NORWAY WILL NOT SEND SHIP TO PANAMA CANAL

BERLIN DOWNHEARTED PEOPLE IN DISTRESS

Has Been Awful Loss Among the Young Men Who Served in Army

Toronto, Jan. 11.—Some light on conditions in the capital of Germany is given in a letter received from the wife of one of the German prisoners of war at present interned in Stanley barracks here. It is dated November 12, and by some curious circumstance was untouched by the censor. The writer said in part: "You cannot imagine how times have changed here. Everyone is doing all he can to assist in the hard times. You cannot imagine the number of downhearted and depressed people there are here. The people scarcely know what they are doing. Everyone is doing all he can, but it is far from being sufficient.

"There is an awful loss among our poor young men, but that will not be for nothing. We must get at the enemies and take revenge. A great number of our men have already fallen and a great many more are wandering the streets in sorrow and distress, but thank God, we have not had a bad defeat yet.

"A vivid light on the hitherto carefully concealed dread that stalks abroad in that sorrow-stricken city is thrown out by her next sentence. She says: "We have already expected the Russians to enter Berlin before this (November 19) but that scare is over."

AMERICAN PROTESTS AGAINST VANDALISM

Asks That Efforts Be Made To Save Bruges, Brussels and Laon

New York, Jan. 11.—Writing from Paris Whitney Warren has addressed the following letter to the American Institute of Arts and Letters:

"Before it is too late, judging from what I have seen, and after questioning men in a position to know, I draw through you, the attention of the American people to, and affirm, the following:

"In view of the wilful and useless destruction of Rheims, Arras and Ypres, from which I have just returned, I beg for an energetic protest. It may be hoped to save anything that is sacred or beautiful in the countries still occupied by the enemy.

"The destruction of Ypres, which remained for three weeks unmolested while under the same conditions as at present, was absolutely useless and of no military importance whatever. The only reason that can be attributed to the rage on the part of the Germans at their entry into the city, vast residential sections are destroyed, and the marvellous Halles des Drapiers, one of the treasurers of Flemish Gothic, a monument notable for its proportions, its historic and ethical associations—is destroyed beyond restoration. The noble cathedral also is in the same condition. The museum with all its treasure, is completely incinerated.

"There was, I am informed, no strategic excuse for this, all movement of the troops being at three to eight kilometres from the suburbs and the city unoccupied. General Foch, of the French, and General Douglas Haig, of the British, are absolutely at a loss to understand the miserable wantonness of this act.

"Arras is in the same unhappy condition. The enemy occupied the city for four days and upon retiring absolutely destroyed the residential and business districts, the charming place built during the Spanish occupation, and the city hall, with its belfry, incomparably beautiful in its harmony and picturesque quality, is but a glorious ruin. This work of generations, inspired by the love and preserved by the traditions of its citizens through all time, is annihilated. The French troops are not within the city—this from my personal observation—and yet the day I was there the Germans again shelled the cathedral.

"Of the fate of Rheims you are familiar, and of the fate of many, many inoffensive, helpless villages and towns in the Argonne, the Marne, the Meurthe, the Aisne and the Vosges, back of which the Germans have been driven, leaving them devastated beyond all description or imagination.

"The code practised by the Germans is devoid of all honor, decency, or mercy—I do not say this against the German people. All the generals with whom I have spoken agree that probably the German soldier has the same mentality as those of the allies—it is against the head and the hands of the military despotism by which they are governed that I repeat this—they have a code of systematic destruction and terror, and they have caused implements to be manufactured to carry out this destruction by order—this contrary to all the treaties and conventions regarding the laws of war, signed by the United States as well as by them, at The Hague, and at Geneva.

"There is but one question that can arise in anybody's mind regarding all this: How will the allies behave when they arrive in Germany? Namely, the question of reprisals of this I am convinced they will behave as men and soldiers should. Gallieni, Castelnau, Foch and others with whom I have talked are absolutely specific and stand sponsors for their men. "It is not in our ideas to make war thus as they should." These generals are warriors and gentlemen and must be believed.

"Is it not possible for our people to organize and to protest through our president to the master mind of all this miserable devastation? General Douglas Haig said to me three days ago, "It is too late to protest; the damage is done!" Yes, but there remain Ghent and Bruges, Brussels and Antwerp, Laon and Noyon and St. Quentin, containing treasures innumerable and precious to us, perhaps above all who are so in need of inspiration and of tradition.

"For the love of that which is beautiful within us, for the honor of our country's signature to the conventions, and in answer to the call of the helpless behind the enemy's line, is it not possible to insist that the conventions and treaties to which we are a party shall be observed, or is there no blood in us?"

UNITED STATES LOSES NATIONS' CONFIDENCE

Europeans Think Americans Lack Chivalry And Are Only Dollar Chasers

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Edward P. Boff, London correspondent of the Chicago Daily News is of the opinion, gathered from interviews with men of importance throughout Europe that the United States has incurred the enmity of all the intelligent nations and that with the close of the war this nation will face isolation and peril. In a wireless dispatch from London to his paper to-day, Mr. Boff says: "Conversations with persons of force, representing the sentiments of Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy, Germany and Austria compel the conviction that the United States is making no real friends in this war. On the contrary it is possible to see that the American name is suffering, and that conceivably the republic is storing up grave trouble for itself in the future.

"The general charge against our country is that we are displaying a shameful lack of chivalry, civility, magnanimity and courage. Britons, Frenchmen, Russians and Italians blame America for ignoring the invasion of Belgium and the violations of The Hague and then springing into the international arena with a protest relating exclusively to matters of trade.

"The argument in all these complaints is that if President Wilson had protested against the violations of the treaties and the principles of civilized warfare he could have protested with a vastly greater effect against the arbitrary and possibly indefensible interference with American cargoes.

"Europeans, profoundly misunderstanding the Americans as nearly every nation misunderstands every other, always have referred to the people of the United States as dollar chasers and the policy of President Wilson in the present war has crystallized the pervasive impression into a sharp and universal postulate."

NOT TO SEND TROOPS TO THE EGYPTIAN FRONTIER

London, Jan. 11.—Advice received from Athens says that it is reported in the Greek capital that the plan to have the eighth army corps proceed from Damascus to the Egyptian frontier has been abandoned.

A previous dispatch from Athens said this army corps well provisioned and provided with 8,000 camels, already had left Damascus for Egypt.

HALF-YEARLY CHEQUES SENT TO PROVINCES

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Hon. Mr. White, minister of finance to-day sent to the different provinces their half-yearly cheques, representing the subsidies which they receive from the Dominion treasury. The cheques total $5,000,000, and the money will be especially welcome this year, when the provincial revenues are reduced as a result of the war.

CANADA OBTAINS MUCH ALLIED NATIONS' TRADE

London, Jan. 12.—William I. Griffith, secretary of the high commissioner in London, says in a statement to the press regarding the purchase of war equipment in Canada: "In the last few weeks British orders placed in the Dominion have amounted to between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000. The French and Russians also have placed large orders in Canada.

"The United States is also receiving a vast increase in quantity or orders from Europe."

WARSAW IS SAFE FROM GERMANY'S GREAT ARMY

Correspondent Says Von Hindenberg's Strategy is Defective and He Cannot Advance.

London, Jan. 11.—H. Hamilton Eyle, Daily Mail correspondent, telegraphs from Petrograd: "Along the Hawka west of the Vistula, in the wood and marsh land which borders the stream, the Germans are still pouring men into the bottomless sack which the Russians hold out to them, for they always try to fight the Germans in the open.

"The Germans are still hammering away at the same point along a front of a few miles, but without any obvious ground that the belief is gaining ground that they recognize that it is impossible to take Warsaw. The methods which the Germans are adopting suggest that they do not quite know what to do.

"The military critic of the Russy Slovo quotes an army order said to have been issued by the German staff conducting operations in Poland. This order repudiates the idea of attacking the extreme large Russian force which is defending the Warsaw fortresses. In other words," says the Russy Slovo, "it means that Field Marshal von Hindenberg's strategy was defective and aimed at saving Silesia."

A horse will not stop on a man intentionally. It is a standing order in the cavalry that if a trooper becomes dismounted he must still. If he does this, the whole squadron will pass over him without doing him injury.

PRESIDENT OF FRANCE VISITS BATTLEFIELD

Paris, Jan. 12.—President Poincare, accompanied by the minister of marine, Victor Augagneur, paid another brief visit to the front for the purpose of presenting colors to the bluejackets at Nieupoort. On his way back the president stopped at Hazebroeck, where he was received by the mayor, Deputy Albe Lemaire, representatives of the French and British armies, and various officials. He congratulated the people on the calm courage with which they had withstood the bombardment of German aeroplanes and declared: "We must, more than ever, have confidence in victory, which will be the vengeance of the Latin and civilization triumphing over barbarism."

TWINS KILL HUSBANDS TO SAVE MANY TROOPS

Sacrifice of Girl Wives Caused Tremendous Sensation in Paris

Paris, Jan. 11.—How two little French girls poisoned the husbands they loved to save the life of an entire garrison on the night of July 30 has just been made known in Paris, and it has created a tremendous sensation. The story has a dramatic quality more tragic than anything Shakespeare ever wrote.

Rose and Marie Dupont, two 18-year-old twins, were born and raised at Villerupt, a small village on the Lorraine frontier.

In 1912 they married Ulrich and Wilhelm, who loved them so much they became French citizens and bought a drug store in the town.

Both unions were most happy until July 29 last year, when the husbands received a letter from across the frontier. Immediately both became very nervous and asked the two girls to go to their grandmother's home in Longwy until the situation cleared.

Both went to Longwy, but found that their grandmother was not there. They returned very late the next day to Villerupt.

When they arrived at the drug store they found it closed. Going through the back garden they peered through the closed shutters and saw their husbands, to their great amazement, talking in quite a friendly manner, to two Germans in full uniform.

They could not believe their eyes at first, but they were horrified later at the conversation they heard.

A deep plot had been arranged by Ulrich and Wilhelm. They had stored a big dose of strychnine and during the night it was planned to drop it in the wine casks reserved for the French garrison.

"Are you sure the dose is strong enough?" asked one of the Germans.

"Why," answered Ulrich, "it is strong enough to kill all the garrison and its reserves."

The girls, with a low cry, shuddered and almost fainted. Both realized they had been fooled and that instead of being loved they were the wives of the worst scoundrels and even worse than that—traitors.

"We must act," said Marie, "to prevent this most awful crime, even if we must commit one ourselves."

Half an hour later they rang the front door bell. They appeared very joyous and explained their elation by saying they had heard the war had been averted. They said they were so glad that they wanted to open some wine in honor of peace and the friendly German soldiers.

Marie went out and brought back a champagne bottle. She poured the liquid and they drank it.

Next morning the girls ran out of the house. They were widows, for they themselves had used the poison on their husbands.

They went straight to the chef de gendarmes and told him of their sorry plight.

"We have killed our husbands," they cried. "Do what is right with us."

But the official simply wept with them and kissed them, for it was found that the plot had been deeply laid and that the sacrifice of the girls which has no precedent in history, had saved thousands of French troops from certain death.

Marie and Rose have been critically ill, and for two months were hovering between life and death, and it was feared they would lose their reason, but they have recovered, and are now Red Cross nurses.

In caring for the wounded they are trying to forget their terrible life drama.

INQUIRY INTO WHEAT TRADING SUGGESTED

Speculators Thought To Be Taking Advantage of Conditions Caused by War.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—The Evening Citizen in a somewhat lengthy article dealing with the increase in the price of flour, says that the government should inquire into the matter.

The Citizen says: "Flour has gone up, so the millers say, because wheat has gone likewise, but for what reason wheat has soared from 97 7-8 on August 1, to 132 3-4 on Saturday, is as one of the best known students of economy in Canada says, a matter the government should investigate. It is time, he says, that the government stepped in and controlled the price of wheat. If this is not done the speculators and all those allied with them will continue to take advantage of the conditions caused by the war, irrespective of the suffering the high prices will cause to poor people."

"It is an open secret that several millers in Canada made abnormal profits by buying wheat from farmers who were hard pushed for money in 1913 and perhaps they are playing the same game just now. The government could find out."

BELGIAN KING ADMIRES CONDUCT OF CARDINAL

Have, Jan. 12.—King Albert of Belgium has telegraphed Pope Benedict expressing great admiration of the conduct of Cardinal Mercier, whose arrest, he says, must have given pain to the heart of his holiness.

"The cardinal," the king's telegram goes on to say, "like the glorious prelates of the past, has not feared to proclaim the truth in the face of error and to maintain the imprescriptible rights of a just cause in the sight of the universal conscience."

In the year 1913, 120,000 persons left the United States with the intention of settling in Canada, compared with 140,145 in 1912.

WOMEN FIGHTING IN GERMAN ARMY RANKS

Seven Wounded Were Captured Wearing Military Uniforms, Says Russian Paper

London, Jan. 11.—The Daily Chronicle says: "There appears from time to time in Russian papers the statement that women volunteers are fighting in the German ranks and now the Warsaw correspondent of the Dyon of Petrograd has seen these Amazons."

"Among the wounded at present being treated at the Quaxzoff hospital," he says, "are several women who were captured while fighting in German uniforms. They are placed together in a special ward. Judging by the nature of their wounds they have taken part not only in rifle practice but also in bayonet attacks. One of them who had a serious bayonet wound has died."

"They are fine specimens of Teutonic womanhood, and the Russian nurses greatly admire their finely developed muscles, which seem to indicate that they have belonged for years to German gymnastic societies."

"In captivity they behave with the same toughness and contemptuous indifference which characterizes the Prussian officers. One of the nursing sisters brought to them a Russian newspaper, the Petrograd Herald, which was printed in German. They refused to talk of their homes and families, but judging from their demeanor, they seem to belong to the upper class."

"The average German has always refused to acknowledge woman's claims to political suffrage on the ground of her intellectual and social achievements. She has evidently made up her mind to convince him in the only way he can understand, by proving her equality on the field of battle."

HOMAGE PAID TO DEAD BY MANY GARIBALDIANS

Turin, Jan. 12.—The body of Constantino Garibaldi, who fell in the Argonne region in France while leading a charge of the Italian volunteers, was met at the frontier here to-day by the same railway van which recently transported the body of his brother Bruno.

Although General Ricciotti Garibaldi had expressed the desire that the transportation of his son killed in battle should be conducted privately, many veterans, former Garibaldians and sympathizers met the train at points, along its passage to this city and demonstrations of homage were given frequently.

THE WAR.

Turkey has agreed to comply with all of Italy's demands arising from the violation of the latter's consulate at Hodejda. That is, she will release the British consul who was taken on that occasion, salute the Italian flag and punish the offenders.

The Italian army is now fully mobilized and equipped. Including its first-line troops and grades of reserves it numbers more than three million men.

There is very little change on either of the battle fronts to-day. In the west the bulk of the fighting is on the north of Soissons and between the northeast of Rheims and the Argonne.

From the eastern front comes very little news. Russia claims the repulse of German attacks on the left of the Vistula and Germany reports the repulse of Russian attacks upon the Germans at Mlawa.

THAT GRANT.

Why should the school board not include in its statement of expenditure the allowance received from the provincial government, which last year amounted to $72,684?

and of course it is unnecessary to point out that this is raised by taxation, although it is aside from the amount levied directly by cities for school purposes.

THE MAYOR'S ACCLAMATION.

We congratulate Mayor Stewart upon his re-election by acclamation. The fact that he had no opposition expresses the public satisfaction with the manner in which he has discharged the duties of first magistrate during the last year.

These are times that test the wisdom, patience and capacity of civic governments. Anybody can be a successful public representative when prosperity rules. Then the people, engrossed with their own rosy prospects, are not inclined to scrutinize the activities of their law-makers, much less to curb an over-zealous expenditure of public funds.

THE RIGHTS OF NEUTRALS.

The United States note to Great Britain, protesting against what is claimed to be undue interference by British and French ships with American exports to Europe, laid especial stress on shipments of copper.

This is not to say that the entire difference in the amounts imported by neutral countries in Europe since the war and before the war goes to Germany, Austria and Turkey.

Washington based special emphasis on the point that the relations between neutrals at this juncture should be considered on the basis of normal times, which means times of peace and not war.

TEACHERS' SALARIES.

To the Editor.—I read with interest and surprise the statement of a correspondent in last night's Times to the effect that a reduction of teachers' salaries would lead to a number leaving.

As to teachers throwing up their jobs because of a necessary "cut," all I can say is that the city would be well rid of any teacher so unpatriotic and selfish as to refuse to take their part in helping the city to grapple with conditions which, if not handled with the utmost skill, courage and promptness, might lead to something much worse than a slight temporary reduction in salaries.

H. J. SANDERS.

THE FIRST OVERSEAS.

Five and twenty transport ships
Carried us over the sea,
Three and thirty thousand men,
Jolly old Tommies are we.

The flag that covers us all, brave boys,
Say, don't you envy us?
If we live we live, if we die we die,
It doesn't matter a cuss.

Now little along, you chaps at home,
That's singing that sweet refrain
From day to day, of a long, long way.
To the fellows that's camped on the "plain."

I may tell you right here that it isn't all beer.
And Kitchener's hard to please:
So it's drill and shoot and saddle and boot,
For the boys that come over the seas.

From morn till dewy eve,
And 'tween the reward we will get will be
A crust or an empty stew.
But whether we ever come back or not,
Or whether we live or die,
You can bet that our fellows will give of their best
To keep our old ensign on high.

NOT FAIR.

REEVE FAVORS MORE TAX RATE REDUCTION

Saanich Faces Complex Problem, He Says; School Trustee Candidates Speak

"This municipality is divided into two classes, one the laboring men, who are looking to us for work, the other the farmers, who are primary producers, and the question is just how far the latter may be taxed in the present year," said Reeve McGregor speaking in Strawberry Vale last evening.

Speaking of unemployment, which was the subject of numerous questions on account of the majority of the residents being working people, the Reeve said: "While personally I would be in favor of starting the waterworks, because there is no contract upon them, we find that the bond-buyers in New York are more inclined to buy paving bonds than the waterworks debentures, which are for longer periods."

Mr. McGregor devoted some portion of his address to the record of the school board. After the war had broken out, he stated, he saw that it would be impossible to get in the taxes, so representations in the way of economy were made to the board. Then to his surprise a few days after the opening of the fall term, when the salary checks for August came to him for signature, he found that the new teachers then just appointed had been given a month's pay for a few days' work. Did that appear to be economy?

Whether there will be a tax sale this year I cannot say," he added, "but should public work start up shortly, I hope the working men will be placed in a position to pay up their arrears and the council can then straighten out the situation. The amount of delinquent taxes to-day represents a large proportion of the total revenue of the municipality last year."

Some of the land speculators in Victoria and elsewhere need the municipality money running into thousands for taxes, and he doubted if some of the property would ever be redeemed. In answer to questions, the Reeve undertook to join any deputation which might be formed to urge the government to start public works. He pointed out that he had been over to the parliament building twice without effect, and that he would start up work on the road to the proposed astronomical observatory at Little Saanich mountain.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me."

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ailments we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

AT THE THEATRES

CHANGE OF POLICY.

Another good programme of pictures was shown at the Royal Victoria theatre yesterday for the first time, and will be shown again this afternoon and to-night. The subjects are varied and include a two-reel feature entitled "Greater Treasure." This is a very fine film both from the standpoint of photography and action.

"Zaza," the play being put on by the Allen players this week at the Princess theatre, is not a morality play, the characters are not offered as candidates for canonization. They are very human and their weaknesses are very humanly depicted, so powerfully that the problematic situation in which the heroine finds herself at the end of the second act haunts the mind.

"ZAZA"

The troupe of Chinese jugglers which is appearing all this week at Pantages theatre give one of the most interesting, and at the same time one of the most skillful acts it is possible to see anywhere. In addition to a perfect wizardry with the ordinary impediments of the juggler's art, they are magicians of a very high and modern order, and thus are able to put on a turn which has no peer in its particular line on any circuit.

"MARY JANE ENTERTAINS."

She certainly did it up in style. Mary Jane is the Brown's house maid and after entertaining her sweetheart, Percy, the grocer's clerk, with the best of the house affords, during the absence of her employers the two attend a tango dance dressed in finery belonging to the Browns. Then startling and inexpressibly funny things quickly happen. They find the punch greatly to their liking and when Mrs. Brown finds Mary Jane drinking from the same cup as her husband, there are some strenuous happenings. In the end, the poor woman out of a job, no money and scorn, is by Percy, feeling her fun has cost her a pretty penny. The audience at the Majestic theatre where this "Viva-laugh comedy" is being shown, again to-day, intermingled with many other varied and instructive pictures, including some very realistic scenes of the Indian Troops in France, will feel they have witnessed a most entertaining performance and enjoyed a veritable gala of mirth.

PANTAGES THEATRE.

George Ade is a pastmaster in the delineation of small town characters and in the "County Chairman" he has sustained his reputation as a humorist of the first water. In presenting Marilyn Arbuckle in the leading role, Henry W. Savage has chosen an artist who is peculiarly adapted to the characterization, and as Jim Hackler, "The County Chairman."

DOMINION THEATRE.

The play is full of wholesome fun with just enough pathos to give a balance of dramatic effect. The story centres around a political campaign for the office of prosecuting attorney, and the central figure is that of his-hearted Jim Hackler, the law partner and campaign manager of Tilford Wheeler, the young aspirant for the honor of prosecuting attorney. Elias Rigby, one of the opposition candidates, happens to be the father of the little girl who has promised to marry Wheeler and this fact makes the campaign a bitter one.

A Great Blessing to be Freed of Indigestion

For Years He Suffered After Almost Every Meal—Attributes Complete Cure to Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The experience of many people who suffer from indigestion is like that of the writer of this letter. Stomach medicines may bring some relief, but chronic indigestion is almost invariably the result of derangements of the liver, kidneys and bowels, and cannot be actually cured until these organs are set right.

With the liver sluggish there is constipation, and the food ferments in the bowels instead of being absorbed. This is the cause of pain and suffering, and the source of such dreaded diseases as appendicitis, peritonitis, and kidney disease. It is much better to be on the safe side and prevent such ailments by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

CRIMINAL DETECTION

This includes the very involved and difficult methods of criminal detection exemplified by the Bertillon system.

JAPANESE LINER RESCUES PERSONS ON BOARD NILE
Tokio, Jan. 12.—The steamer Eukufu Maru reports by wireless that she has rescued and is bringing to Kobe 170 persons, comprising all the passengers and the crew of the P. and O. steamship Nile, which ran ashore on a reef in the Inland Sea early Monday morning. It is believed the Nile sank after she was pulled off the reef near Iwakima. The vessel was on a voyage from London to Yokohama.

Shipping News from Day to Day

SCHEDULE OF AKI IS ALTERED ONCE MORE
Repairs to Nippon Liner Are Very Extensive, Leaving Japan Eight Days Late

Owing to the extensive repairs which have to be carried out on her, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Aki Maru, Capt. Nomura, will sail from Yokohama for Victoria and Puget Sound ports eight days behind her schedule. In order that there might be no interruption in the service of the company the officials had already arranged to switch the sailings of the Aki Maru and Shidzuka Maru from Japan, but this arrangement did not fully meet the requirements and the former's departure from Yokohama has been set back eight days.

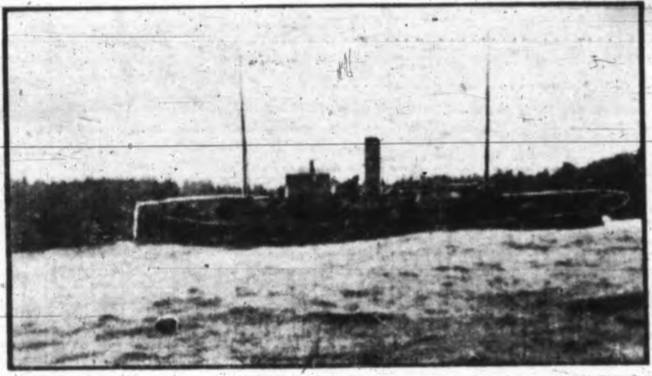

ORDER BOX SHOOKS FROM LOCAL MILLS
Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Co. to Send 4,000 Tons to Liverpool

Replacing the steamship Deucalion as the second ship to come to Victoria in the new service of the Blue Funnel line from Liverpool via the Panama canal, the Astyanax is due to clear from the Mersey on January 20. This information was received this morning by H. B. Davenport, local agent of the company. The Astyanax is expected to reach this port on March 6 and will sail on her outward voyage on March 27.

ASTYANAX TO FOLLOW MOYUNE TO VICTORIA
Blue Funnel Liner to Leave Liverpool January 30; Big Outward Cargoes

The Moyune, sailing from Liverpool on January 3, is inaugurating the new service, and her first port of call on the trip will be at Kingston, Jamaica. From there she will proceed through the canal and up the Pacific coast to San Pedro, and later to San Francisco. The Moyune will then head for Victoria, and the agents look for her arrival here on February 7. The steamship is not bringing a very heavy cargo to this port, being about half full. She has 100 tons of freight consigned to Victoria, but it is reported that she will also discharge her Seattle cargo at the outer docks.

FISHERY CRUISER GALIANO AS SHE LIES ON BEACH

This picture was taken from the Times' launch on Sunday morning, when there was quite a sea running. Shortly after the vessel struck the waves were so high that they dashed right over her. The Galiano is still ashore.

The Aki Maru is the only ship to be badly battered by storms so far this winter. All the other trans-Pacific vessels have succeeded in dodging the Mexico Maru, of the Osaka fleet, was hit by a big sea on her last inward voyage and suffered slight damage to her side.

supply has been abruptly shut off. The importer's agents will look for a new source and this port has been awarded the contract.

BARQUE WULFF JUST BEFORE SHE WAS FLOATED

Refusing the assistance of the tugboats Swell and Protective, which were standing by, Capt. Torkelsen, master of the Norwegian windjammer, sent his men about to spread some canvas, and with the assistance of an off-shore breeze and a small gasoline boat, reached a point of safety.

SALVORS FAILED TO PULL OFF GALIANO

Attempt to Float Cruiser Today Failed; Sand is Banking Against Her

Despite the persistent efforts of H. M. C. S. Rainbow and two smaller vessels to float her from beach on to which she was driven during the strong gale early Sunday morning, the fishery cruiser Galiano was still ashore this afternoon. At high water this morning the Rainbow ran a stout hawser ashore to the Galiano and it was made fast on her foremast. Two small steamers fastened lines to the after part of the wrecked vessel. But despite the violent tugs and heavy strains the Galiano refused to leave the beach and the sand has banked up against the ship's side and wedged her in. The Galiano has steam up in her boilers to-day. A gasoline pump was placed aboard yesterday and the water below was pumped out of her.
