J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Kee, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. june 29

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Rocking and Ventilating Bedstead, or crib with a fan-tester.

The subscriber having obtained a patent for this beautiful and useful article of domestic comfort, begs leave to call the attention of the public to it, confident that it only remains to be seen to be patronized and generally used. It combines the unusual advantages of a common stationary or rocking bedstead or crib for children, and of ventilation by means of a fan-tester.

The advantages to be gained by efficacious ventilation, combined with a healthy action to the recumbent, needs no comment. They have long been recommended by physicians of great eminence—and combine economy, elegance and comfort. GIDEON VAUGHAN, Jr.

may 31 J P BENJAMIN, Exchange Place

PARISH COURT.—N. Orleans, May 26th 1834. Present the Hon Charles Maurian, judge.—No. 7464.—Mary Ann High wife of John A Bordier vs. J A Bordier her husband. This cause was this day submitted to the Court on the Record.

G Schmidt Esq for plaintiff.

P. Soulé Esq for defendant.

After examination the Court delivered the following opinions, viz:

In this case plaintiff alleges, that immediately after the marriage with J. A. Bordier, the said J A Bordier left her, and went to a house situated in Toulouse street, between Burgundy and Rempart streets, where he committed adultery, and publicly lived with a coloured woman, whom he kept as his Concubine, until he left the City of New-Orleans.

The Allegations are supported by the uncontradicted testimony of Miss J A Bernard, Saml. Hermann and Charleron, and the plaintiff assisted by Solomon High her father and Curator ad hoc, prayed that a divorce be granted her in compliance with provisions of the Law passed March 19th 1827.

The Court after hearing the counsels on both sides being satisfied with the correctness and truth of the allegations contained in the plaintiffs petition, considering that by the first section of the act above refered to a wife may claim a divorce because of adultery in the part of her husband, when he has kept his concubine in the common dwelling, or openly and publicly in any other, does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony, existing between the said Mary Ann High and the said J A Bordier be dissolved, and that the divorce prayed for be granted, and that the said J A Bordier pay the costs of this suit.

The Court reserving to the plaintiff the right of exercising against the said defendant such recourse as she may be entitled to by law, for the recovery of her rights, if any she have, against the property of the said J. A. Bordier.

New Orleans, June 3d 1834.

(Signed) Chs. MAURIAN, Judge.

I do hereby certify the above to be a true copy of the original judgement on record.

TO SUGAR PLANTERS.

THE subscriber offers for sale a great apparatus to bake sugar by steam; it can bake with the steam only from ten to twelve hogsheads of sugar in a twenty four hours; it is constructed on a system, that in France after twelve years experiments has been perfected. From the results obtained in Europe by the application of steam to the fabrication of sugar, could easily be deduced the hope of great advantages likely to arise from applying the same to the fabrication of the Louisiana sugar. In the last crop on one of Messrs Morgan's plantations, the sugar baked by the apparatus prepared to this effect, leaves no doubt on the subject. This apparatus constructed just complete the baking of molasses, to make cristern sugar has however so greatly improved the produce, that this sugar was sold 9 cents. The beauty of the sugar obtained from the apparatus in France, exactly of the same kind as this which is put up to sale, does not allow us to doubt, that the sugar baked by it, will be in the least inferior to that obtained by the same apparatus in the above mentioned plantations.

This apparatus will then augment the value of the crop from 75 to 100 per cent, as much from the increase of the crystall zed produce, as from its beauty, it can be set up again without the least derangement on the former premises in the plantation, so that no delay be apprehended for the crop.

Terms of sale: Payable after the success of the apparatus in notes for the end of March 1834.

This apparatus would equally suit a sugar baker establishment; it is sufficient for the baking of more than 60 hogsheads in a day.

N RILLIEUX,

No 72, Camp st opposite the Theatre.

There are also to be found with the same, coppers to complete the baking of the sugar by the steam, very superior in every respect to buscule coppers. may 27
