OVERCOME AS HE ASSISTS IN SAVING PROPERTY

Carried Out of Burning Residence and Dies on Way to Hospital

Overcome by smoke while assisting in carrying out the furniture from a neighbor's burning home, J. Fletcher Tatlow, 311 West Oak street, died almost instantly this morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Attracted by the bells and sirens of the fire department answering a call from the residence of James Byrd 337 West Harvard street, Mr. Tatlow rushed to the scene of the fire and immediately proceeded to help other neighbors in saving as much of the personal effects of the family as possible.

Carried From Building
The furniture and clothing had been cleared from the burning building when the cry went out that a man had been injured. Captain R. E. Dodsworth of the fire department immediately carried Mr. Tatlow, who was found on the floor in the rear of the burning building, into the open air. He was rushed into a car belonging to Sidney F. Chambers and taken to the Glendale sanitarium and hospital. Life was extinct when hospital attendants removed him from the car. He had passed away while being carried to the machine or while on the stretcher.

Had Heart Trouble

One year ago Mr. Tatlow suffered an attack of heart trouble. He had apparently recovered, but his constitution was not strong enough to throw off the effects of the smoke, and his life was the price he paid for rushing to a neighbor's assistance.

Mr. Tatlow had been a resident of Glendale for seventeen years, coming here from Burlington, New Jersey, and had a large circle of friends. He was engaged in the painting and papering contracting business and had built up a lucrative trade. Although past the prime of life—he was 60 years of age at the time of his death—(Continued on page 7)

MAKE CHANGE IN CITY FIRE FORCE

Chief Lankford and State Marshal Stevens Agree on Appointments

Jay W. Stevens, state fire marshal and representative of the National Board of Underwriters, has left Glendale, but during his short stay here during the recent fire department episode he accomplished "a world of good," so Fire Chief A. H. Lankford states.

Group of Iowa Democratic Chiefs Deserting M'Adoo

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 13.—The first break in the McAdoo ranks in the United States following the oil exposure occurred here today with a decision reached by a group of Iowa Democratic leaders to boom E. T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, for president, it was learned by International News Service.

PLAN CREATION OF VERDUGO CITY

Harry M. Fowler Tells of Project; Gathering to Be Held Tonight

A city will be created tonight in the La Crescenta valley, to be known as Verdugo City, is the information received from Harry M. Fowler of that district, one of the moving factors in the plan.

A meeting will take place at 8 o'clock tonight, under a great tent at the southwest corner of Honolulu avenue and Los Angeles street, and those who attend will witness something unique in their lives—the birth of a city.

The basic organization to be created is an Association of Commerce, and a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and custodian will be elected at tonight's meeting, states Mr. Fowler. This organization will, in turn, create many suborganizations, which will govern and control every function of the new city.

The movement follows a petition signed by a majority of the property owners, it is stated, and contemplates the immediate acquisition of a postoffice, bank and other vital institutions of a city. The plans have been taken up with the Los Angeles county Board of Supervisors, states Mr. Fowler, and in his own words, "everything is set for the greatest community movement in the history of the valley."

BANQUET FOR GRIFFIS

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Lieutenant Corlies Hoover Griffis, whose effort to kidnap Grover Cleveland Bergdorf draft dodger, resulted in his imprisonment in Germany, will be the guest of honor at a dinner at the Auditorium hotel tonight, the concluding demonstration in his triumphal return to the city from which he enlisted as a buck private.

PROPOSES SENATE PROBE OF DAUGHERTY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—A senatorial investigation into the official conduct of Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty and operation of the department of justice, was proposed this afternoon by Senator Wheeler, Democrat, of Montana, author of the resolution demanding Daugherty's resignation. Wheeler's action was in response to Daugherty's demand for a "public trial" before a vote is taken by the senate on the "ouster" resolution.

MANY KILLED OR WOUNDED IN RHINE RIOTS

BERLIN, Feb. 13.—Battles and mob violence were reported from all parts of the Rhineland palatinate this afternoon. Following clashes between the separatists and police at Pirmasens, when nearly a score were killed, disorders broke out in other places, the separatists and anti-secessionists engaging each other in battle. Martial law has been proclaimed at Pirmasens. French troops are patrolling the city to prevent a recurrence of fighting. Scores were wounded in heavy street fighting at Kaiserlautern.

ROW CAUSES CLOSING OF TUT TOMB

Egyptian Government Not Acting Fairly, Charges Howard Carter

LUXOR, Feb. 13.—Work of restoring the thirty century old tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen in the Valley of Kings, was suddenly discontinued this afternoon. Howard Carter, Egyptologist, in charge of the work, said he would close the tomb immediately owing to "discourtesies and restrictions imposed by the Egyptian government."

Carter has long been at loggerheads with the Egyptian department of public works. It was said that the refusal of the Egyptian government to allow the wives of the excavators to enter the tomb precipitated the sudden suspension.

Amazed By Beauty
Before decision was taken to close the tomb a number of newspaper representatives were allowed to visit the mortuary shrine, where the opened sarcophagus rests. All were amazed by the beauty of the golden, gem-encrusted coffin. It looked like a huge golden idol.

A bizarre effect was given by the golden head dress and the golden beard of the bas-relief on the lid of the mummy case. The beard had been worked out by goldsmiths into thick rope-like strands.

Egyptologists believe that four inner coffins are symbolic of the four heavens. They are made of gold and silver. The only defect yet discerned consists of two cracks in the gold sheeting.

Workmen with much experience amongst the tombs of the ancient said there would probably be secret bolts which would release the corners, if they could be found.

Actors to Rehearse French Play Tonight

There will be a 7 o'clock rehearsal tonight in the Broadway high school auditorium of "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme," the Moliere play that will be presented Friday night, February 15, by the French department, under auspices of the local chapter of Le Cercle Francais.

Translated, the title of the play reads, "The Citizen Who Aspired to a Nobility." Miss Elbe Bailey of the French department at the Glendale Union High school is staging the play, which is in the nature of a comedy ballet, with a cast of forty-five students.

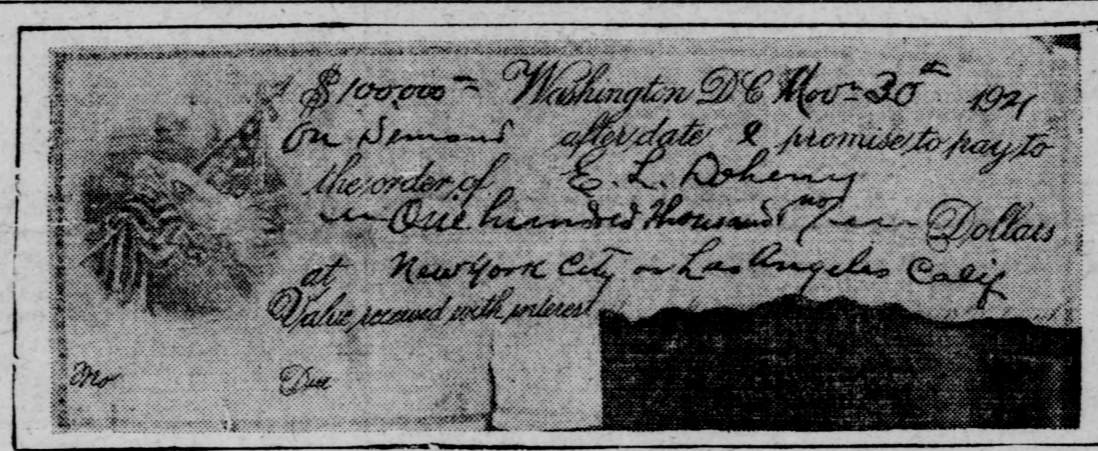

Miss Bailey states that 200 reservations have been made by the Los Angeles chapter of Le Cercle Francais, so that students of the metropolitan schools may see the famous play.

The Scrap of Paper In The Oil Scandal

The note (with the signature missing) which Edward L. Doheny, oil mogul, said he received when he loaned $100,000 to Albert Bacon Fall, secretary of the interior

It's just a scrap of paper, but it is one of the most famous scraps of paper in United States history. When Edward L. Doheny, oil operator, produced it and told the senate committee it was his receipt for $100,000 he loaned to Albert Bacon Fall, the signature was found to be missing, Doheny says his wife kept the other part of the note.

COAST-WIDE HUNT FOR MISSING BOY

Relatives in Glendale Aid in Search for Youth 'Lost' En Route Here

Great anxiety is manifested in two Glendale families over the disappearance from his home of Jim Money, 14-year-old Seattle boy, who has been missing for over a month. Mrs. Olivia A. Stowe, 1023 Virginia Place, aunt, and Mrs. Lee Watkins, 378 West Myrtle street, cousin of the boy, are cooperating with the Los Angeles police in a search being conducted for him in Southern California.

He left his home in company with another boy, who turned back January 21, at Sacramento leaving Jim alone. That is headed for Los Angeles. That is the last that has been heard from him, and so anxious is his family that his father, C. E. Money, is expected in Los Angeles in a few days to assist in the hunt.

No reason can be assigned for his disappearance, state his relatives here, unless it is a case of youthful wanderlust. He stood well in his studies at school and had a good home. His mother is almost prostrated by the affair.

He is described as being 5 feet 4 inches in height, has blue eyes and brown hair, and is of slender build. When last seen he was wearing a brown suit, grey cap, and a red plaid mackinaw.

Mrs. Watkins requests that if any one has any knowledge of the whereabouts of the boy, they communicate with her by phone, Glendale 2960-J.

LABOR CABINET'S FOES OPEN FIRE

Opposition Launches Attack On MacDonald Policies In Parliament

LONDON, Feb. 13.—First attack of the opposition against Premier MacDonald's Labor government opened in the House of Commons today. The ministry of health was hissed for permitting the local government of Poplar—a metropolitan borough of London—to extend relief to unemployed persons in excess of the amount allotted to other districts. It was claimed that this section would increase taxes.

There have been unemployment riots at Poplar, which is generally regarded as the seat of red extremism in England.

Former Premier Stanley Baldwin was expected to take a leading part in the attack upon the Labor government.

The Liberal organ Daily Chronicle (also the personal organ of former Premier David Lloyd George) declared that the Liberal members of commons would not support the Tory opposition in commons. Baldwin is leading the opposition.

Await Reparations Report
Foreign office officials have amplified the premier's reference to a world conference in his speech of Tuesday. They said MacDonald would not make any decisive move towards convocation of an international conference until the reparations experts make their report upon Germany. They added the premier believes the nature of the report will make it imperative to appeal for a reconstruction conference.

ALEX MITCHELL IS NOT CANDIDATE

Declines to Run for Board of Glendale Union High School

Alex Mitchell, 2001 Kenneth road, prominent pioneer citizen and president of the Foothill Improvement association, is NOT a candidate for member of the Board of Trustees of the Glendale Union High school district, although friends have urged him to become a candidate and, it is generally agreed, he would make an excellent school trustee.

When Mr. Mitchell was approached relative to permitting his name to be used in connection with the school board election he stated that he would like to give the matter consideration and discuss it with his family. However, publication was given to the matter and the impression prevailed that Mr. Mitchell had formally announced his candidacy.

After giving the matter due consideration and after discussing it with members of his family, Mr. Mitchell today authorized The Glendale Evening News to state that he is not a candidate and has no intention of becoming one at this time.

Expresses Thanks
"Of course," said Mr. Mitchell, "I deeply appreciate being proposed for the position by some of my friends. I would consider it an honor to serve the Glendale Union High school district. However, after due deliberation and conference with my family, I have reached the decision that I will not become a candidate. I desire to thank my friends who have offered me their support and to assure them that I appreciate their interest in me."

With the announcement by Mr. Mitchell that he is not a candidate, it leaves George Bentley and Dr. H. V. Brown as the two candidates for the two vacancies about to occur. Mr. Bentley and Mr. Brown have made formal announcement of their candidacies in The Glendale Evening News.

CALLS ON SECRETARY OF STATE TO PRODUCE ALL DATA ON CONCESSIONS

Passage of Resolution Means New Probe Into Activities of Speculators; Hot Fight Over Silas Strawn's Appointment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Senate this afternoon practically launched a world-wide investigation into the activities of American oil speculators by passing a resolution calling upon the secretary of state to produce all diplomatic correspondence relating to American oil concessions in foreign lands. Passage of the resolution forecasted a brand new oil investigation as soon as the secretary of state complies with the request.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—In the face of stern opposition that has developed in the Senate to the selection of Silas H. Strawn of Chicago, as one of the special counsel appointed by the president to prosecute the naval oil leasing cases, it was strongly indicated at the White House today that Strawn may retire and that James R. Garfield, secretary of the interior in the Roosevelt administration, may be appointed in his stead.

President Coolidge had a conference of two hours with Strawn this morning and later called in Dr. Garfield, who is a conservative and is understood to have none of the "big business" connections which led to the opposition to Strawn.

'Bad Faith, Fraud and Secret Dealing' Alleged
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Charging "bad faith, fraud and secret dealing" in connection with the leasing of Teapot Dome to Harry Sinclair by ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, Leo Stack, wealthy Denver oil man and politician, took the stand in the senate's oil investigation today and submitted to a grueling cross-examination regarding his allegations.

The ramifications of Stack's charges included the Standard Oil company of Indiana and subsidiaries, which claimed rights in the naval reserve and which were paid $1,000,000 by Sinclair to quit claims, he said.

Aside from the million dollars, Stack alleged that the real consideration the Standard company obtained from Sinclair was a half-interest in the pipe line from the Wyoming fields, required to be constructed by the oil magnate in the lease contract negotiated with Fall.

Under questioning by Senator Lenroot, Republican, of Wisconsin, Stack said he applied for lease to Teapot dome, acting for the Midwest Refining company, on May 30, 1917.

Offer Refused, Claim
He declared he offered to drill wells on the reserve and give the navy all fuel oil, his company only reserving the water rights and gasoline.

This offer was flatly refused by the navy, Stack said.

After Congress passed the navy leasing, on June 4, 1920, Stack said he approached E. L. Doheny about going in with him for a lease to the dome.

"I came to Washington and went to my friend, George Creel, and asked him to introduce me to Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

"I didn't know Daniels myself, and I only wanted Creel to introduce us.

"It was common knowledge that the reserve was being drained by wells in adjacent fields, and it seemed to me that it would be wise for the navy to lease part of the reserve to save its oil."

Why He Saw Doheny
Stack said he went to Doheny because "I thought he was an independent, and I believed that the American people would like an independent oil man to handle the oil in the reserves."

Meets Opposition

SILAS H. STRAWN of Chicago, named by President Coolidge as special counsel in the oil lease probe, may retire as the result of opposition which has developed in the Senate to his appointment.

OUTLINES STAND ON OIL SCANDAL

Coolidge's Declaration Wins Nation's Approval In New York Speech

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—President Coolidge returned to the White House today, highly pleased with the results of his New York trip—his initial venture into the field of political speech-making away from the capital.

Especially gratifying to the president and his political advisers was the reception of the announcement of the administration's position in the Teapot Dome scandal. No part of his speech was more applauded than when he said:

"It is my duty to extend to every individual the constitutional right to the presumption of innocence until proven guilty. I want no hue and cry, no mingling of innocent and guilty in unthinking condemnation, no confusion of mere questions of law with questions of fraud and corruption. There will be immediate, adequate, unshrinking prosecution, criminal and civil, to punish the guilty and protect the national interest."

Denby Must Go
The president takes the position that while Secretary Denby may have exceeded his authority under the law in transferring the naval oil lands to the interior department, there has been no evidence of anything corrupt in that departmental transaction.

While pressure for Secretary Denby's immediate resignation has been considerably lessened in the face of the president's firm stand, it is nevertheless believed by administration leaders that it is only a question of time before the naval secretary will be compelled to retire—not because of wrong-doing.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Hosts at Musicale
Prof. Glen W. Hallik, talented violinist from Chicago, Ill., was honored Monday night at a delightful musical given by his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Sherman at their home, 1217 East Lexington drive.

The Shermans issued invitations to a group of their Glendale, Eagle Rock and Los Angeles friends, lovers of music, and hosts and guests enjoyed an evening filled with much interest.

Of course, Prof. Hallik's group of violin numbers on the program was the feature of the evening. Accompanied by Mr. Weinbaum, Russian pianist from Pasadena, Prof. Hallik played "Souvenir de Moscow" (Weinlawski), "Ave Maria" (Schubert), "Wielingel", "Caprice Viennois" (Kreisler), "Round of the Goblines" (Bazzini) and "Liebesfreud" (Kreisler).

Other numbers on the program were a group of Russian melodies by Mr. Weinbaum; vocal numbers by Mrs. Lina Wenzell, "Life" (Curran), "Some Time" and "My Heart is Free"; readings by Mrs. Evelyn G. Pierce; piano numbers by Mrs. W. F. Carroll, "A La Bien Amble" (Schutt) and "Waltzing Doll" (Poldini); vocal numbers by Miss Anna Latimer, contralto from Los Angeles; and a clever Italian costume number, a duet, "Rosa Maria," by Mrs. Libbie Cutting and Mrs. Maude A. Smith.

During the evening a clever guessing contest was held, and for guessing nearest the number of corn kernels in a glass jar Miss Latimer won first prize and Mrs. Snyder second.

The Sherman home was prettily decorated with bouquets of pink sweetpeas. Late in the evening a delicious buffet supper was served.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wenzell, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Leland, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce, Mrs. Maude A. Smith, Mrs. W. F. Carroll, Mrs. A. L. Carroll, Mr. Weinbaum, Prof. Hallik, Mrs. Snyder, Mr. Latimer, Miss Anna Latimer, Mrs. Libbie Cutting, Mrs. M. W. Gear, and Mrs. James Evans and the hosts.

Lincoln Is Honored at School Assembly

Abraham Lincoln, the great emancipator, was honored at the Glendale Avenue school by a patriotic assembly held yesterday morning commemorating his birthday anniversary. Pupils who are members of the Boy Scouts were in uniform. Principal Norman Whytock presided as chairman.

Lincoln's speech at Gettysburg, was recited in chorus by the A-8-4 class, preceded by explanatory remarks by Betty Anderson and Paul King. Paul King gave a reading "O. Captain, My Captain" with explanatory remarks by Portia Little.

Music numbers included a vocal trio, "Song of Liberty," by Misses Mildred Hughey, Alice Lookabaugh and Gladys Sharpe, of the faculty, with accompaniment by Miss Lorene Fritch; soprano solo, "America For Me," by Miss Mildred Hughey; chorus singing of patriotic songs by the entire school led by Miss Mildred Hughey. The program closed with the flag salute by Mrs. Mason as color bearer and Olin Stoddard, Charles Wenstrom, John Diederich and James Ferry, color guards, and singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the school.

The program given Monday afternoon at the Atwater Parent-Teacher association included a tribute to the memory of Lincoln, an inspiring address by Professor Stephen Myrick, head of the history department of the Hollywood High school, and a musical program by the pupils of the school, under the direction of Miss Clinton, school music teacher.

Mrs. E. V. Bacon, president of the association, presided over the business session, when there were discussed plans for the coming May festival and bazaar. Miss Rosalind Gates, principal of the school and program chairman, arranged the program of the afternoon.

The program given was as follows: Salute to the flag and singing of America, led by Miss Clinton; "Valse Doris," orchestra; songs by A-4 and B-5 grades; "Loch Lomond," "Comin' Through the Rye" and "Lullaby"; reading by Lincoln's Gettysburg address; by Kenneth Hoffman; "The Personal Appearance of Lincoln," Nora Andrews; "Santa Lucia," song, by the B-8 and A-8 grades, address by Professor Myrick.

Central P.-T. A.
A patriotic program will be the special feature of the meeting of the Central Avenue Parent-Teacher association which will be held tomorrow afternoon, Thursday, 2 o'clock, at the club house. The program will consist of various numbers given by the pupils of the school under the direction of the teachers.

The regular business session will be in charge of the president, Mrs. R. L. Young. At this time plans for the card party to be given at the home of Mrs. George Hunter, 1149 Beldore avenue, in the very near future, will be completed. The date for this affair will be decided upon at this time.

Preceding the regular business session, the executive board members will hold a short meeting at 2 o'clock. It is announced. Several matters of vital importance are to be discussed at this time and all board members are urged to be present.

Old Times Party
Recalling the success of the old times party given last year members of the Glendale Business and Professional Women's club are planning another like event, to be given Tuesday night, February 26. The date was announced last night at the club meeting in the hall of the Glendale Commercial school on South Brand boulevard. Full details of the coming social affair will be announced at an early date by Dr. Jessie A. Russell, club president.

An informal program was enjoyed at the meeting last night.

At Kinney Home
Mrs. E. W. Kinney of 123 West Elk avenue is to hostess Friday night, February 15, at the meeting of the Artists' section of the Glendale Music club.

Mrs. J. J. Carter, solo on South Brand boulevard. Full details of the coming social affair will be announced at an early date by Dr. Jessie A. Russell, club president.

Meet On Friday
Members of the Rebekah Afternoon club will hold their regular meeting on Friday morning, February 15, at the L. O. O. F. hall.

During the afternoon session, which will convene at 2 o'clock, all past noble grands of the Rebekah lodge are urged to be present. At this time a past noble grand club will be organized.

All those desiring of securing tickets for the Martha Washburn dinner to be given Tuesday, February 19, at 6:30 o'clock, may secure them from Mrs. C. W. Schwitters, Glendale 1564-M. All reservations must be made by Saturday, February 16, it is announced. The proceeds of the affair will be applied to the fund for the purchasing of material for garments for the Gilroy orphanage.

Children's Party
A Valentine party for the members of the beginners and primary department of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church will be given tomorrow afternoon, Thursday, February 14, at the church from 3 to 5 o'clock. The affair is being given by the superintendent of the department, Mrs. George Moore and the teachers of both departments.

Leap Year Dance
Leap Year was celebrated last night at a gay ball given by the members of Maids and Young Matrons' department of the Tuesday Afternoon club in the ballroom of the clubhouse. Without a doubt it was one of the most brilliant semi-formal affairs ever given by this department.

The hall had been attractively decorated for the occasion in Valentine colors of red and white, carried out in a lattice work effect with ropes of asparagus fern fastened to the chandeliers and a shower of red hearts gracefully hanging from the ropes of fern.

The music for the dancing was furnished by Art Hickman's orchestra of the Biltmore hotel. During the evening six favor dances were given, when artistic and cunning favors were distributed to the dancers.

During intermission, Eleanor Marek, pupil of Pearl Keller, gave a clever costume dance making her entrance through the center of a large Valentine.

In Legion Hall
The meeting of the Mary Jane Gillette tent, No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, held last night in the American Legion hall, was very well attended.

During the short business session which was presided over by the president, Audrey Billingsley, an interesting talk was given by Mrs. Gilbert, past president of the Daughters of Veterans of Elmira, N. Y., on "Our Heritage."

Dinner Dance
On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Allan Longyear, of Glendale, gave a dinner dance for twelve guests at the Jack O' Lantern Inn, Michigan avenue, Los Angeles. The Hawaiian Trio of Glendale entertained the evening with catchy dance numbers and songs.

Lunch at Church
The aid society of the Tropic Presbyterian church will hold an all-day session in the social hall of the church, corner of Laurel and Central avenue, on Thursday. Luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. S. E. Brown and Mrs. McNaughton Barnes will be the hostesses.

Valentine Party
Miss Marcella Webb is entertaining her dancing pupils Friday night at a Valentine party at her new studio, 1229 East Colorado street. Many entertaining features are being planned for the pleasure of her guests, who will number over sixty.

Tea Hostess
St. Mark's guild will sponsor a Valentine tea from 2:30 till 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Guild hall. It will be the first of a series of teas to be given by the church women.

Mrs. Frank England and Mrs. Philip K. Kemp have arranged this first event and Mrs. Blanch ard Ralph will give a group of songs and Mrs. Robert Crossland piano numbers.

Informal Affair
Mrs. Harry E. Nelson of 621 Fairmont street was hostess last night to the members of the Misspah class of the First Baptist church at an informal social affair.

The Nelson home was attractively decorated with festoons of red hearts and red crepe paper fastened to the chandeliers and extending to the corners of the rooms. Arrangements of red carnations were used in the living room and red sweetpeas were used in the dining room.

Valentine games and contests were the diversion of the evening. Late in the evening, refreshments were served the 36 members present.

Mrs. G. H. Rowe and Mrs. Wayland Wood were the committee in charge of all arrangements.

G. O. P. GATHERING HONORS LINCOLN

Coolidge Supporters Rally at Banquet; Delegates Are Introduced

A group of Glendale Republicans participated yesterday afternoon and night in gatherings of over 300 Southern California Republicans in Los Angeles to observe the 151st anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. The affair in the afternoon was held at the Angelus hotel and was in the nature of an informal reception to afford Southern California Republicans an opportunity to become acquainted with Mr. Evans and Mr. Rowland. Galen H. Welch, chairman of the Republican Ninth Congressional District committee, presided. Features of the gathering were a tribute to Lincoln's memory; a telegram of greeting from Congressman Walter Lineberger, and inspiring addresses by Mr. Evans, Mr. Rowland and Mrs. D. E. F. Easton, northern vice-president of the California Coolidge club.

Assemble at Banquet
At night the Republicans, 300 strong, gathered at the City club for a banquet. Following the reading of a personal message from President Coolidge there was a tribute to Abraham Lincoln by former United States Senator Cornelius Cole, now more than 101 years old, who was in Congress as a member from California, when Lincoln was president; address by former Lieut.-Gov. A. J. Wallace; Coolidge's tribute to Lincoln, read by Frank F. Merriam, speaker of the California assembly, and inspiring addresses by W. E. Evans, A. L. Rowland, Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, C. C. Chapman, Galen H. Welch, Mrs. D. E. F. Easton and others.

Glendaleans attending were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. Harry Greenwald, Mrs. J. G. Huntley, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., R. L. McCourt and A. R. Kilgore.

ROYAL PRESENTS STRIKING COMEDY

"The Girl in the Limousine" Shows Talented Stock Company at Best

"The Girl in the Limousine," latest offering of the Royal Stock company, will open tonight at the Tuesday afternoon club theatre, on the corner of North Central avenue and Lexington drive, the curtain rising promptly at 8:20 o'clock.

This is one of the most exciting comedy dramas ever brought to the stage, and was a hit of hits when played in New York, running for months to packed houses, states Manager Charles M. Royal. Edythe Elliott, as "The Girl in the Limousine," will be seen in her most attractive role, and Rodney Hitchcock also has an unusually fine part. The balance of the cast has been carefully selected from the personnel of the Royal Stock company, and a performance on a par with the highest metropolitan standards is assured.

Those who have watched the sincere acting of Miss Elliott in the various roles she has played in the current season are acclaiming her one of the most talented actresses on the west coast, and predict big things for her.

The Royal Stock company comes to Glendale direct from a six years' run in Vancouver, B. C., and has earned the reputation of presenting the very best stock in the very best way. It can hold its own with any of the leading companies of southern California, and Glendaleans have no need to go outside of this city for high-class dramatic entertainment.

The consensus of critical opinion from judges of the spoken drama who have witnessed the excellent work of Charles E. Royal and his players.

"The Girl in the Limousine" will run tonight, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, at the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre, starting at 8:20 o'clock, with a 2:30 o'clock Saturday matinee.

Glendale News Wins Praise From Florida

Glendale and The Glendale Evening News are known and admired in far off Tampa, Fla., the supposed rival of Southern California for tourist trade.

From that semi-tropical city comes the following letter to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, from T. J. O'Brien:

"I received The Glendale Evening News sent me at 315 Bank St., Norfolk, Va. It was forwarded to me here in Tampa, where I now am. I enjoyed it very much and gave it to others to read.

"I think it is one of the best papers published for a town the size of Glendale and I am sure you are doing good work in advertising your beautiful city.

"Again, I thank you.
"Very truly yours,

BOY SCOUTS WILL HOLD RECEPTION

Relatives of Troop Members Will Be Dinner Guests at High Jinks

A large crowd is expected at the Hi-Jinks of Troop 2, Boy Scouts of America, at the First Congregational church next Friday, when the annual reception will be given by the boys of the troop for their fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters.

The evening will be opened with a banquet at 6:30 o'clock, it is announced. Mrs. H. W. Yarrick, who is in charge of the arrangements for this part of the program, asks that baskets of food be left at the church after 1 o'clock on Friday.

Those active in scouting who will attend with their wives are C. L. Chandler, chairman of troop committee and former Scout commissioner; Colonel C. L. Wyman, troop committeeman and present Scout commissioner; Benjamin Robison and Walter Packard of the troop committee; Kenneth Payne, Scoutmaster; Ralph Haight, Henry Pressing and Reynolds Packard, assistant Scoutmasters; Roy Kent, president of local council; H. R. Chessman, Scout executive; H. Benjamin Robison, deputy Scout commissioner; Rev. C. M. Calderwood of the First Congregational church.

The evening's program will include a typical Scout meeting, with Robert Eastman, senior patrol leader, presiding, and several stunts will be given by each patrol. Songs will be led by the well-known Scottish bard, J. Francis Henry, troop committeeman.

At the meeting of the Scouts of Troop 2 last week, an interesting tour of inspection through the local building of the telephone company was enjoyed. The Scouts were shown the entire operation of the telephone system at the Central office by Mr. Titchener, local wire chief, and M. Roberts, formerly an Eagle Scout of Troop 2. The trip through the telephone building followed a half hour of demonstrations of first aid before the telephone men's class in first aid.

VIRGIN BIRTH IS SERMON SUBJECT

Evangelist Quotes Gospels to Prove the Divinity of World's Redeemer

The large auditorium of the First Methodist church was filled nearly to its full capacity last night by those eager to hear Rev. J. McD. Kerr's version of "The Virgin Birth of Christ."

"This character," said the speaker, "of whom I shall speak this evening lived twenty centuries ago. He came of the most despised race of all the earth. He lived an exclusive, retiring life. When he came to manhood and announced his mission he was rejected by his own race. At the last he was persecuted by his own people. Betrayed by one of his own and put to death, an iniquitous death, dying on the cross between two malefactors, and yet in spite of his humble birth, his uneventful youth, his shameful death, his name, after twenty centuries have rolled by, is the name most honored all over the world."

"Jesus was of the lineage and house of David, through Mary, his mother. This was prophesied centuries before. If Jesus was not the divine Son of God, then all these prophecies that glow on the pages of the Old Testament are false. Even away back in Genesis we read that 'the seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head.' Back in Isaiah we read, 'Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son and shall call his name Immanuel,' and this prophecy was fulfilled in Christ. Now I shall bring before you the testimony of two witnesses who wrote under inspiration."

Quotes from Gospels
"In the first chapter of Matthew's gospel he gives the plain, straightforward account of Christ's birth, starting with these words, 'Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise,' and tells of the miraculous conception and birth. The second witness was Luke, the beloved physician, whose account is similar to Matthew's, that Jesus was 'very man, very God, incarnate in the flesh.' God taking on the form of man. His name of Jesus was given by the angel Gabriel, as he announced to Mary her part in the wonderful plan."

"Upon the word of God we rest our faith, that Jesus is the Son of the Most High. When the heavens shall roll away, the word shall remain firm and steadfast."

COMMENT That's All

One Lesson From Lincoln King Tut's Coffin Open Demand for Real Estate L. A. County War Memorial By Gil A. Cowan

One lesson in Abraham Lincoln's life, which usually is overlooked in eulogies printed on the birthdays of the Great Emancipator, is that victory comes after defeat. The other evening we were dining at the number of times Honest Abe aspired to office, only to lose. But when his great opportunity did come, he was lifted to the presidency almost overnight. Then, in his hour of victory, he gave his life, and today his memory is immortal.

The lid of King Tut's coffin has been lifted. Dispatches from Luxor, Egypt, tell of the event, and International News Service says: "It is interesting to note that the ancients' belief that their purgatory would extend for a period of about 3000 years, and that their tombs would then be opened to allow their rejuvenated and cleansed bodies and spirits to depart for happier regions, does receive some curious, shadowy confirmation from the fact that it is approximately 3000 years since the death of the majority of the pharaohs whose tombs have been opened during the last hundred years in the Theban Necropolis."

Spring weather, such as Glendale is enjoying, should be conducive to building. The Glendale Evening News building is being remodeled at a cost of $35,000. We mention it to show that even newspapers believe in practicing what is preached.

But particularly do we commend the home builders, especially those people with the vision to inaugurate a fourteen-story apartment building here. Such enterprise as that will make Glendale greater. Business and prosperity depend on a comfortably-house populace.

Real estate should be active. People should buy now for future development, as prices here likely will never be lower. Owners of close-in property should improve the ground rather than sell to speculators. And real estate men should advertise all listings which are priced right. There is a big demand for vacant property suitable for improvement. Let the slogan of Glendale be "bigger and better."

Cold water is being thrown on the project to build a $1,000,000 war memorial building in downtown Los Angeles. The county board of supervisors have been led to believe that the American Legion desires such a monument.

Or, perhaps, the American Legion is being led to believe that the county board of supervisors is doing something for the former service men. Maybe so, but why wasn't it done three or four years ago, instead of being brought to a head the year of an election?

The writer noted that in a speech before the local Legionnaires Supervisor Henry W. Wright stressed what was being done in the way of this particular memorial. There are some who declare such a building will not be available to twenty-seven out of thirty posts of the Legion in the county.

From all appearances, the proposition is not born of patriotism, although it may be. It may do little harm other than to create a false impression that the supervisors have done something for the World War veterans. It will cost a million dollars, give two or three downtown posts a home, while Glendale, Hollywood and twenty-five other posts will have to buy their own.

Incidentally, Contra Costa county solved the problem by allotting each post part of a bond issue with which to build homes. Perhaps Mr. Wright would find more veterans' votes in South Pasadena, Alhambra, Glendale, Burbank, Tujunga and other communities of the Fourth district if he should advocate something which does not savor of "politics."

Wilson School Holds Lincoln Celebration

The birthday of Abraham Lincoln was celebrated at Wilson Intermediate school Tuesday afternoon by an assembly in honor of the martyred president, the program being in charge of Mr. Charles E. Merrill, Messrs. Bennett, Hansen and Dunn.

The assembly opened with a salute to the flag, which was followed by "Yankee Doodle," sung by the Boys' Glee club. E. H. Sanders sang "Annie Laurie" and six Boy Scouts told of some of Lincoln's famous sayings. John Torrey, another Boy Scout, recited "Oh Captain, My Captain," by Walt Whitman, following which the school sang the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Five Boy Scouts told of the names given Lincoln, and the final number was a talk on "The Life and Death of Lincoln," by Bennett.

This is the first assembly of the year where the entire program was furnished by the boys of the school. The Boy Scouts who served on this occasion were: John Torrey, Frank Hallett, Richard Torrey, Bill Rhodes, George Grey, Carter Booth, Charles Temple, Henry Tubbs, Charles Kaussen, Ross Kenney and Billy Seibert.

FATHERS GUESTS AT SCOUT RALLY

Verdugo Hills Council Holds Birthday Celebration 'Round Camp Fire

Boy Scouts of the Verdugo Hills district council, Boy Scouts of America, celebrated the fourteenth anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement in America last night by entertaining their fathers around a big campfire at the Harvard High school. There were 200 Scouts, Scout leaders and fathers in attendance, and the affair was declared to be one of the most enthusiastic gatherings in the history of the Verdugo council.

Francis J. W. Henry led in yells and humorous songs and speeches were made by Lyman Clark, chairman of the Glendale district committee; by Scoutmasters H. E. Leedom, Louis Wilson, Kenneth M. Payne, Haight, W. L. Walker, H. B. Lockwood, Newman and Caskey; Frank Ayars, Peter L. Perry, Major C. L. Wyman, Scout commissioner; Ben Robison, district Scout commissioner; Eugene J. Wix and H. R. Chiesman, local Scout executive.

Tribute to Lincoln
Mr. Wix paid a tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, and in closing urged the father of every Scout to become a Scoutmaster.

An entertaining story was told by Scoutmaster Wilson and later stunts were given by troops 2 and 3. A marshmallow roast was the final event of the evening.

Mr. Chiesman made special announcement of the Scout leaders' training institute to be held March 6, 7 and 8 at the Harvard street high school. Prof. George U. Moyle will serve as department head; Lyman Clark, district chairman; Roy L. Kent, president of council.

P.-T. A. TO STAGE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Pupils Plan Entertainment At Monte Vista School For February 19

Extensive plans for an elaborate birthday celebration, to be held February 19, in the Monte Vista school auditorium at Sunland, have been made by the Monte Vista Parent-Teacher association. Pupils of the school will present several entertainment numbers, which will include a minuet and Virginia reel and a flag drill. The program includes both afternoon and evening events, with interesting addresses by competent speakers, in addition to orations on Washington and Lincoln by the pupils. Dinner will be served from 6:30 to 8 p. m., in the domestic science room of the school. This will mark the first anniversary of the founding of the Monte Vista Parent-Teacher association. It will also celebrate an anniversary of the national association and the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln.

Mrs. Homer Rice of the Bungalow cafe was recently entertained at a surprise party in celebration of her birthday. Friends from Tujunga, Sunland and Los Angeles were present to wish her many happy returns of the day.

Enlarge Business
Holman & Pinson, blacksmiths, are adding an ornamental wrought iron department to their business at the shop on Michigan avenue, near Walnut. Mr. Pinson made the ornamental iron work in the Fine Arts Guild studio in Tujunga.

Mrs. S. A. Wardell was the guest of honor at a recent dinner party at the home of her mother, Mrs. Theodore Perner, on Michigan avenue. Music formed part of the evening's diversion. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wardell, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Adams and Mrs. and Mrs. L. H. Perner.

Mrs. C. C. Campbell recently entertained friends at dinner. Among those present were Mrs. H. O. Nicholls, Mrs. L. Strange and Mrs. L. D. Drake.

Frank Williams has bought property in the Garner tract and expects to erect a residence. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Morgan of Valley Center are the parents of a baby daughter.

Mrs. Ralph Shaffer recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams as dinner guests. Mrs. Shaffer has made plans for an extended visit with friends in Kentucky.

Street Improved
Walnut drive is being graded and oiled as a start of the street improvement program. Gravel has been placed for starting the work of widening the state highway through the valley from Sunland to La Canada. Shoulders two and a half feet wide will be built at each side of the present pavement.

Local Finance Firm Declares Dividends

The board of directors of H. S. McCormack & Associates, Inc., at their meeting yesterday, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent payable to stockholders of record February 15 and a 2 per cent special dividend to all stockholders of record February 1.

In addition to the above dividends the directors voted a 5 per cent dividend on "Block A" properties, payable March 1. H. S. Laughlin, attorney at law, Title Insurance Building, Los Angeles, was appointed attorney for the corporation for the current year. Mrs. Florence L. Huntington, 201 Kenneth Road, Glendale was appointed assistant secretary to serve until the next annual election of officers.

The board of directors voted to sell $25,000 treasury stock at $100 par value, the proceeds of which will be utilized in discounting mortgages and trust deeds.

Concerts for children, an American idea, have been given in this country since 1898, those of the New York Symphony orchestra being among the first.

Oh, Where's Jean? In Nevada! Yes, But Why, Oh, Why!

An item yesterday about a postmaster who didn't have $30 in parcel post stamps to send 1,500 pounds of minerals to Glendale.

"Where is the station?" everyone asked, so Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson was prevailed upon to tell.

"Jean, Nevada, if you ever heard of it." "The postmaster there is ticket agent, freight agent, baggage man, expressman, telegraph operator; in fact, he is the whole show except for the handful of townspeople and the miners in the vicinity." Just where Jean is, however, we still don't know. Try to find it on the map of Nevada if you can.

POLICE, FIREMEN'S BALL BIG EVENT

Annual Gathering Will Be Held on February 15; 8-Piece Orchestra

With all difficulties out of the way at the fire department, Captain R. E. Dodsworth, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Policemen's and Firemen's association, states that the second annual ball to be held Friday night, February 15, will far surpass the first event, which was considered such a success last year.

Eddie Moniot has gathered an eight-piece orchestra which will furnish music for the occasion, and a large crowd is expected. It is explained by Lieut. W. H. Royle of the police department, president of the association, that all money derived from this ball goes into the relief fund for firemen and policemen who are disabled in the line of duty or are taken sick.

Many tickets have been sold and the committee in charge is making arrangements to take care of a record-breaking crowd. Refreshments will be served, as the "boys" expect to give every one who attends his money's worth.

Valentine Features at Community Sing

Thursday of this week is the time for the regular community sing at the Harvard Street High school auditorium, 7:30 p. m. Alexander Stewart, the director, is going to introduce some valentine features that will be very entertaining. Valentine parodies on popular songs are being received at the Community Service office. Special recognition will be given to these writings tomorrow.

The feature of the program this week will be several selections by Glendale's well-known professional trio, composed of P. A. Kranz, violin; J. Arthur Myers, cello, and Mrs. Gertrude Champlain Erb at the piano.

The general public is invited to these sings, where a good time is assured and a spirit of neighborliness developed.

Legion Mass Meeting Called for Saturday

A mass meeting, to be held under the auspices of the Los Angeles county inter-post council, composed of delegates from every American Legion in the post in the county, is scheduled for Pershing Square, Los Angeles, Saturday, February 16, at 1 o'clock.

The adjusted compensation bill now pending before Congress will be explained. State Commander James Collins of Long Beach and past State Commander Byron Fitts will speak, and the Hollywood American Legion band will be on hand to furnish music for the occasion.

CHAMPIONS TO BOX

OAKLAND, Feb. 13.—Vic Foley, Canadian bantamweight champion, and Bud Hamilton, who lays claim to the honors in the Rocky Mountain district, will tangle here tonight.

TWO PRESIDENTS ARE CONTRASTED

Rev. H. I. Rasmus Presents New Light on Lincoln at Exchange Meeting

Abraham Lincoln was presented in a new light in an inspiring eulogy by Rev. H. I. Rasmus, Jr. before the Glendale Exchange club yesterday noon at their weekly luncheon in the Egyptian Village, 133 North Brand boulevard.

"Washington was an aristocrat, Lincoln a man of the people," said Mr. Rasmus. "Washington was born of wealth, Lincoln of poverty; the one in an elegant mansion, the other in a humble cabin. Washington wore silks and satins and his weapon was a jewel-studded sword; Lincoln wore homespun and moleskin and fought his way out of the backwoods to world esteem with a rough-handled axe."

"Washington was handsome, dashing, a social idol, at home in ballrooms. Lincoln was homely (if the lines of truth and simplicity are homely), retiring, a seeker of solitude, ill at ease amid surroundings of culture."

Two Great Americans
 "But both were alike in one respect, for both were great Americans, both inspired their countrymen during their lifetimes and continue increasingly to inspire them with the passing years."

"Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon all conquered the world, yet were themselves conquered. Alexander died a pitiable drunkard, still in his youth. Caesar fell at the assassin's hand with many a stain upon his character. Napoleon pined out his life on St. Helena, victim of his own wrath."

"But Lincoln, struck down though he was by the bullet of a fanatical southerner, nevertheless left behind him, in a united nation, a monumental and enduring work."

Name Will Live Always
 "At a fireworks celebration some years ago, when the last set piece had been lit, the multi-colored powder burned a scroll in the midst of which the name ABRAHAM LINCOLN was suddenly emblazoned. Suddenly the scroll burned itself out and faded but the name remained. A little boy, (Continued on Page 8)

Club Women Pay Tribute To Memory of Lincoln, Make Plans for Convention

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
 Of The Evening News Staff.

A beautifully worded tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, written by President Calvin Coolidge, in 1919, when he was governor of the state of Massachusetts, was read yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president, who presided in the absence of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, who is ill.

This recognition of the 115th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln followed the salute to the flag, led by Mrs. S. C. Leppelman, at the clubhouse began at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when the executive board met to discuss and act upon matters pertaining to club administration. The matter of foremost importance was the convention in April of the Los Angeles District, Generation of Women's clubs in Glendale. Tentative plans were discussed and reports given of the work being done by the club women for this big annual event.

Nominating Committee
 In the afternoon during the business hour in charge of Mrs. Montgomery, announcement was made that at the second Tuesday meeting in March, three club members will be elected to serve on the nominating committee.

During this time Mrs. Montgomery as chairman of ways and means, presented the club treasurer with a check for $300, made during the month of February. She also brought a request from the Local Biennial board that all the club women who have gardens, plant flowers that will bloom in June when the convention of the General Federation is in progress in Los Angeles.

Biographical Sketch
 The program of the afternoon was given by Miss Mida F. Webb, of Pasadena. She gave most beautifully "A Chronicle of the Romantic and Heroic Lives of Robert Louis Stevenson and Wife." It was a wonderfully interesting biographical sketch of the world loved author, whose death occurred at the age of forty-four years.

A great admirer of both Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Miss Webb has made a thorough study of their lives and romance and her word pictures reflect real inspiration and desire to bring to her hearers some of her own love for these two litterateurs.

On the next meeting day of the club, February 19, there will be a 12:30 o'clock luncheon, and in the afternoon John B. Ratto, impersonator, will entertain.

Members of the Glendale Realty Board and others this week have received February copies of "California Real Estate," the official monthly publication of the state association, which has several articles advertising this "fastest growing city," as well as a picture of the parade staged by the real estate men for the sewer bonds. Reports of the annual banquet and several other references to Glendale doings are accorded publicity by Editor Glenn D. Williams, secretary of the state association. The magazine is highly regarded by the real estate men here for its dissemination of news of state-wide interest.

FLUENT AND FLUID MILK GIVEN CLUB

Exchange Members Drink in Words and Liquid at Dairy Day Program

After drinking the sample half-pints of "Ideal" certified milk distributed by the Glendale Creamery company, members of the Exchange club at yesterday's noon luncheon in the Egyptian Village heard J. Dutter, Southern California representative of the California Dairy council, present a strong plea for increased consumption of dairy products.

Mr. Dutter argued that milk-drinking children make stronger and better men and women and that under-nourishment is responsible for a large percentage of degeneracy and criminality. He spoke of the work being done by the council to stimulate the consumption of dairy products, particularly among school children.

State Imports Products
 While the California Dairy council is an organization of producers, distributors and manufacturers of dairy products and is therefore financially benefited by stimulating consumption of dairy products, Mr. Dutter showed clearly that California as a whole would benefit by a stimulus to this industry, and produced figures to prove his statements, significant among which were statistics that disclosed the fact the state imports a large percentage of its dairy products.

That the cows kept by dairymen serve to enrich the soil was stressed by the speaker. Harry James, noted monologist and ardent Glendelian, who has heralded afar, by radio and phonograph record, the fame of this city, was present as a guest at yesterday's luncheon and entertained his audience with one of his celebrated "hot dog" stories.

Plans For Homeward Trip Begin To Take Shape As European Tour Nears End

W. B. Kirk's letter today was written aboard "Fabre line, S. S. Asia," from Constanza, Roumania, January 15. He writes: "This letter cannot reach you before about February 10, and a reply to it cannot reach us until about March 1, so I am asking any and all correspondents to write us at once on receipt of this, in order that we may be able to receive the mail before we sail for home."

W. B. KIRK

"We are still undecided as to how we will return, and will be so until we get more definite information as to sailings. We will probably get this at Athens. If we go via Panama, as at first contemplated, we will have to sail about March 1, in order to reach home by April 1, as it is a month's trip."

"It is possible that we may decide to go via Havana and Florida, as we have never been to that section, and I have always heard that Cuba has a fine winter climate. In any event, we want to avoid the cold and disagreeable weather of New York in March."

"However we may go, we may have to go up to Liverpool or Antwerp to embark, but we want to avoid this also, if possible, and so are looking for a sailing from Genoa, Marseilles or some other Mediterranean port, on a boat, which, if not through to the California coast, will connect with one such at Panama, or one which will touch at Havana on its way to Mexico or South America. Till we leave our address continues to be Nice, France, in care of American Express company."

New Opinion of Syria
 "During our stay in Ras-el-Mein we had a very heavy rain with some lightning and thunder, so we were not able to get out and see more of the country, as we would so much have enjoyed. The storm brought an additional amount of snow to the mountain tops, so that they were heavily covered in all directions and how beautiful they looked in the sunshine of the morning, when we had to leave!"

"My conception of the sort of country Syria is, was altogether erroneous. Instead of a flat, sandy, dry, hot country, all the western part of it, which we were in, is a mountainous, well-

Hi-Y Team Installs Eagle Rock Officers

Five officers of the newly-organized Eagle Rock Hi-Y club were installed last night by the Glendale induction team, which journeyed to Eagle Rock for that purpose. The club was just started in the last week by the local deputation team, and the ceremony Tuesday night completed the thorough organization.

Those who went over were Theodore Haig, president; Charles Thompson, acting secretary; Harold Jones, acting treasurer; Laufman Jeter, first councilman; Neal Sooy, second councilman; Robert Hatch, conductor, and Rex C. Kelley, Glendale district secretary.

Thieves Ransack Home Of W. L. Finkbeiner

The home of William L. Finkbeiner, 600 West Doran street, was entered by burglars last night and thoroughly ransacked. Entrance was gained by using a passkey in the rear door.

Among the articles missing are a suit of clothes, an electric heater, a man's gold watch, diamond stickpin and about one dollar in small change.

UTILITIES' HEADS HAVE HARD JOB

Three Men in Glendale Have Problems Calling for Lots of Diplomacy

By GIL A. COWAN
 Of The Evening News Staff.

Three men in Glendale have positions which no one should envy. They are the managers of the public utilities here who come in contact with the public.

Of necessity, they are diplomats as well as commercial agents. They not only develop business, but keep it satisfied as best they can. Their problems are legion, many of which are without their jurisdiction.

J. F. McIntyre, commercial agent of the Glendale municipal light, power and water departments, has the most disputes over meter charges, no doubt, for a common reason—that of climate.

BURBANK FIGURES REVEAL POSTAL INCREASE

January Shows Advance Over Month Last Year of 79 Per Cent

An increase of 79 per cent in postal earnings for the month of January, 1924, over that month last year is reported by Postmaster W. P. Coffman, who gives the exact totals for the respective months as $3,125.69 and $1,745.90. Commenting on this record, Mr. Coffman states:

"The fact that there was nothing unusual during the month to cause such a wonderful increase is an element for special gratification. There was no Christmas holiday or any other day when heavy receipts are natural, and nothing but the regular run of business. There were no especially big sales, and it was really such a surprise to us that we had to go over the figures two or three times before we could believe them ourselves."

"The number of 2-cent stamps sold, besides those in rolls which are bought by large firms and those who use a great many, was 50,000 which were in sheets, then there were the stamped envelopes, in addition.

"We have recently put in a 7 o'clock box collection, which enables residents of Burbank to get their letters off on the early morning mail. And in a few days we will inaugurate motor truck delivery of parcels throughout the residence districts. This will be the same service we furnished for a few days at Christmas time, and we believe it will be welcomed no less than it was at that time."

Parkings Cause Grief

The automobile of J. Crause, parked in front of his office on San Fernando boulevard, was ferociously walloped by a car belonging to and propelled by Mrs. Jorwin of Griesmer avenue, while traffic was at its height the other night. From what can be learned of the mishap, which also damaged the machine of Ralph Foster, parked next to the Crause car, Mrs. Jorwin apparently engaged reverse while going forward, in an attempt to avoid striking the car immediately ahead of her.

Pay Koutz Insurance

Mrs. Ada Koutz, widow of Claude Koutz, who recently lost his life in the employ of the city of Burbank, is to receive a total of $3,556.89 in compensation insurance, according to F. S. Webster, city clerk, who has received a letter to that effect from the State Compensation Insurance department.

Claude Koutz was crushed to death in a peculiar automobile accident some weeks back, when a machine said to be out of control struck another machine, pinning him between the two and causing him to sustain injuries which proved fatal.

Fair Sex Follow Foibles Of Fashion's Decrees In Adoption of Late Styles

By F. A. GRAHAM
Of The Evening News Staff.

Spring fashions are blossoming out among the chatter sex like sore thumbs at an amateur carpentering bee. One-sleeve gowns are all the rage for daughter, because dad had no funds left to buy another after ma-finished paying for her hipless draperies.

The women must have new chapeaux and goloshes to conform to Paris and Hollywood specifications, but airdrales can wear last winter's whiskers or go without, one of the either.

Home brewers who put in too many raisins will continue to week-end at the hospital. This is not a comfortable outing, but fashionable people care not for comfort.

Girls used to stay home because they had nothing to wear, but that reason doesn't keep many of them in now. Charity covers a multitude of sins. All modern girls are charitably inclined.

Paris has invented a new man top. It is called the "Toupee." This should be very fashionable among bald-headed men of cold climates. The latest light automobile on the market is the "Venus." It's a stripped model.

Diners Omit Tips

Waiters in Glendale cafes complain that it is no longer fashionable for the patrons to tip. Probably because there is nothing to get tipsy on.

Paris style creators say that dresses will be like personalities and be narrower than ever. If this be true they will have to build thinner ladies to put in them.

The Barbers' League says that women will continue to bob their hair in spite of fashion's dictates, out of sheer perversity.

Green will be the predominating color among frogs. Red, white and blue are still guaranteed fast colors. Fast, but they never run. The ex-kaiser vouches for that one.

Hosiery Edict

Invisible hose are passe. No girl wishes to pay $5 a copy for shin guards that no one can see. Lizzy Seine contributes this to the fashion number:

Mary has a little limb,
That knee is sure to show,
And the way they're wearing their dresses now,
That knee is sure to show.

There is a rumor out to the effect that the suspender-wearing fashion is to be revived. This must be another effort of the hipless men to get in the limelight.

A very useful camisole is being featured in the ladies' department. It may be used as a lamp shade and when reversed it becomes a bathing costume.

Leading chapeau salons are displaying a creation in headgear that is trimmed with fringe around the brim, through which the eye wearer peeps. Match sticks make excellent fringe for sport hats. Burned matches may be used on mourning hats. Fishbones are lovely on the rim of your dinner plate, too.

An evening gown of exquisite architecture has a bodice of filet mignon over blue gingham. The skirt is of yellow chiffon over what a skirt is usually over. Boots to match have filed soles. At the race tracks non-refillable purses will be worn by men with long faces.

Explains Funny Part

Great excitement about girls showing their legs will be manifested by old women—of both sexes. Brevity is the soul of wit. That, as the one-eyed man remarked, is what makes the girls' dresses so funny.

Bell bottom trousers have disappeared and, like all other dumb-bell fads, they never told us a thing. (Get the hot-water bottle, pron. salesman, say it has helped them make permanent residents out of several tourists the last few days.

What's up, his head is frozen.) The latest male vanity is a one-passenger trowel runabout type, equipped with triple expansion waistband and puncture-proof hip pockets. Front pockets are equipped with quick-detachable coin carriers. The rest is reinforced and non-skid tread. Sport models have two-way pockets. You will notice that the one-sleeve gown is fastened together with a hypnoses. Hypnoses are the nearest thing in print to safety pins. This being a family newspaper, no chances can be taken on anything coming loose.

One cute little stenographer, who weighs about the same as half-a-pint of tea, came in this morning wearing one of those hipless gowns the girls are all raving about. ### NASH BUYS BIG MITCHELL PLANT

Racine Motor Factory Will Give Added Output of Popular Cars

In line with plans for factory expansion made necessary because of increasing demand for its product, The Nash Motors company has purchased the plants and real-estate sites of the Mitchell Motor Car company of Racine. Formal announcement of the purchase was made by C. W. Nash, president of Nash Motors, following conclusion of negotiations and formal ratification of the sale by creditors of the Mitchell Motor Car company. The appraised value of the Mitchell buildings and land for forced sale is $1,000,000. The appraised valuation for replacement is far higher.

"The Racine factory buildings are ideally located for us," said Mr. Nash, "and they were purchased at this time because of plans for factory expansion under consideration by us for some time past and made advisable in view of the fast-growing demand for cars."

Near Other Plants

The Mitchell plant covers three and one-half acres of ground and has 500,000 square feet of floor space; they include one four-story building 90 by 300 feet, the other buildings being one-story structures of modern saw-tooth construction. When equipped by Nash Motors with modern machinery the new unit in the Nash production organization will be one of the finest automobile manufacturing plants in the country. The Racine factories are just ten miles north of the Nash Six plant and general offices at Kenosha, and twenty miles south of the Nash four-cylinder plant at Milwaukee, all three cities being on Wisconsin Highway No. 15 and served by the Northwestern railroad.

All Modern Facilities

Acquisition of the Racine property gives Nash Motors 190 acres of ground devoted to the processes of production and the square feet of floor space amounts to a total of 2,900,000. The Kenosha and Milwaukee plants are of the most modern type, as is also the factory of the Seaman Body corporation, of which one-half interest is vested in Nash Motors. The four-cylinder plant and the Seaman body plant are both practically brand-new and were laid out under the direction of Mr. Nash. Nash Motors produced in 1922 approximately 41,000 cars and in 1923 the production totaled very close to 60,000 cars. Despite this remarkable increase an oversold condition persisted during the greater part of the year.

The increased 1924 sales demand will be met by the addition of the factory facilities in Racine, it is stated by Donald Barbee of the Nash Sales Company, Inc., 112 South Maryland street, Glendale.

MONTROSE MOTION PICTURE THEATRE PLANNED

Montrose Capitalists Back Amusement Project in Foothill Town

By MARY B. DARROW
Of The Evening News Staff.

For a long time past there has been felt a need of a first-class motion picture theatre in this bustling live-wire community, so yesterday morning, Theodore Belanger, owner of the Belanger block and proprietor of the Montrose Drug store, negotiated for the lot on the south side of Honolulu avenue opposite the Reinhard building. Several of the prominent local business men joined Mr. Belanger in this enterprise, and in no time teams were on the ground making the excavations necessary preparatory to laying the foundations.

The building is to be 40x125 feet, and will be up-to-date; in fact, "day-after-tomorrow" appointments will be used throughout the structure. This project is to be financed by local capital entirely, and will offer a splendid opportunity to invest in a sure proposition right at home. All confidence possible is felt in the project; with the men behind it, it is claimed that it cannot fail.

Remember these are the men who made Montrose what it is today, the men of far-sightedness who staked their future on that of Montrose; who, with this locality, are growing bigger in every way. Everyone in the valley knows the standing of each man back of the project, nearly all residents of the community have done business, if not with all, then with some of them, and everyone knows what these men, through the Chamber of Commerce, have done to put Montrose, not only on the map of southern California, but that of the whole United States. Therefore, it is impossible for the new theatre project to be anything but successful.

Directors Chosen

A board of directors has been chosen to serve temporarily, and a permanent one will take its place when the company is more fully organized. Stock will be sold at a nominal figure, making it possible for all to invest in the local enterprise.

Those behind the project are Theodore Belanger, publicity chairman of the Chamber of Commerce; James Brown, Sr., president of the Chamber of Commerce; C. A. Haskins, well-known banker; S. Myers, capitalist; C. L. Mead and C. G. Howard, realtors and subdividers; F. R. Harding, of the new firm of Harding & Brown haberdashers, and many others are intending to join.

Sue, or "Susie" as his friends call him when they wish to jest with their Mongolian playmate, has left certain of his thieving in pawn shops here and there, in the course of his gambols, taking in exchange therefore certain tickets bearing interest at rather a steep rate. Two weapons were recovered from a San Diego loan temple, together with a dozen silver sherbet glasses.

Those who would seek parlance with Susie are advised that he presumably still packs a .22-caliber rifle which vanished from the Schumacher home at the time their Chinese domestic went A. W. O. L. while on K. P.

FIRELESS
Gas Range

COOKS with the GAS TURNED OFF!

Tomorrow, Fourth Day of Tests

THE LAYER CAKE TEST

Thursday at 3:00 p.m.—

—A layer cake will be put in the specially insulated Chambers oven and the gas lighted.

At 3:10—

—The gas will be turned off.

Be Here at 3:25—

—The cake will be taken out, so all present may see how light in texture and how evenly browned the Chambers Oven bakes a cake.

3 Vegetables—

—At that time also, we will take from under the Thermodome three vegetables that after only 15 minutes of gas (total), have cooked on for an hour with the gas turned off.

Special Cooking Demonstration All Day

Tomorrow's tests will be among the most interesting of the whole series, for comparing the efficiency of this truly modern range with any ordinary type of gas range. Yet they only indicate in a slight degree the things you could do in your own home. The big savings on your gas bill, the hours of time freed, the effort saved and the better flavor in food cooked—all these are rich dividends which come daily to every user of a Chambers Range.

Easy Terms, Special Allowances, and Free Aluminum Ware

with each range this week

Special trade-in allowances will be made on old stoves during this demonstration week and easy time-payments arranged. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity

Manufacturing District

"Where Dollars Grow"

Do you know that property suitable for industrial enterprises is EXCEEDINGLY scarce in Glendale?

Do you realize that this very fact assures a rapid increase in this kind of property in this locality?

Are you aware of the fact that manufacturing are rapidly locating in this city? That within a few months there will be very little of this kind of property available? And that for this very reason lots suitable for this purpose are ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN to grow into real dollars?

Every factory that locates in Glendale takes up more or less room. This is not a case of "Always room for one more." When this land has been taken up it will be gone forever—get that?

That's why the building sites in Central Manufacturing District are making such a big pull at this time. Prices now are on ROCK BOTTOM. Buy at once and get in on those "easy dollars." You can't missfire there.

Buy one of these lots and forget about it. A year from now go down and see how things are getting along—note the new industries, look over the improvements. Then inquire as to the value of lots located close to yours—and collect your little 100 per cent increase.

There is nothing safer in Glendale than Central Manufacturing District. It is as good as government bonds. I believe this because I KNOW. I have watched this section grow from almost nothing to one of the best industrial districts in Southern California. It is growing FASTER than Glendale.

Let me show you where real money lies in

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

"Dear Doctor: I have admired and sort of worshipped you for over a year now and finally I have got up enough courage to write to you.

"Last September I weighed 152 pounds and was so disgusted because I would exercise so much and still I gained. Finally I bought your most wonderful book and just took myself in hand and got down to 127, and now I want to get down to 119. But it seems twice as hard as it did when I first started. I have so many friends and relatives who say that the method I am using is very bad for me, so I am going to see what you say.

"I eat no breakfast, eat two apples at noon and at 5:30 I eat 800 to 1000 calories. Do you think that is an unhealthful way to do? I seem to be able to get along without any food so much better than if I just eat a little, because I crave it so much that I eat more than my allowance.

"Another thing: I have a very large bust, and while it has reduced lots since I have been dieting, it is still too large in proportion to the rest of my body. What can I do? Can you tell me anything to do that will not injure me in any way, and still will reduce my bust?

"About how many calories does a glass of ginger ale contain, and is pop very fattening? Whenever I go out with my friends to an ice cream parlor I always get a ginger ale or pop or a chocolate soda without ice cream.

"Please, Doctor, tell me how I can strengthen my morale once more. I am forever in your debt as it is, but will be more so when I receive your reply, B. G."

My Dear B.: I cannot see that you need any strengthening of your morale. It seems to me that you are doing wonderfully well. There are two reasons why it is harder to reduce after the first excess is off. The first is because the system has acquired a lower nutritional level and not so much food is needed to keep it going, and second is that you do not have to feed the excess poundage which has been lost. It very often happens that a diet which will reduce one in the first part of dieting will just maintain the weight after a while.

In this case it is necessary to give the system a little job by going on a liquid diet all day once in a while, say once a week, and on that day taking only 500 to 600 calories. You will lose weight on this day (perhaps a pound or so) and only on these days, apparently, will the weight go down. However, eventually, if you get down to normal you can keep there on a fairly liberal diet.

Of course, during the process of reducing you have learned not to care so excessively for the concentrated foods and desserts, and for the excess bread and butter, these two things which are the dietetic sins of the overweighters. Your method of getting most of your calories in one meal a day is all right. You can scatter your calories through the day any way you like. It makes no difference, so long as you get the elements your system requires—except for some of its energy needs, which your own surplus fat is now supplying.

A great many persons find that they can do better on a regime similar to yours. I find that I can myself, only I will take my biggest meal about 1 o'clock, with the fruit for supper. When occasions arise that I have to have my dinner at night, then I have a very light meal at noon. I take about 75 to 100 calories for breakfast in the form of coffee with a little cream and sugar or both, or one-half slice of bread and butter or a half a doughnut and clear coffee. You might have fruit if you prefer it.

Now about your bust: I think that when you have lost the amount you need to lose to get down to normal it will reduce more in proportion with the rest of your body. I do not know of anything to rub on, nor would I advise anything to rub on to reduce the bust. I think the only thing to do is to wear a fairly firm brassiere and get your weight down to normal. The size of the glandular tissue in the breast is more or less inherited, but the fat is an acquired characteristic, especially the excess fat.

In reckoning any sweet drink, think about how much sugar it takes to make it as sweet as it is. Two rounded teaspoonsful of sugar or three cubes are 100 calories. A ginger ale or pop would be somewhere around 100 calories. The chocolate soda without ice cream would run a little higher, or on account of the oil in the chocolate, perhaps 150 calories or more.

Write me again when you get down to normal and tell me how you are.

Tomorrow—Answers to Correspondents.

My Dear Followers—When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one of which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your orders to me in care of the publisher. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate your interest in me, but I am unable to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. s. & c. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

The woman who can make a delicious meringue pie is never at a loss to know what to serve as dessert for a "very special" dinner or supper. The "men folks," at least, prefer pie to almost any other variety of sweet.

To Make the Crust: Sift together one cup of bread flour, a pinch of baking powder; put these in a mixing bowl and work into them, with the fingertips, one-third cup of lard. Now also work into the mixture one-fourth cup of butter. Add about three tablespoons of cold water (or just enough to form a solid mass, adding only a few drops at a time and stirring the liquid in) then toss the dough onto a floured bread board and roll it into as nearly a circular shape as possible. Have this circle a little larger than a pie pan. Gently lift the pastry onto the pie pan (never grease a

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

ASHAMED

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a fellow nine years older than I am for about two weeks. I like him very much and I think he likes me from the way he talks and also his manner. He has taken me to his home several times, but it seems that I am not of his class.

He has asked to call at my home, but I feel embarrassed in telling him that I haven't a nice home, and so I haven't taken him. In my circumstances how can I tell if he really loves me?

He has told me that he loved me, but if he found the real truth of the matter, do you think he would continue liking me? He has talked considerably of marriage, but I feel that our love will not continue.

My parents do not want me to go with him. Should I take my parents' advice and stop going with him? Or should I do as I think best? I love him.

WORRIED GIRL.

You are making a great mistake in showing shame for your home conditions. If the man loves you, he will love you for yourself and you will stand out all the more beautiful in your sordid surroundings. A home where there is genuine hospitality has more charm than a palace which is lacking. Love your parents and be proud of them because they are yours and are doing the best they can. Do not apologize for your living conditions. Simply show charms and cordiality when you entertain. Nothing shows lack of breeding more quickly than shame for one's parents and one's home. I would advise you to continue your friendship with the young man. Make your parents feel with him? Or should I do as I think best? I love him.

Chocolate Meringue Filling: Put into a saucepan one pint of boiling water, one-third of a cake of unsweetened chocolate shaved fine, and one cup of granulated sugar. When it is boiling, add two tablespoons of cornstarch mixed to a paste with a little cold water, and finally add two egg yolks well beaten. Stir till it thickens, then remove from range and cool slightly before turning it into a baked crust. Make a meringue from two egg whites, as directed above for lemon pie.

Tomorrow—Requested Knitting and Crochet Directions

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use your full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

BEAUTY CHATS

EDNA KENT FORBES

THE ATTRACTIVE NURSE

Not long ago I heard it said of a nurse that she had some particular genius for helping her patients to get well in a much shorter time than usual. When I asked her what was her charm, she declared that she had none and only did what any other conscientious nurse did for a patient. However, as she continued I found that she had a definite method by which she helped her patients.

"A nurse should be as refreshing as the flowers that come to the sick room," she explained, "so I never let my patient see me in a disheveled state, if possible, especially in the early part of the day." She continued: "It may mean getting up a little earlier than I wish to, but the effect upon the patient is so bracing that it pays me to begin my work in the sick room fresh from a bath and fully groomed. I am renewed myself and the patient is sensitive to it."

Realizing that the patient sees her more than anyone else, she makes herself as lovely as possible, arranging her hair under the becoming cap so as to attain the best effect; and well cared for nails are as important to her as clean uniforms.

"Of course, intelligent nursing is the important thing, and most nurses do give this," she asserted, "but when a refreshing presence is added, it will count much in lifting the depression from a sick person, and usually shortens the convalescent period."

Miss J. M.—As the mark is only a little darker than the rest of your skin, you may be able to cover it by first rubbing into it a very little bit of cream and then cover it with powder. For special occasions you could use a liquid powder to cover it. Dermatologists often remove blemishes without injury to the skin.

P. T. W.—Eat less of all starchy foods, and all sweet and rich pastries. Train yourself to that they will like him when they see him, and that he will also like them. To let them even dream that you are ashamed is the most cruel and heartless thing you could do.

In a case where you are in doubt, it is safer to be formal and leave cards.

MAKES PEOPLE SLIM!

Many of your friends think that you are too fat. You too realize it. But why, in all common sense, don't you get rid of that extra 20 or more pounds? Feel comfortable and more like a human being again. I am a physician licensed by the State of New York. I have for years treated men and women overburdened with excessive flesh; many have reduced as much as a pound a day. I prepare a special treatment, such treatment as will, in my opinion, promise you the loss of weight without harm, but an improvement in health. Don't take my word for it. Let me send you my trial treatment and convince yourself. Personal attention is given to each case and you are treated exactly as if you were in my office.

FREE TRIAL AND INTERESTING BOOKLET

I have successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction.

Without Change of Diet or Unnecessary Exercise

Below are a few extracts of letters from grateful patients which bear out my statements:

Lost 76 Pounds. Miss O. Whitlow writes: "I have lost 76 pounds as a result of your treatment and have never felt so well in my life as I do now."

Lost 70 Pounds. Mrs. S. Santos writes: "I have lost 70 pounds as a result of taking your treatment. I feel better in every way. I can now take long walks without becoming tired or short of breath. I thank you very much for what you have done for me."

Lost 48 Pounds. Mrs. E. Horner says: "Well, I'm glad to inform you that I have lost 48 pounds in 6 weeks."

Make up your mind this very day to get rid of that fat. Write me for my free trial treatment now; then you'll soon realize how happy you'll feel, how much better your health will be for having joined the thousands of my grateful patients who now belong to the ranks of Slim People. Don't delay. Write now for FREE TRIAL Treatment.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I am in great trouble because my husband has just left me. Since he left my people have accused me of keeping company with a married man and I am not guilty of such a thing.

Would you advise me to stay at home and stand the rumor or leave this part of the country. Sometimes I think it best to leave as I care for no one. I think it best to go to some far away place where I could not hear my name called.

SUN FLOWER.

If you have done nothing to bring forth criticism, you can probably remain where you are and live down the gossip. But if you know in your heart that you have done nothing to bring forth criticism, you may find it most difficult to gain the respect of the community again. In the latter case it would probably be more comfortable to go away and conduct yourself in such a way that you will gain respect and admiration and not be handicapped because of a past mistake.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Being a stranger here I would like to know whether to leave cards when I return a call?

VERY TRULY YOURS.

In some circles of society cards are left, while there is more informality in other circles. If cards were left by your caller, follow her example and leave cards when you return the call.

Daily News Letter

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad.

By GEORGE T. HOOK For International News Service.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13.—Mudville's mourning when mighty Casey struck out was a Venetian carnival compared with the "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune" that have thrown the male portion of the University of Pennsylvania's student body into plaintive consideration of how to have sweet justice done.

The pet drinking song of the school has been struck out—absolutely excised from the official Pennsylvania song book, and its yodeling banned on the campus and at social gatherings. Here's the song that whetted whistles won't warble at Penn:

"Drink a highball at nightfall, He good fellows while you may, For tomorrow may bring sorrow, So tonight let's all be gay. Tell the story of glory Of Pennsylvania—"

"Drink a highball and be jolly— Here's a health to dear old Penn."

Doubtless it's familiar to most every scowllaw in the states, for the repertoire of a barroom quartette was not complete without it. And now it must go the way of John Barleycorn, where those who cherish its meaning most are concerned, even though their favorite liquid refreshment was hot toddy or a milk shake.

The song is excluded and banned because "it did not originate at Pennsylvania," according to William O. Miller, who compiled the song book. In explanation he says:

"Aside from the ethical reasons which might prompt the exclusion of this song, the practical reason is that it was originally sung by students of Wesleyan about the time Professor Atwater was carrying on important research work concerning the effect of alcohol on the human system."

In other words, "Drink a High-ball" perhaps has the distinction of being the first "wet" swan song. It doubtless cheered Professor Atwater.

The City of Brotherly Love in a new role—the "Mecca of Run-away Girls." Which is not to be construed an answer to the presence here of Christianity are the presence here of General Smedley D. Butler, the Marine Corps idol, now Philly's director of public safety.

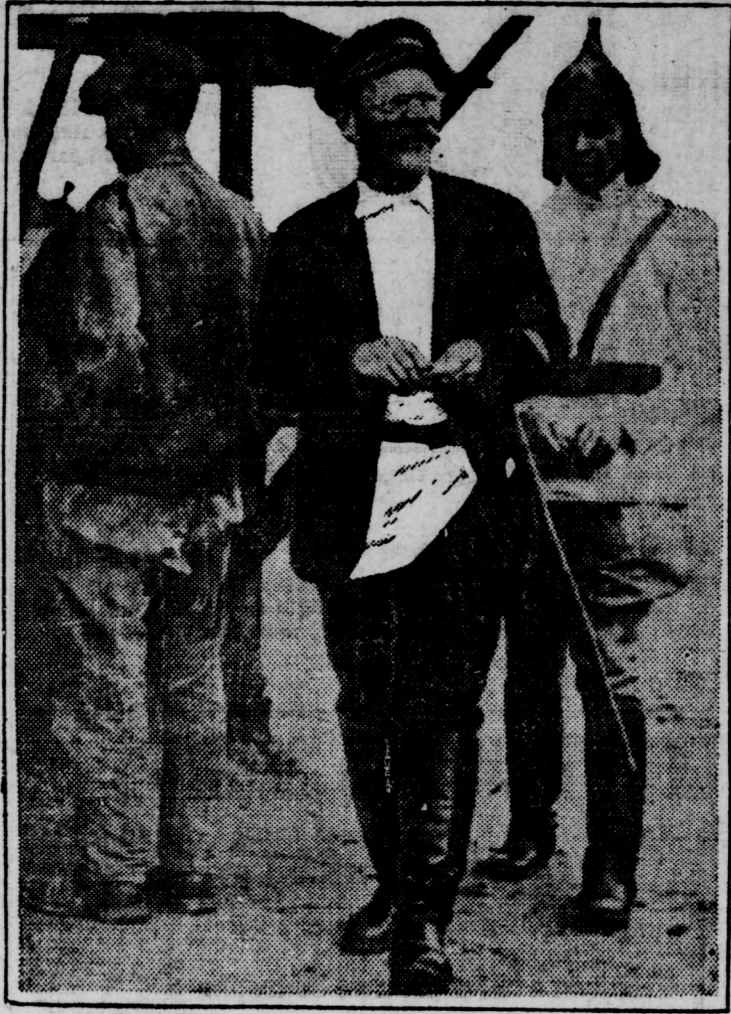

According to statistics compiled by George Spangler, in charge of the Missing Persons Bureau, 1,000 girls, for the most part comely, and ranging in age from 14 to 20 years, were reported missing to police here in 1923. The majority of them were found in this city in quest of "good times" and "classy clothes," and freedom from "Main Street's drab monotony."

"I cannot honestly say that these girls really do not know what they are walking into—the day of the innocent girl who was led astray is past," Spangler declared. "But certainly they have no true sense of the consequences or they would turn around and go back to the homes they believe so drab."

Religious controversies that are sweeping this country just make the work of missionaries twice as hard. Dubious Mohammedans, Buddhists and heathens straddling the fence that separates them from Christianity are falling off into old religious beliefs or lack of belief, and the converts derive from the controversies a food that puts them "on the fence."

This is the opinion of the Rev. Charles Ewing, Presbyterian missionary in India for forty-five years, who addressed a meeting of Presbyterian ministers here.

KALENIN MAY SUCCEED LENINE Leading Figure In Moscow Government

Kalenin, center, on an inspection tour

President Kalenin of the Russian republic of soviets has already begun to loom larger in the affairs of the government in Moscow, now in a state of unrest due to the death of Lenine, its founder. Incidentally, his dramatic announcement of the death of Lenine is being compared with Antony's oration over Caesar, as reported by Shakespeare.

On the Spur of the Moment

By ROY K. MOULTON

From that dear London comes the usual horoscope for the coming year, and we must say it is a bird. It is compounded by the most eminent horoscopist in that country.

In 1926 the great Armageddon will take place, according to this learned doctor and his satellites. In 1933 the whole works will blow up. In 1926 it will be a final conflict between Mohammedanism allied with bolshevism, against the united Anglo-Saxon world. When it is over there will be few of us left, and those few will be entirely exhausted.

Those who are spending their time kicking about everything now have the satisfaction of knowing that their troubles will not last much longer. Only a few more income tax blanks to fill out, only a few more raises in the rent, only a few more moving days and only a few more trips on the old suburban train to and from Gladys Manor.

It is well to take these things into consideration in planning for the future, which is to be so short. Perhaps you can get along without the gold dishes you were going to buy on the installment plan, and if you have been saving up for a villa at Newport there is little use in continuing. You could never make it by 1926.

Little boys who are planning to be President will be saved the trouble. The house you are trying to pay for on monthly payments will not be taken away from you.

Ashes to ashes, Dust to dust, If 1926 doesn't get you 1933 must.

Old Bean Richmond Temple, our faithful London correspondent, in his weekly letter, calls our attention to the fact that members of the American smart set now in London carry small monkeys in their handbags when they visit the hotel supper rooms. That is important.

Ladies' hats will be in the form of helmets this winter and will be trimmed with bird carcasses. Regarding the styles in gowns, he says:

"Hobbled knees is a term that Apply over throat and chest—cover with hot flannel cloth. CHEST COLDS VICKS VAPORUB Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly"

has become familiar in London since the arrival and acceptance of the tight skirts which are actually tied to the wearer's knees. Everything points to the probability that the favorite frock for next spring will be the model that looks, and is, exaggeratedly tight to the knees and then allowed to "flare" into an umbrella flounce, a quaint outline.

Outside of that, the political situation seems to be quiet and the entente cordiale between the two nations remains unbroken.

LITERARY NOTE I can't read "modern writers." I don't get what they mean. But is it I or is it they That's balmy in the bean? * * *

News dispatches say that a train ran into a Pennsylvania man named Mr. Applecart and upset him, * * *

GOING DOWN It always does me lots of good To wander round this town? And notice how the cost of food Is going down? For instance, parsnips now are cheap, And carrots not so dear, And rutabagas take a flop. They do it every year.

Cornmeal is lower now in price, And oats do not increase. You can get hay that's very nice In these great times of peace. Oh, food is not so very high As to cause grim remorse, It's easy enough to eat, these days, Provided you're a horse. * * *

DON'T BREAK THE NEWS TO MOTHER A mother said unto her child, Up to her, she said say: "Remember you are going to The city far away, Be sure to wear these flannels, girl, Up tight around your neck, The city's cold, so wear these skirts And woolen socks, by heck!"

The girl unto the city came And saw how girls were dressed And straightway threw away the skirt Also the flannel chest Protector that her mother made, And bought a shadow gown, And every day, decollete She hoofed it around the town.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE BROWN JUG Uncle Wiggily was all alone in the hollow stump bungalow one day. Nurse Jane had asked the rabbit gentleman to remain in while she went to the store.

"Why can't we both go out and lock up the bungalow?" Uncle Wiggily had asked. "Because," Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy answered, "I expect Mrs. Bow Wow, the lady dog, to call, and she would be much disappointed if no one was at home. You just stay here a little while. I won't be long at the store."

So Uncle Wiggily waited alone in the bungalow, and he fussed and fretted—you know how it is when you are waiting for some one to come home when you want to go out and have adventures.

At last the door bell rang! "That must be Nurse Jane now!" thought the rabbit, hopping to open it.

But no—it was a little mouse peddler man selling collar buttons. "Thank you—I don't want any!" cried Uncle Wiggily, shutting the door. A little while after that the bell rang again.

"This, surely, must be Nurse Jane," the bunny said. But it was a little mouse gentleman this time selling tin dishes.

"Thank you—I don't want any!" cried Uncle Wiggily, shutting the door. A little while after that the bell rang again. "I'll fix that mouse peddler for fooling me!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I'll sure him."

So he opened the door very quickly, jumped out and shouted: "Boo!"

"Oh, my goodness!" cried Nurse Jane, jumping off the steps. For it was Nurse Jane this time. "What's the matter with you, Uncle Wiggily?" she asked. "Why did you cry 'boo' at me?"

"Oh, I beg your pardon," said the bunny. "I thought you were a peddler mouse gentleman. Well, I'm glad you're back." "Yes, but I can't stay!" exclaimed Nurse Jane. "I forgot and left the brown jug at the store. I'll have to go back after it."

"No, you stay here and I'll get the brown jug that you forgot!" quickly said the bunny. "I've stayed in long enough. 'Now it's your turn.'"

"Goodness knows I don't want to go out again," sighed the muskrat lady housekeeper. "If you will bring the brown jug I left at the grocery—on the counter by the dried apples you'll find it—I shall not need to go back."

"I'll get the jug!" offered the bunny. "But whatever you do—don't turn it upside down!" called Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy to Uncle Wiggily as he hopped away. "Don't turn the brown jug upside down."

"Of course not! I wouldn't think of such a thing," laughed the rabbit.

"Why should I want to turn a brown jug upside down?" "Well, you never can tell," muttered Nurse Jane as she took off her best shoes, for they hurt her feet.

Uncle Wiggily hopped over the fields and through the woods to the grocery store. He forgot and leave our brown jug here?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Yes," answered the Grocery Dog. "It's there on the counter by the dried apples. But whatever you do, don't turn the jug upside down. Don't do it!"

"Hum! There must be something queer about this!" thought the rabbit. "Why should I even dream of turning the brown jug upside down?"

So Uncle Wiggily took the brown jug, and he was hopping home with it, when all of a sudden, out from behind a big rock popped the Bob Cat.

"Ah, ha!" howled the Bob Cat. "I'm going to nibble your ears, Uncle Wiggily, but first you must tell me what is in that brown jug."

"I don't know what is in it," truthfully answered the rabbit. "All I know is that I am not to turn it upside down," and he looked at the jug, which had a piece of corn cob in it for a cork.

"Pooh! I'm not afraid to turn the jug upside down!" howled the Bob Cat. "And after I turn it upside down I'm going to nibble your ears."

So the Bob Cat turned the brown jug upside down, and all at once there ran out from it, around the corn cob cork, which didn't fit tightly—there ran out a lot of sticky molasses. All over the Bob Cat's paws the sticky molasses ran. He dropped the jug, but it fell on some soft snow and didn't break. "Wow! Wow! I'm all stuck up!" howled the Bob Cat. He tried to wipe his sticky paws off on his fur, but he was more stuck up than ever, and at last he felt so sticky that he had to run home to wash himself. "And I'm not going to wait for you to come back, either!" laughed the rabbit. Then, catching up the jug of molasses and holding it right side up so no more could run out, the rabbit ran safely home.

I'm not afraid to turn the jug upside down!

"That's the reason I didn't want you to tip the jug—because the cork cob didn't fit tightly," said Nurse Jane. "But I'm glad it fooled the Bob Cat!"

Failure to Land Position of Head of Commission Menaces Boxing

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Doleful suspicions were being circulated today to the effect that legalized boxing in New York would be returned to its precarious condition of a few weeks ago unless William Muldoon decides to pocket his pride and serve on the boxing commission as an ordinary member without special distinction or privilege. It was Muldoon's thought as well as that of everyone outside of the pale of politics that the so-called "solid man" of the commission upon his reappointment by the governor. He was not.

The fear, therefore, is general that Muldoon will again resign his post, and the fact that he has gone into silence on the matter in question has served to strengthen the suspicion. His proponents are splitting no infinitives in saying that, if Muldoon goes out, boxing will follow, ultimately.

Asked at his home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., as to what action, if any, he contemplated, Muldoon merely said:

Refuses to Talk
"I do not care to discuss the matter at this time except to say that I naturally was surprised and disappointed by the failure of the commission to elect me its chairman."

George W. Brower, a Democrat, was the man elected. He was nominated by James Farley, another Democrat, and seconded by himself. Muldoon did not vote.

Those who fear for the future of boxing base their opinion on the belief that Brower lacks the experience in boxing necessary to conduct that difficult sport on lines of security.

It is Brower's sincere hope that he can persuade Muldoon to remain on the commission and has gone on record to the effect that harmony within the ranks of the body is to be his watchword.

PADDOCK TO RUN IN PARIS GAMES

Sprinter's Row With A. A. U. Smoothed Over Before Olympiad Starts

From reports coming in from the east, it appears that Charles Paddock, of Pasadena, "fastest human," will be declared eligible to represent the United States at the Olympic games in Paris this summer.

The trouble between the sprinter
and President William C.
Prout of the A. A. U. over his appearance in Paris last summer without official sanction has been smoothed over and both have come out with statements telling what a good fellow the other chap
is. If we can believe dispatches, there is a regular love feast going on there at the present time. A telegraphic vote of the A. A. U. committee will be taken this week, and to all appearances Paddock will be once more in the good graces of the governing body.

The Olympic committee has been greatly worried over a sprinter for the Olympic games, and if Paddock is reinstated, he will no doubt make the trip to represent America.

Digs Up Phenom
Meanwhile Dean Cromwell, coach at U. S. C., announces that he has another find in the person of Keith Lloyd, cousin of Harold, movie comedian, who will make the Pasadena flash look to his laurels.

Lloyd, who transferred to the U. S. C. from Nebraska this year, will not be eligible for conference meets, but has his eyes set on Olympic games. According to the Los Angeles critics he has

Stanford to Compete in Sectional Meets

PALO ALTO, Feb. 13.—Stanford track men now working out daily in preparation for the 1924 track season have an added incentive to their best efforts in the fact that Stanford will send a track team to at least one of the three great sectional meets this spring. The Pacific coast conference meet will be held at Eugene, Ore., early in May, and Stanford may be represented
there. The I. C. A. A. A. and the N. C. A. A. meets are also possibilities. Olympic game tryouts are to be held at Harvard very near to the date of the I. C.
A. A. A. meet and Cardinal athletes may appear in both.

Western P. A. A. tryouts for the Olympic games will be held at Stanford either May 3 or 17, and the whole Stanford team will probably participate.

Among the athletes on the Stanford squad whose chances for success in the competition are looked upon with favor are "Tiny" Hartranft, national collegiate shotput champion; Leslie Richardson and Boles, hurdlers; Smith, Richardson, Kerr and Storey, runners; Campbell, in the sprints; Richards, Ludeke and Arthur, weight men; with other promising youngsters.

Anderson Will Head U. S. C. Track Team

Big Norman Anderson, star weight man, was elected captain of the University of Southern California track team at a meeting held recently at Trojan hall.

Coach Dean Cromwell has built up a strong cinder path squad at U. S. C. this year, and Norm hopes to lead the Trojan tracksters to victory over both of their ancient rivals, California and Stanford.

Speed Kings Tune Up Cars for Long Grind

Tommy Milton, Bennett Hill, winner of last Thanksgiving's classic, and Harlan Fenger, who,
with Jimmy Murphy, will pilot Miller specials in the 250-mile race at the Beverly Hills speedway February 24, were out at the track yesterday tuning up their motors and breaking in new parts.

None of the cracks made over 119 miles an hour, saying that they were not trying for speed, being out merely to get the "feel"
of the motor and to correct any carburetion troubles.

Jimmy Murphy's mount is in the paint shop and Harry A. Miller, the designer and builder, said that it would be in shape to try out by the end of the week.
Ralph Hepburn's new Miller job will also be out on the track late in the week and all the Miller creations will have ample time to be tuned up for the race.

Fred Comer has his car ready and will not be seen again at the track until the day of the qualification trials. He is working on the Durant special to be driven by Harry Hartz in the coming race and expects to have it all set for the contest within another two or three days.

CASABA TOSSERS BACK FROM TRIP

Oxy Barnstormers Conclude Northern Invasion; To Play Poets Next

The Occidental basketball barnstorming crew has returned from their ten-day trip up the San Joaquin Valley to San Francisco and back by way of the coast. Twenty players, representing the freshmen and varsity teams, headed by Coach Sid Nichols of the varsity and Oat Smith, mentor for the peagreeners, and Manager George Forde, have all had plenty of basketball for a while, they say.

Both teams played eight games, meeting the leading Y. M. C. A.
prep teams, and Athletic club fives en route. The fresh, captained by Neil Archer, won six of their eight contests and were praised by all the northern teams for their splendid teamwork. The varsity came out of their matches hopelessly in the hole, winning but one game out of eight. They played hard, but with half the team down south playing Pomona
the remainder could do little up north until their companions joined them.

Freshmen Stars

The feature work of Archer, Mishkin, Hammersley, McCunn, Randall and Gregory accounted for the numerous victories for the Tiger Babes. The other frosh who made the trip are: Neeley,
C. Black, H. Black. In the Oxy freshman vs. Bakersfield High the Tiger youngsters ran up a score of 40 to 2. The fellows were all feeling good that evening, it being the first game of the series and they cut loose.

The varsity men who went north are: Captain Harold Wagner, Larry Johnson, Bob Sackett, George Stoller, George Forde,
Bill McInnis, Morrow, Ed Chandler, Roy Wheeler and Clarence Ebers.

239, rolled the high score of the evening.

IOWA AFTER NEW SPORTING HONORS

University Athletes Doing Much to Advertise Their State

By DALE SCHILLING
For International News Service.
DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 13.—
Aside from developing a Charley Brookins, world's speed marvel; Eric Wilson, who tied the national intercollegiate 220-yard record, and a mile relay team which broke the world's record, Iowa has established a substantial record in collegiate athletics during the last twelve months, and anticipates even greater success to come.

With but two old men remaining, Coach Howard Jones of Iowa university failed to turn out a championship football team last year. Rumors of the impending departure of Coach Jones to Trinity college have occasioned grief
on the Iowa university campus, for he brought the team up from comparative obscurity in 1916 to the championship in 1921 and 1922.

Drake university won five of seven pigskin battles last year, as did Iowa State college at Ames.

Tough Team Ahead
With the record of seven straight victories in 1922 and five in 1923, thirteen of the fifteen football letter men of Drake, augmented by a fine bunch of freshman timber, will strive for a championship team this year. They have a tough schedule, including intersectional contests with Utah and Florida universities to be played at Salt Lake City and Gainesville; five Missouri Valley games with A. S.
Grinnell, Oklahoma, Kansas university and Kansas State and one with Knox.

J. M. Barry, basketball coach at Iowa university, turned out a championship basketball team
last year, although it was his first.
Resignation of Captain Bob Burgitt in midyear shattered the Hawkeye hopes this year, although Purdue was overcome in the first Big Ten game. Losses to Michigan and Ohio State shattered the Iowa university morale, but Coach Barry will try a new combination to develop a winning team.

Ames cagers, under Bill
Chandler, old Wisconsin star, whipped Drake and Grinnell college, but lost two games to Washington university and one to Missouri university. Drake has lost four games straight this year, but puts its faith in two new men—Everett and Ashby. The team finished in third place last year.

Relays in April Unusual preliminary interest is centering in the Drake relays, to

CLEAR LAKE HIGHLANDS

Paradise for Campers

An ordinary day's catch at Clear Lake
Highlands

Game abounds in the forests close to Clear Lake Highlands, and the waters of the lake are bountifully stocked with ten varieties of fish. The season for bass is open the year round. Mountain trout, blue gills,
perch and other varieties
are found here.

Lots 25x100 feet at $75.00, $100 and $125, on weekly terms of only $4.00. Advance in prices soon.

With every two lots a membership is given in the Clear Lake Rod and Gun Club, which is now open and in operation. A $75,000 hotel is under construction.

Clear Lake and the region surrounding it is a paradise for the artist with brush or camera, an endless number of gorgeous views confronting the eye in every direction.

It is never too hot for comfort at Clear Lake Highlands. The nights are always cool and refreshing. Fog, malaria and mosquitoes are unknown here. There is no county in the State that can boast of a healthier one.

Clear Lake—the largest lake in California—is twenty-five miles long and a maximum of ten miles wide. Health for the wife and an ideal playground for children. Drinking water is very pure and unexcelled. Clear Lake is ideal for swimming, a safe, clean beach, minus the undertow.

Horseback riding, tennis courts, a golf course and dancing. Miles of natural trails is offered the hiker. It is easily reached from any part of California over excellent roads.

Cardinal Gridiron Practice Will Start

PALO ALTO, Feb. 13.—With increased optimism attendant upon the coming of "Pop" Warner, one hundred and fifty men have signed their intention of turning out for spring football practice at Stanford university the first week in April.

With all to gain and nothing to lose, and backed by unbounded campus enthusiasm, work will be started by coaches Kerr, Thornhill and Hunt, with assistance from former Cardinal football stars.

Sutherland Is Only Holdout in Seattle

The Seattle club of the Pacific Coast league has but one holdout on its roster, according to President Charles L. Lockard. This is Suds Sutherland, received by trade from Portland for Harry Gardner.

Suds has intimated that he may remain in Ontario where he has been managing a semi-pro team all winter on account of an old grievance against the Beavers.
President Lockard expects, however, to have the veteran hurler
in the fold when the season starts.

A balance at the Bureau of Standards is so sensitive that it will weigh a written signature.

visited by our Lord. They still have some existence as unimportant villages. Cesarea is also on the coast below these towns and was also, probably, in Phoenicia. These towns are now off the main lines of travel and as they are difficult and expensive to reach, we didn't see them.

Mountain Resorts

"Many of the Lebanon mountains are covered with pines and are summer resorts for the people from the inland hotter sections. The Cedars of Lebanon are now reduced to about 400 in number, but the government has finally placed guards over them so that they will not be further reduced by wanton destruction. One of these old trees, at least, must date back to the time of Christ. It is forty-three feet in circumference. We didn't see them as we might have done from Ras-el-Metrn, if the weather had been good. We have some pictures of them.

"Coming from Baalbeck, which is out on the eastern side of a wide valley, skirted by bare hills (but itself being set in fertile fields and vegetation) we came through good rolling country, with villages, and finally began climbing a mountain to the right, by a gradual winding road, to a height of several hundred feet. When we reached the top of the ridge, away below us on the north was one of the loveliest panoramas we have ever seen.

"It reminded us, in one sense, of the Grand Canyon, except of course, not so deep or wide, and its trees, villages and terraces covering the mountain-sides, made a most charming picture.

Uses American Auto

"Ras-el-Metrn, the home of our friends, was one of these villages, and we could have seen their castle from the ridge had we known. We had to cover twelve miles to reach it, going down the side of the mountain and up and down the hills. It is a charming place. No wonder the Oliviers and Mr. Evans are content there; anybody could be. In a straight line, a little to the north of west, it is only twelve or fifteen miles to Beyreuth, but the way you have to go makes it thirty. Two young ladies from America, whom we had met on boat and in Egypt, one of whom is a cousin of Mr. Evans, were also visiting our friends, so we had a fine time. Our boat was due to sail from Beyreuth on Thursday, the tenth, however, so Wednesday morning, Mr. Oliver drove us into Beyreuth, having a nice Cleveland car with an Arab driver. The Oliviers have been there so long that everybody knows and loves them and we hated to have to tell them goodbye.

"We had a good hotel in Beyreuth. Basoul's D'Orient and were made quite at home for two days as our boat sailed a day

Broadway High Students in Marathon Classic Between Classes to Get Their Books

Everybody an athlete at Glendale Union Broadway High school? "Betcha my life they are," says a student who chased from one end of the group of buildings to the other to get his books for the next period and then hiked-off across the campus on another marathon only to be tardy.

Yes, the new high school grounds are expansive, to say the least. Twenty-three acres is quite some difference from less than a city square at the Harvard plant. Flat feet, strong legs and less getting will result, perhaps.

Girls' gymnasium classes are held in the balcony of the auditorium until a gymnasium is built on the new campus. The stage gives a better vantage point for a free show than vice versa. Some of the gym work now includes a hike to the nearby hills.

French classes are using the stage these days for a parlez-vous of their coming performance entitled "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme," whatever that means.

INSURANCE RATE TOO HIGH, CLAIM

Plans to Increase Personnel And Equipment of Fire Dept. Considered

Plans for an investigation of the insurance rates in force in Glendale were advocated at the board meeting of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce last night, when it was stated by Secretary E. F. Sanders that the rate charged in Glendale is 80 cents as compared with 70 cents in Los Angeles. As a part of the proposed investigation a movement will also be started to secure additional men and equipment for the Glendale fire department, as it is claimed that the department has not been enlarged to keep pace with the growth of the city in either men or material, and two more engines and twenty more men are urgently needed to bring the department up to the strength that will, it is claimed, bear the proper proportion to the population of the city.

More of his travels will be told by Mr. Kirk in his next letter, to be published in an early date in The Glendale Evening News.

Attorney Bert P. Woodard, reporting on the charter that has been prepared by the Board of Fireholders of Los Angeles, to replace the present charter of that city, and that is to be voted on at the primary election on May 6, stated that the new charter, while presenting some features that might be open to criticism, is, on the whole, a better instrument than that under which Los Angeles is being conducted at present. The inclusion of the provisions for the borough form of government for the various sections of Los Angeles or for such other communities as may later be annexed to that city, Mr. Woodard stated, has been limited to the suggestion that an advisory borough board be created, to be appointed by the mayor of Los Angeles.

Fathers to Stage Show

F. M. Ferguson, president of the Fathers' Auxiliary of the Broadway Parent-Teachers' association, accompanied by C. R. Rettig, secretary, appeared before the board to ask the endorsement of the organization for an entertainment that is to be staged under the auspices of the auxiliary at the new high school on March 4, with an all-star cast. Proceeds from the entertainment are to be used to carry out the program for the improvement of conditions at the Broadway school that has been mapped out by the auxiliary. The board endorsed the plan for the entertainment.

A communication will be addressed to the Pacific Electric by the Chamber of Commerce asking that the practice of parking the street cars at the head of North Brand boulevard, close to Mountain street, be changed so as to have the cars parked at least one car length south of the street intersection, as it is declared that the safety of motorists is menaced by their being unable to see other cars approaching when the street cars are standing at the extreme end of the line.

President W. E. Hewitt will attend the luncheon that is to be held in The Egyptian Village on Wednesday, February 20, when plans will be made for the observance of Music Week, to be sponsored here by Community Service.

To Attend Orange Show

A delegation from the Chamber of Commerce will attend the National Orange Show at San Bernardino on Saturday, February 23, which has been set aside as Glendale Day by the officials of the exposition. The party will leave Glendale at 10 a. m. and it is planned to take as large and as representative a delegation as possible.

Directors C. W. Ingledue and Harry McBain will appear with Thos. W. Watson, chairman of the city planning committee, before the City Council on Thursday morning to urge the appointment of a City Planning commission.

It was decided that the Glendale Chamber of Commerce should take a membership in the United States Chamber of Commerce, allying itself with the national organization that is, President Hewitt explained, doing so

Utilities' Heads Have Difficult Employment

many electric heating devices are used in Glendale. That causes the little meter on the back porch to quiver in excitement and roll up considerable bill.

In summer the sprinkling of lawns, as well as other seasonal needs, cause the water meter to do double duty. And the public hardly believes its eyes when the bills are received. As a result there are arguments.

Recently the writer has heard numerous complaints about light and gas bills. Comparatively speaking, there seems to be discrepancies, but the public service men think otherwise.

Install New Meters

Sidney C. Singer is the manager of the Southern California Gas company here. Recently his company has installed many new meters and these register accurately, it is said. Some of the older ones were not so good, for a little oil made them very lenient with cash customers, although meters are not supplied to be tampered with.

Another executive who has complaints almost every day is Fred Deal, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company here. His troubles usually are results of the so-called "neighborhood phone."

Use Neighbor's Phone

Friends, if they may rightfully be called such, "borrow" their neighbor's phones for Los Angeles or long distance calls. Then they fail to pay the toll, or if they do, the householder forgets about it until the telephone company's bill is received.

Try their best the customer cannot remember "so many calls." So it is that the numbers called are listed. Strange numbers, sometimes, which cause husbands and wives to become suspicious, perhaps.

And there is no indoor sport quite so enjoyable as a "row" with the public utilities' employees.

No, Mr. McIntyre, Mr. Singer, Mr. Deal, we do not envy you your jobs.

Instead, you have our sympathy.

If the Bank handles your funds and acts as your trustee—paying you your proportion of profits as they accumulate, and if your investment is made doubly safe by an equity in the property purchased—wouldn't you be interested?
It is conservatively estimated that this Syndicate will pay its members four for one, or better.

BACKBONE
The history of our country and of the world is dotted with individuals who rightfully won their places in the Halls of Fame chiefly through their possession of BACKBONE? It is the ability to forbear, withstand, control and regulate things properly under all circumstances. So in the human mechanism your BACKBONE is in the center of everything and is a controlling and regulating Union station traversed by all the nerve trunk lines of your body, the Head Office of which is your brain.

A boy was once asked by his teacher for the definition of BACKBONE to which he replied: "It is a long wiggly bone 'runnin'' through my body; I sit on one end and my head sits on the other." CHIROPRACTIC is giving the proper definition and proving it to be much more than this. Remember, "you may fool all of the people some of the time," BUT you CANNOT fool your SPINE any time.
