

The New Orleans Bee

NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 18, 1843

VOL. XXIV

BY R. L. HARRIS
No. 101 N. P. St.
Daily Paper, one
cent per copy.
No subscription
under ten dollars will be taken for less than three months.
Advertisements
inserted in the Bee at the rate of one dollar per line for the first month, and fifty cents for each month thereafter.
For a full and complete list of the various advertisements
inserted in the Bee, see the back of this paper.

SHERIFF'S SALES

COMMISSIONERS' SALES
The undersigned, Commissioners of the Public Lands of the State of Louisiana, will sell at public auction, on the premises, the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land, situated in the Parish of Orleans, and containing about one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the Parish of St. Charles, on the east by the Parish of St. Bernard, on the south by the Parish of St. Louis, and on the west by the Parish of St. Martin. The land is now in the hands of the late John B. Sibley, and is being sold by his executor, John B. Sibley, Jr. The land is well adapted for agriculture, and is situated in one of the best sections of the State. The sale will take place on the 18th day of January, 1843, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans. Terms of sale, to-wit: One-third cash, and the balance on credit, for six months, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans.

U. S. Marshal's Sales

U. S. Marshal's Sales
The undersigned, U. S. Marshal for the District of Louisiana, will sell at public auction, on the premises, the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land, situated in the Parish of Orleans, and containing about one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the Parish of St. Charles, on the east by the Parish of St. Bernard, on the south by the Parish of St. Louis, and on the west by the Parish of St. Martin. The land is now in the hands of the late John B. Sibley, and is being sold by his executor, John B. Sibley, Jr. The land is well adapted for agriculture, and is situated in one of the best sections of the State. The sale will take place on the 18th day of January, 1843, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans. Terms of sale, to-wit: One-third cash, and the balance on credit, for six months, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans.

REAL ESTATE

REAL ESTATE
The undersigned, Real Estate Agent, will sell at public auction, on the premises, the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land, situated in the Parish of Orleans, and containing about one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the Parish of St. Charles, on the east by the Parish of St. Bernard, on the south by the Parish of St. Louis, and on the west by the Parish of St. Martin. The land is now in the hands of the late John B. Sibley, and is being sold by his executor, John B. Sibley, Jr. The land is well adapted for agriculture, and is situated in one of the best sections of the State. The sale will take place on the 18th day of January, 1843, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans. Terms of sale, to-wit: One-third cash, and the balance on credit, for six months, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans.

NOTICES

NOTICES
The undersigned, Notary Public, will sell at public auction, on the premises, the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land, situated in the Parish of Orleans, and containing about one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the Parish of St. Charles, on the east by the Parish of St. Bernard, on the south by the Parish of St. Louis, and on the west by the Parish of St. Martin. The land is now in the hands of the late John B. Sibley, and is being sold by his executor, John B. Sibley, Jr. The land is well adapted for agriculture, and is situated in one of the best sections of the State. The sale will take place on the 18th day of January, 1843, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans. Terms of sale, to-wit: One-third cash, and the balance on credit, for six months, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans.

ADVERTISEMENTS

ADVERTISEMENTS
The undersigned, Advertiser, will sell at public auction, on the premises, the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land, situated in the Parish of Orleans, and containing about one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the Parish of St. Charles, on the east by the Parish of St. Bernard, on the south by the Parish of St. Louis, and on the west by the Parish of St. Martin. The land is now in the hands of the late John B. Sibley, and is being sold by his executor, John B. Sibley, Jr. The land is well adapted for agriculture, and is situated in one of the best sections of the State. The sale will take place on the 18th day of January, 1843, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans. Terms of sale, to-wit: One-third cash, and the balance on credit, for six months, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans.

CARDS

CARDS
The undersigned, Cardholder, will sell at public auction, on the premises, the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land, situated in the Parish of Orleans, and containing about one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the Parish of St. Charles, on the east by the Parish of St. Bernard, on the south by the Parish of St. Louis, and on the west by the Parish of St. Martin. The land is now in the hands of the late John B. Sibley, and is being sold by his executor, John B. Sibley, Jr. The land is well adapted for agriculture, and is situated in one of the best sections of the State. The sale will take place on the 18th day of January, 1843, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans. Terms of sale, to-wit: One-third cash, and the balance on credit, for six months, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned, at the residence of the undersigned, in the Parish of Orleans.

[The remainder of the page contains extremely faint and illegible text, likely due to the quality of the scan or the original document's condition. The text is too light to transcribe accurately.]