IN CONSTANT DANGER

And now comes another learned Professor and alarms us with unheard of dangers.

He hails from Worcester, Mass., and the dispatch received by an exchange reads as follows:

A table of the ages of love in men and women has been compiled by Professor Bell, a fellow in Clark University, and formerly an instructor at the Valparaiso, Indiana, Normal School.

We are loath to believe that love is one of those peculiar and oft erratic human sensations that ever allows itself to be controlled by figures except, probably, when said figures are prefaced with $.

Figures don't lie but sometimes the words we mix with them do, and we are inclined to believe that this is one of those times and Professor Bell's conclusions on the "greatest thing in the world" need revision.

Rev. Mr. Kreuger gave an interesting talk at the Congregational church last Sunday evening on the conditions existing in the Land of the Boers during the late unpleasantness with J. Bull, and the pitiful condition of the people there now.

MARSHAL RECEIVES THREATENING LETTER

City Marshal Albertson Gets a Strange One Friday

City Marshal Albertson showed us a letter, a copy of which appears below demanding the sum of $50 in gold or stand a good chance of losing his life.

The marshal of course pigeon-holed the epistle in his inside pocket and went on his way entirely ignoring its contents.

He is still in the land of the living and will doubtless continue so to be for many moons yet. Occ. Hotel, Wm. P. Hooper, Lessee.

San Francisco, 1903.

You are requested by me to leave $50 in $5 pieces under the wooden curbing in front of McDonnell's gate on Broadway. Time 9 o'clock P. M. Friday night.

SIXTY-FIVE CARLOADS

A San Francisco firm has notified the C. N. W. Ry. Co. that they will need 50 cars in which to ship the wine recently purchased in this valley.

They will ship this number from Sonoma and will need 15 cars more to handle the wine from El Verano. Much wine is still on hand and a great deal has been sold to eastern and other firms.

El Verano Locals

L. D. Batchelor, one of the foremen in the Enterprise Brewery of San Francisco was up on his ranch last week, returning Sunday.

Leo Haines, the mascot of the "El Verano Twisters," has purchased a new bicycle.

Mrs. Daniel Peck of Pioneer Grove, who has been traveling in Europe for several months, returned home last week.

Miss Lizzie Campbell of San Francisco is stopping a few days with Mrs. T. H. Haines.

Cal Morgan of Sacramento spent a few days on the Lewis ranch last week, returning to his home Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Lewis.

Hugh Chance was up from San Francisco Sunday.

Tom Mullin, late president of the El Verano "Twisters," but now holding down a fat job at the Union Iron Works, was visiting home folks Sunday.

John Revie had the misfortune to fall and break one of his fingers last week.

Friend McHarvey boarded the S. P. train here Sunday evening for San Francisco, where he has again enlisted with Uncle Sam for the coming winter.

Over 5-12 inches of rain fell here during the last week.

There is a dearth of news this week, every body is getting ready for Thanksgiving. All that is worrying me is that he has a chance for two square meals, but cannot manage to get on the outside of but one of them.

Not A Sick Day Since

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50c at Shoultz drug store.

Good Roads.

Supervisor Blair Hart's experiment in oiling some of the Sonoma Valley roads has so far proven all right. These thoroughfares are now in fine condition.

Pitching hay is hard work for anyone, but for the man who has the least tendency to bronchitis it is dangerous, because of the small particles of dust and chaff which are inhaled and greatly irritate the throat. Bronchitis and other diseases of the organs of respiration are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This great remedy is not to be classed with common cough medicines, which are mainly opiates. There is no opium in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from cocaine and all other narcotics. It is a non-alcoholic and non-narcotic medicine. It heals the inflamed tissues, cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bleeding lungs and other conditions, which, if neglected or unskillfully treated, terminate fatally in consumption.

"I wrote to you for advice and you advised me to take 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' which I did, and to my surprise got well," writes Mr. Joseph A. Valleroy, of Forman, Ill. (Box 3). "Had what the doctors called bronchitis, and whenever I would take cold would suffer greatly, but since taking two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one bottle of his 'Pleasant Pellets' have been cured of that terrible trouble. Before taking your medicine I weighed one hundred and twenty pounds; now weigh one hundred and thirty."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." Dr. Pierce's Pellets cleanse the system from accumulated impurities.

SLAVERY

Slavery is naturally abhorrent to a nation whose constitution declares all people to be born equal under the law and to have equal right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. But slavery is most obnoxious when it fastens its bonds on women. If it were known that one American woman had been carried into slavery by Moor or Arab, the United States would rescue that single slave if it took its whole navy and combined army to effect her deliverance. And yet this United States teams with women slaves, for whom nothing can be done by the government. When a woman toils every day, from morning until night, year after year, and gets nothing for her labor but food to eat, clothes to wear and a roof to shelter her, what is that but slavery? That is the lot of many a woman in this free land. She is a household drudge. She has no money to spend. She takes no holidays. She slaves and saves to help pay for the home, to enable her husband to pay for another eighty acres, or for some other domestic purpose. She loses her sight over the cooking stove and her strength over the wash tub, and not infrequently when the last payment on house or land is made, she herself pays the debt of nature and leaves the result of her labors to a new and younger wife.

It is this household slavery of American women that may be held as largely responsible for the prevalence of womanly diseases. Common feminine ailments are neglected and allowed to grow until they involve the general health, and to the burden of slavery is added the weight of almost constant pain. The back aches. There are bearing-down pains. The nerves are shattered. Appetite falls and nights are sleepless. The form slowly loses flesh and the cheeks grow hollow. The one blessing left to the hard-working woman is health. If health is lost, the greatest boon would be to find it again.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is commended to women by women as a health-restoring medicine. It cures the womanly diseases which undermine the strength. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"I will write a few lines to let you know what your remedies have done for me," says Mrs. Hattie Borradaile, of No. 113 Spring Street, Nashville, Tenn. "I wrote to you for advice about two years ago and you wrote me a kind letter, telling me to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' When I began taking your medicine I was not able to stand on my feet ten minutes at a time. Had falling of uterus and liver disease, and was so weak and nervous I could not keep still. Would take nervous spells and almost die at times. At least I thought I was going to die. I had several different doctors attending, but they could not do me any good. The last one I had said I would never get up again. Told him I was taking your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and he said, 'Might as well take that much water each day.' I did not listen to what he said, but thought to myself I would give the medicine a fair trial. Before I had finished the first two bottles I was able to get outside the house and walk around the yard. I kept on taking the medicine and it cured me of my disease. I was the mother of one little girl, three years old, then, and now I have another fine baby girl, seven months old, and am in very good health. Was in bad health about three years (since the birth of my first child); tried all kinds of medicine recommended to be good for my trouble but all of no avail. I felt it my duty to write and tell you what good your medicine had done for me, for I well know that if it had not been for Dr. Pierce's medicine, I would have been in my grave long ago. I know I could not have lived long in the condition I was in. I think Dr. Pierce's medicine the best in the world for diseases of women."

There are a great many women who have tried other medicines in vain and been told by local physicians they could not be cured, as was Mrs. Borradaile. Such women are hard to persuade to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. But let every such woman, no matter how sick and discouraged, remember that "Favorite Prescription" stands alone among medicines for the cure of womanly diseases. It is noted for its successful cures of diseases which no other medicines have been able to reach. It owes its popularity often to the fact that tried as a last resort it effected a perfect and permanent cure. Hundreds of thousands of women testify to these cures, and it can be positively affirmed that in ninety-eight cases out of every hundred the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will result in a complete cure of womanly diseases.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Shearer, of Mounthope, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Everyone who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June, when I wrote to you, I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. You answered my letter then and told me what to do; I followed your advice, and to-day am cured. I tell everybody that, with God's help, Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

If you are discouraged and feel the need of medical advice, Dr. Pierce invites you to consult him, by letter, free. All correspondence is strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious preparations, will offer a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" as "just as good." Judged by its record of cures of womanly ills, there is no other medicine just as good as "Favorite Prescription."

A GIFT FOR YOU. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, containing more than one thousand large pages and over 100 Illustrations, is sent FREE on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing ONLY. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.

Not Attending to Business. The shrewdness of one of the founders of a famous estate in Maine gave rise to many amusing stories, one of which has recently been retold.

One day the man, who was a large lumber operator, was superintending a crew which was breaking up a log jam in the river. Suddenly the spruce on which he was standing slipped. The lumberman dropped out of sight in the water, and the logs closed over him.

The nearest Frenchman saw the accident. Hopping briskly over the slippery logs, he helped the "boss" to land.

Nothing was said about the accident. After an hour or so the Frenchman began to get anxious, because the reward which he considered due him was not forthcoming. He approached the lumberman, and pulling clumsily at his cap, stammered:

"I see you fall in, m'sieur, and I run quick to pull you out 'fore you drown."

"Proby," snapped the lumberman, "proby, if you'd been tending to business as you'd oughter, you wouldn't have seen me fall in!"—Youth's Companion.

RHEUMATISM AN INDESCRIBABLE TORTURE

Because Rheumatism sometimes comes on suddenly it doesn't prove that it is a chance disease or one due to accidental causes. It takes time for it to develop, and is at work in the system long before any symptoms are felt. The blood is the first point of attack, and the poisonous acids that cause the aches and pains are then distributed through the circulation to different parts of the system, and settle in joints, muscles and nerves; and when the system is in this condition it needs only some exciting cause like exposure to night air, damp, chilly weather, or the cold, bleak winds of winter, to arouse the slumbering poisons and bring on Rheumatism. The severity of the attack depends upon the amount of acid in the blood and the quantity of acid matter in the joints and muscles. Some people are almost helpless from the first, while others have occasional spells or are uncomfortable, restless, nervous and half sick all the time from the nagging aches and pains. Rheumatism is a disagreeable companion even in its mildest form. It grows worse as we grow older, and frequently stiffens the joints, draws the muscles out of shape and breaks down the nervous system. A disease that originates in the blood, as Rheumatism does, cannot be cured with external remedies like liniments and plasters; such things scatter the pains or drive them to some other part of the body, but do not touch the disease or improve the condition of the blood. The thin acid blood must be restored to its normal purity and strength, so that all poisonous substances may be carried out of the system, and no medicine accomplishes this in so short a time as S.S.S., which not only neutralizes the acids and counteracts the poisons, but builds up the general health at the same time.

MACHINE TO BLOW GLASS.

One of the Most Marvelous Contrivances in the World of Industry. Glass has at last been successfully blown by machinery and, as has generally been the case when mechanical means supersede hand methods, all feats of hand-blowing have been outdone.

The secret of the remarkable invention is still hidden, but specimens of the work done have been shown. The cylinders are of immense size, the largest being thirty inches in diameter and nineteen feet long.

The new machine is the invention of John A. Lubbers, a glassblower of Allegheny, Pa. It has been built at the Alexandria, Ind., branch of the American Window Glass Company's plant.

The process of blowing window glass is simple in theory, but difficult in practice. On the end of a long tube a mass of molten glass is collected. This is then heated in a furnace and gradually distended by blowing into a large tube with straight sides.

To accomplish this without the peculiar twisting and manipulation employed by the human glassblower has puzzled many clever inventors, and the Lubbers machine was made successful only after a great many experiments.

Lubbers has invented several labor-saving devices and this latest triumph is likely to make him many times a millionaire when it is generally believed that he is already a millionaire.

Skilled mechanics from the Westinghouse factories in Pittsburgh have been working behind barred gates and high walls for months in the erection and installation of the machines, which no man other than old and skilled employees of the company was allowed to see.

Patents have not yet been granted on certain parts of the machines and therefore the secrecy.

So confident is the company of the merits of the machine that it is preparing to spend thousands of dollars in its installation in all of the forty-one plants controlled by it in various parts of the country.

It is expected that the device will do away with hand blowers altogether. So confident are the men that they will be the case that many are getting out of the business. The better class of blowers earn from $450 to $600 a month.—New York World.

What He Meant.

"It's funny! The feller said he was a great dog for rabbits!"

Tea in a "Reservoir." Here is a good story about a woman of the "new-rich" type who set up a pretentious establishment in New York with the view of gaining an entrance into society. Among her choice possessions was a Russian tea urn wrought in embossed brass. The term for this device is "samovar," and the woman treated her new urn like a new toy. She gave a reception in order to exploit her tea device, and her guests were in continued subdued fits of laughter because their hostess said:

"I do so love tea out of a reservoir. This reservoir came from Russia. Of course, it is really a tea urn, but I prefer the national term, don't you?"—New York Press.

Self-Sacrifice.—Self-sacrifice is the law of God's command, and when He redeems a man He redeems him out of the law of self-sacrifice. This is the communion of life in which we are enjoined with the fellowship of saints from life. This is the life before us. We should withhold nothing, for He withholds nothing. He has promised. Believing is finding and yielding is having.—Rev. Dr. Stryker, Presbyterian, Clinton, N. Y.

Get-Rich-Quick.—Look upon the business methods of our day. How many by over-speed are trying to amass wealth. Short cuts are made. Get-rich-quick methods are adopted, and young men entering upon commercial life catch the fever and feel that they must dash along at fifty-five miles an hour down grade, and around curves by any means so as to make up for what they regard lost time, and amass the treasures of this passing life.—Rev. H. A. Tupper, Baptist, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Clergyman.—Once the clergyman stood apart from his fellow men in a unique eminence; to-day he is a man among men. "The cloth" commanding universal respect, is apart from robust manhood, the intellectual culture and spiritual consecration which it carries, the cloth is lightly esteemed. The clergyman to-day does not claim the asceticism of John the Baptist; he rather and most likely imitates the noble humanism of Jesus the Christ.—Rev. D. MacArthur, Baptist, New York City.

Free Will.—God and the angels and man are the only beings that have free will. What a tremendous responsibility is attached to this precious gift! If rightly employed it becomes an instrument of manifold blessing. If abused it becomes an engine of endless destruction. If kept within the bounds of moral law it is a heavenly stream, enriching the kingdom of the soul with fruits of grace and benediction. If it leaves its legitimate barriers it covers the earth with ruin and desolation.—Cardinal Gibbons, Roman Catholic, Baltimore, Md.

Judaism.—Real Judaism is but Christianity with Christ left out. Better be a giddy Jew than a persecuting Christian. Gentile. Better be a Jew in the catamounts than a numerous pope on the throne. Not with the imposition of the guillotine are we to convince the Jew that our religion is right and is superior to Judaism, but by living superior lives. To live the Christy life will convince Jew and Gentile that all of Judaism that had an abiding worth in it can be found in Christ's new order of things.—Rev. M. E. Harlan, Disciple, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Longest Fence in the World. The fence about the Fort Belknap Indian reservation, which is forty miles wide and sixty miles long, has been finished, according to a dispatch from Helena, Mont. It is probably the longest fence in the world and has taken years in building. The plan is to protect the flocks and herds of the Gros Ventres and Assiniboin from intrusion, as well as to keep them from straying.

Railway of Canada. Canada now has 10,000 miles of rail way.

SERMONS OF THE WEEK

Most Advanced.—The most advanced and accepted scientific research of to-day has helped us to banish the old belief that God created the heavens and the earth in six days and then rested, and has since been resting there all the time.—Rev. M. E. Andrews, Universalist, Kansas City, Mo.

A Higher Life.—We must build a higher intellectual life. A sound mind and body are necessary before we proceed, and we must have a spirit of love and forget anger by embodying the truth inculcated by God by persistent faith in God and rejecting all wrongs.—Rev. P. O. Lears, Episcopalian, Meriden, Mass.

The Common Good.—The only way to have personal benefit is to work and live and die for the common good. He enters most intimately into the thought of God who follows the example of the Son of God, and gives for the pleasure of giving and dies for the glory of dying.—Rev. A. S. Grapsey, Episcopalian, Rochester, N. Y.

Death and Revival.—The military rule in Cuba, and especially the military regime and conquest of the Philippine Islands, with what such a policy necessarily seems to involve, has had its natural effect in our own land in the heathenish revival of the love of bloodshed for its own sake.—Rev. A. A. Berle, Congregationalist, Worcester, Mass.

The True Jew.—To be a Jew is to be a man. One who imitates and fears no one but God. How many there are of the young men of our race, especially in America, who do not merit of these things. They proclaim themselves a Jew only by exhibiting the distinguishing features placed in the center of their faces.—Rabbi M. S. Margelle, Hebrew, Boston, Mass.

Legal Readjustment.—Readjust our several laws so as to be able to deal summarily with all murderers, lynchers, destructive labor mobs, and oppressive trusts. Readjust these laws so that anywhere under the Government where county and State machinery of the law fail, the Federal Government may dispense justice without delay and with efficiency.—Rev. H. G. Miller, Presbyterian, New York City.

Power of Wealth.—Never in the history of the world did wealth have such power as to-day. Never before was there such a fierce, obstinate and determined fight for riches as at the present hour. In the business world, in the social world, in the political world, and even in the religious world, often a man who is worth $1,000,000 can exert more influence than 1,000 poor men.—Rev. W. G. Partridge, Baptist, Pittsburg, Pa.

MORE OFFICERS IN NAVY.

Rapidly Increasing Tonnage Not Met by Appointment. While the tonnage of the navy has doubled and trebled, the number of seagoing officers has not been increased at all and that of the enlisted men only to a limited extent. Each session of Congress, as a rule, sees an increase in the tonnage; the increases in the men have come at rare intervals and on strong presentation by the Navy Department; whereas there has been no increase of officers.

The completed and authorized tonnage by the last Navy Register, January, 1902, was in round numbers 750,000 tons. This will require, when all the vessels shall have been finished, an enlisted force of 45,000 men and boys.

In the meantime, to insure that efficient crews shall be ready to man the completed ships, what is needed now is that the Secretary of the Navy shall have power to enlist men and train them as needed, not to exceed the ratio as above determined.

The average annual increase since the Spanish war (in one year there was no increase authorized) has been 54,000 tons. This is by no means an excessive rate; but, to be conservative and to allow for possible diminutions, assume that 10,000 tons (two-thirds the current appropriation), will represent the annual increase up to 1913, making a total at that time of 1,240,000 tons. At the ratio as above given this would require 3,720 officers. There are now about 1,900 officers on the list, counting the midshipmen who have passed the four years' course and are at sea. Thus, there must be an increase of 2,800 officers all told.

The annual waste is now by law about 4 per cent. Suppose all voluntary retirements stopped and the waste cut down to 3 per cent. The average list from now till 1913 would be 2,390, 3 per cent of which is 72 annually, or about 790 in eleven years, which, added to 2,600, makes 3,450, the number of graduates required for the eleven years. There will be this coming year at the academy 466 midshipmen (495 less than twenty-nine for the new appointment not yet in effect). Suppose three-fourths of them graduate, say 350. This, taken from the total number as above—that is, 3,450—leaves 3,100 to be appointed and graduated under the new law. As the first appointment cannot be made till 1903, the first graduation will not be until 1907, and there will be seven classes altogether, up to and including 1913. Hence 3,100 must be divided by seven, which gives 443 as the number of annual graduates.

Assuming still that three-fourths of those appointed graduate, says a writer in the North American Review, there must be 201 appointments annually, being given right away, or as soon as Congress can act, in order to have the navy officered to the lowest estimate of efficiency by 1913. This would mean a midshipman battalion of about 2,000, instead of the present 500, roundly; or for the next ten years an appointment by each Senator and Representative, not every four years, as now, but every year or often.

A novel variation of ping-pong which may be played by six or eight persons, is described by The Bits: Two persons take up their positions at opposite ends of the table, and four more place themselves at the sides of it, two on each side. (If eight people are playing there will be three on each side.) Only two bats are used as in the ordinary game, and each player is provided with five counters, or "lives." One of the end players starts by serving his opponent with a ball, who returns it; but meanwhile each player has moved one place around the table, and the two who are now at opposite ends snatch up the bats and play the ball, put down the bat, and move on. If the server serves a ball into the net he "loses a life." There is a constant procession round the table until one player fails to return a ball over the net, when he loses a "life" (pays a counter to the pool). The players drop out one by one until two are left. The one who has lost the fewer "lives" is declared the winner.

Most men admire those who jolly them.

SISTERS OF CHARITY

Use Pe-ru-na for Coughs, Colds, Grip and Catarrh—A Congressman's Letter.

In every country of the civilized world Sisters of Charity are known. Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of the poor, but they also minister to their bodily needs.

With so many children to take care of and to protect from climate and disease, these wise and prudent Sisters have found Pe-ru-na a never failing safeguard.

Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters from all over the United States. A recommendation recently received from a Catholic institution in Detroit, Mich., reads as follows:

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio: Dear Sir:—The young girl who used the Pe-ru-na was suffering from laryngitis, and loss of voice. The result of the treatment was most satisfactory. She found great relief, and after further use of the medicine we hope to be able to say she is entirely cured.—Sisters of Charity.

The young girl was under the care of the Sisters of Charity and used Pe-ru-na for catarrh of the throat with good results as the above letter testifies.

The following letter is from Congressman Meekison, of Napoleon, Ohio:

Gentlemen:—I have used several bottles of Pe-ru-na and feel greatly benefited thereby. I am a sufferer from a disease of the head, and feel encouraged to believe that its continued use will fully eradicate a disease of thirty years' standing.—David Meekison.

Dr. Hartman, one of the best known physicians and surgeons in the United States, was the first man to formulate Pe-ru-na. It was through his genius and perseverance that it was introduced to the medical profession of this country.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
