President Pledges Aid In Driving Out Grifters In Public Office

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Having formally taken up the standard of his party and charted the course of the coming campaign, President Coolidge prepared today to leave Washington for the Vermont hills, where for two weeks he will enjoy a complete rest preparatory to engaging in one of the hardest presidential fights in history.

"Restricted immigration is not an offensive but a purely defensive action.

"I propose to use every possible effort to resist corruption in office. The American government must be clean.

"The foreign policy of America can best be described by one word—peace.

"The Congress should have authority to provide a uniform law to protect childhood.

"I favor economy that the taxes of 'everybody may be reduced.'

On all purchases of $15 or more in the jewelry line, R. L. Cole, jeweler, 106 East Broadway, makes the first payment and the balance which is due may be paid in installments around $1 or $2 a week. This special offer is put on by Mr. Cole as a feature of a new account drive for the month of August and will last only a very limited time.

It is satisfying to note, states Mr. Cole, that while this is supposed to be the vacation season there are a great many more people in town than is usual at this time of the year. The drive has met with excellent success to the present date and has been instrumental in placing many new names on his records.

New shipments of jewelry are arriving every day to keep the stock always complete and of good variety.

GIRL SCOUTS IN SPECIAL SESSION

Troop No. 1 Holds Meeting And Receives Twenty New Members

Impressive in its formality and enjoyable in its spirit of good fellowship was the gathering yesterday afternoon of Troop No. 1, Glendale Girl Scouts, at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church.

The real feature of the affair was the investiture of twenty tenderfoot Scouts, this ceremony being accompanied by other events of great interest to the Scouts and their guests.

Meeting at the church at 3 o'clock the girls participated in a mock initiation, that proved most entertaining.

At 5 o'clock the formal ceremony was held in charge of Miss Gladys Sharpe, captain; Mary Stanley, first lieutenant; and Lucille Beach, second lieutenant. All those taking part were in full Girl Scout uniform.

Receive Members

Those invested as tenderfoot Scouts were Laura Nelson, Eloise Biddle, Bernice Van Gilse, Dorothy Vernon, Genevieve Marek, Grace Staat, Katherine Browne, Dorothy Sorbes, Eudice Jones, Dorothy Doane, Lois Archambault, Betty Biggs, Katherine Lloyd, Virginia Lloyd, Virginia Wymore, Marjorie Packard, Edna Lange, Helen Stanley, Marion de Bey and Caroline Spradling. Each one of these girls has successfully passed all tenderfoot requirements and all have been connected with the troop for over one month.

Martha Fleming was invested as a second-class Scout.

Later a delicious luncheon was served by troop officers and members of the Eagle patrol. Shades of pink were used in decorating the tables. Streamers of pink crepe paper, pink napkins and lovely pink flowers were features. The placecards bore the Girl Scout emblem.

During dinner the Girl Scouts' song was sung and before bidding each other farewell the girls sang their troop song.

Guest of Honor

Special guests were Mrs. F. A. Beach, Girl Scout commissioner; Mrs. W. L. Wichert, secretary of the council; Mrs. J. E. Buie, captain of Troop 6; Mrs. Avis Thimm, lieutenant of Troop 5.

Those arranging the ceremonial luncheon were Miss Margaret Sharpe, captain; Mary Stanley, first lieutenant; Lucille Beach, Alice Carpenter, Frederica Browne, second lieutenant; Katherine Bender, Alexandria Bagley, Cecil Chase, Lina Borthick, Lucille Harris, Martha Fleming of the Eagle patrol.

Geo. Orgibet Brings Family to Glendale

Announcement of the coming of the George Orgibet family to Glendale is made in the Tuesday, August 12, edition of the Redondo Daily Breeze. Mr. Orgibet has opened a print shop at 106 South Maryland avenue.

Redondo Beach friends of the family are anticipating having them spend the summer weekends at the beach. The Daily Breeze says: "Friends will deeply regret losing the Orgibet family, who for years here held a prominent place in all business, civic and social activities. Mrs. Orgibet will be especially missed in the Woman's club and Mr. Orgibet in organizations standing for civic betterment and advancement."

Odd Fellows Plan to Finance Orphan Home

The project of financing a new building at the I. O. O. F. Orphans' home at Gilroy was discussed last night at the meeting of Glendale Odd Fellows in the lodge hall at 201-A East Broadway.

During the evening it was announced that the Glendale team won the second game of five hundred at Van Nuys and the players are now looking forward to a chicken dinner given by the Van Nuys lodge men. The Glendale lodge is to give a public dance on August 30.

Candidate For Supervisor

HENRY W. WRIGHT, candidate for re-election to the board of supervisors from the fifth district, whose friends today issue a statement in behalf of his candidacy.

Friends of Henry W. Wright, candidate for re-election as member of the board of supervisors from the Fifth district, which includes Glendale, today requested The Glendale Evening News to publish the following statement in regard to the supervisor's candidacy:

"Supervisor Henry W. Wright, who is a candidate for re-election this year, has an enviable record in public service.

"Beginning his career in Iowa, his native state, thirty years ago, he was purchasing agent for one of the state's largest public institutions for eight years, going from there to the position of secretary of the state board of control of Minnesota for five years, a board having charge of all the state institutions of Minnesota.

"Coming to California in 1904, and soon becoming identified with local and state affairs and, after serving one term as trustee of the city of Huntington Park, was elected to the state legislature from the Sixty-Ninth assembly district. He was re-elected to the assembly for four successive terms, serving two terms as chairman of the important ways and means committee, and being twice unanimously elected speaker.

"By virtue of his position in the legislature, he was for four years a regent ex-officio of the University of California, and rendered valuable assistance in securing a branch of the state university for Southern California at Los Angeles.

"During the World War he was appointed by President Wilson a member of the district draft board for Southern California, and, with his colleagues on the board, during twelve months of service, considered and passed on more than 15,000 claims.

"Three years ago he was appointed by the governor a member of the board of supervisors of Los Angeles county, to fill the vacancy, and two years ago, he was elected for the remainder of that term.

"Supervisor Wright has resided in South Pasadena in the Fifth district for twelve years, is a Republican in politics, a Methodist in religion, a Mason, and a firm believer in American institutions of government.

"The needs of Glendale and adjacent territory at the hands of the board of supervisors is keenly appreciated and fully understood by Supervisor Wright and, due to his experience and knowledge of county affairs, this district will undoubtedly receive its share of constructive attention," concludes the statement.

LINE UP BOXERS FOR ELKS' JINKS

Music and Watermelons Are Other Features for Guests of Lodge

The program that is to be presented at the Elks lodge on Monday night, August 18, when the High Jinks of the order are to be staged, will be featured by a program of five bouts that will bring together some of the best leather pushers in the Southland, according to an announcement by Ray L. Galvin, chairman of the jinks committee, this morning.

Kid Essex, the local boxer, is assisting in the selection of the boys who will mingle in the different events and promises to present a well balanced card.

Another specialty on the program will be several musical selections to be rendered by artists selected by Al Cawood, proprietor of the Egyptian Village.

Watermelon Feed

But the big event of the night's entertainment, says Mr. Galvin, will be a watermelon feed that will permit everyone to eat all the fruit he wants and no holds will be barred when the B. P. O. E. line up for the attack on the melons.

The object of the High Jinks is to raise money to send the Elks band to the annual convention that is to be held at Catalina Island from September 17 to 20, and all Elks are urged to attend and to bring their friends.

Eight More Concerts To End Bowl Season

Eight more concerts underneath the moon and the stars and the third season of Hollywood Bowl concerts will be over. Alfred Hertz has announced the most interesting programs of the season, for next week, beginning with Ravel's Mother Goose Suite, Tchaikovsky's Caprice Italian, and Madame Liszewska as soloist, on Tuesday. This artist is one of Cincinnati's most talented ones, and in her honor all Ohioans will have reserved seats on that evening.

Louis Graveure will sing again in the Bowl on Thursday, and the orchestral program will include two Wagner numbers, Debussy's Festivals, and others.

On Saturday two men known the world over for their brilliant thought in musical work, Arthur Bliss, composer of the ultra-modern school, and Alfred Wallenstein, cellist, will be presented. Adding the plum to this musical feast, Dvorak's entire "New World" symphony will be played. Into this symphony the Bohemian has woven many of the most plaintive old negro melodies.

Program to Feature Playground's Closing

Directors of the various playgrounds are completing a field program of contests in baseball, horseshoes, quoits, checkers and races. Ribbons will be awarded winners.

JUDGE SHELDON IS SPEAKER HERE

District Attorney Candidate Addresses Meeting at Harvard School

Judge Caryl Sheldon, candidate for district attorney, addressed a meeting at the Harvard High school last night. He advocated four specific reforms as being vitally necessary to a proper conduct of the district attorney's office. He said:

"First—Branch offices at Long Beach, Ocean Park, San Fernando, Pasadena and Pomona.

"Second—Classifying the work into departments with an expert as specialist in charge of each department.

"Third—A thorough sifting of complaints. No arrests made without proper evidence. Hundreds of men are detained in the county jail for days, weeks and months, then discharged without prosecution for lack of evidence.

"Fourth—Reform needed in the employment of officers who are clean, straight fellows and who will not drink up the evidence in bootlegging cases. San Francisco has the name of being lawless, yet its district attorney has closed and locked up over 300 liquor selling establishments; Oakland in Ventura county, a small city, 24 cases; Shasta county, with but 3 per cent the size of Los Angeles county, 23 cases, and Los Angeles, none.

"Opposes Compromise

"This county has a most extraordinary record for crime, and one of the chief causes is compromising with criminals, in mitigating the charge, if they will plead guilty. For example, an offender arrested for driving an automobile while drunk is only charged with reckless driving if he pleads guilty.

"During my term as judge I have handled 10,000 cases, 7000 of them liquor cases. I have only suspended sentence in two cases. Under my ruling thousands and thousands of gallons of home-made intoxicating wine has been confiscated. I have turned in from $400,000 in cash to the county treasury. Three thousand men have been sent to jail, and, if elected to the office of district attorney, my motto shall be 'No compromise with criminals.'"

Raise In Stage Line Rate Made Permanent

A supplemental order issued by the State Railroad Commission today makes permanent rate increases recently allowed the Pasadena-Ocean Park Stage Line. The commission's original order on the company's application for authority to increase rates contained a provision that the company should file for a period of six months monthly traffic and financial statements. Today's order is based on a finding predicated on the showing made. The following rates will be charged by the company in the future:

30-cent one-way fare between Hollywood and Pasadena.

20 cents between Glendale and Hollywood.

10 cents between Glendale and Eagle Rock.

SEVERAL CHANGES
GIVE IDEAS ON
BY REALTY FIRM MOTOR TRAFFIC

Homecrafts Corporation Is Taking Active Part in Development Here

The Homecrafts Corporation, 416-418 East Colorado street, has perfected its real estate and insurance organization. D. C. Casselman, formerly secretary-manager of the Los Angeles Builders' Exchange, is manager of the real estate department and the selling force includes Ralph R. Landes, formerly with the Low Building company, J. J. De Mars, several years with the Newport company, and R. E. Miesse who has been engaged in real estate and building in Orange county. Bruce P. Kimball, formerly with Haddock-Nibley company, owners of Rossmoyn, is the manager of the insurance and rentals department.

"All branches of the business will be treated with the utmost concern. Pride and principle the practice and full protection for the best interests of clients. The Homecrafts Corporation has inaugurated an advertising campaign with daily changes and investors should keep close tab on the offers of these items," states the corporation.

Number of Suggestions by Writers to The News' Safety Week Editor

uable suggestions and hints, that The Glendale Evening News is printing a few of these letters each day, which are worthy of honorable mention.

Incompetent Drivers
Cause of Accidents

Safety Week Editor, The Evening News—The one suggestion of paramount importance for lessening the number of automobile accidents, I think all must admit, is that only persons in whose hands an automobile can be safely trusted be allowed to drive. Almost without exception, it is found that where an accident occurs, it was due to some incompetent or reckless driver.

When persons of every sort of mental complex are allowed to drive these heavy, fast-moving machines, how can it be hoped that accidents will be avoided? In Chicago recently it occurred to some official to test the eyesight of a number of persons who had been arrested for traffic violations, with the interesting result that several were found to be so color blind that they could not distinguish a red light from a yellow or white one, and others had a range of vision that did not extend beyond twenty feet. There is not another industry in the world that is not regulated by law so as to exclude unfit persons from positions of responsibilities involving danger to human life; but the automobile industry presents the anomaly of being the one big business where the most important and obvious rule of safety is disregarded, deliberately so, in order that the industry may flourish.

If only persons of tested fitness were permitted to drive, there would be vastly fewer drivers, and fewer automobiles in use; the streets would be vastly safer for everybody, but the industry would have hard sledding. According to statistics, fifty or more human lives are sacrificed in this country every day in order that the industry may continue on its present basis. Is it worth while? Is the question which it would seem must eventually force itself upon the attention of the American people.

Study Traffic Laws
Instead of Fines

Safety Week Editor, The Evening News—In response to your request that residents of Glendale give their views that might be for the betterment of traffic control, I am taking the liberty of voicing mine, gathered from being a constant traveler in traffic in Southern California. Also some rules used by cities in the middle states that have proved very efficient for both officers and reasonable drivers.

- 1—Let all state laws apply except where reduction of speed is necessary.
- 2—Use the boulevard stops.
- 3—Use the speed limit system in passing schools, just as we have it at present writing.
- 4—Discontinue left turn at congested intersections, where in dog-nose intersections, where in dog-nose intersections, where in dog-nose intersections, where in dog-nose intersections, where in dog-nose intersections.
- 5—Do away with present fines system of dealing with violators of traffic regulations. In place of fines, sentence each one to study for two or more hours, the traffic laws. This to be done at police headquarters under the supervision of a competent officer.

provision of a competent traffic officer. The above has been put to test in other cities and found to be very satisfactory.

6—Don't be speedy about denouncing the officer on duty should he give you the customary tag. Chances are, he is right and obeying orders.

Very truly yours,
T. C. RYKMAN,

Keep to Right Is Paramount Rule

Safety Week Editor, The Evening News—Our present motor laws are fine if all motor drivers would observe them, but, one law in particular is broken more than any other and is the cause of many accidents, that is that of keeping to the right or driving close to the curb. Our motor police should see that this law is observed. The old laws along with the new ones I suggest should practically eliminate accidents:

1—The state should have a law compelling all new drivers to pass an examination before obtaining driver's license, also all present license holders who had been found guilty of breaking the motor laws should have to pass this examination.

2—One standard brake for all cars and a testing station for brakes with the same ruling as our present headlight rules.

3—A copy of motor laws should be given to each license holder at time of renewing license.

4—Most of our accidents are at intersections, therefore I would suggest that the remainder be placed in an artistic way on every windshield: "Watch three directions at all intersections."

5—Cancel all motor car insurance.

6—Make one standard gearshift on all cars.

F. M. EDWARDS,
127 N. Columbus Ave.

Plain Clothes for Officers, Suggestion

Safety Week Editor, The Evening News—The present traffic rules are clear and concise—and cover traffic conditions quite thoroughly. The fault or weakness is in not observing or not enforcing observance of the same.

Owing to the selfishness of human nature, it is impossible to have traffic rules obeyed without some fear of punishment for their violation. I would suggest that plain clothes men ride, walk or stand about in traffic and arrest ALL violators of traffic rules.

Where a driver expects a traffic officer in full dress uniform he is always on his good behavior, but where he thinks there is no officer he quickly forgets traffic rules for his own selfish interests.

When a violator is arrested, let there be no PARTIALITY or FAVORITISM shown.

A driver of an automobile or a pedestrian, who VIOLATES a traffic rule is a VIOLATOR, regardless of whether he is a Mason, an Elk, a Catholic or a Protestant, etc., etc., therefore, let him be punished as SUCH.

Let's have punishment certain and speedy.

Yours for better observance of traffic rules.

J. J. HICKMAN,
352-A West Oak Street.

Boulevard Stop Is Necessity, Says Driver

Safety Week Editor, The Evening News—Commending your agitation for safe driving of automobiles, I wish to urge the importance of the "Boulevard stop" on all streets entering a thoroughfare. I have driven over 75,000 miles in states from Massachusetts to California, eight different cars, from 1910 to 1924, and have never had a serious accident, but have been run into three different times by persons entering a main drive, at a rate exceeding 20 miles an hour.

Sincerely yours for the saving of life and limb and property and for increased joy and pleasure in driving, as we have increased safety.

G. B. STARR,
Glendale Sanitarium.

Revoke License of Careless Drivers

Safety Week Editor, The Evening News—Motorists should keep within state speed limits, and slow down on wet pavement and down grade, especially where it might be necessary to turn, swerve or stop.

Don't enter heavily traveled boulevard, give right of way to the other car.

Don't pass another car at intersection.

Always give clearly-defined signals.

Keep to the side of the road, if possible. Don't loaf on crowded, narrow road. Drive up to reasonable speed, or reasonably close to car ahead.

Don't drive too close to car ahead, especially if he has four-wheel brakes.

Don't speed too fast to pass street car that is slowing down at intersection.

Watch Ford's and children. You never know what they will do next.

Don't startle pedestrian crossing street by sounding horn.

Lights and brakes should have official inspection and law should make compulsory the carrying of card stating such had been done.

Everyone desiring drivers' license should have to stand examination and prove his or her ability before being given one.

It's here!

Charge 50 Cents on $50 Checking Account

Announcement is made by the members of the Glendale Clearing House association, composed of the local banks, that after September 1, 1924, a charge of 50 cents will be made on the last business day of each month against any checking account which during the month has shown an average daily credit balance of less than $50, and against which checks have been paid during the month.

This ruling, it is explained by officials of the association, is not with the aim of making a profit, but to relieve of the loss caused by carrying small checking accounts and to eliminate overdrafts and the burden of returning checks because of insufficient funds.

Two alternatives are suggested by the association, one being that the depositors should transfer their checking accounts to savings accounts, or to build up the balance so that it will average

Company Will Extend Its Moving Service

The Bekins Van & Storage company, state of California, have just been granted another permit by the State Railroad commission to extend their motor van lines for moving of household goods over the state highways to include service to Sacramento via Redoe, Vallejo and Davis, as well as from San Francisco via San-Salito, San Rafael, Petaluma and Santa Rosa.

According to a statement issued by Milo Bekins, general manager of the Bekins company, upon notification of granting of this additional franchise, "the Bekins motor van lines now provide an efficient, regularly scheduled means of transporting household goods with greatest economy of time, labor and expense to the party moving—and this facility now covers both coast and valley routes from Los Angeles to San Francisco and Santa Rosa; via Oakland to Sacramento, and from Los Angeles via Fresno and valley points to San Francisco."

Hilary settled herself with a resolute determination to extract some enjoyment from the occasion.

She smiled at Dora's remark that it looked to her like an Old Ladies' Home.

But Hilary saw one wholesome, pleasant-faced woman leading a troop of small children in three little girls, two very small boys, and steeled to sudden resolution, she said:

'Butterfly, you know that if you had gone on with your music you would have had to work very hard, don't you?'

'My dear, I'm going to take up my violin work again immediately!' Butterfly began, smiling contentedly.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S POPCORN PARTY

Uncle Wiggily had gone down to the seashore again for a little vacation trip, and one morning he came skipping up from the sandy beach, his pink nose twinkling as fast as a lightning bug on a warm night in June.

'Come on, Nurse Jane! Hop along, Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy!' called the rabbit to his muskrat lady housekeeper, who was at the seashore with him.

'If you mean, by fun, that I am to stand in the ocean and let you splash water on me with your long ears,' laughed Nurse Jane, 'I'm not going to do it!'

'No! No!' Nothing like that! 'I am going to give a little popcorn party on the beach for some of the animal children. I would like to have you come along to see the sport.'

Nurse Jane said she would go, and soon, down on the sands, a fire was glowing. Uncle Wiggily had bought a popper, which is a sort of wire cage, to keep the corn from sailing away as it pops.

He had also bought some ears of special corn—the kind that bursts and turns white, like snow flakes, when it is shaken over a fire. And Uncle Wiggily had bought some pans in which to mix the corn.

On some he would put melted butter and salt. On others of the popped kernels he would pour red, white and blue sugar.

'Oh, what lovely fun we are going to have!' cried Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels.

'We never had so much fun since school let out,' squealed Curly and Floppy Twistytail, the little piggie boys. Others of the animal children were dancing about the sands, for Uncle Wiggily had invited all his little friends to the popcorn party.

'Sit down on the sand in a ring around the rosie circle, my dears,' called Nurse Jane, 'and Uncle Wiggily will pop the corn.'

The bunny gentleman shook the wire popper of corn kernels over the blaze.

'Pop! Pop! Pop! Pop! Pop!' popped the corn. The kernels burst—they turned white like snow flakes and Uncle Wiggily turned the corn out into the pans.

Then he popped another popper full and Nurse Jane began putting on the melted butter and salt, and also the red, white and blue sugar.

'Let me make a popcorn ball!' begged Floppy, the pig. He took some of the corn, covered with soft, melted sugar, and patted it round in his paws.

He made a fine, big pop corn ball. Then, all of a sudden, while Uncle Wiggily was passing some of the buttered corn to Susie Littletail, Floppy's brother Curly squealed.

'Oh! Ohee—e. Look at Floppy! He's got his mouth wide open and he can't get it shut. Oh, look at Floppy!'

Uncle Wiggily and the others looked, and what do you suppose that piggie boy had done? He had stuffed the whole, big pop corn ball in his mouth at once. The ball was too big for him to swallow! He couldn't even chew it.

'Goo! Ga! Gurra! Gunk!' gurgled poor Floppy, for he couldn't talk.

'Get Dr. Possum!' yelled Nurse Jane.

'No; I can cure him!' said Uncle Wiggily. Taking up his red, white and blue-striped rheuma-to 50 cents for the balance of the present fiscal year, that is to February next. It was decided to present a campaign for a greater membership.

Mr. Randall spoke particularly of the work of the bond committee of twenty-nine, and referred to the various items approved by this body, urging everybody to vote according to his best judgment when the bond election comes up.

Improved Mail Service The question of house to house mail service was taken up and George Hallett, assistant postmaster, and P. Irmischer, were appointed a committee on this subject.

Widening Western Upon the suggestion of a discussion of widening Western avenue from Mountain street to San Fernando road, it was decided to hold this question over to the September meeting.

Indorse Action The association indorsed the action taken by the Planning Commission to extend Victory boulevard and Riverside Drive, and the secretary was directed to direct a letter to the San Fernando Valley Improvement association.

It was moved and seconded that the chairman continue to serve on the bond committee of twenty-nine and to use his judgment in assisting in the formation of any proposed new committee representing all the civic organizations in Glendale which would handle matters of a general nature, after the present bond committee of twenty-nine is discharged.

MOVIE STARS AT EGYPTIAN CAFE

Al Cawood, Manager, Is Making Good on His Promise to Public

The slogan, "Every Thursday—Movie Night, Watch the Stars Come Out," adopted by Al Cawood, manager of the Egyptian Village cafe on North Brand boulevard, has become a reality instead of a promise.

Last Thursday night several prominent movie stars with their friends were present. Among those present were Lee Moran, well known film comedian, who entertained Miss Bernice Sibeck of the Sibeck School of Classical Dancing of this city and a party of six others from the Orpheum.

Miss Irene Rich and her mother entertained Mr. and Mrs. Warren Russell and a party of four from Santa Monica. Miss Dale Fuller, star of "Foolish Wives," entertained her director, Eric Von Stroheim, and a party of four others.

Next Thursday night Al Cawood promises another galaxy of stars.

SPECIAL CREDIT ON NEW WASHERS

Glendale Hardware Co. Gives Thirty Days Use of Machine Gratis

For a limited time only the Glendale Hardware company is offering a special sales feature in connection with the new Liberty washing machine, for which they are the agents in Glendale. They offer a credit of $10 free to every purchaser of a new Liberty washer in a home without a payment for thirty days, which is the equivalent of a $10 payment.

Mr. Cox, the manager of the washing machine department, explains that the new Liberty washer is becoming very popular with the housewives of Glendale and this community. He states that this machine has a drophead wringer and is fully guaranteed. He also makes the statement that all washing machines wash clothes; some do it quicker than others; some machines are harder on clothes than others, some easier, but for a washing machine that will stand up under any and all conditions and give the utmost in satisfaction 365 days in the year, he can unqualifiedly recommend the New Liberty washer.

Wrecks Total $25,000 "The accident today brings the total loss to airplanes within the last six weeks up to $25,000 at the Glendale Airport," W. B. Kinner, manager of the airport, said following the accident.

Dr. T. C. Young, noted Glendale aviator and sportsman, declared that unless an order can be made by the city authorities removing the power lines from the field permanently, which, he said, would mean a great loss to Glendale. He said that the recent offer to the city of five airplanes for fire scouting duty would have to be withdrawn unless the field were made safe, and clear landing possibilities assured.

Eagle Rock Woman Lone Bandit's Victim

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—A lone bandit yesterday walked into Mennin's pharmacy, 3430 Glassell avenue, Eagle Rock, and held up Mrs. Mennin, while people were passing by in full view of what was happening. More than $50 was obtained from the cash register and with whispered commands for her not to move for five minutes, the bandit departed.

The boy problem, as shown by the survey conducted recently by the Y. M. C. A. and the service clubs, was discussed by Rex C. Kelley, Y. M. C. A. secretary, at the luncheon of the Optimists club in the Alley Inn today.

Mr. Kelley outlined the seven objectives that the association has set before itself as a part of the program involved in the plan to raise $275,000 for the erection of the new Y building in Glendale. These are vocational guidance, recreation, physical fitness, brotherhood, education, religion and the family and the community.

With an attractive program worked out along these lines, Mr. Kelley declared, the boys of Glendale will have many of their needs supplied in a way that will tend to make better citizens of them and that will afford an outlet for their activity.

Miss Tilda Rohr, noted Swiss contralto, and a well-known radio performer, sang three songs, "Oh, Golden Sun" (Freeby); "My Dearest Prayer" (Tandler); and "To a Messenger" (La Forge).

Bert Howard, first vice-president of the Hollywood Optimist club, was a guest and played two of his own compositions, "The Greeters' March," and another that has not yet been named, besides reciting two original poems.

HOLD UP ACTION ON SUBWAY PLAN

Proposal to Include Tunnel In Underground System To Come Up Later

Action on the recommendation of Major R. H. Kelker, Jr., in charge of the city-county transportation survey, that the Pacific Electric plans for the Glendale tunnel be changed so that the proposed tube can be made a part of a future subway system, has been postponed until September, according to a statement made by Councilman Allan, chairman of the Los Angeles City Council's public utilities committee. The postponement, Councilman Allan said, has been granted at the request of all parties concerned.

The present plans would place the terminal of the tunnel at the present Pacific Electric station at Hill street, Los Angeles. Among the proposals that have been made is one that would extend the tunnel to a terminal under Pershing square and Olive street, and another calls for the location of the Hill street tunnel underground, so that it may be a station on the future subway system.

Protests against the first-named plan have been filed by the Business Men's association, the Native Sons, Native Daughters, and other organizations, and will be considered by the committee.

MOVE LANDMARK TO NEW LOCATION

Jewel City Undertaking Co. To Transfer Building to Orange Street

The moving of the mission style country club building, occupied by the Jewel City Undertaking company, from its present location on the northeast corner of Brand boulevard and Wilson avenue, to 137 North Orange street, marks the passing of another Glendale landmark that has become familiar to Glendale residents and visitors for over fifteen years.

This mission style building, which was erected eighteen years ago as the Glendale Country club, known as a social center and the place of meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club during the club year 1911-1912, has been occupied by the Jewel City Undertaking company for several years.

Like the old Pacific Electric depot, which, for many years, occupied the location of Glendale's "first sky scraper," the old clubhouse building will be missed by those who have experienced the growth of Glendale from a small town to a prosperous, thriving city.

Will Be Enlarged

The building is being bisected and is to be moved in two sections to the North Orange street location. There remodeling will be done to increase the accommodations and add to the attractiveness of the funeral home. Plans call for the addition of rest rooms, slumber rooms, display room and extra operating room. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips hope to be in the building early in September.

Until the building is ready the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips at the rear of the lot, which has also been remodeled and refinished, will be used as a temporary funeral home.

W. E. Evans, J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. J. G. Huntley and Albert D. Pearce, owners of the property on the northeast corner of North Brand boulevard and Wilson avenue, state that they have no plans for the immediate future.

COMMENT That's All

Public Remains Calm McCoy's Weird Trail Meters for Phones A Curb On Business

By Gil A. Cowan

Editorial writers today are comparing the thoughts of President Coolidge with those of John W. Davis, Democratic candidate for the presidency.

Others are eulogizing the record of the president and some praising the progressiveness of Mr. Davis. It is safe to say, however, that the general public is not overly concerned in what promises to be one of the closest political fights of the century.

Just why there is a lethargy in national affairs cannot be told, but the writer believes it is the realization of the mass of voters that the usual political hokum is being spread.

Practically all local candidates for office, as well as presidential aspirants, have their publicity men working overtime trying to stir up issues.

Strange how Dunlap and Leopold and Loeb have sunk into insignificance in the crime news of the day since Kid McCoy turned loose with a few stray shots. He provided the super-sensation which reads like fiction and yet no one would believe the story were it published in a magazine.

Think of a man supposedly killing a woman he said he loved dearly, waking up his mother and sister in the middle of the night to talk with them, going to a police station in a daze, taking officers back to the scene of the killing but not allowing them to know the secret of the death chamber, then going forth hunting all those he wanted to kill, shooting a man and wife who had aided in his estrangement with the dead woman, holding a mock auction and using his revolver as a "hammer," ordering the men entering the room to divest themselves of valuables and then take off their pants, shooting a millionaire as he tried to escape the antique shop where the serio-comic event was taking place—then being captured by a policeman while racing on the running boards of motorcars.

Why, you cannot believe it all to be true—a story which completely demoralized the news gathering forces of a great city as events unraveled faster than human comprehension was able to absorb them. It was a trail that led through the divorce mill of the superior court to apartments where people live under assumed names, from an antique shop to a conference over a near beer in a corn beef establishment, from a police station to stores and finally to jail.

They say that Selby is in a daze from the events of the last seven or eight hours. He is no more dazed than the people who read his exploits. It will be weeks before the whole story will be told, it is so intricate, so amazing, so ridiculous and yet so serious.

And we are at loss to know what was "tailing the Kid."

Metered phone service is a subject now before the state railroad commission. Because of the proximity of Los Angeles and Glendale, and due to the fact that many have business interests in the city, the residents of this city should be awakened to the costliness of such an innovation.

If we are not mistaken it was first tried in Bellingham, Wash., where the inventor of a phone meter resides. With civic pride Bellingham paid the price of its inventor's device and wherever the toll taker has gone business ruin has followed in its wake.

There is nothing quite so demoralizing on business over the telephone as a meter and in this country of magnificent distances the utility of the telephone cannot be curbed.

The State Railroad commission cannot with equity permit its use to raise the revenue of the Southern California Telephone company. Other methods may be used, but not the meter, if the patrons understand the situation.

High School to Open September 8, Is Plan

High school students will take up their studies on September 8, according to the plans formulated last night at a meeting of the Glendale Union High school board, held at the Broadway High school. The opening date for the city schools, according to an announcement from the office of Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, will be on September 15.

Miss Cleo Richards was appointed teacher of household management in the high schools, by the members of the board last night, and bids on supplies for the mechanical art department were opened and awards made.

Ohio Night Will Be Celebrated at Bowl

"Ohio Night" will be celebrated in Hollywood Bowl on Tuesday, August 19, according to announcement made by Captain Frank M. Bering, secretary of the Ohio State Societies of Southern California. All who have at any time claimed Ohio as the home state are urged to attend the Bowl concert that night when the program will center around Madame Marguerite Melville-Liszewska, director of piano study in the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. A bloc of seats in the center of the great outdoor theatre will be reserved for Ohioans, and admission will be only 50 cents. Madame Liszewska is one of the prominent pedagogues and soloists of her state. Ernest Bloch, composer-teacher of Cleveland, was another distinguished Ohioan to appear in the Bowl this summer, but it is expected that Tuesday's audience will outnumber all previous ones. Alfred Hertz will conduct the Bowl Symphony orchestra of 100 players in a program including Wagner's Flying Dutchman overture, Greg's Peer Gynt Suite. Ravel's delightful ultramodern Mother Goose Suite, and Tschalkowsky's Caprice Italien. Friday, August 22, is to be request night. Bowl patrons are invited to mail Mr. Hertz, 7237 Franklin avenue, Hollywood, not later than August 19, their requests for the program that evening.
