

NORTON CELEBRATES

OLD SOLDIERS AND OTHERS ASSIST MINISTER TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

That Dec. 2nd, instant, was the anniversary of the birth of our well-known citizen-soldier, Rev. C. R. Norton, was made the occasion for N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., to generously offer a helping hand in properly celebrating the event, which they did by calling at the Norton residence on East Third street in numbers 36 strong and by numerous methods to soldiers only known, proceeded to convince him of the high regard in which he was held, though it is not in evidence that proof of that regard had been lacking. At 2 p. m. the veterans began to arrive, and 'neath the folds of Old Glory lining the walk were graciously welcomed by the 69er and his good wife, whose kindly offices were as hearty and cordial as could be.

The occasion was notable for informality and the program was created as events called for it. Mrs. Byrket honored the occasion by her presence and by piano and voice, led in songs patriotic, sentimental and pious, in which the soldier boys joined in a manner suggestive of former ability in that line and some of it yet remaining.

The vocal numbers used were "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," "America," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Battle Cry of Freedom," "Tell Mother I'll Be There" (this in memory of his mother) and "God Be With You."

Comrade Sanford recited a very appropriate selection. Nor was the voice of prayer unheard, that of Dr. Morrison being eloquent in thankfulness and beseechings for blessings on the brother and family and on the little band of G. A. R. brothers whose ranks were so fast decimating.

The opening invocation was made by Rev. Comrade Cheney. The closing prayer and benediction was given by Rev. Comrade Le-Claire of Eagle Rock.

The goodly offices of women were made manifest in the making of the birthday cake, nearly as large as a table top, carefully carved into 69 sections (age of the brother), and each section ornamented by a miniature American flag. These flags found later a resting place on coat lapels of guests, pinned on by fairy fingers of assisting ladies. Meanwhile the cake had disappeared, washed down with nectar coffee. Doughnuts like our mothers made were served in abundance, made at the Norton residence.

At an opportune time Comrade Cheney broke in with a speech at the other end of which was an elegant revolving "swivel" chair, easily made to face any direction, and "recline" for a nap if desired. This was put in evidence with a bewildering array of good wishes and compliments that the recipient may have been tempted to think was intended for some other man, but you can see the chair at Norton's.

Army stories (facts) were related by many of the veterans, and the social enjoyment could hardly have been excelled by a "sewing society" after several potations of tea.

The aggregate ages of the 36 veterans present was 2599 years. The patriarch of the gathering was the venerable Father Knox, in his 96th year. Yet he gets around with a freedom excelling many younger ones. Though weighted by years, it would be hard to find a more optimistic company.

The following original stanzas were composed for the occasion and read by the author:

Companion, comrade, brother, friend,
These cherished terms in one uniting,
And in a mystic strong cord blend
And 'mid surroundings so inviting
We come, attesting friendship true;
From this conspiring federation
To spend a social hour with you
On this, your birthday celebration.

Comrade, what closer tie can bind,
Camp, march and battle, memories sharing,
A fellowship of rarest kind,
None other'er with it comparing?
Against our battle just begun,
Ye need not call for a defender;
And, since from us you cannot run,
You might as well at once surrender.

We come to you on this glad day
Of which you keep a careful counting
Of when it happened. We to say
(All early incidents surmounting)
We're glad it happened. Glad you're here
And with much joy felicitate you,

SENIOR VAUDEVILLE

CLASS OF 1915 IS TO PRESENT SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE ON FRIDAY EVENING

The senior class of the Glendale Union high school have set tomorrow evening, Dec. 4, aside as a gala night for the people of Glendale and vicinity. The Scovell school of dramatic art will furnish nine excellent numbers of society vaudeville. The high school orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson will complement the program with the usual fine music.

The program will include Miss Hildreth Kotsch, a very clever impersonator; a classic dance by Miss Carol Dempster; vocal solos by Miss Jean Davidson, and a sketch, "Two of a Kind," by Mr. Scovell and Pauline Williams. The numbers on the last half of the program will be: Toe dance by Charlotte McClain; solos by petite little Miss La Vale; reading, the Ducat scene from the "Merchant of Venice," by Mr. Scovell; mandolin and ukulele selections, Mary Guynn, who is considered one of the best musicians of her kind on the coast, and to complete the bill is MacDonald, the magician, who has a reputation of being quite skilled in the realm of sleight-of-hand.

The public is assured by those in charge that this program is of the highest type and the seniors and the school authorities have taken considerable time and work in procuring such excellent and expensive talent.

The seniors have been working hard to make this event a success, and if the advance sale of tickets is representative of the audience that will be present, they will be well rewarded for their work. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the performance will start at 8 o'clock sharp.

The proceeds of the entertainment will go into a fund to assist in the publication of their annual book, The Stylus, which will be issued during the last quarter of the school year.

GROWERS READY FOR FROST

Southern California citrus growers comprise a vast army that has been on the alert the past few days ready to counteract an attack of the enemy, Jack Frost, should he become too aggressive. Everything is in readiness and should A. E. Barnes, secretary of the Fruit Growers' Supply company, who is director-general of the forces, speak the word, a million orchard heaters would be lit within an hour.

More than $1,500,000 has been spent by the citrus producers to prepare for frosts this year, and the system perfected makes a repetition of the disaster of two years ago practically impossible. The forces are so well organized that should the siege last more than 48 hours, they could withstand the siege.

The old smudge pots have been done away with. A heater that burns oil and generates real heat has taken their place. These heaters cost $1 to $1.25, and one is required for every tree. Four gallons of oil are sufficient to warm one tree during a night of severe frost. Each grower has a storage tank capable of holding three extra burnings for each heater. The growers have now 16,000,000 gallons of oil, representing a cost of two cents per gallon, ready in their heaters and storage tanks.

And send you forward with a cheer
To coming birthdays that await you.

The "old man with the scythe" defy;
Yea, stand him off for final summing;
Though he will get you by and by,
We pray he may be long in coming.
Old soldier of the battle field,
There's much of fight left yet within you—

Strike for the right before you yield,
Before you vote to discontinue.

Soldier, from pulpit you appealed,
Proclaimed to all the gospel story;
And bravely on the battlefield
You risked your life to save "Old Glory."

Stalwart and strong, ye had no fear
In fighting days now left behind you.

How weak and helpless you appear,
Our prisoner, and we're here to bind you.

Not with the cruel chains of hate
On arms and limbs too tightly driven,
While tyrant sentence you await
And "dungeon" is the order given.
But culprit, prisoner, kneel in awe,
While tight we bind you with love's fetter,

And as we tight and tighter draw
We trust you'll like it all the better.

—SAMUEL PARKER.

READ AND DIGEST

PARKERETTS—POLITICAL, PERSONAL AND POINTED (PERHAPS)

"Any foot and mouth disease out in your section?" asked Jenks. "Lots of it—bad case," replied Sims. "Cattle or hogs?" asked Jenks again, when Sims replied: "Neither, or both, as you please, but it's on Old Bill Sykes, who is forever ready to dance and equally ready to make a speech."

The United States having obtained a strip ten miles wide through what was a malarial swamp, practically uninhabitable, constructed a canal, the marvel of the world, from ocean to ocean, and by scientific methods has driven disease-breeding conditions out of the zone, making it a health resort, was wise in placing the zone in control of Colonel Goethals, who has practically declared prohibition for his little kingdom.

A very praiseworthy purpose is announced of a national organization of men and women to "protect" young women and girls who may come to the canal fair. With more desire to see their names in print than to secure efficiency, officials of this society rush to the front with a flourish of trumpets disclosing the details of their line of work, thus giving it away to the class that will be on the watch to negative their efforts.

An inland country newspaper gleefully announces a very successful Fourth of July celebration for next year, two drawing features of the program being secured, contracts having been signed with a record baseball club and a genuine old-time horse race. Shades of the signers, arise and protest.

"When the d—l took sick, the d—l a saint would be"—and the prohibition wave, sweeping over the world, has made the wineries and breweries sick, very sick, and now they cry "let us alone and we will help you abolish the villainous saloon." We have heard this song many times before, but when it comes to voting in all stages of the temperance work, be it high license or local option, the wine-beer saloon vote is solid as a cannon ball.

Deer hunting is pretty dear business, especially to the hunters. The season closed Monday and the slain of the hunters in seventeen states and Ontario totaled 111 dead, 162 wounded. "Mistaken for a deer" is the usual finding. Just how many deer were killed is not stated. Until an alleged hunter could tell a deer from a human being with reasonable certainty he should not be permitted to shoot at all.

There are sixteen varieties of the maple tree in the United States, all valuable, but the most valuable of all is the sugar maple, which furnishes the maple sugar of commerce, while the wood is one of the most high-priced on the market in the making of fine furniture. It also is the finest of shade trees, but slow of growth. The other varieties are of soft texture, mainly of fast growth, and much in demand as shade trees on streets.

Scarce from the city you sally forth'er a billboard covers your eye, hiding whole sections of God's green earth and more of God's beautiful sky. Your vision is blocked as you'd like to gaze on mountains and lovely hills, while that lumber yard in big letters displays "Dr. Podunk's Cure-All Pills." If it came around in a natural way, most pleasantly would I write obituaries and try to say kind things of "Old Doc" when he passed away, if when as he went that self-same day he took those boards from our sight.

Secretary Bryan declared in a recent lecture that the saloon vote in Nebraska defeated woman suffrage, and that same vote defeated the same question in Ohio. A ballot in a woman's hand has an effect on the "protected business," much as does a red flag before an angry bovine of the male persuasion.

I dreamt a dream the other night when all around was still, and stars unusually bright illumined vale and hill; the moon arose in splendor, emitting light serene, and in the circle of my gaze no big billboard was seen. Hurra, hurra, the sight so pleased, I really had to scream; too bad the noise awakened me to find it all a dream.

To attack and destroy brutal journalism when mere sensational and colored "rumors" obtain is a worthy purpose, but the attack should end

PLAN BIG CELEBRATION

GLENDALE BAND AND ELKS PARADE TO ASSIST AT EAGLE ROCK CARNIVAL

Saturday afternoon and evening the city of Eagle Rock will hold a grand carnival in celebration of the installation of their new street lighting system, the new Carnegie library and the Woman's Twentieth Century clubhouse.

The festivities will commence in the afternoon with a big automobile parade through the neighboring cities and Los Angeles, which will be under the direction of Mr. O. J. Root of the Chamber of Commerce.

In the evening a concert will be given by the Glendale Band and numerous other features are being planned, such as a drill by the patrol of the Elks' lodge of Glendale, music by a quartet and jubilee singers. Mr. Cromwell Galpin, mayor of Eagle Rock, will speak on the installing of the new lighting system, while Mr. Godfrey Edwards will handle the subject of the new Carnegie library, and Mrs. C. W. Young is to speak for the Woman's Twentieth Century club.

A confetti battle is to be held and dancing will be indulged in in front of the bandstand.

Lunch will be served free and a general good time will be had.

Eagle Rock is one of the prettiest suburbs of Los Angeles and is ideally situated between Glendale and Pasadena, and this carnival is given to celebrate the advances that have been made in the last two or three years.

Everybody is cordially invited to come out on Saturday evening and a royal good time is promised everybody.

BE READY FOR WAR

The law-abiding citizen has no desire to fight, either as an individual or as a part of a nation. The war spirit, however, is in the hearts of many people, especially is this true in the instance of the rulers of European nations at the present time.

Prof. J. B. McClellan, former mayor of New York and now professor of economic history in Princeton university, in an address which he delivered Tuesday night, said:

"No matter who wins," said Prof. McClellan, "it is almost certain that at some not far distant date we shall be confronted with the alternative of either abandoning the Monroe doctrine or fighting to maintain it. We have made of it a great national principle, a question of national honor, so that if we abandon it we must concede that we are not strong enough to maintain it, that we are only a second-class power at the mercy of all the swaggering bullies of the earth. If we fight for it in our present unprepared condition, there can be but one outcome. A triumphant and victorious Germany would have little to fear from us, and while we might possibly in the end be able to check Japan by herself, we could scarcely hope to do so if she received help."

The cause of war, according to Prof. McClellan, is the spirit of nationality which has seized all of Europe, and the present war cannot be charged against any one man or group of men.

Prof. McClellan made a strong plea that Americans awake to their present condition of unpreparedness and that immediate steps be taken to build up a national defense.

there. Legal proceedings must be in the open, and star-chamber proceedings would speedily destroy the standing of our courts. Secret arrests and secret preliminary trials would carry with them suppressed grand jury indictments also. Better play in the open.

(Pa reading paper.) "Say, Pa, any new war news?" "Yes; the allies seem to have succeeded in taking a big lot of prisoners." "Say, Pa, didn't the Germans do any business at all?" "Yes, they took a big lot of prisoners, too." "Say, Pa, when the armies take each other prisoners and everybody else is killed will the war be over?" "School time, boy!"

PARLIAMENTARY CLASS

FINANCIAL SUCCESS

CHRISTMAS SHOP AND COUNTRY STORE AT TROPICO HAS BIG ATTENDANCE

Tropico, Cal., Dec. 3, 1914. Dear Sally: Polly and I certainly enjoyed yesterday and last evening, every minute of those twelve happy short hours! Polly and I attended the Christmas shop and country store given by the ladies of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club at K. of P. hall on San Fernando road.

We went early and as everything was so interesting and entertaining, we remained until about midnight, for the music was splendid and the dancing—well, Polly and I missed not a dance; but here I am, as usual, beginning my letter to you with the ending.

We arrived about noon and the aroma of Booth's better coffee greeted us upon entering the hall, and we learned that a cafeteria luncheon was being served. We first saw Mrs. Joseph H. Webster and Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock, who had charge of the cafeteria, and assisting them in various capacities were Mrs. W. H. Bullis, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, Mrs. A. J. Becker, Mrs. Thomas Gaither, Mrs. J. A. Stone, Mrs. C. H. Phillips, Mrs. L. C. Rice, Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, Mrs. Charles Findley and Mrs. J. Herbert Smith. You will notice, Sally, that among these ladies were a number of our most prominent club and society women—there they were serving coffee, pie, beans, sandwiches and everything else that appeals to the appetites of hungry people. We joined in the long line that was moving forward with trays and when we reached the dining-room, there we saw about twenty "movies" from one of the leading film companies of Hollywood. They were in Tropico doing some "stunts," for somehow, this Tropico scenery, the beautiful home places and other attractions appeal to these "movies," and many times do they come here to "stage" their scenarios.

Fortunately we had seats near them—they were all so jolly—and after we had settled with the cashier we started out to visit the various booths in the Christmas shop. We first met Mrs. Dwight Griswold, one of the past presidents of the club, who was dispensing home-made candies, and such a splendid assortment as Mrs. Griswold offered for sale! Near the candy booth was Miss Ida Meyers, who was chairman of the fancy articles. And, Sally, there was simply everything there that was pretty, dainty and so cheap that we had to leave a few good silver dollars in this booth and purchase a number of suitable Christmas gifts, for he, she, him, her and it. We next met up with Mrs. Frank B. McKenney, who displayed to our admiring gaze three handsome home-made comforters. It kept Mrs. McKenney and Mrs. L. C. Rice busy giving out chances on these comforters, for this cool weather turns one's attention to an extra coverlid at night.

Of course, Polly and I just happened to select numbers that were about sixteen from the winning ones. Well, we helped the cause, just the same, and aided someone more fortunate in getting something that was worth the price.

Over in one corner was smiling Mrs. Harry Bowman, with her grab-bag. Assisting Mrs. Bowman was genial Mrs. John Arthur Logan, and here again were we persuaded to permit a number of coins to pass over the counter—a sort of "pig in the poke," for everything was in that grab-bag.

Still laughing and jesting about the articles we drew forth from the grab-bag, we wandered into the country store, conducted by clever Mrs. David H. Imler, who has the happy faculty of coaxing every stray tent piece, to say nothing of the dollars, from her numerous customers. Sally, did you ever visit a country store? Not? Well, you just visit one and you will say it is the greatest money-maker that any bazaar can provide. There was everything there.

The north end of the K. of P. hall was turned over to Mrs. Imler and her assistants and it certainly resembled one of the stores at "Punkin Center," where you, Polly and I were wont to buy all of our chewing gum and stick candy. Yesterday there was one thing lacking in Mrs. Imler's country store that reminded me of our girlhood country stores, and that was that horrible odor of kerosene, potatoes, molasses, bacon, tobacco and onions, for everything yesterday was new, spick, span and as nice as could be, so nice, in fact, that Polly and I spent every cent we had in the country store, for you know every envelope contained a number and every number drew something. There was everything to draw, even mustard, and you know how it draws! Dan Campbell and John A. Logan

A GOOD WORK

BUT LET IT PROGRESS MORE RAPIDLY AND MORE GENERALLY

The cleaning of vacant lots is not going on at a very rapid rate at the present time. There are many lots in the city that remain covered with weeds and all sorts of rubbish. The city manager informs us that the response from property owners has been very encouraging. This we are pleased to hear, but for some reason the work does not progress with the interest that it should. The rainy season is here and soon the new grass and weeds will grow up through the dead weeds, and then the lot cleaning under the ordinance passed recently will likely go over until next season, when the new crop of vegetation becomes dry and fit to burn.

The lots that have already been cleaned have greatly added to the appearance of the vicinity of the city in which they are located, and the only requirement necessary now is that the good work go on more rapidly and more generally. A few of the vacant lots have only been partly cleaned; the weeds have been cut down, raked up and burned, while there remains tin cans, newspapers and other rubbish that gives the lots a very unsightly appearance.

The Glendale Evening News has been boosting the cleaning of vacant lots for almost two years, and now, since the cleaning is started, we would be pleased to see the work well done.

PLEASANT AFTERNOON

There was a most enjoyable meeting of the Richard Gridley chapter, D. A. R., on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. N. Rathbun, 1457 Sycamore avenue. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing for the All Night and Day nursery, which is connected with the Maternity hospital of Los Angeles, and many beautiful little garments were made and contributed. There was also quite a sum of money contributed for the nursery. Mrs. Rathbun is a charming hostess and the ladies had a beautiful afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Rathbun's mother from Chicago was there, which added to the pleasure of those present. The next meeting of the D. A. R. will be at the home of the regent, Mrs. Mary Howard Gridley Braly, 205 North Brand boulevard, in January.

YANKEE AFTERNOON

Wednesday afternoon the residence of Mrs. Clinton Booth on Lomita avenue was the scene of a charming afternoon tea, given under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon club. Everything was bright in the colors of the autumn and the American flag beckoned from the porch to those arriving to enjoy the "Yankee afternoon." At the door stood young Master Fred Holland in a costume of Miles Standish, acting as page. Beyond him a line of northern dames and a bevy of Puritan maids received the guests. At the end of this line each guest had pinned upon her shoulder a slip of paper bearing the name of one of the United States or a corresponding capital, and in this way partners were found and many new acquaintances formed.

The living-room was decorated in tall vases of poinsettias. In the dining-room, under the glow of low-hung lights, the table was set with coffee urns at each end and in the center a low cut vase of crimson carnations. Mrs. E. W. Kinney and Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy presided at the coffee urns.

The receiving line and the assistants in the dining-room were Mrs. Clinton Booth, Mrs. J. W. Usilton, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. H. P. Goodwin, Mrs. Carrie Waite, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Nat Green and Mrs. Chester Kling.

The first number on the program was a couple of quaint old love songs given by Miss Hazel Wheatley, who wore an old brocaded gown of bygone days. Following her, Mrs. Genevieve Goss, also in a costume of the old Yankee days, gave a reading. After this Mrs. Vera McKee Neighbors rendered two beautiful soprano solos and Mrs. Cecil C. Evans read a couple of spinning songs in Priscilla costume. Then Miss Dorothy Armstrong, accompanied by her sister, Miss Phoebe Armstrong, rendered two popular selections, "Souvenir" and "The Minuet." The program was concluded with a contralto solo by Mrs. A. Leighton.

Two weeks from yesterday another afternoon will be given at the home of Mrs. W. W. McElroy, 712 Adams street. This will be a Dutch afternoon.

ANNIVERSARY EDITION

A FEW OF THE KIND WORDS THAT HAVE BEEN SPOKEN BY THOSE WHO HAVE SEEN THE PAPER

Blake, Moffitt & Towne, wholesale Paper Dealers—One of the finest examples of a special newspaper edition we have ever seen. No similar publication has brought forth so much favorable comment in our office.

Aristo Engraving Company—A creditable publication in every way. Send us twenty-five copies, which we desire to send to publishers to show what we deem the proper handling of engravings.

California Ink Co.—We compliment you on the elaborateness of the edition. It is an excellent piece of work from beginning to end.

Whiteside Sentinel, Morrison, Ill.—A creditable piece of newspaper building and shows a great amount of energy and hard labor.

Glendale Press—A splendid exposition of typographic art and is of more than passing interest.

Tropico Sentinel—One of the finest numbers of its kind it has ever been our privilege to see.

Burbank Review—A fine illustration of the printer's art and makes a fine showing for Glendale.

Alhambra Advocate—A magnificent 68-page de luxe edition, which makes a splendid showing for the thriving, growing foothill city. It will prove a great drawing card for that section of Los Angeles county.

Catholic Tidings—A beautifully illustrated and finely printed number of 64 pages, wherein are exploited all the advantages and charms of the pretty foothill city.

Fulton, Ill. Journal—Has a charm that is hard to describe. Worth thousands of dollars to the business enterprises of Glendale.

San Fernando Press—By far the largest and finest number issued by a newspaper in the San Fernando valley.

Rockford, Ill. Register-Gazette—Attractive from every viewpoint; gives Glendale an expert and profitable publicity.

R. B. Warren, Empire Printing Co., Spokane, Wash.—There are not many places of ten thousand where a paper of that character could be issued. A capital piece of work.

Dr. H. J. Needham, New Albany, Ind.—The most beautifully gotten up paper of the kind we ever saw.

Mrs. H. L. Barron, McGregor, Iowa—Send me four additional copies, as I am so well pleased with it that I want my friends to enjoy it with me.

Monte Vista Sun—The most complete and attractive anniversary number ever issued by any paper outside of Los Angeles.

Hollywood Citizen—Without doubt equal, if not superior, to anything of the kind ever attempted in Southern California.

Artesia News—Beautifully printed and illustrated; a fine specimen of the art preservative.

Lankershim Laonic—Most artistic of "newspaper day" editions; a credit to any country editor, and has made some of the city papers envious.

Pasadena News—Makes a splendid showing of the beauties and advantages of Glendale and a credit to it and the publisher.

Downey Champion—The best special edition to come to our notice; one to be proud of.

Tucson, Arizona, Citizen—A credit to the paper and the city; gives an excellent conception of the progress being made by Glendale.

Eagle Rock Sentinel—One of the finest special editions we have ever received. If the citizens of Glendale fail to do their part in distributing the entire 6000, they will not be alive to their own interests.

Alfred Frost, Croeyden, Surrey, England—Am surprised that such a fine piece of work was done in a city no larger than Glendale; especially interested in the views.

PERSONALS

There is a meeting of the library board at the new library today, at which several important matters are to be discussed.

Miss Blanche Hardy of Santa Barbara was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, 300 East Colorado boulevard, on Tuesday.

Mr. Byron Hill of Los Angeles will be a dinner guest this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McPherson, 1516 Pioneer drive.

Mrs. L. C. Brand and sister, Miss Dean, left yesterday for an extended visit to New York. Mr. Brand accompanied them as far as San Francisco.

Mrs. R. W. Meeker of 300 East Colorado boulevard and her cousin, Miss Blanche Hardy of Santa Barbara, attended the matinee in Los Angeles Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker of 227 South Central avenue attended the dance and card party given by the Aloha chapter of the Sunshine society at the Goldberg assembly hall in Los Angeles Monday evening.

When turning the corner from Orange Grove on Glendale avenue Tuesday, the automobile driven by Mr. Jas. F. McBryde went down into a wash-out on the road with such force that both springs of the car were broken. No other damage was done, as Mr. McBryde was driving slowly.

John Smith, conductor on the Montrose car, who was shot by a bandit on the night of November 10 and had the bones of his forearm shattered, has had the large splints replaced with smaller ones, but is yet unable to move the fingers on the injured hand. It will be several weeks yet before Mr. Smith is able to return to his work.

Mrs. B. F. Cook of 1434 West Fifth street entertained on Monday with a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Margaret Grass, who is leaving for Santa Barbara shortly. Mrs. Cook's beautiful home was decorated with Cecil Brunner roses and the color scheme of the luncheon was pink. The following guests were present: Mrs. C. A. Mintner, Mrs. Ray Hagenbauch, Mrs. Wm. McFarland, all of Los Angeles; Mrs. Jos. Cave, Mrs. Robt. McMullen, Mrs. J. Earl McKeever, Mrs. Frank Beyea, Mrs. Howard Oswald and Mrs. Donald McDaniel of Glendale.

AUTO LICENSE RAISED

Auto owners in California are interested in the new system of the license costs for the various makes of cars by taking into consideration the horsepower. Licenses for many of the well-known makes of autos have been raised by this system. Some of the cars on which the motor vehicle department has given out figures are:

could not resist the temptation to be in on this fun of the country store, so they just donated about 700 neat little envelopes containing the advertisement of the National Bank of Tropic. Someone asked Mrs. Imler if the envelopes entitled him to a free bank account at Tropic's popular bank. I think that man drew a pumpkin instead of the bank. When we had spent our all, Jack and Fred came and then we started in again to draw those envelopes with those coveted numbers. Really, we just laid in our winter's supply of groceries. I wanted the handsome centerpiece that Mrs. Frank Stoddard of Los Angeles had embroidered and donated to Mrs. Imler for the store. No. 13 was the lucky number. Did you ever hear of 13 being lucky? Well, Charley Findley thinks it is, for he drew 13 and that captured the handsome $20 piece of needlework. Do not tell me 13 is not lucky!

Another hoo-doo number was 23, and that drew a large baby doll which Bullock's of Los Angeles donated. Miss Elsie Anderson drew the doll and was so generous that she permitted every little girl in the hall to carry her doll.

Sir Francis Booth donated twelve one-pound packages of his finest and best coffee. No. 11 drew a package and as there were twelve number 11's there were twelve persons who walked out of that store carrying a package of Booth's better coffee.

Ed Shipman of the basket factory had donated twelve baskets, all he had in stock, and these were sold to the customers to use in carrying home their goods. I think Jack bought four of them and then we had our arms full of groceries besides.

About 9 o'clock that store went out of business, for every article was sold. Who was there? Just every one. But no one happier or wearing brighter smiles than Mrs. Charles A. Barker, club president, and Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis, chairman of the ways and means committee of the club.

The next time this club gives a Christmas shop, a country store, a card party, a dance or even a thimble party, I want you to be sure to attend and just call for

PERSISTENCY

One step won't take you very far.
You've got to keep on walking;
One word won't tell folks what you are,
You've got to keep on talking;
One inch won't make you very tall,
You've got to keep on growing;
One little ad won't do it all,
You've got to keep 'em going.

NORTH GLENDALE

There will be a reception tendered Dr. Soper, pastor of the First M. E. church of Casa Verdugo, this evening at the church at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended the public to come and meet pastor and friends. All are welcome.

Mrs. G. E. Larkey of 1305 North Central avenue, supervising principal of the city garden work in the public schools of Los Angeles, announces the arrival of the first installment of the shrubbery and trees recently purchased and the department is very busy dividing and planting the same in the public parkings and school grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alberts of Randolph street were Los Angeles visitors last evening, enjoying the theater and a downtown dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Fryer of 1424 North Pacific avenue were entertained at the home of their son, Mr. Wallace Fryer and family of 121 Howard street, at a prettily appointed dinner the early part of the week.

The many friends of Mr. Everett Masters of 918 Fairview avenue will be very glad to know that he has fully recovered from the recent serious operation and is now able to attend to business.

Mrs. Lucius F. Drake of 1657 Ruth street spent yesterday in Los Angeles, where she was the guest of friends.

Miss Ruby F. Wright of 1649 Ruth street is spending the week in Sierra Madre, where she is the house guest of Miss Mary Bumgarner at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. Hammond of Palm avenue.

COUNTY LIBRARIAN'S CONFERENCE

County librarians and library workers interested in county free library development from all over this state, are to meet in Sacramento at the state library on Dec. 9th and continue in conference the rest of the week.

In this work of bringing book service to everybody, California is leading the whole United States. Other states have county free libraries in some counties, but in no state except California is there such close co-operation or such complete supplemental service as the California state library gives, which lends free to any county free library books, even paying transportation both ways. And no other state is making such a statewide effort as California is to have every county equipped with a free library for the use of all the people.

Although the county free library plan has been in operation in California only a few years, it is fast gaining ground. Twenty-six counties have already adopted it, and there is not a county in the state that has not set on foot some agitation for a county free library, as the people are recognizing it as a most practical and efficient and at the same time a most economical system.

FOREST NOTES

A great deal of the oak used on the Pacific coast comes from the eastern part of Asia.

To guard against tree repair fakers, or quack tree surgeons, the Massachusetts Forestry association will inspect the shade trees belonging to its members free of charge.

The Sihlwald, or city forest of Zurich, Switzerland, adds to the town's revenues $7.20 per acre a year, reducing the amount needed to be raised through taxation by more than $32,000.

In Northern Idaho and Montana, which had many fires during the past summer, 35 per cent of the fires on national forests were caused by railroads, 26 per cent by lightning, and 10 per cent by campers. The remainder were due to brush burning and other miscellaneous or unknown causes.

A mountain lion recently killed in the Grand Canyon game preserve, which adjoins the Tusayan national forest, measured ten feet from nose to tail. Mountain lions and other beasts of prey, such as wolves, coyotes and wild cats, are killed by forest officers and game wardens because they are a menace to stock and to game animals.

WHO IS THE DEACON?

A church deacon in Antelope valley today called on County Counsel Hill for a legal opinion concerning "rag" dancing.

"You see," declared the deacon, "we want to hold a rag social dance in order to pay off a church debt. Young people will contribute to a 'rag' dance when just an ordinary tame dance will not be patronized. Some of our members say that 'ragging' is illegal, while others say not. How about it, counsel?"

Hill held a private dance, whether a "ragging" party or the ordinary kind, was "legal," but that a "rag" dance of a public nature needed the sanction of a license.—Los Angeles Herald.

JUDGE AND PRISONER

At a luncheon given in his honor at a local club recently, Cyril Scott told the following, which came under his personal observation in his study of courtrooms:

An old offender, deemed incorrigible, was on trial for assault with intent to kill. While summing up, the judge, in an attempt to soften the effect of the sentence that he felt compelled to impose, said that he had no personal feeling against the prisoner; that he was really sorry for him and wished he could befriend him; that it actually hurt him very much to be obliged to tell the culprit that he must go to prison for a term of thirty years.

Asked if he had anything to say, the condemned man replied:

"I am glad to know that you have nothing against me, judge—that is very nice—but it seems to me that you are awfully careless with other people's time."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.
