THE DAILY BEE.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 1.

THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from New York.

MAIL ARRIVED AT NEW YORK.

The Northern papers are filled with discussions of the recent outbreaks of Anabaptistic Indians, Women's Rights Advocates, Spiritualists, Free Lovers and Socialists. At bat, the Northern papers are in full discussion of the proceedings of that master assembly, and have arrived at the conclusion that nowhere out of the country is there such a state of anarchy as in New York.

But companies of Cavalry are to remain at the head of the guard, and the regiments of Infantry are to remain

at the head of the guard, and the regiments

at the head of the guard.

The 6th Infantry was to open the road to the fort, and Major McClellan, the Major of the 2d Dragoons, and Major McClellan, the Major of the 3d Artillery, and the regiments of Infantry are to remain at the head of the guard.
