New Orleans, 8th June, 1835.—30

NOTICE—The public is informed that the partnership between Ed. L'hotte and A. M. Martin was dissolved by mutual consent, on the 10th of June 1835.

Ed. L'hotte is alone empowered to settle the accounts of the partnership.

The subscriber takes this opportunity to inform the public that he has recently opened in Bay St. Louis, opposite the wharf, an establishment known by the appellation of Belair Hotel.

The advantageous situation of this hotel, its proximity to the landing place are well known to require further explanation.

Mrs. L'hotte is highly appreciated by the great care she always takes of her boarders, and by the attention she pays to the visitors in all the public houses she is superintendent of, notably the Marine Hotel in New Orleans, wifely charge of the interior department of the establishment.

M. L'hotte will endeavour to give satisfaction to persons visiting his hotel, when he pleases himself they will find comfort, cleanliness, good food and attention.

He has engaged a good French cook, laundry and general house-keepers admitted, Table & Hotel with wine of every quality.

ED. L'HOOTE.

MANDEVILLE HOTEL.

Hotel undesignated informs his friends and the public that on the 25th June, he will be ready to receive in his new establishment all persons who may favor him with their visits, and dividends orders.

To persons acquainted with the proper operation of the establishment, a depositary of the subscriber's secret, her the subscriber thinks proper to point out to the public its many advantages.

Mandeville is situated at about 20 miles distance from New Orleans on the borders of Lake Pontchartrain. The ground is elevated about 18 or 15 feet above the water mark, and the party of the hotel is well situated, commanding a fine view of the lake, and plenty of game.

All provisions, wines, liquors &c. of the 1st quality, and no trouble will be spared to afford comfort and pleasure to all visitors.

For the time of starting of the boats, see the advertisement of the steamboat Delta.

JOHN DAVIS.

MAGNIFYN HOTEL.

Corner of Victory street and the Pontchartrain Rail Road.

The proprietor begs leave respectfully to invite the attention of the public to this establishment, which is furnished in a new and splendid style, unequalled in this country.

No pains or expense have been spared, and the utmost exertions will be used by all employed in the house, to afford as much convenience and comfort to its patrons, as any plan of the kind could possibly afford.

Boudoirs and lodgings will be accommodated in the most general style, and the rooms are delightfully pleasant.

The subscriber has specially furnished a room especially for the accommodation of Ladies on the second floor, connected with an apartment where Ice Cream, Soda Water and Confectionary are served. Ladies and Gentlemen, every evening.

This will be found very convenient for Ladies and Gentlemen that travel on the Rail Road, will be ready to take the cars, as a pleasant party, and will be some compensation for the slight additional charge.

The subscriber has also a room for the use of ladies, and for those who indulge in an evening promenade, this room is the most desirable resort.

This splendid establishment has been fitted up with great expense; and the proprietor has only been induced to incur the responsibility, from the knowledge of the fact that the citizens of New Orleans are anxious now, for their certainty of rewarding lenient sentence.
