5 years of WikiLati h Daring!

Running for 5 years, we have conducted 27 batches with 1500+ participants 48% of whom have passed 18.800+ new/edited articles on Indonesian Wikipedia

In 2020, as a response to the covid-19 pandemic, we launched our first aring'. Since then, it's allowed us to reach wider participants from all over Indonesia; way beyond what was possible before!

About the course

- The online course is mainly about editing guidelines on Wikipedia for newcomers 👩‍💻👨‍💻
  - 2-6 minutes learning video;
  - reading recommendations;
  - live discussion sessions;
  - assignments and feedbacks.
- In the end of the course, all participants must create one article on Indonesian Wikipedia that meets Wikipedia's policies and guidelines 💪🏽💬
- During the span of 3 weeks, participants are also required to edit articles on Indonesian Wikipedia to improve their editing experiences 🫧

Getting to know Wikipedia and the five pillars

Do: See

Wikipedia has five basic principles called the five pillars. Before learning how Wikipedia works further, Wiki Friends must know the five pillars of Wikipedia. Please refer to the attached video to find the explanation.

We combined narration (using human talent) with animation to help maintain learner attention

ASSIGNMENT

Article eligibility

Mark as completed

Wikipedia guidelines page as reading recommendation

Any topic can be written on Wikipedia, but not all subjects meet the eligibility criteria to be written as an article on Wikipedia. What are the things that determine whether or not an article is worthy of being on Wikipedia? Then can I write a profile/biography of myself (vanity) on Wikipedia? Watch the explanation in the attached video.

More about Article notability and Vanity on Wikipedia:

- https://id.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia:Article_eligibility
- https://id.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia:Vanitas

Please download the assignment below, then work on it offline. Once the assignment is complete, submit your assignment by clicking the Submit assignment button or upload the assignment directly to the Drive (public) folder .

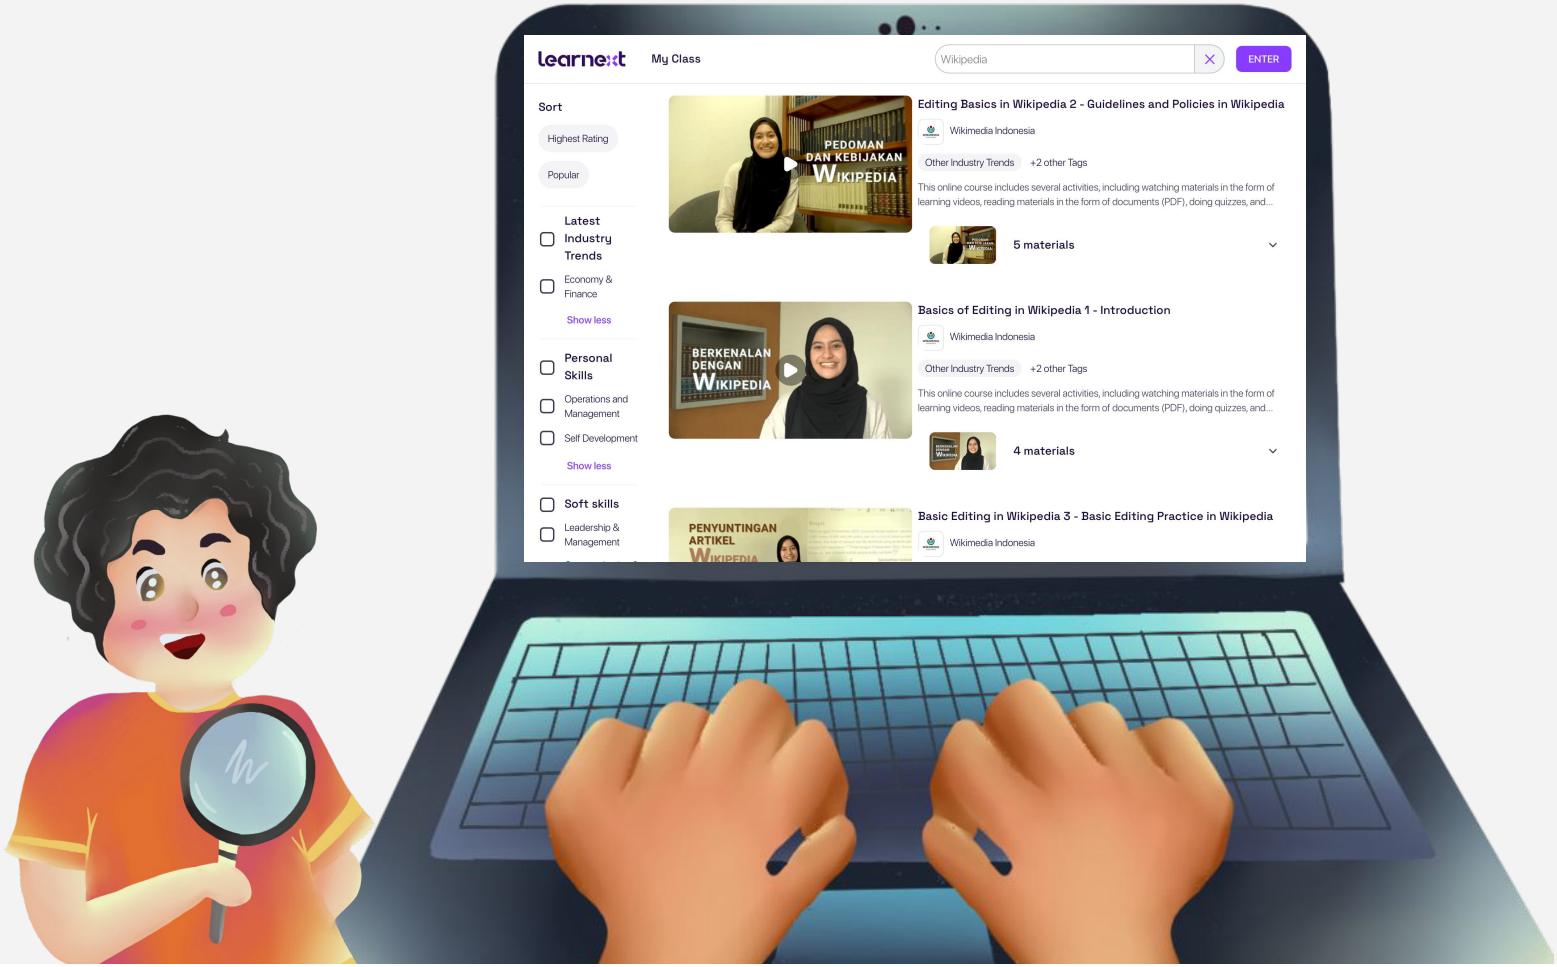
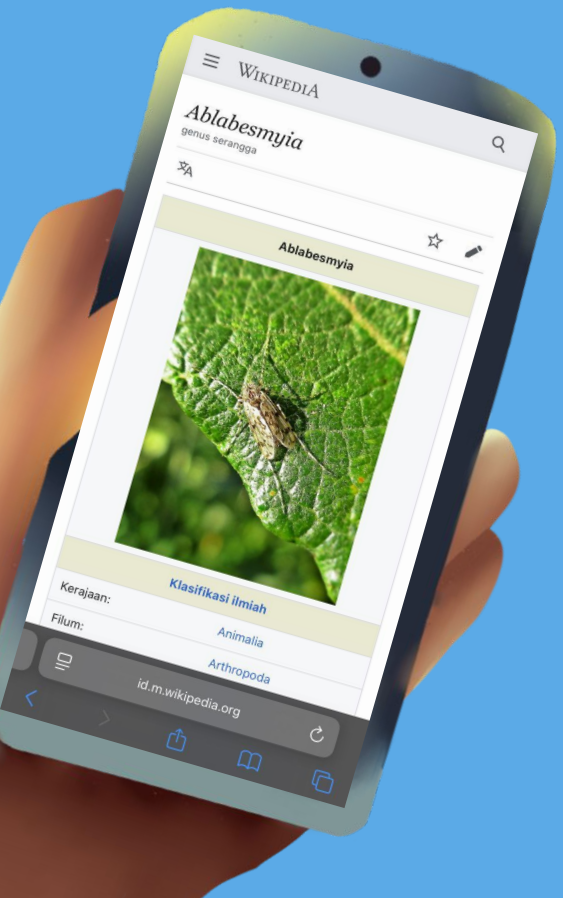
Self-paced online course



So, what's next?



- Since most of our participants are millennials and Gen Z who love using their phones, we're also excited to create a Wikipedia mobile editing course for them! 🤳📶
- We're also working on ⚙️ a self-paced online course for anyone who wants to learn about Wikipedia but has a tight schedule.
- Our programme team at Wikimedia Indonesia is currently preparing 🏗️🚧 course materials for Wikidata dan Creative Commons (beyond Wikipedia!).
