

HERBERT HOOVER

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY FOR FOOD ADMINISTRATOR AT HIGH SCHOOL

The Hoover Rally at the High School Tuesday evening drew an audience of about one hundred and fifty persons. Some were Hooverites and some were of other faiths but all gave an attentive ear to the arguments of J. F. Elden, Jr., orator of the occasion, why Herbert Hoover should be chosen to direct the destinies of this nation for the four years to come.

Preceding the program there were musical numbers by members of the music department of the high school, Brigham Bennett, drummer; Gerald Toll, saxophone player, and a pianist.

On the platform in addition to the speaker, were J. C. Sherer, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery and Daniel Campbell.

It seemed more like a campaign meeting than any that had taken place previously as the entrance to the auditorium was draped with Old Glory and pretty girls were in attendance to seat all comers and hand out literature.

Mrs. Charles Parker led the audience in the singing of "America," with which the meeting opened, and "Star Spangled Banner," with which it closed, also giving as a vocal solo, "Now Pray We for America," with Mrs. Wright at the piano.

A little campaign excitement was also introduced by some bad boys out in the corridor who, in the midst of the address, broke out in rather frightened rah-rah-rah's for Johnson, to the amusement of the speaker. (Continued on Page 4)

REV. MOTTERN GOES EAST

This coming Friday at 11 o'clock, Rev. R. W. Mottern, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Glendale, is leaving for Boston, Mass., over the "Washington Sunset Route" of the Southern Pacific, via El Paso, New Orleans, Atlanta, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York. The plan covers a five-week vacation trip, on an important mission for friends in Glendale. Numerous points in Pennsylvania, the home state of Rev. Mottern, will be touched, including Philadelphia; Reading, Hazelton, Danville, Sunbury, Harrisburg, Gettysburg, Johnston and Pittsburg. The great Memorial Day celebration May 31st, will be taken in at Gettysburg in the famous National Cemetery, on the Battlefield. Rev. Mottern plans to be home in Glendale to fill his pulpit on Sunday, June 6th. In his absence the pulpit will be supplied by the Lay Reader of the church, Harry F. Paseman.

NEW BUSINESS BUILDING ON BRAND

J. M. Blankenship, who came to Glendale early in February from the Texas oil fields and bought a home at 1317 North Brand and the lot just south of the Chaffee building, as it is still called, is getting material assembled to put up a business building on the lot. The little brick real estate office now on the lot has been sold by C. W. Spickerman to Glen Simmons, who will move it to the lot adjoining, where Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will engage in the real estate business.

OLD KENTUCKY HOME

GARDNERS RETURN TO IT, BUT ONLY TO SELL AND COME BACK TO GLENDALE

J. J. Gardner and wife, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mariner and the latter's little daughter left this morning for the old home in Bromley, Ky. They came out here last December and though they could find only very small apartments to live in, which was peculiarly irksome to long-time dwellers in a little country town, yet they were so pleased with Glendale that they stayed anyhow.

Mr. Gardner goes back to Bromley, which is a Kentucky suburb of Cincinnati, for the purpose of selling his property, thinking this is the logical time to dispose of it to the best advantage owing to the scarcity of dwelling houses and the high prices demanded for lumber and labor. As soon as he sells Mr. Gardner says he will begin making ready to move back to Glendale which, to him and his wife, is the ideal place to live. He thinks the rest of his family will come with them and settle down in Glendale.

STEADY GROWTH

GLENDALE BUILDING PROGRAM TO EXTEND FAR INTO THE FUTURE

While it cannot be denied that building operations in Los Angeles and Long Beach, leaders in such activity in the county, have slowed down greatly, especially in the way of residences, the same cannot be said of Glendale's. While last month's total of permits issued was abnormal, owing to the bunching in that month of four large projects calling for an expenditure of $185,000, leaving, less than $100,000 worth of residence and garage building, alterations and additions. This month the permits are almost exclusively for this latter class of buildings and are already in excess of $100,000.

And Glendale's building program will certainly continue unabated for months, as bungalow courts, apartment houses, business houses and residences in large numbers are already planned far ahead. Our little city has been advertised far and wide by its loyal residents who were traveling and by delighted newcomers writing to the "folks back home."

THE COMING CHAUTAUQUA

All the committees appointed to promote the big Chautauqua to be held in Glendale May 10th to 16th inclusive are busily at work and a very successful session is anticipated. The tent will be located on the lots at the southeast corner of Wilson and Maryland avenues recently sold by the Presbyterian Church people. The Advertising Committee is covering the city this week with bills and announcements of several kinds. Business men are taking great interest in this Chautauqua and lending their aid unstintingly in promoting it.

TALKS ON EVILS OF CIGARETTE SMOKING

James A. Walton, state superintendent of the Anti-Cigarette League, spoke in the High School auditorium yesterday afternoon at assembly to the boys of the school on the evils and disadvantages of cigarette smoking. It was a pleasant, kindly talk along practical lines and it took well with the boys. The speaker demonstrated how heart action is impaired by cigarette smoking and told of many athletes he had known who were knocked out in a short time after commencing the habit.

MUSIC DEMONSTRATION AT HIGH SCHOOL

Pupils in the sight reading and harmony classes of the High School will give a demonstration of work in the music room Friday at 2:30 p. m. for the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Anyone interested in such work is free to attend.

HIGH TENSION LINE

NOW COMPLETED THROUGH GLENDALE ALONG CENTRAL AVENUE

For many weeks workmen have been busy setting the new 60-foot poles along Central avenue to carry the high tension wires bearing the powerful current from the power house many miles distant up in the mountain fastnesses where the tumbling waters turn the big turbines and generate electricity. This set of wires comes in along the entire length of Sixth street to Pacific avenue, down that thoroughfare to Arden, where the 70-foot poles begin, then over to Central avenue and down to San Fernando Road. The current that supplies Glendale with electric light, heat and power, comes in over these wires and is distributed from the Eagle Rock sub-station. Owing to the great increase in the use of electric energy in Glendale the past year, General Manager Phillips, of the Public Service Department, says another feed line will be necessary to supply Glendale ere long.

MISSOURI REUNION

The Long Beach Missourians invite all who ever lived in Missouri to attend the annual picnic to be held in Bixby Park, Long Beach, May 8th. There will be the usual basket lunch at noon and a splendid program opening about two o'clock.

WEATHER—Fair tonight and Thursday. Foggy along the coast in the morning.

RETURNS FROM STATE CONVENTIONS

HECTIC DAY IN NEW YORK AS REPORTS COME IN FROM FIVE STATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
NEW YORK, April 28.—Final results of the most hectic day in the pre-convention campaign, were still in doubt today. Incomplete returns from yesterday's primaries showed:

New Jersey—Republican Returns: Major General Wood leading Senator Hiram Johnson by 740 votes in 1804 out of 2005 election districts. Wood appeared to have a majority of the 28 delegates.

New Jersey—Democratic Returns: Governor Edward I. Edwards was practically unopposed for the State's endorsement and apparently will receive the support of 28 delegates at the Democratic National Convention.

Ohio—Republican: Unofficial returns from 2857 of the 5882 precincts showed Senator Harding leading Wood by 3476 votes. Harding's managers claimed 42 of the 48 delegates, while Wood's supporters claimed 8. Johnson and Hoover received a written-in vote.

Ohio—Democratic: Governor J. I. Cox had no opposition for the Democratic endorsement and will secure the State's entire delegation of 48.

Massachusetts—Republican: Practically complete returns show Wood probably will secure six of the State's 35 delegates. The others are unpledged but will cast their early ballots in the convention for Governor Coolidge. There was no preferential vote.

Massachusetts—Democratic: The Democratic delegation of 36 will be unpledged. There was no preferential vote.

Washington—Republicans in State Convention pledged their delegation of fourteen to Senator Miles Poindexter, a favorite son.

Idaho—Republicans meeting today were expected to give eight delegates to Senator William Borah, who has been campaigning for Johnson.

FRANCE'S INTERESTS SAFEGUARDED

SO DECLARES PREMIER MILLERAND TO CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES IN REPORT ON SAN REMO CONFERENCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, April 28.—"All of France's interests have been safeguarded," Premier Millerand told the Chamber of Deputies today in his report of the work of the peace conference at San Remo. "All the allied decisions conform to the agreements made during the war and since the war," Millerand said. "Frankfort and Darmstadt will be evacuated as soon as the German units are withdrawn from the Ruhr District," Millerand continued.

ANTI-TRUST LITIGATION

GOVERNMENT ASKS SUPREME COURT FOR REHEARING OF CASE AGAINST U. S. STEEL CORPORATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, April 28.—The government today asked the Supreme Court for a rehearing of the anti-trust case against the United States Steel Corporation recently decided adversely to the government.

CARRANZA TROOPS REVOLTING

CUAUTLA IN MORELOS AND CITY OF CHIHUAHUA SAID TO HAVE BEEN CAPTURED BY REBELS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, April 28.—Rebels under the personal command of General Obregon have captured Cuautla, one of the largest cities in the State of Morelos, according to advices received here today.

A federal battalion of Carranza's own guard numbering one thousand, under command of General Francisco Uruiz, revolted while en route to defend Cuautla, the reports said. The federals had advanced as far as Puernaca, and are now occupying that place, the reports said.

Reports persisted here today that General Fortunato Maycotté had gone over to the revolutionists in the State of Guerrero.

EL PASO, April 28.—Although neither Carranza officials nor Obregon revolutionists here could confirm early today rumors of fighting in Chihuahua City, Obregon followers claimed the capital of that State had been captured without bloodshed. All indications were that Carranza's hold on the border State was slipping.

Obregonistas here claimed the Juarez garrison is on the verge of revolt and that the spirit of mutiny is spreading throughout Carranza's army.

SAN DIEGO MAIL ROBBERY

LONE BANDIT SECURES POUCH CONTAINING $30,000 FROM OPEN TRUCK EN ROUTE TO TRAIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN DIEGO, April 28.—A lone bandit held up a mail wagon in the early morning hours and escaped with a pouch believed to contain about $30,000. The robbery occurred near the post office while the mail was being taken to the train in an open truck.

MUSIC AT HIGH SCHOOL

STUDENTS ENJOY SPECIAL PROGRAM GIVEN BY ELSA BREIDT, PIANISTE

A great treat was provided for students of the Glendale High School Monday morning when Miss Elsa Breidt appeared before them and gave a piano recital, playing a few numbers given at her concert the Thursday evening previous, but adding certain Russian compositions of special interest because they have been the subjects of study by the Music Department. One of these was the "Prelude in C Sharp Minor by Rachmaninoff, another was a Nocturne for the left hand by Scriabine, which was of peculiar interest to student musicians and which showed to advantage Miss Breidt's left hand technique. The boys and girls were also delighted with Debussy's descriptive composition, "The Gollywog's Cake Walk," played with great zest and spirit by Miss Breidt.

Those who heard the pianiste at both recitals say she played with even finer effect Monday than she did last week, possibly because of greater confidence in appearing before sympathetic young people, instead of the more critical musicians of Los Angeles, many of whom were present at her concert last week.

Those who are best qualified to judge and who are closely watching her work, predict a great future for Miss Breidt which reflects glory upon the city of her adoption.

COUNTY S. S. CONVENTION AT LONG BEACH

The Los Angeles Annual County Sunday School convention, in which 500 schools are expected to participate, will be held in Long Beach May 5th, 6th and 7th. Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, formerly of Glendale, is scheduled for an address and Rev. C. A. Cole has three numbers, one on Thursday and two on Friday. Dr. James A. Francis, of Los Angeles, is one of the prominent speakers listed. Most of the Sunday Schools of Glendale will send delegates to this convention.

NO-PARKING LAW MODIFIED

Los Angeles business men and motorists of that city and surrounding towns, including Glendale, are gratified over the modification in the no-parking ordinance put through by the L. A. City Council yesterday, which goes into effect today. Parking for 45 minutes is permitted in the congested district up to 4 p. m. each day, now.

PACOIMA CANYON

NATURE PERFORMING WONDERS IN REPAIRING DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE

Dr. P. O. Lucas reports that the movie company which has been making use of his camp holdings in Pacoima Canyon are still in possession and he has done nothing in the way of improvements. He is very much gratified by the way in which nature is repairing the damage done by the mountain fires there. While a few trees were killed outright others thought to be dead escaped and are making fresh growth. Vegetation is springing up on the burned areas and there is every prospect that in a few years the canyon will be almost, if not quite, as beautiful as ever. County engineers are working on the problem of controlling the flood waters of the canyon but no definite plan has yet been decided upon. One project being considered is a dam in the lower portion of the canyon which, if established, will cause the water to back up and make necessary the removal of some cabins in the bed of the ravine.

READING CIRCLE PICNIC

The Mutual Benefit Reading Circle is today enjoying a belated celebration of its birthday which occurred March 1st, but which could not take place at that time because the president was quarantined by illness in her home. She is leaving on the 10th of May for quite an extended tour of the East and members decided they would like to combine the birthday festival with the annual picnic before their president left them. It is therefore taking place today. As usual, Mrs. Cotton is at the head of the committee of arrangements and a surprise program has been provided. The picnic lunch was to be served at noon.

EARLY CALIFORNIA

MEMBERS OF TUESDAY CLUB ENJOY PAGEANT OF THE PAST

The announcement that the Club would have a chance to enjoy a pageant representing early California history put on by members of the literary section drew a large attendance at the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

It proved to be not so much a pageant as a series of tableaux planned by Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, curator of the literary section. Mrs. Jesse Joseph had charge of the costuming and planned and made, in some instances, the garb in which those who took part appeared, being also responsible for the makeup and posing. It proved a beautiful affair which evoked great applause and was the more creditable because produced on short notice, within one week. Mrs. Hutchinson composed a verse to introduce and explain each tableau which she in the garb of a Franciscan padre, read as the curtain was drawn and each tableau revealed. The series included the following presentations:

Cabrillo, the explorer, Mrs. Rowe.
Typical Indian Chief, Mrs. Willisford.

Father Junipero, Mrs. McKee.

TONY FRAZIER RAISES MAMMOTH STOCK BEETS

Harrison Frank of 1558 East Wilson avenue brought to the Evening News office this morning a stock beet weighing 35 pounds, raised by Tony Frazier, on his two-acre ranch which borders East Broadway on the south. This species of beet results from crossing the white sugar beet with the common red table variety. Mr. Frazier has several rows of these beets and many grew very large, but none to equal the one brought to the Evening News office and which is displayed in the window. The top is very large and the leaves, which resemble very closely Swiss chard, make the finest kind of greens. These beets were planted in the late fall and have matured very rapidly.

SOUTH DAKOTA FRIENDS

Mrs. W. W. Hall of 331 Patterson avenue is entertaining quite a house party of South Dakota friends today. This morning she welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Thiser and Mrs. Thiser's mother, Mrs. Chranhold, who have been spending the winter in Pasadena. This afternoon the party is being augmented by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Bert James, who have also been winter guests in Pasadena. The two last named and Mrs. Chranhold are leaving tomorrow for South Dakota. The other two will remain for the summer and may decide to make their permanent home in California. Mrs. James is particularly dear to Mrs. Hall as she nursed her through quite a serious illness this winter and was here for several weeks. She and her husband expect to return to Southern California next fall.

TWO GENERATIONS

DR. DUNGAN WEBS DAUGHTER AS HE WEDDED PARENTS 25 YEARS AGO

Dr. D. R. Dungan and wife of 323 East Lomita avenue went down last evening to the White Temple, in Los Angeles, where Rev. Bruce Brown preaches and Rev. Harry E. Wilhite is engaged in holding revival meetings, and immediately after the conclusion of the service Dr. Dungan united in marriage Harry Vickers, a young civil engineer of Huntington Park, and Miss Nellie, 18-year-old daughter of Rev. Wilhite. The latter is well known in Glendale as he has preached here a number of times in the Central Christian Church. Dr. Dungan performed the wedding ceremony for him 25 years ago when he was a student in Cotner University of Lincoln, Neb., and a member of classes taught both by Dr. Dungan and his present wife, then a teacher in the University. A largely attended reception was given the young married couple after the ceremony last night, at the Huntington Park home of the Wilhites.

Dr. Dungan, though in his 84th year and quite feeble, was glad to take the night trip to join in marriage this daughter of his old friend and "son in the gospel," whose work as an evangelist since he graduated from Cotner has resulted in the conversion of nearly 40,000 souls.

lin), and brave (Mrs. Dunn), in interior.

Ramona, Mrs. Plasterer. Spanish Dancing Girl and Gallant, Mrs. Ocker and Mrs. Baker.

Forty-Niner, Mrs. Hayward. Juanita, and her lover, Mrs. Joseph and Mrs. W. E. Evans.

A devout senora, Mrs. Greenwalt. Margherita, the dancing girl, Miss Esther Ralston.

A padre, Mrs. Hutchinson.

A musical accompaniment for the tableaux and interludes was furnished by Mrs. Hagood at the piano, whose repertoire include the "Rosary," the "Toreador Song," "Juanita," and other familiar and appropriate melodies.

The program opened with the singing of "I Love You, California," by Senora Charles Parker with Mrs. Hagood at the piano.

Other numbers on the program were:

A Spanish Dance by Misses Lois Naudain and Margaret Brown.

Reading, "Down by the Rio Grande," Mrs. W. E. Evans.

Group of Spanish songs by Miss Viola Yorba with Mrs. Hagood at piano.

Piano solo, Mrs. Hagood.

With so many ladies in picturesque costumes it was a pretty scene when, the program concluded, the ladies gathered about the refreshment tables to enjoy delicious home-made cake and fruit punch.

Previous to the program there was a business session, as usual. The reading of the minutes was followed by the reading of a lengthy resolution petitioning the Board of Education, the County Superintendent and the Board of Supervisors to readjust the salary schedule of teachers. On motion of Mrs. Ella Richardson the resolution was adopted by the Club, and Mrs. John Robert White was appointed the representative of the Club to attend any conferences which might be held in connection with the movement for an increase of teachers' salaries.

Plans for the Chautauqua to be held in Glendale next month were announced by the president, Mrs. Tower.

Mrs. Charles Temple, chairman of Ways and Means, announced that the Club had been offered a luncheon to be furnished by a well-known manufacturer of yeast, the Club to have all the proceeds, the luncheon to be served on Thursday, May 6th.

Mrs. Temple also urged that more Club Teas be given by the members and announced the proceeds of the "Earn a Dollar" plan as $214.

Mrs. Von Oven announced that the Music Section of the Club would have its meeting the present week, the 30th, instead of next week, as the program is to be provided by Mrs. Dora Gibson, of the High School, and will be the work of pupils. No other Friday would be available, therefore the date was set for this week.

Announcement was also made that the Shakespeare Section would hold its next meeting with its instructor, Mrs. McClure, in Los Angeles.

The president, Mrs. Tower, announced that a Revision Committee, consisting of Mrs. McNutt, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Helen Campbell, was at work on a revision of the constitution and by-laws. She then introduced Mrs. McNutt, who submitted a revision of the paragraph designating the duties of the second vice-president which will be voted upon at the next meeting. The change provides that the second vice-president shall have charge of the printing of the year book and shall be a member of the Program Committee. Mrs. McNutt explained that it seemed important that the Program Committee should be in official connection with the Board.

INCONCLUSIVE

An Irish witness was being examined as to his knowledge of a shooting affair. "Did you see the shot fired?" the magistrate asked. "No, sorr, I only heard it," was the evasive reply. "That evidence is not satisfactory," replied the magistrate, sternly. "Stand down!" The witness turned round to leave the box, and directly his back was turned he laughed derisively. The magistrate, indignant at this contempt of court, called him back, and asked him how he dared to laugh in court. "Did you see me laugh, your honor?" queried the offender. "No, sir, but I heard you," was the irate reply. "That evidence is not satisfactory," said Pat. And this time everybody laughed except the magistrate.—Chicago Register.

THAT OLD ONE, MADE OVER

Have you ever appeared as a witness in a suit before?" asked the bully-ragging Attorney.

"Why, of course!" replied the Young Lady to the witness stand.

"Then tell the jury just what suit it was!" demanded the Attorney.

"It was a blue suit, with a white collar and white cuffs, and white buttons all the way down the back," replied the Young Lady.

SOURCE OF PEACE AND LIBERTY

Jean Frederic Oberlin, the greatest pastor and benefactor to men for a time before, during, and after the French Revolution period, in the Alsatia region, said: "Old enduring social welfare must rest in Christian principles and in Christian practice." His biographer, in harmony with this, adds these sentences: "If sociology founded upon the teachings of Christ is not sufficient to secure the noblest ideals and the highest order of social as well as of individual life, then no motives or methods which a lesser wisdom may devise will be adequate to meet the nature and the wants of men. When people apply other principles, with whatever sincerity, they become foes of order, of human rights and social good.

"Social problems that are full of sorrow and pain will find their only solution when He who is the chiefest person in all history has proved his mastery by the influences which he has set in motion, and when he rules in the hearts and consciences of men."

In harmony with the above we would say, for illustration, "The Christ of the Andes—a monument of good will between Chile and Argentina"—cannot of itself maintain peace between those nations. The rulers of those nations must exercise the spirit of Christ in order to maintain peace, just as those individuals who preach Christ must have his Spirit in their own lives if they would have victory over sin.

Likewise, the great Statue of Liberty in the United States is no guaranty to Liberty and freedom unless the people are possessed with the law of liberty in their hearts.—Liberty.

Ambition without energy is a misnomer. "It is true that there is always room at the top, but it is not reached by the one who sits down and waits for an elevator." No one deserves place or reward for which he is not willing to work, and idle desires never take the place of honest effort.

Hood River, the famous apple district of Oregon, reports a red, white and blue lizard. Cider must have a kick in it after all.

Somebody could make a fortune by going into business to sell those moderately-priced goods which dealers say the people do not want.

TAKE 'EM ALL

An African king had taken a liking to a missionary and, wishing to please him and the white governments which were inclined to punish him for certain crimes, brought before him the five hundred most beautiful maidens in his kingdom.

"They are the loveliest flowers of my land," said the monarch; "pick one from among them for your wife."

The missionary, who already had a wife at home, was greatly embarrassed. But not wishing to hurt the feelings of his host, much less offend him, replied diplomatically:

"You honor me, but I dare not choose lest the others grow jealous."

"That's easily fixed," replied the monarch; "take them all."—Tit-Bits.

DOLLARS vs. EDUCATION

The public school teacher has a great responsibility. Briefly, the future of the boys and girls of today, depends upon their school training.

DO YOU KNOW that thousands of teachers are leaving school work because they are underpaid?

DO YOU KNOW that many others are planning to go into other lines of work that pay a living wage unless there is an adjustment of teachers' salaries?

Without well paid teachers the school pupil will suffer. Pay the teachers a living wage and the boys and girls of today are better equipped to fight the stern battles of life.

HERBERT HOOVER

er, who evidently has not left boyhood very far behind him. There were a few other attempted interruptions suppressed by Prof. Root, who sacrificed and lost a part of the lecture by retiring to labor with the youthful insurgents.

The real Hoover program opened with the reading by Mrs. Montgomery of ten arguments why the United States should elect Herbert Hoover to the presidency, written by Howard Powell, director of the Southern California Fruit Exchange, who worked in the Food Administration during the war and who based his arguments on his personal acquaintance with Mr. Hoover and his work.

Mr. Campbell then introduced the speaker in his characteristic way saying that he believed it was customary on such occasions for the chairman to make the principal speech of the evening, but that he proposed to give Mr. Elden a chance.

Mr. Elden explained that although Hoover, like himself, is a graduate of Stanford he is not supporting him on that account but because Hoover, more than any other one influence, in his opinion, is responsible for the advanced policy and high ideals for which Stanford stands. "If you had talked with the Board of Regents in 1912, they would have told you that the ideals and policy of Stanford was due in large measure to the personal influence of Herbert Hoover," he declared.

He reviewed the biography of his subject, reciting that Hoover had been born in the middle west, that he was brought up upon a farm, lost his parents at the age of ten, worked on an Oregon farm, finished his elementary schooling and at seventeen years of age was ready to enter a university, that he worked his way through that institution and that the task was harder then because it was a new and struggling institution.

After graduating as a mining engineer, the speaker stated, instead of seeking an executive position with some large corporation Hoover went to Nevada and worked as a mine laborer that he might lay a substantial groundwork for the theoretical knowledge he had obtained in his university course.

He then referred to the important commissions he had executed as a mining engineer not only in this country but abroad, and how he refused to have anything to do with a mining enterprise in China which was being promoted by King Leopold, of Belgium, because Leopold's representative with whom he negotiated proposed to impose upon the Chinese in a dishonest contract and because he was unwilling to provide the safeguards to life Mr. Hoover considered essential. The representative referred to became his life-long enemy but lived to see Hoover acclaimed as the greatest American by the Belgian people because of his war work in their behalf.

The speaker complimented the War Trade Board and the Railroad Administration for efficient service during the war, but declared no organization equaled in efficiency the Food Administration. He spoke of his own experience in Washington and referred to the respect in which Hoover was held in official circles and his power of winning men to his way of thinking, even the opponents of his policies who came to Washington to protest and went away converts to the Hoover plans.

He told of the winning of farmers of Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska, who had been misled by German propaganda, and dwelt much upon the work of Hoover at the peace table in Paris, asserting that he was the one man who left that conference with an enhanced reputation, the one man who did not have embarrassing things to explain to his constituents at home. For that reason, because of his diplomatic ability and his thorough knowledge of industrial conditions both at home and abroad, Mr. Elden argued that Hoover should be the choice of the American people.

He spoke of his sympathy with labor and declared that no strikes had ever taken place in the industrial enterprises, mining and otherwise, with which he had been connected.

In closing he enumerated the attributes our next president should possess. Said he: "Our next president should be a business man, he should understand finance, he should be a diplomat, he must be a sociologist, he must be a humanitarian, he must be an international statesman, he must be an intelligent student of labor problems, he must be an administrative executive with a comprehensive vision. Herbert Hoover, he declared, would fulfill all these requirements.

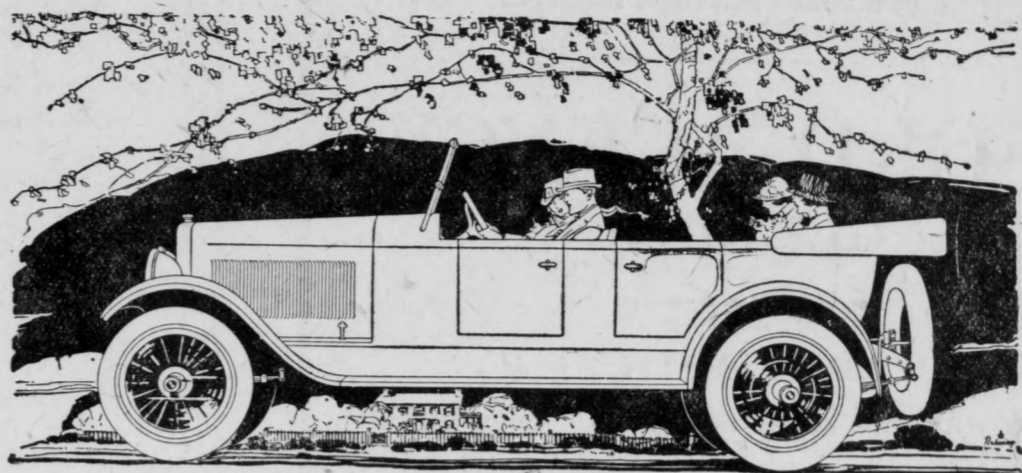

J. C. Sherer followed with a brief speech in which he urged financial support of the Hoover campaign by dollar subscriptions saying that the candidate had no organized machine, that he is not being supported by capitalists. Incidentally he voiced his own admiration of the food administrator expressing the conviction that "the people of the United States need for president the greatest man that the war produced."

Mr. Elden's address was frequently interrupted by applause and Mr. Sherer's remarks met with like appreciation.

A teacher was explaining the difference between an honest man and a hypocrite. "Now," she said, "I will show you what that means. Here you see is a sound apple. It is sound to the core," and she cut it to prove her assertion. "But here," she said, "here's one which looks well to the eye, but it's bad within. Now watch," and she cut it. It contained worms. "Now," she asked, "what is a hypocrite?"

A small boy put up his hand, and was allowed to answer. "A hypocrite, mam," he said, "is a man with worms."

The reporter, his fresh young face alight with enthusiasm, was interviewing the colored man who had lived one hundred and ten years; and the colored man, with fame perched on his door-step, in a straw hat and with ready pencil, was doing his best. Mrs. J. F. Lilly of 323 North Jackson street has been entertaining a cousin, Mrs. Clara Chapman, who left for Long Beach the first of the week. Her home is in Montana, but she has been spending the winter in Southern California. Mrs. Lilly says her husband reports the housing situation acute in Bakersfield in spite of the fact that much building, particularly in the line of residences and apartments is in progress.

Peter Ferry and family took advantage of the beautiful weather Sunday to make a trip to Mount Lowe. They motored to Los Angeles and went from there by trolley reaching the mountain top about 2 p. m. and getting home at 10 p. m. In spite of the fact that it was such a warm day they found a little snow in the hollows. It was very beautiful up there and there were many visitors. Mrs. O'Brien accompanied the Ferrys.

J. B. Tabour and wife and the latter's uncle, Geo. H. Henchman, will leave next Sunday for their summer home in Minneapolis, Minn. They expect to return to Glendale about November 1st, as it has been their custom for the past 18 or 20 years to spend the winters in California. Four years ago Mr. Tabour built a fine home at 1315 North Louise, for winter occupancy and expects to spend all the remainder of his winters therein.

LOYAL WOMEN'S CLASS MEETS

The Loyal Women's class of the Central Christian Sunday School held its monthly business and social meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. R. M. Jackson, 344 North Maryland. After the business session a mirth-provoking program was put on, the principal feature of which was the performance of an up-to-date orchestra with Mrs. F. W. Pigg as the most efficient leader. The commendable feature of it was that all the playing was in pantomime, not a sound resulting. Light refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames Eva M. Hutton, M. G. Musser, G. W. Scott, Anna Current, R. P. Jodon, Clifford A. Cole, J. E. Peters, Wm. Van Osdell, E. H. Learned, Floyd Mercer, Geo. Mercer, F. M. Elliott, L. B. Nunn, A. D. Switzer, S. J. Mosher, W. E. Hartley, J. C. Wasson, A. W. Jenkins, Amanda Hartley, T. W. Goodnight, C. S. Archer, Carrie Archer, and Susie Stem.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY MEETING

The Women's Auxiliary held their regular meeting at the American Legion Headquarters last evening. A number of new members were present and more plans were made for the work of the organization. Members and friends interested are requested to bring donations for the ex-service men in the Crocker Street Hospital to the office of James F. McBryde, 103-A North Brand boulevard, from where they will be taken to the boys. A short time ago the boys wanted pickles and catsup, and the ladies are trying to supply them at this time with these two articles. It was decided that the women meet every Monday evening until the 1st of June, when regular meeting nights will be decided on. Charter members may still be admitted to the auxiliary, but the time is limited, so those ladies desiring to become charter members should be present next Monday night, or get in touch with Mrs. McBryde at Glendale 291-J.

A. H. MONTGOMERY HOME ROBBED

While Mrs. A. H. Montgomery and all the other members of the family were attending the Hoover meeting last evening, the home at 415 South Central avenue was entered by thieves and articles to the value of not far from $1500 were stolen. There was a sealskin coat valued at $500, three costly dresses, several rings, bracelets, pins, chains and a lavaliere, some silver money and a small check. Some boys of the neighborhood were suspiocined at first, but the police think the value of the articles taken indicate that professionals were the guilty parties.

WINE GRAPES STILL PROFITABLE CROP

There are a number of fair-sized vineyards of wine grapes in and near Glendale and in not one of them have the vines been uprooted to give place to other varieties or a different crop altogether, as was threatened when national prohibition and its probable effect on growers of wine grapes was being so vehemently discussed last year. It has been found that wine grapes are bringing far higher prices than were ever dreamed of in wine-making days, hence all the vineyards in this vicinity as well as in other localities are being carefully cultivated.

HOME MISSIONARY MEETING

The Home Missionary Society of the Central Avenue Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. O. Lucas on Kiverdale Drive. No formal program was followed, but Mrs. Tisdale led members in a kind of dialogue in regard to mife giving. At a business session plans were considered for the celebration by the society of the Fortieth Birthday of the National Women's Home Missionary Society which will take place on the evening of the 8th of June at the parsonage on Central avenue. There was a very fair attendance and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

THE DANGER

Williams and Wilkins were partners, and it was the custom of their wives, who were great friends, to call occasionally upon their husbands at their office. One day Williams, after their departure, showed signs of anxiety.

"What's the trouble?" asked Wilkins, observing his partner.

"Just see how it rains!" exclaimed Williams. "I feel very anxious about my wife. She's gone without an umbrella, and your wife has none, either."

"Oh, that's all right. They'll take shelter in some shop."

"Precisely," said Williams. "That's why I'm worried."—Harper's Magazine.

GETTING BY

A man who had been called up for medical examination had curiously defective eyesight. At times he could see fairly well, and at others he was so blind that he had to have a friend to guide him.

On the day of his examination he arrived on the arm of his friend.

Several ordinary tests for the eyesight were tried in vain, and at last the doctor, growing exasperated, seized a large empty metal garbage can lid and asked:

"Can you see that?"

"Yes," came the reply.

"Well, what is it?"

"Half-a-dollar."

THE HISTORIC BUTTONHOOK

"Keep a buttonhook in the tool kit," urges the manager of a large automobile concern. "It will save valuable time by fishing small parts out of inaccessible places. Little does he know the part he is playing in history."

Woman, long considered by man to have no ability in mechanics, and therefore denied the use of tools or any education in their handling, rose to the emergency, as woman always does, by utilizing the implements ready to her hand. With the buttonhook and the hairpin she has always been accustomed to accomplish marvels in the way of small jobs in plumbing, locksmithing, etc.

Usually these marvels have been taken as matter of course, bits of the daily routine. When, however, both buttonhook and hairpin failed, the last resort was to ask that a regular mechanic be called. The custom then was for the man of the house to snort with contempt at a woman's idea of mechanics, to accumulate all his masculine tools, work for three hours, lose his temper, set the nerves of the family on edge, render the kitchen floor in need of immediate scrubbing—and then send for the mechanic after all.

But now! With the coming of the automobile comes a new demand for small appliances. With the coming of suffrage arises a new respect for the aptitude of woman. Who has not heard the motorist tinkering with the inwards of his engine inquire, "Maria, got a wire hairpin handy? I think I could fix the blamed thing if I had one!"

Keep buttonhook and hairpin in the kit. A new era has begun.

SCHOOLS FACE SERIOUS SITUATION

Throughout Los Angeles county citizens are becoming aroused over the possibility of a shortage of school teachers for next year, due to the fact that many teachers are leaving the school room for other lines of activity. This determination upon the part of teachers is due to the present salaries paid teachers which the latter claim are inadequate.

Public organizations are taking up the matter of teachers' pay and endorsing an immediate readjustment in order to safeguard the interests of the school pupils of the community. Thousands of teachers have gone into other vocations not from choice but because of better salaries. The situation has alarmed every community not only in California but in many states. Efforts are being made to secure a readjustment of salaries in order that the efficiency of the school system may not be impaired.

In Los Angeles county the Citizens' School Survey Committee composed of some of the most noted business and professional men and women has undertaken to acquaint the citizens of the entire county with the need for a better salary for school teachers. This committee points to the fact that unless better salaries are paid communities will be required to employ teachers who are below the standard, the result being that pupils, the citizens of tomorrow, will be the real sufferers.

The shortage of teachers also may result in a doubling up of classes. This will mean a lesser contact between teachers and pupil and again the pupil will be the sufferer. It is conceded that the Los Angeles county schools must not be forced to face such a condition and that dollars must not be considered above education.

THE REAL TROUBLE

That something is wrong we all know. Most people are looking for a remedy, instead of looking for the trouble. The difficulty is that you can't find a remedy until you know what the trouble is. When your auto engine goes dead, you lift the hood and explore the internal mechanism until you locate the trouble—then the remedy is easy, maybe. At any rate, you know what is wrong, and that is the first step toward getting right.

Right now every one is worrying about high prices, high cost of living, shortage of goods and a forty-cent dollar. We want to correct all of this. But the difficulty is that we are worrying about results, about symptoms, and are forgetting causes. You can't cure smallpox by poulticing the eruptions. You can't cure results until you get after the causes.

There is a cause for these high prices, and the high cost of living, and it is that cause which must be first located and then attacked and corrected. It is easy to bluster and abuse and threaten, and it impresses shallow people, but it don't get you anywhere. State, local and national governments spend fortunes in salaries to noisy individuals, in propaganda and in commissions, committees, clubs and organizations, but nothing is accomplished. They don't or won't search for the real trouble. It is easy to find. The difficulty is that when found it is not sensational, nor can a spectacular, sensational fight be waged upon it—and it is sensationalism that is wanted; nothing else goes.

The real trouble is individual underproduction. There are just two ways of increasing the total supply of the things we all want. One is by employing more men, more machinery, more capital. The other is by inducing each individual to produce more by his own personal effort. The difference between the two plans is fundamental. By the first plan the cost of the article produced increases as the supply increases. By the second plan the cost of each article decreases as the supply increases.

Where we increase production by using more men and more invested capital, we soon reach a state of over-production, because as cost per unit mounts higher the ability of the rest of us to use the article decreases because of the increasing price. But when we increase the total supply by increasing the output of the individual we constantly get a wider and wider market for the goods because they are cheaper and we can all use more of them.

Industrial labor is being educated into the idea of producing less and less per individual, and then demanding higher wages in order that it may pay the enhanced price which its own policy is putting upon the products of its own labor. When it takes two men at higher day wages and shorter working hours to produce as much as one used to do, it follows that those of us who want to use that product must pay twice as much for it. Again, if it takes two men to make as many shoes, or nails, or any other product, as one could make by working reasonable hours and at reasonable speed, then one of the men must be taken away from the job of making hats or jack-knives or some other needed product. And so different industries begin to bid against each other for the use of labor.

There is nothing involved or difficult in locating the real trouble. The hard thing is to apply the remedy. It is individual under-production, and the remedy must be applied by the individual—more energy, more effort, more work. The farmers of America are the only ones who are standing by old standards of work and individual production. The balance of American labor must come to it. Until it does we shall have high prices, deficient supplies and angry discontent. And the government is wasting our money on side-show commissions and investigations because it lacks courage to tell industrial labor that it is loafing on the job.—Orange Judd Farmer.

KIND IN THEM

The Winnipeg Telegram tells a story of prime interest to the harassed financial secretaries of social agencies.

A small storekeeper, to the surprise of his brethren, suddenly decorated his window with a gorgeous new blind.

"Nice blind of yours, Isaac," quoth his neighbor.

"Yes, Aaron."

"Who paid for it, Isaac?"

"The customers paid, Aaron."

"What! The customers paid for it, Isaac?"

"Yes, Aaron. I put a leadle box on my counter 'for the blind.' And they paid for it."

TIMELY

A certain preacher who resorted to his barrel too often for intellectual profit, says the Northwestern Christian Advocate, was recently pressed for sermonic material late one Saturday evening. In desperation he reached down into that receptacle and fished up the first manuscript that his fingers touched, and without even reviewing its contents began its delivery at the morning service. He proceeded in good form until he exclaimed, "And now, brethren, we are right in the midst of the Spanish War."

PRINCIPAL CALLERS

"Propinquity is what brings about marriages," declared the father of three single daughters in didactic mood.

"Yes?" murmured his wife.

"It works this way: From among the men who call most frequently at a house the daughters of the house naturally select husbands."

"In that case," said the mother, sadly, "I fear our girls are doomed to marry—bill collectors."

TWO SHORT

A recruit was reported by a non-commissioned officer in charge of the canteen for negligence in handling a shipment of Bevo. Brought up for trial, the Summary Court Officer asked him how many bottles of the beverage he had succeeded in breaking. The recruit looked up and in a very meek tone replied:

"Only ten sir."

"Not enough to make a case," said the officer. "Dismissed."

Alfred Noyes was complaining about a harsh critic. "This critic's work," he said, "reminds me in its unsparing harshness of a dialogue between two villagers. There goes Bill Smith," said the first villager. "Bill ain't the same man he used to be." "No," said the second villager, "and he never was."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

How much should I give to make this a better world?

A CERTAIN man in New York filled out his income tax report. It showed an income so large that his tax was 53%. And his total gifts to church and charity for the year were $148.

Think of it—thousands spent for luxuries and pleasure for himself; and $148 to leave the world a little better than he found it!

Most of us do better than that; but not so very much better.

Our average daily gift for all church causes is

- less than we spend for daily papers
- less than a local telephone call
- less than a third of the day's car fare
- less than 3 cents a day

No wonder that 80% of the ministers of America are paid less than $20 a week. No wonder that the church hospitals turn away thousands of sick people a year. No wonder that China has only one doctor for every 400,000 people. No wonder that every church board and charity society is forever meeting deficits, forever passing the hat.

It isn't because we are selfish; it isn't because we don't want to help. It's just because no one has ever put up a great big program for us, and asked us to think of the work of the church in a systematic businesslike way.

The Interchurch World Movement represents the united program of thirty denominations. They have surveyed their whole task, no business could have done it better.

They have budgeted their needs; no business could have a more scientific budget. They have united to prevent the possibility of waste and duplication. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

And they come to the men or women who love America—to you—this week asking you to use them as the channel through which a certain definite part of your income can be applied to make this a better world.

Only you can determine what part of your income that should be.

It's a good time right now to answer that question. We're passing through the world just once; how much better will the world be because you passed through?

United Financial Campaign
