A LETTER FROM MADAME ADELINA PATTI.

THE WINDSOR HOTEL,
FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

Apr. 23d, 1883.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 20th inst. requesting permission to use my name upon a brand of Cigars of your own manufacture, is just received. You have my hearty assent to the slight favor you ask, as I am sure the Cigars will be of so good a quality as to leave a pleasant recollection of their namesake.

Thanking you for your courtesy, I remain, dear sir,

Sincerely yours,

ADELINA PATTI.

Louis F. Fromer, Esq.

KEY WEST.

IT is now nine years since we first introduced these justly famous Cigars, and during that time they have made a NATIONAL REPUTATION.

AND, owing to their superior quality and workmanship, are more favorably known and appreciated by smokers, than any other domestic-made HAVANA CIGAR on the market.

ON sale by first-class dealers everywhere, also leading Hotels, Cafés, Clubs, and Pullman Dining Cars.

THE AGNES BOOTH CIGAR.

THE excellence of Imported Cigars is a thing of the past. Every smoker knows that the import stamp no longer is a guarantee of a cigar's quality. Imported Cigars have deteriorated from various causes, chief among which is the feeling among cigar manufacturers in Havana that the world must come to them for fine cigars, and hence their indifference and carelessness in supplying them.

There is no reason why we cannot make as good, if not better cigars, than the manufacturers in Havana can. We buy the tobacco precisely where they do and we can purchase from the tobacco-producing countries of the world besides, which the cigar manufacturers of Havana are by Spanish law forbid to do.

In choosing a name for our Cigars made of Imported materials, we think we have conserved every interest when we have selected the name, Agnes Booth. Agnes Booth has achieved for herself the proud title of "America's Dramatic Queen," and the cigar named after her has won unqualified praise for itself wherever it has been introduced.

We purchase for its composition only the best quality Vuelta Abajo tobacco in Havana, where it is cured and stripped; and for its wrapper we obtain only the choicest Sumatra tobacco absolutely free from bitterness. We manufacture the Agnes Booth Cigar in twenty sizes, all of the same stock; but in the Perfectos, Deliciosos and Bouquet Extra Sizes, we employ none but Spanish workmen.

An article of real merit is bound to win recognition, and we place the Agnes Booth Cigar before the public, confident in the results which its merits will attain. They have been only recently introduced, yet connoisseurs already pronounce them to be simply perfect.

Gentlemen may smoke the Agnes Booth Cigar with the assurance that they are smoking the finest tobacco it is possible to procure. Give the Agnes Booth Cigar a trial, and judge whether this country cannot produce a cigar as fine as Cuba, and at two-thirds its cost.

DRY CLEANSING.

What preserves the fabric, and renews the shade,
In household goods of every grade?
DRY CLEANSING.

What cleans the garment by the highest art,
And does it, too, without ripping apart?
DRY CLEANSING.

What makes like new, Coat, Pants, and Vest,
And of all the processes is the best?
DRY CLEANSING.

“DRY CLEANSING”

is a process particularly adapted to the treatment of fine fabrics in delicate colorings, and highly commends itself for Silk, Satin, and Evening Costumes.

It thoroughly cleanses and removes all dirt and grease, revives colors, preserves fabric and finish, and imparts a brightness and luster to the goods unattainable by any other process.

Gorham Solid Silver.

When a Wedding or Birthday Gift is to be selected, or a Presentation Piece decided upon, the first thought is to find something unusual—that which is not likely to be duplicated.

Solid Silver in some shape or other is the most appropriate for many reasons, if such a piece can be secured.

Our stock affords great diversity of design, which is an important consideration in making a selection of this kind.

The variety and extent of our productions enable us to continually show not only new designs, but original articles for new purposes.

A visit to our establishment will suggest many novel and appropriate pieces.

*EXTRACT FROM THE SPEECH OF WILLIAM F. HOWE, IN DEFENSE OF BURTON
C. WEBSTER, FOR MURDER, IN THE NEW YORK GENERAL

“You remember the remark of the District Attorney that Evelyn Granville ‘was ONLY AN ACTRESS’?”

“I am no orator, as Brutus was. I lack the fire of Cassius. Neither can I stir you, like another Antony; but I speak like Antony when I say, ‘I am a plain, blunt man’; and, as Antony loved Cæsar, so do I love the Stage. I love the Stage for its teachings, for the noble lessons of virtue it inculcates; and when it portrays vice, it does so that vice may be shunned and abhorred.

“As a rule, Society esteems actors and actresses, among whom are many noble, brilliant, cultured, highly-educated, refined, God-fearing women. They act and live on the stage, making it an abode of Charity and Christian sympathy. Thousands of them have died leaving memories revered and cherished, and thousands now live monuments of present adoration and respect.”

“THE STAGE,” sneered the prosecuting officer.

“I ignore this sneer, and brush it away with the contempt it merits.”

The North American Review.

“THE INTELLIGENT AMERICAN CITIZEN’S HAND-BOOK ON THE GREAT QUESTIONS OF THE TIMES.”

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW

has been in the van of American thought for more than three-quarters of a century, ranking always with the best and most influential periodicals in the world. The New York Sun says of it:

constantly offers to the public a programme of writers and essays that excite the reader and gratify the intellectual appetite. In this respect there is no other magazine that approaches the NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.”

It is neither a partisan nor a sectarian publication, but in which intelligent people are interested are promptly discussed in its pages, and facts and arguments presented with all the ability and logical force of the most eminent writers in the world.

ALL SIDES OF ALL QUESTIONS

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Among recent contributors to the REVIEW on these subjects may be named CLARA MORRIS, EDMUND C. STANTON, W. H. CRANE, THEODORE THOMAS, CHARLES WYNDHAM and WALTER DAMROSCH.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

During the current year the REVIEW will be of special interest and value, as it will lay before its readers the ablest discussions of the important questions of the campaign, prepared by the recognized leaders in the several political parties.

The REVIEW is for sale by all newsdealers, or will be sent postpaid by the Publishers.
Price, 50 cents per copy ; $5.00 per year.

❖ KEY WEST CIGARS. ❖

AMONG the manufacturers of the North who early recognized the advantages of Key West was the firm of Celestino Palacio & Co. After a successful beginning in New York, the manufacturing branch of their business was removed to Key West, where they have made steady progress along the highway of success.

This firm has achieved an enviable reputation during the seven years of its existence. As manufacturers of high grade, clear Havana cigars, they rank among the leaders, the product of no other excelling in character, workmanship, shape and style, the production of their factory; and many falling far short in some essential detail which enables wholesale and retail tobacconists to build up a successful and profitable trade. In this particular the packings issued by this firm are excellent and many are original.

It should also be stated that at no time since this firm started in business have they ever used any material in their cigars except the highest grade Havana tobacco.

They issue several brands, of which the "EL TELEGRAFO" and "LA ROSA" are the best known. They employ in their factory (No. 60 District of Florida) five hundred people, experts in the art of manufacturing cigars, and produce twelve million (12,000,000) annually.

In the spring of 1888 Mr. Celestino Palacio retired from business, and Mr. Ferdinand Hirsch, the remaining partner, purchased the good will, brands and property of the firm, and it is under his sole direction and management that the present degree of prosperity has been attained.

On January 1st, 1891, the firm of Celestino Palacio & Co. was succeeded by The Ferdinand Hirsch Company, incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, with a paid-up capital of $250,000, with the former sole owner of Celestino Palacio & Co., Mr. Ferdinand Hirsch, as President, Mr. Domingo Villamil, Vice-President, and Mr. William Boehmer, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer. The office and salesroom are located at 105 and 107 BEEKMAN STREET, NEW YORK.

History of the Actors' Fund.

THE actual formation of the Fund dates from Monday, March 12, 1882, on which day a meeting of theatrical managers was held at the Union Square Theatre, fifteen places of amusement being represented. Soon after several benefits were given, the police aiding in the sale of tickets, and many large contributions were made, the largest being that of James Gordon Bennett, which was $10,000. On June 8, 1882, the Actors' Fund of America was legally incorporated, 57 leading professionals being in the list of incorporators. The word profession was defined in the act of incorporation to include all who earn a living in connection with the theatre.

Ten applications for aid were received at the first meeting of the temporary relief committee—a wardrobe woman, an acrobat, a manager, and a stage carpenter being among the applicants, which clearly illustrates that the intention of the founders of the Actors' Fund was to make its charities of the broadest possible kind.

The first general meeting was held on Saturday, July 15th, and the following officers were elected: Lester Wallack, president; A. M. Palmer, vice-president; Theodore Moss, treasurer; and Daniel Frohman, secretary. The trustees for the first year were as follows: Lester Wallack, Albert M. Palmer, Edwin Booth, Edward Harrigan, Henry E. Abbey, William Birch, William Henderson, Joseph Jefferson, John F. Poole, Marshall H. Mallory, Phineas T. Barnum, Lawrence Barrett, William J. Florence, Joseph K. Emmet, Harry Miner, John H. Haverly, and William E. Sinn.

One of the earliest provisions made by the trustees was for the burial of destitute actors. Quarters were generously given to the Fund this year by Harrigan & Hart, in the Theatre Comique, opposite the New York Hotel, on Broadway.

The benefit on April 12th, 1883, netted a considerable sum, the police aiding in the sale of tickets.

Thus the Actors' Fund received through these large contributions and benefits its first great impetus in an excellent showing of cash assets.

On June 8th, 1883, a second annual meeting was held at Wallack's Theatre, the reports showing that the total receipts from March 12, 1882, up to this date, were $57,392. Burials and the care of the sick had called for the expenditure of $12,349; nearly 200 professionals had received relief and 22 had been buried. The balance was $43,249, with $25,545 of the amount invested in United States bonds. The officers were re-elected. A committee was appointed to secure a burial plot, and the trustees were given wide power in matters of relief.

The season of 1883-'84 was not a prosperous one for the Fund. The experiment of a series of simultaneous benefits, all given on April 17th, 1884, brought in but a small sum, and the report at the annual meeting, June 3, was discouraging. The entire benefits had only brought in $7,913; the disbursements, $13,787. Forty-two professionals had been buried, and 168 relieved. The following officers were elected: H. C. Miner, president; William Henderson, first vice-president; William E. Sinn, second vice-president; Samuel Colville, treasurer; and Harry Edwards, secretary. Mr. Benjamin A. Baker was engaged by the trustees as assistant secretary.

On December 23d the Theatre Comique was burned, and many of the papers of the Fund destroyed. The offices were then established at No. 12 Union Square.

The efforts of the trustees, and counsel of the Fund, in the meanwhile secured a great and considerable advantage in the passage of an amendment by the Legislature of the State to the Theatrical License law. Before this the tax paid by the theatres had gone to the Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents. Since then the distribution of the sum has included a part for the Actors' Fund.

On June 2, 1885, the fourth annual meeting was held. The reports showed that the year's receipts had been $14,115; expenditures, $10,617; also that 51 professionals had been buried, and 234 cared for in sickness. The following officers and trustees were elected: A. M. Palmer, president; William E. Sinn, first vice-president; John F. Poole, second vice-president; Samuel Colville, treasurer; Harrison Gray Fiske, secretary; trustees, A. M. Palmer, William E. Sinn, John F. Poole, Samuel Colville, H. C. Miner, William Henderson, Arthur Wallack, M. H. Mallory, James W. Collier, Edward Aronson, Antonio Pastor, Edwin Knowles, J. M. Hill, Eugene Tompkins, I. Fleischman, Samuel Fort, and John P. Smith.

On June 8th, 1886, the fifth annual meeting was held. The year's receipts were $17,450; disbursements, $19,901; and 59 professionals had been buried and 289 relieved. The burial plots in the Cemetery of the Evergreens had been purchased, for which $3,600 were paid. The following officers and trustees were elected: A. M. Palmer, president; William E. Sinn, first vice-president; John F. Poole, second vice-president; Samuel Colville, treasurer; Harrison Gray Fiske, secretary; trustees, A. M. Palmer, H. C. Miner, Samuel Colville, William Henderson, John F. Poole, M. H. Mallory, Edward Aronson, Antonio Pastor, T. H. French, E. G. Gilmore, R. E. J. Miles, I. Fleischman, Eugene Tompkins, Edwin Knowles, R. M. Hooley, John P. Smith, and Harry Watkins. The next fiscal year—1886-'87—was in every way prosperous. Mlle. Morlachi, the danseuse, gave by her will the first legacy ever left to the Fund—which added to its treasury $1,100.63.

Smith, Harry Watkins.

The eighth annual meeting was held on June 4th, 1889. The receipts for the year were $27,422.03; expenditures, $21,838.00; and 59 professionals were buried, and 324 were relieved. At this meeting several important changes were made in the personnel of the officers and board of trustees, and the following were elected: A. M. Palmer, president; Louis Aldrich, first vice-president; William Henderson, second vice-president; Frank W. Sanger, treasurer; Charles W. Thomas, secretary; trustees, A. M. Palmer, Louis Aldrich, William Henderson, Frank W. Sanger, Charles Thomas, Joseph F. Wheelock, Joseph W. Shannon, F. F. Mackay, W. J. Florence, De Wolf Hopper, Harrison Gray Fiske, Edmund C. Stanton, Edwin H. Price, Edwin Knowles, Martin W. Hanley, Antonio Pastor, Joseph Arthur.

The ninth annual meeting was held June 3d, 1890. The receipts of the year were $32,527.62; expenditures (including the payment of $5,005.48 principal and interest of mortgage of the burial plots), $30,521.55; and 55 professionals were buried, and 317 relieved. The following officers and trustees were elected: A. M. Palmer, president; Louis Aldrich, first vice-president; Edwin Knowles, second vice-president; Frank W. Sanger, treasurer; Charles W. Thomas, secretary; trustees, A. M. Palmer, Louis Aldrich, Frank W. Sanger, Charles W. Thomas, Joseph W. Shannon, F. F. Mackay, W. J. Florence, De Wolf Hopper, Daniel Frohmam, Edmund C. The various incidents in the history of the Fund are set forth in its annual reports. These reports are made at the yearly meetings, and on these occasions addresses have been made by distinguished men—ex-President Cleveland, Senator Hill, Chauncey M. Depew, Gen. Sherman, Gen. Horace Porter, Robert G. Ingersoll, Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett, William Winter, Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, Daniel Dougherty, Dion Boucicault, Murat Halstead and others. The Fund now has commodious quarters, with a reading room and a library, at 12 West 28th street. In the not distant future, it is hoped, it will be able to build its own house. To recount the incidents connected with the Fund, to speak of the care it has given to the humblest as well as to the most distinguished unfortunates, would be only to tell of what is in the very nature of its work. President Palmer in his last report, 1890-'91, thus summarizes what has been done :

“I feel it my duty to recapitulate to you each year the character and the amount of work we have accomplished since the beginning. In the nine years covered by the operations of the Fund we have expended for relief, burials, medicines, hospital charges, and burial plots, etc., the sum of $156,314.42.

The number of people to whom in these years we have afforded relief, without which they would have either had to suffer utter destitution or to become public charges, is 2,571. We have given decent and proper burial during this time to 509 unfortunate professionals.

The secretary's report for the year shows that the number of persons to whom relief has been extended is 438, an increase of nearly 40 per cent. over the number reported last year.

I wish to call attention once more in this connection to a fact which, in the estimate of our work formed by the public, is somewhat overlooked, and that is the absolutely broad scope of our charities. The poor singer or dancer of the music hall or dime museum can turn to this Fund, in the hour of sickness and distress, with as much certainty of assistance and relief as would the well-known actor or actress of the regular theatres. Some good people have urged upon us that this is a mistake, and that the benefactions of the Actors' Fund should be restricted to those who come legitimately under the designation of actor or actress. But we are convinced, after nine years' experience, that the broad and liberal policy established at the foundation of the Fund, and pursued without deviation up to this time, is by far the best, not only in that it brings great good to a large number of needy persons who without its help would be utterly destitute, but also in that the Association, through the absolutely impartial, unrestricted and undiscriminating character of its charities, wins for itself the commendation, the kindly interest, and oftentimes the sincere and earnest friendship of thoughtful persons both inside and outside our profession who take the pains to inform themselves as to its methods and as to its work. Many so-called "charities" are so hampered by rules and restrictions that the work they set out to do is never more than half done, the moneys they profess to dispense in charity are largely consumed in maintaining expensive staffs of officers, whose business seems to be not so much to care for the legitimate beneficiaries of their societies as it is to guard themselves against imposition. For one, I hope that it will always be the proud boast of our Association that it has never failed to help the needy, even though it has to confess that it has been sometimes imposed upon by the unworthy.

The number of burials paid for by the Fund the past year is extraordinarily large, being in all 66. Of these, 57 were in New York and Brooklyn, 1 in Boston, 2 in Chicago, 1 in Philadelphia, 1 in Baltimore, 1 in San Francisco, 1 in Spokane Falls, 1 in Hoboken, and 1 in Washington.

During the year the number of physicians on the staff of the Fund has largely increased, the total number at the present time being 31. Fourteen of these are located in New York and Brooklyn. The others are in Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Washington, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Jersey City, Baltimore, San Francisco, New Orleans, Saratoga Springs, Albany, Kansas City, Mount Clemens, Mich.; Pittsburgh, Denver and Dubuque. During the past year our physicians in the metropolis have made 1,942 visits to the sick people in our charge."

The wonderful growth of the Fund will perhaps be best evidenced by a perusal of the following list of officials, physicians, corresponding secretaries, etc., who are devoting their time and attention to the proper distribution of the Fund's charities, all of them, with the exception of the necessary clerical force in the office, volunteering their services.

THE LEADING JOURNAL OF ITS CLASS.

THE records which had been TWENTY-FIVE years in accumulating in the office of Wm. T. Porter were purchased as a plant for the TURF, FIELD AND FARM, and the now popular journal was established in 1865. It is the organ of the great breeding interest. Its office is the place where thoroughbred horses are registered, and where the trotting and pacing records are compiled and published. * * * * It established Bench Shows, Field Trials and Gun Trials in America. The champions have signed articles of agreement for great matches in the office of the TURF, FIELD AND FARM. The paper is a live one, sparing no pains to collect the freshest information. It also is fearless in discussion. Being vigorous in the expression of intelligent thought, its views are widely quoted in America and Europe. It is the cheapest and best publication of its class in our land, if not in the world.—News Company Trade Bulletin.

NONE TO COMPARE.

For a paper combining so much that is practical there is no publication to compare with TURF, FIELD AND FARM, published in New York. It is edited with the utmost care in all its departments, and there is not a single number which would not amply pay the cost of a year's subscription to those interested in the subjects treated.—New England Reform Standard.

APPOINTMENTS UNSURPASSED.

The TURF, FIELD AND FARM in its new and commodious quarters, 42-54 Times Building, have the best equipped and finest appointed offices of any similar publication in New York, if not in the country. * * * It has a very large circulation among the better class of those interested in the dog and horse, and it gives its readers more and better information for the money than can be found in any other journal. In fact, it gives so much exclusive news that "you ain't in it" if you don't read the TURF, FIELD AND FARM every week.—Metropolitan and Rural Home, New York.

THE NEWS, AND ABLY EDITED.

The TURF, FIELD AND FARM has introduced a new department, which is a great improvement in that already newsy paper. * * * The readers call for and get the paper which has the largest amount of reliable news.—The Graphic, Rushville, Ind.

MARKED SUPERIORITY.

"The kennel department of TURF, FIELD AND FARM is always fresh and breezy—like all others in that highly excellent journal. In the twenty-six years that have elapsed since the appearance of its initial issue it has won a host of friends; and it holds them as they were gained—by its marked superiority over publications of its class."—Sports a' field.

CHARACTER AND NUMBERS.

I advertised in TURF, FIELD AND FARM Nov. 13, and have received many inquiries and business; it was not the number of inquiries that pleased me so much as the character of them. They were all from men who meant just what they were writing about. And it is a great satisfaction to answer a letter of that nature.—G. O. S., Wheeling, W. Va.

TO OUR PATRONS

The greatest of all dramatists has said that "one touch of nature makes the whole world kin." There is no appeal to humanity which is responded to with more glad good will and with more practical benevolence than the cause of charity. At the same time the obligations that mankind owes to its fellows in this respect are purely voluntary. It is for this reason that the members of the Committee of the Actors' Fund Fair feel a supreme sense of gratitude to the many who have come forward so nobly and so generously in behalf of the Actors' Fund of America. They desire to especially express their deepest gratitude to the business men of the community for their gifts to the Fair, and to the advertisers who have so generously contributed their share toward the financial success of this "Souvenir of the Actors' Fund."

The National Conservatory of Music of America.

126 and 128 EAST 17th ST., NEW YORK.

INCORPORATED SEPTEMBER 21, 1885.

President, Mrs. JEANNETTE M. THURBER.

Treasurer, Hon. HENRY W. CANNON.

Secretary, CHARLES INSLEE PARDEE, A. M.

Founded for the benefit of Musical Talent in the United States, and conferring its benefits free upon all applicants sufficiently gifted to warrant the prosecution of a thorough course of studies, and unable to pay for the same, and upon others of the requisite aptitude on the payment of a small fee.

To American Composers and Authors :

The National Conservatory of Music of America, desirous of emphasizing the engagement of Dr. Antonin Dvorak as its Director by a special endeavor to give an additional impulse to the advancement of music in the United States, proposes to award prizes for the best Grand or Comic Opera (Opéra Comique), for the best Libretto for a Grand or Comic Opera (Opéra Comique), for the best Piano or Violin Concerto, and for the best Symphony, Oratorio and Suite, or Cantata, each and all of these works to be composed or written by composers and librettists born in the United States and not above thirty-five years of age. The prizes shall be as follows :

SUBJECTS AND PRIZES.

For the best Grand or Comic Opera (Opéra Comique), words and music,	-	$1,000
For the best Libretto for a Grand or Comic Opera (Opéra Comique),	-	500
For the best Symphony,	-	500
For the best Oratorio,	-	500
For the best Suite or Cantata,	-	300
For the best Piano or Violin Concerto,	-	200

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

1. Each work must be in manuscript form and absolutely new to the public.
2. Its merits shall be passed upon by a special jury of five or more competent judges.
3. The works to which the prizes shall be awarded shall be made known to the public under the auspices of the National Conservatory of Music of America, whose operatic conductors, vocalists, instrumentalists, choral forces, etc., insure an ensemble that must add largely to the effectiveness of the compositions.
4. The National Conservatory of Music of America reserves the right to give three public performances of the works to which prizes shall be awarded ; these shall afterwards be the property of the composers and authors.
5. Manuscripts shall be sent for examination, to the above address, between September 1st and October 15th, 1892. The award of prizes will be made on or about November 15th, 1892.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT?

HAVE YOU DINED THERE? Where? Why, at "THE COLUMBIA" on Union Square. The talk of all New York. The most luxurious and magnificent place of its kind in the world. A perfect palace of delight, it stands unrivaled, and is first, last and all the time the best place in the city to obtain a table d'hote dinner, a lunch, a box of delicious confections, or a glass of most refreshing soda drawn hot or cold, with syrups made from pure fruit juices. Your attention is first drawn to "THE COLUMBIA" by its exquisitely arranged windows, each being composed of one solid slab of priceless onyx, dazzling in its purity and whiteness, and on these are arranged with rare tact and skill the choicest confections. But once across the threshold and all else fades into insignificance. "Surely," you exclaim, "this must be Aladdin's palace." A vista of Mexican onyx, French plate mirrors, tapestries, plush and silk draperies, mosaic floors, moquet carpetings, and myriads of electric lights, twinkling like phantom will-o'-the-wisps from diamond-cut glass globes, is presented to your view, making a scene unequaled in its beauty, entralling, entrancing, and, once seen, will ever linger in your memory like a strain of heavenly music. As you enter the door the soda fountain first claims your attention, and well it might, for it is the largest, the handsomest and the most expensive ever made. Next come the counters of solid onyx, laden with sweets unsurpassed for purity and delicious flavor; then back of this the restaurant, seating 1,000. The band is playing, now soft and low, soothing your tired nerves, now stirring your very soul with a merry waltz. Well could you imagine yourself in fairyland, for rich tapestries adorn the walls and Persian rugs the floor, and splendor and magnificence are found within the door. But you with difficulty arouse yourself from the spell cast upon you by the beauty of your surroundings, and lo! like magic you are served with course after course of the choicest viands. Everything as tempting to the palate as the environments are to the eye. Surely more than this could not be said.

The accommodations for private dinner or theatre parties are such as to make even the most exacting delighted with the almost inexhaustible resources of this wonderful place. To fully appreciate the banquet rooms they must be seen. No pen can do justice to their luxurious furnishings. "THE COLUMBIA" is open every day in the year from 6 A. M. until midnight. The cost of fitting up this palatial edifice was $86,000. Everywhere is displayed the most refined taste and thorough knowledge of the beautiful in art. Not in a single instance could a suggestion be made that could add to its beauty or the comfort and satisfaction of its guests. The prices are marvelously moderate, the table d'hote dinner from 5 to 8 P. M. being but 75 cents. Charming music for banquets or dancing is furnished gratis.

NEW YORK, U. S. A.

Constant improvement has characterized the history of the Remington Standard Typewriter.

The new Model presents no startling novelty, and involves no radical departure from the principles of construction which have been approved by 20 years' experience.

The changes introduced into the 1892 model represent the carefully tested results of expert study of various points deemed capable of improvement.

Old users of the Remington will find advantages in the quality of the work, and ease as well as convenience of operation. New ones will soon discover that the 1892 Model will increase the prestige of the

CHARLES SEALE & Co.
Diamonds and Rare Jewels,

907 BROADWAY.

The Americans, as usual, wear some superb jewels, and by far the most striking woman in this respect was Mrs. John Bloodgood, wife of the well-known New York banker. A collarette three and one-half inches wide, completely studded with diamonds, worth $40,000, made by Chas. Seale & Co., was the sensation of the evening.—Court Journal, London.

DEAR MR. SEALE:

While my sister, Mrs. Robert Goelet, is not in need of the sixty-five grain pearl, she knows how rare it is to get a fine pearl of such a large size without blemish, and that at your price it is a great bargain; so she has agreed to take it.

Yours truly,

GEORGE HENRY WARREN, JR.

When any dispute arises about the quality or value of a diamond or a jewel, we consult Charles Seale. I do not think that there is a member of the Board who would not accept his judgment on precious stones without demur.

JOHN D. SMITH,

Pres. of the New York Stock Exchange.

While it is true Chas. Seale & Co. sell many thousand dollars worth of diamonds annually to members of our Exchange, of course to their advantage, still the members are indebted to them also for the unvarying consideration and integrity the firm employs in all their dealings.

Pres. of the N. Y. Produce Exchange.

THREE MONTHS, - 1.00

"Between the lines of raillery and cynicism to read great lessons of life, morality, and hope."

The newsiest, brightest, wittiest, wisest, cleverest, most original, and most entertaining paper ever published.

A complete and perfect journal for cultivated men and women, being a topical and outspoken critic and chronicle of the events, doings, interests, and tastes of the fashionable world. It is always up to date, and carries with it the atmosphere of the metropolis.

In purity and power of literary style it has no equal on this continent.

A veritable symposium of well-bred satire; deftness and daintiness of touch; strength, independence, and originality of thought; refined humor; caustic comment; piquancy of jest; short stories; musical, dramatic, literary, and art criticism and topical sketches.

The fame of its Financial Department, as the most reliable authority on financial subjects, investments, and speculation, is world-wide.

Its interest is by no means local; being the recognized journal of American society, it is equally entertaining in all parts of the country.

Professionals will always find something of special interest to them in its columns.

TALES FROM TOWN TOPICS.

THE NEW QUARTERLY, BEGUN IN SEPTEMBER, 1891.

THE GREATEST BLESSING . . .
TO OVERWORKED PEOPLE IS . . .
“THE BUSY MAN’S MAGAZINE.”

⇒‡ The Review of Reviews, ‡⇐

AN ILLUSTRATED “NEWS” MAGAZINE, of high literary character and universal popularity, giving a monthly summary of the world’s progress and best thought, and making realities as interesting as fiction. Every number of the Review is a contemporary portrait gallery, presenting fifty or more new illustrations of men and women of the day.

Mr. Depew says it is THE BEST.

“I have been a reader of THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS since its publication. It is the best medium through which a busy man can keep abreast with magazine and review literature, which has now become so voluminous that, unless digested, no one can follow it.”

—CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

“THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS is the only monthly that collects critically and appetizingly the principal facts of current literature and life; to read a number is to resolve to never miss one.”—Boston Globe.

“We know of one high railroad official who for a month has worked until 11 o’clock at night, and yet has kept well informed of current world events. He reads THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS.”—Chicago Interior.

“Personally I derive more profit and instruction from it than from any purely literary magazine that comes to my table.”—GEORGE F. SHRADY, M. D.

“It is really invaluable. One turns to it more often than to any other periodical published. In an evening one is put into complete and intelligent touch with the world in all its departments of activity.”—EDWARD W. BOK, Editor Ladies’ Home Journal.

THE only periodical of its kind in the world! It is not a professional paper—it is not devoted to the tittle-tattle of the stage—it is not a narrow-minded gossip piece of impertinence about the private doings of actors. It is a magazine for the parlor table; it is a magazine that fathers, mothers and children can read and talk about together—a wholesome, courteous and intellectual discussion of the art, with breezy digressions into the domain of every-day life.

REMARKS BY THE PRESS.

Boston Daily Journal.—One never reads THE THEATRE without finding an item of especial interest.

Chicago Daily News.—THE THEATRE is a thoroughly readable little magazine.

Albany Argus.—The most dignified and scholarly discussion of theatrical and kindred art subjects to be found in this country are contained in THE THEATRE, edited by Mr. Deshler Welch. * * * A magazine which stands absolutely unrivaled in its line.

Columbus Dispatch.—THE THEATRE has a number of most delightful features. * * * It is a gem that sparkles.

New York Tribune.—This magazine shows continual improvement and appears to be very popular. * * * Bright and healthy in tone.

Boston Home Journal.—THE THEATRE has been something better than a purely theatrical magazine. Its literary as well as critical quality have been such as to command respect everywhere. Its editors are to be congratulated.

Detroit Free Press.—Deshler Welch's publication, THE THEATRE, deserves to rank with the leading magazines. Its title is rather misleading, as it is by no means confined to the stage, being rather a record of the arts in critical paragraphs from drama, music, literature and art to social sketches. The theatrical criticisms are written in a spirit of courtesy and good breeding, and show an independent editor. The "Entre Nous" department is a delightful digression about men and things.

New York Truth.—THE THEATRE is a clever publication, and I hope it is meeting with the success it deserves. It aims at elevating the drama, and should be encouraged. Its illustrations are always extremely good, and its letter-press bright and free from personalities.

Springfield Republican.—It gives the more important theatrical news of the day, without the wearisome columns of professional news which cumber the weeklies.

Des Moines Mail and Times.—It heads the list of dramatic publications emanating from Gotham.

Toledo Blade.—It blossoms with the brightest, cleverest talk about the stage and its people that can be found in this or any other country.

Boston Globe.—THE THEATRE is the select dramatic magazine of this country. It has a handsome letter-press and a handy form, and contains the choicest matter relating to the drama, music, art and literature.

Baltimore Telegram.—Deshler Welch's theatrical criticisms are specially bright and incisive.

Pittsburgh Bulletin.—It seems to be written by gentlemen for that rare class.

The New York Sun.—THE THEATRE is seemingly intended to run on a grade higher than the puff and abuse line, and therefore deserves to be kept going.

New York Home Journal.—THE THEATRE, by the way, is well fitted to be a welcome visitant in home circles interested in dramatic matters. It touches also with tact and taste upon the allied arts of music, painting and sculpture, and makes sallies into the domain of literary criticism. The limits of its space not permitting elaborate discussions, it is obliged to put what it has to say in pithy and pungent paragraphs, and is thus all the more a welcome entertainer ad interim.

Advertisers would do well to correspond with THE THEATRE MAGAZINE. Transient rates, 20c. a line. It reaches the class of people who have money to spend. It circulates throughout the United States.
