Document No. 2693
(Certified as Exhibit "F" in Doc. No. 2687)

TO: Chief POW Information Office, Tokyo
FROM: Chief of Staff Taiwan Army
Radio #929
7 April 1942

Concerning the allotment of POW's to Taiwan, in Taiwan Radio #854 we wanted for the time being about two or three thousand, principally as agricultural laboring power. However, afterwards the Governor-Generalship wanted to use them in Public Works construction and mines too, so combining this with the substance of the last radio it comes to about seven thousand (7,000), which is referred for due consideration.

Chopped by: HIGUCHI, TANAKA and checked / for the C.G.

I hereby certify that this is a true translation of a radio the fourth entry in Taiwan Army H.Q. Staff Files concerning POW's Vol. 1, 2 April 1942 to 24 August 1942.

Signed: Stephen H. Green
STEPHEN H. GREEN

This is Exhibit marked "F", referred to in the Affidavit of JAMES THOMAS NEHEMIAH CROSS,

Sworn before me this 19th day of September 1946.
