MEDALS OF WASHINGTON

IN THE

COLLECTION OF W. S. APPLETON.

IT is a fact not pleasant to remember, that nowhere at present can one find a worthy account of the medals struck in honor of Washington. Snowden's "Medallic Memorials of Washington in the Mint of the United States," published in 1861, contains descriptions of 138, and is very valuable; but the number struck since is enormous, to say nothing of those of earlier date, which were not in the collection at the Mint. Woodward's "List of Washington Memorial Medals," privately printed in 1865, "only proposed to furnish brief descriptions of a portion of the medallic memorials of his death," and enumerates but 48. Several are of course mentioned in Dickeson's "American Numismatical Manual," and long lists of Medals of Washington are in various sale catalogues, particularly those of Haines, McCoy, and Woodward's Fifth and Sixth. My own collection contains almost every medal mentioned by Snowden, Woodward, and Dickeson, a very large part of those ever offered at public sale, besides some which have never appeared on any catalogue, and have never been described, except, perhaps, in the reports of the meetings of the Boston Numismatic Society. I may name, as medals of exceeding rarity, numbers XII, XIII, XVI, XLVIII, LV, LXIII, LXX, LXXVI. The collection is so extensive that I have thought it deserving of a printed catalogue, to which I add notes of some of the medals wanting in it.

WM. S. APPLETON.

I. GEORGIO WASHINGTON SVPREMO DVCI EXERCITVVM ADSEPTORI LIBERTATIS COMITIA AMERICANA; head of Washington facing the right; below, DU VIVIER PARIS. F. Rev. HOSTIBUS PRIMO FUGATIS; in exergue, BOSTONIUM RECUPERATUM XVII. MARTII MDCCLXXVI; at the left Washington, with four officers on horseback; at the right a fort, and near it two cannon — on one DUVIV — and cannon balls lying on the ground; in the middle distance soldiers under arms; beyond a view of Boston lying near the water, on which are several vessels just sailing away. Bronze, size 43.

This is the medal voted to Washington by Congress, for the evacuation of Boston, and executed in France. The original in gold, presented to Washington himself, has lately been for sale at a high price; a silver impression, also owned by Washington, and afterwards by Webster, is now the property of the Webster Club of Boston.

II. The same medal, restruck from the original dies, with the trifling change of the erasure of one leg of a horse in the group of officers. Bronze, size 43.

Silver and bronze, size 25 1-2.

This medal appeared in France during the Revolutionary War, and is probably first mentioned in April 1778, by Samuel Curwen, who says in his Journal, that it had been lately struck for M. Voltaire.
