EMDEN'S PRACTICE AND FORMS IN WINDING-UP COMPANIES

A Concise and Practical Treatise upon the Law and Practice relating to the Winding-up of Companies from the commencement of the Winding-up Proceedings to Dissolution, with a Chapter on Reconstruction,

BY

HIS HONOUR JUDGE EMDEN,

AUTHOR OF "THE LAW RELATING TO BUILDING, BUILDING LEASES, AND BUILDING CONTRACTS," "A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PRACTICE STATUTES, ORDERS, AND RULES," "SHAREHOLDER'S LEGAL GUIDE," ETC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The whole work is thoroughly well done. . . . We have rarely met with a work in which so much pains have been taken not only to set forth the whole of the law and practice to which it relates, but to do so in the most lucid and concise manner. The book will be of great assistance to all who are concerned in the Winding-up of Companies, particularly to those who are comparatively new to the work. If the practitioner goes wrong with Mr. Emden's book in his hand it will be his own fault."—Law Times.

"We think the arrangement of this book is very good. Each step in winding-up proceedings is traced. . . . The statutes are printed at length in the appendix. . . . There is a very good time table, and also a convenient tabulated summary of the leading cases upon the liability of contributors. . . . With regard to the treatment of very numerous cases with which company law abounds, it is all intelligent, and the style is easy and perspicuous."—Law Journal.

"Mr. Emden is already well known as a legal author, and his work on the winding-up of companies will, we think, increase his reputation. This treatise is judiciously confined to the important branches of company law which relates to 'winding-up'; and the author is thereby enabled, within the compass of a moderate volume, to do for the practitioner with a very complete work. In arrangement, it is left to be desired; and, by variations of type and marginal references, the eye is assisted in its search for any particular subject. The appendix of forms cannot fail to be practically useful."—Solicitors' Journal.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES

ON THE

PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLANDBy THOMAS BRETT,*

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

* * The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-156, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition, because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself of the suggestions of his friends and the criticism of his reviewers in correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

CONSOLIDATED REGULATIONS

OF THE SEVERAL SOCIETIES OF LINCOLN'S INN,
THE MIDDLE TEMPLE, THE INNER TEMPLE, AND GRAY'S INN

(HEREINAFTER DESCRIBED AS THE FOUR INNS OF COURT)

AS TO THE ADMISSION OF STUDENTS, THE MODE OF KEEPING TERMS, THE EDUCATION AND EXAMINATION OF STUDENTS, THE CALLING OF STUDENTS TO THE BAR, AND THE TAKING OUT OF CERTIFICATES TO PRACTISE UNDER THE BAR.

Admission of Students.

1. Every person, not otherwise disqualified, who shall have passed a PUBLIC EXAMINATION at any University within the British dominions, or for a Commission in the Army or Navy, or for the Indian Civil Service, or for the Consular Service, or for Cadetships in the three Eastern Colonies of Ceylon, Hong Kong, and the Straits Settlements, shall be entitled to be admitted as a Student, without passing a preliminary Examination, but subject to Rule 7.

2. Every other person, except such as come under Rules 14 and 15, applying to be admitted as a Student, shall, before such admission, have satisfactorily passed an Examination in the following subjects, viz:—

- (a) The English Language,
- (b) The Latin Language, and
- (c) English History;

Provided that the Board of Examiners mentioned in Rule 3 shall have power to report any special circumstances to the Masters of the Bench of the Inn of Court of which any person may desire to be admitted as a Student, and that the Masters of the Bench of such Inn shall have power, with or without such report, to relax or dispense with this regulation, in whole or in part, in any case in which they may think special circumstances so reported, or otherwise ascertained by the Bench, justify a departure from this regulation. In the case of a Student who is a Native of India, that fact shall be a special circumstance sufficient to justify an Examination in the Latin Language being dispensed with, upon application to the Masters of the Bench.

3. Such Examination shall be conducted by a joint Board, to be appointed by the four Inns of Court.

4. For constituting such Board, each of the four Inns of Court shall appoint four Examiners, and the Council of Legal Education shall have power to allot such remuneration as the Council shall think fit to such Examiners.

5. The Examiners shall attend according to a Rota to be fixed by themselves, and Two shall be a Quorum.

6. Meetings of the Examiners shall be held at least once in every week during each Term, as hereinafter defined, and once in the week next preceding each Term, and at such other times as shall be appointed in accordance with any order of the Board;

Provided that no Examiner need attend unless two clear days' notice prior to the day appointed for his attendance shall have been given to the Secretary of the Board, by at least one Candidate, of an intention to present himself on that day for Examination.

7. No Attorney at Law, Solicitor, Writer to the Signet, or Writer of the Scotch Courts, Proctor, Notary Public, Clerk in Chancery, Parliamentary Agent, or Agent in any Court original or appellate, Clerk to any Justice of the Peace, Registrar of any Court, Official, Provisional, Assistant or Deputy Receiver or Liquidator under any Bankruptcy or Winding-up Act, or person acting directly or indirectly in any such or similar capacity, and no Clerk to, or person acting in the service of, any such person as aforesaid (except as a pupil in a Solicitor's office); and no Clerk of or to any Judge, Barrister, Conveyancer, Special Pleader, Equity Draftsman, Clerk of the Peace, or of or to any officer in any Court of Justice, shall be admitted as a Student at any Inn of Court until such person shall have entirely and bonâ fide ceased to act or practise in any of the capacities above-named or described; and if on the Rolls of any Court, shall have taken his name off the Rolls thereof.

8. The following forms shall be adopted by each of the four Inns of Court on application for admission as Students:—

Declaration to be made by the Applicant.

I, _____ of _____ the Son of _____ aged _____, in the county of _____ [add father's profession, if any, and the condition in life and occupation, if any, of the Applicant] do hereby declare that I am desirous of being admitted a Student of the Honourable Society of _____ for the purpose of being called to the Bar, or of practising under the Bar, and that I will not, either directly or indirectly, apply for or take out any certificate to practise, directly or indirectly, as a Pleader, or Conveyancer, or Draftsman in Equity, without the special permission of the Masters of the Bench of the said Society.

And I do hereby further declare that I am not an Attorney at Law, a Solicitor, a Writer to the Signet, a Writer of the Scotch Courts, a Proctor, a Notary Public, a Clerk in Chancery, a Parliamentary Agent, an Agent in any Court original or appellate, a Clerk to any Justice of the Peace, a Registrar of any Court, or an Official, Provisional, Assistant, or Deputy Receiver, or Liquidator, under any Bankruptcy or Winding-up Act, nor do I act, directly or indirectly, in any such or similar capacity, or in the capacity of Clerk of or to any of the persons above described, or in the service of any of the persons above described (except as a pupil in a Solicitor's office), or as Clerk of or to any Judge, Barrister, Conveyancer, Special Pleader, or Equity Draftsman, or Clerk of the Peace, or of or to any officer in any Court of Justice.

Dated this _____ day of _____

In addition to making the above declaration, the Applicant shall obtain two separate Certificates, each to be signed by a Barrister of five years' standing, in the following form:—

I certify that the above-named _____ has been known to me personally for upwards of _____ years last past [or has been introduced to me personally by _____ of _____ (insert description) and has been seen by me] [or has been introduced to me by letter of introduction from _____ of _____ and has been seen by me].

I believe him to be a gentleman of respectability and a proper person to be admitted a Student of the Honourable Society of _____ with a view to being called to the Bar.

Dated this _____ day of _____ 189 .
of the Honourable Society of _____
Barrister at Law.

A separate Certificate to the above effect should be signed by each of the two Barristers-at-Law of Five years' standing, and it is expected that Barristers-at-Law, before signing the Certificate, will, in the case of an applicant for admission not previously known personally to them, satisfy themselves of the means of knowledge, trustworthiness, and good repute of the Applicant's Introducer, and, in the case of an introduction by letter (which need not be addressed to the Barrister at-Law himself), that the Applicant is the person referred to in the letter of introduction. The letter of introduction, or a copy of it, should accompany the Certificate.

When an Indian, Colonial, or Foreign Student has been admitted to any Inn of Court, a notification of his admission, with the usual particulars as to his name and description, shall be transmitted to the Registrar of the Principal Court of Civil Jurisdiction in the province, colony, or place to which he belongs, with a request that such notification may be screened or otherwise displayed in the Bar Library or other convenient place in the said Court, for the information of the Bar.

9. Every person applying to be admitted as a Student shall pay the sum of One Guinea upon application for the form of Admission; and the sums so paid shall form part of the common fund hereinafter mentioned.

A Student who, at any time previously to his admission at an Inn of Court, was a Solicitor in practice for not less than five consecutive years, either in England or in any Colony or Dependency, but who in either case was admitted in England, and in accordance with Rule 7 has ceased to be a Solicitor before his admission as a Student, may be examined for Call to the Bar without keeping any Terms, and may be called to the Bar upon passing the public Examination required by these Rules, without keeping any Terms;

Provided that such Solicitor has given at least twelve months' notice in writing to each of the four Inns of Court, and to the Incorporated Law Society, of his intention to seek Call to the Bar, and produces a Certificate that he is a fit and proper person to be called to the Bar, signed, if his practice was in England, by two Members of the Council of the Incorporated Law Society, and, if his practice was in a Colony or Dependency, by the Chief Justice of such Colony or Dependency.

Colonial Barristers.

15. While the two branches of the Profession are kept distinct in Queensland and New South Wales, as at present, and the Regulations affecting the Call to the Bars of those Colonies remain substantially as they are at present, any Member of such Bars of three years' standing, sending his intention to practise at the English Bar, and presenting a Certificate of Call to any of such Bars duly authenticated, and a Certificate by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony, and by the Attorney General or Senior Law Officer thereof, that the Applicant is a fit and proper person to be called to the English Bar, may become a Member of any Inn of Court; and be called to the English Bar on keeping Three Terms without submitting to any Examination.

Provided the Council is satisfied that the Student, before he obtained his Degree, or obtained such Certificate or Testamur, passed a sufficient Examination in Roman Law.

46. There shall be a Board of three Examiners in each subject, viz. a Reader, with such Assistants selected by the Council, not being members of the Staff of Readers and Assistant Readers, as the Council may determine.

47. Examination for Call to the Bar shall be by written papers, and by such visà voce questions (if any) as the Examiners may think desirable.

48. Each Examiner shall be appointed for three years, subject to removal by the Council; but no Examiner, other than a Reader, shall be re-eligible until he has been at least one year out of office.

49. The Council shall have power to appoint such Assistant Examiners as may be necessary, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Council.

50. The fee to be paid to each Examiner and Assistant Examiner shall be left to the discretion of the Council.

Honours and Studentships.

51. The Council shall grant Certificates of Honour to such persons as may be reported worthy of the same by the Examiners.

52. Two Studentships of One Hundred Guineas per annum each, tenable for three years, shall in each year be given to the Students who shall pass the best Examination on the whole in all the subjects mentioned in Regulation 28. But the Council shall not be obliged to recommend any Studentship to be awarded if the result of the Examination be such as, in their opinion, not to justify such recommendation. Where any Candidates appear to be equal or nearly equal in merit, the Council may, if they think fit, divide the Studentship between them equally or in such proportions as they consider just.

53. No Student shall be eligible for a Studentship who is over twenty-five years of age on the first day of the Examination for which he enters. Only members of an Inn not called to the Bar shall compete for a Studentship or honours.

54. No person who has gained one Studentship shall hold another.

55. The expense of these Studentships shall be defrayed out of the Common Fund.

56. There shall be two Honour Examinations in each year, conducted by a Board of Examiners appointed by the Council, at each of which one Studentship and Certificates of Honour, and Pass Certificates enabling the holders to be called to the Bar without further examination, may be awarded.

57. At every Call to the Bar those Students who have obtained Studentships shall take rank in seniority over all other Students called on the same day, and those Students who have obtained Certificates of Honour shall take rank immediately after the holder of a Studentship called on the same day.

58. The Inn of Court, to which the holder of any Studentship or of a Certificate of Honour belongs, may, if desired, dispense with any Terms not exceeding two that may remain to be kept by such Student previously to his being called to the Bar.

59. The Council may also award to the Student, being a Candidate for Studentship or Honours who shall have passed the best Examination in Constitutional Law (English or Colonial) and Legal History, a special Prize of £50, provided that the Council shall not be obliged to award such Prize if the result of the Examination has not been such as in their opinion will justify the same.

60. The Examiners shall submit their Examination Papers to the Committee or Board of Studies, for approval at such time as the Committee or Board shall direct; and the number of marks to be attributed to each paper shall also be submitted to the Committee or Board for their approval.

61. Previous to each Examination the Committee or Board shall give such notice as they shall think fit of the Books and branches of subjects in which Students will be required to pass at such Examination in order to be entitled to a Certificate.

62. One Examiner at least shall be present during the whole time of the Examination in writing.

63. The Board of Examiners shall, after each Examination, report the result thereof to the Committee or Board of Studies, who shall submit to the Council the names of those Students (if any) who are in their opinion entitled to receive Pass or Honour Certificates or to obtain Studentships.

64. All Students shall be bound by such variations as may from time to time be made in these Regulations.

Common Fund.

65. The four Inns of Court shall continue their annual contributions of Three Hundred and Sixty Pounds each towards constituting the Common Fund, to which shall be added the several fees for Forms of Admission, and for attending Lectures; and also the several sums of Five Guineas for each Student, to be paid by the Inns of Court respectively, as additional contributions, pursuant to the Report of the Committee of the four Inns of Court, dated 6th December, 1871; and any further money which may, from time to time, be required to enable the Common Fund to meet the charges on it in any year, shall be contributed by the four Inns of Court at the end of such year, rateably and in proportion to the number of Students belonging to the four Inns respectively, who shall in that year have been called to the Bar, or have for the first time obtained permission to practise under the Bar.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text-book for 'The Final.'—Solicitors' Journal.
"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES

ON THE

PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

** The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-156, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition, because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself of the suggestions of his friends and the criticism of his reviewers by correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and also of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

EMDEN'S PRACTICE AND FORMS IN WINDING-UP COMPANIES.

A Concise and Practical Treatise upon the Law and Practice relating to the Winding-up of Companies from the commencement of the Winding-up Proceedings to Dissolution, with a Chapter on Reconstruction,

BY

HIS HONOUR JUDGE EMDEN,

AUTHOR OF "THE LAW RELATING TO BUILDING, BUILDING LEASES, AND BUILDING CONTRACTS," "A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PRACTICE STATUTES, ORDERS, AND RULES," "SHAREHOLDER'S LEGAL GUIDE," ETC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The whole work is thoroughly well done. . . . We have rarely met with a work in which so much pains have been taken not only to set forth the whole of the law and practice to which it relates, but to do so in the most lucid and concise manner. The book will be of great assistance to all who are concerned in the Winding-up of Companies, particularly to those who are comparatively new to the work. If the practitioner goes wrong with Mr. Emden's book in his hand it will be his own fault."—Law Times.

"We think the arrangement of this book is very good. Each step in winding-up proceedings is traced. . . . The statutes are printed at length in the appendix. . . . There is a very good time table, and also a convenient tabulated summary of the leading cases upon the liability of contributories. . . . With regard to the treatment of the very numerous cases with which company law abounds, it is always intelligent, and the style is easy and perspicuous."—Law Journal.

"Mr. Emden is already well known as a legal author, and his book on the winding-up of companies will, we think, increase his reputation. This treatise is judiciously confined to the important branch of company law which relates to 'winding-up'; and the author is thereby enabled, within the compass of a moderate volume, to supply the practitioner with a very complete work. In arrangement, little is left to be desired; and, by variations of type and marginal references the eye is assisted in its search for any particular subject. The appendix of forms cannot fail to be practically useful."—Solicitors' Journal.

Bankrupt to be discharged as from Jan 30, 1904. The Court for special reasons, viz:—That the bankrupt was ordered to be imprisoned in Her Majesty's Prison, Pentonville, for three months, as a first-class misdemeanant, only determined that his Discharge shall not on that ground be absolutely refused. creditors of the said James Spraggs; also for that he having been duly adjudged a bankrupt unlawfully did make and was privy to the making of a certain false entry of the said Charles Morgan, being a partly-secured creditor, in a document relating to his affairs, with intent to conceal the state of his affairs; and for that he did fraudulently make an omission from a certain document relating to his affairs, to wit, a cash account; and the said bankrupt was tried and convicted of the said offences, and was ordered to be imprisoned in Her Majesty's Prison, Pentonville, for three calendar months, as first-class misdemeanant. And it has been proved that the bankrupt has also committed the following misdemeanour: the bankrupt after the presentation of a Bankruptcy Petition by him has attempted to account for part of his property by fictitious losses or expenses.

TENEMENT HOUSES & FLATS (The Law Relating

to), for Residential or Business purposes, including the Taxation and Rating thereof. With an Appendix of Precedents of Leases Forms, and a Digest of Cases relating to the Inhabited House Duty. By WALTER CLODE, Barrister-at-Law, of the Inner Temple, Associate of the Surveyors' Institution, Author of "The Law and Practice of Petition of Right."

"The growing habit of building monstrous houses, principally accessible only by means of lifts, has already had results conspicuous enough to justify the writing of a text-book on the legal rights and responsibilities of persons who have to do with them. . . . The whole volume appears to have been written with the same learning and judgment which characterize his former book about 'petitions of right.'"—Saturday Review.

"The great increase in recent years in the number of residential flats. . . . renders this book likely to be extremely useful."—Law Times.

"This is an interesting subject upon which Mr. Clode has written an interesting book. . . . The impulse which has been given recently to the building of flats in London and elsewhere increases the value of Mr. Clode's book, which will be found accurate and practical."—Law Journal.

"The increase in the number of residential buildings known popularly as 'flats,' makes the present time opportune for the publication of a legal work on this subject."—Builder.

Two Studentships of One Hundred Guineas per annum each, tenable for three years, shall in each year be given to the Students who shall pass the best Examination on the whole in all the subjects mentioned in Clause 28 of the Consolidated Regulations. By WALTER CLOWE, Barrister-at-Law, of the Inner Temple, Associate of the Surveyors' Institution, Author of "The Law and Practice of Petition of Right."

"The growing habit of building monstrous houses, principally accessible only by means of lifts, has already had results conspicuous enough to justify the writing of a text-book on the legal rights and responsibilities of persons who have to do with them. . . . The whole volume appears to have been written with the same learning and judgment which characterize his former book about 'petitions of right.'"—Saturday Review.

"The great increase in recent years in the number of residential flats. . . . renders this book likely to be extremely useful."—Law Times.

"This is an interesting subject upon which Mr. Clode has written an interesting book. . . . The impulse which has been given recently to the building of flats in London and elsewhere increases the value of Mr. Clode's book, which will be found accurate and practical."—Law Journal.

"The increase in the number of residential buildings known popularly as 'flats,' makes the present time opportune for the publication of a legal work on this subject."—Builder.

SUMMARY.—Actions for Trial . . . 66; Appeals to Divisional Court . . . 4—Total . . . 70

MEMORANDUM.—No complete List of Actions to be tried in this Division during Easter Sittings can be given in advance, as the number and order in which they will be tried are necessarily dependent on the presence in this Country of the Seafaring Witnesses whose movements are unavoidably uncertain. The List will therefore be subject to alterations and additions.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES

ON THE

PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

* * * The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-158, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition, because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself of the suggestions of his friends and the criticism of his reviewers by correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and also of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

EMDEN'S PRACTICE AND FORMS IN WINDING-UP COMPANIES.

A Concise and Practical Treatise upon the Law and Practice relating to the Winding-up of Companies from the commencement of the Winding-up Proceedings to Dissolution, with a Chapter on Reconstruction.

BY

HIS HONOUR JUDGE EMDEN,

AUTHOR OF "THE LAW RELATING TO BUILDING, BUILDING LEASES, AND BUILDING CONTRACTS," "A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PRACTICE STATUTES, ORDERS, AND RULES," "SHAREHOLDER'S LEGAL GUIDE," ETC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The whole work is thoroughly well done. . . . We have rarely met with a work in which so much pains have been taken not only to set forth the whole of the law and practice to which it relates, but to do so in the most lucid and concise manner. The book will be of great assistance to all who are concerned in the Winding-up of Companies, particularly to those who are comparatively new to the work. If the practitioner goes wrong with Mr. Emden's book in his hand it will be his own fault."—Law Times.

"We think the arrangement of this book is very good. Each step in winding-up proceedings is traced. . . . The statutes are printed at length in the appendix. . . . There is a very good time table, and also a convenient tabulated summary of the leading cases upon the liability of contributories. . . . With regard to the treatment of the very numerous cases with which company law abounds, it is always intelligent, and the style is easy and perspicuous."—Law Journal.

"Mr. Emden is already well known as a legal author, and his book on the winding-up of companies will, we think, increase his reputation. This treatise is judiciously confined to the important branch of company law which relates to 'winding-up'; and the author is thereby enabled, within the compass of a moderate volume, to supply the practitioner with a very complete work. In arrangement, little is left to be desired; and, by variations of type and marginal references, the eye is assisted in its search for any particular subject. The appendix of forms cannot fail to be practically useful."—Solicitors' Journal.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES

ON THE

PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

* * * The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-156, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition, because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself of the suggestions of his friends and the criticism of his reviewers by correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and also of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

EMDEN'S PRACTICE AND FORMS IN WINDING-UP COMPANIES.

A Concise and Practical Treatise upon the Law and Practice relating to the Winding-up of Companies from the commencement of the Winding-up Proceedings to Dissolution, with a Chapter on Reconstruction.

BY

HIS HONOUR JUDGE EMDEN,

AUTHOR OF "THE LAW RELATING TO BUILDING, BUILDING LEASES, AND BUILDING CONTRACTS," "A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PRACTICE STATUTES, ORDERS, AND RULES," "SHAREHOLDER'S LEGAL GUIDE," ETC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The whole work is thoroughly well done. . . . We have rarely met with a work in which so much pains have been taken not only to set forth the whole of the law and practice to which it relates, but to do so in the most lucid and concise manner. The book will be of great assistance to all who are concerned in the Winding-up of Companies, particularly to those who are comparatively new to the work. If the practitioner goes wrong with Mr. Emden's book in his hand it will be his own fault."—Law Times.

"We think the arrangement of this book is very good. Each step in winding-up proceedings is traced. . . . The statutes are printed at length in the appendix. . . . There is a very good time table, and also a convenient tabulated summary of the leading cases upon the liability of contributories. . . . With regard to the treatment of the very numerous cases with which company law abounds, it is always intelligent, and the style is easy and perspicuous."—Law Journal.

"Mr. Emden is already well known as a legal author, and his book on the winding-up of companies will, we think, increase his reputation. This treatise is judiciously confined to the important branch of company law which relates to 'winding-up'; and the author is thereby enabled, within the compass of a moderate volume, to supply the practitioner with a very complete work. In arrangement, little is left to be desired; and, by variations of type and marginal references, the eye is assisted in its search for any particular subject. The appendix of forms cannot fail to be practically useful."—Solicitors' Journal.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

* * The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-156, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition, because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself of the suggestions of his friends and the criticism of his reviewers by correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and also of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

TENEMENT HOUSES & FLATS (The Law Relating to), for Residential or Business purposes, including the Taxation and Rating thereof. With an Appendix of Precedents of Leases, Forms, and a Digest of Cases relating to the Inhabited House Duty. By WALTER CLODE, Barrister-at-Law, of the Inner Temple, Associate of the Surveyors' Institution, Author of "The Law and Practice of Petition of Right."

"The growing habit of building monstrous houses, principally accessible only by means of lifts, has already had results conspicuous enough to justify the writing of a text-book on the legal rights and responsibilities of persons who have to do with them. . . . The whole volume appears to have been written with the same learning and judgment which characterize his former book about 'petitions of right.'"—Saturday Review.

"The great increase in recent years in the number of residential flats. . . . renders this book likely to be extremely useful."—Law Times.

"This is an interesting subject upon which Mr. Clode has written an interesting book. . . . The impulse which has been given recently to the building of flats in London and elsewhere increases the value of Mr. Clode's book, which will be found accurate and practical."—Law Journal.

"The increase in the number of residential buildings known popularly as 'flats,' makes the present time opportune for the publication of a legal work on this subject."—Builder.

ON THE # PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

* * * The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

BY

GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq.,

Barrister-at-Law.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"In spite of rivals, Robson's Law and Practice in Bankruptcy—an excellent treatise, we always thought—maintains its position in legal literature. It has now entered its seventh edition. The sixth edition was published before the Act of 1887, and consequently that Act and the Act of 1890 have had to be dealt with. The chapter on Bills of Sale is now put at the end of the volume. Beyond this there are no changes. The judicial decisions of recent years are duly noted, and Robson on Bankruptcy remains an efficient and up-to-date text-book."—Law Times.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes.
