SELECTMEN'S REPORT

As all of the business relating to schools has been conducted wholly by the school committee, and the town has voted that the school report shall be presented with the selectmen and treasurer's report. It was not deemed necessary or advisable for the selectmen to report upon the same. Therefore it was agreed by the selectmen and superintendent of schools that the school committee should make a report that should cover all matters relating to schools, including the financial. Therefore that matter is left wholly with them.

Authorized to sign schooling certificates for the North village until March, 1890—Rev. Geo. E. Brightman.

*Deceased.

†Sec. from Nov. 12, 1889.

In compliance with the desire expressed by vote at the annual town meeting held last March, the School Committee herewith submit their report in conjunction with the Selectmen and Treasurer.

Given at this time, the report cannot cover the whole school year of 1889-90. But it is given as far as it can be conveniently.

Since the Selectmen have decided to omit the report on "Schools" and "Miscellaneous Orders for Schools," usually found on the first few pages of their report and leave it to the School Committee to report those items it is deemed best to give them in the same way, essentially, in which they have formerly appeared that they may the more easily be understood.

The following financial statement for schools (including the three items of Teachers' Wages, Janitors' Wages and Fuel) covers the time included between Dec. 1, 1888 and Dec. 1, 1889, while the statement for Incidentals covers the time from Feb. 1, 1889, to Feb. 1, 1890.

At the beginning of the year the School Committee appointed a committee on repairs for each school-house; and school-house supplies were received by the Supt. from G. B. Walker as follows.—

3 dust-brushes, 6 brooms, 5 dust-pans, 1 tin dipper, 6 wash-basins, 2 water-pails, (second hand), 1 zinc dipper, 2 mop-handles, (second hand), and numerous hinges, latches, hooks, window fasteners, etc.

A part of these were delivered to the schools during the year and the rest are in the hands of the Superintendent.

While our schools this year have been considerably broken by an unavoidable changing of teachers, and especially during the present term by "La Grippe" and other sicknesses, yet, comparing them with the schools in surrounding towns there is no question but that they have maintained an efficiency which is very creditable to the faithfulness and excellence of the teachers, as a whole, who have been employed. In our School Report for 1880-81, Mr. Geo. A. Shove expresses a truth which is too often lost sight of. It is this, the ideally perfect school is easy to imagine, but very difficult to practically realize. Still the committee are aiming at the best results.

The discontinuance of the Flat Rock school for the Fall term and conveyance of the pupils to the South graded schools was attended with very good results to the children and quite a saving to the town. The same results however, could not have been reached during the winter, by a similar arrangement.

It may be thought by some that an assistant was provided for the So. Grammar because of the closing of the Flat Rock school. But this is not so. The teacher of the So. Grammar had planned work for her school which she could not successfully accomplish without an assistant, and offered to have her wages reduced one dollar per week if the committee would furnish her an assistant.

An assistant therefore was furnished who had experience in teaching, and by the reduction of the teacher's wages it cost the town only one dollar and a half per week for the assistance rendered. It was not thought best to provide any assistant for the school during the present term, but Miss Abby Vance volunteered her services free, deeming the experience she would secure a sufficient remuneration for the service rendered. The committee as well as the teacher are very grateful to her for her labors.

During the year, Death, ruthless, and "no respecter of persons," entered the ranks of the School Board and snatched away (in the person of Miss Sarah W. Phillips) one of the most devoted members. Following are the Resolutions passed by the Board at a meeting held Nov. 12, 1889.

Respectfully submitted,

Jos. E. Sears, for the Committee.

Whereas, Almighty God, in His inscrutable Providence, has removed by death from the scene of her earthly activities, our friend and co-laborer, Sarah W. Phillips ; therefore,

Resolved, That we submissively bow to the Divine decree, and humbly invoke the comforts of omnipotent grace upon the large circle of friends who mourn her loss.

Resolved, That in the death of Miss Phillips, the town has lost a valuable and intelligent advocate of the best educational methods, the school board an efficient member and faithful officer, and the home circle a tender and devoted daughter.

Resolved, That this inadequate testimonial of our high appreciation of the conscientious performance of the duties assigned to her as Secretary of this Board, and of our great regard for her beautiful Christian character, be placed upon our records.

GEORGE E. GOODING,

Town Clerk.

Auditor's Report.

The state of our finances I think I can safely report are in a better condition than last year at this time. The Treasurer the last of February, 1889, had to effect a temporary loan of $1400 to pay bills coming due, while this February he may be able to meet all bills.
