SUBJECT: Dr. Joachim Daumling (C)

1. (CONFIDENTIAL) Dr. Joachim Daumling, former [redacted] [redacted] Egyptian Intelligence Service was contacted 18 May [redacted] was discovered to be possibly anti-American. He stated that [redacted] and the Eisenhower Doctrine in particular, were responsible for [redacted] having lost a highly desirable situation in Egypt and he indicated he was not in the least inclined to be of assistance to [redacted] subject further mentioned that [redacted] was the only American in an official capacity in Egypt who understood the real implications of the situation there.

DAD liaison was asked to contact [redacted] 2. (SECRET). German intelligence informed DAD [redacted] subject considered not only anti-American but anti-West as well [redacted] surveillance by German intelligence; furthermore, [redacted] subject would not cooperate with German intelligence.

SECRET

MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT:

1. Reference is made etc. . . .The files contain voluminous information concerning one Dr. (lawyer) Joachim DAEUMLING (alias DEUMLING, Hanel DAUMLING) born 1910, Begerhof Germany, Advisor to Egyptian Army Intelligence Directory in 1954, who is believed to be identifiable with the subject of your request.

A summation of the information is as follows.

2. Reports from fairly reliable sources indicate that DAEUMLING, a highly educated man with a doctor's degree in law, entered the SD (Security and Intelligence Service of the Nazi Party in December 1936; Appointed Ostuf. in September 1938; RSHA (Main office State Security and Nazi Party) in July 1942; SIPO and SD Esseg (Yugoslavia) in March 1944; 1944/45 officer in Section IV (Gestapo) of RSHA.

3. Reports indicate that DAEUMLING arrived in Egypt in 1954, as Intelligence Advisor to the Directory of Military Intelligence, Egyptian Army. Curiously, both DAEUMLING and the Egyptians took the utmost precaution to keep his arrival secret. ~~Indefinite~~ So great was DAEUMLING's desire for caution, (according to a report from a usually reliable source whose information is possibly true) that

NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT

Declassified and Approved for Release
by the Central Intelligence Agency
Date: 2001, 2005

instead of flying directly to Egypt from Germany, DAEUMLING traveled to Zurich by train, and took a plane to Egypt from there. Throughout this trip, according to source, DAEUMLING went to great pains to keep his name from becoming known to any travel agency, ticket office, or hotel management. His alleged reason for this was that he wished to avoid the attention of British occupation authorities in Germany.

JX 5711
4. Reports further indicated that DAEUMLING, who was brought to Egypt by Wilhelm VOSS, head of the German Advisory Group, <sup>To succeed Ernst ZOLLING as Intell. Advisor to Egyptians</sup> differed from his predecessor

EGP-27 experts in that he, DAEUMLING was active in the collection and evaluation of information, whereas his predecessors' functions were ~~primarily~~ confined to an advisory or organization and training capacity.

b. DAEUMLING was reported <sup>source whose reliability cannot be judged, probably true -</sup> as having no contact with the remaining German Experts in Egypt (General FARBACHER Group). His activities were severed from EGP-27 this group and kept secret. In his efforts to camouflage his real activities, DAEUMLING was reported on different occasions to have mentioned that he was doing statistical work at the Ministry of Health, or that he worked for the Ministry of Social Affairs.

c. A report dated October 1954, from a usually reliable source whose information is possibly true, indicated that after his arrival in Egypt, DAEUMLING concerned himself with the interpretation of International law, and translations. But

~~(S-255)~~ <sup>IT WAS ASSUMED</sup> according to Source, DAEUMLING had in the meantime stated his real job, i.e.

JX-6265
the organization of intelligence and a central security agency similar to his former German organization.

7. A report dated July 1954, from a usually reliable source suggests the ~~belief~~ possibility that DAEUMLING would not be able to complete his assignment in Egypt alone, and was expected to call upon his friend from the RSHA, Dr.

JX-6019
HUPPENKOTEN* for official or unofficial assistance from either HUPPENKOTER himself or one of his former staff members. (NOTE* HUPPENKOTEN may be identifiable with Dr. Walter HUPPENKOTEN @HUPPENKOTERN, born 31/12/07 head of Amt VI-foreign espionage and sabotage branch of RSHA- in the summer of 1943; Appointed head of

Stuf 20/4/38; in SD December 1938. promoted Stubai 9/11/38. posted to RSHA

June 1943.

c. ~~Finally, as a point of possible interest,~~ DAEUMLING's contract in Egypt was to run for three years. His address was given as 6a Sharia Sultan Selim-Heliopolis.

9. Daeumling's name was mentioned in Yugoslav Black Book (March 1954) as being an SS man, State Prosecutor and having been in OS, etc during WWII

Practiced law and joined SIPO only a few years ago. Promoted to O.c. Abteilung IV D2 in RSHA (Section of STAPC dealing with SIPO in General gouvernement). Was removed from office in the Spring of 1943, probably because of his share in negotiations with Polish leaders, and transferred to a SIPO Einsatzkommando near Esseg, Croatia. Merz states that Deumling is only a luke warm Nazi.  Merz served under him in IV D 2 from Jan -May 42 and continued to collaborate with him until beginning 1943. (4, pp. 7-8 paras 26-33;6, paras 49-51). On 3 July 43 Merz and Dr. Grad stopped for a few hours in Zagreb (Agram), on their way to Athens and hoped to see Dr. Deumling, but were informed that he had been posted to an Einsatzkommando further inland, at Esseg. ..... THIS IS ALL OF THE INFORMATION PERTINENT TO THE SUBJECT IN THIS DOCUMENT  TAKEN VERBATIM.

Q. ACTIVITIES AND ORGANISATION OF SIPO -

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

(See S.I.M.E. Report No.7, Chapter L)

309. MERZ's Last Mission as Illustration of Close Co-operation Between AMT VI and Ministry of Foreign Affairs:

MERZ has given a further illustration of this team-work which seems to result in an internecine test of strength between Auswärtiges Amt (Foreign Ministry) and AMT VI (Foreign Espionage, RSHA) on the one hand, and HIMMLER and AMT IV (STAPO, RSHA) on the other. MERZ was asked to undertake his first and last mission for AMT VI as an indirect result of the agreement between the Foreign Ministry and AMT VI to win the Poles over to the German cause. Auswärtiges Amt decided that a new policy, contrary to HIMMLER's, was necessary to achieve this end. This change of attitude towards the Poles had become imperative in view of the completely different political situation in which Germany found herself in the spring of 1943, as a result of serious reverses in RUSSIA. The Foreign Ministry asked AMT VI, its chief contact in RSHA, to ascertain the sentiment among the Poles not only in POLAND but also abroad. (See Note below.) Above all, AMT VI was to obtain precise information on the reaction of Poles abroad to the steady advance of the Russian armies towards POLAND. AMT VI was to enquire what demands the Poles would make of the Germans in return for making common cause with them. MEHRING, therefore, suggested his friend MERZ to AMT VI, as he was familiar with Polish problems and could help to obtain the information.

(Note by I.O.: MERZ did not speak of other missions on this subject nor did he ever link them with his own. He has, however, frequently mentioned the proposed despatch of SIPO agents, mostly POLES, to other countries abroad with the mission to contact Polish groups. (MAJCHRZAK to LISBON or LONDON, SENDEK and GEBAUER, and one or two WARSAW JEWS to LONDON, another WARSAW JEW to U.S.A., via SWITZERLAND - SIME Report No.6 para.61.)

The GRAND MUFTI, AMT VI, and IRAQ-IRAN.

(SIME Report No.7, para.202, AMT VI, Referat Naherer-Osten - Near O.C. Dr. GRAVE or GRUPE.)

While in BERLIN, in autumn 1943; GRAND MUFTI was collaborating with this bureau.

candidates as agents, that these people received special training and were then flown to IRAQ or PERSIA. MERZ heard that a short time before he arrived back in BERLIN, a group of four AMT VI agents had been transported to PERSIA with the mission to blow up a large railway tunnel and thus to interrupt the flow of war materials to RUSSIA by this route. MERZ was unable to state exactly which tunnel was meant but it was supposed to be at a bottle-neck and the only tunnel which, if blown up, would effectively stop traffic for a considerable period.

(Note by I.C.: MERZ volunteered this information. He had not been given any hint that the British knew of the existence of such AMT VI missions. His statement probably refers to "FRANZ" Expedition which joined FRANZ MAYR in TEHRAN. This party consisted of six men, four so-called "SD" agents (one of them definitely a former SS officer) and two ABWEHR men. This group arrived in PERSIA in April 1943. It is interesting to note that in AMT VI there seems to have been no mention of ABWEHR collaboration, whereas at ABW so-called SD partnership in this mission was well-known, according to Lt. (ex-Major) MÜLLER.)

311. Croatian Mohamedans for M.E.
(Report No.7, para.202, Referat Häherer Osten.)

In October 1943, <sup>Herbert</sup> EILITZ, of Amt VII, Near East Division, told his friend MERZ conversationally, that his Referat would soon send some Mohamedans from CROATIA to M.E., as their agents. MERZ knows no further details about this planned mission.

312. BEST-STEVENSON.

According to MEHRING and EILITZ of AMT VI, SCHELLENBERG, now Amtschef VI, was the German who planned and executed the BEST-STEVENSON coup. MERZ has heard that these two British officers are now confined to H.Q. AMT VI (STAPO), in Prinz Albrechtstrasse 8, BERLIN.

313. Amtschesf III.

MERZ now recalls that SS. Brigadeführer OHLENDORF is C.O. Amt III (SD).

314. Location of Mercy Section of STAPO (Amt IV A 4).

Prinz Albrechtstrasse 8, BERLIN, (STAPO Building), Third Floor Back, overlooking gardens back of No.8 and No.9. MERZ worked in this section for a few weeks in February 1942.

315. STAPO Interrogation.

He disclaimed any knowledge of a separate STAPO (Amt IV) Interrogation Section. He had himself only helped with interrogation of a few Poles in SIP Aussenstelle, KIELCE, in 1940/41. He has heard, however, that foreign agents are normally interrogated at the STAPO Leitstelle nearest to the place of capture. Important agents are sent to STAPO H.Q., Prinz Albrechtstrasse 8 and presumably housed in the basement, like BEST and STEVENSON. No-one below the rank of Kriminal-Kommissar is allowed to interrogate them.

316. MERZ maintains that high-class agents or suspects are well treated. He cited as an example ROWECKI who, according to SPILKER, was destined for AMT IV. "It would have been folly to mete out severe treatment to one who might be useful to the Germans". (6, para 56). Hence the word "Hausarrest" (open arrest) is applied to the confinement of "guests" at AMT IV.

317. From the third floor of Albrechtstrasse 8 (See para.313), MERZ caught occasional glimpses of guests being exercised in the back garden of Albrechtstrasse 9, the grounds of which are out of bounds to all officials of SIPO except those directly concerned with the "guests", who are all in mufti. MERZ heard only the names of ROWECKI, BEST and STEVENS mentioned. He does not think that he ever saw them.

318. Sections of Referat IV E, RSHA (See 7, para 190.).

MERZ has refreshed his memory on the Counter-Espionage Division of AMT IV (STAPO). There are at least five sections in it. IV E 1 is probably the section for English-speaking countries (Great Britain, U.S.A., Canada, etc.), and is called Abteilung WEST. MERZ knows nothing about Abt. 2, 3, 4. Kriminalrat SCHMITZ is probably in Abteilung 5, also called Abt. SÜDEN (Spain, Portugal, possibly also South America.)

319. AMT VI, Berkaerstrasse, GRUNEWALD. Dr. GRÄVE (GRÄFE ?).

C.O. Referat Näherer Osten (Near East Division), R.S.H.A., and Kriminal Kommissar EILITZ of the same division, have offices on the first floor (Hochparterre) of H.Q. AMT VI in Berkaerstrasse. MEHRING is in Abteilung WIRTSCHAFT of AMT VI, having been transferred there from the HOLLAND section of Referat A (?), WESTEUROPA (?). MEHRING's office (Wirtschaft) is on the floor above Dr. GRÄVE's, i.e. on the second floor.

320. Agents of AMT IV (see 7, end of para.167).

HALMERSEGGER is I C of all AMT IV agents, i.e. of undercover-men, penetration agents, informers, agents-provocateurs, etc., in the Reich, and in occupied territory under German civil administration. The technical team in SIPO for these agents is VERTRAUENSLEUTE (confidence men).

321. All reports from these men eventually reach HALMERSEGGER, those from agents in occupied territory via IV D.

322. In Report No.7, para.167, HALMERSEGGER's location was wrongly stated due to a misinterpretation of the ambiguous German phrase "Er sitzt gegenüber dem MÜLLER" (He sits opposite MÜLLER). In fact, his office is on the same floor as MÜLLER's, across the hall.

323. MERZ derived his knowledge of HALMERSEGGER from conversations with ECKERLE, C.O. Mercy Section, AMT IV.

324. Q.M. Stores - Clothing, SIPO.

Another source had stated that STAPO had an office for surveillance of foreign workers at Burgstr.28, BERLIN, under Kriminalrat MAURER. MERZ was asked why he had not mentioned Burgstrasse 28. He replied that he had considered it of no interest to us, as it was the place where SIPO uniforms are issued (KLEIDERKAMMER der SIPO). He had not heard of a section for the surveillance of foreign workers, nor of Kriminalrat MAURER.

325. SD (AMT III) in Occupied Territory.

In the Generalgouvernement and probably in all other occupied territories under German civil administration, SD sections of SIPO deal only with investigation of various matters, as described in 7, para.166. SD has no executive functions, contrary to recent reports from other sources. MERZ is certain of this.

326. Stay Behind Organisations.

MERZ knows of none in POLAND. In Greece no real preparations have been made by the Germans as far as he knows. In Summer 1943, the Italians were still in charge of such matters and MERZ assumes, from what he has heard, that they have told us about any preparations made by them. German-controlled Stay-Behind Groups would, in MERZ's opinion, be organised by AMT IV (STAPO), not by any other Amt.

327. Capture of Anglo-Italo-Hellenic Military Mission to Communist Andartes.

HÖSSELBARTH told MERZ that in case of an impending British invasion of Greece the Germans would not bother about the Greek Communists as they felt that the British would have the same difficulties with them as the Germans. As illustration he related the following to MERZ:

328. In September (?) 1943, when the British occupied some of the Dodecanese Islands, they heard that on one which they had not yet reached (MERZ does not remember the name of this island) the Communist Andartes had disarmed the Italian garrison. The British sent a W/T message (intercepted by the Germans!) to the Communists asking them to re-arm the Italians who would make common cause with them. The Andartes replied that they considered all Italians enemies of the Greeks and refused restitution of arms to them. Thereupon a military commission, consisting of a British Lt.-General, an Italian Colonel and a Greek Captain, was sent to the island. The Andartes refused to negotiate with this commission which therefore tried to return to its base. The three officers were captured by an Italian officer in an Italian S-boat (Schnellboot) were presumably taken to some port in Greece and were handed over to the Germans.

(Note by I.O.: This story has a foundation of truth and is inserted here merely to illustrate in what garbled form MERZ has presented it. On the other hand it also shows that the German W/T interception is quite efficient and that the original version of the story was probably uncomfortably accurate.)

R. UNCLASSIFIED INFORMATION.

(a) GERMANY.

329. First Open Criticism of NAZIS. (See SIME Report No.5, p.3, 30 or 31 July, 1943.)

After a severe air-raid MERZ tried to reach his family in HAMBURG but was unable to go further than LÜNEBURG because train services were interrupted. All stations in the neighbourhood of HAMBURG were crowded with refugees from the stricken city and for the first time MERZ heard them curse the Nazi Government openly without any interference on the part of Nazi officials.

330. Russian Penetration of German Air Ministry.

MERZ does not know of any penetration of SIPO by RUSSIA or any other country. There was, however, a sensational discovery of Russian intrigue in the Luftfahrtsministerium, late in 1942 or early in 1943. In SIPO circles the following version of the story was current:

331. The Russians had dropped many parachutists somewhere in Germany. On one, who was captured, was found an "Abrechnung" (statement of expenditures) for a Staatssekretär (Secretary of State) of the Air Ministry. This led to the discovery that a number of officials in this ministry, including some senior officers, were in the pay of MOSCOW. Many arrests were made.

332. Issue of German Passports.

They are issued by the Chief of Police (Polizeipräsident) of the provincial capital nearest to applicant's domicile. MERZ pointed out that a bad mistake had been made in his case by AMT VI who had his passport made out by the Polizeipräsident of BERLIN but gave his domicile as HAMBURG. MERZ thought that we had noticed this error.

333. MERZ believes that a series of numbers are generally reserved for AMT VI passports. His number is 07556843, and is dated 28th June 1943. Passports with similar numbers issued about the same time are probably reserved for AMT VI.

334. FORSTSCHÜTZ (Forest Guards). (See also Report No. 7, para. 14.7)

This near-police force is one of the few, if not the only, remaining outside the HIMMLER Machine. As the Forstschutz is connected with hunting, it continues to enjoy the protection of GÖRING, the Nazi patron-saint of Teuton forests and fauna.

335. GÖRING-GÖBBELS.

When GÖRING visited HAMBURG after a heavy bombardment he was booed and hissed by the fringe population.

336. A definite date has been set for the end of the war by a German wag. "Wenn der Anzug vom GÖBBEL zum GÖRING passt, dann ist der Krieg zu Ende." (When GÖBBELS' suit fits GÖRING, the war is over).

(r) POLAND.

337. British and Polish Officers near CRACOW.

ANDRZEJ, late chief of M.i.P., told MERZ that he had seen a Scottish officer (captain?) who was near CRACOW. This officer and three Polish officers had arrived separately in Poland, in the spring of 1943, presumably from England. These officers were to contact Z.w.Z. and were to prepare the Poles for the arrival of parachutists and/or air-borne troops. The Scots officer and the Poles did not meet members of Z.w.Z. possibly because they missed the exact spot for the rendez-vous and therefore contacted M.i.P. ANDRZEJ, as the leader of the secret organisation, met them several times near CRACOW. (MERZ does not remember if he was told the exact place where they are or were) ANDRZEJ was in touch with Germans at the time for grandiose plans for a new Poland (See Report No. 5, para. 33). MERZ thinks it likely that ANDRZEJ informed the Germans of the presence of the Scots officer and his three Polish military collaborators.

338. MERZ added that STEFAN's sister, WLADISLAWA (WALLY) MAJCHRZAK is the only person left now who could contact the Scots and Polish officers. Wally lives in Stefan's house: Goldstrasse 3 (Ulica Zlota 3), KIELCE.

339. Evidence Incriminating MERZ.

MERZ "fears" that SIPO discovered some papers containing his name when they searched GRAD's laboratory in WARSAW after the liquidation of six leaders of M.i.P. Among these documents was a false Polish identity card which GRAD made for MERZ so that, if worst came to worst with AMT IV and SS and Police Courts, MERZ could hide as a Pole in country districts where there is no SIPO or German control of any sort.

340. Rank Badges of Sword and Plough (M.i.P.) (See Report No. 5, para. 32)

All members on active or combatant service wear a white and red armband. On each is the sword-and-plough emblem, gold for officers, silver for N.C.Os., bronze for privates.

341. Z.w.Z., SIPO and ARMY.

According to GRAD, Z.w.Z. prefer to deal with the German Army rather than with SIPO.

342. POLES in SS.

In Spring 1943, for the first time in the Generalgouvernement, Poles were recruited for the German SS, chiefly in the eastern part of GALICIA, called UKR. INLA. MERZ knows no details.

343. Waffen SS and Army (Report No.7, para.258).

MERZ has heard of friction between HIMMLER and senior army officers over the preferential treatment given to Waffen SS, especially in RUSSIA. Waffen SS get better equipment and supplies than their fellow combattants of the Army. The discrepancy is particularly noticeable in FLAK and heavy arty. Waffen SS are repeatedly withdrawn during or after a heavy battle, are given a long rest behind the German lines and are regrouped and refitted, while the army enjoys no respite from fighting.

344. Polish Underground Activities and Espionage Abroad.

From Dr. DEUMLING, former O.C. of Amt IV D 2, MERZ heard that the Polish H.Q. for espionage and underground activities directed against the Germans is in BUDAPEST. Another important centre is said to be BUCHAREST whither many Poles had fled in 1939/40. Polish intelligence works almost exclusively for "England" because funds for Poles come chiefly from that country.

(c) GREECE.

345. MERZ has made several vague references to WANDA's contacts with Polish circles in ATHENS. Whenever pressed for details he claims only to have heard of that from WANDA. On one occasion a Polish priest or clergyman (name unknown) whom WANDA had met through the BARUTIS, was said to have offered help to WANDA if conditions should become intolerable for her in Greece.

(d) YUGOSLAVIA.346. MIHALOVIC.

MERZ was questioned on SIPO activities in YUGOSLAVIA. He disclaimed any first-hand knowledge but admitted that he had been told of negotiations between MIHALOVIC and the Germans by a travelling companion at the beginning of October 1943. This man, Walter WOLF, is an Austrian, has a Polish wife, and is the economic adviser of the German C. in C. at BELGRADE. (For further details see Personalities.) WOLF told MERZ that the Yugoslav Quisling, NEDIC, had had an interview with HITLER and that, since NEDIC's return to YUGOSLAVIA, MIHALOVIC had begun negotiations with him. At the BELGRADE Kommando der WEHRMACHT, WOLF was told that the Germans would likewise try to contact MIHALOVIC.

347. Grouping of Personalities.

- (a) German Agents, mostly of AMT VI.
- (b) SIPO Officials in RSHA, BERLIN.
- (c) SIPO Officials in the Reich, outside RSHA.
- (d) SIPO Officials in POLAND.
- (e) SIPO Officials in various countries.
- (f) SS and Police Leaders in the Reich and in Occupied Territory.
- (g) Germans in POLAND who are not necessarily connected with SIPO.
- (h) POLES who are traitors to their own people, according to MERZ's evidence.
- (i) POLES who, according to MERZ's evidence, are not traitors to their own country but believe in co-operation with Germany, mostly against Russia.

- (j) POLES whose political convictions have not been definitely established by MERZ's evidence.
- (k) Unclassified Germans in ATHENS
- (l) Staffs of ATHENS Espionage Centres. RFD/MIS - Please add
- (m) Greeks. to each name carded
- (n) Personalities in Turkey. 14 cited in interrogation report # 7 of SIFC # H-MS Merz
- (o) Unclassified Personalities.
- (p) Personalities only indirectly connected with MERZ's evidence.

349. Note by I.O.: In this Chapter only MERZ's information is presented. Not all statements can be checked here as many of the names are new to us and must be investigated elsewhere. The material in this paragraph is therefore not to be treated as accurate in all details. Notes based on evidence from other sources have been added only where confirmation or elucidation seems desirable.

350. MERZ is not likely to have given false names or descriptions because he has built up card indexes himself and knows that a check is possible. He admits that he gave a few false names while posing as a Dutchman. He hoped to be released as a friendly neutral, before his lies had been discovered.

(a) GERMAN AGENTS, mostly of AMT VI. PERSONALITIES.

No.1. HÖSSELBARTH
 (Capt. ~~von~~) St
Germany, DOB c. 1904
from Dresden, Germany
occ: Intell. Officer

Hauptsturmführer, Polizeiattaché, ATHENS. Office: 14 Loukou Arno (=Loukianou?), near Embassy. No sign outside indicating house contains office of Polizeiattaché.
 Description: Age: 40/42. Height: 170/172 cm. Build: stout. Head: large. Complexion: dark. Hair: dark brown. Heavy dark eyebrows. Eyes: Dark. Pronounced Saxon dialect in German.
 History and Activities: From Dresden, where he was probably either in STAPO or in SD for a short time. In summer 1942, possibly much earlier, he was appointed Polizeiattaché in ATHENS & now apparently also chief of SIPO (Amt VI) espionage centre in ATHENS. Generally receives agents at his house between 2000 and 2100 hrs. (6, paras.58, 62-64.) MERZ contacted him several times, reported to him progress made in penetration of Greek societies, for transmission to AMT (VI?), BERLIN. Stefan MAJCHERZK also reported to him on arrival in ATHENS, on orders of AMT VI.
 If SIPO is now firmly installed in GREECE, HÖSSELBARTH may either have received a new appointment there or he may have been transferred elsewhere (7, para.213).
 He complained to MERZ that the Greeks seemed no longer very anxious to co-operate with him since they had ceased to believe in a German victory.
 H. told MERZ that RALLIS is one of his good friends in ATHENS. H. knows intimately HAENEL (No.22) and GRAVE or GRUBE (No.32), O.C. Near East Division, Amt VI.

Note: Another source gives us the name of HESSELBARTH, which would be his own Saxon pronunciation for HÖSSELBARTH. (See "pronounced Saxon dialect", above.)

No.2 BAACH or BACH,

SS Hauptsturmführer, reported by another source as ATHENS head of "Amt IV of the S.D." (Gegnerbe-Kämpfungsamt).

MERZ disclaims any knowledge of this man but states that in July/October 1943 he could not have been holding the position as given above for the following reasons: SIPO was not yet installed in ATHENS. Amt IV is not a bureau of S.D. but a bureau of RSHA. S.D. is synonymous with AMT III. If S.D. were represented in ATHENS it would merely have a section as part of the KOMMANDO der SIPO and would administratively be under AMT IV, Referat D.

If BAACH had been in Athens, MERZ would probably have heard of him or met him, as Amt IV were making enquiries about him because of his absence from Germany.

Note by I.O. BAACH's ATHENS address as given by another source is similar to HOSSELBARTH's. BAACH's is said to be No.8 (?) Loukianos Street. MERZ gave HOSSELBARTH's as No.14 "Loukou Arno". MERZ is not always accurate in the pronunciation or spelling of names.

The description of BAACH is not the same as that of HOSSELBARTH, but there are two similarities: Both are stout and approximately of the same height.

No.3 STEINBERG, Karl

SIPO AMT VI Agent, now resident in ATHENS.

Description: Age: Approx. 35. Height: 170/72 cm. Build: fairly stout. Complexion: fair. Hair: blond. Eyes: blue. Thick lips. Speaks Greek but not fluently. History and Activities: According to TAPFENBECK, STEINBERG had been an agent of AMT VI in ISTANBUL but had to leave Turkey because he had attracted attention. Amt VI transferred him to ATHENS; where he established himself as a "merchant". He seems to confine himself to espionage or counter-espionage on a high level, but only inside Greece. MERZ met him several times at the Hotel ATHEN where both were staying. When MERZ went to Turkey, he left his W/T receiving set with STEINBERG. MAJCHRZAK had brought it from AMT VI.

On one occasion STEINBERG told MERZ that he had been asked to meet General ZERVAS, a Greek Nationalist leader, at the house of ex-Prime Minister LOGOTHETOPoulos, a Greek Quisling. ZERVAS wanted German help against the guerrillas of E.L.A.S. STEINBERG was to carry on preliminary negotiations with ZERVAS. Col. SARAPHIS and possibly Michael THEMILIS were also to be present at the first meeting. MERZ believes that negotiations were broken off, as S. was evasive on subsequent days and seemed to imply that no agreement had been reached (6, para 64 (f)).

Note by I.O.: MERZ volunteered names of German agents and facts about them voluntarily. At least two of them have been checked and found more or less correct. STEINBERG's existence was unknown to I.O. at the time of interrogation. Records prove that he was suspected of being an agent in ISTANBUL, but our information was incomplete as it stopped in March 1942. MERZ's version of negotiations with ZERVAS may be given more credence if it is pointed out

*cit Germany No. 2, 1909
occ. Intelligence Agent*

Reported by a source SIPO Amt VI - transferred in Istanbul, Turkey

that MERZ was not asked for names of any specific agent in ATHENS but of those of any he knew. He was not told which names we knew or what facts, if any, were in our possession. The interrogation having reached an acute state at the time, I.O. thinks it unlikely that MERZ would have risked a lie, for fear of detection. If his report of the meeting between STEINBERG and ZERVAS is incorrect, it would have to be an invention of STEINBERG. On the other hand Michael THEMILIS, an arch-schemer, confirmed this meeting.

No. 4 TAPPENBECK, Bruno. Dutchman. Agent of Amt VI.

Description: Age: 34/36. Height: 180 cm. Build: muscular. Hair: blond, receding. Complexion: ruddy. Eyes: Blue. Languages: Seven, including Dutch, German, English, French, Arabic.

History & Activities: Said to be the son of a Dutch hotel owner. For several years before the war he had been a merchant in M.E., especially in CAIRO. According to MERZ he is "a typical cosmopolitan polyglot" whose one aim is to avoid trouble and go through the war without any physical or financial discomfort to himself. He has become an agent for Amt VI, but does not seem to be engaged in active field work. As he had many connections in M.E. he was to recruit agents for Amt VI. MERZ met him several times in the WINTERGARTEN, an ATHENS cabaret or bar which is out of bounds to German troops. (6, para.64 (b)). According to HOSSELBARTH he had been inefficient in ATHENS, due to innate laziness, and was to be transferred to Amt VI in BERLIN, for a spell of office work, in the hope of getting straightened out. MERZ was under the impression that TAPPENBECK would go over to the other side at the first opportunity. Tappenbeck told MERZ that the REICHSBAHNVERKEHRSZENTRALE in Athens is the reporting centre (Anlaufestelle) for agents of Amt VI. (6, para.63.)

Handwritten: No. 4 Netherlands
occ: Intrec. Agent

No. 5 "KOKINOS" possibly

Pseudonym or nick-name. Real name unknown. A Greek agent of Amt VI, employed by HOSSELBARTH. The Polizei-attaché told MERZ in Sept. 1943 that "KOKINOS" would soon be sent to M.E. Chief of SIF's Amt VI espionage center in Athens, Greece.

Description: Age: 37 approx. Height: 168 cm. Build: stout. Hair: dark, brushed back. Heavy eyebrows. (6, para.64 (d).) occ: Intrec. Agent

Note: Another source gives the name of one Pericles NICOLAIDES, said to be a well-known German agent and tobacco merchant in SALONICA. Description (from this other source): Age: 33. Height: 166 cm. Eyes: big, black, with thick black eye-brows. Build: fat. Hair: black, brushed back. Face: black moustache. The description is almost identical with that of KOKINOS, above. MERZ does not believe that "KOKINOS" wears a moustache.

No. 6 A. "LEVANTINE"

Description: Age: 35 approx. "Unusually fat for a Mediterranean". Hair: black. Good teeth.

History and Activities: Up to September 1943 he had been in the Italian Intelligence Service. MERZ saw him once in HOSSELBARTH's office. As this "Levantine" remained seated MERZ cannot state his height. This former Italian agent was about to be employed by HOSSELBARTH. According to MERZ he is a formidable Handwritten: identical with Pericles Nicolaides reported as well-known G-15 agent and tobacco merchant in Salonica, Greece.

Handwritten: occ: Intrec. Agent linguist. He speaks fluently German (Viennese dialect), Italian, English, Greek, French, Turkish, Arabic. He told jokes and recited poetry in the six languages mentioned above. On that one day, at least, he was very jocular.

No. 7 GREEK COMMUNIST.

Name unknown. (Not personally known to MERZ.)

HÖSSELBARTH told MERZ that one of his Greek agents was a worker in a factory. This man is a communist but does not at present belong to any particular political organization. According to HÖSSELBARTH he had named to him all active communists whom he had known while a member of their party. He is said to have been a student at the Senior School for Politics in MOSCOW.

No. 8 KIRSTEN or KIRSTNER.

Possibly part-time agent, employed by HÖSSELBARTH. <sup>Chief SIPO AMT VI 455, Postage center in Athens, Greece</sup>
 Description: Age: 40/50. Height: 180 cm. approx.
 Build: stout. Hair: grey.

History & Activities: MERZ met him once only, in the office of the Polizeiatteche. He is a good friend of HÖSSELBARTH. His official occupation is that of writer of political articles for "Deutsche Zeitung für Griechenland". Expert on M.E. where he has lived for many years. <sup>Middle East</sup>

No. 9 "POLLY".

Nick-name used by HÖSSELBARTH. (MERZ has forgotten real name.) Viennese friend of the Polizeiatteche. Has lived in ATHENS for many years. MERZ met him only once and does not know any other details, but is under the impression that he is at least a part-time agent of the Polizeiatteche.

No. 10 FIRST WARSAW JEW.

Name unknown. SIPO agent.

Description: Age: 30/32. Height: 170 cm. approx. Build: Slender. Hair: black, brushed back. Straight nose. General appearance not Jewish but Italian or Spanish.

History & Activities. Recruited for work abroad in Summer 1943 by SPILKER and an Obersturmführer of AMT VI who had come to WARSAW. This Jew was given a large sum of dollars and was to go via Switzerland to the U.S.A. to contact Polish groups there. MERZ saw him once at the Sonderkommando, WARSAW.

No. 11 SECOND WARSAW JEW.

Name unknown. SIPO agent.

Age: 40 approx. Height: 165 cm. approx. Very large head, very short neck. Looks like gnome. Special feature: numerous gold teeth.

History & Activities. In touch with DELEGATURA possibly a member of it. Had been SPILKER's agent in Communist circles, with another Jew (No. 12). Wounded in two or three places in a communist fray, Summer (?) 1943. In October 1943, when MERZ saw him last, he was still carrying his right arm in a sling. He and the other Jew (No. 12) decided to abandon anti-communist work as it was too dangerous. In October 1943 he was about to leave for LONDON, to contact Polish circles there. MERZ saw him once at the Sonderkommando, WARSAW, and several times outside, once as he entered KOZIKOWA 8, which MERZ believes to be his WARSAW address.

No.12 THIRD WARSAW JEW.

(See also No.11).

MERZ never met him but heard of him through SPILKER. Like second Jew, he is said to be in touch with DELEGATURA. He was also due to go to LONDON to contact Polish circles there.

No.13 MOIZYCH, (Karl or similar, typically German name.) Amt VI agent in ANKARA. A German despite his family name.

MERZ never met him but was given this name at Amt VI, for reference only in a real emergency. (6, para.65.) MERZ presumes that MEHRING or some other official of Amt VI notified MOIZYCH of his impending arrival in ANKARA in Oct.1943.

(b) SIPO OFFICIALS IN RSHA, BERLIN. *

No.14 KALTENBRUNNER,

SS. Obergruppenführer und Chef der SIPO. Previously Höherer SS und Polizeiführer in Austria. Promoted to new post soon after HEYDERICH's death. K. is an Austrian. MERZ does not know KALTENBRUNNER personally and has never seen him.

No.15 HEYDRICH,

Late chief of SIPO. * MERZ has mentioned his Gentleman's agreement with ABW (7, para.257).

No.16 SCHULZ,

SS Brigadeführer, Amtschef I and II. (Cumulates two functions.) Description: Age: 42/43. Height: 172 cm. Build: Very stout. Face: fat, flabby. Double chin. Complexion: Ruddy. Hair: Blond. No other details known.

No.17 OHLENDORF

SS Brigadeführer. Amtschef III (SD). No further details known.

Note by I.O. BARTH of Einsatzkommando II, Einsatzgruppe E, states that OHLENDORF was O.C. Einsatzgruppe D in DUBEN, and Russia, that he was promoted Oberführer (=Maj.Gen.) in May/June 42 and returned to BERLIN to take over Amt IV (Wirtschaft) of RSHA, that at SIMFEROPOL he gave orders for the mass massacre of Jews. (Special Report on BARTH, CSDIC/AFHQ/M64/100.)

MERZ could not remember the name of Amtschef III until this one was read out to him with 200 others! MERZ is certain that MÜLLER is Amtschef IV and that OHLENDORF is Chief of SD (Amt III) with a higher rank than BARTH gives him. Amt IV is not Wirtschaft but it contains a section called WIRTSCHAFT. MERZ has never seen OHLENDORF. (7, para.166.)

No.18 MÜLLER

(Unfortunately MERZ does not remember his Christian name or names.) SS Gruppenführer und Amtschef IV.

Description: Age: 46/50. Height: Approx. 168 cm. Build: stocky, short neck. Head: large. Face: thin. Nose: large. Hair: dark-blond or brown.

History & Activities: MÜLLER was in MUNICH Police, was one of early NAZIS, learned to know HEYDRICH and later HIMMLER and, as a result, was quickly promoted. He was made O.C. section of Munich Nazi Bureau dealing with communists (the new equivalent for this section at RSHA is Amt IV A 1). From Munich he was transferred to Berlin and his promotions followed quickly upon every increase in power of HEYDRICH and HIMMLER. For some time he has been Amtschef IV, although he has not the academic qualifications required for such a post. He remains one of HIMMLER's right-hand men and rumour in SIPO has it that MÜLLER hopes to replace KALTENBRUNNER ere long.

M. has had several honourable mentions in this series of reports, especially in connection with the negotiations for an agreement between M.i.P., the Polish secret organisation and SIPO. (5, paras.30 & 31.)

No.19 NEBE.

SS Gruppenführer, Amtschef V. No details known.

No.20 SHELLENBERG.

SS Oberführer, Amtschef VI. MERZ has not met him but has heard that he is fairly young, and that he is a Rhinelander. MERZ was told by his friends MEHRING and ELLITZ, of Amt VI, that SHELLENBERG was responsible for the "BEST-STEVENSON" plan and its execution. (Nos.171 and 172.)

No.21 SIX, Prof. Dr.

SS Standartenführer, Amtschef VII (Weltanschauliche Gegnerforschung.)

No details known.

No.22 DR. HAENEL.

Oberregierungsrat und SS Obersturmbannführer, 2nd I.C. and representative of Amtschef in Amt II. Not known personally to MERZ, but his signature appeared on a written charge brought against MERZ in summer 43. Friend of Polizei-attaché HÖSSELBARTH (No.1).

No.23 TRAUTMANN.

Regierungsrat u SS Sturmbannführer. Probably in Amt II, possibly in Amt I.

Description: Age: 37/39. Build: Slender. Hair: blond.

History & Description: T. is an Austrian. In January 42 MERZ had to appear before him.

In Sep 41, in CRACOW Merz had tried to enlist in the Army, for service on the Russian front. For this unauthorised attempt to quit SIPO he had been admonished by LIPHARD, SIPO Kommandeur, CRACOW. In January 42 MERZ, after a punitive transfer to BERLIN, tried once more to enlist in the army, this time by petitioning to SIPO, but not through his O.C. because he felt he had none at the moment. TRAUTMANN admonished him severely and threatened him with KZ (Konzentrationslager) in case of any further disobedience.

No.32 DR. GRÄVE or GREVE
(= GRÄFE ?)

SS (Ober-?) Sturmabführer. O.C. Referat Näherer Osten. (Near East Division), of Amt VI. (Probably identical with Dr. GRÄFE mentioned by all members of the Persian "FRANZ" party, and also by Franz MAYR as a Nazi official with whom he had trouble years ago in Germany.) MERZ believes that he saw him once in the canteen of Amt IV in BERLIN. He remembers vaguely that (Schmisse GRÄVE had an "academic" duelling scar or scars, but cannot say on which cheek. A few days ago MERZ admitted that it was GRÄVE who authorised the mission to TURKEY, through MERZ's friend, MEHRING. (8, para.299.)

RS HA - Berlin, Germany
Description: Age: 37/38. Height: 174 cm. Build: muscular. Complexion: Olive. Hair: black. Heavy black eyebrows. Dark eyes.

History & Activities: He was, and probably still is, a Social Democrat. He started as a SCHUPO man in AACHEN (AIX-LA-CHAPELLE), in 1942/43. He took the Kommissar course at SIPO School where MERZ became friendly with him, and was posted to Amt VI on 6 Mar 43. MERZ had numerous contacts with him after that date. (Reports 4 - 7.)

History & Activities: Police constable in COLOGNE SCHUPO, (in 1928?). Transferred to COLOGNE STAPO. At SIPO Führerschule, BERLIN, end May 42 to 6 March 43. Promoted Kriminal-Kommissar on latter date and posted to HOLLAND Section Amt VI, probably in Amt VI A (Westeuropa). Soon transferred to Abt. Wirtschaft in Amt VI. MEHRING and MERZ became close friends during Kommissar course and seem to have indulged in mutual backscratching ever since. MERZ claims that his friend is only officially a Nazi, but in reality condemns the system as heartily as MERZ does now! He has taken evening courses in journalism and has tried for some time to resign from SIPO and transfer to some newspaper. As he is engaged in the type of work where release is not easily procured and where liquidation in one form or another is common practice, he has discussed with MERZ the possibility of unauthorised transfer to any neutral country. Although not connected with the Polish section of Amt VI, he recommended MERZ to it in order to effect a release from the Labour "Education" Camp at HAMBURG-NEUHOF in which Description: Age: 42/45. Height: 170 cm. Build: muscular. Face: narrow. Complexion: dark. Hair: black. Eyes: brown.

History & Activities: Born and brought up in STUTTGART, WURTEMBERG. MERZ had no personal connection with him, but saw him a few times in the SIPO canteen at RADOM. BURGER, as SS officer, not as head of local counter-espionage section, conducted the preliminary interrogation of RENATE BALISINSKA, MERZ's Polish girl-friend, in preparation for Merz's trial (No. 117).

where he is said to have been known as a sadist and unscrupulous official. Rumour had it that he was transferred to KIELCE because he maltreated prisoners. MERZ ascribes most of his difficulties in SIPO to this official. THOMAS arrived in KIELCE in 1941 and apparently objected to MERZ whom he suspected of being too ambitious. MERZ went over the head of THOMAS on several occasions when he reported his negotiations with Polish political leaders directly to THOMAS' superiors. THOMAS finally ordered MERZ to refrain from further association with MAJCHRZAK, KOWALSKI and others. When this order was disregarded, THOMAS brought a disciplinary action against MERZ, through AMT II, resulting in the latter's confinement to the Labour Education Camp at HAMBURG-NEUHOF. THOMAS also brought more serious charges against MERZ, in the SS and Police Court at CRACOW. MERZ claims that THOMAS influenced two Polish witnesses, his girl-friend, BALISINSKA (No.117) and KOWALSKI (No.104) both of KIELCE, by threats of internment if they would not testify against MERZ. The trial in the Sondergericht (Special Court) or SS and Police Court at CRACOW, on 12 June 43, seems to have been skilfully managed by MERZ and his benefactor. MAJCHRZAK, for the principal witness, THOMAS, was not present, having been transferred to KATCOWITZ.

At present probably <sup>(LH)</sup> SS Obersturmführer on Russian front.

Description: Age: approx. 40. Height: 170 cm. Build: Slender. Complexion: fair. Hair; blond. Eyes: Blue.

History & Activities: Before the war he was Chief of STAPO, HAMBURG. Promoted Befehlshaber der SIPO, Generalgouvernement (CRACOW), later Amtschef I der SIPO (RSHA), BERLIN. After HEYDRICH'S death he was also acting Chief der SIPO, for a short period. HIMMLER took a sudden dislike to him and sent him to the Russian front as lieutenant.

No. 68 ~~(DR.) SCHEFE, or SCHÄPE~~ <sup>Commander of</sup> SS. Oberführer, Befehlshaber der SIPO in BELGRADE. No details known.

No. 70 ~~HOFFMANN~~ <sup>(German)</sup> Polizeiattaché, SOFIA. Regierungsrat.

Description: Age: 37/39. Height: approx. 180 cm. Build: Muscular. Complexion: pink. According to MERZ he must have a university background, for his face is lined with "akademische Schmissen" (Academic scars, result of fencing).

History & Activities: MERZ met him in October 43. M. was to go to Turkey from Athens, but was stopped in SOFIA, by HOFFMANN, and had to return to BERLIN. (5, p.5, 29 Sep 43, and p.6 5 Oct 43.)

No. 71 ~~WINTZER~~ <sup>(Kriminalrat)</sup> <sup>(Criminal Councillor)</sup> Probably Polizeiattaché in MADRID. Previously AMT IV, A 1 or 2 (STAPO Section for Communism or Marxism), which he had left before MERZ was employed in Amt IV, RSHA, in Jan 42.

No. 72 ~~MEISSINGER~~ <sup>(SS)</sup> SS Standartenführer. Probably Polizeiattaché in JAPAN. Previously SIPO Kommandeur in WARSAW. SPILKER told MERZ that MEISSINGER went to JAPAN late in 1940 or early in 1941.

No. 73 ~~(DR.) DEUMLING~~ <sup>(Regierungsrat)</sup> <sup>(State Councillor)</sup> Regierungsrat und SS Sturmbannführer. SIPO Einsatzkommando, YUGOSLAVIA.

Description: Age: 35. Height: 182/184 cm. Build: Very slender. Hair: Blond. Very thin face, protruding teeth.

History & Activities: D. took his doctor's degree in law. Practised law and joined SIPO only a few years ago. Promoted to O.C. Abteilung IV D 2 in RSHA (Section of STAPO dealing with SIPO in Generalgouvernement). Was removed from office in the spring of 1943, probably because of his share in negotiations with Polish leaders, and transferred to a SIPO Einsatzkommando near ESSEG, CROATIA. MERZ states that DEUMLING is only a lukewarm Nazi.

MERZ served under him in IV D 2 from Jan - May 42, and continued to collaborate with him until beg. 43. (4, pp.7-8; 5, paras.26-33; 6, paras. 49-51.) On 3 July 43 MERZ and Dr. GRAD stopped for a few hours in ZAGREB (AGRAM), on their way to ATHENS, and hoped to see Dr. DEUMLING, but were informed that he had been posted to an Einsatzkommando further inland, at ESSEG.

No. 74 ~~FRICK, Erich~~ <sup>(Kriminal-Kommissar)</sup> <sup>(2nd Lt (SS)?)</sup> (Kriminal-Kommissar and, probably SS Untersturmführer. Present whereabouts unknown to MERZ.

Description: Age: 38/40. Height: 173 cm. Build: Slender. Face: lean. Mouth: Very wide; thin lips. Complexion: pale.

History: Took same course at Senior SIPO School as MERZ. Only contacts with him there.

member of SIPO Einsatzkommando in Belgrade, Yugoslavia in April 1943 in CRACOW, which is separate from SS and Police Courts. ZIPPEL therefore appeared in the MERZ case only as a witness against him, not as a State Prosecutor or judge. (SIME Report No.4 p.8, Mar 43.)

No.81 A COLONEL OF FLAK (Name unknown) In WARSAW. Has a young Polish mistress and as he dare not appear with a Polish girl in public, he visits MAJCHRZAK occasionally with his "polnische Braut" (Polish bride) and plays cards. MERZ saw him once in MAJCHRZAK's flat. The Colonel is not engaged in espionage or counter-espionage but merely uses MAJCHRZAK's flat to give his Slav paramour a change of air and faces.

No.82 WEIGELT, Assistant of German Custodian of Enemy Property, WARSAW.
 Description: Age: 38/40. Height: 172/173 cm. Build: incipient enbonpoint. Hair: blond.
 History & Activities: "Volksdeutscher" ("Racial" German), until 1939 Polish citizen, born and brought up in WARSAW, of an old-established WARSAW family of German extraction. Now one of custodians of WARSAW leather industry. Frequent visitor at MAJCHRZAK's where MERZ saw him once or twice. NOT a SIPO agent despite his association with STEFAN.

No.83 HEIN, German, Employee of German Custodian of Enemy Property, WARSAW.
 Description: Age: 40/45. Height: 178 cm. Build: slender. Face: high cheek bones, "typically Polish". Turned-up nose. Hair: dark-blond or brown.
 History & Activities: HEIN was born and brought up in Germany. He has been entrusted with the surveillance of part of the WARSAW leather industry. At the beginning of the war he had held a similar post in KIELCE, where he learned to know Stefan MAJCHRZAK. He is still a regular visitor at the house of this Polish Judas, but MERZ maintains that he is not an agent of SIPO.

No.84 STAAK A 60-year old German, employed by German Custodian of Enemy Property, in charge of banks and other financial institutions at KIELCE. Frequent visitor at MAJCHRZAK's in KIELCE, in 1940/41. MERZ met him there once. STAAK is not employed by SIPO.

Habits: Takes, quick, short steps.

History & Activities: MAJCHRZAK was born and grew up in POSEN (POZNAN) where he claims to have studied philosophy, at the University, and to have been a member of the Theosophic Society. His mother and sister are said to be still in POSEN. He soon became a communist leader and spent altogether nine years in various prisons for his political activities. In 1932 he was condemned to 12 years of penal servitude. He was set free from KIELCE prison by fellow Poles just before the Germans entered the town. Stefan tried to reach the Russian lines and rejoin his wife and child who had lived in MOSCOW during his incarceration. At LUBLIN he was persuaded by the Polish 10 (=GSI.2 or 3), a captain of the Air Force, to remain in Poland.

He returned to POSEN where he visited his mother. Thence he went to KIELCE early in 1940 and contacted a former prison mate, Bogdan KOWALSI (No.104), who had made the acquaintance of MERZ. The latter found STEFAN suitable employment through JEROMOWICZ (No.103) a Ukrainian who at that time had the monopoly for KIELCE District for buying all food supplies and selling them to civilians and German officials not on army rations. Stefan was made egg-collector. He employed Jewish agents and managed his end of the food monopoly so well that soon he attracted the attention of German officials at RADOM and was granted an independent egg monopoly for KIELCE area (Eierkennzeichenstelle KIELCE). MERZ claims to be ignorant of any arrangements made at that time for MAJCHRZAK's political activities. MERZ admits, however, that Stefan still has this lucrative monopoly although he moved on to higher things at WARSAW soon after this first great success with the Germans. While at KIELCE, MERZ saw MAJCHRZAK very frequently and "was instructed in the ideology, methods and personalities of communism and the Polish communist party".

As far as MERZ knows or will admit, MAJCHRZAK's first job as a SIPO agent was his mission to WARSAW, in Oct 41. MERZ sent him there to enquire of Mrs. ALBRECHT and others what had become of the Colonel (No.105) and why he had failed to keep his appointment with MERZ and other SIPO officials. (4, page 6, Oct.41 and 5, paras.16-17.)

When Stefan moved to WARSAW he became a permanent SIPO informer and agent-provocateur and contributed largely to the penetration of Polish secret organizations. He collaborated with SPILKER, C.O. SIPO Sonderkommando, WARSAW (No.55). For all this work Stefan received no direct pay but a second concession, the yeast monopoly for WARSAW Province. He now owns a yeast factory, the products of which are sold at exorbitant prices on the black market, without interference from the Germans. The distributing centre is in Institute Street, WARSAW. This and the egg monopoly in KIELCE province have made of the ex-communist a wealthy man. Part of his profits go into the party funds of M.i.P., the largest "secret" society in Poland according to MERZ. He did not, however, gain immediate membership of the party. He soon learned to know the leaders of various secret parties, especially of M.i.P. and reported their activities to Sonderkommando SIPO. He also planted various German schemes on the Polish politicians.

Late in 1941 THOMAS, O.C. SIPO KIELCE, forbade MERZ to have any further contacts with STEFAN. As MERZ was dismissed by THOMAS and transferred to BERLIN he disregarded this order.

In April 42 Stefan introduced MERZ to Dr. GRAD. (5, para.26). On his many subsequent visits to WARSAW, MERZ always stayed at Stefan's apartment and was supplied liberally with food and drink to take back to Germany.

Stefan, "as a loyal Pole", acted as WANDA's escort as far as VIENNA, where MERZ took over. Early in Sep 43 Stefan again saw MERZ and WANDA in ATHENS, bringing with him some W/T sets for the Greeks, ostensibly from M.i.P. WARSAW, in reality from Amt VI, SIPO, BERLIN.

He returned to WARSAW and either then or before his trip to ATHENS helped SPILKER to procure evidence against six Polish leaders of M.i.P. MERZ is still very vague about Stefan's share in the liquidation of these Poles. However, when MERZ saw him in WARSAW, on 9/10 Oct 43, MAJCHRZAK told him that he had become a member of M.i.P., having convinced its leaders that he had renounced communism. After the removal of the old M.i.P. leaders, Stefan wavered between two plans: He was going to be or had already become a member of the new triumvirate of M.i.P. and intended to make of it once more the most powerful Polish secret organisation, despite SPILKER's opposition. The other plan was a dash for safety to South America with as much as he could take with him of his profits which he had translated into jewelry and precious stones. This second plan was more likely, as he was to go on a mission to MADRID and/or LISBON for Amt VI, to contact Polish circles there. He tried unsuccessfully to persuade MERZ to accompany him on this journey and thence to South America.

No.86

OLLEK (Aleksander): Pseudonym; real name not known to MERZ. Now the probable chief of M.i.P. MERZ saw him only a few times, at night, and cannot give an accurate description.

Approximate description: Age: 30/37. Height: 176/178 cm. Build: Slender. Hair: dark-blond. Face: prominent features.

History & Activities: According to WANDA, the son of a Polish general. Said to have been a communist and spent 2 years in RUSSIA. After his return to POLAND he became a Polish Nationalist, joined M.i.P. and soon rose to high rank in the party. MERZ does not think it impossible that OLLEK and MAJCHRZAK to this day collaborate on communist lines.

OLLEK played a leading role in the liquidation of six members of the M.I.P. directorate in Sep 43. According to MERZ, he was persuaded by SPILKER to obtain from the DELEGATURA the official Polish sanction for the murder of these six politicians, including ANDRZEJ, the chief, and DR. GRAD who had been in ATHENS with MERZ on an Amt VI mission but a few weeks previously.

OLLEK is supposed to have succeeded as chief of M.i.P. the very man whose murder he instigated.

No. 87 ANTEK,

Pseudonym, real name unknown to MERZ. Now probably one of the triumvirate of M.i.P., with OLLEK and STEFAN (MAJCHRZAK).

Accurate description unobtainable, as MERZ saw him and OLLEK only a few times, at night.

Approximate description: Age: Approx. 35/37. Height: 176/78 cm. Build: Slender. Face: Oval.

History & Activities: Said to have grown up in U.S.A. and to have taken a degree in engineering at an American University. Became a leading member of M.i.P. and recently chief of M.i.P. in the Wojewodztwo (county) of KIELCE. Just before or just after the "coup de SIPO" he went to WARSAW and took over the leadership of M.i.P. with OLLEK and MAJCHRZAK. MERZ does not know if he was directly connected with the murder of his chiefs.

No. 88 SENDEK (Polish spelling: SEDEK), styled double agent, by MERZ. Noq employed by Amt VI. (Main facts in signal to LONDON, 21 Dec. 43.)

Description: Age: 24/25. Height: 168/170 cm. Build: Slender. Hair: Reddish-blond, receding, brushed back. Big moustache. Good teeth. Complexion Fair. Wears spectacles.

History & Activities: Born (?) in KIELCE. His parents still live there, in Ulica ZLOTA. Before the war, SENDEK was a student at WARSAW University. In spring 43 he was recruited as an Amt VI agent for work abroad, by SPILKER and an Obersturmführer of Amt VI. Member of ONR in which his two brothers are also said to have important posts. In Oct 43 MERZ heard in WARSAW that SENDEK was to go via STOCKHOLM to LONDON, ostensibly as a member of ONR or DELEGATURA, in reality as an agent of Amt VI, reported as merz.

No. 89 GEBAUER, Herbert. Born in LODZ, Poland. Pole, of German extraction. (Main facts in signal to LONDON, 21 Dec. 43.)

Description: Age: Approx. 26. Height: 168/170 cm. Build: Slender. Hair: blond. Eyes: blue? Complexion: Fair. Good teeth. Talks fast, possibly with slight stammer. Pronounced Polish accent in German. Languages: Perfect Polish and Polish-German.

History & Activities: He was born a Russian subject, at the age of one became a Pole, and served in Polish Army, being promoted cadet-officer (Fähnrich) in cavalry. Upon annexation of LODZ (=LITZMANNSTADT!) Gebauer, who had been classified as Volksdeutscher, became a German citizen. Appointed to RADOM SIPO as interpreter. Also employed as informer by SPILKER at whose office he reported frequently and where MERZ talked to him two or three times. GEBAUER seemed to use to good advantage the connections he had established whilst in the Polish Army, especially with members of Z.w.Z. and O.N.R.

In Oct 43 MERZ was informed, in WARSAW, that GEBAUER would accompany SENDEK to LONDON, as a Polish officer. Pseudonym, if any, not known.

No. 90 STROEHM, Interpreter in SIPO Aussenstelle, KIELCE. Poland

Description: Age: 37. Height: 170 cm. Build: Slender. Face: narrow. Complexion: dark. Hair: dark brown, greying. Heavy eyebrows. Dark eyes.

History & Activities: STROEHM is a Volksdeutscher ("Racial" German), probably born and brought up in KIELCE. He was a Polish citizen until the German conquest. He assisted MERZ several times in 1940/42 especially at the conferences with WITOLD and "Victor" of ONR, at end Dec. 41 and early Jan 42.

No. 91 BIGIOSINSKI, Jan.

SIPO agent, now probably in LODZ.

Description: Age: Approx 40. Height: 169/170 cm. Build: fairly stocky, appearance muscle-bound. Complexion: dark. Eyes: dark. Hair: dark blonde, or light brown.

History & Activities: BIGIOSINSKI started his SIPO career as "penetration" agent in Z.w.Z., for Kriminalrat FUCHS, (No. 60) O.C. Section for Polish Secret Organizations, SIPO Kommando, RADOM.

At the beginning of 1943 ANDRZEJ, late chief of M.i.P., told MERZ in WARSAW that BIGIOSINSKI was a member of M.i.P.; and that he (ANDRZEJ) had discovered that B. was employed by RADOM SIPO. MERZ was requested to drop a hint to FUCHS to have B. transferred elsewhere, for if he remained in M.i.P., ANDRZEJ would have B. "put out of the way." (A. wollte ihn "umlegen" lassen.). Thereupon FUCHS transferred B. to LODZ. MERZ believes that he continues to be a SIPO agent.

No. 92 LISOWSKI (or similar name).

Pole, resident in <sup>Poland</sup> KIELCE, in Schlosstrasse, or Ulica Zamkowa in one of the few private houses in that street.) Agent of SIPO Aussenstelle, KIELCE.

Description: Age: 28/30. Height: 170 cm. Build: emaciated. Long face. Turned-up nose. Hair: blond. Eyes: Blue?

History & Activities: Born and brought up in KIELCE. Definitely from 1940 to 42; possibly still, a SIPO "penetration" agent in S.N. (Stronnictwo Narodowe, National Party) in KIELCE. Sometime after MERZ's final departure from KIELCE (Jan 42), he heard that S.N. had discovered LISOWSKI's connection with SIPO and had made an unsuccessful attempt on his life. Despite this he has remained in KIELCE.

No. 93 CZOK,

Interpreter and Interrogator, SIPO Aussenstelle, KIELCE.

No. 94 THOMALA,

Interpreter and Interrogator, SIPO, KIELCE.

(i) POLES WHO, ACCORDING TO MERZ'S EVIDENCE, ARE NOT TRAITORS TO THEIR OWN COUNTRY, BUT BELIEVE IN CO-OPERATION WITH GERMANY, MOSTLY AGAINST RUSSIA.

No. 95 JOZEF CZYKOWNA (?) MARIA, alias WANDA, alias MARGARETHE HORBACH, alias WANDA WANKOWICZ.

Wife of Col. (or Major?) JOZEF CZYKOW of the Polish Forces in M.E. (JOZEF CZYKOWNA is the spelling which MERZ has finally settled on, after many changes.)

Description: Age: said to be 34/35, looks more like 40. Build: slender, emaciated; her back is bent. Face: very long. Teeth: bad. Complexion: fair. Hair: blond. Eyes: Blue.

Languages: Polish and French.

Interrogated
 Member of Z w Z, secret political organization by Z w Z as an informant & penetration agent of M. & R. Later joined NIP & sent by others to M.E. as cover name being given to M.E. by Hans Meyer, SIPO Agent History & Activities: 1939 - early (?) 41, worked in LEMBERG (LWOW- Branch of Z.w.Z. Early 41 transferred to H.Q. Z.w.Z. in WARSAW, as O.C. Section V (Courier System inside Poland), under General TOKARZEWSKI, first chief of Z.w.Z. (No.108) Late 41 her only child, a 12 year old daughter died (in Russia?).

Z.w.Z. sent WANDA to H.Q. M.i.P. WARSAW, as "Kontakt", ie. informer or penetration agent. (See also No.99) She was won over to M.i.P. cause and became O.C. Courier Section of this organisation.

In July 43 Dr. GRAD of M.i.P. (No.97) decided to send her to General ANDERS as courier. She was chosen for this mission because of her connections at Polish H.Q., M.E. and because of her unquestioned patriotism and loyalty to M.i.P. She received a German passport in the name of Margarethe HORBACH, Volksdeutsche (Racial German) of CRACOW, although she does not speak German. On 16/17 Aug 43 she went by train to VIENNA, accompanied by Stefan MAJCHERZAK, and on 18 Aug 43 travelled by air to ATHENS with MERZ, whom she knew as a Dutchman, Jan van der LINDE or JANEK, a man working for the liberation of POLAND.

In ATHENS she spent the first few nights with Jewish neighbours of the BARUTIS (Nos.146-147) later changing over to other addresses, the last known residence being at the house of a Russian emigre woman (name unknown) at NIGITARA 12 B, near OMONIA Square, ATHENS. (In MERZ's possession was found a key which he claims to fit the front entrance door of that house.)

In WARSAW, WANDA had been given verbal instructions which she was to transmit to General ANDERS in person, and also numerous letters and documents for Polish H.Q., M.E. Chief among these documents was the code, with instructions, which was to be used in secret W/T communications between Polish H.Q., M.E. and H.Q., M.i.P. WARSAW. After delivery of these documents and verbal instructions to Polish H.Q., M.E. WANDA was to return to ATHENS with General ANDERS' verbal and/or written reply and Dr. GRAD was to contact her there.

Due to endless delays and finally the inability of Greeks to send her to M.E., WANDA handed letters and a copy of W/T code to MERZ for delivery in ANKARA to her cousin and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. KROTKIEWSKI. MERZ was to return to ATHENS after 10/12 days. The fate of WANDA remains uncertain. MERZ still denies that she was to be liquidated by the Germans or others. She was almost penniless at the time of his departure from ATHENS, on 5 Oct 43, and she had very little clothing. She had made friends with Mrs. BARUTI, a White Russian emigre, and a Polish priest, whom she had met in ATHENS, was also to look after her.

(See also 5, pp.3-6;; p.8; p.10 para.5; p.11 para.9. Report 6, paras.67, 68, 70, 71, 70,- 86, 90 - 92, 94 - 102.)

In a long letter to her husband WANDA gives her WARSAW name and address as:

Wanda WANKOWICZ,
WARSAWA,
Ulica Oleandrow 1, Apt. 9.

Tel.: 3.71.17.

(See also No.119, where the figure 21 occurs twice in the same address.)

No.96 ANDRZEJ

(Pronounced ANJY), a pseudonym. True name not known to MERZ, but possibly NIECZKAN. Late chief of M.i.P.

(Note by I.O.: In the original of the letter of 13 Aug 43, addressed by him (?) to General ANDERS, he signs himself Sze: (-) ANDRZEJ/<sup>the unknown</sup> or the Secret, or the Mysterious. The original of the letter was handed to WANDA by ANDRZEJ. When MERZ left ATHENS for TURKEY, WANDA gave him this letter. The original has finally reached us and MERZ has admitted that it could have been written by MAJCHRZAK, whose handwriting is similar to that in the letter. (See 8, para.270.)

Description: Age: 35/36. Height: 172/173 cm. Build: stocky. Complexion: fair. Hair: blond. Small moustache. Eyes: blue. Large mouth.

History & Activities. Before the war ANDRZEJ was an engineer in WARSAW. He was also one of the chief organisers of Polish sports.

MERZ met him first in Spring 42, in WARSAW. ANDRZEJ and GRAD negotiated for a truce between M.i.P. and SIPO, through Amt IV (STAPO). An agreement was made but was broken by HIMMLER in the spring of 43, (5, para.32). ANDRZEJ decided to approach HITLER directly (5, para.33).

MERZ now admits that ANDRZEJ collaborated with Amt VI; after the fiasco of the M.i.P. - Amt IV agreement. ANDRZEJ was fully aware of Amt VI schemes for obtaining intelligence from M.E. through the Poles and agreed to the transmission to Amt VI of any news brought back from M.E. by a Polish courier, either WANDA or a Polish officer.

ANDRZEJ was murdered in WARSAW streets, in mid-Sep 43, by his own countrymen, at the instigation of SIPO Kommandeur SPIKER, who had the execution of six M.i.P. leaders sanctioned by the DELEGATURA through OLEK (No.86), present chief of M.i.P.

No.97 DR. GRAD, Zbigniew.

(Alias Dr. NIKOLAI, a pseudonym used frequently in Poland and also in ATHENS; alias Dr. Otto TAMPEL), one of leaders of M.i.P., friend and collaborator of MERZ.

Description: Age: 37/39. Height: 180 cm. Build: stout. Hair: Black, brushed back. Eyes: Dark, wore glasses. Head: Shape typically Slav. Sound teeth. Round chin.

History & Activities: Studied theology and later archaeology at WARSAW, STOCKHOLM, and VIENNA Universities. Protestant clergyman for short time, during which he learned to know General ANDERS' family who are all protestants. Several years in Near East as archaeologist. Claimed to have been "honorary" attache in Polish Foreign Ministry.

GRAD has been mentioned throughout this series of reports. He was the chief backer of the M.i.P.

-SIPO agreement (6, paras. 50-51), helped ANDRZEJ to draft memorandum to HITLER (5, para. 33), intended to contact ANDERS personally in M.E. in early spring 43 (4, p. 8, Winter 42/43), established contact in ATHENS with "friendly" Greeks for MERZ (6, paras. 66-76), selected a courier (WANDA) and sent her to ATHENS with instructions to contact General ANDERS in M.E. and was finally liquidated for his pains, along with ANDRZEJ and four other M.i.P. leaders.

MERZ at long last admits GRAD's collaboration with Amt VI of SIPO, "but only for patriotic reasons", i.e. better conditions obtained for Poles and the creation of a new German-backed Poland, enlarged in the east at the expense of Russia. GRAD knew that MERZ was working for SIPO and that he was a German, but believed him to be anti-Nazi and in favour of more humane treatment of the Poles. GRAD introduced MERZ to members of M.i.P. as a Dutchman. GRAD met other SIPO officials, especially Dr. DEUMLING, former U.C. Amt IV D 2, who has been sent to a SIPO Einsatzkommando in YUGOSLAVIA. GRAD assumed a German name, Dr. Otto HAMPEL, on several occasions, always with the connivance of Amt VI. He tried to establish secret W/T connections between Polish H.Q. M.E. and M.i.P. WARSAW.

According to MERZ, Dr. GRAD had a secret "laboratory" in WARSAW. In it he kept most of his anti-German propaganda material and all documents which were to be kept secret from the Germans. He manufactured false passports and identity cards. G. had made out for himself a "Volksdeutsche Kennkarte" (identity card for "Racial" Germans in Poland) in the name of Dr. Otto HAMPEL, the pseudonym which he later adopted for his genuine German passport, granted by Amt VI for his journey to ATHENS with MERZ. He had also used that name at the Dom Hotel, BERLIN. MERZ fears that some false documents which G. had made for him and kept in this office, have fallen into the hands of SIPO, during the search made of the laboratory after GRAD's death. The most incriminating paper is a Polish identity card which MERZ was to use as an aid to hide in the country districts of Poland in case his continued stay in Germany became impossible due to SIPO "persecution" of MERZ.

No. 98. MARIAN.

Probably a pseudonym. True name unknown to MERZ who never saw him at close range. No description available.

History & Activities: Said to have been a Polish Colonel. Was chief of the military branch of M.i.P. Was "liquidated" about mid-Sep. 43 with ANDRZEJ, GRAD and three other leaders of M.i.P.

WANDA (Maria JOZEFKOWNA) collaborated with MARIAN in M.i.P.

No. 99 MISS GRAD (?).

Cousin of Dr. GRAD. Employed in a pharmacy at Drei KREUZ PLATZ (Three Cross Square), WARSAW. Was employed by Dr. Grad as an informer for M.i.P., for which purpose she was planted as a member in Z.w.Z.

She came to see Stefan MAJCHRZAK "about a possible inheritance" after the murder of her cousin. (5, pp. 6-7, 9/10 Oct 43.)

No. 100 "VICTOR"

Pseudonym, real name probably GÖBEL, formerly professor at POZNAŃ (POSEN) University. Chief of O.N.R.

Description: (MERZ very uncertain about it.)
Age: 31/40. Height: 174/175 cm. Build: stout.
Complexion: Pink. Hair: Light blond, sparse.
Face: round. Large mouth.

No. 101 WITOLD,

Pseudonym, real name unknown. Chief of Intelligence Section, O.N.R. SIPO informer and one of SPILKER's collaborators.

Description: Age: 35/36. Height: 180 cm.
Build: Slender. Face: thin. Complexion: fair.
Hair: blond, receding. Very large nose. Small eyes.

History & Activities: Said to have been a Polish Army officer, rank not known. Asked MERZ towards end of Dec. 41 to act as intermediary in negotiations with SIPO for a common ONR-SIPO front against communists. (5, paras. 20-21.) MERZ claims that in June 43 he was threatened with a revolver by WITOLD. (5, para. 22). WITOLD hoped to join the DELEGATURA.

MERZ admits now that WITOLD is definitely collaborating with SIPO (8, para. 296).

No. 102 CZARK,

Possibly a pseudonym. No other name known to MERZ.

Description: Age: 25/26. Height: 170 cm.

Build: Slender. Complexion: Dark. Hair: dark.
History & Activities: Member of O.N.R. Arrived in KIELCE towards 20 Dec. 41 and suggested to MERZ a meeting with WITOLD, and other members of O.N.R. in WARSAW. (4, p. 6, end Dec. 41; and 5, p. 13, para. 20.)

No. 103 JEROMOWICZ.

Description: Age: 50 approx. Height: 170 cm. approx.

History & Activities: A Ukrainian who has lived for many years in KIELCE and may have been born there. He is, or was, the leader of the local branch of the National Ukrainian League. MERZ does not believe that he has worked for SIPO in any capacity, but in 1939/40 he obtained from the Germans the concession for KIELCE area for buying food supplies and selling them to civilians, and German officials who were not on army rations strength. He gave Stefan MAJCHRZAK a new start in life early in 1940, as assistant egg-buyer in KIELCE area.

No. 104 KOWALSKI, Bogdan.

Wealthy Polish farmer of KIELCE, Owns the PIASKI Estate near KIELCE, ~~to land, before 1937~~

Description: Age: approx. 29. Height: 168 cm.
Build: Stout. Head: typical Slav shape. High cheek bones. Very large eyes, with a Mongolian slant. Complexion: fair. Hair: blond, receding. Small moustache.

History & Activities: KOWALSKI is the son of a wealthy Polish landed proprietor. All members of his family are Orthodox Polish Nationalists. Before the war K. was sentenced to four years' imprisonment in KIELCE for alleged espionage in favour of the Germans. (K. denied the allegations, even to MERZ.) He was released by the Germans when they entered KIELCE in 1939.

~~later in close contact with SIPO~~

Before his fall from Polish grace K. had built up a large goose-fattening business (Gansmasterei) in CHMIELNIK. After regaining his freedom he transferred this rural enterprise to PIASKI, near KIELCE, and developed it into the largest establishment of its kind in Poland.

He brought a house opposite the SIPO Aussenstelle in KIELCE and frequently visited this HIMMLER office. MERZ first met him there in 1940 and became a regular visitor in his residence which served as the social centre for all German officials in KIELCE. For the last year and a half K. has also spent much time in WARSAW in good living. MERZ describes him as a bon viveur. Whenever MERZ was in WARSAW both K. and MAJCHRZAK supplied MERZ, free of charge, with quantities of good Polish food and drink to take back to Germany.

THOMAS, as soon as he assumed his new post of O.C., KIELCE SIPO, forbade MERZ all further contact or association with KOWALSKI, MAJCHRZAK and others. Nevertheless, MERZ saw both frequently, even after K. had appeared as a witness against him in his trial on charges of exceeding his authority and being too friendly with Poles. K. explained to MERZ that THOMAS had compelled him to testify against him under threat of KZ (Konzentrationslager).

MERZ claims that K. is no longer active or interested in politics, that he is not a SIPO informer, and that he merely wishes to keep on the right side of the Germans. (Note: This he seems to do effectively by entertaining them lavishly.)

No. 105 (COL) ALBRECHT, JANUSZ. Late chief of Staff of Z.w.Z.

Description: Age: approx. 40. Height: 178/180 cm. Build: slender. Face: coarse, Mongolian features, prominent cheek-bones. Eyes: very small. Hair: blond.

History & Activities: Born in PETROGRAD. As young Polish officer he fought under PILSUDSKI against the Russians. To the end he remained a believer in the PILSUDSKI ideology (6, para. 50) Before the war said to have been C.O. Polish Guards Regt., WARSAW. Since 1940 (?) Chief of Staff of Z.w.Z. Arrested by SIPO in WARSAW, end July 41. Transferred to KIELCE where MERZ interrogated him but failed to "break him". ALBRECHT revealed no secrets of Z.w.Z. He was released on 5 Sep 41 and sent to WARSAW to arrange with ROWESKI, Chief of Z.w.Z., a truce between this secret military league and the Germans. On 15 Sep 41 he failed to meet MERZ and other SIPO officials. Later MERZ heard from the Colonel's widow, through Stefan MAJCHRZAK, that ALBRECHT had committed suicide by poisoning, some time between 5 and 15 Sep 41.

No. 106 KOZLOWSKI. Former Polish Prime Minister.

MERZ learned in SIPO circles that K. has been in BERLIN for more than a year and that he is supposed to be negotiating a political deal with the German Foreign Ministry. No details of these negotiations were revealed to MERZ. KOSLOWSKI is said to have been in RUSSIA and to have made his way to POLAND through the German lines.

(j) POLES WHOSE POLITICAL CONVICTIONS AND ACTIVITIES HAVE NOT BEEN DEFINITELY ESTABLISHED BY MERZ'S EVIDENCE.

No.107 GENERAL ANDERS.

G.O.C. in C., Polish Forces in M.E. MERZ knows of him only through contacts in Poland. According to GRAD, ANDER's family are still in WARSAW. They are all protestants as GRAD discovered during his brief period as protestant clergyman in WARSAW. DR. GRAD (No.97) seemed to consider ANDERS anti-Russian and likely to accede to a request for assistance against Poland's enemy No.1, RUSSIA. GRAD had planned to see ANDERS personally in spring 43. Later GRAD sent a courier, WANDA, with a letter from ANDRZEJ, Chief of M.i.P. (Original now in our hands. It may not emanate from ANDRZEJ but from MAJCHERZAK.) WANDA was to transmit messages verbally to ANDERS, and also a code for the planned M.i.P. (WARSAW) - Polish H.Q. (M.E.) W/T connection. When WANDA could not get to M.E. from ATHENS, MERZ went to TURKEY to contact her relations there and deliver written messages, one of them "ANDRZEJ's" letter to General ANDERS. In ANKARA, Capt. LEDOCHOWSKI, asked MERZ to proceed to ALEPPO, to meet Gen. ANDERS who would specially go there to get first-hand news about Poland and the political situation from him. MERZ, at that time, was thought to be a Dutchman working for Polish freedom. (Note: Due to the intervention of a British officer at ALEPPO, MERZ was not allowed to meet General ANDERS.)

No.108 GEN. TOKARZEWSKI, Michael.

First chief of Z.w.Z. A popular figure in Poland, as liberator of LWOW (LEMBERG) from the Russians in (1920/21?). He is said to have served under PILSUDSKI. MERZ never met him but heard stories about him from several Poles. Col. ALBRECHT said that General SIKORSKI ordered TOKARZEWSKI to go LEMBERG early in 1940, during the Russian occupation, to start a Polish organisation in that area. Later MERZ heard that General T., in the company of Gen. ANDERS, had left Russia for M.E. to organise the new Polish army. In WARSAW there were rumours that T. had returned to Poland. MERZ does not know where he is now. MAJCHERZAK claimed that years ago he and Gen. T. had been members of the same Theosophic Society.

No.109 ROWECKI.

Polish Colonel, reported to have been promoted to General. R. is TOKARZEWSKI's successor as chief of Z.w.Z. R. is a follower of PILSUDSKI, under whom he fought. MERZ knows of him only through others. Col. ALBRECHT (4, p.5, End July 41) was to negotiate a truce between Z.w.Z. and SIPO through Gen. ROWECKI, in Sep.41. (4, page 6, 5 Sep. 15 Sep. Oct 41.) In the summer of 1943 ROWECKI was arrested by SIPO and on orders of HIMMLER was transported to BERLIN in a luxurious A.C., according to SPILKER. (6, para. 56.) He may now be confined to AMT IV (STAPO), Prinz Albrechtstrasse 8, BERLIN, where interrogations of important people are conducted. (9, paras. 314-317.)

No.110 COL. JOZEF CZYKOW.

(He may only be a major.) In Polish Forces M.E. Husband of WANDA (Maria JOZEF CZYKOWNA) No.95. Nothing has come to light in the course of the lengthy interrogation of MERZ to implicate him in any plot or act of disloyalty to the Poles or the Allies. He happens to be WANDA's husband and a long letter from her to him was taken to ANKARA by MERZ. WANDA had expressed to MERZ the hope that her husband would somehow get her to M.E. as soon as he heard of her plight in GREECE.

No. 111 COLONEL FILIPOWICZ. In 1940 he was chief of Southern Polish Sector of Z.w.Z. Probably still a leading personality in Z.w.Z. Was a follower of PILSUDSKI and fought under him against the Russians. (4, p.5, Feb 40; and Report No.5, p.12, para.15.) Colonel F. is not known to MERZ.

No. 112 Major WIODARKIEWICZ. In 1940 he was Chief of TAP (Tajna Armja Polska), the Polish Secret Army. He and his group soon joined Z.W.Z., the Polish Secret military league. Early in 1940 he sent Lt. PODZIOMSKI to KIELCE to contact Z.w.Z. groups in that area. (4, p.5, Feb.40, and Report No.5, p.12, para.15.) Maj. W. is not known personally to MERZ.

No. 113 Lt. PODZIOMSKI, Janucz. Member of Z.w.Z.

Description: Age: 33/34. Slender. Reddish hair, Moustache. Blue eyes.

History & Activities: Was a Lieutenant in Polish cavalry until autumn 39. Was one of foremost Polish horsemen and took part in many competitions.

In Feb 40 PODZIOMSKI came to KIELCE, from WARSAW, to contact or organise Z.w.Z. groups in the area. At first SIPO restricted his movements but apparently did not arrest him. He agreed to contact Col. FILIPOWICZ, chief of Z.w.Z. for Southern Poland and to help to negotiate a truce between Z.w.Z. and SIPO. MERZ escorted him to CRACOW for that purpose. Lt. P. failed to locate his colonel and had to return empty-handed to KIELCE. SIPO KIELCE thereupon decided to send him to SIPO Kommandeur RADOM. Lt. P. and MERZ realised that this was tantamount to a death sentence for the lieutenant. When MERZ escorted P. to RADOM a few days later, he allowed him to escape. MERZ rejects most vehemently the imputation of possible liquidation of the lieutenant and states that P's wife and parents-in-law, who live in KIELCE, can testify to the accuracy of the story as related to I.O.

Lt. PODZIOMSKI's parents live in SUCHEDMOW (?), on the KIELCE-RADOM road.

No. 114 KWIATKOWSKI

Stefan MAJCHRZAK's assistant in the egg-monopoly at KIELCE, Poland

K. had been a student at the School for Politics (Ecole des Sciences Politiques, or Politische Hochschule) at MOSCOW and was then chief of the Baltic Section of KOMINTERN. Later he collaborated with Stefan in the Polish Communist party and both probably spent some time together in WARSAW prison before the latter's transfer to a similar institution in KIELCE.

In 1940 MAJCHRZAK employed his old comrade in his German-granted egg business at KIELCE. There MERZ was introduced to him by Stefan. KWIATKOWSKI disclaims any further interest in politics but MERZ learned a great deal about Russian Communism from him, as well as from Stefan.

*Cit. Poland
occ: Comm. official*

No.115 JANICKI. Collaborator of MAJCHRZAK in the Yeast Monopoly in WARSAW. Not a SIPO agent, according to MERZ.

Description: Age: approx. 42/45. Height: 173 cm. Build: Slender. Hair: Black. Black moustache. Eyes: dark. Heavy eyebrows.

History & Activities: Owner of a WARSAW Hotel, probably the Europejski in Marshal Street. Also "representative" of MAJCHRZAK in the yeast monopoly. As he earns large sums of money he contributes occasionally to the party funds of M.i.P. Said to be unscrupulous in his business deals.

No.116 MAJCHRZAK, WLADISLAWA (WALLY), Sister of Stefan (No.85). Lives in her brother's house in KIELCE, Ulica ZLOTA No.3 (Goldstrasse 3).

Description: Age: 40 approx. Height: 165. Build: Average, but sports a very powerful, protruding chest. Head: large, egg-shaped, similar to her brother's. Hair: blond.

History & Activities. Although MERZ states that she does not work actively for SIPO, she is fully aware of her brother's activities for SIPO, in and through Polish Secret Organisations.

No.117 BALISINSKA, Renate. Polish girl-friend of MERZ.

Description: Age: 22. Height: 160 cm. Build: slender. Hair: black. Eyes: brown.

History & Activities: Father owns a pharmacy in KIELCE, in Ulica SIENKIEWICZA. According to MERZ the girl does not belong to any political party. She associated with MERZ merely because she considered him a presentable fellow-me-lad. In 1942 and 1943 she appeared as witness against MERZ, upon the insistence of THOMAS, former O.C. SIPO Aussenstelle, KIELCE. (See KOWALSKI, No.104). Her room or flat was searched on orders of THOMAS early in 1942, after MERZ's transfer to BERLIN. Only a few books of MERZ were found. Apparently THOMAS had hoped to find evidence against MERZ.

No.118 HERMANOWA, Maria.

Of Al. JEROZOLIMSKIE 85, Apt. No.9, WARSAW. Possibly a relation of WANDA (No.95) or her husband (No.110) and also possibly of Mrs. KRYSZYNA KROTIEWSKA (No.154) of ANKARA. On 20/21 Aug 43 WANDA probably wrote a post-card from ATHENS to HERMANOWA, who wrote a post-card from WARSAW (post office date stamp 12 Oct 42) to Krystyna KROTIEWSKA (ANKARA) saying that she (Hermanowa) had not heard for some weeks from SLAWKA (also called SLAWECZEK, Christian name of WANDA's husband). See 8, paras. 300-301.

No.119 DUTKOW, Jasi.

Name found in WANDA's letter to her husband. WANDA wrote: "Do your best to get Mr. Janek (Note: MERZ) to return to me soon. When you write to occupied territory write to the following address:

Dutkow Jasi,

Here is the exact address and the name:

Janina Samplowska,

WARSAWA,

Aleje Jerozolimski 21 m 21.

(Note: m = apartment)

Note by I.O.: In the same letter are found some strange figures. In this case 21 m 21, in WANDA's own WARSAW address the tel. No. 3.71.17. See also end of No.95.

No.120 MISS KOT.

Sister of Prof. KOT, who is now in LONDON. Miss KOT is said to be the leader of the women's section of M.I.P.

Among other letters handed to MERZ by MAJCHRZAK, in VIENNA, for transmission to M.E., was one supposedly written by Miss Kot to her brother, Minister KOT. In this letter there is not a single personal touch of the supposed writer, not a word about personal or family matters. It is a brief sermon against Z.w.Z., now called A.O.K., and a plea for support for M.I.P., not only from Prof. KOT but also from "Minister" Dr. Vr. KUKIEL.

MERZ claims not to know Miss KOT nor any details about this message.

Note by I.O.: As ANDRZEJ's letter to General ANDERS may have been written by Stefan MAJCHRZAK, as MERZ has finally admitted, this letter to Prof. KOT may also have been written by someone not directly connected with Miss Kot.

No.121 DR. ZAMOJSKI, and his wife. Not connected with any political plot nor with espionage or counter-espionage of any country, according to MERZ, who met them socially only at KIELCE in 1940/41. They are relations of BOGDAN KOWALSKI. (See No.104.)

No.122 Mma. IDZIOKOWSKA.

Or similar name. Member of ONR in a German Concentration camp. She and some other members of the party were released by the Germans in 1942, after the truce agreement between O.N.R. and SIPO. (5, p.13, para.21.)

(k) UNCLASSIFIED GERMANS IN ATHENS.

No.123 FRIEDRICHS,

(Sonderführer.) Editor of German Naval publication for Aegean. "Der Löwe vor Hellas." Athens Greece

Description: Age: 35/38. Height: 178 cm. Build: stout. Complexion: dark. Hair: dark brown. Face: round. Probably wears glasses.

History & Activities. MERZ met him on an A.C. on the journey from VIENNA to SOFIA on 16 Oct 43. MERZ gathered from the conversation he had with him that he does part-time work for some German intelligence organisation but does not know if this is Amt VI. FRIEDRICHS told him that he had a flat in ATHENS but for security reasons could not give the address. Before the war he had a small publishing firm for scientific works.

On arrival at SOFIA, on the evening of 16 Oct 43, MERZ had dinner with FRIEDRICHS and Col. HOLBERG. (5, p.7, 16 Oct. 43, and Report No.6, para.64 (c).) FRIEDRICHS invited MERZ to visit him in ATHENS, but MERZ has not been in Greece since that date!

No.124 Col. HOLBERG.

A German FLAK offr.

Description: Age: 50 approx. Height: 180 cm. Build: muscular. Complexion: ruddy. Round face.

History and Activities: May be in FLAK in Southern Greece. Has a flat in Hotel CARLTON, PHALERON. (5, p.7, 16 Oct 43). MERZ met him on an A.C. from Vienna to SOFIA, on 16 Oct. 43. HOLBERG said that he had just completed a course in anti-aircraft tactics (Abwehrtaktik), in BERLIN. MERZ told HOLBERG that he expected to be in ATHENS in a few days (after his trip to Turkey!) and received an invitation from the Colonel to visit him.

No.125 WOLF, Christian name unknown. Lt. (Oberleutnant) of Luftwaffe, I.C. technical equipment of the Signals (W/T) Section, (Technische Nachrichten Abteilung) of the Luftgaukommando ATHEN, PANSPITIMIOUS Street. He is a brother of Walter WOLF (No.160) who gave MERZ the above address when he heard that he was going to ATHENS. MERZ states that he never visited Lt. WOLF in ATHENS.

(1) STAFFS OF ATHENS ESPIONAGE CENTRES.

For HÖSSELBARTH, Chief of these centres, see No.1.

No.126 SEKRETÄR, Name unknown. In HÖSSELBARTH's house, Loukou Arno 14, (=Loukianos 14?), ATHENS.
Description: Age: 45/50. Height: 178 cm. approx. Build: heavy, robust. Hair: blond, almost bald. Complexion: ruddy.

The "Sekretar" is a Saxon.

No.127 "INTERPRETER". In HÖSSELBARTH's office. Name forgotten. A young Greek, obviously cultured and well-spoken.
Description: Age: 25/26. Height: 178 cm. (?)
 Build: very slender. Face: thin, pointed chin.
 Complexion: fair. Hair: Blond. General appearance: Central European.
 Languages: Fluent Greek and German, possibly other languages.

No.128 SHORTHAND-TYPIST. In HÖSSELBARTH's office. Name unknown. German girl from LEIPZIG. Girl-friend of Finnish Consul in ATHENS, according to HÖSSELBARTH.
Description: Age: 28 (?) Height: 170 cm.
 Build: Plump. Complexion: pale. Hair: blond.

No.129 HOUSEKEEPER. In HÖSSELBARTH's house. Name unknown. Middle-aged Greek woman who generally answers the doorbell.

No.130 CHAUFFEUR Of HÖSSELBARTH. Name unknown. A Greek, aged approximately 40.

No.131 GERMAN, Name unknown, apparently Chief of office staff of railway tourist office (Reichsbahnverkehrs-zentrale), ATHENS, which is used by AMT VI as a reporting centre for its agents.

Description: Age: 38/39. Build: Very fat.
 Hair: blond, growing bald. Large nose.

No.132 WOMAN EMPLOYEE Name unknown, Reichsbahnverkehrs-zentrale, ATHENS. Volksdeutsche ("Racial" German) from the UKRAINE. Pronounced Russian accent in German.

(m) GREEKS.

Note by I.O.: Some of the Greek names given below are probably fictitious although MERZ accepted them all at face value.

No. 133 THEMILIS, (=THEMELIS?), Michael. Greek, self-styled leader of Dodecanese group in E.A.M.

ecc; merchant

Description: Age: 41/42. Height: 166/168 cm. Build: heavy, hunched shoulders, ape-like posture. Head appears to be set immediately on shoulders, without intervening neck. Very heavy body, hands covered with thick black hair. Round head and face. Hair: crinkly, black, greying. Heavy black eyebrows. Eyes almond-shaped. Facial features Mongolian.

History & Activities: Merchant in WARSAW for 15 years, until 1940 when he returned to Greece. Seems to be in touch with and claims to represent Communists, Democrats and Nationalists. He is the most versatile Greek MERZ and his collaborators met in ATHENS. THEMILIS managed to hoodwink not only GRAD, but also MAJCHRZAK, which was no mean achievement. First to promise to Dr. GRAD a safe passage for WANDA to M.E. and last to back out of promise. MERZ seems to have realised only in retrospect the extent of THEMILIS' craftiness. (5, p.2, 9/10 Jul. 43; p.4, 19 Aug 43, 9/10 Sep 43. Report No.6, paras 69-73, 76, 80, 82, 84, 85, 92, 93, 96).

Note by I.O. The ATHENS telephone directory of 1940 lists a Michael THEMILIS, of Thalou No.4 Telephone 29640.

MERZ gave his address as:

MAKRI No.8, 2nd floor. (6, para.102).

No. 134 LADRIS, Philippinos. A Leader of E.A.M. ATHENS address: Avenue Alexander or Alexandra No.26.

ecc; Commun. official

ecc; Commun. official

Description: Age: 50/55. Height: 174/176 cm. Build: fat. Complexion: Swarthy. Hair: dark blond, or brown. Round face. Speaks fairly fluent German.

History & Activities: LADRIS claims to have studied at BERLIN University and to be an engineer. In 1923 he went to MOSCOW and was trained in communism. He returned to ATHENS with the mission to give special training to "one hundred of the most intelligent Greek Communists". He claims to have failed in this mission. With MERZ he posed as a fervent communist. To this day MERZ is uncertain about his exact position in EAM but believes him to be one of the most important members of this organisation, perhaps its political leader. MERZ was told that the house where he met LADRIS in ATHENS is H.Q. EAM (Avenue Alexander or Alexandra No.26.)

Aside from this house LADRIS owns considerable property in the STADION area and in PHALERON, also a country house in the foothills of the mountains near ATHENS, a short distance from the country terminus of tram-line No.12. It was there that MERZ and WANDA made LADRIS's acquaintance. (6, paras. 82, 95, 96.)

YANOULIS told MERZ that LARDIS was not considered a good communist, due to his wealth, but that he was needed by the Communists because of the large sums of money he contributed to the party funds.

Note by I.O.: ATHENS Telephone Directory of 1940 gives both Philipinos and Soterios LARDIS at ALEXANDRAS Avenue No.26 (same address as MERZ has indicated. Tel: 63358.

The following information about Philipinos and Soterios LARDIS was obtained quite independently of MERZ, from a different source:

Ph. LARDIS is a wealthy Greek. His father had much property which he and his brother inherited. His ATHENS residence is in Alexandras Avenue, corner of Spyridonos Tricoupi. The buildings flanking his residence, on both sides of the corner, are his property. One of these buildings is a school owned by a certain AEDONOPOULOS.

P. LARDIS is said to be a VENIZELIST or Democrat. Before the war he frequented German circles in ATHENS, especially German women in cabarets. He was and is still a "grand coureur". His orgies used to take place in one of his houses at a place called "TRIS GEFIRAES". He moves in German circles in ATHENS and "can easily be accused of co-operation with the Axis authorities". He is anti-British. His brother, Soterios is said to be pro-German. P. LARDIS has property situated at PAGRATI, near the terminus of tram line No.12. (MERZ had stated the same, without the place name, PAGRATI.)

Soterios LARDIS is the Greek agent of BOSCH Electrical Equipment, with an office at Kapodistria Street, in the building which extends as far as and includes Patissia St. No.32.

A sister of LARDIS married a well-known Athenian, a certain GERTSOS, one of several brothers who were representatives of a number of German firms, amongst which was BOSCH Electrical Equipment. The office of GERTSOS Bros. was at Patissia Street No.32 where the German Cypher Section is now situated. The GERTSOS are said to be very pro-German. They are supposed to have fled to SWITZERLAND.

No.135 YANOULIS,

A director of the Greek National Broadcasting system.

Description: Age: 37 approx. Height: 170 cm. Build: Slender. Hair: black. Eyes: large, brown. Strong facial features. Large mouth.

History & Activities: YANOULIS claims to have studied at American and French Universities, principally politics. He also states that he had been a close friend of General METAXAS. He is now officially employed as a director at the Greek National Broadcasting System, and, like FANTOULIS, at the same time as leader of communist groups. YANOULIS claims to be a personal friend of General ARIS. MERZ and WANDA had several meetings with YANOULIS. (6, paras.82, 86, 96). YANOULIS signed a letter to "Comrades" NICOLAI (Dr. GRAD- and STEPHAN (Stanislaw MAJCHRZAK), in MERZ's presence. The latter claims not to have noticed that the Greek signed the wrong name. When shown the signature, which looks like LOMAS or THOMAS, MERZ said that this might be the true name of the man, not YANOULIS. (See No.141).

No.136 CHIEF OF THE GREEK BROADCASTING SYSTEM. (Not personally known to MERZ, name forgotten.

HÖSSELBARTH told MERZ that the director (not identical with FANTOULIS) was an influential member of E.A.M. and that the Germans knew that he had found employment for many of his party people in the Greek Broadcasting System.

No.137 FANTOULIS, George. Greek broad-caster on Greek National Broadcasting System, ATHENS. Cousin of Michael THEMILIS.

*at Greece?
Date 8.1.48*

occ: Comm. Special

leader of Advantages Group in E.A.M.

Description: Age: 35/36. Height: 172/174 cm. Build: Very slender. Complexion: swarthy. Hair: Black. Small black moustache. Face: thin. Eyes: brown. Good teeth.

History & Activities: Not certain whether born in Poland or in Greece, but spent many years in Poland and speaks fluent Polish. His father is said to be still living in CRACOW. Before the war FANTOULIS translated several Polish books into Greek. Since the German occupation of Greece he has become officially a broadcaster, claims to be also the leader of several communist groups in PIRAEUS and the editor of a Greek Communist paper. (MERZ saw a copy of this paper, which bears the emblem of the hammer and sickle.) MERZ, GRAD, STEFAN MAJCHRZAK and WANDA made the acquaintance of FANTOULIS in ATHENS. (6, paras.74, 81-85, 91-93, 95-96.)

No.138 FANTOULIS.

Father of George (No.137). George told MERZ his father is still living in CRACOW. No other details known.

No.139 COSTAS.

Probably a pseudonym, Christian name only known. Greek communist.

Description: Age: 52/55. Height 166 cm. approx. Build: slender, emaciated. Complexion: swarthy. Hair: black, turned grey. Eyes: dark.

History & Activities: Said to have been an "author" before the war. Now writer of articles for communist papers, and Chief of Intelligence Section of Greek Communist Party in ATHENS.

MERZ and WANDA met him several times at conferences where arrangements were made for WANDA's transport to M.E. (6, para.82 and 86.)

No.140 LEONIDAS.

Probably a pseudonym, Christian name only known. Greek communist.

Description: Age: looks 48/50, may be younger. Height: 173/175 cm. Build: Very slender. Face: pinched. Thin nose. Pointed chin. Good teeth. Hair: black.

History & Activities: Claims to be good friend of General ARIS and a communist leader. MERZ and WANDA met him several times. (6, paras. 82 and 86.)

No.141 SKOPA.

Pseudonym, real name not known. At beg Oct 43, MERZ was given a letter by YANOULIS, addressed to Dr. GRAD and MAJCHRZAK presumably signed by SKOPA and YANOULIS. (6, para.99). YANOULIS told him that SKOPA was the chief of the Greek Communist Party. MERZ never met SKOPA and had never heard of him before.

Note by I.O.: The original of the letter has finally been handed over to the British. Neither signature appears on it as given by MERZ from over 2

memory. After "salutations fraternelles" there appears, in brackets, the typewritten word SCOLI, in capital letters. The signature beneath that is definitely not YANOULLIS; it looks like I. LOMAS, or I. LOUMAS, or THOMAS. Underneath that appears the signature "WANDA".

SCOPA (not SKOPA) may be the initials for Sossialistikos Communistikos Organismos Patrioton Apelevtheroseos or something like Patriotic Socialist Communist Organisation for Liberation.

In fine, SKOPA is probably not a person, but a political organisation, and MERZ may have been once more the dupe of Hellenic craftiness.

A/m letter and other letters and documents will form the topic of a subsequent report.

- No.142 "GENERAL" ARIS. Chief of "Communist" Andartes (E.L.A.S.) in mountains. MERZ has never met him. He is said to have assumed the rank of general, but held a lower rank in the Greek Army. WANDA was to go to ARIS and was to be flown from there to M.E. Through Michael THEMILIS, LADRIIS and others, MERZ learned many of the secrets of E.L.A.S. and transmitted them to Amt VI in BERLIN through Polizeiatteche HÖSSELBARTH. (6, paras.109-127.)
- No.143 GENERAL (?) ZERVAS. Leader of Nationalist Andartes in Greek mountains. MERZ has not met him. In Sep 43 fighting broke out between the Nationalist Andartes and E.L.A.S. guerrillas. ZERVAS sought the help of the Germans against his "communist" rivals in the mountains, according to STEINBERG. MERZ believes that the negotiations between STEINBERG, an AMT VI agent, ZERVAS, and possibly also Col. SERAPHIS and Michael THEMILIS, at the house of Quisling, (ex-prime minister) LOGOTHETOPOULOS, proved abortive. (See Nos.3, 144, 133, and Report No.6, para.64 (f) Note.)
- No.144 COLONEL SERAPHIS. Leader of a group of National Andartes, under Gen. ZERVAS. MERZ has not met him. Michael THEMILIS stated that he was a friend of Col. SERAPHIS and his representative in ATHENS. SERAPHIS was to be present at a conference between Amt VI agent STEINBERG and leader of Nationalists, General ZERVAS, at the house of Quisling (ex-prime minister), LOGOTHETOPOULOS. (6, para.64(f), Note.) SERAPHIS's mother lives on the first floor of Michael THEMILIS's ATHENS residence, at Makri No.8.
- No.145 LOGOTHETOPOULOS. For a short time Greek Prime Minister. A Quisling is the word used by MERZ, who has not met him. In Sep 43 he arranged a conference at his house between STEINBERG (No.3) Amt VI agent, General ZERVAS (No.143) Col. SERAPHIS (No.144) and possibly Michael THEMILIS (No.133).
- No.146 BARUTI. Retired Greek officer. Speaks Greek, French and probably Russian. ATHENS address: A villa surrounded by a large garden, in Socrates or Stotelou Street, just behind Voyainou Street, or around the corner from daughter's house (No.148).

Description: Age: 55 approx. Height: 170 cm.
Build: stout. Hair: grey. Moustache.

History & Activities: Little known about him aside from previous service in Greek army. Now apparently in contact with Greek Nationalists. A perfect gentleman, according to MERZ. Tried to put MAJCHRZAK in touch with Nationalists in order to arrange for WANDA's journey to M.E. (Report No.6, paras. 68, 79, 90, 102.) Although a Nationalist he put GRAD and MERZ into touch with Michael THEMILIS, a member of EAM.

No.147 Mme. BARUTI.

White Russian Emigre. Wife of BARUTI, retired Greek officer.

Description: Age: 49/50. Height: 168/170.
Build: slender. Complexion: dark. Hair: black.
Eyes: brown. Straight back.

Languages: Russian, Greek, French, German.

History & Activities: Said to be daughter of a Russian Prince. MERZ thinks that he and GRAD were told this to impress them with her importance. WANDA confided most, if not all her secrets in Mme. BARUTI who felt very sympathetic towards her in her dilemma. MERZ states that Mme. BARUTI, unlike her husband, had a very good eye for any loose change not definitely ear-marked for immediate needs of WANDA or MERZ.

No.148 DAUGHTER OF BARUTI. Married name forgotten. ATHENS address:

Trikor No.8, just off Septembriou Street, around the corner from father's residence.

Description: Age: 27/28. Height: 165 cm.
Build: slender. Hair: dark-blond. Round face. Small, round, turned-up nose. Languages: Greek, Polish.

History & Activities: At Warsaw ballet school where Dr. GRAD met her. Dancer in ATHENS theatre until her marriage to leader of orchestra. Dr. GRAD's first contact in ATHENS, on 11 or 12 July 43. (6, para.68.)

No.149 SON-in-LAW+of BARUTI. Greek, name forgotten. Orchestra leader in Greek National Theatre, ATHENS. Same address as his wife, Baruti's daughter.

Description: Age: 38/40. Height: 172 cm. approx. Build: very slender. Complexion: Swarthy. Eyes: brown. Hair: black.

Languages: Greek, German.

History & Activities: Studied music in Germany and in VIENNA. Now leader of orchestra at Greek National Theatre. Conducted first performance of CARMEN at Theatre, in summer or autumn 43. He is a member of the Nationalist party and probably takes part in its activities.

No.150 "SUSIE".

Real name not known. Greek dance-hostess at "Wintergarten", ATHENS.

Told MERZ one day that she and another Greek girl there (No.151) had been approached by a German to watch some suspicious Swedes who were frequenting the Wintergarten. (7, para.262).

MERZ told this girl that he was going to TURKEY. She gave him a letter for her sister in ISTANBUL. (No.155).

No.151 SECOND GREEK DANCE HOSTESS. Name unknown. "Wintergarten", ATHENS.
See No.150, above.

(n) PERSONALITIES IN TURKEY.

No.152 LUDOCHOWSKI. (Capt.) (OR LUDOCHOWSKI, according to MERZ, who has only heard his name. According to another source it is LEDOCHOWSKI.) DOB 1907

acc: Intell Agent

Polish Captain, 2nd Bureau, ANKARA, Turkey.
Description: Age: Approx. 35. Height: 180 cm. Build: Solid, muscular. Right arm stiff at elbow, as result of wound. Hair: Blond.

History & Activities: Told MERZ that he had been a courier for Z.W.Z. for brief period in 1939/40. Subsequently enlisted in Polish Army in M.E. Was with British 8th Army in Western Desert. Took part in several battles. Wounded at BARDIA. Says that he is now employed in Polish Intelligence in TURKEY. Met MERZ on his first day in ANKARA, at KROTKIEWSKI's apartment, on 18 Oct 43, and again on 19 and 20 Oct 43. Persuaded MERZ to go to ALEPPO to report on Polish situation directly to General ANDERS, who was to come up to this frontier town especially for an interview with the "Dutchman". MERZ was assured that he would not fall into the hands of the British. L. procured in ISTANBUL a Polish passport for MERZ, in the name of Jan MERWINSKI. LUDOCHOWSKI and MERZ arrived in ALEPPO on 27 Oct 43. When MERZ was asked to see a British officer, LUDOCHOWSKI warned M. not to talk of Polish affairs to the British. On the way to BEIRUT L. repeated the warning, and a third time in BEIRUT just before MERZ was interrogated once more by the British. On the last occasion a Polish Colonel and lieutenant were also present.

No.153 Mr. KROTKIEWSKI.

Polish Engineer, resident in ANKARA, YENISEHIR, Bilge Sokak 5, Apartment No.2.
Description: Height: 178/180 cm. Build: Slender. Face: rough features. Hair: Blond.

History & Activities: MERZ knows only a few details. K. is married to WANDA's cousin. He stated to MERZ that he was a member of a Polish Party or organisation whose name MERZ has forgotten.

MERZ called on him on 18 Oct 43 and again on 19 Oct 43. Although he was introduced to K. as a Dutchman, who spoke fluent German, according to WANDA, K. introduced MERZ to Polish visitors as an Englishman who spoke fluent German. The first conversation between the Anglo-Hollander and five Poles was carried on in German!

K. produced Capt. LODOCHOWSKI on that occasion. MERZ is not certain whether he handed to K. or to LEDOCHOWSKI numerous letters addressed to various Poles, most of them written by WANDA. MERZ is certain that he put all the letters on K's table.

No.154 Mrs. KROTKIEWSKA, Krystyna. Same address as for Mr. K. Cousin of WANDA (mme. JOZEF CZIKOWNA).

Description: Age: 28/30. Height: 165 approx. Build: Average, fairly slender. Hair: dark. Eyes: dark.
MERZ delivered to her a letter written by WANDA.

She received a post-card from Maria HERMANOWA, posted in WARSAW on 12 Oct 42, in which the writer states that she has not received any news from SLAWKA (Christian name of Col. JOZEF CZIKOW) for some time. (8, paras.301-304.)

No.155 SUSIE's SL MER.

(See No.150.) BEYOGLU, ISTANBUL. MERZ delivered to her a letter from her sister in ATHENS. MERZ claims that the letter was quite innocent, but he went to great trouble to find the addressee, although he had only a few hours in ISTANBUL. (8, para.308.)

See also: MOIZYCH, No.13.

(o) UNCLASSIFIED PERSONALITIES.

No.156 DUVENBECK, Gertrud. Now Frau MERZ. Was servant of COLLINS (No.158)

in ROTTERDAM for four or five years. She married MERZ in 1934 and lived in HAMBURG until the heavy bombardment of the city. At the end of July 43 she moved, with her three children, to her parents' home in HELMSTED.

[REDACTED] les. (Formerly Karl WILLE). MERZ's uncle (mother's brother), who has been in Australia for more than thirty years, was naturalised and changed his name before the last war. Last wrote to MERZ late in 1939. (8, para.306.)

No.158 COLLINS, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], head of British Seaman's Mission, ROTTERDAM until Oct.33, when he returned with his family to SOUTHAMPTON. MERZ's fiancée, Gertrud DUVENBECK, was COLLINS's servant in ROTTERDAM. MERZ saw the parson several times at the mission house.

COLLINS,

Wife of above. No further details.

WOLF, Walter.

Economic adviser at General-Kommando BELGRADE.

Description: Age: 37/38. Height: [REDACTED], approx. Build: Slender. Complexion: dark. Eyes: dark. Wears glasses when [REDACTED].

History & Activities: WOLF is an anti-Nazi who married a Polish woman. His father-in-law was Polish Consul, probably at VIENNA, and is now in SWITZERLAND. WOLF had had a big fur business in WARSAW but had lost it in 1939. MERZ met him in Autumn 43, on his train journey from SOFIA to BERLIN. WOLF boarded the train at BELGRADE and left it at ODERBERG (Sudetenland). WOLF gave him to understand that he was anti-Nazi, and that his Polish connections had led to constant annoyance by Nazi officials. MERZ told him that he hoped to get to TURKEY. WOLF thereupon informed MERZ that he, too, toyed with the idea of leaving Germany for Turkey and thence make good his escape to CAIRO where he has acquaintances. WOLF claimed to have £Turkish 120,000 safely deposited in Turkey and asked MERZ to enquire about business opportunities for himself. WOLF told MERZ about MIHALOVIC (9, para.341) who had a flat in VIENNA, at No.13 VÄRINGERSTRASSE

No.161 LIFTBOY & ASSISTANT PORTER, DOM HOTEL, BERLIN.

Previously described by MERZ as [redacted]. The lift-boy is a young Pole, [redacted] to DR. GRAD a telegram from THE [redacted] (only the words "Ware angekommen" [redacted] arrived). See 6, para.72.

(p) PERSONALITIES ONLY INDIRECTLY CONNECTED WITH MERZ'S EVIDENCE.

- No.162 PILSUDSI. Mentioned frequently in this series of reports, especially in 6, para. 50.
- No.163 PROF. KOT. Brother of Miss Kot, (No.120) who is said to be the author of a letter addressed to him, in which she is asked for support of M.I.P.
- No.164 HITLER. ANDRZEJ and GRAD, in the spring of 1943, decided to appeal directly to HITLER, after HIMMLER's attempts to break the NAZI - M.I.P. truce agreement by ousting Polish peasants from the LUBLIN area. The Polish leaders felt that HITLER was misinformed by his NAZI advisors and decided to send a memorandum directly to him. MERZ claims no personal contact with HITLER personally at the Führer's [redacted] MERZ claims no personal contact with HITLER.
- No.165 HIMMLER. Mentioned frequently in this series of reports, especially in 7, paras. [redacted] MERZ has never met this gentleman.

JX-5911 (orig in SPS)

COUNTRY: Egypt/Germany
 SUBJECT: The German Advisory Group in Egypt
 DATE OF INFO: As stated
 PLACE ACQUIRED: Egypt, Cairo
 SOURCE: A tested source who is an ex-German Abwehr I officer in Cairo (B). Appraisal of Content: 3.

Colonel Boehmert

1. The contract of Lt.-Colonel Harbert Boehmert, armament and equipment expert of the German advisory group in Egypt, expired at the end of 1953 and was not renewed. Boehmert had been given notice during the first half of 1953 (see Paragraphs 23 and 24 of JX-4380) that his contract would not be renewed. His successor is Otto Ellendt.

Colonel Zolling

2. Colonel Ernst Zolling, former Abwehr officer who was serving as intelligence adviser, was dismissed in early 1954. Dr. Wilhelm Voss had been instructed as early as October 1953 to look for a suitable successor to Zolling (the information as reported in Paragraph 11 of JX-4415 and Paragraph 13 of JX-4354 referred most probably to this rather than to Voss' search for someone to organize an overall Egyptian security authority). Relations between Zolling and Voss had remained as bad as previously reported (see Paragraph 11 of JX-4380 and Paragraph 11 of JX-4354), and Zolling was reported to have sent damaging reports against Voss and the Voss faction to the "Gehlen organization" in Germany.

Dr. Daeumling

3. Zolling's successor is Dr. Joachim Daeumling, born at Buegerhof (Oldenburg) on 25 January 1910 and holder of passport #1325/52 issued at Dusseldorf on 3 May 1952. Dr. Daeumling traveled by train from his residence in Germany to Zurich and then by air (TWA) on 14 January 1954. He took the utmost precautions to keep his name from becoming known to any travel agency, ticket office, or hotel management. He explained to a confidant that he wished to evade the attention of the British occupation authorities in Germany, which explained why he did not travel by air from Germany.

4. Dr. Daeumling's wife and three daughters are believed to have joined him in Cairo. Liselotte Daeumling, nee Hentschel, was born on 19 January 1909 and holds passport #5082558 issued at Muelheim/Ruhr. The three daughters are named Ingrun, Grauke, and Gisela. The last residence of Dr. Daeumling's wife was 40 von Bock Street, Muelheim.

Lt. Schaup

5. Lt. Schaup (fnu) drew up the provisional regulations for infantry training which were used by the third battalion of the Egyptian Test Combat Brigade at Camp Huckstep. The training of this battalion, supervised by Lt.-Colonel Mueller (fnu) in accordance with Schaup's regulations, was compared with that of the remaining battalions of the Test Brigade in August 1953 and was judged a success. It is reported that the Operations Department and the Training Center have approved Schaup's regulations for general application.

Dr. Joachim Daeumling

Dr. Joachim Daeumling, the successor to Colonel Ernst Zolling (JX-5911), was recruited by Dr. Wilhelm Voss, head of the German advisory group in Egypt, in November or December of 1953. Daeumling broke his leg before leaving Germany, but he has meanwhile recovered. He was assigned to the Ministry of the Interior. Colonel Zakaria Mohamed-DIM, formerly Director of Intelligence, is the present Minister of the Interior. Lieutenant-Colonel Nuri (c. Nuri) is believed to have replaced Zakaria as Director of Intelligence.

In 1944/45 Daeumling was an official in a Berlin security office, Section IV of the Reichssicherheitshauptamt (RSHA; German Security Service) and possibly holder of an SS rank of Obersturmbannführer or Standartenführer. One of Daeumling's friends in the RSHA was Dr. Huppenkoten, a former Regierungsdirektor (administrative head) and holder of the SS rank of Standartenführer. It is unlikely that Daeumling will be able to complete his assignment alone, and it is believed that he will have the official or unofficial assistance of Huppenkoten or one of Huppenkoten's former staff members with whom he has kept in contact. Huppenkoten was anti-Soviet at least as late as 1947.

3. Zakaria has praised Daeumling's work several times. If Daeumling is successful in his work, Zakaria may receive so much credit as to cause a shift of balance of power within the ruling clique.

Dr. Wilhelm Voss

4. Dr. Wilhelm Voss, head of the German advisory group in Egypt, has been trying to find a job for Major <sup>(see p. 10.1)</sup> Nuelle when the latter's contract expires. Nuelle is a member of the Voss faction within the German group (see JX-4380). Voss advised Nuelle to develop plans for establishing a Nasr Youth, after the example of the Hitler Youth. Voss may have wanted in this way to bring such an idea to the attention of Interior Minister Zakaria or may have suggested the plan to Nuelle as a result of discussions with Zakaria.

Joachim G. A. Hertslet

5. Before May 1954 Joachim G. A. Hertslet had not utilized the decision of the Ministry of the Interior to grant him a visa (see JX-5023). However, in May 1954, he applied for and received the visa. His wife stated that he planned to leave for Egypt in May.

1. Dr. Wilhelm Voss, head of the German Advisory Group in Egypt, is among those advisers who believe that American advisers will eventually enter Egyptian service. He supposes that the Americans will not supply equipment and materials themselves, but would utilize sub-suppliers to place purchase orders against American payment. Voss believes that he, therefore, will become a sub-supplier par excellence.

German circles in Cairo are convinced that Voss has steadily and continually improved his contacts with American Ambassador Caffrey. It is believed also that Voss must have done this with the consent of the American Ambassador and that most probably he received this consent through Colonel Muhy-al-Din, Minister of the Interior.

In January and February 1954 Voss mentioned to his intimates that he was considering the establishment of a "Germano-Arab Institute," which would be financed by German industry and of which Voss would be manager. This plan represents Voss' hope of finding opportunity to change from the status of an Egyptian Government adviser to a respectable position in private trade and industry and, at the same time, of remaining in the Middle East. The Institute would concentrate on obtaining orders for German industry through Voss' many excellent connections in the area and might be a link for American purchases of goods from German industry.

4. Voss, <sup>like</sup> the other members of the Advisory Group, has not participated in Egyptian politics, but his previous training in Nazi intrigues enabled him to steer the Group into the new stage of political movements. Voss has maintained close relations with the following Egyptian personalities:

a. Premier Jamal Abdul Nasser. Although a marked estrangement resulted from his criticism of the Egyptian Five-Year Plan, uttered in an interview with the Premier, Voss has managed to resume good relations with Nasser.

b. Abdul Latif Boghdadi, Minister of War, and Dr. <sup>Marrei</sup> Marrei, <sup>Secretary of state for the Ministry of War.</sup>

c. <sup>Abd al</sup> Walil Al <sup>Emari</sup> Emari, Minister of Finance. Voss has been appointed as Emari's financial adviser.

d. Colonel Zakaria Mohyedin, Minister of the Interior. Both Mohyedin and Nasser wanted to have Colonel Ernst Zolling replaced, and Mohyedin aided to his credit with Mohyedin by finding in Dr. <sup>Mohy-AL-DIN</sup> Mohyedin (see JX-5911) the type of man Mohyedin wanted as his successor. It is also fairly certain that <sup>Mohy-AL-DIN</sup> Mohyedin was instrumental in the resumption of good relations between Premier Nasser and Voss.

FROM Chief, NFA

SUBJECT { GENERAL - Operational/INTEL
SPECIFIC - Dr. Joachim DEUMLING □ □ □

1. The following information was given by ZIPPER to SKYOPIA in reply to a request. Although they made their reply available to us, ZIPPER did not show us the original SKYOPIA request.

2. ("Lt. Col.) Zakaria Mohieddin, Chief of the Egyptian Intelligence Service and Minister of the Interior, is clever and energetic, at the same time modest and without the presumption of the normal Egyptian officer. He has always shown himself open-minded and approachable. He does not belong to the backward Moslems who cut themselves off from all new and foreign things. He lives in good circumstances, but with no outward show. He has always kept to the middle of the road in his political opinions. He does not appear to be an anglophobe. Here, too, he appears to have moderate views along the line of compromise. He does not belong to the radical wing in the revolutionary council.

The Egyptian Army Intelligence Directorate should more properly be called the "Egyptian Armed Forces Intelligence Directorate". The latest German Expert for the EAI is the former SS-RSHA (SD and Gestapo) official Dr. Deumling (fnu) who was brought to Egypt by Voss, has a contract for three years and lives in Heliopolis, 6 Sharia Sultan Selim.

In contrast to the earlier experts in the Egyptian Intelligence Department, who had a purely advisory function on organization and training, Deumling is active in the collection and evaluation of information. Deumling has no contact with the remaining German military experts in Egypt (the General Fahrbacher group). His activity is screened off from this group and kept secret."

3. There follows a summary of Headquarters traces on DEUMLING:

a. From German Primers: "Obersturmfuhrer Dr. DEUMLING, b. 15.1.10, entered SD (Sicherheitsdienst) in December 1938. SIPO and SD (Re) Yugoslavia March 44, in GERMANY in July 42. Address: the Oppala, Upper Silesia. SS #187708."

b. Two 1944 GE cards on Dr. Joachim DEUMLING show that he was born 15 January 1910, was an SS Sturmabfuhrer, was a member of a SIPO (security police) field unit in Jugoslavia. Associate of Hans MERZ.

c. [SIME] interrogation of Hans MERZ, dated January 1944: "Dr. DEUMLING. Regierungsrat and SS Sturmabfuhrer. SIPO Einsatzkommando, Jugoslavia. Descriptions: Age 35, height 182/4 cm. build very slender. hair blonde. Very thin face, protruding teeth.

"DEUMLING took his doctor's degree in law. Practiced law and joined SIPO only a few years ago. Promoted to C.C. Abteilung IV D2 in RSHA (section of STAPC dealing with SIPO in Generalgouvernement). Was removed from office in the spring of 1943, probably because of his share in negotiations with Polish leaders, and transferred to a SIPO Einsatzkommando near Esseg, Croatia. MERZ states that DEUMLING is only a lukewarm Nazi.-----"

"-----MERZ blames his misfortune (being under heavy Nazi cloud) largely on SS and Police super-informers. They removed from office some of his former SIPO protectors, chief among them Dr. DEUMLING, C.C. Amt IV D2, who was pushed into action and thus possible liquidation in a SIPO Einsatzkommando (SIPO field unit) in Jugoslavia early in 1943." *

(Note: You may possibly have cards on MERZ, aka Jan VAN DER LINDE, who was interned in the Canal Area in Egypt in 1946, and escaped.)

d. According to a report from [ZIPPER] in 1951, "Dr. DEUMLING of Dusseldorf, former State Police (STAPC) leader in Oppeln" furnished a report to a contact of one August MORITZ, who in turn was discovered to be a Soviet I.S. informant. DEUMLING obtained the information from the BfV (German equivalent of [ODENVY]), the implication being that he may have been employed by the BfV. The above information on DEUMLING was furnished by MORITZ himself. There is no evidence of whether DEUMLING was or was not aware of MORITZ's RIS connection, or that he even knew MORITZ. The entry concerning subject consisted of some three lines only, and it is impossible to interpret its significance or amplify it.

e. R 173 54, Military attache report from Cairo dated 26 June 1954, stated that Dr. (lawyer) Hamel DAUMLING arrived in Egypt 6 months ago as intelligence advisor to the director of Military Intelligence, Egyptian Army. Both Egyptians and subject kept his arrival in Egypt a secret. When asked about his work he always said he worked for the Minister of Social Affairs.

f. [JX] 5911 (June 1954, classified CONTROL) stated that Dr. Joachim DAUMLING was successor to Ernst ZOLLING as intelligence advisor to the Egyptians. This document said that he was born in Bugerhof on 25 January 1910 and that his passport #1325/52 was issued at Dusseldorf. He took the utmost precautions to keep his name from becoming known to any travel agency, ticket office or hotel management, explaining to a confidant that he wished to avoid attention of British occupation authorities in Germany and therefore did not travel by air the whole way. His wife, Liselotte, and three daughters are believed to have joined him in Cairo.

g. [JX] 6019 (7 July 1954) says that subject was recruited by Wilhelm VOSS in November or December of 1953, and that he is assigned to the Ministry of Interior. In 1944/45 subject was an official in a Berlin security office, probably Section IV of the RSHA, and was possibly holder of an SS rank. Document stated that "it is unlikely that subject will be able to complete his assignment alone and it is believed that he will have official or unofficial assistance of former RSHA staff members with whom he has kept in contact."

h. [NEAA] 381 of 23 August 1954 says that Joachim DEUMLING arrived in Egypt from Frankfurt on 15 January 1954, with an Egyptian visa valid for three months, and was staying at the Semiramis. [NEA] 261 of 22 September 1954 listed Dr. DEUMLING (6 Sharia Sultan Salim) as one of the German advisors still retained in Egypt.

4. We shall be very interested in any information that your independent assets may be able to develop on DEUMLING and in your estimate of the degree of cooperation between him and Egyptian Intelligence. The [ZIPPER] desk will be pleased to go back to [ZIPPER] with a request for additional information, if you wish. Would you want to ask [ ] or would you want us to ask [SMYDPIA] for information on subject?

Source surmises that German expert DAIMLING (former SS officer) is working with the Min of Int (or general Intelligence). Dr. Wilhelm VOSS, German expert with the Min of Commerce and Industry (source for numerous reports from this office) 19 May 55 stated that Subject is working with the Min of Interior and works directly with Lt. Col. Oscar MOJRI. VOSS stated that the Egyptians consider Subject's assignment secret. (Source comment: An indication of how closely the office of Gen Intelligence is intertwined with the Ministry of Interior is shown here in that although DAIMLING is considered as working with the Ministry of Interior, he is responsible to the Deputy Director of General Intelligence.)

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Division of Biographic Information

DAEWUHLING, JOachim

FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY

(The following biographic information on Daeuwing is based on SS personnel records on file in the Berlin Document Center)

Joachim Daeuwing was born on January 25, 1910 at Bungenhof in Oldenburg. He was raised in the Evangelical (Lutheran) faith, but left the Church in 1938, thereafter professing "Deism." Daeuwing joined the Nazi Party on May 1, 1933 and became a member of the SS two weeks later. From 1937 until 1938 he served in the German Army, attaining the rank of a non-commissioned officer of the reserve.

Having received the degree of doctor of law, Daeuwing seems to have entered the employ of the Security Police (Sicherheitsdienst - SD) of the SS High Command (Reichssicherheitshauptamt - RSHA) about 1938, immediately after passing the state law examinations.

The highest ranks which Dr. Daeuwing attained in the SD and SS seem to have been, respectively, Oberregierungsrat (senior government councilor) and SS-Obersturmbannfuhrer (lieutenant colonel of the SS). He received both promotions on November 9, 1943.

Daeuwing was married in 1937. Between 1938 and 1943 his wife bore him four children, all named after prehistoric Germans.

Subject: Meeting with U.S. Army on 24 March 1958

This extract is forwarded for ( ) action, (X) information, or ( ) comment. If additional information is desired, please call D. Huefner, Ext. 3449 or 3464.

3. Germany: C/FI told Army that through the  the Army has indicated operational interest in Joachim Dauemling, a German in Egypt. Col. Denholm replied that Army was interested in a one-time debriefing of subject and showed us a memorandum which had been given to the Collection Division, indicating that Dauemling had returned from Egypt in April 1957 and that since he was out of Egypt he might be willing to talk. C/FI stated that our impression was that Dauemling was still in Egypt and we would go back and check and let Army know our reaction to the proposed one-time debriefing.

SUBJECT: Dr. Joachim DAUMLING

Subject, who now lives in BIELEFELD, Heeperstr. 304, quit his work for the Egyptians sometime prior to 1957. He returned to Germany and tried to pick up the threads of life. His Nazi and Egyptian past stood in his way. Only with the aid of leading members of the FDP was he able to get permission to practice law in N R W where he is now a "Justiziar" for a German firm. It is possible that he is still active intelligence-wise although [OWI ERSTEIN] doubts it. He has rejected all proposals for continued [IS] work with [UPSWING] or any other service. [Brits and French have also tried.]

① Richard Z. Chesnoff

On March 10, 1965, New York T-1, who is in a position to furnish reliable information, made available a copy of an article written by Richard Z. Chesnoff, datelined Jerusalem, which article appeared in the New York edition of the New York Herald Tribune on February 8, 1965. New York T-1 advised that he believes that this article is the most comprehensive article available at the New York Herald Tribune. He could furnish no additional details concerning this matter.

Set out below is a verbatim transcript of the article furnished by New York T-1:

"'The Spider' Smuggles
Out War Criminals

"By Richard Z. Chesnoff
A Special Correspondent

"Jerusalem

"An exclusive travel agency, with a very special clientele, is operating out of a small Spanish fishing village. It's called 'Die Spinne' (The Spider).

"While it doesn't have a very attractive name for a travel agency, it carries on a booming business smuggling Nazi war criminals into hiding.

"Denia, on the southeastern coast of Spain, is what reliable sources here describe as but one of many stations in a vast, four-continent underground railroad enabling ex-Nazi officers to 'disappear.'

"The sources say the international operation is backed by clandestine Nazi organizations with cells throughout Germany and in several European, South American, African and Arab countries.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property

NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT

FOR COORDINATION WITH FBI

- EXEMPTIONS Section 3(b)
- (2)(A) Privacy
  - (2)(B) Methods/Sources
  - (2)(G) Foreign Relations

Declassified and Approved for Release
by the Central Intelligence Agency
Date: 2001, 2005

Richard Z. Chesnoff

"'Die Spinne' is one of them.

"Sources here say the operation is heavily financed by Nazi sympathizers, including 'some of West Germany's biggest industrialists.' Nazi loot, stashed away since World War II, is reportedly another major source of working cash.

"The network has been busy since the last days of the Third Reich. But now it is fully professional, and with the possibility that Bonn might extend the statute of limitations on Nazi war crimes it has recently stepped up its secret activities.

"The man who first began to spin the Spider's web, is former SS Col. Otto Skorzeny. A one-time Brownshirt bully boy, Col. Skorzeny opened Spanish headquarters for his escape group in 1949. Euphemistically enough, he fronted it with an import-export business.

"The Spider's web, the sources say, now includes carefully organized escape routes to Nazi havens in South America, Kuwait, Syria and Egypt. Clients are armed with false papers and new names. Jobs and homes await them. Many have their families join them.

"Some top Nazi war criminals still at large, particularly those who think they are being tracked, have just kept riding on the underground railroad, moving from one hiding place to another. Egypt, the sources claim, has become No. 1 haven for Nazis on the run. They charge that President Nasser's government is giving full assistance to the network, including visas and 'good employment opportunities for the escapees.

Richard Z. Chesnoff

"Zech-Nenntwich Case

"Evidence backing up at least one such case was given in Brunswick, West Germany, where a court last month sentenced convicted Nazi war criminal Hans Walter Zech-Nenntwich to 10 additional months' imprisonment for his 1963 jail break. The former SS lieutenant colonel testified that he had escaped to Cairo with the aid of Egyptian embassy officials in Bonn. He later returned to Germany and turned himself in.

"Denia, Spain, ends one of the Spider's prime European escape tunnels.

"According to the sources, Nazi fugitives who have made contact with the outfit are spirited to the quiet coastal town. Once there, they check into a small, inconspicuous hotel run by former SS Col. Otto Bremer (Nazi party card No. 462775, SS No. 166881).

"Host Bremer hides his 'guests' until arrangements can be made to get them aboard smugglers' boats plying the Spain-North Africa line, safely out of Europe.

"At obscure landing points on the Moroccan coast other Spider agents meet the contraband passengers. Transported to Casablanca, they are passed into the hands of local Nazi circles.

"From Casablanca to Cairo, the sources say, is no problem at all.

"They estimate that over 500 former Nazi and war criminals have successfully fled to Egypt via this and other routes.

Richard Z. Chesnoff

"The reception in Cairo is both warm and well-organized. Heading the welcome wagon for Egypt's thriving Nazi colony is 63-year-old Prof. Omar Amin, alias Johannes Van Leers, formerly an expert on Jewish questions for the Goebbels propaganda ministry and today reportedly head of the 'Jewish Department' of Egypt's Ministry for National Guidance.

"It is Van Leers' job, the sources say, to process the new arrivals, check on their 'war-time talents' and then recommend them for jobs.

"A Growing List

"At least 40 such Nazis, they claim, have thus been recruited for top posts in Egypt's intelligence setup, Mukhabaret el Am. A number are serving as special advisers to Egypt's army. Others have become business men.

"One is notorious Dr. Hans Eisele, a doyen of the Cairo community, former SS 'physician' and associate of Dr. Josef Mengele, the Auschwitz death doctor. German scientists who worked in Egypt and then returned to Europe allegedly report Eisele is a physician for the German crews working on President Nasser's rocket program.

"Among other top Nazis whom the sources say were smuggled to Egypt by Spider are: Bernard Bender, alias Lt. Col. Ben Salaam, war-time chief of the Gestapo's Warsaw 'Jewish department,' wanted for war crimes by the Polish government and now reportedly Egyptian intelligence overseer for what's left of Egypt's Jews.

"Dr. Heinrich Willerman, alias Col. Naim Nakhim, SS specialist in sterilization and now reportedly head of the Samreh political prison near Alexandria.

Richard Z. Chesnoff

"Wilhelm Boehler, alias Abdul Makrim, one of the Gestapo commanders of the Warsaw ghetto liquidation and now believed working in the 'Israeli department' of Egyptian intelligence. No 201

"Leopold Gleim, alias Maem el Nasar, former SS chief in Poland, sentenced to death in absentia by a Polish war crimes court and now reportedly adviser on political prisons to Egyptian intelligence. No 201

"Joachim Doemling, alias Ibrahim Mustapha, former Gestapo chief in Dusseldorf and now reportedly officer in Egypt's security police. No 201

"The full list, the sources say, is very long. It is growing steadily, they add."

On March 10, 1965, New York T-2, who is in a position to furnish reliable information, advised that Richard Z. Chesnoff is a Special Correspondent who furnishes articles to the New York Herald Tribune on a fee basis. He is not considered to be a regular staff member of the New York Herald Tribune. No 201

New York T-2 stated that Chesnoff is a replacement for Mr. Al Rosenfeld, a National Broadcasting Company (NBC) foreign correspondent who was recently injured in Cyprus and who is presently hospitalized as a result of the injuries which he received.

New York T-2 believed Chesnoff was a native American, possibly from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, however, he had no specific basis upon which he could base Chesnoff's home town.

New York T-2 stated that Chesnoff has resided in Jerusalem for a number of years and that he would presently be reached at number 64 Prophet Street, Jerusalem, Israel. New York T-2 stated that he has received no information which would indicate that Chesnoff plans to return to the United States in the foreseeable future.

DBB 1082

Richard Z. Chesnoff

New York T-2 stated that to his knowledge the New York Herald Tribune does not maintain any original manuscripts but rather prints these articles which it receives from its Special Correspondents based upon their past performance in the journalistic field and the veracity of the articles which they submit.

New York T-2 was unable to furnish any additional details concerning this matter.

TRANSLATIONS:

Leers Died in Cairo (from Die Welt for March 5, 1965)

Johannes von Leers, a former member of the Nazi Propaganda Ministry in Berlin, died in Cairo after suffering two strokes. In 1955, Leers left the Argentine and found asylum in Cairo. He had turned Moslem and will be buried as such.

Vibricht's Protectors in Cairo (from Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung for March 1, 1965)

(The "Donau-Kurier" of Ingolstadt has published a list of Nazi criminals in Nasser's service).

NO 201 In order that Comrade Ulbricht knows what former Nazis are protecting him in Egypt we should like to furnish him some names: Leopold Glein was an SS officer in Poland. In 1955 he went to Egypt where he now serves, under the name of Col. Manalnashr, as the second man of Nasser's security police. If he were to return to Germany now, he would have to expect a trial because of his activities in Poland. Like Glein, Bertrand Berier served in Poland and is now, like Manalnashr, with Nasser's security police, his new name being Ben Saoum. SS-Gruppenfuehrer (SS major general) Moser was tried in the USSR for the crimes he committed in the war. Today he calls himself Hasan Suleiman and works for the Ministry of Information in Cairo. Heinrich Sellmann, the former Gestapo chief of Ulm, now serves, as Colonel Hamid Suleiman, as political chief of the secret police in Cairo. Dr. Heinrich Willermann, a former SS-Gruppenfuehrer (SS major general), served his "Fuehrer" with special task forces in Poland and the Ukraine. His name is now Hain Abin, he is a colonel and serves Nasser as administrative officer and a specialist for penitentiaries in Alexandria. Joachim Doelling as a first lieutenant in the SS. Today he calls himself Ibrahim Mustafa and serves as police advisor in Cairo. Johannes von Leers formerly served with the Reich Propaganda Ministry. Today he simply calls himself Omar Amin and is in charge of the Nazi organization in Egypt. Ulbricht may find it particularly piquant that Hermann Suble, a former SS captain and chief of the Gestapo in Minsk, now calls himself Ben Aiman and serves with Nasser's police organization.
