TEMPORARY RESIDENCE OF H. I. H. THE CROWN PRINCE

History of the Temporary Residence of H.I.H. The Crown Prince.

The Temporary Residence of H.I.H. The Crown Prince is located in the grounds where the Educational Training Institute of the Ministry of Education was formerly situated. When The Crown Prince entered the middle school course of the Gakushuin, this site was selected for His Temporary Residence for the convenience of His study. The Imperial Household took on lease some 54 acres of this grounds in March, 1946. A part of the buildings of the Hayama Imperial Villa was disassembled and reconstructed on the site for His Temporary Residence.

The Crown Prince has lived in this Temporary Residence since 22nd May, 1946. Afterwards some parts of this Residence were enlarged.
