Preface

Preface

THE genesis of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco, dates from the meeting of a few journalists in the editorial rooms of a San Francisco newspaper, February 15th, 1872; when it was resolved to organize a club for journalists and other writers, and a committee was appointed to draft a Constitution. This Constitution was adopted March 4th, 1872, and went into effect on the 30th of the same month, which date was also set for electing a Board of Officers. By March 9th, twenty names of charter members were subscribed to the Constitution, and after some debate as to the Club name, The Bohemian Club of San Francisco was formally organized April 1st, and incorporated May 17th, 1872. Even prior to these dates the original purpose of the organizers had broadened until its circularized expression was almost identical with Article I of the present Constitution which reads, "this organization is instituted for the association of gentlemen connected professionally with literature, art, music, the drama, and also those who, by reason of their love or appreciation of these objects, may be deemed eligible."

Since its organization the Club has moved its rooms twice. The first club rooms were in the "Astor" building, S. E. corner of Sacramento and Webb streets, which were occupied March 25th, 1872. Five years later the Club leased more spacious quarters at 430 Pine street, and February 23d, 1889, the present Club Building, 130 Post street, was occupied.

The membership has grown from 182 active members in 1874 to 750 active members in 1900, besides a large army and navy list, 24 honorary, and 33 life members.

PREFACE

The Bohemian Club's devotion to the Liberal Arts has found most noteworthy expression through its "High Jinks." These literary, musical, and to some extent dramatic entertainments, were originally held on the last Saturday of each month, but have come to be celebrated on dates set by the High Jinks Committee.

While its Club House administers to the creature comforts of the members; the æsthetic and social cravings of the Bohemian are satisfied, when on the occasions of the Club's famous High Jinks and during the great annual Midsummer Jinks outing in the redwoods, with its attendant ceremonial, he proves that talent is the only wealth.

Bohemia also has a gayer side which finds expression in many a Low Jinks and is imperatively stated in the Club's motto:

"Weaving spiders come not here."

Indebtedness—Dues and Merchandise

SEC. 23.—Whenever any member shall have contracted an indebtedness for monthly dues amounting to the sum of ten ($10) dollars, such fact shall be reported by the Secretary to the Directory, who shall cause such member to be notified of such indebtedness; and should such indebtedness remain unpaid for a period of thirty days after such notification, he shall be cited to show cause why he should not cease to be a member of the Club. Ten days after such citation, unless such indebtedness be paid (or remitted for good cause by the Directory), the name of the delinquent shall be stricken from the roll of members.

All indebtedness other than for dues must be liquidated within the first twenty days of the month immediately succeeding the month in which said indebtedness may have been contracted. If not paid at the expiration of said twenty days, then the Directory must be furnished with a good and acceptable reason for the delay, and, in the absence of this, the name of the delinquent member shall be posted in the Club, and all further credit denied him, until the amount he owes be paid in full. If, at the expiration of sixty days from the month in which said indebtedness may have been contracted, it still remains unpaid, then the member so indebted shall be suspended and shall be posted as not entitled to the rights and privileges of this Club. Such suspension shall continue for ten months unless said indebtedness be sooner paid in full ; and, if not paid at the end of said ten months, the name of the delinquent shall be stricken from the roll of members. During such suspension the delinquent shall be liable for monthly dues, unless the same be remitted by the Directory.

Absentees.

SEC. 24.—Members intending to be absent from the State for a period of over six months may, upon application to the Secretary, by a vote of the Directory have their names placed upon the list of absentees, provided that at the time of making such application they shall not be in arrears.

BOHEMIAN CLUB

Absentees' Dues

SEC. 25.—Any member on the list of absentees shall be charged at the rate of one-fourth of the yearly dues for the time he is absent. If said dues are not paid upon due notice, the provisions of the By-Laws relating to delinquency may be enforced against such member.

Expulsion for Misconduct

SEC. 26.—Any member who may charge another with conduct unbecoming a gentleman or conduct calculated to disturb the harmony or impair the good name or prosperity of the Club shall prefer such charge in writing to the Directory; and if there shall be probable cause for such charge, a special meeting of the Directory shall be convened to consider the same, of which the accused shall have due notice. At such meeting, or any adjournment thereof, the Directory may take such action, under the Constitution as it may deem just; but a unanimous vote of its members shall be necessary for expulsion. A member so expelled may appeal to a general meeting of the Club, which must be called on his request, but a vote of two-thirds of the members present at such meeting shall be necessary for a reversal of the action of the Directory.

Register of Addresses

SEC. 27.—A register shall be kept in the Club, in which any member may record his name and address.

BY-LAWS

Notices mailed to the address of any member, as noted in the Register, shall be considered properly sent.

If a member fails to record his address in the Register, notices shall be mailed to his last address known to the Secretary of the Club. Said notices shall be held to have been received ten days after being so mailed.

No Compensation to Members

The time of visitor's cards may be extended by the Directory, in their discretion, for a term not to exceed two weeks, and to non-residents, eminent in literature, art, music or science, indefinitely. A card shall not be issued to the same person twice within the same year.

SEC. 30.—The holder of a Visitor's Card, provided he be a resident of the State of California, shall not be entitled to the privileges of the Midsummer Camp or Jinks.

Cushing's Manual.

SEC. 35.—The meetings of the Club shall be governed by the rules of Cushing's Manual, so far as they are applicable, and do not conflict with these By-Laws.

House Rules

House Rules.

(1.) The Club-rooms shall be opened at 7 A. M. daily. No members except those occupying bedrooms in the Club will be admitted after 1 A. M. Members who may be in the rooms at that hour are not to be influenced as to their departure, by this rule.

(2.) The office of the Club shall be open from 8 A. M. to 8:30 P. M. on business days, and from 11 A. M. to 2 P. M. on Sundays and holidays.

(3.) No servant shall be sent from the Club on the private business of any member. Feeing of servants is prohibited. No reprimand shall be given servants by members of the Club. Any inattention to duty or lack of courtesy must be reported at the office of the Club.

(4.) Complaints other than those referred to in the preceding rule should be made in writing to the Directory.

(5.) No visitor's card shall be issued to any resident of San Francisco, or to any one residing within 50 miles thereof. No more than two visitors' cards shall be issued to one person within twelve months. When the credit of a member is stopped he is disqualified as a sponsor for visitors' cards. A member of a corresponding Club must present credentials signed by the Secretary of the Club of which he is a member, or be introduced by a member of the Bohemian Club.

(6.) Members of Clubs entitled to reciprocal relations with the Bohemian Club, may enjoy the privileges of the Club House for a period of three months from the date of the presentation of their credentials. After that time an extension of the courtesy may be obtained only by application to the Directory of the Bohemian Club, and the limit of such extension shall be three months.

(7.) Gentlemen holding visitors' cards are permitted to entertain in the Club only members and those entitled to the privileges of membership.

(8.) Gentlemen who are not members, and have not the privileges of membership, shall be excluded from all parts of the Club other than the visitors' room, except while escorted by a member. Residents of San Francisco, or of places within 50 miles thereof, may not be invited to the privileges of the Restaurant Department oftener than once in 60 days, except by permission of the Directory. Use of the visitors' room, or any other of the Club-rooms, for transaction of private business is prohibited.

(9.) No member of the Club is permitted to entertain in the Club at the same time more than three persons who are not members, or have not the privileges of membership, except at meals served in a private dining-room.

(10) Members may have the use of the private dining room for the entertainment of guests, including ladies, provided twelve hours' notice thereof be given the Secretary, but no dinner shall be served for less than four persons. The Red room is available only on Wednesdays as a private dining room for the entertainment of ladies, except upon application to and with the approval of the President, the Chairman of the Dining Room Committee and the Chairman of the Rooms Committee. The dinner party must not be less than ten. On such occasions, ladies will not be permitted in other rooms than those in which the entertainment is given. Ladies can lunch in the private dining rooms only on the first Wednesday of the month. When personally conducted by a member, ladies may visit the Club Rooms between 2 and 5 o'clock P. M., only on the first Wednesday of the month.

HOUSE RULES

(11.) No member may invite to a Jinks, or to dinner at the Club on the evening of a Jinks, any person not a member, or not having the privileges of membership, unless such person holds an invitation from the Sire to attend the Jinks. A member coming to the Club with a visitor on the evening of a Jinks will be penalized should such visitor not be entitled to be present as above provided.

(12.) Every card issued to the Card Games by the Wine Room must be returned signed.

The Card Room game will be held responsible for such cards, and they must agree with the Wine Room account, which will be considered authoritative.

(13.) Playing of cards and other games will be permitted only in the rooms set apart for such purpose. The Directory shall have the power to suppress any and all games which, in its opinion, may be calculated to bring the Club into disrepute or to interrupt its harmony.

(14.) None but members, or persons having the privileges of membership, are permitted to pay for refreshments.

(15 a.) Except by previous arrangement with the management, no meals will be served in any room other than that set apart for the purpose, and all food served must be purchased from the Club or procured from the Wine Room sideboard. Food served from the sideboard shall not be considered a meal.

(15 b.) No food shall be served in the Green Room, nor shall food or drink be served in the Library.

(16.) No books, papers or periodicals shall be taken from the rooms where they are placed, except that San Francisco daily papers may be used in any room on the first floor of the Club, or in the Library.

(17.) Conversation in the library is not permitted.

BOHEMIAN CLUB

(18.) Minors are permitted only in the visitors' room, and then only when accompanied by members.

(19.) No dogs permitted in the Club-rooms.

(20.) Members shall be charged for property of the Club destroyed or damaged by them, as the Directory may order.

(21.) No transfer nor subletting of rooms is permitted.

(22.) No subscription list, circular or notice shall be circulated or posted in the Club without the permission of the Directory or the appropriate committee thereof.

(23.) No information of proceedings of the Club shall be supplied for publication to any newspaper or magazine, except by authority of the Directory.

(24.) Resolved, That in case a member who is posted for non-payment of any indebtedness shall continue to sign cards after such posting, a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) shall be imposed on him for each card so signed by him, that is not taken up by said member on the day on which it is signed; and such fine shall be considered as an indebtedness other than for dues.

(25.) No property of the Club shall be removed from the Club-rooms, under any circumstances, without formal permission of the Directory.

(26.) For the violation of any of these rules, a fine may be imposed by the Directory.

(27.) The sleeping apartments in the Club (with the exception of those which are reserved as transient rooms) are intended for the use and accommodation of members who make such rooms their homes and cannot be held or rented by any member not making actual use of his room for a longer period than thirty days, without special permission of the Board of Directors.

—In effect August 1st, 1901.

(28.) Whenever the indebtedness of a member to the Club amounts to one hundred dollars, his further credit and supplies may be stopped, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, until the indebtedness shall have been paid.

—In effect August 15, 1901.
