HUNTINGTON BEACH, ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1918

H. B. PRODUCE ASS'N ORGANIZED TUESDAY

TO HANDLE ALL KINDS OF FARM PRODUCE.

SEVEN DIRECTORS ELECTED

Ed Moore, Sam Gisler, J. J. Courreges, Wm. C. O'Connor, G. Schaaf, W. T. Vandruuff, George Coker First Board of Directors.

The organization of the H. B. Produce Association was perfected Tuesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce room of the public library building, when the articles of incorporation were duly signed and will be filed with the county clerk and forwarded to the secretary of state for his approval.

City Attorney Alex. P. Nelson, who has charge of the legal work, stated that it would be necessary to elect a temporary board of directors to serve until the regular election to be held the first Thursday in August, and the following were chosen: Ed Moore of Orange; Wm. C. O'Connor of Huntington Beach; Sam Gisler, W. T. Vandruuff, J. J. Courreges, G. Schaaf and George Coker, growers residing in the districts east and north of Huntington Beach.

There was a delegation of seven from Fullerton and Anaheim, representing the Orange County Produce Association, with headquarters at Fullerton, and the Randolph Marketing Company, and one other concern that has charge of the selling end of the association.

C. McComber, president of the Orange County Produce Association, stated that the management of the association was left largely to the secretary, J. W. Wallop, whom the growers found had rendered very efficient service. Mr. McComber said that the association was new at the work themselves, this being the second year of co-operative work, but they had demonstrated the fact that the organization had been of great service to its membership.

Secretary Wallop stated that when their activities were confined to cabbage there was a membership of 185, and when tomatoes were included the number increased to 285. There were weekly pools, he said, which was fair to all. Members of the association, he said, realized 61 cents per lug box for tomatoes last year, while the highest price paid by independent buyers was 45 cents and less. The price to the association equalled about $40 per ton, which is considered a big price for this product, and returns the growers a nice profit. Mr. Wallop said the association membership included about 90 per cent of the producers of the districts covered. The association, he said, made a charge of 25 cents per ton for handling cabbage, one cent per box for tomatoes, and 5 cents per cwt. for potatoes, to cover the overhead expenses. He cited one instance where a grower residing just over the Orange county line in Los Angeles county had been offered $7 per ton for some inferior cabbage, and he delivered his product to the association and the returns netted him $14.40 per ton. One grower said that he marketed 100 acres of cabbage last year and the price ranged from $20 to $100 per ton, the high price being for some of the early crop.

An invitation was extended the Huntington Beach growers to affiliate with the Orange Produce Association, which would be beneficial to all concerned, as the cost of the overhead expense would be reduced as the membership and products to be handled increased.

The visitors stated that they had found the Randolph Marketing Co. of Los Angeles, whom Mr. O'Connor represents in the field in this vicinity, very satisfactory selling agents. The growers deliver the products to the warehouse and the company furnishes all crates, boxes, etc., and sells the crop for a stated commission, half the price being paid in cash and the remainder in 30 days.

The Orange County Produce Association has not yet incorporated, but Mr. McComber and Mr. Wallop stated that the necessary legal preparations had already been made to do so.

After the visitors had left the room, Earl Farrar, who was elected temporary secretary at the meeting last week, said he was in favor of not forming a separate association here but affiliate with the Orange County Produce Association after it had been incorporated.

Mr. Nelson said while he would not be a member of the association, it occurred to him that it might be the better policy to go ahead with the work of organization and then affiliate with the larger organization afterwards. The home organization, he thought, would be of much benefit to the growers here by bringing them in closer relations with each other and, besides, they would have their own brand of products to place on the market, which might be of considerable value in the future.

J. H. Renfro moved that they proceed to organize, which was seconded by W. T. Vandruuff and prevailed.

Mr. O'Connor presided at the meeting.

E. R. BRADBURY PRES. OF SCHOOL BOARD.

DISTRICT HAS A LARGE BALANCE ON HAND.

E. R. Bradbury of Wintersburg, who took his seat as a member of the High school board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. S. G. Huff, was elected president of the board at the meeting Friday afternoon of last week.

It was conceded that R. E. Larter of Westminster would be the new president, feeling the senior member in point of service, if he cared to accept the honor, but he declined to consider it, and nominated Mr. Bradbury. P. A. Isenor also refused the office. Mr. Bradbury hesitated about assuming the responsibilities, saying that while he had served as a member of the board ten years ago, he felt that he was a new member and should not be the president. The other members paid no attention to his protest, but adopted the motion put by Mr. Larter that Mr. Bradbury be chosen president.

F. H. McElfresh is clerk of the board, and he and the ones mentioned were the only members present, W. T. Newland being absent from the state.

The entire afternoon was spent in engaging teachers and auditing the bills. Mrs. E. L. Payne was engaged for another year as secretary to the board at a salary of $50 per month for the school term of ten months. Her salary last year was only $40 per month, which was conceded by all to be too low.

Owing to the advanced stage of the season some difficulty is experienced in finding teachers for some of the positions at anything like the salaries paid last year. One illustration is the Science department, there being but two applications considered, one asking $1700 per year and the other $1800, and the higher priced man was engaged at $1750, as he was considered the best qualified man for this important branch of study. He is a lemon grower in the Yorba Linda district—that is, he is developing a grove.

A letter from R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent, stated that there were $20,109.76 to the credit of the Huntington Beach Union High School district.

E. L. Mitchel, the new principal, read a comparative statement which he had prepared at the request of Mr. McElfresh, showing the cost per pupil per year for teachers in the schools of the county. Mr. Mitchel said he had omitted the principal from the lists, and the report showed that the cost ranged all the way from $34.07 in the Santa Ana schools to $102.16 in Fullerton. The cost in Huntington Beach is $67.35; Orange, $71.16; Anaheim, $76.73.

NUMBER OF SUNDAY VISITORS INCREASING.

HUNTINGTON BEACH CO. ADVERTISING BIG HELP.

The number of Sunday visitors in Huntington Beach is gradually increasing, and much of this may be attributed to the valuable amount of advertising being done by the Huntington Beach Co. in a large number of interior newspapers. The company has changed its policy this year and is not advertising real estate, but boosting the city as a summer resort.

These papers are located in Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico, and it can readily be seen that the good work means many new people from interior points during the summer. The Huntington Beach Co. is to be commended for the unselfish attitude assumed in the summer advertising campaign.

METHODISTS WILL ASSEMBLE NEXT WEEK

BIG ATTENDANCE IS ANTICIPATED.

DR. FERRIS THE EVANGELIST

Musical Clarks Will Have Charge of the Music; Arbamar Popular Place; Gov. Stephens Will Speak.

The Methodists of the Southland will assemble at Arbamar next week, and the record attendance of the assembly since the meetings have been held in this city is expected. There is a big list of reservations, and, judging from the attendance at the Epworth League meetings, this is a year the people of this country are more interested in church work than before in many years, and there appears to be good reasons to predict that the number of arrivals next week may even exceed the expectations of those in charge of the great task of looking after the comforts of the visitors.

Although the Huntington Beach Methodist Assembly owns the beautiful grounds, a tract of 13 acres, this is the first year that the accommodations have been under the direction of the assembly. In the past this privilege was leased to the Huntington Beach Tent City Co., a corporation owned principally by citizens of Huntington Beach. The grounds were donated to the Methodists by the Huntington Beach Co.

The Methodist Assembly purchased the property of the Tent City Company early in the year, and Rev. F. D. Mather of Pasadena was appointed manager. Rev. Mather is being ably assisted by Mrs. Mather, and they have performed a difficult task with credit.

Rev. S. S. Sampson, pastor of the Methodist church at Corona, is president of the Assembly, and has been an active worker since the opening of the season.

The evangelist this year is Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris, who has established a record at Northfield and other Christian summer centers in the East. He has been in California about one year, and was induced to remain here for the summer and preach to the Methodists of Southern California.

The singing next week will be in charge of the Musical Clarks, and according to reports there is a treat in store for those who attend the meetings this year. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clark have had several years' experience in this line of work. Mr. Clark has a fine tenor voice and Mrs. Clark a contralto, and they are assisted by Miss Mabel Hardwick Stewart, a rising young soprano. These artists not only sing but play several musical instruments in an interesting manner, including the harp, violin, mandolin, guitar and banjo.

The morning prayer meetings will be conducted by Dr. W. A. Betts of Fresno.

Dr. John G. Hill, professor of religious education of the U.S.C., will give a daily "Hour With Bible Books" under the topic "Modern Messages From Ancient Masters."

A meeting will be held each morning, at which some well-known worker will speak on some phase of the work of the ministry.

There will also be a period each morning devoted to departmental Sunday school work.

The platform meetings will be held each morning at 11:00 o'clock, except Sunday, at which time such men as Gov. Stephens, Bishop Leonard and Prof. Tully C. Knowles will speak.

There will be no regular meetings in the afternoon. This portion of the day will be devoted to rest, meditation and recreation. The meetings of the Women's Missionary Societies will be held in tents in the afternoons.

HARRY WOODINGTON HAS SERVED FOUR YEARS IN NAVY.

Harry Woodington, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodington of Long Beach, has served four years in the navy, having enlisted from Huntington Beach in 1914. He left Tuesday for San Francisco to serve another term of the same period, after enjoying a furlough of 30 days.

TEN YEARS AGO

The Following Items Appeared in the Huntington Beach News of July 17, 1908.

Through the agency of T. B. Talbert & Co., there were made, this week, sales of three blocks of land in the Vista Del Mar tract, the price of each block being $1,250. The purchasers were Henry W. Sharp and James C. Mason of South Dakota, and H. A. Livernash of this place.

The committee having charge of the Fourth of July celebration reported to the Board of Trade Monday night that the total expenses of the celebration were $187.95. The report was signed by Rush M. Blodgett, R. E. Graves and C. R. Nutt.

The contract for excavation for the new High school building was awarded Wednesday to a Los Angeles firm.

L. T. Wells writes that he is enjoying his trip in Oregon immensely, having visited at Ashland, Cottage Grove, Portland, Eugene and other points. He was much impressed with the Oregon state building, which was built for the Lewis and Clark exposition.

L. Olds of Bakersfield is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cadd.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hazeltine and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Larter left Tuesday for San Juan Hot Springs, where they will open the deer season.

Miss Frances Edwards returned Monday from a vacation at Long Beach.

Work was commenced Tuesday on the Murdock onion plant.

Aloha Rebekah lodge installed the following officers Tuesday night: Mrs. M. Hall, noble grand; Mrs. Grace Baker, vice grand; Mrs. M. G. Waters, secretary; Mrs. Charles Parr, treasurer; Miss Ida Bonham, warden; Miss Janie Nankervis, conductress; Mrs. James Rogers, chaplain; Mrs. Martha Rogers, inside guardian; Mrs. Fred Dimock, outside guardian; Miss Mattie Abbott, right, and Mrs. Robert McClintock, left, supporter of the noble grand. After the installation refreshments were served.

HEARST PUBLICATIONS BARRED FROM LIBRARY.

BOARD TAKES UNANIMOUS ACTION LAST WEEK.

At a meeting of the board of library trustees, Thursday evening of last week, the publications owned by William Randolph Hearst were barred from the reading rooms. The matter was called to the attention of the board by A. W. Griffith, secretary, who moved that the Hearst publications be excluded from the list of periodicals, and the motion was seconded by Mrs. F. H. Rigdon and supported by H. L. Heffer, president of the board, and Mrs. Ed Manning, the other members of the board present. H. T. Dunning was not present, as he was away on his annual vacation.

The only publications affected by this order are the Los Angeles Examiner and Good Housekeeping, as one of the other Hearst publications had been excluded long before this action of the board.

This action is in line with that of similar boards and organizations all over the United States.

COMMITTEE IS THANKED FOR GOOD WORK.

The committee having charge of the "Heart Day" campaign has received the following letter of appreciation: "The Officers and Directors of the Society thank you for your efforts which made 'Heart Day' a success in your community, and which brought to the treasury $93.41 for work in helping find homes for the homeless children of the State. We thank you and we know the little ones would, too, if they knew who was helping them. The Society places itself at the disposal of your Juvenile Court, Probation Officer or private citizen in trouble about a child that is eligible for adoption. Any family in your community who desires to adopt a child, may apply to our local Committee and we will exert our best efforts to please them. This is the only organization in California that both accepts from, and places children for adoption in every county."

"Hoping to be of service and again thanking you for your cordial co-operation. Gratefully,
"F. E. L. BAILEY,
"State Supt. Children's Home Society of California."

EPWORTH LEAGUE IN SESSION THIS WEEK

ATTENDANCE IS LARGER THAN LAST YEAR.

ONE HUNDRED SEVENTY TENTS

Daily Paper Is Being Published; All Classes Are Largely Attended; The Meetings Will Close Sunday.

The Arbamar Epworth League Institute is in session at Arbamar this week, and the attendance is a record-breaker. The capacity of the accommodations previously arranged were required on the opening day, there being 170 tents full to overflowing, there being from two to ten persons in each of them.

Rev. and Mrs. Mather were completely snowed under by the throngs that arrived Monday and asked for food and shelter, and it was almost midnight when Rev. Mather got a chance to get his breath and found that he could retire.

This is the ninth session of the Epworth Leaguers in this city, and the outstanding feature of this meeting is that it includes, for the first time, the Epworth League of the Methodist church, South. This is a commendable move on the part of the young people.

In looking over the program it is noticed that such veterans as Rev. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the Methodist church at Ontario and secretary of the Methodist Assembly; Dr. A. Ray Moore, and Dr. Vernon M. McCoombs are among the speakers. Rev. Scott has charge of the "Thirty Minutes of Fun" again this year, and he is apparently the most popular man on the ground with the young men and women. He also talks each day on "Life Problems."

Dr. McCoombs is a noted mission worker and lives continuously in that atmosphere.

The program credits Dr. Moore as being the faculty dean.

The program for Saturday follows: 12:30—Institute picture. 2:30—Baseball game. 4:00—Sports. 8:00—Missionary pageant. Sunday, 9:30—Sunday school. 11:00—Sermon. 2:30—Institute family service. 6:30—Model Epworth League devotional meeting. 7:30—Closing service.

JOINT INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS TUESDAY.

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS WORK TOGETHER.

There was a big attendance at the joint installation of officers by the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges in Odd Fellows' hall, Tuesday evening, the number estimated attending being 125.

The installing officers for both lodges were from Anaheim, and the work of the Rebekah officials being especially commendable.

The following officers were inducted into office: Odd Fellows—I. C. Warner, N. G.; Ed Manning, V. G.; C. M. Wardman, recording secretary; Geo. O. Franklin, financial secretary; W. R. Wharton, treasurer; R. Catching, R. S. N. G.; C. W. Winston, L. S. N. G.; E. P. DeLapp, warden; Fred Parker, conductor; Dr. F. E. Wilson, chaplain; Charles Burleycamp, R. S. V. G.; H. H. Ferris, L. Wardman, treasurer; Miss Mary Nelson, conductress; Mrs. Arthur Adair, inside guardian; Miss Bertha Criley, outside guardian.

REGISTRATION WILL CLOSE NEXT SATURDAY.

PRIMARY ELECTION TO BE HELD AUGUST 27.

Those who have not already registered since the first of January must do so on or before July 27, if they desire to vote at the primary election to be held August 27th.

Several of the contests will be settled at the primary election; therefore, it is important that every citizen should qualify for the August political event.

Where there are but two candidates the primary will determine who will be entitled to that office; therefore the person who waits until after the primary election to register will find that none but the winner's name for that office will appear on the official ballot. There is also a chance that the important office of governor may be practically settled at the primary election, as some of the candidates have filed for both nominations of the two dominant political parties, and if one of them should be successful in capturing each of the nominations, which is not at all improbable, his election will be assured, and the campaign will be a closed incident.

Registration books are open at Obar's Drug Store, Judge C. W. Warner's office, and Franklin & Brown's barber shop. S. E. Hearn is also an authorized registrar, and has a book at his residence.

There is a decided German brogue to Mr. Hinrich's speech. There will be an admission fee of 10 cents charged, and one-half the profits will be given to the Red Cross fund.

INSTALLING A FISH MARKET AT PAVILION.

D. W. HUSTON PREPARING TO ACCOMMODATE FISHERMEN.

D. W. Huston has been working overtime this year to accommodate the large number of fishermen that have been enjoying the sport on the pier. He has been jumping sideways to get clams, but the big regulator that Mr. Hoover has placed on the clam business has materially interfered with the number of clams that one dealer can purchase, so Mr. Huston has been shy of this important bait much of the time this season.

He is arranging to install a fish market in the room where his fishing tackle has been kept, in the corner of the pavilion next to the pier. This market is being established for the accommodation of the fishermen—not for the purpose of purchasing their catches, as might be imagined, but to provide a place where the unlucky ones can buy fish, so that the folks at home will not be disappointed, as is the case when the fisherman returns empty handed.

Roy Labadie and W. R. Anderson have been operating a fishing boat successfully lately, and Mr. Huston expects to handle their catches. When they are unable to supply him, purchases will be made in Newport Beach and Balboa.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE THREATENED BY NEW LAW.

A drive is on in California for the enactment of a compulsory health insurance law similar to the one which Bismark put in force in Germany...

One of the first effects of this forced insurance would be to destroy the splendid system of voluntary insurance now conducted by lodges, fraternal societies, and other organizations.

The San Francisco Chronicle, after showing how this German type of insurance would, if adopted, destroy fraternal organizations, makes this significant statement: "The officers and members of the many fraternal benefit societies of the State see in the compulsory monopolistic insurance scheme a substitute for an adequate wage scale in factories and in stores employing women and children."

The cost of the insurance in California has been variously estimated at from twenty-five to fifty million dollars a year, that is from ten to twenty dollars annually for each person, or from fifty to one hundred dollars for each family of five members.

This alone condemns the system in the mind of all people except the host of politicians and job seekers who alone would profit by it. The proposition comes before the voters for their decision at the November election.

The News office prints calling cards, business cards, wedding and birth announcements, invitations, etc.

For want of self-restraint many men are engaged all their lives in fighting with difficulties of their own making...

THE H. B. PRODUCE ASSOCIATION.

The formation of the H. B. Produce Association undoubtedly marks an epoch in the progress of this section of the Santa Ana River valley.

The formation of this co-operative, non-profit association not only assures the new crop of winter cabbage, but, as has been the experience of the growers in the Fullerton district...

There is no reason why cabbage, tomatoes and potatoes cannot be grown as abundantly here as in other sections of Orange county...

The Compton district is known for the cauliflower grown there, and Garden Grove for the chili peppers, and these results have followed the efforts of one citizen who grew the first crops.

Wm. C. O'Connor is to be commended for his efforts in the organization of the H. B. Produce Association.

THE THIRTEEN ORIGINAL STATES.

The state legislature of Georgia ratified the national prohibition amendment June 26, making the thirteenth state that has declared for the dethronement of Old John Barleycorn.

The liquor interests have a publication bureau in Cincinnati that sends out literature all over the United States, and recently statements have been made that Georgia was one of the states that was tiring of prohibition...

The vote in the senate was 34 to 2, and only 4 1/2 minutes' time was required to record the vote. In the lower house the vote stood 129 for and 24 against the amendment...

This action of the legislature of the state shows how much truth there was in the statement made by the alcohol adherents relative to the decline of prohibition sentiment in Georgia.

The saloon has been abolished in the great state of Texas, and there are 26 of the 48 commonwealths of the Union where no public drinking places are to be found.

These states might be properly termed the thirteen original states, the number that originally constituted the United States. However, but seven of these original states were among the number that formed the American Union...

The states that have ratified the amendment and the date of the action follow: Mississippi, Jan. 9; Virginia, Jan. 10; Kentucky, Jan. 20; North Carolina, Jan. 22; North Dakota, Jan. 25;

Maryland, Feb. 13; Montana, Feb. 19; Texas, March 4; Delaware, March 18; South Dakota, March 20; Massachusetts, April 2; Arizona, May 24; Georgia, June 26. State that has refused to ratify (this decision may be rescinded at any time before Dec. 18, 1924): Louisiana, May 23.

The following constitute the 26 states that are now dry: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, and West Virginia.

DOES IT PAY?

(Hollywood Citizen.)

Sometimes when several people order their paper stopped because they do not like a certain editorial we wonder if it pays to give expression to that which we think is right and which we think should be said in the public's interests.

When we are congratulated one week because we have had the courage to present some matter, and next week the same person stops his paper because we had courage to take a position on an issue where his toes were stepped on we wonder if it pays.

When we see prospering newspapers whose editorials all agree, are of no account and are written because the writer feels certain they will injure the feelings of none, we sometimes wonder if such a policy isn't the only policy to pursue.

And when we get into this mood we look at our subscription list and find that while every week we lose some subscribers because of editorials we have put on more new subscribers than we have lost.

And we find that this is the record for all the years we have been writing editorials that have a punch, and we line up our friends and we line up our enemies and we find we have more of the former than the latter and we answer our own question. It pays.

"I don't know much about the tariff, but I do know that if my wife buys her cloak in America we get the money and the cloak, and that American labor is paid for manufacturing it. If she buys her cloak abroad, we get only the cloak; the other country gets the money and foreign labor receives the benefit."—Lincoln. The wisdom of the great emancipator applies also to community buying.

THE DEAD SEA.

"The Dead Sea is inclosed on three sides by precipitous and barren mountains," says William Eleroy Curtis "Today in Palestine." "On the Moab shore they rise to the height of three thousand five hundred feet, on the Jerusalem side to one thousand five hundred feet, and touch the water in two places, being cut by rocky gorges. The Dead Sea is almost the shape and dimensions of Lake Geneva, being forty-seven miles in length and nine and a half miles wide at its widest part.

causes a haze or mist to hang over the lake at all times. A flood of rain often falls on the surface of the water when the sun is shining and the atmosphere is perfectly dry half a mile from the shore.

"The waters of the Jordan, when they reach the sea, are as brown as the earth through which they flow—a thick solution of mud—but the instant they mingle with the salt water of the lake the particles of soil are precipitated, and they become as clear as crystal, with an intensely green tint. Carrying so much soil and having so swift current, one would suppose that the sea would be discolored to a considerable distance, but the discoloration is remarkably slight.

"All the streams which feed the Dead Sea are more or less impregnated with sodium, sulphur and other chemicals, hence it contains an unusual amount of solidified material. Salt has been collected and sold in the neighboring cities from the earliest times, and is considered particularly strong. At the southeast corner is a ridge of pure rock salt five miles long and three hundred feet high. The water of the sea is of a beautiful, blue color, and so transparent that one can distinguish objects upon the bottom at the depth of twenty feet.

SHOES!

Part of a large order which we placed in the East for Shoes a long time ago has just arrived, and we are certainly pleased with them and are sure you will be. The quality and price could not be duplicated now.

In a short time it will be impossible to get gray shoes, for the Government has given notice to manufacturers that they can make shoes in only four colors—black, white, and two shades of tan. Further, we are informed that shoes of the immediate future will be higher in price and poorer in quality than ever before.

We are particularly pleased to have gotten this shipment, because these shoes were made before the new regulations were in effect.

The Shoes for Ladies come with high heels and military heels, and priced from $5.65 to $6.75.

The Army Shoes for Boys will delight them, we know, for they are exactly like the Army shoes for men, and are all leather—new pair free if any paper can be found in them. The price, $4.85.

The Mahogany Shoes for Men sell at $7.50, and have all the style and quality it is possible to put into a shoe at anywhere near the price. Compare them with shoes at $10.

Bring in the whole family to be shod. We are in better position than ever before to fill your needs at saving prices.

"THE SUBMARINE EYE"
SATURDAY NIGHT

"Betty Takes a Hand" Sunday Night.

MAXINE ELLIOTT THE ATTRACTION THURSDAY.

The following bill has been arranged for the Princess theatre for the coming week:

Saturday Night, July 20th.
"The Submarine Eye" can be logically divided into three episodes, with the theme of the story carried uninterrupted throughout. Its marvelous under-water photography, its thrills, its amazing novelties, stamp it as one of the big photodramas.

The introduction to the story proper is developed in a prologue that goes back to the year 1820, when New Orleans was a social center.

John Fulton, a young inventor, has perfected an under-water periscope with which it would be an easy matter to search out sunken treasure on the floor of the ocean. To finance it is his problem.

Fate intervenes to save him from disappointment. Just when things look bluest, he makes the acquaintance of Dorothy Morgan, a vivacious heiress to millions. She introduces him to her father, who organizes an expedition for treasure hunting, using for the purpose his private yacht.

Armed with an old chart fixing the exact location of a sunken treasure chest, the expedition arrives in the West Indies. The professional diver who has been brought along refuses to work in the shark-infested waters. Young Fulton volunteers. Clad in the regulation diving suit, he is lowered to a depth of fourteen fathoms.

Trapped by the heavy lid of the treasure chest closing on his hands, he is held a prisoner at the bottom of the sea. His rescue by Buller, a native diver who scorns any such contraptions as helmets or rubber suits, is one of the biggest thrills of this amazing deep-sea drama.

The treasure casket is opened in the presence of Captain Bob, whose chart gave the clue to its whereabouts. What it contained is one of the pleasing surprises of the picture.

Sunday Night, July 21st.
The program for Sunday night includes "Betty Takes a Hand," with Olive Thomas in the leading role.

Betty Marshall learns from her father that in days gone by he has been bilked out of a mine by his partner, James Bartlett, and Betty's uncle, Hamilton Haines. Betty goes to Los Angeles as the guest of her aunt, but finds that her cousin Ida has set her cap for Tom Bartlett and they are about to sail for a Panama cruise, with young Bartlett on the same yacht.

Tom Bartlett quarrels with his father and leaves in a huff for the yacht. On his way he stops at the Haines house and is surprised to see a sign, "Room and Board." He finds the Haines party gone and a strange beauty, posing as Miss Haines, conducting a boarding house.

Tom falls victim to the girl's beauty and becomes the first boarder. While sleuths are searching for Tom, the boy is slaving in the boarding house and helping Betty to make a success of it. Then comes a chance encounter between James Bartlett and Betty, in which Bartlett becomes captivated and wants to give Betty, whose real identity he does not know, $50,000 to marry his son. Betty and Tom are married, and when the fathers on both sides find it out they are furious, but a reconciliation and a happy ending are the result.

Thursday Night, July 25th.

Back to thousands of friends and admirers who have eagerly awaited her decision to resume her activities in the world of make-believe comes Maxine Elliott, now a star in motion pictures. This famous beauty of the stage makes her cinema debut here July 25 at the Princess theatre as the star of the great Goldwyn production, "Fighting Odds," by Roi Cooper Me-gre and Irvin S. Cobb.

It brings Miss Elliott to the screen after an absence of several years from the drama, during which she gave her best efforts to war relief work in Flanders, where for two years she presided over a hospital station for the treatment of wounded and the care of refugees.

"Fighting Odds" deals with big business as it is encountered in the rapidly growing automobile industry. It is a powerful story of intrigue and trickery on the part of powerful men, and of the loyalty and perseverance of a beautiful woman to outwit the conspirators and bring them to justice. It provides for Miss Elliott many highly emotional scenes, in which she appears to outdo anything she ever attempted on the stage.

James Copley (Henry Clive), founder of a wonderfully successful automobile factory, is reaping the happiness of his success with his wife (Maxine Elliott) while both are still young and surrounded by comforts and wealth.

But the rapid rise of the young manufacturer has attracted the attention and envy of John W. Bloke (Charles Dalton), the financial power of Wall Street, who seeks to dominate the growing industry by unscrupulous methods. He organizes a great automobile combine with a number of his pawns as associates and invites Copley to become the president of the organization.

Blake has laid a trap for the unsuspecting Copley, who is glad to assume the greater powers the presidency affords him, and accepts despite the misgivings of his wife, who has been the guiding influence in his success. Blake contrives to change some figures certified by Copley and then proceeds with his destruction by the dissolution of the organization. Copley is held criminally responsible for the failure and is sent to prison.

His loyal wife sets about to free him and bring Blake to justice. To accomplish this she poses as an English widow and wins the friendship of Blake. Blake becomes enamored of her. In spite of her loathing for him, Mrs. Copley leads him along, hoping to get from him the secrets which will free her husband. But Blake is cunning and none too trustful of women, even one so beautiful as Mrs. Copley.

She finally learns that some papers she wants are in the big safe at Blake's home. Working in co-operation with the District Attorney, she attempts to get them from Blake. But just as she is about to succeed Blake accidentally discovers her identity and, turning from adoration to rage, he locks her in the safe and prepares to flee.

However, his escape is prevented by the butler, who also has been working with the District Attorney. Blake is brought to justice and the prison gates that opened for Copley later close upon Blake.

Miss Elliott is supported by an excellent cast, which includes Charles Dalton, Henry Clive, who plays Copley, George Odell and others well known on the screen and stage. The production has been made with particular attention to detail and realism in the unfolding of the dramatic story.
