Methodists Warned of Sunday Motion Picture Campaign

Way Being Paved For People to Resent Blue Laws, Says Rev. Dr. Huestis; Conference Wants Censorship More Efficient and Enlightened or Abolished.

The principal issue before the B. C. Methodist Conference this morning was that of the motion picture censorship and especially the relation of the public to the opening of motion picture houses on Sunday. In the former case a suggestion was made to Conference that a more efficient and enlightened censorship should be carried out or that the office should be abolished.

On the general question of the observance of the Sunday and the opening of theatres on Sunday, Rev. Dr. C. H. Huestis, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance for Alberta and B. C., deprecated the movement for Sunday theatrical engagements, pointing out that the way was being paved in parts of Canada by the working of agents of publicity towards the law.

PLAN TO LOWER TARIFF WALL AGAIN

American Congressmen Con- sidering Agricultural Products

Washington, May 20.—Rates of duty on agricultural products under the permanent tariff bill which is being framed by the House Ways and Means Committee will be materially lower than under the emergency tariff act, which will go into effect next week. A reduction in the rate on wheat is said to be practically certain. It will probably not exceed 25 cents under the permanent bill, and may be lower. It is 35 cents under the emergency act.

INTERNATIONAL COURT APPROVED

Bills Passed by the Dominion Senate

Ottawa, May 20.—(Canadian Press)—The bill giving parliamentary sanction to the Permanent Court of International Justice and the bill repealing the Conservation Commission Act were passed by the Senate yesterday.

Silesian Food Shortage Threatens New Disorders

London, May 20.—The food shortage in Upper Silesia has reached a crisis of a magnitude considered likely to cause further disorders unless it is relieved shortly, according to advices reaching official circles here. Interchanges are proceeding among the Allied Governments in an attempt to relieve the situation before the meeting of the Supreme Council at which the Silesian question is to be taken up.

COLORED MAN IN MONTREAL FACES MURDER CHARGE

Montreal, May 20.—Making the third murder in this city since Saturday, Thomas Proctor, aged forty-five, colored, was shot and killed last night in a boarding house following a quarrel over money matters. Walter Griffith, colored, is under arrest, charged with the crime.

VANCOUVER DOCTOR FOUND NOT GUILTY

Vancouver, May 20.—After deliberating for thirty-five minutes, the assize court jury yesterday afternoon brought in a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of Dr. Samuel Blumberg, charged with the murder of Mrs. Agnes Mitchell, who died in a hospital on December 1, as the result of an alleged illegal operation.

TAKING OF SIXTH CENSUS OF CANADA

Final Details Arranged For Actual Work to Start June 1

Enumerators Have Been Care- fully Selected

The taking of the sixth census of Canada since Confederation will begin on the morning of Wednesday, June 1, when the staff of 33 enumerators appointed by Census Commissioner W. G. Gaunce will start taking returns in Victoria. One widow having lost a son in the war, 29 ex-service men representing 90 dependents, and three civilians have been selected to do the work here.

QUADRUPLETS BORN; ONE NAMED AFTER U. S. PRESIDENT

New Haven, Conn., May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Michael Salzo, parents of quadruplets born recently, received a letter of congratulation to-day from President Harding. One of the four was named Warren Harding and the President expressed his appreciation of the compliment.

QUEBEC BOY CAUSED LOSS OF $175,000

Quebec, May 20.—Fire started by a boy lighting a gasoline stove, which exploded, did damage estimated at $175,000 at Sayabec, Matane County, this morning. Fifteen buildings were destroyed, including the Dominion Hotel, Provincial Bank branch, several stores and houses.

Harvey's Frankness Pleases Newspapers of British Capital

New United States Ambassador Says In Speech Amer- icans Will Not Criticize League But Will Have Nothing to Do With It.

London, May 20.—Newspapers of this city featured this morning the address made last night by George Harvey, the United States Ambassador to Great Britain, at a dinner given by the Pilgrims.

Only two or three newspapers commented editorially upon the Ambassador's speech, apparently because of the late hour at which Mr. Harvey spoke. These journals cordially welcomed the Ambassador's expressions of friendship and his frankness, and commended his address in general.

London, May 20.—The Government of the United States has no intention of criticizing or objecting to the League of Nations, but it will not have anything to do with the League or any commission or committee appointed by it or responsible to it, according to Col. George Harvey, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, who dealt with international questions in a speech he delivered here last evening.

HARVEY TO ATTEND COUNCIL SESSIONS

American Representative There As Observer

London, May 20.—The London Times says the most significant passage of the speech delivered here last night by Col. Harvey, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, was the announcement that he would represent President Harding at sessions of the Supreme Council for discussion of Silesia.

"This decision," it says, "will be hailed with profound satisfaction, and the fact that the American representative will be the Ambassador, who frankly states 'we will get no where until we abruptly put aside academic discussion of theoretical proposals and manfully face, without mincing or wincing, the actual realities' is of the happiest augury for the work he may be called upon to do."

BRIDGE DISCUSSES THE NAVAL PROBLEM

Admiral Deals With the Empire's Task

London, May 20.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Writing to the Canadian Associated Press on what he terms the present naval crisis, Admiral Sir Cyriac Bridge remarks that until the last war Britain's primacy on the sea was generally accepted in by the great powers. This of itself is proof that the Empire was not suspected of aggressive tendencies. It was seen to be what it really was, viz., an essentially defensive arrangement. The United Kingdom was obviously an insular state and as the British Empire grew up, it was plain to everyone that the communications between its parts were maritime. Even the vast Dominion of Canada, with its thousands of miles of land frontier, has a long coast line on each side of two great oceans. What their armies were to the leading continental states, Europe the navy was to the British Empire. It is a truth admitting of easy demonstration that there was no foreign country too great to derive benefit from the international position and relative strength of that nation and relative strength of the navy. Now it is no longer the navy of Great Britain; it is the navy of the British Empire, a name by which it ought always to be called.

Gigantic Cost.
"It would be absurd to use such terms as 'threat' or 'menace' in mentioning that the shipbuilding programme of the United States navy, unless we respond to it with a commensurate scheme of our own—is likely when completed to remove the British Empire from the leading position amongst naval powers. If we embark on a competition in shipbuilding the cost will be gigantic, just at a time, too, when saving and not huge expenditure is exceptionally desirable." The admiral continues building programmes of some kind is inevitable. Need it be dictated by the megalomania which has so long dominated naval policy? Did the great "superdreadnoughts" of the war justify their existence? If they did, why are we not repeating their design? Is there no solution of the "capital ship" question but Hoods and super-Hoods is there any good in pretending that you can beat the ever-developing efficiency of the gun by piling on a ship more and more thick armor, and coat simply that she may be able to carry about the world a vast weight of inert material that by no possibility can do any harm to an enemy?

Suitable Defence.
"Had we not better acknowledge at once that the only way to beat the gun is to have a better gun of your own or to use your guns more skillfully and, consequently, more effectively? We shall do well to ask these questions, and it is not unreasonable to hope that answers to them may be found which will permit us to have suitable naval defence for the Empire at a cost within our means, even situated financially as we are now."

RIOT IN CAIRO: ONE MAN KILLED

The committee also decided to approach the governments of Brazil, Argentine and Chile with a similar proposition.

RETAILERS ARE NOT MANUFACTURERS

Ottawa, May 20.—The retailer is not a manufacturer in the general acceptance of the word. This decision, of vital interest to all retail merchants throughout the Dominion, is embodied in a judgment handed down yesterday in the Exchequer Court of Canada in the case of the King vs. Messrs. Pedrick & Palen, merchant tailors, Ottawa.

The case was one in which the retailer sought to collect two per cent manufacturers' tax on all transactions effected by this firm since May 19, 1920. The defendants disputed the crown's designation of their business as that of "manufacturers."

In giving decision for the clearing of the case, the court rules that the word "manufacturers" must be taken in its commonly accepted meaning. "It would be doing a violence to the English language to hold, for instance, a humble seamstress or dressmaker, making a few dresses for customers, to be a manufacturer. There is but one sane conclusion to be arrived at, if one is to be guided by common sense, and that is that the retailer is not a manufacturer in the general acceptance of the word."

AUSTRALIAN GOLD.

CHINA DELEGATION IN GERMAN CAPITAL

But Diplomatic Relations Not Resumed Yet

Berlin, May 20.—China and Germany apparently are no closer to an actual restoration of diplomatic relations than they were six months ago in spite of the fact that unofficial delegations are at work in both countries trying to perfect a treaty.

Still in Force.
Although the Chinese passed a resolution declaring the country was at peace with Germany, following the refusal of the Chinese to sign the Versailles Treaty because of the disposition made of Shantung province, the Chinese Government has not yet abrogated its forbidding Germans to carry on business in China. Consequently German firms are unable to conduct business with China in the name of German citizens. While the Chinese war legislation is not rigidly enforced, it still stands on the Chinese statute books and German trade is not regarded as safe until there is some written agreement between China and Germany which will prevent legal complications.

Awaits U. S. Action.
It now seems unlikely that China will sign a treaty with Germany until the United States devises some plan of restoring diplomatic relations with Germany. China followed the lead of the United States in breaking off diplomatic relations with Germany and did not enter the war against the Central Powers until the United States had done so.

When China entered the war it was as an Allied Power of the Entente. And now it stands with the United States in a "non-signatory" position with Germany and did not enter the war against the Central Powers until the United States had done so.

No Legal Steps Yet.
Theoretically, China is at peace with Germany. It has so declared itself by legal enactment. But all the steps necessary for the restoration of diplomatic relations must be taken before peaceful relations and commercial interchanges are possible.

The Premier said that this matter he did not profess to know.

SEEK GOLD NORTH OF PEACE RIVER

Prospectors Will Travel From Edmonton

Edmonton, May 20.—Search for a lost river—a river of gold—will be undertaken this year by several prospectors, including old-timers from the Yukon and Alaska, who are now here outfitting for the long journey into the north-western corner of Alberta, where the Peace River once flowed, is somewhere in the big bend of the Peace, bisected by a line drawn from Fort St. John to the mouth of the Battle River.

Some years ago an Indian brought in to Fort St. John a fair sized gold nugget, and according to the tale told by old-timers of the North, he had discovered in a stream in the country to the northeast of the post.

He never visited his trap lines after that, living on the edge of the land in care-free idleness at the post. He often disappeared, whenever his supplies of necessities ran low, and would be away for a few days, always returning with a fresh supply of gold.

Died on Trail.
This aged trapper died in this manner for a number of years. He died, as many trappers and north country men die, on the trail. His body was found by an old trapper, a white man, who made Fort St. John his headquarters, came in to the Fort with a quantity of coarse gold he had washed from a few traps. It was in a similar direction to that from which the Indian hailed.

Northmen, who tell the story of the mystic El Dorado north of the Peace, declare that the "gold" was really silver after a heavy fall of snow, with which the old fellow apparently washed his mineral. From an analysis of the circumstances generally, it is thought that the place from which the gold was taken was some old river bed where the Peace once flowed, but whether the story is correct or not remains to be proved.

Prospectors, however, are putting up good money to test the truth of the theory that the precious metal does exist somewhere to the north of Clear Hills in large quantities.

MEXICANS PLAN $100,000,000 NAVY

OTTAWA COMMONS HAD A FLURRY

Meighen Denied Letter Written to Veniot

Ottawa, May 20.—A charge was made in the Commons last night by H. H. Stevens, member for Centre Vancouver, excitement ensued and later there was a denial by Premier Meighen.

Mr. Stevens accused Hon. T. A. Crerar with having changed the Hansard report of his budget speech. Mr. Crerar, declared Mr. Stevens, had made the direct statement that the Prime Minister or some member of his Government had approached Hon. P. J. Veniot, Minister of Public Works of New Brunswick, with a view to Mr. Veniot entering the Meighen Cabinet. But in Hansard the statement appeared as a question.

Hubbub.
Mr. Crerar protested against the charge. The House was in hubbub. Mr. Crerar claimed that he had made no change in substance, that owing to a disturbance in the House at the time, the Hansard reporter did not get what he said. "I say there was no change," Mr. Crerar insisted, "and my reputation and position in this House should tell my honorable friend that I do not do that sort of thing."

Near midnight there was a sequel, when Hon. Charles Murphy read a St. John dispatch quoting Mr. Stevens as saying that overtures had been made to him by a person presenting a letter signed by Premier Meighen.

When Mr. Meighen rose to speak of the matter shortly before adjournment this morning, he stated he had not been in the House when Hon. Charles Murphy had quoted from the dispatch covering Mr. Veniot's statement. When he had come into the chamber and asked that the member for Russell read the interview again, Mr. Murphy had refused.

The Premier, however, had got a copy of the statements of Mr. Murphy from Hansard and he quoted from it the section in which Mr. Veniot was quoted as having said: "The person who made the overtures to me, presented to me a letter addressed to him and signed by Premier Meighen. This letter showed that the Premier was in close touch with the situation."

"All I need say," said the Premier, "is that no such proposition was made by me or by anyone in my behalf, directly, indirectly, intentionally or otherwise. No such letter as Mr. Veniot refers to here ever was written."

The Premier said that what would be the next step in this matter he did not profess to know.

The statement by Mr. Veniot to which Mr. Meighen referred was given in a dispatch as follows: "I may say that a certain other Cabinet Minister also wrote to this same person. It is hardly necessary to add that the party who made the overtures is a strong and influential Conservative."

No Change.
"I never sought the position, and my reply, dated January 11, 1921, can be produced to prove this when the time arrives. Should I ever aspire to Federal honors, I would not attempt to obtain such honors by a base betrayal of my Liberal principles and the friends with whom I have been certain questions asked in the House of Commons were based. I never authorized the use of my name in this connection.

Surprised.
"In view of all that has taken place in connection with this matter, I am, to say the least, surprised at the statement reported to have been made by the Prime Minister in the House on Tuesday last, when he left the impression that he knew absolutely nothing about any overtures made to me."

"The person who made the overtures to me presented to me a letter addressed to him and signed by Premier Meighen. This letter showed that the Premier was in close touch with the situation, and further, I may say that a certain other Cabinet Minister also wrote to this same person. It is hardly necessary to add that the party who made the overtures is a strong and influential Conservative."

800,000 ACRES
FOR FARM WORK

Big Reclamation Scheme in Manitoba Considered

The Pas, Man., May 20.—Two parties will survey the Carrot River triangle, looking to the reclamation of 800,000 acres of rich agricultural land adjoining The Pas on the west, G. F. Horsey, of the reclamation branch of the Department of the Interior, announced yesterday. This area periodically floods from the waters of the Saskatchewan River, being rendered unfit for permanent farming.

In 1913-14 surveys were made and a report given that it could be reclaimed for $1 an acre. Since then, however, this figure has been revised to $2 an acre, and it may appear that the cost will amount to a little over that sum. The land in the triangle begins at the junction of the Saskatchewan and Carrot Rivers at The Pas and extends southwest to a point north of Abberfield, in the Melfort district. It is a wide open expanse, and said to be one of the richest soil areas in Western Canada.

PARTY OF GERMANS VISITS DOMINION

Quebec, May 20.—Ten German businessmen are touring Canada, having reached here yesterday on the steamship Empress of France. One of their number announced that they had merely come to Canada to investigate commercial conditions, and not to obtain business.

Some of the Germans had rather a gloomy picture of conditions in the Fatherland, but all believed that it would not be long before the country captured a large part of its pre-war trade.

They stated that already business between Germany and Great Britain was picking up. The unsettled labor conditions in the British Empire had resulted in England "coming to reason" sooner than she would otherwise have done, one German said.

MAJORITY FOR BUDGET PROPOSALS

Meighen Government's Lead Was Twenty

Ottawa, May 20.—(Canadian Press)—The Government was sustained by a majority of twenty in the vote on the Fielding amendment to the budget. The vote, which was taken at 5.30 this morning, stood 83 for the amendment and 103 against. The announcement of the figures was greeted with loud and prolonged cheers by the Government members, who gave vent to their feelings by throwing books and papers in the air as they cheered.

The main motion then carried on the same division as that on the Fielding amendment and the House adjourned at 5.45.

Daylight.
The vote did not come until the House had been in session nearly fifteen hours, and daylight was streaking in through the windows of the chamber as the division bells began to sound their summons at 5.15.

Thomas McNitt, Saltcoats, was the last speaker on the amendment. The debate had been carried on practically entirely from the Opposition benches all afternoon and evening. Donald Sutherland, South Oxford, resumed the debate in the afternoon and was followed by Hon. Mackenzie King, the Liberal Leader. The only Government speaker during the long night hours was the member for Haldimand, F. R. Lar, who spoke for a few minutes.

A Flurry.
An unusual flurry of interest came just before the counting of the vote on the amendment. A slight commotion was noted at the rear of the Liberal seats in the chamber, and one of the uniformed doorkeepers was seen to be quietly but effectively persuading a stranger to leave the floor of the chamber and the lobby. As he was removed from the chamber the visitor was heard to announce that "he was a Tory and wanted to get in his vote."

The incident caused considerable amusement among those who noticed it.

Mackenzie King.
During the debate which preceded the vote, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Liberal Leader, said: "The Government is not a free agent in the matter of either intention or action. Its members do not constitute the real Government of Canada to-day. In word and act it is but the visible expression of influences and forces which dictate the policies, and in large measure are controlling the destinies, of Canada to-day."

Deliberate Effort.
Applauded by his followers, Mr. King declared that the failure to revise the tariff was not due to emergency legislation at Washington. There were more subtle influences at work. It was due to a deliberate effort to thwart trade and restrict competition that a few wealthy men and their immediate friends and associates might reap still larger fortunes through obtaining a monopoly of the Canadian market.

Mr. King pressed, had the policy of promoting increased trade within the Empire been erased from the Government party's platform? It was due to the dictation of the few wealthy men whose powerful interests were alone responsible for the Prime Minister being where he was to-day.

For Revenue.
Mr. King said his views on the tariff had been misrepresented. As it was in the days of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, so to-day the Liberal policy was one of tariff for revenue.

"The issue, so far as the Liberal party's attitude on the tariff is concerned," Mr. King proceeded, "is not and never has been in this country between free trade and protection. It has been between a tariff imposed primarily for purposes of protection and a tariff imposed primarily for purposes of revenue."

Encounters.
Donald Sutherland had some keen encounters with Mr. A. C. Crerar, Leader of the Progressives.

H. H. Stevens argued that if Mr. King had any evidence of a sinister alliance between the Government and the big interests, he should be prepared to lay it before the House.

PURCHASE OF LIQUOR CAUSE OF CONTEST

Montreal, May 20.—A struggle for supremacy has been begun between the Quebec Government Liquor Commission, empowered by act of the Legislature to import, wholesale and retailing of spirituous and other alcoholic liquors in the province of Quebec, and the big British distillers. The distillers object to selling direct to the Commission, and insist that all buying must take place through their accredited agents in Quebec City or Montreal. This the Commission has declined to do.

The agents have moved all their stocks to St. John, so that the Commission cannot confiscate them under power granted by the Legislature. The Commission has now placed a notice in all the retail liquor stores here that, owing to shortage of supplies, certain brands of whiskey are liable to be unobtainable in the future. The notice promises that other brands just as good will be available.

It is believed that the distillers have long prepared for the fight. A writ of injunction restraining the Government Commission from dealing in liquor wholesale was applied for three months ago on behalf of the British agents. It has not yet been argued.

THE RAILWAY PROBLEMS.

In his interesting address on Canada's railway problem to the Rotary Club yesterday Mr. A. C. Flumerfelt is reported to have said, "No Government railway—except that of Germany—has been a success, and no Government railway will ever be one."

Government ownership of railways in Australia, for example, has been a success, if we are to believe the Australians, who ought to know most about it.

Railway conditions in Canada are not analogous with those of Australia in many important if not vital, particulars, and we are not urging that Australian experience furnishes us with a solution of Canada's problem.

Canada's problem, of course, is peculiarly her own, because of the circumstances surrounding her railway development and in which she became the owner of more than half her railway mileage.

Governments, of course, have been gravely culpable for encouraging this waste by subsidies and other subventions particularly during periods of good times when the outlook was very rosy and immigrants were coming to the country in hundreds of thousands.

add a warmth of feeling to gatherings where official representatives of the two nations are in attendance; but he did a great deal more than that.

President Harding said the same thing although he left a ray of hope in his suggestion that an association of nations actively interested in the preservation of world peace might win assistance and support from the people of the United States.

But the thing that stands out clearly is the American intention to let Europe worry along in her own sweet way. And as Columbia has made up her mind once and for all—and scarcely any other interpretation may be put upon Colonel Harvey's pointed reminder—she must either submit her own proposals for a new organization or allow her efforts to be directed to a real consummation of that state which will contemplate "Britannia and Columbia, hand in hand, side by side, erect and glorious on a plane of perfect equality in the eyes of each other and the world."

NOTHING NEW.

There seems to be little hope for Mr. Bowser. He is learning nothing from the march of events. Either advancing years or a lack of desire to adopt a new understanding of public responsibility seems to hold him down to the brand of small politics to which the Legislature and the general public have become thoroughly accustomed.

THE BOARD'S TASK.

It is quite a simple matter for the people of this Province to say that Government control should be in operation before the first day of July. But ninety per cent. of those who went to the polls last October have but a hazy idea of the enormous amount of detail with which the Board of Control is required to deal and dispose of before it can hope to put its system into operation.

COLONEL HARVEY TALKS.

If the people of Great Britain expect the Ambassador from the United States to confine his public utterances to generalities they will have been disillusioned by his address at the Pilgrims' dinner last night.

tem now about to be inaugurated here. No matter how careful the Board has been and will be to avoid the inevitable pitfalls that await it in the enforcement of the new law it must expect some difficulties at the outset.

There are one or two phases of the law that may provide a loophole for those who are not overburdened with a desire to obey any law in particular, if their indulgences appear to be in jeopardy. One of the most troublesome may easily be that which provides that liquor may not be consumed or sold in a public place.

In the meantime, however, it is the duty of the public to limit its interpretation and err on the right side. The law as it stands makes liberal provision for those who desire to avail themselves of its privileges.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Will Europe's interminable troubles compel the World to announce the early engagement of John Bull to Miss Columbia?

To a "high British official" is accredited the statement that the "present European situation is viewed officially as the most serious since 1914. Upper Silesia is a firebrand and Prime Minister Lloyd George is responsible for conditions which have brought up to the verge of another war."

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

WHERE GUESS WORK FAILS (The Shoe and Leather Reporter). There are two problems beyond the power of anyone to solve. One is the ability of the public to do without merchandise in hard times.

THE LACK OF "THAT"

"You remember," said Sir Squire Bancroft in a recent interview, "how Sir Joshua Reynolds was called to admire the work of a young man. His judgment was: 'It's very good—very good—there may be a future for him—but it lacks that' (snapping his fingers). It's the same with music and writing. The absence of that or the presence of that makes just the difference."

Astrologers read this as rather an unfavorable day. Saturn dominates the day. Saturn dominates the day. Saturn dominates the day.

There is a sign presaging a dispute with a foreign power, probably with Great Britain, but it should be ultimately beneficial.

Continued improvement for workers is foreshadowed, although there will be changes in their system of organization.

Many deaths from drowning and poison are foreshadowed, and the number of crimes in which women are concerned will increase.

There is an aspect to-day that should assure clear vision on all intellectual problems and important national issues.

The seers declare that the cities of the East will be greatly aided from the people of the West, who will bring a great invention to them.

LETTERS

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion.

A PATHETIC INQUIRY. To the Editor.—Will you please publish the following pathetic communication which recently came to me?

MRS. RANN'S. Dear Madame: Please pardon the liberty I take in writing you, but I do so on the advice of a young man by name Alf Wood, who sailed on board the Durban and sailed for me.

I told him of my son, Albert Rygge who left home nearly ten years ago, and not a word of him have I heard since.

Wood told me he sailed with a young man of that name some four years ago. He says he did not know the man, but I thought there may be a chance of it being my son.

So I pray, dear madame, you will let me hear from you. Only God knows how I have prayed for ten long years for news of him. It may be fate that sent young Wood across my path.

I am not doing any harm in writing you, and Wood tells me how nice and kind you are to the sailors. So I'm sure if you should hear of some one of my name you will help me.

As well as I am able to describe my son after ten years I will. When he left home he was tall and slight, fair-haired, blue eyes and a good nature.

He was in Johannesburg, and his father sent him to Durban, and then to South Africa, to regain his health after an illness he had. The next we hear of him he left Durban on the ship Inyati, a Kaituma boat, and sailed for Liverpool.

Since then I have heard nothing else. I think if he knew how his sisters Essie and Rosie and his small brother, who long to hear of him, he would write home. What his dad and I have suffered no one but God knows.

I hope, dear madame, I have not bored you with my long letter and that you will forgive me if I have. You will help me if you can, I am sure. Thanking you in anticipation I am yours very faithfully, MARIE RYGGVE, P. O. Box 453 Lourenco Marques, Delagoa Bay, Portuguese East Africa.

MR. BOWSER FINDS THREE "SCANDALS"

"Government Has No Consistency at All," He Says; Tells of "Deals"

Three alleged "scandals" in the British Columbia Government were featured by W. J. Bowser, K. C., in his address at the Conservative Club last night.

Mr. Bowser declared that it was about time Premier Oliver was hurrying back to British Columbia because of the way things go on when he is away.

"The Premier is wont to boast of his honesty, but when he goes East his Attorney-General kicks up high jinks and looks well after his political henchmen," said Mr. Bowser.

"Scandal" Number One. Bowser was that of the South Vancouver gravel pits in which Ferrin Auditor for South Vancouver, obtained an option on the property for $1, and later turned it over to the Vancouver Joint Sewerage Board for $75,000, or $45,000 more than he paid for it.

"Scandal" Number Two. The potato "scandal" concerning A. B. Buckworth, general manager of the Government's P. G. E. Railway, and his peew-mate in the Presbyterian Church, Mr. Edgett, the Vancouver commission house man, Mr. Bowser said. He reviewed the story in the Vancouver Sun, the allegations of which have been categorically denied by Mr. Buckworth.

"Scandal" Number Three. Mr. Bowser's third "scandal" had to do with the Liquor Board, the purchase of Charles E. Campbell's warehouse building for $150,000, and the recent purchase by Mr. Campbell of The Vancouver World, the only Conservative paper in Vancouver, and the turning of it into a Liberal paper.

Mr. Bowser declared that the Board had not asked for offers of buildings or consulted any other property owners in Vancouver, but went ahead and bought the Campbell warehouse for the $150,000, although the assessed value of the land and buildings was only $38,000.

"That was a straight cut of almost $100,000 for C. E. Campbell, one of the most prominent Liberals in Vancouver, and a power politically there in Liberal ranks," Mr. Bowser went on.

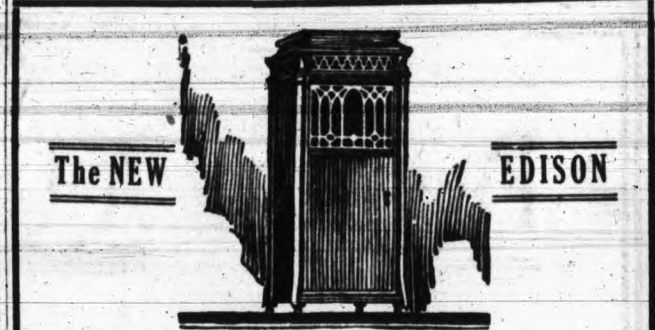

"There was no vote for the purchase of that warehouse, and it was not authorized by any section of the Liquor Act. But even if the act permitted it that measure is not yet in force. But they got it past the Comptroller-General, and the deed has been registered, and Campbell had got the money. They have no conscience at all. If there is any scheme by which they can build up their Tammany system you can count upon them adopting it."

Mr. Bowser went on to say that the purchase of the Pither & Leiser warehouse in Victoria had been held up because the price of $200,000 was supposed to be too high. There would be no trouble at all in putting the deal through at that price, however, Mr. Bowser said, if Pither & Leiser would agree to use part of the money with which to buy The Victoria Colonist, and turn it into a Liberal newspaper and so silence Conservative and opposition criticisms of the Government.

Canon Hinchcliffe, M. P. F., and H. W. R. Moore spoke on organization and preparation for the Federal election. J. O. Dunford presided.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts About Your Name: Its History; Its Meaning; Whence It Was Derived; Its Significance; Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel. By Mildred Marshall. (Copyright, 1921, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Lord delighteth in thee and thy land shall be married."

When the vogue for religious names passed at the outset of the twentieth century, Beulah suffered a temporary loss of popularity. But of recent years it was thought sufficiently quaint and old-fashioned to undergo revival.

Beulah is one of the oldest and most sacred of the religious names. It means "married," and is the contracted form of the title "Land of Beulah." As an allegorical name, it was prophetically applied to Israel in Isaiah: "Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate; but thou shalt be called Hephzibah and thy land Beulah; for the

HATLEY GROUNDS AT THEIR BEST

Four Hundred Inspect Magnificent Estate; For Charitable Fund

To contribute from one's bounty to less fortunate and deserving causes is one of the lightest burdens imposed upon the wealthy by the old motto "noblesse oblige."

Mrs. Dunsmuir, at Hatley Park has always proved herself a gracious chatelaine and hostess, and in throwing open these lovely grounds yesterday to the public she added one more to her many deeds of kindness.

Some four hundred visitors availed themselves of the opportunity of viewing the charming spot, and in order that the beauties of the place might be seen to the best advantage guides had been stationed about the grounds to direct visitors to the many points of interest.

In the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Dunsmuir, Major and Mrs. Humphreys had given every attention to the afternoon's arrangements, while to Mr. Graham Graham, managing agent of the estate, who was present and gave his personal supervision to the ordering of affairs, much credit is due for the universal success of the enterprise.

The Women's Parish Guild of the New Cathedral Buildings Fund, for whose benefit the affair was organized, cleared about $250, which will materially help in the consummation of this hope so long looked for in Victoria.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

TONY FROG'S NARROW ESCAPE

Tony Frog lived in a small, muddy pool with his mother and brothers, and one morning he declared that the pool was far too small for so large a family.

"I will go over to the big pond and live," thought Tony. "There, I am sure, I can get more flies than I do here, and it is near the garden, so there will be plenty of bugs."

Of course, if Mrs. Frog had seen her son hopping away from the muddy pool she would have warned him to stay at home, for she knew that over on the pond the ducks from the farm went swimming every day looking for some, and it is near the garden, so there will be plenty of bugs."

It was rather a long hop for a young froggy and when he came to the big pond Tony was glad to leap into its nice cool depths.

Just as he thought, there was plenty of flies and so intent was he upon feasting that he did not notice a big green bill as it neared toward him.

Tony Frog did not know what had him fast. She threw back her head, and with a strong bill, getting ready to swallow him, when a loud "quack! quack!" made her look about in alarm, and down went Tony splash upon the water while Madam Duck swam swiftly for the side of the pond by the byway, quacking in alarm.

Tony Frog did not know what had happened, for he had never seen a duck, but he did know that something had given him a very hard pinch so he could not breathe.

Curiosity finally got the better of his scare and up he came from the bottom of the pond where he lived as soon as Madam Duck dropped him.

for the bank on the other side, where he hopped up and hurried off home. Mrs. Fox by the pond was waiting for my dinner," for when Tony splashed into the pond all the ducks turned and swam back to the barnyard, leaving Mr. Fox feeling very hungry.

GORGEOUS PROGRAMME FOR FESTIVAL BALL

Magnificent Extravanzas to Be Presented at Empress May 24

What will be perhaps the first cabaret programme ever presented in the Pacific Northwest will take place at the Queen of the Carnival Ball and Broom Festival at the Empress Hotel, May 24. The finest of British Columbia's artists, assisted by large and charming choruses as the chorus, this act will be staged in a charming manner, and will be beautifully gowned and with novel electrical effects.

Miss Eva Hart, who is known all over the Northwest, will sing two numbers. One, "The Cigarette Girl," is sure to please, and another which has never been previously sung in this city.

Ken Angus to Assist. What will be the most charming act of the entire performance is "Harem Eyes," in which Kenneth Angus, well known to cabaret goers, will star, assisted by Miss Charlebois, a solo dancer, and a bevy of handsome young ladies as the chorus. This act will be staged in a charming manner, and will be beautifully gowned and with novel electrical effects.

Mr. LeMessurier, who needs no introduction and is an old favorite, will render in appropriate style, "Patches." Her entry will be entirely novel, arriving in a barrel, attended by a male assistant and small boys.

Mr. Hall has been successful in securing America's greatest lightning sketch artist, Ernest LeMessurier, who will sketch with rapidly appropriate subjects, singing as he sketches.

Mr. LeMessurier is the possessor of a charming baritone voice, which he uses with great effect, having power to throw it. He will be accompanied by G. Beverts, an accompanist of exceptional ability.

Mrs. D'Oyly Rochfort, nee Phyllis Davis, will appear in a charming turn, entitled, "An Old-Fashioned Garden." She will arrive in a yellow robe, in a gondola of purple iris, drawn by six dainty "flowers." This will be one of the most beautiful acts in the whole programme, and is sure to be greeted with a storm of applause.

Mrs. Charles Wilson, ever popular, will appear in the novel act of the evening, the Broom Festival. Much secrecy surrounds this surprise of the evening, but with such talented artists in the lead it is sure to be a delightful feature of the programme.

A GAMBLE IN BEAUTY

By NANCIBELLE HALE.

ONE LOVE STORY YOU NEVER CAN FORGET.

The Romances of Two Sisters, Both Beautiful, One Demure, the Other Vampish—With Thrills in Every Chapter and an Unexpected Denouement.

The laughter went on, voices were even gayer if anything, but Varia felt the note of restraint beneath it all. It was artificial now. Each one must know, Molly and Jim and dear old Adam, that John had not seen Nina since the day she had thrown him over.

Varia glanced at her husband's face. He looked the same, though a little paler perhaps, and his mouth had that set strained look. . . .

How hot it was! How the rose hangings and the rose chairs and the soft rose decorations seemed to suffocate her! Varia was very tired, but she must sit and smile and pretend that she was gay, too, but a sick fear caught at her heart when she glanced at Nina, dark and lovely in the flame-colored gown. . . .

At last it was over, and Varia, thanking them with her eyes, went hurriedly away to straighten her hat, and put some powder on her nose.

"Of course Nina had not thought. It had never entered her head that it might make Varia nervous to have her come to her wedding, breakfast—so Varia thought as she straightened her hat and looked at herself with critical eyes. . . .

But she found when she came back that she had left her violets and, going softly over the mossy carpet, she came on her sister and her husband.

They did not see her.

"Why did you do it, John?" Nina was saying in that languorous voice that held such magnetism.

John looked at her, shrugged slightly and then turned away.

"God knows!" he answered in a muffled voice.

Varia shrank back against the curtains. In a moment she had hidden herself in the embrasure of the window. She heard their footsteps go past her hiding place, but she heard nothing else they said.

Pressing her cheek against the cool glass she stood there for a moment as though she were waiting for a word.

"God knows!" That voice and those words! And that was the way he said about his marriage already!

She had been mad. . . . She had known he had not loved her, but she had blinded herself to consequences, in her hope she had believed that he needed her.

The minutes stole by and Varia friends!" Molly laughed, kissing her. Varia had come out by herself to walk on the drive. The sun gleamed down on the river and Varia, in spite of the problem that weighed on her heart, felt something of the glow and life of the brilliant Winter day.

Now Molly turned her thoughts in a new trend.

"I've simply been dying to see you but I didn't dare go near you for your cards said, 'At home after January fifteenth!' But now you're married you'll be able to advise me."

She slipped her arm through Varia's, chattering all the time while they waited for a bus to come lumbering along; for Molly said tea and the Ritz were necessary for her confidences.

"You look adorable, Varia, so bridey! Did your father give you that sealskin coat? I wish my father had been in Wall Street instead of being a family doctor!"

Varia looked at Molly as she chattered along, and at the warm chestnut hair that curled a little over her ears at the temples, eyes that were full of light. Molly was a dear! If she was always getting into scrapes, she never could quite understand the reason.

Ever since they had been in boarding-school together Molly had clung to Varia as the one firm support in a changing world.

When they had threaded their way to a little table in the corner of the Ritz, and Molly had opened her coat and ordered tea and toasted muffins, she began slowly to pull off her gloves.

Varia watched her half dreamily, until the sparkle and flash of a great square-set diamond met her eyes.

"Molly! What does it mean?" Varia cried, leaning forward in the excitement of the disclosure.

"What does it mean? It means that I'm growing old before my time!" Molly said tragically.

She met Varia's surprised eyes with the words, "It must be charming to be engaged to one man, but you see I'm engaged to two!"

fight back her emotion. Hopelessness engulfed her. But soon she must go out and face her friends, who had come to wish her happiness. She caught her lips between her teeth and threw back her head with a proud little lift.

If she was very pale when she said good-bye a few minutes later no one noticed. They laughed as they scattered confetti and rose leaves on the two figures, and Varia, turning, waved and threw a kiss. For Varia was her father's daughter!

There was a shrill whistle and then the motor stood at the curb.

"You forgot your flowers!" Molly Stillwell cried, but Varia shook her head and only smiled. With the good-bye cries still ringing in her ears, she heard the sharp slam of the motor car door and then she and John were alone.

All pretense dropped away. Her face was white and tired-looking and she sat very still in the farthest corner of the car.

"Tired, Varia?" John asked her. She nodded without speaking. He saw her looking out of the window, although she saw nothing. He saw the round smoothness of her cheek, so childish, so appealing. One loose brown curl had fallen across her cheek. Her hands lay limp in her lap.

He lifted one of them, but Varia did not respond. It lay in his as though it had no feeling. He did not try to talk to her, respecting her mood, which he thought was caused by nervousness. But Varia, looking blindly out on Riverside Drive, heard only two words, repeated again and again—"God knows!"

"We're home, dear," her husband said.

The car had stopped before the Wentworth, a great apartment on Riverside Drive. Varia smiled stiffly when she heard Martin saying, "I wish you the greatest of happiness, Mrs. Amory!" He had evidently worked hard over the little speech. Varia did not speak to John until closed, leaving them alone.

SONS OF ENGLAND HOLDING ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE

Plans For Record Turnout With Other Societies Laid For Sunday Evening

The annual church parade of the Sons of England, Alexandra and Pride of the Island Lodges, will take place on Sunday next to the Congregational Church at 7.30 p.m. The parade will start from the A. O. F. Hall on Broad Street at 6.45 p.m. and will be composed of massed ranks of the two lodges, with representation also from the Daughters of England, the Royal Society of St. George, and the ladies' auxiliary of the latter organization.

The church parade is an annual event which occasions much interest, and the plans for this year's turnout are more elaborate than ever before. Special committees are in charge of the work of organizing the parade, which promises to be one of the best in the annals of the various lodges taking part. At the Congregational Church the Rev. Wm. Spence will officiate, and it is expected that those who may not take part in the actual parade will be at the church for the special service.

MAY TAKE VOTE ON AMALGAMATION

Veterans of France Will Hold Special Meeting to Discuss Question

At the regular meeting of the Veterans of France held last night in their club-rooms on Douglas Street, delegates to the joint committee of service organizations on the amalgamation question made an interim report. Some general discussion took place on the problem, but it was decided to leave the matter over to a special meeting to be called for Thursday evening next, commencing at 8 o'clock, when all are requested to attend. It is proposed to lay concrete proposals of amalgamation before this special meeting.

After the special meeting has been held, the executive of the Veterans of France will meet the joint executives of the other organizations on this question, when it is considered more than likely that it will be decided that a referendum should be taken of the united membership of all ex-service bodies. Delegates last night reported on joint meetings on the questions of the sessional increase of the legislative members, the military hospital and the cemetery plan. The Veterans decided to take their part in the May 24 convention in connection with arrangements now being under way. The sum of $100 was voted to send the pipe band to Seattle, there to compete for the Rainier Cup on July 4 next.

MAKING PROGRESS ON HOSPITAL PLANS

Jubilee Committee Actively at Work; Annual Meeting May 30

Further progress was made by the Jubilee Hospital Board last night in organizing the work in connection with the carrying out of the new hospital plans. The Building Committee, which is meeting frequently and perfecting details is under the chairmanship of J. W. Bolden and now consists of the following: George McGregor, president; Charles Williams, vice-president; James Forman, treasurer; Alex. Stewart, Dr. Patterson, Dr. Walker, Dr. Poyntz and Miss Jessie MacKenzie (all ex-officio); Mrs. Rhodes, Dr. Bapty, Messrs. J. Parfitt, G. Brown and Mark Graham, of the Kiwanis Club. The committee will meet again on Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Mr. Carver, secretary of the Hospital Board, is also secretary of the Building Committee, and he was warmly praised at last night's meeting for the excellent service he was rendering the hospital.

Owing to his long association with the hospital, Dr. E. S. Hasell was specially added to the committee.

The date of the annual meeting was fixed Thursday, June 30, being chosen by Dr. Poyntz, the X-ray expert, was granted four weeks' leave for the purpose of attending a conference in the East. At the suggestion of the Kiwanis Club, he will gather valuable data in connection with the latest hospital improvements.

Chinamen have been dispensed with, and the chef and staff formerly employed at Esquimaux Hospital installed, the result being entirely satisfactory.

FUEL COST LIKELY TO BRING RETURN OF SAILING SHIPS

Price of Coal Making Some Steamship Lines Impossible

NEW FAST CANVAS MODEL PROPOSED

The sailing ship has vastly diminished in numbers on the Seven Seas and almost disappeared from the Great Lakes.

Are the tables about to turn? It is asserted that the windjammer is coming back. In ten years' time the ocean may once more bear on its bosom the snowy-winged fleets of yore.

Ever since the war, practical sailormen have been predicting the return of the sailing ship as an economic necessity.

Steam Versus Sails

It is more than a century since paddle-wheels first churned the St. Lawrence, between Montreal and Quebec.

steam-driven vessels came definitely to the fore as the most economic form of ocean carrier.

Speedy Clippers of Old Days

The art of sailing-ship design reached its pinnacle in the "fifties" of the last century—the hey-day of the clipper ship.

Two Men to Handle Sails by Motor

A steam winch for hoisting sails is already a feature on big wind-jammers, but Liljegen proposes to quarter-deck by the throwing of a switch.

Auxiliary to Avoid Calms

The Diesel engine working the generator would also serve to propel the vessel at a moderate rate of speed out of any calm belt, which latter is the one great drawback and time-loser to the sailing ship.

Round to Vancouver from Hamburg the freighter City of Vancouver passed here about noon to-day.

TWO SHIPPING CONFERENCES FOR PACIFIC COAST

Will Take Place of Dissolved Pacific Coast Westbound Shipping Conference

San Francisco, May 20.—Establishment of two conferences, one in San Francisco and the other in the Northwest, to take the place of the recently dissolved Pacific Coast Westbound Shipping Conference, which regulated trans-Pacific freight rates, is under way.

While working in close co-operation and possibly under one name, the two conferences will confine themselves to the cargo conditions affecting their own locality.

The Westbound Conference was dissolved when the Java Pacific and China Mail Steamship Companies withdrew announcing that they would adopt an independent rate policy.

ADMIRAL WATSON PROCEEDS AFTER MAKING REPAIRS

Seattle, May 20.—The Alaskan steamship Admiral Watson, which was forced to put into Port Townsend late yesterday because of a break in her air pumps, completed repairs and proceeded on her voyage early to-day, according to a wireless message received here.

The motorship Pacific, from Tacoma via Victoria, B. C., Portland, Astoria, San Francisco, San Pedro and Balboa, arrived at Dublin on Monday.

DEFECTIVE PUMPS CAUSE OF TROUBLE ON S.S. WENATCHEE

Liner Was Repeatedly in Difficulties and Was Finally Towed Into Yokohama

Particulars of the mishap to the United States Shipping Board liner Wenatchee, which made Yokohama five days behind schedule, were brought by the liner Kashima Maru, in port yesterday from the Orient.

The cause of the Wenatchee's delay in arriving at Yokohama was solely due to inadequate and defective pumps. The pumps began to give trouble three days after the ship cleared from Victoria, and became worse and better by turns, repairs being carried out by the ship's engineers each time they got out of order.

HAWKERS SNAPPED

Some delay was caused by the snapping of several hawkers, but the smaller ship towed the liner until late in the afternoon, when the Wenatchee was again able to navigate under her own power.

An Old Friend

The "friend in need" was not unknown to other passengers on the Wenatchee, either. David Rodgers, president of the Seattle Ship-building & Drydock Company, built the Edmore, and Mrs. Rodgers was sponsor of the Edmore when she was launched at Seattle.

ORCHESTRA BUSY

There was plenty of food, water and fuel aboard and the ship's orchestra helped to while away the time. But the passengers expressed uneasiness when the pump trouble forced the ship to stop for repairs, but the ship's officers were perfectly frank in their explanation of the trouble and everyone was satisfied.

THE DISCOVERY

of Zam-Buk brought a wonderful new healing substance into the home. This magic healer is a rare scientific discovery—a super-balm blended exclusively from potent herbal extracts.

Zam-Buk applied to a cut or wound, gives you instant protection against all germ-infection and blood-poison, thus removing all fear of complications. It soothes pain and burning irritation, destroys skin disease at its root, and promotes the growth of new healthy skin.

Dr. Andrew Wilson, the eminent British medical authority, says: "Zam-Buk may be relied upon as an antiseptic dressing which requires no previous making ready. Zam-Buk possesses unique soothing and healing properties that exercise a special action on torn or severed tissues, keeping them clean and helping them to knit together again."

BRIEF LOCALS

Pound by-law in Weak.—The Sanich Council was last night informed by the municipal solicitors that the pound by-law, after proving effective for seven years, would be ineffective until amended, because drafted to protect boulevards. The Council decided to have the solicitors draft a new clause which will prove unassailable.

Simplify Sub-Division By-law.—The Sanich Council last night put through its preliminary readings a sub-division plan approval by-law to replace the existing regulations. Without making any radical changes, the new by-law eliminates many clauses and greatly simplifies the procedure by which the Council grants approval of sub-divisions.

Blenkinsop Road Repairs.—G. E. Davidson last night addressed the Sanich Council as spokesman for the petitioners asking the improvement of the portion of Blenkinsop Road lying in Ward Five. He explained that the chief demand was the widening of this section. The Council last night decided that ample provision had been made for improvement of the road during this Summer, including considerable widening.

Grant Is Refused.—The Sanich Council last night turned down a proposal by Councillor Horner that the cost of maintaining the memorial plot at the junction of Bay Road and Seaboard Street should be paid by the Council. It was explained that, owing to weeds, the Ward One Ratepayers' Association had not taken over the maintenance of the plot as had been arranged.

Cadboro Bay Water.—The Sanich Council last night voted $100 as rental for the present year of the water main serving Cadboro Bay residential district, which is the property of the Grant Powder Co. Pending the extension of the Sanich municipal water system, the Council connected up this main with the Uplands water system.

For Transportation.—The committee wishes to advise all golfers that arrangements have been made for cars for hire to be at Terry's Drug Store, corner Fort and Douglas Streets, and also at Colwood on the days of the tournament. It will be appreciated if members and others, going out in their own cars, will pass by Terry's so that they may pick up the golfers awaiting transportation to Colwood.

No Encroachment.—The Sanich Council was last night informed by the Provincial Department of Lands, that if regulations against beach encroachments by Cordova Bay land owners were enforced, campers on the sands would also have to be strictly controlled. The Department wished to know whether this course would meet with the approval of the Council. This is another case of passing the buck," remarked Reeve Watson, as the Council unanimously supported a motion favoring complete prohibition of encroachment by campers or property owners alike, which Councillor Ormond submitted.

Must First Get Permit.—Because in many cases applicants for building permits in Sanich delay making requests until their structures are well toward completion, the Sanich Council last night decided to advertise through the newspapers its intention strictly to enforce the building by-law as a preliminary to the institution of prosecutions in future cases of negligence. Considerable discussion took place as to the advisability of amending the by-law, and the councillors considering it difficult to say at what point it should refuse to grant building permits, though agreeing that the present regulations were too lenient.

Delay Is Explained.—Messrs Sandiford and Coventry last night appealed to the Sanich Council for immediate construction of a sidewalk on Quadra Street near the North Dairy School. They were informed that until negotiations for necessary easements are closed the Council cannot build the sidewalk already authorized. Mr. Coventry was outspoken in protest against the delay claiming many children were being kept from school because of peril from motor traffic. Councillor Ormond remarked, "Things on Quadra Street are just the same as on Gorge Road, where there is both paving and sidewalk, and the people won't use the sidewalk, persistently walking on the pavement."

To Reduce Danger.—After reporting a serious automobile collision had occurred yesterday afternoon at the junction of the West Road and Todd Inlet Road, Councillor Brooks last night secured the authority of the Sanich Council for the cutting down of a mass of brush and young trees which obstruct the view of southbound traffic. Councillor Kingwell also secured support to a motion requesting the British Columbia Electric Railway Company to install a warning sign at the point where North Road crosses the interurban tracks, which he declared to be a deathtrap to those unfamiliar with the locality.

Could Not Re-open.—Messrs. Hudson, Scurah and Hall last night waited on the Sanich Council and appealed for reconsideration of its decision not to contribute towards the Broom Festival on May 24. Reeve Watson explained that reconsideration was not permissible under the Municipal Act. Mr. Hudson then applied for consideration of a special grant in aid of the children's sports prize list and Reeve Watson suggested that a formal application for such a grant should be made.

Non-Committal Gardeners.—The Ward Seven Cottage Gardeners' Association last night notified the Sanich Council that up to the present the Association had taken no factional attitude in the controversy over enforcement of the Pound By-law.

After Camp Grant.—At the conclusion of last night's session of the Sanich Council, Councillor Horner stated that he would next week move for reconsideration of the request of the Y. M. C. A. for a grant in aid of the Beaver Lake Camp, which was last week refused on grounds of lack of funds.

W. B. A. Card Party.—The card party held at Mrs. MacLeod's residence last evening for Victoria Review, No. 1, W. B. A. was a huge success. The following prizes were awarded: First lady, Mrs. White; second, Mrs. Winter; first gentleman, Mr. Winter; second, W. Winter; consolation lady, Mrs. Muckle; consolation gentleman, Mr. Baylis.

To Report on Work.—The Sanich Council last night debated at length the use to which the new War Memorial Health Centre will be put by the Victoria Order of Nurses, and called for a report as to its plans from the board of management of the order. Councillor Kingwell advocated immediate turning over of the building to the nurses, but Reeve Watson contended that, as the Health Centre was going to mean an annual expense of above $10,000 to the municipality, a definite understanding should first be arrived at before the building was definitely handed over to the order.

HONEYMOON COUPLE MET MOTOR ACCIDENT WRECKED

Mr. and Mrs. Millen on Way to Brentwood When Car Wrecked

Two motor accidents took place in Saanich municipality yesterday afternoon, with nobody hurt in either case, though there was considerable damage to the vehicles in each case.

The first occurred at 2 p. m. when a small car owned by H. V. Hart, 1247 Johnson Street was heading for Brentwood Hotel along the Keating cross road. A larger car owned by Anthony Knowles was coming from Suggs and collided with the former, taking the smaller car amidships and wrecking it completely.

There were three passengers in the car thus struck beside Mr. Hart, being Mr. and Mrs. Millen a couple on their way to Brentwood Hotel for their honeymoon. Mrs. Millen suffered considerable shock, but was not seriously injured. The car was smashed up considerably. Mr. and Mrs. Millen had just landed from the Seattle boat and were proceeding to Brentwood.

The second accident took place at 7 p. m. on the East Saanich Road near Elk Lake, when a car driven by Laurie Hagen, heading for the junction of the Saanich Road and another car owned by Chung Hong Lung was coming towards town. The Chung Hong Lung car swerved to avoid a pedestrian on the road, as it was opposite to the Hagen car, and seeing that the machines could not pass the former backed too suddenly the car crashing into the front wheel on the right side of the road, and the car striking the front wheel on the right side. None of the passengers in either car were hurt.

FAREWELL SOCIAL TO MR. AND MRS. JAMESON

Knox Church, Stanley Avenue, last evening was the scene of a farewell social given by the Young People's Society in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jameson, who are leaving shortly on a trip to the East. Other guests of the evening were the following Normal students: The Misses Verna Peel, Edith Adams, Elsie Grey, Harriet Sanborn and Alice Coleman, whose departure for their various homes will take place in the near future.

A delightful musical programme included solos by Mrs. Day and Mr. R. Jones, and recitations by Mrs. Wilkinson. A most sumptuous feast was served during the evening by the Y. P. Society, and provided an occasion for numerous toasts, among those honored in this way being the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, Knox Tillieums, all Normal student members of the society; Mr. and Mrs. Jameson and the visiting students. The doxology and National Anthem closed the proceedings.

ENTERTAIN SAILORS.

The sudden and unexpected arrival of the Canadian Squadron last week caused a fever of activity among those who make the sailors' comfort their charge in Victoria, and so prompt and generous a response was awakened that Miss Alice Pooley, convener of the Sunday teas at the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, reported a very successful reunion on Sunday last.

These teas will continue each Sunday so long as the fleet remains here, and donations of cake, fruit, etc., may be left on Saturday mornings at Messrs. Hibben's Government Street. Gifts are gratefully acknowledged from the following: Miss Niblock, Mrs. Parker Hibben, Mrs. Moore, Miss Weaver, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. Campbell.

Oak Bay Court.—There was a sitting of the Oak Bay court to-day, when several cases were brought up. The offences alleged were chiefly under the Motor Act. The court opened before Magistrate Jay at 4 p. m.

Change of Service Place.—The Rev. H. Pearson, rector of Colwood, will conduct divine service at the Luxton School, on Sunday, and not at the Luxton Hall as previously announced. Services will be held in the school in future on the fourth Sunday in every month.

Steinway—"The Piano of Immortal Genius"

THE STEINWAY PIANO

Not only to-day but for generations the Steinway Piano has been recognized as the pianoforte of supreme quality. Liszt, Wagner, Rubenstein—their immortal compositions were composed upon the Steinway Piano.

Because the Steinway Piano is so surpassingly beautiful in its every feature its possession is the ultimate aim of every home of culture and refinement.

It will be a pleasure for us to show you this magnificent instrument to-day.

QUEEN CONTEST CLOSING

The Queen of the Carnival contest in connection with the Broom Festival which forms part of the Victoria Day celebrations will close at 12 o'clock at noon to-morrow, when all candidates, campaign managers with ballots must be in the carnival contest headquarters on the second floor of the Arcade Building. The contest promises to be a big success as about 20,000 ballots have been disposed of to date. The proceeds of the affair are to be used in assisting the Empire Avenue tobacco store in the purchase of a war memorial to the men of British Columbia who fell in the great war.

New Garage to be Built.—A building permit to alter the construction of a public garage at the northeast corner of Figgard and Blanshard Streets has been issued at the City Hall. M. Dempster will be the owner of the building and A. McCumlin is the architect. The building will be of brick and will cost $4,900.

Arrested on Forgery Charge.—Joseph Hoer, while playing baseball with Siciliano and Phipps this morning and arrested on a warrant for forgery, will be arraigned in the city police court to-morrow. Hoer is charged with forging a name, C. Beaven, to a cheque for Sam Greenhalgh, tobacconist, Yates Street, obtaining the sum of $5.

Civil Service Examinations.—Captain the Rev. Dr. Campbell is all this week conducting Dominion Government Civil Service examinations in the Post Office Building. The examinations include such subjects as arithmetic, geography, typewriting, general ability and education and experience. Those taking part are qualifying for all branches of the service, and include letter carriers, postal porters and clerks, transfer agents, railway clerks, stores clerks, filing, auditing, account and statistical clerks, book-keepers, stenographers, typists, watchmen, mining and other grades. A large number of candidates is in attendance.

Was Locked In.—W. Jones, the night watchman at the Outer Wharf, telephoned the police last night stating that he had been locked in, in one of the wharf buildings. The police responded to the call and found the watchman locked in by a block of wood that had fallen across the door, which was his sole exit, thus holding him prisoner.

Was Knocked Out.—On Thursday evening last P. A. Fraser, 2620 Blanshard Street, while playing baseball at a lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, Yancouver Street, was knocked unconscious by an accidental blow of the baseball bat. The boy was removed to his home, but the companions forgot to remove his overcoat from the vacant lot—that article now being missing and sought by the owner.

Goat Raising.—The Department of Agriculture has just issued the third edition of bulletin No. 54, Goat Raising in B. C. This bulletin will be found very useful to the ever increasing public who are interested in the breeding and keeping of goats. The most complete and up-to-date information is given regarding breeding of goats, buying, housing, feeding, breeding and general care, as well as regarding importation, registration and standards. Copies may be obtained on application to the Livestock Branch, Department of Agriculture, Victoria.

Spoke on Early Days.—Early days in Victoria and the Cariboo formed the basis of a most interesting document, entitled "My Boyhood Days," given by Albert Maynard last evening under the auspices of Far West Victoria Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias. Lantern views showing scenes dating back to the early 60's aroused considerable interest in the large audience, which included many old-timers and a big contingent from I. O. O. F. Aurora.

Taxation of City Waterworks.—The following resolution, moved by Councillor Kingwell, seconded by Councillor McWilliam, was passed at last night's meeting of the Sanich Council: "That Sanich Municipality do, again invite the city of Victoria, to discuss the question of properties vested in the Waterworks Commission and that a reply be asked for by Thursday evening next." Reeve Watson warned the Council that however anxious they might be to bring the abandoned waterworks property of the city into the taxation class, legally Sanich had not any standing in the matter, absolute exemption being secured to the city of Victoria by statute.

Four Amateur Lacrosse Players Will Turn Pro.

"Sugar" Macdougall, Ernie Munro, Joe Mitchell and Bob MacKay Decide to Join Con Jones's League and Play For Capitals Against Vancouver; Other Players May Turn; Easterners Arrive To-morrow.

Four Victoria amateur lacrosse players, members of the team which holds the Mann Cup, emblematic of the world's championship, will turn professional and play in the new league which has been formed by Con Jones.

The players are "Sugar" Macdougall, Joe Mitchell, Ernie Munro and Bob MacKay. Bert Johnson, who played with Victoria at the start of last season but later worked with the New Westminster amateurs, has also decided to take his dip into the pro waters and Con Jones has awarded him to the Victoria team. Johnson is working out with the Vancouver team at present, but will join the locals at the end of this week.

When on a recent visit to this city Con expressed the hope that at least six local boys would throw in their lot with the new outfit. He made offers to Boss Johnson and "Cotton" Brynjolfsson. Both boys are in the proposition. Brynjolfsson has not yet made up his mind whether or not he will turn over to the Jones league. "Poots" Plump is also considering an offer.

Local Boys Work Out.
The local boys are working out every morning at the Stadium and will be in fairly good shape when Billie Fitzgerald and his seven eastern stick-handlers arrive on Saturday. On Monday the whole squad will hold a work-out prior to journeying to Mainland to meet the Vancouverians in the opening game of the season on May 24.

The local amateurs who have decided to sign with the Jones circuit are all well-known and popular. "Sugar" Macdougall has been in amateur sport for many years and is reckoned as one of the best centres in the lacrosse game. This winter he played with the Mainland Metropolis senior football team. He is also a good basketball player.

Munro a Sidney Product.
Ernie Munro is the elongated defense man, who used to be Storme, the whirlwind Westminster home player, in knots. Munro is a hard worker and is one of the best players on the Sidney amateur twelve as well as a member of the local champions. Joe Mitchell is one of the fastest home players to perform here and should fit in well in company. Bob MacKay is a defense man and has been a tower of strength to the champions during their grueling struggles during the past two years.

Manager Not Announced.
Con Jones has not yet announced who will handle the Victoria team. He had figured on Boss Johnson to be the manager, but the local player is in charge, but the choice may fall to Billie Fitzgerald, one of the veterans of the game and a heady and steady player.

Short Training Period.
Unfortunately the Capitals will not have much time to get ready for the opening game with Vancouver. The local boys will be in good shape, but the easterners will only have time to shake the kinks out after their long train journey. However, the teams will perform in Vancouver twice before coming here for the opening game on Wednesday, June 1. They will be at the top of their form by the time the ball is faced-off here in the opener.

All Victoria games in the Con Jones League will be played on Wednesday evenings. The Vancouver matches will be decided on Saturday. Con Jones has decided to have the Empire Day game staged in Vancouver and will follow up with the regular Saturday game there four days later.

Scottish Footballers to Show Ability To-morrow

Halifax, May 20.—The upset in the itinerary of the Scottish football players will mean postponement of the Ottawa engagement for ten days only, but may mean the cancellation of the game which was to have been played at Fort William, Dan McNeill, president of the Dominion Football Association, said here last night commenting on a telegram from Ottawa asking that the Scottish team play on schedule in the capital city.

The game at Fort William has been definitely postponed but the visitors will, if it is at all possible, play in that city on their return trip from the western coast. The Ottawa game will be played on May 31, President McNeill said.

Line-Up Against Halifax.
It is announced that the Scottish team will line up against Halifax to-morrow as follows:
Goal: Brownlie, Third Lanark; right back: Bullock, Partick Thistles;

IMPORTANT FOOTBALL MEETING ON TO-NIGHT

A special meeting is called for to-night, at 8 o'clock, at the G. W. V. A. room, 107 Fort Street, of all soccer officials in any capacity, and any others interested, to meet a delegation from the B. C. F. A. Vancouver, to discuss whether or not it would be advisable to bring the Scottish football team to Victoria. All delegates, officials, referees and fans are earnestly requested to be present for this important meeting.

YOUNG MEN ARE TO BUILD UP J. B. A. A.

Special Committee to Be Appointed to Revive Interest in Old Club
Young men, full of pep and vigor, are to take over the task of rebuilding the J. B. A. A. After considerable discussion at a meeting last night it was decided to appoint a special committee of the most active young men in the club to revive interest in the chief club of the city. A special meeting of the members of the club will be held on Monday evening, May 30, at 8 o'clock, at which this committee will be appointed.

While the young men will endeavor to restore the club to its former popularity the older heads of the club will still retain their posts and render advice whenever called upon. The Bays want to correct the impression that the club is maintained simply for rowing. Before the war the Bays took part in every branch of sport. Rowing was the game which gathered the most publicity for them, but the fact that they engaged in regattas all over the Pacific Northwest.

Rushing Work on Arena.
Jersey City, N.J., May 20.—Construction of the arena, where the Dempsey-Carpentier fight will take place, is one-fourth completed. Contractors declared to-day that they expected to have the job finished before June 15, the date called for in their contract. Seven hundred workmen are engaged in the task.

Georges Wants Secrecy.
Manhasset, N.Y., May 20.—Georges Carpentier sent his scouts yesterday in search of softer and more secluded roads for track work. The hard road camouflaged highways over which thousands of curious persons are traveling to get a glance of him, combined with a desire for greater privacy, have caused certain changes in his plans. Serious training will start Monday and will consist of light boxing until he has recuperated from the sea voyage. Francois Leguamps, his manager, announced to-night.

Everything Ready for Big Golf Tournament

Hundred Golfers Will Drive Off In Qualifying Round For B. C. Championship at Colwood To-morrow Morning.

With many golfers from Mainland and up-island clubs present, and with all arrangements complete for their convenience and the comfort of large crowds of spectators, the British Columbia Amateur Golf Championship tournament will commence at the Colwood Golf and Country Club to-morrow morning at nine o'clock. Final plans for the competition were completed to-day and the draw for the qualifying round shows that ninety-six competitors will drive off in the qualifying round.

In announcing the draw last night the committee in charge explained that in nearly every case the players, judged by their handicaps, were as evenly matched as possible. The qualifying round, which will commence to-morrow morning, will be thirty-six holes and the lowest sixty-four will qualify. The best thirty-two of these will compose the championship flight of sixteen matches. The defeated sixteen will compose the first flight. All players with scores higher than the first thirty-two will make up the second and subsequent flights of eight matches each.

Draw Announced.
The draw announced last night, with the time at which the various matches will commence, is as follows:

BRITISH GOLFERS MEET AMERICANS TO-MORROW IN PRELIMINARY MATCH

Hoy Lake, Eng., May 20.—American and British golf teams will meet here to-morrow for a match preliminary to the British amateur championship tournament which will begin Monday, and the admission is generally made that the day will see British golf subjected to one of the severest tests in its history. One game which is arousing keen interest is that between Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago, and Cyril Tolley, of Oxford.

TENNIS COURTS WILL NOT OPEN TO-MORROW

Owing to recent rains and cold weather the grass courts of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club will not be available for play to-morrow. It is hoped if the weather continues warm and dry to have them open early next week.

School Sports Will Be Held At Willows Monday

Annual Athletic Carnival Is Expected to Attract Huge Crowd; Greatest Entry List in History of Sports in This City; Rivalry Is Very Keen Between Various Schools.
School children are greatly interested in the big athletic carnival which will be held at the Willows on Monday afternoon next. Arrangements have been completed for the staging of the annual school sports and those in charge of the affair state that it will be the greatest ever held in the history of the city.

The entry list this year far exceeds that of any past sports and judging from the calibre of some of the athletes entered it would not be surprising if new records were established in many events.

A Long Programme.
It has been found necessary to hold three heats in many of the events. A total of fifty events comprises the programme. The officials in charge of the meet have expended every energy to have the track at the Willows in first-class shape. Each school has been groomed for its star athletes for the various races and the competition for individual school honors will be extremely keen.

TIGERS GIVEN RUDE JOLT BY VANCOUVER
Beavers Clouted Abrahams Badly in Eighth; Rachac Goes Well; Score 9-0
Vancouver, May 20.—Max Rachac chalked up another victory yesterday afternoon, letting the Royal Bengals down with six scattered blows and shutting them out, 9 to 0. The Tigers were unable to budge any of the Beavers fielded in bang-up style behind him. Rachac had a comparatively easy afternoon.

Eley, southpaw, ascended the mound for Tacoma and pitched nice ball for three innings. A drizzling rain had made the ball greasy and the fielders had a tough time holding it. Eley managed to hold the heavy hitting Beavers down until the eighth, when he gave way to a pinch hitter, Abrahams, who followed him, was decidedly out of place, and the locals combed him for 5 runs in the one inning.

In spite of the rain, it was good ball. Tacoma..... R. H. E. 0 8 3
Vancouver..... 9 10 1
Batteries: Abrahams, Eley and Stevens; Rachac and Bosdale.

CRICKET LEADERS MEET TAIL-ENDERS

No Sensational Games Are Booked on To-morrow Afternoon's Programme

(By Rex.)
To-morrow's cricket programme does not provide the possibility of anything sensational in the way of play. The teams in the first half of the league standing are drawn against the lower half, and it looked as though the top dogs will have things much their own way.

The Albions are scheduled to meet Victoria at the Jubilee grounds, and judging by the past performances of their teams the Vics should have little trouble in establishing a win.

The Garrison will entertain the Army and Navy at Work Point. This season the Garrison has produced a very creditable side, and in three games has turned in two victories. The soldiers' victims include the Albions and Congos. The Garrison should take the game from the Army and Navy.

This One May Be Good.
The third game between the Congos and Five C's at Beacon Hill should prove to be the most evenly contested of the afternoon. The Five C's, especially their bowlers, are giving a splendid account of themselves, and the Congos will have to show better form than they have done in the past to succeed in putting over a win.

The Incogs hold the bye this week-end.

The teams for to-morrow are as follows:
Albions—G. H. Walton (Capt.), E. D. Freeman, F. Jordan, E. Pearsons, N. F. Pite, H. Cotton, J. Barnett, F. Bosson, T. Hogarth, W. Gregson and D. Matthews.
Army and Navy—W. Shearman, C. F. L. Money, C. E. Money, P. C. Weeh, F. Brook, A. Attwell, P. Oliver, F. Birch, J. Hillierby, W. Hewitt, P. Charles, Reserves, G. Leeming and A. Foster.
Congos—J. Collett, (Capt.), G. Wells, J. Davies, F. Smith, W. A. Tucker, P. Shrimpton, G. H. Hilton, E. Pearson, W. Erickson, E. R. Lock, G. H. Jennings, Umpire, R. H. Barker.

Collections To-Morrow.
Secretaries and captains are requested to take up collections at all games to-morrow in aid of the Albion Ground Fund.
Five C's—H. Edwards (captain),

MAY ALLOW PITCHERS TO PUT RESIN ON BALL TO IMPROVE CONTROL

New York, May 20.—Club owners of the National League, meeting here yesterday, favored a recommendation permitting the pitcher to apply a touch of resin to the tips of his fingers to insure a better grip on the ball and improve his control. If this recommendation meets with American league approval it was stated umpires would be charged with its supervision, and would place a small amount of resin near the pitchers' box.

BAGBY IS VICTOR IN KEEN PITCHING DUEL

Indians Succeed in Defeating Athletics in Eleventh; Other Games

American League.
Cleveland, O., May 20.—Jim Bagby won an eleven-inning twirling duel from Scott Perry yesterday, giving Cleveland a 4 to 3 victory over the Athletics. The Mackmen took the lead in the second, Cleveland tying the count in the fourth. Both teams scored again in the eighth and Cleveland sent over the winning run in the eleventh.
Score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 3 11 4
Cleveland 4 12 0
Batteries—Perry and Perkins; Bagby and O'Neill.

White Sox Humbled.
Chicago, May 20.—The New York Yankees evened the series yesterday by defeating the White Sox, 11 to 4. A single by Peck, Ruth's walk, Pipp's triple and Meusel's hit gave the Yanks three runs in the first inning. They drove Hodge to the showers in the fifth with a seven-run rally. Hoyt weakened only in the fifth.
Score: R. H. E.
New York 11 16 1
Chicago 4 7 2
Batteries—Hoyt and Schang; Murrin, Hodge, Davenport and Schalk; Yaryan.

Cobb's Homer Wen Game.
Detroit, May 20.—Cobb's home run in the fifth netted two runs and the Detroit Americans took yesterday's contest from Boston, 3 to 2.
Score: R. H. E.
Boston 2 6 1
Detroit 3 5 0
Batteries—Cobb, Hamelin, Russell and Ruel; Holling, Middleton and Ainsmith.

At St. Louis— R. H. E.
Washington 5 9 1
St. Louis 5 12 2
Batteries: Schary and Gharrity; Boland, Bayne, Burwell and Severid.

National League.
New York, May 20.—The Chicago Nationals won New York's winning streak yesterday by a score of 5 to 3. Pitching of York, who relieved Cheever in the third, was a feature. He yielded only three hits and struck out eight men, fanning Young three times. Score: R. H. E.
Chicago 5 9 0
New York 3 5 3
Batteries—Cheever, York and Farrell; Nehf, Douglas and Smith, Snyder.

Dodgers Drop Another.
Brooklyn, May 20.—Pittsburg won the second consecutive game from Brooklyn yesterday, 7 to 5, through fast base running and timely hitting. Tierney drove in four runs for the Pirates with a home run and a single.
Score: R. H. E.
Pittsburg 7 14 3
Brooklyn 5 10 2
Batteries—Adams and Skiff; Smith and Krueger.

Braves Trim Reds.
Boston, May 20.—The Braves continued on a batting spree yesterday, knocking Rube Marquard out of the box in the seventh and winning their second game of the series from Cincinnati, 5 to 1. The Braves gathered eleven hits, while Watson, fighting for the tribe, held the Reds to six scattered hits. Powell featured the game with a home run to the flagpole with one man on base in the seventh. Score: R. H. E.
Cincinnati 1 4 2
Boston 5 11 1
Batteries—Marquard, Brenton and Wingo; Watson and O'Neill.

A Costly Muff.
Philadelphia, May 20.—Lebour's two-base muff, Stock's sacrifice fly, and Mann's sacrifice hit won yesterday's contest for St. Louis in the eleventh inning, 3 to 2.
Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 3 5 0
Philadelphia 2 11 6
Batteries: Walker and Dilhoefer; Smith, Betts and Bruggy.

Coast League.
At Los Angeles, 1st game—
Score: R. H. E.
Portland 1 4 1
Los Angeles 2 7 1

SHOULD A CANOE UPSET?

BY BILLIE KENNEDY
Champion sculler and paddler of Pacific Northwest

Should a canoe upset? This question can readily be answered by the word "No." Although one hears on all sides the cry of "don't go canoeing, it's dangerous," I claim that by proper handling of a canoe it is as safe as a large rowboat, even in the roughest sea. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the accidents are caused by the absolute carelessness of the occupant and therefore cannot be attributed to the construction of the canoe.

The first thing to realize is that a canoe is a canoe, and not a "scow," and naturally one has to use a certain amount of common sense in the handling of same. A beginner should always get the advice of a practical waterman before setting a foot in the craft, and, even after obtaining this advice, great care should be exercised, until the paddler gains confidence in himself.

There will perhaps come the time to the occupant of the canoe when the unavoidable happens and the canoe is capsized and at that time every canoeist should know exactly how to empty the craft of water and get quickly back into it.

Not Difficult Feat.
This is by no means a difficult feat, and, if the majority of canoeists could do this under almost any circumstances, no doubt many lives would be saved each year.

We see at times such headings as "Drowned while cross the lake. Jones was an expert canoe man but after clinging to his canoe for some time was taken with cramps" or some other such item. Had this man taken the trouble to learn how to right and empty his canoe before setting forth his life would have been saved.

Take any of the heavy seas with which we are all familiar on this coast, and you will find that the average person will say that a canoe cannot live in them for a minute, and as to going into the sea in a canoe sideways, well, it's suicide.

You will find, however, when a complete mastery of the blade is gained a canoe will take any wave except when probably breaking on the beach, and even then it has to be a roller before the canoeist is beaten.

In a choppy sea less water will be shipped when travelling sideways, or in the trough of the sea, if the canoe is properly handled.

When going into a heavy sea do not drive the canoe into a large wave but slow down and allow the bow to rise. In going with a sea do not try and paddle over a wave but use your strength just as the bow starts to dip downward, in this manner waves can be run for a considerable distance.

Some of the Don'ts.
At this time a few "don'ts" will be found interesting to the beginner, and if carefully followed out will be of great assistance in eliminating a great number of unnecessary canoeing accidents.

Before leaving the landing see that the canoe is properly balanced and not overloaded. It is always advisable to kneel on the bottom of the canoe and not sit up on the thwarts or seats. Do not dip your paddle too deep; just sufficient to cover your blade.

Learn to handle your canoe by steering only on one side.

Beginners should not under any circumstances change positions in a canoe after once leaving the landing; if this is necessary, however, go to shore before attempting the move.

If you are in such a position that you are some distance from shore and it is absolutely necessary to change, the safest way to do this is for one passenger to lie or kneel down closely to the bottom of the canoe, the other stepping over. Do not stand up and try to pass as this is dangerous.

Do not try to run or "buck" a stream, strong tides, or a waterfall. This takes years of experience to master.

If alone, the canoe can be most easily handled by kneeling "midships" and paddling on one side only.

Tacoma, May 20.—Johnny McCarthy, of San Francisco and Frankie Murphy, of Portland, waterweights, boxed a six-round draw here last night.

In the six-round semi-windup, Young Sam Langford, Seattle, 130 pounder, won the decision from Frankie Britt, of Tacoma.

SCHOOL SYSTEM MUST BE MADE MORE PRACTICAL

Should Fit Students For Life Occupations, Says "Education Week" Speakers

DESCRIBES IDEALS OF TECHNICAL EDUCATION

That British Columbia's educational system must be made more practical in order that it train boys for useful occupations and girls to be home-makers, was the assertion of speakers who last night addressed a well-attended meeting held in the High School auditorium as part of the City's Board's Education Week. The purpose and ideals of technical education and the technical work which is proceeding on the Mainland were outlined in a powerful address by J. G. Lister, Principal of the Vancouver Technical School. R. R. Neild, the well-known mechanical engineer, showed how the broadening of technical education would help, to a very great extent, to develop the vast resources of Canada and British Columbia. The need for more practical education for the girls of the Province was emphasized by School Trustee Mrs. Spofford, who declared that the present curriculum, while it produced women well trained in academic subjects and in commercial methods, did not turn out women who could manage homes—their real purpose in life. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Local Council of Women, the Women's Canadian Club and the I. O. E. Miss Crease, president of the Local Council of Women, presided, and with her on the platform were Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, representing the Women's Canadian Club, and Miss Cook, the Daughters of the Empire. Miss Crease in opening the meeting declared that technical education was not clearly understood by the public at large and was often confused with manual training and domestic science work. It was necessary, she said, that the purposes of technical education should be more widely appreciated. The germ of education. "Education is not and never can be, and will always be a failure as long as we try to make it anything but education, in other words, education cannot be instruction," Mr. Lister commenced. "Education has been well said to be the bringing out of what is in. That is true, but it is very important. "Does a farmer expect to get turnips when he sows carrots? No. When you want to know something you must sow seed with the proper germ in it. If a boy hasn't the proper seed in him all the technical education in the world cannot make a success of him. It is necessary by nature to be a mechanic nothing can make him a successful financier. Thus we should try to put boys and girls into certain ill-defined, but well known classes so that we may have an education to fit each to train boys who were intended to be merchants, artisans or artists. For that reason I do not plead alone for technical education, that would be as foolish as commercial education or artistic education only." A Single Truth. Mr. Lister went on to discuss the teaching of various subjects from the academic and the technical or practical standpoint. Of particular interest was his detailed description of work carried on in a modern technical school. The ideal held before technical students, he said, was simple truth—work that must be as accurate and perfect as it is humanly possible to make it. While one on hand technical schools were teaching boys' hands to be dexterous, and their eyes to be sure, at the same time they were not neglecting the mind. Historical Teaching. "If I had my way I would cut out a great deal of the so-called history taught in our schools, because much of it is a waste of time," he went on. "What progress is this world going to make whether King Henry VIII. had six wives or sixteen? There are great deeds in history—a boy should know about—but they are not necessarily the lives and deeds of kings. I care not whether men sat on thrones or stood in gutters so long as they made for progress and progress in this world to be something better. "We have lived through the most momentous years of history, but do we teach in our schools about the Great War with the enthusiasm as we teach about the Punic Wars or the Wars of the Roses? I say no!" he exclaimed, as he urged that the school history curricula include more about great scientists and men who had helped to better the lot of man. "Did you ever hear of an immortal scientist? No? But did you ever hear of immortal painters and poets? I leave you to answer that question!" On Earth to Earn Money. "Technical education has never produced anything but the highest thoughts, though they are utilitarian. After all what are we here for but to earn dollars and cents? What more crime is it to teach a blacksmith to make an easy dollar than it is to teach a preacher or professor to make an easy salary. I can enjoy Shakespear, but I like to know there is coal in the cellar while I am doing it." Mr. Lister went on to quote figures to prove that students of the Vancouver Technical School had been remarkably successful in a purely academic examinations set by the B. C. University. Of 285 male students who had passed the matriculation examinations this year thirteen had passed in the first class. Of this first thirteen, six were technical students had written, he stated. The remaining three all had passed, he added. A Scornful World. The speaker said that many failures in life had been due to the false idea that the world was waiting with open arms for the technically trained student. As a matter of fact, a boy who had just completed a technical course was ready to start doing the lowest, dirtiest job in a workshop. But, he asked, was a graduate of an ordinary high school ready to start any job, but at the very bottom of the ladder? Mr. Lister illustrated his address with a number of interesting lantern slides which showed the progress which has been made in Vancouver in connection with technical education. Technical training, he said, had been proceeding in Vancouver for five years, and now over 300 students were attending the big technical school there. Workmen's Ignorance. "It has been deplorable the ignorance of many workmen," said R. R. Neild. "They were nothing more than coaks—tools. Now, however, we are taking a hold of boys and trying to do away with this condition—to make Canadian boys leaders among men." Mr. Neild described in detail the work which the authorities of Winnipeg, with whom he had been associated, had done to keep boys at school as long as possible in order that they might learn a useful occupation. He traced also the efforts of big Canadian companies to train young men to lead industrial enterprises. Essentials of Success. "To-day we are trying to develop the resources of Canada, and nothing will help us to do it more than our technical schools, which are giving boys the great essentials of success—character and ability," the speaker asserted. "We should start in B. C. to give our boys this character training and build up this great Province. The very basis of our development will be the establishment of technical schools in our midst. It is said that it is useless to give boys technical training unless they can get employment to go with it. But if we do give them technical education which will lead to a development which will create the employment needed." Recognizes Obligations. "The state has recognized its obligation to educate the citizen, and now a great many people are wondering whether the state is getting its money's worth out of this education," Mrs. Spofford remarked. "I won't answer that question, but will let you figure it out for yourself. "With the development of industry women have been forced out of the home factory into the public factory to earn a livelihood. Thus we must try to train our girls to succeed in this sphere. We train our boys for the work which they will conduct during their whole lives, but the girl's ultimate destiny, however, is as the mother of the nation—a part for which we must fit her. A large number of women now remain in business, but the majority go into the home. "Now is our educational system fitting our girls to be home keepers and the mother of the nation? In our high schools we train girls in academic subjects and in business matters, but give them little that will make them able to manage a home. Teaching Food Values. "To-day, we are told, there are many children in British Columbia who are suffering from mal-nutrition, simply because their mothers do not understand food values. That is one of the things we must teach them," she observed, as she went on to describe the work which was being done in this direction in other cities. "The time has come when we, in Victoria, must work for a more practical course of education for our girls. We have the beginning of this in our domestic science course, but this is only the ground work. We are turning out many girls trained in business and teaching, but they have difficulty in getting situations. The great dirch is in applications for positions as domestic servants. We must raise the status of our domestic service as we

Money for Future Delivery

HERE are many things for which you desire money. Maybe it is to pay the mortgage off your home; to give your children an education; to provide a fund to care for your wife and family if you should die; or to support yourself in your old age if you live. Or perhaps you are endeavoring to extend your business credit; to retire a bond issue; to create a reserve to offset the loss by death of some member of your firm, or to pay off the widow of your partner. Life Insurance provides the only means of delivering the necessary money at the time it is most needed. Over six hundred million dollars have been paid out by the life insurance companies in Canada for these and similar purposes, and over two and a half billions are pledged to-day for future delivery.

SCOTTISH RIFLE SHOOT

The semi-weekly shoot took place yesterday in a heavy blow and taking consideration the state of the weather some good scores were made. Miss D. Richardson was high in the Scottish, with the fine total of ninety-five, and wins the Little and Taylor spoon. From present indications this young lady is rapidly merging into a real champion and the grunter set who shoot at the ranges have nothing but the highest praise for this eighteen-year-old girl, she uses the same arm as the men and generally conforms to all conditions. Pte. Sherwood is another who in a very short time will make the seniors wake up. This young recruit takes the regular spoon this week with the handicap allowed.

VARIETY
 It is a curious coincidence that Douglas Fairbanks should have supported him in "The Mark of Zorro," his latest United Artists production, which will be the feature at the Variety Theatre to-day, Claire McDowell, Noah Beery and Charles Hill Malles with Fred Niblo as his director. Many years before their advent into the silent drama they had appeared at different times with one another upon the legitimate stage. Incidentally it was also the film debut of Noah Beery, Jr., age seven. But unlike his famous sire, Noah, Jr., appears to be destined for heroic roles in the future.

SHOWING AT DOMINION

Jean Paige, one of the most popular of the younger stars, heads the all-star cast in Vitaphone's special production, "Black Beauty." Miss Paige is of the simple country type that makes her a charming heroine in a picture of this sort.

DOMINION

Racing for a greater prize than any purse ever peered at a track, Harry Blomfield rode Black Beauty across country against Jack Beckett on Lightning. Again and again the position of the racers changed, through many chance happenings and desperate risks taken by one and then the other of the riders. For Beckett, bankrupt and hounded by bailiffs, a fortune and a girl he desired depended upon the outcome of the race. Harry rode to save Jesse Gordon from a life of misery as the wife of a scoundrel.

Black Beauty knew well that the winning of the wild race was vitally important to his human friends, and he strained every nerve to the utmost to catch and pass the flying thoroughbred ridden by Beckett. Lightning knew only that he was being cruelly beaten and spurred, and must run his best to avoid punishment.

Now on the rough road, now clearing stone walls and hedges to take short cuts across the fields, the terrific race was run to a wildly exciting finish.

PANTAGES

Staley and Birbeck, headliners at Pantages this week, the mysterious musical blacksmiths are the originators of the quickest and most complete transformation ever seen. Not only do they change from the garb of blacksmiths to drawing-room dress in the flash of an eye, but they change back again as rapidly.

The Paramount Four is a harmony singing and instrumental quartet who will be heard in a programme of popular and comedy numbers. All are musicians of unusual ability and exceptional voices, which they use in typical topical songs in a very entertaining way.

Harrison and Robinson present their big comedy success, "Daily Delivery," with a crossfire repartee, with Benny Harrison as the Hebrew mail carrier. They also introduce some unusual singing and comedy dancing.

ROMANO

The days of the Wild West, of cowpunchers who rode anything on four legs and talked like Will Rogers, are not ended, and they never will be so long as Buck Jones is alive. Buck Jones is the new sensation of the screen whom William Fox will present in "The Last Straw" to-day at the Romano Theatre. PRINCESS

"Rolling Stones" is simply delighting the splendid crowds it has been attracting this week, and justly so, for there is a wonderful human appeal in every one of the clever situations. The comedy is so natural and so well written that even when the characters find themselves in the most desperate straits, their plight, while touching one's heart, cannot help but provoke great merriment. Byron Aldern and Lee Jaxon have the two characters about which the major portion of the interest centres, and to say that they are well done does not half express it. Mr. Aldern, as usual, brings earnestness and great depth of feeling into his work and leaves everyone with a satisfied feeling at the end of a long, difficult performance. Miss Page is again playing an unimportant role with the dignity and charm which make even a minor role in her hands seem most attractive. The next play is "Broadway and Buttermilk," and the character Miss Page is to portray is one demanding great care and earnest study in addition to the great gift of versatility which is one of Miss Page's greatest assets.

BUYERS TO MEET PRODUCERS TO BRING DOWN COAL COST

to the class needed for household purposes. Education, undoubtedly, was necessary. The difference in the cost of handling, and so in the cost to those buying fuel, if everyone could be persuaded to ask for nothing better than was required, would be considerable. It was only necessary to point out in substantiation of this statement, that the coal was credited with the announcement that the suggestion of selling "run of scow" coal—that is, coal direct from the scow that brings the fuel from the mine—would be given a trial by him. It would be sold at $1 a ton cheaper than current prices.

Wasteful Habits

General R. G. E. Leckie, the mining engineer associated with Mr. Henderson in the recent investigation, it was pointed out, referred to this phase of the situation in two places in his report. At one point he observed:

"The consumer should be educated up to the economical use of coal and not demand all lump when his purpose could be just as well served by taking a certain percentage of the smaller sizes. A proportion of fines is really desirable for ordinary furnace use, and to break up lump for the stove is a wasteful procedure."

Discussion Beneficial

"It is not my intention," Hon. Mr. Sloan added, "to take up at such other points made by Mr. Henderson in his consideration of the relation of the coal mining industry of the Province to the consumer. He and his associates have made some valuable suggestions and Mr. Henderson's recommendations will have every consideration."

There are twelve or thirteen of these recommendations and these will be taken up at a conference, for which I now am making arrangements. I concur with the Commissioner when he endorses the idea of such consultations for a discussion of the whole question of cost of coal production, transportation, and delivery."

New Ideas For All

Hon. Mr. Sloan drew attention to the comments of Mr. Henderson regarding this matter. He had said it was "not too much to hope that there could be devised a delivery of coal by operators or dealers and by dealers to consumers that would be more satisfactory to consumers and much cheaper without imposing on operators or dealers undue losses." It also had been stated that the operators and dealers were willing to enter into such consultation. The result would be a reformation of some of the ways, not only of operators and dealers, but also those of us who are consumers. The consumers would get new ideas on the subject of the best coal to use, the best mode of securing delivery and also the best method of using it, particularly in furnaces.

Another point touched on was the statement by Mr. Henderson that "the evidence conclusively shows further that dealers frequently deliver short weight to consumers." It was true that this was qualified by the expression of a doubt as to whether those in the business were aware of the shortage when it occurred. That, however, in Hon. Mr. Sloan's opinion, was not the important thing. If consumers were being short weighted it was a crime little less serious than the "robbing of a suitcase box in a placer camp." Certainly this was a matter requiring attention and he thought it most important that it should have serious consideration. Mr. Henderson's recommendation specifically follows:

"Consideration should be given to the advisability of appointing a Fair Weights and Measures officer for the Province and he might be given supervision over similar civic officers and jurisdiction as to grades. Provincial police and civic police should be authorized to supplement the authority of the Fair Weights and Measures officer in every possible way and a determined effort made by every means available to stop and the practice of deception in weights and measures."

"These and other questions raised will be discussed at the proposed conference," Hon. Mr. Sloan explained.

Corinne Griffith and Catherine Calvert, together with their director, Webster Campbell, and the members of their supporting company in "Moral Fibre," are spending a few days at Yaphank, Long Island, which will always be a well-known town among Americans for the reason that it is the site of the famed Camp Upton of world war times. At Yaphank, they discovered a typical country store of the sort described in the script of "Moral Fibre" and several scenes are being made there.

DARLING BABY BRIGHTENS HOME

Children's Laughter a Pleasing Sound

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. Before my next one was born I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old, and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show these few lines to anybody."—Mrs. C. W. Benz, 131 3rd Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Janssen's experience of interest to childless wives.
Millston, Wis.—"I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are fond of children, and for a considerable time after we were married I feared I would not have any. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it strengthened me so I now have a nice, strong, healthy baby girl. I suffered very little at childbirth, and I give all the credit to your medicine, and shall always recommend it highly."—Mrs. H. H. Janssen, Millston, Wis.

Mrs. Field of Marinette Wis., adds her testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She says:
Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a nervous condition and very irregular. My doctor advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It overcame my weakness so that I now have a healthy baby girl after having been married nine years. I am glad to recommend your medicine, and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. H. B. Field, 330 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.

There are many such homes that were once childless, and are now blessed with healthy, happy children because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored the mother to a strong and healthy condition, as it acts as a natural restorative for ailments as indicated by backache, irregularities, displacements, weakness and nervousness.

Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative. It can be taken with perfect safety and often prevents serious troubles.

Therefore if you know of any woman who is suffering and has been unable to secure relief and is regretfully looking forward to a childless old age, ask her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it has brought health and happiness into so many homes once darkened by illness and despair.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

"LESS THEOLOGY— MORE CHRISTIANITY" IS WORLD'S NEED

Judge George D. Alden Heard at Chautauqua

Introduced by Miss Smith, Superintendent of the Chautauqua here, as one of the direct descendants from the Pilgrim Fathers—a grand nephew of the poet Longfellow; and a grandson of the former president of Harvard University, Judge George D. Alden last night delivered an interesting address on the "Needs of the Hour" as indicated by prevailing conditions in the United States at the present time.

In opening his address the speaker stated in humorous vein it was well that the Pilgrim Fathers came when they did, as the Immigration Laws were stricter to-day in his country. This was his first visit to Victoria, stated the speaker.

"Less Theology and More Christianity" was the dominant note of the speaker's address, who divided life in the United States into four main phases—commercial, political, social and religious. The speaker proceeded to give a brief survey of the growth of the American spirit from the birth of the nation until the present day; stating in his conclusion that the tendency towards graft and greed to-day was an outgrowth of the decay of individual honesty. He traced this dishonesty into numerous phases of the present day life as enumerated by the four main divisions of civilization in the States.

The speaker traced his own transformation from unbridled selfishness to firm Christianity and declared that his conviction was strong that the core of the present day civilization was Christianity, the heart and centre of Christianity being Christ. Judge Alden stated he did not hold with the sectionalism that divided the Christian world into a multiplicity of churches and "isms," and wished to see the growth of an all-embracing Christianity, where love of faith and honor would admit of no such denominational distinctions. What was urgently required was less theology and more Christianity to save the needs of the distressed world, he concluded.

Judge Alden delivered his address in a vivacious manner, exercising a pleasing choice of words and enlivening the more solid thoughts thus presented with frequent flashes of humor. A large attendance was present, an excellent musical programme preceding the main address. The Tennessee Duo gave a number of pleasing songs, and were heard to advantage in several numbers where they accompanied themselves on ukuleles. One of the talented pair delighted the audience with a juvenile recitation given in pleasing vein, while the other presented a clever impersonation of the anxiety of a lady, who was endeavoring to keep her eye on a large flock of

SUCCESS CROWNS LABORS OF YEARS

Methodist Minister Secures B.A. Degree Under Trying Circumstances

Congratulations are being expressed to-day to the Rev. T. H. Wright, a popular Methodist minister who is now attending the Methodist Conference here, closing five years of study, his degree of B. A. was conferred on Mr. Wright at the Sixth Convocation for conferring degrees, held at the B. C. University on May 12. Some 129 graduates were granted degrees by the Chancellor of the University. For the last five years the reverend gentleman has been studying for his degree with a charge at Golden. He could not attend the University lectures, but came down for the examinations. So keen was he to obtain his degree that he arranged with the registrar to send him one of two telegrams which he had worded for himself. The first in case of failure to pass was to read, "There's one more river to cross," while the telegram that was sent to him by the registrar to commemorate the happy event read, "Sorrow Vanquished, Labor Ended, Jordan Crossed," a quotation which was repeated in more resolute hues to the worthy minister of the gospel. A brother of the Rev. T. H. Wright was elected president of the Methodist Conference here yesterday Captain H. J. the Rev. Wright. The Rev. T. H. Wright is a popular and outstanding figure in the mainland Methodist circles where he is universally beloved.

OPENING OF V.I.A. IS ENJOYED BY MANY

Summer Clubhouse at Gorge Scene of Merry Party on Wednesday Night

Quite a number of interested spectators attended the opening of the V. I. A. summer quarters at Curtis Point Wednesday afternoon, and witnessed an excellent programme of water and land sports. The lovely grounds were in excellent condition due to the efforts of the House Committee under the chairmanship of Harry Jacque. The equipment on the water including diving tanks and dressing rooms have been placed in readiness, and swimmers, divers and water polo players can start and get into first class condition for the many galas which are planned for the season. On land there are many attractions which include a splendid basketball court, tennis court, gymnasium with punching bags, dummy men, horizontal bars, parallel bars, rings, medicine bags, boxing ring, etc. Another part of the grounds has been fixed up for baseball and other games. Special attention has been given to the arrangement of tables at which members can hold picnics of their own. The dance hall has also received considerable attention, and the floor is in perfect condition. The chief activities of the opening Wednesday were water sports which were held in the afternoon. The banquet started at 6.30 o'clock for which the catering was executed in splendid manner by Tighe & Wheeler. Basketball and other land sports were enjoyed in the evening, and a dance and bonfire finished the day's enjoyment. The result of the sports were: Water polo—McCall's team beat M. Davies' team, 2 to 0. Centipede race—Leo Dalziel's team. Canoe tilting—Mona Dunn and Geo. McCrea. Canoe tilting—Ted Beales and Leo Dalziel. Mixed basketball game—Al Davies' team. Ladies' basketball—"B" team won from "A" team 18 to 8.

EDUCATIONAL EFFORT WOULD BENEFIT WHOLE COMMUNITY

Training of Citizens of Tomorrow Dealt With by Mr. Charlesworth

"Our schools in a very material sense are a great asset," was the opinion expressed by Secretary Harry Charlesworth, of the B. C. Teachers' Federation, to the Victoria citizens at the Education Week luncheon held to-day at the Chautauqua tent.

Mr. Charlesworth is still engaged as an arbitrator in the New West-Department of the Collegiate Institute, and was unable to attend personally, so the paper was read by Alexander G. Smith, principal of the Victoria High School.

Cost of Education. Mr. Charlesworth's paper gave the following statistics on the Victoria schools:

"Last year the amount of money spent in education was $492,345. There were about 225 persons employed, including 1 doctor, 2 nurses, 1 municipal inspector, 1 secretary, 1 stenographer and 30 janitors. There were 5,391 pupils in the schools. As the economic value of each child to the State has been placed by experts at $4,000 per child, this means that the school system of Victoria is an asset to the value of $21,564,000.

There were 20 school centres and 45 school buildings. The value of the buildings was over $1,000,000. The value of the school sites was $370,000. The value of the furniture and apparatus was $45,500.

The total value of all school property was over one and a half million dollars.

A Big Business. "From all of these facts it is clearly evident that Victoria's school system constitutes one of Victoria's biggest and certainly most important businesses," Mr. Charlesworth said.

"Again, Victoria is an ideal place for an educational centre. Its pleasant climate gives opportunity for abundant outdoor life, organized games and play. School life in its fullest sense is possible here.

"We seek prairie people by organized propaganda. Many come because of educational facilities now. More would come, if we had increased facilities for a complete all-round education.

"Then also, we have British people in the Orient, who could be induced to send their children to Victoria schools and colleges instead of sending them to Old Country schools.

"There can be no question that our educational system should be made one of our greatest assets, for it is evident that both ethically and materially it is a most important factor in the development of our community life."

Mr. Charlesworth in turn examined the status of education and pointed out that the welfare, progress and prosperity of a city depend in the last analysis upon the character of its citizens, and therefore citizens should form the basis factor of all civic institutions and of all civic government.

He considered the child in its three-fold relation of the home, the church and the school, as the three pillars of childhood. "Each of these three has its responsibilities to make. Each has its duty to 'His Majesty—the Child.' If one fails short, the others must make good to make up for the child must not suffer," he said.

IS GOING TO OSOYOS; KETTLE VALLEY RAIL SERVICE IS DOUBLED

The Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, will leave Victoria next Tuesday night and on Wednesday from Vancouver by the Kettle Valley Railway for the Government's big irrigated land scheme at Osoyos in the Okanagan. Hon. Mr. Pattullo will spend a week in the district to see that the development work is being speeded through.

Beginning Sunday a daily train will go into the Interior from Vancouver by way of Spences Bridge. The train will leave Vancouver at 3.20 p. m. This will be more than doubling the present three-a-week service. The increased service is in appreciation of the increase in settlement and agricultural activity in the Interior.

METRODISTS WARNED OF SUNDAY MOTION PICTURE CAMPAIGN

The Legislature to fearfully anticipated legislation on the part of the Lord's Day Alliance against Sunday fishing and shooting. "The Anglers' Association misrepresents the facts," said the speaker. "The alliance has no legislation bearing on fishing and does not intend to ask for any. And on the point of shooting they must have been covered not by the Lord's Day Act but by the Municipalities Act in which prevention of a nuisance is not in the power of the municipal authorities.

Deputations. Deputations were next heard from. There were two: that of the Presbyterian Synod of B. C., presided over by Rev. Leslie Clay, D. and Rev. Mr. McCoy, and of the City Municipal Association. Both spoke of reactionary tendencies, but declared that there was no place for downheartedness.

Church Union. The deputation from the Ministerial Association of the city was in the persons of Rev. Wm. Spence and Rev. Mr. Gladstone. Mr. Spence declared this was the fifth time he had had such a duty. He hoped it would be the last. He said it was heard in times, "Well, it is doing very well, but he would do still better married." This church courtship, he said, had been going on for a long time. When the marriage time arrived, he said, it could not be better married in haste and that the rest of the adage would not need to be said.

He recalled a story from Dr. Parker of the City Temple, London, who when introduced to a man who described himself as a "modest Methodist" at once commented, "I will now draw near and see this great sight."

The Church as Toiler was the subject of the morning address by Rev. Hugh Dobson. Mr. Dobson talked of the inevitable difficulties which retard the career of great causes. He claimed that the church is not doing very well, but he would do still better married.

"We need the unconquerable will," he argued. He reminded his hearers of Daniel's closing lines to the Divine Comedy: "The will rolls onward by that force impelled. That moves the sun in heaven and all the stars."

The afternoon was occupied by the organization of committees and the consideration by them of business set up by the thirteen district meetings held throughout the province. Many of the conference members went over to Chautauqua tent to hear Dr. Moore who had agreed to fill the place of Hon. Mrs. Smith on their after-luncheon programme.

Arrivals at Conference. Rev. R. J. D. Simpson, of Toronto, Secretary of the Superannuation Fund has arrived and will fill pulpit on Sunday next. Rev. Y. Hiraiwa, of Japan, known far and wide both in this country and Japan has arrived also and will no doubt address the Conference and is to speak here at the Japanese mission on Sunday next.

Firemen's Dance.—A very enjoyable evening was spent by everyone who attended the dance held at the firemen's headquarters last night. Next Thursday the last dance of the season will be held, sponsored by these evenings for practically three months.

Stall Postponed.—Holding of the regular monthly market stall of home cooking by the Strawberry Vale Women's Institute has been postponed until Saturday week. The ladies have been unable to secure a stall previous to that date.

APPEALS FOR WIDER OUTLOOK OF DUTIES OF TASK OF LIFE

Rev. Albert T. Moore Delights Educationalists To-day

In connection with the Education Week campaign of the City School Board and the various parents' teachers' associations of Victoria and district—the Rev. Albert T. Moore, secretary of the Moral Reform Committee of the Methodist Church of Canada, addressed a large gathering at the Chautauqua tent this afternoon, where a box luncheon was served and a musical programme added. Dr. Raynor, chairman of the school board, presided, while a paper by Harry Charlesworth, Executive Secretary of the B. C. Teachers' Federation was read to the gathering by Principal A. G. Smith.

The Great of Life. "I think a task of life of the man who can keep the bright side of life in front of him all the time," stated the Rev. Albert T. Moore in opening, "and I believe in educating the people to the point where they will always have this bright side of life before them."

Robert Louis Stevenson wrote: "Genius is the art of living the major issues of life," and there is the kernel of the problem in education, is it not? And we are living the major issues of life? We should realize the immensity of the task allotted to us in what we call life.

There is no lapse measure that will measure the task of life, but our schools are teaching us to measure the immensity of the task. Only by realizing the major issues of life, and its objectives can we be brought to a realization and to comprehend the task itself.

Less self interest and a higher vision of the true ideals of the task were necessary to begin to fulfill that allotted task, held the speaker. To make somebody better, and to give somebody else a better outlook, to the benefit of the brother, and that is what we have been preaching to and demonstrating our fidelity by our acts.

"That is the business primarily of governments and of this charged with public responsibility. Very good. The new Government of the United States, sold in all its branches in support of its leader, is both willing and ready."

Side by Side. Time was, the Ambassador said at another point in his speech, when John Bull appeared to Americans as a trifle arrogant, and simultaneously "Colonel Sam" was regarded by the Britons as a whittling vulgarian, but," he concluded, "in their places now gleam in personification of our splendid nations the Columbia, hand in hand, side by side, erect and glorious on a plane of perfect equality in the eyes of each other and the world."

Per Cent. People. "What we need here is to make Canadians 100 per cent. Canadian. To be 100 per cent. Canadian one must be 100 per cent. British—first, last and all the time," said Dr. Moore. At the invitation of the Education Week committee a large number of guests were present at the various public organizations of the city, including the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and Kiwanis Club, with members of the ministry and women's organizations of the community, about 300 in all.

The weekly box office receipts of the city theatres and motion picture houses amounting to $2,000, where the organizations of the city, including the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and Kiwanis Club, with members of the ministry and women's organizations of the community, about 300 in all.

The funeral of the late Melbourne Henry Nelems will take place from the B. C. Funeral Chapel on Monday at 2.30 o'clock, and will proceed to the house, where the funeral services are to be conducted. The Vancouver-Quadra Lodge, A. F. & A. M., is in charge of the funeral.

Dean Quantin conducted a private funeral service yesterday at the B. C. Funeral Chapel for the late Atwood Andrew Thorne, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Thorne, of the city. The hymn chosen was "Brief Life Is Here Our Portion." The remains were forwarded last evening to Vancouver for cremation.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Cook Randolph will take place tomorrow, Saturday, at 2 p. m., when the Rev. Joseph McCoy will read a service at the B. C. Funeral Chapel. The interment will be made in Ross Bay cemetery.

In County Court.—In the County Court to-day the case of Vain & Sons versus Fred and Mary Bullock was started, the claim being for payment for goods sold and delivered to a plaintiff. Higgins, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff.

SECOND BRIDGE VICTIM IS DEAD

Scared by Diver, Caisson Prisoner Dies

The City Engineer's Department is in deep mourning to-day. The second victim of the new Johnson Street Bridge work is dead. He passed away yesterday afternoon, frightened to death by the activity of a diver, who is groping about the Harbor bottom these days in connection with the sinking of the big boxlike bridge caissons.

For some weeks the bird had been living in the big caisson from which he could not escape as its wooden sides are sunk into the mud on the new bridge site. Yesterday he appeared to be in good spirits and workmen were hopeful that he would be able to escape or would be rescued in a short time. Meanwhile he was getting all the food he needed.

Then City Engineer F. M. Preston decided that a diver would have to descend to the bottom of the harbor to assist in the work of sinking the caisson. When the prisoner saw the diver, sink into the water, leaving behind him a stream of bubbles, he became weak with fright—so weak that he floated about helplessly and the workmen lifted him down in a comfortable place so that he might recover or die in peace.

The duck was not so far gone for recovery. He died late in the afternoon and followed his mate, who had passed away some time ago.

HARVEY'S FRANKNESS PLEASES NEWSPAPERS OF BRITISH CAPITAL

(Continued from page 1) and Italy. This is not a fact. We sent them solely to save the United States and most reluctantly and laggardly at that.

Realities. Ambassador Harvey discussed what he called the "sentient, perilous present," declaring: "We will not surrender until we abruptly put our proposals and manfully face, without mincing or wincing, actual realities. We must realize the time has come to practice that we have been preaching and demonstrate our fidelity by our acts."

That is the business primarily of governments and of this charged with public responsibility. Very good. The new Government of the United States, sold in all its branches in support of its leader, is both willing and ready."

Side by Side. Time was, the Ambassador said at another point in his speech, when John Bull appeared to Americans as a trifle arrogant, and simultaneously "Colonel Sam" was regarded by the Britons as a whittling vulgarian, but," he concluded, "in their places now gleam in personification of our splendid nations the Columbia, hand in hand, side by side, erect and glorious on a plane of perfect equality in the eyes of each other and the world."

Per Cent. People. "What we need here is to make Canadians 100 per cent. Canadian. To be 100 per cent. Canadian one must be 100 per cent. British—first, last and all the time," said Dr. Moore. ## ROSMEAD GARDEN FETE TO-MORROW

Appeal to All Tastes at Rosmead-Wychbury Garden Party

Preparations are all complete for the Rosmead-Wychbury fete to-morrow afternoon. The fete will be opened at 2.30 p. m. by Mrs. Lawrie, President of the Islands District Women's Institute, whose funds of which are expected to benefit largely Mrs. Ricketts, Mrs. Read and other officers of the Esquimalt Women's Institute will be in charge of "His House in Order" stall where all sorts of modern labor saving devices will be shown. Mrs. Guy and Mrs. Murray will be in charge of the members' stall where work of Institute members and produce of farm and garden will be for sale.

The committee of the Women's Institute Town Centre of Victoria will be in charge of a tea, where home-made refreshments will be provided. Mrs. Deacon, of North Saanich W. I. and Mrs. Haven of the home-made candy stall and Mrs. Foster, of Garden City, with other Institute members will dispense ice cream.

The entertainment on the lawn of Wychbury and Rosmead will begin at 2.30 p. m. and will consist of French action songs by children, Bon Jour Belle Rosina; Savez-Vous Planter les Choux? Les Cheveux; Un Deux Trois; Folk dancing, the following: The Whirlwind; The Dance, being given by the Devonshire Dance, Peasecod, Daffodil, the First of May.

A demonstration in organized play by Miss Bell and children, many of the games such as "The Windmill," "The Mouse Trap," "The Dove" and "The Letter," "The Snail," "The Huntsman," "The Pigeon House" being demonstrated. A May Pole Dance by the Girl Guides of the James Bay Company. Other numbers will be given including a short play and Baby Polka some provincial folk songs.

The handicrafts demonstrations will be most valuable for Institute members and other interested. Mrs. Shaw assisted by an English expert will demonstrate how to make gloves at home. Mrs. Tocher, of Metochin, will show how to make underwear on a small knitting machine. Mrs. McKinnon will explain her method of rabbit skins in rug-making. Mrs. Henderson will show spinning of sheep and goats wool and there will be a demonstration of cobbling as a home and thrift industry.

There will be a government health exhibit and display by forty children of the Cloverdale School. The nurses in charge will be Miss Alwood and Miss Kelly, public health nurses. There will also be a distribution of bulletins from the Department of Agriculture.

OLIVER TOWNSITE. Orchard and garden tracts provided with a modern Government Irrigation system in the British Columbia Government Irrigation Project in Northern Okanagan Valley. North and South of the town of Oliver, situated twenty-five miles South of Penticton, will be offered for sale by public auction on Wednesday next, at 2 p. m. on Wednesday next. A total of fifty-nine tracts of ten to twenty acres, averaging about ten to twelve acres, and twenty-four small tracts of one acre each, will be offered for sale at upset prices ranging from minimum of $1,500 to maximum of $4,100, mostly from $2,300 to $2,500, prices varying according to location and other factors, for the larger, and $330 for the one-acre tracts. The sale is open to select only purchasers of low-lying lands which provide for an initial cash payment of twenty per cent. from others than British Columbia returned soldiers, the balance in low-lying lands being given five years from date of sale with interest at six per cent.; returned B. C. Soldiers—those who enlisted from British Columbia—are required to pay ten per cent. in cash, and are entitled to a rebate of $500 on the purchase price on the balance when payable five years later, subject to cultivation duties.

Settlement has already begun in this—first subdivision of the Irrigation Project to be offered—at the auction sales held on March 4 and 5 last, are preparing their lands and—purchasers of low-lying lands in the town of Oliver are making the nucleus of a municipal centre to which the Government offices, now at Fairview, are to be removed. The irrigation distribution system for the lands now offered will be installed during the present year, and also for considerable additional acreage which will be offered for sale in the Fall.

FISH THAT SHOOTS! Have you ever heard of the Archer Fish? He has evolved an original method of capturing some of the insects upon which he feeds. Like many other fish, he preys largely upon water insects as well as upon those who fall into the stream and are carried down struggling vainly against the current. But the Archer Fish has an appetite which he cannot satisfy entirely in this way.

Moved by the pang of a hunger that is never quite satisfied, he swims slowly along the edge of the river, carefully examining the overhanging grass with eyes that are so placed in his head as to facilitate his search. As he moves along he sees a fly perched upon a twig, or a blade of grass a few inches above the top of the water. Rising gently in the water, he pushes the tip of his nose above the surface; then, taking careful aim, he "fires," and more often than not the luckless fly is bowled over and falls into the stream, where the fish devours it at his leisure.

What does he do with the fly? Simply a drop of water. He is a wonderful marksman and seldom fails to score a bull's-eye.—Tit-Bits.

X-RAYS THROUGH BRICK WALLS

Paris, May 20.—X-rays pass through brick walls and have injured persons in buildings adjoining laboratories, members of the Academy of Sciences were told by Professor Contremoulin, a radiograph expert. He advised that X-ray laboratories be completely enclosed in lead sheeting a quarter of an inch thick. It has been found, Dr. Contremoulin said, that rays sufficiently powerful to be useful in treating cancer have affected persons in rooms on the other side of thick walls and in apartments above and below the radiograph room.

GETTING DRUNK IN ENGLAND NOW OFTEN DIFFICULT

Reform Bill Prohibits Saloons to Be Open Over Eleven Hours

London, May 19.—Getting a drink in London is often a great deal harder than getting a drink across the Atlantic. War-time restrictions upon the sale of liquor have not been lifted, and under these restrictions spirits and wine may be sold only between the hours of 12 noon and 2.30 p.m., and between 6 and 9 p.m. Before the war the "pubs" in London were open for fifteen or a half hours a day; now they only serve spirits five and a half hours daily. After that the thirsty man must go dry, for there are no bootleggers nor blind pigs in Piccadilly Circus, Leicester Square or anywhere else.

These war-time regulations, popularly known as "Dora" (the defense of the realm act), have caused considerable complaint here. The brewers, however, have seen the shadow of prohibition, which "Fussyfoot" Johnson cast before him, and although they are agitating for longer hours for serving liquor, make a point of simultaneously declaring in favor of moderation in drinking. They have organized a society which advocates a restraint in the sale of liquor, coupling, however, the slogan: "Drunkness Must Go" with another: "No Local Veto." Now they have introduced a reform scheme in Parliament, intended to aid a restoration to pre-war condition and yet provide that moderation shall prevail.

It takes the form of a licensing bill introduced by Colonel Gretton and supported by a number of Conservatives. It has organized a society which advocates a restraint in the sale of liquor, coupling, however, the slogan: "Drunkness Must Go" with another: "No Local Veto." Now they have introduced a reform scheme in Parliament, intended to aid a restoration to pre-war condition and yet provide that moderation shall prevail.

WALL STREET STOCKS UNDER PRESSURE

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)
New York, May 20.—The stock market from the outset this morning gave the appearance of being selling just a little impatient and stop loss orders were put in close to the market with the result that in many cases stocks ran into these orders. The bear crowd was more active today and long stocks were put on the market on a larger scale. The weakness in Mexican Petroleum issue had an unsettling effect on the market. The Chicago, Peoria & Ohio directors deferred action on the dividend due to-day on the common stock, drawing out some selling orders in this stock which spread to the balance of the rail department. The equipment stocks were also subject to pressure, Baldwin especially showing weakness.

CHICAGO GRAINS CONTINUE TO ADVANCE

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)
Chicago, May 20.—The grain market advanced again to-day, wheat gaining another 7/8 cents. Grain houses with Eastern connections were buying freely and letters were forced in numerous instances to cover their short commitments. Little news was recorded other than the weather reports from different points indicate that more rains are needed to ensure a good crop. Also the winter wheat crop has some back more than the trade anticipated.

PRICES ON DAIRY MARKET DECREASE

Only one advance in dairy products was registered to-day. All other changes on this market show a decline. Special creamery, grades 1 and 2 butter took a drop, as also did California twin cheese. McLaren's cream cheese advanced 20c. Florida and California grades 1 and 2 creamery butter advanced 50c since Tuesday. The Valencia oranges are on the market again, now selling at $5.75 and $6.00, according to size. To-day's wholesale quotations are as follows:

TO-DAY'S TRADING IN WINNIPEG MARKETS

Winnipeg, May 20.—The local wheat market was very strong to-day, and during the session May gained over six cents. The spreads again widened between May and July, the latter position not being relatively as strong. There was a broad active trade in wheat. The demand appeared large while the offerings in both cash and the May future were quite liberal as compared with previous days. It was reported that 750,000 bushels of Manitoba wheat had been worked to Great Britain for immediate shipment. The close was 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 higher.

New Phosphate Increases Weight and Strength of Frail People in Two Weeks Time in Many Instances

Nothing like Bitro-Phosphate, says Dr. Harrigan, of New York, to make thin, delicate, nervous, discouraged men and women take on needed weight and quickly exhibit a nerve force that radiates health, energy and ambition. This remarkable nerve force product was first brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Robin. It is known to be such a wonderful aid to frail, run-down people that Cyrus H. Bowes and other leading druggists sell it under a guarantee.

CAUTION: Although Bitro-Phosphate is an excellent aid in relieving weak nervous conditions, its use is not advised unless increased weight is desired.

Three needy families were supplied with clothing collected from various homes in the district. The baby clinics held monthly at the Home were well attended. No charge is made for the following visits: Schools, child welfare, social service, pre-natal, non-nursing and investigation. The amount collected for the month was $127.75.

CONCERT TO-NIGHT FOR WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary to the G. W. V. A. remind their friends of the concert to be given this evening by the three K's. This will take place in the Cathedral Schoolrooms, and the proceeds will go towards the G. W. V. A. funds. Other activities they have in view are the sale of ice cream and candies at the Willows sports on Monday afternoon, May 23; a military five hundred party they will hold on May 31, with Mrs. Chambers as convener; and a Garden Party which is being arranged to take place some time in June, under the direction of Mrs. Morrison. The treasurer's quarterly report read at their last meeting gives the total receipts as $787, with a good balance in the bank. The social and dance brought in $21.55 and the silver tea, $28.90. The hospital committee and other reports showed good progress in the work done by the different branches.

NEW CEMETERY PACT ADOPTED

Municipalities Will Not Choose Cemetery Board

The new inter-municipal cemetery scheme was brought considerably nearer realization yesterday when the Inter-Municipal Cemetery Committee, comprising members of the City, Esquimalt, Saanich and Oak Bay Councils, adopted an agreement which sets forth the conditions under which the proposed new cemetery will be established and maintained.

The Committee decided to spend a maximum amount of $150,000 on the project, this sum to be raised by the four municipalities in proportion to their population. Choice of a cemetery site was left in the hands of a Board of Trustees which will be made up of representatives chosen by the municipalities. Municipal Clerk Hector Cowper, of Saanich, who drew up the cemetery agreement, urged that the site be limited to forty acres, a property which would cover the needs of the four municipalities for thirty years.

Representatives of many public, semi-public, church and fraternal organizations were present at yesterday's meeting of the Committee to make various suggestions. The Balmcock cemetery scheme was not dealt with. The text of the agreement endorsed by the Committee follows: Text of Agreement. The agreement, as adopted yesterday, will be submitted to the municipal councils for approval and, if endorsed, the councils will be asked to name the trustees, Victoria having two and the three municipalities one each. The text of the cemetery agreement follows in part: There shall be established, pursuant to powers conferred by the Municipal Cemeteries Act, a corporation which shall be known as "Board of Cemetery Trustees of Greater Victoria" (hereinafter called the "board").

Management. The Council of the City of Victoria shall elect two persons, the Council of the District of Saanich shall elect one person, the Council of the District of Oak Bay shall elect one person, and the Council of the Township of Esquimalt shall elect one person to be members of the board (such persons hereinafter called "trustees"), and upon the appointment of all the trustees the board shall be and be deemed to be, duly established and constituted.

Except in the case of the first appointed trustees, whose terms shall expire as follows: One trustee appointed by the Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria, 1st February, 1922. One trustee appointed by the Council of the Corporation of the District of Saanich, 1st February, 1923. One trustee appointed by the Council of the Corporation of the District of Oak Bay, 1st February, 1924. One trustee appointed by the Council of the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt, 1st February, 1923. The term for which a trustee shall be appointed shall be for a period of three years, expiring on the first day of February. Provided, however, in the case of a trustee appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation or death of a trustee, such trustee shall hold office for the remainder of the term only in respect of which his predecessor was appointed, and in the case of a trustee being appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the failure of any party hereto to appoint a trustee in the place of one whose term of office may have expired, such new appointee shall hold office for a period of three years from the time of the expiration of the term of office of his predecessor.

A trustee shall be eligible for re-appointment. The chairman of the board shall call meetings of the board from time to time as he may consider necessary, and any two members of the board shall also have the like power to call any meeting of the board. Three trustees shall form a quorum of the board. All acts and matters whatsoever authorized to be done by the board, that may come before the board, shall be done and decided by the majority of the trustees who may be present at any meeting. The board shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred by the Municipal Cemeteries Act.

To Guarantee Bonds. Any debentures issued by the board under the powers conferred by the said Act shall be guaranteed in the following proportions: By the Corporation of the City of Victoria, forty-one sixtieths (41-64). By the Corporation of the District of Saanich, twelve sixtieths (12-64). By the Corporation of the District

By the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt, four sixtieths (4-64). The maximum amount that may be borrowed by the board under the powers conferred by Section 19 of the said Act, until this agreement is amended, shall be the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The board shall have the power to set aside or sell the burial grounds in any portion or portions of the properties of the board for the sole use of any organization or body, upon such terms and conditions as the board may deem advisable. As soon as possible after the first day of January and not later than the fifteenth day of January in each year, a statement showing the assets and liabilities, and also receipts and expenditures of the board, up to December 31 of the previous year, duly audited and certified by an auditor shall be forwarded to the respective councils of each of the parties hereto. In case it is necessary to provide a burial plot for any indigent person, the board shall be reimbursed the cost of such plot by the party hereto in whose municipality such indigent person was a resident prior to his demise.

WILL SHORTLY HOLD INITIAL LAND SALE

Saanich to Test Real Estate Market; Will Auction Fifty Lots

The Saanich Council last night instructed Municipal Assessor R. R. F. Sewell to make arrangements for an early sale of lands which the municipality now owns as a result of past tax sales. A list of fifty properties scattered throughout Saanich was approved, and in authorizing an early sale Councilors remarked that, if it proved successful, it was expected, it would result in similar affairs, suggestions ranging up to a possibility of there being four sales this year.

While no definite location was settled, the Council favored the use of the Council Chamber at the Municipal Hall at Royal Oak, and it was thought that by holding the sale on Wednesday afternoon, a big turnout of bidders would be present.

Easy Terms Offered. The terms on which the sale will take place will be twenty-five per cent. cash, and the balance in payments of ten per cent. without interest and with the taxes for the present year paid in full by the municipality.

There will be a reserve on every property, this in most cases being but a fraction of the assessed value, and on some items lower than the actual cost to Saanich. In the majority of cases the lots will be so priced as to secure Saanich a good profit, the approved reserve prices set on the fifty lots in this initial sale being about double the actual cost, and much less than one-half the value placed upon them on the assessment roll.

SUPPORT ROAD GRANT

The Saanich Council was last night informed that the Chamber of Commerce, the Victoria and Island Development Association and the Victoria Automobile Club all endorsed the expenditure of provincial funds upon the maintenance of Beach Road, and would reinforce any representations Saanich may make. F. A. Pauline, M.P.P., informed the Council that the Hon. Dr. King was considering making a grant of either $2,500 or $1,500 towards the cost of this season's repairs, and would give a definite decision on his return to the city. The Council deferred further action until after the return of the Minister of Public Works, Councillor Ormond remarking, "I certainly believe in going right after a Government grant, there is double, even treble the traffic on it compared with the Island Highway."
