- Around 50% of GM curators now trained in how to edit Wiki

Where do we go from here?

Discussions on the next stages for the Wiki Working Group

From these discussions the group identified the first priorities as being:

- Keeping the group going
- Content audit of what exists already on Wiki relating to GM
- Roadmap for what the group wants to achieve

Also discussed:

- Including set days to work on wiki related work
- Possible themes and subject areas that we can suggest on talk pages
- Working with existing Wiki Communities who may have updated GM pages and offering resources to help improve these pages

*Remember – As Glasgow Museums' staff we are discouraged from writing or editing direct articles about the venues or Glasgow Museums as it presents a Conflict of Interest.

BUT –We are encouraged to contribute to the encyclopaedia through talk page discussions, proving references, etc.

Image Donations

- SP advised that Legal require suggestions of images that GM would want to release to Wiki Commons
- There are possibilities within the World Cultures, Natural History and Social History collections
- TM will speak to AC re help with World Culture suggestions
- All image donations will be uploaded with the tag {{Glasgow Museums image}} to ensure link back to Glasgow Museums collection

Photography Event

- Backstage Pass event between Kelvingrove, Kelvin Hall & Riverside
- Local Camera clubs or members of the Wiki Community interested in museums, history, architecture, Glasgow
- Date TBC
- TM will keep group updated on this

Wiki meetings will be held every 2 months – next meeting:
Thursday 30th July, 10am, KG
