to the Empress theatre from a phenomenal run at the music halls of New York. He is a very funny comedian and also a clever musician.

Phillips & Merritt, who have been abroad for several years, having joined a number of American performers who migrated to the old hemisphere a few years ago, have returned to the Sullivan & Considine circuit. They introduce in the SKIT the 2nd act a number of observations made while on the continent. Their act is a happy combination of mirth and music.

The Rodriguez family of gymnasts and acrobats will appear in some feats of gymnastics. They do some remarkable tumbling, and have been making a distinct hit with their work over the circuit.

TRUSTING PRISONERS.
Experiences Under System in Vogue in Colorado Penitentiaries.
For several years there has been a system of trust and honor pursued towards the prisoners in the Colorado penitentiaries. The state uses them as laborers in building and repairing roads and a number of fine highways have been constructed by this means. Sometimes as many as a hundred are in camp miles away from the prison for weeks at a time. The guards are not armed. The men work eight hours a day and after supper they go swimming, play ball, and take walks in the mountains. They must all be in camp at 5 p.m. So far no one, it is said, has tried to escape.

SURVEYORS WERE IN PERILOUS FLOES

ADVENTUROUS JOURNEY
IN WATERS OF NAAS

Victorian Braves icy Waters to Reach Northern Harbor
in Time

Of the party of thirty-five who have been engaged in survey work for Gore & McGregor of this city, in the Naas river valley during the past summer, five men had an exciting experience in reaching Mill Bay before taking steamer for the south.

Owing to the severe weather the whole party was delayed longer than had been anticipated, and leaving Alyash on November 7 they came down the Naas river in three dugouts, with Indian pilots, the navigation being dangerous on account of the flow of ice up and down with the tide.

At Greenville the Indians would not proceed, so the party divided, and H. P. Rutter, chief of the party, taking with him E. K. Maughlin, B. Stirling, A. Stromerson and A. B. Fraser, decided to continue the journey alone.

They took a dugout, and amid the floating floes picked their way down stream, a venture full of peril, but the ice packs proved too much for them, and the canoe was soon afterwards carried to the opposite shore from Mill Bay, their destination. It was impossible to reach the point desired, so with the ice running to and fro, Mr. Rutter decided to pull in on shore, and cache their supplies. This was on Thursday, November 9, the party having separated from their companions overnight, and it was resolved to camp in a small canyon, under the depressing conditions, and in zero weather.

Friday passed and Saturday without a change, and on Sunday morning Stirling and Stromerson resolved to set out with two days' supplies to make Naas harbor. The two men had a perilous climb along precipitous cliffs and over boulders, but with torn clothing and worn out with their exertions they ultimately reached safety at the harbor, and the greatest surprise was aroused that the men could have made the trip in safety.

Relief was sent to the three remaining men, who were brought in, and the whole party was reunited. Their companions had almost given them up for lost. However, the party in the canyon claim they could have signalled for help had they been driven to desperate straits. On Tuesday, November 14, the whole party were reunited, and on successive days the Cetriana, the Prince Albert, and the Venture tried

NEW Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS.

The further strengthening of the work of the local Y. M. C. A. was effected by the appointment yesterday, by the board of directors, of two new officials. These are O. D. Austin, Lethbridge, and W. R. Francis, Spalding, Sask.

The former comes here as secretary of educational and religious work, and is highly recommended for that position. He was for two years in the ministry, was principal of a public school for three years and for the same length of time was acting editor of the Lethbridge Herald. He will begin work here about the first of the new year. In a report to the board, Secretary E. M. Thomasson dwelt on the necessity of having this phase of the association's work under some experienced man.

Mr. Francis succeeds J. Stanley Young, who resigns the position of office secretary which he has held for some time. He is a graduate of university and business college, taught vocal music in Knox-Conservatory for two years and understands the work of office secretary. The board expressed its thanks to Mr. Young for his services.

At this meeting of the board, which took the form of a luncheon, the secretary submitted a new constitution for the association and this was adopted after some discussion. As this provides for a three-year term for the directors, one-third retiring each year, it became necessary to ballot among the directors to decide who would retire at the close of each of the next three years. The result was to fill the three-year term, Messrs. McMillan, Michener, Mitchell and Durston, to serve two years, Messrs. Sowercroft, Whittington, Hillis, Fields and Robertson; to serve one year, Messrs. Knott, Elliott and the three to be elected to fill vacancies on the board. The association year is to be the calendar year.

The board will meet on the second Tuesday of each month. In financial affairs it is intended to adopt a cash system and pay all bills monthly.

Victoria will soon have a branch of the "First Aid to the Injured or Ambulance Society," steps being now under way for its organization.

In England every village and hamlet almost has its local First Aid to the Injured or Ambulance Society, and every school boy could give practical pointers on the manner of reviving "faints" and giving temporary aid to broken noses and sprained wrists. It was for the purpose of extending the work of this fine organization—the St. John's Ambulance Association—that a branch of the guild was formed some time ago in the Dominion, the headquarters being at Ottawa.

The head of the Canadian branch, which is run on the same lines as the English one, is H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught. The western part of Canada decided some ten months ago to take the matter up, and with that object the secretary, Capt. Birdwhistle, came out here from Ottawa and had a meeting, the result of which was that a provincial council was appointed. Dr. D. Donald, who lectured for the Guild in England being selected to organize the work on the island, as he was the only man here at that time who had been associated with the matter in any form, or who had done any actual work for the association. Victoria is the centre of the society's activities for the southern part of the island, and so far some good work has been done in providing a course of lectures for the local police corps, under the direct control of Dr. Donald. About ten days ago thirty-six members of the police force, including the chief of police and the deputy chief of police, received certificates as thoroughly qualified "first-aiders." Dr. Houghton, another lecturer under the auspices of the association, taught a civilian class, all of the members of which he went up for the examination passed successfully.

The local centre is now arranging a series of lectures for women, which is intended shall be carried out by a class of the city. Dr. Houghton's class on Tuesday next, and as announced yesterday's Times, Dr. Eric Perkins, who has just arrived from England, will commence almost immediately a class in "first aid" in connection with the Y. W. C. A., and these classes will be supplemented in the near future by one under the tutelage of Dr. Donald on the subject of home nursing. Dr. Popert, of Victoria West, will also be in the field very shortly with a ladies' class, where the same topic will form the subject of the lectures.

Later on Dr. Donald and his committee propose giving classes in home hygiene and sanitation.

After the course the ladies will be granted certificates which will come from Ottawa signed by the grand prior, H. R. H., the Duke of Connaught. OFFICERS ELECTED.

New Westminster, Nov. 25.—The afternoon session of the Conservative convention yesterday was almost exclusively devoted to the selection of officers. The natural promotion of W. M. Mackay to the presidency was made by unanimous voice of the convention. Mayor Lee, of the royal city, was with like unanimity elected first vice-president, and W. T. Shatford, of Penfulton, second vice-president. Leonard Tait, of Victoria, was elected third vice-president after a keen contest. For the secretaryship also a contest developed between J. B. Williamson, who has discharged the duties of the post during some three years' past, and F. G. T. Lucas, a son of the present representative of Vels, in the local legislature. Victoria rested with Mr. Williamson, who polled 211 to his opponent's 120. H. E. Edmonds, of New Westminster, was re-elected the association treasurer.

For Your Health's Sake

Give the heating of your home the attention it deserves. Don't unthinkingly install a Furnace which supplies the dry, parching air that irritates throats and lungs, causes colds and keeps you paying out money to Doctors and Druggists.

The average hot-air Furnace does that because in warming the air it dries out the moisture and the waterpan is not big enough, neither is it correctly placed, to make good Nature's 60% to 70% of humidity.

The Big Circle Waterpan of the Good Cheer Furnace really does what it is supposed to do. By encircling the fire pot, and holding 4 to 6 gallons, it evaporates the water fast enough to keep up the natural humidity of the air. Thus instead of being dry and stuffy, the air of a "Good Cheer" heated house is as fresh and comfortable as the outdoor air of a day in June.

Investigate this question and convince yourself. Write for Booklet and full information—we'll gladly supply it.

PUBLIC INQUIRIES.
Ottawa, Nov. 25.—Hon. Mr. Doherty's bill to amend the act respecting public inquiries is believed to be a preparation for the coming investigation into certain spending departments. The law now authorizes the issue of commissions to conduct inquiries and investigations. The amendment will empower such commissioners to depose assistants to take evidence or to go into details of specific matters.
A large deputation representing the victims of the Farmers' Bank yesterday waited in Premier Borden and Ministers White, Burrell, Pelletier, Hughes, Nantel, Reid, Rogers, Perley and Loughheed, and urged the reimbursement of the depositor and freedom from double liability of shareholders. The argument was that as the issue of the certificate had been illegal no such bank had been really in existence. Replying for the government, Mr. White said the case was recognized by the government as most distressing. For the present he could only promise the most favorable consideration.

FIRST LECTURE OF NEW SOCIETY

PROFESSOR KNAPP WILL SPEAK MONDAY

Objects of Archaeological Institute Now Organized in Victoria

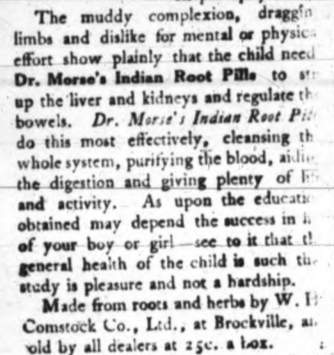

Dr. A. Judson Eaton, of McGill University, Montreal, has spent the last week in the city perfecting the organization of the Victoria Society of America, and the first lecture will be delivered on Monday night by Professor Knapp of Columbia University. The Victoria society has already received a large measure of support from influential men, and Lieut.-Governor Patterson has accepted the position of patron for the society.

The society is undertaking important work of an educational nature. It is known that many of the most important evidences of the races that have lived in this country have been taken to universities and museums in the United States. One object of the society is to arouse sufficient interest in these things to have them preserved in Canada. Another object, and perhaps the principal one, is to educate people along the many lines that are possible through the teaching of archaeology.

Professor Eaton explains the objects of the institute to be: "The rapid extension during the past ten years of the Canadian affiliated societies has clearly shown that in all the larger cities of the Dominion there is a widespread and genuine interest in the great work of the institute, whose object is not only to promote and direct archaeological

Listless, Backward Children Made Bright and Active by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Many a growing boy or girl is set down as constitutionally slow, stupid or lazy when it is really a question of inactive bowels, lazy liver or sluggish kidneys. The growing child, with a hearty appetite, certainly cannot long remain healthy and bright if the bowels and kidneys are choked up with impurities that should be thrown off promptly. The muddy complexion, dragging limbs and dislike for mental or physical effort show plainly that the child needs Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills to stir up the liver and kidneys and regulate the bowels. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills do this most effectively, cleansing the whole system, purifying the blood, aiding the digestion and giving plenty of energy and activity. As upon the education obtained may depend the success in life of your boy or girl—see to it that the general health of the child is such that study is pleasure and not a hardship. LOOKING BACKWARD ON WARD SYSTEM

Some Changes of Thirty Years in Election of Victoria's City Fathers

The determination to submit a referendum to the citizens next January on the abolition of the ward system will, if carried, bring the city into line with most of the municipalities of the province in the election of councilmen at large. Special exceptions were made in the Municipal Clauses Act in the cases of Victoria and Nanaimo when the statute was passed through the legislature in 1896, and few of the cities still retain the ward system, although it was incorporated into the statute for rural authorities in order that the more sparsely populated districts which exist in some of the rural municipalities might secure some representation which they could not hope to get if the settled sections could elect their own men over the head of such representatives. Since, however, the municipalities around Vancouver have changed from a rural to an urban character the tendency has been to seek to elect the councillors from the whole area, and steps to legalize this end are in progress in two or three districts at the present time. Vancouver city will automatically end its ward system in twelve months' time, when the city secures commission government, and New Westminster abandoned it some years ago, now electing seven members from the whole body of the citizens.

The ward system as it is now understood in Victoria goes back to the Municipal Clauses Act of 1896, as at the election of that year the city was still divided into North, Central and South wards, each returning three members, and so strange are the vagaries of life that the mayor has only one alderman, W. F. Fullerton, around the council board which was chosen but a few years ago. The division into three wards was unchanged from 1893 to 1906, and it was during the second mayoralty of Hon. Robert Beaven that the alteration was made from the old three wards, known as James Bay, Johnson street and Yates street wards. At the January poll in 1892 these divisions were used for the last time, the alteration above indicated being made in the following year. At that time three members were returned for each ward, making nine in all, but this was not the case in the early eighties when each ward had its two members; in fact, in Johnson street ward in 1887 the second and third candidates had an equal position on the poll, with 141 votes each, and the returning officer declared John Coughlan elected over J. Robertson. An election by wards may easily lead to a tie, particularly in small polls, and this was seen in James Bay ward in 1892, when the returning officer, W. K. Bull, gave his casting vote against William Wilson, a retiring councillor, who was equal third on the poll with John Hall.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 25.—The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners must merge with the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America by July 1, next, or lose their charter in the American Federation of Labor, was the decision made yesterday at this convention. After President Gompers had answered the attack made on labor leaders by Detective Burns at the Bankers' Association in New Orleans, the convention adopted resolutions condemning the expression of confidence in Burns by the state secretaries' section of the bankers' convention.

During the present year the following scholars have either already lectured in the Canadian circuit or will lecture during the coming winter: Professor Harry L. Wilson, of John Hopkins University; Professor Casper Rene Gregory, of Leipzig University; M. Franz Cumont, of Paris; Dr. Harlan I. Smith, head of the Archaeological department of the Dominion government.

The mission of the institute is humanistic as well as scientific. It treats the field of art as well as archaeology. The affiliated societies hold regular meetings for lectures and other purposes. To bring to its members the results of archaeological activities, the institute maintains four lecture circuits, in the eastern, central and western states, and in Canada; each year the lecturers number fifteen to twenty, and more than one hundred and fifty lectures are given. American scholars and specialists representing various fields of archaeology, art and literature are sent out as lecturers, and societies are encouraged to hold regular meetings and provide special lectures in addition to those furnished by the institute. Courses of lectures may be secured by universities, museums, and societies upon request. A few years ago D. James Loeb endowed the Chas. Elliot Norton Memorial lectureship in order to secure for the institute the services of distinguished foreign lecturers. During recent years there have been lectures before the societies by D. G. Hogarth, of the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford; Professor Christian Huelsen, formerly of the German Archaeological Institute in Rome; and Professor J. E. Myres, of the University of Oxford.

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS MAY COME HERE

Member of Organization Says Campaign Likely to Be Started in Victoria

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—That Aberdeen, Wash., will shortly be compelled to acknowledge the right of any man to address public gatherings on the streets owing to the campaign of unarmed resistance inaugurated by members of the Industrial Workers of the World, was the opinion expressed at the I. W. W. headquarters here this morning.

In answer to a general call, members of the organization have been going down from Vancouver for a couple of days and the total number from this city who have signified their willingness to assist in the demonstration at Aberdeen, was given this morning by one of the secretaries as in the neighborhood of 100, although he was unable to say how many actually left or were preparing to go south.

"We have our eyes on Victoria," said one of the officers of the organization. "There public speaking by I. W. W. orators has been restricted to one street corner in the city while other organizations are permitted to address the public from any place they may please. We shall, in all probability, start a campaign there in the near future."

Ready For Trouble. Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 25.—Five hundred extra police, armed with axes, handles and policemen's clubs, will again patrol the streets of Aberdeen to-night to prevent riots of I. W. W. members. A special call issued this afternoon for special policemen at 8:30 o'clock to-night at the city hall, where instructions will be given them. It may be necessary to close all the saloons again to-night, as was done last night. The streets to-day are full of all

I. W. W. workers. No demonstrations were made thus far. Threats to destroy Mayor Park's home are without foundation, but a special guard will again be placed there to prevent any accident to his home. Twenty-four I. W. W. members arrested during last evening's disorders were escorted to the city limits this morning, given a loaf of bread and ordered out of town with a warning not to return.

Your Name May Be Here

Please Read Carefully

Nearly 12,000 names were sent in from all over America, and the interest taken by the public and the valuable suggestions received are greatly appreciated by us. Prize cheques are now being mailed. The name "Coquitlam" must be retained, however, because of the decision of the Canadian Pacific Railway designating the new terminal as the "Coquitlam Terminal." We have been notified that the new station will be called Coquitlam. The townsite must certainly have the same name as the station and terminals to prevent the great confusion otherwise sure to arise.

Everybody Wants a Lot in the Townsite of the Canadian Pacific Railway's Pacific Coast Operating Terminus at Coquitlam

NOW COMES THE GREATEST OF THEM ALL, THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY, AND ESTABLISHES AT COQUITLAM THE LAST GREAT TERMINUS OF THE LAST WEST. One of our eastern agents sold 175 lots in one day. Total sale to date about 1,500 lots, but so well distributed over Greenwood, St. Mary's Heights, James Park, Shaughnessy and First Division that a splendid selection remains available for any buyer. The second division is not to be opened for ninety days. Gigantic as was the success of the opening sale considering the little advertising done, it does not seem so vast when measured by the footrule of KNOWLEDGE of the Coquitlam situation—the purposes of the greatest railroad corporation in America, whose activities are about to transform Coquitlam from a dot on the map to one of the greatest industrial centres in western Canada. Grand Trunk Pacific Terminals at Prince Rupert. Canadian Northern Pacific Terminals at Port Mann.

Facts Are Convincing

An interesting thing about Coquitlam is that prospective buyers become actual buyers when the facts are placed before them. At first they approach the subject as though Coquitlam was one of the backwoods subdivisions that destroy so much good farm land. Just as soon as the truth dawns on them and they fully understand that the Canadian Pacific Railway is NOW ACTUALLY AT WORK on the beginning of its terminals at the deep fresh water port of Coquitlam, and that before they are completed SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS will have been spent to provide steady and permanent employment for five thousand men, the work of closing the sale is child's play. Five of the largest banks in Canada have already made application for double corners. This is very significant when it is remembered that CHARTERED BANKS CANNOT SPECULATE IN REAL ESTATE. Opening prices: Residential Lots up from $200; Business Lots, average each $1,000. Easy terms.

12,000 People Within 3 Years

The building of this great terminal city, with its great harbor, its wharves, its factories, its stores, its warehouses and its thousands of homes, is our chief work. We would be foolish not to make it so, after the assurance given us by the Canadian Pacific Railway that 12,000 people will be living in Coquitlam within three years. When 12,000 people are living in Coquitlam business frontage will be worth at least $500 a front foot. It would be the height of folly to sell all our business property now at $30 a front foot. On this account we are reserving one-third of the lots, thus identifying our interests with those of investors and demonstrating our confidence in the new city.

Here is a book more thrilling than fiction—more absorbing than any play that was ever staged. In its pages you read in plain, easily-understood language, about the growth of a new city, with its factories, stores, homes and inhabitants—about a new port, with miles and miles of wharves, and commerce radiating to the four corners of the earth. The writer fires your imagination as he pictures vividly how the upbuilding of Coquitlam will enable the Canadian Pacific Railroad to maintain on the Pacific Coast that supremacy over its rivals which it enjoys elsewhere in Canada—how it adequately arms Vancouver to outstrip Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles and San Francisco as the world city of the Pacific. Best of all, this book tells clearly how you can profit by this activity, how you can share in the city's prosperity and benefit by its growth. Whether you be working man or capitalist, we want you to have a copy of this book, the maps and other literature geographically describing Coquitlam and the great things being done and to be done there. It will not obligate you or commit you in any way to get a copy. Tear out the coupon, fill it in and mail to-day.

SAYS THIS STOPPED DANDRUFF QUICKLY

From Worcester Post, "OVER-HEARD AT THE PLAY." Column. "I wish I could get rid of my dandruff. I'm fairly desperate," I heard a woman say the other night. "I shampoo my head twice a week but in a few hours it is back again as bad as ever. How on earth do you keep your head so clean from dandruff?" "Easily," her friend replied, "and I use nothing but plain ordinary Lavona de compose such as any druggist sells, mixed with Bay Rum and a little Menthol Crystals and apply it twice daily."

Lavona is the technical or pharmaceutical name for the pure concentrated extract of the Peruvian shrub of Peru, which any physician can tell you is unequalled as a hair and scalp cleanser and invigorator. I used to have dandruff quite as badly as you before trying it but after using it a week I found every trace gone and it has never returned. I simply go to my druggist and buy 6 oz. Bay Rum, 2 oz. Lavona de compose and one-half dr. of Menthol Crystals, mix them all together and allow them to stand for an hour. I use this mixture twice a night, morning and rub briskly all through my hair and into the scalp with my finger tips. I spent dollars for every advertised hair tonic and hair wash I read about until some time ago a friend handed me this simple inexpensive home recipe and suggested that I try it. Lavona has one drawback in my case. I find it grows hair with almost startling rapidity. I have to be careful not to get it on the face or where hair is not desired. I wonder more bald-headed men don't use it."

THE SECRET OF GOOD COOKING

lies in the ability of the cook to adjust the heat to a nicety for the work in hand. Only a modern Electric Range affords this advantage.

With it half a dozen different foods can be cooked at once, each with the exact requisite heat—neither more or less.

When the cooking is done, off goes the electric current, and expense ceases—no current is wasted.

The cook can give undivided attention to the cooking—an electric range needs none.

THE OUTLOOK.

"Glorious Kootenay"—Dr. W. J. Dawson has an article in the current number of The Christian World on "Glorious Kootenay." Dr. Dawson does not love the prairie. "To live upon the prairie," he says, "is to live looking upon eternity—a vision too immense and naked to be borne." But for the mountain country, and for the Kootenay in particular, he has a great admiration. While visiting there for two months he preached out of doors on Sundays, and this was his impression of his surroundings: "I could have thought that the lake was Galilee, and certainly the Masters' message of available happiness in human life here seemed to me more real than there. I carry away from Kootenay the sense of an abiding charm in the majesty of hill and lake, and not less a lively gratitude for a time passed among genuine and kindly folk, who are really living with success the much-talked-of, but little practised, simple life."

Baptist Success.—Reports from the Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur indicate success in securing funds from Baptists, largely from southern ones, to assist the Baptist propaganda in Russia. As president of the World Alliance, Dr. MacArthur expects to sail for Russia in about a fortnight, hoping to interview the Czar and ask for barrier religious freedom, not for Baptists merely, but for all bodies, including the Jews. Dr. MacArthur will take part in the dedication of a new Baptist church in St. Petersburg, assist in Baptist services in Moscow, and then proceed on a world-tour of inspection of Baptist mission work. He will be absent a year, and perhaps longer.

Changes in Roman Breviary.—It is announced from Rome that Pope Pius X will soon publish a document addressed to Catholic priests of the world making important changes in the Roman breviary. This breviary is the service, in printed form, which every priest is required to recite daily. A part of it he may use in the Mass, but if on any day he do not celebrate the Mass he is to recite it privately, and in full. Reading at his usual rate of words per minute, most priests need one hour and a quarter to recite it.

It is not known definitely as yet what changes the Pope will order, but rumor has it that he will restore the ferial office in full, and allow a commemoration and a lesson to the feast of the day. The report at first was that the new breviary would be obligatory beginning with the year 1912, but as the Pope's instructions can hardly be given out until after the approaching consistory there will not be time to get the changes in printed form and into the hands of the priests. The changes are of interest, since now living have any breviary changes been ordered.

ANGLICAN.

St. Barnabas.
Sale of Work.—Tuesday and Wednesday next will find the ladies of the parish just as busy as can be. Of course they will not all be busy at the same time. Some will be selling and some buying; some drinking tea and others looking after arrangements, but all will be busy. During the year quite a stock of articles have been gathered as the fruit of the industry of the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, and it is expected they will all be disposed of by sale on the above named days. In connection with Wednesday's proceedings a concert will be given in which a good deal of local talent will perform, including a few numbers by the St. Barnabas Glee Club.

Brotherhood.—The local branch of St. Andrew's Brotherhood will hold its annual meeting in preparation for the local assembly—i.e., the joint meeting of all the Brotherhoods in the diocese, which takes place in the cathedral about the 30th of the month.

St. John's.
Christmas Entertainment.—The Christmas entertainment in connection with St. John's Sunday school will be held on Thursday, December 28, in the school room. This was decided at a meeting of the teachers and officers last night. Supper will be provided at 5.30, to be followed by a musical programme, after which prizes and presents will be distributed from the Christmas tree. All willing to assist by contributions of money or refreshments are requested to communicate with Rev. A. J. S. Ard.

REFORMED EPISCOPAL.

Church of Our Lord.
Miss Forsyth to Speak.—Very much enthusiasm is being manifested in connection with the visit of Miss Jesse Forsyth, who is to speak in the school room on Monday first, concerning her work in connection with the Temperance movement. Miss Forsyth has been for a considerable time the international superintendent of children's work for the I.O.G.T. A joint committee from the local lodges of I.O.G.T. have secured Miss Forsyth's presence on Monday and she will be in receipt of addresses of welcome from both these societies. She is passing through Victoria on her way to Australia. She is in all probability to be accompanied by Hon. G. Cotterill, of Washington.

Anniversary Services.—Preliminary announcement is made of the special services to be held December 3 commemorating the founding of the church. At these services the new hymn book, viz., "The Book of Common Prayer," will supersede the "Hymn Book," which has been used so long, but now is to be discarded.

Ladies' Aid Bazaar.—This excellent society has arranged to consummate its plans to date by holding its annual bazaar in the school room of the church on Wednesday afternoon, and evening of next week. While the sale proceeds, light refreshments will be served and the whole proceedings brought to a climax in a concert of unusual excellence and attractiveness. No admission is charged to either the afternoon or evening's proceedings, and a cordial welcome is proffered to all.

St. Andrew's.

Y.P.S.—A thoroughly enjoyable and highly instructive programme is arranged for Monday evening next when the question of immigration will be given as much consideration as can be possibly put within one hour—the length of the meeting.

Ladies' Missionary Committee.—The annual thank offering service was carried out on Thursday evening last with a great deal of satisfaction to every one and credit to those responsible for details. Rev. Dr. Pidgeon, of Vancouver, was the speaker of the evening and delivered a charming address. The financial results amounted to the excellent figure of $60. The missionary meeting arranged for next Thursday evening will discuss the topic, "China of To-day."

St. Columbia.

Ladies' Aid.—An event coupling social and financial interest was carried out last Wednesday afternoon and evening under the general superintendency of Mrs. Coulson. A varied list of articles were on sale, tea was served, and in the evening a splendid coterie of singers, reciters and instrumental musicians provided a very entertaining programme. The results from every point of view was very gratifying.

CONGREGATIONAL.

First Church.

Best Yet.—The largest attended sale of work ever held in the history of the church and productive of the best financial returns was held last Wednesday and afforded a great deal of satisfaction to those concerned. Mrs. Herd was happy in her presidency over the entire event. The lecture room, in which the function was held, was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the prevailing spirit of enthusiasm which characterized the workers combined with the other auspicious circumstances to make the day a notable success. Tea was served during the afternoon by Mrs. Kinney and Mrs. Harger. Mesdames Braik and Boorman presided over the fancy dress stall. Homemade candy was sold by Miss Hodgkinson. Other helpers were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Hodgkinson. During the evening a programme of music and singing was submitted and greatly enjoyed. The Misses Harkness and Roberts and Mr. Lancelotti contributed generously to the success of the entertainment.

Birthday Party.—Under the auspices of the Young People's Society a birthday party is to be given on Monday evening, commencing at 8.15 sharp. The artists who have promised contribution to the programme are Misses Davis, Miller, Foxall, Scowcroft, W. Scowcroft, Steinmetz, Mrs. Callum, Mr. Pomfret and Mr. H. Davis. It is to be admitted that a combination can provide all a musical taste could wish. In addition to programme light refreshments will be served, which will greatly assist in the evening's pleasure.

Sunday School.—An open session of the Sunday school and of the First church will be held on Sunday first with a view to consolidation of the work, and a better acquaintance of the departments of the school, and to present the united offering in aid of general Sunday school extension work. The superintendent, Mr. J. W. Milroy, will preside. A strong feature of the afternoon session will be an address by Professor Cooper, the blind phenologist, who will not fail to say something eminently practical and interesting.

METHODIST.

Metropolitan.

Visitor.—Last Sunday evening the congregation listened with a great deal of pleasure to a sermon on "The Place of the Home in the Making of a Nation," preached by Rev. J. W. Aitken, associate secretary of temperance, prohibition and moral reform department of Methodist church. Mr. Aitken has the tongue of a ready orator, and his showing of the basic element for any true nationhood is that of a good, clean and spiritual home—the kind Bobbie Burns sang of in his "Cotter's Saturday Night." At the close of the service about $200 were contributed for temperance and moral reform work.

Epworth League.—A very interesting address was listened to by a splendid assembly last Monday evening, when Rev. J. W. Milroy recounted some of the missionary incidents and problems he had been called to face in British Columbia, as well as the prominent demands with which others are endeavoring to meet.

"Doestrik Skule."—This humorous entertainment was repeated by request in the Belmont Avenue Sunday school last Tuesday evening, and did not fail to excite the same approval and applause as it elicited a week or two ago in a much larger building. The school room was packed to its capacity.

Annual Convention.—The Belmont Avenue school was the scene of a very largely attended district convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the Victoria district, comprising seven or eight auxiliaries, on Thursday afternoon, when a series of speeches and reports were presented. Mrs. Frank Adams, district organizer, occupied the chair, and controlled the proceedings in a very capable fashion. An address which won its way with all present was given by Mrs. Johnston, appealing for a deeper and more inward intimacy with the things of God, rather than the flippancy with things of no account. A symposium of extracts showing methods and results of the white slave traffic, and the need created thereby for intelligent and earnest preventive work as well as instructive methods which enlighten and expose, was given in a most telling fashion. The statement did not hit the palate of a few, but the strong conviction of the convention seemed to be that a close study of these conditions and their demands was the best type of redemption work. Other reports were submitted: Miss Sterritt rendered in simple and effective manner a beautiful solo; and ballots were cast for election of a district organizer, the lot falling upon Mrs. Johnson of Victoria West, who had so ably opened the day's proceedings.

W.M.S.—The local auxiliary had its regular monthly meeting last Monday, when it transpired that the society was in a most flourishing condition. Arrangements were also made for the annual Xmas thank offering services.

Special Service for Young Men.—On Sunday night next the experiment which met with such unequalled success will be repeated in the shape of a special young men's service. The ordinary ritual will be almost entirely abandoned. Special hymn sheets will be provided, a male choir of sixty voices will lead the singing, a male quartette will render two selections, and a special preacher will be the Rev. J. H. Cowles, D.D., LL.D., of Sydney, Australia. While Dr. Cowles comes immediately from Australia he has travelled very extensively in other parts of the world, and is therefore well informed along various branches of the usual fancy articles, candles, etc., which will take place on Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Chris. Spencer's, Government street, there will be afternoon tea and supper provided at slight charges. A very successful time is anticipated.

Epworth League.—Dr. Raynor gave a very interesting missionary address last Monday evening before a good company and evoked much enthusiasm. After the meeting the company adjourned to the home of Mr. Brown for the purpose of presenting a cut-glass water set to that gentleman's daughter, who has just lately consummated a happy marriage. Mrs. Brown, who has been an excellent worker in the league, presiding over the department thereof. She was also a valuable member to the choir, and her removal to Winnipeg will cause quite a loss to Victoria West.

Esquimaux.

Concert.—The members of the committee from the church and H.M.C.S. have received many words of commendation concerning the high efficiency of the programme which they successfully in aid of the widow and family of the late Albert E. Munday, of H.M.C.S. Rainbow.

Sacrament.—Despite inclemency of the weather a good congregation took part in the sacrament of the Lord's supper last Sabbath morning when a very enjoyable service was held.

Sunday School.—The committee appointed by the executive of Sunday school have been in session and have almost all arrangements concluded for their Xmas festivities. The Xmas tree will form double purpose of holiday presents and candy and fruit for school children, and being acceptable for presents from children, for their less fortunate friends living in poorer circumstances. The school hopes to eliminate little by little the thought of receiving on these occasions and inculcating the very spirit of Xmas as manifested by the subject of Xmas who came not to be ministered to, but to minister.

BAPTIST.

Emmanuel.

Sunday Services.—Rev. W. Stevenson will preach in the morning on "The Divine Urge in the Life of Jesus," and in the evening on "Jesus and the New Social Order—the Kingdom Within."

Young People.—The pastor, Rev. W. Stevenson, will address the B.Y.P.U. on Monday night at 8 o'clock on "The First and Second Crusades."

First Church.

To-Morrow's Services.—Pastor Warricker will preach to-morrow in the morning on "The God of Bethel." In the evening the monthly service for young people, with special music by the choir, assisted by Messrs. Walton, McMillan and Mett. The subject of the sermon will be "The Moving Picture Show: Is It a Blessing or a Curse?"

Sunday School.—Last Sunday afternoon one-half of the offering was contributed to the Local Option League of B. C., and $45 was forwarded to the general office. On Monday, December 4, a conference of workers with the members of the Eluam, Philathea and Barica Bible classes will be held. Rev. I. W. Williamson, B. C. Sunday school secretary, will be present.

Young People's Debate.—The members of the Young People's Society have accepted an invitation to meet with the Metropolitan Epworth League on Monday evening next. A debate will be the feature of the programme.

Members and friends are assured of a cordial welcome.

Ladies' Aid Sale.—The annual sale of work of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held on Wednesday next in the church building. A large and varied assortment of articles, including many suitable for Christmas gifts, etc., will be on display. Light refreshments will be served and a concert programme provided in the evening.

Tabernacle.

Pulpit.—The pulpit will be occupied to-morrow morning by Rev. F. Letts and by the pastor in the evening.

B.Y.P.U.—The course of study which this society has undertaken, viz., "History and Literature of Early Church," is resulting in a great deal of pleasurable profit and is creating a good deal of interest. On Monday evening next a review of the work thus far done will be reviewed by the pastor. Last Monday evening a very interesting Bible-lesson meeting was convened under leadership of Miss Nichol, who presented Japanese mission work in various phases.

New Church.—The new church edifice, which the children of the late John Sluggert of South Saanich are erecting in memory of their father, is nearing completion, and if all things go as expected the opening ceremony and dedicatory services will take place on December 17, when the Rev. E. J. Harkness, superintendent of Western missions, and Rev. Estabrook, secretary of same for British Columbia, will be present and officiate. The church is situated about twelve miles from the city on the West road to Saanich, and is an undeniable evidence of the erectors' love for their deceased parent and their devotion to the church of his choice.

GERMAN LUTHERAN.

St. Paul's.

Ladies' Society.—The Ladies' Society will have their annual sale of work in the K. of P. hall, corner Pandora and Douglas streets, on the afternoon and evening of December 7. The ladies have been busily preparing an excellent assortment of needlecraft productions, both beautiful and useful, which will find a ready sale. Refreshments will be served and good music provided. Donations for this sale may be left with any of the ladies, or at the parsonage, 1015 McClure street.

Christmas Entertainment.—The Sunday school, assisted by the choir and Luther League, are making preparations for the children's service on Xmas evening. Those who heard the programme as rendered by the various choruses and orchestra of last year will be pleased to hear that from all indications a greater treat awaits them this time.

SUPERSTITIONS DIE HARD.

Some superstitions die hard. If indeed they are dying at all. Twice this year the thirteenth day of the month has fallen Friday. It is impossible not to connect this combination with certain observations made in Paris and London.

On Friday, October 13, there were no marriages in Paris, and a reference to three London papers, the Times, the Morning Post and the Globe, shows that none was recorded on that date for the United Kingdom, and a wedding is hardly a wedding if it is not put on record in the Morning Post and the Times.

In France the effect of Friday, the

REV. FATHER MACDONALD

13th, was even more widespread. Thousands of French people must have abstained from travelling. The receipts of the General Omnibus Company in Paris showed a shrinkage of 10,000 francs, or $2,000. The Midland Railway Company suffered to the extent of 15,000 francs, while the Wagons Lits fell 12,000 francs.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S SERMONS

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—Pastor Russell of the London and Brooklyn Tabernacles preached twice here today.

PASTOR RUSSELL

With more cause than ever for thankfulness, Christendom is losing the sentiment of gratitude to God. In religious matters in general Christendom is rapidly approaching the point of spiritual bankruptcy. It is being prophesied by St. Paul, when men would preserve the form of godliness but deny its power (II Timothy III, 5).
The cause of this the pastor traced to the increasing intelligence of our day which, along religious lines, has cut loose from the Bible and proportionately cut loose from God.
Higher critics, not content with the rejection of the creeds of the Dark Ages, have attacked the Bible, prejudiced against it by the inconsistencies of the creeds. Thinking to render assistance to humanity and to the Truth, they have for fifty years been quietly and successfully engaged in undermining the faith of Christendom in the Bible as a Divine Revelation. They claim for themselves a similar inspiration to that of the Apostles, while they ridicule the thought that holy prophets of old spoke and wrote as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. II Peter I, 21.

Rejecting the Bible as a special Divine Revelation from a personal God, the next step of the higher critics was an easy one—to proclaim nature the god and creator of all things—an impersonal god. Thus they were just in line for Darwin's theory of evolution; that nature is God, and work is the law of nature—the survival of the fittest—and the fittest the most pugnacious and overbearing and selfish scheming.
Thus we have gradually reached the place where the masses of Christendom doubt the existence of a personal God and are inclined to believe in a blind, brutal force—a nature-god—and to hope that by some process of evolution their children's children, in the far hereafter, may attain to something better than the present; but they see not even the assurance of a future life for themselves, any more than for the lawless creation, which their claim exists under the same law of the survival of the fittest.
This explains to us why the masses feel little interest in the living and true God—a Heavenly Father. Under these circumstances, declared Pastor Russell, it is not strange that these unbelievers, that the prisons are nearly empty and the prisons overflowing, and many of the would-be pleasure-mad, St. Paul's words, "Without God and having no hope in the world," surely fit the majority of Christendom today. These conditions breed the reverse of thankfulness—dissatisfaction.
Since the desire of all mankind is happiness, our colleges are unphilosophical in proclaiming a theory which is destroying happiness, and which threatens shortly to destroy our civilization through anarchy. Happier were our grandfathers with fewer blessings than their children with the numberless comforts of today. The education which brings unhappiness is undesirable. It demonstrates that it is not the wisdom from on high which, on the contrary, promotes happiness.
The speaker urged that Darwinism is disproved by every man's experience. All men realize a downward rather than an upward tendency in their constitutions—moral and physical. The same is true in animal and vegetable life. Only constant care and effort will maintain for us the best and highest. Development of animals and vegetables, and deterioration, disease, death, seems to be the law governing, rather than evolution.
Companionship as between the ape and mankind has not been established, but if it could be our experiences in life should lead us to the conclusion that the ape is a degenerate man, rather than that man is an evolved ape.

What does it mean that the highest organs in the human mind generally lie dormant? Does it not prove that these were not developed by evolutionary processes? And what does it mean that the children of some of the inferior members of our race are susceptible of great attainments under the polish of education? It proves to us that similar education and enlightening influences in the reborn past would have produced prodigies. Even without the special blessings of our day, Paul, Moses, David, Confucius and Shakespeare, tower above us like giants.
Hearken to St. Paul's explanation of the extreme degradation of heathendom. He declares that because of unthankfulness God gave over those people to the doing of their own will, to the degradation of their own bodies, to the dwarfing of their own intellects and morals.
We may be sure, similarly, that unthankfulness to-day will bring upon man, naturally, a great curse—a great calamity. God gave over those people to the doing of their own will, to the degradation of their own bodies, to the dwarfing of their own intellects and morals.
We may be sure, similarly, that unthankfulness to-day will bring upon man, naturally, a great curse—a great calamity. God gave over those people to the doing of their own will, to the degradation of their own bodies, to the dwarfing of their own intellects and morals.

The silver lining to the dark cloud is in the Divine promise of rescue, after the world shall have learned a lesson for eternity. The Scriptures assure us that the time of trouble and anarchy will be followed by the establishment of Messiah's glorious Kingdom—the shining of Satan the letting loose of every good influence and the true knowledge of God—the rising of the Sun of Righteousness with healing in its beams.
The Divine Plan of the Ages contained in the precious Word of God is now seen more clearly than ever before, because we are living in the dawn of the New Day, Emmanuel's Day, the Kingdom Epoch for which we have been long praying, "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, even as it is done in heaven." We need not urge to thankfulness and gratitude those who thus sincerely pray. Their knowledge and appreciation spontaneously beget thankfulness, a attitude, submission, patience, loyalty and love toward the Giver of every good and perfect gift. To these our text is specially applicable.

After trying so many remedies without success, I saw the Cuticura Ointment advertised, and I sent for a box. I then applied it to the pimples, and in a week I saw a great change in my face. I kept using it, and in a few months it rendered a complete cure. Now you cannot tell I ever had pimples, thanks to the Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Miss Mabel Morash, Mar. 31, 1911.

Baby's Face Like Raw Beef
"My baby boy had a large pimple come on his forehead. It burst and spread all over his face which soon looked like a piece of raw beef, all swollen with inflammation. It was awful to look at. The poor little thing used to scratch it and cry terribly. I took him to a doctor but he only got worse until I was quite frightened. I had heard of Cuticura Soap for all my children. REBELS ORDERED TO MASSACRE MANCHUS

Missionaries Tell of Outbreak at Sian Fu—Many Killed by Brigands

Pekin, Nov. 25.—Missionaries arriving in Pekin from Tung Chow Fu, 80 miles north of Sian Fu, give accounts of the recent revolution in the province of Shen Si, where the anti-foreign element declared its intention to exterminate foreigners, Christians and Manchus, but only partly succeeded.

The rebel general at Sian Fu, they say, issued a proclamation to the people not to harm merchants, foreigners or non-combatant Chinese, but only to destroy Manchus. The Manchus thereupon prepared for defence within their own walled section of the city. They withstood an attack by a mob made up of students and soldiers, but in an attack the next day nearly all the Manchus were slain.

According to the missionaries, the Chinese informed them that horrible barbarities accompanied the slaughter. They burned the school of the Scandinavian-China Alliance mission and killed Mrs. Beckman and other teachers. A missionary was wounded, but succeeded in rescuing a number of the school children. When the rebels restored order they decapitated many of the outlaws.

During the disorder the English Baptist mission was threatened, but not attacked. When the missionaries left Tung Chow Fu the rebels continued to administer the city capably, but brigands swarmed throughout the province. The country people near Tung Chow Fu organized and captured and killed many of the robbers.

Another party arriving in Pekin from southern Shen Si believe the Sian Fu missionaries will be unable to get away, owing to the condition of the roads. This party was attacked when on the way hither by 20 highwaymen, who badly beat Dr. Bloom, a Swedish refugee, and they slashed his wife with sabres. They declare that 14 soldiers who were escorting the party did not once lift their rifles against the outlaws.

The party also gives an account of a massacre at Tung Kwan, Brigands posted as revolutionists captured and looted the town, killing 2,000 of its inhabitants. Imperial troops then recaptured the place, killed 1,000 of the brigands and carried off down the river 18 boat loads of Chinese girls. Later the revolutionists took Tung Kwan. General S. Green, the American consul general at Hankow, telegraphed that anti-foreign placards are making their appearance in Nan Shang, Lu Pei province. The American legation has arranged for the transportation of all missionaries reaching the railway from disaffected sections, but it has not attempted to assist those beyond the Yangtze river.

Yuan Shi Kai continues unsuccessful in his efforts to obtain a loan. He informed the legations to-day that he had prepared a scheme by which he did not intend to allow further fighting, but declined to disclose the nature of his scheme.

SATISFACTORY REPORT
New Westminster, Nov. 24.—Alderman Bryson announced at the regular meeting of the city council that the receipts of the waterworks department up to the end of September were $9,000 in excess of the receipts for the same period last year. He also reported that the water committee had over-extended their estimates for this year, but claimed that there were several items which should be charged to the board of works and some to the general capital account. A supplementary estimate may have to be passed, however.

WILL BUILD SPUR
Vancouver, Nov. 24.—The B.C.E.R. has decided to start work at once on the construction of a spur line three-quarters of a mile long from a point on the interurban line to the new prison farm in Burnaby. The line will be used in shipping in material to be used in the proposed provincial prison, a contract for the building of which was recently awarded to Messrs. Smith and Sherburne of this city.

PROPOSED NEW MUNICIPALITY
North Vancouver, Nov. 24.—A meeting of the ratepayers of West Capilano was held in the municipal hall yesterday to elect a deputation to confer with the district council in regard to the proposed division of the district and the erection of a new municipality. After considerable discussion, the following gentlemen were appointed to form the committee: Messrs. Charles Nelson, S. Gintzburger, J. B. Mathers, W. J. Irwin, A. E. Little, J. Alexander and J. J. CANADIUM EXISTS IN LARGE QUANTITIES

New Metal Found in Nelson District Will Prove of High Commercial Value

The Nelson Daily News gives particulars of the discovery of an absolutely new metal in the Nelson district by Andrew G. French, the renowned metallurgical chemist which was recently mentioned in the Times. The new metal, which Mr. French has named Canadium, in honor of the country in which its discovery has been made, exists in large quantities and is expected to prove of high commercial value owing to its unique properties and to the fact that for a period at least the supply available for the world's market will be comparatively small.

"I have found it in the dyke rocks in the Nelson district running from a few pennyweights up to three ounces to the ton," declared Mr. French, who said that he found Canadium first at the Granite-Portman mine and later at Shannon creek and at other points on the south side of the west arm of Kootenay lake. Mr. French made the discovery last May, but time was necessary to ascertain fully the particular physical and chemical properties of the new metal, but as samples of the platinum ore in which the metal occurs were being sought by agents from America, France and various parts of America, he decided, as a precaution against possible forestallment, to announce the discovery.

In a provisional list of its more general and distinct properties Mr. French states that Canadium occurs pure in semi-crystalline grains and in short rods about half a millimeter long by one-tenth of a millimeter thick. The color is a pure white, beyond that of the fine silver, and when burnished it is more lustrous than silver or any of the other white metals. It is not tarnished by lengthened exposure to damp and it is not oxidized by continued heating in the blowpipe, oxidizing flame. It is of the same nature as silver, as one of the "noble metals." Mr. French states:

It is soluble in nitric and hydrochloric acids and in aqua regia without residue and its solution in nitric acid yields no precipitate with chloride of sodium solution. This differentiates it from silver. It is not blackened by lengthened exposure to moist sulphur, dried hydrogen or to alkaline sulphides, which tests also prove that it is not silver. It is not blackened by tincture of iodine and the nitrate solution is not precipitated by iodide of potassium. These negative qualities, explained Mr. French, differentiate it from palladium.

Its melting point is somewhat lower, he continued, than fine gold and silver, and very much below that of palladium. It is electro-negative to silver in dilute nitric acid solution.

"These characteristics," remarked Mr. French, "definitely show it to be a new metal of the platinum group. I found the new metal in metallic particles in the form of scales in the platinum bearing ores of this district. The particles, which have a bluish white color, contain the metal alloyed with a volatile substance which may be osmium, as it is dispelled by the blowpipe flame, leaving a brilliant bead of Canadium."

KAMLOOPS HYDRO-ELECTRIC PROJECT

Council Decides to Submit By-law Providing for $300,000

Kamloops, Nov. 24.—An important special meeting of the council was held in the council room, to discuss the reports of engineers on the hydro-electric project at the Barrier river. The detailed report of M. Herman of Herman & Burrell and also a supplementary report from Mr. Dutcher was read, after which a lengthy discussion took place among the aldermen. No action was taken on the reports.

The question arose as to whether it was advisable to perfect the city end of the scheme first by bringing the local plant to a state of efficiency by the addition of a new reservoir, and installation of a centrifugal pump in the present power house which is to act as an auxiliary to the Barrier plant or submit a by-law to raise funds to cover the entire project.

Mr. Herman's report differs in some important features from that of Mr. Dutcher and he estimates the cost of construction per horse power at a higher figure than Mr. Dutcher. The cost of construction, as estimated by Herman is as follows: Hydraulic development, $27,550; power plant $35,500; transmission line per mile $1,980—45 miles—$42,500; telephone $500; two sets stepdown transformers $16,000; right of way $4,100; 135 miles of wire costing $19,445. Interest and sale of bonds and contingencies brings the total cost up to $245,825—$122,912, net horse power.

The pipe line and long transmission will raise the cost above the average, but the work should be designed for enlarging the capacity and in his report he had kept that point in view.

Dutcher's supplementary report contained another proposal to develop 10,000 horse power, 2,000 initially, by moving the plant a mile higher up and obtaining a 400-foot head. The covered concrete ditch he considered a very sound and economical proposition but the cost would probably be prohibitive. Ald. Rushton moved that the city solicitor be instructed to prepare the necessary papers to record the water on the Barrier from the bridge to a point seven miles above, and also secure storage rights on the lakes. Carried.

Ald. Cornwall thought that specifications and plans should be called for to perfect the city plant, including a new reservoir, two boilers, and a pump providing a complete unit with a capacity of 2,500,000 gallons per day, involving an outlay of about $75,000. He introduced a motion to that effect, which was seconded by Ald. Crawford.

Ald. Rushton thought the time to go before the people with a by-law to raise money for the Barrier project had arrived, and he suggested a sum of $300,000. The city needed a new system and the sooner the machinery was put in motion the better.

Ald. Graham moved that a by-law be submitted to raise a sum of $300,000 to cover the probable cost of the Barrier project, which was seconded by Ald. Rushton.

Ald. Rushton strongly opposed this motion, as did Ald. Crawford. The mayor pointed out the heavy expenditure facing the city next year and said while he favored the project, he thought a by-law to raise funds without having tenders in and without knowing what was the nature of the city end of the scheme was completed now the bigger project could

A Little Advertising is a Dangerous Thing!

Any advertiser who puts an occasional Ad. in the paper and hurries to his place of business expecting people to rush in, will be disappointed. He will probably remark, "advertising does not pay." ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Vancouver, Nov. 24.—"Accidental death" was the finding of the coroner's jury empowered to discover the cause of the instantaneous death of Henry Bush on the corner of Columbia and Lorne streets on Wednesday evening. There were only two witnesses in addition to Dr. Curtis, who made the post-mortem examination. James George testified that Bush had been in his employ for over a year. On this occasion he had been sitting on the back of his wood cart and Bush had been driving, they had crossed the Great Northern tracks when the horses ran away. Bush had been jerked from his seat and one of the front wheels had passed over his head, fracturing his skull. There was a small hole in the road at the place where the team had started to run, but it was not an unnatural declination. Mrs. James Bentley, who happened to be passing the corner at the time of the accident, corroborated the statements of the previous witness. After some twenty minutes spent in consultation the jury found the death to be instantaneous and resulted from a fractured skull caused by the horses running away.

About Trustees

'To appoint any private person a sole trustee is always regarded as an extremely dangerous thing... The court itself acts on this rule inflexibly.'

'The position of a trustee is one neither of honor nor of profit. It involves the responsibilities of wealth without the enjoyment of it.'

'These are extracts from the Canadian Law Times for October, 1911. They state clearly the opinions of legal experts as to the unwisdom of entrusting your estate after death to a private trustee.'

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home. No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house. The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enamel paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils. The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-locking flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.

Dealers everywhere. Ask yours to show you the Perfection Heater enameled, or write for descriptive circular to any agency of The Imperial Oil Company, Limited
