LEGAL EDUCATION.

The Classes for the April and June Examinations will commence early in January next.

THE Council invite attention to the scheme set forth below, which has been adopted with the object of affording assistance to articled clerks, before and after the Intermediate Examination, in the prosecution of their studies, and to encourage a habit of systematic reading.

The intention is to offer to articled clerks an opportunity of carefully and thoroughly reading and digesting the principles and practice of law, the knowledge of which will be essential to them in their professional career.

To enable articled clerks to do so with effect, it has been decided to extend the instruction over a considerable period, so that those who desire continuous assistance may have it during the greater part of their articles, without unduly shortening the time necessary for office work and reasonable relaxation.

Attention is specially directed to the facilities now, for the first time, afforded to students, by which the books necessary for the prosecution of their studies may be at their disposal.

Prior to the Intermediate Examination.

A tutor has been appointed to supervise the studies of pupils. Students are recommended to subscribe for, first, a course of postal tuition extending over twelve months at least.

Postal instruction, both for London and country students, will be given by means of monthly letters containing suggestions as to the general course of reading, with hints as to points to be noted and general advice, and with questions to be answered from memory, the answers to be returned to the tutor, for correction and comment.

This course of instruction to cover the selected portions of Stephen's Commentaries within each twelve months.

It is intended that the letters shall be varied each year, so that students who may decide to subscribe for more than one year's tuition shall receive additional assistance.

This course may commence at any time. In addition, each student will have during the period of this subscription opportunity of consulting the tutor in personal interview on three afternoons of each week, or at any time by letter, on such points and questions as may present difficulties to him.

Arrangements have been entered into through the Tutors with a firm of law publishers and booksellers, under which the volume of Stephen's Commentaries for the time being under consideration will be forwarded to subscribers. The intention is that the volume should be retained by students so long as required for study upon that portion of Stephen's, and should then be returned by them.

The next volume would in due course follow. To cover the additional expense, a fee of £1 1s. is added, as will be seen by reference to the table of fees, and students will be required to pay the cost of transmission of books through the post, or otherwise. If, however, students desire to purchase their books, they may subscribe for this course of tuition without payment of the additional fee.

Also, in addition, students are recommended to subscribe after the expiration of this tuition, whether it be for one year or longer, to a class preparation.

Rooms have been set aside at the Hall of the Society, for the purpose of preparation, for the use of students attending the classes, and copies of Stephen's Commentaries are there provided for perusal.

The classes will be held on three afternoons in each week at the Hall of the Society. Periodical test examinations will be held by the tutor.

Four classes will be held in each year during the following periods:—

August to November.	January to April.
October to January.	March to June.

Students may subscribe for successive classes, and will, as in the case of postal tuition have opportunities of consulting the tutor in personal interview or by letter.

A Time Table of Classes for students who have not passed the Intermediate Examination will be handed to each subscriber to the classes.

Tutor, Dr. WEST.

After the Intermediate Examination.

A tutor has been appointed to assist in their studies those students who have passed the Intermediate Examination.

The course of instruction will embrace the following subjects:—

The Principles and Practice of Equity.	Conveyancing.
"	Common Law.
"	Bankruptcy.
Criminal and Magisterial.
Probate and Divorce.
Ecclesiastical Law.
Admiralty.

Students are recommended to subscribe for, first, a course of postal tuition extending over twelve months.

Postal instruction, both for those residing in London and the country, will consist of twenty-four fortnightly letters, in character similar to those referred to for students prior to the Intermediate Examination. These letters will deal with the subjects above mentioned, and answers are to be returned to the tutor, within seven days from receipt, for correction and comment.

It is intended that the letters shall be altered and revised from time to time, to embrace recent statutes, cases, and rules, so that students who may decide to subscribe for more than one series shall receive additional assistance.

This course may commence at any time. In addition, each student will have, during this course of instruction, opportunities of consulting the tutor personally on three afternoons each week, or at any time by letter.

In this case also arrangements have been made under which all the works covered by the course of instruction will be forwarded to subscribers to the classes, and also to students who subscribe to the course of postal instruction. Each book, or volume, may be retained until the papers set upon it have been considered and answered, and should then be returned and application be made for the one next required.

To cover the additional expense, a fee of £1 11s. 6d. is added, as appears by the table of fees, and students will be required to pay the cost of transmission of the books through the post or otherwise.

Students who desire to purchase their books may subscribe for this course of tuition without payment of the additional fee.

Also, in addition, students are recommended to subscribe, after this course of instruction shall have expired, to a preparation in class.

The classes will be held on four afternoons each week at the Hall of the Society. The classes will be held during the periods following, namely:—From August to January, and from January to June.

Each of these periods will afford five months' class preparation, and the work will be so arranged that students can join the classes at any time. By reference to the Table of Fees, it will be seen that amounts are charged proportionately to the length of tuition. Students are advised to subscribe for a full course, and in any case for not less than three months, otherwise the work must necessarily be hurried.

Each subscriber to the classes will have the opportunity of consulting the tutor personally during three afternoons in each week, or at any time by letter.

For the purpose of preparation, rooms have been set aside at the Hall of the Society for the convenience of students attending the classes, and copies of the books to be considered in class are there provided for perusal.

Students may join the classes, either those before or after the Intermediate Examination, without subscribing to the course of tuition by correspondence, but it is recommended that they should avail themselves of both modes of instruction.

Periodical test examinations will be held by the tutor for students attending the classes.

Tutor, Mr. J. CARTER HARRISON.

A Time Table of Classes for students who have passed the Intermediate Examination will be handed to each subscriber.

COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION.

Early in December next the Council of Legal Education will appoint three Members of the General Board of Examiners. Applications, from gentlemen desirous of being appointed, should be sent to the Clerk of the Council, Lincoln's Inn Hall, not later than Saturday, the 1st of December.

COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION.

HILARY HONOUR EXAMINATION, 1895.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR STUDENTSHIP AND HONOURS.

The attention of Students is requested to the following Rules:—

Two Studentships of One Hundred Guineas per annum each, tenable for three years, shall in each year be given to the Students who shall pass the best Examination on the whole in all the subjects mentioned in Clause 28 of the Consolidated Regulations. But the Council shall not be obliged to recommend any Studentship to be awarded if the result of the Examination be such as, in their opinion, not to justify such recommendation. Where any Candidates appear to be equal or nearly equal in merit, the Council may, if they think fit, divide the Studentship between them equally or in such proportions as they consider just.

No Student shall be eligible for a Studentship who is over twenty-five years of age on the first day of the Examination for which he enters.

Only members of an Inn not called to the Bar shall compete for a Studentship, or Honours.

There shall be two Honour Examinations in each year, at each of which one Studentship and Certificates of Honour, enabling the holders to be called to the Bar without further Examination, may be awarded.

At every call to the Bar those Students who have obtained Studentships shall take rank in seniority over all other Students called on the same day, and those Students who have obtained Certificates of Honour shall take rank immediately after the holder of a Studentship called on the same day.

The Inn of Court, to which the holder of any Studentship or of a Certificate of Honour belongs, may, if desired, dispense with any Terms, not exceeding two, that may remain to be kept by such Student previously to his being called to the Bar.

The Council may also award to the Student, being a Candidate for a Studentship or Honours, who shall have passed the best Examination in Constitutional Law (English and Colonial) and Legal History, a special prize of Fifty Pounds. Provided that the Council shall not be obliged to award such prize if the result of the Examination has not been such as, in their opinion, will justify the same.

An Examination will be held in December next, to which a Student of any of the Inns of Court, who is desirous of becoming a Candidate for a Studentship or Honours, will be admissible.

Each Student proposing to submit himself for Examination will be required to enter his name, in full, personally or by letter, at the Treasurer's or Steward's Office of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, on or before Monday, the 10th day of December next, and he will further be required to state in writing whether his object in offering himself for Examination is to compete for a Studentship or Certificate of Honour, and (if a candidate for a studentship) to produce evidence as to his age.

The Examination will take place in the Middle Temple Hall; and the doors will be closed Ten Minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the Examination.

The Examination will commence on Monday, the 17th day of December next, and will be continued on the Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday following.

DARBY and BOSANQUET

ON THE

STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS

IN ## ENGLAND AND IRELAND.

SECOND EDITION.

BY

F. A. BOSANQUET, Q.C., and J. R. V. MARCHANT, Barrister-at-Law.

"Twenty-six years have elapsed since the appearance of Darby and Bosanquet's Treatise on the Statutes of Limitations. During this period that work has held the field, no other very satisfactory dissertation on the subject of it having been produced. The result of this delay in the preparation of a second edition has been to compel the practitioner to consult special handbooks in all cases in which the law since 1867 has been altered by statute or by decision. And in the interval since that date at least two important Acts of Parliament—the Real Property Limitation Act of 1874, and the Trustee Act, 1888—and a mass of judicial opinion, have combined to alter, modify, or settle many points relating to the limitation of actions. In the meantime Mr. Darby has died, and Mr. Marchant has become the colleague of Mr. Bosanquet. The legal profession is to be congratulated upon the possession of a work, which, after a careful examination of its statements and comments upon difficult questions, appears to us to supply a long-felt want—the want of a reliable guide to a very intricate and far-reaching branch of English jurisprudence. The plan of the new edition follows substantially that of its predecessor, but we are not surprised that, having regard to the causes already mentioned, it has become necessary, as the authors state, to re-write the entire book."—Law Quarterly Review.

With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders and Forms, including Forms of Statutory Compositions and Schemes, &c.

BY

GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq.,

Barrister-at-Law.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"In spite of rivals, Robson's Law and Practice in Bankruptcy—an excellent treatise, we always thought—maintains its position in legal literature. It has now entered its seventh edition. The sixth edition was published before the Act of 1887, and consequently that Act and the Act of 1890 have had to be dealt with. The chapter on Bills of Sale is now put at the end of the volume. Beyond this there are no changes. The judicial decisions of recent years are duly noted, and Robson on Bankruptcy remains an efficient and up-to-date text-book."—Law Times.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Examination in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Author of Brett's Commentaries on the Present Laws of England; Joint Author of Clarke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883; and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text-book for 'The Final.'—Solicitors' Journal.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

* * * The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-156, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself, of the suggestions of his friends and the criticisms of his reviewers by correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and also of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

EMDEN'S PRACTICE AND FORMS IN WINDING-UP COMPANIES.

A Concise and Practical Treatise upon the Law and Practice relating to the Winding-up of Companies from the commencement of the Winding-up Proceedings to Dissolution, with a Chapter on Reconstruction.

BY

HIS HONOUR JUDGE EMDEN,

AUTHOR OF "THE LAW RELATING TO BUILDING, BUILDING LEASES, AND BUILDING CONTRACTS," "A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PRACTICE STATUTES, ORDERS, AND RULES," "SHAREHOLDER'S LEGAL GUIDE," ETC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The whole work is thoroughly well done. . . . We have rarely met with a work in which so much pains have been taken not only to set forth the whole of the law and practice to which it relates, but to do so in the most lucid and concise manner. The book will be of great assistance to all who are concerned in the Winding-up of Companies, particularly to those who are comparatively new to the work. If the practitioner goes wrong with Mr. Emden's book in his hand it will be his own fault."—Law Times.

"We think the arrangement of this book is very good. Each step in winding-up proceedings is traced. . . . The statutes are printed at length in the appendix. . . . There is a very good time table, and also a convenient tabulated summary of the leading cases upon the liability of contributories. . . . With regard to the treatment of the very numerous cases with which company law abounds, it is always intelligent, and the style is easy and perspicuous."—Law Journal.

"Mr. Emden is already well known as a legal author, and his book on the winding-up of companies will, we think, increase his reputation. This treatise is judiciously confined to the important branch of company law which relates to 'winding-up'; and the author is thereby enabled, within the compass of a moderate volume, to supply the practitioner with a very complete work. In arrangement, little is left to be desired; and, by variations of type and marginal references, the eye is assisted in its search for any particular subject. The appendix of forms cannot fail to be practically useful."—Solicitors' Journal.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"In spite of rivals, Robson's Law and Practice in Bankruptcy—an excellent treatise, we always thought—maintains its position in legal literature. It has now entered its seventh edition. The sixth edition was published before the Act of 1887, and consequently that Act and the Act of 1890 have had to be dealt with. The chapter on Bills of Sale is now put at the end of the volume. Beyond this there are no changes. The judicial decisions of recent years are duly noted, and Robson on Bankruptcy remains an efficient and up-to-date text-book."—Law Times.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law; LL.B. London University; B.A., late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and of Leading Cases in Modern Equity; and late Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

** The main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We are glad to observe in the present edition the marks of careful revision. . . . It is a comprehensive outline of existing English Law, contained in a marvellously small compass, well arranged and so contrived, by the insertion of illustrative cases and extracts, as to be interesting, instead of repulsive, to the student. On some subjects a list of leading recent cases is added, the effect of them being shortly stated. The account of the Settled Land Acts, at pp. 145-156, may be commended as a very good piece of exposition. The index has been improved, and a word must be said as to the attractive type and convenient size of the volumes."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The success which we predicted for this book on its first appearance, only a year ago, seems to be now fully assured, for we already have before us a second edition. . . . Mr. Brett is singularly fortunate in being called upon so soon to bring out a new edition, because he has thus been afforded an opportunity of availing himself of the suggestions of his friends and the criticism of his reviewers by correcting the errors which were inevitable in a first edition, and also of incorporating the numerous Acts which have, since the publication of his first edition, been placed upon the statute-book by an exceedingly active Legislature."—Law Journal.

"The compilation has been done with care, and the new edition is up to date, and is altered to include the legislation of last session."—Law Notes.

EMDEN'S PRACTICE AND FORMS IN WINDING-UP COMPANIES.

A Concise and Practical Treatise upon the Law and Practice relating to the Winding-up of Companies from the commencement of the Winding-up Proceedings to Dissolution, with a Chapter on Reconstruction.

BY

HIS HONOUR JUDGE EMDEN,

AUTHOR OF "THE LAW RELATING TO BUILDING, BUILDING LEASES, AND BUILDING CONTRACTS," "A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PRACTICE STATUTES, ORDERS, AND RULES," "SHAREHOLDER'S LEGAL GUIDE," ETC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The whole work is thoroughly well done. . . . We have rarely met with a work in which so much pains have been taken not only to set forth the whole of the law and practice to which it relates, but to do so in the most lucid and concise manner. The book will be of great assistance to all who are concerned in the Winding-up of Companies, particularly to those who are comparatively new to the work. If the practitioner goes wrong with Mr. Emden's book in his hand it will be his own fault."—Law Times.

"We think the arrangement of this book is very good. Each step in winding-up proceedings is traced. . . . The statutes are printed at length in the appendix. . . . There is a very good time table, and also a convenient tabulated summary of the leading cases upon the liability of contributories. . . . With regard to the treatment of the very numerous cases with which company law abounds, it is always intelligent, and the style is easy and perspicuous."—Law Journal.

"Mr. Emden is already well known as a legal author, and his book on the winding-up of companies will, we think, increase his reputation. This treatise is judiciously confined to the important branch of company law which relates to 'winding-up'; and the author is thereby enabled, within the compass of a moderate volume, to supply the practitioner with a very complete work. In arrangement, little is left to be desired; and, by variations of type and marginal references, the eye is assisted in its search for any particular subject. The appendix of forms cannot fail to be practically useful."—Solicitors' Journal.

ROBSON'S BANKRUPTCY.

THE LAW OF BANKRUPTCY

(A TREATISE ON).

Containing a full exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law, including the Law under the Bankruptcy Acts, 1883 and 1890; the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887; the Debtors Act, 1869; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors, and the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Statutory Compositions and Schemes, &c.

BY

GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq.,

Barrister-at-Law.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"In spite of rivals, Robson's Law and Practice in Bankruptcy—an excellent treatise, we always thought—maintains its position in legal literature. It has now entered its seventh edition. The sixth edition was published before the Act of 1887 and consequently that Act and the Act of 1890 have had to be dealt with. The chapter on Bills of Sale is now put at the end of the volume. Beyond this there are no changes. The judicial decisions of recent years are duly noted, and Robson on Bankruptcy remains an efficient and up-to-date text-book."—Law Times.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Author of Brett's Commentaries on the Present Laws of England; Joint Author of Clarke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883; and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text-book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal.
 "Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Statutory Compositions and Schemes, &c.

BY

GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq.,
Barrister-at-Law.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"In spite of rivals, Robson's Law and Practice in Bankruptcy—an excellent treatise, we always thought—maintains its position in legal literature. It has now entered its seventh edition. The sixth edition was published before the Act of 1887 and consequently that Act and the Act of 1890 have had to be dealt with. The chapter on Bills of Sale is now put at the end of the volume. Beyond this there are no changes. The judicial decisions of recent years are duly noted and Robson on Bankruptcy remains an efficient and up-to-date text-book."—Law Times.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Author of Brett's Commentaries on the Present Laws of England; Joint Author of Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts; Author of Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883; and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text-book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal.
"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important cases decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.
