POLICE: HOME MINISTRY ANNOUNCES THAT PREFECTURAL POLICE MAY QUES-TION SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS

"The Home Ministry has notified all Prefectural Police Departments that under the New Constitution the police may question or subject to investigation any suspicious character.

"Since the inception of the New Constitution, arrests in cases of serious offences have fallen from 85% to 23%. This is attributed to the fact that law enforcement bodies are not accustomed to the new procedures and are not certain of the scope of their authority and jurisdiction.

"In several recent instances when policemen attempted to question suspicious characters, the latter protested, contending that the police had no authority to approach them."

In the mean while, the two men took off their caps and put them in their pockets, but I could know that they were policemen from the badges on the caps protruding out of the pockets.

"The woman whom I spoke to wrapped in a hurry a few herring in a piece of paper and held them out to one of the men, who accepted them in silence. His companion took a rubber bag out of his knapsack and handed it to the neighboring stall-keeper, who put a few kan (Ex: 1 kan = 8.267 lbs.) of small fish in it. Having put the filled bag in the knapsack,

POLICE: WRITER ASKS POLICE TO ARREST SHOPKEEPER HANDLING ILLEGAL GOODS AND CLAIMING POLICE PROTECTION

Writer states:

"ITOJU SHOTEN (Itoju Shop) on Endoji Street (Nagoya-shi) is surprisingly greater in scale of blackmarketing than those various stalls lined up in the backyard of Nagoya Station. In the show window of the above shop are displayed umbrellas and shovels the sale of which is strictly prohibited as they are collaterals. The shopkeeper surprised me by saying 'I can sell you as many as you want'and added 'there is no need of fearing the sale because I have connections with the Nishi Police Station'. I wonder if such a thing can be true. I really trust the police; therefore, unless you order the suspension of business on that shop or impose a fine of more than 200,000 yen on the shopkeeper within three days after you have received this letter, I shall have no more faith or trust in you."

POLICE: NAGASAKI-KEN TO INCREASE COASTAL PATROLS TO COMBAT SMUGGLING

The NAGASAKI PREFECTURAL OFFICE, Police Department has been receiving reports from district police stations that smugglers are becoming active again, operating from their bases at Tsushima (對馬) and Iki Islands (壹岐), Nagasaki-ken.

The Prefectural Police Department established the SUIJO HASHUTSUSHO (水上派出所 , The Water Police Branch Station) at Sasebo Police Station in March, and transferred the business management from KOANKA (公安課 , Public Safety Section) to HOANKA (保安課 , Peace Preservation Section) so that the public safety section might exert its utmost in guarding against smuggling. The police have stationed observers at Tsushima, Iki, and Goto Islands (Ex: all Nagasaki-ken) and are utilizing ten (10) patrol boats within the area of activities near Tsushima Island. Also patrol ships have been allotted to Nagasaki Water Police Station and other stations. At the present time the Prefectural Police Department has over twenty (20) ships on duty. The Police Depart

POLICE: PREFECTURAL CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS OF AICHI PROTESTS AGAINST ILLEGITIMATE INTERFERENCE OF POLICE IN LABOR DISPUTES

The writer forwards a decision adopted at the extraordinary convention of the AICHI-KEN SANGYOBETSU RODO KAIGI (The Prefectural Congress of Industrial Organizations of Aichi) held on March 25th, 1947 in Nagoya, Aichi Prefecture. It reads, in part, as follows:

"The production control is one of the most legitimate and genuine rights of the workers which we secured with hard labor to improve livelihood of masses is this trying time. But the Supreme Court disapproved such right saying that it was an illegal act. This shows that the policy of the present reactionary Government is meant to continue capitalistic domination. POLICE: JAPANESE SECRET SERVICE PERSONNEL DETAINED BY RUSSIANS

Writer states:

"The following is a brief summary in answer to your questions:

1. HIGUCHI was friendly with members of the KOKAN (公館, Civil Office) because he worked under Second Lieutenant OKADA of the KOKAN. Furthermore, he was very friendly with various army people. Even after he was interned, he was doing work similar to that of liaison. If you want to know more about the situation since escaped last year in March, get in touch with his family by KAZUYANAGI, KAZUYANAGI Naoichi. If he is the one, I do not think that he knows any more than the rumors going around.

two (32) persons and made a list. I gave a list to Miss KUWANA but lost mine so these are the names which I had noted down in my memo book:

Chief of TOKUMU KIKAN:
Major KANIE Hajime c/o KANIE Fuyuto, Kanie, Kanie-mura, Umibe-gun, Aichi-ken.

Assistant Chief of TOKUMU KIKAN:
Major ANTO Shogoi Mitsuyama, Yambe-mura, Yana-gun, Fukushima-ken.

Captain MORI Masahisa c/o MORI Nobuoki, 343, Imada, Yamada-mura, Aso-gun, Kumamoto-ken.

1st Lieutenant KOZUKI Katsuhiko 1288, Omachiguchi, Ota-machi, Anno-gun, Shimane-ken.

Captain HASHIMOTO Tomi 341, Itsukaichi-machi, Nishitama-gun, Tokyo-to.

Captain TANO Yoshinori 4071, Toshima, Oyama Toshima-mura, Hotaku-gun, Kumamoto-ken.

2nd Lieutenant NISHIDA Tadao 1780, Oita, Oita-shi, Oita-ken.

2nd Lieutenant OKADA Hideo c/o OKADA Juzo, Nishi 1-chome, 6-jo Iwamizawa-shi, Hokkaido.

FUKUMORI Eiji c/o MATSUZATO Tadome, Gosen, Shokotsu-mura, Monbetsu-gun, Hokkaido.

The families of KANIIE, MORI, MIYAGI, OKADA, FUKUMORI have already been informed and Miss KUWANA will get in touch with the others.

"4. The seven (7) families, including KANIIE, MIYAGI, TANO, MORI, KOZUKI, HASHIMOTO, and BABA, were still there, but they maybe repatriated soon or they may be home already. The treatment they received is the same as other Japanese civilians, and I feel that they are suffering under the Soviet rule. If you are going to submit a petition to SCAP, it would be a good idea to ask for priority in their repatriation.

However, we must be very careful not to irritate the Soviet authorities and get contrary results. I shall do my best to cooperate in this matter. If we are to start this important movement, it would, perhaps, be best to get in touch with the families concerned and ask the Foreign Ministry whether this would be possible or not.

POLICE: YOKOHAMA POLICE POLICY QUESTIONED

Writer states:

"In the cell of Isezaki Police Station in Yokohama, I found a man who had been detained for possessing only one (1) U.S. Army cigarette. But I saw most of the policemen smoking the Army's high class cigarettes when they examined me. I wanted to bring this fact to light. This shows the poor policy of the Government today. It can be said that most policemen are vicious black-marketeers."

POLICE: JAPANESE POLICE IN SENDAI A LONG WAY FROM DEMOCRATIZATION

"It is apparent that the police in Sendai still have a long way to go to democratization. The Minami Police Station was guilty, in a recent rubber theft and collective gambling case, of infringement of human rights. Koreans were the victims. The Headquarters of the Federation of Koreans lodged a protest with the prefectural authorities and demanded the dismissal of the police involved.

"Prefectural officials, including SHINKUNI, acting Governor and Chief of the People's Livelihood Department, and KOJO, Chief of Police Affairs, made an investigation and as a result relieved Motoichi SASAKI, Seishichi YAMAZAKI and Tsunematsu SATO of their posts."

POLICE: SCANDAL REVEALED IN TOKYO STATION

Writer states:

"To the Police Chief who has thieves under him: I am dumbfounded at the evil doings of your men, particularly, of the Criminal Affairs Department. You mean to keep thieves, don't you?

"The following will show you what I want to tell you: SUZUKI of the Criminal Affairs Department received dozens of cans of food donated by the Premier, on behalf of a son of a grindstone dealer in Tawara-machi, but he disappeared with them. You will be fired at once if newspapers reveal the fact. Oust him from your station, or I will inform the Chief of the Metropolitan Police Board of the ignominious deed. Besides, MARUYAMA and TOGASHI are among the worst.

"Chief of the Police Station.

POLICE: NEWSMEN OF NAGASAKI-KEN PROTEST SECRET MEETINGS OF POLICE CHIEF AND STAFF

News reporters attached to the NAGASAKI PREFECTURE POLICE DEPARTMENT, recently protested that IZEKI (伊関), Chief of Police, had violated the basic rules of democracy by holding all meetings in strict secrecy, these meetings were for purpose of instructing all department members about supervision of the coming elections. The newsmen said that this cast a shadow over an otherwise bright future in the coming elections.

POLICE: ELEMENTARY COURT OF JUSTICE AT RESPECTIVE POLICE STATIONS

"It was decided at the conference held on March 5 at the Takamatsu District Court, Kagawa Prefecture, to set up elementary law courts at every police station paralled with enforcement of the new constitution, to try simple cases hitherto handled by respective police stations.

"However, owing to the shortage of personnel and facilities, one court will be installed for every two or three stations. Judges will be selected from among civilians as well as specialists by the selection committee consisting of the chief of the law court, the governor and mayors of cities."

POLICE: OSAKA WATER POLICE REQUEST MORE EXAMINATION STATIONS

"Crimes on seas including penal offenses and economic crimes are increasing, cases occurring on the Kizu River, Aji River and Minato Water Police Station under the jurisdiction of Osaka Prefectural Police Department during 1947 numbering robbery, 5 cases; theft, 658 cases; fraud, 20 cases; embezzlement, 19 cases; threat, 4 cases; others, 35 cases in penal offenses, economic crimes, 191 cases; smuggling, 4 cases; and illegal trade, 47 cases.

"In order to control such violations, ship examination stations have been set up at the above mentioned 3 stations. Further, on the ground that commendable result cannot be attained with Osaka Prefecture alone perfecting the control system, it was decided to petition to the Home Ministry for nation-wide perfection of guard system and simultaneously for establishment of examination stations on Seto Inland Sea."
