THE object of this compilation has been to consolidate the matter of the four Gospels so as to form it into one continuous narrative, and at the same time to enable the reader to ascertain with facility the source from which each part has been derived.

In the construction of this narrative, every word of each Gospel has been incorporated, except where the same words are found concurrently in more than one Gospel, or where the forms of concurrent expressions are such as not to admit of their coalescing: in the latter case the words not incorporated in the text are noted in the margin. In this way every word of all the four Gospels will be found either in the text or in the margin.

It has been necessary to add certain words, and been thought advisable to substitute others, in order to preserve the sense, or the grammatical construction: the words added and substituted are, however, carefully noted, and distinguished from those taken from the Gospels.

The nature of the compilation has made crudeness and tautology, in many places, unavoidable; but these defects of style have been thought of less moment, than that loss of authenticity, which would necessarily have resulted from an extensive modification of the text.

The verbal accuracy of the authorised version of the Gospels is assumed, and no criticism or comment is attempted.

The main endeavour has been, by placing the Gospel narrative before the reader in the form in which other narratives are now usually written, to enable him, unconsciously as it were, to receive all the information furnished by the four Gospels combined, without the labour and distraction of consulting the several Gospels; and, at the same time, to facilitate reference to the Gospels themselves for verification of the text.

PREFACE.

The arbitrary division of the Scriptures into chapters and verses, makes a greater demand upon the attention of the reader, than does a narrative in the usual form: and the comparison of different parallel accounts, even with the assistance of a Harmony, involves such additional concentrated attention, as can be looked for only in the earnest biblical student. This compilation, it is hoped, will enable even a casual reader, to follow out the thread of the Gospel history, without effort or distraction.

An explanation of the system of arrangement adopted is subjoined, and a reference table is added, by which it can be ascertained in what part of the work the chapters and verses of the different Gospels are incorporated.

A full Index to the Gospel history is also appended.

IN preparing a second edition of this compilation, the Index, which was appended to the first edition, having been carefully revised, has been extended, so as to constitute of itself an alphabetical harmony of the subjects of the four Gospels. The revised Index not only contains, for each subject, a reference to the body of the work, but also a reference to the chapter and verse in each Gospel where the subject is found; and although less exhaustive than a concordance, it will be found more copious than an ordinary Index.

SOUTH MIMMS,
April, 1877.

EXPLANATION.

THE figure (1) in the text indicates that the portion preceding it has been taken from St. Matthew's Gospel. In like manner the figures (2) (3) and (4) indicate the Gospel from which the portions preceding them are taken, (2) indicating St. Mark's, (3) St. Luke's, and (4) St. John's Gospel.

The figures (1) (2) (3) and (4) after the words in the margin indicate in like manner the Gospels in which such words are found, in lieu of the words to which the notes of reference are appended.

The figure (5) indicates that the words preceding it are not found in any of the four Gospels, but have been either introduced or substituted.

The chapters and verses quoted in the margin shew what portions of each Gospel are incorporated in each particular page.

EXAMPLE.

CHAPTER XXII.

Parables—the Sower—the Tares and the Wheat—the Growing Seed—the Grain of Mustard Seed—the Leaven—the Hid Treasure—the Pearl of Great Price—the Net and Fishes.

Matt. 13. 1-10.
Mark 4. 1-10.
Luke 8. 4-9.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side,¹ and he began again to teach.² And^a great multitudes were^b gathered together unto him,¹ and were come to him out of every city,³ so that he went^c into a ship, and sat¹ in the sea;² and the whole multitude stood on the shore.⁴ And he spake many things unto them¹ and^b taught them² in parables,^c saying^{1f} unto them in his doctrine,²

^a And when.³
^b there was a great multitude.²
^c much people were.³
^d entered.²
^e was by the sea on the land.²
^f by parables.²
^g by a parable.²
^h and said.²

The figure (1) in the first line indicates that the whole of that line is taken from St. Matthew.

The figure (2) in the second line indicates that the words "and he began again to teach" are taken from St. Mark.

The figure (1) in the third line indicates that the words "And great multitudes were gathered together unto him" are taken from St. Matthew.

EXPLANATION.

The figure (8) in the same third line indicates that the words "and were come to him out of every city" are taken from St. Luke.

In the same way it will be understood that the words:—

"so that he went into a ship, and sat"	are from St. Matthew.
"in the sea;"	„ St. Mark.
"and the whole multitude stood on	} „ St. Matthew.
"the shore. And he spake many "things unto them"
"taught them"	„ St. Mark.
"in parables, saying"	„ St. Matthew.
"unto them in his doctrine"	„ St. Mark.

The figure (9) in the fifth line indicates that the word "and" is not to be found in any of the Gospels, but has been introduced.

"Matt. 13. 1-10." }
 "Mark 4. 1-10." } Indicate that these portions of those particular Gospels are incorporated
 "Luke 8. 4-9." } in that page.

Note a, indicates that in St. Luke the words "And when" occur instead of the word "And."

„ b, that in St. Mark the words "there was a great multitude," and that in St. Luke the words "much people were," occur instead of the words "great multitudes were."

„ c, that in St. Mark the word "entered" occurs instead of the word "went."

„ d, that in St. Mark the words "was by the sea on the land" occur instead of the words "stood on the shore."

„ e, that in St. Mark the words "by parables," and in St. Luke the words "by a parable," occur instead of the words "in parables."

„ f, that in St. Mark the words "and said," occur instead of the word "saying."

INTRODUCTION.

Luke 1. 1-4.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word ; it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus, that thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.³

G O S P E L H I S T O R Y .

CHAPTER I.

The Divinity of Jesus Christ.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.²
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.⁴

Mark 1. 1.
John 1. 1-5, 9-14,
16-18.

He⁵ was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.⁴ And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.⁴

* That. *

CHAPTER II.

The Birth of John the Baptist and the Birth of Jesus foretold, and the meeting of Mary and Elisabeth.

THERE was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.⁴ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, "This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me."⁴

Luke 1. 5-6.
John 1. 6-8, 15.

There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord⁹ blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

Luke 1. 6-28.

And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

But the angel said unto him,

"Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name 'John.' And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of³ Elijah,⁵" to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and "the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

"Elias, 3

And Zacharias said unto the angel,

"Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years."

And the angel answering said unto him,

"I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings. And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season."

And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

"Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men."

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

And the angel came in unto her, and said,

"Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women."³

And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. Luke 1. 29. 55.

And the angel said unto her,

“Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name ‘JESUS.’ He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.”

Then said Mary unto the angel,

“How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?”

And the angel answered and said unto her,

“The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible.”

And Mary said,

“Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.”

And the angel departed from her.

And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of³ Judah;⁵ and entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost: and she spake out with a loud voice, and * Juda. 3

“Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? for, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.”

And Mary said,

“My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name. And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away. He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; as he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.”³

Luke 1. 56.

And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.³

CHAPTER III.

Birth and Circumcision of John the Baptist.

Luke 1. 57-80.

NOW Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

And his mother answered and said,

“Not so; but he shall be called ‘John.’”

And they said unto her,

“There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.”

And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying,

“His name is John.”

And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea. And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying,

“What manner of child shall this be!”

And the hand of the Lord was with him.

And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up³ a⁵ horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began: that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

“And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; to give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.³

CHAPTER IV.

Birth and Circumcision of Jesus Christ.

NOW the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise :
 When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying,

Matt 1. 18. 25.
 Luke 2. 1. 13.

“ Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife :
 “ for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall “ bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name ‘ JESUS,’ for he shall save “ his people from their sins.”

Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

“ Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son,
 “ And they shall call his name Emmanuel,”^a (which being interpreted is “ God with us.”)

Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife : and knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son.¹

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlchem ; (because he was of the house and lineage of David :) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger ; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them : and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them,

“ Fear not : for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which “ shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of “ David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign “ unto you ; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,³

Matt. 1. 25.
Luke 2. 14-30.

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.”

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another,

“Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.”

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

^e he (Joseph) called his name.¹

And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called “JESUS,” which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;”) and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, “A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.”

And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord’s Christ. And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

“Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.”

And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother,

“Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; (yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.”

^f Ascr.³
^{au.}³

And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of³ Asher:^{b6} she was of a great age, and had lived with³ a^c husband seven years from her virginity; and she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.³

^f And when they had.³

And³ they^{3d} performed all things according to the law of the Lord.³

CHAPTER VI.

The Infancy of Jesus Christ.

Matt. 2. 1.-16.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlechem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying,

“Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.”

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

And they said unto him,

“In Bethlechem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

* Juda. 1

“‘And thou Bethlechem, in the land of¹ Judah,^{5a}”

“‘Art not the least among the princes of¹ Judah:^{5a}”

* Micah 5. 2.

“‘For out of thee shall come a Governor,

“‘That shall rule my people Israel.’”^b

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlechem, and said,

“Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.”

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying,

“Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.”

When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

* Hosea 11. 1.

“Out of Egypt have I called my son.”^c

Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was¹ exceeding wrath, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by¹ Jeremiah⁵ "the prophet, saying,

Matt. 2. 16-23.
Luke 2. 39-52.

" In Rama was there a voice heard,

" Lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning,

" Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted,

" Because they are not."⁶

6 Jer 31. 15.

But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

" Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life."

And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream,¹ they^{3c} turned aside,¹ and⁵ returned³ into the parts of Galilee: and¹ they^{5c} came and dwelt in^{1d} their own city^e Nazareth:³ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, " He shall be called a Nazarene."^{1f}

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it. But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him,

" Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing."

And he said unto them,

" How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?"

And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.³

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar,^a Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John^b the Baptist,¹ the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness. And he came into all the country about Jordan,³ and⁵ did baptize² in the wilderness of Judea,¹ and preach^{2b} the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins,³ saying,^c

“Repent ye : for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”¹

As it is written in the prophets,

“Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

“Which shall prepare thy way before thee :”^{2d}

and⁵ in the book of the words of³ Isaiah^{5e} the prophet, saying,

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

“Every valley shall be filled,

“And every mountain and hill shall be brought low ;

“And the crooked shall be made straight,

“And the rough ways shall be made smooth ;

“And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.”^{3f}

For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet¹ Isaiah.^{5g}

And the same John had his raiment of^h camel’s hair, and a leathern girdleⁱ about his loins ; and his meat was^k locusts and wild honey.¹

Then^{1l} there went out unto^m him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem,² and all the region round about Jordan, and were¹ all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.²

Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him,³ whenⁿ he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism,^o

“O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath
“to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of^p repentance, and begin^q

“not to say within yourselves, ‘We have Abraham to our father :’ for I “say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto “Abraham. And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees : every “tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and

“cast into the fire.”

And the people asked him, saying,

“What shall we do then ?”

He answereth and saith unto them,

“He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he
“that hath meat, let him do likewise.”³

Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him,

“Master, what shall we do?”

And he said unto them,

“Exact no more than that which is appointed you.”

And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying,

“And what shall we do?”

And he said unto them,

“Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.”

And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not; John answered, saying unto them all,

“I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but there cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up with fire unquenchable.”

And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

CHAPTER VIII.

The Baptism of Jesus Christ, and his Temptation.

NOW it came to pass in those days, when all the people were baptized, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee to Jordan unto John to be baptized of him.

But John forbad him, saying,

“I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?”

And Jesus answering said unto him,

“Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness.”

Then he suffered him, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

And Jesus, praying when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto John, and he saw the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost, descending in a bodily shape, like a dove, and lighting upon him: and lo a voice came from heaven, which said,

“This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was immediately led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and in those days he did eat nothing.

And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward hungred.

CHAPTER IX.

The Testimony of John the Baptist to Jesus, and the Calling of the first Disciples.

John 1. 19-21.

AND this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him,

“Who art thou?”

And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed,

“I am not the Christ.”

And they asked him,

^a Elias.⁴

“What then? Art thou⁴ Elijah?”^{5a}

And he saith,

“I am not.”

“Art thou that prophet?”

And he answered,

“No.”⁴

Then said they unto him,

“ Who art thou ? that we may give an answer to them that sent us.

John 1. 22-41.

“ What sayest thou of thyself ? ”

He said,

“ I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘ Make straight the “ way of the Lord,’ ” as said the prophet ⁴ Isaiah.” ⁵ ⁶

^b Esaius. ⁴

And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him,

“ Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor ⁴ Elijah, ⁵ ^c ^e Elias. ⁴

“ neither that prophet ? ”

John answered them, saying,

“ I baptize with water : but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not ; he it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe’s latchet I am not worthy to unloose.”

These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith,

“ This is he of whom I said, ‘ After me cometh a man which is preferred

“ ‘ before me :’ for he was before me. And I knew him not : but that “ he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.”

And John bare record, saying,

“ I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode

“ upon him. And I knew him not : but he that sent me to baptize with “ water, the same said unto me, ‘ Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit

“ ‘ descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth

“ ‘ with the Holy Ghost.’ And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.”

Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples ; and looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith,

“ Behold the Lamb of God ! ”

And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them,

“ What seek ye ? ”

They said unto him,

“ ‘ Rabbi,’ ” (which is to say, being interpreted, “ Master, ”) “ where dwellest thou ? ”

He saith unto them,

“ Come and see.”

They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day : for it was about the tenth hour. One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him,

“ We have found the Messias, ” (which is, being interpreted, “ the Christ, ”) ⁴

John 1. 42-51.

And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, "Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called 'Cephas'" (which is by interpretation, "A stone.")

The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him,

"Follow me."

Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him,

"We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

And Nathanael said unto him,

"Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

Philip saith unto him,

"Come and see."

Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him,

"Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!"

Nathanael saith unto him,

"Whence knowest thou me?"

Jesus answered and said unto him,

"Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee."

Nathanael answered and saith unto him,

"Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel."

Jesus answered and said unto him,

"Because I said unto thee, 'I saw thee under the fig tree,' believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these."

And he saith unto him,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man."⁴

CHAPTER X.

The Marriage at Cana.—Journey to Jerusalem.—The casting out of the Traders from the Temple.

John 2. 1-6.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him,

"They have no wine."

Jesus saith unto her,

"Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come."

His mother saith unto the servants,

"Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it."

And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.⁴

Jesus saith unto them,

“Fill the waterpots with water.”

And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them,

“Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast.”

And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, and saith unto him,

“Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.”

This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves,

“Take these things hence; make not my Father's house^a a⁵ house of^a merchandise.”

And his disciples remembered that it was written,

“The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.”^b

Then answered the Jews and said unto him,

“What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?”

Jesus answered and said unto them,

“Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

Then said the Jews,

“Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?”

But he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.⁴

CHAPTER XI.

Jesus and Nicodemus.—Further Testimony of the Baptist.

NOW when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, and needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.⁴

John 2. 23-25.

John 3. 1-24.

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him,

“ Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.”

Jesus answered and said unto him,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

Nicodemus saith unto him,

“ How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?”

Jesus answered,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, ‘Ye must be born again.’ The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.”

Nicodemus answered and said unto him,

“ How can these things be?”

Jesus answered and said unto him,

“ Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

“ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.”

After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison.⁴

Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. And they came unto John, and said unto him, John 3. 25-36.

“ Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.”

John answered and said,

“ A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. “ Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ‘ I am not the Christ, ’ but that I am sent before him. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom : “ but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice : this my joy therefore “ is fulfilled. He must increase, but I must decrease. He that cometh “ from above is above all : he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh “ of the earth : he that cometh from heaven is above all. And what he “ hath seen and heard, that he testifieth ; and no man receiveth his testimony. He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that “ God is true. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God : “ for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.”

The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life : and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life ; but the wrath of God abideth on him.⁴

CHAPTER XII.

Imprisonment of John the Baptist.—Return of Jesus to Galilee.—Interview with the Woman of Samaria.

NOW^{1a} Herod the tetrarch³ himself² sent^b forth and laid^c hold upon^d John, and² bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias’ sake, his brother Philip’s wife ;¹ Herod³ being reprov’d by him for Herodias,³ (for he had married her,²) and for all the evils which³ he^{5e} had done, and³ he⁵ added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.³

For John had said unto Herod,^f

“ It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother’s wife.”^g

Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him ; but she could not : for Herod,^{2h} when he would have put him to death, fearedⁱ the multitude, because they counted him for^k a prophet : and Herod also⁵ feared John, knowing that he was a just man and² a⁵ⁱ holy, and observed him ; and when he heard him, he did many things and heard him gladly.²

Now after that John was put in prison,² and^m Jesus had heard that¹ he⁵ⁿ was cast into prison,¹ and^b when^o the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, (though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) he left Judea, and departed again⁴ and³ returned^p in the power of the Spirit into Galilee.³

the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well : and it was about the sixth hour.

There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water : Jesus saith unto her,

“ Give me to drink.”

(For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him,

“ How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am “ a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the “ Samaritans.”

Jesus answered and said unto her,

“ If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, “ ‘ Give me to drink ;’ thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would “ have given thee living water.”

The woman saith unto him,

“ Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep : from “ whence then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our “ father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his “ children, and his cattle?”

Jesus answered and said unto her,

“ Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again : but whosoever “ drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the “ water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up “ into everlasting life.”

The woman saith unto him,

“ Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to “ draw.”

Jesus saith unto her,

“ Go, call thy husband, and come hither.”

The woman answered and said,

“ I have no husband.”

Jesus said unto her,

“ Thou hast well said, ‘ I have no husband :’ for thou hast had five “ husbands ; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband : in that “ saidst thou truly.”

The woman saith unto him,

“ Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this “ mountain ; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought “ to worship.”

Jesus saith unto her,

“ Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this “ mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye “ know not what : we know what we worship : for salvation is of the “ Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers “ shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth : for the Father seeketh “

 “must worship him in spirit and in truth.”

The woman saith unto him,

“I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come,
 “he will tell us all things.”

Jesus saith unto her,

“I that speak unto thee am he.”

And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, “What seekest thou?” or, “Why talkest thou with her?” The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

“Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?”

Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying,

But he said unto them,

“I have meat to eat that ye know not of.”

Therefore said the disciples one to another,

“Hath any man brought him ought to eat?”

Jesus saith unto them,

“My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.
 “Say not ye, ‘There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest?’
 “behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for “they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, “and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he
 “that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is that saying true,
 “‘One soweth and another reapeth.’ I sent you to reap that whereon ye “bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their “labours.”

And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, “He told me all that ever I did.” So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. And many more believed because of his own word; and said unto the woman,

“Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him “ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the

Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee. For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.⁴

FROM that time Jesus began to preach^{1 a} the gospel of the kingdom of God,² and to say,^{1 b}

“The time is fulfilled, and^c the kingdom of God^d is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”²

And there went out a fame of him through all the region round about. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.³

So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

Then said Jesus unto him,

“Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.”

The nobleman saith unto him,

“Sir, come down ere my child die.”

Jesus saith unto him,

“Go thy way; thy son liveth.”

And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying,

“Thy son liveth.”

Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him,

So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, “Thy son liveth:” and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.⁴

And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet⁵ Isaiah.^{5 c} And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,

“Because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor;

“He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted,

“To preach deliverance to the captives,

“And recovering of sight to the blind,

“To set at liberty them that are bruised,

“To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.”^{4 f}

And he began to say unto them,

“Is not this Joseph’s son?”

And he said unto them,

“Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, ‘Physician, heal thyself:’

“‘Whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.’”

And he said,

And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake. And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying,
“ Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.”

For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken: and so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon.

And Jesus said ^a unto ³ them, ^{1b}

“ Fear not; ³ come ye after ^c me, and I will ² from henceforth ³ make you

And when the devil ^o had ³ torn him, ² and ⁵ thrown him in the midst, ³ and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him, ² and hurt him not. ³

CHAPTER XIV.

Healing of a Leper, and of a Paralytic.

AND Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan. ¹

And it came to pass when he was in a certain city, behold³ a leper,^{2 a} who seeing Jesus,³ came^{2 b} to him,² and² fell on his face,^{3 c} and worshipped him,¹ and besought⁴ him, saying³ unto him,²

“Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.”³

And Jesus,^c moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him,² saying,^{3 f}

“I will; be thou clean.”

And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he^g was cleansed.

And he^h straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away; and saith unto him,

“See thou say nothing to anyⁱ man: but go thy way, shew^k thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which^l Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.”

But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter,² and⁵ so much the more went there a fame abroad of³ Jesus,^{5 m} that^{2 n} he^{5 o} could no more openly enter into the city,² for^{5 p} great multitudes^q came together³ to him from every quarter,² to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.³ And he withdrew himself into^{3 r} desert places² in² the wilderness, and³ there⁵ prayed.³

And again he entered into Capernaum, after some days.² And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that³ it was noised that he was in the house. And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them. And² there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. And, behold,³ they come^f unto^l him, bringing² a man,^{3 n} sick of the^w palsy,² lying on^x a bed¹ which was borne of four:² and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in^y because of the multitude,^z they went upon the housetop, and³ uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let² him down through the tiling with his³ bed^{2 a} into the midst before Jesus. And when he^b saw^c their faith, he said unto³ the sick of the palsy,^{2 d}

And, behold,^{1 g} the^h scribes and Pharisees³ who were⁵ sitting there² began to reason^{3 i} in their hearts,² and said^{3 k} within themselves,¹

“This man blasphemeth.”¹

“Who is this which speaketh blasphemies?”³

“Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies?”²

“Who can forgive sins, but God alone?”^{3 l}

And immediately^m when Jesus,² (knowing their thoughts,¹) perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves,ⁿ he,² answering,³ said unto them,²

“Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?¹ And⁵ why^o reason ye²

“these things in your hearts?”² For,¹ whether is it easier to say to the “sick of the palsy, ‘Thy sins be forgiven thee;’ or to say, ‘Arise,’ and “take up thy bed, and walk?” But that ye may know that the Son of “man hath power on^b earth to forgive sins,”²

Then saith^c he to^d the sick of the palsy,¹

“I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed,^e and go thy way into^f “thine house.”

And immediately he arose,^g took^h up the bed^{2 i} whereon he lay,³ and went forth before them all,² and departed to his own house, glorifying God.³ But^k when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled,^{1 l} and were filled with fear,³ and glorified God, which had given such power unto men,¹ saying,

“We never saw it on this fashion.”²

“We have seen strange things to-day.”³

And after these things,³ he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he^m passed by,ⁿ he saw² a publican^o named³ Levi^p the son of Alpheus, sitting at the receipt of custom, and² he³ said^q unto him,

CHAPTER XV.

Healing of a Man on the Sabbath, and consequent Discussion.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. John 5. 1-10.

Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. (For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.) And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him,

“Wilt thou be made whole?”

The impotent man answered him,

“Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.”

Jesus saith unto him,

“Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.”

And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured,

“It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.”⁴

John 5. 11-30.

He answered them,

“ He that made me whole, the same said unto me, ‘ Take up thy bed, and walk.’ ”

Then asked they him,

“ What man is that which said unto thee, ‘ Take up thy bed, and walk ? ’ ”

And he that was healed wist not who it was : for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him,

“ Behold, thou art made whole : sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.”

The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole. And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

But Jesus answered them,

“ My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.”

Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

Then answered Jesus and said unto them,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do : for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth : and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them ; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son : that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life.

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself ; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself ; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel not at this : for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth ; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life ; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

“ I can of mine own self do nothing : as I hear, I judge : and my judgment is just ; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.”

John 5. 31-47.

“ If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?”⁴

Christ's Teaching as to the Sabbath.—The Ordination of the Twelve Apostles.

AND it came to pass² at that time,¹ being^{5 a} the second sabbath^b after the first, that^d Jesus^c went¹ through the corn¹ fields;² and his disciples were¹ a^{5 d} hungred, and began,¹ as they went,² to pluck^c the ears of corn, and to^f eat,¹ rubbing them in their hands.³ But when^{1 g} certain of³ the Pharisees saw it they said unto him,⁴

But^{1 m} Jesus,ⁿ answering,³ said unto them,

And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him

But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. “Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

“And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye:

“Our Father which art in heaven,

“And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

“Amen.

“For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: but if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

“Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.¹

“ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or, ‘What shall we drink?’ or, ‘Wherewithal shall we be clothed?’ (for after all these things do the Gentiles seek :) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. “ meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”¹

And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, and stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying,

“ This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.”

And Jesus answering said unto him,

“ Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee.”

And he saith,

“ Master, say on.”

“ There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?”

Simon answered and said,

“ I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most.”

And he said unto him,

“ Thou hast rightly judged.”

And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon,

“ Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.”

And he said unto her,

“ Thy sins are forgiven.”

And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves,

“ Who is this that forgiveth sins also?”

And he said to the woman,

“ Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.”³

CHAPTER XX.

Another Circuit through Galilee.—Denunciation of the Scribes and Pharisees on the occasion of a Devil being cast out, and of a Dinner at a Pharisee's House.

AND it came to pass afterward, that³ Jesus^{5a} went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, and certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils, and Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.³

And they went into² a⁵ b house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said,

“He is beside himself.”²

Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil,¹ and it was³ blind and dumb: and he healed him,^c insomuch that^{1d} it came to pass, when the devil was gone out,³ that⁵ the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people¹ wondered,³ and⁵ were amazed, and said,

“Is not this the Son of David?”

But when the Pharisees,¹ and the scribes which came down from Jerusalem² heard it,¹ some of them^c said,

“This fellow^{1f} hath Beelzebub, and² doth not cast out devils, but by “Beelzebub, the prince^g of the devils,¹ through³ whom⁵ he casteth³ them⁵ out.”^{3h}

But³ⁱ Jesus,^{1f} knowing^k their thoughts,³ called them unto him, and said unto them in parables,

“How can Satan cast out Satan?² Every kingdom^l divided against “itself is brought to desolation:¹ that kingdom cannot stand. And² “every city or house^m divided against itself¹ⁿ cannot^{2o} stand¹ but⁵ falleth.³ “And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall “then his kingdom stand?¹ If he rise up against himself, and be² also³ “divided he cannot stand, but hath an end.² Because ye say that I cast “out devils through Beelzebub.³ And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, “by whom do your children^p cast them out? therefore they shall be your “judges. But if I cast out devils by the Spirit^q of God, then,¹ no doubt,³ “the kingdom of God is come unto^r you.¹

“When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace,³ “no man can^s enter into his^t house, and spoil² them,⁵ except he^u first bind “the strong man:¹ but when a stronger than he shall come upon him “and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he “trusted;³ and then he will spoil his house,¹ and³ divide^{5w} his spoils.”³

“Yea, rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep

And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

And the Lord said unto him,

“Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the “platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. Ye “fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is “within also? But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, be-

“But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner

“Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as “graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not “aware of them.”

Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him,

“Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.”

And he said,³

Luke 11. 40-54.

“ Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

“ Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. “ Therefore also said the wisdom of God, ‘ I will send them prophets and “ ‘ apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:’ that the blood “ of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, “ may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the son “ of³ Zachariah,^{5 a} which perished between the altar and the temple: “ verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

“ Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye “ hindered.”

And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things: laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth that they might accuse him.³

CHAPTER XXI.

A Discourse of Jesus and several Parables.

Luke 12. 1-12.

In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all,

“ Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. For “ there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that “ shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness “ shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in “ closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you “ my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have “ no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall “ fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; “ yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two “ farthings? and not one of them is forgotten before God. But even the “ very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are “ of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever “ shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before “ the angels of God: but he that denieth me before men shall be denied “ before the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak a word against “ the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth “ against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring “ you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no “ thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: for³

And one of the company said unto him,

“ Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with “ me.”

And he said unto him,

“ Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?”

And he said unto them,

“ Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man’s life consisteth not “ in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.”

And he spake a parable unto them, saying,

“ The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he “ thought within himself, saying, ‘ What shall I do, because I have no room “ ‘ where to bestow my fruits?’ And he said, ‘ This will I do: I will pull “ ‘ down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and “ ‘ my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid “ ‘ up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.’ But “ God said unto him, ‘ Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of “ ‘ thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?’
 “ So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward “ God.”

And he said unto his disciples,

“ Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall “ eat; neither for your body, what ye shall put on. The life is more than “ meat, and the body is more than raiment. Consider the ravens: for they “ neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God “ feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls? And “ which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? If “ ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for “ the rest? Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin
 “ not: and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not “ arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is “ to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more “ will he clothe you, O ye of little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall “ eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all “ these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father “ knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye the “ kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear
 “ not, little flock; for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the “ kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags “ which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where “ no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure “ is, there will your heart be also. Let your loins be girded about, and “ your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for “ their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh
 “ and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are those³

Luke 12. 37-59.

“servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.”

Then Peter said unto him,

“Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?”

And the Lord said,

“Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. But and if that servant say in his heart, ‘My lord delayeth his coming;’ and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. And that servant, which knew his lord’s will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

“I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened until it be accomplished! Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.”

And he said also to the people,

“When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, ‘There cometh a shower;’ and so it is. And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, ‘There will be heat;’ and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time? Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.”³

There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. Luke 13. 1.9.

And Jesus answering said unto them,

“Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or these eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

He spake also this parable; :

“A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, ‘Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?’ And he answering said unto him, ‘Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.’”³

CHAPTER XXII.

Parables—the Sower—the Tares and the Wheat—the Growing Seed—the Grain of Mustard Seed—the Leaven—the Hid Treasure—the Pearl of Great Price—the Net and Fishes.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side,¹ and he began again to teach.² And^a great multitudes were^b gathered together unto him,¹ and were come to him out of every city,³ so that he went^c into a ship, and sat¹ in the sea;² and the whole multitude stood on the shore.⁴ And he spake many things unto them¹ and⁵ taught them² in parables,^c saying^{1f} unto them in his doctrine,²

“Hearken; Behold, there went out^g a sower to sow² his seed:³ and it came to pass, as^h he sowed, someⁱ fell by the way side, and² it was trodden down,³ and the fowls of the air came and devoured it^k up. “And some fell on stony ground^l where it^m had not much earth; and “immediately” it^m sprang^o up, because it^m had no depth^p of earth: “but² as soon as it was sprung up,³ when the sun was up, it was^q scorched; “and because it^m lacked moisture³ and⁵ had no root it^m withered away. “And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew^r up² with it,³ and “choked it,³ and it yielded no fruit. And^t other fell on “good ground, “and did yield^w fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth,² “some² a^{5x} hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.”^{1y}

“ But ^{3a} these are they which are sown on ^b good ground, ² they ⁵ are they, which ³ hear ^c the word, and receive it ² in an honest and good heart, ³ and understand ^d it; ¹ and having heard the word, keep it; ³ which also ¹ bear ^{5c} fruit ¹ with patience, ³ and bring ^f forth ² some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some ² a ^{5d} hundred.” ²

And he said unto them, ²

“ No man when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light. ³ Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? For there is nothing hid, which ^h shall not be manifested; ⁱ neither was any thing kept secret, ^{2k} that shall not be known and ^l come abroad. ³ If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.”

And he said unto them, ²

“ Take heed therefore how ³ and ⁵ what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given. For ² whosoever ^m hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever ^m hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.” ³ⁿ

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying,

“ The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, ‘ Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?’ He said unto them, ‘ An enemy hath done this.’ The servants said unto him, ‘ Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?’ But he said, ‘ Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.’” ¹

And he said,

“ So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.” ²

Another parable put he forth unto them, ¹ and he said, ^o

“ Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? ²

“ The kingdom of heaven ^p is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: which indeed, ¹ when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the ^q seeds that be in the earth: but when it is ²

Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house : and his disciples came unto him, saying,

“Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.”

He answered and said unto them,

“He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man ; the field is the world ; the good seed are the children of the kingdom ; but the tares are the children of the wicked one ; the enemy that sowed them is the devil ; the harvest is the end of the world ; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire ; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity ; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field ; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls : who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind : which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world : the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

Jesus saith unto them,

“Have ye understood all these things ?”

They say unto him,

“Yea, Lord.”¹

Then said he unto them,

“Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven
“is like unto a man that is ¹ a ⁵“householder, which bringeth forth out of ^a an.¹

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.¹

Jesus' Observations to those who wished to follow him.—The Stilling of the Tempest.—The Healing of the Demoniac at Gadara.

NOW it came to pass on ³ a the same ^b day, when the even was come,² Matt. 8. 18-26.
and ⁵ c Jesus saw great multitudes about him,¹ that he went into a Mark 4. 35-40.
ship with his disciples: and he said ^d unto them, Luke 8. 22-25.

“Let us go ^e over unto the other side of the lake.”³

And ⁵ he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. And a certain scribe came, and said unto him,

“Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.”

And Jesus saith unto him,

“The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son
“of man hath not where to lay his head.”

And another of his disciples said unto him,

“Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.”

But Jesus said unto him,

“Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.”¹

And when they had sent away the multitude,² and ¹ he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him,¹ and they launched forth,³ and ⁵ took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.²

But as they sailed he fell ^f asleep ³ on a pillow ² in the hinder part of the ship.² ^f was.²

And, behold,¹ there came ^g down ³ a great storm of wind ² h on the lake; ³ i and the waves beat into the ship,² insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves,¹ and they were filled with water,^k and were in jeopardy:³ but ¹ l Jesus ⁵ m was ¹ still ⁵ asleep.¹

And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into^h the country of the Gadarenes,²ⁱ which is over against Galilee.³ And when he was come out of the ship^{2k} to land,³ immediately there met him,² coming¹ out of the² city³ tombs,² two¹ men⁵ long time³ possessed with devils,¹ exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way:¹ who² ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but³ had² their^{5m} dwelling amongⁿ the tombs; and no man could bind² them,^{5o} no not with chains: because that² they^{5p} had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by² them,^{5o} and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame² them.^{5o} And always night and day,² they were^{5q} in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting² themselves^{5r} with stones. But,^{2s} behold,¹ when² they^{5t} saw Jesus afar off,² they,^{5t} ran and² fell down before him and³ worshipped him, and cried² out¹ with a loud voice, and said,^u

“What have² we^v to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of¹ the most high God?² Art thou come hither to torment us before the time?¹ We^{5w} adjure^x thee by God, that thou torment² us^{5y} not.”

For he had said unto² one of them,^{5z}

“Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.”²

For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.

And Jesus^a asked him, saying,

“What is thy name?”³

And he answered, saying,^b

“My name is Legion: for we are many.”²

Because many devils were entered into him.

And they^c besought him³ much that he would not send them away out of the country,² or⁵ command them to go out into the deep.³

Now^d there was there,² a good way off from them,¹ nigh unto^e the mountains^f a^{2g} herd of many^h swine feeding.¹

Andⁱ all the devils^k besought him, saying,²

“If thou cast us out,^l suffer us^m to go awayⁿ into the herd of swine,¹ that we may enter into them.”

And forthwith Jesus^a gave them leave:^{2o} and he said unto them,

Then^p went the devils^q out of the man,³ and when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine,¹ and entered into the swine:² and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the¹ lake,^{3r} (they were about two thousand;)² and perished⁴ in the waters.^{1r}

And when they that² kept¹ and⁵ fed the swine^{2t} saw what was done, they fled,³ and went their ways into^u the city,¹ and³ the^v country,² and¹ told every thing,^a and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils. And, behold, the whole city^{1 b} went^{2 c} out to meet Jesus,¹ and⁵ to see what it was that was done. And they² came^d to Jesus, and found the man^{3 c} that was possessed with the² devils^{5 f} and had the legion,² but⁵ out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed^g and in his right mind: and they were afraid.³ And they² also which^h saw it told them by what means heⁱ that was possessed of the devils^k was healed,³ and also concerning the swine.² Then^l the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about^m besoughtⁿ him to^o depart³ out of their coasts;^{2 p} for they were taken with great fear: and he went up^q into the^r ship.³

And^s when he was come into the ship,² the man out of whom the devils were departed^t besought^u him that he might be with him.³ Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but² sent him away, saying^{3 v} unto him,²

“Return to thine own house,³ and⁵ go home to thy friends,² and shew^{3 x} them how great things the Lord² God³ hath done for^y thee, and hath had compassion on thee.”²

And he went his way,³ and² departed, and began to publish^z in^{2 a} the whole city³ and⁵ in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for^b him: and all men did marvel.²

Levi's Feast.—As to Fasting.—The Raising of Jairus' Daughter—the Healing of the Woman with an Issue of Blood; and other Miracles.

AND² Jesus² passed over again² unto^c the other side² and came into his own city.^{1 d}

And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned,³ much people gathered unto him,² for they were all waiting for him,³ and⁵ the people gladly received him:³ and he was night unto the sea.²

And Levi made him a great feast in his own^e house: and it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat,² behold,¹ there was³ also² a great company of^f publicans and of³ sinners^{2 g} that³ came and¹ sat down³ together with² him^h and his disciples:^{1 i} for there were many, and they followed him. And^k when² their^{3 l} scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners^m they² murmured againstⁿ his disciples, saying,

“How is it that² your master^{1 o} eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?² And⁵ why do ye eat and drink with³ them?”^{5 p}

And, ² when all denied, Peter and they that were with him ³ ^o said unto

But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples,

"The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye "therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into "his harvest."¹

And when ^a he had called unto him ^b his twelve disciples, ^c he ¹ began to send them forth by two and two; and ² gave them power and authority over ^d all ³ unclean spirits, ^e to cast them out, and to heal ^f all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.¹

“And as ye go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’

“Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.”¹

CHAPTER XXVII.

The Bread of Life.—Peter's Profession of Faith.

John 6. 22-32.

THE day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; (howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:) when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him,

“Rabbi, when camest thou hither?”

Jesus answered them and said,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.”

Then said they unto him,

“What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?”

Jesus answered and said unto them,

“This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

They said therefore unto him,

“What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’”

Then Jesus said unto them,⁴

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.” John 6. 32-58.

Then said they unto him,

“ Lord, evermore give us this bread.”

And Jesus said unto them,

“ I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, “ I am the bread which came down from heaven.”

And they said,

“ Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, ‘ I came down from heaven?’ ”

Jesus therefore answered and said unto them,

“ Murmur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets,

“ ‘ And they shall be all taught of God.’ ”

“ Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread which I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.” * Is. 54. 13.

The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying,

“ How can this man give us his flesh to eat? ”

Then Jesus said unto them,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is

John 6. 58-71.
— 7. 1.

“ that bread which came down from heaven : not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead : he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.”

These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said,

“ This is ⁴ a ⁵ hard saying; who can hear it? ”

* an. 4

When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them,

“ Doth this offend you? What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life. But there are some of you that believe not.”

For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

And he said,

“ Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.”

From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

Then said Jesus unto the twelve,

“ Will ye also go away? ”

Then Simon Peter answered him,

“ And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.”

Jesus answered them,

“ Have not I chosen you twelve? and one of you is a devil.”

He spake of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.⁴

Jesus on the Traditions of the Elders.

Matt. 15. 1, 2.
Mark 7. 1-5.

THEN came together unto ^{2b} Jesus ^{1c} the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from ^d Jerusalem. And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault. For the Pharisees and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

And they reasoned among themselves, saying,

And he looked up, and said,

After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

And he sent him away to his house, saying,

“Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.”²

And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi.² And it came to pass,³ when Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi,¹ as he was alone³ by the way,² praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them,³ saying unto them,

AND it came to pass about an eight^u days after these sayings,³ Jesus^{1 v} took^{3 w} with him Peter, and James, and John² his brother,¹ and went^y up into a^{3 z} high mountain apart by themselves² to pray. And as he prayed³ he was transfigured before them: and¹ the fashion of his countenance was altered,³ and his face did shine as the sun,¹ and his raiment became shining exceeding^a white² and glistering³ as the light,^{1 b} so as no fuller on earth can white them.² And, behold, there talked^c with him^d two men, which were Moses and^{3 e} Elijah:^{5 f} who appeared³ unto them¹ in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him,^g Peter³ answered and said² unto^h Jesus,

“ Lord,ⁱ it is good for us to be here:¹ and³ if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for¹ Elijah.”^{5 f} Not knowing^k what he said:^{3 l} for they were sore afraid.²

While he thus^a spake,³ behold,¹ there came^b a³ bright cloud,¹ and^c overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

And,³ behold,¹ there came a voice out of the cloud, saying,^d

“This is my beloved Son,³ in whom I am well pleased; hear ye^e him.”

And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and said,

“Arise, and be not afraid.”¹

And suddenly² when the voice was past,³ and¹ they had lifted up their eyes,¹ and⁵ looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.^e

And as they came down from the mountain,² Jesus^f charged them, saying,

“Tell the vision to^g no man,¹ nor⁵ what things² ye have⁵ h^h seen,² untilⁱ the Son of man be^k risen again from the dead.”¹

And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the^j rising from the dead should mean.²

And his disciples^l asked him, saying,

“Why^m then say the scribes that¹ Elijah⁵ must first come?”

And Jesusⁿ answered and said unto^o them,¹

“Elijah⁵ verily cometh first,^p and restoreth^q all things; and it^r is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and^s be set at nought. But I say unto you, That² Elijah⁵ is indeed come² already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever^t they listed,¹ as it is written of him.² Likewise shall also the Son of man^u suffer of them.”

Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.¹

And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.³

And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill,³ he came to his disciples,² and² he saw a great multitude about them,⁵ and the scribes questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.²

And when they were come to the multitude,¹ he asked the scribes,

“What question ye with them?”²

And behold,³ there came to him a certain man,¹ one of the multitude,² who⁵ kneeling down to him,¹ cried out³ and⁵ answered, and said,⁴

^f feared.³

And he came to Capernaum.²

And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said,

“ Doth not your master pay tribute ? ”

He saith,

“ Yes.”

And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying,
“ What thinkest thou, Simon ? of whom do the kings of the earth take “ custom or tribute ? of their own children, or of strangers ? ”

Peter saith unto him,

“ Of strangers.”

Jesus saith unto him,

Then³ at the same time,¹ there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart,³ and being in the house,² asked^h them,

^h he asked.²

“ What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way ? ”

But they held their peace : for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

And John answered him, saying,^a

“Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not² with us.”³

But^b Jesus said² unto him,

“Forbid him not:³ for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me. For he that is not against us is on our part.” For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.² But^{1 d} whosoever^e shall offend one of these little ones that^f believe in me, it² were^g better for him that a milstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were¹ cast into² and⁵ drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! Wherefore^{1 h} if thy hand offend thee, cut itⁱ off² and cast¹ it^{5 i} from thee:¹ it is better for thee to enter into life maimed,² rather¹ than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:^k where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And^l if thy foot offend thee, cut itⁱ off,² and cast itⁱ from thee:⁵ it is better for thee to enter halt^m into life,² rather⁵ than having two feetⁿ to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:^k where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.² And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee:¹ it is better for thee to enter into¹ the kingdom of God^o with one eye,² rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:¹ where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.²

“Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. How think ye? if a man have¹ a^{5 p} hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish. Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as¹ a^{5 p} heathen man and a publican. Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in¹

“ Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

Then came Peter to him, and said,

“ Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?”

Jesus saith unto him,

“ I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, ‘ Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.’ Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him ¹ a ⁵ hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, ‘ Pay me that thou owest.’ And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, ‘ Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.’ And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, ‘ O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?’ And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.”¹

CHAPTER XXXIII.

*Departure of Jesus from Galilee.—Samaria.—The Seventy Disciples.
Healing of Ten Lepers.*

NOW the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. The brethren of Jesus⁵ therefore said unto him, John 7. 2-5.

“ Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.”

Then Jesus said unto them,

“My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.”⁴

And it came to pass, that when Jesus^a had¹ said^b these words^c unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then⁴ he¹ arose from thence, and² departed from Galilee, and¹ went⁴ also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.⁴

And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said,

“Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as³ Elijah⁵ did?”

But he turned, and rebuked them, and said,

“Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.”

And they went to another village.

And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him,

“Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.”

And Jesus said unto him,

“Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.”

And he said unto another,

“Follow me.”

But he said,

“Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.”

Jesus said unto him,

“Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.”

And another also said,

“Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.”

And Jesus said unto him,

“No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.”³

After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them,

“The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among³

^d Elias.³

“wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house.’ And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, ‘The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.’ But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, ‘Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.’ But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.”³

Luke 10. 9-16.
— 17. 11-19.

And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, and said,

“Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.”

And when he saw them, he said unto them,

“Go shew yourselves unto the priests.”

And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

And Jesus answering said,

“Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.”

And he said unto him,

“Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.”³

And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said,

“ He is a good man.”

Others said,

“ Nay, but he deceiveth the people.”

Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

And the Jews marvelled, saying,

“ How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?”

Jesus answered them, and said,

“ My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law? and yet none of you keepeth the law. Why go ye about to kill me?”

The people answered and said,

“ Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?”

Jesus answered and said unto them,

“ I have done one work, and ye all marvel. Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.”

Then said some of them of Jerusalem,

“ Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.”

Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying,

“ Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.”

Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

And many of the people believed on him, and said,

“ When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?”

The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

Then said Jesus unto them,

“ Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.”

— 8. 1.

Then said the Jews among themselves,

“Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? What manner of saying is this that he said, ‘Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?’”

In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying,

“If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.”

(But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said,

“Of a truth this is the Prophct.”

Others said,

“This is the Christ.”

But some said,

“Shall Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said, ‘That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?’”

So there was a division among the people because of him. And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them,

“Why have ye not brought him?”

The officers answered,

“Never man spake like this man.”

Then answered them the Pharisees,

“Are ye also deceived? Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.”

Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

“Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?”

They answered and said unto him,

“Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilce ariseth no prophet.”

And every man went unto his own house.⁴

And⁵ Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.⁴

CHAPTER XXXV.

The Woman taken in Adultery.—Further Discussions in the Temple.—The Jews attempt to Stone Jesus.

John 8. 2-19.

AND early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, they say unto him,

“Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?”

This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them,

“He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.”

And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her,

“Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?”

She said,

“No man, Lord.”

And Jesus said unto her,

“Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.”

Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying,

“I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.”

The Pharisees therefore said unto him,

“Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.”

Jesus answered and said unto them,

“Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.”

Then said they unto him,

“Where is thy Father?”

Jesus answered,

“Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.”⁴

These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: John 8. 20-41.
and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

Then said Jesus again unto them,

“I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins:
“whither I go, ye cannot come.”

Then said the Jews,

“Will he kill himself? because he saith, ‘Whither I go, ye cannot “‘come.’”

And he said unto them,

“Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I “am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in “your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.”

Then said they unto him,

“Who art thou?”

And Jesus saith unto them,

“Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning. I have “many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true;
“and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.”

They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

Then said Jesus unto them,

“When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I “am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught “me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me: the Father
“hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.”

As he spake these words, many believed on him.

Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him,

“If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye “shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

They answered him,

“We be Abraham’s seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how “sayest thou, ‘Ye shall be made free?’”

Jesus answered them,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the “servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but “the Son abideth ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall “be free indeed. I know that ye are Abraham’s seed; but ye seek to “kill me, because my word hath no place in you. I speak that which I “have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with “your father.”

They answered and said unto him,

“Abraham is our father.”

Jesus saith unto them,

“If ye were Abraham’s children, ye would do the works of Abraham.
“But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which “I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your “father.”⁴

John 8. 41-59.

Then said they to him,

“ We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.”

Jesus said unto them,

“ If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.”

Then answered the Jews, and said unto him,

“ Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? ”

Jesus answered,

“ I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.”

Then said the Jews unto him,

“ Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, ‘ If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.’ Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? ”

Jesus answered,

“ If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.”

Then said the Jews unto him,

“ Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? ”

Jesus said unto them,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.”

Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.⁴

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan.—Martha and Mary.—The Lord's Prayer.—The Return of the Seventy.

AND, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, say- Luke 10. 25-41.

“ Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? ”

He said unto him,

“ What is written in the law? how readest thou? ”

And he answering said,

“ Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.”

And he said unto him,

“ Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.”

But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus,

“ And who is my neighbour? ”

And Jesus answering said,

“ A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, ‘ Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.’ Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? ”

And he said,

“ He that shewed mercy on him.”

Then said Jesus unto him,

“ Go, and do thou likewise.”

Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said,

“ Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.”

And Jesus answered and said unto her, ³

Luke 10. 17-22,
41, 42.
— 11. 1-13.

“ Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.”

And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him,

“ Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.”

And he said unto them,

When ye pray, say,

“ Our Father which art in heaven,

“ Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

“ And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.”

And he said unto them,

“ Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, ‘ Friend, lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine

“ And he from within shall answer and say, ‘ Trouble me not: the door

‘ is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and ‘ give thee.’ I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him,

“ because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone?

“ or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him.”³

And the seventy returned again with joy, saying,

“ Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.”

And he said unto them,

“ I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice,

“ because your names are written in heaven.”

In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said,

“ I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son³

“is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom Luke 10. 22-24.
“the Son will reveal him.”

And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately,

“Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I tell you,
“that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye “see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear,
“and have not heard them.”³

CHAPTER XXXVII.

The Healing of a Man born Blind, and consequent Controversy amongst the Jews.—The Departure of Jesus beyond Jordan.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. John 9. 1-12.
And his disciples asked him, saying,

“Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born “blind?”

Jesus answered,

“Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of “God should be made manifest in him. I must work the works of him
“that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can “work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said unto him,

“Go, wash in the pool of Siloam,” (which is by interpretation, “Sent.”)

He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing. The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that was blind, said,

“Is not this he that sat and begged?”

Some said,

“This is he:”

Others said,

“He is like him:”

But he said,

“I am he.”

Therefore said they unto him,

“How were thine eyes opened?”

He answered and said,

“A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and “said unto me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash:’ and I went and “washed, and I received sight.”

Then said they unto him,

“Where is he?”

He said,⁴

John 10. 12-38.

• an. 4

“ catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is ⁴ a ⁵ hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father : and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold : them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice ; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.”

There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. And many of them said,

“ He hath a devil, and is mad ; why hear ye him ? ”

Others said,

“ These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind ? ”

And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon’s porch. Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him,

“ How long dost thou make us to doubt ? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.”

Jesus answered them,

“ I told you, and ye believed not : the works that I do in my Father’s name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me : and I give unto them eternal life ; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all ; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand. I and my Father are one.”

Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

Jesus answered them,

“ Many good works have I shewed you from my Father ; for which of those works do ye stone me ? ”

The Jews answered him, saying,

“ For a good work we stone thee not ; but for blasphemy ; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.”

Jesus answered them,

“ Is it not written in your law, ‘ I said, Ye are gods ? ’ If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken ; say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, ‘ Thou blasphemest ; ’ because I said, I am the Son of God ? If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works : that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.” ⁴

Therefore they sought again to take him : but he escaped out of their hand, and went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized ; and there he abode. John 10. 39-42.

And many resorted unto him, and said,

“ John did no miracle : but all things that John spake of this man “ were true.”

And many believed on him there.⁴

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

The Raising of Lazarus.—Conspiracy of the Chief Priests and Pharisees.

—Retirement of Jesus to Ephraim.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, John 11. 1-18.

“ Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.”

When Jesus heard that, he said,

“ This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.”

Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. Then after that saith he to his disciples,

“ Let us go into Judea again.”

His disciples say unto him,

“ Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee ; and goest thou thither “ again ?”

Jesus answered,

“ Are there not twelve hours in the day ? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. But if a “ man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in “ him.”

These things said he : and after that he saith unto them,

“ Our friend Lazarus sleepeth ; but I go, that I may awake him out “ of sleep.”

Then said his disciples,

“ Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.”

Howbeit Jesus spake of his death : but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

Then said Jesus unto them plainly,

“ Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, “ to the intent ye may believe ; nevertheless let us go unto him.”

Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples,

“ Let us also go, that we may die with him.”⁴

John 11. 17-35.

Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: and many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

Then said Martha unto Jesus,

“Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.”

Jesus saith unto her,

“Thy brother shall rise again.”

Martha saith unto him,

“I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

Jesus said unto her,

“I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?”

She saith unto him,

“Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.”

And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying,

“The Master is come, and calleth for thee.”

As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying,

“She goeth unto the grave to weep there.”

Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him,

“Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.”

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, and said,

“Where have ye laid him?”

They said unto him,

“Lord, come and see.”

Jesus wept.

Then said the Jews,

“Behold, how he loved him!”

And some of them said,

“Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?”

Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.⁴

Jesus said,

“ Take ye away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him,

“ Lord, by this time he stinketh : for he hath been dead four days.”

Jesus saith unto her,

“ Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God ?”

Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid.

And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said,

“ Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always : but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.”

And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice,

“ Lazarus, come forth.”

And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes : and his face was bound about with a napkin.

Jesus saith unto them,

“ Loose him, and let him go.”

Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said,

“ What do we ? for this man doeth many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him : and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.”

And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them,

“ Ye know nothing at all, nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.”

And this spake he not of himself : but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation ; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews ; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.⁴

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Miracles on the Sabbath day.—Jesus on Self-exaltation.—The Parable of the Great Supper.

Matt. 19. 1, 2.
Mark 10. 1.
Luke 13. 10-25.

^a came.¹
^b beyond.¹

AND he² cometh^a into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of^b Jordan : and the people resort unto him again ;² and great multitudes followed him ;¹ and as he was wont, he taught them again,² and¹ healed them there.¹

And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her,

“ Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.”

And he laid his hands on her : and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people,

“ There are six days in which men ought to work : in them therefore “ come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.”

The Lord then answered him, and said,

“ Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox “ or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering ? And ought “ not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, “ lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath “ day ?”

And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed : and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

Then said he,

“ Unto what is the kingdom of God like ? and whereunto shall I “ resemble it ? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and “ cast into his garden ; and it grew, and waxed a great tree ; and the fowls “ of the air lodged in the branches of it.”

And again he said,

“ Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God ? It is like leaven, “ which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole “ was leavened.”

And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

Then said one unto him,

“ Lord, are there few that be saved ?”

And he said unto them,

“ Strive to enter in at the strait gate : for many, I say unto you, will “ seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the³

“house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open unto us;’ and he shall answer and say unto you, ‘I know you not whence ye are:’ then shall ye begin to say, ‘We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.’ But he shall say, ‘I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.’ There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.”

Luke 13. 25-35
— 14. 1-11.

The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him,
“Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.”

And he said unto them,

“Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, ‘Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.’”

And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him. And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying,

“Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?”

And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go; and answered them, saying,

“Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?”

And they could not answer him again to these things.

And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

“When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him; and he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, ‘Give this man place;’ and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, ‘Friend, go up higher:’ then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.”³

Luke 14. 12-24.

Then said he also to him that bade him,

“When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.”

And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him,

“Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.”

Then said he unto him,

“A certain man made a great supper, and bade many: and sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, ‘Come; for all things are now ready.’ And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, ‘I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.’ And another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.’ And another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’ So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.’ And the servant said, ‘Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.’ And the lord said unto the servant, ‘Go out into the highways, and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.’”³

CHAPTER XL.

Parables—the Builder of the Tower—the King with Ten Thousand—the Lost Sheep—the Lost Piece of Money—the Prodigal Son—the Unjust Steward—the Rich Man and Lazarus.

Luke 14. 25-31.

AND there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

“If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethen, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, ‘This man began to build, and was not able to finish.’ Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down³

“ first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him
 “ that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the “ other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth con“ ditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not “ all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt is good: but if the “ salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? It is neither “ fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that “ hath ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 14. 31-35.
 — 15. 1-21.

Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.
 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying,

“ This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.”

And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

“ What man of you, having³ a⁵ hundred sheep, if he lose one of “ them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after “ that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he “ layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he “ calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, ‘ Rejoice
 “ ‘ with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.’ I say unto you,
 “ that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth,
 “ more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no re“ pentance.”

³ an. 3

“ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, “ doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she “ find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her “ neighbours together, saying, ‘ Rejoice with me; for I have found the “ ‘ piece which I had lost.’ Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the “ presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.”

And he said,

“ A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his “ father, ‘ Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me.’ And “ he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger “ son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and “ there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had “ spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be “ in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country;
 “ and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have “ filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave “ unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, ‘ How many hired “ ‘ servants of my father’s have bread enough and to spare, and I perish
 “ ‘ with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, “ ‘ Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more “ ‘ worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.’
 “ And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great “ way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on “ his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, ‘ Father, I have “ ‘ sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be³

Luke 15. 21-32.
— 16. 1-13.

“ ‘ called thy son.’ But the father said to his servants, ‘ Bring forth the “ ‘ best robe, and put it on him ; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on “ ‘ his feet : and bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it ; and let us eat,
 “ ‘ and be merry : for this my son was dead, and is alive again ; he was “ ‘ lost, and is found.’ And they began to be merry. Now his elder son
 “ ‘ was in the field : and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he “ ‘ heard musick and dancing. And he called one of the servants, and “ ‘ asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, ‘ Thy brother
 “ ‘ is come ; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath “ ‘ received him safe and sound.’ And he was angry, and would not go
 “ ‘ in : therefore came his father out, and intreated him. And he answering “ ‘ said to his father, ‘ Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither “ ‘ transgressed I at any time thy commandment : and yet thou never “ ‘ gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends : but “ ‘ as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with “ ‘ harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.’ And he said unto “ ‘ him, ‘ Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was “ ‘ meet that we should make merry, and be glad : for this thy brother
 “ ‘ was dead, and is alive again ; and was lost, and is found.’ ”

And he said also unto his disciples,

“ There was a certain rich man, which had a steward ; and the same
 “ ‘ was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called “ ‘ him, and said unto him, ‘ How is it that I hear this of thee ? give an “ ‘ account of thy stewardship ; for thou mayest be no longer steward.’
 “ ‘ Then the steward said within himself, ‘ What shall I do ? for my lord “ ‘ taketh away from me the stewardship : I cannot dig ; to beg I am “ ‘ ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the “ ‘ stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.’ So he called “ ‘ every one of his lord’s debtors unto him, and said unto the first, ‘ How “ ‘ much owest thou unto my lord ? ’ And he said, ³ ‘ A ⁵ hundred mea“ ‘ sures of oil.’ And he said unto him, ‘ Take thy bill, and sit down “ ‘ quickly, and write fifty.’ Then said he to another, ‘ And how much “ ‘ owest thou ? ’ And he said, ³ ‘ A ⁵ hundred measures of wheat.’ And “ ‘ he said unto him, ‘ Take thy bill, and write fourscore.’ And the lord “ ‘ commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely : for the “ ‘ children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of “ ‘ light. And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon
 “ ‘ of unrighteousness ; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into ever“ ‘ lasting habitations. He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful
 “ ‘ also in much : and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.
 “ ‘ If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who “ ‘ will commit to your trust the true riches ? And if ye have not been “ ‘ faithful in that which is another man’s, who shall give you that which is “ ‘ your own ? No servant can serve two masters : for either he will hate
 “ ‘ the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise
 “ ‘ the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.’ ” ³

• An. 3

And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things : and they derided him. Luke 16. 14-31.
— 17. 1, 6.

And he said unto them,

“ Ye are they which justify yourselves before men ; but God knoweth your hearts : for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John : since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery : and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

“ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day : and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table : moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom : the rich man also died, and was buried ; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, ‘ Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue ; for I am tormented in this flame.’ But Abraham said, ‘ Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things : but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed : so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot ; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.’ Then he said, ‘ I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father’s house : for I have five brethren ; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.’ Abraham saith unto him, ‘ They have Moses and the prophets ; let them hear them.’ And he said, ‘ Nay, father Abraham : but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.’ And he said unto him, ‘ If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.’”

Then said he unto the disciples,

“ It is impossible but that offences will come : but woe unto him through whom they come ! It were better for him that a milstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Take heed to yourselves : If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him ; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, ‘ I repent ;’ thou shalt forgive him.”

And the apostles said unto the Lord,

“ Increase our faith.”

And the Lord said,³

Luke 17. 6-10.

“ If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, ‘ Be thou plucked up by the roots, and be thou planted in the sea ;’ and it should obey you. But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, ‘ Go and sit down to meat ’ ? And will not rather say unto him, ‘ Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken ; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink ’ ? Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him ? I trow not. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, ‘ We are unprofitable servants ; we have done that which was our duty to do.’ ”³

CHAPTER XLI.

The Coming of the Kingdom of God.—Parables—the Impertunate Widow—the Pharisee and Publican.—Divorce.—Jesus and Little Children.

Luke 17. 20-35.

AND when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said,

“ The kingdom of God cometh not with observation : neither shall they say, ‘ Lo here !’ or, ‘ Lo there !’ for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.”

And he said unto the disciples,

“ The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. And they shall say to you, ‘ See here ;’ or, ‘ See there :’ go not after them, nor follow them. For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven ; so shall also the Son of man be in his day. But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation. And as it was in the days of³ Noah,^{5 a} so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that³ Noah^{5 a} entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot ; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded ; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away : and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember Lot’s wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it ; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed ; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. Two women shall be grinding together ; the one shall be taken, and³

• Noe.

“the other left. Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.”

And they answered and said unto him,

“Where, Lord?”

And he said unto them,

“Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.”

And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; saying,

“There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, ‘Avenge me of mine adversary.’ And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, ‘Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will ‘avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.’”

And the Lord said,

“Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?”

And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

“Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.’ And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, ‘God be merciful to me a sinner.’ I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.”³

And the Pharisees came² unto him, tempting him, and¹ asked him,² saying unto him,

“Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?”

And he answered and said unto them,¹

“What did Moses command you?”

And they said,

“Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.”

And Jesus^b answered and said unto them,²

“Have ye not read, that¹ God^{2b} which made them at the beginning¹ of the creation,² made them male and female, and said, ‘For this cause shall a man leave¹ his² father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh’? Wherefore^c they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.”¹

He saith unto them,

“Moses^a because of^b the hardness of your hearts^{1c} wrote you this precept,² and⁵ suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. His disciples say unto him,

“If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.”

But he said unto them,

“All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother’s womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven’s sake. “Thou shalt do no murder,^d Thou shalt^e not commit adultery, Thou “shalt^e not steal, Thou shalt^e not bear false witness,¹ Defraud not,² “Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neigh- “bour as thyself.”

And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him,

“ Zaccheus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.”

And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, “ That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.”

And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord;

“ Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.”

And Jesus said unto him,

“ This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

He said therefore,

“ A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, ‘Occupy till I come.’ But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, ‘We will not have this man to reign over us.’ And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

“ Then came the first, saying,

“ ‘ Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.’

“ And he said unto him,

“ ‘ Well, thou good servant : because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.’ ”

“ And the second came, saying,

“ ‘ Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.’

“ And he said likewise to him,

“ ‘ Be thou also over five cities.’

“ And another came, saying,

“ ‘ Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin : for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man : thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.’ ”

“ And he saith unto him,

“ Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow : wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury ?’ ”

“ And he said unto them that stood by,

“ ‘ Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. (And they said unto him, ‘ Lord, he hath ten pounds.’) ‘ For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given ; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.’ ”

And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.³

CHAPTER XLIV.

Return of Jesus to Bethany, and His Public Entry into Jerusalem.

AND the Jews' passover was nigh at hand : and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves. John 11. 55, 56. Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple,⁴

Matt. 21. 1-9.
 Mark 11. 1-9.
 Luke 19. 29-38.
 John 11. 56, 57.
 — 12. 1, 9-15.

“What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?”

Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.⁴ Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.⁴

And it came to pass³ on the next day,⁴ when they^a drew^b nigh unto^c Jerusalem, and were^d come to^e Bethphage¹ and Bethany, at^f the mount called the mount of Olives,³ Jesus^{1g} then sent^{1h} forth two of his disciples,² sayingⁱ unto them,¹

“Go your way^k into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it,^{2l} straightway ye shall find an ass^m tied, and a colt withⁿ her,¹ whereon yet never man sat; loose³ them,ⁿ and bring them¹ⁿ hither³ unto me.¹ And if any man ask^o you, ‘Why do ye loose³ them?’^{5p} say ‘ye^{2q} unto him³ that^r the Lord hath need of² them;’ and straightway ‘he will send them^{1s} hither.’²”

And the disciples^{1t} that were sent³ went¹ their way, and² did as Jesus commanded them,¹ and⁵ found the² ass and the⁵ colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met,² even as he had said unto them;³ and they loose² them.^{5s} And² as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof^{3u} that stood there said unto them,

“What do ye, loosing^w the colt?”

And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded,² “The Lord ‘hath need of him:’³ and they let them go. And they brought² the ass, and the colt^{1z} to Jesus,² and they² cast^y their garments^z on² them;^{1a} and he^b sat^{2c} thereon.^{1d}”

All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,^{1e}

Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, ‘Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.’ But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: and the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then saith he to his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.’ So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, ‘Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment?’ And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, ‘Bind him: hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”¹

“ one is your Master, even Christ. But he that is greatest among you “ shall be your servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself, shall be “ abased ; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.¹

“ Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye^a devour “ widows’ houses, and for a pretence^b make long¹ prayers :^{2c} therefore ye^d “ shall receive the greater damnation. But woe unto you, scribes and “ Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against “ men : for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are
“ for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is

“ Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, ‘ Whosoever shall swear

“ ‘ the temple, he is a debtor ! ’ Ye fools and blind : for whether is “ greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold ? And ‘ Who-

“ ‘ by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. ’ Ye fools and blind : for

“ sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

“ Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye pay tithe of “ mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of “ the law, judgment, mercy, and faith : these ought ye to have done, and “ not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, “ Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are “ full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

“ Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! because ye build the “ tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, and “ say, ‘ If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have “ ‘ been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. ’ Wherefore ye “ be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which “ hell ? Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men,¹

“ and scribes : and some of them ye shall kill and crucify ; and some of “ them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city

 “ earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of ¹ Zachariah ^{5 a}

 “ Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this

And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast : the same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying,

“ Sir, we would see Jesus.”

Philip cometh and telleth Andrew : and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

And Jesus answered them, saying,

“ The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, “ verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and “ die, it abideth alone : but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He “ that loveth his life shall lose it ; and he that hateth his life in this “ world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him fol“ low me ; and where I am, there shall also my servant be : if any man “ serve me, him will my Father honour. Now is my soul troubled ; and “ what shall I say ? Father, save me from this hour ? but for this cause
 “ came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name.”

Then came there a voice from heaven, saying,

“ I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered : others said, ⁴

John 12. 29-50.

“ An angel spake to him.”

Jesus answered and said,

“ This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world : now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

“ And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.”

This he said, signifying what death he should die.

The people answered him,

“ We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever : and how sayest thou, ‘ The Son of man must be lifted up ’ ? Who is this Son of man ? ”

Then Jesus said unto them,

“ Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you : for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light.”

These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

° Essais. 4

But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him : that the saying of ⁴ Isaiah ^{5a} the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake,

“ And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed ? ” ^b

Therefore they could not believe, because that ⁴ Isaiah ^{5a} said again,

“ He hath blinded their eyes,

“ And hardened their heart ;

“ That they should not see with their eyes,

“ Nor understand with their heart,

“ And be converted, and I should heal them.” ^c

These things said ⁴ Isaiah, ^{5a} when he saw his glory, and spake of him. Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him ; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue : for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

Jesus cried and said,

“ He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not : for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him : the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. For I have not spoken of myself ; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting : whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.” ^d

“And take³ ye² heed to yourselves,³ watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is:² lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.³ For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when^{2s} your Lord,¹ the master of the house, cometh,^t at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrow, or in the morning: lest coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. “ watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore be ye also ready : for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, ‘ My lord delayeth his coming ; and shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken ; the Lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“ Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom, and five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them : but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, ‘ Behold, the bridegroom cometh ; go ye out to meet him.’ Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, ‘ Give us of your oil ; for our lamps are gone out.’ But the wise answered, saying, ‘ Not so ; lest there be not enough for us and you : but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.’ And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came : and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage : and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, ‘ Lord, Lord, open to us.’ But he answered and said, ‘ Verily I say unto you, I know you not.’ Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

“ For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one ; to every man according to his several ability ; and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord’s money. After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, ‘ Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents : behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.’ His lord said unto him, ‘ Well done, thou good and faithful servant : thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things : enter thou into the joy of thy lord.’ He also that had received two talents came and said, ‘ Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents : behold, I

Conspiracy of the Rulers against Jesus.—Judas Iscariot.—The Supper at Bethany.

Matt. 26. 1. 12.
 Mark 14. 1. 8.
 Luke 22. 1. 2.
 John 12. 2. 7.

NOW³ after two days was² the feast of^b unleavened bread,³ which is called the passover.³

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

“ Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son
 “ ‘ of man is betrayed to be crucified.’ ”

Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, and consulted^c that^d they might take Jesus^e by subtilty,^f and kill him.^g But they said,

“ Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among^h the people.”¹

For they feared the people.³

Now when Jesus wasⁱ in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,¹ ^k they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. Then⁴ there came unto him¹ Mary⁴

 And the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.⁴ But when his

This he said not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief,

And they murmured against her.²

CHAPTER LI.

Preparation for the Passover.—The Washing of the Disciples' Feet.—

The Traitor pointed out.

THEN^m came the³ first day of the feast of unleavened bread,¹ when the passover must beⁿ killed:³ and⁵ the disciples came to Jesus.¹

Matt. 26. 17-20.
Mark 14. 12-17.
Luke 22. 7-18.

And he sent^{3o} two of his disciples,² Peter and John, saying,

“Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.”

And they^p said^q unto him,³

And he said^s unto them,³

^s saith. 2
^t to such a man. 1
^u and wheresoever. 2
^v shall go. 2
^w to. 2
^x him. 1

“Go ye into the city, and,^{2t} behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where^u he entereth^w in. And ye shall say unto^x the goodman of the house,³ ‘The Master saith unto thee,³ My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house.¹ Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?’ And he shall^z shew you a large upper room furnished³ and prepared: there make ready for us.”²

^y will. 2

And they^{3a} did as Jesus had appointed them,¹ and⁵ went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.²

^z the disciples. 1
his disciples. 2

And^b in the evening,² when the hour^c was come, he³ came^d and⁵ sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

^a Now. 1
^b even. 1
^c cometh. 2

And he said unto them,

“With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: for I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said,

“Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.”³

Luke 22. 24-30.
John 13. 1-18.

And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them,

“The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger: and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”³

Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girdeth himself. After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him,

“Lord, dost thou wash my feet?”

Jesus answered and said unto him,

“What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.”

Peter saith unto him,

“Thou shalt never wash my feet.”

Jesus answered him,

“If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.”

Simon Peter saith unto him,

“Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.”

Jesus saith to him,

“He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.”

For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, “Ye are not all clean.”

So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, “Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me ‘Master’ and ‘Lord:’ and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom⁴

"I have chosen : but that the scripture may be fulfilled, 'He that eateth
 " 'bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.' " Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am
 " he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I
 " send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that
 " sent me." ⁴

 Mark 14. 18-21.
 Luke 22. 21-23.
 John 13. 18-30.

^a Psalm 41. 9.

When Jesus had thus said, ⁴ and ¹ as they sat and did eat, ² he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said,

" Verily, verily, ⁶ I say unto you, that one of you ⁴ which eateth with " me, shall betray me. ² Behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is
 " with me on the table." ³

^b But. ³

Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. ⁴
 And they began to be ^c exceeding ¹ sorrowful, ² and ⁵ to enquire among themselves, which of them it was who should do this thing; ³ and to say unto him ² every one of them, ¹ one by one, ²

^c were. ¹

" Lord, is it I? " ¹

And another said,

" Is it I? " ²

And he ^d answered and said unto them,

" It is one of the twelve ^{2e} that dippeh his hand with me in the dish,
 " the same shall betray me. ¹ And truly ^f the Son of man goeth, as it was " determined, ⁴ and ⁵ as it is written of him : ¹ but woe unto ^g that man by

Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him,

" Lord, who is it? "

Jesus answered,

" He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. "

And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And after the sop Satan entered into him. ⁴

Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said,

" Master, is it I? "

He said unto him,

" Thou hast said. " ¹

Then said Jesus unto him,

" That thou doest, do quickly. "

Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him,

" Buy those things that we have need of against the feast. "

Or that he should give something to the poor.

He then, having received the sop, went immediately out : and it was night. ⁴

WHEN⁴ therefore⁴ Judas^{5 4} was gone out, Jesus said,
“ Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
“ If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and “ shall straightway glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am
“ with you. Ye shall seek me : and as I said unto the Jews, ‘ Whither I

“ unto you, That ye love one another ; as I have loved you, that ye also “ love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples,
“ if ye have love one to another.”

Simon Peter said unto him,

“ Lord, whither goest thou ? ”

Jesus answered him,

“ Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now ; but thou shalt follow
“ me afterwards.”

Peter said unto him,

“ Lord, why cannot I follow thee now ? I will lay down my life for “ thy sake.”⁴

Then⁶ said⁶ Jesus unto them,

“ All ye shall be offended because of me this night : for it is written,

“ ‘ I will smite the shepherd,

“ ‘ And the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.’^{1 d}

“ But after that I am risen² again, I will go before you into Galilee.”¹

But Peter² answered and said unto him,

“ Though⁶ all men should⁷ be offended because of thee, yet will I never⁶
“ be offended.”¹

And the Lord said,

“ Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may “ sift you as wheat : but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not :
“ and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.”

And he said unto him,

“ Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.”³

And Jesus⁴ saith¹ unto² him,²

“ Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake ? Verily, verily, I say “ unto¹ thee,⁴ Peter,³ That this day, even in this night, before the cock^m

But² Peter^{1 2} spake^r the more vehemently,²

“ And he was reckoned among the transgressors : ”

“ For the things concerning me have an end.”

And they said,

“ Lord, behold, here are two swords.”

And he said unto them,

“ It is enough.”³

And as they were eating,^a Jesus^b took bread, and blessed it,¹ and gave thanks,³ and when he had given thanks, he^{5 i} brake it, and gave it to^c the disciples,^d and said,^e

“ Take, eat ; this is my body¹ which is given for you : this do in remembrance of me.”³

And he took¹ likewise also the cup after supper,³ and gave thanks, and¹ when he had given thanks, he² gave it to them, saying^{1 f} unto them,²

“ Drink ye all of it ; for this^g is my blood of the new testament,^h which is shed for¹ you³ and for⁵ many for the remission of sins :¹ this do³ ye, as oft as ye drink it^{5 i} in remembrance of me.³ But¹ verily I say unto you, I will² not^k drink henceforth of this^l fruit of the vine, until that day when^m I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.”^{1 n}

And they all drank of it.²

And Jesus said unto them,⁵

“ Let not your heart be troubled : ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions : if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself ; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.”

Thomas saith unto him,

“ Lord, we know not whither thou goest ; and how can we know the way ? ”

Jesus saith unto him,

“ I am the way, the truth, and the life : no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also : and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.”

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.”

Judas saith unto him, (not Iscariot,)

“ Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? ”

Jesus answered and said unto him,

“ If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father’s which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.”

“ I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch⁴

“ in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away : and every branch that “ beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now “ ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide “ in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it “ abide in the vine ; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the “ vine, ye are the branches : he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same “ bringeth forth much fruit : for without me ye can do nothing. If a “ man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered ; and “ men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
 “ If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will,
 “ and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye “ bear much fruit ; so shall ye be my disciples. As the Father hath loved “ me, so have I loved you : continue ye in my love. If ye keep my com“ mandments, ye shall abide in my love ; even as I have kept my Father’s

John 15. 2-27.
 — 16. 1.

“ These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in “ you, and that your joy might be full. This is my commandment, That “ ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man “ than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my “ friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not “ servants ; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth : but I have “ called you friends ; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have “ made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you,
 “ and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your “ fruit should remain : that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in “ my name, he may give it you. These things I command you, that ye “ love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me “ before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his “ own : but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of “ the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I “ said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have “ persecuted me, they will also persecute you ; if they have kept my “ saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do “ unto you for my name’s sake, because they know not him that sent me.
 “ If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin : but now
 “ they have no cloke for their sin. He that hateth me hateth my Father
 “ also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man “ did, they had not had sin : but now have they both seen and hated both “ me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be “ fulfilled that is written in their law,

“ ‘ They hated me without a cause.’ ”

Ps 60. 4.

“ But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the “ Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father,
 “ he shall testify of me : and ye shall bear witness, because ye have been

“ These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.”

John 16. 2-25.

“ They shall put you out of the synagogues : yea, the time cometh, that “ whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. And “ these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the “ Father, nor me. But these things have I told you, that when the time “ shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these “ things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.
 “ But now I go my way to him that sent me ; and none of you asketh me,
 “ ‘ Whither goest thou ? ’ But because I have said these things unto you, “ sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth ; It is “ expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the Comforter
 “ will not come unto you ; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.
 “ And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteou-“ ness, and of judgment : of sin, because they believe not on me ; of “ righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more ;
 “ of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet
 “ many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit
 “ when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth :
 “ for he shall not speak of himself ; but whatsoever he shall hear, that “ shall he speak : and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify “ me : for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All “ things that the Father hath are mine : therefore said I, that he shall take
 “ of mine, and shall shew it unto you. A little while, and ye shall not “ see me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to “ the Father.”

Then said some of his disciples among themselves,

“ What is this that he saith unto us, ‘ A little while, and ye shall not “ see me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me : ’ and, ‘ Because “ I go to the Father ? ’ ”

They said therefore,

“ What is this that he saith, ‘ A little while ’ ? We cannot tell what “ he saith.”

Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them,

“ Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, ‘ A little while, and “ ‘ ye shall not see me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me ’ ?
 “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the “ world shall rejoice : and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be “ turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because “ her hour is come : but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she “ remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into “ the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow : but I will see you “ again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from “ you. And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say “ unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give “ it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall “ receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto ‘

“you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you: for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.”

John 16. 25-33.
— 17. 1-16.

His disciples said unto him,

“Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.”

Jesus answered them,

“Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.”

These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said,

“Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. They are not of the⁴

“ world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth : thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world; even so have I also sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Neither pray I for them alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ; that they all may be one ; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us : that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them ; that they may be one, even as we are one : I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one ; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am ; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me : for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee : but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it : that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.”⁴

Gethsemane.—Jesus Betrayed by Judas and taken Prisoner.

Matt. 26. 30,
30-39.
Mark 14. 26,
32-36.
Luke 22. 39-44.
John 18. 1.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words,⁴ and¹ they had sung an hymn,¹ he^a came out^{3 b} with his disciples,⁴ and went, as he was wont,³ over the brook Cedron⁴ into^c the mount of Olives;¹ and his disciples also followed him.³

And^d they^e came^f to^g a^{2 h} garden^{4 i} which was named^k Gethsemane,² into the which he entered, and his disciples.⁴ And when he was at the place,³ he saith^l to^m hisⁿ disciples,^{2 o}

“ Pray that ye enter not into temptation.³ Sit ye here, while I go and^p pray yonder.”¹

And he took^q with him Peter and¹ James and John,² the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful,^{1 r} and to be very heavy.²

Then^s saith he unto them,

“ My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.”¹

And he went forward a little,^{2 t} and was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down³ on the ground,² and fell on his face,¹ and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said,^{2 u}

“ O my^v Father, if it be possible,¹ (and⁵ all things are possible unto thee,²) and^b if thou be willing, remove^x this cup^y from me: nevertheless “ not my^z will, but thine, a be done.”

And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it³

And he cameⁿ and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy,¹ neither wist they what to answer him.² And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then cometh he to his disciples¹ the third time,² and saith unto them,

“Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold,¹ it is enough, the hour is “come,^{2 o} and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.¹ “Rise up,² let us be going:” behold,^q he is at hand that doth betray^r me.”¹

And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.⁴

And immediately while² Jesus^{5 s} yet spake, lo,^t Judas,ⁿ one of the twelve, came,^u and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests¹ and the scribes, and the elders² of the people:¹ and³ Judas³ went before them.³

Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them,

“Whom seek ye?”

They answered him,

“Jesus of Nazareth.”

Jesus saith unto them,

“I am he.”

And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. As soon then as he had said unto them, “I am he,” they went backward, and fell to the ground.

Then asked he them again,

“Whom seek ye?”

And they said,

“Jesus of Nazareth.”

Jesus answered,

“I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go “their way:” that the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, “Of “them which thou gavest me have I lost none.”⁴

Now^x he that betrayed him¹ had given^y them^a a sign,^z saying,

And as soon as he was come,^a he goeth^b straightway to^{2c} Jesus¹ to kiss him,³ and said,^d

And Jesus said unto him,

“Friend, wherefore art thou come?¹ Judas, betrayest thou the Son of “man with a kiss?”³

Then^f came they and laid¹ their hands on² Jesus,^g and took him.^{1 h}

When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him,

“Lord, shall we smite with the sword?”³

And behold,¹ Simon Peter,⁴ being⁵ one of them which were with Jesus,^{1 i} having a sword,⁴ stretched out his hand, and drew his^k sword,^l and struck^m aⁿ servant of the high priest's,^o and¹ cut^p off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.⁴

Then^{1 q} Jesus answered and said³ unto Peter,⁷

“Put up⁴ again thy sword into¹ the sheath:^{4 s} for all they that take
“the sword shall perish with the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now “pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve “legions of angels? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that “thus it must be?¹ Suffer⁷ ye thus far:³ the cup which my Father hath “given me, shall I not drink it?”⁴

And he touched his ear, and healed him.³

In that same hour said^l Jesus toⁿ the multitudes,^{1 o} and to⁵ the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him,³

“Are^x ye come out as against a thief, with swords and¹ with staves²
“for to take me? I sat² daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye “laid no hold on me,¹ and⁵ stretched forth no hands against me,³ and ye “took me not.² But the scriptures must be fulfilled:² this is your hour,
“and the power of darkness.”³

Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus and bound him.⁴

But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.

Then^e all the disciples^a forsook him, and fled.¹

And there followed him a certain young man, having a lincn cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him: and he left the lincn cloth, and fled from them naked.²

Trial of Jesus by Caiaphas and the Council.—Peter's Denial.

AND they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away¹ to Annas first: for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.⁴

Then³ they^{3 a} brought him into the high priest's house,³ to Caiaphas the high priest, where^{1 b} were assembled² with him² all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes.²

And^c Simon Peter followed Jesus^{4 d} afar off, even² unto^e the high priest's palace;^{1 f} and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and⁴ when they had kindled³ the^{5 g} fire in the midst of the hall³ they⁴ sat^{5 h} down together³ and⁵ warmed themselves: and Peter^{4 i} went in¹ to see the end¹ and sat^k with^l the servants,^{1 m} and warmed himself at the fire.²

Andⁿ as Peter^o wasⁿ beneath^q in the palace,² and⁵ sat by the fire,³ there cometh^r one of the maids^s of the high priest,² the damsel that kept the door:⁴ and when she saw^t Peter^u warming himself, she² earnestly looked upon him, and said^{3 w} unto Peter,⁴

But^a he denied¹ him³ before them all, saying,^{1 b}

“Woman,³ I am not.⁴ I know him not,³ neither understand I what “thou sayest.”²

And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself.⁴

And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.²

And after a little while,³ when he was gone out into the porch, another^{1 c} maid saw him again, and began to say^d to^e them that stood by,^f

“This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth,¹ and⁵ is one of them.”²

They said therefore unto him,

“Art not thou^g also one of his disciples?”^{4 h}

And heⁱ denied it again² with an oath, and said,⁴

“Man, I am not,³ I do not know the man.”¹

And about the space of one hour^k after, another confidently affirmed, saying,

“Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.”

And³ they that stood by² came unto¹ Peter,^{2 l} and¹ one of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off,⁴ said^m again to Peter,²

“Surely thou also art one of them:¹ for thou art a Galilean, and thy “speech agreeth thereto,² and⁵ bewrayeth thee.¹ Did not I see thee in “the garden with him?”⁴

Butⁿ he^{2 o} then denied again,⁴ and⁵ began to curse and to swear, saying,^{2 p}

“Man, I know not what thou sayest.³ I know not this^q man of whom “ye speak.”²

And immediately, while he yet spake,³ the second time the cock crew.² And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter.³ And Peter called to mind^a the word² of the Lord,^b how he had^c said unto him, "Before the cock² crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice." And when he thought thereon, he^{2 d} went out, and wept bitterly.¹

The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

Jesus answered him,

"I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said."

And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying,

"Answerest thou the high priest so?"

Jesus answered him,

"If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?"

Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.⁴

And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council.³

Now^e the chief priests, and elders, and all the council,¹ sought for² false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; but^c found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none.¹ For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. And² at the last¹ there arose certain, and² two false witnesses¹ came,¹ and¹ bare false witness against him, saying,^f

"We heard² this fellow^{1 g} say, ^f 'I will^h destroy thisⁱ temple² of God,¹ that is made with hands, and within^k three days I will^l build another^m made without hands.'"

But neither so did their witness agree together.

And the high priest² arose, and¹ stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying,ⁿ

"Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?"²

But Jesus^o held his peace, and answered nothing.²

And the high priest¹ again² answered^p and said^q unto him,

"I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be^r the Christ, the Son of God."^{1 s}

And² Jesus^t saith^u unto him,^{1 v}

"If I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God."

Then said they all,

"Art thou then the Son of God?"

And he said unto them,³

CHAPTER LV.

Jesus before Pilate.—Jesus Mocked, Scourged, and Condemned to Death.—

Suicide of Judas Iscariot.

AND straightway,² when ^pthe morning ^qwas come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: and ¹the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and ²the whole multitude of them arose, and ³when they had bound ¹Jesus, they led ^shim ^taway¹ from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment,⁴ and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.¹ And it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Pilate then went out unto them, and said,

They answered and said unto him,

“If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up

Then said Pilate unto them,

“Take ye him, and judge him according to your law.”

The Jews therefore said unto him,

“It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:” that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.⁴

And Jesus stood before the governor:¹ and they began to accuse him, saying,

“We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give “tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.”³

Then ^wPilate ⁴the governor,¹ entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and ⁴asked ^whim, saying,¹

 Luke 23. 3-12.
 John 18. 37, 39.

“ Art thou the King of the Jews?”¹

Jesus answered him,

“ Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?”

Pilate answered,

“ Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?”

Jesus answered,

“ My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.”

Pilate therefore said unto him,

“ Art thou a king then?”⁴

And Jesus^{1 a} answered^{4 b} and said³ unto him,¹

“ Thou sayest that I am a king.^c To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.”

Pilate saith unto him,

“ What is truth?”

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them,

“ I find in him no fault at all.”⁴

And when he was accused^d of the chief priests and elders¹ of many things,² he^e answered nothing.

Then^f Pilate asked^g him again, saying,²

“ Answerest thou nothing?² Hearest thou not^h how many things they witness against thee?”¹

But Jesus yetⁱ answered² him to never a word;^k insomuch^l that¹ Pilate^m marvelled² greatly.¹

Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people,

“ I find no fault in this man.”

And they were the more fierce, saying,

“ He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.”³

When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean. And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.³

And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, said unto them,

“Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: no, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him. I will therefore chastise him, and release him.”³

Now^a at that^b feast the governor was wont to^c release^d unto the people^{1 e} one^f prisoner, whomsoever^g they desired.^{2 h} And there was^{2 i} then a notable prisoner^{1 k} named^l Barabbas,² who^{3 m} was a robber,⁴ and⁵ for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison,³ and⁵ lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.² Thereforeⁿ when they were gathered together,¹ the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

But Pilate answered^o them, saying,²

“Ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover.⁴ Whom will ye¹ therefore⁴ that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus¹ which is called Christ,¹ the King of the Jews?”

For he knew that the chief priestsⁿ had delivered him for envy.²

When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying,

“Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.”

But the chief priests and elders persuaded^q the multitude^r that they should ask Barabbas,¹ that he should rather release² him^{5 s} unto them,² and destroy Jesus.

The governor answered and said unto them,

“Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you?”¹

And^t they³ again⁴ cried out all at once, saying,^{3 u}

“Not this man, but Barabbas.⁴ Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas.”³

Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, answered and said^v again unto^x them,²

“What will ye then that I shall do² with Jesus^y which is called^z Christ,¹ the King of the Jews?”²

But³ they all¹ cried out² and said^{5 a} unto him¹ again,²

“Let him be crucified.¹ Crucify him, crucify him.”³

Then^b Pilate^c said unto them² the third time,³

“Why, what evil hath he done?¹ I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.”³

But^d they cried out the more¹ exceedingly,² saying,

“Let him be crucified.¹ Crucify him.”²

And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.³

When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a¹

“ I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.”

Then answered all the people, and said,

“ His blood be on us, and on our children.”

Then ^{1 a} Pilate, willing to content the people, ² gave sentence that it should be as they required. And he released unto them ³ Barabbas, ^{2 b} that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. ³

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. ⁴ And when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him ^c to be crucified.

Then ^d the soldiers of the governor ¹ led ^{2 e} Jesus ^{1 f} away ² into the common hall ¹ called Prætorium; ² and gathered ^g unto him the whole band of soldiers. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet ^h robe. ⁱ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they ^k put it upon ^l his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked ^m him, saying, ⁿ

“ Hail, King of the Jews!”

And they ¹ did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him, ² and took the reed, and smote him on the head ¹ with ² the ⁵ reed, ² and ⁵ with their hands. ⁴

Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them,

“ Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no “ fault in him.”

Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them,

“ Behold the man!”

When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying,

“ Crucify him, crucify him.”

Pilate saith unto them,

“ Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.”

The Jews answered him,

“ We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made “ himself the Son of God.”

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid: and went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus,

“ Whence art thou?”

But Jesus gave him no answer.

Then saith Pilate unto him,

“ Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to “ crucify thee, and have power to release thee?”

Jesus answered,

“ Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given “ thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the “ greater sin.” ⁴

“If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar’s friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar.”

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called “The Pavement,” but in the Hebrew “Gabbatha.” And it was the preparation of the pass-over, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews,

“Behold your King!”

But they cried out,

“Away with him, away with him, crucify him.”

Pilate saith unto them,

“Shall I crucify your king?”

The chief priests answered,

“We have no king but Cæsar.”

Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified.⁴

Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying,

“I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood.”

And they said,

“What is that to us? see thou to that.”

And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself:¹ and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.^{5a} And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, * Acts 1. 18.

“It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.”

And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter’s field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, “The field of blood,” unto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by¹ the^b * Jeremy the. 1

And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

But Jesus turning unto them, said,

“ Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, ‘ Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.’ Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, ‘ Fall on us;’ and to the hills, ‘ Cover us.’ For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?”

And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.³

And they bring him unto the^d place² which is called Calvary,³ or⁵ in the Hebrew⁴ Golgotha, which is being interpreted,^e “ The^f place of a skull.”² And when they were come to^g the^f place,³ they gave^h him to drink² vinegar¹ mingled with gull:¹ ^k but² ^l when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.¹^m

“ And he was numbered with the transgressors.”² ^t

Then said Jesus,

“ Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.”³

Then^u the soldiers,^v when they had crucified Jesus,^x took his garments,^y and made four parts,^z to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

They said therefore among themselves,

“ Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be:” that the scripture^a might be fulfilled which saith,^b

“ They parted my raiment^c among them,

But the other answering rebuked him, saying,

“ And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but “ this man hath done nothing amiss. ”

And he said unto Jesus,

“ Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. ”

And Jesus said unto him,

“ Verily I say unto thee, ‘ To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. ’ ”³

Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother’s therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother,

“ Woman, behold thy son! ”

After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith,

"I thirst."

Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar:⁴ and straightway one of them^a ran, and took a sponge, and filled it¹ full^b of vinegar, and put it on a reed² upon hyssop,⁴ and gave him to drink.^{2 c}

The rest said,^{1 d}

"Let alone;^e let us see whether² Elijah^{5 f} will come to take him down,² and^{5 g} save him."¹

When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said,

"It is finished."⁴

And when³ he^h had cried again with a loud voice,¹ he said,³

"Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit."

And having said thus, he³ bowed his head, and gaveⁱ up the ghost.⁴

And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain¹ in the midst³ from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

Now^k when the centurion¹ which stood over against him,² and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw¹ that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost,² and⁵ the earthquake, and those things that were^l done, they feared greatly,¹ and⁵ the³ centurion^{5 m} glorified God, saying,"

"Certainly this was a righteous man."³

"Truly this man was the Son of God."²

And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned. And all his acquaintance, and³ also² many^o women stoodⁿ afar off, beholding^q these things;³ who also, when he was in Galilee, followed² Jesus³ and ministered unto him,² and⁵ that^r followed him^s from Galilee,³ ministering unto him: among¹ whom^t was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome,² the mother of Zebedee's children:¹ and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.²

And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.³

The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was⁴ a⁵ "high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled,

And, behold, there was a man named Joseph,³ an honourable^b counsellor;² and he was a good man, and a just: (the same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was³ a rich man of Arimathæa,¹ a city of the Jews, who^c also himself waited for the kingdom of God,³ being a disciple of Jesus,^d but secretly for fear of the Jews.⁴ And now, when the even was come,^e because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,² this man,³ Joseph of Arimathæa,^{2f} came^g and went in boldly unto^h Pilate, and² besought⁴ him⁵ⁱ that he might take away^k the body of Jesus.⁴ And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. And when he knew it of the centurion,^{2l} Pilate^m gave⁴ Joseph⁶ⁿ leave⁴ and⁵ commanded the body to be delivered^{1o} to him.^{5p} He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus^{4q} down:² and when¹ he^{5p} had taken the body,¹ he bought fine linen.² And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about⁴ a^{5r} hundred pound weight. Then took they the body of Jesus⁴ and wrapped^{2s} it^{1t} in the linen,^{2u} with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury,⁴ and laid it^t in¹ Joseph's^{5w} own new^{1x} sepulchre³ which^{2z} he had^a hewn out in the^b rock,^c and he rolled a great stone to^d the door of the sepulchre, and departed.¹

Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden⁴ this^{5c} new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet^f laid. There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.⁴

And the women also, which came with him from Galilee,³ Mary Magdalene, and Mary^g the mother of Jesus,² followed after,^h and³ sitting over against the sepulchre,¹ beheld the sepulchre, and how his bodyⁱ was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.³

CHAPTER LVII.

The Resurrection.

NOW the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, saying,

“Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, ‘After three days I will rise again.’ Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, ‘He is risen from the dead:’ so the last error shall be worse than the first.”

Pilate said unto them,

“Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.”¹

So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.¹

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.²

And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.¹

And they departed ^b quickly, ¹ and fled ^c from the sepulchre, ² with fear and great joy, ¹ for they trembled and were amazed: ² neither said they anything to any man; for they were afraid: ² and did run to bring his disciples word. And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying,

“All hail.” ¹

And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

Then said Jesus unto them,

“Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.”¹

And they³ told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest. It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles. And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.³

Then^a arose Peter,³ and⁵ went forth, and that other disciple,⁴ and ran³ and⁵ came to^b the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and⁴ stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves,³ and he⁵ went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, and the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then^c the disciples went away^d again unto their own homes,⁴ wondering in³ themselves⁵ at that which was come to pass.³

But⁴ when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.² Now² Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

And they say unto her,

“Woman, why weepest thou?”

She saith unto them,

“Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.”

And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

Jesus saith unto her,

“Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou?”

She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him,

“Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.”

Jesus saith unto her,

“Mary.”

She turned herself, and saith unto him,

“Rabboni;” which is to say, “Master.”

Now when¹ the women^{5 c} were going, behold some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, saying,

“ Say ye, ‘ His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we

So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.¹

‘ And, behold. 3

Two of them went that⁷ same day,³ being the first day of the week,⁴ to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

And he said unto them,

“ What manner of communications are these that ye have one to “ another, as ye walk, and are sad?”

And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him,

“ Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things “ which are come to pass there in these days?”

And he said unto them,

“ What things?”

And they said unto him,

“ Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed
“ and word before God and all the people: and how the chief priests and “ our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified
“ him. But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed
“ Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things
“ were done. Yea, and certain women also of our company made us³

“astonished, which were early at the sepulchre; and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.”

Mark 16. 13, 14.
Luke 24. 23-41.
John 20. 19, 20.

Then he said unto them,

“O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?”

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. But they constrained him, saying,

And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

And they said one to another,

“Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?”

And they rose up the same hour, and returned^a to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying,

^a went.²

“The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.”³ (For he had appeared to Simon Peter.)^{5 b}

And^{5 c} the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews;⁴ and³ as they sat at meat,² they told³ them^{5 d} what things^e were done in the way, and how he was made known of them in breaking of bread:³ but⁵ they² believed² them² not.^{5 f}

“Peace be unto you.”

But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them,

“Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.”

And when he had thus spoken,ⁱ he shewed unto them his hands⁴ and his feet,³ and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.⁴

ⁱ so said.⁴

And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them,

“Have ye here any meat?”³

And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of³ a⁵ a^a honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them.

And he said unto them,

“These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms concerning me.”

Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, and said unto them,

“Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things.”³

Then^b said Jesus^c to^d them again,⁴

^b And.²
^c he.²
^d unto.²

“Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.⁴ Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”²

And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them,

“Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.”⁴

But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him,

“We have seen the Lord.”

But he said unto them,

“Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said,

“Peace be unto you.”

Then saith he to Thomas,

“Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.”

And Thomas answered and said unto him,

“My Lord and my God.”

Jesus saith unto him,

“Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.”⁴

CHAPTER LIX.

Jesus in Galilee after the Resurrection.

AFTER these things,⁴ the eleven disciples went away into Galilee.¹ And⁵ Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

Matt. 28. 16,
John 21. 1-13
* Then. ¹

There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

Simon Peter saith unto them,

“ I go a fishing.”

They say unto him,

“ We also go with thee.”

They went forth and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

Then Jesus saith unto them,

“ Children, have ye any meat?”

They answered him,

“ No.”

And he said unto them,

“ Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find.”

They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter,

“ It is the Lord.”

Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. And the other disciples came in a little ship: (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes. As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

Jesus saith unto them,

“ Bring of the fish, which ye have now caught.”

Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes,⁴ a⁵ hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was⁵ not the net broken.^{an.4}

Jesus saith unto them,

“ Come and dine.”

And none of the disciples durst ask him, “ Who art thou?” knowing that it was the Lord.

Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.⁴

Matt. 28. 16-18.
John 21. 14-24.

This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.⁴

So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter,

"Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these?"

He saith unto him,

"Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee."

He saith unto him,

"Feed my lambs."

He saith to him again the second time,

"Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?"

He saith unto him,

"Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee."

He saith unto him,

"Feed my sheep."

He saith unto him the third time,

"Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?"

Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, "Lovest thou me?" and he said unto him,

"Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee."

Jesus saith unto him,

"Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not."

This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him,

"Follow me."

Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; (which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, "Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?") Peter seeing him saith to Jesus,

"Lord, and what shall this man do?"

Jesus saith unto him,

"If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me."

Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, "He shall not die; but, "If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?"

This is the disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.⁴

After that ^{5 b} the eleven and ⁵ above five hundred brethren ^{5 b} went ⁵ into a mountain, where Jesus had appointed them. And ¹ he was ^{5 b} seen of ^{5 b} them all ⁵ at once.^{5 b} And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying,¹

⁴ 1 Cor. 15. 6.

“ All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, Matt. 28. 18-20.
 “ and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of “ the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things “ whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even “ unto the end of the world.”¹

CHAPTER LX.

AFTER that^{5 a} Jesus⁵ was seen of James; then of all the apostles: Mark 16. 19, 20.

 to whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: and being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, “ Which,” saith he, “ ye have heard “ of me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized
 “ with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.” * 1 Cor. 15. 7.

When they therefore were come together^{5 b} at Jerusalem,⁵ they asked * Acts 1. 3-8.
 of him, saying,

“ Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? ”

And he said unto them,

“ It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.^{5 b} And, behold, I send the promise of my “ Father upon you:³ and⁵ ye shall receive power, after that the Holy “ Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in “ Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost “ part of the earth.^{5 b} But tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be “ endued with power from on high.”³

After^c the Lord had spoken² these things^{5 d} unto them,^{2 e} he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.
 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and,³ while they beheld,^{5 d} was⁵ carried^f up into heaven,³ and sat on the

Luke 24. 53.

And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.⁴

And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.⁴
