The above witness is listed as above in our card index and files, as a witness for UMEZU and DOHIFURU. Mr. Sutton writes us under 7 April that heretofore we gave him a list showing ISOGAI, Reisuke as a witness for said defendants.

He also states ISOGAYA, Reisuke is a witness for UMEZU.

Mr. Sutton asks if this is the same person or not and if so what is the correct name.

Please ascertain if possible.

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your memorandum dated 7 April 1947 concerning the above styled subject. The matter was referred to Mr. Shimojima, who advises me that the names ISOGAI and ISOGAYA are interchangeable, but that the better practice is to use the latter name. He further advises me that the name Tensuke was a typographical error and that the correct name is Rensuke.
