FACTS ABOUT OUR HIGH SCHOOL.

The following statement showing a comparison of expenses of the High Schools of Santa Clara County for the year ending July 1st, 1905, has been industriously circulated by one whose zeal in the cause of tearing down the fair reputation of our high school has led him to exhibit what seems to be a spirit of great unfairness:

EXPENSES FOR HIGH SCHOOLS IN SANTA CLARA FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1905.

	Average Attendance	Salaries per Student	Contingent Expenses per Student	Total per Scholar
San Jose.....	525	$47.70	$ 6.30	$54.00
Los Gatos.....	63	47.00	9.00	56.00
Santa Clara.....	125	30.44	6.50	36.95
Palo Alto.....	109	63.10	21.40	84.50
Campbell.....	58	62.19	21.84	84.03

It may be seen that the above deals only with the average per pupil and makes no mention of the fact that the salaries paid by the Campbell Union High School were lower than those paid in any other high school in the county except the one recently started at Morgan Hill.

It is a rule well understood by all versed in high school economy that to a certain degree the cost per pupil diminishes as the number of students increases, for the reason that each teacher presides over larger classes.

Greater or less sums were paid from the grammar funds for teaching in the high schools which was not mentioned and in the Campbell school the salaries for the whole year and the last month of the year preceding were included. In the contingent expense was included several hundred dollars expended from the building fund of the preceding year, and amounts expended for building and furniture during the current year. However the greatest unfairness lies in the fact that from the list of schools published in the financial statement from which the above comparison was taken the author left out three schools which showed much larger average of cost and only used those figures which would seem to show the Campbell Union High School in a bad light. But the question of real interest to taxpayers is the rate of taxation. Here it is:

Campbell.....	18c
Los Gatos.....	20c
Santa Clara.....	20c
Gilroy.....	38c
Mountain View, bond 9c; maintenance 13c; total.....	22c
Palo Alto, bond 16c; maintenance 34; total.....	50c
Morgan Hill.....	12c

The following statement of averages has been made from data obtained in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools:

A COMPARISON OF THE COST OF TEACHING IN THE HIGH SCHOOLS OF SANTA CLARA COUNTY, FOR THE YEAR ENDING JULY 1, 1905.

	Average Attendance	Paid Out of High School Fund	Paid Out of Grammar Fund	Total	Average per Student
Campbell.....	65	$ 3322.50	$ 90.00	$ 3412.50	$ 52.50
Gilroy.....	53	3500.00	900.00	4400.00	69.84
Los Gatos.....	79	3100.50	600.00	3750.00	47.47
Mountain View.....	33	2950.00	250.00	3200.00	96.97
Palo Alto.....	143	7328.88	450.00	7778.88	54.39
San Jose.....	633	25370.00	1000.00	26370.00	41.66
Santa Clara.....	142	3750.00	2900.00	6650.00	46.83
Morgan Hill.....	17	1119.96	800 10	1920.06	112.94

The amount paid per student for contingent expenses by the Campbell school was about $10.25. The amount paid by the other schools is almost impossible to obtain without going to the books of the respective schools for nearly all of them pay a large amount from the grammar funds, the Los Gatos school for instance pays $400 per year for rent, all the janitor's salary and the fuel and water bills from the grammar funds, while nothing was paid from the grammar funds for the Campbell Union High School incidentals.

This statement is issued only to correct false impressions and with no desire on our part to cause any of our sister schools to appear to disadvantage. All honor is due to the public spirited citizens of Morgan Hill and Mountain View for giving to the youth of their communities the inestimable advantage of a high school education.

A DAY AT STANFORD.

Miss Anna Cooper Pilots a Party of Seventy-Two There Wednesday.

On Wednesday morning at 7:10 the students of the seventh and eighth grades under the leadership of their teacher, Miss Anna Cooper, with a large number of friends, left Campbell for a day's visit at Stanford University.

The conductor gave over last car for our use and a jolly crowd we were. Miss Cooper carefully counted to see that all were on hand, and found seventy-two. The ride was fine and all too soon the brakeman came in and shouted "next station Palo Alto; unload at each end." They seemed to be expecting us, and brought carriages to take us carefully to the University, lest we be weary, but we Campbellites preferred to walk, so disappointed the drivers of their expected fee.

The way led along an avenue of palms surrounded by forest trees, dark and grim. The sun shone and the walk was enjoyed by all. The students hurrying to their different study rooms looked with wonder at our happy, care-free crowd. Soon we saw an immense array of immense stone buildings, arranged in the form of a square, surrounded by wide walks roofed overhead and, with the study rooms on the same level, no long stairs to climb. The electric call bells sounded for recitation, and the chimes rang for the quarter hour. This immense school was just beginning its morning session.

We decided first to visit the Memorial Chapel and took the walk bordered on either side by round plots of jungle, so beautiful, composed of many kinds of Oriental trees. Between the walks there have so much gravel that it cannot be muddy, even on the rainiest day. The outside view of the chapel is so fine that one is somewhat prepared for the magnificent grandeur inside. Near the door in a tiny frame hangs this beautiful message:

"Whosoever thou art that interest this church, leave it not without one prayer to God for thyself, for those who minister, for those who worship, and for those you love."

The many beautiful stained glass windows represent Bible scenes, and very glad were we to have the Rev. Mr. Needham with us to explain them, for I am sorry to say the rest of us had not read our Bibles enough to remember all the characters represented.

Cut into the stone in square tablets are many noble thoughts on Spiritual things. I copy only part of one:

"If we do good deeds to others, and try to help them to live happier and better lives, by being kind to them, and teaching them of the God germ within themselves, we in that way sow the seed and God in His own way and time will make it grow. There is something in all hearts that can be reached, some chord that will give forth sweet music, if we only have the skill to touch it."

On being told that the organ would not be played until four o'clock, we decided to walk around and see the sights, which we did until lunch time, when we chose a quiet nook, and feasted on many different things, ate picnic fashion, sitting on the ground—not very comfortable it is true, but funny.

We next went to the Library and were glad to be able to climb the marble stairs and view the busts of the great and good, as well as the array of books, books, BOOKS, seemingly beyond number, until the mind refuses to comprehend what the eye sees. For in the upper story we found two young men studying the bones of the human body. One had the front part of the head in his hand while the other had the hand, which he asked Bernice to shake, but she refused. Near by stood, or rather hung, a skeleton; one limb was off at the knee. How gruesome it looked to us. Through the laboratories we found our way. The students seemed to enjoy our interest in what they were so tired of. They gave us distilled water, and on someone saying they didn't like it, one student said "perhaps not, if one is used to ginger ale this does taste flat." So we found no more fault.

As we came out on the library steps Miss Cooper got all close together and put us in a—dare I say a beautiful picture?

We next went to the museum and enjoyed the many rare and beautiful things. The shawls, dresses, and laces were most admired by some, the oil paintings by others, while the Eskimo family at home with their snow hut and the bear they had killed was of great interest to some. We didn't have time to see everything carefully and can enjoy it just as well another time.

As it neared four o'clock we went back to the church to hear the music and in dim light we sat in this wonderful, sacred place and listened to, it seemed to me heavenly music, from far away sweet voices singing, coming nearer each note, until finally it seemed to take the waiting soul and bear it away in rapture. I thought when the Angel of Death comes for me may it be like this

Overhead far above is a great round globe of light, and in the centre an eye of such marvelous power and intensity of gaze, that the guide said some people were afraid and trembled to see it. I think it must be because of a guilty conscience, for you do most certainly feel as if it could read your very soul.

At the altar in the centre stands the statute of Christ, on one side the Madonna, on the other St. Joseph with the babe in arms. In a semi-circle are the twelve Apostles. It is so impressive, so beyond anything I have ever seen. A holy silence is over all, only the glorious music fills and dominates the place.

From the church with its associations, to the active, throbbing life in the gymnasium was almost a shock to some, but a joyful experience to the young gentlemen of our party, who hailed with delight the difficult feats performed by the trained athletes. Only a little time to see and admire, and we must make for Palo Alto and our train for home.

Miss Cooper gave souvenirs to all, counted once more and saw us aboard. All honor to Miss Cooper, who so loyally guided and befriended us through this delightful, never to be forgotten day.

The Latent Good In Every Human

By OLGA NETHERSOLE, English Actress

THERE is SOME GOOD in every one. No matter how low the man, no matter how low the woman has sunken, there is still some good in the man, still some good in the woman. And that brings to my mind another ideal—an ideal that I hope some day to realize when I have money in my pocket to alleviate the real, the PHYSICAL SUFFERINGS of mankind. From my childhood I have been brought in close touch with the lower and the criminal classes, for my mother was one of the leading workers among the workhouses and prisons of England, and my sympathies early went out to those unfortunates whose condition almost always is due to ENVIRONMENT. I believe the reformation of these men and women can be best brought about, not by the mere giving of money, but rather by the giving of ENCOURAGEMENT; by making them believe that they are still men, that they are still women; that good is still within them. I have found, no matter how low a man may have fallen, no matter how bad he may be, that if you praise him FOR SOME ONE THING the life will awaken in him, the spark of manhood will rekindle, and there will be hope for that man.

LET THE MAN ONCE KNOW THAT YOU HAVE FAITH IN HIM AND YOU HAVE SAVED HIM. THIS IS MY IDEAL. PERHAPS SOME DAY I MAY BE ABLE TO CARRY IT OUT.

Our Sister Republics' Strength Is Our Strength

By ELIHU ROOT, Secretary of State

WHEN President Monroe, coming to the aid of struggling Spanish America, made the AUDACIOUS AND GAL-LANT DECLARATION that no part of the American continents must be deemed subject to colonization by any European power, he affirmed the proposition that all the American republics are COMPETENT to maintain throughout their territories governments answering to the demands of civilization, preserving order, enforcing law, doing justice and performing all international obligations.

TO THAT PROPOSITION ALL OF US STAND COMMITTED. ITS TRUTH WE ALL MAINTAIN. EVERY EVIDENCE IN ITS SUPPORT IS A SOURCE OF SATISFACTION TO US. EVERY FORWARD STEP IN THE PATH OF PROGRESS BY AN AMERICAN REPUBLIC IS A CAUSE OF JOY TO ALL OF US.

May every one of the SISTERHOOD OF AMERICAN RE-PUBLICS grow in prosperity and strength. May the independence, the freedom of the RIGHTS of the least and weakest be ever represented equally with the rights of the strongest, and may we all do our share toward the building up of a SOUND AND ENLIGHTENED PUBLIC OPINION of the Americans, which shall everywhere, upon both continents, mightily promote the reign of peace, of order and of justice in EVERY American republic.

The Only Charity That Does Permanent Good

By PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

THERE are a great many very excellent charitable people in the country, but some of them tend to forget at times that the only charity that does PERMANENT GOOD is that kind of charity that is NOT CHARITY AT ALL, that teaches some one how to help himself or herself. The only way in which any section of our citizens, of no matter what color, can be permanently benefited is by teaching them to PULL THEIR OWN WEIGHT, to do their own duty, their duty to themselves, their duty to their neighbors, their duty to the state at large.

The PRESS is late enough this week to be able to announce the death of Mr. C. R. Lewis, which occurred this (Friday) night at about 7 o'clock. He had been steadily failing for some weeks and the passing away was not unexpected. We have not heard as to when and where the funeral will be held.

Last Saturday afternoon about five o'clock the little year-and-ten-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. R. Morton was very nearly drowned in the Duncan irrigating ditch south of town. The baby wandered from the house and got into the ditch, and but for the prompt work of Logan Benner, who heard the baby's cries, death would have resulted. The baby was taken quite a distance in the stream and when rescued was unconscious, it taking some twenty minutes to revive the baby. The parents wish to publicly thank Logan for having saved their baby's life.

Mrs. G. L. Beaver gave a party last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Belle Lovell who is to return to her Kentucky home after an extended visit here with relatives, and at the party were a large number of friends who will remember with pleasure her sojourn here. A most delightful time was had by those present. Delicious refreshments were had. Those present were: Mesdames Beaver, Cook, Pontius, Hinde, Merrill, Davis, Blaine, Doolittle, and Hurlbert; Misses Belle Lovell, Stewart, Mary Lewis, Ethel Catton, Adra Eaton, Lena Swope, Letitia and Della Archibald.

A petition signed by practically all of the business men of Campbell was last week sent to Supervisor Roll asking that he reappoint Howard Buffington water wagon driver here this summer, so that the town may have a peace officer near at hand, which we do not now have. The friends of Mr. Robinson afterward circulated a petition asking to have him transferred to the town route, taking Mr. Buffington's place. The result will be watched with interest, as it is said the roadmaster has given out his ultimatum that Buffington will not get it, in order to punish "that — of a little editor." Just how it will punish us we have not yet discovered. The town is in need of a peace officer and if the roadmaster wants to assume the responsibility of having Buffington removed, and leaving the town without adequate protection from hobos, convicts, shop lifters, forgers, etc., just for spite against the editor, it's "up to him" and the people know where to place the responsibility.

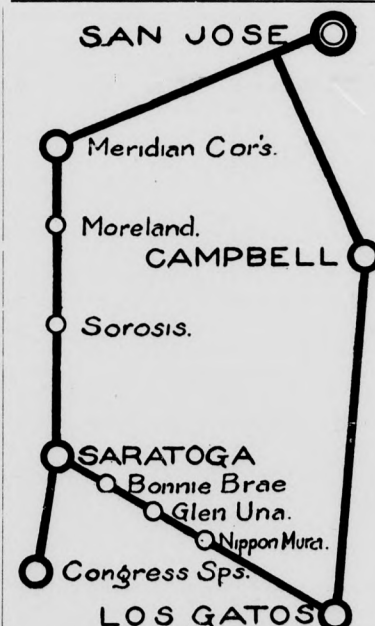

Last Friday night the Saint Patrick social, which was in the nature of a reception to the Christian Endeavor Society by the Epworth League, proved to be a delightful affair, and for the successful planning and carrying out of the affair Miss Mary Lewis deserves great credit. The decorations in green were unique, the games suggestive of the occasion, as well as the program. Dr. Needham gave an interesting paper on Saint Patrick, Mrs. Alda Blaine and Miss Florence Kennedy sang appropriate solos, Miss Letitia Archibald rendered a piano solo, Miss Della Archibald a violin solo, Miss Jessie Lewis gave an appreciated reading, Miss Phoebe Farley recited an Irish selection, singing and games indulged in, after which very delightful refreshments were had, notwithstanding that a few ruffians entered the refreshment room through a window and dumped on the floor several gallons of lemonade and made away with some cake, after eating and drinking their fill, no doubt. Fortunately the store was near and a new supply was made at considerable trouble and cost. The parties are known and at the proper time their names will probably be revealed. It was a contemptible trick for young men to perpetrate.

The school election is warming up, but candidates for the grammar trustee are slow in coming forward. Mr. Campbell declines a re-election we understand, for which the district loses a conscientious, hard working trustee. Doubtful if a successor to him can be found who will devote as much time for the public good. So far no candidates have announced themselves, but we have heard mentioned the names of Jas. Relfe and W. H. Blodgett. We understand Mr. Relfe declines to run. For the high school trustee Dr. P. C. Hartman is a candidate to succeed himself. He was appointed recently to fill the vacancy resulting from the resignation of Dr. Gates. He has not had an opportunity to show what sort of a trustee he would make, but his many friends believe him to be an ideal man for the place. The other names we have heard are R. W. Kennedy and Ed. Gilman, both of whom have friends who think either would serve the district in an able manner.

The polls will be open from 1 to 3 P. M. Friday, April 6th.

In Cambrian District J. F. Duncan is a candidate to succeed himself, and we understand that Mr. Hills will be a candidate. The other two high school districts do not elect this year.

COMMENTS ON THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE STATE GRANGE AT GENEVA.

A Business Body That Treated Questions in a Businesslike Way—Officers Elected by the New Form of Ballot—Resolutions Adopted.

That the thirty-third annual session of the New York state grange, held early in February at Geneva, N. Y., was a business meeting par excellence none will deny who was there. Not in recent years have more important subjects been considered in a more businesslike manner in any state grange meeting. The work in committees was of a particularly high order, and the discussions before the grange showed a thorough familiarity with the subjects presented. Said a former member of the state legislature: "I am surprised at the ability manifested on the part of the delegates in their discussions. I had no idea they were so well posted on so many public questions." And yet why should they not be? We have long been told that the farmer should think more for himself and not let some one else do his thinking for him. There are evidences that the farmer is getting his eyes open to the situation and is thinking and acting for himself and his own interests more than ever before.

In a most interesting ten minute talk Dr. Jordan, chief of the New York state experiment station, spoke along the line above suggested. "I sometimes wonder," he said, "if this body fully realizes its influence and responsibility. You as farmers represent very largely public opinion. Public men and politicians are watching your movements, and that means that your opinions ought to be about right. It means much to hold sound and rational views on public matters." And this is particularly true of the farmer who is in the grange.

The attitude of the grange toward education in all its phases is most commendable. Education is the cornerstone of the grange. It believes in it, it advocates it and it recommends it for the farmer as well as for the professional man. The state meeting asked the legislature to give the agricultural college of Cornell university a "liberal maintenance." It heartily approved of the work of the farmers' institutes, expressed itself as in "hearty accord" with its efficient organization and management and urged the legislature to increase its annual appropriation for this excellent feature of educational work. It advised subordinate granges to procure a working agricultural library for the use of their members. As is generally known, the New York state grange sustains several agricultural scholarships at Cornell, and this year the appropriation for this purpose was increased to $300.

The subject of grange life insurance has been discussed in national and state granges for the past year more than ever before.

F. N. GODFREY.

While the national grange did not believe that any plan for a national grange life insurance company was feasible, owing to the fact that the insurance laws of different states vary so widely, there is probability that some of the state granges will adopt some practicable plan of life insurance within the next few years. The state grange asked that a special committee be appointed to work in connection with the executive committee to look carefully into this matter and report at the next annual session.

Among the more important resolutions adopted by the grange those covering the following named topics may be mentioned: Favoring the removal of the internal revenue tax from denatured alcohol for commercial purposes; favoring the discontinuance of the custom of free seed distribution by members of congress, on the ground that it is an expensive burden to the mails and a petty kind of graft that is demoralizing both to our representatives and to those who accept the seeds; requesting the United States department of agriculture to take such steps as

Circulation 400,000.

At a fair estimate, based on examination of circulation figures given in newspaper directories, this grange department appears every week in papers whose combined circulation is approximately 400,000. That means that at a low estimate it will fall into the hands of 1,000,000 people. Thus is the grand work of the Order and its beneficent doctrines being promulgated through the medium of the press. The grange owes fealty to the papers that publish these matters of special interest to its members.

Ohio Grange Notes.

The co-operative committee reported contracts with thirty-nine firms.

The receipts of the state grange exceeded the expenses during the year by the sum of $1,341.77, making the total assets of the state grange at present $18,553.57.

Sixty-five classes formed and six libraries founded is certainly a good report for the first year of the Ohio state grange agricultural and domestic economy committee under supervision of Dr. Thompson, president of the Ohio State university; Dean Price and Mrs. Mary E. Lee.

W. L. WOODROW FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER

Telephones: Office, Main 91
Residence, James 2581

The W. C. T. U. will hold a union gospel temperance meeting in the Congregational church on Sunday evening, April 1st. Rev. A. H. Needham will deliver the address.

The Campbell Political Equality Club will hold a meeting in the Coffee Club on Tuesday, April 3 at 2:30 o'clock, when Mrs. Elizabeth Lowe Watson will speak on the Relation between Woman's Enfranchisement and her Industrial Freedom. Everybody cordially invited.

The normal class and teachers meeting of the Methodist church was held last Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farley on the Los Gatos road. After the business of the evening was over the guests were ushered to the dining room where delightful cake and chocolate were much enjoyed.

The unsettled weather is interfering with the cement walk laying. This week Mr. Sawyer was able to get down quite a long piece in front of Mr. Campbell's property. The walk will be put down in front of the dwelling occupied by Mr. Powers and Mr. Berry is to have a walk in front of his residence and around the side. Mrs. Wilson will also have additional walk put down. When all the walks being planned are completed the town will certainly have made rapid progress in that line. Why not keep up the good work on other avenues?

The Sunnyside Social Club, or quite a number of the members, made up a skating party and went to San Jose last Tuesday evening. From special telegraphic advices we learn that they cut quite a figure on the floor—it being the first attempt for the majority of them. Friend Fisher "knew how" and got on swimmingly it is claimed, but Hugh and Seba haven't anything to say. Advices say that L. J. and Loren tried to punish the floor, not realizing that it was hard. The young ladies are very cautious as to what they say about roller skating. It is said that crutches, canes, and strips of scantling were necessary to assist these skaters to navigate home and that the Campbell Drug Store's stock of liniment and salve was liberally patronized the next day.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Campbell Drug Store.
