

GAMES AND SPORTS

THOSE WHO GIVE THE PUBLIC SPEAKER CLOSE ATTENTION MUST BE VERSATILE

Editor News: In Glendale, as in Southern California generally, there is nothing monotonous except the climate, and even when that becomes too uniformly pleasant, Jupiter Pluvius shakes up a cloud or two and precipitates a considerable mess of moisture into our midst to attract attention, break the monotony, and to insure sweeter oranges, fatter lemons, greener and more luxuriant alfalfa and happiness and prosperity in general.

This is the great everyday playground of the United States; the games that are played are various and diverse. The motor fiend hies himself to an auto race, watches over-alled, be-goggled men try to tear a wheel off, break all records, and perform hair-raising stunts generally, then goes home, tunes up his own little private gasoline-cart, loads his family in, then winds his way along the beautiful boulevards and roads, over vale and hill, over the mountains and down to the sea, drinking in God's fresh air and sunshine, and feasting the eyes on the wonderful panoramic landscape. The small boys discuss Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Kid Ehmke, John Galt and Christy Mathewson, then hie themselves to a vacant lot to play "the game," if there are "men" enough, if not "old cat"; the older boys and girls to the courts to play tennis or basketball; the grown-ups to the green to play golf and give their nether extremities the exercise that nature demands, and which constant automobile riding denies them.

We, as more or less disinterested individuals, can avail ourselves of any spare moments we may possess to watch any, or all, of these sports; or we can watch father and his cronies hurl the lithesome horseshoe through the ambient atmosphere and grow excited on the momentous occasion when he throws a "ringer," and we can give each and every one of them our close and undivided attention. But! The man or woman who can attend any kind of a public meeting in this enlightened day and age and can give the speaker rapt and undivided attention, must, indeed, be a marvelous listener and versatile sport.

The other night the writer attended the Brown and Curry tabernacle meeting, and, being detained, arrived after the services were well begun, so occupied a rear seat. He attended five distinct "services," only one of which in any way resembled a religious service.

Almost directly in front, and two rows of seats forward, sat two young men, one of whom felt called upon to pat himself upon the head (nice soft patting, I'll admit), shake himself, jostle up and down, and make audible comments whenever the evangelist made any remark or statement of a humorous nature. Apparently fearing that the evangelist might get too much in the limelight, the aforesaid young man amused (?) himself and a couple of young women by turning his coat-collar up, pretending to shiver, and slapping himself with his arms, as if trying to keep from freezing. Also noticing that he held the attention of the two young women against the combined attractions of the evangelists and their own escort, he varied the monotony (?) by hugging the other young man, and tickling him under the chin. Oh, he was some gay Lothario. To render the spectacle more disgusting, the young woman smiled approval, and to a small extent attempted to imitate his antics. These were side-show numbers one and two.

A young couple came in late and sat on the end of the same seat as the writer. The girl chewed gum and giggled almost incessantly. The young man, when they were not mutually engaged in animated conversation, amused himself, if not others, by hugging the girl, or by scuffling with her over something she held in her hand, but which she managed each time to conceal in her clothing somewhere under her chin. Classy side-show number three.

To prevent the service palling and becoming insipid, two small boys kept running in and out at the corner door, allowing it to slam after them, and conversing in very audible whispers while they were inside. This performance was repeated at least a half dozen times. Side attraction number four.

Another instance might be cited as, to say the least, a lack of courtesy to the speaker. During the closing prayer some people of middle age arose from their places well forward in the audience and left the tabernacle.

This little sketch tells you how much the writer saw of the side attractions, and, to prove his own versatility, will state that he also

THE GLEANERS' CLASS

Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons entertained the Gleaners' class of the West Glendale Sunday school with a party at the home of Mrs. Lyons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wightman of Sixth and Central, on Thursday evening. This was one of the largest and most interesting gatherings yet held by the class, about forty young people being present to enjoy the evening. There was a short business session first, the new officers of the class having been elected at the last meeting a month ago, and it was decided to pay certain missionary offerings heretofore voted upon. Afterwards there were a number of jolly games played and several excellent musical numbers were enjoyed, among which were a couple of Irish songs by Miss Clara Midcaif, several piano selections by Miss Patterson, and a solo by Mr. George Lyons. The decorations and dainty refreshments were all carried out in St. Patrick's day colors, and the guests left declaring that they had spent a most happy evening.

G. T. CLUB

Mrs. J. Roman of 610 South Brand boulevard entertained the G. T. club on Wednesday afternoon of this week. English wallflowers made very pretty decoration for the rooms and a very pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies in needlework and chat. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess during the afternoon. Those of the club who were able to be present were Mrs. F. H. Vesper, Mrs. John W. Usilton, Mrs. Earl Naudain, Mrs. Chester Kling, Mrs. J. C. Waite, Mrs. Leon Wilkinson of Los Angeles and the hostess.

heard what the evangelist had to say. A public speaker has considerable with which to contend in attempting to hold the attention of even the interested members of his audience, because of their varied beliefs and attitudes regarding the subject he discusses.

The writer often wonders if some people ever stop to think that these little discourtesies have the same significance to the public speaker that it would to them if some one constantly interrupted them as they tried to tell something, or, if they were playing games, some intruder came and threw a ball through the tennis or basketball court, the croquet ground, the baseball diamond, or golf course during the progress of a game; and to the audience the same aggravating significance as the individual who always stands up in front at any public gathering.

Thursday Mr. Browne won one of the best singles games he ever played, winning the game from Wynn Mace in a match replete with thrills, his standing being 7-5 and 6-3.

FRAUDULENT AGENTS

Glendale like other cities is being visited by fraudulent agents, who have a smooth story to tell, and many citizens are induced to spend money for articles that are of no real benefit to them. A few days ago a man claiming to be working under the direction of United States government officials was asking residents to subscribe for a book that had nothing to do with the United States government. The officers are after him.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET

CONTRACT LET FOR BUILDING LOCKERS AT INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL BUILDING

The regular meeting of the school trustees was held Thursday evening at their office in the Third street school. A. B. Heacock, president, and John Todd, clerk, present. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Supt. R. D. White reported that he had taken the matter up with the city council in regard to the alley referred to at last meeting, but that no definite action has been taken by the council.

Following instructions from the county superintendent, the money obtained from the sale of the buildings sold off of the Third street property, was ordered placed in the special school fund.

Trustee Todd reported that satisfactory arrangements had been made with Contractor May in regard to the completion of the Pacific avenue school.

Architect Westlake was ordered to prepare plans and specifications for a heating plant to be installed for the new addition to the Central avenue school and to secure bids for the same.

Mr. C. K. Robertshaw was awarded the contract for building and installing 150 lockers at the Intermediate school, the price to be $3.75 each.

Warrants were ordered drawn to pay the officers of the election board who served at the recent bond election.

Trustee Todd was authorized to have drawing tables made for use in the manual training school. The following claims were allowed and ordered paid:

- W. M. Wright, $3.
- Glendale Paint & Paper Co., $4.47.
- City of Glendale, $24.44.
- O. Spencer, $6.85.
- Cunningham, Curtis & Welsh, $17.
- So. Cal. Gas Co., $3.26.
- M. F. McFadden, $45.
- E. K. Daniels, $122.
- C. F. Weber Co., $224.40.
- E. K. Daniels, $81.40.

POULTRY FANCIERS MEET

A meeting of the Glendale-Tropico Poultry association was held at the Tropico city hall Thursday night and while the attendance was not large, the interest was good and demonstrated that the enthusiasm of the first annual show is not likely to die out.

Major C. Devonshire, a man of many years experience as a poultry breeder and who has several large commercial plants in Southern California, spoke on "Incubation" and his address was very entertaining and instructive. Mr. R. V. Moore, the well known pigeon and rabbit judge, read an excellent paper on squab breeding.

The next meeting will be held in Glendale on April 15. The general public is invited to attend these meetings and will find them very interesting and instructive.

ENJOY CALIFORNIA

After a very pleasant visit with his parents, with much sight seeing, and being entertained in Los Angeles by old friends, Mr. George Shugart and wife left this morning for San Diego to spend a few days at the exposition, returning will visit San Francisco exposition.

They are much pleased with the cordial reception given them by the residents of the Sunny Southland and are delighted with the climate and country. They will return to Chicago with many pleasant remembrances of California.

HONORIS NIECE

Mrs. E. S. McKee of 1428 West Colorado boulevard gave a pleasant little party Thursday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Clifford Clannen. Violets and jonquills were tastefully arranged about the rooms and a delightful luncheon was served at one, dainty place cards and favors carrying out the same color scheme as the flowers. Covers were laid for Mrs. Clannen, Mrs. Goodman Phillips, Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. Plummer Van Sant, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Shinkle, Mrs. Frank Buchanan, Mrs. Purser, Mrs. J. E. McKee, Mrs. Planette, Mrs. Salo Desky, Mrs. George Daniels, Mrs. Purce Curtis, Mrs. E. H. Kerker, Mrs. Robt. McMullin and the hostess.

CARS BLOCK TRAFFIC

Contrary to instructions of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale, the Broadway P. E. cars are left standing too close to the corner at the Roberts & Echols pharmacy, making it difficult for traffic to be carried on between the car and the sidewalk. A position about three rods farther east would be more satisfactory to all concerned.

TROPICO NEWS ITEMS

CHURCH AND SOCIAL NOTES CONTRIBUTED BY REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

Go-to-church Sunday will be observed in Tropic at the First Methodist church. Several persons are to be received into membership at the morning service and evangelistic services in keeping with the spirit of the Brown and Curry meetings will be held in the evening. Dr. R. T. Smith, pastor, will preach in the morning on "God and Light." Special music will be given by the chorus choir and Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore will sing the offertory. The theme of the evening will be "An Important Question by a Great Man." The church orchestra will furnish several selections and Dr. P. O. Lucas will render a solo. Miss Helene Constance Morgan, the brilliant young pianist of Tropic, will preside at the piano.

Mrs. A. W. Dow of Glendale entertained at dinner Thursday, when her guests of honor were Mrs. F. I. Marsh of Tropic and Mrs. D. M. Stewart of San Diego. Mrs. Stewart was formerly of Tropic and the occasion was a very happy one in the renewal of old friendships.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. Middleton, whose marriage was a recent event in Los Angeles, have located in the Gardena tract.

Mrs. M. M. Cole was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Cole, who has been in the North for over a year, was most cordially welcomed back among her host of friends. After the business hour a resume of the last year's work of the society was most ably given by Mrs. C. E. Hoskyns of Glendale, closing with an informal reception to Mrs. Cole and the serving of refreshments.

The Philathea class of the First Methodist church will hold their monthly meeting tonight at the home of Miss Elsie M. Anderson, 510 Virginia place.

Mrs. W. M. Kimball of Maple avenue was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon club Thursday. The afternoon was replete with interesting things beginning with the business session, over which Miss Cora Hickman so ably presided in the absence of Mrs. Chas. Barker, who is ill. A spirited and helpful discussion on the question of incorporating occupied most of the session. Mrs. Harry Bowman, as chairman of the program committee, introduced Miss Helen Babson, whose talk on "The Making of a Young Woman" was most attentively listened to and the speaker was most enthusiastically received and complimented. The social hour and the serving of delicious refreshments concluded the program. Mrs. Kimball was assisted by Mrs. Robt. Kimball, Mrs. C. O. Pulliam and Mrs. C. H. Woolsey.

QUILT MAKING BY CLUB

The Neighborhood Thimble club met with Mrs. Dan Mallett of 321 East Second street Thursday afternoon. The house was very prettily decorated with acacia blossoms, jonquils and roses and a cafeteria luncheon was served at noon. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in sewing and chat. The club is making a quilt to be given to some needy person when it is completed, and some of the ladies worked on that.

Among those present were Mrs. F. W. H. Dow, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Mrs. Claude Case and her mother, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Winters, Mrs. Geo. Allen, Mrs. W. N. McMillan, Mrs. Squires, Mrs. A. D. McCoy, Mrs. W. H. Watson, Miss Mallett, Mrs. A. P. Knight and the hostess; also little Gordon Campbell, Gerald Dow and Beatrice Case. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Geo. Allen, 210 East First street.

BOYS BROUGHT TO JUSTICE

Eight boys yet in their teens who reside in Glendale and Tropic have come under the clutches of the law, now they are busy returning stolen automobile accessories. The story runs that these boys have been serving as agents for a Los Angeles professional thief, and therefore have been turning over stolen articles to their manager.

A rendezvous in the hills south of Glendale served as a hiding place for the stolen goods which comprised automobile lamps, tires, magnetoes, tools, etc. The boys were of a destructive turn and destroyed everything they could not dispose of for money. Chief Herald has the names of the eight boys, all of whom are diligently working under his direction to return the stolen articles that they may be saved from severe punishment.

DISCUSS SCHOOL SITE

MOTHERS OF BROADWAY DISTRICT INTERESTED IN LOCATION OF SCHOOL

The regular meeting of the Broadway Parent-Teacher association was held Thursday afternoon and there was a very good attendance. Mrs. Cora Taylor, principal of the Columbus avenue school, was present and read a paper on "The Boy from the Mother's and the Teacher's Standpoint." This was a most interesting paper and was very helpful to every mother present. It is not easy for the mother to look at the boy from the teacher's standpoint, and it is difficult for the teacher to look at the boy from the mother's standpoint, but Mrs. Taylor being both a mother and a teacher, is able to look at the subject in an impartial manner and her paper was indeed very interesting and helpful.

Mrs. P. S. McNutt, parliamentarian of the association and a delegate to the reciprocity day meeting in Pasadena, presented her splendid report to the association.

Mrs. A. C. Anderson, president of the association, presided in her usual charming manner and dainty refreshments were served after the program.

The question of the location of the new school was very generally discussed, some of the ladies who expressed their opinions on the subject being Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Mrs. T. W. Preston, Mrs. P. A. C. Moore and Mrs. Morehouse. It seemed to be the general opinion of those present that the site now under contemplation by the school board is not the best one that might be chosen, inasmuch as it is so far from the center of the district, being only a block and a half from the west and south boundaries.

The Broadway school is to be abandoned as a school site for several good reasons. The widening of East Broadway, an improvement soon to be undertaken by the city, will cut a large slice from the Broadway school ground frontage, destroy the large trees and in other ways make the place undesirable as a school. The extension of the Pacific Electric railway east on Broadway to the Childs tract line will bring the new station just opposite the Broadway school. It seems best for these reasons and others to abandon this location.

The Broadway school district embraces all the territory east of a line drawn north on Everett street from Lomita to Broadway, west on Broadway to Jackson, north on Jackson to First. The Doran street school cares for the pupils in that immediate vicinity up to the third grade. Older pupils must attend the only other school in the district. In discussing the question, Mrs. Meeker said personally she would favor the proposed site, as it would be very convenient for her own children, but as a matter of justice she favored having the school located in a part of the district more easy of access from all points. The lots under discussion are located in a large tract of land as yet unsubdivided. This tract is bounded by Verdugo road, Ninth street, Adams street and Colorado boulevard, and embraces several ranches of fifteen acres or more. The proposed school site would have no frontage on any of these streets, being located in the rear of residences fronting Adams street.

There are few houses in the immediate vicinity of this site. The children from the more thickly settled part of the city further east, where subdivision has already been made, would have no direct road to school without going as far south as Ninth street or north to Colorado boulevard. Children from the thickly settled region in the neighborhood of Sycamore canyon would almost be prohibited from attending school on account of the distance.

The present Broadway school is very centrally located in the district, but as stated before, conditions make it necessary to abandon that site.

Mrs. Preston stated that they had offered for sale a very choice site from their Adams street ranch at the corner of Adams and Lomita, thinking that the law required the school to be located in that vicinity. When she learned the boundaries of the district, Mrs. Preston stated that she thought it would be a great injustice to have the school located there. Other ladies brought out the point that the building of the school in the southwest part of the district would mean bonds for a new school in the northern part of the district or an addition to the Doran street school and the people of Glendale are not ready to vote more bonds just now.

Others objected to the proposed site on the ground that the waters of the Sycamore canyon wash which run through the site would make it undesirable for a school if not actually dangerous to the younger children in times of high water.

REGULAR MISSIONARY MEETING

Tuesday afternoon, March 16, the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its regular monthly meeting. This proved to be one of more than usual interest and the ladies were eager and ready for all lines of the work.

"Forward march to greater victory" was the keynote of the service. Very interesting reports were given of the annual Presbyterian meeting in Los Angeles March 9th, 10th and 11th. Following this a rare treat was had in an address by Mrs. Jouronski of Los Angeles. Mrs. Jouronski works under the auspices of the International Institute, which is a branch of the Y. W. C. A., and at present is a visitor to the Russian colony of five thousand people in Los Angeles. It is a treat to hear this devoted young woman tell of her work among the peasants, who are untrained and prejudiced against medical assistance, and yet who prove so grateful when they see the results of care and skill and the message of right living. Mrs. Jouronski said it filled her heart with gratitude to God that she was permitted to have a part in this important work.

At the close of the address Mrs. Thomas lead in a prayer of earnest petition that we as Americans and Christians should strive to give these people what they hope for and expect from us.

ASK INFORMATION

The question is being asked as to what Adam and Eve's telephone number was. The best authority says it was 281 Apple. Ask information whether you should call through the Home or Sunset exchange.

It is the wish of every patriotic parent that his child shall stand in the front ranks of the business world. To get these results, the teacher, the parent and the child must work together. Open mutiny with the school means hindrance to the child to attain this high standing. There should be close unity. Consult freely on these subjects which will largely determine the welfare of the future of the child. If your child is not doing well in school it is your duty to see the teacher and help her devise plans which will remedy the evil. "Don't! Don't," pour your wrath on the teacher at the supper table in the presence of the children. It only means that your children will reap what you sow for them. They will have no confidence in the teacher, cause trouble in school, and lose all interest in learning. If the evil exists in school see the teacher and it will be made right.—Venice Vanguard.

Very strange it seems that men will grow up in the same neighborhood, be educated at the same school, mingle in the same society, and then when municipal questions of importance come up for consideration these men will differ in opinion as to the merits of the question.

Mrs. C. W. Spickerman of 236 North Maryland avenue is entertaining Miss Lida Castle of Minneapolis, Minn., today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Thompson of 1545 West Broadway, spent a couple of days at Santa Monica the first part of the week, where they enjoyed a very pleasant little vacation.

Mr. George Blyth of Tropico has just returned from Tucson, Arizona, where he has been visiting Mrs. Blyth, who is ill in a sanitarium of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurd of Kenosha, Wisconsin, parents of Mrs. LeRoy H. Harrod, are expected to arrive this evening to spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Harrod at their home, 124 North Louise street.

Fred Thompson of 1314 West Fifth street returned home recently from a month's business trip to Chicago, and Indianapolis. He found old winter still lingering most decidedly in the East and was glad, indeed, to get back to beautiful Glendale with its balmy spring weather.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Besides being noted for its beauty, Lincoln avenue in the eastern part of the city of Glendale is the home of very fine poultry—not the common, speckled, screeching variety—but the real pure birds that are admired by all poultry fanciers.

To assure our readers that Lincoln avenue chickens really have some class to them, it is only necessary to say that Eugene Brown is one of the owners of a fine lot of chickens.

The sad part about the whole affair is that on Thursday morning before daylight chicken thieves visited that section of Glendale and stole about seventy-five chickens.

Persons whose roosts were visited were John Melvor, Eugene Brown, Mrs. R. H. Brown, Edward Beck and S. Van Grove. Some kind of a soothing preparation must have been used to quiet the chickens for they made no noise when being taken away.

On Thursday afternoon men were seen and interviewed in the Lincoln avenue neighborhood who seemed rather suspicious. These gentlemen made the pretense to be inquiring about real estate, but seemed to give more attention to chicken coops than to real estate. One man was about thirty-five years of age, brown mustache, a dark brown suit and was short in stature. The other man was about sixty years of age, with gray mustache.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Redman of the McIntyre apartments will be the dinner guests this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower of 133 South Jackson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts of 707 West Seventh street, will entertain a number of friends with a little party tomorrow evening.

OLIVES USEFUL AS FOOD

That the ripe olive is a perfect substitute for food is a statement that Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, formerly chief chemist of the United States, and originator of the pure food act, has written to the California ripe olive day committee. In discussing the value of the ripe olive, Dr. Wiley calls attention to the high percentage of pure olive oil that it contains, ranging from 40 to 60 per cent. He declares it by far the most important of edible oils and calls attention to the fact that it has been able to keep its place in popular favor against cheaper vegetable oils since the dawn of civilization, because of the fact that it possesses certain peculiar and superior qualities.

"The ripe olive," Dr. Wiley states, "containing as it does, when ready

MORE GENEROUS SPIRIT NEEDED

Have you ever taken time to observe that those cities and towns, in California and elsewhere, that are going ahead—building up each succeeding year, adding to their beauty and attractiveness as a place in which to transact business, labor at various occupations and make one's dwelling place—are the ones in which there is a goodly number of big, whole-souled, far-seeing men and women capable of overlooking, forgetting and avoiding petty local differences and aiming all the while at the accomplishment of something that will be of benefit to the entire community? asks the Santa Monica Outlook. Have you also noticed, in those live towns with which you are best acquainted that the go-ahead spirit is fostered largely through the working of personages who know of no such word as "fail," when they set out to do something for their home town or city, and do you not appreciate the fact that without such personages in a place it is not likely to make any headway, municipally, socially, financially, educationally, industrially or otherwise?

In a California publication of the present month there are mentions made of an even 100 cities and towns of the state, these under the caption
"What Pacific Coast Cities Are Doing." Practically all of the paragraphs contained in this symposium give information of industrial activity, of progress made towards attaining needed public buildings, for which bonds have recently been voted for larger, more important pieces of improvement of public facilities or something else that indicates the existence in the places named of a genuine, wide-awake, go-ahead spirit such as would have a tendency, of itself, to attract the man who is seeking a place in which to engage in a trade, business or profession secure lots and erect a home or otherwise identify himself with one of those towns or cities.

The laudable objects attained in these California communities were not secured by a bunch of men living in one end of the place devoting a large portion of their time to knocking persistently, perhaps, maliciously, those of another part of the town. The good things being obtained by these places mentioned in the publication alluded to above were not the result of envy, jealousy, sore-headedness, injection into whatever came up for consideration by the public of old sore spots, of scraps that occurred a generation ago, of ill-timed, irrelevant, immaterial, inconsistent argument and bitter wrangles over matters that should long ago have been given to the teeth of time. No, that was not the way any of the municipal achievements of these California localities were thus brought about.

ONLY JOKING

A negro bricklayer in Macon, Ga., was lying down during the noon hour sleeping in the hot sun. The clock struck one, the time to pick up his hod again. He rose, stretched, and grumbled:
"I wish I wuz daid. 'Tain' nothin' but wuk, wuk, from mornin' tell night."
Another man, a story above, heard the complaint and dropped a brick on the grumbler's head. Dazed, he looked up and said:
"Da Lawd can't stan' no jokes; he

BUSINESS SITUATION REVIEWED

There are increasing evidences that business is showing a tendency to improve in certain parts of the world, although steadily declining in the warring countries and in those in close proximity to them. In the United States the steel industry is showing greater activity. Reports of steel mill business are not always trustworthy, inasmuch as some often resume for a few weeks only to close down again when certain contracts have been finished and new ones fail to appear. However, for some time past news of larger steel mill operations have been persistent and there seems to be no doubt that an actual and decided betterment is taking place in the trade. In the equipment lines business has probably never been more slack than at present.
However, the railroads are handling a somewhat heavier traffic, earnings reports are better than they were,
and the equipment companies consequently should in time enjoy greater activity.

The extent of the moderate improvement under way in general business apparently depends most largely on the duration of the war and the magnitude and quality of this year's crops. Depressed business and the new currency law have combined to bring about a great supply of idle money. However, on account of the war, investors are extremely conservative in giving capital permanent employment. Nations in various parts of the world, and many municipalities in Canada, have lately applied to United States bankers for funds. This state of affairs no doubt will be accentuated with the continuance of the war. The European countries engaged in hostilities already have issued something like $6,000,000,000 war loans, and new ones are pending. The indebtedness increase for the five principal countries at war amounts to more than 25 per cent. These countries are not only impoverishing themselves by waste and destruction but, with their buying power immeasurably decreased, neutral countries are certain to share the burden of future years. For

Quality-Compare-Prices

THE old Olympic Game promoters were great for what we call "form." Symmetry, proportion, soundness and proper balance out-bid bulging muscles for favor—yes, and out-won, too, just as they will today.

Mere bulk never was synonymous with endurance—and the truth of this statement drives home with a bang, when you apply it to tires.

IF thick, heavy tires were the last word in tire construction, we could wipe out of existence a Goodrich Research and Test Department employing seventy people. We would take off the road a battalion of ten automobiles, that run twenty-four hours a day and every day in the year, grinding tires of all makes to pieces, just for the sake of information to us and eventual economy to the user of Goodrich Tires.

There is where we learn to cut out of a tire
the material which gets the user nothing.
Of course, when we stripped tire price lists of their padding—fictitious values—we expected rivals to say we had stripped our tires.

Note the following table of comparative prices on non-skid tires. Columns headed "A," "B," "C" and "D" represent four highly-advertised tires:

Size	Goodrich Safety Tread	OTHER MAKES
		"A"	"B"	"C"	"D"
30x3	$ 9.45	$10.55	$10.95	$16.35	$18.10
30x3 1/2	12.20	13.35	14.20	21.70	23.60
32x3 1/2	14.00	15.40	16.30	22.85	25.30
34x4	20.35	22.30	23.80	31.15	33.55
36x4 1/2	28.70	32.15	33.60	41.85	41.40
37x5	33.90	39.80	41.80	49.85	52.05

If you are charged less for any other make than Goodrich, they are taking it out of the tire; if you are charged more, they are taking it out of you.

The Goodrich Tire, like the trained athlete is all brawn and muscle—no fat

IT was their only "come-back." They had to say that, in stripping down prices to the point where they were fair to dealer and consumer and left no room for injurious price-cutting tactics, we had stripped our tires of some quality, too.

THE Goodrich Tire, like the trained athlete, is all brawn and muscle—no fat. It represents an achievement—the ability to cut out the extra costs of manufacture, the extra costs of labor, of extra, needless material, and to give you the best, long-mileage, high-standard tire in the world.

There are padded tires as well as padded price lists.
Don't pay for padding.
Now don't forget this—we are talking in the main about Goodrich Safety Tread Tires, for they represent ninety per cent of our factory output for resale.

Furthermore, while we have put the padded prices on smooth tread tires on the run, the evil of padded prices on non-skid tires still is in evidence, as shown in table below:
