REPULSED ATTACK AND MADE PROGRESS

French Made Small Gain in Region North of Arras

VIOLENT ARTILLERY DUEL WAS FOUGHT

Enemy's Attempt Against Positions to the East of Metzeral Failed

Paris, June 30.—The war office issued the following statement this afternoon: "The region to the north of Arras last night saw violent cannonading and some infantry engagements. To the north, at the Chateau de Curleu, we made slight progress; to the south, at the Cabaret Rouge, a German attack was repulsed.

"In the Vosges we easily checked a German attempt to deliver a fresh attack against our positions to the east of Metzeral."

BRIEF REVIEW OF THE LATEST REPORTS

London Observers Believe Russians Wish to Avoid Tedious French Warfare

London, June 30.—The statement that the Germans are continuing their advance into Poland was coupled in Petrograd dispatches to-day with the news that an imperial rescript has been issued announcing that Russia will make peace only after Germany and Austria have been crushed.

This was taken by military observers here to indicate that in Petrograd the Russian reverses are not considered serious, and as confirmation of the belief hitherto held that the Russians prefer to advance and retreat over a wide region rather than to allow the Germans to turn the Galician battlefields into an affair of the trenches, as on the western front.

Outside of the struggles in Galicia and Poland, events in the last twenty-four hours in the war zones were not important. Montenegro captured Scutari and there was a little infantry fighting on the French front, with a slight gain for Joffre's forces at a point north of Arras. The Italian forces bombarded an Austrian bridgehead at Gorizia. It was reported that at a council of war at Innsbruck the German allies had decided to abandon the lower portion of the Tyrol to the Italians and to fall back to a second line of defence.

The following is a summary of the announcements issued during the past 24 hours by the war offices of the nations at war:

French, British and Belgian—Heavy fighting reported in the region of Metzeral, Alsace. The capture of French positions by the Germans was followed by their recapture by the Germans. To-day the French and Germans fought a repulsed a new offensive with heavy losses to the Germans. They also announce a success at a point to the north of Arras, where the fighting continues to-day. At Bagatelle, in the Argonne, a struggle with hand grenades and torpedoes is on between the French and the Germans. There was little activity along the British and Belgian fronts.

Russian—The continuation of the advance of the German allies in the Polish provinces of Lublin is admitted, but the Germans are reported to have lost heavily in the rear-guard actions fought by the Slavs. Von Linsingen's army is said to have been cut up badly during its advance. Calm is reported along the Vistula river, with repulsed attacks of the Germans in the Shavil region. German and Austrian—Berlin and Vienna claim the capture of Tomaszow, Poland, and the pushing back of the Russians by General von Linsingen's army. The capture of Kamionka, said to have begun evacuation of the positions on the Taney river and along the Lower San. Berlin claims a repulse of the French along the Bethune-Arras road in their drive towards Lens and further defeats of the French at Les Eparges. It chronicles the damaging of the cable at Boissoms, claiming that it is the result of an observation post. Vienna says the Italians wasted much ammunition in bombarding a bridgehead at Gorizia, and asserts that there was little of moment otherwise along the fronts.

TO FALL BACK TO THE BOTZEN LINES?

Reported That Austrians Will Evacuate Trent and Surrounding Country

GREAT ENTHUSIASM IN THE CAPITAL OF ITALY

Decision Said to Have Been Made at Meeting in Innsbruck

Rome, June 30.—A smashing victory for Italy in her drive on Trent and the occupation of that city and the whole of the southern part of the Tyrol, following the evacuation by the Austrian forces, is to be an event of the near future if accounts of a new Austrian plan of campaign which reached here to-day from Innsbruck are correct.

Austria, according to these reports, finds herself unable longer to resist the Italian drive through Riva and Rovereto on Trent, and is to fall back upon prepared lines at Botzen, to the north, abandoning to the Italians the whole of that tongue of the Tyrol which stretches into Italy between Switzerland and Carinthia.

The Idea Nazionale to-day publishes the account of the fresh plans for resistance by Austria, which, it reports, were made at an Austrian war council dominated by Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, who is regarded as one of the ablest of the German generals. The meeting was held at Innsbruck on Thursday last, and the members of the council remained in session all day.

The question discussed most was how to stop the onrush of the Italians on Trent. While the council's definite decision is not known, enough facts have been learned to form a basis for the statement that the territory below Botzen will be abandoned by the Austrians. The Austrian defence will begin south of Botzen, where the second line of Austrian defences starts. The rapid occupation of the peaks dominating mountain passes by the Italians has upset the plans of the Austrian general staff.

In addition to Crown Prince Rupprecht, Crown Prince Charles Francis Joseph of Austria and many generals of the Austrian and German armies attended the council. When the meeting was over, Crown Prince Rupprecht left on a special train for the front in France.

The concentration of Austrians above Toblach continues, and many trains filled with German troops are being rushed to Austria to help in the attempt to check the Italians.

DOMINION TAKES OVER CARE OF ENEMY ALIENS

Fernie, June 30.—Under instructions from the minister of justice, Lieut.-Colonel Mackay, officer commanding the 10th regiment, Kootenay Rifles, has investigated the cases of eight Bohemians interned here with the three hundred enemy aliens now in the detention camp, and to-day they were released from confinement.

Chief Provincial Constable Welsh received instructions by wire last night from Victoria to turn over to Lieut.-Col. Mackay all the interned enemy aliens here. This places the prisoners in the hands of the Dominion authorities and will stop the expense being borne by the province. This action meets with very great favor here, it being felt that Lieut.-Col. Mackay will handle the situation to the satisfaction of all.

along the Trentino front reported, with a still repulse of the Austrians at Monte Civarone. The Italians are dominating the passes one by one after hot, isolated combats between small commands. Reports are published here that the Austrians have decided to abandon the southern Tyrol and fall back to a line south of Botzen. There is little activity along the Leanzo front where atmospheric conditions prevent effective artillery work. Reports are in circulation in Rome that Turkey has asked for peace. These are unconfirmed.

RUSSIAN EMPEROR ISSUES RESCRIPT

Says There Will Be No Peace Until Enemy Has Been Crushed

HIS PEOPLE HAVE BUT ONE PROBLEM

Calls on All to Do Their Duty in Helping to Supply Army

Petrograd, June 30.—An imperial rescript was issued to-day in connection with the formation of the board of military supplies. After expressing an unshakable assurance in the brilliant future of the Russian peoples, Emperor Nicholas proceeds:

"A prolonged war calls ever for fresh efforts, but surmounting the growing difficulties and parrying the vicissitudes which are inevitable in war, let us strengthen our hearts, resolved to carry on the struggle with the help of God to a complete triumph of Russian arms.

"The enemy must be crushed, for without that peace is impossible.

"With firm faith in the inexhaustible strength of Russia, I expect that the governmental and public institutions of Russian industry and all the faithful sons of the Fatherland, without distinction of ideas or classes, will work together in harmony to satisfy the needs of our valiant army.

"This is the only, and henceforth the national, problem to which must be directed all thoughts of united Russia, invincible in her unity."

SUBMARINE IN TROUBLE ON CALIFORNIA COAST

San Francisco, June 30.—United States submarine H-3, wedged between two rocks off Point Sur, 150 miles south of here, is in no immediate danger, according to a wireless message to-day from the steamer Harvard. The monitor Cheyenne, submarine tender, reported that she needed no assistance to get the H-3 into safe waters.

WENT TO WASHINGTON.

Washington, June 30.—General Felipe Angeles, Villa's chief lieutenant, arrived here yesterday to deny in person at the state department that he was connected in any way with the plans for the re-establishment of a Huerta regime in Mexico.

DENIED IN BERLIN.

Berlin, June 30.—Reports current in Berlin that a British submarine had torpedoed and sunk a German submarine were given denial to-day.

ADMIT VISIT WAS PAID BY AVIATOR

Germans' Report on Exploit of French Airman at Friedrichshafen

Stuttgart, Wurttemberg, June 30.—The Wurttemberg minister of war announced to-day that a French biplane on Sunday approached Friedrichshafen, where the Zeppelin hangars are situated, coming from Constance. The machine was bombed by anti-aircraft guns and it turned back after dropping three bombs towards the Lake Constance shore towns of Schnetzenhausen and Rappershausen, without doing any damage. The biplane returned to Switzerland, where it was compelled to land and the aviators were arrested.

The French official statement issued on Monday last said that on the morning of June 27 "one of our aeroplanes succeeded in dropping with success eight shells on the Zeppelin hangars at Friedrichshafen. Motor trouble obliged the aviator to make a landing during his return. He succeeded in reaching Swiss territory at Rheinfelden."

ASQUITH DECLINES TO MAKE STATEMENT

London, June 30.—Mr. Asquith made reply in the House of Commons to-day to the question asked yesterday by David Mason, Liberal member, as to whether the government would state terms upon which peace would be possible. The prime minister said:

"It would not be in the public interest to add anything to what I already have stated publicly on this subject."

NO INFORMATION.

Washington, June 30.—At the white house to-day it was stated that President Wilson plans to remain at Cornish, N. H., until the German reply to the second note on submarine warfare has been received. The white house has no definite information as to when it will arrive. The president's first plan was to return July 4.

MUN'S OPINION.

Cologne, June 30.—Discussing the interviews of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and Foreign Minister von Jagow with Baron Burian, Austrian foreign minister, the Gasette's Berlin correspondent says it is impossible to state positively as yet how the future policy of Roumania and Bulgaria with regard to the war will shape itself. He asserts, however, that it can be said that the Quadruple Entente's hopes of military support from Roumania and Bulgaria have been lessened materially.

NEW BOARD GIVEN VERY WIDE POWERS

Russia Takes Vigorous Action to Overcome Lack of Munitions

MEASURE WAS PASSED QUICKLY AT PETROGRAD

People Realize That Army's Greatest Need at Present is Ammunition

London, June 30.—Russia's reply to the Austro-German successes in Galicia is the creation of a board of munitions empowered to spend unlimited money and given virtually unrestricted power over all private industries in the whole country.

It is reported from Petrograd that the creation of the board became law with a celerity that was absolutely astounding, which is taken to indicate that the country fully realizes that the recent setbacks to the forces of Grand Duke Nicholas largely were due to lack of ammunition and equipment.

With comparative quiet prevailing on all the fronts except along the border separating Russian Poland and Galicia, the attention of the British public again is turned toward diplomatic and domestic problems.

Special dispatches from the Balkans declare that Bulgaria is not dissatisfied with the territory offered her by the quadruple entente. That Turkey has not lost hope of conciliating her dangerous neighbor, however, is shown by the news that Bulgarian-Turkish negotiations looking to the delimitation of the frontiers of the respective countries will be resumed in Constantinople.

Rumors of a break in the diplomatic relations between Italy and Turkey again are rife.

With the exception of the regaining by the French of all the trenches to the east of Metzeral, Alsace, which had been recaptured by the Germans, and slight progress at a point north of Arras, no change in the situation on the western battle-line is reported.

NIJEU AMSTERDAM RAMMED AT ANCHOR

Liner Damaged as She Was Riding in Downs During a Fog

Deal, Eng., June 30.—The Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam, having a large number of passengers on board bound from New York for Rotterdam, was run down in a fog by an unknown steamship while anchored in the Downs to-day.

The port quarter of the vessel was damaged but she still is riding safely at anchor.

This makes the eighth collision in the Downs within the last three days.

The plan of operations on June 28 was to throw forward the left of General Sir Ian Hamilton's line southeast of Krithia, and to establish a new line facing the east on the ground gained, capturing in succession two lines of Turkish trenches east of Sighin Dere, and five lines to the west.

PRAGUE NEWSPAPER HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED

Prague, June 30.—The newspaper Narodni Listy, leading organ of the Young Czech party, has been suppressed by the police.

GERMANS FEELING PRESSURE OF FLEET

Berlin, June 30.—The military commandant of the province of Brandenburg, in which Berlin is situated, has issued an order, effective August 1, prohibiting the manufacture of fabrics wholly or chiefly cotton for nearly all ordinary purposes, such as articles of clothing, bed sheets, pillowcases and tablecloths.

The presumption from this order is that Germany needs all the cotton available for use in the manufacture of explosives.

ARMENIAN SUNK BY FIENDS; TWENTY-NINE LOST THEIR LIVES

Ten Persons Were Injured When Liner Was Torpedoed off Coast of Cornwall; Consul Reports That Ten American Citizens Are Missing; Other Vessels Sent to Bottom by Savages

Washington, June 30.—The Dominion liner Armenian was torpedoed and sunk by the German submarine U-38 at 8.06 p.m. yesterday at a point twenty miles northwest of Trevoze Head, Cornwall, England.

Consul Armstrong, at Bristol, reported the sinking to-day, stating that twenty-nine lives were lost, that ten persons were injured, and that ten Americans are missing.

The names of seven of the missing Americans are: W. Williamson, address unknown; J. M. Monroe, New Orleans; E. M. Granberry, Montgomery, Ala.; S. R. Sutton, Cartersville, Va.; Harry Stone, New York; — Brown, a cattle ship carpenter, Harrisburg, Pa.; E. H. Brooks, or West, chief foreman, naturalized American, London.

State department officials immediately set foot an inquiry to determine whether the Armenian was sailing merely as a freight vessel carrying contraband cargo or was under charter to the British government. The interest of the United States in the missing Americans depends upon that point.

Consul Armstrong's message said: "The Dominion Line steamship Armenian torpedoed and sunk 8 p. m. on the 28th, twenty miles west by north of Trevoze Head, Cornwall, by the German submarine U-38. Twenty-nine lost and ten injured. The following American passengers missing:— Here the message gives the names of the missing Americans.

A second message from Consul Armstrong gave the following list of negro muleteers, also missing: Julius Henry, King William, Va.; J. Smith, Portsmouth, Va.; Wall Foley, Little, Newport News; King, Small, Ricker and Oakes, Norfolk.

The consul's message adds that Dr. Vise and three negro muleteers reported to have been picked up by the Belgian trawler Professor Stevens and transferred to two destroyers at noon yesterday were brought into Bristol last night. This apparently removes Dr. Vise from the list of missing which the consul gave in his dispatch.

Consul Armstrong's dispatch was not entirely clear, but it appears that at least ten Americans, including six negro muleteers, are unaccounted for. The message said that ten were missing, but the list of those unaccounted for named several who were believed to have been picked up.

New York, June 30.—The Armenian sailed from Newport News for Avonmouth on June 17 in charge of Captain Trickey. She was a steamship of 8,825 tons gross register, was 512 feet long and had a beam of 59 feet and a draught of 35 feet. She was built in 1895 at Belfast.

The Dominion line is a subsidiary of the International Mercantile Marine. The Armenian was a British steamship.

London, June 30.—The Norwegian ship Cambuskenneth, which sailed from Portland, Ore., February 9 for Liverpool, was sunk to-day by the German submarine U-39. Thirteen members of the crew were landed. Eight other sailors, being German subjects, were taken aboard the submarine.

The ship Cambuskenneth was a three-masted, 1,925 gross tons and was built in Glasgow in 1893.

The Norwegian steamship Gjeso, of 1,094 tons gross, was sunk by a German submarine to-day. The crew was landed at North Shields. The vessel was sent to the bottom by a torpedo.

The Gjeso was built in 1912. She was 226 feet long, and had a beam of 26 feet and a draught of 15 feet.

Portland, Ore., June 30.—The Norwegian ship Cambuskenneth, in command of Captain Thor Sole, was under charter to Kerr, Gifford & company, of Portland, and carried a cargo of 101,568 bushels of wheat, valued at $171,280. Her cargo had been sold to English brokers before she passed across the Columbia river bar on February 12, bound for Queenstown for orders. Part of her crew joined her at Portland.

Queenstown, June 30.—The Norwegian barque Kotka was sunk by a German submarine off Fastnet Light last night and her crew was landed here to-day.

This was the third Norwegian vessel reported sunk by Germans in the last twenty-four hours.

Grimsby, Eng., June 30.—The trawler Horatia, missing since March 25 with a crew of 14 men and believed to have been torpedoed by a German submarine, was given up for lost to-day.

London, June 30.—The White Star liner Cymric, which arrived at Liverpool to-day, passed along the Irish coast last night with her lifeboats out and the passengers ready to jump into them if the ship was torpedoed.

STATE THAT THEY OCCUPIED TOMASZOW

Austrians Say Town Has Changed Hands; Russian Official Report

Petrograd, June 30.—The following statement was given out last night by the war office: "In the Shavl region we repulsed feeble German attacks. On the fronts of the Niemen and Narew rivers and on the left of the Vistula calm prevailed. "The advance of strong enemy forces along the entire front between the sources of the River Wieprz, in the government of Lublin, and the Western Bug, continues, and here, in rear-guard positions in the region of Tomaszow, our troops on June 27 and 28 repulsed several desperate attacks. "The enemy army on the Dniester, reinforced by fresh German troops quite recently thrown into this region, sought by the fiercest of attacks on the front of Boukatchevy-Martynoff to throw disorder into our retirement along the Galia Lipa river, but failed in this object and sustained enormous losses."

Vienna, June 30.—The following official statement was issued last evening: "In East Galicia the Teutonic allied armies, pursuing the enemy, reached the Galia Lipa river and the Bug river near Kamionka. The Russian troops on this line are being now attacked. On Monday we captured Burzyn. "Strong Russian forces standing near Solec, north of Kamionka, last night, after heavy fighting, were repulsed to Kryninopol with great loss. "North of Rawa Ruska and north of Cieszanow the Teutonic allies advanced on Russian territory. We occupied Tomaszow. "On Monday night the enemy evacuated his positions on the northern Tanew river and on the north bank of the San and began to retreat in a northeasterly direction, everywhere pursued."

BILL WAS PASSED BY SENATE YESTERDAY

M. Viviani and M. Millerand Addressed French Senators; $1,120,000,000 Provided

Paris, June 30.—To put an end, as far as possible, to criticisms such as have been offered at recent sessions of the chamber of deputies, M. Viviani, the prime minister, accompanied by eight members of the cabinet, appeared at the ministerial bench in the senate yesterday and, taking the floor, spoke on the appropriation bill for the third quarter. This bill, to appropriate $1,120,000,000 to cover government expenses for the three months beginning July 1, was passed by the chamber of deputies last Friday.

M. Viviani explained that the government had no desire to take the upper hand of the representatives of the people. "Parliament has the control; the government the execution," he said. "That is the essential principle of all democracy. We wish neither the rapid execution nor the bitter discouragement which breaks the springs of justice. We ask merely reasoned and methodical confidence. It required a great spontaneous action for this country to become tractable. Now it is ready for the worst and the patient effort which will be the ransom of the peace of the world."

M. Viviani was accorded the warmest of demonstrations by the senate. At the conclusion of his address, Alexandre Millerand, minister of war, took the floor. "At the moment the senate is called upon to vote the appropriations necessary for national defence," he said. "I wish to give an account of the stewardship of the ministry of war from the outbreak of hostilities. "When he mentioned possible discouragement he was interrupted by cries of "There is none." "From August 1 to April 1," he continued the minister, "France has increased her military production sixfold. The curve of munitions has never ceased to rise, and that representing the manufacture of our 'T.E.'s. I can give satisfying assurances also regarding the heavy artillery and small arms. From January 1 to May 15 the production of mitrailleuses was doubled. The curve for the other essentials of the war is equally encouraging. We are determined to pursue our enemies, whatever arms they may employ. "The appropriation bill was passed unanimously."

MONTENEGRO SENDS NOTE TO THE POWERS

Explains Why Scutari Has Been Occupied; Description of the Entry

Paris, June 30.—Describing the occupation of Scutari, Albania, by Montenegrin troops, the Rome correspondent of the Havas agency says: "Muslims, Roman Catholics, members of the orthodox faith, members of the government, the police force, the schools and the population, preceded by flags and banners, marched out of the city. At noon came the triumphal entry of the Montenegrins, preceded by an advance guard. Following the advance guard were priests in their ceremonial robes, carrying the cross and religious standards; then came the main Montenegrin army, led by General Vechovitch, and the Montenegrin consul and bands of irregular Albanians followed. The Austrian consul lowered his flag and placed the consulate in the care of the Greek consul. "The general staff of the forces occupying Scutari has taken charge of the administration of the city, declaring that citizens henceforth may consider themselves subject of the king of Montenegro, that they shall be judged according to Montenegrin law and that disturbers of the new regime will be punished by martial law.

"General Vechovitch addressed the foreign consuls, saying that he was taking possession of the city in the name of King Nicholas. Patrols guarded the consulates and public buildings." Rome, June 30.—The Tribune publishes a note issued by Montenegro to the powers explaining her action in Scutari. "Both Montenegro and Serbia have suffered as the result of difficulties created by Albania."

"The note condemns Austrian interference in Albanian affairs and adds: "The sacking of Montenegrin transports on the Boyana river by the Albanians and their irruption into Montenegrin territory compelled Montenegro to occupy some necessary positions to avoid new attacks."

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS HAVE BEEN APPROACHED

Milan, June 30.—The appeal of the German Socialists in favor of peace is considered here most symptomatic of the change that has taken place in a large section of public opinion at the end of the first year of the great war. Such an appeal, it is believed here, would have been impossible in July, 1914. Italian intransigent Socialists have been approached with the object of seeing whether they are ready to take similar steps in an effort to influence their government. The opinion prevails in Milan, however, that they first will see what the Socialists of other countries concerned in the European conflagration may do.

AMBASSADOR RECALLED.

Milan, June 30.—The Italian ambassador to Turkey has been recalled according to a Rome dispatch. The message says that the Turkish ambassador to Rome has received his passport and is preparing to depart.

TO PUT ON FLESH AND INCREASE WEIGHT

A Physician's Advice. Most thin people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and gain gaining all the time. It's all a matter of the body's nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all. Thin folks stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay in the intestine and deposit there all about the body—something, too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

ONLY ONE CASE.

Laredo, Tex., June 30.—An unofficial investigation of reports that food-stuffs have been imported from Mexico, sold to the American Red Cross and sent back to Mexico for free distribution, brought to light yesterday only one case of that kind. It was learned that about a month ago a car of beans was imported from Mexico via Eagle Pass, Texas, shipped here and later purchased by the Red Cross and distributed free in Mexico.

MAJ. D. R. M'CUAIG AND MAJ. WRIGHT HONORED

London, June 30.—The King has approved the appointment of the under-mentioned officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the field: Major Douglas Rykert McCuaig, of the 13th Battalion, Canadian Division, for conspicuous gallantry and ability between the 22nd and 24th of April, near Ypres. On one occasion, when some of the battalion on his immediate left had vacated their trench, he rallied them and got them back under a heavy fire. When, after an hour during which this trench was enflamed by both artillery and rifle fire, he found it impossible to hold it any longer, he withdrew in good order, but regained the lost position at daylight. Major Gordon Brooks Wright, of the 3rd Field Company, Canadian Engineers, for conspicuous gallantry, ability and devotion to duty from the 22nd of April to the 15th of May, near Ypres. Shortly after the German gas attack on the 22nd of April, when his billets were being shelled heavily and the gas was beginning to affect his men, he successfully got his transport away under a heavy fire and withdrew his dismounted sappers to brigade headquarters, where he entrenched himself and held an important position, barring the enemy's approach from the north. The splendid example of Major Wright and his ability and coolness under fire did much towards keeping up the spirits of his men under circumstances of great difficulty.

GERMAN SOLDIER HAS BULLET IN HIS HEART

Geneva, June 30.—A Bavarian infantry soldier has been lying for four months at Munich with a bullet in the middle of his heart. The soldier should have been dead long ago, but is cheerful, has a good appetite and complains that he is allowed only one hour's slow exercise a day. Under the X-ray it was found that the bullet had passed under the lungs in an upward direction and lodged in the heart without causing hemorrhages.

Mr. Wilson said he expected to remain a few days and that he was interested in Mexican affairs in a general way. He declined to discuss his mission.

GOOD WORK DONE BY ITALIAN GUNNERS

Rome, June 30.—The following official statement was given out here last night: "In the Tyrol and Trentino regions, especially along the eastern part of this front, the Austrian artillery continues very active. The enemy by repeated attacks tried to capture the position of Monte Civarone, in Val Sugana, but was repulsed. "In Carnia we effectively bombarded the Austrian places of shelter at Straninger, driving out the troops who were there. We also dispersed groups of workers who were about to construct positions for artillery near the defile of Giramondo. "From his side the enemy bombarded the summit of Zeelienkofel, and afterwards attacked at different times, but unsuccessfully. "In the region of the Isonzo river the atmospheric conditions remain unfavorable, and have rendered very difficult, in view of the bad state of the ground, some isolated attacks which the Austrian columns directed, perhaps only to try conditions of resistance. The enemy has been repulsed from several positions recently conquered. Night alarms in enemy camps continue to be reported."

NOTIFYING GERMANY OF HOURS OF DEPARTURE

Washington, June 30.—The United States government has adopted the practice of notifying the Germany through Ambassador Gerard of the time of departure of every passenger ship flying the American flag, and approximately the hours during which it will pass through the war zone. "This precaution is being taken in order that German submarine commanders may be on the watch for American vessels and avoid a repetition of the attack on the American tanker Gulflight, torpedoed by a German submarine commander who alleged he supposed the vessel was a British ship because it was in company with two British patrol boats."

AUTHORITIES ARE INVESTIGATING NOW

Montreal, June 30.—The military authorities are aroused and concerned over the drowning in the Lachine canal during Sunday night of Pte. F. J. Rodney, 21 years old, one of the canal guards. Pte. Rodney is the fourth who has been mysteriously drowned in the canal on the St. Lawrence near Montreal within the past few weeks. A strict investigation is stated to be under way, the military officials thinking that the mysterious deaths are connected with the bank in the darkness by an alien enemy.

ONLY ONE CASE.

Laredo, Tex., June 30.—An unofficial investigation of reports that food-stuffs have been imported from Mexico, sold to the American Red Cross and sent back to Mexico for free distribution, brought to light yesterday only one case of that kind. It was learned that about a month ago a car of beans was imported from Mexico via Eagle Pass, Texas, shipped here and later purchased by the Red Cross and distributed free in Mexico.

WITNESS SAYS SALT

WANTED MUCH MONEY

Harry Whittle, K. C., Gives Evidence Before the Royal Commission at Winnipeg

Winnipeg, June 30.—Testifying yesterday before the Royal Commission which is investigating matters connected with the erection of the Parliament buildings, Harry Whittle, K.C., counsel for Horwood, former provincial architect, stated that on a certain Saturday he had been informed that William Salt was coming back to Winnipeg.

"I deem it not to be in the interests of Horwood that Salt should come back," said Whittle, "and telephoned Dr. Simpson and suggested employing a detective agency to ascertain if the information was correct. Dr. Simpson asked me to undertake this and so I engaged the agency.

"Previously Horwood had complained to me that he was out of pocket in connection with Salt's first disappearance. I saw Dr. Simpson and next day Dr. Simpson paid Horwood $1,900. The six hundred more that Horwood claimed Dr. Simpson said he could pay at any time."

"During another conversation Dr. Simpson had said that $10,000 had been sent to Salt and that Hook said he had been robbed of it. No names of ministers were mentioned.

"I consulted with Dr. Simpson," he said, "He brought $5,000 to my office and I transmitted it to the agency at St. Paul. They reported that Salt would not look at it. I reported to Dr. Simpson. He brought another $5,000 and I transmitted it to St. Paul for Salt."

"Dr. Simpson had been very careful not to mention the names of those paying money," he said. "Witness had told Dr. Simpson that the expenses of the detectives would be $1,500. Dr. Simpson had told him Mr. Howden would give that amount to him the following Monday. Witness had objected to receiving money in that way. On Monday he had seen Mr. Howden and received the $1,500.

"He was not sure that he had told Mr. Howden what the money was for. "I never told Dr. Simpson," he said, "that that $1,500 was to be counsel's fee for Horwood's defence. I do not know where the money came from. I did not want to know."

"He told of a conversation with Dr. Simpson or Mr. Howden—he thought it was Dr. Simpson—who had said that three thousand of the five thousand had been borrowed from some fund put up in connection with some election protest and would have to be repaid. Dr. Simpson had told him that he thought Hook had not been robbed of the $10,000 on route to Salt, at Omaha. The doctor thought Horwood had got the money. Witness had thought this very unjust."

In answer to a question, witness stated that Horwood had made a statement in writing before he gave evidence at Minneapolis. The statement was in exact accord with the story he had told later.

The accountant of the Home bank produced records of the account carried there by Hon. J. H. Howden. Attached was a note for $35,000, made on February 22 of this year. The names on it were not made public.

CANADA'S NATAL DAY.

To-morrow Canadians will celebrate the 48th anniversary of the federation of the provinces constituting the Dominion of Canada, and the Times will not be issued on the evening of the holiday. However, should anything of importance transpire in any part of the immense territory which is the scene of hostilities the news will either be published in a special edition of the paper or posted in the windows of the business office.

WHAT JULY MAY BRING.

In a lecture in England a fortnight ago Hilaire Belloc, the well-known writer on war, predicted a determined offensive movement in force by the allies on the western front within a few weeks. "It will not be at one point," he said, "but at many and for some days you will not know where the weakness is showing itself in the German lines. If it succeeds it will be shown by the Germans either shortening their line or they will hang on too long and it will break. It will be a very critical turning-point in the war. If the German line has to retire then you have the war not ended, but decided. We could be certain of the ultimate decision in that case because the enemy would not be permitted to retire at his ease, but would be pressed by a force fifty per cent. stronger than his own and political reasons would weigh as to the choice of his route, for Prussia must be saved and German soil protected from invasion until the last." Mr. Belloc admits, of course, that there is a possibility of failure on the part of the allies, involving an appalling casualty list and an enormous expenditure of accumulated ammunition, but the decision to continue would remain. Developments furnish solid foundation for Mr. Belloc's prediction of an early gigantic allied offensive in the west. The Germans, stimulated by their victorious progress in Galicia, are athirst for conquest. The isolation and capture of Warsaw is now their main objective, and in order to accomplish this they are committed to an invasion of Russian territory which not only will not permit them to send reinforcements to the west or the Italian front, but will require all their available reserves. Their plan is quite clear. From the region of Przasnysz, north of the Polish capital, they are trying to smash their way to the rear of the city, while from the south they are pressing between the Vistula and the Bug rivers with the object of cutting the railroad from Ivangorod through Lublin to Kieff, isolating the Vistula fortress and then continuing their advance. This would compel the Russians either to abandon Warsaw and the Vistula line altogether or risk being surrounded and annihilated. This southern movement was the programme which Austria attempted to carry out last August with disastrous results. The Russians have made no serious effort to stop the advance so far, although the Germans now are well to the east of the Vistula and nearing the district of Lublin, where the Austrians encountered their first severe defeat early in the war. It is an ambitious project, but if it fails the Germans will be involved in a catastrophe of the first magnitude, because their line of retreat will be beset with tremendous difficulties. Farther south, in southeastern Galicia, the Austro-German forces are trying to force their way into Bessarabia and thus outflank the enemy's extreme left. The main feature of their operations, however, is the attempt to strike at Warsaw from the north and south simultaneously.

This seems to be the great opportunity of the allies on the west and the Italians, and there is every reason to look forward to tremendous exertions by them on both fronts. We may expect a ferocious struggle lasting weeks along the whole western line at a time when Russia, having regained her main lines of defence, comes to grips with the invader in earnest on ground of her own choice. Should the British and French break through while the enemy is in a death struggle in Russia he will be unable to send any large reinforcements to Flanders and France without courting disaster on both fronts. Next month promises to be the critical period of the war, the first real opportunity the western allies have had to even the score.

SIR RODMOND, SIR RICHARD AND SIR WILLIAM.

Sir William Mackenzie, who controls the wires of the G. N. W. Telegraph company, has dispatched over his own wires to all the newspapers of the west an interview with himself on the prospects of the C. N. R. It is perhaps more than a coincidence that the dispatch in question was sent out just in advance of the arrival of Sir Richard McBride in this province. Thus Sir William, after an interview with his ally Sir Richard in Toronto, prepares the way for an impressive advertisement of our wandering premier, who will proceed to quote the views of Sir William on the brilliant prospects of the C. N. R.

If the management of the Canadian Northern had not ordered the management of the G. N. W. to destroy copies of all the dispatches which passed between the late Robin government, the various magnates of the C. N. R. and Hon. "Bob" Rogers the newspapers of Canada would have had much more interesting matter than Sir William Mackenzie's interview with himself to lay before their readers. However, the C. N. R. does not control all the wires in Canada, and some dispatches of interest have been preserved and made public notwithstanding the configuration prematurely ordered by Zebulon A. Lash. We published some of those telegrams yesterday. We hope to receive and publish some more, indicating the intimate connection between Sir Robert Borden's dishonored minister of elections and the rottenest government that ever held power in Canada or elsewhere in our own or any other times.

CANADA'S BIRTHDAY.

Her forty-eighth birthday finds the Dominion of Canada definitely and finally destroying a theory voiced in many quarters half a century ago, and entertained by a narrow-visioned, unimaginative group up to recent times. According to that theory the bestowal of self-government upon subordinate states, thereby enabling them to run their domestic affairs in their own way, weakens the ties which bind them to the parent country. That is the theory which, carried into practice, has chequered history with numerous monuments to dead empires. Nor is there anything weirdly mysterious in the tragic record. It is simply natural and logical that states kept in a condition of subordination should chafe under their restrictions and seize the first opportunity to break away that presented itself. Likewise it is natural and logical that states endowed with the widest powers of self-government, enabling them to pursue happiness and prosperity according to the conditions with which they alone are familiar, should not only cherish an affectionate regard for the source from which their privileges came, but should be ready to fight to the death in defence of the institutions which guaranteed them.

When the confederation of the provinces of Canada was under discussion statesmen and publicists on both sides of the Atlantic, of good intentions but lacking in elementary knowledge of human nature, predicted the early severing of the ties which had bound the colony to the empire. They regarded it as another step towards political independence, in logical succession to the first break which in their opinion occurred when the experiment of responsible government was adopted. They declared that the empire was going to the dogs, but time has shown that both the bestowal of self-government and the confederation of the provinces into an organic whole drove the dogs back to their kennels. The sentimental bond which unites this Dominion with the rest of the empire has grown stronger with the passing years, and to-day the thousands of gallant Canadians, native and immigrant, who are dying the soil of Flanders with their life blood are demonstrating that never have the constituent states which owe their allegiance to our common sovereign been welded together so closely.

There is an even more emphatic vindication of the system under which British colonies were erected into British nations. When the proposal to grant self-government to that country was made even eminent statesmen like Mr. Balfour, sounded prophecies of doom. They were sure the Boers would cut the lines at the first opening. Instead, however, Britons and Boers, under a Boer general, took advantage of that opening to destroy the power and influence of the common enemy in that part of the world and have added to the empire an area more than half again as large as the United Kingdom. There is nothing puzzling in all this. The Boers naturally cling to an empire that guarantees to them a wider measure of freedom than they ever knew before.

LOST OPPORTUNITIES.

"An effort is being made to have Australia place on the free list all paper manufactured within the empire. Our local contemporary hopes the effort will succeed. It seems to have slipped our contemporary's memory that the pulp and paper industry is one of the wicked devils where the heritage of the people of British Columbia is to be ruthlessly squandered."—Colonist.

The Australian Press Association recommended that paper from Canada—not alone from British Columbia—be placed upon the free list. From this concession the east, where the bulk of our paper production is manufactured, would obtain the chief benefit, for notwithstanding British Columbia's large pulp areas, extensive waterpowers and splendid shipping facilities in normal times, there is only one operating mill to take advantage of any arrangement that may be made. This regrettable condition would not exist if our pulp resources had been administered for industrial development instead of for speculative exploitation and stock promotion. Does not our contemporary share our regret that pulp leases like those of the Quatsino Power & Pulp Company, granted under conditions of actual bona fide development, were allowed to be used as a football by speculators and stock manipulators instead of as a means of paper production?

SIR WILLIAM "TALKS."

In a long interview with himself which Sir William Mackenzie, probably after a consultation with Sir Richard McBride, has telegraphed from Toronto to all British Columbia coast papers, the Canadian Northern chief attributes the company's delay in carrying out its contract with the people of the province, especially in regard to terminals and branch lines, to the difficulty of financing securities owing to the war.

Unhappily for that explanation, the agreement ratified by the electors of this province called for the completion of the system before the war began. The Premier, in his celebrated card entitled "My Undertakings," declared that he would resign if the Island connections, modern freight and passenger ferry service to English Bluff, etc., etc., were not completed within the time stipulated in the agreement, on the strength of which he was overwhelmingly returned at the polls. That time limit expired several months before the outbreak of war.

The war had nothing to do with that forty-five-million-dollar touch at Ottawa in the winter of 1913-14. Mackenzie & Mann's difficulties are of their own making. They killed the goose that laid the golden egg by the methods so strikingly exhibited in their exploitations of coal mines, fisheries and timber in this province.

Sir William also observed that if business were "normal" there would be no question of the ability of the line to pay its fixed charges and operating expenses during the early years of its operation. The "if" is an innovation in the observations of the Canadian Northern head on this subject of vital concern to us. He and his mouthpieces, political and journalistic, in British Columbia, always have insisted that there was not even a remote possibility of the company failing to pay its way. Obviously if times are not normal the people of this province will have to meet the liability incurred by them on behalf of the company. We think it highly desirable that the provincial government should nail Sir William down to an unmistakable, unambiguous definition of the word "normal" without delay.

Sir Richard McBride has sent a letter to the royal commission investigating war purchases recommending the examination of J. V. Patterson, president of the Seattle Drydock & Shipbuilding company, and Captain Logan of this city. Had the premier presented himself for examination before the public accounts committee of the House of Commons when he was in the last year of his term and then that steps be taken to obtain the evidence of Messrs. Patterson and Logan he would have avoided considerable embarrassment. His communication to Sir Charles Davidson has not influenced the programme of the commission in the slightest, for the instructions given call for an investigation of all war purchases concerning which the Auditor-General of Canada believes more information should be forthcoming, and this includes the submarine transaction.

July promises to be the most critical month of the great war. Let us hope that it proves to be a red letter one in our annals. A victory on the western and Italian fronts almost certainly would be succeeded by an irresistible Russian movement from the east and the entrance of the Balkan States into the war. A decision on either front and a victory at the Dardanelles would make the victory-celebrating populace of Germany and Austria the sickest aggregation of human beings ever collected in one region.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, June 30, 1890.

Mr. R. B. Angus, of the C. P. R. company, brother of the Messrs. Angus of this city, and Mr. J. A. Angus, arrived last night in company with Mr. Van Horne, and are guests of Mr. Forrest Angus, at the Oaks.

An illuminated address was presented yesterday to Mr. William Moore Chudley at the Jubilee hospital, on the completion of the building, Mr. Chudley having acted as secretary of the committee. Mr. T. R. Smith made the presentation.

Samuel T. Gowen, second engineer of the Delaware, was drowned off Mission in the Fraser river, returning with an excursion party. He formerly resided here, where his father was for some time proprietor of the Novalty Iron Works.

Excursion to Goldstream.—Adults 50¢, children 25¢. Under the auspices of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Sunday school, Saturday July 3. Trains 9.30 a. m., 1.30 p. m. Returning, 5.30 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. Half-hour train ride through a beautiful country. See famous Goldstream waterworks. Take part in sports.

READ THE FACT BOOK

In other words, the advertising in this newspaper.
 It is full of:
 —Facts about men,
 —Facts about places,
 —Facts about prices,
 —Facts about merchandise.

These facts are marshalled attractively. They are dressed in interesting words.
 They are frequently illustrated with deft touch.
 No part of the newspaper is more interesting than the advertising columns.
 Certainly no part is more factual.

Garden Party Arranged.—A garden fete will be held at the residence of Lady McBride, Gorge road, on July 17, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

Will Hold Whist Drive.—To-morrow evening the Ivy Leaf Social club will hold a whist drive in the Knights of Pythias hall, North Park street, at 8.15 o'clock.

A Reliable Taxi Service is the well-known C. & C. Service, the best equipped in Victoria. Safe, courteous drivers who know every nook and corner of the city and district; new, commodious cars and very reasonable rates. C. & C. Service also includes handsome heavy turnouts; the big Packard 25-seat Seoring Victoria car; quick, efficient baggage transfer and motor or horse-drawn tally-hos for picnic parties, etc. Telephone 185, 186 or 693.

Red Cross Headquarters Closed.—The Red Cross headquarters in the Temple building will be closed all day to-morrow.

Annual Flower Show.—This evening the Lake Hill Women's Institute will hold their annual flower show in the Mission hall, North Quadra street. The show will open at 7.30 o'clock.

Children's Fancy White Dresses reduced for the holiday. Seabrook Young, 623 Johnson street.

Basket Picnic.—Macaulay Plains is the site selected for the annual basket picnic of the First Congregational Church Sunday school to-morrow. A special car will leave the corner of Pandora and Quadra streets at 9.45 a. m., returning to the city at 8.30 p. m.

Public Dance.—At the Connaught hall on Thursday, July 1, Kirk's four piece orchestra in attendance. Gentlemen 50c, ladies free.

Flannel Dance.—Gorge Pavilion—Mrs. Simpson will hold a flannel dance on Friday, July 2, in the Gorge pavilion. The proceeds will be devoted to the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I. O. D. E. Miss Thain's orchestra will be in attendance, and dancing will be from 8.30 to 12.

Stadacona Park Concerts.—Stadacona park was provided last night when the 88th Fusiliers band, under bandmaster Rowland, gave a delightful concert. The band had the assistance of Mrs. W. Grant, soprano, who was well received for both her numbers, and Mrs. E. Temple, who acted as an efficient accompanist. Concerts will be given on Friday evening and Sunday afternoon.

Assessment Appeals.—Judge Lampman will sit on Friday to hear appeals against the assessment officer and court of revision on city property.

Saanich Red Cross.—The Saanich Red Cross society will hold a garden fete in the Saanich Agricultural grounds to-morrow. The society has arranged for a special service on the interurban railway. The H. M. S. Kent band will be in attendance and will provide the music for dancing.

Board of Trade Council.—A meeting of the board of trade council will be held on Tuesday morning, when a number of reports from committees will be taken up and discussed. The quarterly meeting of the board is set for Friday of next week, at which it is possible that some speakers from outside the city may be heard by the members. Any member who has any matter which he desires to bring up is asked to notify the secretary of the board at once so that mention may be made of this in the agenda paper.

Character Studies.—Dr. T. W. Butler will continue his series of character studies on the head and hand at 8 p. m. to-night in the Progressive Thought Temple, corner of Pandora and Blanshard streets. All those interested in phrenology, palmistry and astrology are invited to attend.

Fifth Regiment Band.—By kind permission of Major Angus and officers of the C. G. A., the 5th Regiment band will give a concert in Beacon Hill park on Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5. The information will be received with pleasure by many who regularly frequent the park on Sunday afternoon, and who regret the absence of the band which for many summers past has made a regular practice of giving open-air concerts on Sunday. The programme will comprise a number of popular selections of a patriotic character as well as other items.

Ambulance Classes.—Dr. Tomalin will lecture to the class on home nursing which is to be held in the Y. W. C. E. hall, on Friday, July 2, at 8 p. m. Members are asked to attend. Dr. Home will deliver a first lecture to the class in first aid in the Y. W. C. E. hall on Thursday, July 1, at 8 p. m. There is still room for a few new members for the latter class, and those wishing to join should telephone to 549 L or leave their names at the Red Cross headquarters, Temple building.

Provincial Taxes.—To-day is the last day on which discount is allowed on the taxes for the year, on land, personal property, and income, also rural school rates. The offices in the Belmont block are busy in receiving payments from the Victoria assessment district.

HOLIDAY WEATHER

SHOULD BE EXCELLENT

Real Summer Conditions Almost Assured for Dominion Day

Everything indicates that Dominion Day will be celebrated locally under the fairest of weather conditions. The heat wave which yesterday descended on the city, and which between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon brought a temperature of 77 degrees at the meteorological station on Gonzales Heights, bears every evidence of continuing for several more days at least. The Weather God, for once seems to be favoring the intending holiday-maker!

Yesterday afternoon Victoria woke up to a realization of the fact that summer was here, and superfluous clothing was discarded as far as possible. With down-town and sea-level temperatures between eighty and eighty-five the waters of the Gorge and at a number of the bathing beaches round the coast tempted many who had not previously ventured out for swimming this season. Late into the night canoes and small craft piled up and down the Gorge, and bathers splashed about in the moonlight reveling in the rare enjoyment of a tepid surf.

All indications are that the same conditions will last over the holiday. This morning, at 12 o'clock, the thermometer on Gonzales Heights registered 81 degree in the shade, this being something in the neighborhood of ninety degrees in the city at the same hour. The heat-wave is general all over the Pacific coast, and started a few days ago at Dawson, where 87 degrees in the shade was recorded. It has spread gradually over the province and southwards to California, yesterday 109 degrees being registered in the Sacramento valley and 88 degrees in Portland, Ore. In the B. C. interior the barometer is high, and temperatures are mounting. Kamloops yesterday reporting 84, Penticton 84, and Cranbrook 81 degrees. At Vancouver 78 degrees was registered. Up to the present the more eastern cities have not attained maximum temperatures, Toronto yesterday reaching 82, Ottawa 80, and Halifax 76.

BUYS BUSINESS

Alex. J. McCool Purchases Good Will of Blanshard Hotel From Present Owners.

The business of the Blanshard hotel has been sold by its present proprietors to Alex. J. McCool, a South African veteran, who has been in the Crow's Nest Pass district. He was also proprietor of the Cecil hotel at Moose Jaw, selling out there last August. Ever since that time he has been on the coast, and has decided to make Victoria his home.

Commissioners to Speak.—The British commissioners, Messrs. Barnes and Windham, will address a meeting at the old Victoria theatre this evening at 8.30 p. m. at which men who have or are applying for work on the munitions of war in the old country are invited. The proceedings will be under the auspices of the trades and labor council. Mr. Barnes returned from the mainland this morning, and met several of the men at the council chamber later.

Leach Given One Month.—John George Ernest Henry Martin Leach, found sleeping in St. Barnabas church early from yesterday's court for sentence, was to-day still keen on walking to Duncan to work on a farm. He would leave inside five minutes, he said, and never come back, but there have been so many previous promises that the court put no faith in this one. Leach was sent to jail for one month and was advised to take a walking tour when he gets out.

Cut Down Trees.—In the provincial police court yesterday afternoon John Y. Margison, of Sooke, was charged with having committed malicious damage on the property of Richardson Brothers there. The evidence was that Margison had gone on the property of the complainants and felled a number of trees. When remonstrated with some high talk was indulged in, and at first there was in consideration a more serious charge but it was not proceeded with. Margison was fined $20 and ordered to pay another $20 to Richardson Brothers as damages.

Eustace E. Hamilton-Jackson and Miss Constance Pinhey, daughter of the Canadian artist, John C. Pinhey, R.C.A., of Wolfenden, Hudson Heights, and Mrs. Pinhey, the marriage was celebrated at Victoria, B.C., this morning by Rev. Dr. Campbell at "Broadbalt," Port street. The bride, who wore an exceedingly becoming robe of white satin and veil and orange blossoms, carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Evelyn Wither, who, as bridesmaid, wore a pretty frock of black and white silk, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Hugh A. Lynn, a friend of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Cavendish will make their home in Victoria.

AT THE THEATRES

MAUDE ADAMS.

Maude Adams, in planning for her present tour, decided that she would give several of her plays. It is customary that when an actor or actress is to give a number of plays to engage people who will fit into parts in all of the plays. This makes the carrying of a large number of people on tour unnecessary, and to a very large extent lightens the expense in many ways. Miss Adams disregarded the plan, however, when she was engaging her company. For instance, she practically engaged a company to be seen in "Quality Street," without the slightest thought or intention of using the people in her other plays. Her aim was to make an artistic revival of the play, and the matter of expense was of no moment to her, providing she achieved the desired result. It is being said of the revival of "Quality Street," which Miss Adams is to give at the Royal Victoria theatre, one night, Friday, July 2, that it is proving immensely popular. The sentiment and the humor of the comedy seem to come at this time as a welcome relief from the play of morals and the slap-stick farce of the times. In the revival Miss Adams will be seen in her old role of Phoebe Throssell.

VARIETY THEATRE.

The seating accommodation at this popular house proved entirely inadequate to handle the large crowds which flocked there last night. Every one went away praising the show, especially the film showing Charles Chaplin in "By the Sea," which kept the audience in one continuous roar of laughter. A big double programme is billed for to-day and to-morrow. The headliner is the seventh episode of "The Black Box," "The Snow Girl" is an exceptional two-act Laemmle Feature. The comedy is provided by "Traffic in Babies," "The Downfall of Potts," and "Ignorance is Bliss." "By the Sea," with Charles Chaplin, will be shown in addition to these pictures, and for the rest of the week, with a complete change of programme Friday. This will enable everyone to see Chaplin's latest production. Those wishing to see the show should attend the theatre early in order to be sure of seats.

ANIMAL LIFE PICTURES

On a five ounce rod, Edward A. Salisbury recently landed a steelhead trout measuring 38 inches and weighing about 17 pounds. It took 40 minutes of skillful handling to bring the fish to the net. Many times during this battle of skill against fish strength, the rod was bent to the breaking point, and the fierce rushes and leaps of the trout from the water required a cool head and steady hand to save the fish and the tackle. The royal fight is faithfully recorded in the Salisbury wild life pictures that are shown at the Royal Victoria theatre every day this week, except Friday. The pictures are shown in the afternoon from 2 to 5, and in the evening from 7 to 11. The fishing pictures are only the beginning of a two hours' exhibition that carries one in the moving pictures to the streams, woods and swamps, and shows the life of our game and migration birds. A reel showing geese shooting in the Sacramento valley, California, a thousand feet of birds and animals of prey, and several thousand feet of the thrilling capture of the wild cat, bear, mountain lion, rounds out an exhibition that is the talk of the moving picture world.

COLUMBIA THEATRE.

The regular Wednesday country store will be held to-night at the Columbia when many valuable prizes will be given to the lucky patrons. The vaudeville programme consists of the great Westin, in impersonations of famous men, which is a real headliner act; Wilbur and Gordon, two clever dancers who are making their first professional engagement at the Columbia, and John Post, an operatic tenor who renders several very pleasing selections. Tennyson's immortal poem, "Enoch Arden," in four parts, is the feature photo-play. Commencing to-morrow one of the strongest vaudeville bills yet seen at the Columbia will be presented, including the great La Temples, with a marvelous illusion act; Musical Joe Reed in a novelty instrumental number, and Vincent Miller and company, comedy singers and instrumentalists.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

"The Lonesome Heart," a four-part Mutual masterpiece of intense heart interest, is the feature film at the Majestic theatre to-day and to-morrow. Margaret Fischer, the well known movie actress, will appear in the leading role. The story is of a lonely orphanage girl whose individuality was stifled by Sara Prus, the matron, who often punished her charge. Her treatment resulted in the girl running away from the orphanage. Shortly afterwards she met "The Fairy Prince," and her life romance began. The story, of course, ends happily. It transpires after all that the girl is an heiress in her own right.

NOXIOUS WEEDS

Saanich Council Favors Moderate Measure of Enforcement; Glanford Avenue.

Following negotiations which have been in progress for some time with the provincial department of agriculture, the Saanich council in works committee last evening decided to seek a conference with officials before acting under the powers conferred by the noxious weeds act passed last session.

These powers are much more drastic than existed in the past, and before putting the owners to the expense of having the noxious weeds removed at the public authority's instruction, the members felt that there should be consultation on the matter with the department. This conference will probably take place at the next meeting of the council. Meanwhile the municipal employees have been busy cutting Nisette, and other weeds on the roads.

Inspector O'Connell brought up the advisability of treating Glanford avenue during the repairs now in progress with some durable material, as is being done on the West road north of Royal Oak. The proposal was approved, although there will be some modification on the specification adapted on the West road. The matter had been urged before the Ward IV. Ratepayers' association last Monday evening.

Reports on the inauguration of work for the paving contract were received. It was reported that the "finishing" for the waterworks would start in the Cloverdale district next week, arrangements having now been made for the supply of the necessary material.

WILL MOTOR UP THE NEW MOUNTAIN ROAD

Party From Development Association Will Visit Observatory Site on Tuesday

When the party from the Victoria and Island Development association visits the site of the astronomical observatory on Tuesday next, the cars will be able to make the trip over the mountain road, but the occupants will find the highway studded with stones, the road having been left in that state until the heavy teaming is done. This traffic is inevitable during construction of the steel building which is to house the instrument now being manufactured. The most dangerous part of the road for cars and cycles is the V-shaped loop half way up the mountain, which is already wearing from the existing traffic. The turn is so sharp that the cars are digging into the surface considerably. It is to be hoped that these defects will be righted, because there can be no question that it is going to rank as one of the scenic roads around Victoria.

Of all the isolated hills which rise in the Saanich plain, the Saanich hill is the only one accessible by motor car, and as it is practically in the centre of the district, the opportunity to see the magnificent panorama will be missed by few. Had Mount Douglas an automobile road to the top, instead of one covering only a portion of the climb, it would be much more patronized than is the case now. The view from the summit of Saanich hill is unrivalled. The vista stretches away to the snow clad Olympics on the south, to the Malahat ridge on the west, while on the north and east are the islands lying like gems in the Gulf of Georgia. Below are seen the lakes, Prospect, a deep rock basin formed by glacial scour, and Elk lake, formed in a hollow of the drift mantle covering the Saanich peninsula.

White ribbons of road connect the spires and towers of Victoria with the mountain. Around is the luxuriant vegetation which accompanies the conifer family. Dense masses block out the rock divide between Prospect lake and the West road, fringing off to an edging of verdure where the cultivated fields around Royal Oak appear in the foreground. The air is delightfully clear, and the site forms a specially advantageous position for scientific observation.

Where three months ago the rocks were covered with spring flowers in bountiful profusion, there is now a newer if less variegated cover of plant life along the roadway.

The bird life of the mountain is worthy of study, while to the geologist is presented the typical stratification of a monadnock of the Saanich plain, with the rocks foliated at a characteristic angle.

The top of the mountain is now surmounted by a water tank, which is almost finished, and by it will soon be started the observatory building. The party will agree that the site has been well chosen, and while perhaps the economic value to Victoria of an institution of this character may more intimately appeal to the Development association than its scientific possibilities, the opportunity which unfolds itself at the mountain top cannot lightly be realized.

Several public bodies will co-operate in making the excursion an success.

Don't miss the excursions to Port Angeles July 3rd, by steamship "Chippewa." Round trip $1.00.

By way of enlarging the children's vocabulary, our village school teacher is in the habit of giving them a certain word and asking them to form a sentence in which the word occurs. The other day she gave the class the word "notwithstanding." There was a pause, and then a bright-faced youngster held up his hand. "Well, what is your sentence, Tommy?" asked the teacher. "Father wore his trousers out, but notwithstanding."

SWITCHBACK ON THE OBSERVATORY ROAD

A characteristic view on the Saanich mountain road to the site of the observatory, showing the switchback loop half way up, which will be visited by a party from the Development association on Tuesday next.

SEE MACEY FIRST

Before You Buy Second-Hand Office Equipment or Order Special Devices

Before you spend money in second-hand office furniture or devices it will certainly pay you to at least investigate the big, comprehensive, complete Macey stock. Instead of "making this second-hand stuff do" for the sake of a small economy, just spend a few minutes with us and see how much better your actual individual requirements can be fulfilled by us—and at surprisingly small outlay, too.

We have an immense stock and we are going to reduce it. We are going to make prices rock-bottom; we are going to do a volume of business that will justify the prices. YOU can benefit—if you will only decide to do so. Our stock is so comprehensive that, besides all the usual requirements, you will find the unusual, hard-to-get articles and devices in stock here.

A Comprehensive Stock

Every style and type of modern desk for home or office will be found here. Desks that cut your routine in half by making short-cuts possible. Desk accessories of every description; some that you, no doubt, do not know exist; labor-savers and efficiency-increasers; record and index cards, correspondence folders, etc., etc. You will find what you want here if it exists.

Macey Library Cases, the kind that "do not look sectional but are"; you will find them here in rich profusion in every grade of wood finish and in every style to conform with any decorative scheme, from the inexpensive standard golden finish to the more costly Colonial and Sheraton period designs.

FAMOUS I-P LOOSE LEAF DEVICES

We handle the famous Irving-Pitt Loose Leaf Devices, the world-standard. Included in this stock are loose-leaf books and devices for every purpose—ledgers, price books, minute books, pocket memos, transfer binders and every other kind and style of loose-leaf book or device. And, note this: we can supply these devices FROM STOCK. They will not be kept waiting to have them specially ordered or made. In every department of the office you have needs that we can fill to your great advantage. Many make the mistake of thinking we handle furniture only. We handle everything that pertains to an up-to-date office.

ONE SHOT FROM "LIZZIE."

German Snipers Dressed Up Like Trees.

How the Queen Elizabeth picked off a Turkish gun at six miles, stopped it for ever, and shattered the men who worked it with one shot, is told, among other stories, from Gallipoli, by a British officer in the following letter: "In this attack by the landing force only one Turkish prisoner was taken; he tried to shoot the doctor who was attending to his wounds. When being carried on a stretcher he tried to buyonet the stretcher-bearers, and nearly hit the finger of the man who did up his wounds. The Turkish gunners worked their guns until we were within 100 yards of them, and then stood up in the trenches and held their hands up. There are none left. There were three hills, one above the other, and on the topmost of all the Turks had one gun, which they were working like clockwork. It was about 900 feet up, and every effort was made to silence it, but without avail. The Queen Elizabeth got to know of this, and from six miles away plumped in one shot from one of her 13.5-inch guns. That was quite enough. Every gunner working the Turkish gun was blown to smithereens and the gun demolished. It was wonderful. Officers went down like oranges. There appeared to be several trees about. One of these was seen to fall. They were fired at and fell down. They were found to be German snipers dressed up like trees! One regiment of ours lost 25 officers out of 25; but we have done jolly well, and the enemy's casualties are believed to be about 30,000. This is not going to be the easy job people thought, and there will be big things done here yet."

"Isn't your son rather young to join the army?" said a recruiting sergeant to an old lady, who brought a boy of fourteen to him to enlist, "Why, no," she replied. "You see, I want him to join the infantry."

Sir Richard and Hon. Bob

Ottawa, June 28.—Politicians at the capital do not take much stock in a dispatch from England hinting that Sir Richard McBride may become agent-general for British Columbia in London "if he is not drawn into federal politics in the meantime." It is within possibility that Sir Richard may be agent-general for his native province in London, because Sir Richard likes English ways and needs the money, but the best betters are warring ten to one against his being drawn into federal politics. Drawing Sir Richard into federal politics would be drawing from the discard and that is never satisfactory.

Sir Richard himself is keen enough to be an Ottawa statesman, so keen that he visits Ottawa three times a year to interview Premier Borden and Hon. Robert Rogers, but the chances are all against him. Premier Borden does not forget that Sir Richard was at one time his rival for the Conservative leadership and the Hon. Bob long ago figured him out as a size 17 collar and a size 5 head. Sir Richard did very well as long as he had his own way in British Columbia, where he was a favorite son, but when the surplus of promissory notes began to wear through in spots and a railway policy, evidently conceived by Sinclair, began to bear hard on the people and Attorney-General Bower began to kick at doing all the real work and taking all the blame, Sir Richard's glory faded rapidly.

The young bride came to breakfast in an extremely sulky and unhappy mood. To all her husband's inquiries she returned snappish answers. She was in no better frame of mind when he came home that evening from business, all of which mystified the young husband. Finally, late in the evening, in reply to his insistent demands to know what the matter was, the wife burst into tears and replied, "Henry, if ever I dream again that you have kissed another woman I'll never speak to you as long as I live!"

house of cards fell in on him. The evidence goes to show that the Hon. Bob paid frequent visits to Dr. Simpson, the Conservative organizer, whose dark secrets repose now in a safety deposit box while their owner seeks peace and quiet at the battle front in Flanders. It seems that the chief maxim of underground statesmanship "Don't write. Come," could not always be followed and some of the secrets had to be wired G. N. W. Luckily these telegrams are burned. Zebulon Lash, K. C., having discovered both as president of the G. N. W. and chief counsel for the C. N. R., which has a lively sense of favors done and to come, that telegrams more than month old litter up the office and interfere with business.

The Hon. Bob's tangential connection with the Manitoba revelations brings the Borden government in line with that amazing state of affairs in which Sir Richmond Roblin signed what he was told and tore up what he didn't like and Dr. Montague was too sick to see that his department was conducted honestly and the Hon. Mr. Caldwell instructed so that the rake-off would stand the test of a royal commission. Speaking by and large the warning is against discards, one of which is the Hon. Dr. Montague. The late minister of public works for Manitoba was a belted buzzard in federal politics long before Sir Richmond Roblin took him in.

The disease seems to have spread to the minor officials and affected them in various ways. The shabby disgrace of it drove Provincial Architect Horwood to Rochester to have his appendix removed. Although his appendix was pretty bad, it is not alleged that he had deliberately altered it along with the other state documents in his department. Then there was the curious case of Mr. Hook and Mr. Salt. What names for the Winnipeg Telegram to play with now that it is foot-loose and tongue-free. Mr. Salt went to Denver in pursuit of health and was followed by Mr. Hook bearing $10,000 to complete the cure. The idea was that Mr. Salt should take his time about it. A paternal government was providing him with the means to stay away. It did not wish to permanently injure his constitution by hurrying him back to give evidence before a royal commission. Besides the scandal was too rotten to keep anyhow and no amount of salt would cure it. Everybody knows what happened to Mr. Hook. The highwaymen of Omaha felt that they ought to have their bit too, so they gave Hook the hook. They hooked the money and let Hook go, also his gold watch and enough small change to carry him along a day or two. The joke was on Salt but the laugh was on Hook. They had a sense of humor, those Omaha robbers—in short they gave Hook the Omaha.

ST. GEORGE'S SCHOOL

HOLDS PRIZE-GIVING

Interesting Annual Event Yesterday Attracts Many Friends of Pupils

The pupils of St. George's school for the past two days have been busy with the prize-giving programme in connection with the closing of the summer term prior to the holidays. The final big event was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon with the annual prize-giving, the perfect weather making the occasion an unusually delightful event for pupils and friends alike.

Addressing the girls the Dean of Columbia reminded them of the serious responsibilities of the empire at the present time, and that this should not be lost sight of during their summer vacation. Part of each day should be devoted to doing something that would be of use to the soldiers who were fighting for the honor of their country. The work of the pupils during the term just closed had been, Miss Suttie stated in a brief address, quite satisfactory. The speaker reviewed something of the studies undertaken by each form, and concluded by expressing the hope that after the holiday there would be greater improvement. The prize-giving over, the guests and pupils met for a short time while tea was being served, after which the sports finals took place, Mr. Simons, of St. Michael's school, judging the events. The programme was very interesting, including a very fine exhibition of the girls' proficiency in running, jumping, etc. Among the specially interesting features were the slow bicycle race, the chariot race, the fathers' race, visitors' race, and threading-the-needle contest. There was also a race for the very small pupils of the kindergarten, and a wheelbarrow race.

The drill medal competition and the tennis tournament finals were played off on Monday morning, and the drill display was held yesterday morning at 10.30. Rev. T. Keeling presented the prizes for the sports events. The form prizes, special prizes, etc., were presented by the dean as follows:

Form Vb, for term's work: 1st, Dorothy Bowers; 2nd, Marjorie Beach. Form IVa: Kathleen Muir. Form Vb: Alison Suttie. Form Iia: 1st, Mary Campbell (prize donated by Mrs. David Miller); 2nd, Janet Lang. Form Iib: Evelyn Strong. Form I, general progress: Norma Pender, Muriel Miller, Ella Abbott, Kate Macklin. Transition Form: Winifred Abbott, Kathleen Wootton, Gwendolynne Irish, Helen Macklin. The examination prizes for year's work were won as follows: Form Vb: 1st, Dorothy Bowers (presented by Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw); 2nd, Marjorie Beach. Form Iva: Irene Tennent. Form IVb: Alison Suttie. Form Iia: 1st, Mary Campbell; 2nd, Janet Lang. Form Iib: May Muir. Drawing—Senior: Ruby Duke. Junior: Anne Sherwood (presented by Mrs. D. E. Miller). Geometrical Drawing: Betty Savannah. Scripture—Senior: Dorothy Bowers. Junior: Laura Macklin and Alison Suttie. Highest number of stars gained in year—Senior: Vivian Moggy. Junior: Violet Josephs. Commercial work: 1st, Virtue Errington; 2nd, Cecily Vincent (presented by Miss Norrish). Perseverency prize (awarded by Mrs. Oscar Bass): Margaret Campbell. Conduct—Senior: Virtue Errington (fourteen votes), name on shield.

Junior: Anne Sherwood (thirteen votes). Perfect attendance for year (presented by Mrs. Macklin): Dorothy and Muriel Bowers, Mary Campbell, Virtue Errington, Violet Josephs, Doris and Laura Macklin, Norah MacEachern, Dorothy McDiarmid, Mona Miller, Cecily Vincent.

Special prize for perfect attendance and excellent work and conduct since her enrollment: Dorothy Officer. Seniors school gardens, judged by A. R. Sherwood, Esq. (awarded by Miss Peakes): 1st prize, Anne Sherwood and Katherine Wilson; 2nd prize, Peggy Hodgins.

Drill medal (presented by Mrs. D. E. Campbell), judged by Miss Cotsworth: Dorothy McDiarmid; 2nd prize (presented by Mrs. McDiarmid): Shared by Mona Miller, Alison Suttie and Mary Campbell. Royal Academy and College of Music (pupils of Miss Tilly), only two sent up: Higher division, Mary Clark, 106 marks out of 150. Grammar of music: Alison Suttie, 99 out of 99.

Royal Drawing Society: Drawings returned from the April exhibition held in London, England, are on view in the studio. Very good result. Highly commended: Peggy Hodgins, Margaret Campbell, Mary Campbell; 1st class, Mona Miller.

After the dinner party, the guest of the evening was standing in the hall, waiting for a friend to join him, when a pompous and somewhat near-sighted gentleman mistaking him for one of the servants, exclaimed—"Call me a cab." The guest looked the stranger up and down; then he observed quietly—"You're a taxi." "What do you mean, sir?" spluttered the other. "How dare you, sir?" "Well," was the retort, "you asked me to call you a cab, and I couldn't call you 'hansom'."

The wife, purchasing new gowns—"Of course, it's quite nice, but there is nothing military about the cut of it." The husband: "On the contrary, it reminds me of a series of tight corners, very difficult to get out of."

"Got a war bonus yet, Bill?" "No, I'm thinkin' of puttin' it to the boss." "You take my tip, and tell 'em Lloyd George doubled the cost of your living last week."

DISPUTE OVER LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE NEFF, O'LEARY AND BAYLEY CLAIMANTS

Trio Will Likely Be Matched Soon in Big Series; McVey Beat Sam Langford

Dan Salt, the well-known Seattle promoter passed through the city yesterday. Salt is now claiming the Canadian lightweight honors for the Seattle youth, and says that he is entitled to them. Salt bases his claim upon the fact that Neff outpointed Burns in a no decision bout at Vancouver a couple of weeks ago. He says that Neff will continue to claim the honors, and is desirous of a match with Joe Bayley.

He would wind up with a burst of speed that would possibly give him the honors, conceding O'Leary to be the better boxer. However, Johnny was very strong, and in the pink of condition, and walked through the twenty rounds as if it was a workout. He hit Burns hard enough and often enough to put any ordinary boxer away before the tenth round. Burns only faltered in two rounds, the fifth and the ninth, when it seemed that he might take the count. But he kept coming and managed to go through to the finish, although a badly beaten boy. Jimmie Hewitt was referee.

Boston, June 30.—Sam McVey, last night won a decision after a twelve round bout with Sam Langford, of this city. Both men are negro heavyweights.

Nanaimo, June 30.—The board of police commissioners of this city put the ban on professional boxing contests yesterday when, at a special meeting, they decided to refuse a permit for a scheduled fifteen-round contest on Dominion Day between Chet Neff, of Seattle, and Harry Anderson, of Vancouver. Both men were in the city prepared to go on with the bout, but the commissioners were adamant and refused to grant a permit for this contest or any future professional boxing contest.

TWO BALL GAMES FOR DOMINION DAY KINSELLA WILL LOOK OVER LOCAL STARS

New York Giant Scout to Visit Capital; President Blewett Wants the Business Men's Committee to Guarantee Funds

Two games will be staged at the ball park to-morrow, the Leafs and Tigers hooking up in a holiday double bill that will give the Victoria club a chance to climb into second place if they can win both contests. The morning game will start at 10.30 with McKenry and Kaufman as the probable twirlers. Marty Nye expects to have a new slab artist for the afternoon fixture, while Tacoma may send House back on to the mound. The teams leave Friday morning for Everett, where they will finish out the week, and Victoria will play at Seattle all next week.

that the crowds will increase considerably. Scout Dick Kinsella, of the New York Giants, will visit Victoria to-morrow to look over Kelly and McKenry. At least that is the plan of this veteran scout, who has been in the city for a few days. Kinsella is a former major league pitcher, and as the favorite twirler to bolster up the Giants' faltering staff, he may make a cash offer for Big Mac.

San Francisco June 30.—Jack Noss, the hard-hitting first baseman of the Oakland team, broke the league record for successive games in which a player had hit safely at Salt Lake yesterday. Three singles out of five times at bat constituted Noss' batting record yesterday—the twenty-ninth game in which he had registered at least one safe hit. The previous league record was held by Chester Chadbourne, formerly with Portland, but now with the Federal league. The world's record for safe hitting is held by Ty Cobb, of the Detroit Americans, who delivered in 41 successive games.

Spokane, June 30.—Elmer Leifer, a left-handed pitcher of Ewan, Wash., who was with the Spokane Northwest league team at the Boyes Springs, California, training camp in the spring of 1914, set a new record for safe hitting in professional baseball for the Northwest, if not for the entire United States, when, in a nineteen-inning game at Malden, Wash., he struck out 32 of the Malden batsmen. He won his game for Ewan, 6 to 4.

HOLIDAY GYMKHANA AT WILLOWS' TRACK

Continuous Card Promised by Victoria Matinee Club; Military Events on Programme

HOUSE BEATEN UP

Table with columns: Tacoma, A.B.R.H.P.O.A.E. and Victoria, A.B.R.H.P.O.A.E. listing scores for various players and teams.

Continuous action is promised for to-morrow's race meet at the Willows, when the Victoria Matinee club will hold their third benefit gymkhana, assisted by the B. C. Horse. Not only will the finest specimens of horse flesh in the capital be on exhibition in the various horse show events, but the harness and flat racing events will include the fastest horses on the island. The programme will start at 2 o'clock sharp, and the harness events will be judged while the races are being held on the track. The mounted events by the B. C. Horse will be a special feature.

HARSTAD JOINS TEAM.

Lefty Harstad, one of the finest semi-pro twirlers in the State of Washington, joined the Victoria club to-day, and will be used in one of to-morrow's games against Tacoma. Harstad has a brother with the Cleveland Americans and is reputed to be a sterling pitcher.

LAWN BOWLING.

On account of other arrangements the Victoria Lawn Bowling club were not able to accept the challenge of the Vancouver Lawn Bowling club for a game to be played July 1, therefore the Vancouver club committee has decided to spend the holiday at their own grounds.

SPORT NOTES.

A double-header is looked here on Dominion Day. Victoria lacrosse amateurs will play at Westminster on Thursday. The Boosters' club are still trying to get that franchise guarantee. The Leafs have started to hit again, while Bonner and McKenry are going at top speed. Seattle did not do any better than Victoria did at the Inland Empire City. Joe Bayley has received an offer to fight Chet Neff at Seattle on July 4. The local lightweight is demurring at over the terms offered.

Appeal for Money.—For the first time in its history the Friendly Hip-Hop association has been forced to appeal to the public for financial assistance, as the month of June has had the heaviest demands on record. Each day brings appeals for bread and the actual necessities of life for women and children who are without a breadwinner. The public has been most generous in sending gifts as in former years, but the unusually heavy demand makes the appeal necessary. The gift of a perambulator big enough to carry two children would also be much appreciated by the association.

A SOLDIER'S DIARY

Victoria Artilleryman Kept Record Till Death Came in Langemarck Engagement.

Mrs. Henry Rivers, 749 Market street, has received personal effects of her son, Gnr. J. P. Rivers, who was killed at the front. He was attached to the second battery of the First Brigade, C. F. A., and the list contains the diary issued for soldiers by the well known publishers, Letts & Co., through the Y. M. C. A.

In his diary he stated that he left Devizes for France on Feb. 7, and arrived at St. Nazaire three days later. The record continues till April 24, and tells in a few brief words each day the record of the day's happenings. On March 27 a German aeroplane was brought down; on April 3 he played baseball and football. On Sunday, April 11, after church service, he took part in a football match in which the French soldiers were beaten 3 to 1. An inspection by General Smith-Dorrien occurred the following day.

A determined engagement took place on April 22, the Germans retreating under heavy shell fire. Next day the Germans were driven back, the battery being in action all day. The attack continued next day, till he ran out of ammunition.

TENDERS INVITED FOR SYPHON PIPE

Selkirk Syphon to Be Built Shortly; Progress on Trunk Sewer System

The tenders for the supply of steel pipe for the Selkirk syphon of the north-west sewer will close on Monday week. It is the intention of the engineering department to carry out the construction of the necessary pipe work by day labor, and was done with the outfall pipe laid last week. The length of pipe will be about 930 feet, of which 570 will be flanged.

The pipe will be laid on piles about fourteen feet below low water level, and probably before the work is started some dredging will be done. The sewerage from the north shore will pass under pressure through the pipe to the south, whence it will enter the Sunny-side tunnel.

It is expected that the contract will be completed by the time that the last of the tunnels now being made has been finished. The longest of the three sections not yet pierced is that on Hereward road, where some 260 feet have to be drilled from the south, while the other two are much shorter. Some six weeks to two months should see the syphon completed, and by that time the trunk will be in place.

It would be possible to accelerate the construction of the tunnels this summer. However, there is no special reason for this until the syphon is in place, when the system can be brought into use in entirety.

On the north shore of the Gorge a connection with the Cecilia tank will be made where machinery will be installed for dealing with the low level sewage. In two months from date the tract should be materially advanced.

Torrow the city hall will be closed when Friday the two principal engagements will be a conference with the city council on the water question and the streets committee in the afternoon. At the former meeting some agreement will be effected for the transfer of the portion of the waterworks to the district municipality.

Very businesslike and brief were the proceedings in connection with the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Royal Jubilee hospital, held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Rhodes presided, and there was a good attendance of members.

The report of the secretary showed that the revenue was still slightly more than the expenditure, while the linen shower had brought donations of articles to the value of $400 and $47.75 in cash. Particular reference was made to the coming of Miss J. F. McKenzie, who took over the duties of matron last July, the intervening twelve months having seen many improvements in the hospital management.

Expenditures included $25 for repairs to the W. A. room in the Strathcona ward; and equipment as follows:

- 151 yds. linoleum, cost $153
- 65 pair blankets 236
- 16 bolts of sheeting 27
- 51 yds. of curtain material 27
- 2 bolts of flannel 21
- Dishes 4
- Dishes 14
- 4 doz. cream and sugars 1
- 3 doz. agate teapots 1
- Dishes 1
- Linen 1

Mrs. Hartman's report as treasurer showed receipts amounting to $1,884 made up of a bank balance from the year of $495.73; members' dues and donations at linen shower, $1,379.10; bank interest, $11.50. The expenditure of $1,339.71 left a balance at the end of $546.67.

The election of officers resulted in the re-election of all those previous in office, as follows: President, Mrs. W. Rhodes; 1st vice-president, Andrew Wright; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. O. Weller; treasurer, Mrs. J. P. Man; and secretary, Mrs. A. Ferguson.

The presidential address referred to the many calls made on the Y. M. C. A. at the present time. It made it necessary to relinquish the hope of a new hospital for the preparation of which had been made. It expected a shortage in the returned many new members had joined. A. and receipts had been unexpended. Money was not every thing, understanding, good-will, kindness, interest being assets which were not negligible. Every member could help by attending the meetings, visiting the hospital, taking a personal part, and getting new members. Copies should be made of the report and in proper quarter, and would receive consideration when so treated.

In conclusion Mrs. Rhodes thanked all her officers and members, the committees, who had done splendid work during the year.

A resolution of thanks to Mrs. Rhodes for her address and services as president was passed by standing vote. Motion of Mrs. Andrew Wright for hearty votes of thanks to treasurer secretary were also passed.

An interesting report was that of Mrs. Weller, convener of the canvassing committee, who emphasized the fact that despite the general financial depression receipts had not diminished to the extent of their 1914. Receipts for 1913 (the first year) a systematic canvass were $1,674 for 1914, $1,200 for 1915. About twenty new members had been added to the list, and of the whole results had been very gratifying and encouraging. Friends were to be thanked for duties performed and contributions given. The duties of the Y. M. C. A. were also mentioned, and when fees were not forthcoming was specially referred to.

The report of the Manly Ward Evangelical Society, presided at the sum of $1,000.00.

C. A. for use of the room kindly placed at disposal of the Women's Auxiliary; their regny meetings.

May P. Through—is not known definitely whether ex-President Theodore Roosevelt will pass through Victoria on his way to the Panama-Pacific exhibition. KILLED IN ACTION

SERGEANT V. D. STEVENS MORE CASUALTIES

First Member of C. M. R. Reported Among Casualties in Trooper Gammon.

From authentic sources the names of the following soldiers who are among the casualties in recent fighting are reported:

- Wounded and Prisoner. Pte. R. R. Wylie.
- Suffering From Gas. Pte. Edwin Freeman.
- Seriously Ill. Trooper Robert Gammon.
- Pte. R. R. Wylie, 7th Battalion, wounded and a prisoner, was reported missing in a previous list. He enlisted last August with the 8th Fusiliers, having previously seen service with the Prince of Wales Light Horse in South Africa, for which he received the King's medal with seven clasps. He was 23, unmarried, and a native of Scotland.
- Pte. Edwin Freeman, 7th Battalion, wounded and suffering from gas, probably means Pte. Edward Freeman, who went to England with the first Canadian contingent. He was born in England, was 28 years of age, and unmarried. He served one year with the 4th Battalion of the Hampshire Regiment before coming to Canada.
- Trooper Robert Gammon, 2nd C. M. R., seriously ill, enlisted last December with the Mounted Rifles, and left here with the draft from Victoria. He was a native of England, thirty years of age, and unmarried. Before coming to Canada he served for some years with the Royal Garrison Artillery at Plymouth, and later at Gibraltar.
- House Agent—"It is an ideal situation, madam—oak-paneled rooms, lounge hall, electric light, tennis court, park, lake, pergola, stabling, garage, hunting and shooting." Fair Client—"But is there room to play bridge in the cellar in case of bombardment?"

PLEA OF POLAND FOR RELIEF FROM MISERY

Local Committee Suggested in Victoria to Collect Funds for Distressed Country

So much attention has been given to the relief of unhappy Belgium that the other country which has suffered most by the European war, Poland, has almost been forgotten.

A Polish relief committee for Canada, of which Sir Douglas Cameron is chairman of the general committee; Mayor Whugh of Winnipeg, chairman of the executive committee, and Francis Sedziak, C. E., secretary, has been organized, and a letter has been forwarded to the mayor and council asking for the establishment of a local committee here. Presumably it would operate on the lines of the present Belgium relief committee in Victoria.

The matter will be brought to the attention of the city council in a communication which will be read on Monday next. Most of the men associated with the committee are leading western public men in the prairie provinces, where the Polish residents are a considerable factor, and in some small settlements are in a majority.

The Bank of Montreal will be the bankers of the association, and donations to the funds will be transmitted according to the directions of M. Paderewski, the famous pianist, who is devoting his time, energy and resources to the succour of his country.

In the appeal for assistance the committee says in part: "The situation of the Poles makes no less demand upon that charity which knows no limitation of country, nationality or creed. Their country has been ravaged by the passing and repassing of the vast opposing forces of Russia, Germany and Austria; over enormous areas agriculture has been laid in ruins; the movable property and food-stocks of the people have been destroyed or confiscated according to military necessity. While more than 13 millions of the flower of the youth and manhood of the nation have been called to service in the armies—often on opposing sides—the women and children are, to the number of millions, homeless and starving. Movement out of the paths of the armies by the population thus rendered helpless (with no prospect of immediate improvement in their condition) is practically impossible in a country where the few railroads and other means of communication are monopolized in the conduct of war."

NATIONAL HOLIDAY WILL BE MEMORABLE

Trips by Rail, Steamer and Car, Will Take Hundreds From City

Victoria will be out of doors tomorrow. There seems every indication that the national holiday will be celebrated in excellent weather, which will charm the residents of the city to the beach, the country and the park.

First and foremost of the attractions set for tomorrow will be the excursion of the Retail Merchants' association to Seattle, and the steamer will be crowded to capacity for this delightful trip. A return will be made in the late hours of the day.

Next perhaps in the measure of support will be the excursion on the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railway to Cowichan lake, an opportunity being given to return during the day. Few more beautiful spots exist on Vancouver Island than at the lake, and Victorians always patronize the special trains at holiday times.

The gymkhana at the Willows, baseball (morning and afternoon), and cricket are the principal sport engagements in town. The Victoria cricket team is away at Vancouver, but there will be an attractive game at the University school grounds.

Principal of the day's picnics, which are as numerous as the leaves in Yellow-wood, is that of the Cymrodorion society, in the beautiful grounds of Dr. O. M. Jones' residence.

Among those announced are: First Congregational, basket picnic, Macaulay Point; St. Paul's, Victoria West; Emmanuel Baptist church, Tabernacle Baptist, at Uplands, and Social Democrats, Fraser street.

At Saanichton the Red Cross society is holding a fete and garden party in the Agricultural Society's grounds. Altogether the promise of a record holiday, both in regard to movement of passengers and in the extent of the pleasure possible, is assured for Dominion Day, 1914.

HISTORICAL BIBLE IN LOCAL RESIDENCE

Resident of Garden City Has a Barker Edition, Dated 1634.

The Times has been shown a copy of the authorized version of the Bible, dated 1634, which is in the possession of a resident of Garden City. This Bible is printed by Robert Barker, printer to the king, who in 1611 brought out the folio edition of which the existing copies are so rare.

The Bible, according to a custom followed in that period, is prefaced with a copy of the common prayer as issued in the time of Edward VI. and confirmed in the reign of Elizabeth. The peculiar list of genealogies in the remarkable testament and the remarkable map of Palestine which accompanied the Barker series of bibles are included.

The frequent use of the English rose, Scottish thistle, French fleur de lis, and other heraldic interweaves, denoting the advent of the royal house of Scotland to the English throne, is characteristic of the edition. Few of these bibles survived the civil war which followed shortly after their publication, and therefore those which remain are properly treasured in the families that retain them.

The prayer for the fleet in this order of service is particularly interesting. It says in part: "O Eternal Lord God, whose voice, mighty in operation, the raging seas and the stormy winds obey, who in Thy mercy guidest the partner in safety through the trackless deep; receive we beseech Thee into Thy gracious and Almighty protection the fleets of Thy Servant our Sovereign, the Vessels of our Merchants, and the persons of all those who serve in them. Preserve them from the perils of the seas, from the efforts of the enemy, and from the danger of disease in distant climates, that they may return in safety and crown Thee with Thy good pleasure, with success in their enterprises."

In the prayer occur the words: "Inspire his captains and commanders and all his forces both by sea and land, with valor and patience, and teach them among all their perils and hardships, whether in distant climates, or their native soil, to show forth in their lives and actions their united duties and graces of Christian soldiers."

Mr. Allen states that it was organized by little politicians; also that it was for political purposes. Both of these statements I wish to emphatically deny. On the other hand, the speakers before Mr. Bowser made it clear to him that it was not a political but a bread and butter question, and one that called for prompt and thorough attention from the hands of the government.

VICTORIA VOLUNTEER RESERVE.

To the Editor.—With reference to the article entitled "Spencer's Volunteers" in yesterday's issue, I beg to correct a slight inaccuracy contained in the opening sentence: "Of the Victoria Volunteer reserve, numbering one hundred and fifty men," etc. The regimental roll to date contains the signatures of two hundred and twenty-four men and fifteen boy buglers and signallers, without including C. Company (Spencer's), giving a total membership of 293 since organization on Nov. 2 last, and distributed as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Count. Includes A, B, and C companies (248), Ambulance section (23), Boy buglers and signallers (16), Staff officers (4), Staff non-coms (2).

All the above members have drilled in the reserve, but in the natural course of events some have left the city, others have dropped out and several have joined the overseas forces, amongst whom may be mentioned: Messrs. Agnew and Cowley (captains 48th battalion) Tupper (Lieut.) and Dawson (capt.) C. E. F. Of other members at least a dozen have either enlisted here or left for England to enlist, and there is no doubt that V. V. R. drill under professional instructors has assisted them to realize that our king and our country want every able bodied man to take his place in defence of the flag and empire.

June 29. "FISH FOR UNEMPLOYED."

To the Editor.—Re your editorial relative to the fact of fish along our shores being abundant but not accessible to the unemployed. Now, there are many charities dispensing assistance to the needy and apparently necessitous, and with a war of unprecedented violence and magnitude raging, it is beyond the perception of humanity to forecast a cessation of hostilities and resumption to normal conditions. Each week witnesses the band of desperate destitution slowly but surely tightening around those unfortunates thrown from the field of labor. It is obvious the drain of provisions, clothes and shoes has its limitations, neither is it the most desirable or efficient means of distribution. Charity is decidedly abused by those who appropriate the spirit of self-help and diligent individuality of the recipient.

Real Relief

BEECHAM'S PILLS. From suffering means true happiness. The trouble due to indigestion and biliousness, is removed quickly, certainly and safely by BEECHAM'S PILLS.

will be given special attention. Victoria has an object lesson to learn from Vancouver, where the Volunteer Reserve numbers over 1,500 citizens, I understand, including ambulance, artillery and engineering sections, it being evidently recognized there that every man is an asset to the empire, and also that in time of war the undrilled man will have no place on a sudden emergency arising. The Victoria Volunteer movement should number its membership by hundreds when the existing apathy can be translated into energy.

MINISTERING ANGELS.

To the Editor.—The recent editorial in The Colonist, mentioning the fact that "a troop of angels" recently appeared at a critical moment and saved a British detachment, is interesting because of its comparative novelty. It will probably be noticed more frequently now as the war continues. However, similar instances, equally well substantiated, have been formerly noted.

The late John Hay, secretary of state in the United States, and once minister to St. James, records on one of these instances in his poem entitled "Little Breches."

Here a little boy, lost in a snow-storm, is found in a shepherd, where it was impossible that any human agency could have carried him. The final stanza of the poem reads as follows:—

"How did he get that? Angels. He could never have walked in that storm. They just scooped down and toted him to whar it was safe and warm. 'An' I think that savin' little children 'An' a fotchkin them to their own, is a darned sight-better business 'Than loafing around the Throne.'"

WILLIAM A. DINTON. June 28.

THAT DELEGATION OF UNEMPLOYED.

To the Editor.—In Sunday morning's Colonist a letter appears from Mr. Matthew Allen, chairman of the Unemployed league, stating to the effect that the said organization is not connected with the demonstration of unemployed that appeared before the acting premier and the executive council last Tuesday morning. As to the said Unemployed league, being responsible for the demonstration that took place, much to the credit of the unemployed themselves, the statement is true. The alleged Unemployed league of which he is chairman neither was responsible nor did it render any assistance to the same, though all unemployed were invited to make the demonstration as large as possible. The demonstration was organized by the unemployed themselves at a meeting held in the Crystal Theatre. It was decided at that meeting that the whole of the gathering should be a deputation to see Mr. Bowser. The writer was chairman of the meeting, and it was left to him to make the necessary arrangements. As your readers already know, the acting premier and the executive council met them on Tuesday morning last.

Mr. Allen states that it was organized by little politicians; also that it was for political purposes. Both of these statements I wish to emphatically deny. On the other hand, the speakers before Mr. Bowser made it clear to him that it was not a political but a bread and butter question, and one that called for prompt and thorough attention from the hands of the government.

WALTER POSTER.

A PROTEST.

To the Editor.—Will you kindly allow space to point out what I think is a great injustice to the unemployed citizens of Victoria? I refer to the government policy which is being built by Grant, Smith & McDonnell. I thought citizens were to be given preference on government works. I wish a few would take a walk out Dallas road, Rose Bank or Royal Bay and try their luck. At Dallas road you will find a dredge, a drill, saw, etc., which carry a full crew of Vancouverites who have been working for eighteen months on the government docks over there. At Rose Bank you will find mostly all unemployed, half from U. S. A., who have come here since that contract was let, assured of a job when arriving. Now, sir, I don't think it is right for such things to go on when our own citizens are almost starving. If any laborers, carpenters, dredge hands, drillers, engineers, foremen, etc., are required on that government work why not Victorians first? I don't think any officials of the above named company will deny this. If so, let's hear from them, as we unemployed here are getting anxious. VICTORIAN. June 30.

LAND FOR SETTLERS.

To the Editor.—On my way to Lillooet I expected to see the hundreds of thousands of acres of land which the Colonist represents as being available for agriculture within the three-mile limit of the railway. The Pacific Great Eastern runs from Squamish to Lillooet, and it serves a useful purpose to figure on its being extended much beyond this place for a long time, as the credit of the province has been impaired by the collapse of the hot air land boom, and further funds are not easily obtainable.

Item, I suggest you issue in your columns an invitation to any merchant willing to contribute a share of materials either at reduced cost, or gratuitously, through a charity organization. Each should have his offer publicly displayed free, and every applicant should feel by honor bound to reciprocate the kindness by a remembrance to patronize these particular tradesmen, or recommend others to do so, when times improve, thus creating a circle of worthy self-help. A valuable advertisement and mutual pooling of benefits in one of Victoria's worst periods of stagnation. I should be pleased to lend my practical assistance to any scheme that may be inaugurated along these lines.

To the Editor.—I have no desire to enter into a discussion with Mr. Inward as to who killed the cat, or how, when or where the foul deed was done, or whether the S. P. C. A. was notified. Frankly, I disbelieve the tale. Neither is there any use in opening up the subject and going into these regions and see for himself.

As regards the localities beyond Lillooet, they are as yet difficult and very costly to get into, the roads beyond 50-Mile House being reported in a terrible condition. H. PARNELL. Lillooet, June 25.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Dispelles Backache, Headaches and Dizziness.

Piqua, Ohio.—"I would be very ungrateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me when other medicines failed, and when I hear a woman complain I always recommend it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and over my kidneys, headache, dizziness, lassitude, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I was hardly able to do my housework. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one other occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it has built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. ORPHA TURNER, 431 S. Wayne St., Piqua, Ohio.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GARDEN PARTY IS DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION

Hundreds Attend Fete Held Under Auspices of Gonzales Chapter Yesterday

Everything conspired to the success of the garden party held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Gonzales Chapter, I. O. D. E., in aid of their own and the Red Cross funds. Blue skies unvailed by clouds and the first real summer temperature of the year made doubly attractive the beautiful grounds kindly lent by Mrs. D. M. Rogers at her residence, Beach Drive. The broad terrace, spanned with rose arches covered with glowing wisteria and shaded with oak and fir trees, afforded ample room for the many diversions arranged for the hundreds of visitors.

In the absence of Mrs. Rogers, who is in England, Mrs. Ferris and Miss Ferris performed the honors of hostess, welcoming the guests as they arrived, and doing everything possible to assist in the success of the function. Ladies of the Gonzales Chapter were active in looking after the visitors' enjoyment, and nobody left the grounds without having experienced at least a portion of the pastimes provided. The generosity of the hostess did not cease with the use of the grounds, the reception rooms and hall of the residence having been thrown open also for the concert arranged by Mrs. Hermann Robertson, while other rooms were given over to bridge and five-hundred players and to those who favored dancing.

The scene was exceptionally gay owing to the unusually fine weather, which brought ladies out in the smartest of summer frocks. By courtesy of Major Forsythe, the band of the 5th Gordon Highlanders were present, and made a picturesque appearance as they paraded up and down the lawns playing their pipes. The whole of Patrol II of the Victoria Boy Scouts was present also, in charge of the Scoutmaster, and gave invaluable service in helping the members of the chapter in various parts of the grounds. The younger members of I. O. D. E. who were helping were distinguished by their pretty costumes of black with white lace fleecus, caps and aprons.

The entrance to the grounds was marked by a line of fluttering pennants and flags, and at the receipt of custom were Mrs. Hobden Gillespie and Miss Hendy, whose collections at the gate made a good foundation for the something over $200 which was cleared during the afternoon. Through the rose arches on the right the visitors were tempted to the pleasant and secluded spot where the Misses Heimchen, Miss Nation, Miss Bower, Miss Campbell, Miss Ruth Jones dispensed saucers of delicious berries and cream, the fruit having been generously contributed by friends of the chapter. The rustic seats in the shade of the oaks also invited many who favored the ice cream stall in charge of Mrs. Floyd and the Misses Phyllis and Joyce Clayton, Doris Taylor, Nina Foulkes and Walsh.

The tea tables were set out on the lower terrace, overlooking the sea, with its distant view of Mount Baker. So many visitors patronized this department that many assistants were required to help Mrs. Gore, Mesdames Charles Todd, Beck, Fraser, Lee, and the Misses Pitts and Irving in passing the refreshment. A queue of people was to be seen all afternoon outside the fortune-tellers' hut with its fragrant incense wafting the entrance. This and the palmist's table were on the same terrace as the tea tables.

Two rings for clock work were occupied all afternoon. Miss Lawson having charge of one and Miss Pitts of the other. A bowling ring was also in operation. Bowler also found many patrons, and a picturesque donkey cart laden with oddly shaped parcels for a touch-and-take chance was managed by Mrs. Baxter. The miniature ring ranges, well down on the shore in order to cure everyone's against accident, was operated by 11th Troop, Boy Scouts, and Mrs. Hincks. An "Aunt Sally" afforded amusement to many. Mrs. Charlie Wilson collecting the fees.

The indoors pastimes, despite the attractiveness of the grounds on so warm an afternoon, proved highly popular. The concert given by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, Mrs. Baird and Mr. Trethewey would have been well worth going to hear had no further attractions been offered. Mrs. Green's brilliant and musically performance of three Chopin numbers being particularly appreciated. The several vocal selections by Mrs. Baird were most artistically rendered, and as usual won her audience, and Mr. Trethewey's performance of Hubay's Heizele Kate on the violin was but one of the several features of the programme.

Eleven bridge tables, in charge of Mrs. Pearce, were occupied during the greater part of the afternoon, and from 4.30 until the closing of the fete a number of the more energetic visitors indulged in the dancing (arranged by Mrs. Gungler), for which Heaton's orchestra supplied the music.

There were many other little avenues through which odd dimes and nickels were collected. "Brian Baru," Mrs. J. Silfveross' handsome hound, collected no less than $25 during the afternoon in the little box which he carried on his collar. A leaflet, containing verses on "Imperial Federation" and "Four Hours Difference," by Mrs. E. B. C. Hamilton, was sold in dozens by Miss K. Gordon, who with Mrs. Meredith also gave an interesting demonstration in bandaging during the afternoon. The Misses P. and A. Pemberton found many ready purchasers for their sweet lavender, an abundance of the old-fashioned flower being donated for the purpose by Miss Grease.

The committee of the Gonzales Chapter which carried out practically the entire arrangements of the eminently successful undertaking received many congratulations at the close of the afternoon, the ladies being Mrs. Curtis Samson, Miss Gillespie, Mrs. Smathers, Mrs. Hobden, and the two secretaries, Mesdames Kent and Fraser.
