An interesting sidelight upon the affairs of the Illinois Central is that within the past year there has been almost an entire re-organization of the official family, the old officials having given way to new ones.

Out of the chaos and excitement stirred by the visit of detectives to the various offices and manufacturing plants of companies which had transactions with the Illinois Central railroad came some information showing the well defined plan which is being putrated.

city, despite namerous objections which have been raised, continues to use the area in question as a site whereon to place the surplus water pipes and as a dumping ground generally for all sorts of material which the city cannot find another resting place for. At a meeting of the city council a couple of weeks ago, Ald Bannerman raised his voice in protest against the city using this section of the city as a dumping ground, but ally to no avail. He was told, in reply to his objections to having the water pipes placed there, that the water department could not find any other place to put them pending their distribution. Fearing that if some drastic steps were not taken the place would be constantly used in this manner by the city. Ald, Bannerman has "taken the bull-by the horns" and proposes to forever settle what its use shall be in the future.

Ald. The section of land in question is admirably adapted for the purposes of a small park or common, and would lend itself easily to some scheme of beautification.

WILL EXPLAIN THIS EVENING

ENGINEER AND WATER COMMISSIONER TO REPORT

on Michigan Street Are to Be Cleared Up

Considerable interest attaches to this evening's meeting of the streets, sewers and bridges committee of the city council in view of the fact that reports are expected from both the water commissioner and the city engineer relative to the trouble which developed on Michigan street a few days ago, and to which Ald. Sargison directed attention at the last meeting of the board. The work of making permenent improvements to the thoroughfare was seriously interfered with owing to the necessity of putting in water connections after a portion of the street had been macadamized. The discovery of this evidence of lack of system in executing civic work led to strong protests being foldied by members of the board against its continuance, and it was decided to endeavor to fix responsibility by having special reports from both the water commissioner and the city engineer. These officials are to be in attendance at this evening's meeting, and some light will no doubt be thrown on the question.

Another matter which will receive consideration this evening is the disposition of some eight small fountains, which have been in possession of the city for some time—and in this connection an amusing story is going the rounds at the city hall. At the last meeting of the board Ald Humber raised the question of arranging for the placing of the fountains. He felt that some explanation was due as to why the matter, had not been attended to sooner, and expressed some doubt as to whether the fountains. He requised to accept the assurance that they were, and moved that the water commissioner be asked to "produce" the same at the next meeting of the committee. The motion was passed and duly recorded on the minutes, and later Mr. Raymur, the water commissioner, was instructed to "produce" the same. As the committee room is somewhat limited in its dimensions, Mr. Raymur felt somewhat worried, but by consultation with Ald. Humber the matter was compromised by the commissioner agreeing to "produce" one of the fountains.

It is not improbable that the matter of supplies of sand and gravel for the season's work will be again discussed.

Owing to the enormous amount of work planned for the summer by the city and the contractors and builders, some-fear that a famine of this material may ensue. What complicates the situation somewhat, from the city's point of what complicates the situation somewhat, from the city's point of view, is the fact that opposition has developed to the proposal to take more fraterial from the Spring Ridge pits. It is understood also that a number of the property owners object to the cost of the local improvements where

NEW GOVERNMENT IN AUSTRALIA

Industrial Legislation on Advanced Lines Will Be Introduced

(Special to the Times.) Melbourne, April 15.—The triumph of the Labor party in the general effections has produced a profound sensation. While apparently there is no great difference between the programmes of the parties, there is a big divergence in principle. The Laborites are strong for the concentration of power in the federal government while the Fusionists desire to strengthen the authority of state by a graduated land tax. Industrial legislation on advanced lines is inevitable in the first sension of the new parliament. The new production as a policy siving the benefits of the tariff to those manufacturers only who pay the highest wages will be watched with interest. Melbourne, April 15 - The triumph of

SCOTT ACT FOR THIS PROVINCE

PROPOSED AMENDMENT INTRODUCED IN COMMONS

Minister of Agriculture on Development of the West

(Special to the Times.)

Ottawa, April 15.—Hon. Charles Murphy introduced in the Commons to-day a bill to amend the Canada Temperance Act. The amendments will apply solely to the province of British Columbia. The object is to meet the new definition of counties and cities recently made by the legislature there, and to remove anomalies in the wording of the present act so that if any district in British Columbia wishes to apply the Scott Act the present wording would not cause confusion.

Hon. G. P. Graham informed T. Mac-Nutt. Liberal, Saltcoats, that no muskeg had been encountered on the proposed route of the Hudson Bay railway which would stop progress, and it was the latention of the government to proceed with the line with all possible spect.

That Halley's comet has for the past three mornings been observable in the southern sky is the statement of a number of people living in Victoria who have had the opportunity of beholding this famous heavenly wanderer. The Times was informed to-day by a lady residing on the Esquimalt road that she and other members of the family can testify to the appearance of the wonderful comet, and it is not doubted that other residents have perhaps seen it also.

It appears, said the Times informant quimait district it rose into the heavens at a point in the sky which appeared to be in line with the Empress hotel. On the first occasion on which it was seen it appeared as a large electric light might look. This morning, low-ever, it seemed to take form of a bird, and the watchers, being surprised at this, procured a pair of binoculars, but it still retained this fantastic outline. No doubt many Times readers will tomorrow morning be on the watch for the famous gomet, which is now attracting world-wide attention, received a large number of letters from prominent persons urging leniency. The explanation of the minister was the result of a question asked in the House yesterday by A. C. Boyce, West Algoma.

HAD BRICK FOR EDITOR.

London, April 15.-Horace Davis, an risiman, called at the office of the Times yesterday and demanded to see the editor. When told the editor did not come to the office until-evening, Davis hurled a brick through the plate glass window. When arrested and taken to the police court the magistrate asked him what grudge he had against the Times.

"Every decent frishman has a grudge against the Times," the prisoner re-terted. "I know that this is no place to ralk politics, but I am thinking about Pigot and Le Caron."

The magistrate remanded him.

POLISH DREAM OF FREEDOM

THE ROMANCE OF EUROPE'S POLITICS

Revival of Kingdom Enthuses Millions of Poles Throughout the World

(By Herbert White, United Press Cor-

Berlin, April 15.-Great exertions are Berin, April 15.—Great exertions are being made to remder the conference the Polish Nationalists are to hold at Washington in May as fully representative as possible. The conference will deliberate on the present conditions of European Poles and will pay especial attention to the necessity of securing more assistance from Poles residing in the United States in carrying on the great Polish movement.

Every European country takes inter-great Polish movement.

Every European country takes interest in the doings of the Poles because the Polish question is the romance of the politics of Europe. All good Poles in Europe and America, rich and poor, noble and plebian, old and young, are animated by a great patriotic determination to re-establish the ancientkingdom of Poland, with its own king, its own government, and its own territory. This is the programme of the Polish National movement. The idea of the revival of the kingdom of Poland enthuses and united millions of land enthuses and united millions of Poles living in far-scattered countries and having no other common aims of Russian Po-land consists of the provinger in the extreme western area of the Russian empire, clustered around Warsaw. Austrian Poland consists of the pro-vinces of Calicia lying between the Carpathian mountains and the Russian-frontier. German Poland consists of the extreme eastern provinces of Posen and Silesia.

and Silesia.

The aim of parriotic Poles is to liberate all these three divisions and to reunite them as one independent kingdom. A powerful and widespread Polish Nationalist organization exists to accomplish this purpose.

In Russia and German Poland the inhabitants are sadly oppressed by the Russian and German governments, respectively. In Austria, however, the party and have secured a large measure of influence.

But neither the oppression meted out to the Poles in Russia and Germany nor the favors showered upon them in Austria have diminished their enthusiasm for their cause. Neither coercion nor, fawning have undermined that Polish Nationalist movement, based on the passionate attachment of the Polesto their national individuality.

Few people believe that the Poleshave any prespect of realizing their

At first sight their programme seems impossible if not ridiculous, Gersems impossible if not ridicultus, Ger-nany, has 4,000,000 soldiers, Russia and ustria 3,000,000 each. These three em-ires together with 10,000,000 armed men rould undoubtedly combine to suppress Polish revolution. Previous Polish revolutions have been crushed with awful severity and terrible slaughter. The Poles in Lussia number 6,000,000 There are nearly 4,000,000 of them in Austria and 3,000,000 in Germany.

Austria and 5,000,000 in Germany. Against their present rulers they appear to have no chance.

Leaders of the Polish National movement recognize this hopeless numerical interiority, but they base their hopes on possible conflicts and changes in European politics. Supposing the great European powers were plunged into a gigantic war the Poles might have an excellent chance of reviving their inignatic war the Poles might have an accelent chance of reviving their inspendent state amid the general turnoff. Moreover, in the ensuing peace to be taken to stamp out this dreadful enemy to the life and hapiness of manking, and western continental ween eastern and western continental Europe might be acceptable and even velcome to some of the powers. CHILD DISAPPEARS.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 15.—Acting on the possibility that a ten-year-old white child, reported to have been seen with a band of gypsies who were camping in the Arroyo Seco, near Los Angeles, may be Alma Kellner, who was kidnapped in Louisville three months ago, the police are making every effort to find the child. The gypsies came here from Covina. While there one of their number stated that they had come from the Ohio river district. The child was seen in their camp, but the wandefers refused to answer questions concerning her. The police were notified of the presence of the little girl with the band. Search for her has proved truitless.

ISSUES ULTIMATUM TO STATE OF KENTUCKY

Southern Pacific Will Withdraw Unless Assessment is Reduced

Louisville, Ky., April 15.-Either the state board of assessors of Kentucky must reduce materially the assessment against the Southern Pacific holding company's franchise or the big corpora-tion will move out, according to an ultimatum which the company's offi-clals has made to the state.

The Southern Pacific Company is the wealthlest corporation operating under a franchise issued by Kentucky. It is worth $290,000,000 and its official resi-dence is just outside the Louisville city limits. The Kentucky assessors fixed an assessment of £19,00,000 on the Southern Pacific's franchise. Officials deolare that $7,000,000 would have been a liberal valuation.

declare that $7,000,000 would have been a liberal valuation, Judge. Humpfirey, counsel for the holding company, has notified the assessment board that the company would withdraw from the state and reincorporate in Utah or Maine if the assessment was not reduced. Such a change would entail a cost of $100,000 as it would be necessary to call in all the stock.

FIGHTING WHITE PLAGUE.

Annual Meeting of Canadian Association Will Be Held in Montreal Next June,

The year 1909 will be marked in the calendar as a red letter year in the history of the crusade against consumption. The movement received a great impulse from the congress of distinguished physicians which was held in Wastington, U. S., in the autumn of 1908, to consider the further measures to be taken to stamp out this decaded.

CORSETS

If Corsets incorrectly proportioned and incorrectly poised resulted only in woman's lack of grace, the evil would be sufficiently deplorable. But the body must have freedom and support at exactly the right points to produce a condition of physical well-being. For this reason, as well as the convenience derived from wearing a front lace corset, we recommend the GOSSARD, as being all that a woman could derive in "correct comfort." could desire in "corset comfort."

We also earry other corsets of repute, such as: Nemo Self-Reducing, latest modes in C.B. a la Spirite, W. B. Nuform Corsets, D. & A. Directoire Corsets—together with a full line of Ladies' and Children's Hygeian Waists.

A DISQUIETING SITUATION.

Probably never in the history of the country was there a political situation so difficult to follow understandingly as that which now prevalts in the United Kingdom. It is like a kaled descipe which changes and presents a new aspect with every turn. A new crop of rumors rises every day, almost. The uncertainty is not confined to public opinion in this part of the character of the dispatches manufactured for trans-Atlantic consumption. pressed at the meeting of the association on Tuesday evening:

"Resolved, that this association desires to express its profound, regret at the unitimely death of Captain R. G. Tatlow, and to convey to his family its sincerest sympathy and condolence.

"An honorable opponent in politics, unfailingly courteous and invariably fair, the late minister was universally held in the highest respect and esteem. Inspired with devotion to the best interests of his adopted province, possessed of special and intimate knowledge of its conditions and needs, and ready to sacrifice personal interest and ambition to his country's welfare, his premature removal from a sphere of usefulness may well be regarded as an almost irreparable loss to his political party, and to the province of British Columbia."

best she could do. She suffered no damage, however, up to the time she was spoken.

The Empress brought a valuable cargo of silk and tea from the Orient, all of which was taken on to Vancouver.

The passenger list of the steamer was a very extensive one. She had on board 58 first class, 49 second class and 470 third class. A number of these debarked here, including about fifty of the steerage passengers. Among those in the saloon were a number of milliary officers returning from India; L. Weller, cousin to Otto and Charles Weller, of this city, Mr. Weller is railway director in the Kingdom of Siam, and adviser to the King in railway matters. He will spend a few days here with his relatives before continuing his journey to Germany. Unlike his cousing, he is a German sublock, Gher passengers included Henry Marks, with his wife and family. Mr. Marks is a wholesale merchant in Fill, and does huslness with some of the Victoria merchanta. He is spending to-day in this city before proceeding to Vancouver and on through the United States on a year's trip round the world. Then there was H. S. Oppe, a business man from Shanghai; Mr. and Mrs. Minton Goode, on their way round the world from England; and a couple of American judges from the Philippines.

PROTESILAUS IS SPLENDID LINER

VERY LATEST WORD IN FREIGHTING STEAMERS

Has Lines of Mauretania and is Half Knot Faster Than Sisters

The new Blue Funnel liner Protesilaus arrived here this morning on her maiden trip from Liverpool, and on the whole the voyage was very successful. She brought a cargo of about 13,000 tons, of which 1,400 tons is for this port. The steamer will return in a few days and discharge the general cargo at this port, and some machinery for the steamer Salvor and water pipe for the steamer Salvor and water pipe for the Esquimait Waterworks Company. In passengers the steamer brought about $50 Chinese and five in the saloon. These were Mrs. Habitt, wife of the United States consul to Japan, who with her two little girls are visiting friends in this city. The other was Mr. Courtney, who also joined the steamer at Yokohama.

The Protesilaus is a splendid freighter. Her lines are very similar to those of the Mauritania and Lusitania. She has two feet more beam than the older vessels of the line, and can carry eight saloon passengers. She is the very dast word in speedy freight steamers, and is a craft to be proud of. For this reason the vessel can be excused for carrying a cock at her mast as claiming the honor of heing the fastest vessel in the fleet. She did not beat the record between any two long distance points, but in one day steaming she proved that she was about half a knot faster than the Proteus or the Bellerophon.

Over Four Hundred Chinese Examined by Customs and Immigration Officials

The new immigration building which was opened a short time ago near the outer dock had its capacity tested this morning and was, found slightly wanting, for all the Chinese from the two liners which arrived this morning could scarcely find accommodation there. The Protesilaus brought about 350 and the Empress over 50, so that there were over 400 Orientals in the building at one time. Most of these were returning after the New Year celebrations, but one time Most of these were returning after the New Year celebrations, but one time Most of the semine cargo made her ride low, so that sea washed her decks, even going over the wheel house. Plank Steak Dish

The Plank Steak Dish is some-thing new in Victoria. It is a method by which you can cook with perfection a steak by lay-ing it on an oval shaped solid wooden plate, with receptacles for receiving the gravy. After your steak is done, you simply take it (leaving it on the wooden plank) out of the oven, and place it in a handsome dish (electro-plated over nickel silver), spe-cially made to receive it, and then it's ready for serving.

This is really a very appetizing way in which to serve the much enjoyed steak, and looks far nicer than using the ordin-

"It has been rough house for muh, all me life, and I think this looks like home, sweet home," says Liz in the farackal comedy of the bill at the Grand. She goes to the ranch and her arrival there forms the basis, for the charming sketch, presented by Maude Hall Macy, Bessie Carlton and J. Frank Burke. Jay Bird, the farmer, has an old maid sister, played by Miss Carlton and her work in this respect was very delightful. She objects to the unconventional girl from the city and some smart dialogue ensues. Excellent Building Lots, Near the Site of the New High School on King's Road, Still $425

The announcement that the property at the junction of King's road and Cedar Hill road had been selected as the site of the high school gave a decided fillip yesterday to the already lively interest in our subdivision at the junction of King's road and Cook street, only two blocks distant.

This site, we have good reason to believe, was deliberately chosen in the conviction that wherever the new school was located a new car line would be built to serve it.

Keeping these facts in mind, if you were the owner of the lots shown below, would you sell them at the prices first advertised, or would you promptly advance them 25 per cent?

Our course is to give the purchaser the benefit of enhanced values. Prices on all lots unsold remain the

LOCAL STEAMER BADLY BATTERED

POUNDED ON ROCKS NEAR PORT ANGELES

Maude is Now Being Patched Up at California Port

(Times Leased Wire.)

Port Angeles, April 15.—The British steamer Maude, laying the Western Union cable between Port Angeles and Victoria, is being patched up here to-

The Maude went ashore yesterday atternoon on the outside of Ediz Hook, near here. The steamer Bellingham, captain Kalstrom, on route to Neah Bay, was called upon to help and the Maude was pulled off after breaking a six-inch hawser on the first pull.

A heavy swell was running on the beach at the time and was washing the Maude farther up the spit every minute, making it extremely fortunate for the boat that the Bellingham happened along. The heavy cargo of happened along. The heavy cargo of telegraph cable would have worked havoe in a short time in the pounding of the swells.

The Maude is one of the salvage steamers of the B. C. Salvage Company, which left here on April 15th to lay the cable. She was taken on time charter at so much per day. Captain Jackman is in charge of her. SATURDAY

To the Editor: I respectfully call

McBride government's railroad policy. They claim that they are doing all they can to reserve the public domain for the actual settlers. Why are they so silent when they know that the E. & N. railroad grant is withdrawn from the 'market!'. I am in a position to know this is a fact, for I applied for permission to locate on a plece of land within the grant, and was informed the land was withdrawn from the market. Right on the top of this the government instituted their timber policy on Vancouver Island, and locked up most all of the land on Vancouver Island. So it looks like that if any person wants to settle on land on the island will have to go to the C. P. R. and pay the price they like to ask for it. If you look at the E. & N. railway grant, there was a clause in that act that it was to be open for settlement at $2.50 per acre. Now why don't the government step in and, make the C. P. R. open the grant and live up to the agreement? Is it possible that the C. P. R. surning this country' It looks very much like it.

Another thing, why don't the govern-is running this country? It looks very much like it.

Another thing, why don't the government tax the E. & N. railway grant? I have always had to pay taxes for land. Winy not a railroad corporation pay taxes that have acquired land by purchase as well as a pijvate individual? I believe if this case was taken to the Privy Council they would have to pay taxes.

The McBride government poses as a friend to the working class. At the same time they are bartering away the laboring classes children's birthrights as fast as they can.

TEN-STORY BUILDING.

Vancouver, April 14.—The Vancouver opera house, the largest theatre in Vancouver, is to have a ten-story steel office building erected above it. A month ago J. W. Considing of Seattle, purchased the property, but was unable to secure possession because of a leasuntil December, 1912, held by E. R. Rickets. There is enough room on all sides of the opera house for walls, and the steel frames for these will be put in, and work carried to what will eventually be the fourth floor of the new building. From there the latter will be completed immediately, and will be ready for occupation on January 1st. Two years later the lower floors will be installed.

What Other People Think

To the Editor:-A lady with whose daily writings in the Times your readers are so familiar says, in your issue of Saturday, that she has "often seen girls in stores who would grace a throne." I have not yet seen one so qualified amongst the numerous pretty girls in the stores in Sam Langford, the Boston colored man, defeated James Barry, of Chicago, in the sixteenth round at the Vernon arena, Los Would it be judicious, and would it not lead to many complications which time could not well rectify, to suddenly elevate or transfer a girl from her position to the dazzling limelight of a Edropean throne-socially so far above even the haughty Lady Clara Vere de Vere, who is endowed with so many queenly attributes and to the manner born. I think our pretty young friend would soon plue for her more congenial occupation in Victoria, and perhaps the prospective occupation of the throne straight left to the chin, after having had the best of the fight for the last eight of cable between Port Angeles and the prospective occupation of the throi of the "May Queen." surrounded by he many friends and admirers, if that time honored festivity has not passed out on on the outside of Ediz Hook. nine twice in the tenth round.

PROTECTION OF ISLAND ELK.

To the Editor:—It would be of great, benefit to the settlers of quatsino Sound to bring as many monied people, tourists, hunters, etc., to our beautiful Sound. In order to do so, some of our settlers are petitioning the government to close the hunter for the sound of the sound are petitioning the government to close elk hunting for the next ten years. While we are about it, would it not be better to close trout fishing, etc., as well?

To an ignorant person it would appear better to petition for an increased bounts on wolves and panthers, the real exterminators of the elk.

During the last five years, only seven minators of the eik.

During the last five years, only seven let the langiford threw Barry let have been killed by sports, while all authors and trappers report finding the functors and trappers report finding the remains of many elk killed by golves and panthers. The same sports have spent last four rounds the men slugged one analysis.

The speaker gave Froebel credit for planting the germ of thought that in later years led to the evolution of manual training and he traced the carry development of the movement through various phases and described the various systems in vogue at the present time in different confirms, and especially those of the United States.

In all the schools of which he had been speaking, the manual training was carried along with the other school subjects, and the invariable result of its introduction was to raise the general scholastic efficiency of the school. Dr. Wolverton held that the mental training was still more valuable than the mechanical training. Drawing was the groundwork of manual training. groundwork of manual training, not an article of any sort could be the until it had first been represented Woiverton for his address, which by pressure of circumstances he had been obliged to give almost impromptu. An animated discussion followed.

Dr. E. C. Arthur, president of the club, stated that the Nelson school board was in favor of manual training, but believed that the government should provide a proportion of the equipment. As the legislature had recently enacted a law under which the government would pay not less than three-fourths of the cost of the equipment installed by any school, there was nothing for the Nelson board to do but go ahead and establish the department and that would undoubtedly be done.

SEEK TRAM CONNECTION.

Ladner, April 14.—The board of trade will approach B. C. E. R. officials and ask for tram connection with Vancouver. One of the principal points brought out in the discussion was that with tram connection the many large holdings on the Delfa would be cut up linto small acreages, and the land being so desirable would be bought up at once, ensuring a population that would blace the tram line on a profitable basis at commencement from the standing point of passenger traffic. Connection with Vancouver will be asked by way of Woodward's slough, across Bulu Island and into the Terminal city by way of the second bridge. Petitions in favor of the tram line have been circulating in the district for the past few weeks and have been very largely signed. The board of trade representatives will take these petitions with them. The matter of building the line to New Westminster was also dis-weed problem of smelting zinc ores.

"The legislation introduced the other day, of which you are aware, enables the governor-in-council to authorise the expenditure of a sum not exceeding $50,000 for investigating the various processes. It is proposed under the authority thus given to inquire into all the known methods of electrical smelting of zinc. Not only will investigations be conducted in this country, but we intend if possible, to extend our inquiry to Europe. The process which is best adapted to conditions of Canadian ores will be adopted.

"The we come to the conclusion that the electrical process may be applied to the refractory low-grade ores of British Columbia, experiments will be carried on in that protynice; but the department of mines desires to have a free hand to conduct them wherever it is deemed advisable, because, as I am sure you will all agree, the main point is to find the best nethod by which zinc ores can be treated.

Mr. Taylor, in reply to a remark from the court, stated that he intended to argue that whether the sewer system was not responsible for the society was not responsible for the so-he had learned from city maps, and he had learned from city maps and plans.

To shorten the matter, Mr. Taylor expressed his willingness to admit that the sewers were not sufficient to carry off all the surface water and sewerage in exceptional times.

Mr. Alkman was ready to accept this, but proposed to show that in addition the city was draining surface water through the sewers from a district quite distinct from that in which plaintiff's property lay.

It was agree that during recess a representative of plaintiff should accompany H. F. Shade to take measurements of the sewers, and the case was resumed during the afternoon.

Solid Oak Chiffonieres,

A Sample Value From the Bedroom Furniture Stock

During the past week we have several times listed new lines of bedroom furniture which we have been putting into stock, but we trust you will pardon our again drawing attention to this very fine line of low priced, solid oak bedroom furniture.

Some of the very best values we have ever offered are included. Every piece is built of solid oak—not "surface" oak—and for low-priced furniture is splendidly finished. We would greatly appreciate an opportunity to show you these pieces on our Third floor at any timethough preferably to-day.
