PREMIER BEFORE RAILWAY BOARD

Mr. Oliver Asks Freight Rate Readjustment Says Province Suffers Because of Charges Settlement Retarded; Ports Are Held Back

Vancouver, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press)—Declaring that discrimination in railway freight rates against British Columbia was a direct and absolute violation of the terms of union by which British Columbia entered Confederation in 1871, Hon. John Oliver, Premier of the province, appealed to the Board of Railway Commissioners, sitting here to-day, to right a great wrong being done to the people of British Columbia. The Commissioners sitting here are J. McLean, Assistant Chief Commissioner, and Dr. J. G. Rutherford, Hon. Frank Carvell, Chief Commissioner, is not present.

A Violation. Mr. Oliver declared that the freight rates in force in the province violated the railway act of 1868, which was in force when British Columbia entered Confederation in 1871. Under this act and under the railway act of 1873, discriminatory rates were made illegal, and no such discrimination in freight rates was possible under these two acts as is now possible under the act now in force. The Premier declared that because of the existing discrimination in freight rates, settlement on the land in British Columbia and development of the natural resources of the province had been retarded and the ports of the province were prevented from becoming the great grain outlets they should be as they were in spite of the fact that millions of bushels of Canadian-grown grain were being exported through ports in the United States on the Atlantic seaboard.

Alberta. They had, the Premier continued, retarded the growth and development of Alberta by compelling it to haul the goods necessary for the sustenance of its people and the produce of its farms distances from two to three times as great as would have been required if secured from or marketed through British Columbia.

VETERANS MEET IN PORT ARTHUR

Fifth Annual Convention of G.W.V.A. Begins Civic Welcome Extended to the Delegates

Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press)—The fifth annual convention of the Great War Veterans' Association got under way this morning at 10 o'clock in the gymnasium here, the first item on the agenda being the registration of delegates. There are about 200 registered this morning, and more are expected as the trains arriving later in the day. The delegates were hopeful that this year's gathering would result in the formation of plans, which if the recommendations are carried out, would have a beneficial effect on the future national life of the Canadian returned soldier.

Formal Opening. This morning's business was routine. Following destruction of the convention was formally opened, the reports of the credentials committee presented and standing committees appointed. The civic welcome is the first item of the programme this afternoon.

President Spoke. In his presidential address, R. B. Maxwell made an appeal to all ex-service men to make a study of the economic system and discard all antiquated and rusty theories. "Do not be afraid to throw overboard everything which you discover to be applicable to the days preceding our present munitioned democracy, and which are totally inadequate to deal with present and future problems," he urged.

Mr. Maxwell's address throughout was an argument for sane and constitutional progress based on constructive lines. Fusions. Only one reference to the political situation was made during the address and that was when Mr. Maxwell declared that the G. W. V. A. would strenuously oppose any system of national retrenchment advocated by any party seeking election until that party gave sufficient assurances that the retrenchment would not affect pensions.

The unemployment situation, Mr. Maxwell believed, would become worse instead of better. Productive work was necessary to carry the nation over the present menacing depression. Delays, the abolition and tended to sap the manhood of the ex-service men and the nation. Parochialism would avail nothing. The situation must be dealt with from the national viewpoint. Amalgamation of all soldier organizations was the logical outcome. Political action by the association would mean ruin. Amalgamation. Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press)—After an almost continuous session lasting from 1.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon until 2.30 this morning, a conference of representatives of the G. W. V. A. (concluded on page 4.)

Immigration Is Canada's Need, Pattullo Asserts On Return From Europe

The Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, returned to his office at the Parliament Buildings to-day, from Europe, where he has started a big campaign to put British Columbia lumber and other products on the map, so that similar products from the United States and other countries will not have all their own way over there.

One of the first things Mr. Pattullo said on his return was that he has had his views on immigration broadened. He said that Canada needs immigrants to bring prosperity and that Canada can assimilate more of them on the land than is generally believed possible.

Mr. Pattullo returned for the session of the Legislature which opens in view of the fact that only a short time ago it was necessary for us to send a representative to Ottawa to insist on Ottawa changing their specifications which called for Southern pine. "Those of us who know British Columbia well may sometimes imagine that the rest of the world is equally well posted," Mr. Pattullo said. "As a matter of fact there are a good many people in British Columbia who know comparatively little of British Columbia, so that it is not surprising that it is necessary to conduct a campaign of education outside of British Columbia in order that our resources and possibilities may be understood."

Specified U. S. Products. "Recently, when I was in London, the British Admiralty were calling for tenders for timber, specifying Oregon pine. This is not surprising in view of the fact that it is not long ago it was necessary for us to send a representative to Ottawa to insist on Ottawa changing their specifications which called for Southern pine. The extension of our timber markets requires constant education. We are also carrying on a campaign looking to the future. The day that I left for Europe, I was constantly placing before wood using industries, technical schools, architects and the youth of the country the advantages of British Columbia timber. "If we can get impregnated in the minds of the people elsewhere the great advantages of British Columbia timber will be known to the whole world. I shall have to travel in the future which we are now compelled to carry out in order to dispose of our timber products," said Mr. Pattullo. "We may not be successful in breaking in the European markets in respect of certain classes of our timber, but there are other classes in which we can secure some considerable business."

Open Up Immigration. "The problem of immigration is an all important one, both for British Columbia and the whole of the Dominion. I am inclined to think that possibly I have somewhat broader views with respect of the problem of immigration than is generally given expression to at the present time. "While it would undoubtedly be a mistake to dump large numbers of people into our large cities, I nevertheless believe that we can assimilate larger bodies of immigrants than is generally contemplated. I think we should make our first effort to get people on the land. For every acre that is upon the land it means another in the city to supply him with the manufactured articles which he must have. "It is proposed to carry out an aggressive policy of immigration as far as British Columbia is concerned, and while I was in England I think I succeeded in doing so." (concluded on page 4.)

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVANCE IN LONDON PLANNED London, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Government is arranging a celebration of Armistice Day on similar lines to last year. The principal ceremony will be held around the cenotaph in Whitehall, where wreaths will be deposited on behalf of the King, the Dominions and the Government and of India. Two minutes of silence will be observed at 11 o'clock in the morning throughout the United Kingdom.

HOPE TO AVERT BIG U. S. STRIKE

Government Officials Watch Railroad Situation Strike is Called to Start on October 30

Government Determined Mails Will Be Moved Washington, Oct. 17.—The Government, through its various departments, began to-day a survey of the situation as developed by the call of railroad union leaders for a general strike beginning October 30. Officials from President Harding down to departmental bureau chiefs and secret service agents were known to be watching the situation closely, meanwhile hoping that some means might be found for averting a paralysis of the nation's transportation system.

Hope was expressed generally by officials that the suggestion advanced by the public group of the Railroad Labor Board, here for conferences with the Interstate Commerce Commission, might be made the basis for a solution of the problem. The public group of the Board proposed that the railroads immediately put in effect freight reductions equivalent to the wage decrease authorized by the Board last July, that the railroads withdraw further requests for wage reductions and that the employees rescind the strike order pending action by the Board on proposals of the carriers for further pay cuts.

Postmaster-General Hayes, is the only public statement issued up to now, declared "the mails will be moved. I am sure the parties to the controversy will not permit developments which will interfere with Government service," said Mr. Hayes. "This is not the case of other officials. I sincerely trust that it will not. If it does there will be action. The mails will be moved." White House and other officials declined to comment on reports that the President might call the railroad union chiefs to Washington for conferences.

Trucks. About 25,000 army trucks, most of them in storage at camps area depots over the country, would be available for transportation use in the event of a complete railroad tie-up. It was learned at the War Department. Chairman Burton and the other public representatives on the Railroad Labor Board conferred to-day with Chairman Cummings of the Interstate Commerce Commission. There was some discussion to-day of bringing up the anti-strike bill sponsored by Senator Poindexter, Republican, Washington, but it was said there would be no immediate action by Congress.

Meet in Cleveland. Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 17.—With the announcement that the "Big Five" railroad transportation chiefs would meet here Tuesday to discuss plans for carrying on the nation-wide progressive railroad strike that has been set to begin at 6 o'clock Sunday October 30, W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, declared that nothing but a miracle could prevent the strike going into effect.

A Chicago dispatch said final arrangements for the strike were rapidly nearing completion. For the purpose of the strike, the unions Saturday divided the railroads into four groups. Employees in seventeen roads in Group No. 1 will be ordered to walk out on October 30 and the strikes will be called on the other groups at intervals of 48 hours, until all 2,000,000 employees are involved.

In East. Chicago, Oct. 17.—The second group of railroads in the walkout of the Big Five Brotherhoods strikes into the east, it became known to-day. These roads include the New York, New Haven and Hartford and the Delaware & Hudson. Like the first group, the walkout of the second division of railroads will affect every section of the country, but will hit the east the hardest—a section of the country to be left practically untouched on the first day. The second group walkout will come at six a. m. local standard time November 1.

"Main Street," Most Talked Of Novel To Be New Serial of Victoria Times "Main Street," the outstanding novel of 1921, will be published as a serial by The Victoria Times. The first instalment will appear in the next few days. This story by a young Yale graduate does not follow any rules common to "best sellers," does not truckle to a popular taste, but leads the list of book sales this year. More than 300,000 copies of "Main Street" have been sold already and the demand is increasing. It is the outstanding fiction success since the end of the war! That is why The Times has bought it for publication in Victoria. At the Victoria Public Library the demand for "Main Street" is so great and the waiting list so long that the Library will not be able to satisfy it until well into next year. Read "Main Street" every night in The Times. Watch for the first instalment.

TARIFF IN INTEREST OF THE MAJORITY

That Is Liberals' Ideal, Says Mr. King

Meighen About to Open Ontario Campaign Crerar to Speak in Brampton To-night

A speech by Hon. Mackenzie King in St. John, N. B., the return of Premier Meighen to Ontario for a series of meetings, the issuance of a manifesto by Hon. T. A. Crerar, Leader of the Progressive Party, and a number of nominations were features of the Federal election campaign since the last issue of The Times. Mr. Crerar is to open an Ontario tour when he speaks in Brampton. A dispatch from a Canadian Press staff correspondent reporting Mr. King's speech in St. John Saturday night said: Speaking on the tariff issue in St. John Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal Leader, declared that the liberal tariff was a tariff in the interests of the home and its needs; a tariff in the interests of the majority and not one in the interests of the privileged few. There was no thought in the Liberal mind of abolishing the tariff, but it must be a tariff primarily for revenue and not for the protection of privileged interests. That of late has been between free trade and protection, he deliberately misleading, he reiterated.

Text of Manifesto. Mr. Crerar's manifesto in full follows: "To the People of Canada": "We who live in Canada are fortunate in that we live under a form of government by which the people say who shall make their laws and administer their affairs. In a few weeks you will be called upon to discharge this duty. You will consider the state of our national affairs and will decide the course they shall take. At no time in the fifty-four years that Canada has been a Confederation have our national problems been so momentous or difficult as to-day. The temper in which we approach them, the singleness of mind with which we attack them, the honesty with which we judge them, mean much for the future of our country."

Meighen in Ontario. Ottawa, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press)—After two weeks of strenuous campaigning, during which he made about forty-five speeches throughout the three maritime provinces, Premier Meighen is back in the capital. The cold which affected his voice on the platform is better and it is likely that after a rest here he will be fully recovered. To-morrow Premier Meighen will open an Ontario tour with two speeches, the first in Spencerville and the other in Brockville. From there he will make a long jump and will address meetings in Trenton and Goderich. The Ontario dates will conclude with meetings at Toronto and Hamilton.

Papers Saved. Ottawa, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press)—Had not the fire brigade of Ottawa rendered quick service Saturday afternoon there might not have been a general election December 8. Fire broke out in the offices of the Director-General of Elections, where are stored election papers and documents which represent a year's printing. Fortunately it was checked and confined to one room, with small damage.

PEOPLE SHOULD STUDY GOVERNMENT

"It is, therefore, a matter of supreme importance that the people take an interest in government, not a fleeting academic interest, but an active, intelligent, continuing interest; an interest based on the consideration of the national good and of the national interest. The government of the day has grown and prevails, that the agency of government has been used for the furthering of personal or sectional or class interests, and that special interests have been able to influence legislation to their own gain at the expense of the public weal. To the extent that this has occurred, confidence in government is lost." (Continued on page 2.)

LIVELY SESSION TO OPEN TOMORROW GOVERNMENT MAJORITY IN LEGISLATURE NOW IS TWO

The B. C. Legislature will open for its first Fall session at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. It will be the second session of the fifteenth Legislature. Opening ceremonies will be performed by Lieutenant-Governor Nichol in his Windsor uniform. He will arrive at the Parliament Buildings at 3 o'clock. A guard of honor from the Princess Patricia's Regiment will greet him outside the buildings and artillery on Belleville Street will boom a salute across the harbor. Judges of the Province, ex-members of the House of Commons, senators, representative clergy from each denomination and representative army and navy officers with their wives will be present on the floor of the House to hear the Lieutenant-Governor read his speech. Besides these each minister is allowed to invite six friends and each private member two. At eight there will be the state dinner at Government House for the Premier, ministers and members of the House and other dignitaries in this Province. Predictions of a lively session of the House are being made. Chief business has to do with changes in the taxation act and aid to municipalities, which is the reason for calling the session this Fall instead of next Spring as usual. (Continued on page 4.)

MANIFESTO ISSUED BY MR. CRERAR

Leader of Progressives States Their Policies Would Rely on Tariff For Revenue

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press)—Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the National Progressive Party, to-day issued an address "To the People of Canada," dealing with the issues of the present general election campaign. "The tariff is an issue, a very important issue," says Mr. Crerar, "but the supreme issue to-day is whether our Government is to be free or fettered, and whether legislation in the future shall be for the few or the many."

The policy of the Progressives, it is stated, is frankly based on the principle of first developing the natural wealth of the country, and if the industries based on agriculture, mining and forestry are thriving and prosperous it is held that the manufacturing industries would share in the expansion.

TARIFF CHANGES; DIRECT TAXATION

"Our goal," states Mr. Crerar, "is the ultimate elimination of the principle of protection in our fiscal policy. But we recognize that changes must be brought about in a manner that will give a fair opportunity to Canadian industries now enjoying protection to adjust themselves to them." The Progressives would remove the duty on agricultural implements, mining and saw-mill machinery and essential foods, and "a substantial reduction in the general tariff should be made." For revenue the Progressives would rely mainly on direct taxation, levied on the basis of ability to pay. The address discusses the general question of good government, the significance of the Progressive movement, the financing of elections, the railway problem, immigration and colonization and other issues of the contest.

URGES FIVE-CENT FARE IN VICTORIA

One-man street cars can be operated satisfactorily on traffic where there is only small traffic, but if they are generally introduced here fares should be reduced to five cents. That is what Alderman Robert Dinsdale, leader in the fight against the one-man car here, told his colleagues at the City Hall to-day following a week-end visit to Seattle, where he investigated the use of one-man cars. "On the smaller routes, where there is little traffic, the one-man car can operate as well as the two-man car," the Alderman declared. "But on the big trunk lines in rush hours it is found necessary in Seattle to have a second man assist in the operation of one-man cars."

Whitby, Ont., Oct. 17.—William Smith, late M. P. for South Ontario, was chosen as the Meighen party candidate Saturday. Brantford. Brantford, Ont., Oct. 17.—W. F. Cockshutt, member for Brantford riding in the late Parliament, has been renominated as the Meighen party candidate. He represented the riding from 1904 to 1908 and from 1911 till the recent dissolution.

WITHDRAWS PLAN TO BREAK PACT AFTER SEATTLE VISIT

Alderman Dinsdale announced that he would withdraw his resolution, which seeks cancellation of the present lighting and car fare agreement between the city and the Electric Railway Company if one-man cars are put into operation here. "I shall talk the matter over with other aldermen during the day and probably will bring in a modified resolution when the Council meets to-night," he said. "I have not yet decided what this resolution will contain. Members of the City Council expected to-day that the straight fight against the use of any one-man cars here would be abandoned soon. Some sort of agreement whereby the Electric Railway Company would agree to use two-man cars on trunk lines in rush hours, they said, might be negotiated."

TWO PRINCES ON BATTLECRUISER

Renown to Carry Prince of Wales and Prince Charles

London, Oct. 17.—The battle cruiser Renown will have on board two princes when she starts for India soon to carry the Prince of Wales on a visit to that empire. Prince Charles, the second son of the Belgian King Albert, is a midshipman on the Renown. He probably will not share any of the honors of the British princes, but will devote his time to his duties. He is well acquainted with members of the British Royal Family, for he was a cadet on board the vessel in which the British Prince George recently made a Mediterranean tour.

Eleven black cats have been taken on board the Renown as mascots. The battle cruiser will have 65 officers and 1,750 men aboard, in addition to 16 boys from Eastney, who form a drum and pipe band.

Provisions. The Renown will take with her for receptions several thousand extra cups and saucers, plates, knives, forks and spoons. The provisions include 112,000 pounds of flour, 15,000 pounds of "bully" beef, 5,000 pounds of salmon and 2,000 pounds of ships' biscuits.

For the use of the officers there will be a stock of 195,000 cigarettes, 2,000 dozen bottles of wine and 3,000 cigars, the latter in addition to 5,000 cigars taken by the Prince of Wales himself. Apart from the monthly issue of loose and leaf tobacco, the men's smoking needs will be met by the canteen on board, and for them there will also be 5,860 gallons of neat rum and 4,900 gallons of lime juice.

AWARDS GIVEN BY ATHLONE COURT

Compensation to Victims of Disorders

London, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—It was announced to-day that the Athlone assizes had awarded Lord Castlemaine £10,132 as compensation for the destruction of his residence, Maydrum Castle, by Sinn Feiners July 3 last. Other awards are £10,000 to the widow of Major Compton Smith, who was captured by Sinn Feiners in April last while on a sketching expedition in Blarney district and was subsequently shot, and £5,000 to the widow of Brigadier-General Lambert, who was shot returning from a tennis party June 30.

Messages from Belfast continue to report desultory firing in the streets. An official communique mentions two minor affairs yesterday and in one a Protestant was wounded. Order was restored by the arrival of the crown forces, the communique adds. A number of threatening letters have been served on Protestants giving them forty-eight hours to quit their homes or be bombed.

LOOK FOR BRITISH GENERAL ELECTION

London, Oct. 17.—Saturday's meeting between Rt. Hon. T. J. Macnamara, Minister of Labour, and Mr. Smuts, Secretary of Agriculture, has little progress with the unemployment problem. Regarding an enlargement of the credit, no agreement was reached, owing to the indecision concerning the extent of the guarantee likely to be reached. The labour party is known to regard the suggestion of aid to emigration dubiously, contending that the prospects in the Dominions are not so rosy as the advocates of that policy declare. Labor opinion is also hardening against the proposals of a two-pence weekly levy on all workers.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor Party, speaking in Edinburgh, said the labor executives were convinced there must be an early general election. Although labor is prepared to give all assistance possible, the Government, he said, must accept full responsibility for its own policy. There could be no effective solution until the international situation was boldly faced.

Sheffield Cutlers. The Sheffield Cutlers have abandoned their time-honored feast announced for October 27. This decision is not surprising in view of the action of the Duke of York in withdrawing his acceptance of an invitation to attend, giving as his reason the widespread distress and hunger among the unemployed.

Nevertheless regret prevails at the abandonment of an historic event, which ranks as one of the principal social events of the country and except during the war has been held in unbroken succession for three centuries.

ORGANIZATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

London, Oct. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A Reuter dispatch from Pretoria says a conference representing the principal co-operative organizations of the Union of South Africa, under the chairmanship of Sir Thomas Smartt, Secretary of Agriculture, is now considering the draft of a co-operation bill for the Union. When opening the proceedings, Premier Smuts appealed most strongly to the farmers to organize and to co-operate, pointing out that the Union's principal interests "are in gravest peril, if it is removed or even if it is reduced to a shadow." Our exports are suffering because, while other countries are well organized, we are facing the post-war storm in a totally unorganized condition. South Africa is entering upon a new epoch of far more rapid development than in the past. Our future lies in becoming a great producing country. General Smuts said the Government was willing to help to the utmost and was prepared to support in Parliament any measure recommended by the conference, but he emphasized that self-help was necessary.

ence in the institution of government by the elected representatives of the people as the fountain from which every-handed justice should flow, has been undermined with a resulting widespread distrust, and in some cases even contempt, of our parliamentary institutions. This must be set right. Our parliamentary system must be purified of the influence that have operated upon it in this way in the past. This duty lies first upon the people themselves. Government is a serious business at all times. It is particularly a serious business to the Canadian people at the present time, for our Federal problems are so grave that only by the wisest, counsels of a broad spirit and high standards of public morality and by the most unrelenting care to the public business of the country and by a single-minded devotion that seeks only the country's good, can they be successfully solved.

New Party. "In this election a new party makes its appeal to the Canadian people. It began in a humble way among the agricultural portion of our people. Every aspiration for pure government, every protest against public wrong in high places, has its origin in small beginnings. If there is good in it, if its spirit is right and true, it will grow, and the weight of its justice lies in the strength it attracts to itself. No one who has studied closely the farmers' movement, so-called in Canada, but which in fact it has imperfections; but no one who studies it and is honest will deny that it embodies an aspiration for purity in government, for high standards of public morality and for the sweeping away of special privilege in all its forms. From a small beginning it has spread over almost the entire country, attracting to itself support from all classes and sections of our people. The tendency of political parties is towards reaction and the interest of the high standards of public morality and for the sweeping away of special privilege in all its forms. BOOTH CHOSEN FOR NANAIMO

Receives Handsome Support in Convention Saturday

Duncan, Oct. 17.—At the Liberal convention held here Saturday, the Booth of the Nanaimo Free Press, was chosen to contest the Nanaimo riding in the forthcoming elections in the Liberal interests. The only other candidates before the convention were Councilor Francis Simpson, of Saanich, and Alexander Herd, of Duncan; A. D. MacFarlane, of Oak Bay, and B. C. Nicholas, of Victoria, who had been mentioned, had declined to permit their names to go before the convention.

The vote stood: Booth 43, Simpson 38. Mr. Herd was dropped on the first ballot, with seven votes. Mr. Booth came to Nanaimo at 12 years of age, and worked in the mines for some years. He drifted into newspaper work, and was for 16 years editor of The Nanaimo Herald. Two years ago, on the death of G. Norris, he bought out The Free Press, the second oldest paper in the province. He was ten years secretary of the Board of Trade, and first secretary associated Board of Trade for Vancouver Island. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Nanaimo.

In answer to a request from the meeting, Mr. Booth in accepting the nomination, undertook to consult his executive before entering into any arrangement in case of a coalition being suggested with some party also in opposition to the Meighen Government.

The Executive. The members of the executive are: R. E. Collis, F. Simpson, from Saanich; E. Woodcock, from Nanaimo; W. Walker, F. A. Knight, Newcastle.

Cowichan, Esquimalt and the Island have still to name their members on the executive.

Financing Contest. A resolution was proposed by R. E. Collis, of Saanich, and seconded by G. D. Sloane, which endorsed the principle of the different locals financing the expenses of the candidate, and that as far as possible this principle should be applied during the present campaign. The idea is that in future campaigns the total expense should be borne by the districts so that the best man, irrespective of his wealth might be able to run.

Several speakers spoke very forcibly on this resolution, the feeling being that a man who pays his own expenses or whose companies to do so, does not represent his constituency, but is tied by the money he has received or if he pays his own expenses he is liable to have these expenses improperly returned to him. In case of referendum and recall no riding could ask the recall of a candidate who had paid all his own election expenses, it was stated.

Nanaimo News. Nanaimo, Oct. 15.—Post No. 3 Native Sons installed their officers for the following year at their general meeting held Thursday night. Bro. J. Olds, P.C.F., assisted by Bro. J. Robertson and R. Case as installing deputies, performed the necessary installation ceremony. The officers were as follows: P. C. F., Bro. V. Harrison; C. F., Bro. W. Philpott; V. F., Bro. Geo. Brown; Treasurer, Bro. B. Nazaria; Historian, Bro. W. Culligan; Treasurer, Bro. F. J. Stannard; Secretary, Treasurer, Bro. G. P. Wilson; Recording Secretary, Bro. J. B. Freer; Guide, Bro. S. J. Smith; Inner Sentinel, Bro. G. P. Berry; Outer Sentinel, Bro. G. Banasky; Trustees, Bros. J. F. E. McGill and J. H. Olds; Auditors, Bros. H. Bate, Stearman, Wm. Adams.

The Vancouver Island branch (Coal Section) of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy was held in the Foresters' Hall Thursday, with members present from Vancouver, Victoria, Ladysmith, Estevan, Cumberland, South Wellington, East Wellington and Nanaimo. The meeting was called in order by Vice-president F. A. Spruntson; of Ladysmith. Owing to the resignation of Mr. G. O'Brien it was necessary to elect a new one, the acting chairman, T. A. Spruntson, being elected to that position.

Mr. Robert Henderson, of Nanaimo, was elected vice-president. Mr. Montimer Lamb, of Vancouver, Dean Brook of the University of B. C., Mr. McKelvie, of the Canadian Geological Survey, Mr. W. M. Brewer, Col. Leckie, Mr. John Hunt and Mr. Charles Graham all addressed the meeting during the course of the entertainment.

Export of Lumber. Cowichan Lake—During the week there were seven trains of logs (133 cars) shipped to the Victoria Lumber and Milling Co., at Chemainus.

Courtenay—A striking example of the immediate results of showing at the Fall Fair is given in the interest taken in Comox potatoes, says The Comox Argus. Ever since the fair there has been an inquiry for potatoes from outside points. The first tangible result is seen in a shipment of potatoes from the farm of Capt. G. R. Bates via Union Bay to the Orient. The shipment will comprise 15 tons and comes from the stock that took third prize at the show here. It is very likely that this shipment will only be the forerunner of a big carload order.

R. E. C. Stephens, of Stephens Bros. of Little River Falls, Comox, has received a communication from the superintendent of the Vancouver Island Experimental Farm, in which he states that he noticed the good quality of the Up-to-Date potatoes exhibited and he has ordered several sacks of these potatoes for use as seed on the Experimental Farm at Sidney. A more marked testimony as to the remarkable quality of the tuber shown can scarcely be imagined, as the experimental farm stock is proposed to set the standard for the province, and Provincial Government experts visit every fair and select the best they can find in every variety. Messrs. Stephens Bros. took the lion shares of the prizes in Up-to-Date potatoes shown at the Comox Fall Fair.

The fame of the Comox potato is growing very fast indeed. Duncan, Oct. 15.—The Cowichan Chapter, I. O. O. E., held a most delightful social last evening at "The Grange." Somewhat by kind permission of Mrs. G. Tisdall, who lent her beautiful home for the occasion.

About twenty-eight members and friends were present and five tables of bridge and two of "Five Hundred" were made up, some ladies having to be "gentlemen" for the time being. Miss Hayward won the first ladies' prize for bridge, Mrs. Barry, the consolation prize, Mr. Carbery won the first gentlemen's prize, and Mrs. Willett the consolation. Mrs. Swan and Mr. Smith were the winners at the "Five Hundred" tables.

On leaving F. G. Smithson in an apt little speech, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Tisdall, which was cordially endorsed by all present.

The basketball season opened well last evening, a great number being present to witness the first games played in the Agricultural Hall. The ladies started the Epworth League girls playing the Jack Tars, the latter winning 17 to 4. The personnel of the teams were: Epworth League—Messrs. B. Auchenchie, E. Auchanichie, M. Dirom, V. Woodward, L. Gibson. Jack Tars (city team)—G. Castley, A. Robertson, D. Castley, L. Talbot. P. Forrest kindly refereed the game in a most satisfactory manner.

An excellently good game followed between the Epworth League team and the United Garages, the latter winning 23-9. Epworth League—Messrs. A. Dirom, J. Dirom, W. Thorpe, H. Whan, D. Campbell, C. Townsend, spare. United Garages—A. O. Evans, E. Evans, W. Whan (spare), J. Brown, J. Chaster.

The last game of the evening was between the United Merchants and the Scarlet Runners (Dr. French's team) the former winning 24-8. The team were: United Merchants—Messrs. B. McNichol, W. McNichol, P. Forrest, W. Talbot, C. Stoney. Scarlet Runners—Dr. French, J. Talbot, B. Whan, H. Campbell, J. Woodward.

Bruce Powell made a most capable referee for both games. The two remaining teams in the league, "Bankers" and "High School" will probably start their matches next Friday evening.

Wider Markets. "We must shape our public policies to give the greatest encouragement possible to the development of our natural resources, exporting the surplus products of these to other lands who are less favored in this respect than we are. We should make every effort possible for the extension of markets for these products. We are suffering to-day from a short-sighted policy that rejected reciprocity in 1911. I would direct the attention of the Canadian farmer, and the attention of the Canadian people who are dependent for their prosperity upon the prosperity of the farmer, to the fact that the same selfish interests that refused the beneficial reciprocity arrangement of 1911 are behind the present Government with all their old vigor and strength.

Trade With U. S. "Markets for Canadian products must be found, and when we come to a consideration of this without doubt the great country to which commerce is most to be desired is the United States. It is a mistake to think that this has been done in a spirit of hostility to Canada. They very naturally have assumed that we are not anxious to trade with them, for we said so in 1911. Canada must always maintain her self respect, but it is not to-day for that self respect to go frankly to our great neighbors to the South and say to them: 'Let us sit down and reason this thing together.' The course of events in the United States in the past few months without doubt shows that many of those who favored a protective tariff in that country in the past have changed their views. Within the life of the Parliament about to be elected the opportunity will come to Canada to take up this question and to take it up in a way that will be quite consistent with our self respect and will secure upon terms honorable to both parties and of equal benefit to both, an arrangement which will enlarge the market for our products and will secure to our own people a larger share of the benefits of the present Government if it is returned to power. It and the interests behind it are just as friendly and antagonistic to us as they have ever been to the securing of the United States market for Canadian products. We can expect nothing from such a Government, and it is not to-day for the interests of the country. If there is to be an extension of our markets, if there is to be any opening up of new wealth-giving channels of trade, it must be by other hands than those of the present administration.

Canada's National Status. "In view of the increasing importance of Canada's national status, I desire to draw the attention of the Canadian electorate to the statement of policy in the Progressive platform, which reads as follows: 'We believe that the further development of the British Empire should be sought along the lines of partnership between nations free and equal under the present government system of British constitutional authority. We are strongly opposed to any attempt to centralize imperial control. Any attempt to set up an independent authority with power to bind the Dominions, whether this authority be termed Parliament, Council or Cabinet, would hamper the growth of responsible and informed democracy in the Dominions.'

The problem thus indicated is now pressing for solution, and it should be dealt with in strict conformity with the spirit of this declaration.

"The financial position of our National Railways is one of the most serious problems of the hour. These roads have come into the hands of the people through the breaking down of private management, which has resulted in costly and unnecessary duplication. The plain fact is we have enough railways in Canada to serve the needs of a population double what we now have. This is the cardinal weakness of our position, and until the business is provided these roads will run at a loss. What we need is more popularity to provide more freight and passenger traffic, and this will come and remain here only if the country is prosperous. There are some who would turn these roads into private hands. This course would not save the country from heavy losses. With population and business these roads can be turned into a good asset, and this potential value must not be sacrificed. If there is weakness and inefficiency in the management it must be ruthlessly set right. The roads must be freed completely from any political interference with the management, and a way must be found to refund the lines that would fasten a railway monopoly upon the Canadian people.

Immigration. "Bound up with a solution of this matter, and as well with finding a way to overcome the financial difficulties, is the question of immigration. But to make immigration successful the country must be prosperous, and it should be the work of Parliament to promote this in every way possible. An undue proportion of our population is now in our cities. The potential wealth of Canada lies in our natural resources, the chief of which is our fertile lands, and the people we bring to our shores should be those adaptable to agriculture. Since free homesteads and cheap land in Canada are now largely things of the past, it will be necessary to create the means whereby capital for productive purposes can be supplied settlers on sound and safe lines that will protect the country from loss. This is now receiving the attention of many of the Provinces, but in fullest measure the Federal authorities should co-operate.

Broad Principles. "I have attempted in this brief compass to deal only with the larger issues that must be faced by Canada in the next few years. I have endeavored, and trust in an understanding way, to set forth the broad principles that should guide the conduct of our affairs, both from the moral and business standpoint. I urge upon Canadian men and women that they study these public issues with an unbiased, fair judgment. Attempts will be made to raise false issues. Already different affairs. Let it not be overlooked, either, that it was the over-farmers' organizations of Western Canada and Ontario which furnished the driving power for this reform. I am convinced that Canadian women can play a great and worthy part in our national life. They will give an elevation of tone to our public discussion that will exercise a profound power in establishing and maintaining a sound moral view-point in government and in the administration of our public affairs, a moral outlook that has been sadly lacking in the past and which certainly was never more necessary than to-day.

Women's influence. "For the first time the women of Canada have the right to vote in the coming election upon an equality with men. The present Government takes the credit for this and thereon bases an appeal to Canadian women for support. The fact is that it was the Union Government in 1918 that put this reform on the statute books. The present Government is an altogether

THE SESSION.

The Fall Session of the British Columbia Legislature will be opened to-morrow, and an interesting six weeks of business is expected.

It is to be hoped, however, that the Government has in mind the urgent necessity of dealing with the question of a co-operative plan for submission to the Dominion Government in respect of the tubercular colony which a special committee of the House of Commons already has recommended.

Both the Opposition and the Government forces may be depended upon to "spread" themselves upon the subject of the Provincially-owned railway. We in common with the rest of the people of the Province recognize the dilemma with which the Legislature and the Government are faced.

As far as one can judge the operation of the Liquor Control Act seems to have been about as smooth as could have been expected. The chief complaint of the Government's customers is the price they are compelled to pay for their liquid refreshment.

The University of British Columbia and the conditions affecting it to which a great deal of attention has been attracted might well form one of the topics of discussion of the session which opens to-morrow.

INSPECTING EMIGRANTS.

After a lengthy tour of this country Sir George Parkin has returned to London with the firm conviction that in the event of the Australian immigration scheme developing there would be little or no interference with the natural flow of settlers towards Canada because of this country's greater accessibility.

his references to the urgent need of a more critical examination of emigrants before embarkation. He likewise argues that the inspection—should be undertaken by a joint arrangement between the Canadian and British authorities in order that the frequent rejection and re-shipping process on this side of the Atlantic may be obviated.

INTERESTING.

After the City of Kamloops had paid all the expenses of the Police Department last year the municipal treasury made a profit in this one branch of something approaching five hundred dollars. Based upon the first nine months of the present year the corresponding period of 1921 will show a deficit in this particular Department of a sum not far short of seven thousand dollars.

NOT SO BAD.

Little consolation may be derived from a comparison of misfortune. Bad business in one section of the country is not made better because conditions are similar elsewhere. At the same time there are those pessimists about who seem to think that because the Canadian dollar is at a discount across the border the United States has little or nothing to trouble her.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Loobsters constitute the latest campaign issue. Liberal-Conservative candidates from Halifax to Yarmouth, to improve their chances at the election, have induced the Government to suspend regulations prohibiting Winter lobster fishing.

The political parties of Canada were once Conservative and Liberal, The Toronto Star says. Then the Conservative became Liberal-Conservative. A Nationalist group sprang up, and the Liberal-Conservative party became a National Liberal-Conservative. A Progressive group was instituted, and now Wentworth National Liberal-Conservatives have organized under the name Progressive. There is nothing like pleasing everybody.

It is understood, however, that it will not come down as a Government measure, but some private member will introduce it.

Must People Land.

"At the present time Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and other nations of the Empire are formulating very elaborate plans in respect of the problem of immigration. The whole question is exceedingly intricate."

Show Way to Conservation.

"During my trip to Europe I visited Sweden for the purpose of looking into the methods in vogue in respect of timber products. They use timber there that we prudently throw away here. British Columbia, however, will gradually discard its wasteful methods, and with the people coming to a realization of the heritage which is being waste from forest fires much greater care will be exercised."

Must People Land.

"At the present time Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and other nations of the Empire are formulating very elaborate plans in respect of the problem of immigration. The one thing which we must have in Canada in view of the great extent of our country and our immense natural resources is that the lands must be peopled."

Britain's Big Struggle.

"Great Britain is making heroic struggles to starve her feet in the one big bugbear hanging there in the face is the Irish question, and there is the unemployment situation, which is a great many people seem to think that the nation has been trying to lift itself up by the boot straps. The whole question is exceedingly intricate."

Show Way to Conservation.

"During my trip to Europe I visited Sweden for the purpose of looking into the methods in vogue in respect of timber products. They use timber there that we prudently throw away here. British Columbia, however, will gradually discard its wasteful methods, and with the people coming to a realization of the heritage which is being waste from forest fires much greater care will be exercised."

OVER INCORPORATION

Angus Ego, Backed by 76 "Antis," Take Case to Premier

Angus Ego, of Sidney, appeared at the Parliament Buildings to-day to protest to Premier Oliver against proposals being supported by some residents of Sidney for the incorporation of Sidney as a municipality.

Mr. Ego presented the petition with 76 signatures. He said the persons who had signed his petition are all bitterly opposed to incorporation of Sidney, and they prefer the present system of having their affairs managed by the Government to self-government, which they fear may cost indefinitely more.

He asserted that there are not more than a dozen people willing to sign the petition in favor of municipalization.

The whole matter will be placed before Government inspectors for investigation to find out just what the people of Sidney want.

SAANICH HOUSE
GUTTED BY FIRE

A fire breaking out at 11 a. m. this morning at the home of Mr. Lynn, Maplewood Road, Saanich, utterly destroyed the four-roomed dwelling. Mrs. Lynn and children were out at the time, the fire being thought to have originated in the kitchen. The Saanich fire department did what they could to quell the flames, but found that the only course was to restrict the flames from spreading. An adjoining house of G. Wilkerson was saved though in serious danger for some time. It is understood that $1,000 worth of insurance was carried on the building, but some loss will occur on the furniture which was not insured, it is stated. The Lynn residence was utterly gutted.

Royal Purple Active.—The Ladies of the Order of the Royal Purple have planned a series of entertainments for their Christmas cheer. The first to be held to-morrow evening in the Elks' clubrooms. Cards will be in progress from 8:30 to 10:30, followed by refreshments and dancing until midnight. Prof. Heaton will supply the music.

Man Following Woman.—A lady reported to the police to-day that she has been followed by a man for two and a half hours yesterday evening. It is thought that the shadow was a private detective and he is being requested to discontinue the practice in future. On one occasion the man attempted to speak to the lady, who was badly frightened at being shadowed in this mysterious manner.

Chinese Clubhouse Gutted.—A fire at 549 Lower Fisgard Street at 3 o'clock this morning did fair to repeat the fire in the Chinese Clubhouse of some years ago, until the arrival of the fire department checked the flames. The interior of the premises were entirely gutted, and nothing but the shell of the building remained. The fire took place in what are thought to have been club premises of a Chinese club off Theatre Alley, and created immense excitement among the Chinese residents of the neighborhood. A small chimney fire at 219 Howe Street gave the department a further run at 5:30 this morning. The high winds to-day made all fires a possible source of a dangerous outbreak.

Jewish Thanksgiving.—The Jewish Feast of the Tabernacle, which will begin by the holding of services at the Jewish Synagogue, Blanshard Street, at 8 o'clock this evening, will conclude next Sunday. Dr. S. M. Hartman and L. Lancaster, two local laymen, will conduct to-night's celebration and there will be no further services until next Sunday, when the final thanksgiving service will be held.

Visitors Depart.—The last of the Kiwanis delegates to the Pacific Northwest Convention here left on the afternoon boat yesterday for Seattle giving three ringing cheers and a "tiger" for the Victoria Club and all those who assisted so well in their entertainment while in this city. President Mark W. Graham, Kenneth Ferguson and the chairmen of the various committees, as well as many ladies saw the parties off, the delegates leaving in three separate groups. Yesterday the Washington and Oregon delegates were the guests of the local club in a series of motor drives in the morning, and played golf at the Oak Bay links in the early forenoon. The Port Angeles Club members left at 10:15 on the Sol Duc, the Vancouver, North Vancouver and West Vancouver club members on the 2:15 boat for Vancouver and the American delegates from Washington and Oregon on the 4:30 o'clock boat for Seattle. All visiting delegates expressed themselves as delighted with their reception and entertainment while in Victoria, and were loud in their praise for the tireless efforts of the local Kiwanians.

Boys in Mischief.—No less than ten juvenile "A. O. P." to-day dealt with mischief, and dangerous pranks by gangs of boys. In one case fire crackers were lighted and put into mail boxes, though the letters there escaped damage in some instances. Another case involved a valuable Persian kitten with "sling shots" inflicting wounds that had to receive medical attention. A third gang busied themselves with slinging sand and gravel against the walls of several new houses, causing serious disfigurement. What was perhaps the most serious was the action of two boys, one of whom grabbed a school out of a lady postmistress's hands and made off with the bag, containing some money and personal effects. The police in all cases followed up the reports and in the majority of cases traced the damage to the boys inflicting it, parents being requested to take stern measures with the unruly youths.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

POOR MR. OWL.

Mr. Owl is a very wise bird all the world folks knew but when he managed to rid the big tree where he lived of Mr. and Mrs. Woodpecker he was looked upon as being wiser than ever.

Mr. Owl has been kept awake all day and nearly all night and the next day, by hammering of the Woodpecker, who had chosen to make their home in the tree where he lived and he was sleepy and cross—Mr. Owl was I mean.

"Can't you people stop that noise for awhile and let a fellow sleep?" he asked. "I have to be out at night to make my living and here you folks hammer away all day and last night I was so sleepy I could not go out."

"We are going to finish our house," retorted Mrs. Woodpecker. "We build our own home; look up some folk I know, take the 'leavings' of others."

For a minute Mr. Owl did not reply to this hard thrust of truth, for it was a well known fact in Woodland that Mr. Owl often took the nest of Mr. Crow or even that of Mr. Squirrel, so he blinked a minute and then said: "Are you going to stop that hammering to-night or not?"

Mr. Woodpecker let his wife do all the talking and she replied that if they finished their house they would stop, otherwise she would go on hammering as she wanted it.

Mr. Owl could not see very well, but it seemed to him there was much hammering to be done before things were as Mrs. Woodpecker wanted them.

Now Mr. Owl had heard Mrs. Wren and her husband chattering on a limb of the tree that morning about finding a place to live because two very rude sparrows had taken the place they had the year before and though they had scolded and threatened the sparrows were able to make the sparrows move out.

"I will tell them about this place," thought Mr. Owl. "The hole, they say, is not big enough for the Wrens and they won't hammer my head off as these noisy creatures are doing."

It was not easy for Mr. Owl to get about in daytime but he managed to find Mr. and Mrs. Wren and told them about the fine place they could have if they would give up the Woodpecker. "I am sure you can do this when one of them flies away for dinner," said Mr. Owl. "You know they never stop that hammering, for one stays on duty while the other is away."

Mrs. Wren was so excited she could not keep quiet and as soon as Mrs. Woodpecker flew away over went the Wrens flying straight into the eyes of astonished Mr. Woodpecker, chattering and flapping their wings until he was glad to leave the tree.

It did not take Mrs. Wren a second to inspect the house while her husband stood guard outside. "We will take it," she said, poking out her head, and though it was a noisy battle they had when Mrs. Woodpecker returned with her husband the Wrens kept the house.

"Now I will have a little peace," said Mr. Owl solemnly, and all the birds around who had been watching said "well, Mr. Owl, how very wise you are indeed."

But alas and alack for Mr. Owl's well-laid plans for peace, in a few days he was holding his ears to shut out the scolding chatter of Mrs. Wren, for he did not know that she was a sad scold.

Mr. Owl knew better than to try to get Mrs. Wren to move. He disliked a quarrel anyway and well knew he would get the worst of it if he complained of her noisy chattering.

So one night he took his belongings under his wing and silently went away to find another home far from hammering woodpeckers and scolding Mrs. Wren.

L.O.D.E. REGENT AS INDIAN INTERPRETER

Mrs. Steven Cook of Alert Bay Well-known Here

It is not often that a woman is called upon to act as interpreter in a murder trial, but that duty has fallen to the lot of Mrs. Steven Cook, of Alert Bay, who has arrived in Vancouver for the trial of an Indian for alleged murder.

Mrs. Cook is the regent of the L. O. D. E. Chapter at Alert Bay and is well-known to many Daughters of the Empire through her attendance at the provincial annual meetings of the Order held in this city.

She has been a resident of Alert Bay for thirty-five years. She has Indian blood in her veins and is married to a full-blooded Indian. Mrs. Cook is the mother of nineteen children and lost one of her sons in the war.

A well-educated and extremely intelligent woman, Mrs. Cook will be remembered by many local Daughters of the Empire for her impassioned plea for the preservation of the rights of her fellow-Indians and for the protection of Indian reserves from the depredations of unscrupulous politicians and their minions.

Under her able guidance a splendid Chapter of the L. O. D. E. was formed at Alert Bay, the Indian members working loyally throughout the war in knitting socks and raising money to send comforts to the men overseas.

Mrs. Cook is said to have a wonderful memory which serves her well in her court duties. Those who have heard her in her duties as interpreter on former occasions have seen her sit quietly knitting for some twenty minutes listening to court proceedings, then turning to the Indians she will repeat word for word in their language the conversation that has passed.

ANONYMOUS GIFT TO HOSPITAL BALL

Cheque for $50 Received; No Complimentary Tickets

Donations still continue to arrive towards the expenses of the benefit ball to be given for the Jubilee Hospital under the auspices of the Musical Union at the Empress Hotel on Wednesday evening of this week.

Among the much appreciated gifts received this morning was a cheque for $50 from a generous anonymous donor, also $10 each from the Graduate Nurses' Association and the Royal Purple Lodge. Many gifts of delicacies for the supper have been received, but further donations of chickens, eggs and salad ingredients would be welcomed, and should be sent to the Hospital to-morrow for preparation.

A rumor has been mooted abroad to the effect that complimentary tickets are being issued to certain persons prominent in the arrangements for the ball. This rumor is utterly without foundation, as absolutely no complimentary tickets are being issued; those who are working the hardest were among the first to buy their tickets, and so lend two-fold support to the worthy object of the ball.

SOMETHING TO TALK ABOUT.

They were thrown into each other's society in a country house, without common interests or the least attraction for each other.

Finally, after casting about for a fertile subject of conversation, one of them fell in with the other and said, desperately: "Will you marry me?"

She considered long and deeply. "I think I'll say yes," she replied at last. "It will give me so much more to talk about while we're here."—Tit-Bits.

NEVER SAW ENGLAND SO PINCHED BEFORE

Miss Sime, Novelist, Gathers Sad Impressions on Trip

Montreal, Oct. 17.—"One comes away from England with a somewhat sad impression," was the summing up of Miss J. G. Sime, the Montreal novelist, who has returned from a visit to her homeland.

"I have never seen England and Scotland so pinched. There is a surface extravagance, but that is mostly on the part of the Louvres riches. But the great bulk of one's friends and acquaintances find that house-keeping is a very difficult thing, and the one question coming to their lips is: 'Can I afford it?'"

NIAGARA BRINGING MEN TO CONFERENCE

Reported to Have Delegates From Australia and New Zealand Aboard

The Canadian-Australian liner Niagara, Capt. Robert Crawford, which sailed from Sydney, N. S. W., October 13, for Victoria and Vancouver, is reported to have on board Hon. George Foster Pearce, Minister of Defence in the Commonwealth Government, who will represent Australia at the forthcoming Washington conference on the limitation of armaments. Sir John W. Salmond, Solicitor-General for New Zealand, who will represent New Zealand at the Washington conference, is expected to embark at Auckland. The Niagara is scheduled to sail from Auckland to-day, and is due to reach this port November 1 via Suva and Honolulu. The Canadian-Australian liner Makura, Capt. Robert Crawford, which sailed from this port for Auckland and Sydney, sailed from Honolulu yesterday, according to cable advices received here.

ARIZONAN SHIFTS TO SEATTLE FOR REPAIR

Under her own steam and assisted by the tug Tye, the American-Hawaiian freighter Arizonan left Esquimalt about noon yesterday for Seattle, where she will be repaired by the Todd Drydocks, Inc. Temporary patches were placed over the hull damage by Yarrows, Limited.

Princess Rupert—Overcast; S. E. fresh; 29.18; 41; sea rough.

FILTHY DRYDOCK IS ONLY LEGACY

SS. Arizonan Also Leaves Esquimalt Harbor Covered With Fuel Oil

A dirty drydock and patches of fuel oil floating on the surface of the waters of Esquimalt Harbor are the only traces left by the American freighter Arizonan which left port yesterday in tow of the tug Tye and Daniel Kern for Seattle. The $1,000 bond posted in compliance with the regulations for damage to the drydock by the escape of fuel oil from the ship's tanks is retained by the dock authorities. The Esquimalt police treasury was enriched to the extent of $20 mulcted in the shape of a fine against the Arizonan's mate for assault upon the ship's quartermaster. It was to that extent that the visit of the Arizonan, apart from the purchase of a few stores, benefited Victoria.

The drydock is in a fearfully dirty state and it will be some days before the mess has been cleared up. Oil is to be found floating all over the harbor at Esquimalt. "The hardest blow will not stir up a wave in Esquimalt Harbor for a while," remarked a shipmaster this morning, "there is enough oil about to check the most boisterous sea."

MOVIE COMPANY WILL "SHOOT" SCENES ON FAMOUS WINDJAMMER

Dorothy Dalton Will Figure in Piratical Adventure on Barquentine Olympic

Recent announcement was made in these columns of the charter of the American four-masted barquentine Olympic by the Lasky-Famous Players Company for the production of a stirring marine movie drama. The Olympic is owned by Thomas Crowley, of San Francisco. The work of "shooting" the scenes will begin the next few days with Dorothy Dalton as the star in the motion picture production. As the picture calls for the introduction of pirate ships which will attack the barquentine, several Crowley craft are being fitted to resemble buccanier vessels. These will be seen flying the Jolly Roger in Mission Bay, which has been selected as the venue for the attack on the Olympic.

Rechristened For Occasion. Rechristened for the occasion, the Olympic now bears the name "Fru Letty," painted in white letters on either side of her bows. The stern carries in painted letters the legend "Prominent Norway," which is the home port of the "Fru Letty" in the film story. The Olympic recently arrived at San Francisco in ballast from Callao, Peru. She was built at Bath, Me., in 1892.

WINTER SERVICE TO NORTH IN EFFECT

SS. Prince Rupert Inaugurates New Schedule; Prince George Laid Up

The winter schedule of the Grand Trunk Pacific went into effect yesterday with the departure of the steamship Prince Rupert, Capt. Robinson, for Seattle, en route to Prince Rupert via Vancouver. A weekly schedule to the North will be maintained by the Prince Rupert until further notice, departure for Victoria being taken at 11 a. m. every Sunday. The steamship Prince George, Capt. Morehouse, was laid up at Prince Rupert yesterday, following the return to that port from Stewart. The overhaul on the Prince George this year will be carried out by the Wallace firm at Prince Rupert. The Prince George is expected to be ready to resume early in the new year, and then the Prince Rupert will be withdrawn for refit.

Travel to northern British Columbia is light, which accounts for the early withdrawal of one of the regular G. T. P. steamships. The semi-weekly service to the North will not be resumed before next May, it is understood. Under the new schedule the steamships Prince Albert and Prince John will be operated on the routes of the Prince Rupert, including the Stewart and Anxoy runs, and to the Queen Charlotte Islands.

PATRICIA ON NEW GULF SCHEDULE

The C. P. R. steamship Princess Patricia enters upon her new schedule to-day between Nanaimo and Vancouver. The new schedule issued by the C. P. R. calls for one round trip on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and two round trips on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The Otter will provide the service during the Winter between this port and the Gulf Islands. The Otter, replacing the Island Princess, left at 8 o'clock this morning for the Islands.

BOILER REPAIRS NEEDED ON QUEEN

SS. President Will Be Only San Francisco Boat For Some Time

The President will be the only vessel maintaining the Admiral Line service between Seattle, Victoria and San Francisco, until further notice, according to an announcement by the local agents, Rithet Consolidated, Ltd. Necessity for immediate repairs to her boilers was the reason for the cancellation of Saturday's sailing of the steamship Queen from Seattle and Victoria. Inspection revealed that something like three weeks will be required to renew the boiler tubes and make other engine-room repairs, said the agents. The period of withdrawal is indefinite and it is possible that long contemplated renovations planned for the Queen may be ordered carried out at this time. A. P. Haines, vice-president and general manager of the Admiral Line, who has been in the East for several weeks, is expected to return to Seattle this week, and the matter alterations and improvements to the cabins of the Queen will be submitted to him for a decision. As a result of the withdrawal of the Queen, the steamship Admiral Schley, sailing from Seattle, is taking the Queen's local passengers south.

COAST CREWS GET INCREASE

Officers and Men of C.G.M.M. Being Signed on New Articles

Vancouver, Oct. 17.—The officers and crews of the three Government ships—Canadian Rover, Canadian Farmer and Canadian Observer—are to get an increase in wages. The crew of the Farmer is to sign new articles to-day. These vessels came out with the men signed on for a year's cruise at what was practically deep-sea Pacific wages, and upon their arrival some trouble was made by the men who wanted to receive coastwise wages when on the Pacific coast run between British Columbia and California. The articles were tested in court and proven sound. Now it is announced that the operating company has decided to hold the three ships permanently on the coastwise service, and the men will be signed up on coastwise articles. The old and new scales were:

DIRECTORS ARE SOLIDLY BEHIND LINEHAM SCHEME

Favor Proposals for Provincial Tourist Bureaux

The Chamber of Commerce is solidly behind Arthur Lineham's scheme for establishing a provincial tourist organization, President J. H. Beatty announced at today's meeting of the directors. Mr. Lineham was present, and informed the directors that he had waited on the Government. He asked that a committee be appointed to wait on the authorities to press for the adoption of the scheme, which should be put into operation in the Spring.

Will the advantages British Columbia possesses there is no reason why some of the benefits occurring to neighboring States should not be enjoyed here if a little advertising were done and the scheme put through as it should be, he said. Los Angeles is collecting $300,000 a year to advertise its Summer climate alone, it was stated. A committee comprised of Alderman A. E. Todd, Stephen Jones, Arthur Lineham, J. C. Pender and W. Spencer was named to press the matter.

The Dock Dues. In response to the Chambers' telegram to the Federal Government supporting the contention of local contractors that concessions should be made in the matter of dues for the Esquimalt-drydock in order that the "Arizonan" ship repair contract might be secured and employment given here to a lot of unemployed men, a telegram was received that an Order-in-Council would be required to do this. "This repair work should never have left Victoria," said Mr. Yarrows. "The dock is supposed to be for the purpose of attracting industry here but instead of that the Government is driving business away," he said. There was a good deal of criticism over the Government's action and the directors are investigating drydock rates and conditions generally with a view to getting better terms on the Esquimalt-drydock contract that future contracts may be assured.

Expresses Thanks. A letter of appreciation was read from the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Association for the assistance given by the Chamber of Commerce during the visit of the chiefs here recently. The Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade wrote the directors conveying its appreciation of the Chamber's assistance in pressing for a continuance of the daily train service. The directors decided to endorse the application of the District Cricketers' Association for the City Council to assist in providing facilities for amateur games.

B. C. CITIES TO GET CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Liquor Board Preparing Surprises; Better Than Something to Drink

British Columbia municipalities are going to get a Christmas present from the Liquor Control Board, James Falconer, in charge of the operations of the Board on the Mainland, announced to-day after conferring during the last two days with other officials of the Board at the head office here. "And it's going to be a bigger present than some people expect," Mr. Falconer said, "because of the success the Board has had so far in managing the business." Talking about rumors of a reduction in the price of the Government liquor, Mr. Falconer said that the Government set the prices, but no reduction would be likely until after returns of the Board's business have been presented to the Legislature, and where the Government sees exactly where it stands. At the Liquor Board offices to-day it was explained that special liquor prices were set at figures such as would make sure that the Board would come out on the right side of the balance sheet at the end of the year, recognizing that the whole business of Government control is an experiment, and that costs of starting business are heavy. "The stand of the Board," said one official, "is that the man who has money to indulge his taste in whisky should have no objection to contributing a little to help the municipalities meet their deficits."

COMMUNITY-CENTRE ATTRACTS HUNDREDS

Splendid Programme Provided; Basketball Secured Much Applause

Some five hundred persons attended the inauguration of the Community Centre, which presented its opening programme for the Winter on Saturday. Mayor Porter endorsed the Winter series with a few well-chosen words, hoping that the community spirit would be supported by the citizens and assuring the co-operation of the City Council in every way possible. An interesting basketball game was staged by the Fifth Regiment against the Colonel's quintette, a single point being the only difference with which the army officers defeated their opponents. A programme of the latest dance music was rendered by the Fifth Regiment band under the capable instruction of Bandmaster Alfred Rumbly. The music met with approval at once and many couples took advantage of the spacious floor for dancing. The band was very generous with their encores. The Saturday night basketball game between the Fifth Regiment and "Turk" Grice's team ushered in the season and provided one of the cleanest and most exciting games to be seen here. The final score for the game ended in favor of the Fifth officers at 27 to 36. The Colonel's baskets were scored as follows: Bothwell, 12; Veitch, 8;

Gouverneur Morris Picture
Presents Strong Drama

To take life or to preserve it; to set oneself up as an arbiter over the lives of others, or to pursue the course of enriching one's own existence by enjoying the common experiences of us all, are some of the questions that find solution in the new Goldwyn picture, "Ace of Hearts," by Gouverneur Morris, which is being shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre, this week.

Mr. Morris has presented a group of well-meaning but misguided reformers, who will stop at nothing to gain their desired ends. Though their aims may be altruistic and noble, their methods are evil. Consequently, there arises the old question of "Does the end justify the means?" The author of "Ace of Hearts" has developed his story consistently. As in all human activities, there is a very human slip between the conception and the execution of the group's plans. It is brought about by the beautiful love of two of their members, played by Laetitia Joy and John Bowers. Through the agency of another member, played by Lon Chaney, their evil methods meet an evil fate, and the lovers find a new basis for their future life. The story is interestingly developed, and has been given an excellent production by the Goldwyn organization.

A musical treat is in store for music-lovers when they hear the Royal Musical Trio at the above theatre this week. A programme has been chosen that will appeal to all tastes. This, in addition to a good comedy.

STRONG CAST IN
"THE WISE FOOL"

James Kirkwood Stars in Dominion Production

When George Melford's latest Paramount production, "A Wise Fool," comes to the Dominion Theatre to-night, the public will see one of the strongest casts ever assembled for a photoplay. James Kirkwood, an eminent screen actor and director, is the featured player.

As the erratic Jean Jacques Barville, the hero of "A Wise Fool," the original name of which the picture is an adaptation, Mr. Kirkwood has a most delightful and entertaining role. Alice Hollister, a delightful actress, has the leading woman's role. Ann Forrest, who played the principal feminine role in "The Faith Healer," is seen as Zoe Barville. Alan Hale is excellent as Maason, and Fred Huntley, as Sebastian Dolores, a scoundrelly Spanish exile, provokes amusement by his rascality. Edward and Trudy Shattuck, a once famous comic opera star, plays Virginia Pousette. The cast is completed by Harry Duffield, Charles Ogle, John Herdman and Lillian Leighton. Sir Gilbert Parker and George Melford collaborated on the scenario and William Marshall was cameraman.

The added attractions for this week are as follows: "The Three Good Pals," an exceptionally funny comedy, that for laughter is hard to beat. The news of the world is always interesting and entertaining, and lastly, not by any means the least enjoyable part of the programme is Miss Eva Hart, the popular soprano, who has delighted Dominion patrons for the past two weeks. She will be heard in new song selections. The musical programme, always of a high standard, rounds out a good show.

ELITE OF NEW YORK
SHOWN AT CAPITOL

Richard Barthelmess Appears in "Experience"

The elite of New York was recruited for the big Paramount picture, "Experience," that comes to the Capitol Theatre this week. Wives of the most prominent business men of that city put aside their social duties for a day to appear in the gorgeous cabaret scene, which is an important feature of the picture.

As the habitués of cabarets along the Great White Way are, in a great number, society folk, George Fitzmaurice, the director, induced the social lights of the city to come to the Paramount studio on Long Island and appear before the screen as "extras." The response was most generous.

Never before, perhaps, in the history of motion pictures, has there been such a showing of brilliant costumes and glitter of jewels as was apparent among the distinguished "extras" in this scene of "Experience."

The story of "Experience" deals with an ambitious young chap who goes to the big city to make his fortune and who learns the bitter truths about life from personal experience. There is a charming love story and there are many dramatic moments. Richard Barthelmess is the featured player and in the supporting cast, such as John Miltenr, Marjorie Daw, Edna Wheaton, who was declared to be the most beautiful woman in New York, Nita Naldi, Kate Bruce and many others, a delightful trio of entertaining vocalists are the Capitol Ladies' Trio, which appear at the de luxe performance this week. Gifted with pleasing personalities and voices above the ordinary their various song offerings are one of the best musical presentations brought before Capitol patrons.

MAE MARCH STARS IN "NOBODY'S KID"

Petite Actress Has Fine Role at Variety

"Nobody's Kid," the new Robertson-Cole comedy-drama, starring the petite and whimsical screen favorite, Mae Marsh, will be the leading attraction at the Variety Theatre to-day, when it will have a run of six days. This is the second picture Mae Marsh has made for Robertson-Cole since her return to the screen after an absence of two years. "Nobody's Kid" was adapted to the silver screen from the popular novel, "Mary Cary," written by Kate Langley Boshier and was directed by Howard Hickman, who also wrote the scenario in conjunction with Katherine Carr.

Two years ago when Miss Marsh left the screen to start the most important role of mother she had a following second to no star in the business. Her admirers are anxious to see her again, and wherever "Nobody's Kid" has been shown the "Mae Marsh admirers" have stormed the box offices. In this new picture Miss Marsh has one of the best vehicles of her career. It is hard to understand that the role of Mary Cary was not written expressly for her.

The story of "Nobody's Kid" is placed in the Yorkburg Orphan Asylum, where Mary Cary is an inmate,

Joy and hate, triumph and defeat, life and death—in a pack of cards

GOUVERNEUR MORRIS' remarkable story is a new experiment in motion pictures. In terms of the most thrilling melodrama, it tells how the lives of twelve people hung on the ticking of a clock and the turn of a card.

And it leaves you glowing with an inspired message—the supremacy of love over hate, the ascendancy of good over evil.

ALL-STAR CAST

It has everything a really big picture should have—and more. See it!

When things are looking blackest for Mary, Katherine Trent, a wealthy young woman, arrives at the asylum with Dr. Rudd, the supervising trustee, and Miss Bray is informed that Miss Trent will act as nurse at the orphanage, giving her services gratis. Mary and her playmate, "Pinky," look upon Katherine as an angel. They find she has gone into social work because she and her sweetheart have quarrelled.

On one occasion when Mary is delivering a basket of preserves at the home of a wealthy resident, she overhears a conversation concerning herself. She learns that she is the niece of Dr. Park Alden of Detroit. She determines to write Dr. Alden and does, telling him of her misery in the asylum and asking his aid. Dr. Alden receives the letter and at once hastens to Mary, whom he had thought dead.

When Dr. Alden hears Mary's story he informs her that he will take her away immediately. On the way out he encounters Katherine Trent, and Mary realizes for the first time that her uncle is the sweetheart with whom Katherine quarrelled. The pair are reconciled. Mary persuades her uncle to take her pal, "Pinky" out of the asylum also. The happy quarrel finally wind up at Dr. Alden's big estate in Detroit.

"APHRODITE" COMING.

"Aphrodite" the world's greatest spectacle which stirred up so much discussion last Winter at the Century Theatre, New York, and recently broke all records for theatrical receipts at the Auditorium, Chicago, will be sent to the Avenue Theatre, Vancouver, for one week, commencing Monday next, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

Its story is based upon the famous French literary classic of the same name by Pierre Louys, which was first published in Paris, in 1895. "Aphrodite" is said to surpass all its predecessors in gorgeousness and splendor, representing an outlay of $250,000. Its story centres around a statue of Aphrodite, Goddess of Love, carved by Demetrios, a famous sculptor of Alexandria, who lived two thousand years ago.

COLUMBIA SHOWS

"The Branding Iron" is Gripping Story of West

The branding iron has long offered foundation for stories of the great West. Now it returns to the screen, but this time not as the weapon of the cattle rustler. In the hands of a jealous husband it becomes the brand of ownership, searing its cruel design into the fair white flesh of his terrified young wife. Such, in a paragraph, is the unalloyed theme of the powerful Goldwyn film, "The Branding Iron," which will be at the Columbia Theatre to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. Around it revolves a story in which brawny men of the great West reveal their hates and their loves for poor little Joan Carver, while intrigue has its champion in the person of a wealthy New York playright. Smashing snow scenes beautifully portrayed, action of the sort that holds and romance of the good old fashioned kind offer effective settings for the splendid art of fascinating Barbara Castleman as Joan. "The Branding Iron" will brand itself on your memory long after other pictures are forgotten.

PRINCESS TO HAVE
POPULAR FAVORITE

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" This Week

The management of the Mildred Page Players have chosen for their next production that ever popular comedy of human and some stirring interest, that it has delighted the hearts of thousands since its first presentation as a play. "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is the title of this beautiful play, and its one that has long been requested by the large following gained by this clever company during their stay in Victoria. There will be a large cast in this production, and singing and dancing specialties interpolated, also there is being built a special scenic production for the back ground for the play, and from beginning to end there will be nothing left undone to make the production a success. "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will begin on Wednesday and run the balance of the week with a matinee on Saturday. On Wednesday night there will be announced the details of a new contest for the grown ups, and little folks remember the contest now running, the prize has grown to the amount of $60 and well worth the winning.

"In the Queen's Service" at Little Theatre

The Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society is evidently determined to fulfil its expressed intention of producing a play every four or five weeks throughout the coming Winter season at the Little Theatre. Its next offering is to be "In the Queen's Service," the first performance will be on Saturday evening next and the play will be continued nightly throughout the ensuing week. This play deals with one of the most interesting periods of modern history, namely France in the sixteenth century, and is of a type strongly reminiscent of "The Three Musketeers" or "The Scarlet Pimpernel." Its four acts are replete with rapid and heroic action, plots and counterplots, intrigue and

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back. Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease. The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills — the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels. Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. ### ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY SOCIAL EVENING

During the past week the Victoria branch of the St. George's Society gave the first of a series of social evenings that have been arranged to take place during the Winter months. At these gatherings, music, lectures, speeches and refreshments are included. Much is added, too, of the history of the British Isles, the Colonies and the Dominions overseas. This society was founded about two years ago, through the efforts of the present officers of the society: Dean

Quinton, president; Rev. F. F. Fatt, vice-president; Mr. Deville, second vice-president; Rev. J. L. Batty, chaplain; Rev. S. Cook, assistant chaplain, and the ladies of the executive, president, Mrs. T. K. Loach; Mrs. Quinton, vice-president; and Mrs. Mardel, second vice-president. Mrs. J. Anderson, who has been secretary since the formation of the local branch, has had to relinquish that important position owing to strain of other duties, and a new secretary will be appointed at an early meeting. The treasurer is Mrs. Thomas Lane. The objects of the St. George Society, are to uphold English literature, to study and reverse the lives of Britain's great men; to assist the newcomer from the Old Land, and to welcome all British people coming to this country.

APPEAL FOR SUM TO LIQUIDATE CAMPAIGN DEBTS

During the Provincial elections last December, the Soldier-Labor-Farmer Party was constituted by uniting the forces of organized labor and a certain section of ex-service men as represented by the G. A. U. V., and with the result that certain candidates were nominated to contest the seats in Victoria, Esquimalt and Saanich, the G. A. U. V. nominating two for Victoria in the persons of R. P. McLernan and C. K. Christian; J. B. Gadsden for Esquimalt, and Capt. N. A. Orford for Saanich, while the labor candidates were Messrs. T. Dooley and J. Dakers for Victoria. A portion of the campaign debts has not yet been paid. From enquiries made it has been elicited through Mr. Christian, one of the soldier candidates, that many efforts have been made to raise the money necessary to pay these debts, but certain obstacles were faced which rendered these efforts useless in so far as the desired result was concerned. Mr. Christian now states that he is willing, in the capacity of a private citizen, stating that he has absolutely no moral obligation falling on him as to his personal responsibility for any of the claims, to endeavor to raise a fund sufficient for the purpose aimed at, and with this as his objective, he has promoted a series of dances to be held in the Trades Hall, Broad Street, every Tuesday night, commencing on October 25 and con-

Dean Coleman Appeals for Mutual Recognition of Trials

Stirring Address on Anglo-American Friendship at Kiwanis Banquet

Delivering one of the feature addresses of the whole convention, Professor Herbert Coleman, Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Science, University of British Columbia, closed the speeches for the Northwest convention Saturday evening with an oration that brought the large gathering to its feet with ringing cheers. Dean Coleman spoke with a quiet dignity and reserve that was powerful in its sincere eloquence, on "Anglo-American Friendship."

The Dean said in part: "The eminent English historian, John Richard Green, writing for his countrymen, has said, 'Modern England, the England in which we live, began at the Battle of Naseby. The Battle of Naseby, you will recall, was the deciding battle in the Civil War carried on for many years between Charles I. and the Long Parliament. The question at issue was the doctrine of the right of the people to rule themselves through their elected representatives as against the doctrine of the Divine Right of Kings. The great leader of the forces of the English Parliament was Oliver Cromwell, and it is interesting to note that a little over twenty years before he had seriously considered the advisability of casting in his lot with a small body of adventurers who left Plymouth Harbor in a small vessel to plant a colony in the New World. This vessel was the Mayflower and its human cargo the Pilgrim Fathers. They met the issue of religious intolerance and political oppression by emigrating to America and becoming, under the hand of Providence, the first of the many communities which in later years became the great self-governing community of the United States. Their brethren who remained behind met the issue in another way and with less fruitful results, namely, by the planting of the good of mankind in the New England Colonies."

Streams of Freedom.
"We see, then, that early in the 17th century the stream of British freedom which, in the noble lines of Wordsworth's 'Ode on the River Wye' flows from dark antiquity with pomp of waters unwithstood, divided itself into two main currents, one which has taken its majestic course through the three centuries of American history, and the other which has flowed on with ever increasing volume through the history, or rather, the histories, of the other English-speaking peoples," continued Dean Coleman.

"While these two rivers, like those of which our geographers tell us, have found each its own channel, there has occurred with them a phenomenon unlike any which physical nature shows, namely, the frequent replenishing of the waters of the one from the waters of the other. Democratic movements in Britain have influenced in many ways the head of political thought and action in the United States, and it is scarcely necessary to call attention to the obvious fact that the wider political freedom which existed in the United States from its beginning as a nation, was a direct challenge to certain power, and less democratic conceptions which, until recently at least, have exercised a potent influence in the Motherland."

Three Dates.
"Let us return now to our historical survey," he continued, "and let me connect what I have to say in this particular with three dates: 1776, the date of the Declaration of Independence and of the beginning of the war of the American Revolution, 1812, the date of the outbreak of the last—not the latest, but the last—war between the United States and Britain, and 1917, the date of America's entry into the World War."

"With the passing of Oliver Cromwell there ensued the dark days of the Stuart Restoration during which the sun of liberty seemed to have gone permanently into eclipse. But it was only seeming, for in 1688 the spirit of British freedom again asserted itself and the doctrine of the Divine Right of Kings went the way of all exploded heresies and cruel superstitions."

An Imperfect Voice.
"Unfortunately the British Parliament, which then assumed control of the national destinies, was only in a very imperfect way the voice of the English people and in the hands of a stubborn and stupid ministry, supported by a stubborn and stupid king, it became an agency of oppression to Britons abroad as well as to Britons at home. The sequel in America, the well-known—'to Americans at least—for there are still Americans, I fear, who think of the England of George V. in terms of the England of George III., and who have a suspicion that the spirit of the latter still controls British foreign and domestic policy."

"The full reaction of the American revolution upon British politics was postponed by the outbreak of the Napoleonic Wars, for in times of grave national peril political reform—though long overdue—must wait. Following the disappearance of the Napoleonic menace, the tide of democracy rose again in Britain and in a series of Reform Bills, beginning in 1832 and terminating in 1918, overwhelmed one by one the entrenchments of political privilege. In the great School of Democracy your Englishman does not shine as brilliantly perhaps as some of the other nations, but he has this virtue at least; he sticks to his lessons until he has learned them—even if it takes a thousand years," said Dr. Coleman.

Canada's Development.
"And Canada, like the United States and like Britain has had her War of Independence. Britain's lasted some 300 years, yours (if we measure it after the usual fashion) lasted 5, and ours last 50, from 1791, the date of the Constitutional Act, to 1841, the date of the granting of responsible government. 'Our war was fought in the main with the more or less peaceful weapons of political agitation; though some heads were broken, few lives were lost, and now we claim our share in the great heritage and the great tasks of 20th century political freedom."

The War of 1812.
"The war of 1812-15 is another excellent illustration of the fact that the history of the new world and the history of the old world are intimately connected. It was really an off-shoot of the great struggle against Napoleon in which for a time Britain stood almost alone. That in this struggle Britain was the chief agency in rescuing Europe from a military despotism, is now an incontestable fact. Then, as in the recent war, Britain's great weakness was her lack of the memories of the last few years fresh in our minds we can understand that the exercise of that power was a serious inconvenience to non-combatants and that both parties in the struggle, under the spur of a great necessity, did things which were highly exasperating to the proud and sensitive American nation. Britain was probably the chief offender, at any rate she was the one whose interference, in view of memories of the Revolutionary War, was most bitterly resented. Further, she had one particularly vulnerable spot and that was the Colony of Canada. Canadians are apt to think that the force of American ill-will was directed towards them and of Lincoln, of the desire to acquire Canada, was the chief cause of the war. Such was, of course, not the case. Possibly some Americans even thought they were doing us good by rescuing us from the hateful tyranny of the British Crown," said the speaker.

"I do not recall that in all my youthful studies of the history of the war of 1812 this wider aspect of the question was at any time brought to my attention."

"There is another aspect of the war of 1812 on which our Canadian histories have been largely silent, an aspect which is revealed in the fact that a large part of the American people war and gave at best only a half-hearted support. The war was begun, and in fact was prosecuted throughout, by a party rather than by a people."

"But enough of what we can now properly regard as Ancient History, the story of 'old unhappy far-off things and battles long ago.' The significant fact about Anglo-American relations is not that there were some four years of war at the beginning of last century, but that since that time there have been over one hundred years of peace, of peace and of growing good will."

America's Entry.
"Of 1917 I will say only this, that with all right-minded Canadians, and in using this term I am characterizing, I think, the overwhelming majority of the Canadian people, with all right-minded Canadians the one enduring memory is that of a nation in arms and the one enduring sentiment is one of admiration for the high statesmanship which led America to throw aside absolutely for the time being, her century-old tradition of isolation and to range herself wholeheartedly on the side of Britain and her Allies. And besides that memory of a nation in arms, there is that other memory of those who went and who did not return, your boys and our boys, Americans and Canadians who gave 'this last full measure of devotion' not only for the United States or for Canada, but also for that larger country which we call humanity. They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn. When the sun goes down and in the morning, we will remember them."

"There are still some small souls who distress themselves with the question: 'Who won the war?' The question is both idle and mischievous. There is enough of glory to our respective nations to make us all proud, enough of selfishness and of graft to make us all humble, and enough of misery and want, and human wreckage, and social bitterness—all the direct outcome of the war—to make us all serious."

Who Won the War?
"Who won the war? The question can be answered in a score of ways, all in a measure true. Belgium won the war, for had she not thrown herself before the wheels of the German juggernaut, France would have been crushed before any effective opposition could be established on the Western front. Italy and Russia won the war, for they divided the forces of the Central Powers at critical periods in the struggle. France won the war, through the valor of her troops, the genius of her generals, the fortitude of her civilian population. Never was the soul of a people more sorely tried; never was the soul of a people more gloriously triumphant. Britain won the war; Britain with her sea-power, with the age-old tradition of never knowing when she was beaten; Britain with the young nations of the British Commonwealth at her side, the lion and the lion's whelps," continued Dr. Coleman.

"America won the war, through the bravery of the American expeditionary force; through the fresh courage which came to the war-worn Allies in the consciousness of her support; through the moral effect upon the Central Powers of her struggle. And so with the long list of allied nations, to each its special place, to each its special glory."

To Last Decimal Place.
"We will leave to the historians of a century hence, when national pride will not be so sharply engaged and when the lapse of time will have given the necessary perspective, we will leave to these men the problem of determining to the last decimal place what each nation did or left undone."

"But there will be many then, as there are many now, who will believe that the war was not won merely by soldiers and sailors and all the vast engineering of destruction which modern invention and industry had been able to furnish. They will believe that back of these, certain immeasurable and imponderable forces were at work, and the more devoted of that day will speak as did devout men of ancient times, of the hand of God."

Dr. Coleman went on, "because of their ancestry, their history, and their geographical position, should be qualified in an especial sense to act as interpreters between the Motherland and the United States; for we are Americans just as truly as you are, though, of course, in a different sense of the word. And we are British just as truly as we are American. We do not aspire to any official status in this connection. If we will discharge the function best if we, in our several capacities, whether public or private, seek to justify the confidence of Britons overseas and at the same time to maintain the respect of you who are our neighbors and our friends. Canada could, in my humble judgment, seek no higher destiny. And the Kiwanis Clubs of Canada could ask for no worthier or weightier task. For us that is precisely what International Kiwanis means in this year of grace 1921."

Great Britain's Place.
"If all Americans knew the Motherland as we know her; if they knew her history, so much of which is also their history; if they knew the uncomplaining and truly heroic way in which she has set herself to carry burdens which are so largely the burdens of others weaker than herself; if they knew the patience with which she has sought to help recalcitrant peoples, half blinded by the light of a new-found liberty, to a rational and effective self-government; if they knew the story of South Africa, of Egypt and of India; if they knew how courageously she is endeavoring at the present time to heal the sick soul of the Irish people, they would not love her perhaps as we love her, but there would be no room in their hearts for hate or even for indifference."

"And if all Canadians and all Britons knew the America which so many of us know, he concluded, 'the America of happy memories and of close personal friendships, the America of Washington and of Lincoln, of Theodore Roosevelt and of Woodrow Wilson; if they knew the difficulties she has had to overcome and the achievements she has wrought; if they knew how much of the social betterment of mankind has waited upon and still waits upon her leadership, the man who sought to arouse anti-American prejudice among us would thereby stamp himself not only with the brand of ignorance, but also with the brand of crime.'"

REFEREES DID NOT APPEAR ON FIELD

Football Games Were All Played on Saturday; Substitutes Performed Well

Examining Board of V.D.F.A. Will Sit To-night to Appoint New Referees

Despite the fact that members of the Victoria Referees' Association refused to take the field on Saturday and handle games for which they had been appointed by the Victoria and District Football Association, the soccer card was not disrupted and all games scheduled were played.

When the regular referees failed to appear at the appointed hour at the various playing fields the substitutes which were picked by the V. D. F. A. on Friday night took the whistles and the teams got into action.

All were satisfactory. According to an announcement made by an official of the V. D. F. A. this morning the substitute referees all performed their work satisfactorily. No kicks had been registered with the secretary up until noon today.

The V. D. F. A. will refuse to have anything further to do with the Referees' Association. This evening the examining board of the football organization will meet at the Victoria Y. M. C. A. to examine any persons who wish to pass a referee's examination. Those who qualify will be appointed by the V. D. F. A. to handle all games next Saturday.

Contracts Mailed to All Hockey Players

Lester Patrick, Manager of Aristocrats, Announces That Names of Athletes Who Are to Perform Here This Year Will Be Known Shortly; Season Will Start Earlier; Players Here End of Next Month.

Contracts have been mailed to all the hockey players whom Lester Patrick, manager of the Aristocrats, wants to wear his colors this winter in the race after the Pacific Coast hockey championship.

Lester would not go any further this morning with his announcements. He was not prepared to state the names of players to whom the contracts had been forwarded but intimated that several important announcements would be forthcoming very shortly.

The Victoria magazine is very anxious to win the flag this season. He hasn't had one since before the war and hard luck dogged his efforts for the last three years. Last season the team got off to a bad start because some of the players forgot that a training period was necessary before the schedule started. Before the team got into its stride it was hopelessly in the rut and although the players tried hard to get into the race to wards the close the handicap was too great.

Good Season Ahead. "It's going to be a good season," Lester stated this morning. "The fans will be treated to the best hockey that has been exhibited on the coast since the P. C. H. A. has been in operation. New players will make their appearance and these we hope will greatly bolster the team in the circuit. I am hoping for some success in the dickerings I am having with several new players, but that's a story that will come a little later."

Report Next Month. The hockey players who are to be with Victoria this season will have to report in between November 20 and December 1. This will be three weeks earlier than they arrived last year.

ARGUMENTS HANDILY OVER MONTREALERS

Toronto Oarsmen Now Undisputed Leaders of Inter-Provincial Rugby Series

Toronto, Oct. 17.—As a result of the easily won victory over the M. A. A. team at the Varsity Stadium on Saturday afternoon, and the defeat of the Ottawa Rough Riders at Hamilton by the Denizens of the Jungle, the Argonauts are in the lead in the inter-provincial series.

The locals had a slight workout against the Montreal crew, and Art Ross's proteges showed the result of the coaching in the theoretical parts of the game, they lacked the natural football ability to give the scullers anything like an argument, and the score of 42 to 9 gave a very good indication of the relative strength of the two teams.

Ruth and Landis in Fight for Supremacy

Homerun King Defied Order of Baseball Commissioner and Played In Game Yesterday; Mystery Is How Ruth Managed to Recuperate From His Five Serious Injuries So Quickly After World's Series.

New York, Oct. 17.—Babe Ruth has precipitated what Judge K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, described as a test to determine "who is the biggest man in baseball—the commissioner or the player who makes the most home runs."

Ruth, with Bob Meusel and Bill Piercy of the Yankees, played in an exhibition baseball game at Buffalo yesterday in defiance of a formal warning from Judge Landis that the rule prohibiting world's series contestants from appearing in exhibition games prior to the opening of the next big league season would be enforced. Ruth, moreover, announced he would play again to-day in a game scheduled at Elmira, N. Y.

Ruth Thinks He's Right. "I still think I am in the right and Judge Landis is wrong," Ruth said. "I see no reason why this rule should be invoked against us when Sleser, of St. Louis, and others who shared in the world's series money are playing exhibition games un-molested by Judge Landis."

The commissioner to-day refused to indicate what action he would take in the event Ruth played, further than to say that he would regard the case as a direct challenge of his authority.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Disregarding orders of Judge K. M. Landis, national baseball commissioner, Babe Ruth, home-run star of the New York Yankees, yesterday took part in an exhibition game against the Buffalo Internationals.

Pete Herman Anxious For Scrap With Buff

Former Bantamweight Champion Believes That He Can Regain Title From Johnny Buff; Tex Rickard May Stage Bout In New York; Would Draw Immense Crowd As Little Fellows Are Fighters.

New York, Oct. 17.—Pete Herman, twice holder of the bantam title, wants another chance to regain his lost laurels, now in the keeping of Johnny Buff. Although the decision that took his crown away was a decidedly poor one in the opinion of good judges, Herman accepted the verdict with good grace. He made no protest, but he does think that in view of the close decision he should have another match without delay.

Herman says that the reason he is in such a hurry for another crack at Buff is that he is afraid the little fellow will get beaten and lose the title to some bantam who would not be willing to meet all comers in its defence.

Wildcat loomed up. Buff and the English midget will pack Madison Square Garden to the door when the face each other some time this winter.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER NOTES

There is more trouble in Ireland. Because the Irish Football Association protest committee ordered the drawn Irish Cup semi-final between Glenavon and Shelbourne to be replayed at Belfast, instead of Dublin, the Leinster body formed an association of their own and called it "The Football Association of Ireland." The new association will endeavor to operate all over the Green Isle and meantime the Irish Football Association who have the support of the northern clubs, are not exhibiting the least worry.

Clapton Orient have probably the youngest league team in the Old Country, their players averaging only twenty-one years and four months.

Heath, Stockport County's half-back, scored eleven goals from penalty kicks last season and has never yet failed to count with a kick from the spot in any league game since he joined the club. J. Keenlake, the county's brilliant outside right, is a schoolboy international, who signed a professional form for Everton when only 17 years old.

Spurs are fortunate with their recruits. The case of Andrew Thompson, who twelve months ago was a Junior, provides an instance. He was called on to take the place of Bliss when the latter was hurt, and away scored against Bolton Wanderers, and followed up with two goals against Cardiff City.

Another young player who is making good is Harry G. Spencer, a Burisden lad, who first time out for Everton scored the goal which tied the game with Birmingham. Two years ago he signed up for the Goodson Park Club, and last season, while playing Central League football, scored twelve goals in eighteen games.

In John Elkes, who is 6 ft. 1 1/2 in. in height, Birmingham have the tallest player in the league. Elkes, who is the "Bum" inside left player for Wellington Town when 17 years of age. Later he helped St. George's amateurs to win three cups, played a dozen games with Stalybridge Celtic and then went to war. This is his fourth season with Birmingham, and each year he becomes more effective in the goal area.

Herman Favorite. When Herman and Buff meet again it is a sure thing that Herman will be a strong favorite in the betting. If he performs in his best style he may score a knockout, although the odds are against it.

Buff is not at all averse to another encounter with Herman. The little Jerseyite believes he can do it better now. He points out that he held Herman to a draw once before and that he is improving constantly, while Herman is standing still.

Joe Lynch thinks he ought to have the first crack at Buff. The West Sider has been away to the country since the last time he fought, but he recently returned to town. He would have been Herman's opponent instead of Buff if he had been ready to fight for it. It would figure to be a more one-sided match than a Buff-Herman contest.

May Meet Wilds. In the meantime Buff is not worrying about the fight. He is defeated for the bantam title but he will retain his flyweight title with a Jimmy

Mrs. Rose M. Brown Gained 20 Pounds In Four Weeks Time

Declarés It's Simply Astonishing To See the Wonderful Benefits She Has Derived From Tanlac—Says Terrible Headaches Have Disappeared.

MRS. ROSE M. BROWN.

It sounds unreasonable, but I have actually gained 20 pounds in less than a month's time by taking Tanlac, and the wonderful benefit I have derived from the use of this medicine is simply astonishing," said Mrs. Rose M. Brown, 111 Third Street, Manchester, N. H.

"Why, I am so happy to be relieved of my troubles I can really never praise this medicine enough. Up to the time I began taking Tanlac, I suffered for something over two years with a very bad form of stomach trouble.

"My appetite was so poor I could scarcely eat a thing. My stomach would be so badly bloated with gas sometimes I was almost afraid to go to bed for fear I would actually smother. I felt tired and worn out most of the time and became terribly discouraged over my condition. I often had such violent headaches I was unable to be out of bed for two or three days at a stretch.

"Four bottles of Tanlac completely restored my health and anyone can see at a glance the wonderful change that has taken place in my condition. I have a splendid appetite now and the stomach trouble has entirely disappeared. I can eat just anything I want without ever feeling a sign of indigestion. The best of all, I am never bothered any more with headaches and this was the greatest relief of all. I want to tell everybody what this medicine has done for me." Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell and other Druggists. Adv.
