HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

We published a few days since an estimate of the Journal of Commerce, giving the state of parties in the House at the approaching Congress. That print makes the majority already returned 33, without taking into the calculation the elections yet to take place in the states of Mississippi and Maryland, and the five vacancies to be filled from Georgia and South Carolina. We give below our own estimate. The next votes of the session will test the accuracy of our information.

Governor — Pat. Hillsbury For. Porter (Anti Mason) 91 votes out of 100 for Governor from 91 towns. The whole vote for Governor (Anti) 9124, Bradley (Jr.) 7911, Patrick (N.) 2935. The Anti House of Assembly, so far as heard from, are divided thus: Anti Masons 91, Van Buren 67, Whigs 27.

A Van Buren Abolition meeting was held at Newhaven on Wednesday last, to ratify the Nomination of Governor Edwards being the result. A series of strong resolutions having been read by a Committee of which Mr Pierpont, the Mayor was Chairman, and several addresses made by Messrs. Ball and Pierpont, the Convention adjourned without the passage of any resolutions, but with the sentiment of decided private preference manifested.

We learn from the Wilmington (Del) Gazette, the following particulars.

Thomas Mayer's country tavern, Mary Reed, a free negro, was convicted of petty larceny and sentenced to be whipped with twenty one lashes on the bare back, and so do as a servant, to pay a fine of $4 and the expenses of prosecution.

The people of Arkansas have decided by a large majority, in favor of having that territory erected into a state. Michigan and Florida are soon to be admitted into the union, and including Arkansas, will increase the number of states to twenty seven.

Five thousand dollars have been offered in Mississippi to secure the arrest and conviction of any person who shall circulate Lovejoy, or any other paper, circular, pamphlet, picture or address of a seditious nature, within the limits of that state.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS — Extract of a letter from London: "Fur and velvet are the most fashionable for coats. Nothing is worn now but the ribbed cassimeres for pantaloons."

WATCHING BAGGAGE — The Rev. W. Reed (one of the late English tourists in the United States) says in his Narrative that while passing in a steamer, he saw an old lady sitting upon a box, watching the baggage at her feet, and singing frequently —

Great box, little box,
Band box and bundle —
One, two, three, four.

Great box, little box,

ERSKINE'S REJOINDER.
Once Erskine, famed for wit and law,
And good alike at pun or flaw,
Was stepping forth from out his coach,
Just at the Chancery Court's approach,
When his well-stored, close mouth blue bag
Was noticed by a would be wag,
Who prettily cried — "What have we here?
Old Clothes, friend Moses, that is clear."
Erskine the willing thus refutes:
"Not old clothes, blockhead, but new suits"
