Neither artillery or anti-aircraft positions (Targets 1 & 2), reported by CASCU, were observed by pilots; nor was exact damage determined; but all bombs and rockets hit in target areas.

⁽o) RESULTS: (For all hits claimed on ship targets and for land targets of special interest, draw diagram, top or side view or both, as appropriate, showing type and location of hits. For all targets give location and effect of hits, and identify by numbers above. Use additional sheets if necessary).

Four TBM-3's, the first Support Group from VC-91 on 9 May, took off from the MAKIN ISLAND at 0600 and rendezvoused with four VT each from the SHAMROCK BAY and SARGENT BAY and four FM-2's from the FANSHAW BAY, proceeding to a point off the west coast of Okinawa to await orders from the Marine CASCU. No communication could be obtained with him, so the group was directed to a target by the Army CASCU.

The first target was artillery positions at target area, 7972 K2/Q4, some 1500 yards northeast of Shuri. Twenty-three 100-pound bombs and 12 rockets were dumped in the area in two runs, but neither the targets nor the results could be observed. The situation was the same at the second target, anti-aircraft positions at 7966KM, where 17 more bombs and 19 rockets were fired into the area with undetermined results. The reported AA guns did not fire at the attacking planes. The VF preceded the VT's in an attack in column formation.

The cloudless sky, for a change, permitted the pilots to begin their dives from 6000 feet, with release at 2500 feet from a 40-degree glide in bombing, though a haze made target visibility poor. Bombs were dropped in salves of three, four and six by three pilots; while the fourth, whose engine was surging, dropped all 10 in one run. This pilot fired eight rockets in a second run and then landed at Yontan to have his propellor mechanism adjusted. Other pilots fired rockets; in four per run.

No AA was encountered.

Pilots participating were:

Lieut. R. R. Richards Lt. (jg) J. W. Burch Ens. H. L: Peebles Ens. K. W. Neubauer.
