ALLIES ATTACKING IN EAST AND WEST

THE RUSSIAN FORCES ARE ATTACKING ON A FRONT OF 260 MILES

Already Have Recaptured Several Villages Between Dvinsk and Pripet; Von Mackenzen's Lines of Communication Cut at Several Points; Belgians Took Position on Right Bank of Yser.

Petrograd, Sept. 27.—Taking the offensive along the 260-mile front extending from Dvinsk to the Pripet, the Russians to-day had captured the villages of Drisviaty, Resterka, Ostroff, Ghirty, Podigurie, Koltchitzky and Pöllugie. German counter-attacks in an attempt to regain their losses have been repulsed all along the line.

Attacks by the Russians have cut General von Mackenzen's lines of communication at several places. In Galicia the Austrians have been driven back across the rivers which run parallel to the border.

London, Sept. 27.—In two days the French and British have gained greater results than in the preceding twelve months of fighting since the battle of the Marne. With upwards of 20,000 German prisoners in their hands and something like 30 guns, without counting machine guns, and with a formidable breach in the German line, the allies apparently have their long expected offensive movement well under way.

Russian Gain

The advance has been general and its effect is emphasized by the fact that on the eastern front a substantial gain by the Russians is recorded.

Petrograd states that the army of General Ivanoff has won a striking victory over the Germans and Austrians in the southeastern theatre, where 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The Belgians also are taking a prominent part in the new offensive movement. Their official announcement reports the capture of a German post on the right bank of the Yser, with the consequent evacuation by the Germans of adjoining trenches.

BEING THROWN BACK SOUTH OF DVINSK

Germans Are Yielding Before Offensive Being Carried Out by Russians

Petrograd, Sept. 27.—The following official statement was issued to-day at the headquarters of the general staff: "The situation was somewhat quieter along the Dvinsk front. According to the statements of prisoners, the Germans suffered severe losses in the recent encounters and attacks which we repulsed.

"After a fight yesterday for the possession of the village of Drisviaty, on the lake of the same name, the Germans were driven from the village.

"In the Wilka region above Vitebsk, desperate actions continue. We captured the village of Resterka. In the district northwest of Vitebsk our troops carried by a bayonet charge the fortified village of Ostroff and recaptured the village of Ghirty.

"In the region of Lazdouny, east of the village of Ydie, the enemy developed a violent fire with heavy artillery. Our troops evacuated the village.

"With the bayonet we crushed the desperate resistance of the Germans near the village of Podgurie, east of Novo Grodek, taking prisoners four officers and ninety-two men. An extremely hot engagement was fought all day yesterday near the farm of Marisene, also east of Novo Grodek, the trenches constantly changing hands. South of this farm, as the result of repeated attacks, the enemy

WHERE FRENCH MADE ADVANCE

ALL ARE LINKED IN GREAT SINGLE PLAN

Developments on Three Fronts and in Balkans Are Related

Paris, Sept. 27.—Not since the battle of the Marne have General Joffre's forces attained such a pronounced and clear-cut success as the one being pushed to a conclusion to-day. The advance along a front of 17 miles to a depth of nearly three miles at some points, across strongly fortified entrenchments, disproved the generally held theory of a deadlock on the western front, and is clear proof of the contention that Joffre can get the Germans into the open when he wishes.

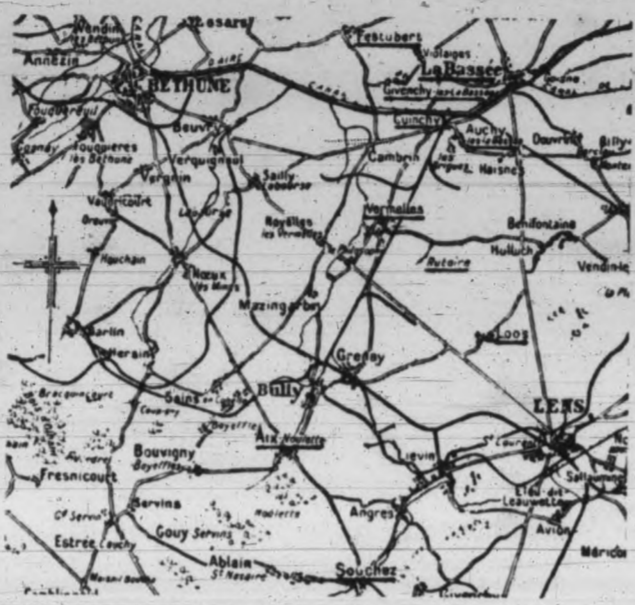

Of the highest significance is the fact that the victory in the Champagne comes at a moment when good news for the allies is made known from all fronts. During the last three days the Germans, who for almost three weeks had been harassed by a perfect avalanche of shells along the western front, have been fighting along with the Austrians' desperate battles in the eastern region, while the Italians have advanced to within ten miles east of Trent and ten miles from Trieste. These facts coincide with important developments in the Balkan situation, and it would be a mistake to consider each of them a separate success, as they are all closely linked in one well-planned blow for the allied cause. They are of tremendous import, principally because of certain accomplished facts.

Urges New Plan

Without a single exception, to-day's newspapers call for the launching of large French, British and Italian expeditionary forces in Greece, with the object of attacking the Bulgarian flank and marching across the peninsula to turn the Turkish positions on the Gallipoli peninsula.

WHERE BRITISH MADE ADVANCE

BOMBARDED AGAIN CARRIED ALL BEFORE THEM IN CHAMPAGNE

Amsterdam, Sept. 27.—Warships of the Allies to-day continued the bombardment of points on the coast of Belgium. Reports received here to-day say the shells from the naval guns have started numerous fires. The station at Lisseweghe, five miles southwest of Zeebrugge, has been hit.

At Perthes French Forces Swept Forward With the Bayonet

Paris, Sept. 27.—Reports from the front say that only 20 minutes was required for the French infantry to complete the victory prepared for by 50 hours of violent shelling, and overrun the first line of the German trenches north of Perthes, in the Champagne. While awaiting the moment for the attack, the French soldiers rested behind their lines, joking and putting their arms in perfect order.

The bright glow from the slow-burning illuminating rockets and the glare of exploding projectiles lighted up the entire zone of action during two nights.

Swept Forward
"After a few hours of intense fire, our hopes that our batteries were dominating the situation were transformed to certain conviction," says a wounded officer who took part in the battle. "The moment for the attack was set for dawn. When the charge was sounded, whole battalions, reinforced by reserves, bounded forward. The rush was so impetuous that the Germans still alive and unwounded in the battered rocks seemed dazed and unable to resist. They were disarmed and pushed back for our reserves to pick up while the attacking line went on."

MOVING 200,000 MEN TO WESTERN FRONT

Petrograd, Sept. 27.—Five German army corps, totalling 200,000 men, are being transferred from the eastern to the western front, according to advices received here to-day from Poland.

All Russia is rejoicing to-day over the great victory won by the allies in the west.

120 AEROPLANES IN AIR AT ONE TIME

Paris, Sept. 27.—At one point in the environs of Paris yesterday 120 aeroplanes went into the air in a spontaneous demonstration of joy over the victories won by the allies to the north and east. The point from which they rose is one of the railway transfer stations of the Paris belt line, and the arrival of ten trainloads of German prisoners brought the first indication of the successes.

One airman after another rose, waving the Tri-color, until 120 machines were manoeuvring.

AIRMEN, TOO, HAVE BEEN BUSY; VISITED BRUGES

Amsterdam, Sept. 27.—Airmen of the allies have bombarded Bruges, Belgium, again. The sudden cessation of the flow of gas at Sluis (in Zeeland, Holland, on the Belgian frontier), which is supplied from Bruges, leads to the belief here that bombs from the aircraft struck the gas works.

SULTAN HAS MOVED.

Rome, Sept. 27.—According to dispatches received here to-day, the sultan and his family have left Constantinople and are living in a palace on the Asiatic shore of the Bosphorus.

GREAT OFFENSIVE IS BEING PRESSED; THE ALLIED FORCES STILL ARE MOVING FORWARD

GREAT REJOICING IN FRENCH CAPITAL

Paris, Sept. 27.—Paris to-day was one vast camp of war-mad cheering and rejoicing humanity.

The celebration of the notable successes achieved by the French and British along the line from the sea to Verdun, continues to-day with wild abandon.

Great crowds marched through the principal thoroughfares singing up cheer after cheer.

In the theatres, time after time, the performances were stopped to afford the audiences opportunity to cheer for the French and British arms.

Trainloads of German prisoners arriving at the concentration camps brought forth other crowds of curious onlookers. Throughout the night trains passed through Le Bourget, a suburb of Paris, each one packed to the guards with prisoners.

POINTS ON COAST SHELLED BY SHIPS

Zeebrugge, Heyst, Knocke and Other Places Bombarded by British

DENSE COLUMNS OF SMOKE WERE OBSERVED

Rotterdam, Sept. 27.—Along the whole front in Flanders and beyond, heavy fighting is in progress. The roar of cannon is heard ceaselessly at a place well inside the Zeeland frontier.

Endless processions of German wounded are pouring into the towns and villages of Belgium. In Bruges, Ghent, Roulers and scores of smaller places, every hospital in full and schools and convents are being transformed into hospitals.

Whatever may be the final issue of events, already the Germans are hard-pressed. Even the news from their side indicates this, while on the Belgian-Dutch frontier persistent reports are circulated that the French and British have achieved great successes and are pushing forward steadily, and that the movements behind the German lines are pointing to a retreat, though not general.

Huge Losses
The German losses from the prolonged concentrated fire of the allies' artillery already are mounting into enormous figures.

(Concluded on page 14.)

THE FRENCH WERE EXPECTING ADVANCE

Had Based Hopes on Fact Great Bombardment Was Carried Out

Paris, Sept. 27.—"Is it the great offensive at last?" is being asked all over France. Sunday's official communications aroused the liveliest satisfaction, and were the subject of animated discussion.

The continued bombardment of the past month in the northern and Champagne sections of the battlefield was generally believed to be the prelude to some important move, and the public has been quick to infer that the patiently-awaited hour for a strong offensive has arrived at last.

The military observers, however, are more cautious than the public. They admit the operations carried out by the British and French were brilliant, and assert that if 20,000 prisoners were taken, the total German losses must have been at least 50,000 or 60,000 men.

All Positions Captured Are Being Held, Says Official Statement Issued at Paris; British Have Taken Givenchy; German Commanders Were Not Prepared for the Violent Onslaught.

Reports From Front State Germans Lost 50,000 in Killed and Wounded in Two Days; 300 German Officers Were Captured by Joffre's Men in the Champagne District.

Paris, Sept. 27.—The new offensive movement is continuing along entire front in the Champagne. The war office announced to-day that further German positions had been occupied.

The announcement also said that all gains in the Artois region, in northwestern France, had been maintained.

There is intense cannonading between the Meuse and the Moselle and in Lorraine on the part of both the Allies and the Germans.

The text of the communication follows:

"In the Artois district we have maintained our positions. "To the east of Souchez our advance, previously reported as having reached the destroyed telegraph line to the north of Thelus, has not as a matter of fact passed the orchards of La Folie and the highway from Arras to Lille. This advance, however, has been maintained at all points.

"Along the front to the south of the river Somme there has been fighting with bombs and torpedoes in the vicinity of Andrechy. Our artillery has counter-attacked vigorously the batteries of the enemy which were bombarding our positions at Quenneviers.

"In the Champagne district the fighting has been going on with tenacity all along the front. We have occupied at several places, notably at Troubryot, to the north of Waques farm, several positions in the rear of our line in which certain detachments of the enemy have been able to maintain themselves.

THINKS CANADIANS DID NOT TAKE PART

Hughes Has Received No Word That They Were in Big Battle

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—General Sir Sam Hughes stated again this morning that he had not received any advices which would indicate that the Canadian divisions took part in the forward drive by the British in northern France.

The minister pointed out that the Canadians were holding a British salient at a point considerably north of the scene of the big battle. While a salient was the most difficult part of a battleline to hold, it was not a place where an attack would be pressed. The British attack had been directed against a German salient as being the most vulnerable point in their line.

A small list of casualties has been received at the department, which includes the name of Colonel Shannon, son of Prince Albert, who has been wounded slightly. The list is a further indication that the Canadians were not in the big fight, the casualties apparently having been sustained in connection with the daily task of holding the trenches.

FAILURE HAS CAUSED CHANGES, SAYS DISPATCH

London, Sept. 27.—"Owing to the failure of the Teutonic forces to surround the Russian army at Vilna, there have been many changes in the German commands," says a dispatch from Petrograd to Reuter's agency. "Even General von Eichhorn's name is mentioned as being among those in disfavor, according to statements made by German prisoners."

"The previous statement that we had captured 200 German officers is erroneous; we have taken prisoners 300 German officers of the Champagne district.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle and in the Lorraine district there has been severe artillery fighting on both sides.

A violent storm in the Vosges has suspended, for the moment, all operations in that district."

70,000 in Two Days
London, Sept. 27.—Advices received here to-day from the western front, where the allies have launched one of the greatest offensives of the war, place the German losses in killed and wounded at 50,000. This, with the 20,000 prisoners taken, makes the total German losses in two days 70,000.

With Unabated Force
London, Sept. 27.—Directed by Gen. Joffre and Field Marshal Sir John French, the great offensive of French and British troops on the western front continued with unabated vigor to-day. The smash, characterized as the most determined movement launched since the battle of the Marne, already has cost the Germans more than 20,000 prisoners, 50,000 in killed and wounded, 33 guns and from one to three miles of territory.

The offensive movement was inaugurated on Saturday morning, Field-Marshal French and General Joffre striking simultaneously with their objectives as follows: Domination of the Ypres-Menin road. The recapture of Lille.

Ladysmith, B. C.
Dear Sir,—Your bill for use of telephone for last month came to hand. I may say although bills are rather unwelcome visitors these hard times, the telephone bill is an exception to that rule. We had very good reason to appreciate having the telephone in the house, for during the terrific bush fires which raged around us, we surely would have lost all our buildings had we not been able, with the use of the telephone, to get help from many miles distant.
In that connection we very much appreciate your promptness in repairing the wires which were disconnected by burning trees falling across them. As the wires were broken down Saturday night we did not expect them repaired until Monday, but were agreeably surprised to find our 'phone working again early on Sunday.
For this please accept our sincere thanks.
Yours sincerely,
A. S. CHRISTIE.

WHY CONSULATE AT CAIFFA WAS SHELLED

Turks, Influenced by German Consul, Had Disturbed Bones of French Soldiers

Paris, Sept. 27.—(By mail).—An official communiqué not long ago stated that a French man-of-war had bombarded the little town of Caiffa, on the Syrian coast. The reason is given in the following account by an eyewitness:
"One morning the superior of the monastery of Mount Carmel, who resides at Caiffa, was called to the governorate and told by the military governor that it was intended to destroy the monument erected to the memory of the fallen French soldiers, before the sanctuary of Carmel. As, however, it was not desired to touch the cross that surrounded the monument, he was requested to remove it. The superior expressed hopes that the memorial plate that was on the pyramid might be left and that the remains beneath might not be disturbed. He was assured that the dead would be respected, but that he must lose no time in removing the cross.
"Accordingly he had some laborers go to remove the cross, which had been forged of iron by the French sailors themselves. He had not yet finished when some Turkish soldiers and officers arrived and assisted in the work, but instead of giving it to the superior, the officer in charge declared that he had orders to deliver it to Jemal Pasha.
"Thereupon the troops, under instructions from their captain, began to demolish the monument and placed the bones of the French sailors in a barrel. By dint of vigorous protests, the superior at last obtained leave to deposit the remains in a cave, or old tomb, and there they were laid and covered with a sprinkling of earth.
"Put it in His Pocket.
"It was learned that this solemn sacrifice had been instigated by the German consul, and abundant proof was adduced. A report was transmitted to the French government; and the cruiser Ernest Renan was dispatched to Caiffa. Anchoring off the town, a launch was sent off with a white flag and a letter for the commandant who was absent, but instead of reading it, he put it in his pocket with the disparaging remark that it was 'merely some French message.' Two hours after the peaceable townsfolk, astonished by a cannon shot and a shell falling on the petroleum depot.
"The commandant now hastened to open his letter, and read that in reprisal for the insult to the French monument and the desecration of the tomb at the instigation of the German consul, in two hours the German consulate would be bombarded and that, though no harm was intended to the adjoining houses, it might be as well to evacuate them.
"The consul was warned immediately and just had time to pass his children out of the windows and make his own escape before the first of the twelve shots for the consulate came through the roof. The eleven others followed with such accuracy that one of the last ones passed through the very hole made by one of its predecessors, and went on to hit a neighboring wall. When the cannonade ceased the Turkish officers rushed up to see the effects of the practice. When the Ernest Renan saw from its decks this tableau it could not resist playing a trick, and again hoisted the red pennant that had been flown during the bombardment. Immediately the whole staff took to flight on horseback and on foot as fast as they could, to the intense amusement and delight of the townsfolk."

BATTALION WILL GO FROM WEST INDIES
Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 27.—Reports from Jamaica and other West Indian possessions of the British empire indicate that a sufficient number of men to form a complete regimental unit will be ready to sail for England soon, although no definite word has been given as to when the call for them will be made. Already hundreds of the pick of West Indian youths have volunteered and at their own cost and charges have found their way to England to offer themselves as recruits for Kitchener's army, and even greater numbers have enlisted in the various Canadian contingents which have gone or are going to the front.
The colonies are not in a position to equip the men; they are merely furnishing the raw material, which will be trained and armed in England. In addition to providing for a complete regiment, the islands will undertake to fill the gaps caused by inevitable losses from time to time, to the extent of at least fifty per cent. of the original number.
All the British colonies in the West Indies have voluntarily subscribed money or supplies to meet the empire's needs—for the purchase of aeroplanes, machine guns, and for incidentals such as smoking supplies for the men in the trenches. In the case of Jamaica, the government voted a sum of $250,000 which was used to send a cargo of sugar to the mother country, while by public subscription funds have been collected to the sum of $200,000 for other objects. In a country where the average earning is but little more than $120 a year, and where citizens of opulence are scarce, it is declared that the island's showing has been a remarkably patriotic one.
"The war will be won, not by noisy jubilation nor by hysterical panic, but by steady, relentless prosecution of our talk."—Sun, Vancouver. There are people nearer home who seem to be under the same impression.—Punch.

COMMITTEE OF THE CABINET APPOINTED
London, Sept. 27.—Mr. Asquith, it is announced, has appointed a special committee of the cabinet to be charged with the general oversight of the war.
The committee, which is composed of the prime minister, Lord Kitchener, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, Rt. Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, Sir Edward Grey, Lord Lansdowne, Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law and Rt. Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill, will act as a sort of executive committee, absorbing the functions of the cabinet's Dardanelles committee.

BATTALION IS BEING RAISED BY G. FOWLER
Ottawa, Sept. 27.—Sir Sam Hughes returned from Niagara camp, Toronto and other points in western Ontario on Saturday. He announced that the infantry regiment which George W. Fowler, M. P., is raising in King's and Alberta counties, New Brunswick, has been authorized. It will be the 8th Battalion.
TO PRIZE COURT.
Washington, Sept. 27.—The Norwegian steamship Vitalis, loaded with beef products from Chicago consigned to The Netherlands Overseas Trust at Rotterdam, has been turned over to a British prize court.

GREAT GAINS MADE BY THE ALLIES NORTH OF ARRAS AND IN CHAMPAGNE

Big Offensive Opened With Splendid Successes in Two Sectors; British Threw Enemy Back in Region Northwest of Lens; French Drove Forwards in the Champagne; Germans Admit They Had to Fall Back

Paris, Sept. 27.—On the western front the British and French captured in two days more than twenty thousand unwounded prisoners, according to the French official communication issued last night.
The text of the statement follows:
"Our attack to the north of Arras has realized fresh progress. We have occupied by sheer force all the villages of Souchez and have advanced toward the east, in the direction of Givenchy.
"To the south we reached La Fosse and pushed to the north of Thelus as far as the destroyed telegraph.
"We took in the course of this action about a thousand prisoners.
To Second Position.
"In Champagne our troops continue to gain ground. After having crossed on nearly the whole front extending between Anberive and Ville Sur Tournai the powerful network of trenches, passages, small forts and shelters prepared by the enemy—during long months, our troops advanced toward the north, compelling the German troops to fall back on their trenches of the second position, from three to four kilometres to the rear. The struggle continues on the whole front.
"We have reached L'Epigne de Vedegrange and passed the cabin on the road from Souain to Somme, and the hut on the road from Souain to Tabure. More to the east we are holding the farm of Maison de Champagne. The enemy suffered very important losses. He left in the works which he abandoned considerable material which has not yet been inventoried. Already the capture of twenty-four field guns is recorded.
More Than 20,000.
"The number of prisoners is increasing steadily and actually is more than 20,000 men, not wounded, of whom at least 200 are officers.
"The total number of prisoners captured on the whole front by the allied troops in two days is more than 20,000 men, not wounded."
London, Sept. 27.—The British forces that assumed the offensive in northern France on Saturday captured five miles of German trenches south of La Bassée canal and east of Vermelles, according to a report of Field-Marshal Sir John French, made public yesterday by the official press bureau. In some instances, the British troops penetrated the German positions for a distance of 4,000 yards.
The British soldiers captured the western outskirts of Hulluch, the village of Loos and the mining works around it, and Hill No. 70.
"There has been severe fighting today," said the official communication. "On the ground won by us yesterday the enemy is making determined counter-attacks east and northeast of Loos.
Hold Loos.
"The result of this fighting is that, except just north of Loos, we hold all the ground gained yesterday, including the whole of Loos itself.
"This evening we retook the quarries northwest of Hulluch, which were won and lost yesterday. We have drawn in the enemy's reserves, enabling the French on our right to make further progress.
"The number of prisoners collected after yesterday's fighting amounted to 2,500. Nine guns have been taken and a considerable number of machine guns.
"Our aeroplanes to-day bombarded and derailed a train near Loffre, east of Daul, and another, which was full of troops, at Rohuit, near St. Armand. Valenciennes station also was bombarded."
An earlier report from Sir John French said:
"On Saturday morning we attacked the enemy south of La Bassée canal, to the east of Grenay and Vermelles. We captured his trenches on a front of over five miles, penetrating his lines

ENDEAVORING TO SAVE 750,000 ARMENIANS
Washington, Sept. 27.—Concerted action to save the remaining 750,000 Armenians from massacre by the Turks have been started here. Red Cross officials are awaiting advices from Ambassador Morgenthau and perfecting financial plans before arranging to send agents to Constantinople.
Charles Crane and James Barton, now in New York, are organizing an Armenian relief association.
IN NATIONAL INTEREST, SAYS BULGARIAN GOVT.
London, Sept. 27.—The Bulgarian government yesterday morning communicated to the powers a note stating in the most categorical fashion that the mobilization of the Bulgarian army was ordered in the national interest and that it has not the slightest offensive character.
HAVE BEEN DISMISSED.
Washington, Sept. 27.—Formal announcement of the dismissal of indictments against Montenegrin agents charged with violating American neutrality in Arizona, Illinois and other states in the west has been made by the state department and the department of justice. The Russian embassy made representations which satisfied the state department.

REPORT GIVEN OUT AT CONSTANTINOPLE
Constantinople, Sept. 27.—The following official statement was issued yesterday at the war office:
"On the front on the Gallipoli peninsula, near Anafarta, our reconnoitering detachments on the right wing captured rifles and ammunition. On Saturday our artillery shelled the enemy's camp.
"Near Ari Burnu we exploded a mine on the right wing, destroying enemy mines. On the left wing our artillery shelled the positions of the enemy bomb-throwers."
SHIPS NOT BEING SOLD FOR SUCH A PURPOSE
Stockholm, Sept. 27.—A semi-official statement has been issued here denying the report that Swedish ships are being sold abroad to raise cash preparatory to Swedish participation in the war. It is declared that no such sales are contemplated.

FINEST RIFLE SHOT KILLED IN FLANDERS
London, Sept. 27.—Lieut. A. V. H. Ormonsdon, of Edinburgh, champion shot of the British empire, is reported to have been killed while fighting in Flanders. Lieut. Ormonsdon was the winner of the chief prizes at the shooting tournaments held at Bilsley, England, including the king's prize, which he took at the meeting of the National Rifle Association in 1913.
THE DELUDED TURKS.
Constantinople, Sept. 26.—A large number of Turks, all of moderate means, subscribed an aggregate of nearly $500,000 to the third German war loan and adopted an expression of sympathy for Germany. Virtually all the subscriptions were for small amounts.

KEIR HARDIE DIED AT GLASGOW YESTERDAY
Succumbed to Pneumonia at Age of 59; First Sat in House in 1892

London, Sept. 27.—James Keir Hardie died of pneumonia at Glasgow yesterday morning. He was a labor member in parliament and the leader of the peace element in the British Socialist party.
James Keir Hardie was born in Scotland on August 15, 1856, and worked underground as a pit boy and pit man from the age of seven until he was twenty-four. He early became well-known as a speaker in the temperance movement, but eventually became prominent in labor and other democratic and Socialist societies. He was elected for Southwest Ham in 1892, but defeated in 1895. He had sat for Merthyr-Tydfil since 1900. In 1907 he visited India and Australia. He was a frequent contributor to magazines and reviews.

AMOUNT OF THE LOAN WILL BE $500,000,000
Members of the Anglo-French Commission Go to Chicago

New York, Sept. 27.—Having reached a virtual agreement with the bankers of the eastern section of the country over the details of the proposed half-billion-dollar credit loan to be established here for Great Britain and France, members of the Anglo-French financial commission, accompanied by a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Company, arranged to take the 2.40 train this afternoon for Chicago.
The party expects to remain in Chicago several days, returning the latter part of the week.
According to one prominent banker identified with the negotiations, adoption of the tentative programme by the bankers of the west and middle west will assure its final adoption in its present state. With all parties acquiescing, ratification of the agreement will be sought from the British and French governments.
St. Paul, St. Louis, possibly Denver and other western and middle western cities, it is expected, will send their bankers to Chicago to confer with the commission.
In its present shape the plan for the loan contemplates a credit of approximately $500,000,000, to be granted on joint Anglo-French five per cent. government notes which will be convertible upon maturity and at the holders' option into similar bonds running fifteen or twenty years and bearing 4 1/2 per cent. interest. The five-year notes will be sold slightly under par so that the investor will realize approximately 5 1/2 per cent. on his investment.

REPORT GIVEN OUT AT CONSTANTINOPLE
Constantinople, Sept. 27.—The following official statement was issued yesterday at the war office:
"On the front on the Gallipoli peninsula, near Anafarta, our reconnoitering detachments on the right wing captured rifles and ammunition. On Saturday our artillery shelled the enemy's camp.
"Near Ari Burnu we exploded a mine on the right wing, destroying enemy mines. On the left wing our artillery shelled the positions of the enemy bomb-throwers."
SHIPS NOT BEING SOLD FOR SUCH A PURPOSE
Stockholm, Sept. 27.—A semi-official statement has been issued here denying the report that Swedish ships are being sold abroad to raise cash preparatory to Swedish participation in the war. It is declared that no such sales are contemplated.

FINEST RIFLE SHOT KILLED IN FLANDERS
London, Sept. 27.—Lieut. A. V. H. Ormonsdon, of Edinburgh, champion shot of the British empire, is reported to have been killed while fighting in Flanders. Lieut. Ormonsdon was the winner of the chief prizes at the shooting tournaments held at Bilsley, England, including the king's prize, which he took at the meeting of the National Rifle Association in 1913.
THE DELUDED TURKS.
Constantinople, Sept. 26.—A large number of Turks, all of moderate means, subscribed an aggregate of nearly $500,000 to the third German war loan and adopted an expression of sympathy for Germany. Virtually all the subscriptions were for small amounts.

THE BLOW IN THE WEST.

Conspicuous success has crowned the opening stages of the great offensive by the western allies. The actual operations began some weeks ago with a terrific artillery combat which extended from the sea to Alsace, accompanied by aircraft attacks upon the German reserve depots, lines of communication and concentration camps.

The main infantry assault by the British which began on Saturday was directed on the front which extends from Ypres to Lens, north of Arras. Its object is to smash the German salient projecting into their line at La Bassée and compel the enemy to evacuate Lille.

With the exception of severe artillery engagements in the Trentino, the Italian front has been relatively quiet for weeks. Practically nothing has occurred on the Isonzo or in the Carnic Alps, and evidently Count Cadorna has been preparing for a general assault as part of the main programme against the Central Empires.

France has ample men and artillery to counter such an operation. So far the British and French have taken more than twenty thousand unwounded prisoners and numerous guns and stores. But the allies' offensive is only in its initial stages. It is broadening into a general action along the whole front.

ON THE EASTERN FRONT.

Undoubtedly the moment for the allies' offensive in the west was dictated largely by the situation in the east. Russia had reached the end of her long retreat and her gains in the centre and south indicated that not only was she prepared to make a determined stand but was ready to begin a formidable offensive.

Petrograd-to-day reports that a general offensive between Dwinsk and the Pripiet marsh—a front of 260 miles—has been begun by the Russians and six villages have been retaken. This movement also finally will broaden into a general attack along the whole immense line from the Baltic to the Dniester.

IN THE BALKANS.

As the allies' offensive affects immediately the situation on the east front, so the fortunes of war on that side will have a direct bearing upon the Balkan situation and the Dardanelles. The Balkan states are more intimately influenced by Russia's position than by any other factor, and Russian successes of the last week have caused a profound impression there.

ON THE ITALIAN FRONT.

With the exception of severe artillery engagements in the Trentino, the Italian front has been relatively quiet for weeks. Practically nothing has occurred on the Isonzo or in the Carnic Alps, and evidently Count Cadorna has been preparing for a general assault as part of the main programme against the Central Empires.

followed that marvellous campaign of the Little Corporal with noteworthy faithfulness and he may continue the analogy by making his objective Vienna instead of Trieste or Trent. The part that Italy is to play in the present campaign was determined a few weeks ago when Joffre visited the commander-in-chief of the Italian armies.

THE GENERAL CAMPAIGN.

We must not expect to have it all our own way on any of the fronts. Unquestionably German counter-attacks will dent our lines here and there and many positions will be taken and retaken, but when the enemy tries to shorten his front we will know that the pressure is too much for him. The process of retiring upon interior lines would be very costly to the Germans and Austrians in men and material.

THE NAVY, TOO.

A feature of the big effort which has just been launched by the western allies is the co-ordination between their forces on land and sea. The Belgian artillery attack on the German positions at Nieport and Westende is being supported by a terrific naval bombardment of the entire Belgian coast from Westende to the Holland border.

What must impress lay observers is the fact that this naval attack is being conducted as though the German navy did not exist. The failure of the Kaiser's fleet, still the second largest in the world, to make a serious effort to interrupt the proceedings is the most conspicuous evidence of the impotence to which Britain's seapower has reduced it since the war began.

The Nation (London): The navy has not astonished its organizers; it has merely revealed the resource and adaptability they knew it to possess. The devices used against the submarines are of its devising; they have been wonderfully clever, varied and successful, almost completely so against the smaller boats.

While it is too early to claim any decisive success on the western front, developments so far point to the justification of the French President's tribute to General Joffre after the battle of the Marne: "In the conduct of our armies you have shown a spirit of organization, order and of method; a wisdom cold and cautious; a powerful soul which nothing has shaken; a serenity whose salutary example has everywhere inspired confidence and hope."

There always is a joker in Count von Bernstorff's communications to the United States. He suggests this time that in consideration of Germany modifying her submarine tactics Great Britain undertake to restrain her merchant ships from ramming or attacking in any way, or even attempting to get away from, Germany's

Dominion Hotel

Yates Street Try Our 50c Table D'Hotel Meals

The DOMINION owes its success to one satisfied guest recommending his friends visiting Victoria to stay at this hotel, as the following testimonial (one of thousands received) indicates: Winnipeg, Sept. 18, 1915. Mr. Stephen Jones, Dominion Hotel, Victoria: Dear Mr. Jones:—

On behalf of Mrs. Hooper, as well as myself, I want to express our appreciation of your kindness and the kindness of your Manager and staff, during our week's stay at your excellent hotel. We have never had better nor more courteous treatment anywhere.

piratical craft. A most reasonable proposition truly! But what has the United States to do with Great Britain's methods of conducting her business or dealing with assassins? Ven Bernstorff, as usual, is trying to hold American diplomacy up to ridicule and taking all the amusement he can out of the game.

Now if the new heads of the German navy only would bring their warships out and instruct them to make an attempt to carry out the functions of a fleet, action would be joined all along the line and the war probably brought to a speedy end.

Kitchener's vindication appears to be at hand. Indifferent to capricious criticism and disloyal intrigue he has concerned himself solely with fashioning his thunderbolt. He has not launched it yet, not will it be launched prematurely. We shall see it when the decisive hour arrives and that is still some distance away.

We think we may announce that the Austro-German invasion of Serbia in serious proportions has been indefinitely postponed. Likewise nobody is surprised to learn from the Bulgarian government that it harbors no belligerent designs against anybody.

A new sunspot has been discovered by astronomers. Now watch the Berlin Overseas News Agency claim that it was caused by too high a trajectory of one of the Krupp's latest surprises in artillery.

The New York Sun jocosely observes that the Russians are the champion cross-country runners of the day. If our contemporary keeps its eyes open it may read of some record-breaking on the part of the enemies of Russia.

German military critics say the allies have occupied only the front German trenches. At that rate the main trenches must be around Berlin.

COLUMBIA THEATRE.

"The Galloper," a comedy that is claimed by the moving picture world to be one of the best photo-plays ever released in this territory, will be the feature offering for the first half of the week at the Columbia theatre. "The Galloper," is a picturization of Richard Harding Davis' famous play of the same name, with the favorite Broadway comedian, Clifton Crawford, in the leading role. Commencing Thursday a special Blue Ribbon feature, "The Chalice of Courage," by the Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, will be presented for the balance of the week. The management of the Columbia have greatly improved their film service of late, and capacity houses are the result.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

In chapter eleven of "The Diamond From the Sky," now being shown at the Majestic theatre, Blair returns to Richmond, Vivian has deserted him. The faithful Quabba protects Esther's every step. Blair determines to marry Esther, whose heart belongs to Arthur. Luke Lovell, gypsy tramp, comes upon the gleaming diamond in the sand. In a frenzy he seizes it, and is bitten by a rattlesnake. He drops the jewel as he pitches forward in agony. John Powell (Arthur) finds Luke in time, and the gypsy is saved from a horrible death. Luke recognizes Arthur and blackmails the man who saved his life. Arthur with his money goes to the oil fields. In Richmond an operation to restore Hagar's mind is decided upon. But Blair's attention to Esther becomes unbearable, and the sweet-faced girl decides to flee to Arthur. That night, in her gypsy garb, accompanied by the faithful Quabba, Esther steals from the house and is gone—gone to seek the man she loves.

DOMINION THEATRE.

"The Governor's Lady," a masterly production which held Strand theatre audiences in its grip during its presentation at that palatial theatre in New York, will be shown during the first part of the week at the Dominion. This feature will be the second of the Famous Players' productions, one of which is being presented every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The story begins with what may be called a domestic idyll. Two young people in the humblest station in life are devoted to each other with a touching degree of tenderness. The devoted husband and wife are suddenly made rich through a lucky strike. The miner is strong enough at first to enjoy his wealth without injury to his character, but presently political ambitions stir in him, and he perceives the necessity of having his wife shine in social circles. The wife shrinks from all social functions, and her husband now discovers that she stands in the way of his ambition. He is nominated for governor, and seeing a chance to wed a younger woman, he plans to divorce the simple wife. Simple wifely honesty spoils his schemes and shows him the wrong step he is about to take. It all ends very happily and to the entire satisfaction of both the characters in the play and the audience. The settings and photography are up to the highest standard. Not enough praise can be given to the members of the star cast. Edith Wynne Mathison acts the part of the faithful wife with a quiet dignity and dramatic power which have rarely been surpassed.

PANTAGES THEATRE.

An unusually varied bill of fare is offered amusement seekers at Pantages for this week. Another of those fine shows which have given Pantages a distinction throughout the west is being presented. The hippodrome has been called upon to furnish the headline feature, and Holland-Doekrell's beautiful act, designated simply as "Four Beautiful White Horses," a big feature with Barnum & Bailey's circus during the summer, will delight all lovers of animals. The horses are real equine aristocracy and their performance is said to be wonderful. Those who are musically inclined are going to have a treat in the singing of the Beautiful Four Gillespie Sisters, who compose one of the best singing quartettes in vaudeville. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Fisher will also bring a lot of joy to town with their delightful rural comedy sketch, "The Half-Way House." The Four Rennies have an elaborate dancing act called "Through Five Countries in Twenty Minutes," while Sol Berns, "the funny little Hebrew," is always good for a heap of laughs. Another big feature will be the Himmlos in a pantomime, acrobatic novelty.

ROYAL VICTORIA THEATRE.

There are two two-reel features on the programme being shown at the Royal Victoria theatre for the first three days of this week. They are "The Bond of Womanhood," and "The Smugglers' Ward." Both of these photo-plays from a pictorial and acting standpoint are specially meritorious, the action being quick and convincing. There are also shown two very good comedies which are extremely amusing, a Selig Pictorial which contains a varied assortment of interesting scenes, and a Pathoplay educational which shows a series of views of the Grand Canyon. The Royal Orchestra is in attendance at all performances and plays a well-selected programme of music.

SETTLERS ARE SUING

Several Who Came Out From England to the Columbia Valley Bring Actions Against Companies.

Alleged fraud through misrepresentation on the part of land companies in this province is the basis of actions being conducted in the supreme court of B. C., and which will shortly come to trial, individual defendants being examined for discovery in Vancouver last week.

The plaintiffs are settlers in the Windermere valley, and the defendants are the Columbia Valley Irrigated Fruit Lands, Limited, the land department of the Canadian Pacific railway, Robert R. Bruce and J. S. Dennis, of the two companies, respectively. The suits were begun about a year ago. It is alleged by the plaintiffs that they were induced by false representations to leave the old country, invest their money in lands around Wilmer, and undertake operations in the raising of fruit and in mixed farming as a result of which they claim to have lost a large amount of money. The alleged misrepresentations are said to have been made orally and in pamphlets issued by the companies, entitled "A New Fruit Valley in British Columbia," "Information Regarding the Columbia-Kootenay Valley, Windermere, B. C.," and "Fruit Lands in the Beautiful

In their statements of claim the plaintiffs assert that the descriptions given in these pamphlets regarding the lands are not borne out by the facts; that the lands mentioned are not proved orchard lands and that apples of commercial value cannot be grown thereon; that mixed farming cannot be carried on profitably on a 40-acre lot as is described; that there is no local market for fruit or produce; that the amount of capital required to acquire a 40-acre farm is grossly underestimated, and that the probable returns during the first few years are quite impossible.

PROHIBITION OF EXPORT

Orders-in-Council Passed in Reference to Food-Stuffs and Hides.

A special issue of the Canada Gazette dealing with prohibitions of certain articles under the War Measures act and the Customs act, and containing three orders-in-council passed on Monday last by the Dominion privy council, is to hand.

The importation of unset diamonds into Canada is prohibited except when imported direct from the United Kingdom, which means the cutting off of profit to the merchants and diamond-cutters of Amsterdam.

The prohibition of export of wheat, flour, wheat, barley, rye and other grains except oats save to countries of the allies and friendly nations is removed. A prohibition is enacted of the same articles to all foreign ports in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black seas, other than those of France, Russia (except Baltic ports), Italy, Belgium, Spain and Portugal.

The prohibition of the export of hides is made stricter, it being now forbidden to export hides of cattle, buffaloes and horses, and calf and goat skins, except when of Canadian origin, to all destinations abroad other than the United Kingdom, British possessions and protectorates.

He was the proprietor of a large draper's and milliner's shop, and was also very enterprising and ever ready to turn anything to account. "By the way, Miss Williams," he remarked one morning, addressing one of his charming black-haired sales-ladies, "do you happen to know anything about the new minister who's going to have charge of the church round the corner?" "Why, yes," was the quick reply; "he is a tall, handsome, fine-looking man, about twenty-eight, I should say, and he isn't married." "Miss Williams," said the proprietor, briskly, "you may put all the new hats in the shop in that front window at once!"

"I've been reading an article on electricity, William," said William's wife, as she laid down a technical magazine. "And it appears before long we shall be able to get pretty nearly everything we want just by touching a button." "It will never pay here!" said the husband. "You would never be able to get anything in that way." "Why not, William?" "Because nothing would ever make you touch a button! Look at my shirt!"

"And when you eloped with the girl," asked a friend, "did her father follow you?" "Did he?" said the young man. "Father! He's living with us yet!"
