

The Tubor Jfacsimíle Texts

© be  ©luo Anary Gillomen of Abingoon,  BY  HENRY PORTER.  1599

$$
\begin{gathered}
\text { Date of the first known edition, . . . . . I } 599 \\
\text { (British Museum C 34. d. 55.) } \\
\text { Another impression also issued in . . . . I599. } \\
\text { (British Museum, 162. d. 55.) } \\
\text { Reproduced in Facsimile, IgII. }
\end{gathered}
$$

Under the Supervision and Editorship of •
JOHN S. FARMER

©

Tho Angry Cillomen of Abindoon,

 BYHENRY PORTER.

I599
Issued for Subscribers by the Editor of THE TUDOR FACSIMILE TEXTS MCMXI

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { •汽 }
\end{aligned}
$$

The

Two Eingry Calomen of Abingoon,

BY HENRY PORTER.

I 599

From "Henslowe's Diary" and other sources, it would appear that Porter wrote several plays. The only one extant is "The Two Angry Women of Abingdon," now facsimiled from a copy of the earliest known edition in the British Museum. Another impression was issued the same year: of this there is one perfect example in the British Museum (Press-mark 162, d. 55) and two copies in the Bodleian.

The second of these was reprinted by Dyce in 1841 for the Percy Society; the first was used by Professor Gayley of the University of California as the basis of his text of the play in "Representative English Comedies" (1903). Dr. Gayley's "introduction" is the most important study of Porter that has yet appeared; no student can afford to neglect this critical essay, embracing as it does, all the discovered facts of Porter's life, a conjectural attempt at the identity of the man, his place in the dramatic activities of his day, together with a discussion of the vexed question of the lost parts of the Abingdon triad.

Mr. J. A. Herbert, of the Manuscript Department of the British Museum, after comparing this facsimile with the original copy, says that "it is for the most part excellent: slightly too heavily printed pages are B 1 verso, B 2 recto, B 4 recto, and C 2 recto."

JOHN S. FARMER.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2008 with funding from Microsoft Corporation

With the humorous mirth of Dicke Coomes. and Nicholas Proucrbes, twvo Seruingmen.

!. Asit mas lately playde by the right Honorable.

 .che Earle of Nottingham, Lord high. Admitall his feruants.> By Henry Porter Gent*

Imprinted at London for Villiam Ferbrand, and are eo be folde at his fhop at the cornerof

Colmau freete neere Loathbury.
1599:

The names of the peakers.
 Miṭ Barnes. Dick Cqomes. Fianke Gourrey. Hodgo.

The Prologue.  romoria p

Entle men, 7 conse sogee like one that lackes and Hrousd borrotp, bus was loasth to aske leaft bee Souls be denied: I would aske, bus 7 would afko Roobtaine: $O$, would 9 knewe thatimanner of asking: th: bey wribafe, and so cooche low and socarry an humble. Shew of entreatic, were 500 cher:out Curre Iocunnof rbide if, to pus on tha bapeand babit of this new Worlds new foundbeggar sumfermod Souldier s, as ibus: fowet Gentlemen, let apoore Scholler imiplore and exerate, rbat yous would make him rich in the poffefsion of a mite of $x$ pur fanours, to kecp bime a true ibian iniolf, did do pay jor, bis sodging among the CMufes: $\int$ God bim helpe be is driusen to ámoft, lows eftate etis not unknolione what feruice of wor ds be hath been at, he loft his lims volley of ieftes werch be shiall ?abab fore def bre yon: "\$ plague upon it, each Beadle dijdateget ivond whitip bin from your companie:Well Gontemen, I canhot tellitho into jed your fauours better then by defeet: : then theworfo lucke, or the wo fe wit or fome what, for 1 Batanor now deferveis. We lcome then, 7 commit my felferomy for-

Muddzal ytgot.gjeat!

The pleafant Comedy of the ## trio angry Women of Abington：Enter Mafter Gourfey and bis iwife，and Mafter Barues and bis Wiff，with their two fonnes，and their swoferuants． > c⿻上丨aifer Gourroy.

GOnd naifter Baines，this enterraine of yourso
So full of çurtefie and rich delight，
Makes me mifdoubt my poore ability，
In quittance of this friendly courtefie．
M，Bar．$\cup$ mafter Gour fey，ne ighbour amitie， $\qquad$
Is fuch a ie well of high reckoned worth：
As for the attaine of it，what would not I
Disburfe，it is fo precious in my thcughts． eM，Gos．Kinde fir，neere dwelling a mity indeeds
Offers tho hearts enquiry betrer visw．
Then louethats feated in a farther foyle，
As profpe Etiues the neerer that they be，
Yeld better iudgement to the iudging eye？
Thinges feene farre offare leffenédinthe cye，
When their nue chape js geexe being hard by

Mecre amity familiar neighbourhood．
The coufen germaine vnto，wedded loue．
M．Gow．I fir，the rs furely Some aliance twixt thems
For they haus hoththe offerpring from the heart，
Within the hears bloud Ocean fitilare found．
Iewels of aniziv，and lenmes ofloue．
M．Bry．I malter Gourfer，I have in ny time，

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Seenc imany flipwracks ef true honefty, But incident fuctidangers euer are,
To them that withour compaffe fayle fo farre, Why what needmen to fwim when theyniay wade?
But leare thistalke, enough of.this is faid.
And Maffer Goutley, in good faith for wellcome:
And miltreffe Gourley, lam muchin debe,
Vnio your kindnes that would vifitme.
Mi.Gou. O mafter Barnes, you pot me but in minde,

Of that which I thould fay:tis we that are
Indebeed to your kindnes for this cheere:
Which debe that we may repay, I pray lets haue,
Somerimes your company, at our hoinely boufe.
M. . Bar. That mifteffe Gourfey you Mhall furely haues.

Hecle be a bolde gueft 1 warrant ye,
And boulder toowith you then I would have him.
Mr. Gou. How doe ye meane he will be bolde with mef
M.Bar. Why he will erouble you at home forfooth.

Often call in, and aske ye.how. ye doe: :
And fie and chat with you all day thll nighe,
And all night tooifhe might haue his will:
M.Bar, I wafe indeed, Ithianke her for her kiadnes,

She hath made me much good checre paffing that way:
Mi.Bar. Paffing well doneofher, fhe is a kinde wenchy

I thanke ye miftrefe. Gourfey for my husband,
And if it hap your husbiad come our way:
A hunting, or fuch ordinary portes,
Ile doe as nuch for yours, is you for mineí
M Gou Pray doe forfooth, Gods Lord what meanes the
She fpeakes it feornefully, $I$ faith I care not,
Things are well looken, if they be well taken,
What iniftreffe Barnes, is it not time to part?-
Mif.Bar. Whats à clocke firrat.
2icbolas, Tis but new frucke one.
M. Gou, I have fome bufines In the comeby tiree:
M. Bar. Till then lets walke into the Oichardfre:

What canyouplayat Tablese
M. Gon Xes, I cam

angry wamen of Abington.

M.Bar. What, hall we lave a gamer
M. Gou, Andifyou pleafe.
M.Bar I faith content, weele spand an hower !o:

Sirra fetch the Tables.

> 2ic, I will:fir

Phil.Sirra Frankes, whill they are playing heeres
Weele tathe greene to Bowles.
Fra. Phillip conten,, Coomes come hythei firra;
When our. Fathers part, call ivs vpon che greene.
Phillip come, a rubber and foleake. :
Phil,Come on.
Exennt.
Coom. Sbloud, I doe not like the hiumour of thefe fpringals; theil fpend all their fathers good. at ganming:. But let them rrowle the bowles ppon the greene:- Ile crowle the bowles in the Butcery, by:the leaue of God and maitter: Barnes: and his men be good fellows, foit is, if they be not $t$ let them goe faickip:i

Exirs:

Enter Nicholas.wist she Tables.

M.Bar, So fet then downe,

Mifteffe Gourfoy; how. doe you like shis game? :
Mi.Gom.Well fire.
M.Bar, Can ye play atit?

Mif.Gou. A little fir.
M. Bar. Faith fo can my wife:

M, Gon, Why then matter Barnes, and ifyou pleafe;
Our, wiues fliallery the quarrellewixt vs two, And weele looke on? ?
OM. Bar. I am contene, what woman will you playz:
Mif.Gon. I care not greatlyo.
MS.Bap. Nor I, but that I thirwe fheele play me falle.
M. Goudle fee fhe fhall not.
CMi.Ba. Nay fir, fhe will be fure you fhall not fee.

You of all inen fiall notmarke her hand,
She hath fuch clofe conueyance in her playo,
M. Gow, Is fhe fo cunning growne, come, come, lets fee.

Mif:Gon. Yea miftris Barnes, will ye not houle your jefts?.
But let thèm rome abroad fo carrelenly?
Faith, if your icalious. ongue vtter another,

A pieafant Comedie of the two

Ile croffe ye with a ieft, and ye weremy mother,
Come fhall we play?
Mif Bar I, what fhall we play a ganc?
Mif. Gou. A pound a game.
M.Gou.Howwife?

Mif. Gou: Faith husband, not a farthing leffe; M. Gou.It is too much, a fhilling weregood game.
M.Gou, No,weell beilf hufwiues once,

You hauc of been illinusbands, lets alone.
CM.Bar. Wife, will you play lo much:

Mif Bar. I would beloath to be fo franke a gaimfter
As miftreffe Gourfey is, and yet for once;
Ile play a pound a game afwellas fhe.
-M.Bar.Goto,youle haue your will, Offercogoe frow them.
MIf: Bar. Come, ther's my ltake.
eMvf.Gou, And ther's mine.
M. $\mathrm{S}_{\mathrm{B}}$ Bar. Throw for the Dice: Ill luckshey are yours?
eM. Bar.Mafter Gour cy, who fayes that ganings bad,
When fuch good Angels walke twixt euery caft?
M. Gou. This is nor noble fport, but royali play.
M. Bar It muft be fo where royals walke fo fatt,

Mif.Bar. Playright I pray.
Mi.Gou. Why fo I doc.

Mis.Bar. Where fiands your man?
Mis.Gou.In his right place.
M. . Barr. Good faith, Ithinkeye play ine foule an Ace, :-
M. Bar. No wife, fhe plages ye true.
$M$ I.Bar.Peace husband, peace, ile not be iudged by you.
Ms. Gon. Husband, mafter Barnes, pray both goe walke.
We caninat play, if fitanders by doc tellie.
M. Gor.W all to your game, we will not trouble ge.

Goc from shem.
Mi. Gou. Where fands your man now?

Mi, Bar. Doth he not ftand right?
Mr. GouiIt Itands.b:tweene the poistes.
Mi. Bar. And thatsmy pight.

But yet me this hesthe dice runnes much vneuen,
That I throw butdewes afe and you cieuen.
angyy women of A bington.
Mu, Gou, And ec. you fee that $\Gamma$ calt downe rhe hill,$M_{1}, \mathrm{Ba}_{1} I$, [behrew ye,tis nint with my will.Mif, Gou. Do ye beforew me?
$M_{1}, B^{3}$ ar. No, I befhrew the dice.
That turne you vp more at once, hen me at twife.
$M_{1}$, Gok. Well, you fhall fee them turne for you anon.
Mio Bar. But I care not for them when yourgaric is doneMi. Gou. My game, what game?
M.'Bar. Your game, your. game at tables.
Mi.Gou.Well maltreffe, well, I hane redeferops fables,And know your morrals meaning, wellenough.
Mi, Bar, Loe you'l be angry, now, hiceres good fuffe,
M. Gourn How now woman, who hath wonne the game? :
Mi Gou, No body yet.
OX. Bar. Your wite's thefaireff far't.
Mi Bar. Iin youreye. M. Jous.How do you meanes
Mi Bar. He holds you faircr for't thent.
Mi. Gou, For what furfootls?

- Mit $\imath_{\mathrm{B}}$ ar. Good gamfter foryour game:
M,Bar.Well,try it out,e's all butin the bearing.
Mi, Bro,Nay ifit come to bearing, Thes'l be beit.
Mi.Gou. Why s, you'r as good a bearer as the relt.
Mi. Bar. Nay, hats not fo, you beare one man too many-
Mi. Gou, Betcerdoe fo then bearemotany.
en. Ba. Befhrew me, but my wiues ieftes grow too bitter.
Plainer fpeeches for her were nore itter,
Malice lyes inbowelled in her tongue,
Andnew hatcht hate makes euery iffla sprong.
Mi.Go.Looke ye miftreffe now I hit yee.
Mi.Bar, Why J younéuer res to mifle a blot,
Efpecially when it ttands fo faire:so hit.
Mi.Gou. How meane ye miftreffe Barnes?
Mi, Ba. That miftreffe Gourfe'sinnebe hitting waine
Mi,Gou, Ihot yourman.
Mi. Bard $I_{i} I m y$ mangny man, But had $I$ knowne,
I, wouldhaue had my man foudneerer home.
Mi.Gou.Why hedyc kep pyoigmon in bis right place;
I Chould noctil eq haur hit him withan, afe:

A pieafant Comedic of the two
Mif.Bar.Right by the Lord, a plague upon the bones:M. Gou. And a hot mifchiefe on che curfer too.M. Bar. How now wifed
M. Geur. Why whats the mater woman?
Mi. Gor. I is notmatter. I 2 m .
M1.f.Bar.I.youare.
Mi Gou. What am I?
Mif. Bar. Why thats as you will be euer.
Mif.Goul. Thats eucry day as good as Barnefes wife.
Mi BariAnd better too, then what needs all this trouble?
A fingle horfe is worfe then that beares double.
ex. Bai Wife goro, hawe regard to that you fay;
Leenoíyour words paffe foorththe vierge of reafon:
But keep withinthe bounds of modeßty,
For ill report doth likea Bayliffe ftand,
To pound the Praying; and the wit-loft tongue;
And makes it forfeit into follies hands
Well wite, you know tis no honeft part,
To entertaine fuch guêts with iefts and wronges,
What will the neighbring country vulgar fay,
When as t.ry heare that you fell out at dinner?
Forfoorh they'I call it a por quarrell fraight,
The beft they'Inaine it, is a womans iangling,
Gotoo, be rulde; berulde.
: Mi BarGods Lord, be rulde, be rulde,
What, thinke ye I hauefuchababies wit,
To hane a rodscorrection formy iongue?
Schoole infancie; Iam of age to fpeake,
And Iknow when to fpeake, hall I be chid for fuchat
Mi,Gon. What ą̣ nay miltreffe fpeake it out,
I feorne your topt compares, co npare not me
To any bur your equals, miftreffe Barnes,
M. Gom Peace wife be quiet.
M. BarO perfwade, perfwade .
Wife, miftreffe Gownfey, flalli winhe your choughts
To compofition offome kindeeficets?
Wife, if you lone your credipleape this Atrife,
And come Aiakeliands with mintiffe gempo heero, bluonil I

angry voomen of A bington.

Mi. Ba. Shall I hake hands? Icther go fhake her heeles, She gets nor hands, nor frieididhip at my hands, And fo fir uhile Iliue I will take heed, What guefts I bid againe vnto my houfe. (ablurdines? M.Bar. Impatient woman, will you be fo ffiffe in this Mi. Ba, I amimpatient now I peake, But fir Ile tell youmore an other time,
Go too, I will not take ic as I haue done, Exit. Mif, Gou. Nay, fhe might ftay, I will not long be heere
To crouble her: well maifter Barnes,
Iam forry that it was our happes to day,
To haue our pleafures parted with chis fray,
I am forrie too for all that is amiffe,
Efpecially that you are moou'de in this,
But be not fort's but 2 womans iarre,
Their tongues are weapons, words their blowes of warre,
T'was but a while we buffered you faw,
And each of vs was willing to withidraw,
There was no harme nor bloudthed you did fee:
Tuth feare. vs not, for we fhall well agree:
Itake my leaue fir, come kinde harted man,
That fpeakes his wife fo faire, I now and than,
I know you would not for an hundreth pound,
That I chould heare your voyces churlifh found.
I know you haue a farte more milder tune
Then peace, be quiet wif, but Ihaue done:
Will ye go home'? the doore directs the way,
But ifyou will not, wy dutic is to flay.
M.Bar. Ha, ha, why heres a right woman, is there not?

They both haue din'de, yce fee what formacks they haue:
M, Gou. Well maifter Barnes, we cannot do with all,
Letvs be friends fill:
M.Bar.O mailter Gour fey, the mettell ofour minds,

Hauing the temper of truc reafon in them,
Afioordes a better edge of argument,
For the maintaine of our familiar loues,
Then the fof leaden wit of women can,
Wherefore with all the parts of neighbour louse,

A pleafant Comedie oftherwo

I impartmy felfo to nuaifter Gourey.
M. Gou. And withexchange oflone I doreceise its $M_{i} B_{i} O$ O where fhall we find a man foblefthatisnor, But come, your bufineffe and my home alfaires;
Makes me deliuer that vnfriendly wordemongiffiends; M, Gou, Twentie farewels fir. $\quad$, M.Bar. But harke ye maifter Gourfeys .frive stit.

Looke ye perfwade at home as I will doy
What man, we mult not alwayes hatechem foes. M.Ge.IfI canhelpeit: M Bar. Gad helpe,God belpe, Enter Philpp, Fratrcis and his toy froin bowling. Thil. Come on Franke Gourfey, you haue good lucke to winne the game.
Fran. Why rell me, ift, not good that neuer playd before - vpon your greenc.

Phil. Tis good, but that it coft me ten good ctownes that makes it worfe.
Fran, Letit not greeue shee man, come ore toys,
We will deuife forne game to make you wins
Your moncy backe againe fivect. Pbulp.

But tellme Frincis, what goodflorfes thactseefeo hunt this Sommer?

Fra. Two or threc lades, or fo: Póil,Be they but Iades?
Eran: No faith my wag Atring here
Did founderone the lait time thatbe rid,
Thebef gray Nag that cuer laidmy leg ouen ot prothor
 Frase, Good fir the fáme.
B2y. Arid was the famc be beft obatereyourid on ennt?
Fran. I was it fir.
'Boy. I faith it was not fir.
Fran, No, where hadI one fogood ?
Boy-One of my colour and abecter poo zint, objuthy angry vomen of Abington.
Fran, One of yourecelour, I nere ven:eniber him Jone ofthat colours Bay, Or of that complexion.Frant Whats chatye call complexion in h hoffester on Boy, The colour fir,
Frak. Set me a colour on your ieft, or I will:Boy. Nay good fir hold your handso.
Fren, What, fhal we haue it?
Boo, Why fir, I cannot paint, Fran. Wellitien; Tcani,land I fhall find a peifinl| forye fir.
Boy. Theni: inuff finde the tablef your dor firan. A whorefon barren wicked vrchien.
Boy. Looke how you chafe, you would be angty more[ifl hould tell it you.
Fran. Go ro, Ile anget ye and if you do not'.
Boy, Why firs the horse thati Ido mexelat;Hath a leg both fraighéand cleane。 Thathath nor f paucnjp(line nor fizwe:But is the beff that euer yefaw,
A pretienifing knes, 0 kniect?
This palfray fandeth on no ground
When as my mailter'sont herbacke;
If that he oncedo fay bus, tickes .....

Her gallop amaine, fhe is fo free,
Andifhe giuèher bui a nod;
She thinkesitis àtidding rod:
And ifhee'l hauc her foity go,Then fhe tripgic like a Doef
She comes $f 0$ eafie with the raine,Atwine thred durnes her bäcke agaune,And truly Idid nere fee yet,
A horle play proudliet:on the bit,
My. maifter with good manaiging
Brought her firft vito the ring,
He likewife taught herto corvet,To rupne and fuddaniniesofet,

A pleafant Comedic of the two

Shee's cunnugg in the wilde goofe race,
Nay hee's apt to euery pace, And to prooue her colour good, A flea cnamourd of her blood, Digdfor channelsinherneck, And there made many a crimfon feck; I thinke theres none that rfe to ride, But can her pleafant trot abide, She goes fo euen vpon the way, She will not Itumble in a day, And when my ma fer. Fra; What do I?
Boy. Nay nothing fir. Phil, O fie Franke fie,
Nay, nay, your reafon hath no iuftice nolv,
I mult needs fay; perfivade hiun firlt tó lpeake,
Then chide him for it : tell me prettic. wag,
Where ftands his prawneer, in what Inne or flable &
Or hath thy maifter put her out to runne,
Then in what field, what champion feeds this courfers
This well palte bonnie fteed chat thou fopraifett.
Boy, Faith fir I thinke.
Erar. Villaine, what do yee thinke?
Boy, Ithinke that you fir haue bene aske by many,
But yet I neuer heard that yeetolde any,
Thil. Well boy, then I will addeone more tomany,
Aud aske thy maifter where thistennet feeds:
Come Frainke tell me, nay prethie tellme Franike,
My good horfe-mailter tell me, by this light
1 will not fteale her from the e : it I do,
Let rie beheld a felone to thy loue.
Fran. No Pbillipno.
Pbil. What,wilt the u were a poine but with one tag?
Well Erancis well, If ce you are: a wàg. . Enter Comes.
Comis wounds, where he thefe timber turners, thefetrowle the bowle s, thefe greene men, thefe:
Fran. What, what fir?
Comes, Thefe bowlers fir.

angry women of A bington.
Fra. Wellfir, what fay you to Bowlers?
Coo.Why I fay they cannot belaued.
Fri:X Our reafon fir?
Coo.Becaufe they throw a way their foules at enery markic
Fra, Their foules, how meane ye.
Pbi.Sirra he ine anes the foule ofour bowle.
Fra.Lord how his wit holdes bjas like a bowle.
Coo.Well, which is the Bras? : Era.T This next to you.
(io, Nay turne it this way, then the bowle goes true.
Boo.Rub,rub. Coo.Whyrub:
Boy. Why you ouercalf the marke and miffe the way.
Coo.Nay boy Ivfe totako che fairefinot my play.Phi:Dicke Coomes me thinkes shou art very pleafant.
When gotf thou thismimic humoitr?
Coo.In your fathers Seller, the meifriel place in th'houre.
Pbi:Then you haue beene carowfing hard,
Coo. Yes faith, $t$ is our cultome when your fathers men &
we meete.
Pbi Thou art very welcome thecher: Dieke.Coo:By God I thanke ye fir; frhabk yefr, by Cod I havea quart of Wine for yefir it a ahy place of the world, thereI will do, if you hauc any quarrell in hand, you hall hauethe maidenhead of niy new fword: I paide a quaztets wa-ges fort by Iefus.Pbi, Oh this meate failer Dicke,
How well t'as made apparellof fb 1 s wir,
And brought it into fafhion of anhonor,Prethe Dicke Coomés but tell me how shou dooff
$C_{o o}$.Faith fir like a poore inan atfertuice.
Phi.Or fervingman.Coo.Indedede fo called by the vulgar.
Phi. Why where the deuill had detliou that word?
Coo. 0 fir, you haue the thofteloqutent file inialt she world, our blunt foyle affo ordes no ine fuch,
Fra.Pbilltp leaue ralking with this ditukiken foole,
Say firra where's niny father?
Coo,Marrie I thanke ye for,my verle goodeticece, O Lord

A pleafant Comedie of the two

 it is not fo much worth, you fee I a mbolde withye, Indeed you are not fo bolde as welcome, I pray yee came ofner, Truly I fhill trouble ye,all the fe ceremonies are difpatehe betweene them, and they are gone:Fra.Are they fo?
Cooil before Godate they:
Fra. And whereforecame not you to call methen?
Coo. Becaufe I was loth to change my game,
F.c.Wbat game?

Coo; You were at one for of bowles, as I was atarpther,
Phis Sirra,he meapes the buttery bowles of beere. If sh
CooBy God firfó wé rickled it.
Fre; Why what a fuearing keepes this druaken afte
Canft thou notfay but fweare at euery word?
Pbe Peace do not marres his humour prethic Franke.
Coo liet him alonecoes's a pringall be knowes not what belonga to an paith.
Fra.Sirra, be quiet, or I doe protet.
Coo. Come, come what doc you proteft?
Frat By heauntocrack your Crowrio,
Coo, To crack my crowne, Ilay ye actowne of that,
Lay it downeand ye dare:
Nay sbloud, ile renter a quartess wages of dhats
Crack mp crowne quotha?
Fra.Will ye not be quite willye vrge me?
Coo, Vrgeyee withá pox whioyrges yet
You might haue faid fo much to a clowne.
Or one that líad not been óre the fea to fee fanhions;
Thacue tell ye true; and I know whit beloogs co, a man.
Ctack my crowne aud ye caphs.
Fra. And l can ye rackall. Pbi Held baire braine holde,
Doft thou not fee hees drunke?
Coo. Naytet him come,
Though he bemy mafters Sonne, I am my maftersifian,
And a man is a man in any groundin, England ${ }^{\prime}$ nicot 260
Come, and he dare, a comes yponhisdeath,
I will nor budge aninche no sbloud will Inos:
FraniWill ye nots.
Phi.

angty women of Abington.
Phi, Stay prichie Franke, Coomes dolt thou hearee
Coo.Heareme no heates
Stand away, lle tuff none of you all,
If Lhaue my backe againfta Carc whicele,
I would not care, if che deuill came Phi.Why ye foole I Iam your friend
Coo. Foole on your face, Thaue a wife.
Fra, Shees a whore then.
Con, Sheesas honeftas. Wan Lawfon.
Phi,Whats fhe?
Coo,One of his whores.
Pbi.Whis hath he fo many
Coo. Ias many asthere be Churches in Loirdon.
Pbil. Why thats a ri handred and nine,
Boy.Faith he lyes a huidred,
$P b i$, Then thou arta witres to nine?
Boy, No by God, lle be witnes to none:
Coo, Naw doe Illand like the George at Collbrooke:
Boy, No othou flandat tilie the Bullac S. Albones.
Coo.Boy ye lye the hornes:Boy.The Bu's bitten, fee how he buts,
Phil. Coves, Comes, put vp, my friend and thou airi friendsCoo.lle heare hini fay fo firf.
Phill Franke preithie doe be friends and ded $h$ hin f ,
EMa. Goeto (am).
Boy Put vp frinand ye bea man put vp,
Coom. I ameafly perfwaded boy:
$P$ bil, Ah yémad flaue.
Coowe s Come, come, acouple of whore -mafters 1 foundyee, and fo lleaye yee.
Phil Loe Franke dof thou not fee hees drunke,
That twits me with my difoofitiont
Fra. What dípofition?
Pbol, Nais La wfoin, Nan Eawfon. Fran, Nay then,Phil,Goc to ye wag, til will,
If euer yee ger a viffe; I faith 11 e tell.
Sirra at home we hauc a Seruingman,
Heesnothumiord bluatly as Coomes is,

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Yet his condition makesme often merrie, lle tell thee firra, hees a fine neate fellow, A fruce flaue, I warrant ye, heelc haule His Cruell garters croffe about the knee, His woollen hofe, as white as the driuen fnowe', His thooes dry leather neat, and tyed with red ribbins, A nofe-gay bound with laces in his Hat, Bridelaces fir his hit, and all greene hat. Greenc Couerlet, for fuch a graffégreene wit, The goole that grafe th on the greene quoth he, May I cate on, when you fhallburied be, All Prouerbes in his (peech,hee's prouerbs all. Fra. Why fpeakes he Prouelbs? Phi.Becaufehe would fpeake truth, And prouerbes youle confeffe, are olde faid footh. Fra.I like this well, and one day. Ile fee him, But fhall we part?
Pbil,Not yet, lle bringyou fomewhat on your way, And as we goe, betweene your boy and you, Ile know where that Praunfer ftands at teuery. Fra.Come,come, you fhall not. Philil I faith I will.

Enter mafter Barnes axd bis wive.

M. Bar. Wife in my minde, to day you were too blame

Although my patience did not blame ye for it:
Me thought the rules of loue and neighbourhood,
Did not direct your thoughits, all indirect
Were your proseedings, in the entertaine Of them that I inuited to my houfe. Nay ltay, I doe not chide bur counfellwife, And in the mildeft mannerthar Imay; You need not viewe me with a feruants eye, Whofe vaffailés Jences tremble at the looke Of his difpleafed mafter, O my wife, You are iny felie, when felfe fees fault in felfe. Selfe is finne obftinate, if felfe amend not, Indeede I fativ a fault in thee my felfe,

And ithath feta foyle vpon thy fame, Not ast he folle doth grace the Diamond. Mi, $B a$, What fault fir did you fee in me to day?
M.Bar. O doe not fet the organ of thy voice,

On fuch a gruanting key of difcontent:
Doe not deforme the beauty of thy tongue,
With fuch mifhapen anfweres, rough wrathfuh words
Are baflards got by ra hhoes in the thoughts,
Faire demeanors, are Vertues nuptiall babes,
The off fpring, of the well inftructed foule,
Olet hem call thee mother, then my wife
Sofeeme noi barren of good curteffe.
eMi.Bar. So, haue ye done?
M.B.Er.I,2nd I had done well.

Ifyou would do, what I a duife for well.
Mi.Bar. Whats that?

EM.Bar, Which is, that you would be goodfriendes with milfreffe Gour $\left(y y_{0}\right.$.
Mi. Bar. With miftreffe Gourfoy.
M.Bar. I fweet wife.

Mif.Bar. Not fofweethusband.
M, Bar. Could you but fhew me any grounded caure.
$\mathrm{M} \int$. Bar. The grounded caufe, I ground becaure 1 wil not
M.Bar. Your will hath litele ereafon then I thinke.
Mi.Bar. Yes fir, me reafon equallech my will.
M.Bar. Lets heare your reafon,for your wall is great:

Mi,Bar. Why for I will not.
M.Bar.Is all your reafon,for I will not wife.

Now by nyy foufe I held yee for more wife,
Difereete, and of more temperature in fence,
Then in a fullen humour to effect,
That womans will borne common fcholler phrafe,
Of haue I heard a timely married girle,
That newly left to call her mother mam,
Her father Dad, bue yefterday come from,
Thats my good girle, God fend thée a good husband,
And now being taught to feeake the name of husband,
Will when fhe would be wanton in her will,

A pleafant Comedie of thetwo

If her husband aske her why, fay for I will,
Haue I chid men for vomanly choyfe,
That would not fit their yeares, haue Ifeene thee
Pupell fuch greene yong things, and with thy counlell,
Tutor their wirs, and art thou now infected;
With this difeafe of imperfection,
Iblufh for thee a hamed at thy fhame,
Mi, Bar. A thame on her, that makes thee rate ne fo,
M, Bar O black mouth'd rage, thy breath is boyfterous,
And thou makft vertue fhake at this high forme,
Shees of good report, I know thou knowit it.
eMi, Bar. She is not, nor tknow not, but I knove
That thou dof loue her, therefore think 1 her $\{0$,
Thou bearftwith her, becaufe fhe beares with thee:
Thou maylt be athamed to ftand inher defence,
She is a frumper, and thou art no honefi man.
To ftand in her defence againlt thy wife,
If I catch her in my walke now by Cockes bone?
Ile ferarch out both her eyes.
M.Bar.O God!
Mi. Bar. Nay neuer fay O God for the matter,

Thou artshe caufe, thou badt her to my houfe,
Onely to bleare the eyes of Gour $/$ ey, didft nots
Buc I wil fend him word I warrant thee,
And ere Incepe to, eruft vponir fir.
Esipo:
M. Bar. Me thinks this is a mighty faulc in her

I could be angry with her: $O$ if I be fo,
I hall but put a Linke vnto a Torche,
And fo giue greater light to fee her faut:
Ile rather fmother it in melanchelly,
Nay, wifedome bids me fhunne that paffion,
Then I will ttudie for a remedy,
I haue a daughter, now heauen inuocate,
She be not oflike fpirit as her mother,
Iffo Theel be a plague vnto her husband,
If that he be not patient and difereet,
For that Ihold the eafe of all fuch trouble,
Well, well, L would iny daughter had a husband

angry women of A bington.
For I would fee how fhe eould demeane her felfes
In that eftare, it may be ill enough,
And fo God fhall help me, well remembred now,
Franke Gourfoy is his farhers fonne and heyre,
A youth that in my heart Thaue good hopeon;
My fences fay a match,iny foule applauides
The motion: O bút his liands are great;
Hee will looke high. why I will fraine my felfe.
To make her dowry equall with his land,
Good faith and twere a march twould be a meanes,
To make their mothers friends: 1 le call trixy daughter,
To fee how fhees difpofde to marriage:
Mall, where are yee?

> Enter Mall.
Mall, Fah her, hecre Iam M. Bat.Where is your mother?
Mal, faw her not forfooth, fince you and fie
Went walking both together to the garden.
M.Bn.Doft thou heare me gitlef Imuift difpute with thee
Mal. Fathes the queftion then niutt not be hard.
Por I am very weike in argument.
M.Bar. Weill, his sit is, I lay tis good to marry:
Mal. And this fay If,tis net good romarty.
M. Bar. Were if not good, then all men would net marry
But now they doe,
Mal, Marry not all,but is is good to marry:
M.Bardet is both good and bad, how can this be Ma/W'Wy itt is goodso them that marry well,
To them that marty ill, no greater hell.
M. Bav, If thou mightf many well, wouldft thou agree?
Mall. T cannot tell, heauen muftappoint for me.
M.Bar.WenchI am fudying fork hy goodindeed,
Mall My hapes & dutre,wifh yout thoughts good fpeed
M.Bar; Bur eellme wench, haftetiou a minde to marty:
Mall. This queftion is tóQ ${ }^{\text {anardfor baihhulnes, }}$
And Father now ye pofe my modeftie,
I am a maide, and when ye aske me thus,
Ilike a maidc mult blú m , looke pale and wan,
And then looke patè agaihefofo we changecolour,
20

A pleafant Comedie of the two

As our thoughts change, with true fac'd paffion, Of modeft niadenhead, I could adorne ine, And to your queltion, make a ober curfie, And with clofe clipt ciuility be filent, Orels fay no forfooth, or I forfooth, If I faid no forfooth, I lyed forfooth, Tolye vpon my felfe were deadly finne, Therefore I will fpeake truth and fhame the diuell. Father, when firf I heard you name a husband, At that fanc very name, my fpirits quickned, Difpaire before had kild them, they were dead, Becaufe it was my hap fo long to tarry, I was perfwaded I fhould neuer marry, And fitting fowing thus vpon the ground, Ifellintraunce of meditation, But comming to my felfe, O Lord faid I, Shall it be fo, mult I vnmarried dye? And being angry Father, farther faid, Now by faint Anne, I' will not dye a maide. Good faith, before I came to this ripe groath, I did accufe the labouring time of foath, Me thought the yeere did run but flow about, For I thought each yeare ten I was without,
Being foureteene, and toward the other yeare: Good Lord thought I, fif eene will nere be heere, For I haue heard niy mother fay, that then Prittie maides, were fiu for handfome men, Fiffeene palt, fixereene, and feuenteret too, What, thought $I$, will not this husband do? Will no man marry me, haue men forfworne, Such beauty and fuch youh? fhall youth be worne As rich mens gownes, more with age then $v f_{3}$ ? Why thear I Iet feftained fanfie loofe, And badit gaze for pleafüre: then loue fwore me To doe what ere my mother did before me, Yet in good faith, I was very loath, Bur now it lyes in you to faue my oarh: If IThall hauc a husband, get himquickly,

angry women of $A$ bington.

For mai des that weates Corke fhooes, may ftep awry. M. Bar. Beleeue ne wench, I doe not apprehe nd thee,

But for this pleafant anfwere do cominend thee:
I muft confeffe, loue doth thee mighty wrong,
But I will fee thee haue thy right ere long,
I know a young man, whom tholde molt fit,
To have thee,both forliuing and for wit,
I will goe write about it prefentle.
Mall, Good father do, O God me thinkes I fhould Wife it'as fine as any woman could:
Icould carry a porte to be obayde,
Carry a mailtering eye vpon my maide;
With minion do your bufineffe or lle make yee,
And to all houre authoritie be take me.
O God would I were married, be my troth;
But ifI benot, I weare Ile keepe my oath.
$\varepsilon_{n t}$, Mi.Ba.How nowminion, wher hate you bin gadding Mall, Forfooth my father called me forth to him.
Mi. Bar. Your Facher, and what faid he too ye I pray? Mall. Nothing forfooth.
Mi.Bar. Nothing'that cannot be, fomething he faid.
M.ll. I fomething, that as good as nothing was.
Mi.Bar. Come let meheare, that forthing nothing then

- Mal. Nothing bur of a husband for me mother.
Mi.Ba. A husband, that was fomthing, but what husband

Mall. Nay, faith I know not mother, would I did.
Mif. Bar.I would ye did, 1 fant are ye fo hafty?
Mall. Hafty mother, why how olde am I?
Mif. Ba, Too yongen marry. Mal, Nay by the maffe ye lie
Mother, how olde were you when you did marry.
Mif.Ba. How oldé io ere I was,yet you hall tarry.
Mall.Then the worfe for ne, hark Mother harke,
The Prieft forgets that erehe was a Clarke,
When you were at my yeeres, Ile holde my life,
Your minde was to change maidenhead for wife,
Pardon me mother, I am of your minde,
And by my troth I take it but by kinde. Mif.Bar.Doe ye heare dâuchter, you fhal, ftay my leafure

A pleạant Comedie of the two

Mall.Do you heare mother, would you fay fto pleafure When ye haue minde to it?'go to, there's no wrong
Like this, to let maides iye alone fo long
Lying alene shey mufe but in their beds,
How they might loofe their long kept maiden heads,
This is the caufe there is fo many lcapes,
For women that are wife, will not lead Apes
In hell II teI yee nother I fay true,
Therefore come husband, inaiden head adew. Exif. Mif. Bar. Wel lluftie guts, I meane to make yeftay? And fet fomerubbes in your mendes froothett way.

Enter Philip. '(walking? Pbi, Mother, Mi. Ba. How inow fira, where haue ge bia Phil.Ouer the meades halle way to Milion mother,
To beare myfriend Franke Gourley compariy.
Mi.Ba. Wher's yourblew coat your sword &buckler fir

Getyou fuch like habite for a feruungman,
If you will waight ypon the orat of Gour cy.
Phil, Mother, that you are ntoou'd this maks me wonder, When I departed I didleaue yee friends,
What vndigefted iarre hath fince betided :
Mi.Bar.Such as almof doth choake thy motherboy,

Aud fiffes her with the conceit of it;
I am abuide my fonme by Gourfeys wife.

- Pbil, By miltreffe Gourfey ?
e Mi. Bar, Miftrelde furt, you foule ftrungee,
Light aloue, Chort héeles, niftréfe GourJey,
Cail her againe and thou wert betterma.
Thil. O iny deare more hàue fome patience,
MS.Bar. Ifr, haue patience, and fee your father
To riflevp the treature of my loue;
And play the fpend l hativipon fuch an harlot?
This fame will nake ruc haue patience, will it not?
Phili, This fame is womens moftimpacienco;
Yet mother I haue often heard ye fay,
Tha you haue found my father temperate,
And cucr free froms fuchiaffoctionis.
Mi:Gar. I, cill spy too much loure did glut his thoughts,

angry women of Abington.
And make him feek for chäge. Ppi.O change your mindeMy father beares more cordiall loue to yous. (me.
Mi, B. Thoulieft, thou lieft,for he loues Gourfegs wife, not Phel, Now I weare mother you are much too blame,
Idurf be fworne he loues you as his foule.
Mi.Bar. Wilt thou be pampered by affection ?
Will nature teach the fluch vilde periurie?
Wilt thou be fworne, I forlorne, careleffe boy:
And if thou fwearf, 1 fay he loues me not.
Phil. He loues ye but soo well I Sweare,
Vnleffe ye knew much better how to vfe him.
-Mi.Bar. Doth he fo fir? thou vnnaturallboy,
Too well fayeft thou, that word fhall coft the formwhat;
O monftrous, haue I brought thee vp to this ?
Too well, O vnkinde, wicked and degenerate,
Haft thou the hearto fay fo of thy mother?
Well,God will plaguethee fort, I warrant thee;
Out on thee villaine, fie vpon thee wretch;
Out of my fight,out of my fight I ray.
Phit, This ayre is pleafant, and doth pleafe me well,
And here I will fay.
Mi, B, or, Wilt thou fubbornc villaine:?, Enter M.BaF,
W, Bar. How now, whats the matter?
Mi, Bar. Thou ferft thy fonne to fcoffe and mocke at me,
Ift not fufficient I am wrongd of thee?
But he mult be an agent to abufe ine?
Muft I be fubiect to my cradle too!O God,o God amêd it.
M. Bar. Why how now Phillip, is this true my fonne?
Pbil. Deare facher fhe is much impatient:
Nere let that hand affift me in my need,
If I more faid, then that fhe thought amiffe,
To thinke that you were folicentious giuen,
And thus much more, when fhe inferd it more,
I fwore an oath you lou'd her but too well,
In that as guiltie I do hold my felfe,
Now that I come to more confiderate triall,
I know nyy faule, I Thould haue borne with hew
Blame me for ralhneffe, thennot for want of dutie:
M.Bar.

A pleafant Comedie of the two

M. Ba, I do abfolue thee, and come hether Phillip, I haue writ a letter vnto mafter Gour $/ e y$, AndI will tell thee the contents thereof, But tell me firft; thinkft thou Franke Gour eg l $^{\prime}$ loues thec:
Pbil. If that a man deuoted to a man,
Loyall, religious, in loues hallowedvowes,
If that a man that is foule labourfome,
To worke his owne thoughts to his friends delight,
May purchafegood opinion with his friend,
Then I may fay. I hauc done this fo well,
That I may thinke Eranke Gourfy loucs me well.
M. Ba. I is well, and I am much deceiued in hin,

And if he be not fober, wife, and valliant.
Phi. I hope my father takes me for thus wife,
I will not glew my felfe in loueto one,
That hath not fome defert of vertue in him, What ere youthinke of him, belecue ine Father,
He will be anfwerable royour thoughts,
In any quallity commendable.
M. Bar. Thou cheart my hopes in him, and in good faith,

Thouftmade my loue complete vnto thy friend,
Phillip Iloue him, and I lowe him fo,
I could affoorde him a good wife I know.
Phi.Father,awife: M.Bar.Phillip a wife, Phil, Ilay my life my fifter. - M. Bar, I in good faith. Phi. Then father he fhall haue her, he fhall I (weare. M.Bar. How cantt shou fay fo, kno wing not his minde?

Phi. All isonefor that, I will goe to himftraight,
Father if you would fecke this feauen yeares day,
You could no findéa firter match for her,
And he fhall have her, I fweare he fhall,
He were as good be hang'd as once deny her, I faithlle to M, Bar. Hairebraine, hairebraine, ftay, ... (him
As yer we do not know his father minde,
Why what will mafter Gourfey fay my fonne,
If we fhould motion it withcut his knowledge?
Goto, hees a wife and difcreet Genteman,
And that refpects from me all honeft parts,

angry voomen of A bington:

Nor hall he fallehisexpectation,
Furf I doe meane to make him priuy toit,
Pbilhpthisletter is to that effect.
Phil. Father, for Gods fake fend it quirkly then,
Ile call your man, what Hugh, wheres Hugh, there ho.
M,Bar. Phillip if this would procuea match, it were the only meanes that could be found, co make chy motherfrends with Mift, Gou. Phal How a match?lle warrant ye a match. My fifter's faire, Franke Gourfie he is sich,
His dowry too, will be fufficient,
Franke's yong, and youth is aptro loue,
And by my troth my f.Aers maiden head
Standes like a game attennis, if the ball
Hit into the hole or hazard, farewell all. -Ma.Bar. How now, where's Hugb?
(Hugh?
Phil. Why what doth this prouerbial withvs, why where's eM. Bar Peace, peace. Phil. Where's Kingh 1lay?
$M$ Bar.Benot fo hafly Phillip. Pbil.Father, let micelone,
I doe it but to make my felfe fome fport,
This formall foole your man fpeakes naughi but proueibes,
And feake men what they 'can to lim, hec'l anfwere
With fome rime, rotten fentence, or olde faying,
Such fookes as the ancient of the parihefe,
With neighbour tis an olde proverbe and a true,
Goofe giblets are good meate, old facke better then new,
Then faies atother, neighbour that is true,
And when each manhath drunke his gallon round,
A penny pot,for'thatsthe olde máns gallon,
Then doth he licke his lips and froke his beard,
Thats glewed togecher with his flauering droppef,
Ofyerly ade, and when he fcarce can trim,
His gouy fingers, thus hee' phillipit,
And with a roten hema fayliey my hearts,
Merry go fony cocke and pye ir y leartes,
But then their lauing penny prcuerbe comes;
And that is this : shey that will o the wine,
Berlady niiltrcffe Thall lay sheyr penny to miae;,
This was one of this penny-fathers biftards,

A plea fant Comedie of the two

For on my lyfe he was neuet begot,
Without the confent of fome great prouerb-monger:
M.Bar. O ye are a wag. Rbil. Well, now vato iny bufines, Swounds will that mouth thats inade of olde fed fawes, All nothing elfe, fay inothing to vs now?

Nuch. O malter Pbillip forbeare, you mutt not leape cuer the file before your come at it, haftemakes wafte, fofte fite makes fweete male, not too falt for falling, there's no haft to hang true men.

Pbil. Father we ha'te, ye fee we ha'te, now will I fee if my memorie wil Cerue for foine prouerbs too. 0 a painted cloath were as wel worth a fhilling, as a theefe, woorth a hálter:well, after my heartic compiendations, as I was at the making hereof, fo it is, that I hope as you fpeed, fo yourte fure a fwift horfe will tire, but he that trotes eaflic willyidure; you haue inof learnedly prouerbde it, commending the vertue of patience or forbearance, but yet youknow forbearanceis no quittance. Njech. I promife yee maifter $P$ bilip you haue fpoken as true $P$ bul.Father; theres a prouerbe wellapplied (as ftecle. Nicbi And it Teemeth vato me, Iitfeemes some, that yous mailterPhillip mocke me, do you not know quis mocat mocsbitur, mocke age and fee how it will profper:
Pbil. Why ye whorefon prouerb booke bound up in folio, Hauc yee no other fence to anfwer me, But euery worde a prouerbe, no ortier Englifh Well, Ile fulfill a prouerbe on thee ftraight.
Nich. What is it fit : Phil.Ile ferch niy filt from thine care? Nich. Beare witneffe he threatens me.
Pbil. Father that fame is the cowards common prouerbe, But come, come firrarellme where Hughis?

Jicb. I may and I will, I need notexcept I litt, yourhalt not commaundme, you giue ine neither meate, drinke, nor wages, I am your fachers inan, and a man's a man, and a have but a hofe on his head, do not mifule me fo,do not, forthough he that is hound muft obay, yet he that will not tarric, may runne away fo he may.
M.Bar. Peace Nicke; Ileres he fhall velthee well, Goto peace firra, here Nicketake this lett ex,

[^0]
angry vomen of Abington•

 Carrie it to him to whom it is directed.2Vich. To whomis it:
M. Bar. Whyreadeit,canft thou read?

Nich. Forfooth though none of the beft,yet meanly:
eM. Bat. Why doft thou not vfe it?
2 रich.Forfooth as vfe makes perfectnes, foreldome feene is foone forgotten.
PM. Bar. Well faid, but goe, it is to Mafter Gowrfcy, Phil.Now fir, what prouerbe haue ye to deliuer a letter?
Nich. What need you to care? who fpeakes to you? you may speake when you are fpoken to, and keep your winde to coole your pottage : well, well, you are my maifters fonne &e you looke for his lande, but they thathope for dead mens thooes, may hap to go barefoote:take heed, as foone goes the youg theep to the pot as the olde. I pray God faue my May* Aerslife, for fildome comes the better.
Pbil,O he hath given it me : farewell prouerbés. 2 Vich, Farewell froft. Pbil, Shal Ifling an old hocafter ye? 2 vich. No, you fhould fay God fend faire weather after me, Pbil. I meane for geod lucke.
2Nicb. A good lucke onye.
M.Bar.Alas poore foole, he vfes all his wit,

Pbillip infaith this mirth hath cheered though?;
And cufferd it of his right play of paffion,
Goe after Tick, and when thou think it hees theic,
Goin and vrge to that which I bave writ,
Ile in thefe ineddowes make a cerckling walke,
Andinmymeditation coniure $\mathrm{fo}_{0}$,
As that fome fend of chought felfe- eating anger;
Shall by my fpels of treafon vanifh quite
A wiay, and let me heare from thee to night.
Pbil. To night,yes that you Thall, but harke ye father,
Looke chat you my filter waking keepe,
For Franke I fweare fhall kiffe her ere I Ilecpe. Exeunfo
Enter Franke and Boy.

Prank. Iam very dry with walking ore the greene,
Butler fome Beere, firra call the Butler.
Boonay faith fir, we mult have fome fonith to give the buties

A pleafant Comedie of thetwo

A drench, or cut him in the forehead,for he hath got
A horfes difeafe, numely the ftaggers, 10 night hees a good Hufwife, he reeles al that he wrought to day, & he were good Now to play at dice, for he caftes excellent well.

- Fran. How meanlt thou, is he drunke?

Bey. I cannot tell, but I amfure hee hath more liquor in him
Then a whole dicker of hydes, hees focke throughly If sith.
Fran. Well, goe and call him, bid him bring me drinke.
Boy.I will fir. Exit.
Fran, My mother powres and will looke merrily,
Neither vpon my father nor on me,
He faies fhe fell out with miftreffe Barnes to day,
Then I am fure they'I no: be quickly friends,
Good Lord what kinde of creatures women are:
Their loue is lightly wonne and lightly loft,
And then their hate is deadly and extreame.
He that doth take a wyfe, betakes himfelfe
Toall the cares and troubles of the, world, No wher difquietnes doth grieue my father, Greeues me, and troubles all the houfe befides, What, Thall I haue fo me drinke! how now a home?
Belike the drunken flaue is falleṇ a fleepe,
And now the boy doth wake him with his horne,
How nowfirta, wheres the butler?
Ent. Boy. Mary fir, where he was euen now a lleepe, but I wakthing, and when he wake, he thought he was in may: fter Barnfes buttery, for he fretcht himfelf thus: and yauning faid, Nicke, honeft Nicke fill a freh bowle of ale, ttand to it Nicke and thou beeft 2 man of Gods making, flandio it, and then I winded my hoinc, and hees horne nad.

Enter Hodge.

Hods. Boy hey, ho boy, and thou beeff a man draw, O heres ableffed moonefhine God be thanked, boy is not this goodly weather for barley?
Boy.Spoken like a righe maulfer Hodge, but doot thous heares thou art not drunke.
Hod.No, If corne that Ifaith?
Buraurthy fellow Dicke Coomes is mightily dunke:
-
angry women of A bington.
Hod Dinge, a plague ont, when a man cannot carry his drinks well : sbloud 1 le fond to it. Boy.Holdman, fee and thou cane fend firth,
Hodge. Drunke?hees a beat and he be drunks, heres no man thar is a sober man will be drunk, hes a boy and he be drunke, Boy. No, hes a man as thou art.
Hodge. Thus this when a man will not be ruled by his friendes, 1 bad him keepevader the lee, but he kept downe the weather two bows, I toldé him hes would be taken with a planet; but the wifeff of vs all may fall.
Bey trip hive.
B. True Hodge.
Hod. Whop lend nee thy hand Dicks, T am fane into a Wal, lend me thy hand, I Mall be drowned ale.
Boy:Holdfalt by the bucket Hodge; Hods, A rope on it ${ }_{a}$
Boy. I there is a rope on it, but where art thou Hodge?
Hodge. In a Well, I prettied draw vp.
Boo. Come gillie vp thy bodice, will vp, hoy.
Hods, Imam our head and cares, Boy, In all Hodge, in all.
Fran. How loathfomeis shisbeaft mans flare to met This mould of reafon fo vireafonible, Sirree, why doofthou trip him downer Peeing bes drunks:
Boy. Be cape fe fir I would hue drunkards cheape.
Fran. How mean ye?
Boy, Why they fay, that when any thing barth a fall, it is cheape, and So of drunkards.
Frat. Got helpe him op, but hark who knocks?
Bo, Sir, heres. onecf Mailer Barnfies men. with aletert toms oldemaiter. Fran. Which of them is te Boy. They call bini Nicholas fir,
Fran. Go call hemin.
Enter Comes.
Coom. By yourleaue ho, how now young matter how int?
Fran. Looks ye lira, where your fellow lies,
Here ina fine taking, is honor?
Coom, Whope Hodge, werears thou man, whee a art chou?
Hodge. O in 2 well.
CoIn a well than, nay then thou art deepe in vnderfiandingr
Fran, I once co day you were almoffo fir,
Coma_ Who I, go to young matter, donothke his humor

A pieafant Comedie of the two

in ye Itellyetrue; gite euery manhis due, and giue him no more : fay I was infuch acale, go to, tis the greatelt indignacion that can be oftered to 2 man: andibut a mans moregodlier given, ypu were able to make him fweare outhis hear: bloud, what though that honelt Hodge haue cut his finger hecre? or as fome fay, cut a feather? what thogh he be mump, mined, b'ind, or as it were, tis no confequent to me: you know I hasue drunke all the Alehoures in Abington drie, and laide thit tappes on the tables when I'inad done: fbloud Ile challenge all the true rob. potrin Europe, toleape vp to the chinne in a barrell of beere, and ifI cannot drinke it down to my foote cre I jeauc, and then fetche tap in themidft of the houle, and then tume a good turne on the toe on it, let me be counted no bod.e, a pingler, nay let me be bound to drinke nothing butfmall beerefeuen yeares afo ter, and I had as leefe be hanged. : Enter Nicholas.

Fran. Peace fir, I mult feake with one, Nicholas I think your name is. Nich. Trueas the §kinne becweenc your browes:

Frän. Wel, how doth thy maifer:
2 [ich. Forfooth liue, and the beft doth no better:

- Frar. Where is the letter he hath fent me?
- Nich. Ecce fgnum, heere it is.

Fram. Tis right as Phillip raide, tis a fine foole, This letter is durected to my father.
Ile carrie it to hip, Dicke Coomes make him driake. Exit. Coom. I, Ile make him drunke and he will. 2 Lich. Not fo Richard, it is good to be merricand wife. Dick Well Nicholas, as thou art Nicholas, welcome, but as thou art Nicholas and boone companion, cen times welcome, Nicholas giue me thy hand, thall we be merrie? and wee thall, fay but we fhall, and let the firt word ftand.

2 jich. Indeed as long liues the merrie man asthe fad, Anownce of debe will not pay a pound of care.

Coom, Nay, a pound of care will not pay an own ce of debt. Wich. Well, tis a goodhorfeneuer Aumbles, but wholies here? Coom. Tis our Hodge, and I thinke he lies a fleepe, you made him drunk at your houfe to day, but Ile pepper forne of you fort.

Nic. I Ricbard, I know youle puta man ouer the fhooes, 82 ifyoucan, but hees a foole wil take morethén wil do him good.

angry women of Abington,

CoomiSbloud ye fhall take more then will doe yee good,
Or Ile'make ye clap vader the table.
Nicb, Nay,I hope, as I have temiferance to forbeare drinke fo haue I patience to endure drinke, lle do á conipany doth, for whé a má doth to Roma come, he muft do as there is done, Coomes. Ha my refolued Nicke Frolagozene, fill the potte Hoffeffe, (wouncs you whore, Harry Hooke's a rafcall: helpe me but carry my feillow Hode in, and weele crufhe ie Ifaith. Enter Phillip.

Exenof.lioy"
Pbil.By this I thinke,the leter is deliuered,
And twill be fhortly time that I fep in,
And wooe their fauours for my fifters forture,
And yet Ineed not, fhe may doe as well, But yernot better, as the cale doth fandd,
Betweene our mothers it may make the $n$ friends,
Nay I would fweare that fhe would doe as well,
Were fie a franger to one quality,
But they are foacquainted, theil nere part,
Why fhe will foute the devill, and make blufh
The boldeft face of mans shate euer man faw,
-He that hath beft opinion of his wir,
And hath his braine pan fraught with bitter leftes,
Or of his owne, or folne, or how fo eucr,
Let him ftand nere to high in his owne conceice,
Her wit'sa funne, that melts him downe like butcer,
And makes him fit at table Pancake wife,
Flat, flat,anid nere a word tofay,
Yet fheele not leauc him then, but like a tyrant,
Shecle perfecute the poore wit-beaten man,
And fo be bang him with dry bobs and fcoffes,
When he is downe, moft cowardly good faith,
As I hauc pittied thlpoore patient.
There camea Fatmers fonne a wooing to her,
A proper man, well landed too he was,
A man that for his wit need not to aske;
What time a yeere twere good to fow his Oates;
Nor yet his Barley,no nor when to reape;
Toplowe his Fallowes, or tofell his Trece.
A pieafant Comedie of the two
Well experienft thus each kinde of way,
After atwo monthes labour at the moft,And yet twas well he theld it out folong,He left his loue, the had fo latte hislips,He could fay nothing to her, but God be with yee,Why he, whien men hisue din'd and call for cheefe,Will flraight monetaine ieftes bitter $10^{\circ}$ difyelt,Andther lome one will fallto arguinent,Who if he over mafter her with reafon,Then fhecle begin to buffe: him with mockes,Well I doe doubt. Frances hash fo much fpleene,Theil nere agree; but I will moderate.By chis time, tis timel thinke to enter,This is the houfe, hall I knocke? no I will notWaite while one cones cut to anfwere:
Ile in, and let them be as bolde with rs.; ..... Exir.Enter maffer Gourfey reading aloterer.M. Gour If that they like her cowry fhall be equall,To your fonnes wealth or poffibility,
Ir is a meanes to nake our wiues good friendes,
And to continue friend h. p twixt to two,
Tis fo indeed, I like this morion,
And ithath my confent, becaufe my wife, is fore infectedandhare fick with hate:& I haue fought the Gale" of aduice, whichonely tels me this fame potion, to be moft foueraigne for hirficknes cure. Enter Franke and Phillip.
Heere comes my fonne, conferring with his friend,
Fraunces, how do youlike y our friends difcourfe?
I know he is perfwad ing to this motion.
Fra.Father, $2 s$ ma teer that befits a friend,
But yet not ine, that am too young to marry.
M1.Gon. Na y, if thy minde be forward with thy yeares,
The time is lof thouterrief, truft me boy, This match is antwerable to thy birth, Her bloud and portion giue each other grace: Thefe indented lines promife a fum, And I do lake the valew, if it hapthy liking to accord to my confent, It is a march: wilt thou goe fee the maide: Fyancre truft me Father, he Chape of marriage, angry vvomen of Abington.

Which I doe fec in others, feeme fo feucre, Idare not put my youngling libercy, Vnder the awe of that inftruction,
And yet I graunt the limmits of free yourh
Going aftray, are often reftrainde by that:

- Bur niiftreffe wedlocke,to miny fcholler thoughts, Will be too curfe I feare, Ofhould fhe fnip, My pleaiure ayming minde, If fiall be fad; And fweare, when I did marry I was mad. $M$, Gour. But boy, letmy experienice teach thee this, Yet in good faith,thou fpeaktt not much amiffe, When firft thy mothers fame to me did come, Thy grand fire thus, then came to me his fonne, And euen my words tothee, to me he faid, And as to me thou faif, to him I faid,
But in a greater huffe, and hotter bloud, I tell ye, on youthes tip-toes then I food, Saies he (good faith this was his very fay)
When I was yong, I was bur reafons foole,
And went to wedding as to wifdomes fchoole:
It taught me much, and much I did forget,
But bearen much by it, I got fome wit,
Though I was fhackled from an often fooute,
Yet I would wanton it when I was our,
T was comfort, old asquaintance thento meete,
Reftrained liberty, attainde is fweet,
Thus faid my Father to thy Father,fonne
And thou mailt doe chis to, as $I$ haue done.
Phi, In faith good counfell Franke, what faift thou to it?
Fra.Pbillip, what fhould Ifay: Fbll.Why, eyther I or no:
Fra, O but which rathers
Phil, Why that which was perf waded by thy father.
Fra, Thats I, hen I, O fhould ditfall outill.
Then I, for I am guily of that ill.
Ile not be guily, inu. Pbi. What backeward gone?
Fra.Phillip, no whit back-ward, chat is on.
Thi.On then, Fra.O flay.
Pbil. Tufh, there is no goodlucke in this delay,
Conte, come, late comimers man are fhent.
- Fra, Heigh ho, I fẹare I fhall repent,
A pleafant Comedic of thetwoWell, which way Frankez
Pbi,Why this way. Fra,Canft thoutcelleAnd takeft vpon thee to be ny guide to hell;But which way Father? M.Gou.That way*Frann, y youknow,You found the way to forrow long agoc;Father Cod boye ye, you hiaue fent your fonne;To feeke on earth an earthly day of doome,Where I Thall be iudged, alacke the ruthe,Topennance for the follies of my youth.
Well I muft goc, but by my trothmy minde;
Is not loue capable to that kinde,
OI haue lookt ypon this mould of men,
AsIhaue done vpon a Lyons den,
Praifed I haue the gallant bealt I faw,
Yet wiht me no acquaintance with his pawe;And muf I now be grated with then, well,Yet I may hap to prooue a Daniell,And if doe fure it would make mel laugh,To be among wilde beaftes and yet be fafes,
Isthere a remedy to abate thcirrage,
Yes nany catch them,and pur thein in a cage,
I but how carch then, marry in your hand,
Carric me foortha burning fire-brand,
For with his fparkling fhine, olde runoor faies,
A fire-brand the fwifteft runnef fraies,
This I may doc, but ifit proouc not fo,
Then man goes out to fecke his adiunct woe,
Pbillipaway, and Father now a adew,
In queft of forrow Iam fent by you.
M. Gon. Returne the meffenger of ioy my fonne?Fran. Sildome in this world, fiuch a worke is done.Pbi,Nay,nay, make hatt , it will be quicklie night.Fra, Why is it nor good to wooe by candle light.phi, Bur if we make not hafte theile bea bed.Fran, The better candles out, and curtans fpred $\varepsilon_{\text {xeunss }}$,M. Gour, I know, though that my fons years be not many:Yet he hath wit to wooe as well as any;
Hecere comes my wife, lam glad my boy is gone: $-1$ $1+10$

[^1]2
. i1 1 -
 -

Erefhe came hecher, how now wife, how ift
Whatare ye yet in charity and loue with miftreffe Barmes?
Mi.Gow. What miftris Barnes, why miltris Barnes I pray

M, Gou. Becaure the is your neighbour and Mi,Gou,And wbat?
And a iealous flandering fpitefull queane fhe is,
One that would blur nyy reputation,
With heropprobrious malliceiffic could,
Sbe wrongs her husband, to abufe my fame,
Tis knowne that I hauc liude intionefiname,
All my life time, and bin your right true wife.
M. Gom. I entertaine no other chought my wife,

And my opinion's found of your behauiout.
Mif. Gon. And my behauiour is as found asit',
But her ill fpeeches feekés to not my credut,
And eate it with the worme of hatic and mallice.
M, Gow. Why then preferue it you by patience.
Mi.Gon. By patience, would ye haue ine fhame my felfe,

And cuffen my felfe to beare her iniuries:
Not while her eyes be open will I yeelde,
A word, aletter, a fillables valew,
But equall and make cuen her wrongs to me,
Toher againe.
M, Gow. Thenin good faith wife ye are more to blame,
Mi.Gouo Am I tooblame fir pray what letters thiso
M. Gou There is a dearth of manners in ye wife;

Rudelie to fnatch it from me, giue it me?
Mi.Gou. You fhall not hauc it, cill I hatue read it.

M, Gou. Giue me it then, and I will read it to you?
Mi,Gou,No,no, it fhall nor need, I ama a Choller
Good enough to read a letter fir,
M. Gou. Gods piffion, if fhe knew but the contents;

Sheele feeke to croffe this match, fhe fhall not read it.
Wife, give it me, come, come, give it me.
Mi. Gou. Husband, in very dec dyou thall not haue it.
M. Gow. What will youmooue me to impatience thens
Mi.Gon, Tuttell not me ofyour impatience,

But fince you talke fir of impatience,
You fhall not haue theletter by this light,
Till I haue read it, foulc ile burne it firf.
buct
$E_{2}$
M.Gons

A pleafant Comedie of the two

 NM. Gou. Go to,ye moue me wife, giue ne the letier, Introth I hall growe angry, if you doe not. Mi.Gon, Grow to the houfertop with your anger fir.Nere tell me, I care not thus much for it. M.Gour. Well, I can beare enough, but not toó much,

Come giue it me,twere beft you be perfwaded,
By God ye make me Tweare, now God forgiue nee,
Giue me I fay, and fand not long vpon it,
Go to, I am angry at the heart,my very heart,
Mif.Gon. Hart me no hearts, you fhall not haue it fx,
No you fhall not, nere looke fo big,
I will nor beaffraide at your great lookes,
You fhall not haue it, no you fhall not haue it.
M. Gor. Shall I not haue it, introth Ile erry that,

Minion Ile hau'te, fhall I not hau'te, I am loath,
Go too, take paufment, be aduifde,
Infaith I will, and ftand not long ypon is,
A woman of your yeares, I sm afhamds:,
A couple offo long continuance,
Should thus, Gods foote, l cry God hartely mercy,
Go to, ye vex ine, and lle vexe yc for it,
Before Ileaue ye, I will make ye glad,
To tender it on your knees, heare ye, I will I will,
What worfe and worle ftomacke, true ye faith,
Shall I be crof by you in my olde age?
And where I Mould have greateft cenfort to,
A nurffe of you, nurfie inche diuels name,

- Go tomifris, by Gods pretious deere,

If ye delaie.
Mi.Gou. Lord, Lord, why in what a fit, Are you in husband, fo inrag'd, fo moou'd,
And for fo flight a caufe, to read a letter,
Did thisletter loue, conteine my death,
Should you denie my fight of ir, I would not,
Nor fee my forrow, nor efchew my danger,
Bur willinglie yeeld mea patient,
Vnto the doome that your difpleafure gaue:
Heqre is the letter, not, for that yourincenfment,
Makes me make offer of it, but your health,
Which anger I doe feare hatherald, i

$$
\frac{1-2}{2-2}+\frac{1}{2}=
$$

$\qquad$

$$
\frac{2-5-2}{2+2}
$$

E

$$
=
$$

$$
\frac{\square}{2}+
$$

$$
\frac{2}{2}=-
$$

$$
4
$$

an

$$
18
$$

$$
4
$$

$$
+
$$

Ne

$$
=
$$

$$
=2
$$

$$
36
$$

angry women of Abington.

And viper 1 ke hath furkeraway the bloud;
Thas wont was to be cheerefull in this cheeke,
How pale yec looke.

An eafie matter could not thus haue moou'd me,
Well this refignement, and fofoorth, but womàn
This fortnight fhall I not forget yee for it:
His ha, I fee that roughnes can doe fomwhar,
Idid not thinke goud faith, I could have fet,
So fower a face vpon it, and to her;
My bed embracer;my right bofome friend,
I would not that he fhould haue feene the letter
As poore a man as I am by my troth
For twenty pound: well I am glad I have it. Ha ,heres a doeabout a thing of nothing,
What fomack, ha, tis happy yourcome downe: $\chi$ Exiro. Mi.Gou. Well craftie Fox, Ile hunt ye by my troth, Deale yefo clofely? well Ifee his drift.

He would not let me fee the leter, lealt
That I hould croffe the match; and I will croffe it.
Ent. Comer, Dicke Coomes ? Coom. Forfooth.
Aif. Gour. Come hether Dicke, thou art'a man I loue,
And one whom Ihaue much in my regarde.
Coo. I thanke ye for it miftris, thanke ye for it,
Mi: Gou, Nay hecrs my hand, I will dovery much for thee
If ere thou fandfl in need of me,
Thou fhaltnot lack, whillt thou hafta a day to liued
Money apparrell. Coo. And fword and Bucklers: Md.Gow. And fword and Bucklers too my gallant Disk, So thou wiltvfe but this in my defence.
Coom, This,no faith thaue no minde to this, breake my headif this breake not if we come to any tough play, nay miffres I hada fword, It the flower off mithfield for a fword a right Fox Ifaith, with chat & a man had come ouer with a fmooth and a fharpe froke, it would haue cried twang, & then when I had doubled nyy point, trafte my ground, and had carried my bucklerbefore me like a garden But, and theicucome in with a croffe blowe, &souecthe picke of his bücklertwo elles long it would haue cryedtwang, twang. mette, mettle: but a dogge hath his day, tis gone, and there are few good ones made now, I fee by this dearth of good fwords, that dearth offword and Buckler fight, begins to grow out, I am forry for it, 1 hall neuer fee good manhood againe, if it be once gone, this poking fight of rapier and dagger will come up chen, then a man, a tallman, & a good fword and buckler man, will be fiptted likea Cat or a cunney, then a boy will beas good as a man, vnleffe the Lord the w mercie vnto vs, well, I had as lieue be hanged as liue to fee that day, wel miltres, what fhal I do? what thal I do? Mif.Gour. Why this braue Dicke, Thou knoweft that'Gourfeys wifc and Iam foes: Now man mero her houfe, And though it be darke Dicke, yet weele haue nolight, Leaft that thy maifter fhould preuent our sourney By feeing our depart: then when we come, And ifthat fhe and I do fall to words, Setin thy foote and quarrell with her men, Draw, fight,frike, hurt, but do not kill the flaues; And makeas though thou ftruckft at a man, And hit her and thou canft, a plague vpon her, She hath mifufde me Dicke, wilt thou do this &Coom. Yesmiftrefte I will Arike her men,but Godforbid, That ere Dicke Coomes fhould befeene ro ftrike a woman. Mi.Gour, Why fhe is mankind, therefore thou maif trike her.

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Coom. Mankinde, nay and fhe haue any patt of a man, Ile ftrikeher I warrant.
Mi Gour. Thats my good Dicke, thats my fweet Dicke, Coom, S wones who would not be aman of valour to haue fuch words of a Gentlewoman, onc of their wordes are more to me then twentie of thefe ruffet coates. Chcefecakes and buttermakers : well, I thanke God I am none of chefe cowards, well and a man haue any vertue in him. I fee he Thall be regarded.
$M_{i}$. Gour. Art thou refolued Dicke? wilt thoudo this for me, and if thou wilt, here is an earneft penny, of that riche guerdon I do meane to giue thee.
-Coom. An angell miftreffelet me fee, fand you on my left. hand, and let the angell lye on my bucklerion my right hand,for feare oflofing, now heere ftand I'sobetempied, they

angry women of A bington.

they fay, euery man hath two fpirits attending on him, cyther good or bad, now I fay 2 man hath no other fpirits but eyther his wealth or his wife, now which is the better of then, why that is asthey are vfed, for vfe neither of thein well, and they are both nought, but this is a miracle to me, that golde that is heauie harh the rpper, and a woman that is light dooth foonelt fall, confidering that light things 2fpire, and heauie things fooneft go downe, butleaue thefe confiderations to fir fobn, they become a blacke coate better then ablew, well miftreffe I had no minde to daye to quarrell., but a woman is made to bea mans feducer, yo: day quarrell.
Mr. Goon.I. Coom, There fpeakes an angell, is it good? MS.Gom I.
Coom. Then I cannot doe amiffe, the good angel goc: with me, Exowst, Enter fir Raph Smith bis Lady and Will." S.Rapb. Come on my harts, I faith it is lll lucke,
To hunt all day and not kill any thing,
What fayeft thou Lady, art chou weary yet?
La. I mult not fay fo fir.
S.Ra. Although thous art.
Wsl. And can you blame her tobe foorth fo long.
And fee no better fport?
${ }^{6}$ Rf, Good faith twas very hard.
La. No twas not ill.
Becaufe you know it is not good to kill,
Ra. Yes venfon Ladie.
Ln, No indeed nor them,
Life is as decre in Deare as tis in men.
Ra. But they are kild foì fport.
La. But thats bad play,
When they are made tu fport their liues away:
Ra. Tis fine to fee the $n$ runne.
$L_{R_{0}}$ What out of breath?
They runne but ill that runne themfelues to death,
Ra, They night make thenleffe haft & keep their winde.
La. Why shen they fee the hounds brings death behinde.
Rap. Then twere as good for them at first to flay, :
As to sun long and ruo their liues, avays.

A pleafant Comedie of the two

La. I but the foureft of you all thats here, Would run from death, and nimbly feud for feare, Now by my troth I pittie thofe poore elfes, Ras. Well, they haue made vs but bad f.port to day. La. Yes twas iny fport to fee them fcape away. Will.I wifh that I had beene at one Bucks fall. La. Outchou wood tyrani thou art wort of all.: Wilo. A woodnaan Ladie, but no tyrant I. La. Yes tyrant- like thou louelt to fee liues dye.
Ra. Lady no more, I do not like this lucke,
To hunt all day and yet not kill a Buck, Well, it is late, but yet I fweare I will Stay heere all night, but I a Buck will kill. La. All night, nay good fir Raph Smith do not fo. Ra.Content ye Ladie, Will, go fetch my bow, A berrie of faire Roes I law to day, Downe by the groues, and there ile take my ftand, And fhoote at one, God fend a luckie hand.
$L a$, Will ye not then fir Raph go home with me? $R a$, No, but my men fhall beare rhee company. Sirs man her home, Will bid the Huntimen couple, And bid them well reward their hounds to night, Ladie farewell, Will halt ye with the Bow, Ile ftay for thee heere by the groue below.
Wil. I will, but twill be darke I hall not fee,
How Thall fee ye then?
Ra. Why hollo to me, and I wil anfwer thee.
Wil.Enough, I wil. Raph. Farewel. Exit.
La, How willingly dooft thou corifent to go,
To fetch thy maifer that fame killing bow:
Wol. Guiltie of death I willing am in this,
Becaufe twas our ill haps to day to miffe,
To hunt and not to kili is hunters forrow,
Come Ladie, weel haue venfon ere tomorrow, Exennt. Enter Piilip and Franke.
Pbil, Come Franke now are we hard by the houfe, Buthow now, fad ?
Fran. No, to fludic how to woe thy fifter.
Phil. How man, how to woe her ? why no matter how,
I am fure chou wilt not be aghamed to woe,

angry vyomen of A bington.

Thy cheekes no: fubieet to a childifh blunh,
Thou haft a betuer wartant by thy wit,
I know thy oratorie can vnfold,
Quicke inuention, plaufible difcourfe,
And feffuch painted beautie on thy tongue,
As it fhall rauifh euery maiden fence,

- For Franke, thou art ioo like the ruffet youth

I tolde thee of, that went to woo a wench,

- And being full ituft rp with fallow wit,

And meddow matere,askethe pretty maide, How they folde corne lift market day with them.
Saying: indeed twas very deare with them:
And do ye heare, he had not need doe fo,
For the will Frencisthrowly trie your wit,
Sirra fheel bow the metiall of your wits,
And if they cracke fhe will not hold ye currant,
Nay fhe will way your wits as men may angels, And iff lacke a graine, fhe will not chanke with ye,
I cannot Speake it but in paffion,
She is a wicked wench to make a ief,
Aye me how full offloutes and mockes the is?
Fran. Some Aquavire reafon to recouer,
This ficke diffourfer,foond not prethy Philip,
Tufh, tufh,I donot thinke her as shou faieft,
Perhaps fhees opiniodis darling Pbillip:
Wife in repute, the crowes birdo my friend,
Some iudgements flaue chemfelues tof mall defart,
And wondernize the birth of common wit,
When their wone ftraungenes do but wake chat frange,
And theirille errors do but make that good,
And why fhould men debafeto make that good,
Perhaps fuch admiration winnes her wit.
Phil Well, Iam glad to heare this bold prepare,
For this encounter, forward hiardy Franke,
Yonders the window, with the candle int,
Belike fhers putting on her night attire,
I told ye Frankeswas iate, well I will call her,
Mary foftly that my mother may not heare:
Mallfifiter Mall.
Enter Mall inthe windono
A pleafant Comedie of thetwoMal. Hownow, whofe there ? Phil. Tis I, Mal. Tis I, who I ? I quoth the dogge, or what?
A chrift croffe rowel?
Pbs. No fweete pinckanic.
CWal. O ift you wilde oates?
Pbil. I forfooth wanton.
Mal. Well faid feape-thrift.
Fran, Pbolap be thefe your vfuall beft falutes?
Phi. This is the harmleffe chiding of that Doue,
Fran. Doue, one of thofe that drawe the Queene of loue:
Mal.How now? whofe that brother, whofe that with ye?
Pbil. A Gentleman my friend.
Mal.Beladie he hath a pure wit.
Fran. How meanes your holy iudgement?
Mal. O well put in fir.
Fran. Vp you would fay.
Mal. Well climde Gentleman,
I pray fir tell me, do you carte the queene of loue?
Fran, Not cart her, but couch her in your eye,
And a fit place for gentle loue tolye.
Mal. 1 bur me thinkes you (peake without the booke,
To place a Sower wheele waggon in my looke,
Where will you haue roome to haue the coach man fie?
Fran. Nay, that were but fuall manners, and not fit,
His dutie is before you bare to fland,
Hauing a luftie whipfocke in his hand.
Ma. The place is voide, will you prouide me one - -
Fra. And ifyou pleafe I will fupply the roome,
Mal. Butare ye cunning inthe Carmans lafh?
Andcan ye whifle well?
Fran. Yes I can well direct the coache of loue.
eMal. Ah cruell carter, would you whip a doue?
Pbil, Harke ye fifter:
Mal. Nuy, but harke ye brother?
Whofe white boy is that fame! know ye his mother?
Phil. He is a Gentleman of a good houfe.
Mal. Why is his houfe of gold, is it not made oflyme and Sone like this?
Phil. I meanehees well defeended. Mal, Sod bethanked.
Did he defcend fome fieeple or fome ladder?

angry vvomen of Abington.

Poj, Weil, you will till be croffe, $I$ tell yee fifter,
This Gentleman by all your friends confent,
Mut be your husband.
Mal. Nay not all, fome fing another note,
My mother will fay no, I holde a groate.
But I thought twas fome what, he would be a carter,
He hath beene whipping lately fome blunde beare,
And now he would fer ke the blinde boy heere with vs.
Pbil. Well, do you hcare, you fifler, niiftreffe would haue
You that dolong for fornwhat, I know what.
My faiher tolde me,gotoc Ile tell all,
If ye be croffe, do ye heare me? I hauc labourd
A yeares worke in this afiernoone for ye,
Come from your cloy fler, votaric, chafe Nun,
Come downe and kiffe Franke Gourfoys moohers fenne. Mal , Kiffe him I pray ?
Pbibi.Goto,ftale maidenhead conne downe I fay,
You feuenceene and vpward, come come downe,
Youll ftay till twentie elle for your wedding gowne,
Mal. Nun, votarie, ftale maidenhead,feuenteene and vp-
Here be names, what nothing elic?
(ward,
Fran. Yes,or a fare buile flecple without bels, Mal, Steeple good people, nay another calt. Fran. I, or a well made fhip without a maft. Mal. Fie not $f$ o big fir, by one part of foure. Fran. Why then ye are a boate watt hout an oare, Mal. O well rode wit,but whats your fare I pray? Fran. Your faire felte mult be my faireft pay. Mal.Nay, and yoube fo deare, lle chule another. Fran, Why take your firt man wench, and go no fur her. Phi,Peace Francis, harke ye fifter, this I Iy, , ou know my mind, or anf wer Ior nay, Wit & iudgementharh refolude his mind, And he forefees what after he fhall finde,
If fuch difrection then fhall gouerne you,
Vow loue to him, hecle do the like to you.
Mal. Vow loue? who would not loue fuch a comely fea-
Nor high nor lowe, but of the middle ftature, (ture?
A middle man thats the beft fyze indeed,
Ilike him well,Loue graunt vs well to fipeed.
Fran. And let me fee a woman of that talnefe,
F 2

$=$

$*$

angry women of Abington.

That faid your Father loude me too well, Ile thinke on't when thou thinkft Ihate for goterít its Whofe with thee ellethow now ininion you?
With whom?with himiwhy what make youheere fir?
And thus late too, what hath your noother fent yc
To cut my chroate, that heere you be in waite?
Come from him miftris, and let go his hand,
Will ye notfir?
Fra,Stay miftrefie Barnes, or mother, what ye will,
Shees my wife, and here fhe fhall be fill.
Mi.Ba. How fir your wifeswould ft hou my daugter haue

Ile rather have her married to her graue,
Goto be gone, and quickly, or I fiweare,
lle haue my men beate ye for flaying here,
Phi, Beare him mother as I 2 m true man,
They were better beate the diuell and his dam.
Mi,Bar. What wilt thoutake his part? : 1 in Pbil.To do hin good,
And twere to wade hetherto vp in blood.
Fran. Goda inercy Pbil, but miother heare me.
M $1 /$. Bar . Calt h hou me mother, no thy mothérs hame
Carryes aboutiwithis, ieproche and fhames:
Giue me my daughter, ere that fhe fhall weds
A frumpets forne, and haus her fomillead;
Ile marry her to a Cartcr: come I fay,
Giue me her from thee.
Fra,Möther not to day,
Nor yet to morrow, till ny lives laft morrow, Make me leáve that, which 1 with leaue did borrow,
Hecre I haue borrowed loue, ile not deny it,
Thy wedding nighe's my day, then Ile repay ita.
Till then fheele trift mr, wench iff not fo?
And ifit be, fay I, ifnor, fay no.
M&l Mother,good mother,heare me O good God;
Now we are euten what would you make vs oddef
Now I beieech ye for the loue of Chrilt,
Togiue ne leaue once to doe what I lift.
I amas you were when you were a maide,
Geffe by your felfe, how long you would havie faide,
Mighr you haue had your will, as good begin,

A pleafant Comedie of the two

At firt as laff, it faues vs from much finne; Lying alone, we mufe on chings and things, And in our mindes, one thought another brings,
This maides life mother is an id le life,
Thecefore lle be, $\mathrm{I}, \mathrm{I}$ will be a wife,
And mother doe nor miftruft my age or power,
I am fufficient, Ilacke nere an hioure,
I had both witto graunt when he did woe me,
And flrength to beare what ere he can doctome.
Mi, Gou. Well bold face, but I meane to make you Ray,
Goeto, come from him, or ile make ye come,
Will yee not come?
Pbı, Morher, I Pray forbeare,
This march is for my fifter:
Mi. Bar. Villaine tis not,

Nor The fhallnot be fo. matcht now.
Pbi, In troth the Thalljand yourvnnuly hate,
Shall not rule vs, weele end all this debate,
Bythisbegun deuife.
Mi, Bar I end wbatyou begun, villaines thecues
Giye me my daughicer,will ye rob me of hert
Hclp, help, thoil rob mie heere, theil rob me heere, Enferm mafeter Barnesiand bis minn" (woman?
M.Bar. How now, what outcry is here?why how now
Mi.Ba. Why Gourfeys forine; confederates with this boy,

This wretch vnnaturall and vndutifull.
Seckes hence to teale my daughter, will you fuffer it?
Shall he thats fonne to miy arch enemy,
Enioy her, hate I broughther vp rochis?
O God he fhall not haue her, no he fhall not. 5 en :
M.Bar.I ann forry fhe knowes is, hark ye wife,

Let reafon mode rate yourrage a litele,
Ifyou exam mine bur his birth andliuing:
His wit and good behauiour,you will lay.
Though that ill hate make your opinion bad,
He doch deferue as good a wife as fhe

> Ener miftris Gourfey and Coomes.
Mi.Bar. Why will you giue conient he fhallenioy hers M. Bar. I, fo that thy minde would agree with mine. Mi.Bar.My minde fhall nere agree to this agres ment.

M. Ba, And yet it fhall go for ward but who's heeres What, Miftris Gourfey, how knew The of this?
Phij;Franke, thy mother.
Fra.Swoues where?a plague vpponit,
It thinke the deuill is fet to croffe this natch.
Mi.Go, This is the hou're Dick Coomes; & yonders light,

Let rs go neere: how now, me thinkes I fee,
My foune fland hand in hand, with Barnes hisdaughter:
Why how now firta, is this time of night,
For you to be abroad, what haue we heere:
1 hope that loue hath not thus coupled you:
Fra.Loue by my troth mother, Loue, hhe loues me,
And Iloue her, then we mult needs agree.
M 6 Bar. I but Ile keep her fure enough from thee.
M..Go It fhall not need, lle keep him faft enough,

Be fure he fhal not graft in fuch a fock.
Mi, Bar. What a fock lorfoothatar good a fock as thine,
I doe not meane that he fhall graft in mine.
Mi,Gou.Nor fhall he miftris, harke boy? ${ }^{2}$ 'art but mad
To loue the branch, that hath a roote fobad,
Fra. Then Mother, le grafta Pippin ona Crab,
Mi.Gou. It will not prooue well,

Fra. But Ileprooue iny skill,
$\mathrm{M}, \mathrm{B}, \mathrm{B}$. Sir but you fhall not.
Fra.Mothers both I will,
M. B. . Harke Pbillip, fend away thy fifter ftraight,
'Let Francis meete her wherecthou halt appoint,
Let them goe fulterall to fhun furpition,
And bid them goe to Oxford both this night,
There to tnorrow fay that we will meete them,
Andshere deternine of their marriage.
Phi.l will, though it be very lare and darke, My fifter will endure it for a husband.
M, Ba. Well then to Carfolkes boy, 1 meane to meet thé,
TPhil,Enough, would they would begin to chide, Exir.
For I would haue them brawlung, chat meane while,
They nay fteale hence, to meece where I oppoint it,
What mother, will you let this march go forward:
Or miftreffe Gourtcy will you firt agree?
M.Gou. Shall a agree firte.
A pleafant Comedie of the two phi.I why'not, come, come. Mi.Go. Come from her fomn:, & if thou lou't thy mother. Mi.Bar. With the inke fell, daughter I coniure thee, Mi.G. Francis, by faire meanes letime win chee from her, And I will gild my. bleffing gentle fonne,
With fore of Angels, I would not haue thee,
Check thy good fortune, bythis thy cufning choife,
$O$ doe not thrall thy happie libertie,
In fuch a bondage, if thou'le be needs bound;
Be then to better worth, this worthleffe choile Is not fit for thee.
Mi,Bar,Ift not fit for him, wherefore ift not fit?
Is he too braue a geneleman I praie,
No tis not fit, fhe fhall not fithis turne,
If he were wife, the would be fitter for
Three times his better,minion go in,or ile make ye, Ile keep ye fafe from him I warrant ye. Mi. Gou. Come Francis, come froin her. Fra, Mothers, with both hands, fhoue 1 hate from louc,
That like an ill companion would infect,
The infant minde of our offection,
Within this cradle fhall this minutes babe,
Be laide to reft, and thus Ile huge inyioy.
Mi, Gon, Wilt thou be obtunate, thou felfe wilde boy. Nay then perforce Ile part ye fince ye will not.
Coom. Doc yce heare miftreffe, praic yee giue me leaue to talke two or three cold words with my yong Mafter, harke ye fir,yee are my Mafters fonne, and fo foorth, and indeed I beare ye fome goôd will, partlie for his fake, and partly for your own, and I do hope you do the like to me, I fould be forry els: I muft needs faie ye areaying man, and for mine owne part, I haue íeene the world, & I know what belongs to caules, &e the experience that I haue. I thanke Goo I haue trauelled for it.
Fra, Why how far haue ye trauelled for its
Boy. From my mafters houfe to the Ale-houfe.
Coo.How fir? Bo.Sofir,
Goo.Gotol praie,correct you boie,twas nere a good world, fince a boie would face a manfo,
Fra. Goto for ward mant.

```
\(+2\)
```

$x_{i=3}^{2 m o s}$ $3-1$ $1=$ $\qquad$
$1=-1=-1=-1=$

$$
\tan +
$$

$$
\frac{y x}{9 x-2}=\frac{1}{2}
$$

$$
=
$$

$\qquad$ $4-21040$
$2+$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& 2-2+2
\end{aligned}
$$

angry women of A bington.

Coom, Wel fir, $f 0$ it is,I would not wihg ye to marry with. out my miftris confent.
Fra. And why?
Coomo Nay, theres nere a why, but there is a wherefore; I haus known forne haue done the like, & they have dauinf ${ }_{2}$ Galliardat Beggers bufh for it
Boj. At Beggers buh,here him no more maifter, he doth be dawbe ye with his durty fpeach: doe ye heare fir, hoty fatte flands Beggers bufhe fromyour fathers houre fir?how thou whorfon refuge of T Taylor, that wert prentife to a sailor half an age, & becaufeifthouhad!t ferued ten ages thou would dt proue but a botcher, thou leapft fröthe fiop board to a Blew coate: doth it become thee to fe thy tearms fo? wel, thou degree aboue a hackney, and ten degrees vndor a Page;fow vp your lubber lips, or tis not your fworde and Buckler, flall keep my Poniard from your bref.
Coo.Do ye heare fir, this is jour boy?
Fnon. How then?
Coom, Youmut breech him for it.
Fran Mult Ithowifif will not.
Coom. Why then tis a fine world, when boies keep boies; and know not how to yfe them.
Fra,Boy, ye rafcall.
Mi.Gour, Strike him and thot thert.

Coom, Strike me, alas he were better frike his father; Sownes go to, put vp your Bodkin. Frar.Mother fand by, Ile tef ch that ra\{calls; Coom. Goto, giue me good words, or by Gods dines ile buckle ye,for all your bird fpit, Pran,Will ye fo fir?
Phi,Stay Franke,this pitch of Frenfie will defile thee, Meddle not with it, thy vireprooued vallour,
Should be high minded couch it not \{olow, Doft heare riejtake oeccalion to flip hence, But fecretly, let not thy motheffee thee, At the back fide there is aCunny greene, Stay there forme, and Malland I will come to thee:
Fra, Enough, I will: mother you doe me wrong,
To be fo peremptory in your corimaund
And fee that ralcall to abuite me fo:

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Coom Raícall, take that and take all, do ye heare fir, I dGe not meane ro pocket p this wrong.
Bo. I know why that is. Coo.Why?
Bo. Bec.aufe you haue nere a pocket,
Co. A whip fira, a whip: but fir prourdeyour tooles againgt to morrow morning, tis founewhat darke now indeed, you know Dawfons clofe, betweene the hedge & the pond, tis good eiten ground, llemeete you there, & I do not, call ine tur, and yoube a man fhew your felfe a man, wecle haue a' bout or ewo, and fo weele part for that prefent,
Fran.Well fir,well.
Nic. Boy, haue they appointed to fight?
Boy, 1 Nicholas, wilt not thou go ferthe fray?
Nich. No indeed, euen as they brewe fo let them bake,I wil not thruft my hand into she flame and need not, is not good to haue an oare in avother mans boate, Jittle faid is foone amended, & in litle medling commeth great reft, tis good fleeping in 2 whole skin, fo a man might come home by weeping croffe : no by lady, a friend is not fo loone gotten as lof, bleffedare the peace-makers, they that ftrike with the fivord, thall be beaten with the reabberd.
Pbil. Well faid proueibs, nere anothertorhat purpofe?
2Nic. Yes I cou!d hauc faid ro you fir, take heed is a good Phol, Why to nue takeheede? (reed.
${ }^{2}{ }^{1}$, Fur happy is he whom other mens harius do make to (beware.

Youknow what I rold ye, ilc-hold our mothers bothintalk meane while: Mother and Miftris 'Barnes, me thinkes you fio: ald not Itand in hatred fo hard one with the other.
Mi, Ear. Should I not firs Shonid Inot hate a harlor,
That robs me of my right, vilde boy:
Mi. Gon. That tytle 1 returne vnto thy teeth,

And fit the name of hatlot in thy face.
Mi. Bar, Well, tis not time of night to hold out ehat,

With luch a fold as thou ari, therefore now,
Thinke that I hate thee as I doe the deuill.
Mi. Gou. The deuill take thee if thou dolt not wreteh,
Mi. Bar. Out vpon thee ftrumpet,
Mi. Gou. Out vpon thee harlot.

Mif,Bar.Well, I will finde a time to bercueng'd:
$=$

11

angry women of Abington.

Meane cime Ile keep my daughter from thy fonne,
Where are you minion?how now are yee gone.
Phi,She went in mocher,
Mi.Go.Francis wherc are ye?
(gether.
Mi.Ba.He is not heere of then they flipt away 2 b both to.

PbijIle affure yenc, my fifler fhe went in, into the houfe.
Mi.Bs.But then heelie out againe at the backe doore;

And Inecte with him, but I will fearch abour,
All shefe fame fields and paths neere to my houfe,
They are not far 1 am. fure, ifI make liafte: Exif:
Mi, Go. O God how went he hences I did not fee him,
It was when Barnes wife did foolde with me,
A plague on her, Dick why didf not thoulooke to hivir?
Coo, What fhould I loake for him? no, no, I looke not for bim while to morrow noorning.
Mi. Goni, Come go with me to his lp to looke hin out,

Alas, Thaue nor lighie,nor Linkejnor Torche,
Though it be darke, I will take any paines,
To croffe this match, 1 prethy Dick away.
Coo, Miftris becaufe I brought ye out,,Ile bring ye home but ifI hould follow, fo hee might haue the law on his fide.
Mi.Go Come tis no matter prechee goe with me, Exeernt
M. Ba.P bilip. thy northers gone to fecke thy fiffer.

And ina rage Ifaith, but whocomes hecere?
Phi. Olde mafter Gourfer, as I thinke tis he:
M. Ba, Tis So indeed. $^{-M}$, Gow, Whocs there?
M.Bar. A friend of yours.

TM. Gow. What mafter Barnes did ye not fee my wifes
M.Bar. Yes fir I faw her, fhe was hecrecuer now.
M. Gour.I doubted that, that made me come vnto yous.

But whecher is fhe gonc?
Pbil, To feeke your fonne, who fliptaway from her,
Tomeete with Mall my fifter in a place
Where I appointed: and my mother too,
Secke for my fifter, fo they both are gone,
My mother hath a Torch, mary your wite
Goes darkling vp and downe, and Coomes befors her.
M. Gou.I thought that knaue was with her, but tis well,

I pray God theymay come by nere a light,

A pleafant Comedie ofthe two
Butboth be led a darke daunce in the night.
Ho. Why is my fellow Dick in he dark with my Miftres? I pray God they be honeft, frir there may be rnuch knauerie in the Dark, faith if I were there, I wold haue Some Enepery with them, good maifer wil ye carry the torch youn foll, 2 giue nse leaue to play rhe blind man buffe with my miftris. Pbsl.On that condition thou wilt do thy bèlt,
Oo keep thy Miftrefle.and thy fellow Dick, Both from my firter, and thy matters fonne, I will intreate thy mafter let thee goe.
Hod, O I, I warrant ye, lle haue fine tricks to coufen them M,Gou.Well fir, then go ur waies, I give you leaue. Hod, O braue, but where about are they? ( Find chens. Pbill: About our cunny green they furely are, if thou canf Hod. O let me alone to grope for cunnieso . Exit. Pbi.Well, now will I to Franke and so my fifter, Stand you two harkning neere the cunny greene, But lure your light in you mult not be feene, Orels let 2 icholas tand a farre off with it, And as his life keep it from miftris (iourefey, Shall this be done? M. B.rr. Ph!! ip it Chall, Phi, God be with ye, ile b: gone. Exit. M. Bar. Come on mafter Gourfey, this fane is a meanes, To make our wines friends, if ihey refift not. M:Go. Tut fir, howfoeucr it hall go forward. M.B.ar.Come then lets do, as Phillip bath aduild. Expume Enter Mall.
Mal.Hecre is the place where Phillip hid'me Etay, Till Francis cane, but wherefore did my bother,. Appoint is heeres why in the Cunny borough? He had fome meaning in't I warrant ye, Well heere ile ferme downe vider this tree, And thinke rpon the matter all alone, Good Lord what pritty things thefe Cunnies are,
How finely th:y do feede till they be fat, . And then what a fweet meate a Cunny is, And what fmooth skins they haue, both black and gray. They fay they run more in the night then day, What is the reafon? marke, why io the light, They feemore paffengers then in the pight,

angry vvomen of Abington.

For harmfull meir many a haye do fet.
And laugh to fee them tumble in thener, And they put ferrets in the holes, fie, fie, And they go vp and downe where connies lye, And they iye ftill, they haue fo little wit, I maruell the Warriner will fuffer it, Nay, nay, they are fo bad, that they themfelues, Do giue confent to catch thefe prettic elfes, How if the Warriner fhould fpie me heere? He would take me for a conny I dare fweare, Bus when that Eraxcis comes, what will he fay s. Looke boy there lyes a conney my way: But fof, a light, whofe that? foule my mother, Nay then all hid, I faith fhe fhall not fee me, Ile play bo peepe with her behinde this tree. eMif. Be.I maruell where this wench doth hide her felfe
So clofely? Ihaue fearcht in many a bufh; Mal. Bchke my mother tooke me for 2 Thrufh.
Mif.Bar. Shees hid in this fame Warren Ile lay money.
Mal.Clofe as a rabbet fucker from an olde conney. Mi, Bar, O God, I would to God that I could find her,
I would kerpe her from her loues toyes yet:
Mal, I o you might, if your daughter had no wit. Mi.Ba. What a vilde girle tis, that would hau't fo young.

Mal. A murrentake thas defembling tongue,
Ere your calues teeth were out you thoughe it long,
M, Bar Bur minion,yet Ile keepe you from the man.
Mall To faue alye mother, fay ifyou can.
Mi.Bar. Well, now to looke for her.

Mal. I theres the fpight,
What trick fhall Inow haue to fcape her light?
eMi.Bar. Whefe there? what ninion is it you:
Befhrew her heait, what a fright fhe put me to;
But I am gladI found her,though I wàs afraide,
Come on your wayes, you are a handfome maide.
Why you foorth a doores fo late at night?
Why whether go ye ! come ftand Aill Ifay.
Mal.No indeed mother, this is my beft way.
M.Bn. Tis not the beft way, tand by me I tell yee.

Mall. No you would catch me mother, oI frell ye.

A pleafant Comedie ofthetwo

Mi, Bar. Will ye not ftand fill?

Mal, No by Ladie no.
Msfo Bar, But I will make ye. Mal. Nay then trip and goe. Mi, Bar. Miltreffe, Ile make ye wearic ere I haue done.
Mal Faith mother then lle tric how you can runne,
M $\%$,Bar. Will ye?
MaloYes faith., Exurt.

- Enter Fran. Mal,fixeetheart, Mali?what not a word?

Boy.A listle further, call againe.
Fran. Why Mal, I prethie lpeake, why MalI fays
I know chou art nof farre, if thou wilt not feeake, why mal,
But now Ifee fhees in herimery vaine,
To makeme call and putme to more paine,
Well, I mult beare with her; (heel beare with me,
But I will call, leaft thacit be not $\{0$,
What Mall? what Mall I fay, boy are we rights
Haue we rot milf the way this fame darke night?
Boy, Mafe it may be fo as I amtras man,
1 hauc norfecme a cumny fince I came;
Yet at he Cunay-borow we Chould meete,

- But harke, Thearg chetrampling offotnefecte.

Fran, It may be io, then therefore lets lyeclofe.
Mif.Gon. Where are thou Dicket
Coo. Where am I quoth a mary tanay be where any body will fay I 1 m, eyther in Framce or at Rome, or at Ierufalemis they may fay I am,for I am not able to difproue then $n_{g}$ becaule I can not tell where I an.
Mi. Gon. O what a blindfold walke haue we had Dicke, To feeke my fonne and yet I cannot finde hifa? Coo.Why then Miftreffeleis goe home,
Mi. Gou. Why tis fo darke we fhall not finde the way.

Fran ${ }^{\circ}$ I pray God ye may not mother till it be day.
Coo.Sbloud take heed inifris heres a tree.
Mrf.Go. Lead shou the way, and let me hold by thee,
Bo. Dick Coome, what difference is here between a blind man, an the that cannet fees
Fra. Deace, a poxe on thee.
Coo.Swounds fome body fpake.
Mı. Gou, Dicke lookeabout,

Is may be here we may finde them out.

angry vvomen of A bington.Coo.I fee the glimpes of fome body heere,And ye be a fpite Ile fraie the bug beare,There a goes :miftreffe,Mi.Gorir.O fir have I fpide you:
Fr, A plague on the boy,twas he that difcried me.Exenns
Phi, How like a beautcous La dy maskt in blacke,
L.ookes that fame large circumference of heauen,
The skie that was fo faire three houres agoe,
Is in three houres becomean Ethiope,
And being angrie at her beanteous change,
She will not haue one of thofe pearled ftarres,
To blab her fable metamurphefis,
Tis very darke, I did appoint my fiter,
To meete me at the cunny berrie below,
And Francistoo, but neither can I fee,
Belike my mother hapned on that place.
And fraide ihem from it, and they both are now
Wandring about the fields, how fnall I finde them?
It is fo darke, I fcarfe can fee my hand,
Why then lle hollow forthem, no not fo,
So will his voice betray him to our mothers,
And ifhe anfwere, and bring them wherehe is,
What fhall I then do?it mult not be fo?
Sbloud it inuft befo, how elfe I pray?
Shall Iftand gaping heere all night till day?
And then nere the neere, fo ho, fo ho.
wil, So ho, I come, where are ye? where art thouthere.
Ph How now Franke, where hafthou been? (the bow.
Wil. Franke, what Frankes sbloud is fit Raph mad, heeres
Pbi.I haue notbeen much priuate with that voice,
Me thinke Franke Gour(e) stalke and his doth tellme,
I am mittaken, erpecially by his bow,
Franke had no bow, well, I will leaue this fellow,
And hollow fome what farther in the fields,
Doolt thou heare fellow, I perceiue by thee,
Thatt we are both miftaken, I tooke thee,
For one thouart nor, likewife thoutook ft me,
For fir Raph Smith,but fure I am nothe,
And fo farewell, I mult goe feeke my friend, fo ho:
Wil, Soho, fo ho, nay then fir Raph fowhoore;
A pleafant Comedic of therwo
For a whore fhe was fure, if you had her hereSolate, now you are fir Raphe Smith,Well do ye counterfeit and change your vayce,But yet I know ye, but what fhould be that Francis?Belike that Francis cufferid him of his wench,And he conceals himfelfo to finde het our,Tis fo vponenylife, well I will goAnd helpe him ring his peale of fo ho, foho,Enter Franke.Fra, A plague on Coomes, a plague vpon the boy,A plague too, not on my mother for an huindrech bound,Twas time to runne, and yee thad'not thotightMy mother could haue followed me fo clofe,Her legges with age I thought had foundered,She made ine quite runne through a quickfes hedge,Or the had taken me s well I may lay,I haue runne through the briers for a weniche,And yet Thaue her not, the woorfa lucke mine,Me thought Iheard one hollow here about,$I$ iudge it $\mathcal{P}$ belip, $O$ the !laue will hugh.
When as he heares how that my, mother fcarde me,Well, heere Ile fraad vacill I heare him hollow,Andshen Ile anfwere him, he is not farre.
Ras my man ishollowing for me vp and dowris,
And yet I cannor sacet with him, fo ho:
Franke. So ho.
Ra. Why what a poxe, wers thou fo neereme man,
And wouldew not speake?
Fra. Sbloud ye are very hoc.
Rap. Nofir, I am coide enough with faying here
For fuch a knaue as gou.
Fra. Knaue, how now Pbollip, artmad; art madd?
Ra. Why art not thou my man.
That went to fetch arybowe;
Fra. Indeed a bowe,
Might fhoote me tenbowes downe the weather $\mathrm{IO}_{3}$
1 yourman. Ra. What art thou then?Hollow mitbin Phillip snid Will.
Erax. A man,butsthats thy name?

$\qquad$
1

$$
\operatorname{sen} 1=
$$

$$
12
$$

1

$(-2+2+2+0+0=$
(2) $4=$ $-20$

angry women of Abington.

Ra, Well faid familiar Will, plaine Raph I faith, Fran. There calles my man.
Ra.But there goes mine ayay:
And yet lle heare what th. .
And here lle tarrie till he calla a
VVil. So ho. Fran. Soho, whet art thpu Pbillip,
Wil.Sblould Thillip,
But now he clade me Francis, this is fine
Fran. Why Itudieft thou? I prechy tell ne Philip.
Where the wench is.
Wil. Euen now he aske me Francis for the wench.
And now he aske me $P$ billip for the wench,
Well fit Raph. I mult needes tell ye row,
Tis not for your credit to be foorth,
So late a wenching in this order
Eran. Whats his, fo late 2 wenching doth he fay:
Indeed tis true, Iam shus late a wenching,
But I am fore't to wench without a wench.
Wil. Why then you might haue tane your bow at firts
And gone and kilde abucke, and not haue been
So long a drabbing, and be nere the neere.
Fran. Swounds what a puffell am In this nighe;
But yet Ile put this fellow farther,
Doolt thou heare man? I am not fir Raph Smitb.
As thou dooft thinke I am, but I did meere him,
Euen as thou faieft in purfuite of a wench.
I met the wench to, and aske for thee,
Saying twas thou that wert her loue, her deare,
And that fir Raph was not an honeft Knight,
To traine herthecher, and to vieher fo.
Wil, Sbloud my wench, fwounds were he ten fir Raphs.
Fran. Nay tis true, looke to it, and fo farewell. Exir.:
Wil, Indeed I doloue Nan our darie maide,
And hath he traineher forth to thatintent?
Or for another, icarrie his croficbow,
And he doth croffe me, fhooting in my bow,
What fhall I dos Entor Phillip
Pbillip.Soho: Rapb,Soho,
Phil. Francies art thou there?
RaNo heres no Francis, art thou Will my mans

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Phi. Will foole your man, will go!e your man, My backe fir fcornes to weare your liuerie.

Raph. Nay fir I mooude bur fuch a queftion to you, Had it hath not difparegd you I hope, Twas but miftaking, (uch a night as this May well deceiue a man, Godboye fir. Phil.Gods will tis fir Raph Smith,a veriuous knight,
How gently entertaines he my hard anfwer?
Rude anger made my tongue vnmannerly,
Icric him morcie, well, but all this while,
I cannot finde a Francis, Francis ho?
Wil. Francis ho, o you call Francis now,
How haue yevide my Nan? come tell me how :
Pbil, Thy Nan, what Nan?
Wil. I, what Nan now, fay, do you not fecke a wench?
Phi. Yes Ido.
Wil. Then fir thatisfice
Pbi. Art not thou Inet withalibe fore?
Wii.Yes fir, and you did counterfeit\}before,
And faid to me you were not fir Raph Smith,
Phil. No more I am not, I met fir Raph Smith,
Euen now he aske wo if tawhisman.
Wal. Ofiré.
Pbi. Why firra thouare much deceiued in me,
Good faith I am not he thouthinklt I am.
Wil. What are ye then?
Pbi. Why one that féckes one Francis and a wench.
Wil. And Francis feekes one Phillip and a werch:
Phil. How cant thoutcil?
Wilo I mee him feeking Philip and a wench,
AsI was feeking lir Raph and a wench.
Phil. Why then I know the matter, we met croff;
Andro we nilt, no where we finde our loffe,
Well, ifthou wils, we two will keepe togither,
And fo we fhall meet right with one or ethers
Wit, I añ content, but do you heare me fir ?
Did not fir Raph Smith aske yee for a wench?
Pbi, No I promife thee, nor did he looke for any
But thy felfe, as I could geffe.
Wil, Why this is \{range, but come firlets away;

I feare that we hall walke here fill it be day. - Exeuret. Entir Bry.O God I halierunne fofar inco the winde, that I haue tunne my felfe out of winde, they fay a man is neere his end when he lackes breach, and I am at the end of my race, for I can run no farther then here I be in my breath bed, not in my deatli bed,

Enter Coomes.
Coom. They lay men moyle and toile for a pooren, giso I moyle and toile, & an liuing I thanke God, in good time be it fooken, it had been better for me my uniftreffe angell had beene light, for then perhaps it had not lead me into this darkneffe, well, the diuell never bleffes a man better, when he purfes vp angels by owlight, I ranne shrough a hedge to tale che boy, bus I ltuck in the ditch; and loft the boy: fwounds a plague on that clod, that Mowl. h:1, that ditch, or what the deuil fo ere it were, for a man camot fee what it was, well, I would not for the prize of my fword & buckler, any body fhould fee me in chis taking, for it would make me but cut off their legges for laughing at ine, well, downe I am, and downe I meane to be, becaufe I am wearie, but to tumble downe thus, it was no part of my meaning, then fince Iam downe, here ile reft me, and no man Thallremooue me. Enter Hodge.
Hods. OI haue fport in coney I faith, I haue almoft burft my felfe with laughing at miltreffe Barnes, fhe was following of her daughter; and I hearing her, put on my fellow Dickes fword and bucklersroyce,, 2 his fwounds. $\%$ sbloud words, and led her fuch a daunce in the darke as it paffes, hecre the is quoth I, where quoth the ? here quoth I,O is hath been a braue here & chere night, but O what a foft nazured thing the durt is? how it wou'd endure my hard treading, and kiffe my feet for acquaintance, and how courteous and mannerly were the clods, to make ne ftumble onlié of purpofe to entreáte me lie downe & reft me, but now and I could find my fellow Dicke, I would play the knaue with him fone flly I Faith, Wcll, I will grope in the darke forhim, or ile poke with my faffe like a blinde man,to prerenta ditch. He ftumbles on Dick Coornes.

Coom. Whofethat with a poxe?
Hod. Who art thou with a peftilence.
H 2

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Coom. Why Iam Dick Coomes?
Hodg. What haue I found thee Dicke? nay then I am for yee Dicke, Whereare ye Dicke :
Coom. What can I tell where I am?
Hodg. Can yee not tell, come, come ye waight on your miftreffe well, come on your wayes, I haue fought you till Iam wearie, and calde ye till I ann hoarfe, good Lord what 2 ia chauchad this night, hey ho?

Coom. If you miftreffe that came over me,sbloud twere a good deed to come ouer you for this nights worke, I cannot affoord all this paines for an angell I tell ye true, a kiffe were not caft a way vpon a good fellow, that hath deferued more that way then a kiffe, if your kindseffe would affoord it him, What fhall I have is miftreffe ?

Hodg. Fie, fie, I mult not kiffe ny man.
Coom. Nay, nay, nere ftand, hall I, hall I, no body fees, fay but I hall, and Ile finack yee foundly I faith.
Hodg. A way bawdie man, in trueth Ile tell your maifter.
Coom. My nafter, goco, necretellme of my maifer, he may pray for them that may, ic is $p$ it it, and formine own part, I can do fomewhat that way I thanke God, I am not now tolcarne, and tis your 5 art to hane your whole defire.

Hod. Fie, fie, I am afhamed of you, would you tempt yout initreffe to lewdncffe.
Coom. To lewdncffe, no by my troth, thers no fuch matter in't, it is for kindneffe, & by my troih if you like my gentle offer, you hall haue what courteounly I can affoord ye.
Hod Shall I mdeed Dicke? I faith, if I thought no body would fee.
Coom. Tufh, feate unt that, fwones they mult haue Cattes Hod. Then kiff: me Dick. (eyes then, Coom, A kinde weache I faich, where are yce nuftreffe?
Hodge. Hecre, Dick, ol am in the darke, Dick go about.
Coom, Nay, ile gropefure, where are yce, Hodge. Heere, Coom, A plague on this poall, I would the Carpenter had bin hangd that fet it vp fo, where are yee now?
Hod. Herre.

Exit.
Coo, Here, o I come, a plague on it, $\frac{I}{}$ am in a pond miftres.
Hod. Ha, ha, I liaue led him intoa pond, where art thou
Coomes. Vp to the middle in a pond.
Dick?
Hodgs:

angry veomen of Abington.

- Hiod.Make a Boare of thy Buckler then; and fwini out,are yee fo hot with a pox? would you kiffe my miftreffe, coole ye there then good Dick Coomes,, when he comes forth the skirts'of his blew coate will dropp like a paint. houre, O that I could fee and not be feene, how he would Spaniellit, and fhake himfelife when he comes out of the pond, butile be gene, for now heele fight with a flye, if he buc buzinhis eate.

> Exit.

Enter Coomes.

Coom Heeres fo hoing with a plague, fo hang and ye will for Ihaue bin almof drownd, a pox of your lips, and ye call this kiffing': yee talke of a drownd Rat, but. was time to fwim like a dog. Ihad bin ferued like a drownd Catels, I would hehad didg his graue that digd the pond, my feete were foule indeed, but a leffe pale then a pond would haue ferued iny curneto waf them: $a$ man fhall be ferued thus alwayes, when hefollowes any of thefe females, buix tis my kinde heart that miakes me thus forward in kindnes vnto them, well God amend them, and make theni thankfull to them that would do the pleafure, I am not drunke I would ye fhould know it, and yet I haue drunke more then will do. me good, forI might hauc had a Puinpe fee vp, wish as good March Beere as this was, and nere fetyp an Alc bufh for the matter: well I am fom what in wroth I muff needs fay, and yet I arm not more angrie then wife, nor more wife then angrie, but ile fight with the next man I meete, and it be but for luck fake, and if heloue to fee him felfe hurr, let him bring light with him, ile doit by darkling els by gods dines, well hecre will I walke whofuetuer fayes nay.

Enter Nicholas.
2ic. He that worfe may nuuft holde the Candle, but my Mailter is nor fo wife as God might haue made him, he is gone to feckea Hayre in a Hennes neft, a Needle in a Botule of Haye, which is as fildome feene as a black Swan : he is gone to feeke my yong Miltreffe, and I thinke fhe is betterloft then found, for who fo cuer hath her, hath but a wet Eele by the tallo, but they may do as they lift, the law is in their owne hands, but and they woutd be ruld by me, they Thould fet her on the Leland, and bid the Diuell Pplit her, beflhew her fingers; ;he hath imade me warch paft mine hower, but Ile watch her a good eurne for it.
Coom. How, whole that Nicholes? Co firt come firt ferud, I am for him:how now prouerbe, prouerbe, sbloudhowe now prouerbe?

Ni, My name is Nicholas, Richard: and I kuowe your meaning, and I hope ye meane no harme: I thanke ye I am the better for your asking.
Coo. Where haue jou been a whoring thus late, ha?
Nr.Mafter Richard the good wife would not feeke her daughter in the Ouen valeffe fhe had bin there her felf, but good Lord you are knuckle deep in durt $\dot{y}$ I warrant when he was in, he fwore Wallingham, \& chaft terrible for the time, looke the water drops from you as faft as hops.
Coom. WhatneedAt thou to care, whipper-Ienny, Tripecheckes, out you fat affe.
2 Ki. Good words coft nought,ill wordes corrupts good manners Richard, fora hafy man neuer wants woe, & I had thought you hadbin my friend, but I fee al is not gold that glifters, ther's falhood in fellowfhif, a micus cerreus inve cer in cernitur, time & truch tries all, & tis an olde prouerbe, &s not fo old as true, bought wit is belt, I can fee day at a litle hole, I know your minde as well as though I were within you, tis ill halcing before a criple, go to, you feek to quartel but beware of had I wilt:ro long goes the pot to the water at length it comes home broken, isnow you are as good a man as euer drew fword, or as was ere girt in a girdle, or as ere went on Neats leather,or as one fhilfee vpo a fummers day, or as ere looke man in the face, or as ere trode ori gods earth, or as erebroke bread.or drunk drink c:but he is proper that hath proper conditions, but be not like the Cowe that giucs a good fope of milkeand caftes it do whe with her heeles.I rpeake plainly, for plaine dealing is a Iewel, &he that wfethit fhal dye a begger, well, that happens in an houre, that happens not in feauen yeeres; 2 man is not fo foone whole as hurt & you fhould kill a inan, you would, kiffe his: well, I fay listle, but I thinke the more, yet Ile giue' him good words, zis good to hold a candle before the de-uell, yer by Gods me, lle take no wrong, if he had a headas big as Braffe,orlookt ashigh as Poulep ifeeple.
Coo, Sirra, thou Grahoper, that flalt'skip frommy fword

=um
$=$
4
-

1
$\frac{1}{11}$
atur 1
梧 -1

$-2$
$\tan +\frac{1}{4}$
$-\frac{12}{x}-2$

angry women of Abington.

as from a Sithy Ille.custhee out incollops & egs, in fleekes, in filte beefe, and fry thee with the fire, I hall frike from the pike of thy Buckler.
2 ich.I, brag's good dog,threatned folkes liuelong.
Coo.What fay ye firts.
Nic, Why I fay not fo much as how do ye,
Coo, Doc ye not fo firt?
2 i . No indeed, what fo ere I thinke, and thought is free. Coo, You whorefon Wafer-cake, by Gods dines ile crufh yee for this.
ح i. Giue an inch and youle take an elle, I wil not pur my finger in a hole I wartant ye, what man, nere crow fo faft, for a blinde man may. kill a Hare, I haue knowne when a plaine fellow hath hurt a Fencer, fo I haue: What , a man may be as flow as a Snaile, but asfierce as a Lyon, and he be mooued: Indeed I am patient I muft needs fay, for patience in adueffiry, brings a man to the three Cranes in the Ventree,
Coo, Do ye heare, fet downe your Torcb, dra we, fighe, I am for ye.
TN. And I an for ye too, thoughit be from this midnight t $\phi$ thie nex morne.
Coo.Where be your tooles?
2ic. Within a mile of an oake fir, hee's a proud horfe will not carry his owne prouender, I warrantit ye.
Coo.Now am I in my quarrecling humor, and now can I fay nothíng.but fownes draw, but ile vintrus, & thē haucto it. Enter Hodge and Boy.
Hod. Whofe there, Boy? honelt Boy, well met, where haft thou bin.
Boy.O Hodge,Dicke Coomes hath bin as good as a ciye of Hounds, to make a breathd Hayre of me, but didft thou fee my mafter?
Hod. Inet him euen now, and he aske me for thee, and he is gone yp and downe, whoing like an Owle for thee, Bo). Owle, ye Affe.
Hod, Ane, no nor glaffe, for then it had been Owleglaffe, but whole that boy?
Bo. By the raffe tis our Coomes & Nicholas, &itit feemes they are prouiding to fight:

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Hod. Then we fhall haue fine foort, Ifaith firra, lets ftand clofe, and when they haue fought about or two, weele run 2way with the torch, && leaue thë to fight darkling, fhal we:
Boy.Content, Ile get the Torch, ttand clofe,
Coo.So now miy back hath roome to reach, I doe not loue to belac's in, when I goe to lace a ralcall, I pray God Nicholasproove not a fyyit would do me good to deale with a'good man now, that we might haue halfe a dozen good finart froakes, ha I haue leen the day, I could haue daunft in my fight, on, two, three foure & fiue, on the head of him fix, feauen,eight, nine &e ten, on the fides of him, & if I went fo far as fifteeric, I warrant I hewed hima trick ofone and: twentie :but 1 haue not fought this foure dayes, & I lacke a little practife of my warde, but Ifiall make a fhift, ha clofe, are ye defpofed fir?
Nic, Yes indeed Ifeare no coulers, change fides Richard, Coo. Change the gallowes, Ile fee thee handg firf.
2 ich. Well, I fee the foole wil not leaue his bable for the Tower of London.
Coo.Foole ye Roge, nay then fall to it.
2Nic,Good goofe bitenot.
Coo.Sbloud how purfey I am', well Ifee exercife is all, I mufl practife my weapous oftner, I mult haue a goale or two at Foote-ball, before I come to my right kind, giue me thy hand Nicholas, thou art a better manthen I took thee for, and yet thou art not fo good a man as I.
Ni. You dwell by ill neighbors Richard, that makes yee praife your felfe.
Coo. Why I hope thou wilt fay I am a man.
2 Ki. Yes ile fay fo, if I hould lee you hangd.
Coo.Hangd ye Rege, nay then haue at yee, fwounes the light is gone.
Ni.O Lord, it is as darke as Pirch,
Coo, Well heere Ile lye with my buckler thus, 'leaft Ariking vp and downe at randall, the roge might hurt ine, for $I$ cannot fae to faue it, and lle hold my peace, lealt my vnyce thould bring them where I am.

2 Uis. Tis good to haue a cloake for the raine, a bad thift is betterthen none at all, He fit heercess if W were as dead as a doore naile.

angry women of Abington.  Enter M. Barnes and M.Gourfey.

21. Gou. Harke, theres one holloes.
M. Bar. And theres another.
M.Gowr. And euery wis ere we come, Theere fome hoilo.

And yet it is our haps to meete with none.
M.Bar. I maruell where your Hodge e $¢$, and my man ?

M-Gokr. I and our wiuss, we cannot meet with them.
Nor with the boye, nor Mall, nor Framke,nor Thillip:
Nor yet with Coomes, and yet we nere flood itilh.
Well 1 am very angry with $m y$ wife, And The fhall finde I am not pleafd with her, Ifwe meetenere fo foone, but ris my hap, She hath had as blind a iourney out as we, Pray God The haue, and worfe if worfe may be.
M. Barr. This sis but fhort liu'de envic Mailter Gourfey:

But come, what fay yee to my pullicies,
M. Gok. I fiththtis good, and wie will practife it,

But fir it muft be handeled cunningly,
Or all is imard, our wiucs haue fubrill heads, And they will foone perceive a drift deuife.

Enfer fir Raphe Smith.

Raph. So ho,

Raph. Whofe there?
Raph; Is Will there : M. Gour. Franke?

M, Gour. So ho: M. Bar. Heers on ortvo.? M.Bar. No, Phillip?

Rapb. No,no.

Was euer man deluded thus like me,
I thinke fome fpirit leids me thus amiffe:
As I haue ofte heard, that fome haue bint thus in the nights,
But yet this mafes me where ere Icome,
Some askes meftill for Franke or Phillip,
Andnone of them cantell me where Willis.

| Wil So ho ? | Pbil, So ho. | Thay hollo |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Hodg. So ho? | Boy.Soho: |  |

Rap.Sownes now I heere foure hollow at the lealt,
One had a little voice, then thats the wench
My man hath loft, well I will anfwer all, fo ho. Hodg. VVhope, whope, Raph.VVhofe there wille Hod.Nofir, honeft Hodge: but I pray yee fir did yee not meete with a boye with a Torche, he is runne away from me a plague on him.

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Raph. Hey day, from Franke and Phillip to a Torche, And to a Boye, nay fownes then hap as twill.
M. Gour. Who goesthere?

Wil. Geffe heere. M, Bay, Phillip.
Wil. Phillip, no faith, my names Will, ill will,for I was neuer worfe, I was euen now with him, and might haue been Atill, but that I fell into a ditch and loft him, and now I am going $\mathrm{v} p$ and dowie to feeke him.
M.Gior. What wouldtt thou do with him.

Wil. Why I would hauc him go with me to my maiters. M. Gou. Whore thy maifter?

Wil. Why fir Raphe Smith, and thether he promif mehe would come, if he keepe his worde fo tis.
M. Ba. What was he a doing wheath ou firt found him.

Wil. Why he holloed for one Francis, and Francis hollod for him, I hallod for my'maifter, and my ma: fter for me, but we mift ttill meering contrary, Phillip & Etancin with me $2 my mailter, and I & my maifter with Philip andF: anke,
M. Gor. Why wherfore is fir Raphe fo late abroarle?

Wil. Why he ment to kill a Buck, tle fay fo to faue his honeltic, bue my Nan was his maske, & when he fent me for his bow, and when I came, I holled for him, but. Ineuer faw fuch luck to miffe him, it hath almoft made me mad.
M.Bar. Weli ftay with vis, perhap: fir Raphe and he, Will rome anoa, hạrke I do heere one hollo. Entr Phillip.
Phil. Is this bood waling in a winters nighr,
I amb broad walking in a winters night:-
Broad indee d, becaufe ì am abooad,
But thefe broadfields ine thinks are not fo broad, That they may keep: me foorth of narrow ditches, Heers a liard world, for I can hardly keep my felfe vpright I am, ma ruellous dutifull, but foho. (init, Wil. So ho, Phil, Whofe there? VVsl. Heeres will. Pbi. What VVill, how fcapit thou? Wil. What fir?
Pbi, Nay, not hanging, but diowning,
Wert thou in a pondor a ditche ?
Wil. A peftilence on it, ift you Phillip,nofaith, I was bue durty a little, but heeres onc or two askt for yee.

```
        .
```

```
        *)
    . .
        8(2)
        <melol
        Len
```

```
        Latasin
```

```
        #-4)
#
La
    4
```

```
        L2-20)
```

```
                            18
```

```
                            18
```

angry women of Abington.

Phil. Who be they man?
M.Bar. Philip, tis I and maiffer Gourfey.
$T$ Phi. Father, O Father I haue heard chem fay,
The dayes of ignorance are paft and done,
But Iam fure the nrghts of ignorance
Are not yet palt, for this is one of then,
But wheres my fifter?
M. Bar. Why we cannot tell, Phi.VVheres Francis?
M. Gour. Neither faw we hinn. Pbio. VWhy this is fine.

VVhat neither he, nor $I$, nor fhe nor you,
Nor 1, nor fhe, noryou,and I till now,
Can micet,could meet, or nere I thinke fiall meete,
Cal yethis woing,notis Chriftnas fport of Hob mä blind Allblind, all feek to catch, all miffe: but who comes heere? $\varepsilon_{n t e r}$ Franke and his Boye.
Fra. O haue I catcht yce fir,it was your dooing,
That made me haue this prity daunce to night,
Had not you fpoake, iny mother had not fcard me,
But I will fwinge ye for it.
Pbil. Kcepe the Kings peace.
Fran How? art thou become a Conflable ?
VVhy Phillip where haft thou binall this while ?
Phi, Why where you were not,but I pray whers my fifter?
Fran. Why man Ifaw her not, but Ihaue fought her as I
Phll.A ineedle haue yee not: (hhould fecke.
Why you manare the needle that fhe feekes
To worke withall, well Francis do you hecre,
You muift not anfiwere fo, that you haue fought her, But haue yee found her, faith and dif you hiuc,
God give yee ioy of chat ye found with her,
Fra I faw her nor, how could I finde her,
en.Gou. Why, could yee miffe from Maifter Barnfes houle vinto his Cunnyberry?
Fram. Whether I could or no father I did.
Phill. Father I did, well Fr:-3ke wilt thou belecue me,
Thou doff notknow how much this fame doth greeue me
Shall it bee faid thou milt fo plaine a way,
When as fo faire a wenche did for thee flay.
Fra, Sowries man.
Pbi, Sownes man, and ifthou hadft bin blinde,
The

A pleafant Comedie of the two

The cunny-borow thouncedf muff finde :
I tell thee Francis, had it bin my cafe,
And I had bin 2 woer in thy piace,
I would haue laide my head vnro the ground, And fented out my wenches way likea Hound: I would haue crept vpon nyy knees all nighr,
And hure made the fint fones Linckes io giue me light, Nayman I would.
Fran, Good Lord what you would doe,
Well we fhallf fee one day how you can woe. M. Gor. Come, some, we fee that we haue all bin crof.

Therefore lets go,and feeke them we hauc loft. Exienrr. Enter Mal. Am I alone? doth not my mother co:ne? Hertorch I fee not, which I well mighe fee, If any way the were comming toward.me, VVhy then belike fhees gone forme other way; And may fhe go till I bid her tusne, Farre fhall her way be then, and little faire, For the hath hindered me of nuy good turne, God fend her wet and wearie ere fhe turne, I had beene at Oxenford, and to morrow. Haue beene releaff fromall my maidens forrow. And tafted ioy, had noe my mother bin, God I befecch thee make it her worff finne, How many maides this night lyes in their beds, And dreame that they haue lof their maidenheads, Such drea mes, fuch fumbers I had to enioyde, If wakıng mallice had not them deftroide, A flarued man with double death doth dye, To haue the meate might faue him in his eye, And may not haue it,fo am I tormented, Toffariuc for ioy Ife. yet am prevented, VVell Franke, although thou woedft and quickly wonne, Yet fhall my loue to the be neuer done, Ile run through hedge andditch, through brakes & briers To come to thee, fole Lord ofmy defires, Short woing is the bet, an houre, not yeares, For long debating loue is full offeares,
But hearise, I heqre onetread, o wert my brother, Or Franke, or any man, but not my mother.

angry vyomen of Abington.

S.Rap. O when will this fame yeare of night have end?

Long lookt for daies funne, when wilt thou alcend?
Let not this sheefe fiend mifty vale of night, Incroach on day; and fhadow thy faire light, Whilf thou com ft tardy from my Thetes bed, Bluhhing foorth golden hare and glorious red, Oftay not lor g bright lanthorne of the day, Tolight my mift way feete to my right way? Mall,lit is a mav, his big voice tels me fo,
Much am I not acquainted with it tho, And yet mine eare founds true diffinguifher, Boyes that I have been moreramilizr, With it thein now I am, well, I dociudge, It is not enuies fellon not of grudge,
Therefore lle plead aćquaintance, hyerhis guiding,
And buy of himfome place of clofe abiding,
Till that my mothers mallice be expirted,
And we may ioy in that is long defired, whofes theref
Ra.Are ye a maide:no queftion this is fhe,
My man doth miffe, faith fince fhe lights on me,
I doe not meane till day to let her goe,
For what the is my tnans lour I will know,
Harke ye mayde, if inayde, are.ge folight,
Thar you can fee to wander in the night.
Mal.Harke ye true man,f frue, I tell you no,
I cannot fee arall which way I goe.
Re,Fayre mayde, iff fo, fay, had ye nerea fall, ; Mal Fayre man not fo, no 1 liad none at all. Ra. Could you not fuunble onone man I pray? Mal.No, no, fuch blocke till now came in my way.
Re, Am I that blocke fweet tripe, shen fall and ery.
© $\mathcal{M}$ s, The gronnds too hatd, a feather-bed, not 1 .
Re. Why how and yout had nuer with fuch a furmpe?
Mal Why ifhe had been your height I meant to iumpe.
Ro, Areye fónimbles Mal.Nimbleasa Doe.
Ra,Backe in apye. Nal. Of ye.
Ra, Good meate ye know.
Mall. Ye hunt fometimes.Ro.Ido.e $sal.What take ye?
Ra.Deare. CThall, You'l necreftrike racoull?
Ro. Yes when yeare chere.
I 3
Sall:
A pleafant Comedie of the twoMal. Will ye frike me, Ra.Yes, will ye frike againe?Ra,l wonder wench, how Ithy name might know.
Mall. Why you may finde itin the Chilltcroffe row.
Ra,Be my. Schoolem!trcife, teach me how to Pell it.Mall, No faith, I care nat greatly if I tell it ,
My name is Marie Barnes.
Ra. How wench, Mall Barne: : Mald The verie fame:Rap. Why chis is ftrange.Mal, I pray fir whats oi ure name:Raph, Why fir Raph Smuth doth wonder wench at thisWhy whats the caure thou art abroad folate?Mal. What fir Raph Smith, rlay then I will difclofe,All the hole caufe to him, in him repofe,My hopes, my loue, Godhim Ihope did fend,
Ourloues and both our mochers hates to end,Gentle fir Raph ifyou my. bluwh might fee,You then would day I ani a fhamed to beFound like a wandring ftray by fuch a knight,So farre from home at fich a time of night,But myexcufe is good, loue firf by fateIs crolt, controulde, and fundered by fell hate,
Franke fourfey is my loue, and he loues sise,But both our mothers hate and dif. gree,Our fathers like the inatch, mnd wifh it dorn,And fo ithad, had not our mothers come,To 0 xford we concluded bo:h to go,Going to mecte, they came, we parted io,My mother followid we, but 1 ran falt,
Thinking who went fionshate had need make haft,
Take nie fhe cannot though fhe flill perfuc,
Buenow fweet knight, Idorepofe on you.
Be you my Orator and plead my righr,
And get me one good day for this bad night.
Ka.Alas good heart, I pitty thy hard hap,
And Ile cmiploy all that I nay for thee,
Franke Gourley wench,I doecommend shy choyle,
Now I remember I met one Francis
As Id did feeke my man,then that was he,
And Philip too, belike chat was thy brother, why now I angry voonen of A bington.find how I did loofe my felf, And wander yp & down, mi-ftaking fol, Give me thy hand Mall, I will neuerleaue.

Till I haue made your mothers friends agane,
And purchaft to ye both your hearts delight,
And for this fame one bad, many a good night,
Twill not be long ete that Aurora will,
Deckt in the glory of a goldon funne,
Open the chriftall windowes of the Ealt,
To make the earth enamourde of thy face,
When we fhall hate cleare light to fee our way,
Come, night being done, expecta happy day. Exeunt.Enter ssifireffe Barnes $\mathrm{Mi} / \mathrm{Ba}_{1} \mathrm{O}$ what a race this peeu!f girle hath led me?
How falt I ran and now how weary I am,
I am fo out of breath 1 fearec can fpeake.What fiall I doe? and cannot ouertake her,
It is late and darke, and I am far ftom home.
May there not theeues lje watching heere about,
Intending nifchiefe virto them they meete,
There may, and I ann much aftrayde of them,
Being aloue without all company,
I doe repent me of iny coniming foorth;
And yer I do not, they had elfe been married.
And that I would not for teit times more labour.
But what 2 winter of colde feare I tole,
Freecing nyy heart leaft danger fhould betide me,
What fhal I do to purchufe company: :
I heare fome hollow here about the ficlds,
Then here lle fet my Torch vpon this hill,
Whofe light fhall Beacon- hike conduct them to it,
They that haue loft theyr way fecing a light,
Will come to it, wel!, hercile lye vnfeene,
For it may be feene farre off in the night,
And looke whe comes, and chute my company,
Perhaps my daughter may firft come to it,
M.Gour. Where am Inow? nay where was I euen now,
Nor now, nor then, nor where 1 hhall be, know I,
Ithinke I am going home I may as well
Be going from home, tis fo very darke,
I cannot fee how to direct a ftep,

A pleafant Comedie of thetwo

Iloft my man purfuing of my fonic,
My fonne efcapt me too, now all alone, I am enfurf to wander $v p$ and downe, Barnfes wife's s broad pray God that the:
May haue as good a daunce, nay ten times worfe, Oh but I feare fhe hath not, fhe hath light
To fee her way, $O$ that fome bridge would breake That fhe might fall into fome deep digd ditch, And eyther breake her bones or drowne her felfe; I would thefe mifchiefes I could wifh to her,
Might light on her, but foft Ifee a light,
I will go neere, tis comfortable,
After this nighis fad .pirits dulling darknes,
How nowtwhat is it fer to keep it felfe?
Mi/,Bar. A plague ont, is the there? Mif. Gou, O how it cheares & quickens vp my thoughts, Mi. Bar. O that it were the Beffeliskies fell eye,

To poyfon thee:
Mı. Gov.I carethot if Itake it.

Sure none is heere to hinder me,
And light me home.
Mi. Bar.I had rather fhe were hangd.

Then I fhould fer it there to doe her good. Mif.Go. I faith I will. Mi.Ba.I faith you fhall not miftreffe.

Ile venter a burnt finger but Ile haue it. Mi. Gou. Fet Barnfes wife would chafe if that the knew,

That Ihad this goodto get a hight.
Mi.Ba. And fo fhe doth, but praife you lucke at parting.

Mi, Go. O that it were her light good faith, that fhe,
Might darkling walke about as well as I.
M, Ba.O how this mads. e, that fhe hath her wifh,
Mi.Go. How I would laughto fee her trof about. $\mathrm{Mi}, \mathrm{BarOh}, \mathrm{I}$ could cry for anger and for rage.
Mi. Go. But who fhould fet it here I maruel a Gods name:

Mr.Bar.One that will hau're from you in the deuils name
Mi.Go.Ile lay nyylife that it was Barnfes fonne.
Mi.Ba. No forfooth, it was Barnfes wife.
Mi.Gou, A plague vpon her, how the made me fart?

Mifteffe let goe the Torch, angry vvomen of A bington.Mi/,Bar. No but I will not:Mif.Gow. Ile thruft it in thy face then. .Mi, Bar, But you Mall not.Mi,Gou.Lergo I fay.
Mi.Ba.Let you go, for tis mine.
Mif.Go. But my poffefsion faies it is none of thine.
M.Bar. Nay, I haue holde too,
Mi. Gou. Well, let go chy hold, or I will fpurne thee,
Mi, Bar. Do $I$ can fpurne thee too.
Mi,Go.Canft thou!
Mi.Ba.I that Ican.
Exser Mafter Gourfey and Barnes;
M. Go. Why how now woman , how valike to womeng-
Are ye boch now!come parícome part I fay.
M.Ba. Why what immodelty it this in yous
Come part I lay ,fie, fie.
Mi.Ba, Fie,fic, fhe fhall not heve my torch,
Giue me thy torch boy, I will run a tilt,
And burne out both her eyes in my encounter.
Mi.Go. Giue roome and lets haue this hot careric.,
M. Go, I fay ye fhall not, wife goto, tame your thoughts,
That are fomad withfury.
M.Ba. And fweet wife,
Temper yourage with patience, do not be Subiect fo much to fuch mifgouernment.
Mi, Barshal I not fir, when fuch a Arumpet wrongs me?
M. Go.How, ftrumpet miltris Barnes, nay I pray harke ge,
I oft indeed haue heard you call her fo,
And I haue thought vponit, why ye fhould
Twither with name of frumper,
Doyou know any hurt by her, that you terme her fo: M. Ba. No on my life, rage onely makes her fay fo, M.Go.But I would know whence this fame rage thould Whers fmoke theres fire, and my heart inifgiues, (come,
My wiues intemperance hath got that name,
And miftreffe Barnes, I doubt and fhrewdly doubt;
And forne great caufe begets this doubt in me,
Tour husband and my wile doth wrong vs both. M.BarHow? chinke ye fo, nay maRtes Gourfey tnen

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Yourunindebt to my opinion, :s
Becaule you pay not fushaduifed wifedame, As 1 thinke due vnto my good conceit. M. Go. Then ItiliIfeare I hall your debrer proowe, Then I arreft you in she name oflcue,
Nor bale, but prefant anfwere to my plea, Andinthe Couit of realon we wallitrie, If that gocd thoughts fiould belerue ieloufie,
Phil, Why looke you mother, this is long of you, For Gods fake father harke, why thefe effects Come fall from womens malice, part I pray, Comes, VViland Hodgecome all andhelpe vs part țhem, Father, but heare me fpeake one word no more:
Franke. Father, but heare me (peake, then vfe yourwill:
Pbil. Crie peace betwene ye For a litle while.
Mi.Gou. Goodhulband heare him feeake.
M. . Ba Goodhufoand lieare him

Cooim. Maifter heare him fpeake, hees a geod wife young Aripling, for his yeeres I tel ye, & perhaps may fpeake wifer then an elderbody, therefore heare him.
Hod.Mafter heare and make an end, you may kiloneanother in ieft, and be hanged in carnett :
M.Go. Come let vs heate him, then fpeake quickly Philip M.Ba, Thou fhouldf thaue done ere this, fpeak Phil, fpeak Mij.Bar. O Lord what hafte you make to hurt your felues Good Phillip vfe fome good peifvafions
To make them fricuds.
Phi, Yes, lle doe what I can,
Father and Mafter Gourley both attend,
It is prefunption in foyoung a man,
To teach where he might learne or be dereat
Where he hath had direction but in duety.
He may perfwade as long as his perfwafe,
Is backt with reafon and a rightfull fure,
Phifickes firte rule is this, as I baue learned,
Kill the effect by cutting of the caufe,
The fame effeets ofruffin out rages,
Comes by the caufe of mallice in your wiues,
Had not they two binfoes, you had bin friends.

A pleafant Comedie of thetwo

A little breath is fpent in fpeaking of faire words, When wrath hath violent deliuered,
M.Bar. VVhat fhall we be refolured?

Mi, Bar. O husband fay,
Stay Maifter Gourfey, though your wife doth hate ine,
And beares ynto me mallice infinite,
And endleffe, yet I will refpect your faferies,
I would not hauc you perifh by our meanes,
I muft confeffe, hatit onely furpeet,
And no proofe els, hath fed my hate toher.
Mi.Gour, And husband I protell by heauen and earaks;

That her fufpect is caunles and viuft,
And that I nere had fuch a vilde intent,
Harme fhe imaginde, where as nonewas ment.
Pbil. Loe fir, what would yee more? M.Bar. Yes Phillip this :

ThatI confirme him in my Innocence,
By this large vniuerfe.
M, Gont. By that I weare, ile credit none ofyou, vneerill
Friendhip soncluded ftaight betweene chem two ,
IfI fee that chey willingly will doe,
Then ile imagine all furpition ends,
I may be then a fured ihey being friends.
Phil, Mother, make full my wifh, and be it fo. Mi. Bar. VV hat hall I fue for friendhhip to my fce? Pbil. No, if fhe yeeld will you? Mi.Ba. It may be I. Pbol. V Vhy this is well, the orher I will trie, Come Miftreffe Gourfey, do you firt agree? Mi,Gour. WV hat fhall I yeeid vito nine enemie ?
Phil, VVhy iffhe wil, willyou? Mi.Gor. Perhaps I wilo Phel, Nay then I finde shis goes forward ftill:
Mother giue me your hiand giue me yoursto,
Be not foloath, fome good thing I muft doe,
But lay your Torches by, 1 like not them,
Come, come, deliuer.them vneo your men,
Giue me your hands, fo now fir heere I fand,
Holding two angrie women in my hand,
And I muft pleale them both, I could pieafe tone,
But it is hard when there istwo to one,

angry women of Abington.
Efpecially of women, but tis fo,
They flall be pleafd whether they will or ne,
Which will come firt? what buth gilie back, ha, neither?
Why then yond may helpe that come both together,
So ftand fill, ftand but a litele whule,
And fee how I your angers will beguile, Well yet there is no hurt, why thenlet me, Ioyne the fe two hands, and fee how theil agree,
Peace, peace, they crie, looke how they friendly kiffe,
VVell all this while there is no harne in this,
Are not thefe two twins ? twins fhould be,ooth alike,
If tone (peakes faire, the sother fhould not Atrike, Iefus thefe warriours will not offerblowes,
VVhy then tis Arange that you two fhould be foes,
O yes, youle fay your weapons are your tougnes, Touch lip with lip and they are bound from wrougss
Goto, imbrace, and fay if you befriends,
That heere the angrie womens quarrelsends.
Mi. Gou. Then heere itends, if miftres Barnes fay fo.
Mi.Bar. If you fay 1,1 lift not to fay no.
M. Gou, If they be friends, by promife we agree.
M.Bar. And inay this league offriendhip euer be. Phri, VV hat faift thou Franke, doth not this fall out well? Fran. Yes ifmy Mall were heere, then all were well. Enter Sir Raphe Smith witb Mall.
Raph. Yonder they be Mall, ftay, ftand clofe and fur not Vntill call: God faue yee Gentlemen,
M.Bar. VVhat.fir Raph Smith, you are a welcome man,

VVe wondred when we heard you were abroad.
Raph. VVhy fir, how heard yee that I was abroad:
M.Bar.By your man. Raph. My man, where is he:

Wil. He ere. Raph. O yee are a truftie fquire.
2Jic, It had bin better and he had faid, a fure carde.
Pbil. VVhy firt: Nic, Becaufe it is the Prouerbe.
Pbil. A way yee Affe.
2 ic . An Affe goes a foure legs, I go of two, Ghiritt croffe.
Phi,Hold your tongue, $\mathcal{N}$ ich. And make no more adoe.
M. Gou. Go to, np more a doe, gentle fir Raphe,

Yourman is not infault for miffing you ${ }_{2}$.

A pleafant Comedie of the two

For he miftooke by vs and we by him.
Raph. And I by you, which now I well pircciue,
Butte! me Gentlemen, whatina ne yee all, Be from your beds th is nigh', and why thus iate Are your wiu:s walking heere abour the fields?
Tis frange to fee fuch women of accoumpt,
Heere, but I geffe fome greatoccafion,
M. Gour. Faith this occafion fir, women will iarre,

And iarre they did ro day, and fo they parted, We knowing womens mallice let alone,
Will Canker like cate farther in theirhearts,
Didfeeke 2 fodaine cure, and thusit was,
A match betweene his daughte: and my fonne,
No fooner motioned but twas agreed, And they no fooner faw but wooed and likte, They haue it fought to croffe, and croffe it thus. Rap. Fie miltreffe Barnes and miftrefle Gourfey both,
The greateft finne wherein your foules may finne,
It thinke is this, in croffing of truc loue,
Letme perfwade yec.
Mi.Bar. Sir we are perfwaded,

And land miftrefle Gcurfey are bo:hfriends,
And if isy daughter were but foun:lagame,
Who now is miffing, fhe had iny content,
To be difpofd oft to her owne conrent. Raph.I do reioyce, that whar Ithought to doe,
Ere I begin, Ifinde alreasy done,
Why this will pleafe yourfriends at A bington,
Franke, if thou feek it that way, there thon fhale finde
Her, whon I hoide the comfort of thy minde. eß all. He fhall not feeke me, I will feeke him ou!,
Since of my mothers graunt I need nut doubr.
A li, $b$ ar, Thy mother graunts my girle, and fine doth pray
To fend vinto you both a ioyfull day.
Hodg. Nay miftreffe Barnes, I wifh heer better, that thofe ioyfuli dayes may be curnd to ioyfull nights.
Coom Faith tis a pretty wench,and tis pitty but fhe fhou'd haue him.
Nich. And miftreffe Mary, when yee go to bed, God fend

angry women of Abington.

you goodreft, and a peck offleas in your neft, euery one as big as Francis.
Phi, Well faid wifdome, God fend thee wife children, Nich And you more money.
Phil.I, fo wifh I,
Nich. Twill be a good while, cre you wifh your skin full of ilet holes.
Phil. Franke, harke ye? brother, now your woings done,
The next thing now you do, is for a fonne:
I prithe, for If faith I frould be glad,
To haue iny felfe cald Nunckle and thou Dad,
Well fiter, if chat irancis play the man,
My mother mult be Grandam and you Mam,
To it & rancis, oo it filter, God fend yee ioy,
Ti , inctes fing danley my owne fweet boye.
Ere. Wellfirisfton
Thil, Nay fic do you jeft on.
M. $\mathrm{Ba}_{\mathrm{a}}$ Wellimy ine prooue a happywife to him:
M. ©os. And may he prooue as happy vnto her.

Rapho. WVill Gentenien, good hap betide them both Sincetwas bizy hap thes ins ppily to meete,
Tobe a witiciffe o! ct is fivecte contract,
I doe reicyec, whercfore to haue this ioye
Leenger prefent with me, I do requeft
That all of you will be my proinift guefts,
This long nighte labour dooth defire fome reft,
Befides this wifhed end, therefore I pray,
Leime deteine yee buta dinner tinic,
Tell me I pray, hall I obtaine fo much.
M. Bar. Gentle fir Raphe,your courtefie is fuch,

As may impofe commaund virto vs all,
We will be thankfull bolde atyour requeft,
Pbil. I pray fir Raph, what cheere fhall we haue?
S. Raph. I faich countrie fare, mution and Veale,

Perchance a Ducke or Goofe.
Mal. Oh I amfick.
All. How now Mall, whats the matter?
Mal. Father and mother ifyou needs would know,
He namde a Goofe, which is my ftomacks foe,

A pleafant Comedie of the two

Pbi, Come, come, the is with childe of fome odieft, And how fhees ficke till that fhe bring it foorth. Mal, Aielt quoth you? well brother ifit bej, I feare twill proóue an earneft vnto me, Goofe faid yc fir? oh that fame very name, Hhth in it much variety of haine,
Of all the birds that euer yet was feene, Iwoulqu: haue them graze vponthis greene,
Ihope they will not, for this crop is poore, And they may pafture vpon greater ftore. But yet tiz pittie that they let them paffe, Andl ike a Conimon bite the Mufes grafic, Yet this Ifease if Franke and ! frould kiffe, Some citeking goofe would chide ve with a hifie, I meane not that goofe that fings it knowes not what,
Tis not chathiffe when one faies hift come hither,
Nor that fame hiffe that fetteth doggestogether,
Not that fame hiffe that by a fire doth fand.
And hiffeth T. or Fo vpon the hand,
But tis a hiffe, sod lle valace my cote,
For I fould found fure if I heard that note,
And then greene Ginger for the greene goofecries,
Serues not che turne, Iturn'd the white of eyes,
The Rofafolis yet that makes me liue,
Is fauours that thele Gentlemen may giys
But if they be dif pleared, then pleardo aint,
To yeeld my selfe a biffing deatito dye,
Yet I hope heeres none conféntsto kilh,
Butkindly take the fenour of good will.
Ifany ching be in the pen to blamel
Then here fand I to blufh the writets hame:
If this be bad, he promifes a better.
Trul him,and hic will prooue a right true debres.

FINCIS

CO425524114

[^0]:

[^1]:    $$
    \frac{1}{2}+
    $$

    *

